Pursuant to the Joint Administration Order, the Debtors Chapter 11 Cases shall be administered under Case No. 24-90448.

7. Since the filing of the Debtors’ voluntary petitions, the Debtors have continued to operate and manage their businesses as debtors-in-possession pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Sections 1107(a) and 1108.

B. The Debtors’ Retention of BDO

8. On October 18, 2024, the Debtors filed the Application for Entry of Order Authorizing Retention and Appointment of BDO USA, P.C. as Financial Advisor to the Special Committee of Rhodium Enterprises, Inc. Board of Directors Effective as of October 9, 2024 (the “Retention Application”) [ECF No. 286]. On November 11, 2024, the Court entered an order approving the Retention Application (the “Retention Order”) [ECF No. 417]. On January 31, 2025, the Debtors filed the Amended Declaration of Michele Michaelis in Support of Application of Debtors for Entry of an Order (I) Authorizing Retention and Employment of BDO Consulting Group, LLC as Financial Advisor to the Special Committee of the Rhodium Enterprises, Inc. Board of Directors, Effective as of October 9, 2024, and Granting Related Relief [ECF No. 742] which clarifies the Retention Application should have referred to BDO Consulting Group LLC, and not BDO USA, P.C.

9. The Retention Order authorizes the Debtors to compensate and reimburse BDO in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code, the Federal Rules, the Local Rules, and any Orders entered in these cases. The Retention Order also authorizes the compensation of BDO at BDO's standard hourly rates and the reimbursement of BDO's actual and necessary out-of-pocket expenses incurred, subject to application to this Court.

C. The Interim Compensation Order

10. On September 22, 2024, the Debtors filed the Motion of the Debtors to Establish Procedures for Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses for Professionals [ECF No. 174] (the "Interim Compensation Motion"), and on October 14, 2024, the Court entered the Interim Compensation Order.

11. The Interim Compensation Order sets forth the procedures for interim compensation and reimbursement of expenses in these Chapter 11 Cases. Specifically, the Interim Compensation Order provides that a Retained Professional (as defined in the Interim Compensation Motion) may file and serve an Interim Fee Application (as defined in the Interim Compensation Order) on or before the 45th day following the end of the Interim Fee Period (as defined in the Interim Compensation Order), or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter. Provided that no objections to the Interim Fee Application are filed on or before the twenty-first (21st) day after service of an Interim Fee Application, the Court may, in its discretion, approve an uncontested Interim Fee Application. If approved, the Debtors are authorized to pay such Retained Professional all allowed fees and expenses that have not previously been paid.

SUMMARY OF PROFESSIONAL COMPENSATION AND REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES REQUESTED

12. BDO submits this Application for entry of an order, (a) granting the interim allowance, for the Interim Fee Period, of (i) compensation for the actual, reasonable and necessary professional services that BDO has rendered as Financial Advisor to the Special Committee in the amount of $109,997.50 and expenses in the amount of $0.00; and (b) authorizing the Debtors to pay BDO the outstanding amount of fees not paid to BDO to date.

13. This Application is BDO's second interim application for compensation for services rendered as Financial Advisor to the Special Committee of the Rhodium Enterprises, Inc. Board of Directors, and is submitted in accordance with the Retention Order.

14. The fees charged by BDO in these cases are billed in accordance with BDO's existing billing rates and procedures in effect during the Second Interim Application Period. The rates BDO charges for the services rendered by its professionals in these Chapter 11 Cases generally are the same rates BDO charges for professional services rendered in comparable bankruptcy and non-bankruptcy related matters. Such fees are reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in comparable bankruptcy and similar complex non-bankruptcy cases.

15. Attached hereto as Exhibit B is a summary breakdown of hours and amounts billed by timekeeper. The summary sheet lists those BDO professionals who have performed services for the Special Committee during the Second Interim Application Period, the capacities in which each individual is employed by BDO, the individual's expertise, the hourly billing rate charged by BDO for services performed by such individual, and the aggregate number of hours expended in this matter and fees billed therefor.

16. Attached hereto as Exhibit C is a schedule of the total amount of fees incurred under each of BDO's internal task codes during the Second Interim Application Period.

17. Attached hereto as Exhibit D is a summary for the Second Interim Application Period, setting forth the total amount of reimbursement sought with respect to each category of expenses for which BDO is seeking reimbursement.

18. BDO maintains computerized records of the time spent by all BDO professionals in connection with these Chapter 11 Cases. Exhibit E are the detailed time details for the 162.9 hours expended and fees incurred by BDO professionals in connection with the Second Interim Application Period with respect to each of the subject matter categories that BDO established in accordance with its internal billing procedures.

19. BDO reserves the right to request additional compensation for the Second Interim Application Period to the extent that it is later determined that time or disbursement charges for services rendered or disbursements incurred during such time period have not yet been submitted.

SUMMARY OF SERVICES RENDERED

20. The following narrative provides a brief summary of the services rendered by BDO on behalf of the Special Committee organized by project billing codes which BDO created to best reflect the categories of tasks that it was required to perform in connection with these Chapter 11 Cases. Nevertheless, under the circumstances, and given the interconnectedness of the issues in these Chapter 11 Cases, certain of these categories may overlap with one another and it is possible that fees attributed to a particular category could have been attributed to other categories. For the avoidance of doubt, however, no work performed by BDO has been included in more than one task code category.

21. The summary that follows is not intended to be a detailed description of the work performed by BDO during the Second Interim Application Period, as those day-to-day services and the time expended in performing such services are fully set forth in the contemporaneous time records that are attached as Exhibit E. Rather, the following summary attempts to highlight certain of those areas in which services were rendered to the Special Committee.

22. The services rendered by BDO during the Interim Fee Period are grouped into the categories set forth below:

1 General (Case Administration):

Fees: $300.00 Hours: 0.4

Incorporated within this project category is time incurred by BDO personnel regarding data prepared and reviewed regarding billing and budget as requested by Province.

4 Retention / Fee Applications:

Incorporated within this project category is time incurred by BDO personnel while performing various functions directly related to preparing for and meeting with counsel for the Special Committee and corresponding with Counsel for and members of the Special Committee. BDO provided updates to the Special Committee and their Counsel.

11 Motions and Objections/ Case Docket Matters:Fees: $2,175.00 Hours: 2.9

Performance of other analysis as requested by the Special Committee and Special Committee Counsel.

SUMMARY OF ACTUAL AND NECESSARY EXPENSES

23. During the Second Interim Application Period, BDO incurred $0.00 in expenses on behalf of the Special Committee. It is BDO's policy to charge its clients in all areas of practice for out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the client's case. Expenses charged to clients include, among other things, mail and express mail, special or hand delivery, outgoing facsimiles, photocopying, scanning and/or printing, computer assisted research, travel, "working meals," transcription, as well as non-ordinary overhead expenses such as secretarial and other overtime. BDO charges for expenses in a manner and at rates consistent with charges made generally to its other clients. BASIS FOR THE RELIEF REQUESTED

25. Section 331 of the Bankruptcy Code provides for interim compensation of professionals not more than once every 120 days after the commencement of the cases (or more often as the court may permit) and incorporates the substantive standards of section 330 to govern the Court's award of such compensation. See 11 U.S.C. § 331. Section 330 provides that a court may award a professional employed under section 327 of the Bankruptcy Code "reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered [and] reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses." 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1).

26. Section 330 also sets forth the criteria for the award of such compensation and reimbursement:

- a. the time spent on such services;
- b. the rates charged for such services;
- c. whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;

- d. whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;
- e. with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and
- f. whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(3).

27. In determining the reasonableness of fees, courts routinely employ the twelve factors set forth by the Fifth Circuit in Johnson v. Ga. Highway Express, Inc., 488 F.2d 714 (5th Cir. 1974). These factors include: (1) the time and labor required; (2) the novelty and difficulty of the questions; (3) the skill requisite to perform the legal service properly; (4) the preclusion of employment by the professional due to acceptance of the case; (5) the customary fee; (6) whether the fee is fixed or contingent; (7) time limitations imposed by client or the circumstances; (8) the amount involved and the results obtained; (9) the experience, reputation and ability of the professionals; (10) the undesirability of the case; (11) the nature and length of the professional relationship with the client; and (12) awards in similar cases. Johnson, 488 F.2d at 717-19. In In re First Colonial Corp. of America, 544 F.2d 1291, 1298-99 (5th Cir. 1977), cert. denied, 431 U.S. 904 (1977), the Fifth Circuit applied the Johnson factors to the analysis of fee awards in bankruptcy cases.

28. Under an analysis utilizing the Johnson factors and the standards customarily applied to fee awards under sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, BDO submits that its request for compensation and reimbursement of expenses is reasonable and proper, and that such request should be allowed in the requested amount. BDO devoted a substantial amount of time and effort addressing the numerous issues involved in these Chapter 11 Cases. Whenever possible, BDO sought to minimize the costs of its services to the Special Committee by utilizing junior professionals to manage the more routine aspects of case administration. BDO did not duplicate or overlap services and billing with other Debtors' professionals.

29. BDO respectfully submits that the services for which it seeks compensation in this Application were, at the time rendered, believed to be necessary to effectively represent the interests of the Debtors' estates and creditors, were performed economically, effectively and efficiently.

30. Further, BDO submits that consideration of the relevant Johnson factors establishes that the compensation requested is reasonable in light of the nature, extent, and value of such services to the Special Committee, Debtors, their estates, and all parties in interest:

- (a) The Time and Labor Required. The professional services rendered by BDO on behalf of the Special Committee of the Debtors have required the expenditure of substantial time and effort, as well as a high degree of professional competence and expertise, in order to deal with the many issues encountered with skill and dispatch. BDO respectfully represents that the services rendered by it were performed efficiently, effectively and economically.
- (b) The Novelty and Difficulty of Questions. These Chapter 11 Cases are designated as "complex" cases and necessarily involved a significant number of novel or difficult issues in areas such as restructuring, litigation, and corporate finance. During these cases, BDO provided assistance to the Special Committee of Rhodium Enterprises' Board of Directors and worked closely with its professionals on numerous complex issues involving. BDO's efforts and effective assistance has and will continue to maximize value for the benefit of the estate and its stakeholders and facilitate resolutions of such challenges.
- (c) The Skill Required to Perform the Services Properly. BDO believes that its recognized expertise in the area of insolvency proceedings and reorganization, particularly before this Court, have contributed to the efficient and effective administration of these Chapter 11 Cases.
- (d) The Preclusion of Other Employment by BDO Due to Acceptance of the Case. BDO's representation of the Special Committee has not precluded its acceptance of new clients. However, the issues that have arisen in these Chapter 11 Cases required attention on a continuing, and oftentimes emergent, basis, requiring BDO's professionals to commit significant portions of their time to these cases.

- (e) The Customary Fee. The fees sought herein are based upon BDO's normal hourly rates for services of this kind. BDO respectfully submits that the hourly rates of its professionals are not unusual given the time expended in attending to the representation of the Special Committee. BDO's hourly rates and the fees requested herein are commensurate with fees BDO has been awarded in other chapter 11 cases, as well as with fees charged by other professionals of comparable experience.
- (f) Whether the Fee is Fixed or Contingent. The fees requested in this Application represent fees incurred based upon a fixed hourly rate, contingent upon the Court's approval of this Application.
- (g) Time Limitations Imposed by Client or other Circumstances. BDO provided capable representation within the time limitations imposed under the unique circumstances of these cases. During these Chapter 11 Cases, there were numerous instances in which it was necessary for BDO to deliver services on very short notice and under significant time constraints.
- (h) The Amount Involved and Results Obtained. For the reasons described above, BDO respectfully submits that the amount of fees for which compensation is sought is reasonable under the circumstances given the numerous matters that had to be addressed.
- (i) The Experience, Reputation and Ability of BDO. BDO has considerable experience providing accounting, tax, auditing, and financial advisory services to businesses in chapter 11 and has been employed in numerous cases under the Bankruptcy Code, such as In re Vyair Medical, Inc., Case No. 24-11217 (BLS) (Bankr. D. Del. August 7, 2024) (authorizing the retention of BDO), In re Steward Health System, Case No. 24-90213 (CML) (Bankr. S.D. Tex. Aug. 3, 2024) (same) In re Acorda Therapeutics, Inc., Case No. 24-22284 (DSJ) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. May 29, 2024) (same), In re Purdue Pharma, L.P., Case No. 19-23649 (SHL) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. April 24, 2024) (same), In re Inmet Mining, LLC, Case No. 23-70113 (GRS) (Bankr. E.D. Ky. June 6, 2023) (same); In re 1 GC Collections, Case No. 18-19121 (RAM) (Bankr. S.D. Fla. Feb. 25, 2022) (same); In re Richardson Foods Inc., Case No. 20-11203 (SCC) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Sept. 1, 2021) (same); In re AeroCentury Corp., Case No. 21-10636 (JTD) (Bankr. D. Del. May 4, 2021) (same); In re Rubio's Restaurants, Inc., Case No. 20-12688 (MFW) (Bank. D. Del. Jan. 6, 2021) (same); In re Emerge Energy, Inc., Case No. 19-11563 (KBO) (Bankr. D. Del. Oct. 7, 2019) (same).
- (j) The Undesirability of the Case. Not applicable.
- (k) Nature and Length of Professional Relationship. Not applicable.
- (l) Awards In Similar Cases. As previously indicated, the fees sought herein are commensurate with fees BDO has been awarded in other chapter 11 cases.

31. In sum, the services rendered by BDO were necessary and beneficial to the Debtors and were consistently performed in a timely manner commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the issues involved. Accordingly, approval of the compensation for professional services and reimbursement of the expenses sought herein is warranted.

32. No previous application for the relief sought herein has been made to this or any other Court.

WHEREFORE, BDO respectfully requests that the Court:

- (a) approve the allowance of $109,997.50 for compensation for professional services rendered to the Special Committee by BDO during the period from January 1, 2025 through and including March 31, 2025;
- (b) authorize and direct the Debtors to immediately pay to BDO the unpaid portion of such allowed fees and expenses.
