2. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

Specifically, Morgan Lewis performed the following services as the Committee's special insurance counsel:

Included in Exhibit B are itemizations, where applicable, of expenses for which Morgan Lewis seeks reimbursement in this Fee Application. All expenses for which reimbursement is sought were incurred on behalf of the Committee and no other person.

Morgan Lewis's Requested Compensation and Reimbursement Should be Allowed

23. Section 331 of the Bankruptcy Code provides for interim compensation of professionals and incorporates the substantive standards of section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code to govern the Court's award of such compensation. Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a court may award a professional employed under section 327 of the Bankruptcy Code "reasonable compensation for actual necessary services rendered . . . and reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses." 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1). Section 330 also sets forth the criteria for the award of such compensation and reimbursement:

In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded . . . the court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including—

- (A) the time spent on such services;
- (B) the rates charged for such services;
- (C) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;
- (D) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;
- (E) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and
- (F) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(3).

24. In determining the reasonableness of a compensation request, courts generally apply the lodestar method. Boddy v. United States Bankruptcy Court (In re Boddy), 950 F.2d 334, 337 (6th Cir. 1991) (“The Supreme Court has made it clear that the lodestar method of fee calculation is the method by which federal courts should determine reasonable attorney’s fees under federal statutes that provide for such fees.”); Shaw, Licitra, Parente, Esernio & Schwartz, P.Z. v. Travelers Indemnity Co. (In re Grant Associates), 154 B.R. 836, 843 (S.D.N.Y. 1993) (noting that the lodestar standard had been adopted by most courts calculating fees under section 330(a), and that “[g]iven the similarity in context and language between the two statutes, the same standard should apply” to fees under section 506(c)); In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Grp., Inc., 133 B.R. 13, 21-22 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1991). Courts calculate the lodestar amount by multiplying the number of hours reasonably expended by the attorney’s reasonable hourly rate. See Drexel,

133 B.R. at 22 (citing Pennsylvania v. Delaware Valley Citizens' Council for Clean Air, 478 U.S. 546, 565 (1986)). In assessing the reasonableness of a compensation request, there is a “strong presumption” that an attorney is entitled to the lodestar fee. Id.

25. Morgan Lewis submits that the compensation for services rendered and reimbursement of expenses incurred during the Seventh Interim Period are reasonable and appropriate based on: (i) the time and labor required; (ii) the complexity of the legal issues presented; (iii) the skill necessary to perform the legal services; (iv) the customary compensation for such services; and (v) the experience and ability of the attorneys providing these services.

26. The Committee retained Morgan Lewis as its special insurance counsel due to the firm's: (i) intimate familiarity with the Debtor and the specific insurance issues involved, and (ii) reputation and extensive expertise in insurance matters. Morgan Lewis's deep understanding of the Debtor and its insurance-related issues enabled efficient and cost-effective service.

27. Morgan Lewis reserves the right to request additional compensation for the Seventh Interim Period if further time or disbursement charges for services rendered or expenses incurred relate to the Seventh Interim Period.

Statement Pursuant to Appendix B Guidelines

28. The following is provided in response to the questions set forth in ¶ C.5 of the Guidelines for Reviewing Applications for Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses Filed under 11 U.S.C. § 330 by Attorneys in Larger Chapter 11 Cases:

Question: Did you agree to any variations from, or alternatives to, your standard or customary billing rates, fees or terms for services pertaining to this engagement that were provided during the application period?

Response: No.

Question: If the fees sought in this fee application as compared to the fees budgeted for the time period covered by this fee application are higher by 10% or more, did you discuss the reasons for the variation with the client?

Response: Not applicable.

Question: Have any of the professionals included in this fee application varied their hourly rate based on the geographic location of the bankruptcy case?

Response: No.

Question: Does the fee application include time or fees related to reviewing or revising time records or preparing, reviewing, or revising invoices? (This is limited to work involved in preparing and editing billed records that would not be compensable outside of bankruptcy and does not include reasonable fees for preparing a fee application.) If so, please quantify by hours and fees.

Response: The fees reflected in billing code titled Fee Applications-Self relate to Morgan Lewis preparation of monthly fee statements and fee applications as well as review and revision of its invoices.

Question: Does this fee application include time or fees for reviewing time records to redact any privileged or other confidential information?

Response: Yes, in connection with the review of the monthly time records for submission of the monthly fee statements and fee applications, Morgan Lewis reviewed the time detail for privileged or confidential information.

Question: Does this fee application include rate increases since retention?

Response: Yes. Pursuant to internal operating procedures and past practices, Morgan Lewis adjusts as appropriate its hourly rates on January 1st of each year. The table in this third interim fee application labeled "Summary of Professionals Rendering Services for the Seventh Interim Period" reflects the hourly rate increase for professionals and paraprofessionals providing services to the Unsecured Creditors' Committee during the pendency of this case.

Question: Did the client agree when retaining Morgan Lewis to accept all future rate increases? If not, did Morgan Lewis inform the client that they need not agree to modified rates or terms in order to have you continue the representation, consistent with ABA Formal Ethics Opinion 11-458?

Response: The client was notified at the outset of the engagement that Morgan Lewis's hourly rates are reviewed and revised generally on January 1st of each year.

WHEREFORE, Morgan Lewis requests that the Court enter an order: (a) awarding Morgan Lewis compensation for services rendered during the Seventh Interim Period in the amount of $24,910.50 and reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses in the amount of $6,368.40; (b) authorizing and directing the Debtor to remit payment to Morgan Lewis for such fees and expenses that remain unpaid; and (c) granting any further relief the Court deems just and appropriate under the circumstances.
