TO THE HONORABLE MICHELLE V. LARSON, U.S. BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

ANC Ventures, LTD (“ANC”) and Bullish Resources, Inc. (“Bullish,” and together with ANC, the “Landlords”) file this Motion for Order Directing Debtors to Pay Post-Petition Rent or Alternatively Compelling the Trustee to Reject Certain Nonresidential Leases (the “Motion”). In support of the Motion, the Landlords respectfully state as follows:

INTRODUCTION

Section 365(d)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code means exactly what it says; the Trustee must pay post-petition rental obligations within sixty (60) days of the Petition Date, and continue to pay such obligations as they become due. Here, absent payment in full of all post-petition rent by November 9, 2025, the Leases must be rejected.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. The United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas (the “Court”) possesses jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2).

2. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

3. The Court has authority to grant the relief requested pursuant to Title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”). The bases for relief requested herein are Sections 11 U.S.C. §§ 105, 365, and 503 of the Bankruptcy Code.

FACTS

4. On September 10, 2025 (the “Petition Date”), the Debtors filed their petition for relief under Chapter 7 of Title 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. On the Petition Date, Anne Elizabeth Burns (the “Trustee”) was appointed as the Chapter 7 Trustee in the instant cases.

5. Prior to the Petition Date, Tricolor Auto Group, LLC (the “Tenant”) and Bullish entered into that certain Commercial Lease Agreement dated June 12, 2020 (the “Bandera Lease”), for certain real property located at 6300 E. Bandera, Leon Valley, Texas 78238 (the “Bandera Premises”). A true and correct copy of the Bandera Lease is attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and is incorporated herein by reference as if fully set forth at length.

6. Further, Tenant and ANC entered into that certain Commercial Lease Agreement dated September 21, 2020 (as amended as described hereinbelow, the “Laredo Lease,” together with the Bandera Lease, the “Leases”), for certain real property located at 3720 E. Saunders, Laredo, Texas 78041 (the “Laredo Premises,” and together with the Bandera Premises, the “Premises”). The Laredo Lease was amended twice, first pursuant to the First Amendment to the Commercial Lease Agreement dated September 14, 2020 which ensured that ANC for the Laredo Premises was properly reflected as “ANC Ventures, LTD.,” and second pursuant to the Second Amendment to the Commercial Lease dated April 1, 2025 pursuant to which the Tenant exercised its first option to extend the Laredo Lease for a five year period commencing on October 1, 2025. True and correct copies of the Laredo Lease, with amendments and exhibits, is attached hereto as Exhibit 2 and is incorporated herein by reference as if fully set forth at length.

7. As an Exhibit “B” to the Laredo Lease (and as specifically referenced in the Laredo Lease), ANC and the Tenant executed a Personal Property Lease Agreement pursuant to which the Tenant leased the following personal property, which is owned by the Landlord and located at the Laredo Location:

- NITRO MACHINE NTF-515B;
- BOSCH BRAKE LATHE AND ADAPTER;
- SHOP EQUIP=4 LIFTS, WORK BENCHES, AIR SYSTEM;
- CANTU ELECT. 5 GFI’S FOR LIFTS > 5.31.24;
- PARTS TIRE CONTAINER;
- PARTS BIN SYSTEM;
- DATA/PHONE DROPS; and
- DESKS/OFFICES/FILE CABINETS/SHOWROOM FURNITURE (Collectively, the “Laredo Personal Property”).

See attached Exhibit B to the Laredo Lease labeled “Personal Property Lease Agreement” which collectively with the Laredo Lease shall be referred to herein as the “Leases.”

8. The Debtors’ business is no longer operating out of the Laredo Premises, and on or about September 16, 2025, the Trustee had an agent remove all of the vehicles then located at the Laredo Premises. Upon information and belief, since September 16, 2025, the Trustee or its agent(s) have moved other vehicles to the Laredo Premises for temporary storage, with all such vehicles set for removal by October 18, 2025. As a result, by October 18th, the Laredo Premises will sit vacant of a tenant, with the Laredo Personal Property as the only personal property situated thereon.

9. Although the Debtors still have vehicles located at the Bandera Premises, it is unclear whether any operations are ongoing at the Bandera Premises. Neither of the Landlords have received rent payments for September or October 2025. Monthly rent under the Bandera Lease is $21,560.00/month, and under the Laredo Lease is $16,733.00/month (the foregoing amounts collectively referred to as the “October Rent”).

10. On September 19, 2025, the Landlords retained the undersigned in the above-referenced chapter 7 cases and on that date, the undersigned contacted Trustee’s counsel to commence discussions with respect to the Landlords’ request for the Trustee to immediately reject the Leases, and alternatively, pay the October Rent. On September 22, 2025, the undersigned provided Trustee’s counsel with copies of the Leases, along with photographs of the Premises and the Laredo Personal Property. As of the filing of this Motion, the Trustee has not rejected either of the Leases.

11. Despite the Landlords filing their Limited Objection to Trustee’s Emergency Motion for Limited Authorization to Operate Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 721 [Docket No. 125] and informing this Court, among other things, that (a) the Landlords’ post-petition October Rent had not been paid as required by Section 365(d)(3), (b) substantial concerns existed about the Trustee’s maintenance of insurance coverage on the Premises, and (c) the Landlords’ desired imminent rejection of the Leases given the non-payment of October Rent and the Trustee’s lack of funds to likely pay future post-petition rent and/or maintain insurance, on October 6, 2025, the Court entered an order Granting Trustee’s Motion for Limited Authorization to Operate the Debtors’ Business Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 721 [Docket No. 158] (the “Operations Order”), which granted the Trustee the authorization to operate the Debtors’ business for a period of ninety-five (95) days, through and including, January 9, 2026.

12. Notwithstanding the relief in the Operations Order, section 365(d)(3) requires that the Trustee must timely perform the Leases’ obligations “arising from and after the order for relief

... within 60 days after the date of the order for relief.” Here, timely performance requires that the Trustee pay the October Rent, the rent due under the Leases for November 2025 (the “November Rent”) and any other post-petition amounts that come due under the Leases on or before the date of a hearing on this Motion, by November 9, 2025 (the “Post-Petition Rent”). Absent payment of the Post-Petition Rent, the Court should compel the immediate rejection of the Leases.

ARGUMENTS

A. The Trustee is Required to pay all Post-Petition Rent.

13. The Bankruptcy Code provides numerous protections for commercial landlords to ensure that they are not involuntarily compelled to serve as lenders to the estate. Primarily relevant to this Motion is section 365(d)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code.

14. It provides that the estate must “timely perform” all post-petition obligations arising under unexpired leases of nonresidential real property. 11 U.S.C. § 365(d)(3). The court may extend the time for performing obligations arising within the first 60 days of a bankruptcy case for cause, but the court cannot extend the time for performance beyond those first 60 days of the case. Id.

15. The natural reading of the statute “entitles lessors to immediate payment of their claims.” In re C.Q., LLC, 343 B.R. 915, 917 (Bankr. W.D. Wis. 2005). See also In re Hitz Restaurant Group, 616 B.R. 374, 376 (Bankr. N.D. Ill. 2020); In re Compuadd Corp., 166 B.R. 862, 864 (Bankr. W.D. Tex. 1994) (finding that the statute is unambiguous and requires timely payments of rent).

16. To treat these obligations, as some courts have, as general administrative claims under section 503(b) that do not have to be paid by the Debtors until plan confirmation (absent a court order otherwise) reads the “obligations under any unexpired lease of nonresidential real property” language out of the statute. 11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(9)(A). Performance will not occur as provided in the Leases, which the statute requires, but instead in accordance with section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code. This is contrary to section 365(d)(3)’s clear mandate that the Trustee must timely perform all obligations under the Leases.

17. The error of this tortured reading is made especially clear by section 365(d)(3)’s provision that the Trustee’s time for performing the Leases’ obligations cannot be extended more than 60 days beyond the petition date. Treating these obligations as general administrative claims that do not have to be paid until plan confirmation would often extend the time for performance well beyond the 60 days that section 365(d)(3) plainly states the Court cannot do.

18. Accordingly, the Court should hold that section 365(d)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code requires the Trustee to immediately pay Post-Petition Rent to the Landlords by November 9, 2025 (the 60th day from the Petition Date) and require that all future payments due under the Leases to be paid as they become due.

B. Alternatively, the Court Should Compel the Trustee to Pay the Landlords’ Administrative Expense Claim Immediately.

19. To the extent the Court disagrees with the Landlords’ analysis and instead holds the effect of section 365(d)(3) is to give the Landlords an automatic administrative expense claim under section 503(b)(1), the Court should order the Trustee to pay the Landlords’ administrative expense claims immediately given the present risk factors that the Estates will be unable to pay administrative claims.

20. Where there is a clear risk of administrative insolvency in a chapter 7 case, expedited payment of administrative claims may be warranted. In re Steepologie, LLC, 2024 WL 117525, *7 (Bankr. W.D. Tex. Jan. 10, 2024); see e.g., In re Bella Logistics LLC, 583 B.R. 674, 681 (Bankr. W.D. Tex. 2018); 11 U.S.C. § 105(a). As of the filing of this Motion, the Trustee professes to have no access to funds to pay for the ongoing and increasing expenses of administration of the estate, including but not limited to the ever-mounting monthly rent payments. Moreover, although the Debtors' Schedules and Statements of Financial Affairs have not yet been filed, upon information and belief, the ch. 7 estates are either currently administratively insolvent, or will be rendered such by the accruing administrative claims, including growing legal and professional fees and unpaid administrative rents.

21. Accordingly, if the Court does not hold that section 365(d)(3) mandates immediate payment of the Post-Petition Rent obligations due under the Leases, the Court should require that the Trustee pay the Post-Petition Rent immediately, based upon the risks that administrative claims may not be paid in full in these likely administratively insolvent estates and take all necessary measures to ensure that the Premises are being properly maintained, insured and supplied with sufficient utility services to prevent damage to the Premises.

C. If the Court Does Not Compel the Immediate Payment of Post-Petition Rent, the Trustee Should be Compelled to Immediately Reject the Leases.

22. Alternatively, if the Court does not hold that (a) section 365(d)(3) mandates immediate payment of the Post-Petition Rent obligations due under the Leases, or (b) that the Trustee should be compelled to pay the Post-Petition Rent obligations immediately as they become due given the risks that administrative claims will not be paid, then the Court should compel the Trustee to reject the Leases.

23. Allowing the Trustee to continue to market the Leases without the Trustee's compliance with payment obligations under the Leases squarely forces the Landlords to become unwilling financiers of the Trustee's efforts to operate the Debtors' business while preventing the Landlords from taking steps to mitigate the Landlords' damages through re-letting to new tenants.

24. Moreover, as additional cause to compel immediate rejection of the Leases, it is unclear whether the Trustee can confirm that the Premises are, and will continue to be (a) properly maintained, (b) covered by sufficient insurance policies securing the real estate and/or the personal property located therein to protect the Landlords, and/or (c) supplied with the necessary utility services to prevent any damage (especially given the coming seasonal changes and colder weather).

25. Denying the relief requested herein would impermissibly allow the Trustee to continue to gamble with the Landlords' property in an attempt to generate funds that, if realized, will in large part be used to pay professional fees, while the Landlords involuntarily bear the disproportionate risk of loss in the event of the Trustee's failure to successfully market the Leases.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, the Landlords pray that the Court (i) grant the relief requested herein, (ii) order the Trustee to immediately pay the Landlords the Post-Petition Rent by November 9, 2025, and (iii) order that the Trustee timely pay subsequent rents that continue to accrue under the Leases to Landlords. Alternatively, the Court should compel the Trustee to immediately reject the Leases effective as of November 9, 2025.

All insurance required to be carried by Tenant shall be issued by companies, on forms and with endorsements satisfactory to Landlord. Such policy or a certificate of insurer evidencing the insurance with proof of payment of premiums and an endorsement which prohibits cancellation, termination or modification without ten day's prior written notice to Landlord shall be deposited with Landlord on or prior to the Commencement Date. Certificates of renewal thereof shall be deposited with Landlord ten days' prior to the expiration of any such policy or renewal thereof.

10.2 OTHER INSURANCE

(a) During the occurrence of any improvements or construction or alterations to the Premises, or any improvement upon the Premises, Tenant shall keep in force "Builder's Risk" insurance, of its equivalent in amounts and coverages reasonably acceptable to Landlord, naming Landlord as an additional insured.

(b) Landlord shall keep in force such insurance against fire and standard extended coverage perils on buildings and improvements upon the Premises, but not on the trade fixtures and other equipment and property of Tenant situated on the Premises, as Landlord shall reasonably deem advisable. The premiums for such insurance coverage shall be paid by Tenant as additional rent when such premiums become due. If at any time during the term of this Lease, Landlord shall require that amounts for anticipated insurance premiums be held in escrow until payment thereof, then Tenant will pay Landlord the estimated insurance premiums on a monthly basis at the time of and in addition to each installment of Minimum Rent due hereunder. In the event that such monthly payments are not sufficient to pay in full such premiums as same come due, Tenant shall also pay to Landlord the shortage thereof within twenty (20) days after Landlord's written request therefore, In the event of monthly payments of estimated insurance premiums, the Landlord will annually during the term of the Lease provide to Tenant a statement for such payments made and premiums incurred. Amounts paid monthly to Landlord for estimated insurance premiums shall not be trust funds and may be comingled by Landlord with its own funds.

(c) Any Insurance carried by Landlord or Tenant against loss or damage to the building and other property situated on the Premises shall be carried for the benefit of Landlord to the extent of loss or damage to the building or improvements.

10.5 INSURANCE CONCERNING TENANT'S USE OF THE PREMISES

This section is intentionally omitted.

10.6 INSURANCE COVERING TENANT'S PROPERTY AND BUSINESS

Tenant shall, at its cost, maintain insurance covering: (i) its personal property, equipment and trade fixtures, including insurance providing protection against fire and extended coverage, perils, sprinkler damage, vandalism and malicious mischief, (ii) all plate glass on the Premises; and 3) Loss incurred as a result of business interruption. Such fire and extended coverage insurance will be in the amount of the full replacement value of the insured property, Tenant shall furnish Landlord with a certificate or certificates evidencing such insurance from the applicable insurer upon request.

10.7 WAIVER OF CLAIMS

The parties desire to avoid liability to each other's insurers. Thus, Landlord and Tenant each for itself and for any person or entity claiming through it (including any insurance company claiming by way of subrogation), hereby waives any and every claim which arises or may arise in its favor against the other party hereto and other party's officers, directors, and employees for any and all loss of or damage to property, to the extent (but only to the extent) that the waiving party who suffers such loss or damage is actually compensated by insurance or would be compensated by the insurance policies contemplated in this Article 10 if such policies were maintained as required hereby. Each party agrees to have such insurance policies properly endorsed so as to make them valid notwithstanding this waiver, if such endorsement is required to prevent a loss of insurance.

10.8 INDEMNITY

TENANT AGREES TO INDEMNIFY AND SAVE LANDLORD HARMLESS FROM AND AGAINST ANY AND ALL CLAIMS, ACTIONS, DAMAGES, LIENS, LIABILITIES AND EXPENSES, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO ATTORNEYS' FEES, IN CONNECTION WITH LOSS OF LIFE, PERSONAL INJURY AND/OR DAMAGE TO PROPERTY OCCURRING ON THE PREMISES OR ARISING FROM OR OUT OF TENANT'S OCCUPANCY OR USE OF THE PREMISES OR ANY PORTION THEREOF; AND TENANT SHALL PROMPTLY PAY OR OTHERWISE DISCHARGE ANY AND ALL SUCH CLAIMS, ACTIONS, DAMAGES, LIENS, LIABILITIES AND EXPENSES REGARDLESS OF LANDLORD'S NEGLIGENCE IN CONNECTION THEREWITH. THE INTENT OF THE PARTIES IS FOR THIS PROVISION TO BE DEEMED IN FULL COMPLIANCE WITH THE EXPRESS NEGLIGENCE DOCTRINE.

10.9 EXCULPATION OF LANDLORD

Except as may be caused primarily by the gross negligence or intentional misconduct of Landlord, Landlord shall not be liable for (i) injury or damage which may be sustained by Tenant, its agents, officers, directors, employees or invitees, or to their goods, wares, merchandise or property, caused by or resulting from the state of repair of the Premises ; (ii) injury or damage from fire, steam, electricity, gas, water or rain which may leak or flow from or into any part of the Premises; or (iii) the breakage, leakage, obstruction or other defects of the pipes, sprinklers, wires, appliances, plumbing, air conditioning or lighting fixtures of the Premises. Landlord shall not be liable for any damages sustained by Tenant by reason of construction, repair or reconstruction, or widening of any private, public or quasi-public utility lines, streets, walkways or thoroughfares; nor shall the rent or other charges under this Lease be abated during any period that ingress, egress or traffic may be curtailed, blocked or hampered by reason of such activities

11. CASUALTY AND RESTORATION

11.1 ACTIONS REQUIRED FOLLOWING CASUALTY

If the building or other improvements on the Premises should be damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty, Tenant shall give immediate written notice thereof to Landlord. If the Premises are damaged by fire or other insured casualty to the extent of less than one-third of the then value of the Premises and if the holder of any deed of trust, mortgage, or security interest covering the Premises does not require that the insurance proceeds payable on account of such fire or casualty be applied to reduce the indebtedness secured thereby, then Landlord shall repair such damage at its expense. However, if the Premises are damaged by fire or other casualty to the extent of more than one-third of the then value of the Premises, or if the holder of any deed of trust, mortgage or security interest covering the Premises applies or indicates that it may apply the insurance proceeds payable on account of such fire or other casualty to the indebtedness secured thereby, or if the casualty or cause of damage or loss is one for which Landlord does not have insurance coverage, then Landlord may, at its option, terminate this Lease by giving written notice to Tenant within ninety days after Landlord is notified of the fire, other casualty or other cause of damage or loss. If this option is available but not exercised by Landlord, then Landlord shall proceed with reasonable diligence to collect any insurance proceeds not claimed by the holder of a deed of trust, mortgage or security interest on the Premises and to apply any or all of such proceeds as may be required to repair such damages.

11.2 EXCEPTION TO LANDLORD'S OBLIGATION TO RESTORE

Notwithstanding the preceding Paragraph 11.1, Landlord shall not be required to repair or rebuild after any fire or other casualty that occurs during the last year of the Primary Term or during the last year of any renewal or extension of the Primary Term; provided, however, that if Tenant shall, within thirty (30) days after such occurrence, exercise any option to extend the term of this Lease that may be available to Tenant and if because of the exercise of such option the term of this Lease shall be scheduled to last at least three years from the date of such occurrence, then Landlord's obligation to repair or rebuild shall not be affected by this Paragraph 11.2. If Landlord refuses to repair or rebuild the Premises pursuant to this Paragraph 11.2, Tenant shall be entitled, as its sole remedy, to terminate this Lease.

11.3 CASUALTY CAUSED BY TENANT; DAMAGE TO FACILITY

Notwithstanding the preceding provisions, if any damage to the Premises by fire or other casualty is due to any act or failure to act on the part of Tenant, Landlord may, at its option, terminate this Lease by giving written notice to Tenant within ninety days after Landlord is notified of the fire, other casualty or other cause of damage or loss.

11.4 CONTINUATION OF OPERATIONS

During the period of any repairs to or restoration of the Premises, Tenant shall continue the operation of its business to the extent reasonably practicable. There shall be no abatement of Minimum Rent or other charges during the period of such repairs or restoration.

11.5 EXTENT OF LANDLORD'S OBLIGATIONS

Landlord's obligation to repair or rebuild pursuant to this Article 11 shall be limited to the restoration of a "shell" building to the extent permitted by Applicable Laws, and to the replacement of any interior work in the Premises which may have originally been installed at Landlord's cost; and Tenant shall be obligated to complete the balance of the repairs or rebuilding required for the Premises. Upon completion of such restoration and replacement, Tenant shall promptly refixture and restock the Premises. If Landlord fails to complete any material rebuilding or repair required of it under this Article 11 within one hundred eighty working days (plus such time as such rebuilding or repairs are delayed by reason of strike, lockout, unavailability of material, fire or other casualty, governmental regulation, act of war, adverse weather or other condition beyond the Landlord's control) from the date Tenant notifies Landlord of the happening of the damage, then Tenant may give Landlord sixty (60) days written notice of its intent to terminate this Lease; and if the applicable rebuilding or repair is not substantially completed by the end of such sixty (60) days (or such time as said period may be extended because of delays beyond the Landlord's control), then Tenant may, as its sole remedy, terminate this Lease and thereafter no further rights or obligations will accrue to any party under this Lease.

12. EMINENT DOMAIN

12.1 SUBSTANTIAL TAKING

If during the term of this Lease, all or a substantial part of the Premises should be taken for any public or quasi- public use by eminent domain, or should be sold to the condemning authority under threat of condemnation, this Lease shall terminate and all rentals shall be abated during the unexpired portion of this Lease, effective as of the date when said taking or sale shall occur. "Substantial part", as used herein, means that the remainder of the Premises cannot be reconstructed or restored to make it reasonably tenantable and suitable for the uses for which the Premises are leased as defined in the Basic Lease Information.

12.2 LESS THAN SUBSTANTIAL TAKING

If less than a substantial part of the Premises shall be taken for any public or quasi-public use by eminent domain, or should be sold to the condemning authority under the threat of condemnation, this Lease shall not terminate and Landlord shall, at its sole expense, restore and reconstruct the building and other Improvements situated on the remaining part of the Premises so as to make the remaining part reasonably tenantable and suitable for the uses set out in the Basic Lease Information; provided, however, that Paragraphs 11.2, 11.4 and 11.5 above shall apply as if the part taken or sold were destroyed by a fire or other casualty. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, Landlord may, at its option, terminate this Lease rather than restore and reconstruct the Premises after less than a substantial portion of the Premises are taken or sold as aforesaid if the cost of such restoration and reconstruction can be expected to exceed the damages or other consideration that Landlord will receive because of the partial taking or sale of the Premises.

12.3 AWARD OF DAMAGES

All damages awarded for any taking of all or any part of the Premises by eminent domain, and all proceeds of a sale in lieu of such a taking, shall belong to and be the property of Landlord, whether compensation for the diminution in value of the Tenant's leasehold or for the fee of the Premises. However, Landlord shall not be entitled to any separate award made to Tenant for loss or damage to Tenant's removable personal property. Nor will Landlord be entitled to any award for damages for cessation or Interruption of Tenant's business to the extent that such cessation or interruption damages are awarded exclusive of and separate and apart from damages for diminution in value of the Tenant's leasehold.

13. ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLETTING

13.1 REQUIREMENT OF LANDLORD'S CONSENT

Tenant may not, either voluntarily or by operation of law, without the prior written consent of Landlord, assign this Lease, sublet the whole or any part of the Premises, sell, encumber, pledge or otherwise transfer all or any part of Tenant's leasehold estate hereunder, or permit the Premises to be possessed by anyone other than Tenant or Tenant's employees. Landlord's decision to consent to any subletting or assignment by Tenant shall be within Landlord's sole and exclusive discretion and Landlord may refuse to give such consent based upon, but not limited to, factors pertaining to:

- (a) the similarity of the business of any proposed subtenant or assignee with the business conducted on the Premises by Tenant;
- (b) the financial statement, credit and ability of any proposed subtenant or assignee to meet the obligations, terms and conditions of this Lease; and

- (c) the reputation of the proposed subtenant or assignee and its principles (owners, shareholders, members, officers, directors, managers, etc.,) if the proposed subtenant or assignees not a nature person) within the business community where the Premises are located and/or within the business community were the proposed subtenant or assignee conducts any business.

Notwithstanding any permitted assignment or subletting, Tenant and any guarantor of Tenant's obligations under this Lease shall at all times remain fully responsible and liable for the payment of the rent herein specified and for compliance with all of Tenant's other obligations under the terms, provisions and covenants of this Lease. As a condition precedent to any subletting or assignment by Tenant hereunder, Tenant agrees to furnish Landlord with a copy of the proposed assignment or sublease, together with a description of the business to be conducted at the Premises by such proposed assignee or subtenant, current financial statements of such proposed assignee or subtenant, and such other information as Landlord may request, all at least thirty days prior to the date on which the proposed assignment or sublease is to be executed. Tenant further agrees to furnish Landlord with an executed copy of such assignment or sublease immediately after such instrument is executed. Landlord shall have the option, exercisable within seven days from the submission of Tenant's written request for consent to any assignment or subletting, to cancel this Lease as of the proposed date of the commencement of such assignment or subletting; however, failure to exercise such option shall not imply that Landlord has consented to or approved such proposed assignment or sublease. In the event Landlord exercises its option to cancel this Lease, then the term, tenancy and occupancy of the Premises hereunder or otherwise shall forthwith cease and expire as if the effective date of cancellation was the original termination date of this Lease. Any permitted assignment or subletting shall be subject to all the terms and conditions of this Lease including the provisions of the Basic Lease Information and Article 2 relating to the use of the Premises. Even if Landlord shall consent to a sublease or any assignment of this Lease, no further subleases or assignments may be made without the prior written consent of Landlord. If for any reason a court of competent jurisdiction declares that Landlord may not withhold its consent to a proposed subletting or assignment after Landlord has, in fact, withheld such consent, Tenant's sole remedy shall be to have the proposed assignment or subletting declared valid as if Landlord's consent had been given.

13.2 ASSIGNMENT BY OPERATION OF LAW

In the event Tenant shall be a corporation or other entity, any amalgamation such as a merger, consolidation or any transfer, sale, pledge or other disposition of the controlling stock or other evidence of ownership or majority of the assets of Tenant shall be deemed an assignment of this Lease and if done without Landlord's consent, shall constitute a violation of this Article 13. Tenant will at all times be the operator and manager of the Premises and Tenant shall not attempt to use a management contract, concession agreement or any other arrangement without Landlord's consent whereby the operation of the business on the Premises will be other than by Tenant. Any such attempt shall be deemed an assignment or sublease and shall constitute a violation of this Article 13. If there is more than one Tenant and there is any change in the composition of Tenant, such change shall be deemed an assignment and shall be a violation of this Article 13 if made without Landlord's consent. If a Tenant is an individual and dies,

Landlord shall have the option to cancel this Lease. In the event Landlord does not exercise its option to cancel this Lease, Landlord shall be furnished with the court order or letters testamentary evidencing who has authority to act on behalf of the estate of Tenant.

13.3 COSTS AND REVENUES ASSOCIATED WITH ASSIGNMENT

In the event that Landlord shall be asked to consent to a sublease or assignment hereunder, Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for all attorney's fees and expenses incurred by Landlord in connection therewith. In the event of an assignment of the leasehold estate created hereby or a sublease of the Premises, the assignor or sub-lessor shall have no right to any rental or other revenues generated thereby in excess of the rental herein reserved, which excess rental and other revenues shall belong to Landlord and shall be promptly paid to Landlord as it becomes due and payable.

14. DEFAULTS AND REMEDIES

14.1 DEFAULT BY TENANT

The occurrence of any one of the following events shall be an event of default by Tenant under this Lease:

(a) Tenant shall fail to pay any rental or other sum of money when due hereunder, which failure continues for more than three (3) days after written notice to Tenant, provided however, that Landlord shall not be required to give more than two (2) such notices in any one twelve (12) month period.

(b) Tenant shall fail to perform or observe any term, condition, covenant or agreement of this Lease (other than a failure to timely pay rent or other charges) and Tenant shall not cure such failure within twenty (20) days after notice thereof is given by Landlord, but if such failure is of a nature that it cannot be cured within such twenty (20) day period, Tenant shall not have committed an event of default if Tenant commences the curing of the failure within such twenty (20) day period and thereafter diligently pursues the curing of same without interruption and completes such cure within sixty days; provided, however, that if Tenant shall fail to perform or observe any term, condition, covenant or agreement of this Lease two (2) or more times in any twelve (12) month period, then notwithstanding that such defaults have been cured by Tenant, any further similar failure shall be deemed an event of default without notice or opportunity to cure.

(c) Tenant or any guarantor of Tenant's obligations under this Lease shall become insolvent, shall admit in writing its inability to pay its debts when due, shall make a transfer in fraud of its creditors, shall make a general assignment or arrangement for the benefit of creditors, or all or substantially all of Tenant's assets or the assets of any guarantor of Tenant's obligations under this Lease or Tenant's interest in this Lease are levied on by execution or other legal process.

(d) A petition shall be filed by or against Tenant or any guarantor of Tenant's obligations under this Lease to have Tenant or such guarantor adjudged a bankrupt, or a petition for reorganization or arrangement under any law relating to bankruptcy shall be filed by or against Tenant or such guarantor.

(e) A receiver or trustee shall be appointed for all or substantially all of the assets of Tenant or of any guarantor of Tenant's obligations under this Lease or for Tenant's interest in this Lease.

(f) Tenant shall abandon or vacate any substantial portion of the Premises after Tenant's initial occupancy.

(g) An event of default by Tenant shall occur under any other lease presently in effect or entered into in the future by and between Landlord (or any entity owned in whole or in part by a partner or stockholder of Landlord) and Tenant.

14.2 REMEDIES OF LANDLORD

(a) Upon the occurrence of any event of default by Tenant, Landlord shall have the option, without any notice to Tenant (except as expressly provided below) and with or without judicial process, to pursue any one or more of the following remedies:

- (i) Landlord may terminate this Lease, in which event Tenant shall immediately surrender the Premises to Landlord.
- (ii) Landlord may enter upon and take custodial possession of the Premises by picking the locks if necessary, lock out or remove Tenant and any other person occupying the Premises and alter the locks and other security devices at the Premises, all without Landlord being deemed guilty of trespass or becoming liable for any resulting loss or damage and without causing a termination or forfeiture of this Lease or of the Tenant's obligation to pay rent. Landlord shall not, in the event of a lockout by changing the locks, be required to furnish new keys to Tenant.
- (iii) Landlord may enter the Premises and take possession of and remove any and all trade fixtures and personal property situated in the Premises, without liability for trespass or conversion. Landlord may retain control over all such property for the purpose of foreclosing the liens and security interests described in Article 15 below by public or private sale. If Landlord takes possession of and removes personal property from the Premises, then prior to any disposition of the property by sale or until Tenant reclaims the property if no foreclosure by public or private sale is contemplated, Landlord may store it in a public warehouse or elsewhere at the cost of and for the account of Tenant without the resort to legal process and without becoming liable for any resulting loss or damage.
- (iv) Landlord may perform on behalf of Tenant any obligation of Tenant under this Lease which Tenant has failed to perform and the cost of the performance will be deemed additional rental and will be payable by Tenant to Landlord upon demand.

Landlord's pursuit of any remedy specified in this Lease will not constitute an election to pursue that remedy only, nor preclude Landlord from pursuing any other remedy available at law or in equity, nor constitute a forfeiture or waiver of any rent or other amount due to Landlord as described below.

(b) In the event Landlord enters and takes possession of the Premises without electing to cause a termination of this Lease, Landlord will have the right to relet the Premises for Tenant, in the name of Tenant or Landlord or otherwise, on such terms as Landlord deems advisable and Tenant hereby appoints Landlord its attorney-in-act for such purposes. Landlord will not be required to incur any expense to relet the Premises and the failure of Landlord to relet the Premises shall not reduce Tenant's liability for monthly rentals and other charges due under this Lease or for damages. Landlord will not be obligated to relet for less than the then market value of the Premises or to relet the Premises when other comparable rental space in the Shopping Center is available. Without causing a termination or forfeiture of this Lease after an event of default by Tenant, Landlord may: (i) relet the Premises for a term or terms to expire at the same time as, earlier than, or subsequent to, the expiration of the Lease Term; (ii) remodel or change the use and character of the Premises; (iii) grant rent concessions in reletting the Premises, if necessary in Landlord's judgment, without reducing Tenant's obligation for rentals specified in this Lease; and (iv) relet all or any portion of the Premises as a part of a larger area. Subject to the next subparagraph 14.2 (c), Landlord may retain the excess, if any, of the rent earned from reletting the Premises over the rentals specified in this Lease.

(c) After any failure by Tenant to pay rent, Landlord may, whether or not it has chosen to re-enter and take possession of the Premises, but only if it has not then notified Tenant of its election to terminate this Lease, collect from and require Tenant to pay an amount (a "Rental Deposit") equal to the then present value of all Minimum Rent specified herein for the balance of the Lease Term. However, if Landlord has relet the Premises or relets thereafter without first terminating this Lease, Landlord will apply any future rentals from reletting (but not rental representing reimbursement for CAM Charges, Taxes or Insurance Costs or rental allocable to any area outside the Premises or rental allocable to the period following the Lease Term) in the following manner: First, to reduce any amounts then due from Tenant, including but not limited to attorneys' fees, brokerage commissions and other expenses Landlord may have incurred in connection with the collection of any rent, recovery of possession, and redecorating, altering, dividing, consolidating with adjoining premises, or otherwise preparing the Premises for reletting; and, second, to the repayment of any Rental Deposit collected from Tenant. The balance, if any, of the future rentals from reletting shall be retained by Landlord as compensation for reletting the Premises. Tenant will not be entitled to any repayment of the Rental Deposit except as provided herein, but Tenant will be relieved of its obligation to make future payments of any Minimum Rent with respect to which it has paid a Rental Deposit to Landlord. Landlord will notify Tenant if Landlord elects to collect a Rental Deposit after an event of default by Tenant, whereupon the Rental Deposit will be immediately due and payable and may be collected by Landlord by a suit to enforce payment.

(d) No re-entry or reletting of the Premises or any filing or service of an unlawful detainer action or similar action will be construed as an election by Landlord to terminate or accept a forfeiture of this Lease or to accept a surrender of the Premises after an event of default by Tenant, unless a written notice of such intention is given by Landlord to Tenant; but notwithstanding any such action without such notice, Landlord may at any time thereafter elect to terminate this Lease by notifying Tenant. In the event, however, Landlord terminates this Lease after collecting a Rental Deposit as provided in the preceding subparagraph 14.2(c), Landlord will reimburse Tenant for the excess (if any) of (i) that portion of the Rental Deposit collected and attributable to the Minimum Rent for the period following such termination, over (ii) the amount that, notwithstanding the termination, Landlord would have been entitled to recover from Tenant with respect to such period if Landlord had not collected the Rental Deposit.

(e) Upon the termination of this Lease, Landlord will be entitled to recover all unpaid rentals that have accrued through the date of termination plus the costs of performing any of Tenant's obligations (other than the payment of rent) that should have been but were not satisfied as of the date such termination. In addition, if the termination follows a material event of default (as described below in this subparagraph), Landlord will be entitled to recover, not as rent or a penalty but as compensation for Landlord's loss of the benefit of its bargain with Tenant, the difference between (i) an amount equal to the present value of the rental and other sums that this Lease provides Tenant will pay for the remainder of the Lease Term and for the balance of any then effective extension of the Lease Term, and (ii) the present value of the future rentals (net of leasing commissions and other costs of reletting) for such period that will be or with reasonable efforts could be collected by Landlord by reletting the Premises. For purposes of determining what could be collected by Landlord by reletting under the preceding sentence, it will be assumed that Landlord is not required to relet when other comparable space in the Shopping Center is available for lease and that Landlord will not be required to incur any cost to relet, other than customary leasing commissions. As used herein, a material event of default shall mean (i) any failure to pay rent described in Paragraph 14.1(a) above; (ii) any failure to maintain insurance required by this Lease; or (iii) any other events of default, individually or in the aggregate, which Landlord reasonably determines to be material.

(f) After a material event of default by Tenant, Landlord may recover from Tenant from time to time and Tenant shall pay to Landlord upon demand, whether or not Landlord has relet the Premises or terminated this Lease, (i) such expenses as Landlord may incur in recovering possession of the Premises, terminating this Lease, placing the Premises in good order and condition and altering or repairing the same for reletting; (ii) all other costs and expenses (including brokerage commissions and legal fees) paid or incurred by Landlord in exercising any remedy or as a result of the event of default by Tenant; and (iii) any other amount necessary to compensate Landlord for all the detriment proximately caused by Tenant's failure to perform Tenant's obligations under this Lease or which in the ordinary course of things would be likely to result from such failure.

(g) In the event that any future amount owing to Landlord or offsetting an amount owing to Landlord is to be discounted to present value under this Lease, the present value shall be determined by discounting at the rate of seven percent per annum.

(h) Any Minimum Rent or additional rental or other amounts required to be paid by Tenant hereunder which shall not be paid when due shall bear interest at the Lease Interest Rate. "Lease Interest Rate" as used herein means three percent above the Wall Street Journal US Prime Rate (WSJ US Prime Rate from time to time charged, announced or published by the Wall Street Journal., but in no event shall such interest rate exceed the highest rate permitted by the laws of the state where the Premises are located. Any payment of the ten percent charge described in the next subparagraph shall be credited against interest otherwise accruing under this subparagraph 14.2(h).

(i) Tenant hereby acknowledges that late payment by Tenant to Landlord of rent and other sums due hereunder will cause Landlord to incur costs not contemplated by this Lease, the exact amount of which will be extremely difficult to ascertain. Such costs include, but are not limited to, processing and accounting charges and late charges which may be imposed on Landlord by the terms of any mortgage or deed of trust covering the Premises. Accordingly, if an event of default by Tenant shall arise because any installment of rent or any other sum due from Tenant shall not be received by Landlord or Landlord's designee on the date such amount shall be due, Tenant shall pay to Landlord a late charge equal to ten percent of such overdue amount. The parties hereby agree that such late charge does not represent interest, but rather represents a fair and reasonable estimate of the costs Landlord will incur by reason of late payment by Tenant. Acceptance of such late charge by Landlord shall not constitute a waiver of Tenant's default with respect to such overdue amount, nor prevent Landlord from exercising any of the other rights and remedies granted hereunder. The failure of Tenant to pay such late charge as herein stated shall be an event of default hereunder.

This Paragraph 14.2 shall be enforceable to the extent not prohibited by applicable law, and the unenforceability of any provision in this Paragraph shall not render any other provision unenforceable. To the extent permitted by law, Tenant and Landlord agree that paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (e), (f) and (g) of Section 93.002 of the Texas Property Code shall not apply to this Lease. However, as provided in Section 93.008(d) of the Texas Property Code, Tenant will be presumed to have abandoned the Premises if goods, equipment, or other property, in an amount substantial enough to indicate a probable intent to abandon the Premises, is being or has been removed from the Premises and the removal is not within the normal course of Tenant's business.

14.3 DEFAULT BY LANDLORD

If Landlord should be in default in the performance of any of its obligations under this Lease, Landlord shall have thirty days to cure such default after receipt by Landlord of written notice from Tenant specifying such default; or if such default is of a nature to require more than thirty days to remedy, landlord shall have the time reasonably necessary to cure it. Tenant agrees to also serve any notice of claimed default or breach by Landlord under this Lease upon the lender holding a first mortgage or deed of trust against the Premises, provided Tenant has any right to terminate this Lease because of a default by Landlord before allowing such lender the same period following such notice to cure the claimed default or breach as is allowed Landlord. But this Paragraph 14.3 will not be interpreted as creating or broadening any right of Tenant to terminate this Lease because of a default by Landlord. Tenant waives any statutory lien it may have against rents due under this Lease or against Landlord's property in Tenant's possession.

14.4 ATTORNEYS' FEES

If Landlord incurs attorneys' fees because of Tenant's failure to cure a breach of this Lease within any permitted cure period or because of any request by Tenant for the consent or approval of Landlord to any matter requiring Landlord's consent or approval under this Lease, then Tenant will reimburse Landlord for such fees upon demand.

14.5 WAIVERS

No waiver by landlord of any provision of this Lease will be deemed a waiver of any other provision or of any subsequent breach by Tenant. Landlord's consent to or approval of any act will not be deemed to render unnecessary the obtaining of Landlord's consent to or approval of any subsequent act by Tenant. Landlord's acceptance of rent will not constitute a waiver of any preceding breach by Tenant of this Lease, regardless of Landlord's knowledge of the preceding breach at the time Landlord accepts the rent. Any payment by Tenant or receipt by Landlord of a lesser amount than the Minimum Rent and additional rental stipulated in this Lease will be deemed to be on account of the earliest stipulated rental. Notwithstanding any endorsement or statement on any check or any letter accompanying any check or payment of Minimum Rent or additional rental, Landlord may accept such check or payment without prejudice to Landlord's right to hold the Tenant in default and recover the balance of any Minimum Rent or additional rental due and pursue any other remedy provided in this Lease. Landlord's failure to take any action in regard to Tenant's default, regardless of how long will not constitute a waiver of such default. Any waiver of Tenant's default must be in writing and signed by Landlord to be effective. Any written waiver by Landlord will constitute a waiver only in the specific circumstances described in the waiver.

15. LANDLORD'S LIEN AND SECURITY INTEREST

To secure the payment of all rental and other sums of money due and to become due hereunder and the faithful performance of this Lease by Tenant, Tenant hereby grants to Landlord an express first and prior contractual lien upon and security interest in all property (including fixtures, equipment, chattels and merchandise) which may be placed on the Premises by Tenant and all proceeds thereof, including proceeds of any insurance which may accrue to tenant by reason of destruction of or damage to any such property. Such property shall not be removed from the Premises without the written consent of Landlord until all arrearages in rent and other sums of money then due to Landlord hereunder shall first have been paid. All exemption laws are hereby waived in favor of said lien and security interest. This lien and security interest are given in addition to any Landlord's statutory lien and shall be cumulative thereto. Upon the occurrence of an event of default, this security interest may be foreclosed with or without court proceedings by public or private sale provided Landlord gives Tenant at least fifteen days' notice of the time and place of said sale, and Landlord shall have the right to become the purchaser, upon being the highest bidder at such sale. Contemporaneously with the execution of this Lease (or thereafter if requested by Landlord), Tenant shall execute and deliver to Landlord uniform commercial code financing statements in sufficient form so that when properly filed, the security interest hereby granted shall be perfected. Upon request by Landlord, Tenant shall also execute and deliver to Landlord uniform commercial code financing statement change instruments in sufficient form to reflect any proper amendment or modification in or extension of the contractual lien and security interest hereby granted. A carbon, photographic or other reproduction of this Lease will suffice and may be filed as a financing statement. Landlord shall, in addition to all of its rights hereunder, also have all of the rights and remedies of a secured party under the uniform commercial code as adopted in the state in which the Premises are located.

16. SECURITY DEPOSIT

16.1 If Tenant has deposited the Security Deposit with the Landlord as security for Tenant's satisfactory performance of the terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease including the payment of Minimum Rent and Additional Rent.

- (a) Application of Security Deposit. Landlord may use, apply or retain the whole or any part of the security so deposited to the extent required for the payment of any Minimum Rent and Additional Rent or any other sum as to which Tenant is in default or for any sum which Landlord may expend or may be required to expend by reason of Tenant's default in respect of any of the terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease including any damages or deficiency in the re-letting of the demised premises or other reentry by Landlord.
- (b) Replenishment of Security Deposit. If Landlord uses, applies or retains the whole or any part of the security Tenant shall replenish the security to its original sum five (5) days after being notified by the Landlord of the amount due. Tenant shall be in default of this Lease if the amount due is not paid within the required time period.

17.1 COVENANT OF QUIET ENJOYMENT

Tenant, upon payment of the rents herein reserved and performance of the terms, conditions, covenants and agreements herein contained, may peaceably and quietly have, hold and enjoy the Premises during the full term of this Lease, including any extension thereof, without hindrance or interruption by Landlord or any other person or entity lawfully claiming an interest in the Premises by, through, or under Landlord, subject, however, to the terms and conditions hereof and subject and subordinate to any mortgage, ground lease, deed of trust or other liens, restrictions, encumbrances, easements and zoning now or at any time hereafter affecting the Premises.

17.2 SUBORDINATION

This Lease is subject and subordinate to any mortgage, deed of trust or ground lease which now or may in the future affect the Premises or any interest of Landlord in the Premise, and to all increases, renewals, modifications, consolidations, replacements, and extensions thereof. This Paragraph is self operative. No further instrument is required to effect the subordination of this Lease to any such mortgage, deed of trust or ground lease. In confirmation of the subordination, however, Tenant agrees to execute, acknowledge, and deliver promptly any certificate or instrument requested by Landlord that evidences the subordination. Tenant hereby irrevocably appoints Landlord its attorney-in-fact to execute, acknowledge and deliver any such certificate or instrument for Tenant. Tenant agrees that if the Premises are sold at foreclosure under any such mortgage or deed of trust or are transferred in lieu of foreclosure, or if the lessor repossesses the Premises under any such ground lease, Tenant will attorn to the purchaser, transferee or lessor (as the case may be, the "Applicable Successor") upon request. Tenant will recognize such Applicable Successor as the landlord under this Lease if the Applicable Successor elects to keep this Lease in effect. Even if the Applicable Successor does elect to keep this Lease in effect, the Applicable Successor shall not be:

- (a) liable under this Lease or otherwise for any act or omission of any prior landlord (including the original Landlord named above); or
- (b) subject to any offsets or defenses which Tenant might have against any prior Landlord (including landlord) with respect to the rent and other amounts payable under this Lease and the other obligations of Tenant hereunder; or
- (c) bound by any rent or additional rent which Tenant might have paid for more than the current month to any prior landlord (including Landlord); or
- (d) liable for construction of or payment for tenant improvements to the Premises or any part thereof; or

- (e) bound by any amendment or modification of this Lease made without its consent; or
- (f) bound by any expansion option, right of first refusal or similar rights, or exclusive use rights provided to Tenant by this Lease or otherwise, to the extent the same is not consistent with the rights claimed by, through or under other tenants in the Shopping Center.

This Lease and all rights of Tenant are further subject and subordinate to all other existing title matters that affect the Premises, including all utility easements and agreements.

18. RIGHTS RESERVED BY LANDLORD

Landlord reserves the following rights, exercisable without notice and without liability to Tenant and without causing an eviction (constructive or actual) or giving rise to any claim for setoff or abatement of rent:

- (a) to enter upon the Premises at reasonable hours to inspect, clean or make repairs or alterations (without implying any obligation to do so) and to show the Premises to prospective lenders or purchasers or, during the last 6 months of the Term, prospective tenants and, if the Premises are vacated, to prepare them for reoccupancy;
- (b) to retain and use in appropriate instances keys to all doors into and within the Premises (Tenant shall not change or add locks without the prior written consent of Landlord);

19. SURRENDER OF PREMISES AND HOLDING OVER

Upon the expiration of the terms hereof Tenant shall deliver all keys to the Premises to Landlord and shall surrender the Premises to Landlord in as good order and condition as at the commencement of the Lease Term except for ordinary wear and tear and damage by fire and other standard extended coverage perils. In the event Tenant continues to occupy the Premises after the expiration of the Lease Term, such occupancy shall be considered a tenancy from month-to-month at a monthly rental equal to twice the highest amount of Minimum Rent and additional rental due for any calendar month of the Lease Term and such tenancy shall be upon and subject to all of the other terms, provisions, covenants and agreements set forth herein, except that Tenant shall have no right to renew this lease or to extend or continue possession hereunder nor have any other option that may be hereby granted to Tenant. Upon the expiration or termination of this Lease, if Tenant is not then in default, Tenant may remove, at its expense, any trade fixtures and unattached personal property previously placed in the Premises by Tenant; but any damage to the Premises caused by such removal shall be repaired by Tenant at the time of the removal. All other installations (including air conditioning equipment, duct work, electric and water connections and electric lighting fixtures) and all repairs, improvements, replacements and alterations to the Premises made by Tenant shall, upon being installed, become the property of Landlord. However, Tenant shall promptly remove any alterations or improvements to the Premises made by it if requested to do so by Landlord, and shall repair any damage to the Premises resulting from such removal. Tenant shall continue to pay all rent until Tenant has made all alterations and corrections as are required herein by Tenant, and until the additions and improvements Tenant is entitled or required to remove have been removed, and until all repairs required to be made by Tenant have been made. If, after the occurrence of an event of default, or upon the expiration or termination of this Lease, Tenant moves out or is dispossessed and fails to remove any trade fixtures, signs or other personal property placed on the Premises by Tenant prior to such moving out or dispossession, then and in any such events the said fixtures, signs and property shall at Landlord's option be deemed abandoned by Tenant and become the property of Landlord, Landlord shall not be liable for trespass, conversion or negligence by reason of its acts or the acts of anyone claiming under it or by reason of the negligence of any other person with respect to the acquisition and/or disposition of such property, whether or not deemed to be abandoned by Tenant.

- (c) that Landlord is not in default under any provision of the lease (or if in default, the nature thereof in detail) and a statement as to any outstanding obligations on the part of Landlord or Tenant;
- (d) that, if requested by Landlord or Landlord's mortgagee or assignee, Tenant will not pay rent for more than one month in advance; and
- (e) that no modification (except as described in such statement) or termination of this Lease executed or effected by Tenant shall be binding upon any mortgagee holding a mortgage or deed of trust covering the Shopping Center granted by Landlord without notice to and approval of such mortgagee.

23. OVERHEAD AND ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES

In determining any costs that Landlord pays or incurs to make any repairs required of Tenant or to perform any other obligation of Tenant, which Tenant fails to make or perform, Landlord shall be entitled to add 15% to its direct costs to cover its overhead and administrative expenses. Further, a 15% overhead and administrative charge will be added to any costs paid or incurred by Landlord to provide Tenant with special services or facilities that are not required, by the terms of this Lease, to be provided at Landlord's expense. Thus, for example, if Landlord incurs any cost to make repairs required of Tenant pursuant to Paragraph 4.2, Landlord shall be entitled to charge Tenant such costs plus 15% to cover Landlord's overhead and administrative expenses.

Tenant shall have two non-assignable options to renew the Lease for successive five (5) year periods, at prevailing market rental rates, to be determined as of the date each renewal option is exercised. The renewal options may be exercised only if the Tenant is not in default of any provision of the Lease. The second renewal option shall automatically terminate if the first renewal option is not timely exercised. Each renewal option must be exercised no later than 180 days prior to the Expiration Date of the then current term, all as set forth Exhibit "F".

(d) The prohibited uses set out herein apply to Tenant's use of the Premises and do not in any way limit Landlord's rights with respect to the Premises. If any such charges are not paid when due, Landlord may pay the same and any amount so paid by Landlord shall thereupon become due to Landlord from Tenant as additional rent. Regardless of whether Landlord supplies Tenant with any utility services, Landlord shall not be responsible for problems with respect to the quality, quantity or interruption of such services beyond its control, and failure or interruption of services shall not entitle Tenant to terminate this Lease or to any rent abatement..

Landlord shall be designated as an additional insured under any such policy. Such insurance may be carried under a blanket policy covering the Premises and any other property of Tenant. All insurance required to be carried by Tenant shall be issued by companies, on forms and with endorsements satisfactory to Landlord. Such policy or a certificate of insurer evidencing the insurance with proof of payment of premiums and an endorsement which prohibits cancellation, termination or modification without at least ten day's prior written notice to Landlord shall be deposited with Landlord on or prior to the Commencement Date. The premiums for such insurance coverage shall be paid by Tenant as additional rent when such premiums become due. If at any time during the term of this Lease, Landlord shall require that amounts for anticipated insurance premiums be held in escrow until payment thereof, then Tenant will pay Landlord the estimated insurance premiums on a monthly basis at the time of and in addition to each installment of Minimum Rent due hereunder. In the event that such monthly payments are not sufficient to pay in full such premiums as same come due, Tenant shall also pay to Landlord the shortage thereof within twenty (20) days after Landlord's written request therefore. In the event of monthly payments of estimated insurance premiums, the Landlord will annually during the term of the Lease provide to Tenant a statement for such payments made and premiums incurred. Amounts paid monthly to Landlord for estimated insurance premiums shall not be trust funds and may be comingled by Landlord with its own funds.

Such fire and extended coverage insurance will be in the amount of the full replacement value of the insured property; Tenant shall furnish Landlord with a certificate or certificates evidencing such insurance from the applicable insurer upon request.

10.7 WAIVER OF CLAIMS

The parties desire to avoid liability to each other's insurers. Thus, Landlord and Tenant each for itself and for any person or entity claiming through it (including any insurance company claiming by way of subrogation), hereby waives any and every claim which arises or may arise in its favor against the other party hereto and other party's officers, directors, and employees for any and all loss of or damage to property, to the extent (but only to the extent) that the waiving party who suffers such loss or damage is actually compensated by insurance or would be compensated by the insurance policies contemplated in this Article 10 if such policies were maintained as required hereby. Each party agrees to have such insurance policies properly endorsed so as to make them valid notwithstanding this waiver, if such endorsement is required to prevent a loss of insurance.

10.8 INDEMNITY

TENANT AGREES TO INDEMNIFY AND SAVE LANDLORD HARMLESS FROM AND AGAINST ANY AND ALL CLAIMS, ACTIONS, DAMAGES, LIENS, LIABILITIES AND EXPENSES, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO ATTORNEYS' FEES, IN CONNECTION WITH LOSS OF LIFE, PERSONAL INJURY AND/OR DAMAGE TO PROPERTY OCCURRING ON THE PREMISES OR ARISING FROM OR OUT OF TENANT'S OCCUPANCY OR USE OF THE PREMISES OR ANY PORTION THEREOF; AND TENANT SHALL PROMPTLY PAY OR OTHERWISE DISCHARGE ANY AND ALL SUCH CLAIMS, ACTIONS, DAMAGES, LIENS, LIABILITIES AND EXPENSES REGARDLESS OF LANDLORD'S NEGLIGENCE IN CONNECTION THEREWITH. THE INTENT OF THE PARTIES IS FOR THIS PROVISION TO BE DEEMED IN FULL COMPLIANCE WITH THE EXPRESS NEGLIGENCE DOCTRINE.10.9 EXCULPATION OF LANDLORD

Except as may be caused primarily by the gross negligence or intentional misconduct of Landlord, Landlord shall not be liable for (i) injury or damage which may be sustained by Tenant, its agents, officers, directors, employees or invitees, or to their goods, wares, merchandise or property, caused by or resulting from the state of repair of the Premises ; (ii) injury or damage from fire, steam, electricity, gas, water or rain which may leak or flow from or into any part of the Premises; or (iii) the breakage, leakage, obstruction or other defects of the pipes, sprinklers, wires, appliances, plumbing, air conditioning or lighting fixtures of the Premises. Landlord shall not be liable for any damages sustained by Tenant by reason of construction, repair or reconstruction, or widening of any private, public or quasi-public utility lines, streets, walkways or thoroughfares; nor shall the rent or other charges under this Lease be abated during any period that ingress, egress or traffic may be curtailed, blocked or hampered by reason of such activities

11.1 ACTIONS REQUIRED FOLLOWING CASUALTY

If the building or other improvements on the Premises should be damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty, Tenant shall give immediate written notice thereof to Landlord. If the Premises are damaged by fire or other insured casualty to the extent of less than one-third of the then value of the Premises and if the holder of any deed of trust, mortgage, or security interest covering the Premises does not require that the insurance proceeds payable on account of such fire or casualty be applied to reduce the indebtedness secured thereby, then Landlord shall repair such damage at its expense. However, if the Premises are damaged by fire or other casualty to the extent of more than one-third of the then value of the Premises, or if the holder of any deed of trust, mortgage or security interest covering the Premises applies or indicates that it may apply the insurance proceeds payable on account of such fire or other casualty to the indebtedness secured thereby, or if the casualty or cause of damage or loss is one for which Landlord does not have insurance coverage, then Landlord may, at its option, terminate this Lease by giving written notice to Tenant within ninety days after Landlord is notified of the fire, other casualty or other cause of damage or loss. If this option is available but not exercised by Landlord, then Landlord shall proceed with reasonable diligence to collect any insurance proceeds not claimed by the holder of a deed of trust, mortgage or security interest on the Premises and to apply any or all of such proceeds as may be required to repair such damages.

11.2 EXCEPTION TO LANDLORD'S OBLIGATION TO RESTORE

Notwithstanding the preceding Paragraph 11.1, Landlord shall not be required to repair or rebuild after any fire or other casualty that occurs during the last year of the Primary Term or during the last year of any renewal or extension of the Primary Term; provided, however, that if Tenant shall, within thirty (30) days after such occurrence, exercise any option to extend the term of this Lease that may be available to Tenant and if because of the exercise of such option the term of this Lease shall be scheduled to last at least three years from the date of such occurrence, then Landlord's obligation to repair or rebuild shall not be affected by this Paragraph 11.2. If Landlord refuses to repair or rebuild the Premises pursuant to this Paragraph 11.2, Tenant shall be entitled, as its sole remedy, to terminate this Lease.

11.3 CASUALTY CAUSED BY TENANT; DAMAGE TO PREMISES

Notwithstanding the preceding provisions, if any damage to the Premises by fire or other casualty is due to any act or failure to act on the part of Tenant, Landlord may, at its option, terminate this Lease by giving written notice to Tenant within ninety days after Landlord is notified of the fire, other casualty or other cause of damage or loss.

11.4 CONTINUATION OF OPERATIONS

During the period of any repairs to or restoration of the Premises, Tenant shall continue the operation of its business to the extent reasonably practicable. There shall be no abatement of Minimum Rent or other charges during the period of such repairs or restoration.

11.5 EXTENT OF LANDLORD'S OBLIGATIONS

Landlord's obligation to repair or rebuild pursuant to this Article 11 shall be limited to the restoration of a "shell" building to the extent permitted by Applicable Laws, and to the replacement of any interior work in the Premises which may have originally been installed at Landlord's cost; and Tenant shall be obligated to complete the balance of the repairs or rebuilding required for the Premises. Upon completion of such restoration and replacement, Tenant shall promptly refixture and restock the Premises. If Landlord fails to complete any material rebuilding or repair required of it under this Article 11 within one hundred eighty working days (plus such time as such rebuilding or repairs are delayed by reason of strike, lockout, unavailability of material, fire or other casualty, governmental regulation, act of war, adverse weather or other condition beyond the Landlord's control) from the date Tenant notifies Landlord of the happening of the damage, then Tenant may give Landlord sixty (60) days written notice of its intent to terminate this Lease; and if the applicable rebuilding or repair is not substantially completed by the end of such sixty (60) days (or such time as said period may be extended because of delays beyond the Landlord's control), then Tenant may, as its sole remedy, terminate this Lease and thereafter no further rights or obligations will accrue to any party under this Lease.

12. EMINENT DOMAIN

12.1 SUBSTANTIAL TAKING

If during the term of this Lease, all or a substantial part of the Premises should be taken for any public or quasi- public use by eminent domain, or should be sold to the condemning authority under threat of condemnation, this Lease shall terminate and all rentals shall be abated during the unexpired portion of this Lease, effective as of the date when said taking or sale shall occur. "Substantial part", as used herein, means that the remainder of the Premises cannot be reconstructed or restored to make it reasonably tenantable and suitable for the uses for which the Premises are leased as defined in the Basic Lease Information.

12.2 LESS THAN SUBSTANTIAL TAKING

If less than a substantial part of the Premises shall be taken for any public or quasi-public use by eminent domain, or should be sold to the condemning authority under the threat of condemnation, this Lease shall not terminate and Landlord shall, at its sole expense, restore and reconstruct the building and other Improvements situated on the remaining part of the Premises so as to make the remaining part reasonably tenantable and suitable for the uses set out in the Basic Lease Information; provided, however, that Paragraphs 11.2, 11.4 and 11.5 above shall apply as if the part taken or sold were destroyed by a fire or other casualty. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, Landlord may, at its option, terminate this Lease rather than restore and reconstruct the Premises after less than a substantial portion of the Premises are taken or sold as aforesaid if the cost of such restoration and reconstruction can be expected to exceed the damages or other consideration that Landlord will receive because of the partial taking or sale of the Premises.

12.3 AWARD OF DAMAGES

All damages awarded for any taking of all or any part of the Premises by eminent domain, and all proceeds of a sale in lieu of such a taking, shall belong to and be the property of Landlord, whether compensation for the diminution in value of the Tenant's leasehold or for the fee of the Premises. However, Landlord shall not be entitled to any separate award made to Tenant for loss or damage to Tenant's removable personal property. Nor will Landlord be entitled to any award for damages for cessation or Interruption of Tenant's business to the extent that such cessation or interruption damages are awarded exclusive of and separate and apart from damages for diminution in value of the Tenant's leasehold.

13. ASSIGNMENT AND SUBLETTING

13.1 REQUIREMENT OF LANDLORD'S CONSENT

Tenant may not, either voluntarily or by operation of law, without the prior written consent of Landlord, assign this Lease, sublet the whole or any part of the Premises, sell, encumber, pledge or otherwise transfer all or any part of Tenant's leasehold estate hereunder, or permit the Premises to be possessed by anyone other than Tenant or Tenant's employees. Landlord's decision to consent to any subletting or assignment by Tenant shall be within Landlord's sole and exclusive discretion and Landlord may refuse to give such consent based upon, but not limited to, factors pertaining to:

- (a) the similarity of the business of any proposed subtenant or assignee with the business conducted on the Premises by Tenant;
- (b) the financial statement, credit and ability of any proposed subtenant or assignee to meet the obligations, terms and conditions of this Lease; and
- (c) the reputation of the proposed subtenant or assignee and its principles (owners, shareholders, members, officers, directors, managers, etc.,) if the proposed subtenant or assignees not a nature person) within the business community where the Premises are located and/or within the business community where the proposed subtenant or assignee conducts any business.

Notwithstanding any permitted assignment or subletting, Tenant and any guarantor of Tenant's obligations under this Lease shall at all times remain fully responsible and liable for the payment of the rent herein specified and for compliance with all of Tenant's other obligations under the terms, provisions and covenants of this Lease. As a condition precedent to any subletting or assignment by Tenant hereunder, Tenant agrees to furnish Landlord with a copy of the proposed assignment or sublease, together with a description of the business to be conducted at the Premises by such proposed assignee or subtenant, current financial statements of such proposed assignee or subtenant, and such other information as Landlord may request, all at least thirty days prior to the date on which the proposed assignment or sublease is to be executed. Tenant further agrees to furnish Landlord with an executed copy of such assignment or sublease immediately after such instrument is executed. Landlord shall have the option, exercisable within seven days from the submission of Tenant's written request for consent to any assignment or subletting, to cancel this Lease as of the proposed date of the commencement of such assignment or subletting; however, failure to exercise such option shall not imply that Landlord has consented to or approved such proposed assignment or sublease. In the event Landlord exercises its option to cancel this Lease, then the term, tenancy and occupancy of the Premises hereunder or otherwise shall forthwith cease and expire as if the effective date of cancellation was the original termination date of this Lease. Any permitted assignment or subletting shall be subject to all the terms and conditions of this Lease including the provisions of the Basic Lease Information and Article 2 relating to the use of the Premises. Even if Landlord shall consent to a sublease or any assignment of this Lease, no further subleases or assignments may be made without the prior written consent of Landlord. If for any reason a court of competent jurisdiction declares that Landlord may not withhold its consent to a proposed subletting or assignment after Landlord has, in fact, withheld such consent, Tenant's sole remedy shall be to have the proposed assignment or subletting declared valid as if Landlord's consent had been given.

13.2 ASSIGNMENT BY OPERATION OF LAW

In the event Tenant shall be a corporation or other entity, any amalgamation such as a merger, consolidation or any transfer, sale, pledge or other disposition of the controlling stock or other evidence of ownership or majority of the assets of Tenant shall be deemed an assignment of this Lease and if done without Landlord's consent, shall constitute a violation of this Article 13. Tenant will at all times be the operator and manager of the Premises and Tenant shall not attempt to use a management contract, concession agreement or any other arrangement without Landlord's consent whereby the operation of the business on the Premises will be other than by Tenant. Any such attempt shall be deemed an assignment or sublease and shall constitute a violation of this Article 13. If there is more than one Tenant and there is any change in the composition of Tenant, such change shall be deemed an assignment and shall be a violation of this Article 13 if made without Landlord's consent. If a Tenant is an individual and dies, Landlord shall have the option to cancel this Lease. In the event Landlord does not exercise its option to cancel this Lease, Landlord shall be furnished with the court order or letters testamentary evidencing who has authority to act on behalf of the estate of Tenant.

13.3 COSTS AND REVENUES ASSOCIATED WITH ASSIGNMENT

In the event that Landlord shall be asked to consent to a sublease or assignment hereunder, Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for all attorney's fees and expenses incurred by Landlord in connection therewith. In the event of an assignment of the leasehold estate created hereby or a sublease of the Premises, the assignor or sub-lessor shall have no right to any rental or other revenues generated thereby in excess of the rental herein reserved, which excess rental and other revenues shall belong to Landlord and shall be promptly paid to Landlord as it becomes due and payable.

14. DEFAULTS AND REMEDIES

14.1 DEFAULT BY TENANT

The occurrence of any one of the following events shall be an event of default by Tenant under this Lease:

(a) Tenant shall fail to pay any rental or other sum of money when due hereunder, which failure continues for more than three (3) days after written notice to Tenant, provided however, that Landlord shall not be required to give more than two (2) such notices in any one twelve (12) month period.

(b) Tenant shall fail to perform or observe any term, condition, covenant or agreement of this Lease (other than a failure to timely pay rent or other charges) and Tenant shall not cure such failure within twenty (20) days after notice thereof is given by Landlord, but if such failure is of a nature that it cannot be cured within such twenty (20) day period, Tenant shall not have committed an event of default if Tenant commences the curing of the failure within such twenty (20) day period and thereafter diligently pursues the curing of same without interruption and completes such cure within sixty days; provided, however, that if Tenant shall fail to perform or observe any term, condition, covenant or agreement of this Lease two (2) or more times in any twelve (12) month period, then notwithstanding that such defaults have been cured by Tenant, any further similar failure shall be deemed an event of default without notice or opportunity to cure.

(c) Tenant or any guarantor of Tenant's obligations under this Lease shall become insolvent, shall admit in writing its inability to pay its debts when due, shall make a transfer in fraud of its creditors, shall make a general assignment or arrangement for the benefit of creditors, or all or substantially all of Tenant's assets or the assets of any guarantor of Tenant's obligations under this Lease or Tenant's interest in this Lease are levied on by execution or other legal process.

(d) A petition shall be filed by or against Tenant or any guarantor of Tenant's obligations under this Lease to have Tenant or such guarantor adjudged a bankrupt, or a petition for reorganization or arrangement under any law relating to bankruptcy shall be filed by or against Tenant or such guarantor.

(e) A receiver or trustee shall be appointed for all or substantially all of the assets of Tenant or of any guarantor of Tenant's obligations under this Lease or for Tenant's interest in this Lease.

(f) Tenant shall abandon or vacate any substantial portion of the Premises after Tenant's initial occupancy.

(g) An event of default by Tenant shall occur under any other lease presently in effect or entered into in the future by and between Landlord (or any entity owned in whole or in part by a partner or stockholder of Landlord) and Tenant including, without limitation, the personal property lease referred to in the Basic Lease Information section above.

(h) The Landlord's choice to grant leniency in any case will in no way infringe upon the Landlord's right to fully execute its rights and protections afforded by the lease at any future time, with or without notice.

14.2 REMEDIES OF LANDLORD

(a) Upon the occurrence of any event of default by Tenant, Landlord shall have the option, without any notice to Tenant (except as expressly provided below) and with or without judicial process, to pursue any one or more of the following remedies:

- (i) Landlord may terminate this Lease, in which event Tenant shall immediately surrender the Premises to Landlord.
- (ii) Landlord may enter upon and take custodial possession of the Premises by picking the locks if necessary, lock out or remove Tenant and any other person occupying the Premises and alter the locks and other security devices at the Premises, all without Landlord being deemed guilty of trespass or becoming liable for any resulting loss or damage and without causing a termination or forfeiture of this Lease or of the Tenant's obligation to pay rent. Landlord shall not, in the event of a lockout by changing the locks, be required to furnish new keys to Tenant.
- (iii) Landlord may enter the Premises and take possession of and remove any and all trade fixtures and personal property situated in the Premises, without liability for trespass or conversion. Landlord may retain control over all such property for the purpose of foreclosing the liens and security interests described in Article 15 below by public or private sale. If Landlord takes possession of and removes personal property from the Premises, then prior to any disposition of the property by sale or until Tenant reclaims the property if no foreclosure by public or private sale is contemplated, Landlord may store it in a public warehouse or elsewhere at the cost of and for the account of Tenant without the resort to legal process and without becoming liable for any resulting loss or damage.
- (iv) Landlord may perform on behalf of Tenant any obligation of Tenant under this Lease which Tenant has failed to perform and the cost of the performance will be deemed additional rental and will be payable by Tenant to Landlord upon demand.

Landlord's pursuit of any remedy specified in this Lease will not constitute an election to pursue that remedy only, nor preclude Landlord from pursuing any other remedy available at law or in equity, nor constitute a forfeiture or waiver of any rent or other amount due to Landlord as described below.

(b) In the event Landlord enters and takes possession of the Premises without electing to cause a termination of this Lease, Landlord will have the right to relet the Premises for Tenant, in the name of Tenant or Landlord or otherwise, on such terms as Landlord deems advisable and Tenant hereby appoints Landlord its attorney-in-act for such purposes. Landlord will not be required to incur any expense to relet the Premises and the failure of Landlord to relet the Premises shall not reduce Tenant's liability for monthly rentals and other charges due under this Lease or for damages. Landlord will not be obligated to relet for less than the then market value of the Premises or to relet the Premises when other comparable rental space in the Shopping Center is available. Without causing a termination or forfeiture of this Lease after an event of default by Tenant, Landlord may: (i) relet the Premises for a term or terms to expire at the same time as, earlier than, or subsequent to, the expiration of the Lease Term; (ii) remodel or change the use and character of the Premises; (iii) grant rent concessions in reletting the Premises, if necessary in Landlord's judgment, without reducing Tenant's obligation for rentals specified in this Lease; and (iv) relet all or any portion of the Premises as a part of a larger area. Subject to the next subparagraph 14.2 (c), Landlord may retain the excess, if any, of the rent earned from reletting the Premises over the rentals specified in this Lease.

(c) After any failure by Tenant to pay rent, Landlord may, whether or not it has chosen to re-enter and take possession of the Premises, but only if it has not then notified Tenant of its election to terminate this Lease, collect from and require Tenant to pay an amount (a "Rental Deposit") equal to the then present value of all Minimum Rent specified herein for the balance of the Lease Term. However, if Landlord has relet the Premises or relets thereafter without first terminating this Lease, Landlord will apply any future rentals from reletting (but not rental representing reimbursement for CAM Charges, Taxes or Insurance Costs or rental allocable to any area outside the Premises or rental allocable to the period following the Lease Term) in the following manner: First, to reduce any amounts then due from Tenant, including but not limited to attorneys' fees, brokerage commissions and other expenses Landlord may have incurred in connection with the collection of any rent, recovery of possession, and redecorating, altering, dividing, consolidating with adjoining premises, or otherwise preparing the Premises for reletting; and, second, to the repayment of any Rental Deposit collected from Tenant. The balance, if any, of the future rentals from reletting shall be retained by Landlord as compensation for reletting the Premises. Tenant will not be entitled to any repayment of the Rental Deposit except as provided herein, but Tenant will be relieved of its obligation to make future payments of any Minimum Rent with respect to which it has paid a Rental Deposit to Landlord. Landlord will notify Tenant if Landlord elects to collect a Rental Deposit after an event of default by Tenant, whereupon the Rental Deposit will be immediately due and payable and may be collected by Landlord by a suit to enforce payment.

(d) No re-entry or reletting of the Premises or any filing or service of an unlawful detainer action or similar action will be construed as an election by Landlord to terminate or accept a forfeiture of this Lease or to accept a surrender of the Premises after an event of default by Tenant, unless a written notice of such intention is given by Landlord to Tenant; but notwithstanding any such action without such notice, Landlord may at any time thereafter elect to terminate this Lease by notifying Tenant. In the event, however, Landlord terminates this Lease after collecting a Rental Deposit as provided in the preceding subparagraph 14.2(c), Landlord will reimburse Tenant for the excess (if any) of (i) that portion of the Rental Deposit collected and attributable to the Minimum Rent for the period following such termination, over (ii) the amount that, notwithstanding the termination, Landlord would have been entitled to recover from Tenant with respect to such period if Landlord had not collected the Rental Deposit.

(e) Upon the termination of this Lease, Landlord will be entitled to recover all unpaid rentals that have accrued through the date of termination plus the costs of performing any of Tenant's obligations (other than the payment of rent) that should have been but were not satisfied as of the date such termination. In addition, if the termination follows a material event of default (as described below in this subparagraph), Landlord will be entitled to recover, not as rent or a penalty but as compensation for Landlord's loss of the benefit of its bargain with Tenant, the difference between (i) an amount equal to the present value of the rental and other sums that this Lease provides Tenant will pay for the remainder of the Lease Term and for the balance of any then effective extension of the Lease Term, and (ii) the present value of the future rentals (net of leasing commissions and other costs of reletting) for such period that will be or with reasonable efforts could be collected by Landlord by reletting the Premises. For purposes of determining what could be collected by Landlord by reletting under the preceding sentence, it will be assumed that Landlord is not required to relet when other comparable space in the Shopping Center is available for lease and that Landlord will not be required to incur any cost to relet, other than customary leasing commissions. As used herein, a material event of default shall mean (i) any failure to pay rent described in Paragraph 14.1(a) above; (ii) any failure to maintain insurance required by this Lease; or (iii) any other events of default, individually or in the aggregate, which Landlord reasonably determines to be material.

(f) After a material event of default by Tenant, Landlord may recover from Tenant from time to time and Tenant shall pay to Landlord upon demand, whether or not Landlord has relet the Premises or terminated this Lease, (i) such expenses as Landlord may incur in recovering possession of the Premises, terminating this Lease, placing the Premises in good order and condition and altering or repairing the same for reletting; (ii) all other costs and expenses (including brokerage commissions and legal fees) paid or incurred by Landlord in exercising any remedy or as a result of the event of default by Tenant; and (iii) any other amount necessary to compensate Landlord for all the detriment proximately caused by Tenant's failure to perform Tenant's obligations under this Lease or which in the ordinary course of things would be likely to result from such failure.

(g) In the event that any future amount owing to Landlord or offsetting an amount owing to Landlord is to be discounted to present value under this Lease, the present value shall be determined by discounting at the rate of seven percent per annum.

(h) Any Minimum Rent or additional rental or other amounts required to be paid by Tenant hereunder which shall not be paid when due shall bear interest at the Lease Interest Rate.

"Lease Interest Rate" as used herein means three percent above the Wall Street Journal US Prime Rate (WSJ US Prime Rate from time to time charged, announced or published by the Wall Street Journal, but in no event shall such interest rate exceed the highest rate permitted by the laws of the state where the Premises are located. Any payment of the ten percent charge described in the next subparagraph shall be credited against interest otherwise accruing under this subparagraph 14.2(h).

(i) Tenant hereby acknowledges that late payment by Tenant to Landlord of rent and other sums due hereunder will cause Landlord to incur costs not contemplated by this Lease, the exact amount of which will be extremely difficult to ascertain. Such costs include, but are not limited to, processing and accounting charges and late charges which may be imposed on Landlord by the terms of any mortgage or deed of trust covering the Premises. Accordingly, if an event of default by Tenant shall arise because any installment of rent or any other sum due from Tenant shall not be received by Landlord or Landlord's designee on the date such amount shall be due, Tenant shall pay to Landlord a late charge equal to ten percent of such overdue amount. The parties hereby agree that such late charge does not represent interest, but rather represents a fair and reasonable estimate of the costs Landlord will incur by reason of late payment by Tenant. Acceptance of such late charge by Landlord shall not constitute a waiver of Tenant's default with respect to such overdue amount, nor prevent Landlord from exercising any of the other rights and remedies granted hereunder. The failure of Tenant to pay such late charge as herein stated shall be an event of default hereunder.

This Paragraph 14.2 shall be enforceable to the extent not prohibited by applicable law, and the unenforceability of any provision in this Paragraph shall not render any other provision unenforceable. To the extent permitted by law, Tenant and Landlord agree that paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (e), (f) and (g) of Section 93.002 of the Texas Property Code shall not apply to this Lease. However, as provided in Section 93.008(d) of the Texas Property Code, Tenant will be presumed to have abandoned the Premises if goods, equipment, or other property, in an amount substantial enough to indicate a probable intent to abandon the Premises, is being or has been removed from the Premises and the removal is not within the normal course of Tenant's business.

14.3 DEFAULT BY LANDLORD

If Landlord should be in default in the performance of any of its obligations under this Lease, Landlord shall have thirty days to cure such default after receipt by Landlord of written notice from Tenant specifying such default; or if such default is of a nature to require more than thirty days to remedy, landlord shall have the time reasonably necessary to cure it. Tenant agrees to also serve any notice of claimed default or breach by Landlord under this Lease upon the lender holding a first mortgage or deed of trust against the Premises, provided Tenant has any right to terminate this Lease because of a default by Landlord before allowing such lender the same period following such notice to cure the claimed default or breach as is allowed Landlord. But this Paragraph 14.3 will not be interpreted as creating or broadening any right of Tenant to terminate this Lease because of a default by Landlord. Tenant waives any statutory lien it may have against rents due under this Lease or against Landlord's property in Tenant's possession.

14.4 ATTORNEYS' FEES

If Landlord incurs attorneys' fees because of Tenant's failure to cure a breach of this Lease within any permitted cure period or because of any request by Tenant for the consent or approval of Landlord to any matter requiring Landlord's consent or approval under this Lease, then Tenant will reimburse Landlord for such fees upon demand.

14.5 WAIVERS

No waiver by landlord of any provision of this Lease will be deemed a waiver of any other provision or of any subsequent breach by Tenant. Landlord's consent to or approval of any act will not be deemed to render unnecessary the obtaining of Landlord's consent to or approval of any subsequent act by Tenant. Landlord's acceptance of rent will not constitute a waiver of any preceding breach by Tenant of this Lease, regardless of Landlord's knowledge of the preceding breach at the time Landlord accepts the rent. Any payment by Tenant or receipt by Landlord of a lesser amount than the Minimum Rent and additional rental stipulated in this Lease will be deemed to be on account of the earliest stipulated rental. Notwithstanding any endorsement or statement on any check or any letter accompanying any check or payment of Minimum Rent or additional rental, Landlord may accept such check or payment without prejudice to Landlord's right to hold the Tenant in default and recover the balance of any Minimum Rent or additional rental due and pursue any other remedy provided in this Lease. Landlord's failure to take any action in regard to Tenant's default, regardless of how long will not constitute a waiver of such default. Any waiver of Tenant's default must be in writing and signed by Landlord to be effective. Any written waiver by Landlord will constitute a waiver only in the specific circumstances described in the waiver.

15. LANDLORD'S LIEN AND SECURITY INTEREST

To secure the payment of all rental and other sums of money due and to become due hereunder and the faithful performance of this Lease by Tenant, Tenant hereby grants to Landlord an express first and prior contractual lien upon and security interest in all property (including fixtures, equipment, chattels and merchandise) which may be placed on the Premises by Tenant and all proceeds thereof, including proceeds of any insurance which may accrue to tenant by reason of destruction of or damage to any such property. Such property shall not be removed from the Premises without the written consent of Landlord until all arrearages in rent and other sums of money then due to Landlord hereunder shall first have been paid. All exemption laws are hereby waived in favor of said lien and security interest. This lien and security interest are given in addition to any Landlord's statutory lien and shall be cumulative thereto. Upon the occurrence of an event of default, this security interest may be foreclosed with or without court proceedings by public or private sale provided Landlord gives Tenant at least fifteen days' notice of the time and place of said sale, and Landlord shall have the right to become the purchaser, upon being the highest bidder at such sale. Contemporaneously with the execution of this Lease (or thereafter if requested by Landlord), Tenant shall execute and deliver to Landlord uniform commercial code financing statements in sufficient form so that when properly filed, the security interest hereby granted shall be perfected. Upon request by Landlord, Tenant shall also execute and deliver to Landlord uniform commercial code financing statement change instruments in sufficient form to reflect any proper amendment or modification in or extension of the contractual lien and security interest hereby granted. A carbon, photographic or other reproduction of this Lease will suffice and may be filed as a financing statement. Landlord shall, in addition to all of its rights hereunder, also have all of the rights and remedies of a secured party under the uniform commercial code as adopted in the state in which the Premises are located.

16. SECURITY DEPOSIT

16.1 If Tenant has deposited the Security Deposit with the Landlord as security for Tenant's satisfactory performance of the terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease including the payment of Minimum Rent and Additional Rent.

- (a) Application of Security Deposit. Landlord may use, apply or retain the whole or any part of the security so deposited to the extent required for the payment of any Minimum Rent and Additional Rent or any other sum as to which Tenant is in default or for any sum which Landlord may expend or may be required to expend by reason of Tenant's default in respect of any of the terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease including any damages or deficiency in the re-letting of the demised premises or other reentry by Landlord.
- (b) Replenishment of Security Deposit. If Landlord uses, applies or retains the whole or any part of the security Tenant shall replenish the security to its original sum five (5) days after being notified by the Landlord of the amount due. Tenant shall be in default of this Lease if the amount due is not paid within the required time period.
- (c) Transfer of Property. In the event of a sale or leasing of the real property or any part thereof, of which the demised Premises form a part, Landlord shall have the right to transfer the security to the vendee or lessee and Landlord shall ipso facto be released by Tenant from all liability for the return of said security; and Tenant agrees to look solely to the new Landlord for the return of said security; and it is agreed that the provisions hereof shall apply to every transfer or assignment made of the security to a new landlord.
- (d) Prohibition on Tenant Assignment. Tenant covenants that it shall not assign or encumber the security deposit given to Landlord pursuant to this Lease. Neither Landlord, its successors nor assigns shall be bound by any such assignment or encumbrance or any attempted assignment or encumbrance.
- (e) When Returned. In the event that Tenant shall fully and faithfully comply with all the terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease, any part of the security not used or retained by Landlord shall be returned to Tenant after the Expiration Date of the Lease and after delivery of exclusive possession of the demised premises to Landlord.

17. QUIET ENJOYMENT AND SUBORDINATION

17.1 COVENANT OF QUIET ENJOYMENT

Tenant, upon payment of the rents herein reserved and performance of the terms, conditions, covenants and agreements herein contained, may peaceably and quietly have, hold and enjoy the Premises during the full term of this Lease, including any extension thereof, without hindrance or interruption by Landlord or any other person or entity lawfully claiming an interest in the Premises by, through, or under Landlord, subject, however, to the terms and conditions hereof and subject and subordinate to any mortgage, ground lease, deed of trust or other liens, restrictions, encumbrances, easements and zoning now or at any time hereafter affecting the Premises.

17.2 SUBORDINATION

This Lease is subject and subordinate to any mortgage, deed of trust or ground lease which now or may in the future affect the Premises or any interest of Landlord in the Premise, and to all increases, renewals, modifications, consolidations, replacements, and extensions thereof. This Paragraph is self operative. No further instrument is required to effect the subordination of this Lease to any such mortgage, deed of trust or ground lease. In confirmation of the subordination, however, Tenant agrees to execute, acknowledge, and deliver promptly any certificate or instrument requested by Landlord that evidences the subordination. Tenant hereby irrevocably appoints Landlord its attorney-in-fact to execute, acknowledge and deliver any such certificate or instrument for Tenant. Tenant agrees that if the Premises are sold at foreclosure under any such mortgage or deed of trust or are transferred in lieu of foreclosure, or if the lessor repossesses the Premises under any such ground lease, Tenant will attorn to the purchaser, transferee or lessor (as the case may be, the "Applicable Successor") upon request. Tenant will recognize such Applicable Successor as the landlord under this Lease if the Applicable Successor elects to keep this Lease in effect. Even if the Applicable Successor does elect to keep this Lease in effect, the Applicable Successor shall not be:

- (a) liable under this Lease or otherwise for any act or omission of any prior landlord (including the original Landlord named above); or
- (b) subject to any offsets or defenses which Tenant might have against any prior Landlord (including landlord) with respect to the rent and other amounts payable under this Lease and the other obligations of Tenant hereunder; or
- (c) bound by any rent or additional rent which Tenant might have paid for more than the current month to any prior landlord (including Landlord); or
- (d) liable for construction of or payment for tenant improvements to the Premises or any part thereof; or
- (e) bound by any amendment or modification of this Lease made without its consent; or
- (f) bound by any expansion option, right of first refusal or similar rights, or exclusive use rights provided to Tenant by this Lease or otherwise, to the extent the same is not consistent with the rights claimed by, through or under other tenants in the Shopping Center.

This Lease and all rights of Tenant are further subject and subordinate to all other existing title matters that affect the Premises, including all utility easements and agreements.

18. RIGHTS RESERVED BY LANDLORD

Landlord reserves the following rights, exercisable without notice and without liability to Tenant and without causing an eviction (constructive or actual) or giving rise to any claim for setoff or abatement of rent:

- (a) to enter upon the Premises at reasonable hours to inspect, clean or make repairs or alterations (without implying any obligation to do so) and to show the Premises to prospective lenders or purchasers or, during the last 6 months of the Term, prospective tenants and, if the Premises are vacated, to prepare them for reoccupancy;
- (b) to retain and use in appropriate instances keys to all doors into and within the Premises (Tenant shall not change or add locks without the prior written consent of Landlord);

19. SURRENDER OF PREMISES AND HOLDING OVER

Upon the expiration of the terms hereof Tenant shall deliver all keys to the Premises to Landlord and shall surrender the Premises to Landlord in as good order and condition as at the commencement of the Lease Term except for ordinary wear and tear and damage by fire and other standard extended coverage perils. In the event Tenant continues to occupy the Premises after the expiration of the Lease Term, such occupancy shall be considered a tenancy from month-to-month at a monthly rental equal to twice the highest amount of Minimum Rent and additional rental due for any calendar month of the Lease Term and such tenancy shall be upon and subject to all of the other terms, provisions, covenants and agreements set forth herein, except that Tenant shall have no right to renew this lease or to extend or continue possession hereunder nor have any other option that may be hereby granted to Tenant. Upon the expiration or termination of this Lease, if Tenant is not then in default, Tenant may remove, at its expense, any trade fixtures and unattached personal property previously placed in the Premises by Tenant; but any damage to the Premises caused by such removal shall be repaired by Tenant at the time of the removal. All other installations (including air conditioning equipment, duct work, electric and water connections and electric lighting fixtures) and all repairs, improvements, replacements and alterations to the Premises made by Tenant shall, upon being installed, become the property of Landlord. However, Tenant shall promptly remove any alterations or improvements to the Premises made by it if requested to do so by Landlord, and shall repair any damage to the Premises resulting from such removal. Tenant shall continue to pay all rent until Tenant has made all alterations and corrections as are required herein by Tenant, and until the additions and improvements Tenant is entitled or required to remove have been removed, and until all repairs required to be made by Tenant have been made. If, after the occurrence of an event of default, or upon the expiration or termination of this Lease, Tenant moves out or is dispossessed and fails to remove any trade fixtures, signs or other personal property placed on the Premises by Tenant prior to such moving out or dispossession, then and in any such events the said fixtures, signs and property shall at Landlord's option be deemed abandoned by Tenant and become the property of Landlord, Landlord shall not be liable for trespass, conversion or negligence by reason of its acts or the acts of anyone claiming under it or by reason of the negligence of any other person with respect to the acquisition and/or disposition of such property, whether or not deemed to be abandoned by Tenant.

20. DELAYS BEYOND LANDLORD'S CONTROL

Whenever a period of time is provided in this Lease or in any exhibit hereto for Landlord to do or perform any act or thing, Landlord shall not be liable or responsible for any delay due to acts of God, strikes, lockouts, unavailability of materials, failure of power, restrictive governmental laws or regulations, riots, insurrections, the act, failure to act, or default of Tenant or other tenants, or due to war or any other reason beyond Landlord's reasonable control. In the event of any such delay, time for performance shall be extended for a period equivalent to the period of such delay.

21. SHORT FORM LEASE, ESTOPPEL CERTIFICATE AND FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

21.1 SHORT FORM LEASE

Tenant shall not record this Lease or any memorandum referring to this Lease without Landlord's prior written consent, and such recordation shall, at Landlord's option, constitute a non-curable event of default of Tenant hereunder. Tenant and Landlord will, on request of Landlord, execute a short form of this Lease in form permitting its recording, which short form will contain the names of the parties, the legal description and term of this Lease.

21.2 ESTOPPEL CERTIFICATE

Tenant shall from time to time, within ten days after receipt of written request by Landlord, deliver a statement in writing certifying:

- a) that this lease is unmodified and in full force and effect (or if modified that this Lease as so modified is in full force and effect);
- (b) the Commencement Date of the Lease Term, the term of this Lease and the monthly Minimum Rent and additional rental, and the amount of any advance rental payments made or security deposits in the possession of Landlord;
- (c) that Landlord is not in default under any provision of the lease (or if in default, the nature thereof in detail) and a statement as to any outstanding obligations on the part of Landlord or Tenant;

- (d) that, if requested by Landlord or Landlord's mortgagee or assignee, Tenant will not pay rent for more than one month in advance; and
- (e) that no modification (except as described in such statement) or termination of this Lease executed or effected by Tenant shall be binding upon any mortgagee holding a mortgage or deed of trust covering the Shopping Center granted by Landlord without notice to and approval of such mortgagee.

Tenant's failure to deliver such statement within such time shall be conclusive upon Tenant (i) that this Lease is in full force and effect, without modification except as may be represented by Landlord, (ii) that there are no uncured defaults in Landlord's performance hereunder; and (iii) that not more than one month's rent has been paid in advance hereunder; and, at Landlord's option, Tenant's failure to deliver such statement within such time shall constitute a noncurable event of default by Tenant.

21.3 FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Tenant will also furnish Landlord on a reasonable basis, within ten days after receipt of a written request, current financial statements of Tenant and of any guarantor of Tenant's obligations hereunder, which are certified by Tenant or by an independent certified public accountant to have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles or on some other basis acceptable to Landlord. Any such financial statements and sales reports provided by Tenant may be relied upon by any prospective purchaser or mortgagee of the Land or any interest therein.

22. LANDLORD'S LIABILITY

Landlord shall not be personally liable to Tenant for the breach by Landlord of any covenant, representation or warranty made by Landlord in connection with this Lease; or for any other claim which Tenant may ever have against Landlord, and Tenant agrees that any judgment for damages rendered in favor of Tenant for any such breach by or obligation of Landlord if not timely paid by Landlord, shall be satisfied only by levy of execution upon Landlord's interest in the Premises and that Tenant will not seek to hold Landlord personally liable for such breach or obligation or to levy execution upon any other property or assets of Landlord to satisfy such judgment.

23. OVERHEAD AND ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES

In determining any costs that Landlord pays or incurs to make any repairs required of Tenant or to perform any other obligation of Tenant, which Tenant fails to make or perform, Landlord shall be entitled to add 15% to its direct costs to cover its overhead and administrative expenses. Further, a 15% overhead and administrative charge will be added to any costs paid or incurred by Landlord to provide Tenant with special services or facilities that are not required, by the terms of this Lease, to be provided at Landlord's expense. Thus, for example, if Landlord incurs any cost to make repairs required of Tenant pursuant to Paragraph 4.2, Landlord shall be entitled to charge Tenant such costs plus 15% to cover Landlord's overhead and administrative expenses.

24. RELOCATION

This section is intentional omitted.

Each term and provision of this Lease will be valid and enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law.

25.8 BROKERAGE FEES

Tenant warrants and represents that Landlord will not be responsible for and Tenant shall indemnify, defend and hold Landlord harmless against any brokerage or leasing commission or finder's fee claimed by any party in connection with this Lease, except any such claim made pursuant to a separate written agreement executed by Landlord and the party making such claim.

25.9 PARAGRAPH HEADINGS

The paragraph headings contained in this Lease are for convenience only and will in no way enlarge or limit the scope or meaning of the various and several provisions.

25.10 NO MERGER

There shall be no merger of this Lease or of Tenant's leasehold estate with the fee estate in the Premises by reason of the fact that the same person may acquire or hold, directly or indirectly, both all or any interest in this Lease or the leasehold estate and all or any interest in the fee estate.

25.11 CONSTRUCTION OF LEASE PROVISIONS

Tenant acknowledges that it has read and negotiated this Lease in its entirety and is familiar with and understands all its terms and provisions. Accordingly, Tenant agrees that if a dispute arises, this Lease will not be construed in favor of either party, nor shall the authorship of this Lease be a factor in any such construction.

If Tenant is a corporation, partnership or other entity, each of the persons executing this Lease on behalf of Tenant represents and warrants that Tenant is duly organized and existing, is qualified to do business in the state in which the Premises are located, has full right and authority to enter in this Lease, that the persons signing on behalf of Tenant are authorized to do so by appropriate corporate or partnership action and that the terms, conditions

25.13 CONFIDENTIALITY

Tenant shall not, without Owner's prior written consent, disclose any of the terms of this Lease or of any future modification of this Lease or of any waiver by Landlord of Tenant's obligations under this Lease to any other tenant or prospective tenant or other third party, provided that this provision shall not preclude disclosures to Tenant's attorneys or accountants as reasonably required to permit Tenant to enforce this Lease or to prepare tax returns or other reports required by law.

25.14 SUBMISSION OF LEASE

This Lease shall not be amended or added to in any way except by written instruments executed by duly authorized representatives of both parties and their respective successors in interest.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, this Lease has been duly executed by the parties hereto as of the day and year first written above.
