Mezzanine Loans. Our mezzanine investments will generally be subordinated to senior loans and will generally be unsecured. This may result in greater risk and volatility or a loss of principal. These investments may involve additional risks that could adversely affect our investment returns. To the extent interest payments associated with such debt are deferred, such debt may be subject to greater fluctuations in valuations, and such debt could subject us and our stockholders to non-cash income as described above under "Risk Factors—Risks Relating to our Business and Structure—We may have difficulty paying our required distributions if we recognize income before or without receiving cash representing such income." Since we generally will not receive any substantial repayments of principal prior to the maturity of our mezzanine debt investments, such investments are riskier than amortizing loans. We can offer no assurance that the proceeds, if any, from sales of collateral securing other loans of a portfolio company would be sufficient to satisfy our unsecured obligations after payment in full of all secured loan obligations. If such proceeds were not sufficient to repay the outstanding secured loan obligations, then our unsecured claims would rank equally with the unpaid portion of such secured creditors' claims against the portfolio company's remaining assets, if any.

Table of Contents

We expect in the future to invest in securities that are rated below investment grade by rating agencies or that may be rated below investment grade if they were so rated. Below investment grade securities, which are often referred to as ‘junk bonds,’ are viewed as speculative investments because of concerns with respect to the issuer’s capacity to pay interest and repay principal.

Derivative Transactions. We may invest without limitation in warrants and may also use derivatives, primarily swaps (including equity, variance and volatility swaps), options and futures contracts on securities, interest rates, commodities and/or currencies, as substitutes for direct investments the Company can make. We may also use derivatives such as swaps, options (including options on futures), futures, and foreign currency transactions (e.g., foreign currency swaps, futures and forwards) to any extent deemed by the Adviser to be in the best interest of the Company, and to the extent permitted by the 1940 Act, to hedge various investments for risk management and speculative purposes (collectively, “Derivative Transactions”). We may use any or all types of Derivative Transactions which we are authorized to use at any time; no particular strategy will dictate the use of one type of Derivative Transaction rather than another, as use of any authorized Derivative Transaction will be a function of numerous variables, including market conditions. Derivative Transactions involve certain risks and special considerations. Risks of Derivative Transactions include the imperfect correlation between the value of such instruments and the underlying assets, the possible default of the other party to the transaction or illiquidity of the derivative instruments. Furthermore, the ability to successfully use Derivative Transactions depends on the Adviser’s ability to predict pertinent market movements. Because many derivatives are “leveraged,” and thus provide significantly more market exposure than the money paid or deposited when the transaction is entered into, a relatively small adverse market movement may not only result in the loss of the entire investment, but may also expose the Company to the possibility of a loss exceeding the original amount invested. Thus, the use of Derivative Transactions may result in losses greater than if they had not been used, may require the Company to sell or purchase portfolio securities at inopportune times or for prices other than current market values, may limit the amount of appreciation the Company can realize on an investment or may cause the Company to hold a security that it might otherwise sell. The use of foreign currency transactions can result in the Company incurring losses as a result of the imposition of exchange controls, the suspension of settlements or the inability of the Company to deliver or receive a specified currency. Additionally, amounts paid by the Company as premiums and cash or other assets held in margin accounts with respect to Derivative Transactions are not otherwise available to the Company for investment purposes.

If a put or call option purchased by the Company is not sold when it has remaining value, and if the market price of the underlying security remains equal to or greater than the exercise price (in the case of a put), or remains less than or equal to the exercise price (in the case of a call), the Company will lose its entire investment in the option.

Also, where a put or call option on a particular security is purchased to hedge against price movements in a related security, the price of the put or call option may move more or less than the price of the related security. If restrictions on exercise were imposed, the Company might be unable to exercise an option it had purchased. If the Company were unable to close out an option that it had purchased on a security, it would have to exercise the option in order to realize any profit or the option may expire worthless.

In addition, the SEC proposed a rule under the 1940 Act regulating the use by registered investment companies of derivatives and many related instruments. That rule, if adopted as proposed, would, among other things, restrict the Company’s ability to engage in derivatives transactions or so increase the cost of derivatives transactions that the Company would be unable to implement its investment strategy.

The Company’s Derivative Transactions are generally subject to numerous special and complex tax rules. Because the tax rules applicable to such transactions may be uncertain under current law, an adverse determination or future IRS guidance with respect to these rules (which determination or guidance could be retroactive) may affect whether the Company has made sufficient distributions, and otherwise satisfied the relevant requirements, to maintain its qualification as a RIC and avoid Company-level U.S. federal income or excise taxes. The Company's investments in derivative instruments may be limited by the Company's intention to qualify for treatment as a RIC and could adversely affect the Company's ability to so qualify.

Equity Investments. We may make selected equity investments. In addition, when we invest in first lien, second lien, unitranche or mezzanine loans, we may acquire warrants to purchase equity securities. Our goal is ultimately to dispose of these equity interests and realize gains upon our disposition of such interests. However, the equity interests we receive may not appreciate in value and, in fact, may decline in value. Accordingly, we may not be able to realize gains from our equity interests, and any gains that we do realize on the disposition of any equity interests may not be sufficient to offset any other losses we experience.

We are subject to risks associated with middle-market companies.

Investing in middle-market companies involves a number of significant risks, including:

- these companies may have limited financial resources and may be unable to meet their obligations under their debt securities that we hold, which may be accompanied by a deterioration in the value of any collateral and a reduction in the likelihood of us realizing any guarantees we may have obtained in connection with our investment;
- they typically have shorter operating histories, narrower product lines and smaller market shares than larger businesses, which tend to render them more vulnerable to competitors' actions and changing market conditions, as well as general economic downturns;
- they are more likely to depend on the management talents and efforts of a small group of persons; therefore, the death, disability, resignation or termination of one or more of these persons could have a material adverse impact on our portfolio company and, in turn, on us;
- generally, little public information exists about these companies, and we are required to rely on our investment adviser to obtain adequate information to evaluate the potential returns from investing in these companies;
- they generally have less predictable operating results, may from time to time be parties to litigation, may be engaged in rapidly changing businesses with products subject to a substantial risk of obsolescence, and may require substantial additional capital to support their operations, finance expansion or maintain their competitive position. In addition, our executive officers, directors and our investment adviser may, in the ordinary course of business, be named as defendants in litigation arising from our investments in these portfolio companies; and
- they may have difficulty accessing the capital markets to meet future capital needs, which may limit their ability to grow or to repay their outstanding indebtedness upon maturity.

We are a non-diversified investment company within the meaning of the 1940 Act, and therefore we are not limited by the 1940 Act with respect to the proportion of our assets that may be invested in securities of a single issuer.

We are classified as a non-diversified investment company within the meaning of the 1940 Act, which means that we are not limited by the 1940 Act with respect to the proportion of our assets that we may invest in securities of a single issuer. Our election to be treated as and intention to qualify and be eligible to be treated as a RIC, however, has its own diversification requirement with which we intend to comply. To the extent that we assume large positions in the securities of a small number of issuers, our net asset value may fluctuate to a greater extent than that of a diversified investment company as a result of changes in the financial condition or the market's assessment of the issuer. We may also be more susceptible to any single economic or regulatory occurrence than a diversified investment company. Beyond the asset diversification requirements associated with our qualification as a RIC under the Code and certain contractual diversification requirements under a credit facility or other agreements, we do not have fixed guidelines for diversification, and our investments could be concentrated in relatively few portfolio companies.

Our portfolio may be concentrated in a limited number of portfolio companies, industries and/or sectors which will subject us to a risk of significant loss if any of these companies defaults on its obligations under any of its debt instruments or if there is a downturn in a particular industry or sector.

Our portfolio may be concentrated in a limited number of portfolio companies, industries and/or sectors. Beyond the asset diversification requirements associated with our qualification as a RIC under the Code and certain contractual diversification requirements of a credit facility or other agreements, we do not have fixed guidelines for diversification. As a result, the aggregate returns we realize may be significantly adversely affected if a small number of investments perform poorly or if we need to write down the value of any one investment. Additionally, our investments may be concentrated in relatively few industries or sectors. As a result, a downturn in any particular industry or sector in which we are invested could also significantly impact the aggregate returns we realize.

The lack of liquidity in our investments may adversely affect our business.

We will generally make investments in private companies. Private companies have reduced access to the capital markets, resulting in diminished capital resources and ability to withstand financial distress. Furthermore, substantially all of our investments in private companies will be subject to legal and other restrictions on resale or will otherwise be less liquid than publicly traded securities.

The illiquidity of our investments may make it difficult for us to sell such investments if the need arises. In addition, if we are required to liquidate all or a portion of our portfolio quickly, we may realize significantly less than the value at which we have previously recorded our investments. In addition, we may face other restrictions on our ability to liquidate an investment in a portfolio company to the extent that we have material non-public information regarding such portfolio company or if an investment is held by one of our subsidiaries and is subject to contractual limitations on sale, such as the limitations on transfer of assets under certain circumstances under a credit facility. These and similar risks may also be applicable to thinly-traded companies in which we may invest.

Price declines and illiquidity in the corporate debt markets may adversely affect the fair value of our portfolio investments, reducing our net asset value through increased net unrealized depreciation.

As a business development company, we are required to carry our investments at market value or, if no market value is ascertainable, at fair value as determined in good faith by the Board under our valuation policy and process. As part of the valuation process, we may take into account the following types of factors, if relevant, in determining the fair value of our investments:

- a comparison of the portfolio company's securities to publicly traded securities;
- the enterprise value of a portfolio company;
- the nature and realizable value of any collateral;
- the portfolio company's ability to make payments and its earnings;
- the markets in which the portfolio company does business; and
- changes in the interest rate environment and the credit markets generally that may affect the price at which similar investments may be made in the future and other relevant factors.

When an external event such as a purchase transaction, public offering or subsequent equity sale occurs, we use the pricing indicated by the external event to corroborate our valuation. We record decreases in the market values or fair values of our investments as unrealized depreciation. Declines in prices and liquidity in the corporate debt markets may result in significant net unrealized depreciation in our portfolio. The effect of all of these factors on our portfolio may reduce our net asset value by increasing net unrealized depreciation in our portfolio. Depending on market conditions, we could incur substantial realized losses and may suffer additional unrealized losses in future periods, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

Table of Contents*The Adviser may effectuate short sales that subject us to unlimited loss potential.

The Adviser may enter into transactions in which it sells a security it does not own, which we refer to as a short sale, in anticipation of a decline in the market value of the security. Short sales for our account theoretically will involve unlimited loss potential since the market price of securities sold short may continuously increase. Under adverse market conditions, the Adviser might have difficulty purchasing securities to meet short sale delivery obligations and may have to cover short sales at suboptimal prices.

Our investments in the healthcare industry are subject to numerous risks, including competition, extensive government regulation and commercial difficulties.

Our investments in portfolio companies in the healthcare industry, particularly the pharmaceuticals, devices, life sciences and facilities sub-sectors are subject to numerous risks. The successful and timely implementation of the business model of our healthcare portfolio companies depends on their ability to adapt to changing technologies and introduce new products. As competitors continue to introduce competitive products, the development and acquisition of innovative products and technologies that improve efficacy, safety and cost-effectiveness are important to the success of such portfolio companies. The success of new product offerings will depend on many factors, including the ability to properly anticipate and satisfy customer needs, obtain regulatory approvals on a timely basis, develop and manufacture products in an economic and timely manner, obtain or maintain advantageous positions with respect to intellectual property, and differentiate products from those of competitors. Failure by our portfolio companies to introduce planned products or other new products or to introduce products on schedule could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Further, the development of products by pharmaceuticals, devices, life sciences and facilities companies in the healthcare industry requires significant research and development, clinical trials and regulatory approvals. The results of product development efforts may be affected by a number of factors, including the ability to innovate, develop and manufacture new products, complete clinical trials, obtain regulatory approvals and reimbursement in the United States and abroad, or gain and maintain market approval of products. In addition, regulatory review processes by U.S. and foreign agencies may extend longer than anticipated as a result of decreased funding and tighter fiscal budgets. Further, patents attained by others can preclude or delay the commercialization of a product. There can be no assurance that any products now in development will achieve technological feasibility, obtain regulatory approval, or gain market acceptance. Failure can occur at any point in the development process, including after significant funds have been invested. Products may fail to reach the market or may have only limited commercial success because of efficacy or safety concerns, failure to achieve positive clinical outcomes, inability to obtain necessary regulatory approvals, failure to achieve market adoption, limited scope of approved uses, excessive costs to manufacture, the failure to establish or maintain intellectual property rights, or the infringement of intellectual property rights of others.

Changes in healthcare laws and other regulations applicable to some of our portfolio companies' businesses may constrain their ability to offer their products and services.

There has also been an increased political and regulatory focus on healthcare laws in recent years, and new legislation could have a material effect on the business and operations of some of our portfolio companies by increasing their compliance and other costs of doing business, requiring significant systems enhancements, or rendering their products or services less profitable or obsolete. In particular, the Food and Drug Administration ("FDA"), has established regulations, guidelines and policies to govern the development and approval of pharmaceuticals and medical devices, as have foreign regulatory authorities, which affect some of our portfolio companies. Any change in regulatory requirements due to the adoption by the FDA and/or foreign regulatory authorities of new legislation, regulations, or policies may require some of our portfolio companies to amend existing clinical trial protocols or add new clinical trials to comply with these changes. Such amendments to existing protocols and/or clinical trial applications or the need for new ones, may significantly impact the cost, timing and completion of the clinical trials. Also, any potential repeal and replace or overhaul to the Affordable Care Act may have adverse effects on certain healthcare sub-sectors due to changes in payer-mix, patient volumes, as well as other changes to the current law.

We may hold the debt securities of leveraged companies that may, due to the significant volatility of such companies, enter into bankruptcy proceedings.

Leveraged companies may experience bankruptcy or similar financial distress. The bankruptcy process has a number of significant inherent risks. Many events in a bankruptcy proceeding are the product of contested matters and adversary proceedings and are beyond the control of the creditors. A bankruptcy filing by an issuer may adversely and permanently affect the issuer. If the proceeding is converted to a liquidation, the value of the issuer may not equal the liquidation value that was believed to exist at the time of our investment. The duration of a bankruptcy proceeding is also difficult to predict, and a creditor's return on investment can be adversely affected by delays until a plan of reorganization or liquidation ultimately becomes effective. The administrative costs in connection with a bankruptcy proceeding are frequently high and would be paid out of the debtor's estate prior to any return to creditors. Because the standards for classification of claims under bankruptcy law are vague, our influence with respect to the class of securities or other obligations we own may be lost by increases in the number and amount of claims in the same class or by different classification and treatment. In the early stages of the bankruptcy process, it is often difficult to estimate the extent of, or even to identify, any contingent claims that might be made. In addition, certain claims that have priority by law (for example, claims for taxes) may be substantial, eroding the value of any recovery by holders of other securities of the bankrupt entity.

Depending on the facts and circumstances of our investments and the extent of our involvement in the management of a portfolio company, upon the bankruptcy of a portfolio company, a bankruptcy court may recharacterize our debt investments as equity interests and subordinate all or a portion of our claim to that of other creditors. This could occur even though we may have structured our investment as senior debt.

Economic recessions or downturns could impair the ability of our portfolio companies to repay loans and increase our costs, which, in turn, could increase our non-performing assets, decrease the value of our portfolio, reduce our volume of new loans and otherwise harm our operating results.

Many of our portfolio companies may be susceptible to economic slowdowns or recessions and may be unable to repay our loans during these periods. Therefore, our non-performing assets are likely to increase and the value of our portfolio is likely to decrease during these periods. Adverse economic conditions may also decrease the value of collateral securing some of our loans and the value of our equity investments. Economic slowdowns or recessions could lead to financial losses in our portfolio and a decrease in revenues, net income and assets. Unfavorable economic conditions also could increase our funding costs, limit our access to the capital markets or result in a decision by lenders not to extend credit to us. These events could prevent us from making new investments, increase credit losses and harm our operating results, which could have an adverse effect on our results of operations.

We may be subject to risks associated with syndicated loans.

From time to time, we may acquire interests in syndicated loans. Under the documentation for such loans, a financial institution or other entity typically is designated as the administrative agent and/or collateral agent. This agent is granted a lien on any collateral on behalf of the other lenders and distributes payments on the indebtedness as they are received. The agent is the party responsible for administering and enforcing the loan and generally may take actions only in accordance with the instructions of a majority or two-thirds of the holders of commitments and/or principal amount of the associated indebtedness. In most cases, we do not expect to hold a sufficient amount of the indebtedness to be able to compel any actions by the agent. For example, in many cases, our investments may represent less than the amount of associated indebtedness sufficient to compel such actions or represent subordinated debt which is precluded from acting and, consequently, we would only be able to direct such actions if instructions from us were made in conjunction with other holders of associated indebtedness that together with us compose the requisite percentage of the related indebtedness then entitled to take action. Conversely, if holders of the required amount of the associated indebtedness (excluding amounts held by us) desire to take certain actions, such actions may be taken even if we did not support such actions. Furthermore, if an investment is subordinated to one or more senior loans made to the applicable obligor, our ability to exercise such rights may be subordinated to the exercise of such rights by the senior lenders. Accordingly, we may be precluded from directing such actions unless we act together with other holders of the indebtedness. If we are unable to direct such actions, we cannot assure you that the actions taken will be in our best interests.

If an investment is a syndicated revolving loan or delayed drawdown loan, other lenders may fail to satisfy their full contractual funding commitments for such loan, which could create a breach of contract, result in a lawsuit by the obligor against the lenders and adversely affect the fair market value of our investment.

There is a risk that a loan agent may become bankrupt or insolvent. Such an event would delay, and possibly impair, any enforcement actions undertaken by holders of the associated indebtedness, including attempts to realize upon the collateral securing the associated indebtedness and/or direct the agent to take actions against the related obligor or the collateral securing the associated indebtedness and actions to realize on proceeds of payments made by obligors that are in the possession or control of any other financial institution. In addition, we may be unable to remove the agent in circumstances in which removal would be in our best interests. Moreover, agent loans typically allow for the agent to resign with certain advance notice.

Our investments in CLOs may be riskier and less transparent to us and our stockholders than direct investments in the underlying companies.

We intend to invest in CLOs. Generally, there may be less information available to us regarding the underlying debt investments held by CLOs than if we had invested directly in the debt of the underlying companies. As a result, our stockholders will not know the details of the underlying securities of the CLOs in which we will invest. Our CLO investments will also be subject to the risk of leverage associated with the debt issued by such CLOs and the repayment priority of senior debt holders in such CLOs. Our investments in prospective portfolio companies may be risky, and we could lose all or part of our investment.

Our financial results may be affected adversely if one or more of our equity or mezzanine debt investments in a CLO vehicle defaults on its payment obligations or fails to perform as we expect.

We intend to invest in the equity and mezzanine tranches in CLOs, which involve a number of significant risks. CLOs are typically highly levered, and therefore the equity and mezzanine tranches that we will invest in are subject to a higher risk of total loss. In particular, investors in CLOs indirectly bear risks of the underlying debt investments held by such CLOs. We will generally have the right to receive payments only from the CLOs, and will generally not have direct rights against the underlying borrowers or the entity that sponsored the CLOs. Although it is difficult to predict whether the prices of indices and securities underlying CLOs will rise or fall, these prices (and, therefore, the prices of the CLOs) will be influenced by the same types of political and economic events that affect issuers of securities and capital markets generally.

The investments we intend to make in CLOs will likely be thinly traded or have only a limited trading market. CLO investments are typically privately offered and sold in the primary and secondary markets. As a result, investments in CLOs may be characterized as illiquid securities. In addition to the general risks associated with investing in debt securities, CLOs carry additional risks, including, but not limited to: (i) the possibility that distributions from the underlying loans will not be adequate to make interest or other payments; (ii) the quality of the underlying loans may decline in value or default; and (iii) the complex structure of the security may not be fully understood at the time of investment and may produce disputes with the CLO or unexpected investment results. Further, our investments in equity and mezzanine tranches of CLOs will be subordinate to the senior debt tranches thereof.

Investments in structured vehicles, including equity and mezzanine debt instruments issued by CLOs, involve risks, including credit risk and market risk. Changes in interest rates and credit quality may cause significant price fluctuations. Additionally, changes in the underlying loans held by a CLO may cause payments on the instruments we hold to be reduced, either temporarily or permanently. Structured investments, particularly the subordinated interests in which we invest, are less liquid than many other types of securities and may be more volatile than the loans underlying the CLOs in which we invest.

Certain tax consequences of our investments

There are various tax risks with respect to some of our investments, including but not limited to, the risks discussed below.

Some of our investments outside the United States, including our CLO investments, may be treated as investments in passive foreign investment companies ("PFICs"), as defined below, and could subject us to U.S. federal income tax (including interest charges) on distributions received from a PFIC or on proceeds received from the disposition of shares in a PFIC, which tax cannot be eliminated by making distributions to our shareholders. However, we may elect to avoid the imposition of that tax. For example, we may elect to treat a PFIC as a "qualified electing fund" ("QEF") (i.e., make a "QEF election"), in which case we will be required to include our share of the PFIC's income and net capital gain annually, regardless of whether it receives any distribution from the PFIC. Alternatively, we may elect to mark the gains (and to a limited extent the losses) in such holdings "to the market" as though we had sold (and, solely for purposes of this mark-to-market election, repurchased) our holdings in those PFICs on the last day of our taxable year. Such gains and losses are treated as ordinary income and loss. The QEF and mark-to-market elections may have the effect of accelerating the recognition of income (without the receipt of cash) and increasing the amount required to be distributed for us to avoid taxation. Making either of these elections therefore may require us to liquidate other investments (including when it is not advantageous to do so) to meet our distribution requirement, which also may accelerate the recognition of gain and affect our total return.

If we own (directly or indirectly) 10% or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock of a foreign corporation or 10% or more of the total value of shares of all classes of stock of a foreign corporation that is treated as a controlled foreign corporation ("CFC") (including equity tranche investments and certain debt tranche investments in a CLO treated as CFC), we are a "U.S. Shareholder" for purposes of the CFC provisions of the Code. A CFC is a foreign corporation that, on any day of its taxable year, is owned (directly, indirectly, or constructively) more than 50% (measured by voting power or value) by U.S. Shareholders. A U.S. Shareholder is required to include in gross income for U.S. federal income tax purposes for each taxable year of the U.S. Shareholder its pro rata share of its CFC's "subpart F income" for the CFC's taxable year ending within the U.S. Shareholder's taxable year whether or not such income is actually distributed by the CFC. Subpart F income is treated as ordinary income, regardless of the character of the CFC's underlying income. To the extent we invest in CFCs, if any, and recognize subpart F income in excess of actual cash distributions from such CFCs, if any, we may be required to sell assets (including when it is not advantageous to do so) to generate the cash necessary to distribute as dividends to our shareholders all of our income and gains and therefore to eliminate any corporate-level tax liability.

Investments in distressed debt obligations that are at risk of or in default present special tax issues. Tax rules are not entirely clear about issues such as whether and to what extent we should recognize market discount on these debt obligations, when we may cease to accrue interest, OID or market discount, when and to what extent we may take deductions for bad debts or worthless securities and how we should allocate payments received on obligations in default between principal and income. We will address these and other related issues when, as and if we invest in such obligations, in order to seek to ensure that we distribute sufficient income to preserve our eligibility for treatment as a RIC and do not become subject to U.S. federal income or excise tax.

Our derivative transactions, as well as any of our other hedging, short sale or similar transactions, may be subject to one or more special tax rules (including, for instance, notional principal contract, mark-to-market, constructive sale, straddle, wash sale and short-sale rules). These rules may affect whether gains and losses we recognize are treated as ordinary or capital and/or as short-term or long-term, accelerate our recognition of income or gains, defer losses, and cause adjustments in the holding periods of our securities. The rules could therefore affect the amount, timing and/or character of our distributions to shareholders.

Because the tax rules applicable to derivative financial instruments are in some cases uncertain under current law, an adverse determination or future guidance by the IRS with respect to these rules (which determination or guidance could be retroactive) may affect whether we have made sufficient distributions, and otherwise satisfied the relevant requirements, to maintain our qualification as a RIC and avoid a corporate-level tax.

To qualify for the special tax treatment accorded RICs and their shareholders, we must meet certain source-of-income, asset diversification and annual distribution requirements. Our ability to pursue our investment strategy may be limited or adversely affected by our intention to qualify as a RIC and our strategy may bear adversely on our ability to so qualify.

We may not realize gains from our equity investments.

When we invest in mezzanine loans or senior secured loans, we may also invest in the equity securities of the borrower or acquire warrants or other equity securities as well. In addition, we may invest directly in the equity securities of portfolio companies. Our goal is ultimately to dispose of such equity interests and realize gains upon our disposition of such interests. However, the equity interests we receive may not appreciate in value and, in fact, may decline in value. Accordingly, we may not realize gains from our equity interests, and any gains that we do realize on the disposition of such equity interests may not be sufficient to offset any other losses we experience.

Our failure to make follow-on investments in our portfolio companies could impair the value of our portfolio, and our ability to make follow-on investments in certain portfolio companies may be restricted.

Following an initial investment in a portfolio company, we may make additional investments in that portfolio company as “follow-on” investments, in order to:

- increase or maintain in whole or in part our equity ownership percentage;
- exercise warrants, options or convertible securities that were acquired in the original or subsequent financing; or
- attempt to preserve or enhance the value of our investment.

We will have the discretion to make any follow-on investments, subject to the availability of capital resources, the limitations of the 1940 Act, the requirements associated with qualifying for the special tax treatment accorded RICs and their shareholders and contractual requirements under a credit facility or otherwise. We may elect not to make follow-on investments or otherwise lack sufficient funds to make those investments. The failure to make follow-on investments may, in some circumstances, jeopardize the continued viability of a portfolio company and our initial investment, or may result in a missed opportunity for us to increase our participation in a successful operation. Even if we have sufficient capital to make a desired follow-on investment, we may elect not to make a follow-on investment because we do not want to increase our exposure to the portfolio company, because we prefer other opportunities or because we are inhibited by compliance with business development company requirements, or our contractual requirements or the desire to qualify for the special tax treatment accorded RICs and their shareholders.

Table of Contents*Because we may not hold controlling equity interests in our portfolio companies, we may not be in a position to exercise control over our portfolio companies or to prevent decisions by management of our portfolio companies that could decrease the value of our investments.

Although we intend to take controlling equity positions in some of our portfolio companies, we do not intend to take a controlling equity interest in all of our portfolio companies. In addition, we may not be in a position to control any portfolio company by investing in its debt securities. As a result, we will be subject to the risk that a portfolio company may make business decisions with which we disagree, and the stockholders and management of a portfolio company may take risks or otherwise act in ways that are adverse to our interests. Due to the lack of liquidity for the debt and equity investments that we will typically hold in our portfolio companies, we may not be able to dispose of our investments in the event we disagree with the actions of a portfolio company, and we may therefore suffer a decrease in the value of our investments.

Defaults by issuers of our holdings will harm our operating results.

A portfolio company's failure to satisfy financial or operating covenants imposed by us or other lenders could lead to defaults and, potentially, termination of its loans and foreclosure on its assets. This could trigger cross-defaults under other agreements and jeopardize such portfolio company's ability to meet its obligations under the debt or equity securities that we hold. Our investments in loans of such issuers may be placed on non-accrual status under those circumstances, if principal and/or interest payments become overdue or if there is a reasonable doubt that principal or interest will be collected. We may incur expenses to the extent necessary to seek recovery upon default or to negotiate new terms, which may include the waiver of certain financial covenants, with a defaulting portfolio company. A payment default on a loan to a portfolio company or a default leading to the acceleration of debt of a portfolio company could cause the loan to such portfolio company held by us to become, or to be deemed to be, a defaulted obligation under a credit facility. This, in turn, could result in a coverage test under a credit facility not being met and the diversion of distributions of assets to pay down debt under the credit facility rather than to make distributions. Such a portfolio company default could also lead to an event of default and acceleration under a credit facility and liquidation by the related lender of the assets securing the credit facility. Any such diversion of cash flow or any event of default could result in our being unable to make distributions to our stockholders in amounts sufficient to qualify for the special tax treatment accorded RICs and their shareholders, or at all, and could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. Investments in issuers that are in default or that have been placed on non-accrual status have in the past represented and may in the future represent a significant portion of our portfolio.

Our investment adviser's liability will be limited under the Investment Advisory Agreement, and we have agreed to indemnify our investment adviser against certain liabilities, which may lead our investment adviser to act in a riskier manner on our behalf than it would when acting for its own account.

Under the Investment Advisory Agreement, our investment adviser will not assume any responsibility to us other than to render the services called for under that agreement, and it will not be responsible for any action of the Board in following or declining to follow our investment adviser's advice or recommendations. Our investment adviser maintains a contractual, as opposed to a fiduciary, relationship with us. Under the terms of the Investment Advisory Agreement, our investment adviser, its officers, members, personnel, and any person controlling or controlled by our investment adviser will not be liable to us, any subsidiary of ours, our directors, our stockholders or any subsidiary's stockholders or partners for acts or omissions performed in accordance with and pursuant to the Investment Advisory Agreement, except those resulting from acts constituting negligence or misconduct. In addition, we have agreed to indemnify our investment adviser and each of its officers, directors, members, managers and employees from and against any claims or liabilities, including reasonable legal fees and other expenses reasonably incurred, arising out of or in connection with our business and operations or any action taken or omitted on our behalf pursuant to authority granted by the Investment Advisory Agreement, except where attributable to negligence or misconduct. These protections may lead our investment adviser to act in a riskier manner when acting on our behalf than it would when acting for its own account.

Table of Contents*We may be obligated to pay our investment adviser incentive compensation even if we incur a net loss due to a decline in the value of our portfolio.

Our Investment Advisory Agreement entitles our investment adviser to receive incentive compensation on income regardless of any capital losses. In such case, we may be required to pay our investment adviser incentive compensation for a fiscal quarter even if there is a decline in the value of our portfolio or if we incur a net loss for that quarter.

Any incentive fee payable by us that relates to our net investment income may be computed and paid on income that may include interest that has been accrued but not yet received. If a portfolio company defaults on a loan that is structured to provide accrued interest, it is possible that accrued interest previously included in the calculation of the incentive fee will become uncollectible. Our investment adviser is not under any obligation to reimburse us for any part of the incentive fee it received that was based on accrued income that we never received as a result of a default by an entity on the obligation that resulted in the accrual of such income, and such circumstances would result in our paying an incentive fee on income we never received.

We may not apply or be approved for an SBIC license.

An affiliate of the Company may apply for a license to form an SBIC. If such an application is made and approved and the SBA so permits, we anticipate that the SBIC license would be transferred to a wholly-owned subsidiary of ours. Following such transfer, we anticipate that the SBIC subsidiary would be allowed to issue SBA-guaranteed debentures, subject to certain regulatory requirements. SBA guaranteed debentures carry long-term fixed rates that are generally lower than rates on comparable bank and other debt. We cannot assure that we will make an application for an SBIC license, be successful in receiving an SBIC license from the SBA or that the SBA will permit such license to be transferred to us. If we do receive an SBIC license, there is no minimum amount of SBA-guaranteed debentures that must be allocated to us.

Our portfolio companies may prepay loans, which prepayment may reduce our yields if capital returned cannot be invested in transactions with equal or greater expected yields.

The loans in our investment portfolio may be prepayable at any time. It is not clear at this time when each loan may be prepaid. Whether a loan is prepaid will depend both on the continued positive performance of the portfolio company and the existence of favorable financing market conditions that allow such company the ability to replace existing financing with less expensive capital. As market conditions change we do not know when, and if, prepayment may occur for each portfolio company. In the case of some of these loans, having the loan prepaid may reduce the achievable yield for us if the capital returned cannot be invested in transactions with equal or greater expected yields, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

The disposition of our investments may result in contingent liabilities.

We currently expect that a significant portion of our investments will involve private securities. In connection with the disposition of an investment in a private company, we may be required to make representations about the business and financial affairs of the portfolio company typical of those made in connection with the sale of a business. We may also be required to indemnify the purchasers of such investment to the extent that any such representations turn out to be inaccurate or with respect to certain potential liabilities. These arrangements may result in contingent liabilities that ultimately yield funding obligations that must be satisfied through our return of certain distributions previously made to us.

We may expose ourselves to risks if we engage in hedging transactions.

If we engage in hedging transactions, we may expose ourselves to risks associated with such transactions. We may borrow under a credit facility in currencies selected to minimize our foreign currency exposure or use instruments such as forward contracts, currency options and interest rate swaps, caps, collars and floors to seek to hedge against fluctuations in the relative values of our portfolio positions from changes in currency exchange rates and market interest rates. Hedging against a decline in the values of our portfolio positions caused by these risks does not eliminate the possibility of fluctuations in the values of such positions or prevent losses if the values of such positions decline for other reasons. Such hedging transactions may also limit the opportunity for gain if the values of the underlying portfolio positions should increase. Moreover, it may not be possible to hedge against an exchange rate or interest rate fluctuation that is so generally anticipated that we are not able to enter into a hedging transaction at an acceptable price. Our ability to engage in hedging transactions may also be adversely affected by recent rules adopted by the CFTC unless we register as a commodity pool operator. While we may enter into such transactions to seek to reduce currency exchange rate and interest rate risks, unanticipated changes in currency exchange rates or interest rates may result in poorer overall investment performance than if we had not engaged in any such hedging transactions. In addition, the degree of correlation between price movements of the instruments used in a hedging strategy and price movements in the portfolio positions being hedged may vary. Moreover, for a variety of reasons, we may not seek to establish a perfect correlation between such hedging instruments and the portfolio holdings being hedged. Any such imperfect correlation may prevent us from achieving the intended hedge and expose us to risk of loss. In addition, it may not be possible to hedge fully or perfectly against currency fluctuations affecting the value of securities denominated in non-U.S. currencies because the value of those securities is likely to fluctuate as a result of factors not related to currency fluctuations.

Investments in securities of foreign companies, if any, may involve significant risks in addition to the risks inherent in U.S. investments.

We may make investments in securities of foreign companies. Investing in foreign companies may expose us to additional risks not typically associated with investing in U.S. companies. These risks include changes in exchange control regulations, political and social instability, expropriation, imposition of foreign taxes, less liquid markets and less available information than is generally the case in the U.S., higher transaction costs, less government supervision of exchanges, brokers and issuers, less developed bankruptcy laws, difficulty in enforcing contractual obligations, lack of uniform accounting and auditing standards and greater price volatility.

In addition, any investments we make that are denominated in a foreign currency will be subject to the risk that the value of a particular currency will change in relation to one or more other currencies. Among the factors that may affect currency values are trade balances, the level of short-term interest rates, differences in relative values of similar assets in different currencies, long-term opportunities for investment and capital appreciation, and political developments. We may employ hedging techniques to minimize these risks, but we can offer no assurance that we will, in fact, hedge currency risk, or, that if we do, such strategies will be effective.

We may invest in foreign sovereign debt and the foreign governmental issuers of debt of the governmental authorities that control repayment of the debt may be unable or unwilling to repay principal or pay interest when due.

Investments in sovereign debt involve special risks. Foreign governmental issuers of debt or the governmental authorities that control the repayment of the debt may be unable or unwilling to repay principal or pay interest when due. In the event of default, there may be limited or no legal recourse. Political conditions, especially a sovereign entity's willingness to meet the terms of its debt obligations, are of considerable significance. The ability of a foreign sovereign issuer, especially an emerging market country, to make timely payments on its debt obligations will also be strongly influenced by the sovereign issuer's balance of payments, including export performance, its access to international credit facilities and investments, fluctuations of interest rates and the extent of its foreign reserves. In addition, there is no bankruptcy proceeding with respect to sovereign debt on which a sovereign has defaulted and the Company may be unable to collect all or part of its investment in a particular issue. Foreign investment in certain sovereign debt is restricted or controlled to varying degrees, including requiring governmental approval for the repatriation of income, capital or proceeds of sales by foreign investors. These restrictions or controls may at times limit or preclude foreign investment in certain sovereign debt and increase our costs and expenses.

We are not obligated to complete a liquidity event by a specified date; therefore, it will be difficult for an investor to sell his or her shares.

We intend to seek to complete a liquidity event for our stockholders within five years following the completion of our offering stage. We expect that the Board, in the exercise of the requisite standard of care applicable to directors under Delaware law, will determine to pursue a liquidity event when it believes that then-current market conditions are favorable for a liquidity event, and that such a transaction is in the best interests of our stockholders. A liquidity event could include (1) a listing of our shares on a national securities exchange, (2) the sale of all or substantially all of our assets either on a complete portfolio basis or individually followed by a liquidation or (3) a merger or another transaction approved by the Board in which our stockholders likely will receive cash or shares of a publicly traded company. However, there can be no assurance that we will complete a liquidity event within such time or at all. If we do not successfully complete a liquidity event, liquidity for an investor's shares will be limited to our share repurchase program, which we have no obligation to maintain.

We intend to offer to repurchase your shares on a quarterly basis. Only a limited number of shares will be repurchased, however, and, to the extent you are able to sell your shares under the repurchase program, you will not be able to recover the amount of your investment in those shares.

We intend to commence tender offers to allow you to tender your shares on a quarterly basis at a price equal to 90% of our public offering price in effect on the date of repurchase. The share repurchase program will include numerous restrictions that limit your ability to sell your shares. We intend to limit the number of shares repurchased pursuant to our share repurchase program as follows:

- we currently intend to limit the number of shares to be repurchased during any calendar year to the number of shares we can repurchase with the proceeds we receive from the sale of shares of our common stock under our distribution reinvestment plan, although at the discretion of the Board, we may also use cash on hand, cash available from borrowings and cash from liquidation of securities investments as of the end of the applicable period to repurchase shares;
- we will limit the number of shares to be repurchased in any calendar year to 10% of the weighted average number of shares outstanding in the prior calendar year, or 2.5% in each quarter;
- unless you tender all of your shares, you must maintain a minimum balance of $2,500 subsequent to submitting a portion of your shares for repurchase by us; and
- to the extent that the number of shares tendered for repurchase exceeds the number of shares we are able to repurchase, we will repurchase shares as nearly as may be pro-rata, except as permitted by Rule 13e-4 of the Exchange Act, not on a first-come, first-served basis. Further, we will have no obligation to repurchase shares if the repurchase would violate the restrictions on distributions under federal law or Delaware law, which prohibits distributions that would cause a corporation to fail to meet statutory tests of solvency. These limits may prevent us from accommodating all repurchase requests made in any year. The Board may amend, suspend or terminate the repurchase program upon 30 days' notice. We will notify you of such developments (1) in our quarterly reports or (2) by means of a separate mailing to you, accompanied by disclosure in a current or periodic report under the Exchange Act. In addition, although we have adopted a share repurchase program, we will have discretion to not repurchase your shares, to suspend the plan and to cease repurchases. Further, the plan has many limitations and should not be relied upon as a method to sell shares promptly or at a desired price.

Table of Contents*The timing of our repurchase offers pursuant to our share repurchase program may be at a time that is disadvantageous to our stockholders.

When we make quarterly repurchase offers pursuant to our share repurchase program, we may offer to repurchase shares at a price that is lower than the price that investors paid for shares in this offering. As a result, to the extent investors have the ability to sell their shares to us as part of our share repurchase program, the price at which an investor may sell shares, which we expect to be 90% of the offering price in effect on the date of repurchase, may be lower than what an investor paid in connection with the purchase of shares in this offering.

In addition, in the event an investor chooses to participate in our share repurchase program, the investor will be required to provide us with notice of intent to participate prior to knowing what the net asset value per share will be on the repurchase date. Although an investor will have the ability to withdraw a repurchase request prior to the repurchase date, to the extent an investor seeks to sell shares to us as part of our share repurchase program, the investor will be required to do so without knowledge of what the repurchase price of our shares will be on the repurchase date.

There is a risk that you may not receive distributions or that our distributions may not grow over time.

We cannot assure you that we will achieve investment results that will allow us to make a specified level of cash distributions or year-to-year increases in cash distributions. Also, due to the asset coverage test applicable to us as a business development company, we may be limited in our ability to make distributions. Finally, if more stockholders receive cash dividends and other distributions rather than opt to participate in our distribution reinvestment plan, we may be forced to liquidate some of our investments and raise cash in order to make distribution payments. All distributions will be paid at the discretion of the Board and will depend on our earnings, our financial condition, qualification for the special tax treatment accorded RICs and their shareholders, compliance with applicable business development company regulations and such other factors as the Board may deem relevant from time to time. We cannot assure you that we will pay distributions to our stockholders in the future.

Investing in our shares may involve an above average degree of risk and is intended for long-term investors.

The investments we make in accordance with our investment objective and strategies may result in a higher amount of risk than alternative investment options and volatility or loss of principal. Our investments in portfolio companies may be highly speculative and aggressive, and therefore, an investment in our shares may not be suitable for an investor with a lower risk tolerance. In addition, our common stock is intended for long-term investors.

We may allocate the net proceeds from the offering in ways with which you may not agree.

We will have significant flexibility in investing the net proceeds of our public offering. You will be unable to evaluate the manner in which the net proceeds of the offering will be invested or the economic merit of our expected investments and, as a result, we may use the net proceeds from the offering to invest in investments with which you may not agree. We intend to invest, under normal circumstances, at least 80% of our total assets in debt and equity of middle-market companies, with an emphasis on healthcare companies, syndicated floating rate debt of large public and non-public companies and mezzanine and equity tranches of CLOs. Additionally, we will not provide you with information on potential investments prior to our acquisition of such investments. In addition, we have flexibility under our investment policy to invest a significant portion of our assets in investments that are not debt or equity investments in middle-market companies. The failure of our management to apply net proceeds from this offering effectively or find investments that meet our investment criteria in sufficient time or on acceptable terms could result in unfavorable returns and could cause a material adverse effect on you.

Share Repurchase Program

On a quarterly basis, the Company intends to offer to repurchase shares of common stock on such terms as may be determined by the Board in its complete and absolute discretion unless, in the judgment of the independent directors of the Board, such repurchases would not be in the best interests of the Company's stockholders or would violate applicable law. The Company will conduct such repurchase offers in accordance with the requirements of Rule 13e-4 of the Exchange Act and the 1940 Act. In months in which the Company repurchases shares of common stock, it may, but will not necessarily, conduct repurchases on the same date that it holds its first weekly closing for the sale of shares of common stock in its public offering. Any offer to repurchase shares of common stock will be conducted solely through tender offer materials mailed to each stockholder.

The Company currently intends to limit the number of shares of common stock to be repurchased during any calendar year to the number of shares of common stock it can repurchase with the proceeds it receives from the sale of shares of common stock under its distribution reinvestment plan. At the discretion of the Board, the Company may also use cash on hand, cash available from borrowings and cash from liquidation of securities investments as of the end of the applicable period to repurchase shares of common stock. In addition, the Company will limit the number of shares of common stock to be repurchased in any calendar year to 10.0% of the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding in the prior calendar year, or 2.5% in each quarter, though the actual number of shares of common stock that the Company offers to repurchase may be less in light of the limitations noted above. The Company intends to offer to repurchase such shares of common stock at a price equal to 90% of the offering price in effect on each date of repurchase. In months in which the Company repurchases shares of common stock pursuant to its share repurchase program, it expects to conduct repurchases on the same date that it holds its first weekly closing in such month for the sale of shares of common stock in its continuous public offering. The Board may amend, suspend or terminate the share repurchase program at any time, upon 30 days' notice.

We will repurchase shares from a stockholder in the event of the stockholder's death or Qualifying Disability, as defined below, upon such shares being presented to us for repurchase. The repurchase price for repurchases in connection with a stockholder's death or Qualifying Disability will be the NAV as determined for the next weekly pricing period commencing after the receipt by our transfer agent of a repurchase request in proper form.

We will not be obligated to repurchase shares if more than 360 days have elapsed since the date of the death or Qualifying Disability of a stockholder. Further, the Board will have no obligation to repurchase shares if it would cause us to violate federal law or Delaware law. Moreover, the Board has the right to suspend or terminate this repurchase right to the extent that it determines it is in our best interest to do so. This repurchase right will terminate on the date that our shares are listed on a national securities exchange or are included for quotation in a national securities market. All shares to be repurchased must be (i) fully transferable and not be subject to any liens or other encumbrances and (ii) free from any restrictions on transfer. If we determine that a lien or other encumbrance or restriction exists against the shares requested to be repurchased, we will not repurchase any such shares.

In order for a disability to be considered a “Qualifying Disability,” (1) the stockholder must receive a determination of disability based upon a physical or mental condition or impairment arising after the date the stockholder acquired the shares to be repurchased, and (2) such determination of disability must be made by the governmental agency responsible for reviewing the disability retirement benefits that the stockholder could be eligible to receive (the “Applicable Governmental Agency”). For purposes of this repurchase right, Applicable Governmental Agencies are limited to the following:

- if the stockholder paid Social Security taxes and, therefore, could be eligible to receive Social Security disability benefits, then the Applicable Governmental Agency is the Social Security Administration or the agency charged with the responsibility for administering Social Security disability benefits at that time if other than the Social Security Administration;
- if the stockholder did not pay Social Security taxes and, therefore, could not be eligible to receive Social Security disability benefits, but the stockholder could be eligible to receive disability benefits under the Civil Service Retirement System (the “CSRS”), then the Applicable Governmental Agency is the U.S. Office of Personnel Management or the agency charged with the responsibility for administering CSRS benefits at that time if other than the U.S. Office of Personnel Management; or
- if the stockholder did not pay Social Security taxes and, therefore, could not be eligible to receive Social Security benefits, but suffered a disability that resulted in the stockholder’s discharge from military service under conditions that were other than dishonorable and, therefore, could be eligible to receive military disability benefits, then the Applicable Governmental Agency is the Department of Veterans Affairs or the agency charged with the responsibility for administering military benefits at that time if other than the Department of Veterans Affairs.

Disability determinations by governmental agencies for purposes other than those listed above, including, but not limited to, workers’ compensation insurance, the administration or enforcement of the Rehabilitation Act or Americans with Disabilities Act, or waiver of insurance premiums, will not entitle a stockholder to the repurchase right. Further, as the following disabilities do not entitle a worker to Social Security disability benefits, they do not qualify the stockholder for the repurchase right, except in the limited circumstances when the stockholder is awarded disability benefits by one of the Applicable Governmental Agencies described above: (a) disabilities occurring after the legal retirement age; and (b) disabilities that do not render a worker incapable of performing substantial gainful activity.

All stockholder repurchase requests must be accompanied by: (1) the investor’s initial application for disability benefits and (2) a Social Security Administration Notice of Award, a U.S. Office of Personnel Management determination of disability under CSRS, a Department of Veterans Affairs record of disability-related discharge or such other documentation issued by the Applicable Governmental Agency that we deem acceptable and that demonstrates an award of disability benefits.

If you tender all common shares you hold, or are considered to be holding, and you do not hold (directly or by attribution) any other units of our shares (e.g., preferred shares, if any), you will be treated as having sold your shares and generally will realize a capital gain or loss. If you tender fewer than all of your common shares or continue to hold (directly or by attribution) other units of our shares (e.g., preferred shares, if any), you may be treated as having received a distribution under Section 301 of the Code ("Section 301 distribution") unless the redemption is treated as being either (i) "substantially disproportionate" or (ii) otherwise "not essentially equivalent to a dividend" under the relevant rules of the Code. A Section 301 distribution is not treated as a sale or exchange giving rise to a capital gain or loss, but rather is treated as a dividend to the extent supported by our current and accumulated earnings and profits, with the excess treated as a return of capital reducing your tax basis in Company shares, and thereafter as capital gain. In such a case, there is a risk that non-tendering shareholders whose interests in us increase as a result of such tender will be treated as having received a taxable distribution from us.

To the extent we recognize net gains on the liquidation of portfolio securities to meet such tenders, we will be required to make additional distributions to our common shareholders.

For the year ended December 31, 2018, the Company also repurchased 3,752 shares as part of its death and disability program. For the year ended December 31, 2016, the Company also repurchased 15,553 shares as part of its death and disability program. Distributions

Subject to the Board's discretion and applicable legal restrictions, we intend to authorize and declare ordinary cash distributions on a weekly basis to be paid out monthly. We will then calculate each stockholder's specific distribution amount for the period using record and declaration dates, and each stockholder's distributions will begin to accrue on the date we accept each stockholder's subscription for shares of our common stock. From time to time, we may also pay special interim distributions in the form of cash or shares of common stock at the discretion of the Board. We also intend to distribute any net capital gains (i.e., realized net long-term capital gains in excess of realized net short-term capital losses) at least annually out of the assets legally available for such distributions. For example, the Board may periodically declare share distributions in order to reduce our NAV per share if necessary to ensure that we do not sell shares at a price below NAV per share. Each year a statement on Form 1099-DIV, identifying the source of the distributions (i.e., paid from ordinary income, paid from net capital gains on the sale of securities, and/or a return of capital, which is generally a nontaxable distribution), will be mailed to our stockholders. Our distributions may exceed our earnings and profits, especially during the period before we have invested substantially all of the proceeds from this offering. As a result, a portion of the distributions we make may represent a return of capital for tax purposes. A return of capital is a return of your investment rather than a return of earnings or gains derived from our investment activities and will be made after deduction of the fees and expenses payable in connection with the offering, including any fees payable to the Adviser. There can be no assurance that we will be able to pay distributions at a specific rate or at all.

In order to qualify for the special tax treatment accorded RICs and their shareholders, we must, among other things, distribute to our stockholders for each taxable year at least the sum of 90% of our investment company taxable income, which is generally our ordinary income and realized net short-term capital gains in excess of realized net long-term capital losses, if any, and 90% of any tax-exempt interest income on an annual basis out of the assets legally available for such distributions. In addition, we also intend to distribute any realized net capital gains (i.e., realized net long-term capital gains in excess of realized net short-term capital losses) at least annually out of the assets legally available for such distributions.

We have adopted an “opt in” distribution reinvestment plan for our stockholders. As a result, if we make a cash distribution, then stockholders will receive distributions in cash unless they specifically “opt in” to the distribution reinvestment plan so as to reinvest their cash distributions in additional shares of our common stock. However, certain state authorities or regulators may impose restrictions from time to time that may prevent or limit a stockholder’s ability to participate in our distribution reinvestment plan. If you do not elect to participate in the plan, you will automatically receive any distributions we declare in cash. Stockholders who receive distributions in the form of shares of common stock will generally be subject to the same federal, state and local tax consequences as stockholders who elect to receive their distributions in cash.

We intend to use newly issued shares to implement the plan. The number of shares to be issued to a stockholder is determined by dividing the total dollar amount of the distribution payable by the NAV determined in the last weekly closing of the month.

We may fund our cash distributions to stockholders from any sources of funds available to us, including offering proceeds, borrowings, net investment income from operations, capital gains proceeds from the sale of assets, non-capital gains proceeds from the sale of assets and expense reimbursements from the Adviser. We have not established limits on the amount of funds we may use from available source to make distributions.

Overview

We were formed in Delaware on September 30, 2013 and formally commenced operations on September 2, 2014. We are an externally managed, closed-end, non-diversified management investment company that has elected to be regulated as a business development company (a “BDC”) under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the “1940 Act”). In addition, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, we have elected to be treated as a RIC under Subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”) with retroactive effect to the date we elected to be treated as a BDC. As a BDC, we are also subject to certain constraints, including limitations imposed by the 1940 Act and the Code.

Our investment activities are managed by NexPoint Advisors, L.P. (our “Adviser”) and supervised by our board of directors (the “Board”), the members of which are independent of us.

Our investment objective is to generate high current income and long-term capital appreciation. We seek to achieve our objective by using the experience of the healthcare, credit and structured products teams of Highland Capital Management, L.P. (“Highland”) to source, evaluate and structure investments, identify attractive investment opportunities that are primarily debt investments that generate high income without creating undue risk for the portfolio, make equity investments where we believe there will be attractive risk-adjusted returns that compensate for the lack of current income, and make investments in debt and equity tranches of collateralized loan obligations, or CLOs, that deliver income and high relative value. We will focus on companies that are stable, have positive cash flow and the ability to grow their business model.

Our investment policy is to invest, under normal circumstances, at least 80% of our total assets in debt and equity of middle-market companies, with an emphasis on healthcare companies, syndicated floating rate debt of large public and nonpublic companies and mezzanine and equity tranches of CLOs. Middle-market companies include companies with annual revenues between $50,000,000 and $2,500,000,000 and syndicated floating rate debt refers to loans and other instruments originated by a bank to a corporation that are sold off, or syndicated, to investors in pieces. We consider a healthcare company to be a company that is engaged in the design, development, production, sale, management or distribution of products, services or facilities used for or in connection with the healthcare industry. Additionally, we consider companies that are materially impacted by the healthcare industry (such as a contractor that derives significant revenue or profit from the construction of hospitals) as being engaged in the healthcare industry. We may invest without limit in companies that are not in the healthcare sector.

We will leverage the expertise of Highland with regard to distressed investing and restructuring to make opportunistic investments in distressed companies. We will utilize the Highland credit underwriting capability to identify the types of companies we believe will provide high current income and/or long-term capital appreciation. In addition to the investments in the healthcare industry, we may invest a portion of our capital in other opportunistic investments in which the Adviser has expertise and where we believe an opportunity exists to achieve above average risk adjusted yields and returns. These types of opportunities may include: (1) direct lending or origination investments, (2) investments in stressed or distressed situations, (3) structured product investments, (4) equity investments and (5) other investment opportunities not typically available in other BDCs. Opportunistic investments may range from broadly syndicated deals to direct lending deals in both private and public companies and may include foreign investments. We believe this is the best approach to achieving our dual mandate of attempting to generate a high yield while also attempting to produce capital appreciation.

We seek to invest primarily in securities deemed by the Adviser to be high income generating debt investments and income generating equity securities of privately held companies in the United States. We expect the portfolio will be concentrated primarily in senior floating rate debt securities, although we may invest without limit in securities which rank lower than senior secured instruments and may invest without limit in investments with a fixed rate of interest. We will buy syndicated loans, various tranches of CLOs and other debt instruments in the secondary market as well as originate debt so we can tailor the investment parameters more precisely to our needs. We also intend to invest a portion of the portfolio in equity securities that are non-income producing, when doing so will help us achieve our objective of long-term capital appreciation. We expect the size of our positions will range from less than $1,000,000 to $20,000,000, although investments may be larger as our asset base increases. We may selectively make investments in amounts larger than $20,000,000 in some of our portfolio companies. While our asset base increases, we may make smaller investments. We may invest up to 15% of our net assets in entities that are excluded from registration under the 1940 Act by virtue of section 3(c)(1) and 3(c)(7) of the 1940 Act (such as private equity funds or hedge funds). This limitation does not apply to any CLOs, certain of which may rely on Section 3(c)(1) or 3(c)(7) of the 1940 Act.

We expect that many of the securities in which we invest will be rated below investment grade by independent rating agencies or would be rated below investment grade if they were rated. These securities, which may be referred to as “junk,” have predominantly speculative characteristics with respect to the issuer’s capacity to pay interest and repay principal. In addition, we expect that many of our debt investments will include floating interest rates that reset on a periodic basis and typically will not require the borrowers to pay down the outstanding principal of such debt prior to maturity.

We, Highland and the Adviser have obtained an exemptive order dated April 19, 2016 from the SEC to permit co-investments among the Company and certain other accounts managed by the Adviser or its affiliates, subject to certain conditions.

Public Offering

As a result of a series of private placements to the Adviser, we successfully satisfied the minimum offering requirement and officially commenced operations on September 2, 2014. In connection with the satisfaction of the minimum offering requirement and the commencement of our operations, the Investment Advisory Agreement became effective and the base management fee and any incentive fees, as applicable, payable to the Adviser under the Investment Advisory Agreement began to accrue. In aggregate as of December 31, 2019 the Adviser controls 2,513,370 total shares, including reinvestment of dividends, for a net amount of approximately $21.4 million. In February 2018, we closed our continuous public offering of shares of common stock.

Revenues

We generate a significant portion of our total revenue in the form of interest on the debt securities that we hold. We expect that the senior debt we invest in will generally have stated terms of 3 to 5 years and that the subordinated debt we invest in will generally have stated terms of 5 to 7 years. Our senior and subordinated debt investments bear interest at a fixed or floating rate. Interest on debt securities is generally payable monthly, quarterly or semiannually. In addition, some of our investments provide for deferred interest payments or payment-in-kind, or PIK, interest. We may also generate revenues in the form of dividends and other distributions on the equity or other securities we may hold. In addition, we may generate revenues in the form of commitment, closing, origination, structuring or diligence fees, monitoring fees, fees for providing managerial assistance, consulting fees, prepayment fees and performance-based fees. Any such fees generated in connection with our investments will be recognized as earned.

Expenses

We expect that our primary operating expenses will include the payment of fees to the Adviser under the Investment Advisory Agreement, our allocable portion of overhead expenses under the Administration Agreement and other operating costs described below. Prior to December 20, 2017, the Adviser was waiving most fees, subject to possible recoupment for expenses pertaining to periods from and after June 10, 2016. Effective December 20, 2017, the Adviser ended its voluntary waiver of advisory and administration fees. We bear all out-of-pocket costs and expenses of our operations and transactions, including:

- our organization (expenses initially paid by the Adviser until sufficient equity proceeds are raised);
- calculating our net asset value and net asset value per share (including the costs and expenses of independent valuation firms);
- fees and expenses, including travel expenses, incurred by the Adviser or payable to third parties in performing due diligence on prospective portfolio companies, monitoring our investments and, if necessary, enforcing our rights;
- interest payable on debt, if any, incurred to finance our investments;
- the costs of this and all future offerings of common shares and other securities, and other incurrence of debt;
- the base management fee and any incentive fee;
- distributions on our shares;
- administration fees payable to the Adviser under the Administration Agreement;
- transfer agent and custody fees and expenses;
- the actual costs incurred by the Adviser as our administrator in providing managerial assistance to those portfolio companies that request it;
- amounts payable to third parties relating to, or associated with, evaluating, making and disposing of investments;
- brokerage fees and commissions;
- registration fees;
- listing fees;
- taxes;
- independent director fees and expenses;
- costs associated with our reporting and compliance obligations under the 1940 Act and applicable U.S. federal and state securities laws;
- the costs of any reports, proxy statements or other notices to our stockholders, including printing costs;
- costs of holding stockholder meetings;

Table of Contents

- our fidelity bond;
- directors and officers/errors and omissions liability insurance, and any other insurance premiums;
- litigation, indemnification and other non-recurring or extraordinary expenses;
- direct costs and expenses of administration and operation, including audit and legal costs;
- fees and expenses associated with marketing efforts, including deal sourcing fees and marketing to financial sponsors;
- dues, fees and charges of any trade association of which we are a member; and
- all other expenses reasonably incurred by us or the Adviser in connection with administering our business.

During periods of asset growth, we expect our general and administrative expenses to be relatively stable or decline as a percentage of total assets and increase during periods of asset declines.

Expense Limitation

Pursuant to an expense limitation agreement (the “Expense Limitation Agreement”), the Adviser is contractually obligated to waive fees and, if necessary, pay or reimburse certain other expenses to limit ordinary “Other Expenses” to 1.0% of the quarter-end value of the Company’s gross assets through the one year anniversary of the effective date of the registration statement. Under the Expense Limitation Agreement, “Other Expenses” are all expenses with the exception of advisor and administration fees, organization and offering costs and the following: (i) interest, taxes, dividends tied to short sales, brokerage commissions, and other expenditures which are capitalized in accordance with U.S. GAAP; (ii) expenses incurred indirectly as a result of investments in other investment companies and pooled investment vehicles; (iii) other expenses attributable to, and incurred as a result of, our investments; (iv) expenses payable to the Adviser, as administrator, for providing significant managerial assistance to our portfolio companies; and (v) other extraordinary expenses (including litigation expenses) not incurred in the ordinary course of our business. The obligation will automatically renew for one-year terms unless it is terminated by the Company or the Adviser upon written notice within 120 days of the end of the current term or upon termination of the Investment Advisory Agreement. The Expense Limitation Agreement will continue through at least April 30, 2020.

Any expenses waived or reimbursed by the Adviser pursuant to the Expense Limitation Agreement are subject to possible recoupment by the Adviser within three years from the date of the waiver or reimbursement. The recoupment by the Adviser will be limited to the amount of previously waived or reimbursed expenses and cannot cause the Company’s expenses to exceed any expense limitation in place at the time of recoupment or waiver.

Reimbursable Expenses Table

The cumulative total of fees waived by the Adviser under the Expense Limitation Agreement which are recoupable as of December 31, 2019 was $903,985. This balance, and the balances in the tables below, only include amounts pertaining to the Expense Limitation Agreement, and do not include waived advisory and administration fees subject to recoupment discussed elsewhere herein.

Opportunistic Investments

The Adviser makes opportunistic investments when it believes it has a differentiated view on an investment, has sourced a unique opportunity, or an investment has the potential for, in the Adviser's opinion, an outsized return for the risk assumed. We will typically limit opportunistic investments to 20% or less of the portfolio, although we may invest more from time to time. The objective of opportunistic investments is primarily to generate capital appreciation, however, some opportunities may produce income as well.

We generate a significant portion of our investment income in the form of interest on the debt securities we purchase or originate. During the ramp up phase, we have invested primarily in broadly syndicated bank loans of private companies. Bank loans generally pay interest at rates which are periodically determined by reference to a base lending rate plus a spread. The base lending rate is typically the three-month LIBOR. The settlement of bank loans differs from the settlement of many other equity or debt instruments. Bank loans are manually settled through the agent by assignment. As a result, settlement can take an undetermined amount of time. Currently, according to data provided by Markit Partners, bank loans settle, on average, on the seventeenth day after the trade date. Generally, interest does not begin to accrue to the buyer until seven business days after the trade date.

Our CLO equity pays quarterly dividends based on excess cash flow available after the CLO's payment "waterfall" provisions. Both Grayson and PAMCO CLOs are past their respective investment periods, and as a result, excess cash flow is expected to decline over time. We, therefore, expect that the quarterly dividends paid by the investment will similarly decline.

Financial Condition, Liquidity and Capital Resources

As of December 31, 2019 and December 31, 2018, we had cash and cash equivalents of $7,764,892 and $7,112,205, respectively. As of December 31, 2019 and December 31, 2018, $7,745,979 and $6,957,619 was held in the State Street U.S. Government Money Market Fund, and $18,913 and $154,586 was held in a custodial account with State Street Bank and Trust Company, respectively. Cash and cash equivalents are available to fund new investments, pay operating expenses and pay distributions.

In aggregate as of December 31, 2019 the Adviser controls 2,513,370 total shares, including reinvestment of dividends, for a net amount of approximately $21.4 million.

The sales commissions and dealer manager fees related to the sale of our common stock were $0, $413,024, and $1,837,575 for the years ended December 31, 2019, 2018, and 2017 and were offset against capital in excess of par value on the financial statements.

We expect to generate cash primarily cash flows from fees, interest and dividends earned from our investments, as well as principal repayments and proceeds from sales of our investments.

Prior to investing in securities of portfolio companies, we invest the net proceeds from the issuance of shares of common stock under our distribution reinvestment plan and from sales and paydowns of existing investments primarily in cash, cash equivalents, U.S. government securities, repurchase agreements, high-quality debt instruments maturing in one year or less from the time of investment, consistent with our BDC election and our election to be treated as a RIC. Additionally, we may invest in higher yielding, liquid credit investments such as bank loans and corporate notes and bonds, which are considered “junk” as they are rated below investment grade, to the extent that at time of purchase 70% of our portfolio is in qualified investments as required by rules and regulations under the 1940 Act.

We may borrow funds to make investments, including before we have fully invested the proceeds of our continuous public offering, to the extent we determine that additional capital would allow us to take advantage of additional investment opportunities. On January 6, 2015, we entered into a senior, secured revolving credit facility (the “Credit Facility”) with State Street Bank and Trust Company (“State Street”) as lender and agent. Under the Credit Facility, State Street had agreed to extend credit to us, in an aggregate principal amount of up to $25 million, subject to borrowing base availability and restrictions on our total outstanding debt. Loans under the Credit Facility bore interest (at our election) at either (1) the higher of (i) the federal funds rate plus 1.25% per annum and (ii) the daily one-month London Interbank Offered Rate (“LIBOR”) plus 1.25% per annum or (2) one-, two- or three-month LIBOR plus 1.15% per annum. Interest was payable monthly in arrears. On January 5, 2016, the Company amended the Credit Facility with State Street and extended the maturity to January 3, 2017. The amendment to the Credit Facility did not contain any other material changes to the original agreement which was entered into on January 6, 2015 other than increasing the commitment fee from 0.15% to 0.25% per annum on the daily unutilized portion of the $25 million program amount. On January 3, 2017, the Company amended the Credit Facility with State Street and extended the maturity to March 20, 2017. The Credit Facility was fully paid down on February 24, 2017 and expired on March 20, 2017. The Company incurred costs of $25,000 in connection with obtaining the Credit Facility. As of December 31, 2018, all such financing costs have been amortized to interest expense.

On October 19, 2017, the Company entered into a financing arrangement (the “Financing Arrangement”) with BNP Paribas Prime Brokerage International, Ltd., BNP Prime Brokerage, Inc., and BNP Paribas (together, the “BNPP Entities”). Under the Financing Agreement, the BNPP Entities may make margin loans to the Company at a rate of one-month LIBOR + 1.30%. The BNPP Entities have the right to cap the amount of margin loans with prior notice to the Company. The Financing Arrangement may be terminated by either the Company or the BNPP Entities with 179 days’ notice.

As of December 31, 2019 and December 31, 2018, $33,714,864 and $32,583,965, respectively, were outstanding under the Financing Arrangement.

For the year ended December 31, 2019, 2018, and 2017, the components of total interest expense were as follows:

Direct interest expense	$ 1,233,085	$ 759,234	$ 95,181

On June 13, 2017, the Company, entered into the TRS with BNP Paribas over one or more loans, with a maximum aggregate notional amount of the portfolio debt securities subject to the TRS of $40 million. On April 2, 2018, the Company amended and restated the TRS Agreement with BNP Paribas to increase the maximum aggregate notional amount of the portfolio debt securities subject to the TRS to $60 million.

As of December 31, 2019, the TRS had a notional amount of $50,904,830 and a market value of $47,899,681. As of December 31, 2018, the TRS had a notional amount of $55,763,056 and a market value of $53,007,114. As of December 31, 2019 and December 31, 2018 cash collateral of $21,400,000 and $20,580,000, respectively, was posted against the TRS. See Note 7 to the financial statements included herein for additional information on the TRS.

While we are authorized to issue preferred stock, we do not currently anticipate issuing any.

Contractual Obligations and Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

We may become a party to financial instruments with off-balance sheet risk in the normal course of our business to meet the financial needs of our portfolio companies. These instruments may include commitments to extend credit and involve, to varying degrees, elements of liquidity and credit risk in excess of the amount recognized in the balance sheet. As of December 31, 2019 and December 31, 2018, we had no outstanding commitments to fund investments.

We have certain contracts under which we have material future commitments. We have entered into the Investment Advisory Agreement with the Adviser in accordance with the 1940 Act. Under the Investment Advisory Agreement, the Adviser provides us with investment advisory and management services. For these services, we pay (1) a management fee equal to a percentage of the average value of our gross assets and (2) an incentive fee based on our performance.

The incentive fee consists of two parts. The first part, which is calculated and payable quarterly in arrears, equals Pre-Incentive Fee Net Investment Income for the immediately preceding calendar quarter and is subject to a hurdle rate, expressed as a rate of return on our net assets, equal to 1.875% per quarter. As a result, the Adviser will not earn this incentive fee for any quarter until our pre-incentive fee net investment income for such quarter exceeds the hurdle rate of 1.875%. Once our pre-incentive fee net investment income in any quarter exceeds the hurdle rate, the Adviser will be entitled to a “catch-up” fee equal to the amount of the pre-incentive fee net investment income in excess of the hurdle rate, until our pre-incentive fee net investment income for such quarter equals 2.34375% of the Company’s net assets at the end of such quarter. This “catch-up” feature allows the Adviser to recoup the fees foregone as a result of the existence of the hurdle rate. Thereafter, the Adviser will receive 20.0% of our pre-incentive fee net investment income. For purposes of calculating this part of the incentive fee, “Pre-Incentive Fee Net Investment Income” means interest income, distribution income and any other income (including any other fees, other than fees for providing managerial assistance, such as commitment, origination, structuring, diligence and consulting fees or other fees that we receive from portfolio companies) accrued during the calendar quarter, minus our operating expenses for the quarter (including the base management fee, expenses payable under the Administration Agreement and any interest expense and any dividends paid on any issued and outstanding preferred stock, but excluding the incentive fee). Pre-Incentive Fee Net Investment Income includes, in the case of investments with a deferred interest feature (such as original issue discount, debt instruments with PIK interest and zero coupon securities), accrued income that we have not yet received in cash. Pre-Incentive Fee Net Investment Income does not include any realized capital gains, realized capital losses or unrealized capital appreciation or depreciation.

The second part of the incentive fee, which is referred to as the incentive fee on capital gains, is determined and payable in arrears as of the end of each calendar year (or upon termination of the Investment Advisory Agreement). This fee equals 20.0% of our incentive fee capital gains, which will equal our realized capital gains on a cumulative basis from formation, calculated as of the end of the applicable period, computed net of all realized capital losses (proceeds less amortized cost) and unrealized capital depreciation on a cumulative basis, less the aggregate amount of any previously paid capital gains incentive fees. We will accrue for the capital gains incentive fee, which, if earned, will be paid annually. We will accrue for the capital gains incentive fee based on net realized and unrealized gains; however, under the terms of the Investment Advisory Agreement, the fee payable to the Adviser will be based on realized gains and no such fee will be payable with respect to unrealized gains unless and until such gains are actually realized. For the years ended December 31, 2019, 2018, and 2017 the Company accrued $0, recognized a reduction of $(594,306), and accrued $418,739 of incentive fees on capital gains, respectively. Effective December 20, 2017, the Company ended its voluntary waiver of incentive fees. No such fees have been paid with respect to realized gains to the Adviser as of December 31, 2019.

Under the Administration Agreement, the Adviser furnishes us with office facilities and equipment, provides us clerical, bookkeeping and record keeping services at such facilities and provides us with other administrative services necessary to conduct our day-to-day operations. We will reimburse the Adviser for the allocable portion (subject to the review and approval of the Board) of overhead and other expenses incurred by it in performing its obligations under the Administration Agreement, including rent, the fees and expenses associated with performing compliance functions and our allocable portion of the cost of our chief financial officer and chief compliance officer and their respective staffs, to the extent that such expenses do not exceed an annual rate of 0.4% of our gross assets. The Adviser also provides on our behalf significant managerial assistance to those portfolio companies to which we are required to offer to provide such assistance and any expenses payable to the Adviser for such managerial assistance are not subject to the cap on reimbursement.

Our organization and offering costs together are limited to 1% of total gross proceeds raised and are not due and payable to the Adviser to the extent they exceed that amount. The cumulative aggregate amount of organization and offering costs exceeds 1% of total proceeds raised. Subsequent to the termination of the Offering, the Adviser forfeited the right to reimbursement of the remaining $4,305,091 of these costs.

If any of the contractual obligations discussed above is terminated, our costs under any new agreements that we enter into may increase. In addition, we would likely incur significant time and expense in locating alternative parties to provide the services we receive under our Investment Advisory Agreement and our Administration Agreement. Any new investment advisory agreement would also be subject to approval by our stockholders.

If for any taxable year we were not a “publicly offered” RIC within the meaning of Code Section 67(c)(2)(B), certain of our direct and indirect expenses, including the management fee, the incentive fee and certain other advisory expenses, would be subject to special “pass-through” rules. Such rules would treat these expenses as additional dividends to certain of our direct or indirect stockholders (generally including individuals and entities that compute their taxable income in the same manner as an individual) and, under current law are not deductible by those stockholders that are individuals (or entities that compute their taxable income in the same manner as an individual).

Distributions

In order to qualify for the special tax treatment accorded RICs and their shareholders, we are required under the Code, among other things, to distribute at least the sum of 90% of our net ordinary income and net short-term capital gains in excess of net long-term capital losses, or “investment company taxable income,” and 90% of any net tax-exempt interest income to our stockholders on an annual basis. We intend to authorize and declare monthly distributions to be paid monthly to our stockholders as determined by the Board. In addition, we also intend to distribute any realized net capital gains (i.e., realized net long-term capital gains in excess of realized net short-term capital losses) at least annually.

We may not be able to achieve operating results that will allow us to make distributions at a specific level or to increase the amount of our distributions from time to time. In addition, we may be limited in our ability to make distributions due to the asset coverage requirements applicable to us as a BDC under the 1940 Act. If we do not distribute a certain percentage of our income annually, we will suffer adverse U.S. federal income tax consequences, including possible failure to qualify for the special tax treatment accorded RICs and their shareholders. We cannot assure stockholders that they will receive any distributions.

To the extent our taxable earnings fall below the total amount of our distributions for a taxable year, a portion of those distributions may be deemed a return of capital to our stockholders for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Thus, the source of a distribution to our stockholders may be the original capital invested by the stockholder rather than our income or gains. Stockholders should read any written disclosure accompanying a distribution payment carefully and should not assume that the source of any distribution is our ordinary income or gains. Required distributions are driven by tax laws and thus tax accounting applies, not GAAP. Therefore, it is possible that we pay more in required distributions than we earn for book purposes. For the year ended December 31, 2019, 2018 and 2017, the Company did not distribute in excess of net investment income.

We have adopted an “opt in” distribution reinvestment plan for our stockholders. As a result, if we declare a cash distribution, our stockholders will receive distributions in cash unless they specifically “opt in” to the distribution reinvestment plan so as to have their cash distributions reinvested in additional shares of our common stock. However, certain state authorities or regulators may impose restrictions from time to time that may prevent or limit a stockholder’s ability to participate in our distribution reinvestment plan. Although distributions paid in the form of additional shares of our common stock will generally be subject to U.S. federal, state and local taxes in the same manner as cash distributions, stockholders participating in our dividend reinvestment plan will not receive any corresponding cash distributions with which to pay any such applicable taxes.

Related Party Transactions

We have entered into a number of business relationships with affiliated or related parties, including the following:

- We entered into the Investment Advisory Agreement with the Adviser. James Dondero, our president, controls the Adviser by virtue of his control of its general partner, NexPoint Advisors GP, LLC.
- Pursuant to an expense limitation agreement, the Adviser has agreed to waive fees or, if necessary, reimburse us to limit certain expenses to 1.0% of the quarter-end value of our gross assets.
- The Adviser provides us with the office facilities and administrative services necessary to conduct our day-to-day operations pursuant to the Administration Agreement.
- The Adviser has entered into an agreement with Highland, its affiliate, pursuant to which Highland makes available to the Adviser experienced investment professionals and other resources of Highland and its affiliates.
- The dealer manager for our continuous public offering, Highland Capital Funds Distributor, Inc., is an affiliate of the Adviser.
- In aggregate as of December 31, 2019, the Adviser controls 2,513,370 total shares, including reinvestment of dividends, for a net amount of approximately $21.4 million.
- Cumulatively since inception, the Adviser has paid $2,275,000 to voluntarily reimburse the Company for certain unrealized losses on investments. Had these payments not been made, the NAV as of December 31, 2019 would have been lower. These payments are not recoupable by the Adviser.

The Adviser and its affiliates also sponsor, or manage, and may in the future sponsor or manage, other investment funds, accounts or investment vehicles (together referred to as “accounts”) that have investment mandates that are similar, in whole and in part, with ours. The Adviser and its affiliates may determine that an investment is appropriate for us and for one or more of those other accounts. In such event, depending on the availability of such investment and other appropriate factors, and pursuant to the Adviser’s allocation policy and co-investment relief, the Adviser or its affiliates may determine that we should invest side-by-side with one or more other accounts. We do not intend to make any investments if they are not permitted by applicable law and interpretive positions of the SEC and its staff, or if they are inconsistent with the Adviser’s allocation procedures and co-investment relief.

In addition, we and the Adviser have each adopted a formal code of ethics that governs the conduct of our and the Adviser's officers, directors and employees. Our officers and directors also remain subject to the duties imposed by both the 1940 Act and the Delaware General Corporations Law.

Critical Accounting Policies

The preparation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses. Changes in the economic environment, financial markets and any other parameters used in determining such estimates could cause actual results to differ. We have identified the following as critical accounting policies.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

We will value our investments in accordance with ASC Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosure, or ASC Topic 820. ASC Topic 820 defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value and expands disclosures about assets and liabilities measured at fair value. ASC Topic 820's definition of fair value focuses on exit price in the principal, or most advantageous, market and prioritizes the use of market-based inputs over entity-specific inputs within a measurement of fair value.

The portfolio will often include debt investments and equity investments that are fair valued. The portion of our portfolio that receives values from independent third parties are valued at their mid quotations obtained from unaffiliated market makers, other financial institutions that trade in similar investments or based on prices provided by independent third party pricing services. For investments where there are no available bid quotations, fair value is derived using proprietary models that consider the analyses of independent valuation agents as well as credit risk, liquidity, market credit spreads, and other applicable factors for similar transactions.

Due to the nature of our strategy, our portfolio will include relatively illiquid investments that are privately held. Valuations of privately held investments are inherently uncertain, may fluctuate over short periods of time and may be based on estimates. The determination of fair value may differ materially from the values that would have been used if a ready market for these investments existed. Our net asset value could be materially affected if the determinations regarding the fair value of our investments were materially higher or lower than the values that we ultimately realize upon the disposal of such investments.

The Board, or its designee in good faith, is responsible for determining the fair value of the portfolio investments that are not publicly traded, whose market prices are not readily available on a quarterly basis in good faith or any other situation where portfolio investments require a fair value determination.

The valuation process is conducted at the end of each fiscal quarter, with a portion of our valuations of portfolio companies without market quotations subject to review by the independent valuation firms each quarter. When an external event with respect to one of our portfolio companies, such as a purchase transaction, public offering or subsequent equity sale occurs, we expect to use the pricing indicated by such external event to corroborate our valuation.

With respect to investments for which market quotations are not readily available, the Board undertakes a multi-step valuation process each quarter, as described below:

- Our quarterly valuation process begins with each portfolio company or investment being initially valued by investment professionals of our investment adviser responsible for credit monitoring.
- Preliminary valuation conclusions are then documented and discussed with our senior management and our investment adviser.
- The audit committee of the Board reviews these preliminary valuations.

Table of Contents

- At least once each quarter, the valuations for approximately one quarter of the portfolio investments that have been fair valued are reviewed by an independent valuation firm such that, over the course of a year, each material portfolio investment that has been fair valued shall have been reviewed by an independent valuation firm at least once.
- The Board discusses valuations and determines the fair value of each investment in our portfolio in good faith.

The Company values the TRS in accordance with the TRS Agreement. Pursuant to the TRS Agreement, the value of the TRS is based on the increase or decrease in the value of the loans underlying the TRS, together with accrued interest income, interest expense and certain other expenses incurred under the TRS. The loans underlying the TRS are valued based on indicative bid prices provided by an independent third-party pricing service. Bid prices reflect the highest price that market participants may be willing to pay. These valuations are sent to the Company for review and testing. The Valuation Committee and the Board review and approve the value of the TRS, as well as the value of the loans underlying the TRS, on a quarterly basis. To the extent the Valuation Committee or the Board have any questions or concerns regarding the valuation of the loans underlying the TRS, such valuation is discussed or challenged pursuant to the terms of the TRS Agreement. For additional information on the TRS, see Note 7 to the financial statements included herein.

Organization Costs

Organization costs include the cost of incorporation, such as the cost of legal services and other fees pertaining to our organization. Organization costs, together with offering costs, are limited to 1% of total gross proceeds raised in the offering and are not due and payable to the Adviser to the extent they exceed that amount. For the year ended December 31, 2019, 2018, and 2017, the Adviser did not incur any organization costs on our behalf.

Offering Costs

Our offering costs include legal fees, promotional costs and other costs pertaining to the public offering of our shares of common stock, and are capitalized and amortized to expense over one year. For the years ended December 31, 2019, 2018 and 2017, the Adviser incurred offering costs of $0, $238,568, and $954,765, respectively, on our behalf. For the years ended December 31, 2019, 2018 and 2017, the Company capitalized $0, 61,462 and $282,156, respectively, of offering costs. Of the capitalized offering costs, $5,445, $184,847 and $381,881 were amortized to expense during the years ended December 31, 2019, 2018 and 2017, respectively. As of December 31, 2019 and December 31, 2018, $0 and $5,445 remained on the Statement of Assets and Liabilities, respectively.

Organization costs and offering costs are limited to 1% of total gross proceeds raised in this offering and are not due and payable to the Adviser to the extent they exceed that amount. As of December 31, 2019, the cumulative aggregate amount of $5,327,574 of organization and offering costs exceeds 1% of total proceeds raised. Subsequent to the termination of the Offering, the Adviser forfeited the right to reimbursement of the remaining $4,305,091 of these costs.

Investment Transactions and Related Investment Income and Expense

We record our investment transactions on a trade date basis, which is the date when we have determined that all material terms have been defined for the transactions. These transactions could possibly settle on a subsequent date depending on the transaction type. All related revenue and expenses attributable to these transactions are reflected on the Statements of Operations commencing on the trade date unless otherwise specified by the transaction documents. Realized gains and losses on investment transactions are recorded on the specific identification method. We accrue interest income if we expect that ultimately we will be able to collect it. Generally, when an interest payment default occurs on a loan in our portfolio, or if our management otherwise believes that the issuer of the loan will not be able to service the loan and other obligations, we place the loan on non-accrual status and will cease recognizing interest income on that loan until all principal and interest is current through payment or until a restructuring occurs, such that the interest income is deemed to be collectible. However, we remain contractually entitled to this interest. We may make exceptions to this policy if the loan has sufficient collateral value and is in the process of collection. Accrued interest is written off when it becomes probable that such interest will not be collected and the amount of uncollectible interest can be reasonably estimated. We also accrue for delayed compensation, which is a pricing adjustment payable by the parties to a secondary loan trade that closes late, intended to assure that neither party derives an economic advantage from the delay. Delayed compensation begins calculating at the loan's specific coupon rate if a trade hasn't settled within 7 business days of trading. Original issue discounts, market discounts or premiums are accreted or amortized using the effective interest method as interest income, and will be accreted or amortized over the maturity period of the investments. We will record prepayment premiums on loans and debt securities as interest income. Dividend income, if any, will be recognized on an accrual basis to the extent that we expect to collect such amount.

We may have investments in our portfolio that contain a PIK interest provision. Any PIK interest will be added to the principal balance of such investments and is recorded as income, if the portfolio company valuation indicates that such PIK interest is collectible. In order to qualify for the special tax treatment accorded RICs and their shareholders, substantially all of our income (including PIK interest) must be distributed to stockholders in the form of dividends, even if we have not collected any cash.

Interest expense is recorded on an accrual basis. Certain expenses related to legal and tax consultation, due diligence, rating fees, valuation expenses and independent collateral appraisals may arise when we make certain investments.

Loan Origination, Facility, Commitment and Amendment Fees

We may receive fees in addition to interest income from loans during the life of the investment. We may receive origination fees upon the origination of an investment. These origination fees are initially deferred and deducted from the cost basis of the investment and subsequently accreted into income over the term of the loan. We may receive facility, commitment and amendment fees, which are paid to us on an ongoing basis. Facility fees, sometimes referred to as asset management fees, are accrued as a percentage periodic fee on the base amount (either the funded facility amount or the committed principal amount). Commitment fees are based upon the undrawn portion committed by us and are recorded on an accrual basis. Amendment fees are paid in connection with loan amendments and waivers and are accounted for upon completion of the amendments or waivers, generally when such fees are receivable. Any such fees are included in other income on the Statements of Operations.

Net Realized Gains or Losses and Net Change in Unrealized Appreciation or Depreciation

We measure net realized gains or losses by the difference between the net proceeds from the repayment or sale and the amortized cost basis of the investment, without regard to unrealized appreciation or depreciation previously recognized, but considering unamortized upfront fees and prepayment penalties. Net change in unrealized appreciation or depreciation will reflect the change in portfolio investment values during the reporting period, including any reversal of previously recorded unrealized appreciation or depreciation, when gains or losses are realized.

U.S. Federal Income Taxes

We have elected to be treated as a RIC under Subchapter M of the Code and intend each year to qualify and be eligible to be treated as such. As a RIC, we generally will not have to pay corporate-level federal income taxes on any investment company taxable income or net capital gains that we distribute as dividends to our stockholders. In order to qualify for the special tax treatment accorded RICs and their shareholders, we must meet certain gross income, diversification, and distribution requirements.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

Please refer to Note 2 to the financial statements included herein for discussion of recent accounting pronouncements.

Item 7A. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

We are subject to financial market risks, most significantly changes in interest rates. As of December 31, 2019, 56% (based on fair value) of the investments in our portfolio (including investments underlying the TRS) had floating interest rates, and both the TRS and the Financing Arrangement entered into with the BNPP entities have a floating rate structure. These investments are usually based on a floating LIBOR and typically have interest rate reset provisions that adjust applicable interest rates under such loans to current market rates on a monthly or quarterly basis.

Pursuant to the terms of the TRS, we pay fees to BNP Paribas a rate equal to one-month LIBOR plus 2.00% per annum on the utilized notional amount of the loans subject to the TRS in exchange for the right to receive the economic benefit of a pool of loans having a maximum notional market value amount of $60,000,000. Pursuant to the terms of the Financing Arrangement, we pay fees to the BNPP entities a floating rate based on the asset type, but generally one-month LIBOR plus 1.30% per annum on the amount borrowed. To the extent that any present or future credit facilities or other financing arrangements that we or any of our subsidiaries enter into are based on a floating interest rate, we will be subject to risks relating to changes in market interest rates. In periods of rising interest rates when we or our subsidiaries have such debt outstanding, or financing arrangements in effect, our interest expense would increase, which could reduce our net investment income, especially to the extent we hold fixed rate investments.

A rise in the general level of interest rates can be expected to lead to higher interest rates applicable to our debt investments, especially to the extent that we predominantly hold variable-rate investments, and to declines in the value of any fixed-rate investments we hold. To the extent that a majority of our investments may be in variable-rate investments, an increase in interest rates could make it easier for us to meet or exceed the hurdle rate for the income incentive fee payable to the Adviser and may result in a substantial increase in our net investment income, and also to the amount of incentive fees payable to our investment adviser with respect to our increasing pre-incentive fee net investment income.

Assuming that the Statement of Assets and Liabilities as of December 31, 2019 were to remain constant and that we took no actions to alter our existing interest rate sensitivity, the following table shows the annualized impact of hypothetical base rate changes in interest rates.

Change in interest rates	Increase (decrease) in interest income	(Increase) decrease in interest expense	Increase (decrease) in NII
Down 25 basis points	(154,955)	221,583	66,628
Up 50 basis points	309,911	(443,166)	(133,255)
Up 100 basis points	619,822	(886,333)	(266,511)
Up 200 basis points	1,239,643	(1,772,665)	(533,022)
Up 300 basis points	1,859,465	(2,658,998)	(799,533)

- (1) Includes the net effect of the change in interest rates on the unrealized appreciation (depreciation) on the TRS. As of December 31, 2019, 100% of the loans underlying the TRS paid variable interest rates.

Although we believe that this analysis is indicative of our existing sensitivity to interest rate changes, it does not adjust for changes in the credit market, credit quality, the size and composition of the assets in our portfolio and other business developments, including borrowing under future credit facilities or other borrowing. Accordingly, we can offer no assurances that actual results would not differ materially from the analysis above.

We may in the future hedge against interest rate fluctuations by using standard hedging instruments such as interest rate swaps, futures, options and forward contracts to the limited extent permitted under the 1940 Act and applicable commodities laws. While hedging activities may insulate us against adverse changes in interest rates, they may also limit our ability to participate in the benefits of lower interest rates with respect to the investments in our portfolio with fixed interest rates.

NexPoint Capital, Inc.
As of December 31, 2019

- (1) Unless otherwise noted, the Company did not “control” and was not an “affiliated person” of any of its portfolio companies, each as defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the “1940 Act”). In general, under the 1940 Act, the Company would be presumed to “control” a portfolio company if it owned 25% or more of its voting securities or had the power to exercise control over the management or policies of such portfolio company, and would be an “affiliated person” of a portfolio company if it owned 5% or more of its voting securities. Additionally, companies under common control (e.g., companies with a common owner of greater than 25% of their respective voting securities) are affiliates under the 1940 Act.
- (2) All investments are denominated in United States Dollars.
- (3) Amortized cost represents the original cost adjusted for the amortization of premiums and/or accretion of discounts, as applicable, on investments.
- (4) Senior secured loans in which the Company invests generally pay interest at rates which are periodically determined by reference to a base lending rate plus a spread (unless otherwise identified, all senior secured loans carry a variable rate of interest). These base lending rates are generally (i) the Prime Rate offered by one or more major United States banks, (ii) the lending rate offered by one or more European banks such as the London Interbank Offered Rate (“LIBOR”) or (iii) the coupon rate. Rate shown represents the actual rate at December 31, 2019. Senior secured loans, while exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933 (the “1933 Act”), contain certain restrictions on resale and cannot be sold publicly. Senior secured floating rate loans often require prepayments from excess cash flow or permit the borrower to repay at its election. The degree to which borrowers repay, whether as a contractual requirement or at their election, cannot be predicted with accuracy. As a result, the actual remaining maturity may be substantially less than the stated maturity shown.
- (5) The interest rate on these investments is subject to a base rate of 3-Month LIBOR, which at December 31, 2019 was 1.91%. The LIBOR rate used to calculate interest is the higher of the prevailing 3 month LIBOR rate in effect on the date of the quarterly reset, or the LIBOR base rate floor shown.
- (6) The interest rate on these investments is subject to a base rate of 1-Month LIBOR, which at December 31, 2019 was 1.76%. The LIBOR rate used to calculate interest is the higher of the prevailing 1 month LIBOR rate in effect on the date of the monthly reset, or the LIBOR base rate floor shown.
- (7) The investment is not a qualifying asset under Section 55 of the 1940 Act. A business development company, such as the Company, may not acquire any asset other than a qualifying asset, unless at the time the acquisition is made, qualifying assets represent at least 70% of the business development company’s total assets. Non-qualifying assets represented 29.4% of the Company’s total assets as of December 31, 2019.
- (8) All or a portion of this position has not settled. Full contract rates do not take effect until settlement date.
- (9) Classified as Level 3 within the three-tier fair value hierarchy. Please see Note 2 for an explanation of this hierarchy, as well as a list of unobservable inputs used in the valuation of these instruments.
- (10) Represents fair value as determined by the Company’s Board of Directors (the “Board”), or its designee in good faith, pursuant to the policies and procedures approved by the Board. The Board considers fair valued securities to be securities for which market quotations are not readily available and these securities may be valued using a combination of observable and unobservable inputs. Securities with a total aggregate value of $20,382,436 or 22.9% of net assets were fair valued under the Company’s valuation procedures as of December 31, 2019.
- (11) The investment represents value held in escrow pending future events. No interest is being accrued.
- (12) Non-income producing security.
- (13) Securities exempt from registration under Rule 144A of the 1933 Act. These securities may only be resold in transactions exempt from registration to qualified institutional buyers. As of December 31, 2019, these securities amounted to $45,199,389, or 50.8% of net assets.
- (14) The investment is considered to be the equity tranche of the issuer.
- (15) Securities of collateralized loan obligations where an affiliate of the Adviser serves as collateral manager.
- (16) The issuer is in default of its payment obligation, or is in danger of default.
- (17) Represents an affiliated issuer. Assets with a total aggregate market value of $5,753,369, or 6.5% of net assets, were affiliated with the Company as of December 31, 2019 (see Note 10).
- (18) All or part of this security is pledged as collateral for margin/facility borrowings. The market value of the securities pledged as collateral was $63,025,400.
- (19) The issuer has suspended the quarterly dividend for this security.
- (20) State Street U.S. Government Money Market Fund.
- (21) Notional value of the underlying securities in the Total Return Swap is calculated by multiplying par by the initial price.
- (22) The investment is deemed to be a “controlled affiliated person” of the Company because the Company owns, either directly or indirectly, 25% or more of the portfolio company’s outstanding voting securities or has the power to exercise control over management or policies of such portfolio company. See Note 4 “Related Party Transactions and Arrangements”.

NexPoint Capital, Inc. (the “Company”) is an externally managed, non-diversified, closed-end management investment company that has elected to be regulated as a business development company (“BDC”) under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the “1940 Act”). The Company follows the investment company accounting and reporting guidance of the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) Accounting Standard Codification Topic 946 Financial Services—Investment Companies. The Company’s investment objective is to generate current income and capital appreciation primarily through investments in middle-market healthcare companies, middle-market companies in non-healthcare sectors, syndicated floating rate debt of large public and nonpublic companies and collateralized loan obligations. The Company has elected to be treated for federal income tax purposes, and intends to qualify annually thereafter, as a regulated investment company (“RIC”), under Subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”). In this report, “we,” “us” and “our” refer to NexPoint Capital, Inc.

The Company was formed in Delaware on September 30, 2013 and formally commenced operations on September 2, 2014 upon satisfying the minimum offering requirement by raising gross proceeds of $10.0 million in connection with a private placement with NexPoint Advisors, L.P. (the “Adviser”), our external advisor. In aggregate through December 31, 2019, the Adviser controls 2,513,370 total shares, including reinvestment of dividends, for a net amount of approximately $21.4 million.

The Company has retained the Adviser to manage certain aspects of its affairs on a day-to-day basis. NexPoint Securities, Inc. (formerly, Highland Capital Funds Distributor, Inc.) (the “Dealer Manager”), an entity under common ownership with the Adviser, served as the dealer manager of the Company’s continuous public offering prior to the termination of the offering. The Adviser and Dealer Manager are related parties and will receive fees and other compensation for services related to the investment and management of the Company’s assets and the continuous public offering. The Company’s continuous public offering ended on February 14, 2018.

Note 2—Summary of Significant Accounting PoliciesBasis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements of the Company are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“GAAP”). Additionally, the accompanying financial statements of the Company and related financial information have been prepared pursuant to the requirements for reporting on Form 10-K and Article 6 of Regulation S-X.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Statements of Cash Flows

Information on financial transactions which have been settled through the receipt or disbursement of cash is presented in the Statements of Cash Flows. The cash amount shown in the Statements of Cash Flows is the amount included within the Company’s Statements of Assets and Liabilities and includes cash on hand at its custodian bank.

Table of ContentsCash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers liquid assets deposited with a bank and certain short-term debt instruments with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents. These investments represent amounts held with financial institutions that are readily accessible to pay Company expenses or purchase investments. Cash and cash equivalents are valued at cost plus accrued interest, which approximates market value. The value of cash equivalents denominated in foreign currencies, if any, is determined by converting to U.S. dollars on the date of the Statements of Assets and Liabilities. As of December 31, 2019 and 2018, the Company had cash and cash equivalents of $7,764,892 and $7,112,205, respectively. As of December 31, 2019 and 2018, $7,745,979 and $6,957,619 was held in the State Street U.S. Government Money Market Fund, and $18,913 and $154,586 was held in a custodial account with State Street Bank and Trust Company, respectively.

Securities Sold Short and Restricted Cash

The Company may sell securities short. A security sold short is a transaction in which the Company sells a security it does not own in anticipation that the market price of that security will decline. When the Company sells a security short, it must borrow the security sold short from a broker-dealer and deliver it to the buyer upon conclusion of the transaction. The Company may have to pay a fee to borrow particular securities and is often obligated to pay over any dividends or other payments received on such borrowed securities. Cash held as collateral for securities sold short is classified as restricted cash on the Statements of Assets and Liabilities. Securities held as collateral for securities sold short are shown on the Schedule of Investments for the Company, as applicable. As of December 31, 2019 and 2018, the Company did not have any securities sold short.

When securities are sold short, the Company intends to limit exposure to a possible market decline in the value of its portfolio companies through short sales of securities that the Adviser believes possess volatility characteristics similar to those being hedged. In addition, the Company may use short sales for non-hedging purposes to pursue its investment objective. Subject to the requirements of the 1940 Act and the Code, the Company will not make a short sale if, after giving effect to such sale, the market value of all securities sold short by the Company exceeds 25% of the value of its total assets.

Other Fee Income

Fee income may consist of origination/closing fees, amendment fees, administrative agent fees, transaction break-up fees and other miscellaneous fees. Origination fees, amendment fees, and other similar fees are non-recurring fee sources. Such fees are received on a transaction by transaction basis and do not constitute a regular stream of income. For the years ended December 31, 2019, 2018 and 2017 the Company recognized $49,895, $10,483 and $37,586 of fee income, respectively.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Accounting Standards Codification Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosure ("ASC Topic 820") defines fair value as the price that would be received from the sale of an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. ASC Topic 820 also establishes a three-tier fair value hierarchy, which prioritizes the inputs used in measuring fair value. These tiers include: Level 1, defined as observable inputs such as quoted prices in active markets; Level 2, which includes inputs such as quoted prices for similar securities in active markets and quoted prices for identical securities where there is little or no activity in the market; and Level 3, defined as unobservable inputs for which little or no market data exists, therefore requiring an entity to develop its own assumptions.

The Company determines the net asset value of its investment portfolio each quarter, or more frequently as needed. Securities that are publicly-traded are valued at the reported closing price on the valuation date. Securities that are not publicly-traded are valued at fair value as determined in good faith by the board of directors of the Company (the “Board”) or by the Adviser, pursuant to board-approved procedures. In connection with that determination, the Company will provide the Board with portfolio company valuations which are based on relevant inputs, including indicative dealer quotes, values of like securities, recent portfolio company financial statements and forecasts, and valuations prepared by third-party valuation services.

With respect to investments for which market quotations are not readily available, the Board and the Adviser undertake a multi-step valuation process, as described below:

- The valuation process begins with each portfolio company or investment being initially valued by investment professionals of the Adviser responsible for credit monitoring.
- Preliminary valuation conclusions are then documented and discussed with senior management of the Adviser (the “Valuation Committee”).
- The audit committee of the Board reviews these preliminary valuations.
- At least once each quarter, the valuations for approximately one quarter of the portfolio investments that have been fair valued are reviewed by an independent valuation firm such that, over the course of a year, each material portfolio investment that has been fair valued shall have been reviewed by an independent valuation firm at least once.
- Based on this information, the Board discusses valuations and determines the fair value of each investment in the portfolio in good faith.

Determination of fair value involves subjective judgments and estimates. Accordingly, the notes to the Company's financial statements will refer to the uncertainty with respect to the possible effect of such valuations, and any change in such valuations, in the Company's financial statements. Below is a description of factors that the Valuation Committee and the Board may consider when valuing the Company's debt and equity investments.

Valuation of fixed income investments, such as loans and debt securities, depends upon a number of factors, including prevailing interest rates for like securities, expected volatility in future interest rates, call features, put features and other relevant terms of the debt. For investments without readily available market prices, the Company may incorporate these factors into discounted cash flow models to arrive at fair value. Other factors that the Board may consider include the borrower's ability to adequately service its debt, the fair market value of the portfolio company in relation to the face amount of its outstanding debt and the quality of collateral securing the Company's debt investments.

The Company's equity investments in portfolio companies for which there is no liquid public market will be valued at fair value. The Valuation Committee and the Board, in its analysis of fair value, may consider various factors, such as multiples of earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization ("EBITDA"), cash flows, net income, revenues or, in limited instances, book value or liquidation value. All of these factors may be subject to adjustments based upon the particular circumstances of a portfolio company or the Company's actual investment position. For example, adjustments to EBITDA may take into account compensation to previous owners or acquisition, recapitalization, restructuring or other related items.

The Valuation Committee and the Board may also look to private merger and acquisition statistics, public trading multiples discounted for illiquidity and other factors, valuations implied by third-party investments in the portfolio companies or industry practices in determining fair value. The Valuation Committee and the Board may also consider the size and scope of a portfolio company and its specific strengths and weaknesses, as well as any other factors it deems relevant in assessing the value. Generally, the value of the Company's equity interests in public companies for which market quotations are readily available will be based upon the most recent closing public market price.

If the Company receives warrants or other equity-linked securities at nominal or no additional cost in connection with an investment in a debt security, the Company will allocate the cost basis in the investment between the debt securities and any such warrants or other equity-linked securities received at the time of origination. The Valuation Committee and the Board will subsequently value these warrants or other equity-linked securities received at fair value.

As applicable, the Company values its Level 2 assets by using the midpoint of the prevailing bid and ask prices from dealers on the date of the relevant period end, which is provided by an independent third-party pricing service and screened for validity by such service. For investments for which the third-party pricing service is unable to obtain quoted prices, the Company obtains bid and ask prices directly from dealers who make a market in such investments.

To the extent that the Company holds investments for which no active secondary market exists and, therefore, no bid and ask prices can be readily obtained, the Valuation Committee utilizes an independent third-party valuation service to value such investments.

The Company periodically benchmarks the bid and ask prices received from the third-party pricing service and/or dealers, as applicable, and valuations received from the third-party valuation service against the actual prices at which it purchases and sells its investments. The Company believes that these prices are reliable indicators of fair value. The Company's Valuation Committee and the Board review and approve the valuation determinations made with respect to these investments in a manner consistent with the Company's valuation process.

As of December 31, 2019, the Company's investments consisted of senior secured loans, unsecured loans, bonds, asset-backed securities, mortgage-backed securities, common stocks, LLC interests, preferred stocks, a closed-end mutual fund, a total return swap ("TRS") and rights and warrants, which may be purchased for a fraction of the price of the underlying securities. The fair value of the Company's loans, bonds and asset-backed securities are generally based on quotes received from brokers or independent pricing services. Loans, bonds and asset-backed securities with quotes that are based on actual trades with a sufficient level of activity on or near the measurement date are classified as Level 2 assets. Loans, bonds and asset-backed securities that are priced using quotes derived from implied values, indicative bids or a limited number of actual trades are classified as Level 3 assets because the inputs used by the brokers and pricing services to derive the values are not readily observable.

The fair value of the Company's common stocks and options that are not actively traded on national exchanges are generally priced using quotes derived from implied values, indicative bids, or a limited amount of actual trades and are classified as Level 3 assets because the inputs used by the brokers and pricing services to derive the values are not readily observable. Exchange traded options are valued based on the last trade price on the primary exchange on which they trade. If an option does not trade, the mid-price is utilized to value the option.

The Company values the TRS in accordance with the agreement (the "TRS Agreement") with BNP Paribas ("BNP Paribas") that establishes the TRS. Pursuant to the TRS Agreement, the value of the TRS is based on the increase or decrease in the value of the loans underlying the TRS, together with accrued interest income, interest expense and certain other expenses incurred under the TRS. The loans underlying the TRS are valued based on indicative bid prices provided by an independent third-party pricing service. Bid prices reflect the highest price that market participants may be willing to pay. These valuations are sent to the Company for review and testing. The Valuation Committee and the Board review the value of the loans underlying the TRS, on a quarterly basis. To the extent the Valuation Committee or the Board have any questions or concerns regarding the valuation of the loans underlying the TRS, such valuation is discussed or challenged pursuant to the terms of the TRS Agreement. For additional information on the TRS, see Note 7.

At the end of each calendar quarter, the Company evaluates the Level 2 and 3 investments for changes in liquidity, including: whether a broker is willing to execute at the quoted price, the depth and consistency of prices from third party services, and the existence of contemporaneous, observable trades in the market. Additionally, management evaluates the Level 1 and 2 assets and liabilities on a quarterly basis for changes in listings or delistings on national exchanges.

Due to the inherent uncertainty of determining the fair value of investments that do not have a readily available market price, the fair value of the Company's investments may fluctuate from period to period. Additionally, the fair value of investments may differ significantly from the values that would have been used had a ready market existed for such investments and may differ materially from the values the Company may ultimately realize. Further, such investments may be subject to legal and other restrictions on resale or otherwise less liquid than publicly traded securities.

The inputs or methodology used for valuing investments are not necessarily an indication of the risk associated with investing in those investments. Transfers in and out of the levels are recognized at the fair value at the end of the period. Investments designated as Level 3 may include investments valued using quotes or indications furnished by brokers which are based on models or estimates and may not be executable prices. In light of the developing market conditions, the Adviser continues to search for observable data points and evaluate broker quotes and indications received for investments. Determination of fair values is uncertain because it involves subjective judgments and estimates that are unobservable. Transfers from Level 2 to Level 3 are due to a decrease in market activity (e.g. frequency of trades), which resulted in a decrease of available market inputs to determine price. For the year ended December 31, 2019, there were no transfers from Level 2 to Level 3. Transfers from Level 3 to Level 2 and from Level 2 to Level 1 are due to an increase in market activity (e.g. frequency of trades), which resulted in an increase of available market inputs to determine price. For the year ended December 31, 2018, $1,055,803 was transferred from Level 2 to Level 3.

Derivative Transactions

The Company is subject to equity price risk, interest rate risk and foreign currency exchange rate risk in the normal course of pursuing its investment objective. The Company may invest without limitation in warrants and may also use derivatives, primarily swaps (including equity, variance and volatility swaps), options and futures contracts on securities, interest rates, commodities and/or currencies, as substitutes for direct investments the Company can make. The Company may also use derivatives such as swaps, options (including options on futures), futures, and foreign currency transactions (e.g., foreign currency swaps, futures and forwards) to any extent deemed by the Adviser to be in the best interest of the Company, and to the extent permitted by the 1940 Act, to hedge various investments for risk management and speculative purposes. For additional information on the TRS, please see Note 7.

Options

The Company purchases options, subject to certain limitations. The Company may invest in options contracts to manage its exposure to the stock and bond markets and fluctuations in foreign currency values. Writing puts and buying calls tend to increase the Company's exposure to the underlying instrument while buying puts and writing calls tend to decrease the Company's exposure to the underlying instrument, or economically hedge other Company investments. The Company's risks in using these contracts include changes in the value of the underlying instruments, nonperformance of the counterparties under the contracts' terms and changes in the liquidity of the secondary market for the contracts. Options are valued at the last sale price, or if no sales occurred on that day, at the last quoted bid price. As of and during the year ended December 31, 2019 and December 31, 2018, the Company did not hold options.

Investment Transactions

Investment transactions are accounted for on trade date. Realized gains/(losses) on investments sold are recorded on the basis of specific identification method for both financial statement and U.S. federal income tax purposes. Payable for investments purchased and receivable for investments sold on the Statements of Assets and Liabilities, if any, represents the cost of purchases and proceeds from sales of investment securities, respectively, for trades that have been executed but not yet settled.

Table of ContentsIncome Recognition

Corporate actions (including cash dividends from common stock and equity tranches of asset-backed securities) are recorded on the ex-dividend date, net of applicable withholding taxes, except for certain foreign corporate actions, which are recorded as soon after the ex-dividend date as such information becomes available. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. The Company does not accrue as a receivable for interest or dividends on loans, asset-backed securities and other securities if there is a reason to doubt the Company's ability to collect such income. For loans with contractual PIK (payment-in-kind) interest income, which represents contractual interest accrued and added to the loan balance that generally becomes due at maturity, we will not accrue PIK interest if we believe that the PIK interest is no longer collectible. Loan origination fees, original issue discount and market discount are capitalized and such amounts are amortized as interest income over the respective term of the loan or security. Upon the prepayment of a loan or security, any unamortized loan origination fees and original issue discount are recorded as interest income.

Accretion of discounts and amortization of premiums on taxable bonds, loans and asset-backed securities are computed to the call or maturity date, whichever is shorter, using the effective yield method. Withholding taxes on foreign dividends have been provided for in accordance with the Company's understanding of the applicable country's tax rules and rates.

Organization and Offering Costs

Organization costs are paid by the Adviser and include the cost of incorporating, such as the cost of legal services and other fees pertaining to our organization. Offering costs include legal fees, promotional costs and other costs pertaining to the public offering of our shares of common stock and are also paid by the Adviser. Prior to the termination of the offering, as we raised proceeds, these organization and offering costs were expensed and became payable to the Adviser. Organization and offering costs are limited to 1% of total gross proceeds raised and are not due and payable to the Adviser to the extent they exceed that amount. Please refer to Note 4 for additional information on Organization and Offering Costs.

Paid-in Capital

The proceeds from the issuance of common stock as presented on the Company's Statements of Changes in Net Assets is presented net of selling commissions and fees for the years ended December 31, 2019, 2018 and 2017. Selling commissions and fees of $0, $413,024, and $1,837,575 were paid for the years ended December 31, 2019, 2018 and 2017, respectively.

Earnings Per Share

In accordance with the provisions of ASC Topic 260—Earnings per Share ("ASC 260"), basic earnings per share is computed by dividing earnings available to common stockholders by the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period. Other potentially dilutive common shares, and the related impact to earnings, are considered when calculating earnings per share on a diluted basis.

The following table sets forth the computation of the weighted average basic and diluted net increase in net assets per share from operations:

	For the year ended December 31,
	2019	2018	2017
Net increase (decrease) in net assets from operations	$ 9,190,895	$ (6,209,274)	$ 7,468,172
Weighted average common shares outstanding	10,441,061	10,358,148	8,564,351
Earnings (loss) per common share-basic and diluted	$ 0.88	$ (0.60)	$ 0.87

Table of Contents*Distributions

Distributions to the Company's stockholders will be recorded as of the record date. Subject to the discretion of the Board and applicable legal restrictions, the Company intends to authorize and declare ordinary cash distributions on a weekly basis and pay such distributions on a monthly basis. Net realized capital gains, if any, will generally be distributed or deemed distributed at least every 12-month period.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In March 2017, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update 2017-08, Receivables—Nonrefundable Fees and Other Costs (Subtopic 310-20). The amendments in this update shorten the amortization period for certain callable debt securities held at premium. Specifically, the amendments require the premium to be amortized to the earliest call date. The amendments do not require an accounting change for securities held at a discount; the discount continues to be amortized to maturity. For the company, this update is effective for fiscal years beginning on January 1, 2020. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of this new guidance on its financial statement presentation and disclosures.

Note 4—Related Party Transactions and ArrangementsInvestment Advisory Fee

Payments for investment advisory services under the Company's investment advisory agreement (the "Investment Advisory Agreement") and administrative services agreement (the "Administration Agreement") are equal to (a) a base management fee calculated at an annual rate of 2.0% of the average value of the Company's gross assets at the end of the two most recently completed calendar quarters and (b) an incentive fee based on the Company's performance. Effective June 5, 2017, the Investment Advisory Agreement and the Administration Agreement were amended to exclude cash and cash equivalents from the calculation of gross assets for the purpose of calculating advisory and administration fees.

For the years ended December 31, 2019, 2018 and 2017, the Company incurred investment advisory fees payable to the Adviser of $1,966,697, $2,025,178 and $1,575,420. Of these amounts, $0, $0 and $1,499,906, respectively, were voluntarily waived. Amounts waived for management fees or administrative services expenses pertaining to periods prior to June 10, 2016 are not recoupable, but amounts waived for management fees or administrative services expenses pertaining to periods from and after June 10, 2016 are subject to recoupment by the Adviser within three years from the date that such fees were otherwise payable, provided that the recoupment will be limited to the amount of such voluntarily waived fees from and after June 10, 2016 and will not cause the sum of the Company's advisory fees, administration fees, Other Expenses (as defined under "Expense Limits and Reimbursements" below), and any recoupment to exceed the annual rate of 3.40% of average gross assets. Effective December 20, 2017, the Adviser ended its voluntary waiver of advisory fees.

Incentive Fee

The incentive fee consists of two parts. The first part, which is referred to as the subordinated incentive fee on income, is calculated and payable quarterly in arrears, and equals 20.0% of "pre-incentive fee net investment income" for the immediately preceding quarter and is subject to a hurdle rate, expressed as a rate of return on the Company's net assets, as defined in the Investment Advisory Agreement, equal to 1.875% per quarter. As a result, the Adviser will not earn this incentive fee for any quarter until the Company's pre-incentive fee net investment income for such quarter exceeds the hurdle rate of 1.875%. Once the Company's pre-incentive fee net investment income in any quarter exceeds the hurdle rate, the Adviser will be entitled to a "catch-up" fee equal to the amount of the pre-incentive fee net investment income in excess of the hurdle rate, until the Company's pre-incentive fee net investment income for such quarter equals 2.34375% of the Company's net assets at the end of such quarter. This "catch-up" feature allows the Adviser to recoup the fees foregone as a result of the existence of the hurdle rate in that quarter. Thereafter, the Adviser will receive 20.0% of the Company's pre-incentive fee net investment income from the quarter.

The second part of the incentive fee, which is referred to as the incentive fee on capital gains, is determined and payable in arrears as of the end of each calendar year (or upon termination of the Investment Advisory Agreement). This fee equals 20.0% of the Company's incentive fee capital gains, which will equal the Company's realized capital gains on a cumulative basis from formation, calculated as of the end of the applicable period, computed net of all realized capital losses (proceeds less amortized cost) and unrealized capital depreciation on a cumulative basis, less the aggregate amount of any previously paid capital gains incentive fees. The Company will accrue for the capital gains incentive fee, which, if earned, will be paid annually. The Company will accrue for the capital gains incentive fee based on net realized and unrealized gains; however, under the terms of the Investment Advisory Agreement, the fee payable to the Adviser will be based on realized gains and no such fee will be payable with respect to unrealized gains unless and until such gains are actually realized.

For the years ended December 31, 2019, 2018 and 2017, the Company incurred $0, recognized a reduction of $(594,306) and incurred $418,739 of incentive fees on capital gains, respectively. Since inception, the Company has accrued $0 of incentive fees on capital gains in aggregate. Effective December 20, 2017, the Adviser ended its voluntary waiver of incentive fees. No such fees have been paid with respect to realized gains to the Adviser as of December 31, 2019.

Table of ContentsAdministration Fee

Pursuant to the Administration Agreement with the Adviser, the Company also reimburses the Adviser for expenses necessary for its performance of services related to the Company's administration and operations. The amount of the reimbursement will be the lesser of (1) the Company's allocable portion of overhead and other expenses incurred by the Adviser in performing its obligations under the Administration Agreement and (2) 0.40% of the Company's average gross assets, (excluding cash and cash equivalents). The Adviser is required to allocate the cost of such services to the Company based on objective factors such as assets, revenues, time allocations and/or other reasonable metrics. The Board assesses the reasonableness of such reimbursements based on the breadth, depth and quality of such services as compared to the estimated cost to the Company of obtaining similar services from third-party service providers known to be available. In addition, the Board will consider whether any single third-party service provider would be capable of providing all such services at comparable cost and quality. Finally, the Board will compare the total amount paid to the Adviser for such services as a percentage of the Company's net assets to the same ratio as reported by other comparable BDCs.

For the years ended December 31, 2019, 2018 and 2017, the Company incurred administration fees payable to the Adviser of $399,100, $409,789 and $314,337. Of these amounts, $0, $0 and $301,355, respectively, were voluntarily waived. Amounts waived for management fees or administrative services expenses pertaining to periods prior to June 10, 2016 are not recoupable, but amounts waived for management fees or administrative services, expenses pertaining to periods from and after June 10, 2016 are subject to recoupment by the Adviser within three years from the date that such fees were otherwise payable, provided that the recoupment will be limited to the amount of such voluntarily waived fees from and after June 10, 2016 and will not cause the sum of the Company's advisory fees, administration fees, Other Expenses, and any recoupment to exceed the annual rate of 3.40% of average gross assets. Effective December 20, 2017, the Adviser ended its voluntary waiver of administration fees.

For the years ended December 31, 2019, 2018 and 2017, the Adviser incurred and paid offering costs of $0, $238,568 and $954,765, respectively, on our behalf. For the years ended December 31, 2019, 2018, and 2017, the Company capitalized $0, $61,462, and $282,156, of offering costs, respectively. Of the capitalized offering costs, $5,445, $184,847, and $381,881 were amortized to expense during the years ended December 31, 2019, 2018, and 2017, respectively. As of December 31, 2019 and 2018, $0 and $5,445 remained on the Statements of Assets and Liabilities, respectively.

Organization costs and offering costs are limited to 1% of total gross proceeds raised in the offering and are not due and payable to the Adviser to the extent they exceed that amount. As of December 31, 2019, the cumulative aggregate amount of $5,327,574 of organization and offering costs exceeds 1% of total proceeds raised. Subsequent to the termination of the offering, the Adviser forfeited the right to reimbursement of the remaining $4,305,091 of these costs.

Fees Paid to Officers and Directors

Each director who is not an “interested person” of the Company as defined in the 1940 Act (the “Independent Directors”) receives an annual retainer of $150,000 payable in quarterly installments and allocated among each portfolio in the Highland Fund Complex based on relative net assets. The “Highland Fund Complex” consists of all of the registered investment companies advised by the Adviser and any affiliates as of the period covered by this report. The Company pays no compensation to any of its officers, all of whom are employees of an affiliate of the Adviser. Prior to December 8, 2017, Mr. Powell was treated as an “interested person” of the Company, for all purposes other than compensation and the Company’s code of ethics.

For the years ended December 31, 2019, 2018 and 2017, the Company recorded an expense relating to director fees of $19,553, $19,804 and $16,090, respectively, which represents the allocation of the director fees to the Company. As of December 31, 2019 there was $63 of expenses payable relating to director fees.

Expense Limits and Reimbursements

Pursuant to an expense limitation agreement, the Adviser is contractually obligated to waive fees and, if necessary, pay or reimburse certain other expenses to limit the ordinary “Other Expenses” to 1.0% of the quarter-end value of the Company’s gross assets through the one year anniversary of the effective date of the registration statement (the “Expense Limitation Agreement”). Under the Expense Limitation Agreement, “Other Expenses” are all expenses with the exception of advisor and administration fees, organization and offering costs and the following: (i) interest, taxes, dividends tied to short sales, brokerage commissions, and other expenditures which are capitalized in accordance with U.S. GAAP; (ii) expenses incurred indirectly as a result of investments in other investment companies and pooled investment vehicles; (iii) other expenses attributable to, and incurred as a result of, our investments; (iv) expenses payable to the Adviser, as administrator, for providing significant managerial assistance to our portfolio companies; and (v) other extraordinary expenses (including litigation expenses) not incurred in the ordinary course of our business. The obligation will automatically renew for one-year terms unless it is terminated by the Company or the Adviser upon written notice within 120 days of the end of the current term or upon termination of the Investment Advisory Agreement. The Expense Limitation Agreement will continue through at least April 30, 2020.

Any expenses waived or reimbursed by the Adviser pursuant to the Expense Limitation Agreement are subject to possible recoupment by the Adviser within three years from the date of the waiver or reimbursement. The recoupment by the Adviser will be limited to the amount of previously waived or reimbursed expenses and cannot cause the Company’s expenses to exceed any expense limitation in place at the time of recoupment or waiver.

Table of ContentsReimbursable Expenses Table

The cumulative total of fees waived by the Adviser under the Expense Limitation Agreement, which are recoupable as of December 31, 2019 is $903,985. Table of Contents

There can be no assurance that the Expense Limitation Agreement will remain in effect or that the Adviser will reimburse any portion of the Company's expenses in future quarters not covered by the Expense Limitation Agreement. Amounts shown do not include the amounts committed by the Adviser to voluntarily reimburse the Company for unrealized losses, all of which are not recoupable.

Net Increase from Amounts Committed by Affiliates

For the years ended December 31, 2019, 2018 and 2017, the Adviser did not voluntarily reimburse the Company for unrealized losses sustained. Cumulatively since inception, the Adviser has committed $2,275,000 to voluntarily reimburse the Company for such losses. Had these commitments not been made, the net asset value ("NAV") as of December 31, 2019 would have been lower by approximately this amount. These commitments are shown in the Statements of Operations as net increase from amounts committed by affiliates and are not recoupable.

Amounts committed and paid by the Adviser to reimburse for unrealized losses are nonrecurring, and investors should not expect the Adviser to make similar commitments or payments in the future.

Receivable from Adviser / Payable to Adviser

As of December 31, 2019 and December 31, 2018, $50,130 and $0 were owed from the Adviser to the Company, respectively.

As of December 31, 2019 and December 31, 2018, the Company owed $570,453 and $291,904, respectively to the Adviser, largely related to advisory fees, administration fees, and the expense limitation agreement.

Indemnification

Under the Company's organizational documents, the officers and Directors have been granted certain indemnification rights against certain liabilities that may arise out of performance of their duties to the Company. Additionally, in the normal course of business, the Company may enter into contracts with service providers that contain a variety of indemnification clauses. The Company's maximum exposure under these arrangements is dependent on future claims that may be made against the Company and, therefore, cannot be estimated.

Note 5—U.S. Federal Income Tax Information

The Company has elected to be treated for federal income tax purposes, and intends to qualify annually, as a RIC under Subchapter M of the Code. To maintain its qualification as a RIC, the Company must, among other things, meet certain source-of-income and asset diversification requirements and distribute to its stockholders, for each taxable year, at least 90% of its "investment company taxable income," which is generally the Company's net ordinary income plus the excess, if any, of realized net short-term capital gains over realized net long-term capital losses. As a RIC, the Company will not be subject to corporate-level federal income taxes on any income that it timely distributes to its stockholders. The Company intends to make distributions in an amount sufficient to maintain its RIC status each year and to avoid any federal income taxes on income so distributed. The Company will also be subject to nondeductible federal excise taxes if it does not distribute at least 98% of net ordinary income, 98.2% of any capital gain net income, if any, and any recognized and undistributed income from prior years on which it paid no federal income taxes.

The character of income and capital gains to be distributed is determined in accordance with the Code, U.S. Treasury regulations, and other applicable authority, which may differ from U.S. GAAP. These differences include (but are not limited to) investments organized as partnerships for tax purposes, total return swaps, loan investments, and losses deferred due to wash sale transactions. Reclassifications are made to the Company's capital accounts to reflect income and gains available for distribution (or available capital loss carryovers) under the Code, U.S. Treasury regulations, and other applicable authority. These reclassifications have no impact on net investment income, realized gains or losses, or net asset value of the Company. The calculation of net investment income per share in the Financial Highlights table excludes these adjustments.

As of December 31, 2019, 2018 and 2017, the Company made the following permanent book tax differences and reclasses:

	2019	2018	2017
Paid in capital excess of par value	$ (138,024)	$ (314,911)	$ (521,714)
Distributions in excess of net investment income <sup>(1)</sup>	2,583,485	2,654,803	3,986,427
Accumulated realized gains <sup>(1)</sup>	(2,445,461)	(2,339,892)	(3,464,713)

(1) Amounts are included in Total distributable earnings (loss) on the Statement of Assets and Liabilities.

During the year ended December 31, 2019, the differences between book and tax accounting were due primarily to non-deductible excise taxes and offering costs, partnerships, basis adjustments of loan investments, distribution re-designations and non-REIT return of capital.

For the years ended December 31, 2019, 2018 and 2017, the Company's tax year end, components of distributable earnings on a tax basis are as follows:

	2019	2018	2017
Undistributed ordinary income	$ 45,019	$ 1,821,034	$ 3,267,424
Net tax appreciation/(depreciation)	(3,044,798)	(9,471,326)	3,222,870
Undistributed capital gains	—	1,368,718	725,166
Other temporary differences	(289,344)	(20,194)	(22,087)

For the years ended December 31, 2019, 2018 and 2017, the Company had $(1,198,009), $0 and $0 of capital loss carryovers, respectively.

The tax character of shareholder distributions attributable to the fiscal years ended December 31, 2019, 2018 and 2017, were as follows:

Unrealized appreciation and depreciation at December 31, 2019, 2018 and 2017, based on cost of investments for U.S. federal income tax purposes were as follows:

	Gross appreciation	Gross (depreciation)	Net appreciation/(depreciation)	Cost
December 31, 2019	$ 8,606,619	$ (11,651,417)	$ (3,044,798)	$ 102,532,406
December 31, 2018	5,726,720	(15,198,046)	(9,471,326)	105,156,185
December 31, 2017	9,086,469	(6,592,620)	2,493,849	139,303,775

The tax adjustments that impact cost are wash sales, REIT return of capital, partnerships and basis adjustments on loan investments.

to be taken for the purposes of measuring and recognizing tax benefits or liabilities in the financial statements. Recognition of a tax benefit or liability with respect to an uncertain tax position is required only when the position is “more likely than not” to be sustained assuming examination by taxing authorities. The Company’s tax returns are subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service for a period of three fiscal years after they are filed. The Company recognizes interest and penalties, if any, related to unrecognized tax liabilities as income tax expense in the Statements of Operations. During the years ended December 31, 2019, 2018 and 2017, the Company did not incur any interest or penalties. Furthermore, management of the Company is also not aware of any tax positions for which it is reasonably possible that the total amounts of unrecognized tax benefits will significantly change in the next 12 months.

Note 6—Share Repurchase Program

On a quarterly basis, the Company intends to offer to repurchase shares of common stock on such terms as may be determined by the Board in its complete and absolute discretion unless, in the judgment of the Independent Directors of the Board, such repurchases would not be in the best interests of the Company’s stockholders or would violate applicable law. The Company will conduct such repurchase offers in accordance with the requirements of Rule 13e-4 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), and the 1940 Act. In months in which the Company repurchases shares of common stock, it will conduct repurchases on the same date that it holds its first weekly closing for the sale of shares of common stock in its public offering. Any offer to repurchase shares of common stock will be conducted solely through tender offer materials mailed to each stockholder.

The Company currently intends to limit the number of shares of common stock to be repurchased during any calendar year to the number of shares of common stock it can repurchase with the proceeds it receives from the sale of shares of common stock under its distribution reinvestment plan. At the discretion of the Board, the Company may also use cash on hand, cash available from borrowings and cash from liquidation of securities investments as of the end of the applicable period to repurchase shares of common stock. In addition, the Company will limit the number of shares of common stock to be repurchased in any calendar year to 10.0% of the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding in the prior calendar year, or 2.5% in each quarter, though the actual number of shares of common stock that the Company offers to repurchase may be less in light of the limitations noted above. The Company intends to offer to repurchase such shares of common stock at a price equal to 90% of the offering price in effect on each date of repurchase. The Board may amend, suspend or terminate the share repurchase program at any time, upon 30 days’ notice.

The Company conducted its quarterly tender offer from November 27, 2019, until expiration of December 30, 2019 at 4:00 p.m. New York City time, during which the Company offered to purchase for cash up to 2.5% of its outstanding shares of common stock. During the fourth quarter tender offer, 131,083 shares of the Company were tendered for repurchase, constituting approximately 1.26% of the Company’s outstanding shares.

For the year ended December 31, 2019, the Company repurchased 0 shares as part of its death and disability repurchase program.

Note 7—Credit Facility and Leverage Facilities

On October 19, 2017, the Company entered into a financing arrangement (the “Financing Arrangement”) with BNP Paribas Prime Brokerage International, Ltd., BNP Prime Brokerage, Inc., and BNP Paribas (together, the “BNPP Entities”). Under the Financing Agreement, the BNPP Entities may make margin loans to the Company at a rate of one-month LIBOR + 1.30%. The BNPP Entities have the right to cap the amount of margin loans with prior notice to the Company. The Financing Arrangement may be terminated by either the Company or the BNPP Entities with 179 days notice. At December 31, 2019, current outstanding and fair value amounts were $33,714,864 and $33,975,517, respectively.

BNP Paribas Total Return Swap

On June 13, 2017, the Company entered into the TRS with BNP Paribas over one or more loans, with a maximum aggregate notional amount of the portfolio debt securities subject to the TRS of $40 million. The agreements between the Company and BNP Paribas, which collectively establish the TRS, are referred to herein as the "TRS Agreement."

On April 2, 2018, the Company amended and restated the TRS agreement with BNP Paribas. The amended and restated TRS Agreement, effective April 10, 2018 increases the maximum aggregate notional amount of the portfolio debt securities subject to the TRS to $60 million.

A TRS is a contract in which one party agrees to make payments to another party based on the increase, if any, in the market value of the asset(s) underlying the TRS, which may include a specified security, basket of securities or securities indices during a specified period, and the other party agrees to make payments to the first party based on the decrease, if any, in the market value of such underlying assets plus periodic payments based on a fixed or variable interest rate. A TRS effectively adds leverage to a portfolio by providing investment exposure to an underlying asset without owning or taking physical custody of the underlying asset. A TRS often offers lower financing costs than are offered through more traditional borrowing arrangements.

Each individual security subject to the TRS, and the portfolio of securities taken as a whole, must meet certain criteria described in the TRS Agreement, including a requirement that the securities underlying the TRS be rated by either Moody's or S&P, and, if rated by Moody's, have a rating of at least Caa3 and, if rated by S&P, have a rating of at least CCC-. Under the terms of the TRS, BNP Paribas determines whether there has been a failure to satisfy the portfolio criteria in the TRS but may, in its sole discretion, permit assets that do not meet the minimum portfolio criteria set forth in the TRS. If BNP Paribas determines that an asset has failed to meet the minimum portfolio criteria, BNP Paribas may exercise certain rights, including increasing the amount of collateral the Company is required to provide to it or terminating all or part of the TRS, subject to certain conditions. The Company receives from BNP Paribas interest and fees payable to holders of the securities included in the portfolio. The Company pays interest to BNP Paribas generally based on a percentage of the notional amount of the securities subject to the TRS. In addition, upon the termination or repayment of any security subject to the TRS, the Company will either receive from BNP Paribas the appreciation in the value of such security or pay to BNP Paribas any depreciation in the value of such security.

Under the terms of the TRS, the Company or BNP Paribas may be required to post additional collateral, on a dollar-for-dollar basis, in certain circumstances, including in the event of depreciation or appreciation in the value of the underlying loans. The limit on the additional collateral that the Company may be required to post pursuant to the TRS is equal to the difference between the full notional amount of the loans underlying the TRS and the amount of cash collateral already posted by the Company. The amount of collateral required to be posted is determined primarily on the basis of the aggregate value of the underlying securities.

The Company may terminate the TRS at any time more than one month prior to the TRS's scheduled termination date upon providing no less than 30 days prior notice to BNP Paribas.

Included among the customary events of default and termination events in the TRS Agreement are: bankruptcy or insolvency of a party, failure to satisfy any obligations under the TRS (including payment of collateral), and misrepresentation. BNP Paribas also has the right to terminate the TRS in certain circumstances, including if the relevant loans fail to meet the agreed-upon criteria specified in the TRS Agreement or if certain credit events with respect to the "reference entity" specified with respect to a security occur, and the Company declines to provide additional collateral to BNP Paribas upon request.

Upon any termination of the TRS, the Company will be required to pay BNP Paribas the amount of any decline in the aggregate value of the securities subject to the TRS or, alternatively, will be entitled to receive the amount of any appreciation in the aggregate value of such securities. In the event that BNP Paribas chooses to exercise its termination rights, it is possible that the Company will owe more to BNP Paribas or, alternatively, will be entitled to receive less from BNP Paribas than the Company would have if it controlled the timing of such termination, due to the existence of adverse market conditions at the time of such termination.

For purposes of the asset coverage ratio test applicable to the Company as a BDC, the Company treats the outstanding notional amount of the TRS, less the initial amount of any cash collateral required to be posted by the Company under the TRS, as a senior security for the life of that instrument. The Company may, however, accord different treatment to the TRS in the future in accordance with any applicable new rules or interpretations adopted by the staff of the SEC.

Further, for purposes of Section 55(a) under the 1940 Act, the Company treats each security underlying the TRS as a qualifying asset if such security is a loan and the obligor on such loan is an eligible portfolio company, and as a non-qualifying asset if the obligor is not an eligible portfolio company. The Company may, however, accord different treatment to the TRS in the future in accordance with any applicable new rules or interpretations adopted by the staff of the SEC.

(1) Notional value of the underlying securities in the TRS is calculated by multiplying par by the initial price.

As of December 31, 2019, the Company had posted $21,400,000 of cash collateral against the TRS held in an account at the Company's custodian bank, which is shown as due from counterparty on the Statements of Assets and Liabilities.

Table of Contents

During the year ended December 31, 2019, the Company recognized a net realized gain on the TRS amounting to $1,530,270. The Company received $1,918,837 in cash payments from the TRS during the period and paid $10,157 with a decrease of $366,952 in receivable from, and an increase of $11,458 in payable to BNP Paribas for year ended December 31, 2019. The notional value of the derivative instruments outstanding as of December 31, 2019 and the unrealized appreciation (depreciation) on derivative instruments during the year then ended serve as indicators of the volume of derivative activity for the Company.

Note 8—Economic Dependency and Commitments and Contingencies

Under various agreements, the Company has engaged the Adviser and its affiliates to provide certain services that are essential to the Company, including asset management services, asset acquisition and disposition decisions, the sale of shares of the Company's common stock available for issue, as well as other administrative responsibilities for the Company including accounting services and investor relations. Additionally, prior to termination of the offer, the Adviser paid all of the Company's organization and offering costs subject to reimbursement to the extent organization and offering costs paid by the Adviser did not exceed 1% of gross proceeds raised. Please see Note 4 for additional details on organization and offering costs.

As a result of these relationships, the Company is dependent upon the Adviser and its affiliates. In the event that these companies are unable to provide the Company with the respective services, the Company will be required to find alternative providers of these services.

Our Adviser, NexPoint Advisors, has been historically affiliated through common control with Highland Capital Management, L.P. ("HCMLP"), an SEC-registered investment adviser. On October 16, 2019, HCMLP filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection with the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware. The case was subsequently transferred to the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas. On January 9, 2020, the bankruptcy court approved a change of control of HCMLP, which involved the resignation of James Dondero as the sole director of, and the appointment of an independent board to, HCMLP's general partner. Mr. Dondero will, however, remain as an employee of HCMLP and as portfolio manager for all funds and vehicles for which he currently holds such titles. Nevertheless, given Mr. Dondero's historic role with HCMLP and his continued ownership interest and roles with respect to the Highland platform as a whole, as well as the shared services agreements between HCMLP and our Adviser, we still treat HCMLP and its affiliates as our affiliates for purposes hereof.

NexPoint Advisors is not a party to HCMLP's bankruptcy filing. NexPoint Advisors is a party to a shared services arrangement with HCMLP. Under this arrangement our Adviser may utilize employees from HCMLP in connection with various services such as human resources, accounting, tax, valuation, information technology services, office space, employees, compliance and legal. We do not expect HCMLP's bankruptcy filings to impact its provision of services to NexPoint Advisors at this time.

From time to time, the Company may be involved in legal proceedings in the normal course of its business. Although the outcome of such litigation cannot be predicted with any clarity, management is of the opinion, based on the advice of legal counsel, that final dispositions of any litigation should not have a material adverse effect on the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2019.

Unfunded commitments to provide funds to portfolio companies are not recorded in the Company's statements of assets and liabilities. Since these commitments may expire without being drawn upon, the total commitment amount does not necessarily represent future cash requirements. The Company has sufficient liquidity to fund these commitments. As of December 31, 2019, the Company had one unfunded debt commitment with an aggregate unfunded commitment of $333,333. For additional details regarding the Company's unfunded debt investments, see the Company's Schedule of Investments as of December 31, 2019.

In the normal course of business, the Company enters into contracts and agreements that contain a variety of representations and warranties that provide general indemnification. The Company's maximum exposure under these agreements is unknown, as this would involve future claims that may be made against the Company that have not occurred. The Company believes the risk of material obligations under these indemnities to be low. See also Note 13 regarding the end of the offering period.

Table of Contents*Note 9—Market and Other Risk Factors

The primary risks of investing in the Company are described below in alphabetical order:

Concentration Risk

The Company is classified as a non-diversified investment company within the meaning of the 1940 Act, which means that it is not limited by the 1940 Act with respect to the proportion of the Company's assets that it may invest in securities of a single issuer. To the extent that the Company assumes large positions in the securities of a small number of issuers, the Company's net asset value may fluctuate to a greater extent than that of a diversified investment company as a result of changes in the financial condition or the market's assessment of the issuer. The Company may also be more susceptible to any single economic or regulatory occurrence than a diversified investment company. Beyond the asset diversification requirements associated with the Company's qualification as a RIC under the Code and certain contractual diversification requirements under a credit facility or other agreements, the Company does not have fixed guidelines for diversification, and its investments could be concentrated in relatively few portfolio companies. As a result, the aggregate returns the Company realizes may be significantly adversely affected if a small number of investments perform poorly or if the Company needs to write down the value of any one investment. Additionally, the Company's investments may be concentrated in relatively few industries. As a result, a downturn in any particular industry in which the Company is invested could also significantly impact the aggregate returns realized.

Counterparty Credit Risk

Counterparty credit risk is the potential loss the Company may incur as a result of the failure of a counterparty or an issuer to make payments according to the terms of a contract. Counterparty credit risk is measured as the loss the Company would record if its counterparties failed to perform pursuant to the terms of their obligations to the Company. Because the Company may enter into over-the-counter forwards, options, swaps and other derivative financial instruments, the Company may be exposed to the credit risk of its counterparties. To limit the counterparty credit risk associated with such transactions, the Company conducts business only with financial institutions judged by the Adviser to present acceptable credit risk.

Credit Risk

Debt securities are subject to the risk of non-payment of scheduled interest and/or principal. Non-payment would result in a reduction of income to the Company, a reduction in the value of the obligation experiencing non-payment and a potential decrease in the Company's net asset value.

Investments rated below investment grade are commonly referred to as high-yield, high risk or "junk debt." They are regarded as predominantly speculative with respect to the issuing company's continuing ability to meet principal and/or interest payments. Investments in high yield debt and high yield senior loans may result in greater net asset value fluctuation than if the Company did not make such investments. Corporate debt obligations, including senior loans, are subject to the risk of non-payment of scheduled interest and/or principal.

Non-payment would result in a reduction of income to the Company, a reduction in the value of the corporate debt obligation experiencing non-payment and a potential decrease in the net asset value of the Company. Some of the loans the Company makes or acquires may provide for the payment by borrowers of Payment-In-Kind ("PIK") interest or accreted original issue discount at maturity. Such loans have the effect of deferring a borrower's payment obligation until the end of the term of the loan, which may make it difficult for the Company to identify and address developing problems with borrowers in terms of their ability to repay debt. Particularly in a rising interest rate environment, loans containing PIK and original issue discount provisions can give rise to negative amortization on a loan, resulting in a borrower owing more at the end of the term of a loan than what it owed when the loan was originated. Any such developments may increase the risk of default on the Company's loans by borrowers.

Because loans are not ordinarily registered with the SEC or any state securities commission or listed on any securities exchange, there is usually less publicly available information about such instruments. In addition, loans may not be considered "securities" for purposes of the anti-fraud protections of the federal securities laws and, as a result, as a purchaser of these instruments, the Company may not be entitled to the anti-fraud protections of the federal securities laws. In the course of investing in such instruments, the Company may come into possession of material nonpublic information and, because of prohibitions on trading in securities of issuers while in possession of such information, the Company may be unable to enter into a transaction in a publicly-traded security of that issuer when it would otherwise be advantageous for us to do so. Alternatively, the Company may choose not to receive material nonpublic information about an issuer of such loans, with the result that the Company may have less information about such issuers than other investors who transact in such assets.

Foreign Securities Risk

Investments in foreign securities involve certain factors not typically associated with investing in U.S. securities, such as risks relating to (i) currency exchange matters, including fluctuations in the rate of exchange between the U.S. dollar (the currency in which the books of the Company are maintained) and the various foreign currencies in which the Company's portfolio securities will be denominated and costs associated with conversion of investment principal and income from one currency into another; (ii) differences between the U.S. and foreign securities markets, including the absence of uniform accounting, auditing and financial reporting standards and practices and disclosure requirements, and less government supervision and regulation; (iii) political, social or economic instability; and (iv) the extension of credit, especially in the case of sovereign debt.

Illiquid Securities Risk

The Company will generally make investments in private companies. Substantially all of these investments will be subject to legal and other restrictions on resale or will otherwise be less liquid than publicly traded securities. The illiquidity of the Company's investments may make it difficult for the Company to sell such investments if the need arises. In addition, if it is required to liquidate all or a portion of its portfolio quickly, the Company may realize significantly less than the value at which it has previously recorded its investments. In addition, it may face other restrictions on its ability to liquidate an investment in a portfolio company to the extent that it has material non-public information regarding such portfolio company or if an investment is held by one of its subsidiaries and is subject to contractual limitations on sale, such as the limitations on transfer of assets under certain circumstances under a credit facility.

Because loan transactions often take longer to settle than transactions in other securities, the Company may not receive the proceeds from the sale of a loan for a significant period of time. As a result, the Company may maintain higher levels of cash and short-term investments than funds that invest in securities with shorter settlement cycles and/or may use the Credit Facility to permit the Company to meet its obligations pending settlement of the sale of portfolio securities, each of which may adversely affect the Company's performance.

The Company seeks to address its short-term liquidity needs by carefully managing the settlements of its portfolio transactions, including transactions in loans, by maintaining short-term liquid assets sufficient to meet reasonably anticipated obligations, and by maintaining the Credit Facility.

Interest Rate Risk

On July 27, 2017, the head of the United Kingdom's Financial Conduct Authority announced a desire to phase out the use of LIBOR by the end of 2021. Due to this announcement, there remains uncertainty regarding the future utilization of LIBOR and the nature of any replacement rate. As such, the potential effect of a transition away from LIBOR on the Company or the financial instruments in which the Company invests can not yet be determined.

Table of ContentsInvestments in Foreign Markets Risk

Investments in foreign markets involve special risks and considerations not typically associated with investing in the United States. These risks include revaluation of currencies, high rates of inflation, restrictions on repatriation of income and capital, and adverse political and economic developments. Moreover, securities issued in these markets may be less liquid, subject to government ownership controls, tariffs and taxes, subject to delays in settlements, and their prices may be more volatile. The Company may be subject to capital gains and repatriation taxes imposed by certain countries in which they invest. Such taxes are generally based on income and/or capital gains earned or repatriated. Taxes are accrued based upon net investment income, net realized gains and net unrealized appreciation as income and/or capital gains are earned.

Leverage Risk

The Company may use leverage in its investment program, including the use of borrowed funds and investments in certain types of options, such as puts, calls and warrants, which may be purchased for a fraction of the price of the underlying securities. While such strategies and techniques increase the opportunity to achieve higher returns on the amounts invested, they also increase the risk of loss. To the extent the Company purchases securities with borrowed funds, its net assets will tend to increase or decrease at a greater rate than if borrowed funds are not used. If the interest expense on borrowings were to exceed the net return on the portfolio securities purchased with borrowed funds, the Company's use of leverage would result in a lower rate of return than if the Company were not leveraged.

Options Risk

There are several risks associated with transactions in options on securities. For example, there are significant differences between the securities and options markets that could result in an imperfect correlation between these markets, causing a given transaction not to achieve its objectives. A transaction in options or securities may be unsuccessful to some degree because of market behavior or unexpected events.

When the Company writes a covered call option, the Company forgoes, during the option's life, the opportunity to profit from increases in the market value of the security covering the call option above the sum of the premium and the strike price of the call, but retains the risk of loss should the price of the underlying security decline. The writer of an option has no control over the time when it may be required to fulfill its obligation and once an option writer has received an exercise notice, it must deliver the underlying security in exchange for the strike price.

When the Company writes a covered put option, the Company bears the risk of loss if the value of the underlying stock declines below the exercise price minus the put premium. If the option is exercised, the Company could incur a loss if it is required to purchase the stock underlying the put option at a price greater than the market price of the stock at the time of exercise plus the put premium the Company received when it wrote the option. While the Company's potential gain in writing a covered put option is limited to distributions earned on the liquid assets securing the put option plus the premium received from the purchaser of the put option, the Company risks a loss equal to the entire exercise price of the option minus the put premium.

Short-Selling Risk

Short sales by the Company that are not made where there is an offsetting long position in the asset that it is being sold short theoretically involve unlimited loss potential since the market price of securities sold short may continuously increase. Short selling allows the Company to profit from declines in market prices to the extent such decline exceeds the transaction costs and costs of borrowing the securities. However, since the borrowed securities must be replaced by purchases at market prices in order to close out the short position, any appreciation in the price of the borrowed securities would result in a loss. Purchasing securities to close out the short position can itself cause the price of securities to rise further, thereby exacerbating the loss. The Company may mitigate such losses by replacing the securities sold short before the market price has increased significantly. Under adverse market conditions, the Company might have difficulty purchasing securities to meet margin calls on its short sale delivery obligations, and might have to sell portfolio securities to raise the capital necessary to meet its short sale obligations at a time when fundamental investment considerations would not favor such sales.

Total Return Swap Risk

The TRS with BNP Paribas enables us to obtain the economic benefit of owning the securities subject to the TRS without actually owning such securities, in return for making periodic interest-type payments to BNP Paribas plus an amount equal to the depreciation in value of the securities. The TRS is subject to market risk, liquidity risk and risk of imperfect correlation between the value of the TRS and the securities underlying the TRS. In addition, we may incur certain costs in connection with the TRS, including an underutilization fee in the event that we utilize less than 80% of the amount of the TRS. Costs associated with the TRS could, in the aggregate, be significant. Because this arrangement is not an acquisition of the underlying securities, we have no right to enforce contractual provisions that stem from ownership in the securities and have no voting or other rights of ownership. In the event of insolvency of BNP Paribas, we expect that we would be treated as a general creditor of BNP Paribas and would have no claim of title with respect to the underlying securities.

A TRS is also subject to the risk that a counterparty will default on its payment obligations thereunder or that we will not be able to meet our obligations to the counterparty. In the case of the TRS with BNP Paribas, there is a requirement to post collateral to secure our obligations to BNP Paribas under the TRS. BNP Paribas, however, is not required to collateralize any of its obligations to us under the TRS. We bear the risk of depreciation with respect to the value of the securities underlying the TRS and are required under the terms of the TRS to post additional collateral on a dollar-for-dollar basis in the event of depreciation in the value of the underlying securities after such value decreases below a specified amount. The amount of collateral required to be posted by us is determined primarily on the basis of the aggregate value of the underlying securities.

In addition, because a TRS is a form of leverage, such arrangements are subject to risks similar to those associated with the use of leverage.

Valuation Risk

Certain of the Company's assets are fair valued, including the Company's investment in equity issued by TerreStar Corporation ("TerreStar"). TerreStar is a nonoperating company that does not currently generate revenue and which primarily derives its value from two spectrum frequencies, the license with respect to one of which was terminated by the FCC and is being contested by TerreStar on technical and public policy grounds. TerreStar currently anticipates such contest may take between 12 to 30 months and expects deployment of its other spectrum asset to require a similar period of time. If TerreStar is ultimately unsuccessful in its efforts, the terminated license would not be reinstated and the value of the TerreStar equity would likely be materially negatively impacted. The fair valuation of TerreStar involves uncertainty as it is materially dependent on these estimates. With regard to the likelihood of TerreStar regaining the terminated license, the Investment Adviser assigned a high probability of success, based in part in consultation with outside experts.

- (2) The continuous issuance of common stock may cause an incremental increase in net asset value per share due to the sale of shares at the then prevailing public offering price and the receipt of net proceeds per share by the Company in excess of net asset value per share on each subscription closing date. The per share data was derived by computing (i) the sum of (A) the number of shares issued in connection with subscriptions and/or distribution reinvestment on each share transaction date times (B) the differences between the net proceeds per share and the net asset value per share on each share transaction date, divided by (ii) the total shares outstanding at the end of the period.
- (3) Amount rounds to less than $0.005 per share.
- (4) Total returns are historical and assume changes in share price and reinvestment of dividends and capital gains distributions, and assume no sales charge. Distributions, if any, are assumed for purposes of this calculation to be reinvested at prices obtained under the Company's Dividend Reinvestment Plan. Had the Adviser not absorbed a portion of expenses, total returns would have been lower.
- (5) For the year ended December 31, 2016, 1.65% of the fund's total return consists of a voluntary reimbursement by the adviser for unrealized investment losses, and is included in Net realized and unrealized gain (loss). Excluding this item, total return would have been 25.96%. For the year ended December 31, 2015, 6.09% of the fund's total return consists of a voluntary reimbursement by the Adviser for unrealized investment losses, and is included in Net realized and unrealized gain (loss). Excluding this item, total return would have been (9.35)%.
- (6) Annualized.
- (7) All incentive fees were waived for the year ended December 31, 2016.
- (8) Represents the total dollar amount of commissions paid on portfolio transactions divided by total number of portfolio shares purchased and sold for which commissions were charged.

The sum of quarterly per share amounts may not equal per share amounts reported for the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018. This is due to changes in the number of weighted average shares outstanding and the effects of rounding for each period.

Note 13 — Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through the date on which these financial statements were issued.

On January 2, 2020, the board of directors (the “Board”) of NexPoint Capital, Inc. (the “Company”) declared two cash distributions: a cash distribution of $0.06 per share of the Company’s common stock, par value $0.001 per share, payable on January 29, 2020, to the stockholders of record on January 27, 2020, and a cash distribution of $0.06 per share of the Company’s common stock, par value $0.001 per share, payable on February 26, 2020, to the stockholders of record on February 24, 2020.

On January 29, 2020, the Board of the Company declared a cash distribution of $0.06 per share of the Company’s common stock, par value $0.001 per share, payable on April 1, 2020, to the stockholders of record on March 30, 2020.

On February 27, 2020, the Board of the Company declared a cash distribution of $0.06 per share of the Company’s common stock, par value $0.001 per share, payable on April 29, 2020, to the stockholders of record on April 27, 2020.

An outbreak of respiratory disease caused by a novel coronavirus was first detected in China in December 2019 and subsequently spread internationally. This coronavirus has resulted in closing borders, enhanced health screenings, healthcare service preparation and delivery, quarantines, cancellations, disruptions to supply chains and customer activity, as well as general concern and uncertainty. The impact of this coronavirus may be short term or may last for an extended period of time and result in a substantial economic downturn. Health crises caused by outbreaks, such as the coronavirus outbreak, may exacerbate other pre-existing political, social and economic risks. The impact of this outbreak, and other epidemics and pandemics that may arise in the future, could negatively affect the worldwide economy, as well as the economies of individual countries, individual companies and the market in general in significant and unforeseen ways. Any such impact could adversely affect a Fund’s performance, the performance of the securities in which the Fund invests, lines of credit available to the Fund and may lead to losses on our investment in the Fund.

As a result of decreases in the market value certain of the Company’s assets pledged at derivative counterparties, the company has been required to post additional collateral relating to its margin requirements. The Company experienced delays posting collateral with one counterparty and received an Event of Default notice dated March 23, 2020; however, the Company covered the margin call on March 24, 2020 and received a formal waiver on the Event of Default notice from the counterparty dated April 2, 2020. At this time, the Fund has posted all required collateral; however, the Fund’s ability to meet future margin calls may be impacted by continued unfavorable market conditions.

Opinion on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying statements of assets and liabilities, including the schedules of investments, of NexPoint Capital, Inc. (the "Company") as of December 31, 2019 and 2018, and the related statements of operations, changes in net assets and cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2019, including the related notes (collectively referred to as the "financial statements"). In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2019 and 2018, and the results of its operations, changes in its net assets and its cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2019 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's financial statements based on our audits. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) ("PCAOB") and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audits of these financial statements in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. The Company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. As part of our audits we are required to obtain an understanding of internal control over financial reporting but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion.

Our audits included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our audits also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. Our procedures included confirmation of securities owned as of December 31, 2019 and 2018 by correspondence with the custodian and brokers; when replies have not been received from brokers, we performed other auditing procedures. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Table of Contents*Item 9. *Changes in and Disagreements with Accountants on Accounting and Financial Disclosure

None

Item 9A. *Controls and Procedures(a) Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

The Company maintains disclosure controls and procedures that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed in the Company's filings under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the rules and forms of the Securities and Exchange Commission, and that such information is accumulated and communicated to the Company's management, including its principal executive officer and principal financial officer, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

The Company's management, with the participation of its principal executive officer and principal financial officer, carried out an evaluation of the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures as of December 31, 2019. Based on such evaluation, the principal executive officer and principal financial officer concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures were not effective as of December 31, 2019, due to the material weakness in its internal control over financial reporting described below.

(b) Management's Report on Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

Management is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting. The Company's internal control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. The Company's internal control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the Company and provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit the preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. The Company's policies and procedures also provide reasonable assurance that receipts and expenditures of the Company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and the Board, and provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use or disposition of the Company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Because of its inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Also, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Management has assessed the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2019. In making this assessment, management used the criteria set forth by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO) in Internal Control - Integrated Framework (2013).

A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over financial reporting, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the company's annual or interim financial statements will not be prevented or detected on a timely basis.

Based on the assessment, management concluded that the Company did not maintain effective controls over the application of fair value accounting with respect to the validation of fair value methodologies. Specifically, the controls were not sufficiently designed to ensure the appropriateness of the fair value determinations reached for Level 3 real estate-related holdings. While this control deficiency did not result in a misstatement, it could result in a misstatement to the investment balances or disclosures that would result in a material misstatement to the annual or interim financial statements that would not be prevented or detected. Accordingly, management has determined that this control deficiency constitutes a material weakness. Because of this material weakness, management concluded that the Company did not maintain effective internal control over financial reporting as of December 31, 2019.

This report does not include an attestation report of the Company's registered public accounting firm regarding internal control over financial reporting. Management's report was not subject to attestation by the Company's registered public accounting firm pursuant to rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission that permit the Company to provide only management's report in this annual report.

(c) Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting

There have been no changes in internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) of the Exchange Act) during the quarter ended December 31, 2019 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

(d) Remediation Plan

Management has developed a plan to remediate the material weakness described above. Management utilizes one or more independent valuation experts as part of its existing valuation process for Level 3 real estate-related holdings. Management will undertake additional review procedures by designating a member of the Valuation Committee to monitor and report to the Valuation Committee to ensure that for significant real estate-related holdings, fair values for such holdings are validated through one or more other valuation techniques that are acceptable under ASC 820.

Ideas / Accomplishments

What were your three (3) best accomplishments / ideas that contributed significantly to Highland in 2018?

Comments from Employee

1. Volatility Strategy: contributed $10+million to Global Allocation Fund in 2018. Total hedge contribution to the fund was $17+million during February selloff ensuring the fund was up on a day SPX was down over 3%. Not relevant for 2018 but it is worth noting is that my mean reversion and systematic volatility thematic recommendations have consistently outperformed relative value volatility strategies. As recent as January 2019, my volatility strategy (recommended to Jim) contributed about $3.5 million across Highland platform. 2. Systematic portfolio hedging strategy: I list this as a major contribution not because of the $ impact but because of the long term impact of implementing the strategy firmwide and the buy-in of PMs that I achieved in 2018. I have demonstrated the effectiveness of carry strategy now, having implementing it partially in NHF, GAF and PGE Funds. A version of this strategy is being used in LSE fund for idiosyncratic hedging. The carry strategy contributed $864k in NHF in 1month and 774k in GAF in 1.5months. Idiosyncratic hedging contributed 27bps to LSE and systematic hedging contributed 54bps to LSE in December. My strategy is demonstrated to be favorable over outright shorting in a high vol. regime, in a sharply rising market and is particularly relevant for earnings periods. 3. I had forecasted in June, S&P level of 2600 for YE 2018 and a level of 2450 (in GAF meeting to Michael McLochlin and Jim) preceding the sharp sell-off in December. The hedges in NHF, in aggregate contributed over $20 million during Q4-2018. 4. Automation of risk platform: The risk reporting process has been automated to the extent possible and we now produce risk reports on a weekly basis. The risk reports have been expanded to include a number of metrics that are helpful in identifying unintended risks in the portfolio. Some other contributors were: Oil: $180k in GAF, GBP: 300k in GAF, NatGas: $2.4m in GAF One additional point I would like to note is that I have taken a calculated approach to recommending any new macro or hedging themes - which ensured that in 2018, all but one of my recommendations (excluding Prometheus Fund) were profitable.

Lessons Learned

What were the three (3) least successful actions or things you did in 2018? What have you learned from these occurrences?

Comments from Employee

The hedges and equity option themes in Prometheus, which were up through November 2018, lost over 65 bps in December 2018. I have analyzed the causes of this loss, things that can be done better along with the path for the future which I presented to Trey and Jon in January, following the underperformance in Dec-18. Space is inadequate to fully elaborate on this subject here but I have a one-page summary available for discussion if needed.

Strengths

What are your areas of strength?

Comments from Employee

My application of my knowledge of volatility as an asset class and risk management skills are my strengths. I have worked on my weak areas from 2017 - in particular, communication, simplification of trade ideas and making my insights directly relevant to Analysts and PMs. I believe my proactive approach to constructive feedback has been a strength of mine in 2018 and has helped me integrate myself better within the platform of Highland. I have worked directly with PMs and multiple Analysts to contribute effectively to Highland.

Development

What are your opportunities for development and improvement? Please be specific (for example, describe the skills that you want to improve).

Comments from Employee

1. I have been mindful of the feedback provided to me last year, to be more simplistic and to avoid overcomplicating strategies. In 2018, when it did not make sense, I have actively discouraged PMs and Analysts from using option based strategies (e.g. Vistra did not have a vol. play due to the sizeable nature of the proposed trade, XBI and IVW were better as vanilla shorts vs. option based shorts in LSE Fund). I will continue to be mindful about this area and the need to simplify recommendations when possible. I have also actively dissuaded PMs and senior management from taking risks where the economics were not favorable. An example would be the recommendation to Andrew Parmentier in H1-2018 to not trade MXN ahead of elections due to the unfavorable economics for the trade. 2. One more feedback from the prior year was to identify positioning that would create unintended risks in portfolios. I worked closely with Jonathan Lamensdorf in 2018 to implement the 'Style Factor' framework in-house which is fairly close in its assessment as other external commercial products in the space. This helps identify high degree of Momentum or Growth risks, which can have material effect on performance of funds such as LSE and PGE. Further, I have continued to develop frameworks such as Altman Z score, 'Stressed Scenarios' and high idiosyncratic risks relative to exposure that highlight risks in Highland portfolios which may otherwise not be prominent. I have also actively worked with Jim on his themes to reduce downside risk were the position to go the other way. Some examples are (i) use of options strategy in EURUSD trade that helped limit losses meaningfully at a time when EUR rallied sharply against USD, (ii) sale of deep out of the money puts against existing large shorts to generate some carry on the short position. 3. I have continued to work towards being concise and on-point in my recommendations in 2018. All my risk and research emails have contained clear 2-3 line recommendations. 4. I would like to believe I have earned the respect of the senior PMs and Analysts in 2018 with my recommendations and communication about hedges. This will certainly continue to be an area of development but I would like to note that I am now actively working with PMs and other senior Managers at Highland for their hedging needs. These include: - Direct engagement with Jim on hedging and macro strategy implementation for NHF, GAF and Small Cap Fund. - Engagement with Real Estate group to hedge their Uniti exposure in the context of ongoing litigation. - Direct engagement with Michael McLochlin and Brad Heiss to hedge LSE Fund. - Direct engagement with Andrew Hilgenbrink to implement hedges and volatility based trades (AMRN) in LSH Fund. - I have also assisted Mark Patrick in 2018 in an active lawsuit by analyzing the true value of statistical analytics services offered by a vendor (by replicating the analysis in-house and rightfully challenging the claims of the vendor).

Extras

How did you contribute to Highland outside of your "normal" job role in 2018?

Comments from Employee

I have had little opportunity to do much outside of my immediate work engagements due to a personal situation that I have been dealing. I did participate in Movember (and ran for it) and continued to contribute to a charity in India that provides for under-poverished children. I would like to do more in 2019 than what I have done in 2018.

Goals

Goal Setting

Describe your specific goals & related metrics that will help HCM succeed in 2019. Develop goals/metrics for least 2 of the areas below. - Investments/Portfolio Company/Risk Mgmt -Relationship Mgmt/Networking: with buy/sell side or portfolio companies -New Responsibilities: e.g., initiatives, project leader, etc. -Business Development -Professional Development: e.g., CFA, deepen industry expertise, etc. -Time Mgmt/Productivity - Process/Technology Improvement

Comments from Employee

1. Continue to actively contribute to macro research and risk hedging. Metric: P&L of macro trades, Sharpe of portfolios with and without hedges 2. Continue to expand engagement with PMs and Analysts to make hedging more granular and active across the platform. Metric: PM feedback on hedging process 3. Develop a web based tool and app to provide Analysts and PMs near-real time information on risks of their positions. (Success of this goal with help in success of goal 2). 4. Continue to develop the macro-quantitative strategy for hedging that may work effectively as a stand-alone strategy. The goal would be to make it self-sustaining so that it can operate as a standalone fund and PMs may choose when and how much to allocate to this systematic hedging strategy. Metric: Performance vs. budget 5. Expand the dialogue with PMs and Analysts by deeply engaging discussions on risk limits that have been developed in 2018. 6. Publish research pieces on Risk and Volatility in the public sphere. It is time to build on the success of macro-systematic hedging strategy by increasing its visibility in the public sphere and enabling its existence as a standalone strategy. 7. Increase engagement with the Credit team by developing and expanding the portfolio credit analytics models.

Prior Year Goals

Describe your progress towards or achievement of the 2018 goals you established in last year's review process.

Comments from Employee

The overall success on goals from 2018 was quite good particularly compared to the relative success in 2018 vs. 2017 goals. In particular, engagement of risk process has been expanded across multiple funds now - not only by establishing risk limits for funds but also by increasing engagement with PMs on hedging for their funds. The carry strategy for hedging (using selling of options to pay for hedges) was successfully demonstrated in 2018 and is now being implemented for LS Equity Fund. The approach to macro and volatility trade recommendations was a lot more guarded in 2018 which ensured that the possibility of meaningful losses on these positions was eliminated. Moreover, enabled by the markets - all the trades in 2018 were quite profitable (with the exception of Prometheus Fund).

“Term” has the meaning set forth in Section 7.01.

ARTICLE II SHARED SERVICES

Section 2.01 Services. During the Term, Service Provider will provide Recipient with Shared Services, including without limitation, all of the (i) finance and accounting services, (ii) human resources services, (iii) marketing services, (iv) legal services, (v) corporate services, (vi) information technology services, and (vii) operations services; each as requested by Pyxis and as described more fully on Annex A attached hereto, the “Shared Services”), it being understood that personnel providing Shared Services may be deemed to be employees of Pyxis to the extent necessary for purposes of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended.

Section 2.02 Changes to the Shared Services.

(a) During the Term, the Parties may agree to modify the terms and conditions of a Service Provider’s performance of any Shared Service in order to reflect new procedures, processes or other methods of providing such Shared Service, including modifying the applicable fees for such Shared Service to reflect the then current fair market value of such service (a “Change”). The Parties will negotiate in good faith the terms upon which a Service Provider would be willing to provide such New Shared Service to Recipient.

(b) The Party requesting a Change will deliver a description of the Change requested (a “Change Request”) and no Party receiving a Change Request may unreasonably withhold, condition or delay its consent to the proposed Change.

(c) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, a Service Provider may make: (i) Changes to the process of performing a particular Shared Service that do not adversely affect the benefits to Recipient of Service Provider’s provision or quality of such Shared Service in any material respect or increase Recipient’s cost for such Shared Service; (ii) emergency Changes on a temporary and short-term basis; and/or (iii) Changes to a particular Shared Service in order to comply with applicable law or regulatory requirements, in each case without obtaining the prior consent of Recipient. A Service Provider will notify Recipient in writing of any such Change as follows: in the case of clauses (i) and (iii) above, prior to the implementation of such Change, and, in the case of clause (ii) above, as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter.

Section 2.03 New Shared Services. The Parties may, from time to time during the Term of this Agreement, negotiate in good faith for Shared Services not otherwise specifically listed in Section 2.01 (a “New Shared Service”). Any agreement between the Parties on the terms for a New Shared Service must be in accordance with the provisions of Article IV and Article V hereof, will be deemed to be an amendment to this Agreement and such New Shared Service will then be a “Shared Service” for all purposes of this Agreement.

Section 2.04 Subcontractors. Nothing in this Agreement will prevent Service Provider from, with the consent of Recipient, using subcontractors, hired with due care, to perform all or any part of a Shared Service hereunder. A Service Provider will remain fully responsible for the performance of its obligations under this Agreement in accordance with its terms, including any obligations it performs through subcontractors, and a Service Provider will be solely responsible for payments due to its subcontractors.

ARTICLE III
SHARED ASSETS

Section 3.01 Shared IP Rights. Each Service Provider hereby grants to Recipient a non-exclusive right and license to use the intellectual property and other rights granted or licensed, directly or indirectly, to such Service Provider (the “Shared IP Rights”) pursuant to third party intellectual property Agreements (“Third Party IP Agreements”), provided that the rights granted to Recipient hereunder are subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable Third Party IP Agreement, and that such rights shall terminate, as applicable, upon the expiration or termination of the applicable Third Party IP Agreement. Recipient shall be licensed to use the Shared IP Rights only for so long as it remains an Affiliate of HCMLP. In consideration of the foregoing licenses, Recipient agrees to take such further reasonable actions as a Service Provider deems to be necessary or desirable to comply with its obligations under the Third Party IP Agreements.

Section 3.02 Other Shared Assets. Subject to Section 3.01, each Service Provider hereby grants Recipient the right, license or permission, as applicable, to use and access the benefits under the agreements, contracts and licenses that such Service Provider will purchase, acquire, become a party or beneficiary to or license on behalf of Recipient (the “Future Shared Assets” and collectively with the Shared IP Rights, the “Shared Assets”).

ARTICLE IV
COST ALLOCATION

Section 4.01 Actual Cost Allocation Formula. The Actual Cost of any item relating to any Shared Services or Shared Assets shall be allocated based on the Allocation Percentage. For purposes of this Agreement, “Allocation Percentage” means:

- (a) To the extent 100% of such item is demonstrably attributable to Pyxis, 100% of the Actual Cost of such item shall be allocated to Pyxis as agreed by Pyxis;
- (b) To the extent a specific percentage of use of such item can be determined (e.g., 70% for HCMLP and 30% for Pyxis), that specific percentage of the Actual Cost of such item will be allocated to HCMLP or Pyxis, as applicable and as agreed by Pyxis; and
- (c) All other portions of the Actual Cost of any item that cannot be allocated pursuant to clause (a) or (b) above shall be allocated between HCMLP and Pyxis in such proportion as is agreed in good faith between the parties.

Section 4.02 Non-Cash Cost Allocation. The actual, fully burdened cost of any item relating to any Shared Services or Shared Assets that does not result in a direct, out of pocket cash expense may be allocated to HCMLP and Pyxis for financial statement purposes only, as agreed by Pyxis, without any corresponding cash reimbursement required, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, based on the Allocation Percentage principles described in Section 4.01 hereof.

ARTICLE V
PAYMENT OF COST AND REVENUE SHARE; TAXES

Section 5.01 Monthly Statements. Within thirty (30) days following the end of each month during the Term (or at such time as may be otherwise agreed by the parties), each Service Provider shall furnish the other Parties hereto with a written statement with respect to the Actual Cost paid by it in respect of Shared Services and Shared Assets provided by it, in each case, during such period, setting forth (i) the cost allocation in accordance with Article IV hereof together with the Applicable Margin on such allocated amounts, and (ii) any amounts paid pursuant to Section 5.02 hereof, together with such other data and information necessary to complete the items described in Section 5.03 hereof (hereinafter referred to as the “Monthly Report”).

Section 5.02 Settlement Payments. At any time during the Term, any Party may make payment of the amounts that are allocable to such Party together with the Applicable Margin related thereto, regardless of whether an invoice pursuant to Section 5.03 hereof has been issued with respect to such amounts.

Section 5.03 Determination and Payment of Cost and Revenue Share.

(a) Within ten (10) days of the submission of the Monthly Report described in Section 5.02 hereof (or at such other time as may be agreed by the parties), the Parties shall (i) agree on the cost share of each of the Parties and Applicable Margin as calculated pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement; and (ii) prepare and issue invoices for the cost share and Applicable Margin payments that are payable by any of the Parties.

(b) Within ten (10) days of preparation of the agreement and the issuance of the invoice described in Section 5.03(a) (or at such other time as may be agreed by the parties), the Parties shall promptly make payment of the amounts that are set forth on such cost allocation invoice. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, provision of the Shared Services shall commence from the Effective Date, but no fees shall be payable from Recipient or otherwise accrue with respect to such services provided during the month of December 2011.

Section 5.04 Taxes.

(a) Recipient is responsible for and will pay all Taxes applicable to the Shared Services and the Shared Assets provided to Recipient, provided, that such payments by Recipient to Service Provider will be made in the most tax-efficient manner and provided further, that Service Provider will not be subject to any liability for Taxes applicable to the Shared Services and the Shared Assets as a result of such payment by Recipient. Service Provider will collect such Tax from Recipient in the same manner it collects such Taxes from other customers in the ordinary course of Service Provider’s business, but in no event prior to the time it invoices Recipient for the Shared Services and Shared Assets, costs for which such Taxes are levied. Recipient may provide Service Provider with a certificate evidencing its exemption from payment of or liability for such Taxes.

(b) Service Provider will reimburse Recipient for any Taxes collected from Recipient and refunded to Service Provider. In the event a Tax is assessed against Service Provider that is solely the responsibility of Recipient and Recipient desires to protest such assessment, Recipient will submit to Service Provider a statement of the issues and arguments requesting that Service Provider grant Recipient the authority to prosecute the protest in Service Provider’s name. Service Provider’s authorization will not be unreasonably withheld. Recipient will finance, manage, control and determine the strategy for such protest while keeping Service Provider reasonably informed of the proceedings. However, the authorization will be periodically reviewed by Service Provider to determine any adverse impact on Service Provider, and Service Provider will have the right to reasonably withdraw such authority at any time. Upon notice by Service Provider that it is so withdrawing such authority, Recipient will expeditiously terminate all proceedings. Any adverse consequences suffered by Recipient as a result of the withdrawal will be submitted to arbitration pursuant to Section 9.14. Any contest for Taxes brought by Recipient may not result in any lien attaching to any property or rights of Service Provider or otherwise jeopardize Service Provider’s interests or rights in any of its property. Recipient agrees to indemnify Service Provider for all Losses that Service Provider incurs as a result of any such contest by Recipient.

(c) The provisions of this Section 5.04 will govern the treatment of all Taxes arising as a result of or in connection with this Agreement notwithstanding any other Article of this Agreement to the contrary.

ARTICLE VI SERVICE PROVIDER RESPONSIBILITIES

Section 6.01 Service Provider General Obligations. Service Provider will provide the Shared Services and the Shared Assets to Recipient on a non-discriminatory basis and will provide the Shared Services and the Shared Assets in the same manner as if it were providing such services and assets on its own account (the “Service Standards”). Service Provider will conduct its duties hereunder in a lawful manner in compliance with applicable laws, statutes, rules and regulations and in accordance with the Service Standards, including, for avoidance of doubt, laws and regulations relating to privacy of customer information.

Section 6.02 Books and Records; Access to Information. Service Provider will keep and maintain books and records on behalf of Recipient in accordance with past practices and internal control procedures. Recipient will have the right, at any time and from time to time upon reasonable prior notice to Service Provider, to inspect and copy (at its expense) during normal business hours at the offices of Service Provider the books and records relating to the Shared Services and Shared Assets, with respect to Service Provider’s performance of its obligations hereunder. This inspection right will include the ability of Recipient’s financial auditors to review such books and records in the ordinary course of performing standard financial auditing services for Recipient (but subject to Service Provider imposing reasonable access restrictions to Service Provider’s and its Affiliates’ proprietary information and such financial auditors executing appropriate confidentiality agreements reasonably acceptable to Service Provider). Service Provider will promptly respond to any reasonable requests for information or access. For the avoidance of doubt, all books and records kept and maintained by Service Provider on behalf of Recipient shall be the property of Recipient, and Service Provider will surrender promptly to Recipient any of such books or records upon Recipient’s request (provided that Service Provider may retain a copy of such books or records) and shall make all such books and records available for inspection and use by the Securities and Exchange Commission or any person retained by Recipient at all reasonable times. Such records shall be maintained by Service Provider for the periods and in the places required by laws and regulations applicable to Recipient.

Section 6.03 Return of Property and Equipment. Upon expiration or termination of this Agreement, Service Provider will be obligated to return to Recipient, as soon as is reasonably practicable, any equipment or other property or materials of Recipient that is in Service Provider’s control or possession.

ARTICLE VII TERM AND TERMINATION

Section 7.01 Term. The term of this Agreement will commence as of the Effective Date and will continue in full force and effect until the first anniversary of the Effective Date (the “Term”), unless terminated earlier in accordance with Section 9.02. The Term shall automatically renew for successive one year periods unless sooner terminated under Section 7.02.

Section 7.02 Termination. Either Party may terminate this Agreement, with or without cause, upon at least 60 days advance written notice at any time prior to the expiration of the Term.

ARTICLE VIII LIMITED WARRANTY

Section 8.01 Limited Warranty. Service Provider will perform the Shared Services hereunder in accordance with the Service Standards. Except as specifically provided in this Agreement, Service Provider makes no express or implied representations, warranties or guarantees relating to its performance of the Shared Services and the granting of the Shared Assets under this Agreement, including any warranty of merchantability, fitness, quality, non-infringement of third party rights, suitability or adequacy of the Shared Services and the Shared Assets for any purpose or use or purpose. Service Provider will (to the extent possible and subject to Service Provider's contractual obligations) pass through the benefits of any express warranties received from third parties relating to any Shared Service and Shared Asset, and will (at Recipient's expense) assist Recipient with any warranty claims related thereto.

ARTICLE IX MISCELLANEOUS

Section 9.01 No Partnership or Joint Venture; Independent Contractor. Nothing contained in this Agreement will constitute or be construed to be or create a partnership or joint venture between or among HCMLP or Pyxis or their respective successors or assigns. The Parties understand and agree that, with the exception of the procurement by Service Provider of licenses or other rights on behalf of Recipient pursuant to Section 3.01, this Agreement does not make any of them an agent or legal representative of the other for any purpose whatsoever. With the exception of the procurement by Service Provider of licenses or other rights on behalf of Recipient pursuant to Section 3.01, no Party is granted, by this Agreement or otherwise, any right or authority to assume or create any obligation or responsibilities, express or implied, on behalf of or in the name of any other Party, or to bind any other Party in any manner whatsoever. The Parties expressly acknowledge that Service Provider is an independent contractor with respect to Recipient in all respects, including with respect to the provision of the Shared Services.

Section 9.04 Further Assurances. Each Party will take such actions as any other Party may reasonably request or as may be necessary or appropriate to consummate or implement the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or to evidence such events or matters.

Section 9.05 Governing Law. This Agreement and the legal relations between the Parties will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas applicable to contracts made and performed in such State and without regard to conflicts of law doctrines unless certain matters are preempted by federal law.

Section 9.07 Headings. The descriptive headings of the Articles, Sections and subsections of this Agreement are for convenience only and do not constitute a part of this Agreement.

Section 9.08 Counterparts. This Agreement and any amendment hereto or any other agreement delivered pursuant hereto may be executed in one or more counterparts and by different Parties in separate counterparts. All counterparts will constitute one and the same agreement and will become effective when one or more counterparts have been signed by each Party and delivered to the other Parties.

Section 9.09 Successors and Assigns; No Third Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement is binding upon and will inure to the benefit of each Party and its successors or assigns, and nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to confer upon any other Person or Governmental Entity any rights or remedies of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement.

Section 9.14 Arbitration; Jurisdiction. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement or the Annexes hereto to the contrary, in the event there is an unresolved legal dispute between the parties and/or any of their respective officers, directors, partners, employees, agents, affiliates or other representatives that involves legal rights or remedies arising from this Agreement, the parties agree to submit their dispute to binding arbitration under the authority of the Federal Arbitration Act; provided, however, that either party or such applicable affiliate thereof may pursue a temporary restraining order and/or preliminary injunctive relief in connection with confidentiality covenants or agreements binding on the other party, with related expedited discovery for the parties, in a court of law, and, thereafter, require arbitration of all issues of final relief. No arbitrator will have authority to render a decision that contains an outcome determinative error of state or federal law, or to fashion a cause of action or remedy not otherwise provided for under applicable state or federal law. Any dispute over whether the arbitrator(s) has failed to comply with the foregoing will be resolved by summary judgment in a court of law. In all other respects, the arbitration process will be conducted in accordance with the American Arbitration Association's dispute resolution rules or other mutually agreeable, arbitration service rules. The party initiating arbitration shall pay all arbitration costs and arbitrator's fees, subject to a final arbitration award on who should bear costs and fees. All proceedings shall be conducted in Dallas, Texas, or another mutually agreeable site. Each party shall bear its own attorneys fees, costs and expenses, including any costs of experts, witnesses and/or travel, subject to a final arbitration award on who should bear costs and fees. ## ARTICLE II SHARED SERVICES

Section 2.01 Services. During the Term, Service Provider will provide Recipient with Shared Services, including without limitation, all of the (i) finance and accounting services, (ii) human resources services, (iii) marketing services, (iv) legal services, (v) corporate services, (vi) information technology services, and (vii) operations services; each as requested by Pyxis and as described more fully on SnnexIS attached hereto, the “Shared Services”), it being understood that personnel providing Shared Services may be deemed to be employees of Pyxis to the extent necessary for purposes of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended.

Section 2.02 Changes to the Shared Services.

(a) During the Term, the Parties may agree to modify the terms and conditions of a Service Provider’s performance of any Shared Service in order to reflect new procedures, processes or other methods of providing such Shared Service, including modifying the applicable fees for such Shared Service to reflect the then current fair market value of such service (a “Change”). The Parties will negotiate in good faith the terms upon which a Service Provider would be willing to provide such New Shared Service to Recipient.

(b) The Party requesting a Change will deliver a description of the Change requested (a “Change Request”) and no Party receiving a Change Request may unreasonably withhold, condition or delay its consent to the proposed Change.

(c) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, a Service Provider may make: (i) Changes to the process of performing a particular Shared Service that do not adversely affect the benefits to Recipient of Service Provider’s provision or quality of such Shared Service in any material respect or increase Recipient’s cost for such Shared Service; (ii) emergency Changes on a temporary and short-term basis; and/or (iii) Changes to a particular Shared Service in order to comply with applicable law or regulatory requirements, in each case without obtaining the prior consent of Recipient. A Service Provider will notify Recipient in writing of any such Change as follows: in the case of clauses (i) and (iii) above, prior to the implementation of such Change, and, in the case of clause (ii) above, as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter.

Section 2.03 New Shared Services. The Parties may, from time to time during the Term of this Agreement, negotiate in good faith for Shared Services not otherwise specifically listed in Section 2.01 (a “New Shared Service”). Any agreement between the Parties on the terms for a New Shared Service must be in accordance with the provisions of Article IV and Article V hereof, will be deemed to be an amendment to this Agreement and such New Shared Service will then be a “Shared Service” for all purposes of this Agreement.

Section 2.04 Subcontractors. Nothing in this Agreement will prevent Service Provider from, with the consent of Recipient, using subcontractors, hired with due care, to perform all or any part of a Shared Service hereunder. A Service Provider will remain fully responsible for the performance of its obligations under this Agreement in accordance with its terms, including any obligations it performs through subcontractors, and a Service Provider will be solely responsible for payments due to its subcontractors.

SHARED ASSETS

Section 3.01 Shared IP Rights. Each Service Provider hereby grants to Recipient a non-exclusive right and license to use the intellectual property and other rights granted or licensed, directly or indirectly, to such Service Provider (the “Shared IP Rights”) pursuant to third party intellectual property Agreements (“Third Party IP Agreements”), provided that the rights granted to Recipient hereunder are subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable Third Party IP Agreement, and that such rights shall terminate, as applicable, upon the expiration or termination of the applicable Third Party IP Agreement. Recipient shall be licensed to use the Shared IP Rights only for so long as it remains an Affiliate of HCMLP. In consideration of the foregoing licenses, Recipient agrees to take such further reasonable actions as a Service Provider deems to be necessary or desirable to comply with its obligations under the Third Party IP Agreements.

Section 3.02 Other Shared Assets. Subject to Section 3.01, each Service Provider hereby grants Recipient the right, license or permission, as applicable, to use and access the benefits under the agreements, contracts and licenses that such Service Provider will purchase, acquire, become a party or beneficiary to or license on behalf of Recipient (the “Future Shared Assets” and collectively with the Shared IP Rights, the “Shared Assets”).

COST ALLOCATION

Section 4.01 Actual Cost Allocation Formula. The Actual Cost of any item relating to any Shared Services or Shared Assets shall be allocated based on the Allocation Percentage. For purposes of this Agreement, “Allocation Percentage” means:

- (a) To the extent 100% of such item is demonstrably attributable to Pyxis, 100% of the Actual Cost of such item shall be allocated to Pyxis as agreed by Pyxis;
- (b) To the extent a specific percentage of use of such item can be determined (e.g., 70% for HCMLP and 30% for Pyxis), that specific percentage of the Actual Cost of such item will be allocated to HCMLP or Pyxis, as applicable and as agreed by Pyxis; and
- (c) All other portions of the Actual Cost of any item that cannot be allocated pursuant to clause (a) or (b) above shall be allocated between HCMLP and Pyxis in such proportion as is agreed in good faith between the parties.

Section 4.02 Non-Cash Cost Allocation. The actual, fully burdened cost of any item relating to any Shared Services or Shared Assets that does not result in a direct, out of pocket cash expense may be allocated to HCMLP and Pyxis for financial statement purposes only, as agreed by Pyxis, without any corresponding cash reimbursement required, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, based on the Allocation Percentage principles described in Section 4.01 hereof.

ARTICLE V
PAYMENT OF COST AND REVENUE SHARE; TAXES

Section 5.01 Monthly Statements. Within thirty (30) days following the end of each month during the Term (or at such time as may be otherwise agreed by the parties), each Service Provider shall furnish the other Parties hereto with a written statement with respect to the Actual Cost paid by it in respect of Shared Services and Shared Assets provided by it, in each case, during such period, setting forth (i) the cost allocation in accordance with Article IV hereof together with the Applicable Margin on such allocated amounts, and (ii) any amounts paid pursuant to Section 5.02 hereof, together with such other data and information necessary to complete the items described in Section 5.03 hereof (hereinafter referred to as the “Monthly Report”).

Section 5.02 Settlement Payments. At any time during the Term, any Party may make payment of the amounts that are allocable to such Party together with the Applicable Margin related thereto, regardless of whether an invoice pursuant to Section 5.03 hereof has been issued with respect to such amounts.

Section 5.03 Determination and Payment of Cost and Revenue Share.

(a) Within ten (10) days of the submission of the Monthly Report described in Section 5.02 hereof (or at such other time as may be agreed by the parties), the Parties shall (i) agree on the cost share of each of the Parties and Applicable Margin as calculated pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement; and (ii) prepare and issue invoices for the cost share and Applicable Margin payments that are payable by any of the Parties.

(b) Within ten (10) days of preparation of the agreement and the issuance of the invoice described in Section 5.03(a) (or at such other time as may be agreed by the parties), the Parties shall promptly make payment of the amounts that are set forth on such cost allocation invoice. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, provision of the Shared Services shall commence from the Effective Date, but no fees shall be payable from Recipient or otherwise accrue with respect to such services provided during the month of December 2011.

Section 5.04 Taxes.

(a) Recipient is responsible for and will pay all Taxes applicable to the Shared Services and the Shared Assets provided to Recipient, provided, that such payments by Recipient to Service Provider will be made in the most tax-efficient manner and provided further, that Service Provider will not be subject to any liability for Taxes applicable to the Shared Services and the Shared Assets as a result of such payment by Recipient. Service Provider will collect such Tax from Recipient in the same manner it collects such Taxes from other customers in the ordinary course of Service Provider’s business, but in no event prior to the time it invoices Recipient for the Shared Services and Shared Assets, costs for which such Taxes are levied. Recipient may provide Service Provider with a certificate evidencing its exemption from payment of or liability for such Taxes.

(b) Service Provider will reimburse Recipient for any Taxes collected from Recipient and refunded to Service Provider. In the event a Tax is assessed against Service Provider that is solely the responsibility of Recipient and Recipient desires to protest such assessment, Recipient will submit to Service Provider a statement of the issues and arguments requesting that Service Provider grant Recipient the authority to prosecute the protest in Service Provider’s name. Service Provider’s authorization will not be unreasonably withheld. Recipient will finance, manage, control and determine the strategy for such protest while keeping Service Provider reasonably informed of the proceedings. However, the authorization will be periodically reviewed by Service Provider to determine any adverse impact on Service Provider, and Service Provider will have the right to reasonably withdraw such authority at any time. Upon notice by Service Provider that it is so withdrawing such authority, Recipient will expeditiously terminate all proceedings. Any adverse consequences suffered by Recipient as a result of the withdrawal will be submitted to arbitration pursuant to Section 9.14. Any contest for Taxes brought by Recipient may not result in any lien attaching to any property or rights of Service Provider or otherwise jeopardize Service Provider’s interests or rights in any of its property. Recipient agrees to indemnify Service Provider for all Losses that Service Provider incurs as a result of any such contest by Recipient.

(c) The provisions of this Section 5.04 will govern the treatment of all Taxes arising as a result of or in connection with this Agreement notwithstanding any other Article of this Agreement to the contrary.

ARTICLE VI SERVICE PROVIDER RESPONSIBILITIES

Section 6.01 Service Provider General Obligations. Service Provider will provide the Shared Services and the Shared Assets to Recipient on a non-discriminatory basis and will provide the Shared Services and the Shared Assets in the same manner as if it were providing such services and assets on its own account (the “Service Standards”). Service Provider will conduct its duties hereunder in a lawful manner in compliance with applicable laws, statutes, rules and regulations and in accordance with the Service Standards, including, for avoidance of doubt, laws and regulations relating to privacy of customer information.

Section 6.02 Books and Records; Access to Information. Service Provider will keep and maintain books and records on behalf of Recipient in accordance with past practices and internal control procedures. Recipient will have the right, at any time and from time to time upon reasonable prior notice to Service Provider, to inspect and copy (at its expense) during normal business hours at the offices of Service Provider the books and records relating to the Shared Services and Shared Assets, with respect to Service Provider’s performance of its obligations hereunder. This inspection right will include the ability of Recipient’s financial auditors to review such books and records in the ordinary course of performing standard financial auditing services for Recipient (but subject to Service Provider imposing reasonable access restrictions to Service Provider’s and its Affiliates’ proprietary information and such financial auditors executing appropriate confidentiality agreements reasonably acceptable to Service Provider). Service Provider will promptly respond to any reasonable requests for information or access. For the avoidance of doubt, all books and records kept and maintained by Service Provider on behalf of Recipient shall be the property of Recipient, and Service Provider will surrender promptly to Recipient any of such books or records upon Recipient’s request (provided that Service Provider may retain a copy of such books or records) and shall make all such books and records available for inspection and use by the Securities and Exchange Commission or any person retained by Recipient at all reasonable times. Such records shall be maintained by Service Provider for the periods and in the places required by laws and regulations applicable to Recipient.

Section 6.03 Return of Property and Equipment. Upon expiration or termination of this Agreement, Service Provider will be obligated to return to Recipient, as soon as is reasonably practicable, any equipment or other property or materials of Recipient that is in Service Provider’s control or possession.

ARTICLE VII TERM AND TERMINATION

Section 7.01 Term. The term of this Agreement will commence as of the Effective Date and will continue in full force and effect until the first anniversary of the Effective Date (the “Term”), unless terminated earlier in accordance with Section 9.02. The Term shall automatically renew for successive one year periods unless sooner terminated under Section 7.02.

Section 7.02 Termination. Either Party may terminate this Agreement, with or without cause, upon at least 60 days advance written notice at any time prior to the expiration of the Term.

ARTICLE VIII LIMITED WARRANTY

Section 8.01 Limited Warranty. Service Provider will perform the Shared Services hereunder in accordance with the Service Standards. Except as specifically provided in this Agreement, Service Provider makes no express or implied representations, warranties or guarantees relating to its performance of the Shared Services and the granting of the Shared Assets under this Agreement, including any warranty of merchantability, fitness, quality, non-infringement of third party rights, suitability or adequacy of the Shared Services and the Shared Assets for any purpose or use or purpose. Service Provider will (to the extent possible and subject to Service Provider's contractual obligations) pass through the benefits of any express warranties received from third parties relating to any Shared Service and Shared Asset, and will (at Recipient's expense) assist Recipient with any warranty claims related thereto.

ARTICLE IX MISCELLANEOUS

Section 9.01 No Partnership or Joint Venture; Independent Contractor. Nothing contained in this Agreement will constitute or be construed to be or create a partnership or joint venture between or among HCMLP or Pyxis or their respective successors or assigns. The Parties understand and agree that, with the exception of the procurement by Service Provider of licenses or other rights on behalf of Recipient pursuant to Section 3.01, this Agreement does not make any of them an agent or legal representative of the other for any purpose whatsoever. With the exception of the procurement by Service Provider of licenses or other rights on behalf of Recipient pursuant to Section 3.01, no Party is granted, by this Agreement or otherwise, any right or authority to assume or create any obligation or responsibilities, express or implied, on behalf of or in the name of any other Party, or to bind any other Party in any manner whatsoever. This Agreement, together with such Schedules and Exhibits constitutes the entire agreement among the Parties pertaining to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings of the Parties in connection therewith.

Section 9.04 Further Assurances. Each Party will take such actions as any other Party may reasonably request or as may be necessary or appropriate to consummate or implement the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or to evidence such events or matters.

Section 9.07 Headings. The descriptive headings of the Articles, Sections and subsections of this Agreement are for convenience only and do not constitute a part of this Agreement.

Section 9.08 Counterparts. This Agreement and any amendment hereto or any other agreement delivered pursuant hereto may be executed in one or more counterparts and by different Parties in separate counterparts. All counterparts will constitute one and the same agreement and will become effective when one or more counterparts have been signed by each Party and delivered to the other Parties.

Section 9.09 Successors and Assigns; No Third Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement is binding upon and will inure to the benefit of each Party and its successors or assigns, and nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to confer upon any other Person or Governmental Entity any rights or remedies of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement.

Section 9.14 Arbitration; Jurisdiction. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement or the Annexes hereto to the contrary, in the event there is an unresolved legal dispute between the parties and/or any of their respective officers, directors, partners, employees, agents, affiliates or other representatives that involves legal rights or remedies arising from this Agreement, the parties agree to submit their dispute to binding arbitration under the authority of the Federal Arbitration Act; provided, however, that either party or such applicable affiliate thereof may pursue a temporary restraining order and/or preliminary injunctive relief in connection with confidentiality covenants or agreements binding on the other party, with related expedited discovery for the parties, in a court of law, and, thereafter, require arbitration of all issues of final relief. No arbitrator will have authority to render a decision that contains an outcome determinative error of state or federal law, or to fashion a cause of action or remedy not otherwise provided for under applicable state or federal law. Any dispute over whether the arbitrator(s) has failed to comply with the foregoing will be resolved by summary judgment in a court of law. In all other respects, the arbitration process will be conducted in accordance with the American Arbitration Association's dispute resolution rules or other mutually agreeable, arbitration service rules. The party initiating arbitration shall pay all arbitration costs and arbitrator's fees, subject to a final arbitration award on who should bear costs and fees. All proceedings shall be conducted in Dallas, Texas, or another mutually agreeable site. Each party shall bear its own attorneys fees, costs and expenses, including any costs of experts, witnesses and/or travel, subject to a final arbitration award on who should bear costs and fees. #### HCMLP Bankruptcy Update

The Board was then provided with an update on HCMLP bankruptcy matters. Ms. Thedford, referring to the Meeting Materials, reviewed with the Board a memorandum from the Adviser responding to specific bankruptcy-related questions raised by the Independent Trustees through their independent counsel. As previously requested by the Board, Ms. Thedford noted that the Meeting Materials included a headcount report that lists each employee associated with HCMLP and the Advisers and identifies whether the employee is dually employed by both HCMLP and an Adviser or pursuant to a separate arrangement, such as Mr. Norris’ employment with the Funds’ distributor, NexPoint Securities, Inc. In addition, it was noted that the Meeting

Materials contained a copy of the press release dated January 16, 2020 which provided a detailed update on the reorganization proceedings resulting from the January 9, 2020 hearing.

Next, Mr. Surgent described to the Board the new governance structure of HCMLP, as mutually agreed upon by HCMLP and the committee of unsecured creditors (the “Committee”), that was approved by the Court at the January 9, 2020 hearing. Mr. Surgent provided details of the formation and appointment of a new, three-member independent Board of Directors (“Independent Board”) of Strand Advisors, Inc. (“Strand”), HCMLP’s general partner, and the corresponding resignation of Mr. Dondero from his officer position at HCMLP and his director position with Strand. Mr. Surgent stated that Mr. Dondero would remain an employee of HCMLP and would continue to act as portfolio manager/co-portfolio manager to applicable HCMLP-advised funds, subject to the supervision and control of the Independent Board. Mr. Surgent noted that the governance structures of the other Highland entities, including without limitation HCMFA, NexPoint, NexPoint Real Estate Advisors, L.P., and all Funds and accounts advised by those entities, remained unchanged.

With respect to the Independent Board, Mr. Surgent noted that the three individuals selected were highly qualified, possessing investment management knowledge and expertise relevant to HCMLP, and had extensive experience in corporate restructurings and reorganizations. He noted that biographies for all three members of the Independent Board were emailed to the Trustees on January 10, 2020.

With respect to reporting structure, Mr. Surgent stated that Mr. Dondero reports up to the Independent Board, and that the Independent Board makes the final decision with respect to matters concerning HCMLP. Mr. Powell noted that he had been in communication with the Adviser, including Mr. Dondero, during the transition.

In response to a question raised by the Board, Ms. Thedford and Mr. Post clarified that the HCMLP bankruptcy did not impact the ability of any of the Funds to make repurchases under their Board authorized repurchase programs but that HFRO, HGLB and NHF were evaluating future repurchases and timing after consideration of reserves necessary for anticipated fund expenses and contingencies.

Mr. Norris discussed the shared services arrangements that each Adviser is a party to with HCMLP pursuant to which the Adviser may utilize employees from HCMLP for the provision of various services such as human resources, accounting, valuation, information technology services, compliance and legal. Mr. Norris noted, however, that many of these “third party” services are readily available on the open market.

Update on HCMFA/HCMMLP Litigation Matters

Messrs. Seery and Ellington then provided the Board with an update on the HCMMLP Bankruptcy. Mr. Seery noted that HCMMLP had filed a redacted plan of reorganization on August 12, 2020 (the “Filed Plan”) in order to maintain HCMMLP’s exclusivity and in advance of a mediation process to resolve the case. He further noted that mediation involving HCMMLP, the official committee of unsecured creditors, and other parties involved in the reorganization proceedings was expected to start in about two weeks. In response to a question from the Board, Mr. Seery explained that mediation and settlement between such parties was the preferred resolution of the HCMMLP bankruptcy, but that the Filed Plan offered a “Plan B” in the event mediation was unsuccessful and would ensure no interruption to services provided by HCMMLP to the Advisers and the Funds under the shared services arrangements. Mr. Seery also noted that the Filed Plan was subject to review and approval by the Court.

Mr. Seery then pointed out to the Board a potential conflict of interest that had arisen with respect to an investment held by both HCMMLP-advised funds and certain of the Funds. Mr. Seery explained that the HCMMLP-advised funds were likely to seek to sell their interests in this investment, but that the Funds would likely seek to retain their interests in the investment. This divergence of investment objectives of HCMMLP and the Funds, and the overlapping portfolio and administrative personnel of HCMMLP and HCMFA and NexPoint Advisors working on the matter, created a potential conflict between the two groups.

After several follow-up questions, the Board then met in Executive Session to further discuss the matter.

EXECUTIVE SESSION

The Board Members and Independent Trustee counsel then met in Executive Session. All other Meeting participants other than those listed above left the room or dropped from the call at this time, as the case may be, except for Messrs. Seery, Ellington, Miller and Dupuy. Following this executive session, Mssrs. Seery, Ellington, Miller and Dupuy departed the Meeting. The Board Members and Independent Trustee counsel continued in Executive Session, and then the Independent Board Members met separately with their Independent Trustee counsel.

As there was no further business to come before the Board, the Board Meeting was adjourned, upon a motion duly made, seconded and unanimously carried.

GOVERNANCE AND COMPLIANCE COMMITTEE MEETING

At this time, the members of the Governance and Compliance Committee (collectively, the “Governance Committee”) of the Board (composed of Messrs. Ward, Froehlich, Constantino (NHF only) and Powell, with Mr. Froehlich serving as Chair) convened the Governance Committee Meeting.

Update on HCMFA/HCMLP Litigation Matters

Messrs. Seery, Leventon and Ellington and Mmes. Vitiello and Bannon then joined the Governance Committee Meeting and provided an update the Board on the HCMLP bankruptcy and litigation matters relating to the Funds.

Update on HCMLP Bankruptcy

Messrs. Seery and Ellington provided the Board with an update on the HCMLP Bankruptcy. During the discussion, Messrs. Seery and Ellington addressed the supplemental 15(c) follow-up questions submitted by the Board with respect to HCMLP matters and the Funds. Mr. Seery discussed the current status of the Bankruptcy proceedings, noting that HCMLP recently completed the mediation process. Although not all claims were resolved in mediation, Mr. Seery noted that there was momentum for a larger deal. He noted that HCMLP reached settlement with Acis Capital Management, L.P., a former affiliated investment adviser to a CLO platform. With respect to the UBS claim of $1 billion, Mr. Seery noted that a settlement could not be reached, so a litigation strategy was being pursued instead. Mr. Seery noted that two separate summary judgement arguments would soon be pending with respect to the UBS claim, upon which Mr. Seery expected HCMLP to prevail. Mr. Seery then summarized three other open claims, including a new $100+ million claim by HarbourVest Partners LLC.

In response to questions from the Board, Mr. Ellington noted that he had been advised that Mr. Dondero had a high degree of confidence that, even if an overall settlement could not be achieved, there would be a mechanism in place for the services currently provided by HCMLP such that any impact to the Funds would be minimal. In the short-term, Mr. Seery expected that the shared services agreement (the “Shared Services Agreement”) between HCMLP (on the one hand) and HCMFA/NexPoint Advisers (on the other) to remain in place. In the event that the Shared Services Agreement were terminated, Mr. Seery believes that the employees and services at HCMLP that are currently supporting the Funds would be transferred either directly to HCMFA/NexPoint Advisors or to a third-party that would continue to service the Funds. A discussion then ensued, including as regards the process for addressing any conflicts of interest. Mr. Sauter also discussed the analysis being performed relating to the notice of retention of rights of claim filings that previously had been filed on behalf of the Funds early in the HCMLP bankruptcy filing process in the event there were any potential claims discovered. He indicated his view that the Funds did not have any claims as it has been confirmed that there were no outstanding financial obligations between HCMLP and the Funds but would report to the Board if any matters were discovered as the review was completed. Ms. Bannon then discussed the overall public relations approach in responding to inquiries regarding the ongoing bankruptcy matter and turned the Board’s attention to the quarterly Media Coverage Report provided in the Materials.

Annual Matters for Board Review and Approval

Review of 15(c) Materials

Mr. Surgent joined the Meeting. During the discussion, he responded to the 15(c) follow-up questions submitted by the Board relating to HCMLP matters. He provided the Board with a status update on the HCLMP bankruptcy and discussed the impact of the HCMLP bankruptcy on the shared services arrangements with the Funds, noting he does not expect that the level and quality of services would change in the immediate term. Regarding the bankruptcy, Mr. Surgent reiterated Mr. Seery's stated goal to achieve a consensual, omnibus resolution by the end of the year. To the extent this was not achievable, Mr. Surgent noted that an alternative plan had been filed by HCMLP. In response to questions from the Board, Mr. Surgent noted that, even under an alternative scenario, the Board and the Advisers would have adequate advance notice to address any potential impact to the shared services provided to the Funds. He indicated that at this time it was business as usual with respect to the services provided to the Funds and that the Board would be notified immediately of any developments. A robust discussion then ensued, which included an explanation of how conflicts of interests are addressed when certain HCMLP employees are conflicted out of working on particular matters, as was the case in the recent OmniMax International, Inc. (f/k/a Euramax) (“OmniMax”) matter. Mr. Surgent and Mr. Norris explained that there were sufficient and appropriate personnel at HCMFA/NexPoint Advisors who are not also dual employees at HCMLP to cover all relevant functions on such matters, including legal, compliance, accounting, administration and portfolio management. Mr. Surgent also provided an update on the current matters where this was being utilized, including with respect to OmniMax, and noted that there were a limited number of such potential conflicts. Mr. Norris confirmed that he was comfortable with the level and quality of services being provided and has not seen any issues with the conflicts process. He also noted that in view of his being an employee of NexPoint and not being an employee of HCMLP, he was not conflicted out of working on any such matter and was able to oversee the process. In response to a request of the Board, Mr. Norris undertook to provide the Board with a list of non-HCMLP employees available to address any conflicts that may arise. At this time, Mr. Surgent departed from the Meeting.

Discussion with Co-CIO Joe Sowin

Mr. Powell then welcomed Mr. Sowin. Mr. Sowin began his report by describing his response to the conflict of interests that arose between the Advisers and HCMLP in the recent OmniMax matter. He noted his belief that the alternative staffing arrangements made with non-HCMLP employees to address the conflicts in that transaction were sufficient. Next, Mr. Sowin responded to questions from the Board regarding how potential conflicts of interest arising in common holdings amount the Funds and HCMLP-advised accounts would be addressed, including any specific issuers that Mr. Sowin believed could arise. A discussion then ensued, with the Adviser undertaking to provide the Board with a report identifying the cross holdings of HCMLP and Adviser-advised accounts, as well as a grid of non-HCMLP individuals who could perform certain specified functions in the event HCMLP individuals are conflicted out.

MEETING OF THE BOARD

BOARD MEETING

Discussion of 15(c) Follow-up Matters

Mr. Powell noted that the Advisers were asked to provide an update on the bankruptcy in connection with the annual 15(c) approval process, including addressing questions submitted by the Board. Mr. Ellington provided an update on the HCMLP bankruptcy. He explained that Mr. Dondero recently emerged as a potential sponsor of a negotiated settlement between HCMLP, its independent directors and its creditors. Mr. Ellington then explained three various potential scenarios contemplated during the ongoing negotiations, including a full or partial buyout of certain creditor claims by Mr. Dondero or no agreement, which could potentially lead to liquidation of HCMLP and termination of all HCMLP employees.

In response to a question from the Board, Mr. Ellington discussed key dates, noting that HCMLP intended to file a motion for summary judgment regarding the UBS claim by November 16, 2020. Finally, he noted the goal to provide a negotiated agreement among all parties to the bankruptcy Judge by the end of 2020.

Mr. Ellington then discussed the status of the HCMLP employees and the potential for transition of such employees to employment with NexPoint or to another newly created entity. Mr. Ellington elaborated on the steps that would need to be taken by HCMLP's independent board to allow such transitions and to enable these employees to continue providing services to the Funds. In response to a question from the Board, he discussed the Advisers' continued analysis of potential conflicts of interest for employees of HCMLP that provided services to the Advisers and the Funds, including with respect to cross holdings, and noted that Mr. Dondero had resigned from HCMLP on October 9, 2020 and would no longer face such conflicts.

Mr. Norris discussed the potential efficiencies gained if HCMLP employees transitioned to NexPoint, including potential cost savings. In response to a question from the Board, he confirmed that the Advisers continued to have the financial wherewithal to continue providing services to the Funds and that the Fund complex continued to have the full support of Mr. Dondero. In response to a question from the Board, Messrs. Norris also discussed the necessary systems that would also need to transition and provided and update on the current status of these discussions. Mr. Sauter also discussed the status of the shared services agreements. In response to another question, Mr. Norris discussed the morale employees and noted that all operations continued in the normal course there had been no material impact on the day-to-day operations of the Funds. He indicated that there would not likely be any material developments with respect to the status of HCMLP until the end of the year at the earliest. The Board requested that the Advisers continue working toward developing a definitive plan to ensure that the resources, both of personnel and equipment, are in place to continue to provide the same level and quality of services to the Funds and to continue to report back to the Board on the status.

Independent Trustees of the Funds; and Eric Griffith, Esq., Lex Smith, Esq., Carly Sikora, and Krista Hunsiker, of SEI, the Funds' administrator.

Mr. Powell acted as Chairman of the Board Meeting and Mr. Smith documented the proceedings. A quorum being present, the Board Meeting was called to order. Mr. Powell then confirmed with the Board Members and the Board Meeting participants that they had been able to access the notice and agenda for the Board Meeting and the related materials via Directors Desk's internet portal (collectively, the "Meeting Materials") and that all could hear and be heard. Mr. Powell then provided a brief overview of the matters to be discussed at the Board Meeting.

Ms. Thedford noted that in light of the impacts of COVID-19, the Securities and Exchange Commission issued orders (the "Orders") that conditionally exempt registered investment companies and their investment advisers and principal underwriters from the in-person voting requirements of the 1940 Act, which exemption is temporarily available from March 13, 2020 through December 31, 2020. She then confirmed that certain approvals related to the Funds' 15(c) process would require reliance on the Orders and that the Board Members would be asked to determine that such virtual approvals were necessary and appropriate due to circumstances related to current and potential effects of COVID-19 and that all actions that required a vote of the Board Members at an in-person meeting would be ratified, as required by the SEC's relief, at the Board's next in-person meeting.

MEETING OF THE BOARD

15(c) Follow-up Matters and Approvals

Bankruptcy Update

The representatives of the Advisers and of HCMLP reviewed and discussed responses to the 15(c) follow up questions that had been previously submitted by the Board and responded to additional questions from the Board throughout the discussion. Mr. Ellington provided an update on the HCMLP bankruptcy, focusing on the contingency plan for fund service providers if HCMLP is unable to perform its current functions. He noted that HCMLP had engaged in lengthy discussions with Greyline Partners, which is led by Matt Okolita, who is both well qualified and familiar with the Funds from his prior tenure as the Funds' CCO from May 2010 to October 2011 and served in a Compliance manager role prior to that commencing in March 2008. Mr. Ellington stated his belief that Greyline could act as a fallback plan and would be able to step in immediately if the bankruptcy disrupted the shared services in place between HCMLP, the Funds and the Advisers (the agreements pursuant to which such services are provided, the "Shared Services Agreements"). He also noted that based upon on-going discussions with HCMLP, as well as in view of these alternative contingency plans, the Advisers do not expect any interruption to the services to the Funds that are currently being provided by HCMLP pursuant to the Shared Services Agreement.

Mr. Ellington and Mr. Waterhouse next discussed the potential moving of employees from HCMLP to a newly formed company ("NewCo"). Such a transfer of employees to NewCo would take place at the termination of the Shared Services Agreements and would permit a seamless transition of personnel and services for the Funds. In response to a Board question, Mr. Ellington noted his experience that such structure is commonly used in the industry and would not need to be approved by the Bankruptcy Court. Mr. Collins noted that, although employees of HCMLP were not yet able to be released subject to confirmation of the plan of bankruptcy, he was confident in the firm's ability to retain talent throughout this process based on discussions with the employees. He noted that every employee team leader had been spoken to and also noted that there have been no significant departures to date. He also noted that in order to assist with any potential conflict of interests, Jason Post, the Funds' CCO, became an employee of NexPoint on October 14, 2020. He noted that Mr. Post, while formerly an HCMLP employee, had only been performing work for the Funds. Mr. Post then referred the Board to the Board Materials, which included a list of current co-investments and cross-held positions held by the funds and a list of non-HCMLP employees who would be available to assist the Board in the event of any conflict of interest between HCMLP, on one hand, and the Advisers or the Funds, on the other. A discussion ensued, including with respect to the background and experience of the non-HCMLP employees listed. At the request of the Board, the representatives of the Advisers also discussed specific services under the Shared Services Agreements and how they would be addressed to ensure continuity in the event of its termination, including as regards IT services.

Mr. Ellington then provided an update on the timeline for the bankruptcy negotiations and proceedings. The Board then further discussed with the representatives of management and with fund counsel the information that had been presented, both at this meeting and previous meetings, regarding the HCMLP bankruptcy and any effects that it may have on the Funds and the Advisers. The Advisers represented that the quality and level of services provided to the Funds by the Advisers and pursuant to the shared services arrangements had not been negatively impacted to date and that adequate plans were in place prevent any diminution of services as a result of any potential issues relating to the HCMLP bankruptcy that might arise. In response to a question from the Board, Mr. Dupuy reviewed the 15(c) process that the Board had undertaken, including multiple meetings and discussion with the Advisers and with representatives of HCMLP, submitting follow up questions, and receiving supplemental materials and confirmed the Board had sufficient information with which to consider approval of the advisory and other agreements at the Meeting.

15(c) Approvals

Mr. Powell reported that among the items being considered at this Board Meeting was the completion of the Board's and Independent Board Members' consideration of, and deliberations about, the annual renewal of the Agreements. He noted that the Board preliminary consideration to information bearing on the continuation of the Agreements on an August 13, 2020 pre-15(c) call and during the Board's 15(c) review call on August 24, 2020. The Advisers had provided additional responses at meetings held on September 17-18, September 23, and October 13, 2020.

Mr. Norris reminded the Board that Blank Rome had sent, on behalf of the Independent Board Members an information request letter to the Advisers, First Foundation Advisers ("Sub-Adviser") and NexPoint Securities, Inc. ("NSI") pursuant to Section 15(c) of the 1940 Act and Rule 12b-1 thereunder requesting information that the Independent Board Members deemed reasonably necessary for them to evaluate the terms of each advisory agreement and sub-advisory agreement, distribution agreements or Dealer Manager Agreement, as the case may be, and the distribution plans pursuant to Rule 12b-1 under the 1940 Act.

As part of its review process, the Board requested, through Fund counsel and its independent legal counsel, and received from the Advisers and Sub-Adviser, various information and written materials in connection with meetings of the Board, including: (1) information regarding the financial soundness of the Advisers and Sub-Adviser and the profitability of the Agreements to each of the Advisers and Sub-Adviser; (2) information on the advisory, legal and compliance personnel of the Advisers and Sub-Adviser, including ongoing updates regarding the HCMLP bankruptcy, the Shared Services Agreement and compensation arrangements; (3) information on the internal compliance procedures of each of the Advisers and Sub-Adviser, including policies and procedures for personal securities transactions, conflicts of interest and with respect to cybersecurity, business continuity and disaster recovery; (4) comparative information showing how the Funds' fees and operating expenses compare to those of other accounts of the Advisers and Sub-Adviser, if any, with investment strategies similar to those of the Funds; (5) information on the investment performance of the Funds, including comparisons of the Funds' performance against that of other registered investment companies and comparable funds managed by the Advisers that follow investment strategies similar to those of the Funds; (6) information regarding brokerage and portfolio transactions; and (7) information on any legal proceedings or regulatory audits or investigations affecting the Advisers, including potential claims in the HCMLP bankruptcy. After the August 2020 meeting, the Independent Board Members requested that the Advisers and Sub-Adviser, as applicable, provide additional information and written responses regarding various matters at meetings held on September 17-18, September 23, and October 13, 2020. It was further noted that throughout the process, the Board, including separately the Independent Board Members had also met in executive sessions to further discuss the materials.

The Board discussed the materials provided by the Advisers and Sub-Adviser in detail, including the Advisers' and Sub-Adviser's responses to the Board's specific written questions, comparative fee and performance information and information concerning the Advisers' and Sub-Adviser's business and financial condition. During the course of this discussion, the Board asked various follow-up questions, to which representatives of the Advisers responded, addressing matters such as, but not limited to, the Funds' fees and performance, investor feedback regarding the departure of certain portfolio managers, the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic and related market volatility on the Funds, the Advisers' financial condition, the makeup of NSI's distribution team, future business plans, and business continuity and succession plans of the Advisers and Sub-Adviser. The Board also requested and received additional information regarding the ongoing HCMLP bankruptcy and contingency plans related to the services currently provided under the Shared Services Agreements, including the continued employment of HCMLP employees by the Advisers.

The factors considered and the determinations made by the Board in connection with the approval of the renewal of the Agreements with the respective Adviser and the Sub-Adviser are set forth below but are not exhaustive of all matters that were discussed by the Board.

The Board noted that their evaluation process with respect to the Advisers and Sub-Adviser is an ongoing one. In this regard, the Board also took into account discussions with management and information provided to the Board at periodic meetings of the Board over the course of the year with respect to the services provided by the Advisers and Sub-Adviser to the Funds, including quarterly performance reports prepared by management containing reviews of investment results and prior presentations from the Advisers with respect to the Funds. The information received and considered by the Board in connection with this Meeting and throughout the year was both written and oral. The Board considered the Advisory Agreements and any Sub-Advisory Agreements with respect to each Fund separately in the course of its review. In doing so, the Board noted the respective roles of the Adviser and Sub-Adviser in providing services to the Funds, including the recent approval by the Board to reorganize the Funds advised by the Sub-Adviser into an unaffiliated trust.

Throughout the process, the Board had the opportunity to ask questions of and request additional information from the Advisers and Sub-Adviser. The Board was assisted by legal counsel for the Trust and the Independent Trustees were also separately assisted by independent legal counsel throughout the process. The Board also met separately without representatives of the Advisers present. The Independent Trustees also were advised by and met in executive sessions with their independent legal counsel at which no representatives of management were present to discuss the proposed continuation of the Agreements, including prior to the Meeting.

Nature, Extent and Quality of Services

The Board considered each Adviser's services as investment manager to the Funds, as applicable, including services relating to the selection and oversight of the Sub-Adviser.

The Board considered the portfolio management services provided by the Advisers under the Agreements and the Shared Services Agreement and the activities related to portfolio management, including use of technology, research capabilities and investment management staff. The Board also considered the relevant experience and qualifications of the personnel providing advisory services, including the background and experience of the members of each Fund's portfolio management team. The Board reviewed the management structure, assets under management and investment philosophies and processes of the Advisers, including with respect to liquidity management, as well as information regarding the Advisers' compliance policies, procedures and personnel, including compensation arrangements and with respect to valuation, cybersecurity, business continuity and disaster recovery. The Board also considered the Advisers' risk management and monitoring processes. The Board of Trustees took into account the terms of the Agreements and considered that, each Adviser, subject to the direction of the Board, is responsible for providing advice and guidance with respect to each Fund and for managing the investment of the assets of each Fund, including by engaging and overseeing the activities of each Fund's Sub-Adviser, where applicable. The Board also took into account that the scope of services provided by the Advisers and the undertakings required of the Advisers in connection with those services, including maintaining and monitoring its own respective and the Funds' compliance programs, had expanded over time as a result of regulatory, market and other developments. In this regard, they considered the Advisers' preparation with respect to risk disclosure related to the COVID-19 pandemic, ongoing reporting modernization efforts and compliance with Rule 6(c)11. The Board considered the Advisers' regulatory history.

Each Adviser's services in coordinating and overseeing the activities of the Funds' other service providers, as well of the services provided under the Shared Services Agreements, were also considered. The Board also evaluated the expertise and performance of the personnel of each Adviser who performed services for the Funds throughout the year. They also considered the quality of the Advisers' compliance oversight program with respect to the Funds' service providers, including the Sub-Adviser to certain of the Funds. The Board also considered both the investment advisory services and the nature, quality and extent of any administrative and other non-advisory services, including shareholder servicing and distribution support services that are provided to the Funds and its shareholders by the Advisers, NSI and their affiliates, as well as considered the services provided under the Shared Services Agreements. The Board noted that the level and quality of services to the Funds by the Advisers and its affiliates had not been materially impacted by the HCMLP bankruptcy and took into account the Advisers' representations that the level and quality of the services provided by the Advisers and their affiliates, as well as of those services currently being provided by HCMLP pursuant to the Shared Services Agreement, would continue to be provided to the Funds at the same or higher level and quality.

The Board also considered the significant risks assumed by the Advisers in connection with the services provided to the Funds, including entrepreneurial risk and ongoing risks including investment, operational, enterprise, litigation, regulatory and compliance risks with respect to the Funds. The Board also noted various cost-savings initiatives that had been implemented by the Advisers with respect to the Funds and the other funds in the Highland complex over the years. The Board also considered the financial condition and operations of the Advisers during the COVID-19 pandemic and noted that there had been no material disruption of the Advisers' services to the Funds and that the Advisers had continued to provide the same level, quality and extent of services to the Funds.

The Board also considered, among other things, HCMFA's oversight of the Sub-Adviser's provision of services to the applicable series of HFII, including, with respect to investment activities, trading practices and liquidity management, the Sub-Adviser's compliance with Fund policies, objectives and Board directives, compliance policies and procedures, and applicable law. Specifically, with regard to the series of HFII for which HCMFA retained the Sub-Adviser, the Board Members considered the services provided by HCMFA with respect to the supervision of the Sub-Adviser, including a review of the performance of the Sub-Adviser of its obligations to the applicable series of HFII; a review of the Sub-Adviser's investment performance; a review and consideration of any changes in the personnel of the Sub-Adviser responsible for performing the Sub-Adviser's obligations and making appropriate reports to the Board; a review and consideration of any changes in the ownership or senior management of the Sub-Adviser and making appropriate reports to the Board; and preparing recommendations with respect to the continued retention of the Sub-Adviser or the replacement of the Sub-Adviser. The Board also noted that on a regular basis it receives and reviews information from the Funds' Chief Compliance Officer (CCO) regarding the Funds' compliance policies and procedures established pursuant to Rule 38a-1 under the Investment Company Act of 1940.

With respect to the services provided by the Sub-Adviser, the Board considered, among other information, information provided to the Board by the Sub-Adviser. The Board reviewed the Sub-Adviser's history and investment experience, as well as information regarding the qualifications, background and responsibilities of the Sub-Adviser's investment and compliance personnel who provide services to the applicable series of HFII. The Board also considered, among other matters, the Sub-Adviser's compliance program and any disciplinary history. The Board took into account the Sub-Adviser's risk assessment and monitoring process. The Board considered the Sub-Adviser's regulatory history. The Board noted that the Funds' CCO conducts regular, periodic compliance reviews with the Sub-Adviser and presents reports to the Board regarding the same, which include an evaluation of the procedures reasonably designed by it to help assure compliance with federal securities laws. The Board also took into account the financial condition of the Sub-Adviser. The Board also considered the financial condition and operations of the Sub-Adviser during the COVID-19 pandemic and noted that there had been no material disruption of the Sub-Adviser's services to the applicable series of HFII and that the Sub-Adviser had continued to provide the same level, quality and extent of services to the applicable Funds.

The Board further considered the Sub-Adviser's investment process and philosophy. The Board took into account that the Sub-Adviser's responsibilities include the development and maintenance of an investment program for the applicable series of HFII that is consistent with the series' investment objectives, the selection of investment securities and the placement of orders for the purchase and sale of such securities, as well as the implementation of compliance controls related to performance of these services. The Board also reviewed the Sub-Adviser's brokerage policies and practices by reference to its best execution policies, use of soft dollars and broker allocation policies, to the extent applicable.

The Board considered information received from the Funds' CCO regarding the Funds' compliance policies and procedures established pursuant to Rule 38a-1 under the 1940 Act. The Board also took into account the CCO's ongoing reports concerning the CCO's oversight of the risk assessment processes of the Sub-Adviser.

In addition, the Board considered the Advisers' services as investment adviser to the REIT Subsidiaries of the Funds, including how the investment advisory agreements for the REITs materially differ from the investment advisory agreements in place for the Funds, including the duties of the Advisers, specific reporting requirements related to real property ownership and expanded diligence obligations surrounding real property transactions and the resulting tax treatment so that the REITs maintain their status as REITs for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

In considering the nature, extent, and quality of the services provided by the Advisers and the Sub-Adviser, the Board also took into account its knowledge of the Investment Adviser's and Sub-Adviser's management and the quality of the performance of each Adviser's and Sub- Adviser's respective duties, through discussions and reports during the preceding year and in past years.

The Board concluded that the Advisers and Sub-Adviser had the quality and depth of personnel and investment methods essential to performing their duties under the respective Agreements and that the nature and the quality of such advisory services supported approval of the Agreements.

GOVERNANCE AND COMPLIANCE COMMITTEE MEETING

At this time, the members of the Governance and Compliance Committees (collectively, the “Governance and Compliance Committee”) of the Board (composed of Messrs. Ward, Froehlich and Powell, with Dr. Froehlich serving as Chair) convened the Governance Committee Meeting.

Update on HCMFA/HCMLP Litigation Matters

Messrs. Dondero, Leventon, and Ellington and Ms. Vitiello then joined the Governance Committee Meeting and updated the Board on the HCMLP bankruptcy and litigation matters relating to the Funds.

Update on HCMLP Bankruptcy

Mr. Ellington then provided an update to the Governance and Compliance Committee on the latest developments on the HCMLP bankruptcy. He noted that a hearing on the confirmation of the reorganization plan was scheduled for January 14, 2021, but could be rescheduled for a later date. In response to a question from an Independent Board Member, he noted his view that the planned transition of the shared services responsibilities would not be impacted by the court’s decision on the reorganization plan.

[REDACTED]

Throughout his discussion, Mr. Ellington addressed questions from the Independent Board Members.

[REDACTED]

Update on HCMLP Employment Matters/Conflicts of Interest

Mr. Norris provided responses to the Board’s follow up questions that had been submitted on their behalf prior to the Meeting. Among these items, Mr. Norris reviewed a matrix of current services provided under the shared services agreement with HCMLP and discussed the current plans for ensuring the continuation of those services after a plan of reorganization is approved. Mr. Norris noted that these shared services fell into two broader categories: (1) employees performing services and (2) systems, infrastructure, software and supplies/equipment. With respect to the first category, Mr. Norris discussed plans by the Advisers to extend employment offers to the vast majority of HCMLP's employees such that the employees would be rehired immediately upon termination of their employment with HCMLP. In the alternative, these employees could join a newly formed entity (NewCo) and continue to provide services to the Funds through NewCo. With respect to the second category, Mr. Sauter noted that the Advisers and HCMLP were in agreement that these would be assigned with a payment from the Advisers and that there were working groups set up that were pursuing an orderly transition of all of these items, which included orderly assignment and assumption of the relevant agreements needed to continue with all current services. He noted that there has been no material attrition to date with respect to employees. In response to a question from an Independent Board Member, Mr. Sauter noted that there was currently no written commitment with respect to the transfer of shared services. A discussion then ensued relating to the risk factors to a smooth and orderly transfer of shared services and how the Advisers were addressing them. Mr. Norris also discussed the Advisers' proposed alternative plan and confirmed that regardless of whether the Advisers and HCMLP came to an agreement on shared services, such services would be continued to be provided to the Funds without interruption. In response to another question, Mr. Sauter discussed which of the proposed plans required approval of the bankruptcy court, noting that all had been previewed with the Creditors' Committee and the court. The Board requested that it be kept updated on the matters discussed at the Meeting relating to the bankruptcy matters and notified of any changes.

In response to a Board Member's question, Mr. Norris indicated that NewCo would be 100% employee owned and there was no affiliation with Mr. Dondero.

[REDACTED]

Mr. Norris also noted that the Funds' advisory fees would not change and discussed other costs not related to the Funds that the Advisers would no longer be required to pay to HCMLP. Mr. Norris also discussed the current open items relating to the transition of the shared services and confirmed his confidence that the Advisers were comfortable that such items were close to completion. Throughout the discussion, the Board Members raised certain follow up questions and requested that the Advisers provide additional information and report back, including: an analysis of the specific functions currently being provided under the Shared Services Agreements and how they would be provided going forward, as well as what the potential issues might be that might impact a smooth transition and how these were being addressed. The Board also requested that the Advisers continue to keep the Funds' auditors updated as to the status of the transition.

Mr. Waterhouse, Ms. Thedford, and Mr. Klos then dropped off the call.

Mr. Norris then provided additional details about the status of the Shared Services Agreements, settlement negotiations between the Advisers and HCMLP, and with respect to the status of certain bankruptcy related matters included [REDACTED] technology contingency plans, [REDACTED]

Update on Highland Capital Management, L.P. ("HCMLP") Bankruptcy

Mr. Norris provided an update on the shared services agreements (the "Shared Services Agreements") between the Advisers and HCMLP and the transition services proposed to be provided thereunder. He noted the frequent updates to the Board and discussed the current draft of the agreement between the Advisers and HCMLP regarding payments for these transition services, noting that a draft of the relevant document had been turned each day between the Adviser and HCMLP and the Advisers believed the process was moving in the right direction. He noted the Advisers were still waiting for a response from HCMLP on a request for an extension on the termination of the current Shared Services Agreements to coincide with the release of certain employees from their employment with HCMLP.

[REDACTED]. In response to one question from the Board, Mr. Norris confirmed that SEI struck the daily NAV for the Funds and that the Advisers have the necessary staffing in place in terms of oversight of this function so that the status of the Shared Services Agreements should not impact the daily NAV function. Throughout the discussion, the representatives of the Advisers also reviewed and provided responses to the various follow up questions raised by the Board previously.

[REDACTED]

Mr. Sowin then provided an update on the Advisers' contingency plans with respect to investment management activities and the availability of adequate trading platforms. In response to a Board member question, Mr. Sowin described specific trading and other operational functions, including valuation, that could be accessed and maintained by the Advisers and the Funds. The Board stressed the importance to the Funds and its shareholders that the Advisers confirm that processes be in place to ensure no interruption in services to the Funds. Mr. Norris indicated that gaps and risks that had been identified had been addressed, back up systems had been tested, oversight and critical risk functions had been put in place and the Advisers were ready to operate upon transition without interruption of Fund services and did not foresee any diminution of services. He also noted the enhancements to the valuation processes and team that had been built in over the past year, which was helpful to being in a strong position in this regard upon termination of the shared services arrangements. He also discussed the status of certain data currently being held by HCMLP, noting none of it was required in the short term.

Mr. Post then provided an update on the Advisers' contingency plans to ensure the effective continuity of the Funds' and the Advisers' compliance and oversight functions, including systems and personnel, noting he believed functions were all in order for a smooth transition, if needed.

Adjournment

As there was no further business to come before the Board, the Board Meeting was adjourned, upon a motion duly made, seconded and unanimously carried.

<sup>1</sup> Each of these board members is deemed not to be an interested person, as defined in Section 2(a)(19) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the “1940 Act”), of the Funds (collectively, the “Independent Board Members” or “Independent Trustees”).

Mr. Powell acted as Chairman of the Board Meeting and Mr. Griffith documented the proceedings. A quorum being present, the Board Meeting was called to order. Mr. Powell then confirmed with the Board Members and the Board Meeting participants that they had been able to access the notice and agenda for the Board Meeting and the related materials via Directors Desk's internet portal (collectively, the "Meeting Materials") and that all could hear and be heard. Mr. Powell then provided a brief overview of the matters to be discussed at the Board Meeting.

BOARD MEETING

Mr. Norris first provided an update on the termination of the shared services agreement (the "Shared Services Agreement") between the Advisers and HCMLP, as well as an update on the personnel moves from HCMLP to a newly-formed entity ("NewCo") and to NexPoint. Mr. Norris noted that HCMLP had agreed to extend the termination date of the Shared Services Agreement until February 19, 2021, but that HCMLP had decided to delay the transition of certain key HCMLP employees to NewCo until February 28, 2021. Mr. Norris noted that these employees included Ms. Thedford, the Secretary of the Funds, and Mr. Klos, the Assistant Treasurer of the Funds. In light of this potential gap in coverage of Fund services, Mr. Norris stated that the Advisers were recommending to the Board that Mr. Mitts be elected as Principal Executive Officer, Principal Financial Officer and/or Assistant Treasurer of the Funds, and that Mr. Wilmore be elected Secretary of the Funds. Mr. Norris then reviewed the qualifications and relevant experiences of both Mr. Mitts and Mr. Wilmore to serve in these Fund officer roles and addressed questions from the Board Members regarding the same. He noted the discussion with the Board at a prior meeting with respect to Mr. Mitt's background, and reviewed again Mr. Mitts level of involvement with the Funds as well as noting that he had previously already held this same role for one of the Funds. Mr. Norris stated that Ms. Thedford and Mr. Klos would formally resign their Fund officer roles shortly after the appointment of the new officers, noting that the intention would be to seek reelection of Ms. Thedford and Mr. Klos to their previous officer roles once the transition away from HCMLP was completed. He indicated that Ms. Thedford would continue in her same role with respect to services to the Funds notwithstanding she was not an officer and that he did not foresee any impact to services to the Funds. In response to a question from the Board, he also indicate that K&L and SEI were also prepared to step in with respect to any potential gaps in this area. Throughout his discussion, Mr. Norris addressed questions from the Independent Board Members, including the reasons for the proposed timeline with respect to the transition of staffing.

Mr. Norris then provided additional details relating to the current negotiations with HCMLP as to transition matters. He confirmed that the Advisers have been attempting to negotiate in good faith and that after some delay HCMLP has most recently introduced certain new terms that were not open for negotiation. Further discussion ensued during which the Board expressed and Mr. Norris agreed on the importance of the Funds and the shareholders not being pulled in to any issues between the Advisers and HCMLP that relate to bankruptcy matters. He indicated that SEI and the Advisers were prepared to strike NAVs for the Funds on Monday if services are terminated by HCMLP. He then discussed certain key risk areas in light of the transition of services, with a focus on systems and data, and then summarized the Advisers' efforts to date to address those risk areas, which included the hiring of Siepe, a third-party firm specializing in meeting the technology needs of asset managers.

Mr. Pusateri, the CEO of Siepe, then joined the Meeting and provided the Board with a detailed overview of the technology solutions created by Siepe to address the information technology and trading requirements of NewCo and the Advisers. Mr. Pusateri noted that the new IT system is fully independent from HCMLP's network and has all the necessary security and encryption protocols expected of an SEC compliant manager. In response to a question from an Independent Board Member, Mr. Pusateri noted that mock trades were conducted in the prior week and confirmed that all IT and trading systems successfully operated as expected. He indicated that the potential risks relating to the transition had already been mitigated or addressed. He discussed the background and experience of Siepe, as well as his own, including his prior work with HCMLP, which provided him with familiarity on both sides. He then reviewed the ownership and capital structure of Siepe and noted that Siepe had separate agreements in place with NexPoint and the Funds. Throughout his presentation, Mr. Pusateri addressed questions from the Board Members, including as regards system redundancies. After further discussion, Mr. Pusateri then dropped off the call.

Further discussion then ensued with respect to the impact of any data not immediately transferred by HCMLP, during which Mr. Norris confirmed that the Advisers and other service providers already had access to the necessary data and systems to prevent any disruption in services including with respect to any Fund audits. He indicated that SEI generally performs the majority of the work on the audits with the Advisers in an oversight role and that all necessary files and data are at SEI.

In response to a question from the Board, Mr. Norris indicated that apart from the potential lack of access to the Advisers' current offices and the later transition of certain staff as discussed, the Advisers did not believe there were any key data, equipment or staff missing that would impact the Funds. He confirmed the Advisers felt comfortable that all services and functions generally are ready to operate smoothly on Monday with no negative impact on the Funds or shareholders and that the Advisers were committed to taking any action necessary to make this happen. Mr. Soven then discussed potential matters relating to trading and how those have been addressed and noted the successful results from testing that had been done. In response to another question, Mr. Norris also discussed how other clients of the Advisers were addressing the transition of services.

Mr. Dondero and Mr. Sauter then provided an update on the HCMLP bankruptcy proceedings, including the current status of the confirmation of the HCMLP plan of reorganization. A discussion ensued, including as regards the Funds' current CLO holdings.

Ms. Louizos then noted for the record that Mr. Seery had recently sent written correspondence to the Board concerning the transition of shared services and related matters and that she subsequently had a call with HCMLP counsel. She noted to the Board that the correspondence did not acknowledge or address the prior correspondence that had been sent by the Funds at the request of the Board, which had requested that HCMLP work with the Advisers to ensure a smooth transition of services and that HCMLP counsel had indicated they were not made aware of this letter by HCMLP before sending the initial correspondence from Mr. Seery. A discussion then ensued, including a review of all of the actions the Board has taken to oversee the transition of services including frequent meetings and follow up items for the Advisers, as well as reaching out to HCMLP, in order to ensure that the Funds and its shareholders would not be impacted by any change. After further consideration, the Independent Board Members determined that it was not appropriate, nor was it in the best interest of the Funds, to respond to Mr. Seery's correspondence directly although such correspondence was provided to and discussed with the Advisers. The Board noted that the Board's focus, as it has been throughout the HCMLP bankruptcy proceedings, remained on the Funds and their shareholders and ensuring that services and operations provided by service providers continue at the same level and quality with no interruption, and further, that it was not appropriate and that the Board would not participate in the negotiations and dealings between the Advisers and HCMLP relating to the firms' own business concerns and operations in connection with bankruptcy-related matters.

Update on HCMLP Bankruptcy

Mr. Norris provided an update since the last update call with the Board on February 17, 2021, on the upcoming termination of the shared services agreement (the "Shared Services Agreement") between the Advisers and HCMLP. He noted that the Advisers and HCMLP had been unable to agree on terms relating to the provision of transition services following such termination notwithstanding good faith efforts by the Advisers to reach a settlement. As a result, the Advisers have been moving forward with the contingency plans that had previously been discussed with the Board. He stated that the Advisers were ready to implement them upon termination of the Shared Services Agreement. Mr. Norris summarized these contingency plans for the Board and answered a number of specific questions from the Board regarding such plans. He also noted that a consultant and former employee who serviced the Funds in a fund accounting role had been engaged to provide additional audit support, as recommended by the Board. He then provided an update on personnel moves to a newly-formed entity ("NewCo") and NexPoint, which he anticipated would be fully functional in approximately a week. In response to a question, he indicated that he did not believe there were any risks that key team members would not transition. During the discussion, the Board also noted that it would request additional follow up information relating to NewCo at subsequent meetings but noted the continuity of services at the present time.

A discussion then ensued with respect to the letter from HCMLP with respect to the termination of the Shared Service Agreement. Mr. Norris noted that while not critical, HCMLP's indication that it would provide access to any data needed by the Advisers, as necessary, was also a positive development. In response to a question from the Board, he confirmed that SAI had all of the data it needed to strike Fund NAVs.

A further discussion then ensued between the Board and Adviser personnel about the operational environment and continuity plans following termination of the Shared Services Agreement. Mr. Norris explained in detail all of the systems, personnel and operating capacities of the Advisers and the Funds and their ability to ensure effective functionality without assistance from HCMLP. He confirmed that the Advisers and all supporting service providers were prepared and the Advisers were confident that there would be no interruption to the services and functions provided to the Funds and their shareholders and that it would be business as usual and that the Advisers were in a good position and ready to implement the plans effective as of the termination date. In response to another question from the Board, he then reviewed the anticipated steps and how the first day post-termination of the Shared Services Agreement would operate. The Board requested that the Advisers continue to provide an update subsequent to the transition.

Update on HCMLP Litigation Matters Relating to the Funds

Mr. Sauter then discussed a recent motion brought before the bankruptcy court by HCMLP relating to the adequacy of the transition plan for the shared services in light of the terminating Shared Services Agreements, noting that the motion was ultimately rendered moot in view of the actions taken in connection with the transition. Mr. Norris then described his recent testimony with respect to this motion, including with respect to the due diligence of the Board in keeping updated with respect to the transition and the number of frequent meetings and executive sessions held by the Board in this regard. Personnel from the Adviser discussed with the Board all of the actions that have been taken to ensure a smooth transition following termination of the Shared Services Agreement. It was noted that HCMLP's attorney had communicated with the SEC to alert them to potential risks to the Funds relating to the transition of shared services. A discussion then ensued regarding the potential implications of this communication and whether any action was necessary by the Funds to correct this communication in view of the actions that had been taken to address any potential risks and to ensure a smooth transition. Fund counsel noted that it was likely that the staff had heard such details in connection with the hearing on the motion. After further discussion, Messrs. Hogewood, Sauter and Sevilla departed the Meeting.

Update on Shared Services Agreements

Mr. Norris provided an update on the shared services arrangements and employee transitions. He indicated that there would be no impact as a result of certain employees not transitioning to the Advisers and discussed the team in place and their qualifications. He noted that the current shared services arrangements with HCMLP would cease at the end of February and that the Advisers wish to move forward with new Shared Services Agreements between each

Adviser and NewCo. He then stated that these Agreements were in the process of being drafted and finalized and will be reviewed with the Board at its next meeting. He indicated that there had been no major issues in connection with the transition and that the personnel from the Advisers had met with HCMLP with respect to data files and are comfortable that HCMLP will be providing the necessary information. In response to a question from the Board, he indicated that there was not an immediate need for such data and confirmed that the Advisers had the data and information files they needed with respect to Fund operations and services. He also discussed that the majority of Adviser employees are working remotely with no issues.

Materials contained a copy of the press release dated January 16, 2020 which provided a detailed update on the reorganization proceedings resulting from the January 9, 2020 hearing.

Next, Mr. Surgent described to the Board the new governance structure of HCMLP, as mutually agreed upon by HCMLP and the committee of unsecured creditors (the “Committee”), that was approved by the Court at the January 9, 2020 hearing. Mr. Surgent provided details of the formation and appointment of a new, three-member independent Board of Directors (“Independent Board”) of Strand Advisors, Inc. (“Strand”), HCMLP’s general partner, and the corresponding resignation of Mr. Dondero from his officer position at HCMLP and his director position with Strand. Mr. Surgent stated that Mr. Dondero would remain an employee of HCMLP and would continue to act as portfolio manager/co-portfolio manager to applicable HCMLP-advised funds, subject to the supervision and control of the Independent Board. Mr. Surgent noted that the governance structures of the other Highland entities, including without limitation HCMFA, NexPoint, NexPoint Real Estate Advisors, L.P., and all Funds and accounts advised by those entities, remained unchanged.

With respect to the Independent Board, Mr. Surgent noted that the three individuals selected were highly qualified, possessing investment management knowledge and expertise relevant to HCMLP, and had extensive experience in corporate restructurings and reorganizations. He noted that biographies for all three members of the Independent Board were emailed to the Trustees on January 10, 2020.

With respect to reporting structure, Mr. Surgent stated that Mr. Dondero reports up to the Independent Board, and that the Independent Board makes the final decision with respect to matters concerning HCMLP. Mr. Powell noted that he had been in communication with the Adviser, including Mr. Dondero, during the transition.

In response to a question raised by the Board, Ms. Thedford and Mr. Post clarified that the HCMLP bankruptcy did not impact the ability of any of the Funds to make repurchases under their Board authorized repurchase programs but that HFRO, HGLB and NHF were evaluating future repurchases and timing after consideration of reserves necessary for anticipated fund expenses and contingencies.

Mr. Norris discussed the shared services arrangements that each Adviser is a party to with HCMLP pursuant to which the Adviser may utilize employees from HCMLP for the provision of various services such as human resources, accounting, valuation, information technology services, compliance and legal. Mr. Norris noted, however, that many of these “third party” services are readily available on the open market.

Table of ContentsREPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM*To the Shareholders and Board of Trustees of NexPoint Diversified Real Estate TrustOpinion on the Financial Statements*

We have audited the accompanying consolidated statement of assets and liabilities, including the consolidated investment portfolio, of NexPoint Diversified Real Estate Trust (formerly NexPoint Strategic Opportunities Fund) (the "Fund") as of December 31, 2021, the related consolidated statements of operations and cash flows for the year then ended, and the consolidated statements of changes in net assets and the consolidated financial highlights for each of the two years in the period then ended, and the related notes (collectively referred to as the "financial statements"). In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Fund as of December 31, 2021, the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended, and the changes in net assets and the financial highlights for each of the two years in the period then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The Fund's financial highlights for the years ended December 31, 2019, and prior, were audited by other auditors whose report dated April 10, 2020, expressed an unqualified opinion on those financial highlights.

Basis for Opinion

These financial statements are the responsibility of the Fund's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Fund's financial statements based on our audits. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) ("PCAOB") and are required to be independent with respect to the Fund in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement whether due to error or fraud.

Our audits included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our procedures included confirmation of securities owned as of December 31, 2021, by correspondence with the custodian, agent banks, transfer agents, issuers, and brokers; when replies were not received from brokers, we performed other auditing procedures. Our audits also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

We have served as the Fund's auditor since 2020.

At a special meeting of shareholders on August 28, 2020, shareholders approved proposals (i) to change the Company's business from a registered investment company that invests primarily in debt and equity securities to a diversified REIT, (ii) to amend the Company's fundamental investment restrictions to permit the Company to engage in its new business (collectively, the "Conversion"), and (iii) to amend and restate the Company's Agreement and Declaration of Trust. Although the Company has begun taking steps to implement the Conversion, it is still contingent upon regulatory approval and the ability to reconfigure the Company's portfolio to attain REIT status and deregister as an investment company.

The Adviser has begun to realign the Company's portfolio so that it is no longer an investment company under the 1940 Act and anticipates filing an application with the Securities Exchange Commission, or the SEC, for a deregistration order in the first quarter of 2021. The Adviser intends to sell certain of the Company's existing investments and transition its portfolio into real estate and real estate related investments as opportunities within the new investment scope arise, subject to applicable compliance requirements and other business considerations.

Once the Conversion is fully implemented, it is expected that investments will be diversified among various commercial real estate property types and across the capital structure, including but not limited to: equity, mortgage debt, mezzanine debt and preferred equity. It is expected that property types will primarily include industrial, hospitality, net lease, retail, office, storage and healthcare and, to the extent currently owned, multifamily and single-family rentals; however, the Company would have the authority to invest without limitation in any property type.

The Company will invest primarily in real estate and real estate related assets; however, the Company may, to a limited extent, continue to hold, acquire or transact in certain non-real estate securities. To permit the Company to engage in its new business, the Company's fundamental investment restrictions regarding purchasing and selling real estate and originating loans and certain of the Company's fundamental investment restrictions have been amended to allow the Company to engage in its business as a diversified REIT. The following discussion reflects the Company's investment strategy and policies as modified pursuant to shareholder approval on August 28, 2020.

Investment Strategy

As a diversified REIT, the Company's primary investment objective will be to provide both current income and capital appreciation. The Company will seek to achieve this objective by investing among various commercial real estate property types and across the capital structure, including but not limited to: equity, mortgage debt, mezzanine debt and preferred equity. The Investment Adviser will focus on opportunistic investments in real estate properties with a value-add component and real estate credit. The objective will be to increase the cash flow and value of the Company's properties, acquire properties with cash flow growth potential and achieve capital appreciation for shareholders through a value-add program. The Company will pursue real estate credit investments based on where the Investment Adviser believes the various real estate subsectors are within the broader real estate cycle and tactically allocate among these opportunities.

Underlying property types will primarily include industrial, hospitality, net lease, retail, office, storage and healthcare and, to the extent currently owned, multifamily and single-family rentals; however, the Company may invest without limitation in any property type.

The Company will invest primarily in real estate and real estate related assets; however, the Company may, to a limited extent, continue to hold, acquire or transact in certain non-real estate securities.

The Investment Adviser and the Board believe that a diversified investment approach is appropriate for the current market environment. However, to capitalize on investment opportunities at different times in the economic and real estate investment cycle, the Company may change its investment strategy from time to time. The Investment Adviser and the Board believe that the flexibility of the Company's investment strategy and the experience and resources of the Investment Adviser and its affiliates, will allow the Company to take advantage of changing market conditions to provide both current income and generate capital appreciation. The Board will be able to modify such strategies without the consent of the shareholders to the extent that the Board determines that such modification is in the Company's best interest.

Leverage Policies and Financing Strategy. To increase the returns on the Company's investments, after issuance of the Deregistration Order, the Company plans to employ both direct and structural leverage on the Company's property and debt investments, which we expect generally will not exceed, on a debt to equity basis, a ratio of 3-to-1, an increase from the ratio of 1-to-2 set by the 1940 Act.

Leverage will take the form of repurchase or margin facilities collateralized by our debt investments and mortgage debt collateralized by our property investments. At the REIT level the Company may have a revolving corporate credit facility, or may issue unsecured debt, mezzanine debt or preferred equity. The Company believes that the relationships the Investment Adviser and its affiliates, as well as other companies managed by the Investment Adviser's affiliates (the “NexPoint managed companies”), have with banks, life insurance companies, Freddie Mac and The Federal National Mortgage Association, or Fannie Mae, provide the Company with a unique opportunity to invest alongside quality sponsors and the largest multifamily lenders in the U.S.

The Company intends to use leverage, to the extent available, to make additional investments that may increase the Company's potential returns. Although the Company is not required to maintain any particular leverage ratio, the amount of leverage the Company will use for particular investments will depend upon an assessment of a variety of factors, which may include the anticipated liquidity and price volatility of the Company's assets, the potential for losses in the Company's portfolio, the gap between the duration of the Company's assets and liabilities, the availability and cost of financing the Company's assets, the health of the U.S. economy and commercial real estate markets, the Company's outlook for the level, slope and volatility of future interest rates, the credit quality of the Company's borrowers and tenants, the collateral values underlying the Company's assets and the Company's outlook for market lending spreads relative to the LIBOR (or other applicable benchmark interest rate index) curve.

REIT Operations. The Company intends to operate to ensure that it establishes and maintains its qualification as a REIT for U.S. federal tax purposes and is not required to register as an investment company under the 1940 Act. The Company intends to regularly monitor the nature of the Company's assets and the income they generate to ensure that at all times the Company maintain its tax qualification as a REIT and is not required to register as an investment company under the 1940 Act. The Board currently intends to review the Company's transactions on a periodic basis to ensure compliance with these operating policies.

Distribution Policy. The Company intends to make monthly distributions to the Company's shareholders of amounts that will, at a minimum, enable the Company to comply with the REIT provisions of the Code that generally require annual distributions of at least 90% of the Company's REIT taxable income (other than net capital gains). The actual amount of such distributions will be determined on a monthly basis by the Board, taking into account, in addition to the REIT tax requirements, the Company's cash needs, the market price for the Company's Common Shares and other factors our Board considers relevant.

Operating Expenses. Operating expenses may increase as the Conversion becomes fully implemented following receipt of the Deregistration Order due to increased costs associated with sourcing additional real estate investments and costs associated with servicing those investments; however, these expenses are projected to be offset by higher projected income attributable to increased cash flows from leveraged real estate assets, resulting in higher projected net income per common share (thus supporting a potentially higher distribution rate in the long term).

During the Conversion period, the Investment Adviser will continue to implement the Company's business strategies subject to the oversight of the Board, including: (a) performing all of our day-to-day activities as a public company operating as a diversified REIT; (b) sourcing, analyzing and closing the Company's investments; (c) arranging the Company's financings; (d) performing the Company's asset management functions by monitoring the performance of the Company's borrowers and the maintenance of the Company's collateral; and (e) when necessary, enforcing the Company's loan and security rights.

Policies with Respect to Certain Other Activities. The Company may raise additional funds through offerings of equity or debt securities or by retaining cash flow (subject to provisions in the Code concerning distribution requirements and the taxability of undistributed REIT taxable income) or a combination of these methods. If the Board determines to raise additional equity capital, it has the authority, without shareholder approval, to issue additional Common Shares or preferred shares of beneficial interest in any manner and on such terms and for such consideration as it deems appropriate, at any time.

In addition, to the extent available, the Company intends to borrow money to make investments that may increase the Company's potential returns. The Company intends to use traditional forms of financing, including repurchase agreements, bank credit facilities (including revolving facilities and term loans), public or private debt issuances, securitizations and other sources of financing. The Company may also issue preferred equity which requires us to pay dividends at fixed or variable rates before we may pay distributions to our common shareholders. We expect that the Board will periodically review the Company's investment guidelines and our portfolio and leverage strategies.

The Company may invest in equity or debt securities of other REITs or other entities engaged in real estate operating or financing activities, and may do so for the purpose of exercising control over such entities.

The Company does not intend to adopt a formal portfolio turnover policy. Subject to maintaining the Company's qualification for taxation as a REIT under the Code for U.S. federal income tax purposes and our exemption from registration under the 1940 Act, the Company currently expects that it will typically hold investments for between two and 10 years. However, in order to maximize returns and manage portfolio risk while maintaining the financial capacity to undertake attractive opportunities that become available to the Company, the Company may dispose of an asset earlier than anticipated or hold an investment longer than anticipated if we determined doing so to be appropriate based upon market conditions or other factors regarding a particular investment.

Additional Portfolio Information

The Investment Adviser and its affiliates manage other accounts, including registered and private funds and individual accounts. Although investment decisions for the Company are made independently from those of such other accounts, the Investment Adviser may, consistent with applicable law, make investment recommendations to other clients or accounts that may be the same or different from those made to the Company, including investments in different levels of the capital structure of a company, such as equity versus senior loans, or that involve taking contradictory positions in multiple levels of the capital structure. The Investment Adviser has adopted policies and procedures that address the allocation of investment opportunities, execution of portfolio transactions, personal trading by employees and other potential conflicts of interest that are designed to ensure that all client accounts are treated equitably over time. Nevertheless, this may create situations where a client could be disadvantaged because of the investment activities conducted by the Investment Adviser for other client accounts. When the Company and one or more of such other accounts is prepared to invest in, or desires to dispose of, the same security, available investments or opportunities for each will be allocated in a manner believed by the Investment Adviser to be equitable to the Company and such other accounts. The Investment Adviser also may aggregate orders to purchase and sell securities for the Company and such other accounts. Although the Investment Adviser believes that, over time, the potential benefits of participating in volume transactions and negotiating lower transaction costs should benefit all accounts including the Company, in some cases these activities may adversely affect the price paid or received by the Company or the size of the position obtained or disposed of by the Company.

Change in Independent Registered Public Accounting Firms

On June 8, 2020, the Company dismissed PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP ("PwC") as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, effective on such date. The decision to dismiss PwC was approved by the audit committee and by the full Board. On June 18, 2020, the Company approved the appointment of Cohen & Company Ltd. ("Cohen") as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm. Cohen was engaged by the Company on June 25, 2020.

The Company provided PwC with a copy of the disclosures proposed to be made in this N-CSR and requested that PwC furnish the Company with a letter addressed to the Commission stating whether it agrees with the statements made by the Company in response to Item 304(a) of Regulation S-K, and, if not, stating the respects in which it does not agree. The PwC letter is attached hereto to as an exhibit.

Dividend Reinvestment Plan

Unless the registered owner of Common Shares elects to receive cash by contacting Maxim Group LLC ("Maxim" or the "Plan Agent"), as agent for shareholders in administering the Plan, a registered owner will receive newly issued Common Shares for all dividends declared for Common Shares of the Company. If a registered owner of Common Shares elects not to participate in the Plan, they will receive all dividends in cash paid by check mailed directly to them (or, if the shares are held in street or other nominee name, then to such nominee) by Maxim, as dividend disbursing agent. Shareholders may elect not to participate in the Plan and to receive all dividends in cash by sending written instructions or by contacting Maxim, as dividend disbursing agent, at the address set forth below.

Participation in the Plan is completely voluntary and may be terminated or resumed at any time without penalty by contacting the Plan Agent before the dividend record date; otherwise such termination or resumption will be effective with respect to any subsequently declared dividend. Some brokers may automatically elect to receive cash on the shareholders' behalf and may reinvest that cash in additional Common Shares of the Company for them. The Plan Agent will open an account for each shareholder under the Plan in the same name in which such shareholder's Common Shares are registered.

Whenever the Company declares a dividend payable in cash, non-participants in the Plan will receive cash and participants in the Plan will receive the equivalent in Common Shares. The Common Shares will be acquired by the Plan Agent through receipt of additional unissued but authorized Common Shares from the Company ("newly issued Common Shares"). The number of newly issued Common Shares to be credited to each participant's account will be determined by dividing the dollar amount of the dividend by the lesser of (i) the net asset value per Common Share determined on the Declaration Date and (ii) the market price per Common Share as of the close of regular trading on the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE") on the Declaration Date.

The Plan Agent maintains all shareholders' accounts in the Plan and furnishes written confirmation of all transactions in the accounts, including information needed by shareholders for tax records. Common Shares in the account of each Plan participant will be held by the Plan Agent on behalf of the Plan participant, and each shareholder proxy will include those shares purchased or received pursuant to the Plan. The Plan Agent will forward all proxy solicitation materials to participants and vote proxies for shares held under the Plan in accordance with the instructions of the participants. In the case of shareholders such as banks, brokers or nominees which hold shares for others who are the beneficial owners, the Plan Agent will administer the Plan on the basis of the number of Common Shares certified from time to time by the record shareholder's name and held for the account of beneficial owners who participate in the Plan. There will be no brokerage charges with respect to Common Shares issued directly by the Company.

The automatic reinvestment of dividends will not relieve participants of any federal, state or local income tax that may be payable (or required to be withheld) on such dividends. Accordingly, any taxable dividend received by a participant that is reinvested in additional Common Shares will be subject to federal (and possibly state and local) income tax even though such participant will not receive a corresponding amount of cash with which to pay such taxes. Participants who request a sale of shares through the Plan Agent are subject to a $2.50 sales fee and pay a brokerage commission of $0.05 per share sold. The Company reserves the right to amend or terminate the Plan. There is no direct service charge to participants in the Plan; however, the Company reserves the right to amend the Plan to include a service charge payable by the participants. All correspondence concerning the Plan should be directed to the Plan Agent at American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC 6201 15th Avenue Brooklyn, NY 11219; telephone (718) 921-8200.

Shareholder Loyalty Program

To promote loyalty and long-term alignment of interests among the Company's shareholders, the Investment Adviser offers an incentive to shareholders that buy and hold the Company's common shares for a period of at least twelve months through its Shareholder Loyalty Program (the "Program"). To participate in the Program, existing shareholders must open an account (the "Account") with the Program's administrator, American Stock Transfer & Trust Company ("AST"). Subsequently, if a participant makes contributions to the Account during a defined trading period to purchase shares, the Investment Adviser will make a corresponding contribution equal to 2% of the participant's contributions. For example, if a participant contributes $10,000 to the Account during a defined trading period to purchase shares, the Adviser will make a corresponding contribution

of $200, to purchase additional shares for the participant (the "Bonus Shares"). In addition, Program participants will not be required to pay any customary selling commissions or distribution fees on the purchase of shares under the Program. The Investment Adviser will bear the costs of brokerage fees in connection with the Program. While the portion of the Company's common shares that are acquired through the participant's contribution will vest immediately, Bonus Shares will not vest until the first anniversary of the date that the Bonus Shares were purchased. Vested shares will be held in the Account and Bonus Shares will be held in an account at AST for the conditional benefit of the shareholder. Under the Program, participants must purchase a minimum of $10,000 worth of shares in the initial subscription and $5,000 in each subsequent subscription, unless the Investment Adviser, in its sole discretion, decides to permit subscriptions for a lesser amount. If the Company's common shares are trading at a discount, AST will purchase common shares on behalf of participants in open-market purchases. If the Company's common shares are trading at a premium, AST may purchase common shares on behalf of participants in open market purchases or the Company may sell common shares to the Shareholder Loyalty Program by means of a prospectus or otherwise. All dividends received on shares that are purchased under the Program will be automatically reinvested through the Program. A participant's interest in a dividend paid to the holder of a vested share will vest immediately. A participant's interest in a dividend paid to the holder of a Bonus Share will vest at the same time that the Bonus Share's vesting requirements are met. In addition, for dividends paid to holders of shares that were purchased with a participant's contributions, the Investment Adviser will make a corresponding contribution to the amount of the reinvested dividend equal to 2% of the dividend amount. AST maintains all shareholders' accounts in the Program and furnishes written confirmation of all transactions in the accounts, including information needed by shareholders for tax records. Shares in the account of each Program participant will be held by AST on behalf of the Program participant, and each shareholder proxy will include those shares purchased or received pursuant to a Program. AST will forward all proxy solicitation materials to participants and vote proxies for shares held under the Program in accordance with the instructions of the participants. In the case of shareholders such as banks, brokers or nominees which hold shares for others who are the beneficial owners, AST will administer the Program on the basis of the number of common shares certified from time to time by the record shareholder's name and held for the account of beneficial owners who participate in the Program. The Company and the Investment Adviser reserve the right to amend or terminate the Program. To help align the interests of the Investment Adviser's employees with the interests of the Company's shareholders, the Investment Adviser offers a similar program to its employees. Participants in the Program should be aware that their receipt of Bonus Shares under the Program constitutes taxable income to them. In addition, such participants owe taxes on that portion of any distribution that constitutes taxable income in respect of shares of our common stock held in their Program accounts, whether or not such shares of common stock have vested in the hands of the participants. To the extent any payments or distributions under the Program are subject to U.S. federal, state or local taxes, the Company, any participating affiliate of the Company or the agent for the Program may satisfy its tax withholding obligation by (1) withholding shares of Stock allocated to the participant's account, (2) deducting cash from the participant's account or (3) deducting cash from any other compensation the participant may receive. Program participants should consult their tax advisers regarding the tax consequences to them of participating in the Program. The Program may create an incentive for shareholders to invest additional amounts in the Company. Because the Investment Adviser's management fee is based on a percentage of the assets of the Company, the Program will result in increased net revenues to the Investment Adviser if the increase in the management fee due to the increased asset base offsets the costs associated with establishing and maintaining the Program.

Approval of NexPoint Diversified Real Estate Trust Investment Advisory Agreement

The Fund has retained NexPoint Advisors, L.P. (the "Investment Adviser") to manage the assets of the Fund pursuant to an investment advisory agreement between the Investment Adviser and the Fund (the "Agreement"). The Agreement has been approved by the Fund's Board of Trustees, including a majority of the Independent Trustees. The Agreement continues in effect from year-to-year, provided that such continuance is specifically approved at least annually by the vote of holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of the Fund or by the Board of Trustees and, in either event, by a majority of the Independent Trustees of the Fund casting votes in person at a meeting called for such purpose.

During a telephonic meeting with the Investment Adviser held on August 12, 2021, and separately with independent counsel on September 1, 2021, the Board of Trustees considered information bearing on the continuation of the Agreement for an additional one-year period. The Board of Trustees further discussed and considered information with respect to the continuation of the Agreement at a Board meeting held on September 16-17, 2021.

At meetings held on October 25, 2021, the Board of Trustees, including the Independent Trustees, approved the continuance of the Agreement for a one-year period commencing on November 1, 2021. As part of its review process, the Board of Trustees requested, through Fund counsel and independent legal counsel, and received from the Investment Adviser, various information and written materials, including: (1) information regarding the financial soundness of the Investment Adviser and the profitability of the Agreement to the Investment Adviser; (2) information on the advisory, legal and compliance personnel of the Investment Adviser, including ongoing updates regarding the Highland Capital Management L.P. ("HCMLP") bankruptcy and compensation arrangements; (3) information regarding Skyview's role as a service provider to the Investment Adviser pursuant to the services agreement between Skyview and the Investment Adviser (the "Skyview Services Agreement") to assist the Investment Adviser in providing certain services to the Fund pursuant to Agreement and Administration Services Agreement between the Investment Adviser and the Fund, as well as information regarding the Investment Adviser's oversight role over Skyview; (4) information on the internal compliance procedures of the Investment Adviser, including policies and procedures for personal securities transactions, conflicts of interest and with respect to cybersecurity, business continuity and disaster recovery; (5) comparative information showing how the Fund's fees and operating expenses compare to those of other accounts of the Investment Adviser, if any, with investment strategies similar to those of the Fund; (6) information on the investment performance of the Fund, including a comparison of the Fund's performance against that of other registered investment companies and comparable funds managed by the Investment Adviser that follow investment strategies similar to those of the Fund; (7) information regarding brokerage and portfolio transactions; and (8) information on any legal proceedings or regulatory audits or investigations affecting the Investment Adviser, including relating to the HCMLP bankruptcy. After the August 2021 meeting and throughout the annual contract renewal process, including at the September 16-17, 2021 Board meeting, the Board of Trustees requested that the Investment Adviser provide additional information and written responses regarding various matters in connection with the Board of Trustees' review and consideration of the Agreement. It was further noted that throughout the process, the Board of Trustees, including separately the Independent Trustees, had also met in executive sessions to further discuss the materials.

In addition, the Board of Trustees received an independent report from FUSE Research Network ("FUSE"), an independent third-party provider of investment company data, relating to the Fund's performance and expenses compared to the performance and expenses of a group of funds deemed by FUSE to be comparable to the Fund (the "peer group"), and to a larger group of comparable funds (the "peer universe"). The Board of Trustees also received data relating to the Fund's leverage and distribution rates as compared to its peer group.

The Board of Trustees discussed the materials provided by the Investment Adviser in detail over the course of multiple meetings, including the Investment Adviser's responses to the Board of Trustees' specific written questions, comparative fee and performance information and information concerning the Investment Adviser's business and financial condition. The factors considered and the determinations made by the Board of Trustees in connection with the approval of the renewal of the Agreement with the Investment Adviser are set forth below but are not exhaustive of all matters that were discussed by the Board of Trustees.

The Board of Trustees' evaluation process with respect to the Investment Adviser is an ongoing one. In this regard, the Board of Trustees also took into account discussions with management and information provided to the Board of Trustees at meetings of the Board of Trustees over the course of the year with respect to the services provided by the Investment Adviser to the Fund, including quarterly performance reports prepared by management containing reviews of investment results and prior presentations from the Investment Adviser with respect to the Fund. The information received and considered by the Board of Trustees in connection with the October 25, 2021 meeting and throughout the year was both written and oral.

The Board of Trustees reviewed various factors that were discussed in a legal memorandum provided by independent counsel regarding trustee responsibilities in considering the Agreement, the detailed information provided by the Investment Adviser and other relevant information. The Board of Trustees also considered other factors (including conditions and trends prevailing generally in the economy, the securities markets, and the effect of the COVID-19 pandemic on the Fund and the industry). Some of the factors that figured particularly in the Board of Trustees' deliberations are described below, although individual Trustees may have evaluated the information presented differently from one another, giving different weights to various factors. In addition, the Board of Trustees' conclusions may be based in part on its consideration of the advisory arrangements in prior years and on the Board of Trustees' ongoing regular review of fund performance and operations throughout the year. The Board of Trustees' conclusions as to the approval of the Agreement were based on a comprehensive consideration of all information provided to the Board of Trustees without any single factor being dispositive in and of itself.

Throughout the process, the Board of Trustees had the opportunity to ask questions of and request additional information from the Investment Adviser. The Board of Trustees was assisted by legal counsel for the Trust and the Independent Trustees were also separately assisted by independent legal counsel throughout the process. The Board of Trustees also met separately without representatives of the Investment

Adviser present. The Independent Trustees were advised by and met in executive sessions with their independent legal counsel at which no representatives of management were present to discuss the proposed continuation of the Agreement.

The nature, extent, and quality of the services to be provided by the Investment Adviser.

The Board of Trustees considered the Investment Adviser's services as investment manager to the Fund.

The Board of Trustees considered the portfolio management services to be provided by the Investment Adviser under the Agreement and the activities related to portfolio management, including use of technology, research capabilities and investment management staff. The Board of Trustees also considered the relevant experience and qualifications of the personnel providing advisory services, including the background and experience of the members of the Fund's portfolio management team. The Board of Trustees reviewed the management structure, assets under management and investment philosophies and processes of the Investment Adviser, including with respect to liquidity management. The Board of Trustees also reviewed and discussed information regarding the Investment Adviser's compliance policies, procedures and personnel, including compensation arrangements and with respect to valuation, cybersecurity, business continuity and disaster recovery. The Board of Trustees also considered the Investment Adviser's risk management and monitoring processes. The Board of Trustees took into account the terms of the Agreement and considered that, the Investment Adviser, subject to the direction of the Board of Trustees, is responsible for providing advice and guidance with respect to the Fund and for managing the investment of the assets of the Fund. The Board of Trustees also took into account that the scope of services provided to the Fund and the undertakings required of the Investment Adviser in connection with those services, including with respect to its own and the Fund's compliance programs, had expanded over time as a result of regulatory, market and other developments. The Board of Trustees also considered operational, staffing and organizational changes with respect to the Investment Adviser over the prior year, including in connection with the transitions of certain shared services arrangements and the steps taken by the Investment Adviser to address such transitions, and the fact that there were no material operational or compliance issues with respect to the Fund or decrease in the level and quality of services provided to the Fund as a result. The Board of Trustees also considered the Investment Adviser's regulatory history. The Board of Trustees also considered the Investment Adviser's current litigation matters related to the HCMLP bankruptcy and took into account the Investment Adviser's representation that such matters would not impact the quality and level of services the Investment Adviser will provide to the Fund under the Agreement.

The Investment Adviser's services in coordinating and overseeing the activities of the Fund's other service providers, as well of the services provided by Skyview to the Investment Adviser under the Skyview Services Agreement, were also considered. The Board of Trustees also evaluated the expertise and performance of the personnel of the Investment Adviser who performed services for the Fund throughout the year. They also considered the quality of the Investment Adviser's compliance oversight program with respect to the Fund's service providers. The Board of Trustees also considered both the investment advisory services and the nature, quality and extent of any administrative and other non-advisory services, including shareholder servicing and distribution support services that are provided to the Fund and its shareholders by the Investment Adviser and its affiliates, as well as considered the services provided by Skyview to the Investment Adviser under the Skyview Services Agreement. The Board of Trustees noted that the level and quality of services to the Fund by the Investment Adviser and its affiliates had not been materially impacted by the HCMLP bankruptcy and took into account the Investment Adviser's representations that the level and quality of the services provided by the Investment Adviser and their affiliates, as well as of those services provided by Skyview to the Investment Adviser under the Skyview Services Agreement, would continue to be provided to the Fund at the same or higher level and quality.

The Board of Trustees also considered the significant risks assumed by the Investment Adviser in connection with the services provided to the Fund, including entrepreneurial risk and ongoing risks including investment, operational, enterprise, litigation, regulatory and compliance risks with respect to the Fund. The Board of Trustees also noted various cost-savings initiatives that had been implemented by the Investment Adviser with respect to the Fund and the other funds in the Highland complex over the years. The Board of Trustees considered the Investment Adviser's financial condition and financial wherewithal. The Board of Trustees also considered the financial condition and operations of the Investment Adviser during the COVID-19 pandemic and noted that there had been no material disruption of the Investment Adviser's services to the Fund and that the Investment Adviser had continued to provide the same level, quality and extent of services to the Fund.

The Board of Trustees also noted that on a regular basis it receives and reviews information from the Fund's Chief Compliance Officer (CCO) regarding the Fund's compliance policies and procedures established pursuant to Rule 38a-1 under the Investment Company Act of 1940. The Board of Trustees also took into account the CCO's ongoing reports concerning the CCO's oversight of the risk assessment processes.

In considering the nature, extent, and quality of the services provided by the Investment Adviser, the Board of Trustees

also took into account its knowledge of the Investment Adviser's management and the quality of the performance of its duties, through discussions and reports during the preceding year and in past years.

The Board of Trustees concluded that the Investment Adviser had the quality and depth of personnel and investment methods essential to performing its duties under the Agreement, and that the nature and the quality of such advisory services supported the approval of the Agreement.

The Investment Adviser's historical performance.

In considering the Fund's performance, the Board of Trustees noted that it reviews at its regularly scheduled meetings information about the Fund's performance results. The Board of Trustees considered the performance of the Fund as described in the quarterly and other reports prepared by management over the course of the year. The Board of Trustees noted that the Investment Adviser reviewed with the Board of Trustees on a quarterly basis detailed information about the Fund's performance results, portfolio composition and investment strategies. The Board of Trustees reviewed the historical performance of the Fund over various time periods and reflected on previous discussions regarding matters bearing on the Investment Adviser's performance at its meetings throughout the year. The Board of Trustees discussed the historical performance of the Fund and considered the relative performance of the Fund and its portfolio management team as compared to that of the Fund's peer group as selected by FUSE, as well as comparable indices. Among other data, the Board of Trustees also received data with respect to the Fund's leverage, discounts and distribution rates as compared to its peer group.

The Board of Trustees also reviewed and considered the FUSE report, which provided a statistical analysis comparing the Fund's investment performance, expenses and fees to those of comparable funds for various periods ended June 30, 2021 and management's discussion of the same, including the effect of current market conditions on the Fund's more-recent performance. The Board of Trustees also received a review of the data contained in the FUSE report from representatives of FUSE. The Board of Trustees noted that while it found the data provided by FUSE, the independent third-party data provider, generally useful, it recognized its limitations, including in particular that the data may vary depending on the end date selected and the results of the performance comparisons may vary depending on the selection of the peer group. The Board of Trustees also took into account management's discussion of the category in which the Fund was placed for comparative purposes, including any differences between the Fund's investment strategy and the strategy of the funds in the Fund's respective category, as well as compared to the peer group selected by FUSE. The Board of Trustees also took into account its discussions with management over the course of the year regarding factors that contributed to the performance of the Fund, including presentations with the Fund's portfolio managers.

Among other data relating specifically to Fund's performance, the Board of Trustees took note of FUSE's explanatory note that the peer group and universe consists of other flexible allocation funds identified by FUSE. The Board of Trustees then considered that Fund outperformed (based on NAV) its benchmark index, the Credit Suisse Hedge Fund USD Index, over the one-, five-, and ten-year period and underperformed the index over the three-year period ended June 30, 2021. The Board of Trustees also considered that Fund outperformed the peer group median over the ten-year period and underperformed over the one-, three-, and five-year periods ended June 30, 2021. The Board of Trustees also took into account the unique mandate of the Fund as compared to the other funds in its peer group. The Board of Trustees also took into account management's discussion of the Fund's performance and actions taken with respect to the Fund, including the Fund's ongoing conversion to a real estate investment trust. The Board of Trustees also took into account potential additional actions proposed to be taken to address the discount with respect to the Fund.

The Board of Trustees concluded that the Fund's overall performance and other relevant factors, including the Investment Adviser's actions to address any underperformance, supported the continuation of the Agreement with respect to the Fund for an additional one-year period.

The costs of the services to be provided by the Investment Adviser and the profits to be realized by the Investment Adviser and its affiliates from the relationship with the Fund.

The Board of Trustees also gave consideration to the fees payable under the Agreement, the expenses the Investment Adviser incur in providing advisory services and the profitability to the Investment Adviser from managing the Fund, including: (1) information regarding the financial condition of the Investment Adviser; (2) information regarding the total fees and payments received by the Investment Adviser for its services and, with respect to the Investment Adviser, whether such fees are appropriate given economies of scale and other considerations; (3) comparative information showing (a) the fees payable under the Agreement versus the investment advisory fees of certain registered investment companies and comparable funds that follow investment strategies similar to those of the Fund and (b) the expense ratios of the Fund versus the expense ratios of certain registered investment companies and comparable funds that follow investment strategies similar to those of the Fund; and (4) information regarding the total fees and payments

Hello Board members,

We are working on full responses to your with 15(c) follow-up questions attached, however we want to keep you updated as it pertains to the continued developments with shared services and your first question on the attached. As it stands today, NexPoint's senior management's plan as a backup/contingency plan is to extend employment offers to the vast majority of HCMLP's employees by 12/31/2020. This will help ensure that there is no disruption in services to the Funds. Once we have further details of this we will advise. In the interim the plan is to continue with existing shared services.

Please feel free to call me with any questions, and we can also set up a separate call to discuss this plan. We will continue to update you as the plan and contingency plans develop over the coming days and weeks.

15(c) Follow-Up Questions

Following up from the 15(c) discussions and materials to date, below are some additional questions from the Independent Trustees:

- 1) Please provide, to the extent practicable, the contingency plans with respect to the services provided under the Shared Services Agreements in the event that the outcome of the HCMLP bankruptcy proceedings were to impact the current servicing structure. For example, has the Advisers considered any outside service providers if necessary?
- 2) Are there any material outstanding amounts currently payable or due in the future (e.g., notes) to HLCMLP by HCMFA or NexPoint Advisors or any other affiliate that provide services to the Funds?
- 3) The Board notes the provision of the updated list of current co-investments provided by HCMFA/NexPoint Advisors and the Advisers' discussion, including the senior-level team in place, to address any potential conflicts of interest matters. With respect to the compliance function, please confirm that the Funds' Chief Compliance Officer overall will continue in his usual role with respect to the Funds. Are there any other potential conflicts outside of the specific co-investment matters identified?

James Seery
c/o Pachulski Stang Ziehl & Jones, LLP
780 Third Avenue, 34th Floor
New York, NY 10017-2024

Dear Mr. Seery:

We are writing in our capacity as counsel to Highland Funds I, Highland Funds II, NexPoint Strategic Opportunities Fund, NexPoint Real Estate Strategies Fund, Highland Income Fund, Highland Global Allocation Fund, and NexPoint Capital, Inc. (together, the “Funds”) at the request of the Boards of Trustees/Directors of the Funds (the “Boards”). The Funds are concerned about the damaging effects that could result from any abrupt termination of the Shared Services Agreements (the “Agreements”) through which Highland Capital Management, L.P. (“HCMLP”) provides personnel, technology, and services to the investment advisers to Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors, L.P. and NexPoint Advisors, L.P., (together, the “Advisers”), and thus indirectly to the Funds. We understand that you have recently provided a majority of the current HCMLP employees with termination notices that will permit their orderly transition to other positions in which they can continue to provide services to the Funds. While we of course hope that this transition of personnel, as well as of the services provided under the Agreements, is a smooth process and do note the ongoing discussions in this regard with HCMLP, we want to emphasize how important it is to the Funds and their shareholders that these services continue uninterrupted. We have also expressed the importance of this result to the Advisers.

It may be helpful to provide some background concerning the Funds’ operations and independence for context. The Funds comprise open-end investment companies (typically referred to as “mutual funds”), closed-end investment companies, an exchange-traded fund (that is, an “ETF”), and a business development company (referred to as a “BDC”). All of the Funds are publicly registered and regulated by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) and by a comprehensive set of securities laws, including the Securities Act of 1933, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Investment Company Act of 1940, and (indirectly through the Advisers) the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as well as various state law provisions (together, the “Securities Laws”). Collectively, the Funds have thousands of shareholders, who range from large institutional investors to numerous small individual shareholders, and collectively have approximately $2.2 billion in assets under management.

As public registered investment companies, the Funds are not controlled by a general partner or other entity, unlike many private funds. Instead, the Funds’ governance is comprehensively regulated under the Investment Company Act of 1940, and the Funds are governed by several Boards of Trustees or Directors. Each Board owes a fiduciary duty to the Funds and to the Funds' shareholders. While the Boards retain the Advisers to advise the Funds, under the Securities Laws, the Boards have an obligation to exercise independent business judgment and to act in the best interests of the Funds and their shareholders. In stark contrast to oversight of many private investment entities, the Boards meet quarterly for routine meetings and typically on a monthly basis (or more frequently) regarding a variety of Fund operations. Indeed, the SEC routinely describes and emphasizes the oversight duties of investment company boards in the Commission's rulemaking efforts.<sup>1</sup> The Boards' members include a number of sophisticated investment professionals, all but one of who are independent of the Advisers and who are advised by their own legal counsel. The Board and independent Board member counsel have reviewed this letter and are copied below.

Typically, advisers to public funds have their own personnel, systems and technology necessary to provide comprehensive investment management services to the funds that they manage. It is not unusual for related advisers to share personnel and services for the sake of efficiencies. However, as you know, HCMLP and the Advisers are now independent. As you also know, the Advisers to the Funds have relied on HCMLP to provide many services to the Advisers through the Agreements. The Agreements permit HCMLP employees, IT facilities, real estate, and other services to be shared with the Advisers. In return, the Advisers pay a monthly fee to HCMLP, which is funded in part by the advisory fees received by the Advisers from the Funds. The Funds and their Boards believe that this arrangement has worked well in the past and want to ensure that the services provided thereby continue uninterrupted once the Agreements are no longer in effect.

As you also know, the Agreements will be terminating as of January 31, 2021. The Funds and the Boards believe that a failure to coordinate the transition of the Agreements or, even more damaging, a sudden cessation of the services provided under the Agreements, could cause serious harm to the Funds and their shareholders. This would occur through the inability of the Advisers to fulfill their contractual duties to the Funds, and could include the following:

- First and foremost, the unavailability of key personnel to conduct the portfolio management and administrative functions (including compliance and daily pricing) required by the Funds.
- The inability to make necessary legal and regulatory filings with the SEC, the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE"), and other regulatory agencies and organizations required of the Funds.
- A breakdown in IT, email, and other communication functions that are critical to the Funds' operations.
- Compromised recordkeeping capabilities as required under the Securities Laws.
- Difficulty in meeting GAAP and audit requirements, including for regulatory filings and for auditor opinion letters.

- Similar impediments to making certifications required under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act (Form N-CSR requirements) and other filings, including principal executive officer and principal financial officer certificates.
- A loss in investor communication/press release functions.
- Finally, and more comprehensively, the Funds and their Boards fear that should a serious decline in advisory functions to the Funds occur, resulting public knowledge could cause a widespread loss of investor confidence, potentially resulting in large scale redemptions from redeemable Funds and share sales causing declines in the trading prices of others of the Funds listed on the NYSE.

The Funds and their Boards very much desire to avoid these harmful effects from an abrupt termination of the Agreements without a transition plan in place and note the work to-date to ensure a smooth process. The Funds and the Board have had extensive discussions with the Advisers to likewise confirm that the Advisers are also pursuing every avenue for a smooth transition. As we similarly requested of the Advisers, we anticipate and expect that you will continue discussions with Advisor and Fund personnel to ensure an orderly transition over the coming weeks. In this regard, we ask that you provide a summary, which can be shared with the Board, of your plans for transitioning the personnel, services, and technology from HCMLP to the Advisers over the next 60 days.

Sincerely,

R. Charles Miller

Shared Services for NXRT, NREF and VB (together the “Companies”)

Because the Companies are externally managed by external advisors (NexPoint Real Estate Advisors, L.P. and its affiliates (the “Advisors”)), the Companies rely on the Advisors to provide certain services to them. The Advisors utilize Highland Capital Management, L.P. (“HCM”) to provide a certain subset of these services under a shared services agreement between HCM and the Advisors. The list of services provided under the contract, as well as a listing of the services actually utilized by the Companies are listed below. NexPoint Real Estate Advisors, L.P. has a large group of professionals that perform many of the services that would otherwise be provided by HCM through the shared services agreement. Many of the services provided by HCM are geared toward providing services to an investment fund. As operating companies, the Companies do not require many of these services. For other services, it is not feasible for those to be provided by a third party and thus are provided by the NREA real estate team (the “RE Team”). The most critical services utilized by the Companies are highlighted below. Although ALL of the services provided by HCM can be replicated by the Advisors and/or the Companies, or can be provided by another party, the services defined as “critical” are those that would need time to be moved to another party or managed by the RE Team. As such, if HCM were to cease providing these services upon short notice, it may create a minor disruption to our normal operations but will not materially impair the Advisors overall ability to provide necessary and critical services to the Companies (See Proposed Solution and Backup Plan below).

It is important to note that the shared services agreements are between HCM and the Advisors, not directly with the Companies. As such, the Companies are not a party to these contracts nor do they pay for the services. The Advisors pay for the services and provides them to the Companies as part of the advisory agreement contracts between the Advisors and the Companies.

Shared Services Available to the Companies

The following services are available to the Companies under the shared services agreements:

Back and middle office: investment research, trade execution, accounting, vendor management, telecom. The Companies use vendor management, IT, telecom,. Investment research, trade execution, and accounting are not utilized. Corporate level accounting is done by the internal teams and property level accounting is down by property managers (BH, VineBrook, etc), which is the vast majority of all accounting (see financial reporting below).

Legal, compliance, risk analysis: legal and litigation support. These are not used by the Companies. They have outside counsel that perform these functions directly to them individually.

Tax: provide tax assistance. The Companies utilize this service to a minimal degree. The more important and substantive tax services are provided by parties other than HCM. The services utilized are non-critical and can easily and quickly be moved to the RE Team or to another party.

Management of clients and accounts: assistance with adhering to policies of the Advisors. This is non-critical and can be performed by the RE Team.

Valuation: HCM group provides valuation assistance. Other than NREF, there is no requirement for any of the Companies to value positions. For NREF, it utilizes internal team and a third party valuation firm.

Execution and documentation: assistance with negotiations of agreements deemed necessary for the Companies to conduct business. The Companies do not utilize these services as they are handled by the internal real estate team.

Marketing: provide marketing support for the Companies. This is not a service the Companies need. Our marketing needs are unique to us (interaction with analysts and investors) and are handled by the internal real estate team.

Reporting: reporting to investors, banks, regulators. The Companies do not utilize these services. Our reporting requirements are unique enough that the internal real estate team provides these.

Administrative Services: provision of office space, IT services, equipment and infrastructure, supplies, etc. Because of Covid, the real estate team is able to work from home until suitable office space is procured. Clearly, the Companies can purchase supplies and so this is a non-critical service. The most critical service provided by HCM is IT services, maintenance, equipment and infrastructure. These services, equipment and infrastructure can be replaced but would cost an estimated $2m to set up from scratch and take several weeks to a month or more to complete. There are other third party solutions that are cheaper and possibly would take less time to set up.

In summary, the biggest risk to the Companies is that HCM could in theory cut the Companies off from emails, cell phones, access to servers and data and company websites. This is not allowed under the contract, but it doesn't mean they won't try to do it. We are preparing for the worst (see below Backup Plan). Even if this were the outcome, we believe the disruption to our business would be minimal as we can move email and websites quickly, get new phone service set up and will continue to have access to our most critical data. Also, outside counsel such as (but not limited to) Winston have most if not all of our contracts, loan agreements, purchase and sale agreements, etc. on their systems. Most of our critical accounting files are held by entities other than HCM.

Current Proposal

Employees of the Advisors are working with HCM to provide a transition of shared services from HCM to the Advisors or third party providers. The most critical of which are the IT services, equipment and infrastructure. The proposal is for the Advisors, in conjunction with other advisors, to purchase IT equipment, servers, and furniture from HCM, to share ongoing costs (rent, licenses, etc.) and to provide services itself or find an alternate provider. Specifically, the Advisors and affiliate advisors would pay a one-time fee of ~ $400,000 and ongoing monthly costs of ~ $270,000. Additionally, HCM may require the Advisors and affiliate advisors to pay previously unpaid fees allegedly owed to HCM totalling $5.5m.

Backup Plan

To date, our perception of the management of HCM is that they can act in an erratic and irrational manner at times. Since their unpredictable, irrational and erratic actions could cause temporary minor disruptions to the Companies and our shareholders, we are pursuing a backup plan if a proposal is not consummated. Specifically, we have captured critical files from the server, are backing up our emails, contacts, and calendars and are copying websites to be moved to alternate URLs.

Legal Remedies

Winston is reviewing potential legal remedies in the event HCM breaches the shared service agreements but denying us access to our data held by HCM or otherwise attempts to cause harm to our shareholders or in anyway use them as leverage in the HCM bankruptcy proceeding by denying the Companies access to information held by HCM.

Letter to HCM

Winston has prepared the attached letter for the board's consideration to be sent to HCM. The letter makes clear that the Companies rely on services provided by HCM and request they allow for a smooth transition of those services to disrupt the operations of the Companies, including a delivery of our information immediately upon termination of the agreements.

Subject: Follow up questions

Dear Jason and Lauren— In connection with next week's update call with the Board, below are some follow up questions that have been raised by the Independent Trustees:

- 1) Please provide an updated organizational chart relating to the Highland complex. Please also indicate those individuals that are dual employees and of which entities, as well as the reporting structure with respect to Highland Capital Management, LP ("HCMLP"), Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors, LP ("HCMFA") and NexPoint Advisors, LP.
- 2) Please provide an update on the results of the January 9th motion hearing.

3) As discussed on the January 3, 2020 Board call, please provide a copy of the press release that was to explain the implications of the January 9, 2020 hearing, including to HCMLP and to the HCMFA- and Nexpoint-advised funds.

4) How does the new management structure impact the decision making process at Highland with respect to business operations?

5) What is the impact of the current status of the bankruptcy and organizational changes at Highland on holdings that are held by both Highland and any of the retail funds complex?

6) The Independent Trustees note that the weekly update report indicates that the repurchases for HFRO, HGLB and NHF are on hold pending the bankruptcy. Please discuss the reason for this.

7) With respect to the weekly update report, Item V., which provides an update on intermediaries and platforms, indicates that there is no change. The Independent Trustees note that on the last update call, it was reported that two firms had requested independent third party reviews. Please list the applicable firms as well as who is doing the third party due diligence. Also, as requested on the call, the Independent Trustees would appreciate receiving a copy of such third party due diligence reports.

8) The Independent Trustees could appreciate receiving an update with respect to operational plans going forward.

Please do not hesitate to call me with any questions or if you would like to discuss any of the above further. Hope you have a nice long weekend!

Best,

Stacy

Highland Capital Management, L.P. (“HCMLP”), Adviser on the Highland Capital Management Platform, Provides Update on Reorganization Process

HCMLP Reports on Reorganization Proceedings, Shares Information on Agreement with Creditors’ Committee and Related Governance Changes

DALLAS, Jan. 16, 2020 – Highland Capital Management, L.P. (“HCMLP”), an investment adviser on the Highland Capital Management investment platform (“Highland”), provided an update today on its Chapter 11 reorganization proceedings in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas (the “Court”).

Background on HCMLP’s Reorganization

On October 16, 2019, HCMLP commenced a voluntary reorganization process, filing a petition for relief under Chapter 11 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code.

HCMLP is a single entity on the Highland platform and, as noted in the original press release announcing the filing, is the only entity that initiated reorganization proceedings. None of the other entities on the platform, including without limitation Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors, L.P. (“HCMFA”), NexPoint Advisors, L.P. (“NexPoint”), and NexPoint Real Estate Advisors, L.P. (“NREA”), have filed for bankruptcy. Charitable giving vehicles and entities supporting community foundations are not subject to the filing.

HCMLP’s filing stems from a potential judgment against the entity related to a financial-crisis-era hedge fund formerly managed by HCMLP that has been in liquidation since 2011. The potential judgment against HCMLP could exceed HCMLP’s liquid assets. While HCMLP has disputed the underlying claims, it initiated the reorganization proceedings to manage this liquidity dynamic.

Through the Court-supervised process, HCMLP seeks to consolidate outstanding litigation, manage liquidity for the purpose of preserving value, and arrive at a reorganization plan in an efficient, orderly manner.

Update on Recent Events in Reorganization Proceedings

On January 9, 2020, the Court approved an agreement between HCMLP and the committee of unsecured creditors (the “Committee”). Prepared by the two parties and submitted to the Court for approval, the agreement instituted certain governance changes at HCMLP and its general partner, Strand Advisors, Inc. (“Strand”). Among the changes was the formation of a new independent board of directors at Strand (the “Independent Board”), which will oversee operations at HCMLP for the remainder of the reorganization process.

HCMLP and the Committee mutually agreed on the individuals appointed to the Independent Board. The three individuals selected have knowledge and professional expertise relevant to HCMLP, with collective experience in the investment management industry, as well as in corporate restructurings and reorganizations. HCMLP believes this oversight will promote efficiency in the reorganization process and facilitate business and investment operations both at HCMLP and across the Highland platform.

In conjunction with the formation of the Independent Board, James Dondero resigned from his officer and director roles at both Strand and HCMLP. Mr. Dondero, however, remains an HCMLP employee. He also maintains his portfolio management roles at HCMLP with respect to all funds and investment vehicles for which he serves as portfolio manager, subject to the supervision and control of the Independent Board.

This agreement is a positive development in HCMLP’s reorganization process. The governance framework promotes continuity in HCMLP’s business and investment activities, while advancing the process toward a plan with the goal of preserving value for all constituents.

Clarification on HCMLP Governance Changes, Impact to Other Entities on Investment Platform

The governance changes at HCMLP and Strand took effect on January 9. Since then, investment and business activities at those entities and across the broader platform have continued without interruption.

The governance changes are limited to HCMLP and Strand, its general partner. The governance structures at other entities on the platform, including without limitation HCMFA, NexPoint, NREA, and all funds and accounts advised by those entities, are unchanged. Mr. Dondero's roles at those entities are unaffected.

As an update, I confirmed with counsel that this agreement will require in person approval and it cannot be made retroactive. Once employee lists and dual hat delineations are provided we can work on the memo and approvals for the June in-person (June 7).

I'll discuss with Thomas and/or Stradley whether this would require in-person approval. Our manager of managers exemptive order permits appointment of sub-advisors without shareholder approval, but I think we would still need to obtain board approval (next in person is June 2018).

Fox- what is the timing?

Do we have a list of accounts for Appendix A with respect to which HCMLP should act as sub-advisor?

Actually, that reference still makes sense in the case that you invoice them re taxes. Clean attached. If signed off I'll dupe for HCMFA.

Could we say that Actual Cost is being determined at the outset of the agreement, have a schedule as of Jan 1, 2018 and say that Actual Cost shall be as set out in that schedule and shall be paid in monthly installments for the term of the agreement...that way the exercise is only performed once.

Beyond that year, termination provisions kick-in, so if there's a belief that Actual Costs have changed materially, either party could terminate and/or renegotiate for an amended agreement.

Lauren,

Does it have to be framed as reimbursement of actual costs? We'd much rather it be characterized as just an agreed upon amount between the two entities. It's not a small task and involves subjective assumptions to allocate individual employees, so as it's written, it would be creating a ton of internal work that isn't adding any value to the overall complex.

Tim,

For purposes of the amounts for the agreements, see below.

These are unchanged from the sheet I dropped off yesterday. Note that NexPoint Advisors (not HCMLP) should be the sub-advisory agreement service provider to NexPoint Real Estate Advisors since the investment professionals that support NexPoint Real Estate Advisors are employed at NexPoint Advisors. All amounts are per month.

Agreement List

Service Provider	Service Recipient	Agreement	Amount per month
HCMLP	NPA	Sub-adv	$ 252,000
HCMLP	NPA	SS	168,000
NPA	NREA	Sub-adv	120,000
HCMLP	NREA	SS	80,000

Is there a way to pare back the language in section 2.03? I highlighted the sections below that I'd prefer to exclude or modify as this looks like we're just creating work that will certainly slip through the cracks.

Additionally, please include the following headers in section 2.02.

Investments. Investment research and recommendations on an ad hoc basis

Trading. Trading desk services, including execution

Shared Employees.

(a) The Staff and Services Provider hereby agrees and consents that each Shared Employee, if any, shall be employed by the Management Company, and the Management Company hereby agrees and consents that each Shared Employee shall be employed by the Staff and Services Provider. The name, location and such other matters as the Parties desire to reflect with respect to each Shared Employee shall be identified on the books and records of each of the Management Company and the Staff and Services Provider, which may be amended in writing from time to time by the Parties to add or remove any Shared Employee to reflect the employment (or lack thereof) of such employee. Except as may otherwise separately be agreed in writing between the applicable Shared Employee and the Management Company and/or the Staff and Services Provider, in each of their discretion, each Shared Employee is an at-will employee and no guaranteed employment or other employment arrangement is agreed or implied by this Agreement with respect to any Shared Employee, and for avoidance of doubt this Agreement shall not amend, limit, constrain or modify in any way the employment arrangements as between any Shared Employee and the Staff and Services Provider or as between any Shared Employee and the Management Company, it being understood that the Management Company may enter into a short-form employment agreement with any Shared Employee memorializing such Shared Employee's status as an employee of the Management Company. If at any time any Shared Employee (or any other person employed by the Staff and Services provider who also provides services to the Management Company) shall be terminated from employment with the Staff and Services Provider or otherwise resigns or is removed from employment with the Staff and Services Provider, then such person may only serve as a separate direct employee of the Management Company upon the approval of the Management Company. To the extent applicable, the Staff and Services Provider shall ensure that the Management Company has sufficient access to the Shared Employees so that the Shared Employees spend adequate time to provide the services required hereunder. The Staff and Services Provider may also employ the services of persons other than the Specified Persons as it deems fit in its sole discretion

Tim,

Can you please update the agreements to pay a flat monthly fee? Mechanically, both advisors receive management fees on the first business day of the month, and since the SS fee is now known for the month, we'd like to pay the SS to HCMLP at the beginning of the month too (not sure if we need to get this specific in the agreements or not).

NREA to HCMLP: $200k/month

NPA to HCMLP: $300k/month

Let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks,

Sean

2018 Review & 2019 Outlook

February 6, 2019

002169

Executive Summary

- 2018 Estimated operating loss of $5 million (consolidated HCMLP + affiliated advisors)
  - Significant reductions in operating costs helped offset the decline in fee revenue
  - Additional investing losses experienced primarily through mark-to-market losses in Select and amongst various portfolio companies
- Real estate expanded with several large investments (Creek Pine, Cityplace, EDS, and SE Multifamily) and closed-end platform added $202 million of capital through the NHF rights offering, whereas institutional and open-end platforms lost assets through net redemptions
- Focus for 2019 will be cash management and growth of permanent capital platform
  - Significant investment capital will be needed throughout the year, with sourcing TBD
- The overall platform will continue to experience operating cash shortfalls in 2019
  - Overall run-rate negative operating cash flow projected at $10 million, which does not account for substantial expected investments/commitments or one-time items
  - 77% of management fee revenue is now generated from permanent capital, providing a solid foundation to build upon

Summary – NexPoint / HCM Fund Advisors / BD

- 2019 Estimated operating income of $15 million
  - Significant growth in the real estate platform
  - Minimal liquid balance sheet
- NexPoint Advisors, LP (“NPA”) will generate substantial operating cash flow through the continued growth of the real estate platform
  - Overall run-rate operating cash flow projected at $17 million, which does not account for expected investments/commitments or one-time items
- Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors, LP (“HCMFA”) revenue will continue to modestly decline as open-end fund outflows are expected to continue. However, the entity continues to operate cash flow positive almost solely due to Highland Income Fund (HFRO).
  - Projecting $2 million of net cash flow for HCMFA
- NexPoint Securities, Inc (the “BD”) now generates substantial revenues through selling non-traded products. However, these revenues do not fully cover the operating expenses of the entity
  - Projecting $4 million of negative cash flow prior to intercompany agreements which then cover the shortfall

New Ventures & Other Wins

- New vehicles
  - Flamingo, Texas MultiFamily, and Polo Glen DSTs
  - NexPoint Hospitality Trust
  - NREF (post year-end)
- Equity raises
  - NHF Rights Offering - $240 million

NEXPOINT

October 16, 2020

Mr. James Seery
Highland Capital Management, L.P.
300 Crescent Court, Suite 700
Dallas, TX 75201

Dear Jim:

We are writing to reiterate the concerns we have expressed about the scope and maintenance of quality of the services currently being provided by Highland Capital Management, L.P. ("HCMLP") to NexPoint Advisors, L.P. ("NexPoint") and Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors, L.P. ("HCMFA," and together with NexPoint, the "Advisors") under their respective shared services agreements (together, the "Shared Services Agreements" or "Agreements"). As you know, the Shared Services Agreements obligate HCMLP to provide a variety of investment, administrative, legal, and back-office services to the Advisors. These responsibilities on the part of HCMLP are critical to the Advisors' ability to provide top-notch advisory services to the mutual funds, closed-end funds, and other investment vehicles (collectively, the "Funds") with which they have advisory contracts.

In particular, the refusal by HCMLP to allow its employees to work on certain matters that jointly affect HCMLP and the Advisors has resulted in the Advisors incurring additional third-party costs and expenses to procure services that should rightfully be performed by HCMLP under the Shared Services Agreements. These third-party services, for which the Advisors are already compensating HCMLP under the Agreements, represent supplemental costs and expenses that the Advisors should not be obligated to pay.

Additionally, it is our understanding that all HCMLP employees will be given notice that their employment will be terminated effective as of December 31, 2020. If these employees are terminated, or are informed that they will be terminated and elect to resign, HCMLP will no longer be able to carry out its duties and obligations under the Agreements. We would thus like to request assurances from HCMLP that if elects to terminate its employees, it will work in good faith with the Advisors to put in place an orderly transition plan. Such a plan would provide for an effective transfer of services to the Advisors, seek to maximize employee retention, and permit the Advisors (or their affiliates) to hire any and all HCMLP employees, which would ensure the delivery of uninterrupted services previously provided by HCMLP under the Agreements.

Finally, we understand that HCMLP is contemplating the sale of certain assets held in several CLOs, the interests in which are also owned by the Advisors and/or the Funds advised by

NexPoint, HCMFA and/or their affiliates. The sale of such assets has the potential to negatively affect the valuation of the Funds. Specifically, a rush to sell these assets at fire sale prices could result in both the Funds and HCMLP not realizing their full value. Accordingly, we hereby request that no CLO assets be sold without prior notice to and prior consent from the Advisors.

We feel certain that our mutually shared goals are to minimize disruption and costs, to prevent the dislocation of services to the Advisors and the Funds, and to maximize returns for Funds and accounts advised by NexPoint, HCMFA, HCMLP, or any of their affiliates. We believe that through working cooperatively we can achieve these goals.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Dustin Norris", with a stylized, cursive script.

To: Dustin Norris <norris.dustin@gmail.com>

Notes to self regarding the conversation noted below. This is all true and accurate based on everything I remember. The overall tone was not friendly, it was adversarial from the beginning as JP dove in with a very adversarial tone and a take it or leave it or lose your business approach, and there was a contentious back and forth throughout.

I had a call with JP, Frank, and Klos today, 1/27 at 4:45pm to discuss the transition of shared services and in particular the new development in our negotiations for an orderly transition of services where they are demanding payment of various amounts from all Jim related entities or they will cease services on 1/29. This was the first time payment of these amounts was mentioned, and after many assurance that they wouldn't pull access to anything, this was sent today.

The call started out with JP saying that these amounts had to be paid and that there was no other option, and that they would like to walk through the spreadsheet with me so that I had a chance to make sure I understood the numbers and that they were correct. This is the first time these amounts had been discussed in ANY of our conversations.

He turned the call over to Klos who then started to walk though the numbers on tab 2. He mentioned that the numbers being requested were the amounts owed under the shared services agreements and expense reimbursement agreements. I stopped him and asked before we proceeded for him to confirm that these were in fact the amounts that we owe under the agreements are for actual services provided. He said they were, and I then requested additional clarification in regards to the amounts owed under the NPA and HCMFA agreements, and he said they were, and i again pushed on the specifics of the agreements , which he had previously acknowledged we are overpaying for reimbursement of employees who no longer work for HCMLP and in regards to the services we receive form HCMLP that we are paying a reimbursement +5%, including legal services for which we have not received any legal or litigation support from HCMLP in months. He acknowledged that the amounts did not include the actual reimbursements in either of those cases but were the same amounts that had been billed each month in the past, so no change to the previous billing. I called them all out on this, that wasn't consistent with the agreements, and they pushed back and then forcefully yelled back that this isn't the time to litigate the agreements. I agreed and just stated that the agreements should be paid as they are stated and again referred to the schedule noted in the shared services agreement, and they got hostile, all of them, and I then ask Frank if he had actually read the agreements. I reminded him that he was the signer on behalf of NPA and HCMFA, but also countersigned for HCMLP. He said had read the agreements, but not since they were first drafted. That would have been about three years ago.

We agreed to not dive into any more of the the specifics of the interpretation of agreements, but they all acknowledged that they all agreed we had been overpaying for the agreements, with Frank emphasizing that they all agree these aren't the proper amounts, they just couldn't change it from what was being paid before. I reminded Frank that the only people paying the amounts each month had been Frank and Dave, that no one else that I know of has the ability to process the payments. Frank said they have known that these amounts were overpayments for over a year and tried to update them, but couldn't due to the automatic stay. I pressed him on this as I was not aware at all of this fact. He said they had discussed with inside and outside counsel and there was nothing they could do now due to the automatic Stay. I let him know I knew nothing about these agreements and the overpayments until DC and myself discovered these a couple months ago as we were looking at the agreements and he said he did know and had actually created the calculation of the overpayment amounts. I reiterated my view that we aren't trying to litigate what is owed, but to actually just have the calculations done appropriately as defined by the agreement, but Frank hadn't even read the agreements since they were first drafted.

I then asked them if they have any backup plans if Jim doesn't pay. Frank asked what I meant, and I clarified and asked if they have any backup plans to provide any services to the funds, and if he as principal financial officer of the funds and CFO of the retail advisors had any plans to provide the needed services. (As an aside, in previous conversation, there was always an assurance given that the services would transition smoothly, and that Seery and Fred had no intention of cutting things off or disrupting our business, including a direct conversation with Fred last week on this, they also in other conversation had assured us that even if there was an interim period, Seery would have no issue allowing people to continue providing services- that was in discussion within the last week). Frank said there is no backup plan, and that Jim has no leverage and just has to pay. JP stepped in and said if payment isn't received by Friday Seery said he will cut off all access to the servers and emails and will shut off all access to the building. He repeated that Jim has no negotiating power here. I asked them again what the backup plan is, if they will just stop performing services on Feb 1 and then just work until their already determined last day on Feb 19 and then collect their severance check?!? Frank reiterated there is no other option now, but he guesses HCMLP employees could quit if Jim would hire them and pay them but we still wouldn't have access to our files, emails, and domains. I pointed to the books and records provisions of the shared services agreement, but JP just said they could just print out the papers and deliver them several days later, or we would have to go to the court to enforce it, and that would be of no use to us and would be too late to keep our business going if we don't have any access to the servers and email, and months later after going to the court things would be ruined (I don't think he used the word ruined, but it was something similar, that the businesses would not be functional any longer)

We then talked again about the amounts, and they stressed that Jim needed to get things paid, and then Frank came back in, and said just for the record, he had been working for a long time on a backup plan, over a year to get Jim to set up another server, so the earlier discussion about him not having a backup plan wasn't accurate, but he said that Jim refused on numerous occasions to set up another server over the past year, and so now we find ourselves in this position, with only one option for Jim, but if he would have listened to Frank and set up another server things could have been transitioned over prior to this termination date. He said that the President of the RIA, Jim, had said no, so there was nothing he could do.

In all of this, it seems this was the plan all along - to wait until the last minute and then cut things off. They say they have been trying for a long time to set up a smooth transfer of services, however they never engaged with anyone other than Jim, and that wasn't even until the transition plan was sent to him on December 31. There were notes in the spreadsheet they sent that day that made it look like it was asking for the retail advisors to pay for the D&O insurance for Seery and the HCMLP Board, and so I was told it was dismissed by Jim and his attorneys. I hadn't seen the plan but Jim had and he said they couldn't believe they would even ask for that. When I finally for the first time so the term sheet for the transition plan, I saw the notes he was referring to, and was able to confirm that they were just placed in the wrong column. We were then able to quickly come to an agreement on the fee splitting, and then just needed to draft an agreement. That was about 10 days ago, and have not even seen a term sheet yet. and I asked almost daily who they wanted to draft the agreement, our side or their side and they did not give a response for many days, which now seems like they intentionally delayed things until the very end, never saying they planned to pull the services, until they actually sent the email today, despite many times saying that wasn't the plan at all.

Those were a point in time estimate as of beginning of 2018. Half the people are gone now and if you were to re-allocate them now, all the percentages would be different. On top of that, we don't have anything comprehensive that is comparable for back office people, so the only thing we can really provide is a stale percentage on a small subset of the overall population.

Would be much more logical to do the yes/no and then as a blanket statement say that NPA/HCMFA pay $x/$y annually to HCMLP for these employees' services and overhead.

Agreed, and I have the expense reimbursement agreements with the allocations, but I am envisioning a chart like this (subject to input from those closer to the matter).

Reimbursement is accomplished through the shared services and expense reimbursement agreements, which I believe have already been provided. There's not a process by which individual employees get billed out.

Brian, Kellie – we have a request from the retail Board related to (i) the contractual employer of each Highland + affiliates employee and (ii) the ultimate payor of such employee (if allocated among different entities). We believe the headcount will be a good start to delineate employing entity, but want to discuss with you before we start editing the headcount report for our uses. We may also need Klos and Kristin to the extent they advise on the Adviser reimbursement agreements for certain employees.

Please let us know when you are available to discuss and we will set up a meeting.

Thanks,

Lauren

NEXPOINT

November 24, 2020

Mr. James Seery
Highland Capital Management, L.P.
300 Crescent Court, Suite 700
Dallas, TX 75201

Dear Jim:

We are writing to follow up on our letter dated October 16, 2020 and to reiterate the concerns we have expressed about the sale of certain assets held in several CLOs, the interests in which are also owned by the NexPoint Advisors, L.P. ("NexPoint") and Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors, L.P. ("HCMFA," and together with NexPoint, the "Advisors") and/or the mutual funds, closed-end funds, and other investment vehicles (collectively, the "Funds") with which they and their affiliates have advisory contracts. As we have previously advised, the sale of such assets has the potential to negatively affect the valuation of the Funds, and a rush to sell these assets at fire-sale prices could result in both the Funds and Highland Capital Management, L.P. ("HCMLP") not realizing their full value. In addition, with recent CLO quarterly payments being made and potential upside for the remaining securities held by the CLOs, sales of these securities at this time could further negatively impact the valuation. We have previously requested that no CLO assets be sold without prior notice to and prior consent from the Advisors. We understand that Charitable DAF HoldCo, Ltd. has made a similar request. Accordingly, we hereby re-urge our request that no CLO assets be sold without prior notice to and prior consent from the Advisors.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Dustin Norris

Dear Counsel:

I am writing to you on behalf of our clients Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors, L.P. ("HCMFA") and NexPoint Advisors, L.P. ("NexPoint", and together with HCMFA, the "Advisors"), and Highland Income Fund, NexPoint Strategic Opportunities Fund, and NexPoint Capital, Inc. (together, the "Funds"). CLO Holdco, Ltd. ("CLO Holdco") whose counsel is copied below, joins in this notice and request.

As you are aware, certain registered investment companies and a business development company managed by either NexPoint or HCMFA own preference shares in many of the CLOs. In the following cases those companies own a majority of such shares<sup>1</sup>:

- Stratford CLO, Ltd. 69.05%
- Grayson CLO, Ltd. 60.47%
- Greenbriar CLO, Ltd. 53.44%

In other cases, such companies in combination with CLO Holdco hold all, a super-majority, or a majority of the preference shares in the following CLOs:

- Liberty CLO, Ltd. 70.43%
- Stratford CLO, Ltd. 69.05%<sup>2</sup>
- Aberdeen Loan Funding, Ltd. 64.58%
- Grayson CLO, Ltd. 61.65%*
- Westchester CLO, Ltd. 58.13%
- Rockwall CDO, Ltd. 55.75%
- Brentwood CLO, Ltd. 55.74%
- Greenbriar CLO, Ltd. 53.44%*

Additionally, such companies own significant minority stakes in the following CLO's:

- Eastland CLO, Ltd. 41.69%
- Red River CLO, Ltd. 33.33%

The ownerships described above represent in many cases the total remaining outstanding interests in such CLOs, because the noteholders have been paid in full. In others, the remaining noteholders represent only a small percentage of remaining interests. Thus, the economic ownership of the registered investment companies, business development company, and CLO Holdco largely represent the investors in the CLOs identified above.

Contractually, the Debtor is obligated to maximize value for the benefit of the preference shareholders. Accordingly, we respectfully request that no further dispositions of CLO interests occur pending the confirmation hearing. While we recognize the Court denied the Advisor and Funds motion on this subject, the Court did not require liquidations occur immediately, and we reserve all rights to and remedies against the Debtor should the Debtor continue to liquidate CLO interests in contravention of this joint request. Given the Advisor, Funds, and CLO Holdco's requests, it is difficult to understand the Debtor's rationale for continued liquidations, or the benefit to the Debtor from pursuing those sales.

As you know, HCMLP's duties are set forth in the portfolio management agreements of the CLOs, which themselves have been adopted under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 ("Advisers Act"). As HCMLP readily admits, it is: (i) terminating employees on January 31, 2021, which will result in a loss of the employees that have traditionally serviced those CLOs; (ii) ignoring the requests of the Advisors, Funds, and CLO Holdco, which together account for all or a majority of interests in certain CLOs, and selling assets of those CLOs prior to plan-confirmation; and (iii) adding a replacement manager as subadvisor prior to January 31, 2021. The Advisors, Funds, and CLO Holdco assert that those actions run in contravention to HCMLP's duty to maximize value for the holders of preference shares and thus what HCMLP has agreed to under the portfolio management agreement, as well as its duties under the Advisers Act, which ultimately will adversely impact the economic owners noted above.

For the forgoing and other reasons, we request that no further CLO transactions occur at least until the issues raised by and addressed in the Debtor's plan are resolved at the confirmation hearing.

Sincerely,

A. Lee Hogewood, III

("NexPoint", and together with HCMFA, the "Advisors"), and Highland Income Fund, NexPoint Strategic Opportunities Fund, and NexPoint Capital, Inc. (together, the "Funds"). CLO Holdco, Ltd. - Stratford CLO, Ltd. 69.05%
- Grayson CLO, Ltd. 60.47%
- Greenbriar CLO, Ltd. 53.44%

In other cases, such companies in combination with CLO Holdco hold, a super-majority, or a majority of the preference shares in the following CLOs:

- Liberty CLO, Ltd. 70.43%
- Stratford CLO, Ltd. 69.05%*<sup>2</sup>
- Aberdeen Loan Funding, Ltd. 64.58%
- Grayson CLO, Ltd. 61.65%*
- Westchester CLO, Ltd. 58.13%
- Rockwall CDO, Ltd. 55.75%
- Brentwood CLO, Ltd. 55.74%
- Greenbriar CLO, Ltd. 53.44%*

Additionally, such companies own significant minority stakes in the following CLO's:

- Eastland CLO, Ltd. 41.69%
- Red River CLO, Ltd. 33.33%

The ownerships described above represent in many cases the total remaining outstanding interests in such CLOs, because the noteholders have been paid in full. In others, the remaining noteholders represent only a small percentage of remaining interests. Thus, the economic ownership of the registered investment companies, business development company, and CLO Holdco largely represent the investors in the CLOs identified above.

In pleadings filed with the Bankruptcy Court, you asserted that one or more of the entities identified above lacked the authority to seek a replacement of the Debtor as fund manager because of the alleged affiliate status of the beneficial owners of such entities. We disagree.

Consequently, in addition to our request of yesterday, where appropriate and consistent with the underlying contractual provisions, one or more of the entities above intend to notify the relevant trustees and/or issuers that the process of removing the Debtor as fund manager should be initiated, subject to and with due deference for the applicable provisions of the United States Bankruptcy Code, including the automatic stay of Section 362. The basis for initiating the process for such removal includes, but is not limited to, the fact that HCMLP's duties, as set forth in the portfolio management agreements of the CLOs, are subject to the requirements of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 ("Advisers Act"). HCMLP appears to be acting contrary to those duties under the agreements and where HCMLP is not fulfilling its duties under the portfolio management agreement it is therefore violating the Advisers Act. Thus, because HCMLP is (i) terminating employees on January 31, 2021, which will result in a loss of the employees that have traditionally serviced, including key investment professionals identified in the transactional documents for those CLOs (generally Mark Okada and Jim Dondero); (ii) ignoring the requests of the Advisors, Funds, and CLO Holdco, which together account for all or a majority of interests in certain CLOs, and selling assets of those CLOs prior to plan confirmation; (iii) adding a replacement manager as subadviser prior to January 31, 2021; and (iv) for other cause, the Advisors, Funds, and CLO Holdco have concluded that they have no choice but to initiate HCMLP's removal as fund manager where such entities are contractually and legally permitted or obligated to do so.

Because the process of removal is being initiated, subject to the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, we respectfully request that no further CLO transactions occur at least until the issues raised by and addressed in the Debtor's plan are resolved at the confirmation hearing. To the extent there are CLO transactions prior to the confirmation, we intend to fully explore the business justification for doing so, as we do not believe there is any rational business reason to liquidate securities prior to that time.

Sincerely,

A. Lee Hogewood, III

Re: Termination of Dondero access to office and services

Dear Counsel:

We are writing to you on behalf of our clients Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors, L.P. (“HCMFA”) and NexPoint Advisors, L.P. (“NexPoint”, and together with HCMFA, the “Advisors”), and Highland Income Fund, NexPoint Strategic Opportunities Fund, NexPoint Capital, Inc. and the other retail funds advised by the Advisors (together, the “Funds”).

We have been provided a copy of your December 23, 2020 letter to Mr. Lynn regarding the termination of Mr. Dondero’s access to the office and services. We are extremely concerned that the loss of such access by Mr. Dondero could have serious effects for our clients and do unintended damage to their interests. In particular, the Funds, many of which are publicly-listed, registered with and regulated by the Securities and Exchange Commission, and have thousands of shareholders, may be economically disadvantaged to the extent that the Debtor’s actions deny Mr. Dondero the access and ability to provide the necessary and contractual services to them.

Mr. Dondero is portfolio manager and/or officer of various entities which occupy space in the premises and have shared access to email accounts, computers and other relevant material pursuant to the terms of various shared services agreements (the “Agreements”), which the Debtor has not rejected and for which such entities pay the Debtor significant fees. We are not aware of any provisions under the Agreements which give the Debtor the power to determine which employees of NexPoint Advisors,

L.P. and other entities may enter the premises or have access to the email and related systems. If there are, please direct us to those provisions. The Debtor has given written notice to the Advisors and the Funds that the Agreements will remain in place until January 31, 2021, at which time they will terminate, and our clients have been and are acting in reliance on those written representations from the Debtor.

Mr. Dondero is the lead (and in some cases the sole) portfolio manager for certain of the Funds. He is intimately involved in the day-to-day operations and investment decisions regarding those Funds and in the operations of the Advisors. We believe that denying Mr. Dondero access to the premises, email and related systems will materially and adversely affect the function and reputation of the Advisors and the Funds. We ask that the Debtor reconsider its position refusing Mr. Dondero necessary access to the email, operating systems and building required to serve the Funds and the Advisors.

Sincerely,

/s R. Charles Miller

PAYROLL REIMBURSEMENT AGREEMENT

THIS PAYROLL REIMBURSEMENT AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") entered into on this 1st day of May, 2018 by and among Highland Capital Management, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership ("HCMLP"), and Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership ("HCMFA"), and any affiliate of HCMFA that becomes a party hereto, is effective as of January 1, 2018 (the "Effective Date"). Each of the signatories hereto is individually a "Party" and collectively the "Parties".

RECITALS

A. During the Term, HCMLP will seek reimbursement from HCMFA for the cost of certain employees who are dual employees of HCMLP and HCMFA and who provide advice to registered investment companies advised by HCMFA under the direction and supervision of HCMFA as more fully described in this Agreement.

AGREEMENT

In consideration of the foregoing recitals and the mutual covenants and conditions contained herein, the Parties agree, intending to be legally bound, as follows:

ARTICLE I
DEFINITIONS

"Actual Cost" means, with respect to any period hereunder, the actual costs and expenses caused by, incurred or otherwise arising from or relating to each Dual Employee, in each case during such period. Absent any changes to employee reimbursement, as set forth in Section 2.02, such costs and expenses are equal to $416,000 per month.

"Affiliate" means a Person that directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with, a specified Person. The term "control" (including, with correlative meanings, the terms "controlled by" and "under common control with") means the possession of the power to direct the management and policies of the referenced Person, whether through ownership interests, by contract or otherwise.

"Agreement" has the meaning set forth in the preamble.

"Allocation Percentage" has the meaning set forth in Section 3.01.

"Dual Employee" has the meaning set forth in Section 2.01.

"Effective Date" has the meaning set forth in the preamble.

"Party" or "Parties" has the meaning set forth in the preamble.

"Person" means an association, a corporation, an individual, a partnership, a limited liability company, a trust or any other entity or organization.

"Tax" or "Taxes" means: (i) all state and local sales, use, value-added, gross receipts, foreign, privilege, utility, infrastructure maintenance, property, federal excise and similar levies, duties and other similar tax-like charges lawfully levied by a duly constituted taxing authority against or upon the Shared

Services and the Shared Assets; and (ii) tax-related surcharges or fees that are related to the Shared Services and the Shared Assets identified and authorized by applicable tariffs.

ARTICLE II EMPLOYEE REIMBURSEMENT

Section 2.01 Employee Reimbursement. During the Term, HCMFA shall reimburse HCMLP for the Actual Cost to HCMLP of certain employees who (i) are dual employees of HCMLP and HCMFA and (ii) provide advice to any investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the “1940 Act”) pursuant to an investment advisory agreement between HCMFA and such investment company (each, a “Fund”) under the direction and supervision of HCMFA (each, a “Dual Employee”).

Section 2.02 Changes to Employee Reimbursement. During the Term, the Parties may agree to modify the terms and conditions of HCMFA’s reimbursement in order to reflect new procedures or processes, including modifying the Allocation Percentage (defined below) applicable to such Dual Employee to reflect the then current fair market value of such Dual Employee’s employment. The Parties will negotiate in good faith the terms of such modification.

ARTICLE III COST ALLOCATION

Section 3.01 Actual Cost Allocation Formula. The Actual Cost of any Dual Employee relating to the investment advisory services provided to a Fund shall be allocated based on the Allocation Percentage. For purposes of this Agreement, “Allocation Percentage” means the Parties’ good faith determination of the percentage of each Dual Employee’s aggregate hours worked during a quarter that were spent on HCMFA matters, as listed on Exhibit A.

ARTICLE IV PAYMENT OF COST AND REVENUE SHARE; TAXES

Section 4.01 Settlement Payments. At any time during the Term, HCMFA may make payment of the amounts that are allocable to it.

Section 4.02 Determination and Payment of Cost. HCMFA shall promptly make payment of the Actual Cost within ten (10) days of the end of each calendar month. Should either Party determine that a change to employee reimbursement is appropriate, as set forth in Section 2.02, the Party requesting the modification shall notify the other Party on or before the last business day of the calendar month.

Section 4.03 Taxes.

(a) HCMFA is responsible for and will pay all Taxes applicable to it, provided, that such payments by HCMFA to HCMLP will be made in the most tax-efficient manner and provided further, that HCMLP will not be subject to any liability for Taxes applicable to the cost of a Dual Employee of HCMFA as a result of such payment by HCMFA. HCMLP will collect such Tax from HCMFA in the same manner it collects such Taxes from other customers in the ordinary course of its business, but in no event prior to the time it invoices HCMFA for costs for which such Taxes are levied. HCMFA may provide HCMLP with a certificate evidencing its exemption from payment of or liability for such Taxes.

(b) HCMFA will reimburse HCMLP for any Taxes collected from HCMLP and refunded to HCMFA. In the event a Tax is assessed against HCMFA that is solely the responsibility of HCMLP and HCMFA desires to protest such assessment, HCMLP will submit to HCMFA a statement of the issues and arguments requesting that HCMFA grant HCMLP the authority to prosecute the protest in HCMFA's name. HCMFA's authorization will not be unreasonably withheld. HCMLP will finance, manage, control and determine the strategy for such protest while keeping HCMFA reasonably informed of the proceedings. However, the authorization will be periodically reviewed by HCMFA to determine any adverse impact on HCMFA, and HCMFA will have the right to reasonably withdraw such authority at any time. Upon notice by HCMFA that it is so withdrawing such authority, HCMLP will expeditiously terminate all proceedings. Any adverse consequences suffered by HCMLP as a result of the withdrawal will be submitted to litigation pursuant to Section 6.14. Any contest for Taxes brought by HCMLP may not result in any lien attaching to any property or rights of HCMFA or otherwise jeopardize HCMFA's interests or rights in any of its property.

(c) The provisions of this Section 4.03 will govern the treatment of all Taxes arising as a result of or in connection with this Agreement notwithstanding any other Article of this Agreement to the contrary.

ARTICLE V TERM AND TERMINATION

Section 5.01 Term. The term of this Agreement will commence as of the Effective Date and will continue in full force and effect until the first anniversary of the Effective Date (the "Term"), unless terminated earlier in accordance with Section 5.02. The Term shall automatically renew for successive one year periods unless sooner terminated under Section 5.02.

Section 5.02 Termination. Either Party may terminate this Agreement, with or without cause, upon at least 60 days advance written notice at any time prior to the expiration of the Term.

ARTICLE VI MISCELLANEOUS

Section 6.01 No Partnership or Joint Venture; Independent Contractor. Nothing contained in this Agreement will constitute or be construed to be or create a partnership or joint venture between or among HCMLP or HCMFA or their respective successors or assigns. The Parties understand and agree that this Agreement does not make any of them an agent or legal representative of the other for any purpose whatsoever. Neither Party is granted, by this Agreement or otherwise, any right or authority to assume or create any obligation or responsibilities, express or implied, on behalf of or in the name of any other Party, or to bind any other Party in any manner whatsoever.

Section 6.02 Amendments; Waivers. Except as expressly provided herein, this Agreement may be amended only by agreement in writing of all Parties. No waiver of any provision nor consent to any exception to the terms of this Agreement or any agreement contemplated hereby will be effective unless in writing and signed by all of the Parties affected and then only to the specific purpose, extent and instance so provided. No failure on the part of any Party to exercise or delay in exercising any right hereunder will be deemed a waiver thereof, nor will any single or partial exercise preclude any further or other exercise of such or any other right.

Section 6.03 Schedules and Exhibits; Integration. Each Schedule and Exhibit delivered pursuant to the terms of this Agreement must be in writing and will constitute a part of this Agreement, although schedules need not be attached to each copy of this Agreement. This Agreement, together with such Schedules and Exhibits constitutes the entire agreement among the Parties pertaining to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings of the Parties in connection therewith.

Section 6.04 Further Assurances. Each Party will take such actions as any other Party may reasonably request or as may be necessary or appropriate to consummate or implement the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or to evidence such events or matters.

Section 6.05 Governing Law. This Agreement and the legal relations between the Parties will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas applicable to contracts made and performed in such State and without regard to conflicts of law doctrines unless certain matters are preempted by federal law.

Section 6.06 Assignment. Except as otherwise provided hereunder, neither this Agreement nor any rights or obligations hereunder are assignable by one Party without the express prior written consent of the other Parties.

Section 6.07 Headings. The descriptive headings of the Articles, Sections and subsections of this Agreement are for convenience only and do not constitute a part of this Agreement.

Section 6.08 Counterparts. This Agreement and any amendment hereto or any other agreement delivered pursuant hereto may be executed in one or more counterparts and by different Parties in separate counterparts. All counterparts will constitute one and the same agreement and will become effective when one or more counterparts have been signed by each Party and delivered to the other Parties.

Section 6.09 Successors and Assigns; No Third Party Beneficiaries. and the Shared Assets identified and authorized by applicable tariffs.

ARTICLE II EMPLOYEE REIMBURSEMENT

Section 2.01 Employee Reimbursement. During the Term, NexPoint shall reimburse HCMLP for the Actual Cost to HCMLP of certain employees who (i) are dual employees of HCMLP and NexPoint and (ii) provide advice to any investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the “1940 Act”) pursuant to an investment advisory agreement between NexPoint and such investment company (each, a “Fund”) under the direction and supervision of NexPoint (each, a “Dual Employee”).

Section 2.02 Changes to Employee Reimbursement. During the Term, the Parties may agree to modify the terms and conditions of NexPoint’s reimbursement in order to reflect new procedures or processes, including modifying the Allocation Percentage (defined below) applicable to such Dual Employee to reflect the then current fair market value of such Dual Employee’s employment. The Parties will negotiate in good faith the terms of such modification.

ARTICLE III COST ALLOCATION

Section 3.01 Actual Cost Allocation Formula. The Actual Cost of any Dual Employee relating to the investment advisory services provided to a Fund shall be allocated based on the Allocation Percentage. For purposes of this Agreement, “Allocation Percentage” means the Parties’ good faith determination of the percentage of each Dual Employee’s aggregate hours worked during a quarter that were spent on NexPoint matters, as listed on Exhibit A.

ARTICLE IV PAYMENT OF COST AND REVENUE SHARE; TAXES

Section 4.01 Settlement Payments. At any time during the Term, NexPoint may make payment of the amounts that are allocable to it.

Section 4.02 Determination and Payment of Cost. NexPoint shall promptly make payment of the Actual Cost within ten (10) days of the end of each calendar month. Should either Party determine that a change to employee reimbursement is appropriate, as set forth in Section 2.02, the Party requesting the modification shall notify the other Party on or before the last business day of the calendar month.

Section 4.03 Taxes.

(a) NexPoint is responsible for and will pay all Taxes applicable to it, provided, that such payments by NexPoint to HCMLP will be made in the most tax-efficient manner and provided further, that HCMLP will not be subject to any liability for Taxes applicable to the cost of a Dual Employee of NexPoint as a result of such payment by NexPoint. HCMLP will collect such Tax from NexPoint in the same manner it collects such Taxes from other customers in the ordinary course of its business, but in no event prior to the time it invoices NexPoint for costs for which such Taxes are levied. NexPoint may provide HCMLP with a certificate evidencing its exemption from payment of or liability for such Taxes.

(b) NexPoint will reimburse HCMLP for any Taxes collected from HCMLP and refunded to NexPoint. In the event a Tax is assessed against NexPoint that is solely the responsibility of HCMLP and HCMLP desires to protest such assessment, HCMLP will submit to NexPoint a statement of the issues and arguments requesting that NexPoint grant HCMLP the authority to prosecute the protest in NexPoint's name. NexPoint's authorization will not be unreasonably withheld. HCMLP will finance, manage, control and determine the strategy for such protest while keeping NexPoint reasonably informed of the proceedings. However, the authorization will be periodically reviewed by NexPoint to determine any adverse impact on NexPoint, and NexPoint will have the right to reasonably withdraw such authority at any time. Upon notice by NexPoint that it is so withdrawing such authority, HCMLP will expeditiously terminate all proceedings. Any adverse consequences suffered by HCMLP as a result of the withdrawal will be submitted to litigation pursuant to Section 6.14. Any contest for Taxes brought by HCMLP may not result in any lien attaching to any property or rights of NexPoint or otherwise jeopardize NexPoint's interests or rights in any of its property.

(c) The provisions of this Section 4.03 will govern the treatment of all Taxes arising as a result of or in connection with this Agreement notwithstanding any other Article of this Agreement to the contrary.

ARTICLE V TERM AND TERMINATION

Section 5.01 Term. The term of this Agreement will commence as of the Effective Date and will continue in full force and effect until the first anniversary of the Effective Date (the "Term"), unless terminated earlier in accordance with Section 5.02. Each Service Provider hereby grants to Recipient a non-exclusive right and license to use the intellectual property and other rights granted or licensed, directly or indirectly, to such Service Provider (the “Shared IP Rights”) pursuant to third party intellectual property Agreements (“Third Party IP Agreements”), provided that the rights granted to Recipient hereunder are subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable Third Party IP Agreement, and that such rights shall terminate, as applicable, upon the expiration or termination of the applicable Third Party IP Agreement. Recipient shall be licensed to use the Shared IP Rights only for so long as it remains an Affiliate of HCMLP. In consideration of the foregoing licenses, Recipient agrees to take such further reasonable actions as a Service Provider deems to be necessary or desirable to comply with its obligations under the Third Party IP Agreements.

Section 3.02 Other Shared Assets. Subject to Section 3.01, each Service Provider hereby grants Recipient the right, license or permission, as applicable, to use and access the benefits under the agreements, contracts and licenses that such Service Provider will purchase, acquire, become a party or beneficiary to or license on behalf of Recipient (the “Future Shared Assets” and collectively with the Shared IP Rights, the “Shared Assets”).

ARTICLE IV COST ALLOCATION

Section 4.01 Actual Cost Allocation Formula. The Actual Cost of any item relating to any Shared Services or Shared Assets shall be allocated based on the Allocation Percentage. For purposes of this Agreement, “Allocation Percentage” means:

- (a) To the extent 100% of such item is demonstrably attributable to HCMFA, 100% of the Actual Cost of such item shall be allocated to HCMFA as agreed by HCMFA;
- (b) To the extent a specific percentage of use of such item can be determined (e.g., 70% for HCMLP and 30% for HCMFA), that specific percentage of the Actual Cost of such item will be allocated to HCMLP or HCMFA, as applicable and as agreed by HCMFA; and
- (c) All other portions of the Actual Cost of any item that cannot be allocated pursuant to clause (a) or (b) above shall be allocated between HCMLP and HCMFA in such proportion as is agreed in good faith between the parties.

Section 4.02 Non-Cash Cost Allocation. The actual, fully burdened cost of any item relating to any Shared Services or Shared Assets that does not result in a direct, out of pocket cash expense may be allocated to HCMLP and HCMFA for financial statement purposes only, as agreed by HCMFA, without any corresponding cash reimbursement required, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, based on the Allocation Percentage principles described in Section 4.01 hereof.

ARTICLE V PAYMENT OF COST AND REVENUE SHARE; TAXES

Section 5.01 Quarterly Statements. Within thirty (30) days following the end of each calendar quarter during the Term (or at such time as may be otherwise agreed by the parties), each Service Provider shall furnish the other Parties hereto with a written statement with respect to the Actual Cost paid by it in respect of Shared Services and Shared Assets provided by it, in each case, during such period, setting forth (i) the cost allocation in accordance with Article IV hereof together with the Applicable Margin on such allocated amounts, and (ii) any amounts paid pursuant to Section 5.02 hereof, together with such other data and information necessary to complete the items described in Section 5.03 hereof (hereinafter referred to as the “Quarterly Report”).

Section 5.02 Settlement Payments. At any time during the Term, any Party may make payment of the amounts that are allocable to such Party together with the Applicable Margin related thereto, regardless of whether an invoice pursuant to Section 5.03 hereof has been issued with respect to such amounts.

Section 5.03 Determination and Payment of Cost and Revenue Share.

(a) Within ten (10) days of the submission of the Quarterly Report described in Section 5.02 hereof (or at such other time as may be agreed by the parties), the Parties shall (i) agree on the cost share of each of the Parties and Applicable Margin as calculated pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement; and (ii) prepare and issue invoices for the cost share and Applicable Margin payments that are payable by any of the Parties.

(b) Within ten (10) days of preparation of the agreement and the issuance of the invoice described in Section 5.03(a) (or at such other time as may be agreed by the parties), the Parties shall promptly make payment of the amounts that are set forth on such cost allocation invoice. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, provision of the Shared Services shall commence from the Effective Date, but no fees shall be payable from Recipient or otherwise accrue with respect to such services provided during the month of December 2011.

Section 5.04 Taxes.

(a) Recipient is responsible for and will pay all Taxes applicable to the Shared Services and the Shared Assets provided to Recipient, provided, that such payments by Recipient to Service Provider will be made in the most tax-efficient manner and provided further, that Service Provider will not be subject to any liability for Taxes applicable to the Shared Services and the Shared Assets as a result of such payment by Recipient. Service Provider will collect such Tax from Recipient in the same manner it collects such Taxes from other customers in the ordinary course of Service Provider's business, but in no event prior to the time it invoices Recipient for the Shared Services and Shared Assets, costs for which such Taxes are levied. Recipient may provide Service Provider with a certificate evidencing its exemption from payment of or liability for such Taxes.

(b) Service Provider will reimburse Recipient for any Taxes collected from Recipient and refunded to Service Provider. In the event a Tax is assessed against Service Provider that is solely the responsibility of Recipient and Recipient desires to protest such assessment, Recipient will submit to Service Provider a statement of the issues and arguments requesting that Service Provider grant Recipient the authority to prosecute the protest in Service Provider's name. Service Provider's authorization will not be unreasonably withheld. Recipient will finance, manage, control and determine the strategy for such protest while keeping Service Provider reasonably informed of the proceedings. However, the authorization will be periodically reviewed by Service Provider to determine any adverse impact on Service Provider, and Service Provider will have the right to reasonably withdraw such authority at any time. Upon notice by Service Provider that it is so withdrawing such authority, Recipient will expeditiously terminate all proceedings. Any adverse consequences suffered by Recipient as a result of the withdrawal will be submitted to arbitration pursuant to Section 9.14. Any contest for Taxes brought by Recipient may not result in any lien attaching to any property or rights of Service Provider or otherwise jeopardize Service Provider's interests or rights in any of its property. Recipient agrees to indemnify Service Provider for all Losses that Service Provider incurs as a result of any such contest by Recipient.

(c) The provisions of this Section 5.04 will govern the treatment of all Taxes arising as a result of or in connection with this Agreement notwithstanding any other Article of this Agreement to the contrary.

ARTICLE VI SERVICE PROVIDER RESPONSIBILITIES

Section 6.01 Service Provider General Obligations. Service Provider will provide the Shared Services and the Shared Assets to Recipient on a non-discriminatory basis and will provide the Shared Services and the Shared Assets in the same manner as if it were providing such services and assets on its own account (the “Service Standards”). Service Provider will conduct its duties hereunder in a lawful manner in compliance with applicable laws, statutes, rules and regulations and in accordance with the Service Standards, including, for avoidance of doubt, laws and regulations relating to privacy of customer information.

Section 6.02 Books and Records; Access to Information. Service Provider will keep and maintain books and records on behalf of Recipient in accordance with past practices and internal control procedures. Recipient will have the right, at any time and from time to time upon reasonable prior notice to Service Provider, to inspect and copy (at its expense) during normal business hours at the offices of Service Provider the books and records relating to the Shared Services and Shared Assets, with respect to Service Provider’s performance of its obligations hereunder. This inspection right will include the ability of Recipient’s financial auditors to review such books and records in the ordinary course of performing standard financial auditing services for Recipient (but subject to Service Provider imposing reasonable access restrictions to Service Provider’s and its Affiliates’ proprietary information and such financial auditors executing appropriate confidentiality agreements reasonably acceptable to Service Provider). Service Provider will promptly respond to any reasonable requests for information or access. For the avoidance of doubt, all books and records kept and maintained by Service Provider on behalf of Recipient shall be the property of Recipient, and Service Provider will surrender promptly to Recipient any of such books or records upon Recipient’s request (provided that Service Provider may retain a copy of such books or records) and shall make all such books and records available for inspection and use by the Securities and Exchange Commission or any person retained by Recipient at all reasonable times. Such records shall be maintained by Service Provider for the periods and in the places required by laws and regulations applicable to Recipient.

Section 6.03 Return of Property and Equipment. Upon expiration or termination of this Agreement, Service Provider will be obligated to return to Recipient, as soon as is reasonably practicable, any equipment or other property or materials of Recipient that is in Service Provider’s control or possession.

ARTICLE VII TERM AND TERMINATION

Section 7.01 Term. The term of this Agreement will commence as of the Effective Date and will continue in full force and effect until the first anniversary of the Effective Date (the “Term”), unless terminated earlier in accordance with Section 9.02. The Term shall automatically renew for successive one year periods unless sooner terminated under Section 7.02.

Any dispute over whether the arbitrator(s) has failed to comply with the foregoing will be resolved by summary judgment in a court of law. In all other respects, the arbitration process will be conducted in accordance with the American Arbitration Association's dispute resolution rules or other mutually agreeable, arbitration service rules. The party initiating arbitration shall pay all arbitration costs and arbitrator's fees, subject to a final arbitration award on who should bear costs and fees. All proceedings shall be conducted in Dallas, Texas, or another mutually agreeable site. (b) Notwithstanding that the Shared Employees, if any, shall be employed by both the Staff and Services Provider and the Management Company, the Parties acknowledge and agree that any and all salary and benefits of each Shared Employee shall be paid exclusively by the Staff and Services Provider and shall not be paid or borne by the Management Company and no additional amounts in connection therewith shall be due from the Management Company to the Staff and Services Provider.

(c) To the extent that a Shared Employee participates in the rendering of services to the Management Company's clients, the Shared Employee shall be subject to the oversight and control of the Management Company and such services shall be provided by the Shared Employee exclusively in his or her capacity as a "supervised person" of, or "person associated with", the Management Company (as such terms are defined in Sections 202(a)(25) and 202(a)(17), respectively, of the Advisers Act).

(d) Each Party may continue to oversee, supervise and manage the services of each Shared Employee in order to (1) ensure compliance with the Party's compliance policies and procedures, (2) ensure compliance with regulations applicable to the Party and (3) protect the interests of the Party and its clients; provided that Staff and Services Provider shall (A) cooperate with the Management Company's supervisory efforts and (B) make periodic reports to the Management Company regarding the adherence of Shared Employees to Applicable Law, including but not limited to the 1940 Act, the Advisers Act and the United States Commodity Exchange Act of 1936, as amended, in performing the services hereunder.

(e) Where a Shared Employee provides services hereunder through both Parties, the Parties shall cooperate to ensure that all such services are performed consistently with Applicable Law and relevant compliance controls and procedures designed to prevent, among other things, breaches in information security or the communication of confidential, proprietary or material non-public information.

(f) The Staff and Services Provider shall ensure that each Shared Employee has any registrations, qualifications and/or licenses necessary to provide the services hereunder.

(g) The Parties will cooperate to ensure that information about the Shared Employees is adequately and appropriately disclosed to clients, investors (and potential investors), investment banks operating as initial purchaser or placement agent with respect to any Client or Account, and regulators, as applicable. To facilitate such disclosure, the Staff and Services Provider agrees to provide, or cause to be provided, to the Management Company such information as is deemed by the Management Company to be necessary or appropriate with respect to the Staff and Services Provider and the Shared Employees (including, but not limited to, biographical information about each Shared Employee).

(h) The Parties shall cooperate to ensure that, when so required, each has adopted a Code of Ethics meeting the requirements of the Advisers Act ("Code of Ethics") that is consistent with applicable law and which is substantially similar to the other Party's Code of Ethics.

(i) The Staff and Services Provider shall make reasonably available for use by the Management Company, including through Shared Employees providing services pursuant to this Agreement, any relevant intellectual property and systems necessary for the provision of the services hereunder.

(i) The Staff and Services Provider shall require that each Shared Employee:

(i) certify that he or she is subject to, and has been provided with, a copy of each Party's Code of Ethics and will make such reports, and seek prior clearance for such actions and activities, as may be required under the Codes of Ethics;

(ii) be subject to the supervision and oversight of each Party's officers and directors, including without limitation its Chief Compliance Officer ("CCO"), which CCO may be the same Person, with respect to the services provided to that Party or its clients;

(iii) provide services hereunder and take actions hereunder only as approved by the Management Company;

(iv) provide any information requested by a Party, as necessary to comply with applicable disclosure or regulatory obligations;

(v) to the extent authorized to transact on behalf of the Management Company or a Client or Account, take reasonable steps to ensure that any such transaction is consistent with any policies and procedures that may be established by the Parties and all Applicable Asset Criteria and Concentrations; and

(vi) act, at all times, in a manner consistent with the fiduciary duties and standard of care owed by the Management Company to its members and direct or indirect investors or to a Client or Account as well as clients of Staff and Services Provider by seeking to ensure that, among other things, information about any investment advisory or trading activity applicable to a particular client or group of clients is not used to benefit the Shared Employee, any Party or any other client or group of clients in contravention of such fiduciary duties or standard of care.

(k) Unless specifically authorized to do so, or appointed as an officer or authorized person of the Management Company with such authority, no Shared Employee may contract on behalf or in the name of the Management Company, acting as principal.

Section 2.04 Applicable Asset Criteria and Concentrations. The Management Company will promptly inform the Staff and Services Provider in writing of any Applicable Asset Criteria and Concentrations to which it agrees from time to time and the Staff and Services Provider shall take such Applicable Asset Criteria and Concentrations into account when providing assistance and advice in accordance with Section 2.02 above and any other assistance or advice provided in accordance with this Agreement.

Section 2.05 Compliance with Management Company Policies and Procedures. The Management Company will from time to time provide the Staff and Services Provider and the Shared Employees, if any, with any policy and procedure documentation which it establishes internally and to which it is bound to adhere in conducting its business pursuant to regulation, contract or otherwise. Subject to any other limitations in this Agreement, the Staff and Services Provider will use reasonable efforts to ensure any services it and the Shared Employees provide pursuant to this Agreement complies with or takes account of such internal policies and procedures.

Section 2.06 Authority. The Staff and Services Provider's scope of assistance and advice hereunder is limited to the services specifically provided for in this Agreement. The Staff and Services Provider shall not assume or be deemed to assume any rights or obligations of the Management Company under any other document or agreement to which the Management Company is a party. Notwithstanding any other express or implied provision to the contrary in this Agreement, the activities of the Staff and Services Provider pursuant to this Agreement shall be subject to the overall policies of the Management Company, as notified to the Staff and Services Provider from time to time. The Staff and Services Provider shall not have any duties or obligations to the Management Company unless those duties and obligations are specifically provided for in this Agreement (or in any amendment, modification or novation hereto or hereof to which the Staff and Services Provider is a party).

Section 2.07 Third Parties.

(a) The Staff and Services Provider may employ third parties, including its affiliates, to render advice, provide assistance and to perform any of its duties under this Agreement; provided that notwithstanding the employment of third parties for any such purpose, the Staff and Services Provider shall not be relieved of any of its obligations or liabilities under this Agreement.

(b) In providing services hereunder, the Staff and Services Provider may rely in good faith upon and will incur no liability for relying upon advice of nationally recognized counsel (which may be counsel for the Management Company, a Client or Account or any Affiliate of the foregoing), accountants or other advisers as the Staff and Services Provider determines, in its sole discretion, is reasonably appropriate in connection with the services provided by the Staff and Services Provider under this Agreement.

Section 2.08 Management Company to Cooperate with the Staff and Services Provider. In furtherance of the Staff and Services Provider's obligations under this Agreement the Management Company shall cooperate with, provide to, and fully inform the Staff and Services Provider of, any and all documents and information the Staff and Services Provider reasonably requires to perform its obligations under this Agreement.

(a) The Staff and Services Provider shall reasonably cooperate with the Management Company in connection with the Management Company's compliance with its policies and procedures relating to oversight of the Staff and Services Provider. Specifically, the Staff and Services Provider agrees that it will provide the Management Company with reasonable access to information relating to the performance of Staff and Services Provider's obligations under this Agreement.

(b) This Agreement is not intended to and shall not constitute an assignment, pledge or transfer of any portfolio management agreement or any part thereof. It is the express intention of the parties hereto that this Agreement and all services performed hereunder comply in all respects with all (a) applicable contractual provisions and restrictions contained in each portfolio management agreement, investment management agreement or similar agreement and each document contemplated thereby; and (b) Applicable Laws (collectively, the "Advisory Restrictions"). If any provision of this Agreement is determined to be in violation of any Advisory Restriction, then the services to be provided under this Agreement shall automatically be limited without action by any person or entity, reduced or modified to the extent necessary and appropriate to be enforceable to the maximum extent permitted by such Advisory Restriction.

Section 5.02 Records: Confidentiality.

The Staff and Services Provider shall maintain or cause to be maintained appropriate books of account and records relating to its services performed hereunder, and such books of account and records shall be accessible for inspection by representatives of the Management Company and its accountants and other agents at any time during normal business hours and upon not less than three (3) Business Days' prior notice; provided that the Staff and Services Provider shall not be obligated to provide access to any non-public information if it in good faith determines that the disclosure of such information would violate any applicable law, regulation or contractual arrangement.

The Staff and Services Provider shall follow its customary procedures to keep confidential any and all information obtained in connection with the services rendered hereunder that is either (a) of a type that would ordinarily be considered proprietary or confidential, such as information concerning the composition of assets, rates of return, credit quality, structure or ownership of securities, or (b) designated as confidential obtained in connection with the services rendered by the Staff and Services Provider hereunder and shall not disclose any such information to non-affiliated third parties, except (i) with the prior written consent of the Management Company, (ii) such information as a rating agency shall reasonably request in connection with its

This authorization to disclose the U.S. tax treatment and tax structure does not permit disclosure of information identifying the Staff and Services Provider, the Clients or Accounts or any other party to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (except to the extent such information is relevant to U.S. tax structure or tax treatment of such transactions).

ARTICLE VI

EXCULPATION AND INDEMNIFICATION

Section 6.01 Standard of Care. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, each Covered Person shall discharge its duties under this Agreement with the care, skill, prudence and diligence under the circumstances then prevailing that a prudent person acting in a like capacity and familiar with such matters would use in the conduct of an enterprise of a like character and with like aims. To the extent not inconsistent with the foregoing, each Covered Person shall follow its customary standards, policies and procedures in performing its duties hereunder. No Covered Person shall deal with the income or assets of the Management Company in such Covered Person's own interest or for its own account. Each Covered Person in its respective sole and absolute discretion may separately engage or invest in any other business ventures, including those that may be in competition with the Management Company, and the Management Company will not have any rights in or to such ventures or the income or profits derived therefrom.

Section 6.02 Exculpation. To the fullest extent permitted by law, no Covered Person will be liable to the Management Company, any Member, or any shareholder, partner or member thereof, for (i) any acts or omissions by such Covered Person arising out of or in connection with the conduct of the business of the Management Company or its General Partner, or any investment made or held by the Management Company or its General Partner, unless it is determined ultimately by a court of competent jurisdiction, in a final nonappealable judgment, to be the result of gross negligence or to constitute fraud or willful misconduct (as interpreted under the laws of the State of Delaware) (each, a “Disabling Conduct”) on the part of such Covered Person, (ii) any act or omission of any Investor, (iii) any mistake, gross negligence, misconduct or bad faith of any employee, broker, administrator or other agent or representative of such Covered Person, provided that such employee, broker, administrator or agent was selected, engaged or retained by or on behalf of such Covered Person with reasonable care, or (iv) any consequential (including loss of profit), indirect, special or punitive damages. To the extent that, at law or in equity, any Covered Person has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Management Company or any Member, no Covered Person acting under this Agreement shall be liable to the Management Company or to any such Member for its good-faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement. The exculpations set forth in this Section 6.02 shall exculpate any Covered Person regardless of such Covered Person’s sole, comparative, joint, concurrent, or subsequent negligence.

To the fullest extent permitted by law, no Covered Person shall have any personal liability to the Management Company or any Member solely by reason of any change in U.S. federal, state or local or foreign income tax laws, or in interpretations thereof, as they apply to the Management Company or the Members, whether the change occurs through legislative, judicial or administrative action.

Any Covered Person in its sole and absolute discretion may consult legal counsel, accountants or other advisers selected by it, and any act or omission taken, or made in good faith by such Person on behalf of the Management Company or in furtherance of the business of the Management Company in good-faith reliance on and in accordance with the advice of such counsel, accountants or other advisers shall be full justification for the act or omission, and to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, no Covered Person shall be liable to the Management Company or any Member in so acting or omitting to act if such counsel, accountants or other advisers were selected, engaged or retained with reasonable care.

Section 6.03 Indemnification by the Management Company. The Management Company shall and hereby does, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, indemnify and hold harmless any Covered Person from and against any and all claims, causes of action (including, but not limited to, strict liability, negligence, statutory violation, regulatory violation, breach of contract, and all other torts and claims arising under common law), demands, liabilities, costs, expenses, damages, losses, suits, proceedings, judgments, assessments, actions and other liabilities, whether judicial, administrative, investigative or otherwise, of whatever nature, known or unknown, liquidated or unliquidated (“Claims”), that may accrue to or be incurred by any Covered Person, or in which any Covered Person may become involved, as a party or otherwise, or with which any Covered Person may be threatened, relating to or arising out of the investment or other activities of the Management Company or its General Partner, or activities undertaken in connection with the Management Company or its General Partner, or otherwise relating to or arising out of this Agreement, including amounts paid in satisfaction of judgments, in compromise or as fines or penalties, and attorneys' fees and expenses incurred in connection with the preparation for or defense or disposition of any investigation, action, suit, arbitration or other proceeding (a "Proceeding"), whether civil or criminal (all of such Claims, amounts and expenses referred to therein are referred to collectively as "Damages"), except to the extent that it shall have been determined ultimately by a court of competent jurisdiction, in a final nonappealable judgment, that such Damages arose primarily from Disabling Conduct of such Covered Person. The termination of any Proceeding by settlement, judgment, order, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that any Damages relating to such settlement, judgment, order, conviction or plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent or otherwise relating to such Proceeding arose primarily from Disabling Conduct of any Covered Persons. Any Covered Person shall be indemnified under the terms of this Section 6.03 regardless of such Covered Person's sole, comparative, joint, concurrent, or subsequent negligence.

Expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by a Covered Person in defense or settlement of any Claim that may be subject to a right of indemnification hereunder shall be advanced by the Management Company prior to the final disposition thereof upon receipt of a written undertaking by or on behalf of the Covered Person to repay the amount advanced to the extent that it shall be determined ultimately by a court of competent jurisdiction that the Covered Person is not entitled to be indemnified hereunder. The right of any Covered Persons to the indemnification provided herein shall be cumulative of, and in addition to, any and all rights to which the Covered Person may otherwise be entitled by contract or as a matter of law or equity and shall be extended to the Covered Person's successors, assigns and legal representatives. Any judgments against the Management Company and/or any Covered Persons in respect of which such Covered Person is entitled to indemnification shall first be satisfied from the assets of the Management Company, including Drawdowns, before such Covered Person is responsible therefor.

Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the provisions of this Section 6.03 shall not be construed so as to provide for the indemnification of any Covered Person for any liability (including liability under Federal securities laws which, under certain circumstances, impose liability even on persons that act in good faith), to the extent (but only to the extent) that such indemnification would be in violation of applicable law, but shall be construed so as to effectuate the provisions of this Section 6.03 to the fullest extent permitted by law.

Section 6.04 Other Sources of Recovery etc. The indemnification rights set forth in Section 6.03 are in addition to, and shall not exclude, limit or otherwise adversely affect, any other indemnification or similar rights to which any Covered Person may be entitled. If and to the extent that other sources of recovery (including proceeds of any applicable policies of insurance or indemnification from any Person in which any of the Clients or Accounts has an investment) are available to any Covered Person, such Covered Person shall use reasonable efforts to obtain recovery from such other sources before the Company shall be required to make any payment in respect of its indemnification obligations hereunder; provided that, if such other recovery is not available without delay, the Covered Person shall be entitled to such payment by the Management Company and the Management Company shall be entitled to reimbursement out of such other recovery when and if obtained.

Section 6.05 Rights of Heirs, Successors and Assigns. The indemnification rights provided by Section 6.03 shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns of each Covered Person.

Section 6.06 Reliance. A Covered Person shall incur no liability to the Management Company or any Member in acting upon any signature or writing reasonably believed by him, her or it to be genuine, and may rely in good faith on a certificate signed by an officer of any Person in order to ascertain any fact with respect to such Person or within such Person's knowledge. Each Covered Person may act directly or through his, her or its agents or attorneys.

ARTICLE VII

TERMINATION

Section 7.01 Termination. Either Party may terminate this Agreement at any time upon at least thirty (30) days' written notice to the other.

ARTICLE VIII

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 8.01 Amendments. This Agreement may not be amended or modified except by an instrument in writing signed by each Party.

Section 8.02 Assignment and Delegation.

(a) Neither Party may assign, pledge, grant or otherwise encumber or transfer all or any part of its rights or responsibilities under this Agreement, in whole or in part, except (i) as provided in clauses (b) and (c) of this Section 8.02, without the prior written consent of the other Party and (ii) in accordance with Applicable Law.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this Section 8.02, the Staff and Services Provider may not assign its rights or responsibilities under this Agreement unless (i) the Management Company consents in writing thereto and (ii) such assignment is made in accordance with Applicable Law.

(c) The Staff and Services Provider may, without satisfying any of the conditions of Section 8.02(a) other than clause (ii) thereof, (1) assign any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement to an Affiliate; provided that such Affiliate (i) has demonstrated ability, whether as an entity or by its principals and employees, to professionally and competently perform duties similar to those imposed upon the Staff and Services Provider pursuant to this Agreement and (ii) has the legal right and capacity to act as Staff and Services Provider under this Agreement, or (2) enter into (or have its parent enter into) any consolidation or amalgamation with, or merger with or into, or transfer of all or substantially all of its assets to, another entity; provided that, at the time of such consolidation, merger, amalgamation or transfer the resulting, surviving or transferee entity assumes all the obligations of the Staff and Services Provider under this Agreement generally (whether by operation of law or by contract) and the other entity is a continuation of the Staff and Services Provider in another corporate or similar form and has substantially the same staff; provided further that the Staff and Services Provider shall deliver ten (10) Business Days' prior notice to the Management Company of any assignment or combination made pursuant to this sentence. Upon the execution and delivery of any such assignment by the assignee, the Staff and Services Provider will be released from further obligations pursuant to this Agreement except to the extent expressly provided herein.

Section 8.03 Non-Recourse; Non-Petition.

(a) The Staff and Services Provider agrees that the payment of all amounts to which it is entitled pursuant to this Agreement shall be payable by the Management Company only to the extent of assets held in the Portfolio.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the liability of the Management Company to the Staff and Services Provider hereunder is limited in recourse to the Portfolio, and if the proceeds of the Portfolio following the liquidation thereof are insufficient to meet the obligations of the Management Company hereunder in full, the Management Company shall have no further liability in respect of any such outstanding obligations, and such obligations and all claims of the Staff and Services Provider or any other Person against the Management Company hereunder shall thereupon extinguish and not thereafter revive. The Staff and Services Provider accepts that the obligations of the Management Company hereunder are the corporate obligations of the Management Company and are not the obligations of any employee, member, officer, director or administrator of the Management Company and no action may be taken against any such Person in relation to the obligations of the Management Company hereunder.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, any Staff and Services Provider agrees not to institute against, or join any other Person in instituting against, the Management Company any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium or liquidation proceedings, or other proceedings under United States federal or state bankruptcy laws, or similar laws until at least one year and one day (or, if longer, the then applicable preference period plus one day) after the payment in full all amounts payable in respect of any Indebtedness incurred to finance any portion of the Portfolio; provided that nothing in this provision shall preclude, or be deemed to stop, the Staff and Services Provider from taking any action prior to the expiration of the aforementioned one year and one day period (or, if longer, the applicable preference period then in effect plus one day) in (i) any case or proceeding voluntarily filed or commenced by the Management Company, or (ii) any involuntary insolvency proceeding filed or commenced against the Management Company by a Person other than the Staff and Services Provider.

(d) The Management Company hereby acknowledges and agrees that the Staff and Services Provider's obligations hereunder shall be solely the corporate obligations of the Staff and Services Provider, and are not the obligations of any employee, member, officer, director or administrator of the Staff and Services Provider and no action may be taken against any such Person in relation to the obligations of the Staff and Services Provider hereunder.

(e) The provisions of this Section 8.03 shall survive termination of this Agreement for any reason whatsoever.

Section 8.04 Governing Law.

(a) This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Texas. The Parties unconditionally and irrevocably consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts located in the State of Texas and waive any objection with respect thereto, for the purpose of any action, suit or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby.

(b) The Parties irrevocably agree for the benefit of each other that the courts of the State of Texas and the United States District Court located in the Northern District of Texas in Dallas are to have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any disputes (whether contractual or non-contractual) which may arise out of or in connection with this Agreement and that accordingly any action arising out of or in connection therewith (together referred to as "Proceedings") may be brought in such courts. The Parties irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction of such courts and waive any objection which they may have now or hereafter to the laying of the venue of any Proceedings in any such court and any claim that any Proceedings have been brought in an inconvenient forum and further irrevocably agree that a judgment in any Proceedings brought in such courts shall be conclusive and binding upon the Parties and may be enforced in the courts of any other jurisdiction.

Section 8.05 WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY KNOWINGLY, VOLUNTARILY AND INTENTIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHTS IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION BASED HEREON, OR ARISING OUT OF, UNDER, OR IN CONNECTION WITH, THIS AGREEMENT. EACH PARTY HERETO ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT IT HAS RECEIVED FULL AND SUFFICIENT CONSIDERATION FOR THIS PROVISION AND THAT THIS PROVISION IS A MATERIAL INDUCEMENT FOR ITS ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT.

Section 8.06 Severability. The provisions of this Agreement are independent of and severable from each other, and no provision shall be affected or rendered invalid or unenforceable by virtue of the fact that for any reason any other or others of them may be invalid or unenforceable in whole or in part. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the Parties shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the Parties.

Section 8.07 No Waiver. The performance of any condition or obligation imposed upon any Party may be waived only upon the written consent of the Parties. Such waiver shall be limited to the terms thereof and shall not constitute a waiver of any other condition or obligation of the other Party. Any failure by any Party to enforce any provision shall not constitute a waiver of that or any other provision or this Agreement.

Section 8.08 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts by facsimile or other written or electronic form of communication, each of which shall be deemed to be an original as against any Party whose signature appears thereon, and all of which shall together constitute one and the same instrument. This Agreement shall become binding when one or more counterparts hereof, individually or taken together, shall bear the signatures of all of the Parties reflected hereon as the signatories.

Section 8.09 Third Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement is for the sole benefit of the Parties hereto and their permitted assigns and nothing herein express or implied shall give or be construed to give to any Person, other than the Parties hereto and such permitted assigns, any legal or equitable rights hereunder. For avoidance of doubt, this Agreement is not for the benefit or and is not enforceable by any Shared Employee, Client or Account or any investor (directly or indirectly) in the Management Company.

Section 8.10 No Partnership or Joint Venture. Nothing set forth in this Agreement shall constitute, or be construed to create, an employment relationship, a partnership or a joint venture between the Parties. Except as expressly provided herein or in any other written agreement between the Parties, no Party has any authority, express or implied, to bind or to incur liabilities on behalf of, or in the name of, any other Party.

Section 8.11 Independent Contractor. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the Staff and Services Provider shall be deemed to be an independent contractor and, except as expressly provided or authorized herein, shall have no authority to act for or represent the Management Company or any Client or Account in which the Management Company acts as portfolio manager or investment manager or in a similar capacity in any manner or otherwise be deemed an agent of the Management Company or any Client or Account in which the Management Company acts as portfolio manager or investment manager or in a similar capacity.

Section 8.12 Written Disclosure Statement. The Management Company acknowledges receipt of Part 2 of the Staff and Services Provider's Form ADV, as required by Rule 204-3 under the Advisers Act, on or before the date of execution of this Agreement.

HIGHLAND’S RESPONSES AND OBJECTIONS TO DEFENDANTS’ REQUESTS FOR ADMISSIONS, INTERROGATORIES, AND REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION

Highland Capital Management, L.P., the reorganized debtor<sup>2</sup> (“Highland” or, as may be temporally required, the “Debtor”) in the above-captioned chapter 11 case (the “Bankruptcy Case”) and plaintiff in the above-captioned adversary proceeding (the “Adversary Proceeding”), hereby responds to Defendant’s Requests for Admissions, Interrogatories, and Requests for Production (the “Requests”)<sup>3</sup> served by Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors, L.P. (“HCMFA”) and NexPoint Advisors, L.P. (“NexPoint” and together with HCMFA, the “Advisors” or “Defendants”) in the Adversary Proceeding (the “Adversary Proceeding”), in connection with the Advisors’ Admin Claim and the Breach of Contract Claim, as those terms are defined in the Stipulation (A) Amending Scheduling Order, and (B) Consolidating and Resolving Certain Matters, approved by the Court on August 5, 2021 [Docket No. 2678]. Highland’s responses and objections to the Requests (the “Responses”) are made pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (“FRCP”) 26, 33, and 34 as made applicable in bankruptcy cases pursuant to Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 7026, 7033, and 7034.

GENERAL OBJECTIONS

Unless otherwise specified, the following general objections and caveats are applicable to each and every Response and are incorporated into each Response as though set forth in full:

<sup>2</sup> On February 22, 2021, the Bankruptcy Court entered the Order (i) Confirming the Fifth Amended Plan of Reorganization (as Modified) and (ii) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 1943] (the “Confirmation Order”) which confirmed the Fifth Amended Plan of Reorganization of Highland Capital Management, L.P., as modified (the “Plan”). The Plan went Effective (as defined in the Plan) on August 11, 2021, and Highland is the Reorganized Debtor (as defined in the Plan) since the Effective Date. See Notice of Occurrence of Effective Date of Confirmed Fifth Amended Plan of Reorganization of Highland Capital Management, L.P. [Docket No. 2700].

1. The Responses contained herein are based upon information presently known and ascertained by the Debtor and Highland reserves the right to amend, supplement, or modify these Responses during depositions or otherwise.

2. Highland objects to the Requests to the extent they seek information or documents that are protected from discovery by the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work product doctrine or any other privilege or immunity. The inadvertent disclosure or production of any document that is protected from discovery by any privilege or immunity shall not constitute a waiver of any such privilege or immunity. All references in these objections and responses to Highland's agreement to produce documents shall be construed to mean non-privileged documents.

3. Highland objects to the Requests to the extent they request information that is not reasonably or readily available to it, in its possession, custody or control, or is more readily available to the Advisors from another source or for which the burden of obtaining such information is not substantially greater for the Advisors than it is for Highland.

4. Highland objects to the Requests to the extent they call for legal conclusions and/or analyses.

5. All specific responses to the Requests are provided without waiver of, and with express reservation of (a) all objections as to competency, relevancy, materiality, and admissibility of the responses and the subject matter thereof as evidence for any purpose in any further proceedings in this matter; (b) all privileges, including the attorney-client privilege and work product doctrine; (c) the right to object to the use of such responses, or the subject matter thereof, on any ground in any further proceeding in this action; and (d) the right to object on any ground at any time to a demand or request for further responses to these or any other discovery requests or other discovery proceedings.

6. Highland objects to the Requests to the extent they seek to expand on or conflict with Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure and/or the Local Rules of the Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas.

7. Highland's agreement to produce documents with respect to a specific Request shall not be construed as a representation that such documents actually exist or are within Plaintiff's possession, custody or control.

8. These General Objections and Responses shall be deemed to be incorporated by reference into the Specific Responses and Objections set forth below.

9. “Transition of Services Negotiations” refers to the failed negotiations between the Debtor and the Advisors relating to the transition of Shared Services that caused the Debtor to bring Mandatory Injunction Motion.

RESPONSES TO REQUESTS FOR ADMISSIONS

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 1:

Admit that NexPoint never waived any rights under the NexPoint SSA in writing.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 1:

Highland objects to Request for Admission No. 1 on the grounds that it is vague and ambiguous and calls for a legal conclusion or legal analysis. Subject to the General Objections and these specific objections, Highland denies Request for Admission No. 1 and refers NexPoint to, among other things: (i) the Advisors’ Letters; (ii) the Advisors’ CLO Motion; (iii) the Mandatory Injunction Proceeding; and (iv) the Transition of Services Negotiations.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 2:

Admit that NexPoint never waived any rights under the NexPoint PRA in writing.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 2:

Highland objects to Request for Admission No. 2 on the grounds that it is vague and ambiguous and calls for a legal conclusion or legal analysis. Subject to the General Objections and these specific objections, Highland denies Request for Admission No. 2 and refers NexPoint to, among other things: (i) the Advisors' Letters; (ii) the Advisors' CLO Motion; (iii) the Mandatory Injunction Proceeding; and (iv) the Transition of Services Negotiations, and notwithstanding that many of the Dual Employees left Highland's employ while Mr. Dondero simultaneously controlled Highland and each of the Advisors.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 3:

Admit that HCMFA never waived any rights under the HCMFA SSA in writing.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 3:

Highland objects to Request for Admission No. 3 on the grounds that it is vague and ambiguous and calls for a legal conclusion or legal analysis. Subject to the General Objections and these specific objections, Highland denies Request for Admission No. 3 and refers HCMFA to, among other things, (i) the Advisors' Letters; (ii) the Advisors' CLO Motion; (iii) the Mandatory Injunction Proceeding; and (iv) the Transition of Services Negotiations.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 4:

Admit that HCMFA never waived any rights under the HCMFA PRA in writing.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 4:

Highland objects to Request for Admission No. 4 on the grounds that it is vague and ambiguous and calls for a legal conclusion or legal analysis. Subject to the General Objections and these specific objections, Highland denies Request for Admission No. 4 and refers HCMFA to, among other things, (i) the Advisors' Letters; (ii) the Advisors' CLO Motion; (iii) the Mandatory Injunction Proceeding; and (iv) the Transition of Services Negotiations, and notwithstanding that many of the Dual Employees left Highland's employ while Mr. Dondero simultaneously controlled Highland and each of the Advisors.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 5:

Admit that the voluntary-payment rule does not apply to breach of contract claims under Texas law.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 5:

Highland objects to Request for Admission No. 5 on the grounds that it is vague and ambiguous and calls for a legal conclusion or legal analysis.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 6:

Admit that, beginning around July 2020, James Seery directed the Debtor to cease providing services to the Advisors under the Agreements.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 6:

Highland denies Request for Admission No. 6 and asserts that James P. Seery, Jr. never directed the Debtor to cease providing services to the Advisors under the Agreements. Rather, consistent with his fiduciary duties to the Debtor's estate, and in response to the Bankruptcy Court's specific concerns regarding issues of conflict, see Order on Motion for Clarification of Ruling [DE #914] and The Joinders Thereto [Bankr. Docket No. 935], in or after August 2020, Mr. Seery reminded the Debtor's employees that they could not take any action on behalf of the Advisors that were adverse to Highland.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 7:

Admit that the Debtor was responsible for making payments due under the Agreements on the Advisors' behalf pursuant to the SSA.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 7:

Highland objects to Request for Admission No. 7 on the grounds that it is vague and ambiguous to the extent it requests that the Debtor admit that it was "responsible" for making payments under the Agreements on the Advisors' behalf pursuant to the SSA. Subject to the General Objections and these specific objections, Highland denies Request for Admission No. 7 because (a) it had no contractual or other duty or obligation to make payments on behalf of the Advisors under the Agreements, and (b) upon information and belief, Mr. Dondero directed the Advisors not to make any payments under the Agreements after the Debtor provided written notice that it was exercising its contractual right to terminate the Agreements, (initially) effective January 31, 2021.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 8:

Admit that, prior to the Petition Date, the Debtor made payments due under the Agreement on the Advisors' behalf.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 8:

Highland admits that Prior to the Petition Date, the Debtor assisted in effectuating one or more payments due under the Agreement on the Advisors' behalf.

OBJECTIONS AND RESPONSES TO INTERROGATORIES*INTERROGATORY NO. 1:

Identify all Dual Employees from the Initiation Date to present by providing each such individual's name, address, telephone number, email address, the date upon which the Debtor contends such individual ceased being a Dual Employee (if applicable), and the date of such individual's termination by the Debtor (if applicable).

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 1:

Highland objects to Interrogatory No. 1 on the grounds that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, not proportional to the needs of the case, and not relevant to the parties' claims or defenses. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1). Subject to the General Objections and these specific objections, Highland identifies the following Dual Employees pursuant to the PRAs, and the date on which each ceased to be employed by the Debtor, noting that such list does not include individuals who were hired or who provided investment services to the Advisors after the PRAs became effective, but who were not included on the PRAs.

INTERROGATORY NO. 2:

Identify and itemize on a day-by-day, employee-by-employee, and Actual-Cost-by-Actual-Cost basis all services, including Shared Services, the Debtor actually provided to the Advisors from the Initiation Date to present.

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 2:

Highland objects to Interrogatory No. 2 on the grounds that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, not proportional to the needs of the case, and not relevant to the parties' claims or defenses. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1).

INTERROGATORY NO. 3:

For each of the individuals listed on Exhibit A to one or both of the PRAs, state the date such individual's employment by the Debtor was terminated.

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 3:

In response to Interrogatory No. 3, Highland refers the Advisors to its Response to Interrogatory No. 1.

INTERROGATORY NO. 4:

Describe in detail the legal and factual basis for the Debtor's argument that the Advisors waived their rights under the Agreements.

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 4:

Highland objects to Interrogatory No. 4 on the grounds that it is subject to ongoing discovery and calls for a legal analysis or legal conclusion. Subject to the General Objections and these specific objections, Highland asserts that (a) the Advisors failed to alleged any breach of the Agreements prior to January 24, 2021, including in connection with: (i) the Advisors' Letters; (ii) the Advisors' CLO Motion; (iii) the Mandatory Injunction Proceeding; and (iv) the Transition of Services, (b) the Advisors made all payments due under the Agreements until Mr. Dondero resigned as employee of Highland, effective October 9, 2020, (c) upon information and belief, Mr. Dondero directed the Advisors not to make any further payments under the Agreements following his resignation, (c) Mr. Dondero and the Advisors knew that many of the Dual Employees under the PRAs ceased to be employed by Debtor prior to the Petition Date, yet the Advisors received all required services under the Agreements and made all payments due thereunder without objection or reservation of rights when Highland and the Advisors were all simultaneously controlled by Mr. Dondero.

INTERROGATORY NO. 5:

In addition to those listed in paragraph 32 of the Objection, describe in detail all other facts and circumstances that the Debtor contends give rise to waiver.

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 5:

In response to Interrogatory No. 5, Highland refers the Advisors to its Response to Interrogatory No. 4.

INTERROGATORY NO. 6:

State the Debtor's position regarding whether or not the automatic stay prohibited any action by the Advisors to terminate the Agreements.

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 6:

Highland objects to Interrogatory No. 6 on the ground that it calls for a legal analysis or legal conclusion. Subject to the General Objections and this specific objection, Highland states that nothing prevented the Advisors from moving to lift the automatic stay to terminate the Agreements or from seeking other judicial relief to protect their rights to the extent the Advisors actually believed that was necessary or appropriate. Indeed, in their December 23, 2020 Letter, the Advisors threatened to initiate the termination of certain CLO management agreements to which they were not even parties, “subject to and with due deference for the applicable provisions of the United States Bankruptcy Code, including the automatic stay of Section 362.”

INTERROGATORY NO. 7:

State the Debtor’s position regarding whether or not any order of the Bankruptcy Court prohibited any action by the Advisors to terminate the Agreements.

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 7:

The Debtor objects to Interrogatory No. 7 on the ground that it calls for a legal analysis or legal conclusion. Subject to the General Objections and this specific objection, Highland states that while the Order Approving Settlement with Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors Regarding Governance of the Debtor and Procedures for Operations in the Ordinary Course [Bankr. Docket No. # 339] (the “January 2020 Order”) directed James Dondero not “to cause any Related Entity to terminate any Agreements with the Debtor,” the January 2020 Order did not prevent the Advisors from seeking judicial relief to protect its rights, including, for example, (a) moving to compel compliance with the Agreements in the face of an actual breach, or (b) seeking to lift the automatic stay to terminate the Agreements due to an actual, material breach. In other words, by its terms, the January 2020 Order did nothing but prevent Mr. Dondero from causing a Related Entity to unilaterally terminate the Agreements (as Mr. Dondero did with certain Acis-related contracts).

INTERROGATORY NO. 8:

State the Debtor's position regarding whether or not the automatic stay prohibited any action by the Advisors to withhold payments under the Agreements.

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 8:

The Debtor objects to Interrogatory No. 8 on the ground that it calls for a legal analysis or legal conclusion. Subject to the General Objections and this specific objection, Highland incorporates by reference its Responses to Interrogatory Nos. 6 and 7 and otherwise avers that the Advisors had the same rights to seek judicial relief as any counterparty to a contract with a debtor in bankruptcy who allegedly is in breach.

INTERROGATORY NO. 9:

State the Debtor's position regarding whether or not any order of the Bankruptcy Court prohibited any action by the Advisors to withhold payments under the Agreements.

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 9:

The Debtor objects to Interrogatory No. 9 on the ground that it calls for a legal analysis or legal conclusion. Subject to the General Objections and this specific objection, Highland incorporates by reference its Response to Interrogatory No.8.

INTERROGATORY NO. 10:

Identify and describe in detail all of the Advisors' conduct that the Debtor claims was unequivocally inconsistent with enforcing the nonwaiver provisions in the Agreements.

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 10:

The Debtor objects to Interrogatory No. 10 on the ground that the phrase "unequivocally inconsistent" is vague and ambiguous and it is otherwise overly broad, unduly burdensome, and not proportional to the needs of the case. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1).

INTERROGATORY NO. 11:

For each invoice/bill transmitted by the Debtor or calculated by the Debtor for any given monthly, quarterly, or annual period stating how much the Debtor believed was owed under each of the Agreements, break down and state the identity of each employee the subject thereof, whether such employee was a Dual Employee, the amount payable to or on account of such employee, how much the Debtor paid such employee (gross and net amounts) for such period, and whether such employee was actually employed by the Debtor for the whole of such period.

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 11:

Highland objects to Interrogatory No. 11 on the grounds that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, not proportional to the needs of the case, and not relevant to the parties' claims or defenses. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1).

INTERROGATORY NO. 12:

For each invoice/bill transmitted by the Debtor or calculated by the Debtor for any given monthly, quarterly, or annual period stating how much the Debtor believed was owed under each of the Agreements, identify each individual involved in making such calculations, and specify the individual in charge.

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 12:

In response to Interrogatory No. 12, Highland states that, from the Petition Date through the termination of the Agreements, Hayley Eliason was involved in making the calculations related to the Agreements. Kristin Hendrix oversaw Hayley's work, Frank Waterhouse was in charge through the reporting lines, and David Klos was in between Kristin and Frank in the chain of command through end of March 2020.

INTERROGATORY NO. 13:

From three years before the Petition Date to present, describe in detail how (i.e. the practical mechanism by which) payments due under the Agreements were made to the Debtor by the Advisors. For example, did Debtor employees make such payments on the Advisors' behalf under the SSAs from Advisor funds? If so, what was the nature of such employee's authority? Were invoices/bills sent to the Advisors? If so, did each payment require the Advisors' express consent, whether written or verbal, and which individuals were involved in the process? These questions should not be construed as limiting the scope of the response but instead as exemplifying the minimum detail expected.

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 13:

The Debtor objects to Interrogatory No. 13 on the ground that it is vague, overly broad, unduly burdensome, not relevant to the parties' claims or defenses, and not proportional to the needs of the case. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1).

INTERROGATORY NO. 14:

For each payment the Advisors made to the Debtor under the Agreements from the Initiation Date to present, state and identify the applicable Agreement, the amount of each payment, when such payment was made, and how such payment was made (wire, check, etc.).

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 14:

In response to Interrogatory No. 14, Highland refers to Exhibit A, attached hereto.

INTERROGATORY NO. 15:

For each Request for Admission above that the Debtor did not unequivocally admit, describe in detail the legal and factual bases for not doing so.

RESPONSE TO INTERROGATORY NO. 15:

In response to Interrogatory No. 15, Highland incorporates its Responses above. Highland reserves all rights to supplement its Responses in light of ongoing discovery.

SPECIFIC OBJECTIONS AND RESPONSES TO DOCUMENT REQUESTS

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION NO. 1:

Tim,

For purposes of the amounts for the agreements, see below.

These are unchanged from the sheet I dropped off yesterday. Note that NexPoint Advisors (not HCMLP) should be the sub-advisory agreement service provider to NexPoint Real Estate Advisors since the investment professionals that support NexPoint Real Estate Advisors are employed at NexPoint Advisors. All amounts are per month.

Agreement List

Service Provider	Service Recipient	Agreement	Amount per month
HCMLP	NPA	Sub-adv	$ 252,000
HCMLP	NPA	SS	168,000
NPA	NREA	Sub-adv	120,000
HCMLP	NREA	SS	80,000

These apply to both docs, but otherwise, I'm good.

Is there a way to pare back the language in section 2.03? I highlighted the sections below that I'd prefer to exclude or modify as this looks like we're just creating work that will certainly slip through the cracks.

Additionally, please include the following headers in section 2.02.

Investments. Investment research and recommendations on an ad hoc basis

Trading. Trading desk services, including execution

Shared Employees.

(a) The Staff and Services Provider hereby agrees and consents that each Shared Employee, if any, shall be employed by the Management Company, and the Management Company hereby agrees and consents that each Shared Employee shall be employed by the Staff and Services Provider. The name, location and such other matters as the Parties desire to reflect with respect to each Shared Employee shall be identified on the books and records of each of the Management Company and the Staff and Services Provider, which may be amended in writing from time to time by the Parties to add or remove any Shared Employee to reflect the employment (or lack thereof) of such employee. Except as may otherwise separately be agreed in writing between the applicable Shared Employee and the Management Company and/or the Staff and Services Provider, in each of their discretion, each Shared Employee is an at-will employee and no guaranteed employment or other employment arrangement is agreed or implied by this Agreement with respect to any Shared Employee, and for avoidance of doubt this Agreement shall not amend, limit, constrain or modify in any way the employment arrangements as between any Shared Employee and the Staff and Services Provider or as between any Shared Employee and the Management Company, it being understood that the Management Company may enter into a short-form employment agreement with any Shared Employee memorializing such Shared Employee's status as an employee of the Management Company. If at any time any Shared Employee (or any other person employed by the Staff and Services provider who also provides services to the Management Company) shall be terminated from employment with the Staff and Services Provider or otherwise resigns or is removed from employment with the Staff and Services Provider, then such person may only serve as a separate direct employee of the Management Company upon the approval of the Management Company. To the extent applicable, the Staff and Services Provider shall ensure that the Management Company has sufficient access to the Shared Employees so that the Shared Employees spend adequate time to provide the services required hereunder. The Staff and Services Provider may also employ the services of persons other than the Specified Persons as it deems fit in its sole discretion

Subject: NREA / NPA SS Agreement Amendments

Tim,

Can you please update the agreements to pay a flat monthly fee? Mechanically, both advisors receive management fees on the first business day of the month, and since the SS fee is now known for the month, we'd like to pay the SS to HCMLP at the beginning of the month too (not sure if we need to get this specific in the agreements or not).

NREA to HCMLP: $200k/month

NPA to HCMLP: $300k/month

Let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks,

Sean

EXCULPATION AND INDEMNIFICATION

Section 6.01. Standard of Care. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, each Covered Person shall discharge its duties under this Agreement with the care, skill, prudence and diligence under the circumstances then prevailing that a prudent person acting in a like capacity and familiar with such matters would use in the conduct of an enterprise of a like character and with like aims. To the extent not inconsistent with the foregoing, each Covered Person shall follow its customary standards, policies and procedures in performing its duties hereunder. No Covered Person shall deal with the income or assets of the Management Company in such Covered Person's own interest or for its own account. Each Covered Person in its respective sole and absolute discretion may separately engage or invest in any other business ventures, including those that may be in competition with the Management Company, and the Management Company will not have any rights in or to such ventures or the income or profits derived therefrom.

Section 6.02 Exculpation. To the fullest extent permitted by law, no Covered Person will be liable to the Management Company, any Member, or any shareholder, partner or member thereof, for (i) any acts or omissions by such Covered Person arising out of or in connection with the conduct of the business of the Management Company or its General Partner, or any investment made or held by the Management Company or its General Partner, unless it is determined ultimately by a court of competent jurisdiction, in a final nonappealable judgment, to be the result of gross negligence or to constitute fraud or willful misconduct (as interpreted under the laws of the State of Delaware) (each, a “Disabling Conduct”) on the part of such Covered Person, (ii) any act or omission of any Investor, (iii) any mistake, gross negligence, misconduct or bad faith of any employee, broker, administrator or other agent or representative of such Covered Person, provided that such employee, broker, administrator or agent was selected, engaged or retained by or on behalf of such Covered Person with reasonable care, or (iv) any consequential (including loss of profit), indirect, special or punitive damages. To the extent that, at law or in equity, any Covered Person has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Management Company or any Member, no Covered Person acting under this Agreement shall be liable to the Management Company or to any such Member for its good-faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement. The exculpations set forth in this Section 6.02 shall exculpate any Covered Person regardless of such Covered Person’s sole, comparative, joint, concurrent, or subsequent negligence.

To the fullest extent permitted by law, no Covered Person shall have any personal liability to the Management Company or any Member solely by reason of any change in U.S. federal, state or local or foreign income tax laws, or in interpretations thereof, as they apply to the Management Company or the Members, whether the change occurs through legislative, judicial or administrative action.

Any Covered Person in its sole and absolute discretion may consult legal counsel, accountants or other advisers selected by it, and any act or omission taken, or made in good faith by such Person on behalf of the Management Company or in furtherance of the business of the Management Company in good-faith reliance on and in accordance with the advice of such counsel, accountants or other advisers shall be full justification for the act or omission, and to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, no Covered Person shall be liable to the Management Company or any Member in so acting or omitting to act if such counsel, accountants or other advisers were selected, engaged or retained with reasonable care.

Section 6.03 Indemnification by the Management Company. The Management Company shall and hereby does, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, indemnify and hold harmless any Covered Person from and against any and all claims, causes of action (including, but not limited to, strict liability, negligence, statutory violation, regulatory violation, breach of contract, and all other torts and claims arising under common law), demands, liabilities, costs, expenses, damages, losses, suits, proceedings, judgments, assessments, actions and other liabilities, whether judicial, administrative, investigative or otherwise, of whatever nature, known or unknown, liquidated or unliquidated (“Claims”), that may accrue to or be incurred by any Covered Person, or in which any Covered Person may become involved, as a party or otherwise, or with which any Covered Person may be threatened, relating to or arising out of the investment or other activities of the Management Company or its General Partner, or activities undertaken in connection with the Management Company or its General Partner, or otherwise relating to or arising out of this Agreement, including amounts paid in satisfaction of judgments, in compromise or as fines or penalties, and attorneys' fees and expenses incurred in connection with the preparation for or defense or disposition of any investigation, action, suit, arbitration or other proceeding (a "Proceeding"), whether civil or criminal (all of such Claims, amounts and expenses referred to therein are referred to collectively as "Damages"), except to the extent that it shall have been determined ultimately by a court of competent jurisdiction, in a final nonappealable judgment, that such Damages arose primarily from Disabling Conduct of such Covered Person. The termination of any Proceeding by settlement, judgment, order, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that any Damages relating to such settlement, judgment, order, conviction or plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent or otherwise relating to such Proceeding arose primarily from Disabling Conduct of any Covered Persons. Any Covered Person shall be indemnified under the terms of this Section 6.03 regardless of such Covered Person's sole, comparative, joint, concurrent, or subsequent negligence.

Expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by a Covered Person in defense or settlement of any Claim that may be subject to a right of indemnification hereunder shall be advanced by the Management Company prior to the final disposition thereof upon receipt of a written undertaking by or on behalf of the Covered Person to repay the amount advanced to the extent that it shall be determined ultimately by a court of competent jurisdiction that the Covered Person is not entitled to be indemnified hereunder. The right of any Covered Persons to the indemnification provided herein shall be cumulative of, and in addition to, any and all rights to which the Covered Person may otherwise be entitled by contract or as a matter of law or equity and shall be extended to the Covered Person's successors, assigns and legal representatives. Any judgments against the Management Company and/or any Covered Persons in respect of which such Covered Person is entitled to indemnification shall first be satisfied from the assets of the Management Company, including Drawdowns, before such Covered Person is responsible therefor.

Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the provisions of this Section 6.03 shall not be construed so as to provide for the indemnification of any Covered Person for any liability (including liability under Federal securities laws which, under certain circumstances, impose liability even on persons that act in good faith), to the extent (but only to the extent) that such indemnification would be in violation of applicable law, but shall be construed so as to effectuate the provisions of this Section 6.03 to the fullest extent permitted by law.

Section 6.04 Other Sources of Recovery etc. The indemnification rights set forth in Section 6.03 are in addition to, and shall not exclude, limit or otherwise adversely affect, any other indemnification or similar rights to which any Covered Person may be entitled. If and to the extent that other sources of recovery (including proceeds of any applicable policies of insurance or indemnification from any Person in which any of the Clients or Accounts has an investment) are available to any Covered Person, such Covered Person shall use reasonable efforts to obtain recovery from such other sources before the Company shall be required to make any payment in respect of its indemnification obligations hereunder; provided that, if such other recovery is not available without delay, the Covered Person shall be entitled to such payment by the Management Company and the Management Company shall be entitled to reimbursement out of such other recovery when and if obtained.

Section 6.05 Rights of Heirs, Successors and Assigns. The indemnification rights provided by Section 6.03 shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns of each Covered Person.

Section 6.06 Reliance. A Covered Person shall incur no liability to the Management Company or any Member in acting upon any signature or writing reasonably believed by him, her or it to be genuine, and may rely in good faith on a certificate signed by an officer of any Person in order to ascertain any fact with respect to such Person or within such Person's knowledge. Each Covered Person may act directly or through his, her or its agents or attorneys.

The Staff and Services Provider accepts that the obligations of the Management Company hereunder are the corporate obligations of the Management Company and are not the obligations of any employee, member, officer, director or administrator of the Management Company and no action may be taken against any such Person in relation to the obligations of the Management Company hereunder.

(b) The Parties irrevocably agree for the benefit of each other that the courts of the State of Texas and the United States District Court located in the Northern District of Texas in Dallas are to have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any disputes (whether contractual or non-contractual) which may arise out of or in connection with this Agreement and that accordingly any action arising out of or in connection therewith (together referred to as "Proceedings") may be brought in such courts. Section 8.08 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts by facsimile or other written or electronic form of communication, each of which shall be deemed to be an original as against any Party whose signature appears thereon, and all of which shall together constitute one and the same instrument. (a) The Staff and Services Provider hereby agrees and consents that each Shared Employee, if any, shall be employed by the Management Company, and the Management Company hereby agrees and consents that each Shared Employee shall be employed by the Staff and Services Provider. Except as may otherwise separately be agreed in writing between the applicable Shared Employee and the Management Company and/or the Staff and Services Provider, in each of their discretion, each Shared Employee is an at-will employee and no guaranteed employment or other employment arrangement is agreed or implied by this Agreement with respect to any Shared Employee, and for avoidance of doubt this Agreement shall not amend, limit, constrain or modify in any way the employment arrangements as between any Shared Employee and the Staff and Services Provider or as between any Shared Employee and the Management Company, it being understood that the Management Company may enter into a short-form employment agreement with any Shared Employee memorializing such Shared Employee's status as an employee of the Management Company. To the extent applicable, the Staff and Services Provider shall ensure that the Management Company has sufficient access to the Shared Employees so that the Shared Employees spend adequate time to provide the services required

hereunder. The Staff and Services Provider may also employ the services of persons other than the Specified Persons as it deems fit in its sole discretion

(b) Notwithstanding that the Shared Employees, if any, shall be employed by both the Staff and Services Provider and the Management Company, the Parties acknowledge and agree that any and all salary and benefits of each Shared Employee shall be paid exclusively by the Staff and Services Provider and shall not be paid or borne by the Management Company and no additional amounts in connection therewith shall be due from the Management Company to the Staff and Services Provider.

(c) To the extent that a Shared Employee participates in the rendering of services to the Management Company's clients, the Shared Employee shall be subject to the oversight and control of the Management Company and such services shall be provided by the Shared Employee exclusively in his or her capacity as a "supervised person" of, or "person associated with", the Management Company (as such terms are defined in Sections 202(a)(25) and 202(a)(17), respectively, of the Advisers Act).

(d) Each Party may continue to oversee, supervise and manage the services of each Shared Employee in order to (1) ensure compliance with the Party's compliance policies and procedures, (2) ensure compliance with regulations applicable to the Party and (3) protect the interests of the Party and its clients; provided that Staff and Services Provider shall (A) cooperate with the Management Company's supervisory efforts and (B) make periodic reports to the Management Company regarding the adherence of Shared Employees to Applicable Law, including but not limited to the 1940 Act, the Advisers Act and the United States Commodity Exchange Act of 1936, as amended, in performing the services hereunder.

(e) Where a Shared Employee provides services hereunder through both Parties, the Parties shall cooperate to ensure that all such services are performed consistently with Applicable Law and relevant compliance controls and procedures designed to prevent, among other things, breaches in information security or the communication of confidential, proprietary or material non-public information.

(f) The Staff and Services Provider shall ensure that each Shared Employee has any registrations, qualifications and/or licenses necessary to provide the services hereunder.

(g) The Parties will cooperate to ensure that information about the Shared Employees is adequately and appropriately disclosed to clients, investors (and potential investors), investment banks operating as initial purchaser or placement agent with respect to any Client or Account, and regulators, as applicable. To facilitate such disclosure, the Staff and Services Provider agrees to provide, or cause to be provided, to the Management Company such information as is deemed by the Management Company to be necessary or appropriate with respect to the Staff and Services Provider and the Shared Employees (including, but not limited to, biographical information about each Shared Employee).

(h) The Parties shall cooperate to ensure that, when so required, each has adopted a Code of Ethics meeting the requirements of the Advisers Act ("Code of Ethics") that is consistent with applicable law and which is substantially similar to the other Party's Code of Ethics.

(i) The Staff and Services Provider shall make reasonably available for use by the Management Company, including through Shared Employees providing services pursuant to this Agreement, any relevant intellectual property and systems necessary for the provision of the services hereunder.

(j) The Staff and Services Provider shall require that each Shared Employee:

(i) certify that he or she is subject to, and has been provided with, a copy of each Party's Code of Ethics and will make such reports, and seek prior clearance for such actions and activities, as may be required under the Codes of Ethics;

(ii) be subject to the supervision and oversight of each Party's officers and directors, including without limitation its Chief Compliance Officer ("CCO"), which CCO may be the same Person, with respect to the services provided to that Party or its clients;

(iii) provide services hereunder and take actions hereunder only as approved by the Management Company;

(iv) provide any information requested by a Party, as necessary to comply with applicable disclosure or regulatory obligations;

(v) to the extent authorized to transact on behalf of the Management Company or a Client or Account, take reasonable steps to ensure that any such transaction is consistent with any policies and procedures that may be established by the Parties and all Applicable Asset Criteria and Concentrations; and

(vi) act, at all times, in a manner consistent with the fiduciary duties and standard of care owed by the Management Company to its members and direct or indirect investors or to a Client or Account as well as clients of Staff and Services Provider by seeking to ensure that, among other things, information about any investment advisory or trading activity applicable to a particular client or group of clients is not used to benefit the Shared Employee, any Party or any other client or group of clients in contravention of such fiduciary duties or standard of care.

(k) Unless specifically authorized to do so, or appointed as an officer or authorized person of the Management Company with such authority, no Shared Employee may contract on behalf or in the name of the Management Company, acting as principal.

Section 2.04 Applicable Asset Criteria and Concentrations. The Management Company will promptly inform the Staff and Services Provider in writing of any Applicable Asset Criteria and Concentrations to which it agrees from time to time and the Staff and Services Provider shall take such Applicable Asset Criteria and Concentrations into account when providing assistance and advice in accordance with Section 2.02 above and any other assistance or advice provided in accordance with this Agreement.

Section 2.05 Compliance with Management Company Policies and Procedures. The Management Company will from time to time provide the Staff and Services Provider and the Shared Employees, if any, with any policy and procedure documentation which it establishes internally and to which it is bound to adhere in conducting its business pursuant to regulation, contract or otherwise. Subject to any other limitations in this Agreement, the Staff and Services Provider will use reasonable efforts to ensure any services it and the Shared Employees provide pursuant to this Agreement complies with or takes account of such internal policies and procedures.

Section 2.06 Authority. The Staff and Services Provider's scope of assistance and advice hereunder is limited to the services specifically provided for in this Agreement. The Staff and Services Provider shall not assume or be deemed to assume any rights or obligations of the Management Company under any other document or agreement to which the Management Company is a party. Notwithstanding any other express or implied provision to the contrary in this Agreement, the activities of the Staff and Services Provider pursuant to this Agreement shall be subject to the overall policies of the Management Company, as notified to the Staff and Services Provider from time to time. The Staff and Services Provider shall not have any duties or obligations to the Management Company unless those duties and obligations are specifically provided for in this Agreement (or in any amendment, modification or novation hereto or hereof to which the Staff and Services Provider is a party).

(a) The Staff and Services Provider may employ third parties, including its affiliates, to render advice, provide assistance and to perform any of its duties under this Agreement; provided that notwithstanding the employment of third parties for any such purpose, the Staff and Services Provider shall not be relieved of any of its obligations or liabilities under this Agreement.

(b) In providing services hereunder, the Staff and Services Provider may rely in good faith upon and will incur no liability for relying upon advice of nationally recognized counsel (which may be counsel for the Management Company, a Client or Account or any Affiliate of the foregoing), accountants or other advisers as the Staff and Services Provider determines, in its sole discretion, is reasonably appropriate in connection with the services provided by the Staff and Services Provider under this Agreement.

Section 2.08 Management Company to Cooperate with the Staff and Services Provider. In furtherance of the Staff and Services Provider's obligations under this Agreement the Management Company shall cooperate with, provide to, and fully inform the Staff and Services Provider of, any and all documents and information the Staff and Services Provider reasonably requires to perform its obligations under this Agreement.

Section 2.09 Power of Attorney. If the Management Company considers it necessary for the provision by the Staff and Services Provider of the assistance and advice under this Agreement (after consultation with the Staff and Services Provider), it may appoint the Staff and Services Provider as its true and lawful agent and attorney, with full power and authority in its name to sign, execute, certify, swear to, acknowledge, deliver, file, receive and record any and all documents that the Staff and Services Provider reasonably deems appropriate or necessary in connection with the execution and settlement of acquisitions of assets as directed by the Management Company and the Staff and Services Provider's powers and duties hereunder (which for the avoidance of doubt shall in no way involve the discretion and/or authority of the Management Company with respect to investments). Any such power shall be revocable in the sole discretion of the Management Company.

ARTICLE III

CONSIDERATION AND EXPENSES

Section 3.01 Consideration. As compensation for its performance of its obligations as Staff and Services Provider under this Agreement, the Staff and Services Provider will be entitled to receive a flat fee of $80,000 per month (the "Staff and Services Fee"), payable monthly in advance on the first business day of each month.

Section 3.02 Costs and Expenses. Each party shall bear its own expenses; provided that the Management Company shall reimburse the Staff and Services Provider for any and all costs and expenses that may be borne properly by the Management Company.

Section 3.03 Deferral. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, if on any date the Management Company determines that it would not have sufficient funds available to it to make a payment of Indebtedness, it shall have the right to defer any all and amounts payable to the Staff and Services Provider pursuant to this Agreement, including any fees and expenses; provided that the Management Company shall promptly pay all such amounts on the first date thereafter that sufficient amounts exist to make payment thereof.

COVENANTS

Section 5.01 Compliance; Advisory Restrictions.

(a) The Staff and Services Provider shall reasonably cooperate with the Management Company in connection with the Management Company's compliance with its policies and procedures relating to oversight of the Staff and Services Provider. Specifically, the Staff and Services Provider agrees that it will provide the Management Company with reasonable access to information relating to the performance of Staff and Services Provider's obligations under this Agreement.

(b) This Agreement is not intended to and shall not constitute an assignment, pledge or transfer of any portfolio management agreement or any part thereof. It is the express intention of the parties hereto that this Agreement and all services performed hereunder comply in all respects with all (a) applicable contractual provisions and restrictions contained in each portfolio management agreement, investment management agreement or similar agreement and each document contemplated thereby; and (b) Applicable Laws (collectively, the "Advisory Restrictions"). If any provision of this Agreement is determined to be in violation of any Advisory Restriction, then the services to be provided under this Agreement shall automatically be limited without action by any person or entity, reduced or modified to the extent necessary and appropriate to be enforceable to the maximum extent permitted by such Advisory Restriction.

Section 5.02 Records; Confidentiality.

The Staff and Services Provider shall maintain or cause to be maintained appropriate books of account and records relating to its services performed hereunder, and such books of account and records shall be accessible for inspection by representatives of the Management Company and its accountants and other agents at any time during normal business hours and upon not less than three (3) Business Days' prior notice; provided that the Staff and Services Provider shall not be obligated to provide access to any non-public information if it in good faith determines that the disclosure of such information would violate any applicable law, regulation or contractual arrangement.

The Staff and Services Provider shall follow its customary procedures to keep confidential any and all information obtained in connection with the services rendered hereunder that is either (a) of a type that would ordinarily be considered proprietary or confidential, such as information concerning the composition of assets, rates of return, credit quality, structure or ownership of securities, or (b) designated as confidential obtained in connection with the services rendered by the Staff and Services Provider hereunder and shall not disclose any such information to non-affiliated third parties, except (i) with the prior written consent of the Management Company, (ii) such information as a rating agency shall reasonably request in connection with its rating of notes issued by a CLO or supplying credit estimates on any obligation included in the Portfolio, (iii) in connection with establishing trading or investment accounts or otherwise in connection with effecting transactions on behalf of the Management Company or any Client or Account for which the Management Company serves as portfolio manager or investment manager or in a similar capacity, (iv) as required by (A) Applicable Law or (B) the rules or regulations of any self-regulating organization, body or official having jurisdiction over the Staff and Services Provider or any of its Affiliates, (v) to its professional advisors (including, without limitation, legal, tax and accounting advisors), (vi) such information as shall have been publicly disclosed other than in known violation of this Agreement or shall have been obtained by the Staff and Services Provider on a non-confidential basis, (vii) such information as is necessary or appropriate to disclose so that the Staff and Services Provider may perform its duties hereunder, (viii) as expressly permitted in the final offering memorandum or any definitive transaction documents relating to any Client or Account, (ix) information relating to performance of the Portfolio as may be used by the Staff and Services Provider in the ordinary course of its business or (xx) such information as is routinely disclosed to the trustee, custodian or collateral administrator of any Client or Account in connection with such trustee's, custodian's or collateral administrator's performance of its obligations under the transaction documents related to such Client or Account. Notwithstanding the foregoing, it is agreed that the Staff and Services Provider may disclose without the consent of any Person (1) that it is serving as staff and services provider to the Management Company, (2) the nature, aggregate principal amount and overall performance of the Portfolio, (3) the amount of earnings on the Portfolio, (4) such other information about the Management Company, the Portfolio and the Clients or Accounts as is customarily disclosed by staff and services providers to management vehicles similar to the Management Company, and (5) the United States federal income tax treatment and United States federal income tax structure of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the related documents and all materials of any kind (including opinions and other tax analyses) that are provided to them relating to such United States federal income tax treatment and United States income tax structure. This authorization to disclose the U.S. tax treatment and tax structure does not permit disclosure of information identifying the Staff and Services Provider, the Clients or Accounts or any other party to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (except to the extent such information is relevant to U.S. tax structure or tax treatment of such transactions).

EXCULPATION AND INDEMNIFICATION

Section 6.01 Standard of Care. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, each Covered Person shall discharge its duties under this Agreement with the care, skill, prudence and diligence under the circumstances then prevailing that a prudent person acting in a like capacity and familiar with such matters would use in the conduct of an enterprise of a like character and with like aims. To the extent not inconsistent with the foregoing, each Covered Person shall follow its customary standards, policies and procedures in performing its duties hereunder. No Covered Person shall deal with the income or assets of the Management Company in such Covered Person's own interest or for its own account. Each Covered Person in its respective sole and absolute discretion may separately engage or invest in any other business ventures, including those that may be in competition with the Management Company, and the Management Company will not have any rights in or to such ventures or the income or profits derived therefrom

Section 6.02 Exculpation. To the fullest extent permitted by law, no Covered Person will be liable to the Management Company, any Member, or any shareholder, partner or member thereof, for (i) any acts or omissions by such Covered Person arising out of or in connection with the conduct of the business of the Management Company or its General Partner, or any investment made or held by the Management Company or its General Partner, unless it is determined ultimately by a court of competent jurisdiction, in a final nonappealable judgment, to be the result of gross negligence or to constitute fraud or willful misconduct (as interpreted under the laws of the State of Delaware) (each, a “Disabling Conduct”) on the part of such Covered Person, (ii) any act or omission of any Investor, (iii) any mistake, gross negligence, misconduct or bad faith of any employee, broker, administrator or other agent or representative of such Covered Person, provided that such employee, broker, administrator or agent was selected, engaged or retained by or on behalf of such Covered Person with reasonable care, or (iv) any consequential (including loss of profit), indirect, special or punitive damages. To the extent that, at law or in equity, any Covered Person has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Management Company or any Member, no Covered Person acting under this Agreement shall be liable to the Management Company or to any such Member for its good-faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement. The exculpations set forth in this Section 6.02 shall exculpate any Covered Person regardless of such Covered Person’s sole, comparative, joint, concurrent, or subsequent negligence.

To the fullest extent permitted by law, no Covered Person shall have any personal liability to the Management Company or any Member solely by reason of any change in U.S. federal, state or local or foreign income tax laws, or in interpretations thereof, as they apply to the Management Company or the Members, whether the change occurs through legislative, judicial or administrative action.

Any Covered Person in its sole and absolute discretion may consult legal counsel, accountants or other advisers selected by it, and any act or omission taken, or made in good faith by such Person on behalf of the Management Company or in furtherance of the business of the Management Company in good-faith reliance on and in accordance with the advice of such counsel, accountants or other advisers shall be full justification for the act or omission, and to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, no Covered Person shall be liable to the Management Company or any Member in so acting or omitting to act if such counsel, accountants or other advisers were selected, engaged or retained with reasonable care.

Section 6.03 Indemnification by the Management Company. The Management Company shall and hereby does, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, indemnify and hold harmless any Covered Person from and against any and all claims, causes of action (including, but not limited to, strict liability, negligence, statutory violation, regulatory violation, breach of contract, and all other torts and claims arising under common law), demands, liabilities, costs, expenses, damages, losses, suits, proceedings, judgments, assessments, actions and other liabilities, whether judicial, administrative, investigative or otherwise, of whatever nature, known or unknown, liquidated or unliquidated (“Claims”), that may accrue to or be incurred by any Covered Person, or in which any Covered Person may become involved, as a party or otherwise, or with which any Covered Person may be threatened, relating to or arising out of the investment or other activities of the Management Company or its General Partner, or activities undertaken in connection with the Management Company or its General Partner, or otherwise relating to or arising out of this Agreement, including amounts paid in satisfaction of judgments, in compromise or as fines or penalties, and attorneys' fees and expenses incurred in connection with the preparation for or defense or disposition of any investigation, action, suit, arbitration or other proceeding (a "Proceeding"), whether civil or criminal (all of such Claims, amounts and expenses referred to therein are referred to collectively as "Damages"), except to the extent that it shall have been determined ultimately by a court of competent jurisdiction, in a final nonappealable judgment, that such Damages arose primarily from Disabling Conduct of such Covered Person. The termination of any Proceeding by settlement, judgment, order, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that any Damages relating to such settlement, judgment, order, conviction or plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent or otherwise relating to such Proceeding arose primarily from Disabling Conduct of any Covered Persons. Any Covered Person shall be indemnified under the terms of this Section 6.03 regardless of such Covered Person's sole, comparative, joint, concurrent, or subsequent negligence.

Expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by a Covered Person in defense or settlement of any Claim that may be subject to a right of indemnification hereunder shall be advanced by the Management Company prior to the final disposition thereof upon receipt of a written undertaking by or on behalf of the Covered Person to repay the amount advanced to the extent that it shall be determined ultimately by a court of competent jurisdiction that the Covered Person is not entitled to be indemnified hereunder. The right of any Covered Persons to the indemnification provided herein shall be cumulative of, and in addition to, any and all rights to which the Covered Person may otherwise be entitled by contract or as a matter of law or equity and shall be extended to the Covered Person's successors, assigns and legal representatives. Any judgments against the Management Company and/or any Covered Persons in respect of which such Covered Person is entitled to indemnification shall first be satisfied from the assets of the Management Company, including Drawdowns, before such Covered Person is responsible therefor.

Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the provisions of this Section 6.03 shall not be construed so as to provide for the indemnification of any Covered Person for any liability (including liability under Federal securities laws which, under certain circumstances, impose liability even on persons that act in good faith), to the extent (but only to the extent) that such indemnification would be in violation of applicable law, but shall be construed so as to effectuate the provisions of this Section 6.03 to the fullest extent permitted by law.

Section 6.04 Other Sources of Recovery etc. The indemnification rights set forth in Section 6.03 are in addition to, and shall not exclude, limit or otherwise adversely affect, any other indemnification or similar rights to which any Covered Person may be entitled. If and to the extent that other sources of recovery (including proceeds of any applicable policies of insurance or indemnification from any Person in which any of the Clients or Accounts has an investment) are available to any Covered Person, such Covered Person shall use reasonable efforts to obtain recovery from such other sources before the Company shall be required to make any payment in respect of its indemnification obligations hereunder; provided that, if such other recovery is not available without delay, the Covered Person shall be entitled to such payment by the Management

Company and the Management Company shall be entitled to reimbursement out of such other recovery when and if obtained.

Section 6.05 Rights of Heirs, Successors and Assigns. The indemnification rights provided by Section 6.03 shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns of each Covered Person.

Section 6.06 Reliance. A Covered Person shall incur no liability to the Management Company or any Member in acting upon any signature or writing reasonably believed by him, her or it to be genuine, and may rely in good faith on a certificate signed by an officer of any Person in order to ascertain any fact with respect to such Person or within such Person's knowledge. Each Covered Person may act directly or through his, her or its agents or attorneys.

TERMINATION

Section 7.01 Termination. Either Party may terminate this Agreement at any time upon at least thirty (30) days' written notice to the other.

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 8.01 Amendments. This Agreement may not be amended or modified except by an instrument in writing signed by each Party.

Section 8.02 Assignment and Delegation.

(a) Neither Party may assign, pledge, grant or otherwise encumber or transfer all or any part of its rights or responsibilities under this Agreement, in whole or in part, except (i) as provided in clauses (b) and (c) of this Section 8.02, without the prior written consent of the other Party and (ii) in accordance with Applicable Law.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this Section 8.02, the Staff and Services Provider may not assign its rights or responsibilities under this Agreement unless (i) the Management Company consents in writing thereto and (ii) such assignment is made in accordance with Applicable Law.

(c) The Staff and Services Provider may, without satisfying any of the conditions of Section 8.02(a) other than clause (ii) thereof, (1) assign any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement to an Affiliate; provided that such Affiliate (i) has demonstrated ability, whether as an entity or by its principals and employees, to professionally and competently perform duties similar to those imposed upon the Staff and Services Provider pursuant to this Agreement and (ii) has the legal right and capacity to act as Staff and Services Provider under this Agreement, or (2) enter into (or have its parent enter into) any consolidation or amalgamation with, or merger with or into, or transfer of all or substantially all of its assets to, another entity; provided that, at the time of such consolidation, merger, amalgamation or transfer the resulting, surviving or transferee entity assumes all the obligations of the Staff and Services Provider under this Agreement generally (whether by operation of law or by contract) and the other entity is a continuation of the Staff and Services Provider in another corporate or similar form and has substantially the same staff; provided further that the Staff and Services Provider shall deliver ten (10) Business Days' prior notice to the Management Company of any assignment or combination made pursuant to this sentence. Upon the execution and delivery of any such assignment by the assignee, the Staff and Services Provider will be released from further obligations pursuant to this Agreement except to the extent expressly provided herein.

Section 8.03 Non-Recourse: Non-Petition.

(a) The Staff and Services Provider agrees that the payment of all amounts to which it is entitled pursuant to this Agreement shall be payable by the Management Company only to the extent of assets held in the Portfolio.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the liability of the Management Company to the Staff and Services Provider hereunder is limited in recourse to the Portfolio, and if the proceeds of the Portfolio following the liquidation thereof are insufficient to meet the obligations of the Management Company hereunder in full, the Management Company shall have no further liability in respect of any such outstanding obligations, and such obligations and all claims of the Staff and Services Provider or any other Person against the Management Company hereunder shall thereupon extinguish and not thereafter revive. The Staff and Services Provider accepts that the obligations of the Management Company hereunder are the corporate obligations of the Management Company and are not the obligations of any employee, member, officer, director or administrator of the Management Company and no action may be taken against any such Person in relation to the obligations of the Management Company hereunder.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, any Staff and Services Provider agrees not to institute against, or join any other Person in instituting against, the Management Company any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, insolvency, moratorium or liquidation proceedings, or other proceedings under United States federal or state bankruptcy laws, or similar laws until at least one year and one day (or, if longer, the then applicable preference period plus one day) after the payment in full all amounts payable in respect of any Indebtedness incurred to finance any portion of the Portfolio; provided that nothing in this provision shall preclude, or be deemed to stop, the Staff and Services Provider from taking any action prior to the expiration of the aforementioned one year and one day period (or, if longer, the applicable preference period then in effect plus one day) in (i) any case or proceeding voluntarily filed or commenced by the Management Company, or (ii) any involuntary insolvency proceeding filed or commenced against the Management Company by a Person other than the Staff and Services Provider.

(d) The Management Company hereby acknowledges and agrees that the Staff and Services Provider's obligations hereunder shall be solely the corporate obligations of the Staff and Services Provider, and are not the obligations of any employee, member, officer, director or administrator of the Staff and Services Provider and no action may be taken against any such Person in relation to the obligations of the Staff and Services Provider hereunder.

(e) The provisions of this Section 8.03 shall survive termination of this Agreement for any reason whatsoever.

Section 8.04 Governing Law.

(a) This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Texas. The Parties unconditionally and irrevocably consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts located in the State of Texas and waive any objection with respect thereto, for the purpose of any action, suit or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby.

(b) The Parties irrevocably agree for the benefit of each other that the courts of the State of Texas and the United States District Court located in the Northern District of Texas in Dallas are to have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any disputes (whether contractual or non-contractual) which may arise out of or in connection with this Agreement and that accordingly any action arising out of or in connection therewith (together referred to as "Proceedings") may be brought in such courts. The Parties irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction of such courts and waive any objection which they may have now or hereafter to the laying of the venue of any Proceedings in any such court and any claim that any Proceedings have been brought in an inconvenient forum and further irrevocably agree that a judgment in any Proceedings brought in such courts shall be conclusive and binding upon the Parties and may be enforced in the courts of any other jurisdiction.

Section 8.05 WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY KNOWINGLY, VOLUNTARILY AND INTENTIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHTS IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION BASED HEREON, OR ARISING OUT OF, UNDER, OR IN CONNECTION WITH, THIS AGREEMENT. EACH PARTY HERETO ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT IT HAS RECEIVED FULL AND SUFFICIENT CONSIDERATION FOR THIS PROVISION AND THAT THIS PROVISION IS A MATERIAL INDUCEMENT FOR ITS ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT.

Section 8.06 Severability. The provisions of this Agreement are independent of and severable from each other, and no provision shall be affected or rendered invalid or unenforceable by virtue of the fact that for any reason any other or others of them may be invalid or unenforceable in whole or in part. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the Parties shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the Parties.

Section 8.07 No Waiver. The performance of any condition or obligation imposed upon any Party may be waived only upon the written consent of the Parties. Such waiver shall be limited to the terms thereof and shall not constitute a waiver of any other condition or obligation of the other Party. Any failure by any Party to enforce any provision shall not constitute a waiver of that or any other provision or this Agreement.

Section 8.08 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts by facsimile or other written or electronic form of communication, each of which shall be deemed to be an original as against any Party whose signature appears thereon, and all of which shall together constitute one and the same instrument. This Agreement shall become binding when one or more counterparts hereof, individually or taken together, shall bear the signatures of all of the Parties reflected hereon as the signatories.

Section 8.09 Third Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement is for the sole benefit of the Parties hereto and their permitted assigns and nothing herein express or implied shall give or be construed to give to any Person, other than the Parties hereto and such permitted assigns, any legal or equitable rights hereunder. For avoidance of doubt, this Agreement is not for the benefit or and is not enforceable by any Shared Employee, Client or Account or any investor (directly or indirectly) in the Management Company.

Section 8.10 No Partnership or Joint Venture. Nothing set forth in this Agreement shall constitute, or be construed to create, an employment relationship, a partnership or a joint venture between the Parties. Except as expressly provided herein or in any other written agreement between the Parties, no Party has any authority, express or implied, to bind or to incur liabilities on behalf of, or in the name of, any other Party.

Section 8.11 Independent Contractor. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the Staff and Services Provider shall be deemed to be an independent contractor and, except as expressly provided or authorized herein, shall have no authority to act for or represent the Management Company or any Client or Account in which the Management Company acts as portfolio manager or investment manager or in a similar capacity in any manner or otherwise be deemed an agent of the Management Company or any Client or Account in which the Management Company acts as portfolio manager or investment manager or in a similar capacity.

Section 8.12 Written Disclosure Statement. The Management Company acknowledges receipt of Part 2 of the Staff and Services Provider's Form ADV, as required by Rule 204-3 under the Advisers Act, on or before the date of execution of this Agreement.

Section 8.13 Headings. The descriptive headings contained in this Agreement are for convenience of reference only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

Section 8.14 Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement of the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements and undertakings, both written and oral, between the Parties with respect to such subject matter.

SUB-ADVISORY AGREEMENT

This Sub-Advisory Agreement (as amended, modified, waived, supplemented or restated from time to time in accordance with the terms hereof, this "Agreement"), dated effective as of January 1, 2018, is entered into by and between NexPoint Real Estate Advisors, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership, as the management company hereunder (in such capacity, the "Management Company"), and NexPoint Advisors, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership ("NexPoint Advisors"), as the sub-advisor hereunder (in such capacity, the "Sub-Advisor" and together with the Management Company, the "Parties").

WHEREAS, the Management Company from time to time has entered and will enter into portfolio management agreements, investment management agreements and/or similar agreements (each such agreement as amended, modified, waived, supplemented or restated, subject in each case to the requirements of Section 8, a "Management Agreement") and related indentures, credit agreements, collateral administration agreements, service agreements or other agreements (each such agreement as amended, modified, waived, supplemented or restated, subject in each case to the requirements of Section 8, a "Related Agreement"), in each case as set forth on Appendix A hereto, as amended from time to time, pursuant to which the Management Company has agreed to provide portfolio and/or investment management services to certain funds and accounts (any such fund or account, an "Account", and the assets comprising the portfolio of such Account, a "Portfolio"); and

WHEREAS, the Management Company and the Sub-Advisor desire to enter into this Agreement in order to permit the Sub-Advisor to provide certain limited services to assist the Management Company in performing certain obligations under the Management Agreements and Related Agreements.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing recitals, and the receipt of good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the Parties, intending to be legally bound, hereby agree as follows.

1. Appointment: Limited Scope of Services.

(a) NexPoint Advisors is hereby appointed as Sub-Advisor to the Management Company for the purpose of assisting the Management Company in managing the Portfolios of each Account pursuant to the related Management Agreement and Related Agreements, in each case that have been included in the scope of this Agreement pursuant to the provisions of Section 8, subject to the terms set forth herein and subject to the supervision of the Management Company, and NexPoint Advisors hereby accepts such appointment.

(b) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Sub-Advisor shall, during the term and subject to the provisions of this Agreement:

(i) make recommendations to the Management Company in its capacity as portfolio manager, investment manager or any similar capacity for any applicable Account as to the general composition and allocation of the Portfolio with respect to such Account among various types of securities, the nature and timing of the changes therein and the manner of implementing such changes, including recommendations as to the specific assets to be purchased, retained or sold by any such Account;

(ii) place orders with respect to, and arrange for, any investment by or on behalf of such Account (including executing and delivering all documents relating to such Account's investments on behalf of such Account or the Management Company, as applicable), upon receiving a proper instruction from the Management Company;

(iii) identify, evaluate and recommend to the Management Company, in its capacity as portfolio manager, investment manager or any similar capacity for any applicable Account, and, if applicable, negotiate the structure and/or terms of investment opportunities within the specific investment strategy of the Management Company for such Account;

(iv) assist the Management Company in its capacity as portfolio manager, investment manager or any similar capacity for any applicable Account in performing due diligence on prospective Portfolio investments by such Account;

(v) provide information to the Management Company in its capacity as portfolio manager, investment manager or any similar capacity for any applicable Account regarding any investments to facilitate the monitoring and servicing of such investments and, if requested by the Management Company, provide information to assist in monitoring and servicing other investments by such Account;

(vi) assist and advise the Management Company in its capacity as portfolio manager, investment manager or any similar capacity for any applicable Account with respect to credit functions including, but not limited to, credit analysis and market research and analysis; and

(vii) assist the Management Company in performing any of its other obligations or duties as portfolio manager, investment manager or any similar capacity for any applicable Account.

The foregoing responsibilities and obligations are collectively referred to herein as the "Services."

Notwithstanding the foregoing, all investment decisions will ultimately be the responsibility of, and will be made by and at the sole discretion of, the Management Company. Furthermore, the parties acknowledge and agree that the Sub-Advisor shall be required to provide only the services expressly described in this Section 1(b), and shall have no responsibility hereunder to provide any other services to the Management Company, including, but not limited to, administrative, management or similar services.

(c) The Sub-Advisor agrees during the term hereof to furnish the Services on the terms and conditions set forth herein and subject to the limitations contained herein. The Sub-Advisor agrees that, in performing the Services, it will comply with all applicable obligations of the Management Company set forth in the Management Agreements and the Related Agreements.

In addition, with respect to any obligation that would be part of the Services but for the fact that the relevant Management Agreement or Related Agreement does not permit such obligation to be delegated by the Management Company to the Sub-Advisor, the Sub-Advisor, upon request in writing by the Management Company, shall work in good faith with the Management Company and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to assist the Management Company in satisfying all such obligations.

2. Compensation.

(a) As compensation for its performance of its obligations as Sub-Advisor under this Agreement, the Sub-Advisor will be entitled to receive a monthly fee in the amount of One Hundred Twenty Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($120,000.00) (the "Sub-Advisory Fee"). The Sub-Advisory Fee shall be payable monthly in advance.

(b) Each party shall bear its own expenses.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, if on any date the Management Company determines that it would not have sufficient funds available to it to make a payment of Indebtedness, it shall have the right to defer any and all amounts payable to the Sub-Advisor pursuant to this Agreement, including any fees and expenses; provided that the Management Company shall promptly pay all such amounts on the first date thereafter that sufficient amounts exist to make payment thereof.

3. Representations and Warranties.

(a) Each of the Management Company and the Sub-Advisor represents and warrants, as to itself only, that:

(i) it has full power and authority to execute and deliver, and to perform its obligations under, this Agreement;

(ii) this Agreement has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by it and constitutes its valid and binding, obligation, enforceable in accordance with its terms except as the enforceability hereof may be subject to (i) bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization moratorium, receivership, conservatorship or other similar laws now or hereafter in effect relating to creditors' rights and (ii) general principles of equity (regardless of whether such enforcement is considered in a proceeding, in equity or at law);

(iii) no consent, approval, authorization or order of or declaration or filing with any government, governmental instrumentality or court or other person or entity is required for the execution of this Agreement or the performance by it of its duties hereunder, except such as have been duly made or obtained; and

(iv) neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement nor the fulfillment of the terms hereof conflicts with or results in a breach or violation of any of the terms or provisions of, or constitutes a default under, (A) its constituting and organizational documents; (B) the terms of any material indenture, contract,

lease, mortgage, deed of trust, note, agreement or other evidence of indebtedness or other material agreement, obligation, condition, covenant or instrument to which it is a party or by which it is bound; (C) any statute applicable to it; or (D) any law, decree, order, rule or regulation applicable to it of any court or regulatory, administrative or governmental agency, body of authority or arbitration having or asserting jurisdiction over it or its properties, which, in the case of clauses (B) through (D) above, would have a material adverse effect upon the performance of its duties hereunder.

(b) The Sub-Advisor represents and warrants to the Management Company that it is a registered investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended (the “Advisers Act”).

(c) The Management Company acknowledges that it has received Part 2 of the Sub-Advisor’s Form ADV filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Sub-Advisor will provide to the Management Company an updated copy of Part 2 of its Form ADV promptly upon any amendment to such Form ADV being filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

4. Standard of Care; Liability; Indemnification.

(a) Sub-Advisor Standard of Care. Subject to the terms and provisions of this Agreement, the Management Agreements and/or the Related Agreements, as applicable, the Sub-Advisor will perform its obligations hereunder and under the Management Agreements and/or the Related Agreements in good faith with reasonable care using a degree of skill and attention no less than that which the Sub-Advisor uses with respect to comparable assets that it manages for others and, without limiting the foregoing, in a manner which the Sub-Advisor reasonably believes to be consistent with the practices and procedures followed by institutional managers of national standing relating to assets of the nature and character of the Portfolios, in each case except as expressly provided otherwise under this Agreement, the Management Agreements and/or the Related Agreements. To the extent not inconsistent with the foregoing, the Sub-Advisor will follow its customary standards, policies and procedures in performing its duties hereunder, under the Management Agreements and/or under the Related Agreements.

(b) Exculpation. To the fullest extent permitted by law, none of the Sub-Advisor, any of its affiliates, and any of their respective managers, members, principals, partners, directors, officers, shareholders, employees and agents (but shall not include the Management Company, its subsidiaries or member(s) and any managers, members, principals, partners, directors, officers, shareholders, employees and agents of the Management Company or its subsidiaries or member(s) (in their capacity as such)) (each a “Covered Person”) will be liable to the Management Company, any Member, any shareholder, partner or member thereof, any Account (or any other adviser, agent or representative thereof), or to any holder of notes, securities or other indebtedness issued by any Account (collectively, the “Management Company Related Parties”), for (i) any acts or omissions by such Covered Person arising out of or in connection with the provision of the Services hereunder, for any losses that may be sustained in the purchase, holding or sale of any security or debt obligation by any Account, or as a result of any activities of the Sub-Advisor, the Management Company or any other adviser to or agent of the Account or any other sub-advisor appointed by the Management Company to provide portfolio management services to any other delegatee of the Management Company or any other person or entity, unless it is determined ultimately by a court of competent jurisdiction, in a final nonappealable judgment, to be the result of gross negligence or to constitute fraud or willful misconduct (as interpreted under the laws of the State of Delaware) (each, a “Disabling Conduct”) on the part of such Covered Person, (ii) any mistake, gross negligence, misconduct or bad faith of any employee, broker, administrator or other agent or representative of the Sub-Advisor, provided that such employee, broker, administrator or agent was selected, engaged or retained by or on behalf of the Sub-Advisor with reasonable care, or (iii) any consequential (including loss of profit), indirect, special or punitive damages. To the extent that, at law or in equity, any Covered Person has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to any Management Company Related Party, no Covered Person acting under this Agreement shall be liable to such Management Company Related Party for its good-faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement. The exculpations set forth in this Section 4(b) shall exculpate any Covered Person regardless of such Covered Person’s sole, comparative, joint, concurrent, or subsequent negligence.

To the fullest extent permitted by law, no Covered Person shall have any personal liability to any Management Company Related Party solely by reason of any change in U.S. federal, state or local or foreign income tax laws, or in interpretations thereof, as they apply to any such Management Company Related Party, whether the change occurs through legislative, judicial or administrative action.

Any Covered Person in its sole and absolute discretion may consult legal counsel, accountants or other advisers selected by it, and any act or omission taken, or made in good faith by such Person on behalf of the Management Company or in furtherance of the business of the Management Company in good-faith reliance on and in accordance with the advice of such counsel, accountants or other advisers shall be full justification for the act or omission, and to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, no Covered Person shall be liable to any Management Company Related Party in so acting or omitting to act if such counsel, accountants or other advisers were selected, engaged or retained with reasonable care.

(c) Indemnification. The Management Company shall and hereby does, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, indemnify and hold harmless any Covered Person from and against any and all claims, causes of action (including, but not limited to, strict liability, negligence, statutory violation, regulatory violation, breach of contract, and all other torts and claims arising under common law), demands, liabilities, costs, expenses, damages, losses, suits, proceedings, judgments, assessments, actions and other liabilities, whether judicial, administrative, investigative or otherwise, of whatever nature, known or unknown, liquidated or unliquidated, whether currently existing or accruing in the future (“Claims”), that may accrue to or be incurred by any Covered Person, or in which any Covered Person may become involved, as a party or otherwise, or with which any Covered Person may be threatened, relating to or arising out of the Services, the activities of the Management Company Related Parties, or activities undertaken in connection with the Management Company Related Parties, or otherwise relating to or arising out of this Agreement, any Management Agreement and/or the Related Documents, including amounts paid in satisfaction of judgments, in compromise or as fines or penalties, and attorneys’ fees and expenses incurred in connection with the preparation for or defense or disposition of any investigation, action, suit, arbitration or other proceeding (a “Proceeding”), whether civil or criminal (all of such Claims, amounts and expenses referred to therein are referred to collectively as “Damages”), except to the extent that it shall have been determined ultimately by a court of competent jurisdiction, in a final nonappealable judgment, that such Damages arose primarily from Disabling Conduct of such Covered Person. The termination of any Proceeding by settlement, judgment, order, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that any Damages relating to such settlement, judgment, order, conviction or plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent or otherwise relating to such Proceeding arose primarily from Disabling Conduct of any Covered Persons. Any Covered Person shall be indemnified under the terms of this Section 4(c) regardless of such Covered Person’s sole, comparative, joint, concurrent, or subsequent negligence.

Expenses (including attorneys’ fees) incurred by a Covered Person in defense or settlement of any Claim that may be subject to a right of indemnification hereunder shall be advanced by the Management Company prior to the final disposition thereof upon receipt of a written undertaking by or on behalf of the Covered Person to repay the amount advanced to the extent that it shall be determined ultimately by a court of competent jurisdiction that the Covered Person is not entitled to be indemnified hereunder. The right of any Covered Persons to the indemnification provided herein shall be cumulative of, and in addition to, any and all rights to which the Covered Person may otherwise be entitled by contract or as a matter of law or equity and shall be extended to the Covered Person’s successors, assigns and legal representatives. Any judgments against the Management Company and/or any Covered Persons in respect of which such Covered Person is entitled to indemnification shall first be satisfied from the assets of the Management Company, including Drawdowns, before such Covered Person is responsible therefor.

Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the provisions of this Section 4(c) shall not be construed so as to provide for the indemnification of any Covered Person for any liability (including liability under Federal securities laws which, under certain circumstances, impose liability even on persons that act in good faith), to the extent (but only to the extent) that such indemnification would be in violation of applicable law, but shall be construed so as to effectuate the provisions of this Section 4(c) to the fullest extent permitted by law

(d) Other Sources of Recovery etc. The indemnification rights set forth in Section 4(c) are in addition to, and shall not exclude, limit or otherwise adversely affect, any other indemnification or similar rights to which any Covered Person may be entitled. If and to the extent that other sources of recovery (including proceeds of any applicable policies of insurance or indemnification from any Person in which any Account has an investment) are available to any Covered Person, such Covered Person shall use reasonable efforts to obtain recovery from such other sources before the Company shall be required to make any payment in respect of its indemnification obligations hereunder; provided that, if such other recovery is not available without delay, the Covered Person shall be entitled to such payment by the Management Company and the Management Company shall be entitled to reimbursement out of such other recovery when and if obtained

(e) Rights of Heirs, Successors and Assigns. The indemnification rights provided by Section 4(c) shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns of each Covered Person

(f) Reliance. A Covered Person shall incur no liability to any Management Company Related Party in acting upon any signature or writing reasonably believed by him, her or it to be genuine, and may rely in good faith on a certificate signed by an officer of any Person in order to ascertain any fact with respect to such Person or within such Person's knowledge. Each Covered Person may act directly or through his, her or its agents or attorneys.

(g) Rights Under Management Agreements and Related Agreements. The Management Company will ensure that the Sub-Advisor is provided substantially similar indemnification and exculpation rights as are afforded to the Management Company in its role as portfolio manager under any future Management Agreement or Related Agreement encompassed within the Services hereunder, and it is expressly acknowledged by the Parties that the Sub-Advisor may not consent to including a Management Agreement and Related Agreements within the scope of this Agreement pursuant to Section 8 if such indemnification and exculpation rights are not reasonably acceptable to it.

5. Limitations on Employment of the Sub-Advisor: Conflicts of Interest.

(a) The services of the Sub-Advisor to the Management Company are not exclusive, and the Sub-Advisor may engage in any other business or render similar or different services to others including, without limitation, the direct or indirect sponsorship or management of other transactions, investment-based accounts or commingled pools of capital, however structured, having investment objectives similar to those of the Management Company or the Accounts. Moreover, nothing in this Agreement shall limit or restrict the right of any manager, partner, officer or employee of the Sub-Advisor to engage in any other business or to devote his or her time and attention in part to any other business, whether of a similar or dissimilar nature to the Management Company or any Account, or to receive any fees or compensation in connection therewith.

(b) So long as this Agreement or any extension, renewal or amendment of this Agreement remains in effect, the Sub-Advisor shall be the only portfolio management sub-advisor for the Management Company. The Sub-Advisor assumes no responsibility under this Agreement other than to render the services called for hereunder. It is understood that directors, officers, employees, members and managers of the Management Company are or may become interested in the Sub-Advisor and its Affiliates as directors, officers, employees, partners, stockholders, members, managers or otherwise, and that the Sub-Advisor and directors, officers, employees, partners, stockholders, members and managers of the Sub-Advisor and its Affiliates are or may become similarly interested in the Management Company as members or otherwise.

(c) The Management Company acknowledges that various potential and actual conflicts of interest may exist with respect to the Sub-Advisor as described in the Sub-Advisor's Form ADV Part 2A and as described in Appendix B hereto, and the Management Company expressly acknowledges and agrees to the provisions contained in such Appendix B, as amended from time to time with mutual consent of the Parties.

6. Termination; Survival.

(a) This Agreement may be terminated, in its entirety or with respect to any Management Agreement, at any time without payment of penalty, by the Management Company upon 30 days' prior written notice to the Sub-Advisor.

(b) This Agreement shall terminate automatically with respect to any Management Agreement on the date on which (i) such Management Agreement has been terminated (and, if required thereunder, a successor portfolio manager has been appointed and accepted) or discharged; or (ii) the Management Company is no longer acting as portfolio manager, investment manager or in a similar capacity (whether due to removal, resignation or assignment) under such Management Agreement and the Related Agreements. Upon the termination of this Agreement with respect to any Management Agreement the Management Company shall provide prompt notice thereof to the Sub-Advisor, and Appendix A hereto shall be deemed to be amended by deleting such Management Agreement and the Related Agreements related thereto.

(c) All accrued and unpaid financial and indemnification obligations with respect to any conduct or events occurring prior to the effective date of the termination of this Agreement shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

7. Cooperation with Management Company. The Sub-Advisor shall reasonably cooperate with the Management Company in connection with the Management Company's compliance with its policies and procedures relating to oversight of the Sub-Advisor. Specifically, the Sub-Advisor agrees that it will provide the Management Company with reasonable access to information relating to the performance of Sub-Advisor's obligations under this Agreement.

8. Management Agreements and Related Agreements. The Sub-Advisor's duty to provide Services in connection with any Management Agreement shall not commence until (a) Appendix A to this Agreement has been amended by mutual agreement of the Parties to include such Management Agreement and the related Account, fund and/or account and Related Agreements and (b) the Sub-Advisor acknowledges receipt of such Management Agreement and each Related Agreement. The Sub-Advisor shall not be bound to comply with any amendment, modification, supplement or waiver to any Management Agreement or any Related Agreement until it has received a copy thereof from the Management Company. No amendment, modification, supplement or waiver to any Management Agreement or Related Agreement that, when applied to the obligations and rights of the Management Company under such Management Agreement or Related Agreement, affects (i) the obligations or rights of the Sub-Advisor hereunder; (ii) the amount or priority of any fees or other amounts payable to the Sub-Advisor hereunder; or (iii) any definitions relating to the matters covered in clause (i) or (ii) above, will apply to the Sub-Advisor under this Agreement unless in each such case the Sub-Advisor has consented thereto in writing (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed unless the Sub-Advisor determines in its reasonable judgment that such amendment, modification, supplement or waiver could have a material adverse effect on the Sub-Advisor).

9. Amendments; Assignments.

(a) Neither Party may assign, pledge, grant or otherwise encumber or transfer all or any part of its rights or responsibilities under this Agreement, in whole or in part, except (i) as provided in clauses (b) and (c) of this Section 9, without the prior written consent of the other Party and (ii) in accordance with the Advisers Act and other applicable law.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this Section 9, the Sub-Advisor may not assign its rights or responsibilities under this Agreement unless (i) the Management Company consents in writing thereto and (ii) such assignment is made in accordance with the Advisers Act and other applicable law.

(c) The Sub-Advisor may, without satisfying any of the conditions of Section 9(a) other than clause (ii) thereof (so long as such assignment does not constitute an assignment within the meaning of Section 202(a)(1) of the Advisers Act), (1) assign any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement to an affiliate; provided that such affiliate (i) has demonstrated ability, whether as an entity or by its principals and employees, to professionally and competently perform duties similar to those imposed upon the Sub-Advisor pursuant to this Agreement and (ii) has the legal right and capacity to act as Sub-Advisor under this Agreement, or (2) enter into (or have its parent enter into) any consolidation or amalgamation with, or merger with or into, or transfer of all or substantially all of its assets to, another entity; provided that, at the time of such consolidation, merger, amalgamation or transfer the resulting, surviving or transferee entity assumes all the obligations of the Sub-Advisor under this Agreement generally (whether by operation of law or by contract) and the other entity is a continuation of the Sub-Advisor in another corporate or similar form and has substantially the same staff; provided, further, that the Sub-Advisor shall deliver ten (10) Business Days' prior notice to the Management Company of any assignment or combination made pursuant to this sentence. Upon the execution and delivery of any such assignment by the assignee, the Sub-Advisor will be released from further obligations pursuant to this Agreement except to the extent expressly provided herein.

10. Advisory Restrictions. This Agreement is not intended to and shall not constitute an assignment, pledge or transfer of any Management Agreement or any part thereof. It is the express intention of the parties hereto that (i) the Services are limited in scope; and (ii) this Agreement complies in all respects with all applicable (A) contractual provisions and restrictions contained in each Management Agreement and each Related Agreement and (B) laws, rules and regulations (collectively, the "Advisory Restrictions"). If any provision of this Agreement is determined to be in violation of any Advisory Restriction, then the Services to be provided under this Agreement shall automatically without action by any person or entity be limited, reduced or modified to the extent necessary and appropriate to be enforceable to the maximum extent permitted by such Advisory Restriction.

11. Records; Confidentiality.

(a) The Sub-Advisor shall maintain or cause to be maintained appropriate books of account and records relating to its services performed hereunder, and such books of account and records shall be accessible for inspection by representatives of the Management Company and its accountants and other agents at any time during normal business hours and upon

not less than three (3) Business Days' prior notice; provided, that the Sub-Advisor shall not be obligated to provide access to any non-public information if it in good faith determines that the disclosure of such information would violate any applicable law, regulation or contractual arrangement.

(b) The Sub-Advisor shall follow its customary procedures to keep confidential any and all information obtained in connection with the services rendered hereunder that is either (a) of a type that would ordinarily be considered proprietary or confidential, such as information concerning the composition of assets, rates of return, credit quality, structure or ownership of securities, or (b) designated as confidential obtained in connection with the services rendered by the Sub-Advisor hereunder and shall not disclose any such information to non-affiliated third parties except (i) with the prior written consent of the Management Company, (ii) such information as a rating agency shall reasonably request in connection with its rating of notes issued by an Account or supplying credit estimates on any obligation included in the Portfolios, (iii) in connection with establishing trading or investment accounts or otherwise in connection with effecting transactions on behalf of the Management Company or any Account for which the Management Company serves as portfolio manager, (iv) as required by (A) applicable law or (B) the rules or regulations of any self-regulating organization, body or official having jurisdiction over the Sub-Advisor or any of its affiliates, (v) to its professional advisors (including, without limitation, legal, tax and accounting advisors), (vi) such information as shall have been publicly disclosed other than in known violation of this Agreement or shall have been obtained by the Sub-Advisor on a non-confidential basis, (vii) such information as is necessary or appropriate to disclose so that the Sub-Advisor may perform its duties hereunder, (viii) as expressly permitted in the final offering memorandum or any definitive transaction documents relating to any transaction, or (ix) information relating to performance of the Portfolios as may be used by the Sub-Advisor in the ordinary course of its business. Notwithstanding the foregoing, it is agreed that the Sub-Advisor may disclose without the consent of any Person (1) that it is serving as Sub-Advisor to the Management Company and each Account, (2) the nature, aggregate principal amount and overall performance of the Portfolios, (3) the amount of earnings on the Portfolios, (4) such other information about the Management Company, the Portfolios as is customarily disclosed by Sub-Advisors to management vehicles similar to the Management Company, and (5) the United States federal income tax treatment and United States federal income tax structure of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the related documents and all materials of any kind (including opinions and other tax analyses) that are provided to them relating to such United States federal income tax treatment and United States income tax structure. This authorization to disclose the U.S. tax treatment and tax structure does not permit disclosure of information identifying the Sub-Advisor, the Management Company, the Accounts or any other party to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (except to the extent such information is relevant to U.S. tax structure or tax treatment of such transactions).

12. Notice. Any notice or demand to any party to this Agreement to be given, made or served for any purposes under this Agreement shall be given, made or served by sending the same by overnight mail, facsimile or email transmission or by delivering it by hand as follows (or to such other address, email address or facsimile number as shall have been notified to the other parties hereto):

(a) If to the Management Company:

(b) If to the Sub-Advisor:

13. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Texas. The parties unconditionally and irrevocably consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts located in the State of Texas and waive any objection with respect thereto, for the purpose of any action, suit or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby.

14. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY KNOWINGLY, VOLUNTARILY AND INTENTIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHTS IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY WITH RESPECT TO ANY LITIGATION BASED HEREON, OR ARISING OUT OF, UNDER, OR IN CONNECTION WITH, THIS AGREEMENT. EACH PARTY HERETO ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT IT HAS RECEIVED FULL AND SUFFICIENT CONSIDERATION FOR THIS PROVISION AND THAT THIS PROVISION IS A MATERIAL INDUCEMENT FOR ITS ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT.

15. Severability. The provisions of this Agreement are independent of and severable from each other, and no provision shall be affected or rendered invalid or unenforceable by virtue of the fact that for any reason any other or others of them may be invalid or unenforceable in whole or in part. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties hereto shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties.

16. No Waiver. The performance of any condition or obligation imposed upon any party hereunder may be waived only upon the written consent of the parties hereto. Such waiver shall be limited to the terms thereof and shall not constitute a waiver of any other condition or obligation of the other party under this Agreement. Any failure by any party to this Agreement to enforce any provision shall not constitute a waiver of that or any other provision or this Agreement.

17. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts by facsimile or other written form of communication, each of which shall be deemed to be an original as against any party whose signature appears thereon, and all of which shall together constitute one and the same instrument. This Agreement shall become binding when one or more counterparts hereof, individually or taken together, shall bear the signatures of all of the parties reflected hereon as the signatories.

18. Third Party Beneficiaries. Nothing in this Agreement will be construed to give any person or entity other than the parties to this Agreement, the Accounts and any person or entity with indemnification rights hereunder any legal or equitable right, remedy, or claim under or with respect to this Agreement or any provision of this Agreement. Except as provided in the foregoing sentence, this Agreement and all of its provisions and conditions are for the sole and exclusive benefit of the parties to this Agreement and their successors and assigns.

19. No Partnership or Joint Venture. Nothing set forth in this Agreement shall constitute, or be construed to create, an employment relationship, a partnership or a joint venture between the parties. Except as expressly provided herein or in any other written agreement between the parties, no party has any authority, express or implied, to bind or to incur liabilities on behalf of, or in the name of, any other party.

20. Entire Agreement. This Agreement, together with each Management Agreement and Related Agreement, constitutes the entire agreement of the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements and undertakings, both written and oral, between the parties with respect to such subject matter.

APPENDIX BPurchase and Sale Transactions; Brokerage

The Management Company acknowledges and agrees that the Sub-Advisor or any of its affiliates may acquire or sell obligations or securities, for its own account or for the accounts of its clients, without either requiring or precluding the acquisition or sale of such obligations or securities for the account of any Account. Such investments may be the same or different from those made by or on behalf of the Management Company or the Accounts.

Additional Activities of the Sub-Advisor

Nothing herein shall prevent the Sub-Advisor or any of its clients, its partners, its members, funds or other investment accounts managed by it or any of its affiliates, or their employees and their affiliates (collectively, the “Related Entities”), from engaging in other businesses, or from rendering services of any kind to the Management Company, its affiliates, any Account or any other Person or entity regardless of whether such business is in competition with the Management Company, its affiliates, such Account or otherwise. Without limiting the generality of the Sub-Advisor and its Related Entities may:

(a) serve as managers or directors (whether supervisory or managing), officers, employees, partners, agents, nominees or signatories for the Management Company or any affiliate thereof, or for any obligor or issuer in respect of any of the Portfolio assets or any affiliate thereof, to the extent permitted by their respective organizational documents and underlying instruments, as from time to time amended, or by any resolutions duly adopted by the Management Company, any Account, their respective affiliates or any obligor or issuer in respect of any of the Portfolio assets (or any affiliate thereof) pursuant to their respective organizational documents;

(b) receive fees for services of whatever nature rendered to the obligor or issuer in respect of any of the Portfolio Assets or any affiliate thereof;

(c) be retained to provide services unrelated to this Agreement to the Management Company, any Account or their respective affiliates and be paid therefor, on an arm’s-length basis;

(d) be a secured or unsecured creditor of, or hold a debt obligation of or equity interest in, the Management Company, any Account or any affiliate thereof or any obligor or issuer of any Portfolio asset or any affiliate thereof;

(e) sell any Portfolio asset to, or purchase or acquire any Portfolio asset from, any Account while acting in the capacity of principal or agent; provided, however, that any such sale or purchase effected by the Sub-Advisor shall be subject to applicable law and any applicable provisions of this Agreement, the related Management Agreement and Related Agreements, as applicable;

(f) underwrite, arrange, structure, originate, syndicate, act as a distributor of or make a market in any Portfolio asset;

(g) serve as a member of any “creditors’ board”, “creditors’ committee” or similar creditor group with respect to any Portfolio asset; or

(h) act as portfolio manager, portfolio manager, investment manager and/or investment adviser or sub-advisor in collateralized bond obligation vehicles, collateralized loan obligation vehicles and other similar warehousing, financing or other investment vehicles.

As a result, such individuals may possess information relating to obligors and issuers of Portfolio assets that is (a) not known to or (b) known but restricted as to its use by the individuals at the Sub-Advisor responsible for monitoring the Portfolio assets and performing the Services under this Agreement. Each of such ownership and other relationships may result in securities laws restrictions on Transactions in such securities by the Management Company and/or any Account and otherwise create conflicts of interest for the Management Company and/or any Account. The Management Company acknowledges and agrees that, in all such instances, the Sub-Advisor and its affiliates may in their discretion make investment recommendations and decisions that may be the same as or different from those made by the Management Company with respect to the investments of any Account and they have no duty, in making or managing such investments, to act in a way that is favorable to any Account.

The Management Company acknowledges that there are generally no ethical screens or information barriers between the Sub-Advisor and certain of its affiliates of the type that many firms implement to separate Persons who make investment decisions from others who might possess applicable material, non-public information that could influence such decisions. The officers or affiliates of the Sub-Advisor may possess information relating to obligors or issuers of Portfolio Assets that is not known to the individuals at the Sub-Advisor responsible for providing the Services under this Agreement. As a result, the Sub-Advisor may from time to time come into possession of material nonpublic information that limits the ability of the Sub-Advisor to effect a Transaction for the Management Company and/or any Account, and the Management Company and/or such Account’s investments may be constrained as a consequence of the Sub-Advisor’s inability to use such information for advisory purposes or otherwise to effect Transactions that otherwise may have been initiated on behalf of its clients, including the Management Company and/or such Account.

Unless the Sub-Advisor determines in its sole discretion that a Portfolio investment complies with the conflicts of interest provisions set forth in the applicable Management Agreement and Related Agreements, the Sub-Advisor will not direct any Account to acquire or sell loans or securities entered into or issued by (i) Persons of which the Sub-Advisor, any of its affiliates or any of its officers, directors or employees are directors or officers, (ii) Persons of which the Sub-Advisor or any of its respective affiliates act as principal or (iii) Persons about which the Sub-Advisor or any of its affiliates have material non-public information which the Sub-Advisor deems would prohibit it from advising as to the trading of such securities in accordance with applicable law.

It is understood that the Sub-Advisor and any of its affiliates may engage in any other business and furnish investment management and advisory services to others, including Persons which may have investment policies similar to those followed by the Management Company with respect to the Portfolio assets and which may own securities or obligations of the same class, or which are of the same type, as the Portfolio assets or other securities or obligations of the obligors or issuers of the Portfolio assets. The Sub-Advisor and its affiliates will be free, in their sole discretion, to make recommendations to others, or effect Transactions on behalf of themselves or for others, which may be the same as or different from those effected with respect to the Collateral. Nothing in this Agreement, in the Management Agreements or in the Related Agreements shall prevent the Sub-Advisor or any of its affiliates, acting either as principal or agent on behalf of others, from buying or selling, or from recommending to or directing any other account to buy or sell, at any time, securities or obligations of the same kind or class, or securities or obligations of a different kind or class of the same obligor or issuer, as those directed by the Sub-Advisor to be purchased or sold on behalf of an Account. It is understood that, to the extent permitted by applicable law, the Sub-Advisor, its Related Entities, or any of their owners, directors, managers, officers, stockholders, members, partners, partnership committee members, employees, agents or affiliates or the other Covered Persons or any member of their families or a Person or entity advised by the Sub-Advisor may have an interest in a particular transaction or in securities or obligations of the same kind or class, or securities or obligations of a different kind or class of the same issuer, as those that may be owned or acquired by an Account. The Management Company agrees that, in the course of providing the Services, the Sub-Advisor may consider its relationships with other clients (including obligors and issuers) and its affiliates.

The Management Company agrees that neither the Sub-Advisor nor any of its affiliates is under any obligation to offer any investment opportunity of which they become aware to the Management Company or any Account or to account to the Management Company or any Account for (or share with the Management Company or any Account or inform the Management Company or any Account of) any such transaction or any benefit received by them from any such transaction. The Management Company understands that the Sub-Advisor and/or its affiliates may have, for their own accounts or for the accounts of others, portfolios with substantially the same portfolio criteria as are applicable to the Accounts. Furthermore, the Sub-Advisor and/or its affiliates may make an investment on behalf of any client or on their own behalf without offering the investment opportunity or making any investment on behalf of the Management Company or any Account and, accordingly, investment opportunities may not be allocated among all such clients. The Management Company acknowledges that affirmative obligations may arise in the future, whereby the Sub-Advisor and/or its affiliates are obligated to offer certain investments to clients before or without the Sub-Advisor offering those investments to the Management Company or any Account.

The Management Company acknowledges that the Sub-Advisor and its affiliates may make and/or hold investments in an obligor's or issuer's obligations or securities that may be pari passu, senior or junior in ranking to an investment in such obligor's or issuer's obligations or securities made and/or held by the Management Company or any Account, or in which partners, security holders, members, officers, directors, agents or employees of the Sub-Advisor and its affiliates serve on boards of directors, or otherwise have ongoing relationships or otherwise have interests different from or adverse to those of the Management Company and the Accounts.

“Transaction” shall mean any action taken by the Sub-Advisor on behalf of any Account with respect to the Portfolio, including, without limitation, (i) selecting the Portfolio assets to be acquired by the Account, (ii) investing and reinvesting the Portfolio, (iii) amending, waiving and/or taking any other action commensurate with managing the Portfolio and (iv) instructing the Account with respect to any acquisition, disposition or tender of a Portfolio asset or other assets received in respect thereof in the open market or otherwise by the Account.

SUB-ADVISORY AGREEMENT

This Sub-Advisory Agreement (as amended, modified, waived, supplemented or restated from time to time in accordance with the terms hereof, this "Agreement"), dated effective as of January 1, 2018, is entered into by and between NexPoint Advisors, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership, as the management company hereunder (in such capacity, the "Management Company"), and Highland Capital Management, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership ("Highland"), as the sub-advisor hereunder (in such capacity, the "Sub-Advisor" and together with the Management Company, the "Parties").

WHEREAS, the Management Company from time to time has entered and will enter into portfolio management agreements, investment management agreements and/or similar agreements (each such agreement as amended, modified, waived, supplemented or restated, subject in each case to the requirements of Section 8, a "Management Agreement") and related indentures, credit agreements, collateral administration agreements, service agreements or other agreements (each such agreement as amended, modified, waived, supplemented or restated, subject in each case to the requirements of Section 8, a "Related Agreement"), in each case as set forth on Appendix A hereto, as amended from time to time, pursuant to which the Management Company has agreed to provide portfolio and/or investment management services to certain funds and accounts (any such fund or account, an "Account", and the assets comprising the portfolio of such Account, a "Portfolio"); and

WHEREAS, the Management Company and the Sub-Advisor desire to enter into this Agreement in order to permit the Sub-Advisor to provide certain limited services to assist the Management Company in performing certain obligations under the Management Agreements and Related Agreements.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing recitals, and the receipt of good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the Parties, intending to be legally bound, hereby agree as follows.

1. Appointment; Limited Scope of Services.

(a) Highland is hereby appointed as Sub-Advisor to the Management Company for the purpose of assisting the Management Company in managing the Portfolios of each Account pursuant to the related Management Agreement and Related Agreements, in each case that have been included in the scope of this Agreement pursuant to the provisions of Section 8, subject to the terms set forth herein and subject to the supervision of the Management Company, and Highland hereby accepts such appointment.

(b) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Sub-Advisor shall, during the term and subject to the provisions of this Agreement:

(i) make recommendations to the Management Company in its capacity as portfolio manager, investment manager or any similar capacity for any applicable Account as to the general composition and allocation of the Portfolio with respect to such Account among various types of securities, the nature and timing of the changes therein and the manner of implementing such changes, including recommendations as to the specific assets to be purchased, retained or sold by any such Account;

(ii) place orders with respect to, and arrange for, any investment by or on behalf of such Account (including executing and delivering all documents relating to such Account's investments on behalf of such Account or the Management Company, as applicable), upon receiving a proper instruction from the Management Company;

(iii) identify, evaluate and recommend to the Management Company, in its capacity as portfolio manager, investment manager or any similar capacity for any applicable Account, and, if applicable, negotiate the structure and/or terms of investment opportunities within the specific investment strategy of the Management Company for such Account;

(iv) assist the Management Company in its capacity as portfolio manager, investment manager or any similar capacity for any applicable Account in performing due diligence on prospective Portfolio Investments by such Account;

(v) provide information to the Management Company in its capacity as portfolio manager, investment manager or any similar capacity for any applicable Account regarding any investments to facilitate the monitoring and servicing of such investments and, if requested by the Management Company, provide information to assist in monitoring and servicing other investments by such Account;

(vi) assist and advise the Management Company in its capacity as portfolio manager, investment manager or any similar capacity for any applicable Account with respect to credit functions including, but not limited to, credit analysis and market research and analysis; and

(vii) assist the Management Company in performing any of its other obligations or duties as portfolio manager, investment manager or any similar capacity for any applicable Account.

The foregoing responsibilities and obligations are collectively referred to herein as the "Services."

Notwithstanding the foregoing, all investment decisions will ultimately be the responsibility of, and will be made by and at the sole discretion of, the Management Company. Furthermore, the parties acknowledge and agree that the Sub-Advisor shall be required to provide only the services expressly described in this Section 1(b), and shall have no responsibility hereunder to provide any other services to the Management Company, including, but not limited to, administrative, management or similar services.

(c) The Sub-Advisor agrees during the term hereof to furnish the Services on the terms and conditions set forth herein and subject to the limitations contained herein. The Sub-Advisor agrees that, in performing the Services, it will comply with all applicable obligations of the Management Company set forth in the Management Agreements and the Related Agreements.

In addition, with respect to any obligation that would be part of the Services but for the fact that the relevant Management Agreement or Related Agreement does not permit such obligation to be delegated by the Management Company to the Sub-Advisor, the Sub-Advisor, upon request in writing by the Management Company, shall work in good faith with the Management Company and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to assist the Management Company in satisfying all such obligations.

2. Compensation.

(a) As compensation for its performance of its obligations as Sub-Advisor under this Agreement, the Sub-Advisor will be entitled to receive a monthly fee in the amount of Two Hundred Fifty-Two Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($252,000.00) (the "Sub-Advisory Fee"). The Sub-Advisory Fee shall be payable monthly in advance.

(b) Each party shall bear its own expenses.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, if on any date the Management Company determines that it would not have sufficient funds available to it to make a payment of Indebtedness, it shall have the right to defer any and all amounts payable to the Sub-Advisor pursuant to this Agreement, including any fees and expenses; provided that the Management Company shall promptly pay all such amounts on the first date thereafter that sufficient amounts exist to make payment thereof.

3. Representations and Warranties.

(a) Each of the Management Company and the Sub-Advisor represents and warrants, as to itself only, that:

(i) it has full power and authority to execute and deliver, and to perform its obligations under, this Agreement;

(ii) this Agreement has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by it and constitutes its valid and binding, obligation, enforceable in accordance with its terms except as the enforceability hereof may be subject to (i) bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization moratorium, receivership, conservatorship or other similar laws now or hereafter in effect relating to creditors' rights and (ii) general principles of equity (regardless of whether such enforcement is considered in a proceeding, in equity or at law);

(iii) no consent, approval, authorization or order of or declaration or filing with any government, governmental instrumentality or court or other person or entity is required for the execution of this Agreement or the performance by it of its duties hereunder, except such as have been duly made or obtained; and

(iv) neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement nor the fulfillment of the terms hereof conflicts with or results in a breach or violation of any of the terms or provisions of, or constitutes a default under, (A) its constituting and organizational documents; (B) the terms of any material indenture, contract,

lease, mortgage, deed of trust, note, agreement or other evidence of indebtedness or other material agreement, obligation, condition, covenant or instrument to which it is a party or by which it is bound; (C) any statute applicable to it; or (D) any law, decree, order, rule or regulation applicable to it of any court or regulatory, administrative or governmental agency, body of authority or arbitration having or asserting jurisdiction over it or its properties, which, in the case of clauses (B) through (D) above, would have a material adverse effect upon the performance of its duties hereunder.

(b) The Sub-Advisor represents and warrants to the Management Company that it is a registered investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended (the “Advisers Act”).

(c) The Management Company acknowledges that it has received Part 2 of the Sub-Advisor’s Form ADV filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Sub-Advisor will provide to the Management Company an updated copy of Part 2 of its Form ADV promptly upon any amendment to such Form ADV being filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

4. Standard of Care; Liability; Indemnification.

(a) Sub-Advisor Standard of Care. Subject to the terms and provisions of this Agreement, the Management Agreements and/or the Related Agreements, as applicable, the Sub-Advisor will perform its obligations hereunder and under the Management Agreements and/or the Related Agreements in good faith with reasonable care using a degree of skill and attention no less than that which the Sub-Advisor uses with respect to comparable assets that it manages for others and, without limiting the foregoing, in a manner which the Sub-Advisor reasonably believes to be consistent with the practices and procedures followed by institutional managers of national standing relating to assets of the nature and character of the Portfolios, in each case except as expressly provided otherwise under this Agreement, the Management Agreements and/or the Related Agreements. To the extent not inconsistent with the foregoing, the Sub-Advisor will follow its customary standards, policies and procedures in performing its duties hereunder, under the Management Agreements and/or under the Related Agreements.

(b) Exculpation. To the fullest extent permitted by law, none of the Sub-Advisor, any of its affiliates, and any of their respective managers, members, principals, partners, directors, officers, shareholders, employees and agents (but shall not include the Management Company, its subsidiaries or member(s) and any managers, members, principals, partners, directors, officers, shareholders, employees and agents of the Management Company or its subsidiaries or member(s) (in their capacity as such)) (each a “Covered Person”) will be liable to the Management Company, any Member, any shareholder, partner or member thereof, any Account (or any other adviser, agent or representative thereof), or to any holder of notes, securities or other indebtedness issued by any Account (collectively, the “Management Company Related Parties”), for (i) any acts or omissions by such Covered Person arising out of or in connection with the provision of the Services hereunder; for any losses that may be sustained in the purchase, holding or sale of any security or debt obligation by any Account, or as a result of any activities of the Sub-Advisor, the Management Company or any other adviser to or agent of the Account or any other sub-advisor appointed by the Management Company to provide portfolio management services to any other delegatee of the Management Company or any other person or entity, unless it is determined ultimately by a court of competent jurisdiction, in a final nonappealable judgment, to be the result of gross negligence or to constitute fraud or willful misconduct (as interpreted under the laws of the State of Delaware) (each, a “Disabling Conduct”) on the part of such Covered Person, (ii) any mistake, gross negligence, misconduct or bad faith of any employee, broker, administrator or other agent or representative of the Sub-Advisor, provided that such employee, broker, administrator or agent was selected, engaged or retained by or on behalf of the Sub-Advisor with reasonable care, or (iii) any consequential (including loss of profit), indirect, special or punitive damages. To the extent that, at law or in equity, any Covered Person has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to any Management Company Related Party, no Covered Person acting under this Agreement shall be liable to such Management Company Related Party for its good-faith reliance on the provisions of this Agreement. The exculpations set forth in this Section 4(b) shall exculpate any Covered Person regardless of such Covered Person’s sole, comparative, joint, concurrent, or subsequent negligence.

To the fullest extent permitted by law, no Covered Person shall have any personal liability to any Management Company Related Party solely by reason of any change in U.S. federal, state or local or foreign income tax laws, or in interpretations thereof, as they apply to any such Management Company Related Party, whether the change occurs through legislative, judicial or administrative action.

Any Covered Person in its sole and absolute discretion may consult legal counsel, accountants or other advisers selected by it, and any act or omission taken, or made in good faith by such Person on behalf of the Management Company or in furtherance of the business of the Management Company in good-faith reliance on and in accordance with the advice of such counsel, accountants or other advisers shall be full justification for the act or omission, and to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, no Covered Person shall be liable to any Management Company Related Party in so acting or omitting to act if such counsel, accountants or other advisers were selected, engaged or retained with reasonable care.

(c) Indemnification. The Management Company shall and hereby does, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, indemnify and hold harmless any Covered Person from and against any and all claims, causes of action (including, but not limited to, strict liability, negligence, statutory violation, regulatory violation, breach of contract, and all other torts and claims arising under common law), demands, liabilities, costs, expenses, damages, losses, suits, proceedings, judgments, assessments, actions and other liabilities, whether judicial, administrative, investigative or otherwise, of whatever nature, known or unknown, liquidated or unliquidated, whether currently existing or accruing in the future (“Claims”), that may accrue to or be incurred by any Covered Person, or in which any Covered Person may become involved, as a party or otherwise, or with which any Covered Person may be threatened, relating to or arising out of the Services, the activities of the Management Company Related Parties, or activities undertaken in connection with the Management Company Related Parties, or otherwise relating to or arising out of this Agreement, any Management Agreement and/or the Related Documents, including amounts paid in satisfaction of judgments, in compromise or as fines or penalties, and attorneys’ fees and expenses incurred in connection with the preparation for or defense or disposition of any investigation, action, suit, arbitration or other proceeding (a “Proceeding”), whether civil or criminal (all of such Claims, amounts and expenses referred to therein are referred to collectively as “Damages”), except to the extent that it shall have been determined ultimately by a court of competent jurisdiction, in a final nonappealable judgment, that such Damages arose primarily from Disabling Conduct of such Covered Person. The termination of any Proceeding by settlement, judgment, order, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that any Damages relating to such settlement, judgment, order, conviction or plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent or otherwise relating to such Proceeding arose primarily from Disabling Conduct of any Covered Persons. Any Covered Person shall be indemnified under the terms of this Section 4(c) regardless of such Covered Person’s sole, comparative, joint, concurrent, or subsequent negligence.

Expenses (including attorneys’ fees) incurred by a Covered Person in defense or settlement of any Claim that may be subject to a right of indemnification hereunder shall be advanced by the Management Company prior to the final disposition thereof upon receipt of a written undertaking by or on behalf of the Covered Person to repay the amount advanced to the extent that it shall be determined ultimately by a court of competent jurisdiction that the Covered Person is not entitled to be indemnified hereunder. The right of any Covered Persons to the indemnification provided herein shall be cumulative of, and in addition to, any and all rights to which the Covered Person may otherwise be entitled by contract or as a matter of law or equity and shall be extended to the Covered Person’s successors, assigns and legal representatives. Any judgments against the Management Company and/or any Covered Persons in respect of which such Covered Person is entitled to indemnification shall first be satisfied from the assets of the Management Company, including Drawdowns, before such Covered Person is responsible therefor.

Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the provisions of this Section 4(c) shall not be construed so as to provide for the indemnification of any Covered Person for any liability (including liability under Federal securities laws which, under certain circumstances, impose liability even on persons that act in good faith), to the extent (but only to the extent) that such indemnification would be in violation of applicable law, but shall be construed so as to effectuate the provisions of this Section 4(c) to the fullest extent permitted by law

(d) Other Sources of Recovery etc. The indemnification rights set forth in Section 4(c) are in addition to, and shall not exclude, limit or otherwise adversely affect, any other indemnification or similar rights to which any Covered Person may be entitled. If and to the extent that other sources of recovery (including proceeds of any applicable policies of insurance or indemnification from any Person in which any Account has an investment) are available to any Covered Person, such Covered Person shall use reasonable efforts to obtain recovery from such other sources before the Company shall be required to make any payment in respect of its indemnification obligations hereunder; provided that, if such other recovery is not available without delay, the Covered Person shall be entitled to such payment by the Management Company and the Management Company shall be entitled to reimbursement out of such other recovery when and if obtained

(e) Rights of Heirs, Successors and Assigns. The indemnification rights provided by Section 4(c) shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns of each Covered Person

(f) Reliance. A Covered Person shall incur no liability to any Management Company Related Party in acting upon any signature or writing reasonably believed by him, her or it to be genuine, and may rely in good faith on a certificate signed by an officer of any Person in order to ascertain any fact with respect to such Person or within such Person's knowledge. Each Covered Person may act directly or through his, her or its agents or attorneys.

(g) Rights Under Management Agreements and Related Agreements. The Management Company will ensure that the Sub-Advisor is provided substantially similar indemnification and exculpation rights as are afforded to the Management Company in its role as portfolio manager under any future Management Agreement or Related Agreement encompassed within the Services hereunder, and it is expressly acknowledged by the Parties that the Sub-Advisor may not consent to including a Management Agreement and Related Agreements within the scope of this Agreement pursuant to Section 8 if such indemnification and exculpation rights are not reasonably acceptable to it.

5. Limitations on Employment of the Sub-Advisor; Conflicts of Interest.

(a) The services of the Sub-Advisor to the Management Company are not exclusive, and the Sub-Advisor may engage in any other business or render similar or different services to others including, without limitation, the direct or indirect sponsorship or management of other transactions, investment-based accounts or commingled pools of capital, however structured, having investment objectives similar to those of the Management Company or the Accounts. Moreover, nothing in this Agreement shall limit or restrict the right of any manager, partner, officer or employee of the Sub-Advisor to engage in any other business or to devote his or her time and attention in part to any other business, whether of a similar or dissimilar nature to the Management Company or any Account, or to receive any fees or compensation in connection therewith.

(b) So long as this Agreement or any extension, renewal or amendment of this Agreement remains in effect, the Sub-Advisor shall be the only portfolio management sub-advisor for the Management Company. The Sub-Advisor assumes no responsibility under this Agreement other than to render the services called for hereunder. It is understood that directors, officers, employees, members and managers of the Management Company are or may become interested in the Sub-Advisor and its Affiliates as directors, officers, employees, partners, stockholders, members, managers or otherwise, and that the Sub-Advisor and directors, officers, employees, partners, stockholders, members and managers of the Sub-Advisor and its Affiliates are or may become similarly interested in the Management Company as members or otherwise.

(c) The Management Company acknowledges that various potential and actual conflicts of interest may exist with respect to the Sub-Advisor as described in the Sub-Advisor's Form ADV Part 2A and as described in Appendix B hereto, and the Management Company expressly acknowledges and agrees to the provisions contained in such Appendix B, as amended from time to time with mutual consent of the Parties.

6. Termination; Survival.

(a) This Agreement may be terminated, in its entirety or with respect to any Management Agreement, at any time without payment of penalty, by the Management Company upon 30 days' prior written notice to the Sub-Advisor.

(b) This Agreement shall terminate automatically with respect to any Management Agreement on the date on which (i) such Management Agreement has been terminated (and, if required thereunder, a successor portfolio manager has been appointed and accepted) or discharged; or (ii) the Management Company is no longer acting as portfolio manager, investment manager or in a similar capacity (whether due to removal, resignation or assignment) under such Management Agreement and the Related Agreements. Upon the termination of this Agreement with respect to any Management Agreement the Management Company shall provide prompt notice thereof to the Sub-Advisor, and Appendix A hereto shall be deemed to be amended by deleting such Management Agreement and the Related Agreements related thereto.

(c) All accrued and unpaid financial and indemnification obligations with respect to any conduct or events occurring prior to the effective date of the termination of this Agreement shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

7. Cooperation with Management Company. The Sub-Advisor shall reasonably cooperate with the Management Company in connection with the Management Company's compliance with its policies and procedures relating to oversight of the Sub-Advisor. Specifically, the Sub-Advisor agrees that it will provide the Management Company with reasonable access to information relating to the performance of Sub-Advisor's obligations under this Agreement.

8. Management Agreements and Related Agreements. The Sub-Advisor's duty to provide Services in connection with any Management Agreement shall not commence until (a) Appendix A to this Agreement has been amended by mutual agreement of the Parties to include such Management Agreement and the related Account, fund and/or account and Related Agreements and (b) the Sub-Advisor acknowledges receipt of such Management Agreement and each Related Agreement. The Sub-Advisor shall not be bound to comply with any amendment, modification, supplement or waiver to any Management Agreement or any Related Agreement until it has received a copy thereof from the Management Company. No amendment, modification, supplement or waiver to any Management Agreement or Related Agreement that, when applied to the obligations and rights of the Management Company under such Management Agreement or Related Agreement, affects (i) the obligations or rights of the Sub-Advisor hereunder; (ii) the amount or priority of any fees or other amounts payable to the Sub-Advisor hereunder; or (iii) any definitions relating to the matters covered in clause (i) or (ii) above, will apply to the Sub-Advisor under this Agreement unless in each such case the Sub-Advisor has consented thereto in writing (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed unless the Sub-Advisor determines in its reasonable judgment that such amendment, modification, supplement or waiver could have a material adverse effect on the Sub-Advisor).

9. Amendments; Assignments.

(a) Neither Party may assign, pledge, grant or otherwise encumber or transfer all or any part of its rights or responsibilities under this Agreement, in whole or in part, except (i) as provided in clauses (b) and (c) of this Section 9, without the prior written consent of the other Party and (ii) in accordance with the Advisers Act and other applicable law.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this Section 9, the Sub-Advisor may not assign its rights or responsibilities under this Agreement unless (i) the Management Company consents in writing thereto and (ii) such assignment is made in accordance with the Advisers Act and other applicable law.

(c) The Sub-Advisor may, without satisfying any of the conditions of Section 9(a) other than clause (ii) thereof (so long as such assignment does not constitute an assignment within the meaning of Section 202(a)(1) of the Advisers Act), (1) assign any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement to an affiliate; provided that such affiliate (i) has demonstrated ability, whether as an entity or by its principals and employees, to professionally and competently perform duties similar to those imposed upon the Sub-Advisor pursuant to this Agreement and (ii) has the legal right and capacity to act as Sub-Advisor under this Agreement, or (2) enter into (or have its parent enter into) any consolidation or amalgamation with, or merger with or into, or transfer of all or substantially all of its assets to, another entity; provided that, at the time of such consolidation, merger, amalgamation or transfer the resulting, surviving or transferee entity assumes all the obligations of the Sub-Advisor under this Agreement generally (whether by operation of law or by contract) and the other entity is a continuation of the Sub-Advisor in another corporate or similar form and has substantially the same staff; provided, further, that the Sub-Advisor shall deliver ten (10) Business Days' prior notice to the Management Company of any assignment or combination made pursuant to this sentence. Upon the execution and delivery of any such assignment by the assignee, the Sub-Advisor will be released from further obligations pursuant to this Agreement except to the extent expressly provided herein.

10. Advisory Restrictions. This Agreement is not intended to and shall not constitute an assignment, pledge or transfer of any Management Agreement or any part thereof. It is the express intention of the parties hereto that (i) the Services are limited in scope; and (ii) this Agreement complies in all respects with all applicable (A) contractual provisions and restrictions contained in each Management Agreement and each Related Agreement and (B) laws, rules and regulations (collectively, the "Advisory Restrictions"). If any provision of this Agreement is determined to be in violation of any Advisory Restriction, then the Services to be provided under this Agreement shall automatically without action by any person or entity be limited, reduced or modified to the extent necessary and appropriate to be enforceable to the maximum extent permitted by such Advisory Restriction.

11. Records; Confidentiality.

(a) The Sub-Advisor shall maintain or cause to be maintained appropriate books of account and records relating to its services performed hereunder, and such books of account and records shall be accessible for inspection by representatives of the Management Company and its accountants and other agents at any time during normal business hours and upon

not less than three (3) Business Days' prior notice; provided, that the Sub-Advisor shall not be obligated to provide access to any non-public information if it in good faith determines that the disclosure of such information would violate any applicable law, regulation or contractual arrangement.

(b) The Sub-Advisor shall follow its customary procedures to keep confidential any and all information obtained in connection with the services rendered hereunder that is either (a) of a type that would ordinarily be considered proprietary or confidential, such as information concerning the composition of assets, rates of return, credit quality, structure or ownership of securities, or (b) designated as confidential obtained in connection with the services rendered by the Sub-Advisor hereunder and shall not disclose any such information to non-affiliated third parties except (i) with the prior written consent of the Management Company, (ii) such information as a rating agency shall reasonably request in connection with its rating of notes issued by an Account or supplying credit estimates on any obligation included in the Portfolios, (iii) in connection with establishing trading or investment accounts or otherwise in connection with effecting transactions on behalf of the Management Company or any Account for which the Management Company serves as portfolio manager, (iv) as required by (A) applicable law or (B) the rules or regulations of any self-regulating organization, body or official having jurisdiction over the Sub-Advisor or any of its affiliates, (v) to its professional advisors (including, without limitation, legal, tax and accounting advisors), (vi) such information as shall have been publicly disclosed other than in known violation of this Agreement or shall have been obtained by the Sub-Advisor on a non-confidential basis, (vii) such information as is necessary or appropriate to disclose so that the Sub-Advisor may perform its duties hereunder, (viii) as expressly permitted in the final offering memorandum or any definitive transaction documents relating to any transaction, or (ix) information relating to performance of the Portfolios as may be used by the Sub-Advisor in the ordinary course of its business. Notwithstanding the foregoing, it is agreed that the Sub-Advisor may disclose without the consent of any Person (1) that it is serving as Sub-Advisor to the Management Company and each Account, (2) the nature, aggregate principal amount and overall performance of the Portfolios, (3) the amount of earnings on the Portfolios, (4) such other information about the Management Company, the Portfolios as is customarily disclosed by Sub-Advisors to management vehicles similar to the Management Company, and (5) the United States federal income tax treatment and United States federal income tax structure of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the related documents and all materials of any kind (including opinions and other tax analyses) that are provided to them relating to such United States federal income tax treatment and United States income tax structure. This authorization to disclose the U.S. tax treatment and tax structure does not permit disclosure of information identifying the Sub-Advisor, the Management Company, the Accounts or any other party to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (except to the extent such information is relevant to U.S. tax structure or tax treatment of such transactions).

The parties unconditionally and irrevocably consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts located in the State of Texas and waive any objection with respect thereto, for the purpose of any action, suit or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby.

14. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY KNOWINGLY, VOLUNTARILY AND INTENTIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHTS IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY WITH RESPECT TO ANY LITIGATION BASED HEREON, OR ARISING OUT OF, UNDER, OR IN CONNECTION WITH, THIS AGREEMENT. Except as provided in the foregoing sentence, this Agreement and all of its provisions and conditions are for the sole and exclusive benefit of the parties to this Agreement and their successors and assigns.

19. No Partnership or Joint Venture. Nothing set forth in this Agreement shall constitute, or be construed to create, an employment relationship, a partnership or a joint venture between the parties. Except as expressly provided herein or in any other written agreement between the parties, no party has any authority, express or implied, to bind or to incur liabilities on behalf of, or in the name of, any other party.

20. Entire Agreement. ## APPENDIX B

Purchase and Sale Transactions; Brokerage

The Management Company acknowledges and agrees that the Sub-Advisor or any of its affiliates may acquire or sell obligations or securities, for its own account or for the accounts of its clients, without either requiring or precluding the acquisition or sale of such obligations or securities for the account of any Account. Such investments may be the same or different from those made by or on behalf of the Management Company or the Accounts.

Additional Activities of the Sub-Advisor

Nothing herein shall prevent the Sub-Advisor or any of its clients, its partners, its members, funds or other investment accounts managed by it or any of its affiliates, or their employees and their affiliates (collectively, the “Related Entities”), from engaging in other businesses, or from rendering services of any kind to the Management Company, its affiliates, any Account or any other Person or entity regardless of whether such business is in competition with the Management Company, its affiliates, such Account or otherwise. Without limiting the generality of the Sub-Advisor and its Related Entities may:

(a) serve as managers or directors (whether supervisory or managing), officers, employees, partners, agents, nominees or signatories for the Management Company or any affiliate thereof, or for any obligor or issuer in respect of any of the Portfolio assets or any affiliate thereof, to the extent permitted by their respective organizational documents and underlying instruments, as from time to time amended, or by any resolutions duly adopted by the Management Company, any Account, their respective affiliates or any obligor or issuer in respect of any of the Portfolio assets (or any affiliate thereof) pursuant to their respective organizational documents;

(b) receive fees for services of whatever nature rendered to the obligor or issuer in respect of any of the Portfolio Assets or any affiliate thereof;

(c) be retained to provide services unrelated to this Agreement to the Management Company, any Account or their respective affiliates and be paid therefor, on an arm’s-length basis;

(d) be a secured or unsecured creditor of, or hold a debt obligation of or equity interest in, the Management Company, any Account or any affiliate thereof or any obligor or issuer of any Portfolio asset or any affiliate thereof;

(e) sell any Portfolio asset to, or purchase or acquire any Portfolio asset from, any Account while acting in the capacity of principal or agent; provided, however, that any such sale or purchase effected by the Sub-Advisor shall be subject to applicable law and any applicable provisions of this Agreement, the related Management Agreement and Related Agreements, as applicable;

(f) underwrite, arrange, structure, originate, syndicate, act as a distributor of or make a market in any Portfolio asset;

(g) serve as a member of any “creditors’ board”, “creditors’ committee” or similar creditor group with respect to any Portfolio asset; or

(h) act as portfolio manager, portfolio manager, investment manager and/or investment adviser or sub-advisor in collateralized bond obligation vehicles, collateralized loan obligation vehicles and other similar warehousing, financing or other investment vehicles.

As a result, such individuals may possess information relating to obligors and issuers of Portfolio assets that is (a) not known to or (b) known but restricted as to its use by the individuals at the Sub-Advisor responsible for monitoring the Portfolio assets and performing the Services under this Agreement. Each of such ownership and other relationships may result in securities laws restrictions on Transactions in such securities by the Management Company and/or any Account and otherwise create conflicts of interest for the Management Company and/or any Account. The Management Company acknowledges and agrees that, in all such instances, the Sub-Advisor and its affiliates may in their discretion make investment recommendations and decisions that may be the same as or different from those made by the Management Company with respect to the investments of any Account and they have no duty, in making or managing such investments, to act in a way that is favorable to any Account.

The Management Company acknowledges that there are generally no ethical screens or information barriers between the Sub-Advisor and certain of its affiliates of the type that many firms implement to separate Persons who make investment decisions from others who might possess applicable material, non-public information that could influence such decisions. The officers or affiliates of the Sub-Advisor may possess information relating to obligors or issuers of Portfolio Assets that is not known to the individuals at the Sub-Advisor responsible for providing the Services under this Agreement. As a result, the Sub-Advisor may from time to time come into possession of material nonpublic information that limits the ability of the Sub-Advisor to effect a Transaction for the Management Company and/or any Account, and the Management Company and/or such Account’s investments may be constrained as a consequence of the Sub-Advisor’s inability to use such information for advisory purposes or otherwise to effect Transactions that otherwise may have been initiated on behalf of its clients, including the Management Company and/or such Account.

Unless the Sub-Advisor determines in its sole discretion that a Portfolio investment complies with the conflicts of interest provisions set forth in the applicable Management Agreement and Related Agreements, the Sub-Advisor will not direct any Account to acquire or sell loans or securities entered into or issued by (i) Persons of which the Sub-Advisor, any of its affiliates or any of its officers, directors or employees are directors or officers, (ii) Persons of which the Sub-Advisor or any of its respective affiliates act as principal or (iii) Persons about which the Sub-Advisor or any of its affiliates have material non-public information which the Sub-Advisor deems would prohibit it from advising as to the trading of such securities in accordance with applicable law.

It is understood that the Sub-Advisor and any of its affiliates may engage in any other business and furnish investment management and advisory services to others, including Persons which may have investment policies similar to those followed by the Management Company with respect to the Portfolio assets and which may own securities or obligations of the same class, or which are of the same type, as the Portfolio assets or other securities or obligations of the obligors or issuers of the Portfolio assets. The Sub-Advisor and its affiliates will be free, in their sole discretion, to make recommendations to others, or effect Transactions on behalf of themselves or for others, which may be the same as or different from those effected with respect to the Collateral. Nothing in this Agreement, in the Management Agreements or in the Related Agreements shall prevent the Sub-Advisor or any of its affiliates, acting either as principal or agent on behalf of others, from buying or selling, or from recommending to or directing any other account to buy or sell, at any time, securities or obligations of the same kind or class, or securities or obligations of a different kind or class of the same obligor or issuer, as those directed by the Sub-Advisor to be purchased or sold on behalf of an Account. It is understood that, to the extent permitted by applicable law, the Sub-Advisor, its Related Entities, or any of their owners, directors, managers, officers, stockholders, members, partners, partnership committee members, employees, agents or affiliates or the other Covered Persons or any member of their families or a Person or entity advised by the Sub-Advisor may have an interest in a particular transaction or in securities or obligations of the same kind or class, or securities or obligations of a different kind or class of the same issuer, as those that may be owned or acquired by an Account. The Management Company agrees that, in the course of providing the Services, the Sub-Advisor may consider its relationships with other clients (including obligors and issuers) and its affiliates.

The Management Company agrees that neither the Sub-Advisor nor any of its affiliates is under any obligation to offer any investment opportunity of which they become aware to the Management Company or any Account or to account to the Management Company or any Account for (or share with the Management Company or any Account or inform the Management Company or any Account of) any such transaction or any benefit received by them from any such transaction. The Management Company understands that the Sub-Advisor and/or its affiliates may have, for their own accounts or for the accounts of others, portfolios with substantially the same portfolio criteria as are applicable to the Accounts. Furthermore, the Sub-Advisor and/or its affiliates may make an investment on behalf of any client or on their own behalf without offering the investment opportunity or making any investment on behalf of the Management Company or any Account and, accordingly, investment opportunities may not be allocated among all such clients. The Management Company acknowledges that affirmative obligations may arise in the future, whereby the Sub-Advisor and/or its affiliates are obligated to offer certain investments to clients before or without the Sub-Advisor offering those investments to the Management Company or any Account.

The Management Company acknowledges that the Sub-Advisor and its affiliates may make and/or hold investments in an obligor's or issuer's obligations or securities that may be pari passu, senior or junior in ranking to an investment in such obligor's or issuer's obligations or securities made and/or held by the Management Company or any Account, or in which partners, security holders, members, officers, directors, agents or employees of the Sub-Advisor and its affiliates serve on boards of directors, or otherwise have ongoing relationships or otherwise have interests different from or adverse to those of the Management Company and the Accounts.

Defined Terms

For purposes of this Appendix B, the following defined terms shall have the meanings set forth below:

"Portfolio" shall mean, with respect to any Account, the assets held by or in the name of the Account or any subsidiary of the Account in respect of such Transaction, whether or not for the benefit of the related secured parties, securing the obligations of such Account.

“Transaction” shall mean any action taken by the Sub-Advisor on behalf of any Account with respect to the Portfolio, including, without limitation, (i) selecting the Portfolio assets to be acquired by the Account, (ii) investing and reinvesting the Portfolio, (iii) amending, waiving and/or taking any other action commensurate with managing the Portfolio and (iv) instructing the Account with respect to any acquisition, disposition or tender of a Portfolio asset or other assets received in respect thereof in the open market or otherwise by the Account.

We'll have to work on one. It'll be some sort of fully loaded compensation amount times an allocated percentage which will have to be reasonable.

Could we say that Actual Cost is being determined at the outset of the agreement, have a schedule as of Jan 1, 2018 and say that Actual Cost shall be as set out in that schedule and shall be paid in monthly installments

Beyond that year, termination provisions kick-in, so if there's a belief that Actual Costs have changed materially, either party could terminate and/or renegotiate for an amended agreement.

Lauren,

Does it have to be framed as reimbursement of actual costs? We'd much rather it be characterized as just an agreed upon amount between the two entities. It's not a small task and involves subjective assumptions to allocate individual employees, so as it's written, it would be creating a ton of internal work that isn't adding any value to the overall complex.

Please review –

I am writing to inform you about a development indirectly related to the Debtor's bankruptcy. Brookmont is an advisor for which Ethan Powell acts as Principal and CIO. Mr. Powell is a former Debtor employee and Chairman of the Retail Board and is in talks to purchase the investment management agreements for the Highland Fixed Income Fund and the Highland Total Return Fund (the "Funds"). Both Funds have IMAs with HCMFA, and have no direct contracts with the Debtor. However, the Debtor does receive income from HCMFA based on the provision of services for the funds managed by HCMFA, including these Funds. Although these Funds would no longer receive services from HCMLP following completion of the transaction, the Adviser does not expect the Actual Cost (as defined in the Shared Services Agreement) of the services provided to HCMFA to significantly decrease as the Adviser does not expect changes in personnel as a result of such transaction. As such, we expect fees to HCMLP to remain materially unchanged.

I will defer to Isaac and Scott on the timeline and notice to HCMLP Board. However I don't think the $178k as drafted below is accurate there wouldn't actually be a $178k drop in shared services fees based on this, which is what the paragraph bellows seems to imply. Dave, please correct me if I am wrong, but the estimate is that even though there was an estimate of $178k in shared services allocated to these funds, removing them from the platform would not create a significant change in the shared services fees HCMLP would receive since the shared services fees are largely based on resources and HCMLP would not fire anyone due to the removal of these two funds. The shares services fees would not materially change, but the allocations would probably just change to the other funds. May just need to add a sentence at the end explaining that.

Dustin – here is the memo to the Board re: assignment of sub-advised fund IMAs. This is planned to go to the Board tomorrow in board book (no approvals requested), so want to make sure you're looped in given timing below. Do you want Isaac to review the memo? Not sure of mechanics given back and forth below.

Yes, language around the calcs would need a little tweaking. I've also added a bracket on the $178k number, which was an adjusted AUM-based estimated allocation used for 15c purposes. Other changes highlighted with respect to the first paragraph.

Thanks, agreed, we can wait on any communication since there is work to do on the terms, and I think given the discussions on how shared services are calculated, he would need to be amend the language below, since this is saying the AUM is generating the fees, but it sounds like there wouldn't be a significant change in shared services fees from taking these funds off the platform. Adding Klos who can help with that language once they are ready to send to the Board.

[DRAFT]

I am writing to inform you about a development indirectly related to the Debtor's bankruptcy. Impact Shares, advisor run by Ethan Powell, a former Debtor employee and a member of the Retail Board, is in talks to purchase the investment management agreements for the Highland Fixed Income Fund and the Highland Total Return Fund. Both Funds have IMAs with HCMFA, and have no direct contracts with the Debtor. However, the Debtor does receive income from HCMFA based on the AUM managed by HCMFA. Under the shared services agreement, the Debtor received approximately $178,000 last year from HCMFA on account of the AUM of these two funds.

Impact Shares proposes to pay HCMFA $500,000 over five years for the two IMAs. Please note that neither Mr. Dondero nor any of his affiliates have any ownership in Impact Shares. The primary investor in both funds is First Foundation, an independent third party. First Foundation is the primary constituent advancing the sale as in the best interests of the two Funds' investors.

The sale is not final and remains to be formally approved by the HCMFA Board and the Funds' investors. However, we wanted to bring this to your attention now and allow you to discuss the matter with Mr. Powell if you so desire. His email address is ethanpowell@impactshares.org and I can provide additional contact details or set up a call if needed.

Thanks,

Strand Board,

I am writing in my capacity as Executive Vice President of Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors, L.P. ("HCMFA") to inform you about a development indirectly related to the Debtor's bankruptcy. Brookmont is an advisor for which Ethan Powell acts as Principal and CIO. Mr. Powell is a former Debtor employee and Chairman of the Retail Board and is in talks to purchase the investment management agreements for the Highland Fixed Income Fund and the Highland Total Return Fund (the "Funds"). Both Funds have IMAs with HCMFA and have no direct contracts with the Debtor. However, the Debtor does receive income from HCMFA based on the provision of services for the funds managed by HCMFA, including these Funds. Although these Funds would no longer receive services from HCMLP following completion of the transaction, the Adviser does not expect the Actual Cost (as defined in the Shared Services Agreement) of the services provided to HCMFA to significantly decrease as the Adviser does not expect changes in personnel as a result of such transaction. As such, we expect fees to HCMLP to remain materially unchanged.

Impact Shares proposes to pay HCMFA an annual trail payment for the two IMAs. Please note that neither Mr. Dondero nor any of his affiliates have any ownership in Brookmont. The primary investor in both funds is First Foundation, an independent third party. First Foundation is the primary constituent advancing the sale as in the best interests of the two Funds' investors.

The sale is not final and remains to be formally approved by the HCMFA Board and the Funds' investors. However, we wanted to bring this to your attention now and allow you to discuss the matter with Mr. Powell if you so desire. His email address is ethanpowell@impactshares.org and I can provide additional contact details or set up a call if needed. Attached is a memo that was provided by HCMFA to the Retail Board with a summary of the proposal and a timeline of important milestones.

Regards,

DUSTIN NORRIS

TO: The Board of Trustees of Highland Funds II (“HFII”), on behalf of Highland Fixed Income Fund (the “Fixed Income Fund”) and Highland Total Return Fund (the “Total Return Fund”, and together with the Fixed Income Fund, the “Funds”, and each, a “Fund”), each a series of HFII

FROM: Highland Capital Management Fund Advisers, L.P. (“HCMFA”, or the “Adviser”)

RE: Discussion of Assignment of Investment Advisory Contracts for the Funds to Brookmont

I. Ongoing Fund Rationalization Process

As discussed with the Board of Trustees (the “Board”) at the September 2019 and February 2020 in-person meetings and the November 7, 2019 and April 9, 2020 meetings, the Adviser has reviewed and continues to assess the open-end funds advised by it and overseen by the Board to determine what efficiencies may be gained by, including but not limited to, merging, liquidating, rebranding or changing investment advisers for certain funds. In connection with this review, the Adviser has proposed and the Board has approved the (i) liquidation of three funds (the Highland Tax-Exempt Fund, Highland Opportunistic Credit Fund, and the Highland Energy MLP Fund); (ii) the merger of Highland Long/Short Equity into Highland Merger Arbitrage Fund (ongoing); and (iii) the change in investment strategy of the Highland Long/Short Healthcare Fund to the Highland Healthcare Opportunities Fund.

Additionally, over the past year the Adviser has pursued the sale and/or assignment of the management contracts of each of the Fixed Income Fund ($191 million in net assets) and the Total Return Fund ($68 million in net assets), which are sub-advised by First Foundation Advisors (“FFA”, or the “Sub-Adviser”). The fixed income and total return strategies are not core to the Adviser’s business of providing value to both institutional and retail investors by providing access to alternatives in a range of investment vehicles and are not currently a sales focus of the NexPoint Securities, Inc. (“NSI”), the Funds’ distributor. As noted to the Board in prior meetings and pursuant to the Quarterly Report of Profitability on the Sub-Advised Funds, the Funds do not contribute meaningful profitability to the Adviser, as the Adviser pays half of the advisory fee to the Sub-Adviser and the residual fee narrowly covers the allocated costs of servicing the Funds.

II. Marketing of Investment Advisor Contracts

The Adviser proposed to assign the Funds’ investment advisory agreements (“IMAs”) to FFA since a majority of the shareholders are FFA banking clients whose votes are controlled by FFA by proxy and FFA acts as sub-adviser. In response, FFA indicated that it does not have the infrastructure in place to directly advise and provide back office services to the Funds. FFA desires to continue to sub-advise the Funds, but is not in a position to take over as investment adviser or to reorganize the Funds into a separate series trust. Therefore, FFA proposed that the Adviser consider Brookmont Capital Management, LLC (“Brookmont”) as an advisor capable of assuming the responsibilities under the IMAs.

In the first quarter 2020, the Adviser entered into discussions with Brookmont, which believes it has the appropriate experience and expertise to manage the Funds and can provide material cost savings to shareholders once the Funds are reorganized into a large series trust. The Board may also recall its prior relationship with Brookmont when it sub-advised the Highland Dividend Equity Fund. Brookmont has indicated that material cost savings are available if the Funds can be merged into shell series of the Advisers' Inner Circle III Trust ("AIC"), which is SEI's turnkey series trust solution that brings expertise to investment managers looking to compete in the mutual fund, ETF, auction fund and liquid alts marketplace. As part of the AIC, the Funds would benefit from AIC's size ($75 billion in assets), bargaining power, back office services, and associated economies of scale. The Adviser did not engage in discussions with investment advisers other than FFA and Brookmont due to the Fund and the Board's prior, positive experience with Brookmont. The Adviser believes the utilization of an adviser familiar with the Funds and the Adviser will facilitate a smooth transition of the Funds to AIC and, as noted below, material expected savings to shareholders.

III. Proposed Transaction

Subject to further diligence and Board approval, the Adviser believes it is in the best interest of the Funds to assign the Fund's IMAs to Brookmont and the Board will be asked to consider certain reorganizations that would be effected as a result of the assignment of the IMAs of the Fixed Income Fund and the Total Return Fund to Brookmont (the "Transaction"). Pursuant to the Transaction, the Board will be asked to approve (i) reorganizations of the Funds into shell series of ACI, pursuant to agreements and plans of reorganization which will provide for termination of the IMAs currently place; (iii) interim advisory agreements for the Funds; and (iv) removal of the applicable series from the registration statement of HFII following consummation of the Transaction.

Interim advisory agreements are proposed in the event that there is any Fund for which shareholder approval is not received in advance of the Transaction closing. This provision would only be expected to be utilized in the event that a Fund did not reach quorum prior to the Transaction closing, and allows continuity of management for those Funds while the remaining shareholder votes are obtained. In order to approve interim advisory agreements under Rule 15a-4(b)(2), the Board would be required to approve the interim agreement before the previous agreement is terminated or assigned and to determine that the scope and quality of services to be provided under the interim agreement will be at least equivalent to the scope and quality of services provided under the previous agreement. In addition, 15a-4(b)(2) requires that, among other conditions, compensation under the interim agreement must be no great than under the previous agreement and any compensation earned under the interim agreement must be held in escrow.

The Adviser believes that obtaining the shareholder vote for the reorganizations will be straightforward given FFA's investment discretion and voting ability over 50% and slightly less than 50% of the Total Return Fund shares and Fixed Income Fund shares, respectively.

Last, the Adviser notes that Ethan Powell, Chairman of the Board of HFII, serves as Principal and CIO of Brookmont as of May 2020. In consideration for HCMFA's assignment of the investment advisory relationship with the Funds, Brookmont has agreed to pay, in perpetuity, an annual fee to HCMFA as follows:

Net Assets of the Funds	Fee
Less than $250 million	10 basis points
$250 million - $500 million	8 basis points
More than $500 million	6 basis points

IV. Structure and 1940 Act Considerations

The Fixed Income Fund and the Total Return Fund (for purposes of this section, the “Target Funds”) are registered open-end investment companies, series of HFII and managed by HCMFA. SEI will create two new shell series of AIC into which the Funds will merge (the “Acquiring Funds”). There are no changes to the investment strategy or fees contemplated pursuant to the Transaction and the accounting survivor of each merger is expected to be the Target Fund.

Special requirements apply to the reorganizations pursuant to the Investment Company Act of 1940 (the “1940 Act”). The Target Funds and Acquiring Funds may be considered to be affiliated persons under the 1940 Act and Section 17(a) of the 1940 Act, which generally prohibits purchases or sales of securities between an investment company and its affiliated persons, due to Chairman Ethan Powell’s position with Brookmont. However, Rule 17a-8 under the 1940 Act permits reorganizations of affiliated investment companies if the conditions of the rule are satisfied. Rule 17a-8 requires, among other things, that the Board, including a majority of the Trustees of HFII who are not “interested persons” of HFII, determine that participation in the reorganization (i) is in the best interests of each Target Fund and (ii) will not result in the dilution of the interests of a Target Fund’s shareholders. In addition, approval of each reorganization is required by (a) majority of the Trustees of the Trust who are not “interested persons” of the Trust; and (b) the lesser of (x) 67% of the shares of a Target Fund present at a shareholder meeting, if the holders of more than 50% of the shares of the Target Fund are present or represented by proxy, or (y) more than 50% of the outstanding voting securities of a Target Fund (a “1940 Act Majority”).

As noted above, the Adviser is confident in its ability to obtain shareholder approval due to FFA’s investment discretion of approximately 50% of each Target Fund. Due to this level of ownership and FFA’s support of the Transaction, approval for the merger may be sought from a majority of the outstanding shares of each Target Fund and conduct by written consent in lieu of a special meeting, as permitted under HFII’s organizational documents. As such, the shareholder facing document will be a registration statement on Form N-14 (proxy/prospectus) but no solicitation will be conducted and no special meeting will be required. The Adviser believes this structure will result in material cost savings to the Target Funds.

V. Next Steps and Other Considerations

The Adviser is recommending the Transaction to the Board and the Board will be asked to take formal action at a future meeting. The Adviser notes that a conflict of interest exists in that the Adviser is recommending the Transaction to the Board but will receive a fee (described in Section III) should the Transaction be approved and consummated. Notwithstanding this conflict, and Mr. Powell's position at Brookmont, the Adviser is recommending the Transaction following its consideration of alternative options, including assigning the Funds' advisory agreements to FFA and/or liquidating the Funds, as the Adviser believes that the Transaction is in the best interests of the Funds and is a more attractive option than the other alternatives considered.

The Board must request and evaluate such information as may reasonably be necessary to make the aforementioned determinations. HCMFA proposes that the Board treat this analysis similar to the Section 15(c) analysis undertaken by the Board each year and that, in connection with the Merger, the Board request and review materials from Brookmont necessary to make such determination. In addition, as noted above with respect to the interim advisory agreements, the Board will be required to make certain findings and approvals with respect to Rule 15a-4.

V. Conclusion

This memorandum is provided for informational purposes only and no approval is requested at this time. The Board will be requested to take formal action related to the Transaction at a future in-person meeting.

Rule 17a-8 under the Investment Company Act of 1940

Rule 17a-8. Mergers of affiliated companies.

(a) Exemption of affiliated mergers. A Merger of a registered investment company (or a series thereof) and one or more other registered investment companies (or series thereof) or Eligible Unregistered Funds is exempt from sections 17(a)(1) and (2) of the Act (15 U.S.C. 80a-17(a)(1)-(2)) if:

(1) Surviving company. The Surviving Company is a registered investment company (or a series thereof).

(2) Board determinations. As to any registered investment company (or series thereof) participating in the Merger ("Merging Company"):

(i) The board of directors, including a majority of the directors who are not interested persons of the Merging Company or of any other company or series participating in the Merger, determines that:

(A) Participation in the Merger is in the best interests of the Merging Company; and

(B) The interests of the Merging Company's existing shareholders will not be diluted as a result of the Merger.

(ii) The directors have requested and evaluated such information as may reasonably be necessary to their determinations in paragraph (a)(2)(i) of this section, and have considered and given appropriate weight to all pertinent factors.

Note to paragraph (a)(2)(i): For a discussion of factors that may be relevant to the determinations in paragraph (a)(2)(i) of this section, see Investment Company Act Release No. 25666, July 18, 2002.

(iii) The directors, in making the determination in paragraph (a)(2)(i)(B) of this section, have approved procedures for the valuation of assets to be conveyed by each Eligible Unregistered Fund participating in the Merger. The approved procedures provide for the preparation of a report by an Independent Evaluator, to be considered in assessing the value of any securities (or other assets) for which market quotations are not readily available, that sets forth the fair value of each such asset as of the date of the Merger.

(iv) The determinations required in paragraph (a)(2)(i) of this section and the bases thereof, including the factors considered by the directors pursuant to paragraph (a)(2)(ii) of this section, are recorded fully in the minute books of the Merging Company.

(3) Shareholder approval. Participation in the Merger is approved by the vote of a majority of the outstanding voting securities (as provided in section 2(a)(42) of the Act (15 U.S.C. 80a-2(a)(42))) of any Merging Company that is not a Surviving Company, unless –

(i) No policy of the Merging Company that under section 13 of the Act (15 U.S.C. 80a-13) could not be changed without a vote of a majority of its outstanding voting securities, is materially different from a policy of the Surviving Company;

(ii) No advisory contract between the Merging Company and any investment adviser thereof is materially different from an advisory contract between the Surviving Company and any investment adviser thereof, except for the identity of the investment companies as a party to the contract;

(iii) Directors of the Merging Company who are not interested persons of the Merging Company and who were elected by its shareholders, will comprise a majority of the directors of the Surviving Company who are not interested persons of the Surviving Company; and

(iv) Any distribution fees (as a percentage of the fund's average net assets) authorized to be paid by the Surviving Company pursuant to a plan adopted in accordance with § 270.12b-1 are no greater than the distribution fees (as a percentage of the fund's average net assets) authorized to be paid by the Merging Company pursuant to such a plan.

(4) Board composition; independent directors.

(i) A majority of the directors are not interested persons of the Merging Company and those directors select and nominate any other disinterested directors.

(ii) Any person who acts as legal counsel for the disinterested directors is an independent legal counsel.

(5) Merger records. Any Surviving Company preserves written records that describe the Merger and its terms for six years after the Merger (and for the first two years in an easily accessible place).

(b) Definitions. For purposes of this section:

(1) Merger means the merger, consolidation, or purchase or sale of substantially all of the assets between a registered investment company (or a series thereof) and another company;

(2) Eligible Unregistered Fund means:

(ii) A common trust fund or similar fund, as described in section 3(c)(3) of the Act (15 U.S.C. 80a-3(c)(3)); or

(iii) A separate account, as described in section 2(a)(37) of the Act (15 U.S.C. 80a-2(a)(37)), that is neither registered under section 8 of the Act, nor required to be so registered;

(3) Independent Evaluator means a person who has expertise in the valuation of securities and other financial assets and who is not an interested person, as defined in section 2(a)(19) of the Act (15 U.S.C. 80a-2(a)(19)), of the Eligible Unregistered Fund or any affiliate thereof except the Merging Company; and

(4) Surviving Company means a company in which shareholders of a Merging Company will obtain an interest as a result of a Merger.

October 16, 2020

Mr. James Seery
Highland Capital Management, L.P.
300 Crescent Court, Suite 700
Dallas, TX 75201

Dear Jim:

We are writing to reiterate the concerns we have expressed about the scope and maintenance of quality of the services currently being provided by Highland Capital Management, L.P. ("HCMLP") to NexPoint Advisors, L.P. ("NexPoint") and Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors, L.P. ("HCMFA," and together with NexPoint, the "Advisors") under their respective shared services agreements (together, the "Shared Services Agreements" or "Agreements"). As you know, the Shared Services Agreements obligate HCMLP to provide a variety of investment, administrative, legal, and back-office services to the Advisors. These responsibilities on the part of HCMLP are critical to the Advisors' ability to provide top-notch advisory services to the mutual funds, closed-end funds, and other investment vehicles (collectively, the "Funds") with which they have advisory contracts.

In particular, the refusal by HCMLP to allow its employees to work on certain matters that jointly affect HCMLP and the Advisors has resulted in the Advisors incurring additional third-party costs and expenses to procure services that should rightfully be performed by HCMLP under the Shared Services Agreements. These third-party services, for which the Advisors are already compensating HCMLP under the Agreements, represent supplemental costs and expenses that the Advisors should not be obligated to pay.

Additionally, it is our understanding that all HCMLP employees will be given notice that their employment will be terminated effective as of December 31, 2020. If these employees are terminated, or are informed that they will be terminated and elect to resign, HCMLP will no longer be able to carry out its duties and obligations under the Agreements. We would thus like to request assurances from HCMLP that if elects to terminate its employees, it will work in good faith with the Advisors to put in place an orderly transition plan. Such a plan would provide for an effective transfer of services to the Advisors, seek to maximize employee retention, and permit the Advisors (or their affiliates) to hire any and all HCMLP employees, which would ensure the delivery of uninterrupted services previously provided by HCMLP under the Agreements.

Finally, we understand that HCMLP is contemplating the sale of certain assets held in several CLOs, the interests in which are also owned by the Advisors and/or the Funds advised by

NexPoint, HCMFA and/or their affiliates. The sale of such assets has the potential to negatively affect the valuation of the Funds. Specifically, a rush to sell these assets at fire sale prices could result in both the Funds and HCMLP not realizing their full value. Accordingly, we hereby request that no CLO assets be sold without prior notice to and prior consent from the Advisors.

We feel certain that our mutually shared goals are to minimize disruption and costs, to prevent the dislocation of services to the Advisors and the Funds, and to maximize returns for Funds and accounts advised by NexPoint, HCMFA, HCMLP, or any of their affiliates. We believe that through working cooperatively we can achieve these goals.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

These have not changed since BK, which given the changes in headcount you point out along with not paying insider bonus compensation, has increased the profitability of the contracts from HCMLP's perspective.

Thanks Dave, big numbers. Have these changed now that most of the people on the list are no longer employed by HCMLP, including Mark, Jim, Pogs, Trey, Parm, and many others, or are we still paying the same amounts because of the BK? The agreement specifically says we pay for dual employees, but as agreed with HCMLP.

Couple clarifications regarding amounts...Subadvisory fees for HCMFA listed below includes those fees paid to FFA for Fixed Income and Total Return. When you strip those out, "subadvisory" (which is really the expense reimbursement agreement) is $4,992,000 from HCMFA to HCMLP, not $5,438,000.

Also, not sure if worth noting, but NREA which is 100% owned by NPA pays an additional $960k per year in shared services to HCMLP. That amount is incremental to the $2,016,000 listed below.

Worth noting that these subadvisory fees were higher than the shared services fees, so need to make sure these agreements are fully understood in the context of HCMLPs termination notices for the shared services agreement. Here are the totals for the twelve months ended 6/30/20

	TTM ending 6/30/20
	Shared Services	Subadvisory Fees	Total
NPA	2,016,000	3,024,000	5,040,000

Frank,

See attached for the summary estimate you requested, rolling forward the information prepared for DSI and FTI last fall.

Notable changes from that analysis:

1. Reflects current headcount (terms removed, new hires added)
2. Bonuses – assumes no bonuses (cash or deferred) are awarded to employees by HCMLP for the 2020 performance year

Output here is roughly an annualized $9.6mm gain, primarily attributable to the front office payroll reimbursement agreements, which makes sense given the material reduction in headcount, especially at the senior level. Biggest difference between this sort of analysis and actual P&L being recorded on HCMLP's books is that on the books, HCMLP has been accruing for 2020 bonus expenses throughout the year. Please let me know if you have any comments. Thanks.

Mr. Seery,

My name is Taylor Colbert, and I've been tasked with negotiating the shared services agreement going forward.

Couple quick questions that I'm hoping you can clarify for me:

- Can you send me the most recent split proposal to help me get up to speed?
- Regarding overbilling for shared services in the past (which I understand to be $8mm-$9mm), do you anticipate that overpayment being applied first in upcoming payments?
- Are we assuming the immediate transfer of the CLOs to NexPoint at the start of the agreement?

Thanks,

Guys, I want to follow up on our call. As you know, we've been working hard to facilitate a transition of services and employees to avoid a disruption of business to the advisors and the funds. We haven't heard many specific responses since we talked on 1/13, we've been actively pushing to move to a draft agreement since 1/19, and the whole time we've been repeatedly assured that there would be no disruption in services. We've also raised the issue of overpayment, which you all have acknowledged we are. Without the underlying detail, we're not in a position to sign off on any of the calculations.

Please send the term sheet this evening.

Thanks Jack, I think I am good for now, but it may be helpful later after we get the more important transition items finalized. Just to clarify, I understand what you are asking for in payments of all past due amounts, and that you are not making any adjustments for actual employees employed today by HCMLP or for actual services provided or not provided to our advisors, but rather just charging the same amounts that have been charged since the beginning of the bankruptcy. Dave Klos and Frank walked me through that last night.

We have brought this up multiple times since November that there is a reimbursement for employees and services that no longer are being provided under the agreement. One simple example that has been communicated is the expense reimbursement for actual costs of dual employees. In those agreements, there is a list of 25 employees, and approximately 2/3 are no longer employed by HCMLP, and no updates in good faith have been made to those amounts we are reimbursing for employees no longer employed and no longer providing any services to our advisors. We are not saying this needs to be resolved now, and understand there is a proper process with the court to do that, but we have asked multiple times for support for these calculations and billings, so after we work through the term sheet it would be nice to have that info.

Feel free to call me on my direct number 972-419-4495, I'm happy to talk through anything else.

Regards,

DUSTIN NORRIS

Thanks Fred, appreciate your help. More importantly, we need to see a term sheet ASAP today. We all generally agreed to the terms of the transition plan verbally over 10 days ago, and again by email on 1/19. I understand the AR spreadsheet, but secondarily, after we get the term sheet I would like to see the detailed support for the calculations of the actual costs charged for these months for the shared services and the detail of which dual employees that we are reimbursing you for under the payroll reimbursement agreements for NexPoint Advisors and Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors, however this is all secondary to getting the term sheet in the form we have agreed to so we can ensure a proper transition of all applicable services.

Jack,
Per Dustin's email below, he is requesting underlying detail underpinning the calculations related to the demand. As time is of the essence and I believe you were principally involved in building/reconciling the schedule, I'm hoping you can assist with coordinating with Dustin for the support that HCMLP is able to provide in the context of this request. Please let me know asap.

Guys, I want to follow up on our call. As you know, we've been working hard to facilitate a transition of services and employees to avoid a disruption of business to the advisors and the funds. We haven't heard many specific responses since we talked on 1/13, we've been actively pushing to move to a draft agreement since 1/19, and the whole time we've been repeatedly assured that there would be no disruption in services. We've also raised the issue of overpayment, which you all have acknowledged we are. Without the underlying detail, we're not in a position to sign off on any of the calculations.

Please send the term sheet this evening.

Also, we have been talking about this for several weeks, and we have been given assurances there would be no interruption of services, and now we are given two days' notice of an abrupt stop to all services. We also have been asking for an agreement, or even who will be drafting the agreement, for 10 days, with no response on your end. I would assume that term sheet will be sent today?

Separately (but relatedly), Wilmer Hale will be circulating a draft term sheet for the parties to finalize and execute to get everyone through February while a definitive document is finalized.

Subject: Call with JP, Frank, and Klos

To: Dustin Norris <norris.dustin@gmail.com>

Notes to self regarding the conversation noted below. This is all true and accurate based on everything I remember. The overall tone was not friendly, it was adversarial from the beginning as JP dove in with a very adversarial tone and a take it or leave it or lose your business approach, and there was a contentious back and forth throughout.

I had a call with JP, Frank, and Klos today, 1/27 at 4:45pm to discuss the transition of shared services and in particular the new development in our negotiations for an orderly transition of services where they are demanding payment of various amounts from all Jim related entities or they will cease services on 1/29. This was the first time payment of these amounts was mentioned, and after many assurance that they wouldn't pull access to anything, this was sent today.

The call started out with JP saying that these amounts had to be paid and that there was no other option, and that they would like to walk through the spreadsheet with me so that I had a chance to make sure I understood the numbers and that they were correct. This is the first time these amounts had been discussed in ANY of our conversations.

He turned the call over to Klos who then started to walk though the numbers on tab 2. He mentioned that the numbers being requested were the amounts owed under the shared services agreements and expense reimbursement agreements. I stopped him and asked before we proceeded for him to confirm that these were in fact the amounts that we owe under the agreements are for actual services provided. He said they were, and I then requested additional clarification in regards to the amounts owed under the NPA and HCMFA agreements, and he said they were, and i again pushed on the specifics of the agreements , which he had previously acknowledged we are overpaying for reimbursement of employees who no longer work for HCMLP and in regards to the services we receive form HCMLP that we are paying a reimbursement +5%, including legal services for which we have not received any legal or litigation support from HCMLP in months. He acknowledged that the amounts did not include the actual reimbursements in either of those cases but were the same amounts that had been billed each month in the past, so no change to the previous billing. I called them all out on this, that wasn't consistent with the agreements, and they pushed back and then forcefully yelled back that this isn't the time to litigate the agreements. I agreed and just stated that the agreements

should be paid as they are stated and again referred to the schedule noted in the shared services agreement, and they got hostile, all of them, and I then ask Frank if he had actually read the agreements. I reminded him that he was the signer on behalf of NPA and HCMFA, but also countersigned for HCMLP. He said he had read the agreements, but not since they were first drafted. That would have been about three years ago.

We agreed to not dive into any more of the specifics of the interpretation of agreements, but they all acknowledged that they all agreed we had been overpaying for the agreements, with Frank emphasizing that they all agree these aren't the proper amounts, they just couldn't change it from what was being paid before. I reminded Frank that the only people paying the amounts each month had been Frank and Dave, that no one else that I know of has the ability to process the payments. Frank said they have known that these amounts were overpayments for over a year and tried to update them, but couldn't due to the automatic stay. I pressed him on this as I was not aware at all of this fact. He said they had discussed with inside and outside counsel and there was nothing they could do now due to the automatic Stay. I let him know I knew nothing about these agreements and the overpayments until DC and myself discovered these a couple months ago as we were looking at the agreements and he said he did know and had actually created the calculation of the overpayment amounts. I reiterated my view that we aren't trying to litigate what is owed, but to actually just have the calculations done appropriately as defined by the agreement, but Frank hadn't even read the agreements since they were first drafted.

I then asked them if they have any backup plans if Jim doesn't pay. Frank asked what I meant, and I clarified and asked if they have any backup plans to provide any services to the funds, and if he as principal financial officer of the funds and CFO of the retail advisors had any plans to provide the needed services. (As an aside, in previous conversation, there was always an assurance given that the services would transition smoothly, and that Seery and Fred had no intention of cutting things off or disrupting our business, including a direct conversation with Fred last week on this, they also in other conversation had assured us that even if there was an interim period, Seery would have no issue allowing people to continue providing services- that was in discussion within the last week). Frank said there is no backup plan, and that Jim has no leverage and just has to pay. JP stepped in and said if payment isn't received by Friday Seery said he will cut off all access to the servers and emails and will shut off all access to the building. He repeated that Jim has no negotiating power here. I asked them again what the backup plan is, if they will just stop performing services on Feb 1 and then just work until their already determined last day on Feb 19 and then collect their severance check?!? Frank reiterated there is no other option now, but he guesses HCMLP employees could quit if Jim would hire them and pay them but we still wouldn't have access to our files, emails, and domains. I pointed to the books and records provisions of the shared services agreement, but JP just said they could just print out the papers and deliver them several days later, or we would have to go to the court to enforce it, and that would be of no use to us and would be too late to keep our business going if we don't have any access to the servers and email, and months later after going to the court things would be ruined (I don't think he used the word ruined, but it was something similar, that the businesses would not be functional any longer)

We then talked again about the amounts, and they stressed that Jim needed to get things paid, and then Frank came back in, and said just for the record, he had been working for a long time on a backup plan, over a year to get Jim to set up another server, so the earlier discussion about him not having a backup plan wasn't accurate, but he said that Jim refused on numerous occasions to set up another server over the past year, and so now we find ourselves in this position, with only one option for Jim, but if he would have listened to Frank and set up another server things could have been transitioned over prior to this termination date. He said that the President of the RIA, Jim, had said no, so there was nothing he could do.

In all of this, it seems this was the plan all along - to wait until the last minute and then cut things off. They say they have been trying for a long time to set up a smooth transfer of services, however they never engaged with anyone other than Jim, and that wasn't even until the transition plan was sent to him on December 31. There were notes in the spreadsheet they sent that day that made it look like it was asking for the retail advisors to pay for the D&O insurance for Seery and the HCMLP Board, and so I was told it was dismissed by Jim and his attorneys. I hadn't seen the plan but Jim had and he said they couldn't believe they would even ask for that. When I finally for the first time so the term sheet for the transition plan, I saw the notes he was referring to, and was able to confirm that they were just placed in the wrong column. We were then able to quickly come to an agreement on the fee splitting, and then just needed to draft an agreement. That was about 10 days ago, and have not even seen a term sheet yet. and I asked almost daily who they wanted to draft the agreement, our side or their side and they did not give a response for many days, which now seems like they intentionally delayed things until the very end, never saying they planned to pull the services, until they actually sent the email today, despite many times saying that wasn't the plan at all.

Guys, I want to follow up on our call. As you know, we've been working hard to facilitate a transition of services and employees to avoid a disruption of business to the advisors and the funds. We haven't heard many specific responses since we talked on 1/13, we've been actively pushing to move to a draft agreement since 1/19, and the whole time we've been repeatedly assured that there would be no disruption in services. We've also raised the issue of overpayment, which you all have acknowledged we are. Without the underlying detail, we're not in a position to sign off on any of the calculations.

Please send the term sheet this evening.

Mr. Norris:

Without taking the time to refute each of the unfounded allegations you attempt to splash about in your emails below, suffice it to say that HCMLP disagrees with the particulars and the overall substance of each and every one.

As you are aware, we have attempted for MONTHS to try to put a transition arrangement together with the HCMLP employees that are to transfer to another entity and the Fund's Advisors. As you are further aware, Mr. Dondero, your portfolio manager and the owner and sole person controlling the advisors (and effectively the Funds), has refused to engage or permit others to do so on his behalf. He has further stated on an open call that he would make any transfer "difficult" and is apparently keeping to that path.

You, the Funds' Board, the advisors and Mr. Dondero have been aware of the termination of the shared service agreements for 60 days. You, the advisors, and Mr. Dondero (and we expect that you advised the Funds' Board) are also aware that the advisors are in default to HCMLP on substantial notes and payments under the agreements subject to termination. Instead of planning and working towards a transition, the Funds, the advisors and Mr. Dondero have done nothing save bringing frivolous actions in the Bankruptcy Court, attempting to upset the HCMLP plan process, and trying to create absolutely frivolous claims in an absurd attempt to counter the legitimate debts owed to HCMLP.

I suggest you and your team focus on the term sheet that you will receive shortly, the payments that are owed and must be paid, and the necessary conditions to a transition before the agreements terminate.

My team is focused on assuring that we can meet the terms of the term sheet to facilitate payment and continued service while we complete the transition. I am available to discuss this note.

Best. Jim

Thanks Fred, appreciate your help. More importantly, we need to see a term sheet ASAP today. We all generally agreed to the terms of the transition plan verbally over 10 days ago, and again by email on 1/19. I understand the AR spreadsheet, but secondarily, after we get the term sheet I would like to see the detailed support for the calculations of the actual costs charged for these months for the shared services and the detail of which dual employees that we are reimbursing you for under the payroll reimbursement agreements for NexPoint Advisors and Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors, however this is all secondary to getting the term sheet in the form we have agreed to so we can ensure a proper transition of all applicable services.

3 CROSS-EXAMINATION

4 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

5 Q Mr. Klos, you and I have met in deposition a couple of 6 times but not in person, so good afternoon.

7 A Good afternoon.

8 Q I guess I'm a little bit conceptually perplexed. Is it
9 your understanding of these contracts that if every single 10 Highland employee quit, that the advisors would still have 11 to keep paying under the payroll reimbursement and shared 12 service agreements?

13 A If every single employee of Highland quit, would they 14 still have to continue paying?

15 Q Yeah.

16 A I don't know. I don't know that practically that is 17 ever a possibility.

18 Q But if it happened, is it your understanding as the 19 controller and CFO and having administered these contracts
20 for years that my clients would still have to be paying 21 every month?

22 A I don't know as a legal matter. As a practical matter,
23 no.

24 Q Okay. Now, just go a few background things. You're a
25 CPA, correct?

1 A Yes.

2 Q Your -- you consider yourself a professional, correct?

3 A Yes.

4 Q You've never been disciplined as an accountant or CPA,
5 correct?

6 A Correct.

7 Q You pride yourself in doing a professional job for your
8 employer, correct?

9 A Yes, I pride -- I take pride in my job.

10 Q Okay. Would you not deceive anyone with your work
11 product or your professionalism, would you not
12 intentionally?

13 A Never intentionally, no.

14 Q Okay. You wouldn't assist someone else intentionally
15 with deceiving the IRS or deceiving contract counterparties,
16 would you?

17 A No. No.

18 Q You wouldn't deceive intentionally any auditor, would 19 you?

20 A No.

21 Q Okay. You wouldn't deceive intentionally Mr.
22 Waterhouse your boss back then, would you?

23 A No.

24 Q Or FTI or the unsecured creditor's committee, would
25 you?

1 A No, we do things in good faith.

2 Q Or DSI too, right?

3 A Correct.

4 Q So you consider yourself as an ethical professional
5 accountant now CFO.

6 A Yes, I consider myself ethical, yes.

7 Q Before I get into the meat of the matter, there's a
8 couple of things I thought I heard you say that we can 9 clarify. I thought I heard you say that the advisors had 10 not been paying for investment advice services before the 11 subadvisory agreements; isn't that correct?

12 A Yes, that's correct I believe, yeah.

13 Q Yeah. I think you said that the advisors were paying 14 under shared services agreements, but there was no similar 15 front office investment reimbursement agreement, correct?

16 A Correct. There was no front office equivalent.

17 Q Okay. How do you know that?

18 A I was a part of the corporate team throughout the 19 period from the very beginning of NexPoint and 20 (indiscernible) existence and wasn't aware of such an 21 agreement or certainly any amount paid under such
22 agreements.

23 Q Would you please turn to your Exhibit 29? It's the --
24 yeah, it's the -- one of the thick binders.

25 Let me know when you're there, sir. This has been

1 admitted into evidence. This is the shared services
2 agreement with NexPoint going back to 2013. Do you see
3 that, sir?

4 A Yes.

5 Q And on the third page, Section 2.01 if you'll flip with 6 me there, that's the services that are contracted for and 7 being paid for, correct?

8 A I'll take your word for it, but it appears so, yes.

9 Q Well, yes, I mean, we can all read better. It talks
10 about the services more fully, described more fully on Annex
11 A, do you see that, sir? And if we please look to Annex A 12 which is at the end, it's going to be page -- it's going to 13 end with Bates label 625.

14 A Sorry --

15 Q Bottom of 625, yeah.

16 A -- 665. I'm with you.

17 Q See the very bottom there it says investments,
18 investment research and recommendations on an ad hoc basis
19 as requested. Do you see that?

20 A Yes, I do see that.

21 Q Isn't that front office services?

22 A It depends on your definition of front office services.
23 It doesn't look to me like advisory services, but it's -- it
24 is a reference to front office.

25 Q Okay. And do we have to look through the same one for

1 HCMFA or do you agree that there's a similar protegent price
2 in the --

3 A If -- I would take your representation if you said it
4 was.

5 Q Did you look -- when was the last time, if ever, you
6 looked at this original shared services agreement with
7 NexPoint?

8 A I don't recall specifically.

9 Q Would it have been in the last few weeks?

10 A I'm certain I've looked at it in the context of this --
11 of today's events.

12 Q Is it possible that you made a mistake when you
13 testified a little bit ago to the five years the advisors
14 were not paying for investment services to Highland?

15 A No, I don't think I misspoke on that.

16 Q Because you said that there was no separate contract
17 for investment services, right?

18 A Correct, there was no -- there was none.

19 Q But we see at least these contracts that just -- that 20 investment services were actually being paid for, just not 21 by a separate contract.

22 A We see a reference to investment research and 23 recommendations on an ad hoc basis, as requested.

24 Q And I had another question for you that I was confused
25 about.

1 MR. RUKAVINA: Mr. Bergham, if you'll pull up your
2 deposition or not your deposition, Mr. Klos' deposition.

3 Q Do you remember me deposing you on March 14th?

4 A Yes, sir. I don't remember the day, but I assume 5 that's right.

6 Q And you testified earlier today that when Mr. Dondero
7 told you $5 million from HCMFA and $6 million for NexPoint
8 because of cash needs at Highland and because they wanted
9 deductions at the advisors, right?

10 A I don't know that those were my specific words.

11 Q What did you testify earlier today about how the 5 and 12 $6 million were arrived at?

13 A I don't specifically remember my testimony but that
14 certainly those numbers originated from Mr. Dondero.

15 Q Okay. Well, let's look at how you answered my question
16 less than a month ago, beginning on the bottom of page 10.
17 Can you see, Mr. Klos?

18 MR. MORRIS: Objection, Your Honor, there's 19 nothing to impeach. Why is he going to the deposition
20 testimony?

21 THE COURT: It doesn't seem like he's done
22 anything to impeach yet?

23 MR. RUKAVINA: Of course he does. Your Honor,
24 this morning he testified that Dondero told him to make the 25 numbers 6 million and 5 million because Highland needed cash

1 and the advisors needed tax deductions. When I asked him
2 that question a month ago, you'll see he says he's
3 speculating. I asked him. I asked him, why do you think
4 it's 5 and 6 and he says I'm speculating. So, yes, I'm 5 impeaching him.

6 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

7 Q Are you -- or, Mr. Klos, let's ask it this way.

8 Do you have personal knowledge as to how Mr. Dondero
9 arrived at the 5 and $6 million numbers he gave you for his
10 analysis?

11 A These are two different questions, but.

12 THE COURT: Are we moving on from the other
13 question?

14 MR. MORRIS: No, Mr. Klos is with Mr. Rukavina, 15 they're doing fine.

16 THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead.

17 MR. RUKAVINA: Okay. So do you want to go a page
18 higher. Go up a page higher, Mr. Bergham, page 9.

19 Q So you see there in line 16 to 18, we're talking about 20 the two payroll reimbursement agreements. Do you see that,
21 Mr. Klos?

22 MR. MORRIS: I'm still objecting. There's no --
23 nothing to impeach.

24 MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, I haven't shown him yet
25 what there is to impeach because again a month ago he

1 testified that he would be speculating if -- to determine
2 how the 5 and $6 million numbers were arrived at. This
3 morning he testified that Dondero told him at a meeting with 4 Mr. Waterhouse and others that Highland needed money and
5 that the advisors needed tax deductions. That is -- I'm 6 allowed to impeach him if he didn't -- if a month ago he's 7 saying he's speculating and today he's saying that's what
8 Dondero told him.

9 MR. MORRIS: Your Honor, if I may there's two
10 different questions. One is, where did the number come
11 from, the other, how was it arrived at. Mr. Klos testified
12 unequivocally that the numbers came from Mr. Dondero, and if 13 he wants to ask him the question do you know how they were 14 calculated, he should ask him the question. There's nothing
15 to impeach.

16 MR. RUKAVINA: That's fine.

17 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

18 Q Do you know how the numbers were calculated?

19 A I don't know where Mr. Dondero -- I would be 20 speculating as to --

21 Q Okay.

22 A -- whether -- as to where Mr. Dondero came up with 23 those numbers. I'm not speculating that the numbers came 24 from Mr. Dondero.

25 Q I understand. So if this morning, if I heard you or

1 someone heard you say that Mr. Dondero told you it was 5 and 2 6 million because of the tax deductions and cashal (ph)
3 needs, you would have been speculating if that's what you
4 testified?

5 A Again, I think -- I don't think that's correct as you
6 characterized.

7 Q Let's just be very clear because this is very
8 important. Right now, you're telling me that you do not 9 know how Mr. Dondero arrived at the $5 million number for 10 HCMFA, true or false?

11 A How Mr. Dondero arrived at the number, no, I don't. I
12 would be speculating.

13 Q Okay. And the same question for NexPoint of $6
14 million. Do you know how Mr. Dondero arrived at that 15 number?

16 A Same answer, not specifically, no.

17 Q Okay. And we'll talk more about your December 2020
18 analysis. I think you testified, correct me if I'm wrong,
19 that Mr. Waterhouse told you to use the current head count,
20 correct?

21 A Sorry, just to be clear on the time frame.

22 Q Yeah, let's --

23 A On December of 2020?

24 Q Yes, sir, we'll -- we can just to refresh your --
25 pardon, to refresh your recollection it's in my exhibit

1 binder, my binders are smaller.

2 MR. RUKAVINA: Which one -- the December analysis.

3 MR. BERGHAM: Double C.

4 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

5 Q It's Q, Mr. Klos.

6 A Q?

7 Q Yes.

8 A Yes, I'm there.

9 Q Okay. So Q, this is the cover e-mail from you to Mr.
10 Waterhouse and you attach at least the first page of an 11 Excel spreadsheet that you PDF'd, correct?

12 A I attached the PDF.

13 Q Yeah. So I'm -- that's what I'm asking you about.
14 When you testified earlier about this, you said that Mr.
15 Waterhouse told you to use current head count, correct?

16 A Correct. Yeah, then current head count.

17 Q Then current.

18 And you said that Mr. Waterhouse told you to assume no
19 bonuses, correct?

20 A Correct.

21 Q And you said that Mr. Waterhouse told you to use the 22 same allocations as in the contracts, correct?

23 A No. No, I did not.

24 Q Okay. So did he tell you anything about the 25 allocations?

1 A We have to be careful with allocations, two different
2 things. The allocations that I testified to not being
3 adjusted were the allocations that were given to the UCC,
4 not the allocations from the PRAs.

5 Q So when you created Exhibit Q and we'll look at the
6 Excel spreadsheet, if necessary, what allocations did you
7 use?

8 A The same percentages that had been part of the previous
9 year analysis for the UCC, to the best of my recollection.

10 Q Okay. Is that when you said that you did a goalpost
11 here and a goalpost there and you took an average?

12 A Correct.

13 Q Okay. So just to be clear again, Exhibit Q it is -- it
14 was your good faith analysis, at least as of December 2019,
15 regarding the percentages.

16 A You said 2019.

17 Q Okay. Exhibit Q you created in December 2020, correct?

18 A Exhibit Q --

19 Q Yeah.

20 A -- yes.

21 Q But you used the percentage allocations from your 22 December 2019 analysis that you gave to FTI, correct?

23 A Correct with a small caveat in that there had been new 24 employees that had come on since then. So obviously they 25 didn't have a percentage in the original because they didn't

1 exist for purposes of that analysis. And then in the '20,
2 you know, percentages were added for those people.

3 Q I just want to make sure again that Judge Jernigan
4 understands when we talk about Exhibit Q some more, that the
5 percentage allocations you used were not the ones from May 6 2018, but the ones from December 2019 done in conjunction
7 with Evers at Highland and given to the committee and FTI.

8 A Yes, I believe that's correct.

9 Q Okay. Thank you.

10 Exhibit A, please, that's one of the payroll
11 reimbursement agreements you have it in front of you and go
12 to the last page which are the employee allocations.

13 A Okay. I'm there.

14 Q Are you saying, sir, that you pulled these percentage
15 allocations out of thin air?

16 A I wouldn't say I pulled them out of thin air.

17 Q So did you apply any logic and did you at least attempt 18 to try to get a reasonable estimate?

19 A Yes, I applied some logic.

20 Q Okay. I think we established that it's quite 21 subjective to determine how much an employee may work for an
22 advisor, but that even though it's very subjective you tried
23 in good faith to find a reasonable estimate whenever you
24 prepared these percentage allocations, correct?

25 A I think the main purpose of this analysis was to get

1 back to the numbers that we already had and the percentages
2 on the page are -- were at the time not completely
3 unreasonable. And to take an easier example, if I can find
4 one.

5 Asanji Gulati (ph), for example, who's at a hundred
6 percent for HCMFA, there's a logic to that, in that he was 7 charged with a single fund that was managed by HCMFA hence
8 he's a hundred percent.

9 Everybody who's not a hundred percent or zero, it's a
10 lot more subjective.

11 Q Sir, but even though it's objective, again you
12 established that you in good faith and employing your skill
13 and expertise tried to find a reasonable estimate, correct?

14 A I tried to find a reasonable estimate that would also 15 validate the outcome that was already known.

16 Q Sure. Because you had to divide a number given to you
17 by Mr. Dondero by a certain amount of employees, right?

18 A Yes.

19 Q And then you had to use these, you had to calculate the 20 percentages with those two metrics already known, correct?

21 A I don't know that I had to do anything, but that was 22 the approach that was taken.

23 Q That's what you did. You were given here's the number,
24 whatever it is per month or per year, here's the employees,
25 now please, Mr. Klos, calculate the percentages. That's

1 what you were told to do, correct?

2 A I wouldn't put it that way. I was told here's the
3 number.

4 Q Did you pull this list of employees or did somebody
5 give you the list of employees?

6 A I believe I would've pulled that. I might have 7 verified it with somebody.

8 Q I didn't hear you. Did you pull it or just verify it?

9 A I believe I pulled it.

10 Q Okay.

11 A If -- I may have, you know, I may have checked with 12 somebody but I don't recall that specifically. I believe I
13 probably would have pulled this list.

14 Q Okay. So not only did you try to apply some analysis
15 to the percentage allocations, you actually picked the 25
16 employees here?

17 A Again, picked is the wrong word, these were the 18 Highland --

19 Q You knew that these were employees --

20 A -- Investment professionals.

21 Q -- that were working --

22 MR. MORRIS: Excuse me.

23 Q -- as Highland advisors.

24 MR. MORRIS: If he could allow the witness to 25 finish his answer.

1 THE COURT: Yeah, he was in the middle of an
2 answer, go ahead.

3 THE WITNESS: Sorry, could you -- I lost my train
4 of thought.

5 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

6 Q I was asking, did you pick these 25 employees?

7 A Oh, yes. And what I was saying was, these were the 8 employees of HCMLP so this wasn't like a subset, these were 9 the front office professionals at HCMLP at the time.

10 Q Got it. This was the universe of front office
11 professionals?

12 A Yes, to the best of my recollection.

13 Q Okay.

14 A Yes.

15 Q So we've established that Mr. Dondero picked the 16 resulting number that he wanted. We've established that you
17 picked the front office professionals --

18 A I didn't pick the front office professionals. The 19 front office professionals were who they were.

20 Q Sir, there's no subjectivity in identifying these 21 employees, correct?

22 A I don't believe there was, no.

23 Q Okay. The subjectivity goes to the allocation
24 percentages and you already testified about that, correct?

25 A Correct.

1 Q Okay.

2 A And I would point out there is additional subjectivity
3 in the analysis beyond just the percentages. So I should 4 make that point.

5 Q Well, let's make that. Let's talk about that. Let's
6 go to Exhibit J please.

7 A Okay. I'm there.

8 Q This is -- you might need to read several pages here to 9 refresh your memory. I'm going to ask you about your e-mail
10 from January 3rd, 2018 at 10:28 a.m. where you highlight
11 certain language. Do you need to read that, sir?

12 A No, you can ask the question and I'll do my best.

13 Q Okay. Well, do you remember -- I'll represent to you
14 that you highlighted that language, do you remember that, do
15 you have any reason to disagree with that?

16 A No reason to disagree with that.

17 Q Okay. And is it fair to say that here you were taking 18 a form, a contract and talking to others about language
19 you'd like to remove from that form contract as you prepared
20 a new search service agreement?

21 A This I'm not sure.

22 Q Well, if you read above, sir, it says, "is there a way
23 to pare back the language in Section 2.03? I highlighted 24 the sections below, that I prefer to exclude or modify as 25 this looks like we're just creating work that will certainly

1 slip through the cracks." You wrote that, right?

2 A Yes.

3 Q So you were suggesting to Evers that the highlighted
4 language down there be removed, correct?

5 A It does appear that's what I'm --

6 Q Okay.

7 A -- identifying.

8 Q And if we read the first highlighted part it says, "the 9 name, location, and such other matters as the parties desire
10 to reflect with respect to each shared employee shall be 11 identified on the books and records of each of the 12 management company and the staff and services provider,
13 which may be amended in writing from time to time by the 14 parties to add or remove any shared employee to reflect the 15 employment or lack thereof of such employee."

16 Do you remember -- did I read that correctly?

17 A Yes.

18 Q And why were you asking that that language be removed?

19 A Because all -- this is accomplishing -- the language
20 itself is accomplishing nothing for the agreement. From my 21 perspective, again, this is all just creating internal work
22 for no value to the overall complex. So it seems 23 unnecessary. It seemed unnecessary to me in my review.

24 Q Here you're referring to the shared services
25 agreements, correct?

1 A It appears so.

2 Q Because it talks about shared employee and management
3 company, right?

4 A Well not because it talks about shared -- I'm basing
5 that mainly on the fact that it's -- we're referring the 6 NREA and NPA SS agreements and the subject less about
7 management company and staff and services provider.

8 Q And ultimately as we determined and as the contracts
9 read the shared service agreements with the advisors were 10 flat monthly fee agreements, correct?

11 A The shared service -- in respect to NREA and NPA.

12 Q Yeah.

13 A Yes.

14 Q Now, if we go to Exhibit K you discussed this some with 15 Mr. Morris. This is your communication with Ms. -- and I
16 apologize because of my accent, but Ms. Fedford (ph) --

17 A Uh-huh.

18 Q -- that's just an impossible word for me to pronounce.
19 And this led up to the payroll reimbursement agreements,
20 correct?

21 A Yes, this is just a few days before it was executed.

22 Q Okay. So similar to the e-mail we just looked at for 23 the shared services agreement, on April 17th, 2018 at 10:48,
24 you write, "Lauren, does it have to be framed as 25 reimbursement of actual costs?" Are you there, sir?

1 A Sorry.

2 Q No problem, it's my fault. It's Bates labeled bottom
3 400.

4 A I'm with you, the 10:48 e-mail?

5 Q Yes, sir. "Does it have to be framed as reimbursement
6 of actual costs? We'd much rather it be characterized as 7 just an agreed upon amount between the two entities. It's 8 not a small task and involves subjective assumptions to 9 allocate individual employees. So as it's written, it would 10 be creating a ton of internal work that isn't adding any 11 value to the overall complex." You wrote that to her,
12 right?

13 A I did.

14 Q Okay. And now she -- and she's an officer of the 15 advisors, right?

16 A I believe so at the time.

17 Q Yeah. And she writes back to you, "I'm open to 18 changing from definition of actual costs but my understand"
19 -- and I apologize, apparently, she's writing very poorly --
20 "but my understand from Fox was that there needs to be some 21 method of determining the amounts, per counsel, treating 22 this as a reimbursement is important, however." She wrote
23 that, right?

24 A She did.

25 Q Okay. So you made requests from her to change the --

1 or negotiate the contract and she basically rejected your
2 proposal, correct?

3 MR. MORRIS: Objection to the -- Your Honor, he 4 should use the whole e-mail which we put in front of the 5 witness because she -- he actually has her answer. If you'd
6 give me just one second, I can tell you what the exhibit
7 number is.

8 MR. BERGHAM: It is the whole thing.

9 MR. RUKAVINA: This is the whole thing.

10 MR. MORRIS: It's not. Give me one moment.

11 MR. RUKAVINA: If he wants to read a
12 (indiscernible) optional completeness, this is the e-mail
13 and I'm asking a very limited question which is, he made a
14 request and she, the contractual counterparty, rejected it.

15 MR. MORRIS: Hold on one second.

16 MR. RUKAVINA: This e-mail's been admitted into 17 evidence anyway.

18 MR. MORRIS: You go right ahead; I'll do it on 19 redirect.

20 MR. RUKAVINA: Okay.

21 THE COURT: Continue.

22 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

23 Q Mr. -- you made a suggestion to Ms. Fedford and she 24 rejected it, correct?

25 MR. MORRIS: Objection to the form of the

1 question.

2 THE COURT: To the form of the question?

3 Overruled. I mean he can answer what he thinks the answer
4 is.

5 THE WITNESS: I don't think this is a rejection.
6 She's -- to me it's a continuation of the discussion.

7 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

8 Q Okay. You say, we'd much rather it be characterized as 9 just an agreed upon amount between the two entities. You
10 wrote that, right?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And she wrote back saying basically this needs to be 13 treated as a reimbursement, didn't she?

14 A She said treating this as a reimbursement is important,
15 however.

16 Q And ultimately it was treated as a reimbursement,
17 correct?

18 A No.

19 Q So you're saying that the payroll reimbursement
20 agreements are not reimbursement?

21 A I'm saying the -- no, what I'm saying is that the 22 payroll reimbursements, are the amount for those agreements
23 is C-A-C actual cost, which is a defined term at a fixed
24 amount per month.

25 Q Unless it's changed, correct?

1 A Correct, yeah, with the agreement of the two parties.

2 Q Okay. And, in fact, you respond back then to Ms.

3 Fedford, "could we say that actual costs is being determined

4 at the outset of the agreement, have a schedule as of

5 January 1, 2018 instead of actual costs shall be as set out

6 in that schedule and shall be made in monthly installments

7 for the term of the agreement, that way the exercise is only

8 performed once." You wrote that, right?

9 A I did.

10 Q Okay. And was that ultimately your understanding as to 11 what happened, did it work itself into the agreement?

12 A It did through that definition of actual costs.

13 Q And then you write, "beyond that year, termination
14 provisions kick in, so there's a belief that the actual
15 costs have changed materially, either party could terminate
16 and/or renegotiate for an amended agreement. You wrote
17 that, right?

18 A I wrote that.

19 Q Okay. And did that concept also work itself into the 20 agreement?

21 A I believe so. It may have already been in there, I
22 don't recall. So I don't know if this was my addition or if 23 it was something that was already in there.

24 Q Okay.

25 A But the concept ended up there.

1 Q That if either party had a problem with amounts being
2 charged or paid they could terminate or renegotiate,
3 correct?

4 A I don't recall specifically what the agreement says.

5 Q Then Ms. Fedford writes back, "I think it's workable.
6 Do you have a methodology for the outset determination?"

7 What did you understand she meant by outset
8 determination?

9 A Outset determination I have to assume is a reference to 10 my e-mail where I'm saying a schedule as of January 1st, so
11 a schedule.

12 Q That's how -- that's what you assumed back then what 13 she meant, right?

14 A Yes, I believe so.

15 Q And you write back, "will have to work on one. It'll 16 be so sort of fully loaded compensation amount times an 17 allocated percentage which will have to be reasonable." You
18 wrote that, right?

19 A Uh-huh.

20 Q And I'm sorry, you've got to say yes or no in court.

21 A Oh, I'm sorry, I apologize. Yes, I wrote that.

22 Q And what you wrote back, those percentages that you put 23 in there, did you intend them to be reasonable?

24 A Yes, I did.

25 Q Did you intend Ms. Fedford to rely on them?

1 A No, I didn't intend for Ms. Fedford to rely on them.

2 Q Why not?

3 A I don't know that I was -- I don't know that I really
4 -- Lauren's assistance on this was in her capacity as legal
5 counsel. So whether she was convinced or unconvinced or 6 partially convinced wouldn't have been the topic that was on 7 my mind at that point.

8 Q You know it was a poor question of mine.

9 Did you understand or intend that she would take these 10 numbers and put it into final work product?

11 A Yes, yes, certainly, yes.

12 Q And that she would, based on this e-mail, consider
13 those numbers to be reasonable. Did you think that this 14 would consider them to be reasonable?

15 A Same answer as before, I don't know that I cared or 16 thought about what she thought about the numbers. So I
17 don't know that I can really answer that.

18 Q Did you flag anything for Ms. Fedford at that time
19 about anything fishy or that you didn't like about these
20 payroll reimbursement agreements?

21 A Not that I can remember, other than as I testified
22 earlier, a little bit of frustration that there's this level
23 of work that needs to go on for what I had assumed in my 24 mind was going to be a simple reproduction of the NexPoint
25 subadvisory agreement that we had put in a few months

1 before.

2 Q So let's see if I can walk you through this, just so
3 that I understand completely. On the shared service
4 agreements you had, pardon me, suggested that a periodic
5 change be removed and there just be a flat monthly fee,
6 correct?

7 A I don't know that that was my suggestion.

8 Q Okay. You want to go back to Exhibit J, Mr. Klos, the 9 highlighted language. It's Bates labeled 428.

10 A Sure, I'm there.

11 Q The top highlighted language, do you recall whether 12 that language that you wanted removed was, in fact, removed 13 from the shared service agreement?

14 A I'm not sure if it was or wasn't.

15 Q Okay. But you remember that the shared services
16 agreement was a flat monthly fee.

17 A Which services -- which shared services agreement.

18 Q NexPoint.

19 A NexPoint. NexPoint advisors, yes, it was a fixed
20 amount.

21 Q And HCMFA?

22 A It varied.

23 Q Okay. But that concept was a similar concept of just a
24 flat fee was rejected or not -- it was not accepted by Ms.
25 Fedford and then your alternative of let's have a set amount

1 up front subject to revision, that was accepted, correct?

2 A It's hard for me to characterize it that way, accepted,
3 not accepted. This was a discussion happening in real time
4 and a resolution was reached fairly quickly.

5 Q You understand, sir, that it is Highland's position at 6 this trial today that the payroll reimbursement agreements
7 just provided for basically I think Mr. Norris said in the 8 beginning just shared services for a flat monthly amount.

9 A I don't know that I'm in a position to fully articulate
10 the argument that our side is making.

11 Q The only thing that I find of real importance from you
12 is that when you discussed this with Ms. Fedford, you and 13 her agreed that there would be some ability to periodically
14 adjust the amounts under the payroll reimbursement
15 agreements or they could be terminated, correct?

16 A Again, I struggle with the word agreement. We worked 17 through comments to a document that was going to get
18 executed and that document was ultimately executed.

19 Q You gave her --

20 A And the document says what it says.

21 Q You gave her a concept and she put that concept into 22 the agreement?

23 A I'm not sure.

24 Q Okay. Do you know whether those payroll reimbursement
25 agreements still provide a monthly or quarterly or annual or

1 any kind of potential variance to the amounts?

2 A I don't recall specifically, but I'd be happy to look
3 at the agreement.

4 Q Well, did you see the final agreement before it was
5 executed by Mr. Waterhouse?

6 A Yes, I believe I did.

7 Q Okay. Do you remember whether you reviewed it before
8 he signed it?

9 A Yes, I believe I did.

10 Q Do you remember if anything in there caught your
11 attention as something outside of what you had understood
12 the final version to be?

13 A Don't remember specifically.

14 Q Okay. So now let's go please to your December 2019
15 analysis which you did with Mr. Waterhouse for FTI and the 16 committee.

17 A Uh-huh.

18 MR. RUKAVINA: Now, Your Honor, briefly we have 19 that printed out on paper. It's an Excel spreadsheet and 20 there was a misprint. So while during the lunch break, we 21 had a runner bring in a new one, so maybe during the next
22 break we'll give you and the clerks the new print, the 23 printout. In the meantime, we'll pull it up in Excel
24 format.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

1 MR. RUKAVINA: This is the December 2019. Which
2 one is it? It's L. Is that it, Thomas?

3 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

4 Q Now, Mr. Morris asked you a little bit about this, just 5 so that we're clear, this was the one that actually went to 6 the committee and DSI, right?

7 A Can you go to the summary tab please?

8 MR. RUKAVINA: Go to the summary.

9 THE WITNESS: It appears to be.

10 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

11 Q Okay. And you're not the only one who worked on this,
12 but you were one of the people that worked on this, correct?

13 A I was one of the people that worked on this.

14 Q Okay. What was your role, I mean, summarize for me
15 what, if anything, in here are you the one that principally
16 analyzed or prepared?

17 A What in here did I -- sorry, one more time.

18 Q What was -- yeah. So we've established that you --
19 you're the one that actually revisited the original
20 allocation percentages by taking goalposts and averaging
21 them, right?

22 A I wouldn't say it's a revisitation of the allocation
23 percentages.

24 Q You're the one that testified that you took the 25 goalposts on this one and went down the averages to find the

1 allocation percentages for this report, correct?

2 A Yes.

3 Q You did that.

4 A Yes.

5 Q Okay. So I'm asking --

6 A With -- you know, with collaboration with others, yes.

7 Q Okay. So anything else in here what did you if
8 anything else do in here, as opposed to someone else?

9 A Well, I'm the -- I created the spreadsheet and 10 populated the information throughout. I don't know --

11 Q The employees?

12 A Yes, the employees --

13 Q Their compensation?

14 A Yes.

15 Q Okay.

16 A Yes.

17 Q And when you did all that, you understood that this 18 would be shared with an official committee of unsecured
19 creditors, right?

20 A No. I don't know that I specifically knew exactly who 21 the audience was going to be.

22 Q Who did you think the audience was going to be?

23 A Some combination of the UCC, FTI and DSI.

24 Q You knew that it was going to be important for the 25 bankruptcy case, right?

1 A Important? I knew that it was an issue that had been
2 identified very early on, so you know, from that standpoint
3 it was the item that was on my plate and people were asking
4 about.

5 Q And you knew that others would rely on this
6 information, correct?

7 A No, I don't think that's correct.

8 Q You did not think people would be relying on the 9 information you put in this analysis?

10 A I assumed and what actually happened was that we had 11 the opportunity to present this to FTI over the course of 12 half a day, which is what we did. That they would have the 13 opportunity to ask questions, dig in wherever they felt they 14 wanted to and we'd be able to respond to those questions.

15 And as I mentioned earlier, relying on is really 16 difficult with an analysis like this and it was very 17 clearly, very clearly maintained with in that meeting and in 18 meetings leading up to the meeting that these were highly,
19 highly, highly subjective assumptions. They were being put 20 together in good faith, but there is no right answer.

21 Q And is that part of why you took the goalposts and 22 averaged them because you knew that it was highly, highly,
23 highly subjective so you tried to find a more reasonable
24 middle point?

25 A My recollection of the goalposts was to recognize the

1 inherent subjectivity and say that, you know, in all
2 likelihood somewhere between those goalposts is probably the
3 right answer but the right answer isn't knowable. That's
4 not to say the midpoint is the right answer, just somewhere
5 is most likely the right answer.

6 Q Because any time you're dealing with averages one might
7 be higher than the average, one might be lower, but the more
8 data you have the more likely or reasonable a result is?

9 A No, I don't agree with how you phrased that.

10 Q Okay. Did you intend to deceive anyone when you
11 prepared this exhibit?

12 A No.

13 Q Okay.

14 MR. RUKAVINA: So if we go to by department,
15 Thomas.

16 Q So this is a tab that says by department. And you see
17 down there it says current charge, 3.0 for NPA, ACMFA 5.0,
18 do you see that, sir?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Those are the charges under the payroll reimbursement
21 agreements, correct?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Okay. The line below that says investment support.
24 What does that mean?

25 A It's a reference to the front office allocations.

1 Q The -- what you were trying to do here was to calculate
2 the costs of those front office allocations to Highland,
3 correct?

4 A Estimate them.

5 Q Estimate them. And according to this estimate that you
6 prepared and that went out to the committee at -- that 7 estimate at that point the profitability to Highland with 8 the payroll reimbursement agreements together was $3
9 million, correct?

10 A That's what this tab is indicating, yes.

11 Q That's what you prepared, correct?

12 A Yes, I prepared this.

13 Q Okay. And let's go to allocations. I'm not sure this 14 is very relevant but there's does (indiscernible) opinion
15 tabs here.

16 MR. RUKAVINA: Thomas --

17 MR. BERGHMAN: (Indiscernible).

18 MR. RUKAVINA: Yeah, employee listing. Yeah, so
19 let's hide the employees. Are we hiding the employees,
20 Thomas, so that the people on the WebEx can't see it?

21 MR. BERGHMAN: Yeah, it doesn't show any --

22 MR. RUKAVINA: So where's the hidden tabs?

23 MR. BERGHMAN: We don't want these.

24 MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, I'm sorry, Mr. Berghman
25 and I are just trying to not let people on the WebEx see

1 employee data, which is why we're struggling how to do this.

2 Okay. Are there any hidden tabs on here?

3 MR. BERGHMAN: There are (indiscernible) because 4 that's where the data is.

5 MR. RUKAVINA: I'm sorry, Your Honor.

6 (Pause)

7 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

8 Q So let's look at the first person -- Mr. Klos, I need
9 glasses, I can't read that close, what is that person's 10 name?

11 A It's Sahan -- I apologize --

12 Q Let's pick an easy one, let's pick an easy one. Lauren
13 Baker.

14 A Okay. Lauren Baker, I guess I see her.

15 Q Okay. So these are the allocation percentages that you
16 created there in AC, AB, AE, AF, et cetera?

17 A AC -- yeah, AC through AF is one goalpost and then AN 18 through AQ is the other goalpost.

19 Q Okay. And we can look at the original agreement,
20 that's Exhibit A for Ms. -- well, we got it on the first 21 person because Ms. Baker isn't on it. So --

22 A She's not on the PRA.

23 Q I was trying to save us --

24 A As you noticed.

25 Q The first person, though, say the first name.

1 A Sahan (ph).

2 Q So where is the midpoint of the two goalposts for Sahan
3 that you selected?

4 A So -- well, I'll focus on HCMLP, somewhere between 10
5 percent and when I'm referring to -- I don't know what
6 people can see here, so AN9.

7 Q Yes.

8 A Somewhere between 10 percent and 55 percent of his time
9 is on HCMLP.

10 Q Okay. What about HCMFA for him?

11 A HCMFA somewhere between 30 percent and 55 percent.

12 Q How did you get those goalposts, 30 and 55?

13 A 30 and 55.

14 Q Did you talk to him?

15 A No, I didn't.

16 Q Did you talk to HR?

17 A I did not talk to HR.

18 Q Okay. So what methodology, if any, did you use to get
19 those 30 and 55 goalposts? I'm sorry, 15 and 55 goalposts?

20 A 10 and 55.

21 Q Yeah, 10 and 55.

22 A Subjectivity.

23 Q Just subjectivity, did you just pull numbers out of the 24 air?

25 A My -- so what's the midpoint on those, about 32 and a

1 half percent.

2 MR. RUKAVINA: Are there any problems in this one,
3 Thomas, or did you want to hide them? Just a second. We 4 might make it easier.

5 (Pause)

6 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

7 Q This is your Excel spreadsheet. Walk us through
8 please, are there, first of all to your knowledge, are there
9 any unshown or hidden columns right now?

10 A Yes, there are unshown columns.

11 Q Which -- where please?

12 A Looks like --

13 MR. RUKAVINA: I'm just telling Mr. Berghman how 14 to open them because I don't know Excel.

15 THE WITNESS: Sure. It's -- you've got to be -- I
16 don't know if he's watching this right now, but there's 17 quite a bit of sensitive compensation information on here.

18 Q Okay. So the hidden ones have the sensitive
19 compensation information?

20 A Yeah, and probably some information that's not 21 sensitive, but until we open it --

22 Q Okay.

23 A -- up, I'm not going to be able to tell you.

24 Q Well, here, just walk me through then as best you can 25 without showing everyone sensitive information, go back to

1 Sahar or Sahan.

2 A Uh-huh.

3 Q Where is the goalpost that is the lowest for him, where 4 is the goalpost that is the highest for him and then what is
5 the one that you picked?

6 A Sure. So the --

7 Q I mean, for let's take HCMFA.

8 A Yeah, for HCMFA so on the lowest shared allocation 30
9 percent and on the highest 55 percent. And so what is that
10 42 and a half percent as a midpoint. You can't see the 42
11 and a half percent on the screen right now, but that's the 12 midpoint of 30 and 55.

13 Q Oh, so the 42 and a half might be in the hidden fields
14 to do the math?

15 A I don't think the 42 and a half is even on the 16 spreadsheet, but I'm just doing the math.

17 Q Okay. But for him on Exhibit -- on that Exhibit A to 18 my Exhibit A he's shown at 29 percent. You can just look at 19 it. So in this case, in this case, at the end of 2019 you
20 applied the methodology to try to make it more reasonable 21 and current, correct?

22 A In 2019, yes, I did.

23 Q Okay. So now we'll go to your December 2020 analysis,
24 please.

25 A Okay.

1 Q So we've already seen the summary of it, Q and let's
2 look at Q please. So this is the one that you prepared at
3 the request of Mr. Waterhouse where Mr. Waterhouse told you
4 use these assumptions, correct?

5 A Yeah, he gave me assumptions to use.

6 Q The assumptions again being current head count, assume
7 no bonuses and use the December 2019 allocation percentages
8 we just looked at, correct?

9 A Correct with a small caveat that, yeah, I don't state
10 that explicitly in the e-mail but that's my recollection.
11 And further as I testified before, there were some new 12 employees so there wasn't a previous analysis to --

13 Q Did you include the --

14 A -- leave this in.

15 Q -- new employees in this one?

16 A I did.

17 Q Okay. So you took into account the fact of new 18 employees.

19 A Yes.

20 Q Okay. And just to summarize, isn't it true that here,
21 you are estimating unadjusted gain on the payroll
22 reimbursement agreements at $6.6 million on an annualized
23 basis as of the snapshot in time in December 2020?

24 A Yes, with no bonus compensation.

25 Q Yes, I understand. We've talked about the assumptions.

1 A Yep, yep.

2 Q But I'm not asking you to validate those assumptions --

3 A Sure.

4 Q -- I'm just asking that to the best of your ability
5 knowing that they're subjectivity and employing those
6 assumptions, this is the calculation that you prepared?

7 A Yes, employing those assumptions, this is the output.

8 Q Okay. And then what's the next line, offset for non-
9 debtor employees providing services to the debtor.

10 A That's a reference to people who weren't employed by 11 HCMLP but who, you know, from time to time would help on 12 HCMLP related issues.

13 Q And that happened, correct, the advisors had certain of 14 their own employees and they would basically let HCMLP
15 sometimes use those employees.

16 A Like I said there was a time when we were all one big 17 happy family and everybody used --

18 Q And that continued to some degree post petition until 19 certain things happened later in 2020 when Mr. Dondero
20 forbade some employees from executing Mister Series (ph)
21 trades; isn't that correct?

22 A Sorry, can you --

23 Q Strike that.

24 A Okay.

25 Q How did you calculate the $1.1 million here?

1 A I believe it was by looking at a few of those employees
2 and applying effectively the same logic but in reverse. So
3 instead of Highland -- HCMLP absorbing all the costs and 4 allocating it elsewhere, there were a couple of employees
5 who were employed elsewhere and allocating some part of 6 their time back to HCMLP, you know, notwithstanding that 7 that's not how the agreement works, but it's identifying as 8 an offset which would, you know, you can further, you know,
9 be an addition.

10 Q And Highland never paid the advisors for the periodic 11 use of the advisor's employees, right?

12 A Correct.

13 Q Now, walk us through please the next box there that
14 talks about shared services. Those were the shared services
15 agreements with the advisors I take it?

16 A These are the shared services with the advisors as well
17 as NexPoint Real Estate advisors.

18 Q Okay. And what's the line on incurring charge?

19 A That's the amount that was being charged at the time.

20 Q Okay. And what's the line-item shared services?

21 A It looks to me --

22 Q Isn't that --

23 A I'm not sure, I'm not sure.

24 Q Isn't that you trying to calculate the actual cost of 25 the shared services to Highland?

1 A No. No, I wouldn't characterize it that way.

2 Q Well, when you take the current charge and you delete
3 shared services, you delete litigation to get to estimated
4 point in time profitability, right?

5 A Correct --

6 Q So --

7 A -- current charge less shared services less litigation,
8 yeah.

9 Q So what -- so if you're conducting shared services you
10 have no memory of what that was?

11 A My -- I'm speculating a bit here, but my guess is that
12 this is just a simple summation of everything in that top
13 box that has shared services next to it.

14 Q Uh-huh.

15 A Notwithstanding that that may or may not be an exact
16 one-for-one with the actual agreement.

17 Q Okay. And what about the line litigation, what is 18 that?

19 A I believe it's the same thing and because there isn't
20 anything up above with litigation it's pulling nothing.

21 Q Okay. And then estimated point in time profitability
22 .4 and .6, let's just 1 million together, was that your 23 estimate based on Mr. Waterhouse's assumptions given to you
24 of the profitability to Highland of the shared service
25 agreements as of December 2020?

1 A No.

2 Q What -- then what did that -- what did those .4 and .6
3 mean?

4 A Sitting here today they're -- to me they're numbers on 5 a page. They're the output of an analysis that manages to 6 exclude pretty relevant data.

7 Q Okay. What about the next line, unadjusted gain on
8 material shared services agreement, 1.0 -- I'm sorry, 1.0
9 million.

10 A Uh-huh.

11 Q What does that mean?

12 A That number is just the summation of the .4 and the .6
13 directly above.

14 Q Okay. Sir, didn't you have to somewhere in here deduct
15 the actual cost to Highland of providing the shared services
16 to arrive at a $1 million annualized profit?

17 A Sorry, can you ask that again, it's just --

18 Q You are here concluding, right or wrong, it's okay, you
19 were here on --

20 A If I can stop, I don't know if I'm concluding anything
21 with this. I'm taking a direction from my boss and I'm 22 returning that analysis to him. I've spent a lot more time
23 in the last 20 minutes thinking about this than when the 24 request was given to me. I didn't have a belief that --

25 Q I'm asking you a --

1 A -- matched what's --

2 Q -- very simple question, Mr. Klos. I'm asking you a
3 very simple --

4 MR. MORRIS: Your Honor, he's interrupting him
5 again.

6 MR. RUKAVINA: No, I'm not. He started -- he
7 answered my question and then elaborated.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Overruled.

9 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

10 Q I'm asking a very simple question. Is there anywhere
11 on this page an estimate by you of the actual costs to 12 Highland of providing the shared services under the shared
13 services agreements?

14 A No, it's not. It's not called out on this page.

15 Q Okay. And you're not prepared to say that this report
16 at least shows that you estimated at that point in time of 17 $1 million annualized gain on the shared services agreements
18 to Highland?

19 A I would never put my reputation on the line for this
20 analysis. This is not at all reflective of what my views
21 were then, what my views were -- are now. This is like I
22 said a response to a request.

23 Q Okay. So on the cover e-mail to Mr. Waterhouse, where 24 did you tell him, hey, Frank, this may not make sense, this 25 may be bogus, this may be junk math? Where here do you

1 caution him at all about that this might not reflect your
2 views or reality?

3 A I don't know that that's contained in my e-mail to
4 Frank.

5 Q In fact, you tell him output here is roughly an 6 annualized $9.6 million gain primarily attributable to the 7 front office payroll reimbursement agreements, that's what
8 you write, correct?

9 A Yes.

10 Q And again, those front office payroll reimbursement
11 agreements are the what we call here the payroll
12 reimbursement agreements, correct?

13 A Yes, it looks to be one in the same.

14 Q And then you write, "which makes sense, given the 15 material reduction in head count, especially at the senior 16 level." You wrote that, right?

17 A I wrote that.

18 Q Yeah, and that's very logical because a lot of those
19 employees that the advisors were paying for simply weren't
20 employed anymore, correct?

21 A I disagree with the characterization of the question; I
22 don't believe they were paying for a portion of individual
23 employees' time.

24 Q Then you tell the judge what you meant by which makes 25 sense given the material reduction in head count especially

1 at the senior level.

2 A So we had three departures that in my mind were fairly
3 material. Those were from a dollar perspective, Trey Parker
4 (ph), John Poglich (ph), and Ajit Jain. I feel like I'm 5 forgetting someone on the front office side, but my point is 6 the same point I was making earlier, which is that when
7 revenue stays the same and expenses go down, profitability
8 improves.

9 Q And expenses went down because Highland didn't have 10 some of those employees that were listed on the attachments
11 to your exhibits to the payroll reimbursement agreements?

12 A I wouldn't characterize it that way.

13 Q How would you characterize it?

14 A I would say it had certain of the employees did leave,
15 some of them weren't on the original list, Agit is a good
16 example of that, as someone who was not on the PRA list,
17 notwithstanding that he did all of his work for us,
18 substantially all of his work for the advisors.

19 So when he departed, Highland became more profitable in 20 a short term from the standpoint that it no longer has an 21 expense that it has to bear. But again, he's not a great --
22 he's not even on the PRA.

23 Q "Biggest difference between this sort of analysis and 24 actual P&L being recorded on HCMLP's books is that on the 25 books HCMLP has been accruing for 2020 bonus expenses

1 throughout the year." What did you mean by that, sir?

2 A What I meant by that is HCMLP had been accruing bonuses
3 throughout the year of 2020.

4 Q On it's -- accruing on its financials, right?

5 A Yes.

6 Q But not necessarily paying the bonuses to all
7 employees, right?

8 A It was accruing -- it had paid bonuses to virtually all
9 employees except for the insiders that weren't allowed to be 10 paid.

11 Q Yes. And those are the ones that got the seven figure
12 bonuses, right?

13 A I don't remember. I don't remember their specific 14 bonuses, I think some were lower, some were higher.

15 Q Some were in the seven figures, right?

16 A Yes, none who were part of the payroll reimbursement
17 agreement though.

18 Q Understand. But you took all that into account --
19 well, strike that.

20 Are you, sir, today saying that your analysis on 21 Exhibit Q was not your good faith estimate of the 22 profitability of these contracts for Highland?

23 A No, because that's not the exercise I was asked to 24 undertake.

25 Q You undertook the exercise that you were given which

1 was to in good faith estimate the profitability of these
2 contracts --

3 A That's not the exercise I was given. It's not.

4 Q Then telling me exactly what exercise you were doing.

5 A The exercise I was given was take the work product from 6 last year, update it with these assumptions and send it to 7 me.

8 Q And what was the exercise of the work product from last
9 year?

10 A The exercise of the work product was admittedly a much
11 more thoughtful analysis with all compensation included and 12 with, you know, at least a good faith effort to estimate the 13 then current percentages with the caveat that they were 14 within a huge -- was in a huge band of goalposts, like we
15 saw for Sahan or it's somewhere between, you know, 10 and 55
16 percent, you can drive a truck through.

17 Q Okay. Did you ever discuss -- I'm just going to call
18 them overpayments, okay, they're alleged overpayments, you
19 don't have to say that they're overpayments we can call them
20 something else if you want. Did you ever discuss the 21 advisors' alleged overpayments under the payroll
22 reimbursement agreements with anyone internally at Highland
23 like Mr. Waterhouse?

24 A I'd prefer to call them something other than that 25 word --

1 Q Tell me what to call them.

2 A -- overpayments.

3 Q Tell me what to call them.

4 A It's the amounts that Highland was paying under those
5 agreements would be my preference.

6 Q The amounts that Highland was paying?

7 A Sorry, sorry, the amount that the advisors were paying.

8 Q I'll just call them alleged overpayments, okay?

9 A Okay.

10 Q Did you discuss the alleged overpayments with anyone
11 internally at Highland?

12 A I'm sorry I can't get over the alleged overpayments. I
13 discussed --

14 Q Did you discuss with anyone at Highland the fact that 15 the advisors were paying under the payroll reimbursement
16 agreement for employees who were no longer there?

17 A Not sure, maybe.

18 Q Did you discuss it with Mr. Waterhouse during the 19 process in 2019 when y'all were preparing the analysis for 20 the committee?

21 A I don't believe so.

22 Q Do you know whether Mr. Waterhouse or did you hear Mr.
23 Waterhouse tell Frank -- I'm sorry, tell Fred Caruso that
24 the advisors were overpaid?

25 A Did I hear him ask that?

1 Q Yeah.

2 A I don't believe so.

3 Q Okay. Did Mr. Waterhouse ever tell you that he told
4 Mr. Caruso that the advisors were overpaid?

5 A Not that I remember.

6 Q Okay. Did you ever hear anything about the automatic
7 stay being mentioned as preventing any adjustment of the 8 payroll reimbursement agreements?

9 A I heard of the automatic stay; I can't say I was 10 entirely vassaled with what the provisions of it.

11 Q Okay. But did you hear at some point in time that the 12 automatic stay, whatever it is, prevented any adjustment of 13 those reimbursement amounts under the PRA?

14 A I don't remember specifically, no.

15 Q Okay. Do you remember anything not specifically?

16 A No.

17 Q Did you ever discuss that with Mr. Norris?

18 A Did I ever discuss what with Mr. Norris?

19 Q The possibility that the advisors were overpaying
20 because employees weren't there anymore?

21 A Yes. I remember Dustin bringing that issue to me.

22 Q And did you tell him that the automatic stay prevented
23 any adjustment of those?

24 A Not that I remember. I don't ever remember using
25 automatic stay.

1 Q Okay. Would you have used something similar,
2 bankruptcy stay, bankruptcy laws?

3 A Since we've been in BK, that kind of --

4 Q Okay.

5 A Since we've been in BK, this is what we've been paying.

6 Q Do you remember any discussions that because we're in 7 BK we can't adjust the amounts under the PRAs?

8 A I don't remember those discussions with Dustin, no.

9 Q Do you remember them with anyone like Mr. Waterhouse,
10 Mr. Levenger --

11 A No, not --

12 Q -- Mr. Dondero?

13 A -- specifically.

14 Q Okay. Not specifically, so okay.

15 So you're not saying they didn't happen you just don't 16 remember specifically?

17 A I suppose so, yeah, I just don't remember.

18 Q Okay. Now, you mentioned that the notices of 19 termination of the shared services agreements went out
20 November 30th or December 1st, somewhere along there.

21 A Yeah, I think it was the evening of November 30th, yes.

22 Q Were the PRAs ever terminated?

23 A I don't believe so.

24 Q Why?

25 A I don't know.

1 Q Didn't you tell Mr. Norris that it was because they
2 were too profitable for Highland to terminate?

3 A No.

4 Q Did you discuss with Mr. Norris at all as to why
5 Highland was not terminating the PRAs even at the same time
6 that it was terminating the shared service agreements?

7 A I don't remember any of those discussions.

8 Q Did it not strike you as strange that Highland is 9 terminating two agreements, but not ones that you calculated 10 the profit on?

11 A Did I find it strange?

12 Q Yes.

13 A I thought about it, I don't know if I would use the 14 word strange, but I thought about it.

15 Q And you didn't discuss it with anyone?

16 A I might have discussed it with Frank, I don't remember
17 specifically but.

18 Q Were you part of the negotiations for the transitions
19 services agreement?

20 A A small part.

21 Q Do you remember that one of the conditions that the 22 advisors made to enter into that transition service
23 agreement was that Highland does, in fact, terminate the 24 PRAs?

25 A I'm not aware.

1 Q Okay. So sitting here today you don't remember any
2 discussion about the fact that Highland didn't terminate the 3 PRAs because they were profitable?

4 A No, not specifically.

5 Q Okay. Go to Exhibit P, I think we looked at Exhibit P
6 before. P as in Paul. In particular, the bottom e-mail
7 from you to Mr. Norris, Mr. Sauter, Mr. Waterhouse.

8 A Uh-huh.

9 Q Where you write that, these have not changed since BK,
10 which given the changes in head count, you point out along
11 with not paying inside the bonus compensation has increased
12 the profitability of the contracts from HCMLP's perspective.
13 Do you see that?

14 A I see that.

15 Q And by that point in time, according to the December
16 2019 analysis you had calculated that there was a $3 million
17 profit on the PRAs.

18 A In December 19th --

19 Q Yeah, December 2019 the one that we looked at that 20 went to the committee and FTI. You remember that you
21 had calculated or estimated, I'm sorry, estimated a $3
22 million --

23 A I think that was the output of the midpoint of that
24 analysis.

25 Q Yeah. And in which you're -- so when you write, it has

1 increased the profitability of the contracts in your own
2 mind, you're acknowledging that since that time it's even
3 more profitable to Highland, aren't you?

4 A There's a lot of conflating here. We're talking about
5 insider bonus compensation which isn't even relevant for the 6 PRAs, so I don't -- I think it's kind of apples and oranges.

7 Q Okay. But no where in any of these e-mails we've 8 looked at do you tell anyone that it's apples and oranges or 9 this might not be reliable data, do you?

10 A No, I can't imagine why I would do that.

11 Q Because at that point in time you believe in good faith
12 that your estimates were reasonable, correct?

13 A Which estimates are we referring to?

14 Q The profitability, sir, the December 2019, the December
15 2020.

16 A So some of those are reasonable, some of them aren't,
17 some are less reasonable, some are more, they're all
18 varied.

19 Q That's not my question.

20 A Okay. Okay.

21 Q I'm saying at that point in time, at that point in 22 time, you believe that they were reasonable enough not to 23 alert anyone in any of these e-mails we've looked at that 24 maybe they shouldn't rely on them?

25 A No, nothing rose to the point of having to interject in

1 this e-mail.

2 Q Okay. You mentioned that dual employees were hired in 3 2018 and 2019, who were you referring to?

4 A In 2018 and 2019 in terms of hires, there's Ajit Jain
5 and Bailika Jain, no relation. There's -- what's -- I'm 6 sorry, what's the time period, 2018?

7 Q I believe -- yes, 2018 and 2019. I recall you
8 testifying to Mr. Morris that although a number of dual 9 employees had left, some had been hired, some replacement
10 ones had been hired.

11 A Yes, yes. So more thoroughly, there were around 11 or 12 so effectively backfills through either transfers, new 13 hires, or -- when I say transfers, transfers of employer,
14 new hires, or transition of role. A good example of those 15 being the ones that Mr. Norris took me through for the legal 16 and distress team where their roles were modified, expanded
17 to perform those services.

18 Q Okay.

19 MR. RUKAVINA: Pass the witness, Your Honor, thank
20 you.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Redirect?

22 MR. MORRIS: I think this will be brief.

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

25 BY MR. MORRIS:

1 Q Mr. Klos, are you familiar -- we looked at the invoice
2 for --

3 A Uh-huh.

4 Q -- the HCMFA shared services agreement. Do you
5 remember that?

6 A I remember.

7 Q And am I correct that that invoice is calculated on 8 cost plus 5 percent?

9 A Yes.

10 Q And is that what the contract -- is that your 11 understanding of what the contract between HCMFA and 12 Highland provided?

13 A Yes, that's what the contract says.

14 Q So there was an agreement to limit Highland's profit in 15 that contract; is that correct?

16 A Yes.

17 Q Was there any limit on the profit that Highland could 18 earn under the payroll reimbursement agreements?

19 A No.

20 Q So the parties to the payroll reimbursement agreement
21 knew how to enter into an agreement that would limit profit
22 as they did under the share's services agreement, but your 23 recollection is that they didn't do that under the payroll
24 reimbursement agreement; is that right?

25 A Correct.

1 Q Okay. Your analysis showed profit under the payroll
2 reimbursement agreement but it showed losses under the
3 shared services agreement, is that generally, correct?

4 A That's generally correct as of that December analysis.

5 Q Is there any protection anywhere for Highland against 6 losses?

7 A No, if I'm understanding.

8 Q Right. So they're upset that Highland was making a
9 profit. Did they care, did they express, were they -- are 10 you aware of any discussions where the advisors promised to 11 make Highland whole for all the losses they suffered under 12 the shared services agreement?

13 A No. No, no.

14 Q Okay. Let's go to Exhibit Q in their binder. This is 15 the December 2020 analysis.

16 A Yes.

17 Q I believe I heard you when you were asked about the 18 estimate point and time profitability, I think that's the 19 spot where you said that there was material data that was 20 excluded. Did I hear that correctly?

21 A Yes, yes.

22 Q Would you describe for the Court what material data was 23 excluded?

24 A The material data that's in the analysis you mean?

25 Q Yeah.

1 A Yes. So primarily the bonuses themselves, cash bonus,
2 deferred bonus, those were the main amounts that are not in
3 there whatsoever.

4 Q And those bonuses were all paid in 2020 except for the 5 senior executives; is that right?

6 A Correct.

7 Q Okay. And all of this is taking place in December
8 2020; is that right?

9 A Yes.

10 Q And that's not only after Highland had given notice of 11 termination of the shared services agreements, do you recall
12 that that's also the moment in time where Highland had an 13 approved plan and disclosure statement or an approved
14 disclosure statement?

15 A Yes. I think the disclosure statement was around the 16 November time frame, yes.

17 Q And do you remember that in or around December you and 18 others and my firm were preparing for confirmation?

19 A Yes.

20 Q And so was there any expectation that somehow Highland 21 was going to terminate the shares services agreement, but 22 somehow retained these enormously profitable payroll
23 reimbursement agreements for the future?

24 A Certainly not that I was aware of and it's patently
25 ridiculous that they would continue.

1 Q Was there some secret plan to somehow get out from
2 under the burdensome shared services agreements but go
3 forward with these profitable agreements with the payroll
4 reimbursement agreement?

5 A No, and it's a pretty ridiculous proposition.

6 Q That's what I thought. Mr. Rukavina spent a lot of 7 time trying to get you to embrace the reasonableness of the 8 percentages in Exhibits 80. Do you remember that?

9 A Uh-huh. Yes, sorry.

10 Q And you would agree that that was your best good faith
11 estimate to try to come to an allocation; is that fair?

12 A Are we referring to the '19 and '20 or the '19 analysis
13 or are we referring to the Exhibit A?

14 Q Exhibit A.

15 A Exhibit A. And, sorry, ask -- please repeat the
16 question.

17 Q You did that in good faith, right?

18 A The 2018?

19 Q Yeah.

20 A Yeah, yeah, I did.

21 Q But it was within the bounds of the 252 number, wasn't 22 it?

23 A Yes, absolutely.

24 Q And --

25 A And if I could add one more thing, it was also in the

1 bounds of the fact that we had -- I'm going to estimate, in
2 the neighborhood of 3 million -- $3 billion of ACIS funds
3 that were part of that allocation and then would disappear
4 within the matter of months.

5 Q If the number in the subservice -- the subadvisory
6 agreement was not 352, but 452, let's say it was 500, twice
7 as much, would you have used the same allocations that are 8 in Exhibit A?

9 A No, the allocations would have been different, up to 10 some boundary. There would be some point where the 11 allocations would get just -- at some point the allocations
12 would get beyond a hundred percent, right, but within the 13 boundaries, yes.

14 Q Is it fair to say that the allocation that you came up
15 with was a reasonably good faith estimate in the bounds of 16 the restrictions of 252?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Okay. Just one or two more questions here going back
19 to December '19 the analysis that was given to the UCC.

20 A Yes.

21 Q I think you've testified pretty extensively that it was 22 a very subjective analysis. Do I have that right?

23 A Yes.

24 Q And can you just remind Judge Jernigan what your goal
25 was in preparing that analysis?

1 A Yes. The main thing is, more time and demonstrate that
2 on the whole these are neither making nor losing a
3 tremendous amount of time and with the focus on the whole.
4 What was presented to the UCC, was the total costs, the 16.1
5 if I remember correctly. So focusing on the fact that 6 putting our best foot forward with them, these contracts are 7 neither making you nor losing you significant amounts of 8 money to give time for what I understood to be a process of 9 trying to work through the bankruptcy fairly quickly.

10 Q Did you ever expect when you prepared those analyses in 11 late 2019 that they would somehow be used as the basis for 12 the advisors to claim profitability under the payroll
13 reimbursement contracts?

14 A No, absolutely not.

15 Q Was it prepared for that purpose at all?

16 A No.

17 MR. MORRIS: I have no further questions, Your
18 Honor.

19 THE COURT: All right. Recross?

20 RE CROSS-EXAMINATION

21 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

22 Q Under the payroll reimbursement agreements the advisors
23 are paying for 25 employees, correct?

24 MR. MORRIS: Objection to the form of the 25 question. No, it's okay.

1 THE COURT: All right. I think he withdrew his
2 objection.

3 MR. MORRIS: Withdrawn.

4 THE WITNESS: They were paying -- no, there may be
5 25, I don't know the exact number, but there are
6 approximately 25 people on the schedule to the PRAs.

7 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

8 Q And of those approximately 25 by the end, 20 had been
9 gone, correct?

10 A Of the original 25 around that. I don't have the 11 number --

12 Q Around that?

13 A -- memorized, but yeah, in that ballpark.

14 Q And you don't have a single problem with that, that for 15 more than a year your department was billing the advisors
16 for about 20 employees that weren't there anymore? You
17 don't have any problem with that?

18 A I have no issues with that whatsoever --

19 Q Okay.

20 A -- because if I may --

21 Q No, you may not.

22 A Okay.

23 Q Was your department not charged under the shared
24 services agreements to periodically review the advisors'
25 contracts with vendors and advise the advisors about

1 potential overpayments, set-offs, credits, et cetera?

2 A I don't recall those provisions specifically, no.

3 Q Okay. Well maybe Mr. Waterhouse will.

4 Go to Exhibit A, please, my Exhibit A, Section 5.02,
5 please. That's about termination. Termination on at least 6 60 days advanced written notice, do you see that?

7 A Yes, I see that.

8 Q So if it was Highland's intent to terminate these
9 agreements contemporaneously with the shared services
10 agreements why in the world wouldn't they have sent us
11 notice at least 60 days in advance?

12 MR. MORRIS: Objection, Your Honor, assumes facts
13 not in evidence.

14 MR. RUKAVINA: He testified --

15 THE COURT: Overruled. He can answer.

16 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

17 Q Go ahead.

18 A Sorry, again please.

19 Q Yeah. You testified on redirect there was no master
20 plan to keep sucking money out of the advisors by not 21 terminating these, I'm exaggerating obviously, but that's 22 basically what you testified about, right? That there was 23 no plan to just keep charging the advisors. Let me just ask
24 it again.

25 A I don't --

1 Q I'm going to ask it again, Mr. Klos, because you
2 can't --

3 A I don't know what the plan was.

4 Q But when Mr. Morris asked you, you said that you knew
5 that there was no plan.

6 A It would -- it struck me as --

7 Q Are you just answering whatever he asks you?

8 A No.

9 Q Okay. So can you think of a reason why Mr. Seery would
10 not have sent a notice terminating the payroll reimbursement
11 agreement contemporaneously with the notice terminating the 12 shared services agreement?

13 A I don't know the reason behind --

14 Q Okay.

15 A -- it.

16 Q That's what I wanted to know, because I think a lot of 17 things you've testified about today are speculation.

18 MR. RUKAVINA: Thank you.

19 THE COURT: All right. You are excused, Mr. Klos.

20 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

21 (Witness excused)

22 THE COURT: All right. We should take a break.
23 You're going to call Mr. Waterhouse next?

24 MR. MORRIS: Yes, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: You said he needs to finish today.

1 MR. MORRIS: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Do we have a time estimate?

3 MR. MORRIS: I'm hoping it's an hour or less.

4 MR. RUKAVINA: I'll have an hour or less.

5 THE COURT: Okay. We'll take a ten-minute break.

6 THE MARSHAL: All rise.

7 (Recessed at 3:35 p.m.; reconvened at 3:51 p.m.)

8 THE MARSHAL: All rise.

9 THE COURT: Please be seated. All right. We're
10 back on the record in Highland. Mr. Morris, are you ready
11 to call Mr. Waterhouse?

12 MR. MORRIS: Yes, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: You may.

14 MR. MORRIS: Highland calls Frank Waterhouse.

15 THE COURT: Mr. Waterhouse, please approach the 16 bench and the witness box.

17 MR. WATERHOUSE: Right here?

18 MR. MORRIS: Yeah.

19 THE COURT: Please raise your right hand.

20 FRANK WATERHOUSE, WITNESS, SWORN

21 THE COURT: All right. Please be seated.

22 DIRECT EXAMINATION

23 BY MR. MORRIS:

24 Q Good afternoon, Mr. Waterhouse.

25 A Good afternoon.

1 Q Just get comfortable for a moment. Okay. So in front
2 of you are a few witness -- a few exhibit binders. We try
3 not to bind our witnesses.

4 Exhibit binders, so that the two big ones are 5 Highland's exhibits, the smaller one to your right are the 6 advisor's agreement -- exhibits and I may ask you to refer
7 them time to time, just so you know what they are there.
8 Okay?

9 A Okay.

10 Q Mr. Waterhouse, prior to February 2021 you were 11 Highland's CFO, correct?

12 A Yes.

13 Q And you held that position for roughly a decade; is 14 that right?

15 A Yes.

16 Q And as Highland's CFO you were responsible for 17 overseeing Highland's corporate accounting group, correct?

18 A Yes.

19 Q And Mr. Klos, David Klos was in that corporate
20 accounting group, correct?

21 A Yes.

22 Q And Mr. Klos reported directly to you, correct?

23 A Yes.

24 Q You were his boss, right?

25 A He -- yes.

1 Q Okay. You wore many hats when you were at Highland,
2 right?

3 A I don't know what many hats is but I managed several 4 different teams.

5 Q You served as an officer of more than a half a dozen
6 entities; is that fair?

7 A I don't recall how many entities that I was an officer
8 of.

9 Q You don't recall if it's more or less than a half a
10 dozen?

11 A It's around that. I mean, I don't recall, John.

12 Q Do you know how many entities for which you served as 13 an officer today?

14 A Three or four.

15 Q Okay. And among them, are NexPoint advisors and HCMFA?

16 A Yes.

17 Q And you served as the treasurer of those entities,
18 right?

19 A Yes.

20 Q And you served as the treasurer of those entities from 21 at least some time before January 1st, 2018, correct?

22 A I'm sorry, did I serve as treasurer prior to January
23 1st, 2018 for those entities?

24 Q You've been -- let me try to be clear. You've been 25 serving as the treasurer of the advisors on a continuous

1 basis from some time prior to January 1st, 2018 until today,
2 correct?

3 A Yes.

4 Q Okay. And is the treasurer of your advisors, you're
5 personally the person responsible for the advisors'
6 accounting, correct?

7 A No.

8 Q As the treasurer, you're not the person who's 9 responsible for the advisors' accounting?

10 A I don't -- I don't believe I'm personally responsible,
11 you know, again it's -- there's a team of people, right,
12 that are involved in putting together other books and 13 records for the advisors and things like that. Yes, I am
14 the treasurer, but I'm not a lawyer, but I don't know if I'm 15 personally responsible. There's a team of people that does,
16 you know, put together -- you know, it's quite an endeavor.

17 Q And they -- and that whole team reports to you,
18 correct?

19 A Are you saying in 2018 or what time period?

20 Q That's fair.

21 Let's focus on the period January 1st, 2018 until the
22 time you left Highland a little bit more, you know, February
23 of 2021. Okay. So that three plus year period. I'll call
24 it the relevant period; is that fair?

25 A Okay.

1 Q Okay. During the relevant period, you were the officer
2 of the advisors who was responsible for the advisors'
3 accounting, correct?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Thank you. You were the person acting on behalf of the 6 advisors who was expected to make sure that the advisors
7 paid the proper amount due under the advisors' contracts,
8 correct?

9 A Yeah, I would say, I mean, that is a team approach as 10 far as -- I'm not processing payables or every contract or 11 things like that. Yes, I'm the treasurer, but, yeah, I'm 12 not personally responsible.

13 Q Can you identify the officer of the advisors who was 14 responsible for making sure that the advisors only pay the 15 proper amounts due under the advisors' contracts? Who is 16 responsible for that if it's not you?

17 A I mean, as treasurer, I mean, I guess I'm referring to 18 it is a team approach, right, so I'll just say.

19 Q I appreciate that. I'm not asking you to identify 20 every person who does work in connection with the advisors'
21 accounting. I'm asking you if you are the officer who is 22 ultimately responsible for making sure that the advisors'
23 pay the proper amounts due under the advisors' contracts.

24 A Yes, I mean, look at the other officers, I would be the 25 one.

1 Q Thank you very much.

2 And among those contracts that you had responsibility
3 for making sure were properly administered, were the 4 intercompany agreements with Highland, correct?

5 A There were intercompany agreements. I mean, yes.

6 Q And during the relevant period that three-year period,
7 2018, '19 and '20 there were shared services agreements
8 between Highland, NexPoint, NexPoint Real Estate Advisors
9 and HCMFA, correct?

10 A There were shared service agreements between Highland
11 and NexPoint advisors and Highland and Highland Capital
12 Management Fund Advisors.

13 Q And there was also a shared services agreement between 14 Highland and NexPoint Real Estate Advisors, correct? That 15 $80,000 monthly, does that ring a bell?

16 A Yeah. Well, you're refreshing my memory from my --
17 from the deposition, yeah, I forget about that one.

18 Q And there were also what became known as the payroll
19 reimbursement agreements, right?

20 A Yes.

21 Q Okay. And I'm going to refer to those contracts that 22 we just identified as the intercompany agreements, okay?

23 A Okay.

24 Q Okay. And so you were responsible for making sure that 25 the advisors paid the proper amount under the intercompany

1 agreements, correct, on behalf of the advisors?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Okay. Do you know Dustin Norris?

4 A I do.

5 Q Mr. Norris is the advisors' executive vice-president;
6 is that right?

7 A I don't recall his exact title.

8 Q But you do know that he's an officer of the advisors,
9 correct?

10 A Yes.

11 Q And he didn't have any responsibility for administering 12 the advisors' intercompany agreements with Highland, did he?

13 A Not that I'm aware.

14 Q Okay. You're not aware of Mr. Norris having had any 15 responsibility for drafting any of the intercompany
16 agreements with Highland, correct?

17 A Not that I'm aware.

18 Q You're not aware of Mr. Norris having any involvement
19 at all in determining in the ordinary course of business how 20 much was due under the intercompany agreements, correct?

21 A Not that I'm aware.

22 Q Is it fair to say that until late 2020, you never 23 discussed with Mr. Norris how the amounts paid under the 24 intercompany agreements with Highland were going to be 25 determined?

1 A It's hard to -- can you repeat that, please?

2 Q Sure. I'm just thinking time, right, you left Highland
3 in February of 2021, correct?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Do you remember in December of 2020, Highland had just 6 given notice of the termination of the shared services
7 agreements and there were a number of communications among 8 people about the consequences of that?

9 A Yes.

10 Q Okay. Up until that month, December '20, December 2020
11 you had never discussed with Mr. Norris how amounts paid
12 under the intercompany agreements were going to be
13 calculated, correct?

14 A I had a conversation with Mr. Norris about 15 overpayments. That's what I recall.

16 Q And that took place in December 2020?

17 A It was in Q-4 of 2020, I don't recall the -- it was at 18 the end of 2020.

19 Q Okay. But prior to that time, you've never had a
20 conversation of any kind with Mr. Norris about how amounts
21 under the intercompany agreements with Highland would be
22 calculated, correct?

23 A Not that I can recall.

24 Q Okay. Let's talk about the NexPoint shared services
25 agreement. If you can open up one of the binders that has

1 Exhibit 3. Do you have that, Mr. Waterhouse?

2 Can you just confirm if you look at the signature page
3 that you signed this document? It's the last page of the 4 document.

5 A This is the NexPoint amended restated.

6 Q Yes.

7 A Yes.

8 Q Those are your signatures, right?

9 A Yes.

10 Q And you signed this document on behalf of both Highland
11 and NexPoint, correct?

12 A Yes.

13 Q And you don't recall ever seeing any drafts of this 14 agreement before you signed it, correct?

15 A I don't recall.

16 Q And you don't recall going through the terms and 17 conditions of this agreement within in-house counsel or 18 outside counsel before you signed it, correct?

19 A Yeah, I don't recall.

20 Q You have no recollection whether this agreement was the 21 subject of any negotiations, correct?

22 A I don't recall.

23 Q To the best of your recollection, the advisors never 24 considered obtaining shared services from the source other
25 than Highland, correct?

1 A Yeah, I don't recall.

2 Q And if you take a look at Section 3.01 which is on the
3 page ending in Bates number 637, you understood when you
4 signed this agreement that Highland was going to receive a
5 flat monthly fee of $168,000 for shared services from 6 NexPoint, correct?

7 A Yeah, it's what it says in Section 3.01, correct.

8 Q And NexPoint paid that exact flat fee each and every
9 month from the time you signed this agreement until the time
10 it was terminated, notice of termination was given in -- at 11 the end of 2020, correct?

12 A I don't believe that's right.

13 Q You don't think NexPoint paid $168,000 for each and 14 every month from January 1st, 2018 until November 2020?

15 A I thought you said through December of 2020. There was 16 a time in Q-4 in 2020 where payments on these intercompany
17 agreements were suspended.

18 Q Okay. We'll talk about that in a minute.

19 Do you know why you signed this agreement in 2018?
20 Withdrawn.

21 Before you signed this agreement there was already in 22 place an agreement with NexPoint, right?

23 A Yes.

24 Q And there was an agreement between NexPoint and 25 Highland for the provision of shared services, correct?

1 A We reviewed an agreement from 2013. If that is that
2 agreement, that's what's coming to mind, but I don't
3 remember who. If that was NexPoint or HMFA, but if it's a
4 2013 agreement that you're referring to, there was an
5 agreement. I don't remember what entity that was with.

6 Q Do you have any recollection as you sit here right now
7 as to why the new agreement was entered into with NexPoint
8 in early 2018 for shared services?

9 A I don't recall.

10 Q Let's go to Exhibit 8 please. Before we do that, let's
11 go to Exhibit 5. Do you know what Exhibit 5 is?

12 A It says a sub-advisory agreement between NexPoint
13 advisors and Highland Capital Management LP.

14 Q And if you can go to the page ending in Bates number
15 580.

16 A Okay. Is that your signature, sir?

17 A Yes, it is.

18 Q And did you sign this agreement on behalf of Highland
19 and NexPoint?

20 A Yes.

21 Q And if you go back to the first page, do you understand
22 that this agreement was effective as of January 1st, 2018?

23 A That's what it says in the first paragraph.

24 Q Okay. Do you have a recollection as to why you signed
25 this document?

1 A I don't recall.

2 Q You don't recall? Do you recalling have any
3 discussions with anybody at any time concerning the sub-
4 advisory agreement that you signed on behalf of Highland
5 and NexPoint?

6 A I mean sub-advisory agreements are in place to provide
7 front office services, but I don't remember -- I don't
8 recall why we put this agreement in at that time.

9 Q Okay. Can you turn to page 3 please? Do you see that 10 the compensation is $252,000 a month? I apologize, it's 11 page 3 of Exhibit 5.

12 A Yes.

13 Q Do you know how that number was arrived at?

14 A I don't.

15 Q Did you do any analysis to determine the value of the 16 sub-advisory services that Highland was going to be 17 providing pursuant to this agreement?

18 A I didn't perform an analysis, but there was an analysis
19 that was performed as part of, you know, when there's 20 amounts like this in agreements there's a back-up. Dave
21 Klos would typically do something like this.

22 Q I know he might typically do it; I'm asking you
23 specifically if you have a recollection of Dave Klos
24 preparing an analysis to justify the $252,000 number that's 25 reflected in this document?

1 A I don't.

2 Q Okay. Do you recall any discussion with anybody at any
3 time about this particular agreement?

4 A I just recall generally that, you know, there's -- an
5 agreement was needed, but I don't -- I mean, I don't recall
6 anything else about it.

7 Q Okay. Do you recall if a sub-advisory agreement was 8 ever prepared for Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors
9 LP?

10 A I don't.

11 Q Do you have any recollection at all of having any 12 conversations about the creation of a sub-advisory agreement
13 for HCMFA?

14 A I don't.

15 Q Okay. Let's go to Exhibit 8 now. Do you see this is a
16 payroll reimbursement agreement for NexPoint? Oh, I
17 apologize, this is --

18 A It says Highland Capital --

19 Q -- for HCMFA.

20 A -- Management Fund Advisors.

21 Q Let's get the one for NexPoint, so we stay consistent.
22 I apologize.

23 Can you go to Exhibit 6? Do you see this is a payroll
24 reimbursement agreement for NexPoint and its effective
25 January 1st, 2018?

1 A Yes.

2 Q Do you have any knowledge as to why NexPoint entered
3 into this agreement after you signed the sub-advisory
4 agreement on its behalf?

5 A I don't recall. I think I said that earlier.

6 Q Do you have any recollection as to why this agreement
7 was entered into on May 1st, 2018 effective as of January
8 1st, 2018?

9 A I don't.

10 Q Do you have any recollection that personnel at Highland
11 had received advice that the sub-advisory agreement couldn't
12 be used because it couldn't be made retroactive and it
13 couldn't be approved unless approved in an in-house, in-
14 person meeting by the retail board. Does any of that ring a 15 bell?

16 A It doesn't.

17 Q Do you recall that ASIS, that Josh Carey (ph) filed the 18 involuntary petition against ASIS at the end of January
19 2018?

20 A I don't remember dates in the ASIS case.

21 Q So back to the payroll reimbursement agreement, even 22 though you signed it, you don't recall anything about why
23 this agreement was prepared in the spring of 2018 other than 24 it was a general need for it, correct?

25 A Yeah, I don't recall.

1 Q And you don't remember having any conversations with
2 anybody at any time concerning the substance of this
3 agreement prior to the time you signed it other than the 4 fact that it was needed, correct?

5 A Yes.

6 Q You don't recall receiving any legal advice before
7 signing this agreement, correct? I'm sorry?

8 A Prior to signing documents, I mean, if a document is 9 left at my office, I have a cover sheet which if it's a
10 legal document which basically says legal reviewed and 11 approved this document or someone walks in with a document
12 like this for signature, I always ask them has legal 13 reviewed and approved this document.

14 Q Okay. But you personally didn't receive any legal 15 advice before you signed it, correct?

16 A Not that I recall.

17 Q You don't recall seeing any drafts of this agreement
18 before you signed it, correct?

19 A Not that I recall.

20 Q You never provided any comments to this agreement,
21 correct?

22 A Not that I recall.

23 Q You don't know who drafted this agreement, correct?

24 A Aside from what I mentioned earlier about Highland or 25 in-house counsel reviewing and approving it, I don't know.

1 Q Okay. Do you see in the definition of actual costs it
2 says, quote, absent any changes to employee reimbursement as
3 set forth in Section 2.02, such costs and expenses are equal
4 to $252,000 per month? Do you see that?

5 A Yes.

6 Q And is it your understanding that NexPoint paid
7 $252,000 each and every month from the beginning of 2018
8 until the time Mr. Dondero gave his directive to stop
9 paying?

10 A Yes.

11 Q Okay. You don't remember how that $252,000 number was 12 calculated, correct?

13 A I don't recall.

14 Q Okay. Can you turn to Exhibit A -- you know, we'll get 15 to it. We'll get to Exhibit A. Yes, turn to Exhibit A of 16 this agreement. Do you recall that you also signed a
17 payroll reimbursement agreement on behalf of HCMFA and 18 Highland at the exact same time that you signed this one?

19 A We'd have to look at the document, I don't -- you say
20 Exhibit A?

21 Q Yeah. You know before we do that, let's just stick
22 with that binder that you had and go to Exhibit 8. And do
23 you see that this is the payroll reimbursement agreement
24 that was also entered into on May 1st, 2018 but this one was 25 entered into between Highland and HCMFA?

1 A I do.

2 Q And if you turn to the document with Bates number 602
3 and 603, those are your signatures, correct?

4 A It is.

5 Q And do you have any recollection of any facts and 6 circumstances concerning the preparation and your review of 7 this document before you signed it that differs from the 8 questions that I just asked you about, the NexPoint payroll
9 reimbursement agreement. Is there anything different about 10 this?

11 A No, not that I recall.

12 Q Yeah, I'm just trying to speed this up a little bit.

13 A Okay.

14 Q You don't recall getting legal advice, correct?

15 A I don't.

16 Q You don't recall providing any comments to this
17 document, correct?

18 A I don't.

19 Q You don't recall having any discussions with anybody at 20 any time about this document before you signed it, correct?

21 A I don't.

22 Q You don't recall why it was signed, correct?

23 A Aside from a general need, I don't recall.

24 Q Okay. So now let's look at Exhibit A, it doesn't 25 matter which agreement, let's just take a quick look at

1 Exhibit A. Before you signed it, did you know -- I
2 apologize. It's Exhibit A to the agreement, so whether
3 you're at Exhibit 6 or Exhibit 8, the last page is something
4 called Exhibit A. Do you have that?

5 A Yes.

6 Q That's a list of employees.

7 A Uh-huh.

8 Q Did you know that Exhibit A was attached to these
9 agreements before you signed it?

10 A I have a general recollection that there was an exhibit
11 to this agreement with employees, yes.

12 Q You don't know who prepared the Exhibit A that's 13 attached to each of these agreements, correct?

14 A I don't.

15 Q You don't know how the exhibits were prepared, correct?

16 A I don't know the person who specifically put this 17 together.

18 Q And you don't recall discussing the Exhibit A's with 19 Mr. Klos before you signed these two payroll reimbursement
20 agreements, correct?

21 A Correct. This was again four years ago, I don't 22 remember.

23 Q Okay. And you have no recollection of ever discussing
24 Exhibit A with anybody at any time, correct?

25 A I don't recall.

1 Q And at around the time you signed this agreement you
2 didn't have any discussions with anybody about whether the 3 parties would make an effort to determine the dual employees
4 -- to determine whether the dual employees were spending the 5 allocated percentages set forth on this document, correct?

6 A I mean, there was a general understanding. If it's in
7 a document of this type, I mean, it's not -- you know, there
8 aren't just going to be numbers that are thrown into an
9 exhibit.

10 Q Well, you had no expectation that Exhibit A's would 11 ever be updated, did you?

12 A I don't -- I mean, potentially.

13 Q Well, you don't recall ever instructing Mr. Klos to 14 update Exhibit A, did you?

15 A I don't recall.

16 Q You're not aware of anybody in the world who ever
17 instructed Mr. Klos to update Exhibits A, are you?

18 A I'm not aware.

19 Q And you have no recollection of anybody ever updating
20 Exhibits A, correct?

21 A I'm not aware.

22 Q And just more broadly, you have no recollection of ever
23 asking anybody in the world at any time to update this 24 chart, correct?

25 A Well, in Q-4 in 2019, you know, this agreement and

1 others were brought to the attention of Fred Caruso at DSI
2 after Highland filed. And You know, at the time, Dave
3 brought up the -- Mr. Klos brought up the overpayments by
4 the advisors on the various agreements. This was presented
5 to Mr. Caruso at the time.

6 So again, I -- you said there was no intent to ever
7 update these numbers. I mean, there was an analysis put 8 together and presented to basically the person in charge of 9 Highland at the time because we were educating Mr. Caruso
10 and DSI on everything Highland in Q-4 of 2019 and trying to 11 get him up to speed as quickly as possible and this was one
12 of the items.

13 Q And did you ever see a draft of the revision to Exhibit
14 A at any point?

15 A Not that I recall.

16 Q Okay. No records exist today that could be used to 17 determine whether the dual employees actually spent the 18 allocated time working for the advisors; isn't that correct?

19 A Aside from going through work product, e-mails, or 20 having discussions of that nature.

21 Q So it'd have to be a forensic examination?

22 A I mean, if you're saying today to go back in time, I
23 mean, you know, none of the employees are there, so yeah,
24 you'd have to do an estimate and again, on this Exhibit A
25 there's a percentage allocation to HMFA to determine what

1 that allocation is.

2 Q Did you do anything to satisfy yourself that Exhibit A
3 was accurate before signing this agreement?

4 A I remember generally having conversations on these
5 allocations, but again like I said it was four years ago.
6 If I didn't feel comfortable with these allocations at the
7 time, I wouldn't have signed the document.

8 Q Okay. Nobody was at -- none of the dual employees were 9 ever instructed to keep track of their time, so that 10 somebody could actually determine the allocations with 11 accuracy, correct?

12 A Not that I'm aware.

13 Q And you never personally -- and you personally never 14 instructed any dual employee to keep track of their time so
15 that an accurate determination of their allocation could be 16 made, correct?

17 A Not that I recall.

18 Q And because no one was instructed to keep time records,
19 you're unaware of any records that exist today that could be 20 relied upon to accurately determine how much time the dual 21 employees spent working for the advisors, correct?

22 A As I said earlier, aside from e-mails or work product
23 or things like that that existed -- that exists on 24 Highland's systems, you know, I don't know of any -- I don't 25 know anything outside of that.

1 Q Before you signed this agreement, did you make any
2 determination as to whether there was any prohibition or 3 limitation on Highland's ability to make a profit under the
4 payroll reimbursement agreements?

5 A That -- well, it's a payroll reimbursement agreement,
6 right, as you described, so this agreement from the advisors
7 to Highland is to basically reimburse Highland for any costs
8 incurred by Highland Capital Management LP.

9 Q So then why did you personally authorize the advisors
10 to pay the fixed fees that are set forth in each of the 11 agreements each and -- for each and every of the 35 months
12 between January 1st, 2018 and the end of November 2020 or Q-
13 4?

14 MR. RUKAVINA: Object, Your Honor, there's no
15 predicate, there's no foundation that he personally
16 authorized any such payment.

17 THE COURT: Response?

18 MR. MORRIS: I'm happy to do that right now. I'll 19 just skip to that and then we'll come back to it.

20 THE COURT: So I'll sustain.

21 BY MR. MORRIS:

22 Q Remember earlier you agreed that as the treasurer of 23 the advisors you were responsible for making sure that
24 Highland paid -- that the advisors paid the proper amounts
25 under their intercompany agreements with Highland?

1 A Yes.

2 Q Okay. One of the ways you did that was by approving
3 the payments in advance, correct?

4 A I mean, I think I said earlier payments and things of
5 that nature are a team approach, but the -- yes, I mean, I
6 do approve, you know, I do approve payments.

7 Q You did. In fact, you approved -- withdrawn.

8 It was your practice to approve every payment under the 9 intercompany agreements before they were made; is that fair?

10 A I don't know if I approved every single one of these
11 payments under these agreements. I would have to go back
12 and see if I actually made approvals. I don't know.

13 Q Okay. And that's why I framed it as I did. I
14 appreciate the fact that you can't testify with specificity
15 as to every single payment, but your practice was to do
16 that; is that fair?

17 A The team would communicate payments to myself on a
18 weekly basis, you know, for again the purpose was to provide 19 transparency into what was being paid for the week, provide 20 another set of eyes on, you know, what payments are going
21 out and since it's a team approach there may be payments
22 that were inappropriate or left off of the list that others
23 may know about.

24 So it was -- there was a review process in that regard,
25 yes.

1 Q And at the end of that process Kristen Hendricks (ph)
2 would send you an e-mail with a list of the payments that
3 were going to be made on behalf of the advisors and she
4 would seek your approval before effectuating those payments,
5 correct?

6 A It may not have always been Kristen and it depends on
7 -- I don't know what time period you're talking about; it
8 may not have always been Kristen. There may have been 9 others involved and, you know, again hopefully their list
10 was accurate and complete.

11 Q Okay. So without regard to any particular individual,
12 is it fair to say that the practice was to have somebody
13 from the corporate accounting group during the three-year
14 relevant period prepare a list of wire transfers that were 15 going to be made, to send that list to you and to seek your 16 approval before the wires were transferred. Was that the 17 practice even if it didn't happen every single day, even if 18 somebody different did it every single day?

19 A Not always, no.

20 Q Not always, but was it the practice?

21 A No.

22 Q Okay. Can you turn to 147 in your binder please?

23 A 147.

24 Q Uh-huh. It may be the other book. Can you explain to 25 Judge Jernigan what Exhibit 147 is?

1 A This is an e-mail from Kristen Hendricks dated Tuesday,
2 February 11th, 2020 and it's subject -- and it's cc'ing
3 David Klos, subject is wires for today. It has HCMFA and is 4 an HCMLP amount of $300,797 for shared services and as
5 amounts under NexPoint advisors, it says GPM Dugerboy (ph)
6 for $209,790.05 with a note of Trip Grosa (ph) --

7 Q Okay. We don't have to -- I'm going to apologize for 8 interrupting, but is this an e-mail from Kristen to you
9 seeking approval for the initiation of wire transfers one of 10 which is on behalf of HCMFA for the purpose of paying shared 11 services that were due?

12 A This e-mail is, yes.

13 Q Okay. And at the bottom of it, do you see just above
14 her name, it says, okay to send?

15 A Yes.

16 Q Did Ms. Hendricks have a practice of sending e-mails to 17 you with wire transfers in which she sought your approval
18 before initiating?

19 A Yes, but I said again, I said no earlier because this 20 is unique. This is unique because you've -- this is from 21 February of 2020. Prior to filing at Highland, Highland 22 didn't have a bank account at East West. They needed an
23 East West bank account because of the bankruptcy, right, it
24 needed a special bank account.

25 So because of that, the -- there were wires that were

1 sent by the advisors to the East West bank account. Prior
2 to filing, Highland did not have an East West bank account.
3 It had a bank account at NexBank. So the advisors had bank
4 accounts at NexBank as well.

5 Those payments weren't sent by wire. They were
6 typically like a book -- like an ACH or they're a different
7 form. And I don't recall Ms. Hendricks or Mr. Klos on every 8 single one of them, a lot of ACHs were done without my 9 knowledge.

10 Q And that would've been prepetition?

11 A That'd be prepetition, right, because the East West
12 bank account was set up after we filed in October of 2019,
13 that is a new bank account. And there's a new process in 14 place.

15 Q And describe the process for Judge Jernigan that was 16 put in place after the petition date.

17 A What -- the process for Highland wires?

18 Q For HCMFA and NexPoint wires.

19 A So this e-mail is descriptive of that process to, you
20 know, again post-petition if there were wires that was sent
21 out, yes, I was made aware of those wires.

22 Q You weren't just made aware, but your approval was 23 sought, correct?

24 A I was made aware; I didn't go back and recalculate this 25 $300,797. Again, like for the shared service or any of

1 these other payments. Again, you know, this is a team
2 approach. These look routine and customary.

3 Q Okay. So routine and customary and you respond by 4 telling Kristen, okay, correct?

5 A I -- yes, it's in this e-mail.

6 Q And under the process that was put in place after the 7 petition date, could Ms. Hendricks or any person in the 8 accounting team were they expected to initiate these wire
9 transfers without obtaining your approval?

10 A That was the expectation, but I don't -- I mean, I
11 don't think that -- if they didn't get my answer timely, I
12 think it's my understanding that, you know, wires did go out
13 from time to time.

14 Q And do you recall if that ever happened where you
15 learned about it and you told them you made a mistake, you
16 shouldn't have executed that wire, I've looked at it now,
17 I've seen what you've done and you shouldn't have done that?

18 A I don't recall.

19 Q Go to Exhibit 152, please. Is it fair to say that this 20 is just another example of the process that you just 21 described having been put in place after the petition date
22 with the corporate accounting group would create a list of 23 the proposed wires and seek your approval?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Okay. And, in fact, this one specifically relates to

1 the HCMFA sub-advisory agreement in the amount of $416,000,
2 right?

3 A For 416,000, yes.

4 Q So you personally approved in April of 2020 a payment
5 of $416,000 which is exactly the number that was in the 6 payroll reimbursement agreement that you signed back in May 7 of 2018, correct?

8 A I said okay after reviewing it. Again, this is after 9 being aware of this I said, okay.

10 Q And the thing is, Mr. Waterhouse, this wasn't coming
11 into an -- this wasn't coming to you in a vacuum. You
12 expected to get these wired requests. You expected them to 13 be at the numbers that you received, right? You knew this 14 was going to happen before you even got this e-mail from Ms.
15 Hendricks, correct?

16 A What do you mean I expected to?

17 Q Well, your accounting group prepared 13-week forecasts
18 in the ordinary course of business; isn't that right?

19 A Yes.

20 Q And those 13-week forecasts detailed every single
21 payment that was projected to be made under the intercompany
22 agreements during the three-year relevant period, correct?

23 A Yeah, I mean, more or less, yes.

24 Q What's less?

25 A Again, if something was missed here or there, but yeah,

1 13-week forecasts were prepared on a weekly basis. I can't
2 remember if everyone was done a hundred percent accurately,
3 but yes, that was done on a weekly basis.

4 Q Can you describe for Judge Jernigan any recollection
5 you have of there being a payment under any of the 6 intercompany agreements during the three-year relevant
7 period that wasn't properly recorded in one of the 13-week
8 forecasts?

9 A So you're -- I mean, that's over 150 13-week forecasts.
10 I can't recall every single thing over that -- going back
11 three years.

12 Q I appreciate that.

13 A You know.

14 Q But you also can't remember one error that was ever
15 made with respect to a forecasted payment that was due under 16 any of the intercompany agreements, correct?

17 A What I can recall over the relevant time period is yes,
18 there were times where there were updates and comments made
19 on 13-week cash or things that were left out or misbucketed
20 or things of that nature or people not made aware.

21 I don't recall, you know, related to these agreements,
22 but that doesn't mean to say it didn't happen.

23 Q Okay. These 13-week forecasts they were sent to you on 24 a weekly basis and reviewed in group meetings, right?

25 A Yes. We -- yes.

1 Q And prior to the petition date the 13-week forecasts
2 were also sent to Mr. Dondero, correct?

3 A The -- Mr. Dondero received them on a very ad hoc
4 basis.

5 Q Well, for the first few months of the bankruptcy you
6 and DSI routinely went through the 13-week forecasts with 7 Mr. Dondero when Highland filed for bankruptcy, correct?

8 A I don't recall meeting with Mr. Dondero and DSI on a
9 weekly basis for 13-week cash.

10 Q Okay. I'll just ask the question again.

11 For the first few months of the bankruptcy, you and DSI
12 routinely went through the 13-week forecast with Mr. Dondero
13 once Highland was in bankruptcy, correct?

14 A I recall a meeting here and there with Mr. Dondero and 15 Mr. Caruso and Mr. Klos. I wouldn't say it was routine or 16 on a weekly basis.

17 Q All right. Do you remember the deposition that we had 18 a couple of weeks ago?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Okay.

21 MR. MORRIS: Your Honor, do you want to follow the 22 transcript?

23 THE COURT: Do I want to follow the transcript --

24 MR. MORRIS: Yeah, as I cross-examine with it?

25 THE COURT: Well, I guess I can.

1 MR. MORRIS: Okay. That was a loaded question.

2 THE COURT: Yeah.

3 UNIDENTIFIED: John, I don't mind putting it on 4 the screen.

5 MR. MORRIS: Yeah, you don't have to.

6 UNIDENTIFIED: Okay.

7 MR. MORRIS: Mr. Rukavina has it, correct? Okay.

8 BY MR. MORRIS:

9 Q Mr. Waterhouse, do you remember attending the 10 deposition with me virtually a couple of weeks ago?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And my only question is whether you remember being 13 asked this question and giving this answer. And I'm looking 14 at page 173 and its line 20 through page 174, page 3 (sic).

15 "Q Did Mr. Dondero ever receive any of the 16 forecasts that you've just described?

17 "A Yeah, I mean, we, we would walk Jim through 18 cash, the 13-week cash from time-to-time. We did
19 -- I mean, that was one thing. We met with Mr.
20 Dondero and DSI and went through 13-week cash
21 routinely with Mr. Dondero once we were in 22 bankruptcy."

23 Was that -- is that -- did you give that answer to that
24 question?

25 MR. RUKAVINA: Well, and Your Honor, I think he's

1 entitled to know that on line 7 he said,

2 "It was sporadic. So I wouldn't say it was
3 every week."

4 So let's have optional completion.

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 MR. MORRIS: We're going to get to that.

7 No, I actually had the context --

8 MR. RUKAVINA: I just think the witness should 9 have a copy of the transcript.

10 MR. MORRIS: Yeah, okay. Asia, can you put it up
11 on the screen please because I'm going to get to that very 12 point. Here you go, Mr. Waterhouse.

13 BY MR. MORRIS:

14 Q Sir, if you can turn to page 173, my next question was 15 actually going to be do you recall that in the beginning of 16 2020 Mr. Dondero surrendered control of Highland to the 17 independent board?

18 A This says deposition of Dustin Norris, is this the 19 right one?

20 MR. RUKAVINA: No, actually. We have one.

21 THE WITNESS: Okay.

22 Q So do you recall that -- I'm sorry, Mr. Waterhouse,
23 take your time, I don't need to rush you. You're at 173?

24 A I am.

25 Q And I just asked you that question that began at the

1 bottom of 173 and then continued to the top of 174. And
2 now, if you could just look at me because I'm going to ask
3 you a couple of foundational questions, Mr. Waterhouse.

4 A Okay.

5 Q Do you recall that after -- in January 2020 Mr. Dondero
6 surrendered control of Highland to an independent board,
7 correct?

8 A Yes.

9 Q Okay. And thereafter as the calendar turned to 2020,
10 you still went over the 13-week forecast with Mr. Dondero
11 just on a less frequent basis, correct?

12 A I'm trying to -- we probably met with Mr. Dondero -- I
13 don't recall how many times we met with Mr. Dondero at the 14 end of 2019, but it doesn't feel like a lot. Going into 15 2020, we did meet with Mr. Dondero I think a few -- you
16 know, I think a few times versus at the end of 2019.

17 Q And that's my point. In the first few months of the 18 bankruptcy when he was still in control, you met with him as 19 you testified -- you met with him routinely. And then when 20 the independent board was put in place, you met with him
21 sporadically is the word; is that fair?

22 A I don't recall meeting with Mr. Dondero at any time for 23 cash after Highland filed. Mr. Dondero was very busy at the 24 time with the filing and all that happened around the 25 filing. So I don't recall having any meetings with Mr.

1 Dondero at the end of 2019.

2 Q Okay. Then I'm just going to go back and read the same
3 testimony I just did if that's where we are. Page 173 --

4 MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, I object. Object,
5 first of all this is now five minutes, there's no relevance
6 to this. Mr. Morris hasn't established any relevance as to 7 how many times that he might have met with Mr. Dondero on 8 13-week cash forecast, has anything to do with this admin
9 claim. Moreover, good -- the goose and the gander rule. He
10 has not stated anything that requires impeachment from a
11 prior deposition, the testimony is identical.

12 THE COURT: Response?

13 MR. MORRIS: Number one, I can't imagine too many 14 more relevant issues than the person who's in control of the 15 advisors receiving 13-week forecasts that deal every single 16 payment that the advisors were projected to make under the 17 intercompany agreements during the relevant period,
18 including during the period in question, that's number one.

19 Number two, I thought we had an agreement based on 20 his deposition testimony that, in fact, Mr. Waterhouse and 21 DSI routinely went over this stuff after the bankruptcy
22 filing in 2019 and I'm -- I just want to establish that Mr.
23 Dondero continued to receive 13-week forecasts on a sporadic
24 basis in 2020 and continued to meet with the independent
25 board and Frank to go over it. That's what the testimony

1 is. I could just read it into the record if you'd like.

2 THE COURT: Okay. I overrule the objection.

3 BY MR. MORRIS:

4 Q So, Mr. Waterhouse, in 2020, Mr. Dondero continued to 5 receive the 13-week forecast, even if it was sporadically,
6 correct?

7 A He -- yes.

8 Q And, in fact, it's fair to say that Mr. Dondero
9 personally participated in the review of the 13-week
10 forecast with the independent board from time to time,
11 correct?

12 A I don't recall Mr. Dondero and the independent board
13 meeting together for a 13-week cash.

14 Q Can we go to page 175 please? Lines 4 to 13, were you
15 asked these questions and did you give these answers?

16 "Q And then in 2020 once the board was 17 appointed, the board also got involved in the 18 review of the 13-week forecast, correct?

19 "A Correct, so they were part of that process
20 as well.

21 "Q And Mr. Dondero, I'll just say from time to 22 time also participated in that process; is that 23 correct, is that fair?

24 "A Yes.

25 "Q And the 13-week forecast would, if a

1 payment was due under either the shared
2 services agreement or the payroll reimbursement
3 agreements those projected payments would be
4 included in the forecast, right?

5 "A It would."

6 Did you give those answers to my questions a couple of 7 weeks ago?

8 A Yes, it's in the testimony, I mean, my understanding at 9 the time of your questions were did the independent board
10 get involved in reviewing the 13-week forecast, correct,
11 yes. We -- and when you said Mr. Dondero, did he 12 participate in the process I didn't link the independent
13 board with Mr. Dondero. I -- this -- Mr. Dondero did see
14 cash from time to time, like I said sporadically. But I
15 don't recall Mr. Dondero and the independent board in a room
16 reviewing 13-week cash together.

17 Q Okay. As the CFO you were generally aware -- let's 18 shift gears a little bit to the question of hires and 19 terminations, right, and staffing at Highland.

20 As the CFO, you were generally aware each time there
21 was a new hire in the Highland complex, correct?

22 A Yes.

23 Q And you were also generally aware of all employee
24 terminations from the Highland complex, correct?

25 A Yes.

1 Q The human resources department had a process that it
2 used to communicate to the operational groups when someone
3 was terminated or resigned from the Highland complex,
4 correct?

5 A Yes.

6 Q And in 2018 and 2019 Mr. Dondero personally approved
7 the compensation for every team in the Highland complex,
8 right?

9 A I believe so, yes.

10 Q And that would include salary, bonuses and deferred
11 compensation if any, correct?

12 A Yes.

13 Q And you would walk him through every single employee
14 and he would have to personally approve their compensation;
15 is that correct?

16 A Yes.

17 Q Okay. And every month, the human resources department
18 prepared a monthly head count report; isn't that right?

19 A Let me go back to the prior question about me walking
20 Mr. Dondero through every single employee. I didn't walk
21 him through every single employee. There were certain
22 groups that I did not participate, but Mr. Dondero -- I did
23 walk Mr. Dondero through several employees.

24 Q Can you go to page 96 of your transcript please?

25 A Sure.

1 Q Were you asked this question and did you give this
2 answer, tell me when you're there.

3 "Q But to the best of your knowledge as the
4 CFO Mr. Dondero would have had to personally
5 approve any changes in compensation including 6 salary, bonus, and deferred compensation for 7 anybody in the Highland platform, correct?

8 "A Yes. He -- well, he reviewed all
9 employees' base salary, bonuses, cash bonuses
10 and deferred and we walked him through every 11 single employee, you know, he would approve it, 12 make changes, do what he needed to do at his 13 discretion."

14 Is that the answer you gave a couple of weeks ago?

15 A Yes, that's the answer. I guess when I referred to we,
16 we means myself and other Highland employees. So that we
17 wasn't -- so when you asked did you personally walk him
18 through every single employee, I didn't personally. There
19 were others that participated in the process that I did not 20 participate in.

21 Q Okay.

22 A And that's the we.

23 Q Okay. Thanks for the clarification.

24 A Sure.

25 MR. MORRIS: Ms. Canty, can you put up on the

1 screen the spreadsheet that is Exhibit 93?

2 Q And while she does that, let's look at the document.

3 If you can turn to Exhibit 93. And do you see that that's 4 an e-mail from Kelly Stevens (ph) to a bunch of people?

5 A I see it.

6 Q And did Ms. Stevens work in Highland's human resources
7 department during the relevant period?

8 A Yes.

9 Q And did Ms. Stevens send each and every month a head
10 count report, an effective head count report?

11 A That's my general understanding.

12 Q Okay. It was the general practice that she would 13 distribute an effective head count report at the beginning
14 of each month or at the end of each month for the prior 15 month, correct?

16 A Yes.

17 Q And you received those in the ordinary course of 18 business, correct?

19 A I did.

20 Q And Mr. Norris, to the best of your recollection, would 21 have received that in the ordinary course each and every
22 month, correct?

23 A Again I think we went through this in -- I don't know
24 if Mr. Norris was on every single one of these e-mails that 25 Ms. Stevens sent during the relevant period. He is on this

1 e-mail dated March 4th, 2019.

2 Q Okay. And Jason Post and Lauren Bedford, would they be
3 people that in your recollection you would have expected to
4 receive information of this type?

5 A I don't know how this distribution was -- got formed,
6 but they're on the -- they received this e-mail. They are 7 in the to line.

8 Q Okay. And that monthly head count report identified
9 every single person who was employed in the Highland complex
10 as of the date of the e-mail, right?

11 A These have graphs of the head count.

12 Q But there was always a spreadsheet attached, correct,
13 an Excel spreadsheet?

14 A There were spreadsheets, yes.

15 Q And the spreadsheet identified each and every employee
16 in the Highland complex, right?

17 A I believe so.

18 Q And --

19 A I didn't really -- I think I said in my deposition I
20 didn't really pay much attention to these reports.

21 Q Okay. You didn't pay attention to it, but you got it,
22 right?

23 A I'm on the to line, yes.

24 Q And so if you had just clicked it open, you would've
25 seen a list of all the employees in the Highland complex,

1 correct?

2 A From what I recall, I don't -- again, I didn't -- I
3 don't remember (indiscernible) every single one of these, I
4 didn't pay a lot of attention to these e-mails.

5 Q Okay. And do you recall that these reports
6 specifically identified every single person who was 7 terminated from the Highland complex and the date of 8 termination?

9 A Yes. Actually you walked that tab -- I remember that
10 in our deposition, I said that was the first time I've ever
11 actually clicked on that tab and walked through what was on 12 that tab.

13 MR. MORRIS: Thank you, Ms. Canty.

14 Q We've got the exhibit up on the screen and this is the 15 attachment to the document we're just looking at, so it's 16 the head count report for 2/28.

17 MR. MORRIS: And, Your Honor, I just want to spend 18 a minute or two on this or three, so that -- because there's 19 three dozen of them in the exhibit binders and the evidence
20 as to who it was distributed, those documents have been
21 admitted so you can see, you know, I believe -- well, I
22 won't make any representations.

23 Can we click, Ms. Canty, on the tab that says
24 terms? And just scroll to the top.

25 Q Do you see that it has a list of people there, Mr.

1 Waterhouse? You're not familiar with this information
2 that's on this sheet?

3 A These are terminations, again like I said, I had never 4 clicked on this tab to my recollection until we went through
5 it in my deposition a few weeks ago.

6 Q Okay. So do you see that there's a list of people and 7 in columns B and C are the dates of hire and the dates of 8 termination?

9 A I see that.

10 MR. MORRIS: And can we scroll down to the end of 11 this document?

12 Q Okay. And do you see that it shows -- it highlights in 13 yellow the two people that were terminated in February 2019?

14 A It has two individuals that have a term date in
15 February 2019.

16 Q Does that refresh your recollection that these head
17 count reports that were sent every single month specifically 18 highlighted every single employee who was terminated in the 19 prior month?

20 A That is what's detailed in this spreadsheet.

21 Q Okay. Now --

22 MR. MORRIS: We can take that down off the screen.

23 Q I believe you testified and I may not get this
24 accurate, I don't mean to characterize your testimony, but I
25 think you testified that in or around December 2019 you had

1 a conversation with Mr. Klos where you reached a conclusion
2 that there were overpayments on the payroll reimbursement
3 agreement. Do you remember that just generally?

4 A Yeah, I believe I testified, you know, in Q-4 of 2019
5 or could have been early Q-1 of 2020, yes, I had a
6 conversation with Mr. Klos. I believe I testified that Mr.
7 Klos identified the issue and we had a subsequent discussion
8 with Mr. Caruso. Again, I -- we were educating DSI and Mr.
9 Caruso because they were in charge of Highland at the time
10 and we were trying to get them up to speed on everything
11 Highland.

12 You know, as you went through the approval process for,
13 you know, or they're approving all these payments, we were
14 taken through all the revenue contracts, I mean, just you
15 know, everything at the time.

16 Q Okay. You were not aware at that time that one of the 17 UCC's initial focuses was on the business relationships
18 between the debtor and other non-debtor entities that were 19 controlled by Mr. Dondero, correct? You didn't know at that 20 time that that was the UCC's focus, correct?

21 A I don't recall that ever being communicated to us.

22 Q Okay. You don't recall any discussions at any time
23 about the UCC and FTI's interest in knowing about the 24 economics between Highland and the Advisors; correct?

25 A I don't recall.

1 Q You don't recall having any discussion in October,
2 November, or December 2019 with Mr. Klos about preparing an
3 analysis for the UCC and FTI that would attempt to show how 4 Highland's costs compared with its revenues under its
5 agreements with the Advisors. You don't have any
6 recollection of that at all; isn't that correct?

7 A I don't have a recollection. At the time, you know,
8 DSI was getting information from the various teams. They 9 were interfacing with Mr. Klos tremendously. I am not aware
10 of that coming -- myself having that conversation with Mr.
11 Klos.

12 Q And you have no recollection of ever participating in a
13 meeting with the UCC or FTI in November or December of 2019
14 or January 2020 where the topic of the profitability of 15 Highland's agreements with its affiliates was discussed;
16 correct?

17 A I don't recall.

18 Q You don't recall ever discussing with Mr. Klos whether 19 he ever made a presentation to the UCC and to FTI concerning
20 Highland's profitability under its agreements; correct?

21 A I don't recall.

22 Q Did Mr. Klos tell you -- did Mr. Klos prepare the 23 analysis that you just referred to as having discussed with 24 Mr. Caruso?

25 A Are you referring to the analysis of -- that outlined

1 overpayments?

2 Q Sure.

3 A Yes. Mr. Klos did prepare that.

4 Q Do you know why he prepared it?

5 A Yeah. My general recollection is he wanted to make DSI
6 aware that there were overpayments on these agreements.

7 Q What would be the purpose of doing that?

8 A Again, amending the agreements to reflect, you know,
9 the actual costs incurred by Highland.

10 Q Why would that be in Highland's interest at that moment
11 in time?

12 A I -- we felt like we needed to make him aware of it. I
13 mean, again, these are, you know, these are agreements that 14 we felt that weren't, you know, that needed change and we 15 alerted Mr. Caruso to that fact.

16 Q Who's we?

17 A Myself and Dave.

18 Q It's your testimony that Dave Klos said that he thought 19 the agreements needed to be changed at the end of 2019 or 20 the beginning of 2020?

21 A It's my testimony that we had a meeting with Mr.
22 Caruso, notified him of the overpayments that were related
23 to these agreements. You know, again, nothing came of the 24 meeting. There were no changes or anything. And I don't --
25 I don't recall specifically talking about hey, you know,

1 Highland needs to amend these agreements. But we made him
2 aware of these overpayments that were related to the 3 agreements, saying it was primarily the payroll
4 reimbursement agreement.

5 Q Were Mr. Leventon and Mr. Ellington present in this
6 meeting?

7 A No, they were not.

8 Q But you told them the same thing; didn't you?

9 A Well, so in that discussion with Mr. Caruso, Mr. Caruso
10 said we -- that nothing could be changed, right? There was 11 an automatic stay as part of the bankruptcy so you know,
12 like thank you for letting me know this issue, but nothing
13 can be changed. There's an automatic stay.

14 I, you know, at some point after that, I talked to 15 Mr. Leventon and Mr. Ellington to ask them, you know, is 16 there an automatic stay in place? And yeah, I mean, they --
17 that's what they told me.

18 Q Did you tell them that there were overpayments?

19 A Yeah, I told them that there were, you know, agreements
20 between the advisors and Highland that, you know, were --
21 there were overpayments. And, you know, and DSI said we're 22 going to -- a stay and like I'm not a lawyer, and you know,
23 this -- this process was obviously new to myself and a lot
24 of team members at Highland. And Mr. Leventon and Mr.
25 Ellington were closer to, you know, they're lawyers and so I

1 asked them as well.

2 Q Did you tell them the magnitude of the overpayments?

3 A Not that I recall.

4 Q Did you tell them, do you know now when the
5 overpayments started?

6 A I mean, if it's related to the payroll reimbursement
7 agreement, it would have been at the time of any -- if there
8 were any costs incurred by Highland, or costs not incurred
9 by Highland, that the advisors reimbursed for, so I mean, it
10 could have been as early as 2018. But if you look at the 11 list of employees on your Exhibit A, the higher-dollar
12 employees like Mr. Okada and Mr. Parker that had just left,
13 that issue -- those, if something hadn't changed, those 14 overpayments would become larger over time.

15 Q Are you aware that under the theory you just described,
16 the advisors were overpaying Highland the very second you
17 signed those agreements?

18 A I think in my deposition, you had -- you had pointed 19 out an employee that had left prior to the signing of the 20 payroll reimbursement agreement but yet -- but it was a --
21 it was that they were employed after the effective date.

22 Q There were four dual employees who were terminated
23 before you signed that agreement; isn't that right?

24 A Yes. The agreement was dated January 1, 2018, so I
25 mean, you know, I think we established that's why we signed

1 as of that date.

2 Q And you understood that the agreement included the
3 compensation for every one of the employees on Exhibit A
4 regardless of whether or not they were terminated; correct?

5 A Yes.

6 Q And in fact, half of the employees had been terminated
7 before anybody heard of Jim Seery or the independent board;
8 isn't that right?

9 A I don't remember the -- the total number.

10 Q Did you ever try to do an analysis of Highland's
11 profitability under the payroll reimbursement agreement
12 until Mr. Klos did it in late 2019?

13 A I did not.

14 Q Was it ever a concern of yours as to whether or not
15 Highland was making a profit under these payroll agreements
16 until Mr. Klos prepared this analysis at the end of 2019?

17 A I don't -- I don't recall that.

18 Q Did you share Mr. Klos's analysis with Mr. Leventon and 19 Mr. Ellington? Did you give them a copy?

20 A I did not.

21 Q Did you tell Mr. Dondero, there's overpayments here?

22 A I did not.

23 Q You didn't tell Mr. Sauter. You didn't tell Mr.
24 Norris. You didn't tell Ms. Fedford. You didn't tell any 25 officer or control person of the advisors about these

1 overpayments when you learned about them in November and
2 December or January 2020; right? Late 2019, 2020. You
3 didn't tell anybody in the world except for Mr. Leventon and 4 Mr. Ellington and Mr. Caruso; isn't that right?

5 A Yes. I mean, I told Mr. Caruso. Like my expectation
6 was Mr. Caruso was in charge of Highland so if he needed to 7 speak to Mr. Dondero or others, that was Mr. -- Mr. -- that
8 was Mr. Caruso's, you know, purview.

9 Q Did you believe that Mr. Caruso had the authority to 10 renegotiate agreements on behalf of Highland?

11 A I mean, he -- he was in charge. I mean, that's -- I
12 mean, that's how we treated him from my group's perspective.

13 Q Do you know who Brad Sharp is?

14 A Yes.

15 Q Do you know Brad Sharp was actually the CRO, not Fred
16 Caruso?

17 A I mean, Fred Caruso was the person we -- he was in the 18 office every day that we talked to and were educating on 19 everything Highland. We were not educating Brad Sharp on 20 everything Highland. We were educating Fred Caruso, and 21 then Fred Caruso was, you know, doing whatever he was doing
22 with that.

23 You know, I -- Fred, my understanding, started DSI. He 24 had 30 years of experience in bankruptcy. I, you know, I
25 had no reason not to rely on Fred and his expertise in

1 communicating with Brad Sharp or anyone else.

2 Q Okay. I'm asking you what the base -- you believed
3 that Fred Caruso had the authority to renegotiate these
4 agreements with the advisors. Is that your testimony?
5 That's your belief?

6 A If Fred Caruso felt like it was something that was 7 important, then yeah, he could have -- if he said talk to 8 Brad Sharp, who's CRO, or others, or he had a relationship
9 with Mr. Dondero, yes. I mean, if that was something that 10 needed to be done, yeah. Mr. Caruso was -- was involved on 11 a day -- he was -- he was on the ground at that time.

12 Q The independent board got put in place on January 9th,
13 2020; correct?

14 A Yes.

15 Q And you spent an awful lot of time with Mr. Seery and 16 the independent board, getting them up to speed too. You
17 kind of had round two. Isn't that fair?

18 A That's fair.

19 Q You never told the independent board about these 20 overpayments; correct?

21 A I didn't.

22 Q And there's no question in your mind that the 23 independent board was in control of Highland as of January
24 9th, 2020; correct?

25 A They were in charge.

1 Q And this is really at the -- I mean, you said it could
2 be late 2019, early 2020. This conversation with Mr. Klos
3 and with Mr. Caruso could have happened really after the 4 independent board was appointed; isn't that right?

5 A No. Because this was when, I mean, the independent
6 board wasn't there, so if it was January 9th, it would have
7 been prior to the independent board being appointed.
8 Because it was - Fred was there on a daily basis and we 9 were, I mean, educating Fred, and you know, the board -- the 10 board wasn't there. And if -- if the board was there, and 11 they were in charge at the time, you know, after that 12 period, it would have made more sense than to have gone to 13 the independent board. So again, we went when Fred was in 14 charge. We viewed Fred, you know, as being in charge.

15 Q So the conversation didn't happen in January 2020. Now
16 you're sure it happened in December 2019?

17 A Well, if the date was January 9th of the independent
18 board, yes. I mean, it -- it -- that date was right after 19 the new year. And again, what I'm saying is, is that 20 conversation with Fred didn't happen with the independent
21 board so having that date as kind of more, of a frame of 22 reference, would, you know, in my mind pushes that
23 conversation more to Q4 of 2019.

24 Q Was there any question in your mind that on January
25 9th, 2020, the independent board-controlled Highland and not

1 Fred Caruso?

2 A The independent board was in charge.

3 Q No question; right?

4 A Yes.

5 Q And that happened, at most, a couple weeks after you
6 had this conversation with Mr. Klos and Mr. Caruso; correct?

7 A I -- again, it was in Q4 of 2019, so yes it could have
8 been a couple weeks. It could have been a month. I don't
9 -- I don't, you know, again --

10 Q Did the thought occur to you that maybe you ought to 11 tell the independent board?

12 A Like -- we had communicated. I had communicated that 13 to Mr. Caruso. Mr. Caruso was talking to the independent 14 board and also getting them up to speed from their 15 perspective. Mr. Caruso had every opportunity to let the 16 independent board know as well. I did not tell the 17 independent board.

18 MR. MORRIS: Move to strike, Your Honor. I'm 19 going to do this because I want to move this along.

20 THE COURT: Sustained.

21 BY MR. MORRIS:

22 Q Did the thought occur to you for you to tell the 23 independent board of what you learned?

24 A No. because I thought it was Mr. Caruso's
25 responsibility.

1 Q Okay. You met with the independent board on a weekly
2 basis throughout at least the first -- for most of 2020;
3 right?

4 A Yes.

5 Q And part of those weekly meetings would be to go
6 through the 13-week forecast; right?

7 A Yes.

8 Q And the 13-week forecast would include all the payments
9 that were projected to be made by the Advisors under each of 10 the intercompany agreements that it had with Highland;
11 correct?

12 A Yes.

13 Q And at no time during those 52 meetings that you had 14 approximately -- whatever weekly meetings you had with the 15 independent board, at no time during the meetings, did it
16 occur to you that you might want to alert the independent
17 board that there were overpayments; right?

18 A No. It didn't occur to me, because as I found out with 19 talking to Mr. Caruso, and Mr. Leventon, and Mr. Ellington,
20 that Highland was under an automatic stay and nothing could
21 be changed in relation to these agreements. So when I deal
22 with board members that I served, you know, with board
23 members, I want to focus them -- I don't want people, you
24 know -- my energy and time need to be spent on things that 25 can be changed and we can work on.

1           So my energy, again, at the end of 2019, once I learned
2 that nothing could be changed, I was dealing with the 20,000
3 other things that I had to deal with, with the bankruptcy as
4 I testified earlier. And so I treated the independent board
5 in the same manner. They stepped into Highland not knowing
6 anything and we were educating them as you just -- we had a
7 round two.

8           So as part of that education, I didn't feel like it was 9 a need to educate them on something that they couldn't 10 change. I focused -- board members' time is valuable, and 11 so it's more -- you know, my view was, let them focus on 12 things that they can change or you know, that they need to 13 work on. And if Mr. -- again, I viewed it as Mr. Caruso's
14 responsibility. If you want to tell the independent board
15 and have them focus on things that couldn't change and 16 really didn't matter, at the time, then that was his
17 responsibility.

18 Q       Did you ever tell them, gee, Highland's making a lot of 19 money on those contracts without even talking about 20 overpayments? Did you characterize the payroll
21 reimbursement agreements to the independent board as a real
22 positive asset for the estate?

23 A       I don't -- I don't recall that.

24 Q       You didn't tell them that either? You don't have a
25 recollection of telling them that?

1 A I don't recall.

2 Q Do you recall putting anything in writing that
3 memorialized the conversations that you had with either Mr.
4 Caruso or Mr. Klos about the overpayments? Did you ever
5 send anybody an email and say, I just want to confirm, or I
6 just want to memorialize what I've been told and what I've
7 heard from Mr. Caruso?

8 A Mr. Morris, you have all my email records. I -- I
9 don't recall.

10 Q You don't recall doing that, right?

11 A But -- you have all my email records, sir.

12 Q And did the thought occur to you that you might want to 13 save your own butt by sending an email to Mr. Caruso that 14 says, "hey, Fred, I told you about these overpayments but 15 you told me nothing can be done about it because of the 16 automatic stay and I'm relying on you."

17 Did you ever think that maybe you should do something
18 to protect yourself?

19 A No. It was -- it was a collaborative work process. I
20 don't -- I don't view working with people as saving butts.
21 I mean, it's a collaborative work process.

22 I've always had a collaborative work process with 23 everyone that I work with. And you know, at any time, I
24 never felt threatened by Mr. Caruso or anyone at the 25 independent board. So I didn't feel the need, again,

1 because it was a collaborative work process. And Mr. Caruso
2 was very appreciative of all of the efforts of myself, Mr.
3 Klos, and others were doing to get him up to speed.

4 Q By the way, so is Mr. Seery. Okay. I don't -- we're
5 having a cross-examination here but I don't want you to 6 think that the independent board wasn't also appreciative of 7 your efforts.

8 Let's speed it up. December of 2020, Q4, you don't
9 remember exactly but you have a conversation with Mr.
10 Dondero where Mr. Dondero instructs you not to make any 11 payments to Highland. Do I have that right?

12 A In Q4 of 2020?

13 Q Correct.

14 A Yes.

15 Q And that's the only reason that the Advisors stopped
16 paying the amounts that were due under the intercompany
17 agreements that it had with Highland, correct?

18 A Yes.

19 Q It was Mr. Dondero's specific instruction, correct?

20 A Yes.

21 Q Okay. Later in December, you asked Mr. Klos to update
22 that analysis we've been talking about that he prepared in 23 December 2019. Do you remember that?

24 A Yes.

25 Q And you did that because you understood that the

1 Advisors were in negotiations with Highland; correct?

2 A They're -- I was -- I was made aware that there were
3 negotiations by the advisors. I -- my asking Mr. Klos to 4 update the analysis, I think was predicated on those
5 negotiations. That there were negotiations going on.

6 Q And you were told that by the Advisors? Who at the 7 advisors told you about these negotiations?

8 A I recall Mr. Dondero and Mr. Norris.

9 Q And Mr. Dondero and Mr. Norris ask you for information
10 that they could use in these negotiations?

11 A Not that I recall.

12 Q Is that what prompted you to ask Mr. Klos to update his 13 analysis?

14 A Not that I recall.

15 Q But you asked Mr. Klos to update the analysis because 16 the negotiations were ongoing; correct?

17 A There were negotiations that were ongoing. I didn't --
18 I don't recall asking him to update the analysis
19 specifically because of the negotiations.

20 Q Ca you turn to Page 344 of your transcript, please?
21 Lines 11 through 14. You were asked this question, and did
22 you give this answer?

23 "Question: What prompted you" -- I'm going to start at 24 the prior question for context, at Page -- at Line 6.

25 "Just a last question or two. You said that

1 in December 2020, you asked Mr. Klos to update the
2 analysis that he had done the prior December. Do
3 I have that right?

4 "Answer: Yes.

5 "Question: What prompted you to ask him to 6 do that?

7 "Answer: Again, it was these negotiations
8 that were going on with the Advisors and 9 Highland."

10 Have I read your answers correctly to my questions?

11 A Yeah, you have.

12 Q And so you asked Mr. Klos to update this analysis for 13 use in the negotiations, correct?

14 MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, that's not a prior 15 inconsistent statement. What prompted hm to do it is 16 different from why he asked him to do it. So I don't think
17 that this is a fair impeachment or a fair characterization.
18 I think he was prompted to do something for one reasons, you
19 do it for other reasons.

20 THE COURT: Overruled.

21 BY MR. MORRIS:

22 Q What prompted you to ask him to do that was the 23 negotiations that were ongoing; correct?

24 A There were ongoing negotiations. Again, like I -- I
25 mean, there were ongoing negotiations. You know, like I

1 testified, Mr. Dondero and Mr. Norris did not ask me to do
2 it for these numbers. And you know, and it was, you know,
3 as I testified earlier about like the payroll reimbursement
4 program, the overpayments on the payroll reimbursement
5 program would likely grow over time as the high-dollar
6 employees -- you know, as payments were made throughout the 7 year to the high-dollar employees that just left Highland
8 prior to filing. So you know, it's just -- it's just 9 knowing numbers and updating analyses that I think that -- 10 knowing that there are negotiations that are going on.

11 Q You weren't participating in those negotiations;
12 correct?

13 A I was not.

14 Q And Mr. Seery didn't tell you about these negotiations;
15 did he?

16 A Not that I recall.

17 Q Nobody other than Mr. Dondero and Mr. Norris told you
18 about these negotiations; correct?

19 A Again, not that I recall.

20 Q Okay. So when you asked Mr. Klos, you were prompted to 21 ask Mr. Klos to update the analysis that was done at the end
22 of 2019 for use in negotiations that you weren't
23 participating in; correct?

24 A They weren't used in the negotiations. You know,
25 again, I wasn't participating. I didn't communicate, you

1 know, any of Dave's -- Mr. Klos's analysis to Mr. Norris or
2 Mr. Dondero. Yet negotiations were going on at the time.

3 Q So explain to Judge Jernigan why you would ask Mr. Klos
4 to update an analysis for a negotiation that you weren't
5 participating in, and that you didn't give to anybody. Why
6 did you ask him to do this?

7 A Again, I mean, people that know me, that work with me,
8 I like to know numbers. I'm a CFO. I'm an accountant. I'm 9 a CPA. And you know, knowing that there were negotiations
10 go on, again, it's kind of just my nature to be curious and 11 say, okay, well, we did an analysis last year. Oh, you
12 know, what is this number now, look like today?

13 Q When you asked Mr. Klos to update the analysis, he 14 asked you if you were going to use it for an adverse reason;
15 didn't he?

16 A I don't recall talking to Mr. Klos about that.

17 Q But if Mr. Klos testified that he believed that you had 18 an ulterior motive for asking him to update the report, by 19 eliminating dual employees who had been terminated, your 20 view is that he's entitled to his opinion; correct?

21 A Mr. Klos is entitled to his opinion. You know, I -- I
22 would never put Mr. Klos in a position, and it was never my 23 practice of putting him in a position where he was doing
24 something wrong or incorrect.

25 Q How much money did you receive from NexPoint after the

1 petition date?

2 A Approximately $90,000.

3 Q And you didn't disclose that to the independent board;
4 correct?

5 A I did not.

6 Q And you don't recall why you got that money; correct?

7 A Correct.

8 Q And you spoke with Brian Collins. He's the one who 9 told you you'd be receiving the money; correct?

10 A Correct.

11 Q And he also told you that Isaac Leventon and Scott
12 Ellington and Thomas Surgent were also going to be receiving
13 payments from NexPoint; correct?

14 A That's correct.

15 Q And you don't recall him explaining to you why this 16 money was coming to you from NexPoint?

17 A I don't.

18 Q Do you recall if the payments had anything to do with 19 the bonuses that were not going to be paid as a result of 20 the Court's decision?

21 A I wasn't aware of the Court's decision.

22 Q You don't recall that in the spring of 2020, there was 23 a motion to pay bonuses and an order was entered, permitting
24 all bonuses to be paid to all employees except for the 25 senior four?

1 A I -- I wasn't aware of that. It was my understanding
2 that the senior employees were still eligible.

3 MR. MORRIS: Just one second, Your Honor.

4 I have no further questions, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Pass the witness, Mr. Rukavina.

6 CROSS-EXAMINATION

7 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

8 Q Mr. Waterhouse, it's unusual that I examine my own
9 officer without a chance to prepare you but have you and I
10 -- have we met before in person?

11 A Not in person. Just over Zoom.

12 Q And through all the times that we met on Webex, was it
13 at depositions?

14 A Correct.

15 Q I have not had a chance to prepare you before today;
16 have I?

17 A You have not.

18 Q Okay. This 90 --

19 MR. MORRIS: I'm sorry.

20 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

21 Q This $90,000 payment; the insinuation is that somehow
22 that motivated you to take actions that you wouldn't have 23 otherwise. Is there any merit to such an insinuation?

24 A No.

25 Q Is $90,000 material to a man like you that makes over

1 seven figures every year?

2 A It's not.

3 Q Okay. Whose idea was it that the $90,000 be paid?

4 A It's my understanding Mr. Dondero authorized it.

5 Q But do you know whose idea it originally was to ask Mr.
6 Dondero to authorize the payment? Was it your idea?

7 A It was not.

8 Q Was it Mr. Surgent's idea?

9 A I don't know whose idea it was.

10 Q Okay. And that payment happened sometime prior to your 11 December 2020 interaction with Mr. Klos; is that correct?

12 A Yes.

13 Q Okay. So just very clearly, did that $90,000 payment
14 have anything to do with your discussion with Mr. Klos to 15 walk forward his prior analysis for FTI and DSI?

16 A No.

17 Q Did that -- could that payment have any -- have had 18 anything to do with the results that Mr. Klos reached?

19 A No.

20 Q Did Mr. Klos receive some kind of bonus or hidden
21 payment or whatever they want to call it? From the
22 Advisors?

23 A Not that I'm aware.

24 Q So even if somehow you were on the take, which is 25 offensive, Mr. Klos certainly wasn't; was he?

1 A I'm not aware of any payments to Mr. Klos.

2 Q And are you aware that one of the assumptions that Mr.
3 Klos used in his December analysis was to use current
4 headcount? Do you want to see that email to refresh
5 yourself?

6 A Yeah. I think that'd be --

7 Q I think that would be fair to you. It's Exhibit Q in 8 the small binder.

9 (Witness reviews document)

10 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

11 Q You'll remember this, sir. We discussed it at your 12 deposition. You see that one of the things that Mr. Klos
13 says is that changes from that analysis -- that analysis
14 serves the prior DSI analysis; right? That you talked 15 about?

16 A Yes.

17 Q Okay. And Mr. Klos says, "reflects current headcount.
18 Terms removed, new hires added." Do you see that?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Okay. Did you tell Mr. Klos to make that assumption?

21 A Not that I recall.

22 Q If one was trying to get an accurate sense of the 23 profitability of the payroll reimbursement agreements to 24 Highland, can you think of anything wrong with using the 25 current, then real-world, headcount?

1 A So if I'm understanding you right, again, he only had
2 -- reflects current headcount on the payroll reimbursement
3 agreement.

4 Q Yes, I'm asking you as a CPA, as a professional, as a
5 CFO of a very large company, what's wrong with making that
6 assumption? Whoever's idea it was, what's wrong with it?

7 A I'm just -- if this is the payroll reimbursement
8 agreement, look, I -- I honestly don't, as I sit here today,
9 know what the current headcount relates to --

10 Q Mr. Waterhouse, I'm not asking you that. I'm saying,
11 as the CFO, you asked your subordinate to walk forward a
12 prior analysis of profitability. Is that accurate?

13 MR. MORRIS: Your Honor, I'm going to object as 14 leading. Mr. Rukavina may have never met Mr. Waterhouse.
15 He is the advisors' officer. He is their treasurer today.
16 He should not be leading this witness.

17 THE COURT: Sustained.

18 MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, I'm not really leading.
19 I'm just bringing him up to the next question. I'm allowed
20 to recap prior -- to set -- to phrase the next question.

21 THE COURT: I think it was leading. Sustained.

22 MR. RUKAVINA: Okay. Okay.

23 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

24 Q Well, listen to my question, okay.

25 A Okay

1 Q So I'm not going to lead you, okay? Why did you ask --
2 you already testified, but we already spent a half an hour
3 on this, so why did you ask Mr. Klos to walk forward his
4 December 2019 analysis?

5 A Again, I just wanted to see what those numbers
6 reflected.

7 Q Did you want his analysis to be reasonable?

8 A Yes.

9 Q What did you expect him to do when you gave him that 10 instruction?

11 A To again walk forward the analysis that was done in the 12 prior year.

13 Q Did you expect him to do it in good faith?

14 A Yes.

15 Q As a professional?

16 A Yes.

17 Q What about what numbers should he have used? What 18 would have been your expectation if you were looking for a
19 real-world analysis?

20 A I mean, he would have used, again, --

21 Q Well, we know --

22 A -- he would have used all, again, he would have used
23 all costs in relation to this analysis. So if there were,
24 you know, again, if there were terms that renewed but costs
25 that were incurred for those terms; right, that would have

1 been if you're looking at costs that were incurred by
2 Highland and would be paid in the reimbursement program, it
3 would have been inappropriate to remove those costs.

4 Q Okay. That's not the question though. The question is
5 as follows: The assumption there says reflects current 6 headcount. Do you see that?

7 A Mm-hmm.

8 Q So I'm asking you, as his boss, as a CPA, as a
9 professional man for a long time, can you think of anything
10 wrong with using the current headcount for what Mr. Klos was 11 doing for you?

12 A Again, if -- if there were prior headcount that should
13 be used in the analysis --

14 Q Please look at the analysis. It's in the binder.

15 A -- that should be used in the analysis, then you know,
16 those prior employees likely should have been included in 17 the, you know, in the analysis.

18 Q Did you think that Mr. Klos's analysis was reasonable
19 when you received it?

20 A I -- I didn't -- when Mr. Klos sent me this analysis, I
21 didn't look at the -- at any of the detail or the backup to 22 this analysis.

23 Q What did you think when you got this from Mr. Klos?

24 A You know, I thought that Mr. Klos made some assumptions
25 that he put in.

1 Q Okay. And stop that -- stop there. What did you think
2 about his assumptions? Were they fair? Were they unfair?

3 A Well, if you are looking at the costs incurred on the 4 payroll reimbursement program, let's take that one for 5 example. That agreement is -- was put in place, again, to 6 reimburse Highland for costs that it incurred, right? And 7 to reimburse them. And that was a -- a fully loaded cost.
8 So if there were costs that were excluded from that 9 analysis, yeah, they may not have been appropriate.

10 Q What would you have expected Mr. Klos to do with 11 respect to those potential costs, removed from that 12 analysis? In other words, would you have expected him to 13 account for that or not account for it?

14 A No, I mean, those cost should have been accounted -- I
15 mean, again, if you -- if we're looking in, for -- this is 16 done in December of 2020, you look at all of the costs that 17 were incurred by Highland for the relevant employees if 18 we're talking about the payroll reimbursement program. And 19 that would include, on a cash basis, any bonuses or anything
20 else that were paid to those employees. Because that was 21 incurred. That was cash paid to those employees by 22 Highland; right? And the agreement is going to reimburse
23 from the Advisors for those costs that were actually 24 incurred.

25 Q Did Mr. Klos tell you anything about is analysis other

1 than what's in this Exhibit Q? That email?

2 A I don't recall having -- I don't recall discussing
3 anything outside of this.

4 Q Did Mr. Klos tell you anything to the effect of that
5 his analysis might be unreasonable or unreliable?

6 A No. I mean, Mr. Klos put -- detailed assumptions that 7 he used in this analysis. Mr. Klos and I have, over the 8 years, he's put together hundreds of analyses and pro
9 formas, and there are, you know, certain things that can be 10 assumed in an analysis, and you know, I mean, maybe it's 11 right. Maybe it's wrong.

12 Q One more question, Mr. Waterhouse, and then we'll move
13 on, because I don't think you're understanding my question.

14 The insinuation is that for your $90,000 payment,
15 somehow you had Mr. Klos prepare an unreliable document for 16 an ulterior motive. And I'm asking you, even if you had any 17 such motive, which I find, and you find offensive, what 18 could you have told Mr. Klos to do that would have made his 19 resulting analysis unreliable? Did you tell him to lie?

20 A No.

21 Q Did you tell him to fabricate numbers?

22 A No.

23 Q Did you tell him to have a prearranged result in sight?

24 A No.

25 Q Did you tell him to have any particular result or

1 conclusion in mind?

2 A No. I --

3 Q You told him to walk forward the numbers. Is that
4 correct?

5 A Bless you.

6 Q Is that correct?

7 A Mm-hmm.

8 Q You have to say yes or no.

9 A Yes.

10 Q And maybe you told him to use these assumptions, maybe
11 you didn't. You don't remember; right?

12 A I don't recall.

13 Q And very quickly now, one more thing that caught my 14 attention. Look at Exhibit I, please, in my binder. And go
15 to the last page.

16 Now keep that open and go to Exhibit 147 in Mr.
17 Morris'. This is going to get a little bit complicated but 18 go to Exhibit 147 in Mr. Morris'.

19 Now, you asked about this. You see that there is a
20 transfer of $300,000 -- $300,797. Do you see that, sir?

21 A I do.

22 Q Okay. And you see the date that Ms. Hendrix (ph) is 23 asking you about that? What's that date?

24 A It's Tuesday, February 11th, 2020.

25 Q And that's the same date that you went back to her in

1 the morning or I'm sorry, what time did you go back? 12:34
2 p.m.?

3 A Yes.

4 Q Now in Exhibit I, can you locate that same $300,797
5 transfer? It's in the top third.

6 A Yes.

7 Q What's that date?

8 A February 10th.

9 Q And what's the --

10 A 2020.

11 Q What's the heading of that column?

12 A Receipt date.

13 Q Do you have any idea how Highland could have received
14 that letter the day before Ms. Hendrix sought your approval
15 and you gave it?

16 A I don't.

17 Q Okay. Returning to the payroll reimbursement
18 agreements, let's go through some things rather quickly. Do
19 you know, sir, how the monthly preset reimbursement rates
20 were arrived at in those two agreements?

21 A I don't.

22 Q Okay. Do you know whether anyone in particular set
23 those numbers?

24 A I don't. I think I testified earlier that, you know,
25 there's an analysis to back up numbers that are put into

1 these agreements.

2 Q And did you believe that that analysis had been done in
3 good faith?

4 A Yes.

5 Q And did you believe that that analysis was a reasonable
6 estimate of the actual reimbursable amounts that should have
7 been payable to Highland?

8 A Yes.

9 Q Would you have signed those agreements if you believed 10 that there was anything misleading or deceptive about them?

11 A No. I would not have.

12 Q Okay. I have the same question with the shared
13 services agreements. Do you know how the monthly payable 14 amounts were arrived at in those agreements?

15 A I don't.

16 Q And before signing or -- I'm sorry. You didn't sign
17 those agreements. But do you know whether or do you have 18 any idea of whether an analysis was actually done for what 19 those monthly reimbursable rates should be?

20 A Same as I answered earlier. An analysis, you know,
21 again, is put together to support these numbers. I think I
22 also, you know, I testified earlier in my deposition, that 23 you know, for contracts of this type, when we're audited,
24 you know, we have to provide support to auditors for these 25 -- for these numbers. Again, you know, there is an analysis

1 that is there for those purposes.

2 Q Did you ever hear Mr. Dondero just pick a number and
3 tell anyone that that's -- unilaterally, that that's the 4 number that should be used for those monthly or annual 5 reimbursement rates?

6 A I don't -- I don't recall.

7 Q And I think you were asked about this but those payroll
8 reimbursement agreements and shared services agreements, do
9 you know whether they were approved by the internal lawyers
10 at Highland, the Highland legal department?

11 A I don't but I testified earlier about you know, if I
12 have a document that is dropped off at my office, for 13 signature, there is a section which asks, you know, has 14 Legal reviewed it and approved, or if someone walks a
15 document of this nature into my office for signature, I
16 would ask them that -- the same.

17 Q And go to Exhibit C, please. C and D are very similar.
18 You can look at both of them. They're identical except one
19 is for HCMFA and one is for NexPoint, and they're in 20 different amounts. Do you recall these two documents? I
21 mean, from your deposition, do you recall these two 22 documents?

23 A I do.

24 Q And you signed these two documents; right?

25 A Yes, I did. d

1 Q So do you know how the $1.2 million amount in one
2 agreement and the $1.3 million amount in the other agreement
3 was arrived at?

4 A I don't recall.

5 Q Did you ever hear Mr. Dondero or anyone else say
6 something like we need tax deductions at the advisors so
7 let's channel some money over to Highland?

8 A I don't recall.

9 Q If Highland -- if there were a series of promissory
10 notes with Highland and various insiders, you're generally
11 aware of that; correct?

12 A Yes.

13 Q And from time to time, as Highland's finances were not
14 doing well and Highland would need some cash, did sometimes 15 some of these note parties prepay certain obligations on the 16 most of Highland in order to get Highland cash?

17 A There were promissory notes between Highland and the --
18 you know, and the insiders. I don't recall every -- you
19 know, I don't recall --

20 Q Sure.

21 A -- every instance where money was lent to Highland.

22 Q Okay. But I'm asking on occasion, if Highland needed
23 immediate liquidity, would sometimes Highland ask one of 24 these note parties to prepay or pay quicker its obligations?

25 A Yes.

1 Q Okay. And that was a way sometimes for Highland to get
2 immediate liquidity?

3 A Yes.

4 Q So can you think of a reason why someone would have
5 done these Exhibits C and D to get $2.5 million to Highland,
6 as opposed to just working on one of the notes?

7 A I don't recall.

8 Q Okay. So these -- both of these contracts here say
9 that the payments are a one-time payment of estimated
10 additional actual costs owed to HCMLP for additional 11 resources used by HCMFA. Do you see that, sir?

12 A Uh --

13 Q It's the second whereas.

14 A Yes, I see that.

15 Q Okay. Do you have any reason to disbelieve that what 16 this here says is true?

17 THE COURT: I apologize. What exhibit are you on?

18 MR. RUKAVINA: I'm on Exhibit C. C and D are, 19 again, identical.

20 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

21 Q Do you have any reason to believe that what Exhibit C
22 says there in the second whereas is not true?

23 A I don't.

24 Q Okay. What about Exhibit D? Do you have any reason to 25 disbelieve that what Exhibit D says is true? The second

1    whereas.

2    A     I don't.

3    Q     Okay. Now, you don't have -- I'm sorry. Do you have
4    any specific recollection of these two amendments: C and D?

5    A     I don't. I don't recall.

6    Q     Okay. So separate from these two, was there a process
7    at Highland, whereby Highland would periodically review or 8    true up or reconcile long-term contracts?

9    A     I mean, if it was stated -- yes.

10   Q     Okay. What was that process, generally, before we talk
11   about any particular contract?

12   A     I mean, if there was, you know, something stated in an
13   agreement, you know, and needed -- you know, needed truing
14   up, yes. I mean, things like that would be trued up on a
15   periodic basis.

16   Q     And what was that -- what is the general practice of 17   that period? What was the period?

18   A     I just remember generally, but it is -- I mean, that 19   would be, like, more on a yearly basis. From what I recall,
20   in years past, there were -- it was just too onerous to true
21   up agreements on less than a yearly basis. So yearly is 22   kind of more of the practice. But again, this is just a
23   general recollection.

24   Q     Do you have any specific recollection that there was an 25   annual true-up like that for the two payroll reimbursement

1 agreements?

2 A I don't -- from what I recall from the DIPs, I don't
3 think there was a true-up mechanism in the agreements.

4 Q Okay. You're, of course, familiar with the services
5 agreements and the services that Highland was providing to 6 the advisors under those agreements, are you?

7 A Yes. I'm generally aware.

8 Q Okay. So the services that Highland is providing to 9 the advisors under shared services, would those services
10 have related to reviewing the advisor's payables?

11 A There was a list of shared services or services to be 12 provided to the advisors that were in the agreements and 13 detailed in the shared services agreements. Yeah, I mean,
14 the advisor did not have back-office personnel, so payroll
15 review or things of that nature would be covered.

16 But again, there's a list of shared services to be 17 provided to the advisors by Highland Personnel that's 18 detailed in those agreements.

19 Q And did those services, to your understanding, include
20 reviewing invoices and bills to the advisors for whether 21 those invoices and bills were proper and payable?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Did those services include reviewing the advisor's
24 contracts for whether rebates, setoffs, or deductions were 25 appropriate?

1 A I mean, if there were items of those -- of that nature,
2 you know, in an invoice, yeah. I mean, it would have been
3 the team's responsibility to look at items of that nature.

4 Q Well, you talked about the overpayments. When you
5 learned about the overpayments, you took them, and you told
6 Mr. Caruso about that. Did you feel like you had some duty
7 as the Highland employee under the services agreements to 8 tell Mr. Caruso about that?

9 A Wait. I don't know -- I'm not a lawyer, and I don't
10 know about duty, but I provided services. We provided
11 services under those agreements. And that's what we --
12 that's what I was providing, and that's what others on the 13 team were providing, the services that were detailed under 14 the agreements. We felt the need to tell Mr. Caruso in Q4
15 of 2019, because we felt it was important when we were 16 educating him on all things Highland for him to be made
17 aware of this.

18 Q Okay. The services that Highland was providing to the 19 advisors, as you understand them -- forget about the 20 contract. Forget about the law. You're not a lawyer. As 21 you understand, and understood those services for almost ten
22 years, would they have or should they have included catching
23 alleged overpayments that the advisors were making to some 24 vendor?

25 MR. MORRIS: Objection to the form of the

1 question.

2 MR. RUKAVINA: Form is a deposition objection, not
3 a trial objection, Your Honor.

4 MR. MORRIS: Fine. It assumes a fact not in 5 evidence.

6 MR. RUKAVINA: It's a hypothetical question
7 intentionally.

8 THE COURT: Overruled. Overruled.

9 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

10 Q Do you remember my question?

11 A No.

12 Q Okay. Again, not based on you being a non-lawyer or 13 the contracts, just based on your experience of providing 14 shared services as Highland's CFO for almost ten years, do
15 you -- would you have expected that those services would 16 have included Highland reviewing advisor contracts with 17 vendors for potential overpayments that the advisors might 18 be making?

19 A I mean, it should have been applied to all -- you know,
20 any vendors, any invoices, that the advisors were paying. I
21 mean, it was, you know, again, the advisors don't have these 22 back-office personnel, so it's the Highland employees that 23 are providing those services, if they're overpayments to 24 vendors or, you know, other third-party contracts as well.

25 Q Okay. And we saw from that example, Exhibit 147, where

1 Ms. Hendricks is sending you a list to approve. To
2 summarize, did Highland accounting employees under your
3 direction have access to the advisor's bank accounts post-
4 petition?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Okay. Did they have the ability to cause the advisors
7 from the advisor's bank accounts to wire funds to vendors,
8 when approved of by you and other people?

9 A Yes.

10 Q Okay. And is that how the advisors paid Highland post-
11 petition under the payroll reimbursement agreement and the 12 shared services agreement? Meaning that Highland employees
13 would basically pay Highland from the advisor's bank
14 accounts?

15 MR. MORRIS: Objection to the form of the
16 question.

17 MR. RUKAVINA: Again, Your Honor --

18 THE COURT: Overruled.

19 THE WITNESS: I think he said was it -- it was -- 20 sorry, back to your question. I think you said it was the 21 advisor's employees that effectuated --

22 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

23 Q Let me start again. Let me start again. Was it the 24 practice -- strike that.

25 The Advisors paid Highland under the payroll

1 reimbursement agreement and the shared services agreement by
2 wiring funds to Highland. We've established that, correct?

3 A Yes.

4 Q Which human beings actually facilitated those wire
5 transfers? Actually inputted them and actually made them?

6 A It would have been members on the corporate accounting
7 team, which were Highland employees.

8 Q That's my point. Were they also advisor employees at 9 that time?

10 A They were not.

11 Q So if we can summarize, Highland employees would make 12 sure that the advisors would pay Highland under these 13 agreements, but from the advisor's funds.

14 MR. MORRIS: Objection. Leading.

15 MR. RUKAVINA: I'm just summarizing, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Overruled.

17 THE WITNESS: That's correct.

18 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

19 Q And I think you mentioned, did the advisors themselves
20 have any employees prior to the termination of these 21 agreements that would have or could have facilitated the 22 payment of invoices?

23 A Mr. Dondero is authorized signatory on the advisor
24 accounts, but he doesn't -- I mean, he's never sent a
25 payment, to my knowledge.

1 Q And going back briefly to those shared services
2 agreements, you established that one of the services that
3 Highland should have or could have been providing was
4 reviewing payables. Is that something that you personally
5 would have done?

6 A I wasn't reviewing invoices or payables. That was the 7 team's responsibility.

8 Q You were a C-level executive?

9 A Yeah. I did that earlier in my career.

10 Q Sure. Sure.

11 A But as CFO, I did not do that.

12 Q So if there were alleged overpayments from the advisors
13 to Highland, is that something that you feel like you
14 personally should have gone investigating and figured out?
15 Or something that someone lower level than you should have 16 brought to your attention?

17 A Yeah. I mean, I'm not reviewing all the invoices or,
18 you know, things to that degree. Like I said, it's a team
19 effort. If there's others that were aware of that, yes --

20 Q Okay.

21 A -- they need to be brought to, you know, my attention
22 and things of that nature.

23 Q So that's my point. If there are alleged overpayments,
24 would you have known about it without one of your team
25 members bringing it to your attention?

1 A Unless I was intimately aware, yes -- I mean, it -- I
2 would have relied on my team members for that.

3 Q But were you aware of these overpayments prior to Mr.
4 Klos bringing it to your attention in Q4 2019?

5 A I don't -- no, I don't remember being concerned or 6 anything to that effect.

7 Q Okay. And based on what Mr. Klos told you, you talked
8 to Mr. Caruso, and the two lawyers, just to be clear, Mr.
9 Scott -- Ellington. He was the general counsel of Highland,
10 was he?

11 A I believe that was his title.

12 Q And what was Mr. Leviton? Associate General Counsel?

13 A I don't know.

14 Q So just -- I'm asking you. You're now the CFO of 15 Highland. And the COO and the GC, the general counsel, tell
16 you about the automatic stay, and you mentioned that after 17 that, you felt that there was nothing really more to 18 discuss. Do you remember that?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Okay. Who else could you have gone to if you suspected
21 the voracity of these people's -- these experts' statements
22 to you?

23 A I didn't feel the need to talk to anybody else. Again,
24 as I testified earlier, nothing could have changed based on 25 what I was told by, you know, the firm that was now in

1 control, and Mr. Caruso, by in-house counsel, and you know,
2 there was so much going on at that time. Again, I wanted to
3 focus my efforts, my team's efforts on things that we needed
4 to work on, or we could change, or you know, we could be 5 helpful on.

6 Q Did you discuss with Mr. Caruso or these two lawyers
7 that these overpayment issues would be addressed in due
8 course in the future?

9 A That was my understanding.

10 Q Okay. Do you remember anything that any one of them
11 told you about that, specifically?

12 A He was just, you're under a stay, and you know --

13 Q And there's nothing that can be done.

14 A Nothing can be done, and it would be, you know, again
15 addressed, you know, down the line.

16 Q So let me ask you now. Now, you're wearing your 17 treasurer hat for the advisors, okay? Are you following me?
18 Now, you're not the CFO of Highland. Now, you're the 19 treasurer of the advisors, okay? Who would you have gone to 20 seek legal advice from, having heard what you just heard
21 about the automatic stay? Who was providing legal services
22 to Highland at that time?

23 A Highland in-house counsel.

24 Q The same two people we just mentioned?

25 A Yes, amongst others.

1 Q So both as the CFO of Highland and the treasurer of the 2 advisors, it would have been the same people, who would have
3 told you the same thing; is that correct?

4 A That's correct.

5 Q Okay. Did you have any reason to disbelieve what they
6 were telling you about the automatic stay?

7 A No. I'm not an attorney, and they are. And I'm going
8 to my general counsel, and others that are intimately
9 involved with the bankruptcy. I had no reason to doubt them
10 or think otherwise.

11 Q Did you rely on what they told you about the automatic
12 stay?

13 A Yeah, 100 percent.

14 Q Did you believe, based on what they told you, that it
15 would eventually be worked out in the bankruptcy?

16 A Yeah. I didn't have reason to believe otherwise.

17 Q And I think you mentioned also that you did not discuss 18 the matter with Mr. Dondero until sometime in late 2020,
19 correct?

20 A That is correct.

21 Q Okay. And is that also for the same reasons that you
22 just mentioned, because you felt that there was nothing that 23 could be done?

24 A That -- yes. I mean, again, I think I testified
25 earlier, Mr. Dondero was very busy with the bankruptcy. And

1 if nothing can be done, you know, and again I said Mr.

2 Caruso wanted -- and Sarah wanted to talk to Mr. Dondero,
3 they certainly could have.

4 Q How did you find Mr. Klos to be as your employee for
5 years and years? As far as his professional abilities.

6 A I always found Mr. Klos as a tremendous employee. I've
7 enjoyed working with him for many years. He's a great
8 individual.

9 Q Okay. Would you have expected him to inform you of any
10 red flags that he would see or suspect?

11 A What do you mean by red -- like just --

12 Q Issues. Would you have expected him to flag issues to 13 raise with his boss if he found them?

14 A Yes. I mean, Mr. Klos is very good at doing things
15 like that.

16 Q Would you have expected Mr. Klos to advise you that 17 perhaps certain numbers or analysis are less reliable than 18 they should be, for whatever reason?

19 A Mr. Klos was always good when he would put together a 20 pro forma estimate. He would list the assumptions in his 21 analysis. Yeah. And if there were some that maybe were --
22 if he made an assumption and maybe he's like okay, you know,
23 maybe this isn't the best assumption to make, but I did do
24 it, it'd be something that we would discuss over time, or we 25 would discuss -- we would discuss that assumption when he

1 would go through the analysis of the pro forma. You know,
2 again, I'm speaking generally over the years.

3 Q Because some of what you guys do, by definition, is 4 subjective, right?

5 A Yeah. There are always estimates, or you put together
6 pro formas, there are certain assumptions that need to be 7 made.

8 Q So did Mr. Klos ever tell you that there was anything
9 with respect to the December 2019 DSI analysis that we 10 discussed? Did he ever tell you that there's anything in 11 there that he red flagged for you as potentially a problem?

12 A Not that a recall.

13 Q What about the December 2020 analysis he did at your 14 direction, Exhibit Q?

15 A In the December 2020, Dave changed assumptions versus 16 the 2019 analysis, that he detailed in the email.

17 Q But he told you what those changes were.

18 A Yes. It was detailed in that email.

19 Q Yeah. Did he tell you that those assumptions might be 20 dangerous, or unwarranted, or anything like that?

21 A I don't recall having a conversation with Mr. Klos
22 about that.

23 Q Okay. And Mr. Morris asked you when you were 24 suggesting to Mr. Caruso that the payroll agreements be 25 updated or changed, he asked you how that could possibly be

1 in the best interest of Highland. Do you remember that?

2 A Yes.

3 Q But if Highland was contractually obligated under the
4 shared services agreement to do that, then do you have a
5 different answer?

6 A I mean --

7 Q I mean, Highland might lose 7 or $8 million a year, but 8 what would be the appropriate business ethics thing to do in 9 your mind?

10 A Look, I don't -- I mean, again, I go back to there was 11 an automatic stay put in place. And I don't know what 12 could've been changed.

13 Q So was Mr. Morris's question to you academic because 14 nothing could be changed anyway?

15 A Yeah. I mean, that's what -- again, that's what we 16 found out in these discussions, right, that there was an
17 automatic stay. And so at that point, again, I didn't worry
18 about it. I can't speak for Mr. Klos, but, you know, we 19 moved on to other things.

20 Q Okay.

21 MR. RUKAVINA: Thank you. I'll pass the witness,
22 Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: All right. Redirect.

24 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

25 BY MR. MORRIS:

1 Q Mr. Waterhouse, do you understand that my firm is a
2 bankruptcy boutique?

3 A Yes. You all deal with bankruptcies.

4 Q Do you understand that we're bankruptcy specialists,
5 right?

6 A Yes.

7 Q And you communicated with me and my colleagues in late
8 2019 and early 2020 about a lot of things, right?

9 A Yes. It was primarily around -- was it the first day
10 or day one filings. That was primarily my involvement with 11 communicating with you all.

12 Q I spent a lot of time with you. I defended you in a
13 deposition that was taken by the UCC after this case got 14 transferred here to Dallas, right?

15 A Yes.

16 Q And you never asked me, or any of my colleagues if the 17 automatic stay would somehow prevent the redress of these 18 overpayments, right?

19 A I did not.

20 Q You understand that neither Mr. Ellington, nor Mr.
21 Leviton are bankruptcy lawyers, right?

22 A They aren't bankruptcy lawyers, but they were talking
23 -- again, they had -- Mr. Ellington and Mr. Leviton were 24 talking to Mr. Pomerantz and others on a routine basis. But 25 again, I'll go back to when I was informed by Mr. Caruso

1 that we were in a stay, the counsel I talked to in-house, if
2 I remember right, hired Pachulski, right, and recommended
3 Pachulski. So I had no reason not to believe Mr. Ellington
4 or Mr. Leviton.

5 Q Okay. Last question on the topic. Just to be clear.
6 At no time did you ask any bankruptcy lawyer that was 7 retained by your employer, about the automatic stay in the 8 context of these overpayments, correct?

9 A I did not.

10 Q Okay. Thank you. Mr. Rukavina asked you a bunch of 11 questions about shared services and who was responsible for 12 certain services. Do you remember that?

13 A Yes.

14 Q Okay. You are not aware of any specific service under 15 the shared services agreement that Highland failed to 16 provide at any time from the petition date until the 17 agreements were terminated in early 2001, correct?

18 A Yeah. I'm not aware.

19 Q Okay. You never had any conversation with anybody at 20 any time about Highland's failure or alleged failure to 21 provide any services under the shared services agreement at 22 any time from the petition date until they were terminated
23 in early 2021, correct?

24 A Yeah. I'm not aware.

25 Q Okay. The issue of overpayments, it's pretty simple,

1 right? There's only two pieces of information that one
2 needs to know if the advisors are paying for employees who
3 are no longer employed, right?

4 A I mean, so if you break down every agreement -- the
5 payroll reimbursement agreement, you need to know what costs
6 were incurred by Highland, and then any -- the time
7 allocation that was in the Exhibit A. And if I remember
8 correctly from our deposition for one of the HCMFA or it was 9 the HCMFA shared service agreement, there was a calculation
10 done with a markup that you walked me through. So there's 11 more to that calculation.

12 Q All right. Maybe I'm being too simplistic. One of the 13 things you have to know is how much money was paid. If you
14 want to know if there was an overpayment, you have to know
15 how much money was paid, correct?

16 A Yes.

17 Q Okay. And if you just want to know if the advisors
18 were paying for dual employees who had been terminated, all
19 you have to do is know which employees were terminated,
20 right, and then you could back out their compensation from 21 the analysis?

22 A I'm sorry. I'm trying to follow your question. You're 23 saying the advisors are making payments, right, on a monthly
24 basis. And you're saying there are -- if you want to see if 25 they overpaid, I mean, you have to look at the costs that

1 were incurred by Highland, you know, during that time
2 period.

3 Q Correct. And one way to do that is to say I'm not
4 going to pay for dual employees who have been terminated,
5 right? Isn't that part of why you think there was an
6 overpayment, because the advisors were paying for dual 7 employees who were terminated? Isn't that the bulk of this
8 analysis, if not the entirety?

9 A Yes. And a time allocation as well.

10 Q Okay. But if they had been terminated, the time
11 allocation is irrelevant, right?

12 A That is correct.

13 Q So if you know how much money was paid, and when the 14 dual employees were terminated, you'll be able to know that 15 there was an overpayment if the advisors had been paying for 16 these terminated employees, right?

17 A Correct.

18 Q Okay. Can you think of one single payment that was 19 made after the petition date on account of any of the 20 intercompany agreements that the advisors had with Highland 21 that you questioned? Where you questioned the execution of 22 the payment. Where you said that payment shouldn't have 23 been made; or that payment was made for too much.

24 A No, because we were in an automatic stay.

25 Q Okay. Did you -- I may have misheard you. Did you

1 testify a moment ago that you actually discussed the issue
2 of overpayments with Mr. Dondero in December 2020?

3 A I don't think I said that. I mean, I --

4 Q So let me ask you the question. Did you discuss the 5 issue of overpayments with Mr. Dondero at any time in the 6 year 2020?

7 A Yes. I mean, Mr. Dondero, when he -- we talked earlier
8 with what I talked with Mr. Rukavina, Mr. Dondero instructed 9 me to not make any additional payments from the advisors to 10 Highland. In that conversation, he said there were 11 overpayments that had been made.

12 Q Okay. Mr. Rukavina spent a fair amount of time on the 13 $90,000 that you received from NexPoint. Do you remember
14 that?

15 A Yes.

16 Q And you testified that that wouldn't influence you in 17 any way because it didn't really matter to somebody who --
18 of a man of means, like yourself?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Did you receive any other payments from any other
21 entities that are owned indirectly or directly by Mr.
22 Dondero or Mr. Ellington in 2020?

23 A Yes.

24 Q How much more money did you receive from them?

25 A I don't recall the exact amount.

1 Q Was it more than a half a million dollars in total?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Okay. Is that an amount of money that causes you to 4 think about what you're doing?

5 A No.

6 MR. MORRIS: I have no further questions, Your
7 Honor.

8 THE COURT: Any recross?

9 MR. RUKAVINA: One moment, Your Honor.

10 (Pause)

11 MR. RUKAVINA: I have no further questions, Your 12 Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right. You are excused, Mr.
14 Waterhouse.

15 (Witness excused at 6:17 p.m.)

16 THE COURT: All right. Well, we're going to stop.
17 It's 6:17 p.m. Do you think you're going to be able to 18 finish tomorrow?

19 MR. MORRIS: I expect at some point during the day
20 I might move for a directed verdict. But if not, if I
21 decide not to do that, I still remain optimistic that we'll
22 finish tomorrow. That is definitely my goal.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Are you optimistic, Mr.
24 Rukavina?

25 MR. RUKAVINA: Not if he makes a motion for a

1 directed verdict. That's the first I've heard of that. And
2 I would note that because we're going out of sequence, it
3 would be a little bit unfair.

4 But provided that that doesn't happen, then yes,
5 we'll be finished with the witnesses and closing arguments
6 tomorrow.

7 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Well, we'll go
8 ahead and start at 9:30 in the morning. And I'll let you
9 know that I do have to give a CLE presentation, a Zoom
10 presentation, at noon tomorrow. So I've got to take the 11 full one-hour lunch tomorrow. We'll probably stop at about 12 11:45 to allow me to get hooked in.

13 MR. MORRIS: All right. So just to keep the Court
14 informed, while I had suggested that we would call Mr. Seery
15 this afternoon if time permitted, we're going to be calling
16 the retail board first, because it's a third-party witness 17 and --

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 MR. MORRIS: -- I want to be respectful to them.
20 I expect it to be a relatively brief examination and then
21 we'll go to Mr. Seery.

22 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

23 (WHEREUPON, the proceeding adjourned at 6:18 p.m.)

1 (Proceedings resumed after the lunch recess at 1:09 p.m.)

2 THE CLERK: All rise.

3 THE COURT: Please be seated.

4 All right. We're back on the record in the Highland
5 trial. Mr. Morris, Mr. Rukavina, what do you have?

6 MR. MORRIS: Just before we proceed with the next
7 witness, I think Mr. Rukavina just wants to present the exhibit
8 that he used on --

9 MR. RUKAVINA: Yes, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 MR. MORRIS: -- with Mr. Seery.

12 MR. RUKAVINA: As I promised, we do have paper copies
13 couriered. I've marked it as EE.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 MR. RUKAVINA: If I may approach and move for the 16 admission of EE as an impeachment exhibit.

17 THE COURT: Okay. And there's no objection?

18 MR. MORRIS: No objection.

19 THE COURT: Okay. You may approach.

20 Thank you. EE will be admitted.

21 (Defendant's Exhibit EE admitted into evidence)

22 MR. MORRIS: I do want to note that -- maybe I spoke 23 too fast. I object to the extent it's being offered for the 24 truth of the matter asserted. Mr. Rukavina specifically said
25 it was for impeachment, and I have no objection to its use for

Dondero - Direct

1 that purpose.

2 THE COURT: Okay. So impeachment in an attempt to
3 impeach Mr. Seery saying he had never heard anything --

4 MR. MORRIS: Correct.

5 THE COURT: -- until January 2021 --

6 MR. MORRIS: Correct.

7 THE COURT: -- about the alleged overpayments. Okay.

8 MR. RUKAVINA: Yeah. That's all it's offered for,
9 Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: It's admitted for that purpose.

11 MR. RUKAVINA: That's fine by me. That's all I'm 12 offering it for.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 MR. MORRIS: Okay. So Highland's next witness is Mr.
15 James Dondero.

16 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Dondero, if you could 17 approach the witness box, I will swear you in.

18 Please raise your right hand.

19 JAMES DONDERO, PLAINTIFF'S WITNESS, SWORN

20 THE COURT: All right. Please be seated.

21 DIRECT EXAMINATION

22 BY MR. MORRIS:

23 Q Good afternoon, Mr. Dondero.

24 A Good afternoon.

25 Q Let me know when you're comfortable.

Dondero - Direct

1 A Good afternoon.

2 Q Are you okay there?

3 A Yes.

4 Q Okay. So there's three binders in front of you. From 5 time to time, I may ask you to look at a particular document.
6 There's water there if you need it. I don't expect my
7 examination of you to be very long. We'll see what happens.

8 But are you ready to proceed?

9 A Yes.

10 Q Okay. Frank Waterhouse is the treasurer of the Advisors.
11 Correct?

12 A I -- I don't know his title specifically. I think he's 13 the CFLA. I don't know.

14 Q He's an officer of the Advisors. Correct?

15 A Yes.

16 Q And when I use the phrase Advisors, you understand I mean
17 NexPoint Advisors LP and Highland Capital Management Fund
18 Advisors L.P. Is that fair?

19 A I don't know specifically.

20 I believe HFAM. I don't know about NexPoint. I think
21 NexPoint has its own CFO now. I don't know if he's treasurer.
22 I -- I don't know these things. I know these things -- I know
23 these things on a current basis, but I want to be refreshed.

24 Q You don't -- do you know if Mr. -- let's take it one at a
25 time. Do you know if Mr. Waterhouse serves as an officer of

1 NexPoint Advisors, LP today?

2 A I don't know for sure.

3 I believe so, but I -- I don't know. But Nexpoint has its 4 own -- excuse me -- it's own CFO and it has its own C-Suite in
5 the various (indiscernible) separate from Frank. But I don't
6 know the corporate ownership of NexPoint.

7 Q Okay.

8 A I don't believe so.

9 Q I'm not asking you about ownership. I don't mean to 10 interrupt. I'm not asking about ownership. I'm just asking
11 specifically whether Mr. Waterhouse has a role or a title at 12 NexPoint today?

13 A I -- I don't know.

14 Q Okay. Do you know if Mr. Waterhouse has a role or a title
15 today at HCMFA?

16 A I -- I don't know post the restructuring with Skyview, et 17 cetera. I -- I don't know. I believe so, but I don't know.

18 Q Okay. Let's focus on the period January 1st, 2018 until 19 the end of 2020, that three-year period, okay. So 2018, 2019,
20 and 2020. I'm going to refer to that as the relevant period.
21 Are you with me?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Do you recall if Mr. Waterhouse had a role or a title at 24 NexPoint during the relevant period?

25 A I -- I believe he was an officer of all the major entities

Dondero - Direct

1 during that period.

2 Q And when you use the phrase "all the major entities," what
3 are you referring to when you use that phrase?

4 A Highland, Strand, NexPoint, HFAM. I believe he was an
5 officer of all the -- all the major operating entities.

6 Q And do you recall that he served as either the treasurer
7 or the CFO of the Advisors at all times during the relevant
8 period?

9 A I believe so.

10 Q And do you have an understanding of what Mr. Waterhouse's
11 duties and responsibilities were as the treasurer or the CFO of 12 the Advisors during the relevant period?

13 A Yes.

14 Q Can you describe for the Court your understanding of what 15 Mr. Waterhouse's duties and responsibilities were in that 16 capacity at that time?

17 A To be the chief financial accounting officer above
18 corporate accountants, above the tax accountants, above
19 anything accounting and regulatory-wise other than compliance
20 reporting. Other -- other than compliance didn't report to 21 him.

22 Q And did you understand that as an officer that 23 Mr. Waterhouse was a fiduciary of the Advisors during the 24 relevant period?

25 A I -- I don't want to broadly answer that question

Dondero - Direct

8

1 generally, but it varies depends on -- depending on the level
2 of fiduciary responsibility, depends on whether it's a public
3 entity or a listed fund or a -- or a private entity.

4 Q Okay. I appreciate that distinction, and I just want you
5 to focus on the two advisors, NexPoint Fund Advisors, L.P., and 6 NexPoint -- Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors.

7 Is it your understanding as the person in control of those
8 entities that Mr. Waterhouse owed those entities a fiduciary
9 duty during the relevant period?

10 A Yes.

11 Q Okay. And was one of his duties as the treasurer or the 12 chief financial officer of the Advisors, was that to make sure
13 that the Advisors only paid the amounts that they owed under 14 the contracts that they had?

15 A I would describe it more generally as to administer
16 contracts according to the contracts, the spirits of the 17 contracts and best industry practices.

18 Q Okay. And to the best of your knowledge, did
19 Mr. Waterhouse fulfill the responsibility of administering
20 contracts in accordance with their terms during the relevant
21 period?

22 A I -- I don't know and I can't make a blanket statement.

23 Q Do you have any knowledge about any failure on 24 Mr. Waterhouse's part to fulfill his responsibility of 25 administering contracts in accordance with their terms during

Dondero - Direct

1 the relevant period?

2 A When does the relevant period end again?

3 Q December 31st, 2020.

4 A I think there are a lot of issues in the last year or in
5 that 2020 year.

6 I think his employment was -- or his responsibilities or 7 who reported to him changed materially in that year. And what
8 other people performed or responsibilities or DSI had, I don't
9 know. I -- yeah, I don't know how long he had responsibility
10 or control.

11 Q Is it your understanding that DSI had any responsibility
12 whatsoever for anything having to do with either of the 13 Advisors after the petition date?

14 A I'm just saying as Frank got neutered and 15 compartmentalized and we moved from various different roles,
16 somebody else filled them, and I don't know who. But I -- I
17 can't say that Frank was responsible if he wasn't in his same
18 position of responsibility and authority.

19 Q Did Frank Waterhouse fail to administer the contracts that 20 the Advisors entered into with Highland after the petition
21 date?

22 A I -- I think there was a failure by Highland to administer
23 the contracts. Whether it was Frank's responsibility or 24 somebody else's, I don't know.

25 Q Who on behalf of the Advisors was charged with the

Dondero - Direct

10

1 responsibility of making sure that the contracts that the
2 Advisors were party to were properly administered after the
3 petition date? Who is the person?

4 A There -- there's almost nobody at the Advisors, period.

5 The Advisors were paid a fee for Highland to administer
6 the contracts. Highland had all the accountants, compliance,
7 and lawyers. The Advisors had either no employees or they had
8 a portfolio manager or trader or somebody who is front office
9 focused on the investor funds. So there wouldn't have been 10 anybody to make sure or double check or be persistent if 11 Highland wasn't doing it.

12 Q So did Frank Waterhouse have the duty and the obligation
13 to administer contracts in accordance with their terms on 14 behalf of the Advisors or did he not?

15 A It depends on the time frame. Pre -- pre-bankruptcy,
16 sure. And any of his group were doing it for everybody, and 17 they were doing it well. But by the time 2020 came along, his 18 authority and responsibilities changed materially along the 19 way.

20 Q Who changed his authority?

21 A Seery.

22 Q Jim Seery changed Frank Waterhouse's authority with 23 respect to the Advisors?

24 A With respect to everything in his role at Highland, which 25 is -- his role at Highland was administering -- one of his

Dondero - Direct

11

1 roles at Highland or his group's roles were administering the
2 contracts with NexPoint and HFAM.

3 Q And it's your testimony that Jim Seery told Frank
4 Waterhouse that he couldn't do the exact same thing with 5 respect to the administration of these contracts after he got
6 appointed than he was before he got appointed?

7 A I'm saying by middle of '20 when Seery kind of started
8 betraying the estate and moving for his own self-interest, he 9 started making material changes to the employee and 10 responsibility base of the Highland employees, and one of those 11 people were Frank Waterhouse. And Frank Waterhouse's authority 12 and functions changed materially.

13 And I don't know -- I -- I wasn't privy to a lot of that,
14 and some of it was negotiating part of a settlement or a lease
15 with him and some other stuff. But his -- his responsibilities
16 and his role changed materially. I'm not sure how it changed.
17 I wasn't privy to it, but I can't broad-brush Frank as being 18 responsible or liable for the fact that the Advisors were 19 overbilled by Highland.

20 Q Did Frank Waterhouse tell you at any time that he was no
21 longer able to continue to perform the function of 22 administering the Advisors' contracts in accordance with their 23 terms? Did he tell you that?

24 A Not specifically.

25 Q Did anybody in the world ever tell you you're not going to

Dondero - Direct

12

1 believe what Seery did, Seery told Frank cut it out, you're not
2 allowed to administer the contracts on behalf of the Advisors
3 anymore? Anybody say that?

4 A No.

5 But no one said he still could in his reduced, diminished,
6 changed role, either. I wasn't -- I wasn't aware. But I
7 assumed Highland was still performing the functions that it was 8 getting paid for.

9 Q Can you tell Judge Jernigan your understanding of exactly
10 what Frank Waterhouse was allowed and not allowed to do with 11 respect to the administration of the Advisors' contracts? What 12 was he not allowed to do?

13 A I wasn't privy to those reductions of his responsibility.
14 I was really handed to a portfolio management position that was 15 not managerial, and Seery was cutting side deals and bribing
16 people and doing all kinds of crap.

17 MR. MORRIS: I move to strike, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: You move to strike the words "bribe?"

19 MR. MORRIS: Yes. Yes. The entirety of the last 20 portion because the question was about Frank Waterhouse.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Sustained.

22 BY MR. MORRIS:

23 Q This would go a lot smoother if you'd just stick to the 24 issues.

25 What is the basis for your testimony that Frank Waterhouse

Dondero - Direct

13

1 was not permitted to administer the contracts on behalf of the
2 Advisors in the exact same way after the Independent Board was
3 appointed as he did before the Independent Board was appointed?
4 What's the basis for that?

5 A His role was changed.

6 His responsibility -- responsibilities and people who
7 reported to him diminished and changed at least a couple of 8 times starting in the summer of '20. I can't represent that he
9 was told not to administer contracts, but I also can't 10 represent that he was still administering contracts and didn't
11 do them. I'm just saying it's not logical -- it's not logical
12 for me to be able to represent any of that.

13 Q Okay. When did you learn this?

14 A I don't want to say contemporaneously, you know, because 15 there was always -- again, I wasn't privy to it. I wasn't
16 supposed to be part of management. I would hear it with a
17 delay either at water-cooler conversations or from lawyers.
18 But I don't even -- I don't remember who.

19 Q So you don't remember who told you this and you don't
20 remember when you learned it. Is that fair?

21 A I'm saying a lot of the times it happened in second half
22 of '20.

23 Q So you learned about it in the second half. What did you
24 do when you heard this? Did you try to make sure that there
25 was somebody who was going to look out to make sure that the

14

1 contracts for the Advisors were properly administered when you
2 learned that Frank couldn't do it? What did you do?

3 A In the early, early summer of '20, nothing because I
4 assumed that with the monies we were paying from TSI and with
5 the staff -- accounting staff that was still at Highland, that 6 they would be administering and providing the services that we
7 were paying for. I didn't do anything until I found out we had
8 overpaid by $14 million and that the overpayments were continue
9 -- or they were continuing. That's the only time I did
10 something which was a couple -- three or four months later.

11 Q Do you know how that $14 million was calculated?

12 A It was -- part of the contracts with Highland were for 13 people, and I think people plus a five or ten percent
14 processing surcharge. And a lot of the people have left or the 15 percentage of time that they were spending on our stuff changed
16 such that we had been billed as if people were still there and 17 as if people were still working on our accounts when they 18 weren't.

19 Q So you controlled the Advisors. Correct?

20 A Yes.

21 Q And you learned sometime early in the summer of 2020 that 22 Frank Waterhouse was no longer going to be able to perform his 23 function of administering the contracts on behalf of the 24 Advisors. You learned that in the early part of the -- in the 25 summer?

Dondero - Direct

15

1 A No. That's not what I've said.

2 Q So when did you -- I thought you said early summer. When
3 did you learn it?

4 A I said his roles were diminished, but I didn't know what
5 his roles were diminished to, nor did I make the assumption
6 that in his diminished roles, no one would pick up the contract
7 administration if he wasn't.

8 Q Did you --

9 A But he might still have been.

10 Q Did you ask Frank how did your role change?

11 A No.

12 Q Did you ask anybody in the world how did Frank's role
13 change?

14 A I wasn't supposed to be part of management. I wasn't
15 supposed to talk to anybody. Do you remember all the stupid
16 shit you put through?

17 MR. MORRIS: I move to strike, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: I will strike, and I'll ask you, Mr.
19 Dondero, to refrain from the profanity.

20 THE WITNESS: Excuse me. I apologize for that.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 BY MR. MORRIS:

23 Q You and I didn't have a court experience together until 24 December of 2020. Right?

25 MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, this really now is just a

Dondero - Direct

16

1 point of badgering and repetitiveness. He has his answer and
2 now he's just haragging [sic] this witness just to intimidate
3 him on an irrelevant topic.

4 MR. MORRIS: I wish I had the ability to intimidate
5 Mr. Dondero, but the fact of the matter is I don't have an 6 answer yet as to who was responsible for administering the 7 contracts in accordance with their terms on behalf of the 8 Advisors after the Independent Board was appointed.

9 MR. RUKAVINA: He does.

10 MR. MORRIS: And that's what I'm trying to get to.

11 MR. RUKAVINA: He has his answer. Mr. Dondero
12 testified that it was Highland's responsibility.
13 Mr. Waterhouse was here yesterday. He could have asked Mr.
14 Waterhouse these questions.

15 MR. MORRIS: And --

16 MR. RUKAVINA: He didn't.

17 THE COURT: All right. I'll overrule and give you a
18 little bit more latitude.

19 MR. MORRIS: Thank you.

20 THE COURT: But I think he's --

21 BY MR. MORRIS:

22 Q Did you make sure that there was a fiduciary for the 23 Advisors who was looking out for the Advisors' interest after 24 the time that you learned that Mr. Waterhouse's wings had been 25 clipped?

Dondero - Direct

17

1 A Not until 2021. Not until later.

2 Q Did you do anything to make sure that Highland was
3 actually doing what you now claim you expected? Did you do
4 anything to satisfy yourself that Highland was going to 5 administer the Advisors' contracts in accordance with their
6 terms or did you just assume that that was going to happen?

7 A I assumed Highland would honor the contracts we were
8 paying for --

9 Q But --

10 A -- and they were paying for.

11 Q But you didn't do anything other than make that 12 assumption. Right? You didn't have your lawyers write a
13 letter, you didn't pick up the phone and call anybody. You
14 were still in open communication with Mr. Seery at this time,
15 right, in the summer of 2020?

16 A It ended in the summer of 2020.

17 Q There was no prohibition for you to pick up the phone and 18 call Mr. Seery and say, hey, what's happening with Waterhouse,
19 are you guys going to just make sure you're doing this right?

20 A I don't know when the prohibition of talking to him
21 started. I don't remember.

22 Q But you're not relying on that prohibition to excuse your 23 failure to call Mr. Seery to complain about this change.
24 Right?

25 MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, it's been almost 30

Dondero - Direct

18

1 minutes on the same topic which he has answered repeatedly.
2 That Mr. Morris might not agree with that answer, doesn't
3 matter. And this is a matter for closing arguments, not to 4 take this witness for a two-hour road as to what Mr.
5 Waterhouse's clipped wings meant when he said he doesn't know.

6 THE COURT: Well, it hasn't been 30 minutes,
7 technically, but what is your response?

8 MR. MORRIS: I think this is an incredibly important
9 topic because our position, among many others, is that Mr.
10 Waterhouse did exactly the same thing after the petition date
11 as he did before the petition date. In fact, he testified to 12 it yesterday. Mr. Waterhouse testified very clearly that a new 13 process was put in place after the petition date where,
14 generally, he would have to approve all of the payments that 15 were made on behalf of the Advisors under these contracts.

16 And now I have a witness here who is completely
17 contradicting the witness himself, Mr. Waterhouse. And I don't
18 understand -- I don't understand the basis for this testimony.
19 We haven't heard anything about who told him, when he learned
20 of this, what he did in response. I just -- I'll move on.

21 MR. RUKAVINA: But the point is --

22 MR. MORRIS: I'll move on, Mr. Rukavina, okay?

23 MR. RUKAVINA: The point is, Your Honor, that
24 Mr. Waterhouse is the best evidence of what Mr. Waterhouse did.
25 And Mr. Morris opened a door to this just for the purpose of

19

1 trying to badger my witness.

2 MR. MORRIS: That's not fair. Mr. Dondero controls
3 these entities.

4 THE COURT: Okay.

5 MR. MORRIS: He should know that there is somebody
6 looking out for the interests of these entities. He should 7 know that.

8 THE COURT: Okay. I overrule the objection.

9 MR. MORRIS: But I will move on.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 BY MR. MORRIS:

12 Q Mr. Dondero, in 2020, entities directly or indirectly
13 owned by you and Mr. Ellington made payments to Mr. Ellington,
14 Mr. Waterhouse, Mr. Surgent, and Mr. Leventon. Correct?

15 A Yes.

16 Q And did you decide to have those payments made to those 17 individuals in 2020?

18 A Yes.

19 Q How much was paid to them in the aggregate?

20 A An amount equal to exactly what they would have been
21 entitled to if they had been rooked by Highland.

22 Q Do you understand that Highland made a motion to try to
23 have those bonuses paid to those individuals?

24 A Highland could have paid it at any time.

25 Q Didn't it need the Court's permission to do that? Are you

Dondero - Direct

20

1 aware of that?

2 A Not -- not in my opinion. Not for prior-year bonuses and
3 not for prior -- and not for earned bonuses and -- and not for 4 amounts that Seery told everybody he was going to pay them.

5 Q So you don't have a recollection of Highland under Mr.
6 Seery's direction making a motion to this Court to have those
7 very bonuses paid? You don't remember that?

8 A No.

9 Q Do you remember that every single person in the Highland
10 complex had their bonus paid except for those four individuals?

11 A No. That's not true.

12 Q Okay. So you paid them. And how much were the bonuses
13 that Mr. Seery stiffed them off?

14 A It's all in -- it's all in the Highland servers, the exact
15 amounts. I believe it was close to ten million bucks.

16 Q Okay.

17 A You -- you guys have all this information.

18 Q Okay. But your recollection is that you caused entities
19 owned and controlled by you and Mr. Ellington to pay something
20 around $10 million to Mr. Waterhouse and Highland's most senior 21 legal and compliance officers. Correct?

22 A What was the first part of the question, please? I didn't 23 --

24 Q You caused entities owned and controlled by -- directly or 25 indirectly by you and Mr. Ellington to pay somewhere

Dondero - Direct

21

1 approximately $10 million in 2020 to Mr. Waterhouse and
2 Highland's senior legal and compliance officers --
3 Mr. Ellington, Mr. Leventon, and Mr. Surgent. Is that right?

4 A Yes.

5 So I just want to emphasize it wasn't a targeted amount.
6 It was an amount meant to be exactly what they would have been
7 paid if Highland had not been in bankruptcy and just paid
8 normal bonuses in the normal course.

9 Q So --

10 A It's exactly that amount.

11 Q So -- and you didn't disclose that to the Court, did you?
12 Those payments?

13 MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, I object to the 14 implication that Mr. Dondero had any requirement to disclose
15 anything to this Court. It would have been those individuals'
16 obligations. So that is an unfair question. Why would Mr.
17 Dondero have to disclose to this Court that he's paying 18 bonuses?

19 MR. MORRIS: If Your Honor thinks it's an irrelevant
20 question --

21 MR. RUKAVINA: I didn't say it's about relevant. I
22 said that the question was improperly phrased as assuming that 23 he had any legal obligation to inform the Court.

24 MR. MORRIS: I --

25 THE COURT: Overruled.

Dondero - Direct

22

1 BY MR. MORRIS:

2 Q Mr. Dondero, did you or anybody on your behalf ever inform
3 the Court that entities owned, directly or indirectly, by you
4 and Mr. Ellington were going to pay approximately $10 million
5 to Mr. Waterhouse, Mr. Leventon, Mr. Ellington, and 6 Mr. Surgent?

7 A I know we were counseled. I know counsel told us we had
8 no obligation.

9 Q Okay. Did you tell Mr. Seery?

10 A Seery knew. But I didn't tell him.

11 Q Okay. That's my question. My only --

12 MR. MORRIS: -- and I move to strike, Your Honor. He 13 ought to answer my question.

14 BY MR. MORRIS:

15 Q Did you tell Mr. Seery? That's the only question there 16 is.

17 A No.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Strike what you asked.

19 MR. MORRIS: Thank you.

20 BY MR. MORRIS:

21 Q Do you know if anybody told Mr. Seery about these payments
22 at the time they were made?

23 A I know -- I know he knew from either Frank or from Thomas
24 Surgent. But I don't know from which party.

25 Q Did Thomas Surgent tell you that he had informed Mr. Seery

Dondero - Direct

23

1 of these payments?

2 A No.

3 Q Did Frank Waterhouse ever tell you that he had informed
4 Mr. Seery of these payments?

5 A I -- I can't recall specifically.

6 And I -- I want to use that as the same answer on Thomas
7 Surgent. I can't recall specifically. But I know -- I know
8 one of the -- one of the two of them contemporaneously
9 discussed it with Seery.

10 Q How did you learn that?

11 A From one or the other. I just can't specifically remember
12 --

13 Q Did they --

14 A -- a conversation.

15 Q Did they report to you what Mr. Seery said?

16 A No.

17 Q Each of these individuals subsequently filed a proof of 18 claim in the bankruptcy court for their bonus. Isn't that
19 correct?

20 A Yes.

21 Q And those claims were subsequently assigned to entities
22 owned, directly or indirectly, by you or Mr. Ellington.
23 Correct?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Sir, you personally knew how much the Advisors were going

Dondero - Direct

24

1 to pay Highland under the Payroll Reimbursement Agreement and
2 the Shared Services Agreement. Correct?

3 A No.

4 Q Did you ever ask?

5 A No.

6 Q You determined in late 2017 that NexPoint would pay
7 Highland $6 million per year for subadvisory and shared
8 services effective January 1st, 2018. Correct?

9 A I -- I don't know the specific agreements from each year.

10 There was an agreement each year. The agreements changed
11 from being a flat fee to a back-service -- back-office fee plus
12 a reimbursement of employees fee sometime more recently. But I
13 -- I don't know the exact dates on -- of specific contract.

14 Q Do you recall in late 2017 speaking with Mr. Klos and 15 Mr. Waterhouse about having to get more money from the Advisors
16 to Highland because Highland was losing a lot of money?

17 A No.

18 Q Do you recall discussing with them that Highland should 19 receive $6 million from NexPoint for services rendered?

20 A The -- no. All the efforts were to be fair and accurate
21 and compliant from a regulatory and tax standpoint. All the 22 centralized cost allocation things.

23 Q Was your personal tax liability ever a factor in 24 determining how much money would be paid from the Advisors to 25 Highland?

Dondero - Direct

25

1 A No.

2 Q Do you recall that there was a substantial change in the 3 method and amount of money that was paid from the Advisors to 4 Highland on account for services rendered at the beginning of 5 2018?

6 A I recall there was an old agreement from '13, which was
7 neither best practices nor compliant from a regulatory or tax
8 standpoint, that had to be improved and made more specific.
9 And a team from accounting, legal, and compliance re-crafted
10 the Shared Services Agreement and front-office allocation
11 appropriately in that 2017-'18 time period.

12 Q Are you aware that Frank Waterhouse signed the Payroll
13 Reimbursement Agreements, the Sub-Advisory Agreements, and the 14 New NexPoint Shared Services Agreement in 2018, in the first
15 half of 2018?

16 A I'm not specifically aware. It doesn't surprise me.

17 Q Did you ever review any of those agreements?

18 A No. Yeah, no.

19 Q Okay. You didn't participate in the drafting of those 20 documents. Correct?

21 A No.

22 It was a typical shared services of a complicated
23 financial services firm that centralizes functions. It was a 24 -- it was a typical agreement that would be put together and 25 administered by accounting.

Dondero - Direct

26

1 Q But people like Frank Waterhouse actually wore multiple
2 hats. Correct?

3 A Sure.

4 Q And he wore the hats of the Advisors and he wore the hats
5 of Highland at the exact same time. Right?

6 A Sure. It's possible to be fair doing that.

7 Q And you're the one who decided that he should wear these 8 multiple hats. Right? You're the one who appointed him to 9 these positions?

10 A Yes.

11 Q Okay. Do you recall that you participated in annual 12 review meetings with Mr. Waterhouse and Mr. Klos and Mr. Okada?

13 A Yes.

14 It would be multiple, generally. Sometimes there were tax
15 ones, sometimes there were budgeting, sometimes it was 16 performance reviews. Yeah. Yes.

17 Q You know, I just want to go back to that issue of taxes
18 for just a moment. Do you recall that in 2017 and 2018, the 19 Advisors earned millions of dollars of income?

20 A Not specifically, but --

21 Q Do you recall that they earned positive income in those 22 years?

23 A I believe so.

24 Q And do you recall that Highland had negative income in 25 those years?

Dondero - Direct

27

1 A I don't know.

2 Highland's a giant solvent pool of assets. So the
3 liquidity, it varies from year to year. But -- and, also, the
4 mark-to-marketing of those assets varied from year to year. So
5 whether or not Highland made money in a given year, I don't
6 know. There's some years it makes a lot but has limited cash
7 flow; other years, it has material cash flow and makes a lot.
8 Some years it has material cash flow and loses a lot.

9 Q All right. Let me just focus on operating profits. On an 10 operating basis, Highland lost a lot of money in 2017 and 2018.
11 Correct?

12 A I don't know.

13 Q Okay. Can you grab your book there, please?

14 A Sure.

15 Q And turn to Exhibit 86. I think it's in Volume 2 of 2.

16 Mr. Dondero, if there's any portion of the book that you
17 in particular want to read, just let me know. But I'd ask you
18 to just turn to Page 2.

19 A Page -- I'm on Page 2.

20 Q Okay. And do you see near the top, it says, quote,
21 overall operating income projected at $900,000, but there's a
22 $12 million loss for HCMLP which doesn't account for some other
23 items? Do you see that?

24 A Yes.

25 Q Does that refresh your recollection that Highland was

Dondero - Direct

28

1 projected to lose $12 million in 2018?

2 A Well, it actually refreshes my recollection on what I
3 said.

4 And there's substantial underlies in expected investment
5 and investment commitments. There's a balance sheet that's 6 moving around that dwarfs the $12 million, which is what my 7 point was.

8 Q I'm not talking about assets, sir. I'm talking about
9 operating income, the ability to pay your bills.

10 A Right.

11 What I'm talking about is if you have 650 million of 12 assets, which we still have today, you have more than enough
13 solvency to cover 12.

14 Q So this wasn't a problem from your perspective?

15 A Correct.

16 Q Okay.

17 A It never had been.

18 Q Okay. Let's go to Slide 29, please.

19 A In the same book?

20 Q Yeah.

21 THE COURT: I'm sorry, you said 29?

22 MR. MORRIS: 29, yeah.

23 BY MR. MORRIS:

24 Q And if you could just -- I'm just going to ask you quickly
25 29, 30, 31, 32, that's all information about human resources.

Dondero - Direct

29

1 Correct?

2 A I'm sorry. Exhibit 29, the Shared Services Agreement?

3 Q No, no. I'm sorry. In 86, just Page 29.

4 A Oh, okay.

5 Q Yeah.

6 A Page 29, yes.

7 Q Okay. So if you look at 29, 30, 31, 32, you're given a
8 lot of -- this deck was presented to you by Mr. Waterhouse and 9 Mr. Klos. Right? If you look at the front?

10 A Okay. I don't know. I assume so.

11 Q Okay. So on that assumption, if you look at 29, 30, 31,
12 whether this is the exact book or not, you would agree that you
13 were presented with a lot of information about the Highland
14 platform's employees. Correct?

15 A Yes.

16 Q And did you personally have to approve everybody who was 17 hired?

18 A No.

19 Q But you were informed of everybody who was hired.

20 Correct?

21 A Generally.

22 Q And you were generally informed about everybody who was 23 fired. Correct?

24 A Generally.

25 Q And everybody who was terminated? If you look at 32, for

Dondero - Direct

30

1 example, they tell you exactly the number of people who were
2 terminated and they identified by name the names of the 3 individuals who were terminated.

4 Do you see that? If you look at 32.

5 A Sure. Okay.

6 Q So there's no question that you were given that
7 information. Right?

8 A Once a year at the end of the year. Is that what you're 9 asking me?

10 Q In this deck.

11 A Right.

12 Q And you met with Brian Collins from time to time to 13 discuss personnel matters. Right?

14 A Yes.

15 Q And you're the person who set the compensation for 16 everybody who worked for Highland. Right?

17 A No. Just generally.

18 Q Nobody got a raise without your approval. Did they?

19 A Yes. I mean I get told about it afterwards or something.

20 Q Who had the authority to give raises without your prior
21 approval? Who in the organization had the ability to hand out
22 money without your approval?

23 A Well, if it was a large amount, they would seek my 24 approval. But I'm saying small amounts, unit heads would have 25 that ability.

Dondero - Direct

31

1 Q Okay. So you had to approve -- let's -- can we use the
2 word "material?"

3 A Yeah.

4 Q Okay. You had the authority and the responsibility for
5 approving all material changes in compensation for Highland's
6 employees. Right?

7 A Yes.

8 Q Okay. Go to Slide 36, please.

9 Do you remember that these annual reviews included
10 forecasts?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And those forecasts would contain assumptions, right?

13 A Yes.

14 Q And in this particular forecast, if you look at the top,
15 you were told to assume that the material inter-company
16 arrangements remained unchanged and it specifically said that 17 NexPoint and its subsidiaries would pay $6 million per year for 18 subadvisory and shared services. Do you see that?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Where did that number, six million, come from?

21 A I assume it was -- I don't know.

22 It was -- these are the assumptions they're using. They 23 probably flatlined prior years. There were probably prior 24 years where five or six or based on growth, you know, of prior
25 years five. There's maybe a mixture of six. I don't -- I

Dondero - Direct

32

1 don't know the answer.

2 Q Did you play any role in determining how much money would
3 be paid by the Advisors to Highland for services?

4 A No. It was done via the shared services contracts that
5 are meant to be for a variety of regulatory and tax purposes
6 appropriate and fair.

7 MR. MORRIS: All right. I move to strike. I'm just 8 asking him about what he did.

9 THE COURT: Sustained.

10 BY MR. MORRIS:

11 Q Did you play any role in establishing the fees that were 12 paid by the Advisors to Highland under any of the inter-company
13 agreements?

14 A Not the specifics, just the general direction to be
15 compliant in best practices.

16 Q Okay. But you were told here -- right? We don't really 17 have to debate the point. You were told, you will admit, in 18 the beginning of 2018 that the assumption was that NexPoint and 19 their subsidiaries would be paying $6 million a year for 20 subadvisory and shared services. Correct?

21 A Yes. That -- I was told here that they had to make an 22 assumption, and they made an assumption.

23 Q Okay. Can you turn to Page 46, please?

24 Do you see that that's the NexPoint three-year profit and 25 loss forecast?

Dondero - Direct

33

1 A Yes.

2 Q And do you see that in the middle of the page, there's a
3 reference to subadvisor fees and shared service expenses?

4 A Yes.

5 Q And do you see that if you add those two numbers up for
6 any of the years, it equals $6 million?

7 A Yes.

8 Q So, again, the projections that you were given showed that 9 NexPoint would be paying Highland exactly $6 million for these
10 services for each of those three years. Is that right?

11 A That's the assumption in this forecast.

12 They -- they missed the bankruptcy. They missed the fact
13 that the revenue wouldn't change, but they had to make some 14 assumptions that, you know -- whatever. But they don't know
15 what they don't know. But they had to make some assumptions,
16 so they -- they put a flatline assumption in there.

17 Q Well, do you know that with the exception for -- with the 18 exception of December 2020, that assumption proved 100 percent
19 correct? That's exactly what NexPoint paid for the first 35
20 out of the 36 months on that forecast?

21 A We didn't have a lot of turnover before the bankruptcy,
22 and it was based on head count and it was based on percentages
23 of people. So, yeah, the assumption probably played out until 24 people started moving in and out and until the assets under 25 management changed. But, yeah, that makes sense.

Dondero - Direct

34

1 Q This is what you were told they would pay, and this is
2 exactly what, in fact, they did pay with the exception of 3 December 2020. Do you know that?

4 A I don't know that except for you're telling me that and
5 showing me that here.

6 And I'm reluctant to give any credence to a projected
7 (indiscernible) forecast based on a lot of assumptions having 8 to have been -- happened to have been right in a year or two 9 somehow overrides the contracts that's very specific and very
10 clear.

11 Q Well, if you take $6 million a year and you divide it by 12 12, that's $500,000 a month. Right? Simple math.

13 A Roughly, sure.

14 Q Not even roughly. Exactly. Right?

15 A Okay. It's not exactly six million, but yes. Okay.

16 Q Well, if you add 3,024,000 plus 2,976,000, you actually
17 come to exactly 6,000,000. Right?

18 A Okay. Yeah, then it's exactly 500,000.

19 Q It is.

20 A Yes.

21 Q And you were told in April of 2020 that NexPoint would pay
22 exactly $500,000 for each and every month through the end of 23 the year. Isn't that correct?

24 A No. No.

25 And all I'm saying is there's a responsibility to

Dondero - Direct

35

1 administer a contract beyond the assumptions in a -- in a pro
2 forma. This is meant to be an overall year-end review. It's
3 not meant to be a detailed review of all contracts. It's --
4 it's meant to be approximate. It's summarizes everything to 5 six, seven line items instead of a hundred line items. It's 6 not a -- it's for planning purposes. That's -- that's what 7 this document is.

8 Q Are you aware that the corporate accounting group prepared
9 in the ordinary course of business 13-week forecasts?

10 A Yes.

11 Q And do you understand that those 13-week forecasts
12 included the amount of money that the Advisors were going to 13 pay to Highland for the services?

14 A We have similar assumptions on a variety of things, also,
15 yes.

16 Q And were those forecasts given to you?

17 A Sometimes we -- we went over them periodically.

18 Q And when you say "we would go over them," you went over
19 the 13-week forecasts with Mr. Waterhouse and Mr. Klos.

20 Correct?

21 A Generally.

22 Q And you continued to get forecasts after the bankruptcy.

23 Correct?

24 A Not much. A little bit. I -- things changed with the 25 bankruptcy.

Dondero - Direct

36

1 Q All right. So before the bankruptcy, there is no question
2 before the bankruptcy, you got the 13-week forecasts that
3 showed exactly how much the Advisors were projected to pay
4 under their contracts with Highland. Right?

5 A Yes.

6 Q And after the bankruptcy filing, certainly before the 7 Independent Board was appointed, you continued to get the 8 13-week forecast. Right?

9 A There was only a few weeks in between there. I don't know
10 if I saw anything in that few weeks.

11 Q And Highland filed disclosures on the docket showing how 12 much revenue they generated and the sources of their revenue.
13 Right?

14 A Scant -- scant detail. But yes, a little bit regarding 15 revenue.

16 Q And even after Mr. Seery was appointed, Mr. Waterhouse and 17 Ms. Hendrix would still give you information about NexPoint and 18 the advisors and their projections. Right?

19 A I did get information on the advisors after the 20 bankruptcy, the advisors and entities that weren't part of the 21 bankruptcy.

22 Q Can you go to Exhibit 150, please, sir?

23 And do you see that this is an email that Ms. Hendrix sent 24 to you in April 2020, where she attached a NexPoint cash
25 forecast?

Dondero - Direct

37

1 A Yes.

2 Q And do you see that she invited you to discuss the
3 forecast if you had any questions?

4 A Yes.

5 Q And do you see the forecast is not a big document. Right?
6 It's just a one pager?

7 A Yes.

8 Q It's a cash forecast?

9 A Yes.

10 Q And it shows that for every single month from May 2020
11 until December 2020, NexPoint was projected to pay Highland how 12 much?

13 A (No audible response)

14 Q $500,000. Right?

15 A Yes.

16 Q So, here they are in April 2020 repeating exactly what 17 they told you was going to happen, what they projected to 18 happen, back in January of 2018. Right?

19 A Okay. Those are projected numbers. They're not 20 reconciled. They're not trued up. They're part of contracts
21 that need to be administered. The fact that they're putting in 22 a flat line with an expectation to reconcile it later is not a
23 surprise.

24 People don't reconcile things on a daily basis or minute-
25 by-minute basis. It happens in due course when it's efficient.

Dondero - Direct

38

1 I don't know if -- I don't know when they normally reconcile,
2 if it's quarterly or monthly or yearly, but those are questions
3 for Frank and Klos. But you would never have a specific
4 contract that isn't reconciled when it has a lot of variables
5 in it.

6 Q At this point, Frank Waterhouse's wings had not been 7 clipped. Right? It's April.

8 A Correct.

9 Q And so he's still the person who is responsible for 10 administering the contracts in accordance with their terms.
11 Right?

12 A He's the one -- he and his group are responsible for 13 administering the contract, due course, best practices, yes.

14 Q And he is telling you in April 2020 exactly what he told
15 you in January of 2018, and that is the cost of NexPoint's
16 contracts with Highland would be $500,000 a month. Correct?

17 A That was his -- for cash flow purposes, that was his 18 assumption, yes.

19 Q Okay. And do you understand, do you know that for every 20 single month from January 2018 until the end of November 2020,
21 NexPoint paid exactly $500,000?

22 A I don't know exactly when he told me to stop paying, but 23 hopefully they stopped paying when I told them to stop paying.

24 Q Well, you told them to stop paying after you got notice of 25 termination of the shared services agreements. Correct?

Dondero - Direct

39

1 A No. I told them to stop paying once we realized we were
2 being over billed.

3 Q And that occurred after you got notice of termination of 4 the shared services agreements. Correct?

5 A I don't know. I have no recollection of that.

6 Q All right. We'll deal with Mr. Norris on that topic.

7 But there's no question -- you don't have any reason to
8 question the assertion that NexPoint paid exactly $500,000
9 every single month for 35 months until the end of November 2020
10 when you directed Mr. Waterhouse not to make any further
11 payments, fair?

12 A Yeah. I've no reason to know that they didn't.

13 Q All right. Okay. I want to go back in time a little bit.

14 Are you aware that in January 2018, Frank Waterhouse
15 signed a sub-advisory agreement on behalf of both advisors?

16 Do you know that?

17 A Not specifically. And, again, I knew there was a task
18 force that changed and improved it to be compliant. And I
19 assume that's what you're referring to.

20 Q It's not.

21 Can you grab Volume 1 of 2, please, and go to Exhibit 5.

22 Do you see that's a sub-advisory agreement?

23 A Yes.

24 Q And do you see, if you look at the end, that Mr. -- and 25 his signatures appear on the page ending in Bates Number 580.

Dondero - Direct

40

1 Do you see Mr. Waterhouse signed this sub-advisory
2 agreement on behalf of both NexPoint and Highland?

3 A Yes.

4 Q Did you authorize him to do that?

5 A Not specifically.

6 Q No.

7 Do you have any knowledge that Mr. Waterhouse signed a
8 sub-advisory agreement effective as of January 1, 2018, on 9 behalf of both Highland and NexPoint?

10 A I have general awareness there was a tax legal compliance
11 accounting task force to make this agreement as accurate and 12 proper and best practices as possible. And this is their work
13 product that Frank, as leading the group signed, and I'm fine
14 with him signing it. But I was not specifically involved and I
15 don't have direct recollection.

16 Q Okay. That's fair.

17 Can you just turn to Page 3?

18 A 3 of this contract?

19 Q Yes.

20 Do you see it required a monthly fee of $252,000 in 21 Section 2(a)?

22 A I'm sorry. Section 2(a)?

23 Q Yes.

24 A Two dot zero one. Is that -- I'm sorry. Maybe I'm in the 25 wrong --

Dondero - Direct

41

1 Q We're in Exhibit 5. It's Exhibit 5, Page 3.

2 A Hang on. I'm sorry. I was in Exhibit 6.

3 Q Take your time.

4 A Exhibit 6, Page 2. Okay.

5 Q Yeah, we're at Exhibit 5, Page 3.

6 A Page 3. Okay.

7 Q Do you see the compensation there is $252,000 a month?

8 A Yeah.

9 Q And do you see that it's a fixed fee?

10 A Yes.

11 Q And it doesn't have anything to do with costs, does it?

12 A Hold on a second.

13 Q Take your time.

14 A I think what's happening here is I think there's two 15 agreements. There's one for back-office people, or back office
16 function, in general, which has a fixed fee to it which is 17 probably what this is.

18 And then, there's one that looks like the other one we 19 were looking at that has a list of people in the back and the 20 percentages of their time. And that's the one that's cost plus
21 and reimbursement.

22 And this -- this one I believe was more fixed based on 23 just general services provided.

24 Q Okay. So would you agree that sub-advisory services are 25 what's commonly known as front-office services? They're

Dondero - Direct

42

1 investment advisory services.

2 A Everybody uses different names. The front-office one is
3 generally a people-oriented one and, then, the other one is
4 generally a more fixed overhead.

5 Q Are you aware that this sub-advisory agreement was 6 replaced with the payroll reimbursement agreement five months
7 later? Do you know that?

8 A Well, that's what I had said earlier, that from 2013 on,
9 there was a general fixed structure one that wasn't best
10 practices, wasn't compliant from a regulatory or tax
11 standpoint, that was with a task force made to be compliant and 12 split into two. And if it happened six months after this one
13 was signed, I don't have specific knowledge, but I know the 14 compliant improved, enhanced one. Was enforced in '18.

15 Q All right. I'm really not trying to trick you.

16 A Well, that's how it feels.

17 Q So I want to clear this up because that's exactly what I'm 18 not trying to do. I'm trying to get your best recollection.
19 And if you don't recall, you don't recall.

20 But if you look at Exhibit 3, you'll see that's the shared
21 services agreement for NexPoint as of January 1, 2018. And 22 that's a fixed fee contract.

23 Take your time and look at it. I don't mean to rush you.

24 A Right.

25 Q But if you take a look at -- right. That's the amended

Dondero - Direct

43

1 and restated NexPoint agreement. It's a fixed fee agreement.
2 If you take a look at Page 9, the consideration, its says "flat
3 fee of $168,000 per month."

4 A Yes. Okay. I understand what you're doing now.

5 Q Okay.

6 A NexPoint had the front-office people working at NexPoint
7 because we had public greets, people or officers there. There
8 were investment professionals there. NexPoint didn't have 9 investment professionals at Highland.

10 Q So you created a new sub-advisory agreement for that
11 purpose?

12 A Well, what I'm saying is the sub-advisory agreement should 13 be different for the -- or should be somewhat different, either
14 in amounts or mechanism, between Hfam and NexPoint. And I
15 don't know if that's --

16 Q No. I'm just not --

17 A And, again, I know you're trying to trick me, but if --

18 Q I'm not.

19 A -- you're saying there's one agreement here, and ah ha,
20 there's two agreements with Hfam, they're different entities.

21 Q I'm not even talking about HCMFA.

22 A Okay.

23 Q I'm really just focused on NexPoint.

24 Are you aware that on January 1, 2018, NexPoint entered
25 into two new agreements with Highland, one of which was a

Dondero - Direct

44

1 shared service agreement for back and middle office services
2 and one was a sub-advisory agreement for investment advisory
3 services. Do you know that?

4 A My general understanding is they both, Hfam and NexPoint,
5 signed two that were better and more accurate, appropriate to 6 reconcile, proper split, not art, more science-based on, on 7 formula, and they both did.

8 I was just -- I thought you were trying to go down a path
9 and only one of them did, or one of them was different than the 10 other.

11 I wasn't that involved in the process, but there were 12 great efforts made by the people involved to make them
13 appropriate and complaint.

14 Q Okay. And, in fact, HCMFA did not sign the sub-advisory 15 agreement at the beginning of 2018. Are you aware of that?

16 A No.

17 Q One was prepared, but they didn't sign it.

18 Do you know that?

19 A No. I have no awareness of that.

20 Q And are you aware that the sub-advisory agreement that was 21 signed by Mr. Waterhouse on behalf of NexPoint and the sub-
22 advisory agreement that was prepared for HCMFA but not signed
23 by anybody, were actually replaced by these payroll
24 reimbursement agreements.

25 Do you have any recollection of any of that or any

Dondero - Direct

45

1 knowledge?

2 A Frank would be your person.

3 Q Okay.

4 A If the timing was so close, they might've held off on one
5 agreement because they knew it was coming. Maybe they signed
6 one in due course because an auditor needed it.

7 Q I don't want you to speculate.

8 A You know, I mean, I have no idea, but you ask him.

9 Q You're the person in control, so I'm asking you. If you
10 don't know, just say I don't know.

11 A I don't know. I have no idea.

12 Q Okay. Did you ever read the Payroll Reimbursement
13 Agreement before it was signed?

14 A No.

15 Q Have you read it today?

16 A No.

17 Q Do you ever look at that Exhibit A that was attached to it
18 cause you referred to it? Do you ever look at that Exhibit A?

19 A I saw it, but it was exactly what I expected, a list of 20 people and percentages.

21 Q Are you aware that some of those people had been
22 terminated from Highland before the agreement was even signed?

23 A The day I became aware of that, and we were still paying 24 for them, is the day we stop paying.

25 Q Oh, that's when you first learned?

Dondero - Direct

46

1 A No. I mean, I knew -- I mean, I knew people had left the
2 company, but the day I first knew that we were still paying for 3 people who had left the company was the day we stopped paying.

4 Q Ah, okay. But there's no question that you knew when the 5 people on that Exhibit A left the company. You knew that.
6 Right?

7 A Sure.

8 Q Sure. Okay.

9 Was it your understanding that when one of the individuals
10 listed on Exhibit A was terminated that the amount of money
11 that NexPoint would pay to Highland would be reduced?

12 Was that your understanding?

13 MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, I'll object on 14 speculation. The witness said he did not read that payroll
15 reimbursement agreement, negotiate it, so this is all based on 16 speculation.

17 THE COURT: Overruled.

18 THE WITNESS: Absolutely. But when it was 19 reconciled, I don't know. I wasn't, you know --

20 BY MR. MORRIS:

21 Q So it's your understanding that every time a dual employee
22 left Highland, that NexPoint should have gotten a reduction in 23 the amount of money it paid under the payroll reimbursement
24 agreement. Do I have your understanding correctly?

25 Is that fair?

Dondero - Cross

47

1 A Yeah. Absolutely. Why would you have a list of people
2 and percentages otherwise?

3 Q Okay.

4 A You wouldn't have it.

5 Q Okay. And did you ever take any steps to make sure that
6 when dual employees left, there was a reduction in the amount
7 of money that NexPoint was paying to Highland?

8 A We relied on Highland for that in the fees we were paying
9 Highland. We didn't have the staff to do it in our entities.

10 Q Well, in fact, I think you testified, and I'll just ask
11 you to confirm, that until the summer of 2020, Frank 12 Waterhouse, as the treasurer or the CFO of the advisors, who 13 had a fiduciary duty, one of his responsibilities was to 14 administer the contracts in accordance with their terms.

15 Do I have that understanding correct? He was the one,
16 until the summer of '20, until Mr. Seery did what you contend
17 Mr. Seery did, until that moment, he is the one on behalf of 18 the advisors who had the responsibility of administering
19 contracts. Right?

20 A Yes. Administering.

21 MR. MORRIS: I have no further questions, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: All right. Pass the witness.

23 CROSS-EXAMINATION

24 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

25 Q Mr. Dondero, what was your title at Highland in 2018 and

1 2019?

2 A President.

3 Q Okay. Were you at the top?

4 A Yes.

5 Q For the record, what was the size of Highland at that
6 time, revenue, assets under management, employees?

7 A Very similar to today, really, in terms of asset size.

8 About 650 million in assets.

9 Q Owned assets.

10 A Owned assets.

11 Q What about managed assets?

12 A Well, I can't -- I know it was bigger. The CLOs were 13 bigger.

14 Q Are we talking about billions?

15 A Yeah. It was --

16 Q And approximately how many employees in 2018?

17 A Boy, maybe 40, 50 more than today.

18 Q So how many in total?

19 A 150 maybe.

20 Q Okay. And just approximate annual revenue back then?

21 A I don't know.

22 Q Well, let me ask you this.

23 A Yeah, sure.

24 Q As the president of an entity that had hundreds of 25 millions of dollars in assets, billions of dollars under

1 management, and hundreds of employees, would you expect that
2 you would know every detail about every contract or every 3 negotiation?

4 A No. No, we had a good accounting staff. We had a good
5 compliance staff. We had a good legal staff. And they did
6 their jobs respectively to administer things appropriately, the 7 way we were operating, which was typical of other asset
8 management firms.

9 Q So I take it you would get advice from subordinates from 10 time to time.

11 A Yeah, sometimes. Yeah, it --

12 Q Would you act on that advice?

13 A Yeah. And it was --

14 Q Would you receive instructions?

15 MR. MORRIS: Objection. Leading.

16 THE COURT: Overruled.

17 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

18 Q Would you receive instructions?

19 A Yes. And --

20 Q And who would execute those instructions?

21 A It would depend on the area. But, you know --

22 Q Would it be you?

23 A No, I wouldn't execute it. But, it would depend on the 24 area. If it, you know -- we would -- we act very quickly to 25 anything coming from compliance that was a concern. Anything

Dondero - Cross/Rukavina

50

1 from tax would also be a priority. And then, you know, the
2 accounting or GAAP accounting kind of caught up around the --

3 Q And let me interrupt you.

4 A -- annual audit.

5 Q Let me interrupt you because --

6 A Sure.

7 Q -- I really do want to move on.

8 And Mr. Waterhouse, he was a senior executive like
9 yourself. Is that accurate?

10 A Yes.

11 Q Would you have expected Mr. Waterhouse to know the details
12 of all contracts and all transactions?

13 A He had a staff, and he needed to have a significant staff.
14 They were the --

15 Q Why did he need to have a significant staff?

16 A There were a lot of audits. There were a lot of public
17 company responsibilities. There were a lot of private equity
18 company expenses.

19 Q Were their contracts to manage?

20 A Yeah, there was lots of things. Everything from personnel
21 to --

22 Q Would you have expected --

23 A -- contracts to tax, you know.

24 Q Would you have expected Mr. Waterhouse to personally
25 manage or administer contracts?

1 A No. He would have mechanisms set up for it. And, again,
2 you can't administer contracts every 15 minutes. You would
3 have some cost benefit to when you administered them or 4 reconciled them.

5 Q So how would you expect Mr. Waterhouse to learn of a
6 potential problem with administering a contract?

7 A Either one of his people would alert him to it or one of 8 the groups that were paying it would alert it to him -- alert
9 him to it or he would notice.

10 Q Would you have expected him to notice for each contract
11 being administered if there were hundreds of contracts?

12 A I mean, eventually.

13 I mean, a lot of things catch up at year-end or at the 14 audit. But eventually, he or his team would -- or are 15 responsible for administering contracts. It's rare it's a
16 major gaff and it's not good for people's career if -- let's 17 say you have a lease contract that's supposed to escalate every 18 year and someone forgets to escalate the rents for five years.

19 You know, it's -- that's -- that would be a bad reflection
20 on a lot of people because then it's a project to go back and 21 try and get it and argue it and whatever.

22 Q Didn't Mr. Waterhouse, in fact, at some point in time,
23 inform you that he had learned of the overpayments.

24 MR. MORRIS: Objection. Leading. I just --

25 THE COURT: I didn't even hear the question --

Dondero - Cross/Rukavina

52

1 MR. RUKAVINA: I'm sorry, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: -- to be honest.

3 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

4 Q Did Mr. Waterhouse, at some point in time, inform you that
5 he had learned of the overpayments?

6 A Yeah. That was in --

7 THE COURT: Oh, overruled. He can answer.

8 THE WITNESS: -- November or December of '20?

9 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

10 Q And was that -- and just to confirm, was that the first
11 time you learned of the overpayments?

12 A Yeah, the first time I had learned that there were 13 overpayments that weren't reconciled or that we weren't getting 14 credit for.

15 Q What do you mean by reconciled?

16 A Well, that there wasn't a -- either a reduction in future
17 payments or something for overpayments in the past. There's 18 lots of ways to --

19 Q Was there a -- but --

20 A -- satisfy a --

21 Q Was there a general --

22 A -- deficiency.

23 Q Was there -- and I'm sorry to keep interrupting you, sir.
24 We just want to try to get done today.

25 Was there a general practice at Highland as far as

1 reconciling or chewing up contracts?

2 A Not that I'm aware of. I'm sure they had one, but not
3 that I'm aware of.

4 Q Okay. Are you aware that the two payroll reimbursement
5 agreements were amended to provide $2.5 million of additional 6 cash from the advisors to Highland?

7 A In what year was that? Or that was --

8 Q At the end of 2018?

9 A Yeah. I believe there was a reconciliation of some sort
10 there, yes.

11 Q That's what I'm asking you.

12 A Yes.

13 Q What do you understand, if anything, about that 14 reconciliation?

15 A That they did the proper true-up in the accounting and,
16 whether it was based on assets under management, work, or 17 people, they made the proper adjustments.

18 Q Is that the only true-up to your understanding? Because I
19 asked you about a general practice, and you said that there was 20 not.

21 A I said I didn't know if there was. If they did it at 22 year-end and you're telling me they did it year-end '18, it
23 sounds like it was a year-end process.

24 Q Do you remember authorizing the advisors to pay $2.5
25 million in additional payroll reimbursement expenses at the end

1 of 2018?

2 A I don't remember. I don't know if I would've had to
3 authorize it if it was part of the true-up process.

4 Q And you were also asked whether, in light of what you
5 described as Mr. Waterhouse's diminished role or clipped wings
6 -- whatever words were used -- you expected someone else to 7 administer the contracts with the advisors. I want to follow
8 up on that.

9 Do you know who Dustin Norris is?

10 A Yes.

11 Q And what's your understanding of who he is for the 12 advisors?

13 A That's a good question. I don't want to -- I don't want
14 to fumble this one.

15 Q Let me ask you this. Is he an officer?

16 A The broker-dealer, in some of the entities, yes. I don't 17 know if all of the entities.

18 Q Did you ask Mr. Norris to involve himself in any way with 19 these overpayments and these contracts?

20 A Well, we were trying to do an amicable split. After we 21 found out about the overpayments, Dustin was front and center
22 trying to have a soft landing instead of having everybody
23 kicked out of the building and then coming back and all that 24 nonsense.

25 But my recollection is in that November-December time

1 frame, hearing about it from Frank, and then stopping excess
2 payments until we were trued up.

3 Q And also, you were asked about Frank's official titles
4 with the advisors. To your understanding, who was actually --
5 who actually employees Frank? What company is his employer?

6 A In the time frame we're talking about?

7 Q No. Today, sir. When you were asked about today.

8 A Today, he works for a Skyview.

9 Q And what's Skyview?

10 A Skyview is an amalgamation of the accounting staff and 11 legal staff in a separate entity.

12 Q Former Highland employees?

13 A Yes.

14 Q And is that why you're not technically sure as to whether 15 he's an officer because he's an employee of Skyview?

16 A That's right.

17 Q Okay. I think you've testified that whatever his role is,
18 he is in charge of accounting for the advisors?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Okay. Today?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Okay. And just for the record, the Court may or may not 23 know, but when you refer to Hfam, are you referring to HCMFA?

24 A Uh-huh. Yes.

25 Q Okay. Now, I don't think there's any point in showing you

1 the payroll reimbursement agreements since I think you
2 testified you never read them. But there are amounts in those
3 agreements and those amounts total up to certain amounts per 4 year. Are you following me so far?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Do you know how those yearly amounts were determined for 7 the two payroll reimbursement agreements?

8 A Some of the fixed numbers are relevant to what's the fixed
9 expense base and then divided based on --

10 Q Well, let me pause you. Let me pause you. I apologize.
11 I'm talking about just the payroll reimbursement now, not 12 the shared services.

13 A Oh, the payroll --

14 Q The payroll of --

15 A Yeah.

16 Q -- the employees.

17 A Yeah, the payroll of the employees and they're, and I
18 don't want to call them unallocated, but some of the employees
19 are employees that represent various entities. And then,
20 there's a percentage allocation of their time.

21 Q And all that rolls up into a number.

22 Are you following me so far?

23 A That's right because the percentage of their time is then
24 a percentage of their total comp.

25 Q So what I'm asking you is, did you determine -- so

1 remember, all those percentages and all that rolls up into a
2 number, okay? Let's call that number X. Are you with me?

3 A Yes.

4 Q Did you set or determine what X would be?

5 A No.

6 Q Do you know how X was determined?

7 A By having the relevant people on the list and that the 8 less would hopefully be comprehensive and complete. And the --

9 Q Do you know who prepared --

10 A And then, the percentage allocations would be appropriate.

11 Q Do you know who prepared X? X, again, being the number
12 that all this roles up into?

13 A Yeah. The starting -- the starting appendix with all
14 those people on it was that task force of legal, compliance,
15 and accounting to provide the starting point. And those 16 documents that are based on people and percentages are living
17 documents that change over time.

18 Q Do you know whose idea it was originally to have those 19 payroll reimbursement agreements? In other words, you talked
20 about how the prior agreements were changed for best practices.

21 Do you know whose idea that was?

22 A I believe it came from the auditors which came from -- the 23 auditors from a tax and a regulatory standpoint. You can't 24 just have whimsical numbers. There has to be a basis for the 25 allocations. And the more directly you can tie it to people

Dondero - Cross/Rukavina

58

1 and contribution and a percentage of overhead, the better. And
2 that's -- that's why the new contracts were presented best
3 practices.

4 Q Because they have to withstand regulatory and tax
5 scrutiny?

6 A Yeah.

7 Q Okay.

8 A Yeah -- or yeah, that's right. Scrutiny or challenge if 9 --

10 Q So if someone suggests that you pulled numbers out of thin
11 air, $5 million for HCMFA, on an annual basis, and $6 million
12 for NexPoint on an annual basis, would you agree with that?

13 A No.

14 Q Okay. And if someone suggests that you pulled those 15 numbers for a reason involving trying to get liquidity into 16 Highland, would you agree with that?

17 A No. I would say --

18 Q And if someone -- hold on, sir.

19 A Yeah.

20 Q And if someone suggested that you pulled those numbers in 21 order to get tax deductions for the Advisors, would you agree
22 with that?

23 A No.

24 Q Okay.

25 A Yeah.

1 Q What were you going to say, sir? You were going to
2 explain.

3 A I was going to say that the purpose of best practices was
4 to avoid any assertions by regulatory or GAAP accountants or 5 tax accountants that it was tax fraud.

6 What you're describing is tax fraud, which means the 7 people who did it, instead of -- if they did it and they said
8 they did it, and they said they did it because I told them,
9 then they committed tax fraud, and their defense is they didn't
10 do anything about it. Or --

11 Q That's the Nuremberg Defense I think, sir. But let me --

12 A -- or complained. And instead they just --

13 Q Let me --

14 A -- their defense is going to be I told them?

15 Q Let me interrupt you again. Let's assume it's the 16 Nuremberg Defense. How long have you known David Klos?

17 A Several -- you know, a bunch of years. Ten years, 18 probably.

19 Q Do you have an opinion of his professionalism?

20 A He's --

21 Q Prior to this litigation.

22 A Prior to him being co-opted by --

23 Q Yes.

24 A Okay.

25 MR. MORRIS: Move to strike, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Sustained.

2 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

3 Q Prior to the confirmation of the bankruptcy plan, did you
4 have an opinion of Mr. Klos' professionalism?

5 A I would divide it into two portions. It was before he was 6 enticed --

7 Q Well, let me --

8 A -- to work for the --

9 Q Because we're going to have motions to strike. Let me ask
10 a different question.

11 MR. MORRIS: I move to strike the word enticed.

12 THE COURT: Sustained.

13 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

14 Q Let me ask a different question. In 2018, would you have 15 believed that David Klos could be -- could possibly create
16 deceptive documents for tax fraud or tax cheat purposes?

17 A No.

18 Q What about Mr. Waterhouse?

19 A No.

20 Q What about Ms., and I apologize, I count pronounce her
21 name, Thedford. You know who I'm talking about, Lauren.

22 A Right. No.

23 Q Okay. Anyone at Highland?

24 A No. We were a very compliant organization.

25 Q What about at the end of 2018 when the $2.5 million was

Dondero - Cross/Rukavina

61

1 paid as additional money under the payroll agreements. Can you
2 imagine of anyone at Highland that would have done that for
3 some kind of tax cheat or tax fraud purposes?

4 A No.

5 Q And if someone testified here that the whole purpose of 6 these contracts was for the Advisors to suck money out of 7 Highland, would you have an answer to that?

8 A I would say they're not telling the truth, and they're 9 incentivized to not tell the truth.

10 Q And before Mr. Klos -- well, before -- through the year
11 2020, would you have expected Mr. Klos to flag any potentially 12 deceptive or potentially unlawful activities or documents to 13 you?

14 A Yes.

15 Q You met with Mr. Klos, you met with him regularly, didn't 16 you back then?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Would you have expected Mr. Waterhouse to flag or raise 19 issues with you if there was anything deceptive or potentially 20 fraudulent?

21 A Yes.

22 Q And did either of those ever raise any issue to you, or a
23 red flag with respect to the Shared Services Agreements or 24 Payroll Reimbursement Agreements?

25 A Not to me, not to the auditors, not to compliance, not to

1 HR, not to anybody.

2 Q Were you surprised when you learned towards the end of
3 2020 about the overpayments?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Were you angry?

6 A Yeah.

7 Q Why?

8 A Why. This has been a most unusual bankruptcy. Right?

9 You have an initial assessment that after getting rid of a
10 couple people the first few months, that everybody else is 11 critical and needs to stay around. And then you work everybody
12 extremely hard, particularly legal and accountants, to really 13 do all the work that Pachulski and DSA filed, and take tens of 14 millions of dollars of fees out. But most of it was prepared
15 by our guys.

16 And then you get to the second half of '20, and the 17 decision is made that not only is there not going to be any 18 kind of key employee retention, but there's going to be an 19 attack on the employees, and they're not going to get paid
20 their '18 or '19 bonuses, or amounts for '20 either. And then
21 some people who were most critical for preserving the estate
22 get fired for cause. I mean, it's just crazy town.

23 Q But --

24 A So that's the backdrop.

25 Q That's the back drop. So --

Dondero - Cross/Rukavina

63

1 A So people were being paid and then --

2 Q Are you aware, sir --

3 A I have --

4 Q Pardon me. Pardon me. Pause.

5 A Sure.

6 Q Are you aware, sir, that during all that time, the 7 Advisors were actually paying to Highland bonuses for these 8 employees that didn't get bonuses?

9 A That's right. And so --

10 Q So were you angry about that?

11 A So I was angry we were -- we were overpaying. We were 12 having to make up rightful compensation to people from other
13 pockets to just keep people flat. And at the same time, we're 14 getting overpaid, or we're getting overcharged for the services
15 we are using from Highland.

16 Q Who are we being overcharged by?

17 A Highland.

18 Q And who was supposed to be monitoring our contracts for 19 appropriateness before we paid an invoice?

20 A Highland.

21 Q And who has maligned you for the last year and a half in 22 this court and everywhere else?

23 MR. MORRIS: Objection to the form of the question.

24 This is just --

25 THE COURT: Sustained.

1 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

2 Q We'll move on. You were asked about the I think you said
3 upwards of about $10 million of payments to the senior
4 executives?

5 A Yes.

6 Q And you were asked whether you authorized those, and you
7 said yes?

8 A Yes.

9 Q Why did you authorize those?

10 A Those were deferred payments that they were due. In any 11 other bankruptcy in any normal court, they would have been paid
12 multiples of that.

13 Q Well, whose idea was it to have those payments made?

14 A Whose idea? It was -- it was the employees who were 15 short-shifted.

16 Q Did they talk to you --

17 A I agree with -- yes. They did.

18 Q Okay. And did they make any representations to you as to 19 whether such payments would be above-board or not?

20 A We had legal -- like I said, we did check with legal --

21 Q Okay.

22 A -- counsel.

23 Q Well, let's not get too --

24 A Yeah.

25 Q -- far into that. Okay. And you mentioned that you

1 believe that Mr. Surgent or Mr. Waterhouse informed Mr. Seery
2 of those payments?

3 A Yes.

4 Q And what is the basis of your understanding on that?

5 A They were both having -- at that time, both having 6 negotiations with Mr. Seery regarding liability, severance, and 7 potentially staying on with Highland. So I know it was part of 8 those conversations.

9 Q Were those senior employees the core of your team at 10 Highland?

11 A Yeah. Part of it, for sure. Yeah.

12 Q Were you concerned about them disbursing to the wind, so
13 to speak?

14 A Well, I was concerned that they would be treated unfairly,
15 unprecedented in bankruptcy really, in terms of being deprived 16 of prior bonuses by an estate that's twice as solvent as its 17 debts. You know?

18 Q And Isaac Leventon was one of those people. Right?

19 A Yes.

20 Q And without going into a long sob story, did he have some 21 health issues with his children?

22 A Yeah. He's got a handicapped kid and a wife in a
23 wheelchair. And somehow they wanted to screw him out of his 24 '18 and '19 bonuses.

25 MR. MORRIS: I move to strike, Your Honor. This is

Dondero - Cross/Rukavina

66

1 just -- this is so irrelevant, and it's so --

2 MR. RUKAVINA: And Mr. Morris opened the door.

3 Mr. Morris opened the door.

4 MR. MORRIS: To what?

5 MR. RUKAVINA: To the $10 million of bonuses.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Well, that is not the family
7 situation of Mr. Leventon.

8 MR. RUKAVINA: I'm developing the answers as to why
9 he authorized those bonuses. Mr. Seery was allowed, Your 10 Honor, respectfully, to pontificate for a long time. This
11 gentleman needs to have the ability to tell his story. People
12 are coming to your court saying that he paid $10 million under 13 the table in some nefarious plot to basically have moles and 14 cheats at Highland. Even though Mr. Surgent is still there, I
15 remind you. So I'm giving the man a chance to explain why he 16 authorized that. I'm not allowed to lead, which is why I'm 17 asking it this way.

18 THE COURT: I'll allow a little more on this topic,
19 that's it.

20 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

21 Q Did other of these senior executives also have issues such 22 that they needed money?

23 A Isaac's was the most acute. And --

24 Q But did that form a part of your reasoning for authorizing
25 the payments?

1 A Yeah, absolutely. But again, they were entitled to it.
2 They worked hard, they had maximized value in the estate, and
3 then the professionals in the estate decided to take the 4 estate.

5 Q Okay. And you mentioned a solvency, and twice the 6 solvency of the estate and liquidity. What did you mean? And 7 if you can, explain because you were also asked about whether
8 Highland was making or losing money in '18 or '19. Explain
9 what you meant when Mr. Morris was asking you those questions.

10 A The value of Highland estate today is $650 million. And 11 it's sitting on 200 million in cash. The Highland estate
12 really has not changed that much in terms of value. It's 13 really just gone up over the last two years. Okay? There were 14 great efforts to hide and deceive the value of, and not 15 disclose the value of relevant assets. But the value today is 16 650.

17 Q What was the value in 2018, 2019, to the best of your
18 recollection?

19 A Probably a low of 500. Maybe 550.

20 Q What prompted the bankruptcy filing?

21 A We one arbitration award that we wanted to term out in 22 Delaware. We wanted to term it out for -- into a one- or 23 two- year note. And then that's it. But we had --

24 Q Was there --

25 A We had a settlement with UBS four months, five months

1 before we -- before we filed for $7 million and 10 million of
2 future business. And HarbourVest was never really a liability.

3 Q Did Highland file because of solvency issues?

4 A No.

5 Q Did Highland file because of liquidity issues?

6 A No. Well, liquidity issues, we -- we had -- we needed
7 time to raise the money for the -- we needed time to raise --

8 Q And --

9 A -- the money for the arbitration award.

10 Q And sir, you're aware of certain promissory notes that 11 various affiliates and you have with Highland? Are you
12 generally aware of those?

13 A Yes.

14 Q And prior to bankruptcy, on occasion would Highland come 15 to you and ask that some of those notes be prepaid for 16 liquidity purposes?

17 A Yes. Often. And we generally did. Yeah.

18 Q Was that the primary way that if Highland needed to have a
19 pinch in a liquidity issue, it would raise money?

20 A Yes. I think once we were down to 50, 60 million. At one
21 point they were as high as 90. I think I paid 9 million in 22 notes in '19. Yeah.

23 Q Well, the point being can you think of why someone would
24 say that these contracts and the amendments, the 5, 6, and 2.5
25 million were used to finance Highland if Highland would come to

1 you to prepay notes?

2 A They were incentivized. I have no idea why they would say
3 that.

4 Q Mr. Seery testified earlier, you weren't here, he
5 testified about negotiations in the -- now we can't talk about
6 what happened in mediation. Are you with me there?

7 A Sure.

8 Q But he testified generally that the mediation led to a
9 couple deals with the creditors. But as far as you and your 10 businesses, it didn't really go well. Without talking about 11 what was going on at the mediation, did you participate in 12 negotiations on a global or plot (phonetic) plan?

13 A Sure.

14 Q Did you participate in those discussions with the 15 principle creditors, the committee members?

16 A I tried. But the committee members had sold their claims 17 without telling the Court. And we didn't find that out until 18 later.

19 Q So in fact, they did file at some point in time notices of 20 transfer of their claim. Right?

21 A About eight months later.

22 Q What do you know about those transfers?

23 MR. MORRIS: Your Honor, I guess, like, it's his
24 witness, he can ask. But I'm just going to object on relevance
25 grounds. What on Earth does anything that he's testified to 1 for the last 20 minutes have to do with overpays?

2 MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, Mr. Morris and Mr. Seery
3 went on at length about how all these were contrived contracts
4 to suck value out of Highland from their creditors. If you
5 look at their proposed findings, they're asking you for 6 findings on that, extraneous findings that will be used in 7 collateral litigation by the way.

8 So I think that just as that came in, even though I
9 objected on narrative, I objected on relevance, I think he has 10 the right for me to put on some evidence to rebut that. Or if 11 Mr. Morris agrees that all of this is irrelevant, then
12 Mr. Seery's testimony should be struck in toto.

13 MR. MORRIS: No, number one. Number two, I have 14 nothing to do with any litigation that's being prosecuted by 15 Mr. Kirschner. Let me make that very clear to the Court. I
16 don't communicate with them about what I do. They don't 17 communicate with me about what they do. Like, I don't know
18 what he's doing, but this is a waste of time.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Well, I think some of it has been 20 arguably responsive to Seery testimony. But things like the 21 claimants sold their claims and didn't disclose it for eight
22 months, I mean, clearly we're going down irrelevant trails
23 there.

24 MR. RUKAVINA: Okay. Well, we'll wrap it up.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

1 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

2 Q You mentioned that the assets of Highland are 600 million
3 today, including 200 mil in cash. What's the debt against
4 Highland today?

5 A There's just the claims. There's --

6 Q How much? How much in total?

7 A There's 260 million in class eight that were projected to 8 get 60 cents.

9 Q Just tell me how much in total.

10 A And there's another 85 of class nine. So it was about 370
11 of claims. There's 650 advance, there's 200 cash on the 12 balance sheet today. All the claims traded to Fairlawn and 13 Stonehill (phonetic) for $155 million. They were happy to buy 14 them because it was representative they were going to get 15 three --

16 Q We'll stop --

17 A -- plus others.

18 Q We'll stop there.

19 A Yes.

20 Q We'll stop there.

21 A Okay.

22 Q We'll stop right there. But the point is that to your 23 understanding, there's more than enough assets at Highland 24 today to pay all creditors in full?

25 A Yes. And by the way --

Dondero - Cross/Rukavina

72

1 Q Let's talk --

2 A -- Highland could have paid the 150 million, retired all
3 the claims, and given us the keys.

4 Q I understand.

5 A Seery gave the claims to his friends that he used to work
6 for and with --

7 MR. MORRIS: You know, Your Honor, I'm just moving to 8 strike. This is ridiculous.

9 THE COURT: Sustained.

10 THE WITNESS: It's all going to be in the trustee
11 letter.

12 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

13 Q Mr. Dondero, it will all come up --

14 A It's what we were --

15 Q Hold on. Hold on.

16 A We're doing every recusal --

17 Q Please stop. Please stop.

18 A We're doing every --

19 Q Mr. Dondero, please stop.

20 A Okay.

21 Q All this will come out --

22 A Okay.

23 MR. RUKAVINA: -- into the light at the appropriate
24 time. Thank you, Your Honor. I'll pass the witness.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Redirect?

Dondero - Redirect

73

1 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

2 BY MR. MORRIS:

3 Q You're really angry, aren't you? You're really, really
4 angry, aren't you?

5 A No. I'm trying to weigh the what should have been a
6 normal bankruptcy and it's turned into a financial mugging. We 7 had 50 million. Your firm was going to make 100 million.

8 Q I work pretty hard.

9 A Not enough.

10 MR. RUKAVINA: This is ridiculous, Your Honor. He's 11 taunting my witness. I mean, you're really, really angry.
12 This is badgering, Your Honor. This has gone the point of 13 professionalism.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Sustained.

15 BY MR. MORRIS:

16 Q Frank Waterhouse told you about the overpayments?

17 A That's my --

18 Q That's how you learned. Right?

19 A That's my recollection.

20 Q Frank told you. Right?

21 A That's my recollection.

22 Q And when did he tell you?

23 A November, December.

24 Q He actually told you after December 8th, 2020. Correct?

25 A That's my recollection, yes.

1 Q Okay. Take a look in the Advisor's binder, Exhibit Q.

2 A Exhibit which one?

3 Q Q. Do you see that's an email from Dave Klos to Frank
4 Waterhouse?

5 A Yes.

6 Q And attached to it is the analysis that purports to show
7 the overpayment?

8 A Yes.

9 Q So would you agree with me that you learned from 10 Mr. Waterhouse about the overpayment on or after 11 December 8th, 2020?

12 A No.

13 Q No? Even though Mr. Waterhouse is just receiving the 14 analysis as of this time?

15 A You're assuming this is the first analysis that was done,
16 and this is the first time Frank knew. I don't know those 17 things. My recollection is November, December.

18 Q So it's possible that it was on or after December 8th.
19 It's at least possible, right, that it's December.

20 A I don't want to speculate.

21 Q What did he tell you?

22 A That we had been over billed for people that no longer
23 worked at the company.

24 Q Did he tell you when he learned that these people no
25 longer worked at the company?

1 A No.

2 Q Did he share that analysis with you?

3 A No. Not that I recall. I don't remember seeing that
4 before.

5 Q Had you ever learned of this analysis?

6 A I know that detailed analyses were prepared. I just -- I
7 just don't recall receiving that one.

8 Q Did you speak with Mr. Waterhouse on the phone or in 9 person, or by email? How did he tell you? Do you recall?

10 A I don't remember.

11 Q Do you recall if anybody else was present when he told
12 you?

13 A I don't recall.

14 Q And is it your understanding that the basis for the 15 overpayment is that the Advisors were being charged for 16 employees who were no longer on the list that was attached to 17 the agreement?

18 A Yeah, I think that was the bulk of it. And then probably 19 percentages changed also.

20 Q Okay. Do you know how many people on the list were 21 terminated before the petition date?

22 A No.

23 Q Do you know -- so you were in control of both Highland and 24 the Advisors from January 1st, 2018 until the end of 2019.

25 Correct?

1 A Yes.

2 Q And Mr. Waterhouse was responsible during that period for
3 overseeing the administration of the Advisors' contracts. Is 4 that right?

5 A Yes.

6 Q And it's your -- the reason why you're so mad is because
7 the Advisors were paying for employees who were on that list
8 who had been terminated. Is that right?

9 A No. I'm mad because Seery's trying to steal the company
10 for his friends.

11 Q Listen. You're mad because -- I just want to focus on the 12 overpayments, okay? On the overpayments, you're mad because 13 Highland has charged the Advisors for employees that you
14 believe they shouldn't be doing because they've been 15 terminated. Right?

16 A I answered this question already. I was potentially angry
17 with the overpayments because the debtor decided not to pay
18 bonuses for people for '18 and '19, decided not to pay any 19 bonuses for senior people, and then rough handled and sued
20 hardworking employees that did most of your work out the door.

21 Q Can you open your exhibit binder please, sir, to Exhibit
22 14? And go to Page 12 of 18.

23 A Page 12 of 18?

24 Q Yes.

25 A Exhibit 18?

1 Q It's Exhibit 14, Page 12 of 18.

2 A Exhibit 14. Page 12, yes.

3 Q Okay. Do you see there's a list of people there, and it
4 continues to the top of the next page with Scott Wilson?

5 A Sure.

6 Q Okay. Are you familiar with the concept of dual
7 employees?

8 A Yes.

9 Q And do you understand that the dual employees were listed
10 on the exhibits attached to the payroll reimbursement
11 agreement?

12 A If that's what it says. I'm not -- I know what dual 13 employees are. I don't know how this contract worked.

14 Q Okay. Do you see -- so you don't know how the contract
15 worked? But yet you think that there's overpayments. Right?

16 A I know generally how it works. I don't know specifically
17 on dual employees. But there are people who are allocated and 18 it's based on generally a percentage of time.

19 Q Okay. So I just want to really get your understanding and 20 to the heart of your allegation that there's an overpayment
21 here. Do you see that the interrogatory asked, and I'll 22 represent to you that these are interrogatories that were 23 answered by the Advisors. Okay?

24 We asked identify the date you believe each form of dual
25 employee identified on the exhibits to the Payroll

1 Reimbursement Agreements departed the debtor. And do you see
2 that they've listed each of the dual employees with the dates
3 of departure?

4 A Yes.

5 Q Okay. And do you see for example that -- I want to pick
6 the right one here -- Michael Phillips (phonetic). Do you see
7 Michael Phillips was terminated in February 20, 2018?

8 A I don't know if he was terminated. But yeah, that's the 9 date. Right?

10 Q That's the date he left. Right?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And that's the date the Advisors admit knowing that he
13 left. Right?

14 A It appears so, yes.

15 Q And if you look at interrogatory number four on the next
16 page, it says the Advisors were generally aware of the 17 employee's terminations and departures as they occurred. Okay?
18 So would you agree with me that the Advisors were generally
19 aware of Michael Phillips' departure on February 20th, 2018?

20 A Yes.

21 Q And is it your testimony that if the Advisors paid for 22 Mr. Phillips in March of 2018 there was an overpayment? Is 23 that the overpayment you're talking about that they shouldn't 24 have paid for Mr. Phillips in March because he had been
25 terminated?

1 A I assume this is the last day that they were getting paid.
2 Right? So I don't want to quibble on whether this was their
3 exit date and they got paid for severance or something else.
4 But I think what the overpayment is is that most of these
5 people were continuing to be factored into the number nine,
6 ten, twelve months later.

7 Q They were factored into the number for every single month
8 in 2018 and 2019 when you were in control of the entities. Are 9 you aware of that?

10 A But then there should have been a true-up.

11 Q And Frank Waterhouse was responsible for that. Correct?

12 A Him and his group, yeah. There should have been a true-
13 up. Correct.

14 Q And do you know if a true-up was required by the contract?

15 A There always is in living, breathing contracts.

16 Q Let's turn to the contract and you point me to the 17 provision where you believe that there's an obligation --

18 MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, this is nonsense. He's 19 said that he's never read these contracts, that he has no
20 personal knowledge. He's badgering and it leads to legal 21 conclusions.

22 MR. MORRIS: Your Honor, he is testifying that he
23 believes that there is a contractual obligation to do a true-
24 up. If he wants to say that I'm not aware of anything but I
25 just assumed that one would happen, I'm happy to live with

1 that. If that's --

2 THE WITNESS: I'm not aware, but I assume there would
3 be a true-up.

4 BY MR. MORRIS:

5 Q Okay. So you assumed that there would be a true-up.
6 Right?

7 A Yes.

8 Q Did anybody ever tell you there was a true-up?

9 A I would assume there would be a true-up. No one told me
10 until November, December of '20.

11 Q Okay. Did you ever ask anybody at the end of 2018 if 12 there was a true-up?

13 A No, I never asked.

14 Q Did anybody tell you at the end of 2018 that there was a
15 true-up?

16 A I don't know if it was material. It might have been just 17 this one kid that left. I have no idea.

18 Q We can look at the whole list if you want to do that.
19 Okay?

20 A No. But I don't know. And no one told me there was a
21 true-up.

22 Q That's my only question.

23 A Or no one told me there wasn't, either. I'm not aware.

24 Q Okay. So you didn't ask if there was a true-up, and 25 nobody told you there was a true-up at the end of 2018.

1 Correct?

2 A Correct.

3 Q You didn't ask if there was a true-up, and nobody told you
4 that there was a true-up at the end of 2019. Correct?

5 A I don't know.

6 Q Okay. In fact, you have no knowledge that there was ever
7 a true-up of any kind done with respect to the payroll
8 reimbursement agreements. Correct?

9 A I don't know. I don't know if it was material. You guys
10 were both implying a few minutes ago that there was a two and a 11 half million dollar true-up one year, an additional payment for 12 something.

13 Q Let --

14 A So, but I don't know the specifics. All I know is when 15 they alerted me at the end of 2020 that oh my God, we've been 16 overpaying, it's not reconciled, they're not cutting back the 17 payment, they had an expectation in the way they told me such 18 that I'd stop paying because we were paying over. They had an 19 expectation that there was some kind of true-up or they 20 wouldn't have told it to me to get a stop paying this 21 immediately out of me --

22 Q Who's they?

23 A -- which is what happened.

24 Q Who's they?

25 A Frank.

Norris - Direct

82

1 Q Frank is they?

2 A Yeah, Frank is they. Yeah.

3 Q And did Frank tell you that the way that the methodology
4 for his decision that there was an overpayment was to say that
5 we were paying for employees who were no longer at Highland?

6 A We were overpaying based on the contract, based on largely
7 people weren't there. Now whether or not we were also paying 8 for people who the percentage was wrong, I don't know. But he
9 -- he expressed it with Umbridge (phonetic), and with Awe
10 (phonetic). Umbridge and Awe and that's where --

11 Q Umbridge --

12 A -- that's where we stopped paying.

13 Q Okay. And -- but is it fair to say at least your 14 understanding is that the bulk of the claim is that you were 15 paying for employees who were no longer employed at Highland?
16 Is that basically it?

17 A My understanding is largely that.

18 MR. MORRIS: Okay. No further questions, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Recross?

20 MR. RUKAVINA: I have no follow up, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right. You're excused from the 22 witness stand, Mr. Dondero.

23 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

24 (Witness excused)

25 THE COURT: All right. Shall we take a break and

Norris - Direct

83

1 then --

2 MR. MORRIS: Yes, Your Honor. Yes.

3 THE COURT: Let's take a ten-minute break, please.

4 (Recess at 2:58 p.m./Reconvened at 3:09 p.m.)

5 THE CLERK: All rise.

6 THE COURT: Please be seated. We're back on the

7 record in Highland.

8 Mr. Morris, what do you have?

9 MR. MORRIS: Last witness.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 MR. MORRIS: Mr. Norris. I just need a second to 12 find my questions.

13 THE COURT: Okay, we'll go ahead and get Mr. Norris
14 up here and sworn in.

15 Please raise your right hand.

16 DUSTIN NORRIS, PLAINTIFF'S WITNESS, SWORN

17 THE COURT: All right. Please be seated.

18 DIRECT EXAMINATION

19 BY MR. MORRIS:

20 Q Good afternoon, Mr. Norris.

21 A Good afternoon.

22 Q You've been here for the last couple of days. Right?

23 A I have.

24 Q I hope this is a little bit more low-key than the last 25 witness.

Norris - Direct

84

1 A I hope so, too.

2 Q Okay. I don't expect this examination to be particularly
3 lengthy. So I would just ask you to listen carefully to my
4 questions. Do the best you can to -- to answer them.

5 From 2000 and -- are you -- are you currently employed by
6 either of the Advisors?

7 A I'm employed by NexPoint Advisors.

8 Q And what's your title today?

9 A The title of the -- my operating title is Head of 10 Distribution and Chief Product Strategist.

11 Q Okay. And do you have a roll with HCMFA?

12 A I am an officer of HCMFA.

13 Q And do you have a title?

14 A Yes. Executive Vice-President.

15 Q Okay. And were you affiliated with those two entities as 16 of January 1st, 2018?

17 A I was.

18 Q And in what capacity did you serve for NexPoint as of
19 January 1st, 2018?

20 A The same capacity as I serve today.

21 Q And did you serve in the same capacity for HCMFA as of 22 that time?

23 A I believe so, yes.

24 Q Okay. So your role hasn't changed; your titles haven't
25 changed in the three or four years since 2018. Is that fair?

Norris - Direct

85

1 A I don't believe so.

2 Q Okay. You didn't -- you've listened to the testimony in 3 this trial so far?

4 A I have.

5 Q Okay. I'm just asking that question to try to speed this
6 up a little bit.

7 You're aware that in late 2017 through May of 2018, there
8 were a number of new contracts and changes made in the way that 9 the Advisors compensated Highland for services. Is that right?

10 A Yes. I'm aware.

11 Q Okay. But you didn't personally participate in any of the 12 discussions during that time period about the changes that were 13 made and the methods and amounts that were going to be paid for 14 services. Fair?

15 A No. I did not participate.

16 Q Okay. And you played no role in formulating, drafting, or 17 administering the sub-advisory agreements that were prepared
18 for NexPoint and HCMFA in March of 2018. Correct?

19 A Correct.

20 Q In fact, were you even aware that sub-advisory agreements
21 were prepared for those two entities at that time?

22 A I don't remember being involved or having any -- any 23 awareness.

24 Q Okay.

25 A At that time.

Norris - Direct

86

1 Q Okay. And you played no role in the replacement of those
2 sub-advisory agreements with the payroll reimbursement
3 agreements as of May 1st, 2018. Right?

4 A I -- I played no role.

5 Q So you didn't -- you didn't participate in discussions
6 about what that document was intended to do. Correct?

7 A That's correct.

8 Q And you didn't participate in any review of the language
9 that was going to be used in the document. Correct?

10 A Correct.

11 Q And you didn't review Exhibit -- the Exhibits A that I
12 think you're familiar with, that were attached to those 13 agreements. Correct?

14 A Not at that time.

15 Q And you had no basis of knowing whether the allocations
16 that were used as of May 28th -- as of January 1st 2018 were 17 accurate in any way. Right?

18 A Well, based on my working knowledge and my interaction
19 with employees at HCMLP and the Advisors, I can see the 20 allocations and have assumption on the reasonableness. But I
21 was not involved at that time in assessing the reasonableness.

22 Q When did you learn that Exhibit -- Exhibits A existed?

23 A Over -- I don't remember exactly.

24 Q Do you remember what year it was?

25 A Probably '19 or '20.

Norris - Direct

87

1 Q Okay. And do you know -- kind of --

2 A Maybe '18. It was sometime after it was drafted.

3 Q Okay.

4 A And signed.

5 Q All right. So we've used the definition called "relevant
6 time period" to mean from January 1st, 2018 until the end of 7 2020. Okay. Is that fair?

8 A Yes.

9 Q Okay. Do you remember at all where within the relevant
10 time period you first learned that these Exhibit As existed?

11 A I don't remember the exact time, no.

12 Q Do you remember if it was before or after the bankruptcy?

13 A I don't remember.

14 Q Do you remember if it was before or after the Independent
15 Board was appointed?

16 A I don't remember.

17 Q Okay. Did you form an understanding at some point -- no,
18 withdrawn. We'll get there.

19 So you didn't participate in any discussions at any time
20 in the spring of 2018 about what the Payroll Reimbursement
21 Agreements were intended to accomplish. Correct?

22 A I did not.

23 Q And you didn't play -- are you aware that NexPoint entered
24 into a new Shared Services Agreement as of January 1st, 2018?

25 A At that time was I aware --

Norris - Direct

88

1 Q Yes.

2 A -- or am I aware now?

3 Q Were you aware at the time?

4 A I was not.

5 Q And you didn't play any role in the drafting, in the 6 formulation, or the administration of the NexPoint Shared
7 Services Agreement. Correct?

8 A No, I did not.

9 Q And even though it wasn't signed at that time, you played
10 no role in the drafting or the formulation or the 11 administration of the HCMFA Shared Services Agreement.
12 Correct?

13 A That's correct.

14 Q Okay. Do you know now that there were amendments to the 15 Payroll Reimbursement Agreements at the end of 2018?

16 A I do.

17 Q You didn't play any role in drafting, or administering, or 18 making any decisions in connection with those amendments.
19 Correct?

20 A No. I have no personal knowledge.

21 Q And so you have no personal knowledge as to how those 22 amounts were calculated. Correct?

23 A Correct.

24 Q You have no personal knowledge that any true-up was done
25 that formed the basis of the numbers in those amendments.

Norris - Direct

89

1 Correct?

2 A At that time, no. But I was told there was a true-up that
3 was done.

4 Q Okay. But you have no personal knowledge that a true-up
5 was done. Right? Somebody told you that?

6 A Somebody told me there was a true-up, yes.

7 Q And who told you that?

8 A Mr. Klos.

9 Q And when did Mr. Klos tell you that?

10 A December -- December 2020.

11 Q So you were speaking with Mr. Klos --

12 A Uh-huh.

13 Q -- in December 2020. And it's your testimony that he said
14 that the amendments that were done in 2018 were the result of a
15 true-up?

16 A He didn't tell me about the amendments. He told me that a
17 true-up had been done in 2018, but we didn't discuss the 18 specific amendments.

19 Q Okay. Do you have an understanding of what a true-up is 20 in that context?

21 A I do.

22 Q And what's your understanding of what a true-up is?

23 A Well, based on the conversation we were having, which was 24 around the actual payments and the employees that were on 25 Schedule A, all right, we saw the emails earlier that Mr. --

Norris - Direct

90

1 Mr. Klos discussed.

2 We were talking about those overpayments. And as we were
3 -- you know, Mr. Sauter and I were trying to discover what had 4 actually happened. He told us there was a true-up done in
5 2018. There was no similar true-up done in 2019 or 2020
6 because of the bankruptcy filing in October 2019.

7 Q Okay. Are you aware that as of the date of the 8 amendments, I think the number is nine of the employees, the 9 dual employees on the Exhibit A were terminated?

10 A I'm aware that there are employees that as of that date
11 that have been terminated.

12 Q Can you tell Judge Jernigan why you believe that with the 13 loss of approximately a third of the dual employees why you
14 think a true-up would result not in the diminution in the 15 amounts owed, but an increase by $2.5 million in amounts owed;
16 how does that make sense?

17 A Yeah, I don't have any personal knowledge, as I mentioned
18 on what the calculations, how they were done, what went into 19 it. I would just be speculating if I said here is how or why.
20 I know Mr. Klos testified that percentages aren't of time spent 21 aren't perfect.

22 There could be compensation. Right. That one person
23 received due to Fund performance. Again, I'm -- I would be 24 speculating. I don't know.

25 Q So it's possible that even though employees left, that

Norris - Direct

91

1 Highland would be entitled to even more money if the people who
2 remained pick up the slack. Is that fair? And got paid more.
3 That's possible. Right? That's what he told you.

4 A Do you want to repeat the question?

5 Q You want to repeat the question?

6 A He told you, if I understand you correctly, that even 7 though almost a third of the employees left, Highland was still 8 entitled to get millions of dollars more money because the 9 services that had been provided by those dual employees, were 10 just picked up by other people?

11 A No.

12 He didn't tell me that. He said a true-up was done. He did
13 say it resulted in a slight payment to Highland. But he didn't 14 go into any of the calculations or the why.

15 Q Okay. But you do understand that more than -- that 16 approximately a third of the employees had been terminated
17 before this -- these amendments were entered into. Correct?

18 A I'd have to see the specific names, but there were a
19 number of them had been terminated, yes.

20 Q Okay. And even though the number of employees went down,
21 the payments went up by $2.5 million. Correct?

22 A I have no reason to question the amendments or the wording
23 in the amendments.

24 Q Okay. You had access to headcount information at all
25 times. Correct?

Norris - Direct

92

1 A Not at all times, but I would receive a monthly report
2 that's been shown in the emails.

3 Q And we looked at that, and you got that headcount report
4 every single month for the three year period that we're talking
5 about. Right?

6 A I believe so. And I don't know for sure that I -- when I
7 was added, I was added at some point over the last few years,
8 but I did receive it.

9 Q We're certainly not going to look at every one of them.
10 Let's see if --

11 A If you go to January 2018, that's probably the quickest
12 way to rule it out. Because I never got removed once I was 13 added.

14 MR. MORRIS: Just one moment, Your Honor. I
15 apologize.

16 THE WITNESS: Is there an exhibit I should be looking 17 at?

18 MR. MORRIS: Not yet.

19 THE WITNESS: Okay.

20 BY MR. MORRIS:

21 Q So if you can go to Exhibit 88. Do you see that this is 22 the headcount report that was delivered on February 1st for the 23 month of January 2018?

24 A It is.

25 Q And your name is on it. Right?

Norris - Direct

93

1 A It is.

2 Q And so your understanding is that for every month covering
3 the headcount report, from January 2018 until the end of 2020,
4 those are headcount reports that would have been delivered to 5 you. Right?

6 A That's correct.

7 Q So you're not sure when you learned of the existence of 8 Exhibit As, but whenever that was, you could have figured out
9 yourself, who on Exhibit A was no longer employed at Highland.
10 Right?

11 A Absolutely.

12 And -- but the key assumption was that we were reimbursing
13 for only employees that were still employed. And that was 14 always my expectation, once I learned about Exhibit A.

15 Q Did you talk about that with Frank?

16 A What part?

17 Q Did you tell Frank -- when did you develop that 18 expectation? In December 2020?

19 A No.

20 At some point between the actual creation of the 21 agreement, when I first saw it, and understood it was a payroll
22 reimbursement agreement. And there was an exhibit that had 23 percentage allocation of employees that were one, serving as 24 dual employees, and two, providing investment advisory
25 services. That was the actual purpose of the agreement, right,

Norris - Direct

94

1 was for reimbursement.

2 Q Did you ask Frank, Frank, how come you kept paying the
3 money when all these people left.

4 A I did.

5 Q What did he say?

6 A He told me there was nothing he could do because of the 7 automatic stay. He and Dave Klos were in a meeting. That was 8 the first time I had heard the word automatic stay.

9 Q Uh-huh.

10 A And that he had brought it. They -- they had 11 calculations. And that he had brought it to the attention of 12 DSI. And the told him -- and he said inside and outside
13 counsel. And there was nothing he could do because of the 14 automatic stay.

15 Q He did not say outside counsel.

16 A He did. Well, I should say in his December -- in our 17 December meeting he said counsel. We talked again over
18 multiple times. And at the end of January on a call, he said
19 inside and outside counsel.

20 Q January of 2021?

21 A Yes, I --

22 Q Did you hear him testify yesterday that he never told me
23 or anybody in my firm?

24 A I did, yes.

25 Q So -- so maybe you misheard him?

Norris - Direct

95

1 A I may have misheard him, but I --

2 Q Okay.

3 A -- I -- I did take -- after that call I did take notes.

4 And I wrote down inside and outside counsel. I could have mis-
5 remembered. But I had written that down.

6 Q Did you ask him why he didn't make any change from January
7 18 until the petition date?

8 A January 18th of which --

9 Q Let me restate the question. Did you say hey, Frank,
10 okay, you've given me your answer after DSI comes along. But 11 what about the two years before that? Why didn't you make any 12 adjustments for the two years before that, when nobody ever
13 heard of Fred Caruso or Jim Seery.

14 A Yeah.

15 They told me there was a true-up done in December of 2018.
16 And then I actually was trying to figure out, make any sense of 17 the fact that there were employees had been -- many of them,
18 like 20 employees that were no longer there. And so discussing
19 this with Dave and Frank, I -- I realized and learned from them
20 they were in a tough situation. Why didn't they do anything.
21 Well, when they told me, it made sense. They said December
22 2018 there was an annual true-up.

23 Fast forward to the bankruptcy filing in October 2019 and 24 to this point I wasn't really involved in all of the bankruptcy
25 time lines or process. I'm separately running my business. So

Norris - Direct

96

1 they tell me that okay, October it was filed. There was put in
2 place something they couldn't change in the agreements.
3 Because of the automatic stay.

4 Again, I'm not an attorney. It's the first time I'm
5 learning of the bankruptcy law. But in 2019 there was no true-
6 up done. Nor in 2020. Right. So there was something done,
7 and it would have been done at the end of '19 and '20, had
8 there not been a bankruptcy in place.

9 So -- and to me -- and the reason I remember that 10 specifically is a light bulb went off to me and said that makes 11 sense. Okay. They were trying to do what was right. They 12 understood it. They would have made a true-up or an 13 adjustment. Whatever you want to call it for the proper people
14 that were serving under these agreement.

15 But they were told that they couldn't. And at that point
16 we had to, you know, go our way of actually filing an admin
17 claim for that.

18 Q Did you hear Frank Waterhouse testify yesterday that he's 19 not aware of any true-up?

20 A I don't remember specifically. But it was David Klos that 21 told me about the true-up. Told me and Mr. Sauter.

22 Q Did you hear him testify yesterday that there was no
23 analysis of any kind done to support the $2.5 million?

24 A I don't know if he said he didn't -- there wasn't an 25 analysis, or if he said he didn't recall. Because I know a lot

Norris - Direct

97

1 during that he didn't recall.

2 Q He actually said that Jim Dondero said the number. Does
3 that refresh your recollection?

4 MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor.

5 THE WITNESS: I think that was Mr. Klos.

6 MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, I'm --

7 BY MR. MORRIS:

8 Q That -- that is who I'm talking about.

9 A You said Mr. Waterhouse.

10 Q Oh, I apologize.

11 A Did he not?

12 MR. RUKAVINA: Yes, he did.

13 THE WITNESS: Okay, sorry.

14 MR. MORRIS: Okay. Thank you.

15 THE COURT: Let's ask again and make sure we're
16 clear.

17 MR. MORRIS: Sure.

18 BY MR. MORRIS:

19 Q Okay, so it's your testimony that -- was it just Mr. Klos
20 or was it Mr. Klos and Mr. Waterhouse who told you that there
21 was a true-up at the end of 2018?

22 A Mr. -- it came from Mr. Klos. I believe Mr. Waterhouse
23 was there. Mr. Sauter, as well was told, along with me. By 24 Mr. Klos.

25 Q Okay. You did a damage calculation for purposes of this

Norris - Direct

98

1 case. Right?

2 A I did.

3 Q And what you did is you took the amounts paid and reduced
4 it by --

5 MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, let me just object now.

6 Are you going to agree to the admission of the damage
7 calculation?

8 MR. MORRIS: Sure, I'll agree.

9 MR. RUKAVINA: Okay. Your Honor, that's going to be 10 -- Thomas is that H and I? It is what it is. Your Honor, it's 11 Exhibit G is the PDF printout. That's the one we had the 12 stipulation on yesterday about the math. Is that right?

13 MR. MORRIS: Yes.

14 MR. RUKAVINA: And then the electronic version is H.
15 Is H. So I'll move to admit G and H.

16 THE COURT: And you agree to it?

17 MR. MORRIS: Yeah.

18 THE COURT: Okay, they're admitted.

19 (Defendants' Exhibits G and H admitted into evidence.)

20 BY MR. MORRIS:

21 Q There's no expertise. There's no special skill that you
22 brought to that analysis. Right?

23 A It's simple math.

24 Q It's simple math. Right? And I think that's what you
25 told me in the deposition. All you did was you took the money

Norris - Direct

99

1 that was paid, and you reduced it by the compensation for the
2 dual employees who were terminated. Fair?

3 A I -- I took month by month the employees that were 4 employed.

5 Q Uh-huh.

6 A And their total compensation multiplied by the allocation
7 percentages. And as employees dropped off, so did the 8 compensation.

9 Q Okay. And once --

10 A Or the reimbursement, I would say.

11 Q And once you had the data, how long does it take you to 12 run them all?

13 A If I -- say if I wanted to change assumptions?

14 Q Sure.

15 A You could do it fairly easily if you know Excel.

16 Q Five minutes?

17 A To make sure that it's accurate, maybe longer. I mean it 18 --

19 Q Maybe ten.

20 A Not -- again, the math part is easy.

21 Q Okay.

22 A It's --

23 Q And so is there any reason that anybody on behalf of the 24 advisors, couldn't have done that analysis on February 1st,
25 2018 to take into account the employee who left in January of

Norris - Direct

100

1 2018? Any reason at all that they couldn't have done it then?

2 A We had relied and outsourced that to Highland.

3 Q Okay.

4 Okay. And the person who would have overseen what you
5 assumed would have happened -- right? Because you assumed that
6 Highland was making these changes. Right?

7 That's your testimony. Your testimony is that you sat
8 back for three years and you assumed Highland was only charging
9 what you thought they should charge. Right?

10 A Yeah.

11 And a key component of that -- if there's payroll data
12 involved, we didn't have access to that. There was a very 13 limited number of people. Highland employees only. That's an 14 important component of this. So yeah, we had relied on 15 Highland. We didn't have an accounting function.

16 Why was I -- I say it's simple math. I had to create the 17 spreadsheet. I'm a CPA. I worked at a big four accounting
18 firm. I worked in Highland's back office when I started as a
19 fund accountant. I managed. I was a senior accounting
20 manager.

21 Q You have-huh.

22 A So -- so but that was -- ended in 2013. So there's a
23 number of Excel skills. We didn't maintain that. I shifted 24 roles. Focused more on the growth and marketing. But we -- we 25 outsourced those functions to Highland.

Norris - Direct

101

1 Q How long did it take you to create the model? A day or
2 two? Less? Once you had the data.

3 A Yeah, it was just a couple few days.

4 Q So why didn't the advisors just create a contract that said
5 every time a dual employee left, let's just reduce the amount
6 that's paid by their compensation, in real time? You could
7 have created the model, and in five minutes, instead of doing
8 this true-up at the end of the year, why didn't they do that?

9 A The people that helped create the contract were Highland 10 employees. The ones that knew about the calculations. The 11 ones that had access to the data. We didn't have a separate 12 team saying well, let's shadow everything that Highland is 13 doing, for contracts. That is what they were doing. That was 14 their function.

15 Q And they all reported to Frank Waterhouse. Correct?

16 A Yes.

17 Q Can you identify one person who you assumed would be 18 administering the contract, who didn't report to Frank
19 Waterhouse?

20 A No.

21 Q Thank you.

22 MR. MORRIS: I have no further questions, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: All right. Pass the witness.

24 CROSS EXAMINATION

25 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

1 Q This might be a bit, so if you need some water, let me
2 know.

3 A I got -- I still have some. Thank you.

4 Q So I think Mr. Morris has gone through some of these
5 issues. But do tell the Judge, please about your educational
6 background. On a high level.

7 A Yeah, I have a master's degree in accounting from Brigham
8 Young University and a bachelor's degree in accounting and I
9 have a CPA license.

10 Q Okay. Any other professional licenses?

11 A Yeah, I have a FINRA Series 7, 63 and 24 licenses.

12 Q How old are you?

13 A 38 years old.

14 Q Have you ever been disciplined professionally with respect
15 to any of these licenses?

16 A Never.

17 Q Okay. Are you a family man?

18 A I am.

19 Q Are you a religious man?

20 A I am.

21 Q Do you swear?

22 A I don't.

23 Q Do you drink?

24 A I never have.

25 Q Any trouble with the law?

1 A No.

2 Q When did you first join Highland?

3 A 2010, June of 2010.

4 Q Before that you mentioned you were with some other
5 accounting --

6 A I was at Deloitte and Touche.

7 Q What did you do there?

8 A I was an auditor, an outside auditor, auditing large
9 corporations.

10 Q And when you joined Highland, what was your role?

11 A I was a fund accountant in the Hedge Fund and Private 12 Equity Fund Accounting Group.

13 Q And tell me about your progression at Highland and how you
14 ended up coming to the Advisors and when? Again, at a high
15 level.

16 A Yeah. So when I joined Highland, I started out overseeing 17 accounting and operations, cash management for several of the 18 large hedge funds, private equity funds, and separate accounts.
19 Worked there for two years, got great training, and was given 20 the opportunity to then manage for our retail complex, the 21 accounting and operations team.

22 So I moved employers to Highland Capital Management Fund
23 Advisors around July of 2012. At that time Highland HCMLP, the 24 hedge fund side of the business or institutional had a separate
25 accounting and operations team than the retail side. And so I

1 moved over and I was managing accounting, operations, trade
2 settlement, cash management, as well as the broader accounting
3 functions for about 22 mutual fund and closed-end funds.

4 I did that for a little while and then transitioned into
5 what we call product strategy or product development. So
6 developing new funds, merging funds, acquiring funds, launching
7 training sales people and, at that time, somewhat transitioned
8 the services from our retail funds to the Highland's back
9 office, merging those in. And my employees moved over, and 10 became employed by HCMLP, as well.

11 So, yeah, I have had experience in several different parts
12 of the business. Then from there I -- I worked on our 13 closed-end funds and continued to manage, became director of 14 product strategy, and then chief product strategist, and then 15 took over our sales team and became the president or 16 broker/dealer managing all of the marketing and relationship
17 management --

18 Q This is still while at Highland?

19 A -- inside sales. This is all at Highland Capital
20 Management Fund Advisors/NexPoint.

21 Q Okay.

22 A From 2012 until the present day.

23 Q Okay. And in those ten years, I take it, you've 24 interacted with Highland Capital Management LLP, repeatedly?

25 A Yes, extensive.

1 Q At a high level in '18, '19, '20, what did the debtor do?
2 What was the debtor's business?

3 A '18, '19 and '20? The debtor's business?

4 Q Yes.

5 A Largely -- obviously, they had a services business where 6 they provided shared services. But that was a function of,
7 they were providing it for various advisory entities. They
8 managed assets, largely credit, private equity, some at-public
9 equities and included providing services to our advisors.

10 Q And in that same time frame, '18, '19 and '20, what did
11 the advisors do? I mean what was their core business and did
12 it change at all over that time?

13 A Yeah.

14 So when I moved over to the advisors in 2012, we were
15 largely focused on public equities and credit, which was a
16 specialty of Highland. And so we relied heavily on those 17 services from a back-office and front-office perspective over
18 the coming years.

19 But we started -- in -- in 2012 our advisors had almost no
20 real estate assets. And as we shifted from 2012 into '15 to 21 '18, the real estate business grew significantly. And so we 22 just started developing a real estate business in-house. Our 23 investment professionals.

24 And if you look at the assets today, approximately maybe
25 three-quarters are real estate assets. Where less than a

1 quarter are credit and equity and private equity.

2 Q And on that point, you heard Mr. Powell, and we talked
3 about the retail board some this morning, the $3 billion. Did
4 you hear all that?

5 A I did.

6 Q Generally, what percentage of either the advisor's
7 business or assets under management, whatever the appropriate
8 metric is --

9 A Uh-huh.

10 Q -- you tell us. How much of that whole pie do those 11 retail funds represent?

12 A Yeah.

13 So we today, NexPoint Advisors and HCMFA manage
14 approximately $11 billion in assets. And the retail funds as 15 Ethan testified are approximately 3 billion. So less than 30
16 percent.

17 Q Would that also be fair to say that that's about how much
18 of your internal time -- the Advisors time an employee is?
19 Servicing the funds is 25 or 30 percent? Or would the fraction
20 be different?

21 A Meaning the Advisor employees?

22 Q Yes.

23 A It depends.

24 There's some of them that spend 100 percent in non-retail
25 products. But a number of people do spend -- maybe it's an

Norris - Cross

107

1 approximate amount of time, yeah. So we have you know publicly
2 listed reads; we have private reads; we have 1031 exchange
3 vehicles. So there's -- there's a lot of other businesses
4 outside of that.

5 Q You know, we've heard talk about so-called front office.
6 How do you, in your mind define or how do you understand front-
7 office personnel to mean or to be?

8 A Yeah. So it is someone providing investment advisory
9 services.

10 Q Are the front-office employees different back ten years
11 ago when the Advisors were doing more debt and equity than they 12 would be today, when they're doing more real estate?

13 A Actual employees at the Advisors?

14 Q Or -- of the actual professionals that would be providing 15 those front-office services.

16 A Yes.

17 Historically we did rely a lot more on Highland. Right.
18 Given their credit expertise. Given the assets that we 19 managed. And that's part of the, you know, payroll
20 reimbursement agreements.

21 Today, you know, from call it maybe 2018 to today, we've
22 gone from maybe 5 NexPoint, for example, investment
23 professionals to around 25. And that has been -- and those are 24 almost all real estate focused individuals.

25 Q So let's zero in on that. Turn to Exhibit A. That's one

Norris - Cross

108

1 of the Payroll Reimbursement Agreements.

2 MR. RUKAVINA: And, Your Honor, they have the same
3 Exhibit A. It's just different percentages.

4 BY MR. MORRIS:

5 Q So are you familiar with these 25 people here?

6 A I am.

7 Q Okay. I'm going to avoid that first name. I tried and I
8 did not do a good job.

9 MR. MORRIS: Mr. Rukavina, I apologize. Which 10 exhibit are you?

11 MR. RUKAVINA: I'm sorry. My Exhibit A and Exhibit A
12 to my Exhibit A. Which is the list of employees.

13 MR. MORRIS: And is it NexPoint or is it -- because I
14 don't think I have it. You may have the --

15 MR. RUKAVINA: I'm sorry. It's HCMFA.

16 MR. MORRIS: Okay, thank you.

17 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

18 Q Did you at one point in time know all of those 25 people?

19 A Yes.

20 Q Did you know what they did?

21 A Yes.

22 Q And tell us either on a high level or zero in how many --
23 or group in how many of them did the debt and equity front-
24 office services vis-a-vis real estate services.

25 A Sohan was the credit guy. Cameron being the private

1 equity --

2 Q And private equity is that -- did you include that when
3 you're talking about debt and equity. Is that the same thing
4 as equity?

5 A Equity and private equity. Yes.

6 Q Keep going. Keep going.

7 A Mete (phonetic) Burns, credit. He's a credit expert.
8 Hunter Covitz, CLOs, which is collateralized loan obligations,
9 made up of credit. Neil, another CLO guy. Jim, as you know.
10 Eric Fedorshin (phonetic), worked on the credit team; Matthew 11 Gray was a credit analyst; Sanjay Gulati 100 percent of his 12 time was allocated to HCMFA. He was 100 percent associated 13 with our main clone, ETF, which was a credit fund that was 14 around 5 or $5 million at one point, and is $30 million today.
15 Chris Hayes (phonetic) was a loan or credit trader;
16 Bobby Hill (phonetic) bounced between teams. Brendan McFarland
17 (phonetic) was on the credit research team. Carl Moore
18 (phonetic) with Private Equity; Igor (phonetic) was credit.
19 David Owens (phonetic) I believe was a credit trader.

20 Trey Parker (phonetic) was head of credit research
21 and then became co-CIO and ran the credit and equity investment
22 process.

23 Q CIO, chief investment officer?

24 A Chief investment officer. Andrew Parmenter (phonetic) was 25 brought in. He started in around 2017. Was a partner of the

Norris - Cross

110

1 firm. Michael Phillips (phonetic) was a credit guy. John
2 Pavlish (phonetic) was head of credit research after -- after
3 Trey Parker was promoted to co-CIO.

4 Philip Ryder (phonetic) I believe he was -- yeah, I don't
5 know the specific, either credit trader or credit. Kunal was
6 a credit. Allen Smallwood (phonetic) was a credit guy. Mara
7 (phonetic) was public equities, maybe private equity.

8 Jake Tomlin (phonetic) was managing director on the credit
9 team. Ann Seager (phonetic), I believe, was a par credit
10 analyst who ran credit.

11 Q And you mentioned that in that same period of time -- '18,
12 '19, '20 -- the advisors went from having 5 in-house investment
13 employees to, what did you say, 25 or 27?

14 A Approximately, yes.

15 Q Okay. And were -- so the delta is whatever, 20, let's
16 just say. That increase?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Okay. Were those new employees -- were any of those new 19 employees any of these employees?

20 A As speaking today number of employees?

21 Q Yeah.

22 A So one of them did come over when -- actually two. But 23 he's no longer there. Hunter Covitz after February 2021 and 24 Sohan.

25 I don't believe any of the others. Most of them were gone

1 by then. I think there may have only been five come February.

2 Q Well, that's my question.

3 A Yeah.

4 Q That's my next question. Did it matter to the Advisors
5 for purposes of their business that 20 of these employees over
6 a period of time were no longer there?

7 A It didn't.

8 As our business had morphed into much more real estate
9 focused. We did rely some on them. Right. We still had the 10 five or six that were still there. But it -- it wasn't a -- a
11 big part of our business at that point.

12 Q Because there's been some implication made by Mr. Klos
13 that as these employees fell off, Highland made up for them
14 with other employees. Do you agree with any such assertion?

15 A I don't. I -- I -- I believe they hired one front-office
16 investment professional. The existing professionals may have 17 pitched in some. But a lot of those functions were at our 18 advisors. And I -- I mentioned the real estate professionals.
19 But there were -- there were a couple other in professional 20 HCMFA, Joe Sowin who became co-CIO when -- when Trey Parker was 21 promoted to co -- head of private equity.

22 He was an HCMFA employee. When Mark O'Connell (phonetic)
23 left and then Trey Parker left, Joe Sowin and Jim Dondero were 24 co-CIO's. Both employees of our Advisors.

25 Q So I think it's important for Your Honor to understand the

1 relationship between the PRAs and the shared services
2 agreements.

3 So still looking at this Exhibit A, were these the only
4 Highland employees that provided services to the Advisors?

5 A Any services or front-office services?

6 Q Any services.

7 A No.

8 Q There were a number of Highland employees providing 9 back-office and middle-office services. Is that correct?

10 A That's correct.

11 Q And do you have an understanding pursuant to what 12 agreement those employees were being used?

13 A That was according to shared services agreements.

14 Q So is it important to clearly delineate between the two 15 types of agreements?

16 A It is.

17 Q If we want to find out what services were being provided?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Okay. And just while we're on here, so that Her Honor
20 understands the rest of our discussion, go to Page 1 of this
21 exhibit, Exhibit A. And Section 2.01.

22 A Yes.

23 Q I think you mentioned earlier, Mr. Morris was asking you
24 that it shouldn't just be a dual employee, but needs to be 25 providing investment services. Do you remember mentioning

113

1 something like that?

2 A Yes. They -- they need to be a dual employee --

3 Q So that's --

4 A -- and then they must be able to provide advice to any
5 investment company, investment related service, I think how I
6 explained it in -- provide advice to any investment company.

7 Q So if some Highland back-office employee or middle-office
8 employee is providing services to the Advisors, would you
9 consider them to fall within this contract?

10 A If they're providing any services, or if they're providing 11 --

12 Q No, if they're --

13 A -- advice?

14 MR. MORRIS: Your Honor, I object to this whole line
15 of questioning. He's asking a witness to interpret contracts
16 that he has no personal knowledge of. And this is what I
17 warned the Court about in my opening statement yesterday. The 18 witness must testify about personal knowledge and should not be 19 here to interpret contracts that he didn't negotiate, he didn't
20 participate in drafting, and that he never read until recently.

21 THE COURT: Response?

22 MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, he's not interpreting a
23 contract. We're trying to explain -- first of all, we're going 24 to work to his damages model. So his understanding of what an
25 employee falls in here. He's not -- he's reading the language

Norris - Cross

114

1 and he's going to tell you which employee provided that
2 investment advice. He's not going to tell you what this
3 contract means. So --

4 MR. MORRIS: He -- with all due respect, Your Honor.
5 That's exactly what he's doing. Because now he's saying that 6 even though people who were dual employees were providing these 7 services, Highland's entitled to no compensation because they
8 just were providing the services under the shared services
9 agreement. He can't do that.

10 MR. RUKAVINA: That's not what I'm asking. That's 11 not what -- and Your Honor will decide these contracts as a
12 matter of law. I'm asking for him -- for his understanding of 13 what human being that provided services, for that human being,
14 whether that human being would fall under the payroll
15 reimbursement agreement or the shared services agreement.

16 And all he has to do is to read simple English and 17 then he'll tell you as a question of fact what he thinks. And 18 you'll decide as a question of law if that's correct.

19 MR. MORRIS: I'm just going to try one more time.

20 MR. RUKAVINA: It's a --

21 MR. MORRIS: It's not fair because the example that 22 I'm going to give and we saw six different exhibits yesterday,
23 where people's titles changed in order to give them the 24 responsibility for doing exactly this service. And they're now
25 going to take the position that because they were in the legal

Norris - Cross

115

1 department and they paid for legal services that's it. We get
2 nothing more. We're providing the exact same service. This is
3 an argument he can make in closing, but he can't use a witness
4 to do this.

5 THE COURT: All right. I sustain. He can't testify
6 about what terms of the agreement mean.

7 BY MR. MORRIS:

8 Q Okay, so let's talk about shared services a little bit.

9 You heard Mr. Powell testify and you've heard a lot of 10 people testify. Are the Advisors complaining to this Court
11 that they did not get the services contracted for under the 12 shared services agreements?

13 A Generally, no, with the exception of legal compliant
14 services.

15 Q Are the Advisors complaining that they did not get the 16 employees that they were paying for under the payroll
17 reimbursement agreements?

18 A Yes. We're -- we're -- we're saying we're reimbursing for 19 employees that were no longer there and we were not receiving 20 the services that were being paid for.

21 Q So we looked at a lot of those board minutes, meetings,
22 and you've heard Mr. Powell, he said, "Can one conclude that if 23 we say we are getting the services we contracted for, can one 24 conclude from that, that we're somehow waiving rights under the 25 payroll reimbursement agreements?"

1 MR. MORRIS: Objection, legal conclusion.

2 MR. RUKAVINA: It's not a legal conclusion.

3 THE COURT: Sustained.

4 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

5 Q Okay. So let's talk about those back- and middle-office
6 services.

7 Prior to the bankruptcy, did the Advisors have their own
8 employees who provided back and middle office services?

9 A Not the services that we contracted for with Highland.

10 Q Okay. And do your understanding, what were the services
11 that Highland should have been providing pursuant to the shared
12 services agreement?

13 A Yeah, in the shared services agreement --

14 MR. MORRIS: Objection. The witness has no knowledge
15 of the contracts. I don't understand how he gets to testify as 16 to what services we were supposed to be providing when he has 17 no knowledge of the contract.

18 MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, the fact that he didn't 19 negotiate the contract doesn't mean that he can't read it and 20 apply its statements. It's the same as if the contract says
21 I'm buying a Mercedes and he's telling you whether that car is 22 a Mercedes or a Nissan.

23 He's not interpreting the contract, he's giving the 24 Court facts in which the Court will ultimately determine
25 whether the contract fits or not.

Norris - Cross

117

1 THE COURT: Okay. I don't -- I can read the
2 contracts.

3 MR. RUKAVINA: Okay.

4 THE COURT: I can read the contracts. So how is this
5 necessary?

6 MR. RUKAVINA: Very well.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 MR. RUKAVINA: One moment, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Okay.

10 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

11 Q Go to Exhibit 36, please. It's in the big binders.

12 A 36?

13 Q Yes, sir.

14 A Uh-huh.

15 Q So this is to Mary Irving. Are you familiar with a Mary 16 Irving?

17 A I know who she is, yes.

18 Q Okay. Does she provide any services in any capacity to 19 the Advisors?

20 MR. MORRIS: Objection. Just time frame.

21 THE COURT: Object -- I'm sorry. Objection, time
22 frame?

23 MR. MORRIS: Yeah, the question was just vague
24 because as -- as of time frame.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

1 MR. MORRIS: He just said does she provide.

2 THE COURT: If you could be more specific, Mr.

3 Rukavina?

4 MR. RUKAVINA: I will.

5 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

6 Q Did Mary Irving ever provide any services to the Advisors?

7 A I had very little interaction with her.

8 Q Okay.

9 A Over the last decade.

10 Q Okay. Mary Irving, we can look at it, but she's not on 11 the payroll reimbursement agreements.

12 A She's not.

13 Q Okay.

14 A She's part of the legal team.

15 Q Did Mary Irving ever provide front-office or investment
16 advice services to the Advisors?

17 A Not that I'm aware of.

18 Q Okay. Let's go look at 37. Are you familiar with 19 Stephanie Vitialo (phonetic)?

20 A I am.

21 Q Did Ms. Vitialo ever provide any services to the Advisors?

22 A She provided some legal services.

23 Q Okay. Is she on the payroll reimbursement agreements?

24 A She's not.

25 Q Does she provide any so-called front-office or investment

1 advice -- advisory services?

2 A Over what time frame?

3 Q At any point -- well, post-petition.

4 A None that I'm aware of.

5 Q Okay. Exhibit 38. Are you familiar with Matthew Diorio
6 (phonetic)?

7 A I am.

8 Q Is he on Exhibit A to the payroll reimbursement
9 agreements?

10 A He is not.

11 Q Okay. Did he ever provide any services at any point in 12 time to the Advisors?

13 A Not that I'm aware of.

14 Q Okay. Do you know what Mr. Diorio did at Highland?

15 A He worked on the Legal and Compliance Team. I don't think
16 he's an attorney. Something with business development, which I
17 never interacted with Matthew.

18 Q Did he ever provide any investment advisory or front-
19 office services to the Advisors?

20 A Not that I'm aware of.

21 Q Post petition?

22 A Not that I'm aware of.

23 Q Would you be aware of that post petition, since you're the 24 head of Business Development?

25 A Well, I frequently interact with the investment

Norris - Cross

120

1 professionals. I sit in on investment committee meetings. And
2 then the weekly global investment committee meeting. As part
3 of my role as Chief Product Strategist, I'm a liaison between
4 investors and the investment team. And so I interacted daily
5 with investment professionals to determine what they're doing,
6 why they're doing it. So --

7 Q So you wouldn't --

8 A -- I'm not going to say I would have knowledge of every
9 single person providing investment services. But I generally
10 had an idea particularly related to our advisors.

11 Q Okay. Well, that's all I'm asking about our advisors.

12 A Yeah, I --

13 Q The next one, Exhibit 39, Mr. Leventon. I think we all 14 know Mr. Leventon. But just for the record, Mr. Leventon, is 15 he on the payroll reimbursement agreements?

16 A He's not.

17 Q And what kind of services, or what did he do at Highland?

18 A He was an attorney.

19 Q Okay.

20 A Worked on litigation and other legal things.

21 Q Did he ever, to your understanding provide any front-
22 office or advisory services to the Advisors?

23 A Not that I'm aware of.

24 Q Okay. So we've just gone -- well, let's do Exhibit 42.
25 With Timothy -- how do you pronounce that? Canorlier

121

1 (phonetic)?

2 A I wish I knew. Canorlier -- I've never been able to
3 pronounce it.

4 MR. MORRIS: Canorlier.

5 THE WITNESS: Canorlier, yes. I know I've heard it
6 many times.

7 MR. RUKAVINA:

8 Q Was Mr. Canorlier on the payroll reimbursement agreements?

9 A He's not.

10 Q Okay. Do you know what he did at Highland?

11 A He -- he was an attorney on the legal team.

12 Q Did he ever provide any investment advisory or front-
13 office services to the Advisors post petition?

14 A Not that I'm aware of.

15 Q Okay. So if there's an argument made -- I think we've 16 gone through five or six employees, if there's an argument made
17 that these five or six employees replaced dual employees that 18 were dropped over time, would you agree with that argument?

19 A I wouldn't have any basis to agree with that. I -- I
20 don't have -- I didn't have interaction with them providing 21 those services.

22 Q Because, again, we looked at the contract, and the 23 contract has two elements. Correct?

24 A That's right. They need to be dual employees and they 25 need to be providing advice to registered investment companies.

Norris - Cross

122

1 Q Okay. Now some of these employees, if they provided
2 services to the Advisors, would that have been pursuant to the 3 shared services agreements? Like legal?

4 MR. MORRIS: Objection. Same -- exact same. He
5 shouldn't be telling the Court what contract people were 6 providing services pursuant to.

7 THE COURT: Response?

8 MR. RUKAVINA: I'll move on.

9 THE COURT: Okay.

10 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

11 Q The list of employees on Exhibit A on the payroll
12 agreements, do you have any understanding as to whether any of 13 those employees, once they were terminated by Highland, were 14 replaced by Highland, with respect to their roles for the 15 Advisors?

16 A I --

17 Q I think you might have mentioned one earlier. I don't 18 know if you put it in the record, the name. It's in the small 19 binder, Dustin. The smaller binder to your right.

20 A Oh, yes.

21 Q Just Exhibit A.

22 A So I know there was one individual who was hired to help
23 with healthcare, but he helped with the private equity fund,
24 that wasn't related to our Advisors in HCMLP owned fund. And 25 he did a little bit for our Advisors. His name was Michael

Norris - Cross

123

1 Jueng (phonetic). And I think he was hired in 2019. So he was
2 the only front-office person that I'm aware of that -- that was
3 hired.

4 Now, yet, there -- when some left there was, you know,
5 some reallocation of duties. However, at that point, as I
6 mentioned our assets in credit and private equity had been
7 diminishing significantly over the last several years. So many 8 of these people left, but they had seen the writing on the 9 wall. Right.

10 They knew we weren't focused on credit. They knew we had 11 growth in real estate and that wasn't their expertise. And you
12 know, they're a lot of good people and they went and started
13 other businesses. They went to other companies.

14 Q Would you have offered them employment for the Advisors
15 upon them leaving Highland, had the Advisors a need for them?

16 A If we had a need, I -- we made an offer to those that -- 17 and there were some even that were left to us, we didn't extend 18 an offer to, for various reasons.

19 Q Okay.

20 A We didn't need them. You know, and -- and at this point
21 our assets are very different. We don't need the large credit
22 team.

23 MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, I think the clock is one
24 hour off, but that's no big deal.

25 THE COURT: It's two minutes to 4:00. I don't know

1 what that says.

2 MR. RUKAVINA: It says two minutes to 3:00. Mr.
3 Berdman (phonetic) if you'll please put Exhibit CC up? Your
4 Honor, CC is an Excel spreadsheet. This is the underlying data
5 that rolls up into the David Klos December chart, if you
6 recall.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 MR. RUKAVINA: So Your Honor will recall that Exhibit
9 Q. Exhibit Q is the PDF of the summary.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 MR. RUKAVINA: And Exhibit CC, the way we look at 12 Exhibit CC is unfortunately on the -- on the screen.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 MR. RUKAVINA: So that's what Mr. Berdman is trying 15 to pull up. He says it's loading. And Mr. Berdman, if you'll 16 go to the employee listing.

17 Your Honor, one moment. So Your Honor, we're just 18 trying to figure out why the screen is so blurry here. So can 19 you see Mr. Norris, or is it --

20 THE WITNESS: I can see it.

21 MR. RUKAVINA: -- again my eyes.

22 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

23 Q Okay, so this is Mr. Klos's analysis. And I'd just like 24 to talk about some of these employees here. So let's look at 25 Chris Rice (phonetic).

1 A Yes.

2 Q See 2019 hired. Do you see that?

3 A I do.

4 Q Did Chris Rice provide so-called front-office investment
5 office services to the Advisors?

6 A No. He's in the accounting department.

7 Q Okay.

8 A As it says there accounting, finance and back office.

9 Q So rather than me go through each one of these, you just 10 go through them and tell the Court -- so start at line, what is 11 that, 60?

12 A Uh-huh.

13 Q And go down. Those are the new hires that Mr. Klos
14 included. Tell the Court, for each one of those, whether they 15 would or would not be providing investment services front-
16 office services to the Advisors.

17 A Yeah, Chris Rice, no. It's accounting and back-office
18 services.

19 Q Joey?

20 A No, it was accounting and finance --

21 Q Just say yes or no. Just say yes or no.

22 A Yeah. No, no on Kelly. Michael Young, yes. Brad McKay,
23 no. Andrew, no. Brendan, no. Tina, no. Bridget, no. Sarah,
24 no. Michael, no. Austin, no. Erberto (phonetic), no.

25 MR. RUKAVINA: Okay. You can close that, Mr. Berman

1 (phonetic).

2 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

3 Q So if Mr. Klos used those employees as far as the 4 profitability of the payroll reimbursement agreements in his
5 analysis, would you disagree that those employees should have 6 been included?

7 MR. MORRIS: Objection to the extent it calls for 8 legal conclusion.

9 THE COURT: Overruled.

10 THE WITNESS: So if he -- say it one more time. If 11 he included in the payroll reimbursement --

12 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

13 Q Yeah.

14 A With Michael, or a percentage allocation, I wouldn't 15 necessarily disagree. The others I would disagree because they 16 would be captured as a back-office employee that was not duly
17 employed in providing investment advice to our registered
18 investment --

19 Q Okay.

20 A -- companies.

21 Q And I think we've discussed this before, and Mr. Morris
22 asked you. But you were generally aware, more or less
23 contemporaneously with when certain employees left Highland.
24 Is that accurate?

25 A I was.

Norris - Cross

127

1 Q Okay. So why didn't you or someone else immediately pound
2 the table and say we've got to stop paying for that employee?

3 A Well, I had no knowledge that we were continuing to pay or 4 reimburse for their bonuses, comp, and benefits when they were
5 no longer employed. Had I know that, I would have reacted the 6 same way when I found that out.

7 Q What did you think -- pardon me, I'm having a hard time
8 phrasing this.

9 Who did you think should have been doing that job? Or as 10 an officer of the Advisors, who did you expect would be doing
11 that job?

12 A Yeah, so we -- we outsourced agreement review, payments,
13 payment processing to Highland and they -- they actually had a
14 very robust process. And it was actually challenging to get 15 agreements through them, and invoices. If there wasn't an 16 agreement tied to an invoice, they would ask for the agreement.
17 If the agreement didn't match the invoice, they would let us
18 know.

19 And they would go back and either tell the vendor or 20 renegotiate. So there was a very thorough process that I had 21 dealt with for a decade with them. And -- and that's who we 22 relied on to administer our agreements and payments across the 23 board.

24 Q Okay. Now before we flip to your damages --

25 A And I don't know if it's helpful. There was an accounts

Norris - Cross

128

1 payable person. There was a corporate accounting team --

2 Q Whose --

3 A -- who handled this.

4 Q -- whose employee was accounts payable?

5 A Who was the employee?

6 Q No, whose --

7 A It was Highland Capital Management, L.P.

8 Q And everyone else that you mentioned?

9 A And all the other corporate accounts, or HCMLP.

10 Q So let's look at Exhibit G.

11 MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, Exhibit G, I don't think
12 we've looked at yet, at least not in detail. Exhibit G is a
13 PDF printout of Mr. Norris's damages calculation. And Exhibit
14 H is, again, the native form Excel spreadsheet.

15 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

16 Q Mr. Norris, will you please tell us if you need the native
17 file pulled up for any reason, okay?

18 A Okay.

19 Q What -- tell the Court what you're trying to do here in 20 Exhibit G?

21 A Yeah.

22 So what I do is very simple. I know there's a lot of 23 numbers on the page, but just to simplify it is I took what are 24 the actual payments made, which we have heard --

25 Q Payments made from whom to whom?

Norris - Cross

129

1 A Payments made by Highland on our behalf to HCMLP from our
2 Advisor accounts for --

3 Q So, so, so just hold on.

4 A Yeah.

5 Q So payments from the Advisors to Highland.

6 A My Advisors to Highland.

7 Q Only that Highland was processing the advisor.

8 A That's correct.

9 Q Okay.

10 A Regarding the payroll reimbursement agreements. So there
11 was each month $252,000 for NexPoint Advisors and $416,000 for 12 Highland Capital Management Advisors, Fund Advisors, that was 13 paid each month. And we've heard all about how those amounts,
14 the actual payments didn't change. And so, that $9 million
15 represents the period from the court filing to the end of 16 November. Nine million dollars is what was actually paid.

17 Q Why did you stop at the end of November?

18 A Because that's when payments stopped as we heard from 19 Frank and Mr. Dondero.

20 Q Okay. So the $9 million, 9 million 18, that's just the 21 cumulative of HCMFA and NPA. Right?

22 A That's correct.

23 Q Okay. The next line is cost of dual employees --

24 A That's right.

25 Q -- as stated in the original agreement from 2018.

Norris - Cross

130

1 A That's right. So here's the simple math. I took the
2 total compensation numbers which came from Highland and
3 combined and multiplied them going month by month. I took each
4 employee that was still employed. I utilized their termination
5 dates from the filings as well as the monthly -- compared to 6 the monthly termination sheet. So I went month by month and 7 said who was still employed, multiplied their total
8 compensation times the percentage allocation, and that's where 9 it's broken out between NexPoint Advisors and HCMFA.

10 So, assuming these employees were still employed and 11 providing investment advisory services and a new employee, the 12 $2.8 million during that period is what we would have 13 reimbursed, actual costs of those employees, actual 14 reimbursement costs.

15 Q Okay. So just so we're clear, we saw from Mr. Klos
16 yesterday that his analysis was a snapshot point and time
17 December 2020. Correct?

18 A Correct.

19 Q Is yours also a snapshot of a given point and time?

20 A It's not. The allocation percentages are because in the 21 beginning --

22 Q So I was going to -- I was going to ask you that. Which 23 allocation percentages did you use?

24 A I used the ones from scheduling.

25 Q Why?

1 A There was obviously a lot of thought. It was at that
2 point -- I didn't want to make assumptions here. Right? I'm
3 taking the math that was provided on Schedule A. And then
4 looking at them, you know, they appeared reasonable or should
5 have been lower. To be conservative, I took the exact same
6 percentages and ran them through the calculation.

7 Q Okay. Now just so that the Court is understanding this,
8 if an employee is no longer there, does his or her allocated
9 percentage matter?

10 A It doesn't.

11 Q It only matters --

12 A If there is -- if it's 100 percent of 0, it's 0. So
13 that's why, yeah, it doesn't matter.

14 Q So for 20 of the 25 employees, would it matter what 15 allocated percentage they had?

16 A Allocated percentages doesn't matter. Compensation
17 doesn't matter. And you'll see in my second tab that that is 18 NA. I didn't even need to put their compensation numbers
19 because if they weren't employed as of the bankruptcy filing,
20 they didn't matter.

21 Q Because we're paying for someone that doesn't exist.

22 A Or reimbursing for some compensation that was never paid.

23 Q Just so again the Court is clear, we're talking about the 24 snapshot. You did a walk forward on a post petition month by 25 month basis?

1 A Correct. And I divided that into three segments.

2 Q Well, let me pause you there.

3 A Yeah.

4 Q So if there was an employee that was employed some point
5 and time post petition, but then fell off, how did you treat
6 that employee?

7 A Yeah. So the month -- I had them the month that they
8 stayed. The month later, I dropped them off. And you can see
9 that on the third and fourth pages. I can draw your attention
10 to, for example, John Poglich (phonetic), simple on the third
11 page. John Poglich, you see a monthly allocation and --

12 Q On 53,066?

13 A On 53,000. And the first month is half of that because 14 the petition date or the bankruptcy filing date was the 15th of 15 October, I believe. And then he was here through September and 16 he drops off. Right? You wouldn't expect to be paying for 17 someone that's no longer there. And you can see that through 18 various other employees. Mr. Dondero, I kept him on there. He 19 was a -- he was there until he became a non-paid employee of 20 Highland. You see Morrow (phonetic), Stall Tarry (phonetic).
21 Same thing. He was employed until December 2020, and then he 22 drops off. Same thing, Mr. Parker, until February 2020, and he
23 drops off. And in all these with zeroes, they just were not
24 employed on the bankruptcy filing date and so they're zeroes.

25 Q So what is your conclusion from the petition date through

Norris - Cross

133

1 the date that we stopped paying as to how much we paid, or
2 rather, reimbursed Highland for employees who were no longer
3 there?

4 A The difference is the $6.2 million right here.

5 Q So that's even a little less than Mr. Klos' 6.6, isn't it?

6 A It is.

7 Q Okay. Now, what about the next block there? You say
8 additional two months billed by HCMLP, et cetera, for December
9 '20 through January '21. Why did you include those additional 10 two months?

11 A I included those because the services should -- the 12 agreements had not been terminated, right. So we were paying.
13 And I broke them out separately because the Advisors were no
14 longer paying. And so this can't be -- this first line isn't 15 total amount reimbursed or paid. It's what the billings were.
16 And they're -- I think in their damages claim is that the 17 amount is equal to the amount listed in the agreement for those 18 two months, which I put in that top line. That's simply the 19 amount the --

20 Q So the top line, the 1336, where are we paying according 21 to their damages, that's how much we would have paid?

22 A I believe so. It's $252,000 a month for NexPoint Advisors
23 and $416,000 a month for NPA.

24 Q And according to your calculation for those months at that 25 point and time, how much should we have paid if the Court

134

1 accepts our view of this case?

2 A $264,000 should have been what we paid with a million
3 dollar difference for that two months.

4 Q So if the Court agrees with us, then the damages just on
5 these two contracts, not shared services, for those two months
6 should be how much? How much should we have to pay for those
7 two months if the Court agrees with our theory of the case?

8 A Two hundred and sixty-four thousand dollars, nine eighty-
9 eight based on this calculation.

10 Q And you mentioned that the payroll termination agreements
11 weren't terminated. Did you ever discuss that with Mr. Klos or 12 Waterhouse or Seery?

13 A I did.

14 Q What did they tell you?

15 A We had an email exchange with Mr. Klos and Mr. Waterhouse
16 and they didn't know. This is like when we found out and Mr.
17 --

18 Q So let's go back.

19 A Uh-huh.

20 Q November 30th we get termination notices, 60-day clock
21 ticking on the search services. Right?

22 A Correct.

23 Q Did we get termination notices for payroll reimbursement?

24 A We did not.

25 Q Did that surprise you or?

Norris - Cross

135

1 A It did.

2 Q What did it cause you to do?

3 A It caused us to ask why because we knew we were --

4 Q Well, what was the ultimate answer that you got from 5 either Mr. Klos, Waterhouse, or Seery?

6 A Mr. Waterhouse said maybe it was overlooked. That's all
7 we got.

8 Q Okay. No discussion about that why would we terminate if 9 it's still profitable?

10 A Well, I was --

11 MR. MORRIS: Your Honor, that's the kind of leading 12 question that he used to -- he asked him the question, he got 13 an answer, and now he's fishing for the answer he wants by 14 suggesting the answer in his question. Exactly what he took me
15 to task for.

16 THE COURT: Sustained.

17 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

18 Q Did you ever discuss the profitability or lack thereof of 19 the payroll reimbursement agreements with Mr. Klos?

20 A The profitability of them, yes.

21 Q Yes. What did you discuss with Mr. Klos?

22 A Yeah. So, and maybe I should back up to that November
23 30th date we received the notices. December 1st, I had been,
24 along with Mr. Sauter, tasked with transitioning the services,
25 even prior to that, making sure there was a smooth transition.

Norris - Cross

136

1 But at that point there was still the understanding or hope
2 that things would come to a peaceful resolution.

3 At that point we knew, all right, we need to make sure the 4 businesses can continue, that we can continue the shared
5 services through another entity or hiring those employees.
6 What agreements were there that we needed? And so the shared
7 services and payroll reimbursement agreements were two of 8 those. D.C. Sauter and I had been discussing them over the 9 previous month or two, but then when this happened, we went to 10 Dave Klos and Frank and said -- I sent Dave Klos an email and 11 said, hey, I need to understand these amounts. What are we 12 paying? What are we paying for?

13 And there was a response from Mr. Klos and that email was 14 -- went through with Mr. Klos where I said, you know, hey, what 15 are these the proper amounts? He came back. Maybe we can go
16 through the email, but his response was that they had continued
17 to pay the same amounts. And I had pointed out several 18 employees that were large dollar amounts that were no longer
19 employed and was asking, are we still paying for these or 20 reimbursing these employees that are no longer employed? And 21 his answer is the amounts had not changed.

22 And so after that conversation, we had a call with Mr.
23 Klos and Mr. Waterhouse and we dug into the why, the how much,
24 the profitability. Mr. Waterhouse was very aware that we were
25 overpaying, used the word overpayment. That's when I learned

Norris - Cross

137

1 about the automatic stay. I think I discussed that. Mr. Klos
2 had -- was involved in that discussion as well. So we had a
3 couple of discussions. Mr. Klos called me separately. We had
4 another conversation with Mr. Waterhouse. That was in early
5 December. I don't know if you want me to keep going on that,
6 but.

7 Q Sure. Yes. What other discussions did you have with Mr.
8 Klos about the problem?

9 A Yeah. So at that time too, I asked Mr. Klos and Mr.
10 Waterhouse. They told me there was a schedule that laid out
11 the payments and the overpayments. And me and Mr. Sauter asked
12 for it. We said, give it to us. And I learned a little bit
13 more about the hesitancy that they had in doing anything that 14 would harm or cause damage to the Debtor.

15 Q Did Mr. Klos tell you anything about that in particular?

16 A Mr. Klos and Mr. Waterhouse both did.

17 Q What did they say?

18 A They had said, and this is the first I had learned about 19 it, that they had been warned that if they did anything that 20 was -- that would harm or be adverse to the Debtor that they
21 would be fired on the spot, and that they would be held
22 personally liable. And they were -- I mean, they were trying
23 to do what was right in both regards, right. We know Mr.
24 Waterhouse was wearing two hats, but -- and they expressed
25 their concern. And so --

Norris - Cross

138

1 Q So their concerned about being fired?

2 A Fired on the spot and held personally liable.

3 Q Did they share -- did they share that analysis you
4 mentioned with you?

5 A So Mr. Klos said, I'll check, but I don't think Seery will 6 allow it.

7 Q Okay.

8 A So fast forward, we ask multiple times to Frank and Dave.
9 We never got it. In mid December, it's an important time
10 period, Jim got hit with a temporary restraining order. And so
11 as we were starting to have these conversations with Dave and 12 Frank, now all the sudden, you know, I for the first time was 13 involved in the court. That was the first time I ever appeared 14 in court. We had this restraining order for Jim. And so we 15 were all very cautious about what we could and couldn't say to 16 any employees. And so this negotiating or discussion we had 17 had with Dave and Frank kind of paused for several weeks and 18 the discussions then just went with counsel. Fast forward to 19 around January 13th or so, maybe 12th.

20 Q Of 2021?

21 A Of 2021. Dave Klos, Frank Waterhouse, JP Sivvy
22 (phonetic), and Brian Collins called me and said, Mr. Seery has 23 allowed us to talk to you about the transition of services
24 because both sides --

25 Q Who was JP Sivvy?

Norris - Cross

139

1 A JP Sivvy was part of the legal team at HCMLP.

2 Q And who was Mr. Collins?

3 A Mr. Collins is HR, was a HR director at -- so he chose --
4 and up to that point, we had -- I, in particular, I didn't want
5 to get involved in a restraining order. So very little
6 discussion, especially around this. So only around funds,
7 operations.

8 Q And just again so the Court understands, what were you
9 trying to discuss or negotiate at that point and time?

10 A Yeah. Starting January 13th was let's divide the 11 agreements. Let's divide the services. Let's have a peaceful
12 transition. We were receiving a number of back-office
13 functions that were critical to our business. And so, you
14 know, we also had dated information stored on their systems, on 15 their servers. We were in their office still.

16 Q So as part of these -- and the Court may remember. We had 17 an emergency trial on a mandatory injunction February 16th or 18 something like that. Ultimately, was there a transition of 19 services done?

20 A We had the permanent injunction. Ultimately, the shared
21 services agreements ended. They were extended. Highland
22 worked with us for an extension of around three weeks.

23 Q But that's my question.

24 A Yeah.

25 Q As of what -- as of actually what period of time, what

Norris - Cross

140

1 day? How do I put this? As of what day were the shared
2 services agreements actually terminated to your understanding
3 after these extensions?

4 A Yeah. I believe it was February 20th.

5 Q Okay.

6 A Maybe 19th.

7 Q February 28th or 20th?

8 A Twentieth.

9 Q Twentieth.

10 A And the employees were terminated on the 28th of February.
11 And there was a difference and they moved the date of 12 termination of employees back a week --

13 Q And then --

14 A -- beyond each of our termination dates, so we had this 15 issue.

16 Q What happened? What happened to the employee? I mean,
17 did the Advisors do anything with the employees that were
18 terminated?

19 A So we hired a few of the actual terminated employees and 20 then most of them went to Skyview Group, which had a different
21 name at the time, which we entered into shared services
22 agreements for those, with those entities.

23 Q So during those extensions that we discussed did the 24 Advisors pay the debtor for those extensions in January and
25 February 2021?

Norris - Cross

141

1 A We did. And that's that third box here, the third section
2 of the damages. It's $453,286 is what was paid for the payroll
3 reimbursement. And that's just the -- it was based on the 4 exact dollar amounts and --

5 Q Why did we pay the exact dollar amounts if we knew that we
6 were overpaying?

7 A Yeah.

8 So we had discussions on this. And backing up to the 9 first extension, my conversations with this group of four
10 Highland employees starting January 13th was let's work
11 together. Let's get a real -- let's get a great solution. We 12 don't want any disruption in the business.

13 To that point, no one had talked to me about you need to 14 pay these past due amounts or the amounts that they were 15 claiming we owed until January 28th. I got an email that said,
16 these amounts are -- all these, Highland or NexPoint and HCMFA
17 related entities or Jim-related entities, some were -- I had no
18 relationship to -- will need to be paid.

19 And at this point we had already negotiated and agreed on 20 most of the material terms related to the transition of 21 services. And so we were waiting on a term sheet at that 22 point. And they said, these have to be paid or we're pulling
23 the plug on everything you have. And so then I had a call with 24 JP Sivvy, Frank Waterhouse, and Dave Klos.

25 Again, I reiterated this, you know, asking for the

Norris - Cross

142

1 schedules related to the payroll reimbursement agreements. But
2 at that point in time, they gave us an ultimatum of you're
3 going to pay the extension fee or you're going to have the plug
4 pulled on you. And at that point, we weren't ready for that.
5 And so we said we're going to -- we will pay it, but we'll
6 reserve all our rights.

7 Q And did Highland agree to that?

8 A They did.

9 Q Okay.

10 A And we put the -- that in our actual signed agreement.
11 And when we did -- made our second extension, had multiple
12 conversations, same thing. We would reserve our rights.

13 Q And just an order of magnitude, how much did we pay
14 Highland for those two extensions, just ballpark?

15 A The payroll reimbursement agreement amount was $453,000.
16 The shared services was maybe $2-, or $300,000, so $7-, or 17 $800,000 for 20 days.

18 Q Okay. So --

19 A I may not be perfect on my math, but that's --

20 Q So if the Court agrees with our theory of the case, how 21 much are we saying we should get back from those extension fees
22 we paid Highland there in February 2021?

23 A Yeah. So related to the payroll reimbursement agreements,
24 it's $453,286, is what was paid. If you take the same
25 calculation I had been doing on all the other months, $81,000

Norris - Cross

143

1 is the appropriate, the actual employees that were employed
2 providing advisory services, so that the difference is
3 $372,000. That's the overpayment amount.

4 Q So you mentioned that Mr. Klos used a word overpayment
5 when having the discussions with you. Is that correct?

6 A Well, I know that was a word that Frank Waterhouse used.

7 Q Okay.

8 A Dave may have, but he frequently used it as you were 9 paying for employees that were no longer employed or 10 reimbursing for employees that were no longer employed.

11 Q So Mr. Klos said you were reimbursing for employees you no
12 longer had?

13 A Again, I don't remember the specific wording, but it was 14 very clear that the payments were more than what we were 15 contractually obligated.

16 Q Did he say it to you more than once?

17 A He did.

18 Q Did Mr. Waterhouse say it to you more than once?

19 A He did.

20 Q Did any other employee or agent of Highland ever say that 21 to you?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Who?

24 A On a call with JP Sivvy and Frank Waterhouse and Dave
25 Klos. JP Sivvy also acknowledged it.

Norris - Cross

144

1 Q Okay. Anyone else?

2 A I had conversations with Fred Caruso where we -- I brought
3 this up in January and asked for the schedule, what we were
4 paying. He said, I know what you're talking about, but let me
5 check on it. He did acknowledge. Same thing in early February
6 with Mr. Sharp, Bradley Sharp. We brought up the discussion.
7 There were attorneys on the line as well. We had a phone call.
8 I asked for the schedule. He said -- I told him we knew that 9 we were paying for employees that were no longer there.

10 There had been an analysis provided. We've asked for it
11 on multiple occasions. And he said, I'll check. I don't know
12 that we can provide that. And I said, I'm not asking. I'm not 13 asking for something unreasonable. We're asking to pay for the 14 employees that are currently here. And he said, well, I'm -- 15 you know, I'm a representative of the Debtor and we have an 16 obligation to the Debtor.

17 Q And when you said schedule, were you referring to the 18 David Klos analysis?

19 A Well, I don't know if it was that. I didn't see this
20 analysis from Dave Klos, the ones that have been in the Court,
21 until discovery. We had been asking for it. I didn't see it
22 until February. Actually, I think after my deposition. We saw
23 the main schedule. We hadn't received the Excel files. And so
24 I'm assuming because Dave and Frank had told me there had been 25 calculations, I'm connecting an assumption here that that is

Norris - Cross

145

1 the schedule, but I don't know. I don't know if they had
2 another one. They didn't provide it.

3 Q Is that something we requested in discovery?

4 A It is.

5 Q So if they didn't provide it, can we conclude that there
6 is no other one?

7 MR. MORRIS: Objection to the form of the question.
8 I mean, this is just -- this is -- you can't -- I object. It
9 is not -- it's complete speculation. How about that?

10 MR. RUKAVINA: Well, let me rephrase the question.

11 THE COURT: Sustained. Uh-huh.

12 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

13 Q We requested all internal calculations of profitability.
14 Correct?

15 A We did.

16 Q And did we receive from the Debtor anything other than Mr.
17 Klos' December 2020 and December 2019 analysis?

18 A We did not.

19 Q Okay. Well, and I'm sorry. There were two in late 2019,
20 so let me just clarify. I think there --

21 A There were two iterations.

22 Q Two iterations. So --

23 A I think I only saw one of them, but yeah.

24 Q So technically we might have gotten three, but they would
25 have been the ones from December 2019 and December 2020?

1 A Correct.

2 Q Okay. Now let's -- let me just ask you something while we
3 are still on your Exhibit G. So, at the end of the day there
4 were only a handful of the original employees left from Exhibit

5 A. Correct?

6 A Correct.

7 Q Now what would happen to your damages model if instead of
8 using the original percentage allocations you bumped it to 100
9 percent such that 100 percent of those five employees would be
10 reimbursed by their Advisors? What's the resulting number?

11 A Yeah. So using these existing plays, I actually plugged
12 this in at 100 percent and it's, I believe, approximately $4.4
13 million would still be the damages.

14 Q So --

15 A Applying 100 percent of their time.

16 Q So if the Court agrees with our theory of the case but 17 says that we should have done a separate analysis of the 18 allocated percentages, even if we bumped that up to 100 instead
19 of 18 percent of 42 percent or whatever, it still results in 20 how much in damages? Overpayments.

21 A $4.4 million.

22 Q Okay.

23 A Approximately.

24 Q If you'll flip to Exhibit P, please, as in Paul. Is this 25 the email exchange that you just referenced with Mr. Klos where

Norris - Cross

147

1 you were asking for data and et cetera, et cetera?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Okay. And in the bottom email there where he's writing to 4 you on December 1st at 9:12 a.m. he says that given the changes
5 in head count and along with not paying insider bonus
6 compensation, that has increased the profitability of the 7 contracts. Do you see that?

8 A I do.

9 Q Did you ever separately from this discuss the 10 profitability of the contracts with Mr. Klos other than your 11 communications that there were -- we were paying for employees
12 we didn't have?

13 A We had a phone call with just he and I. We had a phone
14 call with he and Frank, multiple discussions, again in January
15 as we were talking about transition of services, discussed it
16 again on a call with the group at the end of January, so there
17 were multiple conversations.

18 Q Okay. Did the Debtor ever terminate, to your 19 understanding, the payroll reimbursement agreements?

20 A Yes, I believe so.

21 Q And was -- why do you -- did you do anything, to your
22 memory, to prod the Debtor to do so?

23 A Yes.

24 Q What did you do?

25 A So we asked DC Sauter and our team work with their legal

Norris - Cross

148

1 team, hey, is this going to be -- we wanted to ensure that we
2 weren't continuing to overpay for employees that were no longer
3 there. And so DC, as a condition of signing, I believe signing
4 the transition services agreement, they made us terminate the -
5 - we asked them to terminate the payroll reimbursement
6 agreement.

7 Q So we didn't terminate the payroll reimbursement
8 agreements. The Debtor did.

9 A I believe so, yeah.

10 Q Okay.

11 A Yeah.

12 Q Because we require that as a condition.

13 A Yes.

14 Q Okay. Other than that, were you aware of any attempts by 15 the Debtor to terminate the payroll reimbursement agreements?

16 A I'm not.

17 Q Okay. Can you think of any reason why the Debtor wouldn't 18 have done that?

19 A Yes.

20 Q What?

21 MR. MORRIS: Objection, Your Honor. He can't
22 speculate as to the Debtor's motivations here.

23 THE COURT: Speculation. Response?

24 MR. RUKAVINA: I'll withdraw the question.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

1 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

2 Q And just to clarify what Mr. Morris was asking you, did
3 Mr. Klos use the word true up when he described what happened
4 at the end of 2018?

5 A He did.

6 Q Did he tell you whether money changed hands as a result of 7 that "true up"?

8 A He did.

9 Q What do you remember about that?

10 A He said there had been a -- I don't remember if it was 11 small or immaterial -- it wasn't immaterial, but a small -- a 12 payment actually resulted in paying to Highland from both
13 Advisors.

14 Q Okay. Did -- and you mentioned that he didn't --

15 A And actually, I don't think he said he both Advisors. He 16 said the Advisors, but didn't specify how much of each.

17 Q But did he actually tell you about the fact of the 18 amendments?

19 A No.

20 Q So just the result.

21 A Yes.

22 Q Okay. Did Mr. Klos ever -- first of all, do you have an
23 opinion on Mr. Klos' -- prior to this litigation, Mr. Klos'
24 ethics and professionalism?

25 A I do. Yeah.

Norris - Cross

150

1 Q And what was your opinion?

2 A I thought highly of him. I worked with him for over a
3 decade. His work product was always fantastic. He was
4 thorough. I went to him for a lot. I trusted he would put out
5 an accurate and honest analysis. He worked closely on board
6 matters, fund matters, advisor matters, and yeah, I thought
7 highly of him.

8 Q And he was trusted enough to be presented to the retail
9 board?

10 A Absolutely.

11 Q Did Mr. Klos, in all of your discussions, ever tell you
12 anything like, geez, Dustin, there's something fishy about 13 these payroll reimbursement agreements or amendments or shared
14 services agreements?

15 A The way he went about it, he was concerned, right. And 16 the way he prefaced our conversations was with concern.

17 Q How so?

18 A He said we're being -- he didn't say threatened, warned,
19 almost daily that we can't do anything to damage or provide 20 something that would hurt the Debtor. And so, yeah. He 21 basically was like kind of you're on your own in figuring out,
22 but I -- he knew the numbers.

23 Q I don't think you understood my question. Did Mr. Klos
24 ever tell you that there was -- did he ever flag for you any of 25 the issues? Well, strike that. Were you here when Mr. Klos

1 testified yesterday?

2 A I was.

3 Q And he testified as to what he thought the $2.5 million
4 number came from and other things. Remember that?

5 A Uh-huh.

6 Q Did he ever tell you anything like that before?

7 A No.

8 Q Did he ever tell you anything -- that there was anything
9 potentially deceptive or suspicious about the payroll
10 reimbursement agreements?

11 A Got it. No.

12 Q Did he ever tell you anything, that there was anything
13 suspicious or deceptive about the amendments to the payroll
14 agreements?

15 A No.

16 Q What about the shared services agreements?

17 A No.

18 Q What about potential tax -- I don't want to use the word
19 fraud because I'm not a tax lawyer -- potential tax
20 shenanigans?

21 A No.

22 Q Potential Mr. Dondero trying to get tax questions for 23 himself?

24 A No, he didn't.

25 Q Potential that these were used as a method of financing

1 how --

2 A No.

3 Q That the payroll reimbursement agreements were intended to 4 be monthly fees regardless of actual cost?

5 A No.

6 Q Let's go to Exhibit OO real quick. We're almost done.

7 And I really -- I really need to go to the optometrist.

8 Do you know what Exhibit AA is? There's a bunch of 9 individual ones.

10 A Yes.

11 Q Okay. What are these?

12 A These are the shared services invoices that, as required
13 by the shared services agreement for Highland Capital
14 Management Fund Advisors are to be provided, as this is a cost
15 plus 5 percent agreement. So they're laying out, if you look 16 in column, the number column 1, it has --

17 Q Well, let me pause you.

18 A Yeah.

19 Q Just so that the Court follows. We've heard before that -

21 A Yeah.

22 Q -- under certain services NexPoint paid a different
23 methodology than HCMFA. Right?

24 A They did.

25 Q NexPoint was just a flat monthly fee. Right?

Norris - Cross

153

1 A Correct.

2 Q And HCMFA was a bit of a work up.

3 A Cost plus 5 percent.

4 Q So who prepared these invoices on Exhibit AA?

5 A Highland, Highland's accounting back-office group.

6 Q And would they then send us these invoices?

7 A I didn't see these invoices until discovery.

8 Q Okay. You heard Mr. Morris talk about how -- how it was 9 only $10,000 a month for legal. Did you hear that?

10 A I did.

11 Q You see there it says legal, $10,000. Right?

12 MR. MORRIS: Excuse me, Your Honor. I didn't testify
13 to that. Mr. Klos did.

14 MR. RUKAVINA: Well, I apologize. I just remember
15 someone talk -- I apologize, Mr. Morris.

16 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

17 Q You heard something about that yesterday. Right?

18 A I did.

19 Q Okay. Is that the whole picture?

20 A It's not.

21 Q Why not?

22 A When you peel back to what is underlying these numbers,
23 $10,000 was a standard legal services. However, in the 24 compliance bucket, it says general compliance. If you look to 25 the schedules, that includes Thomas Surgent, an attorney,

154

1 including his base and bonus and benefits and Lauren Thedford,
2 who is an attorney, providing officer and other functions for
3 us. So that $92,000 a month -- this is a monthly invoice --
4 includes those two adjacent posts, which is two out of the 5 three attorneys.

6 Q What about retail operations and finance and accounting?

7 A Retail operations and finance and accounting includes --
8 it doesn't include attorneys. It includes back-office
9 accountants. Frank Waterhouse, I assume did Klos. We have --
10 we have the Excel spreadsheets that break it out --

11 Q We do.

12 A -- by individual, but --

13 Q But can you tell me how it is that Highland could 14 calculate and bill us for the services of these employees if 15 Mr. Klos testified correctly yesterday that there is no way in 16 the world to do so?

17 A Yeah. On a monthly basis, they would calculate the 18 employees and the percent of time that they spent related to 19 Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors. They had a schedule
20 attached to that spreadsheet.

21 Q Yep.

22 A Which then detailed their total comp, salary, bonus,
23 taxes. There's several columns. And their percentage
24 allocation. That was updated monthly. I looked at the 25 schedules they provided in discovery and they -- when there was

Norris - Redirect

155

1 a new employee added, they would add that employee. When an
2 employee left, they would take the employee away.

3 Q And the --

4 A There was approximately 20 people underlying --

5 Q And we paid --

6 A -- this schedule.

7 Q And we paid these invoices, well, other than late in the 8 game. Right?

9 A Yes.

10 Q The Advisors or HCMFA paid those invoices.

11 A Yes. Highland submitted the payments on behalf of our
12 Advisors.

13 Q Okay. So can you conclude from that that there must have 14 been some methodology to allocate employee time per advisor?

15 A They managed to do it.

16 Q Or is it -- or is it a fraud?

17 MR. MORRIS: Your Honor, this is really --

18 MR. RUKAVINA: Is there any alternative?

19 MR. MORRIS: He's leading.

20 MR. RUKAVINA: Is there any alternative, sir?

21 THE COURT: Sustained.

22 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

23 Q Is there any alternative? I'll strike that, Your Honor.
24 I'll just deal with it in closing. Thank you, Mr. Norris.

25 THE COURT: All right. Pass the witness. Mr.

Norris - Redirect

156

1 Morris.

2 MR. MORRIS: I just have a few follow-up.

3 THE WITNESS: A few is three. Right?

4 MR. MORRIS: No.

5 THE WITNESS: Oh, okay.

6 MR. MORRIS: No.

7 REDIRECT EXAMINATION

8 BY MR. MORRIS:

9 Q You understand that we completely disagree that you -- the 10 Advisors are entitled to any damages. Right?

11 You understand that that's the position that we've taken
12 in this case. Right?

13 A I believe so, yes.

14 Q Okay. Can you turn to Exhibit G, please?

15 A Yes.

16 Q Okay. Do you see -- so you understand that we don't agree
17 you're entitled to anything. Right?

18 You understand that's our position. Correct?

19 A If you represent that, I'll take your word for it.

20 Q I do. And you've got the million -- so with that 21 understanding though, you've got the $1,336,000 for the 22 December 20th -- December '20 and January 2021 on your chart.
23 Do you see that?

24 A Yes.

25 Q And it's your testimony that your recollection is that the

Norris - Redirect

157

1 Advisors actually paid the amounts that were due under the
2 payroll reimbursement agreement subject to a reservation of 3 rights in connection with the extensions?

4 A No. Not the January and December payments. We paid in 5 February. Yeah.

6 Q Did the Advisors ever make the December and January
7 payments?

8 A I don't believe so.

9 Q So why is that number here? Why are you suffering damages
10 that you didn't even pay?

11 A Yeah.

12 So I think the reason for including it is it says
13 additional two months billed. We know that we've been billed
14 those. We're not arguing that there shouldn't be anything
15 paid. You're saying we actually owe the full amount. Here is 16 the amount we owe. So the difference is the million dollars,
17 right. So you're claiming we owe you the full 1.3. We're 18 saying it's 264.

19 Q But you're seeking damages for the difference. Aren't
20 you?

21 MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, that's not -- that wasn't
22 the testimony, you know.

23 MR. MORRIS: Just look at -- I'm just asking. This
24 is math, right. It's your analysis.

25 MR. RUKAVINA: It says total over billing. Our

Norris - Redirect

158

1 damages, Your Honor, are the $6.2 million, as he testified, and
2 then the $372,000.

3 MR. MORRIS: Then how could --

4 THE COURT: Overruled. He can ask question about it.

5 BY MR. MORRIS:

6 Q Those two numbers don't add up to $7.6 million, do they?

7 A Yeah. And I don't know the legal ramifications here, but
8 the math is you're asking for -- I can't remember the number --
9 three million. We're saying here is this. The three million
10 should be offset by million dollars.

11 Q Sir? Sir, let's just take this one piece at a time
12 because I --

13 A Uh-huh.

14 Q -- I just want to make sure this isn't inflated. You
15 agree that the Advisors paid zero for December and January
16 under the payroll reimbursement agreement. Correct?

17 A Well --

18 Q Just simple question.

19 A The argument I think Jim made was we've overpaid. There
20 should be a true up to those amounts.

21 MR. MORRIS: I move to strike. Can you please -- I
22 want to get this done.

23 BY MR. MORRIS:

24 Q You admit that the Advisors paid zero in December 2020 and 25 January 2021 under the payroll reimbursement agreement.

Norris - Redirect

159

1 Correct?

2 A We made no payments in January --

3 Q Okay.

4 A -- or December.

5 Q But your analysis that you did says that if you were to 6 pay something it would be $264,998. Right?

7 A Correct.

8 Q But instead of adding that number to the $6.2 million, you
9 added the difference between that number and what we've 10 invoiced as the damage calculation. Is that -- that's a
11 mistake. Right?

12 A We wouldn't add the 264 as additional damages.

13 Q So what's the damage --

14 A That's the amount we would have paid.

15 Q That's the amount. So --

16 A Versus what was billed. You billed us $1.336 million and 17 --

18 Q Okay. So would the proper damages here be 6.206, 891.
19 I'm just trying to do it from your perspective.

20 A Uh-huh.

21 Q Plus the $372,040 in the bottom. Right? 372? Do you
22 agree with that? Those two were parts of your damage
23 calculation.

24 A Those are part damages, correct.

25 Q And you would add those two together and then you would

1 deduct $264,000. Right?

2 A No.

3 Q Because that's the value that you should have paid that
4 you didn't.

5 A I wouldn't necessarily say you'd deduct it from that. It
6 would be offset from whatever you're seeking from us, right.
7 That's separate.

8 Q No.

9 If you win this case, and again, right, it's an assumption
10 that I positively don't agree with. But if you were to win this 11 case, right, your theory is that you would be entitled to 6.2
12 plus $372,000, right, because that's the overpayment. And then 13 the 264 is what you should have paid under your theory, so that 14 should be deducted because you didn't pay it.

15 A Yeah. Assuming that your three million goes to zero as 16 well or it was reduced. It's the same way at getting at the 17 same answer.

18 Q Okay. Right? Because -- are we in agreement? It's if 19 you want to know under your theory if you win under the 20 methodology you've adopted, it would be 6.2 plus 372 minus 264.
21 Right? Because the 264 is your valuation that you didn't pay.

22 A Yeah. And assuming that your numbers are also go away,
23 that there's no -- there's no damages there.

24 Q I'm going to lose under this hypothetical.

25 A Yeah. Yeah.

Norris - Redirect

161

1 Q Right? So it's not $7.6 million. Right? It's something
2 closer to 6. Again, just using your numbers. I'm just trying
3 to correct the mistake that I think you made.

4 A I don't think it's necessary a mistake. I think it's just
5 thinking at it holistically.

6 Q Okay. Can you go to Exhibit 27 in Binder Number 1? And
7 this is that email that you just looked at with Mr. Rukavina.
8 Right?

9 A Correct.

10 Q And if we start on the right page, the one with Bates
11 number 730, do you see that you wrote to Mr. Sauter at 7:08
12 p.m. on November 30th and said, time for a call?

13 A No. That --

14 Q At the bottom of the page.

15 A Oh, at the bottom. On October 6th, time -- it was time
16 for a call.

17 Q Right. But at the bottom of Page 730, there's an email
18 from you to Mr. Norris on November 30th at 7:08 p.m. where 19 you're forwarding the same email.

20 A Yes.

21 Q And that's the title of the email. Right?

22 A Yes.

23 Q And you sent that because you just learned that Highland
24 had terminated -- given notice of termination of the shared
25 services agreements. Right?

Norris - Redirect

162

1 A I believe so, but I'm not certain.

2 Q And then you walked into the office early the next morning
3 and started to think about what all of this meant. Right?

4 A Yes.

5 Q And so, at 8:53 a.m., you sent an email to DC, to Frank,
6 and to Klos about the topic of the intercompany agreements.
7 Right?

8 A Yes.

9 Q And you gave them the amount of money that was paid under 10 all of the agreements between the companies. Correct?

11 A I took from the income statement, which isn't necessarily 12 a cash flow statement, but it's the actual amount bill or 13 recorded as expenses.

14 Q So the Advisors own books and records reflected all of the 15 payments that were made by the Advisors to Highland under the 16 various intercompany agreements. Right?

17 A The HCMLP employees were the ones that prepared these very 18 numbers.

19 MR. MORRIS: I move to strike, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Sustained.

21 BY MR. MORRIS:

22 Q Okay. I'll ask my question again. The Advisors books and 23 records reflected all payments that they made to Highland on 24 account of the intercompany agreements. Correct?

25 A Sorry. One more time.

Norris - Redirect

163

1 Q The Advisors books and records reflect every payment they
2 ever made to Highland under the intercompany agreements during
3 the relevant period. Correct?

4 A I believe so, yes.

5 Q And you were able to go in there and to get the 6 information about the amounts that were paid. Right? You got
7 it. You got it. It's in your email. Right?

8 A I got it from the board materials, yes.

9 Q From the board materials. So even the board was given the 10 details about the amounts that were being paid. Who gave it to 11 the board?

12 A And I'd say not details, but one line, right. There's no
13 underlying details.

14 Q But the board was told how much the Advisors paid under 15 the intercompany agreements on an annualized basis. Is that 16 fair?

17 A Yes.

18 Q And that information came from the Advisors own books and 19 records. Correct?

20 A From the Highland employees, yes.

21 MR. MORRIS: I move to strike.

22 THE COURT: Sustained.

23 BY MR. MORRIS:

24 Q That information came from the Advisors books and records.
25 Correct?

1 A Yes.

2 Q Thank you.

3 And you told -- you told Mr. Sauter and
4 Mr. Waterhouse and Mr. Klos, among other things, that you need
5 to make sure these agreements are fully understood in the 6 context of the notices, in the context of the termination
7 notices. Do you see that?

8 A I do.

9 Q So after you receive notice of termination, that's when 10 you decided that you thought it was the appropriate time to 11 make sure the agreements were fully understood in the context
12 of HCMLP's termination notices. Right?

13 A That was a continuation.

14 If you go back in the email of October 6th, there's an 15 email asking for a conversation on shared services and other
16 agreements. I had an attachment with those agreements, then
17 sent them on October 6th to DC Sauter. This is when I started
18 to be involved more in the transition of services and was 19 already trying to kind of understand what was going on. And 20 there wasn't a need at that point to do anything specific.

21 Q Okay. So it was after? Can you just agree with me that 22 what you wrote on the day after you found out that there was a
23 termination notices, that you need -- that you "need to make 24 sure these agreements are fully understood in the context of 25 HCMLP's termination notices for the shared services agreement".

1 Did you see that?

2 A I did.

3 Q When you use the phrase, shared services right there, you
4 also meant the payroll reimbursement agreement. Right?

5 A I may have, but I don't -- I don't know.

6 Q Well, that's what sub advisory fees are. Right? The 7 column that you have there under sub advisory fees, it doesn't
8 say payroll reimbursement agreement. It says sub advisory 9 fees. Correct?

10 A It says sub advisory fees, yes.

11 Q And those are the amounts that were paid not under the sub
12 advisory agreements, but the contract that is now called the 13 payroll reimbursement agreement. Correct?

14 A Yes.

15 Q And what you wanted to do is not make sure you fully 16 understood the shared services agreements. What you wanted to 17 do on December 1st is make sure you fully understood the shared
18 services agreements and the payroll reimbursement agreements.
19 Correct?

20 A Worth noting the sub advisory fees were higher than the 21 shared services fees, so need to make sure these agreements are 22 fully understood in the -- well, here -- they only terminated
23 the shared services agreement, so and going back my previous, I
24 wasn't sure.

25 They only sent shared services agreement terminations.

Norris - Redirect

166

1 And so you needed to understand the shared services agreements,
2 the sub advisory agreements. Yeah. We wanted to understand
3 them, but they hadn't terminated them. So this specifically
4 was related to the shared services agreement.

5 Q Sir, the rest of the email train that you're relying on is 6 about the sub advisory fees. Do you see Mr. Klos' response to 7 you?

8 A Yeah.

9 Q It's only about sub advisory fees. Correct?

10 A What's only about sub advisory fees?

11 Q The first paragraph is about sub advisory fees.

12 A Yeah. Because he -- he clarified. I was learning at this 13 point.

14 Q Uh-huh.

15 A And he clarified and then it went into a deeper discussion
16 about the sub advisory fees.

17 Q And is it fair to say that you also needed to fully 18 understand the payroll reimbursement agreements at that time?

19 A Absolutely. We should. Yeah.

20 Q At that time. Right?

21 A Because they didn't terminate them.

22 Q That's right. And you hadn't undertaken that exercise at 23 any time before this time. Is that fair?

24 A Other than my discussions with outside counsel and DC
25 Sauter that are laid out in the email below about which we had

Norris - Redirect

167

1 had discussions, but we didn't dive into all the details.

2 Q You're telling me that back in October this email that
3 says nothing doesn't mention payroll reimbursement agreement.

4 Right?

5 A It says shared services and other agreements with HCMLP.

6 Q And what was the issue at that time? Did you know back in
7 October?

8 A Did I know what back in October?

9 Q About the alleged overpayments.

10 A I didn't.

11 Q Were you looking at the agreements in October?

12 A We were.

13 Q So you had the agreement in your hand in October and you
14 didn't make any conclusions about overpayment at that time.

15 Right?

16 A I looked at the schedule and saw that there's a percentage
17 allocation of employees and assumed that Highland is -- let me
18 step back. We relied on Highland and were assuming that they 19 were making payments in accordance with the agreement.

20 Q In the two months before you sent this email to Mr. Sauter
21 and Mr. Waterhouse, did you make any effort to try to figure
22 out if your assumption was accurate?

23 A No.

24 Q And you looked at Exhibit A and you said, well, there's a
25 lot of employees who have been terminated, but I just assumed

Norris - Redirect

168

1 Highland is doing the right thing.

2 A Yeah.

3 Q Okay. You said that you were not aware of the 4 overpayments, but I believe you said Mr. Waterhouse was very
5 aware of the overpayments. Do I have that right?

6 A He was.

7 Q And did he tell you when he first learned of the
8 overpayments?

9 A Well, in our discussion in December, he said -- he didn't
10 say when he had learned, but in our call at the end of January,
11 which I had taken notes on, he had said -- and I was surprised
12 by this because I thought it was newer knowledge to him in 13 December, but he had said over a year ago he had discussions
14 with Counsel and DSI. So he had told me it had been over a
15 year.

16 Q And did -- and that's when he told you? So other than 17 what Mr. Waterhouse told you about his conversation with Isaac
18 Leventon, Scott Wellington, and Fred Caruso, are you aware of 19 any other conversation that ever took place before November 30, 20 2020, concerning whether or not there should be any 21 modification to the amounts being paid under the payroll
22 reimbursement agreements?

23 A So I'll correct the -- you said other than him telling his 24 conversation with Fred Caruso and Isaac. Other than their 25 testimony, he didn't tell me that at the time. He said he had

Norris - Redirect

169

1 spoke to DSI and to -- to counsel. So just --

2 Q Meaning that he didn't identify who the counsel was.

3 A He didn't identify who counsel was.

4 Q Fair enough.

5 A I didn't know who Fred Caruso was at the time.

6 Q Okay.

7 A Again, I wasn't involved. So he told me general. So
8 that's the first part of the question, so didn't want to agree
9 to that part by answering. So then you said was there any 10 other discussion that they should be amended prior to November
11 30th. Not with me.

12 Q Okay. And you're not aware of any. Correct?

13 A Other than -- I'm not aware of any, no.

14 Q Thank you.

15 Nobody's ever told you -- other than this one conversation
16 that Frank had with Fred Caruso and counsel, nobody has ever
17 informed you of any discussion of any kind where the Advisors
18 asked to modify the amounts that were being paid under the 19 payroll reimbursement agreements. Correct?

20 A I mean, other than my conversations where I asked for the 21 scheduled, demanded that they be done the right way, but you're 22 saying that --

23 Q Let me rephrase the question.

24 A Yeah.

25 Q Because I want to use that November 30th timeline.

Norris - Redirect

170

1 A Yeah.

2 Q Other than the conversation that Mr. Waterhouse told you
3 he had with Fred Caruso and counsel, you have no knowledge of 4 any request to modify the amounts that were charged under the
5 payroll reimbursement agreement at any time prior to November
6 30, 2020. Correct?

7 A I don't.

8 Q Thank you.

9 You went through a whole lot of testimony with Mr.
10 Rukavina about the change in the advisor's business model. Do
11 I have that right?

12 A Correct.

13 Q And none of those changes ever caused the Advisors to make 14 a request to modify the amounts that were being paid under the 15 payroll reimbursement agreement. Correct?

16 A They should have. And again, Highland -- we thought
17 Highland was doing that, but there's -- yeah. The people
18 changed. It should have resulted in a modification.

19 Q Okay. And every -- it was the last question I asked and I
20 just want to emphasize the point.

21 A Uh-huh.

22 Q Every single person that you believe should have
23 unilaterally made this change reports to Frank Waterhouse.
24 Right?

25 A Those that had knowledge of this, yes.

Norris - Recross

171

1 Q Okay.

2 A And you said unilaterally, I think the contract is clear
3 and says that if either party, right, will negotiate in good
4 faith.

5 MR. MORRIS: I'm going to move to strike that part
6 because the contract speaks for itself and --

7 THE COURT: Sustained.

8 MR. MORRIS: -- you have no knowledge of what that 9 means.

10 May I just have one moment, Your Honor?

11 THE COURT: You may.

12 MR. MORRIS: I have nothing further here.

13 THE COURT: All right. Any recross?

14 MR. RUKAVINA: Briefly, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 RECROSS-EXAMINATION

17 BY MR. RUKAVINA:

18 Q Briefly because I think Mr. Morris might make his flight.
19 Exhibit W. Is that the notes that you referenced to yourself,
20 just so that I can use it in closing?

21 A Yes. Those are them.

22 Q Okay. And were those kept contemporaneously or right
23 after by you?

24 A I started typing them up shortly after the call ended.

25 Q It's Exhibit W. I think it's been admitted.

Norris - Recross

172

1 A And it was sent -- the call happened that evening and I
2 sent it later that night after I had wrapped up work. I sent
3 it to myself.

4 Q Going back to your damages analysis, where did you get the 5 dates of termination of the employees from?

6 A So I received them from the interrogatories.

7 Q So let me point you. Exhibit I. Exhibit I, Page 9.

8 Yeah. You might not know what an interrogatory is. Exhibit I,
9 Page 9. Your Honor, these are the Debtors' responses to my 10 interrogatories. Do you see that, sir?

11 A I do.

12 Q Okay. Is that the source information for dates of 13 termination?

14 A It is. And I also compared that to the schedule from HR
15 at Highland Kelly Stevens.

16 Q And just to round off this discussion of damages, back to 17 your Exhibit G.

18 A Yes.

19 Q We're claiming the 6.2 million. Correct? Go back to 20 Exhibit G.

21 A Yes.

22 Q We're claiming the 372,000. Correct?

23 A Yes.

24 Q Then we're claiming -- I'll discuss it in closing -- some 25 $1.3 million from the David Klos analysis for the shared

Norris - Recross

173

1 services agreements. Right?

2 A Yeah. And that's different than this 1.3. It's 1.3 in
3 shared services.

4 Q That's what I wanted to clarify.

5 A Yes. Yes.

6 Q You did not --

7 A Additional damages.

8 Q You did not calculate the underlying overcharges under the 9 shared services. We're just going with Mr. Klos' analysis --

10 A Going off --

11 Q -- if the Court agrees with us.

12 A That's correct.

13 Q And then 425,000 in cover damages.

14 A That's correct.

15 Q And that's for Robert Harris and Jason Post?

16 A Correct.

17 MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, thank you.

18 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Norris, before I excuse
19 you, I have two or three questions.

20 THE WITNESS: Yes. Yes.

21 THE COURT: Okay. That was it. That was recross.

22 MR. MORRIS: Oh, I had a couple -- I have a couple of 23 questions on that.

24 THE COURT: But that was it. We went you, you, you,
25 you.

Norris - Examination/Court

174

1 MR. MORRIS: Right. But can I cross now on the very
2 limited testimony? It's limited to the questions that he just 3 asked.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Well, don't --

5 MR. MORRIS: If you don't want me to, it's fine.

6 THE COURT: Yeah. I don't want you to.

7 MR. MORRIS: Okay.

8 EXAMINATION

9 BY THE COURT:

10 Q All right. My brain thinks in timelines. And so I just 11 -- I want to be reminded of a couple of things. NexPoint, NPA, 12 was formed when?

13 A Yeah. NexPoint Advisors was formed in 2011 or 2012. I
14 believe it was 2011.

15 Q Okay. So after you started at the Highland complex. And 16 the other one, HCMFA. It was --

17 A Yes.

18 It was formed somewhere between 2007 and 2009 as Highland
19 Funds Asset Management. That's where Jim got the H fam from 20 and has carried it. It then became Axis Capital. And then it
21 changed its name again to Highland Capital Management Fund
22 Advisors in, I believe, February 2013.

23 Q Okay. So when did each of these entities begin hiring
24 their own employees? I'm not 100 percent clear. I think I
25 heard the answer, but you tell me.

WWW.LIBERTYTRANSCRIPTS.COM

002816

1 A Yeah. So they have -- they had their own employees
2 throughout the whole time period, but --

3 Q Since 2011, since 2007?

4 A That's right. And the -- they have -- and I mentioned the 5 shared services agreements. When I started working for 6 Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors, there were a lot of 7 those in house services that were actually at the Advisors.

8 Q Right. Yeah.

9 A So part of the transitioning those services was with my 10 moving to a different role in around 2013 or so where we merged
11 those services. We were receiving some services from Highland,
12 back-office services, maybe some --

13 Q Okay. I'm more interested in front office.

14 A Yeah. Front-office services.

15 Q Uh-huh.

16 A So the Retail Advisors have always had front-office
17 personnel. And we did rely and we had the payroll
18 reimbursement agreements for certain investment professionals.
19 Prior to the 2018 agreement, I believe the shared services
20 agreement had investment advisory services in it.

21 So -- but there was -- you know, we have had investment
22 professionals the whole time. However, as I mentioned, the 23 shift from being real -- from credit focused to real estate
24 focused really started in 2015, '16, '17, '18, and really into 25 '19 and '20. So our real estate assets in 2012 or '13 were

1 close to zero and today it's around nine or ten billion.

2 Q Okay.

3 A And I think if you go back to 2008, it was almost
4 primarily credit and a long-short equity fund from our advisors
5 and a mostly credit focused funds.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

7 THE WITNESS: Yes.

8 THE COURT: You're excused.

9 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

10 (Witness excused)

11 THE COURT: All right. That concludes our witnesses.
12 Right?

13 MR. RUKAVINA: It does, Your Honor. And Mr. Morris
14 and I discussed a proposal.

15 MR. MORRIS: Yeah. Let me just confer with my client
16 --

17 MR. RUKAVINA: Sure. Sure.

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 MR. MORRIS: -- to make sure my client is okay with 20 this.

21 All right. You can --

22 MR. RUKAVINA: You're okay?

23 Your Honor, we were -- if agreeable to the Court
24 since they could then make their flights and we're all tired,
25 we can do closing by Webex at the Court's convenience rather

1 than go now until probably quite -- we're not going to have, I
2 don't think, huge, long closings, but we're going to have quite 3 some time.

4 THE COURT: You had an hour opening.

5 MR. MORRIS: Yeah. I mean, I actually --

6 MR. RUKAVINA: I was a lot less than an hour.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 MR. MORRIS: I don't want to impose my will at all.
9 I'd like to do it consensually, but I think it might be
10 appropriate to just set some time limits and find a day. We do
11 have a pretty big day next week for the summary judgment motion
12 on the Notes (phonetic) litigation.

13 But at the Court's convenience, I think it would be 14 helpful to review the record because it's been a busy couple of 15 days and I know personally I'd like to read actually the 16 testimony instead of just telling the Court what I think
17 witnesses testified to because people get a little loose with 18 that sometimes.

19 THE COURT: Okay. So we'll let you do closing by 20 WebEx. We'll limit you to an hour each. We'll do it some day
21 next week, but I need to check with Traci. I don't have my 22 final calendar for next week --

23 MR. RUKAVINA: MSJ is the 20th?

24 THE COURT: -- to know when the best day is.

25 MR. MORRIS: It is the 20th, yeah.

1 THE COURT: What day is your Note?

2 MR. MORRIS: I think it's the 20th. Yeah.

3 MR. RUKAVINA: That would be a week from today.

4 Right?

5 MR. MORRIS: Yeah. You know, and it may not be 6 feasible to do it next week. It may wait until the week after.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 MR. MORRIS: I'll do it whenever the Court wants, but

9 --

10 THE COURT: Okay. We'll do it either next week or 11 the following week, okay?

12 MR. MORRIS: Yeah. Fair enough. Fair enough.

13 THE COURT: Yeah. I just need to get with Traci --

14 MR. MORRIS: Yeah.

15 THE COURT: -- and see what is the best day. So
16 she'll reach out to you tomorrow.

17 MR. MORRIS: Perfect.

18 THE COURT: And let you know.

19 MR. MORRIS: Perfect.

20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 MR. MORRIS: Thanks so much, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: All right.

23 MR. RUKAVINA: So just, I guess, to be clear.

24 Plaintiff has closed. I have closed because we did it
25 simultaneously, and the evidence is concluded.

1 THE COURT: The evidence is closed.

2 MR. RUKAVINA: Thank you.

3 MR. MORRIS: Thank you.

4 THE COURT: I'm not listening to anything else. And
5 the briefing is closed, as well. So we'll just have closing
6 oral arguments again next week or the following week. Traci
7 will reach out tomorrow.

8 MR. MORRIS: Okie doke.

1 THE CLERK: All rise. The United States Bankruptcy
2 Court for the Northern District of Texas Dallas Division is now
3 in session. The Honorable Stacey Jernigan presiding.

4 THE COURT: Good afternoon. Please be seated.

5 All right. We are here for closing arguments in the 6 Highland Capital versus Advisors matter, Adversary 21-3010.
7 Let's get appearances first on the record for Highland first.

8 MR. MORRIS: Good afternoon, Your Honor. This is 9 John Morris, Pachulski Stang Ziehl & Jones, for Highland
10 Capital Management, L.P., and I'll be handling today's closing
11 argument on behalf of my client.

12 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

13 Now for the Advisors, who do we have appearing?

14 MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, good afternoon, Davor
15 Rukavina and Thomas Berghman here for the Advisors, NexPoint
16 Advisors, L.P., and Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors,
17 L.P.

18 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

19 All right. That should be all the appearances. We 20 have lots of observers, I'm sure. I believe we allocated one
21 hour each to Highland and then the Advisors collectively.
22 Correct?

23 MR. MORRIS: That's right, Your Honor. And as the 24 plaintiff, I'm hoping that I don't use my full hour. And 25 whatever time remains from my allotted time, I'll reserve for

1 rebuttal.

2 THE COURT: All right. We will allow rebuttal if you
3 have time.

4 All right. Well, with that, let's begin. It's 1:35
5 per the Court's clock. So, Mr. Morris, I'll hear your closing.

6 MR. MORRIS: All right. And I would ask Ms. Canti
7 (phonetic) to put up our deck, our PowerPoint presentation that
8 we sent to the Court and to Mr. Rukavina in advance of today's 9 --

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 MR. MORRIS: -- argument. So, okay, I'll begin the 12 clock, Your Honor.

13 And thank you for hearing us this afternoon. Thank 14 you for your patience the week before last in accommodating our 15 travel schedules and allowing us to complete a pretty grueling
16 two days of testimony. I think it was helpful.

17 And I'd like to begin if we could just turn the deck
18 to the next slide and just remind the Court that at Docket
19 Number 91, Highland filed its proposed findings of fact and 20 conclusions of law. We stand by every work in that 68-page
21 filing. I'm hoping to use my time here this afternoon to 22 simply highlight certain facts that came out of the trial, as 23 well as to kind of summarize where I believe the evidence
24 landed and where I believe the Court ought to rule.

25 Just to quickly go through the claims, Highland's

1 claims are awfully straightforward. There's no dispute that
2 the Advisors stopped paying for their services under the
3 various agreements at very specific points in time. There's no
4 dispute as to the amounts that are owed under those agreements.
5 And so unless the Advisors can prove that Highland was in
6 breach of one or more of the agreements, I think that there's 7 an undisputed issue as to Highland's claim and as to the 8 Advisors' liability under that claim.

9           We believe that the Advisors' claims are meritless,
10 Your Honor. We believe that -- and I think there was kind of a
11 sea change during the hearing. I think the Advisors kind of --
12 and we'll talk about this more in a moment -- shifted their 13 theory of the case. And I believe that we now have an 14 agreement that the contracts are indeed unambiguous.

15           As I'll talk about a little bit more, there really is 16 no such thing, at least in the context of this case, of an 17 overpayment. Even if the Court were to find there was an 18 ambiguity, and I'll go through the evidence again as quickly as 19 I can, the parole evidence --

20           THE COURT: Okay. Just a moment. My court
21 reporter's saying we need to stop.

22           (Court and Clerk confer briefly)

23           THE COURT: I apologize. We are having a technical
24 sound issue. I didn't observe it, but the court reporter
25 equipment -- just bear with us a moment.

1 (Pause)

2 THE COURT: Okay. Just so we can let the lawyers
3 know, how long do you predict this is going to take?

4 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Testing, testing.

5 THE CLERK: It's not coming through.

6 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Still not coming through.

7 THE CLERK: How long do you think it's going to take?

8 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: I have no earthly idea. I'm
9 not sure what's going on. Give me five minutes.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Lawyers, I apologize. They say
11 give them five minutes. They hope they can get this sound
12 issue. I greatly apologize, but give it five minutes.

13 (Off the record to handle technical issues with audio 14 equipment)

15 (Back on the record)

16 THE CLERK: All rise.

17 THE COURT: All right. Please be seated. We're back
18 on the record in the Highland closing arguments in Adversary
19 21-3010. All right.

20 Mr. Morris, we're just going to start the clock over 21 in light of a disruption less than five minutes into your 22 closing. So you may begin.

23 MR. MORRIS: Okay. Thank you, Your Honor. And 24 again, John Morris, Pachulski Stang Ziehl & Jones for Highland.

25 As I had mentioned earlier, for the record, Highland

1 had filed at Docket Number 91 its proposed findings of fact and
2 conclusions of law. We continue to believe that that document
3 fairly sets forth and describes a mountain of documentary
4 evidence that supports its claims and that defeats the 5 Advisors' claims.

6 Just to summarize kind of where we are, we believe
7 that there's no dispute as to Highland's claim. We don't 8 believe there's any dispute as to the time in which the 9 Advisors failed to pay for services or the amounts that were 10 due under those contracts, so that unless the Advisors can
11 prove that Highland is in breach, I believe that there's no
12 dispute that Highland would be entitled to a judgment.

13 Highland believes that the Advisors' claims are 14 frivolous. After some back and forth, I believe that the 15 parties are in agreement now that the contract is unambiguous
16 and that, as I'll discuss further, there really is no such 17 thing as an overpayment under the circumstances that we find
18 ourselves here.

19 Even if the contracts were ambiguous in any way, we
20 believe the evidence firmly establishes that Highland's
21 interpretation is the only fair and reasonable interpretation.
22 That evidence includes parole evidence that led up to the 23 execution of the relevant agreements, and it also includes the 24 parties' course of dealing and the surrounding circumstances.

25 We believe the evidence will establish and has

1 established that Highland has fully performed, that the
2 substance of the advisor's claims has changed so radically over
3 time that the credibility of the claim itself is called into
4 question, and their last-minute hail Mary to Frank Waterhouse
5 is nothing but a fumble or an incomplete pass at best.
6 Mr. Waterhouse's story will not withstand scrutiny.

7           If we can go to the next slide just to summarize and
8 to highlight a couple of additional provisions of the relevant,
9 and I'm focused here on the Payroll Reimbursement Agreement
10 because that is the bulk of the Advisors' claims. Again,
11 Section 2.01 of the agreement provided that not just NexPoint
12 but HCMFA because the documents are identical, and they can be 13 found at Exhibits 6 and 8, provided that the Advisors would 14 reimburse Highland for the actual cost of certain employees,
15 again with a capital A and a capital C.

16           Capital A and capital C actual cost is defined in the 17 agreement to be a flat fee absent a change pursuant to Section
18 2.02. There's really no dispute about that. It's plain
19 language (indiscernible) applied as such. Section 2.02 states
20 that the parties may agree to modify the terms and conditions
21 of the reimbursement. They may agree, they may not agree.
22 Nobody can act unilaterally.

23           I believe earlier in this case there was a suggestion
24 that Highland had some obligation to do something on its own.
25 You can't find Highland's name in Section 2.02 because nobody

1 has the right or the obligation or the ability to act
2 unilaterally.

3           Section 4.02 emphasizes that if somebody does want to
4 make a modification, they have to notify the other party before
5 the last business day of the calendar month. And that's
6 critical, Your Honor, because it shows that the parties agreed
7 that any change would be prospective. There wouldn't be a
8 retroactive change because if there could be a retroactive
9 change then you've just rendered the definition of actual cost
10 absolutely meaningless. Right?

11           If at any time somebody can say, oh, I didn't like
12 what I paid for the last three years, or in this case the last
13 12 months, then why even have a definition of actual cost.
14 Right? So you've got to read the agreement together. Section
15 4.02 clearly establishes that any request for change under 16 Section 2.02 is going to be prospective only.

17           Section 6.02 says that the agreement can only be 18 amended by a writing of the parties. The parties knew that.
19 We know that the evidence in dispute indisputably establishes
20 that they exercised their right. They did agree to modify
21 under Section 2.02 in December 2018, and we'll talk about that 22 more. So the parties know exactly what they're doing.

23           And if you remember in my opining, Your Honor, I
24 suggested that the definition of actual cost, we could have 25 called it hamburger, we could have called it tofu if that's

1 your preference. And the reason that I said that, Your Honor,
2 is because Section 6.07 exists. And Section 6.07 says the
3 descriptive headings are for convenience, and they don't
4 constitute a part of the agreement.

5 So again, you know, everything that I think the 6 Advisors are relying upon are all of these headings. The only
7 thing that matters is the definition of actual cost,
8 Section 2.02, and that any agreement has to be prospective, not
9 retroactive. We believe that that's what the Payroll
10 Reimbursement Agreement shows.

11 If you go to the next chart, Your Honor, it's really
12 just a summary of Mr. Klos' damage analysis. It is really
13 incredibly straightforward. Under the next point, agreements,
14 no payment was made in December or January. All three 15 agreements were flat-fee agreements. We've simply multiplied
16 the flat fee by the period of time that remained unpaid to get 17 to the total.

18 The only wrinkle here is the HCMFA Shared Services
19 Agreement. If Your Honor recalls, there's one -- that's the 20 only contract of the five that isn't a fixed fee. But it
21 stayed within a very narrow band of 300,000 to 310. So we just 22 took an average because they didn't pay. And that's how we got 23 to the 915 because they didn't pay. If you recall the 24 testimony from Mr. Klos, they didn't pay November either for 25 that particular contract because Highland had not yet prepared

1 the invoice. Okay?

2 So that's the damage calculation. We're entitled to
3 costs, fees, and expenses. You know, in the joint pretrial
4 order, the parties agreed that that issue would be resolved
5 subsequent to the entry of a judgment, if one is entered on 6 Highland's behalf. We'll just follow Rule 54 and come back in 7 a couple of weeks for a calculation of our costs, fees, and 8 interest.

9 If we can go to the next slide, I mentioned, Your 10 Honor, from, you know, I think any fair reading of the 11 Advisors' pleadings, you know, always changing, always trying 12 to adapt to the evidence instead of coming in with a consistent 13 story. You know? But we adapt and we respond. And this is 14 where we are.

15 Their original claim which was filed over a year ago
16 said, alleged that Highland stopped providing services in 17 July 2020. Obviously, that makes no sense. It's contradicted
18 by every single report to the Retail Board. They in fact
19 relied on the wrong contract in their original administrative 20 claim. They said that the NexPoint Shared Services Agreement
21 was an actual cost sharing agreement. And they cited not to 22 the applicable agreement, the one from January 2018, but they
23 cited to the wrong agreement, the one from 2013.

24 And their entire argument on overpayment was simply 25 that it was an overpayment because there were employees on that

1 Exhibit A were no longer employed by Highland, and it was
2 incredibly outdated. This is just, if you just look at 3 Paragraphs 16, 17, and 18 of their administrative claim, that's 4 all they said.

5           We responded in the fall of 2021. The Advisors filed
6 a response. They didn't really change their tune much on the 7 overpayments. But they insisted that they could not possibly 8 have waived any rights under any of the agreements because the 9 issue didn't crystalize for them until November 2020. Okay?
10 So they've shifted from July 2020 when we stopped providing 11 services. One would hope that they would have known if we'd 12 actually done that, to the issue not really crystalizing until
13 November 2020.

14           And then on the eve of trial, we got a completely new 15 and different story, a very contradictory theory. Instead of 16 saying that the issue didn't crystalize until November 2020,
17 all of a sudden we came up with Frank Waterhouse, not
18 Dave Klos, but Frank Waterhouse noted the overpayments.
19 There's no evidence that Frank Waterhouse did this.

20           But in any event, Frank Waterhouse noted the 21 overpayments in late 2019 and asked Fred Caruso, then allegedly 22 the CRO of Highland, to, quote, change the reimbursement
23 amounts, but was told nothing could be done because of the 24 automatic stay. Dustin Norris, right, he's quoted as having
25 repeatedly discussed the matter with Highland's controller

1 starting in late summer or early fall of 2020.

2 I don't know how you can make that statement when
3 just a couple of minutes before in your response you told the
4 Court that the issue didn't crystalize until November 2020.
5 Based on the pleadings, I don't think there's any way to 6 actually figure out when they learned what because it just 7 conflicts, all of the statements just conflict with each other.

8 But be that as it may, the important point is that on 9 the eve of trial, they were forced into the 2.02 corner.
10 Right? They had started out by saying Highland had the 11 obligation to change the amounts that were due because they
12 were in control under the Shared Services Agreement. When, you
13 know, that become untenable because of the language of 14 Section 2.02, they tried to go with the overpayment and just 15 say the interpretation of the contract was that they shouldn't 16 pay for employees who weren't there.

17 Now they're kind of, you know, last stop, last call.
18 The agreement, Highland breached the agreement because it
19 didn't negotiate in good faith under 2.02. Last call. Third
20 try, last call.

21 Your Honor, we believe everything I'm about to say is 22 irrelevant, if I can humbly say that, because the contract is 23 clear and unambiguous. But to the extent that the Court has a
24 different view, or to the extent the Court wants to get 25 comfortable that the plain and unambiguous terms of the

1 contract mean exactly what they say, we're going to just
2 summarize what the evidence was that led up to the execution of
3 the Payroll Reimbursement Agreements.

4 I don't think there's any dispute that 2017 was a
5 difficult year for Highland. In December of that year, if you
6 look at Exhibit 30, Sean Fox and Tim Cournoyer discussed
7 shifting NexPoint Shared Services Agreement to a flat monthly
8 fee. It's a very significant development, has nothing to do
9 with Dave Klos. I'm sure we're going to hear a lot of 10 criticism of Dave Klos. But understand that Dave Klos was not
11 involved at this point.

12 The following month, in January, Klos does get 13 involved. And he testifies that he gets instructions from 14 Mr. Dondero to increase from $1.2 million to $6 million the 15 total paid by the Advisors to Highland. And they come up with 16 an allocation for the services among NexPoint and its 17 affiliates. And that is also in the Exhibit 130. And that 18 happens on January 4th.

19 Within seven days, Frank Waterhouse executes on 20 behalf of Highland and NexPoint three agreements, a subadvisory
21 agreement, the new Shared Services Agreement, and the NexPoint
22 Real Estate Advisors Shared Services Agreement. And when you
23 add up the flat fees, there's no dispute, there can't be any 24 dispute that these are three flat-fee agreements that when you
25 add them up, it's $500,000. When you multiply it by 12 --

1 THE COURT: Mr. Morris, could you maybe close your
2 email box? Every time you get an email, we get that tone, and
3 it's kind of distracting.

4 MR. MORRIS: Sure. Okay. I'm just going to stop my
5 watch for a second and I'll do just that. Give me just a
6 moment, Your Honor.

7 (Pause)

8 MR. MORRIS: Okay. Can you hear me now?

9 THE COURT: Yeah. It's a little faint, but --

10 MR. MORRIS: Okay. But I think I solved the problem.
11 Okay. So --

12 THE COURT: Okay. Good.

13 MR. MORRIS: So they've got this $6 million. It's 14 three contracts, and they're all signed. If you look at 15 Exhibit 30, you have three signed agreements, right? And we're
16 going to hear criticism about Dave Klos and he's lying. But it
17 doesn't matter because there's no dispute that three agreements
18 are created. They equal the $6 million.

19 And Jim Dondero is told that because on January 26th
20 at Exhibit 86, you have the deck from the annual review
21 meeting. And Mr. Dondero and Mr. Okada are given a ton of 22 information, including the fact that the Acis CLOs will be
23 reset so that their useful life is extended for two more years,
24 they're projected to generate more than approximately $10
25 million of revenue which is the second largest source of

1 revenue.

2           They're told explicitly that the assumption in the
3 projections is that NexPoint and its subsidiaries will play a
4 flat $6 million per year for subadvisory and shared services.
5 And but that notwithstanding these changes, notwithstanding all
6 of this, Highland is still going to lose $12 million in 2018.
7 But that is the deal.

8           January 26th ends. They've got three signed
9 agreements. It's $6 million flat. They're looking forward to 10 getting this income from Acis. And if we turn the page, that's 11 when the wheels start to come off. And this is all very 12 important, right? This is both parole evidence as well as the 13 surrounding circumstances because within days, Josh Terry
14 commences the involuntary against Acis. That puts into -- that 15 puts at risk the $10 million that was projected for the 16 Highland complex in 2018.

17           So Mr. Fox and Mr. Cournoyer, not Mr. Klos, respond
18 by creating a flat-fee agreement for HCMFA, a subadvisory
19 agreement. Not a payroll reimbursement agreement. Nobody has 20 ever uttered those words at this point. It is a flat fee
21 subadvisory agreement based on the NexPoint template. And that 22 can be found at Exhibit 87. This is the best parole evidence
23 you can possibly have.

24           The wheels come off again. They think they solved
25 the Acis problem. But on March 15th, Lauren Thedford informs

1 Fox, Surgent, Cournoyer, and Post, right? Mr. Post is a chief
2 compliance officer for the Advisors. Ms. Thedford is not only
3 a lawyer, she's an officer of the Advisors. She's the
4 secretary of the Advisors. Dave Klos isn't even on this email
5 chain yet. He's aware of this, but he's not participating in 6 these conversations directly.

7 And Ms. Thedford informs the team, because this is a
8 team approach, that these subadvisory agreements are not viable
9 because they can't be retroactive, and they need Retail Board
10 approval and an in-person meeting. There was some testimony
11 from Mr. Norris I think about how -- I think he testified or 12 maybe the Retail Board representative did that the Retail Board
13 wasn't interested in front office services, or that they didn't 14 need investment advisory services, or that, you know, Highland
15 didn't supply.

16 Please. Look at Ms. Thedford's email. Why would
17 they need to obtain the Retail Board's approval at an in-person
18 meeting to enter into a subadvisory agreement if there was no
19 expectation and intention that Highland would be providing 20 subadvisory services to the advisors? It makes no sense. But 21 that's going to be the theme of this presentation.

22 So after coming to that conclusion that you can't go
23 retroactive and that you need the Retail Board's consent at an 24 in-person meeting, they come up with the concept for the 25 Payroll Reimbursement Agreement because it needs neither of

1 those things. Right? And otherwise, Highland is going to get
2 no revenue through June. I think Mr. Klos testified that that
3 number was about $4 million.

4 So she sends the draft of the PRA to Mr. Fox. And
5 this is the coincidence, Your Honor. The only reason that 6 Dave Klos gets involved is because Mr. Fox is on vacation. And 7 you can just look at Exhibit 87. And he adds Mr. Klos to the 8 email chain because Mr. Fox is out of the office. That's how 9 Mr. Klos gets involved. He's not there thinking that in two 10 years, Highland's going to be in bankruptcy and Jim Seery is 11 going to come along.

12 He's doing his job as a loyal employee to this 13 enterprise. And he tells Ms. Thedford that this isn't going to 14 work, and this is in writing, Your Honor. It's just crystal
15 clear. All of this analysis of actual costs involves 16 subjective assumptions. It creates a ton of internal work that 17 isn't adding any value to the overall complex. And that's how 18 they viewed this.

19 It's part of the overall complex. And that's a word
20 that we're going to hear a few times this afternoon. Mr. Klos
21 suggests having a schedule as of January 1st, 2018 and say that 22 Actual Cost with an uppercase A and C, shall be set out in the 23 schedule, paid monthly in installments so that the exercise is 24 only performed once. And then if nobody likes it, they can
25 terminate or they can renegotiate.

1           That's exactly what happened. That's what the
2 agreement now says. And Mr. Klos does create this $252,000
3 schedule, right? But again, that $252,000, that's just taken
4 from the subadvisory agreement that has already been signed on
5 behalf of NexPoint. Right? He says I backed into the number
6 and I did the best I could using that number. No debate about
7 that. You can't come up with those numbers, and we'll talk
8 about that in a minute. It can't be an accident.

9           I'll say, Your Honor, that's kind of -- that's how we
10 get to the agreement. And so on May 5th, I think, they signed
11 these Payroll Reimbursement Agreements. I don't think there's 12 any dispute that they do not exist. If Ms. Thedford doesn't 13 give the legal advice that the subadvisory agreements, the 14 flat-fee subadvisory agreements that have nothing to do with 15 costs, that don't identify anybody, right, would never exist if 16 those things were viable.

17           If we can go to the next slide, I've created some 18 issues, Your Honor, that I think are just we ask the Court to 19 consider because I think these issues and the testimony and the 20 evidence establish that Highland's testimony and the case that 21 we're presenting here is consistent, it is logical, and it is 22 completely corroborated in contrast to the Advisors.

23           And just to go through some of the issues, why did
24 NexPoint, why did their Shared Services Agreement change from a
25 variable contract to a fixed contract as of the beginning of

1 2018? Mr. Klos testified that it was to fit within the realm
2 of the $6 million. And remember, this is a 500 percent
3 increase in the amount that NexPoint is paying. They're going
4 from $1.2 million to $6 million. Okay?

5 The Advisors, I don't think, have much of an
6 explanation as to why they went from variable to fixed.
7 Mr. Dondero testified something about wanting to be compliant.
8 I don't know if that's an acknowledgment that for the six years
9 before that they weren't in compliance. But I don't understand
10 how the basis on which it's paid, whether it's actual cost or 11 assets under management or flat-fee, I don't see how one of 12 those is compliant and one isn't. In any event, they don't 13 really have any explanation as to why all of a sudden they went 14 to a flat fee.

15 They have no explanation as to where the $6 million
16 came from. Right? Mr. Dondero -- Mr. Klos stated that it came 17 from Mr. Dondero. And you know, this is, you know, part of the 18 burn the house down and not think about the consequences of 19 what you're saying. There was a suggestion during the trial
20 that somehow this was a fraudulent document.

21 We're not taking that position, Your Honor. We're 22 not saying that Mr. Dondero did anything fraudulent. We're 23 saying that there's business substance to this contract.
24 Highland needed cash. They were providing services.
25 Mr. Dondero had the opportunity to get a tax break. And so

1 they established a price.

2 Nobody's suggesting this is an arm's length
3 negotiation. Nobody's suggesting that the Advisors went out
4 and shopped this. There's no evidence to that. But there is
5 economic substance of it. And I really -- I really caution the 6 Advisors in throwing out things like tax fraud because you may 7 try to undermine Mr. Klos, but he reported to Mr. Waterhouse.
8 And Mr. Dondero is the ownership of the enterprise.

9 Mr. Waterhouse's signatures are on these documents.
10 And there's so many other people involved when you take that 11 kind of reckless approach. Right? Ms. Thedford, she's the 12 drafter of the documents. She's a lawyer. Mr. Cournoyer,
13 another lawyer, Mr. Fox. There are so many people involved in 14 this that it is just reckless to suggest that this is tax
15 fraud. We don't believe it. We want to enforce the contract,
16 Your Honor.

17 The Acis bankruptcy, we say that that had a huge
18 impact. And the undisputed evidence shows that because if you
19 look at the annual review, there is absolutely no expectation
20 on January 26th that HCFMA is going to pay any money for a
21 subadvisory agreement. It's just not there. It's not in the 22 projections, it's not in the assumptions. And the only reason
23 that HCMFA winds up first with the subadvisory agreement and 24 then with the Payroll Reimbursement Agreement is because of the 25 Acis bankruptcy.

1           They don't have an explanation as to why HCFMA didn't
2 sign one in January. They don't have an explanation as to why
3 they suddenly signed one in May, right? We do. It's because 4 of Acis. The surrounding circumstances we think are critical
5 here, Your Honor.

6           The flat-fee subadvisory agreement, right, it was the 7 subadvisory agreement signed by NexPoint, prepared by HCMFA.
8 There's no question that that was flat-fee. There's no
9 question it had nothing to do with actual cost. Why was it
10 abandoned in favor of these Payroll Reimbursement Agreement?
11 Not because somebody woke up one day and said oh, I only want
12 to pay for actual costs, but for the reasons that Ms. Thedford
13 said. Not Mr. Klos, Ms. Thedford, right, her email, can't be 14 retroactive, need Retail Board approval at an in-person
15 meeting.

16           They have no explanation as to why they -- they'll 17 just ignore. I don't think you'll hear anything in the 18 Advisors' presentation about the subadvisory agreement and why
19 it was abandoned, and what's the genesis of the Payroll
20 Reimbursement Agreements.

21           Dual employees, why weren't dual employees -- if
22 costs were so paramount to the Advisors, why isn't there a
23 provision that says dual employees should keep track of their 24 time because we only want to pay for the time that they expend
25 on the Advisors' matters. Nobody thought about it, nobody

1 cared about it. There's no evidence that it was ever done.

2           There is no infrastructure in place to calculate,
3 other than subjective, and I think you heard this not from
4 Mr. Klos, not just from Mr. Klos but from Mr. Waterhouse too,
5 there is no way to do this except subjectively because nobody
6 created the infrastructure that would actually allow somebody
7 to figure out the actual costs. Very important point when
8 you're here saying I should only pay for actual costs.

9           If we can go to the next slide, was it a coincidence
10 that the actual costs under the Payroll Reimbursement
11 Agreements matched the flat monthly fees under the subadvisory
12 agreements? We say no. Right? Mr. Klos testified that the 13 parties kept the flat fee the exact same, and backed into the 14 number while, quote, trying to find a reasonable estimate that 15 would also validate the outcome that was already known.

16           So you're trying to put a shoe, so you need a
17 shoehorn. Okay. People use shoehorns, right, just like
18 there's nothing wrong with taking tax issues into account.
19 This is an agreement. Nobody's pretending it's an arm's length
20 agreement, but it is an agreement of economic substance. There
21 is no question that Highland is providing services. There's no
22 question they're entitled to get paid for those services.
23 Okay? And that's all that's happening here.

24           The Advisors have absolutely no explanation as to how 25 the numbers in the Payroll Reimbursement Agreements, why they

1 match to the penny, the numbers that are in the subadvisory
2 agreements. The December 2018, you know, was that a result of
3 a true up? Again, the undisputed evidence is that it's not.
4 Mr. Klos said there was no true up. Mr. Waterhouse says there
5 was no true up. And it makes no sense if you just look at the
6 economics. We'll look at this more in a few minutes. But I
7 think nine of the dual employees had already been terminated as
8 of this time, and yet the advisors are paying substantially
9 more money. Okay?

10 Mr. Norris said that Frank and Dave Klos told him
11 that it was the result of a true up. I think Mr. Klos was 12 probably hitting the nail on the head when he just said I think
13 Mr. Norris is mistaken, okay, because the people who were 14 actually involved, and Mr. Norris candidly admitted he has no
15 personal knowledge about anything that happened in 16 December 2018.

17 Why did the Advisors pay the flat fee in each of the 18 Payroll Reimbursement Agreements for 35 consecutive months from 19 January 2018 until November 2020, knowing that the dual 20 employees were being terminated? We say it's because they
21 understood that's what the agreement provided. They say I
22 don't know. I don't know. I don't know. It's a mistake. I
23 don't know. They have no explanation.

24 They didn't even file a proof of claim for the two 25 years before the bankruptcy. Right? If their theory of the

1 case were right, where was their pre-petition claim? Right?
2 Why didn't they move to amend for leave to file a pre-petition
3 claim for the two years under Mr. Dondero's watch when Highland
4 did exactly what they did in 2020.

5 Did the Advisors know the amounts that were being
6 paid? The evidence is overwhelming. It includes the annual
7 review. It includes the advisor's books and records. It
8 includes the fact that the advisors gave the amounts paid to 9 the Retail Board. It includes, remember all the testimony from 10 Mr. Waterhouse about the 13-week forecast that included all of 11 the payments that were anticipated to be paid.

12 And my favorite may be Exhibit 150, Your Honor.
13 That's the April 14th, 2020, one-page cash-flow statement that 14 was given to Mr. Dondero that showed in April, May, June, July,
15 August, September, October, November, and December of 2020,
16 NexPoint would pay, you got it, $500,000 or $6 million a year,
17 the same number that was in Dave Klos' January 4th email, the 18 same number that was in the contracts themselves, the same
19 number that was in the annual review. No mystery here, Your 20 Honor.

21 Did the advisors know when each dual employee left?
22 Of course they did. Exhibits 88 to 127, every single month,
23 all of the Advisors' officers, m. Waterhouse, Ms. Thedford,
24 Mr. Norris, they're all getting these monthly reports that 25 highlight all of the terminations.

1           So what do they do? They manufacture a dispute. If
2 we can go to the next slide. Highland gives notice of 3 termination of the Shared Services Agreements on November 30th.
4 And this is where the rubber meets the road. Everybody knows
5 what's happening now. Highland has just had its plan and its
6 disclosure statement approved by the Court.

7           Everybody knows that Highland is going to be winding
8 down. Everybody knows that if confirmed, right, all of these 9 employees are going to be terminated. And they're supposed to 10 be working toward shifting them to a new platform so that they
11 can service the Advisors and the other non-debtor entities that 12 Mr. Dondero owned and controlled.

13           And the very next morning at 8:53, Mr. Norris walks
14 into the office and he starts sending the emails. And he
15 states it's worth noting that the subadvisory fees were higher
16 than the Shared Services fees. So need to make sure these 17 agreements are fully understood. So on December 1st, this is 18 Mr. Norris' task after notice of termination is given. Let's
19 make sure we understand the agreements.

20           A couple of days later, Your Honor will recall,
21 Highland filed a motion for a temporary restraining order and 22 injunctive relief against Mr. Dondero to enjoin the threats
23 that he was making, to enjoin the interference with Highland's
24 business. And the next day, according to the document anyway,
25 Mr. Klos sent Mr. Waterhouse what became the basis for this

1 claim here today.

2 Mr. Klos asked Mr. Waterhouse point blank, are you
3 going to use this for an adverse purpose, and he was sure that
4 he wouldn't. Mr. Waterhouse, to his credit, wouldn't take
5 Mr. Klos on that. He simply said I don't have a basis to say
6 one way or the other. I don't remember. Right? He didn't 7 deny that.

8 Remember my questioning of Mr. Waterhouse? Why did
9 you prepare this document? And he said that Mr. Dondero and 10 Mr. Norris told him there were negotiations going on. And I
11 pressed him harder. But you weren't involved in the 12 negotiations. So why were you asking for this document. And 13 he wound up saying because I like numbers. That was the story
14 that Mr. Waterhouse told as to why he asked Mr. Klos to do this 15 on December 8th.

16 Two days later, we obtained our TRO. And the next
17 day, K&L Gates sent their letter. And they didn't send this 18 letter under 2.02. Sure, they wanted to talk. The notes are 19 discussed in there. The Shared Services Agreements are 20 discussed in here. And what they're demanding in that letter,
21 if you read it, Your Honor, isn't, you know, how can we, you
22 know, change this going forward. They're trying to renegotiate
23 the deal.

24 They're demanding exactly what the Advisors are 25 demanding now, and that is we want to just pay for the services

1 of the employees who are on Exhibit A. That's not a 2.02 good
2 faith negotiation. That's a demand that ultimately led to
3 litigation very shortly thereafter.

4 By January 6th, in fact, we had commenced the lawsuit
5 against the Advisors and against the funds for declaratory and
6 injunctive relief. That was filed -- that's the adversary
7 proceeding 21-03000.

8 So this is where we are. It's pretty tense. If Your 9 Honor recalls, the notice of termination was the end of 10 January. And Highland hadn't gotten paid in a couple months.
11 And they told the Advisors that if you don't pay up, we're 12 cutting you off. You haven't paid in months. And so
13 Mr. Norris participated in a conversation with Mr. Waterhouse,
14 Mr. Klos, and some others.

15 And he wrote a note to himself. And I think it's 16 such a critical piece of evidence, Your Honor. I would have
17 objected to it, but I think it's so good for Highland that I
18 would rather actually have it into the record. At 2:22 a.m. in 19 the wee hours of the morning, Mr. Norris sent a note to himself
20 at a Gmail account in which he purports to record, as he said,
21 true and accurately everything he remembered about this 22 conversation.

23 Remember the moment in time. It's January 28th.
24 We've already sued them for injunctive relief. They've already 25 filed their administrative claim. We are two days away from

1 the confirmation hearing. Highland is telling the advisors if
2 you don't pay, we're shutting you off. And let's look what
3 Mr. Norris' notes say because they are priceless.

4 The overall tone was not friendly. It was
5 adversarial from the beginning as J.P., that's J.P. Sevilla
6 (phonetic), dove in with a very adversarial tone and a take it
7 or leave it or lose your business approach. And there was a
8 contentious back and forth throughout. Think about the tone of 9 this meeting. Think about the tension.

10 I hope the Court, you know, has read the whole
11 document because before you get to the next piece that I've 12 highlighted, Mr. Norris makes a point of writing that he
13 reminded Mr. Waterhouse that he was the signer of the Payroll
14 Reimbursement Agreements on behalf of the Advisors. And then
15 it continues in the highlighted, I reminded Frank that the only
16 people paying the amounts each month had been Frank and Dave,
17 and that no one else that I know of has the ability to process
18 the payments.

19 And here is where Frank reached for the lifeline.
20 Frank said they have known that these amounts were overpayments
21 for over a year and tried to update them, but they couldn't due
22 to the automatic stay. I pressed him. Imagine being pressed
23 by Mr. Norris in this conversation under these circumstances,
24 adversarial, not friendly, contentious. You're being told you
25 signed the contracts. You're being told you messed up. I

1 pressed him on this. I was not aware at all of this fact.

2 So this is the first time Frank -- this is the
3 circumstance under which Frank makes the disclosure. He said
4 they had discussed it with inside and outside counsel, and
5 there was nothing they could do now due to the automatic stay.
6 Think about that, Your Honor. Where are the words Fred Caruso?

7 Frank Waterhouse was not afraid of Jim Seery. He was 8 afraid of Jim Dondero. Frank Waterhouse had taken at least
9 $500,000, but probably more of that $10 million undisclosed
10 payment. The finger is being pointed at him. He signed these 11 agreements. He approved the payments. And he says I told
12 them. I told them. They said there was nothing they could do
13 because of the automatic stay.

14 He doesn't mention Fred Caruso. Right? And remember
15 when I cross-examined Mr. Waterhouse and I said Mr. Waterhouse,
16 I was here with you in December of 2019. I was defending you
17 in a deposition. You didn't tell me anything about this, isn't 18 that right? And he said that's right. Did you tell anybody at 19 my firm about this? No.

20 Mr. Norris pressed him. Right? He reminded him,
21 reminded him of his obligations, reminded him of signatures on 22 here, reminded him that he was in charge of the payments,
23 pressed him on this new story that he'd never heard before.
24 And this is what Frank came up with.

25 If we can go to the next slide, Mr. Waterhouse's

1 story, and you know, I feel badly for Mr. Waterhouse. He was
2 put in a terrible position. And I'm not running over him,
3 right? I think Mr. Waterhouse did his job. I think he did --
4 he signed the contract. The lawyers for the advisors,
5 Ms. Thedford, drafted the contract.

6 The contract reflected the back and forth and the 7 intent of the parties. Mr. Waterhouse was the fiduciary. He
8 did his job. But they didn't like the result. They didn't 9 like the result when they saw everything moving away from 10 Mr. Dondero, when they saw the disclosure statement get 11 approved, when they saw the entry of the TRO, when they saw the 12 termination of the Shared Services Agreements.

13 And so now they're coming after Mr. Waterhouse. And 14 Mr. Waterhouse says what he says, and it just makes no sense.
15 It just makes no sense. His story is that in December 2019, he 16 claims that he heard from Mr. Klos that the Advisors were 17 overpaying under the Payroll Reimbursement Agreements, that he 18 raised the issue with Mr. Leventon, Mr. Ellington, and 19 Mr. Caruso and was told nothing could be done because of the 20 automatic stay.

21 That is the story. That's their 2.02 you failed to 22 negotiate in good faith because they raised the issue with 23 Mr. Caruso. Let's look, let's test that theory just a little 24 bit. If Your Honor remembers, Frank Waterhouse had nothing to 25 do with the creation of the analysis in December of 2019. That

1 was Mr. Leventon and Mr. Klos.

2 Mr. Klos testified that he was trying to create an
3 analysis that painted the agreements in their most positive
4 light because the UCC was pressing on the inter-company
5 relationships. If Mr. Klos had an analysis that showed that
6 these contracts were wildly profitable, wouldn't he have given
7 that to the UCC? Wouldn't he have shown it to Mr. Seery the 8 next month?

9 Mr. Seery testified about the pressure he was under 10 from the UCC for months. He testified about a conversation he 11 had with the Committee in March where Josh Terry pressed him on 12 these agreements. He didn't know anything about this amazing
13 profitability of the PRAs.

14 Mr. Waterhouse never told anybody? Is that credible
15 that Mr. Waterhouse never told a soul other than Mr. Ellington,
16 Mr. Leventon, and Mr. Caruso? Never told the independent
17 board, never told Mr. Dondero, never told an officer of the 18 Advisors? Is that really possible? And when you hear his 19 explanation when I cross-examined him, he said I had 20,000
20 other things to do. Really?

21 Mr. Ellington and Mr. Leventon never told
22 Mr. Dondero? You have to believe that. If you buy their 23 story, you must believe that Mr. Ellington and Mr. Leventon
24 never told Mr. Dondero that they had been informed that the 25 Advisors were overpaying the debtor because otherwise, it would

1 have appeared in the administrative claim. It would have
2 appeared in the response. Maybe Mr. Dondero would have
3 testified to it.

4 There's no evidence of that at all. And I'll remind
5 the Court that in December 2020, even after the TRO was
6 entered, Mr. Ellington and Mr. Dondero had free-flowing
7 communications. But a year earlier, Mr. Ellington didn't raise
8 this with Mr. Dondero? Makes no sense.

9 Mr. Waterhouse knew that Fred Caruso was not the CRO.
10 It's crazy that they even suggest that. All they have to do is 11 look at the documents. Mr. Waterhouse's name appears on 24
12 different monthly operating reports as the preparer of those 13 documents. And right above every report, I did make a mistake
14 in my deck here because I wrote until January 2021. It's 15 actually until July 2020. But from October 2019 until 16 July 2020, whose name appears above Frank's? Brad Sharp
17 (phonetic) because Brad Sharp is the CRO.

18 Fred Caruso was an employee of DSI. So the whole
19 notion that Fred Caruso was the CRO is just wrong.
20 Mr. Waterhouse's testimony is obviously contradicted by 21 Mr. Norris' notes because Mr. Norris' notes don't mention
22 Frank Waterhouse. It -- Fred Caruso. It mentions inside and 23 outside counsel.

24 Do you really believe that if Mr. Waterhouse knew
25 that there were overpayments being made, he wouldn't write it

1 down, he wouldn't make a memo to himself, he wouldn't look to
2 confirm what he was told, he wouldn't do -- there's no
3 evidence. How is that possible?

4 But here's the best part, Your Honor. Fred --
5 according -- right? Jim Dondero testified Frank was the 6 fiduciary. He's the person in charge for administering the 7 contracts. And this Court has to believe, if you're going to 8 buy the Advisors' position that Frank Waterhouse learned in 9 December 2019 of the overpayments. And you know what he did?
10 Not only didn't he tell anybody, but he just kept authorizing
11 those payments month after month after month after month.

12 I don't know why they're putting Frank into this 13 vice. This is the burn the house down strategy. They don't 14 care. They'll take no prisoners here, Your Honor. This is 15 just, it's wrong. It's just wrong.

16 I just want to finish by pointing to the evidence
17 that shows that Highland fully performed here. If we can go to 18 the next page, what I've done here, Your Honor, is the Payroll
19 Reimbursement Agreements were in effect for three years, 2018,
20 '19, and '20. Right? Each year has 12 months. 2018, 2019,
21 undisputed evidence Mr. Dondero was in control of the whole
22 enterprise. He was actually in control until 23 January 9th, 2020.

24 And what I've done here is I've taken Exhibit 14
25 which is the Advisors' responses to the interrogatory and I've

1 overlaid the month in which each of the employees on -- the
2 dual employees on Exhibit A was terminated. And the red
3 signifies an important event so that you can see May 2018,
4 that's when the Payroll Reimbursement Agreement is entered
5 into.

6           From the minute that Frank Waterhouse puts his ink on 7 the signature, right, with the advice of Ms. Thedford, the 8 Advisors' secretary, officer, and a lawyer, and fiduciary, the 9 minute he puts his name on the document they're already 10 overpaying according to them. Right, because four people have 11 been terminated and yet they're paying a flat fee based on
12 January 1st, 2018.

13           By the end of the year, four more people have left.
14 They enter into the amendments, right? No adjustment at all to 15 the flat monthly fee. Instead, they pay more money even though
16 there's nine people gone. By the time you get to the petition
17 date, five more people are gone. They're still paying the flat
18 monthly fee. For two consecutive years, the Advisors paid
19 millions and millions and millions of dollars to Highland for 20 services rendered because they were getting front office
21 advisory services.

22           Let's go to the next slide. And here's the proof.
23 You only need three documents, Your Honor. Right? You're 24 going to hear probably, you know, a reliance on Mr. Norris'
25 uncorroborated testimony about how they didn't, you know, they

1 had a change in business model and they didn't need the
2 advisory services, and the retail funds didn't need the 3 advisory, and nobody needed anything.

4           They kept paying, right? Just I don't know who's 5 more negligent here. But somebody was. Somebody on behalf of 6 the Advisors if they continued to pay all of this money for 7 services they don't need. The truth of the matter is, Your
8 Honor, that's all a fiction. There's not a single document
9 that's going to support any of that testimony, any of that 10 argument.

11           The documents that actually completely contradict it
12 are three. You start with Exhibit 14. In the right-hand
13 column, those are the dates of departure that the Advisors have 14 admitted to. You next go to Exhibit 85. Exhibit 85 is -- it
15 was a request from the Retail Board in January of 2020. So
16 Mr. Dondero has just stepped aside. The independent board is 17 put in place. And the Retail Board sends a request to 18 Highland, please provide an updated organizational chart
19 relating to the Highland complex. Right?

20           They want to know the whole complex because the whole
21 complex, there's that word again, the whole complex is serving
22 the Advisors. The whole complex is serving the retail funds.
23 The retail funds wouldn't be asking for organizational charges
24 and information relating to the Highland complex if they didn't 25 rely on the Highland complex. And there would be no reason to.

1 There would be no reason for the Advisors to provide
2 information about the Highland complex if the Highland wasn't
3 serving the retail funds.

4 And what information did they provide? They
5 provided, you'll see at Exhibit 85, Your Honor, a list of every
6 single employee in the Highland complex. And they specifically
7 delineate whether the employee was back office, or investment
8 professionals. And you won't be surprised to learn, Your 9 Honor, that every person on this list in front of you was 10 identified as an investment professional, not providing back
11 office services.

12 So the Advisors told the Retail Board in January of 13 2020 these are the people in the Highland who are providing -- 14 these are the investment professionals. That's one moment in 15 time. And the best is that eight months later in August, the 16 Retail Board follows up and they ask again who was doing what 17 work, what's happening.

18 And if you look at Exhibit 17, one of the questions
19 the Retail Board asks is what's happening with the bankruptcy.
20 And you'll see at Page 2 of this memo the Advisors describe the 21 bankruptcy, and then they say -- and this is dated August 13.
22 It's in response to a 15(c) request. And the Advisors say,
23 quote, we continue to treat HCMLP and its affiliates as the 24 Advisors' affiliates for purposes of discussions with the 25 board.

1           Okay? So the Advisors are telling the Retail Board
2 that Highland and its affiliates are still affiliates of the 3 Advisors for purposes of discussions with the Retail Board.
4 But wait, there's more. They identify every one of the 5 investment professionals again. And it's all footnoted here.
6 And not only every single one of these investment professionals
7 who the Retail Board was told in January was an investment
8 professional, every one of them in January was still there in 9 August with the exception of Trey Parker.

10           And what's also interesting, Your Honor, and 11 consistent with both Mr. Waterhouse's emails and Mr. Klos'
12 testimony, you'll see that there are several people there that
13 weren't identified as dual employees. They weren't identified
14 on Exhibit A. But they're still providing investment
15 professionals. And do you know why they aren't on Exhibit A?
16 Because they were hired after the Payroll Reimbursement
17 Agreements were signed. It's that simple.

18           And so people's responsibilities changed. And if you
19 note, even Trey Parker, a dual employee, it shows that he left
20 on February 28th, 2020. There's a whole -- I don't have the 21 Exhibit numbers handy, Your Honor. But there's a whole slew of 22 title changes where a whole bunch of people got elevated to 23 investment advisory-type positions.

24           And that's what's happening here. He leaves and his
25 responsibilities are divvied up among other Highland employees.

1 This is what they're telling the Retail Board. These are not
2 our documents. These documents were produced by the Advisors
3 and by the retail funds. So don't take my word for it, take
4 their word for it.

5           There is a reason that the Advisors are telling the 6 Retail Board that these are our investment professionals in
7 January, these are our investment professionals in August,
8 because these are the people in the Highland complex who are 9 doing work for you, because otherwise, this makes no sense and 10 I'll be waiting patiently to hear an explanation as to why all
11 of this information is being provided to the Retail Board if 12 the Advisors don't need these people, the Retail Board doesn't 13 need these people, and that everything's changed.

14           At the end of the day, Your Honor, again, whacking
15 moles. I'm just whacking moles. Highland performed, the 16 contracts are unambiguous, the Frank Waterhouse story is beyond
17 belief. It's contradicted by Mr. Norris' own notes. And we
18 respectfully request that the Court grant Highland a judgment
19 in the amount set forth in the slide up above subject to a
20 collection of attorneys fees, and deny the Advisors' claims in 21 all respects. Thank you, Your Honor.

22           I believe that's 48 minutes by my count.

23           THE COURT: Let me check with my law clerk. He had 24 49. Okay. We'll call it 48 and a half. All right.
25 Mr. Rukavina, I'll hear from you.

1 MR. RUKAVINA: Thank you, Your Honor.

2 And, Mr. Berghman, if you'll please put up my slides.

3 Your Honor just heard 49 minutes of irrelevancies,
4 misdirection, and smear. Now let's look at some facts and law.
5 Overall, there are two facts and conclusions that cannot be
6 contradicted.

7 First is that there is no support for the allegation
8 that the Payroll Agreements were, quote, pay for services
9 agreements. You heard that in opening, that they were pay for 10 services, meaning that we have to pay them because the services
11 are allegedly being provided regardless of the terms of the 12 agreements.

13 The only possible evidence on that was from Mr. Klos
14 when he was testifying about how the numbers were arrived at.
15 And as you can see there, it's on his transcript. I asked him
16 very clearly about that. And he said it would be just 17 speculation. So, Your Honor, there is no support for any pay
18 for service agreements, $5 million and $6 million per year as a
19 funding mechanism.

20 And more importantly, you heard Mr. Morris state that
21 we agree there is no ambiguity in these contracts. Mr. Morris
22 took you what he admitted was parole evidence after parole
23 evidence. He called one document the best parole evidence.
24 That is not admissible to contradict the terms of these
25 contracts. Next slide, please.

1 On the issue of the bona fides of the contracts --

2 THE COURT: All right. I am not -- I'm not seeing
3 the shared content. Are other WebEx participants seeing it?

4 MR. MORRIS: I am, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Mr. Morris? I'm sorry, you said yes you
6 have it?

7 MR. MORRIS: Yes. I can see it on the screen. I
8 didn't receive a copy, but I can see it on the screen.

9 THE COURT: Yeah. We have a frozen picture of 10 Mr. Rukavina's face on what's supposed to be the shared screen.
11 Mike, do you have it? Yeah. Okay. Well --

12 MR. RUKAVINA: You know what, this happened -- can 13 you hear me, Your Honor?

14 THE COURT: Yes. I can hear you and see you fine on 15 my screen.

16 MR. RUKAVINA: Yeah, this happened before. This
17 happened before. Can you see it now?

18 THE COURT: Oh, wait. Now something is happening.
19 It's --

20 MR. RUKAVINA: This happened to Mr. Morris last week.
21 And I think Ms. Alaysia (phonetic) would just close the 22 PowerPoint and reopen it. Can the Court see?

23 THE COURT: Okay. Yeah. Right now I've just got a
24 blank screen, a black screen. So is Ms. Canti turning
25 something off?

1 MR. RUKAVINA: No. Mr. Berghman just turned it off
2 and -- try again, Thomas. Just close the screen share and then
3 restart the screen share.

4 Can the Court see it?

5 THE COURT: I can't see it. No. But everyone else
6 can see it apparently, except me, right?

7 Mr. Morris, you see it?

8 MR. MORRIS: I do, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Do we have a hard copy of this?
10 Was it --

11 MR. RUKAVINA: We do not. I emailed it to Mr. Morris
12 an hour ago. Let me email it, Your Honor, if you would 13 like --

14 THE COURT: Ms. Ellison.

15 MR. RUKAVINA: Yeah, Ms. Ellison. Let me just --

16 THE COURT: Okay. If you'll email it to her, then
17 she can email it to me and I'll pop it up on my other screen.

18 MR. MORRIS: And just to be clear, it was emailed to 19 me 14 minutes ago at my request. Thank you.

20 (Pause)

21 MR. RUKAVINA: I sent it to you at 1:49, John. But 22 it doesn't matter. Ms. Ellison should have it momentarily.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Traci, are you out there on the 24 WebEx?

25 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Yes, Your Honor. I'm here.

1 THE COURT: Okay. While we're waiting, Mr. Rukavina,
2 just to confirm, we don't have a dispute that the agreements
3 are ambiguous. You don't think they're ambiguous. You just
4 have a different interpretation of what they mean. Correct?
5 **Crystal

6 MR. RUKAVINA: I don't know that I have a different
7 interpretation. They are unambiguous, and I think Mr. Morris
8 and I agreed on the four provisions or so that govern. My 9 argument is that we properly and timely trigger those 10 provisions.

11 Mr. Berghman, can you --

12 THE COURT: Oh, I've got it now. I've got it now.
13 The shared screen is working now. Go ahead.

14 MR. RUKAVINA: Just let me --

15 MR. BERGHMAN: Your Honor, it's in a PDF as opposed
16 to a PowerPoint. Maybe that's the technology issue, so I think
17 this may work.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Good deal.

19 MR. RUKAVINA: Okay. Maximize the deck, Thomas,
20 because we're seeing your other stuff on there. No. No. Your 21 Honor, I'm going to mute this and call my partner.

22 (Pause)

23 THE COURT: Yeah. Mr. Rukavina, I don't know if 24 you're on hold or you can hear me. I've got the PowerPoint
25 version up that you emailed to Traci which she emailed to me,

1 so if --

2 MR. RUKAVINA: Okay.

3 THE COURT: -- that helps what you're doing, I've got
4 a PowerPoint version up.

5 MR. RUKAVINA: Okay. Thank you then. Let's resume.
6 Mr. Berghman, please pull it up like you had it originally.
7 Everyone else can see it and Judge Jernigan, we'll just follow
8 Your Honor manually. I would ask you to advance it.

9 THE COURT: Uh-huh. Okay.

10 MR. RUKAVINA: So, Your Honor, the first slide, we 11 are now in the second slide called Advisors' administrative 12 claim.

13 THE COURT: Okay.

14 MR. RUKAVINA: And you see I have a listing of eight
15 points. So, you know, what I was discussing is to go back to 16 the bonifieds of these contracts. Mr. Klos testified very 17 clearly that he prepared the underlying reimbursement
18 allocations in good faith and reasonably. Yes, there's some 19 subjectivity, but accountants and controllers and financial 20 types know how to take those account.

21 Both Waterhouse and Dondero testified that those 22 amounts were arrived at through a good faith process by 23 Highland's team. And let me just add something to what Mr.
24 Morris keeps mentioning here, somehow that Highland always
25 wears the white hat and the Advisors always wear the dark hat

1 here. Let's not forget that this is the same Debtor that
2 participated in the drafting of these contracts. Its employees
3 drafted these contracts. As we said, these are not arms length
4 negotiations.

5 So for him to say or ask questions like, the Advisors
6 have no explanation for this or the Advisors can't explain that
7 and I can't wait for an explanation. He should ask that of his
8 own client, of his own self. It takes two to tango, Your 9 Honor, and they stand in the shoes of the Debtor.

10 You know for a fact that Highland was actually able 11 to track employee time because you saw in my Exhibit 88 that 12 every month they sent invoices under the HCMFA Shared Services
13 Agreement where they tracked Highland time. Ms. Thedford would 14 not have used outside counsel to advise on these contracts if 15 there was something funny about these contracts.

16 Mr. Waterhouse and Mr. Dondero both testified that 17 outside auditors and legal advise was used. At no time until 18 he testified did Mr. Klos raise any red flag regarding any of 19 what he did or his analyses or these contracts. And you heard
20 from him that -- and from everyone else -- that he was the most 21 credible man in that trial.

22 So, again, all that is just to say there is no
23 ambiguity. There is no red flag. The contracts are what they 24 are and they should be interpreted according to their terms.
25 If we can advance the slide, Your Honor, please.

1           The second main fact that the Court should consider
2 is that the fact of overpayment is incontestable. There can be
3 -- we can argue under the law whether we're allowed to get the 4 overpayments, but the fact of overpayment is incontestable. We
5 all know what reimbursement means. We all know what actual
6 cost is defined at. You can only be reimbursed for your actual
7 out of pocket costs for the employees. There is no profit.

8           There's no dispute that many employees were not
9 there. We were paying for 20 employees out of 25 that were not 10 there. Please don't fall for the misdirection, Your Honor,
11 that, well, four of the employees weren't there when the 12 contracts were signed. Recall from Mr. Klos that he was 13 preparing that list as of January 1, 2018, which was the 14 effective date.

15           So, yes, those four employees weren't there in May,
16 but they were there in January. And again, Mr. Klos prepared
17 the list of 20 employees. If there was something funny about 18 this, he, the most credible man in the courtroom, would not
19 have done that.

20           You have the December 2019 analysis. This is post-
21 bankruptcy. The Debtor is a fiduciary. The Debtor has an 22 outside financial advisor. Mr. Klos, that financial advisor,
23 and Mr. Waterhouse, internally calculate that the Debtor is 24 making a $3 million profit that's a snapshot in time under 25 these contracts. And they shared that information with the

1 committee. That's their own work product. There's no funny
2 business there. There's no funny math.

3 Mr. Klos' December 2020 analysis shows that the
4 profit as a snapshot in time had ballooned to $6.6 million. It
5 doesn't matter why Mr. Waterhouse asked him to prepare that
6 analysis. It doesn't matter. Mr. Klos can invent whatever
7 reason he thinks Mr. Waterhouse did. Mr. Waterhouse prepared a
8 professional analysis for his bosses. And he calculated $6.6
9 million.

10 His current attempt to discredit his own work is 11 unbelievable. He doesn't like the conclusion that he reached.
12 He doesn't like the fact of overpayment because now he's the 13 Debtor's CFO, so he tries to discredit himself. That was not
14 credible at all. And his evasiveness on my cross-examination
15 was disturbing. The assumptions that Mr. Klos used were 16 utterly reasonable. He used the actual number of employees at 17 that point and time and he used the fact that there were no
18 bonuses being paid.

19 Now Mr. Norris, in hindsight, calculated the $2.6
20 million delta as opposed to 6.6 million. Now, let's look at 21 very briefly why Mr. Norris' calculations are accurate and 22 reliable. Highland stipulated that his underlying source of 23 data and his math were correct. Your Honor will recall that 24 whereas Mr. Klos assumed no bonuses, it's true that certain
25 bonuses were paid to non-insiders. Well, Mr. Norris took that

1 into account. He didn't give you an artificially inflated
2 number. He said, okay. Some bonuses were paid, so the number
3 is going to go down.

4 Mr. Norris' calculation is cumulative. What Mr. Klos
5 did was a snapshot in time, but not all the employees were gone
6 at the same time. So Mr. Norris, as I told you, went month by 7 month and looked at which employees were there and how much
8 were they actually paid.

9 Another very important thing, Your Honor, Mr. Klos'
10 analysis included certain replacement employees, again, under 11 this theory that Payroll Reimbursement Agreements are actually
12 service agreements in addition to the service agreements. So
13 Mr. Klos, I think there were six or seven employees who he 14 unilaterally replaced. Well, that can't be. As Mr. Norris
15 testified, none of those employees were front office investment
16 advisory employees.

17 So you have -- oh, and Mr. Norris used David Klos
18 allocations. Mr. Klos again testified that those allocations
19 were reasonable. That was not rebutted. And Mr. Norris
20 confirmed that those allocations were reasonable. But even if 21 the Court says for those five employees it should have somehow
22 been 100 percent allocation, we still overpaid $4.4 million,
23 but the Court shouldn't do that. The fact of the matter is 24 that Mr. Norris' calculations were never rebutted. He wasn't 25 even cross-examined about them. If we could go to the next

1 slide, please.

2 And Highland knew of the overpayments. Again, we
3 have the facts of DSI. We have the fact of the committee. We
4 have Mr. Klos' email where he writes to my client that the fact
5 that there's fewer employees has increased the profitability of 6 these contracts from Highland's perspective.

7 You have multiple other admissions from Mr. Klos of 8 the overpayments and you have a very strong item of 9 circumstantial evidence that you got no explanation for from 10 anyone, which was why did Highland terminate the Shared
11 Services Agreements right around December 1, but did not 12 terminate the Payroll Agreements until the very end of 13 February, and only after being demanded to do so by my client.
14 Because they were making a profit that they knew that they
15 shouldn't have been making.

16 Your Honor should expect more of a fiduciary, more of 17 a debtor-in-possession, more of people that my client was 18 paying big money to every month to perform services. They 19 can't just stick their head in the ground, make millions of 20 dollars of profit extra contractually, and not do anything
21 about it. Next slide. Your Honor, if we can go to the next
22 slide.

23 So my first argument, Your Honor, is that we don't 24 have to look at the contract. We look at what is an
25 administrative claim. Basically, if my clients provided value

1 to the estate that they did not receive return consideration
2 for, then that is an administrative claim. That's the Supreme
3 Court. That's Judge -- former Judge Lynn in the Northern
4 District. And you also have the fact that these were unassumed
5 and unrejected contracts. And the breach of contract, separate
6 and apart from an overpayment, a breach of contract is an
7 administrative claim unless and until the contract is rejected.

8           So that is our most simple argument. We provided
9 value in the form of cash money to the Debtor post petition for 10 which we did not receive services. As we've always pled,
11 there's been no changing of our story as has been alleged.
12 That's absurd. There's been a refinement of our numbers
13 through discovery, which is how the process should work.

14           If we can go to the next slide, please, Your Honor.

15           If the Court concludes that you actually have to look 16 at the contracts, you can't just rely on what is an 17 administrative claim, you have to look at the contracts, then 18 the fundamental purpose of these contracts is to reimburse for 19 actual costs. Again, I think we agree on that, Mr. Morris and 20 I. That is the overriding purpose. And the word reimbursement
21 is used many times in here.

22           It is true that those contracts define what actual 23 cost is on a monthly basis unless those number are changed as 24 set forth in Section 2.02. That is true. So, as long as no
25 change is made, then the preset numbers control. And that's

1 okay.

2 Your Honor will recall from Mr. Klos' and Ms.
3 Thedford's email exchange that it was very cumbersome to figure
4 this out. So Mr. Klos is the one who suggested, well, let's
5 just make it a monthly amount and if we have to change it,
6 we'll change it. We can go to the next slide, Your Honor,
7 please.

8 The problem now is, as Mr. Morris correctly pointed 9 out, it's Section 2.02. So Section 2.02 needs to be triggered
10 in order to modify the pre-settlements. And Section 4.02 also 11 bears a role. But let's not forget what Section 2.02 says, the 12 last line. The parties will negotiate in good faith the terms
13 of such modification. The Debtor very conveniently ignores
14 that.

15 And Section 4.02 says that either party may make a
16 request for a modification. It doesn't say how that request
17 must be made. It doesn't say it must be formal, in writing.
18 It says either party may make a request for a change.

19 Therefore, I think the contractual analysis is very,
20 very simple. Unless and until a request for a change is made
21 by either party such as to trigger the requirement for good
22 faith negotiation under Section 2.02, the preset monthly
23 amounts control. If we can go to the next slide, Your Honor,
24 please.

25 Now there are three reasons that we maintain why we

1 comply with these contracts, with these requirements. First
2 you have the course of conduct. Course of conduct is not
3 parole evidence. As we briefed, whether a contract is 4 ambiguous or unambiguous, the Court can look at the course of 5 conduct to determine how the parties interpreted their own
6 contract.

7           Second, you have Mr. Waterhouse and later Mr. Norris
8 and others actually saying, hey, we've got to revise these
9 numbers. And Highland did not negotiate in good faith. As Mr.
10 Seery testified, there was zero negotiation. And then our 11 third argument is that under the Shared Services Agreements
12 Highland was the one obligated to monitor and review and advise
13 us with respect to our payables. And if we can go to the next
14 slide, Your Honor, please.

15           THE COURT: Okay.

16           MR. RUKAVINA: So Your Honor has the December 2019
17 amendments, the ones pursuant to which my clients ended up
18 paying Highland $2.5 million. Those are unambiguous. There's 19 no reason, fact, or logic as to why the Court can or should 20 look behind them. And they expressly state that upon reviewing 21 the actual costs, my clients underpaid and they owed more. It
22 doesn't matter that there might have been fewer employees
23 there.

24           Frankly, no one has told us why my clients ended up
25 paying more even though there were fewer employees, but you

1 heard that it's possible, that because of everything that was
2 going on, certain employees were devoting far more of their
3 time to my clients than Mr. Klos had estimated they would.

4 It doesn't matter. The contracts say we underpaid
5 after an annual review and we ended up paying more. Those 6 contracts cannot be swept under the rug, or those amendments,
7 by the Debtor. They can't be ignored. Those contracts or 8 those amendments are evidence of an annual true up.

9 Mr. Waterhouse testified to this. It's on Page 140
10 of the transcript that there was a general policy at Highland
11 to review long term contracts on an annual basis. As he said,
12 it was just too onerous to true up agreements on less than a
13 yearly basis. So yearly is kind of more the practice. And if 14 we can please go to the next slide, Your Honor.

15 This is also --

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 MR. RUKAVINA: If the Court wants to look at the 18 formation emails, this is what Mr. Klos wrote to Ms. Thedford.
19 This is Exhibit K. And he writes, this is where he says, look,
20 this is going to be really cumbersome. Let's have a predefined
21 amount payable every month. Then he says, beyond a year.

22 So again we're -- he's thinking, just like Mr.
23 Waterhouse said, of an annual review. After a year either
24 party could terminate and or renegotiate for an amended
25 agreement. Well, that's exactly what they did at the end of

1 2018.

2 So regardless of the fact that the contract talks
3 about a monthly analysis, the parties, both of them, changed it
4 or they understood it to actually be a one year analysis, at
5 least with respect to a retrospective analysis as opposed to a
6 prospective change.

7 And that's something that's very important as well,
8 Your Honor. In Section 2.02, Mr. Morris is correct. It
9 applies prospectively. But nothing in these agreements
10 prevents a retrospective analysis or a true up or a refund,
11 nothing. The only reason why a true up wasn't done in 2019 was 12 because of the bankruptcy. If we can please go to the next
13 slide.

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 MR. RUKAVINA: Now let's talk about Mr. Waterhouse's
16 testimony. Mr. Waterhouse testified that he told Mr. Caruso,
17 clearly an agent of the Debtor, and that he told the Debtor's
18 other officer, general counsel, that there were these 19 overpayments. The overpayments were discovered, as Your Honor
20 will recall, because the committee requested an analysis of 21 intercompany contracts. All of these men, Mr. Caruso and Mr.
22 Klos, in good faith performed that analysis.

23 So there is circumstantial evidence, Your Honor, to 24 confirm that what Mr. Waterhouse said is true. His testimony
25 was never rebutted, for one thing. You know, Mr. Morris was

1 always fond of saying, well, why isn't someone else here? Why
2 isn't someone else here? Mr. Caruso could have rebutted this
3 testimony. He made millions of dollars in this case. He never
4 testified here and said, whoa, whoa, whoa, Frank never told me
5 that.

6 And why wouldn't Mr. Waterhouse say to Mr. Caruso
7 what he did? The gentleman had just performed the analysis.
8 It's not, Your Honor, like I'm trying to suggest that
9 Waterhouse just called up Caruso one night over a glass of wine
10 and said, oh, I just got this idea in my head. They just 11 performed this analysis. And the fact at that time of $3
12 million in annual overpayments was learned.

13 Isn't it logical that the CFO and the treasurer would 14 go to the general counsel and a financial advisor and say,
15 guys, we've got to do something about this?

16 So this is credible testimony. And what Mr.
17 Waterhouse did triggered Section 2.02, the duty to negotiate in 18 good faith. The Debtor said, we can't because of the automatic
19 stay. Whether that's right or wrong as a matter of law is 20 irrelevant.

21 Mr. Waterhouse was entitled to rely on what the 22 financial advisor, a bankruptcy expert of 30 years, and of what
23 the internal lawyers told him. He reasonably relied on that 24 and what more was he to do? He talked to the lawyers. He 25 talked to the bankruptcy experts.

1 We also have to point out that the Payroll
2 Agreements, Your Honor, contain anti-waiver provisions. So not
3 only is there no set method by which a request to modify must
4 be made, there's anti-waiver provisions. Even if Your Honor
5 does not find Mr. Waterhouse's testimony and what he did to 6 rise to the level of flagging the issue and requesting a
7 change, you have beginning in October of 2020 -- I'm sorry.
8 Yes, October of 2020.

9 Mr. Norris and Mr. Klos having numerous discussions
10 regarding these matters as Mr. Norris became involved with the 11 process. Mr. Norris was very credible, very credible. And of 12 course he and Mr. Klos discussed this. And you see even in 13 that email where Mr. Klos is admitting that these contracts
14 have become even more profitable for Highland.

15 So, yes, Mr. Klos admitted to Mr. Norris that 16 Highland was making profits, that there were overpayments. Mr.
17 Norris was upset. He said, we've got to change it. Again, the 18 message came back automatic stay. It'll be dealt with in due
19 course.

20 If the Court doesn't find that credible or rising to 21 the level of anything, you have the absolute fact of the 22 December 11, 2020 letter from K&L Gates, who at that point and 23 time represented the Advisors saying it looks like there's 24 about $5 million in overpayments. We've got to do something
25 about that. If we can go to the next slide please, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 MR. RUKAVINA: So what we have, Your Honor, right or
3 wrong, legally appropriate or not, Highland not negotiating a
4 change in the reimbursement rates, whether from late 2019 or
5 October 2020 or December 2020.

6 What is my client supposed to do? Again, it takes
7 two to tango. If they're required to negotiate in good faith
8 and they know and they don't, Mr. Morris is right. My client
9 can't unilaterally change the reimbursement rates, but the 10 requirement to negotiate in good faith is in these contracts.
11 The Court cannot read that out of the contracts. And the 12 Debtor, for whatever reason, did not negotiate in good faith.
13 The Debtor breached Section 2.02 and it's a frustrational
14 purpose.

15 How are we supposed to change the reimbursement rates
16 when the counter-party breaches an obligation to negotiate in 17 good faith? Well, it becomes a little bit circular here, Your 18 Honor, because the damages from that breach or the fact that 19 you didn't change the reimbursement rates, but it doesn't even 20 matter because once a party breaches, as the Debtor did here,
21 it cannot insist on the strict application prospectively of 22 that contract.

23 What happened, Your Honor, is that once my clients
24 raised the issue, when they triggered the process, the preset
25 reimbursement rates no longer controlled. The parties were

1 required to figure out what the actual costs were in good
2 faith. If you can go to the next slide please, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 MR. RUKAVINA: And then our third theory, Your Honor,
5 is under the shared services. You heard -- well, you saw --
6 that in these Shared Service Agreements the Advisors were 7 paying Highland to monitor contracts, monitor payables, ensure
8 that appropriate payable amounts were being paid.

9 Mr. Waterhouse confirmed that these services -- I
10 mean, you can look at the contract. You don't need his 11 testimony. But that these services included scrubbing the 12 Advisors bills to make sure that the bills were proper, that 13 there weren't refunds due, that there weren't overpayments.
14 And Highland certainly knew of the overpayments. Again, we 15 have the December 2019. You have the report from DCI going to 16 the committee. Highland knew.

17 We go back to the Payroll Agreements which provided
18 should either party -- that's key -- should either party
19 determine that a change is appropriate, then either party may 20 request a modification. Consistent with its duties to assist 21 and advise the Advisors, Highland should have done so. As 22 we'll talk in a moment, no employee of the Advisors or agent of 23 the Advisors knew of the overpayments who was not at the same
24 time also an employee or an agent of Highland.

25 Does the Court really believe or can anyone really

1 believe that these people, Klos, Waterhouse, Caruso, that they
2 all just really did nothing about this, ignored it, that
3 Highland sat back there and knowingly was taking $6.2, $6.6
4 million from my clients?

5 Or is it far more likely that, in fact, they all
6 believed in good faith that the automatic stay prevented any 7 kind of negotiation or modification? It goes back again to the 8 truth. The most credible explanation is that Klos and 9 Waterhouse knew what was going on, but were told by the 10 bankruptcy experts, we can't do anything about it, because of 11 the bankruptcy stay.

12 The alternative is, again, that they sat there,
13 violated their duties under the Shared Services Agreements,
14 acted ridiculously as a debtor-in-possession by knowingly
15 taking millions of dollars in profits not entitled to under the 16 contract.

17 Either way, Highland knew about it, had an obligation
18 to do something about it, and did nothing about it. It cannot 19 now exploit any delay or any advantage as a result of its own
20 fault. Your Honor, if we can advance to the next slide,
21 please.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 MR. RUKAVINA: What does Highland say back? Well,
24 you waived your rights. Okay. We might have over billed you
25 by $6.6 million. We might have known about it. We might have

1 had an obligation to tell you about it, but you waived your
2 rights. Well, the contracts contained anti-waiver provisions.
3 Waiver has to be knowing and intentional.

4 Mr. Waterhouse is the only person who is an agent of
5 the Advisors that knew of the overpayments, but as we briefed,
6 under Texas law when you're an agent to two principals, his 7 knowledge cannot be imputed to one to be used against the 8 other. The other people involved, Mr. Klos, DSI, Mr. Caruso,
9 they were never agents of the Advisors.

10 So the Advisors -- there's no evidence that the 11 Advisors knew of the overpayments in order to be able to make a
12 knowing and intentional waiver. Of course the Advisors knew
13 that certain employees weren't there. That's a given. Mr.
14 Norris was very clear about that. But that is a separate issue
15 from knowing that every month, every month, Highland was 16 billing us for those employees that were no longer there. Only 17 Highland employees knew that.

18 Also, Your Honor, these statements to the board, the 19 funds boards, again, misdirection. All those communications,
20 all those board minutes, we went through a dozen of them one by 21 one with Mr. Powell. All of those are referring to the Shared
22 Services Agreements in which case, yes, Highland was providing 23 services to us under the Shared Services Agreements. None of 24 those talked about the Payroll Reimbursement Agreements.

25 And the fact, Your Honor, that we stopped paying

1 right after Mr. Norris learned about it was further evidence
2 that there was no waiver. And when I talk about waiver, Your
3 Honor, I mean, common law waiver. I mean, contractual
4 interpretation waiver. That's separate from whether we sat by 5 and did nothing under Section 2.02 and 4.02 of the contract.
6 We're going to go to the next slide please, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 MR. RUKAVINA: Likewise, the voluntary doctrine
9 payment does not apply. As we briefed, it doesn't apply in 10 Texas to the contract claims. It only applies where there's 11 full knowledge of material facts. And again, we did not know
12 of the overpayments. The only one who did was Waterhouse and 13 he did what he could.

14 And it's also a critical factor here, Your Honor, as 15 you've heard, that we did not actually write a check or 16 initiate a wire transfer for these payments. Highland
17 employees did so. Highland employees, pursuant to the services
18 they were providing, had access and control to our bank account
19 and Highland employees paid themselves.

20 Mr. Waterhouse approved those payments. That is 21 true. But he approved them as the CFO of Highland. It's very 22 clear. You have Ms. Hendrix's emails to him. She's writing to 23 his -- to her boss, pardon me -- saying, hey, boss, under all
24 these obligations, under all these contracts, the following
25 Advisor fees and bills are due. And he says approved.

1 Even if he was wearing his Advisor hat, again,
2 there's no voluntary payment because he was told that the
3 automatic stay prevents anything from being done about this.
4 And we all know that a legal disability, like the automatic
5 stay, for example, tolls limitations. A legal disability is 6 not voluntary. It is not a waiver.

7 So, Your Honor, that rounds off the discussion on why
8 the Advisors have legitimate administrative claims. They have
9 been quantified by Mr. Norris in a calculation where the Debtor
10 has conceded that his numbers and his math are correct. His 11 number is not dissimilar from Mr. Klos' number, which should 12 add further support and credibility.

13 And really, it just comes down to the contract and 14 how the Court interprets the contract in light of the parties'
15 prior annual true up and in light of Mr. Waterhouse's
16 discussions with Highland personnel saying, there's 17 overpayments. We've got to do something about those 18 overpayments, which triggered the requirement to negotiate in 19 good faith, which never happened. If you can go to the next
20 slide, please.

21 Now I'd like to discuss Highland's claims back
22 against us. So first, let's discuss the claim for attorney's
23 fees because I don't think I am being absurd when I smell that 24 it's going to be a huge number, given that they had five
25 lawyers during this trial in Court and on the video.

1           These contracts surprisingly -- and this has not been
2 addressed by Highland -- have no fee shifting provision. They
3 don't. Now, we know in Texas that's not fatal because even if
4 your contract doesn't have a fee shifting provision, Section
5 38.001 still allows you to recover attorney's fees under a
6 written contract.

7           But you have to comply as a condition precedent with 8 Section 38.002 which requires that you give presentment of the 9 claim and that the Advisors do not pay a just amount owing
10 prior to 30 days after that. And we know as a matter of law
11 that the filing of a suit is not a presentment of the claim.

12           Also, the PRAs and SSAs, all four contracts, contain 13 mandatory notice provisions. And these -- this is a very 14 similar case, Your Honor. That's not true. It's not a similar 15 case. It's a similar principle. This City of Alamo vs. Garcia
16 case -- in that case, Your Honor, there was -- well, it was an
17 arbitration provision and the arbitration provision required
18 that notice to arbitrate be sent in a particular form to a
19 particular person. And that provision was not complied with.

20           In this court, the Texas Appellate Court said, okay,
21 well, is that requirement of notice following the notice
22 provision? Is that a condition precedent or is that just a
23 covenant where you get a breach of contract? And that Court
24 said that, no, when the notice provision itself, meaning notice
25 shall be sent to this person by such means by such date, when

1 it's a condition precedent then it defeats the condition for
2 failure to follow.

3 So because Section 38.002 is a condition precedent to 4 recovering the 38.001 and because Highland did not follow the 5 notice provisions in the contracts, they have no claim under 6 38.001. If we can please advance to the next slide, Your
7 Honor.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 MR. RUKAVINA: There is -- first of all, it's 10 amazing. There is no evidence in front of you of any 11 presentment of the claim at all. I understand maybe because 12 New York lawyers aren't familiar with Section 38.002, but I
13 would have thought there'd be a letter from Mr. Seery just like
14 we've seen in all the note cases saying, hey, you bad guys,
15 you're not paying. You owe me money. Pay now or we'll sue.

16 I've actually had to scrub Highland's exhibits for an
17 scintilla of any evidence of a presentment. And all that you
18 have is the Highland Exhibit 28. This is an email. It's a
19 part of negotiations. It's an email to Mr. Norris. It's not 20 even from the Debtor. It's from DSI or I'm not even sure who.

21 The Court has it. It's Exhibit 28. And here he says
22 -- I'm not even sure I know who this man is -- you guys owe the 23 following amounts. It's an email. It is done prior to filing
24 suit, but again it does not follow the notice requirements in 25 the contracts, meaning it's not sent to the proper party. It's

1 emailed to Mr. Norris. It's not sent as the contracts require.

2 And interestingly, when you read the email in
3 chambers, Your Honor, this gentleman is saying, you Advisors
4 have to pay all of these funds, $5.4 million, in order --
5 that's how much you owe us. Notice there's no demand that
6 there will be suit filed. There's no demand for attorney's
7 fees.

8 Now, it is true that when the Court studies Section
9 38.002 the Court will find that there's no prescribed method
10 for the notice that has to be provided unless the contract
11 provides the method, right?

12 So, all things being equal, this email might suffice
13 as a presentment of the claim. I've already argued why it
14 doesn't because it didn't follow the notice provisions of the 15 contract, but there's another reason, as Judge Rhoades
16 explained in this case I cite down here before. And you have 17 to go back to Section 38.002.

18 It can't just be a presentment of a claim. It has to 19 be a presentment of the just amount owed. Why in the world is 20 this person who sent this email requiring Mr. Norris to pay
21 alleged amounts owing by all these other people? You'll see
22 when -- you'll see, Your Honor, when you read this email. Mr.
23 Norris writes back and he says, what is this? I don't even 24 represent or know about most of these entities.

25 So there's no presentment because this isn't

1 sufficient. If it is sufficient, it didn't follow the
2 condition precedent notice requirement of the contracts.
3 Therefore, Section 38.002 is not complied with. And even if it
4 did, this is not a claim for a just amount. Why in the world
5 would the Advisors pay amounts from Dugaboy and NexBank, Ohio
6 State Life Insurance.

7 The Debtor, Your Honor, just messed up. And as a
8 result, we revert to the American rule and it does not get its 9 attorney's fees. If we can advance to Slide 6, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 MR. RUKAVINA: This is now, unlike Mr. Klos' broad,
12 sweeping statements, oh, you owe all this money. And unlike 13 Mr. Norris -- I'm sorry, Mr. Morris -- just going over this.
14 Let's look at the facts of the matter when we're talking about 15 millions of dollars in alleged damages.

16 So first, HCMFA they say didn't pay for the November,
17 December, and January amounts. Your Honor will recall that 18 that agreement is different than the rest. It requires -- it's 19 not a set amount. It requires that an analysis be done, a
20 calculation. It requires a statement. And I've only taken
21 part of Section 5.01 there, Your Honor, because honestly I'm 22 not good with PowerPoint. I don't know how to take the rest
23 of it. Certainly the Court can and will read the whole Section
24 5.01.

25 But notice the language. Each service provider --

1 Highland shall furnish the other parties hereto with a written
2 statement in which they detail the actual costs. Highland
3 never did that for January. And Highland, by the way, never 4 gave you the evidence for November and December. I did in my 5 Exhibit AA. Highland did give us an invoice for November and 6 December, but never for January.

7           So, Your Honor, they lose the January argument for 8 two reasons: one, the form of this contract because they never 9 provided the invoice; two, more importantly, because there's no
10 evidence of what the actual cost is. We're now talking about 11 their claims against us.

12           It's their burden of proof. They never came. Mr.
13 Klos never said, you know what? I did the analysis and it's 14 $300,000. There is no evidence as to what the actual cost for 15 January is. If we can go to the next slide, please.

16           THE COURT: Okay.

17           MR. RUKAVINA: Now I want to discuss the Payroll
18 Agreements again. We can discuss them at the same time. It
19 ties into my argument on the administrative claim.

20           Whether it's early -- I'm sorry. Whether it's late
21 2019 or October 2020 or December 2020, Highland never 22 negotiated in good faith. As I've argued, that means that the 23 preset amounts no longer control. We revert to what is the 24 actual cost. We are only required to reimburse for actual 25 cost. It's Highland's burden of proof. They never even

1 attempted for the months of December and January to quantify
2 their actual costs. They never even attempted to do so, Your
3 Honor, on their burden of proof.

4 Even if the Court considers the December 11th letter
5 as the last or as the only trigger, that would still negate
6 then the January numbers. So it is our argument that Highland,
7 for lack of evidence at this trial, for lack of even trying to 8 quantify actual costs in December and January, fails, lack of 9 evidence. Those discussions from Mr. Waterhouse, Your Honor,
10 and that letter from K&L Gates must have had some impact on 11 Highland's duty under these contracts.

12 Again, all that we have to do is request a change and 13 then the parties shall -- not may -- shall negotiate in good
14 faith. And Mr. Seery told you there was no negotiation. So,
15 again, the argument is the monthly amounts do not control and 16 there's an utter lack of evidence on what the actual costs are.

17 Now it is true that we did not pay under the NexPoint
18 Shared Services. That's $168,000 per month. We owe them
19 $336,000. We do. Now, Klos testified that it's $500,000.
20 Please don't fall into that trap, Your Honor. Mr. Klos was 21 very intentionally, and I believe manipulatively, including a
22 subsidiary of Highland, a subsidiary of NexPoint called -- I
23 think I have it in here -- called NexPoint Real Estate
24 Advisors.

25 That's not in the contract, Your Honor. The NexPoint

1 Shared Services Agreement spells out it's $168,000 per month,
2 so we owe them $336,000, not 500. And then if we can go to the 3 final slide, Your Honor.

4 This is what the Court should conclude -- pardon me.
5 You should award us the $6.2 million in overpayments. You
6 should award us the million dollars in Shared Services
7 overpayments. This, Your Honor will recall, is Mr. Klos'
8 analysis. Mr. Klos, from December 2019 -- I'm sorry --
9 December 2020, at that point and time recall, Your Honor, that 10 the Debtor was not providing legal services anymore to the 11 Advisors. The Advisors had hired their own, at least one of 12 their own, regulatory and compliance people.

13 Mr. Klos calculated $1 million in profit under the 14 Shared Services Agreements, which again do not permit of a
15 profit. HCMFA does have a provision for a 5 percent markup.
16 NexPoint does not, but that's different from profit. Your 17 Honor should award us $425,000 in cover damages, as Mr. Norris
18 testified to. We had to go out and hire two employees. That's 19 three months worth of their -- or maybe four months. I don't 20 remember right now. Mr. Norris testified about that. Of their 21 compensation.

22 The Court should deny all parties' attorney's fees.
23 Again, these contracts do not provide for attorney's fees
24 provisions and Section 38.002 was not complied with. The Court
25 should deny the claim for the January HCMFA Shared Service

1 Agreement because, again, the Debtor did not calculate actual
2 cost or present an invoice. There's no evidence of what the
3 proper amount payable for January of 2021 should have been.

4 The Court should deny the Debtor amounts unpaid under
5 the Payroll Reimbursement Agreements because the Debtor refused
6 to negotiate in good faith and the Debtor, again, presented no
7 evidence on what actual cost for those months should be on what
8 is the Debtor's burden of proof.

9 We admit that we owe -- that HCMFA did not pay Shared
10 Services in November and December. There are those invoices.
11 Again, I was so kind as to provide evidence of that. The 12 Debtor didn't even provide evidence of that. We admitted we 13 owe that. That's -- and I'm ignoring dollars, Your Honor. I'm 14 rounding to the thousand. We admit that we owe $596,000. And 15 we admit that NexPoint owes for December and January, $336,000,
16 for a net resulting administrative claim after nettings and set
17 offs of $6,693,000.

18 Your Honor, I will leave you with this final thought
19 that I also mentioned.

20 You can close that now, Mr. Berghman.

21 I'll leave you with this final thought that I
22 mentioned during opening. This has been a contentious case.
23 We all know that. Your Honor has mentioned that numerous
24 times. We know that the Court might not think highly of Mr.
25 Dondero. The Court has sanctioned Mr. Dondero. We know that

1 the Court may think very highly of Mr. Seery and the Debtor.
2 Certainly the Court has found Mr. Seery very credible in the 3 past.

4 But this is a court of equity. It ought to bother
5 this Court some, if not a lot, that an entity under your
6 Court's, under Your Honor's protection, with duties of candor
7 and fiduciary duties was billing my client monthly for 20
8 employees that were not there and they knew about it and they
9 did nothing about it. There has to be a remedy for that harm.
10 Thank you, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

12 Mr. Morris, you have, what did we say, 11-1/2 minutes
13 of rebuttal.

14 MR. MORRIS: Okay. So as quickly as I can, Your 15 Honor, Number 1, I'm not prepared to address attorney's fees.
16 We'll do that if and when the Court enters a judgment. I
17 promise we'll file our motion and we'll address these matters.

18 With respect to damages, we did offer all the proof
19 we needed to, Your Honor, and they're the contracts because 20 they're all fixed rate contracts with the exception of the 21 HCMFA contract.

22 And I appreciate Mr. Rukavina putting in the exhibits
23 because if you take a look at them, if you take a look at 24 Exhibit AA, you'll see that Highland actually reduced the 25 amount it was charging for compliance services in November and

1 December precisely because Mr. Post transferred from Highland
2 to the Advisors.

3           You'll see that in October -- in September, the 4 compliance fee was $92,819. That's in Exhibit AA at Bates
5 Number 590. And that the same is true in October. But yet in 6 November, that amount is reduced to $66,900, right? The legal 7 fees are still the same $10,000 they had been for years.
8 They're paying $10,000 a month. Yes, it's an actual cost on 9 track. And the same $66,000 is charged in December. Highland 10 has already taken into account the transfer of Mr. Post from 11 one side to the other.

12           Quickly, Mr. Klos didn't raise any red flags in his 13 testimony. In fact, he did just the opposite. What he 14 testified to was that here was a rational basis for the numbers
15 in the documents. What he testified to was that Highland 16 provided services and that they were entitled to get paid for 17 it. So I don't know what red flags Mr. Rukavina was referring 18 to. They continually refer to profits and the profits that 19 Highland was making. Completely irrelevant under the contract.

20           If they wanted a contract that limited Highland's
21 profits or that protected Highland from the down side, right?
22 We're only concerned about profits here. They're only
23 concerned -- they aren't concerned about all the money we were 24 losing, I guess, under the same analysis that we're relying on,
25 that they're relying on frankly, right?

1           If they wanted, they know how to do that because the
2 HCMFA Shared Services Agreement is cost plus 5 percent. Their
3 whole theory is kind of suspect for the simple reason that 4 they're trying to say that Highland somehow agreed to give the
5 employees to the Advisors for cost. What business would do
6 that? Why would anybody be in business to simply have somebody
7 pay for their employees? It makes no sense to me. The whole
8 theory makes no sense to me.

9           And that brings me to a very big point, Your Honor.
10 I absolutely do not agree that the contract is to be a
11 reimbursement for cost. I absolutely will never agree to that.
12 That's not what the contract says. That's what they're trying 13 to get you to do. They're trying to rewrite the very plain
14 terms of the agreement.

15           The very plain terms of the definition of actual cost
16 is that it's a fixed amount unless the parties agree otherwise,
17 period, full stop. Hamburger, tofu, call it whatever you want.
18 It's a fixed amount until the parties agree otherwise. I have 19 absolutely no agreement with Mr. Rukavina that the purpose of 20 the contract is to pay actual costs.

21           Annual true up, Your Honor, he pointed to some 22 generalized statement from Mr. Waterhouse. The fact of the 23 matter is there's absolutely no evidence that the December 2018
24 amendments were the result of any true up. In fact, I asked
25 Mr. Waterhouse the question. This is at Page 140 of the

1 afternoon, I guess, of the first day hearing.

2 "Q Do you have any specific recollection that it was an
3 annual true up like the -- just like for the two Payroll
4 Reimbursement Agreements?

5 "A I don't. From what I recall, I don't think there was a
6 true up in the agreements."

7 This is his testimony about the agreements at issue.
8 Mr. Rukavina may point to some generalized statement about true
9 ups. This is his testimony at the bottom of Page 140, the top
10 of Page 141, that he has no knowledge of any true up ever being 11 done with respect to the Payroll Reimbursement Agreements.

12 The notion that they didn't get services. I think
13 there was a suggestion that somehow they didn't get services.
14 Again, Your Honor, we'd refer to the retail board minutes. The 15 attempt to somehow slice this so fine to say the retail board
16 minutes was only referring to Shared Services and it didn't
17 have anything to do with front office.

18 There's numerous places in those minutes that refer
19 not to Shared Service Agreements, but shares services
20 arrangements. And you heard no explanation as to why the 21 Advisors are repeatedly telling the retail board throughout
22 2020, here are our investment professionals.

23 They did it in January. They did it in August. And 24 they don't do it for no reason. They do it in response to the 25 retail board's specific request for information as to who was

1 providing services to them, okay. The evidence is just -- it's
2 beyond dispute. Mr. Rukavina threw out somehow that Highland
3 was a fiduciary. A fiduciary to whom?

4           The only fiduciaries that matter in this case are Mr.
5 Dondero, Mr. Waterhouse, Ms. Thedford, and Mr. Norris. They're
6 the fiduciaries of the Advisors. Highland had a contract. It
7 did not owe a fiduciary duty to the Advisors. And it's just --
8 I don't know where this stuff comes from, but there's no basis
9 to find that Highland owed anybody on the Advisors side a
10 fiduciary duty.

11           Anti-waiver. He points to the waiver provision. We 12 have ample case law in our briefing, Your Honor, that you can
13 waive even a waiver provision. And why does it apply here?
14 Because they waived it 35 times. Every single month from the 15 beginning of 2018 until the end of November 2020, 35
16 consecutive times, Frank Waterhouse authorized the payment of 17 the fixed fee under the Payroll Reimbursement Agreement with 18 knowledge that many of the dual employees had been terminated.

19           That is a waiver. That is a waiver 35 times. That 20 is a waiver so strong that it overcomes anything the Advisors
21 might come up with here.

22           Mr. Rukavina suggests, oh, what can we do? Poor us.
23 They wouldn't negotiate. No. As Mr. Klos said, as the 24 contract provides, if you don't like what's happening, you can
25 terminate without cause on 60 days notice, period, full stop.

1 That's why that provision is in there. There's no requirement
2 that somebody agree. There's certainly no requirement that
3 somebody agree to a retroactive change. In fact, that would
4 read out of the whole contract the definition of actual cost.

5 Again, you're trying to rewrite an agreement that
6 they lived with for two years under the Dondero regime. We 7 just want to be treated the way Highland was treated for the 8 two years that Jim Dondero was in control. Why do the rules
9 change? Because Dustin Norris wakes up on December 1st after 10 we give notice of termination and they freak out and they say,
11 oh, my gosh. We've got to do something here. That's not a
12 basis to change the terms of the parties' agreement.

13 No mention of Lauren Thedford, right? Where is Ms.
14 Thedford? Mr. Rukavina keeps saying, it's the Highland 15 employees. It's the Highland employees. Mr. Dondero gave all
16 of these people multiple hats. I've heard Mr. Rukavina refer
17 twice now to some case law that says if you wear multiple hats
18 you can't impute knowledge from one to the other. Is that 19 really true when the same person is giving them multiple roles?
20 How does Mr. Dondero get to hide behind the fact that he put 21 Mr. Waterhouse and Ms. Thedford into these conflicting
22 positions?

23 And then he gets to say, oh, he was acting on behalf
24 of Highland, not the Advisors. That cannot possibly be the 25 law, Your Honor. That would be the biggest injustice of all,

1 that they get now to decide which hat Mr. Waterhouse and Ms.
2 Thedford was wearing. And please don't forget Ms. Thedford.
3 An officer, a fiduciary, a secretary, a lawyer, the person who
4 drafted the contracts.

5 Bankruptcy experts. Again, now we've moved away from
6 Mr. -- we keep pushing them into the corner even further. Now
7 Mr. Caruso is no longer referred to as the CRO. Now he's just
8 an agent. He's a so-called agent, right? He's not a
9 bankruptcy expert, as humbly as I can say it, my colleagues and 10 me. This is what we do for a living, right. If Mr. Waterhouse
11 was with us all the time. The testimony is clear. Looked him
12 right in the eye. Frank, you didn't tell me, did you? No, I
13 didn't tell you, John. I didn't tell you.

14 Yeah. I'll just end where Mr. Rukavina ended and 15 that is the notion that this is a court of equity. It may be a
16 court of equity, but it's also a court of law. And we want the 17 Court to simply enforce the contract as it's drafted. And on 18 an equitable basis, there's absolutely positively nothing wrong
19 with that. Why is there nothing wrong with that? Because we 20 provided the services. We're entitled to get paid. The 21 contracts are unambiguous.

22 And I just showed you in Exhibit AA, in the Advisors
23 AA, we even went so far as to reduce the cost of the compliance
24 services when Jason Post was moved from one side to the other.
25 We even went so far as to do that.

1           That's equity. Equity says you reward people who are
2 abiding by the rules. We abided by the rules. We shifted Mr.
3 Post from one side to the other and we eliminated the cost for
4 him. They don't get to double dip. They have no claim here,
5 Your Honor.

6           Their whole case is based on Frank Waterhouse's story
7 that he made up at the very last second that isn't -- that, as 8 recorded by Mr. Norris, doesn't even mention Fred Caruso. And 9 then, of course, we have the K&L Gates letter sent the day
10 after the TRO was entered, right, that's based on the analysis
11 that Frank Waterhouse gave to Mr. Dondero the day before. This 12 is all manufactured.

13           And let me just finish on this point. Highland did
14 not breach its obligation to negotiate in good faith because 15 there was no reason or opportunity to do that. We don't 16 believe what Frank Waterhouse testified to has any truth to it,
17 but even if it did, an offhand statement to Fred Caruso isn't
18 all of a sudden going to get them some kind of windfall.
19 That's Number 1. Number 2, this K&L Gates letter, think about 20 the circumstances that existed at the time.

21           And, finally, Your Honor, even if the Court were to 22 find that Highland failed to negotiate in good faith, which I
23 don't think it can under the circumstances, even if you found
24 that, how are there damages a complete rewriting of the 25 contract? Because we had no obligation to agree to their

1 theory.

2           Why do they get their theory now? We could have
3 negotiated in good faith and said, Frank, we're not doing -- I
4 mean, we're not doing anything retroactive. The contract
5 doesn't require us to do anything retroactive.

6           At best, maybe they can make a claim for January. I
7 don't know. I don't think it makes any sense. I don't want it
8 to be seen as a concession, but they had no obligation.
9 Highland had no obligation to agree to their theory. And now
10 they're going to get their theory that completely rewrites the 11 contract. It makes no sense. Thank you, Your Honor.

12           THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

13           All right. Well, this one is going to be second in 14 the queue. We were working on the note adversary proceedings
15 report and recommendation. So we will try not to keep you
16 waiting too long on a ruling on this.

17           You could make my life easier in one regard. If you
18 all will send to me, send to Traci Ellison a Word version of 19 your proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law, each of 20 you, that way I can copy and paste where I want to copy and 21 paste in my ruling. So if you could do that.

22           MR. RUKAVINA: Your Honor, may I interject? The 23 scheduling order didn't require a proposed findings. It
24 contemplated trial briefs. I filed a trial brief. The Debtor
25 filed proposed findings.

1 THE COURT: Right.

2 MR. RUKAVINA: I'm happy to draft proposed findings
3 if you want me to. I just want you to be aware of that.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Well, so I get Mr. Morris referred
5 to his at Docket Entry 91.

6 So send me, Mr. Rukavina, your trial brief, the 7 Advisors' trial brief. I say send me -- send it to Traci.

8 And then, Mr. Morris, you can send me your findings
9 and conclusions which have obviously both facts and law. And
10 so, again, that will speed up our process here in chambers, I
11 hope, tremendously if I can copy and paste where I think it
12 makes sense to copy and past in my ruling, all right.

13 All right. Well, I wish I could give you a date by 14 which this will be done, but all I can say is we're working as 15 fast as we can back here on our different projects, and so
16 we'll try not to keep you waiting too late. All right.

17 MR. MORRIS: Thank you, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Thank you. We're adjourned.

19 MR. RUKAVINA: Thank you.

20 THE CLERK: All rise.
