4. This Court has jurisdiction with respect to this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157(b)(1) and 1334. This Motion to Seal is a core proceeding within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2). Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1408.

5. The bases for the relief requested herein are Bankruptcy Code sections 105(a) and 107(b), Bankruptcy Rule 9018, and Rule 9037-1 of the Local Rules.

7. The Court has entered the Protective Order, ECF No. 152, to govern the disclosure and use of confidential discovery materials in these Chapter 11 Cases.

8. The Protective Order provides:

All pleadings, memoranda supporting motions, briefs, deposition transcripts, discovery requests and responses, exhibits, and other documents that quote information from Confidential Information or Highly Confidential – Professionals’ Eyes Only Information and Confidential Information and Highly Confidential – Professionals’ Eyes Only Information if filed with the Court, shall be redacted from the Court filing (either by redacting the relevant text of the submission or redacting the entirety of any exhibit that has been designated as containing Confidential Information or Highly Confidential – Professionals’ Eyes Only Information) or filed under seal pursuant to the Court’s rules governing sealed documents, unless the Designating Party consents in writing to such Confidential Information or Highly Confidential – Professionals’ Eyes Only Information being filed publicly.

9. The Parties are signatories to the Protective Order.

RELIEF REQUESTED SHOULD BE GRANTED

10. Section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code codifies the Court’s inherent, equitable powers, and empowers it to “issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title.” 11 U.S.C § 105(a). Moreover, pursuant to section 107(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Court may authorize the SAFE Claimant to redact Confidential Information in the publicly filed Response, and to file the non-public Response under seal, by permitting the issuance of an order that protects entities from potential harm that may result from the disclosure of certain confidential information. See 11 U.S.C. § 107(b). Specifically, section 107(b) provides, in relevant part:

On request of a party in interest, the bankruptcy court shall, and on the bankruptcy court's own motion, the bankruptcy court may — (1) protect an entity with respect to a trade secret or confidential research, development, or commercial information.

11 U.S.C. § 107(b).

11. Bankruptcy Rule 9018 sets forth the procedures by which a party may obtain a protective order authorizing the filing of a document under seal. Bankruptcy Rule 9018 provides, in relevant part, “[o]n motion, or on its own initiative, with or without notice, the court may make any order which justice requires (1) to protect the estate or any entity in respect of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information.” Bankruptcy Rule 9018; see also Local Rule 9037-1 (“A motion, reply or other document may initially be filed under seal if the filing party simultaneously files a motion requesting that the document be maintained under seal.”).
