BUDGET AND STAFFING PLAN

If the parties consent or the court so directs, a staffing plan approved by the client in advance should generally be attached to each interim and final fee application filed by the applicant. If the fees are sought in the fee application for a greater number of professionals than identified in the staffing plan, the fee application should explain the variance.

For the fiscal year ending 2018, non-estate work represented approximately 2-3% of the Firm's revenues. In 2019, non-estate work represented approximately 4-5% of the Firm's revenues, and in 2020, it is expected that non-estate work will represent approximately 4-5% of the Firm's revenues.

AGREED SCHEDULING ORDER
REGARDING OBJECTIONS TO PROOF OF CLAIM OF ACIS CAPITAL
MANAGEMENT, L.P. AND ACIS CAPITAL MANAGEMENT GP, LLC

On August 19, 2020, the Court held a status conference (the "Status Conference") on the Objection to Proof of Claim of Acis Capital Management L.P. and Acis Capital Management GP, LLC [Docket No. 771] (the "Debtor's Objection") filed by Highland Capital Management, L.P. (the "Debtor"), the debtor and debtor-in-possession in the above-captioned bankruptcy case (the "Bankruptcy Case"). Through the Debtor's Objection, the Debtor has objected to Proof of

¹ The Debtor's last four digits of its taxpayer identification number are (6725). The headquarters and service address for the above-captioned Debtor is 300 Crescent Court, Suite 700, Dallas, TX 75201.

Claim No. 3 (the “Acis Claim”) filed by claimants Acis Capital Management, L.P. and Acis Capital Management GP, LLC (collectively, “Acis”) in the Bankruptcy Case. Subsequent to the filing of the Debtor’s Objection, James Dondero (“Dondero”) filed James Dondero’s (i) Objection to Proof of Claim of Acis Capital Management, L.P. and Acis Capital Management GP, LLC; and (ii) Joinder in Support of Highland Capital Management, L.P.’s Objection to Proof of Claim of Acis Capital Management L.P. and Acis Capital Management GP, LLC [Docket No. 827] (the “Dondero Objection”), and UBS Securities LLC and UBS AG, London Branch (collectively, “UBS”, and collectively with the Debtor, Acis, and Dondero, the “Parties”) filed the UBS (i) Objection to Proof of Claim of Acis Capital Management L.P. and Acis Capital Management GP, LLC and (ii) Joinder in the Debtor’s Objection [Docket No. 891] (the “UBS Objection”, and collectively with the Dondero Objection and the Debtor Objection, the “Claim Objections”). In response to the Claim Objections, Acis filed the Omnibus Response to Objection to Proof of Claim of Acis Capital Management, L.P. and Acis Capital Management GP, LLC [Docket No. 908] (the “Acis Response”). At the Status Conference, the Parties’ respective counsel discussed with the Court the terms of a proposed scheduling order governing the filing and litigation of certain dispositive motions related to the Claim Objections, the terms of which are set forth in this Order (the “Scheduling Order”) and have been agreed to by the Parties as evidenced by the signatures of the Parties’ respective counsel as set forth below. Based on the agreement of the Parties, the Court finds there is good cause to enter this Scheduling Order. It is therefore ORDERED that:

1. On or before September 16, 2020, both the Debtor and Acis shall file with the Court their respective motions for summary judgment (each, a “Summary Judgment Motion”), if any, on the Debtor’s Objection to the Acis Claim.

2. Any of the Parties—including both UBS and Dondero—may file a response (each, a “Summary Judgment Response”), if any, to a Summary Judgment Motion no later than 21 days after the date the Summary Judgment Motion is filed with the Court.

3. Except as otherwise expressly stated in this Scheduling Order, any Summary Judgment Motion or Summary Judgment Response filed with the Court must comply with the deadlines, requirements, and limitations set forth in the applicable Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”) and the Local Bankruptcy Rules of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas (the “Local Rules”).

4. The Court will hold a hearing on any timely filed Summary Judgment Motion and Summary Judgment Response on Tuesday, October 20, 2020 at 9:30 a.m. (Central Time).

5. The Court shall retain jurisdiction over all matters arising from or related to the interpretation or implementation of this Scheduling Order.

the Claimant Trust Oversight Committee may be removed, and successor chosen, in the manner set forth in the Claimant Trust Agreement.

3. Purpose of the Claimant Trust.

The Claimant Trust shall be established for the purpose of (i) managing and monetizing the Claimant Trust Assets, subject to the terms of the Claimant Trust Agreement and the oversight of the Claimant Trust Oversight Committee, (ii) serving as the limited partner of, and holding the limited partnership interests in, the Reorganized Debtor, (iii) serving as the sole member and manager of New GP LLC, the Reorganized Debtor's general partner, (iv) in its capacity as the sole member and manager of New GP LLC, overseeing the management and monetization of the Reorganized Debtor Assets pursuant to the terms of the Reorganized Limited Partnership Agreement; and (v) administering the Disputed Claims Reserve and serving as Distribution Agent.

The purpose of the Reorganized Debtor is discussed at greater length in ARTICLE IV.C.

4. Claimant Trustee and Claimant Trust Agreement.

The Claimant Trust Agreement generally will provide for, among other things:

- (i) the payment of the Claimant Trust Expenses;
- (ii) the payment of other reasonable expenses of the Claimant Trust;
- (iii) the retention of employees, counsel, accountants, financial advisors, or other professionals and the payment of their reasonable compensation;
- (iv) the investment of Cash by the Claimant Trustee within certain limitations, including those specified in the Plan;
- (v) the orderly monetization of the Claimant Trust Assets;
- (vi) litigation of any Causes of Action, which may include the prosecution, settlement, abandonment, or dismissal of any such Causes of Action, subject to reporting and oversight by the Claimant Trust Oversight Committee;
- (vii) the resolution of Disputed or disallowed Claims and the allowance, prosecution, and resolution of objections to Claims and Equity Interests, subject to reporting and oversight by the Claimant Trust Oversight Committee;

(viii) the administration of the Disputed Claims Reserve and distributions to be made therefrom; and

(ix) the management of the Reorganized Debtor, including the utilization of a Sub-Servicer, with the Claimant Trust serving as the managing member of New GP LLC.

Except as otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court, the Claimant Trust Expenses shall be paid from the Claimant Trust Assets in accordance with the Plan and Claimant Trust Agreement. The Claimant Trustee may establish a reserve for the payment of Claimant Trust Expenses and shall periodically replenish such reserve, as necessary.

The Trustees, on behalf of the Claimant Trust, may each employ, without further order of the Bankruptcy Court, employees and other professionals (including those previously retained by the Debtor and the Committee) to assist in carrying out the Trustees' duties hereunder and may compensate and reimburse the reasonable expenses of these professionals without further Order of the Bankruptcy Court from the Claimant Trust Assets in accordance with the Plan and the Claimant Trust Agreement.

The Claimant Trust Agreement may include reasonable and customary provisions that allow for indemnification by the Claimant Trust in favor of the Claimant Trustee, Litigation Trustee, and the Claimant Trust Oversight Committee. Any such indemnification shall be the sole responsibility of the Claimant Trust and payable solely from the Claimant Trust Assets.

In furtherance of, and consistent with the purpose of, the Claimant Trust and the Plan, the Trustees, for the benefit of the Claimant Trust, shall, subject to reporting and oversight by the Claimant Trust Oversight Committee as set forth in the Claimant Trust Agreement: (i) hold the Claimant Trust Assets for the benefit of the Claimant Trust Beneficiaries, (ii) make Distributions to the Claimant Trust Beneficiaries as provided herein and in the Claimant Trust Agreement, and (iii) have the sole power and authority to prosecute and resolve any Causes of Action and objections to Claims and Equity Interests, without approval of the Bankruptcy Court. Except as otherwise provided in the Claimant Trust Agreement, the Claimant Trustee shall be responsible for all decisions and duties with respect to the Claimant Trust and the Claimant Trust Assets; provided, however, that if a Litigation Sub-Trust is created upon or after the Effective Date, the prosecution and resolution of any Estate Claims included in the Claimant Trust Assets shall be the responsibility of the Litigation Trustee. In all circumstances, the Trustees shall act in the best interests of the Claimant Trust Beneficiaries and with the same fiduciary duties as a chapter 7 trustee.

5. Compensation and Duties of Trustees.

The salient terms of each Trustee's employment, including such Trustee's duties and compensation shall be set forth in the Claimant Trust Agreement. The Trustees shall each be entitled to reasonable compensation in an amount consistent with that of similar functionaries in similar types of bankruptcy cases.

6. Cooperation of Debtor and Reorganized Debtor.

To effectively investigate, prosecute, compromise and/or settle the Claims and/or Causes of Action that constitute Claimant Trust Assets on behalf of the Claimant Trust, the Claimant Trustee, Litigation Trustee, and each of their counsel may require reasonable access to the Debtor's and Reorganized Debtor's documents, information, and work product relating to the Claimant Trust Assets. Accordingly, the Claimant Trustee and Litigation Trustee shall have reasonable access to copies of the Debtor's and Reorganized Debtor's records and information relating to the Claimant Trust Assets, including electronic records, documents or work product related to the Claims and/or Causes of Action that constitute Claimant Trust Assets.

The Debtor and Reorganized Debtor shall preserve all records, documents or work product (including all electronic records, documents, or work product) related to the Claims and/or Causes of Action that constitute Claimant Trust Assets until the earlier of (a) the dissolution of the Reorganized Debtor or (b) termination of the Claimant Trust.

7. United States Federal Income Tax Treatment of the Claimant Trust.

Unless the IRS requires otherwise, for all United States federal income tax purposes, the parties shall treat the transfer of the Claimant Trust Assets to the Claimant Trust as: (a) a transfer of the Claimant Trust Assets (other than the amounts set aside in the Disputed Claim Reserve, if the Claimant Trustee makes the election described in Section 7 below) directly to the applicable Claimant Trust Beneficiaries followed by (b) the transfer by the such Claimant Trust Beneficiaries to the Claimant Trust of such Claimant Trust Assets in exchange for the Claimant Trust Interests. Accordingly, the applicable Claimant Trust Beneficiaries shall be treated for United States federal income tax purposes as the grantors and owners of their respective share of the Claimant Trust Assets. The foregoing treatment shall also apply, to the extent permitted by applicable law, for state and local income tax purposes.

8. Tax Reporting.

(a) The Claimant Trustee shall file tax returns for the Claimant Trust treating the Claimant Trust as a grantor trust pursuant to Treasury Regulation section 1.671-4(a). The Claimant Trustee may file an election pursuant to Treasury Regulation 1.468B-9(c) to treat the Disputed Claims Reserve as a disputed ownership fund, in which case the Claimant Trustee will file federal income tax returns and pay taxes for the Disputed Claim Reserve as a separate taxable entity.

(b) The Claimant Trustee shall be responsible for payment, out of the Claimant Trust Assets, of any taxes imposed on the Claimant Trust or its assets.

(c) The Claimant Trustee shall determine the fair market value of the Claimant Trust Assets as of the Effective Date and notify the applicable Claimant Trust Beneficiaries of such valuation, and such valuation shall be used consistently for all federal income tax purposes.

(d) The Claimant Trustee shall distribute such tax information to the applicable Claimant Trust Beneficiaries as the Claimant Trustee determines is required by applicable law.

9. Claimant Trust Assets.

The Claimant Trustee shall have the exclusive right, on behalf of the Claimant Trust, to institute, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, or withdraw any and all Causes of Action included in the Claimant Trust Assets (except for the Estate Claims) without any further order of the Bankruptcy Court, and the Claimant Trustee shall have the exclusive right, on behalf of the Claimant Trust, to sell, liquidate, or otherwise monetize all Claimant Trust Assets, except as otherwise provided in this Plan or in the Claimant Trust Agreement, without any further order of the Bankruptcy Court. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Litigation Trustee shall have the exclusive right to institute, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, or withdraw any and all Estate Claims included in the Claimant Trust Assets without any further order of the Bankruptcy Court.

From and after the Effective Date, the Trustees, in accordance with section 1123(b)(3) and (4) of the Bankruptcy Code, and on behalf of the Claimant Trust, shall each serve as a representative of the Estate with respect to any and all Claimant Trust Assets, including the Causes of Action and Estate Claims, as appropriate, and shall retain and possess the right to (a) commence, pursue, settle, compromise, or abandon, as appropriate, any and all Causes of Action in any court or other tribunal and (b) sell, liquidate, or otherwise monetize all Claimant Trust Assets.

10. Claimant Trust Expenses.

From and after the Effective Date, the Claimant Trust shall, in the ordinary course of business and without the necessity of any approval by the Bankruptcy Court, pay the reasonable professional fees and expenses incurred by the Claimant Trust and any professionals retained by the Claimant Trust from the Claimant Trust Assets, except as otherwise provided in the Claimant Trust Agreement.

11. Trust Distributions to Claimant Trust Beneficiaries.

The Claimant Trustee, in its discretion, may make Trust Distributions to the Claimant Trust Beneficiaries at any time and/or use the Claimant Trust Assets or proceeds thereof, provided that such Trust Distributions or use is otherwise permitted under the terms of the Plan, the Claimant Trust Agreement, and applicable law.

12. Cash Investments.

With the consent of the Claimant Trust Oversight Committee, the Claimant Trustee may invest Cash (including any earnings thereon or proceeds therefrom) in a manner consistent with the terms of the Claimant Trust Agreement; provided, however, that such investments are investments permitted to be made by a “liquidating trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation section 301.7701-4(d), as reflected therein, or under applicable IRS guidelines, rulings or other controlling authorities.

13. Dissolution of the Claimant Trust.

The Trustees and the Claimant Trust shall be discharged or dissolved, as the case may be, at such time as: (a) the Litigation Trustee determines that the pursuit of additional Causes of Action is not likely to yield sufficient additional proceeds to justify further pursuit of such Causes of Action, (b) the Claimant Trustee determines that the pursuit of sales of other Claimant Trust Assets is not likely to yield sufficient additional proceeds to justify further pursuit of such sales of Claimant Trust Assets, (c) all objections to Disputed Claims and Equity Interests are fully resolved, (d) the Reorganized Debtor is dissolved, and (e) all Distributions required to be made by the Claimant Trustee to the Claimant Trust Beneficiaries under the Plan have been made, but in no event shall the Claimant Trust be dissolved later than three years from the Effective Date unless the Bankruptcy Court, upon motion made within the six-month period before such third anniversary (and, in the event of further extension, by order of the Bankruptcy Court, upon motion made at least six months before the end of the preceding extension), determines that a fixed period extension (not to exceed two years, together with any prior extensions, without a favorable letter ruling from the Internal Revenue Service or an opinion of counsel that any further extension would not adversely affect the status of the Claimant Trust as a liquidating trust for federal income tax purposes) is necessary to facilitate or complete the recovery on, and liquidation of, the Claimant Trust Assets.

Upon dissolution of the Claimant Trust, and pursuant to the Claimant Trust Agreement, any remaining Claimant Trust Assets that exceed the amounts required to be paid under the Plan will be transferred (in the sole discretion of the Claimant Trustee) in Cash or in-kind to the Holders of the Claimant Trust Interests as provided in the Claimant Trust Agreement.

C. The Reorganized Debtor

1. Corporate Existence

The Debtor will continue to exist after the Effective Date, with all of the powers of partnerships pursuant to the law of the State of Delaware and as set forth in the Reorganized Limited Partnership Agreement.

As set forth in the Reorganized Limited Partnership Agreement, New GP LLC will receive a fee for managing the Reorganized Debtor. Although New GP LLC will be a limited liability company, it will elect to be treated as a C-Corporation for tax purposes. Therefore, New GP LLC (and any taxable income attributable to it) will be subject to corporate income taxation on a standalone basis, which may reduce the return to Claimants.

5. Vesting of Assets in the Reorganized Debtor

Except as otherwise provided in this Plan or the Confirmation Order, on or after the Effective Date, all Reorganized Debtor Assets will vest in the Reorganized Debtor, free and clear of all Liens, Claims, charges or other encumbrances pursuant to section 1141(c) of the Bankruptcy Code except with respect to such Liens, Claims, charges and other encumbrances that are specifically preserved under this Plan upon the Effective Date.

Except as may be otherwise provided in this Plan or the Confirmation Order, the Reorganized Debtor will continue to manage the Reorganized Debtor Assets (which shall include, for the avoidance of doubt, serving as the investment manager of the Managed Funds) and may use, acquire or dispose of the Reorganized Debtor Assets and compromise or settle any Claims with respect to the Reorganized Debtor Assets without supervision or approval by the Bankruptcy Court and free of any restrictions of the Bankruptcy Code or Bankruptcy Rules.

Without limiting the foregoing, the Reorganized Debtor will pay the charges that it incurs after the Effective Date for Professionals' fees, disbursements, expenses or related support services (including reasonable fees relating to the preparation of Professional fee applications) in the ordinary course of business and without application or notice to, or order of, the Bankruptcy Court.

ARTICLE V.

TREATMENT OF EXECUTORY CONTRACTS AND UNEXPIRED LEASES

A. Assumption, Assignment, or Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases

Unless an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease: (i) was previously assumed or rejected by the Debtor pursuant to a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court entered prior to the Effective Date; (ii) previously expired or terminated pursuant to its own terms or by agreement of the parties thereto; (iii) is the subject of a motion to assume filed by the Debtor on or before the Confirmation Date; (iv) contains a change of control or similar provision that would be triggered by the Chapter 11 Case (unless such provision has been irrevocably waived); or (v) is specifically designated as a contract or lease to be assumed in the Plan Supplement, on the Effective Date, each Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease shall be deemed rejected pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, without the need for any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court, unless such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease is listed in the Plan Supplement.

At any time on or prior to the Effective Date, the Debtor or the Reorganized Debtor, as applicable, may assign (subject to applicable law) any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, as determined by the Debtor in consultation with the Committee, or the Reorganized Debtor, as applicable.

The Confirmation Order will constitute an order of the Bankruptcy Court approving the above-described assumptions, rejections, and assumptions and assignments. Except as otherwise provided herein or agreed to by the Debtor and the applicable counterparty, each assumed Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease shall include all modifications, amendments, supplements, restatements, or other agreements related thereto, and all rights related thereto. Modifications, amendments, supplements, and restatements to prepetition Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases that have been executed by the Debtor during the Chapter 11 Case shall not be deemed to alter the prepetition nature of the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease or the validity, priority, or amount of any Claims that may arise in connection therewith. To the extent applicable, no change of control (or similar provision) will be deemed to occur under any such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease.

If certain, but not all, of a contract counterparty's Executory Contracts and/or Unexpired Leases are rejected pursuant to the Plan, the Confirmation Order shall be a determination that such counterparty's Executory Contracts and/or Unexpired Leases that are being assumed pursuant to the Plan are severable agreements that are not integrated with those Executory Contracts and/or Unexpired Leases that are being rejected pursuant to the Plan. Parties seeking to contest this finding with respect to their Executory Contracts and/or Unexpired Leases must file a timely objection to the Plan on the grounds that their agreements are integrated and not severable, and any such dispute shall be resolved by the Bankruptcy Court at the Confirmation Hearing (to the extent not resolved by the parties prior to the Confirmation Hearing).

B. Claims Based on Rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases

Any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease not assumed or rejected on or before the Effective Date shall be deemed rejected, pursuant to the Confirmation Order. Any Person asserting a Rejection Claim shall File a proof of claim within thirty days of the Effective Date. Any Rejection Claims that are not timely Filed pursuant to this Plan shall be forever disallowed and barred. If one or more Rejection Claims are timely Filed, the Claimant Trustee may File an objection to any Rejection Claim.

Rejection Claims shall be classified as Convenience Claims or General Unsecured Claims, as applicable, and shall be treated in accordance with ARTICLE III of this Plan.

C. Cure of Defaults for Assumed or Assigned Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases

Any monetary amounts by which any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease to be assumed or assigned hereunder is in default shall be satisfied, under section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, by the Debtor upon assumption or assignment thereof, by payment of the default amount in Cash as and when due in the ordinary course or on such other terms as the parties to such Executory Contracts may otherwise agree. The Debtor may serve a notice on the Committee and parties to Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases to be assumed or assigned reflecting the Debtor's or Reorganized Debtor's intention to assume or assign the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease in connection with this Plan and setting forth the proposed cure amount (if any).

If a dispute regarding (1) the amount of any payments to cure a default, (2) the ability of the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or any assignee to provide “adequate assurance of future performance” (within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code) under the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease to be assumed or assigned or (3) any other matter pertaining to assumption or assignment, the cure payments required by section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code will be made following the entry of a Final Order or orders resolving the dispute and approving the assumption or assignment.

Assumption or assignment of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to the Plan or otherwise and full payment of any applicable cure amounts pursuant to this ARTICLE V.C shall result in the full release and satisfaction of any cure amounts, Claims, or defaults, whether monetary or nonmonetary, including defaults of provisions restricting the change in control or ownership interest composition or other bankruptcy-related defaults, arising under any assumed or assigned Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease at any time prior to the effective date of assumption or assignment. Any and all Proofs of Claim based upon Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases that have been assumed or assigned in the Chapter 11 Case, including pursuant to the Confirmation Order, and for which any cure amounts have been fully paid pursuant to this ARTICLE V.C, shall be deemed disallowed and expunged as of the Effective Date without the need for any objection thereto or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

D. Assumption of Insurance Policies

Upon the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtor will assume all of the Insurance Policies pursuant to section 365(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and all such Insurance Policies shall vest in the Reorganized Debtor. Unless previously effectuated by separate order entered by the Bankruptcy Court, entry of the Confirmation Order will constitute the Bankruptcy Court’s approval of the Debtor’s foregoing assumption of each of the Insurance Policies and all such Insurance Policies shall continue in full force and effect thereafter in accordance with their respective terms. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Plan, confirmation of this Plan will not impair or otherwise modify any rights of the Debtor or the Reorganized Debtor under the Insurance Policies. To the extent that any Insurance Policy is not assumable, it will be Reinstated.

ARTICLE VI.
PROVISIONS GOVERNING DISTRIBUTIONS

A. Dates of Distributions

Except as otherwise provided in this Plan, on the Effective Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter (or if a Claim is not an Allowed Claim or Equity Interest on the Effective Date, on the date that such Claim or Equity Interest becomes an Allowed Claim or Equity Interest, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter), each Holder of an Allowed Claim or Equity Interest against the Debtor shall receive the full amount of the distributions that this Plan provides for Allowed Claims or Allowed Equity Interests in the applicable Class and in the manner provided herein. If any payment or act under this Plan is required to be made or performed on a date that is not on a Business Day, then the making of such payment or the performance of such act may be completed on the next succeeding Business Day, but shall be deemed to have been completed as of the required date. If and to the extent there are Disputed Claims or Equity Interests, distributions on account of any such Disputed Claims or Equity Interests shall be made pursuant to the provisions provided in this Plan. Except as otherwise provided in this Plan, Holders of Claims and Equity Interests shall not be entitled to interest, dividends or accruals on the distributions provided for therein, regardless of whether distributions are delivered on or at any time after the Effective Date.

Upon the Effective Date, all Claims and Equity Interests against the Debtor shall be deemed fixed and adjusted pursuant to this Plan and none of the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust will have liability on account of any Claims or Equity Interests except as set forth in this Plan and in the Confirmation Order. All payments and all distributions made by the Distribution Agent under this Plan shall be in full and final satisfaction, settlement and release of all Claims and Equity Interests against the Debtor and the Reorganized Debtor.

At the close of business on the Distribution Record Date, the transfer ledgers for the Claims against the Debtor and the Equity Interests in the Debtor shall be closed, and there shall be no further changes in the record holders of such Claims and Equity Interests. The Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, the Trustees, and the Distribution Agent, and each of their respective agents, successors, and assigns shall have no obligation to recognize the transfer of any Claims against the Debtor or Equity Interests in the Debtor occurring after the Distribution Record Date and shall be entitled instead to recognize and deal for all purposes hereunder with only those record holders stated on the transfer ledgers as of the close of business on the Distribution Record Date irrespective of the number of distributions to be made under this Plan to such Persons or the date of such distributions.

B. Distribution Agent

Except as provided herein, all distributions under this Plan shall be made by the Claimant Trustee, as Distribution Agent, or by such other Entity designated by the Claimant Trustee, as a Distribution Agent on the Effective Date or thereafter. The Claimant Trustee, or such other Entity designated by the Claimant Trustee to be the Distribution Agent, shall not be required to give any bond or surety or other security for the performance of such Distribution Agent's duties unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court.

The Distribution Agent shall be empowered to (a) effect all actions and execute all agreements, instruments, and other documents necessary to perform its duties under this Plan; (b) make all distributions contemplated hereby; (c) employ professionals to represent it with respect to its responsibilities; and (d) exercise such other powers as may be vested in the Distribution Agent by order of the Bankruptcy Court, pursuant to this Plan, or as deemed by the Distribution Agent to be necessary and proper to implement the provisions hereof.

The Distribution Agent shall not have any obligation to make a particular distribution to a specific Holder of an Allowed Claim if such Holder is also the Holder of a Disputed Claim.

C. Cash Distributions

Distributions of Cash may be made by wire transfer from a domestic bank, except that Cash payments made to foreign creditors may be made in such funds and by such means as the Distribution Agent determines are necessary or customary in a particular foreign jurisdiction.

D. Disputed Claims Reserve

As set forth in the Claimant Trust Agreement, the Claimant Trustee, as Distribution Agent, shall establish, fund, and maintain a reserve at the Claimant Trust. Any payments to be made under this Plan after the Effective Date shall be paid from the Disputed Claims Reserve as set forth in the Claimant Trust Agreement. Upon the resolution of all Disputed Claims, funds remaining in the Disputed Claims Reserve shall be allocated in the manner set forth in the Claimant Trust Agreement.

E. Rounding of Payments

Whenever this Plan would otherwise call for, with respect to a particular Person, payment of a fraction of a dollar, the actual payment or distribution shall reflect a rounding of such fraction to the nearest whole dollar (up or down), with half dollars being rounded down. To the extent that Cash to be distributed under this Plan remains undistributed as a result of the aforementioned rounding, such Cash or stock shall be treated as “Unclaimed Property” under this Plan.

F. De Minimis Distribution

Except as to any Allowed Claim that is Unimpaired under this Plan, none of the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Distribution Agent shall have any obligation to make any Plan Distributions with a value of less than $100, unless a written request therefor is received by the Distribution Agent from the relevant recipient at the addresses set forth in ARTICLE VI.I hereof within 120 days after the later of the (i) Effective Date and (ii) the date such Claim becomes an Allowed Claim. De minimis distributions for which no such request is timely received shall revert to the Claimant Trust. Upon such reversion, the relevant Allowed Claim (and any Claim on account of missed distributions) shall be automatically deemed satisfied, discharged and forever barred, notwithstanding any federal or state escheat laws to the contrary.

G. Distributions on Account of Allowed Claims

Except as otherwise agreed by the Holder of a particular Claim or as provided in this Plan, all distributions shall be made pursuant to the terms of this Plan and the Confirmation Order. Except as otherwise provided in this Plan, distributions to any Holder of an Allowed Claim shall, to the extent applicable, be allocated first to the principal amount of any such Allowed Claim, as determined for U.S. federal income tax purposes and then, to the extent the consideration exceeds such amount, to the remainder of such Claim comprising accrued but unpaid interest, if any (but solely to the extent that interest is an allowable portion of such Allowed Claim).

H. General Distribution Procedures

The Distribution Agent, shall make all distributions of Cash or other property required under this Plan, unless this Plan specifically provides otherwise. All Cash and other property held by the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust, as applicable, for ultimate distribution under this Plan shall not be subject to any claim by any Person.

I. Address for Delivery of Distributions

Distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims, to the extent provided for under this Plan, shall be made (1) at the addresses set forth in any written notices of address change delivered to the Debtor and the Distribution Agent; (2) at the address set forth on any Proofs of Claim Filed by such Holders (to the extent such Proofs of Claim are Filed in the Chapter 11 Case), (2), or (3) at the addresses in the Debtor's books and records.

If there is any conflict or discrepancy between the addresses set forth in (1) through (3) in the foregoing sentence, then (i) the address in Section (2) shall control; (ii) if (2) does not apply, the address in (1) shall control, and (iii) if (1) does not apply, the address in (3) shall control.

J. Undeliverable Distributions and Unclaimed Property

If the distribution to the Holder of any Allowed Claim is returned to the Reorganized Debtor or the Claimant Trust as undeliverable, no further distribution shall be made to such Holder, and Distribution Agent shall not have any obligation to make any further distribution to the Holder, unless and until the Distribution Agent is notified in writing of such Holder's then current address.

Any Entity that fails to claim any Cash within six months from the date upon which a distribution is first made to such Entity shall forfeit all rights to any distribution under this Plan and such Cash shall thereafter be deemed an Claimant Trust Asset in all respects and for all purposes. Entities that fail to claim Cash shall forfeit their rights thereto and shall have no claim whatsoever against the Debtor's Estate, the Reorganized Debtor, the Claimant Trust, or against any Holder of an Allowed Claim to whom distributions are made by the Distribution Agent.

K. Withholding Taxes

In connection with this Plan, to the extent applicable, the Distribution Agent shall comply with all tax withholding and reporting requirements imposed on them by any Governmental Unit, and all distributions made pursuant to this Plan shall be subject to such withholding and reporting requirements. The Distribution Agent shall be entitled to deduct any U.S. federal, state or local withholding taxes from any Cash payments made with respect to Allowed Claims, as appropriate. As a condition to receiving any distribution under this Plan, the Distribution Agent may require that the Holder of an Allowed Claim entitled to receive a distribution pursuant to this Plan provide such Holder's taxpayer identification number and such other information and certification as may be deemed necessary for the Distribution Agent to comply with applicable tax reporting and withholding laws. If a Holder fails to comply with such a request within one year, such distribution shall be deemed an unclaimed distribution. Any amounts withheld

Any Holder of an Allowed Claim subject to such setoff reserves the right to challenge any such setoff in the Bankruptcy Court or any other court with jurisdiction with respect to such challenge.

M. Surrender of Cancelled Instruments or Securities

As a condition precedent to receiving any distribution pursuant to this Plan on account of an Allowed Claim evidenced by negotiable instruments, securities, or notes canceled pursuant to ARTICLE IV of this Plan, the Holder of such Claim will tender the applicable negotiable instruments, securities, or notes evidencing such Claim (or a sworn affidavit identifying the negotiable instruments, securities, or notes formerly held by such Holder and certifying that they have been lost), to the Distribution Agent unless waived in writing by the Distribution Agent.

N. Lost, Stolen, Mutilated or Destroyed Securities

In addition to any requirements under any applicable agreement and applicable law, any Holder of a Claim or Equity Interest evidenced by a security or note that has been lost, stolen, mutilated, or destroyed will, in lieu of surrendering such security or note to the extent required by this Plan, deliver to the Distribution Agent: (i) evidence reasonably satisfactory to the Distribution Agent of such loss, theft, mutilation, or destruction; and (ii) such security or indemnity as may be required by the Distribution Agent to hold such party harmless from any damages, liabilities, or costs incurred in treating such individual as a Holder of an Allowed Claim or Equity Interest. A. General

Notwithstanding anything contained in the Plan to the contrary, the allowance, classification and treatment of all Allowed Claims and Equity Interests and their respective distributions and treatments under the Plan shall take into account the relative priority and rights of the Claims and the Equity Interests in each Class in connection with any contractual, legal and equitable subordination rights relating thereto whether arising under general principles of equitable subordination, section 510 of the Bankruptcy Code, or otherwise.

B. Discharge of Claims

To the fullest extent provided under section 1141(d)(1)(A) and other applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, except as otherwise expressly provided by this Plan or the Confirmation Order, all consideration distributed under this Plan will be in exchange for, and in complete satisfaction, settlement, discharge, and release of, all Claims and Equity Interests of any kind or nature whatsoever against the Debtor or any of its Assets or properties, and regardless of whether any property will have been distributed or retained pursuant to this Plan on account of such Claims or Equity Interests. Except as otherwise expressly provided by this Plan or the Confirmation Order, upon the Effective Date, the Debtor and its Estate will be deemed discharged and released under and to the fullest extent provided under section 1141(d)(1)(A) and other applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code from any and all Claims and Equity Interests of any kind or nature whatsoever, including, but not limited to, demands and liabilities that arose before the Confirmation Date, and all debts of the kind specified in section 502(g), 502(h), or 502(i) of the Bankruptcy Code.

C. Exculpation

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, no Exculpated Party will have or incur, and each Exculpated Party is hereby exculpated from, any claim, obligation, suit, judgment, damage, demand, debt, right, Cause of Action, remedy, loss, and liability for conduct occurring on or after the Petition Date in connection with or arising out of (i) the filing and administration of the Chapter 11 Case; (ii) the negotiation and pursuit of the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, or the solicitation of votes for, or confirmation of, the Plan; (iii) the funding or consummation of the Plan (including the Plan Supplement) or any related agreements, instruments, or other documents, the solicitation of votes on the Plan, the offer, issuance, and Plan Distribution of any securities issued or to be issued pursuant to the Plan, including the Claimant Trust Interests, whether or not such Plan Distributions occur following the Effective Date; (iv) the implementation of the Plan; and (v) any negotiations, transactions, and documentation in connection with the foregoing clauses (i)-(v); provided, however, the foregoing will not apply to any acts or omissions of an Exculpated Party arising out of or related to acts or omissions that constitute bad faith, fraud, gross negligence, criminal misconduct, or willful misconduct. This exculpation shall be in addition to, and not in limitation of, all other releases, indemnities, exculpations, any other applicable law or rules, or any other provisions of this Plan, including ARTICLE IV.C.2, protecting such Exculpated Parties from liability.

D. Releases by the Debtor

On and after the Effective Date, each Released Party is deemed to be, hereby conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, and forever released and discharged by the Debtor and the Estate, in each case on behalf of themselves and their respective successors, assigns, and representatives, including, but not limited to, the Claimant Trust and the Litigation Sub-Trust from any and all Causes of Action, including any derivative claims, asserted on behalf of the Debtor, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, matured or unmatured,

Unless a Cause of Action against a Holder of a Claim or an Equity Interest or other Entity is expressly waived, relinquished, released, compromised or settled in this Plan or any Final Order (including, without limitation, the Confirmation Order), such Cause of Action is expressly reserved for later adjudication by the Reorganized Debtor or Claimant Trust, as applicable (including, without limitation, Causes of Action not specifically identified or of which the Debtor may presently be unaware or that may arise or exist by reason of additional facts or circumstances unknown to the Debtor at this time or facts or circumstances that may change or be different from those the Debtor now believes to exist) and, therefore, no preclusion doctrine, including, without limitation, the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, waiver, estoppel (judicial, equitable or otherwise) or laches will apply to such Causes of Action as a consequence of the confirmation, effectiveness, or consummation of this Plan based on the Disclosure Statement, this Plan or the Confirmation Order, except where such Causes of Action have been expressly released in this Plan or any other Final Order (including, without limitation, the Confirmation Order). In addition, the right of the Reorganized Debtor or the Claimant Trust to pursue or adopt any claims alleged in any lawsuit in which the Debtor is a plaintiff, defendant or an interested party, against any Entity, including, without limitation, the plaintiffs or co-defendants in such lawsuits, is expressly reserved.

F. Injunction

Upon entry of the Confirmation Order, all holders of Claims and Equity Interests and other parties in interest, along with their respective Related Persons, shall be enjoined from taking any actions to interfere with the implementation or consummation of the Plan.

Except as expressly provided in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, or a separate order of the Bankruptcy Court, all Entities who have held, hold, or may hold Claims against or Equity Interests in the Debtor (whether proof of such Claims or Equity Interests has been filed or not and whether or not such Entities vote in favor of, against or abstain from voting on the Plan or are presumed to have accepted or deemed to have rejected the Plan) and other parties in interest, along with their respective Related Persons, are permanently enjoined, on and after the Effective Date, with respect to such Claims and Equity Interests, from (i) commencing, conducting, or continuing in any manner, directly or indirectly, any suit, action, or other proceeding of any kind (including any proceeding in a judicial, arbitral, administrative or other forum) against or affecting the Debtor, the Independent Directors, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust or the property of any of the Debtor, the Independent Directors, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust, (ii) enforcing, levying, attaching (including any prejudgment attachment), collecting, or otherwise recovering by any manner or means, whether directly or indirectly, any judgment, award, decree, or order against the Debtor, the Independent Directors, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust or the property of any of the Debtor, the Independent Directors, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust, (iii) creating, perfecting, or otherwise enforcing in any manner, directly or indirectly, any encumbrance of any kind against the Debtor, the Independent Directors, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust or the property of any of the Debtor, the Independent Directors, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust, (iv) asserting any right of setoff, directly or indirectly, against any obligation due from the Debtor, the Independent Directors, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust or against property or interests in property of any of the Debtor, the Independent Directors, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust; and (v) acting or proceeding in any manner, in any place whatsoever, that does not conform to or comply with the provisions of the Plan.

The injunctions set forth herein shall extend to any successors of the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, and the Claimant Trust and their respective property and interests in property.

No Entity may commence or pursue a claim or cause of action of any kind against any Protected Party that arose from or is related to the Chapter 11 Case, the negotiation of this Plan, the administration of the Plan or property to be distributed under the Plan, the wind down of the business of the Debtor or Reorganized Debtor, the administration of the Claimant Trust, or the transactions in furtherance of the foregoing without the Bankruptcy Court (i) first determining, after notice, that such claim or cause of action represents a colorable claim of bad faith, criminal misconduct, willful misconduct, fraud, or gross negligence against a Protected Party and (ii) specifically authorizing such Entity to bring such claim against any such Plan Party. As set forth in ARTICLE XI, the Bankruptcy Court will have sole jurisdiction to adjudicate any such claim for which approval of the Bankruptcy Court to commence or pursue has been granted.

G. Term of Injunctions or Stays

C. Revocation of Plan

The Debtor reserves the right to revoke or withdraw this Plan prior to the Confirmation Date and to File a subsequent chapter 11 plan with the consent of the Committee. If the Debtor revokes or withdraws this Plan prior to the Confirmation Date, then: (i) this Plan shall be null and void in all respects; (ii) any settlement or compromise embodied in this Plan, assumption of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases effected by this Plan and any document or agreement executed pursuant hereto shall be deemed null and void except as may be set forth in a separate order entered by the Bankruptcy Court; and (iii) nothing contained in this Plan shall: (a) constitute a waiver or release of any Claims by or against, or any Equity Interests in, the Debtor or any other Entity; (b) prejudice in any manner the rights of the Debtor or any other Entity; or (c) constitute an admission, acknowledgement, offer or undertaking of any sort by the Debtor or any other Entity.

D. Entire Agreement

Except as otherwise described herein, this Plan supersedes all previous and contemporaneous negotiations, promises, covenants, agreements, understandings, and representations on such subjects, all of which have become merged and integrated into this Plan.

E. Closing of Chapter 11 Case

The Claimant Trustee shall, after the Effective Date and promptly after the full administration of the Chapter 11 Case, File with the Bankruptcy Court all documents required by Bankruptcy Rule 3022 and any applicable order of the Bankruptcy Court to close the Chapter 11 Case.

F. Successors and Assigns

This Plan shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Debtor and its successors and assigns, including, without limitation, the Reorganized Debtor and the Claimant Trustee. The rights, benefits, and obligations of any Person or Entity named or referred to in this Plan shall be binding on, and shall inure to the benefit of, any heir, executor, administrator, successor, or assign of such Person or Entity.

G. Reservation of Rights

Except as expressly set forth herein, this Plan shall have no force or effect unless and until the Bankruptcy Court enters the Confirmation Order and the Effective Date occurs. Neither the filing of this Plan, any statement or provision contained herein, nor the taking of any action by the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, the Claimant Trustee, or any other Entity with respect to this Plan shall be or shall be deemed to be an admission or waiver of any rights of: (1) the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trustee with respect to the Holders of Claims or Equity Interests or other Entity; or (2) any Holder of a Claim or an Equity Interest or other Entity prior to the Effective Date.

Neither the exclusion or inclusion by the Debtor of any contract or lease on any exhibit, schedule, or other annex to this Plan or in the Plan Documents, nor anything contained in this Plan, will constitute an admission by the Debtor that any such contract or lease is or is not an executory contract or lease or that the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, the Claimant Trustee, or their respective Affiliates has any liability thereunder.

Except as explicitly provided in this Plan, nothing herein shall waive, excuse, limit, diminish, or otherwise alter any of the defenses, claims, Causes of Action, or other rights of the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trustee under any executory or non-executory contract.

Nothing in this Plan will increase, augment, or add to any of the duties, obligations, responsibilities, or liabilities of the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trustee, as applicable, under any executory or non-executory contract or lease.

If there is a dispute regarding whether a contract or lease is or was executory at the time of its assumption under this Plan, the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trustee, as applicable, shall have thirty (30) days following entry of a Final Order resolving such dispute to alter their treatment of such contract.

H. Further Assurances

The Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trustee, as applicable, all Holders of Claims and Equity Interests receiving distributions hereunder, and all other Entities shall, from time to time, prepare, execute and deliver any agreements or documents and take any other actions as may be necessary or advisable to effectuate the provisions and intent of this Plan or the Confirmation Order. On or before the Effective Date, the Debtor shall File with the Bankruptcy Court all agreements and other documents that may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate and further evidence the terms and conditions hereof.

I. Severability

If, prior to the Confirmation Date, any term or provision of this Plan is determined by the Bankruptcy Court to be invalid, void, or unenforceable, the Bankruptcy Court will have the power to alter and interpret such term or provision to make it valid or enforceable to the maximum extent practicable, consistent with the original purpose of the term or provision held to be invalid, void, or unenforceable, and such term or provision will then be applicable as altered or interpreted. Notwithstanding any such holding, alteration or interpretation, the remainder of the terms and provisions of this Plan will remain in full force and effect and will in no way be affected, impaired, or invalidated by such holding, alteration, or interpretation. The Confirmation Order will constitute a judicial determination and will provide that each term and provision of this Plan, as it may have been altered or interpreted in accordance with the foregoing, is valid and enforceable pursuant to its terms.

HIGHLAND CAPITAL MANAGEMENT, L.P., as debtor and debtor-in-possession in the above-captioned cases (the “Debtor”), is sending you this document and the accompanying materials (the “Disclosure Statement”) because you are a creditor or interest holder in connection with the First Amended Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization of Highland Capital Management, L.P., dated September 21, 2020, as the same may be amended from time to time (the “Plan”).² The Debtor has filed a voluntary petition under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code, as amended (the “Bankruptcy Code”).

This Disclosure Statement has not yet been approved by the Bankruptcy Court as containing adequate information within the meaning of section 1125(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtor intends to seek an order or orders of the Bankruptcy Court (a) approving this Disclosure Statement as containing adequate information and (b) confirming the Plan.

A copy of the Plan is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

The Debtor believes that the Plan is fair and equitable, will maximize the value of the Debtor’s Estate, and is in the best interests of the Debtor and its constituents. Notably, the Plan provides for the transfer of the majority of the Debtor’s Assets to a Claimant Trust. The balance of the Debtor’s Assets, including the management of the Managed Funds, will remain with the Reorganized Debtor. The Reorganized Debtor will be managed by New GP LLC – a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Claimant Trust. This structure will allow for continuity in the Managed Funds and an orderly and efficient monetization of the Debtor’s Assets.

The Claimant Trust, the Litigation Trust, or the Reorganized Debtor, as applicable, will institute, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, or withdraw any and all Causes of Action without any further order of the Bankruptcy Court, and the Claimant Trust and Reorganized Debtor, as applicable, will sell, liquidate, or otherwise monetize all Claimant Trust Assets and Reorganized Debtor Assets and resolve all Claims, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Claimant Trust Agreement, or the Reorganized Limited Partnership Agreement.

ARTICLE I.
EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

This Disclosure Statement is provided for informational purposes only.

In the opinion of the Debtor, the Plan is preferable to the alternatives described in this Disclosure Statement because it provides for the highest distributions to the Debtor's creditors and interest holders. The Debtor believes that any delay in confirmation of the Plan would result in significant administrative expenses resulting in less value available to the Debtor's constituents. In addition, any alternative other than confirmation of the Plan could result in extensive delays and increased administrative expenses resulting in smaller distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims and Equity Interests than that which is proposed under the Plan. Accordingly, the Debtor recommends that all Holders of Claims and Equity Interests support confirmation of the Plan.

This Executive Summary is being provided to Holders of Allowed Claims and Equity Interests as an overview of the material items addressed in the Disclosure Statement and the Plan, which is qualified by reference to the entire Disclosure Statement and by the actual terms of the Plan (including all exhibits attached hereto and to the Plan and the Plan Supplement), and should not be relied upon for a comprehensive discussion of the Disclosure Statement and/or the Plan. Section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code requires a debtor to prepare a disclosure statement containing information of a kind, and in sufficient detail, to enable a hypothetical reasonable investor to make an informed judgment regarding acceptance or rejection of the plan of reorganization or liquidation. As such, this Disclosure Statement is being submitted in accordance with the requirements of section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code. This Disclosure Statement includes, without limitation, information about:

- the Debtor's operating and financial history;
- the significant events that have occurred to date;
- the Confirmation process; and
- the terms and provisions of the Plan, including key aspects of the Claimant Trust and the Reorganized Debtor, certain effects of Confirmation of the Plan, certain risk factors relating to the Plan, and the manner in which distributions will be made under the Plan.

The Debtor believes that any alternative to Confirmation of the Plan would result in significant delays, litigation, and additional costs, and ultimately would diminish the Debtor's value. Accordingly, the Debtor strongly supports confirmation of the Plan.

A. Summary of the Plan

The Plan represents a significant achievement for the Debtor. Through the Plan, the Debtor's Secured Creditors will be paid in full, and certain of the Debtor's unsecured creditors will receive Cash on or soon after the Effective Date. The balance of the Debtor's unsecured creditors – representing primarily litigation claims – and the Debtor’s limited and general partners will receive contingent beneficial interests in the Claimant Trust.

The Claimant Trust, through the Plan, will receive the majority of the Debtor’s assets, including Causes of Action. The assets being transferred to the Claimant Trust are referred to, collectively, as the Claimant Trust Assets. The Claimant Trust will – for the benefit of the Claimant Trust Beneficiaries – monetize the Claimant Trust Assets, pursue the Causes of Action, and work to conclude the various lawsuits and litigation claims pending against the Estate.

The Plan also provides for the reorganization of the Debtor. This will be accomplished by the cancellation of the Debtor’s current Equity Interests, which consist of partnership interests held by: The Dugaboy Investment Trust;³ the Hunter Mountain Investment Trust (“Hunter Mountain”); Mark Okada, personally and through family trusts; and Strand, the Debtor’s general partner. On the Effective Date, the Debtor or the Reorganized Debtor, as applicable, will issue new Class A Limited Partnership Interests to (i) the Claimant Trust, as limited partner, and (ii) New GP LLC, as general partner, and will admit (a) the Claimant Trust as the limited partner of the Reorganized Debtor, and (b) New GP LLC as the general partner of the Reorganized Debtor. The Claimant Trust, as limited partner, will ratify New GP LLC’s appointment as general partner of the Reorganized Debtor. The Reorganized Debtor will be managed by the Claimant Trust, as the managing member of New GP LLC.

The Reorganized Debtor will oversee the monetization of the Reorganized Debtor Assets, which consist of, among other Assets, the management of the Managed Funds. The net proceeds from the Reorganized Debtor Assets will ultimately be distributed to the Claimant Trust and available for distribution to the Claimant Trust Beneficiaries.

The following is an overview of certain other material terms of the Plan:

- Allowed Priority Non-Tax Claims will be paid in full;
- Allowed Retained Employee Claims will be Reinstated;
- Allowed Convenience Claims will receive either (i) 75% of their Allowed Claim or (ii) if the total amount of Allowed Convenience Claims exceeds $15,000,000, such Holder’s Pro Rata share of the Convenience Claims Cash Pool (i.e., $15,000,000). Holders of Convenience Claims can elect to be treated for all purposes as General Unsecured Claims by making the GUC Election on their Ballots.
- Allowed Unpaid Employee Claims will receive either (i) 75% of their Allowed Claim or (ii) if the total amount of Allowed Unpaid Employee Claims exceeds $3,000,000, such Holder’s Pro Rata share of the Unpaid Employee Claims Cash Pool (i.e., $3,000,000). Holders of Unpaid Employee Claims can elect to be treated for all purposes as General Unsecured Claims by making the GUC Election on their Ballots.

- Allowed General Unsecured Claims and Allowed Subordinated Claims will receive their Pro Rata share of Claimant Trust Interests. The Claimant Trust Interests distributed to Allowed General Unsecured Claims will be senior to those distributed to Allowed Subordinated Claims as set forth in the Claimant Trust Agreement; and
- Allowed Class B/C Limited Partnership Interests and Allowed Class A Limited Partnership Interests will receive their Pro Rata share of the Contingent Claimant Trust Interests.

B. An Overview of the Chapter 11 Process

Chapter 11 is the principal business reorganization chapter of the Bankruptcy Code. Pursuant to chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, a debtor may remain in possession of its assets and business and attempt to reorganize its business for the benefit of such debtor, its creditors, and other parties in interest. A plan of reorganization sets forth the means for satisfying claims against and interests in a debtor. Confirmation of a plan of reorganization by a bankruptcy court makes the plan binding upon the debtor and any creditor of or interest holder in the debtor, whether or not such creditor or interest holder (i) is impaired under or has accepted the plan or (ii) receives or retains any property under the plan.

The commencement of a Chapter 11 case creates an estate comprised of all of the legal and equitable interests of a debtor in property as of the date that the bankruptcy petition is filed. Sections 1107 and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code provide that a debtor may continue to operate its business and remain in possession of its property as a “debtor-in-possession,” unless the bankruptcy court orders the appointment of a trustee. The filing of a bankruptcy petition also triggers the automatic stay provisions of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code which provide, among other things, for an automatic stay of all attempts to collect prepetition claims from a debtor or otherwise interfere with its property or business. Except as otherwise ordered by the bankruptcy court, the automatic stay generally remains in full force and effect until the consummation of a plan of reorganization or liquidation, following confirmation of such plan of reorganization.

The Bankruptcy Code provides that upon commencement of a chapter 11 bankruptcy case, the Office of the United States Trustee may appoint a committee of unsecured creditors and may, in its discretion, appoint additional committees of creditors or of equity interest holders if necessary to assure adequate representation. Please see ARTICLE II for a discussion of the U.S. Trustee and the statutory committees.

Upon the commencement of a chapter 11 bankruptcy case, all creditors and equity interest holders generally have standing to be heard on any issue in the chapter 11 proceedings pursuant to section 1109(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

The formulation and confirmation of a plan is the principal objective of a chapter 11 case. The plan sets forth the means of satisfying the claims against and equity interests in the debtor.

C. Purpose and Effect of the Plan

1. The Plan of Reorganization

The Debtor is reorganizing pursuant to chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. As a result, the Confirmation of the Plan means that the Debtor's business will continue to operate following confirmation of the Plan through the Claimant Trust and the Reorganized Debtor to monetize assets for distribution to Holders of Allowed Claims. The Claimant Trust will hold, and manage the efficient monetization of, the Claimant Trust Assets. The Claimant Trust will also manage the Reorganized Debtor through the Claimant Trust's ownership of the Reorganized Debtor's general partner, New GP LLC. The Claimant Trust will also be the sole limited partner in the Reorganized Debtor. The Reorganized Debtor will manage the wind down of the Managed Funds as well as the monetization of the balance of the Reorganized Debtor Assets. The Claimant Trust may also establish a Litigation Sub-Trust in accordance with the Plan, which will also be for the benefit of the Claimant Trust Beneficiaries. If established, the Litigation Sub-Trust will receive the Estate Claims and a Litigation Trustee will be appointed by the Committee. The Litigation Trustee shall be the exclusive trustee of the Estate Claims included in the Claimant Trust Assets subject to oversight by the Claimant Trust Oversight Committee

A bankruptcy court's confirmation of a plan binds the debtor, any entity acquiring property under the plan, any holder of a claim or an equity interest in a debtor and all other entities as may be ordered by the bankruptcy court in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code to the terms and conditions of the confirmed plan, whether or not such Entity voted on the plan or affirmatively voted to reject the plan.

2. Plan Overview

The Plan provides for the classification and treatment of Claims against and Equity Interests in the Debtor. For classification and treatment of Claims and Equity Interests, the Plan designates Classes of Claims and Classes of Equity Interests. These Classes and Plan treatments take into account the differing nature and priority under the Bankruptcy Code of the various Claims and Equity Interests.

The following chart briefly summarizes the classification and treatment of Claims and Equity Interests under the Plan.⁴ Amounts listed below are estimated.

In accordance with section 1122 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Plan provides for eight Classes of Claims against and/or Equity Interests in the Debtor.

The projected recoveries set forth in the table below are estimates only and therefore are subject to change. For a complete description of the Debtor's classification and treatment of Claims or Equity Interests, reference should be made to the entire Plan and the risk factors described in ARTICLE IV below. For certain classes of Claims, the actual amount of Allowed Claims could be materially different than the estimated amounts shown in the table below.

Class	Type of Claim or Interest	Estimated Prepetition Claim Amount	Impaired	Entitled to Vote	Estimated Recovery
1	Jefferies Secured Claim	$0.00	No	No	100%
2	Frontier Secured Claim	$5,209,964	No	No	100%
3	Priority Non-Tax Claim	$11,839	No	No	100%
4	Retained Employee Claim	TBD	No	No	100%
5	Convenience Claims	TBD	Yes	Yes	75%
6	Unpaid Employee Claims	TBD	Yes	Yes	75%
7	General Unsecured Claims	TBD	Yes	Yes	TBD
8	Subordinated Claims	TBD	Yes	Yes	TBD
9	Class B/C Limited Partnership Interests	N/A	Yes	Yes	TBD
10	Class A Limited Partnership Interests	N/A	Yes	Yes	TBD

3. Voting on the Plan

Under the Bankruptcy Code, acceptance of a plan by a Class of Claims or Equity Interests is determined by calculating the number and the amount of Claims voting to accept, based on the actual total Allowed Claims or Equity Interests voting on the Plan. Acceptance by a Class of Claims requires more than one-half of the number of total Allowed Claims in the Class to vote in favor of the Plan and at least two-thirds in dollar amount of the total Allowed Claims in the Class to vote in favor of the Plan. Acceptance by a Class of Equity Interests requires at least two-thirds in amount of the total Allowed Equity Interests in the Class to vote in favor of the Plan.

Under the Bankruptcy Code, only Classes of Claims or Equity Interests that are “Impaired” and that are not deemed as a matter of law to have rejected a plan under Section 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan. Any Class that is “Unimpaired” is not entitled to vote to accept or reject a plan and is conclusively presumed to have accepted the Plan. As set forth in Section 1124 of the Bankruptcy Code, a Class is “Impaired” if the legal, equitable, or contractual rights attaching to the claims or equity interests of that Class are modified or altered.

Pursuant to the Plan, Claims and Equity Interests in Class 5 through Class 10 are Impaired by the Plan, and only the Holders of Claims and Equity Interests in those Classes are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan. Whether a Holder of a Claim or Equity Interest in Class 5 through Class 10 may vote to accept or reject the Plan will also depend on whether the Holder held such Claim or Equity Interest as of [REDACTED] (the “Voting Record Date”). The Voting Record Date and all of the Debtor’s solicitation and voting procedures shall apply to all of the Debtor’s Creditors and other parties in interest.

Pursuant to the Plan, Claims in Class 1 through Class 4 are Unimpaired by the Plan, and such Holders are deemed to have accepted the Plan and are therefore not entitled to vote on the Plan.

Pursuant to the Plan, there are no Classes that will not receive or retain any property and no Classes are deemed to reject the Plan.

4. Confirmation of the Plan

(a) Confirmation Generally

“Confirmation” is the technical term for the Bankruptcy Court’s approval of a plan of reorganization or liquidation. The timing, standards and factors considered by the Bankruptcy Court in deciding whether to confirm a plan of reorganization are discussed below.

The confirmation of a plan by the Bankruptcy Court binds the debtor, any issuer of securities under a plan, any person acquiring property under a plan, any creditor or equity interest holder of a debtor, and any other person or entity as may be ordered by the Bankruptcy Court in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code. Subject to certain limited exceptions, the order issued by the Bankruptcy Court confirming a plan discharges a debtor from any debt that arose before the confirmation of such plan and provides for the treatment of such debt in accordance with the terms of the confirmed plan.

(b) The Confirmation Hearing

Section 1128(a) of the Bankruptcy Code requires the Bankruptcy Court, after notice, to hold a hearing on Confirmation of the Plan. Section 1128(b) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that any party in interest may object to Confirmation of the Plan.

The Debtor will provide notice of the Confirmation Hearing to all necessary parties. The Confirmation Hearing may be adjourned from time to time without further notice except for an announcement of the adjourned date made at the Confirmation Hearing of any adjournment thereof.

5. Confirming and Effectuating the Plan

It is a condition to the Effective Date of the Plan that the Bankruptcy Court shall have entered the Confirmation Order in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the Debtor and the Committee. Certain other conditions contained in the Plan must be satisfied or waived pursuant to the provisions of the Plan.

6. Rules of Interpretation

The Voting Report will, among other things, describe every Ballot that does not conform to the Voting Instructions or that contains any form of irregularity, including, but not limited to, those Ballots that are late, illegible (in whole or in material part), unidentifiable, lacking signatures, lacking necessary information, or damaged.

THE DEBTOR URGES HOLDERS OF CLAIMS AND EQUITY INTERESTS WHO ARE ENTITLED TO VOTE TO TIMELY RETURN THEIR BALLOTS AND TO VOTE TO ACCEPT THE PLAN BY THE VOTING DEADLINE.

9. The Confirmation Hearing

The Bankruptcy Court has scheduled Confirmation Hearing Dates on December 3 and December 4, 2020, at 9:30 a.m. prevailing Central time. The Confirmation Hearing may be continued from time to time by the Bankruptcy Court or the Debtor without further notice other than by such adjournment being announced in open court or by a notice of adjournment filed with the Bankruptcy Court and served on such parties as the Bankruptcy Court may order. Moreover, the Plan may be modified or amended, if necessary, pursuant to section 1127 of the Bankruptcy Code, prior to, during or as a result of the Confirmation Hearing, without further notice to parties-in-interest.

10. The Deadline for Objecting to Confirmation of the Plan

The Bankruptcy Court has set a deadline of [REDACTED] at 4:00 p.m. prevailing Central time, for the filing of objections to confirmation of the Plan (the "Confirmation Objection Deadline"). Any objection to confirmation of the Plan must: (i) be in writing; (ii) conform to the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules; (iii) state the name of the objecting party and the amount and nature of the Claim of such Entity or the amount of Equity Interests held by such Entity; (iv) state with particularity the legal and factual bases and nature of any objection to the Plan and, if practicable, a proposed modification to the Plan that would resolve such objection; and (v) be filed, contemporaneously with a proof of service, with the Bankruptcy Court and served so that it is actually received no later than the Confirmation Objection Deadline by the parties set forth below (the “Notice Parties”).

CONFIRMATION OBJECTIONS NOT TIMELY FILED AND SERVED IN THE MANNER SET FORTH HEREIN MAY NOT BE CONSIDERED BY THE BANKRUPTCY COURT AND MAY BE OVERRULED WITHOUT FURTHER NOTICE. INSTRUCTIONS WITH RESPECT TO THE CONFIRMATION HEARING AND DEADLINES WITH RESPECT TO CONFIRMATION WILL BE INCLUDED IN THE NOTICE OF CONFIRMATION HEARING APPROVED BY THE BANKRUPTCY COURT.

11. Notice Parties

D. Effectiveness of the Plan

It will be a condition to the Effective Date of the Plan that all provisions, terms and conditions of the Plan are approved in the Confirmation Order unless otherwise satisfied or waived pursuant to the provisions of Article IX of the Plan. Each Holder of a Claim or an Equity Interest is urged to consider carefully all of the information in this Disclosure Statement, including the risk factors described in ARTICLE IV herein titled, “Risk Factors.”

ARTICLE II. BACKGROUND TO THE CHAPTER 11 CASE AND SUMMARY OF BANKRUPTCY PROCEEDINGS TO DATE

A. Description and History of the Debtor’s Business

Prior to the Petition Date, the Debtor was a multibillion-dollar global alternative investment manager founded in 1993 by James Dondero and Mark Okada. A pioneer in the leveraged loan market, the firm evolved over twenty-five years, building on its credit expertise and value-based approach to expand into other asset classes.

As of the Petition Date, the Debtor operated a diverse investment platform, serving both institutional and retail investors worldwide. In addition to high-yield credit, the Debtor’s investment capabilities include public equities, real estate, private equity and special situations, structured credit, and sector- and region-specific verticals built around specialized teams. Additionally, the Debtor provided shared services to its affiliated registered investment advisers.

B. The Debtor’s Corporate Structure

The Debtor is headquartered in Dallas, Texas. The Debtor itself is a Delaware limited partnership and one of the principal operating arms of the Debtor’s business. As of the Petition Date, the Debtor employed approximately 76 people, including executive-level management employees, finance and legal staff, investment professionals, and back-office accounting and administrative personnel.

Pursuant to various contractual arrangements, the Debtor, as of the Petition Date, provided money management and advisory services for approximately $2.5 billion of assets under management shared services for approximately $7.5 billion of assets managed by a variety of affiliated and unaffiliated entities, including other affiliated registered investment advisers. None of these affiliates filed for Chapter 11 protection. As of June 30, 2020, the Debtor provided money management and advisory services for approximately $1.725 billion of assets under management and shared services for approximately $7.115 billion of assets managed by a variety of affiliated and unaffiliated entities, including other affiliated registered investment advisers. Further, on the Petition Date, the value of the Debtor’s Assets totaled approximately $566.5 million. As of June 30, 2020, the Debtor’s Assets totaled approximately $351.7 million. The drop in the value of the Debtor’s Assets and assets under management was caused, in part, by the COVID-19 global pandemic.

The Debtor’s organizational chart is attached hereto as Exhibit B. The organizational chart is not all inclusive and certain entities have been excluded for the sake of brevity.

C. Business Overview

The Debtor's primary means of generating revenue has historically been from fees collected for the management and advisory services provided to funds that it manages, plus fees generated for services provided to its affiliates. For additional liquidity, the Debtor, prior to the Petition Date, would sell liquid securities in the ordinary course held through its prime brokerage account at Jefferies, LLC ("Jefferies"), as described in additional detail below. The Debtor would also, from time to time, sell assets at non-Debtor subsidiaries and distribute those proceeds to the Debtor in the ordinary course of business. During calendar year 2018, the Debtor's stand-alone annual revenue totaled approximately $50 million. During calendar year 2019, the Debtor's stand-alone revenue totaled approximately $36.1 million.

D. Prepetition Capital Structure

1. Jefferies Margin Borrowings (Secured)

The Debtor is party to that certain Prime Brokerage Customer Agreement with Jefferies dated May 24, 2013 (the "Brokerage Agreement"). Pursuant to the terms of the Brokerage Agreement and related documents, the Debtor maintains a prime brokerage account with Jefferies (the "Prime Account"). A prime brokerage account is a unique type of brokerage account that allows sophisticated investors to, among other things, borrow both money on margin to purchase securities and common stock to facilitate short positions. A prime brokerage account also serves as a custodial account and holds client securities in the prime broker's street name.

As of the Petition Date, the Debtor held approximately $57 million of equity in the liquid and illiquid securities (the "Securities") in the Prime Account. Pursuant to the Brokerage Agreement, the Debtor granted a lien in favor of Jefferies in the Securities and all of the proceeds thereof.

However, because of the economic distress caused by the COVID-19 global pandemic, the value of the Securities held in the Prime Account dropped since the Petition Date, and Jefferies has exerted significant pressure on the Debtor to liquidate the Securities to satisfy margin calls. As of June 30, 2020, the equity value of the Securities in the Prime Account was approximately $26.5 million, and the Debtor owed no amounts to Jefferies.

2. The Frontier Bank Loan (Secured)

The Debtor and Frontier State Bank ("Frontier Bank") are parties to that certain Loan Agreement dated as of August 17, 2015 (the "Original Frontier Loan Agreement"), pursuant to which Frontier Bank loaned to the Debtor the aggregate principal amount of $9.5 million. On March 29, 2018, the Debtor and Frontier Bank entered into that certain First Amended and Restated Loan Agreement (the "Amended Frontier Loan Agreement"), amending and superseding the Original Frontier Loan Agreement. Pursuant to the Amended Frontier Loan Agreement, Frontier Bank made an additional $1 million loan to the Debtor (together with the borrowings under the Original Frontier Loan Agreement, the "Frontier Loan"). The Frontier Loan matures on August 17, 2021.

Pursuant to that certain Security and Pledge Agreement dated August 17, 2015, between Frontier Bank and the Debtor, as amended by the Amended Frontier Loan Agreement, the Debtor's obligations under the Frontier Loan are secured by 171,724 shares of voting common stock of MGM Holdings, Inc. (collectively, the "Frontier Collateral").

The aggregate principal balance of the Frontier Loan was approximately $5.2 million. As of June 30, 2020, the value of the Frontier Collateral was approximately $14.1 million, and approximately $235,000 in postpetition interest had accrued.

3. Other Unsecured Obligations

As discussed below, the Plan provides for four Classes of unsecured claims: (i) the Convenience Claims, (ii) the Unpaid Employee Claims, (iii) the General Unsecured Claims, and (iv) the Subordinated Claims.

The Debtor has various substantial litigation claims asserted against it, which have been classified as General Unsecured Claims. In addition, as of the Petition Date, the Debtor had ordinary course trade debt, unaccrued employee bonus obligations and loan repayment, and contractual commitments to various affiliated and unaffiliated non-Debtor entities for capital calls, contributions, and other potential reimbursement or funding obligations that were potentially in the tens of millions of dollars. The Debtor is still assessing these claims and its liability for such amounts. These Claims have been classified as Convenience Claims and Subordinated Claims.

Based on the Schedules (as defined below) and the proofs of claim that have been filed, the Debtor estimates that non-subordinated, unsecured Claims against the Debtor, including claims filed by certain Related Entities and affiliates but excluding claims filed by Acis, UBS, the Redeemer Committee, Patrick Daugherty, Integrated Financial Associates, Inc. ("IFA"), Hunter Mountain, and the HarbourVest Entities⁵ should total approximately $26.1 million. This estimate, however, does not account for any additional General Unsecured Claims against the Debtor arising from the rejection of executory contracts and leases pursuant to the Plan. Further, the Debtor anticipates that the Claimant Trustee or the Reorganized Debtor, as applicable, will object to a number of the filed proofs of claim. Thus, the total amount of Allowed unsecured Claims may vary substantially from the estimates set forth herein.

4. Equity Interests

The Debtor is a Delaware limited partnership. As of the Petition Date, the Debtor had three classes of limited partnership interest (Class A, Class B, and Class C). The Class A interests were held by The Dugaboy Investment Trust, Mark Okada, personally and through family trusts, and Strand, the Debtor's general partner. The Class B and C interests were held by Hunter Mountain.

In the aggregate, the Debtor's limited partnership interests were held: (a) 99.5% by Hunter Mountain; (b) 0.1866% by The Dugaboy Investment Trust, (c) 0.0627% by Mark Okada, personally and through family trusts, and (d) 0.25% by Strand.

E. SEC Filings

The Debtor is an investment adviser registered with the SEC as required by the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. As a registered investment adviser, the Debtor is required to file (at least annually) a Form ADV. The Debtor's current Form ADV is available at <https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/>.

Following the Effective Date, it is anticipated that the Reorganized Debtor will maintain its registration with the SEC as a registered investment adviser.

F. Events Leading Up to the Debtor's Bankruptcy Filings

The Chapter 11 Case was precipitated by the rendering of an Arbitration Award (as that term is defined below) against the Debtor on May 9, 2019, by a panel of the American Arbitration Association (the "Panel"), in favor of the Redeemer Committee of the Highland Crusader Fund (the "Redeemer Committee").

The Debtor was formerly the investment manager for the Highland Crusader Funds (the "Crusader Funds") that were formed between 2000 and 2002. In September and October 2008, as the financial markets in the United States began to fail, the Debtor was flooded with redemption requests from Crusader Funds' investors, as the Crusader Funds' assets lost significant value.

On October 15, 2008, the Debtor placed the Crusader Funds in wind-down, thereby compulsorily redeeming the Crusader Funds' limited partnership interests. The Debtor also declared that it would liquidate the Crusader Funds' remaining assets and distribute the proceeds to investors.

However, disputes concerning the distribution of the assets arose among certain investors. After several years of negotiations, a Joint Plan of Distribution of the Crusader Funds (the "Crusader Plan"), and the Scheme of Arrangement between Highland Crusader Fund and its Scheme Creditors (the "Crusader Scheme"), were adopted in Bermuda and became effective in August 2011. As part of the Crusader Plan and the Crusader Scheme, the Redeemer Committee was elected from among the Crusader Funds' investors to oversee the Debtor's management of the Crusader Funds.

Between October 2011 and January 2013, in accordance with the Crusader Plan and the Crusader Scheme, the Debtor distributed in excess of $1.2 billion to the Crusader Funds' investors. The Debtor distributed a further $315.3 million through June 2016.

However, disputes subsequently arose between the Redeemer Committee and the Debtor. On July 5, 2016, the Redeemer Committee (a) terminated and replaced the Debtor as investment manager of the Crusader Fund, (b) commenced an arbitration against the Debtor (the “Arbitration”), and (c) commenced litigation in Delaware Chancery Court, to, among other things, obtain a status quo order in aid of the arbitration, which order was subsequently entered.

Following an evidentiary hearing, the Panel issued (a) a Partial Final Award, dated March 6, 2019 (the “March Award”), (b) a Disposition of Application for Modification of Award, dated March 14, 2019 (the “Modification Award”), and (c) a Final Award, dated May 9, 2019 (the “Final Award” and together with the March Award and the Modification Award, the “Arbitration Award”). Pursuant to the Arbitration Award, the Redeemer Committee was awarded gross damages against the Debtor in the aggregate amount of $136,808,302; as of the Petition Date, the total value of the Arbitration Award was $190,824,557, inclusive of interest

Prior to the Petition Date, the Redeemer Committee moved in the Chancery Court to confirm the Arbitration Award. For its part, the Debtor moved to vacate parts of the Final Award contending that certain aspects were procedurally improper. The Redeemer Committee’s motion to confirm the Arbitration Award and the Debtor’s motion to vacate were fully briefed and were scheduled to be heard by the Chancery Court on the day the Debtor filed for bankruptcy

On the Petition Date, the Debtor believed that the aggregate value of its assets exceeded the amount of its liabilities; however, the Debtor filed the Chapter 11 Case because it did not have sufficient liquidity to immediately satisfy the Award or post a supersedeas bond necessary to pursue an appeal.

G. Additional Prepetition Litigation

In addition to the litigation with the Redeemer Committee described above, the Debtor, both directly and through certain subsidiaries, affiliates, and related entities, was party to substantial prepetition litigation. Although the Debtor disputes the allegations raised in this litigation and believes it has substantial defenses, this litigation has resulted in substantial Claims against the Debtor’s Estate, each of which has been classified as a General Unsecured Claim. To the extent that these litigation Claims cannot be resolved consensually, they will be litigated by the Claimant Trustee or Reorganized Debtor, as applicable. The Debtor’s major prepetition litigation is as follows:

- Redeemer Committee: The dispute with the Redeemer Committee is described in ARTICLE II.F above. As discussed in ARTICLE II.R, the Debtor and the Redeemer Committee have reached a settlement, which, if approved by the Bankruptcy Court, will resolve the Redeemer Committee’s claims against the Estate.
- Acis Capital Management, L.P., & Acis Capital Management GP, LLC: On January 30, 2018, Joshua Terry filed involuntary bankruptcy petitions against both Acis Capital Management, L.P. (“Acis LP”) and its general partner, Acis Capital Management GP, LLC (“Acis GP,” and collectively with Acis LP, “Acis”) in the Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas, Dallas Division, the Honorable Judge Jernigan presiding (the same judge presiding over the Chapter 11 Case), Case No. 18-30264-SGJ (the “Acis Case”). Mr. Terry had been an employee of the Debtor and a limited partner of Acis LP. Mr. Terry was terminated in June 2016, and obtained a multi-million dollar arbitration award against Acis. Overruling various objections, the Bankruptcy Court entered the orders for relief for the Acis debtors in April 2018, and a chapter 11 trustee was appointed. The Debtor filed a proof of claim against Acis and an administrative claim. Acis disputes the Debtor's claim, and the Debtor has not received any distributions on its claim to date. On January 31, 2019, Acis's chapter 11 plan was confirmed, and Mr. Terry become the sole owner of reorganized Acis. Several appeals remain pending, including an appeal of the entry of the Acis orders for relief and the Acis confirmation order.

The Acis trustee commenced a lawsuit against the Debtor, among others, alleging fraudulent conveyance and other causes of action in relation to the Debtor's alleged prepetition effort to control and transfer away Acis's assets to avoid paying Mr. Terry's claim. After the confirmation of the Acis plan, reorganized Acis allegedly supplanted the Acis Trustee as plaintiff and filed an amended complaint against the Debtor and other defendants, which claims comprise Acis's pending proof of claim against the Debtor.

As discussed in ARTICLE II.R, the Debtor and Acis have reached a settlement, which, if approved by the Bankruptcy Court, will resolve Acis's claims against the Estate.

- UBS Securities LLC and UBS AG London Branch: UBS Securities LLC ("UBS Securities") filed a proof of claim in the amount of $1,039,957,799.40 [Claim No. 190] (the "UBS Securities Claim"), and UBS AG, London Branch ("UBS London," and together with UBS Securities, "UBS") filed a substantively identical proof of claim in the amount of $1,039,957,799.40 [Claim No. 191] (the "UBS London Claim" and together with the UBS Securities Claim, the "UBS Claim"). The UBS Claim was based on the amount of a judgment UBS received on a breach of contract claim against funds related to the Debtor that were unable to honor margin calls in 2008. Although the Debtor had no obligation under UBS's contracts with the funds, UBS alleges the Debtor is liable for the judgment because it (i) breached an alleged duty to ensure that the funds could pay UBS, (ii) caused or permitted $233 million in alleged fraudulent transfers to be made by Highland Financial Partners, L.P. ("HFP") in March 2009, and (iii) is an alter ego of the funds. The Debtor believes there are meritorious defenses to most, if not all, of the UBS Claim for numerous reasons, including: (i) decisions by the New York Appellate Division that limited UBS's claims to the March 2009 transfers that it alleges were fraudulent; (ii) those decisions should also apply to any alter ego claim (which at this time has not been formally asserted against the Debtor); (iii) UBS settled claims relating to $172 million of the $233 million in alleged fraudulent transfers and the Debtor is covered by the release; and (iv) the March 2009 transfers were in any event part of a wholly legitimate transaction that did not target UBS and for which HFP received fair consideration. Those and several additional defenses are described in the Debtor's Objection to Proofs of Claim 190 and 191 of UBS Securities LLC and UBS AG, London Branch [D.I. 928].

- Patrick Daugherty: Patrick Daugherty has Filed a Proof of Claim for “at least $37,483,876.62” [Claim Nos. 67; 77] (the “Daugherty Claim”). Mr. Daugherty is a former limited partner and employee of the Debtor. The Daugherty Claim has three components, and Mr. Daugherty asserts claims: (1) for indemnification for any taxes Mr. Daugherty is required to pay as a result of the IRS audit of the Debtor’s 2008-2009 tax return; (2) for defamation arising from a 2017 press release posted by the Debtor; and (3) arising from a pending Delaware lawsuit against the Debtor, which seeks to recover a judgment of $2.6 million in respect of Highland Employee Retention Assets (“HERA”), plus interest, from assets Mr. Daugherty claims were fraudulently transferred to the Debtor. The Daugherty Claim also seeks (a) the value of Mr. Daugherty’s asserted interest in HERA, which he values at approximately $26 million; and (b) indemnification for fees incurred in the Delaware action and in previous litigation in Texas State Court. The Debtor believes that the Daugherty Claim should be allowed in the amount of $3,722,019; however, the Debtor believes, for various reasons, that the balance of the Daugherty Claim lacks merit. The Debtor’s defenses to the Daugherty Claim are described in the Debtor’s (i) Objection to Claim No. 77 of Patrick Hagaman Daugherty and (ii) Complaint to Subordinate Claim of Patrick Hagaman Daugherty [Docket No. 1008].

H. The Debtor’s Bankruptcy Proceeding

On October 16, 2019, the Debtor commenced a voluntary case under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the “Delaware Bankruptcy Court”). On December 4, 2019, the Delaware Bankruptcy Court entered an order transferring venue of the Chapter 11 Case to the Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas, Dallas Division (the “Bankruptcy Court”).⁶ The Debtor continues to operate its business and manage its properties as debtor-in-possession under the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court and in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and orders of the Bankruptcy Court.

An immediate effect of commencement of the Chapter 11 Case was the imposition of the automatic stay under the Bankruptcy Code which, with limited exceptions, enjoins the commencement or continuation of all collection efforts, the enforcement of liens against property of the Debtor, and the continuation of litigation against the Debtor during the pendency of the Chapter 11 Case. The automatic stay will remain in effect, unless modified by the Bankruptcy Court, until the later of the Effective Date and the date indicated in any order providing for the implementation of such stay or injunction.

I. First Day Orders

On or about the Petition Date, the Debtor filed certain “first day” motions and applications with the Delaware Bankruptcy Court seeking certain immediate relief to aid in the efficient administration of this Chapter 11 Case and to facilitate the Debtor’s transition to debtor-

K. United States Trustee

While the Chapter 11 Case was pending in the Delaware Bankruptcy Court, the U.S. Trustee for Region 3 appointed Jane Leamy as the attorney for the U.S. Trustee in connection with this Chapter 11 Case (the “Delaware U.S. Trustee”). Following the transfer of the Chapter 11 Case to the Bankruptcy Court, the Delaware U.S. Trustee no longer represented the U.S. Trustee, and the U.S. Trustee for Region 6 appointed Lisa Lambert as the attorney for the U.S. Trustee in connection with this Chapter 11 Case (the “Texas U.S. Trustee,” and together with the Delaware U.S. Trustee, the “U.S. Trustee”). The Debtor has worked cooperatively to address concerns and comments from the U.S. Trustee’s office during this Chapter 11 Case.

L. Appointment of Committee

On October 29, 2019, the Delaware U.S. Trustee appointed the Committee in this Chapter 11 Case [D.I. 65]. The members of the Committee are (a) Redeemer Committee of Highland Crusader Fund, (b) Meta-e Discovery, (c) UBS Securities LLC and UBS AG London Branch, and (d) Acis Capital Management, L.P. and Acis Capital Management GP, LLP. Meta-E Discovery is a vendor to the Debtor. The other members of the Committee are litigants in prepetition litigation with the Debtor as described in ARTICLE II.G. The counsel to the Committee is Sidley Austin LLP and the financial advisor to the Committee is FTI Consulting, Inc.

M. Meeting of Creditors

The meeting of creditors under section 341(a) of the Bankruptcy Code was initially scheduled for November 20, 2019, at 9:30 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) at the J. Caleb Boggs Federal Building, 844 N. King Street, Room 3209, Wilmington, Delaware 19801, and was rescheduled to December 3, 2019, at 10:30 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time). At the meeting of creditors, the Delaware U.S. Trustee and creditors asked questions of a representative of the Debtor.

Following the transfer of the Chapter 11 Case to the Bankruptcy Court, the Texas U.S. Trustee scheduled an additional meeting of creditors under section 341(a) for January 9, 2020, at 11:00 a.m. (prevailing Central Time) at the Office of the U.S. Trustee, 1100 Commerce Street, Room 976, Dallas, Texas 75242, at the conclusion of that meeting, the Texas U.S. Trustee continued the meeting to January 22, 2020. The Texas U.S. Trustee and creditors asked questions of a representative of the Debtor at the January 9 and January 22, 2020 meetings.

N. Schedules, Statements of Financial Affairs, and Claims Bar Date

The Debtor filed its Schedules of Assets and Liabilities and Statements of Financial Affairs (the “Schedules”) on December 19, 2019 [D.I. 247-248]. A creditor whose Claim is set forth in the Schedules and not identified as contingent, unliquidated or disputed may have elected to file a proof of claim against the Debtor.

The Bankruptcy Court established (i) April 8, 2020 as the deadline for Creditors (other than governmental units) to file proofs of claim against the Debtor; (ii) April 13, 2020, as the deadline for any governmental unit (as such term is defined in section 101(27) of the Bankruptcy Code), (iii) April 23, 2020, and as the deadline for any investors in any fund managed by the Debtor to file proofs of claim against the Debtor; and (iv) May 26, 2020 as the deadline for the Debtor’s employees to file proofs of claim against the Debtor pursuant to and accordance with Court’s order entered on April 3, 2020 [D.I. 560].⁷ Consequently, the bar date for filing proofs of claims has passed and any claims filed after the applicable bar date will be considered late filed.

O. Settlement with the Committee

On January 9, 2020, the Bankruptcy Court entered the Order Approving Settlement with Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors Regarding Governance of the Debtor and Procedures for Operations in the Ordinary Course [D.I. 339] (the “Settlement Order”).

Among other things, the Settlement Order approved a term sheet (the “Term Sheet”) agreed to by the Debtor and the Committee pursuant to which the Debtor agreed to abide by certain protocols governing the production of documents and certain protocols governing the operation of the Debtor’s business (the “Operating Protocols”). Under the Operating Protocols, the Debtor agreed to seek consent from the Committee prior to entering into certain “Transactions” (as defined in the Operating Protocols. The Operating Protocols were amended on February 21, 2020, with the consent of the Committee [D.I. 466].

Pursuant to the Term Sheet, the Debtor also granted the Committee standing to pursue certain estate claims and causes of action against Mr. Dondero, Mr. Okada, other insiders of the Debtor, and the Related Entities (as defined in the Operating Protocols) (collectively, the “Estate Claims”). To the extent permitted, the Estate Claims and the ability to pursue the Estate Claims are being transferred to either the Claimant Trust or Litigation Sub-Trust pursuant to the Plan.

⁷ During the course of its Chapter 11 Case, the Debtor entered into stipulations to extend the Bar Date for certain other claimants or potential claimants.

In connection with the Settlement Order, an independent board of directors was also appointed at Strand, the Debtor's general partner (the "Independent Board"). The members of the Independent Board are John S. Dubel, James P. Seery, Jr., and Russell Nelms. The Independent Board was tasked with managing the Debtor's operations during the Chapter 11 Case and facilitating a reorganization or orderly liquidation of the Debtor's Estate.

P. Appointment of James P. Seery, Jr., as Chief Executive Officer and Chief Restructuring Officer

Following their appointment in January 2020, the Independent Board determined that it would be more efficient for the Debtor to have a traditional corporate management structure, i.e. a fully engaged chief executive officer supervised by the Independent Board. The Independent Board ultimately determined that Mr. Seery – a member of the Independent Board – had the requisite experience and expertise to lead the Debtor. On June 23, 2020, the Debtor filed Debtor's Motion Under Bankruptcy Code Sections 105(a) and 363(b) for Authorization to Retain James P. Seery, Jr., as Chief Executive Officer, Chief Restructuring Officer and Foreign Representative Nunc Pro Tunc to March 15, 2020 [D.I. 774] (the "Seery Retention Motion") to retain Mr. Seery as chief executive officer, chief restructuring officer, and foreign representative.

The Bankruptcy Court entered an order approving the Seery Retention Motion on July 16, 2020 [D.I. 854]. Mr. Seery was retained as the Debtor's chief executive officer and the duties of Bradley Sharp of DSI as the Debtor's chief restructuring officer and foreign representative were transferred to Mr. Seery.

Q. Mediation

On August 3, 2020, the Bankruptcy Court entered the Order Directing Mediation [D.I. 912] pursuant to which the Bankruptcy Court ordered the Debtor, the Committee, UBS, Acis, the Redeemer Committee, and Mr. Dondero into mediation and appointed Sylvia Mayer and Allan Gropper as the mediators (the "Mediators"). The goal of the mediation is to resolve the outstanding Claims of UBS and Acis and to negotiate the terms of a plan of reorganization. The mediation began on August 27, 2020, and is still ongoing as of the date of this Disclosure Statement. This Disclosure Statement and the Plan will be amended to account for the outcome of the mediation to the extent necessary.

R. Postpetition Settlements

1. Settlement with Acis and the Terry Parties

With the assistance of the Mediators, on September 9, 2020, (i) the Debtor, (ii) Acis LP, (iii) Acis GP, and (iv) Joshua N. Terry, individually and for the benefit of his individual retirement accounts, and Jennifer G. Terry, individually and for the benefit of her individual retirement accounts and as trustee of the Terry Family 401-K Plan (together, the "Terry Parties") executed that certain Settlement Agreement and General Release. The Debtor intends to file a motion with the Bankruptcy Court seeking approval of the Settlement Agreement and General Release (the "Acis Settlement Motion"). If the Acis Settlement Motion is approved by the Bankruptcy Court, it will fully resolve Acis's and the Terry Parties' claims against the Estate and grant, with certain material exceptions, mutual releases to the Debtor, Acis, and the Terry Parties, among others.

The Settlement Agreement and General Release contain the following material terms, among others:

- The proof of claim filed by Acis [Claim No. 23] will be Allowed in the amount of $23,000,000 as a General Unsecured Claim.
- On the Effective Date of the Plan (or any other plan of reorganization confirmed by the Bankruptcy Court), the Debtor will pay in cash to:

 - Acis LP in the amount of $97,000, which amount represents the legal fees incurred by Acis LP with respect to the NWCC, LLC v. Highland CLO Management, LLC, et al., Index No. 654195/2018 (N.Y. Sup. Ct. 2018), in full and complete satisfaction of the proof of claim filed by Acis LP [Claim No. 159]; and
 - Mr. Terry in the amount of $355,000 in full and complete satisfaction of the legal fees assessed against Highland CLO Funding, Ltd., in Highland CLO Funding v. Joshua Terry, [No Case Number], pending in the Royal Court of the Island of Guernsey;

The Settlement Agreement also provides that within five days of the Bankruptcy Court's approval of the Settlement Agreement and the General Release, the Debtor will move to withdraw, with prejudice, the proofs of claim that the Debtor filed in the Acis bankruptcy cases and the motion filed by the Debtor in the Acis bankruptcy cases seeking an administrative claim for postpetition services provided to Acis.

The foregoing is a summary only, and all parties are encouraged to review the Acis Settlement Motion when filed for additional information on the Settlement Agreement and General Release.

2. Settlement with the Redeemer Committee

Although not yet executed, the Debtor, Eames, Ltd., the Redeemer Committee, and the Crusader Funds (collectively, the "Settling Parties") have agreed to the terms of a settlement (the "Redeemer Stipulation"). It is anticipated that the Redeemer Stipulation will also be executed, solely with respect to paragraphs 10 through 15 thereof, by Hockney, Ltd., Strand, Highland Special Opportunities Holding Company, Highland CDO Opportunity Master Fund, L.P., Highland Financial Partners, L.P., Highland Credit Strategies Master Fund, L.P., Highland Credit Opportunities CDO, L.P., House Hanover, LLC, and Alvarez & Marsal CRF Management, LLC (collectively, the "Additional Release Parties"). The Debtor intends to file a motion with the Bankruptcy Court seeking approval of the Redeemer Stipulation (the "Redeemer Settlement Motion"). If the Redeemer Settlement Motion is approved by the Bankruptcy Court, it will fully resolve the claims filed by the Redeemer Committee and the Crusader Funds.

The Redeemer Stipulation contains the following material terms, among others:

- The proof of claim filed by the Redeemer Committee [Claim No. 72] will be Allowed in the amount of $136,696,610 as a General Unsecured Claim;
- The proof of claim filed by the Crusader Funds [Claim No. 81] will be Allowed in the amount of $50,000 as a General Unsecured Claim;

- The Debtor and Eames each acknowledged that they will not receive any portion of certain reserved distributions, and the Debtor further acknowledged that it will not receive any payments from the Crusader Funds in respect of any deferred fees, distribution fees, or management fees;
- The Debtor and the Redeemer Committee agreed to a form of amendment to the shareholders' agreement for Cornerstone Healthcare Group and to a process to monetize Cornerstone Healthcare Group;

The foregoing is a summary only and subject in all respects to the execution of the Redeemer Stipulation. All parties are encouraged to review the Redeemer Settlement Motion when filed for additional information on the Redeemer Stipulation.

S. Certain Outstanding Material Claims

As discussed above, April 8, 2020, was the general bar date for filing proofs of claim. The Debtor has begun the process of resolving those Claims. Although each Claim represents a potential liability of the Estate, the Debtor believes that, in addition to UBS's Claim, the Claims filed by IFA, the HarbourVest Entities, and Hunter Mountain represent the largest unresolved Claims against the Estate.

- IFA Proof of Claim. IFA filed a proof of claim [Claim No. 93] seeking damages in the amount of $241,002,696.73 arising from the purported joint control of the Debtor and NexBank, SSB, and the Debtor's management of various lenders to IFA. The Debtor believes that IFA's claim should be disallowed in its entirety. IFA's claim and the Debtor's defenses thereto are described in greater detail in the Objection to Proof of Claim No. 93 of Integrated Financial Associates, Inc. [Docket No. 868].

- HarbourVest Entities Proofs of Claim. The HarbourVest Entities are investors in Highland CLO Funding, Ltd. (“HCLOF”) and filed proofs of claim against the Debtor’s Estate [Claim No. 143, 147, 149, 150, 153, 154]. Because the Debtor believed that it had no liability to the HarbourVest Entities and that the HarbourVest Entities’ proofs of claim did not state a basis for liability, the Debtor objected to those proofs of claim on the Debtor’s First Omnibus Objection to Certain (a) Duplicate Claims; (b) Overstated Claims; (c) Late-Filed Claims; (d) Satisfied Claims; (e) No-Liability Claims; and (f) Insufficient Documentation Claims [Docket No. 906]. In response, the HarbourVest Entities filed the HarbourVest Response to Debtor’s First Omnibus Objection to Certain (a) Duplicate Claims; (b) Overstated Claims; (c) Late-Filed Claims; (d) Satisfied Claims; (e) No-Liability Claims; and (f) Insufficient Documentation Claims [Docket No. 1057] in which the HarbourVest Entities alleged that they are owed in excess of $100 million for damages to the HarbourVest Entities’ investment in HCLOF. The Debtor disputes the allegations raised by the HarbourVest Entities and intends to contest the HarbourVest Entities’ proofs of claim. The Debtor believes that the HarbourVest Entities’ proofs of claim should be disallowed in their entirety.
- Hunter Mountain Proof of Claim. Hunter Mountain is one of the Debtor’s limited partners. Hunter Mountain filed a proof of claim [Claim No. 152] seeking a $60,298,739 indemnification claim against the Debtor because of the Debtor’s alleged failures to make priority distributions to Hunter Mountain under the Debtor’s Partnership Agreement. The Debtor believes that it has meritorious defenses to Hunter Mountain’s claim. Hunter Mountain’s claim and the Debtor’s defenses to such claim are described in greater detail in the Debtor’s (i) Objection to Claim No. 152 of Hunter Mountain Investment Trust and (ii) Complaint to Subordinate Claim of Hunter Mountain Investment Trust and for Declaratory Relief [Docket No. 995]. The Debtor believes that Hunter Mountain’s proof of claim should either be disallowed in its entirety or subordinated in its entirety.

In addition to the foregoing, the UBS Claim (in the amount of $1,039,957,799.40) and the Daugherty Claim (in the amount of at least $37,483,876.62) remain outstanding.

T. Exclusive Periods for Filing a Plan and Soliciting Votes

Under the Bankruptcy Code, a debtor has the exclusive right to file and solicit acceptance of a plan or plans of reorganization for an initial period of 120 days from the date on which the debtor filed for voluntary relief. If a debtor files a plan within this exclusive period, then the debtor has the exclusive right for 180 days from the petition date to solicit acceptances to the plan. During these exclusive periods, no other party in interest may file a competing plan of reorganization; however, a court may extend these periods upon request of a party in interest and “for cause.”

The Debtor filed motions to extend the exclusive period, and the Bankruptcy Court entered the following orders granting such applications:

- Order Granting Debtor's Motion for Entry of an Order Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1121(d) and Local Rule 3016-1 Extending the Exclusivity Periods for the Filing and Solicitation of Acceptances of a Chapter 11 Plan [D.I. 460];
- Agreed Order Extending Exclusive Periods by Thirty Days [D.I. 668]; and
- Order Granting Debtor's Third Motion for Entry of an Order Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1121(d) and Local Rule 3016-1 Further Extending the Exclusivity Periods for the Filing and Solicitation of Acceptances of a Chapter 11 Plan [D.I. 820].

Pursuant to the foregoing orders, the Bankruptcy Court extended the exclusivity period through June 12, 2020, for the filing of a plan, which was subsequently extended through July 13, 2020, and again through August 12, 2020. The Bankruptcy Court also extended the exclusivity period for the solicitation of votes to accept such plan through August 11, 2020, which was subsequently extended through September 10, 2020, and again through October 13, 2020.

On August 13, 2020, the Debtor filed Debtor's Fourth Motion for Entry of an Order Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1121(d) and Local Rule 3016-1 Further Extending the Exclusivity Periods for the Filing and Solicitation of Acceptances of a Chapter 11 Plan [Docket No. 949] pursuant to which the Debtor sought a further extension of the exclusivity period for the filing of a plan through September 11, 2020, and the exclusivity period for the solicitation of votes to accept such plan through November 12, 2020. The Debtor filed for a further extension of the exclusivity periods at the request of the Mediators. The Bankruptcy Court has not yet ruled on this motion.

U. Negotiations with Constituents

The Debtor has engaged with the Committee in negotiating the terms of the Plan, but such negotiations have not yet produced a Plan that the Committee supports.

The Debtor, Mr. Dondero, and certain of the creditors have been negotiating a consensual reorganization plan for the Debtor that contemplates the Debtor continuing its business largely in its current form. Those negotiations have yet to reach conclusion but are continuing, and the negotiations were as part of the previously discussed mediation. There is no certainty that those negotiations will reach a consensual resolution of the Debtor's bankruptcy case.

he Plan is the Debtor's plan of reorganization in the event that it is unable to reach a consensual settlement plan with Mr. Dondero and the creditors of the estate.

ARTICLE III.
SUMMARY OF THE PLAN

THIS ARTICLE III IS INTENDED ONLY TO PROVIDE A SUMMARY OF THE MATERIAL TERMS OF THE PLAN AND IS QUALIFIED BY REFERENCE TO THE ENTIRE DISCLOSURE STATEMENT AND THE PLAN AND SHOULD NOT BE RELIED ON FOR A COMPREHENSIVE DISCUSSION OF THE PLAN. The Claimant Trust shall also be responsible for resolving all Disputed or disallowed Claims. The Claimant Trust shall be governed by the Claimant Trust Agreement and administered by the Claimant Trustee. The powers, rights, and responsibilities of the Claimant Trustee shall be specified in the Claimant Trust Agreement and shall include the authority and responsibility to, among other things, take the actions set forth in Article IV of the Plan, subject to any required reporting to the Claimant Trust Oversight Committee as may be set forth in the Claimant Trust Agreement. The Claimant Trust Oversight Committee will initially consist of five members. Except as otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court, the Claimant Trust Expenses shall be paid from the Claimant Trust Assets in accordance with the Plan and Claimant Trust Agreement. The Claimant Trustee may establish a reserve for the payment of Claimant Trust Expenses and shall periodically replenish such reserve, as necessary.

The Trustees, on behalf of the Claimant Trust, may each employ, without further order of the Bankruptcy Court, employees and other professionals (including those previously retained by the Debtor and the Committee) to assist in carrying out the Trustees' duties hereunder and may compensate and reimburse the reasonable expenses of these professionals without further Order of the Bankruptcy Court from the Claimant Trust Assets in accordance with the Plan and the Claimant Trust Agreement.

The Claimant Trust Agreement may include reasonable and customary provisions that allow for indemnification by the Claimant Trust in favor of the Claimant Trustee, Litigation Trustee, and the Claimant Trust Oversight Committee. Any such indemnification shall be the sole responsibility of the Claimant Trust and payable solely from the Claimant Trust Assets.

In furtherance of, and consistent with the purpose of, the Claimant Trust and the Plan, the Trustees, for the benefit of the Claimant Trust, shall, subject to reporting and oversight by the Claimant Trust Oversight Committee as set forth in the Claimant Trust Agreement: (i) hold the Claimant Trust Assets for the benefit of the Claimant Trust Beneficiaries, (ii) make Distributions to the Claimant Trust Beneficiaries as provided herein and in the Claimant Trust Agreement, and (iii) have the sole power and authority to prosecute and resolve any Causes of Action and objections to Claims and Equity Interests, without approval of the Bankruptcy Court. In all circumstances, the Trustees shall act in the best interests of the Claimant Trust Beneficiaries and with the same fiduciary duties as a chapter 7 trustee.

The salient terms of each Trustee's employment, including such Trustee's duties and compensation shall be set forth in the Claimant Trust Agreement. The Trustees shall each be entitled to reasonable compensation in an amount consistent with that of similar functionaries in similar types of bankruptcy cases.

(f) Cooperation of Debtor and Reorganized Debtor.

To effectively investigate, prosecute, compromise and/or settle the Claims and/or Causes of Action that constitute Claimant Trust Assets on behalf of the Claimant Trust, the Claimant Trustee, Litigation Trustee, and each of their counsel may require reasonable access to the Debtor's and Reorganized Debtor's documents, information, and work product relating to the Claimant Trust Assets. Accordingly, the Claimant Trustee and Litigation Trustee shall have reasonable access to copies of the Debtor's and Reorganized Debtor's records and information relating to the Claimant Trust Assets, including electronic records, documents or work product related to the Claims and/or Causes of Action that constitute Claimant Trust Assets.

The Debtor and Reorganized Debtor shall preserve all records, documents or work product (including all electronic records, documents, or work product) related to the Claims and/or Causes of Action that constitute Claimant Trust Assets until the earlier of (a) the dissolution of the Reorganized Debtor or (b) termination of the Claimant Trust.

(g) United States Federal Income Tax Treatment of the Claimant Trust.

Unless the IRS requires otherwise, for all United States federal income tax purposes, the parties shall treat the transfer of the Claimant Trust Assets to the Claimant Trust as: (a) a transfer of the Claimant Trust Assets (other than the amounts set aside in the Disputed Claim Reserve, if the Claimant Trustee makes the election described in Section 7 below) directly to the applicable Claimant Trust Beneficiaries followed by (b) the transfer by the such Claimant Trust Beneficiaries to the Claimant Trust of such Claimant Trust Assets in exchange for the Claimant Trust Interests. Accordingly, the applicable Claimant Trust Beneficiaries shall be treated for United States federal income tax purposes as the grantors and owners of their respective share of the Claimant Trust Assets. The foregoing treatment shall also apply, to the extent permitted by applicable law, for state and local income tax purposes.

(h) Tax Reporting.

(a) The Claimant Trustee shall file tax returns for the Claimant Trust treating the Claimant Trust as a grantor trust pursuant to Treasury Regulation section 1.671-4(a). The Claimant Trustee may file an election pursuant to Treasury Regulation 1.468B-9(c) to treat the Disputed Claims Reserve as a disputed ownership fund, in which case the Claimant Trustee will file federal income tax returns and pay taxes for the Disputed Claim Reserve as a separate taxable entity.

(b) The Claimant Trustee shall be responsible for payment, out of the Claimant Trust Assets, of any taxes imposed on the Claimant Trust or its assets.

(c) The Claimant Trustee shall determine the fair market value of the Claimant Trust Assets as of the Effective Date and notify the applicable Claimant Trust Beneficiaries of such valuation, and such valuation shall be used consistently for all federal income tax purposes.

(d) The Claimant Trustee shall distribute such tax information to the applicable Claimant Trust Beneficiaries as the Claimant Trustee determines is required by applicable law.

(i) Claimant Trust Assets.

The Claimant Trustee shall have the exclusive right, on behalf of the Claimant Trust, to institute, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, or withdraw any and all Causes of Action included in the Claimant Trust Assets (except for the Estate Claims) without any further order of the Bankruptcy Court and the Claimant Trustee shall have the exclusive right, on behalf of the Claimant Trust, to sell, liquidate, or otherwise monetize all Claimant Trust Assets, except as otherwise provided in the Plan or in the Claimant Trust Agreement, without any further order of the Bankruptcy Court. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Litigation Trustee shall have the exclusive right to institute, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, or withdraw any and all Estate Claims included in the Claimant Trust Assets without any further order of the Bankruptcy Court.

From and after the Effective Date, the Trustees, in accordance with section 1123(b)(3) and (4) of the Bankruptcy Code, and on behalf of the Claimant Trust, shall each serve as a representative of the Estate with respect to any and all Claimant Trust Assets, including the Causes of Action and Estate Claims, as appropriate, and shall retain and possess the right to (a) commence, pursue, settle, compromise, or abandon, as appropriate, any and all Causes of Action in any court or other tribunal and (b) sell, liquidate, or otherwise monetize all Claimant Trust Assets.

(j) Claimant Trust Expenses.

From and after the Effective Date, the Claimant Trust shall, in the ordinary course of business and without the necessity of any approval by the Bankruptcy Court, pay the reasonable professional fees and expenses incurred by the Claimant Trust and any professionals retained by the Claimant Trust from the Claimant Trust Assets, except as otherwise provided in the Claimant Trust Agreement.

(l) Cash Investments.

With the consent of the Claimant Trust Oversight Committee, the Claimant Trustee may invest Cash (including any earnings thereon or proceeds therefrom) in a manner consistent with the terms of the Claimant Trust Agreement; provided, however, that such investments are investments permitted to be made by a “liquidating trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation section 301.7701-4(d), as reflected therein, or under applicable IRS guidelines, rulings or other controlling authorities.

(m) Dissolution of the Claimant Trust.

The Trustees and the Claimant Trust shall be discharged or dissolved, as the case may be, at such time as: (a) the Litigation Trustee determines that the pursuit of additional Causes of Action is not likely to yield sufficient additional proceeds to justify further pursuit of such Causes of Action, (b) the Claimant Trustee determines that the pursuit of sales of other Claimant Trust Assets is not likely to yield sufficient additional proceeds to justify further pursuit of such sales of Claimant Trust Assets, (c) all objections to Disputed Claims and Equity Interests are fully resolved, (d) the Reorganized Debtor is dissolved, and (e) all Distributions required to be made by the Claimant Trustee to the Claimant Trust Beneficiaries under the Plan have been made, but in no event shall the Claimant Trust be dissolved later than three years from the Effective Date unless the Bankruptcy Court, upon motion made within the six-month period before such third anniversary (and, in the event of further extension, by order of the Bankruptcy Court, upon motion made at least six months before the end of the preceding extension), determines that a fixed period extension (not to exceed two years, together with any prior extensions, without a favorable letter ruling from the Internal Revenue Service or an opinion of counsel that any further extension would not adversely affect the status of the Claimant Trust as a liquidating trust for federal income tax purposes) is necessary to facilitate or complete the recovery on, and liquidation of, the Claimant Trust Assets.

Upon dissolution of the Claimant Trust, and pursuant to the Claimant Trust Agreement, any remaining Claimant Trust Assets that exceed the amounts required to be paid under the Plan will be transferred (in the sole discretion of the Claimant Trustee) in Cash or in-kind to the Holders of the Claimant Trust Interests as provided in the Claimant Trust Agreement.

3. The Reorganized Debtor

(a) Corporate Existence

The Debtor will continue to exist after the Effective Date, with all of the powers of partnerships pursuant to the law of the State of Delaware and as set forth in the Reorganized Limited Partnership Agreement.

On the Effective Date, (i) all prepetition Equity Interests, including the Class A Limited Partnership Interests and the Class B/C Limited Partnership Interests, in the Debtor shall be canceled, and (ii) all obligations or debts owed by, or Claims against, the Debtor on account of, or based upon, the Interests shall be deemed as cancelled, released, and discharged, including all obligations or duties by the Debtor relating to the Equity Interests in any of the Debtor’s formation documents, including the Limited Partnership Agreement.

(c) Issuance of New Partnership Interests

On the Effective Date, the Debtor or the Reorganized Debtor, as applicable, will issue new Class A Limited Partnership Interests to (i) the Claimant Trust, as limited partner, and (ii) New GP LLC, as general partner, and will admit (a) the Claimant Trust as the limited partner of the Reorganized Debtor, and (b) New GP LLC as the general partner of the Reorganized Debtor. The initial officers and employees of the Reorganized Debtor shall be selected by the Debtor. The Reorganized Debtor may, in its discretion, also utilize a Sub-Servicer in addition to or in lieu of the retention of officers and employees.

As set forth in the Reorganized Limited Partnership Agreement, New GP LLC will receive a fee for managing the Reorganized Debtor. Although New GP LLC will be a limited liability company, it will elect to be treated as a C-Corporation for tax purposes. Therefore, New GP LLC (and any taxable income attributable to it) will be subject to corporate income taxation on a standalone basis, which may reduce the return to Claimants.

(e) Vesting of Assets in the Reorganized Debtor

A. Treatment of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases

1. Assumption, Assignment, or Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases

Unless an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease: (i) was previously assumed or rejected by the Debtor pursuant to a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court entered prior to the Effective Date; (ii) previously expired or terminated pursuant to its own terms or by agreement of the parties thereto; (iii) is the subject of a motion to assume filed by the Debtor on or before the Confirmation Date; (iv) contains a change of control or similar provision that would be triggered by the Chapter 11 Case (unless such provision has been irrevocably waived); or (v) is specifically designated as a contract or lease to be assumed in the Plan Supplement, on the Effective Date, each Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease shall be deemed rejected pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, without the need for any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court, unless such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease is listed in the Plan Supplement.

At any time on or prior to the Effective Date, the Debtor or the Reorganized Debtor, as applicable, may assign (subject to applicable law) any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, as determined by the Debtor in consultation with the Committee, or the Reorganized Debtor, as applicable.

The Confirmation Order will constitute an order of the Bankruptcy Court approving the above-described assumptions, rejections, and assumptions and assignments. Except as otherwise provided herein or agreed to by the Debtor and the applicable counterparty, each assumed Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease shall include all modifications, amendments, supplements, restatements, or other agreements related thereto, and all rights related thereto. Modifications, amendments, supplements, and restatements to prepetition Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases that have been executed by the Debtor during the Chapter 11 Case shall not be deemed to alter the prepetition nature of the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease or the validity, priority, or amount of any Claims that may arise in connection therewith. To the extent applicable, no change of control (or similar provision) will be deemed to occur under any such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease.

If certain, but not all, of a contract counterparty's Executory Contracts and/or Unexpired Leases are rejected pursuant to the Plan, the Confirmation Order shall be a determination that such counterparty's Executory Contracts and/or Unexpired Leases that are being assumed pursuant to the Plan are severable agreements that are not integrated with those Executory Contracts and/or Unexpired Leases that are being rejected pursuant to the Plan. Parties seeking to contest this finding with respect to their Executory Contracts and/or Unexpired Leases must file a timely objection to the Plan on the grounds that their agreements are integrated and not severable, and any such dispute shall be resolved by the Bankruptcy Court at the Confirmation Hearing (to the extent not resolved by the parties prior to the Confirmation Hearing).

2. Claims Based on Rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases

Any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease not assumed or rejected on or before the Effective Date shall be deemed rejected, pursuant to the Confirmation Order. Any Person asserting a Rejection Claim shall File a proof of claim within thirty days of the Effective Date. Any Rejection Claims that are not timely Filed pursuant to the Plan shall be forever disallowed and barred. Rejection Claims shall be classified as Convenience Claims or General Unsecured Claims, as applicable, and shall be treated in accordance with Article III of the Plan.

3. Cure of Defaults for Assumed or Assigned Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases

Any monetary amounts by which any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease to be assumed or assigned hereunder is in default shall be satisfied, under section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, by the Debtor upon assumption or assignment thereof, by payment of the default amount in Cash as and when due in the ordinary course or on such other terms as the parties to such Executory Contracts may otherwise agree. The Debtor may serve a notice on the Committee and parties to Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases to be assumed or assigned reflecting the Debtor's or Reorganized Debtor's intention to assume or assign the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease in connection with the Plan and setting forth the proposed cure amount (if any).

If a dispute regarding (1) the amount of any payments to cure a default, (2) the ability of the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or any assignee to provide "adequate assurance of future performance" (within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code) under the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease to be assumed or assigned or (3) any other matter pertaining to assumption or assignment, the cure payments required by section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code will be made following the entry of a Final Order or orders resolving the dispute and approving the assumption or assignment.

Assumption or assignment of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to the Plan or otherwise and full payment of any applicable cure amounts pursuant to Article V.C of the Plan shall result in the full release and satisfaction of any cure amounts, Claims, or defaults, whether monetary or nonmonetary, including defaults of provisions restricting the change in control or ownership interest composition or other bankruptcy-related defaults, arising under any assumed or assigned Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease at any time prior to the effective date of assumption or assignment. Any and all Proofs of Claim based upon Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases that have been assumed or assigned in the Chapter 11 Case, including pursuant to the Confirmation Order, and for which any cure amounts have been fully paid pursuant to Article V.C of the Plan, shall be deemed disallowed and expunged as of the Effective Date without the need for any objection thereto or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

4. Assumption of Insurance Policies

Upon the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtor will assume all of the Insurance Policies pursuant to section 365(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and all such Insurance Policies shall vest in the Reorganized Debtor. Unless previously effectuated by separate order entered by the Bankruptcy Court, entry of the Confirmation Order will constitute the Bankruptcy Court's approval of the Debtor's foregoing assumption of each of the Insurance Policies and all such Insurance Policies shall continue in full force and effect thereafter in accordance with their respective terms. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Plan, confirmation of the Plan will not impair or otherwise modify any rights of the Debtor or the Reorganized Debtor under the Insurance Policies. To the extent that any Insurance Policy is not assumable, it will be Reinstated.

B. Provisions Governing Distributions

1. Dates of Distributions

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, on the Effective Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter (or if a Claim is not an Allowed Claim or Equity Interest on the Effective Date, on the date that such Claim or Equity Interest becomes an Allowed Claim or Equity Interest, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter), each Holder of an Allowed Claim or Equity Interest against the Debtor shall receive the full amount of the distributions that the Plan provides for Allowed Claims or Allowed Equity Interests in the applicable Class and in the manner provided herein. If any payment or act under the Plan is required to be made or performed on a date that is not on a Business Day, then the making of such payment or the performance of such act may be completed on the next succeeding Business Day, but shall be deemed to have been completed as of the required date. If and to the extent there are Disputed Claims or Equity Interests, distributions on account of any such Disputed Claims or Equity Interests shall be made pursuant to the provisions provided in the Plan. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, Holders of Claims and Equity Interests shall not be entitled to interest, dividends or accruals on the distributions provided for therein, regardless of whether distributions are delivered on or at any time after the Effective Date.

Upon the Effective Date, all Claims and Equity Interests against the Debtor shall be deemed fixed and adjusted pursuant to the Plan and none of the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust will have liability on account of any Claims or Equity Interests except as set forth in the Plan and in the Confirmation Order. All payments and all distributions made by the Distribution Agent under the Plan shall be in full and final satisfaction, settlement and release of all Claims and Equity Interests against the Debtor and the Reorganized Debtor.

At the close of business on the Distribution Record Date, the transfer ledgers for the Claims against the Debtor and the Equity Interests in the Debtor shall be closed, and there shall be no further changes in the record holders of such Claims and Equity Interests. The Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, the Trustees, and the Distribution Agent, and each of their respective agents, successors, and assigns shall have no obligation to recognize the transfer of any Claims against the Debtor or Equity Interests in the Debtor occurring after the Distribution Record Date and shall be entitled instead to recognize and deal for all purposes hereunder with only those record holders stated on the transfer ledgers as of the close of business on the Distribution Record Date irrespective of the number of distributions to be made under the Plan to such Persons or the date of such distributions.

2. Distribution Agent

Except as provided herein, all distributions under the Plan shall be made by the Claimant Trustee, as Distribution Agent, or by such other Entity designated by the Claimant Trustee, as a Distribution Agent on the Effective Date or thereafter. The Claimant Trustee, or such other Entity designated by the Claimant Trustee to be the Distribution Agent, shall not be required to give any bond or surety or other security for the performance of such Distribution Agent's duties unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court.

The Distribution Agent shall not have any obligation to make a particular distribution to a specific Holder of an Allowed Claim if such Holder is also the Holder of a Disputed Claim.

3. Cash Distributions

Distributions of Cash may be made by wire transfer from a domestic bank, except that Cash payments made to foreign creditors may be made in such funds and by such means as the Distribution Agent determines are necessary or customary in a particular foreign jurisdiction.

4. Disputed Claims Reserve

As set forth in the Claimant Trust Agreement, the Claimant Trustee, as Distribution Agent, shall establish, fund, and maintain a reserve at the Claimant Trust. Any payments to be made under the Plan after the Effective Date shall be paid from the Disputed Claims Reserve as set forth in the Claimant Trust Agreement. Upon the resolution of all Disputed Claims, funds remaining in the Disputed Claims Reserve shall be allocated in the manner set forth in the Claimant Trust Agreement.

5. Rounding of Payments

Whenever the Plan would otherwise call for, with respect to a particular Person, payment of a fraction of a dollar, the actual payment or distribution shall reflect a rounding of such fraction to the nearest whole dollar (up or down), with half dollars being rounded down. To the extent that Cash to be distributed under the Plan remains undistributed as a result of the aforementioned rounding, such Cash or stock shall be treated as "Unclaimed Property" under the Plan.

6. De Minimis Distribution

Except as to any Allowed Claim that is Unimpaired under the Plan, none of the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Distribution Agent shall have any obligation to make any Plan Distributions with a value of less than $100, unless a written request therefor is received by the Distribution Agent from the relevant recipient at the addresses set forth in Article VI.I of the Plan within 120 days after the later of the (i) Effective Date and (ii) the date such Claim becomes an Allowed Claim. De minimis distributions for which no such request is timely received shall revert to the Claimant Trust. Upon such reversion, the relevant Allowed Claim (and any Claim on account of missed distributions) shall be automatically deemed satisfied, discharged and forever barred, notwithstanding any federal or state escheat laws to the contrary.

7. Distributions on Account of Allowed Claims

Except as otherwise agreed by the Holder of a particular Claim or as provided in the Plan, all distributions shall be made pursuant to the terms of the Plan and the Confirmation Order. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, distributions to any Holder of an Allowed Claim shall, to the extent applicable, be allocated first to the principal amount of any such Allowed Claim, as determined for U.S. federal income tax purposes and then, to the extent the consideration exceeds such amount, to the remainder of such Claim comprising accrued but unpaid interest, if any (but solely to the extent that interest is an allowable portion of such Allowed Claim).

8. General Distribution Procedures

The Distribution Agent, shall make all distributions of Cash or other property required under the Plan, unless the Plan specifically provides otherwise. All Cash and other property held by the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust, as applicable, for ultimate distribution under the Plan shall not be subject to any claim by any Person.

9. Address for Delivery of Distributions

Distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims, to the extent provided for under the Plan, shall be made (1) at the addresses set forth in any written notices of address change delivered to the Debtor and the Distribution Agent; (2) at the address set forth on any Proofs of Claim Filed by such Holders (to the extent such Proofs of Claim are Filed in the Chapter 11 Case), (2), or (3) at the addresses in the Debtor's books and records.

If there is any conflict or discrepancy between the addresses set forth in (1) through (3) in the foregoing sentence, then (i) the address in Section (2) shall control; (ii) if (2) does not apply, the address in (1) shall control, and (iii) if (1) does not apply, the address in (3) shall control.

10. Undeliverable Distributions and Unclaimed Property

If the distribution to the Holder of any Allowed Claim is returned to the Reorganized Debtor or the Claimant Trust as undeliverable, no further distribution shall be made to such Holder, and Distribution Agent shall not have any obligation to make any further distribution to the Holder, unless and until the Distribution Agent is notified in writing of such Holder's then current address.

Any Entity that fails to claim any Cash within six months from the date upon which a distribution is first made to such Entity shall forfeit all rights to any distribution under the Plan and such Cash shall thereafter be deemed an Claimant Trust Asset in all respects and for all purposes. Entities that fail to claim Cash shall forfeit their rights thereto and shall have no claim whatsoever against the Debtor's Estate, the Reorganized Debtor, the Claimant Trust, or against any Holder of an Allowed Claim to whom distributions are made by the Distribution Agent.

11. Withholding Taxes

In connection with the Plan, to the extent applicable, the Distribution Agent shall comply with all tax withholding and reporting requirements imposed on them by any Governmental Unit, and all distributions made pursuant to the Plan shall be subject to such withholding and reporting requirements. The Distribution Agent shall be entitled to deduct any U.S. federal, state or local withholding taxes from any Cash payments made with respect to Allowed Claims, as appropriate. As a condition to receiving any distribution under the Plan, the Distribution Agent may require that the Holder of an Allowed Claim entitled to receive a distribution pursuant to the Plan provide such Holder's taxpayer identification number and such other information and certification as may be deemed necessary for the Distribution Agent to comply with applicable tax reporting and withholding laws. If a Holder fails to comply with such a request within one year, such distribution shall be deemed an unclaimed distribution. Any amounts withheld pursuant hereto shall be deemed to have been distributed to and received by the applicable recipient for all purposes of the Plan.

12. Setoffs

The Distribution Agent may, to the extent permitted under applicable law, set off against any Allowed Claim and any distributions to be made pursuant to the Plan on account of such Allowed Claim, the claims, rights and causes of action of any nature that the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Distribution Agent may hold against the Holder of such Allowed Claim that are not otherwise waived, released or compromised in accordance with the Plan; provided, however, that neither such a setoff nor the allowance of any Claim hereunder shall constitute a waiver or release by the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trustee of any such claims, rights and causes of action that the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or Claimant Trustee possesses against such Holder. Any Holder of an Allowed Claim subject to such setoff reserves the right to challenge any such setoff in the Bankruptcy Court or any other court with jurisdiction with respect to such challenge.

13. Surrender of Cancelled Instruments or Securities

As a condition precedent to receiving any distribution pursuant to the Plan on account of an Allowed Claim evidenced by negotiable instruments, securities, or notes canceled pursuant to Article IV of the Plan, the Holder of such Claim will tender the applicable negotiable instruments, securities, or notes evidencing such Claim (or a sworn affidavit identifying the negotiable instruments, securities, or notes formerly held by such Holder and certifying that they have been lost), to the Distribution Agent unless waived in writing by the Distribution Agent.

14. Lost, Stolen, Mutilated or Destroyed Securities

In addition to any requirements under any applicable agreement and applicable law, any Holder of a Claim or Equity Interest evidenced by a security or note that has been lost, stolen, mutilated, or destroyed will, in lieu of surrendering such security or note to the extent required by the Plan, deliver to the Distribution Agent: (i) evidence reasonably satisfactory to the Distribution Agent of such loss, theft, mutilation, or destruction; and (ii) such security or indemnity as may be required by the Distribution Agent to hold such party harmless from any damages, liabilities, or costs incurred in treating such individual as a Holder of an Allowed Claim or Equity Interest. Upon compliance with Article VI.N of the Plan as determined by the Distribution Agent, by a Holder of a Claim evidenced by a security or note, such Holder will, for all purposes under the Plan, be deemed to have surrendered such security or note to the Distribution Agent.

C. Procedures for Resolving Contingent, Unliquidated and Disputed Claims

3. Procedures Regarding Disputed Claims or Disputed Equity Interests

No payment or other distribution or treatment shall be made on account of a Disputed Claim or Disputed Equity Interest, even if a portion of the Claim is not disputed, unless and until such Disputed Claim or Disputed Equity Interest becomes an Allowed Claim or Equity Interests and the amount of such Allowed Claim or Equity Interest, as applicable, is determined by order of the Bankruptcy Court or by stipulation between the Reorganized Debtor or Claimant Trust, as applicable, and the Holder of the Claim or Equity Interest.

4. Allowance of Claims and Equity Interests

Following the date on which a Disputed Claim or Disputed Equity Interest becomes an Allowed Claim or Equity Interest after the Distribution Date, the Distribution Agent shall make a distribution to the Holder of such Allowed Claim or Equity Interest in accordance with the Plan.

Allowance of Claims

After the Effective Date and subject to the other provisions of the Plan, the Reorganized Debtor or the Claimant Trust, as applicable, will have and will retain any and all rights and defenses under bankruptcy or nonbankruptcy law that the Debtor had with respect to any Claim. Except as expressly provided in the Plan or in any order entered in the Chapter 11 Case prior to the Effective Date (including, without limitation, the Confirmation Order), no Claim or Equity Interest will become an Allowed Claim or Equity Interest unless and until such Claim or Equity Interest is deemed Allowed under the Plan or the Bankruptcy Code or the Bankruptcy Court has entered an order, including, without limitation, the Confirmation Order, in the Chapter 11 Case allowing such Claim or Equity Interest.

All of the aforementioned objection, estimation and resolution procedures are cumulative and not exclusive of one another. Claims or Equity Interests may be estimated and subsequently compromised, settled, withdrawn or resolved by any mechanism approved by the Bankruptcy Court. The rights and objections of all parties are reserved in connection with any such estimation proceeding.

Disallowance of Claims

Any Claims or Equity Interests held by Entities from which property is recoverable under sections 542, 543, 550, or 553 of the Bankruptcy Code, or that are a transferee of a transfer avoidable under sections 522(f), 522(h), 544, 545, 547, 548, 549, or 724(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, shall be deemed disallowed pursuant to section 502(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, and holders of such Claims or Interests may not receive any distributions on account of such Claims or Interests until such time as such Causes of Action against that Entity have been settled or a Bankruptcy Court Order with respect thereto has been entered and all sums due, if any, to the Reorganized Debtor or the Claimant Trust, as applicable, by that Entity have been turned over or paid to the Reorganized Debtor or the Claimant Trust, as applicable.

- All documents and agreements necessary to implement the Plan, including without limitation, the Reorganized Limited Partnership Agreement, the Claimant Trust Agreement, and the New GP LLC Documents, in each case in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the Debtor and the Committee, shall have (a) been tendered for delivery, and (b) been effected by, executed by, or otherwise deemed binding upon, all Entities party thereto and shall be in full force and effect. All conditions precedent to such documents and agreements shall have been satisfied or waived pursuant to the terms of such documents or agreements.
- All authorizations, consents, actions, documents, approvals (including any governmental approvals), certificates and agreements necessary to implement the Plan, including, without limitation, the Reorganized Limited Partnership Agreement, the Claimant Trust Agreement, and the New GP LLC Documents, shall have been obtained, effected or executed and delivered to the required parties and, to the extent required, filed with the applicable governmental units in accordance with applicable laws and any applicable waiting periods shall have expired without any action being taken or threatened by any competent authority that would restrain or prevent effectiveness or consummation of the Restructuring.

2. Waiver of Conditions

The conditions to effectiveness of the Plan set forth in Article VIII of the Plan (other than that the Confirmation Order shall have been entered) may be waived in whole or in part by the Debtor (and, to the extent such condition requires the consent of the Committee, the consent of the Committee), without notice, leave or order of the Bankruptcy Court or any formal action other than proceeding to confirm or effectuate the Plan. The failure to satisfy or waive a condition to the Effective Date may be asserted by the Debtor regardless of the circumstances giving rise to the failure of such condition to be satisfied. The failure of the Debtor to exercise any of the foregoing rights will not be deemed a waiver of any other rights, and each right will be deemed an ongoing right that may be asserted at any time by the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust, as applicable.

3. Effect of Non-Occurrence of Conditions to Effectiveness

Unless waived as set forth in Article VIII.B of the Plan, if the Effective Date of the Plan does not occur within twenty calendar days of entry of the Confirmation Order, the Debtor may withdraw the Plan and, if withdrawn, the Plan shall be of no further force or effect.

4. Dissolution of the Committee

On the Effective Date, the Committee will dissolve, and the members of the Committee and the Committee's Professionals will cease to have any role arising from or relating to the Chapter 11 Case, except in connection with final fee applications of Professionals for services rendered prior to the Effective Date (including the right to object thereto). The Professionals retained by the Committee and the members thereof will not be entitled to assert any fee claims for any services rendered to the Committee or expenses incurred in the service of the Committee after the Effective Date, except for reasonable fees for services rendered, and actual and necessary costs incurred, in connection with any applications for allowance of Professional Fees pending on the Effective Date or filed and served after the Effective Date pursuant to the Plan. Nothing in the Plan shall prohibit or limit the ability of the Debtor's or Committee's Professionals to represent either of the Trustees or to be compensated or reimbursed per the Plan and the Claimant Trust Agreement in connection with such representation.

E. Exculpation, Injunction, and Related Provisions

1. General

Notwithstanding anything contained in the Plan to the contrary, the allowance, classification and treatment of all Allowed Claims and Equity Interests and their respective distributions and treatments under the Plan shall take into account the relative priority and rights of the Claims and the Equity Interests in each Class in connection with any contractual, legal and equitable subordination rights relating thereto whether arising under general principles of equitable subordination, section 510 of the Bankruptcy Code, or otherwise.

For purposes of the following provisions:

- “Exculpated Parties” means, collectively, (i) the Debtor, (ii) the Independent Directors, (iii) the Committee, (iv) the members of the Committee (in their official capacities), (v) the Professionals retained by the Debtor in the Chapter 11 Case, (vi) Strand (solely from the date of appointment of the Independent Directors), (vii) the CEO/CRO; and (viii) the Related Persons of each of the parties listed in (i) through (vii); provided, however, that neither James Dondero nor Mark Okada is included in the term “Exculpated Party.”

- “Released Parties” means, collectively, (i) the Reorganized Debtor, (ii) the Claimant Trust, (iii) the Litigation Trust, (iv) the Independent Directors, (v) Strand (solely from the date of appointment of the Independent Directors), (vi) the Committee, (vii) the officers, directors, employees, and agents of the Debtor and Strand in each case (a) as are employed as of the Effective Date or (b) as are employed as of the date hereof and subsequently transferred by the Debtor or terminated by the Debtor without cause prior to the Effective Date, (viii) the CEO/CRO, and (ix) the Related Persons of each of the parties listed in (i) through (vi); provided, however, that neither James Dondero nor Mark Okada is included in the term “Released Party.”
- “Protected Parties” means, collectively, (i) the Debtor, (ii) Strand (solely from the date of the appointment of the Independent Directors), (iii) the Reorganized Debtor, (iv) the Independent Directors, (v) the Committee, (vi) the members of the Committee (in their official capacities), (vii) the Claimant Trust, (viii) the Claimant Trustee, (ix) the Litigation Trustee, (x) the members of the Claimant Trust Oversight Committee (in their official capacities), (xi) New GP LLC, (xii) the Professionals retained by the Debtor in the Chapter 11 Case, (xiii) the CEO/CRO, and (xiv) the Related Persons of each of the parties listed in (i) through (xii); provided, however, that neither James Dondero nor Mark Okada is included in the term “Protected Party.”

2. Discharge of Claims

To the fullest extent provided under section 1141(d)(1)(A) and other applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, except as otherwise expressly provided by the Plan or the Confirmation Order, all consideration distributed under the Plan will be in exchange for, and in complete satisfaction, settlement, discharge, and release of, all Claims and Equity Interests of any kind or nature whatsoever against the Debtor or any of its Assets or properties, and regardless of whether any property will have been distributed or retained pursuant to the Plan on account of such Claims or Equity Interests. Except as otherwise expressly provided by the Plan or the Confirmation Order, upon the Effective Date, the Debtor and its Estate will be deemed discharged and released under and to the fullest extent provided under section 1141(d)(1)(A) and other applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code from any and all Claims and Equity Interests of any kind or nature whatsoever, including, but not limited to, demands and liabilities that arose before the Confirmation Date, and all debts of the kind specified in section 502(g), 502(h), or 502(i) of the Bankruptcy Code.

3. Exculpation

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, no Exculpated Party will have or incur, and each Exculpated Party is hereby exculpated from, any claim, obligation, suit, judgment, damage, demand, debt, right, Cause of Action, remedy, loss, and liability for conduct occurring on or after the Petition Date in connection with or arising out of (i) the filing and administration of the Chapter 11 Case; (ii) the negotiation and pursuit of the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, or the solicitation of votes for, or confirmation of, the Plan; (iii) the funding or consummation of the Plan (including the Plan Supplement) or any related agreements, instruments, or other documents, the solicitation of votes on the Plan, the offer, issuance, and Plan Distribution of any securities issued or to be issued pursuant to the Plan, including the Claimant Trust Interests, whether or not such Plan Distributions occur following the Effective Date; (iv) the implementation of the Plan; and (v) any negotiations, transactions, and documentation in connection with the foregoing clauses (i)-(v); provided, however, the foregoing will not apply to any acts or omissions of an Exculpated Party arising out of or related to acts or omissions that constitute bad faith, fraud, gross negligence, criminal misconduct, or willful misconduct. This exculpation shall be in addition to, and not in limitation of, all other releases, indemnities, exculpations, any other applicable law or rules, or any other provisions of the Plan, including Article IV.C.2 of the Plan, protecting such Exculpated Parties from liability.

4. Releases by the Debtor

On and after the Effective Date, each Released Party is deemed to be, hereby conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, and forever released and discharged by the Debtor and the Estate, in each case on behalf of themselves and their respective successors, assigns, and representatives, including, but not limited to, the Claimant Trust and the Litigation Sub-Trust from any and all Causes of Action, including any derivative claims, asserted on behalf of the Debtor, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, matured or unmatured, existing or hereafter arising, in law, equity, contract, tort or otherwise, that the Debtor or the Estate would have been legally entitled to assert in their own right (whether individually or collectively) or on behalf of the holder of any Claim against, or Interest in, a Debtor or other Person. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the foregoing release does not release (i) any obligations of any party under the Plan or any document, instrument, or agreement executed to implement the Plan, (ii) the rights or obligations of any current employee of the Debtor under any employment agreement or plan, (iii) the rights of the Debtor with respect to any confidentiality provisions or covenants restricting competition in favor of the Debtor under any employment agreement with a current or former employee of the Debtor, or (iv) any Causes of Action arising from willful misconduct, criminal misconduct, actual fraud, or gross negligence of such applicable Released Party as determined by Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court or any other court of competent jurisdiction.

5. Preservation of Rights of Action

Maintenance of Causes of Action

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, after the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtor or the Claimant Trust will retain all rights to commence, pursue, litigate or settle, as appropriate, any and all Causes of Action included in the Reorganized Debtor Assets or Claimant Trust Assets, as applicable, whether existing as of the Petition Date or thereafter arising, in any court or other tribunal including, without limitation, in an adversary proceeding Filed in the Chapter 11 Case and, as the successors in interest to the Debtor and the Estate, may, and will have the exclusive right to, enforce, sue on, settle, compromise, transfer or assign (or decline to do any of the foregoing) any or all of the Causes of Action without notice to or approval from the Bankruptcy Court.

Preservation of All Causes of Action Not Expressly Settled or Released

Unless a Cause of Action against a Holder of a Claim or an Equity Interest or other Entity is expressly waived, relinquished, released, compromised or settled in the Plan or any Final Order (including, without limitation, the Confirmation Order), such Cause of Action is expressly reserved for later adjudication by the Reorganized Debtor or Claimant Trust, as applicable (including, without limitation, Causes of Action not specifically identified or of which the Debtor may presently be unaware or that may arise or exist by reason of additional facts or circumstances unknown to the Debtor at this time or facts or circumstances that may change or be different from those the Debtor now believes to exist) and, therefore, no preclusion doctrine, including, without limitation, the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, waiver, estoppel (judicial, equitable or otherwise) or laches will apply to such Causes of Action as a consequence of the confirmation, effectiveness, or consummation of the Plan based on the Disclosure Statement, the Plan or the Confirmation Order, except where such Causes of Action have been expressly released in the Plan or any other Final Order (including, without limitation, the Confirmation Order). In addition, the right of the Reorganized Debtor or the Claimant Trust to pursue or adopt any claims alleged in any lawsuit in which the Debtor is a plaintiff, defendant or an interested party, against any Entity, including, without limitation, the plaintiffs or co-defendants in such lawsuits, is expressly reserved.

6. Injunction

Upon entry of the Confirmation Order, all holders of Claims and Equity Interests and other parties in interest, along with their respective Related Persons, shall be enjoined from taking any actions to interfere with the implementation or consummation of the Plan.

Except as expressly provided in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, or a separate order of the Bankruptcy Court, all Entities who have held, hold, or may hold Claims against or Equity Interests in the Debtor (whether proof of such Claims or Equity Interests has been filed or not and whether or not such Entities vote in favor of, against or abstain from voting on the Plan or are presumed to have accepted or deemed to have rejected the Plan) and other parties in interest, along with their respective Related Persons, are permanently enjoined, on and after the Effective Date, with respect to such Claims and Equity Interests, from (i) commencing, conducting, or continuing in any manner, directly or indirectly, any suit, action, or other proceeding of any kind (including any proceeding in a judicial, arbitral, administrative or other forum) against or affecting the Debtor, the Independent Directors, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust or the property of any of the Debtor, the Independent Directors, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust, (ii) enforcing, levying, attaching (including any prejudgment attachment), collecting, or otherwise recovering by any manner or means, whether directly or indirectly, any judgment, award, decree, or order against the Debtor, the Independent Directors, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust or the property of any of the Debtor, the Independent Directors, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust, (iii) creating, perfecting, or otherwise enforcing in any manner, directly or indirectly, any encumbrance of any kind against the Debtor, the Independent Directors, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust or the property of any of the Debtor, the Independent Directors, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust, (iv) asserting any right of setoff, directly or indirectly, against any obligation due from the Debtor, the Independent Directors, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust or against property or interests in property of any of the Debtor, the Independent Directors, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust; and (v) acting or proceeding in any manner, in any place whatsoever, that does not conform to or comply with the provisions of the Plan.

The injunctions set forth herein shall extend to any successors of the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, and the Claimant Trust and their respective property and interests in property.

No Entity may commence or pursue a claim or cause of action of any kind against any Protected Party that arose from or is related to the Chapter 11 Case, the negotiation of the Plan, the administration of the Plan or property to be distributed under the Plan, the wind down of the business of the Debtor or Reorganized Debtor, the administration of the Claimant Trust, or the transactions in furtherance of the foregoing without the Bankruptcy Court (i) first determining, after notice, that such claim or cause of action represents a colorable claim of bad faith, criminal misconduct, willful misconduct, fraud, or gross negligence against a Protected Party and (ii) specifically authorizing such Entity to bring such claim against any such Plan Party. As set forth in Article XI of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court will have sole jurisdiction to adjudicate any such claim for which approval of the Bankruptcy Court to commence or pursue has been granted.

7. Term of Injunctions or Stays

Unless otherwise provided in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, or in a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, all injunctions or stays arising under or entered during the Chapter 11 Case under section 105 or 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, or otherwise, and in existence on the Confirmation Date, shall remain in full force and effect until the later of the Effective Date and the date indicated in the order providing for such injunction or stay.

F. Binding Nature of Plan

On the Effective Date, and effective as of the Effective Date, the Plan, including, without limitation, the provisions in Article IX of the Plan, will bind, and will be deemed binding upon, all Holders of Claims against and Equity Interests in the Debtor and such Holder's respective successors and assigns, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, notwithstanding whether or not such Holder will receive or retain any property or interest in property under the Plan. All Claims and Debts shall be fixed and adjusted pursuant to the Plan. The Plan shall also bind any taxing authority, recorder of deeds, or similar official for any county, state, Governmental Unit or parish in which any instrument related to the Plan or related to any transaction contemplated thereby is to be recorded with respect to any taxes of the kind specified in Bankruptcy Code section 1146(a)

G. Statutory Requirements for Confirmation of the Plan

At the Confirmation Hearing, the Bankruptcy Court will determine whether the Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtor believes that: (i) the Plan satisfies or will satisfy all of the statutory requirements of chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code; (ii) the Debtor has complied or will have complied with all of the requirements of chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code; and (iii) the Plan has been proposed in good faith. Specifically, the Debtor believes that the Plan satisfies or will satisfy the applicable confirmation requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code set forth below.

- The Plan complies with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code;
- The Debtor has complied and will comply with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code;
- The Plan has been proposed in good faith and not by any means forbidden by law;
- Any payment made or promised under the Plan for services or for costs and expenses in, or in connection with, the Debtor's bankruptcy case, or in connection with the Plan and incident to the case, has been or will be disclosed to the Bankruptcy Court, and any such payment: (i) made before the confirmation of the Plan is reasonable; or (ii) is subject to the approval of the Bankruptcy Court as reasonable if it is to be fixed after confirmation of the Plan;
- Each Class of Claims or Equity Interests that is entitled to vote on the Plan will have accepted the Plan, or the Plan can be confirmed without the approval of such voting Class pursuant to section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code;
- Except to the extent that the Holder of a particular Claim will agree to a different treatment of its Claim, the Plan provides that Administrative Expense Claims and Priority Claims will be paid in full in Cash on the Effective Date, or as soon thereafter as is reasonably practicable;
- Confirmation of the Plan will not likely be followed by the liquidation or the need for further financial reorganization of the Debtor or any successor thereto under the Plan;
- The Debtor has paid or will pay all fees payable under section 1930 of title 28, and the Plan provides for the payment of all such fees on the Effective Date; and
- The Plan provides for the continuation after the Effective Date of payment of all retiree benefits, if applicable.

1. Best Interests of Creditors Test

Often called the "best interests" test, section 1129(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that the bankruptcy court find, as a condition to confirmation of a chapter 11 plan, that each holder of a claim or equity interest in each impaired class: (i) has accepted the plan; or (ii) among other things, will receive or retain under the plan property of a value, as of the effective date of the plan, that is not less than the amount that such Person would receive if the debtor were liquidated under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. To make these findings, the Bankruptcy Court must: (a) estimate the net Cash proceeds (the “Liquidation Proceeds”) that a chapter 7 trustee would generate if the Debtor’s Chapter 11 Case were converted to a chapter 7 case on the Effective Date and the assets of such Debtor’s Estate were liquidated; (b) determine the distribution (the “Liquidation Distribution”) that each non-accepting Holder of a Claim or Equity Interest would receive from the Liquidation Proceeds under the priority scheme dictated in chapter 7; and (c) compare each Holder’s Liquidation Distribution to the distribution under the Plan that such Holder would receive if the Plan were confirmed and consummated.

2. Liquidation Analysis

Any liquidation analysis, including the estimation of Liquidation Proceeds and Liquidation Distributions, with respect to the Debtor (the “Liquidation Analysis”) is subject to numerous assumptions and there can be no guarantee that the Liquidation Analysis will be accurate. No order or finding has been entered by the Bankruptcy Court estimating or otherwise fixing the amount of Claims and Equity Interests at the projected amounts of Allowed Claims and Equity Interests set forth in the Liquidation Analysis. In preparing the Liquidation Analysis, the Debtor has projected an amount of Allowed Claims and Equity Interests that represents its best estimate of the chapter 7 liquidation dividend to Holders of Allowed Claims and Equity Interests. The estimate of the amount of Allowed Claims and Equity Interests set forth in the Liquidation Analysis should not be relied on for any other purpose, including, without limitation, any determination of the value of any Plan Distribution to be made on account of Allowed Claims and Equity Interests under the Plan and Disclosure Statement.

The full Liquidation Analysis is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

Furthermore, any chapter 7 trustee appointed in a chapter 7 liquidation would have to confront all of the issues described in this Disclosure Statement, including the prepetition litigation claims. This process would be significantly time-consuming and costly, and reduce any recoveries available to the Debtor’s Estate. The Debtor believes that liquidation under chapter 7 would result in (i) smaller distributions being made to creditors than those provided for in the Plan because of the additional administrative expenses involved in the appointment of a trustee and attorneys and other professionals to assist such trustee, (ii) additional expenses and claims, some of which would be entitled to priority, which would be generated during the liquidation and from the rejection of executory contracts in connection with the cessation of the Debtor’s operations, and (iii) the failure to realize greater value from all of the Debtor’s assets.

Therefore, the Debtor believes that confirmation of the Plan will provide each Holder of a Claim with a greater recovery than such Holder would receive pursuant to the liquidation of the Debtor under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code.

3. Feasibility

Section 1129(a)(11) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that the bankruptcy court find that confirmation is not likely to be followed by the liquidation, or the need for further financial reorganization of the Debtor, or any successor to the Debtor, unless the plan contemplates such liquidation or reorganization. For purposes of demonstrating that the Plan meets this “feasibility” standard, the Debtor has analyzed the ability of the Claimant Trust and the Reorganized Debtor to meet their obligations under the Plan and to retain sufficient liquidity and capital resources to conduct their business. A copy of the financial projections prepared by the Debtor is attached hereto as Exhibit D.

The Debtor believes that the Plan meets the feasibility requirement set forth in section 1129(a)(11) of the Bankruptcy Code. In connection with the development of the Plan and for the purposes of determining whether the Plan satisfies this feasibility standard, the Debtor analyzed their ability to satisfy their financial obligations while maintaining sufficient liquidity and capital resources. The Debtor believes that its available Cash and any additional proceeds from the Debtor’s Assets will be sufficient to allow the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, and the Claimant Trust, as applicable, to make all payments required to be made under the Plan. Accordingly, the Debtor believes that the Plan is feasible.

4. Valuation

In order to provide information and full disclosure to parties in interest regarding the Debtor’s assets, the Debtor estimates that its value and the value of its Assets, as of June 30, 2020, total approximately $351.7 million.

5. Acceptance by Impaired Classes

The Bankruptcy Code requires, as a condition to confirmation, that, except as described in the following section, each class of claims or equity interests that is impaired under a plan, accepts the plan. A class that is not “impaired” under a plan is deemed to have accepted the plan and, therefore, solicitation of acceptances with respect to such class is not required. A class is “impaired” unless the plan: (i) leaves unaltered the legal, equitable, and contractual rights to which such claim or interest entitles the holder of such claim or interest; or (ii) notwithstanding any contractual provision or applicable law that entitles the holder of such claim or interest to demand or receive accelerated payment of such claim or interest after the occurrence of a default— (a) cures any such default that occurred before or after the commencement of the Chapter 11 Case, other than a default of a kind specified in section 365(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code or of a kind that section 365(b)(2) expressly does not require to be cured; (b) reinstates the maturity of such claim or interest as such maturity existed before such default; (c) compensates the holder of such claim or interest for any damages incurred as a result of any reasonable reliance by such holder on such contractual provision or such applicable law; (d) if such claim or such interest arises from any failure to perform a nonmonetary obligation, other than a default arising from failure to operate a nonresidential real property lease subject to section 365(b)(1)(A), compensates the holder of such claim or such interest (other than the debtor or an insider) for any actual pecuniary loss incurred by such holder as a result of such failure; and (e) does not otherwise alter the legal, equitable, or contractual rights to which such claim or interest entitles the holder of such claim or interest.

Section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code defines acceptance of a plan by a class of impaired claims as acceptance by holders of at least two-thirds in dollar amount and more than one-half in number of claims in that class, but for that purpose counts only those who actually vote to accept or to reject the plan and are not insiders. Section 1126(d) of the Bankruptcy Code defines acceptance of a plan by a class of equity interests as acceptance by holders of at least two-thirds in amount of the allowed interests of such class. Thus, a class of claims will have voted to accept the plan only if two-thirds in amount and a majority in number actually voting cast their ballots in favor of acceptance. Section 1126(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, except as otherwise provided in section 1126(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, defines acceptance of a plan by a class of impaired equity interests as acceptance by holders of at least two-thirds in amount of equity interests in that class actually voting to accept or to reject the plan.

Pursuant to section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Holders of Claims or Equity Interests in any voting class must accept the Plan for the Plan to be confirmed without application of the “fair and equitable test” to such Class, and without considering whether the Plan “discriminates unfairly” with respect to such Class, as both standards are described herein.

6. Confirmation Without Acceptance by Impaired Classes

Section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code allows a bankruptcy court to confirm a plan even if less than all impaired classes entitled to vote on the plan have accepted it, provided that the plan has been accepted by at least one impaired class of claims. Pursuant to section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, notwithstanding an impaired Class’s rejection or deemed rejection of the Plan, the Plan will be confirmed, at the Debtor’s request, in a procedure commonly known as “cram down,” so long as the Plan does not “discriminate unfairly” and is “fair and equitable” with respect to each Class of Claims or Equity Interests that is impaired under, and has not accepted, the Plan.

7. No Unfair Discrimination

This test applies to classes of claims or equity interests that are of equal priority and are receiving different treatment under the Plan. The test does not require that the treatment be the same or equivalent, but that such treatment be “fair.” In general, bankruptcy courts consider whether a plan discriminates unfairly in its treatment of classes of claims of equal rank (e.g., classes of the same legal character). Bankruptcy courts will take into account a number of factors in determining whether a plan discriminates unfairly and, accordingly, a plan could treat two classes of unsecured creditors differently without unfairly discriminating against either class.

8. Fair and Equitable Test

This test applies to classes of different priority and status (e.g., secured versus unsecured) and includes the general requirement that no class of claims receive more than 100% of the amount of the allowed claims in such class. As to the dissenting class, the test sets different standards depending on the type of claims or equity interests in such class:

The condition that a plan be “fair and equitable” to a non-accepting Class of Secured Claims includes the requirements that: (a) the Holders of such Secured Claims retain the liens securing such Claims to the extent of the Allowed amount of the Claims, whether the property subject to the liens is retained by the debtor or transferred to another entity under the Plan; and (b) each Holder of a Secured Claim in the Class receives deferred Cash payments totaling at least the Allowed amount of such Claim with a present value, as of the Effective Date of the Plan, at least equivalent to the value of the secured claimant's interest in the debtor's property subject to the liens.

The condition that a plan be "fair and equitable" with respect to a non-accepting Class of unsecured Claims includes the requirement that either: (a) the plan provides that each Holder of a Claim of such Class receive or retain on account of such Claim property of a value, as of the Effective Date of the plan, equal to the allowed amount of such Claim; or (b) the Holder of any Claim or Equity Interest that is junior to the Claims of such Class will not receive or retain under the plan on account of such junior Claim or Equity Interest any property.

The condition that a plan be "fair and equitable" to a non-accepting Class of Equity Interests includes the requirements that either: (a) the plan provides that each Holder of an Equity Interest in that Class receives or retains under the plan, on account of that Equity Interest, property of a value, as of the Effective Date of the plan, equal to the greater of (i) the allowed amount of any fixed liquidation preference to which such Holder is entitled, (ii) any fixed redemption price to which such Holder is entitled, or (iii) the value of such interest; or (b) if the Class does not receive such an amount as required under (a), no Class of Equity Interests junior to the non-accepting Class may receive a distribution under the plan.

To the extent that any class of Claims or Class of Equity Interests rejects the Plan, the Debtor reserves the right to seek (a) confirmation of the Plan under section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and/or (b) modify the Plan in accordance with Article XIII.C of the Plan.

The Debtor believes that the Plan and the treatment of all Classes of Claims and Equity Interests under the Plan satisfy the foregoing requirements for non-consensual confirmation of the Plan.

ARTICLE IV. RISK FACTORS

ALL HOLDERS OF CLAIMS AND EQUITY INTERESTS SHOULD READ AND CONSIDER CAREFULLY THE RISK FACTORS SET FORTH HEREIN, AS WELL AS ALL OTHER INFORMATION SET FORTH OR OTHERWISE REFERENCED IN THIS DISCLOSURE STATEMENT. THESE FACTORS SHOULD NOT BE REGARDED AS CONSTITUTING THE ONLY RISKS PRESENT IN CONNECTION WITH THE DEBTOR'S BUSINESS OR THE PLAN AND ITS IMPLEMENTATION.

H. Certain Bankruptcy Law and Other Considerations

1. Parties in Interest May Object to the Debtor's Classification of Claims and Equity Interests, or Designation as Unimpaired.

Section 1122 of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a plan may place a claim or an equity interest in a particular class only if such claim or equity interest is substantially similar to the other claims or equity interests in such class. The Debtor believes that the classification of Claims and Equity Interests under the Plan complies with the requirements set forth in the Bankruptcy Code because the Debtor created Classes of Claims and Equity Interests, each encompassing Claims or Equity Interests, as applicable, that are substantially similar to the other Claims and Equity Interests in each such Class. Nevertheless, there can be no assurance that the Holders of Claims or Equity Interests or the Bankruptcy Court will reach the same conclusion.

There is also a risk that the Holders of Claims or Equity Interests could object to the Debtor's designation of Claims or Equity Interests as Unimpaired, and the Bankruptcy Court could reach the same conclusion.

2. The Debtor May Not Be Able to Secure Confirmation of the Plan.

Section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code sets forth the requirements for confirmation of a chapter 11 plan and requires, among other things, findings by the bankruptcy court that: (i) such plan "does not unfairly discriminate" and is "fair and equitable" with respect to any non-accepting classes; (ii) confirmation of such plan is not likely to be followed by a liquidation or a need for further financial reorganization unless such liquidation or reorganization is contemplated by the plan; and (c) the value of distributions to Holders of Claims within a particular class under such plan will not be less than the value of distributions such holders would receive if the debtor was liquidated under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code.

There can be no assurance that the Bankruptcy Court will confirm the Plan. The Bankruptcy Court could decline to confirm the Plan if it found that any of the statutory requirements for confirmation had not been met.

If the Plan is not confirmed by the Bankruptcy Court, there can be no assurance that any alternative plan of reorganization or liquidation would be on terms as favorable to Holders of Claims as the terms of the Plan. In addition, there can be no assurance that the Debtor will be able to successfully develop, prosecute, confirm and consummate an alternative plan that is acceptable to the Bankruptcy Court and the Debtor's creditors.

3. The Conditions Precedent to the Effective Date of the Plan May Not Occur.

As more fully set forth in Article IX of the Plan, the Effective Date of the Plan is subject to a number of conditions precedent. If such conditions precedent are not waived or not met, the Effective Date will not take place.

4. Continued Risk Following Effectiveness.

Even if the Effective Date of the Plan occurs, the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, and Claimant Trust will continue to face a number of risks, including certain risks that are beyond its control, such as changes in assets, asset values, and increasing expenses. Some of these concerns and effects typically become more acute when a case under the Bankruptcy Code continues for a protracted period without indication of how or when the case may be completed. As a result of these risks and others, there is no guarantee that a chapter 11 plan of liquidation reflecting the Plan will achieve the Debtor's stated goals.

In addition, at the outset of the Chapter 11 Case, the Bankruptcy Code provides the Debtor with the exclusive right to propose the Plan and prohibits creditors and others from proposing a plan. The Debtor will have retained the exclusive right to propose the Plan upon filing its petition. If the Bankruptcy Court terminates that right, however, or the exclusivity period expires, there could be a material adverse effect on the Debtor's ability to achieve confirmation of the Plan in order to achieve the Debtor's stated goals.

5. The Effective Date May Not Occur.

Although the Debtor believes that the Effective Date may occur quickly after the Confirmation Date, there can be no assurance as to such timing or as to whether the Effective Date will, in fact, occur.

6. The Chapter 11 Case May Be Converted to Cases Under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code

If the Bankruptcy Court finds that it would be in the best interest of creditors and/or the debtor in a chapter 11 case, the Bankruptcy Court may convert a chapter 11 bankruptcy case to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. In such event, a chapter 7 trustee would be appointed or elected to liquidate the debtor's assets for distribution in accordance with the priorities established by the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtor believes that liquidation under chapter 7 would result in significantly smaller distributions being made to creditors than those provided for in the Plan because of (a) the likelihood that the assets would have to be sold or otherwise disposed of in a disorderly fashion over a short period of time, rather than selling the assets in an orderly and controlled manner, (b) additional administrative expenses involved in the appointment of a chapter 7 trustee, and (c) additional expenses and Claims, some of which would be entitled to priority, that would be generated during the liquidation.

7. Claims Estimation

There can be no assurance that the estimated Claim amounts set forth herein are correct, and the actual amount of Allowed Claims may differ from the estimates. The estimated amounts are subject to certain risks, uncertainties, and assumptions. Should one or more of these risks or uncertainties materialize, or should underlying assumptions prove incorrect, the actual amount of Allowed Claims may vary from those estimated herein.

You should promptly report unauthorized representations or inducements to the counsel to the Debtor and the U.S. Trustee.

J. Investment Risk Disclaimer

1. Investment Risks in General.

The Reorganized Debtor is and will remain a registered investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, and the Reorganized Debtor will continue advising the Managed Funds. No guarantee or representation is made that the Reorganized Debtor's or the Managed Funds' investment strategy will be successful, and investment results may vary substantially over time.

2. General Economic and Market Conditions and Issuer Risk.

Any investment in securities carries certain market risks. Investments by the Reorganized Debtor, the Managed Funds, or the Claimant Trust may decline in value for any number of reasons over which none of the Managed Funds, the Reorganized Debtor, the Claimant Trust, or the Claimant Trustee may have control, including changes in the overall market and other general economic and market conditions, such as interest rates, availability of credit, inflation rates, economic uncertainty, changes in laws, currency exchange rates and controls and national, international political circumstances (including wars and security operations), and acts of God (including pandemics). The value of the Managed Funds or the assets held by the Reorganized Debtor or Claimant Trust may also decline as a result of factors pertaining to particular securities held by the Managed Funds, Reorganized Debtor, or Claimant Trust, as applicable, such as perception or changes in the issuer's management, the market for the issuer's products or services, sources of supply, technological changes within the issuer's industry, the availability of additional capital and labor, general economic conditions, political conditions, acts of God, and other similar conditions. All of these factors may affect the level and volatility of security prices and the liquidity and the value of the securities held by the Managed Fund, Reorganized Debtor, or Claimant Trust. Unexpected volatility or illiquidity could impair the Managed Funds', Reorganized Debtor's, or Claimant Trust's profitability or result in it suffering losses.

ARTICLE II.

ALTERNATIVES TO CONFIRMATION AND EFFECTIVENESS OF THE PLAN

If no chapter 11 plan can be confirmed, the Chapter 11 Case may be converted to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code in which case, a trustee would be elected or appointed to liquidate the Debtor's assets. If the Plan is not confirmed by the Bankruptcy Court, there can be no assurance that any alternative plan of reorganization or liquidation would be on terms as favorable to Holders of Claims as the terms of the Plan. In addition, there can be no assurance that the Debtor will be able to successfully develop, prosecute, confirm and consummate an alternative plan that is acceptable to the Bankruptcy Court and the Debtor's creditors.

ARTICLE V.

U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE PLAN

Implementation of the Plan will have federal, state, local or foreign tax consequences to the Debtor and Holders of Equity Interests as well as Holders of Claims. No tax opinion or ruling has been sought or will be obtained with respect to any tax consequences of the Plan, and the following discussion does not constitute and is not intended to constitute either a tax opinion or tax advice to any person.

The following discussion summarizes certain U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Plan to the Debtor and to Holders of Claims. This discussion assumes that each Holder of Claims is for United States federal income tax purposes:

- An individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States for federal income tax purposes;
- a corporation (or other entity treated as a corporation for United States federal income tax purposes) created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia;
- any other person that is subject to U.S. federal income taxation on a net income basis.
- an estate the income of which is subject to United States federal income tax without regard to its source; or
- a trust (1) that is subject to the primary supervision of a United States court and the control of one or more United States persons or (2) that has a valid election in effect under applicable treasury regulations to be treated as a United States person.

This discussion also assumes that each Holder holds the Claims as capital assets under Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code.

The summary provides general information only and does not purport to address all of the federal income tax consequences that may be applicable to the Debtor or to any particular Holder of Claims in light of such Holder's own individual circumstances. In particular, the summary does not address the federal income tax consequences of the Plan to Holders of Claims that may be subject to special rules, such as non-U.S. persons, insurance companies, financial institutions, regulated investment companies, broker-dealers, persons who acquired Claims as part of a straddle, hedge, conversion transaction or other integrated transaction, or persons who acquired Claims in connection with the performance of services; persons who hold Claims through a partnership or other pass-through entity and tax-exempt organizations. The summary does not address foreign, state, local, estate or gift tax consequences of the Plan, nor does it address the federal income tax consequences to Holders of Equity Interests.

This summary is based on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Internal Revenue Code"), the final, temporary and proposed Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder, judicial decisions and administrative rulings and pronouncements of the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS"), all as in effect on the date hereof and all of which are subject to change (possibly with retroactive effect) by legislation, judicial decision or administrative action. Moreover, due to a lack of definitive authority, substantial uncertainties exist with respect to various tax consequences of the Plan.

THE TAX CONSEQUENCES TO THE HOLDERS OF CLAIMS OR EQUITY INTERESTS MAY VARY BASED UPON THE INDIVIDUAL CIRCUMSTANCES OF EACH HOLDER. MOREOVER, THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF CERTAIN ASPECTS OF THE PLAN ARE UNCERTAIN DUE TO THE LACK OF APPLICABLE LEGAL PRECEDENT AND THE POSSIBILITY OF CHANGES IN THE APPLICABLE TAX LAW. THERE CAN BE NO ASSURANCE THAT THE IRS WILL NOT CHALLENGE

ANY OF THE TAX CONSEQUENCES DESCRIBED HEREIN, OR THAT SUCH A CHALLENGE, IF ASSERTED, WOULD NOT BE SUSTAINED. ACCORDINGLY, EACH HOLDER OF A CLAIM OR EQUITY INTEREST SHOULD CONSULT WITH ITS OWN TAX ADVISOR REGARDING THE FOREIGN, FEDERAL, STATE AND LOCAL TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE PLAN.

A. Consequences to the Debtor

It is anticipated that the consummation of the Plan will not result in any federal income tax liability to the Debtor. The Debtor is a partnership for federal income tax purposes. Therefore, the income and loss of the Debtor is passed-through to the Holders of its Equity Interests, and the Debtor does not pay federal income tax.

1. Cancellation of Debt

Generally, the discharge of a debt obligation of a debtor for an amount less than the adjusted issue price (in most cases, the amount the debtor received on incurring the obligation, with certain adjustments) creates cancellation of indebtedness (“COD”) income that must be included in the debtor’s income. Due to the nature of the Impaired Claims, it is anticipated that the Debtor will not recognize any material amount of COD income. If any such COD income is recognized, it will be passed-through to the Holders of its Equity Interests, and the Holders of such Equity Interest generally will be required to include such amounts in income, unless a Holder is entitled to exclude such amounts from income under Section 108 of the Internal Revenue Code, based on the Holder’s individual circumstances.

2. Transfer of Assets

Pursuant to the Plan, the Debtor’s assets (including the Claimant Trust Assets and Reorganized Debtor Assets) will be transferred directly or indirectly to the Claimant Trust. For federal income tax purposes, any such assets transferred to the Claimant Trust will be deemed to have been transferred to the Claimant Trust Beneficiaries followed by the transfer by such Holders to the Claimant Trust of such assets in exchange for the respective Holders’ beneficial interests in the Claimant Trust. The Claimant Trust thereafter will be treated as a grantor trust for federal income tax purposes. See U.S. Federal Income Tax Treatment of the Claimant Trust, below.

The Debtor’s transfer of its assets pursuant to the Plan will constitute a taxable disposition of such assets. As discussed above, the Debtor is a partnership for federal income tax purposes. Any gain or loss recognized as a result of the taxable disposition of such assets will be passed through to the Holders of Equity Interests in the Debtor. The Debtor will not be required to pay any tax as a result of such disposition.

B. U.S. Federal Income Tax Treatment of the Claimant Trust

It is intended that the Claimant Trust will be treated as a “grantor trust” for U.S. federal income tax purposes. In general, a grantor trust is not a separate taxable entity. The IRS, in Revenue Procedure 94-45, 1994-2 C.B. 684, set forth the general criteria for obtaining an advanced ruling as to the grantor trust status of a liquidating trust under a chapter 11 plan.

Consistent with the requirements of Revenue Procedure 94-45, the Claimant Trust Agreement requires all relevant parties to treat, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the transfer of the Debtor's assets to the Claimant Trust as (i) a transfer of such assets to the Claimant Trust Beneficiaries (to the extent of the value of their respective interests in the applicable Claimant Trust Assets) followed by (ii) a transfer of such assets by such beneficiaries to the Claimant Trust (to the extent of the value of their respective interests in the applicable Claimant Trust Assets), with the beneficiaries being treated as the grantors and owners of the Claimant Trust.

The Plan and the Claimant Trust Agreement generally provide that the Claimant Trust Beneficiaries must value the assets of the Claimant Trust consistently with the values determined by the Claimant Trustee for all U.S. federal income tax purposes. As soon as possible after the Effective Date, the Claimant Trustee, based upon his good faith determination after consultation with his counsel and other advisors, shall inform the beneficiaries in writing as to his estimate of the value of the assets transferred to the Claimant Trust and the value of such assets allocable to each Class of beneficiaries.

Consistent with the treatment of the Claimant Trust as a grantor trust, the Claimant Trust Agreement will require each beneficiary to report on its U.S. federal income tax return its allocable share of the Claimant Trust's income, gain, loss or deduction that reflects the beneficiary's interest in the interim and final distributions to be made by the Claimant Trust. Furthermore, certain of the assets of the Claimant Trust will be interests in the Reorganized Debtor, which will be a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The income, gain, loss or deduction of the Reorganized Debtor will also flow through the Claimant Trust to the beneficiaries of the Claimant Trust. Therefore, a beneficiary may incur a federal income tax liability with respect to its allocable share of the income of the Claimant Trust (including the income of the Reorganized Debtor) whether or not the Claimant Trust has made any distributions to such beneficiary. The character of items of income, gain, deduction, and credit to any beneficiary and the ability of such beneficiary to benefit from any deduction or losses will depend on the particular situation of such beneficiary. The interests of the beneficiaries may shift from time to time as the result of the allowance or disallowance of claims that have not been allowed at the Effective Date, which could give rise to tax consequences both to the Holders of claims that have, and have not been, allowed at the Effective Date. The Claimant Trustee will file with the IRS tax returns for the Claimant Trust as a grantor trust pursuant to Treasury Regulation Section 1.671-4(a) and will also send to each beneficiary a separate statement setting forth such beneficiary's share of items of Trust income, gain, loss, deduction, or credit. Each beneficiary will be required to report such items on its U.S. federal income tax return. Holders are urged to consult their tax advisors regarding the appropriate federal income tax treatment of distributions from the Claimant Trust.

The discussion above assumes that the Claimant Trust will be respected as a grantor trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes. If the IRS were to challenge successfully such classification, the U.S. federal income tax consequences to the Claimant Trust and the beneficiaries could differ materially from those discussed herein (including the potential for an entity level tax to be imposed on all income of the Claimant Trust).

C. Consequences to Holders of Allowed Claims

1. Recognized Gain or Loss

In general, each Holder of an Allowed Claim will recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between (i) the “amount realized” by such Holder in satisfaction of its Claim (other than any Claim for accrued but unpaid interest) and (ii) such holder’s adjusted tax basis in such Claim (other than any Claim for accrued but unpaid interest). In general, the “amount realized” by a Holder will equal the sum of any cash and the aggregate fair market value of any property received by such Holder pursuant to the Plan (for example, such Holder’s undivided beneficial interest in the assets of the Claimant Trust). A Holder that receives or is deemed to receive for U.S. federal income tax purposes a non-cash asset under the Plan in respect of its Claim should generally have a tax basis in such asset in an amount equal to the fair market value of such asset on the date of its receipt or deemed receipt. See U.S. Federal Income Tax Treatment of the Claimant Trust, above for more information regarding the tax treatment of the Claimant Trust Interests.

Where gain or loss is recognized by a Holder, the character of such gain or loss as long-term or short-term capital gain or loss or as ordinary income or loss will be determined by a number of factors, including the tax status of the Holder, whether the claim constitutes a capital asset in the hands of the Holder and how long it has been held, whether the claim was acquired at a market discount, and whether and to what extent the Holder had previously claimed a bad debt deduction.

A Holder who, under the Plan, receives in respect of an Allowed Claim an amount less than the Holder's tax basis in the Allowed Claim may be entitled to a deduction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The rules governing the character, timing and amount of such a deduction place considerable emphasis on the facts and circumstances of the Holder, the obligor and the instrument with respect to which a deduction is claimed. Holders of Allowed Claims, therefore, are urged to consult their tax advisors with respect to their ability to take such a deduction.

2. Distribution in Discharge of Accrued Unpaid Interest

Pursuant to the Plan, a distribution received in respect of Allowed Claims will be allocated first to the principal amount of such Claims, with any excess allocated to unpaid accrued interest. However, there is no assurance that the IRS would respect such allocation for federal income tax purposes. In general, to the extent that an amount received (whether cash or other property) by a Holder of a claim is received in satisfaction of interest that accrued during its holding period, such amount will be taxable to the Holder as interest income if not previously included in the Holder’s gross income. Conversely, a Holder generally recognizes a deductible loss to the extent that it does not receive payment of interest that has previously been included in its income. Holders of Claims are urged to consult their tax advisors regarding the allocation of consideration and the deductibility of unpaid interest for tax purposes.

3. Information Reporting and Withholding

All distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims under the Plan are subject to any applicable withholding tax requirements. Under federal income tax law, interest, dividends, and other reportable payments, may, under certain circumstances, be subject to “backup withholding” (currently at a rate of up to 24%). Backup withholding generally applies if the Holder (a) fails to furnish its social security number or other taxpayer identification number (“TIN”), (b) furnishes an incorrect TIN, (c) fails properly to report interest or dividends, or (d) under certain circumstances, fails to provide a certified statement, signed under penalty of perjury, that the TIN provided is its correct number and that it is not subject to backup withholding. Backup withholding is not an additional tax but merely an advance payment, which may be refunded to the extent it results in an overpayment of tax. Certain persons are exempt from backup withholding, including, in certain circumstances, corporations and financial institutions.

D. Treatment of the Disputed Claims Reserve

Pursuant to the Plan, the Claimant Trustee may file an election pursuant to Treasury Regulation 1.468B-9(c) to treat the Disputed Claims Reserve as a disputed ownership fund, in which case the Claimant Trustee will file federal income tax returns and pay taxes for the Disputed Claim Reserve as a separate taxable entity. Such taxes will be paid out of the Disputed Claims Reserve and therefore may reduce amounts paid to Holders of Allowed Claims from the Claimant Trust. If the Claimant Trustee does not make such an election to treat the Disputed Claim Reserve as a separate taxable entity, the net income, if any, earned in the Disputed Claims Reserve will be taxable to the Holders of Allowed Claims in accordance with the principles discussed above under the heading “U.S. Federal Income Tax Treatment of the Claimant Trust”, possibly in advance of any distributions to the Holders.

AS INDICATED ABOVE, THE FOREGOING IS INTENDED TO BE A SUMMARY ONLY AND NOT A SUBSTITUTE FOR CAREFUL TAX PLANNING WITH A TAX PROFESSIONAL. THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE PLAN ARE COMPLEX AND, IN SOME CASES, UNCERTAIN. ACCORDINGLY, EACH HOLDER OF A CLAIM OR EQUITY INTEREST IS STRONGLY URGED TO CONSULT WITH HIS OWN TAX ADVISOR REGARDING THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE PLAN.

ARTICLE VI. RECOMMENDATION

In the opinion of the Debtor, the Plan is preferable to the alternatives described in this Disclosure Statement because it provides for the highest distribution to the Debtor’s creditors and interest holders. In addition, any alternative other than confirmation of the Plan could result in extensive delays and increased administrative expenses resulting in smaller distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims and Equity Interests than that which is proposed under the Plan. Accordingly, the Debtor recommends that all Holders of Claims and Equity Interests support confirmation of the Plan.

DEBTOR'S CHAPTER 11 PLAN OF REORGANIZATION

HIGHLAND CAPITAL MANAGEMENT, L.P., as debtor and debtor-in-possession in the above-captioned case (the “Debtor”), proposes the following chapter 11 plan of reorganization (the “Plan”) for, among other things, the resolution of the outstanding Claims against, and Equity Interests in, the Debtor. Unless otherwise noted, capitalized terms used in this Plan have the meanings set forth in Article I of this Plan. The Debtor is the proponent of this Plan within the meaning of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code.

- (ii) the payment of other reasonable expenses of the Claimant Trust;
- (iii) the retention of employees, counsel, accountants, financial advisors, or other professionals and the payment of their reasonable compensation;

(viii) the administration of the Disputed Claims Reserve and distributions to be made therefrom; and

Except as otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court, the Claimant Trust Expenses shall be paid from the Claimant Trust Assets in accordance with the Plan and Claimant Trust Agreement. The Claimant Trustee may establish a reserve for the payment of Claimant Trust Expenses and shall periodically replenish such reserve, as necessary.

The Trustees, on behalf of the Claimant Trust, may each employ, without further order of the Bankruptcy Court, employees and other professionals (including those previously retained by the Debtor and the Committee) to assist in carrying out the Trustees' duties hereunder and may compensate and reimburse the reasonable expenses of these professionals without further Order of the Bankruptcy Court from the Claimant Trust Assets in accordance with the Plan and the Claimant Trust Agreement.

The Claimant Trust Agreement may include reasonable and customary provisions that allow for indemnification by the Claimant Trust in favor of the Claimant Trustee, Litigation Trustee, and the Claimant Trust Oversight Committee. Any such indemnification shall be the sole responsibility of the Claimant Trust and payable solely from the Claimant Trust Assets.

In furtherance of, and consistent with the purpose of, the Claimant Trust and the Plan, the Trustees, for the benefit of the Claimant Trust, shall, subject to reporting and oversight by the Claimant Trust Oversight Committee as set forth in the Claimant Trust Agreement: (i) hold the Claimant Trust Assets for the benefit of the Claimant Trust Beneficiaries, (ii) make Distributions to the Claimant Trust Beneficiaries as provided herein and in the Claimant Trust Agreement, and (iii) have the sole power and authority to prosecute and resolve any Causes of Action and objections to Claims and Equity Interests, without approval of the Bankruptcy Court. 5. Compensation and Duties of Trustees.

The salient terms of each Trustee's employment, including such Trustee's duties and compensation shall be set forth in the Claimant Trust Agreement. The Trustees shall each be entitled to reasonable compensation in an amount consistent with that of similar functionaries in similar types of bankruptcy cases.

6. Cooperation of Debtor and Reorganized Debtor.

To effectively investigate, prosecute, compromise and/or settle the Claims and/or Causes of Action that constitute Claimant Trust Assets on behalf of the Claimant Trust, the Claimant Trustee, Litigation Trustee, and each of their counsel may require reasonable access to the Debtor's and Reorganized Debtor's documents, information, and work product relating to the Claimant Trust Assets. Accordingly, the Claimant Trustee and Litigation Trustee shall have reasonable access to copies of the Debtor's and Reorganized Debtor's records and information relating to the Claimant Trust Assets, including electronic records, documents or work product related to the Claims and/or Causes of Action that constitute Claimant Trust Assets.

Unless the IRS requires otherwise, for all United States federal income tax purposes, the parties shall treat the transfer of the Claimant Trust Assets to the Claimant Trust as: (a) a transfer of the Claimant Trust Assets (other than the amounts set aside in the Disputed Claim Reserve, if the Claimant Trustee makes the election described in Section 7 below) directly to the applicable Claimant Trust Beneficiaries followed by (b) the transfer by the such Claimant Trust Beneficiaries to the Claimant Trust of such Claimant Trust Assets in exchange for the Claimant Trust Interests. Accordingly, the applicable Claimant Trust Beneficiaries shall be treated for United States federal income tax purposes as the grantors and owners of their respective share of the Claimant Trust Assets. The foregoing treatment shall also apply, to the extent permitted by applicable law, for state and local income tax purposes.

8. Tax Reporting.

(a) The Claimant Trustee shall file tax returns for the Claimant Trust treating the Claimant Trust as a grantor trust pursuant to Treasury Regulation section 1.671-4(a). The Claimant Trustee may file an election pursuant to Treasury Regulation 1.468B-9(c) to treat the Disputed Claims Reserve as a disputed ownership fund, in which case the Claimant Trustee will file federal income tax returns and pay taxes for the Disputed Claim Reserve as a separate taxable entity.

(b) The Claimant Trustee shall be responsible for payment, out of the Claimant Trust Assets, of any taxes imposed on the Claimant Trust or its assets.

(c) The Claimant Trustee shall determine the fair market value of the Claimant Trust Assets as of the Effective Date and notify the applicable Claimant Trust Beneficiaries of such valuation, and such valuation shall be used consistently for all federal income tax purposes.

(d) The Claimant Trustee shall distribute such tax information to the applicable Claimant Trust Beneficiaries as the Claimant Trustee determines is required by applicable law.

9. Claimant Trust Assets.

The Claimant Trustee shall have the exclusive right, on behalf of the Claimant Trust, to institute, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, or withdraw any and all Causes of Action included in the Claimant Trust Assets (except for the Estate Claims) without any further order of the Bankruptcy Court, and the Claimant Trustee shall have the exclusive right, on behalf of the Claimant Trust, to sell, liquidate, or otherwise monetize all Claimant Trust Assets, except as otherwise provided in this Plan or in the Claimant Trust Agreement, without any further order of the Bankruptcy Court. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Litigation Trustee shall have the exclusive right to institute, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, or withdraw any and all Estate Claims included in the Claimant Trust Assets without any further order of the Bankruptcy Court.

From and after the Effective Date, the Trustees, in accordance with section 1123(b)(3) and (4) of the Bankruptcy Code, and on behalf of the Claimant Trust, shall each serve as a representative of the Estate with respect to any and all Claimant Trust Assets, including the Causes of Action and Estate Claims, as appropriate, and shall retain and possess the right to (a) commence, pursue, settle, compromise, or abandon, as appropriate, any and all Causes of Action in any court or other tribunal and (b) sell, liquidate, or otherwise monetize all Claimant Trust Assets.

12. Cash Investments.

With the consent of the Claimant Trust Oversight Committee, the Claimant Trustee may invest Cash (including any earnings thereon or proceeds therefrom) in a manner consistent with the terms of the Claimant Trust Agreement; provided, however, that such investments are investments permitted to be made by a “liquidating trust” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation section 301.7701-4(d), as reflected therein, or under applicable IRS guidelines, rulings or other controlling authorities.

13. Dissolution of the Claimant Trust.

The Trustees and the Claimant Trust shall be discharged or dissolved, as the case may be, at such time as: (a) the Litigation Trustee determines that the pursuit of additional Causes of Action is not likely to yield sufficient additional proceeds to justify further pursuit of such Causes of Action, (b) the Claimant Trustee determines that the pursuit of sales of other Claimant Trust Assets is not likely to yield sufficient additional proceeds to justify further pursuit of such sales of Claimant Trust Assets, (c) all objections to Disputed Claims and Equity Interests are fully resolved, (d) the Reorganized Debtor is dissolved, and (e) all Distributions required to be made by the Claimant Trustee to the Claimant Trust Beneficiaries under the Plan have been made, but in no event shall the Claimant Trust be dissolved later than three years from the Effective Date unless the Bankruptcy Court, upon motion made within the six-month period before such third anniversary (and, in the event of further extension, by order of the Bankruptcy Court, upon motion made at least six months before the end of the preceding extension), determines that a fixed period extension (not to exceed two years, together with any prior extensions, without a favorable letter ruling from the Internal Revenue Service or an opinion of counsel that any further extension would not adversely affect the status of the Claimant Trust as a liquidating trust for federal income tax purposes) is necessary to facilitate or complete the recovery on, and liquidation of, the Claimant Trust Assets.

Upon dissolution of the Claimant Trust, and pursuant to the Claimant Trust Agreement, any remaining Claimant Trust Assets that exceed the amounts required to be paid under the Plan will be transferred (in the sole discretion of the Claimant Trustee) in Cash or in-kind to the Holders of the Claimant Trust Interests as provided in the Claimant Trust Agreement.

Without limiting the foregoing, the Reorganized Debtor will pay the charges that it incurs after the Effective Date for Professionals' fees, disbursements, expenses or related support services (including reasonable fees relating to the preparation of Professional fee applications) in the ordinary course of business and without application or notice to, or order of, the Bankruptcy Court.

ARTICLE V.

A. Assumption, Assignment, or Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases

Unless an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease: (i) was previously assumed or rejected by the Debtor pursuant to a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court entered prior to the Effective Date; (ii) previously expired or terminated pursuant to its own terms or by agreement of the parties thereto; (iii) is the subject of a motion to assume filed by the Debtor on or before the Confirmation Date; (iv) contains a change of control or similar provision that would be triggered by the Chapter 11 Case (unless such provision has been irrevocably waived); or (v) is specifically designated as a contract or lease to be assumed in the Plan Supplement, on the Effective Date, each Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease shall be deemed rejected pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, without the need for any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court, unless such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease is listed in the Plan Supplement.

At any time on or prior to the Effective Date, the Debtor or the Reorganized Debtor, as applicable, may assign (subject to applicable law) any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, as determined by the Debtor in consultation with the Committee, or the Reorganized Debtor, as applicable.

The Confirmation Order will constitute an order of the Bankruptcy Court approving the above-described assumptions, rejections, and assumptions and assignments. Except as otherwise provided herein or agreed to by the Debtor and the applicable counterparty, each assumed Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease shall include all modifications, amendments, supplements, restatements, or other agreements related thereto, and all rights related thereto. Modifications, amendments, supplements, and restatements to prepetition Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases that have been executed by the Debtor during the Chapter 11 Case shall not be deemed to alter the prepetition nature of the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease or the validity, priority, or amount of any Claims that may arise in connection therewith. To the extent applicable, no change of control (or similar provision) will be deemed to occur under any such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease.

If certain, but not all, of a contract counterparty's Executory Contracts and/or Unexpired Leases are rejected pursuant to the Plan, the Confirmation Order shall be a determination that such counterparty's Executory Contracts and/or Unexpired Leases that are being assumed pursuant to the Plan are severable agreements that are not integrated with those Executory Contracts and/or Unexpired Leases that are being rejected pursuant to the Plan. Parties seeking to contest this finding with respect to their Executory Contracts and/or Unexpired Leases must file a timely objection to the Plan on the grounds that their agreements are integrated and not severable, and any such dispute shall be resolved by the Bankruptcy Court at the Confirmation Hearing (to the extent not resolved by the parties prior to the Confirmation Hearing).

B. Claims Based on Rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases

Any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease not assumed or rejected on or before the Effective Date shall be deemed rejected, pursuant to the Confirmation Order. Any Person asserting a Rejection Claim shall File a proof of claim within thirty days of the Effective Date. Any Rejection Claims that are not timely Filed pursuant to this Plan shall be forever disallowed and barred. If one or more Rejection Claims are timely Filed, the Claimant Trustee may File an objection to any Rejection Claim.

The Debtor may serve a notice on the Committee and parties to Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases to be assumed or assigned reflecting the Debtor's or Reorganized Debtor's intention to assume or assign the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease in connection with this Plan and setting forth the proposed cure amount (if any).

If a dispute regarding (1) the amount of any payments to cure a default, (2) the ability of the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or any assignee to provide “adequate assurance of future performance” (within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code) under the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease to be assumed or assigned or (3) any other matter pertaining to assumption or assignment, the cure payments required by section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code will be made following the entry of a Final Order or orders resolving the dispute and approving the assumption or assignment.

Assumption or assignment of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to the Plan or otherwise and full payment of any applicable cure amounts pursuant to this ARTICLE V.C shall result in the full release and satisfaction of any cure amounts, Claims, or defaults, whether monetary or nonmonetary, including defaults of provisions restricting the change in control or ownership interest composition or other bankruptcy-related defaults, arising under any assumed or assigned Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease at any time prior to the effective date of assumption or assignment. Any and all Proofs of Claim based upon Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases that have been assumed or assigned in the Chapter 11 Case, including pursuant to the Confirmation Order, and for which any cure amounts have been fully paid pursuant to this ARTICLE V.C, shall be deemed disallowed and expunged as of the Effective Date without the need for any objection thereto or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

D. Assumption of Insurance Policies

Upon the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtor will assume all of the Insurance Policies pursuant to section 365(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and all such Insurance Policies shall vest in the Reorganized Debtor. Unless previously effectuated by separate order entered by the Bankruptcy Court, entry of the Confirmation Order will constitute the Bankruptcy Court’s approval of the Debtor’s foregoing assumption of each of the Insurance Policies and all such Insurance Policies shall continue in full force and effect thereafter in accordance with their respective terms. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Plan, confirmation of this Plan will not impair or otherwise modify any rights of the Debtor or the Reorganized Debtor under the Insurance Policies. To the extent that any Insurance Policy is not assumable, it will be Reinstated.

ARTICLE VI.

A. Dates of Distributions

Except as otherwise provided in this Plan, on the Effective Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter (or if a Claim is not an Allowed Claim or Equity Interest on the Effective Date, on the date that such Claim or Equity Interest becomes an Allowed Claim or Equity Interest, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter), each Holder of an Allowed Claim or Equity Interest against the Debtor shall receive the full amount of the distributions that this Plan provides for Allowed Claims or Allowed Equity Interests in the applicable Class and in the manner provided herein. If any payment or act under this Plan is required to be made or performed on a date that is not on a Business Day, then the making of such payment or the performance of such act may be completed on the next succeeding Business Day, but shall be deemed to have been completed as of the required date. If and to the extent there are Disputed Claims or Equity Interests, distributions on account of any such Disputed Claims or Equity Interests shall be made pursuant to the provisions provided in this Plan. Except as otherwise provided in this Plan, Holders of Claims and Equity Interests shall not be entitled to interest, dividends or accruals on the distributions provided for therein, regardless of whether distributions are delivered on or at any time after the Effective Date.

Upon the Effective Date, all Claims and Equity Interests against the Debtor shall be deemed fixed and adjusted pursuant to this Plan and none of the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust will have liability on account of any Claims or Equity Interests except as set forth in this Plan and in the Confirmation Order. All payments and all distributions made by the Distribution Agent under this Plan shall be in full and final satisfaction, settlement and release of all Claims and Equity Interests against the Debtor and the Reorganized Debtor.

At the close of business on the Distribution Record Date, the transfer ledgers for the Claims against the Debtor and the Equity Interests in the Debtor shall be closed, and there shall be no further changes in the record holders of such Claims and Equity Interests. The Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, the Trustees, and the Distribution Agent, and each of their respective agents, successors, and assigns shall have no obligation to recognize the transfer of any Claims against the Debtor or Equity Interests in the Debtor occurring after the Distribution Record Date and shall be entitled instead to recognize and deal for all purposes hereunder with only those record holders stated on the transfer ledgers as of the close of business on the Distribution Record Date irrespective of the number of distributions to be made under this Plan to such Persons or the date of such distributions.

B. Distribution Agent

The Distribution Agent shall not have any obligation to make a particular distribution to a specific Holder of an Allowed Claim if such Holder is also the Holder of a Disputed Claim.

C. Cash Distributions

Distributions of Cash may be made by wire transfer from a domestic bank, except that Cash payments made to foreign creditors may be made in such funds and by such means as the Distribution Agent determines are necessary or customary in a particular foreign jurisdiction.

D. Disputed Claims Reserve

As set forth in the Claimant Trust Agreement, the Claimant Trustee, as Distribution Agent, shall establish, fund, and maintain a reserve at the Claimant Trust. Any payments to be made under this Plan after the Effective Date shall be paid from the Disputed Claims Reserve as set forth in the Claimant Trust Agreement. Upon the resolution of all Disputed Claims, funds remaining in the Disputed Claims Reserve shall be allocated in the manner set forth in the Claimant Trust Agreement.

E. Rounding of Payments

Whenever this Plan would otherwise call for, with respect to a particular Person, payment of a fraction of a dollar, the actual payment or distribution shall reflect a rounding of such fraction to the nearest whole dollar (up or down), with half dollars being rounded down. To the extent that Cash to be distributed under this Plan remains undistributed as a result of the aforementioned rounding, such Cash or stock shall be treated as “Unclaimed Property” under this Plan.

F. De Minimis Distribution

Except as to any Allowed Claim that is Unimpaired under this Plan, none of the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Distribution Agent shall have any obligation to make any Plan Distributions with a value of less than $100, unless a written request therefor is received by the Distribution Agent from the relevant recipient at the addresses set forth in ARTICLE VI.I hereof within 120 days after the later of the (i) Effective Date and (ii) the date such Claim becomes an Allowed Claim. De minimis distributions for which no such request is timely received shall revert to the Claimant Trust. Upon such reversion, the relevant Allowed Claim (and any Claim on account of missed distributions) shall be automatically deemed satisfied, discharged and forever barred, notwithstanding any federal or state escheat laws to the contrary.

G. Distributions on Account of Allowed Claims

Except as otherwise agreed by the Holder of a particular Claim or as provided in this Plan, all distributions shall be made pursuant to the terms of this Plan and the Confirmation Order. Except as otherwise provided in this Plan, distributions to any Holder of an Allowed Claim shall, to the extent applicable, be allocated first to the principal amount of any such Allowed Claim, as determined for U.S. federal income tax purposes and then, to the extent the consideration exceeds such amount, to the remainder of such Claim comprising accrued but unpaid interest, if any (but solely to the extent that interest is an allowable portion of such Allowed Claim).

H. General Distribution Procedures

The Distribution Agent, shall make all distributions of Cash or other property required under this Plan, unless this Plan specifically provides otherwise. All Cash and other property held by the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust, as applicable, for ultimate distribution under this Plan shall not be subject to any claim by any Person.

I. Address for Delivery of Distributions

Distributions to Holders of Allowed Claims, to the extent provided for under this Plan, shall be made (1) at the addresses set forth in any written notices of address change delivered to the Debtor and the Distribution Agent; (2) at the address set forth on any Proofs of Claim Filed by such Holders (to the extent such Proofs of Claim are Filed in the Chapter 11 Case), (2), or (3) at the addresses in the Debtor's books and records.

If there is any conflict or discrepancy between the addresses set forth in (1) through (3) in the foregoing sentence, then (i) the address in Section (2) shall control; (ii) if (2) does not apply, the address in (1) shall control, and (iii) if (1) does not apply, the address in (3) shall control.

J. Undeliverable Distributions and Unclaimed Property

If the distribution to the Holder of any Allowed Claim is returned to the Reorganized Debtor or the Claimant Trust as undeliverable, no further distribution shall be made to such Holder, and Distribution Agent shall not have any obligation to make any further distribution to the Holder, unless and until the Distribution Agent is notified in writing of such Holder's then current address.

Any Entity that fails to claim any Cash within six months from the date upon which a distribution is first made to such Entity shall forfeit all rights to any distribution under this Plan and such Cash shall thereafter be deemed an Claimant Trust Asset in all respects and for all purposes. Entities that fail to claim Cash shall forfeit their rights thereto and shall have no claim whatsoever against the Debtor's Estate, the Reorganized Debtor, the Claimant Trust, or against any Holder of an Allowed Claim to whom distributions are made by the Distribution Agent.

K. Withholding Taxes

In connection with this Plan, to the extent applicable, the Distribution Agent shall comply with all tax withholding and reporting requirements imposed on them by any Governmental Unit, and all distributions made pursuant to this Plan shall be subject to such withholding and reporting requirements. The Distribution Agent shall be entitled to deduct any U.S. federal, state or local withholding taxes from any Cash payments made with respect to Allowed Claims, as appropriate. As a condition to receiving any distribution under this Plan, the Distribution Agent may require that the Holder of an Allowed Claim entitled to receive a distribution pursuant to this Plan provide such Holder's taxpayer identification number and such other information and certification as may be deemed necessary for the Distribution Agent to comply with applicable tax reporting and withholding laws. If a Holder fails to comply with such a request within one year, such distribution shall be deemed an unclaimed distribution. Any amounts withheld pursuant hereto shall be deemed to have been distributed to and received by the applicable recipient for all purposes of this Plan.

L. Setoffs

The Distribution Agent may, to the extent permitted under applicable law, set off against any Allowed Claim and any distributions to be made pursuant to this Plan on account of such Allowed Claim, the claims, rights and causes of action of any nature that the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Distribution Agent may hold against the Holder of such Allowed Claim that are not otherwise waived, released or compromised in accordance with this Plan; provided, however, that neither such a setoff nor the allowance of any Claim hereunder shall constitute a waiver or release by the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trustee of any such claims, rights and causes of action that the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or Claimant Trustee possesses against such Holder. Any Holder of an Allowed Claim subject to such setoff reserves the right to challenge any such setoff in the Bankruptcy Court or any other court with jurisdiction with respect to such challenge.

M. Surrender of Cancelled Instruments or Securities

As a condition precedent to receiving any distribution pursuant to this Plan on account of an Allowed Claim evidenced by negotiable instruments, securities, or notes canceled pursuant to ARTICLE IV of this Plan, the Holder of such Claim will tender the applicable negotiable instruments, securities, or notes evidencing such Claim (or a sworn affidavit identifying the negotiable instruments, securities, or notes formerly held by such Holder and certifying that they have been lost), to the Distribution Agent unless waived in writing by the Distribution Agent.

N. Lost, Stolen, Mutilated or Destroyed Securities

In addition to any requirements under any applicable agreement and applicable law, any Holder of a Claim or Equity Interest evidenced by a security or note that has been lost, stolen, mutilated, or destroyed will, in lieu of surrendering such security or note to the extent required by this Plan, deliver to the Distribution Agent: (i) evidence reasonably satisfactory to the Distribution Agent of such loss, theft, mutilation, or destruction; and (ii) such security or indemnity as may be required by the Distribution Agent to hold such party harmless from any damages, liabilities, or costs incurred in treating such individual as a Holder of an Allowed Claim or Equity Interest. Upon compliance with ARTICLE VI.N of this Plan as determined by the Distribution Agent, by a Holder of a Claim evidenced by a security or note, such Holder will, for all purposes under this Plan, be deemed to have surrendered such security or note to the Distribution Agent.

ARTICLE VII.

C. Procedures Regarding Disputed Claims or Disputed Equity Interests

No payment or other distribution or treatment shall be made on account of a Disputed Claim or Disputed Equity Interest, even if a portion of the Claim is not disputed, unless and until such Disputed Claim or Disputed Equity Interest becomes an Allowed Claim or Equity Interests and the amount of such Allowed Claim or Equity Interest, as applicable, is determined by order of the Bankruptcy Court or by stipulation between the Reorganized Debtor or Claimant Trust, as applicable, and the Holder of the Claim or Equity Interest.

D. Allowance of Claims and Equity Interests

Following the date on which a Disputed Claim or Disputed Equity Interest becomes an Allowed Claim or Equity Interest after the Distribution Date, the Distribution Agent shall make a distribution to the Holder of such Allowed Claim or Equity Interest in accordance with the Plan.

1. Allowance of Claims

After the Effective Date and subject to the other provisions of this Plan, the Reorganized Debtor or the Claimant Trust, as applicable, will have and will retain any and all rights and defenses under bankruptcy or nonbankruptcy law that the Debtor had with respect to any Claim. Except as expressly provided in this Plan or in any order entered in the Chapter 11 Case prior to the Effective Date (including, without limitation, the Confirmation Order), no Claim or Equity Interest will become an Allowed Claim or Equity Interest unless and until such Claim or Equity

Interest is deemed Allowed under this Plan or the Bankruptcy Code or the Bankruptcy Court has entered an order, including, without limitation, the Confirmation Order, in the Chapter 11 Case allowing such Claim or Equity Interest.

2. Estimation

Subject to the other provisions of this Plan, the Debtor, prior to the Effective Date, and the Reorganized Debtor or the Claimant Trustee, as applicable, after the Effective Date, may, at any time, request that the Bankruptcy Court estimate (a) any Disputed Claim or Disputed Equity Interest pursuant to applicable law and (b) any contingent or unliquidated Claim pursuant to applicable law, including, without limitation, section 502(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Bankruptcy Court will retain jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 to estimate any Disputed Claim or Disputed Equity Interest, contingent Claim or unliquidated Claim, including during the litigation concerning any objection to any Claim or Equity Interest or during the pendency of any appeal relating to any such objection. All of the aforementioned objection, estimation and resolution procedures are cumulative and not exclusive of one another. Claims or Equity Interests may be estimated and subsequently compromised, settled, withdrawn or resolved by any mechanism approved by the Bankruptcy Court. The rights and objections of all parties are reserved in connection with any such estimation proceeding.

3. Disallowance of Claims

Any Claims or Equity Interests held by Entities from which property is recoverable under sections 542, 543, 550, or 553 of the Bankruptcy Code, or that are a transferee of a transfer avoidable under sections 522(f), 522(h), 544, 545, 547, 548, 549, or 724(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, shall be deemed disallowed pursuant to section 502(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, and holders of such Claims or Interests may not receive any distributions on account of such Claims or Interests until such time as such Causes of Action against that Entity have been settled or a Bankruptcy Court Order with respect thereto has been entered and all sums due, if any, to the Reorganized Debtor or the Claimant Trust, as applicable, by that Entity have been turned over or paid to the Reorganized Debtor or the Claimant Trust, as applicable.

EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE PROVIDED HEREIN OR AS AGREED TO BY THE DEBTOR, REORGANIZED DEBTOR, OR CLAIMANT TRUSTEE, AS APPLICABLE, ANY AND ALL PROOFS OF CLAIM FILED AFTER THE BAR DATE SHALL BE DEEMED DISALLOWED AND EXPUNGED AS OF THE EFFECTIVE DATE WITHOUT ANY FURTHER NOTICE TO OR ACTION, ORDER, OR APPROVAL OF THE BANKRUPTCY COURT, AND HOLDERS OF SUCH CLAIMS MAY NOT RECEIVE ANY DISTRIBUTIONS ON ACCOUNT OF SUCH CLAIMS, UNLESS SUCH LATE PROOF OF CLAIM HAS BEEN DEEMED TIMELY FILED BY A FINAL ORDER.

The conditions to effectiveness of this Plan set forth in this ARTICLE VIII (other than that the Confirmation Order shall have been entered) may be waived in whole or in part by the Debtor (and, to the extent such condition requires the consent of the Committee, the consent of the Committee), without notice, leave or order of the Bankruptcy Court or any formal action other than proceeding to confirm or effectuate this Plan. ARTICLE IX.

EXCULPATION, INJUNCTION AND RELATED PROVISIONS

A. General

Notwithstanding anything contained in the Plan to the contrary, the allowance, classification and treatment of all Allowed Claims and Equity Interests and their respective distributions and treatments under the Plan shall take into account the relative priority and rights of the Claims and the Equity Interests in each Class in connection with any contractual, legal and equitable subordination rights relating thereto whether arising under general principles of equitable subordination, section 510 of the Bankruptcy Code, or otherwise.

B. Discharge of Claims

To the fullest extent provided under section 1141(d)(1)(A) and other applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, except as otherwise expressly provided by this Plan or the Confirmation Order, all consideration distributed under this Plan will be in exchange for, and in complete satisfaction, settlement, discharge, and release of, all Claims and Equity Interests of any kind or nature whatsoever against the Debtor or any of its Assets or properties, and regardless of whether any property will have been distributed or retained pursuant to this Plan on account of such Claims or Equity Interests. Except as otherwise expressly provided by this Plan or the Confirmation Order, upon the Effective Date, the Debtor and its Estate will be deemed discharged and released under and to the fullest extent provided under section 1141(d)(1)(A) and other applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code from any and all Claims and Equity Interests of any kind or nature whatsoever, including, but not limited to, demands and liabilities that arose before the Confirmation Date, and all debts of the kind specified in section 502(g), 502(h), or 502(i) of the Bankruptcy Code.

C. Exculpation

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, no Exculpated Party will have or incur, and each Exculpated Party is hereby exculpated from, any claim, obligation, suit, judgment, damage, demand, debt, right, Cause of Action, remedy, loss, and liability for conduct occurring on or after the Petition Date in connection with or arising out of (i) the filing and administration of the Chapter 11 Case; (ii) the negotiation and pursuit of the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, or the solicitation of votes for, or confirmation of, the Plan; (iii) the funding or consummation of the Plan (including the Plan Supplement) or any related agreements, instruments, or other documents, the solicitation of votes on the Plan, the offer, issuance, and Plan Distribution of any securities issued or to be issued pursuant to the Plan, including the Claimant Trust Interests, whether or not such Plan Distributions occur following the Effective Date; (iv) the implementation of the Plan; and (v) any negotiations, transactions, and documentation in connection with the foregoing clauses (i)-(v); provided, however, the foregoing will not apply to any acts or omissions of an Exculpated Party arising out of or related to acts or omissions that constitute bad faith, fraud, gross negligence, criminal misconduct, or willful misconduct. This exculpation shall be in addition to, and not in limitation of, all other releases, indemnities, exculpations, any other applicable law or rules, or any other provisions of this Plan, including ARTICLE IV.C.2, protecting such Exculpated Parties from liability.

D. Releases by the Debtor

On and after the Effective Date, each Released Party is deemed to be, hereby conclusively, absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably, and forever released and discharged by the Debtor and the Estate, in each case on behalf of themselves and their respective successors, assigns, and representatives, including, but not limited to, the Claimant Trust and the Litigation Sub-Trust from any and all Causes of Action, including any derivative claims, asserted on behalf of the Debtor, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, matured or unmatured, existing or hereafter arising, in law, equity, contract, tort or otherwise, that the Debtor or the Estate would have been legally entitled to assert in their own right (whether individually or collectively) or on behalf of the holder of any Claim against, or Interest in, a Debtor or other Person. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the foregoing release does not release (i) any obligations of any party under the Plan or any document, instrument, or agreement executed to implement the Plan, (ii) the rights or obligations of any current employee of the Debtor under any employment agreement or plan, (iii) the rights of the Debtor with respect to any confidentiality provisions or covenants restricting competition in favor of the Debtor under any employment agreement with a current or former employee of the Debtor, or (iv) any Causes of Action arising from willful misconduct, criminal misconduct, actual fraud, or gross negligence of such applicable Released Party as determined by Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court or any other court of competent jurisdiction.

E. Preservation of Rights of Action

1. Maintenance of Causes of Action

Except as otherwise provided in this Plan, after the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtor or the Claimant Trust will retain all rights to commence, pursue, litigate or settle, as appropriate, any and all Causes of Action included in the Reorganized Debtor Assets or Claimant Trust Assets, as applicable, whether existing as of the Petition Date or thereafter arising, in any court or other tribunal including, without limitation, in an adversary proceeding Filed in the Chapter 11 Case and, as the successors in interest to the Debtor and the Estate, may, and will have the exclusive right to, enforce, sue on, settle, compromise, transfer or assign (or decline to do any of the foregoing) any or all of the Causes of Action without notice to or approval from the Bankruptcy Court.

2. Preservation of All Causes of Action Not Expressly Settled or Released

Unless a Cause of Action against a Holder of a Claim or an Equity Interest or other Entity is expressly waived, relinquished, released, compromised or settled in this Plan or any Final Order (including, without limitation, the Confirmation Order), such Cause of Action is expressly reserved for later adjudication by the Reorganized Debtor or Claimant Trust, as applicable (including, without limitation, Causes of Action not specifically identified or of which the Debtor may presently be unaware or that may arise or exist by reason of additional facts or circumstances unknown to the Debtor at this time or facts or circumstances that may change or be different from those the Debtor now believes to exist) and, therefore, no preclusion doctrine, including, without limitation, the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, waiver, estoppel (judicial, equitable or otherwise) or laches will apply to such Causes of Action as a consequence of the confirmation, effectiveness, or consummation of this Plan based on the Disclosure Statement, this Plan or the Confirmation Order, except where such Causes of Action have been expressly released in this Plan or any other Final Order (including, without limitation, the Confirmation Order). In addition, the right of the Reorganized Debtor or the Claimant Trust to pursue or adopt any claims alleged in any lawsuit in which the Debtor is a plaintiff, defendant or an interested party, against any Entity, including, without limitation, the plaintiffs or co-defendants in such lawsuits, is expressly reserved.

F. Injunction

Upon entry of the Confirmation Order, all holders of Claims and Equity Interests and other parties in interest, along with their respective Related Persons, shall be enjoined from taking any actions to interfere with the implementation or consummation of the Plan.

Except as expressly provided in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, or a separate order of the Bankruptcy Court, all Entities who have held, hold, or may hold Claims against or Equity Interests in the Debtor (whether proof of such Claims or Equity Interests has been filed or not and whether or not such Entities vote in favor of, against or abstain from voting on the Plan or are presumed to have accepted or deemed to have rejected the Plan) and other parties in interest, along with their respective Related Persons, are permanently enjoined, on and after the Effective Date, with respect to such Claims and Equity Interests, from (i) commencing, conducting, or continuing in any manner, directly or indirectly, any suit, action, or other proceeding of any kind (including any proceeding in a judicial, arbitral, administrative or other forum) against or affecting the Debtor, the Independent Directors, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust or the property of any of the Debtor, the Independent Directors, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust, (ii) enforcing, levying, attaching (including any prejudgment attachment), collecting, or otherwise recovering by any manner or means, whether directly or indirectly, any judgment, award, decree, or order against the Debtor, the Independent Directors, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust or the property of any of the Debtor, the Independent Directors, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust, (iii) creating, perfecting, or otherwise enforcing in any manner, directly or indirectly, any encumbrance of any kind against the Debtor, the Independent Directors, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust or the property of any of the Debtor, the Independent Directors, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust, (iv) asserting any right of setoff, directly or indirectly, against any obligation due from the Debtor, the Independent Directors, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust or against property or interests in property of any of the Debtor, the Independent Directors, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trust; and (v) acting or proceeding in any manner, in any place whatsoever, that does not conform to or comply with the provisions of the Plan.

The injunctions set forth herein shall extend to any successors of the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, and the Claimant Trust and their respective property and interests in property.

No Entity may commence or pursue a claim or cause of action of any kind against any Protected Party that arose from or is related to the Chapter 11 Case, the negotiation of this Plan, the administration of the Plan or property to be distributed under the Plan, the wind down of the business of the Debtor or Reorganized Debtor, the administration of the Claimant Trust, or the transactions in furtherance of the foregoing without the Bankruptcy Court (i) first determining, after notice, that such claim or cause of action represents a colorable claim of bad faith, criminal misconduct, willful misconduct, fraud, or gross negligence against a Protected Party and (ii) specifically authorizing such Entity to bring such claim against any such Plan Party. As set forth in ARTICLE XI, the Bankruptcy Court will have sole jurisdiction to adjudicate any such claim for which approval of the Bankruptcy Court to commence or pursue has been granted.

G. Term of Injunctions or Stays

Unless otherwise provided in this Plan, the Confirmation Order, or in a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, all injunctions or stays arising under or entered during the Chapter 11 Case under section 105 or 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, or otherwise, and in existence on the Confirmation Date, shall remain in full force and effect until the later of the Effective Date and the date indicated in the order providing for such injunction or stay.

Neither the filing of this Plan, any statement or provision contained herein, nor the taking of any action by the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, the Claimant Trustee, or any other Entity with respect to this Plan shall be or shall be deemed to be an admission or waiver of any rights of: (1) the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trustee with respect to the Holders of Claims or Equity Interests or other Entity; or (2) any Holder of a Claim or an Equity Interest or other Entity prior to the Effective Date.

Neither the exclusion or inclusion by the Debtor of any contract or lease on any exhibit, schedule, or other annex to this Plan or in the Plan Documents, nor anything contained in this Plan, will constitute an admission by the Debtor that any such contract or lease is or is not an executory contract or lease or that the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, the Claimant Trustee, or their respective Affiliates has any liability thereunder.

Except as explicitly provided in this Plan, nothing herein shall waive, excuse, limit, diminish, or otherwise alter any of the defenses, claims, Causes of Action, or other rights of the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trustee under any executory or non-executory contract.

If there is a dispute regarding whether a contract or lease is or was executory at the time of its assumption under this Plan, the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Claimant Trustee, as applicable, shall have thirty (30) days following entry of a Final Order resolving such dispute to alter their treatment of such contract.

or interpreted. Notwithstanding any such holding, alteration or interpretation, the remainder of the terms and provisions of this Plan will remain in full force and effect and will in no way be affected, impaired, or invalidated by such holding, alteration, or interpretation. The Confirmation Order will constitute a judicial determination and will provide that each term and provision of this Plan, as it may have been altered or interpreted in accordance with the foregoing, is valid and enforceable pursuant to its terms.

TO THE HONORABLE STACEY G. C. JERNIGAN,
UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

The above-captioned debtor and debtor-in-possession (the “Debtor”) files this motion (the “Motion”) for entry of an order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, pursuant to Rule 9019 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), approving a settlement agreement (the “Settlement Agreement”) and a general release (the “Release”),² copies of which are attached as Exhibit 1 and Exhibit 2, respectively, to the Declaration of Gregory V. Demo in Support of the Debtor’s Motion for Entry of an Order Approving Settlement with (a) Acis Capital Management, L.P. and Acis Capital Management GP LLC (Claim No. 23), (b) Joshua N. Terry and Jennifer G. Terry (Claim No. 156), and (c) Acis Capital Management, L.P. (Claim No. 159) and Authorizing Actions Consistent Therewith, executed on September 23, 2020 (the “Demo Declaration”), that, among other things, fully and finally resolve the proofs of claim filed by (A) Acis Capital Management, L.P. (“Acis LP”), (B) Acis Capital Management GP LLC (“Acis GP” and together with Acis LP, “Acis”), and (C) Joshua N. Terry, individually and for the benefit of his individual retirement accounts, and Jennifer G. Terry, individually and for the benefit of her individual retirement accounts and as trustee of the Terry Family 401-K Plan (together, the “Terry Parties” and together with Acis, the “Acis Parties”). In support of this Motion, the Debtor represents as follows:

Jurisdiction

1. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. This matter is a core proceeding within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2). Venue in this District is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

² All capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings given to them in the Release.

2. The statutory predicates for the relief sought herein are sections 105(a) and 363 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) and Rule 9019 of the Bankruptcy Rules.

Relevant Background

A. Procedural Background

3. On October 16, 2019 (the “Petition Date”), the Debtor filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in the Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware, Case No. 19-12239 (CSS) (the “Delaware Court”).

4. On October 29, 2019, the official committee of unsecured creditors (the “Committee”) was appointed by the U.S. Trustee in the Delaware Court.

5. On December 4, 2019, the Delaware Court entered an order transferring venue of the Debtor’s case to this Court [Docket No. 186].³

6. On December 27, 2019, the Debtor filed that certain Motion of the Debtor for Approval of Settlement with the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors Regarding Governance of the Debtor and Procedures for Operations in the Ordinary Course [Docket No. 281] (the “Settlement Motion”). This Court approved the Settlement Motion on January 9, 2020 [Docket No. 339] (the “Settlement Order”).

7. In connection with the Settlement Order, an independent board of directors was constituted at the Debtor’s general partner, Strand Advisors, Inc., and certain operating protocols were instituted.

8. On July 16, 2020, this Court entered an order appointing James P. Seery, Jr., as the Debtor’s chief executive officer and chief restructuring officer [Docket No. 854].

³ All docket numbers refer to the docket maintained by this Court.

9. On August 3, 2020, this Court entered the Order Directing Mediation [Docket No. 912] pursuant to which the Debtor and Acis, among others, were directed to mediate their disputes before Retired Judge Allan Gropper and Sylvia Mayer (together, the “Mediators”).

10. The Debtor has continued in the possession of its property and has continued to operate and manage its business as a debtor-in-possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No trustee or examiner has been appointed in this chapter 11 case.

B. The Parties’ Claims

11. The factual background related to this Motion is well known to this Court. The genesis of the Acis Parties’ claims against the Debtor’s estate is a dispute, highly contentious at times, between the Debtor and James Dondero, on the one hand, and Acis and Joshua Terry on the other hand. Mr. Terry is a former employee of the Debtor and limited partner in Acis LP, a portfolio management company previously ultimately owned by Mr. Dondero and Mark Okada and advised by the Debtor.

12. In June 2016, Mr. Terry claimed that he was wrongfully terminated from the Debtor and that his ownership interest in Acis LP was taken with no compensation. The Debtor commenced suit in Texas state court and thereafter the matter was referred to mandatory arbitration. The arbitrators ultimately awarded Mr. Terry approximately $8 million. A judgment was entered on the arbitration award on December 18, 2017.

13. Mr. Terry, however, claimed that he could not collect because Mr. Dondero orchestrated a scheme to “denude” Acis of assets by transferring virtually all of its assets and attempting to transfer its profitable portfolio management contracts to non-Acis, Debtor-related entities. Mr. Terry filed involuntary bankruptcy petitions against Acis LP and Acis GP. See In re Acis Capital Management, L.P., Case No. 18-30264-sgj11 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2018) and In re Acis Capital Management GP, LLC, Case No. 18-30265-sgj11 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2018)

(collectively, the “Acis Bankruptcy Case”). The Court, overruling then involuntary debtor Acis’s objections, granted Mr. Terry’s petition for relief and appointed a chapter 11 trustee.

14. The Acis Bankruptcy Case was “highly contentious.” The Debtor and Highland CLO Funding, Ltd. (“Highland Funding”), the predominant subordinated noteholder in the Acis CLOs, commenced litigation by suing the chapter 11 trustee. The chapter 11 trustee countersued to recover allegedly fraudulent transfers and to stop the Debtor (which continued for a time to manage Acis) from taking actions that the trustee alleged were harmful to Acis and the CLOs it managed. This adversary complaint forms the basis of Acis’s proof of claim against the Debtor [Claim No. 23] (the “Acis Proof of Claim”).

15. The Debtor, in turn, filed the following claims in the Acis Bankruptcy Case against Acis LP: 1) a prepetition unsecured proof of claim [Claim No. 27] and against Acis GP [Claim No. 13] (the “HCMLP Proofs of Claim”) for alleged unpaid management fees; and 2) a postpetition administrative claim [Docket No. 772] (the “HCMLP Administrative Claim”). Acis objected to both claims. Those claim objections were eventually converted into adversary proceedings, consolidated, by agreement, with the adversary proceeding originally commenced by the Debtor, and the parties were realigned such that Acis was now the plaintiff. All told, after consolidation, amendments and realignment, Acis’s complaint and claim objection against the Debtor and various other related entities includes 34 separate counts as well as objections grounded in various provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, e.g. Section 502.

16. In or around August 29, 2018, during a very active period of litigation in the Acis Bankruptcy Case, Highland Funding initiated litigation against Mr. Terry in the Royal Court of Guernsey (the “Guernsey Suit”). Mr. Terry incurred significant expenses in defending the Guernsey Suit. On August 5, 2020, Sir Richard Collas, Lieutenant Bailiff, handed down a judgment that granted Terry's application to set aside the leave to serve out of the jurisdiction, resulting in the dismissal of the Guernsey Suit (subject to a determination of attorneys' fees and expenses owed to Terry under Guernsey's "loser pays" regime, which has not yet been determined as of the submission of this Motion).

17. Ultimately, on January 31, 2019, a chapter 11 plan of reorganization was confirmed in the Acis Bankruptcy Case. The Acis plan provided for, among other things, payment to Acis's creditors, the retention and maintenance of the Acis estate's causes of action, and also authorized the purchase by Mr. Terry of the equity interests in reorganized Acis for $1 million. Mr. Terry paid the purchase price by reducing his claim.

18. In addition to the Acis Proof of Claim:

- Mr. and Mrs. Terry filed a proof of claim [Claim No. 156] (the "Terry Proof of Claim") relating to damages arising from the alleged conversion of Mr. and Mrs. Terry's retirement accounts, which were the subject of an action captioned Joshua and Jennifer Terry v. Highland Capital Management, L.P., James Dondero and Thomas Surgent, Case No. DC-16-11396, pending in the 162nd District Court of Dallas County Texas (the "Terry Action"); and
- Acis LP filed a proof of claim [Claim No. 159] (the "Acis LP Proof of Claim") relating to alleged damages arising from NWCC, LLC v. Highland CLO Management, LLC, et al., Index No. 654195/2018 (N.Y. Sup. Ct. 2018) (the "NWCC Litigation").

19. A separate adversary proceeding was filed against Mr. Dondero, Frank Waterhouse (the Debtor's CFO and Acis's former treasurer), Scott Ellington (the Debtor's general counsel), other Debtor employees, and CLO Holdco, Ltd. Further, certain state court litigation was commenced against, amongst others, certain in-house attorneys employed by the Debtor (collectively, the "Acis Suits").

20. In addition to the foregoing, the Acis Parties believe that they may have additional claims against the Debtor, its employees, and certain of its affiliates and related entities. For example, Acis asserted violations of injunctive provisions in its plan of reorganization by the Debtor, certain of its employees, and certain of its affiliates and related entities. For additional detail and background, see Mot. for Relief from Stay [Docket No. 593]. By further example, Mr. Terry asserts breaches of a Rule 11 agreement entered in to between, among others, Mr. Terry, the Debtor, Mr. Dondero and Mr. Surgent in the Terry Action.

21. The Debtor, as well as its employees and certain of its affiliates and related entities, believe that they may have additional claims against the Acis Parties.

C. Objections to the Acis Proof of Claim

22. As mentioned above, the Acis Proof of Claim contained 34 separate counts, all of which were extremely complex both factually and legally. In response, on June 23, 2020, the Debtor filed its Objection to Proof of Claim of Acis Capital Management, L.P. and Acis Capital Management GP, LLC [Docket No. 771] (the “Debtor Objection”). On July 13, 2020, Mr. Dondero filed James Dondero’s (i) Objection to Proof of Claim of Acis Capital Management, L.P. and Acis Capital Management GP, LLC; and (ii) Joinder in Support of Highland Capital Management, L.P.’s Objection to Proof of Claim of Acis Capital Management, L.P., and Acis Capital Management GP, LLC [Docket No. 827] (the “Dondero Objection”). On July 23, 2020, UBS Securities LLC and UBS AG, London Branch filed UBS (i) Objection to Proof of Claim of Acis Capital Management L.P. and Acis Capital Management GP, LLC and (ii) Joinder in the Debtor’s Objection [Docket No. 891] (the “UBS Objection” and together with the Debtor Objection and the Dondero Objection, the “Objections”).⁴ The Debtor Objection was, by necessity, also extremely complex and spanned over 60 pages.

⁴ Although each is marginally different, the Dondero Objection and the UBS Objection can be considered joinders to the Debtor Objection and substantively the same as the Debtor Objection.

23. On July 31, 2020, Acis responded to each Objection in its Omnibus Response to Objection to Proof of Claim of Acis Capital Management, L.P. and Acis Capital Management GP, LLC [Docket No. 908] (the “Omnibus Response”).

D. The Mediation

24. As part of the Mediation, Acis and the Debtor, among others, were directed to mediate Acis’s claims and to work towards a resolution. Through the Mediation, and with the assistance of the Mediators, Acis and the Debtor were able to negotiate and enter into both the Settlement Agreement and the Release on September 9, 2020. The Debtor informed this Court of the parties’ settlement on September 10, 2020.

25. The Settlement Agreement and the Release⁵ provide for the resolution and mutual release of all the “Acis Released Claims” and the “HCMLP Released Claims” (each as defined in the Release), including the Acis Proof of Claim, the Terry Proof of Claim, the Acis LP Proof of Claim, the HCMLP Proofs of Claim, the HCMLP Administrative Claim, and certain claims in the Acis Suits. However, these documents also provide, with certain exceptions,⁶ for the release of any and all claims that the Acis Parties (among others) may have against the Debtor’s employees, managed funds, and related entities, among others, and for reciprocal releases from such parties in favor of the Acis Parties (among others).

⁵ For convenience purposes, this Motion contains a summary of the material terms of the Settlement Agreement and the Release. If there is an actual or perceived conflict or inconsistency between this Motion and the Settlement Agreement or the Release, the terms of the Settlement Agreement and the Release will govern.

⁶ Specifically, the Release does not release any claims in favor of or against: (i) NexPoint Advisors (and any of its subsidiaries), (ii) the Charitable Donor Advised Fund, L.P. (and any of its subsidiaries, including CLO Holdco, Ltd.), (iii) Highland CLO Funding, Ltd. (and any of its subsidiaries), (iv) NexBank, SSB (and any of its subsidiaries), (v) James Dondero, (vi) Hunter Mountain Investment Trust (or any trustee acting for the trust), (vii) Dugaboy Investment Trust (or any trustee acting for the trust), (viii) Grant Scott, (ix) David Simek, (x) William Scott, (xi) Heather Bestwick, (xii) Mark Okada and his family trusts (and the trustees for such trusts in their representative capacities), (xiii) McKool Smith, PC, (xiv) Gary Cruciani, (xv) Lackey Hershman, LLP, (xvi) Jamie Welton, or (xvii) Paul Lackey.

26. The Release also provides that certain “HCMLP Specified Employees”⁷ will only receive the benefit of the Release if they execute the Release on or before the date that the Release is approved by this Court. The Release further provides that any “HCMLP Released Party” (as defined in the Release), and only such HCMLP Released Party, will be deemed to have waived its rights under the Release and any release contained in the Plan of Reorganization of Highland Capital Management, L.P. [Docket No. 956], as may be amended or restated (the “Plan”) if he, she, or it (i) sues, attempts to sue, or threatens or works with or assists any entity or person to sue, attempt to sue, or threaten any “Acis Released Party” (as defined in the Release) on or in connection with any HCMLP Released Claim or any other claim or cause of action arising prior to the date of the Release; (ii) takes any action that, in the Debtor’s reasonable judgment, impairs or harms the value of the Debtor, its estate, and its assets; or (iii) in the Debtor’s reasonable judgment, fails to use commercially reasonable efforts to support confirmation of the Plan and/or monetize the Debtor’s assets at their maximum value.

E. Summary of Settlement Terms

27. The Settlement Agreement contains the following material terms, among others:

- The Acis Proof of Claim will be allowed in the amount of $23,000,000 as a general unsecured claim.
- On the effective date of a plan of reorganization confirmed by this Court, the Debtor will pay in cash to:
 - Mr. and Mrs. Terry the amount of $425,000 plus 10% simple interest (calculated on the basis of a 360-day year from and including June 30, 2016), in full and complete satisfaction of the Terry Proof of Claim;

⁷ The “HCMLP Specified Employees” are Scott Ellington, Isaac Leventon, Thomas Surgent, Frank Waterhouse, Jean Paul Sevilla, David Klos, Kristin Hendrix, Timothy Cournoyer, Stephanie Vitiello, Katie Irving, Jon Poglitsch, and Hunter Covitz.

- Acis LP the amount of $97,000, which amount represents the legal fees incurred by Acis LP with respect to the NWCC Litigation, in full and complete satisfaction of the Acis LP Proof of Claim; and
- Mr. Terry the amount of $355,000 in full and complete satisfaction of the legal fees assessed against Highland CLO Funding, Ltd., in the Guernsey Suit.

The Settlement Agreement also provides that, within five days of this Court's approval of the Settlement Agreement and the Release, the Debtor will move to withdraw, with prejudice, the HCMLP Proofs of Claim and the HCMLP Administrative Claim.

28. As discussed above, the Release, which is an integral component of the Settlement Agreement, contains a broad, mutual, and general release of the Acis Released Claims and the HCMLP Released Claims (with certain exceptions). The Release also provides that within five days of this Court's approval of the Settlement Agreement and the Release, that each Acis Released Party and HCMLP Released Party, to the extent applicable, will coordinate to cause the "Filed Cases,"⁸ including any appeals of any Filed Cases, to be dismissed with prejudice as to any Acis Released Party or HCMLP Released Party; provided, however, that there is no obligation to dismiss or withdraw the Debtor's bankruptcy case. The Debtor will also direct Neutra, Ltd., to dismiss all of its appeals arising from the Acis Bankruptcy Case if the Debtor receives written advice from nationally recognized external counsel that it is legally permissible consistent with the Debtor's contractual and legal duties to do so and that doing so would not reasonably subject HCMLP to liability.

⁸ "Filed Cases" is defined in the Release as (i) the HCMLP Bankruptcy Case; (ii) Acis Capital Management, L.P., et al. v. Highland Capital Management, L.P., et al, Case No. 18-03078 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2018); (iii) Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay to Allow Pursuit of Motion for Order to Show Cause for Violations of the Acis Plan Injunction, Case No. 19-34054-sgj-11 [Docket No. 593] (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2020); (iv) Joshua and Jennifer Terry v. Highland Capital Management, L.P., James Dondero and Thomas Surgent, Case No. DC-16-11396, pending in the 162nd District Court of Dallas County Texas; (v) Acis Capital Management, L.P., et al v. James Dondero, et al., Case No. 20-0360 (Bankruptcy N.D. Tex. 2020); (vi) Acis Capital Management, L.P., et al v. Gary Cruciani, et al., Case No. DC-20-05534, pending in the 162nd District Court of Dallas County Texas; (vii) Highland CLO Funding v. Joshua Terry, [No Case Number], pending in the Royal Court of the Island of Guernsey; and (viii) the Acis Bankruptcy Case.

Basis for Relief Requested

29. Bankruptcy Rule 9019 governs the procedural prerequisites to approval of a settlement, providing that:

On motion by the trustee and after notice and a hearing, the court may approve a compromise or settlement. Notice shall be given to creditors, the United States trustee, the debtor, and indenture trustees as provided in Rule 2002 and to any other entity as the court may direct.

FED. R. BANKR. P. 9019(a).

30. Settlements in bankruptcy are favored as a means of minimizing litigation, expediting the administration of the bankruptcy estate, and providing for the efficient resolution of bankruptcy cases. Myers v. Martin (In re Martin), 91 F.3d 389, 393 (3d Cir. 1996); see also Rivercity v. Herpel (In re Jackson Brewing Co.), 624 F.2d 599, 602 (5th Cir. 1980). Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019(a), a bankruptcy court may approve a compromise or settlement as long as the proposed settlement is fair, reasonable, and in the best interest of the estate. See In re Age Ref. Inc., 801 F.3d 530, 540 (5th Cir. 2015). Ultimately, “approval of a compromise is within the sound discretion of the bankruptcy court.” See United States v. AWECO, Inc. (In re AWECO, Inc.), 725 F.2d 293, 297 (5th Cir. 1984); Jackson Brewing, 624 F.2d at 602–03.

31. In making this determination, the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit applies a three-part test, “with a focus on comparing ‘the terms of the compromise with the rewards of litigation.’” Official Comm. of Unsecured Creditors v. Cajun Elec. Power Coop. (In re Cajun Elec. Power Coop.), 119 F.3d 349, 356 (5th Cir. 1997) (citing Jackson Brewing, 624 F.2d at 602). The Fifth Circuit has instructed courts to consider the following factors: “(1) The probability of success in the litigation, with due consideration for the uncertainty of law and fact, (2) The complexity and likely duration of the litigation and any attendant expense, inconvenience and delay, and (3) All other factors bearing on the wisdom of the compromise.”

Id. Under the rubric of the third factor referenced above, the Fifth Circuit has specified two additional factors that bear on the decision to approve a proposed settlement. First, the court should consider “the paramount interest of creditors with proper deference to their reasonable views.” Id.; Conn. Gen. Life Ins. Co. v. United Cos. Fin. Corp. (In re Foster Mortgage Corp.), 68 F.3d 914, 917 (5th Cir. 1995). Second, the court should consider the “extent to which the settlement is truly the product of arms-length bargaining, and not of fraud or collusion.” Age Ref. Inc., 801 F.3d at 540; Foster Mortgage Corp., 68 F.3d at 918 (citations omitted).

32. There is ample basis to approve the proposed Settlement Agreement and the Release based on the Rule 9019 factors set forth by the Fifth Circuit.

33. First, although the Debtor believes that it has valid defenses to the Acis Proof of Claim as set forth in the Debtor Objection, there is no guarantee that the Debtor would be successful in its litigation with Acis. Further, the second factor—the complexity, duration, and costs of litigation—weighs heavily in favor of approving the Settlement Agreement and the Release. As this Court well knows, the litigation between Acis, the Terry Parties, and the Debtor has been proceeding for years in this Court and elsewhere and has cost the parties millions in legal fees and untold amounts of time and energy that could have (and should have) been better focused elsewhere. If the Settlement Agreement and the Release are not approved, then the parties will revert to the status quo ante. In this case, the status quo ante is constant, perpetual, costly, and acrimonious litigation that stands to derail not only the confirmation of the Plan in this case but the closing of the Acis Bankruptcy Case. Approving the Settlement Agreement and the Release will resolve the Objections and certain of the satellite litigation that revolves around this case and the Acis Bankruptcy Case. This settlement—together with the hopeful settlement of other claims in this case—will pave the way for a full resolution of this case and the confirmation of the Plan.

34. Finally, approval of the Settlement Agreement and the Release is justified by the paramount interest of the Debtor’s creditors and the arms-length nature of the settlement (the factors falling under the rubric of the third factor “all other factors bearing on the wisdom of the compromise”). As an initial matter, the Settlement Agreement and the Release are the result of the Mediation. As such, there can be no colorable argument that the Settlement Agreement and the Release were not negotiated at arms-length. Any such argument is further belied by the long and very well-documented history of the parties’ acrimony and inability to work cooperatively.

35. Furthermore, the settlement embodied in the Settlement Agreement and the Release is in the best interests of all creditors. The Acis Proof of Claim was filed for “at least” $75 million, and that $75 million was substantially below what Acis contended its claim was actually worth (which, on information and belief, was in excess of $200 million with punitive damages). Furthermore, Acis’s ongoing lawsuits against the Debtor and its employees were a costly and time-intensive endeavor and a substantial impediment to the Debtor’s restructuring. Resolving the Acis Proof of Claim—not to mention the Terry Proof of Claim, the Acis LP Proof of Claim, and the various claims against the Debtor’s employees—for a $23-million allowed claim plus approximately $1 million in cash payments on the effective date of a plan and the waiver of the Debtor’s disputed claims in the Acis Bankruptcy Case represents a substantial benefit to the Debtor’s estate and a huge step towards confirmation of the Plan and the Debtor’s exit from bankruptcy.

No Prior Request

36. No previous request for the relief sought herein has been made to this, or any other, Court.

Notice

37. Notice of this Motion shall be given to the following parties or, in lieu thereof, to their counsel, if known: (a) counsel for Acis; (b) counsel for the Terry Parties, (c) the Office of the United States Trustee; (d) the Office of the United States Attorney for the Northern District of Texas; (e) the Debtor's principal secured parties; (f) counsel to the Committee; (g) counsel to UBS, (h) counsel to Mr. Dondero, and (i) parties requesting notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002. The Debtor submits that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

Prayer

WHEREFORE, the Debtor respectfully requests entry of an order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, (a) granting the relief requested herein, and (b) granting such other relief as is just and proper.

(“HCMLP”); (ii) Acis Capital Management, L.P. (“Acis LP”); (iii) Acis Capital Management GP LLC (“Acis GP” and together with Acis LP, “Acis”); (iv) Joshua N. Each of the foregoing are sometimes referred to herein collectively as the “Parties” and individually as a “Party.”

RECITALS

WHEREAS, on August 3, 2020, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas (the “Bankruptcy Court”) entered an Order Directing Mediation [Docket No. 912] pursuant to which HCMLP, Acis Capital Management L.P., and Acis Capital Management GP, LLC (together, the “Mediation Parties”), among others, were directed to mediate their disputes before Retired Judge Allan Gropper and Sylvia Mayer (together, the “Mediators”); and

WHEREAS, during the mediation, the Mediators made an economic proposal to resolve the Claims (the “Mediators’ Economic Proposal”), and each of the Mediation Parties accepted the Mediators’ Economic Proposal; and

WHEREAS, the Parties have negotiated and executed that certain General Release, dated as of even date herewith (the “Release”),¹ which, among other things, releases the Acis Released Claims and the HCMLP Released Claims; and

WHEREAS, the Parties desire to enter into this Agreement which incorporates, formalizes, and finalizes the Mediators’ Economic Proposal and which, when combined with the Release, will fully and finally resolve the Claims; and

WHEREAS, this Agreement and the Release attached hereto will be presented to the Bankruptcy Court for approval pursuant to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9019 (“Rule 9019”);

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the above recitals, the covenants, conditions, and promises made herein, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the Parties agree as follows:

1. Settlement of Claims. In full and complete satisfaction of the Claims:

(a) The proof of claim filed by Acis in the HCMLP Bankruptcy Case on December 31, 2019 [Claim No. 23] will be allowed in the amount of $23,000,000 as a general unsecured claim;

¹ All capitalized terms used but not defined herein have the meanings given to them in the Release.

(b) On the effective date of a plan of reorganization and confirmed by the Bankruptcy Court, HCMLP will pay in cash to:

(i) Joshua N. Terry and Jennifer G. Terry $425,000, plus 10% simple interest (calculated on the basis of a 360-day year from and including June 30, 2016), in full and complete satisfaction of the proof of claim filed in the HCMLP Bankruptcy Case by Joshua N. Terry and Jennifer G. Terry on April 8, 2020 [Claim No. 156];

(ii) Acis LP $97,000, which amount represents the legal fees incurred by Acis LP with respect to NWCC, LLC v. Highland CLO Management, LLC, et al., Index No. 654195-2018 (N.Y. Sup. Ct. 2018), in full and complete satisfaction of the proof of claim filed by Acis LP in the HCMLP Bankruptcy Case on April 8, 2020 [Claim No. 159];

(iii) Joshua N. Terry $355,000 in full and complete satisfaction of the legal fees assessed against Highland CLO Funding, Ltd., in Highland CLO Funding v. Joshua Terry, [No Case Number], pending in the Royal Court of the Island of Guernsey;

(c) On the effective date of a plan of reorganization proposed by HCMLP and confirmed by the Bankruptcy Court, if HCMLP receives written advice of nationally recognized external counsel that it is legally permissible consistent with HCMLP's contractual and legal duties to transfer all of its direct and indirect right, title and interest in Highland HCF Advisor, Ltd. to Acis or its nominee and that doing so would not reasonably subject HCMLP to liability, HCMLP shall transfer all of its right, title and interest in Highland HCF Advisor, Ltd., whether its ownership is direct or indirect, to Acis or its nominee, subject at all times to Acis's right to unilaterally reject the transfer in its sole and absolute discretion;

(d) Within five (5) days of the Agreement Effective Date, HCMLP shall:

(i) Move to withdraw, with prejudice, its proof of claim [Claim No. 27] filed in In re Acis Capital Management, L.P., Case No. 18-30264-sgj11 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2018), and its proof of claim [Claim No. 13] filed in In re Acis Capital Management GP, LLC, Case No. 18-30265-sgj11 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2018);

(ii) Move to withdraw, with prejudice, Highland Capital Management, L.P.'s Application for Administrative Expense Claim Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 503(b) filed in the Acis Bankruptcy Case [Docket No. 772];

(e) At all times after the execution of this Agreement:

(i) Only to the extent reasonably necessary to maintain the status quo in the Acis Appeals, the Parties shall cooperate in seeking to abate or otherwise stay the Acis Appeals vis-à-vis the Parties pending the occurrence of the Agreement Effective Date; and

(ii) HCMLP shall cooperate in good faith to promptly return to Acis all property of Acis that is in HCMLP's possession, custody, or control, including but not limited to e-mail communications.

2. Releases. The Release is (a) attached to this Agreement as Appendix A; (b) an integral component of the Mediator's Economic Proposal and (c) incorporated by reference into this Agreement as if fully set forth herein.

3. Agreement Subject to Bankruptcy Court Approval.

(a) The effectiveness of this Agreement and the Parties' obligations hereunder are conditioned in all respects on the approval of this Agreement and the Release by the Bankruptcy Court. The Parties agree to use reasonable efforts to have this Agreement and the Release expeditiously approved by the Bankruptcy Court by cooperating in the preparation and prosecution of a mutually agreeable motion and proposed order. The "Agreement Effective Date" will be the date of an order entered by the Bankruptcy Court approving this Agreement pursuant to a motion filed under Rule 9019.

(b) The Parties acknowledge and agree that the terms and conditions of this Agreement are conditioned, in all respects, on the execution of the Release by the Parties and the approval of the Release and this Agreement by the Bankruptcy Court. If either the Release or this Settlement Agreement are not approved by the Bankruptcy Court for any reason, this Agreement and the Release will be immediately null and void and of no further force and effect.

4. Representations and Warranties. Subject in all respects to Section 3, each Party represents and warrants to the other Party that such Party is fully authorized to enter into and perform the terms of this Agreement and that, as of the Agreement Effective Date, this Agreement and the Release will be fully binding upon each Party in accordance with their terms.

5. No Admission of Liability. The Parties acknowledge that there is a bona fide dispute with respect to the Claims. Nothing in this Agreement will imply, an admission of liability, fault or wrongdoing by HCMLP, the Acis Parties, or any other person, and the execution of this Agreement does not constitute an admission of liability, fault, or wrongdoing on the part of HCMLP, the Acis Parties, or any other person.

6. Successors-in-Interest. This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of each of the Parties and their representatives, successors, and assigns, including but not limited to any Chapter 7 trustee appointed for HCMLP.

7. Notice. Each notice and other communication hereunder will be in writing and will be sent by email and delivered or mailed by registered mail, receipt requested, and will be deemed to have been given on the date of its delivery, if delivered, and on the fifth full business day following the date of the mailing, if mailed to each of the Parties thereto at the following respective addresses or such other address as may be specified in any notice delivered or mailed as set forth below:

Terry, individually and for the benefit of his individual retirement accounts, Jennifer G. RECITALS

WHEREAS, the Parties have asserted or may assert claims that are defined in Section 1 below as the “Acis Released Claims” and the “HCMLP Released Claims” (collectively, the “Claims”); and

WHEREAS, on August 3, 2020, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas (the “Court”) entered an Order Directing Mediation [Docket No. 912] pursuant to which HCMLP, Acis Capital Management L.P., and Acis Capital Management GP, LLC (together, the “Mediation Parties”), among others, were directed to mediate their disputes before Retired Judge Allan Gropper and Sylvia Mayer (together, the “Mediators”); and

NOW, THEREFORE, after good-faith, arms-length negotiations, and in consideration of the promises made herein and in the Mediators’ Economic Proposal, the Parties agree to release each other pursuant to and in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth below.

This release is intended to be general. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the term HCMLP Released Parties shall not include NexPoint Advisors (and any of its subsidiaries), the Charitable Donor Advised Fund, L.P. (and any of its subsidiaries, including CLO Holdco, Ltd.), Highland CLO Funding, Ltd. (and any of its subsidiaries), NexBank, SSB (and any of its subsidiaries), James Dondero, Hunter Mountain Investment Trust (or any trustee acting for the trust), Dugaboy Investment Trust (or any trustee acting for the trust), Grant Scott, David Simek, William Scott, Heather Bestwick, Mark Okada and his family trusts (and the trustees for such trusts in their representative capacities), McKool Smith, PC, Gary Cruciani, Lackey Hershman, LLP, Jamie Welton, or Paul Lackey.

b. Upon the Effective Date, and to the maximum extent permitted by law, each HCMLP Released Party hereby forever, finally, fully, unconditionally, and completely releases, relieves, acquits, remises, and exonerates, and covenants never to sue the (A) Acis Parties, (B) Acis CLO 2013-1 Ltd., Acis CLO 2014-3 Ltd., Acis CLO 2014-4 Ltd., Acis CLO 2014-5 Ltd., Acis CLO 2015-6 Ltd. (collectively, the “Acis CLOs”), and (C) with respect to each such Acis Party and Acis CLO, to the extent applicable, such Acis Party and Acis CLO, their respective current advisors, trustees, directors, officers, managers, members, partners, current or former employees, beneficiaries, shareholders, agents, participants, subsidiaries, parents, affiliates, successors, designees, and assigns (the foregoing (A), (B), and (C), the “Acis Released Parties”), for and from any and all claims, debts, liabilities, demands, obligations, promises, acts, agreements, liens, losses, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, attorney’s fees and related costs), damages, injuries, suits, actions, and causes of action of whatever kind or nature, whether known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, matured or unmatured, liquidated or unliquidated, contingent or fixed, at law or in equity, statutory or otherwise, including, without limitation, any claims, defenses, and affirmative defenses, whether known or unknown, which were or could have been asserted in, in connection with, or with respect to the Filed Cases (collectively, the “HCMLP Released Claims”). This release is intended to be general. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, this Section 1.b will not affect any right to payment under any notes, debt, equity, or other security issued by any Acis CLO and held by any HCMLP Released Party.

c. The HCMLP Released Parties shall also hereby forever, finally, fully, unconditionally, and completely release, relieve, acquit, remise, and exonerate, and covenant never to sue (A) U.S. Bank National Association, Moody’s Investor Services, Inc., and Brigade Capital Management, Inc. and (B) with respect to each such DAF Suit Defendant, to the extent applicable, such DAF Suit Defendant, their respective current advisors, trustees, directors, officers, managers, members, partners, current or former employees, beneficiaries, shareholders, agents, participants, subsidiaries, parents, affiliates, successors, designees, and assigns (the foregoing (A) and (B), the “DAF Suit Defendants”), for and from any and all claims, debts, liabilities, demands, obligations, promises, acts, agreements, liens, losses, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, attorney’s fees and related costs), damages, injuries, suits, actions, and causes of action of whatever kind or nature, whether known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, matured or unmatured, liquidated or unliquidated, contingent or fixed, at law or in equity, statutory or otherwise, which were or could have been asserted in, in connection with, or with respect to the DAF Lawsuits. This release is not intended to be general.

d. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if (A) any HCMLP Specified Party has not executed this Release on or before the Effective Date or (B) any HCMLP Released Party, including any HCMLP Specified Party, (i) sues, attempts to sue, or threatens or works with or assists any entity or person to sue, attempt to sue, or threaten any Acis Released Party on or in connection with any HCMLP Released Claim or any other claim or cause of action arising prior to the date of this Release, (ii) takes any action that, in HCMLP’s reasonable judgment, impairs or harms the value of HCMLP, its estate, and its assets; or (iii) in HCMLP’s reasonable judgment fails to use commercially reasonable efforts to support confirmation of the Plan and/or the monetization of HCMLP’s assets at their maximum value, then (a) such HCMLP Released Party (and only such HCMLP Released Party) will be deemed to have waived (x) the release and all other protections set forth in Section 1a hereof and will have no further rights, duties, or protections under this Release and (y) any releases set forth in the Plan, (b) the Acis Released Parties, as applicable, may, in their discretion, assert any and all Acis Released Claims against such HCMLP Released Party (and only such HCMLP Released Party), and (c) any statutes of limitation or other similar defenses are tolled against such HCMLP Released Party (and only such HCMLP Released Party) from the execution of this Release until ninety (90) days after the Acis Released Parties receive actual written notice of any violation of this Section 1d. For the avoidance of doubt, by signing this Release each of the HCMLP Specified Parties is acknowledging and agreeing, without limitation, to the terms of this Section 1.d and the tolling agreement set forth herein.

2. Withdrawal/Dismissal of Filed Cases. Within five days of the Effective Date, each Acis Released Party and HCMLP Released Party, to the extent applicable, will coordinate to cause the Filed Cases, including any appeals of any Filed Cases, to be dismissed with prejudice as to any Acis Released Party or HCMLP Released Party; provided, however, that there is no obligation to dismiss or withdraw the HCMLP Bankruptcy Case. For the avoidance of doubt, and consistent with this Section, (a) if HCMLP receives written advice of nationally recognized external counsel that it is legally permissible consistent with HCMLP's contractual and legal duties to direct Neutra, Ltd. to move to dismiss all of their appeals arising from the Acis Bankruptcy and that doing so would not reasonably subject HCMLP to liability, HCMLP shall direct Neutra, Ltd. to move to dismiss all of their appeals arising from the Acis Bankruptcy and (b) Acis shall move to dismiss with prejudice its claims against HCMLP asserted in any adversary proceeding in the Acis Bankruptcy Case. To the extent reasonably necessary to maintain the status quo in the Filed Cases, including any appeals thereof, prior to the Effective Date, each Acis Released Party and HCMLP Released Party shall reasonably cooperate in seeking to abate or otherwise stay the Filed Cases vis-à-vis the Parties.

3. Representations and Warranties.

a. Each of the Acis Parties represents and warrants to each of the HCMLP Released Parties and each of the HCMLP Specified Parties who have signed this Release that (a) he, she or it has full authority to release the Acis Released Claims and has not sold, transferred, or assigned any Acis Released Claim to any other person or entity, and that (b) to the best of his, her or its current knowledge, no person or entity other than the Acis Parties has been, is, or will be authorized to bring, pursue, or enforce any Acis Released Claim on behalf of, for the benefit of, or in the name of (whether directly or derivatively) any of the Acis Parties.

b. Each of HCMLP and each HCMLP Specified Party who has signed this Release represents and warrants to each of the Acis Parties that he, she or it has not sold, transferred, pledged, assigned or hypothecated any HCMLP Released Claim to any other person or entity.

c. Each HCMLP Specified Party and each of HCMLP and Strand represents and warrants to each of the Acis Parties that he, she, or it has full authority to release any HCMLP Released Claims that such HCMLP Specified Party, HCMLP, or Strand personally has against any Acis Party.

d. HCMLP represents and warrants that it is releasing the HCMLP Released Claims on behalf of the HCMLP Entities to the maximum extent permitted by any contractual or other legal rights HCMLP possesses. To the extent any of the HCMLP Entities dispute HCMLP's right to release the HCMLP Released Claims on behalf of any of the HCMLP Entities, HCMLP shall use commercially reasonable efforts to support the Acis Parties' position, if any, that such claims were released herein. For the avoidance of doubt, HCMLP will have no obligations to assist the Acis Parties under this Section if HCMLP has been advised by external counsel that such assistance could subject HCMLP to liability to any third party or if such assistance would require HCMLP to expend material amounts of time or money. HCMLP shall not argue in any forum that the non-signatory status of any of the HCMLP Entities to this Release shall in any way affect the enforceability of this Release vis-à-vis any of the HCMLP Entities. The Parties agree that all of the HCMLP Entities are intended third-party beneficiaries of this Release.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Acis Parties acknowledge and agree that their sole and exclusive remedy for the breach of the foregoing Sections 3b, 3c, and 3d will be that set forth in Section 1.d hereof.

THE PERIOD FROM AUGUST 1, 2020 THROUGH AUGUST 31, 2020

¹ The Debtor's last four digits of its taxpayer identification number are (6725). The headquarters and service address for the above-captioned Debtor is 300 Crescent Court, Suite 700, Dallas, TX 75201.

Pursuant to sections 330 and 331 of Title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”), Rule 2016 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (collectively, the “Bankruptcy Rules”), Rule 2016-1 of the Local Bankruptcy Rules of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas (collectively, the “LBR”), and the Order Establishing Procedures for Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses of Professionals [Docket No. 141] (the “Administrative Order”), Pachulski Stang Ziehl & Jones LLP (“PSZ&J” or the “Firm”), counsel for the above-captioned debtor and debtor in possession (the “Debtor”) hereby submits its Eleventh Monthly Application for Compensation and for Reimbursement of Expenses for the Period from August 1, 2020 through August 31, 2020 (the “Application”).

By this Application, PSZ&J seeks (i) a monthly interim allowance of compensation in the amount of $672,815.00 and actual and necessary expenses in the amount of $3,428.14 for a total allowance of $676,243.14, and (ii) payment of $538,252.00 (80% of the allowed fees pursuant to the Administrative Order) and reimbursement of $3,428.14 (100% of the allowed expenses pursuant to the Administrative Order) for a total payment of $541,680.14 for the period August 1, 2020 through August 31, 2020 (the “Interim Period”). In support of this Application, PSZ&J respectfully represents as follows:

Background

1. On October 16, 2019 (the “Petition Date”), the Debtor filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the “Delaware Court”). The Debtor has continued in the possession of its property and has continued to operate and manage its business as a debtor-in-possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No trustee or examiner has been appointed in this chapter 11 case.

2. On October 29, 2019, the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the “Committee”) was appointed by the U.S. Trustee in the Delaware Court.

3. On November 14, 2019, the Delaware Court entered the Administrative Order authorizing certain professionals and members of any official committee (collectively referred to hereafter as “Professionals”) to submit monthly applications for interim compensation and reimbursement of expenses pursuant to the procedures specified therein. The Administrative Order provides, among other things, that (i) a Professional may submit monthly fee applications and (ii) if no objections are made within twenty-one (21) days after service of the monthly fee application, the Debtor is authorized to pay the Professional eighty percent (80%) of its requested fees and one hundred percent (100%) of its requested expenses. The Administrative Order further provides that, beginning with the period ending December 31, 2019, and at three-month intervals thereafter—or such other intervals convenient to the Court—each Professional may file an interim application with seeking Court-approval and allowance of the amounts sought in the Professional’s monthly fee applications for that period. The Administrative Order further provides that all fees and expenses paid during the pendency of the Debtor’s case are on an interim basis until final allowance by the Court.

4. On December 4, 2019, the Delaware Court entered an Order [Docket No. 186] transferring venue of the Debtor’s bankruptcy case to this Court.

5. The retention of PSZ&J, as counsel to the Debtor, was approved effective as of October 16, 2019, by the Delaware Court's Order Pursuant to Section 327(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, Rule 2014 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure and Local Rule 2014-1 Authorizing the Employment and Retention of Pachulski Stang Ziehl & Jones LLP as Counsel for the Debtor and Debtor in Possession Nunc Pro Tunc to the Petition Date, signed on December 2, 2019 [Docket No. 183] (the "Retention Order"). The Retention Order authorized PSZ&J to be compensated on an hourly basis and to be reimbursed for actual and necessary out-of-pocket expenses.

PSZ&J'S APPLICATION FOR COMPENSATION AND FOR REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES

Compensation Paid and Its Source

6. All services for which PSZ&J requests compensation were performed for or on behalf of the Debtor. PSZ&J has received no payment and no promises for payment from any source other than the Debtor for services rendered or to be rendered in any capacity whatsoever in connection with the matters covered by this Application. There is no agreement or understanding between PSZ&J and any other person other than the partners of PSZ&J for the sharing of compensation to be received for services rendered in this case.

7. PSZ&J had received payments from the Debtor during the year prior to the Petition Date in the amount of $500,000, including the Debtor's filing fee for this case, in connection with the preparation of initial documents and the prepetition representation of the Debtor. PSZ&J is current as of the Petition Date and has completed its final reconciliation of prepetition fees and expenses (subject to any prepetition expenses that have not been received to date). The retainer balance remaining from the prepetition payments to PSZ&J will be credited to the Debtor and utilized as PSZ&J's retainer to apply to post-petition fees and expenses pursuant to the approved compensation procedures.

Fee Statements

8. The fee statements for the Interim Period are attached hereto as Exhibit A. These statements contain daily time logs describing the time spent by each attorney and paraprofessional during the Interim Period. To the best of PSZ&J's knowledge, this Application complies with sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules and the Administrative Order. PSZ&J's time reports are entered by or at the direction of the attorney or paralegal performing the described services. The time reports are organized on a daily basis. PSZ&J is particularly sensitive to issues of "lumping" and, unless time was spent in one time frame on a variety of different matters for a particular client, separate time entries are set forth in the time reports. PSZ&J's charges for its professional services are based upon the time, nature, extent and value of such services and the cost of comparable services other than in a case under the Bankruptcy Code. PSZ&J has reduced its charges related to any non-working travel time to fifty percent (50%) of PSZ&J's standard hourly rate. To the extent it is feasible, PSZ&J professionals attempt to work during travel.

Actual and Necessary Expenses

9. A summary of actual and necessary expenses incurred by PSZ&J for the Interim Period is attached hereto as part of Exhibit A. PSZ&J customarily charges $0.10 per page for photocopying expenses related to cases, such as this, arising in Delaware. PSZ&J's photocopying machines automatically record the number of copies made when the person that is doing the copying enters the client's account number into a device attached to the photocopier.

PSZ&J summarizes each client's photocopying charges on a daily basis.

10. PSZ&J charges $0.25 per page for out-going facsimile transmissions.

There is no additional charge for long distance telephone calls on faxes. The charge for outgoing facsimile transmissions reflects PSZ&J's calculation of the actual costs incurred by PSZ&J for the machines, supplies and extra labor expenses associated with sending telecopies and is reasonable in relation to the amount charged by outside vendors who provide similar services.

PSZ&J does not charge the Debtor for the receipt of faxes in this case.

11. With respect to providers of on-line legal research services (e.g., LEXIS and WESTLAW), PSZ&J charges the standard usage rates these providers charge for computerized legal research. PSZ&J bills its clients the actual amounts charged by such services, with no premium. Any volume discount received by PSZ&J is passed on to the client.

12. PSZ&J believes the foregoing rates are the market rates that the majority of law firms charge clients for such services. In addition, PSZ&J believes that such charges are in accordance with the American Bar Association's ("ABA") guidelines, as set forth in the ABA's Statement of Principles, dated January 12, 1995, regarding billing for disbursements and other charges.

Summary of Services Rendered

13. The names of the timekeepers of PSZ&J who have rendered professional services in this case during the Interim Period are set forth in the attached Exhibit A. PSZ&J, by

ATTORNEYS FOR JAMES DONDERO

FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
DALLAS DIVISION

IN RE:	§
HIGHLAND CAPITAL MANAGEMENT, L.P.,	§	Case No. 19-34054
Debtor.	§	Chapter 11

OF AN ORDER APPROVING SETTLEMENT WITH (A) ACIS CAPITAL
(CLAIM NO. 23), (B) JOSHUA N. TERRY AND JENNIFER G. TERRY
(CLAIM NO. 156), AND (C) ACIS CAPITAL MANAGEMENT, L.P.
(CLAIM NO. 159), AND AUTHORIZING ACTIONS CONSISTENT THEREWITH
[Relates to Docket No. 1087]

James Dondero (“Respondent”), a creditor, indirect equity security holder, and party in interest in the above-captioned bankruptcy case, hereby files this Response to Debtor’s Motion for Entry of an Order Approving Settlement with (A) Acis Capital Management, L.P. and Acis Capital Management GP LLC (Claim No. 23), (B) Joshua N. Terry and Jennifer G. Terry (Claim No. 156), and (C) Acis Capital Management, L.P. (Claim No. 159), and Authorizing Actions Consistent Therewith [Docket No. 1087] (the “Motion”) filed by Highland Capital Management, L.P. (the “Debtor”). Through the Motion, the Debtor seeks approval of its compromise with Acis Capital

Management, L.P. and Acis Capital Management GP LLC (collectively, “Acis”) pursuant to Rule 9019 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”). In support of this response, Respondent respectfully represents as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. Under Bankruptcy Rule 9019, the Bankruptcy Court is tasked with making an independent judgment on the merits of a proposed settlement to ensure that the proposed settlement is “fair, equitable, and in the best interest of the estate.”¹ While Respondent appreciates the apparent lengths the Debtor went through in coming to terms of a settlement with Acis, Respondent believes it is critical that the Court be as fully informed as possible concerning why and how the settlement was arrived at. Given that just three months ago the Debtor asserted that Acis’s claim “should summarily be disallowed in its entirety”² as a “$75 million windfall,”³ it is appropriate for the Court to independently assess the merits of the settlement to understand why the Debtor now believes paying Acis millions of dollars “from the pockets of the Debtor’s innocent creditors”⁴ to be in the best interest of the estate.

II. BACKGROUND

2. On October 16, 2019 (the “Petition Date”), the Debtor filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware, Case No. 19-12239 (CSS) (the “Delaware Court”).

3. On October 29, 2019, the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the “Committee”) was appointed by the U.S. Trustee in Delaware.

4. On December 4, 2019, the Delaware Court entered an order transferring venue of the Debtor's Bankruptcy Case to this Court [Docket No. 186].

5. On December 27, 2019, the Debtor filed that certain Motion of the Debtor for Approval of Settlement with the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors Regarding Governance of the Debtor and Procedures for Operations in the Ordinary Course [Docket No. 281] (the "Settlement Motion"). This Court approved the Settlement Motion on January 9, 2020 [Docket No. 339] (the "Settlement Order").

6. In connection with the Settlement Order, an independent board of directors was appointed on January 9, 2020, for the Debtor's general partner, Strand Advisors, Inc. (the "Independent Board"). The members of the Independent Board are James P. Seery, Jr., John S. Dubel, and Russell F. Nelms.

7. On July 16, 2020, this Court entered an order authorizing the Debtor to employ James P. Seery, Jr. as Chief Executive Officer and Chief Restructuring Officer of the Debtor. See Docket No. 854.

8. On December 31, 2019, Acis filed its Proof of Claim Number 23 with the Bankruptcy Court (the "Acis Claim").

9. The Acis Claim incorporates the complaint from litigation commenced by the trustee of the former estate in the Acis bankruptcy case (the "Acis Case").

10. In response, on June 23, 2020, the Debtor filed its Objection to Proof of Claim of Acis Capital Management, L.P. and Acis Capital Management GP, LLC [Docket No. 771] (the "Debtor Objection").

11. On July 13, 2020, Respondent filed James Dondero's (i) Objection to Proof of Claim of Acis Capital Management, L.P. and Acis Capital Management GP, LLC; and (ii) Joinder in Support of Highland Capital Management, L.P.’s Objection to Proof of Claim of Acis Capital Management, L.P., and Acis Capital Management GP, LLC [Docket No. 827].

12. On July 23, 2020, UBS Securities LLC and UBS AG, London Branch filed UBS (i) Objection to Proof of Claim of Acis Capital Management L.P. and Acis Capital Management GP, LLC and (ii) Joinder in the Debtor’s Objection [Docket No. 891].

13. On July 31, 2020, Acis responded to each objection in its Omnibus Response to Objection to Proof of Claim of Acis Capital Management, L.P. and Acis Capital Management GP, LLC [Docket No. 908].

14. On September 23, 2020, the Debtor filed the Motion seeking approval of a proposed settlement of the Acis Claim under Rule 9019.

III. STANDING

15. Respondent, as a creditor, indirect equity security holder, and party in interest, has standing to file this response and be heard on the Motion pursuant to section 1109(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and Rule 9019 of the Bankruptcy Rules.

16. While neither section 1109 nor any other section in the Bankruptcy Code specifically defines the term “party in interest,” section 1109(b) provides a non-exclusive list of entities that fall within the meaning of “party in interest” for the purposes of a chapter 11 proceeding. See Kipp Flores Architects, L.L.C. v. Mid-Continent Cas. Co., 852 F.3d 405, 413 (5th Cir. 2017) (“The Bankruptcy Code does not provide an exclusive definition of a party in interest, but the Code broadly includes debtors, creditors, trustees, indenture trustees, and equity security holders among the parties entitled, e.g., to notice of proceedings in the case.”).

17. Specifically, section 1109(b) provides that “[a] party in interest, including the debtor, the trustee, a creditors’ committee, an equity security holders’ committee, a creditor, an equity security holder, or any indenture trustee may raise and may appear and be heard on any issue in a case under [Chapter 11].” 11 U.S.C. § 1109(b). This section “has been construed to create a broad right of participation in Chapter 11 cases.” In re Global Industrial Technologies, Inc., 645 F.3d 201, 210 (3d Cir. 2011) (quoting In re Combustion Engineering, Inc., 391 F.3d 190, 214 n.21 (3d Cir. 2004)). Parties in interest “include not only the debtor, but anyone who has a legally protected interest that could be affected by a bankruptcy proceeding.” Adair v. Sherman, 230 F.3d 890, 894 n. 3 (7th Cir. 2000). See also 4 COLLIER ON BANKRUPTCY P 502.02 (16th ed. 2020) (“In the context of a chapter 11 case in particular, the term ‘party in interest’ expressly includes the debtor, the trustee, a creditors’ committee, an equity security holders’ committee, a creditor, an equity security holder, or any indenture trustee.”).

18. Further, in the context of a court’s evaluation of a proposed settlement under Rule 9019, the input and interests of creditors are of particular importance. See In re Foster Mortgage Corp., 68 F.3d 914, 917 (5th Cir. 1996).

19. Here, Respondent has standing to be heard on any issue in this Chapter 11 case, including related to the Motion, because he is (i) a creditor; (ii) an indirect equity security holder; and (iii) a party in interest as those terms are interpreted under the Bankruptcy Code.

20. Respondent is a creditor of the Debtor because he has prepetition claims against the Debtor and its estate, including those asserted through proof of claim number 138 filed by Respondent on April 8, 2020. None of those claims has been objected to as of this writing.

21. Respondent is also an indirect equity security holder through his role as the sole shareholder of Debtor’s General Partner, Strand Advisors, Inc. (“Strand”). As the Debtor’s General Partner, Strand maintains a 0.2508% partnership interest in the Debtor.

22. Accordingly, as both a creditor and equity security holder, Respondent qualifies as a “party in interest” under the Bankruptcy Code and has the right to file this response and be heard on Debtor’s Motion.

IV. LEGAL STANDARD

23. The merits of a proposed compromise should be judged under the criteria set forth in Protective Comm. for Indep. Stockholders of TMT Trailer Ferry, Inc. v. Anderson, 390 U.S. 414 (1968). TMT Trailer requires that a compromise must be “fair and equitable.” TMT Trailer, 390 U.S. at 424; In re AWECO, Inc., 725 F.2d 293, 298 (5th Cir. 1984). The terms “fair and equitable,” commonly referred to as the “absolute priority rule,” mean that (i) senior interests are entitled to full priority over junior interests; and (ii) the compromise is reasonable in relation to the likely rewards of litigation. In re Cajun Electric Power Coop., 119 F.3d 349, 355 (5th Cir. 1997); In re Jackson Brewing Co., 624 F.2d 599, 602 (5th Cir. 1980).

24. In determining whether a proposed compromise is fair and equitable, a Court should consider the following factors:

- (i) the probabilities of ultimate success should the claim be litigated;
- (ii) the complexity, expense, and likely duration of litigating the claim;
- (iii) the difficulties of collecting a judgment rendered from such litigation; and,
- (iv) all other factors relevant to a full and fair assessment of the wisdom of the compromise.

TMT Trailer, 390 U.S. at 424.

25. In considering whether to approve a proposed compromise, the bankruptcy judge “may not simply accept the trustee’s word that the settlement is reasonable, nor may he [or she] merely ‘rubber stamp’ the trustee’s proposal.” In re Am. Res. Corp., 841 F.2d 159, 162 (7th Cir. 1987). “[T]he bankruptcy judge must apprise himself of all facts necessary to evaluate the settlement and make an informed and independent judgment about the settlement.” See TMT Trailer, 390 U.S. at 424, 434.

26. While the trustee’s business judgment is entitled to a certain deference, “business judgment is not alone determinative of the issue of court approval.” See In re Endoscopy Ctr. of S. Nev., LLC, 451 B.R. 527, 536 (Bankr. D. Nev. 2011). Further, the business judgment rule does not provide a debtor with “unfettered freedom” to do as it wishes. See In re Pilgrim’s Pride Corp., 403 B.R. 413, 426 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2009) (“[A]s a fiduciary holding its estate in trust and responsible to the court, a debtor in possession must administer its case and conduct its business in a fashion amenable to the scrutiny to be expected from creditor and court oversight.”). The Court must conduct an “intelligent, objective and educated evaluation”⁵ of the proposed settlement “to ensure that the settlement is fair, equitable, and in the best interest of the estate and creditors.” See In re Mirant Corp., 348 B.R. 725, 739 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2006) (quoting Conn. Gen. Life Ins. Co. v. Foster Mortgage Corp. (In re Foster Mortgage Corp.), 68 F.3d 914, 917 (5th Cir. 1995)).

V. ANALYSIS OF PROPOSED COMPROMISE

27. It is Respondent’s belief that, in order for the Court to be fully informed regarding the settlement proposed by the Motion, it is critical that the facts be explored through the adversarial process. To that end, Respondent intends to assist the Court by presenting evidence that addresses the advisability of granting or denying the Motion and that, in turn, addresses the merits of the Acis Claim and the merits of the objections to it.

28. First, the Motion appears to rely heavily on the fact that the settlement will resolve complex litigation that has been pending for years. While all parties can appreciate a settlement that resolves a number of long-running disputes, Rule 9019 requires an analysis as to whether the probability of success in litigation is outweighed by the consideration achieved under the settlement. See In re Jackson Brewing Co., 624 F.2d 599, 602 (5th Cir. 1980) (The Court must “compare the terms of the compromise with the likely rewards of litigation.”). Here, the Debtor’s Motion does not appear to address this factor in any detail. If the Acis Claim is indeed based upon a “fallacious premise”⁶ as the Debtor and others have asserted in their objections, then there may be a strong chance that the Debtor ultimately succeeds on the merits of the litigation.

29. Further, while the expeditious administration of a claim is a laudable goal, that, standing alone, may not justify a proposed settlement. See In re Alfonso, No. 16-51448-RBK, 2019 Bankr. LEXIS 2816, at *11 (Bankr. W.D. Tex. Sep. 6, 2019) (“to the extent that this settlement does facilitate expeditious administration of the remaining claim, such benefits are outweighed by the large discrepancy between the potential significant recovery if the case were to proceed and the $105,000 Proposed Settlement amount”).

30. To be sure, as noted by the Debtor in the Motion, the litigation between Acis and the Debtor is complex. But the Motion does not appear to address the fact that many of the claims may be subject to summary adjudication. The Debtor Objection, for example, asserts that many of the causes of action underlying the Acis Claim (at least twenty-five separate counts) are subject to summary adjudication based on the current record before the Court. If that is true, a resolution of at least some of these issues could reduce the Acis Claim substantially. In fact, the parties themselves apparently contemplated that not only would a number of issues be promptly brought before the Court for summary adjudication,⁷ but that there would be an “expeditious trial setting” where the remaining issues would be determined by the Court.⁸ In late July, the Debtor anticipated that such trial setting could even happen before Plan confirmation.⁹ And this Court previously entered a scheduling order directing the parties to file motions for summary judgment by September 17, 2020.

⁷ See HCMLP Hearing Transcript, July 21, 2020, p. 111, lines 6-8, 10-14.

31. Even if not all claims are subject to summary disposition, because of this Court's familiarity with the litigation, an adjudication of the Acis Claim may not be needlessly lengthy. There is no question that this Court already has a unique understanding of the claims and facts underlying the litigation. For example, prior to the Debtor's bankruptcy filing, the Court prepared a lengthy report and recommendations to the District Court as to the pending motions to withdraw the reference.¹⁰ While the Debtor Objection raises new legal theories and defenses to the Acis Claim, the Court should be able to analyze those relatively promptly due to its familiarity with the parties, facts, and causes of action involved.

32. Another factor not directly addressed by the Debtor in the Motion is the expense of litigating the claim. The amount to be paid on account of the Acis Claim—as much as approximately $27 million—is likely exponentially higher than the cost to litigate the claim. If indeed many of the claims can be adjudicated through the summary judgment process, the initial cost to trim down the basis of the Acis Claim should not be substantial relative to the potential benefit.

33. Based on the foregoing issues, Respondent believes it is appropriate for the Court to independently address the merits of the proposed settlement.

CONCLUSION

Respondent respectfully requests that the Court independently assess the merits of the proposed settlement and provide him such other and further relief to which he may be justly entitled.

Dated: October 5, 2020

SECOND AMENDED COMPLAINT (INCLUDING CLAIM OBJECTIONS AND OBJECTIONS TO ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSE CLAIM)

Acis Capital Management, L.P. ("Acis LP") and Acis Capital Management GP, LLC ("Acis GP" together with Acis LP, the "Reorganized Debtors" or "Acis")¹ the reorganized debtors in the above-styled and jointly administered bankruptcy cases (the "Bankruptcy Cases"), and Plaintiffs in the in the above-styled adversary proceeding (the "Adversary Proceeding"), file this Second Amended Complaint (Including Claim Objections and Objections to Administrative Expense Claim) (this "Second Amended Complaint"), objections to the proofs of claims filed by Highland Capital Management, L.P. ("Highland Capital"), and objections to the administrative expense claim filed by Highland Capital, and respectfully state as follows:²

ANSWER AND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

1. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(a), incorporated by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 7041, all claims asserted in the Original Complaint and Request for Preliminary Injunction of Highland CLO Funding, Ltd. and Highland Capital Management Against Chapter 11 Trustee of Acis Capital Management, L.P. and Acis Capital Management GP, LLC [Docket No. 1] (the "Original Complaint") by Highland Capital and Highland CLO Funding, Ltd. ("Highland Funding") have been dismissed without prejudice. See Adv. No. 18-03078, Docket No. 79. Accordingly, such dismissal of Highland Capital's and Highland Funding's claims obviates the Trustee's, now Acis's, answer and affirmative defenses thereto; however, Acis reserves all rights with respect to answering or asserting affirmative defenses to any future-filed claims by any parties in this Adversary Proceeding.

¹ On February 15, 2019, the date upon which the Plan (defined below) became effective, Acis was substituted for Robin Phelan, the Chapter 11 Trustee, in the above-referenced consolidated adversary cases. See Case No. 18-30264, Docket Nos. 829, 830, & 863. Prior to the date upon which the Plan (defined below) became effective, Acis may be referred to as the "Debtors."

² As more fully described below in the Procedural Background, this Second Amended Complaint consolidates: (i) claims, counterclaims, third-party claims, and objections to Highland Capital's proofs of claim brought by the Chapter 11 Trustee, now Acis, in this Adversary No. 18-03078; (ii) claims brought by the Chapter 11 Trustee, now Acis, in Adversary No. 18-03212, which has been consolidated under this Adversary Proceeding; and (iii) objections of the Chapter 11 Trustee, now Acis, against Highland Capital's request for an administrative expense claim, which was converted to Adversary No. 19-03103 and was ordered consolidated under this Adversary Proceeding.

2. Additionally, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(a)(2), such dismissal of Highland Capital's and Highland Funding's claims is without prejudice to any counterclaims asserted by the Trustee, now Acis, in the Defendant's Answer, Affirmative Defenses, Counterclaims, and Third Party Claims [Adv. No. 18-03078, Docket No. 23] (the "Original Answer"), as may be amended, and such counterclaims remain pending for independent adjudication.

CLAIMS AND COUNTERCLAIMS

3. Acis hereby asserts the following claims for affirmative recovery against Highland Capital, Highland Funding, Highland HCF Advisor, Ltd. ("Highland Advisor"), Highland CLO Management Ltd. ("Highland Management"), and Highland CLO Holdings, Ltd. ("Highland Holdings"). Additionally, Acis asserts the following claims and counterclaims against Highland Capital and such claims and counterclaims shall also constitute recoupment or offset to any claim Highland Capital has against Acis.

6. This Adversary Proceeding constitutes a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2). Acis hereby consents to the Court's entry of a final judgment resolving this Adversary Proceeding. This Adversary Proceeding includes an objection to Highland Capital's proofs of claim pursuant to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3007(b), and the claims and counterclaims asserted herein shall constitute recoupment and/or offset to such proofs of claim, to the extent such claims are otherwise allowed. 14. Highland Advisor's principal place of business is 300 Crescent Court, Suite 700, Dallas, Texas 75201, Highland Capital's office and headquarters. See Exhibit T at 88. Highland Advisor is ultimately, directly or indirectly, owned or controlled by James Dondero

³ Any capitalized term not otherwise defined in this Jurisdictional Background shall have the meaning ascribed to it later in this Second Amended Complaint.

("Dondero") and Mark Okada ("Okada"), who ultimately, directly or indirectly, own or control Highland Capital. See id. at 89 and Opinion at 8.

15. Upon information and belief, the principals of Highland Capital, Dondero and Okada, serve as the president and executive vice president, respectively, of Highland Advisor. See Opinion at 8 and Exhibit T at 89. 17. Attached hereto as Exhibit Q is the December 13, 2018 (A.M.) hearing transcript from In re Acis Capital Management, L.P., et al. At the December 13, 2018 hearing, Hunter Covitz, a Highland Capital employee, testified: "As I understand HCF Advisor is a relying advisor of Highland." See Exhibit Q at 78, ll. 15-16. Hunter Covitz further testified, "[b]ut HCF Advisor is Highland. . . . That's the distinction between Highland HCF Advisor could be well capitalized, the substance of Highland Capital, its office space, employees, balance sheet, back office, legal, what [have] you, would all be incorporated with HCF Advisor, where Acis with no employees is not looked at that way." Id. at 61, ll. 5 & 11-15. Finally, Hunter Covitz testified, "there's really no differentiation between HCF Advisor and Highland." Id. at 62, ll. 21-23.

18. Attached hereto as Exhibit R are meeting minutes of Acis Loan Funding, Ltd. and Highland Funding, which contain a Highland Funding Bates label and were produced in connection with the Bankruptcy Cases or related adversary case. These meeting minutes reflect that various Highland Capital employees, including Sevilla, Hunter Covitz, Tim Cournoyer, David Wilmore, Issace Leventon, and Thomas Surgent appeared at Highland Funding's board meeting on behalf of Highland Advisor. The parties that conduct the day-to-day operations of Highland Advisor are Highland Capital employees that office in Dallas, Texas.

19. Attached hereto as Exhibit S is Highland Capital's 2017 Form ADV, which states that Highland Advisor is another business name of Highland Capital.

20. Attached hereto as Exhibit T is Highland Capital's 2019 Form ADV, which states that Highland Advisor's principal place of business is 300 Crescent Court, Suite 700, Dallas, Texas 75201—Highland Capital's office and headquarters. Highland Capital's 2019 Form ADV also states that Highland Capital is a shareholder of Highland Advisor and that Highland Advisor is another business name of Highland Capital.

21. The Confirmation Opinion states that "Dondero, in addition to being the chief executive of Highland and the Debtor-Acis, also became the president of the newly formed Highland [Advisor]." Confirmation Opinion at 8. Additionally, the Confirmation Opinion states that "Highland [Advisor] (i.e., the Cayman Island entity that was recently formed to essentially replace the Debtor-Acis under the Equity/ALF PMA)." Confirmation Opinion at 19. Additionally, the Confirmation Opinion states that Highland Advisor is an affiliate of Highland Capital. Confirmation Opinion at 21.

B. Highland Management Jurisdictional Background

22. Upon information and belief, on or about October 27, 2017 (7 days after the Arbitration Award), Highland Management was created at the direction of Sevilla, a Highland lawyer and employee, using the same structure as Highland Advisor. Upon information and belief, Highland Management's mailing address is 300 Crescent Court, Suite 700, Dallas, Texas 75201, Highland's Dallas office and headquarters.

23. Upon information and belief, Highland Management is ultimately, directly or indirectly, owned or controlled by Dondero and Okada, who ultimately, directly or indirectly, own or control Highland Capital.

24. Additionally, in connection with the hearing on the involuntary petitions, Dondero testified at great length regarding the Note Transfer to Highland Management on behalf of Highland Management.⁴ Dondero testified upon direct examination by Acis's (at the time, a putative debtor) counsel about the Note Transfer, stating:

Q: Now, if there came a time with litigation costs and other expenses where Acis was unable to pay its expenses when they became due, what was your intent in signing this as to whether or not HCLOM [Highland Management] would honor this and make the payment?

A: We would -- we would honor it and -- and pay as appropriate.

See Exhibit U (March 23, 2018 Hr'g Tr., In re Acis Capital Management, L.P., et al. 146:7-12) (emphasis added). When Dondero says "we," Acis contends that he is speaking on behalf of Highland Capital and Highland Management. Additionally, Dondero testified that the Note Transfer was an "economic wash" for him as "it doesn't matter which pocket it goes into." Id. at 152:20-24.

25. The Opinion states that, "Highland Management was registered in the Cayman Islands on October 27, 2017, roughly a week before the Note Transfer... it appears Highland Management was an entity that was created specifically to hold the Note and eventually take possession of the CLO PMAs in an international forum that would be difficult for Mr. Terry to reach." Opinion at 20-21, n. 37 (emphasis added).

26. Upon information and belief, Dondero is the managing or general agent of Highland Management.

27. The Confirmation Opinion states that Highland Management is "an entity registered in the Cayman Islands on October 27, 2017—seven days after Mr. Terry's Arbitration Award)." Confirmation Opinion at 19. The Confirmation Opinion further states that "it appears Highland Management was an entity that was created specifically to hold the Note and eventually take possession of the CLO PMAs in an international forum that would be difficult for Mr. Terry to reach." Opinion at 20-21, n.37. Finally, the Confirmation Opinion states that "Highland Management (the Highland-created entity that entered into a portfolio management agreement with a new Acis-CLO that was established in 2017)." Confirmation Opinion at 24.

C. Highland Holdings Jurisdictional Background

28. The Confirmation Opinion states that Highland Holdings is "(yet another entity incorporated in the Cayman Island on October 27, 2017)." Confirmation Opinion at 19.

29. Attached hereto as Exhibit T is Highland Capital's 2019 Form ADV, which states that Highland Holding's principal place of business is 300 Crescent Court, Suite 700, Dallas, Texas 75201, Highland Capital's office and headquarters. Exhibit T at 103. Highland Capital's 2019 Form ADV also states that Highland Holdings is another business name of Highland Capital. Highland Capital's 2019 Form ADV further states Highland Capital, Dondero, and other Highland affiliates are "control persons" of Highland Holdings.

IV. PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

30. On January 30, 2018 (the "Petition Date"), Joshua N. Terry ("Terry"), as petitioning creditor, filed involuntary petitions under section 303 of the Bankruptcy Code against both Acis LP and Acis GP, thereby initiating the Bankruptcy Cases. See Case No. 18-30264, Docket No. 1 & Case No. 18-30265, Docket No. 1.

31. On April 13, 2018, this Court entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law in Support of Orders for Relief Issued After Trial on Involuntary Bankruptcy Petition [Case No. 18-30264, Docket No. 118 & Case No. 18-30265, Docket No. 113] (the "Opinion") and Order for Relief in an Involuntary Case in each of the Bankruptcy Cases [Case No. 18-30264, Docket No. 119 & Case No. 18-30265, Docket No. 114] (the "Orders for Relief"). The Opinion is hereby incorporated by reference as if fully set forth herein.

32. On May 14, 2018, Robin Phelan (the "Trustee") was appointed chapter 11 trustee of the Debtors' bankruptcy estates in the Bankruptcy Cases. See Case No. 18-30264, Docket No. 213.

33. On May 30, 2018, Highland Capital and Highland Funding filed their Original Complaint, initiating this Adversary Proceeding, in which Highland Capital and Highland Funding asserted various claims for breach of contract, declaratory relief, and injunctive relief against the Trustee. See Adv. No. 18-03078, Docket No. 1.

34. On June 21, 2018, the Trustee filed his Verified Original Complaint and Application for Temporary Restraining Order and Preliminary Injunction [Adv. No. 18-03212, Docket No. 1] ("Complaint and Application for TRO"), initiating Adversary No. 18-03212, in which the Trustee sought, inter alia, injunctive relief to prevent Highland Capital, Highland Funding, and their affiliates from taking any action to effectuate an optional redemption (which would result in liquidation of the Acis CLOs (defined below)), as well as relief pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(k) for willful violations of the automatic stay for actions taken by Highland Capital and its affiliates, including Highland Funding, in attempting to effectuate an optional redemption.⁵ Highland Capital and Highland Funding subsequently filed their answers to the Trustee's Complaint and Application for TRO. See Adv. No. 18-03212, Docket Nos. 32 & 33.

35. On July 2, 2018, the Trustee filed his Original Answer in this Adversary Proceeding, in which the Trustee asserted certain counterclaims and third-party claims against Highland Capital, Highland Funding, Highland Advisor, and Highland Management (collectively and along with Highland Holdings, the "Highlands") in connection with the Highlands' scheme, described more fully below, to fraudulently transfer Acis LP's assets to the Highlands and otherwise appropriate the business of Acis LP. See Adv. No. 18-03078, Docket No. 23.

36. On July 23, 2018, Highland Capital filed Highland Capital Management, L.P.'s Motion to Dismiss Counterclaims or, Alternatively, for a More Definite Statement [Adv. No. 18-03078, Docket No. 42] ("Highland's Motion to Dismiss"), in which Highland Capital sought, inter alia, to dismiss the Trustee's counterclaims pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b)(6).

37. Also on July 23, 2018, Highland Funding filed Highland CLO Funding Ltd.'s Motion to Dismiss [Adv. No. 18-03078, Docket No. 43] ("Highland Funding's Motion to Dismiss") and Highland CLO Funding Ltd.'s Brief in Support of its Motion to Dismiss [Adv. No. 18-03078, Docket No. 44], in which Highland Funding sought, inter alia, to dismiss the Trustee's counterclaims pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 12(b)(2) and 12(b)(6).

38. On August 1, 2018, Highland Capital filed Proof of Claim No. 27 in the claims register for Case No. 18-30264 (the "Highland Acis LP Claim"), in the amount of $4,672,140.38, with the basis of the claim listed as "Sub-Advisory Services and Shared Services."

⁵ Certain portions of the Complaint and Application for TRO were subsequently dismissed, ultimately leaving only: Count 1 for Temporary Restraining Order and Preliminary Injunction (which injunctive relief expired with confirmation of the Plan (defined below)); and Count 2 for Willful Violation of the Automatic Stay against Highland Capital and Highland Funding. See Adv. No. 18-03212, Docket Nos. 49 & 56.

39. Also on August 1, 2018, Highland Capital filed Proof of Claim No. 13 in the claims register for Case No. 18-30265 (the "Highland Acis GP Claim," together with the Highland Acis LP Claim, the "Highland Capital Claims"), in the amount of $4,672,140.38, with the basis of the claim listed as "Sub-Advisory Services and Shared Services." The Highland Acis GP Claim is identical to the Highland Acis LP Claim.

40. On August 10, 2018, Highland Capital and Highland Funding filed Highland Capital Management, L.P. and Highland CLO Funding Ltd.'s Motion for Leave to Amend Adversary Complaint and Brief in Support [Docket No. 51] (the "Motion to Amend"), in which Highland Capital and Highland Funding sought to amend their Original Complaint to remove all claims against the Trustee, except for one claim by Highland Funding for a declaratory judgment that the Trustee cannot "sell or transfer Highland Funding's property without Highland Funding's consent."

41. On October 9, 2018, the Court heard Highland Capital's Motion to Dismiss, Highland Funding's Motion to Dismiss, and the Motion to Amend. Considering that the Trustee expressed his intent to amend his Original Answer, the parties agreed that all arguments made by Highland Capital and Highland Funding to dismiss the Trustee's counterclaims pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6) were moot. With respect to Highland Funding's argument to dismiss for lack of personal jurisdiction under Rule 12(b)(2), the Court ruled that Highland Funding has minimum contacts with the United States, and that the Court, has personal jurisdiction over Highland Funding in this Adversary Proceeding, and exercising personal jurisdiction over Highland Funding would not violate any traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice. Further, the Court ruled that, even if sufficient minimum contacts did not exist, Highland Funding has waived personal jurisdiction in this Adversary Proceeding.

42. With respect to the Motion to Amend, due to the change in circumstances in the Bankruptcy Cases, Highland Capital and Highland Funding agreed to voluntarily dismiss all claims asserted in the Original Complaint, without prejudice.

43. On November 13, 2018, the Trustee filed his Defendant's Amended Answer, Counterclaims (Including Claim Objections) and Third-Party Claims [Adv. No. 18-03078, Docket No. 84] (the "Amended Counterclaims") in this Adversary Proceeding, in which the Trustee asserted numerous counterclaims and third-party claims against Highland Capital and various of its affiliates in connection with, inter alia, their scheme to fraudulently transfer Acis LP's assets to the Highlands and otherwise appropriate the business of Acis LP. Additionally, with the Amended Counterclaims, the Trustee included his objections to the Highland Claims pursuant to section 502(b)(1), (b)(4), and (d) of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Objections to Claim"), and further asserted that, to the extent allowed, the Highland Claims should be equitably subordinated pursuant to section 510(c) of the Bankruptcy Code.

44. On December 11, 2018, Highland Capital filed Highland Capital Management, L.P.'s Application for Administrative Expense Claim Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 503(b) [Case No. 18-30264, Docket No. 772] (the "Application") for approval of an administrative expense claim pursuant to section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, in the amount of $3,554,224.29 (the "Administrative Claim"), for purportedly providing postpetition services to the Debtors in connection with the Sub Agreements (defined below) and the Universal/BVK Agreement (defined below), which Highland Capital contends were actual, necessary costs and expenses of preserving the estate.

45. On January 10, 2019, the Trustee timely filed his Objection to Highland Capital Management, L.P.'s Application for Administrative Expense Claim Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 503(b) [Case No. 18-30264, Docket No. 772].

46. On January 31, 2019, this Court entered its Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Order Granting Final Approval of Disclosure Statement and Confirming the Third Amended Joint Plan for Acis Capital Management, L.P. and Acis Capital Management GP, LLC, as Modified (the "Confirmation Order") [Case No. 18-30264, Docket Nos. 829 & 830], which approves the Third Amended Joint Plan for Acis Capital Management, L.P. and Acis Capital Management GP, LLC (the "Plan") and is supplemented by the Court's Bench Ruling and Memorandum of Law in Support of: (A) Final Approval of Disclosure Statement; and (B) Confirmation of Chapter 11 Trustee's Third Amended Joint Plan (the "Confirmation Opinion") [Case No. 18-30264, Docket No. 827]. The Confirmation Opinion is hereby incorporated by reference as if fully set forth herein.

47. On February 15, 2019 (the "Effective Date"), the Trustee filed the Notice of February 15, 2019 Effective Date for the Third Amended Joint Plan for Acis Capital Management, LP and Acis Capital Management GP, LLC [Case No. 18-30264, Docket No. 863]. On the Effective Date, Acis (as the Reorganized Debtors) became substituted for the Trustee in the above-referenced consolidated adversary cases pursuant to the Plan, which provides:

Upon the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtor (a) shall automatically be substituted in place of the Chapter 11 Trustee as the party representing the Estate in respect of any pending lawsuit, motion or other pleading pending before the Bankruptcy Court or any other tribunal, and (b) is authorized to file a notice on the docket of each adversary proceeding or the Chapter 11 Cases regarding such substitution. The Reorganized Debtor shall have exclusive standing and authority to prosecute, settle or compromise Estate Claims for the benefit of the Estate in the manner set forth in this Plan.

Plan § 7.03.

48. On March 11, 2019, the Court entered its Order Consolidating Adversary Case Nos. 18-03078 & 18-03212 [Adv. No. 18-03078, Docket No. 127; Adv. No. 18-03212, Docket No. 63], under which the Court ordered that Adversary Nos. 18-03078 and 18-03212 are consolidated under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 42(a), incorporated by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 7042. The Court further directed the Clerk to caption the case as Robin Phelan, Chapter 11 Trustee v. Highland Capital Management, L.P., et al., resulting in the designation of the Trustee, now Acis, as the Plaintiff(s) and Highland Capital and its affiliates as Defendants in this Adversary Proceeding.

49. On May 1, 2019, the Court entered its Order Addressing DE #825 and Directing that: (A) Highland Capital Management, L.P.'s Administrative Expense Request [DE #722] Be Converted from a Contested Matter to Adversary Proceeding; and (B) Counts 27-31 Be Transferred in Adversary Proceeding No. 18-03078 into a New Adversary Proceeding [Case No. 18-30264, Docket No. 919], whereby the Court converted Highland Capital's Application into a new adversary proceeding, and thereby initiating Adversary No. 19-03103.

50. On June 10, 2019, the Court held a status conference and directed: (i) that Adversary No. 19-03103 should be consolidated under this Adversary No. 18-03078; and (ii) that Acis will file an amended complaint, consolidating all claims, counterclaims, third-party claims against Highland Capital and its affiliates, as well as any objections to the Highland Capital Claims and Administrative Claim, by June 20, 2019.

V. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

A. The Debtors' Business

51. Dondero, Okada, and Terry formed Acis LP in 2011 as a registered investment advisor to raise money from third-party investors to invest in certain collateralized loan obligation funds (the "CLOs").⁶ The CLOs are governed by certain indentures (the

⁶ The Acis CLOs include: (i) Acis CLO 2013-1 Ltd. ("CLO-1"), (ii) Acis CLO 2014-3 Ltd. ("CLO-3"), (iii) Acis CLO 2014-4 Ltd. ("CLO-4"), (iv) Acis CLO 2014-5 Ltd. ("CLO-5"), and (v) Acis CLO 2015-6 Ltd. ("CLO-6").

"Indentures").⁷ Acis LP is the portfolio manager for the CLOs and generates revenue primarily through the management of the CLOs via certain portfolio management agreements ("PMAs").⁸ See Opinion ¶¶ 22-28. While Dondero made and approved the higher-level financial strategies and decisions of Acis, Terry was responsible for the day-to-day management of Acis.

52. Acis LP's business as portfolio manager for the CLOs has been incredibly successful. Between 2011 and 2017, Acis LP distributed profits of $11,037,445.00 to Dondero, $4,598,935.00 to Terry, and $2,759,361.00 to Okada, its partners. Further, on August 31, 2017, right before Highland Capital began its campaign to denude Acis LP and take over its business, Acis LP also boasted millions of dollars in investment assets and total shareholder equity of roughly $3.4 million. Without question, Acis LP's business as portfolio manager for the CLOs and others has been very valuable and lucrative.

53. As is common with the numerous Highland Capital affiliates, Acis LP contracted out certain of its administrative functions and portfolio management responsibilities to Highland Capital pursuant to that certain Sub-Advisory Agreement, originally dated January 1, 2011 (as amended, the "Sub-Advisory Agreement") and that certain Shared Services Agreement, originally dated January 1, 2011 (as amended, the "Shared Services Agreement," and together with the "Sub Agreements"). The Sub-Advisory Agreement and Shared Services Agreement have each been amended multiple times.

⁷ The Indentures include: (i) that certain Indenture, dated as of March 18, 2013, issued by CLO-1, as issuer, Acis CLO 2013-1 LLC, as co-issuer, and U.S. Bank, as trustee (the "CLO-1 Indenture"); (ii) that certain Indenture, dated as of February 25, 2014, issued by CLO-3, as issuer, Acis CLO 2014-3 LLC, as co-issuer, and U.S. Bank, as trustee (the "CLO-3 Indenture"); (iii) that certain Indenture, dated as of June 5, 2014, issued by CLO-4, as issuer, Acis CLO 2014-4 LLC, as co-issuer, and U.S. Bank, as trustee (the "CLO-4 Indenture"); (iv) that certain Indenture, dated as of November 18, 2014, issued by CLO-5, as issuer, Acis CLO 2014-5 LLC, as co-issuer, and U.S. Bank, as trustee (the "CLO-5 Indenture"); and (v) that certain Indenture, dated as of April 16, 2015, issued by CLO-6, as issuer, Acis CLO 2015-6 LLC, as co-issuer and U.S. Bank, as trustee (the "CLO-6 Indenture").

⁸ The PMAs include: (i) that certain Portfolio Management Agreement by and between Acis LP and CLO-1, dated March 18, 2013 (the "CLO-1 PMA"); (ii) that certain Portfolio Management Agreement by and between Acis LP and CLO-3, dated February 25, 2014 (the "CLO-3 PMA"); (iii) that certain Portfolio Management Agreement by and between Acis LP and CLO-4, dated June 5, 2014 (the "CLO-4 PMA"); (iv) that certain Portfolio Management Agreement by and between Acis LP and CLO-5, dated November 18, 2014 (the "CLO-5 PMA"); and (v) that certain Portfolio Management Agreement by and between Acis LP and CLO-6, dated April 16, 2015 (the "CLO-6 PMA").

54. As the Court explained in its Opinion:

Acis LP and Acis GP/LLC have never had any employees. Rather, all employees that work for any of the Highland family of companies (including Mr. Terry) have, almost without exception, been employees of Highland itself. Highland has approximately 150 employees in the United States. Highland provides employees to entities in the organizational structure, such as Acis LP and Acis GP/LLC, through both the mechanism of: (a) a Shared Services Agreement (herein so called), which provides "back office" personnel—such as human resources, accounting, legal and information technology to the Highland family of companies; and (b) a Sub-Advisory Agreement (herein so called), which provides "front office" personnel to entities—such as the managers of investments like Mr. Terry. The evidence indicated that this is typical in the CLO industry to have such agreements.

Opinion at 14 (footnotes omitted).

55. Prior to entry of the Orders for Relief, Dondero directed, either himself or through Highland Capital employees, all actions taken by Acis. See Opinion ¶ 30.

Mr. Dondero [the Chief Executive of Highland] testified that he has decision making authority for the Alleged Debtors but usually delegates that authority to Highland's in-house lawyers, Scott Ellington (General Counsel, Chief Legal Officer, and Partner of Highland) and Isaac Leventon (Assistant General Counsel of Highland) . . . Mr. Leventon is designated to be the representative for the Alleged Debtors (and testified as a Rule 30(b)(6) witness during pre-trial discovery)—he explained that this representative-authority derives from the Shared Services Agreement. Mr. Leventon testified that he takes his instructions generally through his direct supervisor, Mr. Ellington.

56. Highland Funding, formerly known as Acis Loan Funding, Ltd. ("ALF"),⁹ holds the subordinated notes issued by the CLOs and receives the "very last cash flow from the CLOs." Opinion at pp. 12-13. "It, in certain ways, controls the CLO vehicle . . . [and] was essentially the equity owner in the CLO special purpose entities." Id. Until the ALF PMA Transfer in the Fall of

⁹ On October 30, 2017, Acis Loan Funding, Ltd. changed its name to Highland CLO Funding, Ltd. The defined term "ALF" used herein denotes Highland CLO Funding, Ltd. f/k/a Acis Loan Funding, Ltd. before October 30, 2017.

2017 (described below), Acis LP had complete control of Highland Funding and its valuable subordinated note rights to further enhance its successful portfolio management business.

B. Section 3.10(a) of the Limited Partnership Agreement

57. In order to form Acis LP, Acis GP, the general partner, and limited partners The Dugaboy Investment Trust¹⁰ (the "Trust"), Okada, and Terry entered into that certain Amended and Restated Agreement of Limited Partnership of Acis Capital Management, L.P. (the "LPA"), dated to be effective as of January 21, 2011.¹¹ The LPA is attached hereto as Exhibit A. The LPA is governed by Delaware Law. LPA § 6.11. At all relevant times herein, the officers of Acis GP are Dondero, as President, and Frank Waterhouse ("Waterhouse")¹², as Treasurer. Further, at least between October 14, 2015, and December 19, 2017, Dondero was the sole member of Acis GP. See Case No. 18-30265, Docket No. 152.

58. Pursuant to the Sub Agreements, Highland Capital received compensation for providing services to Acis LP, but amounts of compensation were subject to certain terms of the LPA. Section 3.10 of the LPA directs compensation and reimbursement of the General Partner and contains subpart (a), which limits compensation and reimbursement of expenses payable to the General Partner and any Affiliate of the General Partner without proper consent:

Compensation. The General Partner and any Affiliate of the General Partner shall receive no compensation from the Partnership for services rendered pursuant to this Agreement or any other agreements unless approved by a Majority Interest; provided, however, that the aggregate annual expenses of the Partnership, inclusive of such compensation, may not exceed 20% of Revenues without the consent of all of the members of the Founding Partner Group.

LPA § 3.10(a) (emphasis added).

¹⁰ Dondero was the trustee and owned 100% of the Trust, and he was President of Acis GP.

¹¹ The partnership interests of Acis LP were as follows: Acis GP owned .1%; the Trust owned 59.9%; Okada owned 15%; and Terry owned 25%.

¹² Waterhouse is a partner in Highland Capital and serves as Highland Capital's Chief Financial Officer.

59. An Affiliate under the LPA is defined as:

[A]ny [entity] that directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with the [entity] in question. As used in this definition, the term "control" means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of [an entity], whether through ownership of voting Securities, by contract, or otherwise.

Id. § 2.01.

60. Highland Capital was at all times relevant to this Second Amended Complaint, an Affiliate of Acis GP and Acis LP. Further, Highland Capital was at all times relevant to this Second Amended Complaint, an insider of Acis GP and Acis LP.

C. State Court Litigation and Arbitration

61. In June 2016, Highland Capital advised Terry that he had been terminated.

62. In September 2016, Highland Capital sued Terry in the 162nd Judicial District Court of Dallas County, Texas (the "State Court") under a variety of legal theories and causes of action, including breach of fiduciary duty/self-dealing, disparagement, and breach of contract. Terry asserted his own claims against Highland Capital, as well as claims against the Debtors, Dondero, and others, and demanded arbitration. Opinion ¶ 8.

63. On September 28, 2016, the State Court stayed the litigation and ordered the parties to arbitrate. Id. The parties then participated in a ten-day arbitration proceeding before JAMS, styled as Terry v. Highland, JAMS Arbitration No. 1310022713.

D. The Arbitration Award

64. On October 20, 2017, Terry obtained an arbitration award (the "Arbitration Award") jointly and severally against the Debtors in the amount of $7,949,749.15, plus post-award interest at the legal rate. The Arbitration Award was based on theories of breach of contract and breach of fiduciary duties. The Arbitration Award is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

65. Under the Arbitration Award, the arbitration panel found that Terry's termination by Dondero/Highland Capital was without cause and that, among other things, Acis breached the LPA and breached fiduciary duties owed to Terry as Acis's limited partner. Importantly, the arbitration panel found that Highland Capital had been paid more than 20% of Revenues (as such term is understood under the LPA), without Terry's consent, in violation of Section 3.10(a) of the LPA:

It is undisputed that ACIS habitually paid more than 20% of Revenues to Highland for providing ACIS with overhead and administration. Respondents' evidence and arguments that Terry waived or consented to ACIS's payment of excess expenses is not persuasive. At most, Terry accepted his ACIS distributions without regard to the expenses paid to Highland. This is not consent contemplated by the ACIS LPA.

The evidence establishes that Terry did not consent to ACIS payments of expenses in excess of 20% of Revenue and Terry has not waived his right to claim damages directly resulting from ACIS's and ACIS GP's breach of contract and breach of fiduciary duty. Clearly, ACIS and ACIS GP ignored Terry's contractual rights and ACIS GP as a general partner has a fiduciary duty not to benefit itself or another at the expense of its limited partner, as they ignore and breach the terms of the partnership agreement and diminish Terry's distributions.

Arbitration Award at pp. 15-16.

66. Additionally, in the analysis of Terry's damages, the arbitration panel stated:

The evidence establishes that ACIS and ACIS GP paid excess expenses to Highland during the years of 2013, 2014, 2015 and January through May 2016. These expenses paid exceeded the 20% of Revenues cap stated in Section 3.10(a) of the ACIS LPA. The payment of these excess expenses reduced Terry's ACIS partnership distributions during this period. Had excess expenses not been paid and only the contractually capped expenses had been paid, Terry would have received additional ACIS profits distributions of $1,755,481.00 for his 25% partnership interest in ACIS.

Arbitration Award at 20.

67. Finally, in its findings and conclusions, the arbitration panel stated: "ACIS [LP] and ACIS GP paid Highland Capital expenses in excess of the contractual limit imposed by Section 3.10(a) of the ACIS LPA." Arbitration Award at 22, ¶ 7.

68. On December 18, 2017, the 44th Judicial District Court of Dallas County, Texas, entered a final judgment confirming the Arbitration Award. Opinion ¶ 10. The judgment was abstracted in the Official Public Records of Dallas County, Texas, as Instrument No. 201800008611, and writs of garnishment were issued and served pursuant to the judgment.

69. Pursuant to the Arbitration Award, Highland Capital wrongly received at least $7,021,924.00 (collectively, the "Expense Overpayments") in excess of the clear cap under Section 3.10(a) of the LPA.¹³ On information and belief, Highland Capital wrongfully received other overpayments of expenses for many years in excess of the express limitations contained in the LPA. The Expense Overpayments for which the Plaintiffs seek relief herein include all overpayments by Acis LP to Highland Capital in violation of the expense cap pursuant to the LPA whether or not addressed in the Arbitration Award. The Plaintiffs seek a declaratory judgment that such Expense Overpayments to Highland Capital and any agreements supporting such overpayments were ultra vires and, thus, void or voidable. The Plaintiffs also seek to recover from Highland Capital all such Expense Overpayments, which rightfully belong to Acis LP, as set forth below.

E. Modifications to the Sub-Advisory Agreement and Shared Services Agreement

70. The Sub-Advisory Agreement has been amended from time to time. The first iteration the Sub-Advisory Agreement by and between Acis LP and Highland Capital dated January 1, 2011 (the "Original Sub-Advisory Agreement") provided that Acis LP was to pay Highland Capital certain amounts for assisting Acis LP with the advisory services required by the PMAs. Under the Original Sub-Advisory Agreement, Acis LP paid Highland Capital 5 bps of the management fees received by Acis LP pursuant to the various PMAs for the sub-advisory services provided to Acis LP by Highland Capital.

71. On July 29, 2016, the Sub-Advisory Agreement was modified to increase the sub-advisory fee from 5 basis points to 20 basis points (the "Second Amended Sub-Advisory Agreement"). The effective date of the Second Amended Sub-Advisory Agreement was also back-dated to January 1, 2016. The fourfold increase in the sub-advisory fees via the Second Amended Sub-Advisory Agreement siphons off the funds of Acis LP and effectively gifts the additional amounts to Highland Capital. Highland Capital was already contractually obligated to provide the sub-advisory services for the lower 5 basis points fee and no legitimate justification for this fourfold increase was ever presented. Notably, Terry was unjustifiably terminated from Acis in June 2016, roughly one month before Acis and Highland Capital amended the Sub-Advisory Agreement to increase the fee paid fourfold. Further, Dondero consented to the increased sub-advisory fee on behalf of both Acis LP and Highland Capital. Dondero signed the Second Amended Sub-Advisory Agreement as president of Highland Capital's general partner, Strand Advisors, Inc., and as president of Acis GP, the general partner of Acis LP.¹⁴

72. The Shared Services Agreement has also been amended from time to time. The first iteration of the shared services agreement, the Shared Services Agreement by and between Acis LP and Highland Capital, dated January 1, 2011 (the "Original Shared Services Agreement"), provided that Acis LP was to pay Highland Capital certain amounts for providing Acis LP with the back-office services such as book keeping, compliance, human resources and marketing. Under the Original Shared Services Agreement, Acis LP reimbursed Highland Capital for amounts directly attributable to Acis LP for these services. The Shared Services

Agreement was later amended to provide compensation to Highland Capital of 15 to 20 basis points, depending on the nature of the fund for which services were provided. Thus, shortly after Terry was terminated by Acis in June 2016, Acis was paying Highland Capital a total of 35 to 40 basis points for the sub-advisory and shared services it provided.

73. Due to the retroactive nature of the amendments to the Sub-Advisory Agreement and Shared Services Agreement, Highland, at all times relevant to this proceeding, held an antecedent debt related to Acis.

74. Finally, as the Court has already found and as described in more detail below, Highland Capital, Dondero, and various of their affiliates and insiders (including Highland Funding, Highland Advisor and Highland Holdings) entered into numerous other transactions through the Fall of 2017 in an attempt to take control of Acis's assets and effectively take over Acis's business. The combination of all of these actions evidence a clear pattern of behavior by Highland Capital, Dondero, and various of their affiliates and insiders (including Highland Funding, Highland Advisor, Highland Management, and Highland Holdings)¹⁵ to hinder, delay or defraud Terry as a creditor and appropriate the going-concern business of Acis LP for the Highlands. Opinion, Section 1.C. (pp. 16-23).

F. Highland Capital's Mismanagement of the CLOs and the Trustee's Engagement of Brigade Capital Management, L.P.

75. During the pendency of these Bankruptcy Cases, while acting as sub-advisor, Highland Capital grossly mismanaged the CLOs. Following the Trustee's appointment in these Bankruptcy Cases, in disregard of its duties under the Sub-Advisory Agreement, Highland ¹⁵ The Debtors were also under Highland Capital and Dondero's control at this time and were active participants in all of Highland Capital and Dondero's schemes to denude the Debtors and make them "judgment proof" as the Debtors' own counsel, Jamie Welton, later boasted. In fact, Highland Funding has admitted that the Debtors were "no more than shell entities" in pleadings recently filed with the Court. Highland Funding's Motion to Dissolve Preliminary Injunction and Lift the Automatic Stay at page 21, Docket # 639 in Case No. 18-30264.

Capital failed to purchase a single loan for the CLOs. Yet, at the same time, in an apparent tactical move to accumulate cash in the CLOs (prior to an attempted liquidation), Highland Capital ordered that the Trustee sell numerous loans. Indeed, during this time, Highland Capital's own analysis showed that 19.7% to 32.4% of available loans were eligible for consideration for purchase in the CLOs. Although the Trustee expressed his concerns to Highland Capital about the accumulation of cash in the CLOs and Highland Capital's failure to recommend purchases of eligible collateral in the CLOs, Highland Capital failed to make any change or correction in its sub-advisor role, in abrogation of its duties.

76. In July 2018, considering Highland Capital's mismanagement of the CLOs and the exorbitant amounts attempted to be charged to Acis for its services under the Sub Agreements, the Trustee solicited potential third parties to provide shared services and sub-advisory services to the Debtors. After contacting over 40 parties, the Trustee received bids from nine parties to perform the services provided by Highland Capital under the Sub Agreements. Through this process, the Trustee was able to locate Brigade Capital Management, LP ("Brigade") and Cortland Capital Markets Services LLC ("Cortland") to provide such services to the Debtors at a rate far less than that charged by Highland Capital. As set forth more fully in the Emergency Motion to Approve Replacement Sub-Advisory and Shared Services Providers, Brigade Capital Management, LP and Cortland Capital Markets Services LLC [Case No. 18-30264, Docket No. 448] (the "Brigade Motion"), Brigade agreed to sub-advise the CLOs for 15 basis points. As further described by the Brigade Motion, Cortland agreed to provide middle and back office CLO outsourcing (previously provided by Highland Capital under the Shared Services Agreement) for $30,000 per month, $250-$350 per trade, and a one-time fee of $75,000. Cortland's fee equates to roughly 3 basis points per month.¹⁶

77. On August 1, 2018, the Court granted the Brigade Motion, and Brigade and Cortland began performing the services previously provided by Highland Capital under the Sub Agreements. See Case No. 18-30264, Docket No. 464. Notably, on the record at the hearing on July 6, 2018, Highland offered to provide the same services it was providing Acis for 17.5 basis points less than it previously charged, a tacit acknowledgement that Highland had grossly overcharged Acis. See Case No. 18-30264, Docket No. 369 at 243-44.

78. From approximately August 2, 2018 through December 11, 2018, Brigade directed the purchase of approximately $300 million in conforming loans for the CLOs. See Case No. 18-30264, Docket No. 790 at 100-01 & 134.

G. The Highlands' Fraudulent Scheme to Take Over Acis's Business and Dismantle Acis's Assets.

79. After Terry received the Arbitration Award on October 20, 2017, the Highlands immediately began work to systematically transfer the assets of Acis LP to other Highlands. This was done to denude Acis LP of value and make the Debtors "judgment proof." This was also done to ensure that Acis LP's very valuable business as portfolio manager was taken over by other Highlands and remained under Highland Capital and Dondero's control.

80. Prior to the filing of the Bankruptcy Cases, the Highlands' scheme was accomplished through, inter alia, the ALF PMA Transfer, the ALF Share Transfer, the Note Transfer, and the transfer of the 2017-7 Equity and the 2017-7 Agreements (as each is defined below), which all occurred in the three months between October 23 and December 19, 2017. Each of these transfers followed the same pattern: Highland Capital caused Acis LP to fraudulently convey valuable economic rights away from Acis LP to offshore (often newly created) Highland Capital affiliates that were not subject to Terry's Arbitration Award and judgment, thus, safely remaining under the control of Highland Capital and Dondero. Further, the only alleged consideration for these transfers, to the extent there was any, was the satisfaction of purported debts owed to other Highlands or their representatives.

81. Reference to Acis LP's balance sheets right before and right after the Highlands began their campaign of fraud against Terry and Acis demonstrate just how effective their scheme was. On August 31, 2017—roughly 45 days before the Arbitration Award—Acis LP boasted $15,441,551 in total assets (including nearly $4 million in valuable portfolio management investments and the $9.5 million note) as well as $3,372,851 in total equity value.¹⁷ After the Arbitration Award and the judgment enforcing it, Acis presented the affidavit of David Klos, Highland Capital's Controller, to the State Court in furtherance of Highland Capital's efforts to get a pathetically small bond for Terry's judgment. The Klos affidavit and attached balance sheet demonstrate that as of February 1, 2018 (the day after the Involuntary Petitions were filed) Acis LP had only $2,855,050 in total assets, no investment assets or notes, and a paltry $35,709 in total equity value.¹⁸ Thus, the amount of value destruction and asset concealment caused by the Highlands' brazen fraud in just the few months immediately after the Arbitration Award is staggering.

82. Even the filing of the Bankruptcy Cases did not deter the Highlands from attempting to complete their goal of denuding Acis. During the Bankruptcy Cases, in disregard of the automatic stay, on multiple occasions, the Highlands directed the Trustee to effectuate optional redemptions, which would result in the liquidation of the CLOs and render Acis incapable of reorganizing and paying its creditors.

¹⁷ The Balance Sheet as of August 31, 2017, is attached as Exhibit C.

¹⁸ The Declaration of David Klos concerning Defendants' net worth, is attached as Exhibit D.

1. The ALF PMA Transfer and the ALF Share Transfer

83. Prior to October 27, 2017, Acis LP—not ALF (or Highland Funding as it is currently named)—had authority to direct and effectuate an optional redemption and otherwise pervasively control ALF's assets. Acis LP had this authority pursuant to that certain Portfolio Services Agreement by and between Acis LP and ALF, dated August 10, 2015 (the "First ALF PMA") and that certain Portfolio Management Agreement by and between Acis LP and ALF, dated December 22, 2016 (the "Second ALF PMA"). A true and correct copy of the First ALF PMA is attached hereto as Exhibit E. A true and correct copy of the Second ALF PMA is attached hereto as Exhibit F.

84. The Second ALF PMA granted Acis LP, as the portfolio manager of ALF, extensive rights and discretion to control and manage ALF's assets, including its interests in the Acis CLOs. Section 5 of the Second ALF PMA set out Acis LP's authority, which included authority for and in the name of ALF to:

(a) invest, directly or indirectly . . . in all types of securities and other financial instruments of United States and non-U.S. entities . . . including without limitation . . . notes representing tranches of debt ('CLO Notes') issued by a special purpose vehicle which issues notes backed by a pool of collateral consisting primarily of loans (which may be represented by a debt or equity security) (a 'CLO') . . . (each of such items, 'Financial Instruments'), (c) provide credit and market research and analysis in connection with the investments and ongoing management of [ALF] and direct the formulation of investment policies and strategies for [ALF] . . . ; (g) possess, transfer, mortgage, pledge or otherwise deal in, and exercise all rights, powers, privileges and other incidents of ownership or possession with respect to Financial Instruments and other property and funds held or owned by [ALF] . . . ; (n) cause [ALF] to engage in . . . agency, agency cross, related party principal transactions with affiliates of [Acis LP] . . . ; and (q) vote Financial Instruments, participate in arrangements with creditors, the institution and settlement or compromise of suits and administrative proceedings and other like or similar matters.

Second ALF PMA § 5(a)-(q) (emphasis added).¹⁹

85. While ALF did not have authority to terminate the Second ALF PMA, Acis LP could terminate the Second ALF PMA without cause upon at least ninety (90) days' notice. See Second ALF PMA § 13(a)-(c). The Second ALF PMA provided that Acis LP could be removed as portfolio manager only "for cause." See ALF PMA § 14(a)-(e).

86. On October 27, 2017, just seven days after Terry's Arbitration Award, Acis LP ostensibly terminated its own portfolio management rights under the Second ALF PMA and transferred its authority and its valuable portfolio management rights—for no value—to Highland Advisor, an affiliate of Highland Capital.²⁰

87. This transfer of Acis LP's portfolio management rights to Highland Advisor was accomplished by way of a new Portfolio Management Agreement entered into by ALF and Highland Advisor on October 27, 2017 (the "October 2017 PMA"), which empowered Highland Advisor with the same broad authority to direct the management of ALF as was previously held by Acis LP under the ALF PMA (the "ALF PMA Transfer"). See October 2017 PMA §§ 1 & 5(a)-(q). A true and correct copy of the October 2017 PMA is attached hereto as Exhibit G.

88. As the Court explained:

On October 27, 2017 (seven days after the Arbitration Award), ALF—having purchased back the ownership interest that Acis LP had in it, just three days earlier—decided that it would no longer use Acis LP as its portfolio manager and entered into a new portfolio management agreement to supersede and replace the ALF Portfolio Management Agreement. Specifically, on October 27, 2017, ALF entered into a new Portfolio Management Agreement with a Cayman Island entity called Highland HCF Advisor, Ltd., replacing Acis LP in its role with ALF. This agreement appears to have been further solidified in a second portfolio management agreement dated November 15, 2017.

¹⁹ The Highlands contend that the reference to "control" in Section 6 of the Second ALF PMA negates the broad language of Section 5 of the Second ALF PMA. The Plaintiffs disagree.

Opinion at 19 (footnotes omitted).

89. Under the prior ALF PMA, Acis LP's consent to the termination of the ALF PMA was required in order to effectuate the ALF PMA Transfer. So, Dondero, on behalf of Acis LP, simply signed the October 2017 PMA, consenting and agreeing to its removal and replacement, and transferring all authority and management rights as portfolio manager of ALF to Highland Advisor under the October 2017 PMA. Acis received no consideration for this transfer.

90. Without this ALF PMA Transfer, which transferred Acis LP's valuable rights under the ALF PMA to Highland Advisor, Highland Funding could not have attempted to liquidate the CLOs, by directing optional redemptions, and further deplete Acis's assets.²¹

91. On October 24, 2017, a mere four days after the Arbitration Award was entered, Waterhouse, on behalf of Acis LP, and Grant Scott, for CLO Holdco Ltd., entered into that certain special resolution whereby Highland Funding, then known as ALF, acquired back Acis's equity interest in ALF (the "ALF Share Transfer"). A true and correct copy of the special resolution is attached hereto as Exhibit H. Pursuant the ALF Share Transfer, ALF paid Acis LP $991,180.13 for all of its shares of ALF.

92. Thus, by virtue of the ALF PMA Transfer and the ALF Share Transfer, by October 31, 2017, Acis LP had given up all of its shares of ALF and all of its control of ALF.

²¹ After the ALF PMA Transfer, Highland Funding and Highland Advisor have issued at least three different optional redemption notices, in an attempt to terminate the PMAs and cut off the Debtors' primary source of cash. All three notices have been withdrawn and/or enjoined by this Court.

93. On November 15, 2017 – only days after the ALF Share Transfer and ALF PMA Transfer were completed – Highland Funding,²² Highland Advisor and CLO Holdco, Ltd. (another Highland Capital affiliate) entered into a subscription agreement whereby Highland Funding completed a private placement of its equity (including, upon information and belief, the equity acquired in the ALF Share Transfer) to third-party investors. The Plaintiffs believe both the ALF PMA Transfer and the ALF Share Transfer were concocted by Highland Capital and Highland Funding to complete this private placement, which was of great value to Highland Funding (then known as Acis Loan Funding, Ltd.) and Highland Capital, but after the transfers, of no value to Acis.²³ Without the ALF PMA Transfer and the ALF Share Transfer, control of Highland Funding's assets, and the Highland Funding stock held by Acis, would be vested in an entity (Acis LP) that was subject to a looming judgment based on Terry's recently acquired Arbitration Award. That would compromise the Highlands' control of Highland Funding.

2. The Note Transfer

94. On November 3, 2017, Acis LP, Highland Capital, and Highland Management (a newly created, offshore Highland Capital affiliate) entered into that certain Agreement for Assignment and Transfer of Promissory Note (the "Note Assignment and Transfer Agreement"). A true and correct copy of the Note Assignment and Transfer Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit I. The Note Assignment and Transfer Agreement, among other things, transferred the ²² ALF had changed its name to Highland Funding at this point.

²³ Highland Funding's (then Acis Loan Funding Ltd.) board of director minutes from October 6, 2017, disclose that the private placement investment would bring $150 million in new investment in Highland Funding and that they were "confident that they could develop further interest and ... bring the total capital to up to around $325 million." The Arbitration Award was issued against Acis LP exactly two weeks later, throwing a huge monkey wrench in Highland Funding's plans to raise hundreds of millions of dollars for Highland Capital and its cronies. Testimony in the bankruptcy case as well as the subscription agreement demonstrate that numerous Highland Capital executives, as well as Highland Capital itself, received Highland Funding stock in connection with this private placement. Thus, they were highly motivated to close this transaction and also deprive the Acis LP of any value in this transaction.

$9.5 million promissory note executed by Highland Capital and payable to Acis LP (the "Note") from Acis LP to Highland Management (the "Note Transfer"). As noted in the Opinion:

The Assignment and Transfer Agreement memorializing this transaction is signed by Mr. Dondero for Acis LP and Mr. Dondero for Highland and some undecipherable name for Highland CLO Management Ltd.

The document recites that (i) Highland is no longer willing to continue providing support services to Acis LP, (ii) Acis LP, therefore, can no longer fulfill its duties as a collateral manager, and (iii) Highland CLO Management Ltd. agrees to step into the collateral manager role if Acis LP will assign to it the Acis LP Note Receivable from Highland. One more thing: since Acis LP was expected to potentially incur future legal and accounting/administrative fees, and might not have the ability to pay them when due, Highland CLO Management Ltd. agreed to reimburse Acis LP (or pays its vendors directly) up to $2 million of future legal expenses and up to $1 million of future accounting/administrative expenses.

Opinion at 20.

95. Acis LP received no or insufficient consideration for the Note Transfer.

96. The Note Transfer was also of great benefit to Highland Capital because it transferred Highland Capital's liability under the Note away from Acis LP (and its legal woes with Terry) and allowed Highland Capital's liability under the Note, and any payments made thereunder, to stay well within the control of the Highlands. Just as importantly to Highland Capital and Dondero, and in furtherance to their ongoing feud with Terry, the Note Transfer took away the Note as an asset from which Terry could collect his judgment and allowed Highland Capital to argue (as repeatedly argued in the Bankruptcy Cases) that Terry got his judgment against the "wrong" entities and that Highland Capital has no liability related to Terry's claim.

97. Additionally, the Note Assignment and Transfer Agreement also purports to initiate the transfer of the PMAs between Acis and the CLOs to Highland Management.²⁴ Again,

²⁴ Highland Management was registered in the Cayman Islands on October 27, 2017, roughly a week before the Note Transfer (and on the exact day of the ALF PMA Transfer). Thus, Highland Management had no portfolio or collateral management experience whatsoever when it entered the Assignment and Transfer Agreement. To the contrary, it appears Highland Management was an entity that was created specifically to hold the Note and eventually take possession of the PMAs in an international forum that would be difficult for Terry to reach, similar Acis LP was to receive no consideration for transferring its most significant assets, the PMAs. As the Court is aware, Acis LP did not in fact transfer the PMAs pursuant to the Note Assignment and Transfer Agreement, but it was clearly the plan as outlined in that agreement and further evidence of Highland Capital's intent to steal Acis LP's valuable going-concern business.

3. The Acis CLO 2017-7 Transfers

98. On December 19, 2017, Acis LP and Highland Holdings (another newly created, offshore Highland Capital affiliate)²⁵ entered into that certain Agreement for Assignment and Transfer (the "2017-7 Assignment and Transfer Agreement"). A true and correct copy of the 2017-7 Assignment and Transfer Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit J. The 2017-7 Assignment and Transfer Agreement focused on Acis CLO Management, LLC ("Acis CLO Management"), which is an entity that had been formed to enter into a portfolio management agreement with Acis CLO 2017-7, Ltd. ("CLO 2017-7"). CLO 2017-7 is the last CLO the Highlands formed. Acis CLO Management was indirectly owned by Acis LP, and Acis LP and Acis CLO Management had entered into a Master Sub-Advisory Agreement and a Staff and Services Agreement (the "2017-7 Agreements") that allowed Acis LP to manage the CLO 2017-7 portfolio and collect management fees for CLO 2017-7.

99. The 2017-7 Assignment and Transfer Agreement, among other things, transferred to Highland Holdings all of Acis LP's interest in the 2017-7 Agreements. The 2017-7 Assignment and Transfer Agreement also transferred to Highland Holdings all of Acis LP's to the transferees for the ALF PMA Transfer (Highland Advisor, a Cayman Island entity) the ALF Share Transfer (Highland Funding, a Guernsey entity) and the 2017-1 Assignment and Transfer Agreement (Highland Holdings, a Cayman Island entity). Thus, not only did Highland Capital and Dondero scheme to transfer Acis LP's assets away from it, but they also slyly chose entities in offshore jurisdictions that would be hard for a judgment creditor to reach.

²⁵ Like Highland Management, Highland Holdings was registered in the Cayman Islands on October 27, 2017.

equity interests in various entities that constituted Acis LP's indirect equity interests in Acis CLO Management (the "2017-7 Equity"). Thus, similar to the ALF PMA Transfer and the ALF Share Transfer that occurred roughly two months before, Acis LP was divested of both its ownership in Acis CLO Management and its control of Acis CLO Management (and related management fee stream) in one fell swoop on December 19, 2017, which is the day after Terry received his judgment based on the Arbitration Award. Also, importantly, the 2017-7 Assignment and Transfer Agreement rendered Acis non-compliant with relevant U.S. and European risk retention requirements.

100. Significantly, also on December 19, 2017, Highland Capital entered into an agreement with Highland Holdings that allowed Highland Capital to sub-advise and manage CLO 2017-7 and get paid the management fees that otherwise would have flowed to Acis LP. So, like the numerous transfers before it, Highland Capital effectuated the transfer of the 2017-7 Agreements and 2017-7 Equity to cut out Acis LP, while Highland Capital stayed in complete control of CLO 2017-7 and its stream of management fees.

101. As the Court noted in the Opinion:

On December 19, 2017—just one day after the Arbitration Award was confirmed with the entry of the Final Judgment—the vehicle that can most easily be described as the Acis LP "risk retention structure" (necessitated by federal Dodd Frank law) was transferred away from Acis LP and into the ownership of Highland CLO Holdings, Ltd. (yet another Cayman Island entity, incorporated on October 27, 2017).

In addition to transferring Acis LP's interest in the Acis LP risk retention structure on December 19, 2017, Acis LP also transferred its contractual right to receive management fees for Acis CLO 2017-7, Ltd. (which had just closed April 10, 2017), which Mr. Terry credibly testified had a combined value of $5 million, to Highland CLO Holdings, Ltd., another Cayman entity, purportedly in exchange for forgiveness of a $2.8 million receivable that was owed to Highland under the most recent iteration of the Shared Services Agreement and Sub-Advisory Agreement for CLO-7. In conjunction with this transfer, Highland CLO Holdings, Ltd. then entered into new Shared Services and Sub-Advisory Agreements with Highland.

102. The purported consideration for the 2017-7 Equity transferred in the 2017-7 Assignment and Transfer Agreement was the forgiveness of a $2,804,870 payable allegedly owed by Acis LP to Highland Capital and transferred to Highland Funding sometime before the agreement was entered. According to Acis LP's financial statements, this payable to Highland Capital entirely comprises amounts due under the Sub-Advisory Agreement and Shared Services Agreement. Thus, the "consideration" provided in exchange for the 2017-7 Assignment and Transfer Agreement would suffer from the same defects as outlined throughout this Second Amended Complaint related to the Sub Agreements; i.e., Acis only "owed" Highland Capital these amounts because Highland Capital grossly overcharged Acis. Finally, like the Note Transfer, the 2017-7 Equity transfer allowed Highland Capital to effectively collect all of the $2.8 million owed by Acis LP (assuming it is even a valid debt) through the use of an offshore intermediary.

103. Further, the 2017-7 Assignment and Transfer Agreement itself discloses that no consideration was provided for the transfer of the 2017-7 Agreements. Rather, the justification for the transfer of the 2017-7 Agreements is Highland Capital's self-serving refusal to continue to do business with Acis LP after the Arbitration Award and related judgment.

4. Thwarted Attempts to Transfer the Universal/BVK Agreement and Force an Optional Redemption

104. Highland Capital and the other Highlands did not stop with the transfers in the Fall of 2017. Immediately after the Involuntary Petitions were filed on January 30, 2018, Highland Capital conspired with Acis LP's own bankruptcy counsel in an effort to appropriate Acis LP's valuable sub-advisor rights under the Agreement for the Outsourcing of Asset Management (the "Universal/BVK Agreement") between Acis LP and Universal-Investment-

Luxembourg S.A. ("Universal"), which provided sub-advisory services for a German fund called BayVK R2 Lux S.A., SICAV-FIS ("BVK").²⁶ Like the many transfers before it, Highland Capital's plan (as clearly outlined in an email from Isaac Leventon to Mike Warner) was "to transfer the BVK investment management agreement from Acis LP to another Highland-affiliated manager."²⁷ Immediately after Highland Capital sought (and presumably received) advice from Acis's own counsel, Highland Capital reached out to Universal and BVK to solicit their participation in Highland Capital's scheme. In fact, BVK acknowledged in its very first email with Highland Capital after Acis LP's bankruptcy filing that Highland Capital's plan was to replace Acis LP.

105. Over the several weeks leading up to this Court's ruling on the Orders for Relief, Highland Capital and Universal/BVK did, in fact, frequently discuss replacing Acis LP, conducted extensive due diligence in order to replace Acis LP and even negotiated and prepared a new asset management agreement between Highland Capital and Universal that was to take effect once Acis LP and its bankruptcy were out of the way. But even after the Orders for Relief were entered and the Debtors were under the control of a trustee, the communications did not stop. Among other things, Highland Capital volunteered to pay Universal and BVK's legal costs incurred in terminating Acis LP and making Highland Capital the new sub-advisor for Universal and BVK, Highland Capital repeatedly criticized the Trustee for his management of Acis, and Highland Capital repeatedly expressed its desire to negotiate with Universal and to "onboard" Highland Capital as Universal's new sub-advisor. And even after Highland Capital was fired by the Trustee as Acis LP's sub-advisor and replaced with Brigade and Cortland, the communications did not stop. Highland Capital's scheme to transfer the Universal/BVK Agreement to Highland Capital or its affiliate was apparently only prevented by this Court imposing 11 U.S.C. § 363, effectively taking away Acis LP's right to operate outside the ordinary course of business without Court authority under 11 U.S.C. § 303(f) and then later not immediately lifting the automatic stay as to the Universal/BVK Agreement.

106. Finally, Highland Advisor and its sub-manager Highland Capital, used its newly acquired management rights (by way of the ALF PMA Transfer) to attempt to destroy the Debtor, as further described below.

5. The First Optional Redemption Notices

107. On April 30, 2018, without requesting relief from the automatic stay, Highland Funding sent five notices purportedly requesting optional redemption pursuant to Section 9.2 of each of the Indentures (the "First Optional Redemption Notices").²⁸ True and correct copies of the First Optional Redemption Notices are attached hereto as Exhibit L.

108. The First Optional Redemption Notices directed Acis LP to effectuate an Optional Redemption (as defined under each Indenture). Under Section 9.2 of each Indenture, upon the receipt of a notice of redemption, Acis, in its discretion, is to direct the sale of the Collateral Obligations (as defined by each Indenture) and other Assets. See CLO-1 Indenture, § 9.2; CLO-3 Indenture, § 9.2(b); CLO-4 Indenture, § 9.2; CLO-5 Indenture, § 9.2; & CLO-6 Indenture, § 9.2. In the Indentures, "Assets" is defined to include the PMAs. See CLO-1 Indenture, p. 8; CLO-3 Indenture, p. 10; CLO-4 Indenture, p. 10; CLO-5 Indenture, p. 10; & CLO-6 Indenture p. 10. Consequently, an Optional Redemption directs Acis LP to liquidate assets of the CLOs over which Acis has certain property rights, including, effectively, the PMAs.

²⁸ Nexpoint Strategic Opportunities Fund (f/k/a NexPoint Credit Strategies Fund) ("Nexpoint") and Drexel Limited ("Drexel") joined in one of the Optional Redemption Notices. Like HCLOF, Nexpoint is an affiliate of Highland.

109. The Trustee analyzed the First Optional Redemption Notices and determined there were various defects which rendered them ineffective. Therefore, on May 22, 2018, the Trustee sent his responses to the five First Optional Redemption Notices (the "Redemption Responses"). True and correct copies of the Redemption Responses are attached hereto as Exhibit M.

6. The Temporary Restraining Order Against the Highlands

110. On May 30, 2018, Highland Capital and Highland Funding initiated this Adversary Proceeding and alleged, among other things, that the Trustee breached the PMAs by failing to effectuate an Optional Redemption pursuant to the First Optional Redemption Notices.

111. The next day, on May 31, 2018, upon the request of the Trustee, the Court held a status conference in the Bankruptcy Cases, and the Trustee explained that, almost immediately after his appointment, he began exploring plan options regarding a potential transaction that would transfer rights under the PMAs, the Sub-Advisory Agreement, the Shared Services Agreement, and the subordinated notes, with respect to CLO-3, CLO-4, CLO-5, and CLO-6, with the goal of maximizing value for all parties. The Trustee informed the Court that he was in the process of negotiating a transaction with a party that would potentially provide enough value to pay all parties, including potentially all of Acis's creditors in full.

112. On May 31, 2018, at the conclusion of the status conference, the Court, sua sponte, issued a temporary restraining order, which prevented all parties from taking any action in furtherance of the Optional Redemption for fourteen (14) days.

113. On June 6, 2018 the Court entered its Temporary Restraining Order (the "TRO"), whereby the Restrained Parties (as defined in the TRO) were enjoined until 12:01 a.m. on June 15, 2018, from:

- a) proceeding with, effectuating, or otherwise taking any action in furtherance of the Optional Redemption, call, or other liquidation of the Acis CLOs; and
- b) sending, mailing, or otherwise distributing any notice to the holders of the Acis CLOs in connection with the Optional Redemption, call, or other liquidation of the Acis CLOs.

114. On June 11, 2018, the Trustee filed his Motion to Extend the Temporary Restraining Order (the "Motion to Extend the TRO"), in which the Trustee sought to extend the TRO for an additional 14 days. See Docket No. 275.

115. Also on June 11, 2018, Highland Funding filed its Memorandum of Law in Opposition to the Continuance of the Temporary Restraining Order (the "Brief in Opposition to Extending the TRO"). See Case No. 18-3264, Docket. No. 271. This pleading did not mention that Highland Capital apparently violated the TRO by initiating approximately $23 million of sales of CLO assets pursuant to the Optional Redemption after the Court issued its sua sponte TRO on May 31.

7. The Second Optional Redemption Notices

116. On June 13, 2018, the day before the hearing on the Motion to Extend the TRO, Highland Funding advised the Trustee that Highland Funding would withdraw the First Optional Redemption Notices. Highland Funding's correspondence with the Trustee indicating its intent to withdraw the First Optional Redemption Notices is attached hereto as Exhibit N and incorporated herein for all purposes. Thereafter, the Trustee advised the Court that Highland Funding was withdrawing the First Optional Redemption Notices, and the Trustee therefore did not intend to go forward with the Motion to Extend the TRO on June 14.

117. On June 14, 2018, counsel for Highland Funding advised the Court that Highland Funding had withdrawn the First Optional Redemption Notices. Counsel for Highland Funding further advised the Court that the First Optional Redemption Notices were withdrawn to bring "some sanity to this process":

That was done obviously for multiple reasons. My client doesn't believe that this is the appropriate time to be effectuating such a redemption for its own economic reasons, setting aside the complications it's obviously caused for others in this room. But needless to say, that, too, is an effort to try to bring, as I believe the Court has requested, and others have, some sanity to this process.²⁹

118. On June 15, 2018, at 12:01 a.m., the TRO expired.

119. Later on June 15, 2018, despite the fact that Highland Funding had just withdrawn the First Optional Redemption Notices, had advised the Court of the same, and the Trustee and the Court acted in reliance on same, (again, without requesting relief from the automatic stay) Highland Funding gave notice to the Trustee that it was again requesting an Optional Redemption pursuant to the Section 9.2 of each of the Indentures (the "Second Optional Redemption Notices," and together with the First Optional Redemption Notices, the "Optional Redemption Notices"). The Second Optional Redemption Notices are attached hereto as Exhibit Q and are incorporated herein for all purposes.

120. By the Second Optional Redemption Notices, Highland Funding directed the Issuers:

to effect an Optional Redemption of all Secured Notes and the Subordinated Notes in full on July 30, 2018 for the express purpose of placement of a portion of the portfolio of assets held by the Co-Issuers into a warehouse arrangement or a total return swap or other derivative arrangement with Highland Capital Management, L.P. acting as the Sub-Advisor pursuant to a Sub-Advisory Agreement.

121. On June 20, 2018, Highland Capital presented to the Trustee hundreds of millions of dollars of "proposed trades" pursuant to this second Optional Redemption. In its correspondence to the Trustee regarding such proposed trades, Highland Capital further stated:

²⁹ See Docket No. 298 at 7, ll. 16-22 (June 14, 2018 Hr'g Tr.).

In order to effectuate the Transaction and obtain best execution, Highland requests your consent by no later than 2pm tomorrow, Thursday June 21, 2018 (the "Deadline"). The Acis Accounts may incur losses as a result of your failure to respond by the Deadline.
Highland believes it has an independent fiduciary obligation to the CLOs. If you instruct Highland not to proceed to undertake the Optional Redemption, Highland reserves its rights to seek appropriate protection and redress at law or in equity.³⁰

H. Preferential Transfers Made within One Year of the Petition Date

122. Acis's Statement of Financial Affairs [Case No. 18-30264, Docket No. 165] (the "SOFA")³¹ and its general ledger disclose more than two dozen payments totaling $16,113,790.14 made to Highland Capital within one year of the Petition Date based on four categories (the "Prepetition Payments"):

- (i) Contractual Payments: $5,011,836.72
- (ii) Services: $7,672,145.25³²
- (iii) Unsecured Loan Repayments Including Interest: $3,311,497.65
- (iv) Expense Reimbursement: $118,311.32

123. The Prepetition Payments were made for the benefit of Highland Capital for or on account of an antecedent debt owed by the Debtors before the Prepetition Payments were made. Acis was insolvent at all times when the Prepetition Payments were made. Based on Terry's pending—or already decided—claims, as well as Highland Capital's absolute operational and financial control of Acis, Highland Capital was aware that Acis was insolvent or reasonably should have been aware Acis was insolvent at all times when the Prepetition Payments were made. The Prepetition Payments were made within one year of the Petition Date. At the time the ³⁰ Emphasis in original email correspondence.

³¹ The SOFA is sworn under penalty of perjury and signed by Issac Leventon, a Highland employee and associate general counsel.

³² The Statement of Financial Affairs, filed in the bankruptcy cases by Acis while under Highland Capital control, fails to list an additional $1,868,203.44 in transfers to Highland Capital for "Services" that were made shortly before the Petition Date.

Prepetition Payments were made Highland Capital was an insider of the Debtors. The Prepetition Payments enabled Highland Capital to receive more than Highland Capital would have received if the cases were a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code and if the Prepetition Payments had not been made. Highland Capital received the Prepetition Payments. See Williams v. McKesson Corp. (In re Quality Infusion Care, Inc.), Nos. 10-36675, 13-3056, 2013 Bankr. LEXIS 5044 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. Nov. 25, 2013) (citing Palmer Clay Prods. Co. v. Brown, 297 U.S. 227, 229 (1936) and stating the 547(b)(5) is to be analyzed as of the Petition Date).

124. Further, to the extent that the Acis LP payables that served as the consideration for the Note Transfer and the 2017-7 Equity transfer were valid, these transfers would also constitute preferential payments to Highland Capital, Highland Management and Highland Holdings. The SOFA discloses that Highland Management is an "affiliate" of the Debtors and the Note Transfer is included on the list of "payments, distributions, withdrawals credited, or given to insiders" within one year before filing the Bankruptcy Cases. See SOFA p. 12.

VI. CAUSES OF ACTION³³

Count 1: Declaratory Judgment that Expense Overpayments to Highland Capital Were Ultra Vires in Violation of the LPA [Against Highland Capital]

125. The Plaintiffs incorporate the preceding paragraphs as if set forth fully herein.

126. Under Delaware law, ultra vires corporate acts are either void or voidable. See Klaassen v. Allegro Dev. Corp., C.A. No. 8626-VCL, 2013 Del. Ch. LEXIS 247, at *48-50 (Oct. 11, 2013); see also Stephen A. Solomon v. Armstrong, 747 A.2d 1098, 1114 n.45 (1999) (explaining the difference between void and voidable acts). Delaware courts apply the doctrine of ultra vires to partnerships by analogy. See, e.g., In re Mesa Ltd. P'ship Preferred Unitholders Litig., Civil Action No. 12,243, 1991 Del. Ch. LEXIS 214, at *20 (Dec. 10, 1991).

127. Highland Capital invoiced Acis for, and received payments for, at least $7,021,924.00 in excess of 20% of Revenues, in violation of the LPA. Highland Capital, an Affiliate of Acis GP, accepted such funds in violation of Section 3.10(a) of the LPA.

128. Such Expense Overpayments, and any agreements supporting such Expense Overpayments, were economically irrational, not in the interest of Acis LP, and are therefore void; however, if not void, such actions are voidable because they were done without the consent or ratification of all members of the Founding Partner Group. The payments to Highland Capital of the Expense Overpayments in the amount of at least $7,021,924.00 and any agreements supporting such overpayments were unauthorized or ultra vires acts of the partnership in violation of the LPA, and are therefore void or voidable.

Count 2: Turnover of Property of the Estate under 11 U.S.C. § 542(a) for Unauthorized Overpayments
[Against Highland Capital]

129. The Plaintiffs incorporate the preceding paragraphs as if set forth fully herein.

130. Under section 542(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, "an entity, other than a custodian, in possession, custody, or control, during the case, of property that the trustee may use, sell, or lease under section 363 . . . shall deliver to the trustee, and account for, such property or the value of such property, unless such property is of inconsequential value or benefit to the estate." 11 U.S.C. § 542(a).

131. Under section 541(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, property of the estate includes "all legal or equitable interests of the debtor in property as of the commencement of the case." 11 U.S.C. § 541(a). Further, the "estate is comprised of [such] property, wherever located and by whomever held." Id.

132. Highland Capital wrongfully received Expense Overpayments of at least $7,021,924.00 in excess of 20% of Revenues in violation of the LPA.

133. The property, or value of such property, from the overpayment of funds wrongfully transferred to Highland Capital totaling at least $7,021,924.00, in Highland Capital's possession, custody, or control is property of the estate, and the value of such property is not of inconsequential value or benefit to the estate.

134. Pursuant to section 542(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, Highland Capital must deliver to the Trustee the property or value of such property, totaling at least $7,021,924.00, wrongfully transferred to Highland Capital.

135. Therefore, the Plaintiffs, now vested with all claims of the Trustee, seek turnover of the funds, totaling at least $7,021,924.00, transferred to Highland Capital, to the extent allowed pursuant to section 542 of the Bankruptcy Code.

Count 3: Money Had and Received for Overcharges and Unauthorized Overpayments
[Against Highland Capital]

136. The Plaintiffs incorporate the preceding paragraphs as if set forth fully herein.

137. "An action for money had and received arises when the defendant obtains money which in equity and good conscience belongs to the plaintiff. This action . . . looks only to the justice of the case and inquires whether the defendant has received money which rightfully belongs to another." Amoco Prod. Co. v. Smith, 946 S.W.2d 162, 164 (Tex. App.—El Paso 1997, no pet.) (internal citations omitted).

138. Highland Capital invoiced Acis for, and received Expense Overpayments for, at least $7,021,924.00 in excess of 20% of Revenues in violation of the LPA. Highland Capital, an Affiliate of Acis GP, accepted such funds in violation of Section 3.10(a) of the LPA. Highland Capital was therefore unjustly enriched in the amount of the Expense Overpayments of at least $7,021,924.00.

139. Highland Capital invoiced Acis and accepted such Expense Overpayments from Acis despite Highland Capital's knowledge of the LPA. This money rightfully belongs to Acis, and the overpayment creates a debt in favor of Acis. Therefore, the Plaintiffs are entitled to damages on behalf of Acis in the amount of at least $7,021,924.00. In addition, Highland Capital charged Acis more than a market rate under the Second Amended Sub-Advisory Agreement and the Third Amended Sub-Services Agreement and is liable to Acis in the amount of these overcharges.

Count 4: Conversion for Unauthorized Overpayments
[Against Highland Capital]

140. The Plaintiffs incorporate the preceding paragraphs as if set forth fully herein.

141. "Conversion is defined as the wrongful exercise of dominion and control over another's property in denial of or inconsistent with his rights." Green Int'l v. Solis, 951 S.W.2d 384, 391 (Tex. 1997).

142. Highland Capital wrongfully exercised dominion and control over at least $7,021,924.00 in excess of 20% of Revenues in violation of the LPA. Highland Capital, through the common control of Dondero, was aware that it was prohibited from receiving payment in excess of 20% of Revenues without the consent of all members of the Founding Partner Group. Highland Capital also had actual notice of the Arbitration Award through Dondero (who was represented at the arbitration proceeding) that Highland Capital was wrongfully in possession of such money. Despite Highland Capital's actual knowledge that the money does not rightfully belong to Highland Capital, Highland Capital continues to improperly retain the overpaid funds. Therefore, the Plaintiffs are entitled to damages in the amount of at least $7,021,924.00. In addition, Highland Capital charged Acis more than a market rate under the Second Amended Sub-Advisory Agreement and the Third Amended Shared Services Agreement and is liable to Acis in the amount of these overcharges.

Count 5: Actual Fraudulent Transfer under 11 U.S.C. § 548(a)(1)(A) related to the Sub-Advisory Agreement
[Against Highland Capital]

143. The Plaintiffs incorporate the preceding paragraphs as if set forth fully herein.

144. Section 548(a)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a trustee may avoid any transfer of an interest of the debtor in property, or any obligation incurred by the debtor, if the debtor made such transfer or incurred such obligation with actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud any entity to which the debtor was or became, on or after the date that such transfer was made or such obligation was incurred, indebted.

145. The Plaintiffs, now vested with all claims of the Trustee, seek to avoid the modifications to the Sub-Advisory Agreement made in the Second Amended Sub-Advisory Agreement and Third Amended Sub-Advisory Agreement, any obligations incurred by Acis in connection with these modifications to the Sub-Advisory Agreement, and any payments made (including increase in payments made) by Acis to Highland Capital in connection with these modifications to the Sub-Advisory Agreement because such modifications and payments were made with an actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud Terry, a creditor of Acis, demonstrated by, among other things, that:

- (i) The modifications to the Sub-Advisory Agreement were made shortly after Terry's termination and just prior to litigation with Terry;
- (ii) The modifications to the Sub-Advisory Agreement—entered into by Dondero on behalf of Acis and Highland Capital—and payments thereunder were made with the actual intent to divert assets to and for the benefit of Highland Capital, in fraud upon Acis's creditors, namely Terry.

- (iii) Acis was or became insolvent as a result of the modifications to the Sub-Advisory Agreement and payments thereunder;
- (iv) The modifications to the Sub-Advisory Agreement and payments thereunder occurred both before and after substantial debts were incurred by Acis;
- (v) The consideration received by Acis for the modifications to the Sub-Advisory Agreement and payments thereunder were not reasonably equivalent in value; and
- (vi) the transfer/obligation incurred was to an insider.

146. Therefore, such modifications to the Sub-Advisory Agreements and payments to Highland Capital pursuant to such modifications should be avoided to the extent avoidable under section 548(a)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Count 6: Actual Fraudulent Transfer under Tex. Bus. & Com. Code § 24.005(a)(1) related to the Sub-Advisory Agreement
[Against Highland Capital]

147. The Plaintiffs incorporate the preceding paragraphs as if set forth fully herein.

148. Section 544 of the Bankruptcy Code provides the Trustee with the ability to avoid transfers or obligations that would be avoidable by certain prepetition creditors of Acis. Texas Business and Commerce Code section 24.005(a)(1) provides that a current or future creditor may avoid a transfer if the debtor made the transfer or incurred the obligation with an actual intent to hinder, delay or defraud any creditor of the debtor. Pursuant to section 544 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Trustee may seek to avoid transfers made by Acis, or obligations incurred by Acis, pursuant to Texas Business and Commerce Code sections 24.005(a)(1).

149. The Plaintiffs, now vested with all claims of the Trustee, seek to avoid the modifications to the Sub-Advisory Agreement made in the Second Amended Sub-Advisory Agreement and Third Amended Sub-Advisory Agreement, any obligations incurred by Acis in connection with these modifications to the Sub-Advisory Agreement, and any payments made (including increase in payments made) by Acis to Highland Capital in connection with these modifications to the Sub-Advisory Agreement because such modifications and payments were made with an actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud Terry, a creditor of Acis, demonstrated by, among other things, that:

- (i) The modifications to the Sub-Advisory Agreement were made shortly after Terry's termination and just prior to litigation with Terry;
- (ii) The modifications to the Sub-Advisory Agreement—entered into by Dondero on behalf of Acis and Highland Capital—and payments thereunder were made with the actual intent to divert assets to and for the benefit of Highland Capital, in fraud upon Acis's creditors, namely Terry.
- (iii) Acis was or became insolvent as a result of the modifications to the Sub-Advisory Agreement and payments thereunder;
- (iv) The modifications to the Sub-Advisory Agreement and payments thereunder occurred both before and after substantial debts were incurred by Acis;
- (v) The consideration received by Acis for the modifications to the Sub-Advisory Agreement and payments thereunder were not reasonably equivalent in value; and
- (vi) The transfer/obligation incurred was to an insider.

150. Therefore, Acis's creditors have the right to avoid the Sub-Advisory Agreement and payments thereunder under section 24.005(a)(1) of the Texas Business and Commerce Code, and the Plaintiffs, now vested with all claims of the Trustee, can seek to enforce that right under section 544 of the Bankruptcy Code.

Count 7: Constructive Fraudulent Transfer under 11 U.S.C. § 548(a)(1)(B) related to the Sub-Advisory Agreement [Against Highland Capital]

151. The Plaintiffs incorporate the preceding paragraphs as if set forth fully herein.

152. Section 548(a)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a trustee may avoid any transfer of any interest of the debtor in property, or any obligation incurred by the debtor, if the debtor (i) received less than reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the transfer or obligation; and (ii) (A) was insolvent on the date the transfer was made or the obligation was incurred, or became insolvent as the result of the transfer or obligation; (B) was engaged in business or a transaction, or was about to engage in business or a transaction for which any remaining property was unreasonably small capital; or (C) intended to incur, or believed the debtor would incur, debts that would be beyond the debtors' ability to pay such debts.

153. As described above, among other things, Acis LP:

- (i) received less than reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the modifications to the Sub-Advisory Agreement and payments made thereunder;
- (ii) was or became insolvent as the result of the modifications to the Sub-Advisory Agreement and payments made thereunder; and
- (iii) intended to incur, or believed Acis would incur, debts that would be beyond Acis's ability to pay such debts.

154. Therefore, the modifications to the Sub-Advisory Agreement made in the Second Amended Sub-Advisory Agreement and the Third Amended Sub-Advisory Agreement, any obligations incurred by Acis in connection with these modifications to the Sub-Advisory Agreement and any payments made (including increase in payments made) by Acis to Highland Capital in connection with these modifications to the Sub-Advisory Agreement are avoidable by the Plaintiffs, now vested with all claims of the Trustee, under section 548(a)(1)(B).

Count 8: Constructive Fraudulent Transfer under Tex. Bus. & Com. Code §§ 24.005(a)(2) and 24.006(a) related to the Sub-Advisory Agreement
[Against Highland Capital]

155. The Plaintiffs incorporate the preceding paragraphs as if set forth fully herein.

156. Section 544 of the Bankruptcy Code provides the Trustee with the ability to avoid transfers or obligations that would be avoidable by certain prepetition creditors of Acis. Texas Business and Commerce Code section 24.005(a)(2) provides that a current or future creditor may avoid a transfer if the debtor made the transfer or incurred the obligation (i) without receiving reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the transfer or obligation; and (ii) (A) was engaged or about to engage in a business or transaction for which the remaining assets were unreasonably small in relation to the business or transaction, or (B) intended to incur, or believed or reasonably should have believed, that the debtor would incur debts beyond the debtor's ability to pay as they became due. Similarly, Texas Business and Commerce Code section 24.006(a) provides that a current creditor may avoid a transfer if the debtor made the transfer or incurred the obligation (i) without receiving reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the transfer or obligation; and (ii) the debtor was insolvent or rendered insolvent by the transfer or obligation sought to be avoided. Pursuant to section 544 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Plaintiffs, now vested with all claims of the Trustee, may seek to avoid transfers made by Acis, or obligations incurred by Acis, pursuant to Texas Business and Commerce Code sections 24.005(a)(2) and 24.006(a).

157. As described above, Acis LP did not receive reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the modifications to the Sub-Advisory Agreement and payments made thereunder to Highland Capital, and creditors at the time of such modifications and payments could have avoided such modifications and payments under section 24.005(a)(2) of the Texas Business and Commerce Code.

158. At the time of the modifications to the Sub-Advisory Agreement and payments made thereunder to Highland Capital, Acis intended to incur, or believed or reasonably should have believed that Acis would incur, debts beyond its ability to pay as they became due, and/or was engaged, or was about to engage in a business or transaction for which the remaining assets of Acis were unreasonably small in relation to such business or transaction.

159. Moreover, as described above, Acis was insolvent or became insolvent by the modifications to the Sub-Advisory Agreement and payments made thereunder.

160. Therefore, the modifications to the Sub-Advisory Agreement made in the Second Amended Sub-Advisory Agreement and the Third Amended Sub-Advisory Agreement, any obligations incurred by Acis in connection with these modifications to the Sub-Advisory Agreement and any payments made (including increase in payments made) by Acis to Highland Capital in connection with these modifications to the Sub-Advisory Agreement are avoidable under Texas Business and Commerce Code sections 24.005(a)(2) and 24.006(a).

Count 9: Actual Fraudulent Transfer under 11 U.S.C. § 548(a)(1)(A)
for the ALF PMA Transfer
[Against Highland Capital, Highland Funding, and Highland Advisor]

161. The Plaintiffs incorporate the preceding paragraphs as if set forth fully herein.

162. Section 548(a)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a trustee may avoid any transfer of an interest of the debtor in property, or any obligation incurred by the debtor, if the debtor made such transfer or incurred such obligation with actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud any entity to which the debtor was or became, on or after the date that such transfer was made or such obligation was incurred, indebted.

163. The Plaintiffs, now vested with all claims of the Trustee, seek to avoid the ALF PMA Transfer because such transfer was made with an actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud Terry, a creditor of Acis, demonstrated by, among other things, that:

- (i) The ALF PMA Transfer was made just seven days after Terry's Arbitration Award against Acis;
- (ii) The ALF PMA Transfer was made with the actual intent to divert Acis LP's contractual rights under the ALF PMA to and for the benefit of Highland Advisor, in fraud upon Acis LP's creditors, namely Terry.
- (iii) Acis LP was insolvent at the time of the ALF PMA Transfer or became insolvent as a result of the ALF PMA Transfer;
- (iv) The ALF PMA Transfer occurred both before and after substantial debts were incurred by Acis LP;
- (v) Acis LP received less than a reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the ALF PMA Transfer;
- (vi) The transfer was made to an insider (Highland Advisor) and for the benefit of insiders (Highland Funding and Highland Capital); and
- (vii) Highland Capital (as sub-advisor to Highland Advisor) retained effective possession and control of the property transferred after the transfer.

164. Therefore, the ALF PMA Transfer should be avoided to the extent avoidable under section 548(a)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Count 10: Actual Fraudulent Transfer under Tex. Bus. & Com. Code § 24.005(a)(1)
for the ALF PMA Transfer

165. The Plaintiffs incorporate the preceding paragraphs as if set forth fully herein.

166. Section 544 of the Bankruptcy Code provides the Trustee with the ability to avoid transfers or obligations that would be avoidable by certain prepetition creditors of Acis. Texas Business and Commerce Code section 24.005(a)(1) provides that a current or future creditor may avoid a transfer if the debtor made the transfer or incurred the obligation with an actual intent to hinder, delay or defraud any creditor of the debtor. Pursuant to section 544 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Trustee may seek to avoid transfers made by Acis, or obligations incurred by Acis, pursuant to Texas Business and Commerce Code sections 24.005(a)(1).

167. The Plaintiffs, now vested with all claims of the Trustee, seek to avoid the ALF PMA Transfer because such transfer was made with an actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud Terry, a creditor of Acis, demonstrated by, among other things, that:

- (i) The ALF PMA Transfer was made just seven days after Terry's Arbitration Award against Acis;
- (ii) The ALF PMA Transfer was made with the actual intent to divert Acis LP's contractual rights under the ALF PMA to and for the benefit of Highland Advisor, in fraud upon Acis LP's creditors, namely Terry.
- (iii) Acis LP was insolvent at the time of the ALF PMA Transfer or became insolvent as a result of the ALF PMA Transfer;
- (iv) The ALF PMA Transfer occurred both before and after substantial debts were incurred by Acis LP; and
- (v) Acis LP received less than a reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the ALF PMA Transfer;

- (vi) The transfer was made to an insider (Highland Advisor) and for the benefit of insiders (Highland Funding and Highland Capital); and
- (vii) Highland Capital (as sub-advisor to Highland Advisor) retained effective possession and control of the property transferred after the transfer.

168. Therefore, Acis's creditors have the right to avoid the ALF PMA Transfer under section 24.005(a)(1) of the Texas Business and Commerce Code, and the Plaintiffs can seek to enforce that right under section 544 of the Bankruptcy Code.

Count 11: Constructive Fraudulent Transfers under 11 U.S.C. § 548(a)(1)(B)
for the ALF PMA Transfer

169. The Plaintiffs incorporate the preceding paragraphs as if set forth fully herein.

170. Section 548(a)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a trustee may avoid any transfer of any interest of the debtor in property, or any obligation incurred by the debtor, if the debtor (i) received less than reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the transfer or obligation; and (ii) (A) was insolvent on the date the transfer was made or the obligation was incurred, or became insolvent as the result of the transfer or obligation: (B) was engaged in business or a transaction, or was about to engage in business or a transaction for which any remaining property was unreasonably small capital; or (C) intended to incur, or believed the debtor would incur, debts that would be beyond the debtors' ability to pay such debts.

171. As described above, among other things, Acis LP:

- (i) received less than reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the ALF PMA Transfer;
- (ii) was insolvent on the date the ALF PMA Transfer was made or became insolvent as the result of the ALF PMA Transfer;

- (iii) was engaged in business or a transaction, or was about to engage in business or a transaction for which any remaining property was unreasonably small capital; and
- (iii) intended to incur, or believed Acis would incur, debts that would be beyond Acis's ability to pay such debts.

172. Therefore, ALF PMA Transfer is avoidable under section 548(a)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code.

173. The Plaintiffs incorporate the preceding paragraphs as if set forth fully herein.

174. Section 544 of the Bankruptcy Code provides the Trustee with the ability to avoid transfers or obligations that would be avoidable by certain prepetition creditors of Acis. Texas Business and Commerce Code section 24.005(a)(2) provides that a current or future creditor may avoid a transfer if the debtor made the transfer or incurred the obligation (i) without receiving reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the transfer or obligation; and (ii) (A) was engaged or about to engage in a business or transaction for which the remaining assets were unreasonably small in relation to the business or transaction, or (B) intended to incur, or believed or reasonably should have believed, that the debtor would incur debts beyond the debtor's ability to pay as they became due. Similarly, Texas Business and Commerce Code section 24.006(a) provides that a current creditor may avoid a transfer if the debtor made the transfer or incurred the obligation (i) without receiving reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the transfer or obligation; and (ii) the debtor was insolvent or rendered insolvent by the transfer or obligation sought to be avoided. Pursuant to section 544 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Plaintiffs, now vested with all claims of the Trustee, may seek to avoid transfers made by Acis, or obligations incurred by Acis, pursuant to Texas Business and Commerce Code sections 24.005(a)(2) and 24.006(a).

175. As described above, Acis LP did not receive reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the ALF PMA Transfer, and creditors at the time of the ALF PMA Transfer could have avoided such transfer under section 24.005(a)(2) of the Texas Business and Commerce Code.

176. At the time of the ALF PMA Transfer, Acis intended to incur, or believed or reasonably should have believed that Acis would incur, debts beyond its ability to pay as they became due, and/or was engaged, or was about to engage in a business or transaction for which the remaining assets of Acis were unreasonably small in relation to such business or transaction.

177. Moreover, as described above, Acis was insolvent or was rendered insolvent by the ALF PMA Transfer.

178. The ALF PMA Transfer is therefore avoidable under Texas Business and Commerce Code sections 24.005(a)(2) and 24.006(a).

Count 13: Actual Fraudulent Transfer under 11 U.S.C. § 548(a)(1)(A)
for the ALF Share Transfer [Against Highland Capital and Highland Funding]

179. The Plaintiffs incorporate the preceding paragraphs as if set forth fully herein.

180. Section 548(a)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a trustee may avoid any transfer of an interest of the debtor in property, or any obligation incurred by the debtor, if the debtor made such transfer or incurred such obligation with actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud any entity to which the debtor was or became, on or after the date that such transfer was made or such obligation was incurred, indebted.

181. The Plaintiffs, now vested with all claims of the Trustee, seek to avoid the ALF Share Transfer because such transfer was made with an actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud Terry, a creditor of Acis, demonstrated by, among other things, that:

- (i) The ALF Share Transfer was made just four days after Terry's Arbitration Award against Acis;
- (ii) The ALF Share Transfer was made with the actual intent to divert Acis LP's interest and control in ALF to and for the benefit of Highland Funding, in fraud upon Acis LP's creditors, namely Terry.
- (iii) Acis LP was insolvent at the time of the ALF Share Transfer or became insolvent as a result of the ALF Share Transfer;
- (iv) The ALF Share Transfer occurred both before and after substantial debts were incurred by Acis LP; and
- (v) Acis LP received less than a reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the ALF Share Transfer;
- (vi) The transfer was made to an insider (Highland Funding) and for the benefit of an insider (Highland Capital); and
- (vii) Highland Capital (as sub-advisor to Highland Advisor) retained effective possession and control of the property transferred after the transfer.

182. Therefore, the ALF Share Transfer should be avoided to the extent avoidable under section 548(a)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Count 14: Actual Fraudulent Transfer under Tex. Bus. & Com. Code § 24.005(a)(1)
for the ALF Share Transfer

183. The Plaintiffs incorporate the preceding paragraphs as if set forth fully herein.

184. Section 544 of the Bankruptcy Code provides the Trustee with the ability to avoid transfers or obligations that would be avoidable by certain prepetition creditors of Acis. Texas Business and Commerce Code section 24.005(a)(1) provides that a current or future creditor may avoid a transfer if the debtor made the transfer or incurred the obligation with an actual intent to hinder, delay or defraud any creditor of the debtor. Pursuant to section 544 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Trustee may seek to avoid transfers made by Acis, or obligations incurred by Acis, pursuant to Texas Business and Commerce Code sections 24.005(a)(1).

185. The Plaintiffs, now vested with all claims of the Trustee, seek to avoid the ALF Share Transfer because such transfer was made with an actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud Terry, a creditor of Acis, demonstrated by, among other things, that:

- (i) The ALF Share Transfer was made just four days after Terry's Arbitration Award against Acis;
- (ii) The ALF Share Transfer was made with the actual intent to divert Acis LP's interest and control in ALF to and for the benefit of Highland Funding, in fraud upon Acis LP's creditors, namely Terry.
- (iii) Acis LP was insolvent at the time of the ALF Share Transfer or became insolvent as a result of the ALF Share Transfer;
- (iv) The ALF Share Transfer occurred both before and after substantial debts were incurred by Acis LP; and
- (v) Acis LP received less than a reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the ALF Share Transfer;
- (vi) The transfer was made to an insider (Highland Funding) and for the benefit of an insider (Highland Capital); and

- (vii) Highland Capital (as sub-advisor to Highland Advisor) retained effective possession and control of the property transferred after the transfer.

186. Therefore, Acis's creditors have the right to avoid the ALF Share Transfer under section 24.005(a)(1) of the Texas Business and Commerce Code, and the Plaintiffs can seek to enforce that right under section 544 of the Bankruptcy Code.

187. The Plaintiffs incorporate the preceding paragraphs as if set forth fully herein.

188. Section 548(a)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a trustee may avoid any transfer of any interest of the debtor in property, or any obligation incurred by the debtor, if the debtor (i) received less than reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the transfer or obligation; and (ii) (A) was insolvent on the date the transfer was made or the obligation was incurred, or became insolvent as the result of the transfer or obligation: (B) was engaged in business or a transaction, or was about to engage in business or a transaction for which any remaining property was unreasonably small capital; or (C) intended to incur, or believed the debtor would incur, debts that would be beyond the debtors' ability to pay such debts.

189. As described above, among other things, Acis LP:

- (i) received less than reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the ALF Share Transfer;
- (ii) was insolvent on the date the ALF Share Transfer was made or became insolvent as the result of the ALF Share Transfer;
- (iii) was engaged in business or a transaction, or was about to engage in business or a transaction for which any remaining property was unreasonably small capital; and

Pursuant to section 544 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Plaintiffs, now vested with all claims of the Trustee, may seek to avoid transfers made by Acis pursuant to Texas Business and Commerce Code section 24.006(b).

236. Within one year of the Petition Date, Highland Capital received the Prepetition Payments in the amount $16,113,790.14 from Acis on account of purported debt claims owed by Acis. 240. Highland Capital is an initial transferee of all transfers sought to be avoided in Counts 5 – 8 and 25 above. The Plaintiffs, now vested with all claims of the Trustee, may recover all avoided transfers from Highland Capital pursuant to section 550, specifically including any transfers made in connection with any obligations avoided through Counts 5 – 8 above.

241. Highland Advisor is an initial transferee of all transfers sought to be avoided in Counts 9 – 12 above, and Highland Capital are entities for whose benefit such transfers were made. The Plaintiffs, now vested with all claims of the Trustee, may recover all avoided transfers from Highland Advisor, Highland Funding, and Highland Capital pursuant to section 550.

242. Highland Funding is an initial transferee of all transfers sought to be avoided in Counts 13 – 16 above, and Highland Capital is an entity for whose benefit such transfers were made. The Plaintiffs, now vested with all claims of the Trustee, may recover all avoided transfers from Highland Funding and Highland Capital pursuant to section 550.

243. Highland Management is an initial transferee of all transfers sought to be avoided in Counts 17 – 20 and 25 above, and Highland Capital is an entity for whose benefit such transfers were made. The Plaintiffs, now vested with all claims of the Trustee, may recover all avoided transfers from Highland Management and Highland Capital pursuant to section 550.

244. Highland Holdings is an initial transferee of all transfers sought to be avoided in Counts 21 – 25 above, and Highland Capital is an entity for whose benefit such transfers were made. The Plaintiffs, now vested with all claims of the Trustee, may recover all avoided transfers from Highland Holdings and Highland Capital pursuant to section 550.

Count 27: Civil Conspiracy to Commit Fraud, Including Fraudulent Transfers [Against Highland Capital, Highland Advisor, Highland Management, and Highland Holdings]

245. The Plaintiffs incorporate the preceding paragraphs as if set forth fully herein.

246. Highland Capital, Highland Advisor, Highland Management, Highland Holdings, Dondero, and Waterhouse (collectively, the "Highland Enterprise")³⁴ sought to engage in a series of fraudulent transfers and other fraudulent schemes, including the ALF PMA Transfer, the ALF Share Transfer, the Note Transfer, the 2017-7 Equity transfer, the 2017-7 Agreements transfer and the thwarted Universal/BVK Agreement transfer in order to denude Acis's assets and take over Acis LP's valuable business.

247. The Highland Enterprise, which is comprised of two or more business entities and individuals, had a meeting of the minds on the object or course of action related to the foregoing fraudulent transfers and schemes, including the ALF PMA Transfer, the ALF Share Transfer, the Note Transfer the 2017-7 Equity transfer, the 2017-7 Agreements transfer and the thwarted Universal/BVK Agreement transfer.

248. The fraudulent transfers and schemes, including the ALF PMA Transfer, the ALF Share Transfer, the Note Transfer, the 2017-7 Equity transfer, the 2017-7 Agreements transfer and the thwarted Universal/BVK Agreement transfer, constitute one or more unlawful, overt acts.

249. The Debtors and the Debtors' estates suffered damages as a proximate result of the fraudulent transfers and schemes, including the ALF PMA Transfer, the ALF Share Transfer, the Note Transfer, the 2017-7 Equity transfer, the 2017-7 Agreements transfer and the thwarted Universal/BVK Agreement transfer.

250. The Plaintiffs, now vested with all claims of the Trustee, seek actual and exemplary damages for the Highland Enterprise's conspiracy.

³⁴ This is without limitation to other entities or individuals that may ultimately be shown to be part of Highland Enterprise.

Count 28: Tortious Interference with the Universal/BVK Agreement
[Against Highland Capital]

251. The Plaintiffs incorporate the preceding paragraphs as if set forth fully herein.

252. Under Texas law, a claim for tortious interference with contract requires: "(1) an existing contract subject to interference, (2) a willful and intentional act of interference with the contract, (3) that proximately caused the plaintiff's injury, and (4) caused actual damages or loss." Official Brands, Inc. v. Roc Nation Sports, LLC, 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 167320 *7 (N.D. Tex.) (J. Boyle) (quoting Prudential Ins. Co. of Am. v. Fin. Review Servs., Inc., 29 S.W.3d 74, 77 (Tex. 2000)). The fact that a contract is an at-will agreement is no defense to a tortious interference claim. Id.

253. The Universal/BVK Agreement is an existing contract to which Acis LP is a party. The Universal/BVK Agreement is an existing contract that is subject to interference.

254. From nearly day one of these Bankruptcy Cases, Highland Capital has sought to terminate Acis LP as the manager under the Universal/BVK Agreement, and replace Acis LP with Highland Capital or one of its affiliates. Highland Capital's actions involve communications over many months with Universal and BVK, including numerous communications after Highland Capital was terminated as sub-advisor on August 1, 2018 and no longer had any legitimate reason to communicate with Universal or BVK. Highland Capital even prepared and sent to Universal and BVK a new outsourcing agreement, which would be entered once Acis LP and its bankruptcy were out of the way.

255. Acis LP and its estate have suffered and will suffer actual damages as a proximate result of the interference of Highland Capital.

256. The Plaintiffs, now vested with all claims of the Trustee, seek actual and exemplary damages for Highland Capital's tortious interference with the Universal/BVK Agreement.

Count 29: Breach of Contract by Highland Capital under the Sub-Advisory Agreement and Shared Services Agreement
[Against Highland Capital]

257. The Plaintiffs incorporate the preceding paragraphs as if set forth fully herein.

258. Under Texas law, to prevail on a breach of contract claim, a party must show: "(1) the existence of a valid contract; (2) the plaintiff performed or tendered performance as the contract required; (3) the defendant breached the contract by failing to perform or tender performance as the contract required; and (4) the plaintiff sustained damages as a result of the breach." USAA Tex. Lloyds Co. v. Menchaca, 545 S.W.3d 479, 501 n.21 (Tex. 2018).

259. The Sub-Advisory Agreement is a valid contract between Acis LP and Highland Capital, under which Highland Capital was obligated to, inter alia:³⁵

- (i) make recommendations to Acis LP for the purchase, retention, or sale of specific loans or assets in the CLOs;
- (ii) place orders with respect to the purchase or sale of specific loans or assets for the CLOs, upon instruction from Acis LP;
- (iii) identify, evaluate, recommend to Acis LP, and, if applicable, negotiate the structure or terms of investment opportunities for the CLOs;
- (iv) assist Acis LP in performing its due diligence on prospective investments for the CLOs; and

³⁵ Although the Plaintiffs plead herein that certain provisions of the Sub-Advisory Agreement, which are in violation of the LPA, are unauthorized and ultra vires, section 15 of the Sub-Advisory Agreement provides that any such invalid provision does not affect or render "invalid or unenforceable by virtue of the fact that for any reason any other or others of them may be invalid or unenforceable in whole or in part."

(v) provide information to Acis LP regarding any investments in the CLOs, and, if requested by Acis LP, provide information to assist in monitoring and servicing investments by the CLOs.

See Sub-Advisory Agreement § 1(b). Further, "[n]otwithstanding the foregoing, all investment decisions will ultimately be the responsibility of, and will be made by and at the sole discretion of, [Acis LP]." Id.

260. Section 4(a) of the Sub-Advisory Agreement specifically provides:

[T]he Sub-Advisor will perform its obligations [under the Sub-Advisory Agreement] in good faith with reasonable care using a degree of skill and attention no less than that which the Sub-Advisor uses with respect to comparable assets that it manages for others and, without limiting the foregoing, in a manner which the Sub-Advisor reasonably believes to be consistent with the practices and procedures followed by institutional managers of national standing relating to assets of the nature and character of the Portfolios[.]

261. Since at least the time the Trustee was appointed in these Bankruptcy Cases, while acting as sub-advisor, Highland Capital failed to purchase a single loan for the CLOs, and only provided for the sale of loans, in an attempt to complete a stealth liquidation of the CLOs for the Highlands' benefit, and to the detriment of Acis LP. Such practice is inconsistent with the practices and procedures followed by institutional managers of national standing, such as Brigade, relating to assets of the nature and character of the CLOs. Highland Capital's activities are, however, completely consistent with the Highlands' ultimate goal to take away Acis LP's valuable assets and take over Acis LP's valuable business as portfolio manager of the CLOs.

262. Highland Capital grossly mismanaged the CLOs, in abrogation of its duties and disregard of the standard of care under the Sub-Advisory Agreement. Accordingly, Highland Capital has breached its obligations under the Sub-Advisory Agreement, and such breach caused economic damages to Acis LP. Acis LP is therefore entitled to recover, to the fullest extent under applicable law, the amount of such damages from Highland Capital.

263. Further, to the extent any of the above-mentioned acts constitute services Highland Capital asserts it provided pursuant to the Shared Services Agreement, such services failed to meet the "Standard of Care" set forth in the Shared Services Agreement and were committed in bad faith or were the result of gross negligence, fraud, and/or willful misconduct. Highland Capital's breach of the Shared Services Agreement caused economic damages to Acis LP. Acis LP is therefore entitled to recover, to the fullest extent under applicable law, the amount of such damages from Highland Capital.

Count 30: Breach of Fiduciary Duties by Highland Capital
[Against Highland Capital]

264. The Plaintiffs incorporate the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

265. Pursuant to the Sub-Advisory Agreement, a principal-agent relationship existed between Acis LP and Highland Capital. As its investment adviser, Highland Capital owed Acis LP fiduciary duties. See Sec. & Exch. Comm'n v. Capital Gains Research Bureau, Inc., 375 U.S. 180, 191, (1963); Commission Interpretation Regarding Standard of Conduct for Investment Advisers, Release No. IA-5248. 17, C.F.R. Part 276 (June 5, 2019). Further, based on Highland Capital's role as sub-advisor and investment adviser to Acis LP, a special relationship of trust and confidence existed between Acis LP and Highland Capital. See W. Reserve Life Assur. Co. of Ohio v. Graben, 233 S.W.3d 360, 373-74 (Tex. App.—Fort Worth 2007, no pet.). Accordingly, in its capacity of sub-advisor to Acis LP, Highland Capital owed fiduciary duties to Acis LP.

266. Highland Capital, while acting as sub-advisor for Acis LP, purposefully engaged in conduct that was detrimental to Acis LP in order to enrich itself. As outlined in detail above, Highland Capital increased the amount due to Highland Capital under the Sub-Advisory Agreement, including charging amounts far in excess of appropriate market rates and amounts in excess of the compensation limits of the LPA. Highland Capital was also the ringleader, and ultimate beneficiary, for the series of fraudulent schemes executed in the Fall of 2017 that terminated or transferred away Acis LP's valuable rights in the ALF PMA, the ALF Shares, the Note, the 2017-7 Equity and the 2017-7 Agreements. This was done with the very specific intent to make Acis "judgment proof," as Acis's own counsel later boasted, and in order to ensure that Terry would never receive payment on his judgment, as Dondero has threatened. These transfers, while very damaging to Acis LP, also furthered Highland Capital's plan to take over Acis LP's very lucrative portfolio management business and keep it under the control of Highland Capital and Dondero. Finally, Highland Capital sought to transfer the Universal/BVK Agreement away from Acis LP and to itself or an affiliate, including while Highland Capital was serving as sub-advisor (and as a fiduciary) for such agreement.

267. By its actions, Highland Capital specifically intended to cause harm to Acis LP by denuding it of its assets and enriching Highland Capital. In doing so, Highland Capital breached its fiduciary duties to Acis LP.

268. As a consequence, the Plaintiffs, now vested with all claims of the Trustee, are entitled to an award of punitive damages against Highland Capital in an amount to be determined by the Court.

Count 31: Punitive Damages [Against All Defendants]

269. The Plaintiffs incorporate the preceding paragraphs as if set forth fully herein.

270. The Highlands, led by Highland Capital and Dondero, engaged in fraud against Acis and its creditors, acted with malice toward Acis and its creditors, and were, at best, grossly negligent in their dealings with Acis.

271. Further, Plaintiffs are entitled to punitive damages in connection with Highland Capital's: (i) breach of fiduciary duties to Acis due to its fraudulent conduct, (ii) tortious interference, and (iii) violations of TUFTA. See Bombardier Aerospace Corp. v. SPEP Aircraft Holdings, LLC, 572 S.W. 3d 213, 232 (Tex. 2019) (fiduciary duties); Texas Beef Cattle Co. v. Green, 921 S.W.2d 203, 210 (Tex. 1996) (tortious interference); Mullins v. Testamerica, Inc., CIV.A. 3:02-CV-0106-, 2006 WL 2167401, at *10 (N.D. Tex. Aug. 2, 2006) (TUFTA).

272. Thus, the Plaintiffs, now vested with all claims of the Trustee, are entitled to punitive damages, and the Plaintiffs plead for such damages in connection with each Count pleaded herein that will support a claim for punitive damages.

Count 32: Disregarding the Corporate Form/Alter Ego/Collapsing Doctrine/Unjust Enrichment
[Against All Defendants]

273. The Plaintiffs incorporate the preceding paragraphs as if set forth fully herein.

274. Under Texas law, ignoring the separateness of business entities and holding affiliated entities liable for all debts of the fraudulent enterprise is appropriate "when the corporate form has been used as part of a basically unfair device to achieve and inequitable result. Examples are when the corporate structure has been abused to perpetrate a fraud, evade an existing obligation . . . or justify a wrong." SSP Partners v. Gladstrong Inv. (USA) Corp., 275 S.W.3d 444, 451 (Tex. 2008); see also Flores v. Bodden, 488 Fed. App'x 770, 775-76 (5th Cir. 2012) (listing "six situations in which a court may disregard the corporate form"); Bridas S.A.P.I.C. v. Gov't of Turkmenistan, 447 F.3d 411, 416 (5th Cir. 2006) (finding alter ego present).³⁶

³⁶ To the extent Delaware law applies to any of the alter ego claims, Delaware also recognizes alter ego on similar grounds. "Delaware does, however, recognize the traditional alter ego doctrine as grounds to pierce the corporate veil in cases involving the members of a corporate group. To state an alter ego claim under Delaware law, the [plaintiff] must plead (1) that [the] defendants 'operated as a single economic entity' and (2) that an 'overall element

275. Highland Capital, Highland Funding, Highland Adviser, Highland Management, and Highland Holdings (the "Alter Egos") are all controlled by the CEO and ultimate majority owner of Highland Capital, Dondero. Each of the Alter Egos should be held liable for any damages awarded under any Count in this Second Amended Complaint, as each is the alter ego of the others. Further, each of the Alter Egos should be held liable for any debts of the Debtors, as they are also the alter ego of the Debtors.

276. In this case, the Alter Egos unquestionably used the corporate form as a means of perpetuating the fraudulent scheme set forth above. For example, creating shell corporations in the Cayman Islands days after the Arbitration Award in order to avoid payment of Acis's creditors is precisely the type fraud or injustice that warrants disregarding the corporate form. Such actions satisfy, at a minimum, the first three situations in which a court may disregard the corporate form.

277. Further, "multistep transactions can be collapsed when the steps of the transaction are `part of one integrated transaction.'" In re Yazoo Pipeline Co., L.P., 448 B.R. 163, 187 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. 2011) (J. Isgur) (internal citations omitted). The Supreme Court likewise has held that a bankruptcy court, as a court of equity, may look through form to substance when determining the true nature of a transaction as it relates to the rights of parties against a bankrupt's estate. Pepper v. Litton, 308 U.S. 295, 304-05 (1939).

278. The ALF PMA Transfer, the ALF Share Transfer, the Note Transfer, and the transfer of the 2017-7 Equity and the 2017-7 Agreements should be collapsed and recognized for what they are: Highland Capital using offshore entities to take over Acis LP's assets and business while Highland Capital maintains absolute control over such assets and business, and even using

alleged debt owed to Highland Capital as the purported consideration for these transactions in order to mask Highland Capital's otherwise clear liability for avoidable transfers.

279. Finally, unjust enrichment is an equitable theory of recovery holding that one who receives benefits unjustly should make restitution for those benefits. Bransom v. Standard Hardware, Inc., 874 S.W.2d 919, 927 (Tex. App.--Fort Worth 1994). A party is unjustly enriched when it obtains a "benefit from another by fraud, duress, or the taking of an undue advantage." Heldenfels Bros., Inc. v. City of Corpus Christi, 832 S.W.2d 39, 41 (Tex. 1992).

280. Each of the Highlands, and in particular Highland Capital and Highland Funding, benefitted from the ALF PMA Transfer, the ALF Share Transfer, the Note Transfer, and the transfer of the 2017-7 Equity and the 2017-7 Agreements even if they were not the direct transferee. Each of the Highlands should be held liable for benefits unjustly received and make restitution to the Debtors and their estates for those benefits.

Count 33: Willful Violation of the Automatic Stay [Against Highland Capital and Highland Funding]

281. The Plaintiffs incorporate the preceding paragraphs as if set forth fully herein.

282. A willful violation of the automatic stay does not require a specific intent.

Rather, the statute provides for damages upon a finding that the defendant knew of the automatic stay and the defendant's actions which violated the stay were intentional. Whether the party believes in good faith that it had a right to the property is not relevant to whether the act was 'willful' or whether compensation must be awarded.

Campbell v. Countrywide Home Loan, Inc., 545 F.3d 348, 355 (5th Cir. 2008) (quoting In re Chestnut, 422 F.3d.298, 302 (5th Cir. 2005).

283. "It is not up to a party exercising a self-help remedy to determine, to the preclusion of this court, what is or is not property of the estate." Chesnut v. Brown (In re Chesnut), 300 B.R. 880, 887 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2003).

284. Section 362(k)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that "an individual injured by any willful violation of a stay provided by this section shall recover actual damages, including costs and attorneys' fees, and, in appropriate circumstances, may recover punitive damages." The Fifth Circuit has indicated that remedies under 362(k)(1) are available to trustees. St Paul Fire & Marine Ins. Co. v. Labuzan, 579 F.3d 533, 539-540 (5th Cir. 2009). The term "individual" is not defined by the Bankruptcy Code, but it is used throughout the Code to refer to debtors and non-debtors. See Homer Nat'l Bank v. Namie, 96 B.R. 652, 654 (W.D. La. 1989) (citing, inter alia, 11 U.S.C. §§ 522(b) (individual as debtor), 321(a)(1) (individual as trustee)).

285. Further, pursuant to section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, "[t]he Court may issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title." 11 U.S.C. § 105(a). The purpose of section 105(a) is "to assure the bankruptcy courts power to take whatever action is appropriate or necessary in aid of the exercise of their jurisdiction." 2 COLLIER ON BANKRUPTCY ¶ 105.01 (collecting cases). This is consistent with the broad equitable authority of the bankruptcy courts. See United States v. Energy Resources Co., Inc., 495 U.S. 545, 549 (1990).

286. Highland Capital knew the automatic stay was in effect when it intentionally acted, without Court approval, to force the Trustee to effectuate the optional redemptions, including when it demanded on June 20, 2018, that the Trustee take actions to effectuate the optional redemption by June 21, 2018.

287. Highland Funding knew the automatic stay was in effect when it intentionally acted, without Court approval, to force the Trustee to effectuate the optional redemptions, including each occasion described herein when it sent the Trustee the Optional Redemption Notices.

288. Pursuant to section 362(k)(1), the Plaintiffs seek recovery of damages commensurate with its injury, due to Highland Capital's and Highland Funding's violations of the automatic stay. Further, given Highland Capital's and Highland Funding's blatant and willful violation of the automatic stay (as well as the TRO), the Plaintiffs seek attorneys' fees, punitive damages, and sanctions, as the Court finds appropriate, pursuant to section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Count 34: Attorneys' Fees and Costs, Including all Allowed Professionals' Fees and Expenses in the Bankruptcy Cases [Against All Defendants]

289. The Plaintiffs incorporate the preceding paragraphs as if set forth fully herein.

290. Pursuant to Texas Business and Commerce Code section 24.013, Civil Practice and Remedies Code section 38.001, TUFTA, and any other applicable law, the Plaintiffs may recovery attorneys' fees and costs incurred in bringing this Adversary Proceeding.

291. Plaintiffs further seek recovery from Highland Capital of all allowed professionals' fees and expenses in the Bankruptcy Cases, which were losses to Acis resulting from Highland Capital's breach of fiduciary duties to Acis. See Meyers v. Moody, 693 F.2d 1196, 1214 (5th Cir. 1982).

VII. REQUEST FOR DISGORGEMENT

292. The Plaintiffs incorporate the preceding paragraphs as if set forth fully herein.

293. "Under the equitable remedy of disgorgement or fee forfeiture, a person who renders service to another in a relationship of trust may be denied compensation for his service if he breaches that trust." McCullough v. Scarbrough, Medlin & Assocs., 435 S.W.3d 871, 904-05 (Tex. App.—Dallas 2014) (citing Burrow v. Arce, 997 S.W.2d 229, 237 (Tex. 1999)). "The remedy essentially returns to the principal the value of what it paid for because it did not receive the trust or loyalty." McCullough, 435 S.W.3d at 905 (citing Burrow, 997 S.W.2d at 237-38).

"The amount of disgorgement is within the trial court's discretion; the court may 'deny him all compensation or allow him a reduced compensation or allow him full compensation.'" McCullough, 435 S.W.3d at 905 (citing Burrow, 997 S.W.2d at 237 (quoting RESTATEMENT (SECOND) OF TORTS § 243 (1959))).

294. "Equitable disgorgement is distinct from an award of actual damages in that the disgorgement award 'serves a separate function of protecting fiduciary relationships.'" McCullough, 435 S.W.3d at 905 (quoting Saden v. Smith, 415 S.W.3d 450, 469 (Tex. App.—Houston [1st] Dist. 2013, pet. denied)); see also Burrow, 997 S.W.2d at 238 ("[T]he central purpose of the equitable remedy of [disgorgement] is to protect relationships of trust by discouraging agent's disloyalty.").

295. The basis for the disgorgement award against Highland Capital stems from its liability in connection with its breach of fiduciary duty, as pleaded herein, and should be "phrased in terms of the salary, profits or other income [Highland Capital] received during the time [it] committed the tortious conduct." McCullough, 435 S.W.3d at 905 (internal quotation marks omitted).

296. Accordingly, Plaintiffs request disgorgement of all funds received by Highland Capital, who breached its fiduciary duties to Acis.

VIII. REQUEST FOR IMPOSITION OF CONSTRUCTIVE TRUST

297. The Plaintiffs incorporate the preceding paragraphs as if set forth fully herein.

298. "A constructive trust is not a cause of action under Texas law." In re Moore, 608 F.3d 253, 263 (5th Cir. 2010). Rather, "[a] constructive trust is an equitable remedy used to prevent unjust enrichment." Baxter v. PNC Bank Nat'l Ass'n, 541 Fed. App'x 395, 398 (5th Cir. 2013) (citing Everett v. TK-Taito, LLC, 178 S.W.3d 844, 859 (Tex. App.—Fort Worth 2005, no pet.)); see also Messier v. Messier, 458 S.W.3d 155, 164 (Tex. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 2015, no pet.) ("A constructive trust is imposed when one party holds property that legally belongs to the other.")). "In order to establish a constructive trust, the proponent must prove: (1) breach of a special trust, fiduciary relationship, or actual fraud; (2) unjust enrichment of the wrongdoer; and, (3) tracing to an identifiable res." Baxter, 541 Fed. App'x at 398; accord Clapper v. Am. Realty Inv'rs, Inc., 3:14-CV-2970-D, 2015 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 71543, at *26 (N.D. Tex. June 3, 2015).

299. As described herein, Highland Capital breached its fiduciary duties to Acis, and the Highlands acted in concert to perpetrate the series of fraudulent transfers in order to strip Acis of its assets for the benefit of Highlands.

300. The Highlands were unjustly enriched because they benefitted from the "fraud [and] the taking of an undue advantage" against Acis. See Heldenfels Bros., 832 S.W.2d at 41. Each of the Highlands, and in particular Highland Capital and Highland Funding, benefitted from the property transferred, which is traceable and identified herein, as a result of the ALF PMA Transfer, the ALF Share Transfer, the Note Transfer, and the transfer of the 2017-7 Equity and the 2017-7 Agreements even if they were not the direct transferee.

301. Further, Highland Capital, who breached its fiduciary duties to Acis, was unjustly enriched in connection with the Expense Overpayments as well as by the payments received as a result of the modifications to the Sub Agreements, and such benefits may be traced and identified by the payments from Acis LP to Highland Capital under the modified Sub Agreements.

302. Accordingly, the Plaintiffs requests that a constructive trust is established for those benefits unjustly received by the Highlands.

IX. OBJECTIONS TO HIGHLAND CAPITAL PROOFS OF CLAIM

303. The Plaintiffs incorporate the preceding paragraphs as if set forth fully herein.

304. The Highland Capital Claims are allegedly based on claims arising from the Sub-Advisory Agreement and the Shared Services Agreement. The Highland Capital Claims³⁷ are summarized as follows:

Alleged Pre-Petition Claim³⁸	Alleged Claim Amount
Sub-Advisory Agreement	$1,605,362.41
Shared Services Agreement	$1,017,213.62
Total alleged Pre-Petition Claim	$2,622,576.03
Alleged 502(f) Claim³⁹	Alleged 502(f) Claim Amount
Sub-Advisory Agreement	$1,170,147.06
Shared Services Agreement	$ 879,417.29
Total alleged 502(f) Claim	$2,049,564.35
Total Claim Amount	$4,672,140.38

³⁷ Highland Capital filed identical claims against both Acis LP and Acis GP. Acis GP is not a party to the Sub-Advisory Agreement or the Shared Services Agreement. Presumably, Highland Capital is relying on Delaware partnership law to argue that Acis GP is also liable under the Sub-Advisory Agreement and Shared Services Agreement. See 6 Del. C. § 17-403(b) ("Except as provided in this chapter, a general partner of a limited partnership has the liabilities of a partner in a partnership that is governed by the Delaware Uniform Partnership Law in effect on July 11, 1999 (6 Del. C. § 1501 et seq.) to persons other than the partnership and the other partners. Except as provided in this chapter or in the partnership agreement, a general partner of a limited partnership has the liabilities of a partner in a partnership that is governed by the Delaware Uniform Partnership Law in effect on July 11, 1999 (6 Del. C. § 1501 et seq.) to the partnership and to the other partners."); see also 6 Del. C. § 15-306(a) ("(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (b) and (c) of this section, all partners are liable jointly and severally for all obligations of the partnership unless otherwise agreed by the claimant or provided by law"). If this is the case, Acis does not dispute this basic tenet of partnership law; however, Acis disputes the Highland Capital Claims for the reasons set forth herein. Accordingly, all arguments set forth herein are applicable to both Highland Capital Claims.

³⁸ The Alleged Pre-Petition Claim relates to Highland Capital's alleged claim arising prior to the Petition Date.

³⁹ The Alleged 502(f) Claim relates to Highland Capital's alleged claim arising after the Petition Date and prior to April 13, 2018, the date the Court entered the Orders for Relief.

The Highland Capital Claims also include contingent indemnity claims arising under the Sub Agreements.

305. The Highland Capital Claims should be disallowed under (i) section 502(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code; (ii) section 502(b)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code; (iii) and section 502(d) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Highland Capital Claims are unenforceable against the Debtors under the LPA and applicable law. The Highland Capital Claims are for services of an insider of the Debtors and exceed the reasonable value of the services. As set forth above, Plaintiffs have asserted avoidance actions against Highland Capital such that the Highland Capital Claims should be disallowed. Finally, to the extent allowed at all, the Highland Capital Claims should be equitably subordinated under section 510(c) of the Bankruptcy Code.

306. Pursuant to section 502(b) and (d) of the Bankruptcy Code and Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3007, the Plaintiffs seek entry of an order disallowing and expunging the Highland Capital Claims from the Debtors' claims registers.

A. The Highland Capital Claims Should be Disallowed under 11 U.S.C. § 502(b)(1).

307. "Section 502(b)(1) provides that a claim is allowed except to the extent it is unenforceable under applicable law." In re White, No. 06-50247-RLJ-13, 2008 Bankr. LEXIS 167, at *17-18 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. Jan. 28, 2008). "[T]he the validity of a creditor's claims against the debtor at the time the bankruptcy petition is filed 'is to be determined by reference to state law.'" Carrieri v. Jobs.com, Inc., 393 F.3d 508, 529 (5th Cir. 2004) (quoting Kellogg v. United States (In re W. Tex. Mktg. Co.), 54 F.3d 1194, 1196 (5th Cir. 1995)).

308. As set forth more fully above, the Highland Capital Claims are based entirely on amounts alleged to be due pursuant to the Sub Agreements. As outlined in the causes of action above, there are significant amounts due to Acis LP by Highland Capital under or in connection with the Sub Agreements, which constitute a right of recoupment and/or offset to the entirety of the Highland Capital Claims. Further, any portion of the Highland Capital Claims that are based on ultra vires acts, as alleged in Count 1 above, are void or voidable. Accordingly, the Highland Capital Claims are not enforceable under applicable law, and the Highland Capital Claims should therefore be disallowed.

B. The Highland Capital Claims Should be Disallowed under 11 U.S.C. § 502(b)(4).

309. The Highland Capital Claims are claims for services by an insider, Highland Capital, and the Highland Capital Claims exceed the reasonable value of the services provided by Highland Capital. Section 502(b)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code provides, in relevant part, that a claim for services of an insider or attorney of a debtor shall not be allowed to the extent that "such claim exceeds the reasonable value of such services."

310. The purpose of section 502(b)(4) is: "(1) to prevent insiders of a debtor from extracting inflated compensation from the debtor at the expense of the debtor's creditors; and (2) to prevent over-generosity of a debtor prior to a bankruptcy filing." Faulkner v. Canada (In re Heritage Org., L.L.C.), Case No. 04-35574-BJH-11, Adv. No. 04-3338, 2006 Bankr. LEXIS 4662, at *22-23 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. Jan. 5, 2006); see also In re Allegheny Int'l, 158 B.R. 332, 339 (Bankr. W.D. Pa. 1992) ("The purpose underlying 11 U.S.C. § 502(b)(4) is to prevent officers and directors (insiders) of a debtor from extracting inflated amounts for their services at the expense of the creditors.").

1. Highland Capital is an Insider of the Debtors.

311. Under section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code, an insider includes certain enumerated parties, such as an officer of the debtor, affiliate, etc. Further, the list of enumerated "insiders" is not exclusive or exhaustive. See In re Missionary Baptist Foundation of Am., Inc., 712 F.2d 206, 210 (5th Cir. 1983). Recently, the United States Supreme Court stated: "Courts have additionally recognized as insiders some persons not on that [101(31)] list—commonly known as 'nonstatutory insiders.' The conferral of that status often turns on whether the person's transactions with the debtor (or another of its insiders) were at arm's length." U.S. Bank N.A. v. Vill. at Lakeridge, LLC, 138 S. Ct. 960, 963 (2018).

312. The Fifth Circuit has noted that "cases which have considered whether insider status exists generally have focused on two factors in making that determination: (1) the closeness of the relationship between the parties and (2) whether the transaction . . . [was] conducted at arm's length." In re Holloway, 955 F.2d 1008, 1011 (5th Cir. 1992).

313. Highland Capital is a statutory insider, a non-statutory insider, an admitted insider, and an adjudicated insider. The statutory definition of "insider" includes an "affiliate" of the debtor. 11 U.S.C § 101(31)(E). Prior to the entry of the Orders for Relief, Highland Capital met the statutory definition of "affiliate" because Highland Capital "operate[d] the business or substantially all of the property of the [D]ebtor under a[n] . . . operating agreement." See 11 U.S.C § 101(2)(D). Under the Sub Agreements, Acis LP effectively ceded control over its operations to Highland Capital.⁴⁰

314. Highland Capital is a non-statutory insider because Dondero controlled both Acis and Highland Capital prior to the date the Court entered the Orders for Relief. The closeness of the Highland Capital-Acis relationship is demonstrated by the fact that both companies are under Dondero's common control, Acis had no employees and Acis was operated exclusively by Highland Capital employees. Transactions were not conducted at arm's length. Indeed, Dondero signed both the Sub-Advisory Agreement and the Shared Services Agreement for Highland Capital and Acis.

⁴⁰ For purposes of section 502(b)(4), courts examine whether a party is an "insider" on the date the operative document was executed. Here, it is indisputable that Highland Capital was an insider when the Sub-Advisory Agreement and the Shared Services Agreement were executed, and Highland Capital was an insider on the Petition Date. See Faulkner, 2006 Bankr. LEXIS 4662, at *17 ("The determination of insider status is made as of the time the claimant provided services to the debtor."); In re Allegheny Int'l, 158 B.R. 332, 339 (Bankr. W.D. Pa. 1992) ("[T]he relevant time for determining one's status as an insider, under 11 U.S.C. § 502(b)(4), is the time services were rendered and when the compensation contracts for such services were formed[.]").

315. Highland Capital is an admitted insider and an adjudicated insider. During the trial on the involuntary petitions, the Debtors, controlled by Highland Capital, admitted that Highland Capital is an insider of the Debtors.⁴¹ Acis LP's SOFA lists payments to Highland Capital in the section titled "Payments or transfers of property made within 1 year before the filing of this case that benefited any insider." The SOFA is signed by Isaac Leventon, an employee of Highland Capital (who, on information and belief, had no official title or position with the Debtors). Additionally, this Court has found that Highland Capital is an insider of the Debtors, stating: "the court believes it necessary to remove certain insider creditor claims, which are required not to be counted pursuant to section 303(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code. This would clearly include Highland Capital (the Alleged Debtors do not dispute this)." Opinion ¶ 38 (footnotes omitted) (emphasis added).

2. The Highland Capital Claims Exceed the Reasonable Value of the Services Provided.

316. "In analyzing the reasonableness of a claim for services under § 502(b)(4), a court should consider the totality of the circumstances involved at the time that the services were rendered." Faulkner, 2006 Bankr. LEXIS 4662, at *23 (citing In re Gutierrez, 309 B.R. 488, 493 (Bankr. W.D. Tex. 2004)). "Reasonable value" under Section 502(b)(4) is "synonymous with 'market value.'" In re Delta Air Lines, Inc., No. 05-17923 (cgm), 2010 Bankr. LEXIS 233, at *22 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Feb. 3, 2010). "The burden of proof on reasonableness under § 502(b)(4) ultimately lies with the insider." Id. at 24. Thus, Highland Capital has the burden to establish the reasonableness of its claims. Further, when the validity of an insider's contract with a corporation is at issue, the burden is on the insider "not only to prove the good faith of the transaction but also to show its inherent fairness from the viewpoint of the corporation and those interested therein." In re Marquam Inv. Corp., 942 F.2d 1462, 1465 (9th Cir. 1991) (quoting Pepper v. Litton, 308 U.S. 295, 306 (1939)).

317. Together, the Sub Agreements (as amended) charge Acis LP fees far exceeding the market value of the services provided under such agreements. First, the Trustee's professionals engaged in a marketing process in connection with the Brigade Motion. After conducting a diligent search of the market, the Trustee located a replacement for Highland Capital that provided the services Highland Capital previously provided the Debtor for roughly half the cost Highland Capital charged Acis LP. The Sub Agreements also significantly contributed to rendering Acis insolvent. In fact, the General Counsel of Highland Capital, Scott Ellington, admitted that as of February 7, 2018—one week after the Petition Date—Acis was insolvent or close to insolvent.⁴²

318. Highland Capital cannot show that the exorbitant fees charged under the Sub Agreements are reasonable or that entry into such agreements was in good faith and demonstrates inherent fairness. Therefore, pursuant to section 502(b)(4), the Highland Capital Claims should be disallowed in their entirety.

C. Highland Capital Received Voidable Transfers and Holds Property of the Estate, and the Trustee is Entitled to Setoff under Section 502(d) of the Bankruptcy Code.

319. As set out more fully in the causes of action above, the Plaintiffs seek: (i) avoidance of actual and constructively fraudulent transfers and obligations pursuant to sections

⁴² 2-7-18 Transcript at 219: 22-25 (THE COURT: Do you think Acis is in the zone of insolvency? THE WITNESS: I don't know the answer to that, but I would -- I would assume that it was -- that it's close.)

544 and 548 of the Bankruptcy Code, (ii) avoidance of preferential transfers pursuant to section 547 of the Bankruptcy Code; (iii) turnover of property the estate pursuant to section 542 of the Bankruptcy Code; and (iv) liability for the foregoing under section 550 of the Bankruptcy Code.

320. "Under section 502(d), 'the court shall disallow any claim of any entity . . . that is a transferee of a transfer avoidable under section . . . 544 [or 548] of this title, unless such . . . transferee has paid the amount, or turned over any such property.'" In re Consol. Capital Equities Corp., 143 B.R. 80, 84 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 1992) (quoting 11 U.S.C. § 502(d)) (emphasis in original).⁴³ Application of section 502(d) is not restricted to cases where a fraudulent transfer has already been avoided, but rather applies to pending fraudulent transfer claims as well. In other words, the statute does not require that the transfer actually be avoided, only that it be "avoidable." Id. As a result, once a fraudulent transfer claim has been asserted, the mandatory language of section 502(d) requires bankruptcy courts to consider the fraudulent transfer issue as a component of the claims allowance process. U.S. Bank N.A. v. Verizon Communs., Inc., 761 F.3d 409, 419 (5th Cir. 2014) (finding mandatory language of section 502(d) precluded the court from resolving claims where the trustee alleged the claimant was the transferee of a fraudulent transfer). Moreover, the Court may disallow the Highland Capital Claims before adjudicating the causes of action set forth herein. See In re Heritage Org., L.L.C., 375 B.R. 230, 288-289 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2007) (finding a court order avoiding a transfer is not a prerequisite to disallowance of a claim).

321. Thus, pursuant to section 502(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Court should disallow the Highland Capital Claims.

⁴³ "Notwithstanding subsections (a) and (b) of this section, the court shall disallow any claim of any entity from which property is recoverable under section 542, 543, 550, or 553 of this title [11 USCS § 542, 543, 550, or 553] or that is a transferee of a transfer avoidable under section 522(f), 522(h), 544, 545, 547, 548, 549, or 724(a) of this title, unless such entity or transferee has paid the amount, or turned over any such property, for which such entity or transferee is liable under section 522(i), 542, 543, 550, or 553 of this title." 11 U.S.C. § 502(d)

D. The Highland Capital Claims Should be Equitably Subordinated.

322. Section 510(c) of the Bankruptcy Code expressly authorizes subordination of the allowed claim of one creditor to the allowed claims of other creditors "under principles of equitable subordination."

323. In In re Mobile Steel Co., 563 F.2d 692 (5th Cir. 1977), the Fifth Circuit articulated what has become the most commonly accepted standard for equitable subordination of a claim. Under the Mobile Steel standard, a claim can be subordinated if the claimant engaged in some type of inequitable conduct that resulted in injury to creditors (or conferred an unfair advantage on the claimant) and if equitable subordination of the claim is consistent with the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code.

324. During the time it completely dominated control of Acis, Highland Capital clearly engaged in abundant inequitable conduct related to Acis, as well as conferring numerous unfair advantages to itself, which resulted in injury to Acis's creditors. As outlined in detail above, Highland Capital increased the amount due to Highland Capital under the Sub-Advisory Agreement, including charging amounts far in excess of appropriate market rates. This has resulted in a grossly inflated claim for Highland Capital as well as significant overpayments to Highland Capital for whatever services and value it did provide to Acis under these agreements.

325. Highland Capital was also the ringleader, and ultimate beneficiary, for the series of fraudulent schemes executed in the fall of 2017 that terminated or transferred away Acis LP's valuable rights in the ALF PMA, the ALF Shares, the Note, the 2017-7 Equity and the 2017-7 Agreements. This was done with the very specific intent to make Acis "judgment proof," as Acis's own counsel later boasted,⁴⁴ and in order to ensure that Terry and other creditors would never receive payment on his judgment, as Dondero has threatened.⁴⁵ These transfers, while very damaging to Acis LP and its creditors, also furthered Highland Capital's plan to take over Acis LP's very lucrative portfolio management business and keep it under the control of Highland Capital and Dondero. Finally, even during the Bankruptcy Cases, Highland Capital has attempted to transfer and take over Acis LP's very lucrative Universal/BVK Agreement.

326. To the extent the Highland Capital Claims are allowed in any amount, they are subject to equitable subordination and should be subordinated below all other allowed unsecured claims in the bankruptcy case.

X. OBJECTIONS TO HIGHLAND CAPITAL'S ADMINISTRATIVE CLAIM

A. Highland Capital's Administrative Claim is Subject to Disallowance for the Same Reasons the Highland Capital Claims Should be Disallowed.

1. Prevailing on the Causes of Action Set Forth Herein Mandates the Disallowance of Highland Capital's Administrative Claim.

327. In its Application, without specifically citing the causes of actions or making any reference whatsoever to the objections to the Highland Capital Claims contained herein (as they were previously asserted in the Amended Counterclaims), Highland Capital asserts that the Trustee "apparently has furthered a theory that Highland overcharged the Debtors," but must "provide evidence, not simply allegations, to rebut the prima facie case that Highland is entitled to an administrative claim." Application ¶ 33. Highland Capital then rashly contends that the Trustee "has provided no such evidence" and that "the Contracts speak for themselves and are the best evidence of the validity of the claim asserted by Highland." Id. A simple review of the causes of action herein (as well as evidence presented in connection with the involuntary hearings, confirmation hearings, and other hearings during these Bankruptcy Cases) belies its position and demonstrates otherwise.

⁴⁴ See Plaintiff's Motion for Expedited Discovery, Ex. 1 (Declaration of Rogge Dunn) ¶ 4, Terry v. Acis Capital Mgmt., L.P., Cause No. DC-17-15244, 44th District Court of Dallas County, Texas ("On October 31, 2017, counsel for Acis, Jamie Welton, called me on the telephone. In that call, Mr. Welton stated that Acis is 'judgment proof.'").

⁴⁵ See June 28, 2017 Dondero Dep. Tr. 262:2-8 (Ex. 101 from the involuntary trial) ("Nobody's going to let a dime go out of the firm that we don't have to pay ever to – to Josh, period. I mean, it's . . . I think it's personal[.]").

328. As is discussed below, Highland Capital must demonstrate that the services provided conferred a direct and substantial benefit on the Debtors' estates. And before Highland Capital can ask the Court to assess whether its services provided the required direct and substantial benefit, it must first demonstrate that it had the right to even charge the Debtors the amount set forth in the agreements. The causes of action asserted against Highland Capital herein, which dispute the amounts charged by Highland Capital, directly implicate the validity of, and support the disallowance of, the Administrative Claim (just as they refute Highland Capital's purported prepetition claims). The Plaintiffs therefore expressly incorporate Counts 1, 5 – 8, and 27 – 30 herein and specifically raises such Counts as objections to the Administrative Claim asserted by Highland Capital in its Application.

329. If the Plaintiffs prevail on the causes of action against Highland Capital as set forth herein, the basis for allowance of the Administrative Claim would also be invalidated. Moreover, as discussed below, based on such causes of action, the Plaintiffs are entitled to recover millions of dollars in damages, all of which may be offset against the Administrative Claim.

2. Highland Capital's Administrative Claim is Also Subject to Disallowance under Section 502(d).

330. Because Highland Capital is alleged to have received fraudulent transfers, its Administrative Claim is also subject to disallowance under section 502(d) until the property or its value has been returned to the Debtors.

331. Although Highland Capital's Application involves an administrative claim, nothing in section 502(d) limits its application to prepetition claims. MicroAge, Inc. v. Viewsonic Corp. (In re MicroAge, Inc.), 291 B.R. 503, 508 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2002). Section 502(d) by its terms applies to "any claim" and the definition of a "claim" in section 101(5) is sufficiently broad to include requests for payment of expenses of administration. Id. Because the objective of section 502(d) is to encourage transferees to return avoidable transfers to the estate, a number of courts have held that section 502(d) applies to administrative claims. See, e.g., id. at 508-12; In re Georgia Steel, 38 B.R. 829, 839-40 (Bankr. M.D. Ga. 1984) (applying section 502(d) and stating, "[t]he fact that [the] claim is for an administrative expense has no bearing").

332. The Plaintiffs acknowledge that courts are split on the issue of whether section 502(d) applies to administrative expenses. Compare MicroAge, Inc., 291 B.R. at 508-512 (considering split of authority and finding that "the better analysis is that § 502(d) may be raised in response to the allowance of an administrative claim"), and Georgia Steel, 38 B.R. at 839-40 (finding the fact that the claim "is for an administrative expense has no bearing" for purposes of section 502(d)), with In re Plastech Engineered Prods., 394 B.R. 147, 164 (Bankr. E.D. Mich. 2008) (concluding that "§ 502(d) does not apply to the allowance and payment of administrative expenses under § 503(b)"). Although not binding on this Court, the Plaintiffs also note that one bankruptcy court in this district has found that section 502(d) does not apply to administrative claims. Rand Energy Co. v. Del Mar Drilling Co. (In re Rand Energy Co.), 256 B.R. 712, 719 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2000) (Felsenthal, J.).

333. As described above, Highland Capital is the recipient of certain preferential payments and/or fraudulent transfers. Thus, while acknowledging the split of authority on the issue, the Plaintiffs assert that the plain language of section 502(d), as well as the policy underlying section 502(d), requires that Highland Capital's Administrative Claim be disallowed in its entirety.

3. The Indemnity Provisions Relied on by Highland Capital Are Invalid and, in Any Event, Do Not Apply to Highland Capital's Intentional Torts.

334. In the Application, Highland Capital also asserts defenses against the causes of action brought herein pursuant to its purported indemnity rights against the Debtors under section 6.03 of the Shared Services Agreement and section 4(c) of the Sub-Advisory Agreement. Application ¶ 34. Any contention by Highland Capital that it is immune from liability arising from the causes of action brought against it herein due to the indemnity provisions of the Sub Agreements lacks merit. First, the indemnity provisions cited by Highland Capital were included only in the last iteration of the Sub Agreements, in March 2017. Thus, even if valid and applicable (which they are not), such provisions do not cover actions of Highland Capital prior to March 2017. Second, to the extent that the indemnity provisions in the Sub Agreements were included in an attempt to shield Highland Capital from liability in connection with its fraudulent scheme to denude Acis (and were added for no consideration), such provisions were themselves fraudulently incurred and should be avoided pursuant to section 548 of the Bankruptcy Code and sections 24.005 and 24.006 of TUFTA.⁴⁶ Further, the protection Highland Capital seeks is outside the scope of the indemnity provisions, which indemnify Highland Capital in connection with its actions taken as sub-advisor under the Sub Agreements—not in connection with torts and other wrongful conduct intentionally committed against Acis as part of Highland Capital's calculated scheme to denude the estate. Finally, it is against public policy for indemnity provisions in contract to shield a party from intentional tortious conduct. See, e.g., Hamblin v.

⁴⁶ Notably, all versions prior to the last iteration of the Sub-Advisory Agreement (before March 2017) contained no indemnity provision; also, it is telling that the indemnity provisions were added to the Sub-Advisory Agreement and significantly amended in the Shared Services Agreement only after arbitration had been ordered in state court.

Lamont, 433 S.W.3d 51, 55 (Tex. App.—San Antonio 2013, pet. denied); In re Oil Spill by the Oil Rig, 841 F. Supp. 2d 988, 1001-02 (E.D. La. 2012). Accordingly, such provisions are inapplicable as a defense to the causes of action asserted herein against Highland Capital.

B. Highland Capital Cannot Satisfy Its Burden of Proving Its Services Directly and Substantially Benefitted the Debtors' Estates.

1. Administrative Priority Status is Narrowly Construed and Only Awarded Upon a Showing of a Direct and Substantial Benefit to the Estate.

335. Under section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, an administrative expense claim shall be allowed for "the actual, necessary costs and expenses of preserving the estate." 11 U.S.C. § 503(b)(1)(A). The ultimate burden of proof is on Highland Capital to establish it is entitled to an administrative priority claim pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 503(b). See In re Transamerican Natural Gas Corp., 978 F.2d 1409, 1416 (5th Cir. 1992). Further, because section 503 administrative claims are priority claims, which are entitled to special treatment, section 503 must be narrowly construed. See In re Templeton, 154 B.R. 930, 934 (Bankr. W.D. Tex. 2009); see also In re Federated Dep't Stores, Inc., 270 F.3d 994, 1000 (6th Cir. 2001) ("Claims for administrative expenses under § 503(b) are strictly construed because priority claims reduce the funds available for creditors and other claimants.").

336. At a minimum, Highland Capital must establish that "(1) the claim arises from a transaction with the [debtor]; and (2) the goods or services supplied enhanced the ability of the [debtor's] business to function." See Total Minatome Corp. v. Jack/Wade Drilling, Inc. (In re Jack/Wade Drilling, Inc.), 258 F.3d 385, 387 (5th Cir. 2001) (citing Transamerican, 978 F.2d at 1416); see also ASARCO, Inc. v. Elliott Mgmt. (In re ASARCO, LLC), 650 F.3d 593, 601 (5th Cir. 2011) ("Claim under this section 'generally stem from voluntary transactions with third parties who lend goods or services necessary to the successful reorganization of the debtor's estate.'" (quoting Jack/Wade Drilling, 258 F.3d at 387)).

337. Moreover, the benefit is measured from the point of view of the bankruptcy estate, not that of the applicant. In re Premium Well Drilling, Inc., 2012 Bankr. LEXIS 1554, at *9 (Bankr. W.D. Tex. Apr. 10, 2012). "The focus on allowance of administrative claims which enjoy priority over other creditors is to prevent unjust enrichment of the estate. It is not to compensate the creditor . . . for his or her loss." In re Am. Plumbing & Mech., Inc., 323 B.R. 442, 462 (Bankr. W.D. Tex. 2005) (emphasis in original).

2. Highland Capital Cannot Demonstrate It Conferred a Direct and Substantial Benefit on the Debtors' Estates.

338. As set forth herein, as it had done prior to these Bankruptcy Cases, following entry of the Orders for Relief, Highland Capital continued perpetrating its scheme to steal, and otherwise attempted to damage, Acis's business—in order to minimize value for creditors and ensure that Acis could not successfully reorganize—and to line its own pockets. Aside from Highland Capital's actions in sending notices of optional redemption to liquidate the CLOs (without Court approval and in violation of the automatic stay), following entry of the Orders for Relief, Highland Capital also actively mismanaged the Acis CLOs to undermine the business of the Debtors, as evidenced by, inter alia, the vast disparity between the trades made in CLOs 3, 4 5, and 6, as opposed to CLO 7, in 2018, as testified to by Terry at the second confirmation hearing. See Dec. 12, 2018 Hr'g Tr. (AM) at pp. 19-35.

339. Additionally, while mismanaging CLOs 3, 4 5, and 6, Highland Capital sought to carry out its plan "to transfer the BVK investment management agreement from Acis LP to another Highland-affiliated manager."⁴⁷ As explained herein, Highland Capital's attempt to steal BVK's business from Acis began from nearly day one of these Bankruptcy Cases and continued even after Highland Capital was terminated as sub-advisor on August 1, 2018—when Highland Capital no longer had any legitimate reason to communicate with Universal or BVK.

340. Highland Capital's actions during the pendency of these Bankruptcy Cases demonstrate that Highland Capital did not service the Acis CLOs in a way that "enhanced the ability of the [debtor's] business to function." Transamerican, 978 F.2d at 1416. Indeed, Highland Capital acted to destroy the Debtors' business—therefore, Highland Capital's request for allowance of its Administrative Claim must be denied.

341. In its Application, Highland Capital essentially asserts that it provided services to the Debtors on a postpetition basis pursuant to various prepetition agreements and, therefore, the expenses are entitled to administrative priority. In order to qualify as an administrative expense, however, Highland Capital must show that its claim arose postpetition "as a result of actions by the trustee that benefitted the estate." Id. Further, although the terms of the Debtors' prepetition contracts may be probative of the reasonable value of postpetition services, they are not dispositive. In re Am. Plumbing & Mech., Inc., 323 B.R. at 462. Indeed, "all that the estate is required to pay is the reasonable value of those services which were rendered." Id. (emphasis in original) (citing NLRB v. Bildisco & Bildisco, 465 U.S. 513, 531, 104 S. Ct. 1188, 79 L. Ed. 2d 482 (1984)). Consequently, the provisions of the prepetition contracts do not automatically and dispositively translate into an allowed administrative claim. Highland Capital must still demonstrate a quantifiable benefit to the estate.

342. Highland Capital's assertion that its costs were incurred postpetition fails to satisfy its burden of proving entitlement to administrative priority. Specifically, aside from merely referencing the Sub-Agreements and the Universal/BVK Agreement, and contending that monies owed to it under such agreements are an administrative expense, Highland Capital fails to show that (i) such costs were necessary for the preservation of the Debtors' estate, and (ii) the Debtors received any benefit, let alone a direct and substantial benefit, as a result of such services and expenses.

3. The Amount Charged by Highland Capital Was Inflated and Unnecessary.

343. Further, even if Highland Capital could show that, rather than undermining Acis's business, it provided postpetition services that enhanced the ability of Acis to function, to the extent the rates Highland Capital charged Acis were inflated or above market, the amounts charged to Acis under the Sub Agreements did not benefit the estates or its creditors, and such inflated amounts were therefore not necessary. See NL Indus., Inc. v. GHR Energy Corp., 940 F.2d 957, 966 (5th Cir. 1991) ("Courts have construed the words 'actual' and 'necessary' narrowly: the debt must benefit the estate and its creditors."). Indeed, at the July 6, 2018 hearing, regarding approval of the break-up fee and replacement of Highland Capital as sub-servicer with Oaktree, J.P. Sevilla, assistant general counsel for Highland Capital, testified that Highland Capital would reduce its rates charged to Acis LP for sub-servicing from 35 basis points to 17.5 basis points, in order to match competing offers:

Q Okay. Would Highland be willing to reduce its fee during the pendency of the bankruptcy, maybe without its rights to assert the validity of the contract, but would Highland otherwise be willing to assert -- to reduce its fees during the pendency of the bankruptcy?

A I think at the very least Highland would match Saratoga or whatever the 17.5 bps offer is. Again, reserving all rights, but in order to stay in the deal and to establish Highland's commitment to this deal, we would do it for 17-1/2 basis points, no question.

July 6, 2018 Hr'g Tr. at pp. 243-44. Moreover, the effective rate for such services charged by Brigade and Cortland also approached 17.5 basis points.⁴⁸ Accordingly, notwithstanding the objections otherwise raised herein, and assuming the services provided to Acis LP enhanced, rather than undermined, the ability of Acis's business to function, such amounts should be reduced to reflect a rate of at most 17.5 basis points.

4. The Plaintiffs Dispute Highland Capital's Calculation of its Administrative Claim.

344. The Plaintiffs further object to Highland Capital's calculation of the amount of the Administrative Claim. Subject to the objections raised herein, in the Amended Disclosure Statement Pursuant to Section 1125 of the United States Bankruptcy Code with Respect to the Second Amended Joint Plan for Acis Capital Management, L.P. and Acis Capital Management GP, LLC [Case No. 18-30264, Docket No. 621] (the "Disclosure Statement"), the Trustee estimated that under the terms of the Sub Agreements, Highland Capital's alleged Administrative Claim would be approximately $2,612,574.00, rather than $3,007,678.41. Highland Capital fails to explain or substantiate this discrepancy. The Administrative Claim also includes $543,545.88 for expenses. Highland Capital fails to show that these alleged expenses were incurred or payable under the Sub Agreements. See In re Packard Props., Ltd., 118 B.R. 61, 63 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 1990) ("Since this claim is a request for payment of administrative expenses, the [creditor] carries the burden of proof throughout the entire proceeding."). Therefore, in addition to the objections herein, the Plaintiffs also object to Highland Capital's calculation of its purported Administrative Claim.

C. Highland Capital Is Not Entitled to Payment of Any Allowed Administrative Claim Because Acis's Right of Offset and Recoupment May Reduce or Eliminate Its Administrative Claim.

345. Even if the Court were to determine that Highland Capital is entitled to an allowed Administrative Claim, it should not be entitled to payment because Acis has rights of offset and recoupment that may be applied under section 558 of the Bankruptcy Code to reduce or eliminate any allowed Administrative Claim.⁴⁹ As set forth above, Highland Capital charged Acis excessive and unreasonable fees for its services, and Acis has asserted a number of causes of action against Highland Capital for such overcharges, including for recovery of overcharges resulting from ultra vires actions, turnover of unauthorized payments, money had and received, conversion, fraudulent transfer, civil conspiracy, breach of contract, and breach of fiduciary duty. As a result of these overcharges, the Debtors' estates suffered many millions of dollars in damages which should be offset against any valid administrative claim awarded to Highland Capital. Indeed, the causes of action against Highland Capital may offset, or eliminate altogether, any right of recovery Highland Capital may have against the Debtors' estates on account of any Administrative Claim.

D. To the Extent Allowed, Highland Capital's Administrative Claim Should Also Be Equitably Subordinated.

346. In addition to applying equitable subordination to prepetition claims, courts have equitably subordinated administrative claims when the claimant acted in ways to harm the estate. See, e.g., Principal Mut. Life Ins. Co. v. Langhorne (In re 848 Brickell Ltd.), 243 B.R.142, 149 (S.D. Fla. 1998) (holding that while "pursuit of one's legal rights may not be grounds for equitable subordination, the lower court's findings that [the claimant's] protracted and abusive litigation tactics harmed the estate by causing it to incur about $400,000 in fees" justified equitable subordination of its administrative claim).

347. For the same reasons described above with respect to Highland Capital's prepetition claims, Highland Capital's Administrative Claim should also be equitably subordinated to the extent allowed. Further, during these Bankruptcy Cases, the Debtors' estates and the Reorganized Debtors have incurred substantial administrative fees in responding to the protracted and abusive litigation tactics of Highland Capital, including arguing for (and against) injunctive relief to prevent the liquidation of the CLOs and litigating the numerous appeals initiated by Highland Capital against the Trustee. Such litigation tactics by Highland Capital were attempts to thwart the reorganization of the Debtors, damage the estate, and harm its creditors. Accordingly, the Court should equitably subordinate Highland Capital's Administrative Claim. See Principal Mut. Life Ins. Co., 243 B.R. at 149.

⁴⁹ The Plan provided for the payment of allowed administrative claims on (i) the later of the effective date or the tenth business day after the administrative expense is allowed, or (ii) as otherwise agreed in writing between the Reorganized Debtor, or as otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court. See Case No. 18-30264, Docket No. 660 at 11, § 3.01(b).

348. Thus, to the extent the Highland Capital's Administrative Claim is allowed in any amount, it should be subordinated below all other allowed claims in these Bankruptcy Cases.

VI. PRAYER

Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court:

(i) enter judgment declaring that Expense Overpayments made to Highland Capital in excess of 20% of Revenue and any agreements supporting such overpayments were ultra vires and, thus, void or voidable;

(ii) enter judgment against Highland Capital for the recovery of any ultra vires payments made to Highland Capital;

(iii) enter judgment against Highland Capital, Highland Funding, Highland Advisor, Highland Holdings, and Highland Management for the avoidance and recovery of transfers fraudulently made and obligations fraudulently incurred and for civil conspiracy in connection with such fraudulent transfers and schemes;

(iv) enter judgment against Highland Capital, Highland Holdings, and Highland Management for avoidance and recovery of preferential transfers received;

(v) enter judgment against Highland Capital for tortious interference with contract;

(vi) enter judgment against Highland Capital for breach of contract;

(vii) enter judgment against Highland Capital for breach of its fiduciary duties and order disgorgement of all funds received by Highland Capital as a result of such breach;

(viii) enter judgment against Highland Capital and Highland Funding for willful violation of the automatic stay, pursuant to section 362(k) of the Bankruptcy Code;

(ix) enter judgment against Highland Capital, Highland Funding, Highland Advisor, Highland Management, and Highland Holdings for punitive damages;

(x) enter judgment against Highland Capital, Highland Funding, Highland Advisor, Highland Management, and Highland Holdings for pre- and post-judgment interest at the greatest amount permitted by law;

(xi) enter judgment against Highland Capital, Highland Funding, Highland Advisor, Highland Management, and Highland Holdings for all attorneys' fees and costs incurred in connection with the prosecution of this Adversary Proceeding and for all allowed professionals' fees and expenses incurred by the estates in the Bankruptcy Cases;

(xii) establish a constructive trust for all benefits unjustly received by that Highland Capital, Highland Funding, Highland Advisor, Highland Management and Highland Holdings;

(xiii) declare that Highland Capital, Highland Funding, Highland Advisor, Highland Management and Highland Holdings are alter egos of each other, or that the corporate for should otherwise be disregarded, and each is fully liable for any judgment entered for the Plaintiffs in this Adversary Proceeding;

(xiv) disallow, expunge and/or subordinate the Highland Capital Claims;

(xv) deny, disallow, and/or subordinate Highland Capital's Administrative Claim; and

(xvi) grant any other such relief that the Plaintiffs may show themselves to be justly entitled in law or in equity.

RIDER TO THE PROOFS OF CLAIM OF THE REDEEMER COMMITTEE OF THE HIGHLAND CRUSADER FUND

This Rider is part of the proof of claim (the “Proof of Claim”) filed by the Redeemer Committee of the Highland Crusader Fund (the “Redeemer Committee”) against Highland Capital Management, L.P. (“HCM” or the “Debtor”).

On March 6, 2019, a panel of arbitrators issued a Partial Final Award (the “March Award”) in favor of the Redeemer Committee against HCM. On April 29, 2019, the panel issued a Final Award (the “Final Award,” and together with the March Award, the “Arbitration Award”) in favor of the Redeemer Committee against HCM.¹ The Arbitration Award is subject to the Federal Arbitration Act and The Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards. The Redeemer Committee timely moved to confirm the Award in the Delaware Chancery Court. HCM moved for partial vacatur of the Arbitration Award in June 2019. The time period to move to vacate the Arbitration Award expired prior to the Petition Date (as defined below). All capitalized terms that are not defined herein have the meanings given to such terms in the Arbitration Award.

The Redeemer Committee files this Proof of Claim out of an abundance of caution. The Arbitration Award is an executory contract under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. HCM has not yet moved to assume or reject the contract. Accordingly, the deadline to file a proof of claim remains undetermined. By filing the Proof of Claim, the Redeemer Committee does not concede that the amounts awarded under the Arbitration Award are prepetition claims or that it is required to file a proof of claim to be entitled to the amounts described herein. The Redeemer Committee reserves all rights to amend or modify this Proof of Claim in any respect, including to assert other or additional claims, or for the purpose of fixing or liquidating any contingent or unliquidated claims. This Proof of Claim is without prejudice to any other rights the Redeemer Committee may have against the Debtor, its officers, employees, successors, or assigns.

This Proof of Claim includes the following components, and each is based on the Arbitration Award (together, the “Claim”):

1. Damage Claim. The Redeemer Committee asserts a liquidated claim for at least $190,824,557 plus interest that is accruing beginning as of October 16, 2019, the date that HCM filed its bankruptcy case (the “Petition Date”). As set forth in the Final Award, the separate components of the Damage Claim are as follows, and the amounts set forth below are as of the Petition Date, including prepetition interest awarded under the Arbitration Award accrued to the Petition Date:
 - a. Deferred Fee Claim: $43,105,395 (Final Award ¶ F.a.ii.1)
 - b. Distribution Fee Claim: $22,922,608 (Final Award ¶ F.a.ii.2)

- c. Taking of Plan Claims: $3,277,991 (Final Award ¶ F.a.v)
- d. CLO Trades Claim: $685,195 (Final Award ¶ F.a.vi)
- e. Credit Suisse Claim: $3,660,130 (Final Award ¶ F.a.vii)
- f. UBS Claim: $2,600,968 (Final Award ¶ F.a.viii)
- g. Barclays Claim: $30,811,366 (Final Award ¶ F.a.ix)
- h. Legal Fees, Costs, and Expenses: $11,351,850 (Final Award ¶ F.a.xi)
- i. Administrative Fees: $514,164 (Final Award ¶ F.a.xii)
- j. Cornerstone Award: $71,894,891 (Final Award ¶ F.a.ix)

The Redeemer Committee also asserts an unliquidated claim for post-petition interest, attorneys' fees, costs, and other expenses that continue to accrue in connection with the Damage Claim.

2. Cancellation of Limited Partnership Interests. The Final Award provides, in relevant part, for the cancellation of the limited partnership interests in the Crusader Fund that are (i) held by HCM and Charitable DAF Fund, L.P. that are identified in RC411, and (ii) held by Eames, Ltd. (Final Award ¶¶ F.a.v and F.a.x). The Final Award provides for HCM to transfer, or take all necessary steps to cause the transfer of, such interests to the Redeemer Committee for the benefit of the Crusader Fund. The Final Award also provides that the Redeemer Committee has the independent right to cause the Crusader Fund to cancel such limited partnership interests. The Redeemer Committee reserves the right, to the extent required under applicable law, to seek relief from the Bankruptcy Court in order to cancel such limited partnership interests in accordance with the Final Award. The Redeemer Committee asserts a claim in an unliquidated amount in the event all such limited partnership interests are not cancelled in accordance with the Final Award.
3. Deferred Fee Account. The Arbitration Award granted the Redeemer Committee's request for a declaratory judgment with respect to the immediate distribution of the Deferred Fee Account, which the Crusader Fund continues to hold, and ordered the payment of the funds in such account to the Redeemer Committee for disbursement to the Consenting Compulsory Redeemers (March Award ¶ VII.D; Final Award ¶ F.a). The Redeemer Committee reserves the right, to the extent required under applicable law, to seek relief from the Bankruptcy Court in order to cause the distribution of the funds held in the Deferred Fee Account in accordance with the Arbitration Award. The Redeemer Committee asserts a claim in an unliquidated amount in the event all such funds are not distributed in accordance with the Arbitration Award.

The Redeemer Committee expressly reserves all of its procedural and substantive defenses and rights with respect to any claim that may be asserted against the Redeemer Committee by the Debtor, including any rights of setoff or recoupment.

The filing of this Claim shall not constitute: (i) an admission of liability by the Redeemer Committee to any party; (ii) a waiver or release of the Redeemer Committee's rights against any person, entity, or property; (iii) a consent by the Redeemer Committee to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court with respect to the subject matter of this Claim, any objection or other proceeding commenced with respect thereto, or any other proceeding commenced in these cases or otherwise involving the Redeemer Committee; (iv) a waiver of the right to move to withdraw the reference to the subject matter of this Claim, any objection or other proceeding commenced with respect thereto, or any other proceeding commenced in these cases against or otherwise involving any claimant; (v) a waiver of the right to have final orders entered only after de novo review by a United States Judge; (vi) its right to trial by jury in any proceeding so triable in these cases or any case, controversy, or proceeding related to these cases; (vii) its right to arbitration under the Plan and Scheme; (viii) an election of remedies; or (ix) any other rights, claims, actions, defenses, setoffs, or recoupments to which it is or may be entitled under agreements, in law, in equity, or otherwise, all of which rights, claims, actions, defenses, setoffs, and recoupments are expressly reserved.

RIDER TO THE PROOF OF CLAIM OF THE CRUSADER FUNDS

Dated: April 6, 2020

This Rider is part of the proof of claim (the “Proof of Claim”) filed by Highland Crusader Offshore Partners, L.P. (“Master Fund”), Highland Crusader Fund, L.P. (“Onshore Fund”), Highland Crusader Fund, Ltd. (“Offshore Fund I”), and Highland Crusader Fund II, Ltd. (“Offshore Fund II” and together with the Master Fund, Onshore Fund, and Offshore Fund I, the “Crusader Funds”), by and through their authorized investment manager, Alvarez & Marsal CRF Management, LLC, against Highland Capital Management, L.P. (“HCM” or the “Debtor”).

The Crusader Funds’ claim against HCM contains two components (which partially overlap) and a number of sub-components, described below.

I. FORFEITURE OF COMPENSATION

At all relevant times prior to August 4, 2016, HCM served as the investment manager for each of the Crusader Funds, pursuant to the terms of (a) the Joint Plan of Distribution of the Crusader Funds (the “Plan”); (b) the Scheme of Arrangement (the “Scheme”); (c) the Amended and Restated Investment Management Agreement between the Master Fund and HCM, dated as of June 1, 2006 (the “Master Fund IMA”); (d) the Amended and Restated Investment Management Agreement between Onshore Fund and HCM, dated as of June 1, 2006 (the “Onshore IMA”); (e) the Amended and Restated Investment Management Agreement between Offshore Fund I and HCM, dated as of September 1, 2006 (the “Offshore I IMA”); and (f) the Third Amended and Restated Investment Management Agreement between Offshore Fund II and HCM, dated as of September 1, 2006 (the “Offshore II IMA” and together with the Master Fund IMA, the Onshore IMA, and the Offshore I IMA, the “IMAs”). The Plan, the Scheme, and the IMAs are collectively referred to as the “Fund Documents.”

Pursuant to the Fund Documents, HCM received compensation from the Crusader Funds in the form of Management Fees, Distribution Fees, and rights to Deferred Fees (each as defined in the Plan, the Scheme, or the IMAs). However, by no later than January 2012, HCM willfully and deliberately breached its obligations under the Fund Documents and breached its duty of loyalty to the Crusader Funds. At that time, HCM caused the Crusader Funds to borrow on margin from a trading account at Jefferies, and used the borrowings to inflate the amount of distributions being made, so as to inflate the amount of HCM’s Distribution Fee. Following that date, HCM committed other acts of disloyalty and further breached its obligations to the Crusader Funds, as described in the Arbitration Award (as defined below) and as shown by the evidence presented at the arbitration hearing that led to the Arbitration Award.

As a result, pursuant to the “faithless servant” doctrine, HCM forfeited any right it had to compensation for its services from the Crusader Funds, from the date of HCM’s first disloyal act onward. See, e.g., Phansalkar v. Andersen Weinroth & Co., L.P., 344 F.3d 184, 188 (2d Cir. 2003) (“We hold that New York’s faithless servant doctrine requires Phansalkar to forfeit all compensation received after his first disloyal act.”). As a “faithless servant,” HCM is obligated to disgorge all compensation received from the Crusader Funds from the date of HCM’s first disloyal act, and has no right to any further compensation from the Crusader Funds. The Crusader Funds thus assert a claim in the following amounts:

1. Management Fees: $8,233,337
2. Distribution Fees: $15,250,109
3. Deferred Fees: $32,313,000¹
4. Other Fees: In the amount of any other compensation, fees or distributions which may now or in the future otherwise be owing to HCM

The Crusader Funds also assert an unliquidated claim for pre- and post-petition interest, attorneys' fees, costs, and other expenses in connection with recovering such amounts. The Crusader Funds also assert a claim in an unliquidated amount for any Deferred Fees to which HCM might otherwise become entitled in the future under the Fund Documents.

The Crusader Funds currently hold, and may in the future hold, amounts that HCM may claim are, either now or in the future, due to it as a result of services provided by HCM to the Crusader Funds (the “Withheld Amounts”). As a result of the claims detailed in the Arbitration Award and this Proof of Claim (including without limitation, the faithless servant claim), the Crusader Funds dispute that any such amounts are due. However, to the extent that HCM prevails on an entitlement to a claim against the Crusader Funds, the Crusader Funds have a right of setoff against any such claim to the extent of its claims against HCM and such right of setoff is further secured by the Withheld Amounts.

II. ARBITRATION AWARD

This component of the claim is asserted in the alternative to the claim asserted by the Redeemer Committee of the Crusader Funds (the “Redeemer Committee”). The Crusader Funds would withdraw this portion of their claim if and to the extent that the Redeemer Committee’s claim is allowed.

On March 6, 2019, a panel of arbitrators issued a Partial Final Award (the “March Award”) in favor of the Redeemer Committee against HCM. On April 29, 2019, the panel issued a Final Award (the “Final Award,” and together with the March Award, the “Arbitration Award”) in favor of the Redeemer Committee against HCM.² Substantially all of the relief awarded by the panel was expressly noted to be “for the benefit of the Fund.” Final Award ¶¶ F.a.iii-x. The Arbitration Award is subject to the Federal Arbitration Act and The Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards. The Redeemer Committee timely moved to confirm the Award in the Delaware Chancery Court. HCM moved for partial vacatur of the Arbitration Award in June 2019. The time period to move to vacate the Arbitration Award expired prior to the Petition Date (as defined below). All capitalized terms that are not defined below have the meanings given to such terms in the Arbitration Award.

² Copies of the Arbitral Award have previously been provided the Debtor, the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors, and the Office of the United States Trustee. The Crusader Funds reserve the right to file a copy of the Arbitral Award with the Bankruptcy Court.

The Arbitration Award component of the Crusader Funds' claim includes the following sub-components, and each is based on the Arbitration Award:

1. Damage Claim. The Crusader Funds assert a liquidated claim for at least $190,824,557 plus interest that is accruing beginning as of October 16, 2019, the date that HCM filed its bankruptcy case the (the "Petition Date"). As set forth in the Final Award, the separate components of the Damage Claim are as follows, and the amounts set forth below are as of the Petition Date, including prepetition interest awarded under the Arbitration Award accrued to the Petition Date:
 - a. Deferred Fee Claim: $43,105,395 (Final Award ¶ F.a.ii.1)
 - b. Distribution Fee Claim: $22,922,608 (Final Award ¶ F.a.ii.2)
 - c. Taking of Plan Claims: $3,277,991 (Final Award ¶ F.a.v)
 - d. CLO Trades Claim: $685,195 (Final Award ¶ F.a.vi)
 - e. Credit Suisse Claim: $3,660,130 (Final Award ¶ F.a.vii)
 - f. UBS Claim: $2,600,968 (Final Award ¶ F.a.viii)
 - g. Barclays Claim: $30,811,366 (Final Award ¶ F.a.ix)
 - h. Legal Fees, Costs, and Expenses: $11,351,850 (Final Award ¶ F.a.xi)
 - i. Administrative Fees: $514,164 (Final Award ¶ F.a.xii)
 - j. Cornerstone Award: $71,894,891 (Final Award ¶ F.a.ix)

The Crusader Funds also assert an unliquidated claim for post-petition interest, attorneys' fees, costs, and other expenses that continue to accrue in connection with the Damage Claim.

2. Cancellation of Limited Partnership Interests. The Final Award provides, in relevant part, for the cancellation of the limited partnership interests in the Crusader Funds that are (i) held by HCM and Charitable DAF Fund, L.P. that are identified in RC411, and (ii) held by Eames, Ltd. (Final Award ¶¶ F.a.v and F.a.x). The Final Award provides for HCM to transfer, or take all necessary steps to cause the transfer of, such interests to the Redeemer Committee for the benefit of the Crusader Funds. The Final Award also provides that the Redeemer Committee has the independent right to cause the Crusader Funds to cancel such limited partnership interests. The Crusader Funds reserve the right, to the extent required under applicable law, to seek relief from the Bankruptcy Court in order to cancel such limited partnership interests in accordance with the Final Award. The Crusader Funds assert a claim in an unliquidated amount in the event all such limited partnership interests are not cancelled in accordance with the Final Award.
3. Deferred Fee Account. The Arbitration Award granted the Redeemer Committee's request for a declaratory judgment with respect to the immediate distribution of the Deferred Fee Account, which the Crusader Funds continue to hold, and ordered the payment of the funds in such account to the Redeemer Committee for disbursement to the Consenting Compulsory Redeemers (March Award ¶ VII.D; Final Award ¶ F.a). The Crusader Funds reserve the right, to the extent required under applicable law, to seek relief from the Bankruptcy Court in order to cause the distribution of the funds held in the Deferred Fee Account in accordance with the Arbitration Award. The Crusader Funds assert a claim in an unliquidated amount in the event all such funds are not distributed in accordance with the Arbitration Award.

The Crusader Funds file this portion of the Proof of Claim out of an abundance of caution and in the event that the Arbitration Award is determined not to be an executory contract. However, the Arbitration Award may be an executory contract under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. HCM has not yet moved to assume or reject such contract. The Crusader Funds reserve the right to dispute whether the Arbitration Award is an executory contract and, if so, HCM's decision to reject such contract. If the Arbitration Award is determined to be an executory contract and is allowed to be rejected by the Bankruptcy Court, the Crusader Funds reserve the right to file an amended proof of claim by the bar date for the filing of rejection damages claims; if no such amended proof of claim is filed, then, this claim shall serve as the Crusader Funds' rejection damages claim. By filing this Proof of Claim, the Crusader Funds do not concede that the Arbitration Award is an executory contract, that amounts awarded under the Arbitration Award are prepetition claims or that they are now required to file a proof of claim to be entitled to the amounts described in the Arbitration Award.

The Crusader Funds reserve all rights to amend or modify this Proof of Claim in any respect, including, without limitation, to assert other or additional claims, or for the purpose of fixing or liquidating any contingent or unliquidated claims. This Proof of Claim is without prejudice to any other rights the Crusader Funds may have against the Debtor, its officers, employees, successors, or assigns.

The Crusader Funds expressly reserve all of their procedural and substantive defenses and rights with respect to any claim that may be asserted against the Crusader Funds by the Debtor, including, without limitation, any rights of setoff or recoupment.

The filing of this Proof of Claim shall not constitute: (i) an admission of liability by the Crusader Funds to any party; (ii) a waiver or release of the Crusader Funds' rights against any person, entity, or property; (iii) a consent by the Crusader Funds to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court with respect to the subject matter of this Proof of Claim, any objection or other proceeding commenced with respect thereto, or any other proceeding commenced in these cases or otherwise involving the Crusader Funds; (iv) a waiver or release of the right to move to withdraw the reference to the subject matter of this Proof of Claim, any objection or other proceeding commenced with respect thereto, or any other proceeding commenced in these cases against or otherwise involving any claimant; (v) a waiver or release of the right to seek to have the Bankruptcy Court abstain with respect to the subject matter of this Proof of Claim, any objection or other proceeding commenced with respect thereto, or any other proceeding commenced in these cases against or otherwise involving any claimant, (vi) a waiver or release of the right to have final orders entered only after de novo review by a United States District Judge; (vii) a waiver or release of their right to trial by jury in any proceeding so triable in these cases or any case, controversy, or proceeding related to these cases; (viii) a consent to a jury trial in any proceeding so triable in these cases or any case, controversy or proceeding related to these cases, (ix) a waiver or release of their right to arbitration under the Plan and Scheme; (x) an election of remedies or limitation of rights or remedies; or (xi) a waiver or release of any other rights, claims, actions, defenses, setoffs, or recoupments to which they are or may be entitled under agreements, in law, in equity, or otherwise, all of which rights, claims, actions, defenses, setoffs, and recoupments are expressly reserved.

STATEMENT TO ACCOMPANY PROOF OF CLAIM

IFA is the payee under a November 29, 2007 note (the “IFA Note”) in the original principal amount of $23,100,000 (attached hereto as Exhibit 1¹) executed by Essex Real Estate Partners, LLC (“Essex”). A second note (the “Highland Note”) in the original principal amount of $42,900,000 was executed by Essex payable to The Foothill Group, Inc., but subsequently assigned, first to Highland Crusader Holdings Corporation and Highland Credit Opportunities Holding Corporation and then to various CLO entities, Westchester CLO, Ltd, Gleneagles CLO, Ltd, Stratford CLO, Ltd, Greenbriar CLO, Ltd, Eastland CLO, Ltd, Brentwood CLO, Ltd, Jasper CLO, Ltd, Longhorn Credit Funding LLC, Grayson CLO, Ltd., and Red River CLO, Ltd. (collectively, the “Highland Investors” and, together with IFA, the “Lenders”). Pursuant to the underlying Term Loan Agreement, NexBank, LLC (“NexBank”) is the Agent for the Lenders under the Term Loan Agreement. Debtor, which is jointly controlled with NexBank, acts on behalf of the Lenders. As detailed by the complaint attached hereto as Exhibit 2 (without its exhibits), NexBank has not fulfilled its duties to IFA, to IFA’s expense and detriment. Further, Essex has alleged in a separate complaint, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 3 (without Exhibits) that, as a result of NexBank’s failure to foreclose on the collateral for the IFA Note and the Highland Note, those notes are uncollectible and the related deed of trust unenforceable. Essex further alleges that NexBank’s refusal to release the deed of trust entitles Essex to an award of damages.

NexBank has asserted that all of its actions (and inactions) which are the subject of the Complaints were undertaken pursuant to directions and control of the “Required Lenders.” Debtor has, at all times, acted on behalf of the Highland Lenders and asserted that such directions constitute directions from the “Required Lenders”.

As a result of the allegations of the two complaints, IFA has incurred significant attorneys’ fees and damages, and faces the risk of losing its ability to collect on the IFA Note and/or to realize upon the deed of trust securing the IFA Note. NexBank asserts that the total amount due is $584,462,133.68. See NexBank Proof of Claim and Exhibit E thereto, attached hereto as Exhibit 4. IFA’s portion of that amount, less interest accruing on the IFA Note between Debtor’s bankruptcy filing and the Essex bankruptcy filing, plus estimated fees and expenses incurred and to be incurred by IFA as a result of the wrongful conduct of Debtor and NexBank, totals approximately $241,002,696.73.²

IFA reserves the right to amend this claim, including upon completion of the underlying litigation referenced herein.

² 41.06% of $584,462,122.88 (= $243,136,247.61), less approximately $3,133,550.88 in interest accrued between October 16, 2019 (Debtor’s petition date) and December 27, 2019 (the Essex Petition Date), plus $1,000,000 estimated attorneys’ fees and expenses incurred, and which will be incurred, by IFA as a result of the wrongful conduct of Debtor and NexBank.

002504

DEED OF TRUST NOTE

$23,100,000

November 29, 2007

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, ESSEX REAL ESTATE PARTNERS, LLC, a Nevada limited-liability company ("Borrower," whether one or more) hereby promises to pay to the order of INTEGRATED FINANCIAL ASSOCIATES, INC., a Nevada corporation ("Lender") under that certain Loan Agreement (defined below) among Borrower, NEXBANK, SSB, as the collateral agent and administrative agent (together with any and all of its successors and assigns, "Agent") as agent for the benefit of the lenders (collectively, "Lenders") from time to time a party to that certain Term Loan Agreement (the "Loan Agreement") dated November 29, 2007, without offset, in immediately available funds in lawful money of the United States of America, at Agent's Office as defined in the Loan Agreement, the principal sum of TWENTY THREE MILLION ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND AND 00/100 DOLLARS ($23,100,000) (or the unpaid balance of all principal advanced against this Note, if that amount is less), together with interest on the unpaid principal balance of this Note from day to day outstanding as hereinafter provided.

1. Note; Interest; Payment Schedule and Maturity Date. This Note is the Note referred to in the Loan Agreement and is entitled to the benefits thereof and subject to prepayment in whole or in part as provided therein. The entire principal balance of this Note then unpaid shall be due and payable at the times set forth in the Loan Agreement. Accrued unpaid interest shall be due and payable at the times and at the interest rate(s) set forth in the Loan Agreement until all principal and accrued interest owing on this Note shall have been fully paid and satisfied. Any amount not paid when due and payable hereunder shall, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, bear interest and, if applicable, a late charge as set forth in the Loan Agreement.

2. Security; Loan Documents. The security for this Note includes a Deed of Trust, Assignment of Rents and Leases, Security Agreement and Fixture Filing (which, as it may have been or may be amended, restated, modified or supplemented from time to time, is herein called the "Deed of Trust") dated November 29, 2007 herewith from Borrower to Chicago Title Company, Trustee, covering certain property in the City of Henderson County of Clark, State of Nevada, described therein (the "Property"). This Note, the Deed of Trust, the Loan Agreement and all other documents now or hereafter securing, guaranteeing or executed in connection with the loan evidenced by this Note (the "Loan"), as the same have been or may be amended, restated, modified or supplemented from time to time, are herein sometimes called individually a "Loan Document" and together the "Loan Documents." Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Environmental Indemnity Agreement dated November 29, 2007 ("Environmental Indemnity Agreement") is not a Loan Document.

3. Defaults.

(a) It shall be a default ("Default") under this Note and each of the other Loan Documents if (i) any principal, interest or other amount of money due under this Note is not paid in full within ten (10) days of the date when due, regardless of how such amount may have become due, (ii) any covenant, agreement, condition, representation or warranty herein or in any other Loan Document is not fully and timely performed, observed or kept, subject to any applicable grace or cure periods, or (iii) there shall occur any default or event of default under the Deed of Trust or any other Loan Document, subject to any applicable grace or cure periods. Upon the occurrence of a Default, Agent on behalf of Lenders shall have the rights to declare the unpaid principal balance and accrued but unpaid interest on this Note, and all other amounts due hereunder and under the other Loan Documents, at once due and payable (and upon such declaration, the same shall be at once due and payable), to foreclose any liens and security interests securing payment hereof and to exercise any of its other rights, powers and remedies under this Note, under any other Loan Document, or at Law or in equity.

(b) All of the rights, remedies, powers and privileges (together, "Rights") of Agent on behalf of Lenders provided for in this Note and in any other Loan Document are cumulative of each other and of any and all other Rights at Law or in equity. The resort to any Right shall not prevent the concurrent or subsequent employment of any other appropriate Right. No single or partial exercise of any Right shall exhaust it or preclude any other or further exercise thereof, and every Right may be exercised at any time and from time to time. No failure by Agent or Lenders to exercise, and no delay in exercising any Right, including the right to accelerate the maturity of this Note, shall be construed as a waiver of any Default or as a waiver of any Right. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing provisions, the acceptance by Lender from time to time of any payment under this Note which is past due or which is less than the payment in full of all amounts due and payable at the time of such payment, shall not (i) constitute a waiver of or impair or extinguish the right of Agent or Lenders to accelerate the maturity of this Note or to exercise any other Right at the time or at any subsequent time, or nullify any prior exercise of any such Right, (ii) constitute a waiver of the requirement of punctual payment and performance or a novation in any respect, or (iii) in any way excuse the existence of a Default.

(c) If there is a prevailing party in any lawsuit, reference or arbitration arising out of or relating to this Note, the Loan Documents or the Loan, such prevailing party shall be entitled to recover from each other party such sums as the court, referee or arbitrator may adjudge to be reasonable attorneys' fees in the action, reference or arbitration, including the market value of services of in-house counsel, in addition to costs and expenses otherwise allowed by law. In all other situations, Borrower agrees to pay all costs and expenses of the holder of this Note which may be incurred in enforcing or protecting the rights or interests of such holder, including attorneys' fees and expenses (including the market value of services of in-house counsel), investigation costs and all court costs, whether or not suit is filed hereon, whether before or after the Maturity Date defined in the Loan Agreement, or whether in connection with bankruptcy, insolvency or appeal, or whether collection is made against Borrower or any guarantor or endorser or any other person primarily or secondarily liable hereunder. From the time(s) incurred until paid in full to the holder of this Note, all such sums shall bear interest at the Past Due Rate defined in the Loan Agreement.

4. Heirs, Successors and Assigns. The terms of this Note and of the other Loan Documents shall bind and inure to the benefit of the heirs, devisees, representatives, successors and assigns of the parties. The foregoing sentence shall not be construed to permit Borrower to assign the Loan except as otherwise permitted under the Loan Documents. As further provided in the Loan Agreement, a Lender may, at any time, sell, transfer, or assign all or a portion of its interest in this Note, the Deed of Trust and the other Loan Documents, as set forth in the Loan Agreement.

5. General Provisions. Time is of the essence with respect to Borrower's obligations under this Note. If more than one person or entity executes this Note as Borrower, all of said parties shall be jointly and severally liable for payment of the indebtedness evidenced hereby. Ltd., Gleneagles CLO, Ltd., Stratford CLO, Ltd., Greenbriar CLO, Ltd., Eastland CLO, Ltd.,

1 Brentwood CLO, Ltd., Jasper CLO, Ltd., Longhorn Credit Funding LLC, Grayson CLO, Ltd.,
2 and Red River CLO, Ltd. (collectively, the "Highland Lenders") pursuant to the term loan
3 agreement between and among certain parties, including IFA, NexBank, Highland Financial 4 Corp. ("HC"); and Essex Real Estate Partners, LLC ("Essex"), dated November 29, 2007 (the 5 "Loan Agreement").

15 II.

16 COMMON FACTS

17 A. IFA's Operation as a Licensed Mortgage Broker

18 6. IFA is a licensed mortgage broker whose business has, throughout its history, 19 included the origination, brokering, and servicing of loans secured by real property.

20 7. The average loan brokered by IFA ranged between $500,000 - $10,000,000,

21 8. IFA would identify lending opportunities, with funding to come primarily from 22 investors who would purchase undivided fractional interests in the loan.

23 9. Each investor was assigned a beneficial interest in the loan they desired to 24 invest in, and that assignment was recorded with the county recorder's office in the county
25 where the property was located.

1 10. In many cases IFA was also an investor and held a fractional interest in the 2 loan along with other investors.

3 11. IFA also serviced the loans it originated, and typically received an annual loan
4 servicing fee equal to 0.5% of the loan amount.

5 B. IFA is Approached to Assist With Funding the Essex Loan

6 12. IFA was approached by George Holman ("Holman") in July 2007 about a land
7 deal he was structuring with KB Home Nevada, Inc. ("KB Home") to acquire 100+ acres in 8 the Inspirada Town Center project located in Henderson, NV.

9 13. IFA reviewed the proposal but determined that IFA was not in a position to 10 fund such a large loan.

11 14. Holman went back to KB Home and reduced the acquisition to 83.8 acres for 12 $62 million. The purchase agreement provided that KB Home would receive $55 million at 13 the close of escrow and accept a subordinated note for $7 million.

14 15. IFA was still not able to raise sufficient investor funds to finance the 83.8 acre 15 acquisition.

16 C. Highland Capital Is Approached to Provide Additional Investors for the 17 Essex Loan; NexBank and Highland are Aware That IFA is Providing Investor
18 Funding

19 16. Holman met with Highland Capital Management, L.P. ("Highland Capital"), a 20 multi-billion dollar, Dallas based, hedge fund that was, at the time, very aggressively lending 21 in the Las Vegas area.

22 17. Highland Capital was co-founded by James Dondero and Mark Okada.

23 18. The terms of the loan provided for $55 million to be paid to KB Home and an 24 additional $11 million be held to provide for an interest reserve, closing costs and origination

1 fees for a total of $66 million. Highland Capital agreed to fund 65% of the transaction in the 2 sum of $42.5 Million, so long as IFA funded the remaining 35% in the sum of $23.1M.

3 19. Upon information and belief, the funding provided by Highland Capital was 4 provided by investors in various funds which are affiliates of, and managed by, Highland 5 Capital (the "Highland Funds").

6 20. The Highland Funds are identified as Brentwood CLO, Ltd.; Eastland CLO, 7 Ltd.; Gleneagles CLO, Ltd.; Grayson CLO, Ltd.; Greenbriar CLO, Ltd.; Jasper CLO, Ltd.;
8 Longhorn Credit Funding, LLC; Red River CLO, Ltd.; Stratford CLO, Ltd.; and Westchester 9 CLO, Ltd.

10 21. Highland Capital and Highland Financial were advised and aware, from the 11 very beginning of their discussions with IFA, that IFA was a Nevada licensed mortgage 12 broker under NRS 645B and had to comply with Nevada law relative to this loan.

13 D. Highland Requires that the Participation Agent be NexBank

14 22. Highland Capital required that NexBank be used as the Administrative Agent
15 for the Essex Loan.

16 23. James Dondero, in addition to being a principal in and President of Highland 17 Capital, is the Chairman of the Board of NexBank, and Mark Okada, a principal in Highland 18 Capital, sits on the Board of Directors of NexBank.

19 24. Scott Ellington is the Secretary and General Counsel of Highland Capital.

20 25. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Highland Capital
21 owns a substantial interest in NexBank.

22 26. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Highland Capital
23 exerts control over NexBank.

24 27. IFA provided a form participation agreement in connection with the Essex 25 Loan. Highland Capital and NexBank refused to utilize the form of agreement proposed by

1 IFA. Instead, they provided their own form of agreement, which was wholly drafted by 2 NexBank and/or Highland Capital.

3 E. IFA and Highland Provide Investor Funding for the Essex Loan

4 28. Holman formed Essex to acquire 83.39 acres of real property (the "Essex
5 Property" or the "Collateral") in the "Town Center" portion of the Inspirada development in 6 Henderson, NV from KB Home.

7 29. In or around November of 2007, IFA and the Highland Lenders and/or other 8 affiliates of Highland Capital collectively loaned Essex approximately $66 million (the 9 "Essex Loan") to finance the purchase of the Essex Property, taking a deed of trust on the 10 Essex Property (the "Deed of Trust").

11 30. The Highland Lenders loaned $42.5 million and the Foothill Group, Inc., 12 another Highland affiliate, received a note for that amount (the "Highland Note"). IFA and its 13 investors loaned $23.1 million and received a separate Note for that amount (the "IFA Note").

14 31. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that the Foothill Group, 15 Inc. assigned its interest in the Highland Note to Highland Crusader Holding Corporation and 16 Highland Credit Opportunities Holding Corporation on or about April 14, 2008.

17 32. The Highland Note and the IFA Note are both secured by the Deed of Trust.

18 33. Of the $23.1 million representing the consideration for the IFA Note, 19 approximately $5.8 million was funded by IFA with its own money.

20 34. Approximately $14.3 million of the funds comprising the IFA Note came from 21 monies which had been provided by investors specifically for the purpose of funding the 22 Essex Loan. Those funds were invested in exchange for assignments of undivided beneficial
23 interests in a portion of the IFA Note.

24 35. Vestin Realty Mortgage Inc., II ("Vestin"), as an additional investor in IFA's 25 portion of the loan, separately funded $3 million directly into the loan escrow.

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I, the undersigned, hereby certify that, on December 7, 2020, a true and correct copy of the foregoing document was served via the Court's CM/ECF system on counsel for Debtor-Appellee Highland Capital Management, L.P. and on all other parties requesting or consenting to such service in this case.

1 36. As per IFA's business model, the assignments of the undivided interests in the 2 IFA Note (the "Assignments") included assignments of an undivided interest in IFA's
3 beneficial interest under the Deed of Trust securing the IFA Note.

4 F. As Required by Law, IFA Recorded the Investor Assignments

5 37. NRS 645B.310(3) requires that, in connection with an assignment of an 6 interest in a loan by a licensed Mortgage Broker, the Mortgage Broker must record the 7 assignment in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the real property is 8 located.

9 38. Thus, pursuant to Nevada law, IFA was required to record the Assignments of 10 the percentage beneficial interests in the IFA Note secured by the Deed of Trust.

11 39. IFA recorded the Assignments with the Clark County Recorder.

12 G. KB Home Undermines the Value of the Collateral

13 40. The value of the Essex Property was derived in part from an existing obligation
14 of KB Home and others to construct major infrastructure improvements on the Town Center
15 project pursuant to an approved schedule and budget.

16 41. However, within three months following the purchase by Essex of the Essex
17 Property, KB Home purported to enter into a contract, or contract revision, to relieve itself of 18 its obligation to build the infrastructure, decimating the value of the Essex Property.

19 H. Essex, NexBank, Highland, and IFA Sue KB Home

20 42. On June 30, 2008, Essex, et. al, commenced a lawsuit against KB Home, as 21 Case #08A566442 in the Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County, Nevada (along with the 22 additional claims discussed in this section, the "Essex Litigation").

23 43. On November 4, 2008, Integrated Financial Associates, Inc. commenced a 24 separate lawsuit against KB Home, as Case #08A574976 in the Eighth Judicial District Court, 25 Clark County, Nevada (the "Court").

1 44. On or about July 7, 2009, the Court issued an order consolidating Case
2 #08A566442 with Case #08A574976.

3 45. IFA is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Essex assigned the 4 beneficial interest in its claims against KB Home to IFA and the Highland Lenders.

5 46. On or about July 30, 2010, the Court granted a motion to intervene in the 6 consolidated Essex Litigation filed by NexBank, SSB; Westchester CLO, Ltd.; Gleneagles
7 CLO, Ltd.; Stratford CLO, Ltd.; Greenbriar CLO, Ltd.; Eastland CLO, Ltd.; Brentwood CLO,
8 Ltd.; Jasper CLO, Ltd.; Longhorn Credit Funding LLC; Grayson CLO, Ltd.; and Red River
9 CLO, Ltd. (collectively, the "Highland Plaintiffs").

10 47. The law firms of Lackey Hershman and Hutchison & Steffan (collectively, the 11 Law Firms") represented IFA, the Highland Plaintiffs, and NexBank with regard to the Essex
12 Litigation, pursuant to contingency fee agreements with respect to any actual recovery from 13 KB Home in the Essex Litigation.

14 I. IFA Files Bankruptcy; NexBank Accepts the Benefit of the Automatic 15 Stay to Stop a Tax Sale of the Essex Property; NexBank is Again Informed of the 16 Assignments During the Bankruptcy.

17 48. Although the funds provided by Vestin to fund its percentage interest in the 18 IFA Note were intended to be short term bridge funds, IFA was unable to raise the capital to 19 repay Vestin in a timely manner, and Vestin brought suit against IFA, resulting in a 20 substantial judgment. This led IFA to file for chapter 11 bankruptcy protection in 2011 (the 21 "Bankruptcy").

22 49. Throughout IFA's Bankruptcy, IFA disclosed to Highland Capital and 23 NexBank that it had issued and recorded Assignments to the investors in the Essex Loan.

1 50. In addition to disclosing the Assignments in its Disclosure Statement, IFA had 2 numerous communications about this issue with the principals of NexBank and Highland
3 Capital during the Bankruptcy.

4 51. One of the issues which arose during the Bankruptcy was Clark County's 5 purported commencement of foreclosure proceedings for delinquent taxes on the Real
6 Property securing the Essex Loan. IFA argued, to the benefit of NexBank and the Highland 7 Lenders, that such foreclosure was a violation of the automatic stay, since IFA retained an 8 approximate $5.8 million interest in the Deed of Trust.

9 52. On March 16, 2012, IFA's counsel wrote to Clark County's attorney
10 specifying that "IFA assigned beneficial interests totaling $17,289,622.57".

11 53. A true and correct copy of the letter referenced in the preceding paragraph is 12 attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

13 54. A copy of Exhibit 1 was also sent to Jeff Scott of NexBank and Jim Pfertner of 14 Highland Capital.

15 55. Both NexBank and Highland Capital also received a copy of IFA's Motion for 16 Order Enforcing Automatic Stay and for Sanctions filed in its Bankruptcy, which reflected 17 that IFA retained a $5.8 million interest in the Essex Loan.

18 56. IFA coordinated its efforts to reverse the tax sale not only with NexBank and 19 Highland, but with Kennedy Barnes of the Lackey Hershman firm, which represented
20 NexBank and the Highland Plaintiffs (and IFA) in the Essex Litigation. In May 2012, as a 21 direct result of IFA's involvement, the Clark County Treasurer reversed the foreclosure
22 proceedings and deeded title to the Real Property back to Essex.

23 57. In short, NexBank had actual knowledge about the assignments, and accepted
24 the benefits of IFA's Bankruptcy, all while never raising any concerns regarding whether it
25 received "prior" notice of the Assignments or whether the Assignments were proper.

J. The Firms Representing IFA, NexBank and the Highland Plaintiffs Against KB Home Are Employed by the Bankruptcy Court, With Expenses to be Paid By the Other Plaintiffs

58. The employment of the Law Firms in IFA's Bankruptcy was approved by Bankruptcy Court orders which included: "the express condition that all expenses incurred with the employment of [Lackey Hershman, LLP and Hutchison & Steffen, LLC] be paid by other plaintiffs and/or the promissory note beneficiaries and not by the Debtor in this action."

K. NexBank Falsely Asserts that IFA is Required to Pay Costs, and Grossly Inflates the Numbers, as a Pretext to Disenfranchising IFA

59. Notwithstanding the agreement, which was incorporated into the Bankruptcy Court orders that NexBank and the Highland Plaintiffs would pay expenses associated with the Essex Litigation, on July 1, 2014, Brian Wick, Counsel for NexBank, demanded payment from IFA in violation of the Bankruptcy Court's orders.

60. A true and correct copy of Mr. Wick's July 1, 2014 Correspondence (the "Demand Letter") is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.

61. The Demand Letter states, in part, "NexBank hereby makes demand that IFA immediately pay to NexBank for IFA's share of all legal fees and costs incurred in the Litigation."

62. The Demand Letter, while providing no legal invoices, backup, or proof of payments advanced, asserted that legal "fees" (notwithstanding that counsel is on a contingency) and costs had been incurred in the amount of $1,164,291.40.

63. In the Demand Letter Mr. Wick "demanded" that IFA pay sums to NexBank on or before July 1, 2014 (the same day that the letter was written).

64. The Demand Letter was sent on behalf of NexBank

65. The Demand Letter was sent by NexBank's authorized Agent.

1 66. IFA made at least six separate requests over 2 ½ years, commencing in July of 2 2014, for copies of invoices and other documents demonstrating amounts that NexBank
3 asserted were due from IFA.

4 67. No report or detail of any purported fees or expenses was provided to IFA until 5 a partial invoice (the "Invoice") was attached to correspondence from LH sent on February 8, 6 2017.

7 68. A true and correct copy of the February 8, 2017 correspondence, with the 8 enclosed Invoice, is attached hereto as Exhibit 3.

9 69. When the Invoice was finally provided on February 8, 2017, the total expenses
10 were $835,526.22 (not over $1.164 million as had been represented by NexBank).

11 70. The purported expenses listed in the Invoice include routine charges of what 12 appear to be excessive/luxury travel expenses, including over $100,000 in what appears to be 13 first class air fare, with such air fare charges ranging from over two thousand dollars to over 14 $11,000 for a single trip.

15 71. The Invoice reflected numerous payments to third parties with no explanation
16 of the basis, including (but not limited to) payments to HS totaling approximately $42,108.10;
17 payments to Duff & Phelps totaling approximately $185,952.55 (including two identical 18 payments of $13,430 on 1/31/14 and 3/31/14); payments to George Smith Partners, Inc. of 19 approximately $70,177.54; payment to Bell Nunnally & Martin LLP of $6,038.89; and a 20 payment to Keith Beckman of $6,000 (labeled only "reimbursement").

21 72. With the exception of HS, none of the payees listed in the preceding paragraph 22 were employed or authorized by the Bankruptcy Court to perform services on behalf of, or at 23 the expense of, IFA.

24 73. Although HS was employed by order of the Bankruptcy Court, IFA still has 25 never received any detail explaining the basis for the charges or expenses purportedly

1 incurred by, or any payments allegedly made to, that firm, which is required under 2 Bankruptcy Law.

3 74. IFA is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that NexBank is in 4 possession of the information described in this Section but, in violation of the Loan
5 Agreement and of its duties to IFA as Agent, NexBank has refused to provide it to IFA.

6 L. NexBank Excludes IFA From Efforts to Realize the Full Value of the 7 Collateral, and Refuses to Inform IFA of its Activities Relative to the Essex
8 Litigation and the Essex Loan.

9 75. On May 30, 2014, Agent, via Mr. Wick, sent correspondence to IFA
10 demanding that it “cease and desist” from engaging in any settlement communications with 11 respect to the Essex Litigation.

12 76. IFA responded on June 27, 2014, advising Agent that IFA had not been 13 involved in any such communications other than those involving representatives of Highland 14 Capital, LH and HS. IFA also pointed out that Agent was to act with the consent of the 15 lenders, including IFA.

16 77. Instead of recognizing its obligations to IFA, Agent responded by purporting to 17 “instruct IFA to cease and desist from further attempts to direct, control or otherwise
18 influence matters relating to the Loan Agreement, the underlying property, and the KB Home
19 litigation”, threatening to, inter alia, seek injunctive relief and recovery of attorneys’ fees”
20 against IFA.

21 78. Agent’s actions toward IFA were inappropriately hostile, and in complete 22 derogation of its duties as IFA’s agent.

23 79. Agent’s improper conduct, in violation of both the express and implied terms
24 of the Loan Agreement and in violation of the Bankruptcy Court orders, required IFA to 25 engage counsel, who wrote to Agent, via its counsel, on July 9, 2014.

1 80. By that correspondence IFA requested, inter alia, that Agent confirm that it
2 was not engaging in settlement discussions without consultation of IFA, reminding Agent of 3 the provisions of the Loan Agreement providing for IFA to have the right to investigate and 4 consult with respect to the Essex Loan, and suggesting that Agent adopt a cooperative
5 relationship with IFA.

6 81. A true and correct copy of IFA's July 9, 2014 correspondence to NexBank is
7 attached hereto as Exhibit 4.

8 82. NexBank refused to respond to or comply with IFA's July 9, 2014 requests.

9 83. On July 30, 2014, IFA, via its counsel, reminded Agent in writing that IFA was 10 entitled to participate in any settlement discussions, and reminded Agent that IFA had not 11 received the accounting previously requested.

12 84. A true and correct copy of IFA's July 30, 2014 correspondence to NexBank is
13 attached hereto as Exhibit 5.

14 85. Agent refused to respond to or comply with IFA's July 30, 2014 requests.

15 86. On September 3, 2014, without consulting with IFA, and in violation of the 16 provisions of the Loan Agreement setting forth the process of foreclosure and subsequent 17 marketing of the Collateral, NexBank offered to sell the Collateral (which it did not own) to 18 KB Home for the amount of $21,750,000, and also offered to "finance" the purchase price for 19 one year (by extending the time for payment to IFA, also in contravention of the terms of the 20 Loan Agreement).

21 87. Via correspondence dated September 9, 2014, IFA again requested that 22 NexBank consult with IFA prior to taking any action which could impair or materially affect 23 IFA's interests in connection with the Essex Loan or the Essex Litigation, and provide copies 24 of all documents and communications (past or future) with respect thereto.

1 88. A true and correct copy of IFA's September 9, 2014 correspondence is
2 attached hereto as Exhibit 6.

3 89. NexBank refused to respond to or comply with IFA's September 9, 2014
4 requests.

5 90. On March 4, 2016, IFA, via counsel, requested that Mr. Wick withdraw his 6 "Cease and Desist" demand of May 30, 2014, in order to permit IFA to discuss a possible sale
7 of the Essex Property with local builders and developers in order to obtain a greater return
8 than would be obtainable via the proposed settlement with KB Home.

9 91. A true and correct copy of IFA's March 4, 2016 correspondence is attached
10 hereto as Exhibit 7.

11 92. Agent refused to respond to or comply with IFA's March 4, 2016 request.

12 M. NexBank "Settles" With KB Home, in a Manner Which Restricts the Ability
13 of IFA and its Investors to Realize the Full Value of the Collateral.

14 93. On or about November 24, 2015, NexBank, via its EVP and General Counsel, 15 Dierk Hohman, Esq., sent IFA a "Notice Concerning Settlement with KB Home Nevada, Inc.
16 and Application of Payments Received from Settlement Agreement" (the "11/15 17 Correspondence").

18 94. Despite knowing that IFA was represented by counsel, attorney Hohman sent 19 the 11/15 Correspondence directly to IFA and did not copy IFA's counsel.

20 95. The 11/15 Correspondence informed IFA that its Agent had negotiated a 21 "settlement in principal" with KB Home, and attached a document labeled "Estimated 22 settlement payouts (in millions)" which asserted that Agent would make a payment to LH and 23 HS of $4.2 million in connection with the "settlement", would establish a 2.5 million "legal 24 reserve", and would pay over to the "Highland Lenders" $4.2 million, "Inclusive of estimated 25 $204,000 advanced on behalf of IFA plus interest...."

1 96. The proposed "Settlement" did not call for any material payment from KB
2 Home as a result of the Essex Litigation; instead, the "Settlement" called for NexBank to 3 agree to foreclose on the Collateral and then sell it to KB Home for a price that IFA believes 4 is significantly below its current value.

5 97. IFA objected to the proposal to pay attorneys' fees which were not based upon
6 recovery on the litigation claims, but instead on the proposed purchase price of the Collateral, 7 and further objected to the proposal to pre-negotiate a sale price without following the 8 procedures in the Loan Agreement which governed the method of foreclosure and sale of the 9 Collateral.

10 98. In addition, the proposed "Settlement" constituted a transaction that is 11 governed by NRS 645B, which includes the requirements of Section 645B.340 that:

12 2. A person designated to act pursuant to subsection 1 on behalf of the holders of the 13 beneficial interest in a loan or the ownership interest in real property shall, not later
14 than 30 days before the date on which the holders will determine whether or not to act
15 pursuant to subsection 1, send a written notice of the action to each holder of a 16 beneficial interest or ownership interest at the holder's last-known address, by a 17 delivery service that provides proof of delivery or evidence that the notice was sent.
18 The written notice must state:

19 (a) The actions that will be taken on behalf of the holders who consent to 20 an action pursuant to this section, if the holders of the beneficial interest in a 21 loan whose interests represent 51 percent or more of the outstanding principal 22 balance of the loan or the holders of 51 percent or more of the ownership
23 interest in the real property act pursuant to subsection 1;

24 (b) The actions that will be taken on behalf of the holders who do not 25 consent to an action pursuant to this section, if the holders of the beneficial interest in a loan whose interests represent 51 percent or more of the outstanding principal balance of the loan or the holders of 51 percent or more of the ownership interest in the real property act pursuant to subsection 1; and

 (c) The amount of the costs or, if an amount is unknown, an estimate of the amount of the costs that will be allocated to, or due from, the holder and deducted from any proceeds owed to the holder.

 3. If real property is sold, transferred, encumbered or leased pursuant to paragraph (c) of subsection 1, any beneficial interest in the loan or ownership interest in the real property of a holder who does not consent to the sale, transfer, encumbrance or lease, including, without limitation, any interest of a tenant in common who does not consent to the sale, transfer, encumbrance or lease, must be sold, transferred, encumbered or leased by a reference to this section and by the signatures on the necessary documents of the holders

1 consenting to the sale, transfer, encumbrance or lease of the real property. The 2 holders consenting to the sale, transfer, encumbrance or lease of the real 3 property shall designate a representative to sign any necessary documents on 4 behalf of the holders who do not consent to the sale, transfer, encumbrance or 5 lease and, if the representative maintains written evidence of the consent of the 6 number of holders described in subsection 1, the representative is not liable for 7 any action taken pursuant to this subsection.

8 99. IFA requested that NexBank provide an explanation of the proposed fee 9 payments and reserves, and an estimate of the costs which would be allocated to, or due from,
10 IFA and its Investors, in order for IFA to provide the notice required by NRS 645B.340.

11 100. NexBank repeatedly refused to provide the information requested by IFA, 12 despite the requirement of Section 6.6(b) of the Loan Agreement that it do so.

13 101. On December 14, 2015, LH wrote to IFA encouraging IFA to accept the 14 "settlement offer", voicing concern with regard to the "significant ☐ litigation risk of losing 15 on liability...."

16 102. IFA responded to LH on January 25, 2016, noting, inter alia, that other
17 purchase offers for the Essex Property were being received from qualified and bona fide 18 buyers, and that a higher price could be obtained for the Essex Property.

19 103. On April 6, 2016, IFA again requested that Agent provide an explanation of 20 the purported legal fees and legal reserve, and again requested that Mr. Wick withdraw his 21 "Cease and Desist" demand of May 30, 2014.

22 104. Agent refused to respond to or comply with IFA's April 6, 2016 requests.

23 105. On July 1, 2016, IFA, via counsel, wrote to Agent and LH expressing its 24 significant concerns with regard to any proposed KB Home settlement. IFA requested that 25 there be an adequate marketing of the Essex Property to third parties; that Agent and LH respond to IFA's request to explain the purported payments to be made to LH and the purported legal reserve; and that IFA be included in all settlement negotiations, including meetings and emails.

1 106. Agent and LH refused to respond to or comply with IFA's July 1, 2016
2 requests.

3 107. In its December 3, 2016 correspondence to Michael Warner, counsel for 4 NexBank, IFA advised NexBank that, in order to send the Investor Notice and request for 5 consent, IFA required information which had been repeatedly requested, "including a detailed 6 estimate of the proceeds of the proposed settlement including project[ed] distribution to the 7 IFA Investors. The information regarding past and future legal fees is an essential component
8 of such calculations."

9 108. Agent refused to respond to or comply with IFA's December 3, 2016 request.

10 109. IFA's request for information regarding fees and costs incurred and anticipated
11 to be incurred, and estimated distributions based on the proposed settlement was repeated,
12 inter alia, on March 7, 2017, in correspondence to Mr. Warner and other counsel, advising 13 again that "IFA requires a breakdown of the economic impact of the settlement, including the 14 net distribution to IFA (and its assignees), in order to request approval from the investors as 15 required by Nevada law."

16 110. Agent refused to respond to or comply with IFA's March 7, 2017 requests and,
17 upon information and belief, instructed LH and HS not to comply with IFA's March 7, 2017
18 requests.

19 111. On April 3, 2017, IFA wrote to the Agent again expressing concerns with the 20 structure of the proposed settlement, and requesting that the Agent "facilitate a meaningful 21 discussion involving the lenders and the attorneys in order to attempt to resolve the fee issue, 22 so that we can move forward cooperatively..."

23 112. Agent refused to respond to or comply with IFA's April 3, 2017 request.

1 113. On January 23, 2017, IFA, via counsel, wrote to Agent, LH and HS, requesting 2 that each of them comply with their duties to IFA "by working cooperatively with IFA toward 3 a mutually agreeable resolution to the KB Home litigation matter."

4 114. Agent, LH and HS refused to respond to or comply with IFA's January 23, 5 2017 request.

6 115. Eventually, the reason became clear-NexBank and the attorneys, in violation of 7 the express directive of IFA, dismissed the KB Home Litigation, and entered into an 8 agreement to sell the Property (following foreclosure) to KB Home for a specified price (the 9 "KB Agreement").

10 116. The KB Agreement violates the Loan Agreement in numerous respects, 11 including (i) operating as a prohibited release of the liability of the borrower and guarantor;
12 (ii) violation of the requirement that, on default, the Agent foreclose in its own name or in the 13 name of an affiliate; (iii) that, following foreclosure, a property manager be retained; (iv) that 14 following foreclosure, after consultation with the property manager, Agent prepare a written 15 plan for operation, management, maintenance, repair, sale and disposition of the property; (v)
16 the requirement that such plan be provided to each Lender prior to voting for approval; (vi)
17 the agreement to finance the purchase price; and (vii) the agreement to indemnify KB Home 18 for certain matters.

19 III.

20 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

21 FOR DECLARATORY RELIEF

22 117. IFA hereby incorporates each and every allegation made above as though
23 fully set forth in this paragraph.

24 118. Under NRS 30.010 et. seq., the Uniform Declaratory Judgment Act, any 25 person interested under a written contract or other writings constituting a contract, or whose

1 rights, status or other legal relations are affected by a contract, may have determined any 2 question of construction or validity arising under the contract and obtain a declaration of 3 rights, status or other legal relations thereunder.

4 119. A justiciable controversy exists between IFA and NexBank regarding their 5 respective rights pursuant to the Loan Agreement.

6 120. Plaintiff seeks, and is entitled to, a judicial determination that IFA validly
7 assigned undivided percentage interests in its interest in the IFA Note.

8 121. Plaintiff seeks, and is entitled to, a judicial determination that NexBank is 9 equitably estopped from denying the validity of the assignments made by IFA with regard to 10 IFA's interest in the IFA Note.

11 122. Plaintiff seeks, and is entitled to, a judicial determination that NexBank cannot 12 require IFA or its assignees to transfer their interests in the IFA note to a Nevada Business
13 Trust as contemplated by the Settlement.

14 123. Plaintiff seeks, and is entitled to, a judicial determination that IFA is not a 15 "Defaulting Lender" under the Loan Agreement.

16 124. Plaintiff seeks, and is entitled to, a judicial determination that there are no
17 Defaulting Lender Payment Amounts owed by IFA under the Loan Agreement or, 18 alternatively, for a determination of such amounts.

19 125. Plaintiff seeks, and is entitled to, a judicial determination that IFA is entitled to 20 receive from NexBank all information provided to Agent pursuant to the Loan Agreement.

21 126. Plaintiff seeks, and is entitled to, a judicial determination that NexBank's 22 actions as alleged herein constituted willful misconduct or gross negligence, such that 23 NexBank is not protected by any disclaimer of duty or indemnity provision of the Loan
24 Agreement.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

FOR BREACH OF DUTY BY NEXBANK

127. IFA hereby incorporates each and every allegation made above as though fully set forth in this paragraph.

128. NexBank, as the administrative agent, had a fiduciary relationship with IFA as NexBank was bound to act for the benefit of IFA and the other Lenders.

129. NexBank, as the administrative agent, also had contractual duties to IFA, including the duty not to take actions inconsistent with the terms or purposes of the Loan Agreement.

130. These duties included the duty to maximize the return to IFA and its investors; to provide information to IFA; to include IFA in matters relating to the subject matter of the Loan Agreement; to be honest in its communications with IFA; to treat IFA on par with the other Lenders, and not to prefer Lenders whose interests were managed by Highland Capital or its affiliates over IFA and its investors.

131. Rather than complying with its duties to IFA, NexBank repeatedly acted against IFA's express wishes, and in blatant derogation of IFA's interests.

132. As a lender under the Loan Agreement, IFA was entitled to be kept informed by NexBank, the Agent of IFA, with respect to the Essex Loan, including the Essex Litigation.

133. Agent refused to provide IFA with current information regarding the Essex Loan, the purported fees and costs incurred and/or paid, and its negotiations on behalf of the Lenders, in derogation of its duties and obligations to IFA.

134. Agent acted throughout the course of the Essex Litigation to exclude IFA from discussions, refused IFA the opportunity to participate in settlement negotiations, denied

1 IFA's right to input with regard to the Essex Litigation, the proposed settlement, and the 2 realization upon the Collateral of the Essex Loan, entered into a settlement which violated the 3 terms of the Loan Agreement, and agreed to payment of sums to the obligors under the Essex
4 Loan prior to payment in full of the IFA Note, all in derogation of Agents duties and 5 obligations to IFA.

6 135. IFA is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Agent acted exclusively 7 in furtherance of the interests of NexBank and its affiliates, the Highland Lenders, to the 8 exclusion of, and detriment to, the rights and interests of IFA, and in derogation of NexBank's
9 duties and obligations to IFA.

10 136. IFA is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that in undermining the 11 rights of IFA in favor of the Highland Lenders, Agent acted to further its own economic 12 interests, including its interest in maintaining and expanding upon its economic relationship
13 with Highland and its affiliates, in derogation of its duties and obligations to IFA.

14 137. IFA is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that NexBank did so in 15 order to benefit its affiliates and others with whom NexBank had preexisting (and, in many 16 cases, undisclosed) relationships, rather than to act in order to maximize return to IFA and the 17 investors in the Essex Loan.

18 138. NexBank's actions as alleged herein, including, without limitation, NexBank's 19 refusing to comply with IFA's numerous requests, as well as in acting in contravention to 20 IFA's interests in order to further its own and its affiliates' interests to the detriment of IFA, 21 constituted willful and intentional misconduct.

22 139. This is not the only instance of Mr. Dondero (NexBank's Chairman of the 23 Board and Highland Capital's co-founder and president) acting in violation of duties to 24 investors. In a JAMS arbitration hearing held in Dallas County, Texas in September, 2017
25 (Arbitration No. 1310022713) (the "Arbitration"), a panel of three retired judges concluded

1 that Highland's founder, James Dondero, fired the firm's most productive portfolio manager,
2 Josh Terry, in June 2016 after Mr. Terry opposed a plan by Mr. Dondero to transfer funds
3 between Highland investment vehicles and to delay repaying money owed to Highland
4 investors. Mr. Terry believed the plan was a breach of his fiduciary duty to Highland clients
5 and an external lawyer hired by the firm sided with him against Mr. Dondero, according to the 6 panel. The Panel concluded that "Highland's termination of Terry's employment was not, in 7 fact, 'for cause.' Highland's stated 'for cause' termination of Terry's employment was, in 8 fact, pre-textual and for the purpose of denying Terry's benefits of employment payable at his 9 termination.."

10 140. The Arbitration panel further reported that "The evidence establishes that 11 Highland's termination of Terry was, in fact, pre-textual, without cause and only because 12 Dondero wanted him gone." The arbitrators awarded Mr. Terry $7.9 million in damages and 13 interest.

14 141. A Wall Street Journal article, dated December 1, 2017, reporting on the 15 Arbitration, also reported that "Highland also lost arbitration in 2016 against investors in one
16 of its hedge funds who alleged they had been cheated out of millions of dollars. The firm 17 subsequently reached an agreement with the investors."

18 142. As a direct result of NexBank's failure to act in accordance with its fiduciary 19 and contractual duties to IFA, IFA has suffered damage including, but not limited to, the 20 difference in price between the actual value of the Collateral and the sale price to KB Home, 21 and excessive attorney's fees and costs and other damages in excess of $10,000.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

FOR BREACH OF CONTRACT BY NEXBANK

143. IFA hereby incorporates each and every allegation made above as though fully set forth in this paragraph.

144. NexBank has repeatedly and materially breached its contractual obligations to IFA, including, without limitation:

- a. By refusing to provide information to IFA, despite IFA's numerous requests;
- b. By demanding payment from IFA of sums not owed by IFA;
- c. By utilizing a pretext in an effort to declare IFA a "Defaulting Lender" when IFA was in compliance with its duties under the Loan Agreement;
- d. By negotiating a collusive purchase arrangement with KB Home over IFA's objection;
- e. By agreeing on foreclosure procedures in contravention of the express provisions of the Loan Agreement.
- f. By dispensing with the agreed upon method of determining the value, management and marketing of the property following foreclosure.
- g. By permitting the distribution of funds to the obligors under the Loan Agreement prior to payment in full of amounts due to IFA.
- h. By exposing the Lenders to claims for contingency fees based upon the sale price of the Collateral.
- i. By agreeing to finance the purchase of the Collateral with the monies owed to IFA and its investors.

1 j. By agreeing to indemnify KB Home for certain matters, creating an 2 additional liability against the proceeds of the Collateral.

3 145. All conditions precedent to NexBank's obligations under the Loan Agreement
4 have been performed or have occurred.

5 146. IFA has been damaged as a direct and proximate result of NexBank's actions

6 147. IFA has been damaged in a sum in excess of $10,000

7 148. In order to pursue its claims and as a direct and proximate result of the 8 Defendants' conduct outlined herein, IFA has incurred attorneys' fees as special damages in 9 the approximate sum in excess of $50,000 as of the date of this pleading and increasing up to 10 and through trial and appeal, if any.

11 VI.

12 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

13 FOR BREACH OF THE DUTY OF GOOD FAITH AND FAIR DEALING AGAINST 14 NEXBANK

15 149. IFA hereby incorporates each and every allegation made above as though
16 fully set forth in this paragraph.

17 150. Inherent in every contract is the duty of good faith and fair dealing, such that 18 the parties are prevented from contravening the intention and spirit of the contract.

19 151. NexBank repeatedly acted in derogation of its duties to IFA.

20 152. NexBank's failure to comply with its duties to IFA included, but is not 21 limited to:

- 22 a. Refusal to provide IFA with copies of documents and communications.
23 b. Refusal to include IFA in settlement discussions.
24 c. Failure to provide IFA with timely accounting of purported advances.
25 d. Misrepresentation of advances.

- 1 e. Making demand upon IFA for payment which was not owed by IFA.
- 2 f. Making demand upon IFA for payment without providing written notice.
- 3 g. Making demand upon IFA for payment without providing details of
- 4 invoices or proof of advances.
- 5 h. Utilizing a pretext for purportedly declaring IFA a "Defaulting Lender".
- 6 i. Refusing to market the Essex Property for fair value.
- 7 j. Threatening IFA in order to prevent IFA from marketing of the Essex
- 8 Property for fair value.
- 9 k. Bypassing the safeguards provided in the Loan Agreement for professional
- 10 management of the property and development of a marketing plan with the
- 11 advice of a disinterested professional.
- 12 l. Threatening to dilute IFA's recovery with improper deductions and
- 13 reserves.
- 14 m. Agreeing to a collusive foreclosure bid and resale for less than the amount
- 15 bid.
- 16 n. Permitting the distribution of funds to the obligors prior to payment in full
- 17 of the Lenders.
- 18 o. Exposing the Lenders and the Collateral proceeds to claims for
- 19 contingency fees based on the sale price of the Collateral.
- 20 p. Agreeing to finance the purchase of the Collateral with the monies owed to
- 21 IFA and its investors.
- 22 q. Agreeing to indemnify KB Home for certain matters, creating an additional
- 23 liability against the proceeds of the Collateral.

24 153. As a result of NexBank's conduct in violation of the implied covenant of 25 good faith and fair dealing, IFA has suffered damages in a sum in excess of $10,000.

154. In order to pursue its claims and as a direct and proximate result of the Defendants' conduct outlined herein, IFA has incurred attorneys' fees as special damages in the approximate amount in excess of $50,000 as of the date of this pleading and increasing up to and through trial and appeal, if any.

VII.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FOR COLLUSIVE FORECLOSURE

155. IFA hereby incorporates each and every allegation made above as though fully set forth in this paragraph.

156. In entering into the Settlement, NexBank agreed to bid at the foreclosure sale up to an amount in excess of what KB Home would pay for the Essex Property, and then turn the property over to Essex for an amount less than the credit bid (the "Bid Agreement").

157. The purpose of the Bid Agreement was to provide that the Essex Property would be sold to KB Home for a predetermined price, even if a free and fair foreclosure sale would result in a higher price than KB Home would pay.

158. The result of the Bid Agreement is to chill any bidding at the sale, as well as to deprive IFA and the investors of the full value of the Essex Property via a fair and open foreclosure process, as required by Nevada Law.

159. IFA has been materially damaged by the difference in the settlement value and the fair market value which damages are believed to be in excess of $10,000.

WHEREFORE, IFA prays for relief as follows:

1. That there be a determination that no money is due and owing from IFA to NexBank.
2. For recovery of damages against NexBank in an amount to be proven at trial.
3. For punitive and exemplary damages as permitted by law.

- 1 4. For an accounting of the assets and liabilities associated with the Essex Loan.
- 2 5. For determination of the reasonableness of any fees and costs claimed by Plaintiff
- 3 with respect to the Essex Loan.
- 4 6. For equitable relief.
- 5 7. For recovery of attorney's fees and costs.
- 6 8. For costs of suit.
- 7 9. For any other relief which this Court deems fair and just.

8 Respectfully submitted this 5th day of April, 2018.

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

10. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates herein by this reference, the allegations of paragraphs 1 through 9, inclusive, as though fully set forth herein.

11. As of November 29, 2007, and through the present, Essex was and is the owner of that certain commercial real property located in Henderson, Clark County, Nevada identified as APNs: 191-15-811-001; 191-15-711-022; 191-23-211-003; 191-23-211-004; and 191-14-311-002 (collectively the "Property").

12. On November 29, 2007, Essex borrowed the total principal sum of Sixty-Six Million Dollars ($66,000,000) under a Term Loan Agreement dated November 29, 2007, and a Deed of Trust Note in the amount of $42,900,000 payable to The Foothill Group, Inc. (the "Foothill Note") and a Deed of Trust Note in the principal amount of $23,100,000 payable to IFA (the "IFA Note") (the Foothill Note and IFA Note are collectively referred to as the "Notes"). Copies of both Notes, which collectively total $66,000,000, are attached hereto as Exhibit A. The Term Loan Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

13. At all relevant times, NexBank was and is the duly appointed collateral agent and administrative agent for the lenders under the Notes and the Term Loan Agreement.

14. Concurrent with execution of the Notes and the Term Loan Agreement, Essex executed a Deed of Trust, Assignment of Rents and Leases, Security Agreement and Fixture Filing ("Deed of Trust"), for the purpose of securing the obligations under the Notes and Term Loan Agreement. The Deed of Trust was recorded on December 4, 2007, in the Official Records

1 of the Clark County Recorder as Inst.# 20071204-0001853, thus encumbering Essex's Property
2 at the time of recordation. A copy of the Deed of Trust is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

3 15. On November 29, 2007, Holman executed a Guaranty Agreement pursuant to 4 which Holman guaranteed payment of all amounts due under the Notes and the Term Loan
5 Agreement.

6 16. Essex is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges, that NexBank, as 7 collateral agent and administrative agent for the lenders, is the beneficiary of the Term Loan
8 Agreement, Notes and other related documents relevant to the $66 million loan (the "Loan").

9 17. The purpose of the Loan was to finance the purchase and development of the 10 Property based on a Development Agreement dated November 29, 2007, between Essex and KB
11 Home Nevada, Inc.

12 18. The entire principal and accrued interest owing under the Notes and Term Loan
13 Agreement was due and payable by Essex on the initial Maturity Date of December 1, 2008.

14 19. Essex had the option to exercise a six month first extension of the initial Maturity
15 Date under the Notes and Loan Agreement to June 1, 2009 (the "First Extended Maturity Date"), 16 under certain conditions.

17 20. Essex had the option to exercise an additional six month second extension of the 18 initial Maturity Date under the Notes and Loan Agreement to December 1, 2009 (the "Second 19 Extended Maturity Date"), under certain conditions.

20 21. Essex did not exercise the First Extended Maturity Date or the Second Extended 21 Maturity Date.

22 22. Even if Essex had exercised the First Extended Maturity Date and the Second 23 Extended Maturity Date, the final date that the Notes and Term Loan Agreement would mature 24 and become wholly due and payable under both extensions was December 1, 2009.

25 23. Essex is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges, that in or about April 26 2008, The Foothill Group, Inc. assigned its rights and obligations under the Term Loan
27 Agreement and the Foothill Note to Highland Crusader Holdings Corporation and Highland 28 Credit Opportunities Holding Corporation. Approximately one day later, each of those entities

1 assigned their respective rights and obligations to the Highland Funds.

2 24. Additionally, Essex is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges, that at 3 various times after November 29, 2007, fractional beneficial interests under the Notes and the 4 Deed of Trust were assigned to numerous other parties.

5 25. Notwithstanding the numerous alleged assignments of interests under the Notes
6 and Deed of Trust, NexBank remains the duly appointed collateral agent and administrative agent
7 for all lenders under the Notes and Term Loan Agreement, including all parties receiving 8 fractional beneficial interests under the Notes and the Deed of Trust.

9 26. Based on NexBank's appointment as collateral agent and administrative agent for 10 all lenders, Essex has not named all of the numerous lender parties as defendants in this action.
11 In the event it is determined at a later date that each and every beneficiary under the Notes or 12 Deed of Trust must be named as defendants in this action, Essex reserves its right to amend this 13 Complaint and identify each of those defendants.

14 27. NexBank is also the agent for IFA under the Notes, Term Loan Agreement and the 15 Deed of Trust. However, because NexBank and IFA are currently involved in certain litigation 16 between themselves, Essex has named IFA as a Defendant in this action out of an abundance of 17 caution.

18 28. As a result of the Great Financial Recession that commenced in 2008 and the 19 subsequent breach of the Development Agreement by KB Home Nevada, Inc., the principal and 20 accrued interest under the Notes and the Term Loan Agreement was not timely paid by Essex on 21 or before the Maturity Date of December 1, 2008.

22 29. On or about June 30, 2008, certain litigation ensued between Essex, Las Vegas
23 Development Associates, LLC, and KB Home Nevada, Inc., in the Eighth Judicial District Court, 24 Clark County, Nevada, as Case No. A566442.

25 30. Other litigation was initiated on or about November 4, 2008, by IFA against KB
26 Home Nevada, Inc., also in the Eighth Judicial District Court, Clark County, Nevada, as Case No.
27 A574976 (Case No. A566442 and Case No. A574976 collectively referred to as the "KB Home 28 Litigations").

1 31. Nothing in the KB Home Litigations changed the Maturity Date under the Notes
2 and the Term Loan Agreement, and at all times herein, the Notes and the Term Loan Agreement
3 fully matured and became wholly due on December 1, 2008.

4 32. On June 6, 2016, pursuant to N.R.S. § 361.570, the Ex Officio Tax Receiver for 5 Clark County prepared a certificate for each parcel of the Property on which delinquent taxes had 6 not been paid, authorizing the Clark County Treasurer to hold each parcel of the property
7 described in the certificates for a period of two (2) years unless sooner redeemed by payment of 8 the taxes and accruing taxes, penalties and costs, together with interest on the taxes at the rate of 9 10 percent (10%) per annum from the date due until paid.

10 33. Because neither Essex, NexBank, IFA or any of the lenders redeemed the Property
11 by paying all past due taxes, on July 2, 2018, Tax Trustee Deeds with respect to each parcel of 12 the Property were recorded by the Clark County Treasurer in the records of the Clark County
13 Recorder as Instrument Numbers 20180702-0000741, 20180702-0000742, 20180702-0000743, 14 20180702-0000744 and 20180702-0000745.

15 34. The effect of the Tax Trustee Deeds is that title to the Property is held in trust by 16 the Clark County Treasurer with Essex as the owner of said Property, until such time as the 17 Property is sold at a public sale or otherwise conveyed pursuant to N.R.S. § 361.595.

18 35. As of Essex's Petition Date, no sale or conveyance of the Property had occurred 19 by Clark County, and title of the Property remains vested in Essex and Laura B. Fitzpatrick, the 20 Treasurer of Clark County. Attached hereto as Exhibit D is a copy of a Commitment for Title
21 Insurance issued by Fidelity National Title Group on October 10, 2019, reflecting the vested title
22 and encumbrances recorded against the Property.

23 36. Pursuant to N.R.S. §§ 361.585(3) and (4), the Property may be reconveyed out of 24 trust from the Clark County Treasurer to the legal owner, Essex, upon payment equal to all taxes
25 accrued, together with any costs, penalties and interest legally chargeable against the Property.

26 37. Essex is informed and believes, and on that basis alleges, that the total amount due
27 to the Clark County Treasurer in order to reconvey the Property from trust under the Tax Trustee
28 Deeds, is approximately $2,600,000. In fact, the Clark County Treasurer filed a Proof of Claim

1 in the Bankruptcy Case on January 15, 2020 (Claim 2-1), attesting to the fact that the Clark County
2 Treasurer is owed $2,597,004.72. Attached hereto as Exhibit E is a copy of Claim 2-1.

3 38. On October 30, 2013, Holman filed his Voluntary Petition for Chapter 7 relief in 4 this Bankruptcy Court, as Case No. 13-52092-btb.

5 39. On October 16, 2014, NexBank filed an unsecured Proof of Claim (Claim 4-1) in 6 the amount of $174,096,328.82 in Holman's Chapter 7 case. NexBank's Proof of Claim in 7 Holman's case was based on Holman's Guaranty Agreement.

8 40. On July 3, 2014, an Order Discharging Debtor was entered in Holman's Chapter
9 7 case, at which time his personal liability under the Guaranty Agreement was discharged
10 pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §727.

11 41. On January 27, 2016, a Final Decree, Discharge of Trustee and Closing of Chapter
12 7 Case was entered in Holman's Chapter 7 case.

13 42. On March 13, 2019, the United States Trustee filed her Ex Parte Motion to Reopen
14 Chapter 7 Case in Holman's Chapter 7 case, for the purpose of administering Holman's ownership
15 interest in Essex.

16 43. On March 18, 2019, Jeri Coppa-Knudson was once again appointed as Trustee of 17 Holman's re-opened Chapter 7 case.

18 44. Harris Law Practice LLC was appointed as bankruptcy counsel for Jeri Coppa-
19 Knudson ("Trustee") in Holman's re-opened Chapter 7 case, pursuant to an order entered March 20 29, 2019.

21 45. In the course of carrying out her duties in Holman's re-opened Chapter 7 case, the 22 Trustee and her counsel became aware that more than ten (10) years had elapsed since the Notes
23 and the Term Loan Agreement became wholly due and payable on December 1, 2008.

24 46. N.R.S. § 106.240, colloquially known as Nevada's "Ancient Mortgage Statute," 25 states the following:

26 The lien heretofore or hereafter created of any mortgage or deed of trust upon any 27 real property, appearing of record, and not otherwise satisfied and discharged of 28 record, shall at the expiration of 10 years after the debt secured by the mortgage or

1 deed of trust according to the terms thereof or any recorded written extension
2 thereof become wholly due, terminate, and it shall be conclusively presumed that 3 the debt has been regularly satisfied and the lien discharged.

4 N.R.S. § 106.240.

5 47. In the ten (10) years since the Notes and the Term Loan Agreement became wholly 6 due and payable by their own terms, neither NexBank, IFA or any of the lenders foreclosed on 7 the Deed of Trust.

8 48. Based on the Ancient Mortgage Statute provisions of N.R.S. § 106.240, as of 9 December 2, 2018, the Notes, the Term Loan Agreement and the Deed of Trust are conclusively 10 presumed to be satisfied and the lien discharged.

11 49. On January 6, 2020, NexBank filed a secured Proof of Claim (Claim No. 1) in this 12 Bankruptcy Case alleging that the sum of $584,462,133.58 is due and owing under the Notes, the 13 Term Loan Agreement and the Deed of Trust.

14 50. Essex intends to sell all or a portion of the Property or to borrow the necessary
15 funds in its Bankruptcy Case, after seeking Court approval, to pay all amounts due and owing to 16 the Clark County Treasurer in order to reconvey the Property from trust under the Tax Trust
17 Deeds pursuant to N.R.S. §§ 361.585(3) and (4).

18 51. The unpaid taxes owing to the Clark County Treasurer in the approximate sum of 19 $2,600,000 are the only valid claims secured by the Property as of the Petition Date.

20 FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

21 Quiet Title (N.R.S. § 40.010) (All Defendants)

22 52. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates herein by this reference the allegations
23 contained in the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

24 53. As stated previously above, the Notes and the Term Loan Agreement became 25 wholly due and payable on the Maturity Date of December 1, 2008, and no agreements or 26 extensions exist that extended the Maturity Date.

27 54. Based on N.R.S. § 106.240, the Notes, the Term Loan Agreement and the Deed of 28 Trust became conclusively satisfied, discharged and the liens released ten (10) years after

1 December 1, 2008.

2 55. N.R.S. § 106.240 is a statute of repose, not a statute of limitations, and is not
3 subject to equitable tolling. There is no other statute under Nevada law to revive an obligation
4 that has been terminated and discharged pursuant to N.R.S. § 106.240.

5 56. Notwithstanding the plain and unambiguous reading of N.R.S. § 106.240 and the 6 Maturity Date under the Notes and the Term Loan Agreement, IFA and NexBank, on behalf of 7 all lenders and beneficiaries under the Note and the Deed of Trust, have refused and failed to 8 voluntarily reconvey and release the Deed of Trust to clear title on Essex's Property.

9 57. As evidenced by the Deed of Trust that remains on record against the Property and 10 has not been reconveyed by NexBank, IFA or the other lenders and beneficiaries, said parties are 11 claiming an adverse interest in the Property.

12 58. N.R.S. § 40.010 provides that: "An action may be brought by any person against 13 another who claims an estate or interest in real property, adverse to the person bringing the action, 14 for the purpose of determining such adverse claim."

15 59. Additionally, 11 U.S.C. § 323(b), provides that "[t]he trustee in a case under this 16 title has capacity to sue and be sued." 11 U.S.C. § 323(b). Finally, 11 U.S.C. § 1107(a) provides 17 that "... a debtor in possession shall have all the rights . . . and powers, and shall perform all the 18 functions and duties, except the duties specified in sections 1106(a)(2), (3) and (4) of this title, of 19 a trustee serving in a case under this chapter." 11 U.S.C. § 1107(a).

20 60. Based on N.R.S. § 40.010, 11 U.S.C. §§ 323(b) and 1107(a), Essex is entitled to a 21 judgment quieting title in the Property by expunging and extinguishing any obligations or liens
22 under the Notes, the Term Loan Agreement and the Deed of Trust, because those are conclusively
23 deemed satisfied, and the lien(s) discharged, pursuant to Nevada's Ancient Mortgage Statute
24 codified as N.R.S. § 106.240.

25 SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF

26 Wrongful Disparagement/Slander of Title (All Defendants)

27 61. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates herein by this reference the allegations
28 contained in the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

1 62. IFA and NexBank are under a duty not to publish disparaging matter that 2 disparages another's title to real property.

3 63. Based on N.R.S. § 106.240, the Notes, the Term Loan Agreement and the Deed of
4 Trust became conclusively satisfied, discharged and the liens released ten (10) years after
5 December 1, 2008.

6 64. N.R.S. § 106.240 is a statute of repose, not a statute of limitations, and is not
7 subject to equitable tolling. There is no other statute under Nevada law to revive an obligation
8 that has been terminated and discharged pursuant to N.R.S. § 106.240.

9 65. On January 23, 2020, counsel for Essex sent written notice to IFA and NexBank
10 pursuant to N.R.S. § 107.077 that informed them that the Deed of Trust has been discharged and 11 they were obligated to reconvey the estate to Essex.

12 66. Prior to the filing of this Complaint, IFA and NexBank had actual knowledge that 13 the Deed of Trust has been discharged and that they were under a duty to execute a deed of 14 reconveyance pursuant to N.R.S. § 107.077.

15 67. Defendants' actions in failing to voluntarily reconvey the Deed of Trust in 16 contravention of N.R.S. § 106.240 constitutes false statements that disparage and slander
17 Plaintiff's interest in the Property.

18 68. Defendants' failure to reconvey the Deed of Trust creates the perception that the
19 Notes and Term Loan Agreement remain due and owing and/or that the Property is encumbered
20 by liens even though the obligations and liens are no longer valid or enforceable based on N.R.S.
21 § 106.240.

22 69. Defendants' Deed of Trust recorded against the Property prevents the Plaintiff
23 from selling or otherwise monetizing the value of its Property.

24 70. The recovery of damages for recording of a slanderous document without seeking 25 expungement of that document for the public records would not give the Plaintiff complete relief.
26 The title to the Property would be clouded as long as the Deed of Trust is a public record and its 27 nullity not declared.

28 71. The Plaintiff is entitled to declaratory relief from this Court that the document or

1 documents that cloud title to the Property are a nullity and that they be expunged from the public
2 record.

3 72. Plaintiff is informed, believes and thereon alleges that Defendants' actions in 4 maintaining false documents against the Property and/or failing to release and reconvey the 5 invalid Deed of Trust in a timely manner, were done with a willful and conscious disregard for 6 Plaintiff's rights and interests in the Property. As such, Plaintiff is entitled to a judgment finding 7 that Defendants have slandered Plaintiff's title in the Property and that Plaintiff is entitled to an 8 award of compensatory and punitive damages against Defendants in an amount to be proven at 9 the time of trial.

10 THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF

11 Extent, Priority and Validity of Liens (All Defendants)

12 73. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates herein by this reference the allegations
13 contained in the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

14 74. The Property at issue here is property of the Plaintiff Debtor's estate under 11
15 U.S.C. § 541.

16 75. This is an action brought pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7001(2) to determine the 17 validity, priority and extent of any purported liens under the Deed of Trust recorded against the 18 Property. This action seeks to determine the validity, extent, and priority of any legal, equitable, 19 or adverse claims or interest asserted therein by Defendants or anyone else laying claim to the 20 Property under the Deed of Trust.

21 76. As stated previously, the Notes, the Term Loan Agreement and the Deed of Trust
22 previously encumbering the Property are conclusively presumed satisfied and discharged ten (10)
23 years after December 1, 2008, pursuant to N.R.S. § 106.240.

24 77. As of December 2, 2018, none of the Defendants have any enforceable liens or
25 secured claims against the Property.

26 78. As stated previously, prior to the filing of this Complaint, IFA and NexBank have 27 failed to execute a deed of reconveyance, the effect of which was to allow a false statement
28 concerning the encumbrances against this Property to continue in the public record.

1 79. Based on the foregoing, an actual present dispute and controversy exists and,
2 therefore, a declaration, judgment, and/or order from this Court is necessary to determine that 3 Essex owns its interest in the Property free and clear of Defendants' Deed of Trust; that 4 Defendants' Notes are conclusively presumed to be regularly satisfied and the Deed of Trust
5 discharged and of no force and effect.

6 FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

7 Cancellation of Instrument (All Defendants)

8 80. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates herein by this reference the allegations
9 contained in the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

10 81. The Notes, the Term Loan Agreement and the Deed of Trust previously
11 encumbering the Property are conclusively presumed satisfied and discharged ten (10) years after 12 December 1, 2008, pursuant to N.R.S. § 106.240.

13 82. As of December 2, 2018, none of the Defendants have any enforceable liens or 14 secured claims against the Property.

15 83. There is a reasonable and actual cause that the unenforceable Deed of Trust
16 remaining on record will cause serious injury to Plaintiff because it clouds the title and wrongly 17 presents the appearance that the Property is greatly encumbered. The Deed of Trust will prevent 18 Plaintiff from selling or otherwise monetizing the value in its Property.

19 84. Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff is entitled to a judgment and/or order cancelling 20 or reconveying Defendants' Deed of Trust to remove the effect of the unenforceable Deed of 21 Trust from the Property's title.

22 85. In the absence of the Court cancelling or reconveying Defendants' Deed of Trust, 23 Plaintiff is without adequate remedy at law.

24 FIFTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

25 Objection to Proof of Claim (11 U.S.C. § 502(a)) (All Defendants)

26 86. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates herein by this reference the allegations
27 contained in the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

28 87. The Notes, the Term Loan Agreement and the Deed of Trust previously

1 encumbering the Property are conclusively presumed satisfied and discharged ten (10) years after
2 December 1, 2008, pursuant to N.R.S. § 106.240.

3 88. As of December 2, 2018, none of the Defendants have any enforceable loans or 4 claims against Plaintiff or liens or secured claims against the Property.

5 89. Notwithstanding the foregoing, NexBank filed a Proof of Claim on January 6, 6 2020, in the Bankruptcy Case as Claim No. 1 ("NexBank's POC"), alleging a secured claim
7 against the Property in the amount of $584,462,133.58, based on the Notes, the Term Loan
8 Agreement and the Deed of Trust.

9 90. NexBank, in its capacity as collateral agent and administrative agent for the 10 lenders, filed its Proof of Claim on behalf of all lenders and beneficiaries under the Notes, the 11 Term Loan Agreement and the Deed of Trust.

12 91. NexBank's POC was signed under penalty of perjury by NexBank's counsel even 13 though the plain and unambiguous Maturity Date under the Notes and the Term Loan Agreement,
14 in conjunction with N.R.S. § 106.240, make it evident that the Notes, the Term Loan Agreement
15 and the Deed of Trust are conclusively presumed satisfied and discharged and no longer due or 16 enforceable as of December 2, 2018.

17 92. Based on the foregoing, Plaintiff objects to NexBank's POC in its entirety,
18 pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(a), and requests a judgment or order finding that NexBank's Proof
19 of Claim No. 1 is disallowed in its entirety, and the Defendants have no valid or allowed claims
20 in Plaintiff's Bankruptcy Case. NexBank's POC is attached hereto as Exhibit F, without 21 duplicate exhibits, because most of the exhibits to NexBank's POC are the Loan documents that 22 are already attached to this Complaint.

23 SIXTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

24 Attorney Fees (All Defendants)

25 93. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates herein by this reference the allegations
26 contained in the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

27 94. Prior to the filing of this complaint, IFA and NexBank had actual knowledge that 28 the deed of trust has been discharged and that they were each under a duty to execute a deed of

1 reconveyance pursuant to NRS 107.077.

2 95. Defendants' actions in failing to voluntarily reconvey the Deed of Trust in
3 contravention of N.R.S. §106.240, constitutes false statements that disparage and slander
4 Plaintiff's interest in the Property.

5 96. Defendants' failure to reconvey the Deed of Trust creates the perception that the
6 Notes and Term Loan Agreement remain due and owing and/or that the Property is encumbered
7 by liens even though the obligations and liens are no longer valid or enforceable based on N.R.S.
8 §106.240.

9 97. Based upon the slander of title caused by the Defendants, it is impossible for the 10 Plaintiff to remove the cloud upon the title of its property without retaining an attorney.

11 98. The only way in which the cloud upon the title to the Property can be removed and 12 the slander of title remedied is by an order of this Court

13 99. In order to remove the cloud of title, Plaintiff has been forced to retain counsel to 14 file this Complaint.

15 100. Undersigned counsel is experienced in matters of liens and litigation, and he 16 charges $550.00 per hour.

17 101. Plaintiff is entitled to an award of attorney fees for the necessity in retaining 18 counsel to remove the invalid lien as special damages

19 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

20 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff Essex Real Estate Partners, LLC, prays for judgment against 21 Defendants, and each of them, as follows:

- 22 1. For a judgment to quiet title in the Property by expunging the Deed of Trust 23 currently recorded in the title record of the Property;
- 24 2. For a judgment finding and concluding that Defendants have slandered, and are 25 continuing to slander Plaintiff's title by willfully and consciously maintaining the 26 false and unenforceable Deed of Trust on the Property's record title;
- 27 3. For a judgment determining that the validity, extent and priority of Defendants' 28 purported lien against the Property is such that Essex owns its interest in the

1 Property free and clear of Defendants' Deed of Trust, and that Defendants' Deed
2 of Trust is, by operation of law, satisfied, terminated, discharged and released and 3 of no force and effect;

- 4 4. For a judgment and/or order cancelling or reconveying Defendants' Deed of Trust
5 to remove the effect of the unenforceable Deed of Trust from the Property's title;
6 5. For a judgment or order finding that NexBank's Proof of Claim No. 1 filed in the 7 Bankruptcy Case on January 6, 2020, is disallowed in its entirety, and Defendants
8 have no valid or allowed claims in Plaintiff's Bankruptcy Case;
9 6. For an award of Plaintiff's reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred herein;
10 7. For an award of compensatory and punitive damages in an amount to be proven at 11 the time of trial; and 12 8. For such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

13 DATED this 28th day of January, 2020.

ADDENDUM TO PROOF OF CLAIM FILED BY UBS AG, LONDON BRANCH

1. UBS Securities LLC hereby submits this addendum to its proof of claim (together, the “Proof of Claim”) against Highland Capital Management, L.P. (the “Debtor”) in the above-captioned chapter 11 case (the “Chapter 11 Case”).

2. UBS Securities LLC and UBS AG, London Branch (together, the “Claimant” or “UBS”) each have claims against the Debtor and each is filing a proof of claim in this Chapter 11 Case. Because their claims arise from the same set of factual events, including the same failed transaction, misconduct involving the Debtor and its affiliates, and subsequent litigation, the UBS claims overlap and their proof of claim forms and addendums are substantially the same.

3. This addendum is attached to, incorporated into, and constitutes an integral part of Claimant’s Proof of Claim against the Debtor. Claimant files this Proof of Claim under compulsion of the Order (I) Establishing Bar Dates for Filing Claims and (II) Approving the Form and Manner of Notice Thereof [Docket No. 488], as extended by the Joint Stipulation and Order Extending Bar Date [Docket No. 547] and modified by the Order Denying UBS’s Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay to Proceed with State Court Action [Docket No. 765], solely for the purpose of asserting Claimant's claims against the Debtor, as more particularly described and subject to any limitations set forth below.

Factual Background

A. The Knox Transaction

2. Claimant's claims arise out of a failed transaction dating back thirteen years ago and the state court action (the "State Court Action") that followed between Claimant, the Debtor, Highland CDO Opportunity Master Fund, L.P. ("CDO Fund") and Highland Special Opportunities Holding Company ("SOHC") (together with CDO Fund, the "Fund Counterparties," and the Fund Parties and the Debtor collectively, "Highland"), among other parties.²

3. In early 2007, Claimant and Highland agreed to pursue a complex form of securitization transaction known as a "CLO Squared" (the "Knox Transaction"). (Ex. B, Decision at 2.) The purpose of the Knox Transaction was to acquire and securitize a series of collateralized loan obligation ("CLO") securities and credit default swap ("CDS") assets (the "Knox Assets"). To that end, the Debtor agreed to be the "Servicer" of the Knox Transaction, and as such was responsible for identifying the specific CLO and CDS assets to be securitized. Claimant agreed to finance the acquisition of the CLO and CDS assets identified by Highland. Claimant would then hold, or "warehouse," the assets until the securitization was completed (the "Knox Warehouse"). Under this arrangement, Claimant financed the acquisition of $818 million in Knox Assets. (Id.)

² The procedural history of the State Court Action is incorporated by reference, but is voluminous. The operative Second Amended Complaint and Phase I Decision and Order are attached as Exhibit A and Exhibit B, respectively. Additional pleadings and orders can be found on the State Court docket for Index No. 650097/2009 or by contacting Claimant's counsel. Claimant reserves the right to file a copy of additional pleadings or orders with this Court.

4. The parties' first attempt at the Knox Transaction was not completed successfully and the relevant agreements expired in August 2007 without the contemplated securitization having occurred. (Id. at 3.) Rather than end their relationship, however, Highland and Claimant continued to consider the possibility of pursuing the contemplated securitization in 2008 under restructured versions of the prior agreements. Highland and Claimant always understood that—if the securitization were not successful—the Fund Counterparties would be obligated to pay Claimant for 100% of the losses on any CLO or CDS assets that been acquired and warehoused for the securitization. In order to convince Claimant to agree to enter restructured versions of those agreements and to finance the acquisition of the CLO and CDS assets, Highland assured Claimant that the Fund Counterparties had sufficient assets to cover any losses. It did so by providing Claimant with false, incomplete, and otherwise misleading information concerning the Fund Counterparties' finances and assets. (Ex. A, Compl. ¶¶ 47-61.)

5. In addition, Claimant specifically conditioned its agreement to enter the restructured agreements on the Fund Counterparties' ability to post an additional $70 million in cash and securities as collateral (the "Initial Restructuring Collateral"), in which Claimant would hold a security interest. (Id. ¶¶ 56-59; Ex. B, Decision at 3.) Highland assembled $70 million in such Initial Restructuring Collateral. But what Highland did not tell Claimant—and what is now clear was omitted on purpose—was that the Fund Counterparties did not own all of the Initial Restructuring Collateral they were expected to post. Instead, to meet this obligation, the Debtor exercised its control over other Highland affiliates, transferring and redirecting assets from such other entities that it controlled to assemble the Initial Restructuring Collateral. (Ex. A, Compl. ¶¶ 56-59.)

6. Similarly, while negotiating the restructured transaction, Highland provided Claimant with financial reports and statements that contained materially false and misleading information and omissions concerning the financial condition of the Fund Counterparties. (Id. ¶¶ 47-52.) The Debtor itself had prepared these financial statements and knew they contained material misstatements. (Id. ¶¶ 48-50, 54.) Among other things, Highland misrepresented the amount of cash held by CDO Fund. (Id. ¶ 52.) Highland also failed to disclose that many of the assets on the Fund Counterparties' financial statements already had been encumbered. (Id. ¶¶ 51, 53.) These misrepresentations not only evince a specific intent by Highland to induce Claimant into entering the restructured agreements, but a longstanding willingness to prevent Claimant from ever recovering the amounts owed under the parties' proposed agreements in the event the Knox Assets suffered any losses. In addition, these events show the Debtor's singular control over—and ability to move—assets from one Highland affiliate to another at will.

7. Based on Highland's material misstatements and omissions, Claimant agreed to pursue the restructured transaction and once more attempt the securitization, and the parties executed three new written agreements: an Engagement Letter, a Cash Warehouse Agreement, and a Synthetic Warehouse Agreement (collectively, the "Warehouse Agreements"). (See Ex. B, Decision at 3.) The Engagement Letter was executed by Claimant and the Debtor; the Fund Counterparties were not parties to the Engagement Letter. (Ex. A, Compl. ¶ 62.) The Cash Warehouse and Synthetic Warehouse Agreements were executed by Claimant and the Debtor, along with the Fund Counterparties. (Id. ¶¶ 64-65.)

8. As described above, Claimant agreed to finance the acquisition of the CLO and CDS assets that the parties planned to securitize. In so doing, the key risk Claimant faced was the possibility that the Knox Assets would lose value while securitization was pending. To address this risk, Claimant and the Debtor agreed in the Engagement Letter that the Fund Counterparties would bear this risk. Notably, at the time, the Debtor was the Investment Manager to the Fund Counterparties under agreements that gave the Debtor total control over those entities. (Ex. A, Compl. ¶¶ 24, 26.)

9. The Warehouse Agreements reiterated that the Fund Counterparties (as controlled by the Debtor) would bear the risk, specifying that if the Knox Assets lost value while securitization was pending, the Fund Counterparties “will in aggregate bear 100% of the risk” for the Knox Assets—with CDO Fund bearing 51% of any losses and SOHC bearing the remaining 49%.

10. To further protect Claimant in the event that the Knox Assets lost value, the Warehouse Agreements provided for recurring measurements of mark-to-market losses on all assets in the Knox Warehouse and required the Fund Counterparties to post collateral in the event the Knox Assets lost a set amount of value. Specifically, the parties agreed that the Fund Counterparties would post an additional $10 million in collateral for each $100 million in losses to the overall value of the Knox Assets. (Ex. B, Decision at 4.)

11. In September and October 2008, amid the global economic recession, the value of the Knox Assets dropped by $100 million, twice. Thus, Claimant twice exercised its contractual right to demand additional collateral. And twice Highland posted the required collateral. (Id.) Although the Warehouse Agreements specified that it was the Fund Counterparties who would post collateral, the Debtor moved assets around from other entities it controlled to make the first two collateral calls (without disclosing this practice to Claimant). (Ex. A, Compl. ¶ 79.) On or about November 7, 2008, Claimant issued a third margin call, because the value of the Knox Assets suffered additional losses of $200 million (bringing the aggregate losses to over $400 million).

(Ex. B, Decision at 4.) This time, Highland refused to provide the additional collateral required under the Warehouse Agreements.

12. Highland's default on Claimant's third margin call triggered a termination event under the Warehouse Agreements. (Id.) On December 5, 2008, Claimant gave Highland formal notice of default and demanded the Fund Counterparties pay Claimant for 100% of the losses incurred on the Knox Assets—which had, by then, grown to over $520 million.

13. There is no question that the Debtor knew the Fund Counterparties were liable for the losses under the Warehouse Agreements. Indeed, the Highland officer who executed the Warehouse Agreements admitted under oath that, “as of the end of the year 2008,” Highland knew that the Fund Counterparties owed Claimant “hundreds of millions of dollars in connection with the Knox Warehouse Agreements.” (Travers Dep. at 261:8-20.) But rather than paying Claimant what it was owed, the Debtor, with Mr. Dondero at the helm, “devised a strategy to delay the resolution of that obligation [to pay Claimant] for as long as possible.” (Id.) To that end, Highland devised and subsequently deployed a multifaceted strategy—one that would last for many years thereafter—to intentionally frustrate and prevent Claimant from recovering any of the amounts that both the Debtor and the Fund Counterparties knew were rightfully owed to Claimant under the Warehouse Agreements.

14. First, the Debtor directed the Fund Counterparties to withhold any payment to Claimant—a position that the Fund Counterparties maintained (again, under the specific direction of the Debtor) for more than a decade. (See id.) The Debtor did so not only with the specific knowledge that the Fund Counterparties owed hundreds of millions of dollars to Claimant for the losses on the Knox Assets, but with the knowledge that Claimant would come seeking payment for such losses and, in particular, to look toward any and all collateral owned by the Fund Counterparties as one source of payment. As one of Highland's officers stated in an internal email to Mr. Dondero in an internal email dated January 16, 2009: "[UBS] is going to be calling [] today asking for all additional collateral that cdo and sohc have left to cover the obligation left by the knox transaction." But rather than turning over the collateral in question to Claimant or, at the very least, securing such assets so that they could be used to pay Claimant, the Debtor directed the Fund Counterparties to withhold such assets and payments from Claimant: "[T]hey can see us in court for their additional collateral." True to that promise, even after Claimant filed suit and laid out the amounts due under the contracts, the Debtor forced the Fund Counterparties to launch an affirmative, multi-year campaign—one which would consume much of the cash and assets belonging to the Fund Counterparties themselves—to stave off any payment from the Fund Counterparties to force Claimant to try to recover such claims through litigation and, once in litigation, devising knowingly baseless defenses and arguments for the Fund Counterparties to assert in such litigation.

15. On top of directing the Fund Counterparties to withhold payment and force Claimant to litigate for amounts the Debtor already knew they rightfully owed to Claimant, the Debtor undertook a litany of other actions to ensure that, even if Claimant were successful in the litigation it had been forced to initiate against the Fund Counterparties, it would not be able to collect any judgment arising out of the litigation. Such actions included, but were not limited to, a series of fraudulent transfers out of, and away from, an alter ego of SOHC, Highland Financial Partners, L.P. ("HFP"). (Ex. A, Compl. ¶ 109.) These internal transfers of funds—all overseen by James Dondero, the Debtor's founder and president—were designed to prevent Claimant from ever collecting the millions of dollars it was owed under the Warehouse Agreements.

16. In addition to such fraudulent transfers, the Debtor also took steps after the lawsuit was filed to ensure that no additional value would be transferred to the Fund Counterparties—deliberately taking steps to keep both SOHC and CDO Fund undercapitalized. Not only did the Debtor prevent additional value from being transferred to the Fund Counterparties, it is clear that the Debtor also failed to ensure that the Fund Counterparties retained assets that could be used to pay any such judgment. Quite to the contrary, it is now clear that any and all assets of any value that once belonged to the Fund Counterparties have, in one way or another, been transferred away, drained, or otherwise wasted by the Fund Counterparties, the Debtor itself, or the Debtor’s affiliates—all at the Debtor’s direction. Indeed, in a recent filing before this Court, the Debtor recently disclosed that both of the Fund Counterparties are completely “insolvent.” (Docket No. 687 at 1.) This means that—separate and apart from the transfers of assets out of, and away from, HFP that occurred in 2009—the Debtor has directed, or otherwise permitted, the Fund Counterparties to engage in acts that have left these once marque investment funds with literally no assets that can be used to pay Claimant. All such actions and omissions by the Debtor were performed with either the specific intent to prevent or frustrate Claimant’s ability to recover the amounts owed under the Warehouse Agreements, or a wanton and reckless disregard of Claimant’s rights to those amounts. Such actions and omissions constitute breaches of the Debtor’s duty of good faith and fair dealing under the Warehouse Agreements.

B. The State Court Action and the Debtor’s Efforts to Avoid Paying Claimant

17. On February 24, 2009, Claimant filed a complaint in the Supreme Court of the State of New York (the “State Court”) against the Debtor and the Fund Counterparties. With knowledge of Claimant’s lawsuit, the Debtor exercised its control over the Fund Counterparties to ensure they would not meet their obligations and to impede Claimant’s ability to recover the amounts owed by those entities. (Id. ¶¶ 112, 114.) Rather than paying Claimant what it was owed, and as discussed above, the Debtor orchestrated an extensive multi-part strategy to delay resolution of Claimant's claims for as long as possible. As a result, the Debtor further interfered with Claimant's contractual rights, thereby breaching the covenants of good faith and fair dealing inherent in the Warehouse Agreements. (Id.)

18. By this time, the Fund Counterparties and SOHC's alter ego, HFP, had become insolvent, although they still owned significant assets. (Id. ¶ 108.) Nonetheless, the Debtor failed to act in good faith to cause HFP to satisfy the debts, as much as possible, then owed to Claimant. Instead, the Debtor caused HFP to make additional improper and fraudulent asset transfers, deliberately kept the Fund Counterparties undercapitalized, and allowed all assets of any value to be drained from the Fund Counterparties—acts which not only impaired Claimant's ability to recover anything from the Fund Counterparties, but precluded it altogether. (Id. ¶ 111.) In March 2009, conscious that Claimant had commenced an action against Highland a few weeks earlier, and in breach of their continuing duty of good faith and fair dealing, and with actual fraudulent intent, the Debtor and HFP caused asset transfers of millions of dollars of assets to the Debtor, Highland Credit Strategies Master Fund, L.P., Highland Crusader Offshore Partners, L.P., and Highland Credit Opportunities CDO, L.P. (now Highland Multi Strategy Credit Fund, L.P.) (collectively, the "Affiliated Transferee Defendants"), among others, thereby further reducing Highland's abilities to meet their obligations to Claimant. (Id. ¶¶ 111, 113.) The Debtor and its principals exercised domination over the Fund Counterparties to improperly transfer substantial assets from the Fund Counterparties and HFP for their own personal gain, i.e., solely and improperly to protect and enhance the value of the Debtor and its principals by wrongful and improper means. In the process, the Debtor and its principals made it impossible for the Fund Counterparties to pay Claimant the losses that they and the Debtor had agreed they would pay under the Warehouse Agreements. (Id. ¶¶ 112-114.)

19. As Claimant learned about Highland's conduct through discovery, Claimant amended its complaint to assert additional claims and name additional Highland entities, including HFP, the Affiliated Transferee Defendants, and Strand Advisors, Inc. As amended and stated in its Second Amended Complaint (attached hereto as Exhibit A) in the State Court Action, filed on May 11, 2011, Claimant's claims include breach of contract claims directly against the Fund Counterparties, as well as claims for fraudulent inducement, breach of the duty of good faith and fair dealing, fraudulent conveyance, tortious interference, and declaratory judgments for alter ego liability against HFP and general partner liability against Strand Advisors, Inc. The Debtor subsequently brought counterclaims against Claimant for breach of contract and unjust enrichment. (See Ex. B, Decision at 35-37.)

20. The procedural history of the State Court Action is complex. The Debtor and its affiliates and Claimant filed, and the State Court ruled on, four sets of motions to dismiss. The Debtor and its affiliates then filed two sets of summary judgment motions, which led to a series of complex rulings by the State Court in 2017. The parties filed various interlocutory appeals of the State Court's rulings on the motions to dismiss and for summary judgment. Those appeals were heard by the Appellate Division for the First Judicial Department in the County of New York, with the Appellate Division issuing five decisions over this suit's protracted history (some of which are still subject to further appellate rights).

21. Also included in the Appellate Division's decisions was an order arising from an appeal of the State Court's ruling on Claimant's motion to restrain Defendants Highland Credit Strategies Master Fund, L.P. and Highland Crusader Partners, L.P. from disposing of property received through the fraudulent transfers orchestrated by the Debtor. Claimant showed it had a likelihood of success on the merits of its fraudulent transfer claims, and the Appellate Division enjoined both Highland entities from disposing of their assets. Ultimately, these injunctions resulted in partial settlements between Claimant and Highland Credit Strategies Master Fund, L.P. and Highland Crusader Partners, L.P.

22. By early 2018, more than nine years after Claimant first filed suit, the parties were finally ready to proceed to trial. Due to a jury waiver clause in the Warehouse Agreements, however, and after related pre-trial briefing, the State Court bifurcated Claimant's claims into two distinct phases for trial: Phase I, consisting of a bench trial on Claimant's claims against the Fund Counterparties for breach of the Cash Warehouse and Synthetic Warehouse Agreements, as well as the Debtor's counterclaims; and Phase II, consisting of a jury trial on Claimant's remaining claims against all remaining Highland entities, including the Debtor.³ (Ex. B, Decision at 2 n.1, 38.)

23. The State Court presided over a thirteen-day bench trial for Phase I from July 9 through July 27, 2018. (Id. at 1.) On November 14, 2019, the State Court entered a Decision and Order on Phase I (attached hereto as Exhibit B), ruling in favor of Claimant on almost every issue presented in Phase I. In particular, the court found the Fund Counterparties liable to Claimant for breach of the Cash Warehouse and Synthetic Warehouse Agreements, found no liability on the part of Claimant for either of the Debtor's counterclaims, and rejected almost every one of the Debtor's offset arguments with the only remaining issue (affecting approximately $70,500,000) to be determined after Phase II. (Id. at 39.) An Entry of Judgment on Phase I was entered on February 10, 2020. Under that Phase I final judgment, Claimant is entitled to $1,039,957,799.44, consisting of $519,374,149.00 in damages and $520,583,650.44 in pre-judgment interest as of January 22, 2020, with additional interest of $128,065 having accrued daily until the Entry of Judgment.

24. The next step in the State Court Action is Phase II of the trial, where Claimant's remaining claims against not only the Debtor, but also against other Highland affiliates are to be tried to a jury, with the court deciding liability as to the breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing claim and the jury deciding all remaining claims. (Id. at 2 n.1, 38.) The claims to be tried in Phase II include claims for breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, fraudulent conveyances, and alter-ego liability. The specific amounts the two non-Debtor affiliates owe to Claimant for their breach of the Warehouse Agreements are now set forth and embodied in the final $1 billion judgment from Phase I. And Claimant has stated claims against the Debtor—which was also a party to the same contract and exercised complete control over the two liable affiliates—under which Claimant is entitled to damages that are at least as much as the Phase I judgment amount. Claimant will seek damages for the Debtor's various breaches of the implied covenant as well as its specific role in the fraudulent transfer scheme, and pre-judgment interest and attorneys' fees where available. In addition, Claimant will seek punitive damages against the Debtor for its role in orchestrating the extended efforts to prevent Claimant from collecting the amounts owed under the Warehouse Agreements.

25. Currently, Phase II of the State Court Action is stayed against the Debtor by the automatic stay imposed pursuant to section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code when the Debtor commenced this Chapter 11 Case.

26. Claimant hereby asserts a claim, pending litigation of Phase II, for damages arising from the Debtor's breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, its specific role in directing the fraudulent transfers of assets involving HFP, additional interest, further damages (including punitive damages), and attorneys' fees that may be awarded by any court at the conclusion of Phase II.

Reservation of Rights

27. Claimant does not waive or release, and expressly reserves, all rights and remedies at law or in equity that it has or may have against the Debtor, the Fund Counterparties, Strand Advisors, Inc., other non-Debtor Highland Defendants, or any other Debtor affiliate, subsidiary, person, or entity.

28. Claimant expressly reserves all of its rights to assert any additional claims, defenses, remedies, and causes of action, including without limitation, claims for fraudulent inducement, breach of contract, tortious interference with contractual relations, fraudulent conveyances, or alter ego recovery. Claimant further reserves all rights to amend, modify, supplement, reclassify, or otherwise revise its Proof of Claim at any time and in any respect, including, without limitation, as necessary or appropriate to amend, quantify or correct amounts, to provide additional detail regarding the claims set forth herein, to assert additional grounds for any of the claims, to seek reconsideration under section 502(j) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise of any disallowance of any amounts claimed hereunder, or to reflect any and all additional claims of whatever kind or nature that Claimant has or may have against the Debtor.

29. To the extent any payment to Claimant based on this Proof of Claim, or any portion thereof, is clawed back from Claimant, avoided, or set aside, for any reason whatsoever, or Claimant is required to disgorge any such payment, or any portion thereof, Claimant hereby reserves its rights to amend this Proof of Claim accordingly.

30. The execution and filing of this Proof of Claim is not intended as, nor should it be construed as or deemed to be any of the following: (i) a waiver of the right to seek withdrawal of the reference, or to otherwise challenge the jurisdiction of this Court, with respect to the subject matter of the claims asserted herein, any objection or other proceeding commenced with respect thereto, or any other action or proceeding commenced in this Chapter 11 Case against or otherwise involving Claimant; (ii) an admission that any matter is a core matter for purposes of 28 U.S.C. § 157(b) or is a matter as to which this Court can enter a final order or judgment consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution; (iii) a waiver of the right to de novo review by the district court of any order or judgment for which this Court, absent Claimant's consent, lacks authority to enter a final order or judgment; (iv) a consent to the entry by this Court of a final order or judgment with respect to the claims asserted herein or any other matter; (v) a waiver of Claimant's right to a jury trial against the Debtor, as applicable, or waiver of Claimant's right to a jury trial against any of the non-Debtor Defendants; (vi) a waiver or release of the claims or rights of Claimant against any other entity or person that may be liable for all or any part of the claims or any matters related to the claims asserted herein; (vii) a waiver of any rights and remedies Claimant has or may have under the Cash Warehouse and Synthetic Warehouse Agreements, Engagement Letter, or any other contract, whether mentioned in this Proof of Claim or not; (viii) a waiver of Claimant's contractual right to seek to have these or any other claims settled by binding arbitration; (ix) a waiver of any right related to the confirmation of any plan of reorganization proposed in this Chapter 11 Case, or any other insolvency-related proceeding that may be commenced, either in the United States or abroad, by or against the Debtor, or any non-Debtor affiliate; (x) a waiver or agreement granting any party relief; or (xi) an election of remedies.

31. Neither this Proof of Claim nor any of its contents shall be deemed or construed as an acknowledgment or admission of any liability or obligation on the part of Claimant. Claimant specifically reserves all of its defenses and rights, procedural and substantive, including, without limitation, its rights with respect to any claim that may be asserted against Claimant by the Debtor, the Fund Counterparties, or any affiliate of the Debtor, and its rights to enforce the Cash Warehouse or Synthetic Warehouse Agreements, Engagement Letter, or any other contract.

Right of Setoff and Recoupment

32. Claimant reserves all rights of setoff and recoupment that it may have. To the extent the Debtor or any non-Debtor affiliate asserts any claim against Claimant, Claimant shall have a secured claim to the extent of its right of setoff under section 553 of the Bankruptcy Code or right of recoupment against such claim with respect to the claims asserted herein and any amendments thereto.

COMPLAINT

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. UBS brings this action to recover damages in excess of $686 million resulting from the wrongful conduct of defendants, based on causes of action for fraudulent inducement, breach of contract, fraudulent conveyances, and declaratory judgment.

2. Counterclaim-plaintiff Highland Capital Management, L.P. (“Highland Capital”) is a defendant in the action commenced by UBS (the “Highland Capital Action”) concurrently with the filing of the First Amended Complaint in this action. The Highland Capital Action was consolidated with this action by a Decision and Order, entered by this Court on October 7, 2010 (this action and the Highland Capital Action are referred to herein as the “Consolidated Action”). Together with Highland Capital, the Fund Counterparties fraudulently induced UBS to restructure a transaction to avoid Highland Capital’s and the Fund Counterparties’ contractual obligation to pay UBS over $86 million. Once Highland Capital and the Fund Counterparties succeeded in misleading UBS into restructuring the original transaction, Highland Capital and its affiliates made it impossible for the Fund Counterparties to meet their obligations to UBS by stripping the Fund Counterparties of their valuable assets through fraudulent conveyances and otherwise dealing in bad faith with their contractual obligations to UBS.

3. When UBS finally terminated the restructured transaction and demanded payment from Highland Capital and the Fund Counterparties, it was owed in excess of $686 million that the Fund Counterparties could not pay because of the misappropriations and improper transfers of assets directed by Highland Capital and the Fund Counterparties. Even after UBS demanded payment, Highland Capital and defendants engaged in further unlawful conduct that harmed UBS by

SUMMARY OF THE ACTION

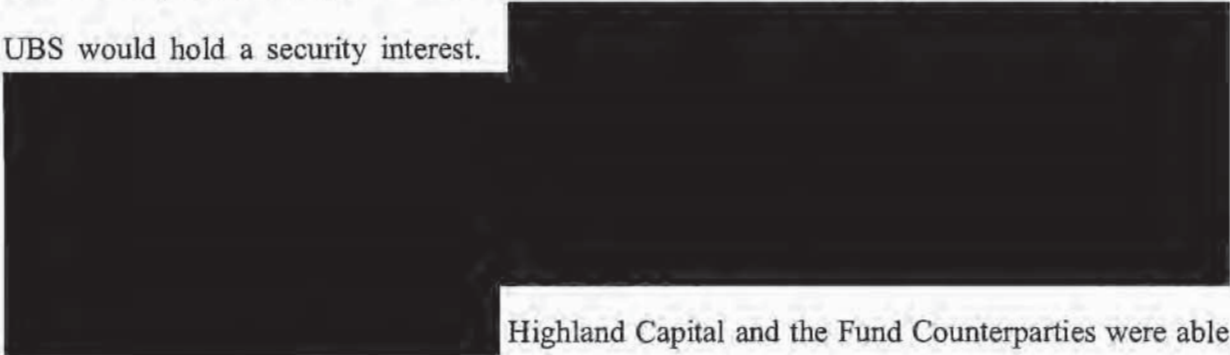

4. This action arises out of Highland Capital's efforts in the Spring of 2007 to sponsor a collateralized debt obligation ("CDO") securitization (the "Original Engagement"). In connection with the Original Engagement, UBS agreed to finance the purchase of various collateralized loan obligation ("CLO") securities, as well as credit default swap obligations that referenced similar CLO securities. UBS agreed to hold or "warehouse" the CLO securities and credit default swaps (collectively, the "Warehouse Assets" or "Warehouse Facility") for Highland Capital's benefit.

5. On or about August 15, 2007, the Original Engagement terminated by its terms without the contemplated securitization having occurred. As a result of the termination, Highland Capital and two of its affiliates, the Fund Counterparties, owed UBS in excess of $86 million related to the decline in the value of the Warehouse Assets.

6. Instead of paying UBS what it was owed, Highland Capital and the Fund Counterparties fraudulently induced UBS to restructure the Original Engagement by providing UBS with false, incomplete and otherwise misleading information concerning the Fund Counterparties' finances and assets. Using both affirmative material misrepresentations and omissions (material facts or information needed to be disclosed to make the statements actually made not misleading, and which were not disclosed, are referred to hereinafter as "Omissions"), Highland Capital, its principals and the Fund Counterparties misled UBS regarding the financial health of the Fund Counterparties and their creditworthiness, thereby causing UBS to forego recovering its losses from Highland Capital in favor of agreeing to restructure the terms of the parties' prior agreements (the "Restructured Transaction").

7. For example, the strength of the Fund Counterparties' financial statements, and their purported ability to use the hundreds of millions of dollars worth of assets reflected therein to satisfy future obligations to UBS under the Warehouse Agreements were material to UBS's decision to agree to the restructuring. Consequently, in connection with negotiating the Restructured Transaction, UBS conditioned any restructuring on the Fund Counterparties' ability to post $70 million in cash and securities as collateral (the "Initial Restructuring Collateral") with State Street Bank and Trust Company ("State Street"), in which UBS would hold a security interest.

Highland Capital and the Fund Counterparties were able to conceal important information about the Fund Counterparties' financial weakness that was both quantitatively and qualitatively material to UBS, and which would have caused UBS not to enter the Restructured Transaction.

8. Similarly, while negotiating the Restructured Transaction, Highland Capital and the Fund Counterparties provided UBS with financial reports and statements for the Fund Counterparties. The financial information that Highland Capital and the Fund Counterparties provided to UBS contained materially false and misleading information and Omissions concerning the financial condition of the Fund Counterparties. Among other things,

9. In reliance on material misstatements and Omissions made by Highland Capital and the Fund Counterparties, UBS agreed to restructure the Original Engagement, and thereby were fraudulently induced to give up contractual rights under the terms of the Original Engagement. In particular, UBS reasonably and justifiably relied on misrepresentations and Omissions of facts and information solely and peculiarly within the knowledge of Highland Capital and the Fund Counterparties. Given UBS's prior dealings with Highland Capital and its affiliates, as well as Highland Capital's size and presence in the market, UBS had no reason to believe that Highland Capital and its affiliates would provide it with false, incomplete or otherwise misleading information about the Fund Counterparties' finances and assets, as they in fact did.

10. Had UBS known that the Fund Counterparties could not [REDACTED]
[REDACTED], it would not have gone forward with the Restructured Transaction. UBS never would have agreed to the Restructured Transaction had it known prior to entering the Restructured Transaction the true status of the Fund Counterparties' financial condition and the true fair market value of the Fund Counterparties' holdings that would have been available to satisfy their then-existing and future obligations to UBS. UBS's losses described herein were directly and proximately caused by the conduct of Highland Capital and the defendants as described herein.

11. Almost immediately after UBS agreed to the Restructured Transaction, Highland Capital began the process of making it impossible for the Fund Counterparties to ever repay UBS what they owed. In particular, exercising its control over the Fund Counterparties, Highland Capital caused the Fund Counterparties to transfer cash for the benefit of Highland Capital and its principals, and, separately, in violation of UBS's rights, [REDACTED]
[REDACTED], all during a time when the Fund Counterparties owed UBS hundreds of millions of dollars.

12. For example, in or around May 2008, Highland Capital caused the dissipation of approximately $100 million in cash that CDO Fund held after it sold a long position in a company called SunCom Wireless. Highland Capital drained CDO Fund's cash resources despite CDO Fund's ever-increasing obligations to UBS. Highland Capital's bad faith conduct caused injury to UBS by making it impossible for the Fund Counterparties to satisfy their contractual obligations to UBS.

13. In September 2008, as losses in the Warehouse Facility continued to grow, UBS began to exercise its contractual rights and make margin calls demanding additional collateral from the Fund Counterparties. Because Highland Capital had routinely taken cash out of the Fund Counterparties, the Fund Counterparties were undercapitalized and lacked assets and liquidity to meet UBS's demands for additional collateral.

14. Highland Capital and its principals, including its president and founder, James D. Dondero, knew that if the Fund Counterparties defaulted on their obligations to UBS (or any other creditor), Highland Capital's ability to conduct business in the financial community and to keep or solicit investors would be harmed. Investors in Highland Capital's hedge fund family would withdraw their investments. In addition, creditors would take actions to protect themselves, including foreclosing on collateral and aggressively enforcing their contractual rights. Highland Capital and its principals were concerned that upon the disclosure of the true state of their affairs, their business would collapse.

15. To avoid that result, Highland Capital and its principals resorted to

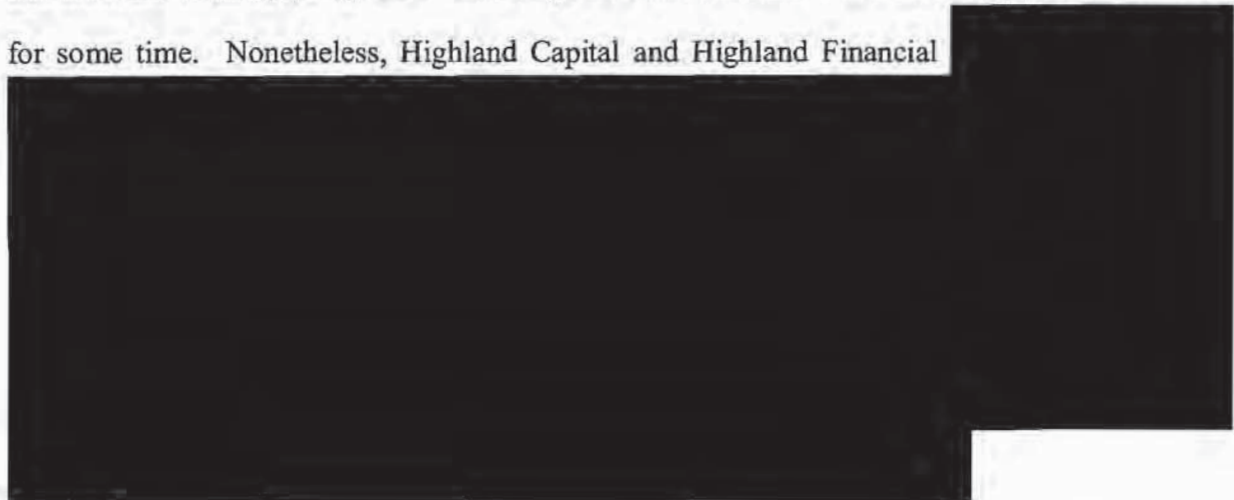

16. Highland Capital's and its principals' belated attempt to protect their reputation by continuing to fraudulently portray the Fund Counterparties as viable independent entities was ultimately unsuccessful. By late October 2008, Highland Capital could no longer continue to prop up the Fund Counterparties.

17. On or about November 11, 2008, UBS demanded additional collateral from the Fund Counterparties. The Fund Counterparties defaulted. On December 3, 2008, UBS terminated the Restructured Transaction. As a result of UBS's termination of the Restructured Transaction, the Fund Counterparties were contractually obligated to pay UBS in excess of $686 million.

18. On or about February 24, 2009, UBS filed the original complaint in this Court against the Fund Counterparties for breach of the Warehouse Agreements that had been entered in connection with the Restructured Transaction. By that time, the Fund Counterparties and SOHC's alter ego, Highland Financial, had been insolvent and unable to pay their creditors for some time. Nonetheless, Highland Capital and Highland Financial

19. In sum, after fraudulently inducing UBS to agree to the Restructured Transaction, Highland Capital and its principals exercised their domination over the Fund Counterparties to improperly transfer substantial assets from the Fund Counterparties for their own personal gain, i.e., solely and improperly to protect and enhance the value of Highland Capital and its principals by wrongful and improper means. In the process, they made it impossible for the Fund Counterparties to pay UBS the losses they had agreed to pay on the Warehouse Facility.
