UNDER SEAL THE MOTION FOR APPROVAL OF THE KEY EMPLOYEE INCENTIVE PLAN AND THE KEY

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the “Debtors”) state as follows in support of this motion:²

Relief Requested

1. The Debtors seek entry of an order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the “Order”), (a) authorizing the Debtors to file under seal and redact certain portions of the Motion of Debtors for Entry of an Order (I) Authorizing and Approving the Debtors’ Key Employee Incentive Plan, (II) Authorizing and Approving the Debtors’ Key Employee Retention

¹ A complete list of each of the Debtors in these chapter 11 cases may be obtained on the website of the Debtors’ claims and noticing agent at <https://www.veritaglobal.net/Marelli>. ² A detailed description of the Debtors and their business, including the circumstances giving rise to the Debtors’ chapter 11 cases, is set forth in the Declaration of David Slump, Chief Executive Officer of Marelli Automotive Lighting USA, LLC, in Support of First Day Motions, [Docket No. 20] (the “Slump Declaration”) and the Declaration of Tony Simion, Managing Director of Alvarez & Marsal North America, LLC, in Support of First Day Motions [Docket No. 19] (the “Simion Declaration”, and together with the Slump Declaration, the “First Day Declarations”).

Plan, and (III) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 1375] (the “Employee Plans Motion”)³ and the Declaration of Tony Simion in Support of the Motion of Debtors for Entry of an Order (I) Authorizing and Approving the Debtors’ Key Employee Incentive Plan, (II) Authorizing and Approving the Debtors’ Key Employee Retention Plan, and (III) Granting Related Relief (the “Simion Declaration”) attached to the Employee Plans Motion as Exhibit C, (b) directing that the unredacted version of the Employee Plans Motion and the Simion Declaration remain under seal and confidential and not be made available to anyone other than as set forth herein without the consent of the Debtors or further order of the Court (after notice and a hearing), and (c) granting related relief.

Jurisdiction and Venue

2. The United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the “Court”) has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, dated February 29, 2012. This matter is a core proceeding within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2), and the Debtors confirm their consent, pursuant to rule 9013-1(f) of the Local Rules of Bankruptcy Practice and Procedure of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the “Local Rules”), to the entry of a final order by the Court in connection with this motion to the extent that it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments in connection herewith consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

3. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

³ Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the First Day Declarations or the Employee Plans Motion, as applicable.

4. The statutory bases for the relief requested herein are sections 105(a) and 107(b) of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), rule 9018 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), and Local Rules 9018-1(d).

Background

5. The Debtors, together with their non-Debtor affiliates (collectively, “Marelli” or the “Company”) are one of the largest international automotive parts suppliers in the world and a pioneer in motorsports and in automobile manufacturing and design. With its headquarters in Saitama, Japan and over 46,000 employees located in twenty-four countries around the world, Marelli designs and produces sophisticated technologies for leading automotive manufacturers, including lighting and sensor integrations, electronic systems, software solutions, and interior design products, and collaborates with motor sports teams and other industry leaders to research and develop cutting-edge, high-performance automotive components.

6. On June 11, 2025 (the “Petition Date”), each Debtor filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are operating their businesses and managing their property as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. On June 12, 2025, the Court entered an order [Docket No. 102] authorizing the procedural consolidation and joint administration of these chapter 11 cases pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b) and Local Rule 1015-1. On June 25, 2025, the United States Trustee for the District of Delaware (the “U.S. Trustee”) appointed an official committee of unsecured creditors [Docket No. 184] (the “Committee”).⁴ No request for the appointment of a trustee or examiner has been made in these chapter 11 cases.

⁴ On July 2, 2025, the U.S. Trustee filed the Amended Notice of Appointment of Committee of Unsecured Creditors [Docket No. 230]. On September 10, 2025, the U.S. Trustee filed the Second Amended Notice of Appointment of Committee of Unsecured Creditors [Docket No. 922].

7. Contemporaneously with the filing of this motion, the Debtors filed the Employee Plans Motion. The Employee Plans Motion contains two proposed employee incentive and retention plans. One of those proposed plans is the key employee incentive plan (“KEIP”), which is intended to appropriately incentivize key executives (“the KEIP Participants”) to pursue value-maximizing goals in these chapter 11 cases. The KEIP and the Simion Declaration contain the titles of key employees, performance metrics, and sensitive financial information pertaining to salaries of and potential plan payments to key employees (the “Confidential Information”).

8. Public disclosure of the Confidential Information could cause substantial harm to the Debtors’ business for a variety of reasons. Publication of individual compensation information could adversely affect morale, harming the Debtors’ ability to properly incentivize the KEIP Participants and undermining the purpose of the program. Individual compensation information also constitutes commercially sensitive information that could be used by competitors in a manner adverse to the Debtors’ business. Publication would also impede the Debtors efforts to communicate compensation information internally to key employees in an orderly and confidential manner.

9. In light of the above, the Debtors have filed partially redacted versions of the Employee Plans Motion and the Simion Declaration on the public docket and filed unredacted copies of the Employee Plans Motion and the Simion Declaration under seal with the Court. Critically, the publicly available Employee Plans Motion and Simion Declaration disclose the aggregate dollar amount of the KEIP so all parties-in-interest will understand the total amount sought for Court approval. The Debtors request that the Court maintain the Employee Plans Motion and the Simion Declaration under seal. The Debtors have or will provide unredacted copies of the Employee Plans Motion and the Simion Declaration to (i) the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Delaware (the “U.S. Trustee”), (ii) the counsel for Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors appointed in these Chapter 11 cases (the “Committee”) (on a confidential and professionals’ eyes only basis), and (iii) any additional party, on a confidential basis, who, upon good faith review of a request, the Debtors consent to receiving the Confidential Information.

Basis for Relief

10. Section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code empowers bankruptcy courts to “issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title.” 11 U.S.C. § 105(a).

11. Section 107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code provides bankruptcy courts with authority to issue orders that will protect entities from potential harm that may result from the disclosure of certain confidential information. This section provides, in relevant part:

On request of a party in interest, the bankruptcy court shall, and on the bankruptcy court’s own motion, the bankruptcy court may ... (1) protect an entity with respect to a trade secret or confidential research, development, or commercial information

11 U.S.C. § 107(b).

12. Bankruptcy Rule 9018 defines the procedures by which a party may move for relief under section 107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, providing that:

On motion or on its own initiative, with or without notice, the court may make any order which justice requires (1) to protect the estate or any entity in respect of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information

Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9018. Further, Local Rule 9018-1(d) further provides, in relevant part, that “[a]ny filer seeking to file a document ... under seal must file a motion requesting such relief....” Del. Bankr. L.R. 9018-1(d)(i).

13. Under Section 107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, “the court is required to protect a requesting interested party.” In re Orion Pictures Corp., 21 F.3d 24, 28 (2d Cir. 1994) (emphasis in original). Stated differently, section 107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code does not require a party seeking its protections to demonstrate “good cause.” Orion Pictures, 21 F.3d at 28 (2d Cir. 1994). “Courts have supervisory power over their records and files and may deny access to those records and files to prevent them from being used for an improper purpose.” In re Kaiser Aluminum Corp., 327 B.R. 554, 560 (D. Del. 2005). Courts are required to provide such protections “generally where open inspection may be used as a vehicle for improper purposes.” Orion Pictures, 21 F.3d at 27. Indeed, the “authority goes not just to the protection of confidential documents, but to other confidentiality restrictions that are warranted in the interests of justice.” See In re Glob. Crossing Ltd., 295 B.R. 720, 724 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2003).

14. The Debtors submit that good cause exists for the Court to grant the relief requested herein. The Confidential Information is non-public, confidential information regarding the KEIP Participants. First, the proposed compensation of the KEIP Participants is not publicly available information, and the Debtors wish to respect the privacy of their employees. As proposed in the KEIP, the payouts for each KEIP Participant are individualized based on each KEIP Participants’ compensation. Public disclosure of this information would allow the KEIP Participants to see the payouts of other KEIP Participants, which could negatively impact workforce morale and lead to attrition. Further, if disclosed, this information could cause harm or distress to the KEIP Participants and other of the Debtors’ employees, and ultimately be detrimental to the Debtors’ reorganization efforts. Second, competitors may seek to use the Confidential Information to recruit the applicable KEIP Participants if their identities and the amounts payable to them are disclosed. This would be particularly harmful in the context of the Chapter 11 Cases, where the KEIP Participants' knowledge and expertise of the Debtors' business and operations is critical to effectuating a reorganization that maximizes value for the benefit of all creditors. Finally, the Debtors' competitors could gain an unfair advantage if the Confidential Information were to be disclosed because the Debtors' competitors could use such information to recruit the Debtors' critical employees by offering enhanced compensation and benefits.

15. In seeking to redact and seal the Confidential Information, the Debtors acknowledge the paramount importance of the policy of open access to courts underlying Bankruptcy Code 107(a). The Debtors have balanced the benefits and need for disclosure with the potentially significant and harmful effects on their estates and submit that if the Debtors were unable to redact and seal the Confidential Information, such disclosure would result in adverse consequences outweighing the benefits of such disclosure. However, understanding the importance of disclosure in these chapter 11 cases, the remainder of the Employee Plans Motion and the Simion Declaration will remain unredacted and available for all parties in interest to review. Additionally, the Debtors will provide the unredacted Employee Plans Motion and Simion Declaration to the Court, the U.S. Trustee, and counsel for the Committee (on a confidential and professionals' eyes-only basis). The Debtors will also review in good faith any reasonable request from parties in interest to review the Confidential Information and provide such information on a confidential basis if the Debtors determine the disclosure will not create harmful effects for their estates. Therefore, the Debtors believe that they have struck the appropriate balance, and that good cause exists to allow the sealing of the unredacted Employee Plans Motion and Simion Declaration and the redaction of limited portions of the Employee Plans Motion and the Simion Declaration to preserve the confidentiality of the Confidential Information.

16. For the foregoing reasons, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court permit the Debtors to redact the Confidential Information from the publicly filed versions of the Employee Plans Motion and the Simion Declaration and to file the unredacted version of the Employee Plans Motion and the Simion Declaration under seal. The Debtors also respectfully request that the Court order all parties to redact any Confidential Information in pleadings without the need for further orders from the Court.

Notice

17. The Debtors will provide notice of this motion to: (a) the U.S. Trustee; (b) the holders of the 30 largest unsecured claims against the Debtors (on a consolidated basis); (c) Paul Hastings LLP and Morris James LLP, as co-counsel to the Committee; (d) the office of the attorney general for each of the states in which the Debtors operate; (e) United States Attorney's Office for the District of Delaware; (f) the Internal Revenue Service; (g) the United States Securities and Exchange Commission; (h) the United States Department of Justice; (i) Mayer Brown LLP, as counsel to the DIP Agent; (j) Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP, as counsel to Mizuho Bank, Ltd., in all capacities other than as Prepetition Agent; (k) Young Conaway Stargatt & Taylor, LLP, as counsel to Mizuho Bank, Ltd., in its capacity as Prepetition Agent; (l) Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld LLP and Cole Schotz P.C., as counsel to the Ad Hoc Group of Senior Lenders; (m) Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP, as counsel to the Sponsors; and (n) any party that has requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002 (the "Notice Parties"). The Debtors submit that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

No Prior Request

18. No prior request for the relief sought in this motion has been made to this or any other court.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors request entry of the Order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, (a) granting the relief requested herein and (b) granting such other relief as the Court deems appropriate under the circumstances.
