APPELLANT'S AMENDED DESIGNATION OF ITEMS TO BE INCLUDED IN THE RECORD ON APPEAL AND STATEMENT OF THE ISSUES PRESENTED

Pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 8009(a) and Docket No. 4366, Appellant Patrick Daugherty ("Daugherty") hereby submits his amended designation of items to be included in the record on appeal and statement of issues to be presented in connection with his appeal from the Order Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and 11 U.S.C. § 363 Approving Settlement Between the Highland Entities and the HMIT Entities and Authorizing Actions Consistent Therewith [Docket

[1] Highland's last four digits of its taxpayer identification number are (8357). The headquarters and service address for Highland is 100 Crescent Court, Suite 1850, Dallas, TX 75201.

No. 4297] (the "HMIT Settlement Order").[2] See Notice of Appeal [Docket No. 4310, as amended at Docket No. 4327].

Statement of Issues on Appeal

1. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in its approval of the HMIT Settlement Order [Docket No. 4297], which permits payment to Class 10 creditors before all Class 8 and Class 9 claims have been paid in full when the plain language of the Fifth Amended Plan of Reorganization of Highland Capital Management, L.P. [Dkt. 1808], the Court's Confirmation Order [Dkt. 1943] and the Claimant Trust Agreement [Dkt. 3817-4] require full payment plus applicable interest to all Class 8 and Class 9 creditors before any Class 10 or Class 11 claims can vest.

2. Whether the Bankruptcy Court abused its discretion by approving the HMIT Settlement Order [Docket No. 4297] when the settlement is not fair, reasonable, or in the best interests of the estate as the Debtor, through its principals, is forgoing the recovery of millions in material value to the estate in exchange for, inter alia, self-serving releases of its principals.

Designation of Record

Daugherty respectfully designates the following items to be included in the appellate record pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 8009(a):

000001 1. Amended Notice of Appeal for Bankruptcy Case No. 19-34054-sgj11 [Dkt. 4327].

000011 2. Notice of Appeal for Bankruptcy Case No. 19-34054-sgj11 [Dkt. 4310].

000022 3. The Judgment Order or Decree appealed from: Order Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and 11 U.S.C. § 363 Approving Settlement Between the Highland Entities and the HMIT Entities and Authorizing Actions Consistent Therewith [Docket No. 4297].

000026 4. Docket Sheet for Bankruptcy Case No. 19-34054-sgj1 kept by the Bankruptcy Clerk.

5. Documents listed below for Bankruptcy Case No. 19-34054-sgj11:

[2] Unless otherwise defined herein, all capitalized terms shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the HMIT Settlement Order.

MR. MORRIS: Thank you very much. Yes, I -- yes, I will, Your Honor. It's John Morris from Pachulski Stang Ziehl

With the agreement of all of the parties, before we begin my partner Mr. Pomerantz would like to just briefly update the Court on certain plan issues, and then we'd like to proceed to the matter on the schedule.

THE COURT: All right. That is fine. So, we'll -- first off, I'm just going to note we have a lot of other participants showing on the video screen. I'm not going to take other appearances. I assume they're just interested observers today. The only pleadings on the contested matter were filed by Daugherty and the Debtor. But certainly if someone at some point has something to say regarding the case generally, I'm happy to hear anything people want to report.

So, with that, Mr. Pomerantz, what would you like to say?

MR. POMERANTZ: So, thank you, Your Honor. As Mr. Morris mentioned, I thought I would give Your Honor a brief update. We haven't been here in a couple of weeks, which has seemed like a lifetime, but I wanted to apprise the Court last Friday night the Debtor filed an amended plan and disclosure statement, pursuant to the Court's prior scheduling order. We also filed the infamous plan supplement, which was discussed in a lot of detail at the last hearing, which contained drafts, advance drafts of the principal plan implementation documents likely to be of interest to the creditors, including the Claimant Trust Agreement, the Liquidating Trust Agreement, other corporate organizational documents, and a list of retained causes of action under the plan.

And I'm pleased to report that over the last couple of weeks the Debtor and the Committee have made substantial progress in addressing the disputed issues that were forefront at the hearing on October 27th.

Such progress included a resolution of the structure and consideration relating to the releases to be provided under the plan; the identity of the independent board members and the Liquidating Trustee, or Litigation Trustee, excuse me; substantial agreement on the form of the Claimant Trust Agreement and the Litigation Trust agreement; and the inclusion of a protocol to address how disputed claims will be resolved.

While there are a few issues left to be resolved and ironed out between the Debtor and the Committee, (audio gap) can be resolved by Monday. We believe that as it relates to the Committee's issues next week, the hearing will largely be consensual, and we extend the opportunity to other parties who objected, including UBS, who has already reached out to us with a couple of comments they have, as well as we suggest that Mr. Daugherty and HarbourVest also reach out to us in advance of that hearing so that we can work through as many issues.

So, we took Your Honor's comments last week to heart, and

I think the parties have worked cooperatively to streamline to what I think will be a narrow set of issues, if any, that will be up for hearing on Monday, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. That's very good to hear. I'll just check: Is Committee counsel on the line and do you wish to respond to that?

MR. CLEMENTE: Your Honor, it's Matt Clemente at Sidley. Can you hear me?

THE COURT: I can.

MR. CLEMENTE: Oh, hi, yeah, good afternoon, Your Honor. As Mr. Pomerantz I think has accurately captured of the current state of play, so we took the time that Your Honor wisely gave us and I think we worked very, very hard and I think we have come to conclusion on, you know, a variety of the issues that we had. Mr. Pomerantz is correct, there's a hearing full of things that we still need to discuss, Your Honor. But I would expect that either we come to a resolution on those or those are things that, you know, ultimately can be dealt with in connection with plan confirmation itself. But I agree with Mr. Pomerantz's comments.

THE COURT: Okay. Very good. Well, I hope all of you will keep working at it. You've got almost a week until we're here next Monday. So, UBS and the others, I really hope you will accept the invitation of Mr. Pomerantz you heard just now to talk to him and see if you can get your issues worked out.

All right. Well, we did note that you had filed the documents Friday night, and I think I know what my weekend activity is going to be besides, you know, watching my Longhorns: Reading the Highland disclosure statement and plan supplement. So, anyway, I look forward to doing that, and I will hope for a somewhat smooth hearing Monday, if not an entirely smooth hearing.

All right. Thank you for that report, Mr. Pomerantz.

MR. POMERANTZ: You're very welcome, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. All right. Well, let's turn to the matter at hand, the motion. You all have blessed me with lots of papers to read and exhibits for today. We have a two-hour time estimate, so I hope you will do your best to stick with that.

As far as your presentations today, let me tell you that I really don't need you to spend much time, if any, arguing the law, Bankruptcy Rule 3018(a), the case law construing it. I'm pretty familiar. It says such things as the Rule contemplates a summary estimation proceeding, not a full trial on the merits. The Court has a lot of discretion. So please don't argue the 20 or 30 cases that are out there that interpret Rule 3018. I'd really like to focus on the numbers more than anything else.

And so as far as opening statements, I'm going to turn to

-- I don't know if it will be Mr. Uebler or Mr. Christensen -- and ask you right off the bat: Why is the Debtors' suggested compromise of $9,134,019 not a fair resolution, when we all know that you can argue entitlement to every penny in that $40 million plus proof of claim ultimately in the adversary proceeding, in the trial on the proof of claim, but for now, it looks like the Debtor has put out a pretty reasonable olive branch? So let me just put you on the spot and ask you to start there in your opening statement.

MR. UEBLER: Thank you, Your Honor. This is Tom Uebler on behalf of Patrick Daugherty.

While it is a generous offer, it leaves disputed $31 -- approximately $31 million with respect to Mr. Daugherty's claims. The Debtor has agreed to the amount of Mr. Daugherty's 2012 Texas court judgment, plus interest, and the Debtor has also agreed to the unjust enrichment and promissory estoppel damages from the Delaware case in the amount of approximately $5 million. But what the Debtor refuses to agree to or acknowledge any potential liability for are the three other subparts of Mr. Daugherty's claim.

The first of those subparts is what we're calling the Reimbursement Claims, and that includes Mr. Daugherty's claims for contractual indemnification under Highland's partnership agreement. And it includes fees on fees -- at least that's how we refer to it in Delaware -- which are fees expended by Mr. Daugherty in seeking to establish his indemnification rights in Delaware. And finally, fee shifting, for what we have laid out as a decade pattern of litigation misconduct by Highland against Mr. Daugherty.

The Debtor also disputes Mr. Daugherty's claim for the remaining 80.9 percent of the value of HERA, Highland Employee Retention Assets. That claim is valued at approximately $21.2 million.

And finally, --

THE COURT: Let me stop you. Let me stop you there, because that's obviously a big, big, big chunk of the disparity. Remind me. Either you lost on that in Delaware, or I'm trying to remember, you abandoned it, you somehow had an adverse ruling in Delaware. Remind me real quick what that was.

MR. UEBLER: We did. We had an adverse ruling. We brought claims in Delaware as part of Mr. Daugherty's original pleading in 2017. And those were claims for breach of fiduciary duty, aiding and abetting breach of fiduciary duty. Ultimately, Mr. Daugherty was seeking to put back into HERA the millions of dollars that Highland had taken from HERA in 2013 and then to dissolve HERA. And it's Mr. Daugherty's position that he is the 100 percent owner of HERA at this point in time.

The Delaware Court of Chancery dismissed that portion of

Mr. Daugherty's pleading on laches grounds, finding that --

THE COURT: Yes.

MR. UEBLER: -- Mr. Daugherty should have filed that claim sooner. We argued that he was excused from the limitations period because there was an open question in the Texas courts about whether Mr. Daugherty remained a unit holder of HERA up through 2016. And that's an argument we plan to pursue on appeal.

To fully respond to your question, I want to note I read a footnote in the Debtors' opposition that said something like we've had a year to seek leave to file an appeal of that dismissal in Delaware. But we don't yet have a final appealable judgment in Delaware to appeal. That dismissal remains an interlocutory order. As Your Honor probably knows, we were in day three of trial on the claims that did survive the Debtors' motion to dismiss when this proceeding was filed. So we have not had an opportunity to appeal the dismissal of what we're calling the HERA 80 Percent Claim, but Mr. Daugherty intends to exercise those appellate rights in wherever the appropriate venue may be as this proceeds.

THE COURT: All right. Well, you know, courts always want to be pragmatic, as you know, in situations like this, 3018 estimation proceedings. And my pragmatic view of things is, while, again, we may have a multi-day trial one day where you convince me on this $21 million plus claim, that notwithstanding the Delaware court's dismissal of it for laches, at the end of the day you ought to get this, it seems like a pragmatic place to draw the line here today for purposes of an estimation hearing. I'm not sure how you could convince me in two hours that this absolutely is likely enough to prevail that you ought to get to vote the claim.

Another area, as long as I'm talking about pragmatic ways to resolve this issue today, is the post-petition interest. I have a feeling that's only a couple of hundred thousand dollars or so. But nevertheless, it's argued here somewhat extensively that Daugherty ought to get to keep accruing post-judgment interest on the HERA judgment post-petition because, you know, it's not really a judgment against the Debtor, it's a judgment against HERA, and the general 502(b)(2) you can't accrue post-petition interest, unmatured interest, if you're an unsecured creditor, ought not to apply. I'm just telling you right now, that would be a nonstarter here for me today. Again, I have a feeling that's only a couple of hundred thousand dollars, right? Maybe it's more than that. It can't be. Right?

MR. UEBLER: That's --

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. UEBLER: That's correct, Your Honor.

THE COURT: So, --

MR. UEBLER: So I won't, I won't address that any further.

THE COURT: Okay. So we can take that one off the table.

And then the other kind of pragmatic way I view things today is the attorney fee shifting. Now, you might be able to piece this together for me and show me that, contractually, under the indemnification provision, that there is some component of attorneys' fees that ought to be allowable, but, you know, to just generally kind of give a common law bad faith argument here, that I should depart from the American Rule -- you know, if there's no contractual entitlement, if there's no statutory entitlement -- that's a heavy lift. Again, you might prevail one day, but for purposes of a summary voting estimation claim context, I just don't see how you get there.

So, does that help narrow the issues today? I had trouble thinking how I'm ever going to get to the $21 million claim in a summary 3018 context, the breakaway from the American Rule on attorneys fee shifting, and then the post-petition interest.

So if you carve those away, I don't know how close we are to the $9,134,000 that the Debtor has proposed, but I guess we're still a few million away.

MR. UEBLER: We're getting closer, but let me respond to the pragmatic way of dealing with the HERA 80 Percent Claim, which is $21 million. We don't view that as at all a nothing amount for purposes of today. I might not convince you that Mr. Daugherty should be entitled to the entire $21 million, and I'm not -- I'm not going to try, because I do recognize that the claim was dismissed and that creates at least a procedural burden for us.

So, one result may be to award Mr. Daugherty a portion of that claim. But let me move on --

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. UEBLER: -- to address the fee issue. These are -- there are 30 different sources of Mr. Daugherty's rights to fee reimbursement, only one of which is the common law exception to the American Rule. And my thought was to just briefly outline what it is that we're asking for, break down Mr. Daugherty's claim, and then ask Mr. Daugherty to testify very briefly about how he calculated that amount and what out-of-pocket payments he's actually made throughout the course of this litigation, to give the Court an opportunity to see which of the different buckets the fees may fall into and how you may be able to resolve some or all of those amounts.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. UEBLER: So, the claim for indemnification and fee shifting, as I said, it has -- it has three components. The first, which we focused on in our reply, is the bad-faith fee shifting.

Now, in Mr. Morris's presentation that I expect him to show today, he'll refer to this as a new argument that wasn't in our Delaware complaint and was not in the proof of claim submitted by Mr. Daugherty. That's just not the case. This was an issue that was presented to the Delaware court in August 2019, before trial. We laid out why Mr. Daugherty should be entitled to fee shifting. And that's an issue that would have been addressed post-trial but for this bankruptcy. And that's based on the series of events that we laid out in detail -- probably too much detail for these purposes -- in our papers about shifting positions in litigation; attempts to put Mr. Daugherty in jail, which thankfully the Texas appellate court put a stop to; preventing Mr. Daugherty from collecting compensation that's rightfully his. All of that has cost Mr. Daugherty millions of dollars over the last ten years, and he hasn't recovered a dime.

So, the three legal doctrines are the bad-faith exception to the American Rule.

The second is contractual indemnification under Highland Capital's partnership agreement. This is a claim that was fully briefed on cross-motions for summary judgment in Delaware, and it was argued to the Delaware Vice Chancellor and submitted for a decision. The source of Mr. Daugherty's indemnification claim is Section 4.1(h) of Highland's partnership agreement, and that's Exhibit 39 in the papers we submitted. I'll just read briefly what that provision is.

It states that a partnership -- that is, Highland Capital -- shall indemnify and hold harmless the general partner -- which is a company called Strand -- and any director, officer, employee, agent, or representative of the general partner -- again, Strand -- against all liabilities, losses, and damages incurred by any of them by reason of any act performed or omitted to be performed in the name of or on behalf of the partnership -- which is Highland -- or in connection with the partnership's business -- which is Highland's business -- including, without limitation, attorney's fees and any amounts expanded in the settlement of any claims or liabilities, losses, or damages, to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law.

Now, it was undisputed through summary judgment in the Delaware case and going I would say close to three years of litigation that Mr. Daugherty was a covered party under that provision. In other words, he was an officer, agent, representative of Strand who could be entitled to indemnification.

Highland admitted in every version of its answer in the Delaware case that Mr. Daugherty was, in fact, an officer or an agent of Strand through his resignation from Highland in 2011. But in this Court now, we have Highland claiming that Mr. Daugherty ceased being an officer of Strand in 2009.

And, in fact, just a few hours ago I received a few documents from Mr. Morris showing that Mr. Daugherty was not listed as an officer of Strand after 2009. I'm still processing in my own mind why I'm just receiving these documents now, after three years of litigation, why Highland made previous judicial admissions to the contrary, and why we made it through summary judgment without this issue being raised.

But ultimately, it doesn't matter, because Mr. Daugherty will prove, consistent with Highland's prior admissions in the Delaware court, that he is a covered person under this indemnification clause, because, at a minimum, he was an agent and representative of Strand through 2011.

And he'll also prove that all of the Texas litigation and what has happened since the Texas litigation began in 2012 really stems from what Mr. Daugherty did or did not do related to Highland's business. So the nexus requirement under the indemnification agreement is satisfied.

Again, this is an issue that was fully submitted to the Delaware court, but no decision was issued.

The third component of our reimbursement claim is fees on fees and the idea that, to the extent Mr. Daugherty is successful in establishing his contractual indemnification rights, he is also entitled to reimbursement for the cost of proving his entitlement to indemnification.

Now, if you put all of these three buckets together, you're left with $7.8 million. That's not an insignificant amount, and it's -- it's more than the $9 million that Highland has offered. And if any line is going to be drawn today, we submit that that line should be drawn to include this $7.8 million for -- based on the law that we've provided in our papers and based on the facts that we have demonstrated and the exhibits and Mr. Daugherty's declarations and the brief testimony you'll hear today about the litigation that Mr. Daugherty defended and what he's had to deal with for the last ten years.

I'm going to stop there. Do you have any questions at this time about the fee reimbursement portion of the claim, which is $7.8 million?

THE COURT: No questions on that.

MR. UEBLER: Okay. The one aspect of Mr. Daugherty's claim that we did not have an opportunity to talk about yet is what we're calling the 2008 Tax Refund Claim. And that's -- that's an amount of $2.6 million in Mr. Daugherty's proof of claim, and that amount should be allowed in full for voting purposes.

Now, I'm going to let Mr. Daugherty explain the factual background of this claim, but the short version is that Mr. Daugherty received compensation in 2008 from Highland Capital, and he received that compensation as an employee and in the form of a tax refund. The IRS is still in the process of auditing Highland's tax treatment for 2008, so there's a possibility that in the future the IRS will claw back Mr. Daugherty's 2008 compensation that was approximately $1.4 million. And with that would come interest and penalties that we estimate could total $2.6 million.

So, yes, it's correct that as of today there is no definite liability to the IRS. This is a contingent liability and we don't know what the total amount may be.

Now, if Highland hadn't come out and said in its adversary complaint that it's basically refusing to acknowledge any potential liability for this issue, we might not have a current claim to put before Your Honor today. But the fact that Highland has already come out and said it has no intention of either covering future tax liability or giving Mr. Daugherty substitute employee compensation for 2008 in the event that the IRS were to take that away, we think presents a live claim that Mr. Daugherty has sought to preserve through this proceeding.

He's not seeking a cash payment, ultimately. All he's looking for is some agreement by Highland to assume this liability or to put the money in escrow in the event of a clawback. But for voting purposes, we're asking that the full potential of $2.6 million for this claim be permitted.

And, you know, you asked earlier about why $9 million isn't enough. It's a matter of degree. Mr. Daugherty is a creditor and he is entitled to a say in the plan, and that's what we're trying to establish today. And we think it's important that Mr. Daugherty have a voice, and that voice carry some weight, to enable Mr. Daugherty to have a seat at the table, have a voice in the plan.

I think the more that this Court would be willing to permit at this summary stage of the proceedings, where there's a presumption in favor of claims, even if they're disputed -- I think that will be my only reference to 3018 law today -- we submit the Court should err on the side of more rather than less.

Mr. Morris and I had discussed doing mutual openings followed by Mr. Daugherty's testimony. I think now would be a good time to turn this over to Mr. Morris before we call Mr. Daugherty, if that works for you.

THE COURT: All right. That works for me. Mr. Morris?

MR. MORRIS: Good afternoon, Your Honor. John Morris; Pachulski Stand Ziehl & Jones, for the Debtor.

I really do appreciate Your Honor's preliminary projections of where we are. I had prepared a rather extensive presentation for the Court that I'm actually going to dispense with because I'd like to focus on the narrow issues that Your Honor has identified.

I want to begin by apologizing to the Court for having to engage in this process. We have tried very hard, I think as Your Honor has perceived, to fully resolve this particular motion. At the outset of the process, the Debtor readily acknowledged the validity of Mr. Daugherty's judgment in the amount of $2.6 million, plus interest, through $3.7 million. That's not an amount in dispute today. That won't be in dispute as a matter of his claim. We have admitted it, we acknowledge it, and it will be allowed in that amount.

We went one step further in the hope that it would resolve this motion by agreeing to allow the maximum amount that Mr. Daugherty's expert was prepared to testify to on the petition date for these promissory estoppel and other related claims. The expert at that time testified to a range of somewhere of four to about $4-1/2, $5-1/2 million, and that's how we arrived at the $9.1 million.

Let me make it clear, Your Honor, that if the parties are unable to resolve this, the Debtor will contest that. But for this purpose, we felt by giving it one hundred percent validity, notwithstanding the fact that we will contest it on the merits if needed, that that was a fair resolution, that that was a very simple way to get this done. Unfortunately, we were not successful.

We're here today not because we like to litigate but because we're doing our best for these estates and its stakeholders, including all unsecured creditors. Mr. Daugherty is entitled to a seat at the table. We have given him a seat at the table. He now sits with the third largest general unsecured claim that is going to be allowed, and that follows from the settlements with the Crusader and Redeemer Funds and with Acis. At $3.7 million, he's already got the third largest allowed claim. And we're prepared to give him a vote of over $9 million for this purpose. But what we don't do and we don't think our fiduciary duty will allow us to do is give him credit for claims that, in our view, clearly have no merit.

So let me just go through them very quickly. The first is a claim for over $20 million arising from the assertion that somehow he is now entitled to one hundred percent of the HERA assets. Mr. Daugherty -- I don't know Mr. Daugherty. I have no animosity against Mr. Daugherty. One of the things that I and my colleagues and the board have dealt with throughout this case is that there's so much baggage here, Your Honor. And it's -- this has been our burden, this has been our challenge, is to cut through this and try to get to the merits. What's really fair and what's really reasonable? And it's what we try to do in our settlement negotiations and it's the only reason we're here today, because we thought we made a generous offer.

And Mr. Daugherty is well within his rights to say, Not good enough. But we think, we think we've offered enough. When we think of his claim to a hundred percent of the HERA assets, he will testify, I assume, that when he left he had 19.1 percent. He never thought he had more than 19.1 percent. Nobody ever promised him any more than 19.1 percent. His expert in Delaware was prepared to testify on damages based on 19.1 percent. He actually pursued these claims, Your Honor, not just in Delaware, he actually started in Texas. He knew about this in 2013, right when it happened. It was part of his Texas action, and it was rejected. And you heard -- and we heard Mr. Uebler allude to it, right? So then he goes to -- he goes to Delaware and he tries to bring them again, maybe three years later, in 2017. These are undisputed facts, Your Honor. And they get dismissed.

Now, the interesting thing is, if you look at our Exhibit T, it's the Delaware -- I think it's V, actually. It's the Delaware court's order dismissing the claims. It didn't give a reason. But if you go back to Highland's brief, you'll see there's a multitude of reasons.

And when they use the phrase laches, Your Honor, it doesn't mean that Mr. Daugherty was found to have sat on his hands. The Delaware Chancery Court is a court of equity, and so they use equitable principles. What really happened is that the Delaware court found that the claim was barred by the statute of limitations because the cause of action arose in 2013, Mr. Daugherty knew that, and he didn't bring his action until 2017, more than, you know, more than the three-year statute of limitations.

But you'll see in the Debtors' brief, which we've cited, that Highland actually asserted a multitude of reasons why this claim should be barred. And we don't know exactly why the Chancery Court did it, but he's going to have to deal not just with laches -- which is the word, the phrase that's used for statute of limitations -- he's going to have to deal with promissory estoppel. He's going to have to -- not promissory estoppel; just estoppel generally. Res judicata. It's all in there. There is no chance he's going to succeed on this claim on appeal. And it's $21 million, and he shouldn't be given the right to vote any portion of it. That's number one.

Number two, with respect to the tax claim, what's really interesting here, Your Honor, is that there is no claim that Highland has breached any duty today. There's no claim that he's breached a contract -- that Highland has breached a contract. There's no claim that Highland has committed any tort.

What happened was, back in 2008, Mr. Daugherty, according to him, was promised $1.475 million as compensation. There was an agreement. That compensation was delivered to him not in cash but in the form of an allocation of losses from the Highland partnership. Mr. Daugherty was a limited partner.

He got over $4 million in losses. Those losses were recorded on a K-1 that's going to be admitted into evidence. And Mr. Daugherty took those losses and shielded his income and his gains in other places in his life, I don't know. But the benefit of that was $1.475 million.

Mr. Daugherty never says that Highland breached its agreement. He never says that Highland failed to perform. He never says that Highland did anything wrong. All that's happened here, Your Honor, is that the IRS is conducting an audit of Highland's 2008 taxes, including these losses. Okay? So, as we sit here today, Highland owes zero. There is no basis to give him any claim for voting purposes. There's just, there's no reason. It may be -- later that he should be getting. And what I would find to be very reasonable is that we are here on the merits and he asked the Court to establish a reserve. I think it's almost what Mr. Uebler asked for, that you establish some type of reserve for a contingent claim. You know, that would make sense. But that's not why we're here today. We're here to say whether or not he's allowed to vote this claim, a claim where Highland today admittedly owes nothing.

So, you know, I think that that dispenses with the tax issue.

The last one is this claim for attorneys' fees. I will tell you, Your Honor, I didn't have a good weekend myself this past weekend because I had to flip through 2,600 pages of Mr. Daugherty's appendix. I don't have the experience here on (garbled), but I waded all through that stuff. And Mr. Uebler and I have a very cordial relationship, which I'm grateful for, and we were talking on Friday, and he said, Why do you guys say that he resigned from Strand in 2009? And I said, I don't know where I picked it up, but that's what I put in here. And he said, But that's not right. And I asked him, I said, If you have a letter of resignation, you have something, give it to me. And he didn't give me anything.

But last night -- and this is why it came up at the last minute. This is why it came up at the last minute. Last night, they filed a declaration from someone named Mr. Covlin or Colvin, who I hadn't heard of but who apparently was the Highland general counsel back when Mr. Daugherty was at Highland. And you'll see in Paragraph 5 of his declaration he says, I don't have a memory of Mr. Daugherty resigning from the Strand board before he left in 2011. And I said to myself, I don't -- I don't understand why people can't -- there's got to be a letter of resignation, there's got to be something to prove the fact.

And so I called Highland this morning and I said, When did he resign? Do we have anything? I said, I want anything you can find. And we're going to put into evidence, Your Honor, two different exhibits, one of which, ironically, is a Secretary's Certificate that was signed by Mr. Colvin. And it was signed in early 2009, where he certifies to the Strand board resolutions, which set forth the officers of the company, and Mr. Daugherty is not on it.

The second document, Your Honor, is even more significant. It is a periodic statement of the officers of Strand that are listed by individual with their title and each person signs it. And what the evidence is going to show is that Mr. Daugherty signed his statement as either Secretary or Assistant Secretary every single time from 2006 until about March of 2009. And then in the mid-2009 document, consistent with Mr. Colvin's certificate, Secretary's Certificate, he's no longer there, but Mr. Colvin was still signing all of his papers without Mr. Daugherty.

So I don't really know the record of Delaware. I'm doing the best I can, Your Honor. But I don't think that there's going to be any dispute at the end of all of this that Mr. Daugherty ceased to be a director or an officer of Strand sometime between March and May 2009.

Why is that significant? Because that is what he hangs his hat on in order to establish his claim for indemnification. We don't think there is any claim because he was no longer an officer of Strand after early 2009.

Even if he was, Your Honor, everything that he's seeking indemnification for now arose after he left in 2011. He's trying to use the indemnification provision in order to recover his attorneys' fees, attorneys' fees that were recovered [sic] after 2011, that were incurred solely for his own personal benefit.

It's not as if he brought a claim derivatively on behalf of Highland. Instead, he pursued litigation where he would recover damages, where he was the plaintiff. In fact, Highland was a defendant, is a defendant in a lot of this litigation. I don't understand how anyone can fairly read an indemnification agreement that requires the indemnitee to act on behalf of the indemnitor, and that somehow suing an indemnitor is consistent with the concept of indemnification. It just, it doesn't make sense. He wasn't there. The fees accrued after the fact. There's just, there's no basis for it.

And fees on fees, that other concept that they're building upon, is fees on top of fees to pursue indemnity. So if the indemnity doesn't work, fees on fees don't work either, Your Honor.

And I'll just very briefly, the fee shifting thing, I heard Your Honor's point. But, again, I bear no ill will toward Mr. Daugherty, but a fair reading of the record says that nobody comes to this, none of those parties come here with unclean hands. Mr. Daugherty was found to have breached his fiduciary duty. The only judgments that have been rendered by any court so far have him paying Highland 2.8 and Highland paying him 2.6. He complains that so many of Highland's causes of actions were dismissed. We could do a scorecard if you think it's necessary showing that Daugherty's claims and causes of action were dismissed.

I heard Mr. Uebler talk about, you know, the appellate court reversing the criminal issue. But you know what, Your Honor? The trial court actually agreed with Highland there.

So, again, fee shifting is an extreme remedy, the absolute extreme remedy in the United States. And, again, not to cast aspersions against Mr. Daugherty, but nobody comes here with unclean hands. There's no basis to do it in this particular case.

So we think $9.1 million was very fair, Your Honor. We think the undisputed facts are going to show that the balance of these claims are without merit at the merit hearing, but certainly for this purpose, Your Honor. He doesn't -- he doesn't come close to the -- even the low bar that's needed for voting purposes.

Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Mr. Uebler, you can call your witness.

MR. UEBLER: Thank you, Your Honor. Mr. Daugherty, are you available?

MR. DAUGHERTY: Yes. I am here.

THE COURT: All right. Mr. Daugherty, I'm going to swear you in.

PATRICK DAUGHERTY, CREDITOR PATRICK DAUGHERTY'S WITNESS, SWORN

THE COURT: Thank you. You may proceed.

(Note: Witness muffled throughout testimony.)

DIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR. UEBLER:

Q Good afternoon, Mr. Daugherty.

A Good afternoon.

Q I'd like to begin by asking you a few questions about what we call the fee reimbursement portion of your claim. Would you explain to the Court what out-of-pocket payments are included as components of that claim?

A As far as category or number?

Q What's -- however you'd like to address it. Maybe categories and then number.

A Sure. There's (inaudible) I'm pursuing for the costs incurred pursuant to executing my release under Strand. And just to be clear, Strand reimburses not just for officers and executives, but also for representatives in any case, which is consistent with what Highland said in Delaware on multiple occasions.

Then there are fees on fees, which is, under Delaware law as I understand it, I'm entitled to the fees that I had to incur in order to gain -- in order to get Highland to make good on its promise in that original partnership agreement with Strand and Highland.

And then, let's see, indemnification, fees on fees. And then there's my claim for the fee-shifting. And I certainly understand the concept of the American Rule and the judge's point, and (inaudible), but what you have to remember here is there was a crime fraud finding in Delaware which caused Highland to lose its attorney-client privilege where we discovered that its in-house counsel -- Scott Ellington, Isaac Leventon, Thomas Surgent -- working with outside counsel, basically provided prima facie evidence of a fraud. So this moves far beyond just, you know, two parties going at it. This has been, again, that Highland sued based on, frankly, lying to that very same judge in Dallas County Court that Mr. Morris referred to. And not only the judge, the jury, where we have (inaudible) law from the various outside firms summarizing what these people -- you know, again, I generally refer to them as the cabal. But this just goes far beyond two parties having a good-faith battle with one another. This turns into, frankly, fraud. And I've had -- and by the way, Judge (inaudible) in Delaware Chancery Court, once he made this ruling, said that he sees evidence of fraud going all the way back to December of 2013, when Highland allegedly set up an escrow account on my behalf, and it never happened. And not only did it not happen, but again, they told Judge Hoffman down in Texas and they told the jury that it did happen. And (inaudible) and everyone else on multiple occasions that (inaudible), only to find out in December of 2016, after all appeals -- the appeal process was exhausted, that most of that money was never put into escrow. Again, they never (inaudible) Dondero (inaudible). And (inaudible), his counsel. But that what any of those assets were there would have been shifting -- and when I say they, I mean Scott Ellington and Isaac Leventon -- while they (inaudible) my house in Dallas, while they were claiming that I had (inaudible) and were seeking turnover in Dallas, while they were terrorizing my family and sending the cops on the house, they had all those assets shifted to themselves, kept quiet about it, and then proceeded to order me to make a $3.1 million (inaudible) for their attorneys' fees.

I don't think a fraud can get more absolute than that. And so that is, you know, that's my quick summary on the nature of those fees. And, again, I know this (inaudible), but this is just a little bit different than your, you know, run-of-the-mill situation.

Q Mr. Daugherty, you mentioned indemnification in your answer. Did Highland or its affiliates assert claims against you in Texas state court based on your conduct as a Highland employee?

A They did. I mean, I was accused of having (inaudible), of committing securities fraud violations, of not executing my duties to investors, when in fact I was doing just the opposite and (inaudible) protecting them from being defrauded. And some of those investors are on the Creditors' Committee today, as the Crusader and Redeemer Committee, is Eric Felton, (inaudible) Montgomery. Those were the people I was trying to protect from -- and by the way, at the end of the day, I felt like I protected Highland, too, to keep them from doing something stupid that could end us in this -- all of us in the situation where we are today.

So I was executing my duties as a portfolio manager. I was -- and by the way, that carried all the way through to January or February of 2012, after I left, because what Mr. Morris didn't tell you is in Mr. Colvin's affidavit I was enlisted by Highland to come to an exit interview after I had resigned, where they wanted to hear two categories of topics. One, the performance of the individual (inaudible) in the Crusader Fund, because Highland had lied to them (inaudible). They wanted to hear from me what I thought its true value was. One of those investments was Cornerstone, which we're all familiar with.

And then the other category of topics that they wanted to discuss with me was (inaudible) leaving Highland. And that included the timing, (inaudible) efforts. Money was being thrown at me, or offered to me, I should say, directly from Dondero, from Cornerstone, to pay me a (inaudible) in order to seek releases for Highland.

So, you add all these things up together, and I was performing my duties as their portfolio manager and as a fiduciary that basically superseded any duty that I had to Highland itself when it came to those clients, which was my fund, Crusader, that I managed and that ultimately the beneficiaries, the investors, led by, as I said, one of their UCC members, Eric Felton, (inaudible) at the time, who now leads the Crusader entity.

Q Mr. Daugherty, with that background about the different bases for your theory (inaudible) claim, could you quantify it for us, how you reached $7.8 million?

A Well, the total fund, for the total 7.8, the answer is yes, I could break it down into individual components if it would be helpful to the judge because I believe the -- I believe the indemnification part of that, which the judge seemed to have issues with, was around 1.5, if I remember correctly. The rest of it was fees on fees, and defending myself against false accusations from the Debtor, and executing (inaudible) to defend those investors from -- (inaudible) that they were getting ripped off by Highland, by Dondero.

Q Are there any other components to your -- the amount that's represented in your fee claim?

A It's fees on fees. I think we touched on that. So that's related to the (inaudible).

Q You're -- you're saying that the claim included a reference to IRA penalties and --

A Oh, yeah. So, you know, when you have to proceed like this, and I know I've been presented as this rich greedy person, but there's a reason why Highland was wanting to get garnishment and wanting to seize my assets with the constable, because I got (inaudible) fighting this. And Judge Jernigan, I was in your case on another matter and you asked why there's not counsel, it's because I didn't have the money. And so one of the things I had to do was cash in my IRA, my wife's IRA.

Q What's --

A I had to take a mortgage on my house. I had -- with interest on that. And with penalties on the IRA. I did not (inaudible) -- I did not -- I hate this. I hate talking about this. Is that enough?

Q I want to talk briefly about this tax refund claim for 2008 and the basis for it. What -- what is this tax refund that you received in 2008?

A (inaudible). In 2008, and I put it in a page in my declaration, Highland was in trouble (inaudible) of the crisis, you know, the various -- and we had talked about our credit facility with our banks, led by Bank of America (inaudible), but they were unsecured. So what that's -- the way it's drafted, and they wanted to get secured. In the process, I was having negotiations, which (inaudible) into 2009. They were concerned that money was being siphoned out of Highland while we were in breach of our credit facility. Initially -- initially, they thought all the partners were taking money out, and after getting their -- after getting their forensic accountants in there from FTI, they discovered that the only people taking money out was Dondero and Okada, under a guise of quote/unquote repaying a loan to themselves.

So, in the heat of all that, there were two things that came from that. One, they shut down all the money going out of Highland and they closed (inaudible). We had to reduce our headcount by 20 percent. We also had to reduce our costs, you know, our outgoing costs, as you would expect when you're in this type of situation.

Well, the problem was there wasn't enough money to pay the cash element of bonuses that were coming due in February of 2009 for the work that we (inaudible), you know, operate for the year 2008. The way it worked at Highland, and still does apparently, the employees work the full year, and then in February of the following year they get a compensation benefits letter that says, Here's what your bonus is. Here's what your tax bonus is going to be. It's going to be paid out in installments, call it February or August, February and August of the subsequent years. And then there would be some type of deferred compensation and then some type of listing of the value of the (inaudible). So we got lunch generally every day, we had healthcare costs paid for, we had life insurance. And so we (inaudible) out all these things (inaudible).

And I think what you're asking in your question is, Where did the tax refund come in this? Well, historically, we would -- we would have got a cash bonus in that particular, you know, document that I mentioned. But (inaudible) pay cash bonuses beyond a de minimis amount. Dondero and, I believe, Mark Patrick in the tax groups and Rick Swadley, and there's another one, Jennifer Blumer, I think, and Michael Collins, they called all of us into the conference room and they said, We're going to pay your cash bonuses, but we're going to have to do it by making this election with the IRS.

And, frankly, none of us really understood what it was. It was very convoluted. But when we got our February 2009 award letter, and I think that's an exhibit in here somewhere, it says very clearly -- in my case, anyway -- (inaudible) tax refund, $1.475 million. And then it says, You're going to get this -- and I'm paraphrasing -- but, You're going to get this amount, but to the extent that you don't get this amount, we will provide you, you know, Highland will provide you substitute compensation.

So it was very important that -- to take the place of what had (inaudible) cash bonus, but it was compensation through and through. And when you hear Mr. -- Mr. Morris, I'm sorry, go on about me getting $4 million in the loss, well, I did get (inaudible) that had a $4 million loss. As the IRS interpreted it, they only netted, I guess, accepted it, the -- they had the number equivalent at roughly 1.1.

But the point in all this is that was the method that Dondero and the tax team had concocted to generate the funds for Highland, its separate obligation, this is a compensation of benefits letter that I got.

And we understood the situation that Highland was in and we were willing to live with that. Where I think things went bad -- and by the way, this has been dragged out forever, Your Honor. I've talked to Mr. Stewart about it. I informed the IRS, tried to settle it. And I know (inaudible) probably never (inaudible), I'm more than willing to work with the Debtor to get it settled. But what I want, and I don't know how this works in bankruptcy, Your Honor, I -- I've got a claim, so I filed the claim, because if you don't file the claim, you lose it. Right? And then what happens is I'm (inaudible) the Debtor. The Debtor (inaudible) as an adversary, said, We're going to equitably subordinate this because this is equity in nature. And at one time, the method of payment that was concocted by the Debtor (inaudible) was, the compensation agreement is separate and apart from that, and that stands. And neither I nor any of the other guys that got this are looking for a windfall. And I don't know how you vote it. I mean, if the Debtor had said, We're just going to assume this like a lease contract, I wouldn't be in here asking you to put a number on it. But what I got was an adversary saying, We're not going to pay this. We're going to go equitably subordinate this, even if you're trying to, you know, get it reimbursed through the partnership. So that forced me to bring it to you, Your Honor, and try to put a number on it.

Q Mr. Daugherty, during your time with Highland Capital, did you receive cash distributions from Highland in your capacity as a limited partner of Highland?

A That's a very important point. These K-1's that -- there were two kinds of partners at Highland. There were the real partners, Jim Dondero and Mark Okada, who referred to themselves as founding partners, and then there were the subclass of partners, really, we kind of -- we called ourselves profit centers partners because we had a place in the partnership but we weren't allowed to get any distributions.

So whenever you see a K-1, we didn't get any of that money. All right? That money stayed in the partnership or went to Mark and Jim. What we had was what's called a (inaudible) and a buy-sell agreement that were attached to the partnership which -- that basically we didn't get any (inaudible) distributions or income from this, but what we got was at the end of that time we could go and terminate it and say, Pay me out now, and at that point it would be valued. And so in my case, when I left, the value that they offered me was $199,000. For all, for all those years of service. And so to answer your question, no, I didn't get any money from it.

Q Thank you. I want to ask you just a few questions about the HERA 80 or 81 Percent Claim that they were referring to. At a high level, what is HERA?

A Well, this goes back to the same situation I was talking about before as it related to this 2008 tax refund. As I mentioned, we were losing employees. People were leaving. I mean, we started the year in 2008 with 22 partners and we were down to I think 11 or 12 at the start of 2009. The banks were just, the banks were furious and they were talking about liquidating us and getting a trustee put in place because they were furious to find out that Dondero and Okada had taken out money. It was around $20 or $30 million.

Once we got through that hurdle, I said, Listen -- because I became, by the way, Your Honor, I became Highland's kind of advisor, restructuring person. I did that for Highland as (inaudible) usually us on the same side of the table as the banks on, you know, I was head of distressed and private equity at Highland, so I -- distressed debt and go and negotiate at the Debtors' beck and call.

In this position, I moved over to the other side of the table and I was negotiating on behalf of Highland with a lot of my colleagues who were in the distressed community, which I generally refer to as knuckle raps. But they knew me, and I knew them, and we sort of -- and we had trust between each other, especially given what had just happened. And they agreed to set aside HERA, which is an acronym for Highland Employee Retention Assets, and it was a fund where they set aside, I don't know, around $20 to $25 million of assets that would then be used to incent employees to stay. And it had a three-year cliff vesting. And what happened is they didn't have any money left. Well, the employees that remained got reallocated their shares. So, contrary again to what Mr. Morris said, there was an agreement that the ownership interest would go up as we stayed through and helped right-size the ship.

Q Mr. Daugherty, why is it that you contend now that you're the one hundred percent owner of HERA?

A Well, this goes back to bad faith. And I sympathize with the judge, I did give you a ton of information, but this has just been nine years of terrorizing, you know, that I've had to contend with. And if you look back to December of 2012, January of 2013, a gentleman named (inaudible) had sent Dondero an email saying, Here's how you can pay everybody except for one. And (inaudible) board member on HERA. And on HERA's board, there's affiliates of this guy. Ellington and John (inaudible). It's basically Jim's buddies, Jim Dondero's buddies, not (inaudible). So he sent me this email saying, Here's how you can pay everybody but one. So we get into January 2013, and Highland purports to make an offer to buy out everybody at HERA except me. Well, guess what. In the middle of January, all of the board resigns, without having anyone change the shareholder unit to the LLC and without taking board action that would allow Highland Capital to be an assignee of these units.

There is a reason for this. We go back to why HERA was created. The banks were furious about Mark and Jim taking money and the banks wanted to take a secured interest in all things Highland. So what we agreed is we would put it in a (inaudible), in an entity referred to as HERA, and Mark and Jim and Highland would not be able to participate in it. So they are not recipients of the preferred units, and the only way it can ever become (inaudible) preferred units is for there to be action taken, specific action take to amend the documents, or by the board, if they remain. And in my Texas trial, this issue did come up, and Thomas Surgent said that no such action was taken. Thomas Surgent is Highland's chief compliance officer. (inaudible). I'm getting a little --

Q I'm just going to ask two questions briefly before we turn this over to Mr. Morris. How did you calculate the value of $21 million for this HERA 80 Percent Claim?

A I took what -- Highland took my own expert report and made it attorneys' eyes only in Delaware. So my lawyers could never sit down with me and explain it to me. So all I could go off of was what I saw at the trial. And it was only the last two or three days where Mr. Morris, he did file the entire expert opinion of my expert where I could see all the components.

So, at the time, I took what my expert was saying was the value of my expert assets, I think as of December 2016. And since I knew that that was based on 19.1 percent, I divided that number by 19.1 percent, came up with a total, and then re-multiplied by 80 -- 80.1 percent, to find out what that delta was.

Q Given that these claims were dismissed on procedural grounds in Delaware, and having heard Judge Jernigan's comments earlier about this claim and its value for voting purpose, what do you as the Claimant believe a fair allocation of this claim is for voting purposes?

MR. MORRIS: Objection to the form of the question.

THE WITNESS: Listen. I've --

THE COURT: Overruled.

THE WITNESS: -- been around Judge Jernigan --

THE COURT: Overruled. You can answer.

THE WITNESS: I've been around Judge Jernigan long enough to know that she means what she says and she says what she means. And I understand her reservations on this, too. But I will say there are some mitigating factors here that Highland, in Texas and all the way through the Texas Court of Appeals, they were saying (inaudible), this is a double counting, this is a double counting. That (inaudible) up for reconsideration in a court -- Texas Court of Appeals (inaudible), and the Court refused to see it that way. Then when we went to Delaware, they(inaudible), they said, Oh, no, we have cures. There's laches, statute of limitation is operating against them.

And so my reaction to that was, How am I supposed to be in an action based on my share ownership when you're saying I don't even own my share ownership and it's not determined until December 2016?

It is true that Judge (inaudible) said you should have basically filed a placeholder. As I've learned a little bit about Delaware law, I don't think that is consistent with Delaware law, but it is what it is. And if Judge Jernigan (inaudible) position. So if she's right to say that I could bring these claims over (inaudible) you know, contains, you know, a different item. And so you're asking me whether (inaudible) advice to the judge? I would say that I'm more -- I'm more than agreeable to whatever she decides. I just want to know -- her to know why I'm here and what this is about, that this is not frivolous, but if it doesn't end with plan voting as she sees it, then I can live with that.

Q Thank you, Mr. Daugherty.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Pass the witness. Mr. Morris?

MR. MORRIS: Thank you, Your Honor.

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Good afternoon, Mr. Daugherty.

A Hello.

Q My name is John Morris with Pachulski Stang and I'm here on behalf of the Debtor. We've never spoken before, have we?

A Yeah, we have.

Q Yeah? I don't --

A Yes.

Q I don't recall. But it's --

A You were in in-person court in Judge Jernigan's court in January and February and I think we spoke.

Q Okay. Well, forgive me for not recalling that particular detail. I just wanted -- just a few questions, sir. On the tax issue, according to your testimony you were promised $1.475 million approximately in connection with your 2008 compensation; do I have that right?

A That's correct.

Q And I understand your testimony that it was Highland's idea, but you agreed to the method of compensation in the form of an allocation of Highland's partnership losses, right?
A I would not say that. There was no -- it was dictation, not an offer and acceptance.
Q Well, you did accept -- you did accept the benefit of the allocation of the Highland losses on your 2008 tax returns, right?
A I -- I don't know if accept is the right answer. I sent my K-1 in with my tax return, and as I clearly admit, there's approximately $4 million of losses that are allocated to me via the K-1 that they could use in the computation of my taxes.
Q Okay. So it's fair to say, then, that the manner in which, or I think the word that was used in your papers, the method by which you were compensated was through the allocation of a portion of Highland's losses; is that right?
A That is wrong. I was compensated that said you're going to get 1.475. If you don't get 1.475, we will provide substitute compensation. What you're confusing is the manner in which Highland decided to try and fund the obligation, and I just don't think it's right to conflate the two.
Q Well, Highland did fund the obligation through the allocation of losses to you; isn't that right?
A It is not. As I said, I got the $4 million pass-through that the IRS determined was approximately $1.1 million, as I recall.

Again, I'm not here to try to capture that missing 3.75. All I want is Highland to basically stay in the shoes if -- or stand by the promise that they made, that they made, sorry, that they made to me, which is if the IRS changes their mind or if Highland (inaudible) and wanted to start to use this (inaudible) argument, that I get sufficient compensation to make me whole.

I mean, at this point, if that -- if we aren't successful, right, on this tax refund issue, then I'm going to get -- not just me. There's about seven or eight other employees who have all also filed claims in this case. We're going to get hammered with penalties and interest that far exceed that amount, and that's not fair.

Q Okay. As of today, Highland doesn't owe you -- that audit is not complete; is that right?

A Well, it's -- the audit took place for two years, and you're probably familiar more than me, I got a letter from Byron Collins in December of 2019, after the Debtor filed for bankruptcy, saying, We've exhausted effectively our negotiations with the IRS. We've now turned this over to some appeals unit in the IRS, and they determined that you don't get -- I'm paraphrasing -- that you don't get to keep this amount.

Now, that basically put me on notice, right, that this is coming to somewhat of a conclusion. (inaudible), I listed it as a claim, I listed it as unliquidated, because I really don't know how to treat it. I guess, I mean, hopefully, the judge makes a decision, and the same kind of category, I don't know how you classify this thing. But when you guys filed an adversary against me and said, You know what, by the way, (inaudible) to me about any of my clients. So when you present to the Court that you engage me and (inaudible) with this guy, you guys didn't talk to me once from the time you filed until October about my claims. You did it just recently, after you filed an adversary. I would have been happy to work with you on this.

MR. MORRIS: Your Honor? Your Honor, I apologize for interrupting. Can I have the question read back? Because I really move to strike. I'll be here all day if we get these answers that really have nothing to do with my question.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. MORRIS: It's not proper.

THE COURT: Well, I'm going to sustain and strike the narrative answer. I'm going to ask you to just repeat your question at this point.

MR. MORRIS: Okay.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q The audit is not completed; isn't that correct?

A I don't know. I've been told by you that it's not.
Q Okay. And nobody has told you and you have no information to contradict my assertion that the audit is incomplete today?
A That's correct.
Q And as you sit here today, you don't know how much, if anything, you might owe on account of the tax issue. Is that right?
A That is right.
Q Okay. You first learned about the audit in 2010; isn't that correct?
A I don't know when I first learned about the audit.
Q You learned about the audit before you left Highland; isn't that correct?
A I know that when we filed this, you know, when we filed the returns, we had to file a cover letter that basically notified the IRS, hey, and I'm paraphrasing, we made these elections, you may not agree with these elections, but we're drawing your attention to it right now to put you on notice that we're making these elections. So that's what I know.
Q When is your first recollection of when you learned about the audit?
A I don't recall.
Q Okay. Let's talk about the HERA assets for a moment. When you left in 2011, you owned approximately 19.1 percent of the HERA preferred units; is that right?

A That is right.
Q Okay. And you learned in 2013 of the events that you described earlier with respect to the amendment of the HERA partnership agreement -- limited liability -- limited liability company agreement, the assignment agreement, the expense allocation? All of that occurred in 2013, and you knew it at that time, right?
A Well, if I could clarify that. I believe I was informed that the amendment -- you had a lot of questions in there, so I'll try and break it down. The amendment -- you're talking about 1241, right? I believe I was informed, informed of that either late February or early March 2014.

On the other stuff, we had -- we had sought discovery, and, you know, people have experiences that you don't always get discovery on an expedited basis all the time. We started to take discovery in dribs and drabs in -- early in July, and then a lot more in October and then a lot more in December of 2013. So the (inaudible) that you asked me a question about, we got a lot of it in that time period, and then some of it rolled into 2014.

Q Okay. So, you knew about Highland's purchase of the other holders of the HERA preferred units in 2013, right?
A Yeah, I knew about the purported purchase probably in February 2013.
Q And the purchases were by people who hold -- who held vested interests in their preferred units in HERA; isn't that right?

A You said it was by them. I think it was from them. But I think (inaudible).

Q If I did, I misspoke, but thank you for the correction. But you'll agree, right, that -- that you knew in 2013 that Highland purchased from the vested holders of the preferred units their interests in -- in the HERA --

A You know, I knew that ultimately that happened. I don't remember if I knew definitively it happened until probably October of 2013.

Q Okay. And you don't bring these claims relating to all of this -- all of these things that happened in 2013 until the summer of 2017 in Delaware; is that right?

A That -- that's generally about right.

Q Okay. And that's more than three years after you learned of them. Is that fair?

A I brought my claims after the Texas Court of Appeals said that I had that shares that your clients said I didn't.

Q Okay.

MR. MORRIS: I'd move to strike.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q And I ask you to just listen carefully to --

THE COURT: Sustained.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q -- my question. Okay. Listen carefully to my question. You brought the claims relating to the HERA events of 2013 for the very first time in Delaware in July 2017, right?

A Yes.

Q And it's more than three years after you learned of them; is that fair?

A I'm sorry. More than three years--?

Q More than three years after you learned of those events. You just said that you learned about them in 2013.

A I think that's right, yeah.

Q Okay. And you brought four different claims? I think claim -- Counts 2, 3, 4, and 5 in the original Delaware action were all based on the events of early 2013; is that right?

A I don't know. I don't -- I don't -- frankly, I don't recall my claims (inaudible) that you described.

Q Okay.

MR. MORRIS: Can we please call up Exhibit A to Mr. Daugherty's proof of claim, which I believe has been marked as Exhibit 40?

THE COURT: Okay. Are you going to share the screen or do you want the Court to pull it up?

MR. MORRIS: Yes.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. MORRIS: I think we'll be able to share the screen. Thank you. And if we could just scroll to the end.

And I apologize, I don't have the page number, but it should be --

THE WITNESS: Could you go back up to the top, just so I know what I'm dealing with here?

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Yeah. It's Paragraph 82.

A No, I'm looking at the date this was filed. Can you do it to the top? All right. So this is --

Q This is your amended pleading.

A Oh, this -- okay. You mentioned 2017, so I got a little bit thrown off. Okay.

Q So this is the -- this is the document that was attached to your proof of claim. That's why I'm using it. Okay?

A Okay. We've amended our proof of claim. You're talking about the first one?

Q This is the -- this is the one that was attached to your proof of claim, right?

A Well, as I said, we've amended the proof of claim. So are we talking about the one that's amended or the first one?

Q All right. Just take a look,

MR. MORRIS: If you can scroll down to Paragraph -- keep -- no, keep going. Keep going. La Asia, can we scroll down, please? Okay. So go to Paragraph 84 and 85. Okay.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Can you read Paragraph 85 into the record, please?

A (inaudible) unit holder of Highland Employee Retention Assets. The purported purchases of units by Highland Capital on January 30th, 2013 using the funds of Highland Employee Retention Assets were -- were invalid transfers.

Q Okay. And that's exactly what you're asking the Court here to find; isn't that right? That you're the sole remaining holder and that the purported purchases by Highland in 2013 were invalid transfers, right?

A Correct.

Q Okay.

A Well, we're not asking her to find that, but we're asking her to find for voting purposes.

Q Okay.

MR. MORRIS: Can you go to Paragraph 89, please?

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q In 89, the relief that you requested is the return to HERA of the funds transferred it and distributed to you as the sole remaining shareholder, right?

A That's correct.

Q And that's specifically one of the claims that the Court dismissed; isn't that right?

A I thought it dismissed the claims for me making ownership of the, you know, the (inaudible) because of the laches issue that you described.

Q Sir, sir, this claim was dismissed by the Chancery Court,

A It was dismissed by Judge (inaudible) who's the Chancery Court on laches grounds.

Q Okay. How do you know it was on laches grounds?

A Because he said so.

Q Okay. Can we just look quickly at Cause of Action No. 3? This was a claim arising out of the exact same conduct against HERA Management and Mr. Dondero; isn't that right?

A I'm not sure I understand your question.

Q Count III was against HERA Management and Mr. Dondero arising out of the same facts, only this claim was for breach of fiduciary duty, right?

A I guess it was breach of fiduciary duty. I don't see -- I guess Mr. Dondero down there in No. 2, but I can't read the whole paragraph.

MR. MORRIS: Can you scroll down a little bit, please?

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Okay. Right there, Paragraph 93?

A Correct.

Q The adoption of the third amended and restated agreement you allege to be self-dealing and constituting a breach of fiduciary duty, right?

A Correct.

Q And in Paragraph 94, if we can scroll down, you allege that the execution of the allocation, the expense allocation whereby your interest was reduced to zero was also self-dealing and a breach of duty, right?

A Can you go back there? I can't read it.

Q But you recall making that claim generally?

A (inaudible) You know, give -- ask me the question again about generally what I recall.

Q Do you recall generally making an allegation in the Delaware Chancery Court that there is a breach of fiduciary duty by executing the expense allocation agreement, right?

A Yeah. On behalf of Highland ERA Management.

Q Okay.

MR. MORRIS: Can we go to Paragraph 95, please?

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q You also challenge the assignment agreement, is that right, as an act of self-dealing and breach of fiduciary duty?

A Yeah. I obviously can't read the redacted parts.

Q But this claim was also dismissed, right?

A As I said, these claims were reduced on a laches basis, but obviously I plan to appeal. I just (inaudible).

Q Right. And laches you understood meant that it was time-barred, right? It was brought beyond the statute of limitations?

A Yeah, as I understood it, yes.

Q Okay.

MR. MORRIS: Can we go to the next cause of action? This will be the last one, Your Honor.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q This is against the Debtor, Highland Capital. Aiding and abetting breach of fiduciary duty. If you look at Paragraphs 101 and 102 and 103, it's charging Highland with liability for the same conduct, for the execution of the third amended and restated agreement, the receipt of the HERA assets, right, as --

A Correct.

Q -- part of -- and this too was dismissed on statute of limitations grounds, right?

A I believe so.

Q Okay. Thank you.

A You know, I know that Highland is liable for the transfer of promissory stock and the unjust enrichment. I don't know if (inaudible).

Q Okay. Well, we'll leave that alone. Okay? I think that -- that's what we've actually offered to allow your claim for, for all of those claims. Let's --

THE COURT: Mr. Morris, I want to make sure --

MR. MORRIS: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: -- the record is clear about what Mr. Daugherty was testifying about the last five minutes.

MR. MORRIS: Sure.

THE COURT: This is, of course, an attachment to Daugherty's original proof of claim, but it is in the record at Docket Entry #1388, which was collectively all of Daugherty's exhibits for today, and it was at --

MR. MORRIS: Right.

THE COURT: -- Subpart 40, or Exhibit 40 therein, Subpart A of that.

All right. Did you want to offer that or does anyone want to offer that into evidence so that the record will make sense?

MR. MORRIS: Sure. I'll take it upon myself for this specific exhibit, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. MORRIS: I offer -- I offer PHD Exhibit 40 unto evidence.

THE COURT: Okay. And I assume there's no objection since that was Daugherty's exhibit. It's admitted.

MR. UEBLER: No objection.

THE COURT: Okay.

(Patrick Daugherty's Exhibit 40 is received into evidence.)

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Mr. Daugherty, let's just talk for a moment as to the timing of your departure from Strand. You were an officer of Strand at one point; isn't that right?

A Yes.
Q Do you have any letter of resignation or any other documentation that shows the date on which you were no longer an officer of Strand?
A I don't recall.
Q Okay.
MR. MORRIS: Can we please call up Exhibit X2? Your Honor, this is one of the two exhibits that I shared with counsel earlier today that are the corporate records that show the officers of Strand at various points in time.
THE COURT: All right. Are they on the docket?
MR. MORRIS: This goes to -- this goes to -- they're not. This goes to the indemnification claim.
THE COURT: Okay.
MR. MORRIS: All right. So if we can get X2 up, please.
(Pause.)
MS. CANTY: I'm sorry, John. One second. The computer's acting a little crazy.
MR. MORRIS: Okay.
(Pause.)
You know, Your Honor, instead of taking the Court's time with this, I don't need to cross-examine Mr. Daugherty with this. What I'd like to do is, because I've shared the documents with Mr. Daugherty's counsel -- oh, here it is.

Okay.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. MORRIS: So let's just --

THE WITNESS: I see it.

MR. MORRIS: Thank you. Let's just get through this quickly.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Do you recall that, when you were an officer of Strand, that from time to time you signed a document that identified all of the officers of that entity?

A No.

Q Okay.

MR. MORRIS: Can you scroll down a little bit here?

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Do you see that this is --

MR. MORRIS: I'm sorry, just a -- not quite so much. I want to see the first paragraph.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q It says that "I am the president of Strand Advisors" and that Mr. Dondero was certifying that the people below were duly appointed and qualified to serve as officers of Strand. I'm paraphrasing a bit there. Do you see that?

A I can read it.

Q Okay. And do you see the third line down is you?

A Correct.

Q And that's your signature?
A It appears to be.
Q And did you serve in the capacity as Secretary of Strand?
A I mean, I served in various capacities. So I was agent, I was representative, I was an officer. I never was limited to just being Secretary.
Q Okay. But that's what you signed this document as, right?
A That's what my signature is next to.
Q Okay.
MR. MORRIS: And if you scroll down a little bit, let's just see the date.
BY MR. MORRIS:
Q And so that's August of 2006.
MR. MORRIS: Can we go to the next page, please?
BY MR. MORRIS:
Q You signed the next iteration of this as Secretary. Do you see that?
A I do.
MR. MORRIS: Can we scroll down a few lines to see the date?
BY MR. MORRIS:
Q That's February 27, 2007, okay? And all of these folks were officers at the time, do you recall?
A No.
Q No, you don't recall that?

A Huh-uh. I don't remember Nicky being an officer or Jim (inaudible) or Ron Williams.

Q Okay. It was 13 years ago.

MR. MORRIS: Let's scroll to the next page, please.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Do you see --

MR. MORRIS: Scroll down a little further.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q You're now -- you've now been designated Assistant Secretary. Do you see that?

A Yes.

Q And that's your signature?

A It is.

Q And two lines above that, do you see there's Michael Colvin?

A Colvin, yes.

Q Yeah. And did you understand that he was Secretary of Strand at one point?

A I didn't focus on it one way or the other.

Q He submitted -- Mr. Colvin submitted a declaration last night on your behalf; isn't that right?

A He did.

Q And he said he couldn't recall when you stepped down from your position as an officer of Strand, right?

A Words to that effect, yes.

MR. MORRIS: Can we just show the date of this document? So, this is January 2008. Let's go to the next page. Here, again, if we can scroll down a little further, --

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q -- you have Mr. Colvin signing and you also signing as Assistant Secretary. Do you see that?

A I do.

Q And that's your signature?

A Yes.

MR. MORRIS: Okay. Can we just see the date of this document? This is May 2008. Let's go to the next page.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Okay. Again, Mr. Colvin as Secretary and you as Assistant Secretary; is that right?

A Yes.

Q And that's your signature?

A Yes.

Q And it's March 1st, 2009, right?

A That's what it says, yes.

MR. MORRIS: Okay. Let's go to the next page. Stop.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q You see Mr. Colvin is still there, but you're not, right?

A Correct.

Q And this is dated May 29, 2009, right?

A Correct.

Q So Mr. Colvin, the person who submitted a declaration on your behalf, signed a document where you're no longer listed as an officer of Strand as of May 29, 2009, fair?
A That is correct.
Q Okay.
MR. MORRIS: Let's just keep going.
BY MR. MORRIS:
Q This one is dated January 2010. Again, Mr. Colvin was on and you're not, right?
A Correct.
MR. MORRIS: Next page.
BY MR. MORRIS:
Q Mr. Colvin was here as Secretary and you're not listed as an officer of Strand as of July 1st, 2010, right?
A That's correct.
Q Okay. Does -- does -- do these documents refresh your recollection that you stepped down as an officer of Strand sometime between March and May of 2009?
A No.
Q Okay.
MR. MORRIS: Can we call up the other exhibit, please?
BY MR. MORRIS:
Q This is a document entitled Secretary's Certificate. Do you see that?

A I do.
Q And do you see Mr. Colvin signed it as Secretary?
A I do.
Q And do you see that it was delivered on behalf of Strand Advisors?
A No.
Q Up at the top line.
A Oh, yes.
Q Okay. And Mr. Colvin signed this as of August 4, 2009, right?
A Well, it's --
A Well, Highland had the practice of -- it sort of had the practice where they would put an effective date prior to the actual time that the document was created.
Q So Mr. Colvin, the person and the attorney who submitted a declaration on your behalf, signed this document as of August 4, 2009, right?
A Well, well, it says, The undersigned has executed, so yeah, I'm just going to have to say yes. I'm just not sure -- I don't know, I guess, is my obvious question of when he actually signed it.
Q Okay. Well, he was comfortable signing it as of August 4, 2009, is that fair, based on his signature?
A I mean, you're showing me a document with his signature on it. That's all I see in front of me. I don't know what he was comfortable with.

Q Okay. And in Paragraph 1, it says that, The resolutions attached as Exhibit A have been duly authorized by the company, by the company's sole director. Do you see that?

A I do.

MR. MORRIS: Let's look at Exhibit A, please, if we can scroll down.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q And this is the consent of the sole director as of May 29, 2009. Do you see that?

A Yeah. (inaudible) as Treasurer?

Q No, we'll scroll down, sir. No problem.

MR. MORRIS: Let's keep scrolling down. Okay. All right.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q And there's your list of officers, and you don't appear there, right?

A I don't appear there, no.

Q And so would you agree that Mr. Colvin, the attorney who signed the declaration on your behalf last night, signed a Secretary's Certificate pursuant to which he attested to the accuracy of the resolution, that as of May 29, 2009 the officers were as listed here and it didn't include -- did not include you?

A Okay. I just want to clarify a couple things. One, he signed it on Friday. You know, just so you know, it didn't get created last night. And will you ask me the rest of that question?

Q Sure. I apologize. I just didn't see it until last night, and that's why I'm referring to last night, because I didn't see it until it was filed.

A I think we included it in the exhibit list on Friday.

Q Okay. I know it was on the list. In fact, that's where --

A I pulled it off the Internet from the court site, so they had it.

Q You're not on this list of officers?

A I'm not on this list, no.

Q Okay. And just a few more questions, sir.

THE COURT: I'm going to make sure the record is clear once again. Are you going to offer into evidence these pages you've described as Exhibit X2, so we --

MR. MORRIS: X2 and X1.

THE COURT: X2 and X1?

MR. MORRIS: Yes.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. MORRIS: And we will file -- we will file an amended list for the docket, Your Honor. But again, this just came up a couple of hours before the hearing, because personally I didn't see the Colvin declaration until I woke up this morning. I asked the question and I got these documents. So these documents are being tendered in response to that very specific declaration.

THE COURT: All right. It was filed at 6:11 p.m. last night, in case -- Central Time.

THE COURT: Any objection to X1 and X2?

MR. UEBLER: And Your Honor, this is Tom Uebler. For purposes of this summary proceeding, I'm inclined not to object to the document. We've both put a lot of paper before the Court. But we would reserve our right to explore these documents further in discovery on the merits and try to find out why we didn't see them for the last three years in Delaware.

THE COURT: All right. So X1 and X2 will be admitted for today's hearing. And Mr. Morris, you're going to file them later on the docket.

MR. MORRIS: Yes, Your Honor.

(Debtors' Exhibits X1 and X2 received into evidence.)

MR. MORRIS: Yes, Your Honor. Just a few more questions. I know we're almost out of time here.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Mr. Daugherty, just quickly, in the Texas action you were found liable for breaching your fiduciary duty to Highland;

isn't that correct?
A Correct.
Q And you were ordered to pay Highland's legal fees of approximately $2.8 million; is that right?
A Correct.
Q The litigation that you -- excuse me. Withdrawn. The claims that you have been pursuing against all of the Highland-related people and entities, you would be the beneficiary of any judgment that you obtained, right?
A I don't know what you mean by that.
Q You are the sole plaintiff in all of these cases?
A On the actions that I brought?
Q Yes.
A I believe so, yeah.
Q Okay. And so any judgment that's rendered will be rendered in your own personal capacity; isn't that right?
A Yes.
Q You didn't bring --
A Well, I'm the plaintiff, I guess is what I'm saying.
Q Yeah. That's fair.
A So, I mean, yeah, the payments will go to me.
Q Okay. You mentioned something about a criminal case being overturned on appeal.
A I didn't. My lawyer did.
Q Okay. Can you just describe for the Court what the original charge was?

A I don't believe that it's relevant, but there was an injunction put in place that said that -- that prohibited me from retaining Highland's account information. And over the course of, I don't know, from about 2014 to 2018, Highland brought eight different, you know, variations of show cause violations on that injunction against me. Eight times I had to defend. And one of those eight was based on Josh Terry had just been terminated from Highland and I saw him, I think, I saw him in London May of 2016. He got terminated in June. I sent him -- I walked up to his house and handwrote him a letter extending my condolences and --

MR. MORRIS: Your Honor, I'm going to --

THE WITNESS: You asked me a question and I'm trying to answer it.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q I apologize. I apologize. Let me ask a different question because -- because that wasn't responsive to what I was asking. Were you found in contempt of court?

A No.

Q Okay. What crime were you charged with?

A I was charged with contempt of court violating the injunction. And a three-member panel at the Texas Court of Appeals found unanimously in my favor that there was no evidence that I violated the injunction.

Q But the trial court did in fact not only find that there was evidence, but the trial court is the one who imposed the judgment against you; is that fair?
A That is correct. And he was ordered to vacate that ruling.
Q Okay.
MR. MORRIS: Your Honor, I have no further questions.
THE COURT: All right. Redirect?
MR. UEBLER: Thank you, Your Honor.

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR. UEBLER:
Q Mr. Daugherty, the fee award that Mr. Morris referred to in Highland's favor, did you pay that?
A I did. I wired approximately $3.1 million to Highland, I want to say, December 13th or 14th, 2016.
Q 2016?
A Yeah.
Q What amount have you received form Highland or any of its affiliates as a result of the judgment you obtained?
A Zero.
Q With respect to Strand Advisors, when did you last serve as an agent of Strand?
A January-February 2012, when Highland enlisted me to meet with the Crusader investors, and I guess one called a Stratus (phonetic) investor, to the Stratus -- as I mentioned, there was two categories. One, my view on value of various Top 40 portfolio investments, and two, to discuss my reasons for leaving Highland.

Q When did you last serve as a representative of Strand?

A In that January-February 2012 time frame.

Q Were you authorized to sign documents on behalf of Strand Advisors?

A Yes.

Q When did that authority cease?

A When my employment at Highland terminated in October 2011.

MR. UEBLER: Your Honor, I have no further questions.

THE COURT: Any recross?

MR. MORRIS: Mr. Daugherty? Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Go ahead.

RECROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Mr. Daugherty, did you submit any documentation in support of your contention that you served not as an officer but as an agent or a representative of Strand until the time of your departure in 2011?

A Yes.

Q All right.

MR. MORRIS: No further questions, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

Mr. Daugherty, we appreciate your testimony. You're excused.

THE WITNESS: Thank you, Judge.

THE COURT: All right. Mr. Uebler, do you have any other evidence today?

MR. UEBLER: I don't have any other evidence, Your Honor, just some very brief closing remarks, if that's permitted. And I see we have four minutes left, so I'll defer to the Court.

THE COURT: Well, I won't cut you off cold in four minutes.

Mr. Morris, did the Debtor have any evidence today?

MR. MORRIS: Yes, Your Honor. Does Mr. Daugherty rest?

THE COURT: Yes, they rested. What I understood, they rest.

MR. UEBLER: I -- that's correct. I mean, subject to my comment earlier about submitting the exhibits and the papers as part of our case.

THE COURT: Well, let's make sure we get all of Mr. Daugherty's evidence in before I shift over to Mr. Morris. So what else did you want to offer?

MR. UEBLER: Only the -- the papers we've provided, including Mr. Daugherty's declaration and the exhibits attached to our motion and our reply.

THE COURT: All right. So those were filed as separate exhibits at Docket Entry No. 1388. I think it's all there, correct?

MR. UEBLER: Correct.

THE COURT: All right. So it looks like it's Exhibits 1 through 42 that appear there.

Any objection, Mr. Morris?

MR. MORRIS: Yes, Your Honor. I object to the admission into evidence of Exhibits 7 through 10, No. 14, and No. 17 through 38, on grounds that they are irrelevant in light of the fact that the Debtor has conceded for purposes of voting the $9.1 million in claims, and on the separate ground under Rule of Evidence 403 that any probative value of this material is greatly outweighed by the waste of time and the irrelevance of the subject matter.

I will point out just some examples, Your Honor. And this is why the Debtor really doesn't put this stuff in the record, because it is so irrelevant to these claims. But he's got things in there, the Court of Appeals decision on his criminal case. He's got a Crusader presentation. Actually, I -- we also object to that one, which is Exhibit 5. We've got, you know, appellate decisions, the escrow correspondence. We've got a Court of Appeals mandate. We've got correspondence relating to the escrow at Exhibit 30. We've got a transcript on an argument on a motion to compel. We've got motions for the argument.

If you look at these documents, Your Honor, they really have nothing to do with the claims that are being made here. Certainly, in light of the Defendant -- in light of the Debtor's concessions that we've made, we don't think that the record should include any of the documents that I've identified.

THE COURT: All right. Mr. Uebler, it's 2,619 pages in all. And what do you say to that objection?

MR. UEBLER: I agree they are prejudicial documents, Your Honor, but that doesn't make them inadmissible. They're prejudicial documents because they establish Mr. Daugherty's right to fee shifting under the bad-faith exception to the American Rule.

This is not, as Mr. Morris said earlier, a case where both sides' hands are dirty. This is a case where the Delaware court found the crime fraud exception applied. Based on my research, that was the second time that has happened in Delaware. That's a big deal.

And the transcripts that we put in, the motions for re-argument, the history we have presented in those 2,000 pages supports Mr. Daugherty's claim. It's directly relevant to an issue that I think Mr. Morris referred to as frivolous earlier, but I don't want to put words in his mouth. It's directly relevant, and that relevance by far outweighs any prejudice to Highland, or at least prejudice that wasn't of its own making.

So it should all be submitted at a minimum for the purpose of considering Mr. Daugherty's request for fees.

THE COURT: Okay. I overrule the objection. I'll admit Exhibits 1 through 42.

(Patrick Daugherty's Exhibits 1 through 42 are received into evidence.)

THE COURT: All right. So you rest at this point?

MR. UEBLER: Yes. Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. Mr. Morris?

MR. MORRIS: Yeah, just one clarification there, Your Honor. Is Mr. Daugherty attempting to offer into evidence Mr. Colvin's declaration?

THE COURT: I did not hear him offer that.

MR. UEBLER: I believe that's No. 42, Your Honor, so the answer is yes. And Mr. Morris had ample opportunity to question Mr. Daugherty about the substance of the declaration.

MR. MORRIS: Your Honor, it's --

THE COURT: Oh, okay. I had misunderstood.

MR. MORRIS: Okay.

THE COURT: It is Exhibit 42, even though it was just filed separately on the docket last night. So did you have an objection, Mr. Morris?

MR. MORRIS: I do. It's hearsay, Your Honor. It's being offered for the truth of the matter asserted by a witness who is not available to be cross-examined.

THE COURT: Okay. I sustain --

MR. UEBLER: Your Honor, --

THE COURT: I sustain that objection. 42 will not be admitted. All right.

(Admission of exhibits revised to exclude Patrick Daugherty's Exhibit 42.)

THE COURT: Mr. Morris, you have evidence?

MR. MORRIS: Yeah. So the Debtor offers into evidence Exhibits A through -- Exhibits A through V. And I guess Exhibits X1 and X2 have already been admitted.

THE COURT: All right. Let's be clear there. Those appear --

MR. KATHMAN: Your Honor? Your Honor, this is Jason Kathman. And I just wanted to -- on Exhibit 42, we talked with Mr. Morris, and maybe I had a misunderstanding, but my understanding is that we were going to present witnesses via declarations in that manner. And there had been some discussion about -- and giving him the opportunity to cross-examine Mr. Daugherty. So if I misunderstood the agreement, that's on me, but there was -- we had I believe it was in two phone calls, and I think he's had more (inaudible), about how testimony and witnesses would be presented for this hearing. And if Mr. Colvin is outside of that, again, maybe I'm misunderstanding, but I at least wanted to raise that issue.

MR. MORRIS: Your Honor, respectfully, I have great respect for Mr. Kathman, but he is misunderstanding. I would never, ever permit a declaration to come into evidence in a matter like this without the ability to cross-examine. I can describe for the Court what the offer was, but it was not that.

THE COURT: Okay. Well, I regret there was a misunderstanding, but just pulling this up, while it's only a one-and-a-half page declaration, it has 57 pages of attachments, or approximately 57 pages of just all kinds of things that I can presume the Debtor might want to cross-examine Mr. Colvin on. So I again sustain the objection. 42 will not come in.

All right. Mr. Morris, your evidence. Where do Exhibits A through V appear on the docket? I need to refresh my memory.

MR. MORRIS: Your Honor, just to let you know what happened last night, because we were working with Mr. Daugherty's counsels on redaction, and I think Mr. Anabel, with your Court's permission, allowed us to email the documents to you, and we had emailed them to Mr. Daugherty because we weren't sure at the late moment as to where we were going to be with the redactions. We can certainly file everything now. But Your Honor has those documents.

THE COURT: Okay. I do have those. I knew that there were several emails that they were attached to. I just didn't know if they were separately on the docket. So, again, let me pull those up. It's A through V?

MR. MORRIS: Yes.

THE COURT: Any objections by Daugherty's counsel?

MR. UEBLER: Your Honor, as I said, for this summary proceeding, we're not going to object to A through V. But with the exclusion of Daugherty 42, the Colvin declaration, it seems that X1 and X2 have no relevance anymore and should be excluded. Mr. Morris stated earlier that those two documents were submitted expressly in response to the Colvin declaration. With that out, Exhibits X1 and X2 should be out as well.

THE COURT: Okay. Your response, Mr. Morris?

MR. MORRIS: Yeah, very briefly. Number one, I used them to cross-examine his witness. I offered them into evidence. There was no objection. They've already been admitted into court. So I think this issue is moot.

But number two, when Mr. Daugherty said that he didn't -- I don't remember exactly what his testimony was, but suffice it to say that he wouldn't agree that he had resigned sometime between March 3rd and -- between March and May of 2009, I certainly could have used them as impeachment documents under any circumstance.

THE COURT: All right. I overrule the objection. X1 and X2 are in.

(Debtors' Exhibits X1 and X2 are again received into evidence.

THE COURT: Again, I think not only were they admitted without objection earlier, but they do, I guess you would say, contradict some of the testimony of Mr. Daugherty. His position, as I hear it, is he was still an agent, or he was an agent at least of Strand beyond the May 2009 time period. And these are documents that arguably impeach that testimony.

All right. So A through V and X1 and X2 are admitted.

(Debtors' Exhibits A through V and X1 and X2 received into evidence.)

THE COURT: If I could just ask, Mr. Morris, that you all later submit on the docket these exhibits, all of them, so we don't have to go back and print out the email attachments and do it the old-fashioned way.

MR. MORRIS: Sure.

THE COURT: All right. Any other evidence?

MR. MORRIS: No, Your Honor. The Debtor rests.

THE COURT: All right. I'll hear brief closing arguments. Mr. Uebler, you first. (Pause.) Mr. Uebler, you're on mute, sir. Mr. Uebler?

CLOSING ARGUMENT ON BEHALF OF CREDITOR PATRICK DAUGHERTY

MR. UEBLER: Thank you. Let me try that again. I want to start by responding to one of Mr. Morris's questions of Mr. Daugherty, which was, Did you submit any papers in this case that would establish that you were either an officer or an agent of Strand through resignation in 2011? That's Exhibit 2. It is, in fact, Highland's answer in the Delaware case at Paragraph 66, where Defendants admit that Daugherty served as an officer and agent of Strand from 2004 until he resigned from Highland in 2011. So I think that should answer Mr. Morris's question.

Let me just conclude by some comments that James Seery recently made in a deposition. He said, Equally, on the other side, you could say that the man's life was ripped out from him, that his position was taken away, that he got an arbitration award that arguably the Debtor and the Debtors' management at the time stripped away all the assets and pretty patently denuded it to try to leave him with no recovery. Then when he sought a recovery, they sought to sue him in every jurisdiction in the world and basically ruin the guy's life and put him in a position where, while to some it might seem a windfall, to him it might seem just.

Mr. Seery was talking about Josh Terry, not Mr. Daugherty. But Highland's blueprint for ruining a guy's life originated from its treatment of Mr. Daugherty.

We've given you reasons today to permit the full amount of the three remaining disputed issues for voting purposes for

Mr. Daugherty's claim. Allowing that full amount will protect Mr. Daugherty as a creditor, give him his appropriate say in any plan that's presented, and would hopefully bring these parties at least one step closer to resolution.

Thank you for your time today.

THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Uebler. Mr. Morris?

CLOSING ARGUMENT ON BEHALF OF THE DEBTORS

MR. MORRIS: Yeah. Very briefly, I'll just borrow Mr. Uebler's phraseology and say that it would not be just to give to Mr. Daugherty anything on account of a $21 million claim that has already been dismissed and that his testimony just established will be time-barred. We don't believe that it would be just to give him anything on account of a tax claim that is completely contingent, unliquidated, and where the Debtor admittedly owes absolutely nothing to Mr. Daugherty today.

I can't imagine what it's been like to go through this litigation, just like I couldn't imagine from Mr. Terry's perspective, from Mr. Dondero's perspective. These people have been at this for a decade. That's not what -- that's, you know, it's not anything I can get my arms around. What I'm here to do is to protect the Debtors' estate and its stakeholders, including its general unsecured creditors.

Mr. Daugherty is going to have a very meaningful claim if the Court allows his claim for voting purposes at $9 million.

It's going to be the third biggest claim, at least at this point, of anybody. So that's just. It's just that he has a seat at the table. We're offering him a seat at the table. But he shouldn't get anything on account of the claims that really have little to no merit.

Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

Well, I thank you for your thoroughness, your professional courtesy that was very visible here today.

As I started out with today, Bankruptcy Rule 3018(a) is what guides us. That rule is a provision that states, quote, Notwithstanding an objection to a claim, the Court may temporarily allow a claim for voting purposes in such amount the Court deems proper, after notice and a hearing.

There are many cases that have attempted to kind of impose a legal framework for analysis on that rule because, as you've just heard, the rule doesn't give much detail. The cases all sort of sing the same tune, that the rule contemplates only a summary estimation proceeding, not a full trial on the merits. The Court has great discretion to employ whatever method is best-suited to the circumstances of the case in determining what amount should be allowed for voting purposes. The Court should consider things like whether there's a last-minute objection to strategically prevent a creditor from voting who might vote no and the objection might be frivolous, that sort of thing. And all decisions are reviewed for abuse of discretion, should there be any appeal.

So that is the rule and the case law interpreting the rule. Based on that, I will note that we start out here with an amended proof of claim filed by Mr. Daugherty in the amount of $40,710,819.42. And I studied hard before coming out here today the addendum to that proof of claim filed by Mr. Daugherty. It had a description of the claim that was done in the form of a chart. I'm holding it up here -- I don't know if it picks up on camera -- what I'm looking at. But it appears at Docket Entry 1280-2. It was part of the appendix to the motion to estimate claim.

So the amount is broken down into components. If you're looking at that chart -- again, which was most helpful -- I note that in the claim of Daugherty for HERA units, there are different line items that total approximately $26 million and some change. So that's the issue we've talked about a lot today. Is it correct, is it reasonable to assume that Daugherty might be entitled to a hundred percent of the value or a hundred percent of the HERA units? So, I found that, based on the evidence and the argument, to be a problematic assumption. Again, one day we will have a trial on the adversary, a trial on the proof of claim. I will hear every bit of relevant evidence that the parties choose to put in on that issue. But for our purposes today, under Rule 3018, I just found considerable doubt that that would be an appropriate damage calculation here.

So, again, using my discretion, I found that, at a minimum, you should reduce that $26 million-plus component of the Daugherty proof of claim by the roughly 81 percent, because it was 19.1 percent, I think, that Daugherty would have been entitled to of the HERA units. So that's a roughly $5 million amount, or a $19 million reduction that -- excuse me. I did my math wrong. That's a $21 million reduction that I think would be reasonable for estimation purposes under 3018.

Further looking at the chart that breaks down Daugherty's claim -- we discussed this today in testimony -- there is an attorney fee component that aggregates to $7,854,752.31, and that's the indemnification, it's the interest on indemnification award, it's the fee shifting fees on fee award. And once again, looking at this through the lens of 3018(a), I do not think it's appropriate to assume I'm going to get there, if you will, on this attorneys' fee award. There have been bona fide issues, if you will, raised on whether the indemnification provision that was cited would entitle Mr. Daugherty to these fees. Section 4.1(h) of the partnership agreement would be that indemnification provision.

Moreover, the deviation from the American Rule, if that indemnification provision does not apply, is a big hurdle to achieve. It's very deeply rooted in our law that if you don't have a contract provision and you don't have a statute that entitles you to attorneys' fees, it's quite a high hurdle to get there, whether it be Rule 11, the vexatious litigation statute, or some common law argument of bad faith.

So, again, looking through the lens I'm looking through today, I just cannot get there under 3018.

So, doing my math, I'll go backwards. I've just said that I can't there on $7,854,750.31 of Mr. Daugherty's $40-plus million claim. I've said I can't get there on $21 million of his $40.7 million proof of claim because of the HERA, the 81 percent interest in the HERA units. So what else in that chart gives me pause? The tax refund, the 2008 tax refund component. We have $1,475,816 plus estimated interest on that of $1.174537 [million]. It's very clear that at this point this is, at best, contingent. And again, down the road we may get to a point where it's not contingent, the IRS has finished doing what it's going to do, and we may get to a point where we think a result is appropriate. I don't know. There may be, even if we get there, a subordination argument. The point is, there are bona fide arguments today that do not allow me to get to the point I feel like I need to get at an estimation hearing to allow this claim, these components of the claim.

So when you subtract $7.854 million and $1.475 million and $1.174 million and $21 million, that's about $32 million that

I would -- I was thinking about, before I even heard the evidence, deducting out of the claim that I would estimate for voting purposes.

That, I will tell you, is why I came out here at the very beginning today and said, Jeez, the Debtors' suggested voting claim of $9,134,019, which the Debtor came at a different way as far as the math, that sounded darn reasonable to me.

So I am going to allow a voting claim for Mr. Daugherty at $9,134,019.

Now, let me say a couple of more words why I fall back on that number. A, it's pretty close to the direction I was leaning, but B, I want Mr. Daugherty, if he's still on the line, to understand. I hope it doesn't seem like I'm giving Highland every benefit of the doubt here today and reducing your claim by every argument they made and just going at it that way. I do feel like I am obviously giving you some benefits of the doubt here. Primarily, the benefits of the doubt I'm giving you are, number one, the HERA judgment was obviously a HERA judgment. I mean, it was a judgment awarded to Mr. Daugherty against HERA, not Highland per se, right? I didn't misunderstand that. So I am assuming you have got darn good arguments, Mr. Daugherty, to hold Highland liable for that HERA award, plus the pre-judgment and post-judgment interest, up to the bankruptcy petition date of October 16th, 2019.

So I'm giving you the benefit of the doubt there, and on -- well, I do want to make one more point on the attorneys' fees. Again, that was a huge component of your proof of claim. And I certainly well understand the bad faith arguments and your many ways you think you will have of getting attorneys' fees at the end of the day. But I'm sitting here today looking at the fact that the Texas state court actually awarded Highland attorneys' fees against you. Now, I understand, or I think I understand, that was somewhat of a discrete issue with regard to the breach of fiduciary duty arguments in sharing information or taking files or information. And you might argue, well, that was very discrete, and obviously you paid it. But all this to say there are lots of a bona fide disputes here, I think. And again, the rule doesn't use that term, bona fide disputes, but, again, I have lots of discretion here, and I think, at the end of the day, a roughly $9 million voting claim is very reasonable.

I know the point I ended up making. I've also given you the benefit of the doubt, Mr. Daugherty, on the roughly $5 million claim I'm giving you for the 19 percent of the HERA assets. And I understand there were things about the Texas state court judgment that left that a little ambiguous, whether you could get that or whether that would be double-counting. But again, I just, I want you to know that I haven't weighed every benefit of the doubt in favor of Highland here. I've weighed a couple of these doubts in your favor.

All right. So, $9,134,019 is the voting claim of Mr. Daugherty. Again, this is without prejudice or waiver of any arguments at a later trial on the claim for distribution purposes.

Are there any questions?

MR. DAUGHERTY: Just, you asked if I was on. I just wanted to let you know I got back on. I took my (inaudible). But I heard every word and I appreciate your comments.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Mr. Daugherty.

Mr. Morris, would you be the scrivener on this order? And of course, run it by Mr. Uebler and Kathman.

MR. MORRIS: Of course, Your Honor.

MR. KATHMAN: Your Honor? Your Honor, this is Jason Kathman. We have just one housekeeping issue. We had filed, when we filed our motion to -- this 3018 motion at Docket No. 1280, actually, we filed a motion for leave to amend our proof of claim, which is the -- actually, the chart that I think Your Honor was looking at was the chart that we attached to our amended proof of claim. We filed that with negative notice, and that negative notice actually ran yesterday. So we'll upload a certificate of no objection. But just, while we're here on the record, I wanted to ask for the Court to approve that motion for leave to file an amended proof of claim.

THE COURT: Okay. So I neglected to note that detail. I was of the impression it wasn't contested, and in fact, the objection deadline has run. So I will accept your order on that. Okay?

MR. KATHMAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. Thank you all. We stand adjourned.

MR. MORRIS: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE CLERK: All rise.

MOTION FOR ENTRY OF AN ORDER PURSUANT TO BANKRUPTCY RULE 9019 AND 11 U.S.C. § 363 APPROVING SETTLEMENT WITH THE HMIT ENTITIES AND AUTHORIZING ACTIONS CONSISTENT THEREWITH

Highland Capital Management, L.P., the reorganized debtor (the "Debtor" or "Highland," as applicable) in the above-captioned chapter 11 case (the "Bankruptcy Case"), the Highland Claimant Trust (the "Claimant Trust"), and the Highland Litigation Sub-Trust (the "Litigation Sub-Trust" and together with Highland and the Claimant Trust, the "Movants") file this Motion (the "Motion") for entry of an order pursuant to sections 105(a) and 363 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") and Rule 9019 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, approving a settlement agreement (the "Settlement Agreement")[2] between Highland, the Claimant Trust, the Litigation Sub-Trust, and the Highland Indemnity Trust (the "Indemnity Trust", and together with Highland, the Claimant Trust, and the Litigation Sub-Trust, the "Highland Entities"), on the one hand, and Hunter Mountain Investment Trust ("HMIT"), Beacon Mountain LLC ("Beacon Mountain"), Rand Advisors, LLC ("Rand Advisors"), Rand PE Fund I, LP ("Rand PE Fund"), Rand PE Fund Management, LLC ("Rand GP"), Atlas IDF, LP ("Atlas IDF"), and Atlas IDF GP, LLC ("Atlas GP" and together with HMIT, Beacon Mountain, Rand Advisors, Rand PE Fund, Rand GP, and Atlas IDF, the "HMIT Entities"), on the other hand. A copy of the Settlement Agreement is attached as Exhibit 1 to the Declaration of Gregory V. Demo in Support of the Motion for Entry of an Order Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and 11 U.S.C. § 363 Approving Settlement with the HMIT Entities and Authorizing Actions Consistent Therewith (the "Demo Declaration"), filed concurrently herewith. In support of this Motion, the Movants respectfully state as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. Following extensive, arm's-length, good faith negotiations, the Highland Entities and the HMIT Entities, acting through their duly authorized representatives, executed the Settlement Agreement that will result in, among other things: (a) the dismissal with prejudice of all pending litigation between and among them; (b) the disposition of Estate Claims asserted against certain of the HMIT Entities by the Litigation Trustee of the Litigation Sub-Trust and the assignment of the balance of the remaining Estate Claims (as defined in the Plan) to the HMIT Entities; (c) the allowance of the HMIT Class 10 Interest in the Claimant Trust in a fixed amount; (d) distributions to HMIT on account of its Class 10 interest, including the assignment of the Dugaboy Note, a long-term note with no ready market, at times and in amounts, and subject to the conditions, set forth in the Settlement Agreement; and (e) the exchange of mutual general and broad releases and other protections consistent with the parties' intent to end all current, and avoid all future litigation, between and among them (except for any alleged breach of the Settlement Agreement).

[2] Capitalized terms used herein, but not defined, have the meanings ascribed to them in the Settlement Agreement or elsewhere in this Motion, as applicable.

2. The parties' entry into the Settlement Agreement is one of the most significant developments in the long-running Highland Bankruptcy Case. As this Court is aware, until now, HMIT has used its position as a holder of an unallowed, unvested, contingent interest in Class 10 of the Claimant Trust to commence litigation demanding books and records, seeking judicial declarations as to its claimed status as a beneficiary of the Claimant Trust, and asserting various other claims against the Highland Entities and their Court-appointed fiduciaries. The HMIT Entities have been made subject to a motion filed by Highland in the District Court seeking an adjudication that they or some of them are vexatious litigants. While that motion was denied by the District Court, Highland could bring the same type of motion before this Court. Also certain of the HMIT Entities have been named as defendants by the Liquidation Sub-Trust in the Amended Kirschner Complaint.

3. No more. The parties' willingness to resolve all disputes and settle all claims among them will finally end that portion of the protracted and value-destructive litigation that has impeded the Highland Entities' ability to distribute their assets to their constituents and fully implement the Plan. The Settlement Agreement will also remove substantial hurdles to the eventual windup of the Highland Entities.[3] Indeed, among the many benefits that will accrue to the Highland Entities from the Settlement Agreement are: (a) the cessation of costly, time-consuming, and disruptive litigation; (b) the disposition of two significant Estate assets—the Estate Claims and another illiquid asset, the Dugaboy Note—via distribution, assignment, and sale in furtherance of the ultimate winding up of the Claimant Trust's affairs; (c) the resolution of all disputes in connection with the HMIT Class 10 interest in the Claimant Trust, which was not previously allowed; and (d) the protection against future value-destructive litigation.

4. The proposed Settlement Agreement is clearly in the best interests of the Highland Entities and their stakeholders and results from a sound exercise of their business judgment. The Motion should be granted.

RELEVANT BACKGROUND

I. HMIT's Partnership Interest in Highland

5. In December 2015, HMIT acquired 100% of Highland's Class B and Class C limited partnership interests (the "Class B/C Interests") from James Dondero, Mark Okada, and certain entities affiliated with them. Mr. Dondero—through the Dugaboy Investment Trust ("Dugaboy") and Strand Advisors, Inc. ("Strand")—and Mr. Okada, directly and indirectly, retained Highland's Class A limited partnership interests (the "Class A Interests").

6. The Class B/C Interests represented 99.50% of the Debtor's prepetition total equity. The Class A Interests, in aggregate, represented the remaining 0.50%.

7. Concurrently with its acquisition of the Class B/C Interests, HMIT executed that certain Secured Promissory Note dated December 21, 2015, in the original face amount of [3] Assuming the Settlement Agreement is approved, the only unresolved Claims or Equity Interests will be Patrick Daugherty's claim (Adv. Proc. No. 25-03055-sgj, Docket No. 1 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. May 2, 2025) (the "Daugherty Claim")), and the disputed, out-of-the-money, de minimis Class 11 Equity Interests asserted by two Dondero controlled entities—Dugaboy and Strand.

$63,000,000 in favor of Highland (the "HMIT Note"), which, as of the Petition Date, had an outstanding principal balance of $57,690,640.95 (the "HMIT Note Balance").

8. On December 24, 2015, the Debtor and its limited partners, including HMIT, entered into that certain Fourth Amended and Restated Agreement of Limited Partnership of Highland Capital Management, L.P. (as subsequently amended, the "LPA"). Pursuant to the LPA, each limited partner had a capital account at the Debtor on account of its limited partnership interests.

9. As of the Petition Date, HMIT's capital account balance on account of its Class B/C Interests was $394,630,871.53 (the "HMIT Capital Account Balance"), and the capital account for all Class A Interests in aggregate was $1,983,069.70.[4]

II. The Bankruptcy Case

10. The Debtor commenced the Bankruptcy Case in the District of Delaware on October 16, 2019, by filing its voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Bankruptcy Case was subsequently transferred to this Court.

11. On February 22, 2021, the Bankruptcy Court entered the Order (I) Confirming the Fifth Amended Plan of Reorganization of Highland Capital Management, L.P. (as Modified) and (II) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 1943], which confirmed the Fifth Amended Plan of Reorganization of Highland Capital Management, L.P. (as Modified) [Docket No. 1943-1] (the "Plan"). The Plan went effective on August 11, 2021 [Docket No. 2700] (the "Effective Date").

12. On the Effective Date, in accordance with the Plan: (a) the Claimant Trust and Litigation Sub-Trust were created; (b) the Class B/C Interests and the Class A Interests were extinguished; (c) holders of allowed Class 10 interests, consisting of Class B/C Interests, would receive contingent and unvested Class 10 Interests if and when their claims or interests were allowed in amounts determined under the Plan; (d) holders of allowed Class 11 interests, consisting of the Class A Interests, would receive contingent and unvested Class 11 Interests if and when their claims or interests were allowed in amounts under the Plan; (e) James P. Seery, Jr., was appointed the Claimant Trustee of the Claimant Trust; and (f) Marc Kirschner was appointed the Litigation Trustee of the Litigation Sub-Trust.

13. Presently, neither the HMIT Class 10 Interest nor any of the Class 11 Interests have been Allowed (as such term is defined in the Plan).

III. The Kirschner Litigation

14. On October 15, 2021, the Litigation Trustee filed his Complaint and Objection to Claims (Adv. Proc. No. 21-03076-sgj, Docket No. 1 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. Oct. 15, 2021)) (the "Kirschner Complaint") which asserted, among other things, various claims against (a) Rand PE Fund and (b) HMIT, including a cause of action to collect amounts owed to Highland by HMIT pursuant to the HMIT Note.

15. On May 19, 2022, the Litigation Trustee amended the Kirschner Complaint (Adv. Proc. No. 21-03076-sgj, Docket No. 158 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. May 19, 2022)) (the "Amended Kirschner Complaint"). The Amended Kirschner Complaint asserted substantially similar claims against HMIT and Rand PE Fund, including claims to collect the amounts owed under the HMIT Note.

16. On April 4, 2023, upon the motion of the Litigation Trustee, this Court stayed prosecution of the Amended Kirschner Complaint, among other proceedings. Adv. Proc. No. 21-03076-sgj, Docket No. 338 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. April 4, 2023). As of the issuance of the stay, none of the HMIT Entities named a defendant had filed answers and therefore had not been required to file any counterclaims.

IV. The Pending HMIT Litigation

17. On March 28, 2023, HMIT filed Hunter Mountain Investment Trust's Emergency Motion for Leave to File Verified Adversary Proceeding [Docket Nos. 3699, 3760, 3815, 3816] (as amended and supplemented, the "First Motion for Leave") in which HMIT asserted, inter alia, claims for breach of fiduciary duty, conspiracy, and unjust enrichment against Highland, the Claimant Trust, and Mr. Seery, among others. On August 25, 2023, this Court denied the First Motion for Leave. In re Highland Cap. Mgmt., L.P., 2023 Bankr. LEXIS 2104 (Bankr. S.D. Tex Aug. 25, 2023). HMIT appealed to the District Court for the Northern District of Texas (the "District Court"), and, on March 21, 2025, the District Court remanded to this Court for further proceedings. Hunter Mountain Inv. Tr. v. Highland Cap. Mgmt., L.P., Case No. 3:23-cv-02071-E, Docket No. 44 (N.D. Tex. Mar. 21, 2025).

18. On May 10, 2023, Dugaboy Investment Trust ("Dugaboy") and HMIT filed that certain Complaint to (i) Compel Disclosures About the Assets of Highland Claimant Trust and (ii) Determine (a) Relative Value of Those Assets, and (b) Nature of Plaintiffs' Interests in the Claimant Trust, Adv. Proc. No. 23-03038-sgj, Docket No. 1 (the "Valuation Complaint"), seeking an order (a) compelling the Claimant Trust to provide information about its assets, (b) valuing those assets, and (c) deeming Dugaboy and HMIT "Claimant Trust Beneficiaries." On May 24, 2024, this Court dismissed the Valuation Complaint with prejudice [Docket No. 27]. Dugaboy and HMIT appealed to the District Court (Case No. 3:24-cv-01531-X (N.D. Tex.)), and the appeal is fully briefed and sub judice.

19. On January 1, 2024, HMIT filed its Motion for Leave to File a Delaware Complaint [Docket. No. 4000] (the "Second Motion for Leave," and together with the First Motion for Leave and the Valuation Complaint, the "Pending HMIT Litigation"). On January 16, 2024, Highland and the Claimant Trust moved to stay the Second Motion for Leave pending appellate review of the dismissal of the Valuation Complaint [Docket No. 4013] (the "Stay Motion"). On June 22, 2024, this Court granted the Stay Motion [Docket No. 4104]. HMIT subsequently appealed to the District Court (Case No. 3:24-cv-01786-L (N.D. Tex.)), and the appeal is fully briefed and sub judice.

V. Summary of the Salient Terms of the Settlement Agreement

20. To resolve the disputes between the Highland Entities and the HMIT Entities, including the Pending HMIT Litigation, the parties and their counsel engaged in extensive arm's-length, good faith negotiations over the last several months. These negotiations resulted in the Settlement Agreement, which provides for, inter alia, the sale and transfer of certain Estate Claims and other Estate assets to the HMIT Entities, the dismissal of the Pending HMIT Litigation, and the exchange of broad mutual releases.

21. Subject to the terms of the Settlement Agreement, the principal terms of the Settlement Agreement are set forth below:[5]

- Within five (5) business days after the Court issues an order approving the allowance of HMIT Class 10 Interest (the "Bankruptcy Court Approval Date"), the HMIT Entities will dismiss the Pending HMIT Litigation with prejudice;[6]
- Within five (5) business days after the Bankruptcy Court Approval Date, the Litigation Trustee will dismiss HMIT and Rand PE Fund from Counts I, II, III, and XXIV (which relates to the HMIT Note) of the Amended Kirschner Complaint with prejudice;
- Within five (5) business days after the Bankruptcy Court Approval Date, Highland will pay $500,000 to HMIT;
- Subject to the Court's approval and the terms and conditions set forth in the Settlement Agreement, the HMIT's Class 10 Interests will be allowed in the amount of

[5] In the event of any inconsistency between this Motion and the Settlement Agreement, the terms of the Settlement Agreement shall control.

[6] The Valuation Complaint will only be dismissed as to HMIT; Dugaboy's claims in the Valuation Complaint will not be impaired.

$336,940,230.58, which represents the HMIT Capital Account Balance, less the HMIT Note Balance;[7]

RELIEF REQUESTED

22. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and Bankruptcy Code section 363(b), the Movants request entry of an order substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, granting the Motion, approving the Settlement Agreement, and authorizing the Highland Entities and their agents to take all actions necessary or desirable to implement the Settlement Agreement without the need for further notice or approval by the Court.

BASIS FOR RELIEF REQUESTED

23. Bankruptcy Rule 9019 provides that "[o]n motion … and after notice and a hearing, the court may approve a compromise or settlement." FED. R. BANKR. P. 9019(a). Settlements are favored in the bankruptcy context to "minimize litigation and expedite the administration of a bankruptcy estate." Myers v. Martin (In re Martin), 91 F.3d 389, 393 (3d Cir. 1996). The approval of a settlement is within the "sound discretion" of the Court. In re Jackson Brewing Co., 624 F.2d 599, 603 (5th Cir. 1980).

24. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019(a), the Court may approve a settlement if it is fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of the estate. See, e.g., Official Comm. of Unsecured Creditors v. Moeller (In re Age Ref., Inc.), 801 F.3d 530, 540 (5th Cir. 2015). A settlement should be approved unless it falls below the lowest point in the range of reasonableness, based on a comparison between the terms of the settlement and the costs and benefits of further litigation. See, e.g., Jackson Brewing Co., 624 F.2d at 602 (court must compare the "terms of the compromise with the likely rewards of litigation"); Cook v. Waldron, 2006 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 31411, at *10 (S.D. Tex. April 18, 2006) (court should "canvass the issues" to decide if settlement falls "below the lowest point in the range of reasonableness").

25. In evaluating a proposed settlement, courts consider (i) the "probability of success in the litigation, with due consideration for the uncertainty in fact and law," (ii) the "complexity and likely duration of the litigation and any attendant expense, inconvenience and delay," and (iii) "[a]ll other factors bearing on the wisdom of the compromise." Official Comm. of Unsecured Creditors v. Cajun Elec. Power Coop. (In re Cajun Elec. Power Coop.), 119 F.3d 349, 356 (5th Cir. 1997) (quoting Jackson Brewing Co., 624 F.2d at 602). Assessing the first factor—success on the merits—does not require a "mini-trial" on the merits. Cajun Elec. Power Coop., 119 F.3d at 356. The "other factors" include "the best interests of the creditors, 'with proper deference to their reasonable views,'" as well as "'the extent to which the settlement is truly the product of arms-length bargaining, and not of fraud or collusion.'" Id. (quoting Conn. Gen. Life Ins. Co. v. United Cos. Fin. Corp. (In re Foster Mortg. Corp.), 68 F.3d 914, 917-18 (5th Cir. 1995)).

26. A trustee also "is permitted to settle lawsuits pursuant to section 363(b)" of the Bankruptcy Code. Id. at 354. Section 363(b) provides that "[t]he trustee, after notice and a hearing, may use, sell, or lease, other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate." 11 U.S.C. 363(b)(1). A settlement involving a transaction outside the ordinary course of business "'must be supported by an articulated business justification, good business judgment, or sound business reasons.'" Gluckstadt Holdings, L.L.C. v. VCR I, L.L.C. (In re VCR I, L.L.C.), 922 F.3d 323, 327 (5th Cir. 2019) (quoting Cadle Co. v. Mims (In re Moore), 608 F.3d 253, 263 (5th Cir. 2010)).

27. As discussed in detail below, the factors to be considered pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and Bankruptcy Code section 363(b) weigh in favor of approving the Settlement Agreement in this case.

28. First, although the Highland Entities believe they have strong and meritorious defenses to all of the Pending HMIT Litigation, history has shown that defending the Pending HMIT Litigation, including the appeals that could result therefrom, will be costly, time-consuming and value-destructive to the estate and creditor recoveries. Further, there is no guarantee that the Highland Entities would continue to be successful in defending the Pending HMIT Litigation—or that the HMIT Entities will not file additional litigation against the Highland Entities and their indemnified parties.

29. The second factor—complexity, duration, and costs of litigation—also weighs heavily in favor of approval of the Settlement Agreement. As this Court is aware, the cost of defending against the litigation in this case, including the Pending HMIT Litigation, has been significant. The litigation and its attendant costs have also significantly delayed and reduced distributions to the Debtor's constituents. The Pending HMIT Litigation began in 2023 and, although HMIT has lost in this Court, the Pending HMIT Litigation is subject to at least two pending appeals and has no signs of resolving absent this settlement. If the Settlement Agreement is not approved, the Highland Entities will be faced with significant appellate litigation and potentially additional litigation in this Court and other courts to resolve the Pending HMIT Litigation as well as any other litigation that may be brought by the HMIT Entities if the Settlement Agreement—and the Litigation Protections, including the releases—are not approved.

30. Third, approval of the Settlement Agreement is justified by the paramount interest of Highland's creditors and constituents. The Settlement Agreement resolves the Pending HMIT Litigation, resolves all disputes in connection with the HMIT Class 10 claim; sells, transfers, and assigns the Estate Claims asserted in the Amended Kirschner Complaint—which has been pending since 2021 at significant cost to the estate—to the HMIT Entities; and provides for broad mutual releases and a cessation of the litigation and acrimony that has delayed consummation of the Plan. In exchange the Highland Entities are paying $500,000 and the Indemnity Trust is agreeing to scheduled distributions from the Indemnity Trust to the Holders of Allowed Class 10 Claims and Equity Interests. The Settlement Agreement is clearly a rational exercise of the Highland Entities' business judgment.

31. Finally, the Settlement Agreement was unquestionably negotiated in good faith and at arm's length. The Highland Entities' and HMIT Entities' relationship to date has been defined by hostility. Notwithstanding that history, the Highland Entities and HMIT Entities, with their advisors, negotiated the Settlement Agreement over the last several months, which, although not perfect for any party, finally resolves the years of active litigation and acrimony between the Highland Entities and HMIT Entities.

32. While this Motion is the motion of the Highland Entities, undersigned counsel for the HMIT Entities appears below to evidence the approval by the HMIT Entities of the form and content of this Motion.

NO PRIOR REQUEST

33. No previous request for the relief sought herein has been made to this Court or any other court.

PRAYER

WHEREFORE, the Movants respectfully request entry of an order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, granting the Motion and the relief requested herein, and granting them such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

4. HMIT Class 10 Interest.

(a) Subject to entry of the Bankruptcy Court Order, and the terms of this Agreement, the HMIT Class 10 Interest shall be deemed allowed in the amount of Three Hundred Thirty-Six Million Nine Hundred Forty Thousand Two Hundred Thirty and 58/100 Dollars (US$336,940,230.58), which amount represents the HMIT Capital Account Balance, less the HMIT Note Balance.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan or the Claimant Trust Agreement, as an integral part of this Agreement to consent to the allowance of the HMIT Class 10 Interest and the other considerations in this Agreement, HMIT shall not be deemed, and no holder of the HMIT Class 10 Interest shall be, a Claimant Trust Beneficiary or a "Beneficiary" under the Claimant Trust Agreement, and the Highland Released Parties, individually and collectively, shall owe no duty to any HMIT Releasor (whether contractual, fiduciary, equitable, statutory or otherwise), including with respect to the HMIT Class 10 Interest, in each case, except as expressly set forth in this Agreement. Furthermore, without limiting the foregoing and for the avoidance of doubt, the contractual right of the holder of the HMIT Class 10 Interest to receive or recover any payments or Indemnity Trust Assets from the Indemnity Trust as set forth in this Agreement or the Indemnity Trust Agreement does not make any HMIT Releasor or any other Person a beneficiary of the Indemnity Trust or under the Indemnity Trust Agreement.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, the Claimant Trust Agreement or the Indemnity Trust Agreement, in no event shall HMIT sell, transfer, assign, pledge, hypothecate, participate or otherwise dispose of or encumber the HMIT Class 10 Interest or any rights (including any right to payment) with respect thereto (collectively, a "Class 10 Assignment"), and any attempted Class 10 Assignment shall be null and void.

(d) For the avoidance of doubt, the HMIT Class 10 Interest is and shall remain senior to the not yet allowed, unvested contingent Class 11 Claims of Equity Interests as provided for in the Plan, the Plan Documents, and the Claimant Trust Agreement.

(b) Within five (5) Business Days after the Bankruptcy Court Approval Date (the "Note Assignment Date"), the Highland Entities shall cause the portion of the Dugaboy Note held by the Highland Entities to be distributed to HMIT in-kind and take all actions necessary for HMIT to become the holder of such portion of the Dugaboy Note, and shall in addition pay to HMIT cash in the aggregate amount of all principal and interest payments actually received on the Dugaboy Note by the Highland Entities, including the Indemnity Trust, from the Agreement Date to the Note Assignment Date. Prior to the Bankruptcy Court Approval Date, HMIT will engage an independent valuation service provider to value the Dugaboy Note for purposes of determining the magnitude of reduction to the outstanding allowed Class 10 Interests on account of such in-kind distribution, which shall not be less than Fifty percent (50%) of the current balance owed under the Dugaboy Note. The HMIT Entities acknowledge and agree that none of the Highland Entities are representing or warranting that the Dugaboy Note can be sold, or the price, if any, that could be received for the Dugaboy Note and further acknowledge and agree that any such purchase price may be de minimis.

6. Subsequent Distribution(s) on the Allowed Class 10 Interests.

(a) On December 1, 2027, the Indemnity Trust shall distribute (such distribution, collectively, the "First Subsequent Distribution", and the date on which such Subsequent Distribution is made, the "First Subsequent Distribution Date") Pro Rata to the Holders of allowed Class 10 Claims or Equity Interests: cash in the aggregate amount of Six Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars (US$6,500,000.00), by Wire Transfer.

(b) On December 1, 2028, the Indemnity Trust shall distribute (such distribution, collectively, the "Second Subsequent Distribution", and the date on which such Subsequent Distribution is made, the "Second Subsequent Distribution Date") Pro Rata to the Holders of allowed Class 10 Claims or Equity Interests cash in the aggregate amount of Six Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars (US$6,500,000.00) by Wire Transfer.

(c) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the obligations of the Indemnity Trust to make the First Subsequent Distribution or Second Subsequent Distribution is subject in all respects to (i) there being no Threats and (ii) a determination in accordance with Article VIII, Section 8.1(c) of the Indemnity Trust Agreement that the Indemnity Trust Assets comprising such distributions are not reasonably necessary to satisfy current or potential Indemnification Obligations (as defined in the Indemnity Trust Agreement) to all persons who are or might become Beneficiaries (as defined in the Indemnity Trust Agreement).

7. Final Distribution on the Allowed Class 10 Interests.

(a) On the later of the Final Court Approval Date and April 1, 2029, the Indemnity Trust will distribute all excess remaining Indemnity Trust Assets in accordance with Article VIII of the Indemnity Trust Agreement; provided, however, that the obligation of the Indemnity Trust to make any such distributions and/or dissolve and wind up the affairs of the Indemnity Trust is subject in all respects to (i) there being no Threats and (ii) a determination in accordance with Article VIII of the Indemnity Trust Agreement that (1) a Final Order(s) (as defined in the Indemnity Trust Agreement) has been entered resolving all litigation, claims or proceedings in any forum of any kind which could give rise to Indemnity Obligations (as defined in the Indemnity Trust Agreement) and payment in full of all such Indemnity Obligations and (2) all applicable statutes of limitations and any applicable tolling of such statutes of limitation have expired.

(b) The Indemnity Trust agrees to not use Indemnity Trust Assets to fund Operating Expenses.

(c) Following the Bankruptcy Court Approval Date, at the request of Mark Patrick, solely in his capacity, and to the extent he remains, as administrator of HMIT, but not more often than quarterly, Highland and the Indemnity Trust Administrator agree to review (i) the status of their respective assets, (ii) the balance of cash held, (iii) the status of any claims made for indemnification and any resolutions thereof, (iv) the status of any litigation, and (v) forecasted operating expenses with Mr. Patrick, and will each work in good faith to reduce operating expenses where reasonably practicable; provided, however, that all such reporting shall be subject to Mr. Patrick's agreement to maintain confidentiality with respect to any non-public information.

8. Transfer Kirschner Claims; Dismissal of HMIT Note Claims.

(a) Within five (5) Business Days after the Bankruptcy Court Approval Date, but after the dismissal provided for in Section 2, the Litigation Sub-Trust shall execute a short-form assignment in in favor of the HMIT Entities transferring all of the Litigation Sub-Trust's right, title, and interest in and to the Kirschner Claims (the "Kirschner Transfer"). Such assignment shall be in a form mutually acceptable to the Parties and its substance shall be consistent with the terms, conditions and limitations set forth in this Agreement, including Section 8(b) below. Each HMIT Entity acknowledges and agrees that none of the Highland Entities will have any duty or obligation to assist the HMIT Entities in any way with respect to the Kirschner Claims, including the prosecution thereof, except as provided in this Agreement, including the terms of Section 8(c) below.

(b) THE HMIT ENTITIES SPECIFICALLY ACKNOWLEDGE AND AGREE THAT THE LITIGATION SUB-TRUST IS TRANSFERRING THE KIRSCHNER CLAIMS ON AN "AS IS AND WITH ALL FAULTS" BASIS AND THAT THE HMIT ENTITIES ARE NOT RELYING ON ANY REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND WHATSOEVER, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, FROM THE HIGHLAND ENTITIES OR THEIR REPRESENTATIVES AS TO ANY MATTERS CONCERNING THE KIRSCHNER CLAIMS AND AMENDED COMPLAINT, INCLUDING WITH RESPECT TO THE ENFORCEABILITY, TRANSFERABILITY, VIABILITY, STRENGTH, OR VALUE OF ANY OF THE KIRSCHNER CLAIMS OR THE AMENDED COMPLAINT. The HMIT Entities hereby specifically acknowledge that they have carefully reviewed this Section and have had the opportunity to discuss its import with legal counsel and that the provisions of this Section are a material part of this Agreement. Thus, if for any reason HMIT is precluded from or is otherwise unable to prosecute all or any of the Kirschner Claims, (i) the HMIT Releasors shall have no recourse against any Highland Released Parties whatsoever and shall not be entitled to compensation of any kind, it being agreed that the HMIT Entities are otherwise receiving adequate consideration for the duties and obligations they are undertaking pursuant to this Agreement and (ii) there will be no effect whatsoever on the validity and enforceability of this Agreement or any of the other transactions contemplated hereby.

(c) As promptly as reasonably practicable following the Bankruptcy Court Approval Date, the Highland Entities shall provide to the HMIT Entities electronic copies of written discovery requests and responses thereto, and documents produced in discovery in respect of the Kirschner Claims and the Amended Complaint. The Highland Entities will not provide any other documents regarding the Kirschner Claims including any attorney-client communications and any documents subject to the attorney work-product doctrine or similar privileges or immunities concerning the Kirschner Claims (collectively, the "Kirschner Privileges"), it being understood and agreed that the Highland Entities are retaining, and not transferring or waiving, the Kirschner Privileges.

(d) Each Party acknowledges and agrees that if (i) the Kirschner Transfer is found or deemed to be impermissible or invalid, for any reason, or (ii) any HMIT Entity materially breaches this Agreement, the Kirschner Claims and Amended Complaint will revert to, and remain an asset of, the Litigation Sub-Trust.

13. Representations and Warranties.

(a) Each of the HMIT Entities hereby represents and warrants that every HMIT Entity Released Claim has not heretofore been assigned or encumbered and is not the subject of a transfer (as such term is defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(54)), by any HMIT Releasor.

(b) The HMIT Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors, acknowledge and agree that each Plan Provision is lawful, effective, and binding on the HMIT Releasors. The HMIT Entities further agree, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors, that the HMIT Releasors will never, in any way, challenge or seek to modify, nullify, vacate, or revoke, or induce, encourage or direct any other Person to do so or act in concert with or assist (financially or otherwise) any other Person in doing so the Confirmation Order, the Plan, the Plan Protections, or any Plan Document, including the Claimant Trust Agreement, the LPA, the Indemnity Trust Agreement or the Litigation Sub-Trust Agreement, in the Bankruptcy Court, in any other state or federal court, in any other forum or tribunal, or otherwise, including administrative or regulatory tribunals and foreign courts.

(c) Each of the Highland Entities hereby represents and warrants that every Highland Entity Released Claim has not heretofore been assigned or encumbered and is not the subject of a transfer (as such term is defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(54)), by any Highland Releasor.

(d) Each Party severally represents and warrants as to itself only that: (i) it has taken all necessary action to authorize and approve the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement; (ii) such Party has full power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement; and (iii) this Agreement constitutes a valid, legal and binding obligation of such Party, and is enforceable subject to its terms. Each individual signatory hereto individually warrants and represents to all Parties hereto that such individual has full power and authority to act on behalf of and bind the Party for which he or she has executed this Agreement; provided, however that no signatory shall otherwise provide any warranty or representation or otherwise be a party to this Agreement on an individual basis.

14. No Continuing Rights, Duties or Obligations. Except for the rights, duties, and obligations expressly set forth in this Agreement, all Rights and Obligations that existed or may have existed shall be deemed terminated, extinguished, and released upon the Agreement Date. For the avoidance of doubt, from and after the Agreement Date, (a) the Highland Released Parties, individually and collectively, shall owe no duty, past or present, including with respect to the Kirchner Claims, to the HMIT Released Parties, individually and collectively, whether contractual, fiduciary, equitable, statutory or otherwise, except as arising out of this Agreement, and (b) the HMIT Released Parties, individually and collectively, shall owe no duty to the Highland Released Parties, individually and collectively, whether contractual, fiduciary, equitable, statutory or otherwise, except as arising out of this Agreement.

15. Gatekeeper Standard.

(a) The HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, acknowledge and agree that, notwithstanding the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit's decision in Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors, L.P. v. Highland Capital Management, L.P., No. 23-10^{53}4 (5th Cir. Mar. 18, 2025), the "Gatekeeper" provisions contained in Highland's Original Plan is forever binding on each of the HMIT Entities and any Persons claiming through, under or on behalf of any of them, and for a claim or cause of action to be "colorable" for purposes of the Gatekeeper, it must be found by final order of the Bankruptcy Court (the "Gatekeeper Court"), which order shall be subject to appeal to a court of competent jurisdiction, to have satisfied the "Gatekeeper Colorability Test" as such term is defined in In re Highland Capital Management, L.P., 2023 Bankr. LEXIS 2104 at *124-36 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. Aug. 24, 2023).

(b) The HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, acknowledge and agree that compliance with the Gatekeeper requires (i) a motion seeking leave to sue an Exculpated Party (as that term is defined in Highland's original Plan) and a finding that the litigant's claims and causes of action are "colorable" attaching a complaint setting forth the basis for such claims or causes of action and (ii), in the Gatekeeper Court's sole discretion, an evidentiary hearing (during which the Gatekeeper Court may, among other things, hear testimony and assess the credibility of any witness(es)) to determine whether a proposed claim or cause of action is "colorable."

(c) The HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, further acknowledge and agree that the moving party under the Gatekeeper has the burden of satisfying the "Gatekeeper Colorability Test," and that the dismissal of the Pending Litigation shall have res judicata effect.

16. Indemnification.

(a) Without in any manner limiting the available remedies for any breach of this Agreement, the HMIT Entities, severally but not jointly, agree to indemnify, defend, and hold the Highland Released Parties harmless from and against any and all Liability, that may arise or result from or on account of, or that are otherwise related or attributable to (x) any breach of this Agreement or of any representation or warranty contained in the Agreement, including the representations and warranties of any HMIT Entity set forth in Section 13 or (y) any Actions brought or prosecuted by or on behalf of, any HMIT Releasor or that are induced, encouraged, assisted or directed by any HMIT Releasor or brought or prosecuted in concert with any HMIT Releasor against any Highland Released Party with respect to or related to any HMIT Entity Released Claims. Without limiting the scope of the foregoing in any manner, any HMIT Entity that breaches Section 12 shall be liable to the Highland Released Party against whom the applicable Action has been brought or prosecuted in violation of Section 12 for the reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred by such Highland Released Party in defending against or otherwise responding to such Action. Each HMIT Entity acknowledges and agrees that the HMIT Entities are and shall be severally but not jointly liable for any Liability arising from or out of any breach of this Agreement or of any representation or warranty set forth in this Agreement.

(b) Without in any manner limiting the available remedies for any breach of this Agreement, the Highland Entities, severally but not jointly, agree to indemnify, defend, and hold the HMIT Released Parties harmless from and against any and all Liability, that may arise or result from or on account of, or that are otherwise related or attributable to (x) any breach of this Agreement or of any representation or warranty contained in the Agreement, including the representations and warranties of any Highland Entity set forth in Section 13 or (y) any suits, proceedings, or other actions brought or prosecuted by or on behalf of, any Highland Releasor or that are induced, encouraged, assisted or directed by any Highland Releasor or brought or prosecuted in concert with any Highland Releasor against any HMIT Released Party with respect to or related to any Highland Entity Released Claims. Without in any manner limiting the scope of the foregoing, any Highland Entity that breaches Section 12 shall be liable to the HMIT

Released Party against whom the applicable Action has been brought or prosecuted in violation of Section 12 for the reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred by such HMIT Released Party in defending against or otherwise responding to such Action. Each Highland Entity acknowledges and agrees that the Highland Entities are and shall be severally but not jointly liable for any Liability arising from or out of any breach of this Agreement or of any representation or warranty set forth in this Agreement.

17. Execution. This Agreement may be executed by the exchange of signatures by facsimile or by PDF attachment to an email transmittal and in counterparts, and if so executed, shall be fully executed when a counterpart has been executed and delivered by all Parties hereto through counsel. All counterparts taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement and shall be fully enforceable as such.

18. Bankruptcy Court Order. The allowance of the allowed HMIT Class 10 Interest pursuant to Section 4 is subject to the entry of the Bankruptcy Court Order. To that end, the Highland Entities shall file the 9019 Motion no later than five (5) Business Days after the Agreement Date. Each Party shall, and shall cause each of their respective Affiliates to, undertake any and all actions in compliance with applicable law to obtain the Bankruptcy Court Order as promptly as practicable, and without limiting the foregoing, if an Action is threatened or instituted by any Person opposing the 9019 Motion or otherwise challenging the validity or legality, or seeking to restrain the consummation, of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the Bankruptcy Court Order, each Party shall, and shall cause its respective Affiliates to, use their commercially reasonable best efforts to avoid, resist, resolve or, if necessary, and defend to effectuate this Agreement and consummate the transactions hereby. If the 9019 Motion is not approved by entry of the Bankruptcy Court Order or if the Bankruptcy Court Approval is precluded from becoming a Final Order, (a) there will be no effect on, adjustment to, or impairment of, in any way, the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement, and the other transactions contemplated hereby, all of which shall remain in full force and effect and (b) each Party shall, and shall cause its respective Affiliates to, use their best efforts to seek the allowance of the HMIT Class 10 Interest in a substantially similar amount and on substantially similar terms as set forth in Section 4 to the fullest extent possible so as to give effect to the original intent of the Parties as closely as possible.

19. Fees and Expenses. Whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated or the Bankruptcy Court Order is obtained, and except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, each Party will bear its respective fees, costs and expenses (including legal, accounting and other professional fees) incurred in connection with the preparation, negotiation, execution and performance of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, including with respect to each Party's respective obligations pursuant to Section 18. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any Party hereto, any Highland Released Party, or any HMIT Released Party brings an Action to enforce or interpret the terms and provisions of this Agreement, the prevailing Person in that Action shall be entitled to have and recover from the non-prevailing Person all such fees, costs and expenses (including all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees) as the prevailing Person may suffer or incur in the pursuit or defense of such action or proceeding.

20. Entire Agreement; No Other Representations. THIS AGREEMENT CONTAINS THE ENTIRE AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE PARTIES, AND NO RIGHTS ARE CREATED IN FAVOR OF ANY PERSON OTHER THAN AS SPECIFIED OR EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT. THERE ARE NO REPRESENTATIONS, CONDITIONS, WARRANTIES, STATEMENTS, OR UNDERSTANDINGS (COLLECTIVELY, "REPRESENTATIONS"), EITHER ORAL OR WRITTEN, BETWEEN THE PARTIES OTHER THAN THOSE EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT. THE PARTIES EXPRESSLY AGREE THAT THEY HAVE NOT BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY ANY REPRESENTATIONS NOT SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT; AND THE PARTIES EXPRESSLY AGREE THAT THEY HAVE NOT RELIED ON ANY REPRESENTATIONS NOT EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT. THE PARTIES EXPRESSLY AGREE THAT THEY ARE ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT RELYING SOLELY ON THEIR OWN JUDGMENT AND NOT ON ANY REPRESENTATIONS BY ANY PARTY, EXCEPT FOR THOSE REPRESENTATIONS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT. THE PARTIES AGREE THAT REPRESENTATIONS NOT EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT SHALL NOT BE USED IN THE INTERPRETATION OR CONSTRUCTION OF THIS AGREEMENT, AND NEITHER THE HMIT RELEASED PARTIES NOR THE HIGHLAND RELEASED PARTIES SHALL HAVE ANY LIABILITY FOR ANY CONSEQUENCES ARISING AS A RESULT OF ANY REPRESENTATIONS NOT SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT.

21. Agreement and Release Knowing and Voluntary. The Parties acknowledge that they have considered this Agreement with their respective attorneys and have carefully read this Agreement, that it has been fully explained by their attorneys, and that they have had a reasonable opportunity to consider this Agreement. The Parties further represent that they know and fully understand the contents of this Agreement, that they intend to be legally bound by this Agreement and the releases and covenants contained herein, and that they are signing this Agreement, including the release provisions herein, voluntarily and of their own free will and without coercion, and with the benefit of advice of counsel.

22. Cooperation. The Parties agree to perform any services or actions reasonably necessary to carry out the terms and conditions of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, including the execution and delivery of reasonable additional documents, instruments, conveyances and/or assurances, in good faith, and to reasonably communicate and cooperate with one another in this regard. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Section shall obligate the Highland Entities to assist the HMIT Entities in any way with respect to the Kirschner Claims, including the prosecution thereof.

23. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be construed pursuant to and governed by the laws of the State of Delaware (substantive and procedural) without reference to principles of conflicts of law that would result in the application of any other State's laws.

24. Jurisdiction/Venue. The Parties hereby irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction and venue of the Bankruptcy Court with respect to any Action arising out of or related to this Agreement or the subject matter hereof; if (and only if) the Bankruptcy Court lacks personal or subject matter jurisdiction to adjudicate an Action arising out of or related to this Agreement or the subject matter hereof, then the Parties irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction and venue of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas.

25. No Admissions. All Parties acknowledge and agree that the matters set forth in this Agreement constitute the settlement and compromise of disputed Claims and that this Agreement shall not constitute the admission of any fact or liability by any of them regarding any Claim, including the Claims released hereunder, and neither the terms hereof, nor the fact of this Agreement itself, shall be evidence of any kind in any Action, other than an Action to enforce the terms of the Agreement or any instrument executed in connection herewith or any claim for damages or other relief for breach of any representation or warranty contained herein or in any instrument executed in connection herewith.

26. Other Provisions.

(a) No representation, inducement, agreement, promise or understandings altering, modifying, amending, taking from or adding to, the terms and conditions hereof shall have any force or effect unless the same is in writing and validly executed by each of the Parties hereto.

(b) The waiver by any Party of any breach of, or default under, any provision of this Agreement shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach or default; provided, however, that for any such waiver to be enforceable, it shall be in writing and executed by the non-breaching Party.

(c) The headings contained in this Agreement are for convenience only and shall in no way restrict or otherwise affect the construction of the provisions hereof.

(d) The Parties shall each execute all documents and perform all acts necessary and proper to effectuate the terms of this Agreement.

27. Notices. All notices required or permitted to be provided hereunder shall be afforded to the respective parties to and through their counsel, and shall be transmitted simultaneously by electronic mail (with PDF attachments, as necessary) and by telefax, addressed as follows:

28. Severability. Should any term, provision or paragraph of this Agreement be determined to be illegal or void or of no force and effect, the balance of the Agreement shall survive. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity and enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement.

29. Interpretive Provisions. WEBEX HEARINGS – CONNECTION INSTRUCTIONS

Please connect at least 10 minutes prior to the hearing time using one of the two options below. It is recommended that attorneys discuss the logistics of the WebEx appearance with their clients/witnesses at least 48 hours prior to the hearing.

Option 1: Using the WebEx app on your smartphone, tablet, laptop, or desktop.

- It is strongly preferred that participants who wish to speak during a hearing use the WebEx application rather than using the "call-in" option described in Option 2.
- Attorneys offering legal argument or conducting examination and all witnesses are required to utilize the video function. The Court may consider special requests for other appearance options on a case-by-case basis.
- Please connect using only one device. Using two or more devices may cause audio feedback issues.
- If using a smartphone or tablet for video, it should be set in a stationary position. Holding a phone or tablet in your hand while speaking does not yield a good video for the Court or other participants.

NOTE: If you are experiencing audio issues when using the WebEx application, you may use the "Call Me" selection under "Audio Connection" to move just the audio portion of the WebEx conference to your telephone.

Option 2: Call-in via phone (audio only).
The meeting number/access code and dial-in number can be found on the attached WebEx Connection Information. Please use *6 or the mute function on your smartphone to mute your line.

HELPFUL HINTS AND ETIQUETTE

• Please use the mute function when you are not speaking. Please be aware that sometimes the Court mutes everyone when there is background noise. When you want to speak, make sure you are not muted. Call-in users should dial *6 to unmute your line.

• Remember to state your name for the record each time before speaking and speak slowly and clearly so the Court can get a good record. Also, use your proper name on your device or for your WebEx login when participating over video, so that the Court can more easily determine who is speaking.

• Use headphones whenever possible, especially if using a desktop PC with external speakers. We have found that newer iPhones provide the best visual and audio feed – better than most desktop computers. If you are on a personal computer, headphones or earbuds are required for those who need to speak during the hearing.

• During examination, attorneys and witnesses should use a separate camera and microphone when possible. To avoid feedback, parties using separate devices must not be in the same room. The Court may consider special requests on a case-by-case basis.

• WebEx participants may use the "share" button to easily share their screen or document with the Court or other WebEx participants. Press “stop sharing” to remove the presentation from the meeting.

• When making an appearance from a vehicle, please park in a safe location with windows rolled up (to minimize background distraction and noise) and use a headset that is ear-to-phone (not the vehicle’s hands-free speaker-phone option).

• Suggestions for participating in a WebEx hearing from home: If you are having connectivity problems, turn off devices that may be using bandwidth on your home network. Devices or applications such as Facetime, Roku, streaming media players, video games, or large downloads can negatively impact the audio and video quality of the WebEx meeting.

• Participants are reminded that they should wear attire suitable for court.

• Participants who wish to test their WebEx connection or the share screen functionality in advance of the hearing may arrange a “practice run” by contacting the courtroom deputy at sgj_settings@txnb.uscourts.gov.

EXHIBITS AND DEMONSTRATIVE AIDS

Exhibits should be filed ahead of time by the date that they would normally be exchanged pursuant to our local rules using the "notice" or "list (witness/exhibit/generic)" event in ECF, with a true and correct copy of each designated exhibit filed as a separate, individual attachment, so that the Court and all participants have ready access to all designated exhibits. For voluminous exhibits, please provide the Court with two exhibit notebooks in advance of the hearing. For any witness who is to be called to testify remotely, the party calling the witness is responsible for supplying the witness or counsel, as appropriate, with paper copies of all designated exhibits prior to the hearing.
Demonstrative aids and PowerPoints should also be filed prior to the hearing, if possible. If not, WebEx has the ability to allow you to share your screen, or a particular document, with everyone in the hearing. If these documents are admitted as exhibits, they would then have to be filed after the hearing.

WEBEX HEARINGS – CONNECTION INSTRUCTIONS

Please connect at least 10 minutes prior to the hearing time using one of the two options below. It is recommended that attorneys discuss the logistics of the WebEx appearance with their clients/witnesses at least 48 hours prior to the hearing.

Option 1: Using the WebEx app on your smartphone, tablet, laptop, or desktop.

- It is strongly preferred that participants who wish to speak during a hearing use the WebEx application rather than using the "call-in" option described in Option 2.
- Attorneys offering legal argument or conducting examination and all witnesses are required to utilize the video function. The Court may consider special requests for other appearance options on a case-by-case basis.
- Please connect using only one device. Using two or more devices may cause audio feedback issues.
- If using a smartphone or tablet for video, it should be set in a stationary position. Holding a phone or tablet in your hand while speaking does not yield a good video for the Court or other participants.

NOTE: If you are experiencing audio issues when using the WebEx application, you may use the "Call Me" selection under "Audio Connection" to move just the audio portion of the WebEx conference to your telephone.

Option 2: Call-in via phone (audio only).
The meeting number/access code and dial-in number can be found on the attached WebEx Connection Information. Please use *6 or the mute function on your smartphone to mute your line.

HELPFUL HINTS AND ETIQUETTE

• Please use the mute function when you are not speaking. Please be aware that sometimes the Court mutes everyone when there is background noise. When you want to speak, make sure you are not muted. Call-in users should dial *6 to unmute your line.

• Remember to state your name for the record each time before speaking and speak slowly and clearly so the Court can get a good record. Also, use your proper name on your device or for your WebEx login when participating over video, so that the Court can more easily determine who is speaking.

• Use headphones whenever possible, especially if using a desktop PC with external speakers. We have found that newer iPhones provide the best visual and audio feed – better than most desktop computers. If you are on a personal computer, headphones or earbuds are required for those who need to speak during the hearing.

• During examination, attorneys and witnesses should use a separate camera and microphone when possible. To avoid feedback, parties using separate devices must not be in the same room. The Court may consider special requests on a case-by-case basis.

• WebEx participants may use the "share" button to easily share their screen or document with the Court or other WebEx participants. Press “stop sharing” to remove the presentation from the meeting.

• When making an appearance from a vehicle, please park in a safe location with windows rolled up (to minimize background distraction and noise) and use a headset that is ear-to-phone (not the vehicle’s hands-free speaker-phone option).

• Suggestions for participating in a WebEx hearing from home: If you are having connectivity problems, turn off devices that may be using bandwidth on your home network. Devices or applications such as Facetime, Roku, streaming media players, video games, or large downloads can negatively impact the audio and video quality of the WebEx meeting.

• Participants are reminded that they should wear attire suitable for court.

• Participants who wish to test their WebEx connection or the share screen functionality in advance of the hearing may arrange a “practice run” by contacting the courtroom deputy at sgj_settings@txnb.uscourts.gov.

EXHIBITS AND DEMONSTRATIVE AIDS

Exhibits should be filed ahead of time by the date that they would normally be exchanged pursuant to our local rules using the "notice" or "list (witness/exhibit/generic)" event in ECF, with a true and correct copy of each designated exhibit filed as a separate, individual attachment, so that the Court and all participants have ready access to all designated exhibits. For voluminous exhibits, please provide the Court with two exhibit notebooks in advance of the hearing. For any witness who is to be called to testify remotely, the party calling the witness is responsible for supplying the witness or counsel, as appropriate, with paper copies of all designated exhibits prior to the hearing.
Demonstrative aids and PowerPoints should also be filed prior to the hearing, if possible. If not, WebEx has the ability to allow you to share your screen, or a particular document, with everyone in the hearing. If these documents are admitted as exhibits, they would then have to be filed after the hearing.

Counsel to Patrick Daugherty

IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
DALLAS DIVISION

In re:	§	Chapter 11
HIGHLAND CAPITAL MANAGEMENT, L.P.,[1]	§	Case No. 19-34054 (SGJ)
Reorganized Debtor.	§

PATRICK DAUGHERTY'S OBJECTION TO MOTION FOR ENTRY OF AN ORDER PURSUANT TO BANKRUPTCY RULE 9019 AND 11 U.S.C. § 363 APPROVING SETTLEMENT WITH THE HMIT ENTITIES AND AUTHORIZING ACTIONS CONSISTENT THEREWITH

Patrick Daugherty ("Daugherty) files this Objection to the Motion for Entry of an Order Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and 11 U.S.C. § 363 Approving Settlement with the HMIT Entities and Authorizing Actions Consistent Therewith [Docket No. 4216] (the "Motion") filed by Highland Capital Management, L.P.'s ("Debtor" or "Highland"), the Highland Claimant Trust (the "Claimant Trust"), and the Highland Litigation Sub-Trust (the "Litigation Sub-Trust")

[1] Highland's last four digits of its taxpayer identification number are (8357). The headquarters and service address for Highland is 100 Crescent Court, Suite 1850, Dallas, TX 75201.

(collectively, Highland, the Claimant Trust and the Litigation Sub-Trust are referred to as "Movants"). In support of this Objection, Daugherty respectfully states as follows:

I. SUMMARY

1. The proposed settlement between Movants and the HMIT Entities[2] is not in the best interests of Highland's estate and violates the Plan, this Court's Confirmation Order, the Claimant Trust Agreement, and the absolute priority rule because the proposed settlement contravenes the class priority required by the same. As Movants state in their Motion, Daugherty remains the "only unresolved Claim[]" against the estate, which is classified as a Class 8 claim. Motion at 4, n. 3, ¶ 21; see also Adv. Proc. 25-03055-sgj, Docket No. 1 at ¶ 37. The HMIT Entities' claims are contingent Class 10 claims under the Plan and are subordinated to Daugherty's unresolved claim. Adv. Proc. 25-03055-sgj, Docket No. 1 at ¶ 37, n. 8. Thus, the HMIT Entities' claim cannot be resolved, and there cannot be any distributions from the estate to the HMIT Entities until Daugherty's remaining Class 8 claim is resolved.

2. In addition to violating the terms of the Plan and Claimant Trust Agreement, the proposed settlement violates promises made by James Seery to Daugherty that Daugherty's remaining claim would be resolved before Highland reached any resolution that would effectively lead to the liquidation of the estate, as this proposed settlement with the HMIT Entities seeks to do. Worse, the proposed settlement, on its face, inverts the priority of Class 8 and 10 creditors in an attempt to provide a payoff to the HMIT Entities and their insiders who have consistently sought to subvert the Bankruptcy.

3. What is more, at face value, the proposed settlement appears to be Movants' submission to the HMIT Entities' litigation tactics. In exchange for Movants' consideration under the Settlement Agreement, Movants are seeking individual releases and protections from the HMIT Entities, that courts have otherwise withheld or limited, as opposed to prioritizing the interests of the estate. Tellingly, the proposed settlement comes on the heels of the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit's March 18, 2025, judgment that Highland recently characterized as having "shredded" the gatekeeper provision in the approved Governance Settlement. See Emergency App. For Stay of Mandate and Judgment, at 2 in Case No. 24A1154 (filed May 27, 2025 in the Supreme Court of the United States). [3]

4. For all of these reasons, as more fully set forth below, the Court should reject the proposed settlement.

II. BACKGROUND

5. Daugherty filed Proof of Claim No. 67 on April 1, 2020. He later filed Proof of Claim No. 77, which superseded and replaced Claim No. 67 in its entirety. Then on December 23, 2020, Daugherty filed Proof of Claim No. 205, which superseded and replaced Claim No. 77 in its entirety.

6. On January 22, 2021, Highland filed the Fifth Amended Plan of Reorganization of Highland Capital Management, L.P. [Docket No. 1808] (the "Plan"). A month later, the Court entered the Order (I) Confirming the Fifth Amended Plan of Reorganization of Highland Capital Management, L.P. (As Modified) and (II) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 1943] (the "Confirmation Order"). The Plan then became effective on August 11, 2021. See Docket No. 2700.

[3] In addition to the claims made in the various adversary proceedings tied to Highland's bankruptcy, the proposed settlement would insulate current Highland employees from potential liability in other litigation in the absence of the gatekeeper provision. See, e.g., Highland Employee Retention Assets LLC v. James Dondero et al., Civ. A. No. 3:24-cv-00498-K (N.D. Tex.) at Docket No. 1 (Complaint)(implicating current Highland employees, such as Thomas Surgent and David Klos, even though they are not named parties).

7. On March 8, 2022, following Court approval, Daugherty and Highland entered a Settlement Agreement to resolve, in part, his Claim No. 205. Docket No. 3088, 3089 (the "Settlement Agreement").

8. Under that Settlement Agreement, Daugherty retained a Reserved Claim[4] relating to Highland's 2008 tax return. Id. The Reserved Claim concerns a compensation and benefits contract between Highland and Daugherty relating to Daugherty's cash bonus, that was presented to Daugherty pursuant to a tax refund scheme developed by Highland during the financial crisis in 2008 and 2009. That tax refund scheme was later challenged by the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS"). The gravamen of Daugherty's Reserved Claim relates to whether Highland's refund "deviated materially from [Highland's] estimate" such that "other compensation [to Daugherty should have been] fairly adjusted" as promised. Adv. Proc. 25-03055-sgj, Docket No. 1-1.

9. Critically, under the terms of the Settlement Agreement, "[a]ny litigation by and between the [Debtor] and Daugherty concerning the validity and amount of the Reserved Claim shall be stayed until the IRS makes a final determination with respect to the IRS Audit Dispute." Id. (emphasis added). Highland concedes that the resolution of the IRS audit is still pending. Adv. Proceeding 25-03055-sgj, Docket No. 1 at ¶ 3 ("Highland's 2008 tax return is currently subject to an IRS audit.") (emphasis added); ¶ 4 ("It is unclear when, how, or if the 2008 Audit will be finally resolved."). Movants also acknowledged Daugherty's Reserved Claim is "contingent on the final outcome of the 2008 Audit." Id. at ¶ 35. Thus, the validity and amount of Daugherty's Reserved Claim remains pending until the IRS Audit Dispute[5] is resolved.

10. Daugherty's Reserved Claim is a general unsecured claim and thus is classified as a Class 8 Claim under the Plan. See Docket No. 1943, Ex. A at 22-23. Following the Court's [4] "Reserved Claim" has the meaning ascribed to it in Docket No. 3089, the parties' Settlement Agreement.

[5] "IRS Audit Dispute" has the meaning ascribed to it in Docket No. 3089, the parties' Settlement Agreement.

approval of the Settlement Agreement, Seery promised Daugherty on at least one occasion that Highland would not take any steps to liquidate the estate before Daugherty's Reserved Claim was resolved.

11. The proposed settlement between Movants and the HMIT Entities would, among other things, make an allowance for the HMIT Entities' Class 10 Interest in the Claimant Trust in a fixed amount, and make distributions to the HMIT Entities on account of its Class 10 Interest. Docket No. 4216 at 3.

12. The Plan provides that the "allowance, classification, and treatment of all Claims under the Plan shall take into account and conform to the contractual, legal, and equitable subordination rights relating thereto, whether arising under general principles of equitable subordination, section 510(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, or otherwise." Plan at Art. III.J.

13. This Court's Confirmation Order approving the Plan echoes that same sentiment, providing that:

> [T]he Contingent Interests [in Class 10 and Class 11] will not vest unless and until holders of Class 8 General Unsecured Claims and Class 9 Subordinated Claims receive distributions equal to 100% of the amount of their Allowed Claims plus interest as provided under the Plan and Claimant Trust Agreement. Accordingly, as the holders of Equity Interests that are junior to the Claims in Class 8 and Class 9 will not receive or retain under the Plan on account of such junior claim interest any property unless and until the Claims in Class 8 and Class 9 are paid in full plus applicable interest.

See Docket No. 1943 at 44 (emphasis added).

14. Further, the Highland Capital Claimant Trust Agreement (the "Claimant Trust Agreement") does not allow Class 10 or Class 11 claims to vest, "unless and until the Claimant Trustee files with the Bankruptcy Court a certification that all GUC Beneficiaries have been paid indefeasibly in full, including, to the extent applicable, all accrued and unpaid post-petition interest consistent with the Plan, and all Disputed Claims have been resolved"

(the "GUC Payment Certification"). Docket No. 3817-4 at 577. As of the date of this Objection, the Claimant Trustee has not filed the GUC Payment Certification. Nor could it because Daugherty's remaining claim is unresolved.[6]

15. As Movants concede, and the Court is well aware, this Bankruptcy proceeding has endured a tortured history of disputed claims, off-shoot litigation, challenges to this Court's authority, a multitude of appeals, and a myriad of material accusations levied by Movants against the very HMIT Entities, and their insiders, that Movants now seek to absolve and reward through this proposed settlement. See e.g., Motion at ¶¶ 14-19 (collecting actions). Perhaps a poster child for the prolific scope of the HMIT Entites' litigation strategy, the Court previously issued an excoriating 105-page opinion lambasting the HMIT Entities' attempt to subvert the Bankruptcy through seeking leave to file an adversary proceeding (one of many) without standing to do so. Docket No. 3903.

16. At various points in the Bankruptcy, the Litigation Trustee, Mark Kirschner, on behalf of the Litigation Sub-Trust, has taken the position that insiders of the HMIT Entities were individually responsible and beholden to the estate to return enormous sums of money that were fraudulently siphoned from the Debtors' coffers through a series of illegitimate schemes. See Adv. Proceeding 21-03076-sgj, Docket No. 158 (asserting multiple claims sounding in Fraud against the HMIT Entities and their insiders). Now, rather than seek to recover the "hundreds of millions of dollars in damages that [Highland] suffered at the hands of its founder, James Dondero, acting in concert with other entities [(including the HMIT Entities)] that he owned and controlled [] and with the aid of other [Highland] officers and attorneys who disregarded their fiduciary duties to [6] Recently, Highland announced that it had paid all Class 9 claims in full, which would also violate the Plan, the Claimant Trust Agreement, and the absolute priority rule vis-à-vis Daugherty's Reserved Claim. See Docket 3817-4 at 576-77 (providing that Class 9 Claims "shall only be entitled to distributions" after "all Disputed General Unsecured Claims have been resolved").

[Highland] in favor of Dondero and their own self-interest," Movants seek to lay down and forgo the potential recovery of hundreds of millions of dollars for the estate and its creditors. Id. at ¶ 1.

17. Against that backdrop, and in direct contravention of the explicit prohibitions in the Plan, Confirmation Order, and Claimant Trust Agreement, the Movants have elected to enter into a settlement that would result in the transfer payments of over $300 million of value on account of the HMIT Entities' contingent Class 10 equity interests. In other words, with this proposed settlement, Movants aim to sidestep their fiduciary obligations and reward the HMIT Entities for their vexatious litigation tactics. It appears HMIT Entities' strategy to overwhelm the Movants, and Dondero's oft-quoted goal to "burn the place down," has worn the Movants into submission such that Movants would prefer to take an offramp in lieu of continuing the pursuit of recovering hundreds of millions of dollars rightfully belonging to creditors of the estate.

III. ARGUMENT AND AUTHORITIES

A. The Proposed Settlement Inverts the Priority Structure Under the Confirmation Order and the Bankruptcy Code.

18. It is settled law that a confirmation order is "a judgment that binds all interested parties to the plan's terms." Matter of German Pellets Louisiana, L.L.C., 91 F.4th 802, 805 (5th Cir. 2024). Here, the Confirmation Order established a binding priority structure that requires the payment in full of Class 8 claims before distributing funds to contingent Class 10 equity interest holders. See Docket No. 1943 at 44. Indeed, holders of any equity interests that are junior to the Claims in Class 8 and Class 9 "will not receive or retain under the Plan . . . any property unless and until the Claims in Class 8 and Class 9 are paid in full plus applicable interest." Id. This Court interpreted and applied this very language in a now dismissed adversary proceeding. In a May 24, 2024, memorandum opinion, the Court found that HMIT's former limited partnership interest in Highland was classified in Class 10 and that:

> [u]nder the terms of the Plan, [HMIT's] interest[] [was] cancelled in exchange for [a] unvested contingent interest[] in the Claimant Trust . . . that will vest if, and only if, the Claimant Trustee certifies that the Class 8 general unsecured claims and Class 9 subordinated claims have been paid in full, all disputed claims in Classes 8 and 9 have been resolved, and certain other obligations—primarily, the Claimant Trust's significant indemnity obligations—have been satisfied.

Hunter Mountain Inv. Tr. v. Highland Capital Mgmt., L.P., (In re Highland Capital Mgmt., L.P.), No. 19-34054-SGJ-11, 2024 WL 2703149, at *3 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. May 24, 2024) (emphasis in original); See In re Highland Capital Mgmt., L.P., No. 19-34054-SGJ-11, 2023 WL 5523949, at *35 n. 215 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. Aug. 25, 2023).

19. Further, the Claimant Trust Agreement approved by this Court requires the Creditor Trustee to file a GUC Payment Certification confirming that all general unsecured claims under Class 8 and Class 9 had been paid "indefeasibly in full" prior to making any payments to Class 10 or Class 11 equity interest holders. Docket No. 3817-4 at 577. The Certification requires the Creditor Trustee to certify that all Disputed Claims have been resolved.

20. Notwithstanding the plain language of the Plan, Confirmation Order, and the Claimant Trust Agreement, Bankruptcy Code § 1129(b)(2) requires the payments of creditors under a plan of reorganization to be "fair and equitable." 11 U.S.C. § 1129(b)(2). A fundamental part of the fair and equitable standard is that "the holder of any interest that is junior to the interests of such class will not receive or retain under the plan on account of such junior interest any property." Id § 1129(b)(2)(C)(ii). This standard is commonly referred to as the absolute priority rule.

21. Here, the Movants' proposed settlement agreement with HMIT would violate not only this Court's Confirmation Order, but also the absolute priority rule. See Hunter Mountain Inv. Tr., 2024 WL 2703149, at *3; see also 11 U.S.C. 1129(b)(2). The Debtor's own Motion admits as much. Motion at 4 n. 3, ¶ 21 (Daugherty remains the "only unresolved Claim[]" against the estate.); see also Adv. Proc. 25-03055-sgj, Docket No. 1 at ¶ 37. The indisputable fact looming over the Movants' proposed settlement agreement with the HMIT Entities is that Daugherty's Class 8 claim has not been "paid in full plus applicable interest." See Docket No. 1943 at 44. Therefore, any settlement payments made to the HMIT Entities—a holder of Class 10 contingent equity interests—prior to the full satisfaction of Daugherty's Class 8 claim would be improper and subvert the Bankruptcy Code, this Court's Confirmation Order, and the Claimant Trust Agreement. For this reason alone, the Court should deny the Movants' Motion.

B. The Proposed Settlement Operates to Reward the HMIT Entities' Bad-Faith Litigation Tactics Employed to Diminish and Obstruct the Bankruptcy Estate and Does Not Satisfy the Three-Factor Test Courts in the Fifth Circuit Employ to Analyze and, Ultimately, Approve Proposed Settlements.

22. Under Bankruptcy Rule 9019, a bankruptcy court may approve a compromise or settlement after appropriate notice and a hearing so long as the proposed settlement is fair, reasonable, and in the estate's best interest. See Official Comm. of Unsecured Creditors v. Moeller (In re Age Refin. Inc.), 801 F.3d 530, 540 (5th Cir. 2015). Ultimately, a decision to accept or reject a compromise or settlement is within the sound discretion of the Court. United States v. AWECO, Inc. (In re AWECO, Inc.), 725 F.2d 293, 297 (5th Cir. 1984) (citing Rivercity v. Herpel (In re Jackson Brewing Co.), 624 F.2d 599, 602–03 (5th Cir. 1980)); In re ASARCO LLC, No. 05-21207, 2009 WL 8176641, at *10 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. June 5, 2009).

23. Generally, the role of the bankruptcy court is not to decide the issues in dispute when evaluating a settlement. Watts v. Williams, 154 B.R. 56, 59 (S.D. Tex. 1993). Instead, the court should determine whether the settlement as a whole is fair and equitable. Protective Comm. for Indep. S'holders of TMT Trailer Ferry, Inc. v. Anderson, 390 U.S. 414, 424 (1968).

24. To determine whether a settlement is fair and equitable, this Court should consider and evaluate the following factors: "(1) [t]he probability of success in the litigation, with due consideration for the uncertainty in fact and law, (2) [t]he complexity and likely duration of the litigation and any attendant expense, inconvenience and delay, and (3) [a]ll other factors bearing on the wisdom of the compromise." Official Comm. of Unsecured Creditors v. Cajun Elec. Power Coop., Inc. (In re Cajun Elec. Power Coop., Inc.), 119 F.3d 349, 356 (5th Cir. 1997) (citing In re Jackson Brewing Co., 624 F.2d at 602); Connecticut Gen. Life Ins. Co. v. United Cos. Fin. Corp. (In re Foster Mortg. Corp.), 68 F.3d 914, 917 (5th Cir. 1997); In re Wright, 545 B.R. 541, 561 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. 2016); see also TMT Trailer Ferry, Inc., 390 U.S. at 424–25 (providing that in determining whether a settlement is fair and equitable, a court should consider "the probabilities of ultimate success should the claim be litigated…[,] the complexity, expense, and likely duration of such litigation, the possible difficulties of collecting on any judgment which might be obtained, and all other factors relevant to a full and fair assessment of the wisdom of the proposed compromise.").

25. Factors "bearing on the wisdom of the compromise" include: (a) "the paramount interest of creditors with proper deference to their reasonable views"; and (2) "the extent to which the settlement is truly the product of arms-length bargaining, and not of fraud or collusion." In re Foster Mortg. Corp., 68 F.3d at 917–18; Cajun Electric, 119 F.3d at 356; In re Wright, 545 B.R. at 561.

26. Movants run afoul of the foregoing factors by skirting their obligation to prosecute their legitimate and well-founded claims against the HMIT Entities for their part in fraudulently dissipating hundreds of millions of dollars from Highland's coffers. See e.g., Adv. Proceeding 21-03076-sgj, Docket No. 158; see also Motion at ¶¶ 14-19 (collecting actions). Appallingly, Movants seek to instead promise hundreds of millions of dollars to the HMIT Entities in exchange for mutual releases. These mutual releases are the result of the HMIT Entities bringing a barrage of actions against Movants that this Court and others have repeatedly rebuffed, including on appeal. Id. Moreover, this laydown occurs in spite of Movants' steadfast assertion in this Court that "they have strong and meritorious defenses to all." Id. at ¶ 28. The HMIT Entities' barrage of actions that at one point even prompted Highland to "seek an adjudication that they or some of [the HMIT Entities] are vexations litigants." Id. at ¶ 2.

27. Casting all of it to the wayside, Movants now seek to throw in the towel because "history has shown that defending the Pending HMIT Litigation, including the appeals that could result therefrom, will be costly, time-consuming and value-destructive to the estate and creditor recoveries" and there is no guarantee that "the HMIT Entities will not file additional litigation against the Highland Entities and their indemnified parties." Id. at ¶ 28 (emphasis added). Apparently, Movants have decided that succumbing to the HMIT Entities' litigation tactics better suits their individual pursuits and economic wellbeing, regardless of its impact on the estate. Id. Stated plainly, this proposed settlement is a matter of self-serving convenience, not one of fairness and equity.

28. The ultimate effect of this proposed settlement is to reward bad-faith and vexatious litigants, who defrauded the estate, in response to their overwhelming litigation tactics. There can be no wisdom identified in such a proposed compromise, because there is no compromise—there is simply submission and surrender. As such, this proposed settlement is not fair, reasonable, or in the best interest of the estate and should be categorically denied.

IV. CONCLUSION

29. For the foregoing reasons, the Court should reject the proposed settlement between Movants and the HMIT Entities.

Respectfully submitted this 9th day of June, 2025.

APPELLANT'S AMENDED DESIGNATION OF ITEMS TO BE INCLUDED IN THE RECORD ON APPEAL AND STATEMENT OF THE ISSUES PRESENTED

Pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 8009(a) and Docket No. 4366, Appellant Patrick Daugherty ("Daugherty") hereby submits his amended designation of items to be included in the record on appeal and statement of issues to be presented in connection with his appeal from the Order Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and 11 U.S.C. § 363 Approving Settlement Between the Highland Entities and the HMIT Entities and Authorizing Actions Consistent Therewith [Docket

[1] Highland's last four digits of its taxpayer identification number are (8357). The headquarters and service address for Highland is 100 Crescent Court, Suite 1850, Dallas, TX 75201.

No. 4297] (the "HMIT Settlement Order").[2] See Notice of Appeal [Docket No. 4310, as amended at Docket No. 4327].

Statement of Issues on Appeal

1. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in its approval of the HMIT Settlement Order [Docket No. 4297], which permits payment to Class 10 creditors before all Class 8 and Class 9 claims have been paid in full when the plain language of the Fifth Amended Plan of Reorganization of Highland Capital Management, L.P. [Dkt. 1808], the Court's Confirmation Order [Dkt. 1943] and the Claimant Trust Agreement [Dkt. 3817-4] require full payment plus applicable interest to all Class 8 and Class 9 creditors before any Class 10 or Class 11 claims can vest.

2. Whether the Bankruptcy Court abused its discretion by approving the HMIT Settlement Order [Docket No. 4297] when the settlement is not fair, reasonable, or in the best interests of the estate as the Debtor, through its principals, is forgoing the recovery of millions in material value to the estate in exchange for, inter alia, self-serving releases of its principals.

Designation of Record

Daugherty respectfully designates the following items to be included in the appellate record pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 8009(a):

000001 1. Amended Notice of Appeal for Bankruptcy Case No. 19-34054-sgj11 [Dkt. 4327].

000011 2. Notice of Appeal for Bankruptcy Case No. 19-34054-sgj11 [Dkt. 4310].

000022 3. The Judgment Order or Decree appealed from: Order Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and 11 U.S.C. § 363 Approving Settlement Between the Highland Entities and the HMIT Entities and Authorizing Actions Consistent Therewith [Docket No. 4297].

000026 4. Docket Sheet for Bankruptcy Case No. 19-34054-sgj1 kept by the Bankruptcy Clerk.

5. Documents listed below for Bankruptcy Case No. 19-34054-sgj11:

[2] Unless otherwise defined herein, all capitalized terms shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the HMIT Settlement Order.

4. HMIT Class 10 Interest.

(a) Subject to entry of the Bankruptcy Court Order, and the terms of this Agreement, the HMIT Class 10 Interest shall be deemed allowed in the amount of Three Hundred Thirty-Six Million Nine Hundred Forty Thousand Two Hundred Thirty and 58/100 Dollars (US$336,940,230.58), which amount represents the HMIT Capital Account Balance, less the HMIT Note Balance.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan or the Claimant Trust Agreement, as an integral part of this Agreement to consent to the allowance of the HMIT Class 10 Interest and the other considerations in this Agreement, HMIT shall not be deemed, and no holder of the HMIT Class 10 Interest shall be, a Claimant Trust Beneficiary or a "Beneficiary" under the Claimant Trust Agreement, and the Highland Released Parties, individually and collectively, shall owe no duty to any HMIT Releasor (whether contractual, fiduciary, equitable, statutory or otherwise), including with respect to the HMIT Class 10 Interest, in each case, except as expressly set forth in this Agreement. Furthermore, without limiting the foregoing and for the avoidance of doubt, the contractual right of the holder of the HMIT Class 10 Interest to receive or recover any payments or Indemnity Trust Assets from the Indemnity Trust as set forth in this Agreement or the Indemnity Trust Agreement does not make any HMIT Releasor or any other Person a beneficiary of the Indemnity Trust or under the Indemnity Trust Agreement.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, the Claimant Trust Agreement or the Indemnity Trust Agreement, in no event shall HMIT sell, transfer, assign, pledge, hypothecate, participate or otherwise dispose of or encumber the HMIT Class 10 Interest or any rights (including any right to payment) with respect thereto (collectively, a "Class 10 Assignment"), and any attempted Class 10 Assignment shall be null and void.

(d) For the avoidance of doubt, the HMIT Class 10 Interest is and shall remain senior to the not yet allowed, unvested contingent Class 11 Claims of Equity Interests as provided for in the Plan, the Plan Documents, and the Claimant Trust Agreement.

5. Initial Interim Distributions on the Allowed Class 10 Interests.

(a) Within five (5) Business Days after the Bankruptcy Court Approval Date, the Indemnity Trust shall distribute (the date on which such distribution is made, the "Initial Interim Distribution Date") Pro Rata to the Holders of allowed Class 10 Claims or Equity Interests cash in the aggregate amount of Ten Million Dollars (US$10,000,000.00) (the "Initial Interim Cash Distribution Amount"), by means of wire transfer with the Pro Rata portion in respect of the HMIT Class 10 Interest sent to the wire instructions contained in Section 3 ("Wire Transfer").

(b) Within five (5) Business Days after the Bankruptcy Court Approval Date (the "Note Assignment Date"), the Highland Entities shall cause the portion of the Dugaboy Note held by the Highland Entities to be distributed to HMIT in-kind and take all actions necessary for HMIT to become the holder of such portion of the Dugaboy Note, and shall in addition pay to HMIT cash in the aggregate amount of all principal and interest payments actually received on the Dugaboy Note by the Highland Entities, including the Indemnity Trust, from the Agreement Date to the Note Assignment Date. Prior to the Bankruptcy Court Approval Date, HMIT will engage an independent valuation service provider to value the Dugaboy Note for purposes of determining the magnitude of reduction to the outstanding allowed Class 10 Interests on account of such in-kind distribution, which shall not be less than Fifty percent (50%) of the current balance owed under the Dugaboy Note. The HMIT Entities acknowledge and agree that none of the Highland Entities are representing or warranting that the Dugaboy Note can be sold, or the price, if any, that could be received for the Dugaboy Note and further acknowledge and agree that any such purchase price may be de minimis.

6. Subsequent Distribution(s) on the Allowed Class 10 Interests.

(a) On December 1, 2027, the Indemnity Trust shall distribute (such distribution, collectively, the "First Subsequent Distribution", and the date on which such Subsequent Distribution is made, the "First Subsequent Distribution Date") Pro Rata to the Holders of allowed Class 10 Claims or Equity Interests: cash in the aggregate amount of Six Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars (US$6,500,000.00), by Wire Transfer.

(b) On December 1, 2028, the Indemnity Trust shall distribute (such distribution, collectively, the "Second Subsequent Distribution", and the date on which such Subsequent Distribution is made, the "Second Subsequent Distribution Date") Pro Rata to the Holders of allowed Class 10 Claims or Equity Interests cash in the aggregate amount of Six Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars (US$6,500,000.00) by Wire Transfer.

(c) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the obligations of the Indemnity Trust to make the First Subsequent Distribution or Second Subsequent Distribution is subject in all respects to (i) there being no Threats and (ii) a determination in accordance with Article VIII, Section 8.1(c) of the Indemnity Trust Agreement that the Indemnity Trust Assets comprising such distributions are not reasonably necessary to satisfy current or potential Indemnification Obligations (as defined in the Indemnity Trust Agreement) to all persons who are or might become Beneficiaries (as defined in the Indemnity Trust Agreement).

7. Final Distribution on the Allowed Class 10 Interests.

(a) On the later of the Final Court Approval Date and April 1, 2029, the Indemnity Trust will distribute all excess remaining Indemnity Trust Assets in accordance with Article VIII of the Indemnity Trust Agreement; provided, however, that the obligation of the Indemnity Trust to make any such distributions and/or dissolve and wind up the affairs of the Indemnity Trust is subject in all respects to (i) there being no Threats and (ii) a determination in accordance with Article VIII of the Indemnity Trust Agreement that (1) a Final Order(s) (as defined in the Indemnity Trust Agreement) has been entered resolving all litigation, claims or proceedings in any forum of any kind which could give rise to Indemnity Obligations (as defined in the Indemnity Trust Agreement) and payment in full of all such Indemnity Obligations and (2) all applicable statutes of limitations and any applicable tolling of such statutes of limitation have expired.

(b) The Indemnity Trust agrees to not use Indemnity Trust Assets to fund Operating Expenses.

(c) Following the Bankruptcy Court Approval Date, at the request of Mark Patrick, solely in his capacity, and to the extent he remains, as administrator of HMIT, but not more often than quarterly, Highland and the Indemnity Trust Administrator agree to review (i) the status of their respective assets, (ii) the balance of cash held, (iii) the status of any claims made for indemnification and any resolutions thereof, (iv) the status of any litigation, and (v) forecasted operating expenses with Mr. Patrick, and will each work in good faith to reduce operating expenses where reasonably practicable; provided, however, that all such reporting shall be subject to Mr. Patrick's agreement to maintain confidentiality with respect to any non-public information.

8. Transfer Kirschner Claims; Dismissal of HMIT Note Claims.

(a) Within five (5) Business Days after the Bankruptcy Court Approval Date, but after the dismissal provided for in Section 2, the Litigation Sub-Trust shall execute a short-form assignment in in favor of the HMIT Entities transferring all of the Litigation Sub-Trust's right, title, and interest in and to the Kirschner Claims (the "Kirschner Transfer"). Such assignment shall be in a form mutually acceptable to the Parties and its substance shall be consistent with the terms, conditions and limitations set forth in this Agreement, including Section 8(b) below. Each HMIT Entity acknowledges and agrees that none of the Highland Entities will have any duty or obligation to assist the HMIT Entities in any way with respect to the Kirschner Claims, including the prosecution thereof, except as provided in this Agreement, including the terms of Section 8(c) below.

(b) THE HMIT ENTITIES SPECIFICALLY ACKNOWLEDGE AND AGREE THAT THE LITIGATION SUB-TRUST IS TRANSFERRING THE KIRSCHNER CLAIMS ON AN "AS IS AND WITH ALL FAULTS" BASIS AND THAT THE HMIT ENTITIES ARE NOT RELYING ON ANY REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND WHATSOEVER, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, FROM THE HIGHLAND ENTITIES OR THEIR REPRESENTATIVES AS TO ANY MATTERS CONCERNING THE KIRSCHNER CLAIMS AND AMENDED COMPLAINT, INCLUDING WITH RESPECT TO THE ENFORCEABILITY, TRANSFERABILITY, VIABILITY, STRENGTH, OR VALUE OF ANY OF THE KIRSCHNER CLAIMS OR THE AMENDED COMPLAINT. The HMIT Entities hereby specifically acknowledge that they have carefully reviewed this Section and have had the opportunity to discuss its import with legal counsel and that the provisions of this Section are a material part of this Agreement. Thus, if for any reason HMIT is precluded from or is otherwise unable to prosecute all or any of the Kirschner Claims, (i) the HMIT Releasors shall have no recourse against any Highland Released Parties whatsoever and shall not be entitled to compensation of any kind, it being agreed that the HMIT Entities are otherwise receiving adequate consideration for the duties and obligations they are undertaking pursuant to this Agreement and (ii) there will be no effect whatsoever on the validity and enforceability of this Agreement or any of the other transactions contemplated hereby.

(c) As promptly as reasonably practicable following the Bankruptcy Court Approval Date, the Highland Entities shall provide to the HMIT Entities electronic copies of written discovery requests and responses thereto, and documents produced in discovery in respect of the Kirschner Claims and the Amended Complaint. The Highland Entities will not provide any other documents regarding the Kirschner Claims including any attorney-client communications and any documents subject to the attorney work-product doctrine or similar privileges or immunities concerning the Kirschner Claims (collectively, the "Kirschner Privileges"), it being understood and agreed that the Highland Entities are retaining, and not transferring or waiving, the Kirschner Privileges.

(d) Each Party acknowledges and agrees that if (i) the Kirschner Transfer is found or deemed to be impermissible or invalid, for any reason, or (ii) any HMIT Entity materially breaches this Agreement, the Kirschner Claims and Amended Complaint will revert to, and remain an asset of, the Litigation Sub-Trust.

9. General Release By The HMIT Entities. On the Bankruptcy Court Approval Date, and to the maximum extent permitted by law, each of the HMIT Entities, on behalf of itself and each of its respective Affiliates (including Affiliated and/or managed funds, accounts and other investment vehicles) and its and their respective current and former advisors, consultants, administrators, trustees, directors, officers, managers, executives, members, partners (including limited and general partners), employees, beneficiaries, direct and indirect shareholders and other equity holders, agents, participants, direct and indirect subsidiaries and parents, successors, predecessors, designees, and assigns (whether by operation of law or otherwise) and all Persons claiming through, under or on their behalf (collectively with the HMIT Entities, the "HMIT Releasors") hereby forever, finally, fully, unconditionally, and completely releases, relieves, acquits, discharges, remises, and exonerates each Highland Released Party from, and waives and relinquishes, any and all Claims, which the HMIT Releasors, or any Person claiming through, under, or on behalf of any of the HMIT Releasors, ever had, now has, or hereafter can, shall, or may have against any of the Highland Released Parties by reason of, arising from, relating to, or in connection with, any fact, matter, or transaction that occurred prior to the Agreement Date, including any fact, matter, transaction, or occurrence asserted by any HMIT Entity in the Pending Litigation or in connection with, relating to, or with respect to the Bankruptcy Case, the management or operation of any of the Highland Released Parties, or the Highland Released Parties' property and including any defense, affirmative defenses, and right to setoff arising out of, or otherwise related to, any of the foregoing (collectively, the "HMIT Entity Released Claims").

10. General Release By The Highland Entities. On the Bankruptcy Court Approval Date, and to the maximum extent permitted by law, each of the Highland Entities, on behalf of itself and each of its respective Affiliates (including Affiliated and/or managed funds, accounts and other investment vehicles) and its or their respective current and former advisors, consultants, administrators, trustees, directors, officers, managers, executives, members, partners (including limited and general partners), employees, beneficiaries, direct and indirect shareholders and other equity holders, agents, participants, direct and indirect subsidiaries and parents, successors, predecessors, designees, and assigns (whether by operation of law or otherwise) and all Persons claiming through, under or on their behalf (collectively with the Highland Entities, the "Highland Releasors") hereby forever, finally, fully, unconditionally, and completely releases, relieves, acquits, discharges, remises, and exonerates each HMIT Released Party from, and waives and relinquishes, any and all Claims which the Highland Releasors, or any Person claiming through, under, or on behalf of any of the Highland Releasors, ever had, now has, or hereafter can, shall, or may have against any of the HMIT Released Parties by reason of, arising from, relating to, or in connection with, any fact, matter, or transaction that occurred prior to the Bankruptcy Court Approval Date, including any fact, matter, transaction, or occurrence in connection with, relating to, or with respect to the Bankruptcy Case, the management or operation of any of the HMIT Released Parties, or the HMIT Released Parties' property and including any defense, affirmative defenses, and right to setoff arising out of, or otherwise related to, any of the foregoing (collectively, the "Highland Released Claims").

11. Further Provisions Concerning The General Releases.

(a) FOR THE AVOIDANCE OF DOUBT, THE FOREGOING RELEASES ARE INTENDED TO BE GENERAL AND INCLUDE A RELEASE OF ALL RELEASED CLAIMS, WHETHER KNOWN OR UNKNOWN, SUSPECTED OR UNSUSPECTED, ARISING OR EXISTING FROM THE BEGINNING OF TIME THROUGH AND INCLUDING THE AGREEMENT DATE.

(b) To the maximum extent permitted by law, each of the HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, waives the benefit of any statute or other principle of law or equity that limits the applicability of a release with respect to Claims that the releasing party does not know or suspect to exist in his, her or its favor at the time of executing the release.

(c) Without limiting the scope of the foregoing waiver, in connection with the foregoing release, each of the HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on its own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, waives the benefits of Section 1542 of the California Civil Code (to the extent, if any, that Section 1542 might apply to the foregoing release), which provides as follows:

> A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED PARTY.

Each of the HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, hereby agrees that the provisions of Section 1542 of the Civil Code of the State of California and all similar federal or state law, rights, rules or legal principles, legal or equitable, in each case solely to the extent such provisions apply, ARE HEREBY KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY WAIVED AND RELINQUISHED BY EACH OF THE HMIT ENTITIES AND THE HIGHLAND ENTITIES, ON THEIR OWN BEHALF AND ON BEHALF OF THE OTHER HMIT RELEASORS AND HIGHLAND RELEASORS, RESPECTIVELY, in each and every capacity, to the full extent that such rights and benefits pertaining to the matters released herein may be waived, and each of the HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, hereby agrees and acknowledges that this waiver and relinquishment is an essential term of this Agreement, without which the consideration provided would not have been given.

In connection with such waiver and relinquishment, each of the HMIT Entities and Highland Entities acknowledges that it is aware that it may hereafter discover Claims presently unknown or unsuspected, or facts in addition to or different from those which it now knows or believes to be true, with respect to the matters released herein. Nevertheless, it is the intent of each of the HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on its own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, in executing this Agreement fully, finally, and forever to settle and release all such matters, and all Claims related thereto, which exist, may exist or might have existed (whether or not previously or currently asserted in any action) which are the subject to the releases granted above.

(d) As an integral component of this Agreement, and notwithstanding the Parties' intent set forth in the preamble hereto and the general nature of the releases in Sections 9 and 10, should:

(i) any HMIT Releasor contend or assert that any Claim of any kind whatsoever held by any HMIT Releasor against any Highland Released Party survives this Agreement and is in any way related to or arising from or in connection with any HMIT Entity Released Claim (such claim or cause of action, a "HMIT Alleged Claim"), such HMIT Releasor will be deemed to have irrevocably, fully, and finally assigned such HMIT Alleged Claim to the Highland Entities and the Highland Entities will be deemed to have forever, finally, full, unconditionally, and irrevocably, and completely released such HMIT Alleged Claim.

(ii) any Highland Releasor contend or assert that any Claim of any kind whatsoever held by any Highland Releasor against any HMIT Released Party survives this Agreement and is in any way related to or arising from or in connection with any Highland Entity Released Claim (such claim or cause of action, a "Highland Alleged Claim"), such Highland Releasor will be deemed to have irrevocably, fully, and finally assigned such Highland Alleged Claim to the HMIT Entities and the HMIT Entities will be deemed to have forever, finally, full, unconditionally, and irrevocably, and completely released such Highland Alleged Claim.

12. Covenant Not To Sue; Limitation on Standing. Upon the Agreement Date:

(a) Each of the HMIT Releasors covenants and agrees that it will not institute or prosecute any Action, in law, in equity or otherwise, against any of the Highland Released Parties, to recover, enforce, investigate, or collect any HMIT Entity Released Claim and will not (i) induce, encourage or direct any other Person to do so or (ii) act in concert with or assist (financially or otherwise) any other Person in doing so.

(b) Each of the Highland Releasors covenants and agrees that it will not institute or prosecute any Action, in law, in equity or otherwise, against any of the HMIT Released Parties, to recover, enforce, investigate, or collect any Highland Entity Released Claim and will not (i) induce, encourage or direct any other Person to do so or (ii) act in concert with or assist (financially or otherwise) any other Person in doing so.

(c) For the avoidance of doubt, this Agreement shall not operate to give any HMIT Entity standing for any purpose in connection with the Bankruptcy Case (or in connection with any appeal arising from any order entered by the Bankruptcy Court), except for the limited purpose of seeking Court approval of this Agreement (including with respect to any appeal concerning any order entered granting or denying such approval), and except for the limited purpose of enforcing this Agreement, no HMIT Entity shall commence any Action in connection with the HMIT Class 10 Interest.

13. Representations and Warranties.

(a) Each of the HMIT Entities hereby represents and warrants that every HMIT Entity Released Claim has not heretofore been assigned or encumbered and is not the subject of a transfer (as such term is defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(54)), by any HMIT Releasor.

(b) The HMIT Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors, acknowledge and agree that each Plan Provision is lawful, effective, and binding on the HMIT Releasors. The HMIT Entities further agree, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors, that the HMIT Releasors will never, in any way, challenge or seek to modify, nullify, vacate, or revoke, or induce, encourage or direct any other Person to do so or act in concert with or assist (financially or otherwise) any other Person in doing so the Confirmation Order, the Plan, the Plan Protections, or any Plan Document, including the Claimant Trust Agreement, the LPA, the Indemnity Trust Agreement or the Litigation Sub-Trust Agreement, in the Bankruptcy Court, in any other state or federal court, in any other forum or tribunal, or otherwise, including administrative or regulatory tribunals and foreign courts.

(c) Each of the Highland Entities hereby represents and warrants that every Highland Entity Released Claim has not heretofore been assigned or encumbered and is not the subject of a transfer (as such term is defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(54)), by any Highland Releasor.

(d) Each Party severally represents and warrants as to itself only that: (i) it has taken all necessary action to authorize and approve the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement; (ii) such Party has full power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement; and (iii) this Agreement constitutes a valid, legal and binding obligation of such Party, and is enforceable subject to its terms. Each individual signatory hereto individually warrants and represents to all Parties hereto that such individual has full power and authority to act on behalf of and bind the Party for which he or she has executed this Agreement; provided, however that no signatory shall otherwise provide any warranty or representation or otherwise be a party to this Agreement on an individual basis.

14. No Continuing Rights, Duties or Obligations. Except for the rights, duties, and obligations expressly set forth in this Agreement, all Rights and Obligations that existed or may have existed shall be deemed terminated, extinguished, and released upon the Agreement Date. For the avoidance of doubt, from and after the Agreement Date, (a) the Highland Released Parties, individually and collectively, shall owe no duty, past or present, including with respect to the Kirchner Claims, to the HMIT Released Parties, individually and collectively, whether contractual, fiduciary, equitable, statutory or otherwise, except as arising out of this Agreement, and (b) the HMIT Released Parties, individually and collectively, shall owe no duty to the Highland Released Parties, individually and collectively, whether contractual, fiduciary, equitable, statutory or otherwise, except as arising out of this Agreement.

15. Gatekeeper Standard.

(a) The HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, acknowledge and agree that, notwithstanding the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit's decision in Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors, L.P. v. Highland Capital Management, L.P., No. 23-10^{53}4 (5th Cir. Mar. 18, 2025), the "Gatekeeper" provisions contained in Highland's Original Plan is forever binding on each of the HMIT Entities and any Persons claiming through, under or on behalf of any of them, and for a claim or cause of action to be "colorable" for purposes of the Gatekeeper, it must be found by final order of the Bankruptcy Court (the "Gatekeeper Court"), which order shall be subject to appeal to a court of competent jurisdiction, to have satisfied the "Gatekeeper Colorability Test" as such term is defined in In re Highland Capital Management, L.P., 2023 Bankr. LEXIS 2104 at *124-36 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. Aug. 24, 2023).

(b) The HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, acknowledge and agree that compliance with the Gatekeeper requires (i) a motion seeking leave to sue an Exculpated Party (as that term is defined in Highland's original Plan) and a finding that the litigant's claims and causes of action are "colorable" attaching a complaint setting forth the basis for such claims or causes of action and (ii), in the Gatekeeper Court's sole discretion, an evidentiary hearing (during which the Gatekeeper Court may, among other things, hear testimony and assess the credibility of any witness(es)) to determine whether a proposed claim or cause of action is "colorable."

(c) The HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, further acknowledge and agree that the moving party under the Gatekeeper has the burden of satisfying the "Gatekeeper Colorability Test," and that the dismissal of the Pending Litigation shall have res judicata effect.

16. Indemnification.

(a) Without in any manner limiting the available remedies for any breach of this Agreement, the HMIT Entities, severally but not jointly, agree to indemnify, defend, and hold the Highland Released Parties harmless from and against any and all Liability, that may arise or result from or on account of, or that are otherwise related or attributable to (x) any breach of this Agreement or of any representation or warranty contained in the Agreement, including the representations and warranties of any HMIT Entity set forth in Section 13 or (y) any Actions brought or prosecuted by or on behalf of, any HMIT Releasor or that are induced, encouraged, assisted or directed by any HMIT Releasor or brought or prosecuted in concert with any HMIT Releasor against any Highland Released Party with respect to or related to any HMIT Entity Released Claims. Without limiting the scope of the foregoing in any manner, any HMIT Entity that breaches Section 12 shall be liable to the Highland Released Party against whom the applicable Action has been brought or prosecuted in violation of Section 12 for the reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred by such Highland Released Party in defending against or otherwise responding to such Action. Each HMIT Entity acknowledges and agrees that the HMIT Entities are and shall be severally but not jointly liable for any Liability arising from or out of any breach of this Agreement or of any representation or warranty set forth in this Agreement.

(b) Without in any manner limiting the available remedies for any breach of this Agreement, the Highland Entities, severally but not jointly, agree to indemnify, defend, and hold the HMIT Released Parties harmless from and against any and all Liability, that may arise or result from or on account of, or that are otherwise related or attributable to (x) any breach of this Agreement or of any representation or warranty contained in the Agreement, including the representations and warranties of any Highland Entity set forth in Section 13 or (y) any suits, proceedings, or other actions brought or prosecuted by or on behalf of, any Highland Releasor or that are induced, encouraged, assisted or directed by any Highland Releasor or brought or prosecuted in concert with any Highland Releasor against any HMIT Released Party with respect to or related to any Highland Entity Released Claims. Without in any manner limiting the scope of the foregoing, any Highland Entity that breaches Section 12 shall be liable to the HMIT

Released Party against whom the applicable Action has been brought or prosecuted in violation of Section 12 for the reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred by such HMIT Released Party in defending against or otherwise responding to such Action. Each Highland Entity acknowledges and agrees that the Highland Entities are and shall be severally but not jointly liable for any Liability arising from or out of any breach of this Agreement or of any representation or warranty set forth in this Agreement.

17. Execution. This Agreement may be executed by the exchange of signatures by facsimile or by PDF attachment to an email transmittal and in counterparts, and if so executed, shall be fully executed when a counterpart has been executed and delivered by all Parties hereto through counsel. All counterparts taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement and shall be fully enforceable as such.

18. Bankruptcy Court Order. The allowance of the allowed HMIT Class 10 Interest pursuant to Section 4 is subject to the entry of the Bankruptcy Court Order. To that end, the Highland Entities shall file the 9019 Motion no later than five (5) Business Days after the Agreement Date. Each Party shall, and shall cause each of their respective Affiliates to, undertake any and all actions in compliance with applicable law to obtain the Bankruptcy Court Order as promptly as practicable, and without limiting the foregoing, if an Action is threatened or instituted by any Person opposing the 9019 Motion or otherwise challenging the validity or legality, or seeking to restrain the consummation, of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the Bankruptcy Court Order, each Party shall, and shall cause its respective Affiliates to, use their commercially reasonable best efforts to avoid, resist, resolve or, if necessary, and defend to effectuate this Agreement and consummate the transactions hereby. If the 9019 Motion is not approved by entry of the Bankruptcy Court Order or if the Bankruptcy Court Approval is precluded from becoming a Final Order, (a) there will be no effect on, adjustment to, or impairment of, in any way, the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement, and the other transactions contemplated hereby, all of which shall remain in full force and effect and (b) each Party shall, and shall cause its respective Affiliates to, use their best efforts to seek the allowance of the HMIT Class 10 Interest in a substantially similar amount and on substantially similar terms as set forth in Section 4 to the fullest extent possible so as to give effect to the original intent of the Parties as closely as possible.

19. Fees and Expenses. Whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated or the Bankruptcy Court Order is obtained, and except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, each Party will bear its respective fees, costs and expenses (including legal, accounting and other professional fees) incurred in connection with the preparation, negotiation, execution and performance of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, including with respect to each Party's respective obligations pursuant to Section 18. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any Party hereto, any Highland Released Party, or any HMIT Released Party brings an Action to enforce or interpret the terms and provisions of this Agreement, the prevailing Person in that Action shall be entitled to have and recover from the non-prevailing Person all such fees, costs and expenses (including all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees) as the prevailing Person may suffer or incur in the pursuit or defense of such action or proceeding.

20. Entire Agreement; No Other Representations. THIS AGREEMENT CONTAINS THE ENTIRE AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE PARTIES, AND NO RIGHTS ARE CREATED IN FAVOR OF ANY PERSON OTHER THAN AS SPECIFIED OR EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT. THERE ARE NO REPRESENTATIONS, CONDITIONS, WARRANTIES, STATEMENTS, OR UNDERSTANDINGS (COLLECTIVELY, "REPRESENTATIONS"), EITHER ORAL OR WRITTEN, BETWEEN THE PARTIES OTHER THAN THOSE EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT. THE PARTIES EXPRESSLY AGREE THAT THEY HAVE NOT BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY ANY REPRESENTATIONS NOT SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT; AND THE PARTIES EXPRESSLY AGREE THAT THEY HAVE NOT RELIED ON ANY REPRESENTATIONS NOT EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT. THE PARTIES EXPRESSLY AGREE THAT THEY ARE ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT RELYING SOLELY ON THEIR OWN JUDGMENT AND NOT ON ANY REPRESENTATIONS BY ANY PARTY, EXCEPT FOR THOSE REPRESENTATIONS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT. THE PARTIES AGREE THAT REPRESENTATIONS NOT EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT SHALL NOT BE USED IN THE INTERPRETATION OR CONSTRUCTION OF THIS AGREEMENT, AND NEITHER THE HMIT RELEASED PARTIES NOR THE HIGHLAND RELEASED PARTIES SHALL HAVE ANY LIABILITY FOR ANY CONSEQUENCES ARISING AS A RESULT OF ANY REPRESENTATIONS NOT SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT.

21. Agreement and Release Knowing and Voluntary. The Parties acknowledge that they have considered this Agreement with their respective attorneys and have carefully read this Agreement, that it has been fully explained by their attorneys, and that they have had a reasonable opportunity to consider this Agreement. The Parties further represent that they know and fully understand the contents of this Agreement, that they intend to be legally bound by this Agreement and the releases and covenants contained herein, and that they are signing this Agreement, including the release provisions herein, voluntarily and of their own free will and without coercion, and with the benefit of advice of counsel.

22. Cooperation. The Parties agree to perform any services or actions reasonably necessary to carry out the terms and conditions of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, including the execution and delivery of reasonable additional documents, instruments, conveyances and/or assurances, in good faith, and to reasonably communicate and cooperate with one another in this regard. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Section shall obligate the Highland Entities to assist the HMIT Entities in any way with respect to the Kirschner Claims, including the prosecution thereof.

23. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be construed pursuant to and governed by the laws of the State of Delaware (substantive and procedural) without reference to principles of conflicts of law that would result in the application of any other State's laws.

24. Jurisdiction/Venue. The Parties hereby irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction and venue of the Bankruptcy Court with respect to any Action arising out of or related to this Agreement or the subject matter hereof; if (and only if) the Bankruptcy Court lacks personal or subject matter jurisdiction to adjudicate an Action arising out of or related to this Agreement or the subject matter hereof, then the Parties irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction and venue of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas.

25. No Admissions. All Parties acknowledge and agree that the matters set forth in this Agreement constitute the settlement and compromise of disputed Claims and that this Agreement shall not constitute the admission of any fact or liability by any of them regarding any Claim, including the Claims released hereunder, and neither the terms hereof, nor the fact of this Agreement itself, shall be evidence of any kind in any Action, other than an Action to enforce the terms of the Agreement or any instrument executed in connection herewith or any claim for damages or other relief for breach of any representation or warranty contained herein or in any instrument executed in connection herewith.

26. Other Provisions.

(a) No representation, inducement, agreement, promise or understandings altering, modifying, amending, taking from or adding to, the terms and conditions hereof shall have any force or effect unless the same is in writing and validly executed by each of the Parties hereto.

(b) The waiver by any Party of any breach of, or default under, any provision of this Agreement shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach or default; provided, however, that for any such waiver to be enforceable, it shall be in writing and executed by the non-breaching Party.

(c) The headings contained in this Agreement are for convenience only and shall in no way restrict or otherwise affect the construction of the provisions hereof.

(d) The Parties shall each execute all documents and perform all acts necessary and proper to effectuate the terms of this Agreement.

27. Notices. All notices required or permitted to be provided hereunder shall be afforded to the respective parties to and through their counsel, and shall be transmitted simultaneously by electronic mail (with PDF attachments, as necessary) and by telefax, addressed as follows:

Thank you John,

I have fallen a bit behind. After I talked to you from Wisconsin my mother had to be hospitalized and I had to rearrange my travel to get back to LA. She got home yesterday evening, but still involved with getting home health, sitters, etc.

I hope to get back at things close to full time by tomorrow. To be sure, my clients are pushing me.

Recitals

WHEREAS, Mr. Patrick hereby represents and warrants that he is a control person for each of Hunter Mountain, the DAF Entities and the Rand Entities;

WHEREAS, there are several active litigations to which Highland or one of its affiliates, on the one hand, and one or more of the Recipients, on the other hand, are parties, including, without limitation, the matters set forth on Exhibit A hereto (collectively, the "Pending Litigations");

WHEREAS, the Parties desire to enter into good faith settlement discussions in an effort to reach a mutually acceptable global resolution to the Pending Litigations and all potential claims and causes of action against each other (the "Potential Settlement");

WHEREAS, in connection with negotiating the Potential Settlement, it is anticipated that Highland will provide the Recipients with certain Confidential Information (as hereinafter defined); and

WHEREAS, as a condition to Highland providing Recipients with any such Confidential Information, the Recipients agree to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement.

Agreement

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged and agreed, the Parties, intending to be legally bound, hereby agree as follows:

1. Representations and Warranties

(a) Each Party hereby represents and warrants to the other Parties as follows:

(i) Existence and Good Standing. Such Party is a legal entity duly organized, validly existing and, to the extent applicable in such jurisdiction, in good standing under the Laws (as hereinafter defined) of the jurisdiction in which it is incorporated or formed. Such Party has all requisite corporate or similar right, power, authority and capacity to own, lease and operate the properties and assets it owns, leases and operates. Each Party is qualified to do business as a foreign entity in each jurisdiction in which its ownership of property or the conduct of its business as now conducted requires it to qualify.

This Agreement constitute the valid and binding obligations of, and enforceable against, such Party.

(iii) No Violations. The execution and delivery by such Party of this Agreement, the performance and compliance with the terms and conditions hereof and thereof by such Party, and the performance by such Parent of its obligations contemplated hereby, in each case, will not (with or without notice or passage of time, or both):

(1) violate, conflict with, result in a breach of or constitute a default under any of the provisions of the Organizational Documents of such Party; or

(2) breach, violate or conflict with any provision of any Law or Permit applicable to such Party.

(iv) Legal Proceedings. There are no judicial, administrative or arbitral actions, suits, hearings, inquiries, charges, investigations, administrative proceedings, grievances or formal complaints or other proceedings (public or private) commenced, brought, conducted or heard before, or otherwise involving, any Governmental Entity or arbitrator, in each case, pending nor threatened that (i) challenge the validity or enforceability of Party's obligations under this Agreement or (b) seek to prevent or delay, or otherwise would reasonably be expected to adversely affect, the performance by such Party of its obligations hereunder.

(b) Each Recipient hereby represents and warrants to Highland as follows:

(i) None of James Dondero, nor any Person directly or indirectly owned or controlled by Mr. Dondero (including, without limitation, Dugaboy Investment Trust) nor or any attorney, agent, employee, or representative engaged or working for benefit of Mr. Dondero nor any Person directly or indirectly owned or controlled by him (collectively, the "Dondero Related Parties") directly or indirectly owns any interest in, or directly or indirectly has any control over, such Recipient, including, without limitation, as the result of any written or oral contract, agreement, arrangement or obligation.

(ii) Such Recipient does not represent and is not acting on behalf of any Dondero Related Party.

(iii) Such Recipient has no duty or obligation to provide any Confidential Information to any Person not a party to this Agreement, whether through a common or joint interest agreement or otherwise, and is not representing or acting on behalf of any Person with such a duty or obligation.

Recipients acknowledge the confidential and proprietary nature of the Confidential Information, agree to hold and keep the Confidential Information in strict confidence as provided in this Agreement, agree that the use of any such Confidential Information is expressly limited to the pursuit of a Potential Settlement and shall not be used for any other purpose or in any other manner except as expressly provided in this Agreement, and otherwise agree to each and every restriction and obligation in this Agreement.

As used in this Agreement, the term "Confidential Information" means and includes (a) any and all of the following items that will be disclosed to any Recipient or any of their respective Representatives (as hereinafter defined) by or on behalf of Highland, whether orally or in writing and without regard to whether Highland has specifically designated such item as confidential, proprietary or non-public: any and all confidential, proprietary or non-public information concerning the business or affairs of Highland or any of its affiliates or related accounts, or other Persons (as hereinafter defined) (which includes, for the avoidance of doubt and without limitation, Highland Claimant Trust, Highland Litigation Sub-Trust, Highland Indemnity Trust, each of their and Highland's direct and indirect subsidiaries, and each of their respective affiliates, and its and their respective parent entities, beneficiaries, members, shareholders, owners, creditors, trustees, oversight boards, directors, managers, officers, employees, agents, advisors and representatives (collectively, the "Highland Related Parties")), including, without limitation, any written or oral information, reports and data concerning financial statements, assets, liabilities, indemnity and other obligations, cash flow, income, and expenses; past, current or planned investment or portfolio information; contracts and agreements; know-how, inventions and ideas, whether past, current or planned; partner, beneficiary, owner or investor lists; partner, beneficiary, owner or investor information; business plans; entity structure details; all compliance-related reports, records and information; and any other information, however documented, that is proprietary or non-public or is a trade secret within the meaning of applicable state trade secret Law, and (b) any and all statements or representations made in the course of discussing, negotiating or evaluating a Potential Settlement, including, without limitation, the terms of any Potential Settlement and the fact that (i) Confidential Information has been disclosed to Recipient and (ii) any discussions or negotiations are taking place concerning a Potential Settlement.

To the extent that any Confidential Information includes information or materials subject to the attorney-client privilege, work-product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege concerning pending or threatened legal proceedings or governmental investigations, the Parties understand and agree that they have a commonality of interest with respect to such matters, and it is their desire, intention, and mutual understanding that the sharing of such information or materials is not intended to, and shall not, waive or diminish in any way the confidentiality of such information or material or its continued protection under the attorney-client privilege, work-product doctrine, or other applicable privilege. Accordingly, all Confidential Information disclosed by or on behalf of Highland that is entitled to protection under the attorney-client privilege, work-product doctrine, or other applicable privilege shall remain entitled to such protection under these privileges and this Agreement.

4. Restricted Use of Confidential Information

Recipients agree that the Confidential Information (a) shall be kept strictly confidential by each Recipient and (b) without limiting the foregoing, shall not be disclosed by or on behalf of any Recipient to any Person (as hereinafter defined) except as otherwise expressly permitted by this Agreement. It is understood and the Recipients agree that Confidential Information may only be disclosed to Mr. Patrick and such specific legal counsel, accountants and financial advisors of the Recipients to whom such disclosure has been consented to in writing by Highland in its sole discretion (which consent may be given via email) (collectively "Representatives") and who (i) require such Confidential Information for the purpose of evaluating, negotiating or consummating a Proposed Settlement (ii) are informed by Recipient of the confidential nature of the Confidential Information and the obligations set forth in this Agreement, and (iii) execute a written joinder in the form annexed hereto as Exhibit B pursuant to which the Representative agrees to be bound to this Agreement as if they were an original Party hereto, with such joinder including, without limitation, a representation and warranty that such Representative (1) does not currently represent any Dondero Related Party and (2) has no duty or obligation to provide any Confidential Information to any Person not a party to this Agreement, whether through a common or joint interest agreement or otherwise, and does not represent any Person with such a duty or obligation. Recipients further agree that Recipients and their Representatives shall not use any of the Confidential Information to the detriment of Highland or any Highland Related Party or for any reason or purpose other than evaluating, negotiating or consummating a Proposed Settlement. Recipients shall enforce this Agreement as to its Representatives and take such action, legal or otherwise, to the extent necessary to cause them to comply with this Agreement and thereby prevent any disclosure of Confidential Information by any of its Representatives (including, without limitation, all actions that any Recipient would take to protect its own confidential information).

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing and for the avoidance of doubt, the Recipients and their Representatives shall not disclose or refer to any Confidential Information to (a) subject to Section 5 below, any Governmental Entity (as hereinafter defined), including, without limitation, in any pleadings or submissions, or (b) any Dondero Related Party. The Parties acknowledge that it is their collective intent that no Confidential Information disclosed hereunder may be examined in any proceeding of a Governmental Entity (or any discovery relating to any such proceeding), and all Confidential Information shall be entitled to all protections applicable under Federal Rule of Evidence 408 and any other protections afforded to settlement and compromise communications under any other applicable Law.

5. Legally Compelled Disclosure

If any Recipient or any of its Representatives becomes compelled by Law (whether by oral questions, interrogatories, requests for information or documents, subpoena, civil or criminal investigative demand, or similar process) to make any disclosure that is prohibited or otherwise constrained by this Agreement, such Recipient or its Representative, as the case may be, shall provide Highland with immediate notice of such legal proceedings, including all related documentation, so Highland may (a) seek an appropriate protective order or other appropriate relief, or (b) waive compliance with the provisions of this Agreement. In the absence of a protective order or Recipients receiving a written waiver from Highland, Recipients or their Representatives are permitted (with Highland's cooperation but at Recipient's expense) to disclose that portion (and only that portion) of the Confidential Information that Recipient or its Representative is legally compelled by an order of an applicable Governmental Entity of competent jurisdiction to disclose; provided, however, that Recipient and its Representatives must use best efforts to obtain reliable assurance that confidential treatment will be accorded by any Person to whom any Confidential Information is so disclosed.

6. Return or Destruction of Confidential Information

If Highland notifies Recipients that it wishes Recipients to return all Confidential Information, then Recipients (i) shall promptly deliver to Highland all documents or other materials disclosed by or on behalf of Highland to Recipient or its Representatives constituting Confidential Information, together with all copies and summaries thereof in the possession or under the control of Recipients or their Representatives, and (ii) will destroy materials generated by Recipients or their Representatives that include or refer to any part of the Confidential Information, without retaining any copies, including, without limitation, any electronically stored copies or attachments to emails, of any such documents or materials. Written notice of return or destruction shall constitute a valid termination of access to Confidential Information and shall be deemed to have been given at the time Highland sends such notice. Such notice may be sent in any manner reasonably calculated to notify Recipients of the termination.

7. No Obligation to Negotiate a Potential Settlement

None of the Parties shall have rights or obligations of any kind whatsoever with respect to any Potential Settlement by virtue of this Agreement other than for the matters specifically agreed to herein. Without limiting the preceding sentence, nothing in this Agreement requires any Party to enter into any Potential Settlement or to negotiate the same for any specified period of time or on any specific terms.

8. No Representations or Warranties

Highland shall have no obligation to provide any information—confidential or otherwise—to the Recipients and retains the right to determine, in its sole discretion, what information, if any, it wishes to make available to Recipients, and neither Highland nor any Highland Related Party makes any representation or warranty (express or implied) concerning the completeness or accuracy of the Confidential Information.

9. Miscellaneous

(a) Modification. This Agreement may only be modified or waived by a separate writing signed by the Party or Parties expressly modifying or waiving this Agreement.

(b) Waiver. Neither the failure nor any delay by any Party in exercising any right, power, or privilege under this Agreement will operate as a waiver of such right, power, or privilege, and no single or partial exercise of any such right, power, or privilege will preclude any other or further exercise of such right, power, or privilege or the exercise of any other right, power, or privilege.

(c) Certain Definitions.

(i) The term "Governmental Entity" means any federal, national, state, foreign, provincial, local or other government or any governmental, regulatory, administrative or self-regulatory authority, agency, bureau, board, commission, court, judicial or arbitral body, department, political subdivision, tribunal or other instrumentality thereof, including any fiscal intermediary or administrative contractor acting on behalf of any of the foregoing.

(ii) The term "Law" means any law, rule, regulation, statute, code, ordinance, decree or other restriction of any Governmental Entity or any order, injunction, judgment, decree, ruling, writ, assessment or award of a Governmental Entity.

(iii) The term "Organizational Documents" means certificates of incorporation, bylaws, certificates of formation, certificates of trust, limited liability company agreements, limited liability partnership agreements, partnership or limited partnership agreements, trust agreements or other similar formation or governing documents of any Person, in each case, as amended, restated or otherwise modified to date.

(iv) The term "Person" means any individual, corporation (including any non-profit corporation), general or limited partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, estate, trust, association, organization, labor union, any other business entity, or a Governmental Entity.

(d) Severability. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provisions of this Agreement, which shall remain in full force and effect. If any of the terms, covenants or provisions of this Agreement are determined to be unenforceable by reason of its extent, duration, scope or otherwise, then the Parties contemplate and intend that the authority making such determination shall reduce such extent, duration, scope or other provision and enforce them in their reduced form for all purposes contemplated by this Agreement.

(e) Breach. Recipients agree that Highland will be irreparably injured by a breach of this Agreement by any Recipient or its Representatives, that monetary remedies will be inadequate to protect Highland against any actual or threatened breach of this Agreement by any Recipient or by its Representatives, and that Highland shall be entitled to an injunction or other equitable relief as a remedy for any breach as a matter of right and without the necessity of having to post a bond. Such remedy shall not be deemed to be the exclusive remedy for a breach of this Agreement, but shall be in addition to all other remedies available at law or equity. The non-prevailing Party shall pay the other Party's costs and expenses in any action to enforce the terms of this Agreement.

(f) Liability and Indemnity. Recipients shall, jointly and severally, be liable to and shall indemnify and hold Highland and the Highland Related Parties harmless from and against any and all claims, suits, losses, damages, costs or expenses, including reasonable attorney fees, incurred or suffered by Highland or any Highland Related Party as a result of any Recipient or its Representatives violation of this Agreement, including, without limitation, using or disclosing any Confidential Information other than in accordance with this Agreement, whether such use or disclosure is performed negligently or otherwise.

(g) Notices. All notices, requests, demands, claims, and other communications hereunder shall be in writing. Any notice, request, demand, claim or other communication hereunder shall be deemed duly delivered: (a) four (4) business days after it is sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid; (b) one (1) business day after it is sent for next business day delivery via a reputable nationwide overnight courier service; (c) when sent, if emailed on a business day; and (d) the next business day following the day on which the email is sent if emailed on a day that is not a business day, in each case to the intended recipient as set forth below:

(h) Governing Law; Jurisdiction. This Agreement shall be interpreted and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to conflict of laws provisions. Each Party hereby irrevocably submits and acknowledges and recognizes the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas, Dallas Division (which court, for purposes of this Agreement, is the only court of competent jurisdiction), over any suit, action or other proceeding arising out of, under or in connection with this Agreement or its subject matter. Signatures of the Parties transmitted by email shall be deemed to be their original signatures for any purpose whatsoever.

(j) Headings. The headings of the sections of this Agreement are inserted for convenience of reference only and shall not control or affect the meaning or construction of any of the terms of this Agreement in any manner.

(k) Construction. This Agreement has been fully negotiated by the Parties. Accordingly, in interpreting this Agreement, no weight shall be placed on which Party to this Agreement or its counsel drafted the provision being interpreted.

Jim,

Louis sent back a signed NDA.

There is at least one change (the deletion of the word "Dugaboy" from item 3 of Exhibit A, which is fine), but he didn't send a black line so I'm trying to confirm there is nothing else.

If anyone knows how to compare, please do so.

But send me the signed version in the meantime at your convenience.

Also, it might make sense to dust off the "litigation protections" and conform them to the Patrick parties. Please let me know if you and Tim want to handle that or if you want us to do so; I'm not sure when we present them to Louis, but we should be prepared.

I'll be available to talk between 11:30 and 5 pm today.

Chat soon,

John

Louis,

Under Article IX of the Plan, the Bankruptcy Court retains jurisdiction to approve, among other things, the resolution of Claims, Equity Interests, and pending litigation. Based on that, HCMLP and the Claimant Trust expect to seek Bankruptcy Court approval of any settlement we may reach.

Please let me know if you have a different view.

John,

I would like your view as to whether a settlement agreement, if we reach one, should be made subject to Court approval (or, maybe if it can be). I know we need to account for our agreement with HCLOM, as our agreement supersedes the effect of the agreed order, and says in part that HCLOM has no Class 10 interest. Maybe that is the basis for the Court having authority. Would like your thoughts on what you are assuming re the process and of the Court's authority post-effective date. I admit I did not consult the plan or confirmation order before sending this

INTERCREDITOR AND PARTICIPATION AGREEMENT

This Intercreditor and Participation Agreement (the "Agreement") is entered into as of January 10, 2025 (the "Effective Date") by and between Highland CLO Management, Ltd. (together with its successors and assigns in such capacities, "HCLOM Ltd.") and Hunter Mountain Investment Trust (together with its successors and assigns in such capacities, "HMIT"). HCLOM Ltd. and HMIT are each referred to herein individually as a "Party" and jointly as the "Parties."

RECITALS

WHEREAS, on September 22, 2020, Highland Capital Management, L.P. filed a Notice of Filing of Debtor's Amended Schedules in its pending Chapter 11 Case No. 19-34054-sgj11 (the "Bankruptcy Case") in which it, among other things, scheduled a creditor's claim by HCLOM Ltd. (the "HCLOM Claim"); and

WHEREAS, on December 27, 2024, the Bankruptcy Court entered a Stipulated and Agreed Order Resolving (A) HCLOM, Ltd.'s Scheduled Claims 3.65 and 3.66; and (B) Highland Capital Management, L.P.'s (1) Objection and (2) Motion for a Bad Faith Finding and an Award of Attorneys' Fees Against HCLOM, Ltd. and James Dondero in Connection Therewith [Docket Nos. 3657, 4176] in the Bankruptcy Case (the "Stipulation and Agreed Order"); and

WHEREAS, the Stipulation and Agreed Order converted the HCLOM Claim to a Class 10 interest/claim (as such is defined in Article III.H. ¶ 10 of the Fifth Amended Plan of Reorganization of Highland Capital Management, L.P. (as Modified) in the Bankruptcy Case) (the "Plan") in the amount of $10,140,633.26; and

WHEREAS, the Parties have agreed to certain rights and priorities solely as between themselves regarding HCLOM Ltd.'s participation in the payment of Class 10 interests/claims;

THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the promises, covenants, conditions, stipulations, benefits, and obligations described and provided herein, the sufficiency and adequacy of which is expressly hereby acknowledged, the Parties agree as follows:

AGREEMENT

1. HMIT Payment Obligation to HCLOM Ltd. Upon HMIT's receipt of distributions on account of its Class 10 interest/claim (the "Distributions"), HMIT will pay to HCLOM Ltd. an amount equal to five percent (5%) of the funds received by HMIT within two (2) business days after receipt of indefeasible funds by HMIT (the "HMIT Payment Obligation"). HMIT shall be entitled to deduct from the Distributions the fees and expenses billed by Kelly Hart Hallman, LLP which directly relate to the Stipulation and Agreed Order or this Agreement (the "HMIT Expenses") until all HMIT Expenses are paid in full.

2. No Additional Duties to HCLOM Ltd. HMIT shall retain and have the sole discretion to act with respect to its Class 10 interest/claim, and shall owe no additional duties to HCLOM Ltd. or any other person or entity, including without limitation, with respect to (i) the amount of Distributions or recovery by HMIT on account of its Class 10 interests/claims,

(ii) the amount of Distributions that could be received by any holder of Class 10 interests/claims, (iii) the rights of any holder of Class 10 interests/claims, or (iv) any pleading or document that could or should be filed in any way related to the Bankruptcy Case, the Plan, or the HMIT Class 10 interests/claims.

3. No Liens or Encumbrances. HMIT will not take any action that could reasonably be expected to encumber HMIT's Class 10 interests/claims, limit or affect HMIT's right or ability to fulfil and perform the HMIT Payment Obligation, or limit or affect HCLOM Ltd.'s right to receive the Distributions.

4. This Agreement Supersedes the Effects of the Stipulated and Agreed Order Among the Parties. HCLOM acknowledges and agrees that, notwithstanding the Stipulated and Agreed Order, the terms of this Agreement amends and supersedes the effect of the Stipulation and Agreed Order as between the Parties and HCLOM's rights to payment under the Plan are limited solely to the HMIT Payment Obligation.

5. Non-Interference; No Cause of Action. Notwithstanding Paragraph 3, HCLOM will not have any rights to object to or otherwise interfere with the rights of HMIT as a holder of Class 10 interest to reach a settlement with Highland Capital Management, LP ("Highland"). HCLOM acknowledges that it shall have no right to notice or approval of such a settlement nor will it have any cause of action against HMIT arising out of any such settlement.

6. Remittance Agreement. The Parties acknowledge that contemporaneously herewith NREA SB II Holdings, LLC (together with its successors and assigns in such capacities, "NexPoint Small Bay."), Charitable DAF Holdings Corp. HCLOM agrees that if NexPoint Small Bay fails to make the DAF Bridge Equity Payment (as defined in the Remittance Agreement) pursuant to the terms of the Remittance Agreement, HMIT will have no obligations to make the HMIT Payment Obligation, and HMIT shall not receive any distribution from HMIT or any other party related to any Class 10 interest/claim. Notwithstanding any failure of NexPoint Small Bay to adhere to the terms of the Remittance Agreement, HCLOM acknowledges that by executing this Agreement, it shall have no other recourse or rights to payment under the Plan other than the terms of this Agreement.

7. Choice of Law; Jurisdiction; Venue. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas, without regard to conflict of law provisions. Each Party to hereby consents and agrees that the courts located in Texas shall have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine any claims or disputes between the parties pertaining to this Agreement or to any matter arising out of or relating to this Agreement. Each Party expressly submits and consents in advance to such jurisdiction in any action or suit commenced in any such court, and each Party hereby waives any objection that it may have based upon lack of personal jurisdiction, improper venue, or forum non conveniens.

8. Amendments; Waivers. No amendment, modification, or waiver of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall be deemed to be made unless the same shall be in writing signed on behalf of each Party, and each waiver, if any, shall be a waiver only with respect to the specific instance involved and shall in no way impair the rights of the Party making such waiver or the obligations of the other Party in any other respect or at any other time.

9. Binding Effect. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, the provisions of this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of, and be binding upon, the Parties and their respective successors, assigns, executors, representatives, and administrators.

10. Entire Agreement. 11. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument. Signature by facsimile or other similar electronic transmission shall have the same force and effect as an original signature.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties have executed this Intercreditor and Participation Agreement as of the Effective Date set forth above and in the capacities set forth below.

John,

Would it be possible to do an initial Zoom call with those people? Shawn is out of town for the rest of the week and he is needed. Maybe your side could discuss the range of information they think is involved and my two people could give their view, in anticipation of a meeting maybe next week?

Mark and Shawn are available tomorrow morning until 1:00 pm central.

I am getting Shawn's Joinder, hopefully today

Louis,

Dave Klos, Kirstin Hendrix, and some others are available later this week to share information with Mark and Shawn at Highland's offices. Jim Seery would likely participate by Zoom.

We thought meeting without lawyers might a good first step. If that makes sense, let me know how Dave can reach out to Mark and Shawn to set something up.

Chat soon,

Louis:

Attached is a copy of the Confidentiality Agreement signed by Mr. Seery in his capacities as the CEO of Highland and as the Claimant Trustee of the Highland Claimant Trust.

While the source of the information to be provided is HCMLP, we should have included the Highland Claimant Trust as an express signatory.

If you can acknowledge that Mr. Patrick agrees and understands that—notwithstanding any statement in the Agreement to the contrary—the Highland Claimant Trust is an intended signatory and beneficiary of the Agreement, we can proceed and amend the Agreement tomorrow to make that explicit.

Assuming that's not problematic, please also have Shawn execute the Rider in advance of tomorrow's meeting.

Thank you,

John

John,

As I mentioned on the phone Friday, we request a breakdown and documentation with specificity of any (i) accrued liabilities, (ii) anticipated success or severance (or completion) payments or bonuses, (iii) continuing admin budget for the Claimant trust, Indemnification sub trust and/or litigation sub trust, and (iv) the identity and amount and basis for any holdback(s).

We are available Tuesday in Dallas. How many from your side would be participating in person? I am trying to get my travel plans situated and to make sure my travel might add to the process (for example if you, Jeff, et al from Pachulski are attending remotely so might I). I believe I can get an early flight out in the morning arriving around 7:00 am or a bit later one arriving around 8:45.

Louis:

I'm writing to follow up on several things.

1. Litigation Protections. Attached are the "Litigation Protections" I mentioned. They are still subject to review and material change but wanted to share them now.

2. Follow up information. It sounds like yesterday's Zoom meeting was helpful. Please let us know if there is any other information your clients need to assess the situation.

3. HCMLP's diligence. We'll have some questions on our end, but for now, please send us the Remittance Agreement referred to in the Intercreditor Agreement.

4. Joinder signature. For completeness, please send us Shawn's signature page.

5. Preliminary terms/structure. We hope to provide over the weekend a set of bullet points concerning possible terms and structure of an agreement.

6. Further meeting. Some or all of us are prepared to meet in Dallas on Tuesday at a time to be determined (some may participate by Zoom). Please let us know if that is possible as soon as you're able so we can make travel arrangements.

Please let me know if you have any questions and thank you for your continued cooperation.

You are correct you do not have joinders from Amelia and I. The same thing occurred to me last night. We will send (getting a pre-trial order and brief out for Noon, so maybe a bit after then). Will get the Remittance Agreement out as well, and will get information re the other matters (I do not have it directly)

Louis,

Following up.

1. Meeting. We propose that the business folks (including Mark and Jim) meet in person at Highland's offices at 10:30 am Central Time tomorrow (casual dress, no suits), with lawyers participating by Zoom; if you want to attend in person, Jeff may attend in person as well so let me know (I am unable to attend in person because of other commitments).

2. DAF/HMIT information request. During tomorrow's meeting, Highland will provide the information requested below (and can quickly walk through the same information that was presented the other day for your benefit if that would be helpful).

3. Highland information request. As requested, please provide a copy of the Remittance Agreement referred to in the Intercreditor Agreement and share with us any other agreements or information concerning any current or former connection between DAF/CLOH/HMIT and Dondero/Okada/Dugaboy, including the funding of the HMIT litigation (that Mark testified to in June 2023) and the disposition of the HMIT Notes made in favor of Dugaboy and Okada. We just need to know how any agreement may impact the Dondero side, if at all.

4. NDA signatures. Please let us know who will be participating on your side and send any Joinders not previously sent (I'm not sure we received one for you and Amelia).

We look forward to your prompt response.

John

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing recitals, the promises contained in this Agreement, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the Parties stipulate and agree as follows:

TERMS OF AGREEMENT

1. Consideration for Settlement

1.1 Settlement Payment. The Parties agree that, simultaneously with the execution of this Agreement, and no later than the Effective Date, Cross-Defendants shall make a one-time payment of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) (the "Settlement Payment") to Cross-Plaintiffs consistent with the instructions set forth in Sections 1.3 and 1.4 below.

1.2 Payment of Past Attorneys' Fees, Audit Fees, and Bank Fees. In addition to the Settlement Payment, Cross-Defendants shall, within ten (10) business days of receiving a written demand by Cross-Plaintiffs, which demand shall include relevant back-up documentation, including at a minimum documentation of attorney rates and time entries, pay (i) all attorneys' fees incurred by Cross-Plaintiffs in connection with either the HCMLP Bankruptcy or the Kirschner Lawsuit, (ii) all audit fees incurred by Cross-Plaintiffs during the pendency of the HCMLP Bankruptcy, and (iii) all bank fees incurred by Cross-Plaintiffs during the pendency of the HCMLP Bankruptcy (the "Past Fees Payment"). The Past Fees Payment shall be made consistent with the instructions set forth in Sections 1.3 and 1.4 below.

1.3 Manner of Payments. The Settlement Payment, and any other payments to be made pursuant to this Agreement, shall be deemed made when received by wire transfer, without set-off, in immediately available funds. All such payments should be made in a manner to ensure receipt not later than 5:00 p.m., Central Standard Time, on the date when due under this Agreement. Whenever any payment to be made hereunder is due on a day which is not a Business Day (as defined below), such payment shall be made on the next Business Day thereafter, and any such payment shall be deemed timely made. "Business Day" means a day of the year (other than a Saturday, Sunday, legal holiday, or other day on which banking institutions in the State of Texas are authorized or required by law to close) in which banking institutions are open for the purpose of conducting commercial business.

1.4 Wire Transfer Instructions. Unless Cross-Plaintiffs instruct Cross-Defendants otherwise in writing, all payments to be made pursuant to this Agreement shall be made pursuant to the wire transfer instructions set forth below:

To:	Rand PE Fund I LP
Bank:	PNC Bank
Bank Address:	PO Box 640750 Pittsburgh, PA 15264-0570

Account No: 4947568529

1.5 Agreement to Fund Defense. In addition to the payments contemplated in this Section 1, as further consideration for settlement, Cross-Defendants agree to fund Cross-Plaintiffs' defense costs in the same manner as set forth in Section 1.2 through 1.4 above with regard to any and all claims now or hereafter asserted against Cross-Plaintiffs in the Kirschner Litigation. Such defense shall include, at a minimum, the retention of a licensed attorney to represent Cross-Plaintiffs in the Kirschner Litigation and payment of all costs and attorneys' fees associated with Cross-Plaintiffs' defense. For the avoidance of doubt, the Parties agree that Cross-Defendants may select any counsel of their choosing, in their sole discretion, to replace Cross-Plaintiffs' existing counsel and may retain counsel already representing other named defendants in the Kirschner Litigation, so long as no ethical or other legal conflict bars such dual representation. Cross-Plaintiffs shall retain full control of their defense in the Kirschner Litigation; provided however, that upon the substitution of counsel for Cross-Plaintiffs as contemplated in this Agreement, Cross-Defendants shall only control Cross-Plaintiffs' defense (hereinafter referred to as a "Change of Litigation Control"). In the event of a Change of Litigation Control, Cross-Plaintiffs shall: a) continue to be promptly apprised of all Kirschner Litigation events, issues, and circumstances which may affect Cross-Plaintiffs in said litigation by substitute counsel; and b) retain the right to consent to any resolution of the claims asserted against Cross-Plaintiffs in the Kirschner Litigation that involves (i) the payment of money by Cross-Plaintiffs, or (ii) any admission of liability by Cross-Plaintiffs, whether by settlement, default judgment, or otherwise.

2. Dismissal of Cross-Complaint.

4.1 Timing of Dismissal. Within five (5) business days of the Effective Date of this Agreement, the Parties shall stipulate to the dismissal of the Cross-Complaint with prejudice.

4.2 Responsibility for Filing. Cross-Plaintiffs shall bear responsibility for ensuring that appropriate notice of the Parties' stipulation of dismissal of the Cross-Complaint is timely filed with the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas.

3. Releases

3.1 Release by Cross-Plaintiffs of Cross-Defendants. Cross-Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves, their predecessors, successors, affiliates, and assigns, and each of their past, present, and future officers, directors, managers, agents, employees, representatives, and any person acting by, through, or under the direction of them (collectively, the "Cross-Plaintiff Releasing Parties") hereby fully and irrevocably release and discharge Cross-Defendants, together with their predecessors, successors, affiliates, and assigns, and each of their past, present, and future officers, directors, managers, agents, employees, representatives, and any person acting by, through, or under the direction of them (collectively, the "Cross-Defendant Released Parties"), from all claims, rights, demands, actions, lawsuits, causes of action, grievances, liabilities, obligations, controversies, damages, costs, expenses, losses, and debts, of any nature whatsoever, present or future, known or unknown, contingent or definitive, conditional or unconditional, that the Cross-Plaintiff Releasing Parties had, have, or may have against the Cross-Defendant Released Parties, which arise out of or relate in any manner to the subject matter of this Agreement or the Cross-

Complaint, or any other agreements executed by and between the Parties prior to the Effective Date.

3.2 Release by Cross-Defendants of Cross-Plaintiffs. Cross-Defendants, on behalf of themselves, their predecessors, successors, affiliates, and assigns, and each of their past, present, and future officers, directors, managers, agents, employees, representatives, and any person acting by, through, or under the direction of them (collectively, the "Cross-Defendant Releasing Parties") hereby fully and irrevocably release and discharge Cross-Plaintiffs, together with their predecessors, successors, affiliates, and assigns, and each of their past, present, and future officers, directors, managers, agents (inclusive of counsels for Cross-Plaintiffs), employees, representatives, and any person acting by, through, or under the direction of them (collectively, the "Cross-Plaintiff Released Parties"), from all claims, rights, demands, actions, lawsuits, causes of action, grievances, liabilities, obligations, controversies, damages, costs, expenses, losses, and debts, of any nature whatsoever, present or future, known or unknown, contingent or definitive, conditional or unconditional, that the Cross-Defendant Releasing Parties had, have, or may have against the Cross-Plaintiff Released Parties, which arise out of or relate in any manner to the subject matter of this Agreement or the Cross-Complaint, or any other agreements executed by and between the Parties prior to the Effective Date, including but not limited to any and all guarantees or debt obligations facially owed by Cross-Plaintiffs to Cross-Defendants.

4. Confidentiality and Non-Disparagement

4.1 Duty of Confidentiality. The terms of this Agreement and all correspondence relating to this Agreement are and shall remain confidential. The Parties shall not disclose any information relating to this Agreement or its contents, nor shall any Party cause any individual, entity, affiliate, or agent acting under its direction or control to disclose any information relating to this Agreement or its contents, to any third party whatsoever, except (i) with the prior written consent of the other Party to this Agreement; (ii) as may be required by applicable law, regulation, or order of a governmental authority of competent jurisdiction; (iii) during the course of litigation so long as the disclosure is subject to the same restrictions as are embodied in a court-ordered protective order limiting disclosure to outside counsel; or (iv) in confidence to the Party's counsel, accountants, financial advisors, or tax professionals, whom the Party shall advise of the confidential nature of this Agreement.

4.2 Requirements Prior to Disclosure. Should any Party disclose any information relating to this Agreement or its contents under any of the circumstances specified in Section 3.1, the disclosing Party shall notify the other Parties in writing before any disclosure of the same. In such case, the disclosing Party shall: (i) make available as soon as practicable (and in any event prior to disclosure), for inspection and copying, a copy of the Agreement or other information the Party intends to disclose; (ii) where applicable, identify the law, regulation, order, or other legal basis for the disclosure; and (iii) to the extent possible, refrain from disclosing anything for at least ten (10) business days following the disclosing Party's written notice of disclosure to give the other Parties an opportunity to resist disclosure or seek other appropriate legal relief. In any event, the Parties shall use reasonable efforts to limit the disclosure of the terms and conditions of this Agreement and seek a protective order or other confidential treatment of the disclosed information.

4.3 Duty of Non-Disparagement. Subject to applicable law, each of the Parties covenant and agree that neither they nor any of their respective agents, subsidiaries, affiliates, successors, assigns, officers, employees or directors, will in any way publicly disparage, call into disrepute, defame, slander or otherwise criticize the opposing Parties or such other Parties' agents, subsidiaries, affiliates, successors, assigns, officers, employees, agents, or directors.

4.4 Violation of Duties of Confidentiality and Non-Disparagement. Any Party violating their duties of confidentiality or non-disparagement shall be responsible for payment of any damages incurred by the other Parties as a result of the violation. The Parties also shall have the right and standing to seek an injunction against any person and/or entity violating this Section 5, or any person and/or entity who has announced an intention to violate this Section 5 or who has failed to desist from any such violation after written demand to do so, from further or future violations. All attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses incurred by a Party in enforcing its rights pursuant to this Section 5 shall be the liability of and borne by each and every person and/or entity against whom injunctive, monetary, or other relief is obtained.

5. Covenants, Representations, and Warranties

5.1 Authority to Enter Into Agreement. The Parties covenant and warrant that they have the full power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to carry out its terms and that they have not previously assigned, sold, or otherwise pledged or encumbered any right, title, or interest in the claims released herein or their right, power, or authority to enter into this Agreement.

5.2 Authority to Execute on Behalf of Another. Any person signing this Agreement on behalf of another person or entity represents and warrants that he or she has full power and authority to do so and that said other person or entity is bound hereby.

5.3 No Admission of Liability. By entering into this Agreement, no Party is admitting any liability to any other Party or any other person or entity. Neither this Agreement, nor any document or instrument delivered hereunder, nor any statement, transaction, or proceeding in connection with the negotiation, execution, or implementation of this Agreement, is intended to be or shall be construed as or deemed to be evidence of an admission or concession of any liability or wrongdoing or of the truth of any allegations asserted by any Party against another, and no such statement, transaction, or proceeding shall be admissible in evidence for any such purpose except as required to enforce this Agreement.

5.4 Covenant Not To Sue. The Parties, for themselves, their heirs, and successors hereby covenant and agree not to file any lawsuit or other action concerning the claims released herein, other than an action to enforce the Agreement.

5.5 Representation by Counsel. Each Party has executed this Agreement upon its own independent judgment and upon the advice of its independent legal counsel, and not in reliance upon any representation, express or implied, of any kind or nature from any other Party or Party's counsel.

6. Miscellaneous Provisions

6.1 Governing Law. The provisions of this Agreement shall be interpreted in accordance with, and governed by, the laws of the State of Texas, without regard to conflict of laws principles.

6.2 Dispute Resolution. In the event there is an unresolved legal dispute between the Parties and/or any of their respective officers, directors, partners, employees, agents, affiliates or other representatives that involves legal rights or remedies arising from this Agreement, the Parties agree to submit their dispute to binding arbitration under the authority of the Federal Arbitration Act; provided, however, that any Party may pursue a temporary restraining order and/or preliminary injunctive relief in connection with any confidentiality covenants or agreements binding on the other party, with related expedited discovery for the parties, in a court of law, and thereafter, require arbitration of all issues of final relief. The arbitration will be conducted by the American Arbitration Association pursuant to the rules governing complex commercial disputes. A panel of three arbitrators will preside over the arbitration and will together deliberate, decide, and issue the final award. The arbitrators shall be duly licensed to practice law in the state of Texas. The arbitrators shall be required to state in a written opinion all facts and conclusions of law relied upon to support any decision rendered. The arbitrators will not have the authority to render a decision that contains an outcome based on error of state or federal law or to fashion a cause of action or remedy not otherwise provided for under applicable state or federal law. Any dispute over whether the arbitrators have failed to comply with the foregoing will be resolved by summary judgment in a court of law. All proceedings shall be conducted in Dallas, Texas or another mutually agreeable site. Each party shall bear its own attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses, including any costs of experts, witnesses, and/or travel.

6.3 Waiver of Right to Jury Trial.

EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY WHICH MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES AND, THEREFORE, EACH SUCH PARTY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LEGAL ACTION ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT. EACH PARTY TO THIS AGREEMENT CERTIFIES AND ACKNOWLEDGES THAT (A) NO REPRESENTATIVE OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER IN THE EVENT OF A LEGAL ACTION, (B) SUCH PARTY HAS CONSIDERED THE IMPLICATIONS OF THIS WAIVER, AND (C) SUCH PARTY MAKES THIS WAIVER VOLUNTARILY.

6.4 Cooperation. Each of the Parties hereto shall execute such additional documents and take such additional actions as are or may be reasonably necessary to effectuate the purposes of this Agreement.

6.5 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts. All counterparts so executed shall constitute one agreement binding on all parties hereto, notwithstanding that all Parties are not signatory to the original or to the same counterpart.

6.6 Entire Agreement/No Other Agreements.

THE PARTIES EXPRESSLY ACKNOWLEDGE, COVENANT, AND AGREE THAT THIS AGREEMENT AND ITS EXHIBITS CONSTITUTE THE ENTIRE AGREEMENT OF THE PARTIES WITH RESPECT TO THE SUBJECT MATTER CONTAINED THEREIN. THE PARTIES EXPRESSLY WAIVE AND DISAVOW ALL PRIOR AGREEMENTS, COVENANTS, REPRESENTATIONS, AND WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, WRITTEN OR ORAL, OF THE PARTIES CONCERNING THE SUBJECT MATTER OF THIS AGREEMENT.

6.7 Modification. This Agreement shall not be modified or amended except by an instrument in writing signed by an authorized representative of each Party.

6.8 No Third-Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement is for the sole benefit of the Parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns and Released Parties, and nothing herein, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other person or entity any legal or equitable rights, benefit, or remedy of any nature whatsoever.

6.9 No Waiver. The failure by any Party to enforce any term of this Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of the term or any other term of the Agreement, nor shall any Party be deemed to have waived any right to performance under this Agreement unless such waiver is made expressly in writing by the Party making the waiver.

6.10 Severability. It is expressly understood and agreed that each provision of this Agreement shall be deemed to be severable, and if any provision herein is determined to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction for any reason, then such invalidity, illegality, and/or unenforceability shall not affect the validity, legality, and enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Agreement.

6.11 Mutual Interpretation. The Parties agree and stipulate that this Agreement was negotiated on an "arms-length" basis between parties of equal bargaining power, and that this Agreement has been drafted jointly by the Parties and their respective Counsel. Accordingly, this Agreement shall be neutral, and no ambiguity shall be construed in favor of or against either Party.

Agreement

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged and agreed, the Parties, intending to be legally bound, hereby agree as follows:

1. Representations and Warranties

(a) Each Party hereby represents and warrants to the other Parties as follows:

(i) Existence and Good Standing. Such Party is a legal entity duly organized, validly existing and, to the extent applicable in such jurisdiction, in good standing under the Laws (as hereinafter defined) of the jurisdiction in which it is incorporated or formed. Such Party has all requisite corporate or similar right, power, authority and capacity to own, lease and operate the properties and assets it owns, leases and operates. Each Party is qualified to do business as a foreign entity in each jurisdiction in which its ownership of property or the conduct of its business as now conducted requires it to qualify.

(ii) Authority; Enforceability. Such Party has the full power and authority to execute this Agreement and to perform its obligations under this Agreement. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement have been duly and validly authorized by all required action on behalf of such Party in accordance with its respective Organizational Documents (as hereinafter defined) and applicable Law. This Agreement constitute the valid and binding obligations of, and enforceable against, such Party.

(iii) No Violations. The execution and delivery by such Party of this Agreement, the performance and compliance with the terms and conditions hereof and thereof by such Party, and the performance by such Parent of its obligations contemplated hereby, in each case, will not (with or without notice or passage of time, or both):

(1) violate, conflict with, result in a breach of or constitute a default under any of the provisions of the Organizational Documents of such Party; or

(2) breach, violate or conflict with any provision of any Law or Permit applicable to such Party.

(iv) Legal Proceedings. There are no judicial, administrative or arbitral actions, suits, hearings, inquiries, charges, investigations, administrative proceedings, grievances or formal complaints or other proceedings (public or private) commenced, brought, conducted or heard before, or otherwise involving, any Governmental Entity or arbitrator, in each case, pending nor threatened that (i) challenge the validity or enforceability of Party's obligations under this Agreement or (b) seek to prevent or delay, or otherwise would reasonably be expected to adversely affect, the performance by such Party of its obligations hereunder.

(b) Each Recipient hereby represents and warrants to Highland as follows:

(i) None of James Dondero, nor any Person directly or indirectly owned or controlled by Mr. Dondero (including, without limitation, Dugaboy Investment Trust) nor or any attorney, agent, employee, or representative engaged or working for benefit of Mr. Dondero nor any Person directly or indirectly owned or controlled by him (collectively, the "Dondero Related Parties") directly or indirectly owns any interest in, or directly or indirectly has any control over, such Recipient, including, without limitation, as the result of any written or oral contract, agreement, arrangement or obligation.

(ii) Such Recipient does not represent and is not acting on behalf of any Dondero Related Party.

(iii) Such Recipient has no duty or obligation to provide any Confidential Information to any Person not a party to this Agreement, whether through a common or joint interest agreement or otherwise, and is not representing or acting on behalf of any Person with such a duty or obligation.

2. Confidential and Proprietary Nature of the Information

Recipients acknowledge the confidential and proprietary nature of the Confidential Information, agree to hold and keep the Confidential Information in strict confidence as provided in this Agreement, agree that the use of any such Confidential Information is expressly limited to the pursuit of a Potential Settlement and shall not be used for any other purpose or in any other manner except as expressly provided in this Agreement, and otherwise agree to each and every restriction and obligation in this Agreement.

3. Confidential Information

As used in this Agreement, the term "Confidential Information" means and includes (a) any and all of the following items that will be disclosed to any Recipient or any of their respective Representatives (as hereinafter defined) by or on behalf of Highland, whether orally or in writing and without regard to whether Highland has specifically designated such item as confidential, proprietary or non-public: any and all confidential, proprietary or non-public information concerning the business or affairs of Highland or any of its affiliates or related accounts, or other Persons (as hereinafter defined) (which includes, for the avoidance of doubt and without limitation, Highland Claimant Trust, Highland Litigation Sub-Trust, Highland Indemnity Trust, each of their and Highland's direct and indirect subsidiaries, and each of their respective affiliates, and its and their respective parent entities, beneficiaries, members, shareholders, owners, creditors, trustees, oversight boards, directors, managers, officers, employees, agents, advisors and representatives (collectively, the "Highland Related Parties")), including, without limitation, any written or oral information, reports and data concerning financial statements, assets, liabilities, indemnity and other obligations, cash flow, income, and expenses; past, current or planned investment or portfolio information; contracts and agreements; know-how, inventions and ideas, whether past, current or planned; partner, beneficiary, owner or investor lists; partner, beneficiary, owner or investor information; business plans; entity structure details; all compliance-related reports, records and information; and any other information, however documented, that is proprietary or non-public or is a trade secret within the meaning of applicable state trade secret Law, and (b) any and all statements or representations made in the course of discussing, negotiating or evaluating a Potential Settlement, including, without limitation, the terms of any Potential Settlement and the fact that (i) Confidential Information has been disclosed to Recipient and (ii) any discussions or negotiations are taking place concerning a Potential Settlement.

To the extent that any Confidential Information includes information or materials subject to the attorney-client privilege, work-product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege concerning pending or threatened legal proceedings or governmental investigations, the Parties understand and agree that they have a commonality of interest with respect to such matters, and it is their desire, intention, and mutual understanding that the sharing of such information or materials is not intended to, and shall not, waive or diminish in any way the confidentiality of such information or material or its continued protection under the attorney-client privilege, work-product doctrine, or other applicable privilege. Accordingly, all Confidential Information disclosed by or on behalf of Highland that is entitled to protection under the attorney-client privilege, work-product doctrine, or other applicable privilege shall remain entitled to such protection under these privileges and this Agreement.

4. Restricted Use of Confidential Information

Recipients agree that the Confidential Information (a) shall be kept strictly confidential by each Recipient and (b) without limiting the foregoing, shall not be disclosed by or on behalf of any Recipient to any Person (as hereinafter defined) except as otherwise expressly permitted by this Agreement. It is understood and the Recipients agree that Confidential Information may only be disclosed to Mr. Patrick and such specific legal counsel, accountants and financial advisors of the Recipients to whom such disclosure has been consented to in writing by Highland in its sole discretion (which consent may be given via email) (collectively "Representatives") and who (i) require such Confidential Information for the purpose of evaluating, negotiating or consummating a Proposed Settlement (ii) are informed by Recipient of the confidential nature of the Confidential Information and the obligations set forth in this Agreement, and (iii) execute a written joinder in the form annexed hereto as Exhibit B pursuant to which the Representative agrees to be bound to this Agreement as if they were an original Party hereto, with such joinder including, without limitation, a representation and warranty that such Representative (1) does not currently represent any Dondero Related Party and (2) has no duty or obligation to provide any Confidential Information to any Person not a party to this Agreement, whether through a common or joint interest agreement or otherwise, and does not represent any Person with such a duty or obligation. Recipients further agree that Recipients and their Representatives shall not use any of the Confidential Information to the detriment of Highland or any Highland Related Party or for any reason or purpose other than evaluating, negotiating or consummating a Proposed Settlement. Recipients shall enforce this Agreement as to its Representatives and take such action, legal or otherwise, to the extent necessary to cause them to comply with this Agreement and thereby prevent any disclosure of Confidential Information by any of its Representatives (including, without limitation, all actions that any Recipient would take to protect its own confidential information).

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing and for the avoidance of doubt, the Recipients and their Representatives shall not disclose or refer to any Confidential Information to (a) subject to Section 5 below, any Governmental Entity (as hereinafter defined), including, without limitation, in any pleadings or submissions, or (b) any Dondero Related Party. The Parties acknowledge that it is their collective intent that no Confidential Information disclosed hereunder may be examined in any proceeding of a Governmental Entity (or any discovery relating to any such proceeding), and all Confidential Information shall be entitled to all protections applicable under Federal Rule of Evidence 408 and any other protections afforded to settlement and compromise communications under any other applicable Law.

5. Legally Compelled Disclosure

If any Recipient or any of its Representatives becomes compelled by Law (whether by oral questions, interrogatories, requests for information or documents, subpoena, civil or criminal investigative demand, or similar process) to make any disclosure that is prohibited or otherwise constrained by this Agreement, such Recipient or its Representative, as the case may be, shall provide Highland with immediate notice of such legal proceedings, including all related documentation, so Highland may (a) seek an appropriate protective order or other appropriate relief, or (b) waive compliance with the provisions of this Agreement. In the absence of a protective order or Recipients receiving a written waiver from Highland, Recipients or their Representatives are permitted (with Highland's cooperation but at Recipient's expense) to disclose that portion (and only that portion) of the Confidential Information that Recipient or its Representative is legally compelled by an order of an applicable Governmental Entity of competent jurisdiction to disclose; provided, however, that Recipient and its Representatives must use best efforts to obtain reliable assurance that confidential treatment will be accorded by any Person to whom any Confidential Information is so disclosed.

6. Return or Destruction of Confidential Information

If Highland notifies Recipients that it wishes Recipients to return all Confidential Information, then Recipients (i) shall promptly deliver to Highland all documents or other materials disclosed by or on behalf of Highland to Recipient or its Representatives constituting Confidential Information, together with all copies and summaries thereof in the possession or under the control of Recipients or their Representatives, and (ii) will destroy materials generated by Recipients or their Representatives that include or refer to any part of the Confidential Information, without retaining any copies, including, without limitation, any electronically stored copies or attachments to emails, of any such documents or materials. Written notice of return or destruction shall constitute a valid termination of access to Confidential Information and shall be deemed to have been given at the time Highland sends such notice. Such notice may be sent in any manner reasonably calculated to notify Recipients of the termination.

7. No Obligation to Negotiate a Potential Settlement

None of the Parties shall have rights or obligations of any kind whatsoever with respect to any Potential Settlement by virtue of this Agreement other than for the matters specifically agreed to herein. Without limiting the preceding sentence, nothing in this Agreement requires any Party to enter into any Potential Settlement or to negotiate the same for any specified period of time or on any specific terms.

8. No Representations or Warranties

Highland shall have no obligation to provide any information—confidential or otherwise—to the Recipients and retains the right to determine, in its sole discretion, what information, if any, it wishes to make available to Recipients, and neither Highland nor any Highland Related Party makes any representation or warranty (express or implied) concerning the completeness or accuracy of the Confidential Information.

9. Miscellaneous

(a) Modification. This Agreement may only be modified or waived by a separate writing signed by the Party or Parties expressly modifying or waiving this Agreement.

(b) Waiver. Neither the failure nor any delay by any Party in exercising any right, power, or privilege under this Agreement will operate as a waiver of such right, power, or privilege, and no single or partial exercise of any such right, power, or privilege will preclude any other or further exercise of such right, power, or privilege or the exercise of any other right, power, or privilege.

(c) Certain Definitions.

(i) The term "Governmental Entity" means any federal, national, state, foreign, provincial, local or other government or any governmental, regulatory, administrative or self-regulatory authority, agency, bureau, board, commission, court, judicial or arbitral body, department, political subdivision, tribunal or other instrumentality thereof, including any fiscal intermediary or administrative contractor acting on behalf of any of the foregoing.

(ii) The term "Law" means any law, rule, regulation, statute, code, ordinance, decree or other restriction of any Governmental Entity or any order, injunction, judgment, decree, ruling, writ, assessment or award of a Governmental Entity.

(iii) The term "Organizational Documents" means certificates of incorporation, bylaws, certificates of formation, certificates of trust, limited liability company agreements, limited liability partnership agreements, partnership or limited partnership agreements, trust agreements or other similar formation or governing documents of any Person, in each case, as amended, restated or otherwise modified to date.

(iv) The term "Person" means any individual, corporation (including any non-profit corporation), general or limited partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, estate, trust, association, organization, labor union, any other business entity, or a Governmental Entity.

(d) Severability. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provisions of this Agreement, which shall remain in full force and effect. If any of the terms, covenants or provisions of this Agreement are determined to be unenforceable by reason of its extent, duration, scope or otherwise, then the Parties contemplate and intend that the authority making such determination shall reduce such extent, duration, scope or other provision and enforce them in their reduced form for all purposes contemplated by this Agreement.

(e) Breach. Recipients agree that Highland will be irreparably injured by a breach of this Agreement by any Recipient or its Representatives, that monetary remedies will be inadequate to protect Highland against any actual or threatened breach of this Agreement by any Recipient or by its Representatives, and that Highland shall be entitled to an injunction or other equitable relief as a remedy for any breach as a matter of right and without the necessity of having to post a bond. Such remedy shall not be deemed to be the exclusive remedy for a breach of this Agreement, but shall be in addition to all other remedies available at law or equity. The non-prevailing Party shall pay the other Party's costs and expenses in any action to enforce the terms of this Agreement.

(f) Liability and Indemnity. Recipients shall, ~~jointly and severally,~~ be liable to and shall indemnify and hold Highland and the Highland Related Parties harmless from and against any and all claims, suits, losses, damages, costs or expenses, including reasonable attorney fees, incurred or suffered by Highland or any Highland Related Party as a result of ~~any~~ Recipient~~or its Representatives~~ violation of this Agreement, including, without limitation, using or disclosing any Confidential Information other than in accordance with this Agreement, whether such use or disclosure is performed negligently or otherwise.

(g) Notices. All notices, requests, demands, claims, and other communications hereunder shall be in writing. Any notice, request, demand, claim or other communication hereunder shall be deemed duly delivered: (a) four (4) business days after it is sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid; (b) one (1) business day after it is sent for next business day delivery via a reputable nationwide overnight courier service; (c) when sent, if emailed on a business day; and (d) the next business day following the day on which the email is sent if emailed on a day that is not a business day, in each case to the intended recipient as set forth below:

John,

I just got back from Turkey, and am amazed at the increased toll that come with increased age. But am in the office today.

While I was over there we got together and went through the settlement agreement draft. We aim to get a responsive redline by Monday or Tuesday. I just want to update as to a shift represented by our thinking about the timing of the releases, a proposed agreement to stay pending bankruptcy court approval, and how we are searching for a slightly different approach to money. Let me know if you want/have time to visit.

John,

I just got back from Turkey, and am amazed at the increased toll that come with increased age. But am in the office today.

While I was over there we got together and went through the settlement agreement draft. We aim to get a responsive redline by Monday or Tuesday. I just want to update as to a shift represented by our thinking about the timing of the releases, a proposed agreement to stay pending bankruptcy court approval, and how we are searching for a slightly different approach to money. Let me know if you want/have time to visit.

John,

My fault. It took a few days longer than I expected to get over my trip to Turkey (actually the travel back). I sent my proposed version to the client group today and proposed a call early morning tomorrow with an eye toward getting it to you by Noon.

John,

Please see the HMIT Entities' responsive version of the settlement agreement along with the redline from your version 9. First, I apologize for the delay, as the last version, sent by Mr. Seery, arrived on the day I landed in Istanbul, and scheduling on my side plus my schedule while overseas made it difficult to get things done. And then I just took longer to get over the lag from traveling back.

We have made some proposed changes. First major change is that we are willing to have the releases made effective as of bankruptcy court approval, and live with that in the event of an appeal. We also think, because the bankruptcy court will have approved the agreement, that the assignment of the Dugaboy Note and the Kirchner litigation should be done within the revised timeline set forth, and that there is no reason for any reservation of HMIT Note Claims by the Litigation Sub Trust (and no reason that we can see for continued day to day activity of the sub-trust, as the litigation would only be returned if an appeal is successful (which none of us think will be the case – at least I think none of us do)). We have added an agreed abatement of everything pending bankruptcy court approval. We have also accelerated funding, though propose an agreement to escrow funds in the event of reversal on appeal. We have reviewed the information provided by Mr. Seery and his group and think our structure and timing of funding leaves plenty of money aside for indemnification. We also have tried to identify and make clear what a Threat would be, to get something objective we can rely on and receive notice of.

I am around tomorrow and Friday. I will be working this weekend (without jet lag) and in my New Orleans office Monday preparing for an all day trial on Tuesday. We should be able to corral my side quickly.

There are some other tweaks that are minor we think, with the changes mentioned above being the major changes in structure.

Also, John, while the parties have discussed this matter the attached draft agreement does not contain any reference. That is ok with us, but my clients request from your side an answer to the following question: "Did any of the Highland Entities or their affiliates, for their own account or on behalf of Highland CDO Holding Company, affirmatively give consent to the transfer by Sentinel Reinsurance, Ltd. or its affiliates of that certain promissory note in the original principal amount of app.$32.8M and dated December 13, 2010, and executed by CLO Holdco, Ltd.?"

I really appreciate your patience. Look forward to visiting soon.

Each individual signatory hereto individually warrants and represents to all Parties hereto that such individual has full power and authority to act on behalf of and bind the Party for which he or she has executed this Agreement; provided, however that no signatory shall otherwise provide any warranty or representation or otherwise be a party to this Agreement on an individual basis.

14. No Continuing Rights, Duties or Obligations. Except for the rights, duties, and obligations expressly set forth in this Agreement, all Rights and Obligations that existed or may have existed shall be deemed terminated, extinguished, and released upon the Agreement Date. For the avoidance of doubt, from and after the Agreement Date, (a) the Highland Released Parties, individually and collectively, shall owe no duty, past or present, including with respect to the Kirchner Claims, to the HMIT Releasors, individually and collectively, whether contractual, fiduciary, equitable, statutory or otherwise, except as arising out of this Agreement, and (b) the HMIT Released Parties, individually and collectively, shall owe no duty to the Highland Releasors, individually and collectively, whether contractual, fiduciary, equitable, statutory or otherwise, except as arising out of this Agreement.

15. Gatekeeper Standard.

(a) The HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, acknowledge and agree that, notwithstanding the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit's decision in Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors, L.P. v. Highland Capital Management, L.P., No. 23-10^{53}4 (5th Cir. Mar. 18, 2025), the "Gatekeeper" provisions contained in Highland's Original Plan is forever binding on each of the HMIT Entities and for a claim or cause of action to be "colorable" for purposes of the Gatekeeper, it must be found by final order of the Bankruptcy Court (the "Gatekeeper Court"), which order shall be subject to appeal to a court of competent jurisdiction, to have satisfied the "Gatekeeper Colorability Test" as such term is defined in In re Highland Capital Management, L.P., 2023 Bankr. LEXIS 2104 at *124-36 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. Aug. 24, 2023).

(b) The HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, acknowledge and agree that compliance with the Gatekeeper requires (i) a motion seeking leave to sue an Exculpated Party (as that term is defined in Highland's original Plan) and a finding that the litigant's claims and causes of action are "colorable" attaching a complaint setting forth the basis for such claims or causes of action and (ii), in the Gatekeeper Court's sole discretion, an evidentiary hearing (during which the Gatekeeper Court may, among other things, hear testimony and assess the credibility of any witness(es)) to determine whether a proposed claim or cause of action is "colorable."

(c) The HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, further acknowledge and agree that the moving party under the Gatekeeper has the burden of satisfying the "Gatekeeper Colorability Test."

16. Indemnification.

(a) Without in any manner limiting the available remedies for any breach of this Agreement, the HMIT Entities, severally but not jointly, agree to indemnify, defend, and hold the Highland Released Parties harmless from and against any and all Liability, that may arise or result from or on account of, or that are otherwise related or attributable to (x) any breach of this Agreement or of any representation or warranty contained in the Agreement, including the representations and warranties of any HMIT Entity set forth in Section 13 or (y) any Actions brought or prosecuted by or on behalf of, any HMIT Releasor or that are induced, encouraged, assisted or directed by any HMIT Releasor or brought or prosecuted in concert with any HMIT Releasor against any Highland Released Party with respect to or related to any HMIT Entity Released Claims. Without limiting the scope of the foregoing in any manner, any HMIT Entity that breaches Section 12 shall be liable to the Highland Released Party against whom the applicable Action has been brought or prosecuted in violation of Section 12 for the reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred by such Highland Released Party in defending against or otherwise responding to such Action. Each HMIT Entity acknowledges and agrees that the HMIT Entities are and shall be severally but not jointly liable for any Liability arising from or out of any breach of this Agreement or of any representation or warranty set forth in this Agreement.

(b) Without in any manner limiting the available remedies for any breach of this Agreement, the Highland Entities, severally but not jointly, agree to indemnify, defend, and hold the HMIT Released Parties harmless from and against any and all Liability, that may arise or result from or on account of, or that are otherwise related or attributable to (x) any breach of this Agreement or of any representation or warranty contained in the Agreement, including the representations and warranties of any Highland Entity set forth in Section 13 or (y) any suits, proceedings, or other actions brought or prosecuted by or on behalf of, any Highland Releasor or that are induced, encouraged, assisted or directed by any Highland Releasor or brought or prosecuted in concert with any Highland Releasor against any HMIT Released Party with respect to or related to any Highland Entity Released Claims. Without in any manner limiting the scope of the foregoing, any Highland Entity that breaches Section 12 shall be liable to the HMIT Released Party against whom the applicable Action has been brought or prosecuted in violation of Section 12 for the reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred by such HMIT Released Party in defending against or otherwise responding to such Action. Each Highland Entity acknowledges and agrees that the Highland Entities are and shall be severally but not jointly liable for any Liability arising from or out of any breach of this Agreement or of any representation or warranty set forth in this Agreement.

17. Execution. This Agreement may be executed by the exchange of signatures by facsimile or by PDF attachment to an email transmittal and in counterparts, and if so executed, shall be fully executed when a counterpart has been executed and delivered by all Parties hereto through counsel. All counterparts taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement and shall be fully enforceable as such.

18. Bankruptcy Court Order. The allowance of the allowed HMIT Class 10 Interest pursuant to Section 4 is subject to the entry of the Bankruptcy Court Order. To that end, the Highland Entities shall file the 9019 Motion no later than five (5) Business Days after the Agreement Date. Each Party shall, and shall cause each of their respective Affiliates to, undertake any and all actions in compliance with applicable law to obtain the Bankruptcy Court Order as promptly as practicable, and without limiting the foregoing, if an Action is threatened or instituted by any Person opposing the 9019 Motion or otherwise challenging the validity or legality, or seeking to restrain the consummation, of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the Bankruptcy Court Order, each Party shall, and shall cause its respective Affiliates to, use their commercially reasonable best efforts to avoid, resist, resolve or, if necessary, and defend to effectuate this Agreement and consummate the transactions hereby. If the 9019 Motion is not approved by entry of the Bankruptcy Court Order or if the Bankruptcy Court Approval is precluded from becoming a Final Order, (a) there will be no affect on, adjustment to, or impairment of, in any way, the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement, and the other transactions contemplated hereby, all of which shall remain in full force and effect and (b) each Party shall, and shall cause its respective Affiliates to, use their best efforts to seek the allowance of the HMIT Class 10 Interest in a substantially similar amount and on substantially similar terms as set forth in Section 4 to the fullest extent possible so as to give effect to the original intent of the Parties as closely as possible.

19. Fees and Expenses. Whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated or the Bankruptcy Court Order is obtained, and except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, each Party will bear its respective fees, costs and expenses (including legal, accounting and other professional fees) incurred in connection with the preparation, negotiation, execution and performance of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, including with respect to each Party's respective obligations pursuant to Section 18. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any Party hereto brings an Action to enforce or interpret the terms and provisions of this Agreement, the prevailing Party in that Action shall be entitled to have and recover from the non-prevailing Party all such fees, costs and expenses (including all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees) as the prevailing Party may suffer or incur in the pursuit or defense of such action or proceeding.

20. Entire Agreement; No Other Representations. THIS AGREEMENT CONTAINS THE ENTIRE AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE PARTIES, AND NO RIGHTS ARE CREATED IN FAVOR OF ANY PARTY OTHER THAN AS SPECIFIED OR EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT. THERE ARE NO REPRESENTATIONS, CONDITIONS, WARRANTIES, STATEMENTS, OR UNDERSTANDINGS (COLLECTIVELY, "REPRESENTATIONS"), EITHER ORAL OR WRITTEN, BETWEEN THE PARTIES OTHER THAN THOSE EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT. THE PARTIES EXPRESSLY AGREE THAT THEY

THE PARTIES AGREE THAT REPRESENTATIONS NOT EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT SHALL NOT BE USED IN THE INTERPRETATION OR CONSTRUCTION OF THIS AGREEMENT, AND NEITHER THE HMIT RELEASED PARTIES NOR THE HIGHLAND RELEASED PARTIES SHALL HAVE ANY LIABILITY FOR ANY CONSEQUENCES ARISING AS A RESULT OF ANY REPRESENTATIONS NOT SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT.

21. Agreement and Release Knowing and Voluntary. The Parties acknowledge that they have considered this Agreement with their respective attorneys and have carefully read this Agreement, that it has been fully explained by their attorneys, and that they have had a reasonable opportunity to consider this Agreement. The Parties further represent that they know and fully understand the contents of this Agreement, that they intend to be legally bound by this Agreement and the releases and covenants contained herein, and that they are signing this Agreement, including the release provisions herein, voluntarily and of their own free will and without coercion, and with the benefit of advice of counsel.

The Parties agree to perform any services or actions reasonably necessary to carry out the terms and conditions of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, including the execution and delivery of reasonable additional documents, instruments, conveyances and/or assurances, in good faith, and to reasonably communicate and cooperate with one another in this regard. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Section shall obligate the Highland Entities to assist the HMIT Entities in any way with respect to the Kirschner Claims, including the prosecution thereof.

23. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be construed pursuant to and governed by the laws of the State of Delaware (substantive and procedural) without reference to principles of conflicts of law that would result in the application of any other State's laws.

24. Jurisdiction/Venue. The Parties hereby irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction and venue of the Bankruptcy Court with respect to any action or proceeding arising out of or related to this Agreement or the subject matter hereof; if (and only if) the Bankruptcy Court lacks personal or subject matter jurisdiction to adjudicate an action or proceeding arising out of or related to this Agreement or the subject matter hereof, then the Parties irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction and venue of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas.

25. No Admissions. All Parties acknowledge and agree that the matters set forth in this Agreement constitute the settlement and compromise of disputed Claims and that this Agreement shall not constitute the admission of any fact or liability by any of them regarding any Claim, including the Claims released hereunder, and neither the terms hereof, nor the fact of this Agreement itself, shall be evidence of any kind in any Action, other than an Action to enforce the terms of the Agreement or any instrument executed in connection herewith or any claim for damages or other relief for breach of any representation or warranty contained herein or in any instrument executed in connection herewith.

26. Other Provisions.

(a) This Agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding of the parties and supersedes any and all prior or contemporaneous agreements, arrangements, and understandings relating to the subject matter of this Agreement. No representation, inducement, agreement, promise or understandings altering, modifying, amending, taking from or adding to, the terms and conditions hereof shall have any force or effect unless the same is in writing and validly executed by each of the Parties hereto.

(b) The waiver by any Party of any breach of, or default under, any provision of this Agreement shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach or default; provided, however, that for any such waiver to be enforceable, it shall be in writing and executed by the non-breaching Party.

(c) The headings contained in this Agreement are for convenience only and shall in no way restrict or otherwise affect the construction of the provisions hereof.

(d) The Parties shall each execute all documents and perform all acts necessary and proper to effectuate the terms of this Agreement.

12. Covenant Not To Sue; Limitation on Standing. Upon the Agreement Date:

(a) Each of the HMIT Releasors covenants and agrees that it will not institute or prosecute any Action, in law, in equity or otherwise, against any of the Highland Released Parties, to recover, enforce, or collect any HMIT Entity Released Claim and will not (i) induce, encourage or direct any other Person to do so or (ii) act in concert with or assist (financially or otherwise) any other Person in doing so.

(b) Each of the Highland Releasors covenants and agrees that it will not institute or prosecute any Action, in law, in equity or otherwise, against any of the HMIT Released Parties, to recover, enforce, or collect any Highland Entity Released Claim and will not (i) induce, encourage or direct any other Person to do so or (ii) act in concert with or assist (financially or otherwise) any other Person in doing so.

(c) For the avoidance of doubt, this Agreement shall not operate to give any HMIT Entity standing for any purpose in connection with the Bankruptcy Case (or in connection with any appeal arising from any order entered by the Bankruptcy Court), except for the limited purpose of seeking Court approval of this Agreement (including with respect to any appeal concerning any order entered granting or denying such approval), and except for the limited purpose of enforcing this Agreement, no HMIT Entity shall commence any Action in connection with the HMIT Class 10 Interest.

13. Representations and Warranties.

(a) Each of the HMIT Entities hereby represents and warrants that every HMIT Entity Released Claim has not heretofore been assigned or encumbered and is not the subject of a transfer (as such term is defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(54)), by any HMIT Releasor.

(b) The HMIT Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors, acknowledge and agree that each Plan Provision is lawful, effective, and binding on the HMIT Releasors. The HMIT Entities further agree, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors, that the HMIT Releasors will never, in any way, challenge or seek to modify, nullify, vacate, or revoke, or induce, encourage or direct any other Person to do so or act in concert with or assist (financially or otherwise) any other Person in doing so the Confirmation Order, the Plan, the Plan Protections, or any Plan Document, including the Claimant Trust Agreement, the LPA, the Indemnity Trust Agreement or the Litigation Sub-Trust Agreement, in the Bankruptcy Court, in any other state or federal court, in any other forum or tribunal, or otherwise, including administrative or regulatory tribunals and foreign courts.

(c) Each of the Highland Entities hereby represents and warrants that every Highland Entity Released Claim has not heretofore been assigned or encumbered and is not the subject of a transfer (as such term is defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(54)), by any Highland Releasor.

(d) Each Party severally represents and warrants as to itself only that: (i) it has taken all necessary action to authorize and approve the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement; (ii) such Party has full power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement; and (iii) this Agreement constitutes a valid, legal and binding obligation of such Party, and is enforceable subject to its terms. Each individual signatory hereto individually warrants and represents to all Parties hereto that such individual has full power and authority to act on behalf of and bind the Party for which he or she has executed this Agreement; provided, however that no signatory shall otherwise provide any warranty or representation or otherwise be a party to this Agreement on an individual basis.

14. No Continuing Rights, Duties or Obligations. Except for the rights, duties, and obligations expressly set forth in this Agreement, all Rights and Obligations that existed or may have existed shall be deemed terminated, extinguished, and released upon the Agreement Date. For the avoidance of doubt, from and after the Agreement Date, (a) the Highland Released Parties, individually and collectively, shall owe no duty, past or present, including with respect to the Kirchner Claims, to the HMIT Releasors, individually and collectively, whether contractual, fiduciary, equitable, statutory or otherwise, except as arising out of this Agreement, and (b) the HMIT Released Parties, individually and collectively, shall owe no duty to the Highland Releasors, individually and collectively, whether contractual, fiduciary, equitable, statutory or otherwise, except as arising out of this Agreement.

15. Gatekeeper Standard.

(a) The HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, acknowledge and agree that, notwithstanding the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit's decision in Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors, L.P. v. Highland Capital Management, L.P., No. 23-10534 (5th Cir. Mar. 18, 2025), the "Gatekeeper" provisions contained in Highland's Original Plan is forever binding on each of the HMIT Entities and for a claim or cause of action to be "colorable" for purposes of the Gatekeeper, it must be found by final order of the Bankruptcy Court (the "Gatekeeper Court"), which order shall be subject to appeal to a court of competent jurisdiction, to have satisfied the "Gatekeeper Colorability Test" as such term is defined in In re Highland Capital Management, L.P., 2023 Bankr. LEXIS 2104 at *124-36 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. Aug. 24, 2023).

(b) The HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, acknowledge and agree that compliance with the Gatekeeper requires (i) a motion seeking leave to sue an Exculpated Party (as that term is defined in Highland's original Plan) and a finding that the litigant's claims and causes of action are "colorable" attaching a complaint setting forth the basis for such claims or causes of action and (ii), in the Gatekeeper Court's sole discretion, an evidentiary hearing (during which the Gatekeeper Court may, among other things, hear testimony and assess the credibility of any witness(es)) to determine whether a proposed claim or cause of action is "colorable."

(c) The HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, further acknowledge and agree that the moving party under the Gatekeeper has the burden of satisfying the "Gatekeeper Colorability Test."

16. Indemnification.

(a) Without in any manner limiting the available remedies for any breach of this Agreement, the HMIT Entities, severally but not jointly, agree to indemnify, defend, and hold the Highland Released Parties harmless from and against any and all Liability, that may arise or result from or on account of, or that are otherwise related or attributable to (x) any breach of this Agreement or of any representation or warranty contained in the Agreement, including the representations and warranties of any HMIT Entity set forth in Section 13 or (y) any Actions brought or prosecuted by or on behalf of, any HMIT Releasor or that are induced, encouraged, assisted or directed by any HMIT Releasor or brought or prosecuted in concert with any HMIT Releasor against any Highland Released Party with respect to or related to any HMIT Entity Released Claims. Without limiting the scope of the foregoing in any manner, any HMIT Entity that breaches Section 12 shall be liable to the Highland Released Party against whom the applicable Action has been brought or prosecuted in violation of Section 12 for the reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred by such Highland Released Party in defending against or otherwise responding to such Action. Each HMIT Entity acknowledges and agrees that the HMIT Entities are and shall be severally but not jointly liable for any Liability arising from or out of any breach of this Agreement or of any representation or warranty set forth in this Agreement.

(b) Without in any manner limiting the available remedies for any breach of this Agreement, the Highland Entities, severally but not jointly, agree to indemnify, defend, and hold the HMIT Released Parties harmless from and against any and all Liability, that may arise or result from or on account of, or that are otherwise related or attributable to (x) any breach of this Agreement or of any representation or warranty contained in the Agreement, including the representations and warranties of any Highland Entity set forth in Section 13 or (y) any suits, proceedings, or other actions brought or prosecuted by or on behalf of, any Highland Releasor or that are induced, encouraged, assisted or directed by any Highland Releasor or brought or prosecuted in concert with any Highland Releasor against any HMIT Released Party with respect to or related to any Highland Entity Released Claims. Without in any manner limiting the scope of the foregoing, any Highland Entity that breaches Section 12 shall be liable to the HMIT Released Party against whom the applicable Action has been brought or prosecuted in violation of Section 12 for the reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred by such HMIT Released Party in defending against or otherwise responding to such Action. Each Highland Entity acknowledges and agrees that the Highland Entities are and shall be severally but not jointly liable for any Liability arising from or out of any breach of this Agreement or of any representation or warranty set forth in this Agreement.

17. Execution. This Agreement may be executed by the exchange of signatures by facsimile or by PDF attachment to an email transmittal and in counterparts, and if so executed, shall be fully executed when a counterpart has been executed and delivered by all Parties hereto through counsel. All counterparts taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement and shall be fully enforceable as such.

18. Bankruptcy Court Order. The allowance of the allowed HMIT Class 10 Interest pursuant to Section 4 is subject to the entry of the Bankruptcy Court Order. To that end, the Highland Entities shall file the 9019 Motion no later than five (5) Business Days after the Agreement Date. Each Party shall, and shall cause each of their respective Affiliates to, undertake any and all actions in compliance with applicable law to obtain the Bankruptcy Court Order as promptly as practicable, and without limiting the foregoing, if an Action is threatened or instituted by any Person opposing the 9019 Motion or otherwise challenging the validity or legality, or seeking to restrain the consummation, of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the Bankruptcy Court Order, each Party shall, and shall cause its respective Affiliates to, use their commercially reasonable best efforts to avoid, resist, resolve or, if necessary, and defend to effectuate this Agreement and consummate the transactions hereby. If the 9019 Motion is not approved by entry of the Bankruptcy Court Order or if the Bankruptcy Court Approval is precluded from becoming a Final Order, (a) there will be no affect on, adjustment to, or impairment of, in any way, the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement, and the other transactions contemplated hereby, all of which shall remain in full force and effect and (b) each Party shall, and shall cause its respective Affiliates to, use their best efforts to seek the allowance of the HMIT Class 10 Interest in a substantially similar amount and on substantially similar terms as set forth in Section 4 to the fullest extent possible so as to give effect to the original intent of the Parties as closely as possible.

19. Fees and Expenses. Whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated or the Bankruptcy Court Order is obtained, and except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, each Party will bear its respective fees, costs and expenses (including legal, accounting and other professional fees) incurred in connection with the preparation, negotiation, execution and performance of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, including with respect to each Party's respective obligations pursuant to Section 18. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any Party hereto brings an Action to enforce or interpret the terms and provisions of this Agreement, the prevailing Party in that Action shall be entitled to have and recover from the non-prevailing Party all such fees, costs and expenses (including all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees) as the prevailing Party may suffer or incur in the pursuit or defense of such action or proceeding.

20. Entire Agreement; No Other Representations. THIS AGREEMENT CONTAINS THE ENTIRE AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE PARTIES, AND NO RIGHTS ARE CREATED IN FAVOR OF ANY PARTY OTHER THAN AS SPECIFIED OR EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT. THERE ARE NO REPRESENTATIONS, CONDITIONS, WARRANTIES, STATEMENTS, OR UNDERSTANDINGS (COLLECTIVELY, "REPRESENTATIONS"), EITHER ORAL OR WRITTEN, BETWEEN THE PARTIES OTHER THAN THOSE EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT. THE PARTIES EXPRESSLY AGREE THAT THEY HAVE NOT BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY ANY REPRESENTATIONS NOT SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT; AND THE PARTIES EXPRESSLY AGREE THAT THEY HAVE NOT RELIED ON ANY REPRESENTATIONS NOT EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT. THE PARTIES EXPRESSLY AGREE THAT THEY ARE ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT RELYING SOLELY ON THEIR OWN JUDGMENT AND NOT ON ANY REPRESENTATIONS BY ANY PARTY, EXCEPT FOR THOSE REPRESENTATIONS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT. THE PARTIES AGREE THAT REPRESENTATIONS NOT EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT SHALL NOT BE USED IN THE INTERPRETATION OR CONSTRUCTION OF THIS AGREEMENT, AND NEITHER THE HMIT RELEASED PARTIES NOR THE HIGHLAND RELEASED PARTIES SHALL HAVE ANY LIABILITY FOR ANY CONSEQUENCES ARISING AS A RESULT OF ANY REPRESENTATIONS NOT SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT.

21. Agreement and Release Knowing and Voluntary. The Parties acknowledge that they have considered this Agreement with their respective attorneys and have carefully read this Agreement, that it has been fully explained by their attorneys, and that they have had a reasonable opportunity to consider this Agreement. The Parties further represent that they know and fully understand the contents of this Agreement, that they intend to be legally bound by this Agreement and the releases and covenants contained herein, and that they are signing this Agreement, including the release provisions herein, voluntarily and of their own free will and without coercion, and with the benefit of advice of counsel.

22. Cooperation. The Parties agree to perform any services or actions reasonably necessary to carry out the terms and conditions of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, including the execution and delivery of reasonable additional documents, instruments, conveyances and/or assurances, in good faith, and to reasonably communicate and cooperate with one another in this regard. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Section shall obligate the Highland Entities to assist the HMIT Entities in any way with respect to the Kirschner Claims, including the prosecution thereof.

23. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be construed pursuant to and governed by the laws of the State of Delaware (substantive and procedural) without reference to principles of conflicts of law that would result in the application of any other State's laws.

24. Jurisdiction/Venue. The Parties hereby irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction and venue of the Bankruptcy Court with respect to any action or proceeding arising out of or related to this Agreement or the subject matter hereof; if (and only if) the Bankruptcy Court lacks personal or subject matter jurisdiction to adjudicate an action or proceeding arising out of or related to this Agreement or the subject matter hereof, then the Parties irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction and venue of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas.

25. No Admissions. All Parties acknowledge and agree that the matters set forth in this Agreement constitute the settlement and compromise of disputed Claims and that this Agreement shall not constitute the admission of any fact or liability by any of them regarding any Claim, including the Claims released hereunder, and neither the terms hereof, nor the fact of this Agreement itself, shall be evidence of any kind in any Action, other than an Action to enforce the terms of the Agreement or any instrument executed in connection herewith or any claim for damages or other relief for breach of any representation or warranty contained herein or in any instrument executed in connection herewith.

26. Other Provisions.

(a) This Agreement contains the entire agreement and understanding of the parties and supersedes any and all prior or contemporaneous agreements, arrangements, and understandings relating to the subject matter of this Agreement. No representation, inducement, agreement, promise or understandings altering, modifying, amending, taking from or adding to, the terms and conditions hereof shall have any force or effect unless the same is in writing and validly executed by each of the Parties hereto.

(b) The waiver by any Party of any breach of, or default under, any provision of this Agreement shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach or default; provided, however, that for any such waiver to be enforceable, it shall be in writing and executed by the non-breaching Party.

(c) The headings contained in this Agreement are for convenience only and shall in no way restrict or otherwise affect the construction of the provisions hereof.

(d) The Parties shall each execute all documents and perform all acts necessary and proper to effectuate the terms of this Agreement.

27. Notices. All notices required or permitted to be provided hereunder shall be afforded to the respective parties to and through their counsel, and shall be transmitted simultaneously by electronic mail (with PDF attachments, as necessary) and by telefax, addressed as follows:

28. Severability. Should any term, provision or paragraph of this Agreement be determined to be illegal or void or of no force and effect, the balance of the Agreement shall survive. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity and enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement. The deleted provision in Section 3 is similar to a remaining provision in the lead in to Section 8. Should that be removed as well?

Jim – As discussed with you and Dave, attached is a revised draft with one change to Section 3 (removing the provision tying the $500k payment to any specific component of the settlement).

@Jeff Pomerantz, @John A. Morris, @Gregory V. Demo – Please let us know if you expect to have any comments and expected timeframe.

We need to circulate drafts to Class 9's, CTOB and HMIT. We can likely send a draft to Class 9's and CTOB now subject to ongoing review, since I don't believe you will have any changes to the economic proposal we're making, but obviously want everyone signed off asap for purposes of getting a draft back to HMIT.

Thank you.

Two principal comments: 1) we don't own the entire Dugaboy Note as defined in the agreement, so we can't assign the amount of the note owed to Get Good. If language as drafted is fine then no worries, 2) clarifying we pay all P&I received on Dugaboy note between execution date and assignment date.

Matt – can you send a PDF of your comments? I think the colors of the various comments is dependent on each user's individual Word settings.

John,

Please see the HMIT Entities' responsive version of the settlement agreement along with the redline from your version 9. First, I apologize for the delay, as the last version, sent by Mr. Seery, arrived on the day I landed in Istanbul, and scheduling on my side plus my schedule while overseas made it difficult to get things done. And then I just took longer to get over the lag from traveling back.

We have made some proposed changes. First major change is that we are willing to have the releases made effective as of bankruptcy court approval, and live with that in the event of an appeal.

We also think, because the bankruptcy court will have approved the agreement, that the assignment of the Dugaboy Note and the Kirchner litigation should be done within the revised timeline set forth, and that there is no reason for any reservation of HMIT Note Claims by the Litigation Sub Trust (and no reason that we can see for continued day to day activity of the sub-trust, as the litigation would only be returned if an appeal is successful (which none of us think will be the case – at least I think none of us do)). We have added an agreed abatement of everything pending bankruptcy court approval. We have also accelerated funding, though propose an agreement to escrow funds in the event of reversal on appeal. We have reviewed the information provided by Mr. Seery and his group and think our structure and timing of funding leaves plenty of money aside for indemnification. We also have tried to identify and make clear what a Threat would be, to get something objective we can rely on and receive notice of.

I am around tomorrow and Friday. I will be working this weekend (without jet lag) and in my New Orleans office Monday preparing for an all day trial on Tuesday. We should be able to corral my side quickly.

There are some other tweaks that are minor we think, with the changes mentioned above being the major changes in structure.

Also, John, while the parties have discussed this matter the attached draft agreement does not contain any reference. That is ok with us, but my clients request from your side an answer to the following question: "Did any of the Highland Entities or their affiliates, for their own account or on behalf of Highland CDO Holding Company, affirmatively give consent to the transfer by Sentinel Reinsurance, Ltd. or its affiliates of that certain promissory note in the original principal amount of app.$32.8M and dated December 13, 2010, and executed by CLO Holdco, Ltd.?"

I really appreciate your patience. Look forward to visiting soon.

John and Jeff,

Please see a final redline with wire instructions added, a bold of a WHEREAS, and references to payments being made by Wire Transfer. I did not add the Wire Transfer to the final distribution part because of the reference to “assets” versus payment and did not want to go into the body of the document to deal with that. Also the attached PDF (redlined against John’s clean from yesterday) does not include the header clean up contained in the word version. We are prepared to execute this version. Mark will be out for a while today so just let us know if we can get his signatures or whether you have any further comments. Thank you.

APPELLANT'S AMENDED DESIGNATION OF ITEMS TO BE INCLUDED IN THE RECORD ON APPEAL AND STATEMENT OF THE ISSUES PRESENTED

Pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 8009(a) and Docket No. 4366, Appellant Patrick Daugherty ("Daugherty") hereby submits his amended designation of items to be included in the record on appeal and statement of issues to be presented in connection with his appeal from the Order Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and 11 U.S.C. § 363 Approving Settlement Between the Highland Entities and the HMIT Entities and Authorizing Actions Consistent Therewith [Docket

[1] Highland's last four digits of its taxpayer identification number are (8357). The headquarters and service address for Highland is 100 Crescent Court, Suite 1850, Dallas, TX 75201.

No. 4297] (the "HMIT Settlement Order").[2] See Notice of Appeal [Docket No. 4310, as amended at Docket No. 4327].

Statement of Issues on Appeal

1. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in its approval of the HMIT Settlement Order [Docket No. 4297], which permits payment to Class 10 creditors before all Class 8 and Class 9 claims have been paid in full when the plain language of the Fifth Amended Plan of Reorganization of Highland Capital Management, L.P. [Dkt. 1808], the Court's Confirmation Order [Dkt. 1943] and the Claimant Trust Agreement [Dkt. 3817-4] require full payment plus applicable interest to all Class 8 and Class 9 creditors before any Class 10 or Class 11 claims can vest.

2. Whether the Bankruptcy Court abused its discretion by approving the HMIT Settlement Order [Docket No. 4297] when the settlement is not fair, reasonable, or in the best interests of the estate as the Debtor, through its principals, is forgoing the recovery of millions in material value to the estate in exchange for, inter alia, self-serving releases of its principals.

Designation of Record

Daugherty respectfully designates the following items to be included in the appellate record pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 8009(a):

000001 1. Amended Notice of Appeal for Bankruptcy Case No. 19-34054-sgj11 [Dkt. 4327].

000011 2. Notice of Appeal for Bankruptcy Case No. 19-34054-sgj11 [Dkt. 4310].

000022 3. The Judgment Order or Decree appealed from: Order Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and 11 U.S.C. § 363 Approving Settlement Between the Highland Entities and the HMIT Entities and Authorizing Actions Consistent Therewith [Docket No. 4297].

000026 4. Docket Sheet for Bankruptcy Case No. 19-34054-sgj1 kept by the Bankruptcy Clerk.

5. Documents listed below for Bankruptcy Case No. 19-34054-sgj11:

[2] Unless otherwise defined herein, all capitalized terms shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the HMIT Settlement Order.

4. HMIT Class 10 Interest.

(a) Subject to entry of the Bankruptcy Court Order, and the terms of this Agreement, the HMIT Class 10 Interest shall be deemed allowed in the amount of Three Hundred Thirty-Six Million Nine Hundred Forty Thousand Two Hundred Thirty and 58/100 Dollars (US$336,940,230.58), which amount represents the HMIT Capital Account Balance, less the HMIT Note Balance.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan or the Claimant Trust Agreement, as an integral part of this Agreement to consent to the allowance of the HMIT Class 10 Interest and the other considerations in this Agreement, HMIT shall not be deemed, and no holder of the HMIT Class 10 Interest shall be, a Claimant Trust Beneficiary or a "Beneficiary" under the Claimant Trust Agreement, and the Highland Released Parties, individually and collectively, shall owe no duty to any HMIT Releasor (whether contractual, fiduciary, equitable, statutory or otherwise), including with respect to the HMIT Class 10 Interest, in each case, except as expressly set forth in this Agreement. Furthermore, without limiting the foregoing and for the avoidance of doubt, the contractual right of the holder of the HMIT Class 10 Interest to receive or recover any payments or Indemnity Trust Assets from the Indemnity Trust as set forth in this Agreement or the Indemnity Trust Agreement does not make any HMIT Releasor or any other Person a beneficiary of the Indemnity Trust or under the Indemnity Trust Agreement.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, the Claimant Trust Agreement or the Indemnity Trust Agreement, in no event shall HMIT sell, transfer, assign, pledge, hypothecate, participate or otherwise dispose of or encumber the HMIT Class 10 Interest or any rights (including any right to payment) with respect thereto (collectively, a "Class 10 Assignment"), and any attempted Class 10 Assignment shall be null and void.

(d) For the avoidance of doubt, the HMIT Class 10 Interest is and shall remain senior to the not yet allowed, unvested contingent Class 11 Claims of Equity Interests as provided for in the Plan, the Plan Documents, and the Claimant Trust Agreement.

5. Initial Interim Distributions on the Allowed Class 10 Interests.

(a) Within five (5) Business Days after the Bankruptcy Court Approval Date, the Indemnity Trust shall distribute (the date on which such distribution is made, the "Initial Interim Distribution Date") Pro Rata to the Holders of allowed Class 10 Claims or Equity Interests cash in the aggregate amount of Ten Million Dollars (US$10,000,000.00) (the "Initial Interim Cash Distribution Amount"), by means of wire transfer through the address contained in Section 3 ("Wire Transfer").

(b) Within five (5) Business Days after the Bankruptcy Court Approval Date (the "Note Assignment Date"), the Highland Entities shall cause the portion of the Dugaboy Note held by the Highland Entities to be distributed to HMIT in-kind and take all actions necessary for HMIT to become the holder of such portion of the Dugaboy Note, and shall in addition pay to HMIT cash in the aggregate amount of all principal and interest payments actually received on the Dugaboy Note by the Highland Entities, including the Indemnity Trust, from the Agreement Date to the Note Assignment Date. Prior to the Bankruptcy Court Approval Date, HMIT will engage an independent valuation service provider to value the Dugaboy Note for purposes of determining the magnitude of reduction to the outstanding allowed Class 10 Interests on account of such in-kind distribution, which shall not be less than Fifty percent (50%) of the current balance owed under the Dugaboy Note. The HMIT Entities acknowledge and agree that none of the Highland Entities are representing or warranting that the Dugaboy Note can be sold, or the price, if any, that could be received for the Dugaboy Note and further acknowledge and agree that any such purchase price may be de minimis.

6. Subsequent Distribution(s) on the Allowed Class 10 Interests.

(a) On December 1, 2027, the Indemnity Trust shall distribute (such distribution, collectively, the "First Subsequent Distribution", and the date on which such Subsequent Distribution is made, the "First Subsequent Distribution Date") Pro Rata to the Holders of allowed Class 10 Claims or Equity Interests: cash in the aggregate amount of Six Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars (US$6,500,000.00), by Wire Transfer.

(b) On December 1, 2028, the Indemnity Trust shall distribute (such distribution, collectively, the "Second Subsequent Distribution", and the date on which such Subsequent Distribution is made, the "Second Subsequent Distribution Date") Pro Rata to the Holders of allowed Class 10 Claims or Equity Interests cash in the aggregate amount of Six Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars (US$6,500,000.00) by Wire Transfer.

(c) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the obligations of the Indemnity Trust to make the First Subsequent Distribution or Second Subsequent Distribution is subject in all respects to (i) there being no Threats and (ii) a determination in accordance with Article VIII, Section 8.1(c) of the Indemnity Trust Agreement that the Indemnity Trust Assets comprising such distributions are not reasonably necessary to satisfy current or potential Indemnification Obligations (as defined in the Indemnity Trust Agreement) to all persons who are or might become Beneficiaries (as defined in the Indemnity Trust Agreement).

7. Final Distribution on the Allowed Class 10 Interests.

(a) On the later of the Final Court Approval Date and April 1, 2029, the Indemnity Trust will distribute all excess remaining Indemnity Trust Assets in accordance with Article VIII of the Indemnity Trust Agreement; provided, however, that the obligation of the Indemnity Trust to make any such distributions and/or dissolve and wind up the affairs of the Indemnity Trust is subject in all respects to (i) there being no Threats and (ii) a determination in accordance with Article VIII of the Indemnity Trust Agreement that (1) a Final Order(s) (as defined in the Indemnity Trust Agreement) has been entered resolving all litigation, claims or proceedings in any forum of any kind which could give rise to Indemnity Obligations (as defined in the Indemnity Trust Agreement) and payment in full of all such Indemnity Obligations and (2) all applicable statutes of limitations and any applicable tolling of such statutes of limitation have expired.

(b) The Indemnity Trust agrees to not use Indemnity Trust Assets to fund Operating Expenses.

(c) Following the Bankruptcy Court Approval Date, at the request of Mark Patrick, solely in his capacity, and to the extent he remains, as administrator of HMIT, but not more often than quarterly, Highland and the Indemnity Trust Administrator agree to review (i) the status of their respective assets, (ii) the balance of cash held, (iii) the status of any claims made for indemnification and any resolutions thereof, (iv) the status of any litigation, and (v) forecasted operating expenses with Mr. Patrick, and will each work in good faith to reduce operating expenses where reasonably practicable; provided, however, that all such reporting shall be subject to Mr. Patrick's agreement to maintain confidentiality with respect to any non-public information.

8. Transfer Kirschner Claims; Dismissal of HMIT Note Claims.

(a) Within five (5) Business Days after the Bankruptcy Court Approval Date, but after the dismissal provided for in Section 2, the Litigation Sub-Trust shall execute a short-form assignment in in favor of the HMIT Entities transferring all of the Litigation Sub-Trust's right, title, and interest in and to the Kirschner Claims (the "Kirschner Transfer"). Such assignment shall be in a form mutually acceptable to the Parties and its substance shall be consistent with the terms, conditions and limitations set forth in this Agreement, including Section 8(b) below. Each HMIT Entity acknowledges and agrees that none of the Highland Entities will have any duty or obligation to assist the HMIT Entities in any way with respect to the Kirschner Claims, including the prosecution thereof, except as provided in this Agreement, including the terms of Section 8(c) below.

(b) THE HMIT ENTITIES SPECIFICALLY ACKNOWLEDGE AND AGREE THAT THE LITIGATION SUB-TRUST IS TRANSFERRING THE KIRSCHNER CLAIMS ON AN "AS IS AND WITH ALL FAULTS" BASIS AND THAT THE HMIT

ENTITIES ARE NOT RELYING ON ANY REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND WHATSOEVER, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, FROM THE HIGHLAND ENTITIES OR THEIR REPRESENTATIVES AS TO ANY MATTERS CONCERNING THE KIRSCHNER CLAIMS AND AMENDED COMPLAINT, INCLUDING WITH RESPECT TO THE ENFORCEABILITY, TRANSFERABILITY, VIABILITY, STRENGTH, OR VALUE OF ANY OF THE KIRSCHNER CLAIMS OR THE AMENDED COMPLAINT. The HMIT Entities hereby specifically acknowledge that they have carefully reviewed this Section and have had the opportunity to discuss its import with legal counsel and that the provisions of this Section are a material part of this Agreement. Thus, if for any reason HMIT is precluded from or is otherwise unable to prosecute all or any of the Kirschner Claims, (i) the HMIT Releasors shall have no recourse against any Highland Released Parties whatsoever and shall not be entitled to compensation of any kind, it being agreed that the HMIT Entities are otherwise receiving adequate consideration for the duties and obligations they are undertaking pursuant to this Agreement and (ii) there will be no effect whatsoever on the validity and enforceability of this Agreement or any of the other transactions contemplated hereby.

(c) As promptly as reasonably practicable following the Bankruptcy Court Approval Date, the Highland Entities shall provide to the HMIT Entities electronic copies of written discovery requests and responses thereto, and documents produced in discovery in respect of the Kirschner Claims and the Amended Complaint. The Highland Entities will not provide any other documents regarding the Kirschner Claims including any attorney-client communications and any documents subject to the attorney work-product doctrine or similar privileges or immunities concerning the Kirschner Claims (collectively, the "Kirschner Privileges"), it being understood and agreed that the Highland Entities are retaining, and not transferring or waiving, the Kirschner Privileges.

(d) Each Party acknowledges and agrees that if (i) the Kirschner Transfer is found or deemed to be impermissible or invalid, for any reason, or (ii) any HMIT Entity materially breaches this Agreement, the Kirschner Claims and Amended Complaint will revert to, and remain an asset of, the Litigation Sub-Trust.

9. General Release By The HMIT Entities. On the Bankruptcy Court Approval Date, and to the maximum extent permitted by law, each of the HMIT Entities, on behalf of itself and each of its respective Affiliates (including Affiliated and/or managed funds, accounts and other investment vehicles) and its and their respective current and former advisors, consultants, administrators, trustees, directors, officers, managers, executives, members, partners (including limited and general partners), employees, beneficiaries, direct and indirect shareholders and other equity holders, agents, participants, direct and indirect subsidiaries and parents, successors, predecessors, designees, and assigns (whether by operation of law or otherwise) and all Persons claiming through, under or on their behalf (collectively with the HMIT Entities, the "HMIT Releasors") hereby forever, finally, fully, unconditionally, and completely releases, relieves, acquits, discharges, remises, and exonerates each Highland Released Party from, and waives and relinquishes, any and all Claims, which the HMIT Releasors, or any Person claiming through, under, or on behalf of any of the HMIT Releasors, ever had, now has, or hereafter can, shall, or may have against any of the Highland Released Parties by reason of, arising from, relating to, or in connection with, any fact, matter, or transaction that occurred prior to the Agreement Date, including any fact, matter, transaction, or occurrence asserted by any HMIT Entity in the Pending

Litigation or in connection with, relating to, or with respect to the Bankruptcy Case, the management or operation of any of the Highland Released Parties, or the Highland Released Parties' property and including any defense, affirmative defenses, and right to setoff arising out of, or otherwise related to, any of the foregoing (collectively, the "HMIT Entity Released Claims").

10. General Release By The Highland Entities. On the Bankruptcy Court Approval Date, and to the maximum extent permitted by law, each of the Highland Entities, on behalf of itself and each of its respective Affiliates (including Affiliated and/or managed funds, accounts and other investment vehicles) and its or their respective current and former advisors, consultants, administrators, trustees, directors, officers, managers, executives, members, partners (including limited and general partners), employees, beneficiaries, direct and indirect shareholders and other equity holders, agents, participants, direct and indirect subsidiaries and parents, successors, predecessors, designees, and assigns (whether by operation of law or otherwise) and all Persons claiming through, under or on their behalf (collectively with the Highland Entities, the "Highland Releasors") hereby forever, finally, fully, unconditionally, and completely releases, relieves, acquits, discharges, remises, and exonerates each HMIT Released Party from, and waives and relinquishes, any and all Claims which the Highland Releasors, or any Person claiming through, under, or on behalf of any of the Highland Releasors, ever had, now has, or hereafter can, shall, or may have against any of the HMIT Released Parties by reason of, arising from, relating to, or in connection with, any fact, matter, or transaction that occurred prior to the Bankruptcy Court Approval Date, including any fact, matter, transaction, or occurrence in connection with, relating to, or with respect to the Bankruptcy Case, the management or operation of any of the HMIT Released Parties, or the HMIT Released Parties' property and including any defense, affirmative defenses, and right to setoff arising out of, or otherwise related to, any of the foregoing (collectively, the "Highland Released Claims").

11. Further Provisions Concerning The General Releases.

(a) FOR THE AVOIDANCE OF DOUBT, THE FOREGOING RELEASES ARE INTENDED TO BE GENERAL AND INCLUDE A RELEASE OF ALL RELEASED CLAIMS, WHETHER KNOWN OR UNKNOWN, SUSPECTED OR UNSUSPECTED, ARISING OR EXISTING FROM THE BEGINNING OF TIME THROUGH AND INCLUDING THE AGREEMENT DATE.

(b) To the maximum extent permitted by law, each of the HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, waives the benefit of any statute or other principle of law or equity that limits the applicability of a release with respect to Claims that the releasing party does not know or suspect to exist in his, her or its favor at the time of executing the release.

(c) Without limiting the scope of the foregoing waiver, in connection with the foregoing release, each of the HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on its own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, waives the benefits of Section 1542 of the California Civil Code (to the extent, if any, that Section 1542 might apply to the foregoing release), which provides as follows:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED PARTY.

Each of the HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, hereby agrees that the provisions of Section 1542 of the Civil Code of the State of California and all similar federal or state law, rights, rules or legal principles, legal or equitable, in each case solely to the extent such provisions apply, ARE HEREBY KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY WAIVED AND RELINQUISHED BY EACH OF THE HMIT ENTITIES AND THE HIGHLAND ENTITIES, ON THEIR OWN BEHALF AND ON BEHALF OF THE OTHER HMIT RELEASORS AND HIGHLAND RELEASORS, RESPECTIVELY, in each and every capacity, to the full extent that such rights and benefits pertaining to the matters released herein may be waived, and each of the HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, hereby agrees and acknowledges that this waiver and relinquishment is an essential term of this Agreement, without which the consideration provided would not have been given.

In connection with such waiver and relinquishment, each of the HMIT Entities and Highland Entities acknowledges that it is aware that it may hereafter discover Claims presently unknown or unsuspected, or facts in addition to or different from those which it now knows or believes to be true, with respect to the matters released herein. Nevertheless, it is the intent of each of the HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on its own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, in executing this Agreement fully, finally, and forever to settle and release all such matters, and all Claims related thereto, which exist, may exist or might have existed (whether or not previously or currently asserted in any action) which are the subject to the releases granted above.

(d) As an integral component of this Agreement, and notwithstanding the Parties' intent set forth in the preamble hereto and the general nature of the releases in Sections 9 and 10, should:

(i) any HMIT Releasor contend or assert that any Claim of any kind whatsoever held by any HMIT Releasor against any Highland Released Party survives this Agreement and is in any way related to or arising from or in connection with any HMIT Entity Released Claim (such claim or cause of action, a "HMIT Alleged Claim"), such HMIT Releasor will be deemed to have irrevocably, fully, and finally assigned such HMIT Alleged Claim to the Highland Entities and the Highland Entities will be deemed to have forever, finally, full, unconditionally, and irrevocably, and completely released such HMIT Alleged Claim.

(ii) any Highland Releasor contend or assert that any Claim of any kind whatsoever held by any Highland Releasor against any HMIT Released Party survives this Agreement and is in any way related to or arising from or in connection with any Highland Entity Released Claim (such claim or cause of action, a "Highland Alleged Claim"), such Highland

Releasor will be deemed to have irrevocably, fully, and finally assigned such Highland Alleged Claim to the HMIT Entities and the HMIT Entities will be deemed to have forever, finally, full, unconditionally, and irrevocably, and completely released such Highland Alleged Claim.

12. Covenant Not To Sue; Limitation on Standing. Upon the Agreement Date:

(a) Each of the HMIT Releasors covenants and agrees that it will not institute or prosecute any Action, in law, in equity or otherwise, against any of the Highland Released Parties, to recover, enforce, investigate, or collect any HMIT Entity Released Claim and will not (i) induce, encourage or direct any other Person to do so or (ii) act in concert with or assist (financially or otherwise) any other Person in doing so.

(b) Each of the Highland Releasors covenants and agrees that it will not institute or prosecute any Action, in law, in equity or otherwise, against any of the HMIT Released Parties, to recover, enforce, investigate, or collect any Highland Entity Released Claim and will not (i) induce, encourage or direct any other Person to do so or (ii) act in concert with or assist (financially or otherwise) any other Person in doing so.

(c) For the avoidance of doubt, this Agreement shall not operate to give any HMIT Entity standing for any purpose in connection with the Bankruptcy Case (or in connection with any appeal arising from any order entered by the Bankruptcy Court), except for the limited purpose of seeking Court approval of this Agreement (including with respect to any appeal concerning any order entered granting or denying such approval), and except for the limited purpose of enforcing this Agreement, no HMIT Entity shall commence any Action in connection with the HMIT Class 10 Interest.

13. Representations and Warranties.

(a) Each of the HMIT Entities hereby represents and warrants that every HMIT Entity Released Claim has not heretofore been assigned or encumbered and is not the subject of a transfer (as such term is defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(54)), by any HMIT Releasor.

(b) The HMIT Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors, acknowledge and agree that each Plan Provision is lawful, effective, and binding on the HMIT Releasors. The HMIT Entities further agree, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors, that the HMIT Releasors will never, in any way, challenge or seek to modify, nullify, vacate, or revoke, or induce, encourage or direct any other Person to do so or act in concert with or assist (financially or otherwise) any other Person in doing so the Confirmation Order, the Plan, the Plan Protections, or any Plan Document, including the Claimant Trust Agreement, the LPA, the Indemnity Trust Agreement or the Litigation Sub-Trust Agreement, in the Bankruptcy Court, in any other state or federal court, in any other forum or tribunal, or otherwise, including administrative or regulatory tribunals and foreign courts.

(c) Each of the Highland Entities hereby represents and warrants that every Highland Entity Released Claim has not heretofore been assigned or encumbered and is not the subject of a transfer (as such term is defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(54)), by any Highland Releasor.

(d) Each Party severally represents and warrants as to itself only that: (i) it has taken all necessary action to authorize and approve the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement; (ii) such Party has full power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement; and (iii) this Agreement constitutes a valid, legal and binding obligation of such Party, and is enforceable subject to its terms. Each individual signatory hereto individually warrants and represents to all Parties hereto that such individual has full power and authority to act on behalf of and bind the Party for which he or she has executed this Agreement; provided, however that no signatory shall otherwise provide any warranty or representation or otherwise be a party to this Agreement on an individual basis.

14. No Continuing Rights, Duties or Obligations. Except for the rights, duties, and obligations expressly set forth in this Agreement, all Rights and Obligations that existed or may have existed shall be deemed terminated, extinguished, and released upon the Agreement Date. For the avoidance of doubt, from and after the Agreement Date, (a) the Highland Released Parties, individually and collectively, shall owe no duty, past or present, including with respect to the Kirchner Claims, to the HMIT Released Parties, individually and collectively, whether contractual, fiduciary, equitable, statutory or otherwise, except as arising out of this Agreement, and (b) the HMIT Released Parties, individually and collectively, shall owe no duty to the Highland Released Parties, individually and collectively, whether contractual, fiduciary, equitable, statutory or otherwise, except as arising out of this Agreement.

15. Gatekeeper Standard.

(a) The HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, acknowledge and agree that, notwithstanding the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit's decision in Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors, L.P. v. Highland Capital Management, L.P., No. 23-10534 (5th Cir. Mar. 18, 2025), the "Gatekeeper" provisions contained in Highland's Original Plan is forever binding on each of the HMIT Entities and any Persons claiming through, under or on behalf of any of them, and for a claim or cause of action to be "colorable" for purposes of the Gatekeeper, it must be found by final order of the Bankruptcy Court (the "Gatekeeper Court"), which order shall be subject to appeal to a court of competent jurisdiction, to have satisfied the "Gatekeeper Colorability Test" as such term is defined in In re Highland Capital Management, L.P., 2023 Bankr. LEXIS 2104 at *124-36 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. Aug. 24, 2023).

(b) The HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, acknowledge and agree that compliance with the Gatekeeper requires (i) a motion seeking leave to sue an Exculpated Party (as that term is defined in Highland's original Plan) and a finding that the litigant's claims and causes of action are "colorable" attaching a complaint setting forth the basis for such claims or causes of action and (ii), in the Gatekeeper Court's sole discretion, an evidentiary hearing (during which the Gatekeeper Court may, among other things, hear testimony and assess the credibility of any witness(es)) to determine whether a proposed claim or cause of action is "colorable."

(c) The HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, further acknowledge and agree that the moving party under the Gatekeeper has the burden of satisfying the "Gatekeeper Colorability Test," and that the dismissal of the Pending Litigation shall have res judicata effect.

16. Indemnification.

(a) Without in any manner limiting the available remedies for any breach of this Agreement, the HMIT Entities, severally but not jointly, agree to indemnify, defend, and hold the Highland Released Parties harmless from and against any and all Liability, that may arise or result from or on account of, or that are otherwise related or attributable to (x) any breach of this Agreement or of any representation or warranty contained in the Agreement, including the representations and warranties of any HMIT Entity set forth in Section 13 or (y) any Actions brought or prosecuted by or on behalf of, any HMIT Releasor or that are induced, encouraged, assisted or directed by any HMIT Releasor or brought or prosecuted in concert with any HMIT Releasor against any Highland Released Party with respect to or related to any HMIT Entity Released Claims. Without limiting the scope of the foregoing in any manner, any HMIT Entity that breaches Section 12 shall be liable to the Highland Released Party against whom the applicable Action has been brought or prosecuted in violation of Section 12 for the reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred by such Highland Released Party in defending against or otherwise responding to such Action. Each HMIT Entity acknowledges and agrees that the HMIT Entities are and shall be severally but not jointly liable for any Liability arising from or out of any breach of this Agreement or of any representation or warranty set forth in this Agreement.

(b) Without in any manner limiting the available remedies for any breach of this Agreement, the Highland Entities, severally but not jointly, agree to indemnify, defend, and hold the HMIT Released Parties harmless from and against any and all Liability, that may arise or result from or on account of, or that are otherwise related or attributable to (x) any breach of this Agreement or of any representation or warranty contained in the Agreement, including the representations and warranties of any Highland Entity set forth in Section 13 or (y) any suits, proceedings, or other actions brought or prosecuted by or on behalf of, any Highland Releasor or that are induced, encouraged, assisted or directed by any Highland Releasor or brought or prosecuted in concert with any Highland Releasor against any HMIT Released Party with respect to or related to any Highland Entity Released Claims. Without in any manner limiting the scope of the foregoing, any Highland Entity that breaches Section 12 shall be liable to the HMIT Released Party against whom the applicable Action has been brought or prosecuted in violation of Section 12 for the reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred by such HMIT Released Party in defending against or otherwise responding to such Action. Each Highland Entity acknowledges and agrees that the Highland Entities are and shall be severally but not jointly liable for any Liability arising from or out of any breach of this Agreement or of any representation or warranty set forth in this Agreement.

17. Execution. This Agreement may be executed by the exchange of signatures by facsimile or by PDF attachment to an email transmittal and in counterparts, and if so executed, shall be fully executed when a counterpart has been executed and delivered by all Parties hereto through counsel. All counterparts taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement and shall be fully enforceable as such.

18. Bankruptcy Court Order. The allowance of the allowed HMIT Class 10 Interest pursuant to Section 4 is subject to the entry of the Bankruptcy Court Order. To that end, the Highland Entities shall file the 9019 Motion no later than five (5) Business Days after the Agreement Date. Each Party shall, and shall cause each of their respective Affiliates to, undertake any and all actions in compliance with applicable law to obtain the Bankruptcy Court Order as promptly as practicable, and without limiting the foregoing, if an Action is threatened or instituted by any Person opposing the 9019 Motion or otherwise challenging the validity or legality, or seeking to restrain the consummation, of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the Bankruptcy Court Order, each Party shall, and shall cause its respective Affiliates to, use their commercially reasonable best efforts to avoid, resist, resolve or, if necessary, and defend to effectuate this Agreement and consummate the transactions hereby. If the 9019 Motion is not approved by entry of the Bankruptcy Court Order or if the Bankruptcy Court Approval is precluded from becoming a Final Order, (a) there will be no affect on, adjustment to, or impairment of, in any way, the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement, and the other transactions contemplated hereby, all of which shall remain in full force and effect and (b) each Party shall, and shall cause its respective Affiliates to, use their best efforts to seek the allowance of the HMIT Class 10 Interest in a substantially similar amount and on substantially similar terms as set forth in Section 4 to the fullest extent possible so as to give effect to the original intent of the Parties as closely as possible.

19. Fees and Expenses. Whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated or the Bankruptcy Court Order is obtained, and except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, each Party will bear its respective fees, costs and expenses (including legal, accounting and other professional fees) incurred in connection with the preparation, negotiation, execution and performance of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, including with respect to each Party's respective obligations pursuant to Section 18. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any Party hereto brings an Action to enforce or interpret the terms and provisions of this Agreement, the prevailing Party in that Action shall be entitled to have and recover from the non-prevailing Party all such fees, costs and expenses (including all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees) as the prevailing Party may suffer or incur in the pursuit or defense of such action or proceeding.

20. Entire Agreement; No Other Representations. THIS AGREEMENT CONTAINS THE ENTIRE AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE PARTIES, AND NO RIGHTS ARE CREATED IN FAVOR OF ANY PERSON OTHER THAN AS SPECIFIED OR EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT. THERE ARE NO REPRESENTATIONS, CONDITIONS, WARRANTIES, STATEMENTS, OR UNDERSTANDINGS (COLLECTIVELY, "REPRESENTATIONS"), EITHER ORAL OR WRITTEN, BETWEEN THE PARTIES OTHER THAN THOSE EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT. THE PARTIES EXPRESSLY AGREE THAT THEY HAVE NOT BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY ANY REPRESENTATIONS NOT SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT; AND THE PARTIES EXPRESSLY AGREE THAT THEY HAVE NOT RELIED ON ANY REPRESENTATIONS NOT EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT. THE PARTIES EXPRESSLY AGREE THAT THEY ARE ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT RELYING SOLELY ON THEIR OWN JUDGMENT AND NOT ON ANY REPRESENTATIONS BY ANY PARTY, EXCEPT FOR THOSE REPRESENTATIONS

EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT. THE PARTIES AGREE THAT REPRESENTATIONS NOT EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT SHALL NOT BE USED IN THE INTERPRETATION OR CONSTRUCTION OF THIS AGREEMENT, AND NEITHER THE HMIT RELEASED PARTIES NOR THE HIGHLAND RELEASED PARTIES SHALL HAVE ANY LIABILITY FOR ANY CONSEQUENCES ARISING AS A RESULT OF ANY REPRESENTATIONS NOT SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT.

21. Agreement and Release Knowing and Voluntary. The Parties acknowledge that they have considered this Agreement with their respective attorneys and have carefully read this Agreement, that it has been fully explained by their attorneys, and that they have had a reasonable opportunity to consider this Agreement. The Parties further represent that they know and fully understand the contents of this Agreement, that they intend to be legally bound by this Agreement and the releases and covenants contained herein, and that they are signing this Agreement, including the release provisions herein, voluntarily and of their own free will and without coercion, and with the benefit of advice of counsel.

22. Cooperation. The Parties agree to perform any services or actions reasonably necessary to carry out the terms and conditions of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, including the execution and delivery of reasonable additional documents, instruments, conveyances and/or assurances, in good faith, and to reasonably communicate and cooperate with one another in this regard. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Section shall obligate the Highland Entities to assist the HMIT Entities in any way with respect to the Kirschner Claims, including the prosecution thereof.

23. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be construed pursuant to and governed by the laws of the State of Delaware (substantive and procedural) without reference to principles of conflicts of law that would result in the application of any other State's laws.

24. Jurisdiction/Venue. The Parties hereby irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction and venue of the Bankruptcy Court with respect to any Action arising out of or related to this Agreement or the subject matter hereof; if (and only if) the Bankruptcy Court lacks personal or subject matter jurisdiction to adjudicate an Action arising out of or related to this Agreement or the subject matter hereof, then the Parties irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction and venue of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas.

25. No Admissions. All Parties acknowledge and agree that the matters set forth in this Agreement constitute the settlement and compromise of disputed Claims and that this Agreement shall not constitute the admission of any fact or liability by any of them regarding any Claim, including the Claims released hereunder, and neither the terms hereof, nor the fact of this Agreement itself, shall be evidence of any kind in any Action, other than an Action to enforce the terms of the Agreement or any instrument executed in connection herewith or any claim for damages or other relief for breach of any representation or warranty contained herein or in any instrument executed in connection herewith.

26. Other Provisions.

(a) No representation, inducement, agreement, promise or understandings altering, modifying, amending, taking from or adding to, the terms and conditions hereof shall have any force or effect unless the same is in writing and validly executed by each of the Parties hereto.

(b) The waiver by any Party of any breach of, or default under, any provision of this Agreement shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach or default; provided, however, that for any such waiver to be enforceable, it shall be in writing and executed by the non-breaching Party.

(c) The headings contained in this Agreement are for convenience only and shall in no way restrict or otherwise affect the construction of the provisions hereof.

(d) The Parties shall each execute all documents and perform all acts necessary and proper to effectuate the terms of this Agreement.

27. Notices. All notices required or permitted to be provided hereunder shall be afforded to the respective parties to and through their counsel, and shall be transmitted simultaneously by electronic mail (with PDF attachments, as necessary) and by telefax, addressed as follows:

(b) Within five (5) Business Days after the Bankruptcy Court Approval Date (the "Note Assignment Date"), the Highland Entities shall cause the portion of the Dugaboy Note held by the Highland Entities to be distributed to HMIT in-kind and take all actions necessary for HMIT to become the holder of such portion of the Dugaboy Note, and shall in addition pay to HMIT cash in the aggregate amount of all principal and interest payments actually received on the Dugaboy Note by the Highland Entities, including the Indemnity Trust, from the Agreement Date to the Note Assignment Date. Prior to the Bankruptcy Court Approval Date, HMIT will engage an independent valuation service provider to value the Dugaboy Note for purposes of determining the magnitude of reduction to the outstanding allowed Class 10 Interests on account of such in-kind distribution, which shall not be less than Fifty percent (50%) of the current balance owed under the Dugaboy Note. The HMIT Entities acknowledge and agree that none of the Highland Entities are representing or warranting that the Dugaboy Note can be sold, or the price, if any, that could be received for the Dugaboy Note and further acknowledge and agree that any such purchase price may be de minimis.

6. Subsequent Distribution(s) on the Allowed Class 10 Interests.

(a) On December 1, 2027, the Indemnity Trust shall distribute (such distribution, collectively, the "First Subsequent Distribution", and the date on which such Subsequent Distribution is made, the "First Subsequent Distribution Date") Pro Rata to the Holders of allowed Class 10 Claims or Equity Interests: cash in the aggregate amount of Six Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars (US$6,500,000.00), by Wire Transfer.

(b) On December 1, 2028, the Indemnity Trust shall distribute (such distribution, collectively, the "Second Subsequent Distribution", and the date on which such Subsequent Distribution is made, the "Second Subsequent Distribution Date") Pro Rata to the Holders of allowed Class 10 Claims or Equity Interests cash in the aggregate amount of Six Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars (US$6,500,000.00) by Wire Transfer.

(c) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the obligations of the Indemnity Trust to make the First Subsequent Distribution or Second Subsequent Distribution is subject in all respects to (i) there being no Threats and (ii) a determination in accordance with Article VIII, Section 8.1(c) of the Indemnity Trust Agreement that the Indemnity Trust Assets comprising such distributions are not reasonably necessary to satisfy current or potential Indemnification Obligations (as defined in the Indemnity Trust Agreement) to all persons who are or might become Beneficiaries (as defined in the Indemnity Trust Agreement).

7. Final Distribution on the Allowed Class 10 Interests.

(a) On the later of the Final Court Approval Date and April 1, 2029, the Indemnity Trust will distribute all excess remaining Indemnity Trust Assets in accordance with Article VIII of the Indemnity Trust Agreement; provided, however, that the obligation of the Indemnity Trust to make any such distributions and/or dissolve and wind up the affairs of the Indemnity Trust is subject in all respects to (i) there being no Threats and (ii) a determination in accordance with Article VIII of the Indemnity Trust Agreement that (1) a Final Order(s) (as defined in the Indemnity Trust Agreement) has been entered resolving all litigation, claims or proceedings in any forum of any kind which could give rise to Indemnity Obligations (as defined in the Indemnity Trust Agreement) and payment in full of all such Indemnity Obligations and (2) all applicable statutes of limitations and any applicable tolling of such statutes of limitation have expired.

(b) The Indemnity Trust agrees to not use Indemnity Trust Assets to fund Operating Expenses.

(c) Following the Bankruptcy Court Approval Date, at the request of Mark Patrick, solely in his capacity, and to the extent he remains, as administrator of HMIT, but not more often than quarterly, Highland and the Indemnity Trust Administrator agree to review (i) the status of their respective assets, (ii) the balance of cash held, (iii) the status of any claims made for indemnification and any resolutions thereof, (iv) the status of any litigation, and (v) forecasted operating expenses with Mr. Patrick, and will each work in good faith to reduce operating expenses where reasonably practicable; provided, however, that all such reporting shall be subject to Mr. Patrick's agreement to maintain confidentiality with respect to any non-public information.

8. Transfer Kirschner Claims; Dismissal of HMIT Note Claims.

(a) Within five (5) Business Days after the Bankruptcy Court Approval Date, but after the dismissal provided for in Section 2, the Litigation Sub-Trust shall execute a short-form assignment in in favor of the HMIT Entities transferring all of the Litigation Sub-Trust's right, title, and interest in and to the Kirschner Claims (the "Kirschner Transfer"). Such assignment shall be in a form mutually acceptable to the Parties and its substance shall be consistent with the terms, conditions and limitations set forth in this Agreement, including Section 8(b) below. Each HMIT Entity acknowledges and agrees that none of the Highland Entities will have any duty or obligation to assist the HMIT Entities in any way with respect to the Kirschner Claims, including the prosecution thereof, except as provided in this Agreement, including the terms of Section 8(c) below.

(b) THE HMIT ENTITIES SPECIFICALLY ACKNOWLEDGE AND AGREE THAT THE LITIGATION SUB-TRUST IS TRANSFERRING THE KIRSCHNER CLAIMS ON AN "AS IS AND WITH ALL FAULTS" BASIS AND THAT THE HMIT

ENTITIES ARE NOT RELYING ON ANY REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND WHATSOEVER, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, FROM THE HIGHLAND ENTITIES OR THEIR REPRESENTATIVES AS TO ANY MATTERS CONCERNING THE KIRSCHNER CLAIMS AND AMENDED COMPLAINT, INCLUDING WITH RESPECT TO THE ENFORCEABILITY, TRANSFERABILITY, VIABILITY, STRENGTH, OR VALUE OF ANY OF THE KIRSCHNER CLAIMS OR THE AMENDED COMPLAINT. The HMIT Entities hereby specifically acknowledge that they have carefully reviewed this Section and have had the opportunity to discuss its import with legal counsel and that the provisions of this Section are a material part of this Agreement. Thus, if for any reason HMIT is precluded from or is otherwise unable to prosecute all or any of the Kirschner Claims, (i) the HMIT Releasors shall have no recourse against any Highland Released Parties whatsoever and shall not be entitled to compensation of any kind, it being agreed that the HMIT Entities are otherwise receiving adequate consideration for the duties and obligations they are undertaking pursuant to this Agreement and (ii) there will be no effect whatsoever on the validity and enforceability of this Agreement or any of the other transactions contemplated hereby.

(c) As promptly as reasonably practicable following the Bankruptcy Court Approval Date, the Highland Entities shall provide to the HMIT Entities electronic copies of written discovery requests and responses thereto, and documents produced in discovery in respect of the Kirschner Claims and the Amended Complaint. The Highland Entities will not provide any other documents regarding the Kirschner Claims including any attorney-client communications and any documents subject to the attorney work-product doctrine or similar privileges or immunities concerning the Kirschner Claims (collectively, the "Kirschner Privileges"), it being understood and agreed that the Highland Entities are retaining, and not transferring or waiving, the Kirschner Privileges.

(d) Each Party acknowledges and agrees that if (i) the Kirschner Transfer is found or deemed to be impermissible or invalid, for any reason, or (ii) any HMIT Entity materially breaches this Agreement, the Kirschner Claims and Amended Complaint will revert to, and remain an asset of, the Litigation Sub-Trust.

9. General Release By The HMIT Entities. On the Bankruptcy Court Approval Date, and to the maximum extent permitted by law, each of the HMIT Entities, on behalf of itself and each of its respective Affiliates (including Affiliated and/or managed funds, accounts and other investment vehicles) and its and their respective current and former advisors, consultants, administrators, trustees, directors, officers, managers, executives, members, partners (including limited and general partners), employees, beneficiaries, direct and indirect shareholders and other equity holders, agents, participants, direct and indirect subsidiaries and parents, successors, predecessors, designees, and assigns (whether by operation of law or otherwise) and all Persons claiming through, under or on their behalf (collectively with the HMIT Entities, the "HMIT Releasors") hereby forever, finally, fully, unconditionally, and completely releases, relieves, acquits, discharges, remises, and exonerates each Highland Released Party from, and waives and relinquishes, any and all Claims, which the HMIT Releasors, or any Person claiming through, under, or on behalf of any of the HMIT Releasors, ever had, now has, or hereafter can, shall, or may have against any of the Highland Released Parties by reason of, arising from, relating to, or in connection with, any fact, matter, or transaction that occurred prior to the Agreement Date, including any fact, matter, transaction, or occurrence asserted by any HMIT Entity in the Pending

Litigation or in connection with, relating to, or with respect to the Bankruptcy Case, the management or operation of any of the Highland Released Parties, or the Highland Released Parties' property and including any defense, affirmative defenses, and right to setoff arising out of, or otherwise related to, any of the foregoing (collectively, the "HMIT Entity Released Claims").

10. General Release By The Highland Entities. On the Bankruptcy Court Approval Date, and to the maximum extent permitted by law, each of the Highland Entities, on behalf of itself and each of its respective Affiliates (including Affiliated and/or managed funds, accounts and other investment vehicles) and its or their respective current and former advisors, consultants, administrators, trustees, directors, officers, managers, executives, members, partners (including limited and general partners), employees, beneficiaries, direct and indirect shareholders and other equity holders, agents, participants, direct and indirect subsidiaries and parents, successors, predecessors, designees, and assigns (whether by operation of law or otherwise) and all Persons claiming through, under or on their behalf (collectively with the Highland Entities, the "Highland Releasors") hereby forever, finally, fully, unconditionally, and completely releases, relieves, acquits, discharges, remises, and exonerates each HMIT Released Party from, and waives and relinquishes, any and all Claims which the Highland Releasors, or any Person claiming through, under, or on behalf of any of the Highland Releasors, ever had, now has, or hereafter can, shall, or may have against any of the HMIT Released Parties by reason of, arising from, relating to, or in connection with, any fact, matter, or transaction that occurred prior to the Bankruptcy Court Approval Date, including any fact, matter, transaction, or occurrence in connection with, relating to, or with respect to the Bankruptcy Case, the management or operation of any of the HMIT Released Parties, or the HMIT Released Parties' property and including any defense, affirmative defenses, and right to setoff arising out of, or otherwise related to, any of the foregoing (collectively, the "Highland Released Claims").

11. Further Provisions Concerning The General Releases.

(a) FOR THE AVOIDANCE OF DOUBT, THE FOREGOING RELEASES ARE INTENDED TO BE GENERAL AND INCLUDE A RELEASE OF ALL RELEASED CLAIMS, WHETHER KNOWN OR UNKNOWN, SUSPECTED OR UNSUSPECTED, ARISING OR EXISTING FROM THE BEGINNING OF TIME THROUGH AND INCLUDING THE AGREEMENT DATE.

(b) To the maximum extent permitted by law, each of the HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, waives the benefit of any statute or other principle of law or equity that limits the applicability of a release with respect to Claims that the releasing party does not know or suspect to exist in his, her or its favor at the time of executing the release.

(c) Without limiting the scope of the foregoing waiver, in connection with the foregoing release, each of the HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on its own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, waives the benefits of Section 1542 of the California Civil Code (to the extent, if any, that Section 1542 might apply to the foregoing release), which provides as follows:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED PARTY.

Each of the HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, hereby agrees that the provisions of Section 1542 of the Civil Code of the State of California and all similar federal or state law, rights, rules or legal principles, legal or equitable, in each case solely to the extent such provisions apply, ARE HEREBY KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY WAIVED AND RELINQUISHED BY EACH OF THE HMIT ENTITIES AND THE HIGHLAND ENTITIES, ON THEIR OWN BEHALF AND ON BEHALF OF THE OTHER HMIT RELEASORS AND HIGHLAND RELEASORS, RESPECTIVELY, in each and every capacity, to the full extent that such rights and benefits pertaining to the matters released herein may be waived, and each of the HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, hereby agrees and acknowledges that this waiver and relinquishment is an essential term of this Agreement, without which the consideration provided would not have been given.

In connection with such waiver and relinquishment, each of the HMIT Entities and Highland Entities acknowledges that it is aware that it may hereafter discover Claims presently unknown or unsuspected, or facts in addition to or different from those which it now knows or believes to be true, with respect to the matters released herein. Nevertheless, it is the intent of each of the HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on its own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, in executing this Agreement fully, finally, and forever to settle and release all such matters, and all Claims related thereto, which exist, may exist or might have existed (whether or not previously or currently asserted in any action) which are the subject to the releases granted above.

(d) As an integral component of this Agreement, and notwithstanding the Parties' intent set forth in the preamble hereto and the general nature of the releases in Sections 9 and 10, should:

(i) any HMIT Releasor contend or assert that any Claim of any kind whatsoever held by any HMIT Releasor against any Highland Released Party survives this Agreement and is in any way related to or arising from or in connection with any HMIT Entity Released Claim (such claim or cause of action, a "HMIT Alleged Claim"), such HMIT Releasor will be deemed to have irrevocably, fully, and finally assigned such HMIT Alleged Claim to the Highland Entities and the Highland Entities will be deemed to have forever, finally, full, unconditionally, and irrevocably, and completely released such HMIT Alleged Claim.

(ii) any Highland Releasor contend or assert that any Claim of any kind whatsoever held by any Highland Releasor against any HMIT Released Party survives this Agreement and is in any way related to or arising from or in connection with any Highland Entity Released Claim (such claim or cause of action, a "Highland Alleged Claim"), such Highland

Releasor will be deemed to have irrevocably, fully, and finally assigned such Highland Alleged Claim to the HMIT Entities and the HMIT Entities will be deemed to have forever, finally, full, unconditionally, and irrevocably, and completely released such Highland Alleged Claim.

12. Covenant Not To Sue; Limitation on Standing. Upon the Agreement Date:

(a) Each of the HMIT Releasors covenants and agrees that it will not institute or prosecute any Action, in law, in equity or otherwise, against any of the Highland Released Parties, to recover, enforce, investigate, or collect any HMIT Entity Released Claim and will not (i) induce, encourage or direct any other Person to do so or (ii) act in concert with or assist (financially or otherwise) any other Person in doing so.

(b) Each of the Highland Releasors covenants and agrees that it will not institute or prosecute any Action, in law, in equity or otherwise, against any of the HMIT Released Parties, to recover, enforce, investigate, or collect any Highland Entity Released Claim and will not (i) induce, encourage or direct any other Person to do so or (ii) act in concert with or assist (financially or otherwise) any other Person in doing so.

(c) For the avoidance of doubt, this Agreement shall not operate to give any HMIT Entity standing for any purpose in connection with the Bankruptcy Case (or in connection with any appeal arising from any order entered by the Bankruptcy Court), except for the limited purpose of seeking Court approval of this Agreement (including with respect to any appeal concerning any order entered granting or denying such approval), and except for the limited purpose of enforcing this Agreement, no HMIT Entity shall commence any Action in connection with the HMIT Class 10 Interest.

13. Representations and Warranties.

(a) Each of the HMIT Entities hereby represents and warrants that every HMIT Entity Released Claim has not heretofore been assigned or encumbered and is not the subject of a transfer (as such term is defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(54)), by any HMIT Releasor.

(b) The HMIT Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors, acknowledge and agree that each Plan Provision is lawful, effective, and binding on the HMIT Releasors. The HMIT Entities further agree, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors, that the HMIT Releasors will never, in any way, challenge or seek to modify, nullify, vacate, or revoke, or induce, encourage or direct any other Person to do so or act in concert with or assist (financially or otherwise) any other Person in doing so the Confirmation Order, the Plan, the Plan Protections, or any Plan Document, including the Claimant Trust Agreement, the LPA, the Indemnity Trust Agreement or the Litigation Sub-Trust Agreement, in the Bankruptcy Court, in any other state or federal court, in any other forum or tribunal, or otherwise, including administrative or regulatory tribunals and foreign courts.

(c) Each of the Highland Entities hereby represents and warrants that every Highland Entity Released Claim has not heretofore been assigned or encumbered and is not the subject of a transfer (as such term is defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(54)), by any Highland Releasor.

(d) Each Party severally represents and warrants as to itself only that: (i) it has taken all necessary action to authorize and approve the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement; (ii) such Party has full power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement; and (iii) this Agreement constitutes a valid, legal and binding obligation of such Party, and is enforceable subject to its terms. Each individual signatory hereto individually warrants and represents to all Parties hereto that such individual has full power and authority to act on behalf of and bind the Party for which he or she has executed this Agreement; provided, however that no signatory shall otherwise provide any warranty or representation or otherwise be a party to this Agreement on an individual basis.

14. No Continuing Rights, Duties or Obligations. Except for the rights, duties, and obligations expressly set forth in this Agreement, all Rights and Obligations that existed or may have existed shall be deemed terminated, extinguished, and released upon the Agreement Date. For the avoidance of doubt, from and after the Agreement Date, (a) the Highland Released Parties, individually and collectively, shall owe no duty, past or present, including with respect to the Kirchner Claims, to the HMIT Released Parties, individually and collectively, whether contractual, fiduciary, equitable, statutory or otherwise, except as arising out of this Agreement, and (b) the HMIT Released Parties, individually and collectively, shall owe no duty to the Highland Released Parties, individually and collectively, whether contractual, fiduciary, equitable, statutory or otherwise, except as arising out of this Agreement.

15. Gatekeeper Standard.

(a) The HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, acknowledge and agree that, notwithstanding the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit's decision in Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors, L.P. v. Highland Capital Management, L.P., No. 23-10^{53}4 (5th Cir. Mar. 18, 2025), the "Gatekeeper" provisions contained in Highland's Original Plan is forever binding on each of the HMIT Entities and any Persons claiming through, under or on behalf of any of them, and for a claim or cause of action to be "colorable" for purposes of the Gatekeeper, it must be found by final order of the Bankruptcy Court (the "Gatekeeper Court"), which order shall be subject to appeal to a court of competent jurisdiction, to have satisfied the "Gatekeeper Colorability Test" as such term is defined in In re Highland Capital Management, L.P., 2023 Bankr. LEXIS 2104 at *124-36 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. Aug. 24, 2023).

(b) The HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, acknowledge and agree that compliance with the Gatekeeper requires (i) a motion seeking leave to sue an Exculpated Party (as that term is defined in Highland's original Plan) and a finding that the litigant's claims and causes of action are "colorable" attaching a complaint setting forth the basis for such claims or causes of action and (ii), in the Gatekeeper Court's sole discretion, an evidentiary hearing (during which the Gatekeeper Court may, among other things, hear testimony and assess the credibility of any witness(es)) to determine whether a proposed claim or cause of action is "colorable."

(c) The HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, further acknowledge and agree that the moving party under the Gatekeeper has the burden of satisfying the "Gatekeeper Colorability Test," and that the dismissal of the Pending Litigation shall have res judicata effect.

16. Indemnification.

(a) Without in any manner limiting the available remedies for any breach of this Agreement, the HMIT Entities, severally but not jointly, agree to indemnify, defend, and hold the Highland Released Parties harmless from and against any and all Liability, that may arise or result from or on account of, or that are otherwise related or attributable to (x) any breach of this Agreement or of any representation or warranty contained in the Agreement, including the representations and warranties of any HMIT Entity set forth in Section 13 or (y) any Actions brought or prosecuted by or on behalf of, any HMIT Releasor or that are induced, encouraged, assisted or directed by any HMIT Releasor or brought or prosecuted in concert with any HMIT Releasor against any Highland Released Party with respect to or related to any HMIT Entity Released Claims. Without limiting the scope of the foregoing in any manner, any HMIT Entity that breaches Section 12 shall be liable to the Highland Released Party against whom the applicable Action has been brought or prosecuted in violation of Section 12 for the reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred by such Highland Released Party in defending against or otherwise responding to such Action. Each HMIT Entity acknowledges and agrees that the HMIT Entities are and shall be severally but not jointly liable for any Liability arising from or out of any breach of this Agreement or of any representation or warranty set forth in this Agreement.

(b) Without in any manner limiting the available remedies for any breach of this Agreement, the Highland Entities, severally but not jointly, agree to indemnify, defend, and hold the HMIT Released Parties harmless from and against any and all Liability, that may arise or result from or on account of, or that are otherwise related or attributable to (x) any breach of this Agreement or of any representation or warranty contained in the Agreement, including the representations and warranties of any Highland Entity set forth in Section 13 or (y) any suits, proceedings, or other actions brought or prosecuted by or on behalf of, any Highland Releasor or that are induced, encouraged, assisted or directed by any Highland Releasor or brought or prosecuted in concert with any Highland Releasor against any HMIT Released Party with respect to or related to any Highland Entity Released Claims. Without in any manner limiting the scope of the foregoing, any Highland Entity that breaches Section 12 shall be liable to the HMIT Released Party against whom the applicable Action has been brought or prosecuted in violation of Section 12 for the reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred by such HMIT Released Party in defending against or otherwise responding to such Action. Each Highland Entity acknowledges and agrees that the Highland Entities are and shall be severally but not jointly liable for any Liability arising from or out of any breach of this Agreement or of any representation or warranty set forth in this Agreement.

17. Execution. This Agreement may be executed by the exchange of signatures by facsimile or by PDF attachment to an email transmittal and in counterparts, and if so executed, shall be fully executed when a counterpart has been executed and delivered by all Parties hereto through counsel. All counterparts taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement and shall be fully enforceable as such.

18. Bankruptcy Court Order. The allowance of the allowed HMIT Class 10 Interest pursuant to Section 4 is subject to the entry of the Bankruptcy Court Order. To that end, the Highland Entities shall file the 9019 Motion no later than five (5) Business Days after the Agreement Date. Each Party shall, and shall cause each of their respective Affiliates to, undertake any and all actions in compliance with applicable law to obtain the Bankruptcy Court Order as promptly as practicable, and without limiting the foregoing, if an Action is threatened or instituted by any Person opposing the 9019 Motion or otherwise challenging the validity or legality, or seeking to restrain the consummation, of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the Bankruptcy Court Order, each Party shall, and shall cause its respective Affiliates to, use their commercially reasonable best efforts to avoid, resist, resolve or, if necessary, and defend to effectuate this Agreement and consummate the transactions hereby. If the 9019 Motion is not approved by entry of the Bankruptcy Court Order or if the Bankruptcy Court Approval is precluded from becoming a Final Order, (a) there will be no affect on, adjustment to, or impairment of, in any way, the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement, and the other transactions contemplated hereby, all of which shall remain in full force and effect and (b) each Party shall, and shall cause its respective Affiliates to, use their best efforts to seek the allowance of the HMIT Class 10 Interest in a substantially similar amount and on substantially similar terms as set forth in Section 4 to the fullest extent possible so as to give effect to the original intent of the Parties as closely as possible.

19. Fees and Expenses. Whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated or the Bankruptcy Court Order is obtained, and except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, each Party will bear its respective fees, costs and expenses (including legal, accounting and other professional fees) incurred in connection with the preparation, negotiation, execution and performance of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, including with respect to each Party's respective obligations pursuant to Section 18. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any Party hereto brings an Action to enforce or interpret the terms and provisions of this Agreement, the prevailing Party in that Action shall be entitled to have and recover from the non-prevailing Party all such fees, costs and expenses (including all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees) as the prevailing Party may suffer or incur in the pursuit or defense of such action or proceeding.

20. Entire Agreement; No Other Representations. THIS AGREEMENT CONTAINS THE ENTIRE AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE PARTIES, AND NO RIGHTS ARE CREATED IN FAVOR OF ANY PERSON OTHER THAN AS SPECIFIED OR EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT. THERE ARE NO REPRESENTATIONS, CONDITIONS, WARRANTIES, STATEMENTS, OR UNDERSTANDINGS (COLLECTIVELY, "REPRESENTATIONS"), EITHER ORAL OR WRITTEN, BETWEEN THE PARTIES OTHER THAN THOSE EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT. THE PARTIES EXPRESSLY AGREE THAT THEY HAVE NOT BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY ANY REPRESENTATIONS NOT SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT; AND THE PARTIES EXPRESSLY AGREE THAT THEY HAVE NOT RELIED ON ANY REPRESENTATIONS NOT EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT. THE PARTIES EXPRESSLY AGREE THAT THEY ARE ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT RELYING SOLELY ON THEIR OWN JUDGMENT AND NOT ON ANY REPRESENTATIONS BY ANY PARTY, EXCEPT FOR THOSE REPRESENTATIONS

EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT. THE PARTIES AGREE THAT REPRESENTATIONS NOT EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT SHALL NOT BE USED IN THE INTERPRETATION OR CONSTRUCTION OF THIS AGREEMENT, AND NEITHER THE HMIT RELEASED PARTIES NOR THE HIGHLAND RELEASED PARTIES SHALL HAVE ANY LIABILITY FOR ANY CONSEQUENCES ARISING AS A RESULT OF ANY REPRESENTATIONS NOT SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT.

21. Agreement and Release Knowing and Voluntary. The Parties acknowledge that they have considered this Agreement with their respective attorneys and have carefully read this Agreement, that it has been fully explained by their attorneys, and that they have had a reasonable opportunity to consider this Agreement. The Parties further represent that they know and fully understand the contents of this Agreement, that they intend to be legally bound by this Agreement and the releases and covenants contained herein, and that they are signing this Agreement, including the release provisions herein, voluntarily and of their own free will and without coercion, and with the benefit of advice of counsel.

22. Cooperation. The Parties agree to perform any services or actions reasonably necessary to carry out the terms and conditions of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, including the execution and delivery of reasonable additional documents, instruments, conveyances and/or assurances, in good faith, and to reasonably communicate and cooperate with one another in this regard. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Section shall obligate the Highland Entities to assist the HMIT Entities in any way with respect to the Kirschner Claims, including the prosecution thereof.

23. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be construed pursuant to and governed by the laws of the State of Delaware (substantive and procedural) without reference to principles of conflicts of law that would result in the application of any other State's laws.

24. Jurisdiction/Venue. The Parties hereby irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction and venue of the Bankruptcy Court with respect to any Action arising out of or related to this Agreement or the subject matter hereof; if (and only if) the Bankruptcy Court lacks personal or subject matter jurisdiction to adjudicate an Action arising out of or related to this Agreement or the subject matter hereof, then the Parties irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction and venue of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas.

25. No Admissions. All Parties acknowledge and agree that the matters set forth in this Agreement constitute the settlement and compromise of disputed Claims and that this Agreement shall not constitute the admission of any fact or liability by any of them regarding any Claim, including the Claims released hereunder, and neither the terms hereof, nor the fact of this Agreement itself, shall be evidence of any kind in any Action, other than an Action to enforce the terms of the Agreement or any instrument executed in connection herewith or any claim for damages or other relief for breach of any representation or warranty contained herein or in any instrument executed in connection herewith.

26. Other Provisions.

(a) No representation, inducement, agreement, promise or understandings altering, modifying, amending, taking from or adding to, the terms and conditions hereof shall have any force or effect unless the same is in writing and validly executed by each of the Parties hereto.

(b) The waiver by any Party of any breach of, or default under, any provision of this Agreement shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach or default; provided, however, that for any such waiver to be enforceable, it shall be in writing and executed by the non-breaching Party.

(c) The headings contained in this Agreement are for convenience only and shall in no way restrict or otherwise affect the construction of the provisions hereof.

(d) The Parties shall each execute all documents and perform all acts necessary and proper to effectuate the terms of this Agreement.

Louis,

Please find attached a revised draft with just two clean-up changes as reflected in the Redline.

We have received verbal approval of the Claimant Trust's Oversight Board to proceed, and we are in the process of collecting signatures to the written consents of the Class 9 holders and the Oversight Board, and our internal signatures to the Settlement Agreement. If you could begin to do the same on your end, we will confirm once we are ready to exchange signature pages.

Thanks and please let us know if you have any questions or concerns.

Best,

John and Jeff,

Please see a final redline with wire instructions added, a bold of a WHEREAS, and references to payments being made by Wire Transfer. I did not add the Wire Transfer to the final distribution part because of the reference to "assets" versus payment and did not want to go into the body of the document to deal with that. Also the attached PDF (redlined against John's clean from yesterday) does not include the header clean up contained in the word version. We are prepared to execute this version. Mark will be out for a while today so just let us know if we can get his signatures or whether you have any further comments. Thank you.

All:

We have approvals on our side except UBS which is going through its process. I expect them to be done and approved on Monday.

John plans to circulate the 9019 tomorrow.

If we are set on the 9019 and get our last approval, we would like to release signatures and file the 9019 on Monday afternoon.

Thank you.

Good morning, Louis.

One of our Oversight Board members requested that paragraph 19 be modified to include all "Highland Released Parties."

While the issue is arguably addressed in Section 16(a), we see no harm and attach a proposed revision that is, of course, reciprocal.

Please let us know if this is acceptable. If so, we'll send a fully revised agreement.

Please also let us know if you have any comments on the draft Rule 9019 motion. If we can obtain UBS' consent tomorrow, we want to get this filed.

Thank you,

John

including any fact, matter, transaction, or occurrence asserted by any HMIT Entity in the Pending Litigation or in connection with, relating to, or with respect to the Bankruptcy Case, the management or operation of any of the Highland Released Parties, or the Highland Released Parties' property and including any defense, affirmative defenses, and right to setoff arising out of, or otherwise related to, any of the foregoing (collectively, the "HMIT Entity Released Claims").

10. General Release By The Highland Entities. On the Bankruptcy Court Approval Date, and to the maximum extent permitted by law, each of the Highland Entities, on behalf of itself and each of its respective Affiliates (including Affiliated and/or managed funds, accounts and other investment vehicles) and its or their respective current and former advisors, consultants, administrators, trustees, directors, officers, managers, executives, members, partners (including limited and general partners), employees, beneficiaries, direct and indirect shareholders and other equity holders, agents, participants, direct and indirect subsidiaries and parents, successors, predecessors, designees, and assigns (whether by operation of law or otherwise) and all Persons claiming through, under or on their behalf (collectively with the Highland Entities, the "Highland Releasors") hereby forever, finally, fully, unconditionally, and completely releases, relieves, acquits, discharges, remises, and exonerates each HMIT Released Party from, and waives and relinquishes, any and all Claims which the Highland Releasors, or any Person claiming through, under, or on behalf of any of the Highland Releasors, ever had, now has, or hereafter can, shall, or may have against any of the HMIT Released Parties by reason of, arising from, relating to, or in connection with, any fact, matter, or transaction that occurred prior to the Bankruptcy Court Approval Date, including any fact, matter, transaction, or occurrence in connection with, relating to, or with respect to the Bankruptcy Case, the management or operation of any of the HMIT Released Parties, or the HMIT Released Parties' property and including any defense, affirmative defenses, and right to setoff arising out of, or otherwise related to, any of the foregoing (collectively, the "Highland Released Claims").

11. Further Provisions Concerning The General Releases.

(a) FOR THE AVOIDANCE OF DOUBT, THE FOREGOING RELEASES ARE INTENDED TO BE GENERAL AND INCLUDE A RELEASE OF ALL RELEASED CLAIMS, WHETHER KNOWN OR UNKNOWN, SUSPECTED OR UNSUSPECTED, ARISING OR EXISTING FROM THE BEGINNING OF TIME THROUGH AND INCLUDING THE AGREEMENT DATE.

(b) To the maximum extent permitted by law, each of the HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, waives the benefit of any statute or other principle of law or equity that limits the applicability of a release with respect to Claims that the releasing party does not know or suspect to exist in his, her or its favor at the time of executing the release.

(c) Without limiting the scope of the foregoing waiver, in connection with the foregoing release, each of the HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on its own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, waives the benefits of Section 1542 of the California Civil Code (to the extent, if any, that Section 1542 might apply to the foregoing release), which provides as follows:

A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED PARTY.

Each of the HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, hereby agrees that the provisions of Section 1542 of the Civil Code of the State of California and all similar federal or state law, rights, rules or legal principles, legal or equitable, in each case solely to the extent such provisions apply, ARE HEREBY KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY WAIVED AND RELINQUISHED BY EACH OF THE HMIT ENTITIES AND THE HIGHLAND ENTITIES, ON THEIR OWN BEHALF AND ON BEHALF OF THE OTHER HMIT RELEASORS AND HIGHLAND RELEASORS, RESPECTIVELY, in each and every capacity, to the full extent that such rights and benefits pertaining to the matters released herein may be waived, and each of the HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, hereby agrees and acknowledges that this waiver and relinquishment is an essential term of this Agreement, without which the consideration provided would not have been given.

In connection with such waiver and relinquishment, each of the HMIT Entities and Highland Entities acknowledges that it is aware that it may hereafter discover Claims presently unknown or unsuspected, or facts in addition to or different from those which it now knows or believes to be true, with respect to the matters released herein. Nevertheless, it is the intent of each of the HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on its own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, in executing this Agreement fully, finally, and forever to settle and release all such matters, and all Claims related thereto, which exist, may exist or might have existed (whether or not previously or currently asserted in any action) which are the subject to the releases granted above.

(d) As an integral component of this Agreement, and notwithstanding the Parties' intent set forth in the preamble hereto and the general nature of the releases in Sections 9 and 10, should:

(i) any HMIT Releasor contend or assert that any Claim of any kind whatsoever held by any HMIT Releasor against any Highland Released Party survives this Agreement and is in any way related to or arising from or in connection with any HMIT Entity Released Claim (such claim or cause of action, a "HMIT Alleged Claim"), such HMIT Releasor will be deemed to have irrevocably, fully, and finally assigned such HMIT Alleged Claim to the Highland Entities and the Highland Entities will be deemed to have forever, finally, full, unconditionally, and irrevocably, and completely released such HMIT Alleged Claim.

(ii) any Highland Releasor contend or assert that any Claim of any kind whatsoever held by any Highland Releasor against any HMIT Released Party survives this Agreement and is in any way related to or arising from or in connection with any Highland Entity Released Claim (such claim or cause of action, a "Highland Alleged Claim"), such Highland

Releasor will be deemed to have irrevocably, fully, and finally assigned such Highland Alleged Claim to the HMIT Entities and the HMIT Entities will be deemed to have forever, finally, full, unconditionally, and irrevocably, and completely released such Highland Alleged Claim.

12. Covenant Not To Sue; Limitation on Standing. Upon the Agreement Date:

(a) Each of the HMIT Releasors covenants and agrees that it will not institute or prosecute any Action, in law, in equity or otherwise, against any of the Highland Released Parties, to recover, enforce, investigate, or collect any HMIT Entity Released Claim and will not (i) induce, encourage or direct any other Person to do so or (ii) act in concert with or assist (financially or otherwise) any other Person in doing so.

(b) Each of the Highland Releasors covenants and agrees that it will not institute or prosecute any Action, in law, in equity or otherwise, against any of the HMIT Released Parties, to recover, enforce, investigate, or collect any Highland Entity Released Claim and will not (i) induce, encourage or direct any other Person to do so or (ii) act in concert with or assist (financially or otherwise) any other Person in doing so.

(c) For the avoidance of doubt, this Agreement shall not operate to give any HMIT Entity standing for any purpose in connection with the Bankruptcy Case (or in connection with any appeal arising from any order entered by the Bankruptcy Court), except for the limited purpose of seeking Court approval of this Agreement (including with respect to any appeal concerning any order entered granting or denying such approval), and except for the limited purpose of enforcing this Agreement, no HMIT Entity shall commence any Action in connection with the HMIT Class 10 Interest.

13. Representations and Warranties.

(a) Each of the HMIT Entities hereby represents and warrants that every HMIT Entity Released Claim has not heretofore been assigned or encumbered and is not the subject of a transfer (as such term is defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(54)), by any HMIT Releasor.

(b) The HMIT Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors, acknowledge and agree that each Plan Provision is lawful, effective, and binding on the HMIT Releasors. The HMIT Entities further agree, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors, that the HMIT Releasors will never, in any way, challenge or seek to modify, nullify, vacate, or revoke, or induce, encourage or direct any other Person to do so or act in concert with or assist (financially or otherwise) any other Person in doing so the Confirmation Order, the Plan, the Plan Protections, or any Plan Document, including the Claimant Trust Agreement, the LPA, the Indemnity Trust Agreement or the Litigation Sub-Trust Agreement, in the Bankruptcy Court, in any other state or federal court, in any other forum or tribunal, or otherwise, including administrative or regulatory tribunals and foreign courts.

(c) Each of the Highland Entities hereby represents and warrants that every Highland Entity Released Claim has not heretofore been assigned or encumbered and is not the subject of a transfer (as such term is defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(54)), by any Highland Releasor.

(d) Each Party severally represents and warrants as to itself only that: (i) it has taken all necessary action to authorize and approve the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement; (ii) such Party has full power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement; and (iii) this Agreement constitutes a valid, legal and binding obligation of such Party, and is enforceable subject to its terms. Each individual signatory hereto individually warrants and represents to all Parties hereto that such individual has full power and authority to act on behalf of and bind the Party for which he or she has executed this Agreement; provided, however that no signatory shall otherwise provide any warranty or representation or otherwise be a party to this Agreement on an individual basis.

14. No Continuing Rights, Duties or Obligations. Except for the rights, duties, and obligations expressly set forth in this Agreement, all Rights and Obligations that existed or may have existed shall be deemed terminated, extinguished, and released upon the Agreement Date. For the avoidance of doubt, from and after the Agreement Date, (a) the Highland Released Parties, individually and collectively, shall owe no duty, past or present, including with respect to the Kirchner Claims, to the HMIT Released Parties, individually and collectively, whether contractual, fiduciary, equitable, statutory or otherwise, except as arising out of this Agreement, and (b) the HMIT Released Parties, individually and collectively, shall owe no duty to the Highland Released Parties, individually and collectively, whether contractual, fiduciary, equitable, statutory or otherwise, except as arising out of this Agreement.

15. Gatekeeper Standard.

(a) The HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, acknowledge and agree that, notwithstanding the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit's decision in Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors, L.P. v. Highland Capital Management, L.P., No. 23-10534 (5th Cir. Mar. 18, 2025), the "Gatekeeper" provisions contained in Highland's Original Plan is forever binding on each of the HMIT Entities and any Persons claiming through, under or on behalf of any of them, and for a claim or cause of action to be "colorable" for purposes of the Gatekeeper, it must be found by final order of the Bankruptcy Court (the "Gatekeeper Court"), which order shall be subject to appeal to a court of competent jurisdiction, to have satisfied the "Gatekeeper Colorability Test" as such term is defined in In re Highland Capital Management, L.P., 2023 Bankr. LEXIS 2104 at *124-36 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. Aug. 24, 2023).

(b) The HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, acknowledge and agree that compliance with the Gatekeeper requires (i) a motion seeking leave to sue an Exculpated Party (as that term is defined in Highland's original Plan) and a finding that the litigant's claims and causes of action are "colorable" attaching a complaint setting forth the basis for such claims or causes of action and (ii), in the Gatekeeper Court's sole discretion, an evidentiary hearing (during which the Gatekeeper Court may, among other things, hear testimony and assess the credibility of any witness(es)) to determine whether a proposed claim or cause of action is "colorable."

(c) The HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, further acknowledge and agree that the moving party under the Gatekeeper has the burden of satisfying the "Gatekeeper Colorability Test," and that the dismissal of the Pending Litigation shall have res judicata effect.

16. Indemnification.

(a) Without in any manner limiting the available remedies for any breach of this Agreement, the HMIT Entities, severally but not jointly, agree to indemnify, defend, and hold the Highland Released Parties harmless from and against any and all Liability, that may arise or result from or on account of, or that are otherwise related or attributable to (x) any breach of this Agreement or of any representation or warranty contained in the Agreement, including the representations and warranties of any HMIT Entity set forth in Section 13 or (y) any Actions brought or prosecuted by or on behalf of, any HMIT Releasor or that are induced, encouraged, assisted or directed by any HMIT Releasor or brought or prosecuted in concert with any HMIT Releasor against any Highland Released Party with respect to or related to any HMIT Entity Released Claims. Without limiting the scope of the foregoing in any manner, any HMIT Entity that breaches Section 12 shall be liable to the Highland Released Party against whom the applicable Action has been brought or prosecuted in violation of Section 12 for the reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred by such Highland Released Party in defending against or otherwise responding to such Action. Each HMIT Entity acknowledges and agrees that the HMIT Entities are and shall be severally but not jointly liable for any Liability arising from or out of any breach of this Agreement or of any representation or warranty set forth in this Agreement.

(b) Without in any manner limiting the available remedies for any breach of this Agreement, the Highland Entities, severally but not jointly, agree to indemnify, defend, and hold the HMIT Released Parties harmless from and against any and all Liability, that may arise or result from or on account of, or that are otherwise related or attributable to (x) any breach of this Agreement or of any representation or warranty contained in the Agreement, including the representations and warranties of any Highland Entity set forth in Section 13 or (y) any suits, proceedings, or other actions brought or prosecuted by or on behalf of, any Highland Releasor or that are induced, encouraged, assisted or directed by any Highland Releasor or brought or prosecuted in concert with any Highland Releasor against any HMIT Released Party with respect to or related to any Highland Entity Released Claims. Without in any manner limiting the scope of the foregoing, any Highland Entity that breaches Section 12 shall be liable to the HMIT Released Party against whom the applicable Action has been brought or prosecuted in violation of Section 12 for the reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred by such HMIT Released Party in defending against or otherwise responding to such Action. Each Highland Entity acknowledges and agrees that the Highland Entities are and shall be severally but not jointly liable for any Liability arising from or out of any breach of this Agreement or of any representation or warranty set forth in this Agreement.

17. Execution. This Agreement may be executed by the exchange of signatures by facsimile or by PDF attachment to an email transmittal and in counterparts, and if so executed, shall be fully executed when a counterpart has been executed and delivered by all Parties hereto through counsel. All counterparts taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement and shall be fully enforceable as such.

18. Bankruptcy Court Order. The allowance of the allowed HMIT Class 10 Interest pursuant to Section 4 is subject to the entry of the Bankruptcy Court Order. To that end, the Highland Entities shall file the 9019 Motion no later than five (5) Business Days after the Agreement Date. Each Party shall, and shall cause each of their respective Affiliates to, undertake any and all actions in compliance with applicable law to obtain the Bankruptcy Court Order as promptly as practicable, and without limiting the foregoing, if an Action is threatened or instituted by any Person opposing the 9019 Motion or otherwise challenging the validity or legality, or seeking to restrain the consummation, of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or the Bankruptcy Court Order, each Party shall, and shall cause its respective Affiliates to, use their commercially reasonable best efforts to avoid, resist, resolve or, if necessary, and defend to effectuate this Agreement and consummate the transactions hereby. If the 9019 Motion is not approved by entry of the Bankruptcy Court Order or if the Bankruptcy Court Approval is precluded from becoming a Final Order, (a) there will be no effect on, adjustment to, or impairment of, in any way, the validity and enforceability of the remainder of this Agreement, and the other transactions contemplated hereby, all of which shall remain in full force and effect and (b) each Party shall, and shall cause its respective Affiliates to, use their best efforts to seek the allowance of the HMIT Class 10 Interest in a substantially similar amount and on substantially similar terms as set forth in Section 4 to the fullest extent possible so as to give effect to the original intent of the Parties as closely as possible.

19. Fees and Expenses. Whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated or the Bankruptcy Court Order is obtained, and except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, each Party will bear its respective fees, costs and expenses (including legal, accounting and other professional fees) incurred in connection with the preparation, negotiation, execution and performance of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, including with respect to each Party's respective obligations pursuant to Section 18. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any Party hereto brings an Action to enforce or interpret the terms and provisions of this Agreement, the prevailing Party in that Action shall be entitled to have and recover from the non-prevailing Party all such fees, costs and expenses (including all court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees) as the prevailing Party may suffer or incur in the pursuit or defense of such action or proceeding.

20. Entire Agreement; No Other Representations. THIS AGREEMENT CONTAINS THE ENTIRE AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE PARTIES, AND NO RIGHTS ARE CREATED IN FAVOR OF ANY PERSON OTHER THAN AS SPECIFIED OR EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT. THERE ARE NO REPRESENTATIONS, CONDITIONS, WARRANTIES, STATEMENTS, OR UNDERSTANDINGS (COLLECTIVELY, "REPRESENTATIONS"), EITHER ORAL OR WRITTEN, BETWEEN THE PARTIES OTHER THAN THOSE EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT. THE PARTIES EXPRESSLY AGREE THAT THEY HAVE NOT BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY ANY REPRESENTATIONS NOT SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT; AND THE PARTIES EXPRESSLY AGREE THAT THEY HAVE NOT RELIED ON ANY REPRESENTATIONS NOT EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT. THE PARTIES EXPRESSLY AGREE THAT THEY ARE ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT RELYING SOLELY ON THEIR OWN JUDGMENT AND NOT ON ANY REPRESENTATIONS BY ANY PARTY, EXCEPT FOR THOSE REPRESENTATIONS

EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT. THE PARTIES AGREE THAT REPRESENTATIONS NOT EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT SHALL NOT BE USED IN THE INTERPRETATION OR CONSTRUCTION OF THIS AGREEMENT, AND NEITHER THE HMIT RELEASED PARTIES NOR THE HIGHLAND RELEASED PARTIES SHALL HAVE ANY LIABILITY FOR ANY CONSEQUENCES ARISING AS A RESULT OF ANY REPRESENTATIONS NOT SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT.

21. Agreement and Release Knowing and Voluntary. The Parties acknowledge that they have considered this Agreement with their respective attorneys and have carefully read this Agreement, that it has been fully explained by their attorneys, and that they have had a reasonable opportunity to consider this Agreement. The Parties further represent that they know and fully understand the contents of this Agreement, that they intend to be legally bound by this Agreement and the releases and covenants contained herein, and that they are signing this Agreement, including the release provisions herein, voluntarily and of their own free will and without coercion, and with the benefit of advice of counsel.

22. Cooperation. The Parties agree to perform any services or actions reasonably necessary to carry out the terms and conditions of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, including the execution and delivery of reasonable additional documents, instruments, conveyances and/or assurances, in good faith, and to reasonably communicate and cooperate with one another in this regard. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Section shall obligate the Highland Entities to assist the HMIT Entities in any way with respect to the Kirschner Claims, including the prosecution thereof.

23. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be construed pursuant to and governed by the laws of the State of Delaware (substantive and procedural) without reference to principles of conflicts of law that would result in the application of any other State's laws.

24. Jurisdiction/Venue. The Parties hereby irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction and venue of the Bankruptcy Court with respect to any Action arising out of or related to this Agreement or the subject matter hereof; if (and only if) the Bankruptcy Court lacks personal or subject matter jurisdiction to adjudicate an Action arising out of or related to this Agreement or the subject matter hereof, then the Parties irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction and venue of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas.

25. No Admissions. All Parties acknowledge and agree that the matters set forth in this Agreement constitute the settlement and compromise of disputed Claims and that this Agreement shall not constitute the admission of any fact or liability by any of them regarding any Claim, including the Claims released hereunder, and neither the terms hereof, nor the fact of this Agreement itself, shall be evidence of any kind in any Action, other than an Action to enforce the terms of the Agreement or any instrument executed in connection herewith or any claim for damages or other relief for breach of any representation or warranty contained herein or in any instrument executed in connection herewith.

26. Other Provisions.

(a) No representation, inducement, agreement, promise or understandings altering, modifying, amending, taking from or adding to, the terms and conditions hereof shall have any force or effect unless the same is in writing and validly executed by each of the Parties hereto.

(b) The waiver by any Party of any breach of, or default under, any provision of this Agreement shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach or default; provided, however, that for any such waiver to be enforceable, it shall be in writing and executed by the non-breaching Party.

(c) The headings contained in this Agreement are for convenience only and shall in no way restrict or otherwise affect the construction of the provisions hereof.

(d) The Parties shall each execute all documents and perform all acts necessary and proper to effectuate the terms of this Agreement.

27. Notices. All notices required or permitted to be provided hereunder shall be afforded to the respective parties to and through their counsel, and shall be transmitted simultaneously by electronic mail (with PDF attachments, as necessary) and by telefax, addressed as follows:

28. Severability. Should any term, provision or paragraph of this Agreement be determined to be illegal or void or of no force and effect, the balance of the Agreement shall survive. Thank you. Can I roll forward the dates on the signature pages to May 19?

We are planning on filing a version of the settlement agreement with /s/ signatures rather than formal signatures. We'll still have a version with actual signatures that I'll circulate once everyone is released.

Jim,

Louis sent back a signed NDA.

There is at least one change (the deletion of the word "Dugaboy" from item 3 of Exhibit A, which is fine), but he didn't send a black line so I'm trying to confirm there is nothing else.

If anyone knows how to compare, please do so.

But send me the signed version in the meantime at your convenience.

Also, it might make sense to dust off the "litigation protections" and conform them to the Patrick parties. Please let me know if you and Tim want to handle that or if you want us to do so; I'm not sure when we present them to Louis, but we should be prepared.

I'll be available to talk between 11:30 and 5 pm today.

Chat soon,

John

Highland and the Recipients are sometimes referred to herein individually as a "Party" and collectively as the "Parties."

Recitals

WHEREAS, Mr. Patrick hereby represents and warrants that he is a control person for each of Hunter Mountain, the DAF Entities and the Rand Entities;

WHEREAS, there are several active litigations to which Highland or one of its affiliates, on the one hand, and one or more of the Recipients, on the other hand, are parties, including, without limitation, the matters set forth on Exhibit A hereto (collectively, the "Pending Litigations");

WHEREAS, the Parties desire to enter into good faith settlement discussions in an effort to reach a mutually acceptable global resolution to the Pending Litigations and all potential claims and causes of action against each other (the "Potential Settlement");

WHEREAS, in connection with negotiating the Potential Settlement, it is anticipated that Highland will provide the Recipients with certain Confidential Information (as hereinafter defined); and

WHEREAS, as a condition to Highland providing Recipients with any such Confidential Information, the Recipients agree to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement.

Agreement

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged and agreed, the Parties, intending to be legally bound, hereby agree as follows:

1. Representations and Warranties

(a) Each Party hereby represents and warrants to the other Parties as follows:

(i) Existence and Good Standing. Such Party is a legal entity duly organized, validly existing and, to the extent applicable in such jurisdiction, in good standing under the Laws (as hereinafter defined) of the jurisdiction in which it is incorporated or formed. Such Party has all requisite corporate or similar right, power, authority and capacity to own, lease and operate the properties and assets it owns, leases and operates. Each Party is qualified to do business as a foreign entity in each jurisdiction in which its ownership of property or the conduct of its business as now conducted requires it to qualify.

(ii) Authority; Enforceability. Such Party has the full power and authority to execute this Agreement and to perform its obligations under this Agreement. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement have been duly and validly authorized by all required action on behalf of such Party in accordance with its respective Organizational Documents (as hereinafter defined) and applicable Law. This Agreement constitute the valid and binding obligations of, and enforceable against, such Party.

(iii) No Violations. The execution and delivery by such Party of this Agreement, the performance and compliance with the terms and conditions hereof and thereof by such Party, and the performance by such Parent of its obligations contemplated hereby, in each case, will not (with or without notice or passage of time, or both):

(1) violate, conflict with, result in a breach of or constitute a default under any of the provisions of the Organizational Documents of such Party; or

(2) breach, violate or conflict with any provision of any Law or Permit applicable to such Party.

(iv) Legal Proceedings. There are no judicial, administrative or arbitral actions, suits, hearings, inquiries, charges, investigations, administrative proceedings, grievances or formal complaints or other proceedings (public or private) commenced, brought, conducted or heard before, or otherwise involving, any Governmental Entity or arbitrator, in each case, pending nor threatened that (i) challenge the validity or enforceability of Party's obligations under this Agreement or (b) seek to prevent or delay, or otherwise would reasonably be expected to adversely affect, the performance by such Party of its obligations hereunder.

(b) Each Recipient hereby represents and warrants to Highland as follows:

(i) None of James Dondero, nor any Person directly or indirectly owned or controlled by Mr. Dondero (including, without limitation, Dugaboy Investment Trust) nor or any attorney, agent, employee, or representative engaged or working for benefit of Mr. Dondero nor any Person directly or indirectly owned or controlled by him (collectively, the "Dondero Related Parties") directly or indirectly owns any interest in, or directly or indirectly has any control over, such Recipient, including, without limitation, as the result of any written or oral contract, agreement, arrangement or obligation.

(ii) Such Recipient does not represent and is not acting on behalf of any Dondero Related Party.

(iii) Such Recipient has no duty or obligation to provide any Confidential Information to any Person not a party to this Agreement, whether through a common or joint interest agreement or otherwise, and is not representing or acting on behalf of any Person with such a duty or obligation.

2. Confidential and Proprietary Nature of the Information

Recipients acknowledge the confidential and proprietary nature of the Confidential Information, agree to hold and keep the Confidential Information in strict confidence as provided in this Agreement, agree that the use of any such Confidential Information is expressly limited to the pursuit of a Potential Settlement and shall not be used for any other purpose or in any other manner except as expressly provided in this Agreement, and otherwise agree to each and every restriction and obligation in this Agreement.

3. Confidential Information

As used in this Agreement, the term "Confidential Information" means and includes (a) any and all of the following items that will be disclosed to any Recipient or any of their respective Representatives (as hereinafter defined) by or on behalf of Highland, whether orally or in writing and without regard to whether Highland has specifically designated such item as confidential, proprietary or non-public: any and all confidential, proprietary or non-public information concerning the business or affairs of Highland or any of its affiliates or related accounts, or other Persons (as hereinafter defined) (which includes, for the avoidance of doubt and without limitation, Highland Claimant Trust, Highland Litigation Sub-Trust, Highland Indemnity Trust, each of their and Highland's direct and indirect subsidiaries, and each of their respective affiliates, and its and their respective parent entities, beneficiaries, members, shareholders, owners, creditors, trustees, oversight boards, directors, managers, officers, employees, agents, advisors and representatives (collectively, the "Highland Related Parties")), including, without limitation, any written or oral information, reports and data concerning financial statements, assets, liabilities, indemnity and other obligations, cash flow, income, and expenses; past, current or planned investment or portfolio information; contracts and agreements; know-how, inventions and ideas, whether past, current or planned; partner, beneficiary, owner or investor lists; partner, beneficiary, owner or investor information; business plans; entity structure details; all compliance-related reports, records and information; and any other information, however documented, that is proprietary or non-public or is a trade secret within the meaning of applicable state trade secret Law, and (b) any and all statements or representations made in the course of discussing, negotiating or evaluating a Potential Settlement, including, without limitation, the terms of any Potential Settlement and the fact that (i) Confidential Information has been disclosed to Recipient and (ii) any discussions or negotiations are taking place concerning a Potential Settlement.

To the extent that any Confidential Information includes information or materials subject to the attorney-client privilege, work-product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege concerning pending or threatened legal proceedings or governmental investigations, the Parties understand and agree that they have a commonality of interest with respect to such matters, and it is their desire, intention, and mutual understanding that the sharing of such information or materials is not intended to, and shall not, waive or diminish in any way the confidentiality of such information or material or its continued protection under the attorney-client privilege, work-product doctrine, or other applicable privilege. Accordingly, all Confidential Information disclosed by or on behalf of Highland that is entitled to protection under the attorney-client privilege, work-product doctrine, or other applicable privilege shall remain entitled to such protection under these privileges and this Agreement.

4. Restricted Use of Confidential Information

Recipients agree that the Confidential Information (a) shall be kept strictly confidential by each Recipient and (b) without limiting the foregoing, shall not be disclosed by or on behalf of any Recipient to any Person (as hereinafter defined) except as otherwise expressly permitted by this Agreement. It is understood and the Recipients agree that Confidential Information may only be disclosed to Mr. Patrick and such specific legal counsel, accountants and financial advisors of the Recipients to whom such disclosure has been consented to in writing by Highland in its sole discretion (which consent may be given via email) (collectively "Representatives") and who (i) require such Confidential Information for the purpose of evaluating, negotiating or consummating a Proposed Settlement (ii) are informed by Recipient of the confidential nature of the Confidential Information and the obligations set forth in this Agreement, and (iii) execute a written joinder in the form annexed hereto as Exhibit B pursuant to which the Representative agrees to be bound to this Agreement as if they were an original Party hereto, with such joinder including, without limitation, a representation and warranty that such Representative (1) does not currently represent any Dondero Related Party and (2) has no duty or obligation to provide any Confidential Information to any Person not a party to this Agreement, whether through a common or joint interest agreement or otherwise, and does not represent any Person with such a duty or obligation. Recipients further agree that Recipients and their Representatives shall not use any of the Confidential Information to the detriment of Highland or any Highland Related Party or for any reason or purpose other than evaluating, negotiating or consummating a Proposed Settlement. Recipients shall enforce this Agreement as to its Representatives and take such action, legal or otherwise, to the extent necessary to cause them to comply with this Agreement and thereby prevent any disclosure of Confidential Information by any of its Representatives (including, without limitation, all actions that any Recipient would take to protect its own confidential information).

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing and for the avoidance of doubt, the Recipients and their Representatives shall not disclose or refer to any Confidential Information to (a) subject to Section 5 below, any Governmental Entity (as hereinafter defined), including, without limitation, in any pleadings or submissions, or (b) any Dondero Related Party. The Parties acknowledge that it is their collective intent that no Confidential Information disclosed hereunder may be examined in any proceeding of a Governmental Entity (or any discovery relating to any such proceeding), and all Confidential Information shall be entitled to all protections applicable under Federal Rule of Evidence 408 and any other protections afforded to settlement and compromise communications under any other applicable Law.

5. Legally Compelled Disclosure

If any Recipient or any of its Representatives becomes compelled by Law (whether by oral questions, interrogatories, requests for information or documents, subpoena, civil or criminal investigative demand, or similar process) to make any disclosure that is prohibited or otherwise constrained by this Agreement, such Recipient or its Representative, as the case may be, shall provide Highland with immediate notice of such legal proceedings, including all related documentation, so Highland may (a) seek an appropriate protective order or other appropriate relief, or (b) waive compliance with the provisions of this Agreement. In the absence of a protective order or Recipients receiving a written waiver from Highland, Recipients or their Representatives are permitted (with Highland's cooperation but at Recipient's expense) to disclose that portion (and only that portion) of the Confidential Information that Recipient or its Representative is legally compelled by an order of an applicable Governmental Entity of competent jurisdiction to disclose; provided, however, that Recipient and its Representatives must use best efforts to obtain reliable assurance that confidential treatment will be accorded by any Person to whom any Confidential Information is so disclosed.

6. Return or Destruction of Confidential Information

If Highland notifies Recipients that it wishes Recipients to return all Confidential Information, then Recipients (i) shall promptly deliver to Highland all documents or other materials disclosed by or on behalf of Highland to Recipient or its Representatives constituting Confidential Information, together with all copies and summaries thereof in the possession or under the control of Recipients or their Representatives, and (ii) will destroy materials generated by Recipients or their Representatives that include or refer to any part of the Confidential Information, without retaining any copies, including, without limitation, any electronically stored copies or attachments to emails, of any such documents or materials. Written notice of return or destruction shall constitute a valid termination of access to Confidential Information and shall be deemed to have been given at the time Highland sends such notice. Such notice may be sent in any manner reasonably calculated to notify Recipients of the termination.

7. No Obligation to Negotiate a Potential Settlement

None of the Parties shall have rights or obligations of any kind whatsoever with respect to any Potential Settlement by virtue of this Agreement other than for the matters specifically agreed to herein. Without limiting the preceding sentence, nothing in this Agreement requires any Party to enter into any Potential Settlement or to negotiate the same for any specified period of time or on any specific terms.

8. No Representations or Warranties

Highland shall have no obligation to provide any information—confidential or otherwise—to the Recipients and retains the right to determine, in its sole discretion, what information, if any, it wishes to make available to Recipients, and neither Highland nor any Highland Related Party makes any representation or warranty (express or implied) concerning the completeness or accuracy of the Confidential Information.

9. Miscellaneous

(a) Modification. This Agreement may only be modified or waived by a separate writing signed by the Party or Parties expressly modifying or waiving this Agreement.

(b) Waiver. Neither the failure nor any delay by any Party in exercising any right, power, or privilege under this Agreement will operate as a waiver of such right, power, or privilege, and no single or partial exercise of any such right, power, or privilege will preclude any other or further exercise of such right, power, or privilege or the exercise of any other right, power, or privilege.

(c) Certain Definitions.

(i) The term "Governmental Entity" means any federal, national, state, foreign, provincial, local or other government or any governmental, regulatory, administrative or self-regulatory authority, agency, bureau, board, commission, court, judicial or arbitral body, department, political subdivision, tribunal or other instrumentality thereof, including any fiscal intermediary or administrative contractor acting on behalf of any of the foregoing.

(ii) The term "Law" means any law, rule, regulation, statute, code, ordinance, decree or other restriction of any Governmental Entity or any order, injunction, judgment, decree, ruling, writ, assessment or award of a Governmental Entity.

(iii) The term "Organizational Documents" means certificates of incorporation, bylaws, certificates of formation, certificates of trust, limited liability company agreements, limited liability partnership agreements, partnership or limited partnership agreements, trust agreements or other similar formation or governing documents of any Person, in each case, as amended, restated or otherwise modified to date.

(iv) The term "Person" means any individual, corporation (including any non-profit corporation), general or limited partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, estate, trust, association, organization, labor union, any other business entity, or a Governmental Entity.

(d) Severability. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provisions of this Agreement, which shall remain in full force and effect. If any of the terms, covenants or provisions of this Agreement are determined to be unenforceable by reason of its extent, duration, scope or otherwise, then the Parties contemplate and intend that the authority making such determination shall reduce such extent, duration, scope or other provision and enforce them in their reduced form for all purposes contemplated by this Agreement.

(e) Breach. Recipients agree that Highland will be irreparably injured by a breach of this Agreement by any Recipient or its Representatives, that monetary remedies will be inadequate to protect Highland against any actual or threatened breach of this Agreement by any Recipient or by its Representatives, and that Highland shall be entitled to an injunction or other equitable relief as a remedy for any breach as a matter of right and without the necessity of having to post a bond. Such remedy shall not be deemed to be the exclusive remedy for a breach of this Agreement, but shall be in addition to all other remedies available at law or equity. The non-prevailing Party shall pay the other Party's costs and expenses in any action to enforce the terms of this Agreement.

(f) Liability and Indemnity. Recipients shall, jointly and severally, be liable to and shall indemnify and hold Highland and the Highland Related Parties harmless from and against any and all claims, suits, losses, damages, costs or expenses, including reasonable attorney fees, incurred or suffered by Highland or any Highland Related Party as a result of any Recipient or its Representatives violation of this Agreement, including, without limitation, using or disclosing any Confidential Information other than in accordance with this Agreement, whether such use or disclosure is performed negligently or otherwise.

(g) Notices. All notices, requests, demands, claims, and other communications hereunder shall be in writing. Any notice, request, demand, claim or other communication hereunder shall be deemed duly delivered: (a) four (4) business days after it is sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid; (b) one (1) business day after it is sent for next business day delivery via a reputable nationwide overnight courier service; (c) when sent, if emailed on a business day; and (d) the next business day following the day on which the email is sent if emailed on a day that is not a business day, in each case to the intended recipient as set forth below:

(h) Governing Law; Jurisdiction. This Agreement shall be interpreted and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to conflict of laws provisions. Each Party hereby irrevocably submits and acknowledges and recognizes the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas, Dallas Division (which court, for purposes of this Agreement, is the only court of competent jurisdiction), over any suit, action or other proceeding arising out of, under or in connection with this Agreement or its subject matter. Signatures of the Parties transmitted by email shall be deemed to be their original signatures for any purpose whatsoever.

(j) Headings. The headings of the sections of this Agreement are inserted for convenience of reference only and shall not control or affect the meaning or construction of any of the terms of this Agreement in any manner.

(k) Construction. This Agreement has been fully negotiated by the Parties. Accordingly, in interpreting this Agreement, no weight shall be placed on which Party to this Agreement or its counsel drafted the provision being interpreted.

Louis:

I'm writing to follow up on several things.

1. Litigation Protections. Attached are the "Litigation Protections" I mentioned. They are still subject to review and material change but wanted to share them now.

2. Follow up information. It sounds like yesterday's Zoom meeting was helpful. Please let us know if there is any other information your clients need to assess the situation.

3. HCMLP's diligence. We'll have some questions on our end, but for now, please send us the Remittance Agreement referred to in the Intercreditor Agreement.

4. Joinder signature. For completeness, please send us Shawn's signature page.

5. Preliminary terms/structure. We hope to provide over the weekend a set of bullet points concerning possible terms and structure of an agreement.

6. Further meeting. Some or all of us are prepared to meet in Dallas on Tuesday at a time to be determined (some may participate by Zoom). Please let us know if that is possible as soon as you're able so we can make travel arrangements.

Please let me know if you have any questions and thank you for your continued cooperation.

John

Upon the Effective Date, and to the maximum extent permitted by law, each of the DAF/HMIT Entities[1] on behalf of himself, herself, or itself and each of its respective current or former advisors, trustees, directors, officers, managers, members, partners (including limited and general partners), employees, beneficiaries, direct and indirect shareholders and other equity holders, agents, participants, direct and indirect subsidiaries and parents, affiliates (including affiliated and/or controlled funds and other investment vehicles), successors, predecessors, designees, and assigns (whether by operation of law or otherwise) (collectively with the DAF/HMIT Entities, the "DAF/HMIT Releasors") hereby forever, finally, fully, unconditionally, and completely releases, relieves, acquits, discharges, remises, and exonerates each Highland Released Party from, and waives and relinquishes, any and all Claims, which the DAF/HMIT Releasors, or any person or entity claiming through, under, or on behalf of any of the DAF/HMIT Releasors, ever had, now has, or hereafter can, shall, or may have against any of the Highland Released Parties by reason of, arising from, relating to, or in connection with, any fact, matter, or transaction that occurred prior to the Effective Date, including any fact, matter, transaction, or occurrence in connection with, relating to, or with respect to the Bankruptcy Case, the management of the Highland Entities, or the Highland Entities' property and including any defense, affirmative defenses, and right to setoff arising out of, or otherwise related to, any of the foregoing (collectively, the "DAF/HMIT Entity Released Claims").

Upon the Effective Date, and to the maximum extent permitted by law, each of the Highland Entities on behalf of itself and each of its respective current or former advisors, trustees, directors, officers, managers, members, partners (including limited and general partners), employees, beneficiaries, direct and indirect shareholders and other equity holders, agents, participants, direct and indirect subsidiaries and parents, affiliates (including affiliated and/or controlled funds and other investment vehicles), successors, predecessors, designees, and assigns (whether by operation of law or otherwise) in each case from and including August 11, 2021 (collectively with the Highland Entities, the "Highland Releasors") hereby forever, finally, fully, unconditionally, and completely releases, relieves, acquits, discharges, remises, and exonerates each DAF/HMIT Released Party from, and waives and relinquishes, any and all Claims, which the Highland Releasors, or any person or entity claiming through, under, or on behalf of any of the Highland Releasors, ever had, now has, or hereafter can, shall, or may have against any of the DAF/HMIT

[1] The "DAF/HMIT Entities" means, individually and collectively, Mr. Mark Patrick, Mr. Shawn Raver, Mr. Paul Murphy, Hunter Mountain Investment Trust, a Delaware statutory trust, Beacon Mountain LLC, a Delaware limited liability compay, Charitable DAF Holdco, Ltd., a Cayman Islands exempted company, CDH GP, Ltd., a Cayman Islands exempted company, Charitable DAF Fund, L.P., a Cayman Islands exempted limited partnership, Liberty CLO Holdco, Ltd, [a Cayman Islands, exempted company], and CLO Holdco, Ltd., a Cayman Islands exempted company, Rand Advisors, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, Rand PE Fund I, LP, a Delaware series limited partnership, Rand PE Fund Management, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, Atlas IDF, LP, a Delaware limited partnership, and Atlas IDF GP, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company.

Released Parties by reason of, arising from, relating to, or in connection with, any fact, matter, or transaction that occurred prior to the Effective Date, including any fact, matter, transaction, or occurrence in connection with, relating to, or with respect to the Bankruptcy Case, the management of the Highland Entities, or the Highland Entities' property and including any defense, affirmative defenses, and right to setoff arising out of, or otherwise related to, any of the foregoing (collectively, the "Highland Entity Released Claims" and together with the DAF/HMIT Entity Released Claims, the "Released Claims"). Notwithstanding the forgoing, "Highland Releasors" does not include James Dondero, Scott Ellington, Isaac Leventon, or any entity directly or indirectly owned (in whole or in part) and/or controlled by Mr. Dondero or Mr. Ellington or Mr. Leventon.

FOR THE AVOIDANCE OF DOUBT, THE FOREGOING RELEASE IS INTENDED TO BE GENERAL AND INCLUDES, WITHOUT LIMITATION, A RELEASE OF ALL RELEASED CLAIMS, WHETHER KNOWN OR UNKNOWN, SUSPECTED OR UNSUSPECTED, ARISING OR EXISTING FROM THE BEGINNING OF TIME THROUGH AND INCLUDING THE EFFECTIVE DATE.

To the maximum extent permitted by law, each of the DAF/HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other DAF/HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, waives the benefit of any statute or other principle of law or equity that limits the applicability of a release with respect to claims that the releasing party does not know or suspect to exist in his, her or its favor at the time of executing the release.

Without limiting the scope of the foregoing waiver, in connection with the foregoing release, each of the DAF/HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other DAF/HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, waive the benefits of Section 1542 of the California Civil Code (to the extent, if any, that Section 1542 might apply to the foregoing release), which provides as follows:

> A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED PARTY.

Each of the DAF/HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other DAF/HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, hereby agrees that the provisions of Section 1542 of the Civil Code of the State of California and all similar federal or state law, rights, rules or legal principles, legal or equitable, in each case solely to the extent such provisions apply, ARE HEREBY KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY WAIVED AND RELINQUISHED BY EACH OF THE DAF/HMIT ENTITIES AND THE HIGHLAND ENTITIES, ON THEIR OWN BEHALF AND ON BEHALF OF THE OTHER DAF/HMIT RELEASORS AND HIGHLAND RELEASORS, RESPECTIVELY, in each and every capacity, to the full extent that such rights and benefits pertaining to the matters released herein may be waived, and each of the DAF/HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other DAF/HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, hereby agrees and acknowledges that this waiver and relinquishment is an essential term of this Agreement, without which the consideration provided would not have been given.

In connection with such waiver and relinquishment, each of the DAF/HMIT Entities and Highland Entities acknowledges that it is aware that it may hereafter discover claims presently unknown or unsuspected, or facts in addition to or different from those which it now knows or believes to be true, with respect to the matters released herein. Nevertheless, it is the intent of each of the DAF/HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities in executing this Agreement fully, finally, and forever to settle and release all such matters, and all claims related thereto, which exist, may exist or might have existed (whether or not previously or currently asserted in any action) which are the subject to the releases granted above.

As an integral component of this Agreement, and notwithstanding the Parties' intent set forth in the preamble hereto and the general nature of the releases in Section [_] hereof, should:

(a) any DAF/HMIT Releasor contend or assert that any Claim of any kind whatsoever held by any DAF/HMIT Releasor against any Highland Released Party survives this Agreement and is in any way related to or arising from or in connection with any DAF/HMIT Entity Released Claim (such claim or cause of action, a "Patrick Alleged Claim"), such DAF/HMIT Releasor will be deemed to have irrevocably, fully, and finally assigned such Patrick Alleged Claim to the Highland Claimant Trust and the Highland Claimant Trust will be deemed to have forever, finally, full, unconditionally, and irrevocably, and completely released such Patrick Alleged Claim.

(b) any Highland Releasor contend or assert that any Claim of any kind whatsoever held by any Highland Releasor against any DAF/HMIT Released Party survives this Agreement and is in any way related to or arising from or in connection with any Highland Entity Released Claim (such claim or cause of action, a "Highland Alleged Claim"), such Highland Releasor will be deemed to have irrevocably, fully, and finally assigned such Highland Alleged Claim to Mr. Mark Patrick and Mr. Mark Patrick will be deemed to have forever, finally, full, unconditionally, and irrevocably, and completely released such Highland Alleged Claim.

THIS AGREEMENT CONTAINS THE ENTIRE AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE PARTIES, AND NO RIGHTS ARE CREATED IN FAVOR OF EITHER PARTY OTHER THAN AS SPECIFIED OR EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT. THERE ARE NO REPRESENTATIONS, CONDITIONS, WARRANTIES, STATEMENTS, OR UNDERSTANDINGS (COLLECTIVELY, "REPRESENTATIONS"), EITHER ORAL OR WRITTEN, BETWEEN THE PARTIES OTHER THAN THOSE EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT. THE PARTIES EXPRESSLY AGREE THAT THEY HAVE NOT BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY ANY REPRESENTATIONS NOT SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT; AND THE PARTIES EXPRESSLY AGREE THAT THEY HAVE NOT RELIED ON ANY REPRESENTATIONS NOT EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT. THE PARTIES EXPRESSLY AGREE THAT THEY ARE ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT RELYING SOLELY ON THEIR OWN JUDGMENT AND NOT ON ANY REPRESENTATIONS BY ANY PARTY, EXCEPT FOR THOSE REPRESENTATIONS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT. THE PARTIES AGREE THAT REPRESENTATIONS NOT EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT SHALL NOT BE USED IN THE INTERPRETATION OR CONSTRUCTION OF THIS AGREEMENT, AND NEITHER THE DAF/HMIT RELEASED PARTIES NOR THE HIGHLAND RELEASED PARTIES SHALL HAVE ANY LIABILITY FOR ANY CONSEQUENCES ARISING AS A RESULT OF ANY REPRESENTATIONS NOT SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT.

(b) each of the Highland Releasors covenants and agrees that it will not institute or prosecute any action, suit, or proceeding, in law, in equity or otherwise, against any of the DAF/HMIT Released Parties, to recover, enforce, or collect any Highland Entity Released Claim and will not (i) induce, encourage or direct any other party to do so or (ii) act in concert with or assist (financially or otherwise) any other party in doing so.

(c) For the avoidance of doubt, (i) except for the limited purpose of seeking Court approval of this Agreement (including with respect to any appeal concerning any order entered granting or denying such approval), no DAF/HMIT Entity shall file any pleading, motion, adversary proceeding, or other paper in the Bankruptcy Case (or in connection with any appeal arising from any order entered by the Bankruptcy Court expect with respect to any order granting or denying the motion to approve this Settlement), including but not limited to, in connection with HMIT's status as a holder of a Class 10 interest; and (ii) this Agreement shall not operate to give any Patrick Party standing for any purpose in connection with the Bankruptcy Case (or in connection with any appeal arising from any order entered by the Bankruptcy Court), except for the limited purpose of seeking Court approval of this Agreement (including with respect to any appeal concerning any order entered granting or denying such approval).

NO PRIOR ASSIGNMENT OF CLAIMS

Each of the DAF/HMIT Entities hereby represents and warrants that every DAF/HMIT Entity Released Claim has not heretofore been assigned or encumbered, and is not the subject of a transfer (as such term is defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(54)), by any DAF/HMIT Releasor.

Each of the Highland Entities hereby represents and warrants that every Highland Entity Released Claim has not heretofore been assigned or encumbered, and is not the subject of a transfer (as such term is defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(54)), by any Highland Releasor.

Within two Business Days following the Effective Date, the DAF/HMIT Entities will dismiss, or cause to be dismissed, with prejudice any action, suit, or proceeding, in law, in equity or otherwise, or withdraw, or cause to be withdrawn, with prejudice any claim or cause of action against, affecting, or related to any Released Party or any DAF/HMIT Entity Released Claim, including (i) *Charitable DAF Fund v. The Highland Entities, individually and collectively, shall owe no duty to the DAF/HMIT Entities, individually and collectively, whether contractual, fiduciary, equitable, statutory or otherwise, except as arising out of this Agreement.

GATEKEEPER STANDARD

The DAF/HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other DAF/HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, acknowledge and agree that, notwithstanding the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit's decision in Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors, L.P. v. Highland Capital Management, L.P., No. 23-10534 (5th Cir. Mar. 18, 2025), the "Gatekeeper" provisions contained in Highland's Original Plan is forever binding on each of the DAF/HMIT Entities and for a claim or cause of action to be "colorable" for purposes of the Gatekeeper, it must be found by final order of the Bankruptcy Court (the "Gatekeeper Court"), which order shall be subject to appeal to a court of competent jurisdiction, to have satisfied the "Gatekeeper Colorability Test" as such term is defined in In re Highland Capital Management, L.P., 2023 Bankr. LEXIS 2104 at *124-36 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. Aug. 24, 2023).

The DAF/HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other DAF/HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, acknowledge and agree that compliance with the Gatekeeper requires (i) a motion seeking leave to sue an Exculpated Party (as that term is defined in Highland's Original Plan) and a finding that the litigant's claims and causes of action are "colorable" attaching a complaint setting forth the basis for such claims or causes of action and (ii), in the Gatekeeper Court's sole discretion, an evidentiary hearing (during which the Gatekeeper Court may, among other things, hear testimony and assess the credibility of any witness(es)) to determine whether a proposed claim or cause of action is "colorable."

The DAF/HMIT Entities and the Highland Entities, on their own behalf and on behalf of the other DAF/HMIT Releasors and Highland Releasors, respectively, further acknowledge and agree that the moving party under the Gatekeeper has the burden of satisfying the "Gatekeeper Colorability Test."

INDEMNIFICATION

Without in any manner limiting the available remedies for any breach of this Agreement, the DAF/HMIT Entities, severally but not jointly, agree to indemnify, defend, and hold the Highland Released Parties harmless from and against any and all liability, actions, claims, demands, liens, losses, damages, judgments, and expenses, including attorneys' fees and costs, that may arise or result from or on account of, or that are otherwise related or attributable to (x) any breach of this Agreement or of any representation or warranty contained in the Agreement, including the representations and warranties set forth in [NON-ASSIGNMENT PROVISION] or (y) any suits, proceedings, or other actions brought or prosecuted by or on behalf of, any DAF/HMIT Releasor or that are induced, encouraged, assisted or directed by any DAF/HMIT Releasor or brought or prosecuted in concert with any DAF/HMIT Releasor against any Highland Released Party with respect to or related to any DAF/HMIT Entity Released Claims. Each DAF/HMIT Entity acknowledges and agrees that the DAF/HMIT Entities are and shall be severally but not jointly liable for any costs, liabilities, or damages arising from or out of any breach of this Agreement or of any representation or warranty set forth in this Agreement as set forth in this Section [_].

Without in any manner limiting the available remedies for any breach of this Agreement, the Highland Entities, severally but not jointly, agree to indemnify, defend, and hold the DAF/HMIT Released Parties harmless from and against any and all liability, actions, claims, demands, liens, losses, damages, judgments, and expenses, including attorneys' fees and costs, that may arise or result from or on account of, or that are otherwise related or attributable to (x) any breach of this Agreement or of any representation or warranty contained in the Agreement, including the representations and warranties set forth in [NON-ASSIGNMENT PROVISION] or (y) any suits, proceedings, or other actions brought or prosecuted by or on behalf of, any Highland Releasor or that are induced, encouraged, assisted or directed by any Highland Releasor or brought or prosecuted in concert with any Highland Releasor against any DAF/HMIT Released Party with respect to or related to any Highland Entity Released Claims. Louis,

Following up.

1. Meeting. We propose that the business folks (including Mark and Jim) meet in person at Highland's offices at 10:30 am Central Time tomorrow (casual dress, no suits), with lawyers participating by Zoom; if you want to attend in person, Jeff may attend in person as well so let me know (I am unable to attend in person because of other commitments).

2. DAF/HMIT information request. During tomorrow's meeting, Highland will provide the information requested below (and can quickly walk through the same information that was presented the other day for your benefit if that would be helpful).

3. Highland information request. As requested, please provide a copy of the Remittance Agreement referred to in the Intercreditor Agreement and share with us any other agreements or information concerning any current or former connection between DAF/CLOH/HMIT and Dondero/Okada/Dugaboy, including the funding of the HMIT litigation (that Mark testified to in June 2023) and the disposition of the HMIT Notes made in favor of Dugaboy and Okada. We just need to know how any agreement may impact the Dondero side, if at all.

4. NDA signatures. Please let us know who will be participating on your side and send any Joinders not previously sent (I'm not sure we received one for you and Amelia).

We look forward to your prompt response.

Regards,

John

John,

As I mentioned on the phone Friday, we request a breakdown and documentation with specificity of any (i) accrued liabilities, (ii) anticipated success or severance (or completion) payments or bonuses, (iii) continuing admin budget for the Claimant trust, Indemnification sub trust and/or litigation sub trust, and (iv) the identity and amount and basis for any holdback(s).

We are available Tuesday in Dallas. How many from your side would be participating in person? I am trying to get my travel plans situated and to make sure my travel might add to the process (for example if you, Jeff, et al from Pachulski are attending remotely so might I). I believe I can get an early flight out in the morning arriving around 7:00 am or a bit later one arriving around 8:45.

DRAFT - SUBJECT TO CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

[1] As of April 3, 2025. This disclosure is NOT a balance sheet prepared in accordance with US GAAP. In some instances, values are estimated and actual amounts realized may ultimately differ materially. No liabilities are included herein, including existing liabilities, contingent liabilities, indemnification obligations, or considerations for future expenses, including costs of liquidation that have not yet been, but will be incurred.

[2] Claimant Trust, including consolidation of the various "Plan" entities other than the Indemnity Trust (HCMLP GP, LLC, Highland Capital Management, LP, Litigation Sub-Trust), each on a standalone basis, with intercompany balances eliminated.

[3] Stand-alone assets retained by the Indemnity Trust. Other than less than <$1M retained in cash, remainder of cash is invested in US treasuries with maturities less than 1 year. Excludes <$1M of cash/treasuries on account of the Okada settlement. Pursuant to the Okada settlement, these funds are segregated and are to be repaid to Okada as first-out funds to the extent that any excess exists in the Indemnity Trust. Accordingly, in a settlement scenario, these funds would not be available to Class 10 interest holders.

[4] Cash and treasuries includes full face amount of treasuries maturing within 6 months and has also been adjusted up to assume the near-term receipt of approximately $5 million from Highland CLO Funding, Ltd.

[5] Segregated funds invested in US treasuries with near-term maturities. Funds are reserved for the Daugherty tax proof of claim, which remains pending. If Highland successfully objects to the proof of claim, funds would be released from the Disputed Claims Reserve. If the claim is ultimately allowed in full or in part, funds would be paid to Daugherty on account of the allowed claim and any excess remaining would be released from the Disputed Claims Reserve.

[6] Note receivable from The Dugaboy Investment Trust ("Dugaboy"). ~$17.4M principal and ~$0.2M interest currently outstanding, accruing at approximately $1,553/day. Fair value is less than face value as the note is long-dated, accruing interest at 3.26% and makes annual principal and interest payments through 2046, with the last of such payments due December 31, 2046. Dugaboy is current on its payments, including with the most recent payment completed for year-end 2024. Principal payments due are $790,215 yearly, plus accrued interest, which declines each year as principal declines. The next interest payment due December 31, 2025 is $566,677. No assurance that Dugaboy will continue making the annual principal and interest payments when due, although the holder of the note could accelerate and pursue collection in that event.

[7] 100% equity interest in Highland Capital Management Korea Limited ("HCM Korea"), plus $2.5 million note from HCM Korea. Ultimate value dependent on the monetization of the Caris Life Sciences investment through an expected 2025 IPO, which is expected to be in the range of $2 million to $5 million, but could also exceed or fall short of this range.

[8] Shares of Highland CLO Funding, Ltd. ("HCLOF"), a Guernsey company. Value has been adjusted down to assume a near-term cash dividend of approximately $5 million. Remaining value is primarily tied up in the "Acis 6" asset, for which a NexPoint entity has recently initiated an appeal in the 2nd Circuit Court of Appeals. Ultimate value dependent on the Acis 6 litigation and costs of winding down HCLOF and expected to be in the range of $2 million to $4 million, but could also exceed or fall short of this range.

[9] Bad faith sanction against HCRE of $825,940.55, currently on appeal in the District Court. Fully briefed since November 2024. Award was posted in the court registry and is accruing post-judgment interest at a rate of $118.80/day. Approximately $870k is outstanding, including post-judgment interest currently. No assurance that the appeal will resolve favorably and as a result, there is no assurance that any amounts will ultimately be collected.

[10] Litigation brought by Marc Kirschner as Litigation Trustee to the Litigation Sub-Trust. Adversary proceeding is currently stayed. The value of the claims, their collectibility, and the costs of their continued pursuit is ultimately unknown. For purposes of aggregating the current value of assets for this illustrative presentation, no value has been ascribed.

[11] Within the litigation brought by Marc Kirschner as Litigation Trustee to the Litigation Sub-Trust were claims against HMIT relating to the "HMIT note" receivable, which had originally been a portion of the consideration HMIT paid for acquiring limited partnership interests in Highland in 2015. These claims are also stayed as part of the overall stay in the case. The value of the note, its collectibility, and the costs of their continued pursuit is ultimately unknown. For purposes of aggregating the current value of assets for this illustrative presentation, no value has been ascribed.

in USD millions

Total combined assets	$	114.8	see "current snapshot"
Less:
Oustanding Class 9, including interest		(21.0)
Existing Incentive Compensation triggered through full payment of Class 9		(2.5)
Long-dated assets - Dugaboy Note receivable		(17.6)	[1]
Wind down expenses and accrued liabilities		(20.0)	[2]
Pending Class 8 claims (Daugherty tax)		See footnote	[3]
Indemnification obligations		See footnote	[4]
Net expected cash prior to any indemnification considerations and necessary reserves	$	53.7	[5]
Plus: Non-cash assets - Dugaboy Note receivable	$	17.6

[1] Note receivable from The Dugaboy Investment Trust ("Dugaboy"). ~$17.4M principal and ~$0.2M interest currently outstanding, accruing at approximately $1,553/day. Fair value is less than face value as the note is long-dated, accruing interest at 3.26% and makes annual principal and interest payments through 2046, with the last of such payments due December 31, 2046. Dugaboy is current on its payments, including with the most recent payment completed for year-end 2024. Principal payments due are $790,215 yearly, plus accrued interest, which declines each year as principal declines. The next interest payment due December 31, 2025 is $566,677. No assurance that Dugaboy will continue making the annual principal and interest payments when due, although the holder of the note could accelerate and pursue collection in that event.

[2] Amount is ultimately TBD and will ultimately depend on litigation, timing of monetization of remaining assets, and operational needs. For example, if additional litigation is brought forth, outside counsel will incur additional time and expense and certain employees may need to be retained for a longer period of time. If actual expenses exceed $20 million, less cash would be potentially available after Class 9; if actual expenses fall short of $20 million, more cash would be potentially available after Class 9.

[3] For illustrative purposes of this presentation, $0 is assumed. However, if the claim is ultimately allowed in full or in part, funds would be paid to Daugherty on account of the allowed claim, which would reduce cash potentially available after Class 9. No assurances can be provided that the claim will be completely disallowed.

[4] For illustrative purposes of this presentation, $0 is assumed. Thus, all funds utilized for purposes of satisfying indemnification obligations will reduce the funds available dollar for dollar. Under current conditions, it is believed that at least $100 million may be needed for indemnification obligations and as a result, there is not sufficient liquidity at this time to even make any further payments to Class 9 interest holders. Assuming a final/non-appealable order, providing for among other things, a complete cessation of litigation and comprehensive releases from the HMIT/DAF parties, the need for indemnification reserves could be greatly reduced.

[5] Assumes HCM Korea, HCLOF, and HCRE bad faith sanctions are monetized for the amounts described on the "current snapshot" ($6.4 million in aggregate). Monetization in excess of these amounts would result in more cash remaining; monetization below those amounts would result in less cash remaining.

COMMUNICATION TENDERED PURSUANT TO FED. R. EVID. 408
AND THE PARTIES' CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

Louis,

We're following up on recent discussions, including the call last Friday between Mark Patrick and Jim Seery.

We are providing three groups of documents: (a) a revised settlement structure (and black line) that takes into account the discussion between Mark and Jim; (b) an illustration of sources/uses and plausible timeline for payments; and (c) the Second Amended and Restated Indemnity Trust Agreement (which we expect to be executed in the coming days).

Specifically, please find attached the following:

1. Revised draft of settlement structure (Clean)
2. Revised draft of settlement structure (Redlined against version from last week)
3. Illustrative sources and uses of timing/amounts of potential future Indemnity Trust payouts
4. Second Amended and Restated Indemnity Trust Agreement
    a. The provisions we believe the HMIT team should focus on to understand the uses and limitations of the Indemnity Trust are:
        i. Intro and First Whereas Clause with certain definitions
        ii. Section 1.1

            1. Beneficiaries
            2. Indemnified Parties
            3. Indemnity Obligations
            4. Indemnity Trust Account
            5. Indemnity Trust Assets
            6. Trust Indemnified Parties

        iii. Section 2.1(c)
        iv. Section 2.4
        v. Section 3.5
        vi. Article VIII
        vii. Section 9.12 (Okada)

Jim and his team would like to walk you and your team through these documents. We have a board call tomorrow afternoon so if we could speak tomorrow until 3:00 pm Eastern, that would be ideal (we believe 90 minutes is sufficient). If that is not feasible, we can also be available until 1:00 pm Eastern on Friday.

Finally, if Mr. Shields is going to review any of the attached documents or participate in our discussions, please be sure to send his Joinder in advance.

Please let us know what works for your side.

Regards,

John

Capitalized terms used herein but not defined shall have the respective meanings assigned thereto in Section 1.1.

RECITALS

WHEREAS, the Parties entered into the Indemnity Trust Agreement, effective as of August 16, 2021 (the "Original Indemnity Trust Agreement") to establish a Delaware statutory trust, the Indemnity Trust, for the benefit of the Beneficiaries, (a) to secure the performance by each of the Claimant Trust, the Litigation Sub-Trust and the Reorganized Debtor of its indemnity obligations as specified in (i) Section 8.2 of that certain Claimant Trust Agreement, (ii) Section 8.2 of the Litigation Sub-Trust Agreement and (iii) Section 10 of the Reorganized Limited Partnership Agreement, establishing the Reorganized Debtor pursuant to the Plan (the foregoing (i)-(iii), the "Indemnity Obligations"), and (b) following the dissolution of the Claimant Trust, the Litigation Sub-Trust or the Reorganized Debtor, as applicable, to be the primary source of indemnification for the respective Indemnity Obligations, in each case regardless of whether such Indemnity Obligations survive the dissolution of the Claimant Trust, the Litigation Sub-Trust or the Reorganized Debtor, as applicable;

WHEREAS, the Indemnity Trust Administrator agreed to act as administrator hereunder to direct the Indemnity Trustee with respect to the transfer, distribution and release of Indemnity Trust Assets;

WHEREAS, the Indemnity Trustee agreed to act as trustee hereunder to hold and apply the Indemnity Trust Assets on behalf of the Indemnity Trust, as specified herein, for the sole use and exclusive benefit of the Beneficiaries;

WHEREAS, the Indemnity Trust is the payee under the Indemnification Funding Note;

WHEREAS, the Indemnification Funding Note requires the payors thereunder to make payments on the Indemnification Funding Note so that the Indemnity Trust Assets are not less than $25 million;

WHEREAS, the Grantor initially funded the Indemnity Trust by depositing $2.5 million in cash and the Indemnification Funding Note into the Indemnity Trust Account;

SUBJECT TO CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

WHEREAS, the payors funded the Indemnification Funding Note so that the Indemnity Trust Account held approximately $25 million in cash Assets;

WHEREAS, Section 2.3(b) of the Original Indemnity Trust Agreement authorized the Grantor to transfer Assets into the Indemnity Trust Account in excess of the amount due on the Indemnification Funding Note;

WHEREAS, the Grantor regularly assesses the potential magnitude of Indemnity Obligations and whether the Indemnity Trust Assets are sufficient to cover all current or potential Indemnity Obligations;

WHEREAS, the Grantor's assessment and re-assessment of the magnitude of potential Indemnity Obligations is continually informed by developments in litigations related to the Plan, and the costs related thereto, taken against the Grantor and other Trust Indemnified Parties, as well as actions against third-parties that relate to the Plan or Trust Indemnified Parties;

WHEREAS, based upon the Grantor's initial re-assessment of the potential magnitude of Indemnity Obligations, the Grantor determined that $25 million in the Indemnity Trust Account was likely insufficient to satisfy all Indemnity Obligations then existing or arising in the future, on March 13, 2023, the Grantor transferred an additional interim amount of $7 million in cash into the Indemnity Trust Account;

WHEREAS, effective May 3, 2023, the Parties amended the Original Indemnity Trust Agreement by entering into the First Amendment to Indemnity Trust Agreement to clarify that the transfer of additional Assets to the Indemnity Trust and any additional transfers of Assets to the Indemnity Trust will be subject to the Indemnity Trust Administrator's ability to transfer Indemnity Trust Assets from the Indemnity Trust Account to the Claimant Trust if he determines, in his sole and absolute discretion, that amounts in excess of $32 million (the then approximate amount of Indemnity Trust Assets) in cash or other Assets are not then required to satisfy potential Indemnity Obligations;

WHEREAS, based upon the Grantor's further re-assessment of Indemnity Obligations and its determination that the Indemnity Trust Assets were then likely insufficient to satisfy all Indemnity Obligations then existing or arising in the future, on May 3, 2023, the Grantor transferred an additional interim amount of $3 million in cash into the Indemnity Trust Account;

WHEREAS, based upon the Grantor's further re-assessment of Indemnity Obligations and its determination that the Indemnity Trust Assets were then likely insufficient to satisfy all Indemnity Obligations then existing or arising in the future, on August 29, 2023, the Grantor transferred an additional interim amount of $15 million in cash into the Indemnity Trust Account;

WHEREAS, that certain Settlement Agreement was entered into as of January 11, 2024, by and among (a) Highland Capital Management, L.P.; (b) the Litigation Trustee; (c) the Claimant Trust; (d) the Indemnity Trust; (e) Mark K. WHEREAS, based upon the Grantor's further re-assessment of Indemnity Obligations and its determination that the Indemnity Trust Assets were then likely insufficient to satisfy all Indemnity Obligations then existing or arising in the future, on December 24, 2024, the Grantor transferred an additional interim amount of $10 million in cash into the Indemnity Trust Account;

WHEREAS, the Grantor continually re-assesses all existing and potential Indemnity Obligations, and based on developing litigation threats and litigation actions involving Trust Indemnified Parties it has determined the current cash and US Treasury balance of the Indemnity Trust Account of approximately $68.7 million (including the face value of US Treasuries with maturities of less than 1 (one) year, but excluding non-cash assets) is likely insufficient to satisfy existing and potential future Indemnification Obligations and additional Assets will be required to satisfy all Indemnification Obligations absent final court resolution of certain litigation issues and/or comprehensive settlements;

WHEREAS, the Grantor has a limited life and (a) certain of the books and records and privileges of its subsidiaries are required by regulation to be maintained beyond its permitted life, and (b) certain of its books and records and privileges and the books and records and privileges of its subsidiaries are essential to support Indemnified Obligations for the benefit of Beneficiaries;

WHEREAS, in order for the Indemnity Trust to efficiently support its obligation to satisfy all Indemnity Obligations for the benefit of the Beneficiaries, it must maintain records and privileges currently maintained for the benefit of the Beneficiaries beyond the life of the Grantor, including by owning additional non-cash Assets contributed to it by the Grantor;

WHEREAS, the Parties desire to make additional amendments consistent with the Prior Agreement in order to facilitate the efficient management of the Indemnity Trust and the Indemnity Trust Assets for the benefit of the Beneficiaries; and

WHEREAS, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises, and upon the terms and conditions, set forth herein, the Parties agree to amend and restate the Prior Agreement in its entirety as follows:

investment made pursuant to this Agreement or any disbursement instructed by the Indemnity Trust Administrator. The Indemnity Trustee is hereby authorized, in making or disposing of any investment permitted by this Agreement, to deal with itself (in its individual capacity) or with any one or more of its affiliates, whether it or any such affiliate is acting as agent of the Indemnity Trustee or for any third person or dealing as principal for its own account. The Parties acknowledge that the Indemnity Trustee is not providing investment supervision, recommendations, or advice.

2.4 Withdrawals on Behalf of the Beneficiaries.

(a) The Indemnity Trust shall pay or reimburse the applicable Beneficiary for the amounts requested by such Beneficiary (i) to be paid by the Claimant Trust, the Litigation Sub-Trust or the Reorganized Debtor, as applicable, with respect to its Indemnity Obligations to the extent not otherwise paid by the Claimant Trust, the Litigation Sub-Trust or the Reorganized Debtor, as applicable, and (ii) following the dissolution of the Claimant Trust, the Litigation Sub-Trust or the Reorganized Debtor, as applicable, for any claims that if brought against such Beneficiary would have been subject to indemnification under Section 8.2 of the Claimant Trust Agreement, Section 8.2 of the Litigation Sub-Trust or Section 10 of the Reorganized Limited Partnership Agreement, as applicable, in each case regardless of whether such Indemnity Obligations survive the dissolution or termination and cancellation of the Claimant Trust, the Litigation Sub-Trust or the Reorganized Debtor, as applicable, pursuant to the procedures set forth below. With respect to clause (ii) above, the Indemnity Trust shall assume for the benefit of the Beneficiaries the Indemnity Obligations on the terms set forth herein.

(b) The Indemnity Trustee shall (i) make withdrawals of Indemnity Trust Assets, as instructed in writing by the Indemnity Trust Administrator as described herein pursuant to a Withdrawal Notice, to satisfy amounts due under the Indemnity Obligations in accordance with this Agreement, and (ii) take any action with respect to the Indemnity Trust Assets, as instructed by the Indemnity Trust Administrator, promptly and, in any event, within three (3) Business Days following receipt of such instruction. The Indemnity Trustee shall be entitled to conclusively and exclusively rely upon any Withdrawal Notice or other written instruction provided to it by the Indemnity Trust Administrator with respect to any withdrawals of Indemnity Trust Assets or other action with respect to the Indemnity Trust Assets in accordance with this Agreement without further inquiry or Liability.

(c) At any time prior to the dissolution of the Claimant Trust, any Beneficiary who has made a claim for indemnity to the Claimant Trust pursuant to Section 8.2 of the Claimant Trust Agreement, Section 8.2 of the Litigation Sub Trust Agreement or Section 10 of the Reorganized Limited Partnership Agreement, as applicable, but has not been paid in full within fourteen (14) days of such claim for indemnification may make a request for withdrawal of Indemnity Trust Assets from the Indemnity Trust Account by delivering a written notice to the Indemnity Trust Administrator (with a copy to the Indemnity Trustee), substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B ("Beneficiary Withdrawal Request"), setting forth (i) a certification that such Beneficiary has made a claim for indemnification to the Claimant Trust, the Litigation Sub-Trust or the Reorganized Debtor, as the case may be, which was not paid in full within fourteen (14) days of such claim for indemnification and (ii) the amount owed to such Beneficiary with respect to such claim for indemnification (the "Indemnified Amount"). For the avoidance of doubt, the Indemnity Trustee shall have no duty or Liability to review any Beneficiary Withdrawal Request or verify any information contained therein, it being understood and agreed that the Indemnity Trust Administrator shall be solely responsible for doing so.

(d) At any time following the dissolution of the Claimant Trust, the Litigation Sub-Trust or the Reorganized Debtor, as applicable, any Beneficiary may make a claim for the Indemnified Amount by making a request for withdrawal of Indemnity Trust Assets from the Indemnity Trust Account by delivering a Beneficiary Withdrawal Request to the Indemnity Trust Administrator (with a copy to the Indemnity Trustee);

(e) Following receipt of a Beneficiary Withdrawal Request, the Indemnity Trust Administrator shall (i) verify whether such Beneficiary has made a claim for indemnification and has not been paid in full by the Claimant Trust, the Litigation Sub-Trust or the Reorganized Debtor, within fourteen (14) days of such claim for indemnification (provided that this clause (i) shall not be applicable to claims made pursuant to Section 2.4(d)); (ii) review the supporting documents attached to such Beneficiary Withdrawal Request; and (iii) deliver a written notice to the Indemnity Trustee (with a copy to the applicable Beneficiary) in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C (the "Withdrawal Notice"). The Withdrawal Notice shall specify the amount to be paid to the applicable Beneficiary and any applicable wire transfer instructions as may be required by the Indemnity Trustee to make such payment. All payments by the Indemnity Trustee to any Beneficiary hereunder shall be sent by wire transfer. The Indemnity Trustee shall have no obligation to determine whether the Indemnity Trust Administrator has complied with the provisions of this Section 2.4(e). If the Indemnity Trust Administrator does not issue a Withdrawal Notice within two (2) Business Days of receipt of a Beneficiary Withdrawal Request, the Indemnity Trust Administrator shall provide the applicable Beneficiary, no later than the third (3rd) Business Day following receipt of the Beneficiary Withdrawal Request, with an explanation in writing of the reasons for the denial of the Beneficiary Withdrawal Request. All disputes related to Beneficiary Withdrawal Requests shall be resolved by the Bankruptcy Court, or another court of competent jurisdiction, in accordance with Section 9.10 of this Agreement. The Indemnity Trustee is entitled to conclusively rely on any order from the Bankruptcy Court or other court of competent jurisdiction concerning any such disputes.

(f) Within three (3) Business Days of receipt of such Withdrawal Notice, the Indemnity Trustee shall pay by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the applicable Beneficiary the lesser of (i) the Indemnified Amount and (ii) the amount of funds in the Indemnity Trust Account, provided that if the Indemnity Trust Account contains insufficient funds to pay the amounts set forth in such Withdrawal Notice, any such unpaid amounts will be paid by the Indemnity Trustee within three (3) Business Days of receipt by the Indemnity Trustee in the Indemnity Trust Account of sufficient funds (including, for the avoidance of doubt, from any funds subsequently received as payments on the Indemnification Funding Note) to pay any portion thereof.

(g) If any Beneficiary who has made a claim for indemnification hereunder receives payment with respect to such claim for indemnification from the Claimant Trust or any other source, such Beneficiary must promptly notify the Indemnity Trust Administrator (with a copy to the Indemnity Trustee), upon which the applicable request for payment from the

Indemnity Trust will be revised accordingly, and to the extent that any such amounts were already received from the Indemnity Trust, the Indemnity Trust Administrator, in his reasonable discretion, shall cause such Beneficiary to repay or return such amounts to the Indemnity Trust Account, without interest, or offset such amounts against any future requests for indemnification.

(h) For the avoidance of doubt, the Indemnity Trustee shall withdraw Indemnity Trust Assets credited to the Indemnity Trust Account without notice to or the consent of the Grantor at any time and from time to time upon a Withdrawal Notice or other written instructions from the Indemnity Trust Administrator in accordance with the terms of this Section 2.4. No other statement or document need be presented to the Indemnity Trustee by the Indemnity Trust Administrator in order to withdraw Indemnity Trust Assets credited to the Indemnity Trust Account. Upon receipt of a Withdrawal Notice or other written instructions from the Indemnity Trust Administrator in accordance with the terms of this Section 2.4 by the Indemnity Trustee, the Indemnity Trustee shall promptly take any and all necessary steps to pay the applicable Beneficiary and, when appropriate, to liquidate (but only at the written direction of the Indemnity Trust Administrator) non-cash Indemnity Trust Assets in the Indemnity Trust to pay the applicable Beneficiary. The Indemnity Trustee shall be fully protected in conclusively relying upon any such Withdrawal Notice or other written instructions from the Indemnity Trust Administrator delivered in accordance with this Agreement for such withdrawal and shall not be obligated to investigate or ascertain that the applicable Beneficiary intends to use or uses the Indemnity Trust Assets withdrawn for the purposes set forth herein. Except for acts or omissions involving its own gross negligence or willful misconduct, the Indemnity Trustee shall not be liable to the Grantor, any Beneficiary, the Indemnity Trust Administrator or any third party, for any withdrawals or payments made pursuant to a Withdrawal Notice or other written instructions from the Indemnity Trust Administrator delivered in accordance with this Agreement.

SUBJECT TO CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

ARTICLE III.
INDEMNITY TRUST ADMINISTRATOR

3.1 Authority.

(a) For any action contemplated or required in connection with the operation of the Indemnity Trust, and for any guidance or instruction to be provided to the Indemnity Trustee, such function, rights and responsibility shall be vested in the Indemnity Trust Administrator. The Indemnity Trust Administrator is an express agent of the Indemnity Trust and is not a delegatee of the Indemnity Trustee.

(b) The Indemnity Trust Administrator shall have the power to take any actions the Indemnity Trust Administrator, in his sole and absolute discretion, deems desirable or necessary in connection with the operation of the Indemnity Trust. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the right and power of the Indemnity Trust Administrator to direct the Indemnity Trustee to invest the Indemnity Trust Assets, the proceeds thereof, or any income earned by the Indemnity Trust shall be limited to the right and power to invest such Indemnity Trust Assets only in cash and U.S. Government securities as defined in section 29(a)(16) of the Investment Company Act; provided, however, that the scope of any such permissible investments shall be further limited to include only those investments that a "liquidating trust" within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 301.7701-4(d) may be permitted to hold pursuant to the Treasury Regulations, or any modification in the Internal Revenue Guidelines, whether set forth in IRS rulings, other IRS pronouncements, or otherwise; including, for the avoidance of doubt, any obligations of the United States Treasury, including bills, notes, bonds, or TIPS having a remaining maturity of less than one year at the time of investment ("Permitted Investments"). The Indemnity Trustee shall have no duty to determine if any investment direction provided to it by the Indemnity Trust Administrator satisfies the definition of "Permitted Investments" hereunder. In the event that market conditions are such that negative interest applies to amounts deposited in the Indemnity Trust Account, the Grantor shall be responsible for the payment of such interest and the Indemnity Trustee shall be entitled to deduct from amounts on deposit with it an amount necessary to pay such negative interest. For the avoidance of doubt, the indemnification protections afforded to the Indemnity Trustee under Section 7.2 shall cover any interest-related expenses (including, but not limited to, negative interest) incurred by the Indemnity Trustee in the performance of its duties hereunder.

(c) The Indemnity Trust Administrator shall have the power and authority to retain counsel, tax advisors, consultants, brokers and other experts or advisors, as he considers appropriate to address any matter relating to the Indemnity Trust. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, to the extent the Indemnity Trust Administrator identifies any conflict of interest in his capacity as a Beneficiary, on the one hand, and the Indemnity Trust Administrator, on the other, or otherwise relating to the Indemnity Trust, the Indemnity Trust Administrator may retain such advisors or experts, as he, in his sole and absolute discretion, considers appropriate to evaluate and resolve any such conflict of interest. The cost of any such advisors or experts will be paid by the Claimant Trust, and if not paid in a timely fashion, may represent a claim for indemnity under this Agreement. The Indemnity Trust Administrator shall keep a record of such fees and expenses incurred and upon the request of the Grantor or any Beneficiary, the Indemnity Trust Administrator shall promptly permit the requesting Party or Beneficiary, its respective agents, employees or independent auditors to examine, audit, excerpt, transcribe and copy such records, during normal business hours at the expense of such requesting Party or Beneficiary.

3.2 Records; Reporting.

(a) The Indemnity Trust Administrator shall create and maintain a record of any Beneficiary who makes a claim hereunder at his office or at such other place or places as it shall designate from time to time, which shall be subject to inspection by any Beneficiary upon request; provided that such Beneficiary may be required to agree to maintain confidentiality with respect to any non-public information.

(b) The Indemnity Trust Administrator shall provide quarterly reporting to the Oversight Board (for so long as it exists) of the Claimant Trust and the Advisory Representatives of (i) the status of the Indemnity Trust Assets, (ii) the balance of cash held by the Indemnity Trust, (iii) the status of any claims made by Beneficiaries and any resolutions thereof, (iv) the status of any litigation, and (vii) operating expenses; provided, however, that the Indemnity Trust Administrator may, with respect to any member of the Oversight Board of the Claimant Trust or Advisory Representative, redact any portion of such reports that relate to such person's or entity's claim for indemnification hereunder, as applicable, and any reporting provided hereunder may be subject to such member of the Oversight Board of the Claimant Trust or Advisory Representative's agreement to maintain confidentiality with respect to any non-public information.

3.3 Term of Service. The Indemnity Trust Administrator shall serve as the Indemnity Trust Administrator for the duration of the Indemnity Trust, subject to death, disability, resignation or removal.

3.4 Resignation or Removal of the Indemnity Trust Administrator.

(a) The Indemnity Trust Administrator may resign as Indemnity Trust Administrator at any time by giving not less than thirty (30) days' written notice thereof to the Grantor and the Indemnity Trustee. Upon the resignation of the Indemnity Trust Administrator, the successor Indemnity Trust Administrator will be appointed in accordance with Section 3.4(d). The resignation of the Indemnity Trust Administrator shall become effective on the acceptance of appointment by a successor Indemnity Trust Administrator.

(b) The Indemnity Trust Administrator may be removed for Cause immediately upon notice thereof by the Grantor as the Grantor deems appropriate or upon the request of a Beneficiary; provided that such notice shall be accompanied by a final order of the Bankruptcy Court or, if the Bankruptcy Court either declines to exercise jurisdiction over such action, or cannot exercise jurisdiction over such action, by a final order of such other court of competent jurisdiction establishing Cause.

(c) [Reserved]

(d) In the event of a vacancy by reason of Cause, or the death or Disability of the Indemnity Trust Administrator or prospective vacancy by reason of resignation, the successor Indemnity Trust Administrator shall be Richard Katz (the Independent Member of the Oversight Board of Grantor as of the date hereof), and in the event of a vacancy by reason of Cause, or the death or Disability of the fallback successor Indemnity Trust Administrator, the contingent successor shall be David Klos (the CFO of Highland Capital Management, L.P. as of the date hereof). In the event that neither Richard Katz nor David Klos is able or willing to serve as Indemnity Trust Administrator, a majority of the Advisory Representatives willing to vote shall select the successor. Any such successor Indemnity Trust Administrator shall be appointed as soon as practicable, but in any event no later than thirty (30) days after the occurrence of the vacancy or, in the case of resignation, on the effective date of the resignation of the-then acting Indemnity Trust Administrator.

3.5 Expenses and Other Payments to the Indemnity Trust Administrator.

(a) The Indemnity Trust Administrator shall not be compensated for its services under this Agreement; provided that the Indemnity Trust Administrator shall be paid or reimbursed for all of the Indemnity Trust Administrator's reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses and disbursements in connection with his duties under this Agreement (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses in his capacity as such), except any such expense or disbursement as may arise from the Indemnity Trustee's fraud, willful misconduct or gross negligence. The Indemnity Trust Administrator shall keep a record of such expenses and upon the request of the Grantor or any Beneficiary, the Indemnity Trust Administrator shall promptly permit the requesting Party or Beneficiary, its respective agents, employees or independent auditors to examine, audit, excerpt, transcribe and copy such records, during normal business hours at the expense of such requesting Party or Beneficiary.

(b) In the event that the Grantor is dissolved and Assets or Liabilities are transferred to the Indemnity Trust in accordance with this Agreement, nothing in this Agreement shall prohibit the Indemnity Trust from (i) compensating the Indemnity Trust Administrator in his capacity as an officer, other employee, or agent of such Assets or Liabilities for managing such Assets or Liabilities or (ii) compensating any other officers, employees, or agents of such Assets or Liabilities in assisting in the management of such Assets or Liabilities; provided, however, that any such compensation shall be paid solely from funds advanced to the Indemnity Trust with (or in connection with) the Assets or Liabilities transferred, and such funds shall be accounted for and managed by the Indemnity Trust Administrator separate and apart from the Indemnity Trust Assets.

ARTICLE IV.
THE INDEMNITY TRUSTEE AND DELAWARE TRUSTEE

4.1 Indemnity Trustee Authority and Duties.

(a) The Indemnity Trustee shall have the power and authority to hold legal title on behalf of the Indemnity Trust to any and all Assets and rights of the Indemnity Trust in accordance with the terms hereof. For the avoidance of doubt, the Beneficiaries shall be the sole beneficiaries of the Indemnity Trust and the Indemnity Trustee on behalf of the Indemnity Trust shall retain only such incidents of ownership as are necessary to undertake the actions and transactions authorized herein.

(b) The Indemnity Trustee shall take written directions from the Indemnity Trust Administrator, in such form specified herein and otherwise satisfactory to the Indemnity Trustee, and shall be entitled to conclusively and exclusively rely upon any such written directions from the Indemnity Trust Administrator without further inquiry or Liability.

(c) The Indemnity Trustee's duties and responsibilities hereunder shall be determined solely by the express provisions of this Agreement and no other or further duties or responsibilities shall be implied. The duties and responsibilities of the Indemnity Trustee hereunder shall be deemed purely ministerial in nature, and the Indemnity Trustee shall not be liable except for the performance of such duties, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Agreement against the Indemnity Trustee. The Indemnity Trustee shall not be liable or responsible for any loss to the Indemnity Trust Account unless the same is caused by its own willful misconduct or gross negligence. In no event shall the Indemnity Trustee be responsible or liable for special, indirect, punitive, incidental or consequential loss or damage of any kind whatsoever (including, but not limited to, loss of profit) irrespective of whether the Indemnity Trustee has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action. To the extent that, at law or in equity, the Indemnity Trustee has duties (including fiduciary duties) and Liabilities relating thereto to the Indemnity Trust, the other parties hereto or any beneficiary of the Indemnity Trust, it is hereby understood and agreed by the other parties hereto that such duties and Liabilities are replaced by the duties and Liabilities of the Indemnity Trustee expressly set forth in this Agreement. The Indemnity Trustee shall have no Liability for any action taken, or errors in judgment made, in good faith by it or any of its officers, employees or agents, unless it shall have been grossly negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts. The permissive rights of the Indemnity Trustee to do things enumerated in this Agreement shall not be construed as a duty and, with respect to such permissive rights, the Indemnity Trustee shall not be answerable for other than its gross negligence or willful misconduct. The Indemnity Trustee shall not be liable for any amount in excess of the value of the Indemnity Trust Assets.

(d) The Indemnity Trustee shall take all steps and execute all instruments and documents necessary to effectuate the purpose of the Indemnity Trust and the activities contemplated herein, and take all actions necessary to comply with this Agreement and the obligations hereunder, but only upon receipt of appropriate written instructions from the Indemnity Trust Administrator. The Indemnity Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the rights or powers vested in it by this Agreement at the request or direction of the Indemnity Trust Administrator, pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement, if the Indemnity Trustee is not satisfied that reasonable security or indemnity (satisfactory to the Indemnity Trustee in its sole and absolute discretion) against the costs, expenses and Liabilities which may be incurred by it in compliance with such request or direction is available to the Indemnity Trustee.

(e) The Indemnity Trustee shall have no duty or responsibility whatsoever to determine that any Indemnity Trust Assets withdrawn from the Indemnity Trust Account pursuant to this Agreement will be used and applied in the manner provided for by this Agreement. The Indemnity Trustee shall only be liable for such losses, damages or expenses which have been finally adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction to have directly resulted from its own fraud, willful misconduct, or gross negligence.

(f) The Indemnity Trustee shall not be responsible for the existence, genuineness or value of any of the Indemnity Trust Assets, for the validity of title to the Indemnity Trust Assets, or for insuring the Indemnity Trust Assets or for the payment of taxes, charges, assessments or liens upon the Indemnity Trust Assets.

(g) The Indemnity Trustee shall be paid such compensation as agreed to pursuant to a separate fee agreement. The Indemnity Trust shall promptly advance and reimburse the Indemnity Trustee for all reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses (including reasonable legal fees and expenses) incurred by the Indemnity Trustee in connection with the performance of its duties hereunder. The terms of this paragraph shall survive termination of this Agreement and/or the earlier resignation or removal of the Indemnity Trustee.

(h) The Indemnity Trustee shall not be required to risk or expend its own funds in performing its obligations under this Agreement.

(i) The Indemnity Trustee shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond, debenture, note, other evidence of indebtedness or other paper or document provided to the Indemnity Trustee by the Indemnity Trust

SUBJECT TO CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

Administrator or the Beneficiaries. The Indemnity Trustee may execute any of the trusts or powers hereunder or perform any duties hereunder either directly or by or through agents, attorneys, custodians or nominees, and the Indemnity Trustee shall not be responsible for any misconduct or negligence on the part of, or for the supervision of, any such agent, attorney, custodian or nominee appointed with due care by it.

(j) The Indemnity Trustee shall be protected in acting upon any statement, notice, resolution, request, consent, order, certificate, report, appraisal, opinion, facsimile, electronic media, letter or other paper or document believed by the Indemnity Trustee to be genuine and to have been signed, sent or presented by the proper Party or Parties. All notices to the Indemnity Trustee (unless otherwise provided therein) shall be deemed to be effective when received by an officer of the Indemnity Trustee with direct responsibility for the administration of this Agreement.

(k) Unless otherwise provided in this Agreement, the Indemnity Trustee is authorized to follow and rely upon all written instructions given by the Indemnity Trust Administrator and by attorneys-in-fact acting under written authority furnished to the Indemnity Trustee by the Indemnity Trust Administrator, including instructions given by electronic media, letter and facsimile transmission, if the Indemnity Trustee believes such instructions to be genuine and to have been signed by the proper party or parties. The Indemnity Trustee shall not incur any Liability to anyone resulting from actions taken by the Indemnity Trustee in reliance in good faith on such written instructions.

(l) The Indemnity Trustee represents and warrants that (i) it is a national banking association; and (ii) it is not a parent, subsidiary or affiliate of the Grantor, any Beneficiary or the Indemnity Trust Administrator.

(m) The Indemnity Trustee shall be entitled to rely on and shall not be liable for any action taken or omitted to be taken by the Indemnity Trustee in accordance with the advice of counsel or other professionals retained or consulted by the Indemnity Trustee.

(n) The Indemnity Trustee shall neither be responsible for, nor chargeable with, knowledge of the terms and conditions of any other agreement, instrument, or document other than this Agreement, whether or not an original or a copy of such agreement has been provided to the Indemnity Trustee. The Indemnity Trustee shall have no duty to know or inquire as to the performance or nonperformance of any provision of any other agreement, instrument, or document other than this Agreement.

(o) Neither the Indemnity Trustee nor any of its directors, officers, employees, agents or affiliates shall be responsible for nor have any duty to monitor the performance or any action of the Grantor or the Indemnity Trust Administrator, or any of their directors, members, officers, agents, affiliates or employee, nor shall it have any Liability in connection with the malfeasance or nonfeasance by such party. The Indemnity Trustee may assume performance by all such Persons of their respective obligations. The Indemnity Trustee shall have no enforcement or notification obligations relating to breaches of representations or warranties of any other Person.

SUBJECT TO CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

(p) In the event that any Indemnity Trust Assets or other Assets of the Indemnity Trust shall be attached, garnished or levied upon by any court order, or the delivery thereof shall be stayed or enjoined by an order of a court, or any order, judgment or decree shall be made or entered by any court order affecting the Indemnity Trust Assets or other Assets of the Indemnity Trust, the Indemnity Trustee is hereby expressly authorized, in its sole discretion, to respond as it deems appropriate or to comply with all writs, orders or decrees so entered or issued, or which it is advised by legal counsel of its own choosing is binding upon it, whether with or without jurisdiction. In the event that the Indemnity Trustee obeys or complies with any such writ, order or decree it shall not be liable to any of the Parties or to any other person, firm or corporation, should, by reason of such compliance notwithstanding, such writ, order or decree be subsequently reversed, modified, annulled, set aside or vacated.

(q) The Indemnity Trustee shall be entitled to request and receive written instructions from the Indemnity Trust Administrator and shall have no responsibility or Liability for any losses or damages of any nature that may arise from any action taken or not taken by the Indemnity Trustee in accordance with the written direction of the Indemnity Trust Administrator.

(r) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Indemnity Trustee shall have no duty to prepare or file any Federal or state tax report or return with respect to any funds held pursuant to this Agreement or any income earned thereon, except for the delivery and filing of tax information reporting forms required to be delivered and filed with the Internal Revenue Service. With respect to the preparation, delivery and filing of such required tax information reporting forms and all matters pertaining to the reporting of earnings on funds held under this Agreement, the Indemnity Trustee shall be entitled to request and receive written instructions from the Indemnity Trust Administrator, and the Indemnity Trustee shall be entitled to rely conclusively and without further inquiry on such written instructions. With respect to any other payments made under this Agreement, the Indemnity Trustee shall not be deemed the payer and shall have no responsibility for performing tax reporting. The Indemnity Trustee's function of making such payments is solely ministerial and upon express direction of the Indemnity Trust Administrator.

4.2 Term of Service. The Indemnity Trustee shall serve as the Indemnity Trustee for the duration of the Indemnity Trust, subject to resignation or removal.

4.3 Resignation or Removal of the Indemnity Trustee.

(a) The Indemnity Trustee may resign at any time by giving not less than thirty (30) days' written notice thereof to the Indemnity Trust Administrator. The Indemnity Trustee may be removed by the Indemnity Trust Administrator's delivery of not less than thirty (30) days' written notice of removal to the Indemnity Trustee. Such resignation or removal shall become effective on the acceptance of appointment by a successor Indemnity Trustee and the transfer to such successor Indemnity Trustee of all Indemnity Trust Assets in accordance with Section 4.3(b) and any undisputed fees, expenses and indemnity due to the outgoing Indemnity Trustee are paid. If the Indemnity Trust Administrator does not act within such 30-day period, the Indemnity Trustee may apply to the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware for the appointment of a successor Indemnity Trustee.

SUBJECT TO CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

(b) Upon receipt of the Indemnity Trustee's notice of resignation or delivery of notice of Indemnity Trustee's removal, the Indemnity Trust Administrator shall appoint a successor Indemnity Trustee. Any successor Indemnity Trustee shall be a bank or trust company that is a member of the Federal Reserve System or chartered in the State of Delaware and shall not be a parent, a subsidiary or an affiliate of the Grantor or any of the Beneficiaries. Upon the acceptance of the appointment as Indemnity Trustee hereunder by a successor Indemnity Trustee and the transfer to such successor Indemnity Trustee of all Indemnity Trust Assets, the resignation or removal of the Indemnity Trustee shall become effective. Thereupon, such successor Indemnity Trustee shall succeed to and become vested with all the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the resigning or removed Indemnity Trustee, and the resigning or removed Indemnity Trustee shall be discharged from any future duties and obligations under this Agreement.

4.4 Reporting. The Indemnity Trustee shall provide the Indemnity Trust Administrator, upon the inception of the Indemnity Trust Account, online electronic access to view the Indemnity Trust Account. Thereafter, the Indemnity Trust Administrator will make available to any Beneficiary a written statement identifying in reasonable detail the balance of the Indemnity Trust Assets as of the applicable reporting date, plus a full accounting of all deposits (including amounts collected under the Indemnification Funding Note and any interest or investment income) and any withdrawals made during the applicable period and the effect of any investment losses; provided, however, that such written statements may be redacted for any sensitive information, as determined by the Indemnity Trust Administrator, in his sole and absolute discretion.

4.5 Books and Records.

(a) The Indemnity Trustee shall maintain in respect of the Indemnity Trust books and records reflecting Indemnity Trust Assets in its possession and the income of the Indemnity Trust and payment of expenses, Liabilities, and claims against or assumed by the Indemnity Trust in such detail and for such period of time as is customary for the Indemnity Trustee in accordance with its ordinary and customary corporate trust business. Such books and records shall be maintained as reasonably necessary to facilitate compliance with the tax reporting requirements of the Indemnity Trust. Except as otherwise provided herein, nothing in this Agreement requires the Indemnity Trustee to file any accounting or seek approval of any court with respect to the administration of the Indemnity Trust, or as a condition for managing any payment or distribution out of the Indemnity Trust Assets.

(b) The Indemnity Trustee will provide the Indemnity Trust Administrator any books and records concerning the Indemnity Trust Assets upon the Indemnity Trustee's receipt of written direction from the Indemnity Trust Administrator. The Indemnity Trust Administrator will thereafter promptly permit the Grantor, any Beneficiary or its respective agents, employees or independent auditors to examine, audit, excerpt, transcribe and copy, any non-privileged and non-confidential books, documents, papers and records relating to the Indemnity Trust Account or the Indemnity Trust Assets at the expense of such requesting Party or Beneficiary. It is understood and agreed that the Indemnity Trustee shall only provide the information in its possession to the Indemnity Trust Administrator and shall have no duty or obligation to provide such information to any other person or entity.

SUBJECT TO CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

4.6 [Reserved]

4.7 WTNA, as Indemnity Trustee or Delaware Trustee, shall not be responsible or liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement arising out of or caused, directly or indirectly, by circumstances beyond its control, including without limitation, any act or provision of any present or future law or regulation or governmental authority; acts of God; earthquakes; fires; floods; wars; terrorism; civil or military disturbances; sabotage; epidemics; riots; interruptions, loss or malfunctions of utilities, computer (hardware or software) or communications service; accidents; labor disputes; acts of civil or military authority or governmental actions; or the unavailability of the Federal Reserve Bank wire or telex or other wire or communication facility.

4.8 Any corporation or association into which WTNA may be converted or merged, or with which it may be consolidated, or to which it may sell or transfer all or substantially all of its corporate trust business and assets as a whole or substantially as a whole, or any corporation or association resulting from any such conversion, sale, merger, consolidation or transfer to which the Delaware Trustee or the Indemnity Trustee is a party, will be and become the successor Delaware Trustee or Indemnity Trustee, as applicable, under this Agreement and will have and succeed to the rights, powers, duties, immunities and privileges as its predecessor, without the execution or filing of any instrument or paper or the performance of any further act.

4.9 Delaware Trustee.

(a) The Delaware Trustee shall have the limited power and authority, and is hereby authorized and empowered, to (i) accept legal process served on the Indemnity Trust in the State of Delaware; and (ii) execute any certificates that are required to be executed under the Delaware Statutory Trust Act and file such certificates in the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, and take such action or refrain from taking such action under this Agreement, in either case as may be directed in a writing delivered to the Delaware Trustee by the Indemnity Trust Administrator and upon which the Delaware Trustee shall be entitled to conclusively and exclusively rely; provided, however, that the Delaware Trustee shall not be required to take or to refrain from taking any such action if the Delaware Trustee shall believe, or shall have been advised by counsel, that such performance is likely to involve the Delaware Trustee in personal Liability or to result in personal Liability to the Delaware Trustee, or is contrary to the terms of this Agreement or of any document contemplated hereby to which the Indemnity Trust or the Delaware Trustee is or becomes a party or is otherwise contrary to law. The Parties agree not to instruct the Delaware Trustee to take any action or to refrain from taking any action that is contrary to the terms of this Agreement or of any document contemplated hereby to which the Indemnity Trust or the Delaware Trustee is or becomes party or that is otherwise contrary to law. Other than as expressly provided for in this Agreement, the Delaware Trustee shall have no duty or power to take any action for or on behalf of the Indemnity Trust. For the avoidance of doubt, the Delaware Trustee will only have such rights and obligations as expressly provided by reference to the Delaware Trustee hereunder. The Delaware Trustee shall not be entitled to exercise any powers, nor shall the Delaware Trustee have any of the duties and responsibilities, of the Indemnity Trustee or the Indemnity Trust Administrator set forth herein. The Delaware Trustee shall be one of the trustees of the Indemnity Trust for the sole and limited purpose of fulfilling the requirements of Section 3807 of the Delaware Statutory Trust Act and for taking such actions as are required to be taken by a Delaware Trustee under the Delaware Statutory Trust Act. The duties (including fiduciary duties), Liabilities and obligations of the Delaware Trustee shall be limited to those expressly set forth in this Section 4.9(a) and there shall be no other duties (including fiduciary duties) or obligations, express or implied, at law or in equity, of the Delaware Trustee. To the extent that, at law or in equity, the Delaware Trustee has duties (including fiduciary duties) and Liabilities relating thereto to the Indemnity Trust, the other parties hereto or any beneficiary of the Indemnity Trust, it is hereby understood and agreed by the other parties hereto that such duties and Liabilities are replaced by the duties and Liabilities of the Delaware Trustee expressly set forth in this Agreement.

(b) The Delaware Trustee shall serve until such time as the Indemnity Trust Administrator removes the Delaware Trustee or the Delaware Trustee resigns and a successor Delaware Trustee is appointed by the Indemnity Trust Administrator in accordance with the terms hereof. The Delaware Trustee may resign at any time upon the giving of at least thirty (30) days' advance written notice to the Indemnity Trust Administrator; provided, that such resignation shall not become effective unless and until a successor Delaware Trustee shall have been appointed by the Indemnity Trust Administrator in accordance with the terms hereof. If the Claimant Trustee does not act within such 30-day period, the Delaware Trustee may apply to the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware for the appointment of a successor Delaware Trustee.

(c) Upon the resignation or removal of the Delaware Trustee, the Indemnity Trust Administrator shall appoint a successor Delaware Trustee by delivering a written instrument to the outgoing Delaware Trustee. Any successor Delaware Trustee must satisfy the requirements of Section 3807 of the Delaware Statutory Trust Act. Any resignation or removal of the Delaware Trustee and appointment of a successor Delaware Trustee shall not become effective until a written acceptance of appointment is delivered by the successor Delaware Trustee to the outgoing Delaware Trustee and the Indemnity Trust Administrator and any undisputed fees, expenses and indemnity due to the outgoing Delaware Trustee are paid. Following compliance with the preceding sentence, the successor Delaware Trustee shall become fully vested with all of the rights, powers, duties and obligations of the outgoing Delaware Trustee under this Agreement, with like effect as if originally named as Delaware Trustee, and the outgoing Delaware Trustee shall be discharged of its duties and obligations under this Agreement.

(d) The Delaware Trustee shall be paid such compensation as agreed to pursuant to a separate fee agreement. The Indemnity Trust shall promptly advance and reimburse the Delaware Trustee for all reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses (including reasonable legal fees and expenses) incurred by the Delaware Trustee in connection with the performance of its duties hereunder. The terms of this paragraph shall survive termination of this Agreement and/or the earlier resignation or removal of the Delaware Trustee.

ARTICLE V.
TRUST INTERESTS

5.1 Interests Beneficial Only. The beneficial interests afforded a Beneficiary hereunder shall not entitle the Beneficiaries to any title in or to the Indemnity Trust Assets (which title shall be vested in the Indemnity Trust) or to any right with respect to the administration of the Indemnity Trust except with respect to reporting and the review of books and records as set forth in this Agreement. Further, the Beneficiaries (other than the Indemnity Trustee in such capacity) shall not have any right to direct the actions of the Indemnity Trustee with respect to the Indemnity Trust Assets or the Indemnity Trust Account, or to direct the actions of the Indemnity Trust Administrator.

5.2 Transferability of Trust Interests. No transfer, assignment, pledge, hypothecation, or other disposition of a Beneficiary's interest in the Indemnity Trust may be effected without the consent of the Indemnity Trust Administrator in his sole and absolute discretion, provided that any such transfer, assignment or hypothecation does not confer upon such assignee status as a Beneficiary under the Indemnity Trust. The Indemnity Trust Administrator may impose such conditions and other terms upon any transfer, assignment or hypothecation as he considers appropriate, in his sole and absolute discretion. In the event of an assignment pledge, hypothecation, or other disposition, the foregoing limitations on transferability shall continue to apply in all respects to such beneficial interest and shall be binding on the assignee of such beneficial interest.

5.3 Effect of Death, Incapacity, or Bankruptcy. The death, incapacity, or bankruptcy of any Beneficiary during the term of the Indemnity Trust shall not (i) entitle the representatives or creditors of the deceased Beneficiary to any additional rights under this Agreement, or (ii) otherwise affect the rights and obligations of any of other Beneficiary under this Agreement.

5.4 Change of Address. Any Beneficiary may, after the Effective Date, select an alternative address by providing notice to the Indemnity Trust Administrator and the Indemnity Trustee identifying such alternative address. Such notification shall be effective only upon receipt by the Indemnity Trust Administrator and the Indemnity Trustee. Absent actual receipt of such notice by the Indemnity Trust Administrator and an officer of the Indemnity Trustee responsible for the administration of this Agreement, neither the Indemnity Trust Administrator nor the Indemnity Trustee shall recognize any such change of distribution address.

ARTICLE VI.
TAX MATTERS

6.1 Tax Treatment and Tax Returns. It is intended that the Indemnity Trust Assets shall be treated as owned by the Grantor for federal and applicable state and local income tax purposes. The Grantor shall be responsible for causing to be prepared and filed in a timely fashion all tax returns of the Indemnity Trust relating to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or otherwise contemplated hereby, and it shall send a copy of each such tax return to the Indemnity Trustee. The Indemnity Trustee, acting only upon the written direction of the Indemnity Trust Administrator, shall furnish to the Grantor all such information as it has in its possession and as may be reasonably required in connection with the preparation of such tax returns and shall execute such returns if required to do so by the applicable taxing authority. The Indemnity Trustee shall not be liable for any tax due and payable in connection with this Agreement except for any tax based on or measured by the income of the institution or person acting as the Indemnity Trustee resulting from the amounts paid to the Indemnity Trustee as fees or compensation for acting as the Indemnity Trustee hereunder. Each Party (other than the Indemnity Trustee and the Delaware

SUBJECT TO CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

Trustee) shall provide the Indemnity Trustee with certified tax identification numbers by furnishing appropriate forms W-9 or W-8 and such other forms and documents that the Indemnity Trustee may request. Each such Party understands that if such tax reporting documentation is not provided and certified to the Indemnity Trustee, the Indemnity Trustee may be required by the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the regulations promulgated thereunder, to withhold a portion of any interest or other income earned on the investment of the Indemnity Trust Assets.

ARTICLE VII.
STANDARD OF CARE AND INDEMNIFICATION

7.1 Standard of Care. Neither the Indemnity Trustee acting in its capacity as Indemnity Trustee nor the Indemnity Trust Administrator, acting in his capacity as the Indemnity Trust Administrator, shall be personally liable to the Indemnity Trust or to any person (including any Beneficiary) in connection with the affairs of the Indemnity Trust, unless it is ultimately determined by order of the Bankruptcy Court or, if the Bankruptcy Court either declines to exercise jurisdiction over such action or cannot exercise jurisdiction over such action, such other court of competent jurisdiction, that the acts or omissions of the Indemnity Trustee or the Indemnity Trust Administrator, as the case may be, constituted fraud, willful misconduct, or gross negligence.

7.2 Indemnification.

(a) At any time prior to the dissolution of the Grantor, the Grantor shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Indemnity Trustee, the Delaware Trustee, the Indemnity Trust Administrator, the Advisory Representatives and all current, former and future officers, directors, employees, representatives and/or agents of any of the Indemnity Trust, the Indemnity Trustee, the Delaware Trustee, the Indemnity Trust Administrator or any of their respective subsidiaries (each, an "Indemnified Party"), from and against and reimburse each Indemnified Party for any and all Liabilities of whatever kind or nature regardless of their merit, demanded, asserted or claimed against such Indemnified Party directly or indirectly relating to, or arising from, claims against such Indemnified Party by reason of its participation in the transactions contemplated hereby, including without limitation all reasonable costs associated with claims for damages to persons or property, and reasonable attorneys' and consultants' fees and expenses and court costs except to the extent caused by such Indemnified Party's fraud, willful misconduct, or gross negligence. Promptly after receipt by an Indemnified Party of notification of the commencement of any proceeding, such Indemnified Party will promptly notify the Grantor in writing of such matter; provided, however, that the failure to provide such prompt notice to the Grantor shall not relieve the Grantor of Liability which it may have to such Indemnified Party hereunder.

(b) At any time upon or following (i) the dissolution of Grantor or (ii) the Grantor's failure to satisfy a claim for indemnification of an Indemnified Party pursuant to Section 7.2(a), the Indemnity Trust shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Indemnified Parties, from and against and reimburse each Indemnified Party for any and all Liabilities of whatever kind or nature regardless of their merit, demanded, asserted or claimed against such Indemnified Party directly or indirectly relating to, or arising from, claims against such Indemnified Party by reason of its participation in the transactions contemplated hereby, including without limitation all reasonable costs associated with claims for damages to persons or property, and reasonable attorneys' and consultants' fees and expenses and court costs except to the extent caused by such Indemnified Party's fraud, willful misconduct, or gross negligence. Promptly after receipt by an Indemnified Party of notification of the commencement of any proceeding, such Indemnified Party will promptly notify the Indemnity Trust in writing of such matter; provided, however, that the failure to provide such prompt notice to the Indemnity Trust shall not relieve the Indemnity Trust of Liability which it may have to such Indemnified Party hereunder.

(c) The provisions of this Section 7.2 shall survive the termination of this Agreement or the earlier of the resignation or removal of the Indemnity Trustee or the Indemnity Trust Administrator, as applicable.

7.3 Tax Indemnification.

(a) To the extent that the Indemnity Trustee becomes liable for the payment of any taxes in respect of income derived from the investment of the Indemnity Trust Assets, the Indemnity Trustee shall satisfy such Liability to the extent possible from the Indemnity Trust Assets.

(b) At any time prior to the dissolution of the Grantor, the Grantor shall indemnify, defend and hold the Indemnity Trustee harmless from and against any tax, late payment, interest, penalty or other Liability that may be assessed against the Indemnity Trustee on or with respect to the Indemnity Trust Assets and the investment thereof unless such tax, late payment, interest, penalty or other expense was finally adjudicated to have been directly caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Indemnity Trustee.

(c) At any time upon or following (i) the dissolution of Grantor or (ii) the Grantor's failure to satisfy a claim for indemnification pursuant to Section 7.3(b), the Indemnity Trust shall indemnify, defend and hold the Indemnity Trustee harmless from and against any tax, late payment, interest, penalty or other Liability that may be assessed against the Indemnity Trustee on or with respect to the Indemnity Trust Assets and the investment thereof unless such tax, late payment, interest, penalty or other expense was finally adjudicated to have been directly caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Indemnity Trustee.

(d) The indemnification provided by this Section 7.3 is in addition to the indemnification provided in Section 7.2 and shall survive the resignation or removal of the Indemnity Trustee and the termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE VIII.
TERMINATION

8.1 Term.

(a) The Indemnity Trust shall be dissolved and its affairs shall be wound up in accordance with this Agreement and Delaware Statutory Trust Act upon the earlier of (i) the later of (x) the resolution by Final Order of all litigation, claims or proceedings in any forum of any kind which could give rise to an Indemnity Obligation and the payment in full of all

SUBJECT TO CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

Indemnity Obligations related thereto and (y) the expiration of all applicable statutes of limitations and any applicable tolling of any such statutes of limitations (in either case of (x) or (y), as determined by agreement of (A) the Indemnity Trust Administrator (in his sole, absolute discretion) and (B) a majority of the remaining Advisory Representatives willing to act (in their respective sole absolute discretion)) for any claims that if brought against a Beneficiary would be or would have been subject to indemnification under Section 8.2 of the Claimant Trust Agreement, Section 8.2 of the Litigation Sub-Trust Agreement or Section 10 of the Reorganized Limited Partnership Agreement, as applicable, and (ii) the mutual agreement to dissolve the Indemnity Trust by (A) the Indemnity Trust Administrator and (B) a majority of the remaining Advisory Representatives willing to act, and, if required, entry of an order by the Bankruptcy Court or another court of competent jurisdiction authorizing the termination of the Indemnity Trust. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Indemnity Trust is to be dissolved pursuant to Section 8.1(a)(ii) hereof prior to the expiry of all Indemnification Obligations, (x) if the Grantor is still in existence, then the Grantor, at its expense, shall obtain insurance coverage acceptable to (A) the Indemnity Trust Administrator and (B) a majority of the remaining Advisory Representatives willing to act prior to such dissolution; or (y) if the Grantor is no longer in existence, then the Indemnity Trust Administrator shall, using Indemnity Trust Assets, obtain insurance coverage acceptable to (A) the Indemnity Trust Administrator and (B) a majority of the remaining Advisory Representatives willing to act prior to such dissolution. For the avoidance of doubt, neither the liquidation, dissolution nor termination and cancellation of the Claimant Trust, the Litigation Sub-Trust or the Reorganized Debtor, as applicable, nor the legal existence of the Grantor or any other party will have any effect on the legal existence of the Indemnity Trust.

(b) Upon the determination of the Indemnity Trust Administrator that the Claimant Trust has substantially completed its efforts to monetize and distribute its assets or such earlier date that the Indemnity Trust Administrator shall determine in his sole and absolute discretion, the Indemnity Trust Administrator and majority of the remaining Advisory Representatives willing to act shall work in good faith to replace the Indemnity Trust with a suitable third-party insurance policy providing then suitable protections to Beneficiaries, in each case, as determined in the sole, absolute discretion of (i) the Indemnity Trust Administrator and (ii) a majority of the remaining Advisory Representatives willing to act.

(c) At any time prior to the dissolution of the Indemnity Trust as described in Section 8.1(d), if (i) the Indemnity Trust Administrator (in his sole and absolute discretion) and (ii) a majority of the remaining Advisory Representatives willing to act (in their respective sole and absolute discretion) determine that the Indemnity Trust Assets are not reasonably necessary to satisfy current or potential Indemnification Obligations to all persons who are or might become Beneficiaries, the Indemnity Trust Administrator may transfer such excess Indemnity Trust Assets (A) at any time prior to the dissolution of the Claimant Trust, to the Claimant Trust for use by the Claimant Trust in accordance with the Claimant Trust Agreement, and (B) at any time upon or following the dissolution of the Claimant Trust, according to the same distribution methodology contemplated in Section 9.2 of the Claimant Trust Agreement in effect as of the effective date of the dissolution of the Claimant Trust; provided, however, that in no event will any such transferee be entitled to the books, records and or privileges of the Indemnity Trust; provided, further, that for the avoidance of doubt, any person or entity's contractual right to receive or recover any such remaining Indemnity Trust Assets as set forth herein does not make them or any other person a beneficiary of the Indemnity Trust or this Agreement; and provided, further, that the Indemnity Trust Assets shall at no time be less than $32 million (valued according to their market value at the time of transfer into the Indemnity Trust Account) unless otherwise provided by Section 8.1(a) or (b) of this Agreement. Any such determination by the (i) the Indemnity Trust Administrator and (ii) a majority of the remaining Advisory Representatives willing to act is final and not subject to review, and in relation to any such determination and transfer, the Indemnity Trust Administrator, the Advisory Representatives, the Oversight Board, the Indemnity Trustee, and the Delaware Trustee will be entitled to the protections of this Agreement, including but not limited to Article VII, Article VIII, and Article IX.

(d) Upon the dissolution of the Indemnity Trust and in connection with winding up the Indemnity Trust's affairs, any remaining Indemnity Trust Assets (as reduced by payments (actual and reserved) and provisions to pay all claims and obligations of the Indemnity Trust, payments to any Beneficiary or as used to purchase insurance for the benefit of the Beneficiaries to augment or replace the Indemnity Trust or as paid out in accordance with Section 9.12 hereof) will be transferred at the written direction of the Indemnity Trust Administrator (i) at any time prior to the dissolution of the Claimant Trust, to the Claimant Trust and (ii) at any time following the dissolution of the Claimant Trust, according to the same distribution methodology contemplated in Section 9.2 of the Claimant Trust Agreement in effect as of the effective date of the dissolution of the Claimant Trust provided, however, that in no event will any such transferee be entitled to the books, records and or privileges of the Indemnity Trust; provided, further, that for the avoidance of doubt, any person or entity's contractual right to receive or recover any such remaining Indemnity Trust Assets as set forth herein does not make them or any other person a beneficiary of the Indemnity Trust or this Agreement. The Indemnity Trust Administrator shall be solely responsible for the dissolution, liquidation and winding up of the affairs of the Indemnity Trust. Upon the dissolution of the Indemnity Trust and completion of the winding up of the Assets, Liabilities and affairs of the Indemnity Trust pursuant to the Delaware Statutory Trust Act, the Indemnity Trustee (acting only at the written direction of the Indemnity Trust Administrator) shall prepare, execute and file a certificate of cancellation with the State of Delaware to terminate the Indemnity Trust pursuant to Section 3810 of the Delaware Statutory Trust Act (such date upon which the certificate of cancellation is filed shall be referred to as the "Termination Date"). If the Delaware Trustee's signature is required for purposes of filing such certificate of cancellation, the Indemnity Trust Administrator shall provide the Delaware Trustee with written direction to execute such certificate of cancellation, and the Delaware Trustee shall be entitled to conclusively and exclusively rely upon such written direction without further inquiry.

8.2 Termination of Duties. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, upon the Termination Date of the Indemnity Trust, the Indemnity Trustee, the Indemnity Trust Administrator and the Delaware Trustee shall have no further duties or obligations hereunder.

8.3 No Survival. The rights of Beneficiaries hereunder shall not survive the Termination Date.

ARTICLE IX. MISCELLANEOUS

9.1 Trust Irrevocable. Except as set forth in this Agreement, establishment of the Indemnity Trust by this Agreement shall be irrevocable and shall not be subject to revocation, cancellation or rescission by the Beneficiaries.

9.2 Beneficiaries have No Legal Title to the Indemnity Trust Assets. No Beneficiary shall have legal title to any part of the Indemnity Trust Assets.

9.3 Agreement for Benefit of Parties Only. Nothing herein, whether expressed or implied, shall be construed to give any person other than the Parties, the Beneficiaries and the Indemnified Parties any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under or in respect of this Agreement. The Indemnity Trust Assets shall be held for the sole and exclusive benefit of the Beneficiaries. The Beneficiaries and the Indemnified Parties will have the right to enforce the terms of this Agreement in case the Indemnity Trust Administrator fails to perform its obligations hereunder as determined by the Bankruptcy Court or another court of competent jurisdiction.

9.4 Limited Recourse. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, all obligations of the Indemnity Trust under this Agreement shall be limited recourse obligations of the Indemnity Trust payable solely from the Indemnity Trust Assets. All obligations of and any claims against the Indemnity Trust hereunder shall be extinguished and not thereafter revive in the event that, at any time, all of the Indemnity Trust Assets are exhausted (including, for the avoidance of doubt, after giving effect to funds subsequently received as payments on the Indemnification Funding Note or otherwise) or distributed pursuant to Section 8.1(d). None of the Beneficiaries nor any other person or entity entitled to payments hereunder (including, without limitation pursuant to Sections 7.2, 7.3 and 8.1(c) and (d) hereof) will have recourse to the Indemnity Trust Administrator, the Advisory Representatives, the Oversight Board, Indemnity Trustee or the Delaware Trustee or any of their respective affiliates or their respective officers, directors, employees, representatives or their respective assets.

9.5 Notices. All notices, directions, instructions, confirmations, consents and requests required or permitted by the terms hereof shall, unless otherwise specifically provided herein, be in writing and shall be sent by first class mail, facsimile, overnight mail or in the case of mailing to a non-United States address, air mail, postage prepaid, addressed to:

Notice mailed shall be effective on the date mailed or sent. Any Party may change the address at which it is to receive notices under this Agreement by furnishing written notice pursuant to the provisions of this Section 9.4 to the other Parties of such change.

9.6 Amendments. Any change or modification to this Agreement will be made by written amendment to this Agreement and signed by the Parties hereto; provided, however, that any amendment to this Agreement that is materially detrimental to a Beneficiary will not be effective unless consented to in writing by such Beneficiary.

9.7 Severability. Any provision hereof which is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provisions in another jurisdiction.

9.8 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed by the parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument. This Agreement and the exhibits hereto set forth the entire agreement and understanding of the parties related to this transaction and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, oral or written.

9.9 Headings; References. The headings of the various Sections herein are for convenience of reference only and shall not define or limit any of the terms or provisions hereof.

9.10 Governing Law; Waiver of Jury Trial. This Agreement shall in all respects be governed by, and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, including all matters of constructions, validity and performance, but without reference to its conflict of law provisions. Each Party hereto irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any and all right to trial by jury in any legal proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby. Beneficiaries are deemed to have waived any right to a trial by jury.

9.11 Consent to Jurisdiction. Any action brought by a Beneficiary must be brought in the Bankruptcy Court. Each of the Parties hereto consents and submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court for any action or proceeding instituted for the enforcement and construction of any right, remedy, obligation, or Liability arising under or by reason of this Agreement, or any act or omission of the Indemnity Trustee or the Indemnity Trust Administrator. If the Bankruptcy Court either declines to exercise jurisdiction over such action or cannot exercise jurisdiction over such action, such action may be brought in the state or federal courts located in the State of Delaware.

9.12 Okada Settlement.

(a) On January 21, 2025 and pursuant to the Okada Settlement Agreement, Okada has transferred, or has cause to be transferred, to the Indemnity Trust, Acis 7 Proceeds, which were transferred and used in accordance with the Okada Settlement Agreement and this Section 9.12. On January 22, 2025 and in accordance with the Okada Settlement Agreement, the Indemnity Trust Administrator provide written notice to Okada of such receipt by the Indemnity Trust, including the amount of gross proceeds received. Further, within five (5) Business Days of receipt of any funds on account of Okada's Special Limited Partnership Interest ("SLP") in PetroCap Incentive Partners II, LP (the "PetroCap Proceeds"), Okada will provide written notice to the Indemnity Trust Administrator of such receipt and the amount of gross proceeds received, whereupon a written request from the Indemnity Trust Administrator, Okada will provide information reasonably related to SLP that Okada is permitted to provide consistent with his confidentiality or other obligations, for the limited purpose of the Indemnity Trust Administrator assessing the value of and funds received on account of the SLP. If Okada determines that he is unable to provide any such information to the Indemnity Trust Administrator based on confidentiality or other obligations, he will cooperate with the Indemnity Trust Administrator to address those concerns to enable such information to be provided.

(b) On or after January 1, 2025, the Indemnity Trust Administrator may in writing demand that Okada provide to the Indemnity Trust the lesser of (i) $1,000,000 and (ii) 50% of the gross amount of PetroCap Proceeds Okada actually received as of the date of such demand (the "PetroCap Proceeds Demand"); provided that the PetroCap Proceeds Demand include a written representation by the Indemnity Trust Administrator that all Indemnity Trust Assets have been or will imminently be exhausted and that such demand be made no more than once (assuming the timely and full satisfaction of such demand) by the Indemnity Trust Administrator. If the PetroCap Proceeds Demand is fully satisfied by Okada in a timely manner, Okada's contingent funding obligation under the Okada Settlement Agreement shall be extinguished and no further PetroCap Proceeds Demand may be made by the Indemnity Trust Administrator.

(c) The Acis 7 Proceeds and any PetroCap Proceeds shall be maintained as part of the Indemnity Trust Account, but accounted for and tracked separately from other Indemnity Trust Assets. The Acis 7 Proceeds and any PetroCap Proceeds transferred to the Indemnity Trust Account may be used in the same authorized manner as other Indemnity Trust Assets, but used only as "last out" funds after all other cash and other Indemnity Trust Assets are expended or otherwise disbursed in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. Further, upon written request from Okada to the Indemnity Trust Administrator, the Indemnity Trust Administrator or the Trust Administrator, as applicable, shall provide information as to the remaining amounts of Acis 7 Proceeds and/or PetroCap Proceeds held by the Indemnity Trust.

(d) On the earlier of (x) the winding-up of the Indemnity Trust and (y) any disbursement of Indemnity Trust Assets to the Claimant Trust (or any other disbursement in accordance with Article VIII), any unused portion of the Acis 7 Proceeds or the PetroCap Proceeds, plus any interest earned on those proceeds, shall be paid to Okada prior to any distributions of other Indemnity Trust Assets in accordance with Section 8.1(d); provided, that Okada shall provide to the Indemnity Trust and the Indemnity Trust Administrator a bring down of the release provided in paragraph 10 of the Okada Settlement Agreement as a condition to the release of such Indemnity Trust Assets to Okada.

(e) The Parties acknowledge that Okada retains a reversionary interest in the Acis 7 Proceeds and the PetroCap Proceeds (to the extent they actually exist and are deposited into the Indemnity Trust Account), and to the extent they are not expended or disbursed pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, any unused portion of the Acis 7 Proceeds and/or PetroCap Proceeds shall be returned to Okada in accordance with Section 9(d). For the avoidance of doubt, Okada's right to recover any unused portion of Acis 7 Proceeds and/or PetroCap Proceeds as set forth herein does not make Okada or any of the Okada Parties a beneficiary of the Indemnity Trust or this Agreement.

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, the undersigned, Highland Capital Management L.P., Claimant Trust, and Litigation Sub-Trust, (collectively, "Payors") jointly and severally hereby promise to pay to the Indemnity Trust (the "Payee") the Principal Amount (defined below), as provided in this promissory note (this "Indemnification Funding Note").

Principal Amount

At all times, the amount owed under this Indemnification Funding Note (the "Principal Amount") shall be equal to TWENTY FIVE MILLION DOLLARS ($25,000,000) less the value of any Assets held by the Indemnity Trust. The Principal Amount shall be determined and documented by the Indemnity Trust Administrator and paid in accordance with the payment terms herein. Capitalized terms utilized herein, but not defined have the meanings ascribed to them in the Indemnity Trust Agreement, effective as of August 16, 2021 (the "Agreement").

Payment

Payment of the Principal Amount shall be made, in full or in part, on the earlier of (a) demand for payment from the Indemnity Trust Administrator or (b) the date at which the combined Net Asset Value of Highland Capital Management L.P., the Claimant Trust, and the Litigation Sub-Trust is less than 200% of the Principal Amount. Subject to the foregoing, the Claimant Trustee will have sole and absolute discretion to determine the timing and amount of payments of the Principal Amount consistent with his view of liquidity needs of the Claimant Trust and related entities and the requirements of any financing agreement binding on the Claimant Trust. Upon the Claimant Trustee's determination that a payment of the Principal Amount in whole or in part should be made, the amount of the payment shall be due within five (5) days of such a determination. Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing, no payment shall be required to be made at any time if such payment would cause Highland Capital Management L.P., the Claimant Trust, or the Litigation Sub-Trust to be in default under or in violation of that certain Financing Agreement, dated as of August 11, 2021, by and among, Highland Capital Management, L.P. and Trussway Industries, LLC, as borrowers, each of the entities listed as guarantors thereon, the lenders from time to time party thereto, and Blue Torch Finance LLC (the "Exit Financing Agreement").

For the avoidance of doubt, the foregoing payments of Principal Amount will be senior to any distribution to beneficiaries under the Claimant Trust. In the event that the liquid assets of the Claimant Trust, the Litigation Sub-Trust, and Highland Capital Management L.P. are insufficient to satisfy the foregoing payments, the Claimant Trustee must take all reasonable action, subject in all respects to the terms of the Exit Financing Agreement, to satisfy such obligations under the Indemnification Funding Note, including accessing any available credit lines or third party
