BACKGROUND

- 2. On July 16, 2024 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors filed voluntary petitions for relief pursuant to chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.
- 3. The Debtors continue in the operation and management of their business as debtors-in-possession pursuant to sections 1107 and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No trustee or examiner has been appointed in these chapter 11 cases.
- 4. A detailed description of the Debtors' business and the events leading up to the filing of these chapter 11 cases can be found in the Declaration of Kathleen (Kate) Bertram in Support of the Debtors' Chapter 11 Petition and First Day Motions [Docket No. 3] (the "First Day Declaration"), incorporated by reference herein.
- 5. As of the date of filing this Motion, the Debtors have largely completed the sales for their facilities and no longer require certain contracts going forward.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

- 6. This Court has jurisdiction to consider this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409. This matter is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2).
- 7. The statutory predicates for the relief sought herein are sections 105(a) and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 6004, 6006, 6007, and 9014.

THE REJECTED CONTRACTS

8. The Debtors have largely concluded their sale process and no longer require the majority of their contracts on a go-forward basis. With this in mind, the Debtors, in consultation with their advisors and the purchasers of the Debtors' facilities, have engaged in a review of their executory contracts. As a result of that review, the Debtors have determined in their business judgment that the executory contracts listed on Exhibit A hereto (including any modifications, amendments, addenda or supplements thereto, or restatements thereof)² are not necessary to, and would impose substantial burdens on, their ongoing business operations and winddown. Accordingly, by this Motion, in order to maximize the value of their estates, the Debtors seek to reject the contracts indicated on Exhibit A.

BASIS FOR RELIEF

A. Rejection of the Rejected Contracts should be approved.

- 9. Section 365(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a debtor, "subject to the court's approval, may . . . reject any executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor." 11 U.S.C. § 365(a). The decision to assume or reject an executory contract or unexpired lease is generally a matter within the "business judgment" of the debtor. See Four B. Corp. v Food Barn Stores, Inc. (In re Food Barn Stores, Inc.), 107 F.3d 558, 567 n.16 (8th Cir. 1997); In re Steaks to Go, Inc, 226 B.R. 35, 37 (Bankr. E.D. Mo. 1998) ("Generally, a Bankruptcy Court is to review a decision by a debtor in possession or a trustee to reject an executory contract, and order rejection if the rejection is based on the debtor or trustee's best business judgment in the circumstances"). The business judgment standard is satisfied when a debtor determines that rejection will benefit the estate, and courts should not interfere with a debtor's determination absent a showing of bad faith or gross abuse of discretion. See Food Barn Stores, 107 F.3d at 567 n.16; see also In re Audra-John Corp., 140 B.R. 752, 755-756 (Bankr. D. Minn. 1992).
- 10. Under the business judgment rule, "management of a corporation's affairs is placed in the hands of its board of directors and officers, and the Court should interfere with their decisions only if it is made clear that those decisions are, inter alia, clearly erroneous, made arbitrarily, are in breach of the officers' and directors' fiduciary duty to the corporation, are made on the basis of inadequate information or study, are made in bad faith, or are in violation of the Bankruptcy Code." In re Farmland Indus., Inc., 294 B.R. 855, 881 (Bankr. W.D. Mo. 2003) (citing In re United Artists Theatre Co., 315 F.3d 217, 233 (3d Cir. 2003)).

- In order to satisfy the business judgment rule, a debtor must carry its burden to show some benefit to the estate. Crystalin, LLC v. Selma Props. Inc. (In re Crystalin, LLC), 293 B.R. 455, 464 (B.A.P. 8th Cir. 2003). However, courts emphasize that "this test is not an onerous one" and courts should find this prong of the analysis met "as long as the proposed action appears to enhance the debtor's estate." Crystalin, 293 B.R. at 463-64 (internal citation omitted). Once a benefit to the estate has been shown, only a finding of "bad faith or gross abuse of . . . business discretion" should prevent the debtor from assuming the contract. Id. (internal citation omitted).
- 12. Bankruptcy Rule 9014 provides, in part, that "reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing shall be afforded the party against whom the relief is sought." See Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9014(a). The notice and hearing requirements for contested matters under Bankruptcy Rule 9014 are satisfied if appropriate notice and an opportunity for hearing are given in light of the particular circumstances. See 11 U.S.C. § 102(1)(A) (defining "after notice and a hearing" or a similar phrase to mean such notice and an opportunity for a hearing "as [are] appropriate in the particular circumstances").
- 13. Bankruptcy Rule 6006(f) permits a debtor to join requests for authority to reject multiple unexpired leases in one motion when the procedural requirements enumerated therein are satisfied. See Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6006(f). In particular, a motion to reject multiple executory contracts or unexpired leases that are not between the same parties should:
 - a. state in a conspicuous place that parties receiving the omnibus motion should locate their names and their contracts or leases listed in the motion;

- b. list parties alphabetically and identify the corresponding unexpired lease; be numbered consecutively with other omnibus motions to reject executory contracts and unexpired leases; and
- c. be limited to no more than one hundred (100) contracts and leases.

Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6006(f). The Debtors are in compliance with the applicable procedural requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6006(f).

14. The Debtors request the Court approve the rejection of the Rejected Contracts identified on Exhibit A, effective as of the applicable Rejection Date. The rejection of the Rejected Contracts is in the best interest of the Debtors' estates and is a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment because the Debtors will no longer have any use for the Rejected Contracts after the Rejection Date. The Rejected Contracts generally relate to unnecessary and unused executory contracts and continuation of service related to the Rejected Contracts would be burdensome on the Debtors and hinder the Debtors' restructuring efforts.

B. The Court should authorize the rejection of the Rejected Contracts effective as of the Rejection Date.

15. While court approval is a prerequisite for rejection of any executory contract, courts have recognized such an order may authorize a rejection as of the date the motion is filed. See In re At Home Corp., 392 F.3d 1064, 1071 (9th Cir. 2004); In re Thinking Machs. Corp., 67 F.3d 1021, 1028 (1st Cir. 1995); In re Fleming Cos., Inc., 304 B.R. 85, 96 (Bankr. D. Del. 2003); In re Jamesway Corp., 179 B.R. 33, 38 (S.D.N.Y. 1995) (approving retroactive rejection where objector "caused the delay" by interposing an improper objection); see also 3 COLLIER ON BANKRUPTCY ¶ 365.03[4] ("If retroactive approval of rejection is not permitted, bankruptcy courts face the prospect of requests for expedited determination of rejection motions as a matter of course in order to reduce administrative expenses."); cf. Adelphia Bus. Solutions v. Abnos, 482 F.3d 602, (2d Cir. 2007) (assuming, without deciding, that bankruptcy court has such authority); In re

Stonebridge Techs., Inc., 430 F.3d. 260, 273 (5th Cir. 2005) (suggesting bankruptcy courts have such authority); but see In re Worths Stores Corp., 130 B.R. 531, 533 (Bankr. E.D. Mo. 1991) ("the effective date of a debtor's lease rejection is that on which the Court entered its order approving such rejection"). "[O]nly after balancing the equities in a particular case, should the court approve a retroactive rejection of nonresidential lease." Chi-Chi's, Inc., 305 B.R. at 399; In re Phila. Newspapers, LLC, 424 B.R. 178, 185 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 2010) ("[T]he decision to grant retroactive rejection of a lease or contract is dictated by equitable considerations.").

- 16. Rejection of the Rejected Contracts as of the Rejection Date is warranted under the circumstances of this case. The Rejected Contracts either provide no ongoing benefit to the Debtors' estates or provide benefits that are substantially less than the corresponding costs. Rejecting the Rejected Contracts will relieve the Debtors from performing under substantially unprofitable agreements and, for all the reasons set forth herein, is clearly beneficial to the Debtors' estates and creditors.
- 17. Moreover, the counterparties will not be unduly prejudiced if the rejection is deemed effective as of the Rejection Date. The Debtors are not or will no longer be using the Rejected Contracts, and this Motion is being served promptly on each of the counterparties, each of whom will have a sufficient opportunity to respond. Furthermore, service of this Motion is an unequivocal expression of the Debtors' intention to reject the Rejected Contracts, and the Debtors hereby certify that they will not withdraw this Motion as to any of the Rejected Contracts without the consent of the applicable counterparty. For these reasons, the Debtors respectfully submit that it is fair and equitable for the Court to hold that the Rejected Contracts are rejected as of the Rejection Date.

WAIVER OF RULE 6004

18. Finally, by this Motion, the Debtors seek a waiver of any stay of the effectiveness of the order approving this Motion. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), "[a]n order authorizing the use, sale, or lease of property other than cash collateral is stayed until the expiration of 14 days after entry of the order, unless the court orders otherwise." As set forth above, the immediate rejection of the Rejected Contracts is necessary to the success of the chapter 11 cases, and the Debtors' ability to implement their chapter 11 strategy. Accordingly, the Debtors submit that ample cause exists to justify a waiver of the fourteen-day stay imposed by Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), to the extent that it applies.

NO PREVIOUS REQUEST

19. No previous application for the relief sought herein has been made to this or any other Court.

NOTICE

20. This Motion and notice of this Motion will be served respectively on Master Service List, Master Notice List, and the counterparties to the Rejected Contracts. Notice of this Motion and any order entered hereon will be served in accordance with Local Rule 9013-3(A)(1). The Debtors submit that, under the circumstances, no other or further notice is required.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request entry of an order granting the relief requested herein, together with such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.
