So, eventually, and it takes a lot to get four little old ladies at different charities to get together and agree to file a charity in liquidation, but they did in the Caymans. Okay? And then lo and behold, the response from Mark Patrick was, ha-ha, there are no assets there anymore, I moved them all to my living room --

MR. PHILLIPS: Move to strike, Your Honor.

THE WITNESS: -- at DFW.

MR. PHILLIPS: There's no evidence in the record of this. There was no evidence of any statement. Move to strike.

THE COURT: There's not, right?

THE WITNESS: Well, no, there is, because what Mark Patrick --

THE COURT: Sustained. I don't have it.

MR. PHILLIPS: Your Honor, there is no evidence of any of this.

THE WITNESS: Well, Mark Patrick's testimony, he said -- he said that our receivership was right after his receivership. He had liquidated and taken all the assets out from Dallas, Santa Barbara, and whatever, and moved it all to his charity. So when we tried -- when the poor charities in Texas in the U.S. tried to file for liquidation, his response was ha-ha. And there were no assets there, you know, because he had already filed --

MR. PHILLIPS: Objection.

THE WITNESS: He -- he --

THE COURT: Okay, I've sustained the objection to the ha-ha. Okay.

THE WITNESS: Okay. But he had, he had filed --

MR. PHILLIPS: Your Honor, please, move to strike.

THE COURT: Okay. Let's strike everything after that last question. Ask your next question.

MR. LANG: I don't remember what the first question was.

BY MR. LANG:

Q What happened -- or, what's your understanding of the proceedings in the Caymans?

MR. PHILLIPS: Your Honor, objection. Form. Understanding of the proceedings in the Caymans?

MR. LANG: His understanding is, I mean, his understanding. What's his endgame?

THE COURT: All right. I sustain.

MR. LANG: Okay.

THE WITNESS: The Cayman Islands --

MR. PHILLIPS: Your Honor?

MR. LANG: Hold --

THE COURT: I sustained, so --

THE WITNESS: Oh, sustained. Sorry. Okay.

BY MR. LANG:

Q What is your endgame with respect to your objection over the authority of Mr. Patrick to enter into the settlement agreement that is subject of the 9019?

A The three charities in the U.S. are affected materially. Dallas Foundation can't make payroll as of October. Dallas Foundation --

MR. PHILLIPS: Your Honor, I'll object to this testimony. The Dallas Foundation has withdrawn its objection on behalf of -- Dallas Foundation appearing on behalf of Empower, the Okada Family Foundation, and Crown Global. The Dallas Foundation is no longer a party here and did not even object in its -- an individual capacity. Object.

THE COURT: I sustain the objection. They had an objection. They withdrew it.

Moreover, as I announced early on today, I was really questioning their standing to weigh in.

So in light of all of that, I'm not going to allow testimony regarding the impact there has been on Dallas Foundation as a result of something Mark Patrick may have done. Okay?

THE WITNESS: Okay. I can answer it differently.

THE COURT: Well, wait for your question. Okay.

BY MR. LANG:

Q Well, what -- what is the --

A What is my goal?

Q Well, yes, what is your goal?

THE COURT: Okay. Yes. Why are you objecting? Why is Dugaboy objecting? How about that?

MR. LANG: Safely.

THE WITNESS: Safely. Without stating where the assets are or might be, they are not with the three charities they were with a year ago. They have zero. And I would like to get those assets back.

(Pause.)

THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead. I have a couple of questions, but maybe you'll hit on them.

MR. LANG: Oh.

BY MR. LANG:

Q Mr. Dondero, are you asking the Court to -- are you objecting to the settlement agreement that is the subject of the 9019, asking the Court to allow the Joint Liquidators in the Caymans to weigh in on the settlement agreement?

A Yes. Or described a little differently, there's no irreparable harm --

MR. PHILLIPS: Objection. Nonresponsive.

BY MR. LANG:

Q Well, let me ask you this: Are you asking --

THE COURT: Let him answer.

MR. LANG: Yes.

THE COURT: Go ahead and answer.

BY MR. LANG:

Q Go ahead.

A There's no irreparable harm for a bit of delay to get to the bottom of where the assets are and what bad deeds have occurred.

Q Is that the reason why you're objecting, is to delay this for 45 days or so?

A Well, I believe the HMIT million-dollar transaction in February was a steal. I believe it was a stolen asset that he -- Mark Patrick's trying to monetize. And I don't believe it's monetized at nearly its fair value. And so I believe that it needs to be reviewed.

Q Are you asking the Court to -- are you objecting simply to allow the Liquidators in the Caymans time to review this transaction and the settlement agreement?

A Yes. There needs to be more time.

Q Okay.

MR. LANG: I'll pass the witness.

THE COURT: All right. Cross?

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Good afternoon, Mr. Dondero.

A How's it going?

Q Okay. You referred to the three underlying charities as being The Dallas Foundation, The Highland Santa Barbara Foundation, and The Highland Kansas City Foundation. Do I have that right?

A The three are The Dallas Foundation, Santa Barbara, Kansas City. There's a holding company or there's an entity below it, below each one that I'm on the board of, but it's separate and distinct from the overall charity.

Q Okay. But the ones that are separate and distinct that have the Highland name, --

A Yes.

Q -- those are the ones that you control, correct?

A No. I'm on the board. There's three or four people on the board.

Q Okay. But --

A But we don't control. Otherwise, you know, we would have not recommended the settlement.

Q Does the Hunt family make their contributions to The Dallas Foundation, The Santa Barbara Foundation, and The Kansas City Foundation, or do they make them to The Highland Dallas Foundation, The Highland Santa Barbara Foundation, and The Highland Kansas City Foundation?

A Most families do it through DAF, so they probably have their own -- they're just involved with Kansas City, as far as I know. I don't know if they're involved in any of these others. But they probably have a Hunt Kansas City.

Q But the ones with the Highland name are the ones who initiated the proceeding in the Cayman Islands to get the Joint Official Liquidators appointed over this entity down there, right?

A Yes, I believe so.

Q And you personally funded that litigation, correct?

A The charities can't make payroll.

Q And the charities, did you tell the charities what's happening here?

A Yes. They're aware.

Q When did you tell the charities what's happening here?

A They've known it for weeks.

Q And they haven't filed any objection in this court, correct?

A They thought it was best for Dallas to file it.

Q And Dallas settled; isn't that right?

A To the surprise of all the other charities.

Q Okay. So today, there's actually no charity who is objecting to the settlement agreement, correct?

A Because it was -- she got bludgeoned in depositions over the weekend and it happened last night and nobody was aware of it.
Q I didn't bludgeon anybody.
A Well, --
Q I don't bludgeon people.
A She switched course after a Sunday full-day deposition or half-day deposition.
Q Okay. So the charities that you speak of aren't objecting, correct?
A Well, if we had more time. We only had six hours' notice that Dallas fell away. I think they probably would object.
Q And you say -- you began to have concerns about Mark Patrick going all the way back to 2023, right?
A 2023? A little bit, yeah.
Q And then you had real concerns in 2024, right?
A Yeah. I mean, he's an odd duck, but he was really odd towards the end.
Q Did you file a declara... is one of those public documents you mentioned in the Cayman Islands, that's your affidavit, right?
A I believe so.
Q Do you want to grab Binder 3 of 3?
A Sure.

Q And turn to Exhibit 119?
A Yes.
Q Okay. And this is the declara... this is the affidavit that you filed in the Cayman Islands?
A Yes.
Q And if you turn to Page 4, in Paragraph 25 you begin to recite events concerning Mark Patrick that concerned you, correct?
A Yes. I'm glad you're bringing this into evidence.
Q Yes. And in the two years since you started having concerns, has anybody sued Mark Patrick for breach of fiduciary duty?
A No.
Q Have you recommended to any of these charities: Mark Patrick is doing wrong, let's go sue him?
A We were unaware on 90 percent of it until he left.
Q You were aware of everything that's in your declaration. It says in 2023, you have notice of these emails. Right? And you did an investigation in 2024, correct?
A Yes. But it took a while to get the affidavits from third parties.
Q You had the whole investigation done in 2024 and nobody sued Mark Patrick, right?
A We didn't sue him. Correct.
Q You're just mad that you lost control. Isn't that right?

A No.
Q Turn to Paragraph 33, please. You accuse Mr. Patrick of misusing material nonpublic inside information. Is that right?
A Yes.
Q What material nonpublic inside information did he abuse?
A I wasn't involved in the specifics. My understanding is that he had an awareness of a tender or some financial transaction and then was providing inside information to attorneys and then had them do something. But I don't -- I don't know the specifics.
Q Sir, under oath, in this affidavit that you submitted to the Cayman Islands, you accuse Mark Patrick of obtaining and abusing material nonpublic inside information. Can you just tell Judge Jernigan what you had in mind?
A Whatever it says I have in mind. I'm just saying I didn't remember the specifics. I can read it, though, if you'd like me to read it.
Q Well, was it something about a put option?
A Yes.
Q Did he tell The Dallas Foundation that it had a put option? Does that refresh your recollection?
A I don't remember the details.
Q Do you remember who the counterparty was to the put option?

A Counterparty. One of the mutual funds.
Q Does it refresh your recollection that it was the Dugaboy?
A No.
Q Do you remember, sir?
A I don't remember.
Q I'm going to try. I'm going to try and refresh your recollection. Do you remember that Mark Patrick suggested to The Dallas Foundation that it could recover millions of dollars if it simply exercised the put option with Dugaboy?
A My recollection is it was a mutual fund, and it wasn't millions of dollars, but it would disrupt the transaction that was already in place. That's my recollection.
Q Okay.
A And I don't see Dugaboy anywhere in here, by the way.
Q I know. I was wondering if you could just -- I asked you, but it doesn't sound like you know specifically what the material nonpublic --
A Well, --
Q -- inside information is that you accused Mr. Patrick of abusing at that time.
A I know it's been reported. We can get you the details.
Q Okay. You, in fact, acted on behalf of HMIT, didn't you?
A Who is HMIT?
Q Apologies. You personally -- there's no question in your mind that Mark Patrick is the Administrator at HMIT, correct?

A I'm sorry, I'm drawing a blank on HMIT. What is HMIT?
Q I apologize. Hunter Mountain Investment Trust.
A Oh. Okay.
Q I'm calling it HMIT.
A Okay. All right. Sorry.
Q I probably not saying it clearly. I apologize. H-M-I-T. HMIT, that's what I call it. Is there something better that you prefer?
A No, that's fine. Yeah.
Q Okay. So HMIT. Mark Patrick is the Administrator at HMIT, right?
A I believe his status, his dirty hands, I believe he's trying to monetize a stolen asset.
MR. PHILLIPS: Objection, Your Honor. Nonresponsive.
THE COURT: Sustained.
THE WITNESS: No, I -- I saw it. I don't agree --
MR. PHILLIPS: Objection, Your Honor.
THE COURT: Sustained.
MR. PHILLIPS: Move to strike.
THE COURT: Granted.
THE WITNESS: I do not agree.
BY MR. MORRIS:
Q Okay. Has he -- he was at one time the Administrator. You would agree with that, right?
A Yes.

Q And did he stop becoming the Administrator in your mind when the Joint Official Liquidators were appointed?
A Yes. I believe.
Q Okay. So, in your mind, that's when it happened?
Can you describe for the Court the relationship between the entity in the Cayman Islands and HMIT?
A The entity in the Cayman Island, as far as we knew, was the org structure that all the assets were either in or controlled by in the organizational structure before all the HGEQ things that you went over earlier with Mark Patrick.
Q Okay. I'm not asking -- it's my fault. Do you believe the entity in the Cayman Islands controls HMIT?
A HMIT was one of the assets that were owned by the charities until it was moved for a million dollar to who know who.
Q And do you know how many layers there are between the Cayman Islands entity and HMIT?
A I do not.
Q Is it fair to -- in your view, do you believe that the Cayman Islands entity had a direct -- withdrawn. Do you believe that the Cayman Islands entity had an indirect ownership interest in HMIT?
A We believed it was direct.
Q Direct. So it was the owner?
A Well, it was -- it was the direct before it got moved in February.

Q Hasn't Beacon always been the owner of -- the beneficial owner of HMIT?

A Then it was Beacon that was moved. There was -- charities were notified in February that, for $1 million, the HMIT was sold to an undisclosed, unknown person.

Q Do you believe that the entity in the Cayman Islands ever had the ability to control Hunter Mountain Investment Trust?

A Yeah. It was an asset in the portfolio.

Q And do you believe that that gives it the right to control HMIT?

A Yes. I think the Liquidators will prove that. I think they can go back in time on bad acts and bad behavior and they can regroup assets to their rightful owners.

Q So your concern here is not with corporate authority, it's with the bad acts. Is that fair?

A Well, no. I think you lose your corporate authority when you're fiducially irresponsible or commit corporate crimes.

Q Okay. But you've never -- you've never brought a lawsuit accusing him of that. Fair?

A I think you'll see a litany of stuff come out of the Cayman Islands.

MR. PHILLIPS: Objection. Nonresponsive.

MR. MORRIS: I'm sure we might someday.

THE COURT: Sustained.

THE WITNESS: Yeah. But, no. But I have not, no.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q Yeah. But you personally, have you ever been the Administrator of Hunter Mountain Investment Trust?

A Not that I'm aware of.

Q Have you ever had any role whatsoever with respect to the Hunter Mountain Investment Trust?

A Not that I -- not that I recall.

Q Okay. Do you recall last December we were here on some litigation concerning HCLOM's scheduled claim?

A You have to give me more of a clue.

Q Remember HCLOM had that $10 million scheduled claim and Highland had filed a bad faith motion and we were all here in court and we wound up settling that matter and HCLOM got a Class 10 interest for $10 million?

A Yes, I vaguely remember that.

Q Okay. And you were here and you were representing HCLOM, right?

A Okay. I don't remember specifics, but, yes, go ahead.

Q Okay. And do you recall that Highland required Hunter Mountain Investment Trust's consent as part of the transaction?

A Vaguely.

Q And you personally authorized that consent back in December, didn't you?

A No.
Q Who did?
A Whoever would have spoke for HMIT at the time.
Q Okay. Let's take a look at Exhibit 68, please.
A So, Binder 2?
Q Yes, please.
A Sorry, this says Pat Daugherty. This is 1 of 3. This one. Okay. Did you say 68?
Q Yes.
A It's not in here, either. 68.
Q So you see that's an order of the Court?
A Yes.
Q And this resolves HCLOM's claim? Take your time.
A I'll leave it in case someone else needs it. Okay.
Q And do you see on the last page of the document there's an electronic signature by Deborah Deitsch-Perez at the Stinson firm as counsel for Hunter Mountain Investment Trust and Dugaboy Investment Trust? Do you see that?
A I'm sorry. I went to the very last page with Mark and I. Is there another page? Oh, okay. Yes. Okay.
Q So you see Stinson has signed both on behalf of you personally and HCLOM, and at the bottom, Stinson and Ms. Deitsch-Perez has also signed on behalf of Hunter Mountain Investment Trust and the Dugaboy Investment Trust? Do you see that?

A Yes. But then it's separate on 69, right?
Q Yeah. We're just looking at 68.
A Okay.
Q Do you know who authorized Ms. Deitsch-Perez to sign her name and tell the Court that the Dugaboy Investment Trust had approved this form of order both as to form and substance? Who acted on behalf of Dugaboy?
A I have no idea. I hope she keeps it straight when she's signing stuff.
Q Well, on whose behalf are you here today?
A Dugaboy's.
Q And are you a representative of Dugaboy?
A Representative? I'm primary beneficiary until I pass.
Q And who's the trustee of Dugaboy?
A I believe it's my sister at the moment.
Q Does she know you're here today testifying on behalf of Dugaboy?
A She knows I'm in court. I didn't -- I wasn't specific.
Q Did you talk to her about the Dugaboy -- does she -- does she even know about the Dugaboy objection?
A I don't know.
Q Okay. So how about Hunter Mountain Investment Trust? Do you know who authorized Ms. Deitsch-Perez to sign this document on behalf of Hunter Mountain Investment Trust?
A When was this? In December or January?

Q Yeah.
A I'm assuming -- I'm assuming Mark Patrick.
Q Late December.
A I'm assuming Mark Patrick. But I don't know.
Q Did you hear about a week later that Mr. Phillips called your lawyer and accused her of signing this document without authority from Hunter Mountain Investment Trust's authorized representative, Mr. Patrick?
A In hindsight, he's been in on it for a while, so --
Q What do you mean, he's been in on it for a while?
A I think he knows the plan Mark Patrick's been putting in place for quite a while.
Q But this document was signed without his knowledge or consent; isn't that right?
A I don't know.
Q And you had to sign a new agreement with Mark Patrick as the authorized representative of HMIT. Didn't you do that, sir?
A I don't know.
Q Okay. Let's take a look at guess I guess probably Exhibit 69. So this is an intercreditor and participation agreement. Do you see that?
A Yes.
Q And it's dated January 10th, 2025, correct?
A Yes.

Q And even though you -- even though Skyview had completed this investigation in which it was alleged that Mr. Patrick misused material nonpublic inside information and he had terminated his relationship with Skyview, you still entered into this agreement with him as the authorized representative of HMIT, correct?

A Those were different work streams, you know, so they were -- but yes.

MR. PHILLIPS: Objection. Nonresponsive.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q That is -- that is your signature on the last page, correct?

A Yeah. I mean, --

Q It's a simple question. That's your signature, right?

A Yes.

Q And you understood that you were signing an agreement with Mark Patrick, correct?

A Yes.

Q And you signed this agreement in order to avoid Mr. Phillips filing a motion in this court for reconsideration of an order that she signed not knowing that Hunter Mountain had given its consent without authority. Isn't that right?

A No, I had no -- none of that --

Q So what's your memory? Why do you think you entered into this agreement?

A Because the lawyers put it in front of me as a finished product from what had been going on recently.
Q And you had no understanding of what it was?
A Not with the innuendo and agenda that you were describing. No. I mean, I just -- I knew what it generally involved. That's it.
Q But you would agree with me that you entered into an agreement knowing that Mark Patrick was signing on behalf of Hunter Mountain, correct?
A Yes.
Q I mean, it's right below your name, right?
A Yes.
Q You couldn't have missed it.
A Yes. That part, I'll agree with.
Q Okay. And you signed the agreement with Mark acting as the authorized agent and representative of Hunter Mountain, notwithstanding all of the bad acts that you supposedly were aware of at the time. Correct?
A Object to aware of at the time. They were all coming together in parallel work paths.
THE COURT: Okay.
MR. PHILLIPS: Object. Nonresponsive.
THE COURT: Sustained. Like I told Mr. Patrick, the witness does not get to object.

THE WITNESS: Okay.

BY MR. MORRIS:

Q And just to close the loop, Mr. Dondero, you fully funded The Dallas Foundation's objection, correct?

A And I made additional donations so that they could pursue bad actors and get their money back.

Q You funded the litigation so that The Dallas Foundation could pursue their objection, correct?

A I made additional donations so that they could get some assets back so that they could be a charity again and make donations.

Q Do you get a tax deduction for that donation?

A Yes.

Q Okay. That's nice.

Let's just finish up with the Joint Official Liquidators. Have you spoken to them?

A I do not believe so.

Q Has anybody acting on your behalf spoken with the Joint Official Liquidators?

A I don't know. I think the Joint Official Liquidators are an accounting firm. I think they're Grant Thornton. I think people have spoken to the attorneys down there, but I don't know -- I haven't spoken to Grant Thornton and I don't know if anybody else has.

Q Okay. Did you see the letter that your counsel marked as the exhibit, the one that was sent last night?

A I've not heard it -- I've not read it, but I've heard you guys read it today.
Q Yeah. Are you aware of the Joint Official Liquidators saying at any time that they didn't believe Mark Patrick had the authority to enter into the settlement agreement on behalf of the HMIT entities?
A I have not.
Q Okay.
MR. MORRIS: No further questions, Your Honor.
THE COURT: All right. Mr. Phillips?
MR. PHILLIPS: Yeah.
THE COURT: Wait. What are we at timewise?
THE CLERK: So their 30 minutes is over. If you intended to give them 30 minutes for Patrick and --
THE COURT: Yes. Yes. They collectively got 30 minutes.
THE CLERK: For both of those --
THE COURT: Yes.
THE CLERK: -- witnesses. Okay. Yes, they're out.
THE COURT: How much did Mr. Morris use?
THE CLERK: Well, I don't know. I just was --
THE COURT: No, no, no, no. 30 minutes for each side for each Patrick and Dondero.
MR. MORRIS: About eight minutes.

THE CLERK: Yes. Mr. Morris -- I think Mr. Phillips may have asked one question, but Mr. Morris mostly -- 30 minutes.

THE COURT: No. On this witness, Phillips hadn't gone.

THE CLERK: No, not this witness.

THE COURT: Okay. That's all I care about, this witness.

THE CLERK: I don't know this witness.

THE COURT: Okay. Do you have a question, Mr. Phillips?

THE CLERK: I was doing 30 minutes for the total.

THE COURT: No, no, no, no, no.

MR. PHILLIPS: Your Honor, I can resolve this. I can resolve this. We have no questions.

THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. Where are we? Mr. Lang, any redirect?

MR. LANG: I'm not sure.

THE COURT: Okay.

THE WITNESS: The last one.

MR. PHILLIPS: Your Honor, the witness is telling the lawyer what question to ask.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. LANG: I believe I've already asked, which is the endgame.

THE COURT: Okay. Just let's move on. Anything else? What was the question?

REDIRECT EXAMINATION

BY MR. LANG:

Q Mr. Dondero, what are you looking to accomplish through this objection?

MR. PHILLIPS: Asked and answered.

THE COURT: Sustained. Sustained. He did. He was asked and answered.

BY MR. LANG:

Q The endgame in general.

MR. PHILLIPS: Asked and answered.

THE COURT: Answered and answered. Move on.

THE WITNESS: No, no. No, I haven't. No, I --

MR. PHILLIPS: Asked and answered. Move to strike.

THE COURT: You asked him this on your direct earlier.

MR. LANG: I did.

THE WITNESS: But, in general, regarding the --

MR. PHILLIPS: Your Honor?

THE WITNESS: Not just this.

THE COURT: Sustained. Ask another question.

MR. LANG: I don't have any more questions.

THE COURT: Okay. I have a question.

EXAMINATION BY THE COURT

THE COURT: Here is something that I want to understand. What I have before me is whether a settlement with Hunter Mountain, a settlement between the Highland entities, the Claimant Trust, the Subtrusts, and the Hunter Mountain entities, seven of them, is fair and equitable, is in the best interest of the estate. If you were the director, the manager, the representative of Hunter Mountain estate, what would your answer be?

THE WITNESS: It's not in the ZIP Code.

THE COURT: It's not in the ZIP Code?

THE WITNESS: Of fair. Yes.

THE COURT: Okay. Why do you think it's not in the ZIP Code of fair?

THE WITNESS: Okay. We filed in Delaware on a $100 million judgment. Pachulski was our counsel. They told us --

THE COURT: I know all this.

THE WITNESS: It just --

THE COURT: I'm talking about the settlement in front of me right now.

THE WITNESS: -- we'd be in and out in three months, right? We got liquidated instead. We got liquidated for over $850 million, which not enough people talk about. Okay? It would've been $950 million if Seery had done a good job, but it was $850 million we got liquidated for. Okay? The POCs were pumped up. People who supposedly had no claim, all of a sudden, $300 million.

There's $700 million missing or misallocated from the estate. Okay? There was -- all the original creditors, all the original creditors sold 99 percent of their interest for $160 million. The Farallon and Stonehill went to the beach. There was enough money on the balance sheet. Seery could have given them the $160 million and tossed us the keys. Instead, he had relations, deep relations, undisclosed business relationships with Farallon and Stonehill, --

THE COURT: Okay. I do want you to know --

THE WITNESS: No, but --

THE COURT: -- I've read all this many times.

THE WITNESS: Okay. But so -- so these --

THE COURT: I promise I read every piece of paper submitted.

THE WITNESS: Okay. So, so he sold the POCs to them, and it's been -- they've tripled their money in two and a half years. The professional fees have been $300-odd million. There's interrelationships between all the professionals -- Farallon, Stonehill, Grosvenor, the Hellman & Friedman guys, the Millennium guys who took whatever. All this stuff has to come out.

We're on the edge of a giant RICO case eventually. We're -- that's -- we're on the edge of a giant RICO case. And they should not be giving up their rights for $10, $20 million.

It's crazy for them to give up their rights at Dallas Foundation for 10 or 20 million bucks.

There's $700 million missing. All the original creditors sold for $160 million. The estate was sold for over $850 million. Where'd all the money go? Where'd all the money go and why? You know.

We get updates quarterly, once in a while, well, this much went out to this law firm, this much went out to this, whatever, but no one looks at the gross amount and where'd all the money go? And why? Why did it have to -- why did it have to go down like that? Why do we have to fire --

THE COURT: Okay. I know you have an objection.

THE WITNESS: -- all the employees?

THE COURT: This is narrative.

MR. MORRIS: Yeah. And --

THE COURT: I understand all --

MR. MORRIS: -- I'm not going to cross-examine him, but this is -- this is not accurate.

THE COURT: I understand all of these arguments. You know, I --

THE WITNESS: But I'm just --

THE COURT: Your lawyers at least know, if you don't know, that we wrote a 100-plus-page opinion on the motion of Hunter Mountain to sue for all of this. Okay? So I promise I've heard this and looked at it. But right now, Hunter

Mountain, through Mark Patrick, you question his authority, but they are ready to lay down their swords and not pursue that motion for leave to sue based on the claims trading, and --

THE WITNESS: Have you seen all the insider trading, Farallon, Stonehill? Have you seen the trading and claims on insider information? Have you seen all that stuff?

THE COURT: I've seen the allegations but I --

THE WITNESS: Well, why would you release all those people right now before the RICO?

THE COURT: So I -- Dugaboy -- you've been asked what is your goal? Dugaboy a .18 limited partnership interest --

THE WITNESS: Correct.

THE COURT: -- that is subordinated to Hunter Mountain. I'm just trying to understand the scenario where it makes sense to keep fighting for years to come.

THE WITNESS: Well, RICO transcends this, right? I mean, RICO brings everybody in. Until we get --

THE COURT: Okay. You think it's -- and my question, why is this not fair and equitable and in the best interest of the estate, you think it's better to litigate several more years and maybe have a chance, you know, --

THE WITNESS: At $600 mill. At $600 million.

THE COURT: -- Hunter Mountain would have a chance to --

THE COURT: Okay.

THE WITNESS: Versus $20 million now. But you have to remember, it's all part of -- you have to pay attention to this Mark Patrick stuff.

MR. PHILLIPS: Your Honor?

THE COURT: Okay. Yes. I asked my question. I'm trying to understand why Dugaboy, why its position is this is not fair and equitable and in the best interest and in the range of reasonableness. Those are the buzz words that a judge has to focus on.

THE WITNESS: It's not fair to the charities. I still think no one's ever seen --

THE COURT: The charities aren't parties here.

THE WITNESS: Not yet. Give them a little time. They just heard about the settlement yesterday.

THE COURT: Well, isn't that what the Cayman Islands is all about? What I do doesn't necessarily affect what's happening there.

THE WITNESS: Well, no, but you're saying they're not here today. If you delayed this three weeks, they'd be here. It's just a couple --

THE COURT: They were here and they chose to withdraw.

THE WITNESS: One. One. Just one charity. But the others, if you give them some time, they'll be here.

THE COURT: Okay. Okay. I think you've answered my question, your theory of how this should play out and how you want it to play out. Okay. All right.

THE WITNESS: Thank you.

THE COURT: That's all. Thank you.

THE WITNESS: Thank you for the time.

THE COURT: Uh-huh.

(The witness steps down.)

THE COURT: All right. I think that concludes our evidence, correct?

MR. YORK: Yes, Your Honor. At least from Daugherty and --

THE COURT: Okay. The Objectors rest. Any rebuttal?

MR. PHILLIPS: No, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. YORK: Your Honor, would it be okay if we took a five-minute comfort break?

THE COURT: Yes. We may as well turn it into a 10-minute break because that's what's going to happen. All right. We'll be back at 3:40.

THE CLERK: All rise.

(A recess ensued from 3:30 p.m. until 3:44 p.m.)

THE CLERK: All rise.

THE COURT: Please be seated. We're back on the record in Highland Capital. I will hear closing arguments. And I dangled something out there before lunch and I've never heard any follow-up. I guess no agreement with Daugherty could be reached on the reserve?

MR. YORK: Haven't had that conversation, Your Honor.

THE COURT: You didn't have that conversation? Oh, well. Why didn't you have that conversation?

MR. YORK: We were, during the lunch break, working busily to prepare the rebuttal to Mr. Seery's testimony, --

MR. MORRIS: Yeah.

MR. YORK: -- Your Honor. And so --

THE COURT: Okay. You told me you'd talk about it.

MR. MORRIS: May I proceed, Your Honor?

THE COURT: I guess I don't matter. Do I not matter when I suggest something like that?

Okay. Go ahead.

CLOSING ARGUMENT ON BEHALF OF THE CLAIMANT TRUST

MR. MORRIS: Good afternoon, Your Honor. John Morris; Pachulski, Stang, Ziehl & Jones; for Highland Capital Management, LP and the Highland Claimant Trust and on behalf of the Highland Litigation Subtrust.

I know that we've got Bob Loigman in the courtroom, but I know that -- at least I hope he joins me in this closing argument. I suspect he does.

I don't want to be too long here, Your Honor. We don't have a high burden. This is a 9019 motion, for goodness' sakes. I've never been involved in such a contentious 9019 motion in my life. We had three depositions on Friday. We had two on Sunday. I think we had two on Monday. For a 9019, I've had one witness sit multiple times.

It's been an extraordinary experience. But at the end of the day, nobody's really challenging the settlement agreement. You've got people challenging, you know, the Cayman Islands. You've got people challenging, is it -- you know, can you jam it in under the plan? We're not jamming anything under the plan. We're following the plan provisions.

Nobody's challenging the bona fides of the motion. Nobody is challenging whether it's the product of good-faith, arm's-length negotiations.

You heard Mr. Seery testify at length about the process. You've got 55 different documents in the record proving that this agreement is the product of arm's-length, good-faith negotiations between parties represented by sophisticated counsel that resulted from an exchange of information, an exchange of proposals, back and forth, and here we are.

It's also in the best interests of the estate. Really not challenged by anybody. Nobody is contending that Highland is getting a raw deal here. Nobody. And the proof that Highland is getting fair consideration and that this settlement is in the best interest of the Claimant Trust and its stakeholders, it's obvious we are terminating costly, wasteful, and I dare say frivolous litigation. We are disposing of several illiquid assets. We are getting litigation protections that will inure to the benefit of the released parties, the Highland release parties and it will, we believe, provide the protection that we deserve.

It's not just releases. It's covenants not to sue. It's all kinds of bells and whistles in there. Substantial benefits to the estate. And so nobody's really objecting to that.

Nobody's really objecting to the fairness of the settlement to the HMIT parties except for Mr. Dondero, and he's just mad that peace is breaking out. He's just mad because he's not going to be able to litigate anymore. It's not relevant to a 9019 motion. But even if it was, it's ridiculous. It's just ridiculous.

The settlement is fair and reasonable and in the best interest of the creditors. It's the product of good-faith, arm's-length negotiations. And on that alone, it should be approved.

We've had a lot of testimony today about Mark Patrick's authority. The only actual evidence that concerns Mark Patrick's authority are the exhibits in the binder and Jim Seery's testimony about the diligence that he did. And the exhibits in the binder all prove that Mark Patrick has the authority to act and bind the HMIT entities to the settlement agreement. It's Paragraph 7 of the HMIT trust agreement itself.

Did the objecting parties point you to one single document to support their speculative argument, because it's not anything more than that, that somehow Mark Patrick isn't authorized to do this? There is not a scintilla of evidence that Mark Patrick is not authorized to do this.

And if Your Honor had any concerns about Mr. Patrick, I think he answered them at the end. That he understood exactly what the terms of the agreement are. That he had a reasonable opportunity to consult with counsel and to negotiate. That he knows exactly what he's doing on behalf of these entities. That he believes the best path forward from the HMIT entities is to grab the value today instead of letting it waste.

We welcome Mr. Patrick to the table. It makes a lot of sense. We've been trying to get to this point forever.

Mr. Daugherty. You know, I have no gripes with Mr. Daugherty. I don't know quite what's motivating him these days, but he admitted and the evidence is clear that when he was a Class 9 claim holder, I forget if it's two or three or four occasions, he accepted $3.7 million in multiple payments, without any concern at all as to whether or not it violated the plan, even though his Class 8 claim had remained unresolved.

He didn't send the money back. He didn't say, Mr. Seery, you can't do this because it violates the plan. He knowingly and willingly accepted the benefits of being a Class 9 claim holder. And now he comes and objects on the basis that somehow it's not fair to him as a Class 8 holder? This is what we call estoppel. Right?

I wasn't in a position to really make the argument because I didn't quite understand it until today. Like, how does he come in today and say you can't do this, Your Honor? You can't allow Class 9 and 10 to get a nickel until he's done, when he himself has accepted millions of dollars before his claim is resolved? That doesn't sound right to me. And I don't think the Court should accept that argument.

Just quickly, because I don't want to give it any weight, frankly, but this whole business of the Cayman Islands and the JOLs, the only facts Your Honor has to take into account are that they were appointed before this motion was filed. They've never appeared here. They've never objected. And there is no evidence in the record to suggest, let alone to prove, that the JOLs contend that Mark Patrick does not have the authority to enter into the settlement on behalf of the HMIT entities. There's no evidence of any kind.

What you need to know and need to remember, though, is that whole proceeding in the Cayman Islands is being brought on behalf of not The Kansas City Foundation or The Dallas

Foundation, but The Highland Kansas City Foundation, The Highland Dallas. It's Mr. Dondero, and he's funding it, and it says it in Paragraph I think 47 or 48 of his declaration. He's funding all of that. And he funded The Dallas Foundation's objection here.

And that's why he's upset, because they settled last night without telling him because they didn't want any part of this, Your Honor. That's the truth. That's why they're not here. And they, right, they're the people who suggested that maybe something untoward happened and maybe someday -- because this is the way their objection is characterized. Complete speculation.

If you go back and look at the objection, it's someday, somebody might do something and might someday set it aside. That wasn't a proper basis at the time, but we know that Mark Patrick remains in control of the HMIT entities today because nobody has told the Court otherwise. And we know that The Dallas Foundation has withdrawn its objection. As I asked Mr. Patrick, have you been, you know, removed or clipped or terminated or in any way restricted in your capacity as the Administrator and control person of the HMIT entities as a result of the settlement, and the answer was no.

There's nothing to see here, Your Honor, except the opportunity for the Highland Claimant Trust and its affiliated entities in moving this case forward in an enormously positive and constructive direction.

We have the opportunity today to put to rest a lot of pending litigation. We have the opportunity today to put to rest a lot of future potential litigation that undoubtedly would have come to pass had these entities remained under the indirect control of Mr. Dondero, because we know that that was the case.

If you remember, Your Honor, we sat here two years ago, June 8th, 2023, on the evidentiary hearing on Hunter Mountain's motion for leave to bring the claims trading case. And if Your Honor will remember, Mr. Patrick at that time was forced to admit that the entirety of that case came in from Mr. Dondero, that he had no knowledge of any facts that related to anything.

I would ask Your Honor to go and compare The Dallas Foundation's objection with Mr. Dondero's declaration that he filed in the Cayman Islands. I'm not going to say they're verbatim, but they are largely, largely the same. This is just Jim Dondero being Jim Dondero, and that is not a basis to overrule or deny the motion under Rule 9019.

It's a product of good faith negotiations, it is clearly in the best interests of the estate, and we respectfully request that as soon as possible Your Honor grant motion.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. MORRIS: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Any closing from the Movant, Co-Movant?

MR. PHILLIPS: Your Honor, thank you very much. Louis M. Phillips on behalf of the --

THE COURT: I don't know if you're the Co-Movant. You're a party to the proposed settlement.

MR. PHILLIPS: I'm not a Co-Movant.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. PHILLIPS: I'm a party to the settlement.

THE COURT: Uh-huh.

MR. PHILLIPS: I didn't quite make it to that status to be a Co-Movant.

CLOSING ARGUMENT ON BEHALF OF THE HUNTER MOUNTAIN ENTITIES

MR. PHILLIPS: But anyway, we appreciate the Court's time. We appreciate the Court's attention. This was, as the evidence established, we provided and were provided an immense amount of information.

Much of the information, certainly the information about Mr. Patrick's control of the HMIT entities, was provided by us. It was reviewed by Mr. Seery. And Mr. Seery made a very strong case for the amount of diligence he did on our side of the equation. It's not nearly as relevant to Your Honor's decision about whether to approve the settlement whether we got a good deal or not, but the deal we got, we think, is very fair.

The deal we got was negotiated with counsel, with businesspeople who are very sophisticated. We have agreed on the methodology and of the calculation of our Class 10 claim. The Debtor and the Debtor estate or the Claimant Trust or whoever held the HMIT note got full value for the HMIT note. Any additional value from the HMIT note would come back to HMIT. The Kirschner Litigation would be for the benefit of HMIT. The Dugaboy Note would be for the benefit of HMIT.

All of that is being put into a package and is being resolved, affiliated, administered in a very effective and efficient manner. We are getting some money. We appreciate. We tried to get more. We couldn't. They tried to pay less. We made a deal.

So, Your Honor, I echo and thank Mr. Morris for all of his comments. I appreciate counsel being involved here today. We think this is a fair and equitable settlement. There is no question under 9019 that this settlement should be approved. And the suggestion that this Court should allow itself to just be a vehicle for continued litigation, when we have analyzed it, perhaps from a different perspective, and made the decision that it is time to make our deal now, it is time to take HMIT out of the litigation picture and into the fold of a party in interest of a fixed claim with fixed treatment that's different from the plan, authorized by the plan. And we appreciate it.

Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you. All right. Mr. Loigman, we didn't mean to ignore you.

CLOSING ARGUMENT ON BEHALF OF MARC S. KIRSCHNER, LITIGATION TRUSTEE

MR. LOIGMAN: Thank you, Your Honor. Robert Loigman, Quinn Emanuel. You didn't ignore me. Louis was just quicker to jump up than I was.

And I step up solely because you asked whether the Co-Movant had anything to add. And we have nothing further to add to what Mr. Morris said. We agree with it wholly. We think this is a fair and complete settlement, and we would ask that the Court approve the settlement under the 9019 motion.

THE COURT: Thank you.

MR. LOIGMAN: Thank You, Your Honor.

THE COURT: All right. The Objectors?

MR. MORRIS: Your Honor?

THE COURT: Oh.

MR. MORRIS: Just to clarify, the motion was made under 9019 and Section 363. I just don't want that to get lost. That's all.

THE COURT: Okay. 363, use of property. Okay.

The Objectors?

CLOSING ARGUMENT ON BEHALF OF PATRICK DAUGHERTY

MR. YORK: Thank you, Your Honor. I'll be very brief.

I certainly appreciate that the Court desires to have this bankruptcy wrapped up, given how long it's gone on now, for six -- approximately six years in this court. The fact of the matter is that the settlement agreement that Highland proposes to enter into with Hunter Mountain Investment Trust entities violates the express terms of the plan, the confirmation order, and the Claimant Trust Agreement.

And they have not pointed to any language in there or to argue otherwise. Their only argument has been that they've set a reserve aside. And there's no provision in any of those documents that provides that that's an excuse for them to violate the express terms of the confirmation order, the plan, or the Claimant Trust Agreement, including specifically the language that Class 10 claims are not to receive or retain anything under the plan on account of their interest unless and until the Class 8 and Class 9 claims are paid in full plus applicable interest. And --

THE COURT: I really want to understand that argument. Mr. Seery correctly testified that, pretty much in every Chapter 11 plan we see, there's a disputed claim reserve. Well, I guess unless we have really unsophisticated creditors who don't insist on that. But we had sophisticated creditors. So why doesn't that mechanism, which I would call tried and true, we see it in most cases, why doesn't that resolve this issue you're raising?

MR. YORK: Well, --

THE COURT: And I focused in more than maybe I needed to about the nature of Mr. Daugherty's remaining claim, his Class 8 claim. What was the scope? What's the maximum amount it could be? When might it be resolved? Because I think we have a tried-and-true mechanism that addresses his concerns. Tell me why it doesn't.

MR. YORK: Well, --

THE COURT: Really, I want to understand what you think I'm missing.

MR. YORK: Well, so I think twofold, Your Honor. The first is that the dispute reserve that exists normally would be for whatever the amount of the disputed claim is. And here we're dealing with, as both sides have acknowledged, a claim that they at best could estimate, but they don't know for certain, given all of the machinations that could come out of the IRS audit.

And secondly, specifically with respect to the confirmation order, if it had said that the net 10 and 11 claims could be paid as long as the allowed 8 and 9 claims were paid, then the dispute reserve would provide that protection. But that's not what the language in the confirmation order says. It says claims, not allowed claims. And therefore it's referring to all claims, including disputed claims. And --

THE COURT: But we have a disputed claim reserve. Okay. We have a disputed claim reserve.

MR. YORK: There is, yes, there is a reserve.

THE COURT: So is it your argument that I can't approve a settlement like this until Mr. Daugherty's claim has been resolved with certainty, which might be in 2033 or whatever? I can't keep a bankruptcy estate open, allowing administrative expenses to continue to accrue, because of one contingent unliquidated claim that may never even develop.

MR. YORK: Your Honor, I appreciate the Court's frustration with that, but that's the way that the documents are written in terms of the confirmation order. And so it's an --

THE COURT: So the disputed claim reserve is meaningless?

MR. YORK: No, it is not -- a disputed claim reserve exists, but it does not, under the terms of the confirmation order, in terms of allowing the payment of Class 10 and Class 11 claims, those can't be done until the Class 8 claims are resolved.

THE COURT: You would have -- just a moment -- you would have me keep this estate open for as long as it takes, 2033, whatever, without allowing Class 10 and Class 11 theoretically to get anything?

MR. YORK: At least under --

THE COURT: Let's just let the -- with all respect to Mr. Seery, he's charging a handsome amount. It was agreed to or approved by the Court. Let's just let him continue accruing until 2033 because of Mr. Daugherty's prospect of the IRS saying you owe $1.4 million plus interest and penalties, when he's gotten the use of that all? Help me. This doesn't make sense to me.

MR. YORK: Sure. One way this could be solved is that the payments to -- the cash payments, for example, that are to be made to the HMIT entities, under the proposed settlement could be held in abeyance until the resolution of the Class 8 claim. The Court could modify the proposed settlement based on that. That's one way to deal with the issue, for example.

THE COURT: Do what? Hold it in abeyance?

MR. YORK: Yes. For -- the payments to be made to the Hunter Mountain Investment Trust under the proposed settlement could be -- could be done in accordance with the terms of the confirmation order. We'll just hold those payments until such time.

THE COURT: We who? Put it in the Court Registry?

MR. YORK: Or --

THE COURT: Where it will earn 0.18 percent?

MR. YORK: No. No. It can remain within the Claimant Trust until the time at which the Class 8 claim is finally and fully resolved.

THE COURT: Okay. Meanwhile, I've approved the extension of the Trusts for one year, with Dugaboy saying, we don't think this should happen again and again and again. We reserve our rights. That's not a good solution.

MR. YORK: Your Honor, I understand the Court's frustration, but this is the terms of the plan and the confirmation order that were entered. Highland needs to follow it.

THE COURT: Okay. What about the estoppel argument that I heard Mr. Morris make?

MR. YORK: Well, sure. So, the first time they raise it is here today. And the one thing that -- the difference is that allowing this settlement to go forward is an effective liquidation of the estate versus where things are now, in which any payments that were made is not an effective liquidation. It doesn't expose anyone that would have priority to Class 10 with respect to anything that happens in the future from, you know, not having sufficient funds to deal with it. That's all.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. YORK: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Thank you. All right. Mr. Lang?

CLOSING ARGUMENT ON BEHALF OF DUGABOY INVESTMENT TRUST

MR. LANG: I'll be brief. Your Honor, there are three issues that we've raised. One is the capital account balance being used for the claim for the Class 10 holders. The plan does not specify that the capital account balance is to be used. Allowing the $336 million claim to Class 10 ensures that Class 11 will not ever receive a dime. That's guaranteed.

Alternatively, upon the satisfaction of the Class 9, the $20 million approximately owed to Class 9, the holders of HMIT should receive 99.5 percent of the total residual. We think that would be a more fair outcome to the Class 11 claimants.

THE COURT: Wait, say again?

MR. LANG: That, so, of total assets, $70 million approximately, $20 million is owed to Class 9.

THE COURT: Uh-huh.

MR. LANG: Of the remainder from that, HMIT should receive 99.5 percent of those assets, whatever they are, the value, rather than a $336 million claim. That was the objection.

THE COURT: But I didn't get any evidence of a separate way of competing -- of doing that. I heard credible testimony from Mr. Seery about why he used the math he used and I didn't hear any countervailing evidence of, wait, this is a more fair, realistic way of computing it. And what I did hear is the .5 percent limited partnership interest of Dugaboy is subordinated in its payment rights under the limited partnership agreement of Highland.

MR. LANG: It's subordinated under the plan, but yes, the plan does not say to use --

THE COURT: Under the partnership agreement is the reason the plan did it, is what I've been presented.

MR. LANG: I believe Mr. Seery -- and I could be wrong -- I think I heard him say that he has used the other method, but I could have misheard him in the testimony.

THE COURT: Well, that's not what I heard. I heard him emphasizing the fact that the Class 8 interests, including that of Dugaboy, are subordinated with regard to payment rights under the Highland partnership agreement. And so that's why he didn't think it made sense to just apply percentages.

MR. LANG: That's what he testified to.

THE COURT: So I'm just -- anyway, I'm just trying to figure out what the countervailing evidence is here to suggest his methodology is wrong.

MR. LANG: I believe the partner -- or, the plan says that the Class 10, when the GUC certification is a Class 10, and the Class 11 received pro rata, it doesn't specify the account balance is to be used as the number to determine what they receive.

THE COURT: Okay. You want to point out what you are focused on?

MR. LANG: I believe it's under Treatment.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. LANG: Section --

THE COURT: I don't want to hunt. I want you to tell me what the language is that you think is supportive of that.

MR. LANG: And the second -- I guess the secondary issue that we probably should just get to is the release. We think it's broad, and just Dugaboy and Dondero are carved out. And Mr. Morris did send me a proposal last -- yesterday evening that I haven't gotten to. But that is an objection that we have, is just to make sure that the -- that nobody can argue that the release covers any claim Dugaboy might have, if any.

THE COURT: Okay. I think many hours ago I remember this being mentioned. I guess it was a little bit more broad than just -- I think it was Highland employees. I don't know.

What is the agreement, Mr. Morris, if you're awake there, on --

MR. MORRIS: I am awake, Your Honor. Apologies.

THE COURT: Okay. I didn't mean to be flippant.

MR. MORRIS: Yeah.

THE COURT: I get punchy and --

MR. MORRIS: That's okay. With respect to the release?

THE COURT: Right.

MR. MORRIS: We don't have an agreement. We have an agreement -- well, I sent a proposal last night, but it didn't get responded to. If they want to accept that proposal, that's terrific.

THE COURT: Okay. I don't know what the agreement says. Are you saying you want to accept what they proposed last night?

MR. LANG: No, I have edits to it. I just couldn't -- I was tied up on another filing last night. I have not been able to get to it today.

THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to make a ruling today. Okay? If it means y'all sit here in the courtroom a while, fine. But just like all of you, I have a mountain of other stuff waiting for me, so I really want to rule today. So, --

MR. LANG: Understood.

THE COURT: Yeah.

MR. LANG: Maybe we can work on it as soon as I'm done and I can get back to 'em --

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. LANG: -- and get back to you.

Your Honor, the -- it's on Page 23 of the plan. It talks about the Class 10 and Class 11, where the partnership interests, that their treatment, they shall receive as pro rata share of the contingent Claimant Trust interests. And all we're asking is that be used or applied as a 99.5/.5 distribution.

(Pause.)

THE COURT: I'm sorry. Go ahead.

MR. LANG: Oh, sorry. I thought you were looking for it.

And the last issue is authority. The only point of the authority argument, Your Honor, is that the Joint Administrators were appointed down in the Caymans to investigate the transaction that moved basically the entire ownership, because it's owned a hundred percent down to HMIT, out. They're investigating the transactions. They have not stipulated to authority. They're looking at everything. They've requested a 45-day delay on this motion. And that's all that -- not even asking to deny the 9019. They were just asking time to basically bless this transaction so that nobody could come back and make an issue of it. But I understand your desire to rule today.

THE COURT: Okay. Any rebuttal?

MR. MORRIS: Yeah, briefly, Your Honor.

REBUTTAL CLOSING ARGUMENT ON BEHALF OF THE CLAIMANT TRUST

MR. MORRIS: I just want to point the Court to two provisions of the operative documents that I think --

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. MORRIS: -- will resolve even further the issues that we've presented today.

The Claimant Trust Agreement -- and I apologize, I don't know if the whole document is in evidence, but I will respectfully suggest to the Court that the Claimant Trust Agreement provides in Article 5, Section 5.1(c), --

THE COURT: Okay. Let me catch up.

MR. MORRIS: Yes.

(Counsel confer.)

THE COURT: It's not Debtor's Exhibit 5.

MR. MORRIS: Yeah.

THE COURT: Daugherty's Exhibit 5?

MR. MORRIS: It's Daugherty Exhibit 5?

MR. YORK: Yes.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. YORK: So we have a full copy at Daugherty --

THE COURT: I've got it. Daugherty's Exhibit 5.

MR. MORRIS: Okay. So if you could just go to Page 27, Your Honor. And this is in response to Mr. Lang's argument about the calculation of the allowed claim. You'll see it deals with contingent trust interests. And the very last sentence says the equity trust --

THE COURT: Wait. What page again?

MR. MORRIS: 27.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. MORRIS: Do you see Section C in the middle is Contingent Trust Interests?

THE COURT: No.

THE CLERK: It's 26 of the Claimant Trust Agreement, 27 of the --

THE COURT: Ah, it's 26. Yes. On the bottom, it's 26; on the top, it's 27 of 38.

MR. MORRIS: Okay.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. MORRIS: And at the end of Section C, it says explicitly: The equity trust interests distributed to allowed holders of Class A limited partnership interests -- that's Dugaboy --

THE COURT: Uh-huh.

MR. MORRIS: -- shall be subordinated to the equity interests distributed to the allowed holders of Class B and C. That's Hunter Mountain. Okay?

So the trust agreement provides for exactly what we're doing here. Dugaboy is in fact subordinated to HMIT. It doesn't get paid until HMIT gets paid in full. And Mr. Seery I think compellingly testified as to the reasonable calculation that he did based on very objective numbers to determine each respective limited partner's capital account.

With respect to Mr. Daugherty, the plan, which is on the docket at 1943, has a definition of Disputed Claim Reserve. And it states, among other things, that the amount of the disputed claim upon which the disputed claim --

THE COURT: Give me the page number.

MR. MORRIS: I apologize, Your Honor.

THE COURT: I've got it right in front of me.

MR. MORRIS: It's Page 7 of the plan.

THE COURT: Okay. All right. I'm there. The Defined Term.

MR. MORRIS: So the Defined Term "Disputed Claim, Claims Reserve Amount" in the middle says: The amount of the disputed claim upon which the disputed claims reserve is calculated shall be -- they've got an A and then a B -- the amount agreed to by the holder of the disputed claim and the Claimant Trustee or Reorganized Debtor, as applicable. And then it says D: Or is otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court, including an estimated -- an order estimating the disputed claim.

And that last provision is vital, Your Honor, because that is the hook upon which you can always hang your hat when you decide that we are not going to wait until 2023 [sic] when the IRS audit may be resolved, because you have the ability, as ordered by the Bankruptcy Court, including estimating the amount of the disputed claim. Which is one of the causes of action that we've asserted in the complaint. It's either to subordinate -- actually, it's to disallow, to subordinate, or to estimate. Because this case does have to end, Your Honor. We actually think he should be bound by the definition in B.

It is an agreed-upon amount.

I've heard the testimony from Mr. Daugherty that there was no negotiation, but he didn't deny that he signed a document that is called an agreement that sets forth the disputed claim amount. And that is an agreement, and I think that satisfies that definition. And even if it didn't, at some point this case has to end.

Thank you, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

All right. Well, it's been a long day and even a longer case. I think a lot of people were on the receiving end of a little bit of my grumpiness at times today, and I apologize for that.

I always feel compelled to say to the lawyers and parties when I rule from the bench that I can assure you it's not knee-jerk. I can assure you my law clerk and I have read every piece of paper submitted. And we come in here I think well-prepared and we just want to listen to the evidence to see if it supports -- who it supports. So I am going to rule from the bench.

I first want to make clear that with regard to the motion before the Court, the motion which was filed May 19th at Docket Entry 4216, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and Bankruptcy Code Section 363, the Court is being asked to approve a very broad settlement that is between what are defined as the HMIT entities, seven entities in all; Hunter Mountain Investment Trust; as well as Beacon Mountain, LLC; Rand Advisors, LLC; Rand PE Fund 1, LP; Rand PE Fund Management, LLC; Atlas IDF, LP; and Atlas IDF GP, PLLC. So this proposed compromise and settlement is between all of those Hunter Mountain entities as well as the Reorganized Debtor, the Highland Claimant Trust, the Highland Litigation Subtrust, and the Highland Indemnity Trust.

I first will note that notice has been fulsome, reasonable under the circumstances, to provide due process to anyone affected by the proposed compromise.

The Court would note that the legal standard is a very well-known and established legal standard here. Among other things, the Court is to look at whether the settlement is fair, reasonable, and in the best interest of the estate; whether it would appear reasonable business judgment has been exercised; is the compromise and settlement within the range of reasonableness?

And this involves looking at, among other things, the probability of success in the litigation -- that would be all the various litigation involving HMIT, if it were to go forward; the complexity and likely duration of further litigation and attendant expense, inconvenience, and delay; and all other factors bearing on the wisdom of the compromise. We know that's Cajun Electric, Jackson Brewing, Foster

Mortgage, among other cases. I probably left out AWECO.

Anyway, applying all of those legal standards here, I do think the evidence was very thorough in showing that the compromise is a product of good faith and arm's-length negotiations. Indeed, it was almost shocking to this Court when I saw the motion, having the history I have with all of the contested issues, adversary proceedings that have transpired over the past few years between Hunter Mountain and the Debtor.

I do think the evidence is that it's fair and equitable and in the best interest of the estate and within the range of reasonableness, given due regard for all of the expense, delay, and likelihood of success.

I'll just briefly recount that, as noted early today, there was an Exhibit B attached to the 9019 motion that listed nine unresolved pending pieces of litigation that the Highland entities are embroiled in. Two of those are now gone. This was filed May 8th, and as of January 25th, they're gone. So seven pieces of litigation, of which two will go entirely away if I approve this settlement. The Kirschner adversary claims against Hunter Mountain will go away.

We have very little, very little, relatively speaking, left in this bankruptcy case to resolve if I approve this settlement. That alone is very, very significant. Again, we have large shall I say issues with Hunter Mountain. Highland says Hunter Mountain owes the Highland entities something like $57.69 million on a note that Hunter Mountain is payor on dated December 21st, 2015.

The flip side of that is that Hunter Mountain was sued by Kirschner in the Kirschner action on various claims, including this $57 million note. We have had Hunter Mountain file multiple motions for leave to sue Highland, the Claimant Trust, Mr. Seery. And those have been denied, but are in appeal status or remand status or some further litigation status.

And again, we have numerous issues. Hunter Mountain having sought valuation. The Court denied that. It's on appeal.

So, so much goes away, so much further litigation goes away and we make a monumental step in ending this long-running case if I approve this settlement.

Now, on the flip side of this, I know that Dugaboy, through the voice of Mr. Dondero today, expressed that Hunter Mountain is, I forget the words he used, but not -- this isn't close to being fair and equitable as far as he was concerned for Hunter Mountain. That Hunter Mountain, in addition to being through with litigation in this bankruptcy-land, would be paid $500,000 within five days. They would also be paid separately $10 million as an initial distribution, with the hope of two more $6.5 million distributions in '27 and '28.

And it would get a note, which I think has $24 million -- I think it was less than that, $17 or $18 million left on it, perhaps, on which Dugaboy is a maker. The debtor is one of the two payees. The Debtor gives up its rights in that note.

It looks like Hunter Mountain is getting a lot. And again, the way this estate has been liquidated, there is money that can flow to it as a Class 10 equity here, as the evidence has shown.

So I am approving the settlement. I am specifically overruling the remaining objections of both Dugaboy and Mr. Daugherty.

As far as Mr. Daugherty's argument that the settlement violates the absolute priority rule or violates the terms of the plan or the confirmation order or the trust agreement by, putting words in his mouth, skipping over the full payment of whatever his Class 8 claim is going to be and allowing a subordinate class, Class 10, to get paid, I have flipped and studied the wording of the plan and the confirmation order and the defined term for Disputed Reserve. And I referred to a disputed reserve as a tried-and-true provision in Chapter 11 plans. I think it does what needs to happen for precisely this kind of situation, that as long as an appropriate amount is being held in reserve, and the Court can decide what is an appropriate amount, we don't have to hold up a bankruptcy estate for years and years.

So the disputed claim reserve is what allows me to find this is fair and equitable and this isn't some sort of violation of the absolute priority rule. I think this is precisely the reason the disputed claim reserve mechanism is in place, so that we can get on with the business of getting more people paid sooner.

And based on the evidence I've heard, it is an appropriate amount, I think. We're doing a lot of crystal-balling, what may or may not ever happen when, but I think, based on all the persuasive evidence I've heard, the Daugherty objection should be overruled.

As far as Dugaboy, I, as noted, am overruling that objection. I didn't have any persuasive evidence, solid evidence to show me that Mark Patrick doesn't have appropriate corporate governance authority to enter into this settlement agreement.

I realize there's a lot swirling around in the Cayman Islands, and that's going to play out however it plays out. But as of today, I don't have any evidence that he doesn't have authority currently to enter into the settlement. And it speaks volumes that The Foundation backed down. It would seem that they have been convinced that the lack-of-authority argument was not one they wanted to press today. So that is overruled.

I feel like we have all seen this movie many times before.

I wanted to understand, perhaps I went deeper than I needed to, I know Mr. Phillips thinks I went deeper than I needed in hearing some of the testimony from Mr. Patrick and Mr. Dondero, but I'm just trying to understand what's happening here. Why people who were so lockstep and friendly for years of this case suddenly, when we're right on the brink of maybe the case being put to bed -- I'm optimistic; it's not quite that close -- all of a sudden they're at loggerheads.

And so how many times have I seen this over the years, whether it's a breakdown in business and personal relationships, Mr. Daugherty, Mr. Terry, Grant Scott, now Mark Patrick? I'm probably leaving out someone. I don't know. I feel like I'm watching the same movie. Okay, now these two have parted ways. Now these two have parted ways.

And then, as I recall, when Grant Scott withdrew his objection to the HarbourVest settlement all these years ago, 2020, 2021, which he had been lodging for Charitable DAF, I think it was, --

MR. MORRIS: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: -- then what happens? Well, I think Mark Patrick came in to work or replace Grant Scott, and then a bunch of people ended up getting sued in a different court regarding the settlement I approved, the HarbourVest settlement I approved.

So why am I saying this? I just, I'm trying to understand things I'll never understand. I wanted to maybe hear something that would make me better understand what's happened now between Hunter Mountain, Mark Patrick, and Dondero and Dugaboy, because it sure seems like they were on the same team for many years. But it was very likely irrelevant, as Mr. Phillips kept getting up and down and saying. I just was seeing if it would lead to something relevant that would bear on the wisdom of this compromise, since that's one of my other legal standards. I'm supposed to consider all factors that might bear on the wisdom of the compromise. And so I guess that's where I was going in allowing all of that to come in.

All right. Well, while everyone is not thrilled with this compromise and settlement, I heartily congratulate the human beings that made it happen, and they know who they are. Maybe I do, maybe I don't. But I think it's rather amazing. And I hope that we are not coming to court for hearings in 2032. I don't know who among us will be alive. I'm not going to be alive by then. Certain people might cheer if that's the case. But I congratulate the human beings who made this happen. And you know who you are. Maybe I do, maybe I don't, but I congratulate you.

All right. So I reserve the right to supplement or amend this oral bench ruling in a more fulsome written order. I am asking Mr. Morris and his team to be the scriveners on that order. And obviously, you're going to run it by the other lawyers here who participated today.

Is there anything else before we wrap it up?

MR. MORRIS: Just one other thing, Your Honor. And I greatly appreciate your comments.

When we draft the order, are we authorized to say that this settlement is approved not only pursuant to 9019 but to 363? Because there are asset sales that are part of this. We moved under that provision, and I didn't hear Your Honor reference that, --

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. MORRIS: -- but we would like to include that in the order.

THE COURT: You may. And that is precisely why I said I reserve the right to supplement or amend, because many times I get out of here and look at this transcript and, ooh, I forgot to say whatever.

MR. MORRIS: Yeah.

THE COURT: So I meant to say that and I didn't, so you may add that.

MR. MORRIS: And I assume all Your Honor wants is a fairly simple form of order that incorporates --

THE COURT: I do not want a 40-page order.

MR. MORRIS: Right.

THE COURT: Okay?

MR. MORRIS: Just an order that incorporates your comments on the record, and to the extent that Your Honor wants to amend that, you'll do so at your leisure?

THE COURT: Yes.

MR. MORRIS: Perfect.

THE COURT: All right.

MR. MORRIS: Thank you.

THE COURT: Thank you all. We're adjourned.

MR. PHILLIPS: Thank you, Your Honor.

THE CLERK: All rise.

BINDING TERM SHEET

This Summary of Terms and Conditions (this "Term Sheet") outlines certain agreements by and between the HMIT Entities,[1] on the one hand, and The Dallas Foundation (the "Foundation"), Empower Dallas Foundation ("EDF"), the Okada Family Foundation ("Okada Family Foundation"), and Crown Global Life Insurance, Ltd. ("Crown," and with the Foundation, EDF, and the Okada Family Trust, the "Foundation Parties") resolving that Objection (the "Objection") of The Dallas Foundation and Crown Global Life Insurance, Ltd to Motion for Enry of an Order Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and 11 U.S.C. § 363 Approving Settlement With the HMIT Entities and Authorizing Actions Consistent Therewith [ECF No. 4216] (the "9019 Motion").

Clarification of 9019 Settlement Releases:	The parties have agreed to include language in any order granting the 9019 Motion clarifying the scope of releases as to the Foundation Parties.
Initial Settlement Payments to HMIT:	The HMIT Parties agree that the Cash Payment and the Initial Interim Distribution (the "Initial Settlement Payments") shall be made as provided in the Settlement Agreement and shall be held in accordance with the terms of this agreement. The HMIT Entities agree that the Initial Settlement Payments shall only be used to pay ordinary expenses of the HMIT entities in the nature of legal expenses and ordinary customary general expenses (the "Expenses"). At the Dallas Foundation Meeting (defined below), the HMIT Parties shall provide a projected quarterly expense budget to the Foundation Parties and shall continue to provide expense reporting reflecting the paid Expenses every forty-five (45) days, commencing August 5, 2025 (relating to Expenses paid June 15, 2025 to July 31, 2025). Such Expenses and the reports are "Information" within the meaning of this Agreement subject to the restrictions herein. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the HMIT Parties shall hold, in accordance with this Agreement, not less than $7,500,000.00 of the Initial Settlement

[1] Capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the 9019 Motion or 9019 Order.

	Payments actually received for a period of not less than thirty (30) calendar days following receipt of the Initial Settlement Payments. The HMIT Parties agree that the Initial Settlement Payments (less Expenses) shall be held in an account held by HMIT or CLO HoldCo LLC to be identified by the HMIT Parties. In identifying such account, the HMIT Parties shall provide the account number, the account name, and account location (institution name and location).
HMIT Meeting with The Dallas Foundation:	Mr. Shawn Raver, as representative of HMIT, will, as soon as is practicable, but no later than July 7, 2025 meet in person at a location mutually agreed upon (the "DF Meeting") with the Dallas Foundation and will review the current "DAF" structure, with an eye to commencing negotiations with DF about the use of current support organization(s) or the creation of new support organizations to support the DF and as appropriate the other Foundations mentioned above (the "Resolution"). Mr. Mark Patrick may attend the DF Meeting either in person or virtually. As used herein, the term "DAF" shall mean the historical corporate structure of Charitable DAF Holdco, LTD, its parents and subsidiaries, in existence as of January 1, 2024, and any changes thereto, including any changes described in that matter before the Grand Court of the Cayman Island – Financial Services Division, Cause No: FSD 99 of 2025 (JAJ). At the DF Meeting, which will be a confidential settlement meeting covered by any and all state, federal, and international confidentiality statutes, laws, customs, etc., with all parties to agreeing that no information ("Information") shared at the meeting can be shared further by any person or entity outside of the group participating at the meeting, except as otherwise provided herein. Prior to the Initial Meeting, the HMIT Parties and Foundation Parties may, but shall not be required as a pre-condition of the Initial Meeting, enter into such confidentiality agreements as may be agreed upon by the parties. Nothing in this agreement shall, however, preclude a party from disclosing Information pursuant to a subpoena, or other such legal compulsion or seeking information through subpoena within a proceeding in a tribunal of competent jurisdiction. At the DF Meeting, Mr. Raver will show and present the participants with a balance sheet for the DAF as of 9/30/2024, 12/31/2024, and 3/31/2025. For the avoidance of doubt, such accounting shall include an accounting of any transfer assets from an entity within the DAF structure during the periods covered by the balance sheets to any another entity, including another entity within the DAF structure.

	At any time after the DF Meeting, either the HMIT Parties or Foundation Parties may declare an impasse (an "Impasse") in negotiations in writing delivered to the parties. Unless an Impasse is declared following the DF Meeting, Mark Patrick agrees to meet with the Dallas Foundation and the other Supporting Organizations, or the Foundations they support, with an eye to furthering negotiations on the proposed Resolution. If an acceptable Resolution is agreed upon, Mr. Patrick, the Supporting Organization, and Dallas Foundation shall jointly request a meeting with the JOLs and the DF, with a view toward winding up the liquidation proceedings of Charitable DAF Holdco, Ltd., including not seeking any equitable wind up of Charitable DAF Fund, LP., all of which should be able to be accomplished expeditiously in the event of agreements hoped to be achieved upon the meeting described above.
Resolution of the Objection:	In return for the foregoing, TDF and Crown Global agree to withdraw their objection to the 9019 Motion, in all capacities in which their objection has been filed, and to withdraw the notice of deposition of Mark Patrick. The parties further agree that this Term Sheet shall be included as an attachment to the 9019 Order, and the terms of this Agreement enforceable in the Bankruptcy Court and the Bankruptcy Court shall maintain concurrent jurisdiction to resolve any dispute arising therefrom.

("Crown," and with the Foundation, EDF, and the Okada Family Foundation, the "Foundation Parties") resolving that Objection (the "Objection") of The Dallas Foundation and Crown Global Life Insurance, Ltd to Motion for Enry of an Order Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and 11 U.S.C. § 363 Approving Settlement With the HMIT Entities and Authorizing Actions Consistent Therewith [ECF No. 4216] (the "9019 Motion").

Clarification of 9019 Settlement Releases:	The parties have agreed to include language in any order granting the 9019 Motion clarifying the scope of releases as to the Foundation Parties.
Initial Settlement Payments to HMIT:	The HMIT Parties agree that the Cash Payment and the Initial Interim Distribution (the "Initial Settlement Payments") shall be made as provided in the Settlement Agreement and shall be held in accordance with the terms of this agreement. The HMIT Entities agree that the Initial Settlement Payments shall only be used to pay ordinary expenses of the HMIT entities in the nature of legal expenses and ordinary customary general expenses (the "Expenses"). At the Dallas Foundation Meeting (defined below), the HMIT Parties shall provide a projected quarterly expense budget to the Foundation Parties and shall continue to provide expense reporting reflecting the paid Expenses every forty-five (45) days, commencing August 5, 2025 (relating to Expenses paid June 15, 2025 to July 31, 2025). Such Expenses and the reports are "Information" within the meaning of this Agreement subject to the restrictions herein. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the HMIT Parties shall hold, in accordance with this Agreement, not less than $7,500,000.00 of the Initial Settlement

[1] Capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the 9019 Motion or 9019 Order.

	Payments actually received for a period of not less than thirty (30) calendar days following receipt of the Initial Settlement Payments. The HMIT Parties agree that the Initial Settlement Payments (less Expenses) shall be held in an account held by HMIT or CLO HoldCo LLC to be identified by the HMIT Parties. In identifying such account, the HMIT Parties shall provide the account number, the account name, and account location (institution name and location).
HMIT Meeting with The Dallas Foundation:	Mr. Shawn Raver, as representative of HMIT, will, as soon as is practicable, but no later than July 7, 2025 meet in person at a location mutually agreed upon (the "DF Meeting") with the Dallas Foundation and will review the current "DAF" structure, with an eye to commencing negotiations with DF about the use of current support organization(s) or the creation of new support organizations to support the DF and as appropriate the other Foundations mentioned above (the "Resolution"). Mr. Mark Patrick may attend the DF Meeting either in person or virtually. As used herein, the term "DAF" shall mean the historical corporate structure of Charitable DAF Holdco, LTD, its parents and subsidiaries, in existence as of January 1, 2024, and any changes thereto, including any changes described in that matter before the Grand Court of the Cayman Island – Financial Services Division, Cause No: FSD 99 of 2025 (JAJ). At the DF Meeting, which will be a confidential settlement meeting covered by any and all state, federal, and international confidentiality statutes, laws, customs, etc., with all parties to agreeing that no information ("Information") shared at the meeting can be shared further by any person or entity outside of the group participating at the meeting, except as otherwise provided herein. Prior to the Initial Meeting, the HMIT Parties and Foundation Parties may, but shall not be required as a pre-condition of the Initial Meeting, enter into such confidentiality agreements as may be agreed upon by the parties. Nothing in this agreement shall, however, preclude a party from disclosing Information pursuant to a subpoena, or other such legal compulsion or seeking information through subpoena within a proceeding in a tribunal of competent jurisdiction. At the DF Meeting, Mr. Raver will show and present the participants with a balance sheet for the DAF as of 9/30/2024, 12/31/2024, and 3/31/2025. For the avoidance of doubt, such accounting shall include an accounting of any transfer assets from an entity within the DAF structure during the periods covered by the balance sheets to any another entity, including another entity within the DAF structure.

	At any time after the DF Meeting, either the HMIT Parties or Foundation Parties may declare an impasse (an "Impasse") in negotiations in writing delivered to the parties. Unless an Impasse is declared following the DF Meeting, Mark Patrick agrees to meet with the Dallas Foundation and the other Supporting Organizations, or the Foundations they support, with an eye to furthering negotiations on the proposed Resolution. If an acceptable Resolution is agreed upon, Mr. Patrick, the Supporting Organization, and Dallas Foundation shall jointly request a meeting with the JOLs and the DF, with a view toward winding up the liquidation proceedings of Charitable DAF Holdco, Ltd., including not seeking any equitable wind up of Charitable DAF Fund, LP., all of which should be able to be accomplished expeditiously in the event of agreements hoped to be achieved upon the meeting described above.
Resolution of the Objection:	In return for the foregoing, TDF and Crown Global agree to withdraw their objection to the 9019 Motion, in all capacities in which their objection has been filed, and to withdraw the notice of deposition of Mark Patrick. The parties further agree that this Term Sheet shall be included as an attachment to the 9019 Order, and the terms of this Agreement enforceable in the Bankruptcy Court and the Bankruptcy Court shall maintain concurrent jurisdiction to resolve any dispute arising therefrom.

KEN PAXTON
ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

July 9, 2025

Honorable Stacey G.C. Jernigan
United States Bankruptcy Court
Northern District of Texas
1100 Commerce Street, Room 1254
Dallas, Texas 75242

Re: Request for a Stay; Case No. 19-34054-sgj11

Dear Judge Jernigan:

The Office of the Texas Attorney General (the "OAG") respectfully ask that the Court enter a brief stay of this bankruptcy proceeding.

The OAG, as the representative of the public's interest in charity, is charged under Texas law with the power and duty to protect and enforce the public interest in nonprofit organizations, foundations and charitable trusts. See Tex. Prop. Code § 123.002 (authorizing the Attorney General to intervene in a "proceeding involving a charitable trust."). Federal courts have recognized this principle. See, e.g., Tex. v. Veterans Support Org., 166 F. Supp. 3d 816, 820-21 (W.D. Tex. 2015).

The OAG is further charged with protecting the public interest as it relates to unlawful acts or practices in trade or commerce under the Texas Deceptive Trade Practices-Consumer Protection Act. Tex. Bus. & Com. Code § 17.41 et seq. (the "DPTA"). The OAG reviews charitable, nonprofit, and for-profit entities to determine whether they are compliant with Texas laws including, inter alia, the DTPA, the Business Organizations Code, the Property Code, the Texas Health & Safety Code, and the Uniform Unincorporated Nonprofit Association Act. The OAG can also investigate and enforce breaches of the common law fiduciary duties of trustees of charitable trusts and officers, directors, and employees of nonprofit organizations to protect the public interest.

The OAG has issued Civil Investigative Demands to persons and entities, some of whom are involved in this bankruptcy proceeding, in response to complaints. See Tex. Bus. & Com. Code § 17.61. One of the complaints under investigation involves conduct allegedly taken by persons or entities during this bankruptcy proceeding.

A brief stay of the bankruptcy proceedings will assist the OAG in its investigation and permit it time to determine whether any further action, as it relates to this bankruptcy, is necessary to ensure protection of the public interest.

Please contact the undersigned if the Court requires additional information.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Johnathan Stone

ASSEMBLY OF THE RECORD

Within 14 days of filing your designation of the record, pursuant to Rule 8009, submit to the bankruptcy clerk any item that is not available in the ECF system, using this procedure:

- Enclose sealed items and non−documentary items (e.g., removable media) in 8.5" x 11" envelopes.
- Copy all other items in PDF files to a removable storage device (e.g., USB drives, DVDs, etc.), organized in the sequence in which they were designated. Limit files to 5.0 MB in size and do not include color.

- Label any submission with the case caption and bankruptcy court case and/or adversary proceeding number.

TRANSMITTAL OF THE RECORD

- The bankruptcy clerk will electronically transmit the record to the district clerk. The parties must provide a paper copy of the record, if required.

Counsel for The Dugaboy Investment Trust

FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
DALLAS DIVISION

In re	§	Chapter 11
HIGHLAND CAPITAL MANAGEMENT, L.P.,	§	Case No. 19-34054-sgj11

THE DUGABOY INVESTMENT TRUST'S MOTION TO STAY 9019 ORDER

The Dugaboy Investment Trust ("Dugaboy") hereby files this Motion to Stay 9019 Order and would respectfully show the court the following:

[1] The Fifth Amended Plan of Reorganization of Highland Capital Management, L.P., (As Modified) [Dkt. 1808] ("Plan"), filed by Highland Capital Management, L.P. ("HCMLP") became effective on August 11, 2021 (the "Effective Date").

I. SUMMARY OF MOTION

1. On June 30, 2025, the Court signed its Order Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and 11 U.S.C. § 363 Approving Settlement Between the Highland Entities and the HMIT Entities and Authorizing Actions Consistent Therewith ("9019 Order") [Dkt. No. 4297]. Dugaboy files this motion seeking a 90-day stay of the 9019 Order so that it and other parties can investigate the allegations made in the recently filed request for a stay of all Highland bankruptcy proceedings made by the Texas Attorney General, and the complaint (the "JOL Petition") the Joint Official Liquidators ("JOL") of Charitable DAF HoldCo LTD ("Holdco")filed on July 15, 2025, by. That Petition, annexed hereto as Exhibit A, outlines a massive fraudulent scheme.

2. According to the JOL Petition, Mark Patrick manipulated the ownership of the HMIT entities to convert $270 million of assets and pay himself and co-conspiring professionals millions that were supposed to be used for the benefit of the long-established charities, including assets Dugaboy and its beneficiary, James Dondero, contributed to the Charitable DAF for the benefit of the charities supported by Dugaboy. The Dallas Foundation, The Greater Kansas City Foundation, The Santa Barbara Foundation, and the Community Foundation of North Texas (the "Charities" or the "Participating Shareholders") were left with nothing in favor of a new entity with no track record or professional staff run out of Mr. Patrick's house.[2] This Court should stay any transfers of assets to the control of Mr. Patrick, given that his express instructions to create a web of new entities that were: "Whatever from a strategic point of view - hard to find or track, or trace. Or find owners etc. Generic name. Strong litigation protection." JOL Petition ¶ 82. A clearer indication of an intention to abscond with assets could hardly be found.

[2] The interests of the charities are affected through supporting organizations who for ease of reference are included in the definition of "Charities" and "Participating Shareholders" for the purposes of this Motion.

3. The relief sought in this Motion is necessary to provide all stakeholders with time to investigate a motion under Rule 60 to vacate the 9019 Order (and all resulting orders, such as the dismissals effected as a result of the 9019 Order) in light of evidence suggesting that the settlement approved by this Court was a key element of the alleged fraudulent scheme. Transfers of assets to companies controlled by Mr. Patrick must be halted, lest those assets are moved to companies "hard to find or track."

II. ARGUMENT

A. The Court Enters the 9019 Order Over the Objection of Dugaboy

4. On May 19, 2025, a Motion for Entry of an Order Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and 11 U.S.C. § 363 Approving Settlement with the HMIT Entities and Authorizing Actions Consistent Therewith [Docket No. 4216] (the "Motion") was filed by Highland Capital Management, L.P.'s ("Debtor" or "Highland"), the Highland Claimant Trust (the "Claimant Trust"), and the Highland Litigation Sub-Trust (the "Litigation Sub-Trust").

5. Over the objection of several parties, including Dugaboy, on June 30, 2025, the Court signed its Order Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and 11 U.S.C. § 363 Approving Settlement Between the Highland Entities and the HMIT Entities and Authorizing Actions Consistent Therewith ("9019 Order") [Dkt. No. 4297].

6. At the hearing Dugaboy presented the Court with the letter request of the JOLs to stay the proceeding for 45 days pending their investigation, but the Court entered the 9019 Order. Transcript of Hearing on June 25, 2025 on 9019 Motion ("9019 Tr.") at 189:22-191:1.

B. The JOL Files a Complaint Alleging Illegal Acts by Mr. Patrick

7. The JOL Petition makes serious allegations against Mr. Patrick.

8. Specifically, the Complaint alleges that Mr. Patrick, a director and sole Management Shareholder of HoldCo, unbeknownst to the Charities (holders of the Participating Shares of HoldCo)

: (1) caused HoldCo to assign its interest in certain assets to a Delaware limited liability company formed and controlled by Mr. Patrick; (2) caused HoldCo to issue Participating Shares to a Delaware company incorporated and controlled by Mr. Patrick; (3) caused the Delaware limited liability company to redeem HoldCo's membership interest; and (4) caused HoldCo to be placed into voluntary liquidation after making a final distribution to the Participating Shareholders in HoldCo. JOL Petition at ¶¶ 6-6.4. These machinations are referred to in the JOL Petition and herein as the "restructuring."

9. As the Complaint states, the restructuring was undertaken specifically to bring ownership of these assets, with a net value of $270 million (as of September 30, 2024), under Mr. Patrick's effective control, with the express purpose of leaving the Charities, as the original, and rightful, ultimate beneficiaries of the fund, with nothing. JOL Petition at ¶ 7. Mr. Patrick testified that the "entity in liquidation [Holdco] owns nothing," confirming the conversion at the hearing on the 9019 Motion. 9019 Tr. 185:18-24) (Dkt. No. 4296).

10. In short, the JOL Petition details how Mr. Patrick caused HoldCo, originally the sole limited partner of Charitable DAF Fund, LP (the "Fund"), to sell off the Fund, with its $270 million in assets for $1.6 million, using manipulated and fraudulent valuations. JOL Petition ¶¶ 136-150.

11. Showing just how difficult it was to achieve his false valuation, Mr. Patrick initially sought to have PwC, which had historically conducted valuations of the HoldCo's assets and which had as recently as late 2024 confirmed the $270 million valuation, conduct a post "restructuring" valuation that would discount the value of the assets sufficiently to justify the sale of the Fund for $1.6 million. JOL Petition ¶¶ 123-125. PwC refused, saying it did not see a basis for the proposed discount. JOL Petition ¶125.

12. Undeterred, Mr. Patrick and the professionals assisting him sought a valuation from FTI Consulting in London ("FTI"). Using the fact that the charities could not force distributions, FTI authored a memo presuming one could assert a very small discount on the value of the Fund if the Charities were aligned with the Fund's mission, but a 95% discount if they were not. JOL Petition ¶¶ 126-128. Thus, if Mr. Patrick could arbitrarily say that the Funds were no longer aligned with the charities' missions (notwithstanding the fact that nothing had changed in the charities' missions) he could apparently say devalue the Fund. Id.

13. Indeed, the question Mr. Patrick's counsel posed to FTI was "would Mark still be able to shareholder structure to ensure the existing participating shareholders [the charities] got nothing?" JOL Petition ¶134. Ultimately, recognizing Mr. Patrick's clearly improper machinations, FTI refused to lift limits it had placed on use of its memo, cautioning Walkers, that its memo was "not a valuation" and could "not be used to support a transaction." JOL Petition ¶¶ 133, 135.

14. Thwarted by FTI, one of Mr. Patrick's United States counsel, Shields Legal, then asked a Dallas-based firm, Valuscope, to value the Fund, using a discounted cash flow ("DCF") analysis with a 99.2% discount for lack of control and an additional 20% discount for lack of marketability, with no justification for the use of a DCF analysis or either, let alone both, discounts. JOL Petition ¶¶ 139-45. This resulted in an astonishing purported 99.29% drop in the value of the assets in just a six-month period. On its face, this manipulation is fraudulent, but this is what was used to justify selling the Fund to an entity controlled by Mr. Patrick and owned by a new charity he owned and controlled for $1.6 million. That $1.6 million was distributed to the Charities, and then Mr. Patrick attempted to cover his tracks with an expedited voluntary liquidation process, controlled by Mr. Patrick's counsel with Kroll as the proposed liquidator, to sweep all of the wrongdoing under the rug. JOL Petition ¶ 151.

15. This effort was halted only because the Charities, not knowing of the pending liquidation effort, brought their own official liquidation proceeding in the Cayman Court. That proceeding resulted in the JOL being appointed and Kroll and Walkers resigning as proposed liquidators and counsel. JOL Petition ¶ 152-54.

16. The JOL's investigation revealed that Mr. Patrick:

a. increased the Directors' fees from $40,000 per annum in 2022 to $600,000 in 2023 and to $2.25 million for just the first half of 2024. JOL Petition ¶ 85;

b. added a salary for himself of $850,000 a year in September 2024; and

c. added a provision for a "long term incentive" ("LTI") tied to the Funds returns (when he is not a registered investment advisor, or any sort of financial advisor, for that matter, but simply a tax lawyer). JOL Petition ¶ 86. The LTI was 7.5% of the Funds returns over 10%, with a provision allowing for a greater bonus the more he spent on legal fees. JOL Petition ¶ 86.3.

What's troubling is that the LTI created an incentive to increase legal spending through the proliferation of lawyers and lawsuits, thereby increasing legal expenses and Mr. Patrick's personal bonuses.

17. Less than a month later, Mr. Patrick also gave himself an LTI payment of $975,000 and an annual discretionary bonus for 2023 of 2.5 times his annual salary. JOL Petition ¶¶ 87.1-87.2. He also gave himself a retroactive LTI payment for the period March 2023 to March 2024 of $4.8 million and authorized additional annual and discretionary bonuses at his sole and absolute discretion. Id. By contrast, the prior the prior controlling shareholder and director of Holdco and the Fund, Grant Scott, during his entire tenure was paid $60,000 a year. JOL Petition ¶ 88.

18. As a result, the JOL Petition alleges that Mr. Patrick's acts constitute breaches of fiduciary duty and seek to have a receiver appointed. JOL Petition ¶¶ 160-81.

C. The 9019 Order Should Be Reevaluated in Light of the Allegations in the JOL Complaint

19. These allegations are essential to evaluating or re-evaluating the 9019 Order for three primary reasons. First, a change in control of HoldCo will affect not just HoldCo, but all the companies owned and controlled by HoldCo, including Hunter Mountain and the entities that entered into the settlement agreement that is the subject of the 9019 Order.

20. The JOL, if they are able to rescind all of the restructuring, and on these facts it certainly appears that they will be able to do so, will be able to appoint new controlling persons in all the former subsidiaries. Then, under honest management, seeking the best for the Charities, the subsidiaries will determine what transactions to ratify and which to rescind or reform. This Court should stay the effectiveness of the 9019 Order to minimize what must be reformed or rescinded.

21. Second, the allegations in the JOL Petition set forth a pattern of behavior by Mr. Patrick with respect to these entities and his self-dealing that unquestionably leads to the conclusion that the same illegal behavior could well have taken place with respect to the 9019 Order and the related settlement agreement. The newly discovered communications detailed throughout the JOL Petition show the steps that Mr. Patrick engaged in to effectuate his scheme. The HMIT Settlement occurred over the same time period, making it a part of that scheme.

22. Third, showing a real danger of manufactured evidence being used to justify the ends desired, Mr. Patrick purported to justify his actions by contending that Mr. Dondero was imperiling the charities' 501(c)(3) status (JOL Petition ¶ 146.1), using an opinion of counsel that post-dated all of the planning for the restructuring (JOL Petition ¶ 146.5). Creating an echo chamber of evidence, he himself made false reports to the IRS to attempt to imperil the charities' tax-exempt status. JOL Petition ¶¶ 113, 146.4. These acts demonstrate that Mr. Patrick's actions and testimony with respect to the 9019 Order must be examined and evaluated.

D. The Highland Entities Allowed These Illegal Acts to Proceed Uninvestigated

23. It is also important to note the Highland Entities' role in allowing their 9019 Motion to proceed and the 9019 Order to be entered in light of the above. While the Highland Entities claim they performed due diligence with respect to the transactions at issue in the 9019 Order, including the authority of Mr. Patrick, to agree to the settlement agreement (9019 Tr. 97:12-17) (Dkt. No. 4296), they did not know of the alleged improprieties raised above. Instead, they elected to look only at the organizational documents (9019 Tr. 98:6-23) and ignored the Cayman proceeding, Mr. Seery was "hesitant" to even say he was "generally" aware of the Cayman proceeding (9019 Tr. 98:24-99:1). Moreover, with respect to Mr. Dondero's complaints about what Mr. Patrick was doing to the Charities, counsel for the Highland Entities stated: "Mr. Patrick, I don't know what happened between him and Mr. Dondero. I don't care. I have no knowledge of that." (9019 61:25-62:1) (Dkt. No. 4296). The transcript evidences that the HCMLP entities ignored the Cayman proceeding to rush through the 9019 Settlement before evidence of the fraud could be presented to this Court.

E. The Texas Attorney General Requests Additional Time to Investigate These Allegations

24. On July 9, 2009, the Office of the Texas Attorney General wrote a letter to the Court asking the Court to enter a stay of this bankruptcy proceeding because it was investigating conduct allegedly taken by persons or entities in this bankruptcy proceeding. Dkt. No. 4308. Upon information and belief, Mr. Patrick and the entities he controls, as well as the 9019 Order, are the subject of this investigation. This request of the Texas Attorney General is consistent with what Dugaboy seeks by way of this motion and therefore Dugaboy urges the Court to follow this recommendation so that the Texas Attorney General will have an adequate opportunity to address the illegal and inequitable conduct by Mr. Patrick and his entities that are being investigated by the JOL.

25. These allegations rise to the level of a basis for a Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60 motion seeking reconsideration of the 9019 Order based on newly discovered evidence. Hesling v. CSX Transp., Inc., 396 F.3d 632, 638 (5th Cir. 2005) ("Rule 60(b)(2) provides that a court may relieve a party from a final judgment based on 'newly discovered evidence which by due diligence could not have been discovered in time to move for a new trial under Rule 59(b). Rule 60(b)(3) provides for relief based on 'fraud . . . misrepresentation, or other misconduct of an adverse party,' and Rule 60(b)(6) further provides for relief based on 'any other reason justifying relief from the operation of the judgment.' The purpose of Rule 60(b) is to balance the principle of finality of a judgment with the interest of the court in seeing that justice is done in light of the facts."). Entering a stay will preserve the status quo so that interested parties may conduct a sufficient investigation.

F. The Court Has the Power to Stay the 9019 Order for 90 Days.

26. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Code § 105(a), the Court "may issue any order . . . that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of [the Bankruptcy Code]." 11 U.S.C. § 105(a). Moreover, the Supreme Court has held: [T]he power to stay proceedings is incidental to the power inherent in every court to control the disposition of the causes on its docket with economy of time and effort for itself, for counsel, and for litigants. How this can best be done calls for the exercise of judgment, which must weigh competing interests and maintain an even balance. Landis v. N. Am. Co., 299 U.S. 248, 254-55 (1936).

27. This Court possesses broad discretion to grant stays, particularly where doing so is unlikely to cause harm to any other party. See, e.g., Fishman Jackson PLLC v. Israely, 180 F. Supp. 3d 476, 483 (N.D. Tex. 2016) ("Courts have 'broad' discretion to grant stay[s] . . . especially when there is not a 'fair possibility' that the stay 'will work damage to someone else.'"); In re Ramu Corp., 903 F.2d 312, 318 (5th Cir. 1990) ("The stay of a pending matter is ordinarily within the trial court's wide discretion to control the course of litigation . . . . This authority has been held to provide the court the 'general discretionary power to stay proceedings before it in control of its docket and in the interests of justice.'" (internal citations omitted)).

28. While stays should "not be immoderate or of an indefinite duration," Fishman, 180 F. Supp. 3d at 483, courts routinely grant stays of six months where doing so promotes judicial efficiency. See, e.g., 14th St. Props., LLC v. S. Fid. Ins. Co., No. CV 22-1593, 2023 WL 416317, at *1 (E.D. La. Jan. 26, 2023) (granting stay and administratively closing matter for six months due to state insolvency proceedings); Integrated Claims Sys., LLC v. Old Glory Ins. Co., No. 2:15CV-00412-JRG, 2020 WL 1027771, at *1 (E.D. Tex. Mar. 3, 2020) (granting motion to stay for six months); Cleveland Air Serv., Inc. v. Pratt & Whitney Canada, No. 4:13-CV-161-DMB-DAS, 2016 WL 4179987, at *2 n.3 (N.D. Miss. Aug. 5, 2016) (staying discovery for six months); Maples v. Donzinger, No. CIV.A. 13-223, 2014 WL 688965, at *2 (E.D. La. Feb. 21, 2014) (granting a six month stay).

29. Courts have also granted stays which may only be lifted by the parties after a determined time. See, e.g., Scarborough v. Integricert, LLC, No. 6-12-CV-00396, 2014 WL 12662272, at *3 (W.D. La. Apr. 4, 2014) ("Lastly, this Court's intention is not to stay the case for an indefinite period. To the contrary, the Court will issue a stay for a period of one-hundred and twenty days, at the end of which, either party may move to lift the stay upon a showing of good cause. Thus, the stay will not last for an 'indefinite' period such as Scarborough fears.").

30. Consistent with these authorities, the implementation of the 9019 Order should be stayed for 90 days in the interests of judicial economy and efficiency in order to allow Dugaboy and other interested parties sufficient time to investigate the allegations in the JOL Petition. A grant of the requested stay will enable the Court to fairly evaluate the putative settlement between the Highland Entities and the HMIT Entities.

31. Additionally, a stay will benefit the Highland Entities, the HMIT Entities, and estate stakeholders, not harm them. All parties undoubtedly want certainty regarding the legitimacy and future enforceability of their actions and bargains. For example, if the Cayman Proceeding determines that Mr. Patrick may retain his control position in the DAF and its subsidiaries, then such a decision would likely remove any additional obstacles to the HMIT settlement. By contrast, if the Cayman Proceeding subsequently determines that Mr. Patrick engaged in ultra vires acts or acted without appropriate authority, that decision could throw the settlement, and all subsequent actions taken in furtherance of the settlement, into question.

32. In sum, the Court has broad discretion to enter a stay of not more than six months (and the requested 90 days is half of what other courts have allowed) - which is neither "immoderate" nor "of an indefinite duration.." Fishman, 180 F. Supp. 3d at 483; see also McKnight v. Blanchard, 667 F.2d 477, 479 (5th Cir. 1982) (vacating indefinite stay that could last for seven years or longer where trial court "gave no reason for such a protracted stay"). The requested stay serves the interests of judicial economy, ensures efficient management of this bankruptcy proceeding, and is in the best interests of the parties to the putative settlement and all remaining stakeholders.

33. Therefore, Dugaboy requests that the Court adhere to the request by the Texas Attorney General and stay the 9019 Order for 90 days so that these newly discovered allegations can be investigated by Dugaboy and other stakeholders and a determination can be made as to whether a FRCP 60 motion is necessary.

III. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Dugaboy requests that the Court stay the 9019 Order for 90 days.

Respectfully submitted,

STATEMENT OF CLAIM

INTRODUCTION

1 The Plaintiff, Charitable DAF HoldCo, Ltd (in Official Liquidation) (the "Company"), is a Cayman Islands exempted company, incorporated on 27 October 2011, having its registered office at HSM Corporate Services Ltd, 68 Fort Street, George Town, PO Box 31726, Grand

FILED by Maples and Calder (Cayman) LLP, attorneys for the Plaintiff, whose address for service is PO Box 309, Ugland House, Grand Cayman, KY1-1104, Cayman Islands. (Ref: CJM/JRN/TQR/858403.000001/83559387)

Cayman KY1-1207. The authorised and issued share capital of the Company is divided into Participating Shares and Management Shares.

2 The Company was placed into court supervised liquidation and Margot MacInnis and Sandipan Bhowmik of Grant Thornton Specialist Services (Cayman) Limited were appointed as joint official liquidators (the "JOLs") pursuant to an order of this Honourable Court dated 6 May 2025.

3 The Company was, between November 2011 and 18 December 2024, the sole limited partner of Charitable DAF Fund, LP (the "Fund"). At all relevant times, the net asset value of the Fund's assets was c. US$270million.

4 The Fund is a Cayman Islands exempted limited partnership formed to invest and manage assets for the benefit or ultimate benefit of certain registered charitable organisations in the U.S. namely The Dallas Foundation; the Greater Kansas City Community Foundation; the Santa Barbara Foundation and The Community Foundation of North Texas (the "Charities"). These charities are the owners or the ultimate beneficial owners of Participating Shares in the Company.

5 In March 2021, Mark Patrick (the "First Defendant") was appointed the sole director and registered as the sole Management Shareholder of the Company. In April 2021, Paul Murphy (the "Second Defendant") was appointed by the First Defendant as a second director of Holdco.

6 By virtue of a series of transactions or purported transactions between March 2024 and March 2025, unbeknownst to the holders of the Participating Shares (the "Participating Shareholders") of the Company, Mr Patrick caused:

6.1 the Company, with the agreement and concurrence of Mr Murphy, to assign its interest in the Fund to the Third Defendant, a Delaware limited liability company, formed in December 2024 and controlled by Mr Patrick, in exchange for a membership interest in that entity;

6.2 the Company, with the agreement and concurrence of Mr Murphy, to issue and allot further Participating Shares (representing a majority of the issued participating share capital) to the Fourth Defendant, a Delaware company, incorporated in December 2024 and controlled by Mr Patrick;

6.3 the Third Defendant to redeem the Company's membership interest in the Third Defendant for a consideration of c. US$1.6 million, representing approximately 0.59% of the total net asset value of the assets held by the Fund; and

6.4 the Company, with the agreement and concurrence of Mr Murphy, to be placed into voluntary liquidation after having made a final distribution to all Original Participating Shareholders (defined below) in the Company of the proceeds of redemption, collectively the "Impugned Transactions".

7 The First and Second Defendants effected the Impugned Transactions in breach of their fiduciary and other duties to the Company in order to bring ownership of the Fund and its assets, with a net value of c. US$270 million (as assessed at 30 September 2024), under Mr Patrick's effective control to the exclusion of the interests of the Charities. The Charities, as the original, and rightful, ultimate beneficiaries of the Fund, have been left with nothing.

8 Further, during the period March 2021 to June 2024, the First and Second Defendants, in breach of fiduciary duty, caused the Company to pay excessive fees and expenses to Mr Patrick.

THE PARTIES

The Company

9 The Company is a Cayman Islands exempted company, incorporated on 27 October 2011, having its registered office at HSM Corporate Services Limited, Ltd, 68 Fort Street, George Town, PO Box 31726, Grand Cayman, KY1-1207, Cayman Islands.

10 The directors of the Company are Mr Patrick (appointed on 25 March 2021) and Mr Murphy (appointed by Mr Patrick on 22 April 2021).

11 The Company has been governed by the following memorandum and articles of association from time to time:

11.1 The memorandum and articles of association dated 27 October 2011; and 11.2 The amended and restated memoranda and articles of association dated 19 January 2015; 24 January 2024; and 20 February 2025 respectively.

The Company remains governed by the memorandum and articles of association as amended and restated on 20 February 2025 (the "Articles") save that the Company reserves the right to challenge the validity of the Articles.

12 Save as set out above, the Company will rely on the Articles and all previous iterations for their applicable full terms and effect.

13 Pursuant to the Articles and at all relevant times, the authorised share capital of the Company was US$50,000 divided into 100 Management Shares of US$0.01 par value each and 4,999,900 Participating Shares of US$0.01 par value each.

FILED by Maples and Calder (Cayman) LLP, attorneys for the Plaintiff, whose address for service is PO Box 309, Ugland House, Grand Cayman, KY1-1104, Cayman Islands. (Ref: CJM/JRN/TQR/858403.000001/83559387)

14 The Articles (with reference to the defined term of 'Restricted Person') require that the Participating Shareholders must at all times qualify as a tax-exempt organisation pursuant to section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986 ("IRC").

15 The Participating Shares do not have voting rights but confer the right to participate in the profits or assets of the Company including by way of the receipt of dividends (Article 12).

16 The Management Shares have voting rights but confer no other right to participate in the profits or assets of the Company (Article 11).

17 The Participating Shareholders therefore have the entirety of the economic interest in the Company, whereas the Management Shareholders have the control rights.

18 On 7 November 2011, the Company issued:

18.1 300 Participating Shares to The Highland Capital Management Partners Charitable Trust #2 ("Trust #2"); and 18.2 100 Management Shares to Grant Scott.

19 On 30 November 2011, Trust #2 transferred its 300 Participating Shares equally amongst:

19.1 Highland Kansas City Foundation, Inc.;

19.2 Highland Dallas Foundation, Inc.[1]; and

19.3 Highland Santa Barbara Foundation, Inc.,

collectively, the "Supporting Organisations".

[1]Since June 2024, Highland Dallas Foundation, Inc. has also done business as 'NexPoint Philanthropies Dallas, Inc.', per an Assumed Name Certificate filed with the Secretary of State of Texas.

20 On 12 August 2015, the Company issued 5 Participating Shares to the Community Foundation of North Texas, ("CFNT", and together with the Supporting Organisations the "Original Participating Shareholders") for Highland Capital Management, L.P. Charitable Fund at CFNT.

21 On 25 March 2021, the Management Shares were transferred to Mr Patrick and he continues to hold these shares.

22 The Participating Shares held by the Original Participating Shareholders represented the entire issued Participating Share capital of the Company until 7 February 2025. On that date, Mr Patrick, with the agreement and concurrence of Mr Murphy, caused the Company to issue 318 Participating Shares to the Fourth Defendant, DFW Charitable Foundation ("DFW"), significantly diluting the shareholdings of the Original Participating Shareholders and the indirect economic interest of the Charities.

23 Until 18 December 2024, the sole asset of the Company was its limited partnership interest in the Fund (the "Partnership Interest").

24 As a result of the Impugned Transactions, the Company now has no material assets.

DFW

25 DFW (the Fourth Defendant) is a non-profit non-stock corporation incorporated in Delaware on 9 December 2024, which is organised under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware exclusively for charitable purposes.

The Company will rely on the LPA for its applicable full terms and effect.

29 Mr Patrick was instrumental in the establishment of the Company, the Fund and the Fund structure.

30 Until 18 December 2024, the Company was the sole limited partner of the Fund.

31 On 18 December 2024, Mr Patrick, with the agreement and concurrence of Mr Murphy, caused the Company to transfer its limited partnership interest to CDMCFAD, LLC ("CDM") (the Third Defendant) in exchange for a membership interest in CDM.

32 The original general partner of the Fund was Charitable DAF GP, LLC (the "Original GP"), a Delaware limited liability company registered as a foreign company in the Cayman Islands. The Original GP was the general partner from the Fund's formation until 7 March 2024.

33 On 7 March 2024, the Original GP was replaced by CDH GP, Ltd. (the "New GP") (the Fifth Defendant).

37 Mr Patrick is the New GP's sole director and sole shareholder.

38 The New GP is a defendant to these proceedings in two capacities: (i) in its capacity as General Partner; and (ii) for and on behalf of the Fund in order to join the Fund as a defendant to these proceedings.

CDM

50.3 a director of various other entities in the Charitable DAF structure.[2]

THE CHARITABLE PURPOSE OF THE FUND

52 The Fund was formed on 28 October 2011 at the instigation of Mr James Dondero, a U.S. resident and the founder of Highland to enable certain assets, held through the shares in CLO Holdco, to be donated to a charitable foundation.

53 Upon the formation of the Fund, the Company was admitted as a limited partner and, by way of capital contribution, contributed all of the outstanding equity interests in CLO HoldCo to the Fund.

54 The purpose of the Fund was to make investments for the ultimate benefit of the Original Participating Shareholders and the Charities:

[2]Mr Murphy was appointed to the board of directors of the following entities on 22 April 2021; Liberty CLO Holdco, Ltd., Liberty Sub, Ltd., HCT Holdco 2, Ltd. and MGM Studios Holdco, Ltd. at the same time as Charitable DAF HoldCo, Ltd and CLO HoldCo, Ltd.

54.1 The recitals to the LPA of the Fund provide that the purpose of the Fund was to "make certain investments directly or indirectly on behalf of certain entities exempt from taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code … for the economic benefit of the Limited Partner and its Indirect Charitable Owners…".

54.2 Clause 1.3 of the LPA provides that "… the Partnership may make investments in other types of securities, investment vehicles and instruments in the sole discretion of the General Partner for the purpose of benefitting, directly or indirectly, the Indirect Charitable Owners".

54.3 Clause 1.6(a) of the LPA provides that "the Partnership's assets and investments shall be for the benefit of the Limited Partners and not for the economic benefit of the General Partner".

54.4 "Indirect Charitable Owners" is defined in the LPA as "the indirect equity owners of the Limited Partners which shall at all times be entities or organizations exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or entities or organizations whose sole beneficiaries are entities or organizations exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code." i.e., the Company's Participating Shareholders or the Charities.

54.5 Clause 4.2(a) of the LPA provides that "Distributions shall be made to the Limited Partner at the times, in a manner (including in kind) and in the aggregate amounts determined by the General Partner, after taking into consideration available cash and the needs of the Indirect Charitable Owners of the Limited Partner for funds to cover their administrative and operating expenses…".

54.6 The LPA does not modify the statutory duty of the General Partner to act in good faith and in the interests of the Fund.

55 The Charities are the following four US charitable or non-profit foundations:

FILED by Maples and Calder (Cayman) LLP, attorneys for the Plaintiff, whose address for service is PO Box 309, Ugland House, Grand Cayman, KY1-1104, Cayman Islands. (Ref: CJM/JRN/TQR/858403.000001/83559387)

55.1 The Dallas Foundation: a charitable entity established in Texas in 1929 which has awarded over $1 billion in grants and manages over $500 million in assets.

55.2 Greater Kansas City Community Foundation: a charitable entity established in Missouri in 1978 which has awarded over $7 billion in grants and manages over $6 billion held in charitable funds.

55.3 Santa Barbara Foundation: a charity established in 1928 which is the largest community foundation on California's Central Coast and manages assets of over $800 million.

55.4 North Texas Community Foundation: which manages assets totalling $513 million and donated $38.9 million to local non-profits in 2023.

56 The Dallas Foundation, Greater Kansas City Community Foundation and Santa Barbara Foundation (the "Supported Organisations") hold their interests in the Company through their respective Supporting Organisation namely Highland Dallas Foundation, Inc. as the Supporting Organisation for The Dallas Foundation; Highland Kansas City Foundation, Inc. as the Supporting Organisation for the Greater Kansas City Community Foundation; Highland Santa Barbara Foundation, Inc as the Supporting Organisation for the Santa Barbara Foundation.

57 CFNT holds its Participating Shares in the Company directly.

THE TAX STRUCTURE

58 As a matter of U.S. tax law, in order for the Supported Organisations to benefit from distributions from the Fund in a tax efficient manner, it was necessary for them to hold their interests through an offshore corporate blocker entity, namely the Company:

58.1 S501(c)(3) of the IRC provides that charitable organisations which meet certain criteria are exempt from state and federal taxes except to the extent that it receives income classified as unrelated business taxable income ("UBTI"); and 58.2 the Supported Organisations and their Supporting Organisations meet the criteria of s501(c)(3). They are therefore generally exempt from U.S. state and federal taxes, with a few exceptions, including to the extent that they receive UBTI.

59 As a matter of U.S. tax law, at least a portion of income received directly from the Fund by the Supported Organisations would likely be considered UBTI.

60 In order to insulate the Supported Organisations from UBTI, instead of holding their interest in the Fund directly, they held through an offshore corporate blocker structure, namely the Company.

THE SUPPORTED ORGANISATIONS CONTROL THE SUPPORTING ORGANISATIONS

61 The Supporting Organisations were incorporated in Delaware by Mr Dondero on or about 22 November 2011 for the purpose of making charitable donations to their respective charity from the proceeds of dividends received by the Supporting Organisations from the Company.

62 Supporting organisations under the IRC are tax exempt charitable organisations that provide financial or operational support to one or more public charitable organisations (called “supported organisations”). Because of the link with the supported public charities, supporting organisations are classified as public charities themselves, as opposed to private foundations, despite the fact that a supporting organisation's sources of funding may be limited to a single individual, which would otherwise cause the entity to be classified as a private foundation.

63 Contributions to supporting organisations, as public charities, qualify for the highest tax deductibility thresholds under the IRC (up to 50% of the taxpayer’s adjusted gross income, or 60%, in the case of cash gifts) instead of the substantially lower threshold for contributions to private foundations (30% of adjusted gross income, regardless of the character of the contribution).

64 The Supporting Organisations are "Type I" tax exempt organisations under the IRC which means they must be organised and operated exclusively to support and benefit their relevant charity and controlled by that charity:

64.1 S509(a)(3) of the IRC contains the qualifications for a "supporting organisation". Under that section, a supporting organisation is a tax-exempt entity that must be organised and then operate exclusively for either (i) the benefit of, (ii) to perform the functions of, or (iii) to carry out the purposes of one or more supported organisations. The supported organisations must also be s501(c)(3) entities;

64.2 There are three types of supporting organisations, known as “Type I”, “Type II” and “Type III”. S509(a)(3)(B)(i), (ii) and (iii) sets out the requirements for each “Type”, respectively;

64.3 S509(a)(3)(B)(i) provides that a Type I supporting organisation must be operated, supervised or controlled by the supported organisation; and 64.4 S509(a)(3)(C) provides that the supporting organisation may not be controlled by a disqualified person, other than the foundation managers and the supported organisation.

65 The Supporting Organisations are so controlled by the respective Supported Organisations.

66 The Supporting Organisations are governed by the terms of their respective Certificate of Incorporation and by-laws (the "Bylaws").

67 The Certificates of Incorporation provide (amongst other things) that:

67.1 the Supporting Organisation:

(a) is organised and shall be operated exclusively for charitable, educational and scientific purposes;

(b) is organised and operated exclusively to support and benefit the particular charity that controls it; and

(c) is a non-profit non-stock corporation and cannot issue any capital stock;

67.2 no part of the net earnings of the Supporting Organisation shall be distributable to the directors and officers of the Supporting Organisation or other private persons save that the Supporting Organisation can pay reasonable compensation for services rendered; and 67.3 net earnings can be used to make grants, loans and similar payments for charitable, educational and scientific purposes to benefit the relevant Supported Organisation.

68 The Bylaws provide that (amongst other things):

68.1 There are two classes of members of the Supporting Organisations with one member in each such class:

(a) the institutional member (the "Institutional Member") which shall be the Supported Organisation; and

(b) the individual member (the "Individual Member") which shall be Mr Dondero or an individual designated as the Individual Member in the Bylaws.

68.2 In terms of voting on a matter submitted to a vote of the members (except as otherwise provided in the Bylaws):

(a) the Institutional Member is entitled to two votes; and

(b) the Individual Member is entitled to one vote.

68.3 Institutional membership is not transferable or assignable.

68.4 Individual membership is transferable or assignable only upon approval of the Institutional Member.

68.5 Both the Institutional Member and the Individual Member must be present in person or by represented proxy to constitute a quorum at all meetings of members.

68.6 There shall be three directors of the board of the Supporting Organisation. Two directors shall be elected annually by the Institutional Member and one director shall be elected annually by the Individual Member.

69 The relationship between the Supporting Organisations and their respective Supported Organisation are governed by separate operating/legal relationship agreements (collectively "Operating Agreements"). These agreements provide, among other things, that:

69.1 the Supported Organisation will provide certain services to the Supporting Organisation;

69.2 the Supported Organisation will appoint two of the three directors of the Supporting Organisation as required by Bylaws; and 69.3 in consideration for the services provided by the Supported Organisation to the Supporting Organisation, the Supporting Organisation shall pay a fee to the Supported Organisation.

70 Mr Dondero sits on the board of each of the Supporting Organisations with two other directors from each of the Supported Organisations respectively.

71 The relationships, rights and obligations created by and between the Supported Organisations and the Supporting Organisations pursuant to the agreements entered into between them were at all material times in summary that:

71.1 the Supported Organisations control the Supporting Organisations through their majority voting interest and their ability to elect a majority of the directors of the Supporting Organisations;

71.2 the Supporting Organisations support the Supported Organisations by way of making grants to them from time to time from their assets, including any dividends received from the Company;

71.3 the Supporting Organisations have no ability to pay dividends to any private person or make payments to their directors (save reasonable reimbursement for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses) and can only make grants to the relevant Charity in furtherance of their charitable purposes; and 71.4 while Mr Dondero sits on the board of the Supporting Organisations, he does not control them, as a supermajority of the votes are always held by the respective Charity.

72 The Company will rely on the Certificates of Incorporation, Bylaws, Operating Agreements and terms of the IRC for their applicable full terms and effect.

THE CONTROL POSITION OF MR PATRICK OVER THE COMPANY AND THE FUND

73 The terms of the LPA grant sole control over the management and distribution of the Fund's assets to the General Partner. The terms of the Articles grant sole control over the management and distribution of the Company's assets to the Management Shareholder.

Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, the General Partner is hereby granted the right, power and authority to do on behalf of the Partnership all things which, in the General Partner's sole discretion, are necessary or appropriate to manage the Partnership's affairs and fulfill the purposes of the Partnership; provided, however the Partnership's assets and investments shall be for the benefit of the Limited Partners and not for the economic benefit of the General Partner.

(ii) Except as otherwise provided herein, the Limited Partners, in their capacity as Limited Partners, shall not participate in the management of or have any control over the Partnership's business nor shall the Limited Partners have the power to represent, act for, sign for or bind the General Partner or the Partnership. hereby consent to the exercise by the General Partner of the Powers conferred on it by this Agreement.

The Articles

73.3 Article 11

The Management Shares shall be issued at par value and shall carry the right to receive notice of and to attend, to speak at and to vote at any general meeting of the Company. In the event of a winding up or dissolution of the Company, whether voluntary or involuntary or for the purposes of a reorganization or otherwise or upon any distribution of capital, the entitlement of the holders of Management Shares shall be determined in accordance with these Articles. Management Shares confer no other right to participate in the profits or assets of the Company.

73.4 Article 12

Participating Shares shall confer upon a Shareholder no right to receive notice of, to attend, to speak at nor to vote at general meetings of the Company but shall confer upon the Shareholders rights in a winding-up or repayment of capital and the right to participate in the profits or assets of the Company in accordance with these Articles.

73.5 Article 13

…the rights attached to any such Class may… only be materially adversely varied or abrogated with the consent in writing of the holders of not less than two-thirds of the issued Participating Shares of the relevant Class or with the sanction of a resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of the Participating Shares of such Class by a majority of two-thirds of the votes case at such a meeting.

73.6 Article 84 (d)

The office of Director shall be vacated if the Director…is removed from office by Ordinary Resolution.

The definition of Ordinary Resolution is a vote of the Management Shares.

73.7 Article 99

Subject to any rights and restrictions for the time being attached to any Shares, or as otherwise provided for in the Act and these Articles, the Directors may from time to time declare dividends (including interim dividends) and other distributions on Shares in issue and authorise payment of the same out of the funds of the Company lawfully available therefor.

73.8 Article 104

Subject to any rights and restrictions for the time being attached to any Participating Shares, all dividends shall be declared and paid in such amounts as may be declared by the Director's in their sole and absolute discretion without a requirement to pay such dividends on a pro-rata basis as to the paid-up or par value of the Shares.

74 The Management Shares in the Company and the General Partner in the Fund have at all material times been held and/or controlled by a single individual who, as a result, has sole control of the Fund structure (the "Control Position"):

74.1 In or around November 2011:

(a) Grant Scott was appointed as the sole director and allotted the 100 Management Shares of the Company; and

(b) Grant Scott became the holder of the membership interest in the Original GP and was appointed the Manager thereof, thereby assuming the Control Position from that date.

74.2 In or around 24 March 2021, Mr Scott:

(a) assigned 100% of the membership interest in the Original GP to Mr Patrick pursuant to an Assignment and Assumption of Membership Interests Agreement, which membership interest gave Mr Patrick the sole right to manage the Original GP;

(b) transferred to Mr Patrick the 100 Management Shares in the Company; and

(c) resigned as a director of the Company and resolved to appoint Mr Patrick as the sole director in his place.

74.3 On 25 March 2021, Mr Patrick was entered into the Company's Register of Members as the holder of the Management Shares.

74.4 Mr Patrick therefore assumed the Control Position from that date.

74.5 On 22 April 2021, Mr Patrick resolved to appoint Mr Murphy as a second director of the Company.

74.6 On 7 March 2024, by way of a Deed of Assignment and Assumption, Mr Patrick, as managing member of the Original GP, caused the Original GP to transfer its general partnership interest in the Fund to the New GP.

74.7 Mr Patrick is the sole shareholder and director of the New GP.

74.8 Mr Patrick therefore remains in the Control Position and was in such position at all relevant times since 25 March 2021.

75 Further, the sole asset of the Fund is its shares in CLO Holdco (the Sixth Defendant). Mr Patrick and Mr Murphy are the directors of CLO Holdco and were appointed on 2 April 2021 and 22 April 2021 respectively.

76 The Control Position was not and is not a term of art but was nevertheless a legal and factual position:

76.1 where a single individual was the sole Management, and therefore voting, Shareholder of the Company;

76.2 where the same individual was a director of the Company;

76.3 where the same individual was the sole shareholder or controller of the General Partner;

76.4 where the same individual was a director of the General Partner;

76.5 where the same individual was in complete and effective control of at least the Company, of the General Partner, of the Fund and of CLO Holdco;

76.6 where the same individual was in effective sole control of all assets of the Fund;

76.7 where the same individual had no economic, residual, beneficial or winding up interest in assets of the Company;

76.8 where the same individual had no economic, residual, beneficial or winding up interest in assets of the General Partner;

76.9 where the same individual had no economic, residual, beneficial or winding up interest in assets of the Fund;

76.10 where the same individual was, irrespective of his or her formal positions, functions or duties, including as a director, acting as a trustee, fiduciary or in a trustee-like or fiduciary-like position with respect to the assets held by the Fund;

76.11 where the same individual was at all times acting solely for the benefit or the ultimate benefit of the Original Participating Shareholders and/or through them the Supported Organisations and/or through them the Charities; and 76.12 in the alternative to the plea directly above, where the duties otherwise owed by the same individual as a matter of law, including as a director, were affected and/or altered by the existence of the structure as pleaded above, including the facts and matters relating to the Control Position and including the fact that the structure as pleaded above was designed and intended to be solely for the benefit or the ultimate benefit of the Original Participating Shareholders, and/or through them the Charities.

Plan to defeat the interests of the Original Participating Shareholders

77 On 9 November 2023, Shields Legal Group ("Shields Legal") (the U.S. attorneys for the Company) sent to Campbells LLP ("Campbells") (then Cayman Islands attorneys for the Company) a work plan (the "Work Plan") relevant to the Company, the Fund and CLO HoldCo.

78 It can be inferred, and is averred, that the purpose of the Work Plan and the subsequent advice and steps taken as detailed below was to seek to entrench Mr Patrick's Control Position and defeat the interests of the Original Participating Shareholders.

79 The Work Plan stated that (amongst other things):

FILED by Maples and Calder (Cayman) LLP, attorneys for the Plaintiff, whose address for service is PO Box 309, Ugland House, Grand Cayman, KY1-1104, Cayman Islands. (Ref: CJM/JRN/TQR/858403.000001/83559387)

79.1 the advice required related to "…potential disputes and corporate reviews and best practices for each, including proactive corporate actions, solidifying defenses, etc...";
and

79.2 "…we may need to rely on opinions and memoranda in potential future disputes..."

80 The Work Plan set out the issues on which the Directors sought advice, including among other things the following questions:

80.1 'Can the controlling person dilute shares, e.g., the Participation Shares?'

80.2 'Can the controlling person redeem shares, e.g., the Participation Shares?'

80.3 'Is there any Cayman law requirement that the Company distribute money upwards to the next level of entities (Highland Dallas Foundation, Inc. and others)?'

80.4 'Could the Company liquidate, distribute all its assets elsewhere, or otherwise make the Participation Shares worthless?'

80.5 'What can be done at this point to make [the share transfers in the Company from Mr Scott to Mr Patrick] bullet proof?'

81 The Directors were advised that any steps taken in relation to the proposed issuance of new Participating Shares and withholding dividends must be in compliance with their fiduciary duties and taken in the best interest of the Company:

81.1 On 8 January 2024, Walkers (Cayman) LLP ("Walkers") (also then Cayman Islands counsel for the Company) provided advice on issues set out in the Work Plan to the effect that (amongst other things):

(a) the Directors have power under the Articles to issue new Participating Shares that dilute the current Participating Shareholders, but must consider their fiduciary duties (including the duty to act in the best interests of the Company) when issuing such shares;

(b) the Participating Shares are non-redeemable;

(c) while payment of a dividend or other distribution is at the discretion of the Directors, if the Company were to have distributable reserves available, there may be a question of whether the Directors would be acting in its best interests to not pay some dividend or distribution; and

(d) the Directors have fiduciary duties to the Company which are paramount when considering (i) making a distribution and (ii) the distributable reserves available from which to make payments; they must have regard to what is in the Company's best interests, its future cash requirements, and its present and future solvency.

82 In February 2024, without telling the Supporting Organisations or the Charities, Mr Patrick sought to form a new entity to replace the Original GP. On 5 February 2024, Walkers emailed Mr Patrick to ask whether that entity should be a Cayman LLC or an exempted company, to which he responded later that day: "Doesn't matter to me. Whatever from a strategic point of view - hard to find or track, or trace. Or find owners etc. Generic name. Strong litigation protection."

83 On 27 February 2024, without telling the Supporting Organisations or the Charities, the New GP (the Fifth Defendant) was incorporated in the Cayman Islands.

84 On 7 March 2024, Mr Patrick, in his capacity as Managing Member of the Original GP, and without telling the Supporting Organisations or the Charities, executed a written consent for the transfer of the GP Interest to the New GP, thereby replacing the Fund's General Partner. The Supporting Organisations subsequently discovered this change only by chance in February 2025.

85 In or around August 2024, the Supporting Organisations were provided with a financial analysis (prepared by NexPoint Advisors LP) of the Fund's annual expenses which showed or appeared to show increases in expenditure, particularly as follows (and without prejudice to any further relevant facts and matters relating to Directors' fees or expenses):

85.1 directors' fees increased from around US$40,000 in 2022 to almost US$600,000 in 2023 – and increased further to around US$2.25 million in the first half of 2024; and 85.2 expenses overall for the first half of 2024 were around US$18.3 million – almost the same amount spent over the entire course of 2023 (i.e. US$18.6 million).

86 On 13 September 2024, without telling the Supporting Organisations or the Charities, the Directors resolved (amongst other things) with respect to Mr Patrick's compensation:

86.1 to increase Mr Patrick's salary to US$850,000 per annum;

86.2 include a long-term incentive ("LTI") tied to the Fund's returns, being 7.5% of annualised net fund returns in excess of 10% (capped at 25% annualised return); and 86.3 the Company should assess legal expenses attributable to investment which impacted the LTI compensation and then determine whether the LTI compensation should be increased.

87 On 1 October 2024, without telling the Supporting Organisations or the Charities:

87.1 the Directors resolved (amongst other things) that Mr Patrick would receive:

FILED by Maples and Calder (Cayman) LLP, attorneys for the Plaintiff, whose address for service is PO Box 309, Ugland House, Grand Cayman, KY1-1104, Cayman Islands. (Ref: CJM/JRN/TQR/858403.000001/83559387)

(a) an LTI payment of US$975,000; and

(b) an 'annual discretionary bonus' for 2023 at an amount of 2.5 times his base salary.

87.2 Previously, in or around October 2021, Mr Patrick had signed an 'employment agreement' for his position at the Company, for the period commencing 24 March 2021, which provides that Mr Patrick:

(a) shall receive a base salary of US$850,000;

(b) shall receive an LTI payment for the period 24 March 2021 to 24 March 2024 in the amount of US$4,759,000; and

(c) is eligible for both annual and discretionary bonuses as determined at the 'sole and absolute discretion of the Directors'.

88 Comparatively, Mr Scott's salary during his tenure in the Control Position was approximately US$60,000 per annum. Notwithstanding the above, the Supporting Organisations were not informed of these increases to the Directors' fees, remuneration and/or benefits.

89 In late October 2024, as a result of concerns arising from this additional expenditure, the Supporting Organisations requested that Mr Patrick provide relevant financial information for the Company and the Fund. Mr Patrick did not do so.

90 On 11 November 2024, Holland and Knight ("H&K"), U.S. attorneys for the Supporting Organisations, issued a letter to Mr Murphy advising that the Supporting Organisations no longer had confidence in the governance of the Company and/or the Fund and considered that a reorganisation of the governance structures was required to protect the charitable efforts of the Supporting Organisations (the "No Confidence Letter").

FILED by Maples and Calder (Cayman) LLP, attorneys for the Plaintiff, whose address for service is PO Box 309, Ugland House, Grand Cayman, KY1-1104, Cayman Islands. (Ref: CJM/JRN/TQR/858403.000001/83559387)

91 On 26 November 2024, Mr Patrick sought advice from Walkers as to whether the Company could issue further Participating Shares to a new non-profit organisation to dilute the Supporting Organisations so as to weaken any winding-up petition brought by the Supporting Organisations on just and equitable grounds. Mr Murphy wrote that:

> "Issuance of new participation shares, where the existing foundations represent a smaller % of the issued and outstanding shares, would weaken any petition based on just and equitable grounds but we must be careful they don't point to this as ground to wind up i.e. the existing foundations say we're artificially trying to weaken their position by diluting them therefore the company should be wound up or an order made for change of management /revocation of the share issuances. It's a very difficult situation to get right without gifting them a potential ground…"

92 On 27 November 2024, Walkers responded to the Directors confirming that, if other shareholders were to oppose an equitable winding up, such opposition will be taken into consideration and would likely help.

93 On 9 December 2024, DFW was incorporated as a non-profit non-stock company in Delaware, by or with the assistance of Mr Douglas Mancino, partner of U.S. firm, Seyfarth Shaw LLP ("Seyfarth"), who, worked alongside Mr Patrick in the establishment of the Company and the Fund structure. The sole member of DFW was and is Mr Patrick.

94 On 7 February 2025, 318 Participating Shares were issued to DFW.

95 On 20 February 2025, Mr Patrick as the Management Shareholder of the Company resolved to adopt the Amended and Restated Memorandum and Articles of Association dated 20 February 2025 which, among other things:

95.1 Amended the Memorandum at paragraph 3 to give the Company charitable objects;

FILED by Maples and Calder (Cayman) LLP, attorneys for the Plaintiff, whose address for service is PO Box 309, Ugland House, Grand Cayman, KY1-1104, Cayman Islands. (Ref: CJM/JRN/TQR/858403.000001/83559387)

95.2 Amended article 70 to introduce the concept of a Management Director (being a director holding the Management Share) and to weight the voting such that on all matters the Management Director had 10 votes and any other directors had 1 vote;

95.3 Deleted the previous articles 70 and 71 giving the right to appoint alternate directors and proxies. By email dated 27 February 2025, Walkers confirmed that the purpose of this deletion was to "avoid the risk of 'outsiders' being brought into the fold".

96 The Company reserves its position in respect of the validity of these amendments.

The purported restructuring: Mr Patrick causes the assignment of the Partnership Interest to CDM 97 On 12 December 2024, CDM was incorporated as a limited liability company in Delaware.

98 On 18 December 2024, without telling the Supporting Organisations or the Charities, the Directors of the Company resolved (the "Transfer Resolutions") to approve the transfer of the entirety of the Company's limited partnership interest in the Fund to CDM, in consideration for the contribution by the sole member of CDM of 100% of the membership interest in CDM. The Transfer Resolutions provide (amongst other things) that, based apparently on U.S. tax advice, the transfer of the limited partnership interest to CDM:

98.1 "…would help insulate the DAF from exposure to [Dondero] and his entities who may be at risk of causing the [IRS] to revoke the tax-exempt status of one or more of the Participating Shareholders/supporting organizations which could imperil the assets of the Company";

98.2 "The IRS would look favorably upon any and all attempts for DAF to maintain its influence from what seems to be persistent attempts by Dondero and the entities controlled by him to use DAF for his private benefit and private inurement";

FILED by Maples and Calder (Cayman) LLP, attorneys for the Plaintiff, whose address for service is PO Box 309, Ugland House, Grand Cayman, KY1-1104, Cayman Islands. (Ref: CJM/JRN/TQR/858403.000001/83559387)

98.3 As a Delaware limited liability company (CDM): "…as permitted under the LLC Act, the terms of the LLC Agreement eliminate the fiduciary duties of the manager of the Transferee".

99 On 18 December 2024, without telling the Supporting Organisations or the Charities, the Company, CDM and the New GP entered into a Deed of Assignment and Assumption (the "Deed") which was executed by Mr Patrick on behalf of each of (i) the Company in his capacity as Director; (ii) CDM in his capacity as Manager; and (iii) the New GP in his capacity as Director. Pursuant to the terms of the Deed:

99.1 The Company assigned its entire limited partnership interest in the Fund to CDM (the "CDM Assignment").

99.2 The New GP provided its written consent to the CDM Assignment and the admission of CDM as the new limited partner, in accordance with clause 1.11(a) of the LPA.

99.3 CDM agreed to exercise its reasonable best endeavours to ensure that 100% of the membership interest in CDM held by Mr Patrick would be transferred to the Company (the "CDM Membership Interest").

100 On 18 December 2024, the Company (as member) and Mr Patrick (as manager) entered into a Delaware law governed Limited Liability Company Agreement in respect of CDM (the "LLC Agreement").

101 The LLC Agreement, materially provides (amongst other things) that:

"Fair Market Value shall have the meaning set forth in Section 6.9(b).

The initial Manager shall be Mark Patrick.

FILED by Maples and Calder (Cayman) LLP, attorneys for the Plaintiff, whose address for service is PO Box 309, Ugland House, Grand Cayman, KY1-1104, Cayman Islands. (Ref: CJM/JRN/TQR/858403.000001/83559387)

6.5 No Duties to the Company. To the fullest extent permitted by law, including Section 18-1101(c) of the Act, and notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement or in any agreement contemplated herein or applicable provisions of law or equity or otherwise, the parties hereto hereby agree that the Manager shall owe no fiduciary duty to any Member or the Company; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not eliminate the duty to comply with the implied contractual covenant of good faith and fair dealing.

6.9 Valuation of Company Assets.

(a) General. The Manager shall make a good faith determination of the value of the Company's assets in connection with any distribution pursuant to Section 8.1(b), as required under Section 4.3(c), upon the dissolution of the Company, and whenever otherwise required by this Agreement or determined by the Manager.

(b) Binding Effect. The value of any Company asset or Interest determined pursuant to this Section 6.9 shall be binding upon the Company and the Members and shall establish the "Fair Market Value" of such asset or Interest for all purposes under this Agreement.

7.3 Redemption. The Manager, in its sole discretion, may cause any Member's Interest to be redeemed by the Company for any reason. Any Interest of a Member to be redeemed by the Company shall be redeemed for the Fair Market Value of such Interest, as determined by the Manager in its sole discretion. Such payment to the Member shall either be made in cash or pursuant to a promissory note. Such promissory note shall: (i) provide for interest at the lowest rate necessary to avoid the imputation of additional interest under the Code; and (ii) have a stated principal amount of the Fair Market Value of such Member's Interest being redeemed, as determined by the Manager in its sole discretion."

102 The Company will rely on the terms of the LLC Agreement for their applicable full terms and effect.

103 The effect of these transactions was that:

103.1 CDM was inserted into the corporate structure below and as a subsidiary of the Company and would hold the entirety of the limited partnership interest in the Fund previously held by the Company; and

103.2 The Company would hold the entire membership interest in CDM, with the result that the Company's sole asset, having previously been its limited partnership interest in the Fund, was exchanged for the CDM Membership Interest

(the "Restructuring")

104 The Restructuring was at an undervalue and not in the interests of the Company (in that the CDM Membership Interest was less valuable than the limited partnership interest that the Company assigned to CDM) because (amongst other things):

104.1 The General Partner owed fiduciary duties to the Company in the Fund, but the Manager (Mr Patrick) did not owe any fiduciary duties to CDM; and 104.2 The CDM Membership Interests were susceptible to being redeemed by Mr Patrick (as Manager) in his sole discretion and for any reason, for "fair market value" as defined by Article 6.9, i.e. a "good faith determination of the value".

FILED by Maples and Calder (Cayman) LLP, attorneys for the Plaintiff, whose address for service is PO Box 309, Ugland House, Grand Cayman, KY1-1104, Cayman Islands. (Ref: CJM/JRN/TQR/858403.000001/83559387)

105 On 3 April 2025, the Company obtained retrospective advice from Leading Counsel on the steps taken by the Company in December 2024 to effect the Restructuring and whether the transfer is "open to challenge by the Participating Shareholders", which advice:

105.1 refers to the justifications for the decisions taken as set out in the Restructuring Resolutions, and considers that, if called upon to justify the purpose of those decisions, the Directors would need to explain:

(a) how the penalisation or loss of tax-exempt status any of the current Participating Shareholders could have "imperil[ed]" the "assets" of the Company;

(b) the detrimental issues the Company was facing that the Directors believed would be mitigated by the interposition of CDM into the Fund structure; and

(c) how and/or why the Restructuring would (i) benefit the Company and (ii) reduce the influence of Mr Dondero; and

105.2 considers that a shareholder reviewing the reasons listed in the Restructuring Resolutions "might suggest that the contents of the resolution are self-serving and do not tell the full story, but rather seek to obscure the true motivations of the board".

Persistent and continual lack of information for the Supporting Organisations

106 On 23 January 2025, having received no response from Mr Murphy to the No-Confidence Letter, Julie Diaz, the CEO of The Dallas Foundation, sent Mr Patrick an email advising that the Supporting Organisations needed to better understand the Company's/Fund's asset position, and requesting certain information be provided by 10 February 2025.

107 Having received no response, on 28 January 2025, Ms Diaz sent a further email to the Directors expressing serious concern (i) that the Supporting Organisations' requests for information continued to be disregarded, and (ii) about the ongoing lack of transparency on the part of the Directors.

108 On 30 January 2025, Mr Murphy replied to Ms Diaz stating that the Directors:

108.1 had not received the 23 January email – but understood the next step was for the Directors to "present directly" to the Supporting Organisations to address the No-Confidence Letter; and 108.2 are cooperating with the Supporting Organisations to provide additional information – but "have no legal obligation to do so" and such cooperation "should not be construed as an implicit acknowledgement of any duty to continue providing information to you".

109 On 31 January 2025, Mr Michael Stockham of H&K responded to Mr Murphy noting that he and Mr Patrick were fiduciaries, managing US$270 million in assets for the benefit of charities that support the most vulnerable (i.e. the Charities) and: "[w]hatever your side's obvious antagonism to Mr Dondero, the fact remains that the underlying assets are ultimately for these charitable missions."

110 On 4 February 2025, Mr Murphy responded that while open to resolving the concerns, they (i.e. the Directors) were struggling to understand the Supporting Organisations' change in position.

111 On 7 February 2025, H&K responded that the Directors were fiduciaries in control of US$270 million for the benefit of charities: "these monies are for improving the quality of life of children, building pathways for everyone to have a fair opportunity to succeed and … fostering a love for education. They are not meant to pay you and Mr. Patrick millions in director fees".

112 On 14 February 2025, H&K received a letter from Mr Mancino which rejected the accuracy of the reported increases in expenditure. On 27 February 2025, H&K responded that his clients were frustrated by the lack of transparency and refusal to answer simple queries about the financial position. In response, Seyfarth sought available dates for Mr Murphy to make the promised presentation to the Supporting Organisations. H&K responded the next day with three potential dates/times for the proposed call between 26 March and 3 April 2025. Mr Mancino did not respond.

113 On 20 March 2025, Mr Mancino sent a letter purportedly on behalf of the Company to the IRS about alleged undue influence and control exercised over the Supporting Organisations by Mr Dondero. The letter makes serious and unsubstantiated allegations about the Supporting Organisations, absent evidential support, including that they each (i.e. all of them): "operates for Mr Dondero's private benefit when he uses his influence or control over them to cause them to use or attempt to use their influence as Participating Shareholders of DAF Holdco to wrest control of DAF Holdco and its assets…".

114 On 3 April 2025, Mr Mancino sent an email to H&K stating that he had just learned there was a call scheduled for the following day and seeking to reschedule. H&K responded that no such call had been arranged and queried the apparent source of confusion.

115 Mr Mancino, and Mr Patrick and Mr Murphy (each in part through Mr Mancino as an instructed attorney) acted in bad faith by maintaining a pretence of actual or potential cooperation with the Supporting Organisations when this was not the case, and by sending or causing to be sent the email of 20 March 2025 in secret:

115.1 four (4) months after the Directors and/or the Company transferred away the Company's interest in the Fund without telling the Supporting Organisations or the Charities;

115.2 two (2) months after the Directors and/or the Company diluted the existing Participating Shareholders without telling the Supporting Organisations or the Charities (see below);

FILED by Maples and Calder (Cayman) LLP, attorneys for the Plaintiff, whose address for service is PO Box 309, Ugland House, Grand Cayman, KY1-1104, Cayman Islands. (Ref: CJM/JRN/TQR/858403.000001/83559387)

115.3 one (1) week after the Directors and/or the Company redeemed the Company's interest in CDM without telling the Supporting Organisations or the Charities (see below);

115.4 one (1) day after the Directors placed the Company in voluntary liquidation, without telling the Supporting Organisations or the Charities.

Purported Share Issuance and allotment to DFW

116 In November 2024, without telling the Supporting Organisations or the Charities, the Directors began seeking advice from Walkers on whether the Company could issue new Participating Shares that would have the effect of diluting the existing Participating Shareholders - "in light of a possible just and equitable winding up petition" being filed by one of the Supporting Organisations.

117 On 7 February 2025, Walkers advised that, while there must be a corporate benefit to the exercise of the power, the Articles grant the Directors power to issue new shares that dilute the Participating Shareholders, and recommended the shares be issued sooner than later, and before any winding up petition was presented, since any alteration to the Company's membership made after the presentation of the petition would be void.

118 On 7 February 2025, without telling the Supporting Organisations or the Charities, the Directors resolved to issue 318 Participating Shares to DFW (the "Share Issue Resolutions"), resulting in DFW owning 51.04% of the Participating Shareholding and the dilution of the Supporting Organisations from an aggregate shareholding of 100% to 48.96% (the "Share Issuance"). The Share Issue Resolutions provided that:

118.1 Participating Shareholders had requested information and made false and misleading claims about the Company and its finances which the Directors believe were directed by Mr Dondero.

FILED by Maples and Calder (Cayman) LLP, attorneys for the Plaintiff, whose address for service is PO Box 309, Ugland House, Grand Cayman, KY1-1104, Cayman Islands. (Ref: CJM/JRN/TQR/858403.000001/83559387)

118.2 Based apparently on U.S. tax advice:

(a) There was a heightened risk the IRS could revoke the tax-exempt status of the Participating Shareholders which could imperil the status and assets of the Company.

(b) Increasing the number of Participating Shareholders would mitigate the undue influence and private inurement of Mr Dondero.

(c) The IRS would look favourably upon attempts by the Fund to maintain its independence from his (i.e. Mr Dondero's) attempts to use the Fund for his private benefit.

118.3 The Directors believed the Share Issuance to DFW would protect the Company and the Participating Shareholders and resolved that the Share Issuance to DFW be approved.

119 On 5 March 2025, Leading Counsel (Mr Tony Beswetherick KC) issued draft retrospective (but final) advice to the Company on the Share Issuance in which he opined (amongst other things) as follows:

119.1 where Articles confer a power on directors to issues shares, that power is a fiduciary one and must only be exercised for proper purposes; an issue of shares "…deliberately aimed at altering the balance of power between" is problematic; the power should not be exercised with a view to altering an existing balance of power, irrespective of whether the directors consider that doing so is in the interests of the company;

119.2 the effect of the Share Issuance was that, if there were to be a company meeting or proposal to approve a modification that affects the Participating Shareholders' rights, the ability of the prior Participating Shareholders to vote down such a change was negatively affected (DFW now having over 50% of the total Participating Shares);

119.3 it is not immediately clear from the Share Issue Resolutions whether the justifications stated were actually relevant to the Directors' decision. If they were relevant, it is not explained why the issue of shares to DFW would prevent false claims being made by Mr Dondero; it may be that those matters are part of the context, rather than part of the reason for the decision; and 119.4 the Participating Shareholders might suggest the Share Issue Resolutions are self-serving and do not tell the full story, but rather seek to obscure the true motivations of the board.

Plan to redeem the Original Participating Shareholders

120 In January and February 2025, the Directors, in connection with a plan to try to redeem the Participating Shareholders and/or the CDM Membership Interest held by the Company, and without telling the Supporting Organisations or the Charities, sought to obtain an analysis of the fair market value of the Participation Shares, and the discount that should be applied to such valuation, given the limited rights conferred upon Participating Share under the Articles.

Historic ValueScope Valuations

121 At the request of the Company, ValueScope, Inc. ("ValueScope") conducted a series of valuation analyses of 100 Participation Shares on a net asset value ("NAV") basis between December 2020 and September 2024 to determine their fair market value ("FMV"). These valuations were apparently prepared for internal reporting purposes and apparently applied consistent methodologies throughout the period. The results of these valuations are summarised below:

Valuation date	NAV	NAV Per Share	Combined Discounts	FMV Per Share	FMV (100 shares)
31 December 2020	$176.96M	$580,193	17.0%	$481,468	$48,146,754
31 December 2021	$243.19M	$797,343	11.6%	$705,210	$70,521,019
31 December 2022	$276.24M	$905,711	15.4%	$766,549	$76,654,941
30 September 2024	$269.05M	$882,140	13.9%	$759,614	$75,961,370

122 The final NAV-based valuation prepared by ValueScope prior to the Restructuring was dated 7 January 2025, and gave a valuation of 100 Participating Shares as at 30 September 2024 (the "September 2024 Valuation").

PwC and FTI

123 On 14 January 2025, Walkers inquired with PwC about a valuation of "the shares of Charitable DAF Holdco". In that email, Walkers, presumably on instructions from the Directors, listed the Supporting Organisations as "potential adverse parties".

124 On 7 February 2025, Walkers informed PwC that CDM had been inserted into the structure and requested that a second valuation be prepared of all the CDM Membership Interest, which valuation Walkers said was also to rely on the NAV as previously advised (rather than leaving PwC to determine their own valuation methodology). PwC responded that their initial view is "there is no meaningful difference" between the two valuations requested - "i.e. the economic interest in the underlying NAV still fully accrues to the participating shareholders" - but that voting power/control remains with Mr Patrick (or with entities he controls). PwC asked for further information about what Mr Patrick was trying to achieve by the Restructuring to help them understand the valuation implications.

125 On 10 February 2025, PwC suggested a call with Walkers to discuss the second valuation, which call took place on 11 February 2025, and was also attended by Mr Patrick's 'onshore and Delaware counsel'. Following that call, PwC declined to take on the instructions:

> "... our view is that the new Delaware entity (CDMCFAD) effectively has full economic interest and control over the Fund, so we don't really see a basis for applying any discounts to the underlying Fund NAV for that entity. As it relates to the participating shareholders' interest in Charitable DAF Holdco, Ltd., we don't think we can reliably estimate the value/discount given the current fact pattern. While we could make hypothetical assumptions about how the articles may be interpreted, and/or how future cash flows may or may not be distributed, the impact on value is so substantial that we don't think it would be a meaningful exercise (i.e. we'd end up with the discount being 100% in one scenario, but 0% in another). On that basis, I don't think there is a fee / scope that can work for us currently."

The FTI Memo

126 On 13 February 2025, without telling the Supporting Organisations or the Charities, the Company engaged FTI Consulting in London ("FTI") to advise on (i) the discount applicable (if any) to a valuation considering how the rights attached to Participation Shares differed from those typically associated with ordinary shares, and (ii) the impact of the existence of an additional share class (being the Management Shares held by Mr Patrick). FTI's engagement letter also stated that "The Memo will also include a valuation of the ordinary shares of CDMCFAD, LLC, the immediate subsidiary of Charitable DAF HoldCo".

127 On 2 March 2025, FTI provided a draft memorandum to Walkers/the Company.

128 On 27 March 2025, FTI issued its final memorandum (the "FTI Memo"), which stated (amongst other things) that the rights of Participating Shares were extremely limited, and the potential distribution of cash was highly dependent on a member's alignment with the Fund's mission. The FTI Memo concluded that a "limited discount" for lack of control and marketability should be applied where a member is aligned with the Fund's mission (said to be close to the range concluded by ValueScope in its 7 January ValueScope Report, i.e. a discount of 13.9%), and a "high discount" of 95% where a member is not.

Legal advice sought

129 On 25 February 2025, without telling the Supporting Organisations or the Charities, the Directors sought advice from Walkers and Shields Legal on any powers under the Articles to enable the removal of the Supporting Organisations, including by (i) redemption of the Participating Shares (Art 14 and 28), (ii) a forced transfer of Participating Shares held by a Restricted Person (Art 21) (iii) or an alternative course whereby DFW repurchased the shares, which could then be cancelled, and new shares issued which are redeemable by the Company. Walkers advised that both redemption and forced transfers were not permitted but agreed with the alternative course involving DFW.

130 On 5 March 2025, as stated above, Leading Counsel provided retrospective advice to the Company regarding the Share Issuance, which also considered whether the Directors had power under the Articles to redeem the Participating Shares. Leading Counsel opined that they did not, on the basis that the Participating Shares were not issued as redeemable shares, and could not be redeemed unless there were a prior variation of the rights ascribed to them. That said, any proposal to vary the rights attached to the shares to make them redeemable would support an argument "that the [DFW Share Issue] was itself procured with a view, ultimately, to disenfranchising the pre-existing Participating Shareholders".

131 On 17 March 2025, Mr Patrick wrote to Walkers in the following terms:

> "Agree we need to finalise the [FTI valuation] reports …We should request any limits on use removed.
> We are seeking U.S. tax counsel to send emails to Paul and I that the non profits are Restricted Persons and/or best interests of the Company to have non dondero holders of its interests. After that, an alternative approach is to give them what they want – liquidate Holdco Ltd after its only investment is redeemed by the US. LLC pursuant to U.S. counsel advice above, that it's in the best interests of the Company to redeem all non-profits affiliated with Dondero. US LLC has same valuation conducted on its shares as the participation shares. so we would redeem the LLC interest, then distribute the proceeds out of Holdco Ltd., and file articles of Dissolution for Charitable daf Holdco Ltd before a wind up petition is filled. That would put us on the "high ground" to fight (rather the way this is currently heading in a defensive posture). they would have to scrap their wond up petition and fight for reinstatement, gripe about the valuations, and file fiduciary breach actions …
> We will stage this in light of the Doug letter, new advice of two separate U.S Tax counsel, and seeing how successful (or not) our outreach to the Texas attorney general office is.
> Note US LLC would make DFW its sole owner."

132 The email of 19 March 2025 makes plain that the Directors, or at least Mr Patrick, intended to liquidate the Company without notice to the Supporting Organisations and to otherwise obstruct the Supporting Organisations' ability to exercise any right to petition to wind up the Company on just and equitable grounds.

133 On 20 March 2025, Walkers provided comments on the FTI draft valuation, and FTI responded. These comments include, amongst other things*:*

> "Walkers: It is stated at [3.2(2)] that "there is no overriding duty of DAF's Directors to act in the shareholders' interest. The Directors will act according to the best interest of the company, that is, to achieve the charitable causes that are aligned with DAF's mission". However, as a matter of Cayman law, directors owe duties to the company, and must act in its best interests [which are] generally regarded as the interests of the members as a whole, and in certain circumstances the objects of the company may be taken into account when determining what is in its best interests.
> FTI: Can you explain how it was in the interests of the company to materially dilute the existing shareholders?
> Walkers: It is stated at [3.10] that "the Participating Shareholders do not have any rights to cause a liquidation/winding up of the company". However, the Participating Shareholders do have the right to seek a winding up of the company, as conferred upon them by the Companies Act (rather than the Articles).
> FTI: Why won't they just do this immediately and seek distributions? Isn't the ability to trigger a liquidation contradictory with point 1 which states "Shareholders do not have any right to exert influence on whether/how the funds of DAF are used or distributed".

Walkers: As per our comments, please could you delete references to our advice so as to avoid any potential arguments about waiver of privilege.

FTI: Your advice is important in us arriving at our conclusions. I understand from our legal team that we either (i) keep the reference to your advice or (ii) address the memo to you. Are you expecting there to be litigation in relation to the proposed transaction?

Walkers: Our client now seeks a valuation report which may, in connection with a proposed redemption of the membership interests in CDM, be disclosed to third parties and relied on to establish fair market value of both the membership interests in CDM, and in turn HoldCo.

FTI: This is a material change in the purpose and access rights of the report. Please provide more detail of the transaction. Is it the case that Mark will make CDM redeem the shares owned in by DAF? And who would you like to share the report with? And on what basis (e.g. non-reliance)? We also note our memo is not a valuation – it is a quantification of discounts given the rights of the participating shares. To do a valuation, we would need to do a more detailed exercise, including valuing the underlying assets."

134 On 21 to 24 March 2025, FTI and Walkers had an exchange (amongst other things) as follows*:*

"FTI: If the firm was wound down, would it result in distributions to the existing participating shareholders? Or would Mark still be able to shareholder structure to ensure the existing participating shareholders got nothing? Given they haven't received dividends since 2019, why haven't the participating shareholders triggered a wind down? If they can trigger a wind down and then in short order receive $300m of distributions, it does change things re discount.

Walkers: if HoldCo was wound up, the Participating Shareholders would receive distributions which would be made pari passu, and Mark (if he was the liquidator) would not be able to ensure the existing Participating Shareholders get nothing. Whilst the Participating Shareholders have the right to seek to wind up under the Companies Act, they need a proper basis to do so… We can only assume [they] have not commenced proceedings seeking to wind the company up because they do not have a proper basis on which to do so …

FTI: Would an absence of distributions be sufficient grounds to make an application to wind the company up? If the participating shareholders did make the application, would Mark be able to issue a vast number of shares to another party before the distributions were made thereby ensuring the existing shareholders received very little?

Walkers: A Participating Shareholder may consider an absence of distributions sufficient grounds for a winding up order on the just and equitable basis… But it is difficult for us to say whether that petition would be successful. If (a) a Participating Shareholder presented a petition; (b) new shares were purportedly issued; and (c) the Court then made a winding up order, the issue of the new shares would be void and not impact the amounts the Participating Shareholders would receive."

135 On 26 and 27 March 2025, FTI and Walkers had an exchange (amongst other things) as follows*:*

"Walkers: We have discussed with our client and onshore counsel and set out some amendments in the attached. In addition, we note (1) we have not received any material addressing reliance on the memo by CDM; and (2) the "Limitations and restrictions" section still provides that the memo "should not be used to support a transaction". For the memo to be useful in the circumstances, CDM [and HoldCo] need to be able to rely on it or a separate memo would need to be addressed to CDM on which it may rely. Further, both entities need to be able to rely on the memo(s) to support the proposed transaction.

FTI: What is the intention of adding that directors should act in the interests of future members? I am struggling to understand how a director could act in a manner which is beneficial for future shareholders which is not also helpful for existing shareholders.

The limitations in our note will remain. To do a valuation to support a transaction, we will need to do significantly more detailed work. This is an unusual/complicated situation. We are open to doing a fairness opinion on the transaction. But this will require approval from our risk committee and more information on the transaction and situation. We are happy for CDM to have our memo on a non-reliance basis. But this memo should not be used to support a transaction."

March 2025 ValueScope Valuation

136 Following the Restructuring, ValueScope was requested by Shields Legal, without telling the Supporting Organisations or the Charities, to prepare two valuation analyses:

136.1 100% Membership Interest in CDM; and 136.2 Certain Participating Shares of the Company as at 25 March 2025 (the "March 2025 Valuation").

137 The March 2025 Valuation had the same instructions, definition of value and scope of work as the September 2024 Valuation. Like the September 2024 Valuation, the March 2025 Valuation also referenced a 30 September 2024 balance sheet (and did not refer to any later analysis of assets and liabilities). As shown below, the September 2024 Valuation and March 2025 Valuation produced very different results.

138 A comparative summary of the September 2024 and March 2025 Valuations is set out below:

Valuation Date	DLOC*	DLOM	Valuation Basis	FMV (100 Shares)
30 September 2024	8.1%	6.3%	NAV	$75,961,370
25 March 2025	99.2%	20.00%	DCF	$536,784
Difference	+91.1%	+13.7%		-$75,424,586

*DLOC – Discounted for Lack of Control

DLOM – Discounted for Lack of Marketability

DCF – Discounted Cash Flow

139 The March 2025 Valuation stated: "for the valuation of non-controlling assets in holding companies such as DAF, the asset-based approach is most commonly used [as Valuescope had always done previously]. When applied to such companies, the approach consists of measuring the underlying net asset value of an entity (the fair market value of the entity's assets less the fair market value of its liabilities). The NAV is then discounted as appropriate to determine the fair market value of the fractional interest in the entity. However, in the case of the participation shares under consideration, the asset-based approach is not applicable. These shares do not confer control and only have a claim in respect of the underlying assets in a winding up."

FILED by Maples and Calder (Cayman) LLP, attorneys for the Plaintiff, whose address for service is PO Box 309, Ugland House, Grand Cayman, KY1-1104, Cayman Islands. (Ref: CJM/JRN/TQR/858403.000001/83559387)

140 ValueScope does not appear to have considered whether winding up was a possibility, and therefore, whether value could have been realised that way and by reference to NAV.

141 For reasons which are unclear to the Company, the March 2025 Valuation expressly rejected the asset-based (NAV) approach on the basis that the economic benefits of the Participating Shares in the Company were contingent on discretionary distributions by its manager. The report states.

> 'Unlike equity interests that derive value from an allocable portion of the entity's net assets, the economic benefits of these shares are contingent upon discretionary distributions by the director. As such, their value is not directly tied to the entity's NAV, and an alternative valuation approach is required to appropriately reflect their characteristics and economic reality'.

142 Accordingly, the methodology applied in the March 2025 Valuation was markedly different from the methodology applied in the September 2024 Valuation. Instead of relying on discounted net assets, the March 2025 Valuation:

142.1 applied a discounted cash flow ("DCF") methodology to estimate the present value of expected future distributions, rather than an asset-based approach, as had been applied in at least the past five annual valuations by ValueScope;

142.2 determined the FMV of 100 Participating Shares to be US$536,784;

142.3 applied a discount of 99.2% for DLOC; and 142.4 applied a discount of 20.00% for DLOM.

143 The DCF model is based on the present value of future distributions to the Company. ValueScope's report shows that these were estimated based on historic distributions themselves controlled by Mr Patrick.

144 Based on the valuations above, between 30 September 2024 and 25 March 2025, the FMV of 100 Participating Shares in the Company apparently declined from US$75,961,370 to US$536,784, representing a reduction in value of 99.29% in less than a six month period, in which the Restructuring occurred, attributable to a change in valuation basis (amongst other things) from NAV to DCF.

145 Furthermore, ValueScope does not appear to have sense-tested their valuation. Although they identified "total equity" of c. US$270 million and concluded that all of the Participation Shares had a value of only c. US$1.6 million, they did not address themselves to who benefitted from the residual value of c. US$268 million.

Admission and Redemption

146 On 27 March 2025, Mr Patrick, as manager of CDM, executed a written consent (the "Manager Consent") to (a) cause CDM to admit DFW as an additional member of CDM pursuant to the terms of an Admission and Amendment No.1 Agreement (the "Admission Agreement") and (b) redeem the CDM Membership Interest held by the Company pursuant to the terms of a Redemption and Amendment No. 2 Agreement (the "Redemption Agreement" and together with the Admission Agreement, the "Restructure Agreements"):

146.1 The recitals to the Manager Consent stated that the redemption of the Company's membership interest was justified by reason of alleged attempts by the Supporting Organisations to exert control, and the potential loss of their (i.e. the Supporting Organisations') non-profit and tax-exempt status:

> "… the Manager has formed the view that the Current Member, by virtue of being a member of the Company and having as Participating Shareholders the Highland Foundations, poses a material risk to the Company, its assets, and the Mission Statement of DAF due to, among other things, (i) officers and directors of the Highland Foundations seeking to assert dominion and control over the assets of DAF (through the Current Member), despite no legal ability to do so under the Current Member's organizational documents and despite the potential illegality (as demonstrated by tax counsel to DAF—see Exhibits C and D) of doing so, (ii) the potential loss of the non-profit status of the Highland Foundations due to their actions, among others, described in clause (i), and (iii) the potential loss of the tax-exempt status which the Highland Foundations currently enjoy and which is central to the mission of DAF, as a result of the factors including those described in clauses (i) and (ii)"

146.2 The Manager Consent further stated:

"WHEREAS, in connection with the Restructure Agreements and the transactions contemplated thereby, the Manager (on behalf of the Company) obtained a valuation report of the membership interests of the Company from ValueScope and FTI Consulting, copies of which are attached hereto as Exhibit E, which valuation reports have informed the Manager the fair market value of the membership interests"

146.3 Exhibits C and D to the Manager Consent are documents purportedly containing information regarding various alleged U.S. tax issues relating to the Company.

146.4 Exhibit C is the letter from Mr Mancino to the IRS dated 20 March 2025, in which Mr Mancino (amongst other things) stated:

(a) there has been "deterioration" of the Company's relationship with Highland Dallas Foundation, Inc. ("HDF") due to the undue influence and control exercised over HDF by Mr Dondero.

FILED by Maples and Calder (Cayman) LLP, attorneys for the Plaintiff, whose address for service is PO Box 309, Ugland House, Grand Cayman, KY1-1104, Cayman Islands. (Ref: CJM/JRN/TQR/858403.000001/83559387)

(b) the information in the letter will demonstrate clearly that Mr Dondero's influence and control is an inappropriate donor relationship with representatives of the HDF who serve on the Board of Directors of and as officers of HDF.

(c) such undue influence and control potentially jeopardises the tax-exempt status of HDF as an organisation described in s.501(c)(3) and, at a minimum, causes it to fail to remain a supporting organisation described in s. 509(a)(3).

146.5 Exhibit D is an advice produced by Carrington Coleman (U.S. law firm) dated 25 March 2025 (the "Carrington Advice") which amongst other things:

(a) asserts that Mr Dondero has been attempting "through his control of the Highland SOs, to exert dominion and control over the cash and property he previously donated to DAF and for which he claimed charitable deductions, all for his personal benefit."

(b) suggests that Mr Dondero was using the Company as his personal "piggy bank", and that it may be perceived by the IRS that the Fund has been or is his financial alter ego.

(c) concludes that "the IRS will look favourably upon any and all attempts for DAF to maintain its independence from what seems to be persistent attempts by Dondero, and the entities controlled by him to use DAF for his private benefit and inurement."

146.6 Exhibit E contained two valuation reports:

(a) The first was a ValueScope valuation.

FILED by Maples and Calder (Cayman) LLP, attorneys for the Plaintiff, whose address for service is PO Box 309, Ugland House, Grand Cayman, KY1-1104, Cayman Islands. (Ref: CJM/JRN/TQR/858403.000001/83559387)

(b) The second is the FTI Memo referred to above, in which FTI expressly stated that the analysis in the FTI Memo should not be used in support of a transaction, but which Mr Patrick, in any event:

(i) expressly relied upon in the Manager Consent to determine the fair market value of the CDM Membership Interest and the basis for the redemption of the Company's interests; and

(ii) permitted Carrington Coleman to refer to and rely on in the FTI Memo (indeed, having provided the 27 March 2025 copy which was a draft copy only).

146.7 On 27 March 2025, without telling the Supporting Organisations or the Charities, Mr Patrick executed the:

(a) Admission Agreement between CDM and DFW under which DFW was admitted as a member of CDM, in consideration for a capital contribution of US$1,637,192; and

(b) Redemption Agreement under which CDM redeemed the Company's membership interest in CDM for the same sum of US$1,637,192 (the "Redemption Sum").

147 On 27 March 2025, without telling the Supporting Organisations or the Charities, the Company entered into a letter agreement with CDM (the "Letter Agreement"), pursuant to which the Company assigned to CDM various contracts and agreements to which the Company was a party, listed in Schedule A to the Letter Agreement and CDM agreed to assume the liabilities and obligations in respect of those contracts.

148 On 2 April 2025, the Directors of the Company, by way of written resolution:

FILED by Maples and Calder (Cayman) LLP, attorneys for the Plaintiff, whose address for service is PO Box 309, Ugland House, Grand Cayman, KY1-1104, Cayman Islands. (Ref: CJM/JRN/TQR/858403.000001/83559387)

148.1 Noted the redemption of the Company's membership interest in CDM for the Redemption Sum (the "Redemption").

148.2 Resolved to pay a dividend to the Original Participating Shareholders of US$1,612,192.01 in the amount of (i) US$528,587.54 with respect to each of HDF, Highland Kansas City Foundation, Inc. and Highland Santa Barbara Foundation, Inc.; and (ii) US$26,429.39 with respect to CFNT.

149 The substantive financial effect of the Redemption, under which DFW did or was committed to make a capital contribution equivalent to the Redemption Sum to CDM, and the CDM Membership Interest held by the Company were redeemed for the Redemption Sum, was that the Company's membership interest in CDM was purchased by or otherwise transferred to DFW for the Redemption Sum.

150 The substantive effect of the overall transaction or series of transactions pleaded above, including the Impugned Transactions already pleaded, was that:

150.1 The Company realised its interest in the Fund, which had a NAV of c. US$270 million, for c. US$1.6 million.

150.2 The Company made a distribution to the Original Participating Shareholders (c. US$1.6 million).

150.3 The Supporting Organisations and the Charities were actually or effectively divested of their indirect interest in the Fund, and the assets underlying the Fund; and 150.4 The Original Participating Shareholders were diluted from 100% of the economic interests in the Company to less than 50%.

FILED by Maples and Calder (Cayman) LLP, attorneys for the Plaintiff, whose address for service is PO Box 309, Ugland House, Grand Cayman, KY1-1104, Cayman Islands. (Ref: CJM/JRN/TQR/858403.000001/83559387)

Voluntary Liquidation and Supervision Order

151 On 2 April 2025, the Directors resolved, without telling the Supporting Organisations or the Charities, to place the Company into voluntary liquidation and appoint Mitchell Mansfield and William Clarke (the JVLs) of Kroll (Cayman) Ltd as voluntary liquidators.

152 However, unaware of the voluntary liquidation, on 10 April 2025, the Supporting Organisations presented a petition seeking the winding up of the Company on a just and equitable basis, under section 92(e) of the Companies Act (2025 Revision) (the "J&E Petition").

153 On 25 April 2025, Walkers and Shields Legal held a call to discuss the J&E Petition. Following that call, Mr Patrick wrote in an email that the "message ideas" "for Monday" were to "poison the well", by which he meant to create a negative impression of Mr Dondero in the eyes of the Court.

154 On 6 May 2025, Justice Jalil Asif KC made a supervision order, under which voluntary liquidation of the Company was to be continued under the supervision of the Court pursuant to s.131 of the Companies Act (As Revised), and the JOLs were appointed.

OBLIGATIONS OWED BY THE DIRECTORS

155 At all material times, the Directors, as directors, owed the following duties individually to the Company:

155.1 A fiduciary duty to act bona fide in what he considers to be the best interests of the Company (the "Best Interests Duty").

155.2 A fiduciary duty to exercise his powers for a proper purpose, and for the purposes for which they were conferred (the "Proper Purpose Rule").

FILED by Maples and Calder (Cayman) LLP, attorneys for the Plaintiff, whose address for service is PO Box 309, Ugland House, Grand Cayman, KY1-1104, Cayman Islands. (Ref: CJM/JRN/TQR/858403.000001/83559387)

155.3 A fiduciary duty not to place himself in a position where his personal interest actually or potentially conflicted with his duty of loyalty to the Company (the "First No-Conflicts Duty").

155.4 A fiduciary duty not to place himself in a position where his duty to another actually or potentially conflicted with his duty of loyalty to the Company (the "Second No-Conflicts Duty").

155.5 A fiduciary duty to not make an unauthorised profit from or by reason of his fiduciary position (the "No Profit Duty").

155.6 A fiduciary duty not to accrue or take a benefit or commercial opportunity from the Company without the full and informed consent of the Company (the "No Self-Dealing Rule").

155.7 A duty to exercise reasonable skill, care, and diligence in the performance of his role and function as director (the "Reasonable Care Duty").

156 With respect at least to Mr Patrick, his duties above and the standard to which he was obliged to comply with such duties are affected by being in the Control Position and the trustee or trustee-like position he occupied. Paragraph 76 above is also relied upon.

157 The Company reserves its position as to whether Mr Patrick, by reason of being in the Control Position and the trustee or trustee-like position he occupied, was an express or other trustee of the assets of the Fund for the Original Participating Shareholders and, through or in addition to them, the Charities.

ATTRIBUTION OF KNOWLEDGE AND INTENTION

158 As a matter of Cayman Islands law, Mr Patrick's intention and knowledge of facts and matters for all such purposes relevant to this claim is to be attributed to each of DFW, CDM, and the New GP on the basis of at least the following facts:

158.1 As regards DFW, Mr Patrick is listed under DFW's certificate of incorporation, dated 9 December 2024, as "the member of the corporation", and the Admission Agreement showed he served as its "President". Mr Patrick is also the registered director of DFW. Mr Patrick the agent of DFW, in which capacity Mr Patrick executed the Admission Agreement.

158.2 As regards CDM, Mr Patrick is described under the LLC Agreement as the "Manager" of CDM, in which role Mr Patrick was CDM's agent, and in which capacity he (i) executed the Deed of Assignment and Assumption on behalf of CDM, and (ii) executed a written 'Manager Consent' (the "Manager Consent") approving the Redemption and Admission Agreements; and executed the Redemption and Admission Agreements.

158.3 As regards the New GP, Mr Patrick was and remains its director, and therefore its agent (in which capacity, Mr Patrick executed the Deed of Assignment and Assumption on the New GP's behalf). Further, Mr Patrick is the sole shareholder of the New GP.

159 Further, if applicable, as a matter of the laws of the State of Delaware, Mr Patrick's knowledge and intention is to be attributed to DFW, CDM, and the New GP on a like basis.

CLAIMS AGAINST THE DEFENDANTS

Breaches of fiduciary and other duty

160 The First and Second Defendants, and each of them, in their capacity as a Director of the Company, acted in breach of their fiduciary and other duties to the Company as follows.

FILED by Maples and Calder (Cayman) LLP, attorneys for the Plaintiff, whose address for service is PO Box 309, Ugland House, Grand Cayman, KY1-1104, Cayman Islands. (Ref: CJM/JRN/TQR/858403.000001/83559387)

Restructuring, including the CDM Assignment

161 The Directors (and each of them), in procuring, directing or effecting the Restructuring as set out above, acted in breach of their duties to the Company, including the Best Interests Duty, the Proper Purpose Rule and the Reasonable Care Duty. Additionally, Mr Patrick, in procuring, directing or effecting the Restructuring as set out above, acted in breach of his duties to the Company, including the No Self-Dealing Rule, No Profit Duty, and No-Conflicts Duty (First and Second No-Conflicts Duties).

PARTICULARS

161.1 The Plaintiff relies on paragraphs 77 to 105 above.

161.2 With the assistance of Mr Mancino, Mr Patrick took steps to form CDM and appoint himself as Manager of CDM.

161.3 Mr Patrick designed and/or negotiated and/or directed and/or effected the Restructuring in his capacity as Director of the Company, Director of the New GP, and Manager of CDM, being each of the parties to the Deed, and signed the Deed on behalf of each party.

161.4 The Directors (and each of them) approved the transfer of the Company's entire limited partnership interest in the Fund (having net assets worth c. US$270 million) to CDM, a Delaware entity whose LLC Agreement excluded any fiduciary obligations owed by its Manager (i.e. Mr Patrick) to CDM itself or to its members; in exchange for membership interest in CDM, which interest was capable of being extinguished, by redemption, and for a "fair value", determined at the discretion of the Manager (i.e. Mr Patrick).

FILED by Maples and Calder (Cayman) LLP, attorneys for the Plaintiff, whose address for service is PO Box 309, Ugland House, Grand Cayman, KY1-1104, Cayman Islands. (Ref: CJM/JRN/TQR/858403.000001/83559387)

161.5 The Restructuring was of no benefit to the Company and not in its best interests, and Mr Patrick was subject to conflicts of interest (First and Second No-Conflicts Duties) and committed acts of self-dealing.

161.6 The Directors (and each of them) acted when each of them:

(a) knew or ought to have known that the Company was proposing to exchange the Partnership Interest for a membership interest in CDM that was subject to redemption entirely at Mr Patrick's discretion, and for a "fair value" determined, in good faith, in his discretion.

(b) knew or ought to have known that the Company was therefore proposing to trade its Partnership Interest, which was not in practical terms defeasible, for an interest that could be extinguished: (i) at a time over which it had no control, (ii) for a price over which it had very limited control and (iii) for a potential valuation basis which excluded a net asset valuation of the assets held in the Fund.

(c) knew or ought to have known that the CDM Membership Interest was to be in a Delaware-incorporated company whose LLC Agreement excluded any fiduciary obligations owed by its Manager either to CDM itself or to its members and was therefore less valuable than the Partnership Interest.

(d) knew or ought to have known that the CDM Assignment was therefore a transaction at an undervalue.

161.7 It can be inferred, and is averred, that Mr Patrick was drawing fees or remuneration or emoluments or benefits from CDM without the full authorisation or full and informed consent of the Company.

161.8 Further, and in any event, the Directors (and each of them) acted when each of them:

FILED by Maples and Calder (Cayman) LLP, attorneys for the Plaintiff, whose address for service is PO Box 309, Ugland House, Grand Cayman, KY1-1104, Cayman Islands. (Ref: CJM/JRN/TQR/858403.000001/83559387)

(a) knew or ought to have known that the CDM Assignment was the first step in a series of connected future transactions, including those pursuant to the CDM Assignment, the Share Issuance, the Admission Agreement, the Redemption Agreement and the Redemption, under which the Directors were able to and ultimately did procure the redemption of the Company's CDM Membership Interest, thus extinguishing the Company's interest in the Fund, for an undervalue.

(b) knew or ought to have known that:

(i) the full terms and effect of the CDM Assignment was not a proper or proportionate response to any genuinely perceived risk about U.S. tax concerns.

(ii) the full terms and effect the CDM Assignment was not a proper or proportionate response to any genuinely perceived risk to the Company, which was not itself a Donor Advised Fund and/or did not enjoy or require tax-exempt status under s.501(c)(3) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code.

(iii) other approaches to address concerns with respect to the tax-exempt status of the HDF short of undertaking the Restructuring (and entering into the CDM Assignment) included notifying the HDF of the conflict and/or concerns and requesting it to remedy it or them.

(iv) even if the facts and matters alleged in relation to the HDF were correct, there was more than a possibility, after an extended passage of time and at least two levels of appeal, that a U.S. tax audit would result in an adverse determination with respect to the tax-exempt status of the HDF.

(v) the tax-exempt status of the HDF was of no concern or no reasonable concern to the Company.

(c) knew or ought to have known that they were keeping the Restructuring, the CDM Assignment, CDM itself and all the surrounding circumstances secret from the Participating Shareholders.

162 By reason of the foregoing breaches of duty or any of them:

162.1 The CDM Assignment is void, alternatively voidable and hereby avoided.

162.2 CDM holds the Partnership Interest on trust or constructive trust for the Company.

162.3 CDM is required to re-transfer the Partnership Interest to the Company and account for any profits on the basis of such trust or constructive trust and/or on a restitutionary and/or on a proprietary basis.

Share Issuance

163 The Directors (and each of them), in procuring, directing or effecting the Share Issuance as set out above, acted in breach of their duties to the Company, including the Best Interests Duty, the Proper Purpose Rule and the Reasonable Care Duty. Additionally, Mr Patrick, in procuring, directing or effecting the Share Issuance as set out above, acted in breach of his duties to the Company, including the No Self-Dealing Rule, No Profit Duty, and No-Conflicts Duty (First and Second No-Conflicts Duties).

PARTICULARS

163.1 The Plaintiff relies on paragraphs 77 to 84, 91 to 96 and 106 to 119 above.

FILED by Maples and Calder (Cayman) LLP, attorneys for the Plaintiff, whose address for service is PO Box 309, Ugland House, Grand Cayman, KY1-1104, Cayman Islands. (Ref: CJM/JRN/TQR/858403.000001/83559387)

163.2 The Directors (and each of them) designed and/or engineered the Share Issuance, having sought legal advice in relation to the powers conferred on them as Directors of the Company, for the improper purpose of:

(a) diluting without any proper reason or corporate purpose the existing Participating Shareholders and/or depriving the ability of the Supporting Organisations to continue to comprise a majority of the Participating Shareholders.

(b) inserting DFW as a new Participating Shareholder, an entity under the sole control of Mr Patrick, to obstruct and/or prejudice and/or adversely affect the exercise of a Participating Shareholders' right to petition for the just and equitable winding-up of the Company.

163.3 The Directors (and each of them) acted when each of them:

(a) knew or ought to have known the issue and allotment of shares at par to DFW was of no benefit to the Company.

(b) knew or ought to have known that the exercise of the power to issue shares and allot them to DFW was for the improper purpose of diluting the interest of the Original Participating Shareholders.

(c) knew or ought to have known that the Share Issue Resolution and/or the Share Issuance or otherwise the issue and/or allotment of shares to DFW was a response to the prospect that the Supporting Organisations might present a petition for the winding-up of the Company on a just and equitable basis, as indeed they did on 10 April 2025 in ignorance of the Share Issue Resolution and/or the Share Issuance or otherwise the issue and/or allotment of shares to DFW.

FILED by Maples and Calder (Cayman) LLP, attorneys for the Plaintiff, whose address for service is PO Box 309, Ugland House, Grand Cayman, KY1-1104, Cayman Islands. (Ref: CJM/JRN/TQR/858403.000001/83559387)

(d) knew or ought to have known that the sole or primary purpose of the Share Issue Resolution and/or the Share Issuance or otherwise the issue and/or allotment of shares to DFW was to insert a new majority Participating Shareholder (under their or at least Mr Patrick's control) into the Company's share capital structure to (if they or at least Mr Patrick deemed fit) to oppose the actions of the Supporting Organisations and/or the Original Participating Shareholders, both in relation to any potential contributories' winding-up petition and otherwise, and/or to obstruct and/or prejudice and/or adversely affect the exercise at any time of any rights of the Supporting Organisations as Participating Shareholders.

163.4 Mr Patrick designed and/or directed and/or effected the Share Issuance in his capacity as Director of the Company, even though he was 'President' of DFW and the sole member and the sole director of DFW.

163.5 It can be inferred, and is averred, that Mr Patrick was drawing fees or remuneration or emoluments or benefits from DFW (if not also from CDM) without the full authorisation or full and informed consent of the Company.

164 By reason of the foregoing breaches of duty or any of them:

164.1 the Share Issue Resolution and/or the Share Issuance or otherwise the issue and/or allotment of shares to DFW is void, alternatively voidable and hereby avoided.

164.2 DFW holds its shares on trust or constructive trust for the Company.

164.3 DFW is required to concur in the rescission of the allotment and to re-transfer its shares to the Company on the basis of such trust or constructive trust and/or on a restitutionary and/or on a proprietary basis.

164.4 The Company's register of shareholders shall be rectified accordingly.

Admission and Redemption

165 The Directors (and each of them), in procuring or entering into the Admission Agreement and the Redemption Agreement, and/or in procuring, directing or effecting the Redemption acted in breach of their duties to the Company, including the Best Interests Duty, the Proper Purpose Rule and the Reasonable Care Duty. Additionally, Mr Patrick, in procuring or entering into the Admission Agreement and the Redemption Agreement, or in procuring, directing or effecting the Redemption as set out above, acted in breach of his duties to the Company, including the No Self-Dealing Rule, No Profit Duty, and No-Conflicts Duty (First and Second No-Conflicts Duties).

PARTICULARS

165.1 The Plaintiff relies on paragraphs 120 to 150 above.

165.2 The Directors (and each of them) acted when each of them:

(a) knew or ought to have known that:

(i) proceeding on the basis of the Seyfarth/Mancino letter to the IRS dated 20 March 2025 was flawed or unreasonable.

(ii) proceeding was not a proper or proportionate response to any genuinely perceived risk about U.S. tax concerns.

(iii) the tax-exempt status of the HDF was of no concern or no reasonable concern to the Company.

(iv) proceeding on the basis of the March 2025 Valuation and the FTI Report was flawed in that: (i) the 99.2% discount in value proposed by the ValueScope Report was a manifestly excessive discount, and resulted in the Company parting with its indirect ownership of 99% of the economic interest in the Fund (which had net assets worth c. US$270 million) for a mere US$1,637,192; and (ii) as pleaded above, the FTI Report expressly stated that "this memo should not be used to support a transaction."

(v) the Admission Agreement and the Redemption Agreement were steps in a series of connected transactions, including those pursuant to the CDM Assignment, the Share Issuance, under which the Directors were able to and ultimately did procure the extinguishment of the Company's interest in the Fund, through the redemption of the Company's membership interest in CDM, for an undervalue.

(b) knew or ought to have known that the sole or primary purpose of the Admission Agreement, the Redemption Agreement and the Redemption was to ensure that the Company was fully and finally deprived of an asset (its interest in the Fund) at an undervalue; and to enable a third party, DFW, controlled by Mr Patrick, to procure ownership of an interest in the Fund in complete replacement of the Company.

165.3 Mr Patrick designed and/or negotiated and/or directed and/or effected the Admission Agreement, the Redemption Agreement and the Redemption as Director of the Company, even though he was Manager of CDM and 'President' of DFW, sole member of CDM and sole member and sole director of DFW.

166 By reason of the foregoing breaches of duty or any of them:

FILED by Maples and Calder (Cayman) LLP, attorneys for the Plaintiff, whose address for service is PO Box 309, Ugland House, Grand Cayman, KY1-1104, Cayman Islands. (Ref: CJM/JRN/TQR/858403.000001/83559387)

166.1 DFW holds the CDM Membership Interest on trust or constructive trust for the Company.

166.2 DFW is required to concur in the transfer of the CDM Membership Interest to the Company or as the Company directs on the basis of such trust or constructive trust and/or on a restitutionary and/or on a proprietary basis.

Further claims against Mr Murphy

167 In respect of any breach of duty as set out above for which Mr Patrick alone is liable:

167.1 At all material times, Mr Murphy worked in close concert with Mr Patrick, including at his direction.

167.2 Mr Murphy knew or ought to have known all the facts and matters pleaded above as known or ought to have been known by Mr Patrick.

167.3 Mr Murphy knew or ought to have known of all the facts and matters pertaining to such breach or breaches by Mr Patrick.

167.4 Mr Murphy took no steps to stop Mr Patrick or to prevent or report the breach or breaches of duty by Mr Patrick.

167.5 Mr Murphy accepted and acquiesced in all steps and actions suggested, promoted or effected by Mr Patrick.

167.6 Mr Murphy accepted and acquiesced in the breach or breaches of duty by Mr Patrick.

167.7 As a consequence, Mr Murphy has acted in breach of his duties to the Company, including the Best Interests Duty and the Reasonable Care Duty.

Directors' Fees, Remuneration and Expenses

168 The Company is still unclear as to what precise fees or remuneration or emoluments or benefits were afforded to the Directors and from what source, and as to the proper expenses of the Company, in the period after March 2021 and thus reserves its position.

169 As is pleaded above in paragraphs 85 to 89, the Directors approved large increases for Mr Patrick's remuneration, benefits or emoluments: by around 1 October 2024, Mr Patrick's remuneration comprised a base salary of US$850,000, a bonus of 2.5 times that base salary, an LTI incentive payment of US$975,000; for the period March 2021 to March 2024, Mr Patrick was entitled to an aggregate LTI payment of US$4,759,000; and eligibility for discretionary and annual bonuses in addition, to be determined at the sole and absolute discretion of the Directors. By contrast, Mr Scott's annual salary and entire benefits during his tenure in the Control Position was US$60,000.

170 Insofar as the Directors (or each of them) approved of or procured any payment or benefit to or for Mr Patrick or Mr Murphy more than the sum of US$60,000 per annum each in respect of fees or remuneration or emoluments or benefits, such sum was excessive and conferred in breach of duty to the Company, including the Best Interests Duty, the Proper Purpose Rule, the first No-Conflicts Duty, the No Self-Dealing Rule and the Reasonable Care Duty.

171 Further, as is pleaded above, the Directors (or each of them) approved or caused the payment of considerable sums by way of expenses, amounting for example to US$18.3 million for the first half of 2024, and US$18.6 million spent over 2023. Such expenses may include the expenses incurred in effecting the transactions which are the subject matter of these proceedings. The reasonableness or bona fides of these expenses is not accepted by the Company.

172 The Company claims:

FILED by Maples and Calder (Cayman) LLP, attorneys for the Plaintiff, whose address for service is PO Box 309, Ugland House, Grand Cayman, KY1-1104, Cayman Islands. (Ref: CJM/JRN/TQR/858403.000001/83559387)

172.1 Full information, documents and discovery as to the fees or remuneration or emoluments or benefits or expenses paid or claimed by Mr Patrick and Mr Murphy and each of them since March 2021.

172.2 Full information, documents and discovery as to expenses incurred by the Company or the Fund or any of the Fund's subsidiaries or investments since March 2021.

172.3 Repayment to the Company of all fees or remuneration or emoluments or benefits paid or claimed by Mr Patrick or Mr Murphy and each of them in excess of US$60,000 per annum; together with all improperly paid expenses caused or procured by Mr Patrick or Mr Murphy (or damages or equitable compensation in relation thereto).

Unlawful Means Conspiracy

173 The facts and matters pleaded above amount to an unlawful means conspiracy as follows:

173.1 It is unclear when the conspiracy began but it appears to have started by around the start of 2024.

173.2 The original conspirators were Mr Patrick and Mr Murphy. The Company is unaware of the circumstances in which Mr Patrick and Mr Murphy agreed or combined and is unable to plead further pending further information or discovery.

173.3 As they were incorporated and participated in the facts and matters pleaded above, the New GP, CDM and DFW joined the conspiracy but remain liable in damages for all losses, including prior to joining the conspiracy.

173.4 The conspiracy was a conspiracy to injure the Company.

173.5 The overt acts of the conspiracy were all the facts and matters pleaded above, including as breaches by Mr Patrick or Mr Murphy.

FILED by Maples and Calder (Cayman) LLP, attorneys for the Plaintiff, whose address for service is PO Box 309, Ugland House, Grand Cayman, KY1-1104, Cayman Islands. (Ref: CJM/JRN/TQR/858403.000001/83559387)

173.6 The unlawful means of the conspiracy were all the facts and matters pleaded above as breaches of duty by Mr Patrick or Mr Murphy.

173.7 Each of the conspirators intended to injure the Company. This averment is an inference from all the facts and matters pleaded above.

173.8 As a consequence, the Company has suffered loss and damage, as a result of the Restructuring, the CDM Assignment, and the Admission and Redemption, and the combined effect thereof, as set out above.

Proprietary claim and/or unconscionable receipt

174 The facts and matters pleaded above give rise to claims by the Company for unconscionable receipt as follows:

174.1 CDM received the Company's Partnership Interest in the Fund under the CDM Assignment.

174.2 The knowledge of CDM was and is that of Mr Patrick.

174.3 The breaches of duty in relation to the CDM Assignment above are relied upon.

174.4 CDM knew that the CDM Assignment was at an undervalue and that causing or procuring the Company to enter into the CDM Assignment was a breach of fiduciary duty by Mr Patrick and/or Mr Murphy.

174.5 By reason of the foregoing, it is unconscionable for CDM to retain the Partnership Interest in the Fund and CDM is liable to account to the Company in equity, by restoring Partnership Interest in the Fund to the Company and/or accounting for any profits or otherwise accounting to the Company in equity.

FILED by Maples and Calder (Cayman) LLP, attorneys for the Plaintiff, whose address for service is PO Box 309, Ugland House, Grand Cayman, KY1-1104, Cayman Islands. (Ref: CJM/JRN/TQR/858403.000001/83559387)

Unjust Enrichment

175 In receiving the Company's Partnership Interest in the Fund, CDM was unjustly enriched at the Company's expense and is liable to the Company in restitution:

175.1 The Partnership Interest was transferred on the basis that there was a valid assignment agreement effecting that transfer.

175.2 That basis has totally failed, the CDM Assignment being either void, or avoided hereby.

Alter Ego and Lifting the Corporate Veil

176 In order to obtain the return to it of the Partnership Interest in the Fund, together with an Account of Profits, the Company does not need as a matter of law to make any allegation of "alter ego" or to lift the corporate veil in relation to CDM or DFW.

177 If, contrary to the paragraph above, the Company does so need, it makes the following allegations for the purposes of all relevant claims or causes of action set out above.

177.1 CDM is the "alter ego" of Mr Patrick.

177.2 DFW is the "alter ego" of Mr Patrick.

177.3 In relation to the receipt of any property by CDM directly or indirectly from the Company or the accrual of any profits or benefits by reason of such receipt, the corporate veil should be lifted, with the consequence that such receipt and such profits or benefits should be treated as those of Mr Patrick personally.

177.4 In relation to the receipt of any property by DFW directly or indirectly from the Company or the accrual of any profits or benefits by reason of such receipt, the corporate veil should be lifted, with the consequence that such receipt and such profits or benefits should be treated as those of Mr Patrick personally.

FILED by Maples and Calder (Cayman) LLP, attorneys for the Plaintiff, whose address for service is PO Box 309, Ugland House, Grand Cayman, KY1-1104, Cayman Islands. (Ref: CJM/JRN/TQR/858403.000001/83559387)

PARTICULARS

(a) In relation to CDM:

(i) Mr Patrick was and is the Manager. There are no other officers or managers.

(ii) Mr Patrick was and is the managing member.

(iii) CDM was incorporated at Mr Patrick's instigation in order to enter into the CDM Assignment or a transaction of like nature.

(iv) CDM's sole or primary purpose was to play a part in a scheme whereby Mr Patrick would obtain control of the Company's Partnership Interest in the Fund free of the Company, the Company's obligations towards the Supporting Organisations and (if the scheme succeeded) free of Mr Patrick's duties to the Company.

(v) CDM exists and operates in order to conceal the identity of the true or real actor, namely Mr Patrick.

(b) In relation to DFW:

(i) Mr Patrick was and is the 'President'. There are no other officers or managers.

(ii) Mr Patrick was and is the sole member.

(iii) Mr Patrick was and is the sole registered director.

(iv) DFW was incorporated at Mr Patrick's instigation in order to enter into a transaction whereby it would in effect take over the Company's interest in CDM pursuant to the CDM Assignment.

(v) DFW's sole or primary purpose was (i) to play a part in a scheme whereby Mr Patrick would obtain control of the Company's Partnership Interest in the Fund free of the Company, the Company's obligations towards the Supporting Organisations and (if the scheme succeeded) free of Mr Patrick's duties to the Company, (ii) to be the ultimate vehicle by which Mr Patrick would so control of the Company's Partnership Interest in the Fund and (iii) to be a newly-inserted majority Participating Shareholder (under at least Mr Patrick's control) in the Company's share capital structure to oppose the actions of the Supporting Organisations, both in relation to any potential contributories' winding-up petition and otherwise, and/or to obstruct and/or prejudice and/or adversely affect the exercise at any time of any rights of the Supporting Organisations as Participating Shareholders.

(vi) DFW exists and operates in order to conceal the identity of the true or real actor, namely Mr Patrick.

178.4 Improper expenses (if any).

178.5 The lost opportunity cost of the Fund and its subsidiaries deploying such funds (as set out in (1), (2) and (3) above) elsewhere, and the consequent fall in value of the Company's interest in the Fund.

178.6 The legal and liquidation costs of investigating the conspiracy, and the costs of these proceedings.

RESERVATION OF POSITION

179 The Company and the JOLs (who direct the Company in bringing these proceedings) fully reserve their position to apply to amend this claim in any way or to bring fresh or further proceedings against any of the Defendants (whether in the Cayman Islands or elsewhere) in the name of the Company or in the name of the JOLs.

Appellant The Dugaboy Investment Trust's Statement of Issues to be Presented and Amended Designation of Items to be Included in the Record on Appeal From the Bankruptcy Court's Order Fixing Allowed Amount of Class 11 Interests

Pursuant to Rule 8009(a)(1) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), Appellant The Dugaboy Investment Trust ("Appellant"), having filed a Notice of Appeal [Docket No. 4423] on October 6, 2025, from the Bankruptcy Court's September 22, 2025 Order Fixing Allowed Amount of Class 11 Interests [Docket No. 4401], and having received the Clerk's letter of October 23, 2025 requesting corrections to the record designations, submits this Statement of Issues to be Presented and Amended Designation of Items to be Included in the Record on Appeal, and respectfully requests that the Clerk prepare and forward the listed items to the District Court for inclusion in the record in connection with this appeal.[1]

STATEMENT OF ISSUES TO BE PRESENTED ON APPEAL

1. Did the Bankruptcy Court misapply the absolute-priority rule in determining that the Hunter Mountain Investment Trust's (HMIT's) Class 10 interests were entitled to 100% of any excess funds left over after all senior creditor classes were paid in full, in disregard of equity interests that allocated 99.5% to HMIT and 0.5% to Dugaboy?

2. Did the Bankruptcy Court err when it allocated potential excess funds in a way that effectively gave HMIT more than 100% of what it was entitled to, in contravention of black-letter law holding that a senior class cannot receive more than 100% without the consent of the junior class? See In re Idearc, Inc., 423 B.R. 138, 170 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2009).

3. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in determining the value of Dugaboy's interest only as a fixed dollar amount, rather than a pro rata percentage reflecting its equity ownership share?

4. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in allowing Highland to use a valuation methodology for determining the allowed amount of Dugaboy's claim based on limited partners' pre-petition capital accounts, which were derived from untested and unvetted figures created for tax purposes that bore little if any relation to true market value, when nothing in the confirmed Reorganization Plan allowed for such a method?

5. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in believing that "res judicata" required it to use the same methodology to value Dugaboy's Class 11 interests as it had previously used to value HMIT's Class 10 interests?

[1] Because of its voluminous nature, Docket No. 4255 will be delivered to the Clerk on a flash drive that will arrive tomorrow.

6. Did the Bankruptcy Court err at the hearing on September 18, 2025, when it invoked "res judicata" to threaten Dugaboy's counsel with Rule 11 sanctions for "recycling" arguments previously made by the "revolving door of lawyers" that had represented Dugaboy over the previous several years, thus seeking to impose a chilling effect on Dugaboy's right to zealous advocacy by its chosen counsel?

7. Did the Bankruptcy Court's Order Fixing Allowed Amount of Class 11 Interests (Docket No. 4401) constitute a "final" judgment or order, thereby giving the District Court jurisdiction for appellate review of the Bankruptcy Court's Order denying Dugaboy's Motion to Recuse?

Platt for Redeemer Committee; A. Anderson for certain issuers of CLOs; J. Bentley (telephonically) for certain CLO issuers; M. Hankin (telephonically) for Redeemer Committee. Evidentiary hearing. Court granted in part and denied in part. Foley is approved for representation of Highland in all Acis bankruptcy case and adversary proceeding matters; court does not approve Highland paying Foley for Foleys representation of Neutra in Neutras appeal of Acis involuntary order for relief; court will approve Foley representing Highland in its appeal of Acis confirmation order but fees for Foley in connection with this appeal will be allocated appropriately between Neutra and Highland, and Highland will not pay for Neutras allocated portion of fees. Court added that it is skeptical regarding likely benefits to Highland of the appeal of Acis confirmation order, even assuming success on appeal (in contrast to possible benefits to Neutra and HCLOF) since, among other things, reversal of confirmation order would not reinstate previously rejected contracts or remove the Chapter 11 trustee. Thus, the court will closely evaluate fees requested ultimately for likely benefit to Highland. Order should be submitted.(Edmond, Michael) (Entered: 02/25/2020)

ORDER PURSUANT TO BANKRUPTCY RULE 9019 AND 11 U.S.C. § 363 APPROVING SETTLEMENT BETWEEN THE HIGHLAND ENTITIES AND THE HMIT ENTITIES AND AUTHORIZING ACTIONS CONSISTENT THEREWITH

This matter having come before the Court on the Motion for Entry of an Order Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and 11 U.S.C. § 363 Approving Settlement with the HMIT Entities and Authorizing Actions Consistent Therewith [Docket No. 4216] (the "Motion")[2] filed by Highland Capital Management, L.P., the reorganized debtor (the "Debtor" or "Highland") in the above-captioned chapter 11 case (the "Bankruptcy Case"), the Highland Claimant Trust (the "Claimant

[1] The last four digits of the Reorganized Debtor's taxpayer identification number are 8357. The headquarters and service address for the Highland is 100 Crescent Court, Suite 1850, Dallas, TX 75201.

Trust"), and the Highland Litigation Sub-Trust (the "Litigation Sub-Trust," and together with Highland and the Claimant Trust, the "Movants"); and the Court having jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 as well as the retention of jurisdiction provisions of the Plan; and the Court having found that this is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2); and venue in this District being proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and the Court having considered (a) the Motion, (b) Patrick Daugherty's Objection to Motion for Entry of an Order Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and 11 U.S.C. § 363 Approving Settlement with the HMIT Entities and Authorizing Actions Consistent Therewith [Docket No. 4229] (the "Daugherty Objection") filed by Patrick Daugherty, (c) the Preliminary Objection of the Dugaboy Investment Trust to the Motion for Entry of an Order Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and 11 U.S.C. § 363 Approving Settlement with the HMIT Entities [Docket No. 4230] (the "Dugaboy Objection," and together with the Daugherty Objection, the "Objections"), filed by The Dugaboy Investment Trust, (d) the Objection of the Dallas Foundation and Crown Global Life Insurance Ltd. to Motion for Entry of an Order Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and 11 U.S.C. § 363 Approving Settlement with the HMIT Entities and Authorizing Actions Consistent Therewith [Docket No. 4231] (the "Charitable Foundation Objection"), filed by The Dallas Foundation (the "Dallas Foundation") (on behalf of Empower Dallas Foundation ("EDF") and The Okada Family Foundation ("Okada Family"), and Crown Global Life Insurance, Ltd., not individually, but solely in respect of Segregated Accounts 30218 and 30219 ("Crown"), (e) the evidence admitted into the record during the hearing on the Motion on June 25, 2025 (the "Hearing") in support of, and in opposition to, the Motion, including the Court's assessment of the witnesses' credibility, and (f) all arguments heard at the Hearing in connection therewith; and the Court having found that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion establish sufficient cause for the relief granted herein; and adequate notice of the Motion having been given; and after due deliberation and good cause appearing therefor,

THE COURT HEREBY FINDS THAT:

1. The Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law set forth on the record at the conclusion of the Hearing are incorporated by reference except as supplemented in this Order, and as may be further supplemented by the Court.

2. Entry into the Settlement Agreement is an appropriate exercise of the Movants' business judgment.

3. The Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of each of the Highland Entities and their creditors and constituents.

4. The Settlement Agreement was negotiated and entered into by the Highland Entities and the HMIT Entities without collusion or fraud, in good faith, and was the product of arm's- length negotiations.

5. The HMIT Entities are not "insiders" or "affiliates" of Highland as those terms are defined in Bankruptcy Code sections 101(31) and 101(2).

6. The HMIT Entities entered into the Settlement Agreement, are acquiring the Transferred Claims and Dugaboy Note in good faith, and have proceeded with all aspects of the Settlement Agreement in good faith, and have received fair value in consideration of their entry into the Settlement Agreement.

7. The Transferred Claims and Dugaboy Note are property of the estate, and the Highland Entities' sale of those assets free and clear of all liens and encumbrances but otherwise subject to the Settlement Agreement is a proper exercise of their business judgment.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED THAT:

8. The Motion is GRANTED.

9. As stated on the record during the Hearing, The Charitable Foundation Objection is withdrawn with prejudice.

10. All other Objections to the Motion are overruled.

11. The Settlement Agreement attached as Exhibit 1 to the Demo Declaration is approved in all respects pursuant to Rule 9019 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure and section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

12. HMIT's Class 10 Interest is Allowed in the amount of $336,940,230.58.

13. The HMIT Entities, as good faith purchasers of Estate assets in the Settlement, are entitled to the protections contained in section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code.

THE COURT HEREBY FINDS THAT:

1. The Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law set forth on the record at the conclusion of the Hearing are incorporated by reference except as supplemented in this Order, and as may be further supplemented by the Court.

2. Entry into the Settlement Agreement is an appropriate exercise of the Movants' business judgment.

3. The Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of each of the Highland Entities and their creditors and constituents.

4. The Settlement Agreement was negotiated and entered into by the Highland Entities and the HMIT Entities without collusion or fraud, in good faith, and was the product of arm's- length negotiations.

5. The HMIT Entities are not "insiders" or "affiliates" of Highland as those terms are defined in Bankruptcy Code sections 101(31) and 101(2).

6. The HMIT Entities entered into the Settlement Agreement, are acquiring the Transferred Claims and Dugaboy Note in good faith, and have proceeded with all aspects of the Settlement Agreement in good faith, and have received fair value in consideration of their entry into the Settlement Agreement.

7. The Transferred Claims and Dugaboy Note are property of the estate, and the Highland Entities' sale of those assets free and clear of all liens and encumbrances but otherwise subject to the Settlement Agreement is a proper exercise of their business judgment.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED THAT:

8. The Motion is GRANTED.

9. As stated on the record during the Hearing, The Charitable Foundation Objection is withdrawn with prejudice.

10. All other Objections to the Motion are overruled.

11. The Settlement Agreement attached as Exhibit 1 to the Demo Declaration is approved in all respects pursuant to Rule 9019 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure and section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

12. HMIT's Class 10 Interest is Allowed in the amount of $336,940,230.58.

13. The HMIT Entities, as good faith purchasers of Estate assets in the Settlement, are entitled to the protections contained in section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code.

14. The Highland Entities and their agents are authorized to take any and all actions necessary or desirable to implement the Settlement Agreement without further notice or further Court approval.

15. Notwithstanding anything in the Settlement Agreement to the contrary, none of the Dallas Foundation, EDF, Okada Family, or Crown (collectively, the "Foundation Parties") are or will be included in the definitions of "HMIT Releasors" or "Highland Releasors." For the avoidance of doubt, however, any attempt by the Foundation Parties to assert a Claim against a HMIT Released Party by, through, or under, including derivatively, a Highland Entity, or against a Highland Released Party by, through, or under, including derivatively, a HMIT Entity is barred by this Order and the Settlement Agreement.

16. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, or enforcement of this Order.

Platt for Redeemer Committee; A. Anderson for certain issuers of CLOs; J. Bentley (telephonically) for certain CLO issuers; M. Hankin (telephonically) for Redeemer Committee. Evidentiary hearing. Court granted in part and denied in part. Foley is approved for representation of Highland in all Acis bankruptcy case and adversary proceeding matters; court does not approve Highland paying Foley for Foleys representation of Neutra in Neutras appeal of Acis involuntary order for relief;

	court will approve Foley representing Highland in its appeal of Acis confirmation order but fees for Foley in connection with this appeal will be allocated appropriately between Neutra and Highland, and Highland will not pay for Neutras allocated portion of fees. Court added that it is skeptical regarding likely benefits to Highland of the appeal of Acis confirmation order, even assuming success on appeal (in contrast to possible benefits to Neutra and HCLOF) since, among other things, reversal of confirmation order would not reinstate previously rejected contracts or remove the Chapter 11 trustee. Thus, the court will closely evaluate fees requested ultimately for likely benefit to Highland. Order should be submitted.(Edmond, Michael) (Entered: 02/25/2020)

Appellant The Dugaboy Investment Trust's Statement of Issues to be Presented and Amended Designation of Items to be Included in the Record on Appeal From the Bankruptcy Court's Order Fixing Allowed Amount of Class 11 Interests

Pursuant to Rule 8009(a)(1) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), Appellant The Dugaboy Investment Trust ("Appellant"), having filed a Notice of Appeal [Docket No. 4423] on October 6, 2025, from the Bankruptcy Court's September 22, 2025 Order Fixing Allowed Amount of Class 11 Interests [Docket No. 4401], and having received the Clerk's letter of October 23, 2025 requesting corrections to the record designations, submits this Statement of Issues to be Presented and Amended Designation of Items to be Included in the Record on Appeal, and respectfully requests that the Clerk prepare and forward the listed items to the District Court for inclusion in the record in connection with this appeal.[1]

STATEMENT OF ISSUES TO BE PRESENTED ON APPEAL

1. Did the Bankruptcy Court misapply the absolute-priority rule in determining that the Hunter Mountain Investment Trust's (HMIT's) Class 10 interests were entitled to 100% of any excess funds left over after all senior creditor classes were paid in full, in disregard of equity interests that allocated 99.5% to HMIT and 0.5% to Dugaboy?

2. Did the Bankruptcy Court err when it allocated potential excess funds in a way that effectively gave HMIT more than 100% of what it was entitled to, in contravention of black-letter law holding that a senior class cannot receive more than 100% without the consent of the junior class? See In re Idearc, Inc., 423 B.R. 138, 170 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2009).

3. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in determining the value of Dugaboy's interest only as a fixed dollar amount, rather than a pro rata percentage reflecting its equity ownership share?

4. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in allowing Highland to use a valuation methodology for determining the allowed amount of Dugaboy's claim based on limited partners' pre-petition capital accounts, which were derived from untested and unvetted figures created for tax purposes that bore little if any relation to true market value, when nothing in the confirmed Reorganization Plan allowed for such a method?

5. Did the Bankruptcy Court err in believing that "res judicata" required it to use the same methodology to value Dugaboy's Class 11 interests as it had previously used to value HMIT's Class 10 interests?

[1] Because of its voluminous nature, Docket No. 4255 will be delivered to the Clerk on a flash drive that will arrive tomorrow.

6. Did the Bankruptcy Court err at the hearing on September 18, 2025, when it invoked "res judicata" to threaten Dugaboy's counsel with Rule 11 sanctions for "recycling" arguments previously made by the "revolving door of lawyers" that had represented Dugaboy over the previous several years, thus seeking to impose a chilling effect on Dugaboy's right to zealous advocacy by its chosen counsel?

7. Did the Bankruptcy Court's Order Fixing Allowed Amount of Class 11 Interests (Docket No. 4401) constitute a "final" judgment or order, thereby giving the District Court jurisdiction for appellate review of the Bankruptcy Court's Order denying Dugaboy's Motion to Recuse?

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER REGARDING STAY REQUESTS
[ADDRESSING DE ## 4326 & 4308]

I. INTRODUCTION

This Order addresses the "Motion to Stay 9019 Order" filed July 17, 2025, by the Dugaboy Investment Trust (the "Dugaboy Stay Motion"). DE # 4326. This Order also addresses a letter sent to this court by Texas Attorney General Ken Paxton, which letter was dated July 9, 2025, and was docketed on July 10, 2025, at DE # 4308 (the "Texas AG Letter"). This court will sometimes refer to the Dugaboy Stay Motion and the Texas AG Letter jointly as the "Stay Requests."

The Dugaboy Stay Motion. The Dugaboy Stay Motion was filed by the Dugaboy Investment Trust ("Dugaboy"). Dugaboy is a trust whose beneficiaries are James Dondero and his children/descendants. Mr. Dondero is a co-founder and former CEO of the above-referenced Reorganized Debtor ("Highland" or Reorganized Debtor"). As later discussed, Dugaboy was a former owner of a de minimis equity interest in Highland (less than .5%). The Dugaboy Stay Motion asks the bankruptcy court to stay for 90 days the court's June 30, 2025 "Order Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and 11 U.S.C. § 363 Approving Settlement Between the Highland Entities and the HMIT Entities and Authorizing Actions Consistent Therewith" (the "Rule 9019 Settlement Order"). DE # 4297. The Rule 9019 Settlement Order approved a settlement ("Settlement Agreement") between the Reorganized Debtor (and certain post-confirmation plan trusts), on the one hand, and Hunter Mountain Investment Trust ("HMIT" or "Hunter Mountain") and certain of its affiliates, on the other. Hunter Mountain was the 99.5% equity owner of Highland. Dugaboy desires a 90-day stay of the Rule 9019 Settlement Order so that Dugaboy and other parties can investigate what it asserts was a fraud committed by an individual named Mark Patrick in connection with a Cayman Islands charitable foundation structure ("Cayman Islands Charitable Foundation Structure") that Mark Patrick manages. There are currently liquidation proceedings ongoing in the Cayman Islands, involving this Cayman Islands Charitable Foundation Structure, where these fraud allegations have been raised and presumably will be litigated. See Exh. A to the Dugaboy Stay Motion (which is an 83-page Writ of Summons and Statement of Claim filed on or about July 15, 2025, in the Grand Court of the Cayman Islands (the "Cayman Islands Action").

What on earth does this litigation in the Cayman Islands have to do with the Rule 9019 Settlement Order (and the underlying Settlement Agreement approved therein)? Well, as it turns out, this same Mark Patrick that is being accused of fraud in the Cayman Islands Action signed the Settlement Agreement (on behalf of the Hunter Mountain entities). To be sure, the Hunter Mountain entities are not themselves charitable organizations. Mark Patrick just happens to be a representative of both Hunter Mountain and the Cayman Islands charitable entities that are the subject of the Cayman Islands Action. Note that Dugaboy appealed this bankruptcy court's Rule 9019 Settlement Order on July 14, 2025. The Dugaboy Stay Motion is not a standard request for a stay pending appeal, pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. Proc. 8007. Rather, a stay is sought, pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 105, "to provide all stakeholders with time to investigate a motion under Rule 60 to vacate the [Rule] 9019 [Settlement] Order."[1]

The Texas AG Letter. The Texas AG Letter is not a properly filed motion. See Fed. R. Bankr. Proc. 5005. In any event, the court has considered it. It has a similar theme, only it asks for a stay of the entire bankruptcy proceedings (which are now more than four years post-confirmation). The Texas AG notes in his letter that, as the representative of the public's interest in charity, he is charged under Texas law with the power and duty to protect and enforce the public interest in nonprofit organizations, foundations, and charitable trusts.[2] The Texas AG Letter states that the Texas AG Office is investigating "persons and entities, some of whom are involved in this bankruptcy proceeding, in response to complaints"[3] and that "[o]ne of the complaints under investigation involves conduct allegedly taken by persons or entities during this bankruptcy proceeding."[4] The timing and statements in the Texas AG Letter suggest that the person being investigated is the same Mark Patrick addressed in the Dugaboy Stay Motion.

Summary of Ruling. For the reasons set forth below, this bankruptcy court will not grant a stay. Whatever the misdeeds may or may not be of Mark Patrick, they are not sufficiently intertwined with the Highland bankruptcy estate (or the Settlement Agreement) to justify a stay. Neither this bankruptcy case, nor the contested matter involving the Settlement Agreement, is a "proceeding involving a charitable trust." As further described herein, there happens to be a "proceeding involving a charitable trust" ongoing in the Cayman Islands. Mark Patrick is apparently accused of misdeeds therein. But, in the bankruptcy case, Mark Patrick is merely a signatory for a counter-party to a settlement agreement with the bankruptcy estate (that counter-party being the former 99.5% equity owner of Highland, namely Hunter Mountain). This court evaluated the Settlement Agreement in the manner that jurisprudence requires[5] (and weighed the evidence presented, including witness testimony from four witnesses). As noted, this court's Rule 9019 Settlement Order is now subject to appeal. This court determined that the Settlement Agreement was fair and equitable, within the range of reasonableness, and in the best interest of the Highland bankruptcy estate being administered under a confirmed plan with disinterested fiduciaries. The Stay Requests do not articulate a bona fide reason to stay the Rule 9019 Settlement Order or, for that matter, a bankruptcy case that is now more than four years past confirmation. Importantly, it would appear that the parties have other avenues to address any malfeasance of Mark Patrick vis-à-vis the liquidation proceedings involving the Cayman Islands Charitable Foundation Structure.

II. THE RULE 9019 SETTLEMENT MOTION

On May 19, 2025, a Motion for Entry of an Order Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and 11 U.S.C. § 363 Approving Settlement with the HMIT Entities and Authorizing Actions Consistent Therewith [DE # 4216] (the "Rule 9019 Motion") was filed by the Reorganized Debtor, the Highland Claimant Trust (the "Claimant Trust"), and the Highland Litigation Sub-Trust (the "Litigation Sub-Trust") (collectively, the "Highland Entities").[6]

The Rule 9019 Motion proposed a broad settlement (the aforementioned Settlement Agreement) that would resolve most of the remaining issues outstanding in the long-running Highland bankruptcy case. The other parties to the Settlement Agreement, besides the Highland Entities, were the so-called "HMIT Entities"—defined in the Settlement Agreement as Hunter Mountain Investment Trust, Beacon Mountain LLC, Rand Advisors, LLC, Rand PE Fund I, LP, Rand PE Fund Management, LLC, Atlas IDF, LP, and Atlas IDF GP, LLC. These HMIT Entities, other than Hunter Mountain itself, are affiliates of Hunter Mountain. As earlier noted, Hunter Mountain was the majority equity owner of Highland, prepetition. Hunter Mountain owned 100% of Highland's Class B & C limited partnership interests. This represented 99.5% of the overall equity of Highland. Hunter Mountain acquired all of Highland's Class B and Class C limited partnership interests (the "Class B/C Interests") in December 2015, from James Dondero (the aforementioned co-founder and former CEO of Highland—whose family trust Dugaboy is now wanting a stay); Mark Okada (another co-founder of Highland); and certain entities affiliated with them. These Class B/C Interests—again, held entirely by Hunter Mountain at this point—were categorized in Class 10 of Highland's confirmed Chapter 11 plan.

[6] The Claimant Trust and Litigation Sub-Trust are entities created pursuant to the confirmed Highland Chapter 11 plan, to handle various post-confirmation matters.

Among other things, the Settlement Agreement contemplated, in pertinent part: (a) the dismissal with prejudice of all pending litigation between and among the Highland Entities and the HMIT Entities (by way of example, Hunter Mountain had asserted claims for breach of fiduciary duty, conspiracy, and unjust enrichment against Highland and its new CEO, James P. Seery); (b) the disposition of bankruptcy estate claims asserted against certain of the HMIT Entities by the Claimant Trust and/or the Litigation Sub-Trust, and the assignment of the balance of the remaining estate claims to the HMIT Entities (by way of example, Highland had argued that Hunter Mountain owed Highland more than $57 million on a note payable to Highland); (c) the allowance of the Hunter Mountain Class 10 Interest in a fixed amount; (d) cash distributions to Hunter Mountain on account of its Class 10 Interest of about $10.5 Million, plus the assignment of an approximately $24 million note receivable owed to Highland known as the "Dugaboy Note," subject to certain conditions, set forth in the Settlement Agreement; and (e) the exchange of mutual general and broad releases and other protections consistent with the parties' intent to end all current, and avoid all future, litigation between and among them.

As previously mentioned, the current representative of Hunter Mountain is an individual named Mark Patrick. Mark Patrick assumed this role in March 2021, replacing an individual named Grant Scott. Mark Patrick was a long-time Highland employee. Mark Patrick had been employed by Highland as tax counsel since 2008. Mark Patrick had also provided personal tax advice to Mr. Dondero. In February 2021, as part of the Highland bankruptcy case, the employment contracts of many of Highland's employees, including Mark Patrick, were terminated. Mark Patrick, along with many other former back-office employees of Highland, thereafter became employees of a newly formed company called Skyview Group ("Skyview"), that provides middle and back-office services to various clients.

Apparently, Mark Patrick and Mr. Dondero (and/or perhaps others at Skyview) got into disagreements of some sort in mid-2024, and Mark Patrick is no longer employed at Skyview.

III. THE OBJECTIONS TO THE RULE 9019 SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

There were three objections to the Rule 9019 Settlement Motion/Settlement Agreement filed. Accordingly, the court presided over a contested evidentiary hearing on June 25, 2025 (the "Rule 9019 Settlement Hearing"). The court heard testimony from four witnesses: James Seery, Mark Patrick, James Dondero, and Patrick Daugherty. The court admitted documentary evidence as well.

The Patrick Daugherty Objection. One objection was filed by Patrick Daugherty (a former general counsel of Highland that has been in litigation for more than 15 years in several courts with Highland, Dondero, and others related to Highland) [DE # 4229]. Daugherty has already been paid on a large claim he was allowed in the Highland bankruptcy case but still has an unresolved, contingent, unsecured claim that is categorized in Class 8 of the confirmed Highland plan. Mr. Daugherty argued that the absolute priority rule and the Chapter 11 plan terms were being violated by the Settlement Agreement, since an equity interest (Hunter Mountain's Class 10 Interest) was receiving a distribution before Daugherty's Class 8 general unsecured claim. The court disagreed with these arguments, since Mr. Daugherty's unpaid, contingent Class 8 claim is highly speculative and has been fully reserved for, pending an ultimate hearing on the allowance of this claim. This Objection was overruled at the Rule 9019 Settlement Hearing.

The Dugaboy Objection. Another objection was filed by Dugaboy [DE # 4230]. As earlier noted, Dugaboy owned a very small amount of the equity in Highland—specifically, a .1866% share of the Class A limited partnership interests—and these Class A limited partnership interests, in turn, represented a merely .5% of the overall equity of Highland. Thus, Dugaboy owned well-under 1% of the equity of Highland. These Class A interests were categorized in Class 11 of the confirmed Highland plan. Note that two other parties besides Dugaboy owned Class A equity interests in Highland: Strand Advisors, Inc. ("Strand") and Mark Okada directly and indirectly (the other co-founder of Highland). The Dugaboy objection essentially argued that the Settlement Agreement violated the confirmed Plan, the Claimant Trust Agreement and the Confirmation Order, without much more detail than this. The Dugaboy objection was surprising to this court, because Hunter Mountain and Dugaboy have seemed to be at all times friendly—seemingly in lockstep—throughout the Highland bankruptcy case. They have shared the same legal positions and the same legal counsel at times. On the day of the Rule 9019 Settlement Hearing, Dugaboy orally made additional arguments, beyond those made in its written objection. Specifically, Dugaboy argued that the existence of the Cayman Islands Action should cause the bankruptcy court to continue the Rule 9019 Settlement Hearing (which Cayman Islands Action is further discussed below). The court declined to continue the Rule 9019 Settlement Hearing, and Dugaboy's Objection was overruled at the hearing.

The Dallas Foundation Objection. Another objection ("Dallas Foundation Objection") to the Settlement was filed by The Dallas Foundation [DE # 4231] (the "Dallas Foundation"), on behalf of Empower Dallas Foundation ("EDF") and The Okada Family Foundation (the "Okada Foundation"), and Crown Global Life Insurance, Ltd. ("Crown,"), not individually, but solely in respect of Segregated Accounts 30218 & 30219 (collectively, for ease of reference, the "Dallas Foundation"). The Dallas Foundation argued that "the Settlement is potentially tainted by the actions of Mark Patrick, the apparent sole manager and director of the HMIT Entities."[7] It further stated that "upon information and belief, Mr. Patrick illicitly restructured the ownership of the

HMIT Entities in a manner that seemed to facilitate the diversion of millions of dollars in assets from the charitable entities that are the beneficial owners of the HMIT Entities."[8]

What did this mean? How exactly does the Dallas Foundation factor into all of this? How was the Dallas Foundation a party-in-interest with standing to object to a settlement in the Highland bankruptcy case at this juncture? It did not purport to be a creditor or equity interest holder. Rather, the Dallas Foundation was referring to itself as "a Beneficial Owner of the HMIT Entities."[9] Since HMIT owns 99.5% of Highland, does the Dallas Foundation also consider itself an indirect beneficial owner of Highland? Suddenly this is mind-numbing.

Not to worry. The Dallas Foundation Objection further explained how it is a "Beneficial Owner" of Hunter Mountain. The explanation involves a complex charitable entity structure that is organized in the Cayman Islands. One has to carefully follow the bouncing ball to make the connection.

IV. THE CAYMAN ISLANDS CHARITABLE FOUNDATION STRUCTURE[10]

DAF Holdco (a "corporate blocker"). First, there is an entity called Charitable DAF HoldCo, Ltd. (the "DAF Holdco"), that is a Cayman Islands exempted company, incorporated on October 27, 2011, having its registered office at HSM Corporate Services Ltd, 68 Fort Street, George Town, PO Box 31726, Grand Cayman KY1-1207, that happens to currently be in liquidation proceedings in the Cayman Islands Action. The shares of DAF Holdco are divided into Participating Shares and Management Shares. DAF Holdco is apparently what's known as a "corporate blocker" in the Cayman Islands Charitable Foundation Structure. Mark Patrick has been the manager of it since March 2021.

The DAF Fund. Second, DAF Holdco has historically been the sole limited partner of another entity called Charitable DAF Fund, LP (the "DAF Fund"). The DAF Fund is a Cayman Islands exempted limited partnership formed to invest and manage assets for the ultimate benefit of three or four registered charitable organizations in the U.S., including the Dallas Foundation (the "Charitable Entities").[11] The DAF Fund has sometimes been represented in filings (organizational charts) presented to the bankruptcy court as a Cayman Islands hedge fund. The general partner of the DAF Fund was historically Charitable DAF GP, LLC (the "DAF GP"), a Delaware limited liability company registered as a foreign company in the Cayman Islands. Mark Patrick has been the manager of DAF GP since March 2021.

CLO Holdco (another "corporate blocker"). Third, the sole asset of the DAF Fund is its 100% equity ownership in yet another entity called CLO HoldCo, Ltd. ("CLO HoldCo"), which is yet another Cayman Islands exempted company incorporated with limited liability, having its registered office address located at Campbells Corporate Services Limited, Floor 4, Willow House, Cricket Square, Grand Cayman KY1-9010, Cayman Islands. CLO HoldCo is another "corporate blocker" entity in the Cayman Islands Charitable Foundation Structure. Interestingly, CLO HoldCo owns Hunter Mountain, and, as previously stated, Hunter Mountain was the 99.5% owner of Highland.

It seems rather interesting that Highland—an alternative investment advisor (sometimes referred to as a hedge fund) that was managing billions of assets—was owned ultimately by an offshore structure designed for charitable purposes. However, this court has no expertise as to whether this is an unusual structure or one that is common to facilitate/enhance tax-exempt ownership and charitable giving. The court is simply presenting the information available to it that it thinks explains why a stay is not appropriate here: namely, since other litigation exists involving Mark Patrick and the Charitable Entities.

In any event, structurally, the three or four Charitable Entities (including the Dallas Foundation) are the ultimate beneficial owners of Participating Shares in DAF Holdco (one of the "corporate blockers"). This essentially means that the Charitable Entities are at the top of the whole structure.

The documentation supporting this whole structure apparently requires that the Participating Shareholders (i.e., the Charitable Entities such as the Dallas Foundation) must at all times qualify as a tax-exempt organizations, pursuant to section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986 ("IRC"). The Participating Shares do not have voting rights but have the right to participate in the profits or assets of the DAF Holdco. Meanwhile, the Management Shares (which have been held by Mark Patrick) have voting rights but do not have the right to participate in the profits or assets of the DAF Holdco. In other words, the Participating Shareholders have the entirety of the economic interest in DAF Holdco, whereas the sole Management Shareholder has the control rights.

Bottom line, the Dallas Foundation argued that they had reason to believe that Mark Patrick engaged in some illicit actions recently that changed up some of the structure set forth above (i.e., including the insertion of newly created entities into the DAF Fund's structure). As a result, the Dallas Foundation feared that a significant portion of the economic interests derived by the HMIT Entities from the Settlement Agreement would flow to Mark Patrick rather than to the Charitable Entities for whose benefit the DAF Fund was established. The Dallas Foundation questioned Mark Patrick's requisite corporate authority to cause the HMIT Entities to enter into the Settlement Agreement. The Dallas Foundation asserted that many of Mark Patrick's alleged actions, including the apparent insertion of newly created entities into the DAF Fund's structure, would be subject to claw back or other avoidance actions in the Cayman Islands Action or such other tribunal as has jurisdiction. The Dallas Foundation wanted the bankruptcy court to defer to that process.

Significantly, the Dallas Foundation withdrew its objection the morning of the June 25, 2025 Rule 9019 Settlement Hearing. It made its announcement through counsel on the record at the hearing.

V. THE RULE 9019 SETTLEMENT HEARING

After hearing evidence and argument on June 25, 2025, the court approved the Settlement Agreement. Bankruptcy Rule 9019 provides that "[o]n motion … and after notice and a hearing, the court may approve a compromise or settlement."[12] Settlements are favored in the bankruptcy context to "minimize litigation and expedite the administration of a bankruptcy estate."[13] The approval of a settlement is within the "sound discretion" of the trial court.[14] Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019(a), the court may approve a settlement if it is fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of the estate.[15] A settlement should be approved unless it falls below the lowest point in the range of reasonableness, based on a comparison between the terms of the settlement and the costs and benefits of further litigation.[16]

LEXIS 31411, at *10 (S.D. Tex. April 18, 2006) (court should "canvass the issues" to decide if settlement falls "below the lowest point in the range of reasonableness").

In evaluating a proposed settlement, courts consider (i) the "probability of success in the litigation, with due consideration for the uncertainty in fact and law," (ii) the "complexity and likely duration of the litigation and any attendant expense, inconvenience and delay," and (iii) "[a]ll other factors bearing on the wisdom of the compromise."[17] Assessing the first factor—success on the merits—does not require a "mini-trial" on the merits.[18] The "other factors" include "the best interests of the creditors, 'with proper deference to their reasonable views,'" as well as "'the extent to which the settlement is truly the product of arms-length bargaining, and not of fraud or collusion.'"[19]

A trustee or other estate representative also "is permitted to settle lawsuits pursuant to section 363(b)" of the Bankruptcy Code.[20] Section 363(b) provides that "[t]he trustee, after notice and a hearing, may use, sell, or lease, other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate."[21] A sale involving a transaction outside the ordinary course of business "'must be supported by an articulated business justification, good business judgment, or sound business reasons.'"[22]

The court determined, based on this jurisprudence, that the factors to be considered pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and Bankruptcy Code section 363(b) weighed in favor of approving the Settlement Agreement in this case. The Highland Entities believed they had strong and meritorious defenses to all of the then-pending HMIT litigation, and history has shown that defending the then-pending HMIT litigation, including the appeals that could result therefrom, would be costly, time-consuming and value-destructive to the estate and creditor recoveries. Further, there was no guarantee that the Highland Entities would continue to be successful in defending the then-pending HMIT litigation—or that the HMIT Entities would not file additional litigation against the Highland Entities and their indemnified parties.

The second factor—complexity, duration, and costs of litigation—also weighed heavily in favor of approval of the Settlement Agreement. The cost of defending against the litigation in this case, including the then-pending HMIT litigation, had been significant. The litigation and its attendant costs have also significantly delayed and reduced distributions to the Reorganized Debtor's constituents. The HMIT litigation began in 2023 and is subject to at least two pending appeals which showed no signs of resolving absent this Settlement Agreement. If the Settlement Agreement was not approved, the Highland Entities would be faced with significant appellate litigation and potentially additional litigation in this court and other courts.

Third, approval of the Settlement Agreement was justified by the paramount interests of Highland's creditors and constituents. The Settlement Agreement resolved the pending HMIT litigation, resolved all disputes in connection with the HMIT Class 10 Interest; would sell, transfer, and assign the Estate Claims asserted in the so-called Kirschner Adversary Proceeding—which has been pending since 2021 (until it was stayed in 2023, at significant cost to the estate)—to the HMIT Entities; and would provide for broad mutual releases and a cessation of the litigation and acrimony that, in significant part, has delayed completion of the Plan and the overall bankruptcy case.

The preponderance of the evidence suggested that the Settlement Agreement was a rational exercise of the Highland Entities' business judgment and was negotiated in good faith and at arm's length.

The court signed the Rule 9019 Settlement Order on June 30, 2025 [DE # 4297].

Then, on July 17, 2025, Dugaboy filed the Dugaboy Stay Motion. This was preceded by the filing of the Texas AG Letter on July 10, 2025. As earlier noted, both of these Stay Requests urge that this court should halt things while they or others investigate matters that should be hashed out in the Cayman Islands Action. The Dugaboy Stay Motion says this > is necessary to provide all stakeholders with time to investigate a motion under Rule 60 to vacate the 9019 Order (and all resulting orders, such as the dismissals effected as a result of the 9019 Order) in light of evidence suggesting that the settlement approved by this Court was a key element of [Mark Patrick's] alleged fraudulent scheme. Transfers of assets to companies controlled by Mr. Patrick must be halted, lest those assets are moved to companies "hard to find or track."[23]

VI. DENIAL OF STAY REQUESTS

As noted earlier, the Dugaboy Stay Motion and the Texas AG Letter are not motions for stay pending appeal pursuant to Rule 8007 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure. Dugaboy requests some sort of discretionary stay, for 90 days, while proceedings in the Cayman Islands Action go forward and, perhaps, reach a conclusion that improprieties by Mark Patrick occurred with regard to the Cayman Islands Charitable Foundation Structure. To be clear, the request is made by Dugaboy, whose party-in-interest status in the Highland estate is quite de minimis. The Texas AG apparently is of the impression (as a result of whomever filed a complaint with him) that this bankruptcy case, or the contested matter involving the Settlement Agreement, is a "proceeding involving a charitable trust." But that simply is not the case. While the assets of Hunter Mountain—remember, the former 99.5% equity owner of Highland—may ultimately be part of a res that indirectly benefits (or was intended to benefit) the Charitable Entities such as Dallas Foundation (as a result of the manner in which the Cayman Islands Charitable Foundation

Structure was designed), this does not mean that the Highland bankruptcy case is a proceeding involving a charitable trust. This court believes it applied the correct analysis required for a bankruptcy settlement. Nothing about the bankruptcy court's ruling impacts the Cayman Islands Action or the Texas AG actions it might seek to take on behalf of the Charitable Entities such as the Dallas Foundation. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that the Stay Requests by Dugaboy and the Texas attorney general be, and hereby are, DENIED.

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER REGARDING STAY REQUESTS
[ADDRESSING DE ## 4326 & 4308]

I. INTRODUCTION

This Order addresses the "Motion to Stay 9019 Order" filed July 17, 2025, by the Dugaboy Investment Trust (the "Dugaboy Stay Motion"). DE # 4326. This Order also addresses a letter sent to this court by Texas Attorney General Ken Paxton, which letter was dated July 9, 2025, and was docketed on July 10, 2025, at DE # 4308 (the "Texas AG Letter"). This court will sometimes refer to the Dugaboy Stay Motion and the Texas AG Letter jointly as the "Stay Requests."

The Dugaboy Stay Motion. The Dugaboy Stay Motion was filed by the Dugaboy Investment Trust ("Dugaboy"). Dugaboy is a trust whose beneficiaries are James Dondero and his children/descendants. Mr. Dondero is a co-founder and former CEO of the above-referenced Reorganized Debtor ("Highland" or Reorganized Debtor"). As later discussed, Dugaboy was a former owner of a de minimis equity interest in Highland (less than .5%). The Dugaboy Stay Motion asks the bankruptcy court to stay for 90 days the court's June 30, 2025 "Order Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and 11 U.S.C. § 363 Approving Settlement Between the Highland Entities and the HMIT Entities and Authorizing Actions Consistent Therewith" (the "Rule 9019 Settlement Order"). DE # 4297. The Rule 9019 Settlement Order approved a settlement ("Settlement Agreement") between the Reorganized Debtor (and certain post-confirmation plan trusts), on the one hand, and Hunter Mountain Investment Trust ("HMIT" or "Hunter Mountain") and certain of its affiliates, on the other. Hunter Mountain was the 99.5% equity owner of Highland. Dugaboy desires a 90-day stay of the Rule 9019 Settlement Order so that Dugaboy and other parties can investigate what it asserts was a fraud committed by an individual named Mark Patrick in connection with a Cayman Islands charitable foundation structure ("Cayman Islands Charitable Foundation Structure") that Mark Patrick manages. There are currently liquidation proceedings ongoing in the Cayman Islands, involving this Cayman Islands Charitable Foundation Structure, where these fraud allegations have been raised and presumably will be litigated. See Exh. A to the Dugaboy Stay Motion (which is an 83-page Writ of Summons and Statement of Claim filed on or about July 15, 2025, in the Grand Court of the Cayman Islands (the "Cayman Islands Action").

What on earth does this litigation in the Cayman Islands have to do with the Rule 9019 Settlement Order (and the underlying Settlement Agreement approved therein)? Well, as it turns out, this same Mark Patrick that is being accused of fraud in the Cayman Islands Action signed the Settlement Agreement (on behalf of the Hunter Mountain entities). To be sure, the Hunter Mountain entities are not themselves charitable organizations. Mark Patrick just happens to be a representative of both Hunter Mountain and the Cayman Islands charitable entities that are the subject of the Cayman Islands Action. Note that Dugaboy appealed this bankruptcy court's Rule 9019 Settlement Order on July 14, 2025. The Dugaboy Stay Motion is not a standard request for a stay pending appeal, pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. Proc. 8007. Rather, a stay is sought, pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 105, "to provide all stakeholders with time to investigate a motion under Rule 60 to vacate the [Rule] 9019 [Settlement] Order."[1]

The Texas AG Letter. The Texas AG Letter is not a properly filed motion. See Fed. R. Bankr. Proc. 5005. In any event, the court has considered it. It has a similar theme, only it asks for a stay of the entire bankruptcy proceedings (which are now more than four years post-confirmation). The Texas AG notes in his letter that, as the representative of the public's interest in charity, he is charged under Texas law with the power and duty to protect and enforce the public interest in nonprofit organizations, foundations, and charitable trusts.[2] The Texas AG Letter states that the Texas AG Office is investigating "persons and entities, some of whom are involved in this bankruptcy proceeding, in response to complaints"[3] and that "[o]ne of the complaints under investigation involves conduct allegedly taken by persons or entities during this bankruptcy proceeding."[4] The timing and statements in the Texas AG Letter suggest that the person being investigated is the same Mark Patrick addressed in the Dugaboy Stay Motion.

Summary of Ruling. For the reasons set forth below, this bankruptcy court will not grant a stay. Whatever the misdeeds may or may not be of Mark Patrick, they are not sufficiently intertwined with the Highland bankruptcy estate (or the Settlement Agreement) to justify a stay. Neither this bankruptcy case, nor the contested matter involving the Settlement Agreement, is a "proceeding involving a charitable trust." As further described herein, there happens to be a "proceeding involving a charitable trust" ongoing in the Cayman Islands. Mark Patrick is apparently accused of misdeeds therein. But, in the bankruptcy case, Mark Patrick is merely a signatory for a counter-party to a settlement agreement with the bankruptcy estate (that counter-party being the former 99.5% equity owner of Highland, namely Hunter Mountain). This court evaluated the Settlement Agreement in the manner that jurisprudence requires[5] (and weighed the evidence presented, including witness testimony from four witnesses). As noted, this court's Rule 9019 Settlement Order is now subject to appeal. This court determined that the Settlement Agreement was fair and equitable, within the range of reasonableness, and in the best interest of the Highland bankruptcy estate being administered under a confirmed plan with disinterested fiduciaries. The Stay Requests do not articulate a bona fide reason to stay the Rule 9019 Settlement Order or, for that matter, a bankruptcy case that is now more than four years past confirmation. Importantly, it would appear that the parties have other avenues to address any malfeasance of Mark Patrick vis-à-vis the liquidation proceedings involving the Cayman Islands Charitable Foundation Structure.

II. THE RULE 9019 SETTLEMENT MOTION

On May 19, 2025, a Motion for Entry of an Order Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and 11 U.S.C. § 363 Approving Settlement with the HMIT Entities and Authorizing Actions Consistent Therewith [DE # 4216] (the "Rule 9019 Motion") was filed by the Reorganized Debtor, the Highland Claimant Trust (the "Claimant Trust"), and the Highland Litigation Sub-Trust (the "Litigation Sub-Trust") (collectively, the "Highland Entities").[6]

The Rule 9019 Motion proposed a broad settlement (the aforementioned Settlement Agreement) that would resolve most of the remaining issues outstanding in the long-running Highland bankruptcy case. The other parties to the Settlement Agreement, besides the Highland Entities, were the so-called "HMIT Entities"—defined in the Settlement Agreement as Hunter Mountain Investment Trust, Beacon Mountain LLC, Rand Advisors, LLC, Rand PE Fund I, LP, Rand PE Fund Management, LLC, Atlas IDF, LP, and Atlas IDF GP, LLC. These HMIT Entities, other than Hunter Mountain itself, are affiliates of Hunter Mountain. As earlier noted, Hunter Mountain was the majority equity owner of Highland, prepetition. Hunter Mountain owned 100% of Highland's Class B & C limited partnership interests. This represented 99.5% of the overall equity of Highland. Hunter Mountain acquired all of Highland's Class B and Class C limited partnership interests (the "Class B/C Interests") in December 2015, from James Dondero (the aforementioned co-founder and former CEO of Highland—whose family trust Dugaboy is now wanting a stay); Mark Okada (another co-founder of Highland); and certain entities affiliated with them. These Class B/C Interests—again, held entirely by Hunter Mountain at this point—were categorized in Class 10 of Highland's confirmed Chapter 11 plan.

[6] The Claimant Trust and Litigation Sub-Trust are entities created pursuant to the confirmed Highland Chapter 11 plan, to handle various post-confirmation matters.

Among other things, the Settlement Agreement contemplated, in pertinent part: (a) the dismissal with prejudice of all pending litigation between and among the Highland Entities and the HMIT Entities (by way of example, Hunter Mountain had asserted claims for breach of fiduciary duty, conspiracy, and unjust enrichment against Highland and its new CEO, James P. Seery); (b) the disposition of bankruptcy estate claims asserted against certain of the HMIT Entities by the Claimant Trust and/or the Litigation Sub-Trust, and the assignment of the balance of the remaining estate claims to the HMIT Entities (by way of example, Highland had argued that Hunter Mountain owed Highland more than $57 million on a note payable to Highland); (c) the allowance of the Hunter Mountain Class 10 Interest in a fixed amount; (d) cash distributions to Hunter Mountain on account of its Class 10 Interest of about $10.5 Million, plus the assignment of an approximately $24 million note receivable owed to Highland known as the "Dugaboy Note," subject to certain conditions, set forth in the Settlement Agreement; and (e) the exchange of mutual general and broad releases and other protections consistent with the parties' intent to end all current, and avoid all future, litigation between and among them.

As previously mentioned, the current representative of Hunter Mountain is an individual named Mark Patrick. Mark Patrick assumed this role in March 2021, replacing an individual named Grant Scott. Mark Patrick was a long-time Highland employee. Mark Patrick had been employed by Highland as tax counsel since 2008. Mark Patrick had also provided personal tax advice to Mr. Dondero. In February 2021, as part of the Highland bankruptcy case, the employment contracts of many of Highland's employees, including Mark Patrick, were terminated. Mark Patrick, along with many other former back-office employees of Highland, thereafter became employees of a newly formed company called Skyview Group ("Skyview"), that provides middle and back-office services to various clients.

Apparently, Mark Patrick and Mr. Dondero (and/or perhaps others at Skyview) got into disagreements of some sort in mid-2024, and Mark Patrick is no longer employed at Skyview.

III. THE OBJECTIONS TO THE RULE 9019 SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

There were three objections to the Rule 9019 Settlement Motion/Settlement Agreement filed. Accordingly, the court presided over a contested evidentiary hearing on June 25, 2025 (the "Rule 9019 Settlement Hearing"). The court heard testimony from four witnesses: James Seery, Mark Patrick, James Dondero, and Patrick Daugherty. The court admitted documentary evidence as well.

The Patrick Daugherty Objection. One objection was filed by Patrick Daugherty (a former general counsel of Highland that has been in litigation for more than 15 years in several courts with Highland, Dondero, and others related to Highland) [DE # 4229]. Daugherty has already been paid on a large claim he was allowed in the Highland bankruptcy case but still has an unresolved, contingent, unsecured claim that is categorized in Class 8 of the confirmed Highland plan. Mr. Daugherty argued that the absolute priority rule and the Chapter 11 plan terms were being violated by the Settlement Agreement, since an equity interest (Hunter Mountain's Class 10 Interest) was receiving a distribution before Daugherty's Class 8 general unsecured claim. The court disagreed with these arguments, since Mr. Daugherty's unpaid, contingent Class 8 claim is highly speculative and has been fully reserved for, pending an ultimate hearing on the allowance of this claim. This Objection was overruled at the Rule 9019 Settlement Hearing.

The Dugaboy Objection. Another objection was filed by Dugaboy [DE # 4230]. As earlier noted, Dugaboy owned a very small amount of the equity in Highland—specifically, a .1866% share of the Class A limited partnership interests—and these Class A limited partnership interests, in turn, represented a merely .5% of the overall equity of Highland. Thus, Dugaboy owned well-under 1% of the equity of Highland. These Class A interests were categorized in Class 11 of the confirmed Highland plan. Note that two other parties besides Dugaboy owned Class A equity interests in Highland: Strand Advisors, Inc. ("Strand") and Mark Okada directly and indirectly (the other co-founder of Highland). The Dugaboy objection essentially argued that the Settlement Agreement violated the confirmed Plan, the Claimant Trust Agreement and the Confirmation Order, without much more detail than this. The Dugaboy objection was surprising to this court, because Hunter Mountain and Dugaboy have seemed to be at all times friendly—seemingly in lockstep—throughout the Highland bankruptcy case. They have shared the same legal positions and the same legal counsel at times. On the day of the Rule 9019 Settlement Hearing, Dugaboy orally made additional arguments, beyond those made in its written objection. Specifically, Dugaboy argued that the existence of the Cayman Islands Action should cause the bankruptcy court to continue the Rule 9019 Settlement Hearing (which Cayman Islands Action is further discussed below). The court declined to continue the Rule 9019 Settlement Hearing, and Dugaboy's Objection was overruled at the hearing.

The Dallas Foundation Objection. Another objection ("Dallas Foundation Objection") to the Settlement was filed by The Dallas Foundation [DE # 4231] (the "Dallas Foundation"), on behalf of Empower Dallas Foundation ("EDF") and The Okada Family Foundation (the "Okada Foundation"), and Crown Global Life Insurance, Ltd. ("Crown,"), not individually, but solely in respect of Segregated Accounts 30218 & 30219 (collectively, for ease of reference, the "Dallas Foundation"). The Dallas Foundation argued that "the Settlement is potentially tainted by the actions of Mark Patrick, the apparent sole manager and director of the HMIT Entities."[7] It further stated that "upon information and belief, Mr. Patrick illicitly restructured the ownership of the

HMIT Entities in a manner that seemed to facilitate the diversion of millions of dollars in assets from the charitable entities that are the beneficial owners of the HMIT Entities."[8]

What did this mean? How exactly does the Dallas Foundation factor into all of this? How was the Dallas Foundation a party-in-interest with standing to object to a settlement in the Highland bankruptcy case at this juncture? It did not purport to be a creditor or equity interest holder. Rather, the Dallas Foundation was referring to itself as "a Beneficial Owner of the HMIT Entities."[9] Since HMIT owns 99.5% of Highland, does the Dallas Foundation also consider itself an indirect beneficial owner of Highland? Suddenly this is mind-numbing.

Not to worry. The Dallas Foundation Objection further explained how it is a "Beneficial Owner" of Hunter Mountain. The explanation involves a complex charitable entity structure that is organized in the Cayman Islands. One has to carefully follow the bouncing ball to make the connection.

IV. THE CAYMAN ISLANDS CHARITABLE FOUNDATION STRUCTURE[10]

DAF Holdco (a "corporate blocker"). First, there is an entity called Charitable DAF HoldCo, Ltd. (the "DAF Holdco"), that is a Cayman Islands exempted company, incorporated on October 27, 2011, having its registered office at HSM Corporate Services Ltd, 68 Fort Street, George Town, PO Box 31726, Grand Cayman KY1-1207, that happens to currently be in liquidation proceedings in the Cayman Islands Action. The shares of DAF Holdco are divided into Participating Shares and Management Shares. DAF Holdco is apparently what's known as a "corporate blocker" in the Cayman Islands Charitable Foundation Structure. Mark Patrick has been the manager of it since March 2021.

The DAF Fund. Second, DAF Holdco has historically been the sole limited partner of another entity called Charitable DAF Fund, LP (the "DAF Fund"). The DAF Fund is a Cayman Islands exempted limited partnership formed to invest and manage assets for the ultimate benefit of three or four registered charitable organizations in the U.S., including the Dallas Foundation (the "Charitable Entities").[11] The DAF Fund has sometimes been represented in filings (organizational charts) presented to the bankruptcy court as a Cayman Islands hedge fund. The general partner of the DAF Fund was historically Charitable DAF GP, LLC (the "DAF GP"), a Delaware limited liability company registered as a foreign company in the Cayman Islands. Mark Patrick has been the manager of DAF GP since March 2021.

CLO Holdco (another "corporate blocker"). Third, the sole asset of the DAF Fund is its 100% equity ownership in yet another entity called CLO HoldCo, Ltd. ("CLO HoldCo"), which is yet another Cayman Islands exempted company incorporated with limited liability, having its registered office address located at Campbells Corporate Services Limited, Floor 4, Willow House, Cricket Square, Grand Cayman KY1-9010, Cayman Islands. CLO HoldCo is another "corporate blocker" entity in the Cayman Islands Charitable Foundation Structure. Interestingly, CLO HoldCo owns Hunter Mountain, and, as previously stated, Hunter Mountain was the 99.5% owner of Highland.

It seems rather interesting that Highland—an alternative investment advisor (sometimes referred to as a hedge fund) that was managing billions of assets—was owned ultimately by an offshore structure designed for charitable purposes. However, this court has no expertise as to whether this is an unusual structure or one that is common to facilitate/enhance tax-exempt ownership and charitable giving. The court is simply presenting the information available to it that it thinks explains why a stay is not appropriate here: namely, since other litigation exists involving Mark Patrick and the Charitable Entities.

In any event, structurally, the three or four Charitable Entities (including the Dallas Foundation) are the ultimate beneficial owners of Participating Shares in DAF Holdco (one of the "corporate blockers"). This essentially means that the Charitable Entities are at the top of the whole structure.

The documentation supporting this whole structure apparently requires that the Participating Shareholders (i.e., the Charitable Entities such as the Dallas Foundation) must at all times qualify as a tax-exempt organizations, pursuant to section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986 ("IRC"). The Participating Shares do not have voting rights but have the right to participate in the profits or assets of the DAF Holdco. Meanwhile, the Management Shares (which have been held by Mark Patrick) have voting rights but do not have the right to participate in the profits or assets of the DAF Holdco. In other words, the Participating Shareholders have the entirety of the economic interest in DAF Holdco, whereas the sole Management Shareholder has the control rights.

Bottom line, the Dallas Foundation argued that they had reason to believe that Mark Patrick engaged in some illicit actions recently that changed up some of the structure set forth above (i.e., including the insertion of newly created entities into the DAF Fund's structure). As a result, the Dallas Foundation feared that a significant portion of the economic interests derived by the HMIT Entities from the Settlement Agreement would flow to Mark Patrick rather than to the Charitable Entities for whose benefit the DAF Fund was established. The Dallas Foundation questioned Mark Patrick's requisite corporate authority to cause the HMIT Entities to enter into the Settlement Agreement. The Dallas Foundation asserted that many of Mark Patrick's alleged actions, including the apparent insertion of newly created entities into the DAF Fund's structure, would be subject to claw back or other avoidance actions in the Cayman Islands Action or such other tribunal as has jurisdiction. The Dallas Foundation wanted the bankruptcy court to defer to that process.

Significantly, the Dallas Foundation withdrew its objection the morning of the June 25, 2025 Rule 9019 Settlement Hearing. It made its announcement through counsel on the record at the hearing.

V. THE RULE 9019 SETTLEMENT HEARING

After hearing evidence and argument on June 25, 2025, the court approved the Settlement Agreement. Bankruptcy Rule 9019 provides that "[o]n motion … and after notice and a hearing, the court may approve a compromise or settlement."[12] Settlements are favored in the bankruptcy context to "minimize litigation and expedite the administration of a bankruptcy estate."[13] The approval of a settlement is within the "sound discretion" of the trial court.[14] Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019(a), the court may approve a settlement if it is fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of the estate.[15] A settlement should be approved unless it falls below the lowest point in the range of reasonableness, based on a comparison between the terms of the settlement and the costs and benefits of further litigation.[16]

LEXIS 31411, at *10 (S.D. Tex. April 18, 2006) (court should "canvass the issues" to decide if settlement falls "below the lowest point in the range of reasonableness").

In evaluating a proposed settlement, courts consider (i) the "probability of success in the litigation, with due consideration for the uncertainty in fact and law," (ii) the "complexity and likely duration of the litigation and any attendant expense, inconvenience and delay," and (iii) "[a]ll other factors bearing on the wisdom of the compromise."[17] Assessing the first factor—success on the merits—does not require a "mini-trial" on the merits.[18] The "other factors" include "the best interests of the creditors, 'with proper deference to their reasonable views,'" as well as "'the extent to which the settlement is truly the product of arms-length bargaining, and not of fraud or collusion.'"[19]

A trustee or other estate representative also "is permitted to settle lawsuits pursuant to section 363(b)" of the Bankruptcy Code.[20] Section 363(b) provides that "[t]he trustee, after notice and a hearing, may use, sell, or lease, other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate."[21] A sale involving a transaction outside the ordinary course of business "'must be supported by an articulated business justification, good business judgment, or sound business reasons.'"[22]

The court determined, based on this jurisprudence, that the factors to be considered pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and Bankruptcy Code section 363(b) weighed in favor of approving the Settlement Agreement in this case. The Highland Entities believed they had strong and meritorious defenses to all of the then-pending HMIT litigation, and history has shown that defending the then-pending HMIT litigation, including the appeals that could result therefrom, would be costly, time-consuming and value-destructive to the estate and creditor recoveries. Further, there was no guarantee that the Highland Entities would continue to be successful in defending the then-pending HMIT litigation—or that the HMIT Entities would not file additional litigation against the Highland Entities and their indemnified parties.

The second factor—complexity, duration, and costs of litigation—also weighed heavily in favor of approval of the Settlement Agreement. The cost of defending against the litigation in this case, including the then-pending HMIT litigation, had been significant. The litigation and its attendant costs have also significantly delayed and reduced distributions to the Reorganized Debtor's constituents. The HMIT litigation began in 2023 and is subject to at least two pending appeals which showed no signs of resolving absent this Settlement Agreement. If the Settlement Agreement was not approved, the Highland Entities would be faced with significant appellate litigation and potentially additional litigation in this court and other courts.

Third, approval of the Settlement Agreement was justified by the paramount interests of Highland's creditors and constituents. The Settlement Agreement resolved the pending HMIT litigation, resolved all disputes in connection with the HMIT Class 10 Interest; would sell, transfer, and assign the Estate Claims asserted in the so-called Kirschner Adversary Proceeding—which has been pending since 2021 (until it was stayed in 2023, at significant cost to the estate)—to the HMIT Entities; and would provide for broad mutual releases and a cessation of the litigation and acrimony that, in significant part, has delayed completion of the Plan and the overall bankruptcy case.

The preponderance of the evidence suggested that the Settlement Agreement was a rational exercise of the Highland Entities' business judgment and was negotiated in good faith and at arm's length.

The court signed the Rule 9019 Settlement Order on June 30, 2025 [DE # 4297].

Then, on July 17, 2025, Dugaboy filed the Dugaboy Stay Motion. This was preceded by the filing of the Texas AG Letter on July 10, 2025. As earlier noted, both of these Stay Requests urge that this court should halt things while they or others investigate matters that should be hashed out in the Cayman Islands Action. The Dugaboy Stay Motion says this > is necessary to provide all stakeholders with time to investigate a motion under Rule 60 to vacate the 9019 Order (and all resulting orders, such as the dismissals effected as a result of the 9019 Order) in light of evidence suggesting that the settlement approved by this Court was a key element of [Mark Patrick's] alleged fraudulent scheme. Transfers of assets to companies controlled by Mr. Patrick must be halted, lest those assets are moved to companies "hard to find or track."[23]

VI. DENIAL OF STAY REQUESTS

As noted earlier, the Dugaboy Stay Motion and the Texas AG Letter are not motions for stay pending appeal pursuant to Rule 8007 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure. Dugaboy requests some sort of discretionary stay, for 90 days, while proceedings in the Cayman Islands Action go forward and, perhaps, reach a conclusion that improprieties by Mark Patrick occurred with regard to the Cayman Islands Charitable Foundation Structure. To be clear, the request is made by Dugaboy, whose party-in-interest status in the Highland estate is quite de minimis. The Texas AG apparently is of the impression (as a result of whomever filed a complaint with him) that this bankruptcy case, or the contested matter involving the Settlement Agreement, is a "proceeding involving a charitable trust." But that simply is not the case. While the assets of Hunter Mountain—remember, the former 99.5% equity owner of Highland—may ultimately be part of a res that indirectly benefits (or was intended to benefit) the Charitable Entities such as Dallas Foundation (as a result of the manner in which the Cayman Islands Charitable Foundation

Structure was designed), this does not mean that the Highland bankruptcy case is a proceeding involving a charitable trust. This court believes it applied the correct analysis required for a bankruptcy settlement. Nothing about the bankruptcy court's ruling impacts the Cayman Islands Action or the Texas AG actions it might seek to take on behalf of the Charitable Entities such as the Dallas Foundation. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that the Stay Requests by Dugaboy and the Texas attorney general be, and hereby are, DENIED.

MOTION FOR ORDER FIXING
ALLOWED AMOUNT OF CLASS 11 INTERESTS[1]

The Highland Claimant Trust ("Claimant Trust") files this Motion (the "Motion") for entry of an order pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(b), substantially in the form attached as Exhibit A, fixing the allowed amount of the unvested Class 11 Contingent Claimant Trust Interests of: (a) The Dugaboy Investment Trust ("Dugaboy") in the amount of $740,081.61; (b) Strand Advisors, Inc.

[1] Capitalized terms used but not defined herein have the meanings given to them in the Claimant Trust Agreement or the Plan, as applicable.

("Strand"), in the amount of $994,707.76; (c) Mark K. Okada ("Okada Individual") in the amount of $192,754.38; (d) The Mark and Pamela Okada Family Trust – Exempt Trust #1 ("Okada Trust #1") in the amount of $38,868.17; and (d) The Mark and Pamela Okada Family Trust – Exempt Trust #2 ("Okada Trust #2") in the amount of $16,657.79 (Dugaboy, Strand, Okada Individual, Okada Trust #1 and Okada Trust #2 are collectively referred to as the "Class 11 Holders"), in each case, on account of their respective pre-petition Class A Limited Partnership Interests in Highland Capital Management, L.P. ("Highland")

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. Before the Claimant Trust can complete the dissolution and wind-up process, it must, among other things, fully resolve all Disputed Claims and Equity Interests.[2] With this Court's recent Order[3] approving the settlement with HMIT and allowing its Class 10 interest in the Claimant Trust on account of its pre-petition equity interest in Highland in the amount of $336,940,230.58, the only unresolved Claims and Equity Interests are (a) the alleged Class 8 Claim held by Patrick Daugherty (which is fully reserved-for), and (b) the unvested Class 11 Contingent Claimant Trust Interests to be issued to the Class 11 Holders.[4] This Motion addresses the Class 11 interests.

2. Specifically, the Claimant Trust asks the Court to fix the allowed amount of each unvested Class 11 Contingent Claimant Trust Interest to be issued to each Class 11 Holder as required by the Plan and the Claimant Trust Agreement and pursuant to Section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Court should determine the amount of each Class 11 Contingent Claimant

[3] Order Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 and 11 U.S.C. § 363 Approving Settlement Between the Highland Entities and the HMIT Entities and Authorizing Actions Consistent Therewith [Docket No. 4297] (the "HMIT Order").

[4] Earlier this year, Highland commenced an adversary proceeding (Adv. Pro. No. 25-03055-sgj) to resolve Mr. Daugherty's remaining claim, leaving the Class 11 Interests as the only Disputed Claim or Equity Interest.

Trust Interest consistent with HMIT's Class 10 Contingent Claimant Trust Interest—that is, the allowed amount of each unvested Class 11 Contingent Claimant Trust Interest should be fixed in the amount of each Class 11 Holder's Petition Date capital account balance.[5]

3. Accordingly, the Claimant Trust respectfully requests that the Court enter an order in the form annexed as Exhibit A granting the Motion and fixing the amount of each unvested Class 11 Contingent Claimant Trust Interest as set forth in Exhibit A.

RELEVANT BACKGROUND

I. Highland's Partnership Structure

4. Highland was a limited partnership organized under the laws of the State of Delaware. In December 2015, Highland, through a series of transactions, restructured its limited partnership interests into three classes: Class A Limited Partnership Interests, Class B Limited Partnership Interests, and Class C Limited Partnership Interests. The Hunter Mountain Investment Trust ("HMIT") acquired 100% of Highland's Class B/C Limited Partnership Interests by contributing funds into Highland as well as by purchasing interests from James Dondero, Mark Okada, and certain entities affiliated with them.[6] The HMIT Class B/C Limited Partnership Interests accounted for 99.5% of the pre-petition partnership interests in Highland and entitled the holders thereof to priority distributions. Mr. Dondero (through Dugaboy and Strand) and Mr. Okada (through Okada Individual, Okada Trust #1, and Okada Trust #2) retained Highland's Class A Limited Partnership Interests, which accounted for 0.5% of Highland's pre-petition partnership interests.

[5] HMIT's Class 10 Contingent Claimant Trust Interest was fixed based on the amount of its limited partner capital account as of the Petition Date, offset by the HMIT Note Balance (as defined below).

[6] Concurrent with its acquisition of the Class B/C Limited Partnership Interests, HMIT executed the Secured Promissory Note, dated December 21, 2015, in the original face amount of $63,000,000 in favor of Highland (the "HMIT Note"), which, as of the Petition Date, had an outstanding principal and interest balance of $57,690,640.95 (the "HMIT Note Balance").

5. On December 24, 2015, Highland and its limited partners entered into the Limited Partnership Agreement, which governed the rights and obligations of the Class A and Class B/C limited partners and remained in effect until the Effective Date. Consistent with the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code and IRS regulations promulgated thereunder,[7] the Limited Partnership Agreement required the establishment and maintenance of a capital account at Highland reflecting each partner's economic interest in the partnership and the amounts the partners would receive – after payment of senior obligations – in a liquidation or buyout. The capital accounts for each partner were consistently adjusted based on partnership economic activity and were maintained in accordance with IRS regulations and the Limited Partnership Agreement, and Schedule K-1s were distributed to the partners annually.[8]

6. Between year-end 2018 (as reflected in the 2018 Tax Return and accompanying K-1s) and the Petition Date, the capital accounts of the Highland partners fluctuated in accordance with the requirements of the Limited Partnership Agreement based on Highland's 2019 year-to-date economic performance. As of the Petition Date: (a) HMIT's capital account balance on account of its Class B/C Limited Partnership Interests was $394,630,871.53; (b) Dugaboy's capital account on account of its Class A Limited Partnership Interest was $740,081.61; (c) Strand's capital account on account of its Class A Interest was $994,707.76; (d) Okada Individual's capital account on account of its Class A Limited Partnership Interest was $192,754.38; (e) Okada #1's capital account on account of its Class A Limited Partnership Interest was $38,868.17; and (f)

[8] Each of the Class 11 Holders received a Highland Schedule K-1 each year (including 2018 and 2019) reflecting, among other things, their respective share of Highland's calendar year income and losses as well as each partner's beginning and year-end capital accounts. The K-1s were derived from Highland's IRS Form 1065 U.S. Return of Partnership Income for each year (a "Tax Return") and were to be used by each Class 11 Holder in preparation of their own respective tax returns. Under penalty of perjury, the 2018 Tax Return was executed by Mr. Dondero (9/15/19), and the 2019 Tax Return was executed by Frank Waterhouse (9/10/20). See Claimant Trust's Exhibits 115 and 116, admitted into evidence during the June 25, 2025, hearing resulting in the HMIT Order [Doc. 4293].

Okada #2's capital account on account of its Class A Limited Partnership Interest was $16,657.79. The total of these six capital accounts was $396,613,941.24.[9]

II. The Bankruptcy Case

7. Highland commenced the Bankruptcy Case in the District of Delaware on October 16, 2019, by filing its voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Bankruptcy Case was subsequently transferred to this Court.

8. On February 22, 2021, the Bankruptcy Court entered the Order (I) Confirming the Fifth Amended Plan of Reorganization of Highland Capital Management, L.P. (as Modified) and (II) Granting Related Relief [Doc. 1943], which confirmed the Fifth Amended Plan of Reorganization of Highland Capital Management, L.P. (as Modified) [Doc. 1943-1] (the "Plan"). The Plan went effective on August 11, 2021 [Doc. 2700] (the "Effective Date").

9. On the Effective Date and in accordance with the Plan, the Claimant Trust was created pursuant to the terms of the Claimant Trust Agreement (the "CTA"). Pursuant to Section 5.1(c) of the CTA and in accordance with the Plan (Art. III.H.10 and 11): (a) the pre-petition Class B/C Limited Partnership Interests and the Class A Limited Partnership Interests in Highland were extinguished; (b) the Holders of allowed Class B/C Limited Partnership Interests would receive unvested Class 10 Contingent Claimant Trust Interests if and when their Equity Interests were allowed in amounts as determined under the Plan; and (c) Holders of allowed Class A Limited Partnership Interests would receive unvested Class 11 Contingent Claimant Trust Interests if and when their Equity Interests were allowed in amounts as determined under the Plan.

10. The Plan requires that Holders of Class 10 and Class 11 whose interests are allowed receive a Pro Rata share of the Contingent Claimant Trust Interest. Pro Rata means the allowed amount a holder's interest bears to the total allowed amount in the class.[10] To determine the amount of the Contingent Claimant Trust Interests to be issued to each Holder of allowed Class A Limited Partnership Interests and Class B/C Limited Partnership Interests, as applicable, the Plan and the CTA requires the calculation of a ratio equal to the amount of each Holder's allowed Class 10 or Class 11 Interest divided by the total amount of all allowed Class 10 and Class 11 Interests, as applicable.[11] Contingent Claimant Trust Interests distributed to the Holders of allowed Class A Limited Partnership Interests (i.e., Class 11 Holders) are subordinated to the Contingent Claimant Trust Interests issued to the Holders of allowed Class B/C Limited Partnership Interests and receive nothing unless and until allowed Class 10 Interests are paid in full.[12]

11. On June 30, 2025, this Court entered the HMIT Order allowing HMIT's Class 10 Contingent Claimant Trust Interest in the fixed amount of $336,940,230.58, based on HMIT's capital account balance in respect of its Class B/C Limited Partnership Interests as of the Petition Date ($394,630,871.53) minus the HMIT Note Balance ($57,690,640.95).

12. Prior to the HMIT Order, on December 27, 2024, this Court approved and entered the stipulated and agreed order (the "HCLOM Order") relating to the claims of Highland CLO Management, Ltd. ("HCLOM") pursuant to which HCLOM's claim against Highland was subordinated and then allowed as a Class 10 Contingent Claimant Trust Interest in the fixed amount of $10,140,633.26, subject to the terms of that order.[13] HMIT and HCLOM are the only Holders of Class 10 Interests, subject to the terms of their respective allowance orders.

HCLOM and its control person, Mr. Dondero, expressly agreed to all terms of the HCLOM Order, and Dugaboy and HMIT approved the HCLOM Order "as to form and substance." Id.

13. With Class 10 Interest amounts fixed, the Plan and the CTA require the fixing of the allowed amounts of the Holders of Class 11 Interests. Unless such amounts are fixed, it is impossible to calculate the Holders' Pro Rata share of the Contingent Claimant Trust Interests as required by the Plan and the CTA.

BASIS FOR RELIEF REQUESTED

14. Under 11 U.S.C. § 502(b), this Court, "after notice and hearing, shall determine the amount of [a] claim … as of the date of the filing of the petition, and shall allow such claim in such amount …." "In determining the amount of a claim, the court is guided by otherwise applicable state or federal law, whether the claim is liquidated or contingent or if any other issues exist which bear upon the amount of the claim. … If the claim is liquidated and properly existing under state law, the task of the court in determining the amount may be relatively straightforward." 4 COLLIER ON BANKRUPTCY ¶ 502.03.

15. To enable the Claimant Trust to complete the issuance of unvested Class 11 Contingent Claimant Trust Interests to the Holders of pre-petition Class A Limited Partnership Interests, the Court should allow the Class 11 Holders' Contingent Claimant Trust Interest in the amount of their respective Highland Class A Limited Partnership Interest capital account balances as of the Petition Date, in a manner consistent with the HMIT Order.

NO PRIOR REQUEST

16. No previous request for the relief sought herein has been made to any court.

PRAYER

17. WHEREFORE, the Claimant Trust respectfully requests entry of an order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, granting the Motion and the relief requested herein as well as any further relief the Court deems just and proper.

WEBEX HEARINGS – CONNECTION INSTRUCTIONS

Please connect at least 10 minutes prior to the hearing time using one of the two options below. It is recommended that attorneys discuss the logistics of the WebEx appearance with their clients/witnesses at least 48 hours prior to the hearing.

Option 1: Using the WebEx app on your smartphone, tablet, laptop, or desktop.

- It is strongly preferred that participants who wish to speak during a hearing use the WebEx application rather than using the "call-in" option described in Option 2.
- Attorneys offering legal argument or conducting examination and all witnesses are required to utilize the video function. The Court may consider special requests for other appearance options on a case-by-case basis.
- Please connect using only one device. Using two or more devices may cause audio feedback issues.
- If using a smartphone or tablet for video, it should be set in a stationary position. Holding a phone or tablet in your hand while speaking does not yield a good video for the Court or other participants.

NOTE: If you are experiencing audio issues when using the WebEx application, you may use the "Call Me" selection under "Audio Connection" to move just the audio portion of the WebEx conference to your telephone.

Option 2: Call-in via phone (audio only).
The meeting number/access code and dial-in number can be found on the attached WebEx Connection Information. Please use *6 or the mute function on your smartphone to mute your line.

HELPFUL HINTS AND ETIQUETTE

• Please use the mute function when you are not speaking. Please be aware that sometimes the Court mutes everyone when there is background noise. When you want to speak, make sure you are not muted. Call-in users should dial *6 to unmute your line.

• Remember to state your name for the record each time before speaking and speak slowly and clearly so the Court can get a good record. Also, use your proper name on your device or for your WebEx login when participating over video, so that the Court can more easily determine who is speaking.

• Use headphones whenever possible, especially if using a desktop PC with external speakers. We have found that newer iPhones provide the best visual and audio feed – better than most desktop computers. If you are on a personal computer, headphones or earbuds are required for those who need to speak during the hearing.

• During examination, attorneys and witnesses should use a separate camera and microphone when possible. To avoid feedback, parties using separate devices must not be in the same room. The Court may consider special requests on a case-by-case basis.

• WebEx participants may use the "share" button to easily share their screen or document with the Court or other WebEx participants. Press “stop sharing” to remove the presentation from the meeting.

• When making an appearance from a vehicle, please park in a safe location with windows rolled up (to minimize background distraction and noise) and use a headset that is ear-to-phone (not the vehicle’s hands-free speaker-phone option).

• Suggestions for participating in a WebEx hearing from home: If you are having connectivity problems, turn off devices that may be using bandwidth on your home network. Devices or applications such as Facetime, Roku, streaming media players, video games, or large downloads can negatively impact the audio and video quality of the WebEx meeting.

• Participants are reminded that they should wear attire suitable for court.

• Participants who wish to test their WebEx connection or the share screen functionality in advance of the hearing may arrange a “practice run” by contacting the courtroom deputy at sgj_settings@txnb.uscourts.gov.

EXHIBITS AND DEMONSTRATIVE AIDS

Exhibits should be filed ahead of time by the date that they would normally be exchanged pursuant to our local rules using the "notice" or "list (witness/exhibit/generic)" event in ECF, with a true and correct copy of each designated exhibit filed as a separate, individual attachment, so that the Court and all participants have ready access to all designated exhibits. For voluminous exhibits, please provide the Court with two exhibit notebooks in advance of the hearing. For any witness who is to be called to testify remotely, the party calling the witness is responsible for supplying the witness or counsel, as appropriate, with paper copies of all designated exhibits prior to the hearing.
Demonstrative aids and PowerPoints should also be filed prior to the hearing, if possible. If not, WebEx has the ability to allow you to share your screen, or a particular document, with everyone in the hearing. If these documents are admitted as exhibits, they would then have to be filed after the hearing.

The Dugaboy Investment Trust ("Dugaboy") respectfully asks the Court to deny the Motion for Order Fixing the Allowed Amount of Class 11 Interests, filed by the Highland Claimant Trust ("Highland")[1] on August 8, 2025 (Dkt. 4362).

I. INTRODUCTION

This dispute is about more than just determining the amount of Dugaboy's[2] Class 11 allowed claim. It will also determine the fate of any surplus funds or assets left over after all senior claimants have been paid in full. Highland says Dugaboy's claim should be reduced to a fixed dollar amount that puts a hard ceiling on any potential recovery. Dkt. 4362 at 1–2. Dugaboy instead contends Class 11 should share in any residual funds based on a pro rata percentage in proportion to its share of the equity ownership interests.[3] This is not an extravagant request, as Dugaboy only owns 0.5%[4] of the equity compared to HMIT's 99.5%. Under Dugaboy's approach, it has a fair chance of getting some money. Under Highland's approach, Dugaboy gets no money. Highland is wrong, and its Motion should be denied for four reasons.

[1] Except where otherwise specified, this Response uses "Highland" to refer to Highland Claimant Trust, the Movant on this Motion.

[2] For simplicity, this Response uses "Dugaboy" as a shorthand for all of the Class 11 interest-holders. The claimants in Class 11 include Dugaboy, Strand Advisors, Mark Okada individually, and two Okada Family Trust entities.

[4] The 0.5% figure represents the total equity owned by all the members of Class 11. For Dugaboy by itself, its equity share is 0.1866%. See Hrg. Tr. 81:1–5.

First, both the confirmed Reorganization Plan ("Plan"), and the Claimant Trust Agreement ("CTA") require that any excess funds or surplus assets left over after all senior creditors have been paid in full must revert to the equity interest holders, which include Dugaboy as well as HMIT.

Second, longstanding principles of bankruptcy law and controlling precedent require that any distribution of excess funds be made on a pro rata or "ratable" basis, meaning that whatever the actual dollar amounts, Dugaboy is entitled to share in any such distribution in proportion to its 0.5% equity interest.

Third, the absolute priority rule does not block Dugaboy from sharing in a distribution of excess funds, because any such funds will only become available after all senior classes of creditors have been paid in full. To the contrary, the absolute priority rule helps Dugaboy because it prohibits senior creditors from receiving more than they are owed under the Plan and directs that excess value must be allocated to junior classes of creditors or equity.

Finally, Highland's proposed method for determining the value of Dugaboy's claim—the same method it previously used for HMIT's claim at the June 25, 2025 hearing[5]—must be rejected as both unreliable and contrary to the principles of bankruptcy law. Highland arbitrarily chose to calculate claim values based on the "value" given in the equity holders' limited partnership capital accounts, a number calculated for tax purposes that bears little relation to the market value of the partnership interest. And by limiting Dugaboy's claim to a fixed (and unreliable) number derived from its capital accounts, Highland improperly deprives Dugaboy of its right to pro rata treatment in proportion to its ownership share.

[5] Dugaboy acknowledges that the Court has already ruled on the allowed amount of HMIT's Class 10 claim. See Dkt. 4297. Dugaboy assures the Court that its continued argument on this issue is not meant to try the Court's patience but is merely for the sake of preserving error and avoiding waiver. Discussion of HMIT is also relevant because Highland is asking the Court to take exactly the same approach to valuing Dugaboy's interest as it did with HMIT. See Dkt. 4362 at 7 (asking the Court to allow the Class 11 interests "in a manner consistent with the HMIT Order").

II. BACKGROUND

Before its bankruptcy filing on October 16, 2019, the original debtor existed as a limited partnership entity named Highland Capital Management, L.P. ("HCMLP"). Dkt. 1943. As relevant here, HCMLP structured its limited partnership interests into three classes named "A", "B", and "C." HMIT acquired all of the Class B and C interests, which amounted to 99.5% of HCMLP's partnership interests. Several other entities (including Dugaboy) retained the Class A interests which amounted to the remaining 0.5% of HCMLP's equity. Dkt. 4362 at 3. For tax purposes, HCMLP was required to maintain "limited partner capital accounts" that purported to track the value of each partner's interest. Id. at 6.

On February 22, 2021, this Court confirmed the Fifth Amended Plan of Reorganization for HCMLP ("Plan") [Dkt. 1943] with an effective date of August 11, 2021 [Dkt. 2700]. As relevant here, the pre-petition limited partnership interests in HCMLP would become unvested Contingent Claimant Trust interests when their equity interests were allowed by the Court under the Plan (and once allowed, those interests would only vest after more senior creditors were paid in full). Dkt. 4362 at 5. The pre-filing Class B and C interests owned by HMIT became Class 10, and the Class A interests owned by Dugaboy and others became Class 11. Id.

At the June 25, 2025 hearing, the Court heard argument and evidence on determining an allowed amount for HMIT's Class 10 equity interests. Claimant Trustee James Seery explained that he used the valuation in HMIT's capital account on the date the petition was filed ($394,630,871.53) as the basis for calculating HMIT's allowed amount for purposes of its bankruptcy claim. Hrg. Tr. 93:11–94:9. After subtracting the balance of approximately $57 million on a note HMIT owed to Highland, Seery arrived at a claim value of $336,940,230.58. Id. Despite strenuous objections from Dugaboy—which argued for calculating the allowed amounts for both HMIT and Dugaboy by using a pro rata percentage based on their respective 99.5%/0.5% equity ownership shares—the Court sided with Highland and allowed HMIT's Class 10 claim in the same fixed amount calculated by Seery. Dkt. 4297 ¶ 12; see Hrg. Tr. 245:25–247:23; 249:20–250:1.

In this Motion, Highland asks the Court to calculate Dugaboy's Class 11 allowed amount using the same method—i.e., the value of its limited partner capital account as of the petition date—it has already used for HMIT. For the reasons discussed below, the Court should decline that invitation.

III. LEGAL STANDARD

Section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code provides that (subject to various exceptions not relevant here) if a claim is objected to, the Court "after notice and a hearing, shall determine the amount of such claim in lawful currency of the United States as of the date of the filing of the petition, and shall allow such claim in such amount." 11 U.S.C. § 502(b). The Court may also "estimate" the amount of any contingent or unliquidated claim, if fixing or liquidating such claim would cause undue delay. Id. § 502(c). While § 502 requires the Court to determine a dollar value, it does not dictate any specific method for doing so. Instead, the Court should choose the methods and sources of information that is best suited to the circumstances. See In re Brints Cotton Marketing, Inc., 737 F.2d 1338, 1341 (5th Cir. 1984) ("In estimating a claim, the bankruptcy court should use whatever method is best suited to the circumstances.").

Section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code sets forth the requirements that must be met for a proposed reorganization Plan to be confirmed by the bankruptcy court. One is the "Absolute Priority Rule," which requires that the claims of each senior class of creditors be paid in full before holders of junior claims can receive anything. 11 U.S.C. § 1129(b); In re Pacific Lumber Co., 584 F.3d 229, 244–45 (5th Cir. 2009). Another is that the Plan be "fair and equitable" with respect to each class of claim holders. Id. § 1129(b).

IV. ARGUMENT

Imagine there is money left over after paying every senior class of creditors the full amounts they are owed under the Plan. This is not farfetched. After paying off Class 9, there could be as much as $45–$50 million left for distribution to Classes 10 and 11. See Hrg. Tr. 81:15–18. HMIT has a significant interest in these funds, given its 99.5% equity ownership share. The question is whether Dugaboy can claim the remaining 0.5% of any excess funds based on its own equity rights, even if those funds exceed whatever fixed amount the Court may have used for valuing Dugaboy's allowed claim. The answer, as explained below, is a resounding yes.

A. Excess funds and surplus assets revert to the equity interest holders.

Both the Plan and the Contingency Trust Agreement make express provision for the disposition of any funds or assets that may be left over after all classes of creditors have been paid in full under the Plan. Upon the wind-down and dissolution of the Reorganized Debtor and the Claimant Trust, "any remaining Claimant Trust Assets that exceed the amounts required to be paid under the Plan" will be transferred to the holders of the claimant trust interests, i.e., the Class 10 and Class 11 claimants. Plan, Art. IV(B)(14) (emphasis added); see similar provisions at Plan IV(A), IV(C) and CTA ¶ 9.2. This is consistent with the Bankruptcy Code, which provides that any distribution of estate property must go, in the last instance, to the debtor. See 11 U.S.C. § 726(a)(6).

B. Dugaboy is entitled to its pro rata share of any excess funds.

Highland's proposal to put a fixed ceiling on Dugaboy's allowed claim and cut it off from any further share in excess funds is contrary to the letter and spirit of the Bankruptcy Code, the confirmed Reorganization Plan, and the Claimant Trust Agreement. All of these make clear that holders of contingent equity interests like Dugaboy are entitled to their pro rata proportionate ownership shares without being limited by any fixed ceiling. The Plan specifically provides that both Class 10 (HMIT) and Class 11 (Dugaboy and others) will receive their "Pro Rata share of the Contingent Claimant Trust Interests." Plan Art. III, H(10) and (11); see CTA ¶ 5.1(c) (providing that Class 10 and Class 11 holders will receive contingent trust interests "equal to the ratio" that each holder's allowed interest bears to the total amount of allowed interests for their respective class).

These requirements reflect the Bankruptcy Code's statutory interest in upholding the "important norm" in corporate finance of similar treatment for similarly situated creditors. In re Serta Simmons Bedding, Inc., 125 F.4th 555, 565 (5th Cir. 2024). In bankruptcy, that statutory purpose takes the form of mandates to bring about a "ratable [i.e., pro rata] distribution" of assets among the creditors. Brints, 737 F.2d at 1341; see Vanston Bondholders Protective Comm. v. Green, 329 U.S. 156, 162–63 (1946) ("[A] purpose of bankruptcy is to administer an estate as to bring about a ratable distribution of assets among the bankrupt's creditors.") (emphasis added). "Ratable treatment is such an important norm that it is often described as a lender's 'sacred right' under syndicated loan agreements." Serta Simmons, 125 F.4th at 565.

Disregarding these clear and powerful authorities, Highland contends that because of the absolute priority rule and contractual subordination clauses, HMIT would get 100% of any excess leftover funds—regardless of their amount—and Dugaboy would get nothing beyond the fixed ceiling of the amount allowed by the Court. Hrg. Tr. 133:9–134:3 (Seery testimony); see Plan ¶ I(B)(44) (stating Class A interests will be subordinated to Class B/C interests); CTA ¶5.1(c) (same). This contention is wrong, as explained next.

C. The Absolute Priority Rule does not defeat Dugaboy's right to share in any surplus funds.

Highland misunderstands the purpose of the absolute priority rule, which is to meet the statutory requirement for "fair and equitable" treatment by ensuring each class is fully paid in order of its priority before the next junior class gets anything at all. See 11 U.S.C. § 1129(b)(2)(C); In re Seaquest Diving, L.P., 579 F.3d 411, 420 n.5 (5th Cir. 2009) ("The absolute priority rule requires that certain classes of claimants be paid in full before any member of a subordinate class is paid."). But in a scenario where excess cash remains after every creditor class has been paid in full, the absolute priority rule has served its purpose and no longer poses an obstacle to distribution of residual funds. See, e.g., In re Introgen Therapeutics, 429 B.R. 570, 585 (Bankr. W.D. Tex. 2010) (acknowledging that absolute priority "would not be an issue" after higher-priority classes are paid in full). Instead, here that distribution is governed by the terms of the Plan and the Claimant Trust Agreement, which provide that excess funds will eventually be distributed to the equity interest holders (i.e., HMIT and Dugaboy) in proportion to their percentage interest. See Section IV(A) above. In that scenario, Dugaboy's designation under Class 11 and HMIT's Class 10 is not a subordination; the Plan and other legal principles require that all equity holders be paid pro rata from excess funds. The designations do not strip Dugaboy of its 0.5% equity share or the right to participate in distributions of excess funds that comes with it.

If the Court allows HMIT to collect 100% (rather than its pro rata share of 99.5%) of any residual funds, while barring Dugaboy's participation by holding it under the hard ceiling of a fixed dollar amount, it will violate an important corollary to the absolute priority rule that prohibits senior classes of claimholders from receiving more than the full amount they are owed under the Plan. See, e.g., In re Idearc, Inc., 423 B.R. 138, 170 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2009) ("The corollary of the absolute priority rule is that senior classes cannot receive more than a one hundred percent (100%) recovery for their claims."). Instead, the excess value "must be allocated to junior classes of debt or equity, as the case may be." In re Granite Broadcasting Corp., 369 B.R. 120, 140–41 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2007). This rule is intended to protect junior classes from greedy overreach by senior creditors. Because there is no class more junior than Dugaboy's Class 11, this rule is meant to protect Dugaboy and ensure it is not wrongfully deprived of the rights and benefits of its 0.5% share.

D. No authority supports Highland's use of limited partner capital accounts to set the proposed allowed value of the claims of Classes 10 and 11.

Although Highland's Claimant Trustee James Seery rejected the use of a pro rata approach in this case, he admitted under cross-examination that using equity ownership percentages was a "standard" methodology he had employed in other cases to value a partnership interest for sale or liquidation. Hrg. Tr. 132:24–133:8. Seery also admitted that the underlying limited partnership agreement expressed HMIT's and Dugaboy's relative equity interests as percentages (99.5% and 0.5% respectively) and not fixed dollar amounts. Id. 94:10–12.

By contrast, no authority supports Seery's arbitrary choice to use pre-petition limited partner capital accounts as the basis for calculating the value of allowed claims for equity interest holders. See id. 93:11–94:9. The Bankruptcy Code does not even mention (let alone require) such an approach, and it is similarly absent from both the Plan and the Claimant Trust Agreement. That's probably for a good reason. Because partnership capital accounts are maintained and calculated largely for tax purposes (see Dkt. 4362 at 4), the resulting book values may bear little relation to what an equity interest might command in a market sale.

Contrary to the usual practice in complex bankruptcies, no one has performed an expert valuation of HMIT's equity interest. See, e.g., Granite Broadcasting, 369

B.R. at 140–41 (describing the lengthy and detailed valuation analyses performed by both sides' experts). Thus, little reliance can be placed on Seery's back-of-the-envelope estimation that HMIT's claim is worth over $336 million. See Hrg. Tr. 110:14–111:6. And the Court can give no greater confidence to Highland's assertion (based on the same dubious methodology) that Dugaboy's interest should be capped at a fixed ceiling of $740,081.61. See Dkt. 4362 at 1. This approach unfairly and inequitably cuts off Dugaboy from its right to participate in any distributions of excess assets according to its 0.5% pro rata equity share. Even in a bankruptcy, equity deserves to be treated equitably.

All of this acceleration of the determination of the value of equity interests is untimely and unnecessary. It puts the cart before the horse. There is no reason—and Highland has offered none—for the Court to strain to adopt a methodology to value the claim of each equity holder. The Plan takes care of this, providing that each equity holder should be paid pro rata from excess funds that arise. When excess funds arise, they should be divided according to the equity ownership percentages. Highland's effort prematurely to make these determinations is without need or cause or reason and should be rejected.

V. CONCLUSION AND PRAYER

For the reasons above, Dugaboy respectfully asks the Court to deny Highland's Motion.

REPLY IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR ORDER FIXING ALLOWED AMOUNT OF CLASS 11 INTERESTS

The Highland Claimant Trust (the "Claimant Trust") submits this reply (the "Reply") in further support of its Motion for Order Fixing Allowed Amount of Class 11 Interests [Docket No. 4362] (the "Motion") and in opposition to Dugaboy Investment Trust's Response Opposing [1] Highland's last four digits of its taxpayer identification number are (8357). The headquarters and service address for Highland is 100 Crescent Court, Suite 1850, Dallas, TX 75201.

Highland Claimant Trust's Motion for Order Fixing Allowed Amount of Class 11 Interests [Docket No. 4384] (the "Objection") filed by The Dugaboy Investment Trust ("Dugaboy"). In further support of the Motion, the Claimant Trust states as follows:

I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT[2]

1. Dugaboy's Objection impermissibly requires the rewriting of the Plan and the Claimant Trust Agreement ("CTA") so that Class 10 and Class 11 would no longer be treated as distinct Classes of Contingent Claimant Trust Interests but instead would effectively be collapsed into a single Class with Class 11 treated pari passu with Class 10. But Class 11 is not pari passu with Class 10; it is expressly subordinated to Class 10 and that Plan treatment cannot be changed.

2. Dugaboy mischaracterizes the Plan, the CTA, and the Bankruptcy Code's absolute priority rule, ignores this Court's prior orders, and renders meaningless the mandated distinction between Classes 10 and 11; indeed, under Dugaboy's new approach, the rationale for Class 11 would cease to exist. Dugaboy's proposal has no basis in law or fact and must be rejected for several reasons.

3. First, Dugaboy's argument that the Plan and the CTA require pro rata distributions between Classes 10 and 11 is plainly wrong. The Debtor's prepetition limited partnership agreement created different classes of limited partnership interests, each of which had different rights. The Plan, the Confirmation Order, and the CTA respected these differences by, among other things, creating separate classes of interests—Classes 10 and 11—and expressly subordinating Class 11 to Class 10. As a result of this priority structure, Class 10 must be paid in full before Class 11 can receive anything. Dugaboy cannot now rewrite the plain language of the Plan.

[2] Capitalized terms used but not defined herein have the meanings given to them in the Motion or below.

4. Second, Dugaboy ignores this Court's prior orders allowing the claims of the two Class 10 Interest holders (HMIT and HCLOM) in fixed dollar amounts. Consequently, Dugaboy's proposed Plan modification cannot work and would result in the disparate treatment among Class 10 Interest holders, since HCLOM is not a former limited partner and has no former prepetition percentage interest in the Debtor.

5. Third, Dugaboy's legal arguments in support of its Objection are misplaced. Dugaboy argues that bankruptcy law requires pro rata distribution to ensure that similar claims are treated the same. But, Class 10 and Class 11 Interests are not the same, were properly separately classified in the Plan, and Class 11 is expressly subordinate to Class 10. The Confirmation Order cementing that treatment is final; and notably, Dugaboy never objected to the Plan's differing treatment of Classes 10 and 11. Dugaboy's new scheme would also turn the absolute priority rule on its head by forcibly gifting Class 11, a junior class, a distribution before Class 10, a senior class, is paid in full.

6. Class 11 is subordinate to Class 10, and the Plan requires the fixing of the dollar amounts of the Class 10 and Class 11 Interests in order to satisfy that subordination.[3] Section 502 requires the calculation of those interests as of the Petition Date, and using their respective Petition Date capital accounts is faithful to principles of partnership law, the Debtor's Limited Partnership Agreement as of the Petition Date, and the Plan. It is the only logical method to use in this case—as this Court ruled previously when fixing HMIT's Class 10 Interest.

7. For the reasons set forth herein and that will be established at the hearing, Dugaboy's Objection should be overruled, and the Motion should be granted.

[3] As James Dondero and Dugaboy know, the fixing of the Class 10 Interests also enabled HMIT and HCLOM to share the prior Class 10 distributions consistent with the written agreement between them.

II. REPLY

8. Notwithstanding the plain language of the Plan, Dugaboy argues the Class 10 and Class 11 Interests should not be reduced to a fixed amount and it should share in any distributions to Class 10 based on its 0.1866% prepetition Class A limited partnership percentage interest in the Debtor. Dugaboy ignores the seniority of the Class 10 Interests already held by HMIT and HCLOM (which had no prepetition percentage interest in the Debtor) and collapses Class 10 and Class 11 into a single Class with no distinctions whatsoever. Dugaboy's proposal is contrary to the Bankruptcy Code, the Plan, the CTA, and this Court's prior orders.

9. Dugaboy pretends the Class 11 Interests are pari passu with the Class 10 Interests; they are not. On the Effective Date, all Highland limited partnership interests were extinguished, and the former limited partners became entitled to receive Class 10 Contingent Trust Interests if they held Class B/C Limited Partnership Interests and Class 11 Contingent Trust Interests if they held Class A Limited Partnership Interests.[4] Dugaboy's suggestion that the Plan provides for pro rata treatment among holders of Class 10 and Class 11 is simply false.

10. The Plan and the CTA recognized the priorities in Highland's prepetition Limited Partnership Agreement by expressly subordinating holders of Class 11 Interests to holders of Class 10 Interests.[5] Although Dugaboy filed an extensive objection to the Plan [Docket No. 1667], it did not object to the separate classification of Class A Limited Partnership Interests in [4] See, e.g., Plan, Art. III.H.10, 11 (allocating Class 10 Interests to holders of Allowed Class B/C Limited Partnership Interests and Class 11 Interests to Holders of Allowed Class A Limited Partnership Interests); CTA, § 5.1(c) ("The Claimant Trustee shall allocate to each Holder of Allowed Class 10 Class B/C Limited Partnership Interests and each Holder of Allowed Class 11 Class A Limited Partnership Interests a Contingent Trust Interest equal to the ratio that the amount of each Holder's Allowed Class 10 or Class 11 Interest bears to the total amount of the Allowed Class 10 or Class 11 Interests, as applicable, under the Plan.") (emphasis added).

[5] Plan, Art. I.A.44 ("[T]he Contingent Claimant Trust Interests distributed to the Holders of Class A Limited Partnership Interests will be subordinated to the Contingent Claimant Trust Interests distributed to the Holders of Class B/C Limited Partnership Interests.") (emphasis added); CTA, § 5.1(c) ("The Equity Trust Interests distributed to Allowed Holders of Class A Limited Partnership Interests shall be subordinated to the Equity Trust Interests distributed to Allowed Holders of Class B/C Limited Partnership Interests.") (emphasis added).

Class 11 and Class B/C Limited Partnership Interests in Class 10 or the subordination of Class 11 to Class 10 (nor did anyone else). And, in the Confirmation Order, this Court found the separate classification of Interests into Class 10 and Class 11 was proper because the Class B/C Limited Partnership Interests and Class A Limited Partnership Interests were not similarly situated, had different payment priorities, and required different treatment.[6] Accordingly, Class 10 and Class 11 are not now (and never were) similarly situated and, to reflect the differences in the prepetition limited partnership interests, the Plan expressly subordinated Class 11 to Class 10. Class 11 cannot receive a penny until Class 10 is paid in full.

11. Dugaboy's proposed plan modification also ignores that the Class 10 Interests held by HMIT and HCLOM were previously allowed in fixed dollar amounts and are not subject to adjustment. The HCLOM Order, which Dugaboy approved, was entered on December 27, 2024, and granted HCLOM, an entity controlled by Dugaboy, an Allowed Class 10 Interest in a fixed dollar amount of $10,140,633.26. The HCLOM Order was not appealed and is final.[7]

12. On May 19, 2025, Highland and the Claimant Trust moved, inter alia, to allow HMIT's Class 10 Interest in an amount equal to its capital account balance in Highland as of the Petition Date, less amounts HMIT owed the estate [Docket No. 4216] (the "HMIT Motion").[8] On June 25, 2025, during the hearing on the HMIT Motion, Dugaboy orally objected (for the first time) to the methodology used to allow HMIT's Class 10 Interests and asked this Court not

[6] See, e.g., Confirmation Order ¶ 36 ("The Plan properly separately classifies the Equity Interests in Class 10 … from the Equity Interests in Class 11 … because they represent different types of equity security interests in the Debtor and different payment priorities.").

[7] After the HCLOM Order was entered, HMIT and HCLOM agreed to an allocation of distributions between them as the holders of Class 10 Interests. See Intercreditor and Participation Agreement dated as of January 10, 2025, and filed as Exhibit 69 at Docket No. 4255. HMIT and HCLOM have already given effect to their agreement by actually sharing the distributions HMIT received under its settlement agreement with Highland.

[8] Dugaboy objected to the HMIT Motion [Docket No. 4230] and requested discovery. Highland and the Claimant Trust produced to Dugaboy voluminous discovery concerning Highland's remaining assets and liabilities and the current projected value of those assets and liabilities. Tr. (6/25/25 hearing) at 91:8-16.

to fix HMIT's Class 10 Interests but to permit Class 10 and Class 11 to receive their supposed "pro rata" share of the estate's remaining assets, substantively the same plan modification raised in the Objection. See, e.g., Tr. (6/25/25 hearing) at 79:24-80:19; 81:1-82:15.[9]

13. On June 30, 2025, this Court entered the HMIT Order and allowed HMIT's Class 10 Interest "in the amount of $336,940,230.58," i.e., the value of HMIT's capital account on the Petition Date ($394,630,871.53), minus the HMIT Note Balance ($57,690,640.95).[10]

14. Dugaboy ignores the fixed dollar amount of HMIT's Interest and does not even consider how the final HCLOM order would be affected. The fixed amount of HCLOM's Class 10 Interest (a) was acknowledged and agreed to by Dugaboy, (b) is not subject to appeal, and (c) cannot be squared with Dugaboy's new proposal. In contrast, fixing the dollar amount of the Allowed Class 11 Interests as the Claimant Trust proposes, allows for the calculation of (i) the dollar amount of distributions to each Class 10 holder, and (ii) once Class 10 has been paid in full, the dollar amount of any theoretical distributions to each Class 11 holder, in each case, as required by the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and the CTA.

15. In short, Dugaboy fails to take into account that (a) HMIT and HCLOM's Class 10 Interests were previously allowed in a fixed amount and (b) HCLOM was never a limited partner of Highland and therefore could never receive its "pro rata" share of anything based on former limited partnership interests.

[9] At the hearing, Highland and the Claimant Trust introduced significant documentary evidence, including evidence showing the current value of Highland's assets and liabilities. James P. Seery, Jr., the trustee of the Claimant Trust, also described the methodology used to value HMIT's Class 10 Interest. The evidence showed that the respective capital accounts represented each limited partner's interest in the estate's profits and losses and the approximate amount they would have expected to receive if Highland were liquidated as of the Petition Date. The evidence also showed that (a) the capital accounts were maintained in the ordinary course of Highland's business; (b) both Mr. Dondero and Mr. Waterhouse were actively involved in the calculation of each limited partner's capital accounts; and (c) both Mr. Dondero and Mr. Waterhouse signed tax documents, under penalty of perjury, attesting to the calculation of the capital accounts and each partner's allocable share of Highland's value. See Tr. (6/25/25 hearing) at 93:8-97:11; 110:10-111:6; Exhibits 113-118 (Docket No. 4255).

[10] Dugaboy has appealed the HMIT Order; however, the HMIT Order is still binding unless and until overturned on appeal.

16. Dugaboy also now argues that treating Class 10 and Class 11 differently violates the absolute priority rule because "where excess cash remains after every creditor class has been paid in full, the absolute priority rule has served its purpose and no longer poses an obstacle to distribution of residual funds."[11] Dugaboy is wrong because it ignores 11 U.S.C. § 1129(b)(2)(C)(ii), which provides that, absent consent, "[t]he holder of any interest that is junior to the interests of such class will not receive or retain under the plan on account of such junior interest any property." The Confirmation Order created Class 10 and Class 11 because the Class B/C Limited Partnership Interests (placed in Class 10) and the Class A Limited Partnership Interests (placed in Class 11) were not substantially similar and had different payment priorities.[12] The Plan accounted for the differences in Highland's limited partnership interests by subordinating Class 11 to Class 10. Allowing Class 11, a junior equity class, to receive anything of value before Class 10, a senior equity class, is paid in full violates the Plan and the absolute priority rule, too. Fixing the Class 11 amount and honoring the Plan subordination is not an option; it is required.

17. Section 502(b) of the Bankruptcy Code provides for a determination of the amount of a claim or interest "as of the date of the filing of the petition …."[13] The Claimant Trust's detailed capital account methodology honors Section 502(b) and allows the Class 10 and Class 11 Interests at the gross amount such interest holders would have received in a hypothetical liquidation of Highland's assets on the Petition Date calculated consistently with amounts set and approved (and sworn to) by Mr. Dondero and Mr. Waterhouse. Dugaboy ignores the timing requirement in Section 502(b) and seeks to allow the Class 11 Interests in amounts determined at some future date when the net assets are actually distributed.

18. Using each former limited partner's respective Petition Date capital account to fix the dollar amount of its Interest respects (a) the way Highland allocated the value of its assets and liabilities to its limited partners prior to and on the Petition Date,[14] (b) the priorities in the Limited Partnership Agreement and the Plan, (c) this Court's prior orders, and (d) the requirements of 11 U.S.C. § 502(b). Using the capital accounts results in each former limited partner's Interest—regardless of whether in Class 10 or Class 11—being allowed in an amount consistent with the capital account balances delivered to the partners and reported to the IRS on their respective Form K-1s both before and after the Petition Date.

Interest Holder	Class	Petition Date Capital Account Balance
HMIT	Class 10	$394,630,871.53*
Dugaboy	Class 11	$740,081.61
Strand Advisors, Inc.	Class 11	$994,707.76
Mark K. Okada	Class 11	$192,754.38
The Mark and Pamela Okada Family Trust – Exempt Trust #1	Class 11	$38,868.17
The Mark and Pamela Okada Family Trust – Exempt Trust #2	Class 11	$16,657.79
	TOTALS:	$396,613,941.24

19. In contrast, Dugaboy ignores (a) the priority provisions of the Limited Partnership Agreement and the resulting waterfall priorities in the Plan and CTA, (b) that HMIT's Class 10 Interest is fixed and HCLOM's Class 10 Interest is not only fixed but is incapable of being adjusted on a pro rata basis because it was never a limited partner, and (c) that the Class 11 Interests must be valued as of the Petition Date.

[14] The Limited Partnership Agreement required Highland to maintain a capital account for each limited partner that was (a) credited with (i) all property contributed to Highland by such limited partner and (ii) such limited partner's allocable share of Highland's profits and (b) debited by (i) all property distributed to the limited partner and (ii) the limited partner's allocable share of Highland's losses. LPA § 3.7(a); see also Delaware Revised Uniform Partnership Act, § 15-401(a). Consistent with that requirement, Highland, while under Mr. Dondero's control, continually updated each limited partner's capital account with its allocable share of profits and losses and reported such amounts to the Internal Revenue Service under penalty of perjury as "true, correct, and complete."

20. For the reasons set forth in the Motion and here, the Court should overrule Dugaboy's Objection and grant the Motion.

WHEREFORE, for the reasons set forth above and in the Motion, the Claimant Trust respectfully requests that the Court overrule the Objection and grant the Motion.

ARTICLE 3

FINANCIAL MATTERS

3.1. Capital Contributions.

(a) Initial Capital Contributions. The initial Capital Contribution of each Partner shall be set forth in the books and records of the Partnership.

(b) Additional Capital Contributions.

(i) The General Partner, in its reasonable discretion and for a bona fide business purpose, may request in writing that the Founding Partner Group make additional Capital Contributions in proportion to their Percentage Interests (each, an "Additional Capital Contribution").

(ii) Any failure by a Partner to make an Additional Capital Contribution requested under Section 3.1(b)(i) on or before the date on which that Additional Capital Contribution was due shall result in the Partner being in default.

(c) Consequences to Defaulting Partners. In the event a Partner is in default under Section 3.1(b) (a "Defaulting Partner"), the Defaulting Partner, in its sole and unfettered discretion, may elect to take either one of the option set forth below.

(i) Default Loans. If the Defaulting Partner so elects, the General Partner shall make a loan to the Defaulting Partner in an amount equal to that Defaulting Partner's additional capital contribution (a "Default Loan"). A Default Loan shall be deemed advanced on the date actually advanced. Default Loans shall earn interest on the outstanding principal amount thereof at a rate equal to the Applicable Federal Mid-Term Rate (determined by the Internal Revenue Service for the month in which the loan is deemed made) from the date actually advanced until the same is repaid in full. The term of any Default Loan shall be six (6) months, unless otherwise extended by the General Partner in its sole and unfettered discretion. If the General Partner makes a Default Loan, the Defaulting Partner shall not receive any distributions pursuant to Section 3.9(a) or Section 5.3 or any proceeds from the Transfer of all or any part of its Partnership Interest while the Default Loan remains unpaid. Instead, the Defaulting Partner's share of distributions or such other proceeds shall (until all Default Loans and interest thereon shall have been repaid in full) first be paid to the General Partner. Such payments shall be applied first to the payment of interest on such Default Loans and then to the repayment of the principal amounts thereof, but shall be considered, for all other purposes of this Agreement, to have been distributed to the Defaulting Partner. The Defaulting Partner shall be liable for the reasonable fees and expenses incurred by the General Partner (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements) in connection with any enforcement or foreclosure upon any Default Loan and such costs shall, to the extent enforceable under applicable law, be added to the principal amount of the applicable Default Loan. In addition, at any time during the term of such Default Loan, the Defaulting Partner shall have the right to repay, in full, the Default Loan (including interest and any other charges). If the General Partner makes a Default Loan, the Defaulting Partner shall be deemed to have pledged to the General Partner and granted to the General Partner a continuing first priority security interest in, all of the Defaulting Partner's Partnership Interest to secure the payment of the principal of, and interest on, such Default Loan in accordance with the provisions hereof, and for such purpose this Agreement shall constitute a security agreement. The Defaulting Partner shall promptly execute, acknowledge and deliver such financing statements, continuation statements or other documents and take such other actions as the General Partner shall request in writing in order to perfect or continue the perfection of such security interest; and, if the Defaulting Partner shall fail to do so within seven (7) days after the Defaulting Partner's receipt of a notice making demand therefor, the General Partner is hereby appointed the attorney-in-fact of, and is hereby authorized on behalf of, the Defaulting Partner, to execute, acknowledge and deliver all such documents and take all such other actions as may be required to perfect such security interest. Such appointment and authorization are coupled with an interest and shall be irrevocable. The General Partner shall, prior to exercising any right or remedy (whether at law, in equity or pursuant to the terms hereof) available to it in connection with such security interest, provide to the Defaulting Partner a notice, in reasonable detail, of the right or remedy to be exercised and the intended timing of such exercise which shall not be less than five (5) days following the date of such notice.

(ii) Reduction of Percentage Interest. If the Defaulting Partner does not elect to obtain a Default Loan pursuant to Section 3.1(c)(i), the General Partner shall reduce the Defaulting Partner's Percentage Interest in accordance with the following formula:

> The Defaulting Partner's new Percentage Interest shall equal the product of (1) the Defaulting Partner's current Percentage Interest, multiplied by (2) the quotient of (a) the current Capital Account of the Defaulting Partner (with such Capital Account determined after taking into account a revaluation of the Capital Accounts immediately prior to such determination), divided by (b) the sum of (i) the current Capital Account of the Defaulting Partner (with such Capital Account determined after taking into account a revaluation of the Capital Accounts immediately prior to such determination), plus (ii) the amount of the additional capital contribution that such Defaulting Partner failed to make when due.

To the extent any downward adjustment is made to the Percentage Interest of a Partner pursuant to this Section 3.1(c)(ii), any resulting benefit shall accrue to the Partners (other than the Defaulting Partner) in proportion to their respective Percentage Interests.

3.2. Allocations of Profits and Losses.

(a) Allocations of Profits. Except as provided in Sections 3.4, 3.5, and 3.6, Profits for any Fiscal Year will be allocated to the Partners as follows:

(ii) Next, to the Partners until cumulative Profits allocated under this Section 3.2(a)(ii) for all prior periods equal the cumulative Losses allocated to the Partners under Section 3.2(b)(ii) for all prior periods in the inverse order in which such Losses were allocated; and

(ii) Next, to the Partners in proportion to their respective positive Capital Account balances until the aggregate Capital Account balances of the Partners (excluding any negative Capital Account balances) equal zero; provided, however, losses shall first be allocated to reduce amounts that were last allocated to the Capital Accounts of the Partners; and

(iii) Then, to all Partners in proportion to their respective Percentage Interests.

(c) Limitation on Loss Allocations. If any allocation of Losses would cause a Limited Partner to have an Adjusted Capital Account Deficit, those Losses instead shall be allocated to the General Partner.

3.3. Allocations on Transfers. Taxable items of the Partnership attributable to a Partnership Interest that has been Transferred (including the simultaneous decrease in the Partnership Interest of existing Partners resulting from the admission of a new Partner) shall be allocated in accordance with Section 4.3(d).

3.4. Special Allocations. If the requisite stated conditions or facts are present, the following special allocations shall be made in the following order:

(a) Partnership Minimum Gain Chargeback. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article 3, if there is a net decrease in Partnership Minimum Gain during any taxable year or other period for which allocations are made, prior to any other allocation under this Agreement, each Partner shall be specially allocated items of Partnership income and gain for that period (and, if necessary, subsequent periods) in proportion to, and to the extent of, an amount equal to that Partner's share of the net decrease in Partnership Minimum Gain during that year determined in accordance with Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-2(g)(2). The items to be allocated shall be determined in accordance with Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-2(g). This Section 3.4(a) is intended to comply with the partnership minimum gain chargeback requirements of the Treasury Regulations and shall be subject to all exceptions provided therein.

The items to be so allocated shall be determined in accordance with Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-2(g). This Section 3.4(b) is intended to comply with the partner nonrecourse debt minimum gain chargeback requirements of the Treasury Regulations, shall be interpreted consistently with the Treasury Regulations and shall be subject to all exceptions provided therein.

(c) Qualified Income Offset. If a Partner unexpectedly receives any adjustments, allocations or distributions described in Treasury Regulations Sections 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d)(4), (d)(5) or (d)(6), then items of Partnership income and gain shall be specially allocated to each such Partner in an amount and manner sufficient to eliminate, to the extent required by the Treasury Regulations, the Adjusted Capital Account Deficit of the Partner as quickly as possible; provided, however, an allocation pursuant to this Section 3.4(c) shall be made if and only to the extent that the Partner would have an Adjusted Capital Account Deficit after all other allocations provided for in this Article 3 have been tentatively made without considering this Section 3.4(c).

(d) Gross Income Allocation. If a Partner has a deficit Capital Account at the end of any Fiscal Year of the Partnership that exceeds the sum of (i) the amount the Partner is obligated to restore, and (ii) the amount the Partner is deemed to be obligated to restore pursuant to the penultimate sentences of Treasury Regulations Sections 1.704-2(g)(1) and 1.704-2(i)(5), then each such Partner shall be specially allocated items of income and gain of the Partnership in the amount of the excess as quickly as possible; provided, however, an allocation pursuant to this Section 3.4(d) shall be made if and only to the extent that the Partner would have a deficit Capital Account in excess of that sum after all other allocations provided for in this Article 3 have been tentatively made without considering Section 3.4(c) or 3.4(d).

(e) Nonrecourse Deductions. Nonrecourse Deductions for any taxable year or other period for which allocations are made shall he allocated among the Partners in accordance with their Percentage interests.

(f) Partner Nonrecourse Deductions. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, any Partner Nonrecourse Deductions for any taxable year or other period for which allocations are made will be allocated to the Partner who bears the economic risk of loss with respect to the Partner Nonrecourse Debt to which the Partner Nonrecourse Deductions are attributable in accordance with Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-2(i).

(g) Section 754 Adjustments. To the extent an adjustment to the adjusted tax basis of any asset of the Partnership under Code Section 734(b) or Code Section 743(b) is required, pursuant to Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(m), to be taken into account in determining Capital Accounts, the amount of the adjustment to the Capital Accounts shall be treated as an item of gain (if the adjustment increases the basis of the asset) or loss (if the adjustment decreases the basis of the asset) and that gain or loss shall be specially allocated to the Partners in a manner consistent with the manner in which their Capital Accounts are required to be adjusted pursuant to that Section of the Treasury Regulations.

(h) Section 481 Adjustments. Any allocable items of income, gain, expense, deduction or credit required to be made by Section 481 of the Code as the result of the sale, transfer, exchange or issuance of a Partnership Interest will be specially allocated to the Partner receiving said Partnership Interest whether such items are positive or negative in amount.

3.5. Curative Allocations. The "Basic Regulatory Allocations" consist of (i) the allocations pursuant to Section 3.2(c), and (ii) the allocations pursuant to Sections 3.4. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Basic Regulatory Allocations shall be taken into account in allocating items of income, gain, loss and deduction among the Partners so that, to the extent possible, the net amount of the allocations of other items and the Basic Regulatory Allocations to each Partner shall be equal to the net amount that would have been allocated to each such Partner if the Basic Regulatory Allocations had not occurred. For purposes of applying the foregoing sentence, allocations pursuant to this Section 3.5 shall be made with respect to allocations pursuant to Section 3.4 (g) and (h) only to the extent that it is reasonably determined that those allocations will otherwise be inconsistent with the economic agreement among the Partners. To the extent that a special allocation under Section 3.4 is determined not to comply with applicable Treasury Regulations, then the Partners intend that the items shall be allocated in accordance with the Partners' varying Percentage Interests throughout each tax year during which such items are recognized for tax purposes.

3.6. Code Section 704(c) Allocations. In accordance with Code Section 704(c) and the Treasury Regulations thereunder, income, gain, loss and deduction with respect to property contributed to the capital of the Partnership shall, solely for tax purposes, be allocated among the Partners so as to take account of any variation at the time of the contribution between the tax basis of the property to the Partnership and the fair market value of that property. Except as otherwise provided herein, any elections or other decisions relating to those allocations shall be made by the General Partner in any manner that reasonably reflects the purpose and intent of this Agreement. Allocations of income, gain, loss and deduction pursuant to this Section 3.6 are solely for purposes of federal, state and local taxes and shall not affect, or in any way be taken into account in computing, the Capital Account of any Partner or the share of Profits, Losses, other tax items or distributions of any Partner pursuant to any provision of this Agreement.

3.7. Capital Accounts.

(a) Maintenance of Capital Accounts. The Partnership shall establish and maintain a separate capital account ("Capital Account") for each Partner in accordance with the rules of Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv), subject to and in accordance with the provisions set forth in this Section 3.7.

(i) The Capital Account balance of each Partner shall be credited (increased) by (A) the amount of cash contributed by that Partner to the capital of the Partnership, (B) the fair market value of property contributed by that Partner to the capital of the Partnership (net of liabilities secured by that contributed property that the Partnership assumes or takes subject to under Code Section 752), and (C) that Partner's allocable share of Profits and any items in the nature of income or gain which are specially allocated pursuant to Sections 3.4 and 3.5; and

The provisions of this Section 3.7 and the other provisions of this Agreement relating to the maintenance of Capital Accounts have been included in this Agreement to comply with Code Section 704(b) and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder and will be interpreted and applied in a manner consistent with those provisions. The General Partner may modify the manner in which the Capital Accounts are maintained under this Section 3.7 in order to comply with those provisions, as well as upon the occurrence of events that might otherwise cause this Agreement not to comply with those provisions.

(b) Negative Capital Accounts. (c) Interest. No interest shall be paid by the Partnership on Capital Contributions or on balances in Capital Accounts.

(d) No Withdrawal. No Partner shall be entitled to withdraw any part of his/her/its Capital Contribution or his/her/its Capital Account or to receive any distribution from the Partnership, except as provided in Section 3.9 and Article 5.

(e) Loans From Partners. Loans by a Partner to the Partnership shall not be considered Capital Contributions.

(f) Revaluations. The Capital Accounts of the Partners shall not be "booked-up" or "booked-down" to their fair market values under Treasury Regulations Section 1.704(c)-1(b)(2)(iv)(f) or otherwise.

3.8. Distributive Share for Tax Purpose. All items of income, deduction, gain, loss or credit that are recognized for federal income tax purposes will be allocated among the Partners in accordance with the allocations of Profits and Losses hereunder as determined by the General Partner in its sole and unfettered discretion. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the General Partner may (i) as to each New Issue, specially allocate to the Partners who were allocated New Issue Profit from that New Issue any short-term capital gains realized during the Fiscal Year upon the disposition of such New Issue during that Fiscal Year, and (ii) specially allocate items of gain (or loss) to Partners who withdraw capital during any Fiscal Year in a manner designed to ensure that each withdrawing Partner is allocated gain (or loss) in an amount equal to the difference between that Partner's Capital Account balance (or portion thereof being withdrawn) at the time of the withdrawal and the tax basis for his/her/ its Partnership Interest at that time (or proportionate amount thereof); provided, however, that the General Partner may, without the consent of any other Partner, (a) alter the allocation of any item of taxable income, gain, loss, deduction or credit in any specific instance where the General Partner, in its sole and unfettered discretion, determines such alteration to be necessary or appropriate to avoid a materially inequitable result (e.g., where the allocation would create an inappropriate tax liability); and/or (b) adopt whatever other method of allocating tax items as the General Partner determines is necessary or appropriate in order to be consistent with the spirit and intent of the Treasury Regulations under Code Sections 704(b) and 704(c).

3.9. Distributions.

(a) General. The General Partner may make such pro rata or non-pro rata distributions as it may determine in its sole and unfettered discretion, without being limited to current or accumulated income or gains, but no such distribution shall be made out of funds required to make current payments on Partnership indebtedness; provided, however, that the General Partner may not make non-pro rata distributions under this Section 3.9(a) during an NAV Ratio Trigger Period without the consent of the Class B Limited Partner (in the case of a Class B NAV Ratio Trigger Period) and/or the Class C Limited Partner (in the case of a Class C NAV Ratio Trigger Period); provided, further this provision should not be interpreted to limit in any way the General Partner's ability to make non-pro rata tax distributions under Section 3.9(c) and Section 3.9(f). The Partnership has entered into one or more credit facilities with financial institutions that may limit the amount and timing of distributions to the Partners. Thus, the Partners acknowledge that distributions from the Partnership may be limited. Any distributions made to the Class B Limited Partner or the Class C Limited Partner pursuant to Section 3.9(b) shall reduce distributions otherwise allocable to such Partners under this Section 3.9(a) until such aggregate reductions are equal to the aggregate distributions made to the Class B Partners and the Class C Partners under Section 3.9(b).

(b) Priority Distributions. Prior to the distribution of any amounts to Partners pursuant to Section 3.9(a), and notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement to the contrary, the Partnership shall make the following distributions ("Priority Distributions") pro-rata among the Class B Limited Partner and the Class C Limited Partner in accordance with their relative Percentage Interests:

(ii) No later than March 31st of each year, commencing March 31, 2017, an amount equal to three percent (3%) of the Partnership's investment gain for the prior year, as reflected in the Partnership's books and records within ledger account number 90100 plus three percent (3%) of the gross realized investment gains for the prior year of Highland Select Equity Fund, as reflected in its books and records;

(iii) No later than March 31st of each year, commencing March 31, 2017, an amount equal to ten percent (10%) of the Partnership's Operating Cash Flow for the prior year; and

(iv) No later than December 24th of each year, commencing December 24, 2016, an amount equal to the aggregate annual principal and interest payments on the Purchase Notes for the then current year.

(c) Tax Distributions. The General Partner may, in its sole discretion, declare and make cash distributions pursuant hereto to the Partners to allow the federal and state income tax attributable to the Partnership's taxable income that is passed through the Partnership to the Partners to be paid by such Partners (a "Tax Distribution"). The General Partner may, in its discretion, make Tax Distributions to the Founding Partner Group without also making Tax Distributions to other Partners; provided, however, that if the General Partner makes Tax Distributions to the Founding Partner Group, Tax Distributions must also be made the Class B Limited Partner to the extent the Class B Limited Partner provides the Partnership with documentation showing it is subject to an entity-level federal income tax obligation. Notwithstanding anything else in this Agreement, the General Partner may declare and pay Tax Distributions even if such Tax Distributions cause the Partnership to be unable to make Priority Distributions under Section 3.9(b).

(d) Payments Not Deemed Distributions. Any amounts paid pursuant to Sections 4.1(e) or 4.1(h) shall not be deemed to be distributions for purposes of this Agreement.

(e) Withheld Amounts. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 3.9 to the contrary, each Partner hereby authorizes the Partnership to withhold and to pay over, or otherwise pay, any withholding or other taxes payable by the Partnership with respect to that Partner as a result of that Partner's participation in the Partnership. If and to the extent that the Partnership shall be required to withhold or pay any such taxes, that Partner shall be deemed for all purposes of this Agreement to have received a payment from the Partnership as of the time that withholding or tax is paid, which payment shall be deemed to be a distribution with respect to that Partner's Partnership Interest to the extent that the Partner (or any successor to that Partner's Partnership Interest) is then entitled to receive a distribution. To the extent that the aggregate of such payments to a Partner for any period exceeds the distributions to which that Partner is entitled for that period, the amount of such excess shall be considered a loan from the Partnership to that Partner. Such loan shall bear interest (which interest shall be treated as an item of income to the Partnership) at the "Applicable Federal Rate" (as defined in the Code), as determined hereunder from time to time, until discharged by that Partner by repayment, which may be made in the sole and unfettered discretion of the General Partner out of distributions to which that Partner would otherwise be subsequently entitled. Any withholdings authorized by this Section 3.9(d) shall be made at the maximum applicable statutory rate under the applicable tax law unless the General Partner shall have received an opinion of counsel or other evidence satisfactory to the General Partner to the effect that a lower rate is applicable, or that no withholding is applicable.

(f) Special Tax Distributions. The Partnership shall, upon request of such Founding Partner, make distributions to the Founding Partners (or loans, at the election of the General Partner) in an amount necessary for each of them to pay their respective federal income tax obligations incurred through the effective date of the Third Amended and Restated Agreement of Limited Partnership of Highland Capital Management, L.P., the predecessor to this Agreement.

(g) Tolling of Priority Distributions. In the event of a "Honis Trigger Event," as defined in the Second Amended Buy-Sell and Redemption Agreement, the Partnership shall not make any distributions, including priority distributions under Section 3.9(b), to the Class B Limited Partner or the Class C Limited Partner until such time as a replacement trust administrator, manager and general partner, as applicable, acceptable to the Partnership in its sole discretion, as indicated by an affirmative vote of consent by a Majority Interest, shall be appointed to the Class B Limited Partner/Class C Limited Partner and any of its direct or indirect owners that have governing documents directly affected by a Honis Trigger Event.

3.10. Compensation and Reimbursement of General Partner.

(a) Compensation. The General Partner and any Affiliate of the General Partner shall receive no compensation from the Partnership for services rendered pursuant to this Agreement or any other agreements unless approved by a Majority Interest; provided, however, that no compensation above five million dollars per year may be approved, even by a Majority Interest, during a NAV Ratio Trigger Period.

(b) Reimbursement for Expenses. In addition to amounts paid under other Sections of this Agreement, the General Partner and its Affiliates shall be reimbursed for all expenses, disbursements, and advances incurred or made, and all fees, deposits, and other sums paid in connection with the organization and operation of the Partnership, the qualification of the Partnership to do business, and all related matters.

3.11. Books, Records, Accounting, and Reports.

(a) Records and Accounting. The General Partner shall keep or cause to be kept appropriate books and records with respect to the Partnership's business, which shall at all times be kept at the principal office of the Partnership or such other office as the General Partner may designate for such purpose. The books of the Partnership shall be maintained for financial reporting purposes on the accrual basis or on a cash basis, as the General Partner shall determine in its sole and unfettered discretion, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and applicable law. Upon reasonable request, the Class B Limited Partner or the Class C Limited Partner may inspect the books and records of the Partnership.

(b) Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Partnership shall be the calendar year unless otherwise determined by the General Partner in its sole and unfettered discretion.

(c) Other Information. The General Partner may release information concerning the operations of the Partnership to any financial institution or other Person that has loaned or may loan funds to the Partnership or the General Partner or any of its Affiliates, and may release such information to any other Person for reasons reasonably related to the business and operations of the Partnership or as required by law or regulation of any regulatory body.

(d) Distribution Reporting to Class B Limited Partner and Class C Limited Partner. Upon request, the Partnership shall provide the Class B Limited Partner and/or the Class C Limited Partner information on any non-pro rata distributions made under Section 3.9 to Partners other than the Partner requesting the information.

3.12. Tax Matters.

(a) Tax Returns. The General Partner shall arrange for the preparation and timely filing of all returns of Partnership income, gain, loss, deduction, credit and other items necessary for federal, state and local income tax purposes. The General Partner shall deliver to each Partner as copy of his/her/its IRS Form K-1 as soon as practicable after the end of the Fiscal Year, but in no event later than October 1. The classification, realization, and recognition of income, gain, loss, deduction, credit and other items shall be on the cash or accrual method of accounting for federal income tax purposes, as the General Partner shall determine in its sole and unfettered discretion. The General Partner in its sole and unfettered discretion may pay state and local income taxes attributable to operations of the Partnership and treat such taxes as an expense of the Partnership.

(b) Tax Elections. Except as otherwise provided herein, the General Partner shall, in its sole and unfettered discretion, determine whether to make any available tax election.

(c) Tax Controversies. Subject to the provisions hereof, the General Partner is designated the Tax Matters Partner (as defined in Code Section 6231), and is authorized and required to represent the Partnership, at the Partnership's expense, in connection with all examinations of the Partnership's affairs by tax authorities, including resulting administrative and judicial proceedings, and to expend Partnership funds for professional services and costs associated therewith. Each Partner agrees to cooperate with the General Partner in connection with such proceedings.

(d) Taxation as a Partnership. No election shall be made by the Partnership or any Partner for the Partnership to be excluded from the application of any of the provisions of Subchapter K, Chapter 1 of Subtitle A of the Code or from any similar provisions of any state tax laws.

(a) Management. The General Partner shall conduct, direct, and exercise full control of over all activities of the Partnership. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, all management powers over the business and affairs of the Partnership shall be exclusively vested in the General Partner, and Limited Partners shall have no right of control over the business and affairs of the Partnership. In addition to the powers now or hereafter granted to a general partner of a limited partnership under applicable law or that are granted to the General Partner under any provision of this Agreement, the General Partner shall have full power and authority to do all things deemed necessary or desirable by it to conduct the business of the Partnership, including, without limitation: (i) the determination of the activities in which the Partnership will participate; (ii) the performance of any and all acts necessary or appropriate to the operation of any business of the Partnership (including, without limitation, purchasing and selling any asset, any debt instruments, any equity interests, any commercial paper, any note receivables and any other obligations); (iii) the procuring and maintaining of such insurance as may be available in such amounts and covering such risks as are deemed appropriate by the General Partner; (iv) the acquisition, disposition, sale, mortgage, pledge, encumbrance, hyphothecation, of exchange of any or all of the assets of the Partnership; (v) the execution and delivery on behalf of, and in the name of the Partnership, deeds, deeds of trust, notes, leases, subleases, mortgages, bills of sale and any and all other contracts or instruments necessary or incidental to the conduct of the Partnership's business; (vi) the making of any expenditures, the borrowing of money, the guaranteeing of indebtedness and other liabilities, the issuance of evidences of indebtedness, and the incurrence of any obligations it deems necessary or advisable for the conduct of the activities of the Partnership, including, without limitation, the payment of compensation and reimbursement to the General Partner and its Affiliates pursuant to Section 3.10; (vii) the use of the assets of the Partnership (including, without limitation, cash on hand) for any Partnership purpose on any terms it sees fit, including, without limitation, the financing of operations of the Partnership, the lending of funds to other Persons, and the repayment of obligations of the Partnership; (viii) the negotiation, execution, and performance of any contracts that it considers desirable, useful, or necessary to the conduct of the business or operations of the Partnership or the implementation of the General Partner's powers under this Agreement; (ix) the distribution of Partnership cash or other assets; (x) the selection, hiring and dismissal of employees, attorneys, accountants, consultants, contractors, agents and representatives and the determination of their compensation and other teens of employment or hiring; (xi) the formation of any further limited or general partnerships, joint ventures, or other relationships that it deems desirable and the contribution to such partnerships, ventures, or relationships of assets and properties of the Partnership; and (xii) the control of any matters affecting the rights and obligations of the Partnership, including, without limitation, the conduct of any litigation, the incurring of legal expenses, and the settlement of claims and suits.

(b) Certificate of Limited Partnership. The General Partner caused the Certificate of Limited Partnership of the Partnership to be filed with the Secretary of State of Delaware as required by the Delaware Act and shall cause to be filed such other certificates or documents (including, without limitation, copies, amendments, or restatements of this Agreement) as may be determined by the General Partner to be reasonable and necessary or appropriate for the formation, qualification, or registration and operation of a limited partnership (or a partnership in which Limited Partners have limited liability) in the State of Delaware and in any other state where the Partnership may elect to do business.

(c) Reliance by Third Parties. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, no lender or purchaser or other Person, including any purchaser of property from the Partnership or any other Person dealing with the Partnership, shall be required to verify any representation by the General Partner as to its authority to encumber, sell, or otherwise use any assess or properties of the Partnership, and any such lender, purchaser, or other Person shall be entitled to rely exclusively on such representations and shall be entitled to deal with the General Partner as if it were the sole party in interest therein, both legally and beneficially. Each Limited Partner hereby waives any and all defenses or other remedies that may be available against any such lender, purchaser, or other Person to contest, negate, or disaffirm any action of the General Partner in connection with any such sale or financing. In no event shall any Person dealing with the General Partner or the General Partner's representative with respect to any business or property of the Partnership be obligated to ascertain that the terms of this Agreement have been complied with, and each such Person shall be entitled to rely on the assumptions that the Partnership has been duly formed and is validly in existence. In no event shall any such Person be obligated to inquire into the necessity or expedience of any act or action of the General Partner or the General Partner's representative, and every contract, agreement, deed, mortgage, security agreement, promissory note, or other instrument or document executed by the General Partner or the General Partner's representative with respect to any business or property of the Partnership shall be conclusive evidence in favor of any and every Person relying thereon or claiming thereunder that (i), at the time of the execution and delivery thereof, this Agreement was in full force and effect; (ii) such instrument or document was duly executed in accordance with the terms and provisions of this Agreement and is binding upon the Partnership; and (iii) the General Partner or the General Partner's representative was duly authorized and empowered to execute and deliver any and every such instrument or document for and on behalf of the Partnership.

(d) Partnership Funds. The funds of the Partnership shall be deposited in such account or accounts as are designated by the General Partner. The General Partner may, in its sole and unfettered discretion, deposit funds of the Partnership in a central disbursing account maintained by or in the name of the General Partner, the Partnership, or any other Person into which funds of the General Partner, the Partnership, on other Persons are also deposited; provided, however, at all times books of account are maintained that show the amount of funds of the Partnership on deposit in such account and interest accrued with respect to such funds as credited to the Partnership. The General Partner may use the funds of the Partnership as compensating balances for its benefit; provided, however, such funds do not directly or indirectly secure, and are not otherwise at risk on account of, any indebtedness or other obligation of the General Partner or any director, officer, employee, agent, representative, or Affiliate thereof. Nothing in this Section 4.1(d) shall be deemed to prohibit or limit in any manner the right of the Partnership to lend funds to the General Partner or any Affiliate thereof pursuant to Section 4.1(e)(i). All withdrawals from or charges against such accounts shall be made by the General Partner or by its representatives. Funds of the Partnership may be invested as determined by the General Partner in accordance with the terms and provisions of this Agreement.

(i) The General Partner or any Affiliate of the General Partner may lend to the Partnership funds needed by the Partnership for such periods of time as the General Partner may determine; provided, however, the General Partner or its Affiliate may not charge the Partnership interest at a rate greater than the rate (including points or other financing charges or fees) that would be charged the Partnership (without reference to the General Partner's financial abilities or guaranties) by unrelated lenders on comparable loans. The Partnership shall reimburse the General Partner or its Affiliate, as the case may be, for any costs incurred by the General Partner or that Affiliate in connection with the borrowing of funds obtained by the General Partner or that Affiliate and loaned to the Partnership. The Partnership may loan funds to the General Partner and any member of the Founding Partner Group at the General Partner's sole and exclusive discretion.

(ii) The General Partner or any of its Affiliates may enter into an agreement with the Partnership to render services, including management services, for the Partnership. Any service rendered for the Partnership by the General Partner or any Affiliate thereof shall be on terms that are fair and reasonable to the Partnership.

(iii) The Partnership may Transfer any assets to joint ventures or other partnerships in which it is or thereby becomes a participant upon terms and subject to such conditions consistent with applicable law as the General Partner deems appropriate; provided, however, that the Partnership may not transfer any asset to the General Partner or one of its Affiliates during any NAV Ratio Trigger Period for consideration less than such asset's fair market value.

(f) Outside Activities' Conflicts of Interest. The General Partner or any Affiliate thereof and any director, officer, employee, agent, or representative of the General Partner or any Affiliate thereof shall be entitled to and may have business interests and engage in business activities in addition to those relating to the Partnership, including, without limitation, business interests and activities in direct competition with the Partnership. Neither the Partnership nor any of the Partners shall have any rights by virtue of this Agreement or the partnership relationship created hereby in any business ventures of the General Partner, any Affiliate thereof, or any director, officer, employee, agent, or representative of either the General Partner or any Affiliate thereof.

(g) Resolution of Conflicts of Interest. Unless otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement or any other agreement contemplated herein, whenever a conflict of interest exists or arises between the General Partner or any of its Affiliates, on the one hand, and the Partnership or any Limited Partner, on the other hand, any action taken by the General Partner, in the absence of bad faith by the General Partner, shall not constitute a breach of this Agreement or any other agreement contemplated herein or a breach of any standard of care or duty imposed herein or therein or under the Delaware Act or any other applicable law, rule, or regulation.

(h) Indemnification. The Partnership shall indemnify and hold harmless the General Partner and any director, officer, employee, agent, or representative of the General Partner (collectively, the "GP Party"), against all liabilities, losses, and damages incurred by any of them by reason of any act performed or omitted to be performed in the name of or on behalf of the Partnership, or in connection with the Partnership's business, including, without limitation, attorneys' fees and any amounts expended in the settlement of any claims or liabilities, losses, or damages, to the fullest extent permitted by the Delaware Act; provided, however, the Partnership shall have no obligation to indemnify and hold harmless a GP Party for any action or inaction that constitutes gross negligence or willful or wanton misconduct. The Partnership, in the sole and unfettered discretion of the General Partner, may indemnify and hold harmless any Limited Partner, employee, agent, or representative of the Partnership, any Person who is or was serving at the request of the Partnership acting through the General Partner as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, agent, or representative of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, and any other Person to the extent determined by the General Partner in its sole and unfettered discretion, but in no event shall such indemnification exceed the indemnification permitted by the Delaware Act. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 4.1(h) or elsewhere in this Agreement, no amendment to the Delaware Act after the date of this Agreement shall reduce or limit in any manner the indemnification provided for or permitted by this Section 4.1(h) unless such reduction or limitation is mandated by such amendment for limited partnerships formed prior to the enactment of such amendment. In no event shall Limited Partners be subject to personal liability by reason of the indemnification provisions of this Agreement.

(i) Liability of General Partner.

(i) Neither the General Partner nor its directors, officers, employees, agents, or representatives shall be liable to the Partnership or any Limited Partner for errors in judgment or for any acts or omissions that do not constitute gross negligence or willful or wanton misconduct.

(ii) The General Partner may exercise any of the powers granted to it by this Agreement and perform any of the duties imposed upon it hereunder either directly or by or through its directors, officers, employees, agents, or representatives, and the General Partner shall not be responsible for any misconduct or negligence on the part of any agent or representative appointed by the General Partner.

(j) Reliance by General Partner.

(i) The General Partner may rely and shall be protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, consent, order, bond, debenture, or other paper or document believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties.

(ii) The General Partner may consult with legal counsel, accountants, appraisers, management consultants, investment bankers, and other consultants and advisers selected by it, and any opinion of any such Person as to matters which the General Partner believes to be within such Person's professional or expert competence shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken or suffered or omitted by the General Partner hereunder in good faith and in accordance with such opinion.

(k) The General Partner may, from time to time, designate one or more Persons to be officers of the Partnership. No officer need be a Partner. Any officers so designated shall have such authority and perform such duties as the General Partner may, from time to time, delegate to them. The General Partner may assign titles to particular officers, including, without limitation, president, vice president, secretary, assistant secretary, treasurer and assistant treasurer. Each officer shall hold office until such Person's successor shall be duly designated and shall qualify or until such Person's death or until such Person shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided. Any number of offices may be held by the same Person. The salaries or other compensation, if any, of the officers and agents of the Partnership shall be fixed from time to time by the General Partner. Any officer may be removed as such, either with or without cause, by the General Partner whenever in the General Partner's judgment the best interests of the Partnership will be served thereby. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the Partnership may be filled by the General Partner.

4.2. Rights and Obligations of Limited Partners. In addition to the rights and obligations of Limited Partners set forth elsewhere in this Agreement, Limited Partners shall have the following rights and obligations:

(a) Limitation of Liability. Limited Partners shall have no liability under this Agreement except as provided herein or under the Delaware Act.

(b) Management of Business. No Limited Partner shall take part in the control (within the meaning of the Delaware Act) of the Partnership's business, transact any business in the Partnership's name, or have the power to sign documents for or otherwise bind the Partnership other than as specifically set forth in this Agreement.

(c) Return of Capital. No Limited Partner shall be entitled to the withdrawal or return of its Capital Contribution except to the extent, if any, that distributions made pursuant to this Agreement or upon termination of the Partnership may be considered as such by law and then only to the extent provided for in this Agreement.

(d) Second Amended Buy-Sell and Redemption Agreement. Each Limited Partner shall comply with the terms and conditions of the Second Amended Buy-Sell and Redemption Agreement.

(e) Default on Priority Distributions. If the Partnership fails to timely pay Priority Distributions pursuant to Section 3.9(b), and the Partnership does not subsequently make such Priority Distribution within ninety days of its due date, the Class B Limited Partner or the Class C Limited Partner may require the Partnership to liquidate publicly traded securities held by the Partnership or Highland Select Equity Master Fund, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership controlled by the Partnership; provided, however, that the General Partner may in its sole discretion elect instead to liquidate other non-publicly traded securities owned by the Partnership in order to satisfy the Partnership's obligations under Section 3.9(b) and this Section 4.2(e). In either case, Affiliates of the General Partner shall have the right of first offer to purchase any securities liquidated under this Section 4.2(e).

4.3. Transfer of Partnership Interests.

(a) Transfer. No Partnership Interest shall be Transferred, in whole or in part, except in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in this Section 4.3 and the Second Amended Buy-Sell and Redemption Agreement. Any Transfer or purported Transfer of any Partnership Interest not made in accordance with this Section 4.3 and the Second Amended Buy-Sell and Redemption Agreement shall be null and void. An alleged transferee shall have no right to require any information or account of the Partnership's transactions or to inspect the Partnership's books. The Partnership shall be entitled to treat the alleged transferor of a Partnership Interest as the absolute owner thereof in all respects, and shall incur no liability to any alleged transferee for distributions to the Partner owning that Partnership Interest of record or for allocations of Profits, Losses, deductions or credits or for transmittal of reports and notices required to be given to holders of Partnership Interests.

(b) Transfers by General Partner. The General Partner may Transfer all, but not less than all, of its Partnership Interest to any Person only with the approval of a Majority Interest; provided, however, that the General Partner may not Transfer its Partnership Interest during any NAV Ratio Trigger Period except to the extent such Transfers are for estate planning purposes or resulting from the death of the individual owner of the General Partner. Any Transfer by the General Partner of its Partnership Interest under this Section 4.3(b) to an Affiliate of the General Partner or any other Person shall not constitute a withdrawal of the General Partner under Section 4.5(a), Section 5.1(b), or any other provision of this Agreement. If any such Transfer is deemed to constitute a withdrawal under such provisions or otherwise and results in the dissolution of the Partnership under this Agreement or the laws of any jurisdiction to which the Partnership of this Agreement is subject, the Partners hereby unanimously consent to the reconstitution and continuation of the Partnership immediately following such dissolution, pursuant to Section 5.2.

(c) Transfers by Limited Partners. The Partnership Interest of a Limited Partner may not be Transferred without the consent of the General Partner (which consent may be withheld in the sole and unfettered discretion of the General Partner), and in accordance with the Second Amended Buy-Sell and Redemption Agreement.

(d) Distributions and Allocations in Respect of Transferred Partnership Interests. If any Partnership Interest is Transferred during any Fiscal Year in compliance with the provisions of Article 4 and the Second Amended Buy-Sell and Redemption Agreement, Profits, Losses, and all other items attributable to the transferred interest for that period shall be divided and allocated between the transferor and the transferee by taking into account their varying interests during the period in accordance with Code Section 706(d), using any conventions permitted by law and selected by the General Partner; provided that no allocations shall be made under this Section 4.3(d) that would affect any special allocations made under Section 3.4. All distributions declared on or before the date of that Transfer shall be made to the transferor. Solely for purposes of making such allocations and distributions, the Partnership shall recognize that Transfer not later than the end of the calendar month during which it is given notice of that Transfer; provided, however, if the Partnership does not receive a notice stating the date that Partnership Interest was Transferred and such other information as the General Partner may reasonably require within thirty (30) days after the end of the Fiscal Year during which the Transfer occurs, then all of such items shall be allocated, and all distributions shall be made, to the person who, according to the books and records of the Partnership, on the last day of the Fiscal Year during which the Transfer occurs, was the owner of the Partnership Interest. Neither the Partnership nor any Partner shall incur any liability for making allocations and distributions in accordance with the provisions of this Section 4.3(d), whether or not any Partner or the Partnership has knowledge of any Transfer of ownership of any Partnership Interest.

(e) Forfeiture of Partnership Interests Pursuant to the Contribution Note. In the event any Class B Limited Partnership Interests are forfeited in favor of the Partnership as a result of any default on the Contribution Note, the Capital Accounts and Percentage Interests associated with such Class B Limited Partnership Interests shall be allocated pro rata among the Class A Partners. The Priority Distributions in Section 3.9(b) made after the date of such forfeiture shall each be reduced by an amount equal to the ratio of the Percentage Interest associated with the Class B Limited Partnership Interest transferred pursuant to this Section 4.3(e) over the aggregate Percentage Interests of all Class B Limited Partnership Interests and Class C Limited Partnership Interests, calculated immediately prior to any forfeiture of such Class B Limited Partnership Interest.

(f) Transfers of Partnership Interests Pursuant to the Purchase Notes. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement, the Partnership shall respect, and the General Partner hereby provides automatic consent for, any transfers (in whole or transfers of partial interests) of the Class C Limited Partnership Interests, or a portion thereof, if such transfer occurs as a result of a default on the Purchase Notes. Upon the transfer of any Class C Limited Partnership Interest to any member of the Founding Partner Group (or their assigns), such Class C Limited Partnership Interest shall automatically convert to a Class A Partnership Interest. The Priority Distributions in Section 3.9(b) shall each be reduced by an amount equal to the ratio of the Percentage Interest associated with the transferred Class C Limited Partnership Interest over the aggregate Percentage Interests of all Class B Limited Partnership Interests and Class C Limited Partnership Interests, calculated immediately prior to any transfer of such Class C Limited Partnership Interest.

4.4. Issuances of Partnership Interests to New and Existing Partners.

(a) Issuance of Partnership Interests to New Limited Partners. The General Partner may admit one or more additional Persons as Limited Partners ("Additional Limited Partners") to the Partnership at such times and upon such terms as it deems appropriate in its sole and unfettered discretion; provided, however, that the General Partner may only admit additional Persons as Limited Partners in relation to the issuance of equity incentives to key employees of the Partnership; provided, further that the General Partner may not issue such equity incentives to the extent they entitle the holders, in the aggregate, to a Percentage Interest in excess of twenty percent without the consent of the Class B Limited Partner and the Class C Limited Partner. All Class A Limited Partners, the Class B Limited Partner and the Class C Limited Partner shall be diluted proportionately by the issuance of such limited partnership interests. No Person may be admitted to the Partnership as a Limited Partner until he/she/it executes an Addendum to this Agreement in the form attached as Exhibit B (which may be modified by the General Partner in its sole and unfettered discretion) and an addendum to the Second Amended Buy-Sell and Redemption Agreement.

(b) Issuance of an Additional Partnership Interest to an Existing Partner. The General Partner may issue an additional Partnership Interest to any existing Partner at such times and upon such terms as it deems appropriate in its sole and unfettered discretion. Upon the issuance of an additional Partnership Interest to an existing Partner, the Percentage Interests of the members of the Founding Partner Group shall be diluted proportionately. Any additional Partnership Interest shall be subject to all the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the Second Amended Buy-Sell and Redemption Agreement.

4.5. Withdrawal of General Partner

(a) Option. In the event of the withdrawal of the General Partner from the Partnership, the departing General Partner (the "Departing Partner") shall, at the option of its successor (if any) exercisable prior to the effective date of the departure of that Departing Partner, promptly receive from its successor in exchange for its Partnership Interest as the General Partner, an amount in cash equal to its Capital Account balance, determined as of the effective date of its departure.

(b) Conversion. If the successor to a Departing Partner does not exercise the option described in Section 4.5(a), the Partnership Interest of the Departing Partner as the General Partner of the Partnership shall be converted into a Partnership Interest as a Limited Partner.

4.6. Admission of Substitute Limited Partners and Successor General Partner.

(a) Admission of Substitute Limited Partners. A transferee (which may be the heir or legatee of a Limited Partner) or assignee of a Limited Partner's Partnership Interest shall be entitled to receive only the distributive share of the Partnership's Profits, Losses, deductions, and credits attributable to that Partnership Interest. To become a substitute Limited Partner (a "Substitute Limited Partner"), that transferee or assignee shall (1) obtain the consent of the General Partner (which consent may be withheld in the sole and unfettered discretion of the General Partner), (ii) comply with all the requirements of this Agreement and the Second Amended Buy-Sell and Redemption Agreement with respect to the Transfer of the Partnership Interest at issue, and (iii) execute an Addendum to this Agreement in the form attached as Exhibit B (which may be modified by the General Partner in its sole and unfettered discretion) and an addendum to the Second Amended Buy-Sell and Redemption Agreement. Upon admission of a Substitute Limited Partner, that Limited Partner shall be subject to all of the restrictions applicable to, shall assume all of the obligations of, and shall attain the status of a Limited Partner under and pursuant to this Agreement with respect to the Partnership Interest held by that Limited Partner.

(b) Admission of Successor General Partner. A successor General Partner selected pursuant to Section 5.2 or the transferee of or successor to all of the Partnership Interest of the General Partner pursuant to Section 4.3(b) shall be admitted to the Partnership as the General Partner, effective as of the date of the withdrawal or removal of the predecessor General Partner or the date of Transfer of that predecessor's Partnership Interest.

(c) Action by General Partner. In connection with the admission of any substitute Limited Partner or successor General Partner or any additional Limited Partner, the General Partner shall have the authority to take all such actions as it deems necessary or advisable in connection therewith, including the amendment of Exhibit A and the execution and filing with appropriate authorities of any necessary documentation.

ARTICLE 5

DISSOLUTION AND WINDING UP

5.1. Dissolution. The Partnership shall be dissolved upon:

(a) The withdrawal, bankruptcy, or dissolution of the General Partner, or any other event that results in its ceasing to be the General Partner (other than by reason of a Transfer pursuant to Section 4.3(b));

(b) An election to dissolve the Partnership by the General Partner that is approved by the affirmative vote of a Majority Interest; provided, however, the General Partner may dissolve the Partnership without the approval of the Limited Partners in order to comply with Section 14 of the Second Amended Buy-Sell and Redemption Agreement; or

(c) Any other event that, under the Delaware Act, would cause its dissolution.

For purposes of this Section 5.1, the bankruptcy of the General Partner shall be deemed to have occurred when the General Partner: (i) makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors; (ii) files a voluntary bankruptcy petition; (iii) becomes the subject of an order for relief or is declared insolvent in any federal or state bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding: (iv) files a petition or answer seeking a reorganization, arrangement, composition, readjustment, liquidation, dissolution, or similar relief under any law; (v) files an answer or other pleading admitting or failing to contest the material allegations of a petition filed against the General Partner in a proceeding of the type described in clauses (i) through (iv) of this paragraph; (vi) seeks, consents to, or acquiesces in the appointment of a trustee, receiver, or liquidator of the General Partner or of all or any substantial part of the General Partner's properties; or (vii) one hundred twenty (120) days expire after the date of the commencement of a proceeding against the General Partner seeking reorganization, arrangement, composition, readjustment, liquidation, dissolution, or similar relief under any law if the proceeding has not been previously dismissed, or ninety (90) days expire after the date of the appointment, without the General Partner's consent or acquiescence, of a trustee, receiver, or liquidator of the General Partner or of all or any substantial part of the General Partner's properties if the appointment has not previously been vacated or stayed, or ninety (90) days expire after the date of expiration of a stay, if the appointment has not previously been vacated.

5.2. Continuation of the Partnership. Upon the occurrence of an event described in Section 5.1(a), the Partnership shall be deemed to be dissolved and reconstituted if a Majority Interest elect to continue the Partnership within ninety (90) days of that event. If no election to continue the Partnership is made within ninety (90) days of that event, the Partnership shall conduct only activities necessary to wind up its affairs. If an election to continue the Partnership is made upon the occurrence of an event described in Section 5.1(a), then:

(a) Within that ninety (90)-day period a successor General Partner shall be selected by a Majority Interest;

(b) The Partnership shall be deemed to be reconstituted and shall continue until the end of the term for which it is formed unless earlier dissolved in accordance with this Article 5;

(c) The interest of the former General Partner shall be converted to an interest as a Limited Partner; and

(d) All necessary steps shall be taken to amend or restate this Agreement and the Certificate of Limited Partnership, and the successor General Partner may for this purpose amend this Agreement and the Certificate of Limited Partnership, as appropriate, without the consent of any Partner.

5.3. Liquidation. Upon dissolution of the Partnership, unless the Partnership is continued under Section 5.2, the General Partner or, in the event the General Partner has been dissolved, becomes bankrupt (as defined in Section 5.1), or withdraws from the Partnership, a liquidator or liquidating committee selected by a Majority Interest, shall be the Liquidator. The Liquidator (if other than the General Partner) shall be entitled to receive such compensation for its services as may be approved by a Majority Interest. The Liquidator shall agree not to resign at any time without fifteen (15) days' prior written notice and (if other than the General Partner) may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by notice of removal approved by a Majority Interest. Upon dissolution, removal, or resignation of the Liquidator, a successor and substitute Liquidator (who shall have and succeed to all rights, powers, and duties of the original Liquidator) shall within thirty (30) days thereafter be selected by a Majority Interest. The right to appoint a successor or substitute Liquidator in the manner provided herein shall be recurring and continuing for so long as the functions and services of the Liquidator are authorized to continue under the provisions hereof, and every reference herein to the Liquidator shall be deemed to refer also to any such successor or substitute Liquidator appointed in the manner provided herein. Except as expressly provided in this Article 5, the Liquidator appointed in the manner provided herein shall have and may exercise, without further authorization or consent of any of the parties hereto, all of the powers conferred upon the General Partner under the terms of this Agreement (but subject to all of the applicable limitations, contractual and otherwise, upon the exercise of such powers) to the extent necessary or desirable in the good faith judgment of the Liquidator to carry out the duties and functions of the Liquidator hereunder for and during such period of time as shall be reasonably required in the good faith judgment of the Liquidator to complete the winding up and liquidation of the Partnership as provided herein. The Liquidator shall liquidate the assets of the Partnership and apply and distribute the proceeds of such liquidation in the following order of priority, unless otherwise required by mandatory provisions of applicable law:

(a) To the payment of the expenses of the terminating transactions including, without limitation, brokerage commission, legal fees, accounting fees and closing costs;

(b) To the payment of creditors of the Partnership, including Partners, in order of priority provided by law;

(c) To the Partners and assignees to the extent of, and in proportion to, the positive balances in their respective Capital Accounts as provided in Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(b)(2); provided, however, the Liquidator may place in escrow a reserve of cash or other assets of the Partnership for contingent liabilities in an amount determined by the Liquidator to be appropriate for such purposes; and

5.4. Distribution in Kind. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 5.3 that require the liquidation of the assets of the Partnership, but subject to the order of priorities set forth therein, if on dissolution of the Partnership the Liquidator determines that an immediate sale of part or all of the Partnership's assets would be impractical or would cause undue loss to the Partners and assignees, the Liquidator may defer for a reasonable time the liquidation of any assets except those necessary to satisfy liabilities of the Partnership (other than those to Partners) and/or may distribute to the Partners and assignees, in lieu of cash, as tenants in common and in accordance with the provisions of Section 5.3, undivided interests in such Partnership assets as the Liquidator deems not suitable for liquidation. Any such distributions in kind shall be subject to such conditions relating to the disposition and management of such properties as the Liquidator deems reasonable and equitable and to any joint operating agreements or other agreements governing the operation of such properties at such time. The Liquidator shall determine the fair market value of any property distributed in kind using such reasonable method of valuation as it may adopt.

5.5. Cancellation of Certificate of Limited Partnership. Upon the completion of the distribution of Partnership property as provided in Sections 5.3 and 5.4, the Partnership shall be terminated, and the Liquidator (or the General Partner and Limited Partners if necessary) shall cause the cancellation of the Certificate of Limited Partnership in the State of Delaware and of all qualifications and registrations of the Partnership as a foreign limited partnership in jurisdictions other than the State of Delaware and shall take such other actions as may be necessary to terminate the Partnership.

5.6. Return of Capital. The General Partner shall not be personally liable for the return of the Capital Contributions of Limited Partners, or any portion thereof, it being expressly understood that any such return shall be made solely from Partnership assets.

5.7. Waiver of Partition. Each Partner hereby waives any rights to partition of the Partnership property.

ARTICLE 6

GENERAL PROVISIONS

6.1. Amendments to Agreement. The General Partner may amend this Agreement without the consent of any Partner if the General Partner reasonably determines that such amendment is necessary and appropriate; provided, however, any action taken by the General Partner shall be subject to its fiduciary duties to the Limited Partners under the Delaware Act; provided further that any amendments that adversely affect the Class B Limited Partner or the Class C Limited Partner may only be made with the consent of such Partner adversely affected.

6.2. Addresses and Notices. Any notice, demand, request, or report required or permitted to be given or made to a Partner under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed given or made when delivered in person or when sent by United States registered or certified mail to the Partner at his/her/its address as shown on the records of the Partnership, regardless of any claim of any Person who may have an interest in any Partnership Interest by reason of an assignment or otherwise.

6.3. Titles and Captions. All article and section titles and captions in the Agreement are for convenience only, shall not be deemed part of this Agreement, and in no way shall define, limit, extend, or describe the scope or intent of any provisions hereof. Except as specifically provided otherwise, references to "Articles," "Sections" and "Exhibits" are to "Articles," "Sections" and "Exhibits" of this Agreement. All Exhibits hereto are incorporated herein by reference.

6.4. Pronouns and Plurals. Whenever the context may require, any pronoun used in this Agreement shall include the corresponding masculine, feminine, or neuter forms, and the singular form of nouns, pronouns, and verbs shall include the plural and vice versa.

6.5. Further Action. The parties shall execute all documents, provide all information, and take or refrain from taking all actions as may be necessary or appropriate to achieve the purposes of this Agreement.

6.6. Binding Effect. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their heirs, executors, administrators, successors, legal representatives, and permitted assigns.

6.7. Integration. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement among the parties hereto pertaining to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings pertaining thereto.

6.8. Creditors. None of the provisions of this Agreement shall be for the benefit of or enforceable by any creditors of the Partnership.

6.9. Waiver. No failure by any party to insist upon the strict performance of any covenant, duty, agreement, or condition of this Agreement or to exercise any right or remedy consequent upon a breach thereof shall constitute waiver of any such breach or any other covenant, duty, agreement, or condition.

Report of Independent Auditors

To the General Partner of Highland Capital Management, L.P.

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Highland Capital Management, L.P. and its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Partnership"), which comprise the consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2018, and the related consolidated statements of income, of changes in partners' capital and of cash flows for the year then ended.

Management's Responsibility for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on our judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, we consider internal control relevant to the Partnership's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Partnership's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Highland Capital Management, L.P. and its subsidiaries as of December 31. 2018, and the results of their operations, changes in their partners' capital and their cash flows for the year then ended, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Other Matter

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the consolidated financial statements taken as a whole. The Supplemental Consolidating Balance Sheet, the Supplemental Consolidating Statement of Income, the Supplemental Unconsolidated Balance Sheet and the Supplemental Unconsolidated Statement of Income are presented for purposes of additional analysis and are not a required part of the consolidated financial statements. The information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the consolidated financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the consolidated financial statements or to the consolidated financial statements themselves and other additional procedures, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the consolidated financial statements taken as a whole.

1. Description of Business

Highland Capital Management, L.P. (the "Partnership") was formed on July 7, 1997 as a limited partnership in the state of Delaware. The Partnership is a registered investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 that manages collateralized loan obligations ("CLOs"), hedge funds, private equity funds, and other leveraged loan transactions that are collateralized predominately by senior secured bank debt and high-yield bonds. The Partnership and its subsidiaries make direct investments in debt, equity, and other securities in the normal course of business. The Partnership's general partner is Strand Advisors, Inc. (the "General Partner"). The Partnership is owned by an unaffiliated (other than through its direct ownership) trust as well as affiliated trusts and personal holdings of the senior management of the Partnership.

As of December 31, 2018, the Partnership provided investment advisory services for eighteen CLOs, five separate accounts, one master limited partnership, and nine hedge funds or private equity structures, with total fee-earning assets under management of approximately $3.1 billion. The Partnership also provides investment services on behalf of affiliate advisors.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The following is a summary of the significant accounting policies followed by the Partnership in preparation of its consolidated financial statements.

Basis of Accounting

The Partnership's consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP") as set forth in the Financial Accounting Standards Board's Accounting Standards Codification and are stated in the United States Dollar.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates and those differences could be material.

Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Partnership and the Partnership's consolidated subsidiaries ("Consolidated Entities"), which are comprised of (i) those entities in which it has controlling investment and has control over significant operating, financial and investing decisions, (ii) those entities in which it, as the general partner, has control over significant operating, financial and investing decisions, and (iii) variable interest entities ("VIEs") in which it is the primary beneficiary as described below.

The Partnership determines whether an entity has equity investors who lack the characteristics of a controlling financial interest or does not have sufficient equity at risk to finance its expected activities without additional subordinated financial support from other parties. If an entity has either of these characteristics, it is considered a VIE and must be consolidated by its primary beneficiary, which is the party that, along with its affiliates and de facto agents, absorbs a majority of the VIEs' expected losses or receives a majority of the expected residual returns as a result of holding variable interests.

Highland Capital Management, L.P.
(A Delaware Limited Partnership)
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
December 31, 2018

The Partnership assesses consolidation requirements pursuant to ASU 2015-02: Consolidation, which was adopted using the modified retrospective method and resulted in an effective date of adoption of January 1, 2016.

The Partnership and its affiliate's involvement with unconsolidated VIEs is generally limited to that of an advisory services provider, and their investment, if any, represents an insignificant interest in the relevant investment entities' assets under management. The Partnership's affiliate's exposure to risk in these entities is generally limited to any capital contribution it has made or is required to make and any earned but uncollected asset based and performance fees. The Partnership has not issued any investment performance guarantees to these VIEs or their investors, except that the Partnership has agreed to subject the full value of its equity interest in Highland Prometheus Fund to dollar-for-dollar reduction to the extent the third party investor in such fund does not achieve an annual target return.

	Unconsolidated VIE Net Assets	Carrying Value and Maximum Risk of Loss
Sponsored investment funds	$ 206,329	$ 12,178

Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities
The Partnership consolidates the following VIEs (along with majority owned funds: Highland Diversified Credit Fund, L.P., and Highland Select Equity Fund, L.P., collectively the "Consolidated Investment Funds"), as the Partnership (or its wholly owned subsidiaries) controls the general partner of the respective entities and is responsible for the daily operations of the following entities:

Noncontrolling interest of deconsolidated entities	(3,218)
Noncontrolling interest, December 31, 2018	$ 316,867

Investment Transactions
Investment transactions are recorded on a trade date basis. Investments in securities are valued at market or fair value at the date of the consolidated financial statements with the resulting net unrealized appreciation or depreciation reflected in the Consolidated Statement of Income. Realized gains and losses on the transactions are determined based on either the first-in, first-out or specific identification method.

See Note 5 for the Partnership's fair value process and hierarchy disclosures.

Management and Incentive Fee Revenue
The Partnership recognizes revenue as earned in connection with services provided under collateral and investment management agreements. Under these agreements, the Partnership earns management fees calculated as a percentage of assets under management or net asset value. The Partnership also has an opportunity to earn additional incentive fees and incentive allocations related to certain management agreements depending ultimately on the financial performance of the underlying assets the Partnership manages. During the year ended December 31, 2018, the Partnership and its Consolidated Entities recognized management fees and incentive fees of approximately $36.6 million and $0.1 million, respectively.

Shared Services Revenue
The Partnership recognizes revenue as earned in connection with services provided to related parties under various shared services agreements. Under these agreements, the Partnership earns fees for services including, but not limited to, back office support functions, marketing, and investment advisory services. During the year ended December 31, 2018, the Partnership and its Consolidated Entities recognized shared services revenue of approximately $9.2 million, which has been presented in Shared services fees in the Consolidated Statement of Income. See further discussion in Note 8.

Highland Capital Management, L.P.
(A Delaware Limited Partnership)
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Income and Expense Recognition
Interest on currently paying debt instruments is accrued as earned and dividend income and dividends on securities sold, not yet purchased are recorded on the ex-dividend date, net of withholding taxes. In certain instances where the asset has defaulted or some amount of the interest payment is deemed uncollectable, interest is recognized when received. Discounts and premiums associated with purchases of investments are accreted and amortized to interest income, except for deep-discounted debt where ultimate collection of interest and principal may be in doubt. Such accretion/amortization is calculated on an effective-yield basis over the life of the investment. Amendment fees are recognized when agreed to by the underlying company and all settlement contingencies are met. Operating expenses, including interest on securities sold short, not yet purchased, are recorded on the accrual basis as incurred.

Income Taxes
The Partnership is not subject to federal income taxes, and therefore, no provision has been made for such taxes in the accompanying consolidated financial statements. Income taxes are the responsibility of the partners. Certain consolidated subsidiaries are subject to federal income taxes.

Certain entities that are included in these consolidated financial statements are subject to federal and/or state income taxes. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in the period that includes the enactment date. See further discussion in Note 13.

Cash and Cash Equivalents
Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash held at U.S. and foreign banks, deposits with original maturities of less than 90 days, and money market funds. Cash equivalents are carried at cost, which approximates market value. At December 31, 2018, the Partnership and Consolidated Entities held cash balances at certain financial institutions in excess of the federally insured limit of $0.3 million. The Partnership and Consolidated Entities regularly monitor the credit quality of these institutions.

Notes Receivable
Notes receivable consists of secured promissory notes with maturities greater than one year. When available, the Partnership uses observable market data, including pricing on recent closed transactions to value notes. When appropriate, these notes may be valued using collateral values. Adjustments to the value may be performed in circumstances where attributes specific to the collateral exist suggesting impairment.

Other Intangible Assets
Goodwill and other intangible assets are recorded on the Consolidated Balance Sheet at current carrying values. The Partnership and its Consolidated Entities perform an impairment test on an annual basis. Any impairment in the value of other intangible assets is accounted for in the year when it occurs.

Fixed Assets and Leasehold Improvements
Fixed assets and leasehold improvements are carried at cost, less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is provided using the straight-line method over the shorter of the estimated useful life of the assets or the lease term.

The Partnership and its Consolidated Entities are depreciating fixed assets as follows:

	Period
Leasehold improvements	Lease term
Buildings	29 - 40 years
Furniture and fixtures	7 years
Computer and equipment	3 - 5 years
Computer software	3 years

Securities Sold, Not Yet Purchased
Certain of the Partnership's Consolidated Investment Funds engage in "short sales" as part of their investment strategies. Short selling is the practice of selling securities that are borrowed from a third party. The Consolidated Investment Funds are required to return securities equivalent to those borrowed for the short sale at the lender's demand.

Pending the return of such securities, the Consolidated Investment Funds deposit with the lender as collateral the proceeds of the short sale plus additional cash. The amount of the required deposit, which earns interest, is adjusted periodically to reflect any change in the market price of the securities that the Consolidated Investment Funds are required to return to the lender. A gain (which cannot exceed the price at which the Consolidated Investment Funds sold the security short) or a loss (which theoretically could be unlimited in size) will be settled upon termination of a short sale.

Due to/from Brokers
Due to and from broker balances recorded on the Consolidated Balance Sheet include liquid assets maintained with brokers and counterparties for margin account balances and the amounts due for or due from the settlement of purchase and sales transactions. Certain due to and from broker balances have been reported on a net-by-counterparty basis where, in accordance with contractual rights and the Partnership's opinion, there is a right of offset in the event of bankruptcy or default by a counterparty.

Options Contracts
The Partnership and the Consolidated Entities may purchase and write call and put options to gain market exposure or to hedge investments. A call option gives the purchaser of the option the right (but not the obligation) to buy, and obligates the seller to sell (when the option is exercised), the underlying position at the exercise price at any time or at a specified time during the option period. A put option gives the holder the right to sell and obligates the writer to buy the underlying position at the exercise price at any time or at a specified time during the option period. When the Partnership or the Consolidated Entities purchase (write) an option, an amount equal to the premium paid (received) by the entity is reflected as an asset (liability). The amount of the asset (liability) is subsequently marked-to-market to reflect the current market value of the option purchased (written). When a security is purchased (or sold) through an exercise of an option, the related premium paid (or received) is added to (or deducted from) the basis of the security acquired or deducted from (or added to) the proceeds of the security sold. When an option expires (or the Partnership or the Consolidated Entities enter into a closing transaction), the entity realizes a gain or loss on the option to the extent of the premiums received or paid (or gain or loss to the extent the cost of the closing transaction exceeds the premium received or paid). Exercise of a written option could result in the Partnership or the Consolidated Entities purchasing a security at a price different from the current market value.

Highland Capital Management, L.P.
(A Delaware Limited Partnership)
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
December 31, 2018

The Partnership and the Consolidated Entities are exposed to counterparty risk from the potential that a seller of an option contract does not sell or purchase the underlying asset as agreed under the terms of the option contract. The maximum risk of loss from counterparty risk to the Partnership and the Consolidated Entities is the greater of the fair value of its open option contracts or the premiums paid to purchase the open option contracts. The Partnership and the Consolidated Entities consider the credit risk of the intermediary counterparties to its option transactions in evaluating potential credit risk.

Margin Transactions
To obtain more investable cash, certain of the Consolidated Entities may use various forms of leverage including purchasing securities on margin. A margin transaction consists of purchasing an investment with money loaned by a broker and agreeing to repay the broker at a later date. Interest expense on the outstanding margin balance is based on market rates at the time of the borrowing.

Withdrawals Payable
Withdrawals are recognized as liabilities, net of incentive allocations, when the amount requested in the withdrawal notice becomes fixed and determinable. This generally may occur either at the time of receipt of the notice, or on the last day of a fiscal period, depending on the nature of the request. As a result, withdrawals paid after the end of the year, but based upon year-end capital balances are reflected as withdrawals payable at December 31, 2018. Withdrawal notices received for which the dollar amount is not fixed remains in capital until the amount is determined. At December 31, 2018, the Consolidated Investment Funds had withdrawals payable of $57.0 million.

Foreign Currency Transactions
The Partnership's subsidiaries HCM Singapore and HCM Korea use Singapore dollars and Korean won, respectively, as their functional currency. All foreign currency asset and liability balances are presented in U.S. dollars in the consolidated financial statements, translated using the exchange rate as of December 31, 2018. Revenues and expenses are recorded in U.S. dollars using an average exchange rate for the relative period. Foreign currency transaction gains and losses resulting from transactions outside of the functional currency of an entity are included in Other income on the Consolidated Statement of Income.

The Consolidated Entities do not isolate that portion of the results of operations resulting from changes in foreign exchange rates or investment or fluctuations from changes in market prices of securities held. Such fluctuations are included within the Net realized and unrealized gains or loss from investments on the Consolidated Statement of Income.

Life Settlement Contracts
One of the Consolidated Investment Funds, through a subsidiary, holds life settlement contracts and accounts for them using the fair value method. These contracts are recorded as a component of “Investments at fair value” on the Consolidated Balance Sheet. Realized and unrealized gains (losses) on the contracts are recorded in the Consolidated Income Statement. Cash flows relating to the purchase and sale of the contracts are recorded as a component of Purchase of investments and Proceeds from dispositions of investments on the Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows. At December 31, 2018, the Consolidated Investment Fund was invested in 13 policies, which had a total face value of approximately $145.3 million and a fair value of $35.7 million.

5. Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Fair Value Measurement

U.S. GAAP defines fair value as the price an entity would receive to sell an asset or pay to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants as of the measurement date. The standard requires fair value measurement techniques to reflect the assumptions market participants would use in pricing an asset or liability and, where possible, to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. It also establishes the following hierarchy that prioritizes the valuation inputs into three broad levels:

- Level 1 – Valuation based on unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities that the Partnership and the Consolidated Entities have the ability to access as of the measurement date. Valuations utilizing Level 1 inputs do not require any degree of judgment.

- Level 2 – Valuations based on (a) quoted prices for similar instruments in active markets; (b) quoted prices for identical or similar instruments in markets that are not active that are reflective of recent market transactions; or (c) models in which all significant inputs are observable, either directly or indirectly.

- Level 3 – Valuations based on indicative quotes that do not reflect recent market transactions and models or other valuation techniques in which the inputs are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement, which includes situations where there is little, if any, market activity for the asset or liability.

The availability of observable inputs varies among financial instruments and is affected by numerous factors, including the type of instruments, the period of time in which the instrument has been established in the marketplace, market liquidity for an asset class and other characteristics particular to a transaction. When the inputs used in a valuation model are unobservable, management is required to exercise a greater degree of judgment to determine fair value than it would for observable inputs. For certain instruments, the inputs used to measure fair value may fall into different levels of the hierarchy discussed above. In those cases, the instruments are categorized for disclosure purposes based on the lowest level of inputs that are significant to their fair value measurements.

The Partnership and Consolidated Entities use prices and inputs that are current as of the measurement dates. The Partnership also considers the counterparty's non-performance risk when measuring the fair value of its investments.

During periods of market dislocation, the ability to observe prices and inputs for certain instruments may change. These circumstances may result in the instruments being reclassified to different levels within the hierarchy over time. They also create an inherent risk in the estimation of fair value that could cause actual amounts to differ from management's estimates. Whenever possible, the Partnership and its Consolidated Entities use actual market prices or relevant observable inputs to establish the fair value of its assets and liabilities. In cases where observable inputs are not available, the Partnership and Consolidated Entities develop methodologies that provide appropriate fair value estimates. These methodologies are reviewed on a continuous basis to account for changing market conditions.

The Partnership has established policies, as described above, processes and procedures to ensure that valuation methodologies for investments and financial instruments that are categorized within all levels of the fair value hierarchy are fair and consistent. A Pricing Committee has been established to provide oversight of the valuation policies, processes and procedures, and is comprised of various personnel from the Partnership. The Pricing Committee meets monthly to review the proposed valuations for investments and financial instruments. The Pricing Committee is responsible for establishing the valuation policies and evaluating the overall fairness and consistent application of those policies.

As of December 31, 2018, the Partnership and its Consolidated Entities' investments consisted primarily of common equity securities, closed-end mutual funds, floating rate syndicated bank loans, real estate investment trusts, life settlement contracts, limited partnership interests, rights and warrants, LLC interests, asset-backed securities, and preferred equity. In addition, certain of the Consolidated Entities engage in short sale transactions. The majority of these financial instruments are not listed on national securities exchanges and management is required to use significant judgment to estimate their values.

Public Equity Investments
Publicly traded equities, including closed-end mutual funds and publicly traded REITs are valued at the closing price at the date of the financial statements. The fair value of equity investments that are not traded on national exchanges or through real-time quotation services are derived from methodologies that provide appropriate fair value estimates. Equity investments with quotes that are based on actual trades with a sufficient level of activity on or near the valuation date are classified as Level 2 assets.

Private Equity Investments
The Partnership and Consolidated Entities hold private equity investments which often resulted from the restructuring of other instruments which are classified as common equity securities. These assets are valued using market data obtained from a third-party pricing service and/or quotes from other parties dealing in the specific assets when available. In the event both a reliable market quote and third-party pricing service data are not available for such assets, the Partnership and Consolidated Entities will fair value the assets using various methodologies, as appropriate for individual investments, including comparable transaction multiples, comparable trading multiples, and/or discounted cash flow analysis. When utilizing comparable trading multiples, the Investment Manager determines comparable public companies (peers) based on industry, size, developmental stage, strategy, etc., and then calculates a trading multiple for each comparable company identified by using either a price to book ratio based on publically available information about the underlying comparable company or by dividing the enterprise value of the comparable company by its earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA) or similar metrics. In certain instances, the inputs used in the calculation of the trading multiples may vary based on the industry or development stage of the company. A multiple determined by the Investment Manager to be within a reasonable range as calculated amongst its peers is then applied to the underlying company's price to book ratio or EBITDA (which may be normalized to adjust for certain nonrecurring events), to calculate the fair value of the underlying company. The fair value may be further adjusted for entity specific facts and circumstances. Private equity investments with quotes that are based on actual trades with a sufficient level of activity on or near the valuation date are classified as Level 2 assets. Private equity investments that are priced using quotes derived from implied values, bid/ask prices for trades that were never consummated, or a limited amount of actual trades are classified as Level 3 assets because the inputs used by the brokers and pricing services to derive the values are not readily observable.

Highland Capital Management, L.P.
(A Delaware Limited Partnership)
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
December 31, 2018

The Consolidated Entities also invest in warrant securities of publicly–traded companies. The fair value of these investments is based on an option pricing model. The option model bases warrant value on a number of factors including underlying equity price as of the valuation date, strike price, exercise date, time to expiration and volatility. Warrant investments that have observable volatility are classified as Level 2 assets. Warrant investments where volatility inputs are not observable are valued using an estimated volatility input, and are classified as Level 3 assets.

Debt Securities
The Partnership and Consolidated Entities invest in various types of debt, including floating rate syndicated bank loans, which are almost exclusively valued using market data obtained from one or more third-party pricing services or brokers. In instances where a third-party pricing service does not provide pricing for a specific asset, the Partnership and Consolidated Entities first seek to obtain reliable market quotes from other parties dealing in the specific asset. Loans and bonds with quotes that are based on actual trades with a sufficient level of activity on or near the valuation date are classified as Level 2 assets. Loans and bonds that are priced using quotes derived from implied values, bid/ask prices for trades that were never consummated, or a limited amount of actual trades are classified as Level 3 assets because the inputs used by the brokers and pricing services to derive the values are not readily observable.

Absent both a reliable market quote and third-party pricing service date, the Partnership and Consolidated Entities may use various models to establish an estimated exit price. These investments are classified as Level 3 assets. Models used for debt securities are primarily based on identifying comparable assets for which market data is available and pricing the target asset consistent with the yields of the comparable assets. As circumstances require, other industry accepted techniques may be used in modeling debt assets.

Life Settlement Contracts
Life Settlement contracts are valued using mortality tables and interest rate assumptions that are deemed by management to be appropriate for the demographic characteristics of the parties insured under the policies. Management generally utilizes an independent third party firm to perform these calculations and provide the relevant inputs. Management evaluates the results based on visible market activity and market research. Since these inputs are not readily observable, these contracts are classified as Level 3 assets.

At December 31, 2018, the Consolidated Entities' investments in life settlement contracts consisted of the following:

(U.S. dollars in thousands, except number of policies)

Remaining Life Expectancy (in years)	Number of Policies	Face Value	Fair Value
1-2	-	$ -	$ -

Asset-Backed Securities
The Consolidated Entities invest in a variety of asset-backed securities. Asset-backed securities are generally valued based on complex cash flow models that analyze the cash flows generated by the investment's underlying assets after adjusting for expected default rates, prepayment rates, collateral quality, market liquidity among other factors. These models are then adjusted based on spreads available in the market place from various research firms, dealers, and trading activity. The Consolidated Entities generally utilize an independent third parties to provide the relevant inputs. The Consolidated Entities evaluate the results based on visible market activity and market research. When appropriate, the Consolidated Entities may apply other techniques based on a specific asset's characteristics. Asset-backed securities with quotes that are based on actual trades with a sufficient level of activity on or near the valuation date are classified as Level 2 assets. Asset-backed securities that are priced using quotes derived from implied values, bid/ask prices for trades that were never consummated, or a limited amount of actual trades are classified as Level 3 assets because the inputs used by the brokers and pricing services to derive the values are not readily observable.

Limited Partnership and LLC Interests
The Partnership and its Consolidated Entities hold limited partnership and LLC interests in various entities. These assets are valued as the net asset value of the limited partnership interests because the entities utilize fair value accounting for their own financial statements. These interests are classified as Level 3 assets.

The Partnership categorizes investments recorded at fair value in accordance with the hierarchy established under U.S. GAAP. The following table provides a summary of the financial instruments recorded at fair value on a recurring basis by level within the hierarchy as of December 31, 2018:

In addition to the unobservable inputs utilized for various valuation methodologies, the Partnership often uses a combination of two or more valuation methodologies to determine fair value for a single holding. In such instances, the Partnership assesses the methodologies and ascribes weightings to each methodology. The selection of weightings is an inherently subjective process, dependent on professional judgement. These selections may have a material impact to the concluded fair value for such holdings.

The significant unobservable inputs used in the fair value measurement of the Partnership's assets could fluctuate significantly, resulting in a significantly higher or lower fair value measurement.

6. Financial Instruments with Concentration of Credit and Other Risks

Financial Instruments
The Partnership and its Consolidated Entities' investments include, among other things, equity securities, debt securities (both investment and non-investment grade) and bank loans. The Consolidated Entities may also invest in derivative instruments, including total return and credit default swaps. Investments in these derivative instruments throughout the year subject the Consolidated Entities to off-balance sheet market risk, where changes in the market or fair value of the financial instruments underlying the derivative instruments may be in excess of the amounts recognized in the Consolidated Balance Sheet.

Market Risk
Market risk represents the potential loss that may be incurred by the Partnership and its Consolidated Entities due to a change in the market value of its investments or the value of the investments underlying swap agreements. The Partnership and its Consolidated Entities' exposure to market risk is affected by a number of macroeconomic factors, such as interest rates, availability of credit, inflation rates, economic uncertainty and changes in laws and regulations. These factors may affect the level and volatility of securities prices and the liquidity of the Partnership and its Consolidated Entities investments. Volatility or illiquidity could impair the Partnership and its Consolidated Entities performance or result in losses. The Partnership and its Consolidated Entities may maintain substantial trading positions that can be adversely affected by the level of volatility in the financial markets. The performance of life settlement contracts may be adversely impacted by the under estimation of mortality and other rates.

Credit Risk
Credit risk is the potential loss the Partnership and its Consolidated Entities may incur as a result of the failure of a counterparty or an issuer to make payments according to the terms of a contract. Because the Consolidated Entities enter into over-the-counter derivatives such as swaps, it is exposed to the credit risk of their counterparties. To limit the credit risk associated with such transactions, the Consolidated Entities execute transactions with financial institutions that the Investment Manager believes to be financially viable.

Liquidity Risk
The Consolidated Entities' limited partner interests have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933 or any other applicable securities law. There is no public market for the interests, and neither the Consolidated Entities nor their manager expects such a market to develop.

Business Risk
The Partnership provides advisory services to the Consolidated Entities. Consolidated Entities could be materially affected by the liquidity, credit and other events of the Partnership.

High Yield Bonds and Loans
The Partnership and its Consolidated Entities' investment portfolios consist of floating rate syndicated bank loans and fixed income securities that are not listed on a national securities exchange. These investments trade in a limited market and it may not be possible to immediately liquidate them if needed. In addition, certain of the Partnership and its Consolidated Entities' investments have resale or transfer restrictions that further reduce their liquidity. Because of the inherent uncertainty of these investments, the Investment Manager's best estimates may differ significantly from values that would have been used had a broader market for the investments existed.

When the Partnership and its Consolidated Entities purchase a senior secured syndicated bank loan, it enters into a contractual relationship directly with the corporate borrower, and as such, is exposed to certain degrees of risk, including interest rate risk, market risk and the potential non-payment of principal and interest, including default or bankruptcy of the corporate borrower or early payment by the corporate borrower. Typically, senior secured syndicated bank loans are secured by the assets of the corporate borrower and the Partnership and its Consolidated Entities have a policy of regularly reviewing the adequacy of each corporate borrower's collateral.

The Partnership and its Consolidated Entities may invest in high-yield bonds that have been assigned lower rating categories or are not rated by the various credit rating agencies. Bonds in the lower rating categories are generally considered to be speculative with respect to the issuer's ability to repay principal and pay interest. They are also subject to greater risks than bonds with higher ratings in the case of deterioration of general economic conditions. Due to these risks, the yields and prices of lower-rated bonds are generally volatile, and the market for them is limited, which may affect the ability to liquidate them if needed.

Debt Obligations
The Partnership and its Consolidated Entities' investment portfolio consists of collateralized loan obligations that are not listed on a national securities exchange. These investments trade in a limited market and it may not be possible to immediately liquidate them if needed. Because of the inherent uncertainty of these investments, the Partnership's best estimates may differ significantly from values that would have been used had broader market for the investments existed.

Distressed Investments
A portion of the high yield corporate bonds and senior secured syndicated bank loans in which the Partnership and its Consolidated Entities invest have been issued by distressed companies in an unstable financial condition that have experienced poor operating performance and may be involved in bankruptcy or other reorganization and liquidation proceedings. These investments have substantial inherent risks. Many of these distressed companies are likely to have significantly leveraged capital structures, which make them highly sensitive to declines in revenue and to increases in expenses and interest rates. The leveraged capital structure also exposes the companies to adverse economic factors, including macroeconomic conditions, which may affect their ability to repay borrowed amounts on schedule.

Corporate Bonds, Preferred Securities, and Loans
The Consolidated Entities may invest in corporate bonds, floating rate syndicated bank loans, and preferred securities which are rated in the lower rating categories by the various credit rating agencies (or in comparable non-rated securities). Securities in the lower rating categories are subject to greater risk of loss of principal and interest than higher-rated securities and are generally considered to be predominantly speculative with respect to the issuer's capacity to pay interest and repay principal. They are also subject to greater risks than securities with higher ratings in the case of deterioration of general economic conditions. Because of these greater risks associated with the lower-rated securities, the yields and prices of such securities may be more volatile than those for higher-rated securities. The market for lower-rated securities is thinner and less active than that for higher-rated securities, which could adversely affect the prices at which these securities may be sold by the Consolidated Entities.

Limited Diversification
The Investment Manager attempts to diversify the Consolidated Entities' investments. However, the Consolidated Entities' portfolios could become significantly concentrated in any one issuer, industry, sector strategy, country or geographic region, and such concentration of credit risk may increase the losses suffered by the Consolidated Entities. In addition, it is possible that the Investment Manager may select investments that are concentrated in certain classes of financial instruments. This limited diversity could expose the Consolidated Entities to losses that are disproportionate to market movements as a whole.

At December 31, 2018, the Consolidated Entities' investments were predominantly concentrated in the United States and Cayman Islands.

Exit Difficulties
The Partnership and its Consolidated Entities cannot assure investors that it will be able to exit its investments by sale or other disposition at attractive prices, if at all. The mergers and acquisitions and public securities markets are highly cyclical, which means that the Consolidated Entities' investments, even its best performing investments, may be illiquid for extended periods of time despite the Consolidated Entities' efforts to identify attractive exit opportunities. Additionally, a significant portion of the Consolidated Entities' assets at any time will likely consist of debt obligations and other securities that are thinly-traded, for which no market exists and/or are restricted as to their transferability under applicable law and/or documents governing particular transactions of the Consolidated Entities. In some cases, the Consolidated Entities may be unable to realize an investment prior to the date on which the Consolidated Entities are scheduled to terminate and/or have to sell or otherwise dispose of one or more investments on disadvantageous terms as a result of the Consolidated Entities' termination, or distribute such investments in kind.

Custody Risk
The clearing operations for the Partnership and its Consolidated Entities are provided by major financial institutions. In addition, all of the Partnership and its Consolidated Entities' cash and investments are held with banks or brokerage firms, which have worldwide custody facilities and are members of all major securities exchanges. The Partnership or its Consolidated Entities may lose all or a portion of the assets held by these banks or brokerage firms if they become insolvent or fail to perform pursuant to the terms of their obligations. While both the U.S. Bankruptcy Code and the Securities Investor Protection Act of 1970 seek to protect customer property in the event of a broker-dealer's failure, insolvency or liquidation, the Partnership and its Consolidated Entities might be unable to recover the full value of their assets or incur losses due to their assets being unavailable for a period of time.

Leverage Risk
The Consolidated Entities may borrow funds from brokers, banks and other lenders to finance its trading operations. The use of leverage can, in certain circumstances, magnify the losses to which the Consolidated Entities' investment portfolio may be subject. The use of margin and short-term borrowings creates several risks for the Consolidated Entities. If the value of the Consolidated Entities' securities fall below the margin level required by a counterparty, additional margin deposits would be required. If the Consolidated Entities are unable to satisfy a margin call, the counterparty could liquidate the Consolidated Entities' positions in some or all of the financial instruments that are in the account at the prime broker and cause the Consolidated Entities to incur significant losses. In addition, to the extent the Consolidated Entities have posted excess collateral for margin transactions, there is a risk that the counterparty will fail to fulfill its obligation to return the full value of that collateral.

The failure to satisfy a margin call, or the occurrence of other material defaults under margin or other financing agreements, may trigger cross-defaults under the Consolidated Entities' agreements with other brokers, lenders, clearing firms or other counterparties, multiplying the adverse impact to the Consolidated Entities. In addition, because the use of leverage allows the Consolidated Entities to control positions worth significantly more than its investment in those positions, the amount that the Consolidated Entities may lose in the event of adverse price movements is high in relation to the amount of their investment.

In the event of a sudden drop in the value of the Consolidated Entities' assets, the Consolidated Entities may not be able to liquidate assets quickly enough to satisfy their margin or collateral requirements. As a result, the Consolidated Entities may become subject to claims of financial intermediaries, and such claims could exceed the value of its assets. The banks and dealers that provide financing to the Consolidated Entities have the ability to apply discretionary margin, haircut, and financing and collateral valuation policies. Changes by banks and dealers in any of the foregoing may result in large margin calls, loss of financing and forced liquidations of positions and disadvantageous prices.

Foreign Currency Risk
The Partnership and its Consolidated Entities may invest in securities or maintain cash denominated in currencies other than the U.S. dollar. The Partnership and its Consolidated Entities are exposed to risk that the exchange rate of the U.S. dollar relative to other currencies may change in a manner that has an adverse effect on the reported value of the Partnership and its Consolidated Entities' assets and liabilities denominated in currencies other than the U.S. dollar.

Concentration of Investments
At December 31, 2018, the Consolidated Entities' investments and derivative contracts were predominantly concentrated in the United States and Cayman Islands and across several industries.

Litigation Risk
The Partnership and its Consolidated Entities are periodically subject to legal actions arising from the ordinary course of business. The ultimate outcome of these cases is inherently uncertain and could result in additional losses to the Partnership and/or its Consolidated Entities. Refer to Note 14 for a discussion of open litigation.

The General Partner has determined that there was no effect on the financial statements from the Partnership's application of this authoritative guidance. The General Partner does not expect a significant change in uncertain tax positions during the twelve months subsequent to December 31, 2018. As of December 31, 2018, the tax years that remain subject to examination by major tax jurisdictions under the statute of limitations is from the year 2015 forward (with limited exceptions).

The remaining entities consolidated by the Partnership had no uncertain tax positions which required accrual under U.S. GAAP.

14. Legal Proceedings

The Partnership and certain affiliated investment vehicles are defendants in a complaint filed on February 24, 2009 New York state court by UBS Securities LLC and UBS AG, London Branch relating to a CLO warehouse facility with respect to which UBS is attempting to extend liability beyond the two entities that bore sole risk of loss under the governing documents. On February 19, 2010, the court dismissed all claims against the Partnership. UBS since has filed additional claims against the Partnership and certain additional investment vehicles. On July 21, 2011, the First Appellate Division again dismissed two of UBS's four claims against the Partnership, severely limiting the remaining two claims. Additional claims were dismissed in a further appellate ruling issued on October 31, 2017. Certain claims were tried in July 2018 against two Highland-affiliated defendants, but the trial court has neither ruled on those claims nor indicated when it will set UBS's remaining claims for trial. The second trial, if it occurs, will try all claims against the Partnership and certain affiliated investment vehicles.

From time to time the Partnership is party to disputes with disgruntled former employees. One such matter involves a former employee that improperly recorded internal conversations in violation of the Partnership's internal policies and procedures and potentially certain criminal and regulatory provisions. The former employee obtained a $7.9 million judgment against Highland affiliate Acis Capital Management, L.P. ("Acis"). The employee currently is attempting to collect this judgment through various proceedings in Texas state and federal court, including claims against Highland for receipt of assets from Acis.

In another matter, a Court ruled that a former employee breached his fiduciary duty to the Partnership, owed damages to the Partnership, and ordered the former employee to cease using or disclosing the Partnership's confidential information. Additionally, an award was entered in favor of the employee against a separate incentive compensation entity for an interest that was already escrowed in his name prior to trial and in which he was already vested. The dispute over the amount of his vested interest is on-going. Additionally, the Partnership from time to time must take action to enforce the permanent injunction against the former employee's continuing improper disclosures of the Partnership's confidential information.

The Partnership is engaged in litigation and arbitration with a group of investors relating to the post-financial crisis wind down and distribution of the remaining assets in the Crusader hedge fund vehicle.

The Partnership currently is and has been previously subject to various legal proceedings, many of which have been due to the nature of operating in the distressed loan business in the U.S. The legal process is often the route of last resort to recover amounts due from delinquent borrowers. We currently do not anticipate these proceedings will have a material negative impact to the Partnership.

15. Subsequent Events

On March 18, 2019, SSP Holdings, LLC issued a promissory note to the Partnership in the amount of $2.0 million. The note accrues interest at a rate of 18%.

On March 26, 2019, Trussway Holdings, LLC issued a promissory note to the Partnership in the amount of $1.0 million. The note accrues interest at a rate of 10%.

WHEREAS, the Stipulation and Agreed Order converted the HCLOM Claim to a Class 10 interest/claim (as such is defined in Article III.H. ¶ 10 of the Fifth Amended Plan of Reorganization of Highland Capital Management, L.P. (as Modified) in the Bankruptcy Case) (the "Plan") in the amount of $10,140,633.26; and

WHEREAS, the Parties have agreed to certain rights and priorities solely as between themselves regarding HCLOM Ltd.'s participation in the payment of Class 10 interests/claims;

THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the promises, covenants, conditions, stipulations, benefits, and obligations described and provided herein, the sufficiency and adequacy of which is expressly hereby acknowledged, the Parties agree as follows:

AGREEMENT

1. HMIT Payment Obligation to HCLOM Ltd. Upon HMIT's receipt of distributions on account of its Class 10 interest/claim (the "Distributions"), HMIT will pay to HCLOM Ltd. an amount equal to five percent (5%) of the funds received by HMIT within two (2) business days after receipt of indefeasible funds by HMIT (the "HMIT Payment Obligation"). HMIT shall be entitled to deduct from the Distributions the fees and expenses billed by Kelly Hart Hallman, LLP which directly relate to the Stipulation and Agreed Order or this Agreement (the "HMIT Expenses") until all HMIT Expenses are paid in full.

2. No Additional Duties to HCLOM Ltd. HMIT shall retain and have the sole discretion to act with respect to its Class 10 interest/claim, and shall owe no additional duties to HCLOM Ltd. or any other person or entity, including without limitation, with respect to (i) the amount of Distributions or recovery by HMIT on account of its Class 10 interests/claims,

3. No Liens or Encumbrances. HMIT will not take any action that could reasonably be expected to encumber HMIT's Class 10 interests/claims, limit or affect HMIT's right or ability to fulfil and perform the HMIT Payment Obligation, or limit or affect HCLOM Ltd.'s right to receive the Distributions.

4. This Agreement Supersedes the Effects of the Stipulated and Agreed Order Among the Parties. HCLOM acknowledges and agrees that, notwithstanding the Stipulated and Agreed Order, the terms of this Agreement amends and supersedes the effect of the Stipulation and Agreed Order as between the Parties and HCLOM's rights to payment under the Plan are limited solely to the HMIT Payment Obligation.

5. Non-Interference; No Cause of Action. Notwithstanding Paragraph 3, HCLOM will not have any rights to object to or otherwise interfere with the rights of HMIT as a holder of Class 10 interest to reach a settlement with Highland Capital Management, LP ("Highland"). Subject: RE: Distributions to HCLOM

Dan,

We're following up again.

As you know, in accordance with the Stipulated and Agreed Order filed at Docket 4199, Highland has been seeking wire instructions from your client to facilitate a distribution on account of the Highland CLO Management, Ltd. ("HCLOM") interest in Class 10. To date, we have received no instructions.

Additionally, and consistent with Article VI.L. of the Plan, in order to make the distribution, Highland requires HCLOM's current tax identification number as well as sufficient documentary evidence of HCLOM's tax reporting and withholding status, (typically an IRS form W-8 with applicable supplements).

Please provide the HCLOM wire instructions and required tax certifications.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Regards,

John

Subject: RE: Distributions to HCLOM

Hi, John:

HCLOM has promised to provide me wiring instructions by COB today, and I will forward to you and Louis as soon as I have them.

Louis and I have a deal in place w/r/t to the HCLOM distribution. Please distribute the full amount as authorized by HCLOM's Class 10 POC, and then HMIT will get a credit in the amount of that distribution against the amount payable by HMIT.

Louis – Please speak up if I've misunderstood or (unintentionally) mischaracterized the above.

Thanks, Dan

EXTERNAL TO GT

Dan,

I'm following up on the emails below.

Can you please send us wire instructions for HCLOM so Highland can fulfill its obligations under the Stipulated and Agreed Order filed at Docket No. 4199?

Highland will otherwise leave it to you and Louis to discuss what additional amounts may be due HCLOM under the HMIT/HCLOM agreement, if any.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Regards,

John

Dan, no worries at all.

We expect to make a distribution to HCLOM but understand there are two agreements in play (HCMLP/HCLOM and HMIT/HCLOM).

It's a $10 million payment. Can you and Louis figure out how it gets divided and give us a joint instruction?

Please let us know.

Regards,

John

Can you confirm this to be the case and, if so, advise of the amount, the date, the account to which those funds were sent, and how that distribution was calculated.

HIGHLAND CAPITAL MANAGEMENT, L.P.,[1]	§	Case No. 19-34054-sgj11
Reorganized Debtor.	§

ORDER FIXING ALLOWED AMOUNT OF CLASS 11 INTERESTS

Having considered (a) the Motion for an Order Fixing Allowed Amount of Class 11 Interests [Docket No. 4362] (the "Motion")[2] filed by the Highland Claimant Trust (the "Claimant Trust") in the above-captioned chapter 11 case (the "Bankruptcy Case"); (b) Dugaboy Investment Trust's Response Opposing Highland Claimant Trust's Motion for Order Fixing Allowed Amount of Class 11 Interests [Docket No. 4384] filed by The Dugaboy Investment Trust ("Dugaboy"); (c) the Claimant Trust's Reply in Support of Motion for an Order Fixing Allowed

[1] The last four digits of the Reorganized Debtor's taxpayer identification number are 8357. The headquarters and service address for the Reorganized Debtor is 100 Crescent Court, Suite 1850, Dallas, TX 75201.

[2] Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Motion.

Amount of Class 11 Interests [Docket No. 4393]; (d) the evidence admitted into the record during the hearing on the Motion held on September 18, 2025 (the "Hearing"), including the Court's assessment of the witness's credibility; (e) all arguments presented at the Hearing; and (f) all prior proceedings in the Bankruptcy Case; and the Court having jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 as well as the retention of jurisdiction provisions of the Plan; and the Court having found that this is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2); and venue in this District being proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and the Court having found that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion establish sufficient cause for the relief granted herein; and adequate notice of the Motion having been given; and after due deliberation and good cause appearing therefor,

THE COURT HEREBY FINDS THAT:[3]

1. The Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law set forth on the record at the conclusion of the Hearing are incorporated by reference except as supplemented in this Order.

2. On the Effective Date and in accordance with the Plan, the Claimant Trust was created pursuant to the terms of the Claimant Trust Agreement (the "CTA").

3. Pursuant to Section 5.1(c) of the CTA and in accordance with the Plan (Art. III.H.10 and 11): (a) the pre-petition Class B/C Limited Partnership Interests and the Class A Limited Partnership Interests in Highland Capital Management, L.P. ("Highland") were extinguished; (b) the Holders of allowed Class B/C Limited Partnership Interests would receive unvested Class 10 Contingent Claimant Trust Interests if and when their Equity Interests were allowed in amounts as determined under the Plan; and (c) Holders of allowed Class A Limited Partnership Interests would receive unvested Class 11 Contingent Claimant Trust Interests if and when their Equity Interests were allowed in amounts as determined under the Plan.

[3] Any finding of fact that should be more appropriately characterized as a conclusion of law should be deemed as such and vice versa.

4. The holders of unvested Class 11 Contingent Claimant Trust Interests (i.e., Highland's former Class A limited partners) and the percentage of the limited partnership interests previously held by them are as follows: Strand Advisors (0.2508%), Dugaboy (0.1866%), Mark K. Okada (0.0487%), The Mark and Pamela Okada Family Trust—Exempt Trust #1 (0.0098%), and The Mark and Pamela Okada Family Trust—Exempt Trust #2 (0.0042%). Together, Highland's former Class A limited partners held 0.500% of Highland's prepetition limited partnership interests which were extinguished by the Plan.

5. Hunter Mountain Investment Trust ("HMIT") was Highland's sole Class B/C limited partner as of the Petition Date (holding 99.5% of Highland's limited partnership interests) and therefore received an unvested Class 10 Contingent Claimant Trust Interest under the Plan.

6. Following an evidentiary hearing held on June 25, 2025, HMIT's Class 10 Interest was allowed in the amount of $336,940,230.58 pursuant to this Court's order entered at Docket No. 4297 (see Order ¶12).

7. Paragraph 36 of the Confirmation Order provides that the "Plan properly separately classifies the Equity Interests in Class 10 . . . from the Equity Interests in Class 11 . . . because they represent different types of equity security interests in the Debtor and different payment priorities."

8. Pursuant to the Plan and the CTA, Class 11 is subordinated to Class 10 such that holders of Allowed Class 11 Interests cannot receive any distributions from the Claimant Trust until the holders of allowed Class 10 Interests are paid in full.

9. The Claimant Trust is required to resolve all disputed Claims and Interests before it can commence its dissolution, a process that must begin no later than August 11, 2026, pursuant to the CTA and this Court's prior orders.

10. The Court finds that the calculation the Claimant Trust used to fix the amount of each Class 11 Interest as of the Petition Date (i.e., Highland started with each former partner's respective capital account balance as of December 31, 2018 (as reported in its 2018 federal income tax return and associated Schedules K-1 delivered to each former partner), and then used Highland's actual activity in 2019 (as reported in Highland's financial statements) to bring those capital account amounts forward to the Petition Date)) was fair and reasonable.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED THAT:

11. The Motion is GRANTED.

12. As stated on the record during the Hearing, applying the fair and reasonable calculation, the Class 11 Interests are Allowed in the following fixed amounts: Strand Advisors ($994,707.76), Dugaboy ($740,081.61), Mark K. Okada ($192,754.38), The Mark and Pamela Okada Family Trust—Exempt Trust #1 ($38,868.17), and The Mark and Pamela Okada Family Trust—Exempt Trust #2 ($16,657.79).

13. Dugaboy's objections to the Motion are OVERRULED.

14. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, or enforcement of this Order.
