- Travel=$422K, or 62%
- Relocation= $148K, or 22%
- Entertainment=$57K, or 8%

I believe the vast majority are generally properly coded based upon the context above (I did identify 8 larger charges which I could reclass as “Personal”)
Please provide me with your expectations; I unfortunately did not keep receipts.
There are over 4,500 transactions on the summary you provided; 4,000 of them, or 88%, are < $500 and would require a lot of research.
I’ll wait to hear back from you.

Daniel,

Thank you again for providing us your spreadsheet related to Amex expenses and the related reclassification of certain expenses included therein. Attached please find a spreadsheet for your review and comment and which we can discuss on a forthcoming call between us.

Based on the credit card data and related email review, we believe the transactions reflected in the attached still appear to be personal in nature and/or require further background from you. In advance of our forthcoming call (which is yet to be scheduled), I would ask that you review the attached list, identify any business-related justification, and produce a receipt (if available) for any of the transactions.

After your review and our discussion, we will discuss next steps with the Audit Committee.

Thanks in advance.

Best

I don't want to be a wet blanket here, but with respect to what the comp committee recommended (and I am not on that committee) I am unfamiliar with the policy/process for communicating those decisions/requests to Jerry or anyone else at the company.

What is crystal clear to me is the lack of internal processes and policies and I want to ensure that we reflect that deficiency in these proceedings. I take full responsibility for not fully interrogating those policies on the the audit committee but have a difficult time adjudicating the Tricolor team's actions absent a clear policy.

our debt covenants. Daniel led to me to believe that the discount rate in the range of 8.5 would cause the company to violate all our covenants. It sounds like that is not the case??

I am concerned about the comp bonus for 2021 and 2022 and how the personal AMEX expenses have been handled. I was surprised to learn that the bonus of 2022 has been paid. And that $400k of it had been advanced to him while decsisions were still pending on the amount. Who would have authorized that??????? And at the start of this process we told the comp committee to hold up on finalizing his bonus and comp. So how did anything move forward???? If this is all because what Daniel says, people do, with or without proper processes and approvals. If that is the case, Crowe is going to question everything. Rightfully so.

CONFIDENTIAL
ATTORNEY-CLIENT PRIVILEGED COMMUNICATION

Dear Audit Committee:

As you know, we had our call with Daniel last night to discuss FTI's conclusions on the fair value issue, and our team continues to work expeditiously to come to a conclusion on each of the three issues at hand. This includes substantive interaction with management (Daniel and Jerry) on fair value. An overview of our progress on each issue since last night's update is provided below for your reference:

- Daniel Chu Expenses/Invoices
  - Review of calendar invites and meetings
    - We have finished matching AMEX charges to Daniel's calendar.

- We are preparing an updated list of transactions to send to Daniel for his review.

- We are interviewing Daniel on Saturday, May 13th.

- Review of Suspect Vendors and Employees

- We have completed our research to identify background information on the suspect vendors and employees identified.

- We intend to ask Daniel about this information in the upcoming interview.

- FTI has reviewed additional documents provided by the Company pertaining to Daniel Chu's 2021 and 2022 bonus.

- We see that Daniel's payable to the Company for 2021 appears to have been reduced by his 2021 bonus. Matt Lewis represents that, as a result, no bonus was actually paid to Daniel relating to 2021, since he owed more to the Company at that point than the amount of his bonus. FTI is seeking evidence that the 2021 bonus was not, in fact, paid to Daniel.

- FTI looked again at Daniel's 2022 bonus (paid on March 17, 2023). The gross amount is $1,500,000, though it is reduced by $400,000, which was apparently advanced to Daniel at an earlier point.

- Matt Lewis stated this about the bonus: "[T]he pay statement provided already is the full pay statement - gross of $1.5m. The $390k adjustment represents the deduction of a $400K advance to Daniel while the board was determining his final bonus (reduced by $10k of 401k match as shown on the statement provided). There was no subtraction for personal expenses or amounts applied against the personal AR account. In prior years the personal AR was larger, so Daniel used his bonus to pay it down, this year his balance was smaller, you can confirm with him but I assume he was just going to make separate payments."

- We have outstanding requests to the Company for the following:
  - 2021 mixed-use Amex transactional data
  - Complete personal Amex transactional data for 2021 and 2022

- Discount Rate

- As you know, last night we had a very productive call with Daniel about the discount rate. Daniel seemed surprised at some of the accounting standards and approached the meeting with an open mind. Daniel informed us that his team is preparing an updated fair value model with significant changes. He stated that this model would be provided today, though nothing has been received yet. We will continue to push here.

- As noted above, this morning Daniel and Jerry sent follow-up emails to ask for FTI's opinions on GAAP, some of the Company's alternate calculations, and Crowe's calculation.
  - FTI provided a comprehensive reply about GAAP and the Company's alternate calculations. FTI recommended that the Company pose any questions about Crowe's calculations to Crowe.
  - In FTI's analysis, they identified significant flaws in the Company's alternate calculations. Of these, one was a particularly concerning data integrity issue. One of the components of the Company's alternate calculations was an allocation of debt with different credit ratings (AAA-B) within comparable auto receivable securitizations. FTI re-pulled this data from Bloomberg and found that, for two of the comparable securitizations used by the Company, the actual portion of debt at lower credit ratings was replaced with a zero. The effect of this was that the credit profile used by the Company was higher rated than actual. We do not want to rush to conclusions here – this could be a data source issue or a mistake – but it is concerning. This data issue also impacts the Historical Method, increasing the "modified" rate from 8.51% to 8.67%.

- At this point, FTI has provided you all with their conclusions on this issue and we are happy to continue to answer any questions you or the Company may have. Otherwise, it is FTI's position that there is no further in-scope work to be done here.

  - If the Company elects to use the modified Historical Method rate of 8.67%, FTI estimates the impact to fair value would be roughly $12M. This is based off of a rough estimate that Matt Lewis provided us – that every 1% change in the discount rate corresponds with an $8M impact.

  - That said, this rough impact estimate may not be applicable depending on the Company's forthcoming updated fair value model.

- Additional Interest

- On the call with Daniel last night, he advised us that the Company's updated fair value model would take out Additional Interest entirely. If Crowe is comfortable with that approach, it may be the easiest path forward.

- Daniel did not share what the impact of removing Additional Interest would be.

- Notwithstanding, as a backup, FTI continues to work on incorporating an updated Additional Interest calculation into the Company's data. This integration is complex and, candidly, FTI would expect that both the Company and Crowe would want to take its time in reviewing before any potential implementation. However, FTI expects that it may be worthwhile to continue on this front – just in case Crowe is not comfortable with removing Additional Interest entirely. According to Daniel, it was Crowe who pushed to create an Additional Interest calculation in the first place.

- Given the Company's current plan to remove Additional Interest, the development of a backup calculation should not result in any delay.

I will be in touch tomorrow about an update call among the Committee and the entire team. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Rizzy-

One of my objectives in our call yesterday and in our overall interaction has been to provide you with some context on my history with Tricolor, not only to illuminate on specific issues such as relocation but all of the issues directly or indirectly related to the Amex charges. I also feel it will help shape how you frame this situation toward resolution with Crowe.

As I briefly explained to you, I moved to LA in 2014 to start up an operation in California as a separate entity from Tricolor. This was about seven years after founding the company, which had been profitable every year since inception. I was in solid financial shape and intended to live there permanently. My strategy to grow our business had diverged with private equity sponsor at the time, who did not like the Hispanic focus. It took less than twelve months for this firm to drive the company into the ground, and I eventually re-acquired the equity with an investor group (which remains in place today). One of my principal motivations, aside from the emotional attachment I felt as the founder, was to prevent the 400+ families who relied on Tricolor for their income from being unemployed. I eventually put practically all of my net worth on the line (I had already invested substantially in the CA startup)

Less than a year after combining the Texas and California operations, Trump was elected and because our business model focused on serving the needs of undocumented immigrants, Tricolor was interpreted as a credit risk. Our capital markets access was interrupted. Our only ABS lender, Wells Fargo, reneged on their commitment and all of our lenders, other than Origin Bank, put the screws to us. I've never shared this with anyone (only Jerry Kollar, our CFO knows) but things became so difficult with our inventory lender at the time, that I pledged the equity in my house in LA, in addition to executing personal guarantees on our $50M facility. (see attached). This was before personally guaranteeing our subsequent $50M facility with Triumph Bank; that guaranty remained in place for 27 months.

When the pandemic hit in 2020, Credit Suisse stopped funding (again, only Origin Bank actually stepped up for us) and we again found our existence threatened.

So today, when an outsider like you (or an audit committee member for that matter) learns that we are financed by JP Morgan and Barclays, two of the three most prominent banks in consumer auto ABS, and that the most prestigious investors in consumer auto ABS--- PIMCO, Wellington, Janus, Nationwide, and the like--- purchase our bonds, it is impossible to realize the blood and sweat that have gone into overhauling our capital structure amidst a great deal of turbulence.

Again, if I did not take full responsibility for our capital structure (in addition to operating the business), I would estimate that:

1. The Company's cost of capital would be 150-200 bps higher. On $1B of debt, that's $15-20M of additional annual expense.

2. Furthermore, I would estimate that we would lose 10% of our leverage, so we would need an additional $100M of equity.
3. We would also need to hire a capital markets person at a cost of ~$1M (including bonus).

I've worked 60-70 hours per week for the past 7-8 years. I've dealt with not only unreasonable demands on my time, but my stress has been over the top. So with respect to expenses for my family to accompany me on travel, household expenses like a nanny, or IV treatments, this is some of my context. I candidly feel like it's been the most practical (and cheapest for the company) way for me to cope, and it also shapes how I drafted my proposed expense policy.
Hope this makes sense.

EXTERNAL E-MAIL - From dchu@tricolor.com

Rizzy-
Quick reactions---we can discuss. I've attached my previous email dated 5/9 for context.

1. The following destinations would be business travel:

   - New York-there should be calendar support
   - LA
   - Vegas-July trip was ABS Vegas; October trip was to accept Excellence in Community Service Award at Auto Finance News Awards (on my calendar)
   - Texas-see #4 on attached, restaurants should be classed as entertainment

2. The following trips could be both business and personal:

   - Indiana- Next Gear Capital, ADESA are also there; one trip was made in combo with Cincinnati (Fifth Third Bank)
   - Tahoe-we can reclassify as personal although I made 3 day trips to Sacramento, NorCal
   - Boston-ABS stuff would cover Four Seasons
   - Chicago-lots of investors there, conferences
   - CA (not LA)-mix of personal and business, entertainment, golf

- Colorado-mixed, Aspen was business purpose; Denver is Janus, other ABS investors, Colorado Springs mixed

3. The following can be reclassed as personal:

- Florida
- Paris
- Brazil must be an error

4. Other

- Professional services look generally correct---we can discuss---the large ones are TIADA (dealer association dues), Xulab (they produced our corporate videos), Earthvision is for site selection demographic data, FedEx would be for printing of presentation decks
- Unknown air, hotel should fall into #4 on attached, I couldn't figure oit some of the hotel because the charge date is not the travel date
- JSX would be DAL-MIA or MIA-DAL
- On relocation-please see #3 on attached
- There are some charges for other Tricolor personnel doing site selection, etc.—Phoenix, all parts of CA

Daniel:

Thank you again for taking the time to speak with us later today. Ahead of our call, I wanted to provide you with an overview of Amex charges and invoices that we will be discussing. I am attaching that list here for your review and comment. We will of course discuss these transactions later today, but please feel free to go ahead and begin making notes in column J if you agree that this should be reclassified as personal in nature or in column k to describe the business purpose for the transactions. We also identified several invoices and vendors that we have a few questions about, and those can be found in the second tab.

Please note that I understand you may not be able to get through the list ahead of our meeting and that is fine. However, if you have time, I thought sending along the attached will be helpful so that you may be able to review the general categories we are going to discuss.

Look forward to speaking with you later.

Minutes of a Regular Meeting of the Board of Managers of
Tricolor Holdings LLC

February 12, 2025 (and continuing on February 19, 2025)

A Regular Meeting (the "Meeting") of the Board of Directors ("the Board") of Tricolor Holdings LLC, Delaware limited liability company ("Tricolor" or the "Company"), convened on February 12, 2025 at 9:00 am CT, and was continued on February 19, 2025 at 4:00 pm CT.

The following members of the Board attended the Meeting: (1) Daniel Chu (the "Chair"); (2) Dick Anderson; (3) Derrick Weatherspoon; (4) Kathryn Petralia, (5) Christian Donohue and (6) Stan Erwin and Board Observers (1) Steven G Pelaez, (2) Alex West, (3) Nitin Dahiya, (4) Andrew Bakowski (5) Haidy Malik (6) BlackRock iPhone.

The following also attended the Meeting at the request of the Chair: (1) Jerry Kollar, Chief Financial Officer and Secretary and (2) Artoush Varshosaz, Company counsel with K&L Gates.

The Chair announced that the Meeting had been convened upon proper notice, the Secretary confirmed he was prepared to take minutes of the Meeting, and the Meeting was called to order.

1. Meeting Minutes

The minutes of the meeting of the Board held on October 24, 2024 were presented to the Board for approval. The Board, having acknowledged receipt of the draft minutes in advance of the Meeting and reviewed the minutes prior to the Meeting, made a motion to approve the minutes. The motion was seconded and unanimously carried.

2. Fourth Quarter 2024 Board Presentation

Mr. Chu began the meeting with a context update on macro environmental trends in the wholesale auto and lending environment. Mr. Chu presented the performance summary.

Mr. Chu reviewed key developments in the 4th quarter and recap of historical performance through 2024.

Mr. Chu presented 2024 election impact and the strategies for monitoring key performance indicators.

3. Capital Markets Update – ABS & Equity

Mr. Chu and Mr. Kollar provided background on the debt and equity capital markets process and developments.

4. 4th Quarter and Full Year 2024 Financial Results

Mr. Kollar and Mr. Chu presented the 2024 financial results.

5. New Broad Platform Strategy

Mr. Chu presented the New Platform Strategy to the board. The strategy is to expand Tricolor's strategy to the general market customer and focus on certain Sunbelt states. Members of the board asked various questions and discussion ensued on location, store design/size and competition.

6. Executive Session

Mr. Chu left the meeting and the Board excused the invited guests, except for Mr. Varshosaz, and discussed the proposal for Mr. Chu's bonus and compensation. A discussion ensued among the Board, with each member engaging in discussions regarding prior compensation for the CEO, prior compensation committee data and process to obtain such data, structure previously discussed by the Board to provide Mr. Chu a bonus in the event a particular transaction was effected by the Company, and materials presented by Mr. Chu in connection with this meeting and prior interactions with the Board regarding CEO compensation packages.

The Board had a few open items it wanted to better understand related to Mr. Chu's proposed compensation and bonus arrangements and to review additional information from the Company's prior compensation consultant, Meridian, in connection with its market analysis for CEO compensation. Consequently, the board held the meeting in recess while information related to these additional items was further understood.

The Board (other than Mr. Chu) reconvened its discussions on February 19, 2025, at 4:00 pm CT. Present for the discussions were Dick Anderson, Derrick Weatherspoon, Kathryn Petralia, Christian Donohue, Stan Erwin, and Artoush Varshosaz. The Board discussed compensation levels awarded to the CEO in prior years, the Company's access to available cash during those years, information shared by Mr. Chu relating to his historical and proposed compensation, previous analysis from Meridian, and the Company's overall performance on a multi-year basis. The Board also discussed the lack of an equity grant in recent years in favor of the CEO, as well as the potential value of different types of equity grants had they been issued earlier. The Board considered information provided by Mr. Chu and Mr. Kollar regarding the Company's current cash position and potential impact on operations as a result of Mr. Chu's compensation and possible bonus payments.

The Board further considered information from the Company's auditor, Grant Thornton, shared separately with Mr. Chu, Ms. Petralia, and Mr. Varshosaz regarding the auditor's view that a promissory note with Mr. Chu as a mechanism to facilitate a bonus to him would have a neutral impact on the Company's earnings in the year in which the funds are extended. The Board also discussed a prior framework it offered the CEO that would allow for a bonus tethered to the Company experiencing a sale transaction. Although no such transaction has yet taken place, the Board noted that the Company, though other capital transactions, was nevertheless able to obtain non-dilutive cash to support further growth.

After discussion, the Board concluded that the CEO was not appropriately paid in prior years, and it was in the best interest of the Company and its members to help retain and further motivate the CEO by catching up his compensation. The Board also believed that, even though a transaction it previously contemplated had not occurred, the net effect of other transactions provided the necessary capital for the company. For these reasons and others, the Board believes a bonus to the CEO was appropriate and in the best interest of the Company and its members.

A discussion further ensued as to the appropriate amount of the bonus. The Board specifically discussed the original proposal from the CEO that was provided in advance of the Board meeting, as well as subsequent modifications requested by the CEO in the days while the meeting was in recess. Mr. Weatherspoon and Mr. Donahue noted that, while they generally support the notion of a bonus and specifically stated that they would not stand in the way of it, they would abstain from voting on the amount and look to the other Board members to determine the appropriate amount.

Having considered the information and engaged in an informed discussion regarding the issues, the Board moved to approve, voted for, and approved the following actions:

- 2024 Bonus. The Board unanimously approved awarding Mr. Chu $2,000,000 as a bonus related to 2024 performance.
- 2025 Base Salary. The Board unanimously approved awarding Mr. Chu $2,000,000 as his base salary for the year 2025 and going forward.
- 2025 Bonus. The Board unanimously approved awarding Mr. Chu a potential bonus (in addition to his then current base salary) of up to $2,000,000 in 2025 and each year going forward, as determined by and in the discretion of the Board, subject to a mutually agreeable employment agreement with Mr. Chu.
- Long Term Incentive Compensation. The Board unanimously approved awarding Mr. Chu a one-time (i.e., not an annual grant) management incentive "profit interest" grant equal to 200 basis points of the Company outstanding equity shares, calculated on a fully diluted basis, with a hurdle amount to be determined by a current 409A valuation and on terms that are customary and consistent with prior management incentive "profit interest" grants issued by the Company to its senior executives. The Board further decided that such equity grant should vest over a four-year period in the manner set forth in the applicable award agreement.
- Special Bonus. The Board approved awarding Mr. Chu a one-time bonus (i.e., not an annual bonus) in an amount between $13,000,000–$15,000,000, as determined by Mr. Erwin following his upcoming discussions with Mr. Chu, which amount shall be reduced by the aggregate amount of $1,443,057 that Mr. Chu currently owes the Company (as reflected in the amended promissory note previously approved by the Board) (the "Special Bonus"). Voting in favor were Mr. Anderson, Ms. Petralia, and Mr. Erwin. Mr. Weatherspoon and Mr. Donahue abstained from the vote on the amount and deferred to the approval given by Mr. Anderson, Ms. Petralia, and Mr. Erwin. No votes were against.
- Promissory Note. The Board unanimously approved effecting the Special Bonus to Mr. Daniel Chu through a cash distribution of $11,556,943–$13,556,943, as determined by Mr. Erwin following his upcoming discussions with Mr. Chu, which amounts account for Mr. Chu's full repayment and satisfaction of the aggregate amount of $1,443,057 that Mr. Chu currently owes the Company, in exchange for an executed promissory note issued by

Mr. Chu in favor of the Company in the aggregate amount of $13,000,000–$15,000,000, as determined by Mr. Erwin following his upcoming discussions with Mr. Chu ("Note"), subject to the following terms:

- The Note shall be drafted by the Company's counsel and reviewed by the Company's auditors;
- The Note shall be payable prior to or at the time of a change of control or other substantial capital event for the Company (including, for example, from any bonus issued to Mr. Chu at the time of such change of control or substantial capital event which would be netted against the Note), and interest will accrue, if not otherwise paid, to its maturity date which shall not be longer than three years;
- The Note shall be secured by Mr. Chu's equity interests in the Company;
- The Special Bonus should not be paid to Mr. Chu unless and until the execution of both (i) a mutually agreeable employment agreement, and (ii) the Note; and
- The Special Bonus shall supersede and nullify any prior "true up" or "transaction bonus" considered by the Board in favor of Mr. Chu. More specifically, the "transaction bonus" considered by the board in late 2023 and early 2024, and related equity grants if no transaction took effect, have been rescinded and superseded by the Special Bonus.

The Board discussed whether the Note as a vehicle to effect a Special Bonus, and the other related transactions with Mr. Chu, would be considered a "transaction" with a "Related Party" subject to Section 4.14 of the Company's Fifth Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement (the "LLC Agreement"). The Company believes that the Special Bonus and Note are methods of compensation and not subject to any consent rights under the LLC Agreement.

For the avoidance of doubt, however, Mr. Weatherspoon and Mr. Donahue, as Members of the Board and as authorized representatives of the holders of a majority of the Senior Preferred Units, agreed to provide written consent on behalf of the holders of a majority of the Senior Preferred Units to such Special Bonus and Note.

Further, in accordance with Section 4.14(a)(vii) of the LLC Agreement, Mr. Anderson, Ms. Petralia, and Mr. Erwin, who were determined to be disinterested members of the Board, believe the terms of the Special Bonus and Note are fair and reasonable, and no less favorable to the Company than would be obtained in an arm's length transaction with a non-affiliate, particularly given Mr. Chu's track record of success and capabilities to deliver maximum value for the Company and its stakeholders going forward and, as reflected by their respective signatures in the attachment to these minutes, acknowledge the same in writing as contemplated by Section 4.14(a)(vii).

Mr. Varshosaz is instructed to prepare any other documents as may be necessary to facilitate the aforementioned decisions by the Board.

7. Adjournment

The Board adjourned the Meeting.

For the Executive Sessions:

Subject: Sharpe Law Group - Chu Entity Structure

Daniel,

Attached is a flow chart illustrating the structure of the plan we discussed during our meeting. It involves the creation of a few trusts and an FLP (discussed below). As a reminder, you can't transfer S-Corp stock to the FLP, so if any of the properties are owned in an LLC that is taxed as an S-Corp, please let us know.

Below is the information about a family limited partnership ("FLP") we discussed. Please let us know if you have any questions.

Structure

An FLP, as the name suggests, is a partnership and is made up of two types of partners: general partners and limited partners. The general partner owns minimal interest, if any, and is responsible for exclusive management, operation and control of the business and affairs of the FLP. As the managing partner of the FLP, the general partner is the only partner exposed to liability. Therefore, it is common to use a protected entity to serve as the general partner (i.e., an LLC). By utilizing such an entity, clients maintain management of the FLP, but under the veil and protection of the LLC. The limited partners have few rights to participate in the regular management of the FLP but maintain the right to receive the pro rata portion of any distributions made to partners.

Limited Liability Company:

The LLC will act as the general partner of the limited partnership. The general partner is the partner who controls the partnership and is exposed to the liabilities of the partnership. Again, it is common to use a protected entity as the general partner rather than an individual to provide another wall of protection. The information we need to create the LLC is as follows:

1. Name: Can be anything, but the most common names include the word "management" somewhere so that it is easy to differentiate the general partner (the management company) versus the limited partnership (which actually holds the assets). i.e., _____ Management, LLC. However, it doesn't need to contain "management" (though it must include "LLC"). If you can provide us with 2 or 3 name choices, we can check for their availability with the State of Texas.

2. Managers: These are the people who control the LLC. Presumably, you will be the Manager.

3. Members: These are the people who own the LLC. We suggest creating a gift trust for your younger children to be the member of this LLC.

4. Business Address: What address do you want to use as the business address for the LLC? The entity will receive some annual information and forms from the state.

5. Registered Agent and Address: To whom service, mail, etc. is sent (presumably you). The Registered Address cannot be a P.O. Box. This is generally the same as the business address.

Family Limited Partnership:

The FLP is the entity that will actually own the investment assets. The information we need to create the FLP is as follows:

1. Name: Again, can be anything, but most commonly includes words such as "investments," "holdings," etc. - i.e., _____ Holdings, Ltd. But again, the FLP does not need to contain those words (though it must include "Ltd." or "LP" or the like). If you can provide us with 2 or 3 name choices, we can check for their availability with the State of Texas.

2. Limited Partner(s): Similar to a shareholder of a corporation, these are the people who own the limited partnership interests in the FLP. Limited partners have minimal control and have no right to direct distributions or control management of the FLP assets (as this is controlled by the LLC). We discussed two self-settled trusts for your and Constance's benefit will be the limited partners.

3. Business Address: See above.

4. Registered Agent: see above.

This is an incredibly condensed explanation of the function and structure of an FLP. However, as you can see, there is actually not a lot of information we need from you to begin. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Best,
Tait

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff Anne Elizabeth Burns is the duly qualified and acting Chapter 7 trustee for the bankruptcy estate of Debtors, which is being administered under the Bankruptcy Case, and may be served with any further pleadings or documents in this action through the undersigned counsel.

3. Daniel Chu ("Chu") is a natural person and a resident of Florida. Upon information and belief, Chu resides at The Four Seasons Residences, The Surf Club, 9001 Collins Ave #S-201, Miami Beach, FL 33154. Chu was at all relevant times Chief Executive Officer and President of Tricolor Holdings, as well as a Manager of Tricolor Holdings. Chu also served as the Chief Executive Officer and President—as well as a Manager—of each of the other Debtors.

4. Chu Family Investments LLC is a limited liability company with a headquarters at 4208 Beverly Drive, Dallas, Texas 75205.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5. Jurisdiction is proper because the real property that is the subject of this action is located in the County of Los Angeles, in the State of California. The real property at issue is a residential single-family home located at 1612 Gilcrest Drive, Beverly Hills, CA 90210.

6. Venue is proper in this Court because the real property that is the subject of this action is located in the County of Los Angeles, in the State of California.

RELATED ACTION

7. The Trustee brought an adversary proceeding against Chu and other defendants in Burns, as Chapter 7 Trustee for Tricolor Holdings, LLC v. Chu et al., No. 3:25-03126-mvl (Bankr. N.D. Tex. Dec. 19, 2025). The Trustee brings the present action for claims related to Chu's property in California invoking this Court's in rem jurisdiction.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

8. The Trustee brings this action against Chu and Chu Family Investments LLC (together, "Defendants") for constructive trust over the Property for the benefit of Debtors' estates and their creditors. The Property constitutes Estate property because Defendants purchased it with proceeds he defrauded from Tricolor.

9. On December 16, 2025, the Department of Justice ("DOJ") unsealed a detailed indictment charging Chu and other executives with operating a financial crimes enterprise, conspiring to commit bank fraud and wire fraud affecting a financial institution, committing bank fraud, and committing wire fraud affecting a financial institution. (Ex. 1.)

10. As alleged in the indictment, Chu and other executives at Tricolor defrauded lenders including through the "double-pledging" of collateral, manipulating the descriptions and classification of assets pledged as collateral, and using those misrepresentations to secure hundreds of millions in cash advances—some of which were used to enrich Chu himself—to the detriment of Tricolor's lenders and other creditors who were left with liabilities after Tricolor's bankruptcy. The DOJ's criminal action against Chu is ongoing, but the Trustee, in parallel, initiated an action in the Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas, seeking recovery from Chu under theories of (1) fraud, (2) breach of the fiduciary duty of care, (3) breach of the fiduciary duty of loyalty, (4) breach of the Fifth Amended and Restated Limited Liability Agreement, (5) breach of the implied duty of good faith and fair dealing, (6) turnover of estate property, (7) avoidance of preferential transfers, (8) actual fraudulent transfer, (9) constructive fraudulent transfer, (10) civil conspiracy, (11) unjust enrichment, (12) constructive trust, and (13) an accounting (Burns, as Chapter 7 Trustee for Tricolor Holdings, LLC v. Chu et al., No. 3:25-03126-mvl (Bankr. N.D. Tex. Dec. 19, 2025)).

11. In short, this Complaint arises from a brazen fraud of over $600 million at Tricolor, perpetrated by Daniel Chu, the founder and former Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") and President. Chu blatantly misrepresented the amount of finance receivables on Tricolor's books to secure more and more financing from its lending banks and to issue more and more asset-backed securities to investors. This scheme ultimately led to an avalanche of liabilities and an ensuing liquidity crisis, which resulted in a Chapter 7 Bankruptcy proceeding.

12. During Chu's nearly two-decade tenure as the CEO of Tricolor, he further defrauded Tricolor by using corporate funds to pay for lavish personal expenses and by forcing the company into paying him tens of millions of dollars in bonuses (on top of his executive salary), premised on his ability to deliver exceptional financial results—results that were the product of fraud. Chu's quest for multimillion dollar bonuses and regular use of corporate funds for personal expenses, against a backdrop of towering liabilities, allowed him to fund his lavish lifestyle—including opulent homes in Highland Park, Beverly Hills, and Miami (collectively worth approximately $38 million), as well as other personal luxuries such as private jet travel, expensive European vacations, cars, and even a personal ski chalet.

13. Chu founded Tricolor in 2007. It was a "buy here, pay here" subprime auto finance company—i.e., it is both an auto dealer and an auto finance company, offering in-house financing directly to its customers. Tricolor Auto Group, LLC operated over sixty dealerships in the United States, principally in Texas and California.

14. Tricolor's business model targeted "underbanked" borrowers, two-thirds of which lacked savings, consistent income, and credit scores. Tricolor was marketed as a community-focused company that gave auto loans to mainly Hispanic immigrants, attempting to cast aside the typical reputation of used car salesmen targeting vulnerable communities with promises of no credit-check loans.

15. Tricolor relied on short-term warehouse lending to originate auto loans for its customers. These loans were then bundled as collateral for asset-backed securities ("ABS"). These proceeds from ABS sales were, in turn, used to pay off the warehouse loans.

16. This economic model appeared to be a winning formula for Tricolor. Tricolor was among the fastest-growing auto lenders in the United States, quadrupling in size from 2018 through 2025. In 2025, it closed two term securitization transactions with notes sold for $328,100,000 and $217,180,000 (Tricolor Auto Receivables Trust 2025-1 and 2025-2, respectively).

17. But on the inside, Tricolor was a fraud, as Chu perpetuated a double-pledging scheme, pursuant to which identical auto loans were pledged as collateral for separate warehouse credit lines with different banks, and Tricolor duplicated vehicle identification numbers to generate multiple fictitious loans per vehicle.

18. To uncover the scope of this blatant fraud, the Trustee has retained consulting firm CRS Capstone Partners LLC ("Capstone"), and Capstone's forensic accounting expert Jim Calandra (the "Forensic Accounting Expert"), to investigate the facts and circumstances that led to Tricolor's bankruptcy. While the investigation is ongoing, to date, the Forensic Accounting Expert has analyzed Tricolor's finance receivables, loan servicer reports, and Tricolor's historical financial statements, and his preliminary analysis reveals cloned or entirely fabricated loans with a receivable value of over $683 million, which allowed Tricolor to receive hundreds of millions of dollars more in credit from its lending banks than it had lent in auto loans to its consumers.

A. Tricolor's Business and Corporate Organization.

19. Tricolor Holdings is a limited liability company founded in 2015 and organized under the laws of the State of Delaware with a principal place of business at 6021 Connection Drive, 4th Floor, Irving, Texas 75039. It is the direct or indirect parent entity of the other Debtors. (See Appendix A.) The majority member of Tricolor Holdings is Ganas Investors, LLC, an LLC in which Chu was the sole manager.

20. Tricolor was a "buy here, pay here" subprime auto finance company, which meant that it was both an automobile dealer and finance company, offering in-house financing directly to its customers who purchased its used vehicles.

21. Tricolor funded its auto lending operations through warehouse loans. A warehouse loan is a revolving line of credit extended by a financial institution to a lender to fund consumer loans. These lines of credit are seen in a variety of industries but are commonly used in auto lending and mortgage lending.

22. Because Tricolor was a buy-here, pay-here dealer, Tricolor could originate auto loans to the purchasers of the vehicles it sold (represented on Tricolor's books as finance receivables) and then finance those loans through the warehouse line of credit. Tricolor's lending process followed a cyclical pattern in which: (1) Tricolor would take a loan application from a prospective automobile consumer, (2) Tricolor would draw on the warehouse line of credit in order to fund the auto loan, (3) the auto loan would serve as collateral for the warehouse line of credit, (4) the auto loans would be securitized into asset-backed securities to be sold to investors, and (5) the warehouse line of credit would be repaid with funds from selling the asset-backed securities.

23. A credit agreement between one of the Lenders and Tricolor mandated that its investment vehicles not exceed a collateralization rate of 80%—that is, the Lenders agreed to extend a line of credit to Tricolor for amounts less than or equal to 80% of the value of Tricolor's recorded finance receivables (i.e., its auto loans to Tricolor customers).

24. Because the auto loans themselves were the collateral for the Lenders' warehouse line of credit, the collateralization rate of 80% was intended to limit Lenders' exposure in the event of consumer defaults on those auto loans. Putting a cap on the line of credit that could be advanced to Tricolor for a given amount of collateral was vital, as Tricolor's customer base consisted of those with poor (or no) credit history. As a result, defaults on the auto loans which served as the collateral for the warehouse line of credit were a common occurrence.

B. Chu's Hands-On Involvement in and Total Control Over All Aspects of Tricolor's Business.

25. Tricolor Holdings was a "manager-managed" LLC, whereby a Board of Managers was empowered pursuant to the Fifth Amended and Restated Limited Liability Agreement of Tricolor Holdings LLC (the "LLC Agreement") (Ex. 2) to manage the business and affairs of Tricolor Holdings. The Board of Managers, in turn, was empowered by the LLC Agreement to appoint Officers to manage the day-to-day affairs of the Company. The other Debtors, too, were manager-managed LLCs.

26. Chu managed the day-to-day operations of Tricolor.

27. Chu was at all relevant times the Chief Executive Officer and President of Tricolor Holdings, as well as a Manager of Tricolor Holdings. Chu also served as the Chief Executive Officer and President—and a Manager—of each of the other Debtors. As CEO and President, Chu oversaw all aspects of Tricolor's business. Chu was also the public face of Tricolor, regularly speaking for the company in a wide variety of publications and podcasts regarding Tricolor's business strategies and other substantive issues facing the company. For example, on October 18, 2019, Chu appeared on the Lend Academy Podcast to discuss building a customer base that did not focus on repeat customers.

28. Each year of Chu's employment with Tricolor he received a salary and bonus, which was provided for in Chu's Executive Employment Agreement (the "Employment Agreement") and each amended and restated Employment Agreement thereafter. (Ex. 3.)

29. Chu's Employment Agreement required him, among other things, to "follow all applicable Company policies and codes of conduct, and to comply with all reasonable and lawful instructions and directions of the Board, and adhere to all applicable laws, regulations, bylaws, ordinances and any other applicable legal requirements." (Ex. 3 at 1.)

30. Additionally, as a provision in Chu's employment agreement he agreed that he owed a fiduciary duty of loyalty to the company, "including the common law duties of reasonable care, loyalty, and honesty which arise out of the Parties' relationship." (Ex. 3 at 12.)

31. Chu's roles also allowed him to lead Board meetings. At virtually every Tricolor Board meeting, Chu presented regarding financial position of the company, including investments, hiring, and macroeconomic conditions. Chu therefore controlled the financial narrative that was presented to the Board, meeting after meeting.

32. Chu also led the process for securitizing Tricolor's auto loans, demonstrating their familiarity with Tricolor's financial standing, collateral available for pledging, and collateral already pledged. On at least one occasion, Chu worked with other Officers to develop materials for the Board concerning Tricolor's securitizations to financial institutions.

C. Chu's Wide-Ranging Fraud.

33. As set forth in the DOJ indictment, from 2018 through 2025, Chu perpetuated a brazen double-pledging scheme to defraud Tricolor, its lenders, and other investors.

34. In or about 2018, Chu instructed Jerome Kollar ("Kollar"), the Chief Financial Officer of the Company, to pledge past-due loans that Tricolor had already charged-off as losses. Chu instructed Kollar to create a fictitious portfolio company in Tricolor's dealer management system, transfer the charged-off loans to the new portfolio company, and arrange for other Tricolor employees to manually enter fake payments from customers on those charged-off loans in the dealer management system. In order to pay back the loans it secured from Lenders through the collateralized car loans, Tricolor used funds from one Lender to pay back another Lender to make it appear as though the fake payments were not fabricated by Chu.

35. In or about 2021, Chu manipulated data related to Tricolor's collateral for inventory loans (i.e., the vehicles themselves). Chu retained vehicles on Tricolor's borrowing base for inventory credit lines even after they were sold, allowing for Tricolor to draw on lines of inventory credit for illusory collateral. At the same time, Chu also caused Tricolor to pledge to other lenders the finance receivables for cars that had been sold and financed but were nonetheless pledged to inventory lines of credit.

36. From at least 2022 onwards, Chu further manipulated financial data as to Tricolor's borrowing base, including data on loan performance, and pledged the same collateral across multiple warehouse facilities to draw more from its warehouse credit lines. Chu submitted manipulated borrowing base reports to Lenders which misrepresented the loan receivables that formed Tricolor's borrowing base.

D. The Fraud is Revealed.

37. In August 2025, one of Tricolor's lenders, JPMorgan Chase & Co. ("JPM") began investigating whether Tricolor pledged the same collateral multiple times, thus significantly overrepresenting the amount of collateral pledged in support of the JPM warehouse loans. A banker from JPM called Chu about these problems. Chu, at the time, was on a luxury vacation in Italy, and he denied knowledge of the fraud. JPM retained FTI Consulting to run a forensic analysis of Tricolor and alerted the Department of Justice.

38. Chu, Kollar and other executives spoke over the phone on August 17, 2025 to discuss how to reconcile the irregularities in the records. Per audio recordings reflected in the DOJ's indictment, Chu stated that "rather than scrambling" to figure out, "okay, how are we gonna fabricate these loans? How are we gonna make up these loans? We just basically created around the problem with a structure, or I would say in this case, a policy, which, which made it, made all the math work." Chu then said, "we have a similar math problem today" and discussed with Kollar the buckets of manipulated loans and confirming exactly what fake data had been sent to the lenders. (Ex. 1 at 11.)

39. On another call between Chu and other executives, Chu recounted that he had spoken to one of the Lenders the prior evening and relayed to the Lender's representative. Chu said: "Look, if we were trying to commit fraud, we wouldn't be so stupid as to keep the same balances on there. . . . Nobody would be that stupid. And he [the Lender representative] goes, 'you're right.'" The participants on the August 19 call laughed in response. Chu also recounted how he told the representative of the Lender that it must be a "system issue." Of course, these were lies. As all participants on the call were aware, these inconsistencies were due to intentionally manipulated data, not a system issue. (Ex. 1 at 12.)

40. On August 29, JPM's investigation revealed that Tricolor had failed to reconcile its bank statements with the company's internal financial records. This mismatch was an intentional practice for years by Chu in order to prevent the fraud from being uncovered.

E. Capstone's Investigation To Date Confirms the Staggering Scope of Chu's Fraud.

41. Capstone is an industry-leading investment banking and financial advisory firm retained by the Trustee to conduct a forensic accounting and fraud investigation. Capstone's investigation is headed by Mr. Jim Calandra, CPA, CTP, CFF. Mr. Calandra serves as Capstone's Managing Director and Head of Capstone's Financial Advisory Services practice, and he has more than 25 years of experience in turnaround management consulting, interim management, fraud and forensic accounting, mergers and acquisitions, and recapitalizations. Capstone's investigation has begun to reveal the massive scope of the fraud at Tricolor.

42. While Capstone's investigation is not yet complete, it has already revealed the massive scope of Chu's fraud. To date, this investigation has uncovered 38,368 false finance receivable accounts, which represents loans that Capstone has classified as either "clone loans" or otherwise fictitious loans. In total, these loans represented $683 million in reported value on Tricolor's books.

43. The "clone loans" identified by Capstone were loans contained in Tricolor's warehouses and securitizations that had modified account IDs, but which otherwise had all of the other same attributes (e.g., the same vehicle identification numbers, vehicle make, and vehicle number). Capstone identified 31,408 clone loans with a finance receivable value of $547,928,874 and concluded they were the result of intentional misrepresentation of loans in Tricolor's books.

44. The other fictitious loans that Capstone's investigation uncovered took the form of loans with vehicle identification numbers listed in servicer reports that were completely absent from finance receivable records—implying that these loans were fabricated entirely. The internal investigation has revealed that there were at least 6,960 such loans, with a finance receivable value of $135,488,888. Capstone found VINs listed in multiple warehouse facilities, but not listed with the vehicles sold by Tricolor, however they did appear in the finance receivable records.

45. Capstone's investigation further uncovered that in June 2025, when Tricolor had $1.4 billion in finance receivables (which would imply a collateralization base of $1.1 billion with a collateralization rate of 80%), Tricolor falsely reported the finance receivables in its credit facilities to show $1.7 billion total obligations—an upward variance of approximately $600 million.

46. In other words, Tricolor was given advance loans from its warehouse Lenders premised on Tricolor's falsely inflated receivables base.

47. Because the fraud excessively leveraged Tricolor, the company was put into a precarious economic situation where Tricolor could suddenly find itself unable to pay for the loans if a significant number of defaults occurred.

48. Capstone's investigation also revealed the rapid timeline of Tricolor's overleverage.

49. Prior to September 2020, the ratio between the finance receivable balance to the obligations reported to credit facilities (the "collateral coverage ratio") sat at approximately 125%, meaning there were greater auto loan receivables than there were outstanding liabilities under the warehouse loans and the securitization trusts.

50. After September 2020, the collateral coverage ratio rapidly declined, falling below 100% and reaching approximately 87% in March 2023, meaning that Tricolor was receiving more in financing from its warehouse line of credit than it had in finance receivables.

51. In December 2023, Tricolor reported a $196 million increase in finance receivables, which temporarily improved the ratio from approximately 89% to approximately 96%.

52. From there, however, Tricolor's obligations under its credit facilities grew at a breakneck pace, with a rapidly declining collateral coverage ratio. This implies that the creation of fictitious loans increased considerably during this period, and further that Tricolor used funds lent by Lenders to make fictitious loan payments to other Lenders.

F. The Fraud Bankrupts Tricolor.

53. When this fraudulent accounting came to light, Tricolor's Lenders terminated their warehouse lending agreements with Tricolor in August 2025.

54. Tricolor defaulted on its payment obligations to the Lenders. Indeed, JPM and another lender (Fifth Third) each logged nearly $180 million in net charge-offs in their financial reporting in the third quarter of 2025, as a result of Tricolor's defaults on the advance loans issued to Tricolor.

55. On September 7, 2025, just days before Tricolor filed its Chapter 7 petition, Chu resigned from the board of directors of Origin Bank, one of Tricolor's Lenders.

G. Chu Leverages the Fraud to Extract Excessive Bonus Compensation and to Use Corporate Funds for Lavish Personal Expenses.

56. In the years leading up to Tricolor's bankruptcy, as the scope of the above-described fraud became unsustainable and the company was poised for collapse, Chu fixated on his compensation, demanding outsized bonuses, spending company funds on personal expenses, and using his power as Manager of Ganas Investors, LLC to unilaterally force out any Board members that voiced opposition to his demands.

57. In or around January 2022, Chu demanded a bonus for his performance for 2021 from Tricolor's Board of Managers, in the amount of $1.5 million.

58. In response to his concerns, the Board of Managers of Tricolor retained consulting firm Meridian Compensation Partners ("Meridian") to determine a fair compensation package for Chu. Meridian's analysis, provided to the Board in July 2022, offered ranges of compensation for private and public companies by various revenue sizes, which showed that Chu's compensation was in line with the 50th percentile of private US companies. However, Chu demanded that he receive compensation in at least the top 10th percentile for public companies in the analysis—including a base salary of $1 million, with a bonus of $1.5 to 2 million, and $2.5 million in equity—even though Tricolor was not a public company at that time.

59. Chu's demand for increased compensation was initially considered by the Board's Compensation Committee, which at the time consisted of two now-former Board members: Dann Adams and Antonio Garza.

60. Adams, who was the chair of the Compensation Committee, expressed skepticism about the level of compensation demanded by Chu, worrying about the optics of a company whose brand image has been focused on high social impact paying its CEO a compensation package substantially higher than that of the average private company CEO.

61. In response, Chu prepared a fourteen-slide presentation for the Board meeting on March 17, 2023, taking credit for Tricolor's financial performance, and claiming that the Compensation Committee process related to his bonus has been "grossly mismanaged." In this presentation, he referred to Adams as a "top imbecile" for daring to challenge his proposed compensation. (Ex. 4.)

62. Chu demanded, among other things: (1) a reallocation to cash compensation for 2022 and increase his bonus by $3 million, to reach a total of $5 million in 2022; (2) a new equity plan in 2023 with structure; (3) a base pay of $1.5 million and bonus of $750,000 in 2023; and (4) a three year severance of $1 million per year upon departure for any reason. (Ex. 4.)

63. And, in a further sign of his attempts to bully the Board with respect to his compensation, Chu included a final demand in his slide deck that would have required Adams personally to submit a written explanation on the appropriate use of "their, there, and they're," enroll in a local community college, and achieve a 2.5 GPA in a curriculum of English composition and grammar, and statistics. (Ex. 4.)

64. When he received continued pushback on his compensation demands, Chu threatened to leave the company and raised the prospect of forcing the Board to "agree to put the company up for sale immediately."

65. On the morning of March 25, 2023, Board member Derrick Weatherspoon emailed Chu to notify him that a new compensation package was approved by the Board, which included, among other things, (1) a one-time grant of Restricted Stock Units valued at $1.5 million as compensation for 2022 in lieu of a cash bonus, and (2) a base salary of $750,000 and a cash bonus of $750,000 to $1.5 million (maximum) for 2023. (Ex. 5.) Weatherspoon further promised to return a response regarding some of Chu's additional asks. Chu replied late that day attempting to explain why the current compensation proposal was "undeniably absurd." (Ex. 6.)

66. Subsequently, in May 2023, in the course of Tricolor's annual audit, the Board discovered that Chu had made millions of dollars' worth of seemingly personal purchases on his company American Express credit card without reimbursing the company. These expenses, which Chu claimed were "completely business-driven" and necessary business expenses, included over the course of just 2022:

- Hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of private jet and first-class commercial air travel for himself and his family, including over 240 purchases from American Airlines totaling $185,000;
- Hundreds of stays at luxury hotels and resorts costing more than $300,000, including spending more than $20,000 at the Sky Residences at Aspen; more than $65,000 at Four Seasons hotels in Boston, Surfside, Las Vegas, Irving, New York, Chicago, and Denver; more than $30,000 at the Trump International in New York; and more than $140,000 for 100 charges at Hotels.com; in addition to stays at the Garden of the Gods Resort in Colorado Springs, the Peninsula in New York, the Hall Arts Hotel in Dallas, the L'Auberge in Del Mar, Mandarin Oriental hotels in Boston and Paris, the Cosmopolitan in Las Vegas, Mansion on Turtle Creek in Dallas, the Grand Beach Hotel in Surfside, the Wynn in Las Vegas, the Waldorf Astoria in Las Vegas, and the Beverly Hills Hotel;
- Over 200 meals at high-end restaurants, including extravagant meals costing hundreds or thousands of dollars at Salt Bae's restaurant in Dallas, Nobu in New York, Prime 112 in Miami, Le Bilboquet in New York, Los Fuegos in Miami, Chef Tania private dining in Miami, Hakkasan in Las Vegas, Hutong in Miami, Carbone in Dallas, Novikov in Miami, Pao by Paul Qui in Miami, Mr. Chow's in Miami, Cote in Miami, and Le Coucou in New York;

- Thousands of dollars of alcohol and wine purchases from Silver Oak Cellars in Napa Valley, the Opus One Winery in Oakville, Del Dotto Vineyards in Napa Valley, Big Daddy's Liquor in New York, the Kenzo Estate Winery in Napa Valley, Crown Liquors in New York, and VinPorter in Napa Valley;
- Thousands of dollars of healthcare and beauty expenses, including skin revitalization at Skincare by Amy Peterson, vitamin infusions at Vitality IV Bar, dental work at The Prosthodontic Center of Beverly Hills, biochemical testing at DHA Laboratory, wellness treatments at Tierra Santa Healing House in Miami, multiple visits to the Exhale spa in Bar Harbour, and recurring payments for Nutrafol hair growth products;
- Tens of thousands of dollars of purchases from a woman's clothing store in Bal Harbour (Intermix), a countertop supply store in Phoenix (Lee's Counter Tapps Tops), a general contractor in Miami (Vera Castell Services), an air purifier company (Molekule), an art gallery in Dallas (Artemis Fine Arts), a designer coffee table book store (Assouline), a wool sweater store in Portland (Dehen), a home automation company in Miami (Systems Design & Integration), a luxury home staging company in California (Meredith Baer Home), and a florist in Del Ray Beach (Camden Gardens of Florida);

- Simultaneous monthly subscriptions to television services from YouTube Tv, FuboTv, Hulu Tv, and Spectrum; streaming subscriptions from Netflix, Peacock, Hulu, and Spotify; and dozens of purchases from Prime Video;
- Simultaneous memberships in ClassPass, Peloton, Equinox, SoulCycle, and StretchZone;
- More than $18,000 in purchases from Apple and the Apple Store;
- 874 charges to Uber, 314 charges to Lyft, 231 charges to Doordash, and 205 charges to Uber Eats;
- Regular dry-cleaning at Dryeco dry cleaning in Sunny Island;
- Dog-training services from Elite K9 Service in Florida; and
- Personal storage and moving charges totaling over $140,000.

(Ex. 7; Ex. 8.)

67. On May 9, 2023, Chu emailed Tricolor's counsel at the law firm Reed Smith regarding the ongoing audit, copying Board audit committee member Beth Brooke, attempting to pass off his personal expenses as necessary business expenses. Chu attempted to justify (among other things) over $422,000 in travel expenses by explaining that when he chooses to travel, he travels with his immediate family, and thus multiple airline tickets and larger hotel accommodations for his family should be paid by the company. (Ex. 7.)

68. On May 11, 2023, Brooke emailed Reed Smith and Tricolor Board members expressing concern about Chu's bonuses in 2021 and 2022 as well as the personal American Express expenses. Brooke questioned who would have authorized an advance of $400,000 to Chu, considering the Board had instructed the compensation committee to "hold up on finalizing" his compensation and bonus pending the investigation into his American Express expenses. Brooke closed her email with a sober reflection of Chu's self-interested leadership of Tricolor: "If this is all because what [Chu] says, people do, with or without proper processes and approvals. If that is the case, [the auditor] is going to question everything. Rightfully so."

69. On May 14, 2023, Chu once more attempted to justify his personal spending as business expenses. He even went so far as to say that household expenses like a nanny and even intravenous vitamin treatments were "the most practical" way for him to "cope" with his executive responsibilities. (Ex. 9.)

70. On May 31, 2023, in an effort to coerce the Board into ending its investigation into his improper use of his corporate card and to otherwise strong-arm the Board into complying with his outsized compensation demands, Chu threatened the Board by submitting a purported letter of resignation.

71. The Board ultimately agreed to resolve its investigation into his personal expenses on favorable terms in order to keep Chu at the company, motivated by the veneer of financial success identified by Chu that was actually a result of Chu's fraud. The Board ultimately agreed that Chu would only need to repay Tricolor $2,141,556 of the millions of dollars of personal expenses he attempted to pass off as business expenses on his corporate American Express credit card.

72. Chu then utilized his power as the sole manager of Ganas Investors LLC, the majority member of Tricolor, to extract egregiously large bonus compensation from the company just as the fraud was beginning to take the company down.

73. Pursuant to the LLC Agreement, holders of "at least a majority of the total Percentage Interests" in Tricolor Holdings LLC could remove and replace a Manager in the Board, with the restriction that: (1) two Managers who are to be appointed by members holding a majority of "senior preferred" shares of Tricolor Holdings, (2) one Manager is to be appointed by Ganas Investors, LLC, and (3) one of the Managers appointed by the majority of the Percentage Interests must be someone who is not employed by or consultants to the Company or Ganas Investors LLC (or any of their affiliates). Thus, with respect to most Members of the Board, Chu had an unfettered ability to shape the Board, as Ganas Investors, LLC held 75% of the Percentage Interest in Tricolor Holdings LLC. (Ex. 2, at Schedule A-1.) As Chu, in turn, was the sole Manager of Ganas Investors, LLC, and was empowered by Ganas Investors, LLC's limited liability agreement to have sole decision-making authority, this meant effectively that Chu had the sole ability to appoint and remove Tricolor Holdings Board members.

74. Exercising this power, in retaliation for Brooke questioning his personal spending of company funds, Chu executed a Consent on behalf of Ganas Investors, LLC on September 17, 2023, removing Brooke from the Tricolor Board of Managers. In her place, Chu appointed Andrew DeLuca, Tricolor's General Counsel, to the Board, writing in an email, "Neither the removal [n]or appointment is subject to [B]oard vote."

75. Next, on December 27, 2023, just days before the Board meeting where the Managers would vote on Chu's compensation package, Chu executed two more consents on behalf of Ganas Investors, LLC, removing Antonio Garza and Dann Adams, the only members of the Compensation Committee, from the Board effective immediately.

76. With the Board members who had previously questioned Chu's demands for excessive compensation removed and with the remaining members well aware that any opposition to Chu would be met with their removal, Chu took the opportunity to again demand even more compensation from the Board.

77. On January 3, 2024, the Board held a special meeting to vote on Chu's 2023 and 2024 compensation. The Board approved his 2023 salary of $1.5 million and a 2023 bonus of $1.5 million. The Board also approved a 2024 salary of $1.5 million. In a further boon to Chu, the Board voted to reduce the balance of Chu's promissory note to repay Tricolor for his personal expenses on his corporate American Express credit card from $2,141,556 to $1,443,057.

78. On January 24, 2025, Chu presented a new proposal that demanded a bonus of at least $13 million—many multiples greater than his prior compensation—purportedly to compensate him for Tricolor's growth between 2018 and 2025. Chu's compensation demands were premised entirely on the fabricated appearance of massive growth that was, in reality, a result of Chu's fraud.

79. On February 12, 2025, the Board held a meeting to discuss Chu's 2025 compensation. The Board did not retain a compensation consultant nor negotiate with Chu, but instead acceded to Chu's demand for a base salary of $2 million and a bonus of $2 million; a one-time grant of profit interest in Tricolor to vest over a four-year period; and a one-time special bonus of $15,000,000, offset by the $1,443,057 owed by Chu via Promissory Note to compensate for some of Chu's personal American Express purchases. (Ex. 10.)

80. While Chu demanded that the Board grant him his windfall compensation, Tricolor's collateralization rate and credit advances from Lenders were increasing at a fever pitch (see Sections A to F, supra).

81. Thus, from 2023 until the time of Tricolor's bankruptcy filing, as the Company was engaging in a rapidly growing and unsustainable fraud under Chu's leadership, Chu squeezed as much money as he could out of Tricolor by misrepresenting Tricolor's financial condition and unilaterally removing Board members that questioned him. In 2025 alone, Chu received over $17,000,000 in compensation, far out of line with both his prior compensation and the compensation of executives at similar private companies, as reflected by the analysis conducted in prior years by Tricolor's consultants. (See Appendix B.)

82. Given the fraud occurring behind the scenes, and Chu's outsized compensation, Tricolor did not receive reasonably equivalent value from Chu's services.

83. In the year leading up to the bankruptcy, Tricolor made payments to Chu in a total amount of $29,605,737. Of that total, $13,464,025 was paid out to Chu just over the ninety days leading up to the bankruptcy. This amount comprised not only his compensation but also a bonus of $2 million paid on February 28, 2025. It also comprised the aforementioned special bonus of $15 million paid to Chu less the $1,443,057 offset, which was paid to him in four installments: $500,000 paid on January 28, 2025; $1,500,000 paid on February 10, 2025; $4,000,000 paid on March 6, 2025; $500,000 paid on May 21, 2025; and $5,556,943 paid on June 11, 2025. (See Appendix B.)

84. On July 1, 2025—just two months before Tricolor finally declared bankruptcy—Chu made a short-term loan to Tricolor in the amount of $6,500,000. Despite Tricolor's mounting liabilities and Chu's knowledge of the poor financial health of Tricolor, Chu directed Kollar to repay this amount in full in installments over the month of August: $250,000 on August 11, 2025; $4,250,000 on August 19, 2025; and $2,000,000 on August 20, 2025. Even as Chu observed in August 2025 that Tricolor was "definitely insolvent," Chu made sure that his short-term loan was repaid before any of Tricolor's other creditors received money from the company. (See Appendix B.)

85. Chu also continued to use corporate funds for personal purchases even after reaching the prior resolution with the company regarding his American Express purchases. Even as late as August 2025, when it was clear to Chu that Tricolor was in financial distress, he continued to make personal purchases on his corporate American Express card, including a $603.92 Oura ring, over $5,000 at Accent Gallery & Framing in Dallas (luxury art framing), over $3,000 in July in storage unit rent, and $18,000 for membership to Core Club in New York (a member's only social club). (Ex. 11.)

86. When Tricolor paid over $29,000,000 to Chu in the one year leading up to the bankruptcy, and especially when it paid over $13,000,000 of that amount in the ninety days leading up to the bankruptcy, these payments substantially diminished the amount of money Tricolor had remaining to pay its creditors. (See Appendix B.)

87. Ultimately, Tricolor's Board requested on September 5, 2025, that Chu return the 2025 special bonus that was paid to him.

88. To date, Chu has not made this repayment, nor has he indicated that he intends to do so.

H. Chu Uses His Fraudulently Obtained Compensation to Fund Lavish Personal Expenses.

89. Chu used the compensation he defrauded from Tricolor to fuel his lavish lifestyle, purchasing multiple homes during his tenure as Tricolor's CEO, and maintaining multiple other properties at the same time.

90. In 2022, Chu purchased a property at The Four Seasons Residences, The Surf Club, 9001 Collins Ave #S-201, Miami Beach, FL 33154 for approximately $18,000,000.

91. In March 2023, the same month the Board approved Chu's increased 2023 compensation package, he purchased a property at 4208 Beverly Drive, Highland Park, TX 75205 with a tax assessment of $4,599,440 in 2023.

92. In December 2024, when Chu was lobbying for his massive 2025 compensation package that was approved in January 2025, he purchased property at 4544 Westway Ave, Highland Park, TX 75205, with a tax assessment of $2,063,260 in 2024. A background check obtained by the Trustee shows the owner as Daniel Chu and his wife Constance Chu, and the owner's address is 6021 Connection Dr., Irving, TX 75039. 6021 Connection Dr. is the address of Tricolor's headquarters.

93. On February 18, 2025—just days after his $15,000,000 special bonus was approved—on information and belief, Chu executed a purchase agreement for a ski chalet at 115 W. Bleeker Street, Aspen, CO 81611, for approximately $25,000,000.

94. On June 12, 2025, Chu purchased via a holding entity 1431 Cobb Parkway South, Marietta, Georgia 30067, and shortly thereafter on June 26, 2025, sold the property for more than $7,000,000.

I. Chu's Alienation of Assets from Potential Judgment Creditors.

95. Beginning in July 2025, as it became clear that the fraud at Tricolor was unsustainable and about to be revealed, Chu began alienating his assets in an effort to protect them from Tricolor's creditors.

96. On July 10, 2025, Chu listed for sale his property located at 4544 Westway Ave., Highland Park, TX 75205, for $2,099,999. The property remains listed for sale as of this filing, and his daughter Katie Chu is the real estate agent for this property.

97. On August 29, 2025—just days before Tricolor's bankruptcy—a limited liability company operated by Chu called Chu Family Investments LLC purchased the property at issue in this litigation at 1612 Gilcrest Drive, Beverly Hills, CA 90210, for $2,650,000, with Origin Bank financing $2.12 million of the purchase. Upon information and belief, the remaining $530,000 came from Chu's own funds, and this property was purchased through an LLC in an attempt to shield it from any personal liability of Chu.

98. On September 9, 2025, Chu listed for sale his property located at 4208 Beverly Drive, Highland Park, TX 75205, for $10,990,000. The property remains listed for sale as of this filing, and Chu has agreed to drop the price by $2,000,000 in a desperate attempt to sell this asset.

99. On September 15, 2025, Chu received an email from a law firm specializing in asset protection at his Tricolor email address sending a flow chart for a Family Limited Partnership to own investment assets. On September 16, 2025, Chu instructed the law firm to communicate through his Gmail email address (tricolorchu@gmail.com).

100. On September 17, 2025, Chu sent an email to himself at tricolorchu@gmail.com, including a link to an article from law firm Adler Law titled "Florida Homestead Law Guide," which "protects a Florida resident's primary home from judgment creditors."

101. A few days later, on September 24, 2025, Chu discussed a Termination and Release Agreement with Elephant Aspen Residences Inc., terminating the purchase of White Elephant Aspen Chalets Unit No. 3, located at 115 W. Bleeker Street, Aspen, CO 81611. Upon information and belief, the seller retained Chu's earnest money deposit of $1,750,000 and returned to Chu the remainder of the $25,000,000 purchase price.

102. Upon information and belief, after Chapter 7 Bankruptcy was declared, Chu sent a former employee of Tricolor to the headquarters to collect the titles to vehicles in Chu's name. The former employee stated that Chu asked him to retrieve the titles to his vehicles that Chu left in his office at Tricolor. Tricolor is currently in possession of those titles.

103. Most recently, in December 2025, Chu called former Board member Richard Anderson requesting to sell his custom Land Rover Defender. Despite Anderson expressly disclaiming any desire to purchase the vehicle, Chu shipped the vehicle to Anderson's home.

J. Chu Is Indicted.

104. On December 16, 2025, the DOJ unsealed its indictment charging Chu with charges including wire fraud, bank fraud, and conspiracy.

105. Chu was arrested on December 17, 2025, and faces a maximum potential sentence of life in prison.

106. Following the indictment and arrest, U.S. Attorney Jay Clayton said in a statement: "Fraud became an integral component of Tricolor's business strategy. The resulting billion-dollar collapse harmed banks, investors, employees, and customers."

K. The Trustee's Adversary Complaint.

107. On December 19, 2025, the Trustee filed an Adversary Complaint in the Bankruptcy Case against Chu and co-Defendants Jerome Kollar, David Goodgame, and Ameryn Siebold, bringing claims for (1) fraud, (2) breach of the fiduciary duty of care, (3) breach of the fiduciary duty of loyalty, (4) breach of the Fifth Amended and Restated Limited Liability Agreement, (5) breach of the implied duty of good faith and fair dealing, (6) turnover of estate property, (7) avoidance of preferential transfers, (8) actual fraudulent transfer, (9) constructive fraudulent transfer, (10) civil conspiracy, (11) unjust enrichment, (12) constructive trust, and (13) an accounting.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

Breach of Fiduciary Duty of Loyalty

108. Chu was at all times a Manager of Tricolor Holdings and the CEO and President of Tricolor Holdings (and of each of Debtors). As an Officer of Tricolor, and/or as the CEO and President of Tricolor, Chu occupied a position of trust and confidence and owed a Tricolor and its members a fiduciary duty of loyalty.

109. Chu owed Tricolor and its members a duty of loyalty, including but not limited to, a duty to take actions on a disinterested and independent basis, in good faith, and with an honest belief that the action is in the best interest of Tricolor and its members.

110. Chu also acknowledged in his Employment Agreement that he owed a fiduciary duty of loyalty. (Ex. 3.)

111. Chu breached his fiduciary duty of loyalty to Tricolor and its members by diverting Tricolor funds to his own accounts for personal use, including a $15 million payment characterized as a "special bonus." Chu additionally violated his fiduciary duty of loyalty by failing to disclose to the Board accurate information about the fictitious loans he perpetrated when pursuing his outsized compensation package premised on Tricolor's (seemingly) burgeoning growth and which followed after the removal of Board members adverse to him. By using his authority and control over Tricolor, Chu was able to siphon tens of millions of dollars from the company to his own accounts shortly before the company's demise, characterizing these funds as "bonus" and "compensation" payments when they were in reality the product of his self-dealing actions to strongarm the Board into allowing him take millions from Tricolor.

112. By whitewashing Tricolor's funds as "bonus" and "compensation" payments using his authority and control, Chu was able to use this money—paid to his personal accounts—to make purchases, including the property at 1612 Gilcrest Drive, Beverly Hills, CA 90210.

113. Tricolor has been, and continues to be, damaged as a direct and proximate result of Chu's breach of his fiduciary duty of loyalty. Tricolor is entitled to judgment for the imposition of a constructive trust and/or equitable lien over the property at 1612 Gilcrest Drive, Beverly Hills, CA 90210 under Defendants' control, as well as such other and further equitable relief as the Court deems just and proper.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF

Unjust Enrichment

114. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference each and every allegation contained in the preceding paragraphs as if set forth herein.

115. Chu was enriched and received direct, concrete economic benefits without legal or equitable justification, including, but not limited to, through receipt of funds from Tricolor.

116. Chu has unjustly retained the sums procured through, funded by, or serviced with Tricolor's assets—sums to which Chu had no lawful claim and for which Tricolor received no reciprocal benefit—to the detriment of Tricolor and its creditors, thereby shifting value from the company to Chu.

117. Tricolor suffered financial losses as a result of these transactions. Tricolor did not receive reasonably equivalent value for any of the transfers, the conduct at issue siphoned substantially all of Tricolor's assets, and the bankruptcy estate was left burdened with liabilities without corresponding assets or value.

118. There is a direct, proximate, and traceable relationship between Chu's enrichment and the losses accrued by Tricolor: the transfers emanated from Tricolor's accounts and were made directly to Chu.

119. No legitimate corporate purpose, consideration, or fair value supports these transfers. They were the product of self-dealing and other misconduct, conferred unique personal benefits upon Chu that were not shared by Tricolor, and were not supported by reasonably equivalent value or fair consideration.

120. Tricolor conferred a benefit in the form of corporate funds and value, Chu appreciated and accepted that benefit, and Chu's continued retention of that benefit in the form of real property, funds, and other property would be inequitable under the circumstances.

121. Equity and good conscience do not permit Chu to retain the benefits he wrongfully obtained at Tricolor's expense. Legal remedies are inadequate to the extent the relief required is restitutionary and equitable in nature, including the recovery of specific, identifiable funds or assets traceable to Chu's unjust enrichment.

122. Accordingly, Tricolor is entitled to judgment for the imposition of a constructive trust and/or equitable lien over the property at 1612 Gilcrest Drive, Beverly Hills, CA 90210 under Defendants' control, as well as such other and further equitable relief as the Court deems just and proper.

THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF

Constructive Trust

123. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference each and every allegation contained in the preceding paragraphs as if set forth herein.

124. A constructive trust is an equitable remedy imposed to prevent unjust enrichment where a defendant, through fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, unfair or unconscionable conduct, or abuse of confidence, acquires or retains property that which in equity and good conscience belongs to another.

125. As detailed in this Complaint, Chu engaged in fraudulent, unfair, and unconscionable conduct, including the diversion and misappropriation of Tricolor's funds.

126. As a result of this misconduct, Chu was directly and materially enriched. Chu obtained and continues to retain specific, identifiable property traceable to Tricolor.

127. Chu received and retains the fraudulent transfers by fraud, self-dealing, and wrongful diversion. Continued possession of such property is inequitable and would unjustly enrich Chu at the expense of Tricolor and its creditors.

128. Therefore, equity deems Chu a constructive trustee of the fraudulent transfers and all traceable proceeds, substitutions, products, and property.

129. The transfers are sufficiently specific and traceable: the transfers originated from identified Tricolor accounts and were directed to Chu, and can be followed into property acquired therewith using Chu's limited liability company, Chu Family Investments LLC.

130. The real property held by Chu and Chu Family Investments LLC at 1612 Gilcrest Drive, Beverly Hills, CA 90210 is part of the constructive trust.

131. This real property was purchased with Tricolor funds which were fraudulently transferred from Tricolor to Chu for Chu's personal benefit. This real property was purchased by Chu and Chu Family Investments LLC on August 29, 2025, less than two weeks before Tricolor's bankruptcy and after Chu was already well-aware that Tricolor was "definitely insolvent." Chu was able to fund his purchase of this real property using funds that he siphoned from the Tricolor through strongarming Tricolor into paying him lavish compensation that the company could not afford, to reward him for company growth that was in actuality the product of fraud. This compensation included, among other payments, a bonus of $2 million paid on February 28, 2025, as well as a special bonus of $15 million paid to Chu (less a $1,443,057 offset), which was paid to him in four installments: $500,000 paid on January 28, 2025; $1,500,000 paid on February 10, 2025; $4,000,000 paid on March 6, 2025; $500,000 paid on May 21, 2025; and $5,556,943 paid on June 11, 2025.

Using these fraudulent transfers from Tricolor, Chu was able to purchase real property through his own accounts, including the real property at 1612 Gilcrest Drive, Beverly Hills, CA 90210.

132. Legal remedies are inadequate because Tricolor seeks restitutionary, in-kind relief as to a specific real asset; equitable relief is necessary to preserve the property and avoid dissipation.

133. Accordingly, Tricolor seeks entry of judgment: (a) declaring and imposing a constructive trust over 1612 Gilcrest Drive, Beverly Hills, CA 90210; (b) directing Defendants, as constructive trustees, to convey, transfer, and turn over—or grant an interest in—1612 Gilcrest Drive, Beverly Hills, CA 90210; (c) awarding such other equitable relief as the Court deems just and proper.

FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

Conversion

134. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference each and every allegation contained in the preceding paragraphs as if set forth herein.

135. Chu, using his authority and control over Tricolor in his capacity as Chief Executive Officer and President, transferred tens of millions of dollars of Tricolor funds to Defendants' personal accounts, including a $15 million "special bonus." Though characterized as "bonus" and "compensation" payments, these payments were not proper compensation payments and instead were wrongfully transferred to Defendants at Chu's direction through strongarm tactics and the concealment of fraudulent activity.

136. Each such transfer constituted a conversion of identifiable corporate funds rightfully belonging to Tricolor.

137. Defendants have intentionally exercised dominion and control over these Tricolor funds and deprived Tricolor of the use of these funds.

138. As a result of Defendants' conversion, Tricolor has been, and continues to be, damaged, in an amount to be determined at trial.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, for the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court enter judgment against Defendants:

a) Imposing a constructive trust and/or equitable lien upon 1612 Gilcrest Drive, Beverly Hills, CA 90210 and all proceeds converted from Tricolor funds or otherwise transferred to Defendants' accounts;

b) Attorneys' costs and fees; and

c) Such other and further relief as this Court deems just and equitable.

Exhibit 1

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

25 CR 579

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

DANIEL CHU and
DAVID GOODGAME,

Defendants.

[redacted] INDICTMENT

25 Cr.

COUNT ONE
(Continuing Financial Crimes Enterprise)

The Grand Jury charges:

1. From at least in or about 2018 through in or about September 2025, DANIEL CHU and DAVID GOODGAME, the defendants, conspired to and did defraud the lenders and asset-backed securities investors of Tricolor Holdings, LLC and its affiliates ("Tricolor"), a subprime auto retailer and financing company. CHU, Tricolor's founder and chief executive officer ("CEO"), GOODGAME, Tricolor's chief operating officer, and others, operated Tricolor through systematic fraud. At CHU's direction, multiple Tricolor executives repeatedly defrauded lenders using various fraudulent schemes, including "double-pledging" collateral—pledging assets to support one loan and then pledging the same assets to another lender to support another loan. Other fraudulent schemes directed by CHU involved manipulating the descriptions and classification of assets pledged as collateral for loans to make ineligible, near-worthless assets appear to meet lender requirements. Over time, this series of fraudulent schemes had a profound effect on Tricolor, which obtained hundreds of millions of dollars in cash advances; on CHU, who used a portion of the funds to enrich himself; and on Tricolor's lenders, who provided over a billion dollars in funding based on Tricolor's fabricated data and false statements.

2. In the summer of 2025, lenders confronted DANIEL CHU, the defendant, and others at Tricolor with concerns about Tricolor's collateral. CHU and his conspirators initially tried to conceal the fraud and to falsely claim that the collateral issues were due to an administrative error. Those efforts failed. CHU, recognizing that Tricolor was, in his words, "basically history," turned his attention to extracting millions of dollars from the company. At CHU's direction, Tricolor transferred over $6 million to CHU after lenders voiced concerns in or about late August 2025.

3. After the fraudulent double-pledging and collateral manipulation schemes orchestrated by DANIEL CHU and DAVID GOODGAME, the defendants, unraveled, Tricolor was unable to maintain its access to loans and unable to sustain its business without substantial cash. On or about September 10, 2025, Tricolor filed for Chapter 7 bankruptcy. By that time, the company's largest lenders had advanced and were owed more than $900 million as a result of the defendants' schemes.

Background: Tricolor and its Lending Facilities

4. Founded in or about 2007, Tricolor sold and provided subprime financing for used cars, focusing specifically on Hispanic customers with limited or no credit history. By in or about 2025, Tricolor had grown to become the third-largest used auto retailer in Texas and California, operating approximately 65 retail centers in Texas, California, Nevada, Arizona, New Mexico, and Illinois, as well as a shared services center in Guadalajara, Mexico. At its peak, Tricolor employed over 1,500 people and generated approximately $1 billion in annual revenue in both 2023 and 2024. When the company filed for Chapter 7 bankruptcy on or about September 10, 2025, it had over 60,000 outstanding car loans.

5. Tricolor funded its operations substantially through cash advances from several lenders with which Tricolor had entered credit agreements. Under these agreements, Tricolor pledged certain assets to the lenders as collateral and received cash advances secured by that pledged collateral. Tricolor maintained inventory lines of credit collateralized by used cars in Tricolor's possession. The company also maintained multiple lines of credit collateralized by the car loans that Tricolor had issued to its customers—specifically, by the car loan receivables, meaning the forthcoming payments that would be received from borrowers until their loans were repaid. Each credit agreement specified eligibility requirements for collateral, and Tricolor generally did not receive a 100% advance rate on such eligible loans. Instead, Tricolor received advance rates at a lower amount, such as 60% to 80% of an eligible car loan's outstanding balance. In addition to these receivables-backed lines of credit, Tricolor also raised capital by securitizing car loan receivables—that is, organizing groups, or tranches, of the receivables into classes of bonds that were then sold to investors.

6. Tricolor maintained lines of credit with several financial institutions and investment management firms. In or about February 2018, Tricolor entered into a revolving line of credit agreement with a U.S. bank ("Lender-1") that reached approximately $25 million in commitments, collateralized by car loan receivables (the "Lender-1 Credit Line"). In or about January 2020, Tricolor entered into credit agreement with another U.S. bank ("Lender-2") for an inventory line that reached $87 million in commitment, supposedly secured by Tricolor's used vehicle inventory (the "Lender-2 Inventory Credit Line"). Beginning in or about August 2020, Tricolor established a series of warehouse lending facilities—short-term revolving credit facilities extended to loan originators to temporarily fund loans before sale to permanent investors. These warehouse facilities, associated with special purpose vehicles and referred to as "SPV3," "SPV4," "SPV5," and "SPV6," were collateralized by car loan receivables and involved various lenders including a California-based investment manager ("Lender-3") and U.S. banks. The SPV3 warehouse reached approximately $100 million in total commitment. The SPV4 warehouse ultimately reached approximately $770 million in total commitment, shared among multiple lenders including a U.S. bank ("Lender-4"), another bank ("Lender-5"), and junior mezzanine lenders based in New York, New York ("Lender-6" and "Lender-7"). In August 2022, Tricolor entered into the SPV6 warehouse with a U.S. bank ("Lender-8"), which reached $250 million in commitment. In March 2025, Tricolor entered into a mezzanine loan agreement with a New York, New York-based asset management firm ("Lender-9") for $35 million. By the time of bankruptcy, Tricolor owed approximately $923 million to lenders through these facilities.

7. Tricolor's lenders generally set eligibility criteria for the types of collateral that could be pledged in exchange for cash advances. These eligibility requirements for collateral were typically set out in credit agreements between the lender and Tricolor. For receivables-backed lines of credit, eligibility turned on, among other things, whether the car loan was current—meaning the customer was making timely payments—or past due, meaning the customer had missed a scheduled payment and the loan was delinquent. Loans that were more than 60 days past due were generally ineligible to serve as collateral under the terms of the credit agreements and could not be pledged in exchange for cash, and some lines of credit excluded loans more than 30 days past due.

8. As generally required under the loan agreements, Tricolor pledged cars and loans and requested advances by sending lenders borrowing base reports. These reports typically took the form of large Excel files with thousands of rows, one for each loan pledged to the facility. These borrowing base reports provided dozens of data points for each loan, including the outstanding principal balance, the vehicle identification number ("VIN") of the financed car, and data related to whether the loan was current or past due. These reports generally identified loans as being current, 0-15 days past due, 15-30 days past due, 30-60 days past due, and 61+ days past due, and included a column for the last payment date. Tricolor typically sent borrowing base reports and funding requests to lenders multiple times a week. At the conclusion of each month, Tricolor would generally send each lender a monthly servicer report ("MSR") that summarized the pledged collateral for the past month.

Tricolor's Fraud on its Lenders

9. For years, DANIEL CHU and DAVID GOODGAME, the defendants, Jerome Kollar, Tricolor's chief financial officer, and Ameryn Seibold, Tricolor's senior director of finance, and others, engaged in a series of frauds directed at each of Tricolor's lenders. These schemes operated through two primary mechanisms: first, CHU, GOODGAME, and their conspirators double-pledged the same collateral to multiple lenders, allowing Tricolor to borrow against the same assets, at the same time, repeatedly; second, they manipulated loan data to make ineligible, delinquent loans appear current and compliant with lender requirements. Additionally, to conceal their deceptions from lenders, auditors, and collateral managers, the conspirators fabricated and disseminated fictious backup records, such as records of fake customer payments. Under CHU's leadership, this activity became Tricolor's routine manner of business and eventually Tricolor's means of financial survival.

10. In or about 2018, Tricolor faced liquidity pressure. To address that problem, DANIEL CHU, the defendant, instructed Kollar to pledge delinquent loans to the Lender-1 Credit Line. These delinquent loans were typically so past due that Tricolor itself had charged them off as losses. To make these charged-off loans falsely appear to be performing loans that could serve as collateral (which they were not), CHU directed Kollar to create a fictitious portfolio company in Tricolor's dealer management system (which was used to track Tricolor's loans and their associated data), transfer the charged-off loans to that new portfolio company in the dealer management system, and arrange for other Tricolor employees to manually enter fake payments on those charged-off loans in the dealer management system.

11. Over time, DANIEL CHU, the defendant, addressed liquidity constraints by repeatedly falsifying information regarding ineligible collateral to make it appear eligible to use as collateral. In January 2021, for example, CHU asked Kollar whether Tricolor had "anything we can pledge from [Lender-1] to [Lender-4] or [Lender-3] to get some liquidity," and Kollar responded, "I will look. What is 'there' typically is [ineligible] for those"—referring to the charged-off loans manipulated to look like they were performing loans. CHU and his co-conspirators fraudulently pledged charged-off loans to Lender-1 for years until Tricolor's collapse. In addition to orchestrating this fraud within Tricolor, CHU simultaneously served on the board of directors of Lender-1, a financial institution he defrauded for nearly a decade.

12. By at least in or about 2021, Tricolor's collateral manipulation also expanded beyond the Lender-1 Credit Line. To increase the amount of cash received from Lender-2, DANIEL CHU, the defendant, directed Kollar to keep sold vehicles on the borrowing base for the Lender-2 Inventory Credit Line, even though they were supposed to be removed once sold, a practice that continued through Tricolor's bankruptcy. For instance, on or about April 20, 2021, CHU texted Kollar and others that, "[i]n an ideal scenario, we buy and increase inventory by $10mm and then we can move the sold units off the borrowing base"—meaning Tricolor would increase its inventory by $10 million to give it enough cushion to remove the sold units that were fraudulently included on the Lender-2 Inventory Credit Line borrowing base. To further increase the amount of cash received from lenders, Tricolor also pledged to other lenders the loan receivables for cars that had been sold and financed, but that were still nonetheless pledged to the Lender-2 Inventory Credit Line.

13. As Tricolor's financing arrangements with lenders expanded, so did its use of fraud. From at least in or about 2022, DANIEL CHU and DAVID GOODGAME, the defendants, Kollar, Seibold, and others repeatedly manipulated borrowing base data (including loan performance data) for, and double-pledged collateral across, the SPV3, SPV4, SPV5 and SPV6 warehouses and the Lender-9 Credit Line. At CHU's direction and with GOODGAME's knowledge and approval, Kollar and Seibold, sometimes with the assistance of others, executed the schemes to defraud Tricolor's lenders by submitting fraudulent borrowing base reports. CHU directed Kollar to fraudulently obtain more liquidity, and Kollar, in turn, directed Seibold to submit fraudulent borrowing base reports. Kollar, Seibold, and others submitted borrowing base reports with false and manipulated data or already-pledged loans to the Lender-1 Credit Line, the Lender-2 Inventory Credit Line, the SPV3 warehouse, the SPV4 warehouse, the SPV5 warehouse, the SPV6 warehouse, and the Lender-9 Credit Line in order to fraudulently obtain cash advances.

14. As the risks and dollar size of the fraud dramatically increased, the conspirators' used the same fraudulent methods. Kollar, Seibold, and others manually edited collateral data in borrowing base reports provided to lenders so that ineligible loans would falsely appear to lenders to meet eligibility criteria when in fact the loans were significantly past due. They did this with the awareness and, at times, specific direction of DANIEL CHU, the defendant. For instance, on or about July 25, 2022, CHU texted Kollar, "Can we work the > 60s"—asking whether Kollar could manipulate data for loans over 60 days past due to make them appear eligible. In response to these requests, and to achieve CHU's overarching directives, Kollar and Seibold would manually change the data fields in borrowing base reports related to whether a loan was performing or past due by, for example, editing loans more than 60 days past due to appear current or paid within the past 60 days. Kollar would also periodically update CHU on their progress. On November 16, 2022, for example, when CHU asked for an update on liquidity, Kollar responded: "We have $2.1m to [pledge] and with working DQ [delinquency] buckets we are getting $2.77M or ~$1.3m more. Will do a Bb [borrowing base] tomorrow and work to squeeze a little more out." In other words, by manipulating delinquency data in borrowing base reports, Kollar increased the volume of eligible loans, generating an additional $1.3 million in advanced funds from lenders. Similarly, on April 26, 2022, Kollar texted CHU: "We maxed the [Lender-4] one [i.e., the SPV4 warehouse] for tomorrow by adding $1M when we should have only received $300k and working on the [Lender-3] [i.e., the SPV 3 warehouse] today"—meaning that collateral manipulation had obtained $1 million more from the SPV4 warehouse than would have been possible without fraud.

15. At the defendants' direction and with their knowledge, Kollar and Seibold also double-pledged the same loans as collateral to multiple lenders and securitizations. For example, on March 1, 2023, Seibold described this double-pledging to DAVID GOODGAME, the defendant, writing that he was "taking accounts from SPV6 and pledging on SPV3 to get liquidity out of SPV3," to which GOODGAME jokingly responded with a crying emoji, followed by Seibold stating he was "then possibly taking SPV5 accounts and double pledging on SPV6." As another example, on September 8, 2023, when GOODGAME messaged Seibold about selling more inventory each week, Seibold explained that "We are bringing in between 6-8M a week on the main spvs right now" but that "[i]t's been tight just because of how close we are to maxing out the facilities" and that Tricolor was "[r]eally needing the securitization." Their conversation continued with Seibold explaining, "Spv6 is capped out. Spv4 is making it hard with this notional interest rate cap. Spv3 is capped out. We have some room on SPV5 but are trying to keep it relatively clean. Doing everything I can to make sure we still have as much as we can coming in.

The audits are going to be tough." GOODGAME responded "ugh." Seibold replied, "Hopefully after this securitization we can keep them a bit cleaner" before sending an "lol" emoji, to which GOODGAME responded "Lol," as they joked about how Tricolor could not keep its lines of credit "clean" of fraud.

16. The growing risk and scale of the frauds eventually forced the conspirators to reckon with the possibility the frauds would be discovered. Seibold at various times raised concerns to DAVID GOODGAME, the defendant, among others, but GOODGAME always reassured Seibold and Seibold would continue. To minimize the risks of discovery, however, and with the knowledge of DANIEL CHU, the defendant, and GOODGAME, Kollar and Seibold fabricated and falsified backup records when audits of the borrowing bases were conducted, including loan payment ledgers and system records indicating to which lender a loan had been pledged. On July 22, 2021, for example, while an audit firm was conducting an audit of Tricolor's prior year financial statements, Kollar texted CHU, "We will need to make sure [the auditor] does not try to[t]ie out [Lender-1]," because a comparison of the manipulated data that was provided to Lender-1 to the real data in Tricolor's internal dealer management system would have revealed the fraud. CHU responded: "I know." Later, on July 28, 2023, in connection with another audit, CHU texted Kollar: "Can you reconstruct [Lender-1] BB," referring to the borrowing base of purported collateral pledged to Lender-1. Kollar responded, in part, "It includes loans that are not active."

17. By on or about August 21, 2025, Kollar had conducted an analysis comparing the collateral data in Tricolor's dealer management system to the fraudulent collateral data that Tricolor had provided to lenders to obtain capital. Using the fraudulent borrowing bases that Tricolor had sent to lenders, Kollar added up the total amount of purported collateral that Tricolor had pledged to lines of credit, securitizations, and other facilities, which totaled approximately $2.2 billion. When Kollar performed the same calculation using Tricolor's internal dealer management system, however, the real amount of Tricolor's available collateral was approximately $1.4 billion. In other words, Tricolor had pledged approximately $2.2 billion of collateral to lenders and investors, but Tricolor had only approximately $1.4 billion of real collateral. The difference—consisting of approximately $800 million in bogus collateral—resulted from the series of schemes and the conspiracy in which DANIEL CHU and DAVID GOODGAME, the defendants, Kollar, Seibold, and others participated.

The Frands Unravel

18. As of in or about August 2025, Tricolor had still not completed an audit of its borrowing bases that had begun in or about February 2025. Lender-6 expressed concerns to Lender-4 about the unfinished audit. In reviewing Tricolor's borrowing base reports in or about August 2025, Lender-6 noticed discrepancies in Tricolor's data: loans that Tricolor reported as current—that is, as receiving timely payments from customers—did not show a corresponding reduction in the outstanding principal balance. This data made no sense as customers' payments would pay down a loan over time.

19. In or about August 2025, DANIEL CHU, the defendant, was alerted to the audit issue and then to the data discrepancies identified by Tricolor's lenders. The developing crisis prompted a series of calls among Tricolor executives, including, at times, CHU, DAVID GOODGAME, the defendant, Kollar, and another Tricolor executive ("Executive-1"). Some of these calls were secretly recorded by at least one participant, and sometimes calls were secretly recorded by multiple participants.

20. On or about August 17, 2025, for example, DANIEL CHU, the defendant, spoke with Kollar and Executive-1 about Lender-6's concerns regarding Tricolor's delay in completing the audit. CHU urged the team to find a solution, observing that "rather than conform all of our records to meet the audit, I think we need to, we need to rethink, kind of holistically, all of the processes that are resulting in this" delay. CHU then drew an "analogy" to when the team managed to obscure Tricolor's fraudulent use of "dead loans on the balance sheet" to borrow capital during the 2022 financial statement audit. CHU emphasized that his "point in that analogy" was that "rather than scrambling" to figure out, "okay, how are we gonna fabricate these loans? How are we gonna make up these loans? We just basically created around the problem with a structure, or I would say in this case, a policy, which, which made it, made all the math work." CHU then said, "we have a similar math problem today" and discussed with Kollar the buckets of manipulated loans and confirming exactly what fake data had been sent to the lenders on the SPV4 Warehouse.

21. During the August 17, 2025 call, DANIEL CHU, the defendant, proposed various lies the conspirators could tell to resolve the audit and explain the manipulated data. For example, CHU proposed that some of the manipulated, non-paying loans could be explained away by a purported "Trump administration deferment" policy. In fact, such a deferment policy did not actually exist at Tricolor. Nevertheless, CHU explained that, with this fictitious policy, "all I'm trying to do is, is alleviate the need to mess with any of these things and create a policy." CHU acknowledged, however, that "where we would have an issue is if, if they sent an auditor and they said, pull this up on your screen, right, that would be a problem." Kollar agreed, stating, "Yes. That would be bad,"—as Tricolor's internal records would not match the manipulated records and false excuses Tricolor provided to lenders and auditors.

22. The following day, on or about August 18, 2025, the Tricolor executives, including DANIEL CHU and DAVID GOODGAME, the defendants, Kollar, and Executive-1, continued to discuss how to conceal the fraud. During the call, CHU described how Lender-6 had identified, among other things, "$63 million of loans that have not had a payment in 180 days that are marked as current in the borrowing base." CHU complained that he did not understand how Seibold could "be doing this and not thinking that the balance has to reduce," saying it was "the stupidest fucking thing [he had] ever heard." Once Seibold was added to the call, CHU, in effect, demanded to know why Seibold had not thought to falsely reduce the balances in the borrowing base provided to lenders when Seibold fraudulently marked the loans as current. Seibold responded: "I've been holding 8,000 outstanding charge offs on every report for about … a long time." When CHU asked whether Seibold ever reduced the balance, Seibold explained: "We do, but some we don't. … I can't reduce by a full 8,000 without having us have millions of dollars in debts that we need to pay down…. I'm doing what I thought was what we needed."

23. The next day, on or about August 19, 2025, the Tricolor executives, including DANIEL CHU and DAVID GOODGAME, the defendants, Kollar, and Executive-1, spoke again by telephone. During the call, CHU described how he had spoken to a Lender-6 representative the prior evening. CHU recounted how he had told Lender-6, "look, if we were trying to commit fraud, we wouldn't be so stupid as to keep the same balances on there… Nobody would be that stupid. And he [the Lender-6 representative] goes, 'you're right.'" The participants on the August 19 call laughed in response. CHU also recounted how he told the representative of Lender-6 that it must be a "system issue." These were lies. As CHU well knew, the inconsistencies in the borrowing bases resulted from the frauds and the conspiracy among CHU, GOODGAME, and their co-conspirators, and not some supposed system issue.

24. On or about August 30, 2025, the Tricolor executives, including DANIEL CHU and DAVID GOODGAME, the defendants, Kollar, and Executive-1, discussed how they might reach a settlement with Lender-4, which, by that point, had identified double-pledged and manipulated collateral and terminated its lending facility. During this call, CHU compared Tricolor's circumstances to the circumstances of Enron, the energy trading firm that collapsed into bankruptcy following the discovery of accounting fraud and other misconduct. Specifically, CHU and the others discussed the possibility that they could blame the banks for purportedly ignoring red flags of their frauds and use that threat as leverage to extract a favorable settlement. CHU proposed using artificial intelligence tools to search for key words that GOODGAME could use in a discussion with Lender-4. After Executive-1 described an Enron-related litigation, CHU stated: "Enron obviously has a nice ring to it, right? <laugh>, I mean, Enron, Enron raises the blood pressure of the lender when they see that <laugh>. It, it has to, right? I'm not— [...] Cause who wants to be thrown in the category?" CHU later said, "That Enron case is fucking perfect, I think."

25. Even as the frauds unraveled and Tricolor's insolvency became clear, DANIEL CHU, the defendant, continued to enrich himself. Throughout the fraud scheme, CHU had received tens of millions of dollars in compensation from Tricolor, including an annual salary, bonuses, management incentive units, and company-provided cars. CHU's annual salary was $1 million in 2023, which was raised to $2 million in 2025. He also received a $2 million bonus for 2024, two $125,000 securitization bonuses in 2025, and a $15 million bonus in 2025. During the 24-month period from August 2023 through August 2025, Tricolor made more than $19.3 million in salary and bonus net cash payments to CHU's bank accounts. As Tricolor approached collapse, and after CHU observed that the company was "definitely insolvent," he directed Kollar to pay him the final installments of his $15 million bonus. On or about August 19 and 20, 2025—roughly three weeks before Tricolor placed more than 1,000 employees on unpaid leaves of absence and before the company filed for bankruptcy—CHU received two payments from Tricolor totaling $6.25 million.

CHU used some of this money to purchase a multi-million-dollar property in Beverly Hills, California on or about August 27, 2025. Days later, on September 6, 2025, Tricolor placed more than 1,000 of its employees on unpaid leaves of absence. On September 10, 2025, Tricolor filed for Chapter 7 bankruptcy.

Statutory Allegations

26. From at least in or about 2018 up to and including in or about September 2025, in the Southern District of New York and elsewhere, DANIEL CHU, the defendant, knowingly organized, managed, and supervised a continuing financial crimes enterprise, in that the defendant committed violations of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1343 and 1344, including violations one through ten set forth below, which violations were part of a series of violations of those statutes committed by at least four persons acting in concert, and from which the defendant received $5,000,000 and more in gross receipts from such enterprise during a 24-month period. The series of violations, as defined by Title 18, United States Code, Section 225, includes the following violations set forth below:

27. In or about the years listed in the table below, in the Southern District of New York and elsewhere, DANIEL CHU, the defendant, knowingly executed, and attempted to execute, a scheme and artifice to defraud a financial institution, as that term is defined in Title 18, United States Code, Section 20, and to obtain moneys, funds, credits, assets, securities, and other property owned by, and under the custody and control of, such a financial institution, by means of false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises, to wit, CHU, while the CEO of Tricolor, engaged in schemes to make a series of false statements to the financial institutions listed below regarding Tricolor's financial condition and the existence, nature, and value of its pledged loan collateral in order to fraudulently obtain money for Tricolor from those financial institutions.

Violation Number	Financial Institution and Credit Agreement	Approximate Time Period
1	Lender-1 Lender-1 Credit Line	2018 to September 2025
2	Lender-2 Lender-2 Inventory Credit Line	2020 to September 2025
3	Lender-4 and Lender-5 SPV4 Warehouse	2020 to September 2025
4	Lender-5 SPV5 Warehouse	2021 to 2023
5	Lender-8 SPV6 Warehouse	2022 to September 2025

28. In or about the years listed in the table below, in the Southern District of New York and elsewhere, DANIEL CHU, the defendant, knowingly having devised and intending to devise a scheme and artifice to defraud, and for obtaining money and property by means of false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises, transmitted and caused to be transmitted by means of wire, radio, and television communication in interstate and foreign commerce, writings, signs, signals, pictures, and sounds, for the purpose of executing such scheme and artifice, which affected a financial institution, to wit, CHU, while the CEO of Tricolor, engaged in schemes to make a series of false statements to lenders listed below, including multiple financial institutions, regarding Tricolor's financial condition and the existence, nature, and value of its pledged loan collateral in order to fraudulently obtain money for Tricolor from those lenders, and caused others to send and receive, emails, telephone calls, videoconferences, and other electronic communications, to and from the Southern District of New York and elsewhere, in furtherance of that scheme.

Violation Number	Financial Institution and Credit Agreement	Approximate Time Period
6	Lender-1 Lender-1 Credit Line	2018 to September 2025
7	Lender-2 Lender-2 Inventory Credit Line	2020 to September 2025

8	Lender-4, Lender-5, Lender-6, Lender-7 SPV4 Warehouse	2020 to September 2025
9	Lender-5 SPV5 Warehouse	2021 to 2023
10	Lender-8 SPV6 Warehouse	2022 to September 2025

COUNT TWO

(Conspiracy to Commit Bank Frand and Wire Frand Affecting a Financial Institution)

The Grand Jury further charges:

29. The allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 24 of this Indictment are repeated and realleged as it fully set forth herein.

30. From at least in or about 2018 through in or about September 2025, in the Southern District of New York and elsewhere, DANIEL CHU and DAVID GOODGAME, the defendants, and others known and unknown, willfully and knowingly combined, conspired, confederated, and agreed together and with each other to commit bank fraud, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1344, and to commit wire fraud, which affected a financial institution, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1343.

31. It was a part and an object of the conspiracy that DANIEL CHU and DAVID GOODGAME, the defendants, and others known and unknown, knowingly would and did execute, and attempt to execute, a scheme and artifice to defraud a financial institution, as that term is defined in Title 18, United States Code, Section 20, and to obtain moneys, funds, credits, assets, securities, and other property owned by, and under the custody and control of, such a financial institution, by means of false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1344, to wit, CHU, GOODGAME, and others agreed to make and cause to be made a series of false statements to multiple financial institutions regarding Tricolor's financial condition and the existence, nature, and value of its pledged loan collateral in order to fraudulently obtain money for Tricolor from those financial institutions.

32. It was further a part and an object of the conspiracy that DANIEL CHU and DAVID GOODGAME, the defendants, and others known and unknown, knowingly having devised and intending to devise a scheme and artifice to defraud, and for obtaining money and property by means of false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises, would and did transmit and cause to be transmitted by means of wire, radio, and television communication in interstate and foreign commerce, writings, signs, signals, pictures, and sounds for the purpose of executing such scheme and artifice, which affected a financial institution, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1343, to wit, CHU, GOODGAME, and others agreed to make and cause to be made a series of false statements to lenders, including multiple financial institutions, regarding Tricolor's financial condition and the existence, nature, and value of its pledged loan collateral in order to fraudulently obtain money for Tricolor from those lenders, and sent and received, and caused others to send and receive, emails, telephone calls, videoconferences, and other electronic communications, to and from the Southern District of New York and elsewhere, in furtherance of that scheme.

(Title 18, United States Code, Section 1349.)

COUNT THREE
(Bank Fraud)

The Grand Jury further charges:

33. The allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 24 of this Indictment are repeated and realleged as it fully set forth herein.

34. From at least in or about 2020 through in or about September 2025, in the Southern District of New York and elsewhere, DANIEL CHU and DAVID GOODGAME, the defendants, knowingly executed, and attempted to execute, a scheme and artifice to defraud a financial institution, as that term is defined in Title 18, United States Code, Section 20, and to obtain moneys, funds, credits, assets, securities, and other property owned by, and under the custody and control of, such a financial institution, by means of false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises, to wit, CHU, GOODGAME, and others engaged in scheme to make a series of false statements to Lender-4 and Lender-5 in connection with the SPV4 Warehouse regarding Tricolor's financial condition and the existence, nature, and value of its pledged loan collateral in order to fraudulently obtain money for Tricolor from Lender-4 and Lender-5.

(Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1344 and 2.)

COUNT FOUR
(Wire Fraud Affecting a Financial Institution)

The Grand Jury further charges:

35. The allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 24 of this Indictment are repeated and realleged as it fully set forth herein.

36. From at least in or about 2020 through in or about September 2025, in the Southern District of New York and elsewhere, DANIEL CHU and DAVID GOODGAME, the defendants, knowingly having devised and intending to devise a scheme and artifice to defraud, and for obtaining money and property by means of false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises, transmitted and caused to be transmitted by means of wire, radio, and television communication in interstate and foreign commerce, writings, signs, signals, pictures, and sounds, for the purpose of executing such scheme and artifice, which affected a financial institution, to wit, CHU, GOODGAME, and others engaged in a scheme to make a series of false statements to Lender-4, Lender-5, Lender-6, and Lender-7 in connection with the SPV4 Warehouse regarding Tricolor's financial condition and the existence, nature, and value of its pledged loan collateral in order to fraudulently obtain money for Tricolor from those lenders, and caused others to send and receive, emails, telephone calls, videoconferences, and other electronic communications, to and from the Southern District of New York and elsewhere, in furtherance of that scheme.

(Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1343 and 2.)

FORFEITURE ALLEGATIONS

37. As a result of committing the offenses alleged in Counts One, Two, Three, and Four of this Indictment, DANIEL CHU and DAVID GOODGAME, the defendants, shall forfeit to the United States, pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 982(a)(2)(A), and Title 28, United States Code, Section 2461(c), any and all property constituting, or derived from, proceeds the defendant obtained directly or indirectly, as a result of the commission of said offenses, including but not limited to a sum of money in United States currency representing the amount of proceeds traceable to the commission of said offenses.

Substitute Assets Provision

38. If any of the above-described forfeitable property, as a result of any act or omission of the defendants:

a. cannot be located upon the exercise of due diligence;

b. has been transferred or sold to, or deposited with, a third person;

c. has been placed beyond the jurisdiction of the Court;

d. has been substantially diminished in value; or

e. has been commingled with other property which cannot be subdivided without difficulty;

it is the intent of the United States, pursuant to Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(p) and Title 28, United States Code, Section 2461(c), to seek forfeiture of any other property of the defendants up to the value of the above forfeitable property.

(Title 18, United States Code, Section 981
Title 18, United States Code, Section 982;
Title 21, United States Code, Section 853; and
Title 28, United States Code, Section 2461.)

FIFTH AMENDED AND RESTATED LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY AGREEMENT OF TRICOLOR HOLDINGS, LLC

This Fifth Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement (this "Agreement") of Tricolor Holdings, LLC (the "Company"), dated and effective as of December 30, 2021 (the "Effective Date"), is entered into among the Members (as defined below).

RECITALS:

WHEREAS, the Company was formed as a Delaware limited liability company on May 6, 2015;

WHEREAS, the Original Member (as defined below) and Investar (as defined below) were parties to that certain Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement of the Company, dated as of June 3, 2015 (as supplemented and amended, the "Original Limited Liability Company Agreement");

WHEREAS, Ganas Investors (as defined below) and Investar were parties to that certain Second Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement of the Company, dated as of December 20, 2017 (the "Second Limited Liability Company Agreement") which amended and restated the Original Limited Liability Company Agreement;

WHEREAS, Ganas Investors and the BlackRock Investors (as defined therein) (the "Class B BlackRock Investors") were parties to that certain Third Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement of the Company, dated as of January 30, 2020 (as amended, the "Third Limited Liability Company Agreement") which amended and restated the Second Limited Liability Company Agreement;

WHEREAS, Ganas Investors and the BlackRock Investors were parties to that certain Fourth Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement of the Company, dated as of September 2, 2021 (the "Existing Limited Liability Company Agreement") which amended and restated the Third Limited Liability Company Agreement;

WHEREAS, the Company intends to issue to the Junior Preferred Members (as defined below) Junior Preferred Units of the Company pursuant to a Subscription Agreement (the "Junior Preferred Unit Subscription Agreement"), on and subject to the terms therein; and

WHEREAS, the parties hereto deem it advisable to amend and restate the Existing Limited Liability Company Agreement in its entirety to evidence, among other things, (i) the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Junior Preferred Unit Subscription Agreement, (ii) the admission of the New Investors (as defined below)

as Junior Preferred Members and (iii) the establishment of the rights, privileges and preferences of the Junior Preferred Units.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the agreements and obligations set forth herein and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Members hereby amend and restate the Existing Limited Liability Company Agreement in its entirety as follows:

ARTICLE I
DEFINED TERMS

Section 1.1. Definitions. Unless the context otherwise requires, the terms defined in this Article I shall, for the purposes of this Agreement, have the meanings herein specified.

"Adjusted Capital Account Deficit" means, with respect to any Member, the deficit balance, if any, in such Member's Capital Account as of the end of the relevant Fiscal Year, after giving effect to the following adjustments:

(a) credit to such Capital Account any amounts which such Member is deemed to be obligated to restore pursuant to the penultimate sentence of either of Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(g)(1) or 1.704-2(i)(5); and

(b) debit to such Capital Account the items described in Treasury Regulation Sections 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d)(4), 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d)(5) and 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d)(6).

The foregoing definition of Adjusted Capital Account Deficit is intended to comply with the provisions of Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d) and shall be interpreted consistently therewith.

"Affected Units" means the Eligible Units offered for sale by an Offering Holder pursuant to Section 12.8.

"Affiliate" means any Person directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by, or under common control with another Person and any Persons with the same investment manager or whose investment manager is directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by, or under common control with another Person's investment manager. For purposes of this definition, "control" (including the terms "controlled by" and "under common control with") means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management policies or affairs of a Person, whether through ownership of voting securities, by contract or otherwise, as executor, trustee or otherwise.

"Aggregate Ownership" means, with respect to any Member or group of Members, the total number of Common Units (including Common Units issuable upon conversion of Preferred Units or upon the exercise of Warrants) owned (without duplication) by such Member or group of Members as of the date of such calculation.

"Aggregate Senior Preferred Unit Purchase Price" means the Preferred Unit Purchase Price multiplied by the number of Senior Preferred Units issued and outstanding as of September 2, 2021.

"Agreement" shall have the meaning set forth in the preamble hereof.

"Assignee" means the Person to whom Interests are Transferred in accordance with this Agreement.

"Bankruptcy Event" means such time as the Company or any significant Subsidiary of the Company (i) becomes the subject of any bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding, (ii) has had a receiver, conservator, trustee, administrator, custodian, assignee for the benefit of creditors or similar Person charged with the reorganization or liquidation of its business appointed for it, or (iii) has taken any action in furtherance of, or indicating its consent to, approval of, or acquiescence in, any such proceeding or appointment.

"BlackRock Investors" means the Subscribers (as defined in the Senior Preferred Unit Subscription Agreement) party to the Senior Preferred Unit Subscription Agreement as of September 2, 2021.

"Blocker Member" means a Member holding Senior Preferred Units that is (i) classified as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and (ii) an entity, the sole purpose of which is to directly or indirectly hold Units and conduct administrative and organizational activities incidental thereto, and that does not and has never conducted any other business or engaged in any other activities (other than administrative matters relating to its formation and organization and the direct or indirect acquisition, holding and disposition of Units).

"Board" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 5.1.

"Budget Act" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 10.1(a).

"Business Day" means any day except a Saturday, Sunday or other day on which commercial banks in New York City are authorized by law to close.

"Buyer" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 12.7(b).

"Capital Account" means, with respect to any Member, the account maintained for such Member in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.3.

"Capital Contribution" means, with respect to any Member, the aggregate amount of cash, the principal amount of any promissory note and the initial Gross Asset Value of any property (other than cash or promissory note) contributed to the Company by such Member in accordance with this Agreement, net of any liabilities of such Member that are assumed by the Company in connection with such contribution or that are secured by property so contributed.

"Capital Event" means a Liquidation Event, Change of Control, Revaluation Event, Corporate Conversion or the termination of the Company's status as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes for any reason.

"Cash Available for Distribution" means, with respect to any Fiscal Year, all Company cash receipts plus any reductions in Reserves from prior Fiscal Years, after deducting payments for Operating Cash Expenses, payments required to be made in connection with any loan to the Company or any loan secured by a lien on any Company assets, capital expenditures and any other amounts set aside for the restoration, increase or creation of reasonable Reserves.

"Certificate" means the Certificate of Formation of the Company and any and all amendments thereto and restatements thereof filed on behalf of the Company with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware pursuant to the Delaware Act.

"Change of Control" means (i) any "person" or "group" (within the meaning of Sections 13(d) and 14(d) of the Exchange Act), other than Daniel Chu, becoming the beneficial owner (as defined in Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act), directly or indirectly, of a majority of either the voting rights or the economic rights associated with the Common Units of the Company, (ii) Ganas Investors ceasing to, directly or indirectly, have the right to appoint a majority of the Board of the Company, (iii) a sale of all or substantially all the assets of the Company and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, (iv) the Company ceasing to directly or indirectly own and control, beneficially and of record, 100% of the outstanding voting and economic equity interests of its first tier Subsidiaries existing on the Effective Date, and (v) a "change of control" (or similar event) shall occur pursuant to any outstanding Indebtedness of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (including the securitization facilities, the floor plan financing facilities and the Warehouse Facilities) or any management equity arrangements.

"Class B BlackRock Investors" shall have the meaning set forth in the recitals hereof.

"Class B Member" shall have the meaning assigned to such term in the Third Limited Liability Company Agreement.

"Class B Unit" shall have the meaning assigned to such term in the Third Limited Liability Company Agreement.

"Code" means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time, or any corresponding United States federal tax statute enacted after the date of this Agreement.

"Common Unit" means a Unit representing a fractional part of the Interests of the Members and having the rights and obligations specified with respect to Common Units in this Agreement.

"Common Unit Accumulated Capital Account" means, at any given time, the cumulative Capital Accounts of the Common Unit Members in respect of the Common Units that would result from the allocations pursuant to Section 7.1(b)(i) if applied to all Profits and Losses at such time.

"Common Unit Member" means any Member holding Common Units (including Members that hold Management Incentive Units).

"Company" shall have the meaning set forth in the preamble hereto.

"Company Minimum Gain" means "partnership minimum gain" of the Company within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(b)(2) and shall be computed in accordance with Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(d).

"Company Securities" means Units or Interests or any securities convertible or exercisable into, or any securities exchangeable for, or containing options or rights to acquire, Units or Interests.

"Consultant" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 12.7(f).

"Continuing Member" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 12.7(a).

"Conversion Price" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 4.3(d)(iii) or Section 4.3(d)(v), as applicable.

"Corporate Conversion" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 12.12(b).

"Covered Person" means: (a) each current or former Officer, Manager (including for the avoidance of doubt the Senior Preferred Managers) and Member (including the Tax Matters Partner), in each case in his, her or its capacity as such, or in his or her capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent of another limited liability company or corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise where serving at the request of the Company, and each such Person's successors, heirs, estates or legal representatives; (b) each Person, if any, to whom or which any rights or responsibilities of the Board hereunder have been assigned, delegated, designated or otherwise Transferred; (c) any Affiliate, in his, her or its capacity as such, of each Member (including the Tax Matters Partner) or of any Person set forth in clause (b); (d) the Senior Preferred Observers; and (e) each director, officer, member, manager, shareholder, trustee, employee, partner, beneficiary, Affiliate, representative and agent, in his, her or its capacity as such, of each Member (including the Tax Matters Partner) or of any other Person set forth in clauses (b), (c) and (d), and each of their controlling Affiliates; in each case in clauses (a), (b), (c), (d) and (e), whether or not such Person continues to have the applicable status referred to in such clauses.

"Cut-Off Date" means, (a) with respect to a right of first refusal pursuant to Section 12.8, the twenty-first (21st) day after the Offering Holder delivers the Offer Notice to each Member.

"D&O Insurance" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 11.6.

"Deceased Spouse" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 12.7(a).

"Delaware Act" means the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act.

"Depreciation" means, for each Fiscal Year or other period, an amount equal to the depreciation, amortization or other cost recovery deduction allowable with respect to an asset for such Fiscal Year or other period; provided, however, that, if the Gross Asset Value of an asset differs from its adjusted basis for United States federal income tax purposes at the beginning of such Fiscal Year or other period, Depreciation shall be an amount that bears the same ratio to such beginning Gross Asset Value as the United States federal income tax depreciation, amortization or other cost recovery deduction with respect to such asset for such Fiscal Year or other period bears to such beginning adjusted tax basis; and provided further, however, that if the United States federal income tax depreciation, amortization or other cost recovery deduction for such Fiscal Year or other period is zero, Depreciation shall be determined with reference to such beginning Gross Asset Value using any reasonable method selected by the Members; and provided further, however, that with respect to any goodwill that is not amortizable under the Code, there shall be no Depreciation.

"Dilutive Issuance" means the issuance of Dilutive Units.

"Dilutive Units" means, with respect to any Preferred Unit, any Units (other than Excluded Securities) issued by the Company after the date hereof at a price less than the then-applicable Conversion Price for such Preferred Unit in effect immediately prior to the issuance of such Units.

"Distributions" means distributions of cash or other property made by the Company with respect to the Members' Interests. Distribution shall not mean payments of cash or other property to Members for reasons other than their ownership of such Interests; provided, however, that the Company shall not make Distributions to any Member in property other than cash without such Member's prior written consent.

"Drag-Along Notice" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 12.10(c)(i).

"Drag-Along Rightholders" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 12.10(c)(i).

"Effective Date" shall have the meaning set forth in the preamble hereto.

"Eligible Members" means Members holding Eligible Units.

"Eligible Preferred Transferee" means any Person (including for the avoidance of doubt any Affiliate of a Preferred Member) other than any Persons who are competitors of the Company as may be reasonably determined in good faith by the Company, including any Affiliate of any such competitor; provided, however, in no event shall any (i) BlackRock Investor or any of its Affiliates, or (ii) ABR Reinsurance Ltd., ACE Tempest Reinsurance Ltd., ACE INA Overseas Insurance Company Ltd., ACE Bermuda Insurance Ltd. or ACE Bermuda International Insurance (Ireland) Limited (collectively, "Chubb") or any of their Affiliates, be deemed to be a competitor of the Company. For the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, (i) any Affiliate of a BlackRock Investor shall be an Eligible Preferred Transferee, and (ii) any Affiliate of Chubb shall be an Eligible Preferred Transferee with respect to any Eligible Units held directly or indirectly by Chubb.

"Eligible Units" means Preferred Units, Warrants, Common Units and Vested Management Incentive Units; provided, however, that, except for the purposes of Section 12.1 and Section 12.8(a)(ii), no Warrant shall be an Eligible Unit if, on the date of determination, the Exercisable Date (as defined in the applicable Warrant) has not occurred.

"Estate Planning Entity" means, with respect to any Person, any trust or other entity for estate planning purposes so long as all the beneficial ownership interests in such trust or entity are held by such Person or such Person's Family Members.

"Excluded Securities" means the issuance of: (a) Units of the Company issued as a pro rata dividend to holders of then-outstanding equity securities or upon any subdivision or combination of then-outstanding equity securities of the Company approved by the Board; (b) securities issued by the Company in a Qualified Public Offering; (c) Units of the Company issued as consideration to a selling party in a merger, consolidation, acquisition or similar business combination approved by the Board; or (d) Common Units issued upon exercise of any Warrants or conversion of any Preferred Units.

"Exercise Notice" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 12.11.

"Existing Limited Liability Company Agreement" shall have the meaning set forth in the recitals hereof.

"Fair Market Value" means, with respect to any property, the value that would be obtained in an arm's length transaction for ownership of such property for cash between an informed and willing seller and an informed and willing purchaser, each with an adequate understanding of the facts and under no compulsion to buy or sell. The determination of the Fair Market Value of any property shall be reasonably determined in good faith by the Board.

"Family Members" means, with respect to any Person, such Person's spouse, ex-spouse, domestic partner, parent, siblings, ascendants, descendants (including adoptive relationships and stepchildren), and the spouses or domestic partners of each such natural person.

"Fiduciary Manager" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 11.3(a).

"First Tranche Warrants" means detachable penny warrants to purchase Common Units of the Company substantially in the form of Exhibit A attached hereto.

"Fiscal Year" means (a) any twelve-month period commencing on January 1 and ending on December 31 and (b) any other twelve-month period required by the Code or the Treasury Regulations to be used as the taxable year of the Company or (c) any portion of the periods described in clauses (a) and (b) of this sentence for which the Company is required to allocate Profits, Losses and other items of Company income, gain, loss or deduction pursuant to Article VII.

"Fully Diluted Basis" means, as of any particular date, all outstanding Units plus (without duplication) all Units issuable in respect of other Company Securities that are convertible, exercisable or exchangeable for Units, and all appreciation rights and phantom equity based on or in respect of Units, as of such date, including, and for the avoidance of doubt, any right pursuant to any equity incentive plan; provided, however, that if any of the foregoing are subject to vesting or are otherwise not convertible, exercisable or exchangeable as of the relevant date, such Units shall be included only upon and to the extent then vested or convertible, exercisable or exchangeable.

"Fund Indemnitees" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 11.8.

"Fund Indemnitors" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 11.8.

"GAAP" means generally accepted accounting principles in the United States, consistently applied.

"Ganas Investors" means Ganas Investors, LLC, a Texas limited liability company.

"Ganas Manager" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 5.1.

"General Interest Rate" means a rate per annum equal to the lesser of (a) a varying rate per annum that is equal to the interest rate publicly quoted by JPMorgan Chase, N.A., from time to time as its prime commercial or similar reference interest rate, with adjustments in that varying rate to be made on the same date as any change in that rate, and (b) the maximum rate permitted by applicable law.

"Governing Documents" means, with respect to any Person, the certificate or articles of incorporation or formation, by-laws, operating agreement and any other organizational document of such Person.

"Governmental Authority" means any nation or government (whether federal, state, local or foreign), any state or other political subdivision thereof, any arbitrator, court or tribunal of competent jurisdiction, and any entity exercising executive, legislative, judicial, regulatory or administrative functions of or pertaining to government.

"Gross Asset Value" means, with respect to any asset, such asset's adjusted basis for United States federal income tax purposes, except as follows:

(a) the initial Gross Asset Value of any asset contributed by a Member to the Company shall be the gross fair market value of such asset, as determined by mutual agreement of the Members as set forth on Schedule A;

(b) the Gross Asset Value of all Company assets may be adjusted to equal their respective gross fair market values, as determined by the Board, as of the following times (a "Revaluation Event"): (i) immediately prior to the acquisition of an additional Interest in the Company by any new or existing Member in exchange for more than a de minimis Capital Contribution; (ii) immediately prior to the distribution by the Company to a Member of more than a de minimis amount of Company assets in redemption of an Interest or portion thereof in the Company; (iii) the liquidation of the Company within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.704- 1(b)(2)(ii)(g) (other than pursuant to Section 708(b)(1)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code); (iv) immediately prior to the issuance of Management Incentive Units pursuant to Section 6.5; (v) immediately prior to the consummation of a Qualified Public Offering; or (vi) at such other times as the Board shall reasonably determine necessary or appropriate in order to comply with Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-1(b) and 1.704-2; provided, however, that adjustments pursuant to clauses (i) and (iv) of this sentence shall be made only if the Board reasonably determines that such adjustments are necessary or appropriate to reflect the relative economic interests of the Members in the Company;

(c) the Gross Asset Value of any Company asset distributed to any Member shall be the gross fair market value of such asset on the date of distribution, as determined by the Board; and

FORMATION AND TERM

Section 2.1. Formation.

(a) The Company was formed as a limited liability company by the filing of a Certificate of Formation on May 6, 2015 with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware under and pursuant to the provisions of the Delaware Act and by entering into the Original Limited Liability Company Agreement of the Company on May 27, 2015. The Existing Limited Liability Company Agreement is hereby amended and restated in its entirety and this amendment and restatement shall become effective pursuant to Section 18-201(d) of the Delaware Act as of the date hereof.

(b) Upon the execution of this Agreement or a counterpart of this Agreement and the making of the Capital Contributions referred to in Section 6.1(a) (if applicable), each of the Persons set forth on Schedule A are admitted (or continue) as Members of the Company with the Percentage Interests reflected on Schedule A in the form of the number and type of Units reflected on Schedule A. Any Person who purchases Junior Preferred Units in the Subsequent Offering shall sign a joinder to this Agreement and shall thereby become a Junior Preferred Member and the Company shall update Schedule A to reflect such purchase.

(c) The name and mailing address of each Member is listed on Schedule A attached hereto.

(d) The Secretary of the Company and any Assistant Secretary are hereby designated as authorized Persons, within the meaning of the Delaware Act, to execute, deliver and file, or cause the execution, delivery and filing of, all certificates, notices or other instruments (and any amendments and/or restatements thereof) required or permitted by the Delaware Act to be filed in the office of the Secretary of State of Delaware and any other certificates, notices or other instruments (and any amendments and/or restatements thereof) necessary for the Company to qualify to do business in a jurisdiction in which the Company may wish to conduct business.

Section 2.2. Name. The name of the Company is "Tricolor Holdings, LLC".

Section 2.3. Term. The term of the Company commenced upon the filing of the Certificate on May 6, 2015 in accordance with the Delaware Act, and shall continue perpetually unless the Company is dissolved pursuant to Section 13.2, which dissolution shall be carried out pursuant to the Delaware Act and the provisions of this Agreement. The existence of the Company as a separate legal entity shall continue until the cancellation of the Certificate as provided in the Delaware Act.

Section 2.4. Registered Agent and Office. The Company's registered agent and office in Delaware shall be the Corporation Trust Company, 1209 Orange Street, Wilmington, Delaware 19801.

Section 2.5. Principal Place of Business. The principal place of business and headquarters of the Company shall be in the State of Texas or such other location as the Board may designate from time to time, which need not be in the State of Texas nor the State of Delaware. The Company may have such other offices as the Board may designate.

Section 2.6. Qualification in Other Jurisdictions. The Officers shall cause the Company to be qualified, formed or registered under assumed or fictitious name statutes or similar laws in any jurisdiction in which the Company transacts business and such qualification, formation or registration is necessary or appropriate for the transaction of such business.

ARTICLE III
PURPOSE AND POWERS OF THE COMPANY

Section 3.1. Purpose. The Company is formed for the object and purpose of, and the nature of the business to be conducted and promoted by the Company is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which limited liability companies may be formed under the Delaware Act, including engaging in the provision of responsible and affordable credit to low-income persons and families of Hispanic descent to purchase a vehicle to achieve economic independence and build credit.

Section 3.2. Powers of the Company. Subject to the limitations set forth herein, the Company shall have the power and authority to take any and all actions necessary, appropriate, proper, advisable, incidental or convenient to or for the furtherance of the purpose set forth in Section 3.1.

ARTICLE IV
MEMBERS

Section 4.1. Issuance and Creation of Units.

(a) On September 2, 2021, the Company repurchased and cancelled all of the outstanding Class B Units (the "Redemption") and issued the Senior Preferred Units. Following the Redemption, the Class B Members ceased being members of the Company. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of this Agreement, the Company is authorized to issue equity interests in the Company, all of which are or will be designated as "Units", which shall constitute limited liability company interests under the Delaware Act. The Units shall consist of four (4) classes: Common Units, Senior Preferred Units, Junior Preferred Units and Management Incentive Units (as further described in Section 6.5 below), and shall have the rights, preferences, privileges, limitations, restrictions and/or obligations as set forth herein. Subject to the other provisions of this Agreement, the total number of Units of any class that may be issued hereunder shall not be limited, and the references to Units shall be deemed to include fractional Units.

(b) Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of this Agreement, including this Section 4.1 and Sections 4.3, 4.14 and 14.11, the Board is authorized to create and issue new Units, which may have rights, preferences, privileges, limitations, restrictions and/or obligations that are junior to, pari passu with or senior to any other class or series of Units; provided, however, that (i) no such Units shall rank pari passu with or senior to the Senior Preferred Units and (ii) no such Units other than the Senior Preferred Units shall rank senior to the Junior Preferred Units. To the fullest extent permitted by Section 18-302 of the Delaware Act, but subject to the terms of this Agreement, including this Section 4.1 and Sections 4.3, 4.14 and 14.11, the Company may issue Units from time to time in one or more classes, or one or more series of such classes, which classes or series (or the holders thereof) shall have, subject to the provisions of applicable law and the terms of this Agreement, including this Section 4.1 and Sections 4.3, 4.14 and 14.11, such rights, preferences, privileges, limitations, restrictions and/or obligations as shall be fixed by the Board; provided, however, that the Senior Preferred Units shall rank senior to all other Company Securities (including Common Units and Management Incentive Units) and the Junior Preferred Units shall rank senior to all Common Units and Management Incentive Units and pari passu with or senior to all other Company Securities other than the Senior Preferred Units, in each case including with respect to: (i) the allocation of items of Profit or Loss to each class or series; (ii) the right of each class or series to share in distributions; (iii) maintaining separate and distinct records for each class or series; (iv) allocating specific assets, liabilities, debts, obligations and expenses to each class or series; (v) the rights of each class or series upon dissolution and liquidation of the Company; (vi) the price at which, and the terms and conditions upon which, each class or series may be redeemed by the Company, if any class or series is so redeemable; (vii) the rate at which, and the terms and conditions upon which, each class or series may be converted into another class or series of Units; (viii) the right of the owners of each class or series to information about the Company, including limitations of the rights in Section 18-305 of the Delaware Act; and (ix) the right of each class or series to vote on Company matters, including matters relating to the rights, preferences, privileges, limitations, restrictions and/or obligations of such class or series, if any such class or series (or any holders thereof) is granted any voting rights.

Subject to Sections 4.3, 4.14 and 14.12 and any other applicable terms of this Agreement, the Board may amend this Agreement without the consent of any Member in order to effect the creation or issuance of Units or any class or series thereof and the granting of any such rights, preferences, privileges, limitations, restrictions and/or obligations pursuant to this Section 4.1 (so long as the relative rights, preferences, privileges, limitations and obligations of the applicable class of Preferred Units shall rank senior to the related rights, preferences, privileges, limitations, restrictions and/or obligations of such Units or any class or series thereof as set forth in this Section 4.1 and Section 4.3 and are not otherwise adversely affected).

Section 4.2. Certificates. The Interests and Units of the Members are and at all times shall remain uncertificated (and any certificate purporting to evidence any Interests or Units shall be null and void ab initio). The Interests and Units of the Members in the Company are not and shall not at any time be "securities" or "investment property" covered by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code of the State of Delaware (or the Uniform Commercial Code of any other applicable jurisdiction). No Member, Manager or Officer of the Company will amend this Agreement to provide that the Interests or Units of the Members in the Company are "securities" or "investment property" governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code or otherwise "opt in" to Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code.

Section 4.3. Preferred Units. The Preferred Units shall have the following rights, preferences and privileges:

(a) (i) The Senior Preferred Units shall rank senior to the Junior Preferred Units, the Common Units, Management Incentive Units, and any other class of Units or other Company Securities hereafter created (the Junior Preferred Units, the Common Units, Management Incentive Units, and such other classes of Units and other Company Securities, "Junior Securities"), and (ii) the Junior Preferred Units shall rank senior to all Common Units and Management Incentive Units and pari passu with or senior to all other Company Securities other than Senior Preferred Units, in each case as described in the proviso contained in the second sentence of Section 4.1(b), including as to Distributions, including the distribution of assets upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company, whether voluntary or involuntary.

(b) From and after the date of issuance, Distributions shall accrue on each Preferred Unit at the applicable Preferred Accumulating Distribution Rate (subject to the last sentence of this Section 4.3(b)) on the Preferred Accrued Amount. Distributions on each Preferred Unit shall be cumulative and shall accrue daily from and after the date of issuance, and, unless paid in cash on the applicable Quarterly Preferred Distribution Date as provided below, shall be added to the Preferred Accrued Amount on each Quarterly Preferred Distribution Date. Distributions shall be calculated on the basis of the actual days elapsed in a year of 365 (or 366, as applicable) days. Subject to Section 4.14(a)(ii), all such Distributions, as applicable, shall, at the sole discretion of the Board (excluding, with respect to Distributions on the Senior Preferred Units, the Senior Preferred Managers), either, in whole or in part, (i) be paid in cash to the Preferred Members at the applicable Preferred Cash Distribution Rate, or (ii) be added to the Preferred Accrued Amount at the applicable Preferred Accumulating Distribution Rate, provided, however, that in the event that the Board (excluding, with respect to Distributions on the Senior Preferred Units, the Senior Preferred Managers) does not make an election with respect thereto, the Board shall be deemed to have elected to have such Distribution added to the Preferred Accrued Amount pursuant to the foregoing clause (ii).

(c) The Company shall give each Preferred Member at least 15 days' written notice prior to the occurrence of any Liquidation Event. Upon the occurrence of a Liquidation Event, (i) the Senior Preferred Members shall be entitled to be paid, with respect to the Senior Preferred Units then outstanding held by the Senior Preferred Members, out of the assets of the Company available for distribution to the Members, on a preferred basis prior and in preference to any Distribution to the Junior Preferred Members, the Common Unit Members or holders of any other Junior Securities of the Company, an amount in cash per Senior Preferred Unit equal to the greater of: (1) the amount such Senior Preferred Member would have received had such Senior Preferred Unit(s) been converted to Common Unit(s) at the then-applicable Conversion Price immediately prior to such Liquidation Event; and (2) the applicable Preferred Redemption Price; provided, however, that, in each case, the amount paid with respect to the Senior Preferred Units in the aggregate shall not be less than the Minimum MOIC; and (ii) the Junior Preferred Members shall be entitled to be paid, after payment in full has been made with respect to the Senior Preferred Units pursuant to the preceding clause (i), with respect to the Junior Preferred Units then outstanding held by the Junior Preferred Members, out of the assets of the Company available for distribution to the Members, on a preferred basis prior and in preference to any Distribution to the Common Unit Members or holders of any other Junior Securities of the Company, an amount in cash per Junior Preferred Unit equal to (1) if such Liquidation Event (which, for the avoidance of doubt, does not include any redemption of Company Securities) occurs on or prior to the second anniversary of the Effective Date, the Preferred Unit Purchase Price or (2) if such Liquidation Event (which, for the avoidance of doubt, does not include any redemption of Company Securities) occurs after the second anniversary of the Effective Date, 1.2 multiplied by the Preferred Unit Purchase Price, in each case in the case of this clause (ii) plus the Preferred Accrued Amount in respect of such Junior Preferred Units.

(d) If upon any such Liquidation Event, the assets of the Company available for distribution to the Company's Members shall be insufficient to pay the Senior Preferred Members the full amount to which they shall be entitled pursuant to the preceding sentence, then (x) the Senior Preferred Members shall be paid first with any distribution of the assets available for distribution and funds of the Company until the payment in full of the Senior Preferred Units at the applicable Preferred Redemption Price, and after the payment in full of the Senior Preferred Units at the applicable Preferred Redemption Price, the Senior Preferred Members shall not be entitled to any further participation in any distribution of funds or assets by the Company in respect of such Senior Preferred Units and (y) after giving effect to the preceding clause (x), the Junior Preferred Members shall be paid first with any distribution of the remaining assets available for distribution and funds of the Company until the payment in full of the Junior Preferred Units at the applicable Preferred Redemption Price, and after the payment in full of the Junior Preferred Units at the applicable Preferred Redemption Price, the Junior Preferred Members shall not be entitled to any further participation in any distribution of funds or assets by the Company in respect of such Junior Preferred Units. If upon any such Liquidation Event, the assets of the Company available for distribution to the Company's Members (after payment to the Senior Preferred Members of the full amount to which they shall be entitled pursuant to the first sentence of this Section 4.3(c)) shall be insufficient to pay the Junior Preferred Members the full amount to which they shall be entitled pursuant to the first sentence of this Section 4.3(c), then the Junior Preferred Members shall be paid first with any distribution of the remaining assets available for distribution and funds of the Company until the payment in full of the Junior Preferred Units at the applicable Preferred Redemption Price, and after the payment in full of the Junior Preferred Units at the applicable Preferred Redemption Price, the Junior Preferred Members shall not be entitled to any further participation in any distribution of funds or assets by the Company in respect of such Junior Preferred Units. Any payments to the Senior Preferred Members pursuant to this Section 4.3(c) shall be made to the Senior Preferred Members, pro rata in accordance with the percentage of Senior Preferred Units held by the Senior Preferred Members. Any payments to the Junior Preferred Members pursuant to this Section 4.3(c) shall be made to the Junior Preferred Members, pro rata in accordance with the percentage of Junior Preferred Units held by the Junior Preferred Members. The Preferred Units shall be convertible into Common Units as follows:

(i) Optional Conversion of Preferred Units. At the option of the holder thereof, each Preferred Unit held by such holder shall be convertible, at any time or from time to time, into Common Unit(s) at the then-applicable Conversion Price. Each holder of Preferred Units who elects to convert the same into Common Units shall surrender the certificate or certificates therefor, if any, duly endorsed, at the office of the Company or any transfer agent for the Preferred Units, and shall give written notice to the Company at such office that such Member elects to convert the same and shall state therein the number of Preferred Units being converted. Thereupon, the Company shall promptly register such Member as the holder of the applicable number of Common Units. Such conversion shall be deemed to have been made immediately prior to the close of business on the date of receipt by the Company of written notice of conversion, and the Member entitled to receive the Common Units issuable upon such conversion shall be treated for all purposes as the record holder of such Common Units on such date.

(ii) Automatic Conversion of Senior Preferred Units and Exercise of Warrants Upon Qualified Financing. All Senior Preferred Units will automatically be converted into Common Units at the then-applicable Conversion Price for Senior Preferred Units and all outstanding Warrants will automatically be exercised at the then-applicable exercise price as of immediately prior to the consummation of a Qualified Financing, subject to, in the case of a Qualified Financing that is a Qualified Public Offering or Qualified Acquisition Transaction, clause (A) below, or in the case of a Qualified Financing that is a Change of Control, clause (B) below; provided, however, that the Company shall consult with the holders of the Senior Preferred Units and Warrants in good faith and use reasonable best efforts to effect any Qualified Financing in a tax efficient manner for holders of the Senior Preferred Units and Warrants.

(A) If a Qualified Public Offering or Qualified Acquisition Transaction is consummated and (1) in the case of a Qualified Public Offering, the initial price per share to the public for the Company's common stock (or the common stock of any successor thereto or parent or holding company thereof) as set forth in the final prospectus for such Qualified Public Offering, or (2) in the case of a Qualified Acquisition Transaction, (x) the value of (I) the equity interests in the combined company issued at the consummation of the Qualified Acquisition Transaction to the equityholders of the Company (or any successor thereof or parent or holding company thereof) as of immediately prior to the Qualified Acquisition Transaction, as determined pursuant to definitive agreements entered into in connection with such Qualified Acquisition Transaction, plus (II) cash paid upon the consummation of the Qualified Acquisition Transaction to the equityholders of the Company (or any successor thereof or parent or holding company thereof) as of immediately prior to the consummation of the Qualified Acquisition Transaction, divided by (y) the number of shares of common stock to be outstanding on a fully diluted basis (pursuant to the definitive agreements and final prospectus (as applicable) relating to the Qualified Acquisition Transaction) immediately after giving effect to the Qualified Acquisition Transaction ((1) or (2), as applicable, the "Listing Per Share Price"), in each case is less than the then-applicable Target Adjusted Per Share Price, then immediately prior to the consummation of the Qualified Public Offering or Qualified Acquisition Transaction, as applicable, each Common Unit received upon conversion of the Senior Preferred Units (or share of common stock issued in respect thereof) shall be split by multiplying each such equity interest by an adjustment factor equal to the following formula:

C = the Target Adjusted Per Share Price

P = the Listing Per Share Price

Target Adjusted Per Share Price = Adjusted Aggregate MOIC divided by the aggregate number of Common Units receivable upon conversion of the Senior Preferred Units (or shares of common stock issuable in respect thereof).

Adjusted Aggregate MOIC = Minimum MOIC minus Common Value

Common Value = the number of Common Units received upon exercise of all outstanding Warrants (or common stock issued in respect thereof) multiplied by P

(B) In the case that a Qualified Financing is a Change of Control, the aggregate value of the consideration paid to Senior Preferred Members and holders of Warrants in respect of the Common Units received upon conversion of the Senior Preferred Units and upon exercise of the Warrants (or in each case the applicable consideration received in respect thereof pursuant to the Change of Control transaction) shall not be less than the Minimum MOIC.

For the avoidance of doubt, (i) only one (and not both) of clause (A) or clause (B) above shall apply to the applicable Qualified Financing and (ii) this Section 4.3(d)(ii) shall not apply to the Junior Preferred Units.

(iii) Automatic Conversion of Junior Preferred Units Upon Qualified Public Offering. All Junior Preferred Units will automatically be converted into Common Units at the then-applicable Conversion Price for Junior Preferred Units as of immediately prior to the consummation of a Qualified Public Offering. Except as provided in the preceding sentence, the Junior Preferred Units are not convertible into Common Units.

(iv) Conversion Price of Senior Preferred Units. Each Senior Preferred Unit shall be convertible into the number of Common Units which results from dividing (A) the Preferred Unit Purchase Price for such Senior Preferred Unit by (B) the applicable Conversion Price for such Senior Preferred Unit in effect at the time of conversion. The "Conversion Price" with respect to the Senior Preferred Units was initially $15.92 (as of September 2, 2021); provided, however, that (1) upon the occurrence of a Qualified Financing, the Conversion Price with respect to the Senior Preferred Units shall equal the lower of (x) the then-applicable Conversion Price for the Senior Preferred Units (without giving effect to this proviso) and (y) the price per Common Unit indicated in the Qualified Financing as reduced by the QF/MR Discount and (2) if no Qualified Financing has occurred at or prior to the time of a Senior Preferred Mandatory Redemption Event, the Conversion Price upon such Senior Preferred Mandatory Redemption Event shall equal the lower of (I) the then-applicable Conversion Price for the Senior Preferred Units (without giving effect to this proviso) and (II) the price per Common Unit based on the then-applicable QF/MR Discount to the then fair market equity valuation of the Company on a fully diluted basis, as determined by a nationally recognized investment banking firm or other independent appraisal firm having experience in the industry and selected by mutual agreement of the Company and the holders of a majority of outstanding Senior Preferred Units.

The Conversion Price with respect to the Senior Preferred Units shall be subject to adjustment from time to time as provided below (and, for the avoidance of doubt, the Conversion Price with respect to the Senior Preferred Units shall be adjusted in accordance with Section 4.3(d)(viii) in connection with the issuance of Junior Preferred Units pursuant to the Junior Preferred Unit Subscription Agreement). Following each adjustment of such Conversion Price, such adjusted Conversion Price shall remain in effect until a further adjustment of such Conversion Price.

(v) Conversion Price of Junior Preferred Units. Each Junior Preferred Unit shall be convertible into the number of Common Units which results from dividing (A) the lesser of (x) the Preferred Accrued Amount with respect to such Junior Preferred Unit and (y) 1.2 multiplied by the Preferred Unit Purchase Price with respect to such Junior Preferred Unit by (B) the applicable Conversion Price for such Junior Preferred Unit in effect at the time of conversion. The "Conversion Price" with respect to the Junior Preferred Units shall initially be $14.38; provided, however, that upon the occurrence of a Qualified Public Offering, the Conversion Price with respect to the Junior Preferred Units shall equal the lower of (A) the then-applicable Conversion Price for the Junior Preferred Units (without giving effect to this proviso) and (B) the price per Common Unit indicated in the Qualified Public Offering.

The Conversion Price with respect to the Junior Preferred Units shall be subject to adjustment from time to time as provided below. Following each adjustment of such Conversion Price, such adjusted Conversion Price shall remain in effect until a further adjustment of such Conversion Price.

(vi) Treatment of Certain Distributions. If at any time or from time to time after the date hereof the Company makes a Distribution to the holders of the Common Units in each case payable in securities or other property of the Company, other than an event constituting an Qualified Financing, then in each such event the Members holding Preferred Units shall receive, simultaneously with the Distribution to the holders of Common Units, a Distribution of such securities or other property in an amount equal to the amount of such securities or other property as they would have received if all outstanding Preferred Units had been converted into Common Units on the effective date of such event.

(vii) Adjustments to Conversion Price for Reorganizations or Mergers, etc.

(A) If at any time or from time to time after the date hereof there shall occur any reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, consolidation, amalgamation, conversion, or merger involving the Company in which the Common Units (but not the Preferred Units) are converted or changed into or exchanged for securities, cash or other property (other than in connection with a Qualified Financing, a transaction covered by Section 4.3(d)(iv) or a Liquidation Event), then, following any such reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, consolidation, amalgamation, conversion, or merger, each Preferred Unit shall thereafter be convertible in lieu of the Common Units into which it was convertible prior to such event into the kind and amount of securities, cash or other property which a holder of the applicable number of Common Units issuable upon conversion of such Preferred Unit immediately prior to such reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, consolidation, amalgamation, conversion, or merger would have been entitled to receive pursuant to such transaction. In any such case, appropriate adjustment (as reasonably determined in good faith by the Board) shall be made in the application of the provisions of this Section 4.3(d)(vii) with respect to the rights of the holders of the Preferred Units after the reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, consolidation, amalgamation, conversion, or merger to the end that the provisions of this Section 4.3(d)(vii) (including adjustments to the Conversion Price for the Preferred Units and the securities, cash or other property issuable upon conversion of such Preferred Units) shall be applicable after that event and be as nearly equivalent to the provisions hereof as may be practicable and with respect to such other securities, cash or property by the terms thereof. This Section 4.3(d)(vii) shall similarly apply to successive reorganizations, recapitalizations, reclassifications, consolidations, amalgamations, conversions or mergers.

(B) If at any time or from time to time after the date hereof the Company shall, while any Preferred Units are outstanding, subdivide, combine, reclassify or split its outstanding Common Units into a greater or lesser number of Common Units (other than in connection with a Qualified Financing, a transaction covered by Section 4.3(d)(iv) or a Liquidation Event), the Conversion Price shall be adjusted by multiplying the Conversion Price in effect immediately prior to such subdivision, combination, reclassification or split by a fraction, (1) the numerator of which shall be the number of Common Units outstanding immediately prior to such subdivision, combination, reclassification or split, and (2) the denominator of which shall be the number of Common Units outstanding immediately after such subdivision, combination, reclassification or split.

(viii) Adjustment of Conversion Price for Dilutive Issuances. Upon the occurrence of a Dilutive Issuance, the Conversion Price for each Preferred Unit shall be reduced, concurrently with such Dilutive Issuance, to a price (calculated to the nearest cent) determined in accordance with the following formula.

$$CP2 = CP1* \ (A + B) \div (A + C).$$

For purposes of the foregoing formula, the following definitions shall apply:

A. "CP2" means the Conversion Price for the applicable Preferred Unit in effect immediately after the issue of Dilutive Units;

B. "CP1" means the Conversion Price for the applicable Preferred Unit in effect immediately prior to the issue of Dilutive Units;

C. "A" means the total number of Units outstanding prior to the Dilutive Issuance, on a Fully Diluted Basis, but not giving effect to any Company Securities being converted, exercised or exchanged in the Dilutive Issuance;

D. "B" means the number of Dilutive Units that would have been issued if such Dilutive Units had been issued at a price per unit equal to CP1 (determined by dividing the aggregate consideration received by the Company in respect of such issue by CP1); and

E. "C" means the number of Dilutive Units issued in such Dilutive Issuance.

(ix) Tax Treatment. It is intended that the conversion of the Preferred Units into Common Units will be treated as the exercise of a noncompensatory option within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.721-2(f). Consistent with such intention, upon the conversion of a Preferred Unit into Common Units the Company shall comply with the allocation provisions set forth in Treasury Regulations Sections 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(s) and 1.704-1(b)(4)(x) (including making any required "corrective" allocations in accordance with the Treasury Regulations).

(e) Optional Redemption.

(i) Subject to Section 4.14(a)(ii), the Company shall have the right to redeem (an "Optional Preferred Redemption"), in whole or in part, on a pro rata basis from all holders of any class of Preferred Units being redeemed, based on the number of Preferred Units of such class then held, Preferred Units of such class, for cash, at a redemption price per Preferred Unit of such class equal to the Preferred Redemption Price applicable to such class, on the date such redemption is consummated. The Company may exercise its redemption right under this Section 4.3(e)(i) by delivering to the applicable holder at the address for such holder last shown on the records of the Company a written notice stating the Company's intention to exercise its redemption right, the number of the holder's Preferred Units to be redeemed, the date and time of such redemption (the "Preferred Optional Redemption Date") and the Preferred Redemption Price on the Preferred Optional Redemption Date, which shall not be sooner than ten (10) Business Days after the delivery of such notice; provided that, if the Company delivers such a notice to holders of Preferred Units, any such holder may, at any time prior to the applicable Preferred Optional Redemption Date, in lieu of such Preferred Units being redeemed, elect to convert such Preferred Units held by such holder into Common Units pursuant to and in accordance with Section 4.3(d)(i).

(ii) In the event the Company effects a Qualified Financing within 12 months of the date of effecting any Optional Preferred Redemption of any Senior Preferred Units, the Company shall (unless otherwise consented to in writing in advance by holders of 100% of the Senior Preferred Units), concurrently with the consummation of such Qualified Financing, pay (or cause to be paid) to each holder of a Senior Preferred Unit previously redeemed pursuant to an Optional Preferred Redemption during such 12-month period an amount, in cash, in respect of such optionally redeemed Senior Preferred Unit, equal to the excess (if any) of (A) the then-applicable Conversion Price (subject to clause (1) of the proviso to the second sentence of Section 4.3(d)(iii)) as of the date of such Qualified Financing (assuming that such optionally redeemed Senior Preferred Unit was outstanding on the date of such QF) over (B) the Preferred Redemption Price already paid to such holder in respect thereof.

(f) Senior Preferred Mandatory Redemption. Upon the occurrence of a Senior Preferred Mandatory Redemption Event, (i) all Senior Preferred Units will automatically be deemed to be converted to Common Units at the applicable Conversion Price, and all such Common Units will thereupon immediately be redeemed for cash at the applicable Conversion Price as of the Senior Preferred Mandatory Redemption Date, and (ii) at the option of the holder of any Warrants, such holder's Warrants will be deemed exercised for Common Units and each such Common Unit will be redeemed for cash at the applicable Conversion Price as of the Senior Preferred Mandatory Redemption Date; provided, however, that (A) the amount paid with respect to the Senior Preferred Units in the aggregate shall not be less than the Minimum MOIC, and (B) in determining whether the Minimum MOIC has been satisfied, the holders of Senior Preferred Units shall be deemed to have received in the aggregate the amount equal to the sum of (1) the aggregate amount payable pursuant to the preceding clause (i), plus (2) the aggregate amount payable pursuant to the preceding clause (ii) as if all holders of Warrants had exercised their warrants in full and all Common Units received upon exercise thereof had been redeemed in full as set forth in such clause (ii) and all such amounts had been paid solely to the Senior Preferred Members.

(g) The Company and each Member agrees (i) that the Preferred Units constitute an equity interest in a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and (ii) not to file any Tax return, report or declaration inconsistent with the foregoing except as required due to a "determination" within the meaning of Section 1313(a) of the Code.

(h) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, no Preferred Member shall be required to fund additional capital to the Company.

Section 4.4. Members. The name and mailing address of each Member, the number of Common Units, Preferred Units, Warrants and Management Incentive Units owned by such Member and the Member's respective Percentage Interests as in effect from time to time shall be listed on Schedule A. The Secretary or other designated Officer shall be required to update Schedule A from time to time as necessary to reflect accurately any changes in address, the number of Common Units, Preferred Units, Warrants and Management Incentive Units held and the Percentage Interests of the Members and such updated Schedule A shall be provided to each Member on such Schedule A promptly after any such amendment. Any amendment of Schedule A made to reflect an action taken in accordance with this Agreement shall not be deemed an amendment to this Agreement. Any reference in this Agreement to Schedule A shall be deemed to be a reference to Schedule A as amended and in effect from time to time. No Person other than the Members listed on Schedule A as of the date hereof shall be deemed a Member of the Company hereunder or under the Delaware Act, whether or not such Person holds any Units, unless approved as such pursuant to the provisions of Article XII or XIV or added pursuant to Section 2.1(b).

Section 4.5. Powers of Members. The Members shall have the power to exercise any and all rights or powers granted to the Members pursuant to the express terms of this Agreement, including Section 4.14. Members shall not have the authority to bind the Company by virtue of their status as Members. Subject to Section 12.10, no Member shall have any right, power or duty, including the right to approve or vote on any matter, except as expressly required by this Agreement, the Delaware Act or other applicable law.

Section 4.6. Member's Interest. A Member's Interest shall for all purposes be personal property. No Member (or other holder of an Interest) shall have any interest in specific Company assets or property, including any assets or property contributed to the Company by such Member as part of any Capital Contribution.

Section 4.7. Partition. Each Member waives any and all rights that it may have to maintain an action for partition of the Company's property.

Section 4.8. Cessation of Membership. A Member shall cease to be a Member at the time such Member ceases to own any Interests in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

Section 4.9. Member Meetings. Meetings of Members for such business as may be stated in the notice of the meeting, may be held at such date, time and place as is determined by the Board; provided, however, that to the extent any class of Preferred Members have a right to vote on matters at such meeting, notice of such meeting and of its purpose shall have been given to such Preferred Members in writing by facsimile, electronic mail or any other means of written communication at least two (2) Business Days prior to the date of such meeting unless such prior notice is waived in writing by Preferred Members holding a majority of the applicable class of Preferred Units outstanding.

Section 4.10. Voting. Each Member and holder of a Warrant entitled to vote in accordance with the terms of this Agreement may vote in person or by proxy. Except as may be otherwise provided in the Delaware Act, the Members and holders of Warrants shall be entitled to vote only on the matters expressly set forth herein and shall only be entitled to the other rights expressly set forth herein. Unless otherwise provided for by this Agreement, all matters to be decided by the Members and holders of Warrants shall be decided by the affirmative vote (or consent in writing) of Members and holders of Warrants representing at least a majority of the total Percentage Interests in the Company; provided, however, that the affirmative vote (or consent in writing) of Members holding at least a majority of the then outstanding (i) Senior Preferred Units shall be required with respect to any matter set forth in Section 4.14(a) and (ii) Junior Preferred Units shall be required with respect to any matter set forth in Section 4.14(b). For the avoidance of doubt, (a) the holders of Preferred Units shall be entitled to vote with respect to such Preferred Units on an as-converted basis, (b) the holders of Warrants shall be entitled to vote with respect to such Warrants on an as-exercised basis, and (c) the holders of Management Incentive Units that are not Vested Management Incentive Units will have no voting rights with respect to such Units.

Section 4.11. Quorum. Except as otherwise required by law or with respect to any matter set forth in Section 4.14, the presence, in person or by proxy, of Members and holders of Warrants representing at least a majority of the total Percentage Interests in the Company shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the Members and holders of Warrants. In case a quorum shall not be present at any meeting, Members and holders of Warrants holding a majority of the Percentage Interests held by Members and holders of Warrants represented thereat, in person or by proxy, shall have the power to adjourn the meeting and call a new meeting in accordance with Section 4.9. For the avoidance of doubt, Preferred Units shall be taken into consideration (on an as-converted basis) and Warrants shall be taken into consideration (on an as-exercised basis) for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at any meeting of Members. For the avoidance of doubt, Management Incentive Units that are not Vested Management Incentive Units shall not be taken into consideration for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at any meeting of Members.

Section 4.12. Notice of Meetings. Subject to Section 4.9, written notice, stating the place, date and time of the meeting, shall be given to each Member, at such Member's address as it appears on the records of the Company, not less than ten (10) Business Days before the date of the meeting (except that notice to any Member may be waived in writing by such Member).

Section 4.13. Action Without a Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any annual or special meeting of Members may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by Members holding the amount of Percentage Interests as otherwise would be required to take such action at a meeting, notice of such action shall be given to those Members who have not so consented in writing to such action without a meeting and such written consent is filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Members.

Section 4.14. Preferred Members Consent Rights.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, so long as there are any Senior Preferred Units outstanding, the Company shall not, and shall cause its Subsidiaries not to (directly or indirectly), without the approval (directly or by proxy) by vote or written consent of holders of at least a majority of the Senior Preferred Units:

(i) create, incur, guarantee or assume any Indebtedness in excess of $25,000,000 in the aggregate for the Company and its Subsidiaries, other than (A) any Indebtedness or guarantees secured or backed by assets of the Company or its Subsidiaries and incurred in the ordinary course of business, (B) Loan Securitizations or (C) Warehouse Facilities (for the avoidance of doubt, any Permitted Indebtedness that is not expressly included as an exception in clauses (A), (B) and (C) above shall be subject to the foregoing approval or written consent requirement);

(ii) issue any Preferred Units or other Company Securities that would rank senior to, or pari passu with, the Senior Preferred Units or redeem, repurchase or otherwise acquire any Company Securities, or declare or make distributions in respect of any Company Securities (other than: (A) Distributions on the Senior Preferred Units or paid-in-kind dividends or distributions on the Junior Preferred Units; (B) redemptions of the Senior Preferred Units contemplated hereby; (C) redemptions or repurchases of Common Units or Management Incentive Units issued prior to the date hereof using proceeds from any offering after the date hereof (including from the Subsequent Offering) in an amount in the aggregate not to exceed $50,000,000; provided that any redemptions or repurchases made pursuant to clause (G) of this paragraph shall concurrently reduce the amount available for redemptions or repurchases under this clause (C); (D) redemptions of Management Incentive Units pursuant to the applicable Company plan and/or agreements governing such Management Incentive Units; (E) issuances of Company Securities, the proceeds of which are used to redeem Senior Preferred Units in accordance with Section 4.3(e) if such redemption is a redemption in whole of the Senior Preferred Units); (F) issuances

of equity by the Company or a Subsidiary of the Company to a wholly-owned direct or indirect subsidiary of the Company); or (G) redemptions or repurchases of Common Units or Management Incentive Units that are, directly or indirectly, owned by Daniel Chu (beneficially or of record) using proceeds from the Subsequent Offering or any other offering after the date hereof for consideration not to exceed $10,000,000 in the aggregate for all such redemptions and repurchases);

(iii) consummate any acquisition, investment, disposition or joint venture transaction (including any Subsidiary equity sale) that would (A) constitute a Senior Preferred Mandatory Redemption Event in which the Senior Preferred Units are not redeemed in accordance with Section 4.3(f), or (B) either alone or in the aggregate with other such transactions would exceed $20,000,000 during the period between September 2, 2021 and the date of such transaction (unless the proceeds of the applicable transaction are used to redeem Senior Preferred Units in accordance with Section 4.3(e) if such redemption is a redemption in whole of the Senior Preferred Units);

(iv) increase or decrease the number of Managers that constitute the Board, except as provided in Section 5.1(c);

(v) amend any of the Governing Documents of the Company or its Subsidiaries (including this Agreement) to the extent such amendment would be adverse to the rights, preferences or privileges of the Senior Preferred Units (for the avoidance of doubt, amendments to Schedule A to reflect the Subsequent Offering shall not be deemed to be adverse);

(vi) initiate any Liquidation Event, Senior Preferred Mandatory Redemption Event or Qualified Financing that would not satisfy the Minimum MOIC;

(vii) discharge any liability on behalf of, or undertake any transactions with, any Related Party, except for (i) transactions in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, or (ii) transactions approved in writing by disinterested members of the Board, in each case upon fair and reasonable terms that are no less favorable to the Company than would be obtained in an arm's length transaction with a non-affiliate; provided, however, that no such transaction or series of transactions of the type contemplated in clause (i) above shall be for a value in excess of $500,000 in the aggregate in any Fiscal Year (excluding, for purposes of this proviso, reimbursements of business expenses in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice and any Related Party transactions otherwise expressly permitted in this Agreement);

(viii) effectuate any Corporate Conversion or enter into any other transaction that would trigger an obligation for any Senior Preferred Member (or Affiliate thereof) to make any filing under the HSR Act;

(ix) permit any Subsidiary to pay any dividend or make any other distribution (in cash or other property) or to pay (in cash or other property) on account of or in redemption or other acquisition of any security of any Subsidiary, other than to the Company or a wholly owned Subsidiary of the Company; provided, however, that this clause shall not restrict any Subsidiary from paying a dividend or making a distribution (on behalf of the Company) that otherwise would be expressly permitted to be paid or made directly by the Company pursuant to this Agreement to any Member, to the extent and in satisfaction of an existing obligation of the Company to such Member; or

(x) authorize or issue any securities of a Subsidiary to any Person other than the Company or a wholly owned Subsidiary of the Company.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, so long as there are any Junior Preferred Units outstanding, the Company shall not, and shall cause its Subsidiaries not to (directly or indirectly), without the approval (directly or by proxy) by vote or written consent of holders of at least a majority of the Junior Preferred Units:

(i) amend any of the Governing Documents of the Company or its Subsidiaries (including this Agreement) to the extent such amendment would be adverse to the rights, preferences or privileges of the Junior Preferred Units (for the avoidance of doubt, amendments to Schedule A to reflect the Subsequent Offering shall not be deemed to be adverse); or

(ii) increase or decrease the number of Junior Preferred Securities (other than as a result of an adjustment required by this Agreement or pursuant to the issuance of Junior Preferred Units in the Subsequent Offering).

(c) The Company shall provide the holders of Preferred Units prompt written notice if the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company (including a significant Subsidiary for which such event constitutes a Bankruptcy Event) (i) becomes the subject of any bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding, (ii) has had a receiver, conservator, trustee, administrator, custodian, assignee for the benefit of creditors or similar Person charged with the reorganization or liquidation of its business appointed for it, or (iii) has taken any action in furtherance of, or indicating its consent to, approval of, or acquiescence in, any such proceeding or appointment.

(d) The Company agrees with the Senior Preferred Members that it shall comply with the provisions of Annex A. For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 4.14(d) and the matters set forth in Annex A are for the benefit of, and only enforceable by, the Senior Preferred Members.

ARTICLE V
MANAGEMENT

Section 5.1. Board of Managers.

(a) The business and affairs of the Company shall be managed by or under the direction of a Board of Managers (the "Board"). Subject to Section 5.1(c), the Board shall be made up of eight members (each a "Manager"), (i) one of which shall be designated by Ganas Investors ("Ganas Manager") for so long as Ganas Investors remains a Member, (ii) two of which shall be designated by Members holding a majority of the Senior Preferred Units ("Senior Preferred Managers"), and (iii) the remaining Managers shall be designated by holders of at least a majority of the total Percentage Interests in the Company; provided, however, one such Manager shall be a Person who is not employed by or consultants to the Company or Ganas Investors or any of their respective Affiliates and who do not serve on the boards or other governing bodies of Ganas Investors or any of its Affiliates. The mailing address of the Person designated as a Manager is set forth in Schedule 5.1 attached hereto.

(b) Each Manager shall hold office (i) until his or her successor is designated by (A) with respect to the Ganas Manager or the Senior Preferred Managers, the nominating Member or Members of such Manager and (B) with respect to any other Manager, holders of at least a majority of the total Percentage Interests in the Company or (ii) until such Manager's earlier death, resignation or removal. Any Manager may be removed, with or without cause, and replaced at any time only by (1) with respect to the Ganas Manager or the Senior Preferred Managers, the nominating Member or Members of such Manager and (2) with respect to any other Manager, holders of at least a majority of the total Percentage Interests in the Company. Managers need not be Members.

(c) In the case of (i) a breach by the Company of any of Sections 4.14(a)(i)-(vi) (inclusive) that the Company fails to cure within 20 Business Days of receipt of written notification of such breach, (ii) following delivery of a Sale Notice, a failure to satisfy clause (i) or (ii) of the definition of Sale Demand Failure, (iii) the occurrence of a Bankruptcy Event, or (iv) a breach of the next sentence of this Section 5.1(c), the number of Managers constituting the Board will be automatically increased by such number to cause designees of the holders of a majority of the Senior Preferred Units then outstanding to constitute the majority of the Managers constituting the Board (each, a "Senior Preferred Board Majority Trigger"); provided, however, that immediately at such time as the event or matter giving rise to the Senior Preferred Board Majority Trigger has been cured, remedied or ceases to exist (including after any applicable cure period set forth above), the number of Managers constituting the Board shall be automatically be reduced to the number of Managers that constituted the Board prior to giving effect to the Senior Preferred Board Majority Trigger and the Managers appointed following such Senior Preferred Board Majority Trigger (including any of their successors) shall automatically be removed from the Board. Promptly (but in any event within five (5) Business Days) upon any officer of the Company or any Subsidiary becoming aware of any event or matter giving rise a Senior Preferred Board Majority Trigger, the Company shall give written notice thereof to the Senior Preferred Members.

Section 5.2. Powers. The Board shall have the power to do any and all acts necessary, convenient or incidental to or for the furtherance of the purposes described herein, including all powers, statutory or otherwise.

Section 5.3. Meetings of the Board. The Board may hold meetings, both regular and special, within or outside the State of Delaware. Except as provided in this paragraph, regular meetings of the Board may be held at such time and at such place as shall from time to time be determined by the Board; provided, however, subject to Section 5.4, notice of such meeting and of its purpose shall have been given to each Manager, and such notice must be given in writing by facsimile, electronic mail or any other means of written communication at least one (1) Business Day prior to the date of such meeting unless such prior notice is waived in writing by the applicable Manager. Special meetings of the Board may be called by the Chief Executive Officer, the Chairman or the President at any time. The Chief Executive Officer, the Chairman, the President or the Secretary shall call a special meeting of the Board upon the written request of any Manager. A special meeting shall be held at such time and place as may be designated by the person or persons calling the meeting. The person or persons calling such special meeting shall cause such notice of the meeting and of its purpose to be given to each Manager, and such notice must be given in writing by facsimile, electronic mail or any other means of written communication at least one (1) Business Day prior to the date of such meeting unless such prior notice is waived in writing by the applicable Manager.

Section 5.4. Quorum; Acts of the Board.

(a) Subject to the provisions of the third sentence of this Section 5.4(a), at all meetings of the Board, a majority of the Managers then in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the act of a majority of the Managers (with each Manager having the right to exercise one vote) shall be the act of the Board; provided, however, that there shall not be a quorum unless at least one Senior Preferred Manager is present at such meeting; provided further, however, that, notwithstanding the foregoing proviso, if a quorum is not present at any meeting of the Board due solely to the absence of a Senior Preferred Manager, then the Board may, in accordance with the next sentence, adjourn the meeting and call a new meeting to be no held no earlier than one (1) Business Day following such adjourned meeting and at such new meeting, a majority of the Managers then in office shall constitute a quorum, whether or not any Senior Preferred Manager is present. Except as set forth in the preceding sentence, if a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of the Board, the Managers present at such meeting may adjourn the meeting and call a new meeting in accordance with Section 5.3. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting upon unanimous written consent thereto in writing; provided, however, that if a proposed action by written consent is delivered to the Board or applicable committee thereof and the Senior Preferred Managers thereto do not consent in writing for any reason within 24 hours thereafter, the Board may call a meeting for the approval of such action to be held at least 24 hours after the expiration of the initial 24 hour consent period, which meeting shall not require that a Senior Preferred Manager is present to establish quorum; provided, further, that if the Senior Preferred Managers affirmatively indicate they will not sign such written consent, the Board may call a meeting for the approval of such action immediately or at any other time, with no restrictions on timing, which meeting shall not require that a Senior Preferred Manager is present to establish quorum. All written consents will be filed with the books and records of the Company.

(b) Except as otherwise set forth herein, the approval of the Board shall be required for all matters required by law and not otherwise in the ordinary course of business or expressly delegated by the Board to Officers or other authorized Persons.

Section 5.5. Electronic Communications. Members of the Board, or any committee designated by the Board, may participate in meetings of the Board, or any committee, by means of telephone or video conference or similar communications equipment that allows all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other, and such participation in a meeting shall constitute presence in person at the meeting. If all the participants are participating by telephone or video conference or similar communications equipment, the meeting shall be deemed to be held at the principal place of business of the Company.

Section 5.6. Vacancies. Any vacancy caused by the death, removal or resignation of any Manager shall be filled by (a) with respect to the death, removal or resignation of the Ganas Manager or the Senior Preferred Managers, the nominating Member or Members of such Manager, and (b) with respect to the death, removal or resignation of any other Manager, holders of at least a majority of the total Percentage Interests in the Company. Any Manager so designated shall hold office until his or her successor is designated or until such Manager's earlier death, resignation or removal.

Section 5.7. Committees of Managers.

(a) The Board may designate one or more committees, each committee to consist of two or more of the Managers of the Company. The Board may designate one or more Managers as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of the committee. All Managers appointed by the Board to any committee shall serve at the pleasure of the Board, and may be removed from such committee, with or without cause, by the Board. All committees designated by the Board may be dissolved by the Board. Each committee shall at all times include as closely as practicable a proportionate number of Senior Preferred Managers (based on the number of Senior Preferred Managers relative to the total number of Managers constituting the Board), and in any event shall always include at least one Senior Preferred Manager.

(b) In the absence or disqualification of a member of a committee, subject to the last sentence of Section 5.7(a), the Board may appoint another member of the Board to fill any committee vacancy or act at the meeting in the place of any such absent or disqualified member.

(c) Any such committee, to the extent provided by resolution of the Board, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board in the management of the business and affairs of the Company. Such committee or committees shall have such name or names as may be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the Board. Each committee shall keep regular minutes of its meetings and report the same to the Board when required. Unless otherwise directed by the Board, all committees shall determine their own organization, procedures and times and places of meetings; provided, however, notice of any meeting and of its purpose shall have been given to each Manager on such committee, and such notice must be given in writing by facsimile, electronic mail or any other means of written communication at least one (1) Business Day prior to the date of such meeting unless such prior notice is waived in writing by the applicable Manager.

(d) The Board may appoint from among its members an Executive Committee which, except as specifically limited by the Board, shall have all the powers and may exercise all the authority of the Board during the intervals between meetings of the Board subject to the terms and limitations of Section 5.7(a), Section 5.7(b), and Section 5.7(c). All acts done and powers conferred by the Executive Committee shall be deemed to be, and may be certified as being, done or conferred under the authority of the Board.

Section 5.8. Compensation of Managers; Expenses. Each Manager who does not receive a salary from the Company or any Affiliate thereof shall be entitled to such compensation as the Board shall determine for his or her service upon the Board and any of its committees, for his or her attendance at meetings of the Board and any of its committees and for his or her expenses incident thereto; provided, however, the Senior Preferred Managers and the Senior Preferred Observers shall be entitled to such reimbursements of his or her fees and expenses as set forth in Section 11.5. No such payment shall preclude any Manager from serving the Company or any Affiliate thereof in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor. Managers shall be entitled to such compensation, as the Board shall determine, for services rendered to the Company or any Affiliate thereof in any capacity other than as Managers.

Section 5.9. Resignation of Managers. Any Manager may resign from the Board by submitting his or her resignation in writing to the Chief Executive Officer, the Chairman, the President or the Secretary, with a copy to the other Managers. Such resignation shall become effective upon its submission or at any later time specified in such resignation.

Section 5.10. Managers Not Agents. Except as specifically provided in this Agreement, no Manager shall have the authority to bind the Company in his or her individual capacity. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, any and all actions of the Board must be taken at a duly authorized meeting of the Board or upon a unanimous written consent of the Managers in accordance with Section 5.4(a).

Section 5.11. Other Activities. Members of the Board and the Members (but excluding any Member or Manager that is an Officer or an employee of the Company and excluding their respective Affiliates) may engage or invest in, and devote their time to, any other business venture or activity of any nature and description (independently or with others), whether or not such other activity may be deemed or construed to be in competition with the Company. Neither the Company nor any Member shall have any right by virtue of this Agreement or the relationship created hereby in or to such other venture or activity of members of the Board or any other Member (or to the income or proceeds derived therefrom), and the pursuit thereof, shall not be deemed wrongful or improper, except for ventures or activities of any Member or Manager that is an Officer or an employee of the Company and of their respective Affiliates. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board shall devote such time to the Company as is reasonably necessary for the proper performance of its obligations and duties hereunder. The obligations of any employee member of the Board set forth in his or her employment agreement shall be in addition to and not in limitation or replacement of the foregoing obligations.

Section 5.12. Officers. The Officers of the Company shall be chosen by the Board or such other Person as delegated such responsibility by the Board or as otherwise provided herein. Any number of offices may be held by the same person. Each Officer shall hold office until his or her successor is elected and qualified or until such Officer's earlier resignation or removal. Any Officer may resign at any time by submitting his or her resignation in writing to the Chief Executive Officer, the Chairman, the President or the Secretary. The Board shall fix the compensation of the Officers as the Board may deem appropriate, and it may award additional compensation to any Officer, agent or employee of the Company for any year or years based upon the performance of that person during any such period, the success of the operations of the Company thereof during any such period or any other reason deemed appropriate. Unless the Board shall otherwise direct, the Chief Executive Officer or his delegate shall fix the compensation of all other Officers, agents or employees of the Company. Any Officer, agent or employee elected or appointed by the Board may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Board. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the Company shall be filled by the Board or such other Person as delegated such responsibility by the Board.

Section 5.13. Chief Executive Officer. The Board shall appoint a Chief Executive Officer. He or she shall be the chief executive officer of the Company and shall have general executive powers concerning all the operations and business of the Company. Subject to Section 5.4, the Chief Executive Officer shall have and exercise such further powers and duties as may be conferred upon, or assigned to, him or her by the Board, and he or she may delegate to any other Officer such executive and other powers and duties as he or she deems advisable. In the event of the absence or disability of the Chief Executive Officer, any other Officer of the Company designated by the Board shall exercise all other powers and authority of the Chief Executive Officer.

Section 5.14. Chairman. The Board shall appoint one of its members to be Chairman. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Board. In the event of the absence or disability of the Chairman, any other Manager designated by the Board shall preside at all meetings of the Board and shall exercise all other powers and authority of the Chairman. Subject to Section 5.4, the Chairman shall have such further powers and duties as may be conferred upon, or assigned to, him or her by the Board. Unless otherwise specified, the Chairman shall not be considered an employee of the Company.

Section 5.15. President. The Board shall appoint a President. Subject to Section 5.4, the President shall have such powers and duties as may be conferred upon, or assigned to, him or her by the Board or the Chief Executive Officer.

Section 5.16. Senior Officers. The Board may appoint one or more senior Officers of the Company, any of whom may be designated as Vice Chairmen or as executive, senior, group or administrative vice presidents or given any other descriptive titles. Subject to Section 5.4, each senior Officer shall have and exercise such powers and duties as may be conferred upon, or assigned to, him or her by the Board or the Chief Executive Officer.

Section 5.17. Secretary; Assistant Secretaries. The Board shall appoint a Secretary. The Secretary shall act as secretary of all meetings of the Board, the Executive Committee and any other committee of the Board, and he or she shall keep minutes of all such meetings. He or she shall give such notice of the meetings as is required by this Agreement. He or she shall be the custodian of the minute book and all other general company records. He or she shall be the custodian of the Company seal, if any, and shall have the power to affix and attest the same, and he or she may delegate such power to one or more Officers, employees or agents of the Company. He or she shall have and exercise such further powers and duties as may be conferred upon, or assigned to, him or her by the Board or the Chief Executive Officer. The Board or the Chief Executive Officer may appoint one or more Assistant Secretaries who shall assist the Secretary in the performance of his or her duties. At the direction of the Secretary or in the event of his or her absence or disability, an Assistant Secretary shall perform the duties of the Secretary. Subject to Section 5.4, each Assistant Secretary shall have and exercise such further powers and duties as may be conferred upon, or assigned to, him or her by the Board, the Chief Executive Officer or the Secretary.

Section 5.18. Treasurer; Assistant Treasurers. The Board shall appoint a Treasurer. Subject to Section 5.4, the Treasurer shall have and exercise such powers and duties as may be conferred upon, or assigned to, him or her by the Board or the Chief Executive Officer. The Board or the Chief Executive Officer may appoint one or more Assistant Treasurers who shall assist the Treasurer in the performance of his or her duties. At the direction of the Treasurer or in the event of his or her absence or disability, an Assistant Treasurer shall perform the duties of the Treasurer. Subject to Section 5.4, each Assistant Treasurer shall have and exercise such further powers and duties as may be conferred upon, or assigned to, him by the Board, the Chief Executive Officer or the Treasurer.

Section 5.19. Other Officers. The Board, or its delegate, may appoint or hire such additional Officers of the Company, who may be designated as vice chairman, vice presidents, assistant vice presidents, officers, assistant officers, or given any other descriptive titles, and may hire such additional employees as it, he or she may deem necessary or desirable to transact the business of the Company, and the Board or such delegate may establish the conditions of employment of any of the persons mentioned above and may fix their compensation and dismiss them. Subject to Section 5.4, such persons shall, respectively, have and exercise such powers and duties as pertain to their several offices or as may be conferred upon, or assigned to, them by the appropriate appointing authority. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no person appointed pursuant to this Section 5.19 shall be deemed an "Officer" for purposes of this Agreement unless such designation is specifically referenced at the time such person is appointed or hired.

Section 5.20. Officers as Agents; Acts of Officers.

(a) The Officers, to the extent of their powers set forth in this Agreement or otherwise vested in them by action of the Board not inconsistent with this Agreement (including Section 4.14 and Section 5.4), are agents of the Company for the purpose of the Company's business and the actions of the Officers taken in accordance with such powers shall bind the Company.

(b) Subject to the provisions of Annex A and Section 4.14, the Officers shall have the express authority to make the following decisions or take the following acts on behalf of the Company or any of its direct or indirect subsidiaries without the prior approval of the Board:

(i) obligate or cause such entity to enter into, amend or modify any credit facility or otherwise incur any indebtedness for borrowed money (or increase the maximum amount that may be borrowed under any existing credit facility) that, combined with the amount of all other credit facilities or indebtedness for borrowed money entered into, amended or modified during the calendar year for which Board approval was not otherwise obtained do not exceed $625,000 in any year or result in aggregate indebtedness of more than $1,500,000, provided that the borrowing of funds under committed lines of credit approved by the Board to fund the working capital needs of the Company or to fund expenditures authorized in any applicable annual operating budget shall not count toward such dollar limitation and provided further that the borrowing of funds under existing debt facilities that were previously approved by the Board shall not require approval of the Board if such debt continues to constitute Permitted Indebtedness;

(ii) cause such entity to make or enter into any transaction or series of related transactions for the acquisition and/or disposition of assets or property or the expansion of existing assets or properties that involves a total purchase price or cost that, combined with the purchase price or cost of all other acquisitions

and/or dispositions during the calendar year for which approval of the Board was not otherwise obtained are less than or equal to $1,750,000 in aggregate;

(iii) engage attorneys, accountants, brokers, agents and advisors for all corporate purposes (in consultation with the Board if the transaction for which such professional is being engaged requires Board approval);

(iv) obtain insurance (other than D&O Insurance) of the types and in amounts that are prudent and customary relative to such entity's assets and operations;

(v) control matters affecting the rights and obligations of such entity, including the conduct of any litigation or arbitration proceedings and incurring of legal expenses and the settlement of claims, arbitration proceedings and litigation (with settlement of any litigation or arbitration proceeding which requires the payment by such Company entity of an amount in excess of $625,000 requiring approval of the Board);

(vi) obligate or cause such entity to open, maintain and close banking and custodial accounts;

(vii) represent any of such entities before any Governmental Authority or regulatory agency and to make all necessary or appropriate filings before such authority or agency;

(viii) obligate or cause such entity to approve, enter into or amend contracts that do not otherwise require approval of the Board; and

(ix) take any actions in the ordinary course of business and such other actions as deemed by the Chief Executive Officer or any other Officer of the Company to be necessary and advisable to carry out the affairs of such entities described in clauses (i) through (viii) above, in any case except to the extent any such actions require the approval of the Board as set forth in this Article V or pursuant to relevant provisions of Delaware law.

Section 5.21. Board Observer. The Members agree that the Members holding a majority of the Senior Preferred Units, collectively, shall have the right to appoint two observers (the "Senior Preferred Observers") to the Board or similar governing body, and any committees of the Board or similar governing body, of the Company and of any Subsidiary. The Senior Preferred Observers shall be entitled to attend (or at the option of the Senior Preferred Observers, monitor by telephone or other electronic meeting method) or, in the case of meeting held telephonically or by other electronic meeting method, join, each meeting of such board or committee, but shall not be entitled to vote on, or consent to or otherwise approve any activity or policy taken or adopted at such meeting and the Company or Subsidiary shall not be under any obligation any obligation to take any action with respect to any proposals made or advice furnished by any Senior Preferred Observer. The Senior Preferred Observers shall receive all reports, meeting materials, notices, written consents, and other materials, including consents in lieu of meetings as and when provided to the members of the Board, or committees of the Board, of the Company and the board of directors or similar governing body, or committees of the board of directors or similar governing body, of any Subsidiary.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Senior Preferred Observers may be excluded from any portion of any such meeting or from receiving any portion of board or committee materials to the extent (a) reasonably necessary to preserve legal privilege, or (b) relating to an actual or potential transaction with respect which any Senior Preferred Manager has recused himself or herself from such meeting on the basis of an actual or potential conflict of interest in connection therewith (it being understood that if a Senior Preferred Observer's right to attend a meeting of the Board, or any committee of the Board, of the Company or the board of directors or similar governing body, or any committee of the board of directors or similar governing body, of any Subsidiary is limited pursuant to this provision, such entity shall, to the extent practicable, notify the Senior Preferred Members of such limitation sufficiently in advance to avoid unnecessary travel to such meeting by such Senior Preferred Observer).

For the avoidance of doubt, in no event shall the Senior Preferred Observers have any fiduciary duties or be considered or deemed to be a director of the Company or any Subsidiary or be required to be present for the purposes of a quorum. The Company shall reimburse the Senior Preferred Observers for the reasonable and documented out-of-pocket travel expenses incurred by the Senior Preferred Observers in connection with the attendance at, or participation in, meetings attended in person by the Senior Preferred Observers. The Senior Preferred Observers, in their capacities as observers to the Board or similar governing body of the Company or any Subsidiary, shall have a duty of confidentiality to the Company and any such Subsidiaries comparable to the duty of confidentiality of any member of the Board or similar governing body of the Company or such Subsidiary.

ARTICLE VI
CAPITAL ACCOUNTS

Section 6.1. Capital Contributions.

(a) Prior to the date of the Original Limited Liability Company Agreement, the Original Member made the Capital Contribution to the Company required to be made by it under the terms of the Original Limited Liability Company Agreement. On September 2, 2021, the Senior Preferred Members made the Capital Contributions to the Company required to be made by them under the terms of the Existing Limited Liability Company Agreement. As of the Effective Date or the applicable date on which a Junior Preferred Member purchases Junior Preferred Units, each other Member made or will make the Capital Contributions in cash or other consideration to the Company set forth opposite its name on Schedule A under the column "Capital Contributions" (each, a "Member Capital Contribution" and collectively, the "Member Capital Contributions"), which Schedule A shall be updated after the Subsequent Offering.

(b) The number of Common Units, Preferred Units, Management Incentive Units and the Percentage Interests of each Member following the Member Capital Contributions is set forth on Schedule A.

Section 6.2. Status of Capital Contributions.

(a) No Member shall receive any interest, salary or drawing with respect to its Capital Contributions or its Capital Account or otherwise in its capacity as a Member, except as otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement with respect to allocations and Distributions.

(b) Except as otherwise expressly provided herein and by the Delaware Act, the Members shall be liable only to make their Member Capital Contributions pursuant to Section 6.1, and no Member shall be required to make any additional Capital Contributions to the Company. Other than as provided herein or under the Delaware Act, no Member shall have any personal liability for the payment of any Capital Contribution of any other Member.

Section 6.3. Capital Accounts.

(a) An individual Capital Account shall be established and maintained for each Member.

(b) The Capital Account of each Member shall be maintained in accordance with the following provisions:

(i) To each Member's Capital Account there shall be credited (A) the amount of money contributed by that Member to the Company, (B) the gross Fair Market Value of property contributed by that Member to the Company (net of liabilities secured by the contributed property that the Company is considered to assume or take subject to under Section 752 of the Code), (C) the amount of any item of income or gain allocated to such Member under Section 7.1, and (D) in the case of a Member receiving an Interest described in Proposed Treasury Regulation Section 1.721-1(b)(3), or any successor provision, the amount included in the Member's compensation income under Section 83(a), 83(b) or 83(d)(2) of the Code;

(ii) To each Member's Capital Account there shall be debited (A) the amount of money distributed to that Member by the Company, (B) the gross Fair Market Value of property distributed to that Member by the Company (net of liabilities secured by the distributed property that the Member is considered to assume or take subject to under Section 752 of the Code), and (C) the amount of any deduction or loss allocated to such Member under Section 7.1.

(c) On the transfer of all or part of a Member's Units, the Capital Account of the transferor that is attributable to the transferred Interest shall carry over to the transferee Member in accordance with the provisions of Treasury Regulation Section 1.704- 1(b)(2)(iv)(l).

(d) In determining the amount of any liability for purposes of paragraphs (b)(i) and (b)(ii) of this Section 6.3, there shall be taken into account Section 752(c) of the Code and any other applicable provisions of the Code and Treasury Regulations.

(e) The foregoing provisions and other provisions of this Agreement relating to the maintenance of Capital Accounts are intended to comply with Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-1(b) and shall be interpreted and applied in a manner consistent with such Treasury Regulations. In the event the Board shall determine that it is prudent to modify the manner in which the Capital Accounts, or any debits or credits thereto (including, without limitation, debits or credits relating to liabilities that are secured by contributed or distributed property or that are assumed by the Company or any of its Members), are computed in order to comply with such Treasury Regulations, the Board may make modifications, provided that such modifications shall be made in a manner that does not alter any Member's right to Distributions pursuant to Article VIII or Article XIII.

Section 6.4. Advances. If any Member shall (subject, for the avoidance of doubt, to Section 4.14) advance any funds to the Company in excess of its Capital Contributions, the amount of such advance shall neither increase its Capital Account nor entitle it to any increase in its share of the Distributions of the Company. The amount of any such advance shall be a debt obligation of the Company to such Member and shall be repaid to it by the Company with such interest rate, conditions and terms as mutually agreed upon by such Member and the Board. Any such advance shall be payable and collectible only out of Company assets, and the other Members shall not be personally obligated to repay any part thereof. No Person who makes any loan to the Company shall have or acquire, as a result of making such loan, any direct or indirect interest in the profits, capital or property of the Company, other than as a creditor.

Section 6.5. Management Incentive Units.

(a) From time to time, the Board shall have the power and discretion to approve (i) the issuance of Units (all such units, "Management Incentive Units" and any such Units, a "Management Incentive Unit") to any Manager, director, employee, Officer, consultant or other service provider of the Company or any of its direct or indirect subsidiaries (each such person, a "Management Member"), (ii) which Management Members shall be offered and issued Management Incentive Units, (iii) the number of Management Incentive Units to be offered and issued to each Management Member and (iv) the purchase price and other terms and conditions with respect thereto. In connection with any approved issuance of Management Incentive Units to a Management Member hereunder, such Management Member, if not a Member on the date of such issuance, shall execute a counterpart to this Agreement, accepting and agreeing to be bound by all terms and conditions hereof, and shall enter into such other documents and instruments to effect such purchase (including a Management Incentive Unit Agreement) as are required by the Board.

(b) The provisions of this Section 6.5 are designed to provide incentives to Managers, directors, employees, Officers or consultants of the Company or its direct or indirect subsidiaries. This Section 6.5, together with the other terms of this Agreement and the Management Incentive Unit Agreements relating to Management Incentive Units, are intended to be a compensatory benefit plan within the meaning of Rule 701 of the Securities Act, and, unless and until the Company's Interests are publicly traded, the issuance of Management Incentive Units are, to the extent permitted by applicable federal securities laws, intended to qualify for the exemption from registration under Rule 701 of the Securities Act.

(c) On the date of each grant of Management Incentive Units to a Management Member, the Board will establish (and document in the applicable Management Incentive Unit Agreement) the "Participation Threshold" amount with respect to each such Management Incentive Unit granted on such date. The Participation Threshold for Management Incentive Units shall mean an amount equal to the Liquidation Value of the Company as of the date of issuance; provided, however, the Participation Threshold shall not be less than zero dollars ($0). The grant of Management Incentive Units that is intended to constitute a Profits Interest to a Management Member is intended to comply with Rev. Proc. 93-27, 1993-2 CB 343 (1993) and Rev. Proc. 2001-43, 2001-2 CB 191 (2001) and shall be interpreted consistently therewith. Immediately upon receipt of Management Incentive Units, the Management Member will have no initial Capital Account balance and Management Incentive Units received shall not entitle such Management Member to any portion of the capital of the Company at the time of such Management Member's admission to the Company as a Member, such that if the Company's assets were sold at Fair Market Value immediately after the grant to such Management Member of Management Incentive Units and the proceeds distributed in complete liquidation of the Company, the Management Incentive Units so received would entitle such Management Member to receive no share of those proceeds. In connection with any issuance of Management Incentive Units, the Capital Accounts of the then existing Members shall be adjusted to reflect the Liquidation Value.

(d) In the event of any Distribution pursuant to Section 8.1, the Participation Threshold of each Management Incentive Unit outstanding at the time of such Distribution shall be reduced (but not below zero) by the amount of such Distribution.

(e) The Management Incentive Units issued to any Management Member shall become vested in accordance with the vesting schedule set forth in the relevant Management Incentive Unit Agreement or, in the absence of a Management Incentive Unit Agreement, as otherwise determined by the Board in connection with the issuance of such Management Incentive Units. Management Incentive Units that are vested per such vesting schedule or by the Board, are referred to herein as "Vested Management Incentive Units."

(f) By executing this Agreement, each Member authorizes and directs the Company to elect to have the "Safe Harbor" described in the proposed Revenue Procedure set forth in Internal Revenue Service Notice 2005-43 (the "IRS Notice") apply to any Interest in the Company transferred to a service provider by the Company on or after the effective date of such Revenue Procedure in connection with services provided to the Company. For purposes of making such Safe Harbor election, the Tax Matters Partner is hereby designated as the "member who has responsibility for federal income tax reporting" by the Company and, accordingly, execution of such Safe Harbor election by the Tax Matters Partner constitutes execution of a "Safe Harbor Election" in accordance with Section 3.03(1) of the IRS Notice. The Company and each Member hereby agree to comply with all requirements of the Safe Harbor described in the IRS Notice, including the requirement that each Member shall prepare and file all federal income tax returns reporting the income tax effects of each "Safe Harbor Partnership Interest" issued by the Company in a manner consistent with the requirements of the IRS Notice. A Member's obligations to comply with the requirements of this Section 6.5(f), shall survive such Member's ceasing to be a Member of the Company and/or the termination, dissolution, liquidation and winding up the Company, and, for purposes of this Section 6.5(f), the Company shall be treated as continuing in existence.

ARTICLE VII
ALLOCATIONS

Section 7.1. Allocations of Profits and Losses.

(a) General Application. For each Fiscal Year (or other allocation period), after giving effect to Section 7.2, the rules set forth below in Section 7.1(b) shall apply for the purpose of determining each Member's allocable share of the items of income, gain, loss and expense of the Company composing Profits and Losses of the Company for such Fiscal Year (or other allocation period), determining special allocations of other items of income, gain, loss and expense, and adjusting the balance of each Member's Capital Account to reflect the aforementioned general and special allocations. For each Fiscal Year (or other allocation period), the special allocations of Section 7.2 shall be made immediately prior to the general allocations of Section 7.1(b).

(b) General Allocations.

(i) Capital Event Allocations. For any Fiscal Year (or other allocation period), Profits or Losses (and, if necessary, gross items of income, gain, loss and deduction) resulting from a Capital Event shall be allocated among the Members in such manner that, as of the end of such Fiscal Year (or other allocation period) and to the greatest extent possible, the Capital Account of each Member shall be equal to the respective net amount, positive or negative, that would be distributed to such Member from the Company or for which such Member would be liable to the Company under this Agreement, determined as if, on the last day of such Fiscal Year (or other allocation period), the Company were to (A) liquidate the assets of the Company for cash at their Gross Asset Value (determined according to the rules of Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)), (B) all Company liabilities were satisfied (limited with respect to each nonrecourse liability within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(b)(3) to the Gross Asset Value of the assets securing such liability), and (C) distribute the remaining proceeds in liquidation in accordance with Section 13.3, minus the sum of (x) the amount, if any, that such Member would be obligated to contribute to the Company immediately after such a hypothetical liquidation, (y) such Member's share of any Member Minimum Gain determined pursuant to Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(g), and (z) such Member's share of Member Nonrecourse Debt Minimum Gain determined pursuant to Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(i)(5), in the case of clauses (y) and (z) as all computed immediately prior to the hypothetical sale described above;

(ii) After taking into account the allocations set forth in Section 7.1(b)(i), for any Fiscal Year (or other allocation period), Profits (and, as set forth expressly below, gross items of income and gain) other than that allocated pursuant to Section 7.1(b)(i) shall be allocated as follows:

(A) First, Profits shall be allocated pro rata to the holders of Common Units until any remaining negative balance in their Capital Accounts has been eliminated;

(B) Second, in the event cash is distributed to the Senior Preferred Members pursuant to Section 8.1(a) or Section 8.1(b) in such period, Profit (and, if necessary, gross items of income and gain) shall be allocated pro rata to the Senior Preferred Members in the amount of such cash;

(C) Third, in the event cash is distributed to the Junior Preferred Members pursuant to Section 8.1(c) or Section 8.1(d) in such period, Profit (and, if necessary, gross items of income and gain) shall be allocated to the Junior Preferred Members in the amount of such cash;

(D) Third, Profit shall be allocated to the Senior Preferred Members in respect of the Senior Preferred Units until the aggregate Capital Accounts of the Senior Preferred Members in respect of the Senior Preferred Units is equal to the Senior Preferred Unit Accumulated Capital Account;

(E) Fourth, Profit shall be allocated to the Junior Preferred Members in respect of the Junior Preferred Units until the aggregate Capital Accounts of the Junior Preferred Members in respect of the Junior Preferred Units is equal to the Junior Preferred Unit Accumulated Capital Account; and

(F) Fifth, Profits shall be allocated to Common Unit Members in respect of Common Units until the aggregate Capital Accounts of the Common Unit Members in respect of Common Units is equal to the Common Unit Accumulated Capital Account.

(iii) For any Fiscal Year (or other allocation period), Losses other than Losses allocated pursuant to Section 7.1(b)(i) shall be allocated as follows:

(A) First, Losses shall be allocated pro rata to the holders of the Common Units in respect of the Common Units until their Capital Accounts are fully depleted;

(B) Second, Losses shall be allocated to the Junior Preferred Members in respect of the Junior Preferred Units until their Capital Accounts are fully depleted; and

(C) Third, Losses shall be allocated to the Senior Preferred Members in respect of the Senior Preferred Units until their Capital Accounts are fully depleted; and

(D) Fourth, Losses shall be allocated pro rata to the holders of the Common Units.

(iv) Loss Limitation. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 7.1(b), the amount of items of Company expense and loss allocated pursuant to this Section 7.1(b) to any Member shall not exceed the maximum amount of such items that can be allocated without causing such Member to have an Adjusted Capital Account Deficit. All such items in excess of the limitation set forth in this Section 7.1(b)(iv) shall be allocated first to Members who would not have an Adjusted Capital Account Deficit, pro rata, in proportion to their Capital Accounts, adjusted as provided in clauses (a) and (b) of the definition of "Adjusted Capital Account Deficit," until no Member would be entitled to any further allocation.

(v) No Deficit Restoration Obligation. At no time during the term of the Company or upon dissolution and liquidation hereof shall a Member with a negative balance in its Capital Account have any obligation to the Company or the other Members to restore such negative balance, except as may be required by law or in respect of any negative balance resulting from a withdrawal of capital or dissolution in contravention of this Agreement.

Section 7.2. Special Allocations. The following special allocations shall be made in the following order:

(a) Minimum Gain Chargeback. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article VII, if there is a net decrease in Company Minimum Gain during any Fiscal Year, each Member shall be specially allocated items of Company income and gain for such year (and, if necessary, subsequent years) equal to such Member's share of the net decrease in Company Minimum Gain, determined in accordance with Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(g)(2); provided that a Member shall not be subject to this Section 7.2(a) to the extent that an exception is provided by Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(f)(2)-(5). This Section 7.2(a) is intended to comply with the minimum gain chargeback requirement in Treasury Regulation Section 1.704- 2(f) and shall be interpreted consistently therewith.

(b) Member Nonrecourse Liability Minimum Gain Chargeback. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 7.2 except Section 7.2(a), if there is a net decrease in Member Minimum Gain attributable to a Member Nonrecourse Liability during any Fiscal Year, each Member who has a share of the Member Minimum Gain attributable to such Member Nonrecourse Liability (determined in accordance with Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(i)(5)) as of the beginning of the year shall be specially allocated items of Company income and gain for such year (and, if necessary, subsequent years) equal to such Member's share of the net decrease in Member Minimum Gain attributable to such Member Nonrecourse Liability. A Member's share of the net decrease in Member Minimum Gain shall be determined in accordance with Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(i)(4); provided that a Member shall not be subject to this provision to the extent that an exception is provided by Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(i)(4). This Section 7.2(b) is intended to comply with the minimum gain chargeback requirement in Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(i)(4) and shall be interpreted consistently therewith.

(c) Qualified Income Offset. In the event any Member unexpectedly receives any adjustments, allocations or distributions described in Treasury Regulation Section 1.704- 1(b)(2)(ii)(d)(4), 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d)(5) or 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d)(6) resulting in an Adjusted Capital Account Deficit, items of Company income and gain (consisting of a pro rata portion of each item of Company income, including gross income, and gain for the Fiscal Year) shall be specially allocated to each such Member in an amount and manner sufficient to eliminate, to the extent required by the Treasury Regulation, the Adjusted Capital Account Deficit of such Member created by such adjustments, allocations or distributions as quickly as possible; provided that an allocation pursuant to this Section 7.2(c) shall be made if and only to the extent that such Member would have an Adjusted Capital Account Deficit after all other allocations provided for in this Section 7.2 have been tentatively made as if this Section 7.2(c) were not in this Agreement. This Section 7.2(c) is intended to comply with the qualified income offset requirement in Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d) and shall be interpreted consistently therewith.

(d) Gross Income Allocation. In the event any Member has an Adjusted Capital Account Deficit at the end of any Fiscal Year that is in excess of the sum of (i) the amount such Member is obligated to restore pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or otherwise, and (ii) the amount such Member is deemed to be obligated to restore pursuant to the penultimate sentence of each of Treasury Regulation Sections 1.704-2(g)(1) and 1.704-2(i)(5), each such Member shall be specially allocated items of Company income and gain in the amount of such excess as quickly as possible, provided that an allocation pursuant to this Section 7.2(d) shall be made if and only to the extent that such Member would have an Adjusted Capital Account Deficit in excess of such sum after all other allocations provided for in this Section 7.2 have been tentatively made as if Section 7.2(c) and this Section 7.2(d) were not in this Agreement.

(e) Member Nonrecourse Deductions. If any Member bears the Economic Risk of Loss with respect to a Member Nonrecourse Liability, any Member Nonrecourse Deductions for any Fiscal Year shall be specially allocated to the Member who bears the Economic Risk of Loss with respect to the Member Nonrecourse Liability to which such Member Nonrecourse Deductions are attributable in accordance with Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(i).

(f) Curative Allocations. The allocations set forth in Sections 7.2(a) through 7.2(e) (the "Regulatory Allocations") are intended to comply with certain requirements of Treasury Regulations Sections 1.704-1(b) and 1.704-2. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 7.1, the Regulatory Allocations shall be taken into account in allocating other items of income, gain, loss and deduction among the Members so that, to the extent possible, the net amount of such allocations of other items and the Regulatory Allocations to each Member shall be equal to the net amount that would have been allocated to each Member if the Regulatory Allocations had not occurred.

Section 7.3. Tax Allocations; Section 704(c) of the Code.

(a) In accordance with Section 704(c) of the Code and the Treasury Regulations thereunder, income, gain, loss and deduction with respect to any property contributed to the capital of the Company shall, solely for income tax purposes, be allocated among the Members so as to take account of any variation between the adjusted basis of such property to the Company for United States federal income tax purposes and its initial Gross Asset Value (computed in accordance with paragraph (a) of the definition of "Gross Asset Value" contained in Section 1.1). Such variation shall be taken into account under the "traditional method" of Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-3(b).

(b) In the event of a Revaluation Event, subsequent allocations of income, gain, loss and deduction with respect to such asset shall, solely for income tax purposes, take account of any variation between the adjusted basis of such asset for United States federal income tax purposes and its Gross Asset Value in the same manner as under Section 704(c) of the Code and the Treasury Regulations thereunder.

(c) Allocations pursuant to this Section 7.3 are solely for purposes of United States federal, state and local taxes, and shall not affect, or in any way be taken into account in computing, any Member's Capital Account or share of Profits, Losses, other items or distributions pursuant to any provision of this Agreement.

Section 7.4. Allocation Rules.

(a) In the event there is a change in the respective Percentage Interests of Members during the year, the Profits (or Losses) allocated to the Members for each Fiscal Year during which there is a change in the respective Percentage Interests of Members during the year shall be allocated among the Members in proportion to the Percentage Interests during such Fiscal Year in accordance with Section 706 of the Code, using any convention permitted by law and selected by the Board.

(b) For purposes of determining the Profits, Losses or any other items allocable to any period, Profits, Losses and any such other items shall be determined on a daily, monthly or other basis, as determined by the Board using any method that is permissible under Section 706 of the Code and the Treasury Regulations thereunder.

(c) The Members are aware of the income tax consequences of the allocations made by this Article VII and hereby agree to be bound by the provisions of this Article VII in reporting their shares of Company income, gain, loss, deduction and credit for income tax purposes.

ARTICLE VIII
DISTRIBUTIONS

Section 8.1. Distributions; Special Distribution. Subject to the requirements of Section 4.3 and the applicable terms of the Warrants, the Board may declare and make Distributions of Cash Available for Distribution from time to time in the following order of priority:

(a) First, to each of the Senior Preferred Members, pro rata in accordance with the percentage of Senior Preferred Units held by such Senior Preferred Member, until the Senior Preferred Members have received in respect of each such Senior Preferred Unit cumulative Distributions pursuant to this Section 8.1(a) equal to all accrued but unpaid Preferred Cash Distributions accrued pursuant to Section 4.3(b);

(b) Second, without duplication of Section 8.1(a), to each of the Senior Preferred Members, pro rata in accordance with the percentage of Senior Preferred Units held by such Senior Preferred Member, until each Senior Preferred Member has received the Preferred Redemption Price in respect of each Senior Preferred Unit held by such Senior Preferred Member;

(c) Third, subject to the prior payment in full of the Senior Preferred Units pursuant to Section 8.1(a) and Section 8.1(b), to each of the Junior Preferred Members, pro rata in accordance with the percentage of Junior Preferred Units held by such Junior Preferred Member, until the Junior Preferred Members have received in respect of each such Junior Preferred Unit cumulative Distributions pursuant to this Section 8.1(c) equal to all accrued but unpaid Preferred Cash Distributions accrued pursuant to Section 4.3(b);

(d) Fourth, subject to the prior payment in full of the Senior Preferred Units pursuant to Section 8.1(a) and Section 8.1(b), without duplication of Section 8.1(c), to each of the Junior Preferred Members, pro rata in accordance with the percentage of Junior Preferred Units held by such Junior Preferred Member, until each Junior Preferred Member has received the Preferred Redemption Price in respect of each Junior Preferred Unit held by such Junior Preferred Member;

(e) Fifth, subject to the prior payment in full of the Preferred Units pursuant to Section 8.1(a) through (d) or otherwise, to each of the Common Unit Members, pro rata in accordance with the percentage of Common Units held by such Common Unit Member, an amount equal to the excess, if any, of (i) the sum of the amount of cash consideration, the principal amount of any promissory note or the value of any non-cash consideration contributed by such Member as a Member Capital Contribution pursuant to Section 6.1(a) plus any additional Capital Contributions made by such Member in accordance with this Agreement, over (ii) the sum of all prior Distributions to such Member pursuant to this Section 8.1(e); and

(f) Sixth, to each of the holders of Participating Units pro rata in accordance with the number of Participating Units held by such holder as compared to all outstanding Participating Units.

For the avoidance of doubt, if the amount to be distributed pursuant to Section 8.1 with respect to any particular Distribution for a Management Incentive Unit exceeds the amount of the Participation Threshold of such outstanding Management Incentive Unit (determined immediately prior to such Distribution), then such Management Incentive Unit shall constitute, subject to any other vesting terms applicable to such Management Incentive Units, Participating Units for purposes of Section 8.1 only after a portion of the amount to be distributed in such Distribution equal to the Participation Threshold of such Management Incentive Unit has first been distributed to the holders of outstanding Units (including outstanding Management Incentive Units, if any, that have lesser Participation Thresholds (determined immediately prior to such Distribution)).

Section 8.2. Mandatory Tax Distributions. With respect to each Fiscal Year, the Company shall distribute to the Members each fiscal quarter, to the extent of Cash Available for Distribution, amounts intended to enable the Members to discharge their United States federal, state and local income tax liabilities arising from the allocations made pursuant to Article VII (each, a "Tax Distribution"). The amount of any such Tax Distribution shall be determined by the Board in its reasonable discretion taking into account (a) the maximum combined United States and state tax rate applicable to individuals or corporations (whichever is higher) on ordinary income and net short-term capital gain or on net long-term capital gain, as applicable, and taking into account the deductibility of state and local income taxes for United States federal income tax purposes (and the deductibility of local income taxes for state tax purposes, if applicable), (b) the amounts so allocated pursuant to Article VII to such Member and (c) Distributions previously made to Members pursuant to Section 8.1 or this Section 8.2 during the Fiscal Year for which such Tax Distribution is being made, and otherwise based on such reasonable assumptions as the Board determines in good faith to be appropriate. Tax Distributions shall be made to the Members pro rata in accordance with their respective allocation of items of gain or income, and shall be treated as advances with respect to amounts otherwise to be received by such Members pursuant to this Article VIII; provided, however, that if the Board determines in its reasonable discretion that the amount of Cash Available for Distribution is insufficient to discharge the United States federal, state and local income tax liabilities of all Members with respect to the applicable fiscal quarter, Tax Distributions for such fiscal quarter shall be made first to the Preferred Members on a preferred basis prior and in preference to any Tax Distribution to any other Members. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 8.2, for so long as any Senior Preferred Unit remains outstanding, no Tax Distribution shall be made to any Member (other than a Senior Preferred Member) unless and until the Preferred Minimum Cash Distribution for the applicable fiscal quarter and all prior fiscal quarters has been paid in full to the Senior Preferred Members.

Section 8.3. Limitations on Distribution. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the Company shall not make any Distribution if such Distribution would violate Section 18-607 of the Delaware Act or other applicable law, but shall instead make such Distribution as soon as practicable after the making of such Distribution would not cause such violation.

ARTICLE IX
BOOKS AND RECORDS

Section 9.1. Books, Records and Financial Statements.

(a) The Company shall at all times maintain, at its principal place of business, separate books of account for the Company that shall show a true and accurate record of all costs and expenses incurred, all charges made, all credits made and received and all income derived in connection with the operation of the Company in accordance with GAAP consistently applied, and, to the extent inconsistent therewith, in accordance with this Agreement. Such books of account, together with a copy of this Agreement and the Certificate, shall at all times be maintained at the principal place of business of the Company and shall be open to inspection and examination at reasonable times by each Manager, Board observer, Common Unit Member, Preferred Member and holder of Warrants and their respective duly authorized representatives for any purpose reasonably related to such Person's Interest in the Company.

(b) The Company shall cooperate and make the Officers available to any Common Unit Member, Preferred Member or holder of Warrants and their respective representatives, as reasonably necessary, in connection with the preparation of any annual independent third party appraisal of the Company by such Person.

(c) The Officers shall prepare and maintain, or cause to be prepared and maintained, the books of account of the Company. The following financial information, prepared in accordance with GAAP (or, in the case of clauses (iii) and (v) below, in accordance with United States federal income tax principles) and applied on a basis consistent with prior periods, which shall be audited (in the case of clauses (i), (ii) and (iv) below), shall be transmitted by the Company to each Common Unit Member, Preferred Member and holder of Warrants as soon as reasonably practicable and in no event later than one hundred twenty (120) days after the close of each Fiscal Year:

(i) balance sheet of the Company as of the beginning and close of such Fiscal Year;

(ii) statement of profits and losses for such Fiscal Year;

(iii) statement of each Member's Capital Account as of the close of such Fiscal Year, and changes therein during such Fiscal Year;

(iv) statement of the Company's cash flows during such Fiscal Year; and

(v) a statement indicating such Member's share of each item of the Company income, gain, loss, deduction or credit for such Fiscal Year for income tax purposes, which statement shall include or consist of a Schedule K-1 to the Company's Internal Revenue Service Form 1065 (or any corresponding schedule to any successor form) for such Fiscal Year; provided that, if the information described in this clause (v) has not previously been delivered to the Members for such Fiscal Year, the Company shall provide within ninety (90) days after the close of such Fiscal Year a report to each Member or former Member (or its successor or legal representative) containing estimates of such Member's allocable share of Company income, gain, loss, deduction or credit for such Fiscal Year for income tax purposes.

(d) At least thirty (30) days prior to the start of each Fiscal Year, the Company shall prepare and deliver to each Common Unit Member, Preferred Member and holder of Warrants (i) a copy of the estimated annual tax projections for the upcoming Fiscal Year, and (ii) an annual budget for the upcoming Fiscal Year.

(e) Following the end of each of the Company's four (4) fiscal quarters, the Company shall prepare and provide to each Common Unit Member, Preferred Member and holder of Warrants within sixty (60) days of the end of each quarter a report, which report shall be unaudited and set forth a description of the business activities that took place during such quarter, set forth the operating and financial results of the Company for such quarter.

(f) Within five (5) Business Days of the delivery of the quarterly and annual financial information required by Section 9.1(c) and Section 9.1(e), the Company will conduct a meeting (which such meeting may be a telephonic or video meeting, at the election of Company) of the Preferred Members to discuss the most recently reported financial results and the financial condition of the Company and its Subsidiaries, at which there shall be present the chief financial officer and such other officers of the Company as may be reasonably requested to attend by the Preferred Members, such request or requests to be made at a reasonable time prior to the scheduled date of such meeting. Such meetings shall be held at a time and place convenient to the Preferred Members and to Company.

(g) Following the end of each month during each Fiscal Year, the Company shall prepare and provide to each Common Unit Member, Preferred Member and holder of Warrants within ten (10) days of the end of each month a monthly report, which report shall be unaudited and set forth the operating and financial results of the Company for such month.

(h) Within sixty (60) days of the end of each of the Company's four (4) fiscal quarters, to the extent otherwise prepared by management in writing, the Company shall provide to each Common Unit Member, Preferred Member and holder of Warrants a management discussion and analysis of any material issues, events or developments that occurred during such quarter.

(i) Notwithstanding any contrary provision in this Agreement or under applicable law, no Management Member (who is not also a Common Unit Member or Preferred Member) shall share in the rights granted to Common Unit Members and Preferred Members in this Section 9.1 or under Section 18-305 of the Delaware Act.

Section 9.2. Accounting Method. For both financial and tax reporting purposes and for purposes of determining Profits and Losses, the books and records of the Company shall be kept on the accrual method of accounting and shall reflect all Company transactions and be appropriate and adequate for the Company's business.

ARTICLE X
TAX MATTERS; REGISTRATION RIGHTS

Section 10.1. Tax Matters.

(a) For taxable years ending prior to January 1, 2018, the "Tax Matters Partner" of the Company for purposes of Section 6231(a)(7) of the Code shall have the power to manage and control, on behalf of the Company, any administrative proceeding at the Company level with the Internal Revenue Service or any other taxing authority relating to the determination of any item of Company income, gain, loss, deduction or credit for United States federal, state, local or foreign income or franchise tax purposes. The Tax Matters Partner shall take such action as may be reasonably necessary to constitute each other Member a "notice partner" within the meaning of Section 6231(a)(8) of the Code. The Tax Matters Partner shall cause to be prepared for each taxable year of the Company the federal, state and local tax returns and information returns, if any, which the Company is required to file, copies of which returns shall be made available by the Company at least thirty (30) days prior to filing for inspection, examination, and approval by any Member or any of its representatives during reasonable business hours, and all of such persons shall be entitled to make copies or extracts thereof. The Members shall provide any comments on such returns to the Tax Matters Partner within fifteen (15) days after their being made available to the Members. Where the Members are required to file federal, state or local income tax returns by reason of their Interests in the Company, the Tax Matters Partner shall cause them to be furnished with the relevant returns filed by the Company. The Tax Matters Partner shall notify each other Member of all material matters that come to its attention in its capacity as Tax Matters Partner. The Tax Matters Partner shall not have the authority to bind any of the Members, including with respect to any extension of any statute of limitations. The Tax Matters Partner shall be Ganas Investors. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, for taxable periods beginning on or after January 1, 2018, the Tax Matters Partner shall continue to act as the partnership representative (the "Partnership Representative") for the Company pursuant to section 6223 of the Code (as enacted and/or adopted by section 1101 of the Bipartisan Budget Act of 2015 (the "Budget Act")) and shall adopt, subject to the mutual consent of the Members, amendments to this Section 10.1(a) that comply with and implement the provisions of Section 1101 of the Budget Act, as amended from time to time. In the event that the Partnership Representative is an entity, the Partnership Representative must appoint a designated individual (the "Designated Individual"). All of the rights and obligations of the Tax Matters Partner under this Agreement shall inure to the Partnership Representative and Designated Individual, as applicable.

(b) If the Company receives a notice of final partnership adjustment from the Internal Revenue Service to which the provisions of section 1101 of the Budget Act are applicable, the Partnership Representative shall cause the Company to (i) elect the application of section 6226 of the Code, as amended by section 1101 of the Budget Act, with respect to any imputed underpayment arising from such adjustment, and (ii) furnish to each Member a statement of such Member's share of any adjustment to income, gain, loss, deduction, or credit (as determined in the notice of final partnership adjustment). Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Company shall not make any election pursuant to section 1101(g) of the Budget Act to cause Sections 6221-6241 of the Code (as amended by the Budget Act) to apply to any tax year of the Company beginning prior to January 1, 2018.

(c) If the Company is the subject of an audit by any United States federal, state, local or foreign taxing authority, the Tax Matters Partner or the Partnership Representative, as applicable, (i) shall promptly notify each Member of any administrative or judicial proceeding with respect to the Company; (ii) shall promptly furnish each Member with any material correspondence or communication relating to the Company from the Internal Revenue Service or any state, local or foreign taxing authority received by the Tax Matters Partner; and (iii) shall not settle any material action relating to the tax affairs of the Company without each Member's consent (not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed). Without limitation of the foregoing, the Company shall, within ten (10) days of the receipt of any notice from the Internal Revenue Service or any state, local or foreign tax authority in any administrative proceeding at the Company level relating to the determination of any Company item of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit, mail a copy of such notice to each Member.

Section 10.2. Right to Make Section 754 Election. The Tax Matters Partner may, in its sole discretion, make or apply for permission with the Commissioner of the Internal Revenue Service to revoke, on behalf of the Company, an election in accordance with Section 754 of the Code, so as to adjust the basis of Company property in the case of a distribution of property within the meaning of Section 734 of the Code, and in the case of a transfer of a Company Interest within the meaning of Section 743 of the Code; provided that, the Tax Matters Partner shall make such election upon the request of the BlackRock Investors. Each Member shall, upon request of the Company, supply the information necessary to give effect to such an election.

Section 10.3. Taxation as a Partnership. The Company shall be treated as a partnership for United States federal, state, local and foreign tax purposes and will make any necessary elections to achieve such status, unless the Company undertakes to change such status in connection with a Qualified Public Offering. Except in connection with a Qualified Public Offering, this Section 10.3 cannot be amended, waived or otherwise modified without prior consent of the Preferred Members.

Section 10.4. Tax Withholding. The Company shall comply with any withholding requirements under any law and shall remit amounts withheld to and file required forms with applicable taxing authorities. To the extent that the Company is required to withhold and pay over any amounts to any taxing authority with respect to Distributions or allocations to any Member or any holder of currently exercisable Warrants, the amount withheld shall be treated as a distribution of cash to such Member or such holder of currently exercisable Warrants in the amount of such withholding; provided, however, that the Company shall provide written notice to such Member or such holder of currently exercisable Warrants within a reasonable time prior to such withholding and shall work in good faith with such Member or such holder of currently exercisable Warrants to reduce any such withholding.

Section 10.5. Tax Treatment of the Warrants. Solely for U.S. federal, state and local tax purposes, a holder of currently exercisable Warrants shall be treated as a "partner" within the meaning of Section 761(b) of the Code (and any analogous provision of state and local law) and as the owner of the Common Units underlying such Warrants, references to "Member" or "Members" shall include holders of Warrants to the extent necessary to give full effect thereto and the Warrant Agreement shall constitute and be treated as a part of this Agreement.

Section 10.6. Registration Rights. The terms governing the registration rights of holders of Preferred Units and the Warrants are set forth in the Registration Rights Agreement.

Section 10.7. Qualified Financing Sales. Each holder of Senior Preferred Units and/or Warrants may sell up to the greater of (i) the amount (but only such amount) required to reduce such holder's equity interest (taken together with all Affiliated holders of Preferred Units and Warrants) (on an as-converted basis) to less than 9.9% of the Company's common equity and (ii) 37.5% of such holder's equity interests (on an as-converted basis), in each case at the time of a Qualified Financing or any time thereafter. If so requested by holders of Senior Preferred Units or Warrants to effect the foregoing, the Company shall redeem a sufficient amount of such holder's equity securities at the time of the Qualified Financing and at the price per Common Unit applicable in the Qualified Financing and/or permit such holders to participate as a seller of their applicable equity securities in such Qualified Financing. All equity interests not sold pursuant to the foregoing shall be subject to the same lock-up period as all other equity holders (not to exceed 180 days) in the event of a Qualified Financing that is a Qualified Public Offering or a SPAC Transaction.

ARTICLE XI
LIABILITY, EXCULPATION AND INDEMNIFICATION

Section 11.1. Liability. Except as otherwise provided by the Delaware Act, the debts, obligations and liabilities of the Company, whether arising in contract, tort or otherwise, shall be solely the debts, obligations and liabilities of the Company, and no Covered Person or Member shall be obligated personally for any such debt, obligation or liability of the Company solely by reason of being a Covered Person or Member.

Section 11.2. Exculpation.

(a) No Covered Person shall be liable to the Company or any Member for any loss, damage or claim incurred by reason of any act or omission performed or omitted by such Covered Person in good faith on behalf of the Company and in a manner reasonably believed to be within the scope of authority conferred on such Covered Person by this Agreement, the Board or an appropriate Officer or employee of the Company, except that a Covered Person shall be liable for any such loss, damage or claim incurred by reason of such Covered Person's gross negligence, fraud, willful misconduct or breach of any duty owed to the Company or its Members.

(b) A Covered Person shall be fully protected in relying in good faith upon the records of the Company and upon such information, opinions, reports or statements presented to the Company by any Person as to matters the Covered Person reasonably believed to be within such other Person's professional or expert competence, including information, opinions, reports or statements as to the value and amount of the assets, liabilities, Profits or Losses or any other facts pertinent to the existence and amount of assets from which distributions to Members might properly be paid.

Section 11.3. Fiduciary Duty.

(a) In the exercise of rights and performance of duties hereunder, solely to the extent such Persons are not an Officer of the Company, each Member (in such Member's capacity as a Member), each Manager (in such Manager's capacity as a Manager), each Board observer (including any Senior Preferred Observer) and any committee of the Board and member of any committee of the Board, shall, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, have no fiduciary duties to the Company or to any other Member. For purposes of clarity, and notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, any Manager that is also an Officer (a "Fiduciary Manager"), the Officers and other employees of the Company shall owe fiduciary duties to the Company and all of the Members as a whole (and not to any other Member or subset of Members) of the same kind and to the same extent such Managers, Officers and employees would owe fiduciary duties to the Company and its Members if the Company were a corporation formed under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware and its Members were shareholders of the Company.

(b) Except as otherwise provided herein to the contrary and other than with respect to any Fiduciary Manager, to the fullest extent permitted by the Delaware Act, a person, in performing his duties and obligations as a Manager under this Agreement, shall be entitled to act or omit to act at the direction of, or in a manner that such Manager believes is in the best interest of, the Member(s) that designated such person to serve as a Manager, considering only such factors, including the separate interests of the designating Member(s), as such Manager or Member(s) choose to consider, and any action of a Manager or failure to act shall not, as between the Company and the other Member(s), on the one hand, and the Manager or Member(s) designating such Manager, on the other hand, constitute a breach of any duty (including any fiduciary or other similar duty, to the extent such exists under the Delaware Act or any other applicable law) on the part of such Manager or Member(s) to the Company or any other Manager or Member of the Company.

(c) The Members (and the Members on behalf of the Company) hereby: (i) agree that (A) the terms of this Section 11.3, to the extent that they modify or limit a duty or other obligation, if any, that a Manager may have (it being acknowledged and agreed that no such modification or limitation shall apply to any duty or obligation of a Fiduciary Manager) to the Company or any Member under the Delaware Act or other applicable law are reasonable in form, scope and content, and (B) the terms of this Section 11.3 shall control to the fullest extent possible if it is in conflict with a duty, if any, that a Manager may have to the Company or any Member, under the Delaware Act or any other applicable law; and (ii) waive to the fullest extent permitted by the Delaware Act any duty or other obligation, if any, that a Manager (other than a Fiduciary Manager) may have to the Company or any Member, pursuant to the Delaware Act or any other applicable law, to the extent necessary to give effect to the terms of this Section 11.3.

Section 11.4. Indemnification. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, each Member and each Covered Person shall be entitled to indemnification from the Company for any loss, damage or claim incurred by such Member or Covered Person by reason of any act or omission performed or omitted by such Member or Covered Person in good faith on behalf of the Company and in a manner reasonably believed to be within the scope of authority conferred on such Member or Covered Person by this Agreement, except that no Member or Covered Person shall be entitled to be indemnified in respect of any loss, damage or claim incurred by reason of such Member's or Covered Person's gross negligence, fraud, willful misconduct or breach of any duty owed to the Company or its Members; provided, however, that any indemnity under this Section 11.4 shall be provided out of and to the extent of Company assets only, and no Covered Person shall have any personal liability on account thereof.

Section 11.5. Expenses. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, reasonable expenses (including reasonable legal fees) incurred by each Member and each Covered Person in defending any claim, demand, action, suit or proceeding shall, from time to time, be advanced by the Company prior to the final disposition of such claim, demand, action, suit or proceeding upon receipt by the Company of an undertaking by or on behalf of the Member or Covered Person to repay such amount if it shall be determined that the Member or Covered Person is not entitled to be indemnified as authorized in Section 11.4. The Company shall reimburse any Senior Preferred Manager and any Senior Preferred Observer for the reasonable and documented out-of-pocket travel expenses incurred by the Senior Preferred Manager in connection with the attendance at, or participation in, meetings attended in person by such Senior Preferred Manager or Senior Preferred Observer in accordance with Section 5.21, and the Senior Preferred Members for all fees and expenses incurred by the Senior Preferred Members in connection with amending or modifying this Agreement or any related documentation.

Section 11.6. Insurance. The Company shall purchase and maintain directors and officers insurance ("D&O Insurance"), to the extent and in such amounts as the Board shall deem reasonable or appropriate, on behalf of Members and Covered Persons and such other Persons as the Board shall determine, against any liability that may be asserted against or expenses that may be incurred by any such Person in connection with the activities of the Company or such indemnities, regardless of whether the Company would have the power to indemnify such Person against such liability under the provisions of this Agreement. The Members and the Company may enter into indemnity contracts with Members, Covered Persons and such other Persons as the Board shall determine and adopt written procedures pursuant to which arrangements are made for the advancement of expenses and the funding of obligations under Section 11.5 and containing such other procedures regarding indemnification as are appropriate.

Section 11.7. Outside Businesses. Any Member or Manager (but excluding any Member or Manager that is an Officer or an employee of the Company and excluding their respective Affiliates) or Affiliate thereof (but excluding Affiliates of any Member or Manager that is an Officer or an employee of the Company and excluding their respective Affiliates) may engage in or possess an interest in other business ventures of any nature or description, independently or with others, similar or dissimilar to the business of the Company, and the Company and the Members shall have no rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures or the income or profits derived therefrom, and the pursuit of any such venture, even if competitive with the business of the Company, shall not be deemed wrongful or improper. No Member, Manager or Affiliate thereof (but excluding Members and Managers that are an Officer or an employee of the Company and excluding their respective Affiliates) shall be obligated to present any particular investment opportunity to the Company even if such opportunity is of a character that, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and any Member, Manager or Affiliate thereof (but excluding Members and Managers that are an Officer or an employee of the Company and excluding their respective Affiliates) shall have the right to take for its own account (individually or as a partner or fiduciary) or to recommend to others any such particular investment opportunity. The provisions of this Section 11.7 shall not in any way limit, modify or amend the terms of any noncompetition, license or employment agreement that may be entered into between the Company and any Member, which terms shall be binding on the parties thereto.

Section 11.8. Primary Indemnitor. The Company hereby acknowledges that the Senior Preferred Members, the Senior Preferred Managers and the Senior Preferred Observers (the "Fund Indemnitees") each has certain rights to indemnification, advancement of expenses and/or insurance provided by the BlackRock Investors and certain of its Affiliates (collectively, the "Fund Indemnitors"). The Company hereby agrees (a) that it is the indemnitor of first resort (i.e., its obligations to the Fund Indemnitees are primary and any obligation of the Fund Indemnitors to advance expenses or to provide indemnification for the same expenses or liabilities incurred by such Persons are secondary), (b) that it shall be required to advance the full amount of expenses incurred by each of the Fund Indemnitees and shall be liable for the full amount of all expenses, judgments, penalties, fines and amounts paid in settlement to the extent legally permitted and as required by the terms of this Agreement and the Certificate of Formation of the Company (or any other agreement between the Company and such Persons), without regard to any rights any such Persons may have against the Fund Indemnitors, and (c) that it irrevocably waives, relinquishes and releases the Fund Indemnitors from any and all claims against the Fund Indemnitors for contribution, subrogation or any other recovery of any kind in respect thereof. The Company further agrees that no advancement or payment by the Fund Indemnitors on behalf of any of the Fund Indemnitees with respect to any claim for which such Person has sought indemnification from the Company shall affect the foregoing and the Fund Indemnitors shall have a right of contribution and/or be subrogated to the extent of such advancement or payment to all of the rights of recovery of the Fund Indemnitees, as applicable, against the Company. The Company and the Members hereby agree that the Fund Indemnitors are express third party beneficiaries of the terms of this Section 11.8.

ARTICLE XII
TRANSFERS OF INTERESTS

Section 12.1. Transfers.

(a) No Member or Assignee may Transfer all or any portion of its Interest (or beneficial interest therein), except in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. Any purported Transfer which is not in accordance with this Agreement shall be null and void.

(b) Notwithstanding any contrary provision in this Agreement:

(i) any Member shall be permitted to Transfer all or any portion of its Eligible Units (or beneficial interest therein) pursuant to and in accordance with Section 12.8;

(ii) any Member shall be permitted to Transfer all or any portion of its Eligible Units (or beneficial interest therein) to any Affiliate of such Member without complying with any provisions of this Article XII other than Section 12.2, so long as at all times thereafter the Transferee remains an Affiliate of such Member; provided, however, that with respect to any transfers to Affiliates contemplated in this clause (ii), (A) such Member continues to be liable for its obligations hereunder, (B) any such Affiliate shall transfer such Eligible Units to the Member from whom the Eligible Units were originally received or acquired within five (5) calendar days after ceasing to be an Affiliate of such Member, and (C) such Affiliate shall be deemed a Substitute Member immediately upon the Company's receipt of original copies of the documents described in Section 12.2(h) and Schedule A shall be amended accordingly at such time;

(iii) the Senior Preferred Members and the holders of Warrants shall be permitted to Transfer all or any portion of their Eligible Units (or beneficial interests therein) (including for the avoidance of doubt any Common Units issued upon the exercise of any Warrants) to any Eligible Preferred Transferee, and such transferees shall be deemed a Substitute Member immediately upon the Company's receipt of original copies of the documents described in Section 12.2(h) and Schedule A shall be amended accordingly at such time; and

(iv) a Transfer or issuance of equity interests in or other securities of Ganas Investors, Tricolor Investors, LLC or any investment fund, intermediate holding company or similar entity affiliated with either Ganas Investors or Tricolor Investors, LLC (each of the foregoing, a "Daniel Chu Related Entity"), shall be permitted (and shall not be subject to the provisions of Section 12.8, but shall be subject to the provisions of Section 12.2), subject to the prior written consent of the Senior Preferred Members; provided, however, that no such prior written consent of the Senior Preferred Members shall be required for a Transfer of any equity interests in or other securities of any Daniel Chu Related Entity by the holder thereof (other than Daniel Chu) to any Estate Planning Entity.

(c) The Company shall provide or consent to provide any bona fide prospective transferee of Preferred Units or Warrants with the information provided to Preferred Members and the holders of Warrants hereunder and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to assist any Preferred Member with the transfer of Preferred Units and any holder of Warrants with the transfer of Warrants.

Section 12.2. Further Restrictions. Notwithstanding any contrary provision in this Agreement, any otherwise permitted Transfer shall be null and void if:

(a) such Transfer would cause a termination of the Company for federal income tax purposes;

(b) such Transfer would, in the written opinion of outside tax counsel to the Company, cause the Company to cease to be classified as a partnership for federal income tax purposes;

(c) such Transfer requires the registration of such Transferred Units pursuant to any applicable federal or state securities laws;

(d) such Transfer causes the Company to become a "publicly traded partnership," as such term is defined in Sections 469(k)(2) or 7704(b) of the Code;

(e) such Transfer subjects the Company to regulation under the Investment Company Act of 1940, the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 or the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, each as amended;

(f) such Transfer results in a violation of applicable laws;

(g) such Transfer is made to any Person who lacks the legal right, power or capacity to own such Interest; or

(h) the Company does not receive executed copies of (i) any instruments of Transfer, and (ii) such Assignee's consent to be bound by this Agreement as an Assignee, in each case in form and substance satisfactory to the Board (as determined in the Board's reasonable and good faith discretion).

Section 12.3. Rights of Assignees. Until such time, if any, as a transferee of any Transfer pursuant to this Article XII or a transferee acquiring Units pursuant to Section 12.8 is admitted to the Company as a Substitute Member pursuant to Section 12.6, (a) such transferee shall be an Assignee only, and only shall receive, to the extent Transferred, the Distributions and allocations of income, gain, loss, deduction, credit, or similar item to which the Member which Transferred its Interests would be entitled, and (b) such Assignee shall not be entitled or enabled to exercise any other rights or powers of a Member. In the event any Assignee desires to make a further assignment of any economic interest in the Company, such Assignee shall be subject to all of the provisions of this Agreement to the same extent and in the same manner as any Member desiring to make such an assignment.

Section 12.4. Admissions and Resignations. No Person shall be admitted to the Company as a Member under this Article XII except in accordance with Section 12.6. Except following a Transfer of all of its Interests in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, no Member shall be entitled to resign or withdraw from being a Member of the Company without the written consent of the Board, which consent may be given or withheld in its sole and absolute discretion. No admission or resignation of a Member shall, in and of itself, cause the dissolution of the Company. No Member shall be subject to removal. Any purported admission or resignation which is not in accordance with this Agreement shall be null and void.

Section 12.5. Payment Upon Resignation of Member. If any Member resigns from the Company with the consent of the Board (other than in connection with a Transfer of its Interest in accordance with this Agreement) (such consent requiring the approval of at least one (1) Senior Preferred Manager), then such Member automatically shall receive from the Company a payment equal to the Member's Capital Account balance as adjusted as of the effective date of the written election of resignation (the "Termination Payment"). The Termination Payment shall be paid on the effective date of the written resignation. If any Member attempts to resign from the Company without the consent of the Board, then, notwithstanding the last sentence of Section 12.4, the Board may, in its sole and absolute discretion, permit such resignation (without waiving, in any manner, any other rights available to it or the Company at law or in equity and in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other remedies to which it or the Company may be entitled); provided, however, that such resigning Member shall not be entitled to any Termination Payment or any other compensation whatsoever in consideration for its Interest, such Interest shall be cancelled and such resigning Member shall have no further rights or interests in the Company.

Section 12.6. Admission of Assignees as Substitute Members. An Assignee shall become a Substitute Member only if and when each of the following conditions is satisfied:

(a) the assignor of the Interests transferred sends written notice to the Board requesting the admission of the Assignee as a Substitute Member and setting forth the name and address of the Assignee, the Interest transferred, and the proposed effective date of the Transfer;

(b) the Board consents in writing to such admission, which consent shall be given, subject to Section 12.2; provided, however, that, other than with respect to a Transfer of Preferred Units, the assignor and the Assignee have complied with the provisions of Section 12.8 in connection with the assignment; and

(c) the Board receives from the Assignee (i) other than with respect to a Transfer of Senior Preferred Units, such information concerning the Assignee's financial capacities and investment experience as may reasonably be requested by the Board, and (ii) (A) copies of any instruments of Transfer and (B) such Assignee's consent to be bound by this Agreement as a Substitute Member, in each case in form and substance satisfactory to the Board (as determined in the Board's reasonable discretion). Upon the admission of any Substitute Member, Schedule A shall be amended to reflect the name, address and Interests of such Substitute Member and to appropriately eliminate or adjust, if necessary, the name, address and Interests of the predecessor of such Substitute Member and such updated Schedule A shall be provided to each Member on such Schedule A promptly after any such amendment.

Section 12.7. Transfer Upon Termination of Marital Relationship.

(a) The Interest (other than the Preferred Units or any Registrable Securities) of each Person (i) who was married to a Member and who acquired his or her Interest as a result of a divorce, marital dissolution or agreement relating thereto or pursuant to a partition or similar agreement, or (ii) who acquired his, her or its Interest as a beneficiary or distributee of the assets of any deceased Person (whether pursuant to a will, intestate succession or otherwise) who was married to a Member (a "Deceased Spouse") and who was not already a Member immediately prior to such distribution or bequest, is subject to an option to purchase (the "Marital Option") in favor of the Member from whom the Interest was acquired with respect to the acquisition described in the preceding clause (i) hereof or in favor of the Member who was married to the Deceased Spouse immediately prior to the death of the Deceased Spouse with respect to the acquisition described in the preceding clause (ii) hereof (in each case the "Continuing Member"). Upon the exercise of a Marital Option, the Person who owns the Interest subject to the Marital Option (the "Optionee") must sell the Interest at the price and on the other terms and conditions agreed upon by the Optionee and the Continuing Member.

(b) If the purchase of an Interest that is subject to a Marital Option is not completed (whether by reason of a failure to exercise the Marital Option or to agree upon price, terms or conditions or any other reason) within sixty (60) calendar days after the Marital Option becomes exercisable, the Eligible Members other than the Continuing Member (such Eligible Members, the "Buyer") shall have the continuing right to purchase the Interest of the Optionee (pro rata in accordance with the number of Eligible Units held by each such Eligible Member as compared to the total number of Eligible Units held by all the Eligible Members exercising a purchase right under this Section 12.7) (the "Purchase Interest"). Any purchase and sale of a Purchase Interest pursuant to this Section 12.7(b) shall be in an amount due and payable as determined pursuant to the provisions of this Section 12.7.

(c) In the event that the Buyer elects to exercise its right under Section 12.7(b) above, it may give the Optionee written notice of such election at any time after the date on which the Buyer first has knowledge of the occurrence of the event giving rise to the rights of the Buyer under this Section. The amount of the purchase price for the Optionee's Purchase Interest (unless agreed upon by the Optionee and the Buyer within thirty (30) days after the Buyer's notice to the Optionee) in connection with any such event shall be the amount which the Optionee would have received with respect to the Purchase Interest had all of the property of the Company been sold at a price equal to the Fair Market Value of such property (determined (i) as of the date the Optionee receives notice of Buyer's election to purchase, and (ii) in accordance with the provisions of Section 12.7(f)), and the Company was then liquidated in accordance with this Agreement.

(d) The closing of such sale shall take place within ten (10) days after the date of the determination of the purchase price, or, if applicable, on the third Business Day following the date on which any required governmental approvals for such sale are obtained or the expiration of any waiting period under the Hart Scott Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the "HSR Act"), with the time and place of the closing designated by the Buyer. The purchase price shall be payable upon terms and conditions agreed to between Buyer and the Optionee, or if Buyer and the Optionee are unable to agree, then as follows: (i) 25% of the total purchase price shall be paid by Buyer to the Optionee in cash at the closing, and (ii) the remaining portion of the purchase price shall be evidenced by a promissory note given by Buyer in favor of the Optionee, which promissory note shall bear interest on the unpaid principal balance at the General Interest Rate and require three equal payments of principal plus all accrued and unpaid interest thereon with the first, second and third payments being due on the first, second and third anniversary dates, respectively, of the closing date. Each party shall bear its own legal and accounting fees, if any. At least five (5) Business Days before the closing, the Optionee shall deliver all appropriate documents of transfer in form satisfactory for execution at the closing. The purchase price hereunder may be funded by insurance or otherwise.

(e) From the date of the event described in Section 12.7(a) to the date of the Transfer of the Purchase Interest under this Section 12.7, the Interest represented by the Purchase Interest will be excluded from any calculation of aggregate Percentage Interests for purposes of any approval required of Members under this Agreement. All distributions of cash or assets due to the Optionee by the Company from the date of the event described in Section 12.7(a) to the date of the closing of the purchase may be applied against obligations of the Optionee. Without limiting the generality of any other provision of this Agreement, upon the exercise of the Marital Option, the Optionee, without further action, will have no rights in the Company or against the Company or any Member other than the right to receive payment for the Purchase Interest in accordance with Section 12.7(d).

(f) In the event that the fair market value of all or any part of the property of the Company is required to be determined for purposes of this Section 12.7, the fair market value, unless otherwise agreed upon, shall be determined as provided in this Section 12.7(f). Within ten (10) days after a determination of fair market value is determined to be required under Section 12.7, the Buyer and the Optionee shall select a mutually agreeable independent, qualified valuation consultant (a "Consultant"). If the Buyer and the Optionee cannot agree on a Consultant within a reasonable time, they shall each promptly select an independent valuation consultant and those two consultants shall promptly select a third independent, qualified valuation consultant to be the Consultant. The Consultant so selected shall proceed to determine promptly the fair market value of the property in question in accordance with such methods and techniques as shall enable the Consultant to complete the valuation of all such property within thirty (30) days of appointment and in the least expensive manner reasonably possible while obtaining a reasonable determination of the fair market values of the properties including if necessary, procedures producing a result less formal than an appraiser's opinion as to value. The Consultant shall deliver a written report of its determination of fair market value to all interested parties and, absent fraud or manifest error, this determination shall be final and binding on the interested parties for purposes of this Section 12.7. After determination of the fair market value of the Company property, the Consultant shall make a determination of the amount due to the Optionee in accordance with Section 12.7(c) as if all the property of the Company were sold at the fair market value determined by the Consultant and the Company was then liquidated in accordance with this Agreement. For purposes of this Section 12.7(f), no minority discount or lack of marketability discount shall be applied. The fees and expenses of the Consultant shall be borne by the Optionee.

(g) In no event will the Optionee who owns an Interest subject to a Marital Option have any right to purchase an Interest of any Member or Assignee under the terms of this Agreement or be deemed to be admitted as a Member unless and until all the requirements of Section 12.6 have been satisfied.

Section 12.8. Right of First Refusal.

(a) Except in the case of (i) a Transfer permitted pursuant to Section 12.1 or 12.7 or (ii) a Transfer of any Eligible Unit (including for the avoidance of doubt any transfer of Common Units issued upon the conversion of Preferred Units or the exercise of any Warrants) held by a Senior Preferred Member or a holder of Warrants, in the event any Member or Assignee (an "Offering Holder") desires to Transfer any Eligible Units in a transaction, it must first deliver written notice thereof (an "Offer Notice") to the Company and the Eligible Members. The Offer Notice must contain a full description of the proposed Transfer, including the type of Transfer, the number of Affected Units, the proposed per Unit purchase price and terms of payment for the Affected Units, the proposed date of such Transfer and the identity of the proposed transferee, and must be accompanied by a copy of the proposed transferee's offer to acquire the Affected Units. An Offer Notice shall constitute the Offering Holder's binding agreement to sell the applicable number of Affected Units to each of the Eligible Members and the Company on the terms and conditions specified therein (or, in the event that part of the consideration for the proposed transfer is other than cash, for the Fair Market Value of such non-cash consideration as determined by the Board in good faith).

(b) Each of the Eligible Members shall have thirty (30) days after its receipt of the Offer Notice to elect, by delivering a written acceptance to the Offering Holder and the Company (a "ROFR Acceptance Notice"), to purchase some or all of the Affected Units.

(c) To the extent that any Eligible Members elect to purchase Affected Units, the Affected Units shall be allocated first to each Eligible Member up to such Eligible Member's Pro-Rata Allotment. If all of the Affected Units are not allocated pursuant to the first sentence hereof and any Eligible Members have indicated in their ROFR Acceptance Notice that they wish to purchase additional Affected Units, then each Eligible Member who so indicated a desire to purchase additional Affected Units shall be allocated an additional amount of Affected Units equal to the product of (i) the total number of Affected Units available for purchase and not yet allocated, multiplied by (ii) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of Units owned by such Eligible Member and the denominator of which is the total number of Units owned by all Eligible Members who desire to purchase additional Units. The procedure in the preceding sentence shall be repeated until either (A) all of the Affected Units have been allocated to Eligible Members, or (B) each of the Eligible Members has purchased the maximum amount of Units that they have indicated that they desire to purchase in their ROFR Acceptance Notice.

(d) With respect to any purchase of Affected Units pursuant to this Section 12.8, the purchase price for the Affected Units and the other terms of transfer shall be as set forth in the Offer Notice. The closing of such Transfer shall take place at the Company's principal office at 10:00 a.m. local time on the tenth (10th) Business Day after the Cut-Off Date, or, if applicable, on the third Business Day following the date on which any required governmental approvals for such Transfer are obtained or the expiration of any waiting period under the HSR Act, or at such other place, time or date as the Offering Holder and the purchaser(s) of Affected Units (the "Purchasers") mutually agree. At the closing, the Offering Holder shall deliver to each Purchaser its confirmation that it has transferred the Affected Units free and clear of any and all pledges, liens, claims, security interests or other encumbrances (other than restrictions imposed by this Agreement) and the Purchaser shall pay to the Offering Holder the consideration set forth in the Offer Notice in accordance with the terms described therein. In the event any Purchaser fails to obtain any such required governmental consent or approval (or the expiration of any waiting period under the HSR Act) prior to the 60th day after the Cut-Off Date (or such later date as may be agreed to by the Offering Holder), after having attempted in good faith, using commercially reasonable efforts, to obtain such consent or approval (or such expiration), such Purchaser shall be released from its obligation to purchase any Affected Units in excess of the amount for which such governmental consent or approval is required (or which could be purchased without any filing under the HSR Act). Such excess Units shall be reallocated among the other Purchasers utilizing the same procedure as outlined in Section 12.8(c).

(e) Subject to the provisions of this Article XII, in the event that all of the Affected Units are not purchased pursuant to this Section 12.8, the Offering Holder shall be free to Transfer such unpurchased Affected Units in strict accordance with the terms set forth in the Offer Notice at any time within sixty (60) days after the Cut-off Date (the "Transfer Period Termination Date"), provided that if the Offering Holder has executed a definitive agreement for the sale of all of such Affected Units within thirty (30) days after the Cut-off Date, then the Offering Holder shall be entitled to extend the Transfer Period Termination Date for up to an additional thirty (30) days to effect the closing of such sale, or, if any required governmental approval (or expiration of any waiting period) has not been obtained by such date, to such date (not more than 120 days after the Cut-off Date) as may be required for any necessary governmental approvals (or expiration of any waiting period) for such Transfer to be obtained. In the event that the Offering Holder does not sell or otherwise dispose of all of such Affected Units in the manner set forth in the immediately preceding sentence prior to the Transfer Period

Termination Date, the right of first refusal provided for in this Section 12.8 shall continue to be applicable to any subsequent disposition of such Units.

(f) This Section 12.08 shall cease to be of any further effect upon the consummation of a Qualified Public Offering.

Section 12.9. Interests in a Member. Without the consent of the Board, a Member (other than a Senior Preferred Member) that is not a natural person may not cause or permit an Interest, direct or indirect, in itself to be Transferred such that, after the Transfer, such Member shall cease to be controlled by substantially the same Persons who control it as of the date of its admission to the Company. On any breach of the provisions of the preceding sentence, the Company shall have the option to buy, and on exercise of that option the breaching Member shall sell, the breaching Member's Interests, all in accordance with the provisions of Sections 12.7(b) through 12.7(g), applied mutatis mutandis, as if the Interest held by such Member were held by an Optionee.

Section 12.10. Forced Sale Right.

(a) Generally. At any time after September 2, 2026 (or, if earlier, upon a breach by the Company of its obligations to mandatorily redeem the Senior Preferred Units pursuant to Section 4.3(f), which breach remains uncured for six months), if any Senior Preferred Units remain outstanding, the Senior Preferred Members holding a majority of the Senior Preferred Units shall have the right to cause the Company, at their written request delivered to the Company (a "Sale Notice"), to initiate a Sale Transaction. Upon receipt of such Sale Notice, the Company shall promptly engage in a comprehensive sales process in good faith, including selecting a nationally recognized investment banking firm having experience in the industry in which the Company is engaged to assist the Company in a sales process and in the preparation of a market due diligence report and a quality of earnings report. The failure of the Company to (i) promptly initiate a Sale Transaction sales process upon receipt of a Sale Notice, (ii) engage a nationally recognized investment bank in connection with such Sale Transaction process as soon as reasonably practicable following receipt of a Sale Notice, or (iii) consummate a Sale Transaction within twelve months of the Company's receipt of a Sale Notice shall constitute a "Sale Demand Failure". The Members agree that in connection with a Sale Transaction pursuant to this Section 12.10, the holders of Units will be required to participate in the Sale Transaction pursuant to Section 12.10(c). For the avoidance of doubt, at least one Senior Preferred Manager will serve on any committee of the Board with responsibility with respect to such sale process, and the Senior Preferred Members will receive copies of all materials generated during the sales process, including the market due diligence report and quality of earnings report referred to herein.

(b) Sale Demand Failure. Upon the occurrence of a Sale Demand Failure, the Senior Preferred Members holding a majority of the Senior Preferred Units shall have the right to control and implement a Sale Transaction in good faith until either (i) a Sale Transaction is consummated which results in the Senior Preferred Units being redeemed at a price at least equal to the price payable pursuant to a Senior Preferred Mandatory Redemption Event, or (ii) no Senior Preferred Units remain outstanding.

(c) Drag-Along.

(i) If, (A) following the occurrence of a Sale Demand Failure, the Senior Preferred Members holding a majority of the Senior Preferred Units receive a bona fide offer from a third party which qualifies as a Change of Control transaction or which proposes to acquire all or substantially all of the assets of the Company (whether pursuant to a merger, sale of equity interests, sale of assets or otherwise) or (B) at any time (x) Ganas Investors and (y) Senior Preferred Members holding a majority of the Senior Preferred Units mutually agree to effect a Change of Control transaction or to sell all or substantially all of the assets of the Company (whether pursuant to a merger, sale of equity interests, sale of assets or otherwise) (the Senior Preferred Members holding a majority of the Senior Preferred Units, in the case of clause (A), or Ganas Investors and Senior Preferred Members holding a majority of the Senior Preferred Units, collectively, in the case of clause (B), the "Drag-Along Rightholders", and the applicable transaction pursuant to clause (A) or clause (B), a "Drag-Along Sale"), the Drag-Along Rightholders may send written notice (the "Drag-Along Notice") to the Company and the other Members (the "Drag-Along Sellers") notifying them they will be required to (i) if applicable, sell such amount of Units and Warrants held by such Drag-Along Seller such that (A) the quotient obtained by dividing (x) the number of Units (on a Fully Diluted Basis, including Common Units issuable upon exercise of Warrants) to be sold by such Drag-Along Seller in such Drag-Along Sale by (y) the number of Units (on a Fully Diluted Basis, including Common Units issuable upon exercise of Warrants) held by such Drag- Along Seller prior to such Drag-Along Sale is equal to (B) the quotient obtained by dividing (x) the number of Units (on a Fully Diluted Basis, including Common Units issuable upon exercise of Warrants) to be sold by the Drag-Along Rightholders in such Drag-Along Sale by (y) the number of Units (on a Fully Diluted Basis, including Common Units issuable upon exercise of Warrants) held by the Drag-Along Rightholders immediately prior to such Drag-Along Sale or (ii) in the case of any asset sale or merger as described above in this Section 12.10(c)(i), to vote its Units as further provided in Section 12.10(d). The Drag-Along Notice shall set forth the terms and conditions of the Drag-Along Sale, including the number of Units (including Common Units issuable upon exercise of Warrants) proposed to be transferred, the consideration to be received by the Drag-Along Rightholders and the estimated time and place of closing.

(ii) If the Drag-Along Rightholders have not consummated the proposed sale to which reference is made in the Drag-Along Notice within one hundred eighty (180) days (or longer, if reasonably necessary to comply with applicable requirements of law) following delivery of the Drag-Along Notice, the Drag-Along Notice shall be null and void, each Drag-Along Seller shall be released from his, her or its obligation under the Drag-Along Notice and it shall be necessary for a separate Drag-Along Notice to be furnished and the terms and provisions of Section 12.10(c)(i) separately complied with, in order to consummate such proposed sale pursuant to Section 12.10(c)(i). Notwithstanding any other provision of Section 12.10(c)(i), the election to pursue such Drag-Along Sale shall be in the sole discretion of the Drag-Along Rightholders, who may take into account their individual interests, and there shall be no liability on the part of any Drag-Along Rightholder to any other Member arising from the failure of any Drag-Along Rightholder to pursue or consummate the Drag-Along Sale for any reason, and the decision to consummate such Drag-Along Sale shall be in the sole discretion of the Drag-Along Rightholder.

(d) Provisions Applicable to Drag-Along Sales.

(i) The Company and each Member participating in a proposed sale under Section 12.10(c), solely in its capacity as a Member of the Company shall take or cause to be taken at the expense of the Company all such reasonable actions consistent with the terms of Section 12.10 of this Agreement as may be necessary or reasonably desirable in order expeditiously to consummate such sale and any related transactions, including: (A) executing, acknowledging and delivering consents, assignments, waivers and other documents or instruments; (B) voting any Units over which such Member has voting power; and (C) otherwise reasonably cooperating with the selling Drag-Along Rightholder and the prospective buyer.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each such Member agrees to execute and deliver such agreements as may be reasonably specified by the Drag-Along Rightholder, including agreements to (1) make individual customary representations, warranties, covenants and other agreements as to, among other things, regarding its authority, non-contravention and title to and ownership such Units, (2) be severally based on the proceeds received by such Member, not jointly, liable with all other sellers (whether by purchase price adjustment, indemnity payments or otherwise) in respect of representations, warranties, covenants and other agreements in respect of the Company and its Subsidiaries, (3) provide indemnification obligations in respect of breaches of the matters described in clauses (1) and (2); provided, however, that, the aggregate liability of any such Member (other than in the case of fraud by such Member) in respect of the indemnification obligations described above shall not exceed such Member's pro rata portion of the proceeds (either in cash or other forms of consideration) actually received by such Member in connection with such sale, and (4) waive any appraisal or dissenters' rights which it may have in connection therewith.

(ii) The consummation of a sale pursuant to Section 12.10(c) shall be substantially in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the Drag-Along Notice and each participating Member in such sale shall receive the same form of consideration (except that holders of Management Incentive Units may receive securities pursuant to a management rollover which are not offered to all

Member), and the same amount of consideration per Unit (on a Fully Diluted Basis (net of any applicable exercise prices)) as received by the holders of other Units of the same priority. The closing of such sale shall take place at such time and place as the Drag- Along Rightholders shall reasonably specify by notice to each participating Member.

Section 12.11. Preemptive Rights.

(a) The Company shall give each Member notice (an "Issuance Notice") of any proposed issuance by the Company of any Company Securities at least 20 days prior to the proposed issuance date. For purposes of this Section 12.11, the term "Member" also includes each holder of a Warrant with respect to which, at the time of such notice, the Exercisable Date (as defined in the applicable Warrant) has occurred. The Issuance Notice shall specify the price at which such Company Securities are to be issued and the other material terms of the issuance. Subject to Section 12.11(c), each Member shall be entitled to purchase up to its Pro Rata Share of the Company Securities proposed to be issued, at the price and on the terms specified in the Issuance Notice.

As used herein, "Pro Rata Share" means, with respect to a Member, the fraction that results from dividing (i) such Member's Aggregate Ownership (immediately before giving effect to the proposed issuance) of Common Units (including Common Units issuable upon the Conversion of Preferred Units and the exercise of Warrants) by (ii) the Aggregate Ownership (immediately before giving effect to the issuance) of Common Units (including Common Units issuable upon the Conversion of Preferred Units and the exercise of Warrants) by all Members.

(b) If a Member desires to purchase any or all of its Pro Rata Share of the Company Securities specified in the Issuance Notice, such Member shall deliver notice to the Company (an "Exercise Notice") of its election to purchase such Company Securities within 10 Business Days of receipt of the Issuance Notice. The Exercise Notice shall specify the number (or amount) of Company Securities to be purchased by such Member (capped at such Member's Pro Rata Share). The Exercise Notice shall constitute exercise by the applicable Member of its rights under this Section 12.11 and a binding agreement of such Member to purchase, at the price and on the terms specified in the Issuance Notice, the number (or amount) of Company Securities specified in the Exercise Notice. If, at the termination of such ten-Business Day period, a Member shall not have delivered an Exercise Notice to the Company, such Member shall be deemed to have waived all of its rights under this Section 12.11 with respect to the purchase of such Company Securities that are the subject of the Issuance Notice.

(c) The Company shall have 90 days from the date of the Issuance Notice to consummate the proposed issuance of any or all of such Company Securities that the Members have not elected to purchase at the price and upon terms that are not materially less favorable to the Company than those specified in the Issuance Notice; provided that, if such issuance is subject to regulatory approval, such 90-day period shall be extended until the expiration of five Business Days after all such approvals have been received, but in no event later than 180 days from the date of the Issuance Notice. If the Company proposes to issue any such Company Securities after such 90-day (or 180-day) period, it shall again comply with the procedures set forth in this Section 12.11. Subject to Section 12.11(e) the purchase of Company Securities that the Members have agreed to purchase pursuant to this Section 12.11 shall be consummated simultaneously with the closing of the sale of the Company Securities set forth in the Issuance Notice.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, (A) the Members shall not be entitled to purchase Company Securities as contemplated by this Section 12.11 in connection with issuances of (i) Management Incentive Units in accordance with this Agreement (except issuances of Management Incentive Units to Daniel Chu), (ii) Company Securities in connection with a Qualified Financing or the issuance of the Junior Preferred Units contemplated by the Junior Preferred Unit Subscription Agreement as part of the Subsequent Offering, (iii) Company Securities issued to employees or Managers of the Company or any Subsidiary pursuant to employee benefit plans or similar arrangements approved by the Board (including any Company Securities issued upon conversion or exercise thereof) (except issuances of Company Securities to Daniel Chu), (iv) Company Securities issued as consideration to a selling party in a merger, consolidation, acquisition of similar business combination approved by the Board, (v) Company Securities upon conversion of the Preferred Units or upon exercise of any Warrants or (vi) paid-in-kind dividends or distributions on the Preferred Units made in accordance with this Agreement and (B) no Junior Preferred Member shall be entitled to purchase Company Securities as contemplated by this Section 12.11 in connection with issuances of (i) Company Securities issued to employees, directors and consultants pursuant to plans or agreements approved by the Board, (ii) Company Securities issued to banks, equipment lessors, or other institutions pursuant to debt financing or equipment leasing transactions approved by the Board or (iii) Company Securities issued in connection with sponsored research, collaboration, technology license, development, OEM, marketing or other similar agreements or strategic partnerships, in each case as approved by the Board. The Company shall not be obligated to consummate any proposed issuance of Company Securities, nor be liable to any Member if the Company has not consummated any proposed issuance of Company Securities pursuant to this Section 12.11 for whatever reason, regardless of whether it shall have delivered an Issuance Notice or received any Exercise Notices in respect of such proposed issuance.

(e) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section 12.11, the closing date of any proposed issuance of Company Securities to which this Section 12.11 applies may, at the Company's discretion, occur prior to the expiration of the 20-day period contemplated by Section 12.11(a); provided, however, that in such case the Members shall (other than those who elected to purchase Company Securities on such closing date) continue to have the right to exercise its rights under this Section 12.11 by delivering an Exercise Notice within 15 days of the receipt of the Issuance Notice pursuant to Section 12.11(b) to acquire from the Company (or, as determined by the Company, from the purchasers of the Company Securities on such closing date) the number of Company

Securities determined in accordance with Section 12.11(a) at the price and on the terms specified in the Exercise Notice.

(f) SPAC Transactions. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, if, in connection with any SPAC Transaction, any Manager or Member (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any Management Member) is entitled to receive any cash (including in the form of Distributions), equity securities or other interests in any Person (including any issuance of Company Securities) or any other economic right offered in connection with such SPAC Transaction, in each case, that is not generally offered to the other Members as consideration in such SPAC Transaction, then each Senior Preferred Member shall receive a pro rata share or pro rata participation rights in such economic rights or benefits up to such Senior Preferred Member's Percentage Interest on a fully diluted, as-converted and as-exercised basis; provided that the Senior Preferred Members shall not be entitled to share in any consideration, rights or benefits (in any form) that is offered to employees, officers or directors of the Company in their respective capacities as such (including pursuant to equity incentive plans, compensation plans, benefits plans, employment terms or employment agreements).

(g) The provisions of this Section 12.11 shall terminate upon the consummation of a Qualified Public Offering.

(h) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 12.11(a) through (c), the Members shall not be entitled to purchase Company Securities as contemplated by this Section 12.11 in connection with any issuance of Junior Preferred Units pursuant to the terms (as such terms exist as of the date of execution thereof and without giving effect to any amendments thereto) of the Junior Preferred Subscription Agreement, pursuant to which the Company has issued or shall issue Junior Preferred Units, including issuances that occur on a Subsequent Closing Date (as defined in the Junior Preferred Unit Subscription Agreement) in accordance with the terms thereof; provided that in no event shall this Section 12.11(h) apply to any issuance to the extent such issuance (x) occurs after January 31, 2022 or (y) results in aggregate proceeds to the Company (taken together with all prior issuances pursuant to Junior Preferred Unit Subscription Agreement) in excess of $99,000,000.

Section 12.12. Qualified Public Offerings and IPO Conversion.

(a) In the event of a Qualified Public Offering, any Blocker Member may elect (i) (if the Qualified Public Offering is a SPAC Transaction) to contribute its Units to the SPAC, (ii) to be merged into any other Blocker Member and/or, in the event that the Qualified Public Offering is a SPAC Transaction, the SPAC, or (iii) such other structure that is tax-efficient for the direct and indirect owners of such Blocker Member. Each Member other than such Blocker Member shall consent to and raise no objections to, and cooperate fully with, any such structure used for the Qualified Public Offering. The Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to structure any Qualified Public Offering in a manner that is tax-free or tax-efficient for the Members, including the Blocker Members.

(b) In connection with any Qualified Public Offering approved by the Board in accordance with the terms hereof, the Board may authorize the conversion of the Company into a corporation, whether by way of statutory conversion, merger, consolidation or otherwise (the "Corporate Conversion") upon such terms and conditions as the Board shall deem advisable; provided that the Corporate Conversion shall be effected in such a manner so as (i) not to have a material and disproportionate adverse impact on any Member in relation to any other Member, and (ii) to cause the Preferred Units, Common Units and Management Incentive Units to be exchanged for or converted into a single class of common stock of the entity into which the Company is converted, in each case, having a value equal to the proceeds that would have been distributed to the holders of the Preferred Units, Common Units and Management Incentive Units had a Liquidation Event been consummated at the aggregate equity valuation of the Company implied by the Qualified Public Offering.

(c) The Company shall give each Preferred Member at least 20 days' written notice prior to the occurrence of any Corporate Conversion or Qualified Public Offering. The Company and all Members shall cooperate in good faith and to execute all documents reasonably necessary in connection with the Corporate Conversion. The Company will bear all of its own expenses and any and all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses of the Members (including any and all transfer, stamp or similar taxes, any filing fees and expenses for any required governmental filings of the Company and/or any Member and the reasonable and documented legal and accounting fees and expenses of the Members) in connection with any Corporate Conversion. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a Corporate Conversion requires any Member to make a filing under the HSR Act or other applicable antitrust laws, the Company and the Senior Preferred Members shall cooperate in good faith to seek to structure a Corporate Conversion in a manner that will not result in an obligation of any Senior Preferred Member (or its Affiliates) to make any filing under the HSR Act or other applicable antitrust laws. The Company shall not effect a Corporate Conversion until all required waiting periods under the HSR Act applicable to any Member shall have expired or been terminated; provided, however, that, upon the request of the Company, the applicable Members (other than the Senior Preferred Members) shall promptly make any necessary filings under the HSR Act or other applicable antitrust laws.

ARTICLE XIII
DISSOLUTION, LIQUIDATION AND TERMINATION

Section 13.1. No Dissolution. The death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy or dissolution of any Member or the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of a Member in the Company shall not, in and of itself, cause the dissolution of the Company. In such event, the business of the Company shall be continued by the remaining Member or Members without dissolution. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, each Member waives any right it might have under Section 18-801(b) of the Delaware Act to agree in writing to dissolve the Company upon the bankruptcy of a Member of the Company or the occurrence of any event that causes a Member to cease to be a Member of the Company. The bankruptcy (as defined in Sections 18-101(l) and 18-304 of the Delaware Act) of a Member shall not cause a Member to cease to be a member of the Company.

Section 13.2. Events Causing Dissolution. The Company shall be dissolved and its affairs shall be wound up upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

(a) the written consent of the Members holding at least 80% of the Percentage Interests;

(b) for so long as the Senior Preferred Units remain outstanding, the written consent of the Senior Preferred Members holding at least 75% of the Senior Preferred Units outstanding; or

(c) the entry of a decree of judicial dissolution under Section 18-802 of the Delaware Act.

Section 13.3. Liquidation. Upon dissolution of the Company, the Board shall immediately commence to wind up the Company's affairs; provided, however, that a reasonable time shall be allowed for the orderly liquidation of the assets of the Company and the satisfaction of liabilities to creditors so as to enable the Board to minimize the normal losses attendant upon a liquidation. The Members shall continue to share Profits and Losses during liquidation as specified in Article VII. The proceeds of liquidation shall be distributed in the following order and priority:

(a) first, to creditors of the Company, excluding Members (other than Preferred Members) to the extent they are creditors, to the extent otherwise permitted by law, in satisfaction of the liabilities of the Company (whether by payment or the making of reasonable provision for payment thereof);

(b) second, to the Senior Preferred Members in accordance with Section 4.3(c);

(c) third, to the Junior Preferred Members in accordance with Section 4.3(c);

(d) fourth, to Members who are creditors of the Company; and

(e) fifth, to the Members in accordance with Section 8.1.

Section 13.4. Termination. The Company shall terminate when all of the assets of the Company, after payment, or due provision for all debts, liabilities and obligations, of the Company shall have been distributed to the Members in the manner provided for in this Article XII and the Certificate shall have been canceled in the manner required by the Delaware Act.

Section 13.5. Claims of the Members. The Members and former Members shall look solely to the Company's assets for the return of their Capital Contributions, and if the assets of the Company remaining after payment of or due provision for all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company are insufficient to return such Capital Contributions, the Members and former Members shall have no recourse against the Company, any Covered Person or any other Member.

ARTICLE XIV
MISCELLANEOUS

Section 14.1. Notices. Any notice or other communication provided for in this Agreement (a "Notice") shall be in writing, duly signed by the party giving such Notice, and shall be sent via (a) hand delivery, (b) e-mail transmission (provided that such Notice also is sent by one of the other methods set forth in this paragraph), (c) registered or certified mail (postage prepaid), or (d) overnight courier service, and addressed as follows:

(i) If sent to any Member or Manager, to the person and at the address (and, if applicable, fax number or e-mail address) set forth opposite its name on Schedule A or Schedule 5.1, as applicable, attached hereto, or at such other address (and, if applicable, fax number or e-mail address) as such Member or Manager may hereafter designate by Notice to the Company.

(ii) If sent to Company: 6021 Connection Drive, 4th Floor, Irving, TX 75039, or at such other address (and, if applicable, fax number or e-mail address) as the Company may hereafter designate by Notice to the Members and the Managers.

Each Notice shall be deemed to have been given and effective upon receipt (or refusal of receipt); provided, however, that if any notice is sent by email and a second method in accordance with this Section 14.1, such notice shall not be deemed to have been given until receipt of such second method unless the receiving party confirms receipt of the email, in which case notice shall be deemed to have been given at the time of such confirmation.

Section 14.2. Failure to Pursue Remedies. The failure of any party to seek redress for violation of, or to insist upon the strict performance of, any provision of this Agreement shall not prevent a subsequent act, which would have originally constituted a violation, from having the effect of an original violation.

Section 14.3. Cumulative Remedies. The rights and remedies provided by this Agreement are cumulative and the use of any one right or remedy by any party shall not preclude or waive its right to use any or all other remedies. Said rights and remedies are given in addition to any other rights the parties may have by law, statute, ordinance or otherwise.

Section 14.4. Binding Effect. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of all of the parties and, to the extent permitted by this Agreement, their successors, legal representatives and permitted assigns.

Section 14.5. Interpretation. All references herein to "Articles," "Sections" and "Paragraphs" shall refer to corresponding provisions of this Agreement. Whenever the words "include," "includes" or "including" are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words "without limitation." The words "hereof," "herein" and "hereunder" and words of similar import when used in this Agreement shall refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Agreement. All terms defined in this Agreement shall have the defined meanings when used in any certificate or other document made or delivered pursuant hereto unless otherwise defined therein. The definitions contained in this Agreement are applicable to the singular as well as the plural forms of such terms and to the masculine as well as to the feminine and neuter genders of such term. Any agreement, instrument or statute defined or referred to herein or in any agreement or instrument that is referred to herein means such agreement, instrument or statute as from time to time amended, modified or supplemented, including (in the case of agreements or instruments) by waiver or consent in writing and (in the case of statutes) by succession of comparable successor statutes and references to all attachments thereto and instruments incorporated therein. References to a Person are also to its permitted successors and assigns.

Section 14.6. Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. If any term or provision hereof is illegal, invalid or unenforceable for any reason whatsoever, that term or provision will be enforced to the maximum extent permissible so as to effect the intent of the parties, and such illegality, invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect the validity or legality of the remainder of this Agreement. If necessary to effect the intent of the parties, the Members will negotiate in good faith to amend this Agreement to replace the unenforceable language with enforceable language which as closely as possible reflects such intent.

Section 14.7. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed (including by facsimile or other electronic transmission) in any number of counterparts with the same effect as if all parties hereto had signed the same document. All counterparts shall be construed together and shall constitute one instrument.

Section 14.8. Governing Law. This Agreement and the rights of the parties hereunder shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, and all rights and remedies shall be governed by such laws without regard to principles of conflict of laws.

Section 14.9. Binding Agreement. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Members agree that this Agreement constitutes a legal, valid and binding agreement of the Members, and is enforceable against the Company and the Members in accordance with its terms.

Section 14.10. Waiver of Jury Trial. Each party hereto waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any right it may have to a trial by jury in respect of any action, suit or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement.

Section 14.11. Amendments. Subject to Section 4.1, Section 4.4 and Section 4.14, any amendment to this Agreement shall be adopted and be effective as an amendment hereto if approved by the Board.

Section 14.12. Spousal Consents. The termination of the marital relationship of any Member and such Member's spouse for any reason shall not have the effect of removing any Units otherwise subject to this Agreement from the coverage hereof. In the event any Member should hereafter become married to any Person, such Member shall cause such new spouse promptly to execute an instrument acceptable to the Board pursuant to which said new spouse shall agree to (a) be bound by the terms of this Agreement, including the terms of this Section 4.12, and (b) appoint the Member to whom he or she is married as his or her attorney in fact to represent him or her in all matters with regard to the Company and to bind his or her Interest, jointly with the applicable Member's, including by execution of any document relating to the Company.

Section 14.13. Powers of Attorney.

(a) Each of the Members (other than the Senior Preferred Members) does hereby constitute and appoint the Board and the liquidators of the Company, and their respective designees, with full power of substitution, as its true and lawful agents and attorneys in fact, with full power and authority in its name, place and stead, to execute, swear to, acknowledge, deliver, file and record (i) all instruments, documents and certificates that may from time to time be required by any law to effectuate, implement and continue the valid and subsisting existence of the Company, (ii) all instruments, documents and certificates which the Board or the liquidators, as applicable, deem appropriate or necessary to reflect any amendment, change, modification or restatement of this Agreement effected in accordance with Section 4.11, (iii) all instruments, documents and certificates relating to the admission, withdrawal or substitution of any Member (other than the Senior Preferred Members) pursuant to Article XII or Article XIII, and (iv) all instruments, documents and certificates that may be required to effectuate the dissolution and termination of the Company in each case in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.

(b) Each of the Members (other than the Senior Preferred Members) does hereby constitute and appoint the Board, the liquidators and, with respect to Section 12.7, a designee of any Member (other than a Senior Preferred Member) or the Company, as applicable, exercising its rights thereunder, and their respective designees, with full power of substitution, as its proxies and true and lawful agents and attorneys in fact, with full power and authority in its name, place and stead, with respect to the matters set forth herein, including regarding any Transfer pursuant to Section 12.7 and hereby authorizes each of them to represent, vote and consent, if and only if the party attempts to vote or consent (whether by proxy, in person or by written consent), in a manner which is inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement, all of such Member's Interests in favor of the approval of any Transfer pursuant to and in accordance with the terms and provisions of Section 12.7 or to take any action necessary to effect the provisions of Section 12.7 including the execution, delivery, filing and recording of any and all instruments, documents and certificates which the Board or designee of any Member (other than a Senior Preferred Member) or the Company, as applicable, exercising its rights under Section 12.7 deems appropriate or necessary to effect the provisions thereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Section 14.3 shall grant to any Member the right to appoint any Manager on behalf of any other Member that has the right to appoint one or more Managers pursuant to Section 5.1.

(c) Each of the proxies and powers of attorney granted pursuant to this Section is given in consideration of the agreements and covenants of the Company and the Members in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and each is coupled with an interest and shall be irrevocable unless and until this Agreement terminates in accordance with its terms, and will survive the death, incompetency, disability or dissolution of such Member. Each Member hereby revokes any and all previous proxies or powers of attorney with respect to the Interests and shall not hereafter, unless and until this Agreement terminates in accordance with its terms, purport to grant any other proxy or power of attorney with respect to any of the Interests, deposit any of the Interests into a voting trust or enter into any agreement (other than this Agreement), arrangement or understanding with any person, directly or indirectly, to vote, grant any proxy or give instructions with respect to the voting of any of the Interests, in each case, with respect to any of the matters set forth herein.

Section 14.14. Entire Agreement. This Agreement and the other documents and agreements referred to herein or entered into concurrently herewith, including the Certificate, the Senior Preferred Unit Subscription Agreement, the Junior Preferred Unit Subscription Agreement, the Warrants, each agreement related to the grant of Management Incentive Units, embody the entire agreement and understanding of the parties hereto in respect of the subject matter contained herein; provided, however, that such other agreements and documents shall not be deemed to be a part of, a modification of or an amendment to this Agreement. There are no restrictions, promises, representations, warranties, covenants or undertakings with respect to the subject matter contained herein, other than those expressly set forth or referred to herein. This Agreement supersedes all prior agreements and understandings between the parties with respect to such subject matter, including the Existing Limited Liability Company Agreement.

Section 14.15. No Third-Party Beneficiaries. Except as provided in Article XI (which shall be for the benefit of and enforceable by Covered Persons as described therein) and except as set forth in the next sentence, this Agreement is for the sole benefit of the parties hereto (and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns) and nothing herein, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other Person, including any creditor of the Company, any legal or equitable right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement. The provisions of this Agreement relating to the Warrants and the holders thereof are for the benefit of and enforceable by the holders of the Warrants (and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns). A holder of a Warrant, in its capacity as such, has agreed in such Warrant to be bound by this Agreement to the extent expressly applicable to such Warrant.

Section 14.16. BHC Amendments. If the BlackRock Investors determine at any time that the continued ownership by the BlackRock Investors of any or all of the Units or other Interests in the Company owned by them (a) creates a material risk that a banking regulatory authority with jurisdiction over the BlackRock Investors or any of their Affiliates may assert that the BlackRock Investors or any of their Affiliates (i) controls the Company for banking law purposes or (ii) is in violation of applicable law, including without limitation Section 13 of the Bank Holding Company Act or the Volcker Rule, or (b) otherwise would have an adverse effect on the BlackRock Investors or its Affiliates that is material in any respect, including by subjecting it to regulatory requirements with respect to the holding of the Units or other Interests of the Company by the BlackRock Investors, the BlackRock Investors may, without the consent or approval of any other Member, make any change to this Agreement necessary or advisable, as reasonably determined by the BlackRock Investors, to reduce such risk or avoid such adverse effect (any such change to this Agreement, a "BHCA Amendment"). By acceptance of its Units in the Company, each Member hereby agrees, and shall be required, to cooperate fully, at Company's expense, with any such BHCA Amendment.

Section 14.17. Use of BlackRock Name. The Company will not, and each Member will not, without the written consent of the BlackRock Investors in each instance, use in advertising, publicity or otherwise the name of the BlackRock Investors or any of their respective Affiliates, or any director, officer or employee of the BlackRock Investors, nor any trade name, trademark, trade device, service mark, symbol or any abbreviation, contraction or simulation thereof owned by any of the BlackRock Investors or any of their Affiliates or any information relating to the business or operations of any of the BlackRock Investors or any of their Affiliates (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any investment vehicles, funds or accounts managed thereby); provided, however, the Company may, without consent from the BlackRock Investors, disclose on a confidential and non-public basis the fact that the BlackRock Investors made an investment in the Company (but not, other than with respect to the Company's advisors, the terms of such investment) to the Company's existing investors, prospective investors, existing lenders, prospective lenders, existing capital markets investors (but not in any offering memorandum, private placement memorandum or other similar offering document), investment bankers, financial advisors and other advisors to the Company (e.g., attorneys, accountants, etc.), consultants, and rating agencies.

Annex A

Senior Preferred Unit Protective Covenants

Until the redemption in full of the Senior Preferred Units:

1. Good Standing; Licenses, Approvals and Agreements. The Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, (a) (i) maintain its existence and good standing in its jurisdiction of incorporation and (ii) maintain qualification in each jurisdiction in which it is required under applicable law, except, solely with respect to clause (a)(ii), where failure to do so could not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Company and its Subsidiaries and (b) maintain in force all licenses, approvals and agreements, the loss of which could have a material adverse effect on the Company and its Subsidiaries.

2. Government Compliance. The Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, (a) meet the "minimum funding requirements" of ERISA with respect to each Pension Plan (as defined in Section 412 of the Code or Section 302 of ERISA), noncompliance with which could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Company and its Subsidiaries and (b) comply with all statutes, laws, ordinances and government rules and regulations (including, without limitation, the USA PATRIOT Act, the FCPA and OFAC) to which it is subject, noncompliance with which could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Company and its Subsidiaries.

3. Financial Statements, Reports, Certificates. To the extent not otherwise required by Section 9.1 of this Agreement, the Company shall deliver the following to the Senior Preferred Members:

(a) as soon as available, but in any event within thirty (30) days after the end of each month, a consolidated balance sheet, income, and cash flow statement covering the consolidated operations of the Company and its Subsidiaries during such period, prepared in accordance with GAAP, consistently applied;

(b) as soon as available, but in any event within forty-five (45) days after the end of each fiscal quarter, a consolidated balance sheet, income, and cash flow statement covering the consolidated operations of the Company and its Subsidiaries during such period, prepared in accordance with GAAP, consistently applied;

(c) as soon as available, but in any event within one hundred twenty (120) days after the end of the Company's Fiscal Year, audited consolidated financial statements of the Company prepared in accordance with GAAP, consistently applied, together with an unqualified opinion (except as to maturity of Indebtedness and breach or anticipated breach of any financial covenant) on such financial statements of an independent certified public accounting firm reasonably acceptable to the Senior Preferred Members;

(d) together with each delivery of financial statements pursuant to Sections 3(b) and 3(c), (i) a Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Position and Results of Operations, and (ii) a schedule setting forth in reasonable detail, with respect to the Company and its Subsidiaries, calculations of (A) Indebtedness, (B) Tangible Net Worth, and (C) Indebtedness to Tangible Net Worth Ratio;

(e) copies of all statements, reports and notices sent or made available generally by the Company or its Subsidiaries to its security holders or to any lenders and, if applicable, all reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission;

(f) as soon as available, but in any event no later than ninety (90) days after the end of Company's Fiscal Year, annual operating projections (including income statements, balance sheets and cash flow statements presented in a monthly or quarterly format) for the forthcoming Fiscal Year, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Senior Preferred Members;

(g) copies of all material notices (including default notices), reports or materials sent or received by the Company or its Subsidiaries in connection with any material Indebtedness;

(h) promptly upon receipt of notice thereof, a report of the commencement of, or any material developments in (including copies of any draft settlement agreements), any legal actions pending or threatened against the Company or any Subsidiary thereof that could reasonably be expected to result in damages or costs to the Company or any Subsidiary (prior to giving effect to any insurance or indemnities) in excess of $625,000 individually or $1,750,000 in the aggregate or could reasonably be excepted to result in a material adverse effect on the Company and its Subsidiaries;

(i) promptly (but in any event within five (5) Business Days) upon any responsible officer of the Company or any Subsidiary becoming aware that the counterparty with respect to any material Indebtedness or material contract of the Company or any Subsidiary has given any notice or taken any other action with respect to a claimed default thereunder, notice from a responsible officer specifying the nature and period of existence of any such condition or event, or specifying the notice given or action taken by such holder or Person and the nature of such claimed default, event or condition;

(j) promptly (but in any event within ten (10) Business Days) upon any responsible officer of the Company or any Subsidiary obtaining knowledge of the existence of any change in the Company's certified public accountant, notice from a responsible officer specifying the change.

(k) promptly (but in any event within five (5) Business Days), upon any responsible officer of the Company or Subsidiary obtaining knowledge of any ERISA Event;

(l) promptly (but in any event within twenty (20) Business Days), upon any responsible officer of the Company or any Subsidiary obtaining knowledge of any written complaint, order, citation, notice or other written communication from any Person delivered to the Company or any Subsidiary with respect to, or if any responsible officer of the Company or any Subsidiary becomes aware of (i) the existence or alleged existence of a violation by the Company or any Subsidiary of any applicable environmental law or any pending legislative or threatened proceeding under any applicable environmental law (or any material developments with respect to such events) or (ii) any property of the Company or any Subsidiary that is or will be subject to a lien imposed pursuant to any environmental law, in each case of (i) through (ii), that could reasonably be expected to give rise to, remediation costs and expenses or losses of the Company and/or its Subsidiaries that exceed $1,500,000, written notice from a responsible officer of the Company or Subsidiary specifying the nature and period of existence of any such condition or event, or specifying the notice given or action taken by such holder or Person;

(m) promptly (but in any event within twenty (20) Business Days) copies of any reports or notices related to any claim or investigation by a Governmental Authority, with respect to a material deficiency in the payment of taxes or, with respect to any audit, by the Company or any Subsidiary;

(n) promptly (but in any event within ten (10) Business Days) after any responsible officer of the Company or any Subsidiary obtains knowledge of the occurrence of any event or change that has resulted or would reasonably be expected to result in, either in any case or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect on the Company and its Subsidiaries, notice from a responsible officer of the Company or Subsidiary specifying the nature and period of existence of any such event or change; or

(o) promptly (but in any event within twenty (20) Business Days) after the Company or any Subsidiary changes its financial accounting method for purposes of GAAP reporting, other than any change required by GAAP, notice from a responsible officer of the Company or Subsidiary specifying such changes.

4. Inspection Rights. The Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, permit Senior Preferred Members to inspect such Person's books and records at any time from time to time during ordinary business hours, all at the Company's sole cost and expense; provided that such inspections will be conducted during regular business hours and upon reasonable prior notice.

5. Taxes.

(a) The Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, make due and timely payment or deposit of all federal and other material taxes, assessments, or contributions required of it by law, and will execute and deliver to Senior Preferred Members, on demand, appropriate certificates or other proof reasonably satisfactory to Senior Preferred Members attesting to the payment or deposit thereof.

(b) The Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, make timely payment or deposit of all material tax payments and material withholding taxes required of it by applicable laws, including, but not limited to, those laws concerning F.I.C.A., F.U.T.A., state disability, and local, state, and federal income taxes, and shall, upon request, furnish Senior Preferred Members with proof reasonably satisfactory to Senior Preferred Members indicating that such Person has made such payments or deposits.

6. Insurance. The Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, maintain policies of insurance with respect to its properties and businesses against such casualties and contingencies as are in accordance with the general practices of businesses engaged in similar activities in similar geographic areas, all at the Company's sole cost and expense.

7. Conduct of Business; Maintenance of Properties. The Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, (a) continue to conduct its business substantially as now conducted or as otherwise permitted hereunder; and (b) at all times maintain, preserve and protect all of its assets and properties used or useful in the conduct of its business, and keep the same in good repair, working order and condition in all material respects (taking into consideration ordinary wear and tear) and from time to time make, or cause to be made, all necessary or appropriate repairs, replacements and improvements thereto consistent with industry practices, except as would not result in a material adverse effect on the Company and its Subsidiaries.

8. Intellectual Property Rights. The Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, (a) except as the Company may determine in its reasonable business judgment in connection with a Permitted Disposition, protect, defend and maintain the validity and enforceability of intellectual property owned by and not in-licensed by the Company or its Subsidiary and (b) except as the Company may determine in its reasonable business judgment, not allow any registered intellectual property owned by and not in-licensed by the Company or its Subsidiary material to the Company's or such Subsidiary's business to be abandoned, forfeited or dedicated to the public.

9. Environmental Matters. The Company shall, and shall cause each Subsidiary to, (i) comply, and cause all lessees and other Persons operating or occupying its properties to comply, in all material respects, with all applicable environmental laws and environmental permits that it holds or is required to hold under applicable laws, except where the failure to do so could not reasonably be expected to give rise to, remediation costs and expenses of the Company and/or its Subsidiaries that exceed $1,500,000.

10. Dispositions. The Company shall not, and shall not permit its Subsidiaries to, convey, sell, lease, license, transfer or otherwise dispose of all or any part of its business or property (including any equity interests in Subsidiaries), other than Permitted Dispositions.

11. Change in Business. The Company shall not, and shall not permit its Subsidiaries to engage in any business other than the businesses currently engaged in by the Company and its Subsidiaries and any business substantially similar or related thereto or without the consent of the Senior Preferred Members holding a majority of the Senior Preferred Units.

12. Encumbrances. The Company shall not, and shall not permit their respective Subsidiaries to, create, incur, assume or suffer to exist any Lien with respect to any of its property, or assign or otherwise convey any right to receive income, including the sale of any Accounts, except for Permitted Liens.

13. Compliance. The Company shall not, and shall not permit their respective Subsidiaries to, (a) become an "investment company" or be controlled by an "investment company," within the meaning of the Investment Company Act of 1940, (b) become principally engaged in, or undertake as one of its important activities, the business of extending credit for the purpose of purchasing or carrying margin stock, (c) fail to meet the "minimum funding requirements" of ERISA with respect to any Pension Plan, which could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Company and its Subsidiaries, (d) permit a "reportable event" or "prohibited transaction" (in each case, as defined in ERISA) to exist which could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Company and its Subsidiaries, or (e) violate any law or regulation which violation could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Company and its Subsidiaries.

14. Anti-Terrorism Laws. The Company shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary to, conduct, deal in or engage in or permit any Affiliate or agent of such Person within its control to conduct, to deal in or engage in any of the following activities: (a) conduct any business or engage in any transaction or dealing with any person blocked pursuant to Executive Order No. 13224 ("Blocked Person"), including the making or receiving any contribution of funds, goods or services to or for the benefit of any Blocked Person; (b) deal in, or otherwise engage in any transaction relating to, any property or interests in property blocked pursuant to Executive Order No. 13224; or (c) engage in on conspire to engage in any transaction that evades or avoids, or has the purpose of evading or avoiding, or attempts to violate, any of the prohibitions set forth in Executive Order No. 13224 or the USA Patriot Act.

15. Restrictive Agreements. The Company shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly create or otherwise cause or suffer to exist or become effective any consensual encumbrance or restriction of any kind on the ability of any Subsidiary to: (i) pay any Indebtedness owed to the Company or any Subsidiary; (ii) make loans or advances to the Company or any Subsidiary; or (iii) transfer any of its property or assets to the Company or any Subsidiary; provided that the foregoing shall not apply to (1) restrictions or conditions imposed by law, or by this Agreement, (2) restrictions or conditions imposed by any agreement relating to secured Indebtedness permitted by this Agreement, (3) customary provisions in leases, subleases, licenses, asset sale agreements and other contracts restricting the grant of a security interest therein or the assignment thereof or the assets governed thereby, (4) any agreement in effect at the time any Person becomes a Subsidiary, so long as such agreement was not entered into solely in contemplation of such Person becoming a Subsidiary, (5) customary provisions limiting the disposition or distribution of assets or property in asset sale agreements, stock sale agreements and other similar agreements in the ordinary course of business (including agreements entered into in connection with any investment permitted under Section 13), which limitation is applicable only to the assets that are the subject of such agreements pending a sale or merger, (6) customary provisions in agreements with clearing houses or other similar agreements entered into in the ordinary course of business, (7) restrictions in other agreements evidencing Indebtedness for borrowed money permitted under this Agreement, solely to the extent that such agreements do not otherwise conflict with the terms of this Agreement, and (8) customary provisions in leases, licenses, joint venture agreements and similar instruments and agreements.

16. Limitation on Sale and Leaseback Transactions. The Company shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly, enter into any arrangement with any Person whereby in a substantially contemporaneous transaction the Company or any of its Subsidiaries sells or transfers all or substantially all of its right, title and interest in an asset and, in connection therewith, acquires or leases back the right to use such asset.

17. Fiscal Year; Accounting Change. The Company shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary to, (a) change its Fiscal Year end except with the consent of the Senior Preferred Members (not to be unreasonably withheld, delayed, denied or conditioned) or (b) make any material change in its accounting treatment and reporting practices except as required or permitted by GAAP.

18. Holding Company. The Company shall not (i) create or suffer to exist any lien upon any assets or property now owned or hereafter acquired, leased or licensed by it other than Permitted Liens; (ii) engage in any business or activity or own any material assets other than (a) directly holding 100% of the outstanding voting and economic equity interests of its first tier Subsidiaries existing on the Effective Date, (b) performing its obligations with respect to any Permitted Indebtedness (and activities related thereto) and its organizational documents or as required by any applicable law, (c) entering into, and performing its obligations under and in connection with, (A) contracts and agreements with officers, directors and employees of Company or its Subsidiaries relating to their employment or directorships, (B) insurance policies and related contracts and agreements and (C) equity subscription agreements, registration rights agreements, voting and other stockholder agreements and other agreements in respect of Permitted Equity Issuances or of equity issuances junior in priority to the Senior Preferred Units and that do not require any cash payment prior to the redemption in full in cash of the Senior Preferred Units, (d) participating in tax, accounting and other administrative matters as a member of the consolidated group of Company and its Subsidiaries, (e) incurring fees, costs and expenses relating to overhead and general operating or (f) activities incidental to the businesses and activities described in preceding clauses (ii)(a) through (ii)(e) above; (iii) (a) consolidate with or merge with or into any Person or (b) convey, transfer, lease or license all or substantially all its assets to, any Person; or (iv) fail to hold itself out to the public as a legal entity separate and distinct from all other Persons.

19. Creditors. The Company shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly, (i) in connection with a foreclosure or sale or transfer of all or substantially of the assets of the Company or its subsidiaries by any secured creditor as a result of the breach by Company or any of its subsidiaries of their duties in connection with any transaction or securities, no waiver of or amendment to any of the Company's (or its subsidiaries') rights against any such secured creditor; (ii) settle any litigation, arbitration, or other proceeding, in each case, that involves a guilty plea, or any acknowledgement of criminal wrongdoing if such settlement would have a material adverse effect on the Company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole; and (iii) consent to or implement any restructuring or sale transaction that would have the effect of impairing in any material respect the value of the Senior Preferred Units or any of the non-monetary rights of the Senior Preferred Members unless the Senior Preferred Units will be redeemed in full at the Preferred Redemption Price in connection with such restructuring or sale transaction.

20. Voluntary Bankruptcy. The Company shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly, institutes or consents to the institution of any proceeding under any debtor relief law, or makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors; or applies for or consents to the appointment of any receiver, trustee, custodian, conservator, liquidator, rehabilitator or similar officer for it or for all or substantially all of its property.

21. Senior Preferred Member Calls. Within 5 Business Days of the receipt of the quarterly and annual financial information required by Section 3(a) and 3(c), the Company will conduct a meeting (which such meeting may be a telephonic meeting, at the election of Company) of the Senior Preferred Members to discuss the most recently reported financial results and the financial condition of the Company and its Subsidiaries, at which there shall be present the chief financial officer and such other officers of the Company as may be reasonably requested to attend by the Senior Preferred Members, such request or requests to be made at a reasonable time prior to the scheduled date of such meeting. Such meetings shall be held at a time and place convenient to the Senior Preferred Members and to Company.

22. Defined Terms. Capitalized terms used on this Annex A shall have the respective meanings ascribed to such terms in this Agreement or below:

"ERISA" means the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, and the regulations thereunder.

"ERISA Affiliate" means each Person, trade or business (whether or not incorporated) that, together with the Company, is, or within the past six (6) years was, treated as a single employer under (i) Section 414(b) or (c) of the Code or Section 4001(14) of ERISA or (ii) solely for purposes of Section 302 of ERISA and Section 412 of the Code, Section 414 of the Code.

"ERISA Event" means any of the following: (i) the institution of any steps by the Company or any ERISA Affiliate or the PBGC to terminate any Pension Plan or appoint a trustee to administer any Pension Plan, or the occurrence of any event or condition that would reasonably be expected to constitute grounds under ERISA for the termination of, or the appointment of a trustee to administer, any Plan, (ii) the failure of the Company or any ERISA Affiliate to make a required contribution on a timely basis to any Pension Plan or multiemployer pension plan (within the meaning of Section 4001 of ERISA) ("Multiemployer Plan"), (iii) the taking of any action with respect to a Pension Plan which is reasonably likely to result in the requirement that the Company or any Subsidiary furnish a bond or other security to the PBGC or such Pension Plan, (iv) the occurrence of a reportable event under Section 4043 of ERISA (for which a reporting requirement is not waived) with respect to any Pension Plan, (v) the occurrence of any event with respect to any Pension Plan or Multiemployer Plan which is reasonably likely to result in the incurrence by the Company or any Subsidiary of any material liability, fine or penalty (including any claim or demand for withdrawal liability or partial withdrawal from any Multiemployer Plan), (vi) any material increase in the liability or contingent liability of the Company or any Subsidiary with respect to any post-retirement welfare plan benefit or (vii) the receipt by the Company or any Subsidiary of any notice that with respect to any Multiemployer Plan that increased contributions will be required to avoid a reduction in plan benefits or the imposition of an excise tax, that any such plan is or is expected to be in "at risk" status (as defined in Section 412 of the Code or Section 302 of ERISA), that any such plan is or will be terminated, or that any such plan is or will become insolvent, (viii) an event or circumstance or failure that results in or would reasonably be expected to result in liability to the Company or a Subsidiary under Title I of ERISA or a tax under any of Sections 4971 through 5000 of the Code; or (ix) disqualification of an ERISA Plan that is intended to be qualified under Section 401(a) of the Code, or incurrence of a material sanction in lieu of disqualification.

"ERISA Plan" means any "employee benefit plan", as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA, which the Company or an ERISA Affiliate maintains, sponsors or contributes to, or, in the case of an employee benefit plan which is subject to Section 412 of the Code or Title IV of ERISA, to which the Company or any ERISA Affiliate has any liability, including any liability by reason of having been a substantial employer within the meaning of Section 4063 of ERISA at any time during the preceding five (5) years, or by reason of being deemed to be a contributing sponsor under Section 4069 of ERISA.

"PBGC" means the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation and any Person succeeding to any or all of its functions under ERISA.

"Pension Plan" means any ERISA Plan that is subject to Section 412 of the Code or Title IV of ERISA.

"Permitted Equity Issuances" means, issuance of equity by the Company or a Subsidiary of the Company, (i) to a wholly-owned direct or indirect subsidiary of the Company or (ii) director's qualifying shares (or equivalents) or (iii) pursuant to employee stock option plans or similar employee benefits arrangements.

FORM OF FIRST TRANCHE WARRANT

(see attached)

FORM OF WARRANT

TRICOLOR HOLDINGS, LLC

THIS WARRANT AND THE SECURITIES ISSUABLE UPON EXERCISE OF THIS WARRANT HAVE NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE "ACT"), OR QUALIFIED UNDER ANY STATE OR FOREIGN SECURITIES LAWS AND MAY NOT BE OFFERED FOR SALE, SOLD, PLEDGED, HYPOTHECATED OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED OR ASSIGNED UNLESS (I) A REGISTRATION STATEMENT COVERING SUCH SECURITIES IS EFFECTIVE UNDER THE ACT AND IS QUALIFIED UNDER APPLICABLE STATE AND FOREIGN LAW, OR (II) THE TRANSACTION IS EXEMPT FROM THE REGISTRATION AND PROSPECTUS DELIVERY REQUIREMENTS UNDER THE ACT AND ANY QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS UNDER APPLICABLE STATE AND FOREIGN LAW.

Dated: September 2, 2021

First Tranche Warrant No.: [●]

THIS CERTIFIES THAT, for value received, [_____], a [_____], or its successors or assigns (such Person and such successors and assigns each being the "Warrant Holder" with respect to the Warrant held by it), at any time and from time to time on any Business Day on or after the Exercisable Date (as herein defined) and prior to 5:00 p.m. (ET) on the Expiration Date (as herein defined), is entitled: (a) to subscribe for the purchase from Tricolor Holdings, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "Company"), [_____] Warrant Units, in each case at a price per Common Unit equal to the Exercise Price (as herein defined); and (b) to the other rights set forth herein; provided, however, that the number of Common Units issuable upon any exercise of this Warrant and the Exercise Price shall be adjusted and readjusted from time to time in accordance with Section 5.

WHEREAS, this Warrant is being issued to the Warrant Holder pursuant to the Subscription Agreement (as herein defined).

IN FURTHERANCE THEREOF, in consideration of the foregoing, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which hereby are acknowledged, the parties hereto irrevocably undertake and agree as follows:

Section 1. Definitions and Construction.

(a) Certain Definitions. As used herein (the following definitions being applicable in both singular and plural forms):

"Affiliate" means any Person directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by, or under common control with another Person and any Persons with the same investment manager or whose investment manager is directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by, or under common control with another Person's investment manager. For purposes of this definition, "control" (including the terms "controlled by" and "under common control with") means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management policies or affairs of a Person, whether through ownership of voting securities, by contract or otherwise, as executor, trustee or otherwise.

"Appraiser" means a mutually acceptable, independent third party investment bank, selected by the Company and the Requisite Holders, who shall determine Fair Value, if the Company and the Warrant Holder are unable to agree. Any determination by the Appraiser shall be final, conclusive and binding upon the Company and the holders of the Warrants and the Warrant Units. The fees and expenses of the Appraiser shall be paid by the Company, on the one hand, and by the Requisite Holders, on the other hand, based upon the percentage that the amount actually contested but not awarded to the Company or the Requisite Holders, respectively, bears to the aggregate amount actually contested by the Company and the Requisite Holders.

"Board" means the board of directors or managers, managing member, or such other similar governing Person or body.

"Business Day" means any day except a Saturday, Sunday or other day on which commercial banks in New York City are authorized by law to close.

"Capital Reorganization" has the meaning set forth in Section 5(b).

"Commission" means the Securities and Exchange Commission or any other Federal agency administering the Securities Act at the time.

"Common Unit Reorganization" has the meaning set forth in Section 5(a).

"Common Units" means Common Units of the Company, and any other class or series of equity interests into which such Common Units may hereafter have been changed, converted, exchanged or reclassified .

"Common Units Deemed Outstanding" means, at any given time, the sum of (i) the number of Common Units actually outstanding at such time, plus (ii) the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise of Options actually outstanding at such time, plus (iii) without duplication, the number of Common Units issuable upon conversion, exercise or exchange of Convertible Securities actually outstanding at such time (treating as actually outstanding any Convertible Securities, issuable upon exercise of Options actually outstanding at such time), in each case, regardless of whether the Options or Convertible Securities are actually exercisable at such time; provided, however, that Common Units Deemed Outstanding at any given time shall not include (i) Common Units, Convertible Securities or Options owned or held by or for the account of the Company or any of its wholly owned subsidiaries, or (ii) any Warrants (or the Common Units issuable upon exercise of such Warrants) with respect to which the Exercisable Date has not occurred.

"Company" has the meaning set forth in the introductory paragraph to this Warrant.

"Convertible Securities" means any securities (directly or indirectly) convertible into or exchangeable for Common Units, but excluding Options. For the avoidance of doubt, Management Incentive Units are not Convertible Securities.

"Excluded Issuances" means any issuance or sale (or deemed issuance or sale in accordance with Section 5(f)) by the Company of any Common Units issued: (a) upon the exercise of any Warrant; (b) upon the conversion of any Preferred Unit; (c) securities issued by the Company in a Qualified Public Offering; or (d) Units of the Company issued in accordance with the LLC Agreement as consideration to a selling party in a merger, consolidation, acquisition or similar business combination approved by the Board.

"Exchange Act" means the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

"Exercisable Date" means September 2, 2021.

"Exercise Amount" means for any number of Warrant Units as to which this Warrant is being exercised, the product of (i) such number of Warrant Units, multiplied by (ii) the Exercise Price.

"Exercise Price" means $0.01 per Warrant Unit, as adjusted from time to time pursuant to Section 5.

"Expiration Date" means the earlier to occur of: (i) September 2, 2028 and (ii) the consummation of a Qualified Financing.

"Fair Value" means, as of any particular date, the fair value of a Unit, without giving effect to any discounts for a lack of control, illiquidity, lack of marketability or minority status, as determined jointly by the Company and the Warrant Holder in good faith.

"Fully Diluted Equity", as of any particular date, means all outstanding Common Units plus all Common Units issuable in respect of Convertible Securities, Management Incentive Units, Options and all appreciation rights and phantom equity based on or in respect of Common Units, as of such date, including, and for the avoidance of doubt, any right pursuant to any equity incentive plan; provided, however, that if any of the foregoing are subject to vesting or are otherwise not exercisable as of the relevant date, such Common Units shall be included only upon and to the extent then vested or exercisable.

"Lien" means any lien (statutory or otherwise), encumbrance, charge, claim, community property interest, option, pledge, mortgage, deed of trust, hypothecation, collateral assignment, deposit arrangement or security interest.

"LLC Agreement" means that certain Fourth Amended and Restated Operating Agreement, dated as of September 2, 2021, among Tricolor Holdings, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and certain holders of equity interests of the Company, as the same may be amended, restated, or otherwise modified from time to time.

"Notice of Exercise" has the meaning set forth in Section 2(a).

"Options" means any warrants, options or other rights to subscribe for or purchase Common Units or Convertible Securities.

"Original Price" has the meaning set forth in Section 5(d).

"Person" means an individual, a corporation, a limited liability company, a partnership, an association, a trust or any other entity or organization, including a government or political subdivision or an agency or instrumentality thereof.

"Preferred Units" has the meaning set forth in the LLC Agreement.

"Requisite Holders" means, at any time, holders of Warrant Units and Warrants representing more than 50% of the Warrant Units outstanding and/or issuable upon the exercise of all the outstanding Warrants.

"Securities Act" means the Securities Act of 1933 and the rules and regulations of the Commission thereunder, all as the same shall be in effect at the time.

"Special Distribution" has the meaning set forth in Section 5(c).

"Subscription Agreement" means that certain Subscription Agreement, dated as of September 2, 2021, among Tricolor Holdings, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and the other parties thereto, as the same may be amended, restated, or otherwise modified from time to time.

"Tax Distributions" means tax distributions from the Company to any Member pursuant to the terms of Section 8.2 of the LLC Agreement.

"Units" has the meaning set forth in the LLC Agreement.

"Warrant" means, as the context requires, (i) this Warrant, (ii) any of the other Common Unit purchase warrants originally issued pursuant to or in connection with the Subscription Agreement, (iii) in the case of clause (i) or clause (ii) above, any successor warrant, any replacement warrant, and any warrant issued upon division or combination of, or in substitution for, this Warrant or any such other Common Unit purchase warrant, and (iv) any warrant issued upon a whole or partial transfer or assignment of any warrant referred to in the foregoing clauses (i), (ii) and (iii).

"Warrant Holder" has the meaning set forth in the introductory paragraph to this Warrant.

"Warrant Units" means the number of Common Units issued or issuable upon exercise of this Warrant as set forth in the introduction hereto, as adjusted from time to time pursuant to Section 5, or in the case of other Warrants, issued or issuable upon exercise of those Warrants.

In addition to the foregoing definitions, capitalized terms used and not otherwise defined herein have the respective meanings set forth in the LLC Agreement, as in effect on the date hereof.

(b) Accounting Terms and Determinations. Unless otherwise specified herein, all accounting terms used herein shall be interpreted, all accounting determinations hereunder shall be made, and all financial statements required to be delivered hereunder shall be prepared, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States. When used herein, the term "financial statements" shall include the notes and schedules thereto. References to fiscal periods are to fiscal periods of the Company.

(c) Computation of Time Periods. With respect to the computation of periods of time from a specified date to a later specified date, the word "from" means "from and including" and the words "to" and "until" each mean "to but excluding." Periods of days shall be counted in calendar days unless otherwise stated.

(d) Construction. Unless the context requires otherwise, (i) references to the plural include the singular, (ii) references to the singular include the plural, (iii) references to any gender include any other gender, (iv) the part includes the whole, (v) the terms "including," "include" and "includes" are not limiting, and (vi) the term "or" has, except where otherwise expressly indicated, the inclusive meaning represented by the phrase "and/or."

The words "hereof," "herein," "hereby," "hereunder," and similar terms in this Warrant refer to this Warrant as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Warrant. Section, subsection, clause, exhibit and schedule references are to this Warrant, unless otherwise specified. Any reference to this Warrant includes any and all permitted alterations, amendments, changes, extensions, modifications, renewals, or supplements thereto.

Definitions from the LLC Agreement that are referenced herein are incorporated herein in full (together with any necessary constituent definitions) and remain operative, notwithstanding any amendment or termination of, or supplement to, the LLC Agreement.

(e) Exhibits and Schedules. All of the exhibits and schedules attached hereto shall be deemed incorporated herein by reference.

(f) No Presumption Against Any Party. Neither this Warrant nor any uncertainty or ambiguity herein or therein shall be construed or resolved using any presumption against any party hereto or thereto, whether under any rule of construction or otherwise. On the contrary, this Warrant has been reviewed by each of the parties hereto and their respective counsel and, in the case of any ambiguity or uncertainty, shall be construed and interpreted according to the ordinary meaning of the words used so as to fairly accomplish the purposes and intentions of all parties hereto.

Section 2. Exercise of Warrant.

(a) Exercise and Payment. The Warrant Holder may exercise this Warrant in whole or in part, at any time or from time to time on any Business Day on or after the Exercisable Date and prior to 5:00 p.m. (ET) on the Expiration Date, by delivering to the Company a duly executed notice (a "Notice of Exercise") in the form of Exhibit A and by payment to the Company of the Exercise Price per Warrant Unit, at the election of the Warrant Holder as follows: (i) by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the account of the Company in an amount equal to the Exercise Amount; (ii) by receiving from the Company the number of Warrant Units equal to (A) the number of Warrant Units as to which this Warrant is being exercised, minus (B) the number of Warrant Units having a value, based on the Fair Value immediately prior to the date of such exercise, equal to the Exercise Amount; or (iii) any combination of the foregoing.

The Company acknowledges that the provisions of clause (ii) of the prior sentence are intended, in part, to ensure that a full or partial exchange of this Warrant pursuant to such clause (ii) will qualify as an exchange, within the meaning of paragraph (d)(3)(iii) of Rule 144 under the Securities Act. For all purposes of this Warrant (other than this Section 2(a)), any reference herein to the exercise of this Warrant shall be deemed to include a reference to the exchange of this Warrant into Warrant Units in accordance with the terms of clause (ii).

(b) Effectiveness and Delivery. As soon as practicable, but not later than five (5) Business Days after the Company shall have received a Notice of Exercise and payment, the Company shall update the books and records of the Company to reflect the exercise of the Warrant and issuance of the number of Warrant Units specified in such Notice of Exercise and otherwise evidence of the Warrant Holder's (or such other Person's) ownership of the number of Warrant Units specified in such Exercise Notice. This Warrant shall be deemed to have been exercised and such Warrant Units shall be deemed to have been issued, and the Warrant Holder or other Person or Persons designated in such Notice of Exercise shall be deemed for all purposes to have become a holder of record of Common Units, all as of the date that such Notice of Exercise and payment shall have been received (or deemed received) by the Company.

(c) No Required Surrender of Warrant. The Warrant Holder shall not be required to surrender this Warrant to the Company when it delivers the Notice of Exercise, however, this Warrant shall represent the right to purchase Common Units in respect of the unexercised portion (if any) of the Warrant. The other rights and obligations applicable to the Warrant, the Warrant Units and the Warrant Holders shall continue in effect following any partial exercise in accordance with the terms set forth herein only with respect to the unexercised portion of the Warrant, and all rights and obligations hereunder shall terminate with respect to the portion of the Warrant or the Warrant Units that have been exercised.

(d) Warrant Surrender; Delivery of New Warrant. If this Warrant is surrendered upon exercise or partial exercise, then (i) this Warrant shall be cancelled, and (ii) unless the purchase rights represented by this Warrant shall have been fully exercised, the Company shall, at the time of delivery of the certificate or certificates representing the Warrant Units being issued in accordance with this Section 2, deliver to the Holder a new Warrant evidencing the rights of the Holder to purchase the unexpired and unexercised Warrant Units called for by this Warrant. Such new Warrant shall in all other respects be identical to this Warrant.

(e) Delivery of Certificates. If at the time of exercise of this Warrant the Warrant Units are issuable by the Company in certificated form, then the Company shall, as promptly as practicable, and in any event within five (5) Business Days after the Company shall have received a Notice of Exercise and payment, execute (or cause to be executed) and deliver (or cause to be delivered) to the Holder a certificate or certificates representing the Warrant Units issuable upon any exercise of this Warrant. The certificate or certificates so delivered shall be, to the extent possible, in such denomination or denominations as the exercising Holder shall reasonably request in the Notice of Exercise and shall be registered in the name of the Holder or, subject to compliance with Section 2(f), such other Person's name as shall be designated in the Notice of Exercise.

(f) Expenses and Taxes. The Company shall pay all expenses, transfer taxes and owner charges payable in connection with the preparation, issuance and delivery of the Warrant Units and any new Warrants, except that if the Warrant Units or the new Warrants are to be registered in a name or names other than the name of the Warrant Holder, funds sufficient to pay all transfer taxes payable as a result of such transfer shall be paid by the Warrant Holder at the time of its delivery of the Notice of Exercise or promptly upon receipt of a written request by the Company for payment.

(g) Fractional Units. The Company shall not be required to issue a fractional Warrant Unit upon exercise of any Warrant. As to any fraction of a Warrant Unit that the Holder would otherwise be entitled to purchase upon such exercise, the Company shall pay to such Holder an amount in cash (by delivery of a certified or official bank check or by wire transfer of immediately available funds) equal to the product of (i) such fraction multiplied by (ii) the Fair Value of one Warrant Unit on the Exercise Date.

(h) Automatic Cashless Exercise. To the extent that there has not been an exercise by the Warrant Holder pursuant to Section 2(a), any portion of the Warrant that remains unexercised shall be exercised automatically in whole (not in part), upon the Expiration Date. Payment by the Warrant Holder upon such automatic exercise shall be in the form of the Warrant Holder receiving from the Company the number of Warrant Units equal to (i) the number of Warrant Units as to which this Warrant is being automatically exercised, minus (ii) the number of Warrant Units having a value, based on the Fair Value immediately prior to the date of such automatic exercise, equal to the Exercise Amount with respect to such automatic exercise.

(i) Company Action. The Company will take any Company action which may be necessary in order that the Company may validly and legally issue Warrant Units in connection with any exercise of this Warrant.

(j) Conditional Exercise. Unless the Warrant Holder elects in writing otherwise by notice to the Company, if an exercise of any portion of this Warrant is to be made in connection with a public offering, a sale of the Company (pursuant to a merger, consolidation, sale of stock, or otherwise) or a SPAC Transaction, then such exercise, notwithstanding any other provision hereof, shall be conditioned upon the consummation of such transaction, in which case such exercise shall not be deemed to be effective until immediately prior to the consummation of such transaction.

(k) Acknowledgement. The Warrant Holder, by acceptance hereof, acknowledges that this Warrant and the Warrant Units to be issued upon exercise hereof are subject to the terms of the LLC Agreement that are expressly applicable to the Warrant Units, the Warrant Holder and holders of Warrant Units and/or this Warrant (including, without limitation, Sections 4.3(d), 4.3(f), 10.4, 10.5, 12.1, 12.2, 12.8, 12.10 and 12.12). The Warrant Holder agrees to execute the LLC Agreement (if not already a party thereto) upon its acceptance of this Warrant.

(l) Withholding and Reporting. The Warrant Holder shall be subject to Section 10.4 of the LLC Agreement as though the Warrant Holder had fully exercised this Warrant.

Section 3. Investment Representation.

(a) The Warrant Holder represents to the Company that the Warrant Holder is an "accredited investor" as defined in Rule 501 of Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act. By accepting the Warrant, the Warrant Holder represents that it is acquiring the Warrant for its own account for investment purposes and not with the view to any sale or distribution, that the Warrant Holder will not offer, sell or otherwise dispose of the Warrant or the Warrant Units except under circumstances as will not result in a violation of applicable securities laws.

(b) The Warrant Holder understands and acknowledges that this Warrant and the Warrant Units to be issued upon exercise hereof are "restricted securities" under the federal securities laws and that, under such laws and applicable regulations, such securities may be resold without registration under the Securities Act only in certain limited circumstances. In addition, the Warrant Holder represents that it is familiar with Rule 144 under the Securities Act, as presently in effect, and understands the resale limitations imposed thereby and by the Securities Act.

(c) The Warrant Holder acknowledges that it can bear the economic and financial risk of its investment for an indefinite period, and has such knowledge and experience in financial or business matters that it is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of the investment in the Warrant and the Warrant Units. The Warrant Holder has had an opportunity to ask questions and receive answers from the Company regarding the terms and conditions of the offering of the Warrant and the business, properties, prospects and financial condition of the Company and its Subsidiaries.

Section 4. Representations and Warranties of the Company.

The Company represents and warrants to the Warrant Holders as follows:

(a) This Warrant has been duly authorized, is validly issued, and constitutes the valid and binding obligation of the Company. Any Warrant issued in substitution for or replacement of this Warrant shall be duly authorized, validly issued, and constitute the valid and binding obligation of the Company.

(b) The Company has duly authorized and reserved, and will at all times until the Expiration Date have duly authorized and reserved, such number of Common Units as will be sufficient to permit the exercise in full of the Warrant, and that all such Common Units are and will be duly authorized and, when issued upon exercise of the Warrant, will be validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable, issued without violation of any preemptive or similar rights of any Member of the Company or any other Person, and free and clear of all Liens other than those arising under the LLC Agreement or applicable securities laws.

(c) As of the date of this Warrant, Schedule A to the LLC Agreement sets forth the entire issued and outstanding equity interests of the Company, including Options and Convertible Securities.

Section 5. Antidilution Provisions.

The number of Warrant Units that may be purchased upon any exercise of the Warrant, shall be subject to change or adjustment as set forth in this Section 5 (in each case, after taking into consideration any prior adjustments pursuant to this Section 5).

(a) Common Unit Reorganization. If the Company shall pay a dividend or make any other distribution upon any capital interests of the Company payable in Common Units, in rights to subscribe for or to purchase Common Units, or any Options for the purchase of Common Units, or any Convertible Securities or shall subdivide its outstanding Common Units into a greater number of Common Units, by way of a Common Unit split, Common Unit distribution or otherwise, or consolidate its outstanding Common Units into a smaller number of Common Units (any such event being herein called a "Common Unit Reorganization"), then the number of Common Units subject to purchase upon exercise of this Warrant shall be adjusted, effective at such time, to a number determined by multiplying the number of Common Units subject to purchase immediately before such Common Unit Reorganization by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the number of Common Units outstanding after giving effect to such Common Unit Reorganization and the denominator of which shall be the number of Common Units outstanding immediately before giving effect to such Common Unit Reorganization.

(b) Capital Reorganization. If there shall be (i) any consolidation or merger to which the Company is a party, other than a consolidation or a merger of which the Company is the continuing corporation and which does not result in any reclassification of, or change (other than a Common Unit Reorganization) in, outstanding Units, (ii) any sale or conveyance of the property of the Company as an entirety or substantially as an entirety, (iii) any recapitalization or similar capital reorganization of the Company, (iv) any reclassification of the Units of the Company, (v) any other transaction similar to the transactions described in clauses (i)-(iv) above (other than any such transaction that is a Common Unit Reorganization), (any of the foregoing events or transactions being called a "Capital Reorganization"), then, effective upon the effective date of such Capital Reorganization, the Warrant Holder shall no longer have the right to purchase Common Units, but shall have instead the right to purchase from the Company or the successor Person resulting from such Capital Reorganization, upon exercise of this Warrant, the kind and amount of securities and property (including cash) which the Warrant Holder would have owned or have been entitled to receive pursuant to such Capital Reorganization if the Warrant had been exercised in full immediately prior to the effective date of such Capital

Reorganization and acquired the applicable number of Warrant Units then issuable hereunder as a result of such exercise (without taking into account any limitations or restrictions on the exercisability of this Warrant); and, in such case, appropriate adjustment (in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Warrant Holder) shall be made with respect to the Warrant Holder's rights under this Warrant to insure that the provisions of this Section 5 shall thereafter be applicable, as nearly as possible, to this Warrant in relation to any securities and property (including cash) thereafter acquirable upon exercise of this Warrant.

As a condition to effecting any Capital Reorganization, the Company or the successor or surviving entity, as the case may be, shall execute and deliver to the Warrant Holder an agreement as to the Warrant Holder's rights in accordance with this Section 5(b), providing, to the extent of any right to purchase equity securities hereunder, for subsequent adjustments as nearly equivalent as may be practicable to the adjustments provided for in this Section 5 and otherwise having the same terms and conditions as set forth herein.

The Company shall not effect any Capital Reorganization unless, prior to the consummation thereof, the successor Person (if other than the Company) resulting from such Capital Reorganization, shall assume, by written instrument substantially similar in form and substance to this Warrant and reasonably satisfactory to the Warrant Holder, the obligation to deliver to the Warrant Holder such securities and property (including cash) which, in accordance with the foregoing provisions, such Holder shall be entitled to receive upon exercise of this Warrant. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, with respect to any Capital Reorganization contemplated by the provisions of this Section 5(b), the Warrant Holder shall have the right to elect prior to the consummation of such any Capital Reorganization, to give effect to the exercise rights contained in Section 2 (to the extent the Exercisable Date has then occurred) instead of giving effect to the provisions contained in this Section 5(b) with respect to this Warrant.

The provisions of this Section 5(b) shall similarly apply to successive Capital Reorganizations. The provisions of this Section 5(b) shall not apply to any transaction that is a Qualified Financing.

(c) Special Distributions. If, after the Exercisable Date, the Company shall issue or distribute to any holder or holders of Common Units evidences of indebtedness, any other securities of the Company or any cash, property or other assets (excluding a Common Unit Reorganization) whether or not accompanied by a purchase, redemption or other acquisition of Units (any such nonexcluded event being herein called a "Special Distribution"), then the Warrant Holder shall be entitled to a pro-rata share of such Special Distribution as though the Warrant Holder had fully exercised this Warrant immediately prior to the record date for such Special Distribution, and the Company shall pay or distribute such pro-rata share to Warrant Holder when paid or distributed to the holders of the Common Units. For the avoidance of doubt, no adjustment in the number of Warrant Units issuable upon exercise of this Warrant shall be made with respect to a Special Distribution. A reclassification of the Common Units into Units of any other class of units or securities shall be deemed to be a distribution by the Company to the holders of its Common Units of such class of units or securities and, if the outstanding Common Units shall be changed into a larger or smaller number of Units as part of such reclassification, a Common Unit Reorganization.

(d) Adjustment to Number of Warrant Units Upon Issuance of Common Units. Except as provided in Section 5(e) and except in the case of an event described in either Section 5(a) or Section 5(b), if the Company shall, at any time or from time to time after the Exercisable Date, issue or sell, or in accordance with Section 5(f) is deemed to have issued or sold, any Common Units without consideration or for consideration per Common Unit less than $11.00 (as such amount is proportionately adjusted for Common Unit splits, reverse Common Unit splits, Common Unit combinations, Common Unit dividends and other distributions and recapitalizations affecting the Common Units after September 2, 2021, the "Original Price"), then immediately upon such issuance or sale (or deemed issuance or sale), the number of Warrant Units issuable upon exercise of this Warrant immediately prior to any such issuance or sale (or deemed issuance or sale) shall be increased to a number of Warrant Units equal to the product obtained by multiplying the number of Warrant Units issuable upon exercise of this Warrant immediately prior to such issuance or sale (or deemed issuance or sale) by a fraction (which shall in no event be less than one):

(i) the numerator of which shall be the number of Common Units Deemed Outstanding immediately after such issuance or sale (or deemed issuance or sale); and

(ii) the denominator of which shall be the sum of: (A) the number of Common Units Deemed Outstanding immediately prior to such issuance or sale (or deemed issuance or sale); plus (B) the aggregate number of Common Units which the aggregate amount of consideration, if any, received by the Company upon such issuance or sale (or deemed issuance or sale) would purchase at the Original Price.

(e) Exceptions to Adjustment Upon Issuance of Common Units. Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, there shall be no adjustment to the number of Warrant Units issuable upon exercise of this Warrant with respect to (i) any Excluded Issuance, or (ii) a Qualified Financing (which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall be subject to the terms and conditions of the LLC Agreement).

(f) Effect of Certain Events on Adjustment to Number of Warrant Units. For purposes of determining the adjusted number of Warrant Units under Section 5(d), the following shall be applicable:

(i) Issuance of Options. If the Company shall, at any time or from time to time after the Exercisable Date, in any manner grant or sell (whether directly or by assumption in a merger or otherwise) any Options, whether or not such Options or the right to convert, exercise or exchange any Convertible Securities issuable upon the exercise of such Options are immediately exercisable, and the price per Common Unit (determined as provided in this paragraph and in Section 5(f)(v)) for which Common Units are issuable upon the exercise of such Options or upon the conversion or exchange of Convertible Securities issuable upon the exercise of such Options is less than the Original Price in effect immediately prior to the time of the granting or sale of such Options, then the total maximum number of Common Units issuable upon the exercise of such Options or upon conversion or exchange of the total maximum amount of Convertible Securities issuable upon the exercise of such Options shall be deemed to have been issued as of the date of granting or sale of such Options (and thereafter shall be deemed to be outstanding for purposes of adjusting the number of Warrant Units under Section 5(d)), at a price per Common Unit equal to the quotient obtained by dividing: (A) the sum (which sum shall constitute the applicable consideration received for purposes of Section 5(d)) of (x) the total amount, if any, received or receivable by the Company as consideration for the granting or sale of all such Options, plus (y) the minimum aggregate amount of additional consideration payable to the Company upon the exercise of all such Options, plus (z), in the case of such Options which relate to Convertible Securities, the minimum aggregate amount of additional consideration, if any, payable to the Company upon the issuance or sale of all such Convertible Securities and the conversion or exchange of all such Convertible Securities; by (B) the total maximum number of Common Units issuable upon the exercise of all such Options or upon the conversion or exchange of all Convertible Securities issuable upon the exercise of all such Options. Except as otherwise provided in Section 5(f)(iii), no further adjustment of the number of Warrant Units shall be made upon the actual issuance of Common Units or of Convertible Securities upon exercise of such Options or upon the actual issuance of Common Units upon conversion or exchange of Convertible Securities issuable upon exercise of such Options.

(ii) Issuance of Convertible Securities. If the Company shall, at any time or from time to time after the Exercisable Date, in any manner grant or sell (whether directly or by assumption in a merger or otherwise) any Convertible Securities, whether or not the right to convert or exchange any such Convertible Securities is immediately exercisable, and the price per Common Unit (determined as provided in this paragraph and in Section 5(f)(v)) for which Common Units are issuable upon the conversion or exchange of such Convertible Securities is less than the Original Price in effect immediately prior to the time of the granting or sale of such Convertible Securities, then the total maximum number of Common Units issuable upon conversion or exchange of the total maximum amount of such Convertible Securities shall be deemed to have been issued as of the date of granting or sale of such Convertible Securities (and thereafter shall be deemed to be outstanding for purposes of adjusting the number of Warrant Units pursuant to Section 5(d)), at a price per Common Unit equal to the quotient obtained by dividing: (A) the sum (which sum shall constitute the applicable consideration received for purposes of Section 5(d)) of (x) the total amount, if any, received or receivable by the Company as consideration for the granting or sale of such Convertible Securities, plus (y) the minimum aggregate amount of additional consideration, if any, payable to the Company upon the conversion or exchange of all such Convertible Securities; by (B) the total maximum number of Common Units issuable upon the conversion or exchange of all such Convertible Securities. Except as otherwise provided in Section 5(f)(iii), no further adjustment of the number of Warrant Units shall be made upon the actual issuance of Common Units upon conversion or exchange of such Convertible Securities or by reason of the issue or sale of Convertible Securities upon exercise of any Options to purchase any such Convertible Securities for which adjustments of the number of Warrant Units have been made pursuant to the other provisions of this Section 5(f).

(iii) Change in Terms of Options or Convertible Securities. Upon any change in any of (A) the total amount received or receivable by the Company as consideration for the granting or sale of any Options or Convertible Securities referred to in Section 5(f)(i) or Section 5(f)(ii), (B) the minimum aggregate amount of additional consideration, if any, payable to the Company upon the exercise of any Options or upon the issuance, conversion or exchange of any Convertible Securities referred to in Section 5(f)(i) or Section 5(f)(ii), (C) the rate at which Convertible Securities referred to in Section 5(f)(i) or Section 5(f)(ii) are convertible into or exchangeable for Common Units, or (D) the maximum number of Common Units issuable in connection with any Options referred to in Section 5(f)(i) or any Convertible Securities referred to in Section 5(f)(ii) (in each case, other than in connection with an Excluded Issuance), then (whether or not the original issuance or sale of such Options or Convertible Securities resulted in an adjustment to the number of Warrant Units pursuant to this Section 5) the number of Warrant Units issuable upon exercise of this Warrant at the time of such change shall be adjusted or readjusted, as applicable, to the number of Warrant Units which would have been in effect at such time pursuant to the provisions of this Section 5 had such Options or Convertible Securities still outstanding provided for such changed consideration, conversion rate, or maximum number of Common Units, as the case may be, at the time initially granted, issued, or sold, but only if as a result of such adjustment or readjustment, the number of Warrant Units issuable upon exercise of this Warrant is increased.

(iv) Treatment of Expired or Terminated Options or Convertible Securities. Upon the expiration or termination of any unexercised Option (or portion thereof) or any unconverted or unexchanged Convertible Security (or portion thereof) for which any adjustment (either upon its original issuance or upon a revision of its terms) was made pursuant to this Section 5 (including upon the redemption or purchase for consideration of all or any portion of such Option or Convertible Security by the Company), the number of Warrant Units then issuable upon exercise of this Warrant shall forthwith be changed pursuant to the provisions of this Section 5 to the number of Warrant Units which would have been in effect at the time of such expiration or termination had such unexercised Option (or portion thereof) or unconverted or unexchanged Convertible Security (or portion thereof), to the extent outstanding immediately prior to such expiration or termination, never been issued.

(v) Calculation of Consideration Received. If the Company shall, at any time or from time to time after the Exercisable Date, issue or sell, or is deemed to have issued or sold in accordance with Section 5(f), any Common Units, Options, or Convertible Securities: (A) for cash, the consideration received therefor shall be deemed to be the net amount received by the Company therefor; (B) for consideration other than cash, the amount of the consideration other than cash received by the Company shall be the Fair Value of such consideration, except where such consideration consists of marketable securities, in which case the amount of consideration received by the Company shall be the market price (as reflected on any securities exchange, quotation system or association, or similar pricing system covering such security) for such securities as of the end of business on the date of receipt of such securities; (C) for no specifically allocated consideration in connection with an issuance or sale of other securities of the Company, together comprising one integrated transaction, the amount of the consideration therefor shall be deemed to be the Fair Value of such portion of the aggregate consideration received by the Company in such transaction as is attributable to such Common Units,

Options or Convertible Securities, as the case may be, issued in such transaction; or (D) to the owners of the non-surviving entity in connection with any merger in which the Company is the surviving corporation, the amount of consideration therefor shall be deemed to be the Fair Value of such portion of the net assets and business of the non-surviving entity as is attributable to such Common Units, Options, or Convertible Securities, as the case may be, issued to such owners. The net amount of any cash consideration and the Fair Value of any consideration other than cash or marketable securities shall be determined in good faith jointly by the Board and the Requisite Holders; provided, however, that if the Board and the Requisite Holders are unable to agree on the net amount of any cash consideration or the Fair Value of any consideration other than cash or marketable securities within a reasonable period of time (not to exceed 15 days from the Warrant Holder's receipt of a certificate of adjustment pursuant to Section 5(i)(vii) relating to the applicable issuance), such net amount of cash or Fair Value, as applicable, shall be determined by the Appraiser.

(vi) Record Date. For purposes of any adjustment to the number of Warrant Units in accordance with this Section 5, in case the Company shall take a record of the holders of its Common Units for the purpose of entitling them (A) to receive a dividend or other distribution payable in Common Units, Options, or Convertible Securities, or (B) to subscribe for or purchase Common Units, Options, or Convertible Securities, then such record date shall be deemed to be the date of the issue or sale of the Common Units deemed to have been issued or sold upon the declaration of such dividend or the making of such other distribution or the date of the granting of such right of subscription or purchase, as the case may be; provided, however, that if before the distribution to its holders of Common Units the Company legally abandons its plan to pay or deliver such dividend, distribution, subscription, or purchase rights, then thereafter no adjustment shall be required by the taking of such record and any such adjustment previously made in respect thereof shall be rescinded and annulled.

(vii) Treasury Units. The number of Common Units outstanding at any given time shall not include any securities owned or held by or for the account of the Company or any of its wholly owned subsidiaries, and the disposition of any such securities (other than the cancellation or retirement thereof or the transfer of such securities among the Company and its wholly owned subsidiaries) shall be considered an issue or sale of Common Units for the purpose of this Section 5.

(g) Notices. In the event:

(i) that the Company shall take a record of the holders of its Common Units (or other Units or securities at the time issuable upon exercise of the Warrant) for the purpose of entitling or enabling them to receive any dividend or other distribution (including a Special Distribution), to vote at a meeting (or by written consent), to receive any right to subscribe for or purchase any Units of any class or any other securities, or to receive any other security; or

(ii) of any capital reorganization of the Company, any reclassification of the Common Units of the Company, any consolidation or merger of the Company with or into another Person, any sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets to another Person (including any Capital Reorganization), or any SPAC Transaction; or

(iii) of the voluntary or involuntary dissolution, liquidation, or winding-up of the Company;

then, and in each such case, the Company shall send or cause to be sent to the Warrant Holder at least fifteen (15) days prior to the applicable record date or the applicable expected effective date, as the case may be, for the event, a written notice specifying, as the case may be, (A) the record date for such dividend, distribution, meeting or consent, or other right or action, and a description of such dividend, distribution, or other right or action to be taken at such meeting or by written consent, or (B) the effective date on which such reorganization, reclassification, consolidation, merger, sale, dissolution, liquidation, or winding-up is proposed to take place, and the date, if any is to be fixed, as of which the books of the Company shall close or a record shall be taken with respect to which the holders of record of Common Units (or such other Units or securities at the time issuable upon exercise of the Warrant) shall be entitled to exchange their Common Units (or such other Units or securities) for securities or other property deliverable upon such reorganization, reclassification, consolidation, merger, sale, dissolution, liquidation, or winding-up, and the amount per Unit and character of such exchange applicable to the Warrant and the Warrant Units.

(h) Equitable Equivalent. In case any event shall occur (including any change or adjustment to the number of Common Units issuable upon conversion of any Preferred Unit pursuant to the LLC Agreement) as to which the provisions of this Section 5 set forth above hereof are not strictly applicable but the failure to make any adjustment would not, in the reasonable opinion of the Requisite Holders, fairly protect the purchase rights represented by this Warrant in accordance with the essential intent and principles of this Section 5, then, in each such case, at the request of the Requisite Holders, the Company shall appoint an Appraiser (which shall be completely independent of the Company and shall be satisfactory to the Warrant Holder or the holders constituting the Requisite Holders), which shall give its opinion upon the adjustments, if any, on a basis consistent with the essential intent and principles established in this Section 5, necessary to preserve, without dilution, the purchase rights represented by this Warrant. Upon receipt of such opinion, the Company promptly will send a copy thereof to the Warrant Holder and shall make the adjustments described therein.

(i) Adjustment Rules.

(i) Any adjustments pursuant to this Section 5 shall be made successively whenever any event referred to herein shall occur.

(ii) In computing adjustments under this Section 5, fractional interests in Common Units shall be taken into account to the nearest one-thousandth of a Common Unit.

(iii) The exercise of a Warrant shall not, in and of itself, cause an adjustment pursuant to this Section 5.

(iv) No adjustment under this Section 5 shall operate to increase the Exercise Price or reduce the number of Common Units subject to purchase upon exercise of this Warrant, other than in the case of a Common Unit Reorganization involving a Common Unit combination or similar transaction.

(v) As a condition precedent to the taking of any action which would require an adjustment pursuant to this Section 5, the Company shall take any action which may be necessary, including obtaining regulatory approvals or exemptions, in order that the Company may thereafter validly and legally issue all Common Units which the Warrant Holder is entitled to receive upon exercise of the Warrant.

(vi) Not less than fifteen (15) days prior to the record date or effective date, as the case may be, of any action which requires or might require an adjustment or readjustment pursuant to this Section 5, the Company shall give notice to the Warrant Holder of such event, describing such event in reasonable detail and specifying the record date or effective date, as the case may be, and, if determinable, the required adjustment and computation thereof. If the required adjustment is not determinable as of the time of such notice, the Company shall give notice to the Warrant Holder of such adjustment and computation as soon as reasonably practicable after such adjustment becomes determinable (and in any event no later than three (3) days prior to such record date or effective date, as applicable). Any dispute which arises between the Warrant Holder and the Company with respect to the calculation of the adjusted Warrant Units issuable upon exercise shall be determined by the Appraiser.

(vii) As promptly as reasonably practicable following any adjustment of the number of Warrant Units pursuant to the provisions of this Section 5, but in any event not later than five (5) Business Days thereafter, the Company shall furnish to the Warrant Holder a certificate of an executive officer setting forth in reasonable detail such adjustment and the facts upon which it is based and certifying the calculation thereof.

(viii) As promptly as reasonably practicable following the receipt by the Company of a written request by the Warrant Holder, but in any event not later than five (5) Business Days thereafter, the Company shall furnish to the Warrant Holder a certificate of an executive officer certifying the number of Warrant Units or the amount, if any, of other Units, securities, or assets then issuable upon exercise of the Warrant.

(ix) The form of this Warrant need not be changed because of any adjustment pursuant to this Section 5.

(x) Upon the occurrence of any adjustment pursuant to this Section 5, the Exercise Price also shall be correspondingly adjusted, so that after such adjustment the aggregate Exercise Price payable hereunder for the adjusted number of Warrant Units shall be the same as the aggregate Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to such adjustment.

Section 6. Transfer of Warrant.

Subject to any limitations on transfer applicable to holders of Warrants set forth in the LLC Agreement, the Warrant Holder may effectuate a transfer of the Warrant by (a) delivering to the Company a duly executed Warrant Assignment in the form of Exhibit B of this Warrant, together with funds sufficient to pay any transfer taxes described in Section 2(f) in connection with the making of such transfer, and (b) causing the transferee to sign and deliver to the Company a joinder to the LLC Agreement (if such transferee is not already a party thereto), in a form reasonably acceptable to the Company, pursuant to which such transferee agrees to be bound by the terms thereof. For the avoidance of doubt, if the Warrant Holder does not comply with clauses (a) and (b) of the foregoing sentence, the purported transfer shall be deemed void ab initio.

Section 7. Covenants. The Company hereby covenants and agrees as follows:

(a) No Avoidance. Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, nothing herein shall be construed to limit, amend or alter the rights or remedies available to the Warrant Holder. The Company shall not, by amendment of its certificate of formation, the LLC Agreement, any other constitutional document or any other agreement to which it is party or through any consolidation, merger, amalgamation, reorganization, reclassification of securities, recapitalization, transfer of assets, dissolution, issue or sale of securities, SPAC Transaction or any other action or transaction, directly or indirectly, avoid or seek to avoid the observance or performance of any of the terms of this Warrant, but will at all times in good faith assist in the carrying out of all such terms and in the taking of all such action as may be necessary or appropriate or reasonably requested by the Warrant Holder in order to protect the rights of the Warrant Holder against dilution or other impairment.

(b) Further Actions. The Company shall take all such actions as may be necessary to ensure that all such Warrant Units are issued without violation by the Company of any applicable law or governmental regulation or any requirements of any securities exchange upon which shares of Common Stock or other securities constituting Warrant Units may be listed at the time of such exercise (except for official notice of issuance which shall be immediately delivered by the Company upon each such issuance).

(c) Securities Listings. The Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Warrant Units, immediately upon such exercise, to be listed on any securities exchange upon which Common Units or other securities constituting Warrant Units are listed at the time of such exercise.

(d) Par Value. If the Warrant Units have a par value, then the Company shall ensure that the par value per Warrant Unit shall at all times be less than or equal to the applicable Exercise Price. The Company shall not increase the par value of any Warrant Units receivable upon the exercise of this Warrant above the Exercise Price then in effect, and shall take all such actions as may be necessary or appropriate in order that the Company may validly and legally issue fully paid and nonassessable Warrant Units upon the exercise of this Warrant.

Section 8. Lost, Mutilated or Missing Warrants.

The Company hereby agrees that, upon receipt by the Company of evidence reasonably satisfactory to it of the loss, theft, destruction or mutilation of any Warrant, and, in the case of loss, theft or destruction, upon receipt of indemnification satisfactory to the Company (which shall be in the form of an unsecured, unbonded agreement of indemnity or affidavit of loss) or, in the case of mutilation, upon surrender and cancellation of the mutilated Warrant, the Company shall execute and deliver a new Warrant of like tenor and representing the right to purchase the same aggregate number of Warrant Units.

Section 9. Waivers; Amendments; Rights and Remedies.

(a) Any provision of this Warrant may be amended or waived with (but only with) the written consent of the Company and the Requisite Holders; provided, however, that no such amendment or waiver shall, without the written consent of the Company and the Warrant Holder, (i) change the number of Warrant Units issuable upon exercise of the Warrant or the Exercise Price, (ii) shorten the Expiration Date, or (iii) amend, supplement or waive the provisions of this Section or the definition of "Requisite Holders." Any amendment or waiver effected in compliance with this Section shall be binding upon the Company and the Warrant Holder. The Company shall give prompt notice to the Warrant Holder of any amendment or waiver effected in compliance with this Section.

(b) No failure or delay of the Company or the Warrant Holder in exercising any power or right hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right or power, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such a right or power, preclude any other or further exercise thereon or the exercise of any other right or power. No notice or demand on the Company in any case shall entitle the Company to any other or future notice or demand in similar or other circumstances. The rights and remedies of the Company and the Warrant Holder hereunder are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies which it would otherwise have.

Section 10. Miscellaneous.

(a) Expenses. The Company shall pay all reasonable expenses of the Warrant Holder, including reasonable fees and disbursements of counsel, in connection with the preparation of the Warrant.

(b) Successors and Assigns. All the provisions of this Warrant by or for the benefit of the Company or the Warrant Holder shall bind and inure to the benefit of their respective successors and permitted assigns.

(c) Severability. In case any one or more of the provisions contained in this Warrant shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions contained herein shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby. The parties shall endeavor in good faith negotiations to replace the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions.

(d) Notices. Any notice or other communication required or permitted to be delivered to any party under this Warrant will be in writing and delivered by (a) email or (b) registered mail via a national courier service to the following email address or physical address, as applicable: (a) if to the Company, addressed to the Company at its address for notices as set forth below its signature hereon or any other address as the Company may hereafter notify to the Warrant Holder; and (b) if to the Warrant Holder, addressed to such address as the Warrant Holder may hereafter from time to time notify to the Company for the purposes of notice hereunder.

(e) Equitable Remedies. Without limiting the rights of the Company and the Warrant Holder to pursue all other legal and equitable rights available to such party for the other parties' failure to perform its obligations hereunder, the Company and the Warrant Holder each hereto acknowledge and agree that the remedy at law for any failure to perform any obligations hereunder would be inadequate and that each shall be entitled to specific performance, injunctive relief or other equitable remedies in the event of any such failure.

(f) Continued Effect. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the rights and benefits conferred on the holders of Warrant Units pursuant to the provisions hereof (including Section 6 and any covenants made by the Company) shall continue to inure to the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, such holders, notwithstanding the surrender of the Warrant to, and its cancellation by, the Company upon the full or partial exercise or repurchase hereof. The Warrant Holders shall be entitled to retain a copy of this Warrant as evidence of the continued effect of the provisions hereof.

(g) Governing Law. THIS WARRANT SHALL BE CONSTRUED AND ENFORCED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE INTERNAL LAWS OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE, WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO SUCH LAW(S) THAT WOULD REQUIRE APPLICATION OF THE LAWS OF ANOTHER JURISDICTION.

(h) Section Headings. The section headings used herein are for convenience of reference only and shall not be construed in any way to affect the interpretation of any provisions of the Warrant.

(i) Rights as a Lender Unaffected. For the avoidance of doubt and notwithstanding anything herein that may be to the contrary, nothing contained in this Warrant shall affect, limit or impair the rights and remedies of the Warrant Holder or an Affiliate thereof in its capacity as a lender to the Company or any of its Affiliates pursuant to any note, indenture, agreement or other instrument under which the Company or any of its Affiliates has borrowed or may in the future borrow money. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any such person, in exercising its rights as a lender or agent thereunder, including making its decision on whether to foreclose on any collateral security, will have no duty to consider (i) its status or the status of any of its Affiliates as a direct or indirect equityholder of the Company or any of its Affiliates, (ii) the interests of the Company or any of its Affiliates, or (iii) any duty it may have to any other direct or indirect equityholder of the Company or any of its Affiliates, except as may be required under commercial law applicable to creditors generally.

[Signatures on following page.]

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Company has caused this Warrant to be duly executed by its authorized signatory as of the day and year first above written.

FORM OF SECOND TRANCHE WARRANT

#94683724v30

FORM OF WARRANT

TRICOLOR HOLDINGS, LLC

THIS WARRANT AND THE SECURITIES ISSUABLE UPON EXERCISE OF THIS WARRANT HAVE NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE "ACT"), OR QUALIFIED UNDER ANY STATE OR FOREIGN SECURITIES LAWS AND MAY NOT BE OFFERED FOR SALE, SOLD, PLEDGED, HYPOTHECATED OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED OR ASSIGNED UNLESS (I) A REGISTRATION STATEMENT COVERING SUCH SECURITIES IS EFFECTIVE UNDER THE ACT AND IS QUALIFIED UNDER APPLICABLE STATE AND FOREIGN LAW, OR (II) THE TRANSACTION IS EXEMPT FROM THE REGISTRATION AND PROSPECTUS DELIVERY REQUIREMENTS UNDER THE ACT AND ANY QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS UNDER APPLICABLE STATE AND FOREIGN LAW.

Dated: September 2, 2021

Second Tranche Warrant No.: [●]

THIS CERTIFIES THAT, for value received, [_____], a [_____], or its successors or assigns (such Person and such successors and assigns each being the "Warrant Holder" with respect to the Warrant held by it), at any time and from time to time on any Business Day on or after the Exercisable Date (as herein defined) and prior to 5:00 p.m. (ET) on the Expiration Date (as herein defined), is entitled: (a) to subscribe for the purchase from Tricolor Holdings, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "Company"), a number of Warrant Units equal to the Second Tranche Unit Number upon the exercise of this Warrant, in each case at a price per Common Unit equal to the Exercise Price (as herein defined); and (b) to the other rights set forth herein; provided, however, that the number of Common Units issuable upon any exercise of this Warrant and the Exercise Price shall be adjusted and readjusted from time to time in accordance with Section 5.

WHEREAS, this Warrant is being issued to the Warrant Holder pursuant to the Subscription Agreement (as herein defined).

IN FURTHERANCE THEREOF, in consideration of the foregoing, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which hereby are acknowledged, the parties hereto irrevocably undertake and agree as follows:

Section 1. Definitions and Construction.

(a) Certain Definitions. As used herein (the following definitions being applicable in both singular and plural forms):

"Affiliate" means any Person directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by, or under common control with another Person and any Persons with the same investment manager or whose investment manager is directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by, or under common control with another Person's investment manager. For purposes of this definition, "control" (including the terms "controlled by" and "under common control with") means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management policies or affairs of a Person, whether through ownership of voting securities, by contract or otherwise, as executor, trustee or otherwise.

"Appraiser" means a mutually acceptable, independent third party investment bank, selected by the Company and the Requisite Holders, who shall determine Fair Value, if the Company and the Warrant Holder are unable to agree. Any determination by the Appraiser shall be final, conclusive and binding upon the Company and the holders of the Warrants and the Warrant Units. The fees and expenses of the Appraiser shall be paid by the Company, on the one hand, and by the Requisite Holders, on the other hand, based upon the percentage that the amount actually contested but not awarded to the Company or the Requisite Holders, respectively, bears to the aggregate amount actually contested by the Company and the Requisite Holders.

"Board" means the board of directors or managers, managing member, or such other similar governing Person or body.

"Business Day" means any day except a Saturday, Sunday or other day on which commercial banks in New York City are authorized by law to close.

"Capital Reorganization" has the meaning set forth in Section 5(b).

"Commission" means the Securities and Exchange Commission or any other Federal agency administering the Securities Act at the time.

"Common Unit Reorganization" has the meaning set forth in Section 5(a).

"Common Units" means Common Units of the Company, and any other class or series of equity interests into which such Common Units may hereafter have been changed, converted, exchanged or reclassified .

"Common Units Deemed Outstanding" means, at any given time, the sum of (i) the number of Common Units actually outstanding at such time, plus (ii) the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise of Options actually outstanding at such time, plus (iii) without duplication, the number of Common Units issuable upon conversion, exercise or exchange of Convertible Securities actually outstanding at such time (treating as actually outstanding any Convertible Securities, issuable upon exercise of Options actually outstanding at such time), in each case, regardless of whether the Options or Convertible Securities are actually exercisable at such time; provided, however, that Common Units Deemed Outstanding at any given time shall not include (i) Common Units, Convertible Securities or Options owned or held by or for the account of the Company or any of its wholly owned subsidiaries, or (ii) any Warrants (or the Common Units issuable upon exercise of such Warrants) with respect to which the Exercisable Date has not occurred.

"Company" has the meaning set forth in the introductory paragraph to this Warrant.

"Convertible Securities" means any securities (directly or indirectly) convertible into or exchangeable for Common Units, but excluding Options. For the avoidance of doubt, Management Incentive Units are not Convertible Securities.

"Excluded Issuances" means any issuance or sale (or deemed issuance or sale in accordance with Section 5(f)) by the Company of any Common Units issued: (a) upon the exercise of any Warrant; (b) upon the conversion of any Preferred Unit; (c) securities issued by the Company in a Qualified Public Offering; or (d) Units of the Company issued in accordance with the LLC Agreement as consideration to a selling party in a merger, consolidation, acquisition or similar business combination approved by the Board.

"Exchange Act" means the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

"Exercisable Date" means September 2, 2026 or each Second Tranche Increase Date, as applicable.

"Exercise Amount" means for any number of Warrant Units as to which this Warrant is being exercised, the product of (i) such number of Warrant Units, multiplied by (ii) the Exercise Price.

"Exercise Price" means $0.01 per Warrant Unit, as adjusted from time to time pursuant to Section 5.

"Expiration Date" means the earlier to occur of: (i) the date of the fifth (5^{th}) anniversary of the applicable Exercisable Date, (ii) the consummation of a Qualified Financing; and (iii) such time as no Preferred Units are outstanding.

"Fair Value" means, as of any particular date, the fair value of a Unit, without giving effect to any discounts for a lack of control, illiquidity, lack of marketability or minority status, as determined jointly by the Company and the Warrant Holder in good faith.

"Fully Diluted Equity", as of any particular date, means all outstanding Common Units plus all Common Units issuable in respect of Convertible Securities, Management Incentive Units, Options and all appreciation rights and phantom equity based on or in respect of Common Units, as of such date, including, and for the avoidance of doubt, any right pursuant to any equity incentive plan; provided, however, that if any of the foregoing are subject to vesting or are otherwise not exercisable as of the relevant date, such Common Units shall be included only upon and to the extent then vested or exercisable.

"Lien" means any lien (statutory or otherwise), encumbrance, charge, claim, community property interest, option, pledge, mortgage, deed of trust, hypothecation, collateral assignment, deposit arrangement or security interest.

"LLC Agreement" means that certain Fourth Amended and Restated Operating Agreement, dated as of September 2, 2021, among Tricolor Holdings, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and certain holders of equity interests of the Company, as the same may be amended, restated, or otherwise modified from time to time.

"Notice of Exercise" has the meaning set forth in Section 2(a).

"Options" means any warrants, options or other rights to subscribe for or purchase Common Units or Convertible Securities.

"Original Price" has the meaning set forth in Section 5(d).

"Person" means an individual, a corporation, a limited liability company, a partnership, an association, a trust or any other entity or organization, including a government or political subdivision or an agency or instrumentality thereof.

"Preferred Units" has the meaning set forth in the LLC Agreement.

"Requisite Holders" means, at any time, holders of Warrant Units and Warrants representing more than 50% of the Warrant Units outstanding and/or issuable upon the exercise of all the outstanding Warrants.

"Second Tranche Increase Date" means each of March 31, June 30, September 30 and December 31 of each year beginning after September 2, 2026.

"Second Tranche Proportional Share" means, as of any date, a fraction equal to (i) the number of Preferred Units held by the Warrant Holder as of such date, divided by (ii) the total number of Preferred Units issued and outstanding on such date of determination, whether or not held by the Warrant Holder (after giving effect to any splits, combinations and similar events). For the avoidance of doubt, if no Preferred Units are outstanding as of the date such fraction is calculated, then the Second Tranche Proportional Share shall be zero (0).

"Second Tranche Unit Number" means the product of (i) a number of Common Units equal to five percent (5.00%) of the Fully Diluted Equity on September 2, 2026 and (ii) the Second Tranche Proportional Share, calculated as of such fifth anniversary; provided, however, that, on each Second Tranche Increase Date, if any Preferred Units are outstanding as of such date, the Second Tranche Unit Number shall be increased by the product of (A) a number of Common Units equal to one and one-fourth percent (1.25%) of the Fully Diluted Equity on such Second Tranche Increase Date and (B) the Second Tranche Proportional Share, calculated as of such Second Tranche Increase Date.

"Securities Act" means the Securities Act of 1933 and the rules and regulations of the Commission thereunder, all as the same shall be in effect at the time.

"Special Distribution" has the meaning set forth in Section 5(c).

"Subscription Agreement" means that certain Subscription Agreement, dated as of September 2, 2021, among Tricolor Holdings, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and the other parties thereto, as the same may be amended, restated, or otherwise modified from time to time.

"Tax Distributions" means tax distributions from the Company to any Member pursuant to the terms of Section 8.2 of the LLC Agreement.

"Units" has the meaning set forth in the LLC Agreement.

"Warrant" means, as the context requires, (i) this Warrant, (ii) any of the other Common Unit purchase warrants originally issued pursuant to or in connection with the Subscription Agreement, (iii) in the case of clause (i) or clause (ii) above, any successor warrant, any replacement warrant, and any warrant issued upon division or combination of, or in substitution for, this Warrant or any such other Common Unit purchase warrant, and (iv) any warrant issued upon a whole or partial transfer or assignment of any warrant referred to in the foregoing clauses (i), (ii) and (iii).

"Warrant Holder" has the meaning set forth in the introductory paragraph to this Warrant.

"Warrant Units" means the number of Common Units issued or issuable upon exercise of this Warrant as set forth in the introduction hereto, as adjusted from time to time pursuant to Section 5, or in the case of other Warrants, issued or issuable upon exercise of those Warrants.

In addition to the foregoing definitions, capitalized terms used and not otherwise defined herein have the respective meanings set forth in the LLC Agreement, as in effect on the date hereof.

(b) Accounting Terms and Determinations. Unless otherwise specified herein, all accounting terms used herein shall be interpreted, all accounting determinations hereunder shall be made, and all financial statements required to be delivered hereunder shall be prepared, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States. When used herein, the term "financial statements" shall include the notes and schedules thereto. References to fiscal periods are to fiscal periods of the Company.

(c) Computation of Time Periods. With respect to the computation of periods of time from a specified date to a later specified date, the word "from" means "from and including" and the words "to" and "until" each mean "to but excluding." Periods of days shall be counted in calendar days unless otherwise stated.

(d) Construction. Unless the context requires otherwise, (i) references to the plural include the singular, (ii) references to the singular include the plural, (iii) references to any gender include any other gender, (iv) the part includes the whole, (v) the terms "including,"

"include" and "includes" are not limiting, and (vi) the term "or" has, except where otherwise expressly indicated, the inclusive meaning represented by the phrase "and/or."

The words "hereof," "herein," "hereby," "hereunder," and similar terms in this Warrant refer to this Warrant as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Warrant. Section, subsection, clause, exhibit and schedule references are to this Warrant, unless otherwise specified. Any reference to this Warrant includes any and all permitted alterations, amendments, changes, extensions, modifications, renewals, or supplements thereto.

Definitions from the LLC Agreement that are referenced herein are incorporated herein in full (together with any necessary constituent definitions) and remain operative, notwithstanding any amendment or termination of, or supplement to, the LLC Agreement.

(e) Exhibits and Schedules. All of the exhibits and schedules attached hereto shall be deemed incorporated herein by reference.

(f) No Presumption Against Any Party. Neither this Warrant nor any uncertainty or ambiguity herein or therein shall be construed or resolved using any presumption against any party hereto or thereto, whether under any rule of construction or otherwise. On the contrary, this Warrant has been reviewed by each of the parties hereto and their respective counsel and, in the case of any ambiguity or uncertainty, shall be construed and interpreted according to the ordinary meaning of the words used so as to fairly accomplish the purposes and intentions of all parties hereto.

Section 2. Exercise of Warrant.

(a) Exercise and Payment. The Warrant Holder may exercise this Warrant in whole or in part, at any time or from time to time on any Business Day on or after the Exercisable Date and prior to 5:00 p.m. (ET) on the Expiration Date, by delivering to the Company a duly executed notice (a "Notice of Exercise") in the form of Exhibit A and by payment to the Company of the Exercise Price per Warrant Unit, at the election of the Warrant Holder as follows: (i) by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the account of the Company in an amount equal to the Exercise Amount; (ii) by receiving from the Company the number of Warrant Units equal to (A) the number of Warrant Units as to which this Warrant is being exercised, minus (B) the number of Warrant Units having a value, based on the Fair Value immediately prior to the date of such exercise, equal to the Exercise Amount; or (iii) any combination of the foregoing.

The Company acknowledges that the provisions of clause (ii) of the prior sentence are intended, in part, to ensure that a full or partial exchange of this Warrant pursuant to such clause (ii) will qualify as an exchange, within the meaning of paragraph (d)(3)(iii) of Rule 144 under the Securities Act. For all purposes of this Warrant (other than this Section 2(a)), any reference herein to the exercise of this Warrant shall be deemed to include a reference to the exchange of this Warrant into Warrant Units in accordance with the terms of clause (ii). If this Warrant is exercised only in part, the Warrant Holder shall be deemed (to the extent of such exercise) to have exercised this Warrant and acquired Common Units in respect of which the earliest Expiration Date applies under this Warrant.

(b) Effectiveness and Delivery. As soon as practicable, but not later than five (5) Business Days after the Company shall have received a Notice of Exercise and payment, the Company shall update the books and records of the Company to reflect the exercise of the Warrant and issuance of the number of Warrant Units specified in such Notice of Exercise and otherwise evidence of the Warrant Holder's (or such other Person's) ownership of the number of Warrant Units specified in such Exercise Notice. This Warrant shall be deemed to have been exercised and such Warrant Units shall be deemed to have been issued, and the Warrant Holder or other Person or Persons designated in such Notice of Exercise shall be deemed for all purposes to have become a holder of record of Common Units, all as of the date that such Notice of Exercise and payment shall have been received (or deemed received) by the Company.

(c) No Required Surrender of Warrant. The Warrant Holder shall not be required to surrender this Warrant to the Company when it delivers the Notice of Exercise, however, this Warrant shall represent the right to purchase Common Units in respect of the unexercised portion (if any) of the Warrant. The other rights and obligations applicable to the Warrant, the Warrant Units and the Warrant Holders shall continue in effect following any partial exercise in accordance with the terms set forth herein only with respect to the unexercised portion of the Warrant, and all rights and obligations hereunder shall terminate with respect to the portion of the Warrant or the Warrant Units that have been exercised.

(d) Warrant Surrender; Delivery of New Warrant. If this Warrant is surrendered upon exercise or partial exercise, then (i) this Warrant shall be cancelled, and (ii) unless the purchase rights represented by this Warrant shall have been fully exercised, the Company shall, at the time of delivery of the certificate or certificates representing the Warrant Units being issued in accordance with this Section 2, deliver to the Holder a new Warrant evidencing the rights of the Holder to purchase the unexpired and unexercised Warrant Units called for by this Warrant. Such new Warrant shall in all other respects be identical to this Warrant.

(e) Delivery of Certificates. If at the time of exercise of this Warrant the Warrant Units are issuable by the Company in certificated form, then the Company shall, as promptly as practicable, and in any event within five (5) Business Days after the Company shall have received a Notice of Exercise and payment, execute (or cause to be executed) and deliver (or cause to be delivered) to the Holder a certificate or certificates representing the Warrant Units issuable upon any exercise of this Warrant. The certificate or certificates so delivered shall be, to the extent possible, in such denomination or denominations as the exercising Holder shall reasonably request in the Notice of Exercise and shall be registered in the name of the Holder or, subject to compliance with Section 2(f), such other Person's name as shall be designated in the Notice of Exercise.

(f) Expenses and Taxes. The Company shall pay all expenses, transfer taxes and owner charges payable in connection with the preparation, issuance and delivery of the Warrant Units and any new Warrants, except that if the Warrant Units or the new Warrants are to be registered in a name or names other than the name of the Warrant Holder, funds sufficient to pay all transfer taxes payable as a result of such transfer shall be paid by the Warrant Holder at the time of its delivery of the Notice of Exercise or promptly upon receipt of a written request by the Company for payment.

(g) Fractional Units. The Company shall not be required to issue a fractional Warrant Unit upon exercise of any Warrant. As to any fraction of a Warrant Unit that the Holder would otherwise be entitled to purchase upon such exercise, the Company shall pay to such Holder an amount in cash (by delivery of a certified or official bank check or by wire transfer of immediately available funds) equal to the product of (i) such fraction multiplied by (ii) the Fair Value of one Warrant Unit on the Exercise Date.

(h) Automatic Cashless Exercise. To the extent that there has not been an exercise by the Warrant Holder pursuant to Section 2(a), any portion of the Warrant that remains unexercised shall be exercised automatically in whole (not in part), upon the Expiration Date. Payment by the Warrant Holder upon such automatic exercise shall be in the form of the Warrant Holder receiving from the Company the number of Warrant Units equal to (i) the number of Warrant Units as to which this Warrant is being automatically exercised, minus (ii) the number of Warrant Units having a value, based on the Fair Value immediately prior to the date of such automatic exercise, equal to the Exercise Amount with respect to such automatic exercise.

(i) Company Action. The Company will take any Company action which may be necessary in order that the Company may validly and legally issue Warrant Units in connection with any exercise of this Warrant.

(j) Conditional Exercise. Unless the Warrant Holder elects in writing otherwise by notice to the Company, if an exercise of any portion of this Warrant is to be made in connection with a public offering, a sale of the Company (pursuant to a merger, consolidation, sale of stock, or otherwise) or a SPAC Transaction, then such exercise, notwithstanding any other provision hereof, shall be conditioned upon the consummation of such transaction, in which case such exercise shall not be deemed to be effective until immediately prior to the consummation of such transaction.

(k) Acknowledgement. The Warrant Holder, by acceptance hereof, acknowledges that this Warrant and the Warrant Units to be issued upon exercise hereof are subject to the terms of the LLC Agreement that are expressly applicable to the Warrant Units, the Warrant Holder and holders of Warrant Units and/or this Warrant (including, without limitation, Sections 4.3(d), 4.3(f), 10.4, 10.5, 12.1, 12.2, 12.8, 12.10 and 12.12). The Warrant Holder agrees to execute the LLC Agreement (if not already a party thereto) upon its acceptance of this Warrant.

(l) Withholding and Reporting. The Warrant Holder shall be subject to Section 10.4 of the LLC Agreement as though the Warrant Holder had fully exercised this Warrant.

Section 3. Investment Representation.

(a) The Warrant Holder represents to the Company that the Warrant Holder is an "accredited investor" as defined in Rule 501 of Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act. By accepting the Warrant, the Warrant Holder represents that it is acquiring the Warrant for its own account for investment purposes and not with the view to any sale or distribution, that the Warrant Holder will not offer, sell or otherwise dispose of the Warrant or the Warrant Units except under circumstances as will not result in a violation of applicable securities laws.

(b) The Warrant Holder understands and acknowledges that this Warrant and the Warrant Units to be issued upon exercise hereof are "restricted securities" under the federal securities laws and that, under such laws and applicable regulations, such securities may be resold without registration under the Securities Act only in certain limited circumstances. In addition, the Warrant Holder represents that it is familiar with Rule 144 under the Securities Act, as presently in effect, and understands the resale limitations imposed thereby and by the Securities Act.

(c) The Warrant Holder acknowledges that it can bear the economic and financial risk of its investment for an indefinite period, and has such knowledge and experience in financial or business matters that it is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of the investment in the Warrant and the Warrant Units. The Warrant Holder has had an opportunity to ask questions and receive answers from the Company regarding the terms and conditions of the offering of the Warrant and the business, properties, prospects and financial condition of the Company and its Subsidiaries.

Section 4. Representations and Warranties of the Company.

The Company represents and warrants to the Warrant Holders as follows:

(a) This Warrant has been duly authorized, is validly issued, and constitutes the valid and binding obligation of the Company. Any Warrant issued in substitution for or replacement of this Warrant shall be duly authorized, validly issued, and constitute the valid and binding obligation of the Company.

(b) The Company has duly authorized and reserved, and will at all times until the Expiration Date have duly authorized and reserved, such number of Common Units as will be sufficient to permit the exercise in full of the Warrant, and that all such Common Units are and will be duly authorized and, when issued upon exercise of the Warrant, will be validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable, issued without violation of any preemptive or similar rights of any Member of the Company or any other Person, and free and clear of all Liens other than those arising under the LLC Agreement or applicable securities laws.

(c) As of the date of this Warrant, Schedule A to the LLC Agreement sets forth the entire issued and outstanding equity interests of the Company, including Options and Convertible Securities.

Section 5. Antidilution Provisions.

The number of Warrant Units that may be purchased upon any exercise of the Warrant, shall be subject to change or adjustment as set forth in this Section 5 (in each case, after taking into consideration any prior adjustments pursuant to this Section 5).

(a) Common Unit Reorganization. If the Company shall pay a dividend or make any other distribution upon any capital interests of the Company payable in Common Units, in rights to subscribe for or to purchase Common Units, or any Options for the purchase of Common Units, or any Convertible Securities or shall subdivide its outstanding Common Units into a greater number of Common Units, by way of a Common Unit split, Common Unit distribution or otherwise, or consolidate its outstanding Common Units into a smaller number of Common Units (any such event being herein called a "Common Unit Reorganization"), then the number of Common Units subject to purchase upon exercise of this Warrant shall be adjusted, effective at such time, to a number determined by multiplying the number of Common Units subject to purchase immediately before such Common Unit Reorganization by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the number of Common Units outstanding after giving effect to such Common Unit Reorganization and the denominator of which shall be the number of Common Units outstanding immediately before giving effect to such Common Unit Reorganization.

(b) Capital Reorganization. If there shall be (i) any consolidation or merger to which the Company is a party, other than a consolidation or a merger of which the Company is the continuing corporation and which does not result in any reclassification of, or change (other than a Common Unit Reorganization) in, outstanding Units, (ii) any sale or conveyance of the property of the Company as an entirety or substantially as an entirety, (iii) any recapitalization or similar capital reorganization of the Company, (iv) any reclassification of the Units of the Company, (v) any other transaction similar to the transactions described in clauses (i)-(iv) above (other than any such transaction that is a Common Unit Reorganization), (any of the foregoing events or transactions being called a "Capital Reorganization"), then, effective upon the effective date of such Capital Reorganization, the Warrant Holder shall no longer have the right to purchase Common Units, but shall have instead the right to purchase from the Company or the successor Person resulting from such Capital Reorganization, upon exercise of this Warrant, the kind and amount of securities and property (including cash) which the Warrant Holder would have owned or have been entitled to receive pursuant to such Capital Reorganization if the Warrant had been exercised in full immediately prior to the effective date of such Capital Reorganization and acquired the applicable number of Warrant Units then issuable hereunder as a result of such exercise (without taking into account any limitations or restrictions on the exercisability of this Warrant); and, in such case, appropriate adjustment (in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Warrant Holder) shall be made with respect to the Warrant Holder's rights under this Warrant to insure that the provisions of this Section 5 shall thereafter be applicable, as nearly as possible, to this Warrant in relation to any securities and property (including cash) thereafter acquirable upon exercise of this Warrant.

As a condition to effecting any Capital Reorganization, the Company or the successor or surviving entity, as the case may be, shall execute and deliver to the Warrant Holder an agreement as to the Warrant Holder's rights in accordance with this Section 5(b), providing, to the extent of any right to purchase equity securities hereunder, for subsequent adjustments as nearly equivalent as may be practicable to the adjustments provided for in this Section 5 and otherwise having the same terms and conditions as set forth herein.

The Company shall not effect any Capital Reorganization unless, prior to the consummation thereof, the successor Person (if other than the Company) resulting from such Capital Reorganization, shall assume, by written instrument substantially similar in form and substance to this Warrant and reasonably satisfactory to the Warrant Holder, the obligation to deliver to the Warrant Holder such securities and property (including cash) which, in accordance with the foregoing provisions, such Holder shall be entitled to receive upon exercise of this Warrant. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, with respect to any Capital Reorganization contemplated by the provisions of this Section 5(b), the Warrant Holder shall have the right to elect prior to the consummation of such any Capital Reorganization, to give effect to the exercise rights contained in Section 2 (to the extent the Exercisable Date has then occurred) instead of giving effect to the provisions contained in this Section 5(b) with respect to this Warrant.

The provisions of this Section 5(b) shall similarly apply to successive Capital Reorganizations. The provisions of this Section 5(b) shall not apply to any transaction that is a Qualified Financing.

(c) Special Distributions. If, after the Exercisable Date, the Company shall issue or distribute to any holder or holders of Common Units evidences of indebtedness, any other securities of the Company or any cash, property or other assets (excluding a Common Unit Reorganization) whether or not accompanied by a purchase, redemption or other acquisition of Units (any such nonexcluded event being herein called a "Special Distribution"), then the Warrant Holder shall be entitled to a pro-rata share of such Special Distribution as though the Warrant Holder had fully exercised this Warrant immediately prior to the record date for such Special Distribution, and the Company shall pay or distribute such pro-rata share to Warrant Holder when paid or distributed to the holders of the Common Units. For the avoidance of doubt, no adjustment in the number of Warrant Units issuable upon exercise of this Warrant shall be made with respect to a Special Distribution. A reclassification of the Common Units into Units of any other class of units or securities shall be deemed to be a distribution by the Company to the holders of its Common Units of such class of units or securities and, if the outstanding Common Units shall be changed into a larger or smaller number of Units as part of such reclassification, a Common Unit Reorganization.

(d) Adjustment to Number of Warrant Units Upon Issuance of Common Units. Except as provided in Section 5(e) and except in the case of an event described in either Section 5(a) or Section 5(b), if the Company shall, at any time or from time to time after the Exercisable Date, issue or sell, or in accordance with Section 5(f) is deemed to have issued or sold, any Common Units without consideration or for consideration per Common Unit less than $11.00 (as such amount is proportionately adjusted for Common Unit splits, reverse Common Unit splits, Common Unit combinations, Common Unit dividends and other distributions and recapitalizations affecting the Common Units after September 2, 2021, the "Original Price"), then immediately upon such issuance or sale (or deemed issuance or sale), the number of Warrant Units issuable upon exercise of this Warrant immediately prior to any such issuance or sale (or deemed issuance or sale) shall be increased to a number of Warrant Units equal to the product obtained by multiplying the number of Warrant Units issuable upon exercise of this Warrant immediately prior to such issuance or sale (or deemed issuance or sale) by a fraction (which shall in no event be less than one):

(i) the numerator of which shall be the number of Common Units Deemed Outstanding immediately after such issuance or sale (or deemed issuance or sale); and

(ii) the denominator of which shall be the sum of: (A) the number of Common Units Deemed Outstanding immediately prior to such issuance or sale (or deemed issuance or sale); plus (B) the aggregate number of Common Units which the aggregate amount of consideration, if any, received by the Company upon such issuance or sale (or deemed issuance or sale) would purchase at the Original Price.

(e) Exceptions to Adjustment Upon Issuance of Common Units. Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, there shall be no adjustment to the number of Warrant Units issuable upon exercise of this Warrant with respect to (i) any Excluded Issuance, or (ii) a Qualified Financing (which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall be subject to the terms and conditions of the LLC Agreement).

(f) Effect of Certain Events on Adjustment to Number of Warrant Units. For purposes of determining the adjusted number of Warrant Units under Section 5(d), the following shall be applicable:

(i) Issuance of Options. If the Company shall, at any time or from time to time after the Exercisable Date, in any manner grant or sell (whether directly or by assumption in a merger or otherwise) any Options, whether or not such Options or the right to convert, exercise or exchange any Convertible Securities issuable upon the exercise of such Options are immediately exercisable, and the price per Common Unit (determined as provided in this paragraph and in Section 5(f)(v)) for which Common Units are issuable upon the exercise of such Options or upon the conversion or exchange of Convertible Securities issuable upon the exercise of such Options is less than the Original Price in effect immediately prior to the time of the granting or sale of such Options, then the total maximum number of Common Units issuable upon the exercise of such Options or upon conversion or exchange of the total maximum amount of Convertible Securities issuable upon the exercise of such Options shall be deemed to have been issued as of the date of granting or sale of such Options (and thereafter shall be deemed to be outstanding for purposes of adjusting the number of Warrant Units under Section 5(d)), at a price per Common Unit equal to the quotient obtained by dividing: (A) the sum (which sum shall constitute the applicable consideration received for purposes of Section 5(d)) of (x) the total amount, if any, received or receivable by the Company as consideration for the granting or sale of all such Options, plus (y) the minimum aggregate amount of additional consideration payable to the Company upon the exercise of all such Options, plus (z), in the case of such Options which relate to Convertible Securities, the minimum aggregate amount of additional consideration, if any, payable to the Company upon the issuance or sale of all such Convertible Securities and the conversion or exchange of all such Convertible Securities; by (B) the total maximum number of Common Units issuable upon the exercise of all such Options or upon the conversion or exchange of all Convertible Securities issuable upon the exercise of all such Options. Except as otherwise provided in Section 5(f)(iii), no further adjustment of the number of Warrant Units shall be made upon the actual issuance of Common Units or of Convertible Securities upon exercise of such Options or upon the actual issuance of Common Units upon conversion or exchange of Convertible Securities issuable upon exercise of such Options.

(ii) Issuance of Convertible Securities. If the Company shall, at any time or from time to time after the Exercisable Date, in any manner grant or sell (whether directly or by assumption in a merger or otherwise) any Convertible Securities, whether or not the right to convert or exchange any such Convertible Securities is immediately exercisable, and the price per Common Unit (determined as provided in this paragraph and in Section 5(f)(v)) for which Common Units are issuable upon the conversion or exchange of such Convertible Securities is less than the Original Price in effect immediately prior to the time of the granting or sale of such Convertible Securities, then the total maximum number of Common Units issuable upon conversion or exchange of the total maximum amount of such Convertible Securities shall be deemed to have been issued as of the date of granting or sale of such Convertible Securities (and thereafter shall be deemed to be outstanding for purposes of adjusting the number of Warrant Units pursuant to Section 5(d)), at a price per Common Unit equal to the quotient obtained by dividing: (A) the sum (which sum shall constitute the applicable consideration received for purposes of Section 5(d)) of (x) the total amount, if any, received or receivable by the Company as consideration for the granting or sale of such Convertible Securities, plus (y) the minimum aggregate amount of additional consideration, if any, payable to the Company upon the conversion or exchange of all such Convertible Securities; by (B) the total maximum number of Common Units issuable upon the conversion or exchange of all such Convertible Securities. Except as otherwise provided in Section 5(f)(iii), no further adjustment of the number of Warrant Units shall be made upon the actual issuance of Common Units upon conversion or exchange of such Convertible Securities or by reason of the issue or sale of Convertible Securities upon exercise of any Options to purchase any such Convertible Securities for which adjustments of the number of Warrant Units have been made pursuant to the other provisions of this Section 5(f).

(iii) Change in Terms of Options or Convertible Securities. Upon any change in any of (A) the total amount received or receivable by the Company as consideration for the granting or sale of any Options or Convertible Securities referred to in Section 5(f)(i) or Section 5(f)(ii), (B) the minimum aggregate amount of additional consideration, if any, payable to the Company upon the exercise of any Options or upon the issuance, conversion or exchange of any Convertible Securities referred to in Section 5(f)(i) or Section 5(f)(ii), (C) the rate at which Convertible Securities referred to in Section 5(f)(i) or Section 5(f)(ii) are convertible into or exchangeable for Common Units, or (D) the maximum number of Common Units issuable in connection with any Options referred to in Section 5(f)(i) or any Convertible Securities referred to in Section 5(f)(ii) (in each case, other than in connection with an Excluded Issuance), then (whether or not the original issuance or sale of such Options or Convertible Securities resulted in an adjustment to the number of Warrant Units pursuant to this Section 5) the number of Warrant Units issuable upon exercise of this Warrant at the time of such change shall be adjusted or readjusted, as applicable, to the number of Warrant Units which would have been in effect at such time pursuant to the provisions of this Section 5 had such Options or Convertible Securities still outstanding provided for such changed consideration, conversion rate, or maximum number of Common Units, as the case may be, at the time initially granted, issued, or sold, but only if as a result of such adjustment or readjustment, the number of Warrant Units issuable upon exercise of this Warrant is increased.

(iv) Treatment of Expired or Terminated Options or Convertible Securities. Upon the expiration or termination of any unexercised Option (or portion thereof) or any unconverted or unexchanged Convertible Security (or portion thereof) for which any adjustment (either upon its original issuance or upon a revision of its terms) was made pursuant to this Section 5 (including upon the redemption or purchase for consideration of all or any portion of such Option or Convertible Security by the Company), the number of Warrant Units then issuable upon exercise of this Warrant shall forthwith be changed pursuant to the provisions of this Section 5 to the number of Warrant Units which would have been in effect at the time of such expiration or termination had such unexercised Option (or portion thereof) or unconverted or unexchanged Convertible Security (or portion thereof), to the extent outstanding immediately prior to such expiration or termination, never been issued.

(v) Calculation of Consideration Received. If the Company shall, at any time or from time to time after the Exercisable Date, issue or sell, or is deemed to have issued or sold in accordance with Section 5(f), any Common Units, Options, or Convertible Securities: (A) for cash, the consideration received therefor shall be deemed to be the net amount received by the Company therefor; (B) for consideration other than cash, the amount of the consideration other than cash received by the Company shall be the Fair Value of such consideration, except where such consideration consists of marketable securities, in which case the amount of consideration received by the Company shall be the market price (as reflected on any securities exchange, quotation system or association, or similar pricing system covering such security) for such securities as of the end of business on the date of receipt of such securities; (C) for no specifically allocated consideration in connection with an issuance or sale of other securities of the Company, together comprising one integrated transaction, the amount of the consideration therefor shall be deemed to be the Fair Value of such portion of the aggregate consideration received by the Company in such transaction as is attributable to such Common Units, Options or Convertible Securities, as the case may be, issued in such transaction; or (D) to the owners of the non-surviving entity in connection with any merger in which the Company is the surviving corporation, the amount of consideration therefor shall be deemed to be the Fair Value of such portion of the net assets and business of the non-surviving entity as is attributable to such Common Units, Options, or Convertible Securities, as the case may be, issued to such owners. The net amount of any cash consideration and the Fair Value of any consideration other than cash or marketable securities shall be determined in good faith jointly by the Board and the Requisite Holders; provided, however, that if the Board and the Requisite Holders are unable to agree on the net amount of any cash consideration or the Fair Value of any consideration other than cash or marketable securities within a reasonable period of time (not to exceed 15 days from the Warrant Holder's receipt of a certificate of adjustment pursuant to Section 5(i)(vii) relating to the applicable issuance), such net amount of cash or Fair Value, as applicable, shall be determined by the Appraiser.

(vi) Record Date. For purposes of any adjustment to the number of Warrant Units in accordance with this Section 5, in case the Company shall take a record of the holders of its Common Units for the purpose of entitling them (A) to receive a dividend or other distribution payable in Common Units, Options, or Convertible Securities, or (B) to subscribe for or purchase Common Units, Options, or Convertible Securities, then such record date shall be deemed to be the date of the issue or sale of the Common Units deemed to have been issued or sold upon the declaration of such dividend or the making of such other distribution or the date of the granting of such right of subscription or purchase, as the case may be; provided, however, that if before the distribution to its holders of Common Units the Company legally abandons its plan to pay or deliver such dividend, distribution, subscription, or purchase rights, then thereafter no adjustment shall be required by the taking of such record and any such adjustment previously made in respect thereof shall be rescinded and annulled.

(vii) Treasury Units. The number of Common Units outstanding at any given time shall not include any securities owned or held by or for the account of the Company or any of its wholly owned subsidiaries, and the disposition of any such securities (other than the cancellation or retirement thereof or the transfer of such securities among the Company and its wholly owned subsidiaries) shall be considered an issue or sale of Common Units for the purpose of this Section 5.

(g) Notices. In the event:

(i) that the Company shall take a record of the holders of its Common Units (or other Units or securities at the time issuable upon exercise of the Warrant) for the purpose of entitling or enabling them to receive any dividend or other distribution (including a Special Distribution), to vote at a meeting (or by written consent), to receive any right to subscribe for or purchase any Units of any class or any other securities, or to receive any other security; or

(ii) of any capital reorganization of the Company, any reclassification of the Common Units of the Company, any consolidation or merger of the Company with or into another Person, any sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets to another Person (including any Capital Reorganization), or any SPAC Transaction; or

then, and in each such case, the Company shall send or cause to be sent to the Warrant Holder at least fifteen (15) days prior to the applicable record date or the applicable expected effective date, as the case may be, for the event, a written notice specifying, as the case may be, (A) the record date for such dividend, distribution, meeting or consent, or other right or action, and a description of such dividend, distribution, or other right or action to be taken at such meeting or by written consent, or (B) the effective date on which such reorganization, reclassification, consolidation, merger, sale, dissolution, liquidation, or winding-up is proposed to take place, and the date, if any is to be fixed, as of which the books of the Company shall close or a record shall be taken with respect to which the holders of record of Common Units (or such other Units or securities at the time issuable upon exercise of the Warrant) shall be entitled to exchange their Common Units (or such other Units or securities) for securities or other property deliverable upon such reorganization, reclassification, consolidation, merger, sale, dissolution, liquidation, or winding-up, and the amount per Unit and character of such exchange applicable to the Warrant and the Warrant Units.

(h) Equitable Equivalent. In case any event shall occur (including any change or adjustment to the number of Common Units issuable upon conversion of any Preferred Unit pursuant to the LLC Agreement) as to which the provisions of this Section 5 set forth above hereof are not strictly applicable but the failure to make any adjustment would not, in the reasonable opinion of the Requisite Holders, fairly protect the purchase rights represented by this Warrant in accordance with the essential intent and principles of this Section 5, then, in each such case, at the request of the Requisite Holders, the Company shall appoint an Appraiser (which shall be completely independent of the Company and shall be satisfactory to the Warrant Holder or the holders constituting the Requisite Holders), which shall give its opinion upon the adjustments, if any, on a basis consistent with the essential intent and principles established in this Section 5, necessary to preserve, without dilution, the purchase rights represented by this Warrant. Upon receipt of such opinion, the Company promptly will send a copy thereof to the Warrant Holder and shall make the adjustments described therein.

(i) Adjustment Rules.

(i) Any adjustments pursuant to this Section 5 shall be made successively whenever any event referred to herein shall occur.

(ii) In computing adjustments under this Section 5, fractional interests in Common Units shall be taken into account to the nearest one-thousandth of a Common Unit.

(iii) The exercise of a Warrant shall not, in and of itself, cause an adjustment pursuant to this Section 5.

(iv) No adjustment under this Section 5 shall operate to increase the Exercise Price or reduce the number of Common Units subject to purchase upon exercise of this Warrant, other than in the case of a Common Unit Reorganization involving a Common Unit combination or similar transaction.

(v) As a condition precedent to the taking of any action which would require an adjustment pursuant to this Section 5, the Company shall take any action which may be necessary, including obtaining regulatory approvals or exemptions, in order that the Company may thereafter validly and legally issue all Common Units which the Warrant Holder is entitled to receive upon exercise of the Warrant.

(vi) Not less than fifteen (15) days prior to the record date or effective date, as the case may be, of any action which requires or might require an adjustment or readjustment pursuant to this Section 5, the Company shall give notice to the Warrant Holder of such event, describing such event in reasonable detail and specifying the record date or effective date, as the case may be, and, if determinable, the required adjustment and computation thereof. If the required adjustment is not determinable as of the time of such notice, the Company shall give notice to the Warrant Holder of such adjustment and computation as soon as reasonably practicable after such adjustment becomes determinable (and in any event no later than three (3) days prior to such record date or effective date, as applicable). Any dispute which arises between the Warrant Holder and the Company with respect to the calculation of the adjusted Warrant Units issuable upon exercise shall be determined by the Appraiser.

(vii) As promptly as reasonably practicable following any adjustment of the number of Warrant Units pursuant to the provisions of this Section 5, but in any event not later than five (5) Business Days thereafter, the Company shall furnish to the Warrant Holder a certificate of an executive officer setting forth in reasonable detail such adjustment and the facts upon which it is based and certifying the calculation thereof.

(viii) As promptly as reasonably practicable following the receipt by the Company of a written request by the Warrant Holder, but in any event not later than five (5) Business Days thereafter, the Company shall furnish to the Warrant Holder a certificate of an executive officer certifying the number of Warrant Units or the amount, if any, of other Units, securities, or assets then issuable upon exercise of the Warrant.

(ix) The form of this Warrant need not be changed because of any adjustment pursuant to this Section 5.

(x) Upon the occurrence of any adjustment pursuant to this Section 5, the Exercise Price also shall be correspondingly adjusted, so that after such adjustment the aggregate Exercise Price payable hereunder for the adjusted number of Warrant Units shall be the same as the aggregate Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to such adjustment.

Section 6. Transfer of Warrant.

Subject to any limitations on transfer applicable to holders of Warrants set forth in the LLC Agreement, the Warrant Holder may effectuate a transfer of the Warrant by (a) delivering to the Company a duly executed Warrant Assignment in the form of Exhibit B of this Warrant, together with funds sufficient to pay any transfer taxes described in Section 2(f) in connection with the making of such transfer, and (b) causing the transferee to sign and deliver to the Company a joinder to the LLC Agreement (if such transferee is not already a party thereto), in a form reasonably acceptable to the Company, pursuant to which such transferee agrees to be bound by the terms thereof. For the avoidance of doubt, if the Warrant Holder does not comply with clauses (a) and (b) of the foregoing sentence, the purported transfer shall be deemed void ab initio.

Section 7. Covenants. The Company hereby covenants and agrees as follows:

(a) No Avoidance. Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, nothing herein shall be construed to limit, amend or alter the rights or remedies available to the Warrant Holder. The Company shall not, by amendment of its certificate of formation, the LLC Agreement, any other constitutional document or any other agreement to which it is party or through any consolidation, merger, amalgamation, reorganization, reclassification of securities, recapitalization, transfer of assets, dissolution, issue or sale of securities, SPAC Transaction or any other action or transaction, directly or indirectly, avoid or seek to avoid the observance or performance of any of the terms of this Warrant, but will at all times in good faith assist in the carrying out of all such terms and in the taking of all such action as may be necessary or appropriate or reasonably requested by the Warrant Holder in order to protect the rights of the Warrant Holder against dilution or other impairment.

(b) Further Actions. The Company shall take all such actions as may be necessary to ensure that all such Warrant Units are issued without violation by the Company of any applicable law or governmental regulation or any requirements of any securities exchange upon which shares of Common Stock or other securities constituting Warrant Units may be listed at the time of such exercise (except for official notice of issuance which shall be immediately delivered by the Company upon each such issuance).

(c) Securities Listings. The Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Warrant Units, immediately upon such exercise, to be listed on any securities exchange upon which Common Units or other securities constituting Warrant Units are listed at the time of such exercise.

(d) Par Value. If the Warrant Units have a par value, then the Company shall ensure that the par value per Warrant Unit shall at all times be less than or equal to the applicable Exercise Price. The Company shall not increase the par value of any Warrant Units receivable upon the exercise of this Warrant above the Exercise Price then in effect, and shall take all such actions as may be necessary or appropriate in order that the Company may validly and legally issue fully paid and nonassessable Warrant Units upon the exercise of this Warrant.

Section 8. Lost, Mutilated or Missing Warrants.

The Company hereby agrees that, upon receipt by the Company of evidence reasonably satisfactory to it of the loss, theft, destruction or mutilation of any Warrant, and, in the case of loss, theft or destruction, upon receipt of indemnification satisfactory to the Company (which shall be in the form of an unsecured, unbonded agreement of indemnity or affidavit of loss) or, in the case of mutilation, upon surrender and cancellation of the mutilated Warrant, the Company shall execute and deliver a new Warrant of like tenor and representing the right to purchase the same aggregate number of Warrant Units.

Section 9. Waivers; Amendments; Rights and Remedies.

(a) Any provision of this Warrant may be amended or waived with (but only with) the written consent of the Company and the Requisite Holders; provided, however, that no such amendment or waiver shall, without the written consent of the Company and the Warrant Holder, (i) change the number of Warrant Units issuable upon exercise of the Warrant or the Exercise Price, (ii) shorten the Expiration Date, or (iii) amend, supplement or waive the provisions of this Section or the definition of "Requisite Holders." Any amendment or waiver effected in compliance with this Section shall be binding upon the Company and the Warrant Holder. The Company shall give prompt notice to the Warrant Holder of any amendment or waiver effected in compliance with this Section.

(b) No failure or delay of the Company or the Warrant Holder in exercising any power or right hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right or power, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such a right or power, preclude any other or further exercise thereon or the exercise of any other right or power. No notice or demand on the Company in any case shall entitle the Company to any other or future notice or demand in similar or other circumstances. The rights and remedies of the Company and the Warrant Holder hereunder are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies which it would otherwise have.

Section 10. Miscellaneous.

(a) Expenses. The Company shall pay all reasonable expenses of the Warrant Holder, including reasonable fees and disbursements of counsel, in connection with the preparation of the Warrant.

(b) Successors and Assigns. All the provisions of this Warrant by or for the benefit of the Company or the Warrant Holder shall bind and inure to the benefit of their respective successors and permitted assigns.

(c) Severability. In case any one or more of the provisions contained in this Warrant shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions contained herein shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby. The parties shall endeavor in good faith negotiations to replace the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions.

(d) Notices. Any notice or other communication required or permitted to be delivered to any party under this Warrant will be in writing and delivered by (a) email or (b) registered mail via a national courier service to the following email address or physical address, as applicable: (a) if to the Company, addressed to the Company at its address for notices as set forth below its signature hereon or any other address as the Company may hereafter notify to the Warrant Holder; and (b) if to the Warrant Holder, addressed to such address as the Warrant Holder may hereafter from time to time notify to the Company for the purposes of notice hereunder.

(e) Equitable Remedies. Without limiting the rights of the Company and the Warrant Holder to pursue all other legal and equitable rights available to such party for the other parties' failure to perform its obligations hereunder, the Company and the Warrant Holder each hereto acknowledge and agree that the remedy at law for any failure to perform any obligations hereunder would be inadequate and that each shall be entitled to specific performance, injunctive relief or other equitable remedies in the event of any such failure.

(f) Continued Effect. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the rights and benefits conferred on the holders of Warrant Units pursuant to the provisions hereof (including Section 6 and any covenants made by the Company) shall continue to inure to the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, such holders, notwithstanding the surrender of the Warrant to, and its cancellation by, the Company upon the full or partial exercise or repurchase hereof. The Warrant Holders shall be entitled to retain a copy of this Warrant as evidence of the continued effect of the provisions hereof.

(g) Governing Law. THIS WARRANT SHALL BE CONSTRUED AND ENFORCED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE INTERNAL LAWS OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE, WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO SUCH LAW(S) THAT WOULD REQUIRE APPLICATION OF THE LAWS OF ANOTHER JURISDICTION.

(h) Section Headings. The section headings used herein are for convenience of reference only and shall not be construed in any way to affect the interpretation of any provisions of the Warrant.

(i) Rights as a Lender Unaffected. For the avoidance of doubt and notwithstanding anything herein that may be to the contrary, nothing contained in this Warrant shall affect, limit or impair the rights and remedies of the Warrant Holder or an Affiliate thereof in its capacity as a lender to the Company or any of its Affiliates pursuant to any note, indenture, agreement or other instrument under which the Company or any of its Affiliates has borrowed or may in the future borrow money. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any such person, in exercising its rights as a lender or agent thereunder, including making its decision on whether to foreclose on any collateral security, will have no duty to consider (i) its status or the status of any of its Affiliates as a direct or indirect equityholder of the Company or any of its Affiliates, (ii) the interests of the Company or any of its Affiliates, or (iii) any duty it may have to any other direct or indirect equityholder of the Company or any of its Affiliates, except as may be required under commercial law applicable to creditors generally.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Company has caused this Warrant to be duly executed by its authorized signatory as of the day and year first above written.

EXHIBIT B
to WARRANT

Form of Warrant Assignment

Reference is made to the Warrant dated September 2, 2021, issued by the Company. Terms defined therein are used herein as therein defined.

FOR VALUE RECEIVED _____ (the "Assignor") hereby sells, assigns and transfers all of the rights of the Assignor as set forth in such Warrant, with respect to the number of Warrant Units covered thereby as set forth below, to the assignees (the "Assignees") as set forth below:

Names of Assignees	Addresses	Number of Warrant Units

All notices to be given by the Company to the Assignor as Warrant Holder shall be sent to the Assignees at the above listed addresses, and, if the number of Common Units being hereby assigned is less than all of the Common Units covered by the Warrant held by the Assignor, then also to the Assignor.

In accordance with Section 6 of the Warrant, the Assignor requests that the Company execute and deliver a new Warrant or Warrants in the names of the Assignees, as is appropriate, or, if the number of Common Units being hereby assigned is less than all of the Common Units covered by the Warrant held by the Assignor, new Warrants in the names of the Assignees, as is appropriate, and in the name of the Assignor.

The undersigned represents that the Assignee has represented in writing to the Assignor that the Assignee is acquiring the Warrant for its own account or the account of an Affiliate for investment purposes and not with the view to any sale or distribution, and that the Assignee will not offer, sell or otherwise dispose of the Warrant or the Warrant Units except under circumstances as will not result in a violation of applicable securities laws.

THIS AMENDED & RESTATED REGISTRATION RIGHTS AGREEMENT (this "Agreement"), among Tricolor Holdings, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "Company"), and the investors identified on Schedule A hereto (collectively, the "Investors" and, each individually, an "Investor"), is entered into as of December 30, 2021. Capitalized terms used in this Agreement but not otherwise defined herein shall have the respective meanings set forth in the LLC Agreement.

WHEREAS, the Company and the Investors identified as "Senior Preferred Investors" on Schedule A hereto (the "Senior Preferred Investors") are parties to a Subscription Agreement, dated as of September 2 (the "Senior Preferred Subscription Agreement"), pursuant to which the Senior Preferred Investors purchased 90,000 Senior Preferred Units and 2,531,842 Warrants of the Company;

WHEREAS, in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Senior Preferred Subscription Agreement and pursuant to the terms thereof, the parties thereto entered into that certain Registration Rights Agreement (the "Existing Registration Rights Agreement"), dated as of September 2, 2021, in order to grant certain registration rights to the Senior Preferred Investors;

WHEREAS, the Company and the Investors identified as "Junior Preferred Investors" on Schedule A hereto (the "Junior Preferred Investors") are parties to a Subscription Agreement, dated as of the date hereof (the "Junior Preferred Subscription Agreement"), pursuant to which the Junior Preferred Investors are purchasing 943,324.06 Junior Preferred Units; and

WHEREAS, in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Junior Preferred Subscription Agreement and pursuant to the terms thereof, the parties hereto desire to amend and restate the Existing Registration Rights Agreement in its entirety in order to grant certain registration rights to the Investors as set forth below;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and the mutual and dependent covenants hereinafter set forth, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Defined Terms. As used in this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

"Affiliate" means any Person directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by, or under common control with another Person and any Persons with the same investment manager or whose investment manager is directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by, or under common control with another Person's investment manager. For purposes of this definition, "control" (including the terms "controlling", "controlled by" and "under common control with") means the possession, direct or indirect, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management, policies or affairs of a Person, whether through ownership of voting securities, by contract or otherwise, as executor, trustee or otherwise.

"Agreement" has the meaning set forth in the preamble.

"Alternative IPO Entities" has the meaning set forth in Section 12.

"Automatic Shelf Registration Statement" has the meaning set forth in Section 2(i).

"Board" means the board of managers or directors (or any similar or successor governing body) of the Company.

"Business Day" means any day except a Saturday, Sunday or other day on which commercial banks in New York City are authorized by law to close.

"Commission" means the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission or any other federal agency administering the Securities Act and the Exchange Act at the time.

"Common Unit" means the common units of the Company.

"Company" has the meaning set forth in the preamble and includes the Company's successors by merger, consolidation, amalgamation, acquisition, reorganization or otherwise.

"Company Securities" means Units, Interests or any other class of equity interests in the Company or any securities convertible or exercisable into, or any securities exchangeable for, or containing options or rights to acquire, Units, Interests or any class of equity interests in the Company.

"Controlling Person" has the meaning set forth in Section 5(q).

"Demand Registration" has the meaning set forth in Section 2(b).

"DTCDRS" has the meaning set forth in Section 5(r).

"Exchange Act" means the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

"Governmental Authority" means any federal, state, local or foreign government or political subdivision thereof, or any agency or instrumentality of such government or political subdivision, or any self-regulated organization or other non-governmental regulatory authority or quasi-governmental authority (to the extent that the rules, regulations or orders of such organization or authority have the force of law), or any arbitrator, court or tribunal of competent jurisdiction.

"Initiating Holders" has the meaning set forth in Section 2(a).

"Inspectors" has the meaning set forth in Section 5(h).

"Investor" and "Investors" each has the meaning set forth in the preamble.

"Investor Company Securities" means all Company Securities held by the Investors.

"Junior Preferred Investors" has the meaning set forth in the recitals.

"Junior Preferred Subscription Agreement" has the meaning set forth in the recitals.

"LLC Agreement" means the Fifth Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement of the Company, entered into on the date hereof, as amended from time to time.

"Long-Form Registration" has the meaning set forth in Section 2(a).

"Market Standoff Period" means the period commencing on the date of the final prospectus relating to any Qualified Public Offering and ending on the date specified by the Company with respect to such Qualified Public Offering or the managing underwriter (for the Qualified Public Offering) (such period not to exceed 180 days in the event of the first Qualified Public Offering and 90 days thereafter).

"Person" means an individual, corporation, partnership, joint venture, limited liability company, Governmental Authority, unincorporated organization, trust, association or other entity.

"Piggyback Registration" has the meaning set forth in Section 3(a).

"Piggyback Registration Statement" has the meaning set forth in Section 3(a).

"Piggyback Shelf Registration Statement" has the meaning set forth in Section 3(a).

"Piggyback Shelf Takedown" has the meaning set forth in Section 3(a).

"Preferred Units" means, collectively, the (i) Senior Preferred Units issued to the Senior Preferred Investors pursuant to the Senior Preferred Subscription Agreement and (ii) Junior Preferred Units issued to the Junior Preferred Investors pursuant to the Junior Preferred Subscription Agreement.

"Prospectus" means the prospectus or prospectuses included in any Registration Statement (including a prospectus that includes any information previously omitted from a prospectus filed as part of an effective Registration Statement in reliance on Rule 430A under the Securities Act or any successor rule thereto), as amended or supplemented by any prospectus supplement, including any Shelf Takedown, with respect to the terms of the offering of any portion of the Registrable Securities covered by such Registration Statement and by all other amendments and supplements to the prospectus, including post-effective amendments and all material incorporated by reference in such prospectus or prospectuses.

"Public Offering" means a public offering and sale of the equity of the Company (or any entity into which the Company hereafter may be converted pursuant to Section 12.12 of the LLCA or otherwise) registered under the Securities Act filed with the Commission on Form S-1 (or a successor form adopted by the Commission); provided, however that the following will not be considered a Public Offering: (i) any issuance of common equity interests as consideration for a merger or acquisition; or (ii) any issuance of common equity interests or rights to acquire common equity interests to existing equity holders or to employees of the Company or its subsidiaries on Form S-4 or Form S-8 (or a successor form adopted by the Securities and Exchange Commission).

"Qualified Public Offering" means: (i) any firm commitment underwritten Public Offering of common equity of the Company for which aggregate cash proceeds to be received by the Company or its successor from such offering (without deducting underwriting discounts, expenses and commissions) are at least $100,000,000.00 and pursuant to which equity securities of the Company or its successor are authorized and approved for listing on the New York Stock Exchange or the Nasdaq Global Market or any other national securities exchange; (ii) a direct listing of the Common Units (or securities exchanged therefor pursuant to Section 12.12 of the LLCA or otherwise); or (iii) a Qualified Acquisition Transaction (as defined in the LLCA) that is a SPAC Transaction (as defined in the LLCA).

"Records" has the meaning set forth in Section 5(h).

"Registrable Securities" means (i) any Investor Company Securities held by the Investors at any time (including those held as a result of, or issuable upon, the conversion of Preferred Units or the exercise of Warrants), whether now owned or acquired by the Investors at a later time, (ii) any Company Securities issued or issuable, directly or indirectly, in exchange for or with respect to any Investor Company Securities referenced in clause (i) above by way of securities dividend, securities split or combination of securities or in connection with a reclassification, recapitalization, merger, securities exchange, consolidation or other reorganization, and (iii) any securities issued in replacement of or exchange for any securities described in clause (i) or (ii) above. For purposes of this Agreement, a Person will be deemed to be a holder of Registrable Securities whenever such Person has the right to acquire, directly or indirectly, such Registrable Securities (including upon conversion, exercise or exchange of any equity interests but disregarding any restrictions or limitations upon the exercise of such right), whether or not such acquisition has actually been effected, and such Person shall not be required to convert, exercise or exchange such equity interests (or otherwise acquire such Registrable Securities) to participate in any registered offering hereunder until the closing of such offering. As to any particular Registrable Securities, such securities shall cease to be Registrable Securities when (A) a registration statement with respect to the sale of such securities shall have been declared effective under the Securities Act and such securities shall have been disposed of in accordance with such registration statement, (B) such securities shall be eligible to be disposed of in compliance with the requirements of Rule 144 without volume or manner of sale restrictions and without the requirement for the Company to be in compliance with the current public information requirement under Rule 144(c)(i), (C) such securities have been transferred to a Person other than a successor or a transferee pursuant to Section 15, or (D) such securities have ceased to be outstanding.

"Registration Date" means the date on which the Company becomes subject to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act.

"Registration Statement" means any registration statement of the Company, including the Prospectus, amendments and supplements (including Shelf Takedowns) to such registration statement, including post-effective amendments, all exhibits and all material incorporated by reference in such registration statement.

"Rule 144" means Rule 144 under the Securities Act or any successor rule thereto.

"Securities Act" means the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

"Selling Expenses" means all underwriting discounts, selling commissions and stock transfer taxes applicable to the sale of Registrable Securities, and fees and disbursements of counsel for any holder of Registrable Securities, except for the fees and disbursements of counsel for the holders of Registrable Securities required to be paid by the Company pursuant to Section 6.

"Senior Preferred Investors" has the meaning set forth in the recitals.

"Senior Preferred Subscription Agreement" has the meaning set forth in the recitals.

"Shelf Registration" has the meaning set forth in Section 2(c).

"Shelf Registration Statement" has the meaning set forth in Section 2(c).

"Shelf Takedown" has the meaning set forth in Section 2(e).

"Short-Form Registration" has the meaning set forth in Section 2(b).

"WKSI" means a "well-known seasoned issuer" (as defined in Rule 405 of the Securities Act).

2. Demand Registration.

(a) At any time after the Market Standoff Period following a Qualified Public Offering, holders of fifty percent (50%) or more of the Registrable Securities then outstanding held by the Senior Preferred Investors (such holders, the "Initiating Holders") may request that the Company file a registration statement under the Securities Act on Form S-1 or any successor form thereto (each, a "Long-Form Registration") covering the registration of Registrable Securities of such Initiating Holders with an anticipated aggregate offering price of at least $50,000,000. Each request for a Long-Form Registration shall specify the number of Registrable Securities requested to be included in the Long-Form Registration. Upon receipt of any such request, the Company shall, within twenty (20) days, give written notice of such request to all holders of Registrable Securities, and subject to the limitations of this Section 2, use all commercially reasonable efforts to effect, as expeditiously as possible, the registration under the Securities Act of all Registrable Securities that holders of Registrable Securities request to be registered in a written request received by the Company within twenty (20) days after the mailing of the Company's notice.

In connection therewith, the Company shall prepare and file with (or confidentially submit to) the Commission a Registration Statement on Form S-1 or any successor form thereto covering all of Registrable Securities that the holders thereof have requested to be included in such Long-Form Registration within thirty (30) days after the date on which the initial request is given and shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause such Registration Statement to be declared effective by the Commission as soon as practicable thereafter.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall not be required to effect a registration pursuant to this Section 2(a):

(i) in any particular jurisdiction in which the Company would be required to execute a general consent to service of process in effecting such registration, unless the Company is already subject to service in such jurisdiction and except as may be required under the Securities Act; or

(ii) after the Company has effected two (2) registrations pursuant to this Section 2(a) and such registrations have been declared or ordered effective.

(b) After a Qualified Public Offering, the Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to qualify and remain qualified to register the offer and sale of securities under the Securities Act pursuant to a Registration Statement on Form S-3 or any successor form thereto. At such time as the Company shall have qualified for the use of a Registration Statement on Form S-3 or any successor form thereto (irrespective of whether a Qualified Public Offering shall have occurred), the holders of Registrable Securities shall have the right to request an unlimited number of registrations under the Securities Act of all or any portion of their Registrable Securities pursuant to a Registration Statement on Form S-3 or any similar short-form Registration Statement (each, a "Short-Form Registration" and, with each Long-Form Registration and Shelf Registration (as defined below), a "Demand Registration").

Each request for a Short-Form Registration shall specify the number of Registrable Securities requested to be included in the Short-Form Registration. Upon receipt of any such request, the Company shall promptly (but in no event later than twenty (20) days following receipt thereof) deliver notice of such request to all other holders of Registrable Securities who shall then have twenty (20) days from the date such notice is given to notify the Company in writing of their desire to be included in such registration. The Company shall prepare and file with (or confidentially submit to) the Commission a Registration Statement on Form S-3 or any successor form thereto covering all of the Registrable Securities that the holders thereof have requested to be included in such Short-Form Registration within twenty (20) days after the date on which the initial request is given and shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause such Registration Statement to be declared effective by the Commission as soon as practicable thereafter.

(c) At such time as the Company shall have qualified for the use of a Registration Statement on Form S-3 or the then appropriate form for an offering to be made on a delayed or continuous basis pursuant to Rule 415 under the Securities Act or any successor rule thereto (a "Shelf Registration Statement"), the holders of Registrable Securities shall have the right to request registration under the Securities Act of all or any portion of their Registrable Securities for an offering on a delayed or continuous basis pursuant to Rule 415 under the Securities Act or any successor rule thereto (a "Shelf Registration"). Each request for a Shelf Registration shall specify the number of Registrable Securities requested to be included in the Shelf Registration. Upon receipt of any such request, the Company shall promptly (but in no event later than twenty (20) days following receipt thereof) deliver notice of such request to all other holders of Registrable Securities who shall then have twenty (20) days from the date such notice is given to notify the Company in writing of their desire to be included in such registration. The Company shall prepare and file with (or confidentially submit to) the Commission a Shelf Registration Statement covering all of the Registrable Securities that the holders thereof have requested to be included in such Shelf Registration within twenty (20) days after the date on which the initial request is given and shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause such Shelf Registration Statement to be declared effective by the Commission as soon as practicable thereafter.

(d) The Company shall not be obligated to effect any registration during the period starting with the date sixty (60) days prior to the Company's good faith estimate of the date of the filing of and ending on a date one hundred eighty (180) days following the effective date of a Company-initiated registration subject to Section 3.

(e) The Company may postpone for up to one hundred twenty (120) days the filing or effectiveness of a Registration Statement for a Demand Registration or the filing of a supplement for the purpose of effecting an offering pursuant to Rule 415 under the Securities Act or any successor rule thereto (a "Shelf Takedown") if the Board determines in its reasonable good faith judgment that such Demand Registration or Shelf Takedown would: (i) materially interfere with a significant acquisition, corporate reorganization, financing, securities offering or other similar transaction involving the Company; (ii) require premature disclosure of material information that the Company has a bona fide business purpose for preserving as confidential; (iii) render the Company unable to comply with requirements under the Securities Act or Exchange Act; or (iv) otherwise be materially detrimental to the Company and its stockholders; provided, however that such right shall be exercised by the Company not more than once in any twelve (12)-month period; provided further, however that the Company shall not register any securities for its own account or that of any other stockholder during such one hundred twenty (120)-day period.

(f) If the holders of the Registrable Securities initially requesting a Demand Registration or Shelf Takedown elect to distribute the Registrable Securities covered by their request in an underwritten offering, they shall so advise the Company as a part of their request made pursuant to Section 2(a), Section 2(b) or Section 2(c), and the Company shall include such information in its notice to the other holders of Registrable Securities. In any such event, the right of any applicable holder to include its Registrable Securities in such registration shall be conditioned upon such holder's participation in such underwriting and the inclusion of such holder's Registrable Securities in the underwriting (unless otherwise mutually agreed by a majority in interest of the Initiating Holders and such holder) to the extent provided herein. All holders proposing to distribute their Registrable Securities through such underwriting shall enter into an underwriting agreement in customary form with the underwriter or underwriters selected for such underwriting by the Company (which underwriter or underwriters shall be reasonably acceptable to a majority in interest of the Initiating Holders). The holders of at least a majority of the Registrable Securities initially requesting the Demand Registration or Shelf Takedown shall select the investment banking firm or firms to act as the managing underwriter or underwriters in connection with such offering.

(g) Other than securities to be sold for its own account, the Company shall not include in any Demand Registration or Shelf Takedown any securities which are not Registrable Securities without the prior written consent of the holders of at least a majority of the Registrable Securities initially requesting such Demand Registration or Shelf Takedown, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

(h) If a Demand Registration or Shelf Takedown involves an underwritten offering and the managing underwriter of the requested Demand Registration or Shelf Takedown advises the Company and the holders of Registrable Securities in writing that in its reasonable and good faith opinion marketing factors require a limitation on the number of securities underwritten, the Company shall include in such Demand Registration or Shelf Takedown (i) first, the Company Securities that the Initiating Holders propose to sell, (ii) second, the Company Securities that any other holders of Registrable Securities propose to sell and (iii) third, the Company Securities proposed to be included therein by any other Persons (including Company Securities to be sold for the account of the Company and/or other holders of Company Securities) allocated among such Persons in such manner as they may agree. If the managing underwriter determines that less than all the Registrable Securities proposed to be sold can be included in such offering, then the Registrable Securities that are included in such offering shall be allocated pro rata among the respective holders thereof on the basis of the number of Registrable Securities owned by each such holder.

(i) To the extent the Company is a WKSI at the time any Demand Registration is submitted to the Company, the Company shall file an automatic shelf registration statement (as defined in Rule 405 under the Securities Act) (an "Automatic Shelf Registration Statement") on Form S-3 which covers those Registrable Securities which are requested to be registered. If the Company does not pay the filing fee covering the Registrable Securities at the time the Automatic Shelf Registration Statement is filed, the Company will pay such fee at such time or times as the Registrable Securities are to be sold in compliance with the SEC rules. If the Automatic Shelf Registration Statement has been outstanding for at least three (3) years, at or prior to the end of the third year the Company shall refile a new Automatic Shelf Registration Statement covering the Registrable Securities. If at any time when the Company is required to re-evaluate its WKSI status the Company determines that it is not a WKSI, the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to refile the shelf registration statement on Form S-3 and, if such form is not available, Form S-1 and keep such registration statement effective during the period which such registration statement is required to be kept effective.

(j) If the Company files any shelf registration statement for the benefit of the holders of any of its securities other than the holders of Registrable Securities, and the holders of Registrable Securities do not request that any of their Registrable Securities be included in such Shelf Registration Statement, the Company will include in such registration statement such disclosures as may be required by Rule 430B under the Securities Act (referring to the unnamed selling security holders in a generic manner by identifying the initial offering of the securities to the holders of Registrable Securities) in order to ensure that the holders of Registrable Securities may be added to such shelf registration statement at a later time through the filing of a prospectus supplement rather than a post-effective amendment.

3. Piggyback Registration.

(a) Whenever (i) the Company proposes to register the offer and sale of any Company Securities under the Securities Act (other than a registration (A) pursuant to a Registration Statement on Form S-8 (or other registration solely relating to an offering or sale to employees or directors of the Company pursuant to any employee stock plan or other employee benefit arrangement), (B) pursuant to a Registration Statement on Form S-4 (or similar form that relates to a transaction subject to Rule 145 under the Securities Act or any successor rule thereto), or (C) in connection with any dividend or distribution reinvestment or similar plan), whether for its own account or for the account of one or more stockholders of the Company, and (ii) the form of Registration Statement (a "Piggyback Registration Statement") to be used may be used for any registration of Registrable Securities (a "Piggyback Registration"), then the Company shall give prompt written notice (in any event no later than twenty (20) days prior to the filing of such Registration Statement) to the holders of Registrable Securities of its intention to effect such a registration and, subject to Section 3(b) and Section 3(c), shall include in such registration all Registrable Securities with respect to which the Company has received written requests for inclusion from the holders of Registrable Securities within twenty (20) days after the Company's notice has been given to each such holder. A Piggyback Registration shall not be considered a Demand Registration for purposes of Section 2.

If any Piggyback Registration Statement pursuant to which holders of Registrable Securities have registered the offer and sale of Registrable Securities is a Registration Statement on Form S-3 or the then appropriate form for an offering to be made on a delayed or continuous basis pursuant to Rule 415 under the Securities Act or any successor rule thereto (a "Piggyback Shelf Registration Statement"), such holder(s) shall have the right, but not the obligation, to be notified of and to participate in any offering under such Piggyback Shelf Registration Statement (a "Piggyback Shelf Takedown").

(b) If a Piggyback Registration or Piggyback Shelf Takedown is initiated as a primary underwritten offering on behalf of the Company and the managing underwriter advises the Company and the holders of Registrable Securities (if any holders of Registrable Securities have elected to include Registrable Securities in such Piggyback Registration or Piggyback Shelf Takedown) in writing that in its reasonable and good faith opinion marketing factors require a limitation on the number of securities underwritten, the Company shall include in such registration or takedown: (i) first, the Company Securities that the Company proposes to sell; (ii) second, the Company Securities requested to be included therein by holders of Registrable Securities, allocated pro rata among all such holders on the basis of the number of Registrable Securities owned by each such holder or in such manner as they may otherwise agree; and (iii) third, the Company Securities requested to be included therein by holders of Company Securities other than holders of Registrable Securities, allocated among such holders in such manner as they may agree; provided, however, that in any event the Senior Preferred Investors holding Registrable Securities shall be entitled to register the offer and sale or distribution of at least fifteen percent (15%) of the Registrable Securities to be included in any such registration or takedown.

(c) If a Piggyback Registration or Piggyback Shelf Takedown is initiated as an underwritten offering on behalf of a holder of Company Securities other than Registrable Securities, and the managing underwriter advises the Company in writing that in its reasonable and good faith opinion the number of Company Securities proposed to be included in such registration or takedown, including all Registrable Securities and all other Company Securities proposed to be included in such underwritten offering, exceeds the number of Company Securities which can be sold in such offering and/or that the number of Company Securities proposed to be included in any such registration or takedown would adversely affect the price per share of the Company Securities to be sold in such offering, the Company shall include in such registration or takedown: (i) first, the Company Securities requested to be included therein by the holder(s) requesting such registration or takedown and by the holders of Registrable Securities, allocated pro rata among all such holders on the basis of the number of Company Securities other than the Registrable Securities (on a fully diluted, as converted basis) and the number of Registrable Securities, as applicable, owned by all such holders or in such manner as they may otherwise agree; and (ii) second, the Company Securities requested to be included therein by other holders of Company Securities, allocated among such holders in such manner as they may agree.

(d) If any Piggyback Registration or Piggyback Shelf Takedown is initiated as a primary underwritten offering on behalf of the Company, the Company shall select the investment banking firm or firms to act as the managing underwriter or underwriters in connection with such offering.

(e) For the avoidance of doubt, the provisions of this Section 3 shall apply irrespective of whether a Qualified Public Offering shall have occurred.

4. Lock-Up Agreement. Each holder of Registrable Securities agrees that in connection with any Qualified Public Offering of the Company Securities and any registration effected pursuant to Section 2(a), Section 2(b) or Section 2(c), and upon the request of the managing underwriter in such offering, such holder shall not, without the prior written consent of such managing underwriter, during the Market Standoff Period (a) offer, pledge, sell, contract to sell, grant any option or contract to purchase, purchase any option or contract to sell, hedge the beneficial ownership of or otherwise dispose of, directly or indirectly, any Company Securities or any securities convertible into, exercisable for or exchangeable for Company Securities held immediately before the effectiveness of the Registration Statement for such offering, or (b) enter into any swap or other arrangement that transfers to another, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences of ownership of such securities, whether any such transaction described in clause (a) or (b) above is to be settled by delivery of Company Securities or such other securities, in cash or otherwise.

The foregoing provisions of this Section 4 shall not apply to sales of Registrable Securities to be included in such offering pursuant to Section 2, or Section 3, and shall be applicable to the holders of Registrable Securities only if all officers and directors of the Company and all holders owning more than one percent (1%) of the Company's outstanding Company Securities are subject to the same restrictions. Each holder of Registrable Securities shall execute and deliver such other customary agreements as may be reasonably requested by the Company or the managing underwriter that are consistent with the foregoing and that are on terms no less favorable to the holders of Registrable Securities than are provided to all other non-management holders of Company Securities.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 4, each holder of Registrable Securities shall be released, pro rata, from any lock-up agreement entered into pursuant to this Section 4 if and to the extent that the managing underwriter or the Company permit any discretionary waiver or termination of the restrictions of any lock-up agreement pertaining to any officer or director of the Company or any holder of greater than one percent (1%) of the outstanding Company Securities.

5. Registration Procedures. If and whenever the holders of Registrable Securities request that the offer and sale of any Registrable Securities be registered under the Securities Act or that any Registrable Securities be distributed in a Shelf Takedown pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement, the Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to effect the registration of the offer and sale of such Registrable Securities under the Securities Act in accordance with the intended method of disposition thereof, and pursuant thereto the Company shall as soon as practicable and as applicable:

(a) subject to Section 2(a), Section 2(b) and Section 2(c), prepare and file with the Commission a Registration Statement covering such Registrable Securities and use its best efforts to cause such Registration Statement to be declared effective;

(b) in the case of a Long-Form Registration or a Short-Form Registration, prepare and file with the Commission such amendments, post-effective amendments and supplements to such Registration Statement and the Prospectus used in connection therewith as may be necessary to keep such Registration Statement effective for a period of not less than one hundred and eighty (180) days, or if earlier, until all of such Registrable Securities have been disposed of and to comply with the provisions of the Securities Act with respect to the disposition of such Registrable Securities in accordance with the intended methods of disposition set forth in such Registration Statement;

(c) at least ten (10) Business Days before filing such Registration Statement, Prospectus or amendments or supplements thereto with the Commission, furnish to one counsel selected by holders of a majority of such Registrable Securities copies of such documents proposed to be filed, which documents shall be subject to the review, comment and approval of such counsel;

(d) notify each selling holder of Registrable Securities, promptly after the Company receives notice thereof, of the time when such Registration Statement has been declared effective or a supplement, including a Shelf Takedown, to any Prospectus forming a part of such Registration Statement has been filed with the Commission;

(e) furnish to each selling holder of Registrable Securities such number of copies of the Prospectus included in such Registration Statement (including each preliminary Prospectus) and any supplement thereto, including a Shelf Takedown (in each case including all exhibits and documents incorporated by reference therein), and such other documents as such seller may request in order to facilitate the disposition of the Registrable Securities owned by such seller;

(f) use its best efforts to register or qualify such Registrable Securities under such other securities or "blue sky" laws of such jurisdictions as any selling holder requests and do any and all other acts and things which may be necessary or advisable to enable such holders to consummate the disposition in such jurisdictions of the Registrable Securities owned by such holders; provided, that the Company shall not be required to qualify generally to do business, subject itself to general taxation or consent to general service of process in any jurisdiction where it would not otherwise be required to do so but for this Section 5(f);

(g) notify each selling holder of such Registrable Securities, at any time when a Prospectus relating thereto is required to be delivered under the Securities Act, of the happening of any event that would cause the Prospectus included in such Registration Statement to contain an untrue statement of a material fact or omit any fact necessary in order to make the statements made therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, and, at the request of any such holder, the Company shall prepare a supplement or amendment to such Prospectus so that, as thereafter delivered to the purchasers of such Registrable Securities, such Prospectus shall not contain an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading;

(h) make available for inspection by any selling holder of Registrable Securities, any underwriter participating in any disposition pursuant to such Registration Statement and any attorney, accountant or other agent retained by any such holder or underwriter (collectively, the "Inspectors"), all financial and other records, pertinent corporate documents and properties of the Company (collectively, the "Records"), and cause the Company's officers, directors and employees to supply all information requested by any such Inspector in connection with such Registration Statement;

(i) provide a transfer agent and registrar (which may be the same entity) for all such Registrable Securities not later than the effective date of such registration;

(j) use its best efforts to cause such Registrable Securities to be listed on each securities exchange on which the Company Securities is then listed or, if the Company Securities are not then listed, on a national securities exchange selected by the Company with the approval of the holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities included in such registration;

(k) in connection with an underwritten offering, enter into such customary agreements (including underwriting and lock-up agreements in customary form) and take all such other customary actions as the holders of such Registrable Securities or the managing underwriter of such offering request in order to expedite or facilitate the disposition of such Registrable Securities (including making appropriate officers of the Company available to participate in "road show" and other customary marketing activities (including one-on-one meetings with prospective purchasers of the Registrable Securities));

(l) otherwise use its best efforts to comply with all applicable rules and regulations of the Commission and make available to its stockholders an earnings statement (in a form that satisfies the provisions of Section 11(a) of the Securities Act and Rule 158 under the Securities Act or any successor rule thereto) no later than thirty (30) days after the end of the 12-month period beginning with the first day of the Company's first full fiscal quarter after the effective date of such Registration Statement, which earnings statement shall cover said 12-month period, and which requirement will be deemed to be satisfied if the Company timely files complete and accurate information on Forms 10-K, 10-Q and 8-K under the Exchange Act and otherwise complies with Rule 158 under the Securities Act or any successor rule thereto; and

(m) furnish to each selling holder of Registrable Securities and each underwriter, if any, with: (i) a written legal opinion of the Company's outside counsel, dated the closing date of the offering, in form and substance as is customarily given in opinions of the Company's counsel to underwriters in underwritten registered offerings; and (ii) on the date of the applicable Prospectus, on the effective date of any post-effective amendment to the applicable Registration Statement and at the closing of the offering, dated the respective dates of delivery thereof, a "comfort" letter signed by the Company's independent certified public accountants in form and substance as is customarily given in accountants' letters to underwriters in underwritten registered offerings;

(n) without limiting Section 5(f), use its best efforts to cause such Registrable Securities to be registered with or approved by such other governmental agencies or authorities as may be necessary by virtue of the business and operations of the Company to enable the holders of such Registrable Securities to consummate the disposition of such Registrable Securities in accordance with their intended method of distribution thereof;

(o) notify the holders of Registrable Securities promptly of any request by the Commission for the amending or supplementing of such Registration Statement or Prospectus or for additional information;

(p) advise the holders of Registrable Securities, promptly after it shall receive notice or obtain knowledge thereof, of the issuance of any stop order by the Commission suspending the effectiveness of such Registration Statement or the initiation or threatening of any proceeding for such purpose and promptly use its best efforts to prevent the issuance of any stop order or to obtain its withdrawal at the earliest possible moment if such stop order should be issued;

(q) permit any holder of Registrable Securities which holder, in its sole and exclusive judgment, might be deemed to be an underwriter or a "controlling person" (within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act and Section 20 of the Exchange Act) (a "Controlling Person") of the Company, to participate in the preparation of such Registration Statement and to require the insertion therein of language, furnished to the Company in writing, which in the reasonable judgment of such holder and its counsel should be included;

(r) cooperate with the holders of the Registrable Securities to facilitate the timely preparation and delivery of certificates representing the Registrable Securities to be sold pursuant to such Registration Statement or Rule 144 free of any restrictive legends and representing such number of Company Securities and registered in such names as the holders of the Registrable Securities may reasonably request a reasonable period of time prior to sales of Registrable Securities pursuant to such Registration Statement or Rule 144; provided, however, that the Company may satisfy its obligations hereunder without issuing physical stock certificates through the use of The Depository Trust Company's Direct Registration System (the "DTCDRS");

(s) not later than the effective date of such Registration Statement, provide a CUSIP number for all Registrable Securities and provide the applicable transfer agent with printed certificates for the Registrable Securities which are in a form eligible for deposit with The Depository Trust Company; provided, however, that the Company may satisfy its obligations hereunder without issuing physical stock certificates through the use of the DTCDRS;

(t) take no direct or indirect action prohibited by Regulation M under the Exchange Act; provided, however, that, to the extent that any prohibition is applicable to the Company, the Company will take all reasonable action to make any such prohibition inapplicable; and

(u) in the case of a Shelf Registration, prepare and file with the Commission such amendments, post-effective amendments and supplements, including Shelf Takedowns, to such Registration Statement and the Prospectus used in connection therewith as may be necessary to keep such Registration Statement effective and to comply with the provisions of the Securities Act with respect to the disposition of all Registrable Securities subject thereto for a period (unless otherwise provided herein) ending on the earlier of (i) one hundred and eight (180) days after the effective date of such Registration Statement and (ii) the date on which all the Registrable Securities subject thereto have been sold pursuant to such Registration Statement;

(v) otherwise use its best efforts to take all other steps necessary to effect the registration of such Registrable Securities contemplated hereby.

6. Expenses. All expenses (other than Selling Expenses) incurred by the Company in complying with its obligations pursuant to this Agreement and in connection with the registration and disposition of Registrable Securities shall be paid by the Company, including all: (i) registration and filing fees (including, without limitation, any fees relating to filings required to be made with, or the listing of any Registrable Securities on, any securities exchange or over-the-counter trading market on which the Registrable Securities are listed or quoted); (ii) underwriting expenses (other than fees, commissions or discounts); (iii) expenses of any audits incident to or required by any such registration; (iv) fees and expenses of complying with securities and "blue sky" laws (including, without limitation, fees and disbursements of counsel for the Company in connection with "blue sky" qualifications or exemptions of the Registrable Securities); (v) printing expenses; (vi) messenger, telephone and delivery expenses; (vii) fees and expenses of the Company's counsel and accountants; (viii) Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. filing fees (if any); and (ix) fees and expenses of one counsel for the holders of Registrable Securities participating in such registration as a group (selected by, in the case of a registration under Section 2(a), the holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities initially requesting such registration, and, in the case of all other registrations hereunder, the holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities included in the registration). In addition, the Company shall be responsible for all of its internal expenses incurred in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including, without limitation, all salaries and expenses of its officers and employees performing legal or accounting duties) and the expense of any annual audits. All Selling Expenses relating to the offer and sale of Registrable Securities registered under the Securities Act pursuant to this Agreement shall be borne and paid by the holders of such Registrable Securities, in proportion to the number of Registrable Securities included in such registration for each such holder.

7. Indemnification.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless, to the fullest extent permitted by law, each holder of Registrable Securities, such holder's officers, directors, managers, members, partners, stockholders and Affiliates, each underwriter, broker or any other Person acting on behalf of such holder of Registrable Securities and each other Controlling Person, if any, who controls any of the foregoing Persons, against all losses, claims, actions, damages, liabilities and expenses, joint or several, to which any of the foregoing Persons may become subject under the Securities Act or otherwise, insofar as such losses, claims, actions, damages, liabilities or expenses arise out of or are based upon any untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in any Registration Statement, Prospectus, preliminary Prospectus, free writing prospectus (as defined in Rule 405 under the Securities Act or any successor rule thereto) or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto or any omission or alleged omission of a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein (in the case of a Prospectus, preliminary Prospectus or free writing prospectus, in light of the circumstances under which they were made) not misleading, or any violation or alleged violation by the Company of the Securities Act or any other similar federal or state securities laws or any rule or regulation promulgated thereunder applicable to the Company and relating to action or inaction required of the Company in connection with any such registration, qualification or compliance; and shall reimburse such Persons for any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred by any of them in connection with investigating or defending any such loss, claim, action, damage or liability, except insofar as the same are caused by or contained in any information furnished in writing to the Company by such holder expressly for use therein or by such holder's failure to deliver a copy of the Registration Statement, Prospectus, preliminary Prospectus, free writing prospectus (as defined in Rule 405 under the Securities Act or any successor rule thereto) or any amendments or supplements thereto (if the same was required by applicable law to be so delivered) after the Company has furnished such holder with a sufficient number of copies of the same prior to any written confirmation of the sale of Registrable Securities. This indemnity shall be in addition to any liability the Company may otherwise have. The indemnification provided for under this Section 7(a) shall remain in full force and effect regardless of any investigation made by or on behalf of the indemnified party or any officer, director or Controlling Person of such indemnified party and shall survive the transfer of the Registrable Securities by the Investors pursuant to Section 15.

(b) In connection with any registration in which a holder of Registrable Securities is participating, each such holder shall furnish to the Company in writing such information as the Company reasonably requests for use in connection with any such Registration Statement or Prospectus and, to the extent permitted by law, shall indemnify and hold harmless, the Company, each director of the Company, each officer of the Company who shall sign such Registration Statement, each underwriter, broker or other Person acting on behalf of the holders of Registrable Securities and each Controlling Person who controls any of the foregoing Persons against any losses, claims, actions, damages, liabilities or expenses resulting from any untrue or alleged untrue statement of material fact contained in the Registration Statement, Prospectus, preliminary Prospectus, free writing prospectus (as defined in Rule 405 under the Securities Act or any successor rule thereto) or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto or any omission or alleged omission of a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein (in the case of a Prospectus, preliminary Prospectus or free writing prospectus, in light of the circumstances under which they were made) not misleading, but only to the extent that such untrue statement or omission is contained in any information so furnished in writing by such holder; provided, however, that the obligation to indemnify shall be several, not joint and several, for each holder and shall not exceed an amount equal to the net proceeds (after underwriting fees, commissions or discounts) actually received by such holder from the sale of Registrable Securities pursuant to such Registration Statement. This indemnity shall be in addition to any liability the selling holder may otherwise have.

(c) Promptly after receipt by an indemnified party of notice of the commencement of any action involving a claim referred to in this Section 7, such indemnified party shall, if a claim in respect thereof is made against an indemnifying party, give written notice to the latter of the commencement of such action. The failure of any indemnified party to notify an indemnifying party of any such action shall not (unless such failure shall have a material adverse effect on the indemnifying party) relieve the indemnifying party from any liability in respect of such action that it may have to such indemnified party hereunder. In case any such action is brought against an indemnified party, the indemnifying party shall be entitled to participate in and to assume the defense of the claims in any such action that are subject or potentially subject to indemnification hereunder, jointly with any other indemnifying party similarly notified to the extent that it may wish, with counsel reasonably satisfactory to such indemnified party, and after written notice from the indemnifying party to such indemnified party of its election so to assume the defense thereof, the indemnifying party shall not be responsible for any legal or other expenses subsequently incurred by the indemnified party in connection with the defense thereof; provided, however, that, if (i) any indemnified party shall have reasonably concluded that there may be one or more legal or equitable defenses available to such indemnified party which are additional to or conflict with those available to the indemnifying party, or that such claim or litigation involves or could have an effect upon matters beyond the scope of the indemnity provided hereunder, or (ii) such action seeks an injunction or equitable relief against any indemnified party or involves actual or alleged criminal activity, the indemnifying party shall not have the right to assume the defense of such action on behalf of such indemnified party without such indemnified party's prior written consent (but, without such consent, shall have the right to participate therein with counsel of its choice) and such indemnifying party shall reimburse such indemnified party and any Controlling Person of such indemnified party for that portion of the fees and expenses of any counsel retained by the indemnified party which is reasonably related to the matters covered by the indemnity provided hereunder. If the indemnifying party is not entitled to, or elects not to, assume the defense of a claim, it shall not be obligated to pay the fees and expenses of more than one counsel for all parties indemnified by such indemnifying party with respect to such claim, unless in the reasonable judgment of any indemnified party a conflict of interest may exist between such indemnified party and any other of such indemnified parties with respect to such claim. In such instance, the conflicting indemnified parties shall have a right to retain one separate counsel, chosen by the holders of at least a majority of the Registrable Securities included in the registration, at the expense of the indemnifying party.

(d) If the indemnification provided for hereunder is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unavailable to an indemnified party with respect to any loss, claim, damage, liability or action referred to herein, then the indemnifying party, in lieu of indemnifying such indemnified party hereunder, shall contribute to the amounts paid or payable by such indemnified party as a result of such loss, claim, damage, liability or action in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative fault of the indemnifying party on the one hand and of the indemnified party on the other in connection with the statements or omissions which resulted in such loss, claim, damage, liability or action as well as any other relevant equitable considerations; provided, however, that the maximum amount of liability in respect of such contribution shall be limited, in the case of each holder of Registrable Securities, to an amount equal to the net proceeds (after underwriting fees, commissions or discounts) actually received by such seller from the sale of Registrable Securities effected pursuant to such registration. The relative fault of the indemnifying party and of the indemnified party shall be determined by reference to, among other things, whether the untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact or the omission or alleged omission to state a material fact relates to information supplied by the indemnifying party or by the indemnified party, whether the violation of the Securities Act or any other similar federal or state securities laws or rule or regulation promulgated thereunder applicable to the Company and relating to action or inaction required of the Company in connection with any applicable registration, qualification or compliance was perpetrated by the indemnifying party or the indemnified party and the parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent such statement or omission. The parties agree that it would not be just and equitable if contribution pursuant hereto were determined by pro rata allocation or by any other method or allocation which does not take account of the equitable considerations referred to herein. No Person guilty or liable of fraudulent misrepresentation within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the Securities Act shall be entitled to contribution from any Person who was not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation.

8. Participation in Underwritten Registrations. No Person may participate in any registration hereunder which is underwritten unless such Person (a) agrees to sell such Person's securities on the basis provided in any underwriting arrangements approved by the Person or Persons entitled hereunder to approve such arrangements, and (b) completes and executes all questionnaires, powers of attorney, indemnities, underwriting agreements and other documents required under the terms of such underwriting arrangements; provided, however, that no holder of Registrable Securities included in any underwritten registration shall be required to make any representations or warranties to the Company or the underwriters (other than representations and warranties regarding such holder, such holder's ownership of its Company Securities to be sold in the offering and such holder's intended method of distribution) or to undertake any indemnification obligations to the Company or the underwriters with respect thereto, except as otherwise provided in Section 7.

9. Rule 144 Compliance. With a view to making available to the holders of Registrable Securities the benefits of Rule 144 and any other rule or regulation of the Commission that may at any time permit a holder to sell securities of the Company to the public without registration, the Company shall:

(a) make and keep public information available, as those terms are understood and defined in Rule 144, at all times after the Registration Date;

(b) use best efforts to file with the Commission in a timely manner all reports and other documents required of the Company under the Securities Act and the Exchange Act, at any time after the Registration Date; and

(c) furnish to any holder so long as the holder owns Registrable Securities, promptly upon request, a written statement by the Company as to its compliance with the reporting requirements of Rule 144 and of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act, a copy of the most recent annual or quarterly report of the Company, and such other reports and documents so filed or furnished by the Company as such holder may request in connection with the sale of Registrable Securities without registration.

10. Preservation of Rights. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Company has not prior to the date hereof, and shall not on or after the date hereof (a) grant any registration rights to any third party or to any Member of the Company other than an Investor that are more favorable than or inconsistent with the rights granted hereunder, (b) enter into any agreement, take any action, or permit any change to occur, with respect to its securities that violates or subordinates the rights expressly granted to the holders of Registrable Securities in this Agreement, or (c) enter into any agreement that is inconsistent with the rights of the Investors hereunder.

11. Termination. This Agreement shall terminate and be of no further force or effect when there shall no longer be any Registrable Securities outstanding; provided, however, that the provisions of Section 6 and Section 7 shall survive any such termination.

12. Alternative IPO Entities. If the Company elects to effect an underwritten registered offering of equity securities of any subsidiary or parent of the Company (collectively, "Alternative IPO Entities") rather than the equity securities of the Company, whether as a result of a reorganization of the Company or otherwise, the Investors and the Company shall cause the Alternative IPO Entity to enter into an agreement with the Investors that provides the Investors with registration rights with respect to the equity securities of the Alternative IPO Entity that are substantially the same as, and in any event no less favorable in the aggregate to, the registration rights provided to the Investors in this Agreement.

13. Notices. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, any notice or other communication required or permitted to be delivered to any party under this Agreement will be in writing and delivered by (a) email, or (b) registered mail via a national courier service to the following email address or physical address, as applicable.

14. Entire Agreement. This Agreement, together with (i) with respect to the Company and the Senior Preferred Investors, the Senior Preferred Subscription Agreement, and (ii) with respect to the Company and the Junior Preferred Investors, the Junior Preferred Subscription Agreement, and, in each case, any related exhibits and schedules thereto, constitutes the sole and entire agreement and understanding of the parties to this Agreement with respect to the subject matter contained herein, and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements and understandings, both written and oral, with respect to such subject matter. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of any conflict between the terms and provisions of this Agreement and those of the Senior Preferred Subscription Agreement or the Junior Preferred Subscription Agreement, the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall control.

15. Successor and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns. Neither the Company, on the one hand, nor any Investor, on the other hand, may assign any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of such other party, except that such Investor may, without the consent of the Company, assign its rights or obligations hereunder to any Person to whom such Investor transfers all or any portion of its Company Securities in compliance with the LLC Agreement.

16. No Third-Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement is for the sole benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns, and nothing herein, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other Person any legal or equitable right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever, under or by reason of this Agreement; provided, however that the persons set forth in Section 7 are express third-party beneficiaries of the obligations of the parties set forth in Section 7.

17. Interpretation. All references herein to "Sections" shall refer to corresponding provisions of this Agreement. Whenever the words "include," "includes" or "including" are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words "without limitation." The words "hereof," "herein" and "hereunder" and words of similar import when used in this Agreement shall refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Agreement. The definitions contained in this Agreement are applicable to the singular as well as the plural forms of such terms and to the masculine as well as to the feminine and neuter genders of such term.

18. Amendments, Supplements and Waivers. The provisions of this Agreement may only be amended, supplemented or waived with the prior written consent of the Company and the holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities. No waiver by any party or parties shall operate or be construed as a waiver in respect of any failure, breach or default not expressly identified by such written waiver, whether of a similar or different character, and whether occurring before or after that waiver. Except as otherwise set forth in this Agreement, no failure to exercise, or delay in exercising, any right, remedy, power or privilege arising from this Agreement shall operate or be construed as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege.

19. Joinder of Junior Preferred Members Pursuant to Subsequent Closings. Any Person who purchases Junior Preferred Units pursuant to the Junior Preferred Subscription Agreement on a Subsequent Closing Date (as defined therein) may execute a counterpart to this Agreement and shall, upon and as of such execution, become and be deemed a party hereto as an Investor.

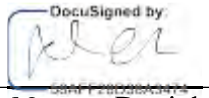
20. Severability. If any term or provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect any other term or provision of this Agreement or invalidate or render unenforceable such term or provision in any other jurisdiction. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the parties hereto shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in a mutually acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated hereby be consummated as originally contemplated to the greatest extent possible.

21. Remedies. Each holder of Registrable Securities, in addition to being entitled to exercise all rights granted by law, including recovery of damages, shall be entitled to specific performance of its rights under this Agreement. The Company acknowledges that monetary damages would not be adequate compensation for any loss incurred by reason of a breach by it of the provisions of this Agreement and the Company hereby agrees to waive the defense in any action for specific performance that a remedy at law would be adequate.

22. Governing Law; Submission to Jurisdiction. This Agreement and the rights of the parties hereunder shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, and all rights and remedies shall be governed by such laws without regard to principles of conflict of laws. Each party hereto waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any right it may have to a trial by jury in respect of any action, suit or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement

23. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed with counterpart signature pages or in one or more counterparts, all of which will constitute one and the same instrument. Any counterpart signature pages or counterparts with any signatures thereon delivered by facsimile transmission or other electronic method (including by email in portable document format (pdf)) will be deemed an original executed document for all purposes hereof.

24. Further Assurances. The parties will execute and deliver such documents and other papers and take such further actions as may be reasonably required or desirable to carry out the provisions hereof and the transactions contemplated hereby.



25. Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. If any term or provision hereof is illegal, invalid or unenforceable for any reason whatsoever, that term or provision will be enforced to the maximum extent permissible so as to effect the intent of the parties, and such illegality, invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect the validity or legality of the remainder of this Agreement. If necessary to effect the intent of the parties, the parties will negotiate in good faith to amend this Agreement to replace the unenforceable language with enforceable language which as closely as possible reflects such intent.

26. No Vicarious Liability. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the liabilities of the parties under this Agreement will be limited to such parties, and no Person that is not a party will have any liability hereunder or with respect to the matters contemplated hereby. Each party hereby agrees not to bring any action or claim arising under or relating to this Agreement against any Person that is not a party.

EXECUTIVE EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

THIS EXECUTIVE EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (the "Agreement"), is entered into as of April 16, 2025 (the "Effective Date") by and between Daniel Chu (the "Executive"), and Tricolor Holdings, LLC (the "Company," and together with Executive, the "Parties" and each a "Party").

WHEREAS, the Company is engaged in the commercial enterprise of operating a vertically integrated retail automotive and consumer lending business, focused on the Hispanic consumer market and/or other consumer automobile markets throughout the United States (the "Business");

WHEREAS, the Company desires to provide for the continued employment of Executive on the terms and conditions provided in this Agreement;

WHEREAS, Executive is willing to commit to serve the Company in the capacity and on the terms and conditions provided in this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, in order to effect the foregoing, the Company and Executive wish to enter into an employment agreement on the terms and conditions set forth below.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing, the mutual agreements contained herein and for other good and valuable consideration (including the additional consideration set forth on Schedule 1, which constitutes sufficient independent consideration for the restrictive covenants in Section 6), the Parties, intending to be legally bound, hereby agree as follows:

1. SCOPE OF EMPLOYMENT.

1.1 AT-WILL EMPLOYMENT. EXECUTIVE'S EMPLOYMENT WITH THE COMPANY PURSUANT TO THIS AGREEMENT IS ON AN "AT-WILL" BASIS, meaning that Executive may resign from employment or the Company may terminate Executive's employment, at any time, for any reason not prohibited by law, subject to the terms and conditions of Section 3. The period of time between the Effective Date and the termination of the Executive's employment relationship shall be the "Employment Period".

1.2 Job Title and Duties. During the Employment Period, Executive will have the job title of Chief Executive Officer and, in such capacity, will have duties commensurate with such position and assigned to Executive by the Board of Managers of the Company (the "Board") from time to time. Executive's duties may also include providing services or support to all other Persons controlled by, controlling, or under common control with, the Company, including but not limited to Tricolor Auto Group, LLC, Tricolor California Auto Group, LLC, and Tricolor Auto Acceptance, LLC, together with their respective successors in interest ("Affiliates") from time to time. During the Employment Period, Executive shall serve, if elected or appointed, as an officer of any Affiliates in addition to the Company. The Executive will follow all applicable Company policies and codes of conduct, and comply with all reasonable and lawful instructions and directions of the Board, and adhere to all applicable laws, regulations, bylaws, ordinances and any other applicable legal requirements. Executive agrees and understands that the requirement to fulfill other reasonable duties as determined by the Company does not constitute a fundamental alteration to this Agreement. In the event of an irreconcilable conflict between this Agreement and applicable policies of the Company, this Agreement will govern. Executive shall devote Executive's full business time and best efforts to the Company and will not engage in any other employment, occupation, consulting, or other activity that conflicts with Executive's obligations to the Company; provided, however, that Executive shall be permitted to (a) serve on corporate, civic or charitable boards or committees as approved by the Board (except for boards or committees of a business organization that compete with the Company) and (b) manage or engage in other activities in connection with Executive's personal investments, in the case of the foregoing clauses (a) and (b) so long as the foregoing permitted activities do not interfere with Executive's duties hereunder, as determined in the good faith opinion of the Board.

2. COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS. The Company will provide to Executive the compensation and benefits set forth on Schedule 1 attached hereto. The Company may withhold and deduct from any amounts payable under this Agreement such federal, state and local taxes and other amounts required to be withheld or deducted pursuant to any applicable law.

3. TERMINATION.

3.1 Termination Reasons and Payments. If Executive's employment under this Agreement is terminated for any reason, voluntarily or involuntarily, with or without Cause, whether by discharge by the Company, resignation by Executive, death, or Disability, then all further rights of Executive (or as applicable, of Executive's heirs or estate) to employment or compensation and benefits under this Agreement shall cease as of the last day of the Employment Period (the "Termination Date"), except as otherwise provided herein.

(a) By Company Without Cause. The Company may terminate Executive's employment hereunder at any time without Cause (as defined herein), within its sole discretion. If the Company terminates Executive's employment without Cause, and subject to Executive's effective execution of a General Release Agreement then the Company will pay Executive the Severance Pay (as defined herein); except that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, if Executive is terminated by the Company within six months of a Capital Event (as defined in the Side Letter, which is defined herein), Executive will only be entitled to Accrued Compensation and Benefits plus, and subject to Executive's effective execution of a General Release Agreement, an amount equal to six (6) months of Executive's Base Salary as of the Termination Date, payable in a lump sum within thirty days of the Release Date.

(b) By Company for Cause. The Company may terminate Executive's employment under this Agreement at any time for Cause, effective immediately upon notice to Executive. "Cause" means the following, based on the acts or omissions of Executive: (i) Executive's indictment for, or entry of a plea of no contest with respect to, any felony (or state or foreign law equivalent); (ii) breach of the duty of loyalty; (iii) willful misconduct, such as a violation of policies of the Company or any Affiliates regarding honesty, confidentiality, expense reimbursement, or other employee misconduct; or (iv) fraud, theft, dishonesty, embezzlement, conversion, misappropriation, or misdirection of funds, property, or business opportunities of the Company or any Affiliates. If the Company terminates Executive's employment for Cause, the Company will pay Executive Accrued Compensation and Benefits.

(c) By Executive. Executive may resign from Executive's employment hereunder at any time upon sixty (60) days' prior written notice to the Company; provided, however, that the Company may, its sole discretion, (i) accelerate some or all of such notice period without converting the resignation to a termination by the Company or (ii) transition Executive to "Garden Leave" for up to six months following receipt of Executive's notice, during which time (w) Executive shall continue to receive his Base Salary and benefits (excluding any Annual Bonus) as provided herein, (x) Executive shall continue to be bound by the express and implied duties of Executive's employment including, without limitation, by the duty of fidelity and good faith owed to the Company and Sections 4 through 7 of this Agreement, (y) Executive shall cooperate and use best efforts to assist the Company in an orderly transition of Executive's duties and responsibilities to the Company, including, but not limited to, training and consulting with replacement personnel, and (z) the Company shall be under no obligation to provide any work to Executive and Executive shall not be an officer of the Company, have the authority to bind the Company in any way or direct or manage other employees of the Company during Garden Leave. For the avoidance of doubt, in no event shall Executive receive both Garden Leave payments and Severance Pay. If Executive resigns from employment hereunder or in the event Executive is placed on Garden Leave, then upon the termination of the Garden Leave, the Company will pay Executive any Accrued Compensation and Benefits.

(d) Due to Death. The Executive's employment will automatically and immediately terminate upon the death of Executive. If Executive's employment is terminated due to Executive's death, Executive's estate will be entitled to receive Accrued Compensation and Benefits.

(e) Due to Disability. The Executive's employment may be terminated by either Party upon notice to the other of Executive's Disability. If Executive's employment is terminated due to a Disability, Executive will be entitled to Accrued Compensation and Benefits.

3.2 Definitions.

(a) "Accrued Compensation and Benefits" means the payment, or commencement of payment as applicable, of: (i) the amount of unpaid Base Salary and accrued PTO earned by Executive through the Termination Date (payable in accordance with applicable law); (ii) all unpaid reimbursable expenses due to Executive under this Agreement as of the Termination Date, subject to Executive's compliance with the Company's expense reimbursement policies, payable in accordance with the terms of the Company's applicable policies, practices, and procedures regarding reimbursable expenses; and (iii) all unpaid benefits that have been earned by or vested in Executive under, and subject to the terms of, the employee benefit plans, insurance policies, or arrangements of the Company in which Executive participated through the Termination Date, payable in accordance with the terms of the employee benefit plans, insurance policies, or arrangements under which such amounts are due to Executive.

(b) "Disability" means, subject to the requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act, as amended, Executive's inability to perform the essential duties required hereunder due to physical or mental illness, impairment, or other incapacity, where (i) such inability has been determined to exist by the disability insurance carrier for the Company, or (ii) the Company has determined, based on competent professional advice and review of any medical examinations that the Board deems relevant, or that are required by the Company's designated physician, that such inability has continued or will continue for at least ninety (90) consecutive calendar days, or 150 calendar days, whether consecutive or not, within a three-hundred and sixty-five (365) day period. In conjunction with determining Disability for purposes of this Agreement, Executive hereby consents to (A) any medical examinations that the Board in good faith deems relevant to such a determination, or that are required by the Company's designated physician, (B) furnish such medical information as may be reasonably requested, and (C) waive any applicable privilege that may arise because of such examination, for the limited purpose of Company review. In the absence of the Parties' agreement about the existence of Executive's Disability, the Board will make a reasonable determination of same.

(c) "General Release Agreement" means a severance, separation, and general release agreement in a form acceptable to the Company, including terms for Executive's general release of all claims against the Company and Affiliates, survival of the terms of this Agreement that apply post-employment, and other terms reasonably deemed satisfactory to the Company or required by law.

(d) "Release Date" means the date that the General Release is fully executed by Executive and no longer subject to revocation per its terms.

(e) "Severance Pay" means an amount equal to twelve (12) months of Executive's Base Salary as of the Termination Date, plus Executive's portion of monthly group health insurance premiums for Executive and Executive's dependents ("Premiums"), for a period of twelve (12) months (the "Severance Period"), paid in substantially equal installments over the Severance Period in accordance with the normal payroll policies of the Company, less applicable taxes, commencing on the first regular monthly payroll date of the Company following the Release Date; provided, however, that any such amounts that constitute nonqualified deferred compensation within the meaning of Section 409A of the Code shall not be paid until the sixtieth (60^{th}) day following Executive's Separation from Service (as defined herein), and, if such payments are required to be so deferred, the first payment shall be in an amount equal to the total amount to which Executive would otherwise have been entitled (without interest) during the period following the Termination Date if such deferral had not been required.

3.3 Position Resignations. Upon termination of Executive's employment hereunder, Executive will resign or will be deemed to have resigned from any and all positions as an officer or director, or both, of the Company and any Affiliates, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Parties. If for any reason this Section is deemed to be insufficient to effectuate such resignations, then Executive will, upon the Company's request, execute any documents or instruments that the Company may deem necessary or desirable to effectuate such resignations.

3.4 Key Man. The Parties agree that Executive is integral to the Company's day-to-day management, investments, financing, and operations (a "Key Man"). Executive's termination of employment with the Company could materially and adversely affect the Company. Upon Executive's termination from employment, whether voluntarily or involuntarily, and for any reason, Executive agrees to cooperate in good faith with the Company and the Board's efforts to approve a replacement Key Man.

4. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.

4.1 Provision. In consideration of Executive's covenants herein, and in the course of Executive's employment, the Company has and will continue to provide Executive with Confidential Information. All Confidential Information is the property of the Company or Affiliates. The Executive acknowledges and stipulates that Confidential Information, if retained, appropriated, used, or disclosed in violation of this Agreement, would place the Company or Affiliates at a competitive disadvantage.

4.2 Confidential Information Defined. "Confidential Information" means any and all information, material, or data of, relating to, belonging to, prepared by, prepared for, obtained by, or compiled by the Company or Affiliates (or their customers, prospective customers, suppliers, licensees, licensors, or other business relations), regardless of media or format, that is confidential, proprietary, or a trade secret: (i) by its nature; (ii) because it is not generally known to the public or in the Company's industry; (iii) based on how it is treated or designated by the Company or Affiliates (or their customers, prospective customers, suppliers, licensees, licensors, or other business relations); (iv) based on the significance of its existing or potential commercial value or business utility; (v) such that its unauthorized direct or indirect retention, withholding, appropriation, use, or disclosure would have a material adverse effect on the business or planned business of the Company or any Affiliates; or (vi) as a matter of law, regardless of whether such information was obtained by Executive before or after the Effective Date. All Confidential Information is the property of the Company or Affiliates.

(a) Examples. Examples of Confidential Information include, but are not limited to, the following: (a) Intellectual Property; (b) Work for Hire; (c) any and all information, material and/or data related to the Company's and/or any Affiliate's program(s) of research, development, training and/or production; (d) designs, sources, codes or software, for products or services of the Company and/or Customer/Vendors, or for the development of same; and (e) any and all other non-public information, material and/or data about the Company's and/or any Affiliate's accounting, accumulated data, advertising, budgets, business plans, compilations of data and analyses, customers, customer lists, customer records, data processing, designs, development, engineering, finances, financial statements, formulas, information-gathering techniques and methods, listings, machines, manuals, manufacturing, marketing, merchandising, price lists and prices charged to specific customers, processes, products, projections, prospective customers, prospective vendors and suppliers, purchasing, recipes, research, sales, sales volume, sales methods, sales proposals, selling, services, software owned, licensed, or developed (or being developed) for use in or relating to the conduct of the Company, strategic and long-range plans, vendors and/or suppliers. Executive acknowledges and agrees that this information, if retained, appropriated, used, or disclosed, would place the Company at a competitive disadvantage.

(b) Executive Information. Confidential Information specifically includes any and all information, material, or data that is referenced in the foregoing definition and examples of Confidential Information, that is created, contributed by, discovered, known to, disclosed to, accessed by, or developed by Executive during the Employment Period, or that otherwise comes within Executive's possession, custody or control as a result of Executive's services provided to or on behalf of the Company or any Affiliates. Confidential Information also includes any documentation, media, or tangible items that contain or embody Confidential Information, and all copies, summaries, extracts or derivative works thereof. The Executive's obligations with respect to Confidential Information hereunder are in addition to all other obligations, including all such obligations arising from statute and common law

(c) Exclusions. Confidential Information does not include material, data, or information that: (A) the Company or Affiliates have voluntarily and intentionally placed in the public domain for public disclosure; (B) has been lawfully and independently developed and publicly disclosed by third parties without breaching any duty of confidentiality to the Company or any Affiliates; (C) is independently developed by Executive outside the course and scope of Executive's employment or engagement with the Company or any Affiliates, without the utilization of any Confidential Information; (D) is generally known or becomes known in the trade or industry of the Company or any Affiliates, except as a result of a breach of this Agreement or other agreement or instrument or obligation to which Executive is bound; (E) otherwise enters the public domain through lawful means or (F) consists of Executive's general industry knowledge or experience; provided, however, that the unauthorized retention, withholding, appropriation, use or disclosure of Confidential Information by Executive, directly or indirectly, shall not affect the protection and relief afforded by this Agreement regarding such information. Any Confidential Information that includes a combination of features or aspects shall not be deemed to be within any of the foregoing exceptions merely because individual features or aspects fall within any one or more of such exceptions, but only if the combination itself falls within any of the exceptions.

4.3 Protection. During the Employment Period and following the Termination Date, Executive shall not, in any manner, directly or indirectly: (a) retain, appropriate, remove, use, or disclose any Confidential Information, in any media or format, to or for the benefit of any individual, corporation, partnership, trust, limited liability company, unincorporated organization, association, or other entity (each, a "Person"), except for the benefit of the Company or any Affiliates within the course and scope of Executive's employment; or (b) circumvent, interfere with, or otherwise diminish, directly or indirectly, the value or benefit of Confidential Information to the Company or any Affiliates, except as a consequence of lawful, post-employment business activities that are not in breach of this Agreement. Executive shall use utmost diligence to protect Confidential Information from unauthorized or inadvertent disclosure.

4.4 Notice. Executive shall immediately notify the Company of any unauthorized disclosure or use of Confidential Information by Executive or any other Person, which Executive becomes aware of or reasonably suspects. Executive shall cooperate fully with the Company in protection of the Company's and Affiliates' rights regarding Confidential Information.

4.5 Return and Review. All Confidential Information shall remain the property of the Company or Affiliates, as applicable. Executive shall deliver to the Company all documents, files (including electronically stored information) and other materials constituting or reflecting Confidential Information within Executive's possession, custody, or control immediately upon the Company's request or the Termination Date, as applicable. Both during the Employment Period and after the Termination Date, the Company will have the right of reasonable access to review, inspect, copy, or confiscate documents, files (including electronically stored information) and other materials constituting or reflecting Confidential Information in Executive's possession, custody, or control. In the event that Executive becomes aware that Executive still has possession, custody or control of Confidential Information at any time following Executive's return of same as provided in this Section, Executive will promptly deliver same to the Company.

4.6 Response to Third Party Requests. Upon receipt of any request, by legal process or otherwise, seeking Executive's direct or indirect disclosure of any Confidential Information, Executive shall, to the extent not prohibited by applicable law, promptly and timely notify the Company of such request, provide a description of same, and, if applicable, fax, or hand deliver a copy of same to the Company. To the extent not prohibited by applicable law, the Company shall have the right to act in place of Executive to perform any act to defend and protect against any disclosure of Confidential Information. The Executive shall comply with all lawful requests of the Company regarding such requested disclosure. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section, nothing in this Section shall require Executive to spend money, incur any liabilities, or forego any benefits.

4.7 Customer/Vendor & Third-Party Confidential Information. During the Employment Period, Executive shall not possess, retain, withhold, take, use, or disclose, or introduce to the Company or any Affiliates any confidential or proprietary information of any Customer/Vendor or other third party Person, unless lawfully authorized to do so, for the Company's benefit within the course and scope of Executive's employment, and consistent with the Company's agreement(s), if any, with such Customer/Vendor or other third party.

4.8 Acknowledgements. Executive acknowledges that: (a) Confidential Information is of great value and utility to the Company and Affiliates, and contributes substantially to their reputation, sales and profits; (b) the Company and Affiliates have invested, and continue to invest, considerable amounts of time and money in the development, acquisition, or use of Confidential Information; (c) the Company and Affiliates take reasonable measures to protect and maintain the confidentiality of Confidential Information; (d) the Confidential Information includes information about the Company and Affiliates that is not publicly known; and (e) the Company and Affiliates will be entitled to injunctive or other equitable relief as a remedy for any breach of Executive's confidentiality covenants under Section 4, which relief will be in addition to all other relief, at law and equity, available to the Company and Affiliates.

5. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY.

5.1 Assignment and Waiver. The Executive: (a) irrevocably grants, transfers and assigns to the Company, as its sole property, all right, title and interest to all Inventions and Work for Hire, including all Intellectual Property Rights thereto; and (b) forever waives any and all right, title and interest to all Inventions and Work for Hire, including all Intellectual Property Rights thereto. To the extent that any right, title and interest in and to Inventions or Work for Hire, including any Intellectual Property Rights thereto, cannot be assigned by Executive to the Company, Executive hereby grants to the Company an exclusive, perpetual, royalty-free, transferable, irrevocable, worldwide license (with rights to sublicense through multiple tiers of sublicensees) to make, have made, use, sell, offer for sale, import, export, reproduce, practice and otherwise commercialize such rights, title and interest. UNLESS OTHERWISE DESIGNATED BY THE EXECUTIVE IN A WRITING ATTACHED TO THIS AGREEMENT, NO

WORK PRODUCT OR WORK FOR HIRE EXISTS THAT THE EXECUTIVE CLAIMS TO BE EXCLUDED FROM ASSIGNMENT UNDER THIS SECTION.

5.2 Disclosure and Assistance. Both during the Employment Period and after the Termination Date, Executive shall promptly disclose all Inventions to the Company in writing and perform all actions reasonably requested by the Company or any Affiliates (including the execution of documents and the provision of information) to establish or protect the right, title and interest of the Company or any Affiliates to Inventions, and Work for Hire, including all Intellectual Property Rights thereto (both in the United States and in foreign countries). In the event that the Company or any Affiliates are unable for any reason to secure Executive's signature to any document required to file, prosecute, register, or memorialize the assignment of any Intellectual Property Rights or to enforce any Intellectual Property Rights in Inventions or Work for Hire, Executive hereby designates and appoints the Company and each of its nominees and duly authorized agents as Executive's agents and attorneys-in-fact to act for and on Executive's behalf and to act in place of Executive to perform any act (including without limitation, the execution of documents on Executive's behalf) to (a) execute, file, prosecute, register and memorialize the assignment of any such application; and (b) otherwise defend and protect the right, title, and interest of the Company and Affiliates to Intellectual Property Rights in Inventions and Work for Hire. After the Employment Period, from time to time at the request and expense of the Company, Executive shall assist the Company: (i) in the protection of the Company's and Affiliates' worldwide right, title and interest in and to Inventions and Work for Hire, including all Intellectual Property Rights thereto (subject to the payment for services at a rate mutually agreeable to Executive and the Company in accordance with the particular services provided, and provided that such assistance does not unreasonably disrupt Executive's obligation to Executive's then-current employer or other service recipient), and (ii) the execution of all assignment documents requested by the Company or its nominee and the execution of all lawful oaths and applications for patents and registration of copyrights in the United States and foreign countries. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section, nothing in this Section shall require Executive to spend money, incur any liabilities, or forego any benefits.

5.3 Definitions.

(a) "Intellectual Property Rights" means any: (i) patents, utility models or statutory invention registrations, industrial models and designs in the inventor's own name, including all reissuances, continuations, continuations-in-part, divisions, supplementary protection certificates, extensions and re-examinations thereof; (ii) trademarks, service marks, trade names, logos, domain names, corporate names and trade dress, and any rights similar thereto for any indicia of source, including the goodwill associated therewith; (iii) works of authorship in all forms and media, whether now known or hereafter invented, including copyrights and mask works; (iv) trade secrets and other proprietary information or know-how, and any and all other rights to prohibit disclosure; (v) rights to institute and prosecute all suits and proceedings and take all actions that the Company may deem necessary or proper, to collect, assert, or enforce any claim, right, or title of any kind, including the right to sue for past, present, and infringement and misappropriation; (vi) rights to claim authorship, attribution or ownership of any of the foregoing, to object or prevent the modification of any of the foregoing, to withdraw any of the foregoing from circulation, to control the publication or distribution of any of the foregoing, and any similar right, existing under judicial or statutory law of any country, or under any treaty, regardless of whether or not such right is denominated or generally referred to as a "moral right"; (vii) all other intellectual and industrial property rights (of every kind and nature throughout the universe and however designated), whether arising by operation of law, contract, license, or otherwise; and (viii) any and all registrations or applications hereof now or hereafter in force (including any and all rights in any of the foregoing).

(b) "Inventions" means all Work Product that is directly or indirectly authored, conceived, created, developed, discovered, made, reduced to practice, or written, by Executive, during the Employment Period whether in oral, written, tangible, or intangible form: (i) alone or with others in the course of Executive's employment or engagement for or with the Company or any Affiliates (including services to the Company or any Affiliates prior to the Effective Date); (ii) using any amount of the Company's or any Affiliates' time, or using any equipment, supplies, facilities, assets, information (including Confidential Information), or resources of the Company or any Affiliates; or (iii) relating to or resulting from the Company or any Affiliates' actual or planned business, products, services or research and development.

(c) "Work for Hire" means all Inventions created or developed by Executive during the Employment Period that are protectable under copyright law, including without limitation works of authorship, computer software, and related works.

(d) "Work Product" means all patents and patent applications, as well as all algorithms, applications, analyses and reports, branding and service marks, computer programs, code, concepts, copyrights and copyrightable works, creative works, deliverables, designs, developments, discoveries, drawings, enhancements, formulations, hardware, ideas, improvements, innovations, inventions (including without limitation all types of technical, artistic or commercial creative work), know-how, mask works, methods, modifications, notes, processes and data, records, software, source and object codes, techniques, trademarks, trade secrets and confidential information, test cases, test data sets, test plans, test scripts, works of authorship, all other forms of intellectual property, and all similar or related information (in each case whether patentable or not, and whether registerable or not under copyright or similar law).

6. RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS.

6.1 Consideration. The Company shall provide Executive access to Confidential Information for use only during the Employment Period, and Executive acknowledges and agrees that the Company and Affiliates will be entrusting Executive, in Executive's unique and special capacity, with developing the goodwill of the Company and Affiliates, and in consideration of the Company having provided and continuing to provide Executive with access to Confidential Information and as an express incentive for the Company to enter into this Agreement and employ Executive, Executive has agreed to the covenants set forth in Section 6. Executive further agrees and acknowledges that the limitations and restrictions set forth herein are reasonable in all respects and not oppressive, will not cause Executive undue hardship, and are material and substantial parts of this Agreement intended and necessary to prevent unfair competition and to protect the Company's and Affiliates' Confidential Information, goodwill and substantial and legitimate business interests.

6.2 Non-Competition. During the Restricted Period, Executive shall not, in any Capacity, directly or indirectly: (a) be affiliated with or perform services for any Competing Business; (b) own an interest in or control any Competing Business, provided, however, that nothing herein shall prohibit Executive from holding or being beneficially interested in less than 1% of the outstanding equity securities of any publicly reporting company; (c) plan or participate in planning a Competing Business; or (c) interfere with or disrupt, or attempt to interfere with or disrupt, any business relationship, contractual or otherwise, between the Company or any Affiliates, and any other Person, including Customer/Vendors, agents or employees.

6.3 Customer/Vendor Non-Solicitation. During the Restricted Period, Executive will not directly or indirectly, in any Capacity, solicit, encourage, induce, or attempt to induce, any Customer/Vendor (regardless of whether Executive initiates contact for such purposes) to: (a) do business with a Competing Business; or (b) reduce, cease, restrict, terminate, or otherwise adversely alter business or business relationships with the Company or any Affiliate.

6.4 Employee/Contractor Non-Solicitation and No-Hire. During the Restricted Period, Executive will not directly or indirectly, in any Capacity: (a) attempt to or actually solicit any employee or independent contractor of the Company or any Affiliates, to work or provide services to a Person other than the Company or any Affiliates, regardless of whether Executive initiates contact for such purposes; or (b) employ or establish an independent contractor relationship with any Person who is or was an employee or independent contractor of the Company or any Affiliates at any time during the Reference Period; provided, however, such restriction on establishing an independent contractor relationship with a Person who is or was an independent contractor at the Company or its Affiliates shall only apply to the extent Executive's engagement of such independent contractor diminishes that independent contractor's ability to provide services to the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the publication of advertisements in publications and websites of general availability or circulation shall not be a breach of this Section.

6.5 Return of Company Property. As of the Termination Date, Executive shall return all Company Property within Executive's possession, custody, or control, to the Company, at the Company address stated on the signature page below. The Executive shall not directly or indirectly retain or take any Company Property in any form or fashion upon employment termination. In the event that Executive becomes aware that Executive still has possession, custody or control of any Company Property at any time following Executive's return of same as provided in the preceding sentence, Executive will promptly deliver same to the Company.

6.6 Definitions.

(a) "Capacity" means, on Executive's own behalf or on behalf of any other Person, owning, investing or otherwise taking a financial interest in, managing, operating, controlling, being employed by, being associated or affiliated with, providing services as an employee, consultant, or independent contractor to, or participating in the ownership, management, operation or control of; provided, however, that this definition does not preclude ownership of less than 1% of the outstanding equity securities of any publicly reporting company.

(b) "Company Property" means all materials and documents, all documents, files (including electronically stored information) and other materials constituting or reflecting Confidential Information, all badges, computers, credit cards, entry cards, equipment, flash drives, thumb drives, external devices, identification cards, keys, mobile phones, time cards, vehicles, uniforms, or other tangible items or equipment, and all hardcopy or computer-based documents, audio recordings, books, data files, disks, records, videos, software, and all other documents, files, and records, whether originals or copies, belonging or pertaining to the Company or any Affiliates, or containing their information, in whatever format or media, whether obtained directly or indirectly from the Company or any Affiliates, and with or without their knowledge or consent, including Executive's computer device(s), with all Company and Affiliate information on such computer device(s) intact.

(c) "Competing Business" means persons and entities in the Business, including businesses that supply, manufacture, produce, design, sell and/or market, as applicable, products and/or services that are the same or substantially similar to the products and/or services that the Company or any Affiliate supplied, manufactured, produced, designed, sold and/or marketed during the Reference Period, including, but not limited to, "buy here-pay here" automotive dealerships and lenders. Subject to the foregoing definition, the term "Competing Business" includes, but is not limited to, (i) the following entities and their Affiliates: Adir International, LLC dba Curacao; Capital One Holdings; DriveTime Automotive Group, Inc; Oportun (formerly Progreso Financiero); Westlake Financial; Carvana Co.; Carmax Inc., CarGurus, Inc.; Vroom, Inc. and (ii) the Persons (or their subsidiaries or divisions, as applicable), if any, designated in a writing (as may be amended from time to time) by the Board, as Competing Businesses subject to this Agreement, with notice of same provided to Executive at the Company's discretion, including on or after the Termination Date. The term "Competing Business" does not include: (i) wholesale new and/or used car dealers not engaged in retail sales, or (ii) new car dealers. Subject to the foregoing definition, the term Competing Business also includes the Persons (or their subsidiaries or divisions, as applicable), if any, designated in a writing (as may be amended from time to time) by the Board, as Competing Businesses subject to this Agreement, with notice of same provided to Executive on or after the Termination Date.

(d) "Customer/Vendor" means any Person in a business, customer, vendor, licensee, and/or licensor relationship, or proposed (in writing) business, customer, vendor, licensee, and/or licensor relationship, with the Company or its Affiliates: (i) for which Executive, or any employees working under Executive's direct or indirect supervision, had responsibility during the Reference Period; or (ii) about which Executive learned Confidential Information as a result of employment with the Company or its Affiliates. Subject to the foregoing definition, the term Customer/Vendor includes the Persons (or their subsidiaries or divisions, as applicable), if any, designated in a writing (as may be amended from time to time) by the Board, as Customers/Vendors subject to this Agreement, with notice of same provided to Executive at the Company's discretion, including on or after the Termination Date.

(e) "Reference Period" means the lesser of (i) the Employment Period, or (ii) the eighteen (18) months prior to the Termination Date.

(f) "Restricted Period" means the period that Executive is employed or engaged by the Company and any Affiliates and continuing for the period that ends on the date that is twenty-four (24) months after the Termination Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Restricted Period will be extended by one day for each day that Executive is determined to be in violation of any restrictive covenant stated in Section 6, as determined by a court or arbitrator of competent jurisdiction.

6.7 Acknowledgements. The Executive acknowledges and stipulates that (a) Executive's experiences and capabilities are such that Executive can seek gainful employment after the Termination Date without violating this Agreement; (b) that the restrictive covenants set forth in this Agreement will continue in force even in the event of change in Executive's job title, position, duties, compensation, or benefits, unless the Parties sign a new agreement to replace this Agreement; (c) during the Employment Period, Executive shall become familiar with Confidential Information; (d) Confidential Information is of special, unique and extraordinary value to the Company and Affiliates; and (e) the scope of Section 6 (including without limitation, Sections 6.3 and 6.4), is reasonable in all respects and necessary to protect the goodwill and Confidential Information of the Company and its Affiliates, in light of (i) Executive's level of control over and contact with the Business conducted by the Company and Affiliates in all jurisdictions in which it is conducted, and (ii) the good and valuable consideration for this Agreement, including, Executive's access to the Company's business relationships, Confidential Information and good will. It is the desire and intent of the Parties that the provisions of Section 6 herein be enforced to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law, whether now or hereafter in effect. TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, THE PARTIES HEREBY WAIVE ANY PROVISION OF APPLICABLE LAW THAT WOULD RENDER ANY PROVISION OF SECTION 6 HEREIN INVALID OR UNENFORCEABLE.

7. DUTY OF LOYALTY.

Executive acknowledges and agrees that Executive owes a fiduciary duty of loyalty to the Company, including the common law duties of reasonable care, loyalty, and honesty which arise out of the Parties' relationship. In keeping with this duty, Executive shall (a) make full disclosure to the Company of all business opportunities pertaining to the Company's business; and (b) not appropriate for Executive's own benefit, business opportunities pertaining to the Company's business, unless the Parties otherwise agree in advance in writing.

8. EXECUTIVE WARRANTIES. EXECUTIVE HEREBY WARRANTS AND REPRESENTS TO THE COMPANY AS FOLLOWS:

8.1 No Conflict or Breach. Executive expressly represents that Executive's execution and performance of this Agreement does not and will not conflict with, violate, or cause a default under any lawful obligation by which Executive is bound.

8.2 Agreement Disclosure. Executive has provided the Company with a true and correct copy of all currently enforceable employment or contractor agreements to which Executive is a party, and that as of the Effective Date, Executive has not violated any provisions of any such agreements. The Executive further represents that Executive is not the subject of, or a party to, any non-competition covenant, nondisclosure agreement, or any other agreement, obligation, restriction, or understanding that would prohibit Executive from executing this Agreement or fully performing each of Executive's duties and responsibilities hereunder, or would in any manner, directly or indirectly, limit or affect any of the duties and responsibilities that may now or in the future be assigned to Executive by the Company or any Affiliates.

8.3 Prior Employer Information. Executive acknowledges the Company's policy and practice to respect the information and property rights of others. Executive does not have possession, custody, or control of any confidential, proprietary or trade secret information of any former employer or third party. The Executive shall not use or disclose Executive's knowledge of any confidential, proprietary or trade secret information of any former employer, if any, for the benefit of the Company or any Affiliates.

8.4 UNDERSTANDING. EXECUTIVE HAS READ THIS AGREEMENT BEFORE SIGNING IT, HAS CONSULTED AND BEEN ADVISED BY COUNSEL ABOUT IT OR HAS HAD AMPLE OPPORTUNITY TO DO SO; AND FULLY UNDERSTANDS ITS PURPOSES, TERMS, AND PROVISIONS, WHICH THE EXECUTIVE HEREBY EXPRESSLY ACKNOWLEDGES TO BE REASONABLE IN ALL RESPECTS.

9. DISPUTE RESOLUTION.

9.1 Remedies. Executive authorizes the Company to notify Executive's prospective or future employers of the terms of Sections 4 through 7 of this Agreement. The terms of this Agreement are without prejudice to the Company's and any Affiliates' rights, causes of action and remedies at law and equity. The Executive acknowledges that any breach by Executive of any restrictive covenants stated in Sections 4 through 7 will constitute immediate and irreparable harm to the Company for which damages alone are an inadequate remedy, and will entitle the Company to stop all payments under this Agreement, and to seek all appropriate legal and equitable relief, including injunctive relief and specific performance, without the necessity of posting bond or other security. Such remedies shall be in addition to all other remedies available, at law and equity, to the Company and Affiliates.

9.2 Waiver of Jury Trial. THE PARTIES EACH UNCONDITIONALLY AND IRREVOCABLY WAIVE THE RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY WITH REGARD TO ALL DISPUTES. The Parties acknowledge that: (a) they are waiving the right to trial by jury; (b) they have each knowingly entered into this waiver of trial by jury and the agreement to arbitrate below; and (c) this Agreement shall evidence the Parties' waiver of jury trial.

9.3 BINDING ARBITRATION. SUBJECT TO THE TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT, ALL DISPUTES SHALL BE RESOLVED EXCLUSIVELY THROUGH CONFIDENTIAL BINDING ARBITRATION. The Executive's agreement to be bound by the arbitration provisions of this Agreement is a material condition of this Agreement. The consideration for this Agreement includes the Parties' mutual agreement to arbitrate their Disputes. Section 9.3 shall be construed under the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq., as amended.

(a) Arbitration Procedures and Notice. The arbitration shall be administered by JAMS in accordance with its then-current applicable Comprehensive Arbitration Rules & Procedures and adjudicated by a single local arbitrator located in the Agreed Venue. If for any reason JAMS cannot serve as the arbitration administrator in the Agreed Venue, then the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") shall serve as arbitration administrator under all applicable terms of this Agreement. Either Party may initiate arbitration of any Dispute under this Agreement by giving written notice to the other of the commencement of arbitration proceedings, per applicable JAMS rules. Disputes must be asserted in the Parties' individual capacities only, and not as class members, class proceedings or otherwise on a class basis. The Executive may, but is not required to, have the representation of counsel in arbitration. The arbitrator may order the Parties to participate in non-binding, confidential mediation prior to any arbitration hearing.

(b) Discovery and Case Management. The arbitrator shall allow at least eighteen (18) hours of deposition testimony (excluding breaks) and reasonable, limited interrogatories and document requests, per side, in addition to reasonably necessary third-party discovery, well in advance of any dispositive motions or final arbitration hearing. The arbitrator shall provide for the exchange of witness lists and exhibit copies, conduct at least one arbitration management conference, and may consider dispositive motions. Dispositive motions shall be allowed and shall be resolved well in advance of any final arbitration hearing. The arbitrator shall manage all disputes on an individual basis and not on a class basis.

(c) Authority and Decision. The arbitrator shall have the authority to award the same damages and other relief that a court could award. The arbitrator shall issue a written, reasoned award explaining the decision and any damages awarded. The arbitrator's decision will be final and binding. The judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered and enforced in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(d) Injunctive Relief. Either of the Parties may seek injunctive relief in arbitration; provided, however, that as an exception to the arbitration agreement set forth herein, the Company shall have the right to initiate an action in any court of competent jurisdiction in order to request emergency relief for a breach or threatened breach by Executive of Sections 4, 5, 6, or 7. The exclusive venue of any such proceeding shall be the Agreed Venue. Evidence produced in any such proceeding may be used in arbitration as well. The remainder of any such Dispute (beyond the application for emergency relief) shall be subject to arbitration under Section 9.3.

(e) Fees and Costs. The fees charged by the arbitration administrator and the individual arbitrator shall be borne by the Parties according to JAMS Rules. Otherwise, the Parties shall each bear their own costs, expenses, and attorneys' fees incurred in arbitration. Within the arbitrator's discretion, the Party that prevails in arbitration may recover its arbitration expenses, its portion of the fees and costs charged by the arbitration administrator, the fees of the arbitrator, or its reasonable attorney's fees and expenses, as applicable, regardless of which Party made the initial complaint.

(f) Confidentiality. Both during and after the arbitration process provided for herein, all information and discovery disclosed in the arbitration process ("Arbitration Information") shall be maintained in confidence by the Parties and their counsel. Arbitration Information may be used, possessed, and disclosed only for the purposes of arbitration and related proceedings pursuant to this Agreement, and for no other purpose whatsoever. The arbitrator shall, upon request, issue prescriptive orders as may be required to enforce and maintain this covenant of confidentiality during the course of arbitration-related proceedings and after the conclusion of the arbitration.

9.4 Definition. "Disputes" means any controversies or claims (including all claims pursuant to common law, statute, regulation, or ordinance) between Executive on the one hand and the Company or any Affiliates on the other hand, including any controversies or claims arising from or relating to: (a) this Agreement or the subject matter of this Agreement; (b) any other agreement between the Parties, whether now extant or later agreed; (c) Executive's services hereunder, or termination of same by either Party for any reason and by any means; (d) the Parties' relationship; or (e) the scope of this arbitration agreement. The following claims are excluded from binding arbitration under this Agreement: claims for replevin; claims arising under the National Labor Relations Act, 29 U.S.C. §§ 151-169, including but not limited to, 29 U.S.C. § 157; and claims for which a binding arbitration agreement is invalid as a matter of law (including claims of sexual harassment).

9.5 Settlement of Existing Rights. All Confidential Information, Intellectual Property, or good will, known to Executive from any past employment with the Company or its Affiliates is the exclusive property of the Company or its Affiliates and is subject to the applicable provisions of this Agreement. All Company and Affiliate information or tangible property other than Confidential Information shall remain the property of the Company or its Affiliates as applicable.

9.6 Applicable Law; Consent to Venue. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed exclusively in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas without regard to the conflict of laws principles that would result in the application of the laws of another jurisdiction, except where preempted by federal law. THE PARTIES CONSENT, STIPULATE AND AGREE THAT THE EXCLUSIVE VENUE OF ANY DISPUTE SHALL BE DALLAS, TEXAS (the "Agreed Venue").

9.7 Attorneys' Fees and Costs. In the event of a lawsuit for relief relating to any breach of this Agreement, the prevailing Party shall be entitled to recover its reasonable attorneys' fees, costs of court, and other expenses of litigation, in addition to any other remedy.

9.8 Interpretation. Unless the context requires otherwise, all references herein to an agreement, instrument or other document shall be deemed to refer to such agreement, instrument or other document as amended, supplemented, modified and restated from time to time to the extent permitted by the provisions thereof. In the interpretation of this Agreement, except where the context otherwise requires, (a) "including" or "include" does not denote or imply any limitation; (b) "or" has the inclusive meaning "and/or;" (c) "dollars" or "$" refers to United States dollars; (d) the singular includes the plural, and vice versa, and each gender includes the other gender and the neuter, and the neuter includes each gender; (e) captions or headings are only for reference and are not to be considered in interpreting this Agreement; (f) use of "herein," "hereof," "hereby," "hereunder" and similar terms refer to this entire Agreement, including all Exhibits attached hereto, and not to any particular provision hereof, unless otherwise specifically indicated; (g) "indirect," in reference to Executive's actions, includes without limitation, any act by Executive's spouse, ancestor, lineal descendant, lineal descendant's spouse, sibling, or other member of Executive's family; and (h) "Section," in reference to any part of this Agreement, includes the subparts of the referenced Section, unless otherwise specifically indicated. Should a provision of this Agreement require judicial or arbitral interpretation, the judicial or arbitral authority interpreting or construing the Agreement will not apply the assumption that the terms hereof will be more strictly construed against one Party by reason of the rule of construction that an instrument is to be construed more strictly against the Party which itself or through its agents prepared this Agreement, it being agreed that both Parties or their attorneys and other agents have participated in the preparation of this Agreement equally.

9.9 Parties in Interest. This Agreement is made solely for the benefit of Executive and the Company; provided, however, that Affiliates that are not a signatory to this Agreement shall be third-party beneficiaries of the terms of this Agreement as applicable.

10. CODE SECTION 409A.

Although the Company does not guarantee the tax treatment of any payment hereunder, the intent of the Parties is that no payment or benefits provided under this Agreement become subject to (a) the gross income inclusion set forth within Section 409A(a)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") or (b) the interest and additional tax set forth within Section 409A(a)(1)(B) of the Code (collectively, "Section 409A Penalties"), and accordingly, to the maximum extent permitted, this Agreement shall be interpreted and construed in a manner consistent therewith, including, where appropriate, the construction of defined terms to have meanings that would not cause the imposition of Section 409A Penalties. In no event shall the Company be liable for any Section 409A Penalties that may be imposed on Executive under or by reason of Section 409A of the Code. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, the severance payments payable to Executive pursuant to this Agreement shall be made in reliance upon Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-1(b)(9)(iii) (relating to separation pay plans) or Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-1(b)(4) (relating to short-term deferrals). However, with respect to any amounts payable to Executive under this Agreement in connection with a termination of Executive's employment that would be considered "non-qualified deferred compensation" under Section 409A of the Code, in no event shall a termination of employment be considered for purposes of the time of payment of such amounts to have occurred under this Agreement unless such termination constitutes Executive's "Separation from Service" with the Company as such term is defined in Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-1(h), and any successor provision thereto. In addition, if Executive is deemed at the time of Executive's Separation from Service to be a "specified Employee" for purposes of Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code, then to the extent delayed commencement of any portion of the benefits to which Executive is entitled under this Agreement is required in order to avoid a prohibited payment under Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code, such portion of Executive's termination benefits shall not be provided to Executive prior to the earlier of (i) the expiration of the six-month period measured from the date of Executive's Separation from Service or (ii) the date of Executive's death. Upon the earlier of such dates, all payments deferred pursuant to this Section shall be paid in a lump sum to Executive (or Executive's estate). The determination of whether Executive is a "specified employee" for purposes of Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code as of the time of Executive's Separation from Service shall be made by the Company in accordance with the terms of Section 409A of the Code, and applicable guidance thereunder (including without limitation Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-1(i) and any successor provision thereto). For purposes of Section 409A of the Code (including, without limitation, for purposes of Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-2(b)(2)(iii)), each payment that Executive may be eligible to receive under this Agreement shall be treated as a separate and distinct payment and shall not collectively be treated as a single payment. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or in any Company policy with respect to such payments, in-kind benefits and reimbursements provided under this Agreement during any tax year of Executive shall not affect in-kind benefits or reimbursements to be provided in any other tax year of Executive and are not subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, reimbursement requests must be timely submitted by Executive and, if timely submitted, reimbursement payments shall be made to Executive as soon as administratively practicable following such submission in accordance with the Company's policies regarding reimbursements, but in no event later than the last day of Executive's taxable year following the taxable year in which the expense was incurred. The foregoing provisions relating to in-kind benefits and reimbursements shall only apply to in-kind benefits and reimbursements that would result in taxable compensation income to Executive.

11. GENERAL.

11.1 Notices. All notices and other communications under this Agreement must be in writing and may be effected by hand delivery, overnight delivery, mail (registered or certified, postage prepaid with return receipt requested), or by email with electronic request for delivery receipt. Notices delivered by hand and by overnight mail shall be deemed to be received as of actual receipt, per delivery records. Emails shall be deemed delivered upon confirmation by electronic delivery receipt. Mailed notices shall be deemed to be received as of five (5) days after mailing, with proof of mailing. Notices shall be sent to the Parties at their respective addresses on the signature page below (or to such other addresses as a Party may specify by notice to the other Parties per the terms of this Section).

11.2 Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall benefit, bind and be enforceable by the respective heirs, successors (including, without limitation, any successor as a result of a merger or similar reorganization) and assigns of the Parties, except that Executive's rights, benefits, and duties hereunder are personal in nature and shall not be assignable by Executive.

11.3 Amendment and Waiver. No term or condition of this Agreement may be deemed waived other than by a writing signed by the Party against whom the waiver is sought. The failure to assert rights under any provision of this Agreement is not a waiver of such rights. Any written waiver shall operate only as to the specific term or condition waived and only in that instance. No amendment or modification of this Agreement is effective unless stated in a writing signed by the Parties.

11.4 Severability and Reformation. Except as otherwise provided herein, the terms of Agreement are independent of and severable from one another. If any provision of this Agreement (or part thereof) is adjudicated to be invalid or unenforceable, then: (a) the adjudicating authority is hereby requested to modify or interpret such provision (or part thereof) to render it valid and enforceable and as like the original provision as possible; (b) if for any reason such provision (or part thereof) cannot be so modified or interpreted, then this Agreement will be construed and enforced as if such provision (or part thereof) has been severed herefrom; (c) such invalidity or unenforceability will not take effect in any other jurisdiction absent a separate adjudication to that effect; and (d) the remainder of this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect.

11.5 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, including its addenda if any, embodies the complete agreement and understanding between the Parties and as of the Effective Date, supersedes any prior agreements or understandings between the Parties, written or oral, regarding the subject matter herein, all of which are hereby void and otherwise released, except for employee insurance, benefit, and retirement plans, and the Parties' separate Management Incentive Unit Agreement, Note, and Side Letter.

11.6 NO RELIANCE. NO PARTY IS RELYING ON ANY REPRESENTATION OR STATEMENT OF THE OTHER PARTY OUTSIDE OF THE TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT; THE PARTIES HAVE ENTERED INTO THIS AGREEMENT BASED EACH ON THEIR OWN INDEPENDENT JUDGMENT.

11.7 Counterparts; Fax Signatures. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which will be deemed to be an original, but all of which together will constitute the same Agreement. Any signature page of any such counterpart, or any electronic facsimile thereof, may be attached or appended to any other counterpart to complete a fully executed counterpart of this Agreement, and any telecopy or other facsimile transmission of any signature will be deemed an original and will bind such Party.

11.8 Headings. The titles, captions, and headings contained in this Agreement are inserted for convenience of reference only and are not intended to be a part of or to affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

11.9 Survival. The terms of this Agreement, to the extent that they apply post-employment, shall survive the termination of this Agreement (regardless of the basis for termination), and remain in full force and effect based on the terms as stated.

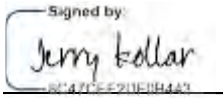
11.10 Definitions. All definitions stated herein are for the purposes of this Agreement, and its addenda and exhibits, if any, and are not limited in purpose to the section or paragraph in which the definition is stated.

NOTICES – PLEASE READ CAREFULLY BEFORE SIGNING BELOW:

CERTAIN TERMS: THIS AGREEMENT INCLUDES RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS, BINDING ARBITRATION, AND A WAIVER OF TRIAL BY JURY.

UNFAIR COMPETITION: APPLICABLE LAW PROHIBITS EMPLOYEE'S POST-EMPLOYMENT COMPETITION BY UNLAWFUL MEANS, SUCH AS MISAPPROPRIATION OF TRADE SECRETS, TORTIOUS INTERFERENCE WITH BUSINESS RELATIONSHIPS, BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY, OR VIOLATION OF APPLICABLE COMPETITION LAW. THIS NOTICE APPLIES TO EMPLOYEE'S PROVIDING SERVICES FOR COMPETING BUSINESSES AS DEFINED HEREIN.

RIGHTS OF TRADE SECRET USE & DISCLOSURE: AN INDIVIDUAL SHALL NOT BE HELD CRIMINALLY OR CIVILLY LIABLE UNDER ANY FEDERAL OR STATE TRADE SECRET LAW FOR THE DISCLOSURE OF A TRADE SECRET THAT — (A) IS MADE (I) IN CONFIDENCE TO A FEDERAL, STATE, OR LOCAL GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL, EITHER DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY, OR TO AN ATTORNEY; AND (II) SOLELY FOR THE PURPOSE OF REPORTING OR INVESTIGATING A SUSPECTED VIOLATION OF LAW; OR (B) IS MADE IN A COMPLAINT OR OTHER DOCUMENT FILED IN A LAWSUIT OR OTHER PROCEEDING, IF SUCH FILING IS MADE UNDER SEAL. AN INDIVIDUAL WHO FILES A LAWSUIT FOR RETALIATION FOR REPORTING A SUSPECTED VIOLATION OF LAW MAY DISCLOSE TRADE SECRET INFORMATION TO THE ATTORNEY OF THE INDIVIDUAL AND USE THE TRADE SECRET INFORMATION IN THE COURT PROCEEDING, IF THE INDIVIDUAL — (X) FILES ANY DOCUMENT CONTAINING THE TRADE SECRET UNDER SEAL; AND (Y) DOES NOT DISCLOSE THE TRADE SECRET INFORMATION, EXCEPT PURSUANT TO COURT ORDER.



REPORTING LEGAL VIOLATIONS: NOTHING IN THIS AGREEMENT PROHIBITS EITHER PARTY FROM REPORTING POSSIBLE VIOLATIONS OF FEDERAL LAW OR REGULATIONS TO ANY GOVERNMENTAL AGENCY OR ENTITY, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, THE SEC, THE CONGRESS, AND ANY AGENCY INSPECTOR GENERAL, OR FROM MAKING OTHER DISCLOSURES THAT ARE PROTECTED UNDER THE WHISTLEBLOWER PROVISIONS OF APPLICABLE LAW.

BY EXECUTION OF THIS AGREEMENT, THE EXECUTIVE ACKNOWLEDGES RECEIPT AND REVIEW OF THE ABOVE-WRITTEN NOTICES.

Schedule 1
Compensation and Benefits Summary

The compensation and benefits to be provided by the Company to Executive pursuant to the foregoing Employment Agreement are as follows:

1. Base Salary. During the Employment Period, the Company will pay Executive a base salary at the annualized rate of $2,000,000.00 (the "Base Salary"), payable in regular installments in accordance with the Company's general payroll practices in effect from time to time, subject to all applicable deductions and withholdings. The Base Salary may be changed from time to time, as the Board deems appropriate in its sole discretion. Executive acknowledges that Executive's hours of work will vary, may be irregular, and will be those hours required to meet the objectives of Executive's employment. Executive agrees that the compensation described herein compensates Executive for all hours worked.

2. Annual Bonus. During the Employment Period, Executive will be eligible for a discretionary annual bonus (the "Annual Bonus") on a calendar year basis of up to 100% of the Base Salary, with discretion as to the specific amount, if any, resting solely with the Board. The target payment date of the Annual Bonus, if any, is no later than March 31st following the year in which such Annual Bonus is earned, if any. Payment of the Annual Bonus is expressly conditioned on Executive being currently employed with the Company on the payment date.

3. Equity. Subject to the terms of this Agreement and the Management Incentive Unit Agreement, the Company is granting to Executive certain Management Incentive Units (as defined in the Management Incentive Unit Agreement).

4. Expense Reimbursement. Executive will be eligible for reimbursement of Executive's reasonable costs and expenses incurred in connection with the performance of Executive's duties under this Agreement, in accordance with Company policies as in effect from time to time and any additional policies and procedures established by the Board. For all the costs and expenses, Executive shall provide to the Company proper receipts validating such costs and expenses, and any other information or materials as the Company or the Board may reasonably require. Executive understands and agrees that the Board's Audit Committee may review Executive's compliance with the Company's policies and request information from Executive to demonstrate such compliance.

5. Tax Withholding; Offsets. All compensation payable to Executive under this Agreement is stated in gross amounts and will be subject to all applicable tax withholding and other payroll deductions as allowed or required by law. Executive shall be liable for any tax liability incurred by Executive in connection with the MIUs and Membership Interest. THE EXECUTIVE AUTHORIZES THE COMPANY TO MAKE DEDUCTIONS FROM THE EXECUTIVE'S COMPENSATION, INCLUDING THE EXECUTIVE'S FINAL PAYCHECK, THAT ARE DEEMED NECESSARY BY THE COMPANY TO RECOVER FOR OVERPAYMENTS, LOANS, ADVANCES, OR IMPROPER EXPENSE PAYMENTS, PAID TO THE EXECUTIVE.

6. Benefit Plans. During the Employment Period, Executive will be eligible to participate in all employee benefit plans and programs and to receive all benefits for which similarly situated employees of the Company are eligible, subject to the terms of such plans and programs. Subject to applicable law, the Company in its sole discretion may change or amend Executive's benefits from time to time, without otherwise affecting this Agreement.

7. PTO. While employed by the Company, Executive will be entitled to paid time off ("PTO") each calendar year, to be accrued and taken in accordance with the Company's PTO policy as in effect from time to time, and as applicable to senior executives. Accumulation and payment of PTO leave benefits, and loss of unused PTO time, if any, shall be determined and governed in accordance with Company policy and procedure. PTO leave is provided in addition to Company holidays, as provided by Company policy.

8. Promissory Note. The Parties agree that the rights and obligations set forth in the Second Amended and Restated Promissory Note, dated April 16, 2025 (the "Note"), by and between Executive and the Company shall be governed by the terms and conditions of the Note. Compensation and benefits contemplated by this Agreement shall be wholly separate from and have no impact upon the amounts payable under the Note. The then-outstanding principal amount of the Note, along with any accrued and unpaid interest, may be forgiven in lieu of the payment described in that certain side letter by and between Daniel Chu and the Company, dated as of April 16, 2025 (the "Side Letter"), upon the occurrence of a Capital Event (as such term is defined in the Side Letter), as more particularly described in the Side Letter.

Reality #2: Our compensation process (or lack of) has been guided by Meridian and their data.

From Meridian:

- FY 2022 is discretionary
- FY 2023 range is ~$3-5M

Reality #3 My performance---effort, commitment, at a cost in terms of significant stress and physical toll---has been inadequately reflected in compensation with no equity grants and no raises for past five years.

Reality #4: The compensation process has been grossly mismanaged, characterized by miscommunication, incongruence, broken promises, and incompetence resulting in frustration, resentment, and disgust.

- Significant, costly distraction
- Wasted weeks/months in "non-profit" paradigm
  Dann: "Should we look at not-for-profit benchmarking for comp benchmarking?"
- Inconsistency with representations re: application of data
  Dann: "The recommendation we are making today is far and above any private and majority of public company benchmarks."
- Incompetence
  Dann: "Your ask is in the 90th quartile."
- End-to-end mismanagement; inability to provide my total compensation weeks past promised date
  Dann: "So please let's respect the process."

Dann Adams: bottom quartile or top imbecile?

My "Asks"

(See "Realities" for Basis/Support)

Realities:

Reality #1: The Company's performance has been superior.

Reality #2: We have engaged Meridian to guide our compensation process.

Reality #3: My compensation has been significantly under-market.

Reality #4: The compensation committee process related to my bonus has been grossly mismanaged.

Exhibit 13 (Pt 1 of 6) Page 301 of 318

Ask #1:

Given equity plan is too complicated, re-allocate equity component to cash comp for FY 2022 and increase bonus by $3M, to reach $5M total for FY 2022 (consistent with Meridian data).

Reality #1: The Company's performance has been superior.
Reality #2: We have engaged Meridian to guide our compensation process.
Reality #3: My compensation has been significantly under-market.
Reality #4: The compensation committee process related to my bonus has been grossly mismanaged.

Ask #2:

Commence new equity plan in FY 2023 with ("tenured" exec team) with structure which doesn't require it to "jump over the moon" to achieve value. (i.e. RSUs vs. MIUs)

Reality #1: The Company's performance has been superior.
Reality #2: We have engaged Meridian to guide our compensation process.
Reality #3: My compensation has been significantly under-market.
Reality #4: The compensation committee process related to my bonus has been grossly mismanaged.

Ask #3:

For cash comp in FY 2023, flip “base” and “bonus”:
Base= $1,500,000
Bonus= $. 750,000

Reality #1: The Company’s performance has been superior.
Reality #2: We have engaged Meridian to guide our compensation process.
Reality #3: My compensation has been significantly under-market.

Ask #4:

Provide a 3-year severance of $1M per year upon departure for any reason.

This is, in part, a “catch-up”.

Reality #1: The Company’s performance has been superior.
Reality #2: We have engaged Meridian to guide our compensation process.
Reality #3: My compensation has been significantly under-market.
Reality #4: The compensation committee process related to my bonus has been grossly mismanaged.

Ask #5:

Remove the BlackRock restriction on my sale of personal equity to permit sale of up to 25% of my ownership stake prior to any public offering.

Reality #1: The Company's performance has been superior.
Reality #2: We have engaged Meridian to guide our compensation process.
Reality #3: My compensation has been significantly under-market.
Reality #4: The compensation committee process related to my bonus has been grossly mismanaged.

Daniel –

On behalf of the Board of Directors, in the attached deck we are responding to the compensation requests that you made to Christian and I last Friday. Apologies for the day delay, as we were trying to align schedules to walk you through it live.

This compensation package was unanimously approved by the Board and has input from all. As we discussed last week, a few of the items will require more time for us to respond to – e.g., severance, ability to sell equity pre-IPO. Please let us know any questions. We are available to speak over the weekend if helpful.

Thanks,
Derrick

Tricolor Board of Directors

Compensation Discussion Materials

Daniel Chu Compensation Ask Responses

- The full Tricolor Board of Directors has reviewed the compensation requests made by Daniel Chu and has provided responses herein
- We think Daniel has done an incredible job leading and growing Tricolor in the backdrop of a difficult economic and industry environment, and believe our compensation offer reflects this outperformance
- Our offer and responses are as follows:

Key Term	Daniel Chu Ask	Board Response	Timing of Board Response
Ask #1: One-Time Cash Bonus for 2022 in Lieu of Equity Incentive Grant	• $3mm one-time cash bonus in lieu of equity for 2022	• Instead of a cash bonus, a one-time Restricted Stock Units (RSUs) grant with a value of $1.5mm • Number of RSUs granted TBD based on the current valuation of the company • RSUs would vest over 3 years	Friday, March 24th
Ask #2: Additional Equity Incentive Grant to Daniel Chu & Select Senior Team Members	• New equity incentive units to Daniel Chu as well as Jerry Kollar, James Li, David Goodgame and Eduardo Perez • Incentive units in the form of RSUs	• Strong support for additional equity incentive for senior management team • Incentive units would be in the form and vesting structure of the existing Management Incentive Units (MIUs) • Implied value of aggregate MIUs issuance, distribution amongst senior team and number of MIUs issued (based on current company valuation) TBD with company • MIUs grant would be a one-time grant to bridge these management team members with incremental incentive equity in advance of an IPO or majority sale, at which time a new plan would be established	People & Form of Grant - Friday, March 24th Total Size & Distribution of Grant Amongst Team – ASAP in conjunction with the company

Case 25-33487-mvl7 Doc 978-13 Filed 03/30/26 Entered 03/30/26 17:03:05 Desc Exhibit 13 (Pt 1 of 6) Page 313 of 318

Daniel Chu Compensation Ask Responses (Cont'd)

Key Term	Daniel Chu Ask	Board Response	Timing of Response
Ask #3: Base Salary & Bonus for 2023 & Beyond	• Flip Base Salary and Bonus that previously was presented by the Board • Flip would imply: - Cash Salary: $1,500k - Target Cash Bonus: $750k - Total Cash Pay: $2,250k	• Keep Base Salary and Bonus as previously presented: - Cash Salary: $750k - Cash Bonus: $750k (Target) – $1,500k (Maximum) - Total Cash Pay: $1,500k–$2,250k • Per Meridian benchmarking, cash compensation at this level would be at the 75%+ percentile payout for CEOs of private companies between $200mm–$1bn in revenue assuming Target bonus, and significantly above assuming Maximum bonus • Board intends to work with Tricolor so the bonus payout structure has much more clarity. Our offer is for the bonus structure to be based on the following: - 40% based on revenue attainment vs Target - 40% based on EBITDA attainment vs Target - 20% discretionary (based on non-financial goals set for year - e.g., hiring goals) • For the financial metrics (i.e., revenue and EBITDA) that would impact bonus, the following would be established: - A "Threshold" $ amount for which if financials are below, there would be no bonus paid - A "Target" $ amount at which 100% of target bonus would be paid - "Maximum" $ amount at which or above 200% of target bonus would be paid - Note: Between Threshold and Maximum Revenue or EBITDA attainment, there would be a ratable scaling of bonus payout related to the metric • For 2023, it is fine if "Target" revenue and EBITDA is below the budget that was provided to the Board	2023 Cash Compensation – Friday, March 24th Bonus Payout Structure – ASAP in conjunction with the company .

Key Term	Daniel Chu Ask	Board Response	Timing of Response
Ask #4: Severance	• 3 years, $1mm per year • Severance paid for any reason Daniel leaves the company	• Severance TBD – Board is actively reviewing, but will need a little more time as previously discussed • Following severance alignment, we will work with Daniel to execute a full employment agreement	Severance – Friday, April 7th Employment Agreement – ASAP thereafter
Ask #5: Ability to Sell Equity	• Ability to sell up to 25% of equity stake pre-IPO or pre-majority sale	• TBD – Board is actively reviewing, but will need a little more time as previously discussed	Friday, April 7th

Subject: Re: Compensation Proposal

For the benefit of an explanation to the broader board on why your current comp proposal is undeniably absurd:

1. I'm relying on 2/3 (bonus component) of my cash comp to be determined by a process which we know to be mismanaged and incompetent. I would be considered an absolute idiot to depend on a process like I've just experienced (deception aside) to control the majority of my comp.
2. You're going to say it's formulaic (even though 20% is discretional), but the formula is based on our initial budget which would be in the top 1% of companies given the macro environment. So while the expectation is that we deliver in the top 1%, you expect to set my current base salary at the 50% level.

Rizzy-

I've scanned over the list you provided.

It will obviously require considerable time to research each line item which is why I explained that I applied a "broad brush" to the first set of reclassed transactions.

I did, nevertheless, want to share some context which may be constructive in terms of understanding how I've thought about these expenses.

1. I wear many hats, not necessarily by my choice. So outside of the normal course of serving as CEO, I do all of the external interaction with our lenders and ABS investors. That includes, for example, attending conferences, rating agency meetings and doing roadshows for our bond issuances. (The vast majority of our peers have a dedicated person to do this). I also do 100% of our site selection and correspondingly, new market strategy. Additionally, I do virtually all of the initial reach out for anything strategic---from lobby efforts to tech to new exec hires. All of this require travel which at my age is candidly, not generally desirable. So when I do travel, I choose to travel with my immediate family (We have a 2 year old) so that we're together. So I consider larger hotel accommodations and multiple airline tickets to be part of that plan.
2. I deal with a wide variety of external constituencies---generally I believe I've been successful achieving alignment with them---and I've incurred various entertainment expenses accordingly. I do feel like I've exercised good judgment on these expenses---our peers host large golf outings for example---as well as other elaborate measures like charters to events, etc. I have hosted individuals in Miami from time to time and paid for their hotel.
3. Going back to 2014, I relocated to Los Angeles (sold my house in Dallas, purchased a house in LA) in order to launch our business there, de novo. Shortly after that, in order to capitalize on an opportunity to merge the TX and CA operations, I moved back to Dallas 15 months later. Unfortunately, I still own that house (I haven't been able to use it since pre-pandemic because of some damage and it's just gone on the market) and incurred an enormous amount of carrying costs (interest and taxes). Because the move back to Dallas was completely business-driven, I've expensed certain costs related to storage, moving, etc. over time between LA and Dallas and LA and Miami. I've felt that I only live in Dallas because I work here…
4. Because I need to be in Dallas, I decided to construct a house here. Due to pandemic-related delays, the completion was continually delayed nearly twelve months late (we had given up our rental thinking completion was more imminent) and so in 2022, there were a large number of hotel stays in Dallas.

That said, when I sort the top dollar items not classified as relocation, it looks like all are business expenses, and the higher cost hotel charges correspond to ABS road shows, bank meetings, etc, which I can corroborate. There is one large item for a company sponsorship to St. Jude's through a Hispanic fundraiser organized by a marketing firm we use.

I looked at transactions > $1,000, which totaled $680K. Of this amount,

- Travel=$422K, or 62%
- Relocation= $148K, or 22%
- Entertainment=$57K, or 8%

I believe the vast majority are generally properly coded based upon the context above (I did identify 8 larger charges which I could reclass as “Personal”)
Please provide me with your expectations; I unfortunately did not keep receipts.
There are over 4,500 transactions on the summary you provided; 4,000 of them, or 88%, are < $500 and would require a lot of research.
I’ll wait to hear back from you.

Daniel,

Thank you again for providing us your spreadsheet related to Amex expenses and the related reclassification of certain expenses included therein. Attached please find a spreadsheet for your review and comment and which we can discuss on a forthcoming call between us.

Based on the credit card data and related email review, we believe the transactions reflected in the attached still appear to be personal in nature and/or require further background from you. In advance of our forthcoming call (which is yet to be scheduled), I would ask that you review the attached list, identify any business-related justification, and produce a receipt (if available) for any of the transactions.

After your review and our discussion, we will discuss next steps with the Audit Committee.

Thanks in advance.

Rizzy-

One of my objectives in our call yesterday and in our overall interaction has been to provide you with some context on my history with Tricolor, not only to illuminate on specific issues such as relocation but all of the issues directly or indirectly related to the Amex charges. I also feel it will help shape how you frame this situation toward resolution with Crowe.

As I briefly explained to you, I moved to LA in 2014 to start up an operation in California as a separate entity from Tricolor. This was about seven years after founding the company, which had been profitable every year since inception. I was in solid financial shape and intended to live there permanently. My strategy to grow our business had diverged with private equity sponsor at the time, who did not like the Hispanic focus. It took less than twelve months for this firm to drive the company into the ground, and I eventually re-acquired the equity with an investor group (which remains in place today). One of my principal motivations, aside from the emotional attachment I felt as the founder, was to prevent the 400+ families who relied on Tricolor for their income from being unemployed. I eventually put practically all of my net worth on the line (I had already invested substantially in the CA startup)

Less than a year after combining the Texas and California operations, Trump was elected and because our business model focused on serving the needs of undocumented immigrants, Tricolor was interpreted as a credit risk. Our capital markets access was interrupted. Our only ABS lender, Wells Fargo, reneged on their commitment and all of our lenders, other than Origin Bank, put the screws to us. I've never shared this with anyone (only Jerry Kollar, our CFO knows) but things became so difficult with our inventory lender at the time, that I pledged the equity in my house in LA, in addition to executing personal guarantees on our $50M facility. (see attached). This was before personally guaranteeing our subsequent $50M facility with Triumph Bank; that guaranty remained in place for 27 months.

When the pandemic hit in 2020, Credit Suisse stopped funding (again, only Origin Bank actually stepped up for us) and we again found our existence threatened.

So today, when an outsider like you (or an audit committee member for that matter) learns that we are financed by JP Morgan and Barclays, two of the three most prominent banks in consumer auto ABS, and that the most prestigious investors in consumer auto ABS--- PIMCO, Wellington, Janus, Nationwide, and the like--- purchase our bonds, it is impossible to realize the blood and sweat that have gone into overhauling our capital structure amidst a great deal of turbulence.

Again, if I did not take full responsibility for our capital structure (in addition to operating the business), I would estimate that:

1. The Company's cost of capital would be 150-200 bps higher. On $1B of debt, that's $15-20M of additional annual expense.

2. Furthermore, I would estimate that we would lose 10% of our leverage, so we would need an additional $100M of equity.
3. We would also need to hire a capital markets person at a cost of ~$1M (including bonus).

I've worked 60-70 hours per week for the past 7-8 years. I've dealt with not only unreasonable demands on my time, but my stress has been over the top. So with respect to expenses for my family to accompany me on travel, household expenses like a nanny, or IV treatments, this is some of my context. I candidly feel like it's been the most practical (and cheapest for the company) way for me to cope, and it also shapes how I drafted my proposed expense policy.
Hope this makes sense.

EXTERNAL E-MAIL - From dchu@tricolor.com

Rizzy-
Quick reactions---we can discuss. I've attached my previous email dated 5/9 for context.

1. The following destinations would be business travel:

   - New York-there should be calendar support
   - LA
   - Vegas-July trip was ABS Vegas; October trip was to accept Excellence in Community Service Award at Auto Finance News Awards (on my calendar)
   - Texas-see #4 on attached, restaurants should be classed as entertainment

2. The following trips could be both business and personal:

   - Indiana- Next Gear Capital, ADESA are also there; one trip was made in combo with Cincinnati (Fifth Third Bank)
   - Tahoe-we can reclassify as personal although I made 3 day trips to Sacramento, NorCal
   - Boston-ABS stuff would cover Four Seasons
   - Chicago-lots of investors there, conferences
   - CA (not LA)-mix of personal and business, entertainment, golf

- Colorado-mixed, Aspen was business purpose; Denver is Janus, other ABS investors, Colorado Springs mixed

3. The following can be reclassed as personal:

- Florida
- Paris
- Brazil must be an error

4. Other

- Professional services look generally correct---we can discuss---the large ones are TIADA (dealer association dues), Xulab (they produced our corporate videos), Earthvision is for site selection demographic data, FedEx would be for printing of presentation decks
- Unknown air, hotel should fall into #4 on attached, I couldn't figure oit some of the hotel because the charge date is not the travel date
- JSX would be DAL-MIA or MIA-DAL
- On relocation-please see #3 on attached
- There are some charges for other Tricolor personnel doing site selection, etc.—Phoenix, all parts of CA

CONFIDENTIAL

Daniel:

Thank you again for taking the time to speak with us later today. Ahead of our call, I wanted to provide you with an overview of Amex charges and invoices that we will be discussing. I am attaching that list here for your review and comment. We will of course discuss these transactions later today, but please feel free to go ahead and begin making notes in column J if you agree that this should be reclassified as personal in nature or in column k to describe the business purpose for the transactions. We also identified several invoices and vendors that we have a few questions about, and those can be found in the second tab.

Please note that I understand you may not be able to get through the list ahead of our meeting and that is fine. However, if you have time, I thought sending along the attached will be helpful so that you may be able to review the general categories we are going to discuss.

Look forward to speaking with you later.

Best
Rizzy

3. Capital Markets Update – ABS & Equity

Mr. Chu and Mr. Kollar provided background on the debt and equity capital markets process and developments.

4. 4th Quarter and Full Year 2024 Financial Results

Mr. Kollar and Mr. Chu presented the 2024 financial results.

5. New Broad Platform Strategy

Mr. Chu presented the New Platform Strategy to the board. The strategy is to expand Tricolor's strategy to the general market customer and focus on certain Sunbelt states. Members of the board asked various questions and discussion ensued on location, store design/size and competition.

6. Executive Session

Mr. Chu left the meeting and the Board excused the invited guests, except for Mr. Varshosaz, and discussed the proposal for Mr. Chu's bonus and compensation. A discussion ensued among the Board, with each member engaging in discussions regarding prior compensation for the CEO, prior compensation committee data and process to obtain such data, structure previously discussed by the Board to provide Mr. Chu a bonus in the event a particular transaction was effected by the Company, and materials presented by Mr. Chu in connection with this meeting and prior interactions with the Board regarding CEO compensation packages.

The Board had a few open items it wanted to better understand related to Mr. Chu's proposed compensation and bonus arrangements and to review additional information from the Company's prior compensation consultant, Meridian, in connection with its market analysis for CEO compensation. Consequently, the board held the meeting in recess while information related to these additional items was further understood.

The Board (other than Mr. Chu) reconvened its discussions on February 19, 2025, at 4:00 pm CT. Present for the discussions were Dick Anderson, Derrick Weatherspoon, Kathryn Petralia, Christian Donohue, Stan Erwin, and Artoush Varshosaz. The Board discussed compensation levels awarded to the CEO in prior years, the Company's access to available cash during those years, information shared by Mr. Chu relating to his historical and proposed compensation, previous analysis from Meridian, and the Company's overall performance on a multi-year basis. The Board also discussed the lack of an equity grant in recent years in favor of the CEO, as well as the potential value of different types of equity grants had they been issued earlier. The Board considered information provided by Mr. Chu and Mr. Kollar regarding the Company's current cash position and potential impact on operations as a result of Mr. Chu's compensation and possible bonus payments.

The Board further considered information from the Company's auditor, Grant Thornton, shared separately with Mr. Chu, Ms. Petralia, and Mr. Varshosaz regarding the auditor's view that a promissory note with Mr. Chu as a mechanism to facilitate a bonus to him would have a neutral impact on the Company's earnings in the year in which the funds are extended. The Board also discussed a prior framework it offered the CEO that would allow for a bonus tethered to the Company experiencing a sale transaction. Although no such transaction has yet taken place, the Board noted that the Company, though other capital transactions, was nevertheless able to obtain non-dilutive cash to support further growth.

After discussion, the Board concluded that the CEO was not appropriately paid in prior years, and it was in the best interest of the Company and its members to help retain and further motivate the CEO by catching up his compensation. The Board also believed that, even though a transaction it previously contemplated had not occurred, the net effect of other transactions provided the necessary capital for the company. For these reasons and others, the Board believes a bonus to the CEO was appropriate and in the best interest of the Company and its members.

A discussion further ensued as to the appropriate amount of the bonus. The Board specifically discussed the original proposal from the CEO that was provided in advance of the Board meeting, as well as subsequent modifications requested by the CEO in the days while the meeting was in recess. Mr. Weatherspoon and Mr. Donahue noted that, while they generally support the notion of a bonus and specifically stated that they would not stand in the way of it, they would abstain from voting on the amount and look to the other Board members to determine the appropriate amount.

Having considered the information and engaged in an informed discussion regarding the issues, the Board moved to approve, voted for, and approved the following actions:

- 2024 Bonus. The Board unanimously approved awarding Mr. Chu $2,000,000 as a bonus related to 2024 performance.
- 2025 Base Salary. The Board unanimously approved awarding Mr. Chu $2,000,000 as his base salary for the year 2025 and going forward.
- 2025 Bonus. The Board unanimously approved awarding Mr. Chu a potential bonus (in addition to his then current base salary) of up to $2,000,000 in 2025 and each year going forward, as determined by and in the discretion of the Board, subject to a mutually agreeable employment agreement with Mr. Chu.
- Long Term Incentive Compensation. The Board unanimously approved awarding Mr. Chu a one-time (i.e., not an annual grant) management incentive "profit interest" grant equal to 200 basis points of the Company outstanding equity shares, calculated on a fully diluted basis, with a hurdle amount to be determined by a current 409A valuation and on terms that are customary and consistent with prior management incentive "profit interest" grants issued by the Company to its senior executives. The Board further decided that such equity grant should vest over a four-year period in the manner set forth in the applicable award agreement.
- Special Bonus. The Board approved awarding Mr. Chu a one-time bonus (i.e., not an annual bonus) in an amount between $13,000,000–$15,000,000, as determined by Mr. Erwin following his upcoming discussions with Mr. Chu, which amount shall be reduced by the aggregate amount of $1,443,057 that Mr. Chu currently owes the Company (as reflected in the amended promissory note previously approved by the Board) (the "Special Bonus"). Voting in favor were Mr. Anderson, Ms. Petralia, and Mr. Erwin. Mr. Weatherspoon and Mr. Donahue abstained from the vote on the amount and deferred to the approval given by Mr. Anderson, Ms. Petralia, and Mr. Erwin. No votes were against.
- Promissory Note. The Board unanimously approved effecting the Special Bonus to Mr. Daniel Chu through a cash distribution of $11,556,943–$13,556,943, as determined by Mr. Erwin following his upcoming discussions with Mr. Chu, which amounts account for Mr. Chu's full repayment and satisfaction of the aggregate amount of $1,443,057 that Mr. Chu currently owes the Company, in exchange for an executed promissory note issued by

Mr. Chu in favor of the Company in the aggregate amount of $13,000,000–$15,000,000, as determined by Mr. Erwin following his upcoming discussions with Mr. Chu ("Note"), subject to the following terms:

- The Note shall be drafted by the Company's counsel and reviewed by the Company's auditors;
- The Note shall be payable prior to or at the time of a change of control or other substantial capital event for the Company (including, for example, from any bonus issued to Mr. Chu at the time of such change of control or substantial capital event which would be netted against the Note), and interest will accrue, if not otherwise paid, to its maturity date which shall not be longer than three years;
- The Note shall be secured by Mr. Chu's equity interests in the Company;
- The Special Bonus should not be paid to Mr. Chu unless and until the execution of both (i) a mutually agreeable employment agreement, and (ii) the Note; and
- The Special Bonus shall supersede and nullify any prior "true up" or "transaction bonus" considered by the Board in favor of Mr. Chu. More specifically, the "transaction bonus" considered by the board in late 2023 and early 2024, and related equity grants if no transaction took effect, have been rescinded and superseded by the Special Bonus.

The Board discussed whether the Note as a vehicle to effect a Special Bonus, and the other related transactions with Mr. Chu, would be considered a "transaction" with a "Related Party" subject to Section 4.14 of the Company's Fifth Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement (the "LLC Agreement"). The Company believes that the Special Bonus and Note are methods of compensation and not subject to any consent rights under the LLC Agreement.

For the avoidance of doubt, however, Mr. Weatherspoon and Mr. Donahue, as Members of the Board and as authorized representatives of the holders of a majority of the Senior Preferred Units, agreed to provide written consent on behalf of the holders of a majority of the Senior Preferred Units to such Special Bonus and Note.

Further, in accordance with Section 4.14(a)(vii) of the LLC Agreement, Mr. Anderson, Ms. Petralia, and Mr. Erwin, who were determined to be disinterested members of the Board, believe the terms of the Special Bonus and Note are fair and reasonable, and no less favorable to the Company than would be obtained in an arm's length transaction with a non-affiliate, particularly given Mr. Chu's track record of success and capabilities to deliver maximum value for the Company and its stakeholders going forward and, as reflected by their respective signatures in the attachment to these minutes, acknowledge the same in writing as contemplated by Section 4.14(a)(vii).

Mr. Varshosaz is instructed to prepare any other documents as may be necessary to facilitate the aforementioned decisions by the Board.

7. Adjournment

The Board adjourned the Meeting.

For the General Meeting:

Jerry Kollar, CFO and Secretary

For the Executive Sessions:

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE ELEVENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
IN AND FOR MIAMI-DADE COUNTY, FLORIDA COUNTY CIVIL DIVISION

ANNE ELIZABETH BURNS, as Chapter 7 Trustee for Tricolor Holdings, LLC, et al.,

Plaintiff,

v.

DANIEL CHU,

Defendant.

Case No.:

Section:

COMPLAINT

Anne Elizabeth Burns, Chapter 7 Trustee for the Debtors[1] in the Chapter 7 bankruptcy case (In re Tricolor Holdings, LLC, Case No. 25-33487 (MVL) (Bankr. N.D. Tex. Sept. 10, 2025) (the "Bankruptcy Case")), and plaintiff herein ("Trustee"), brings this Complaint for avoidance of fraudulent transfer, unjust enrichment, and constructive trust over real property located at The Four Seasons Residences, The Surf Club, 9001 Collins Ave #S-201, Miami Beach, FL 33154, held by Daniel Chu (the "Complaint"), and in support thereof, respectfully submits as follows:

THE REAL PROPERTY

1. The subject of this action is certain real property within Miami-Dade County, State of Florida, commonly known as The Four Seasons Residences, The Surf Club, 9001 Collins Ave #S-201, Miami Beach, FL 33154 (the "Property"). The real property is legally described as follows: Condominium Parcel No. S-201, of SURF CLUB CONDOMINIUM, together with an undivided interest in the common elements appurtenant thereto, according to the Declaration of Condominium thereof as recorded February 21, 2014 in Book 29040, Page 3186, as amended and/or supplemented from time to time, of the Public Records of Miami-Dade County, Florida (APN 14-2235-047-0010).

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff Anne Elizabeth Burns is the duly qualified and acting Chapter 7 trustee for the bankruptcy estate of Debtors, which is being administered under the Bankruptcy Case, and may be served with any further pleadings or documents in this action through the undersigned counsel.

3. Daniel Chu ("Chu" or "Defendant") is a natural person and a resident of Florida. Upon information and belief, Chu resides at The Four Seasons Residences, The Surf Club, 9001 Collins Ave #S-201, Miami Beach, FL 33154. Chu was at all relevant times Chief Executive Officer and President of Tricolor Holdings, as well as a Manager of Tricolor Holdings. Chu also served as the Chief Executive Officer and President—as well as a Manager—of each of the other Debtors.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4. Jurisdiction is proper because the real property that is the subject of this action is located in Miami-Dade County, in the State of Florida, and because upon information and belief, Chu resides in Miami-Dade County, in the State of Florida. The real property at issue is a residential condominium located at The Four Seasons Residences, The Surf Club, 9001 Collins Ave #S-201, Miami Beach, FL 33154.

5. Venue is proper in this Court because the real property that is the subject of this action is located in Miami-Dade County, in the State of Florida, and because, upon information and belief, Chu resides in Miami-Dade County, in the State of Florida.

RELATED ACTION

6. The Trustee brought an adversary proceeding against Chu and other defendants in Burns, as Chapter 7 Trustee for Tricolor Holdings, LLC v. Chu et al., No. 3:25-03126-mvl (Bankr. N.D. Tex. Dec. 19, 2025. The Trustee brings the present action for claims related to Chu's property in Florida, including under this Court's in rem jurisdiction.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

7. The Trustee brings this action against Defendant for avoidance of fraudulent transfer, unjust enrichment, and constructive trust over the Property for the benefit of Debtors' estates and their creditors. The Property constitutes Estate property because Chu purchased it with proceeds he defrauded from Tricolor.

8. On December 16, 2025, the Department of Justice ("DOJ") unsealed a detailed indictment charging Chu and other executives with operating a financial crimes enterprise, conspiring to commit bank fraud and wire fraud affecting a financial institution, committing bank fraud, and committing wire fraud affecting a financial institution. (Ex. 1.)

9. As alleged in the indictment, Chu and other executives at Tricolor defrauded lenders including through the "double-pledging" of collateral, manipulating the descriptions and classification of assets pledged as collateral, and using those misrepresentations to secure hundreds of millions in cash advances—some of which were used to enrich Chu himself—to the detriment of Tricolor's lenders and other creditors who were left with liabilities after Tricolor's bankruptcy. The DOJ's criminal action against Chu is ongoing, but the Trustee, in parallel, initiated an action in the Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas, seeking recovery from Chu under theories of (1) fraud, (2) breach of the fiduciary duty of care, (3) breach of the fiduciary duty of loyalty, (4) breach of the Fifth Amended and Restated Limited Liability Agreement, (5) breach of the implied duty of good faith and fair dealing, (6) turnover of estate property, (7) avoidance of preferential transfers, (8) actual fraudulent transfer, (9) constructive fraudulent transfer, (10) civil conspiracy, (11) unjust enrichment, (12) constructive trust, and (13) an accounting (Burns, as Chapter 7 Trustee for Tricolor Holdings, LLC v. Chu et al., No. 3:25-03126-mvl (Bankr. N.D. Tex. Dec. 19, 2025)).

10. In short, this Complaint arises from a brazen fraud of over $600 million at Tricolor, perpetrated by Daniel Chu, the founder and former Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") and President. Chu misrepresented the amount of finance receivables on Tricolor's books to secure financing from its lending banks and to issue asset-backed securities to investors. This scheme ultimately led to an avalanche of liabilities and an ensuing liquidity crisis, which resulted in a Chapter 7 Bankruptcy proceeding.

11. During Chu's nearly two-decade tenure as the CEO of Tricolor, he further defrauded Tricolor by using corporate funds to pay for lavish personal expenses and by forcing the company into paying him tens of millions of dollars in bonuses (on top of his executive salary), premised on his ability to deliver exceptional financial results—results that were the product of fraud. Chu's quest for multimillion dollar bonuses and regular use of corporate funds for personal expenses, against a backdrop of towering liabilities, allowed him to fund his lavish lifestyle—including opulent homes in Miami, Highland Park and Beverly Hills (collectively worth approximately $38 million), as well as other personal luxuries such as private jet travel, expensive European vacations, cars, and even a personal ski chalet.

12. Chu founded Tricolor in 2007. It was a "buy here, pay here" subprime auto finance company—i.e., it is both an auto dealer and an auto finance company, offering in-house financing directly to its customers. Tricolor Auto Group, LLC operated over sixty dealerships across the United States.

13. Tricolor's business model targeted "underbanked" borrowers, two-thirds of which lacked savings, consistent income, and credit scores. Tricolor was marketed as a community-focused company that gave auto loans to mainly Hispanic immigrants, attempting to cast aside the typical reputation of used car salesmen targeting vulnerable communities with promises of no credit-check loans.

14. Tricolor relied on short-term warehouse lending to originate auto loans for its customers. These loans were then bundled as collateral for asset-backed securities ("ABS"). These proceeds from ABS sales were, in turn, used to pay off the warehouse loans.

15. This economic model appeared to be a winning formula for Tricolor. Tricolor was among the fastest-growing auto lenders in the United States, quadrupling in size from 2018 through 2025. In 2025, it closed two term securitization transactions with notes sold for $328,100,000 and $217,180,000 (Tricolor Auto Receivables Trust 2025-1 and 2025-2, respectively).

16. But on the inside, Tricolor was a fraud, as Chu perpetuated a double-pledging scheme, pursuant to which identical auto loans were pledged as collateral for separate warehouse credit lines with different banks, and Tricolor duplicated vehicle identification numbers ("VINs") to generate multiple fictitious loans per vehicle.

17. To uncover the scope of this blatant fraud, the Trustee has retained consulting firm CRS Capstone Partners LLC ("Capstone"), and Capstone's forensic accounting expert Jim Calandra (the "Forensic Accounting Expert"), to investigate the facts and circumstances that led to Tricolor's bankruptcy. While the investigation is ongoing, to date, the Forensic Accounting Expert has analyzed Tricolor's finance receivables, loan servicer reports, and Tricolor's historical financial statements, and his preliminary analysis reveals cloned or entirely fabricated loans with a receivable value of over $683 million, which allowed Tricolor to receive hundreds of millions of dollars more in credit from its lending banks than it had lent in auto loans to its consumers.

A. Tricolor's Business and Corporate Organization.

18. Tricolor Holdings is a limited liability company founded in 2015 and organized under the laws of the State of Delaware with a principal place of business at 6021 Connection Drive, 4th Floor, Irving, Texas 75039. It is the direct or indirect parent entity of the other Debtors. (See Appendix A.) The majority member of Tricolor Holdings is Ganas Investors, LLC ("Ganas"), and Chu was the sole manager of Ganas.

19. Tricolor was a "buy here, pay here" subprime auto finance company, which meant that it was both an automobile dealer and finance company, offering in-house financing directly to its customers who purchased its used vehicles.

20. Tricolor funded its auto lending operations through warehouse loans. A warehouse loan is a revolving line of credit extended by a financial institution to a lender to fund consumer loans. These lines of credit are seen in a variety of industries but are commonly used in auto lending and mortgage lending.

21. Because Tricolor was a buy-here, pay-here dealer, Tricolor could originate auto loans to the purchasers of the vehicles it sold (represented on Tricolor's books as finance receivables) and then finance those loans through the warehouse line of credit. Tricolor's lending process followed a cyclical pattern in which: (1) Tricolor would take a loan application from a prospective automobile consumer, (2) Tricolor would draw on the warehouse line of credit in order to fund the auto loan, (3) the auto loan would serve as collateral for the warehouse line of credit, (4) the auto loans would be securitized into asset-backed securities to be sold to investors, and (5) the warehouse line of credit would be repaid with funds from selling the asset-backed securities.

22. A credit agreement between one of the Lenders and Tricolor mandated that its investment vehicles not exceed a collateralization rate of 80%—that is, the Lenders agreed to extend a line of credit to Tricolor for amounts less than or equal to 80% of the value of Tricolor's recorded finance receivables (i.e., its auto loans to Tricolor customers).

23. Because the auto loans themselves were the collateral for the Lenders' warehouse line of credit, the collateralization rate of 80% was intended to limit Lenders' exposure in the event of consumer defaults on those auto loans. Putting a cap on the line of credit that could be advanced to Tricolor for a given amount of collateral was vital, as Tricolor's customer base consisted of those with poor (or no) credit history. As a result, defaults on the auto loans which served as the collateral for the warehouse line of credit were a common occurrence.

B. Chu's Hands-On Involvement in and Total Control Over All Aspects of Tricolor's Business.

24. Tricolor Holdings was a "manager-managed" LLC, whereby a Board of Managers was empowered pursuant to the Fifth Amended and Restated Limited Liability Agreement of Tricolor Holdings LLC (the "LLC Agreement") (Ex. 2) to manage the business and affairs of Tricolor Holdings. The Board of Managers, in turn, was empowered by the LLC Agreement to appoint Officers (as defined in the LLC Agreement) to manage the day-to-day affairs of the Company. The other Debtors, too, were manager-managed LLCs.

25. Chu managed the day-to-day operations of Tricolor.

26. Chu was at all relevant times the Chief Executive Officer and President of Tricolor Holdings, as well as a Manager of Tricolor Holdings. Chu also served as the Chief Executive Officer and President—and a Manager—of each of the other Debtors. As CEO and President, Chu oversaw all aspects of Tricolor's business. Chu was also the public face of Tricolor, regularly speaking for the company in a wide variety of publications and podcasts regarding Tricolor's business strategies and other substantive issues facing the company, for example on October 18, 2019, Chu appeared on the Lend Academy Podcast to discuss building a customer base that did not focus on repeat customers.

27. Each year of Chu's employment with Tricolor he received a salary and bonus, which was provided for in Chu's Executive Employment Agreement (the "Employment Agreement") and each amended and restated Employment Agreement thereafter. (Ex. 3.)

28. Chu's Employment Agreement required him, among other things, to "follow all applicable Company policies and codes of conduct, and to comply with all reasonable and lawful instructions and directions of the Board, and adhere to all applicable laws, regulations, bylaws, ordinances and any other applicable legal requirements." (Ex. 3 at 3.)

29. Additionally, as a provision in Chu's employment agreement he agreed that he owed a fiduciary duty of loyalty to the company, "including the common law duties of reasonable care, loyalty, and honesty which arise out of the Parties' relationship." (Ex. 3 at 12; see Ex. 2 (LLC Agreement).)

30. Chu's roles allowed him to lead Board meetings. At virtually every Tricolor Board meeting, Chu presented regarding the financial position of the company, including investments, hiring, and macroeconomic conditions. Chu therefore controlled the financial narrative that was presented to the Board.

31. Chu also led the process for securitizing Tricolor's auto loans, demonstrating his familiarity with Tricolor's financial standing, collateral available for pledging, and collateral already pledged. On at least one occasion, Chu worked with other Officers to develop materials for the Board concerning Tricolor's securitizations to financial institutions.

C. Chu's Wide-Ranging Fraud.

32. As set forth in the DOJ indictment, from 2018 through 2025, Chu perpetuated a brazen double-pledging scheme to defraud Tricolor, its lenders, and other investors.

33. In or about 2018, Chu instructed Jerome Kollar ("Kollar"), the Chief Financial Officer of the Company, to pledge past-due loans that Tricolor had already charged-off as losses. Chu instructed Kollar to create a fictitious portfolio company in Tricolor's dealer management system, transfer the charged-off loans to the new portfolio company, and arrange for other Tricolor employees to manually enter fake payments from customers on those charged-off loans in the dealer management system. In order to pay back the loans it secured from Lenders through the collateralized car loans, Tricolor used funds from one Lender to pay back another Lender to make it appear as though the fake payments were not fabricated by Chu.

34. In or about 2021, Chu manipulated data related to Tricolor's collateral for inventory loans (i.e., the vehicles themselves). Chu retained vehicles on Tricolor's borrowing base for inventory credit lines even after they were sold, allowing for Tricolor to draw on lines of inventory credit for illusory collateral. At the same time, Chu also caused Tricolor to pledge to other lenders the finance receivables for cars that had been sold and financed but were nonetheless pledged to inventory lines of credit.

35. From at least 2022 onwards, Chu further manipulated financial data as to Tricolor's borrowing base, including data on loan performance, and pledged the same collateral across multiple warehouse facilities to draw more from its warehouse credit lines. Chu submitted manipulated borrowing base reports to Lenders which misrepresented the loan receivables that formed Tricolor's borrowing base.

D. The Fraud is Revealed.

36. In August 2025, one of Tricolor's lenders, JPMorgan Chase &Co. ("JPM") began investigating whether Tricolor pledged the same collateral multiple times, thus significantly overrepresenting the amount of collateral pledged in support of the JPM warehouse loans. A banker from JPM called Chu about these problems. Chu, at the time, was on a luxury vacation in Italy, and he denied knowledge of the fraud. JPM retained FTI Consulting to run a forensic analysis of Tricolor and alerted the Department of Justice.

37. Chu, Kollar and other executives spoke over the phone on August 17, 2025, to discuss how to reconcile the irregularities in the records. Per audio recordings reflected in the DOJ's indictment, Chu stated that "rather than scrambling" to figure out, "okay, how are we gonna fabricate these loans? How are we gonna make up these loans? We just basically created around the problem with a structure, or I would say in this case, a policy, which, which made it, made all the math work." Chu then said, "we have a similar math problem today" and discussed with Kollar the buckets of manipulated loans and confirming exactly what fake data had been sent to the lenders. (Ex. 1 at 11.)

38. On another call between Chu and other executives, Chu recounted that he had spoken to one of the Lenders the prior evening and relayed to the Lender's representative. Chu said: "Look, if we were trying to commit fraud, we wouldn't be so stupid as to keep the same balances on there. . . . Nobody would be that stupid. And he [the Lender representative] goes 'you're right.'" The participants on the August 19 call laughed in response. Chu also recounted how he told the representative of the Lender that it must be a "system issue." These were lies. As

Chu was aware, these inconsistencies were due to intentionally manipulated data, not a system issue. (Ex. 1 at 12.)

39. On August 29, JPM's investigation revealed that Tricolor had failed to reconcile its bank statements with the company's internal financial records. This mismatch was an intentional practice for years by Chu in order to prevent the fraud from being uncovered.

E. Capstone's Investigation To Date Confirms the Staggering Scope of Chu's Fraud.

40. Capstone is an industry-leading investment banking and financial advisory firm retained by the Trustee to conduct a forensic accounting and fraud investigation. Capstone's investigation is headed by Mr. Jim Calandra, CPA, CTP, CFF. Mr. Calandra serves as Capstone's Managing Director and Head of Capstone's Financial Advisory Services practice, and he has more than 25 years of experience in turnaround management consulting, interim management, fraud and forensic accounting, mergers and acquisitions, and recapitalizations. Capstone's investigation has begun to reveal the massive scope of the fraud at Tricolor.

41. While Capstone's investigation is not yet complete, it has already revealed the massive scope of Chu's fraud. To date, this investigation has uncovered 38,368 false finance receivable accounts, which represents loans that Capstone has classified as either "clone loans" or otherwise fictitious loans. In total, these loans represented $683 million in reported value on Tricolor's books.

42. The "clone loans" identified by Capstone were loans contained in Tricolor's warehouses and securitizations that had modified account IDs, but which otherwise had all of the other same attributes (e.g., the same vehicle identification numbers, vehicle make, and vehicle number). Capstone identified 31,408 clone loans with a finance receivable value of $547,928,874 and concluded they were the result of intentional misrepresentation of loans in Tricolor's books.

43. The other fictitious loans that Capstone's investigation uncovered took the form of loans with vehicle identification numbers listed in servicer reports that were completely absent from finance receivable records—implying that these loans were fabricated entirely. The internal investigation has revealed that there were at least 6,960 such loans, with a finance receivable value of $135,488,888. Capstone found VINs listed in multiple warehouse facilities, but not listed with the vehicles sold by Tricolor, however they did appear in the finance receivable records.

44. Capstone's investigation further uncovered that in June 2025, when Tricolor had $1.4 billion in finance receivables (which would imply a collateralization base of $1.1 billion with a collateralization rate of 80%), Tricolor falsely reported the finance receivables in its credit facilities to show $1.7 billion total obligations—an upward variance of approximately $600 million.

45. In other words, Tricolor was given advance loans from its warehouse Lenders premised on Tricolor's falsely inflated receivables base.

46. Because the fraud excessively leveraged Tricolor, the company was put into a precarious economic situation where Tricolor could suddenly find itself unable to pay for the loans if a significant number of defaults occurred.

47. Capstone's investigation also revealed the rapid timeline of Tricolor's overleverage.

48. Prior to September 2020, the ratio between the finance receivable balance to the obligations reported to credit facilities (the "collateral coverage ratio") sat at approximately 125%, meaning there were greater auto loan receivables than there were outstanding liabilities under the warehouse loans and the securitization trusts.

49. After September 2020, the collateral coverage ratio rapidly declined, falling below 100% and reaching approximately 87% in March 2023, meaning that Tricolor was receiving more in financing from its warehouse line of credit than it had in finance receivables.

50. In December 2023, Tricolor reported a $196 million increase in finance receivables, which temporarily improved the ratio from approximately 89% to approximately 96%.

51. From there, however, Tricolor's obligations under its credit facilities grew at a breakneck pace, with a rapidly declining collateral coverage ratio. This implies that the creation of fictitious loans increased considerably during this period, and further that Tricolor used funds lent by Lenders to make fictitious loan payments to other Lenders.

F. The Fraud Bankrupts Tricolor.

52. When this fraudulent accounting came to light, Tricolor's Lenders terminated their warehouse lending agreements with Tricolor in August 2025.

53. Tricolor defaulted on its payment obligations to the Lenders. Indeed, JPM and another lender (Fifth Third) each logged nearly $180 million in net charge-offs in their financial reporting in the third quarter of 2025, as a result of Tricolor's defaults on the advance loans issued to Tricolor.

54. On September 7, 2025, just days before Tricolor filed its Chapter 7 petition, Chu resigned from the board of directors of Origin Bank, one of Tricolor's Lenders.

G. Chu Purchases the Property in Miami.

55. On January 21, 2022, Chu signed an "As Is" Residential Contract for Sale and Purchase to purchase the Property at The Four Seasons Residences, The Surf Club, 9001 Collins Ave #S-201, Miami Beach, FL 33154 for $17,500,000. (Ex. 4.)

56. The purchase closed on or around June 1, 2022. (Ex. 5.)

57. Chu paid the $1,750,000 deposit for the Property in or around January 2022 and found himself responsible for paying the remainder of the purchase price.

58. To secure financing for this Property, Chu used his position on Origin Bank's Board of Directors (to which he was appointed to on or around May 2, 2022, as a result of his position at Tricolor) to pressure the Bank into lending him $10,000,000 on short notice to purchase the Property at 9001 Collins Ave. (Ex. 6.) In fact, when purchasing the Property, Chu specifically noted that he "pressed [Origin Bank] to see if they can expedite the financing." (Id.) He informed the seller that he was "on the board of this bank so it should be achievable" to "apply the necessary pressure on [Origin Bank]" to lend him the necessary funds to purchase the Property. (Id.)

59. Upon information and belief, the $10,000,000 loan terms included a 3.75% interest rate and a loan term of thirty years, with periodic rate adjustments.

H. Chu Causes Tricolor to Transfer Over $16 Million Dollars in 2022 to Fund His Purchase of the Property.

60. After the deposit was paid, Chu found himself facing a $15,750,000 price tag for the Property (including the $10,000,000 mortgage liability, before interest). Chu set his sights on paying for this Property with as much money as he could extract from the inwardly crumbling Tricolor.

61. In or around January 2022, just days before signing a contract to pay a $1.75 million deposit for the Property, Chu demanded a $1.5 million bonus from Tricolor's Board of Managers.

62. Realizing that increased compensation would not come soon enough to pay for the Property, Chu also caused Tricolor to make several multi-million dollar transfers to his personal bank account with respect to purported share redemptions.

63. On January 27, 2022, Chu caused Tricolor to transfer $2,000,000 to his account purportedly as an advance on share redemption. (Appendix B.) This was just days before his deposit of $1,750,000 was due for the Property.

64. In March 2022, Chu caused Tricolor to transfer another $1,000,000 to his account at Origin Bank. (Appendix B.)

65. On April 15, 2022, Chu caused Tricolor to transfer $7,000,000 to his Origin Bank account. (Appendix B.)

66. Chu set his closing date as June 1, 2022, to complete his purchase of the Property. Despite causing Tricolor to transfer $10,000,000 in share repurchase payments in just the first four months of 2022, Chu demanded more. (Appendix B.)

67. Because of the fraud Chu secretly orchestrated and perpetuated, the value of Chu's stock was grossly overvalued. In reality, the stock was worthless. Chu's misrepresentation of Tricolor's financial standing was part of Chu's scheme to extract Tricolor's funds to make real estate purchases—by trading in his overvalued stock for millions of dollars in cash to purchase the Property.

68. On May 27, 2022, days before closing on the Property, Chu caused Tricolor to repay a loan he had extended, resulting in a transfer of $3,304,361 deposited in his Origin bank account. (Appendix B.)

69. On May 31, 2022, the day Chu signed the closing documents, Chu caused Tricolor to repay a $1 million loan. This payment was deposited in his Origin bank account. (Appendix B.)

Date	Amount	Description
1/27/2022	2,000,000	Advance on Share Redemption offset to "Purchase of Common Units" GL account 37000
2/1/2022	(650,000)	Noted as "nets to zero" in receivable reconciliation
2/4/2022	650,000	Noted as "nets to zero" in receivable reconciliation
3/8/2022	500,000	Advance on Share Redemption offset to "Purchase of Common Units" GL account 37000
3/25/2022	500,000	Advance on Share Redemption offset to "Purchase of Common Units" GL account 37000
4/1/2022	(128,832)	D Chu payment of EE A/R (March AMEX charges)
4/15/2022	7,000,000	Share Repurchase Payment - offset to "Purchase of Common Units" GL account 37000
5/27/2022	3,304,361	Bridge Loan
5/31/2022	1,000,000	Bridge Loan

70. On May 31, 2022, only days after Chu caused Tricolor to transfer $3,304,361, and the same day he caused Tricolor to transfer $1,000,000, Chu paid $1,048,232.18 to purchase the Property from the very same Origin Bank account. (Ex. 7.)

71. Accordingly, Chu purchased the Property using funds fraudulently transferred from Tricolor to his personal bank account, where the funds remained for a short time before being transferred to the seller of the Property.

I. Chu Leverages the Fraud to Extract Excessive Salary and Bonus Compensation and to Use Corporate Funds for Lavish Personal Expenses.

72. In the years leading up to Tricolor's bankruptcy, as the scope of the above-described fraud became unsustainable and the company was poised for collapse, Chu fixated on his compensation, demanding outsized bonuses, spending company funds on personal expenses, and using his power as Manager of Ganas to unilaterally force out any Board members that voiced opposition to his demands.

73. Starting in January 2022, Chu continued to press the Board of Managers at Tricolor to increase his salary and bonus. In response, the Board retained consulting firm Meridian Compensation Partners ("Meridian") to determine a fair compensation package for Chu. Meridian's analysis, provided to the Board in July 2022, offered ranges of compensation for private and public companies by various revenue sizes, which showed that Chu's compensation was in line with the 50th percentile of private US companies. However, Chu demanded that he receive compensation in at least the top 10th percentile for public companies in the analysis—including a base salary of $1 million, with a bonus of $1.5 to 2 million, and $2.5 million in equity—even though Tricolor was not a public company at that time.

74. Chu's demand for increased compensation was initially considered by the Board's Compensation Committee, which at the time consisted of two now-former Board members: Dann Adams and Antonio Garza.

75. Adams, who was the chair of the Compensation Committee, expressed skepticism about the level of compensation demanded by Chu, worrying about the optics of a company whose brand image has been focused on high social impact paying its CEO a compensation package substantially higher than that of the average private company CEO.

76. In response, Chu prepared a fourteen-slide presentation for the Board meeting on March 17, 2023, taking credit for Tricolor's financial performance, and claiming that the Compensation Committee process related to his bonus has been "grossly mismanaged." In this presentation, he referred to Adams as a "top imbecile" for daring to challenge his proposed compensation.

77. Chu demanded, among other things: (1) a reallocation to cash compensation for 2022 and increase his bonus by $3 million, to reach a total of $5 million in 2022; (2) a new equity plan in 2023 with structure; (3) a base pay of $1.5 million and bonus of $750,000 in 2023; and (4) a three year severance of $1 million per year upon departure for any reason.

78. And, in a further attempt to bully the Board with respect to his compensation, Chu included a final demand in his slide deck that would have required Adams personally to submit a written explanation on the appropriate use of "their, there, and they're," enroll in a local community college, and achieve a 2.5 GPA in a curriculum of English composition and grammar, and statistics.

79. When he received continued pushback on his compensation demands, Chu threatened to leave the company and raised the prospect of forcing the Board to "agree to put the company up for sale immediately."

80. On the morning of March 25, 2023, Board member Derrick Weatherspoon emailed Chu to notify him that a new compensation package was approved by the Board, which included, among other things, (1) a one-time grant of Restricted Stock Units valued at $1.5 million as compensation for 2022 in lieu of a cash bonus, and (2) a base salary of $750,000 and a cash bonus of $750,000 to $1.5 million (maximum) for 2023. Weatherspoon further promised to return a response regarding some of Chu's additional asks. Chu replied late that day attempting to explain why the current compensation proposal was "undeniably absurd."

81. Subsequently, in May 2023, in the course of Tricolor's annual audit, the Board discovered that Chu had made millions of dollars' worth of seemingly personal purchases on his company American Express credit card without reimbursing the company. These expenses, which Chu claimed were "completely business-driven" and necessary business expenses, included over the course of just 2022:

- Hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of private jet and first-class commercial air travel for himself and his family, including over 240 purchases from American Airlines totaling $185,000;
- Hundreds of stays at luxury hotels and resorts costing more than $300,000, including spending more than $20,000 at the Sky Residences at Aspen; more than $65,000 at Four Seasons hotels in Boston, Surfside, Las Vegas, Irving, New York, Chicago, and

Denver; more than $30,000 at the Trump International in New York; and more than $140,000 for 100 charges at Hotels.com; in addition to stays at the Garden of the Gods Resort in Colorado Springs, the Peninsula in New York, the Hall Arts Hotel in Dallas, the L'Auberge in Del Mar, Mandarin Oriental hotels in Boston and Paris, the Cosmopolitan in Las Vegas, Mansion on Turtle Creek in Dallas, the Grand Beach Hotel in Surfside, the Wynn in Las Vegas, the Waldorf Astoria in Las Vegas, and the Beverly Hills Hotel;

- Over 200 meals at high-end restaurants, including extravagant meals costing hundreds or thousands of dollars at Salt Bae's restaurant in Dallas, Nobu in New York, Prime 112 in Miami, Le Bilboquet in New York, Los Fuegos in Miami, Chef Tania private dining in Miami, Hakkasan in Las Vegas, Hutong in Miami, Carbone in Dallas, Novikov in Miami, Pao by Paul Qui in Miami, Mr. Chow's in Miami, Cote in Miami, and Le Coucou in New York;
- Thousands of dollars of alcohol and wine purchases from Silver Oak Cellars in Napa Valley, the Opus One Winery in Oakville, Del Dotto Vineyards in Napa Valley, Big Daddy's Liquor in New York, the Kenzo Estate Winery in Napa Valley, Crown Liquors in New York, and VinPorter in Napa Valley;
- Thousands of dollars of healthcare and beauty expenses, including skin revitalization at Skincare by Amy Peterson, vitamin infusions at Vitality IV Bar, dental work at The Prosthodontic Center of Beverly Hills, biochemical testing at DHA Laboratory, wellness treatments at Tierra Santa Healing House in Miami, multiple visits to the Exhale spa in Bal Harbour, and recurring payments for Nutrafol hair growth products;

- Tens of thousands of dollars of purchases from a woman's clothing store in Bal Harbour (Intermix), a countertop supply store in Phoenix (Lee's Counter Tapps Tops), a general contractor in Miami (Vera Castell Services), an air purifier company (Molekule), an art gallery in Dallas (Artemis Fine Arts), a designer coffee table book store (Assouline), a wool sweater store in Portland (Dehen), a home automation company in Miami (Systems Design & Integration), a luxury home staging company in California (Meredith Baer Home), and a florist in Del Ray Beach (Camden Gardens of Florida);
- Simultaneous monthly subscriptions to television services from YouTube Tv, FuboTv, Hulu Tv, and Spectrum; streaming subscriptions from Netflix, Peacock, Hulu, and Spotify; and dozens of purchases from Prime Video;
- Simultaneous memberships in ClassPass, Peloton, Equinox, SoulCycle, and StretchZone;
- More than $18,000 in purchases from Apple and the Apple Store;
- 874 charges to Uber, 314 charges to Lyft, 231 charges to Doordash, and 205 charges to Uber Eats;
- Regular dry-cleaning at Dryeco dry cleaning in Sunny Island;
- Dog-training services from Elite K9 Service in Florida; and
- Personal storage and moving charges totaling over $140,000.

(Ex. 8; Ex. 9.)

82. On May 9, 2023, Chu emailed Tricolor's counsel at the law firm Reed Smith regarding the ongoing audit, copying Board audit committee member Beth Brooke, attempting to pass off his personal expenses as necessary business expenses. Chu attempted to justify (among other things) over $422,000 in travel expenses by explaining that when he chooses to travel, he travels with his immediate family, and thus multiple airline tickets and larger hotel accommodations for his family should be paid by the company. (Ex. 8.)

83. On May 11, 2023, Brooke emailed Reed Smith and Tricolor Board members expressing concern about Chu's bonuses in 2021 and 2022 as well as the personal American Express expenses. Brooke questioned who would have authorized an advance of $400,000 to Chu, considering the Board had instructed the compensation committee to "hold up on finalizing" his compensation and bonus pending the investigation into his American Express expenses. Brooke closed her email with a sober reflection of Chu's self-interested leadership of Tricolor: "If this is all because what [Chu] says, people do, with or without proper processes and approvals. If that is the case, [the auditor] is going to question everything. Rightfully so."

84. On May 14, 2023, Chu once more attempted to justify his personal spending as business expenses, including saying that household expenses like a nanny and intravenous vitamin treatments were "the most practical" way for him to "cope" with his executive responsibilities.

85. On May 31, 2023, in an effort to coerce the Board into ending its investigation into his improper use of his corporate card and to otherwise strong-arm the Board into complying with his outsized compensation demands, Chu threatened the Board by submitting a purported letter of resignation.

86. The Board ultimately agreed to resolve its investigation into his personal expenses on favorable terms in order to keep Chu at the company, motivated by the veneer of financial success identified by Chu that was actually a result of Chu's fraud. The Board agreed that Chu would only need to repay Tricolor $2,141,556 of the millions of dollars of personal expenses he attempted to pass off as business expenses on his corporate American Express credit card.

87. Chu then utilized his power as the sole manager of Ganas, the majority member of Tricolor, to extract egregiously large bonus compensation from the company just as the fraud was beginning to take the company down.

88. Pursuant to the LLC Agreement, holders of "at least a majority of the total Percentage Interests" in Tricolor Holdings LLC could remove and replace a Manager in the Board, with the restriction that: (1) two Managers who are to be appointed by members holding a majority of "senior preferred" shares of Tricolor Holdings, (2) one Manager is to be appointed by Ganas, and (3) one of the Managers appointed by the majority of the Percentage Interests must be someone who is not employed by or consultants to the Company or Ganas (or any of their affiliates). Thus, with respect to most Members of the Board, Chu had an unfettered ability to shape the Board, as Ganas held 75% of the Percentage Interest in Tricolor Holdings LLC. (Ex. 2, at Schedule A-1.) As Chu, in turn, was the sole Manager of Ganas, and was empowered by Ganas's limited liability agreement to have sole decision-making authority, this meant effectively that Chu had the sole ability to appoint and remove Tricolor Holdings Board members.

89. Exercising this power, in retaliation for Brooke questioning his personal spending of company funds, Chu executed a Consent on behalf of Ganas on September 17, 2023, removing Brooke from the Tricolor Board of Managers. In her place, Chu appointed Andrew DeLuca, Tricolor's General Counsel, to the Board, writing in an email, "Neither the removal [n]or appointment is subject to [B]oard vote."

90. Next, on December 27, 2023, just days before the Board meeting where the Managers would vote on Chu's compensation package, Chu executed two more consents on behalf of Ganas Investors, LLC, removing Antonio Garza and Dann Adams, the only members of the Compensation Committee, from the Board effective immediately.

91. With the Board members who had previously questioned Chu's demands for excessive compensation removed and the remaining members well aware that any opposition to Chu would be met with their removal, Chu took the opportunity to again demand more compensation from the Board.

92. On January 3, 2024, the Board held a special meeting to vote on Chu's 2023 and 2024 compensation. The Board approved his 2023 salary of $1.5 million and a 2023 bonus of $1.5 million. The Board also approved a 2024 salary of $1.5 million. In a further boon to Chu, the Board voted to reduce the balance of Chu's promissory note to repay Tricolor for his personal expenses on his corporate American Express credit card from $2,141,556 to $1,443,057.

93. On January 24, 2025, Chu presented a new proposal that demanded a bonus of at least $13 million—many multiples greater than his prior compensation—purportedly to compensate him for Tricolor's growth between 2018 and 2025. Chu's compensation demands were premised entirely on the fabricated appearance of massive growth that was, in reality, a result of Chu's fraud.

94. On February 12, 2025, the Board held a meeting to discuss Chu's 2025 compensation. The Board did not retain a compensation consultant nor negotiate with Chu, but instead acceded to Chu's demand for a base salary of $2 million and a bonus of $2 million; a one-time grant of profit interest in Tricolor to vest over a four-year period; and a one-time special bonus of $15,000,000, offset by the $1,443,057 owed by Chu via Promissory Note to compensate for some of Chu's personal American Express purchases.

95. While Chu demanded that the Board grant him his windfall compensation, Tricolor's collateralization rate and credit advances from Lenders were increasing at a fever pitch (see Sections A to F, supra).

96. Thus, from 2023 until the time of Tricolor's bankruptcy filing, as the Company was engaging in a rapidly growing and unsustainable fraud under Chu's leadership, Chu squeezed as much money as he could out of Tricolor by misrepresenting Tricolor's financial condition and unilaterally removing Board members that questioned him. In 2025 alone, Chu received over $17,000,000 in compensation, far out of line with both his prior compensation and the compensation of executives at similar private companies, as reflected by the analysis conducted in prior years by Tricolor's consultants. (See Appendix B.)

97. Given the fraud occurring behind the scenes, and Chu's outsized compensation, Tricolor did not receive reasonably equivalent value from Chu's services.

98. In the year leading up to the bankruptcy, Tricolor made payments to Chu in a total amount of $29,605,737. Of that total, $13,464,025 was paid out to Chu just over the ninety days leading up to the bankruptcy. This amount comprised not only his compensation but also a bonus of $2 million paid on February 28, 2025. It also comprised the aforementioned special bonus of $15 million paid to Chu less the $1,443,057 offset, which was paid to him in four installments: $500,000 paid on January 28, 2025; $1,500,000 paid on February 10, 2025; $4,000,000 paid on March 6, 2025; $500,000 paid on May 21, 2025; and $5,556,943 paid on June 11, 2025.

99. On July 1, 2025—just two months before Tricolor finally declared bankruptcy—Chu made a short-term loan to Tricolor in the amount of $6,500,000. Despite Tricolor's mounting liabilities and Chu's knowledge of the poor financial health of Tricolor, Chu directed Kollar to repay this amount in full in installments over the month of August: $250,000 on August 11, 2025; $4,250,000 on August 19, 2025; and $2,000,000 on August 20, 2025. Even as Chu observed in August 2025 that Tricolor was "definitely insolvent," Chu made sure that his short-term loan was repaid before any of Tricolor's other creditors received money from the company.

100. Chu also continued to use corporate funds for personal purchases even after reaching the prior resolution with the company regarding his American Express purchases. Even as late as August 2025, when it was clear to Chu that Tricolor was in financial distress, he continued to make personal purchases on his corporate American Express card, including a $603.92 Oura ring, over $5,000 at Accent Gallery & Framing in Dallas (luxury art framing), over $3,000 in July in storage unit rent, and $18,000 for membership to Core Club in New York (a member's only social club). (Ex. 10.)

101. When Tricolor paid over $29,000,000 to Chu in the one year leading up to the bankruptcy, and especially when it paid over $13,000,000 of that amount in the ninety days leading up to the bankruptcy, these payments substantially diminished the amount of money Tricolor had remaining to pay its creditors. (See Appendix B.)

102. Ultimately, Tricolor's Board requested on September 5, 2025, that Chu return the 2025 special bonus that was paid to him.

103. To date, Chu has not made this repayment, nor has he indicated that he intends to do so.

J. Chu Uses His Fraudulently Obtained Compensation and Tricolor American Express Credit Card to Fund Lavish Personal Expenses, Including Improving the Property.

104. Chu used the compensation he defrauded from Tricolor to fuel his lavish lifestyle, purchasing multiple homes during his tenure as Tricolor's CEO, including the Property at issue in this litigation (see p. 13-14, supra), and maintaining multiple other properties at the same time.

105. Chu completed the purchase of the property at issue in this litigation, The Four Seasons Residences, The Surf Club, 9001 Collins Ave #S-201, Miami Beach, FL 33154, on or before June 1, 2022, using the compensation he fraudulently obtained from Tricolor.

106. Chu likewise improperly used his company American Express credit card to make a number of improvements to the Property over time. For example, on December 2, 2022, Chu purchased light fixtures from Lumens.com on his company American Express credit card, disguised as a PayPal payment and designated as "Office Supplies", for $5,673.10. These light fixtures were purchased to be installed in the property at The Four Seasons Residences, The Surf Club, 9001 Collins Ave #S-201, Miami Beach, FL 33154, and upon information and belief, the fixtures were installed in the Property.

107. This PayPal charge is directly traceable from the American Express credit card Chu used for purchases for the Company. (Ex. 11; Ex. 12.) Chu diverted Tricolor's funds to purchase fixtures for the Property.

108. In March 2023, the same month the Board approved Chu's increased 2023 compensation package, he purchased a property at 4208 Beverly Drive, Highland Park, TX 75205 with a tax assessment of $4,599,440 in 2023.

109. In December 2024, when Chu was lobbying for his massive 2025 compensation package that was approved in January 2025, he purchased property at 4544 Westway Ave, Highland Park, TX 75205, with a tax assessment of $2,063,260 in 2024. A background check obtained by the Trustee shows the owner as Daniel Chu and his wife Constance Chu, and the owner's address is 6021 Connection Dr., Irving, TX 75039. 6021 Connection Dr. is the address of Tricolor's headquarters.

110. On February 18, 2025—just days after his $15,000,000 special bonus was approved—on information and belief, Chu executed a purchase agreement for a ski chalet at 115 W. Bleeker Street, Aspen, CO 81611, for approximately $25,000,000.

111. On June 12, 2025, Chu purchased via a holding entity 1431 Cobb Parkway South, Marietta, Georgia 30067, and shortly thereafter on June 26, 2025, sold the property for more than $7,000,000.

K. Chu's Alienation of Assets from Potential Judgment Creditors.

112. Beginning in July 2025, as it became clear that the fraud at Tricolor was unsustainable and about to be revealed, Chu began alienating his assets in an effort to protect them from Tricolor's creditors.

113. On July 10, 2025, Chu listed for sale his property located at 4544 Westway Ave., Highland Park, TX 75205, for $2,099,999. The property remains listed for sale as of this filing, and his daughter Katie Chu is the real estate agent for this property.

114. On August 29, 2025—just days before Tricolor's bankruptcy—a limited liability company operated by Chu called Chu Family Investments LLC purchased 1612 Gilcrest Drive, Beverly Hills, CA 90210, for $2,650,000, with Origin Bank financing $2.12 million of the purchase. Upon information and belief, the remaining $530,000 came from Chu's own funds, and this property was purchased through an LLC in an attempt to shield it from any personal liability of Chu.

115. On September 9, 2025, Chu listed for sale his property located at 4208 Beverly Drive, Highland Park, TX 75205, for $10,990,000. The property remains listed for sale as of this filing, and Chu has agreed to drop the price by $2,000,000 in a desperate attempt to sell this asset.

116. On September 15, 2025, Chu received an email from a law firm specializing in asset protection at his Tricolor email address sending a flow chart for a Family Limited Partnership to own investment assets. On September 16, 2025, Chu instructed the law firm to communicate through his Gmail email address (tricolorchu@gmail.com).

117. On September 17, 2025, Chu sent an email to himself at tricolorchu@gmail.com, including a link to an article from law firm Adler Law titled "Florida Homestead Law Guide," which "protects a Florida resident's primary home from judgment creditors."

118. On September 18, 2025, Chu listed for sale the Property at issue in this litigation for $24,900,000. As of the date of this filing, the Property is still listed for sale. (Ex. 13.)

119. A few days later, on September 24, 2025, Chu discussed a Termination and Release Agreement with Elephant Aspen Residences Inc., terminating the purchase of White Elephant Aspen Chalets Unit No. 3, located at 115 W. Bleeker Street, Aspen, CO 81611. Upon information and belief, the seller retained Chu's earnest money deposit of $1,750,000 and returned to Chu the remainder of the $25,000,000 purchase price.

120. Upon information and belief, after Chapter 7 Bankruptcy was declared, Chu sent a former employee of Tricolor to the headquarters to collect the titles to vehicles in Chu's name. The former employee stated that Chu asked him to retrieve the titles to his vehicles that Chu left in his office at Tricolor. Tricolor is currently in possession of those titles.

121. Most recently, in December 2025, Chu called former Board member Richard Anderson requesting to sell his custom Land Rover Defender. Despite Mr. Anderson expressly disclaiming any desire to purchase the vehicle, Chu shipped the vehicle to Anderson's home.

L. Chu Is Indicted.

122. On December 16, 2025, the DOJ unsealed its indictment charging Chu with charges including wire fraud, bank fraud, and conspiracy.

123. Chu was arrested on December 17, 2025, and faces a maximum potential sentence of life in prison.

124. Following the indictment and arrest, U.S. Attorney Jay Clayton said in a statement: "Fraud became an integral component of Tricolor's business strategy. The resulting billion-dollar collapse harmed banks, investors, employees, and customers."

M. The Trustee's Adversary Complaint.

125. On December 19, 2025, the Trustee filed an Adversary Complaint in the Bankruptcy Case against Chu and co-Defendants Jerome Kollar, David Goodgame, and Ameryn Siebold, bringing claims for (1) fraud, (2) breach of the fiduciary duty of care, (3) breach of the fiduciary duty of loyalty, (4) breach of the Fifth Amended and Restated Limited Liability Agreement, (5) breach of the implied duty of good faith and fair dealing, (6) turnover of estate property, (7) avoidance of preferential transfers, (8) actual fraudulent transfer, (9) constructive fraudulent transfer, (10) civil conspiracy, (11) unjust enrichment, (12) constructive trust, and (13) an accounting.

COUNT I
AVOIDANCE OF FRAUDULENT TRANSFER

126. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference each and every allegation contained in paragraphs 1 to 125 as if set forth herein.

127. As part of his employment with Tricolor, Chu was paid a salary each and every year of his employment in addition to a bonus, including a special bonus of $15,000,000 mere months before Tricolor was forced to declare bankruptcy.

128. Chu further used his role as Board member of Origin Bank (a position he obtained due to his work at Tricolor) to put pressure on Origin in order to obtain loans to cover the cost of the property at The Four Seasons Residences, The Surf Club, 9001 Collins Ave #S-201, Miami Beach, FL 33154.

129. Because Chu orchestrated and perpetuated widespread and persistent fraud from at least 2018 through Tricolor's bankruptcy in September 2025, Tricolor did not receive fair consideration.

130. Furthermore, because of the fraud perpetuated by Chu, the value of Chu's shares was significantly inflated, and therefore Tricolor did not receive fair consideration for any of the fraudulent transfers, including the share repurchase payments alleged herein.

131. Chu caused Tricolor to fraudulently transfer to him over $14,000,000 from January through May 2022, and used these funds to purchase the Property.

132. These funds were deposited in Chu's Origin bank account ending in 3477, and at least one payment for the Property was paid out of that very same account on the same day Chu caused Tricolor to transfer the funds.

133. These funds that were fraudulently transferred from Tricolor to Chu were used by Chu to purchase and upgrade the property at The Four Seasons Residences, The Surf Club, 9001 Collins Ave #S-201, Miami Beach, FL 33154, including the deposit, initial payment, and subsequent mortgage payments.

134. The payments to Chu are voidable pursuant to Section 726.106, Florida Statutes.

135. Accordingly, Tricolor is entitled to a judgment (1) avoiding the fraudulent transfers that were used to purchase the property at The Four Seasons Residences, The Surf Club, 9001 Collins Ave #S-201, Miami Beach, FL 33154, and (2) recovering and preserving all such avoided transfers under Sections 726.106 and 726.108, Florida Statutes, including by imposing a constructive trust and/or equitable lien over the property at The Four Seasons Residences, The Surf Club, 9001 Collins Ave #S-201, Miami Beach, FL 33154.

COUNT II
UNJUST ENRICHMENT

136. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference each and every allegation contained in paragraphs 1 to 125 as if set forth herein.

137. Chu was enriched and received direct, concrete economic benefits without legal or equitable justification, including, but not limited to, through receipt of funds from Tricolor.

138. Chu has unjustly retained the sums procured through, funded by, or serviced with Tricolor's assets—sums to which Chu had no lawful claim and for which Tricolor received no reciprocal benefit—to the detriment of Tricolor and its creditors, thereby shifting value from the company to Chu.

139. Tricolor suffered financial losses as a result of these transactions. Tricolor did not receive reasonably equivalent value for any of the transfers, the conduct at issue siphoned substantially all of Tricolor's assets, and the bankruptcy estate was left burdened with liabilities without corresponding assets or value.

140. There is a direct, proximate, and traceable relationship between Chu's enrichment and the losses accrued by Tricolor: the transfers emanated from Tricolor's accounts and were made directly to Chu.

141. No legitimate corporate purpose, consideration, or fair value supports these transfers. They were the product of self-dealing and other misconduct, conferred unique personal benefits upon Chu that were not shared by Tricolor, and were not supported by reasonably equivalent value or fair consideration.

142. Tricolor conferred a benefit in the form of corporate funds and value, Chu appreciated and accepted that benefit, and Chu's continued retention of that benefit in the form of real property, funds, and other property would be inequitable under the circumstances.

143. Equity and good conscience do not permit Chu to retain the benefits he wrongfully obtained at Tricolor's expense. Legal remedies are inadequate to the extent the relief required is restitutionary and equitable in nature, including the recovery of specific, identifiable funds or assets traceable to Chu's unjust enrichment.

144. Accordingly, Tricolor is entitled to judgment for the imposition of a constructive trust and/or equitable lien over the property at The Four Seasons Residences, The Surf Club, 9001 Collins Ave #S-201, Miami Beach, FL 33154 under Chu's control, as well as such other and further equitable relief as the Court deems just and proper.

COUNT III
CONSTRUCTIVE TRUST

145. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference each and every allegation contained in paragraphs 1 to 125 as if set forth herein.

146. A constructive trust is an equitable remedy imposed to prevent unjust enrichment where a defendant, through fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, unfair or unconscionable conduct, or abuse of confidence, acquires or retains property that which in equity and good conscience belongs to another.

147. As President and CEO of Tricolor, Chu maintained a confidential relationship with the Company as a fiduciary.

148. As an officer of the Company, Chu made an implied promise to the Company that he would operate in compliance with his fiduciary duties.

149. Further, in his Employment Agreement, Chu made an express promise to follow "all applicable Company policies and codes of conduct, and to comply with all reasonable and lawful instructions and directions of the Board, and adhere to all applicable laws, regulations, bylaws, ordinances and any other applicable legal requirements." (Ex. 3 at 3.)

150. As the CEO, President, and Manager of Tricolor, Chu was given the confidence of Tricolor to manage Tricolor's funds in a disinterested and independent basis, in good faith, and with an honest belief that actions taken by Chu would be in the best interest of Tricolor.

151. Instead, Chu abused his confidential relationship by engaging in fraudulent, unfair, and unconscionable conduct. These acts included diverting Tricolor funds to his own accounts for personal use. By abusing the confidence placed in him to cause transfers of Tricolor's funds to Chu as "bonus" and "compensation" payments, Chu was able to use this money—paid to his personal accounts—to make purchases, including the Property at The Four Seasons Residences, The Surf Club, 9001 Collins Ave #S-201, Miami Beach, FL 33154.

152. Chu was able to transfer Tricolor's property to himself, with Tricolor relying on his promise to follow company policies, codes of conduct, and comply with federal and state laws. Tricolor also relied on Chu to oversee Tricolor's funds with the duties of care and loyalty commensurate with a fiduciary relationship.

153. As a result of this misconduct, Chu was directly and materially enriched. Chu obtained and continues to retain specific, identifiable property traceable to Tricolor.

154. Chu received and retains the fraudulent transfers by fraud, self-dealing, and wrongful diversion. Continued possession of such property is inequitable and would unjustly enrich Chu at the expense of Tricolor and its creditors.

155. Therefore, equity deems Chu a constructive trustee of the fraudulent transfers and all traceable proceeds, substitutions, products, and property.

156. The transfers are sufficiently specific and traceable: the transfers originated from identified Tricolor accounts and were directed to Chu, and can be followed into property acquired therewith.

157. The real property held by Chu at The Four Seasons Residences, The Surf Club, 9001 Collins Ave #S-201, Miami Beach, FL 33154, as well as all fixtures therein, is part of the constructive trust.

158. In particular, this real property was purchased with Tricolor funds which were fraudulently transferred from Tricolor to Chu for Chu's personal benefit. This real property was purchased by Chu on or around May 31, 2022. Chu was able to fund his purchase of this real property using funds that he siphoned from Tricolor during his tenure as CEO. At the time that this property was purchased, Chu's fraud was already well-underway. Years earlier, Chu and other executives had already created a portfolio company to allow him, his CFO, and other Tricolor employees to enter fake payments on loans that were already "charged-off." Over a year earlier in January 2021, Chu had already understood that Tricolor was in a liquidity crisis, and he had already directed executives to pledge collateral across multiple lenders to "get some liquidity." And from at least 2022 onwards, Chu manipulated financial data across Tricolor's borrowing base, including data on loan performance, and pledged the same collateral across multiple warehouse facilities to draw more from its warehouse credit lines—submitting manipulated borrowing base reports to Tricolor's Lenders to do so. Despite the fraudulent accounting and liquidity crisis occurring behind the scenes, Chu received millions through his executive salary and bonuses—to reward him for what (on paper) appeared to be Tricolor's burgeoning growth. Using these fraudulent transfers from Tricolor, Chu was able to purchase and pay for real property, including the Property at The Four Seasons Residences, The Surf Club, 9001 Collins Ave #S-201, Miami Beach, FL 33154.

159. Legal remedies are inadequate because Tricolor seeks restitutionary, in-kind relief as to a specific real asset; equitable relief is necessary to preserve the property and avoid dissipation.

160. Accordingly, Tricolor seeks entry of judgment: (a) declaring and imposing a constructive trust over The Four Seasons Residences, The Surf Club, 9001 Collins Ave #S-201, Miami Beach, FL 33154; (b) directing Chu, as constructive trustee, to convey, transfer, and turn over—or grant an interest in—The Four Seasons Residences, The Surf Club, 9001 Collins Ave #S-201, Miami Beach, FL 33154; and (c) awarding such other equitable relief as the Court deems just and proper.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, for the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court enter judgment against Defendant:

a) Imposing a constructive trust and/or equitable lien upon The Four Seasons Residences, The Surf Club, 9001 Collins Ave #S-201, Miami Beach, FL 33154 and all proceeds transferred from Tricolor funds to Defendant's accounts;

b) Attorneys' costs and fees; and

c) Such other and further relief as this Court deems just and equitable.

v.

DANIEL CHU and
DAVID GOODGAME,

Defendants.

[redacted] INDICTMENT

25 Cr.

COUNT ONE
(Continuing Financial Crimes Enterprise)

The Grand Jury charges:

1. From at least in or about 2018 through in or about September 2025, DANIEL CHU and DAVID GOODGAME, the defendants, conspired to and did defraud the lenders and asset-backed securities investors of Tricolor Holdings, LLC and its affiliates ("Tricolor"), a subprime auto retailer and financing company. CHU, Tricolor's founder and chief executive officer ("CEO"), GOODGAME, Tricolor's chief operating officer, and others, operated Tricolor through systematic fraud. At CHU's direction, multiple Tricolor executives repeatedly defrauded lenders using various fraudulent schemes, including "double-pledging" collateral—pledging assets to support one loan and then pledging the same assets to another lender to support another loan. Other fraudulent schemes directed by CHU involved manipulating the descriptions and classification of assets pledged as collateral for loans to make ineligible, near-worthless assets appear to meet lender requirements. Over time, this series of fraudulent schemes had a profound effect on Tricolor, which obtained hundreds of millions of dollars in cash advances; on CHU, who used a portion of the funds to enrich himself; and on Tricolor's lenders, who provided over a billion dollars in funding based on Tricolor's fabricated data and false statements.

2. In the summer of 2025, lenders confronted DANIEL CHU, the defendant, and others at Tricolor with concerns about Tricolor's collateral. CHU and his conspirators initially tried to conceal the fraud and to falsely claim that the collateral issues were due to an administrative error. Those efforts failed. CHU, recognizing that Tricolor was, in his words, "basically history," turned his attention to extracting millions of dollars from the company. At CHU's direction, Tricolor transferred over $6 million to CHU after lenders voiced concerns in or about late August 2025.

3. After the fraudulent double-pledging and collateral manipulation schemes orchestrated by DANIEL CHU and DAVID GOODGAME, the defendants, unraveled, Tricolor was unable to maintain its access to loans and unable to sustain its business without substantial cash. On or about September 10, 2025, Tricolor filed for Chapter 7 bankruptcy. By that time, the company's largest lenders had advanced and were owed more than $900 million as a result of the defendants' schemes.

Background: Tricolor and its Lending Facilities

4. Founded in or about 2007, Tricolor sold and provided subprime financing for used cars, focusing specifically on Hispanic customers with limited or no credit history. By in or about 2025, Tricolor had grown to become the third-largest used auto retailer in Texas and California, operating approximately 65 retail centers in Texas, California, Nevada, Arizona, New Mexico, and Illinois, as well as a shared services center in Guadalajara, Mexico. At its peak, Tricolor employed over 1,500 people and generated approximately $1 billion in annual revenue in both 2023 and 2024. When the company filed for Chapter 7 bankruptcy on or about September 10, 2025, it had over 60,000 outstanding car loans.

5. Tricolor funded its operations substantially through cash advances from several lenders with which Tricolor had entered credit agreements. Under these agreements, Tricolor pledged certain assets to the lenders as collateral and received cash advances secured by that pledged collateral. Tricolor maintained inventory lines of credit collateralized by used cars in Tricolor's possession. The company also maintained multiple lines of credit collateralized by the car loans that Tricolor had issued to its customers—specifically, by the car loan receivables, meaning the forthcoming payments that would be received from borrowers until their loans were repaid. Each credit agreement specified eligibility requirements for collateral, and Tricolor generally did not receive a 100% advance rate on such eligible loans. Instead, Tricolor received advance rates at a lower amount, such as 60% to 80% of an eligible car loan's outstanding balance. In addition to these receivables-backed lines of credit, Tricolor also raised capital by securitizing car loan receivables—that is, organizing groups, or tranches, of the receivables into classes of bonds that were then sold to investors.

6. Tricolor maintained lines of credit with several financial institutions and investment management firms. In or about February 2018, Tricolor entered into a revolving line of credit agreement with a U.S. bank ("Lender-1") that reached approximately $25 million in commitments, collateralized by car loan receivables (the "Lender-1 Credit Line"). In or about January 2020, Tricolor entered into credit agreement with another U.S. bank ("Lender-2") for an inventory line that reached $87 million in commitment, supposedly secured by Tricolor's used vehicle inventory (the "Lender-2 Inventory Credit Line"). Beginning in or about August 2020, Tricolor established a series of warehouse lending facilities—short-term revolving credit facilities extended to loan originators to temporarily fund loans before sale to permanent investors. These warehouse facilities, associated with special purpose vehicles and referred to as "SPV3," "SPV4," "SPV5," and "SPV6," were collateralized by car loan receivables and involved various lenders including a California-based investment manager ("Lender-3") and U.S. banks. The SPV3 warehouse reached approximately $100 million in total commitment. The SPV4 warehouse ultimately reached approximately $770 million in total commitment, shared among multiple lenders including a U.S. bank ("Lender-4"), another bank ("Lender-5"), and junior mezzanine lenders based in New York, New York ("Lender-6" and "Lender-7"). In August 2022, Tricolor entered into the SPV6 warehouse with a U.S. bank ("Lender-8"), which reached $250 million in commitment. In March 2025, Tricolor entered into a mezzanine loan agreement with a New York, New York-based asset management firm ("Lender-9") for $35 million. By the time of bankruptcy, Tricolor owed approximately $923 million to lenders through these facilities.

7. Tricolor's lenders generally set eligibility criteria for the types of collateral that could be pledged in exchange for cash advances. These eligibility requirements for collateral were typically set out in credit agreements between the lender and Tricolor. For receivables-backed lines of credit, eligibility turned on, among other things, whether the car loan was current—meaning the customer was making timely payments—or past due, meaning the customer had missed a scheduled payment and the loan was delinquent. Loans that were more than 60 days past due were generally ineligible to serve as collateral under the terms of the credit agreements and could not be pledged in exchange for cash, and some lines of credit excluded loans more than 30 days past due.

8. As generally required under the loan agreements, Tricolor pledged cars and loans and requested advances by sending lenders borrowing base reports. These reports typically took the form of large Excel files with thousands of rows, one for each loan pledged to the facility. These borrowing base reports provided dozens of data points for each loan, including the outstanding principal balance, the vehicle identification number ("VIN") of the financed car, and data related to whether the loan was current or past due. These reports generally identified loans as being current, 0-15 days past due, 15-30 days past due, 30-60 days past due, and 61+ days past due, and included a column for the last payment date. Tricolor typically sent borrowing base reports and funding requests to lenders multiple times a week. At the conclusion of each month, Tricolor would generally send each lender a monthly servicer report ("MSR") that summarized the pledged collateral for the past month.

Tricolor's Fraud on its Lenders

9. For years, DANIEL CHU and DAVID GOODGAME, the defendants, Jerome Kollar, Tricolor's chief financial officer, and Ameryn Seibold, Tricolor's senior director of finance, and others, engaged in a series of frauds directed at each of Tricolor's lenders. These schemes operated through two primary mechanisms: first, CHU, GOODGAME, and their conspirators double-pledged the same collateral to multiple lenders, allowing Tricolor to borrow against the same assets, at the same time, repeatedly; second, they manipulated loan data to make ineligible, delinquent loans appear current and compliant with lender requirements. Additionally, to conceal their deceptions from lenders, auditors, and collateral managers, the conspirators fabricated and disseminated fictious backup records, such as records of fake customer payments. Under CHU's leadership, this activity became Tricolor's routine manner of business and eventually Tricolor's means of financial survival.

10. In or about 2018, Tricolor faced liquidity pressure. To address that problem, DANIEL CHU, the defendant, instructed Kollar to pledge delinquent loans to the Lender-1 Credit Line. These delinquent loans were typically so past due that Tricolor itself had charged them off as losses. To make these charged-off loans falsely appear to be performing loans that could serve as collateral (which they were not), CHU directed Kollar to create a fictitious portfolio company in Tricolor's dealer management system (which was used to track Tricolor's loans and their associated data), transfer the charged-off loans to that new portfolio company in the dealer management system, and arrange for other Tricolor employees to manually enter fake payments on those charged-off loans in the dealer management system.

11. Over time, DANIEL CHU, the defendant, addressed liquidity constraints by repeatedly falsifying information regarding ineligible collateral to make it appear eligible to use as collateral. In January 2021, for example, CHU asked Kollar whether Tricolor had "anything we can pledge from [Lender-1] to [Lender-4] or [Lender-3] to get some liquidity," and Kollar responded, "I will look. What is 'there' typically is [ineligible] for those"—referring to the charged-off loans manipulated to look like they were performing loans. CHU and his co-conspirators fraudulently pledged charged-off loans to Lender-1 for years until Tricolor's collapse. In addition to orchestrating this fraud within Tricolor, CHU simultaneously served on the board of directors of Lender-1, a financial institution he defrauded for nearly a decade.

12. By at least in or about 2021, Tricolor's collateral manipulation also expanded beyond the Lender-1 Credit Line. To increase the amount of cash received from Lender-2, DANIEL CHU, the defendant, directed Kollar to keep sold vehicles on the borrowing base for the Lender-2 Inventory Credit Line, even though they were supposed to be removed once sold, a practice that continued through Tricolor's bankruptcy. For instance, on or about April 20, 2021, CHU texted Kollar and others that, "[i]n an ideal scenario, we buy and increase inventory by $10mm and then we can move the sold units off the borrowing base"—meaning Tricolor would increase its inventory by $10 million to give it enough cushion to remove the sold units that were fraudulently included on the Lender-2 Inventory Credit Line borrowing base. To further increase the amount of cash received from lenders, Tricolor also pledged to other lenders the loan receivables for cars that had been sold and financed, but that were still nonetheless pledged to the Lender-2 Inventory Credit Line.

13. As Tricolor's financing arrangements with lenders expanded, so did its use of fraud. From at least in or about 2022, DANIEL CHU and DAVID GOODGAME, the defendants, Kollar, Seibold, and others repeatedly manipulated borrowing base data (including loan performance data) for, and double-pledged collateral across, the SPV3, SPV4, SPV5 and SPV6 warehouses and the Lender-9 Credit Line. At CHU's direction and with GOODGAME's knowledge and approval, Kollar and Seibold, sometimes with the assistance of others, executed the schemes to defraud Tricolor's lenders by submitting fraudulent borrowing base reports. CHU directed Kollar to fraudulently obtain more liquidity, and Kollar, in turn, directed Seibold to submit fraudulent borrowing base reports. Kollar, Seibold, and others submitted borrowing base reports with false and manipulated data or already-pledged loans to the Lender-1 Credit Line, the Lender-2 Inventory Credit Line, the SPV3 warehouse, the SPV4 warehouse, the SPV5 warehouse, the SPV6 warehouse, and the Lender-9 Credit Line in order to fraudulently obtain cash advances.

14. As the risks and dollar size of the fraud dramatically increased, the conspirators' used the same fraudulent methods. Kollar, Seibold, and others manually edited collateral data in borrowing base reports provided to lenders so that ineligible loans would falsely appear to lenders to meet eligibility criteria when in fact the loans were significantly past due. They did this with the awareness and, at times, specific direction of DANIEL CHU, the defendant. For instance, on or about July 25, 2022, CHU texted Kollar, "Can we work the > 60s"—asking whether Kollar could manipulate data for loans over 60 days past due to make them appear eligible. In response to these requests, and to achieve CHU's overarching directives, Kollar and Seibold would manually change the data fields in borrowing base reports related to whether a loan was performing or past due by, for example, editing loans more than 60 days past due to appear current or paid within the past 60 days. Kollar would also periodically update CHU on their progress. On November 16, 2022, for example, when CHU asked for an update on liquidity, Kollar responded: "We have $2.1m to [pledge] and with working DQ [delinquency] buckets we are getting $2.77M or ~$1.3m more. Will do a Bb [borrowing base] tomorrow and work to squeeze a little more out." In other words, by manipulating delinquency data in borrowing base reports, Kollar increased the volume of eligible loans, generating an additional $1.3 million in advanced funds from lenders. Similarly, on April 26, 2022, Kollar texted CHU: "We maxed the [Lender-4] one [i.e., the SPV4 warehouse] for tomorrow by adding $1M when we should have only received $300k and working on the [Lender-3] [i.e., the SPV 3 warehouse] today"—meaning that collateral manipulation had obtained $1 million more from the SPV4 warehouse than would have been possible without fraud.

15. At the defendants' direction and with their knowledge, Kollar and Seibold also double-pledged the same loans as collateral to multiple lenders and securitizations. For example, on March 1, 2023, Seibold described this double-pledging to DAVID GOODGAME, the defendant, writing that he was "taking accounts from SPV6 and pledging on SPV3 to get liquidity out of SPV3," to which GOODGAME jokingly responded with a crying emoji, followed by Seibold stating he was "then possibly taking SPV5 accounts and double pledging on SPV6." As another example, on September 8, 2023, when GOODGAME messaged Seibold about selling more inventory each week, Seibold explained that "We are bringing in between 6-8M a week on the main spvs right now" but that "[i]t's been tight just because of how close we are to maxing out the facilities" and that Tricolor was "[r]eally needing the securitization." Their conversation continued with Seibold explaining, "Spv6 is capped out. Spv4 is making it hard with this notional interest rate cap. Spv3 is capped out. We have some room on SPV5 but are trying to keep it relatively clean. Doing everything I can to make sure we still have as much as we can coming in.

The audits are going to be tough." GOODGAME responded "ugh." Seibold replied, "Hopefully after this securitization we can keep them a bit cleaner" before sending an "lol" emoji, to which GOODGAME responded "Lol," as they joked about how Tricolor could not keep its lines of credit "clean" of fraud.

16. The growing risk and scale of the frauds eventually forced the conspirators to reckon with the possibility the frauds would be discovered. Seibold at various times raised concerns to DAVID GOODGAME, the defendant, among others, but GOODGAME always reassured Seibold and Seibold would continue. To minimize the risks of discovery, however, and with the knowledge of DANIEL CHU, the defendant, and GOODGAME, Kollar and Seibold fabricated and falsified backup records when audits of the borrowing bases were conducted, including loan payment ledgers and system records indicating to which lender a loan had been pledged. On July 22, 2021, for example, while an audit firm was conducting an audit of Tricolor's prior year financial statements, Kollar texted CHU, "We will need to make sure [the auditor] does not try to[t]ie out [Lender-1]," because a comparison of the manipulated data that was provided to Lender-1 to the real data in Tricolor's internal dealer management system would have revealed the fraud. CHU responded: "I know." Later, on July 28, 2023, in connection with another audit, CHU texted Kollar: "Can you reconstruct [Lender-1] BB," referring to the borrowing base of purported collateral pledged to Lender-1. Kollar responded, in part, "It includes loans that are not active."

17. By on or about August 21, 2025, Kollar had conducted an analysis comparing the collateral data in Tricolor's dealer management system to the fraudulent collateral data that Tricolor had provided to lenders to obtain capital. Using the fraudulent borrowing bases that Tricolor had sent to lenders, Kollar added up the total amount of purported collateral that Tricolor had pledged to lines of credit, securitizations, and other facilities, which totaled approximately $2.2 billion. When Kollar performed the same calculation using Tricolor's internal dealer management system, however, the real amount of Tricolor's available collateral was approximately $1.4 billion. In other words, Tricolor had pledged approximately $2.2 billion of collateral to lenders and investors, but Tricolor had only approximately $1.4 billion of real collateral. The difference—consisting of approximately $800 million in bogus collateral—resulted from the series of schemes and the conspiracy in which DANIEL CHU and DAVID GOODGAME, the defendants, Kollar, Seibold, and others participated.

The Frands Unravel

18. As of in or about August 2025, Tricolor had still not completed an audit of its borrowing bases that had begun in or about February 2025. Lender-6 expressed concerns to Lender-4 about the unfinished audit. In reviewing Tricolor's borrowing base reports in or about August 2025, Lender-6 noticed discrepancies in Tricolor's data: loans that Tricolor reported as current—that is, as receiving timely payments from customers—did not show a corresponding reduction in the outstanding principal balance. This data made no sense as customers' payments would pay down a loan over time.

19. In or about August 2025, DANIEL CHU, the defendant, was alerted to the audit issue and then to the data discrepancies identified by Tricolor's lenders. The developing crisis prompted a series of calls among Tricolor executives, including, at times, CHU, DAVID GOODGAME, the defendant, Kollar, and another Tricolor executive ("Executive-1"). Some of these calls were secretly recorded by at least one participant, and sometimes calls were secretly recorded by multiple participants.

20. On or about August 17, 2025, for example, DANIEL CHU, the defendant, spoke with Kollar and Executive-1 about Lender-6's concerns regarding Tricolor's delay in completing the audit. CHU urged the team to find a solution, observing that "rather than conform all of our records to meet the audit, I think we need to, we need to rethink, kind of holistically, all of the processes that are resulting in this" delay. CHU then drew an "analogy" to when the team managed to obscure Tricolor's fraudulent use of "dead loans on the balance sheet" to borrow capital during the 2022 financial statement audit. CHU emphasized that his "point in that analogy" was that "rather than scrambling" to figure out, "okay, how are we gonna fabricate these loans? How are we gonna make up these loans? We just basically created around the problem with a structure, or I would say in this case, a policy, which, which made it, made all the math work." CHU then said, "we have a similar math problem today" and discussed with Kollar the buckets of manipulated loans and confirming exactly what fake data had been sent to the lenders on the SPV4 Warehouse.

21. During the August 17, 2025 call, DANIEL CHU, the defendant, proposed various lies the conspirators could tell to resolve the audit and explain the manipulated data. For example, CHU proposed that some of the manipulated, non-paying loans could be explained away by a purported "Trump administration deferment" policy. In fact, such a deferment policy did not actually exist at Tricolor. Nevertheless, CHU explained that, with this fictitious policy, "all I'm trying to do is, is alleviate the need to mess with any of these things and create a policy." CHU acknowledged, however, that "where we would have an issue is if, if they sent an auditor and they said, pull this up on your screen, right, that would be a problem." Kollar agreed, stating, "Yes. That would be bad,"—as Tricolor's internal records would not match the manipulated records and false excuses Tricolor provided to lenders and auditors.

22. The following day, on or about August 18, 2025, the Tricolor executives, including DANIEL CHU and DAVID GOODGAME, the defendants, Kollar, and Executive-1, continued to discuss how to conceal the fraud. During the call, CHU described how Lender-6 had identified, among other things, "$63 million of loans that have not had a payment in 180 days that are marked as current in the borrowing base." CHU complained that he did not understand how Seibold could "be doing this and not thinking that the balance has to reduce," saying it was "the stupidest fucking thing [he had] ever heard." Once Seibold was added to the call, CHU, in effect, demanded to know why Seibold had not thought to falsely reduce the balances in the borrowing base provided to lenders when Seibold fraudulently marked the loans as current. Seibold responded: "I've been holding 8,000 outstanding charge offs on every report for about … a long time." When CHU asked whether Seibold ever reduced the balance, Seibold explained: "We do, but some we don't. … I can't reduce by a full 8,000 without having us have millions of dollars in debts that we need to pay down…. I'm doing what I thought was what we needed."

23. The next day, on or about August 19, 2025, the Tricolor executives, including DANIEL CHU and DAVID GOODGAME, the defendants, Kollar, and Executive-1, spoke again by telephone. During the call, CHU described how he had spoken to a Lender-6 representative the prior evening. CHU recounted how he had told Lender-6, "look, if we were trying to commit fraud, we wouldn't be so stupid as to keep the same balances on there… Nobody would be that stupid. And he [the Lender-6 representative] goes, 'you're right.'" The participants on the August 19 call laughed in response. CHU also recounted how he told the representative of Lender-6 that it must be a "system issue." These were lies. As CHU well knew, the inconsistencies in the borrowing bases resulted from the frauds and the conspiracy among CHU, GOODGAME, and their co-conspirators, and not some supposed system issue.

24. On or about August 30, 2025, the Tricolor executives, including DANIEL CHU and DAVID GOODGAME, the defendants, Kollar, and Executive-1, discussed how they might reach a settlement with Lender-4, which, by that point, had identified double-pledged and manipulated collateral and terminated its lending facility. During this call, CHU compared Tricolor's circumstances to the circumstances of Enron, the energy trading firm that collapsed into bankruptcy following the discovery of accounting fraud and other misconduct. Specifically, CHU and the others discussed the possibility that they could blame the banks for purportedly ignoring red flags of their frauds and use that threat as leverage to extract a favorable settlement. CHU proposed using artificial intelligence tools to search for key words that GOODGAME could use in a discussion with Lender-4. After Executive-1 described an Enron-related litigation, CHU stated: "Enron obviously has a nice ring to it, right? <laugh>, I mean, Enron, Enron raises the blood pressure of the lender when they see that <laugh>. It, it has to, right? I'm not— [...] Cause who wants to be thrown in the category?" CHU later said, "That Enron case is fucking perfect, I think."

25. Even as the frauds unraveled and Tricolor's insolvency became clear, DANIEL CHU, the defendant, continued to enrich himself. Throughout the fraud scheme, CHU had received tens of millions of dollars in compensation from Tricolor, including an annual salary, bonuses, management incentive units, and company-provided cars. CHU's annual salary was $1 million in 2023, which was raised to $2 million in 2025. He also received a $2 million bonus for 2024, two $125,000 securitization bonuses in 2025, and a $15 million bonus in 2025. During the 24-month period from August 2023 through August 2025, Tricolor made more than $19.3 million in salary and bonus net cash payments to CHU's bank accounts. As Tricolor approached collapse, and after CHU observed that the company was "definitely insolvent," he directed Kollar to pay him the final installments of his $15 million bonus. On or about August 19 and 20, 2025—roughly three weeks before Tricolor placed more than 1,000 employees on unpaid leaves of absence and before the company filed for bankruptcy—CHU received two payments from Tricolor totaling $6.25 million.

CHU used some of this money to purchase a multi-million-dollar property in Beverly Hills, California on or about August 27, 2025. Days later, on September 6, 2025, Tricolor placed more than 1,000 of its employees on unpaid leaves of absence. On September 10, 2025, Tricolor filed for Chapter 7 bankruptcy.

Statutory Allegations

26. From at least in or about 2018 up to and including in or about September 2025, in the Southern District of New York and elsewhere, DANIEL CHU, the defendant, knowingly organized, managed, and supervised a continuing financial crimes enterprise, in that the defendant committed violations of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1343 and 1344, including violations one through ten set forth below, which violations were part of a series of violations of those statutes committed by at least four persons acting in concert, and from which the defendant received $5,000,000 and more in gross receipts from such enterprise during a 24-month period. The series of violations, as defined by Title 18, United States Code, Section 225, includes the following violations set forth below:

27. In or about the years listed in the table below, in the Southern District of New York and elsewhere, DANIEL CHU, the defendant, knowingly executed, and attempted to execute, a scheme and artifice to defraud a financial institution, as that term is defined in Title 18, United States Code, Section 20, and to obtain moneys, funds, credits, assets, securities, and other property owned by, and under the custody and control of, such a financial institution, by means of false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises, to wit, CHU, while the CEO of Tricolor, engaged in schemes to make a series of false statements to the financial institutions listed below regarding Tricolor's financial condition and the existence, nature, and value of its pledged loan collateral in order to fraudulently obtain money for Tricolor from those financial institutions.

Violation Number	Financial Institution and Credit Agreement	Approximate Time Period
1	Lender-1 Lender-1 Credit Line	2018 to September 2025
2	Lender-2 Lender-2 Inventory Credit Line	2020 to September 2025

4	Lender-5 SPV5 Warehouse	2021 to 2023
5	Lender-8 SPV6 Warehouse	2022 to September 2025

28. In or about the years listed in the table below, in the Southern District of New York and elsewhere, DANIEL CHU, the defendant, knowingly having devised and intending to devise a scheme and artifice to defraud, and for obtaining money and property by means of false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises, transmitted and caused to be transmitted by means of wire, radio, and television communication in interstate and foreign commerce, writings, signs, signals, pictures, and sounds, for the purpose of executing such scheme and artifice, which affected a financial institution, to wit, CHU, while the CEO of Tricolor, engaged in schemes to make a series of false statements to lenders listed below, including multiple financial institutions, regarding Tricolor's financial condition and the existence, nature, and value of its pledged loan collateral in order to fraudulently obtain money for Tricolor from those lenders, and caused others to send and receive, emails, telephone calls, videoconferences, and other electronic communications, to and from the Southern District of New York and elsewhere, in furtherance of that scheme.

Violation Number	Financial Institution and Credit Agreement	Approximate Time Period
6	Lender-1 Lender-1 Credit Line	2018 to September 2025
7	Lender-2 Lender-2 Inventory Credit Line	2020 to September 2025

8	Lender-4, Lender-5, Lender-6, Lender-7 SPV4 Warehouse	2020 to September 2025
9	Lender-5 SPV5 Warehouse	2021 to 2023
10	Lender-8 SPV6 Warehouse	2022 to September 2025

(Title 18, United States Code, Sections 225 and 2.)

COUNT TWO

(Conspiracy to Commit Bank Frand and Wire Frand Affecting a Financial Institution)

The Grand Jury further charges:

29. The allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 24 of this Indictment are repeated and realleged as it fully set forth herein.

30. From at least in or about 2018 through in or about September 2025, in the Southern District of New York and elsewhere, DANIEL CHU and DAVID GOODGAME, the defendants, and others known and unknown, willfully and knowingly combined, conspired, confederated, and agreed together and with each other to commit bank fraud, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1344, and to commit wire fraud, which affected a financial institution, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1343.

31. It was a part and an object of the conspiracy that DANIEL CHU and DAVID GOODGAME, the defendants, and others known and unknown, knowingly would and did execute, and attempt to execute, a scheme and artifice to defraud a financial institution, as that term is defined in Title 18, United States Code, Section 20, and to obtain moneys, funds, credits, assets, securities, and other property owned by, and under the custody and control of, such a financial institution, by means of false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1344, to wit, CHU, GOODGAME, and others agreed to make and cause to be made a series of false statements to multiple financial institutions regarding Tricolor's financial condition and the existence, nature, and value of its pledged loan collateral in order to fraudulently obtain money for Tricolor from those financial institutions.

32. It was further a part and an object of the conspiracy that DANIEL CHU and DAVID GOODGAME, the defendants, and others known and unknown, knowingly having devised and intending to devise a scheme and artifice to defraud, and for obtaining money and property by means of false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises, would and did transmit and cause to be transmitted by means of wire, radio, and television communication in interstate and foreign commerce, writings, signs, signals, pictures, and sounds for the purpose of executing such scheme and artifice, which affected a financial institution, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1343, to wit, CHU, GOODGAME, and others agreed to make and cause to be made a series of false statements to lenders, including multiple financial institutions, regarding Tricolor's financial condition and the existence, nature, and value of its pledged loan collateral in order to fraudulently obtain money for Tricolor from those lenders, and sent and received, and caused others to send and receive, emails, telephone calls, videoconferences, and other electronic communications, to and from the Southern District of New York and elsewhere, in furtherance of that scheme.

(Title 18, United States Code, Section 1349.)

COUNT THREE
(Bank Fraud)

The Grand Jury further charges:

33. The allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 24 of this Indictment are repeated and realleged as it fully set forth herein.

34. From at least in or about 2020 through in or about September 2025, in the Southern District of New York and elsewhere, DANIEL CHU and DAVID GOODGAME, the defendants, knowingly executed, and attempted to execute, a scheme and artifice to defraud a financial institution, as that term is defined in Title 18, United States Code, Section 20, and to obtain moneys, funds, credits, assets, securities, and other property owned by, and under the custody and control of, such a financial institution, by means of false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises, to wit, CHU, GOODGAME, and others engaged in scheme to make a series of false statements to Lender-4 and Lender-5 in connection with the SPV4 Warehouse regarding Tricolor's financial condition and the existence, nature, and value of its pledged loan collateral in order to fraudulently obtain money for Tricolor from Lender-4 and Lender-5.

(Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1344 and 2.)

COUNT FOUR
(Wire Fraud Affecting a Financial Institution)

The Grand Jury further charges:

35. The allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 24 of this Indictment are repeated and realleged as it fully set forth herein.

36. From at least in or about 2020 through in or about September 2025, in the Southern District of New York and elsewhere, DANIEL CHU and DAVID GOODGAME, the defendants, knowingly having devised and intending to devise a scheme and artifice to defraud, and for obtaining money and property by means of false and fraudulent pretenses, representations, and promises, transmitted and caused to be transmitted by means of wire, radio, and television communication in interstate and foreign commerce, writings, signs, signals, pictures, and sounds, for the purpose of executing such scheme and artifice, which affected a financial institution, to wit, CHU, GOODGAME, and others engaged in a scheme to make a series of false statements to Lender-4, Lender-5, Lender-6, and Lender-7 in connection with the SPV4 Warehouse regarding Tricolor's financial condition and the existence, nature, and value of its pledged loan collateral in order to fraudulently obtain money for Tricolor from those lenders, and caused others to send and receive, emails, telephone calls, videoconferences, and other electronic communications, to and from the Southern District of New York and elsewhere, in furtherance of that scheme.

(Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1343 and 2.)

FORFEITURE ALLEGATIONS

37. As a result of committing the offenses alleged in Counts One, Two, Three, and Four of this Indictment, DANIEL CHU and DAVID GOODGAME, the defendants, shall forfeit to the United States, pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 982(a)(2)(A), and Title 28, United States Code, Section 2461(c), any and all property constituting, or derived from, proceeds the defendant obtained directly or indirectly, as a result of the commission of said offenses, including but not limited to a sum of money in United States currency representing the amount of proceeds traceable to the commission of said offenses.

Substitute Assets Provision

38. If any of the above-described forfeitable property, as a result of any act or omission of the defendants:

a. cannot be located upon the exercise of due diligence;

b. has been transferred or sold to, or deposited with, a third person;

c. has been placed beyond the jurisdiction of the Court;

d. has been substantially diminished in value; or

e. has been commingled with other property which cannot be subdivided without difficulty;

it is the intent of the United States, pursuant to Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(p) and Title 28, United States Code, Section 2461(c), to seek forfeiture of any other property of the defendants up to the value of the above forfeitable property.

(Title 18, United States Code, Section 981
Title 18, United States Code, Section 982;
Title 21, United States Code, Section 853; and
Title 28, United States Code, Section 2461.)

WHEREAS, the Company was formed as a Delaware limited liability company on May 6, 2015;

WHEREAS, the Original Member (as defined below) and Investar (as defined below) were parties to that certain Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement of the Company, dated as of June 3, 2015 (as supplemented and amended, the "Original Limited Liability Company Agreement");

WHEREAS, Ganas Investors (as defined below) and Investar were parties to that certain Second Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement of the Company, dated as of December 20, 2017 (the "Second Limited Liability Company Agreement") which amended and restated the Original Limited Liability Company Agreement;

WHEREAS, Ganas Investors and the BlackRock Investors (as defined therein) (the "Class B BlackRock Investors") were parties to that certain Third Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement of the Company, dated as of January 30, 2020 (as amended, the "Third Limited Liability Company Agreement") which amended and restated the Second Limited Liability Company Agreement;

WHEREAS, Ganas Investors and the BlackRock Investors were parties to that certain Fourth Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement of the Company, dated as of September 2, 2021 (the "Existing Limited Liability Company Agreement") which amended and restated the Third Limited Liability Company Agreement;

WHEREAS, the Company intends to issue to the Junior Preferred Members (as defined below) Junior Preferred Units of the Company pursuant to a Subscription Agreement (the "Junior Preferred Unit Subscription Agreement"), on and subject to the terms therein; and

WHEREAS, the parties hereto deem it advisable to amend and restate the Existing Limited Liability Company Agreement in its entirety to evidence, among other things, (i) the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Junior Preferred Unit Subscription Agreement, (ii) the admission of the New Investors (as defined below)

as Junior Preferred Members and (iii) the establishment of the rights, privileges and preferences of the Junior Preferred Units.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the agreements and obligations set forth herein and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Members hereby amend and restate the Existing Limited Liability Company Agreement in its entirety as follows:

ARTICLE I
DEFINED TERMS

Section 1.1. Definitions. Unless the context otherwise requires, the terms defined in this Article I shall, for the purposes of this Agreement, have the meanings herein specified.

"Adjusted Capital Account Deficit" means, with respect to any Member, the deficit balance, if any, in such Member's Capital Account as of the end of the relevant Fiscal Year, after giving effect to the following adjustments:

(a) credit to such Capital Account any amounts which such Member is deemed to be obligated to restore pursuant to the penultimate sentence of either of Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(g)(1) or 1.704-2(i)(5); and

(b) debit to such Capital Account the items described in Treasury Regulation Sections 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d)(4), 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d)(5) and 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d)(6).

The foregoing definition of Adjusted Capital Account Deficit is intended to comply with the provisions of Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d) and shall be interpreted consistently therewith.

"Affected Units" means the Eligible Units offered for sale by an Offering Holder pursuant to Section 12.8.

"Affiliate" means any Person directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by, or under common control with another Person and any Persons with the same investment manager or whose investment manager is directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by, or under common control with another Person's investment manager. For purposes of this definition, "control" (including the terms "controlled by" and "under common control with") means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management policies or affairs of a Person, whether through ownership of voting securities, by contract or otherwise, as executor, trustee or otherwise.

"Aggregate Ownership" means, with respect to any Member or group of Members, the total number of Common Units (including Common Units issuable upon conversion of Preferred Units or upon the exercise of Warrants) owned (without duplication) by such Member or group of Members as of the date of such calculation.

"Aggregate Senior Preferred Unit Purchase Price" means the Preferred Unit Purchase Price multiplied by the number of Senior Preferred Units issued and outstanding as of September 2, 2021.

"Agreement" shall have the meaning set forth in the preamble hereof.

"Assignee" means the Person to whom Interests are Transferred in accordance with this Agreement.

"Bankruptcy Event" means such time as the Company or any significant Subsidiary of the Company (i) becomes the subject of any bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding, (ii) has had a receiver, conservator, trustee, administrator, custodian, assignee for the benefit of creditors or similar Person charged with the reorganization or liquidation of its business appointed for it, or (iii) has taken any action in furtherance of, or indicating its consent to, approval of, or acquiescence in, any such proceeding or appointment.

"BlackRock Investors" means the Subscribers (as defined in the Senior Preferred Unit Subscription Agreement) party to the Senior Preferred Unit Subscription Agreement as of September 2, 2021.

"Blocker Member" means a Member holding Senior Preferred Units that is (i) classified as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and (ii) an entity, the sole purpose of which is to directly or indirectly hold Units and conduct administrative and organizational activities incidental thereto, and that does not and has never conducted any other business or engaged in any other activities (other than administrative matters relating to its formation and organization and the direct or indirect acquisition, holding and disposition of Units).

"Board" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 5.1.

"Budget Act" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 10.1(a).

"Buyer" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 12.7(b).

"Capital Account" means, with respect to any Member, the account maintained for such Member in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.3.

"Capital Contribution" means, with respect to any Member, the aggregate amount of cash, the principal amount of any promissory note and the initial Gross Asset Value of any property (other than cash or promissory note) contributed to the Company by such Member in accordance with this Agreement, net of any liabilities of such Member that are assumed by the Company in connection with such contribution or that are secured by property so contributed.

"Capital Event" means a Liquidation Event, Change of Control, Revaluation Event, Corporate Conversion or the termination of the Company's status as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes for any reason.

"Cash Available for Distribution" means, with respect to any Fiscal Year, all Company cash receipts plus any reductions in Reserves from prior Fiscal Years, after deducting payments for Operating Cash Expenses, payments required to be made in connection with any loan to the Company or any loan secured by a lien on any Company assets, capital expenditures and any other amounts set aside for the restoration, increase or creation of reasonable Reserves.

"Certificate" means the Certificate of Formation of the Company and any and all amendments thereto and restatements thereof filed on behalf of the Company with the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware pursuant to the Delaware Act.

"Change of Control" means (i) any "person" or "group" (within the meaning of Sections 13(d) and 14(d) of the Exchange Act), other than Daniel Chu, becoming the beneficial owner (as defined in Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act), directly or indirectly, of a majority of either the voting rights or the economic rights associated with the Common Units of the Company, (ii) Ganas Investors ceasing to, directly or indirectly, have the right to appoint a majority of the Board of the Company, (iii) a sale of all or substantially all the assets of the Company and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, (iv) the Company ceasing to directly or indirectly own and control, beneficially and of record, 100% of the outstanding voting and economic equity interests of its first tier Subsidiaries existing on the Effective Date, and (v) a "change of control" (or similar event) shall occur pursuant to any outstanding Indebtedness of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (including the securitization facilities, the floor plan financing facilities and the Warehouse Facilities) or any management equity arrangements.

"Class B BlackRock Investors" shall have the meaning set forth in the recitals hereof.

"Class B Member" shall have the meaning assigned to such term in the Third Limited Liability Company Agreement.

"Class B Unit" shall have the meaning assigned to such term in the Third Limited Liability Company Agreement.

"Code" means the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time, or any corresponding United States federal tax statute enacted after the date of this Agreement.

"Common Unit" means a Unit representing a fractional part of the Interests of the Members and having the rights and obligations specified with respect to Common Units in this Agreement.

"Common Unit Accumulated Capital Account" means, at any given time, the cumulative Capital Accounts of the Common Unit Members in respect of the Common Units that would result from the allocations pursuant to Section 7.1(b)(i) if applied to all Profits and Losses at such time.

"Common Unit Member" means any Member holding Common Units (including Members that hold Management Incentive Units).

"Company" shall have the meaning set forth in the preamble hereto.

"Company Minimum Gain" means "partnership minimum gain" of the Company within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(b)(2) and shall be computed in accordance with Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(d).

"Company Securities" means Units or Interests or any securities convertible or exercisable into, or any securities exchangeable for, or containing options or rights to acquire, Units or Interests.

"Consultant" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 12.7(f).

"Continuing Member" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 12.7(a).

"Conversion Price" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 4.3(d)(iii) or Section 4.3(d)(v), as applicable.

"Corporate Conversion" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 12.12(b).

Section 3.2. Powers of the Company. Subject to the limitations set forth herein, the Company shall have the power and authority to take any and all actions necessary, appropriate, proper, advisable, incidental or convenient to or for the furtherance of the purpose set forth in Section 3.1.

ARTICLE IV
MEMBERS

Section 4.1. Issuance and Creation of Units.

(a) On September 2, 2021, the Company repurchased and cancelled all of the outstanding Class B Units (the "Redemption") and issued the Senior Preferred Units. Following the Redemption, the Class B Members ceased being members of the Company. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of this Agreement, the Company is authorized to issue equity interests in the Company, all of which are or will be designated as "Units", which shall constitute limited liability company interests under the Delaware Act. The Units shall consist of four (4) classes: Common Units, Senior Preferred Units, Junior Preferred Units and Management Incentive Units (as further described in Section 6.5 below), and shall have the rights, preferences, privileges, limitations, restrictions and/or obligations as set forth herein. Subject to the other provisions of this Agreement, the total number of Units of any class that may be issued hereunder shall not be limited, and the references to Units shall be deemed to include fractional Units.

(b) Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of this Agreement, including this Section 4.1 and Sections 4.3, 4.14 and 14.11, the Board is authorized to create and issue new Units, which may have rights, preferences, privileges, limitations, restrictions and/or obligations that are junior to, pari passu with or senior to any other class or series of Units; provided, however, that (i) no such Units shall rank pari passu with or senior to the Senior Preferred Units and (ii) no such Units other than the Senior Preferred Units shall rank senior to the Junior Preferred Units. To the fullest extent permitted by Section 18-302 of the Delaware Act, but subject to the terms of this Agreement, including this Section 4.1 and Sections 4.3, 4.14 and 14.11, the Company may issue Units from time to time in one or more classes, or one or more series of such classes, which classes or series (or the holders thereof) shall have, subject to the provisions of applicable law and the terms of this Agreement, including this Section 4.1 and Sections 4.3, 4.14 and 14.11, such rights, preferences, privileges, limitations, restrictions and/or obligations as shall be fixed by the Board; provided, however, that the Senior Preferred Units shall rank senior to all other Company Securities (including Common Units and Management Incentive Units) and the Junior Preferred Units shall rank senior to all Common Units and Management Incentive Units and pari passu with or senior to all other Company Securities other than the Senior Preferred Units, in each case including with respect to: (i) the allocation of items of Profit or Loss to each class or series; (ii) the right of each class or series to share in distributions; (iii) maintaining separate and distinct records for each class or series; (iv) allocating specific assets, liabilities, debts, obligations and expenses to each class or series; (v) the rights of each class or series upon dissolution and liquidation of the Company; (vi) the price at which, and the terms and conditions upon which, each class or series may be redeemed by the Company, if any class or series is so redeemable; (vii) the rate at which, and the terms and conditions upon which, each class or series may be converted into another class or series of Units; (viii) the right of the owners of each class or series to information about the Company, including limitations of the rights in Section 18-305 of the Delaware Act; and (ix) the right of each class or series to vote on Company matters, including matters relating to the rights, preferences, privileges, limitations, restrictions and/or obligations of such class or series, if any such class or series (or any holders thereof) is granted any voting rights.

Subject to Sections 4.3, 4.14 and 14.12 and any other applicable terms of this Agreement, the Board may amend this Agreement without the consent of any Member in order to effect the creation or issuance of Units or any class or series thereof and the granting of any such rights, preferences, privileges, limitations, restrictions and/or obligations pursuant to this Section 4.1 (so long as the relative rights, preferences, privileges, limitations and obligations of the applicable class of Preferred Units shall rank senior to the related rights, preferences, privileges, limitations, restrictions and/or obligations of such Units or any class or series thereof as set forth in this Section 4.1 and Section 4.3 and are not otherwise adversely affected).

Section 4.2. Certificates. The Interests and Units of the Members are and at all times shall remain uncertificated (and any certificate purporting to evidence any Interests or Units shall be null and void ab initio). The Interests and Units of the Members in the Company are not and shall not at any time be "securities" or "investment property" covered by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code of the State of Delaware (or the Uniform Commercial Code of any other applicable jurisdiction). No Member, Manager or Officer of the Company will amend this Agreement to provide that the Interests or Units of the Members in the Company are "securities" or "investment property" governed by Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code or otherwise "opt in" to Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code.

Section 4.3. Preferred Units. The Preferred Units shall have the following rights, preferences and privileges:

(a) (i) The Senior Preferred Units shall rank senior to the Junior Preferred Units, the Common Units, Management Incentive Units, and any other class of Units or other Company Securities hereafter created (the Junior Preferred Units, the Common Units, Management Incentive Units, and such other classes of Units and other Company Securities, "Junior Securities"), and (ii) the Junior Preferred Units shall rank senior to all Common Units and Management Incentive Units and pari passu with or senior to all other Company Securities other than Senior Preferred Units, in each case as described in the proviso contained in the second sentence of Section 4.1(b), including as to Distributions, including the distribution of assets upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company, whether voluntary or involuntary.

(b) From and after the date of issuance, Distributions shall accrue on each Preferred Unit at the applicable Preferred Accumulating Distribution Rate (subject to the last sentence of this Section 4.3(b)) on the Preferred Accrued Amount. Distributions on each Preferred Unit shall be cumulative and shall accrue daily from and after the date of issuance, and, unless paid in cash on the applicable Quarterly Preferred Distribution Date as provided below, shall be added to the Preferred Accrued Amount on each Quarterly Preferred Distribution Date. Distributions shall be calculated on the basis of the actual days elapsed in a year of 365 (or 366, as applicable) days. Subject to Section 4.14(a)(ii), all such Distributions, as applicable, shall, at the sole discretion of the Board (excluding, with respect to Distributions on the Senior Preferred Units, the Senior Preferred Managers), either, in whole or in part, (i) be paid in cash to the Preferred Members at the applicable Preferred Cash Distribution Rate, or (ii) be added to the Preferred Accrued Amount at the applicable Preferred Accumulating Distribution Rate, provided, however, that in the event that the Board (excluding, with respect to Distributions on the Senior Preferred Units, the Senior Preferred Managers) does not make an election with respect thereto, the Board shall be deemed to have elected to have such Distribution added to the Preferred Accrued Amount pursuant to the foregoing clause (ii).

(c) The Company shall give each Preferred Member at least 15 days' written notice prior to the occurrence of any Liquidation Event. Upon the occurrence of a Liquidation Event, (i) the Senior Preferred Members shall be entitled to be paid, with respect to the Senior Preferred Units then outstanding held by the Senior Preferred Members, out of the assets of the Company available for distribution to the Members, on a preferred basis prior and in preference to any Distribution to the Junior Preferred Members, the Common Unit Members or holders of any other Junior Securities of the Company, an amount in cash per Senior Preferred Unit equal to the greater of: (1) the amount such Senior Preferred Member would have received had such Senior Preferred Unit(s) been converted to Common Unit(s) at the then-applicable Conversion Price immediately prior to such Liquidation Event; and (2) the applicable Preferred Redemption Price; provided, however, that, in each case, the amount paid with respect to the Senior Preferred Units in the aggregate shall not be less than the Minimum MOIC; and (ii) the Junior Preferred Members shall be entitled to be paid, after payment in full has been made with respect to the Senior Preferred Units pursuant to the preceding clause (i), with respect to the Junior Preferred Units then outstanding held by the Junior Preferred Members, out of the assets of the Company available for distribution to the Members, on a preferred basis prior and in preference to any Distribution to the Common Unit Members or holders of any other Junior Securities of the Company, an amount in cash per Junior Preferred Unit equal to (1) if such Liquidation Event (which, for the avoidance of doubt, does not include any redemption of Company Securities) occurs on or prior to the second anniversary of the Effective Date, the Preferred Unit Purchase Price or (2) if such Liquidation Event (which, for the avoidance of doubt, does not include any redemption of Company Securities) occurs after the second anniversary of the Effective Date, 1.2 multiplied by the Preferred Unit Purchase Price, in each case in the case of this clause (ii) plus the Preferred Accrued Amount in respect of such Junior Preferred Units.

(d) If upon any such Liquidation Event, the assets of the Company available for distribution to the Company's Members shall be insufficient to pay the Senior Preferred Members the full amount to which they shall be entitled pursuant to the preceding sentence, then (x) the Senior Preferred Members shall be paid first with any distribution of the assets available for distribution and funds of the Company until the payment in full of the Senior Preferred Units at the applicable Preferred Redemption Price, and after the payment in full of the Senior Preferred Units at the applicable Preferred Redemption Price, the Senior Preferred Members shall not be entitled to any further participation in any distribution of funds or assets by the Company in respect of such Senior Preferred Units and (y) after giving effect to the preceding clause (x), the Junior Preferred Members shall be paid first with any distribution of the remaining assets available for distribution and funds of the Company until the payment in full of the Junior Preferred Units at the applicable Preferred Redemption Price, and after the payment in full of the Junior Preferred Units at the applicable Preferred Redemption Price, the Junior Preferred Members shall not be entitled to any further participation in any distribution of funds or assets by the Company in respect of such Junior Preferred Units. If upon any such Liquidation Event, the assets of the Company available for distribution to the Company's Members (after payment to the Senior Preferred Members of the full amount to which they shall be entitled pursuant to the first sentence of this Section 4.3(c)) shall be insufficient to pay the Junior Preferred Members the full amount to which they shall be entitled pursuant to the first sentence of this Section 4.3(c), then the Junior Preferred Members shall be paid first with any distribution of the remaining assets available for distribution and funds of the Company until the payment in full of the Junior Preferred Units at the applicable Preferred Redemption Price, and after the payment in full of the Junior Preferred Units at the applicable Preferred Redemption Price, the Junior Preferred Members shall not be entitled to any further participation in any distribution of funds or assets by the Company in respect of such Junior Preferred Units. Any payments to the Senior Preferred Members pursuant to this Section 4.3(c) shall be made to the Senior Preferred Members, pro rata in accordance with the percentage of Senior Preferred Units held by the Senior Preferred Members. Any payments to the Junior Preferred Members pursuant to this Section 4.3(c) shall be made to the Junior Preferred Members, pro rata in accordance with the percentage of Junior Preferred Units held by the Junior Preferred Members. The Preferred Units shall be convertible into Common Units as follows:

(i) Optional Conversion of Preferred Units. At the option of the holder thereof, each Preferred Unit held by such holder shall be convertible, at any time or from time to time, into Common Unit(s) at the then-applicable Conversion Price. Each holder of Preferred Units who elects to convert the same into Common Units shall surrender the certificate or certificates therefor, if any, duly endorsed, at the office of the Company or any transfer agent for the Preferred Units, and shall give written notice to the Company at such office that such Member elects to convert the same and shall state therein the number of Preferred Units being converted. Thereupon, the Company shall promptly register such Member as the holder of the applicable number of Common Units. Such conversion shall be deemed to have been made immediately prior to the close of business on the date of receipt by the Company of written notice of conversion, and the Member entitled to receive the Common Units issuable upon such conversion shall be treated for all purposes as the record holder of such Common Units on such date.

(ii) Automatic Conversion of Senior Preferred Units and Exercise of Warrants Upon Qualified Financing. All Senior Preferred Units will automatically be converted into Common Units at the then-applicable Conversion Price for Senior Preferred Units and all outstanding Warrants will automatically be exercised at the then-applicable exercise price as of immediately prior to the consummation of a Qualified Financing, subject to, in the case of a Qualified Financing that is a Qualified Public Offering or Qualified Acquisition Transaction, clause (A) below, or in the case of a Qualified Financing that is a Change of Control, clause (B) below; provided, however, that the Company shall consult with the holders of the Senior Preferred Units and Warrants in good faith and use reasonable best efforts to effect any Qualified Financing in a tax efficient manner for holders of the Senior Preferred Units and Warrants.

(A) If a Qualified Public Offering or Qualified Acquisition Transaction is consummated and (1) in the case of a Qualified Public Offering, the initial price per share to the public for the Company's common stock (or the common stock of any successor thereto or parent or holding company thereof) as set forth in the final prospectus for such Qualified Public Offering, or (2) in the case of a Qualified Acquisition Transaction, (x) the value of (I) the equity interests in the combined company issued at the consummation of the Qualified Acquisition Transaction to the equityholders of the Company (or any successor thereof or parent or holding company thereof) as of immediately prior to the Qualified Acquisition Transaction, as determined pursuant to definitive agreements entered into in connection with such Qualified Acquisition Transaction, plus (II) cash paid upon the consummation of the Qualified Acquisition Transaction to the equityholders of the Company (or any successor thereof or parent or holding company thereof) as of immediately prior to the consummation of the Qualified Acquisition Transaction, divided by (y) the number of shares of common stock to be outstanding on a fully diluted basis (pursuant to the definitive agreements and final prospectus (as applicable) relating to the Qualified Acquisition Transaction) immediately after giving effect to the Qualified Acquisition Transaction ((1) or (2), as applicable, the "Listing Per Share Price"), in each case is less than the then-applicable Target Adjusted Per Share Price, then immediately prior to the consummation of the Qualified Public Offering or Qualified Acquisition Transaction, as applicable, each Common Unit received upon conversion of the Senior Preferred Units (or share of common stock issued in respect thereof) shall be split by multiplying each such equity interest by an adjustment factor equal to the following formula:

C = the Target Adjusted Per Share Price

P = the Listing Per Share Price

Target Adjusted Per Share Price = Adjusted Aggregate MOIC divided by the aggregate number of Common Units receivable upon conversion of the Senior Preferred Units (or shares of common stock issuable in respect thereof).

Adjusted Aggregate MOIC = Minimum MOIC minus Common Value

Common Value = the number of Common Units received upon exercise of all outstanding Warrants (or common stock issued in respect thereof) multiplied by P

(B) In the case that a Qualified Financing is a Change of Control, the aggregate value of the consideration paid to Senior Preferred Members and holders of Warrants in respect of the Common Units received upon conversion of the Senior Preferred Units and upon exercise of the Warrants (or in each case the applicable consideration received in respect thereof pursuant to the Change of Control transaction) shall not be less than the Minimum MOIC.

For the avoidance of doubt, (i) only one (and not both) of clause (A) or clause (B) above shall apply to the applicable Qualified Financing and (ii) this Section 4.3(d)(ii) shall not apply to the Junior Preferred Units.

(iii) Automatic Conversion of Junior Preferred Units Upon Qualified Public Offering. All Junior Preferred Units will automatically be converted into Common Units at the then-applicable Conversion Price for Junior Preferred Units as of immediately prior to the consummation of a Qualified Public Offering. Except as provided in the preceding sentence, the Junior Preferred Units are not convertible into Common Units.

(iv) Conversion Price of Senior Preferred Units. Each Senior Preferred Unit shall be convertible into the number of Common Units which results from dividing (A) the Preferred Unit Purchase Price for such Senior Preferred Unit by (B) the applicable Conversion Price for such Senior Preferred Unit in effect at the time of conversion. The "Conversion Price" with respect to the Senior Preferred Units was initially $15.92 (as of September 2, 2021); provided, however, that (1) upon the occurrence of a Qualified Financing, the Conversion Price with respect to the Senior Preferred Units shall equal the lower of (x) the then-applicable Conversion Price for the Senior Preferred Units (without giving effect to this proviso) and (y) the price per Common Unit indicated in the Qualified Financing as reduced by the QF/MR Discount and (2) if no Qualified Financing has occurred at or prior to the time of a Senior Preferred Mandatory Redemption Event, the Conversion Price upon such Senior Preferred Mandatory Redemption Event shall equal the lower of (I) the then-applicable Conversion Price for the Senior Preferred Units (without giving effect to this proviso) and (II) the price per Common Unit based on the then-applicable QF/MR Discount to the then fair market equity valuation of the Company on a fully diluted basis, as determined by a nationally recognized investment banking firm or other independent appraisal firm having experience in the industry and selected by mutual agreement of the Company and the holders of a majority of outstanding Senior Preferred Units.

The Conversion Price with respect to the Senior Preferred Units shall be subject to adjustment from time to time as provided below (and, for the avoidance of doubt, the Conversion Price with respect to the Senior Preferred Units shall be adjusted in accordance with Section 4.3(d)(viii) in connection with the issuance of Junior Preferred Units pursuant to the Junior Preferred Unit Subscription Agreement). Following each adjustment of such Conversion Price, such adjusted Conversion Price shall remain in effect until a further adjustment of such Conversion Price.

(v) Conversion Price of Junior Preferred Units. Each Junior Preferred Unit shall be convertible into the number of Common Units which results from dividing (A) the lesser of (x) the Preferred Accrued Amount with respect to such Junior Preferred Unit and (y) 1.2 multiplied by the Preferred Unit Purchase Price with respect to such Junior Preferred Unit by (B) the applicable Conversion Price for such Junior Preferred Unit in effect at the time of conversion. The "Conversion Price" with respect to the Junior Preferred Units shall initially be $14.38; provided, however, that upon the occurrence of a Qualified Public Offering, the Conversion Price with respect to the Junior Preferred Units shall equal the lower of (A) the then-applicable Conversion Price for the Junior Preferred Units (without giving effect to this proviso) and (B) the price per Common Unit indicated in the Qualified Public Offering.

The Conversion Price with respect to the Junior Preferred Units shall be subject to adjustment from time to time as provided below. Following each adjustment of such Conversion Price, such adjusted Conversion Price shall remain in effect until a further adjustment of such Conversion Price.

(vi) Treatment of Certain Distributions. If at any time or from time to time after the date hereof the Company makes a Distribution to the holders of the Common Units in each case payable in securities or other property of the Company, other than an event constituting an Qualified Financing, then in each such event the Members holding Preferred Units shall receive, simultaneously with the Distribution to the holders of Common Units, a Distribution of such securities or other property in an amount equal to the amount of such securities or other property as they would have received if all outstanding Preferred Units had been converted into Common Units on the effective date of such event.

(vii) Adjustments to Conversion Price for Reorganizations or Mergers, etc.

(A) If at any time or from time to time after the date hereof there shall occur any reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, consolidation, amalgamation, conversion, or merger involving the Company in which the Common Units (but not the Preferred Units) are converted or changed into or exchanged for securities, cash or other property (other than in connection with a Qualified Financing, a transaction covered by Section 4.3(d)(iv) or a Liquidation Event), then, following any such reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, consolidation, amalgamation, conversion, or merger, each Preferred Unit shall thereafter be convertible in lieu of the Common Units into which it was convertible prior to such event into the kind and amount of securities, cash or other property which a holder of the applicable number of Common Units issuable upon conversion of such Preferred Unit immediately prior to such reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, consolidation, amalgamation, conversion, or merger would have been entitled to receive pursuant to such transaction. In any such case, appropriate adjustment (as reasonably determined in good faith by the Board) shall be made in the application of the provisions of this Section 4.3(d)(vii) with respect to the rights of the holders of the Preferred Units after the reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, consolidation, amalgamation, conversion, or merger to the end that the provisions of this Section 4.3(d)(vii) (including adjustments to the Conversion Price for the Preferred Units and the securities, cash or other property issuable upon conversion of such Preferred Units) shall be applicable after that event and be as nearly equivalent to the provisions hereof as may be practicable and with respect to such other securities, cash or property by the terms thereof. This Section 4.3(d)(vii) shall similarly apply to successive reorganizations, recapitalizations, reclassifications, consolidations, amalgamations, conversions or mergers.

(B) If at any time or from time to time after the date hereof the Company shall, while any Preferred Units are outstanding, subdivide, combine, reclassify or split its outstanding Common Units into a greater or lesser number of Common Units (other than in connection with a Qualified Financing, a transaction covered by Section 4.3(d)(iv) or a Liquidation Event), the Conversion Price shall be adjusted by multiplying the Conversion Price in effect immediately prior to such subdivision, combination, reclassification or split by a fraction, (1) the numerator of which shall be the number of Common Units outstanding immediately prior to such subdivision, combination, reclassification or split, and (2) the denominator of which shall be the number of Common Units outstanding immediately after such subdivision, combination, reclassification or split.

(viii) Adjustment of Conversion Price for Dilutive Issuances. Upon the occurrence of a Dilutive Issuance, the Conversion Price for each Preferred Unit shall be reduced, concurrently with such Dilutive Issuance, to a price (calculated to the nearest cent) determined in accordance with the following formula.

$$CP2 = CP1* \ (A + B) \div (A + C).$$

For purposes of the foregoing formula, the following definitions shall apply:

A. "CP2" means the Conversion Price for the applicable Preferred Unit in effect immediately after the issue of Dilutive Units;

B. "CP1" means the Conversion Price for the applicable Preferred Unit in effect immediately prior to the issue of Dilutive Units;

C. "A" means the total number of Units outstanding prior to the Dilutive Issuance, on a Fully Diluted Basis, but not giving effect to any Company Securities being converted, exercised or exchanged in the Dilutive Issuance;

D. "B" means the number of Dilutive Units that would have been issued if such Dilutive Units had been issued at a price per unit equal to CP1 (determined by dividing the aggregate consideration received by the Company in respect of such issue by CP1); and

E. "C" means the number of Dilutive Units issued in such Dilutive Issuance.

(ix) Tax Treatment. It is intended that the conversion of the Preferred Units into Common Units will be treated as the exercise of a noncompensatory option within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.721-2(f). Consistent with such intention, upon the conversion of a Preferred Unit into Common Units the Company shall comply with the allocation provisions set forth in Treasury Regulations Sections 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(s) and 1.704-1(b)(4)(x) (including making any required "corrective" allocations in accordance with the Treasury Regulations).

(e) Optional Redemption.

(i) Subject to Section 4.14(a)(ii), the Company shall have the right to redeem (an "Optional Preferred Redemption"), in whole or in part, on a pro rata basis from all holders of any class of Preferred Units being redeemed, based on the number of Preferred Units of such class then held, Preferred Units of such class, for cash, at a redemption price per Preferred Unit of such class equal to the Preferred Redemption Price applicable to such class, on the date such redemption is consummated. The Company may exercise its redemption right under this Section 4.3(e)(i) by delivering to the applicable holder at the address for such holder last shown on the records of the Company a written notice stating the Company's intention to exercise its redemption right, the number of the holder's Preferred Units to be redeemed, the date and time of such redemption (the "Preferred Optional Redemption Date") and the Preferred Redemption Price on the Preferred Optional Redemption Date, which shall not be sooner than ten (10) Business Days after the delivery of such notice; provided that, if the Company delivers such a notice to holders of Preferred Units, any such holder may, at any time prior to the applicable Preferred Optional Redemption Date, in lieu of such Preferred Units being redeemed, elect to convert such Preferred Units held by such holder into Common Units pursuant to and in accordance with Section 4.3(d)(i).

(ii) In the event the Company effects a Qualified Financing within 12 months of the date of effecting any Optional Preferred Redemption of any Senior Preferred Units, the Company shall (unless otherwise consented to in writing in advance by holders of 100% of the Senior Preferred Units), concurrently with the consummation of such Qualified Financing, pay (or cause to be paid) to each holder of a Senior Preferred Unit previously redeemed pursuant to an Optional Preferred Redemption during such 12-month period an amount, in cash, in respect of such optionally redeemed Senior Preferred Unit, equal to the excess (if any) of (A) the then-applicable Conversion Price (subject to clause (1) of the proviso to the second sentence of Section 4.3(d)(iii)) as of the date of such Qualified Financing (assuming that such optionally redeemed Senior Preferred Unit was outstanding on the date of such QF) over (B) the Preferred Redemption Price already paid to such holder in respect thereof.

(f) Senior Preferred Mandatory Redemption. Upon the occurrence of a Senior Preferred Mandatory Redemption Event, (i) all Senior Preferred Units will automatically be deemed to be converted to Common Units at the applicable Conversion Price, and all such Common Units will thereupon immediately be redeemed for cash at the applicable Conversion Price as of the Senior Preferred Mandatory Redemption Date, and (ii) at the option of the holder of any Warrants, such holder's Warrants will be deemed exercised for Common Units and each such Common Unit will be redeemed for cash at the applicable Conversion Price as of the Senior Preferred Mandatory Redemption Date; provided, however, that (A) the amount paid with respect to the Senior Preferred Units in the aggregate shall not be less than the Minimum MOIC, and (B) in determining whether the Minimum MOIC has been satisfied, the holders of Senior Preferred Units shall be deemed to have received in the aggregate the amount equal to the sum of (1) the aggregate amount payable pursuant to the preceding clause (i), plus (2) the aggregate amount payable pursuant to the preceding clause (ii) as if all holders of Warrants had exercised their warrants in full and all Common Units received upon exercise thereof had been redeemed in full as set forth in such clause (ii) and all such amounts had been paid solely to the Senior Preferred Members.

(g) The Company and each Member agrees (i) that the Preferred Units constitute an equity interest in a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and (ii) not to file any Tax return, report or declaration inconsistent with the foregoing except as required due to a "determination" within the meaning of Section 1313(a) of the Code.

(h) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, no Preferred Member shall be required to fund additional capital to the Company.

Section 4.4. Members. The name and mailing address of each Member, the number of Common Units, Preferred Units, Warrants and Management Incentive Units owned by such Member and the Member's respective Percentage Interests as in effect from time to time shall be listed on Schedule A. The Secretary or other designated Officer shall be required to update Schedule A from time to time as necessary to reflect accurately any changes in address, the number of Common Units, Preferred Units, Warrants and Management Incentive Units held and the Percentage Interests of the Members and such updated Schedule A shall be provided to each Member on such Schedule A promptly after any such amendment. Any amendment of Schedule A made to reflect an action taken in accordance with this Agreement shall not be deemed an amendment to this Agreement. Any reference in this Agreement to Schedule A shall be deemed to be a reference to Schedule A as amended and in effect from time to time. No Person other than the Members listed on Schedule A as of the date hereof shall be deemed a Member of the Company hereunder or under the Delaware Act, whether or not such Person holds any Units, unless approved as such pursuant to the provisions of Article XII or XIV or added pursuant to Section 2.1(b).

Section 4.5. Powers of Members. The Members shall have the power to exercise any and all rights or powers granted to the Members pursuant to the express terms of this Agreement, including Section 4.14. Members shall not have the authority to bind the Company by virtue of their status as Members. Subject to Section 12.10, no Member shall have any right, power or duty, including the right to approve or vote on any matter, except as expressly required by this Agreement, the Delaware Act or other applicable law.

Section 4.6. Member's Interest. A Member's Interest shall for all purposes be personal property. No Member (or other holder of an Interest) shall have any interest in specific Company assets or property, including any assets or property contributed to the Company by such Member as part of any Capital Contribution.

Section 4.7. Partition. Each Member waives any and all rights that it may have to maintain an action for partition of the Company's property.

Section 4.8. Cessation of Membership. A Member shall cease to be a Member at the time such Member ceases to own any Interests in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

Section 4.9. Member Meetings. Meetings of Members for such business as may be stated in the notice of the meeting, may be held at such date, time and place as is determined by the Board; provided, however, that to the extent any class of Preferred Members have a right to vote on matters at such meeting, notice of such meeting and of its purpose shall have been given to such Preferred Members in writing by facsimile, electronic mail or any other means of written communication at least two (2) Business Days prior to the date of such meeting unless such prior notice is waived in writing by Preferred Members holding a majority of the applicable class of Preferred Units outstanding.

Section 4.10. Voting. Each Member and holder of a Warrant entitled to vote in accordance with the terms of this Agreement may vote in person or by proxy. Except as may be otherwise provided in the Delaware Act, the Members and holders of Warrants shall be entitled to vote only on the matters expressly set forth herein and shall only be entitled to the other rights expressly set forth herein. Unless otherwise provided for by this Agreement, all matters to be decided by the Members and holders of Warrants shall be decided by the affirmative vote (or consent in writing) of Members and holders of Warrants representing at least a majority of the total Percentage Interests in the Company; provided, however, that the affirmative vote (or consent in writing) of Members holding at least a majority of the then outstanding (i) Senior Preferred Units shall be required with respect to any matter set forth in Section 4.14(a) and (ii) Junior Preferred Units shall be required with respect to any matter set forth in Section 4.14(b). For the avoidance of doubt, (a) the holders of Preferred Units shall be entitled to vote with respect to such Preferred Units on an as-converted basis, (b) the holders of Warrants shall be entitled to vote with respect to such Warrants on an as-exercised basis, and (c) the holders of Management Incentive Units that are not Vested Management Incentive Units will have no voting rights with respect to such Units.

Section 4.11. Quorum. Except as otherwise required by law or with respect to any matter set forth in Section 4.14, the presence, in person or by proxy, of Members and holders of Warrants representing at least a majority of the total Percentage Interests in the Company shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the Members and holders of Warrants. In case a quorum shall not be present at any meeting, Members and holders of Warrants holding a majority of the Percentage Interests held by Members and holders of Warrants represented thereat, in person or by proxy, shall have the power to adjourn the meeting and call a new meeting in accordance with Section 4.9. For the avoidance of doubt, Preferred Units shall be taken into consideration (on an as-converted basis) and Warrants shall be taken into consideration (on an as-exercised basis) for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at any meeting of Members. For the avoidance of doubt, Management Incentive Units that are not Vested Management Incentive Units shall not be taken into consideration for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at any meeting of Members.

Section 4.12. Notice of Meetings. Subject to Section 4.9, written notice, stating the place, date and time of the meeting, shall be given to each Member, at such Member's address as it appears on the records of the Company, not less than ten (10) Business Days before the date of the meeting (except that notice to any Member may be waived in writing by such Member).

Section 4.13. Action Without a Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any annual or special meeting of Members may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by Members holding the amount of Percentage Interests as otherwise would be required to take such action at a meeting, notice of such action shall be given to those Members who have not so consented in writing to such action without a meeting and such written consent is filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Members.

Section 4.14. Preferred Members Consent Rights.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, so long as there are any Senior Preferred Units outstanding, the Company shall not, and shall cause its Subsidiaries not to (directly or indirectly), without the approval (directly or by proxy) by vote or written consent of holders of at least a majority of the Senior Preferred Units:

(i) create, incur, guarantee or assume any Indebtedness in excess of $25,000,000 in the aggregate for the Company and its Subsidiaries, other than (A) any Indebtedness or guarantees secured or backed by assets of the Company or its Subsidiaries and incurred in the ordinary course of business, (B) Loan Securitizations or (C) Warehouse Facilities (for the avoidance of doubt, any Permitted Indebtedness that is not expressly included as an exception in clauses (A), (B) and (C) above shall be subject to the foregoing approval or written consent requirement);

(ii) issue any Preferred Units or other Company Securities that would rank senior to, or pari passu with, the Senior Preferred Units or redeem, repurchase or otherwise acquire any Company Securities, or declare or make distributions in respect of any Company Securities (other than: (A) Distributions on the Senior Preferred Units or paid-in-kind dividends or distributions on the Junior Preferred Units; (B) redemptions of the Senior Preferred Units contemplated hereby; (C) redemptions or repurchases of Common Units or Management Incentive Units issued prior to the date hereof using proceeds from any offering after the date hereof (including from the Subsequent Offering) in an amount in the aggregate not to exceed $50,000,000; provided that any redemptions or repurchases made pursuant to clause (G) of this paragraph shall concurrently reduce the amount available for redemptions or repurchases under this clause (C); (D) redemptions of Management Incentive Units pursuant to the applicable Company plan and/or agreements governing such Management Incentive Units; (E) issuances of Company Securities, the proceeds of which are used to redeem Senior Preferred Units in accordance with Section 4.3(e) if such redemption is a redemption in whole of the Senior Preferred Units); (F) issuances

of equity by the Company or a Subsidiary of the Company to a wholly-owned direct or indirect subsidiary of the Company); or (G) redemptions or repurchases of Common Units or Management Incentive Units that are, directly or indirectly, owned by Daniel Chu (beneficially or of record) using proceeds from the Subsequent Offering or any other offering after the date hereof for consideration not to exceed $10,000,000 in the aggregate for all such redemptions and repurchases);

(iii) consummate any acquisition, investment, disposition or joint venture transaction (including any Subsidiary equity sale) that would (A) constitute a Senior Preferred Mandatory Redemption Event in which the Senior Preferred Units are not redeemed in accordance with Section 4.3(f), or (B) either alone or in the aggregate with other such transactions would exceed $20,000,000 during the period between September 2, 2021 and the date of such transaction (unless the proceeds of the applicable transaction are used to redeem Senior Preferred Units in accordance with Section 4.3(e) if such redemption is a redemption in whole of the Senior Preferred Units);

(iv) increase or decrease the number of Managers that constitute the Board, except as provided in Section 5.1(c);

(v) amend any of the Governing Documents of the Company or its Subsidiaries (including this Agreement) to the extent such amendment would be adverse to the rights, preferences or privileges of the Senior Preferred Units (for the avoidance of doubt, amendments to Schedule A to reflect the Subsequent Offering shall not be deemed to be adverse);

(vi) initiate any Liquidation Event, Senior Preferred Mandatory Redemption Event or Qualified Financing that would not satisfy the Minimum MOIC;

(vii) discharge any liability on behalf of, or undertake any transactions with, any Related Party, except for (i) transactions in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, or (ii) transactions approved in writing by disinterested members of the Board, in each case upon fair and reasonable terms that are no less favorable to the Company than would be obtained in an arm's length transaction with a non-affiliate; provided, however, that no such transaction or series of transactions of the type contemplated in clause (i) above shall be for a value in excess of $500,000 in the aggregate in any Fiscal Year (excluding, for purposes of this proviso, reimbursements of business expenses in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice and any Related Party transactions otherwise expressly permitted in this Agreement);

(viii) effectuate any Corporate Conversion or enter into any other transaction that would trigger an obligation for any Senior Preferred Member (or Affiliate thereof) to make any filing under the HSR Act;

(ix) permit any Subsidiary to pay any dividend or make any other distribution (in cash or other property) or to pay (in cash or other property) on account of or in redemption or other acquisition of any security of any Subsidiary, other than to the Company or a wholly owned Subsidiary of the Company; provided, however, that this clause shall not restrict any Subsidiary from paying a dividend or making a distribution (on behalf of the Company) that otherwise would be expressly permitted to be paid or made directly by the Company pursuant to this Agreement to any Member, to the extent and in satisfaction of an existing obligation of the Company to such Member; or

(x) authorize or issue any securities of a Subsidiary to any Person other than the Company or a wholly owned Subsidiary of the Company.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, so long as there are any Junior Preferred Units outstanding, the Company shall not, and shall cause its Subsidiaries not to (directly or indirectly), without the approval (directly or by proxy) by vote or written consent of holders of at least a majority of the Junior Preferred Units:

(i) amend any of the Governing Documents of the Company or its Subsidiaries (including this Agreement) to the extent such amendment would be adverse to the rights, preferences or privileges of the Junior Preferred Units (for the avoidance of doubt, amendments to Schedule A to reflect the Subsequent Offering shall not be deemed to be adverse); or

(ii) increase or decrease the number of Junior Preferred Securities (other than as a result of an adjustment required by this Agreement or pursuant to the issuance of Junior Preferred Units in the Subsequent Offering).

(c) The Company shall provide the holders of Preferred Units prompt written notice if the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company (including a significant Subsidiary for which such event constitutes a Bankruptcy Event) (i) becomes the subject of any bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding, (ii) has had a receiver, conservator, trustee, administrator, custodian, assignee for the benefit of creditors or similar Person charged with the reorganization or liquidation of its business appointed for it, or (iii) has taken any action in furtherance of, or indicating its consent to, approval of, or acquiescence in, any such proceeding or appointment.

(d) The Company agrees with the Senior Preferred Members that it shall comply with the provisions of Annex A. For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 4.14(d) and the matters set forth in Annex A are for the benefit of, and only enforceable by, the Senior Preferred Members.

ARTICLE V
MANAGEMENT

Section 5.1. Board of Managers.

(a) The business and affairs of the Company shall be managed by or under the direction of a Board of Managers (the "Board"). Subject to Section 5.1(c), the Board shall be made up of eight members (each a "Manager"), (i) one of which shall be designated by Ganas Investors ("Ganas Manager") for so long as Ganas Investors remains a Member, (ii) two of which shall be designated by Members holding a majority of the Senior Preferred Units ("Senior Preferred Managers"), and (iii) the remaining Managers shall be designated by holders of at least a majority of the total Percentage Interests in the Company; provided, however, one such Manager shall be a Person who is not employed by or consultants to the Company or Ganas Investors or any of their respective Affiliates and who do not serve on the boards or other governing bodies of Ganas Investors or any of its Affiliates. The mailing address of the Person designated as a Manager is set forth in Schedule 5.1 attached hereto.

(b) Each Manager shall hold office (i) until his or her successor is designated by (A) with respect to the Ganas Manager or the Senior Preferred Managers, the nominating Member or Members of such Manager and (B) with respect to any other Manager, holders of at least a majority of the total Percentage Interests in the Company or (ii) until such Manager's earlier death, resignation or removal. Any Manager may be removed, with or without cause, and replaced at any time only by (1) with respect to the Ganas Manager or the Senior Preferred Managers, the nominating Member or Members of such Manager and (2) with respect to any other Manager, holders of at least a majority of the total Percentage Interests in the Company. Managers need not be Members.

(c) In the case of (i) a breach by the Company of any of Sections 4.14(a)(i)-(vi) (inclusive) that the Company fails to cure within 20 Business Days of receipt of written notification of such breach, (ii) following delivery of a Sale Notice, a failure to satisfy clause (i) or (ii) of the definition of Sale Demand Failure, (iii) the occurrence of a Bankruptcy Event, or (iv) a breach of the next sentence of this Section 5.1(c), the number of Managers constituting the Board will be automatically increased by such number to cause designees of the holders of a majority of the Senior Preferred Units then outstanding to constitute the majority of the Managers constituting the Board (each, a "Senior Preferred Board Majority Trigger"); provided, however, that immediately at such time as the event or matter giving rise to the Senior Preferred Board Majority Trigger has been cured, remedied or ceases to exist (including after any applicable cure period set forth above), the number of Managers constituting the Board shall be automatically be reduced to the number of Managers that constituted the Board prior to giving effect to the Senior Preferred Board Majority Trigger and the Managers appointed following such Senior Preferred Board Majority Trigger (including any of their successors) shall automatically be removed from the Board. Promptly (but in any event within five (5) Business Days) upon any officer of the Company or any Subsidiary becoming aware of any event or matter giving rise a Senior Preferred Board Majority Trigger, the Company shall give written notice thereof to the Senior Preferred Members.

Section 5.2. Powers. The Board shall have the power to do any and all acts necessary, convenient or incidental to or for the furtherance of the purposes described herein, including all powers, statutory or otherwise.

Section 5.3. Meetings of the Board. The Board may hold meetings, both regular and special, within or outside the State of Delaware. Except as provided in this paragraph, regular meetings of the Board may be held at such time and at such place as shall from time to time be determined by the Board; provided, however, subject to Section 5.4, notice of such meeting and of its purpose shall have been given to each Manager, and such notice must be given in writing by facsimile, electronic mail or any other means of written communication at least one (1) Business Day prior to the date of such meeting unless such prior notice is waived in writing by the applicable Manager. Special meetings of the Board may be called by the Chief Executive Officer, the Chairman or the President at any time. The Chief Executive Officer, the Chairman, the President or the Secretary shall call a special meeting of the Board upon the written request of any Manager. A special meeting shall be held at such time and place as may be designated by the person or persons calling the meeting. The person or persons calling such special meeting shall cause such notice of the meeting and of its purpose to be given to each Manager, and such notice must be given in writing by facsimile, electronic mail or any other means of written communication at least one (1) Business Day prior to the date of such meeting unless such prior notice is waived in writing by the applicable Manager.

Section 5.4. Quorum; Acts of the Board.

(a) Subject to the provisions of the third sentence of this Section 5.4(a), at all meetings of the Board, a majority of the Managers then in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the act of a majority of the Managers (with each Manager having the right to exercise one vote) shall be the act of the Board; provided, however, that there shall not be a quorum unless at least one Senior Preferred Manager is present at such meeting; provided further, however, that, notwithstanding the foregoing proviso, if a quorum is not present at any meeting of the Board due solely to the absence of a Senior Preferred Manager, then the Board may, in accordance with the next sentence, adjourn the meeting and call a new meeting to be no held no earlier than one (1) Business Day following such adjourned meeting and at such new meeting, a majority of the Managers then in office shall constitute a quorum, whether or not any Senior Preferred Manager is present. Except as set forth in the preceding sentence, if a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of the Board, the Managers present at such meeting may adjourn the meeting and call a new meeting in accordance with Section 5.3. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting upon unanimous written consent thereto in writing; provided, however, that if a proposed action by written consent is delivered to the Board or applicable committee thereof and the Senior Preferred Managers thereto do not consent in writing for any reason within 24 hours thereafter, the Board may call a meeting for the approval of such action to be held at least 24 hours after the expiration of the initial 24 hour consent period, which meeting shall not require that a Senior Preferred Manager is present to establish quorum; provided, further, that if the Senior Preferred Managers affirmatively indicate they will not sign such written consent, the Board may call a meeting for the approval of such action immediately or at any other time, with no restrictions on timing, which meeting shall not require that a Senior Preferred Manager is present to establish quorum. All written consents will be filed with the books and records of the Company.

(b) Except as otherwise set forth herein, the approval of the Board shall be required for all matters required by law and not otherwise in the ordinary course of business or expressly delegated by the Board to Officers or other authorized Persons.

Section 5.5. Electronic Communications. Members of the Board, or any committee designated by the Board, may participate in meetings of the Board, or any committee, by means of telephone or video conference or similar communications equipment that allows all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other, and such participation in a meeting shall constitute presence in person at the meeting. If all the participants are participating by telephone or video conference or similar communications equipment, the meeting shall be deemed to be held at the principal place of business of the Company.

Section 5.6. Vacancies. Any vacancy caused by the death, removal or resignation of any Manager shall be filled by (a) with respect to the death, removal or resignation of the Ganas Manager or the Senior Preferred Managers, the nominating Member or Members of such Manager, and (b) with respect to the death, removal or resignation of any other Manager, holders of at least a majority of the total Percentage Interests in the Company. Any Manager so designated shall hold office until his or her successor is designated or until such Manager's earlier death, resignation or removal.

Section 5.7. Committees of Managers.

(a) The Board may designate one or more committees, each committee to consist of two or more of the Managers of the Company. The Board may designate one or more Managers as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of the committee. All Managers appointed by the Board to any committee shall serve at the pleasure of the Board, and may be removed from such committee, with or without cause, by the Board. All committees designated by the Board may be dissolved by the Board. Each committee shall at all times include as closely as practicable a proportionate number of Senior Preferred Managers (based on the number of Senior Preferred Managers relative to the total number of Managers constituting the Board), and in any event shall always include at least one Senior Preferred Manager.

(b) In the absence or disqualification of a member of a committee, subject to the last sentence of Section 5.7(a), the Board may appoint another member of the Board to fill any committee vacancy or act at the meeting in the place of any such absent or disqualified member.

(c) Any such committee, to the extent provided by resolution of the Board, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board in the management of the business and affairs of the Company. Such committee or committees shall have such name or names as may be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the Board. Each committee shall keep regular minutes of its meetings and report the same to the Board when required. Unless otherwise directed by the Board, all committees shall determine their own organization, procedures and times and places of meetings; provided, however, notice of any meeting and of its purpose shall have been given to each Manager on such committee, and such notice must be given in writing by facsimile, electronic mail or any other means of written communication at least one (1) Business Day prior to the date of such meeting unless such prior notice is waived in writing by the applicable Manager.

(d) The Board may appoint from among its members an Executive Committee which, except as specifically limited by the Board, shall have all the powers and may exercise all the authority of the Board during the intervals between meetings of the Board subject to the terms and limitations of Section 5.7(a), Section 5.7(b), and Section 5.7(c). All acts done and powers conferred by the Executive Committee shall be deemed to be, and may be certified as being, done or conferred under the authority of the Board.

Section 5.8. Compensation of Managers; Expenses. Each Manager who does not receive a salary from the Company or any Affiliate thereof shall be entitled to such compensation as the Board shall determine for his or her service upon the Board and any of its committees, for his or her attendance at meetings of the Board and any of its committees and for his or her expenses incident thereto; provided, however, the Senior Preferred Managers and the Senior Preferred Observers shall be entitled to such reimbursements of his or her fees and expenses as set forth in Section 11.5. No such payment shall preclude any Manager from serving the Company or any Affiliate thereof in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor. Managers shall be entitled to such compensation, as the Board shall determine, for services rendered to the Company or any Affiliate thereof in any capacity other than as Managers.

Section 5.9. Resignation of Managers. Any Manager may resign from the Board by submitting his or her resignation in writing to the Chief Executive Officer, the Chairman, the President or the Secretary, with a copy to the other Managers. Such resignation shall become effective upon its submission or at any later time specified in such resignation.

Section 5.10. Managers Not Agents. Except as specifically provided in this Agreement, no Manager shall have the authority to bind the Company in his or her individual capacity. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, any and all actions of the Board must be taken at a duly authorized meeting of the Board or upon a unanimous written consent of the Managers in accordance with Section 5.4(a).

Section 5.11. Other Activities. Members of the Board and the Members (but excluding any Member or Manager that is an Officer or an employee of the Company and excluding their respective Affiliates) may engage or invest in, and devote their time to, any other business venture or activity of any nature and description (independently or with others), whether or not such other activity may be deemed or construed to be in competition with the Company. Neither the Company nor any Member shall have any right by virtue of this Agreement or the relationship created hereby in or to such other venture or activity of members of the Board or any other Member (or to the income or proceeds derived therefrom), and the pursuit thereof, shall not be deemed wrongful or improper, except for ventures or activities of any Member or Manager that is an Officer or an employee of the Company and of their respective Affiliates. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board shall devote such time to the Company as is reasonably necessary for the proper performance of its obligations and duties hereunder. The obligations of any employee member of the Board set forth in his or her employment agreement shall be in addition to and not in limitation or replacement of the foregoing obligations.

Section 5.12. Officers. The Officers of the Company shall be chosen by the Board or such other Person as delegated such responsibility by the Board or as otherwise provided herein. Any number of offices may be held by the same person. Each Officer shall hold office until his or her successor is elected and qualified or until such Officer's earlier resignation or removal. Any Officer may resign at any time by submitting his or her resignation in writing to the Chief Executive Officer, the Chairman, the President or the Secretary. The Board shall fix the compensation of the Officers as the Board may deem appropriate, and it may award additional compensation to any Officer, agent or employee of the Company for any year or years based upon the performance of that person during any such period, the success of the operations of the Company thereof during any such period or any other reason deemed appropriate. Unless the Board shall otherwise direct, the Chief Executive Officer or his delegate shall fix the compensation of all other Officers, agents or employees of the Company. Any Officer, agent or employee elected or appointed by the Board may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Board. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the Company shall be filled by the Board or such other Person as delegated such responsibility by the Board.

Section 5.13. Chief Executive Officer. The Board shall appoint a Chief Executive Officer. He or she shall be the chief executive officer of the Company and shall have general executive powers concerning all the operations and business of the Company. Subject to Section 5.4, the Chief Executive Officer shall have and exercise such further powers and duties as may be conferred upon, or assigned to, him or her by the Board, and he or she may delegate to any other Officer such executive and other powers and duties as he or she deems advisable. In the event of the absence or disability of the Chief Executive Officer, any other Officer of the Company designated by the Board shall exercise all other powers and authority of the Chief Executive Officer.

Section 5.14. Chairman. The Board shall appoint one of its members to be Chairman. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Board. In the event of the absence or disability of the Chairman, any other Manager designated by the Board shall preside at all meetings of the Board and shall exercise all other powers and authority of the Chairman. Subject to Section 5.4, the Chairman shall have such further powers and duties as may be conferred upon, or assigned to, him or her by the Board. Unless otherwise specified, the Chairman shall not be considered an employee of the Company.

Section 5.15. President. The Board shall appoint a President. Subject to Section 5.4, the President shall have such powers and duties as may be conferred upon, or assigned to, him or her by the Board or the Chief Executive Officer.

Section 5.16. Senior Officers. The Board may appoint one or more senior Officers of the Company, any of whom may be designated as Vice Chairmen or as executive, senior, group or administrative vice presidents or given any other descriptive titles. Subject to Section 5.4, each senior Officer shall have and exercise such powers and duties as may be conferred upon, or assigned to, him or her by the Board or the Chief Executive Officer.

Section 5.17. Secretary; Assistant Secretaries. The Board shall appoint a Secretary. The Secretary shall act as secretary of all meetings of the Board, the Executive Committee and any other committee of the Board, and he or she shall keep minutes of all such meetings. He or she shall give such notice of the meetings as is required by this Agreement. He or she shall be the custodian of the minute book and all other general company records. He or she shall be the custodian of the Company seal, if any, and shall have the power to affix and attest the same, and he or she may delegate such power to one or more Officers, employees or agents of the Company. He or she shall have and exercise such further powers and duties as may be conferred upon, or assigned to, him or her by the Board or the Chief Executive Officer. The Board or the Chief Executive Officer may appoint one or more Assistant Secretaries who shall assist the Secretary in the performance of his or her duties. At the direction of the Secretary or in the event of his or her absence or disability, an Assistant Secretary shall perform the duties of the Secretary. Subject to Section 5.4, each Assistant Secretary shall have and exercise such further powers and duties as may be conferred upon, or assigned to, him or her by the Board, the Chief Executive Officer or the Secretary.

Section 5.18. Treasurer; Assistant Treasurers. The Board shall appoint a Treasurer. Subject to Section 5.4, the Treasurer shall have and exercise such powers and duties as may be conferred upon, or assigned to, him or her by the Board or the Chief Executive Officer. The Board or the Chief Executive Officer may appoint one or more Assistant Treasurers who shall assist the Treasurer in the performance of his or her duties. At the direction of the Treasurer or in the event of his or her absence or disability, an Assistant Treasurer shall perform the duties of the Treasurer. Subject to Section 5.4, each Assistant Treasurer shall have and exercise such further powers and duties as may be conferred upon, or assigned to, him by the Board, the Chief Executive Officer or the Treasurer.

Section 5.19. Other Officers. The Board, or its delegate, may appoint or hire such additional Officers of the Company, who may be designated as vice chairman, vice presidents, assistant vice presidents, officers, assistant officers, or given any other descriptive titles, and may hire such additional employees as it, he or she may deem necessary or desirable to transact the business of the Company, and the Board or such delegate may establish the conditions of employment of any of the persons mentioned above and may fix their compensation and dismiss them. Subject to Section 5.4, such persons shall, respectively, have and exercise such powers and duties as pertain to their several offices or as may be conferred upon, or assigned to, them by the appropriate appointing authority. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no person appointed pursuant to this Section 5.19 shall be deemed an "Officer" for purposes of this Agreement unless such designation is specifically referenced at the time such person is appointed or hired.

Section 5.20. Officers as Agents; Acts of Officers.

(a) The Officers, to the extent of their powers set forth in this Agreement or otherwise vested in them by action of the Board not inconsistent with this Agreement (including Section 4.14 and Section 5.4), are agents of the Company for the purpose of the Company's business and the actions of the Officers taken in accordance with such powers shall bind the Company.

(b) Subject to the provisions of Annex A and Section 4.14, the Officers shall have the express authority to make the following decisions or take the following acts on behalf of the Company or any of its direct or indirect subsidiaries without the prior approval of the Board:

(i) obligate or cause such entity to enter into, amend or modify any credit facility or otherwise incur any indebtedness for borrowed money (or increase the maximum amount that may be borrowed under any existing credit facility) that, combined with the amount of all other credit facilities or indebtedness for borrowed money entered into, amended or modified during the calendar year for which Board approval was not otherwise obtained do not exceed $625,000 in any year or result in aggregate indebtedness of more than $1,500,000, provided that the borrowing of funds under committed lines of credit approved by the Board to fund the working capital needs of the Company or to fund expenditures authorized in any applicable annual operating budget shall not count toward such dollar limitation and provided further that the borrowing of funds under existing debt facilities that were previously approved by the Board shall not require approval of the Board if such debt continues to constitute Permitted Indebtedness;

(ii) cause such entity to make or enter into any transaction or series of related transactions for the acquisition and/or disposition of assets or property or the expansion of existing assets or properties that involves a total purchase price or cost that, combined with the purchase price or cost of all other acquisitions

and/or dispositions during the calendar year for which approval of the Board was not otherwise obtained are less than or equal to $1,750,000 in aggregate;

(iii) engage attorneys, accountants, brokers, agents and advisors for all corporate purposes (in consultation with the Board if the transaction for which such professional is being engaged requires Board approval);

(iv) obtain insurance (other than D&O Insurance) of the types and in amounts that are prudent and customary relative to such entity's assets and operations;

(v) control matters affecting the rights and obligations of such entity, including the conduct of any litigation or arbitration proceedings and incurring of legal expenses and the settlement of claims, arbitration proceedings and litigation (with settlement of any litigation or arbitration proceeding which requires the payment by such Company entity of an amount in excess of $625,000 requiring approval of the Board);

(vi) obligate or cause such entity to open, maintain and close banking and custodial accounts;

(vii) represent any of such entities before any Governmental Authority or regulatory agency and to make all necessary or appropriate filings before such authority or agency;

(viii) obligate or cause such entity to approve, enter into or amend contracts that do not otherwise require approval of the Board; and

(ix) take any actions in the ordinary course of business and such other actions as deemed by the Chief Executive Officer or any other Officer of the Company to be necessary and advisable to carry out the affairs of such entities described in clauses (i) through (viii) above, in any case except to the extent any such actions require the approval of the Board as set forth in this Article V or pursuant to relevant provisions of Delaware law.

Section 5.21. Board Observer. The Members agree that the Members holding a majority of the Senior Preferred Units, collectively, shall have the right to appoint two observers (the "Senior Preferred Observers") to the Board or similar governing body, and any committees of the Board or similar governing body, of the Company and of any Subsidiary. The Senior Preferred Observers shall be entitled to attend (or at the option of the Senior Preferred Observers, monitor by telephone or other electronic meeting method) or, in the case of meeting held telephonically or by other electronic meeting method, join, each meeting of such board or committee, but shall not be entitled to vote on, or consent to or otherwise approve any activity or policy taken or adopted at such meeting and the Company or Subsidiary shall not be under any obligation any obligation to take any action with respect to any proposals made or advice furnished by any Senior

Preferred Observer. The Senior Preferred Observers shall receive all reports, meeting materials, notices, written consents, and other materials, including consents in lieu of meetings as and when provided to the members of the Board, or committees of the Board, of the Company and the board of directors or similar governing body, or committees of the board of directors or similar governing body, of any Subsidiary.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Senior Preferred Observers may be excluded from any portion of any such meeting or from receiving any portion of board or committee materials to the extent (a) reasonably necessary to preserve legal privilege, or (b) relating to an actual or potential transaction with respect which any Senior Preferred Manager has recused himself or herself from such meeting on the basis of an actual or potential conflict of interest in connection therewith (it being understood that if a Senior Preferred Observer's right to attend a meeting of the Board, or any committee of the Board, of the Company or the board of directors or similar governing body, or any committee of the board of directors or similar governing body, of any Subsidiary is limited pursuant to this provision, such entity shall, to the extent practicable, notify the Senior Preferred Members of such limitation sufficiently in advance to avoid unnecessary travel to such meeting by such Senior Preferred Observer).

For the avoidance of doubt, in no event shall the Senior Preferred Observers have any fiduciary duties or be considered or deemed to be a director of the Company or any Subsidiary or be required to be present for the purposes of a quorum. The Company shall reimburse the Senior Preferred Observers for the reasonable and documented out-of-pocket travel expenses incurred by the Senior Preferred Observers in connection with the attendance at, or participation in, meetings attended in person by the Senior Preferred Observers. The Senior Preferred Observers, in their capacities as observers to the Board or similar governing body of the Company or any Subsidiary, shall have a duty of confidentiality to the Company and any such Subsidiaries comparable to the duty of confidentiality of any member of the Board or similar governing body of the Company or such Subsidiary.

ARTICLE VI
CAPITAL ACCOUNTS

Section 6.1. Capital Contributions.

(a) Prior to the date of the Original Limited Liability Company Agreement, the Original Member made the Capital Contribution to the Company required to be made by it under the terms of the Original Limited Liability Company Agreement. On September 2, 2021, the Senior Preferred Members made the Capital Contributions to the Company required to be made by them under the terms of the Existing Limited Liability Company Agreement. As of the Effective Date or the applicable date on which a Junior Preferred Member purchases Junior Preferred Units, each other Member made or will make the Capital Contributions in cash or other consideration to the Company set forth opposite its name on Schedule A under the column "Capital Contributions" (each, a "Member Capital Contribution" and collectively, the "Member Capital Contributions"), which Schedule A shall be updated after the Subsequent Offering.

(b) The number of Common Units, Preferred Units, Management Incentive Units and the Percentage Interests of each Member following the Member Capital Contributions is set forth on Schedule A.

Section 6.2. Status of Capital Contributions.

(a) No Member shall receive any interest, salary or drawing with respect to its Capital Contributions or its Capital Account or otherwise in its capacity as a Member, except as otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement with respect to allocations and Distributions.

(b) Except as otherwise expressly provided herein and by the Delaware Act, the Members shall be liable only to make their Member Capital Contributions pursuant to Section 6.1, and no Member shall be required to make any additional Capital Contributions to the Company. Other than as provided herein or under the Delaware Act, no Member shall have any personal liability for the payment of any Capital Contribution of any other Member.

Section 6.3. Capital Accounts.

(a) An individual Capital Account shall be established and maintained for each Member.

(b) The Capital Account of each Member shall be maintained in accordance with the following provisions:

(i) To each Member's Capital Account there shall be credited (A) the amount of money contributed by that Member to the Company, (B) the gross Fair Market Value of property contributed by that Member to the Company (net of liabilities secured by the contributed property that the Company is considered to assume or take subject to under Section 752 of the Code), (C) the amount of any item of income or gain allocated to such Member under Section 7.1, and (D) in the case of a Member receiving an Interest described in Proposed Treasury Regulation Section 1.721-1(b)(3), or any successor provision, the amount included in the Member's compensation income under Section 83(a), 83(b) or 83(d)(2) of the Code;

(ii) To each Member's Capital Account there shall be debited (A) the amount of money distributed to that Member by the Company, (B) the gross Fair Market Value of property distributed to that Member by the Company (net of liabilities secured by the distributed property that the Member is considered to assume or take subject to under Section 752 of the Code), and (C) the amount of any deduction or loss allocated to such Member under Section 7.1.

(c) On the transfer of all or part of a Member's Units, the Capital Account of the transferor that is attributable to the transferred Interest shall carry over to the transferee Member in accordance with the provisions of Treasury Regulation Section 1.704- 1(b)(2)(iv)(l).

(d) In determining the amount of any liability for purposes of paragraphs (b)(i) and (b)(ii) of this Section 6.3, there shall be taken into account Section 752(c) of the Code and any other applicable provisions of the Code and Treasury Regulations.

(e) The foregoing provisions and other provisions of this Agreement relating to the maintenance of Capital Accounts are intended to comply with Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-1(b) and shall be interpreted and applied in a manner consistent with such Treasury Regulations. In the event the Board shall determine that it is prudent to modify the manner in which the Capital Accounts, or any debits or credits thereto (including, without limitation, debits or credits relating to liabilities that are secured by contributed or distributed property or that are assumed by the Company or any of its Members), are computed in order to comply with such Treasury Regulations, the Board may make modifications, provided that such modifications shall be made in a manner that does not alter any Member's right to Distributions pursuant to Article VIII or Article XIII.

Section 6.4. Advances. If any Member shall (subject, for the avoidance of doubt, to Section 4.14) advance any funds to the Company in excess of its Capital Contributions, the amount of such advance shall neither increase its Capital Account nor entitle it to any increase in its share of the Distributions of the Company. The amount of any such advance shall be a debt obligation of the Company to such Member and shall be repaid to it by the Company with such interest rate, conditions and terms as mutually agreed upon by such Member and the Board. Any such advance shall be payable and collectible only out of Company assets, and the other Members shall not be personally obligated to repay any part thereof. No Person who makes any loan to the Company shall have or acquire, as a result of making such loan, any direct or indirect interest in the profits, capital or property of the Company, other than as a creditor.

Section 6.5. Management Incentive Units.

(a) From time to time, the Board shall have the power and discretion to approve (i) the issuance of Units (all such units, "Management Incentive Units" and any such Units, a "Management Incentive Unit") to any Manager, director, employee, Officer, consultant or other service provider of the Company or any of its direct or indirect subsidiaries (each such person, a "Management Member"), (ii) which Management Members shall be offered and issued Management Incentive Units, (iii) the number of Management Incentive Units to be offered and issued to each Management Member and (iv) the purchase price and other terms and conditions with respect thereto. In connection with any approved issuance of Management Incentive Units to a Management Member hereunder, such Management Member, if not a Member on the date of such issuance, shall execute a counterpart to this Agreement, accepting and agreeing to be bound by all terms and conditions hereof, and shall enter into such other documents and instruments to effect such purchase (including a Management Incentive Unit Agreement) as are required by the Board.

(b) The provisions of this Section 6.5 are designed to provide incentives to Managers, directors, employees, Officers or consultants of the Company or its direct or indirect subsidiaries. This Section 6.5, together with the other terms of this Agreement and the Management Incentive Unit Agreements relating to Management Incentive Units, are intended to be a compensatory benefit plan within the meaning of Rule 701 of the Securities Act, and, unless and until the Company's Interests are publicly traded, the issuance of Management Incentive Units are, to the extent permitted by applicable federal securities laws, intended to qualify for the exemption from registration under Rule 701 of the Securities Act.

(c) On the date of each grant of Management Incentive Units to a Management Member, the Board will establish (and document in the applicable Management Incentive Unit Agreement) the "Participation Threshold" amount with respect to each such Management Incentive Unit granted on such date. The Participation Threshold for Management Incentive Units shall mean an amount equal to the Liquidation Value of the Company as of the date of issuance; provided, however, the Participation Threshold shall not be less than zero dollars ($0). The grant of Management Incentive Units that is intended to constitute a Profits Interest to a Management Member is intended to comply with Rev. Proc. 93-27, 1993-2 CB 343 (1993) and Rev. Proc. 2001-43, 2001-2 CB 191 (2001) and shall be interpreted consistently therewith. Immediately upon receipt of Management Incentive Units, the Management Member will have no initial Capital Account balance and Management Incentive Units received shall not entitle such Management Member to any portion of the capital of the Company at the time of such Management Member's admission to the Company as a Member, such that if the Company's assets were sold at Fair Market Value immediately after the grant to such Management Member of Management Incentive Units and the proceeds distributed in complete liquidation of the Company, the Management Incentive Units so received would entitle such Management Member to receive no share of those proceeds. In connection with any issuance of Management Incentive Units, the Capital Accounts of the then existing Members shall be adjusted to reflect the Liquidation Value.

(d) In the event of any Distribution pursuant to Section 8.1, the Participation Threshold of each Management Incentive Unit outstanding at the time of such Distribution shall be reduced (but not below zero) by the amount of such Distribution.

(e) The Management Incentive Units issued to any Management Member shall become vested in accordance with the vesting schedule set forth in the relevant Management Incentive Unit Agreement or, in the absence of a Management Incentive Unit Agreement, as otherwise determined by the Board in connection with the issuance of such Management Incentive Units. Management Incentive Units that are vested per such vesting schedule or by the Board, are referred to herein as "Vested Management Incentive Units."

(f) By executing this Agreement, each Member authorizes and directs the Company to elect to have the "Safe Harbor" described in the proposed Revenue Procedure set forth in Internal Revenue Service Notice 2005-43 (the "IRS Notice") apply to any Interest in the Company transferred to a service provider by the Company on or after the effective date of such Revenue Procedure in connection with services provided to the Company. For purposes of making such Safe Harbor election, the Tax Matters Partner is hereby designated as the "member who has responsibility for federal income tax reporting" by the Company and, accordingly, execution of such Safe Harbor election by the Tax Matters Partner constitutes execution of a "Safe Harbor Election" in accordance with Section 3.03(1) of the IRS Notice. The Company and each Member hereby agree to comply with all requirements of the Safe Harbor described in the IRS Notice, including the requirement that each Member shall prepare and file all federal income tax returns reporting the income tax effects of each "Safe Harbor Partnership Interest" issued by the Company in a manner consistent with the requirements of the IRS Notice. A Member's obligations to comply with the requirements of this Section 6.5(f), shall survive such Member's ceasing to be a Member of the Company and/or the termination, dissolution, liquidation and winding up the Company, and, for purposes of this Section 6.5(f), the Company shall be treated as continuing in existence.

ARTICLE VII
ALLOCATIONS

Section 7.1. Allocations of Profits and Losses.

(a) General Application. For each Fiscal Year (or other allocation period), after giving effect to Section 7.2, the rules set forth below in Section 7.1(b) shall apply for the purpose of determining each Member's allocable share of the items of income, gain, loss and expense of the Company composing Profits and Losses of the Company for such Fiscal Year (or other allocation period), determining special allocations of other items of income, gain, loss and expense, and adjusting the balance of each Member's Capital Account to reflect the aforementioned general and special allocations. For each Fiscal Year (or other allocation period), the special allocations of Section 7.2 shall be made immediately prior to the general allocations of Section 7.1(b).

(b) General Allocations.

(i) Capital Event Allocations. For any Fiscal Year (or other allocation period), Profits or Losses (and, if necessary, gross items of income, gain, loss and deduction) resulting from a Capital Event shall be allocated among the Members in such manner that, as of the end of such Fiscal Year (or other allocation period) and to the greatest extent possible, the Capital Account of each Member shall be equal to the respective net amount, positive or negative, that would be distributed to such Member from the Company or for which such Member would be liable to the Company under this Agreement, determined as if, on the last day of such Fiscal Year (or other allocation period), the Company were to (A) liquidate the assets of the Company for cash at their Gross Asset Value (determined according to the rules of Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)), (B) all Company liabilities were satisfied (limited with respect to each nonrecourse liability within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(b)(3) to the Gross Asset Value of the assets securing such liability), and (C) distribute the remaining proceeds in liquidation in accordance with Section 13.3, minus the sum of (x) the amount, if any, that such Member would be obligated to contribute to the Company immediately after such a hypothetical liquidation, (y) such Member's share of any Member Minimum Gain determined pursuant to Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(g), and (z) such Member's share of Member Nonrecourse Debt Minimum Gain determined pursuant to Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(i)(5), in the case of clauses (y) and (z) as all computed immediately prior to the hypothetical sale described above;

(ii) After taking into account the allocations set forth in Section 7.1(b)(i), for any Fiscal Year (or other allocation period), Profits (and, as set forth expressly below, gross items of income and gain) other than that allocated pursuant to Section 7.1(b)(i) shall be allocated as follows:

(A) First, Profits shall be allocated pro rata to the holders of Common Units until any remaining negative balance in their Capital Accounts has been eliminated;

(B) Second, in the event cash is distributed to the Senior Preferred Members pursuant to Section 8.1(a) or Section 8.1(b) in such period, Profit (and, if necessary, gross items of income and gain) shall be allocated pro rata to the Senior Preferred Members in the amount of such cash;

(C) Third, in the event cash is distributed to the Junior Preferred Members pursuant to Section 8.1(c) or Section 8.1(d) in such period, Profit (and, if necessary, gross items of income and gain) shall be allocated to the Junior Preferred Members in the amount of such cash;

(D) Third, Profit shall be allocated to the Senior Preferred Members in respect of the Senior Preferred Units until the aggregate Capital Accounts of the Senior Preferred Members in respect of the Senior Preferred Units is equal to the Senior Preferred Unit Accumulated Capital Account;

(E) Fourth, Profit shall be allocated to the Junior Preferred Members in respect of the Junior Preferred Units until the aggregate Capital Accounts of the Junior Preferred Members in respect of the Junior Preferred Units is equal to the Junior Preferred Unit Accumulated Capital Account; and

(F) Fifth, Profits shall be allocated to Common Unit Members in respect of Common Units until the aggregate Capital Accounts of the Common Unit Members in respect of Common Units is equal to the Common Unit Accumulated Capital Account.

(iii) For any Fiscal Year (or other allocation period), Losses other than Losses allocated pursuant to Section 7.1(b)(i) shall be allocated as follows:

(A) First, Losses shall be allocated pro rata to the holders of the Common Units in respect of the Common Units until their Capital Accounts are fully depleted;

(B) Second, Losses shall be allocated to the Junior Preferred Members in respect of the Junior Preferred Units until their Capital Accounts are fully depleted; and

(C) Third, Losses shall be allocated to the Senior Preferred Members in respect of the Senior Preferred Units until their Capital Accounts are fully depleted; and

(D) Fourth, Losses shall be allocated pro rata to the holders of the Common Units.

(iv) Loss Limitation. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 7.1(b), the amount of items of Company expense and loss allocated pursuant to this Section 7.1(b) to any Member shall not exceed the maximum amount of such items that can be allocated without causing such Member to have an Adjusted Capital Account Deficit. All such items in excess of the limitation set forth in this Section 7.1(b)(iv) shall be allocated first to Members who would not have an Adjusted Capital Account Deficit, pro rata, in proportion to their Capital Accounts, adjusted as provided in clauses (a) and (b) of the definition of "Adjusted Capital Account Deficit," until no Member would be entitled to any further allocation.

(v) No Deficit Restoration Obligation. At no time during the term of the Company or upon dissolution and liquidation hereof shall a Member with a negative balance in its Capital Account have any obligation to the Company or the other Members to restore such negative balance, except as may be required by law or in respect of any negative balance resulting from a withdrawal of capital or dissolution in contravention of this Agreement.

Section 7.2. Special Allocations. The following special allocations shall be made in the following order:

(a) Minimum Gain Chargeback. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article VII, if there is a net decrease in Company Minimum Gain during any Fiscal Year, each Member shall be specially allocated items of Company income and gain for such year (and, if necessary, subsequent years) equal to such Member's share of the net decrease in Company Minimum Gain, determined in accordance with Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(g)(2); provided that a Member shall not be subject to this Section 7.2(a) to the extent that an exception is provided by Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(f)(2)-(5). This Section 7.2(a) is intended to comply with the minimum gain chargeback requirement in Treasury Regulation Section 1.704- 2(f) and shall be interpreted consistently therewith.

(b) Member Nonrecourse Liability Minimum Gain Chargeback. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 7.2 except Section 7.2(a), if there is a net decrease in Member Minimum Gain attributable to a Member Nonrecourse Liability during any Fiscal Year, each Member who has a share of the Member Minimum Gain attributable to such Member Nonrecourse Liability (determined in accordance with Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(i)(5)) as of the beginning of the year shall be specially allocated items of Company income and gain for such year (and, if necessary, subsequent years) equal to such Member's share of the net decrease in Member Minimum Gain attributable to such Member Nonrecourse Liability. A Member's share of the net decrease in Member Minimum Gain shall be determined in accordance with Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(i)(4); provided that a Member shall not be subject to this provision to the extent that an exception is provided by Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(i)(4). This Section 7.2(b) is intended to comply with the minimum gain chargeback requirement in Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(i)(4) and shall be interpreted consistently therewith.

(c) Qualified Income Offset. In the event any Member unexpectedly receives any adjustments, allocations or distributions described in Treasury Regulation Section 1.704- 1(b)(2)(ii)(d)(4), 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d)(5) or 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d)(6) resulting in an Adjusted Capital Account Deficit, items of Company income and gain (consisting of a pro rata portion of each item of Company income, including gross income, and gain for the Fiscal Year) shall be specially allocated to each such Member in an amount and manner sufficient to eliminate, to the extent required by the Treasury Regulation, the Adjusted Capital Account Deficit of such Member created by such adjustments, allocations or distributions as quickly as possible; provided that an allocation pursuant to this Section 7.2(c) shall be made if and only to the extent that such Member would have an Adjusted Capital Account Deficit after all other allocations provided for in this Section 7.2 have been tentatively made as if this Section 7.2(c) were not in this Agreement. This Section 7.2(c) is intended to comply with the qualified income offset requirement in Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d) and shall be interpreted consistently therewith.

(d) Gross Income Allocation. In the event any Member has an Adjusted Capital Account Deficit at the end of any Fiscal Year that is in excess of the sum of (i) the amount such Member is obligated to restore pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or otherwise, and (ii) the amount such Member is deemed to be obligated to restore pursuant to the penultimate sentence of each of Treasury Regulation Sections 1.704-2(g)(1) and 1.704-2(i)(5), each such Member shall be specially allocated items of Company income and gain in the amount of such excess as quickly as possible, provided that an allocation pursuant to this Section 7.2(d) shall be made if and only to the extent that such Member would have an Adjusted Capital Account Deficit in excess of such sum after all other allocations provided for in this Section 7.2 have been tentatively made as if Section 7.2(c) and this Section 7.2(d) were not in this Agreement.

(e) Member Nonrecourse Deductions. If any Member bears the Economic Risk of Loss with respect to a Member Nonrecourse Liability, any Member Nonrecourse Deductions for any Fiscal Year shall be specially allocated to the Member who bears the Economic Risk of Loss with respect to the Member Nonrecourse Liability to which such Member Nonrecourse Deductions are attributable in accordance with Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(i).

(f) Curative Allocations. The allocations set forth in Sections 7.2(a) through 7.2(e) (the "Regulatory Allocations") are intended to comply with certain requirements of Treasury Regulations Sections 1.704-1(b) and 1.704-2. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 7.1, the Regulatory Allocations shall be taken into account in allocating other items of income, gain, loss and deduction among the Members so that, to the extent possible, the net amount of such allocations of other items and the Regulatory Allocations to each Member shall be equal to the net amount that would have been allocated to each Member if the Regulatory Allocations had not occurred.

Section 7.3. Tax Allocations; Section 704(c) of the Code.

(a) In accordance with Section 704(c) of the Code and the Treasury Regulations thereunder, income, gain, loss and deduction with respect to any property contributed to the capital of the Company shall, solely for income tax purposes, be allocated among the Members so as to take account of any variation between the adjusted basis of such property to the Company for United States federal income tax purposes and its initial Gross Asset Value (computed in accordance with paragraph (a) of the definition of "Gross Asset Value" contained in Section 1.1). Such variation shall be taken into account under the "traditional method" of Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-3(b).

(b) In the event of a Revaluation Event, subsequent allocations of income, gain, loss and deduction with respect to such asset shall, solely for income tax purposes, take account of any variation between the adjusted basis of such asset for United States federal income tax purposes and its Gross Asset Value in the same manner as under Section 704(c) of the Code and the Treasury Regulations thereunder.

(c) Allocations pursuant to this Section 7.3 are solely for purposes of United States federal, state and local taxes, and shall not affect, or in any way be taken into account in computing, any Member's Capital Account or share of Profits, Losses, other items or distributions pursuant to any provision of this Agreement.

Section 7.4. Allocation Rules.

(a) In the event there is a change in the respective Percentage Interests of Members during the year, the Profits (or Losses) allocated to the Members for each Fiscal Year during which there is a change in the respective Percentage Interests of Members during the year shall be allocated among the Members in proportion to the Percentage Interests during such Fiscal Year in accordance with Section 706 of the Code, using any convention permitted by law and selected by the Board.

(b) For purposes of determining the Profits, Losses or any other items allocable to any period, Profits, Losses and any such other items shall be determined on a daily, monthly or other basis, as determined by the Board using any method that is permissible under Section 706 of the Code and the Treasury Regulations thereunder.

(c) The Members are aware of the income tax consequences of the allocations made by this Article VII and hereby agree to be bound by the provisions of this Article VII in reporting their shares of Company income, gain, loss, deduction and credit for income tax purposes.

ARTICLE VIII
DISTRIBUTIONS

Section 8.1. Distributions; Special Distribution. Subject to the requirements of Section 4.3 and the applicable terms of the Warrants, the Board may declare and make Distributions of Cash Available for Distribution from time to time in the following order of priority:

(a) First, to each of the Senior Preferred Members, pro rata in accordance with the percentage of Senior Preferred Units held by such Senior Preferred Member, until the Senior Preferred Members have received in respect of each such Senior Preferred Unit cumulative Distributions pursuant to this Section 8.1(a) equal to all accrued but unpaid Preferred Cash Distributions accrued pursuant to Section 4.3(b);

(b) Second, without duplication of Section 8.1(a), to each of the Senior Preferred Members, pro rata in accordance with the percentage of Senior Preferred Units held by such Senior Preferred Member, until each Senior Preferred Member has received the Preferred Redemption Price in respect of each Senior Preferred Unit held by such Senior Preferred Member;

(c) Third, subject to the prior payment in full of the Senior Preferred Units pursuant to Section 8.1(a) and Section 8.1(b), to each of the Junior Preferred Members, pro rata in accordance with the percentage of Junior Preferred Units held by such Junior Preferred Member, until the Junior Preferred Members have received in respect of each such Junior Preferred Unit cumulative Distributions pursuant to this Section 8.1(c) equal to all accrued but unpaid Preferred Cash Distributions accrued pursuant to Section 4.3(b);

(d) Fourth, subject to the prior payment in full of the Senior Preferred Units pursuant to Section 8.1(a) and Section 8.1(b), without duplication of Section 8.1(c), to each of the Junior Preferred Members, pro rata in accordance with the percentage of Junior Preferred Units held by such Junior Preferred Member, until each Junior Preferred Member has received the Preferred Redemption Price in respect of each Junior Preferred Unit held by such Junior Preferred Member;

(e) Fifth, subject to the prior payment in full of the Preferred Units pursuant to Section 8.1(a) through (d) or otherwise, to each of the Common Unit Members, pro rata in accordance with the percentage of Common Units held by such Common Unit Member, an amount equal to the excess, if any, of (i) the sum of the amount of cash consideration, the principal amount of any promissory note or the value of any non-cash consideration contributed by such Member as a Member Capital Contribution pursuant to Section 6.1(a) plus any additional Capital Contributions made by such Member in accordance with this Agreement, over (ii) the sum of all prior Distributions to such Member pursuant to this Section 8.1(e); and

(f) Sixth, to each of the holders of Participating Units pro rata in accordance with the number of Participating Units held by such holder as compared to all outstanding Participating Units.

For the avoidance of doubt, if the amount to be distributed pursuant to Section 8.1 with respect to any particular Distribution for a Management Incentive Unit exceeds the amount of the Participation Threshold of such outstanding Management Incentive Unit (determined immediately prior to such Distribution), then such Management Incentive Unit shall constitute, subject to any other vesting terms applicable to such Management Incentive Units, Participating Units for purposes of Section 8.1 only after a portion of the amount to be distributed in such Distribution equal to the Participation Threshold of such Management Incentive Unit has first been distributed to the holders of outstanding Units (including outstanding Management Incentive Units, if any, that have lesser Participation Thresholds (determined immediately prior to such Distribution)).

Section 8.2. Mandatory Tax Distributions. With respect to each Fiscal Year, the Company shall distribute to the Members each fiscal quarter, to the extent of Cash Available for Distribution, amounts intended to enable the Members to discharge their United States federal, state and local income tax liabilities arising from the allocations made pursuant to Article VII (each, a "Tax Distribution"). The amount of any such Tax Distribution shall be determined by the Board in its reasonable discretion taking into account (a) the maximum combined United States and state tax rate applicable to individuals or corporations (whichever is higher) on ordinary income and net short-term capital gain or on net long-term capital gain, as applicable, and taking into account the deductibility of state and local income taxes for United States federal income tax purposes (and the deductibility of local income taxes for state tax purposes, if applicable), (b) the amounts so allocated pursuant to Article VII to such Member and (c) Distributions previously made to Members pursuant to Section 8.1 or this Section 8.2 during the Fiscal Year for which such Tax Distribution is being made, and otherwise based on such reasonable assumptions as the Board determines in good faith to be appropriate. Tax Distributions shall be made to the Members pro rata in accordance with their respective allocation of items of gain or income, and shall be treated as advances with respect to amounts otherwise to be received by such Members pursuant to this Article VIII; provided, however, that if the Board determines in its reasonable discretion that the amount of Cash Available for Distribution is insufficient to discharge the United States federal, state and local income tax liabilities of all Members with respect to the applicable fiscal quarter, Tax Distributions for such fiscal quarter shall be made first to the Preferred Members on a preferred basis prior and in preference to any Tax Distribution to any other Members. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 8.2, for so long as any Senior Preferred Unit remains outstanding, no Tax Distribution shall be made to any Member (other than a Senior Preferred Member) unless and until the Preferred Minimum Cash Distribution for the applicable fiscal quarter and all prior fiscal quarters has been paid in full to the Senior Preferred Members.

Section 8.3. Limitations on Distribution. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the Company shall not make any Distribution if such Distribution would violate Section 18-607 of the Delaware Act or other applicable law, but shall instead make such Distribution as soon as practicable after the making of such Distribution would not cause such violation.

ARTICLE IX
BOOKS AND RECORDS

Section 9.1. Books, Records and Financial Statements.

(a) The Company shall at all times maintain, at its principal place of business, separate books of account for the Company that shall show a true and accurate record of all costs and expenses incurred, all charges made, all credits made and received and all income derived in connection with the operation of the Company in accordance with GAAP consistently applied, and, to the extent inconsistent therewith, in accordance with this Agreement. Such books of account, together with a copy of this Agreement and the Certificate, shall at all times be maintained at the principal place of business of the Company and shall be open to inspection and examination at reasonable times by each Manager, Board observer, Common Unit Member, Preferred Member and holder of Warrants and their respective duly authorized representatives for any purpose reasonably related to such Person's Interest in the Company.

(b) The Company shall cooperate and make the Officers available to any Common Unit Member, Preferred Member or holder of Warrants and their respective representatives, as reasonably necessary, in connection with the preparation of any annual independent third party appraisal of the Company by such Person.

(c) The Officers shall prepare and maintain, or cause to be prepared and maintained, the books of account of the Company. The following financial information, prepared in accordance with GAAP (or, in the case of clauses (iii) and (v) below, in accordance with United States federal income tax principles) and applied on a basis consistent with prior periods, which shall be audited (in the case of clauses (i), (ii) and (iv) below), shall be transmitted by the Company to each Common Unit Member, Preferred Member and holder of Warrants as soon as reasonably practicable and in no event later than one hundred twenty (120) days after the close of each Fiscal Year:

(i) balance sheet of the Company as of the beginning and close of such Fiscal Year;

(ii) statement of profits and losses for such Fiscal Year;

(iii) statement of each Member's Capital Account as of the close of such Fiscal Year, and changes therein during such Fiscal Year;

(iv) statement of the Company's cash flows during such Fiscal Year; and

(v) a statement indicating such Member's share of each item of the Company income, gain, loss, deduction or credit for such Fiscal Year for income tax purposes, which statement shall include or consist of a Schedule K-1 to the Company's Internal Revenue Service Form 1065 (or any corresponding schedule to any successor form) for such Fiscal Year; provided that, if the information described in this clause (v) has not previously been delivered to the Members for such Fiscal Year, the Company shall provide within ninety (90) days after the close of such Fiscal Year a report to each Member or former Member (or its successor or legal representative) containing estimates of such Member's allocable share of Company income, gain, loss, deduction or credit for such Fiscal Year for income tax purposes.

(d) At least thirty (30) days prior to the start of each Fiscal Year, the Company shall prepare and deliver to each Common Unit Member, Preferred Member and holder of Warrants (i) a copy of the estimated annual tax projections for the upcoming Fiscal Year, and (ii) an annual budget for the upcoming Fiscal Year.

(e) Following the end of each of the Company's four (4) fiscal quarters, the Company shall prepare and provide to each Common Unit Member, Preferred Member and holder of Warrants within sixty (60) days of the end of each quarter a report, which report shall be unaudited and set forth a description of the business activities that took place during such quarter, set forth the operating and financial results of the Company for such quarter.

(f) Within five (5) Business Days of the delivery of the quarterly and annual financial information required by Section 9.1(c) and Section 9.1(e), the Company will conduct a meeting (which such meeting may be a telephonic or video meeting, at the election of Company) of the Preferred Members to discuss the most recently reported financial results and the financial condition of the Company and its Subsidiaries, at which there shall be present the chief financial officer and such other officers of the Company as may be reasonably requested to attend by the Preferred Members, such request or requests to be made at a reasonable time prior to the scheduled date of such meeting. Such meetings shall be held at a time and place convenient to the Preferred Members and to Company.

(g) Following the end of each month during each Fiscal Year, the Company shall prepare and provide to each Common Unit Member, Preferred Member and holder of Warrants within ten (10) days of the end of each month a monthly report, which report shall be unaudited and set forth the operating and financial results of the Company for such month.

(h) Within sixty (60) days of the end of each of the Company's four (4) fiscal quarters, to the extent otherwise prepared by management in writing, the Company shall provide to each Common Unit Member, Preferred Member and holder of Warrants a management discussion and analysis of any material issues, events or developments that occurred during such quarter.

(i) Notwithstanding any contrary provision in this Agreement or under applicable law, no Management Member (who is not also a Common Unit Member or Preferred Member) shall share in the rights granted to Common Unit Members and Preferred Members in this Section 9.1 or under Section 18-305 of the Delaware Act.

Section 9.2. Accounting Method. For both financial and tax reporting purposes and for purposes of determining Profits and Losses, the books and records of the Company shall be kept on the accrual method of accounting and shall reflect all Company transactions and be appropriate and adequate for the Company's business.

ARTICLE X
TAX MATTERS; REGISTRATION RIGHTS

Section 10.1. Tax Matters.

(a) For taxable years ending prior to January 1, 2018, the "Tax Matters Partner" of the Company for purposes of Section 6231(a)(7) of the Code shall have the power to manage and control, on behalf of the Company, any administrative proceeding at the Company level with the Internal Revenue Service or any other taxing authority relating to the determination of any item of Company income, gain, loss, deduction or credit for United States federal, state, local or foreign income or franchise tax purposes. The Tax Matters Partner shall take such action as may be reasonably necessary to constitute each other Member a "notice partner" within the meaning of Section 6231(a)(8) of the Code. The Tax Matters Partner shall cause to be prepared for each taxable year of the Company the federal, state and local tax returns and information returns, if any, which the Company is required to file, copies of which returns shall be made available by the Company at least thirty (30) days prior to filing for inspection, examination, and approval by any Member or any of its representatives during reasonable business hours, and all of such persons shall be entitled to make copies or extracts thereof. The Members shall provide any comments on such returns to the Tax Matters Partner within fifteen (15) days after their being made available to the Members. Where the Members are required to file federal, state or local income tax returns by reason of their Interests in the Company, the Tax Matters Partner shall cause them to be furnished with the relevant returns filed by the Company. The Tax Matters Partner shall notify each other Member of all material matters that come to its attention in its capacity as Tax Matters Partner. The Tax Matters Partner shall not have the authority to bind any of the Members, including with respect to any extension of any statute of limitations. The Tax Matters Partner shall be Ganas Investors. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, for taxable periods beginning on or after January 1, 2018, the Tax Matters Partner shall continue to act as the partnership representative (the "Partnership Representative") for the Company pursuant to section 6223 of the Code (as enacted and/or adopted by section 1101 of the Bipartisan Budget Act of 2015 (the "Budget Act")) and shall adopt, subject to the mutual consent of the Members, amendments to this Section 10.1(a) that comply with and implement the provisions of Section 1101 of the Budget Act, as amended from time to time. In the event that the Partnership Representative is an entity, the Partnership Representative must appoint a designated individual (the "Designated Individual"). All of the rights and obligations of the Tax Matters Partner under this Agreement shall inure to the Partnership Representative and Designated Individual, as applicable.

(b) If the Company receives a notice of final partnership adjustment from the Internal Revenue Service to which the provisions of section 1101 of the Budget Act are applicable, the Partnership Representative shall cause the Company to (i) elect the application of section 6226 of the Code, as amended by section 1101 of the Budget Act, with respect to any imputed underpayment arising from such adjustment, and (ii) furnish to each Member a statement of such Member's share of any adjustment to income, gain, loss, deduction, or credit (as determined in the notice of final partnership adjustment). Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Company shall not make any election pursuant to section 1101(g) of the Budget Act to cause Sections 6221-6241 of the Code (as amended by the Budget Act) to apply to any tax year of the Company beginning prior to January 1, 2018.

(c) If the Company is the subject of an audit by any United States federal, state, local or foreign taxing authority, the Tax Matters Partner or the Partnership Representative, as applicable, (i) shall promptly notify each Member of any administrative or judicial proceeding with respect to the Company; (ii) shall promptly furnish each Member with any material correspondence or communication relating to the Company from the Internal Revenue Service or any state, local or foreign taxing authority received by the Tax Matters Partner; and (iii) shall not settle any material action relating to the tax affairs of the Company without each Member's consent (not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed). Without limitation of the foregoing, the Company shall, within ten (10) days of the receipt of any notice from the Internal Revenue Service or any state, local or foreign tax authority in any administrative proceeding at the Company level relating to the determination of any Company item of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit, mail a copy of such notice to each Member.

Section 10.2. Right to Make Section 754 Election. The Tax Matters Partner may, in its sole discretion, make or apply for permission with the Commissioner of the Internal Revenue Service to revoke, on behalf of the Company, an election in accordance with Section 754 of the Code, so as to adjust the basis of Company property in the case of a distribution of property within the meaning of Section 734 of the Code, and in the case of a transfer of a Company Interest within the meaning of Section 743 of the Code; provided that, the Tax Matters Partner shall make such election upon the request of the BlackRock Investors. Each Member shall, upon request of the Company, supply the information necessary to give effect to such an election.

Section 10.3. Taxation as a Partnership. The Company shall be treated as a partnership for United States federal, state, local and foreign tax purposes and will make any necessary elections to achieve such status, unless the Company undertakes to change such status in connection with a Qualified Public Offering. Except in connection with a Qualified Public Offering, this Section 10.3 cannot be amended, waived or otherwise modified without prior consent of the Preferred Members.

Section 10.4. Tax Withholding. The Company shall comply with any withholding requirements under any law and shall remit amounts withheld to and file required forms with applicable taxing authorities. To the extent that the Company is required to withhold and pay over any amounts to any taxing authority with respect to Distributions or allocations to any Member or any holder of currently exercisable Warrants, the amount withheld shall be treated as a distribution of cash to such Member or such holder of currently exercisable Warrants in the amount of such withholding; provided, however, that the Company shall provide written notice to such Member or such holder of currently exercisable Warrants within a reasonable time prior to such withholding and shall work in good faith with such Member or such holder of currently exercisable Warrants to reduce any such withholding.

Section 10.5. Tax Treatment of the Warrants. Solely for U.S. federal, state and local tax purposes, a holder of currently exercisable Warrants shall be treated as a "partner" within the meaning of Section 761(b) of the Code (and any analogous provision of state and local law) and as the owner of the Common Units underlying such Warrants, references to "Member" or "Members" shall include holders of Warrants to the extent necessary to give full effect thereto and the Warrant Agreement shall constitute and be treated as a part of this Agreement.

Section 10.6. Registration Rights. The terms governing the registration rights of holders of Preferred Units and the Warrants are set forth in the Registration Rights Agreement.

Section 10.7. Qualified Financing Sales. Each holder of Senior Preferred Units and/or Warrants may sell up to the greater of (i) the amount (but only such amount) required to reduce such holder's equity interest (taken together with all Affiliated holders of Preferred Units and Warrants) (on an as-converted basis) to less than 9.9% of the Company's common equity and (ii) 37.5% of such holder's equity interests (on an as-converted basis), in each case at the time of a Qualified Financing or any time thereafter. If so requested by holders of Senior Preferred Units or Warrants to effect the foregoing, the Company shall redeem a sufficient amount of such holder's equity securities at the time of the Qualified Financing and at the price per Common Unit applicable in the Qualified Financing and/or permit such holders to participate as a seller of their applicable equity securities in such Qualified Financing. All equity interests not sold pursuant to the foregoing shall be subject to the same lock-up period as all other equity holders (not to exceed 180 days) in the event of a Qualified Financing that is a Qualified Public Offering or a SPAC Transaction.

ARTICLE XI
LIABILITY, EXCULPATION AND INDEMNIFICATION

Section 11.1. Liability. Except as otherwise provided by the Delaware Act, the debts, obligations and liabilities of the Company, whether arising in contract, tort or otherwise, shall be solely the debts, obligations and liabilities of the Company, and no Covered Person or Member shall be obligated personally for any such debt, obligation or liability of the Company solely by reason of being a Covered Person or Member.

Section 11.2. Exculpation.

(a) No Covered Person shall be liable to the Company or any Member for any loss, damage or claim incurred by reason of any act or omission performed or omitted by such Covered Person in good faith on behalf of the Company and in a manner reasonably believed to be within the scope of authority conferred on such Covered Person by this Agreement, the Board or an appropriate Officer or employee of the Company, except that a Covered Person shall be liable for any such loss, damage or claim incurred by reason of such Covered Person's gross negligence, fraud, willful misconduct or breach of any duty owed to the Company or its Members.

(b) A Covered Person shall be fully protected in relying in good faith upon the records of the Company and upon such information, opinions, reports or statements presented to the Company by any Person as to matters the Covered Person reasonably believed to be within such other Person's professional or expert competence, including information, opinions, reports or statements as to the value and amount of the assets, liabilities, Profits or Losses or any other facts pertinent to the existence and amount of assets from which distributions to Members might properly be paid.

Section 11.3. Fiduciary Duty.

(a) In the exercise of rights and performance of duties hereunder, solely to the extent such Persons are not an Officer of the Company, each Member (in such Member's capacity as a Member), each Manager (in such Manager's capacity as a Manager), each Board observer (including any Senior Preferred Observer) and any committee of the Board and member of any committee of the Board, shall, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, have no fiduciary duties to the Company or to any other Member. For purposes of clarity, and notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, any Manager that is also an Officer (a "Fiduciary Manager"), the Officers and other employees of the Company shall owe fiduciary duties to the Company and all of the Members as a whole (and not to any other Member or subset of Members) of the same kind and to the same extent such Managers, Officers and employees would owe fiduciary duties to the Company and its Members if the Company were a corporation formed under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware and its Members were shareholders of the Company.

(b) Except as otherwise provided herein to the contrary and other than with respect to any Fiduciary Manager, to the fullest extent permitted by the Delaware Act, a person, in performing his duties and obligations as a Manager under this Agreement, shall be entitled to act or omit to act at the direction of, or in a manner that such Manager believes is in the best interest of, the Member(s) that designated such person to serve as a Manager, considering only such factors, including the separate interests of the designating Member(s), as such Manager or Member(s) choose to consider, and any action of a Manager or failure to act shall not, as between the Company and the other Member(s), on the one hand, and the Manager or Member(s) designating such Manager, on the other hand, constitute a breach of any duty (including any fiduciary or other similar duty, to the extent such exists under the Delaware Act or any other applicable law) on the part of such Manager or Member(s) to the Company or any other Manager or Member of the Company.

(c) The Members (and the Members on behalf of the Company) hereby: (i) agree that (A) the terms of this Section 11.3, to the extent that they modify or limit a duty or other obligation, if any, that a Manager may have (it being acknowledged and agreed that no such modification or limitation shall apply to any duty or obligation of a Fiduciary Manager) to the Company or any Member under the Delaware Act or other applicable law are reasonable in form, scope and content, and (B) the terms of this Section 11.3 shall control to the fullest extent possible if it is in conflict with a duty, if any, that a Manager may have to the Company or any Member, under the Delaware Act or any other applicable law; and (ii) waive to the fullest extent permitted by the Delaware Act any duty or other obligation, if any, that a Manager (other than a Fiduciary Manager) may have to the Company or any Member, pursuant to the Delaware Act or any other applicable law, to the extent necessary to give effect to the terms of this Section 11.3.

Section 11.4. Indemnification. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, each Member and each Covered Person shall be entitled to indemnification from the Company for any loss, damage or claim incurred by such Member or Covered Person by reason of any act or omission performed or omitted by such Member or Covered Person in good faith on behalf of the Company and in a manner reasonably believed to be within the scope of authority conferred on such Member or Covered Person by this Agreement, except that no Member or Covered Person shall be entitled to be indemnified in respect of any loss, damage or claim incurred by reason of such Member's or Covered Person's gross negligence, fraud, willful misconduct or breach of any duty owed to the Company or its Members; provided, however, that any indemnity under this Section 11.4 shall be provided out of and to the extent of Company assets only, and no Covered Person shall have any personal liability on account thereof.

Section 11.5. Expenses. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, reasonable expenses (including reasonable legal fees) incurred by each Member and each Covered Person in defending any claim, demand, action, suit or proceeding shall, from time to time, be advanced by the Company prior to the final disposition of such claim, demand, action, suit or proceeding upon receipt by the Company of an undertaking by or on behalf of the Member or Covered Person to repay such amount if it shall be determined that the Member or Covered Person is not entitled to be indemnified as authorized in Section 11.4. The Company shall reimburse any Senior Preferred Manager and any Senior Preferred Observer for the reasonable and documented out-of-pocket travel expenses incurred by the Senior Preferred Manager in connection with the attendance at, or participation in, meetings attended in person by such Senior Preferred Manager or Senior Preferred Observer in accordance with Section 5.21, and the Senior Preferred Members for all fees and expenses incurred by the Senior Preferred Members in connection with amending or modifying this Agreement or any related documentation.

Section 11.6. Insurance. The Company shall purchase and maintain directors and officers insurance ("D&O Insurance"), to the extent and in such amounts as the Board shall deem reasonable or appropriate, on behalf of Members and Covered Persons and such other Persons as the Board shall determine, against any liability that may be asserted against or expenses that may be incurred by any such Person in connection with the activities of the Company or such indemnities, regardless of whether the Company would have the power to indemnify such Person against such liability under the provisions of this Agreement. The Members and the Company may enter into indemnity contracts with Members, Covered Persons and such other Persons as the Board shall determine and adopt written procedures pursuant to which arrangements are made for the advancement of expenses and the funding of obligations under Section 11.5 and containing such other procedures regarding indemnification as are appropriate.

Section 11.7. Outside Businesses. Any Member or Manager (but excluding any Member or Manager that is an Officer or an employee of the Company and excluding their respective Affiliates) or Affiliate thereof (but excluding Affiliates of any Member or Manager that is an Officer or an employee of the Company and excluding their respective Affiliates) may engage in or possess an interest in other business ventures of any nature or description, independently or with others, similar or dissimilar to the business of the Company, and the Company and the Members shall have no rights by virtue of this Agreement in and to such independent ventures or the income or profits derived therefrom, and the pursuit of any such venture, even if competitive with the business of the Company, shall not be deemed wrongful or improper. No Member, Manager or Affiliate thereof (but excluding Members and Managers that are an Officer or an employee of the Company and excluding their respective Affiliates) shall be obligated to present any particular investment opportunity to the Company even if such opportunity is of a character that, if presented to the Company, could be taken by the Company, and any Member, Manager or Affiliate thereof (but excluding Members and Managers that are an Officer or an employee of the Company and excluding their respective Affiliates) shall have the right to take for its own account (individually or as a partner or fiduciary) or to recommend to others any such particular investment opportunity. The provisions of this Section 11.7 shall not in any way limit, modify or amend the terms of any noncompetition, license or employment agreement that may be entered into between the Company and any Member, which terms shall be binding on the parties thereto.

Section 11.8. Primary Indemnitor. The Company hereby acknowledges that the Senior Preferred Members, the Senior Preferred Managers and the Senior Preferred Observers (the "Fund Indemnitees") each has certain rights to indemnification, advancement of expenses and/or insurance provided by the BlackRock Investors and certain of its Affiliates (collectively, the "Fund Indemnitors"). The Company hereby agrees (a) that it is the indemnitor of first resort (i.e., its obligations to the Fund Indemnitees are primary and any obligation of the Fund Indemnitors to advance expenses or to provide indemnification for the same expenses or liabilities incurred by such Persons are secondary), (b) that it shall be required to advance the full amount of expenses incurred by each of the Fund Indemnitees and shall be liable for the full amount of all expenses, judgments, penalties, fines and amounts paid in settlement to the extent legally permitted and as required by the terms of this Agreement and the Certificate of Formation of the Company (or any other agreement between the Company and such Persons), without regard to any rights any such Persons may have against the Fund Indemnitors, and (c) that it irrevocably waives, relinquishes and releases the Fund Indemnitors from any and all claims against the Fund Indemnitors for contribution, subrogation or any other recovery of any kind in respect thereof. The Company further agrees that no advancement or payment by the Fund Indemnitors on behalf of any of the Fund Indemnitees with respect to any claim for which such Person has sought indemnification from the Company shall affect the foregoing and the Fund Indemnitors shall have a right of contribution and/or be subrogated to the extent of such advancement or payment to all of the rights of recovery of the Fund Indemnitees, as applicable, against the Company. The Company and the Members hereby agree that the Fund Indemnitors are express third party beneficiaries of the terms of this Section 11.8.

ARTICLE XII

Section 12.1. Transfers.

(a) No Member or Assignee may Transfer all or any portion of its Interest (or beneficial interest therein), except in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. Any purported Transfer which is not in accordance with this Agreement shall be null and void.

(b) Notwithstanding any contrary provision in this Agreement:

(i) any Member shall be permitted to Transfer all or any portion of its Eligible Units (or beneficial interest therein) pursuant to and in accordance with Section 12.8;

(ii) any Member shall be permitted to Transfer all or any portion of its Eligible Units (or beneficial interest therein) to any Affiliate of such Member without complying with any provisions of this Article XII other than Section 12.2, so long as at all times thereafter the Transferee remains an Affiliate of such Member; provided, however, that with respect to any transfers to Affiliates contemplated in this clause (ii), (A) such Member continues to be liable for its obligations hereunder, (B) any such Affiliate shall transfer such Eligible Units to the Member from whom the Eligible Units were originally received or acquired within five (5) calendar days after ceasing to be an Affiliate of such Member, and (C) such Affiliate shall be deemed a Substitute Member immediately upon the Company's receipt of original copies of the documents described in Section 12.2(h) and Schedule A shall be amended accordingly at such time;

(iii) the Senior Preferred Members and the holders of Warrants shall be permitted to Transfer all or any portion of their Eligible Units (or beneficial interests therein) (including for the avoidance of doubt any Common Units issued upon the exercise of any Warrants) to any Eligible Preferred Transferee, and such transferees shall be deemed a Substitute Member immediately upon the Company's receipt of original copies of the documents described in Section 12.2(h) and Schedule A shall be amended accordingly at such time; and

(iv) a Transfer or issuance of equity interests in or other securities of Ganas Investors, Tricolor Investors, LLC or any investment fund, intermediate holding company or similar entity affiliated with either Ganas Investors or Tricolor Investors, LLC (each of the foregoing, a "Daniel Chu Related Entity"), shall be permitted (and shall not be subject to the provisions of Section 12.8, but shall be subject to the provisions of Section 12.2), subject to the prior written consent of the Senior Preferred Members; provided, however, that no such prior written consent of the Senior Preferred Members shall be required for a Transfer of any equity interests in or other securities of any Daniel Chu Related Entity by the holder thereof (other than Daniel Chu) to any Estate Planning Entity.

(c) The Company shall provide or consent to provide any bona fide prospective transferee of Preferred Units or Warrants with the information provided to Preferred Members and the holders of Warrants hereunder and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to assist any Preferred Member with the transfer of Preferred Units and any holder of Warrants with the transfer of Warrants.

Section 12.2. Further Restrictions. Notwithstanding any contrary provision in this Agreement, any otherwise permitted Transfer shall be null and void if:

(a) such Transfer would cause a termination of the Company for federal income tax purposes;

(b) such Transfer would, in the written opinion of outside tax counsel to the Company, cause the Company to cease to be classified as a partnership for federal income tax purposes;

(c) such Transfer requires the registration of such Transferred Units pursuant to any applicable federal or state securities laws;

(d) such Transfer causes the Company to become a "publicly traded partnership," as such term is defined in Sections 469(k)(2) or 7704(b) of the Code;

(e) such Transfer subjects the Company to regulation under the Investment Company Act of 1940, the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 or the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, each as amended;

(f) such Transfer results in a violation of applicable laws;

(g) such Transfer is made to any Person who lacks the legal right, power or capacity to own such Interest; or

(h) the Company does not receive executed copies of (i) any instruments of Transfer, and (ii) such Assignee's consent to be bound by this Agreement as an Assignee, in each case in form and substance satisfactory to the Board (as determined in the Board's reasonable and good faith discretion).

Section 12.3. Rights of Assignees. Until such time, if any, as a transferee of any Transfer pursuant to this Article XII or a transferee acquiring Units pursuant to Section 12.8 is admitted to the Company as a Substitute Member pursuant to Section 12.6, (a) such transferee shall be an Assignee only, and only shall receive, to the extent Transferred, the Distributions and allocations of income, gain, loss, deduction, credit, or similar item to which the Member which Transferred its Interests would be entitled, and (b) such Assignee shall not be entitled or enabled to exercise any other rights or powers of a Member. In the event any Assignee desires to make a further assignment of any economic interest in the Company, such Assignee shall be subject to all of the provisions of this Agreement to the same extent and in the same manner as any Member desiring to make such an assignment.

Section 12.4. Admissions and Resignations. No Person shall be admitted to the Company as a Member under this Article XII except in accordance with Section 12.6. Except following a Transfer of all of its Interests in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, no Member shall be entitled to resign or withdraw from being a Member of the Company without the written consent of the Board, which consent may be given or withheld in its sole and absolute discretion. No admission or resignation of a Member shall, in and of itself, cause the dissolution of the Company. No Member shall be subject to removal. Any purported admission or resignation which is not in accordance with this Agreement shall be null and void.

Section 12.5. Payment Upon Resignation of Member. If any Member resigns from the Company with the consent of the Board (other than in connection with a Transfer of its Interest in accordance with this Agreement) (such consent requiring the approval of at least one (1) Senior Preferred Manager), then such Member automatically shall receive from the Company a payment equal to the Member's Capital Account balance as adjusted as of the effective date of the written election of resignation (the "Termination Payment"). The Termination Payment shall be paid on the effective date of the written resignation. If any Member attempts to resign from the Company without the consent of the Board, then, notwithstanding the last sentence of Section 12.4, the Board may, in its sole and absolute discretion, permit such resignation (without waiving, in any manner, any other rights available to it or the Company at law or in equity and in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other remedies to which it or the Company may be entitled); provided, however, that such resigning Member shall not be entitled to any Termination Payment or any other compensation whatsoever in consideration for its Interest, such Interest shall be cancelled and such resigning Member shall have no further rights or interests in the Company.

Section 12.6. Admission of Assignees as Substitute Members. An Assignee shall become a Substitute Member only if and when each of the following conditions is satisfied:

(a) the assignor of the Interests transferred sends written notice to the Board requesting the admission of the Assignee as a Substitute Member and setting forth the name and address of the Assignee, the Interest transferred, and the proposed effective date of the Transfer;

(b) the Board consents in writing to such admission, which consent shall be given, subject to Section 12.2; provided, however, that, other than with respect to a Transfer of Preferred Units, the assignor and the Assignee have complied with the provisions of Section 12.8 in connection with the assignment; and

(c) the Board receives from the Assignee (i) other than with respect to a Transfer of Senior Preferred Units, such information concerning the Assignee's financial capacities and investment experience as may reasonably be requested by the Board, and (ii) (A) copies of any instruments of Transfer and (B) such Assignee's consent to be bound by this Agreement as a Substitute Member, in each case in form and substance satisfactory to the Board (as determined in the Board's reasonable discretion). Upon the admission of any Substitute Member, Schedule A shall be amended to reflect the name, address and Interests of such Substitute Member and to appropriately eliminate or adjust, if necessary, the name, address and Interests of the predecessor of such Substitute Member and such updated Schedule A shall be provided to each Member on such Schedule A promptly after any such amendment.

Section 12.7. Transfer Upon Termination of Marital Relationship.

(a) The Interest (other than the Preferred Units or any Registrable Securities) of each Person (i) who was married to a Member and who acquired his or her Interest as a result of a divorce, marital dissolution or agreement relating thereto or pursuant to a partition or similar agreement, or (ii) who acquired his, her or its Interest as a beneficiary or distributee of the assets of any deceased Person (whether pursuant to a will, intestate succession or otherwise) who was married to a Member (a "Deceased Spouse") and who was not already a Member immediately prior to such distribution or bequest, is subject to an option to purchase (the "Marital Option") in favor of the Member from whom the Interest was acquired with respect to the acquisition described in the preceding clause (i) hereof or in favor of the Member who was married to the Deceased Spouse immediately prior to the death of the Deceased Spouse with respect to the acquisition described in the preceding clause (ii) hereof (in each case the "Continuing Member"). Upon the exercise of a Marital Option, the Person who owns the Interest subject to the Marital Option (the "Optionee") must sell the Interest at the price and on the other terms and conditions agreed upon by the Optionee and the Continuing Member.

(b) If the purchase of an Interest that is subject to a Marital Option is not completed (whether by reason of a failure to exercise the Marital Option or to agree upon price, terms or conditions or any other reason) within sixty (60) calendar days after the Marital Option becomes exercisable, the Eligible Members other than the Continuing Member (such Eligible Members, the "Buyer") shall have the continuing right to purchase the Interest of the Optionee (pro rata in accordance with the number of Eligible Units held by each such Eligible Member as compared to the total number of Eligible Units held by all the Eligible Members exercising a purchase right under this Section 12.7) (the "Purchase Interest"). Any purchase and sale of a Purchase Interest pursuant to this Section 12.7(b) shall be in an amount due and payable as determined pursuant to the provisions of this Section 12.7.

(c) In the event that the Buyer elects to exercise its right under Section 12.7(b) above, it may give the Optionee written notice of such election at any time after the date on which the Buyer first has knowledge of the occurrence of the event giving rise to the rights of the Buyer under this Section. The amount of the purchase price for the Optionee's Purchase Interest (unless agreed upon by the Optionee and the Buyer within thirty (30) days after the Buyer's notice to the Optionee) in connection with any such event shall be the amount which the Optionee would have received with respect to the Purchase Interest had all of the property of the Company been sold at a price equal to the Fair Market Value of such property (determined (i) as of the date the Optionee receives notice of Buyer's election to purchase, and (ii) in accordance with the provisions of Section 12.7(f)), and the Company was then liquidated in accordance with this Agreement.

(d) The closing of such sale shall take place within ten (10) days after the date of the determination of the purchase price, or, if applicable, on the third Business Day following the date on which any required governmental approvals for such sale are obtained or the expiration of any waiting period under the Hart Scott Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the "HSR Act"), with the time and place of the closing designated by the Buyer. The purchase price shall be payable upon terms and conditions agreed to between Buyer and the Optionee, or if Buyer and the Optionee are unable to agree, then as follows: (i) 25% of the total purchase price shall be paid by Buyer to the Optionee in cash at the closing, and (ii) the remaining portion of the purchase price shall be evidenced by a promissory note given by Buyer in favor of the Optionee, which promissory note shall bear interest on the unpaid principal balance at the General Interest Rate and require three equal payments of principal plus all accrued and unpaid interest thereon with the first, second and third payments being due on the first, second and third anniversary dates, respectively, of the closing date. Each party shall bear its own legal and accounting fees, if any. At least five (5) Business Days before the closing, the Optionee shall deliver all appropriate documents of transfer in form satisfactory for execution at the closing. The purchase price hereunder may be funded by insurance or otherwise.

(e) From the date of the event described in Section 12.7(a) to the date of the Transfer of the Purchase Interest under this Section 12.7, the Interest represented by the Purchase Interest will be excluded from any calculation of aggregate Percentage Interests for purposes of any approval required of Members under this Agreement. All distributions of cash or assets due to the Optionee by the Company from the date of the event described in Section 12.7(a) to the date of the closing of the purchase may be applied against obligations of the Optionee. Without limiting the generality of any other provision of this Agreement, upon the exercise of the Marital Option, the Optionee, without further action, will have no rights in the Company or against the Company or any Member other than the right to receive payment for the Purchase Interest in accordance with Section 12.7(d).

(f) In the event that the fair market value of all or any part of the property of the Company is required to be determined for purposes of this Section 12.7, the fair market value, unless otherwise agreed upon, shall be determined as provided in this Section 12.7(f). Within ten (10) days after a determination of fair market value is determined to be required under Section 12.7, the Buyer and the Optionee shall select a mutually agreeable independent, qualified valuation consultant (a "Consultant"). If the Buyer and the Optionee cannot agree on a Consultant within a reasonable time, they shall each promptly select an independent valuation consultant and those two consultants shall promptly select a third independent, qualified valuation consultant to be the Consultant. The Consultant so selected shall proceed to determine promptly the fair market value of the property in question in accordance with such methods and techniques as shall enable the Consultant to complete the valuation of all such property within thirty (30) days of appointment and in the least expensive manner reasonably possible while obtaining a reasonable determination of the fair market values of the properties including if necessary, procedures producing a result less formal than an appraiser's opinion as to value. The Consultant shall deliver a written report of its determination of fair market value to all interested parties and, absent fraud or manifest error, this determination shall be final and binding on the interested parties for purposes of this Section 12.7. After determination of the fair market value of the Company property, the Consultant shall make a determination of the amount due to the Optionee in accordance with Section 12.7(c) as if all the property of the Company were sold at the fair market value determined by the Consultant and the Company was then liquidated in accordance with this Agreement. For purposes of this Section 12.7(f), no minority discount or lack of marketability discount shall be applied. The fees and expenses of the Consultant shall be borne by the Optionee.

(g) In no event will the Optionee who owns an Interest subject to a Marital Option have any right to purchase an Interest of any Member or Assignee under the terms of this Agreement or be deemed to be admitted as a Member unless and until all the requirements of Section 12.6 have been satisfied.

Section 12.8. Right of First Refusal.

(a) Except in the case of (i) a Transfer permitted pursuant to Section 12.1 or 12.7 or (ii) a Transfer of any Eligible Unit (including for the avoidance of doubt any transfer of Common Units issued upon the conversion of Preferred Units or the exercise of any Warrants) held by a Senior Preferred Member or a holder of Warrants, in the event any Member or Assignee (an "Offering Holder") desires to Transfer any Eligible Units in a transaction, it must first deliver written notice thereof (an "Offer Notice") to the Company and the Eligible Members. The Offer Notice must contain a full description of the proposed Transfer, including the type of Transfer, the number of Affected Units, the proposed per Unit purchase price and terms of payment for the Affected Units, the proposed date of such Transfer and the identity of the proposed transferee, and must be accompanied by a copy of the proposed transferee's offer to acquire the Affected Units. An Offer Notice shall constitute the Offering Holder's binding agreement to sell the applicable number of Affected Units to each of the Eligible Members and the Company on the terms and conditions specified therein (or, in the event that part of the consideration for the proposed transfer is other than cash, for the Fair Market Value of such non-cash consideration as determined by the Board in good faith).

(b) Each of the Eligible Members shall have thirty (30) days after its receipt of the Offer Notice to elect, by delivering a written acceptance to the Offering Holder and the Company (a "ROFR Acceptance Notice"), to purchase some or all of the Affected Units.

(c) To the extent that any Eligible Members elect to purchase Affected Units, the Affected Units shall be allocated first to each Eligible Member up to such Eligible Member's Pro-Rata Allotment. If all of the Affected Units are not allocated pursuant to the first sentence hereof and any Eligible Members have indicated in their ROFR Acceptance Notice that they wish to purchase additional Affected Units, then each Eligible Member who so indicated a desire to purchase additional Affected Units shall be allocated an additional amount of Affected Units equal to the product of (i) the total number of Affected Units available for purchase and not yet allocated, multiplied by (ii) a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of Units owned by such Eligible Member and the denominator of which is the total number of Units owned by all Eligible Members who desire to purchase additional Units. The procedure in the preceding sentence shall be repeated until either (A) all of the Affected Units have been allocated to Eligible Members, or (B) each of the Eligible Members has purchased the maximum amount of Units that they have indicated that they desire to purchase in their ROFR Acceptance Notice.

(d) With respect to any purchase of Affected Units pursuant to this Section 12.8, the purchase price for the Affected Units and the other terms of transfer shall be as set forth in the Offer Notice. The closing of such Transfer shall take place at the Company's principal office at 10:00 a.m. local time on the tenth (10th) Business Day after the Cut-Off Date, or, if applicable, on the third Business Day following the date on which any required governmental approvals for such Transfer are obtained or the expiration of any waiting period under the HSR Act, or at such other place, time or date as the Offering Holder and the purchaser(s) of Affected Units (the "Purchasers") mutually agree. At the closing, the Offering Holder shall deliver to each Purchaser its confirmation that it has transferred the Affected Units free and clear of any and all pledges, liens, claims, security interests or other encumbrances (other than restrictions imposed by this Agreement) and the Purchaser shall pay to the Offering Holder the consideration set forth in the Offer Notice in accordance with the terms described therein. In the event any Purchaser fails to obtain any such required governmental consent or approval (or the expiration of any waiting period under the HSR Act) prior to the 60th day after the Cut-Off Date (or such later date as may be agreed to by the Offering Holder), after having attempted in good faith, using commercially reasonable efforts, to obtain such consent or approval (or such expiration), such Purchaser shall be released from its obligation to purchase any Affected Units in excess of the amount for which such governmental consent or approval is required (or which could be purchased without any filing under the HSR Act). Such excess Units shall be reallocated among the other Purchasers utilizing the same procedure as outlined in Section 12.8(c).

(e) Subject to the provisions of this Article XII, in the event that all of the Affected Units are not purchased pursuant to this Section 12.8, the Offering Holder shall be free to Transfer such unpurchased Affected Units in strict accordance with the terms set forth in the Offer Notice at any time within sixty (60) days after the Cut-off Date (the "Transfer Period Termination Date"), provided that if the Offering Holder has executed a definitive agreement for the sale of all of such Affected Units within thirty (30) days after the Cut-off Date, then the Offering Holder shall be entitled to extend the Transfer Period Termination Date for up to an additional thirty (30) days to effect the closing of such sale, or, if any required governmental approval (or expiration of any waiting period) has not been obtained by such date, to such date (not more than 120 days after the Cut-off Date) as may be required for any necessary governmental approvals (or expiration of any waiting period) for such Transfer to be obtained. In the event that the Offering Holder does not sell or otherwise dispose of all of such Affected Units in the manner set forth in the immediately preceding sentence prior to the Transfer Period

Termination Date, the right of first refusal provided for in this Section 12.8 shall continue to be applicable to any subsequent disposition of such Units.

(f) This Section 12.08 shall cease to be of any further effect upon the consummation of a Qualified Public Offering.

Section 12.9. Interests in a Member. Without the consent of the Board, a Member (other than a Senior Preferred Member) that is not a natural person may not cause or permit an Interest, direct or indirect, in itself to be Transferred such that, after the Transfer, such Member shall cease to be controlled by substantially the same Persons who control it as of the date of its admission to the Company. On any breach of the provisions of the preceding sentence, the Company shall have the option to buy, and on exercise of that option the breaching Member shall sell, the breaching Member's Interests, all in accordance with the provisions of Sections 12.7(b) through 12.7(g), applied mutatis mutandis, as if the Interest held by such Member were held by an Optionee.

Section 12.10. Forced Sale Right.

(a) Generally. At any time after September 2, 2026 (or, if earlier, upon a breach by the Company of its obligations to mandatorily redeem the Senior Preferred Units pursuant to Section 4.3(f), which breach remains uncured for six months), if any Senior Preferred Units remain outstanding, the Senior Preferred Members holding a majority of the Senior Preferred Units shall have the right to cause the Company, at their written request delivered to the Company (a "Sale Notice"), to initiate a Sale Transaction. Upon receipt of such Sale Notice, the Company shall promptly engage in a comprehensive sales process in good faith, including selecting a nationally recognized investment banking firm having experience in the industry in which the Company is engaged to assist the Company in a sales process and in the preparation of a market due diligence report and a quality of earnings report. The failure of the Company to (i) promptly initiate a Sale Transaction sales process upon receipt of a Sale Notice, (ii) engage a nationally recognized investment bank in connection with such Sale Transaction process as soon as reasonably practicable following receipt of a Sale Notice, or (iii) consummate a Sale Transaction within twelve months of the Company's receipt of a Sale Notice shall constitute a "Sale Demand Failure". The Members agree that in connection with a Sale Transaction pursuant to this Section 12.10, the holders of Units will be required to participate in the Sale Transaction pursuant to Section 12.10(c). For the avoidance of doubt, at least one Senior Preferred Manager will serve on any committee of the Board with responsibility with respect to such sale process, and the Senior Preferred Members will receive copies of all materials generated during the sales process, including the market due diligence report and quality of earnings report referred to herein.

(b) Sale Demand Failure. Upon the occurrence of a Sale Demand Failure, the Senior Preferred Members holding a majority of the Senior Preferred Units shall have the right to control and implement a Sale Transaction in good faith until either (i) a Sale Transaction is consummated which results in the Senior Preferred Units being redeemed at a price at least equal to the price payable pursuant to a Senior Preferred Mandatory Redemption Event, or (ii) no Senior Preferred Units remain outstanding.

(c) Drag-Along.

(i) If, (A) following the occurrence of a Sale Demand Failure, the Senior Preferred Members holding a majority of the Senior Preferred Units receive a bona fide offer from a third party which qualifies as a Change of Control transaction or which proposes to acquire all or substantially all of the assets of the Company (whether pursuant to a merger, sale of equity interests, sale of assets or otherwise) or (B) at any time (x) Ganas Investors and (y) Senior Preferred Members holding a majority of the Senior Preferred Units mutually agree to effect a Change of Control transaction or to sell all or substantially all of the assets of the Company (whether pursuant to a merger, sale of equity interests, sale of assets or otherwise) (the Senior Preferred Members holding a majority of the Senior Preferred Units, in the case of clause (A), or Ganas Investors and Senior Preferred Members holding a majority of the Senior Preferred Units, collectively, in the case of clause (B), the "Drag-Along Rightholders", and the applicable transaction pursuant to clause (A) or clause (B), a "Drag-Along Sale"), the Drag-Along Rightholders may send written notice (the "Drag-Along Notice") to the Company and the other Members (the "Drag-Along Sellers") notifying them they will be required to (i) if applicable, sell such amount of Units and Warrants held by such Drag-Along Seller such that (A) the quotient obtained by dividing (x) the number of Units (on a Fully Diluted Basis, including Common Units issuable upon exercise of Warrants) to be sold by such Drag-Along Seller in such Drag-Along Sale by (y) the number of Units (on a Fully Diluted Basis, including Common Units issuable upon exercise of Warrants) held by such Drag- Along Seller prior to such Drag-Along Sale is equal to (B) the quotient obtained by dividing (x) the number of Units (on a Fully Diluted Basis, including Common Units issuable upon exercise of Warrants) to be sold by the Drag-Along Rightholders in such Drag-Along Sale by (y) the number of Units (on a Fully Diluted Basis, including Common Units issuable upon exercise of Warrants) held by the Drag-Along Rightholders immediately prior to such Drag-Along Sale or (ii) in the case of any asset sale or merger as described above in this Section 12.10(c)(i), to vote its Units as further provided in Section 12.10(d). The Drag-Along Notice shall set forth the terms and conditions of the Drag-Along Sale, including the number of Units (including Common Units issuable upon exercise of Warrants) proposed to be transferred, the consideration to be received by the Drag-Along Rightholders and the estimated time and place of closing.

(ii) If the Drag-Along Rightholders have not consummated the proposed sale to which reference is made in the Drag-Along Notice within one hundred eighty (180) days (or longer, if reasonably necessary to comply with applicable requirements of law) following delivery of the Drag-Along Notice, the Drag-Along Notice shall be null and void, each Drag-Along Seller shall be released from his, her or its obligation under the Drag-Along Notice and it shall be necessary for a separate Drag-Along Notice to be furnished and the terms and provisions of Section 12.10(c)(i) separately complied with, in order to consummate such proposed sale pursuant to Section 12.10(c)(i). Notwithstanding any other provision of Section 12.10(c)(i), the election to pursue such Drag-Along Sale shall be in the sole discretion of the Drag-Along Rightholders, who may take into account their individual interests, and there shall be no liability on the part of any Drag-Along Rightholder to any other Member arising from the failure of any Drag-Along Rightholder to pursue or consummate the Drag-Along Sale for any reason, and the decision to consummate such Drag-Along Sale shall be in the sole discretion of the Drag-Along Rightholder.

(d) Provisions Applicable to Drag-Along Sales.

(i) The Company and each Member participating in a proposed sale under Section 12.10(c), solely in its capacity as a Member of the Company shall take or cause to be taken at the expense of the Company all such reasonable actions consistent with the terms of Section 12.10 of this Agreement as may be necessary or reasonably desirable in order expeditiously to consummate such sale and any related transactions, including: (A) executing, acknowledging and delivering consents, assignments, waivers and other documents or instruments; (B) voting any Units over which such Member has voting power; and (C) otherwise reasonably cooperating with the selling Drag-Along Rightholder and the prospective buyer.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each such Member agrees to execute and deliver such agreements as may be reasonably specified by the Drag-Along Rightholder, including agreements to (1) make individual customary representations, warranties, covenants and other agreements as to, among other things, regarding its authority, non-contravention and title to and ownership such Units, (2) be severally based on the proceeds received by such Member, not jointly, liable with all other sellers (whether by purchase price adjustment, indemnity payments or otherwise) in respect of representations, warranties, covenants and other agreements in respect of the Company and its Subsidiaries, (3) provide indemnification obligations in respect of breaches of the matters described in clauses (1) and (2); provided, however, that, the aggregate liability of any such Member (other than in the case of fraud by such Member) in respect of the indemnification obligations described above shall not exceed such Member's pro rata portion of the proceeds (either in cash or other forms of consideration) actually received by such Member in connection with such sale, and (4) waive any appraisal or dissenters' rights which it may have in connection therewith.

(ii) The consummation of a sale pursuant to Section 12.10(c) shall be substantially in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the Drag-Along Notice and each participating Member in such sale shall receive the same form of consideration (except that holders of Management Incentive Units may receive securities pursuant to a management rollover which are not offered to all

Member), and the same amount of consideration per Unit (on a Fully Diluted Basis (net of any applicable exercise prices)) as received by the holders of other Units of the same priority. The closing of such sale shall take place at such time and place as the Drag- Along Rightholders shall reasonably specify by notice to each participating Member.

Section 12.11. Preemptive Rights.

(a) The Company shall give each Member notice (an "Issuance Notice") of any proposed issuance by the Company of any Company Securities at least 20 days prior to the proposed issuance date. For purposes of this Section 12.11, the term "Member" also includes each holder of a Warrant with respect to which, at the time of such notice, the Exercisable Date (as defined in the applicable Warrant) has occurred. The Issuance Notice shall specify the price at which such Company Securities are to be issued and the other material terms of the issuance. Subject to Section 12.11(c), each Member shall be entitled to purchase up to its Pro Rata Share of the Company Securities proposed to be issued, at the price and on the terms specified in the Issuance Notice.

As used herein, "Pro Rata Share" means, with respect to a Member, the fraction that results from dividing (i) such Member's Aggregate Ownership (immediately before giving effect to the proposed issuance) of Common Units (including Common Units issuable upon the Conversion of Preferred Units and the exercise of Warrants) by (ii) the Aggregate Ownership (immediately before giving effect to the issuance) of Common Units (including Common Units issuable upon the Conversion of Preferred Units and the exercise of Warrants) by all Members.

(b) If a Member desires to purchase any or all of its Pro Rata Share of the Company Securities specified in the Issuance Notice, such Member shall deliver notice to the Company (an "Exercise Notice") of its election to purchase such Company Securities within 10 Business Days of receipt of the Issuance Notice. The Exercise Notice shall specify the number (or amount) of Company Securities to be purchased by such Member (capped at such Member's Pro Rata Share). The Exercise Notice shall constitute exercise by the applicable Member of its rights under this Section 12.11 and a binding agreement of such Member to purchase, at the price and on the terms specified in the Issuance Notice, the number (or amount) of Company Securities specified in the Exercise Notice. If, at the termination of such ten-Business Day period, a Member shall not have delivered an Exercise Notice to the Company, such Member shall be deemed to have waived all of its rights under this Section 12.11 with respect to the purchase of such Company Securities that are the subject of the Issuance Notice.

(c) The Company shall have 90 days from the date of the Issuance Notice to consummate the proposed issuance of any or all of such Company Securities that the Members have not elected to purchase at the price and upon terms that are not materially less favorable to the Company than those specified in the Issuance Notice; provided that, if such issuance is subject to regulatory approval, such 90-day period shall be extended until the expiration of five Business Days after all such approvals have been received, but in no event later than 180 days from the date of the Issuance Notice. If the Company proposes to issue any such Company Securities after such 90-day (or 180-day) period, it shall again comply with the procedures set forth in this Section 12.11. Subject to Section 12.11(e) the purchase of Company Securities that the Members have agreed to purchase pursuant to this Section 12.11 shall be consummated simultaneously with the closing of the sale of the Company Securities set forth in the Issuance Notice.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, (A) the Members shall not be entitled to purchase Company Securities as contemplated by this Section 12.11 in connection with issuances of (i) Management Incentive Units in accordance with this Agreement (except issuances of Management Incentive Units to Daniel Chu), (ii) Company Securities in connection with a Qualified Financing or the issuance of the Junior Preferred Units contemplated by the Junior Preferred Unit Subscription Agreement as part of the Subsequent Offering, (iii) Company Securities issued to employees or Managers of the Company or any Subsidiary pursuant to employee benefit plans or similar arrangements approved by the Board (including any Company Securities issued upon conversion or exercise thereof) (except issuances of Company Securities to Daniel Chu), (iv) Company Securities issued as consideration to a selling party in a merger, consolidation, acquisition of similar business combination approved by the Board, (v) Company Securities upon conversion of the Preferred Units or upon exercise of any Warrants or (vi) paid-in-kind dividends or distributions on the Preferred Units made in accordance with this Agreement and (B) no Junior Preferred Member shall be entitled to purchase Company Securities as contemplated by this Section 12.11 in connection with issuances of (i) Company Securities issued to employees, directors and consultants pursuant to plans or agreements approved by the Board, (ii) Company Securities issued to banks, equipment lessors, or other institutions pursuant to debt financing or equipment leasing transactions approved by the Board or (iii) Company Securities issued in connection with sponsored research, collaboration, technology license, development, OEM, marketing or other similar agreements or strategic partnerships, in each case as approved by the Board. The Company shall not be obligated to consummate any proposed issuance of Company Securities, nor be liable to any Member if the Company has not consummated any proposed issuance of Company Securities pursuant to this Section 12.11 for whatever reason, regardless of whether it shall have delivered an Issuance Notice or received any Exercise Notices in respect of such proposed issuance.

(e) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section 12.11, the closing date of any proposed issuance of Company Securities to which this Section 12.11 applies may, at the Company's discretion, occur prior to the expiration of the 20-day period contemplated by Section 12.11(a); provided, however, that in such case the Members shall (other than those who elected to purchase Company Securities on such closing date) continue to have the right to exercise its rights under this Section 12.11 by delivering an Exercise Notice within 15 days of the receipt of the Issuance Notice pursuant to Section 12.11(b) to acquire from the Company (or, as determined by the Company, from the purchasers of the Company Securities on such closing date) the number of Company

Securities determined in accordance with Section 12.11(a) at the price and on the terms specified in the Exercise Notice.

(f) SPAC Transactions. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, if, in connection with any SPAC Transaction, any Manager or Member (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any Management Member) is entitled to receive any cash (including in the form of Distributions), equity securities or other interests in any Person (including any issuance of Company Securities) or any other economic right offered in connection with such SPAC Transaction, in each case, that is not generally offered to the other Members as consideration in such SPAC Transaction, then each Senior Preferred Member shall receive a pro rata share or pro rata participation rights in such economic rights or benefits up to such Senior Preferred Member's Percentage Interest on a fully diluted, as-converted and as-exercised basis; provided that the Senior Preferred Members shall not be entitled to share in any consideration, rights or benefits (in any form) that is offered to employees, officers or directors of the Company in their respective capacities as such (including pursuant to equity incentive plans, compensation plans, benefits plans, employment terms or employment agreements).

(g) The provisions of this Section 12.11 shall terminate upon the consummation of a Qualified Public Offering.

(h) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 12.11(a) through (c), the Members shall not be entitled to purchase Company Securities as contemplated by this Section 12.11 in connection with any issuance of Junior Preferred Units pursuant to the terms (as such terms exist as of the date of execution thereof and without giving effect to any amendments thereto) of the Junior Preferred Subscription Agreement, pursuant to which the Company has issued or shall issue Junior Preferred Units, including issuances that occur on a Subsequent Closing Date (as defined in the Junior Preferred Unit Subscription Agreement) in accordance with the terms thereof; provided that in no event shall this Section 12.11(h) apply to any issuance to the extent such issuance (x) occurs after January 31, 2022 or (y) results in aggregate proceeds to the Company (taken together with all prior issuances pursuant to Junior Preferred Unit Subscription Agreement) in excess of $99,000,000.

Section 12.12. Qualified Public Offerings and IPO Conversion.

(a) In the event of a Qualified Public Offering, any Blocker Member may elect (i) (if the Qualified Public Offering is a SPAC Transaction) to contribute its Units to the SPAC, (ii) to be merged into any other Blocker Member and/or, in the event that the Qualified Public Offering is a SPAC Transaction, the SPAC, or (iii) such other structure that is tax-efficient for the direct and indirect owners of such Blocker Member. Each Member other than such Blocker Member shall consent to and raise no objections to, and cooperate fully with, any such structure used for the Qualified Public Offering. The Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to structure any Qualified Public Offering in a manner that is tax-free or tax-efficient for the Members, including the Blocker Members.

(b) In connection with any Qualified Public Offering approved by the Board in accordance with the terms hereof, the Board may authorize the conversion of the Company into a corporation, whether by way of statutory conversion, merger, consolidation or otherwise (the "Corporate Conversion") upon such terms and conditions as the Board shall deem advisable; provided that the Corporate Conversion shall be effected in such a manner so as (i) not to have a material and disproportionate adverse impact on any Member in relation to any other Member, and (ii) to cause the Preferred Units, Common Units and Management Incentive Units to be exchanged for or converted into a single class of common stock of the entity into which the Company is converted, in each case, having a value equal to the proceeds that would have been distributed to the holders of the Preferred Units, Common Units and Management Incentive Units had a Liquidation Event been consummated at the aggregate equity valuation of the Company implied by the Qualified Public Offering.

(c) The Company shall give each Preferred Member at least 20 days' written notice prior to the occurrence of any Corporate Conversion or Qualified Public Offering. The Company and all Members shall cooperate in good faith and to execute all documents reasonably necessary in connection with the Corporate Conversion. The Company will bear all of its own expenses and any and all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses of the Members (including any and all transfer, stamp or similar taxes, any filing fees and expenses for any required governmental filings of the Company and/or any Member and the reasonable and documented legal and accounting fees and expenses of the Members) in connection with any Corporate Conversion. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a Corporate Conversion requires any Member to make a filing under the HSR Act or other applicable antitrust laws, the Company and the Senior Preferred Members shall cooperate in good faith to seek to structure a Corporate Conversion in a manner that will not result in an obligation of any Senior Preferred Member (or its Affiliates) to make any filing under the HSR Act or other applicable antitrust laws. The Company shall not effect a Corporate Conversion until all required waiting periods under the HSR Act applicable to any Member shall have expired or been terminated; provided, however, that, upon the request of the Company, the applicable Members (other than the Senior Preferred Members) shall promptly make any necessary filings under the HSR Act or other applicable antitrust laws.

DISSOLUTION, LIQUIDATION AND TERMINATION

Section 13.1. No Dissolution. The death, retirement, resignation, expulsion, bankruptcy or dissolution of any Member or the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of a Member in the Company shall not, in and of itself, cause the dissolution of the Company. In such event, the business of the Company shall be continued by the remaining Member or Members without dissolution. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, each Member waives any right it might have under Section 18-801(b) of the Delaware Act to agree in writing to dissolve the Company upon the bankruptcy of a Member of the Company or the occurrence of any event that causes a Member to cease to be a Member of the Company. The bankruptcy (as defined in Sections 18-101(l) and 18-304 of the Delaware Act) of a Member shall not cause a Member to cease to be a member of the Company.

Section 13.2. Events Causing Dissolution. The Company shall be dissolved and its affairs shall be wound up upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

(a) the written consent of the Members holding at least 80% of the Percentage Interests;

(b) for so long as the Senior Preferred Units remain outstanding, the written consent of the Senior Preferred Members holding at least 75% of the Senior Preferred Units outstanding; or

(c) the entry of a decree of judicial dissolution under Section 18-802 of the Delaware Act.

Section 13.3. Liquidation. Upon dissolution of the Company, the Board shall immediately commence to wind up the Company's affairs; provided, however, that a reasonable time shall be allowed for the orderly liquidation of the assets of the Company and the satisfaction of liabilities to creditors so as to enable the Board to minimize the normal losses attendant upon a liquidation. The Members shall continue to share Profits and Losses during liquidation as specified in Article VII. The proceeds of liquidation shall be distributed in the following order and priority:

(a) first, to creditors of the Company, excluding Members (other than Preferred Members) to the extent they are creditors, to the extent otherwise permitted by law, in satisfaction of the liabilities of the Company (whether by payment or the making of reasonable provision for payment thereof);

(b) second, to the Senior Preferred Members in accordance with Section 4.3(c);

(c) third, to the Junior Preferred Members in accordance with Section 4.3(c);

(d) fourth, to Members who are creditors of the Company; and

(e) fifth, to the Members in accordance with Section 8.1.

Section 13.4. Termination. The Company shall terminate when all of the assets of the Company, after payment, or due provision for all debts, liabilities and obligations, of the Company shall have been distributed to the Members in the manner provided for in this Article XII and the Certificate shall have been canceled in the manner required by the Delaware Act.

Section 13.5. Claims of the Members. The Members and former Members shall look solely to the Company's assets for the return of their Capital Contributions, and if the assets of the Company remaining after payment of or due provision for all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company are insufficient to return such Capital Contributions, the Members and former Members shall have no recourse against the Company, any Covered Person or any other Member.

ARTICLE XIV
MISCELLANEOUS

Section 14.1. Notices. Any notice or other communication provided for in this Agreement (a "Notice") shall be in writing, duly signed by the party giving such Notice, and shall be sent via (a) hand delivery, (b) e-mail transmission (provided that such Notice also is sent by one of the other methods set forth in this paragraph), (c) registered or certified mail (postage prepaid), or (d) overnight courier service, and addressed as follows:

(i) If sent to any Member or Manager, to the person and at the address (and, if applicable, fax number or e-mail address) set forth opposite its name on Schedule A or Schedule 5.1, as applicable, attached hereto, or at such other address (and, if applicable, fax number or e-mail address) as such Member or Manager may hereafter designate by Notice to the Company.

(ii) If sent to Company: 6021 Connection Drive, 4th Floor, Irving, TX 75039, or at such other address (and, if applicable, fax number or e-mail address) as the Company may hereafter designate by Notice to the Members and the Managers.

Each Notice shall be deemed to have been given and effective upon receipt (or refusal of receipt); provided, however, that if any notice is sent by email and a second method in accordance with this Section 14.1, such notice shall not be deemed to have been given until receipt of such second method unless the receiving party confirms receipt of the email, in which case notice shall be deemed to have been given at the time of such confirmation.

Section 14.2. Failure to Pursue Remedies. The failure of any party to seek redress for violation of, or to insist upon the strict performance of, any provision of this Agreement shall not prevent a subsequent act, which would have originally constituted a violation, from having the effect of an original violation.

Section 14.3. Cumulative Remedies. The rights and remedies provided by this Agreement are cumulative and the use of any one right or remedy by any party shall not preclude or waive its right to use any or all other remedies. Said rights and remedies are given in addition to any other rights the parties may have by law, statute, ordinance or otherwise.

Section 14.4. Binding Effect. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of all of the parties and, to the extent permitted by this Agreement, their successors, legal representatives and permitted assigns.

Section 14.5. Interpretation. All references herein to "Articles," "Sections" and "Paragraphs" shall refer to corresponding provisions of this Agreement. Whenever the words "include," "includes" or "including" are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words "without limitation." The words "hereof," "herein" and "hereunder" and words of similar import when used in this Agreement shall refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Agreement. All terms defined in this Agreement shall have the defined meanings when used in any certificate or other document made or delivered pursuant hereto unless otherwise defined therein. The definitions contained in this Agreement are applicable to the singular as well as the plural forms of such terms and to the masculine as well as to the feminine and neuter genders of such term. Any agreement, instrument or statute defined or referred to herein or in any agreement or instrument that is referred to herein means such agreement, instrument or statute as from time to time amended, modified or supplemented, including (in the case of agreements or instruments) by waiver or consent in writing and (in the case of statutes) by succession of comparable successor statutes and references to all attachments thereto and instruments incorporated therein. References to a Person are also to its permitted successors and assigns.

Section 14.6. Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. If any term or provision hereof is illegal, invalid or unenforceable for any reason whatsoever, that term or provision will be enforced to the maximum extent permissible so as to effect the intent of the parties, and such illegality, invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect the validity or legality of the remainder of this Agreement. If necessary to effect the intent of the parties, the Members will negotiate in good faith to amend this Agreement to replace the unenforceable language with enforceable language which as closely as possible reflects such intent.

Section 14.7. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed (including by facsimile or other electronic transmission) in any number of counterparts with the same effect as if all parties hereto had signed the same document. All counterparts shall be construed together and shall constitute one instrument.

Section 14.8. Governing Law. This Agreement and the rights of the parties hereunder shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, and all rights and remedies shall be governed by such laws without regard to principles of conflict of laws.

Section 14.9. Binding Agreement. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Members agree that this Agreement constitutes a legal, valid and binding agreement of the Members, and is enforceable against the Company and the Members in accordance with its terms.

Section 14.10. Waiver of Jury Trial. Each party hereto waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any right it may have to a trial by jury in respect of any action, suit or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement.

Section 14.11. Amendments. Subject to Section 4.1, Section 4.4 and Section 4.14, any amendment to this Agreement shall be adopted and be effective as an amendment hereto if approved by the Board.

Section 14.12. Spousal Consents. The termination of the marital relationship of any Member and such Member's spouse for any reason shall not have the effect of removing any Units otherwise subject to this Agreement from the coverage hereof. In the event any Member should hereafter become married to any Person, such Member shall cause such new spouse promptly to execute an instrument acceptable to the Board pursuant to which said new spouse shall agree to (a) be bound by the terms of this Agreement, including the terms of this Section 4.12, and (b) appoint the Member to whom he or she is married as his or her attorney in fact to represent him or her in all matters with regard to the Company and to bind his or her Interest, jointly with the applicable Member's, including by execution of any document relating to the Company.

Section 14.13. Powers of Attorney.

(a) Each of the Members (other than the Senior Preferred Members) does hereby constitute and appoint the Board and the liquidators of the Company, and their respective designees, with full power of substitution, as its true and lawful agents and attorneys in fact, with full power and authority in its name, place and stead, to execute, swear to, acknowledge, deliver, file and record (i) all instruments, documents and certificates that may from time to time be required by any law to effectuate, implement and continue the valid and subsisting existence of the Company, (ii) all instruments, documents and certificates which the Board or the liquidators, as applicable, deem appropriate or necessary to reflect any amendment, change, modification or restatement of this Agreement effected in accordance with Section 4.11, (iii) all instruments, documents and certificates relating to the admission, withdrawal or substitution of any Member (other than the Senior Preferred Members) pursuant to Article XII or Article XIII, and (iv) all instruments, documents and certificates that may be required to effectuate the dissolution and termination of the Company in each case in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.

(b) Each of the Members (other than the Senior Preferred Members) does hereby constitute and appoint the Board, the liquidators and, with respect to Section 12.7, a designee of any Member (other than a Senior Preferred Member) or the Company, as applicable, exercising its rights thereunder, and their respective designees, with full power of substitution, as its proxies and true and lawful agents and attorneys in fact, with full power and authority in its name, place and stead, with respect to the matters set forth herein, including regarding any Transfer pursuant to Section 12.7 and hereby authorizes each of them to represent, vote and consent, if and only if the party attempts to vote or consent (whether by proxy, in person or by written consent), in a manner which is inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement, all of such Member's Interests in favor of the approval of any Transfer pursuant to and in accordance with the terms and provisions of Section 12.7 or to take any action necessary to effect the provisions of Section 12.7 including the execution, delivery, filing and recording of any and all instruments, documents and certificates which the Board or designee of any Member (other than a Senior Preferred Member) or the Company, as applicable, exercising its rights under Section 12.7 deems appropriate or necessary to effect the provisions thereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Section 14.3 shall grant to any Member the right to appoint any Manager on behalf of any other Member that has the right to appoint one or more Managers pursuant to Section 5.1.

(c) Each of the proxies and powers of attorney granted pursuant to this Section is given in consideration of the agreements and covenants of the Company and the Members in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and each is coupled with an interest and shall be irrevocable unless and until this Agreement terminates in accordance with its terms, and will survive the death, incompetency, disability or dissolution of such Member. Each Member hereby revokes any and all previous proxies or powers of attorney with respect to the Interests and shall not hereafter, unless and until this Agreement terminates in accordance with its terms, purport to grant any other proxy or power of attorney with respect to any of the Interests, deposit any of the Interests into a voting trust or enter into any agreement (other than this Agreement), arrangement or understanding with any person, directly or indirectly, to vote, grant any proxy or give instructions with respect to the voting of any of the Interests, in each case, with respect to any of the matters set forth herein.

Section 14.14. Entire Agreement. This Agreement and the other documents and agreements referred to herein or entered into concurrently herewith, including the Certificate, the Senior Preferred Unit Subscription Agreement, the Junior Preferred Unit Subscription Agreement, the Warrants, each agreement related to the grant of Management Incentive Units, embody the entire agreement and understanding of the parties hereto in respect of the subject matter contained herein; provided, however, that such other agreements and documents shall not be deemed to be a part of, a modification of or an amendment to this Agreement. There are no restrictions, promises, representations, warranties, covenants or undertakings with respect to the subject matter contained herein, other than those expressly set forth or referred to herein. This Agreement supersedes all prior agreements and understandings between the parties with respect to such subject matter, including the Existing Limited Liability Company Agreement.

Section 14.15. No Third-Party Beneficiaries. Except as provided in Article XI (which shall be for the benefit of and enforceable by Covered Persons as described therein) and except as set forth in the next sentence, this Agreement is for the sole benefit of the parties hereto (and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns) and nothing herein, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other Person, including any creditor of the Company, any legal or equitable right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement. The provisions of this Agreement relating to the Warrants and the holders thereof are for the benefit of and enforceable by the holders of the Warrants (and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns). A holder of a Warrant, in its capacity as such, has agreed in such Warrant to be bound by this Agreement to the extent expressly applicable to such Warrant.

Section 14.16. BHC Amendments. If the BlackRock Investors determine at any time that the continued ownership by the BlackRock Investors of any or all of the Units or other Interests in the Company owned by them (a) creates a material risk that a banking regulatory authority with jurisdiction over the BlackRock Investors or any of their Affiliates may assert that the BlackRock Investors or any of their Affiliates (i) controls the Company for banking law purposes or (ii) is in violation of applicable law, including without limitation Section 13 of the Bank Holding Company Act or the Volcker Rule, or (b) otherwise would have an adverse effect on the BlackRock Investors or its Affiliates that is material in any respect, including by subjecting it to regulatory requirements with respect to the holding of the Units or other Interests of the Company by the BlackRock Investors, the BlackRock Investors may, without the consent or approval of any other Member, make any change to this Agreement necessary or advisable, as reasonably determined by the BlackRock Investors, to reduce such risk or avoid such adverse effect (any such change to this Agreement, a "BHCA Amendment"). By acceptance of its Units in the Company, each Member hereby agrees, and shall be required, to cooperate fully, at Company's expense, with any such BHCA Amendment.

Section 14.17. Use of BlackRock Name. The Company will not, and each Member will not, without the written consent of the BlackRock Investors in each instance, use in advertising, publicity or otherwise the name of the BlackRock Investors or any of their respective Affiliates, or any director, officer or employee of the BlackRock Investors, nor any trade name, trademark, trade device, service mark, symbol or any abbreviation, contraction or simulation thereof owned by any of the BlackRock Investors or any of their Affiliates or any information relating to the business or operations of any of the BlackRock Investors or any of their Affiliates (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any investment vehicles, funds or accounts managed thereby); provided, however, the Company may, without consent from the BlackRock Investors, disclose on a confidential and non-public basis the fact that the BlackRock Investors made an investment in the Company (but not, other than with respect to the Company's advisors, the terms of such investment) to the Company's existing investors, prospective investors, existing lenders, prospective lenders, existing capital markets investors (but not in any offering memorandum, private placement memorandum or other similar offering document), investment bankers, financial advisors and other advisors to the Company (e.g., attorneys, accountants, etc.), consultants, and rating agencies.

Annex A

Senior Preferred Unit Protective Covenants

Until the redemption in full of the Senior Preferred Units:

1. Good Standing; Licenses, Approvals and Agreements. The Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, (a) (i) maintain its existence and good standing in its jurisdiction of incorporation and (ii) maintain qualification in each jurisdiction in which it is required under applicable law, except, solely with respect to clause (a)(ii), where failure to do so could not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Company and its Subsidiaries and (b) maintain in force all licenses, approvals and agreements, the loss of which could have a material adverse effect on the Company and its Subsidiaries.

2. Government Compliance. The Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, (a) meet the "minimum funding requirements" of ERISA with respect to each Pension Plan (as defined in Section 412 of the Code or Section 302 of ERISA), noncompliance with which could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Company and its Subsidiaries and (b) comply with all statutes, laws, ordinances and government rules and regulations (including, without limitation, the USA PATRIOT Act, the FCPA and OFAC) to which it is subject, noncompliance with which could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Company and its Subsidiaries.

3. Financial Statements, Reports, Certificates. To the extent not otherwise required by Section 9.1 of this Agreement, the Company shall deliver the following to the Senior Preferred Members:

(a) as soon as available, but in any event within thirty (30) days after the end of each month, a consolidated balance sheet, income, and cash flow statement covering the consolidated operations of the Company and its Subsidiaries during such period, prepared in accordance with GAAP, consistently applied;

(b) as soon as available, but in any event within forty-five (45) days after the end of each fiscal quarter, a consolidated balance sheet, income, and cash flow statement covering the consolidated operations of the Company and its Subsidiaries during such period, prepared in accordance with GAAP, consistently applied;

(c) as soon as available, but in any event within one hundred twenty (120) days after the end of the Company's Fiscal Year, audited consolidated financial statements of the Company prepared in accordance with GAAP, consistently applied, together with an unqualified opinion (except as to maturity of Indebtedness and breach or anticipated breach of any financial covenant) on such financial statements of an independent certified public accounting firm reasonably acceptable to the Senior Preferred Members;

(d) together with each delivery of financial statements pursuant to Sections 3(b) and 3(c), (i) a Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Position and Results of Operations, and (ii) a schedule setting forth in reasonable detail, with respect to the Company and its Subsidiaries, calculations of (A) Indebtedness, (B) Tangible Net Worth, and (C) Indebtedness to Tangible Net Worth Ratio;

(e) copies of all statements, reports and notices sent or made available generally by the Company or its Subsidiaries to its security holders or to any lenders and, if applicable, all reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission;

(f) as soon as available, but in any event no later than ninety (90) days after the end of Company's Fiscal Year, annual operating projections (including income statements, balance sheets and cash flow statements presented in a monthly or quarterly format) for the forthcoming Fiscal Year, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Senior Preferred Members;

(g) copies of all material notices (including default notices), reports or materials sent or received by the Company or its Subsidiaries in connection with any material Indebtedness;

(h) promptly upon receipt of notice thereof, a report of the commencement of, or any material developments in (including copies of any draft settlement agreements), any legal actions pending or threatened against the Company or any Subsidiary thereof that could reasonably be expected to result in damages or costs to the Company or any Subsidiary (prior to giving effect to any insurance or indemnities) in excess of $625,000 individually or $1,750,000 in the aggregate or could reasonably be excepted to result in a material adverse effect on the Company and its Subsidiaries;

(i) promptly (but in any event within five (5) Business Days) upon any responsible officer of the Company or any Subsidiary becoming aware that the counterparty with respect to any material Indebtedness or material contract of the Company or any Subsidiary has given any notice or taken any other action with respect to a claimed default thereunder, notice from a responsible officer specifying the nature and period of existence of any such condition or event, or specifying the notice given or action taken by such holder or Person and the nature of such claimed default, event or condition;

(j) promptly (but in any event within ten (10) Business Days) upon any responsible officer of the Company or any Subsidiary obtaining knowledge of the existence of any change in the Company's certified public accountant, notice from a responsible officer specifying the change.

(k) promptly (but in any event within five (5) Business Days), upon any responsible officer of the Company or Subsidiary obtaining knowledge of any ERISA Event;

(l) promptly (but in any event within twenty (20) Business Days), upon any responsible officer of the Company or any Subsidiary obtaining knowledge of any written complaint, order, citation, notice or other written communication from any Person delivered to the Company or any Subsidiary with respect to, or if any responsible officer of the Company or any Subsidiary becomes aware of (i) the existence or alleged existence of a violation by the Company or any Subsidiary of any applicable environmental law or any pending legislative or threatened proceeding under any applicable environmental law (or any material developments with respect to such events) or (ii) any property of the Company or any Subsidiary that is or will be subject to a lien imposed pursuant to any environmental law, in each case of (i) through (ii), that could reasonably be expected to give rise to, remediation costs and expenses or losses of the Company and/or its Subsidiaries that exceed $1,500,000, written notice from a responsible officer of the Company or Subsidiary specifying the nature and period of existence of any such condition or event, or specifying the notice given or action taken by such holder or Person;

(m) promptly (but in any event within twenty (20) Business Days) copies of any reports or notices related to any claim or investigation by a Governmental Authority, with respect to a material deficiency in the payment of taxes or, with respect to any audit, by the Company or any Subsidiary;

(n) promptly (but in any event within ten (10) Business Days) after any responsible officer of the Company or any Subsidiary obtains knowledge of the occurrence of any event or change that has resulted or would reasonably be expected to result in, either in any case or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect on the Company and its Subsidiaries, notice from a responsible officer of the Company or Subsidiary specifying the nature and period of existence of any such event or change; or

(o) promptly (but in any event within twenty (20) Business Days) after the Company or any Subsidiary changes its financial accounting method for purposes of GAAP reporting, other than any change required by GAAP, notice from a responsible officer of the Company or Subsidiary specifying such changes.

4. Inspection Rights. The Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, permit Senior Preferred Members to inspect such Person's books and records at any time from time to time during ordinary business hours, all at the Company's sole cost and expense; provided that such inspections will be conducted during regular business hours and upon reasonable prior notice.

5. Taxes.

(a) The Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, make due and timely payment or deposit of all federal and other material taxes, assessments, or contributions required of it by law, and will execute and deliver to Senior Preferred Members, on demand, appropriate certificates or other proof reasonably satisfactory to Senior Preferred Members attesting to the payment or deposit thereof.

(b) The Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, make timely payment or deposit of all material tax payments and material withholding taxes required of it by applicable laws, including, but not limited to, those laws concerning F.I.C.A., F.U.T.A., state disability, and local, state, and federal income taxes, and shall, upon request, furnish Senior Preferred Members with proof reasonably satisfactory to Senior Preferred Members indicating that such Person has made such payments or deposits.

6. Insurance. The Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, maintain policies of insurance with respect to its properties and businesses against such casualties and contingencies as are in accordance with the general practices of businesses engaged in similar activities in similar geographic areas, all at the Company's sole cost and expense.

7. Conduct of Business; Maintenance of Properties. The Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, (a) continue to conduct its business substantially as now conducted or as otherwise permitted hereunder; and (b) at all times maintain, preserve and protect all of its assets and properties used or useful in the conduct of its business, and keep the same in good repair, working order and condition in all material respects (taking into consideration ordinary wear and tear) and from time to time make, or cause to be made, all necessary or appropriate repairs, replacements and improvements thereto consistent with industry practices, except as would not result in a material adverse effect on the Company and its Subsidiaries.

8. Intellectual Property Rights. The Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, (a) except as the Company may determine in its reasonable business judgment in connection with a Permitted Disposition, protect, defend and maintain the validity and enforceability of intellectual property owned by and not in-licensed by the Company or its Subsidiary and (b) except as the Company may determine in its reasonable business judgment, not allow any registered intellectual property owned by and not in-licensed by the Company or its Subsidiary material to the Company's or such Subsidiary's business to be abandoned, forfeited or dedicated to the public.

9. Environmental Matters. The Company shall, and shall cause each Subsidiary to, (i) comply, and cause all lessees and other Persons operating or occupying its properties to comply, in all material respects, with all applicable environmental laws and environmental permits that it holds or is required to hold under applicable laws, except where the failure to do so could not reasonably be expected to give rise to, remediation costs and expenses of the Company and/or its Subsidiaries that exceed $1,500,000.

10. Dispositions. The Company shall not, and shall not permit its Subsidiaries to, convey, sell, lease, license, transfer or otherwise dispose of all or any part of its business or property (including any equity interests in Subsidiaries), other than Permitted Dispositions.

11. Change in Business. The Company shall not, and shall not permit its Subsidiaries to engage in any business other than the businesses currently engaged in by the Company and its Subsidiaries and any business substantially similar or related thereto or without the consent of the Senior Preferred Members holding a majority of the Senior Preferred Units.

12. Encumbrances. The Company shall not, and shall not permit their respective Subsidiaries to, create, incur, assume or suffer to exist any Lien with respect to any of its property, or assign or otherwise convey any right to receive income, including the sale of any Accounts, except for Permitted Liens.

13. Compliance. The Company shall not, and shall not permit their respective Subsidiaries to, (a) become an "investment company" or be controlled by an "investment company," within the meaning of the Investment Company Act of 1940, (b) become principally engaged in, or undertake as one of its important activities, the business of extending credit for the purpose of purchasing or carrying margin stock, (c) fail to meet the "minimum funding requirements" of ERISA with respect to any Pension Plan, which could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Company and its Subsidiaries, (d) permit a "reportable event" or "prohibited transaction" (in each case, as defined in ERISA) to exist which could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Company and its Subsidiaries, or (e) violate any law or regulation which violation could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Company and its Subsidiaries.

14. Anti-Terrorism Laws. The Company shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary to, conduct, deal in or engage in or permit any Affiliate or agent of such Person within its control to conduct, to deal in or engage in any of the following activities: (a) conduct any business or engage in any transaction or dealing with any person blocked pursuant to Executive Order No. 13224 ("Blocked Person"), including the making or receiving any contribution of funds, goods or services to or for the benefit of any Blocked Person; (b) deal in, or otherwise engage in any transaction relating to, any property or interests in property blocked pursuant to Executive Order No. 13224; or (c) engage in on conspire to engage in any transaction that evades or avoids, or has the purpose of evading or avoiding, or attempts to violate, any of the prohibitions set forth in Executive Order No. 13224 or the USA Patriot Act.

15. Restrictive Agreements. The Company shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly create or otherwise cause or suffer to exist or become effective any consensual encumbrance or restriction of any kind on the ability of any Subsidiary to: (i) pay any Indebtedness owed to the Company or any Subsidiary; (ii) make loans or advances to the Company or any Subsidiary; or (iii) transfer any of its property or assets to the Company or any Subsidiary; provided that the foregoing shall not apply to (1) restrictions or conditions imposed by law, or by this Agreement, (2) restrictions or conditions imposed by any agreement relating to secured Indebtedness permitted by this Agreement, (3) customary provisions in leases, subleases, licenses, asset sale agreements and other contracts restricting the grant of a security interest therein or the assignment thereof or the assets governed thereby, (4) any agreement in effect at the time any Person becomes a Subsidiary, so long as such agreement was not entered into solely in contemplation of such Person becoming a Subsidiary, (5) customary provisions limiting the disposition or distribution of assets or property in asset sale agreements, stock sale agreements and other similar agreements in the ordinary course of business (including agreements entered into in connection with any investment permitted under Section 13), which limitation is applicable only to the assets that are the subject of such agreements pending a sale or merger, (6) customary provisions in agreements with clearing houses or other similar agreements entered into in the ordinary course of business, (7) restrictions in other agreements evidencing Indebtedness for borrowed money permitted under this Agreement, solely to the extent that such agreements do not otherwise conflict with the terms of this Agreement, and (8) customary provisions in leases, licenses, joint venture agreements and similar instruments and agreements.

16. Limitation on Sale and Leaseback Transactions. The Company shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly, enter into any arrangement with any Person whereby in a substantially contemporaneous transaction the Company or any of its Subsidiaries sells or transfers all or substantially all of its right, title and interest in an asset and, in connection therewith, acquires or leases back the right to use such asset.

17. Fiscal Year; Accounting Change. The Company shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary to, (a) change its Fiscal Year end except with the consent of the Senior Preferred Members (not to be unreasonably withheld, delayed, denied or conditioned) or (b) make any material change in its accounting treatment and reporting practices except as required or permitted by GAAP.

18. Holding Company. The Company shall not (i) create or suffer to exist any lien upon any assets or property now owned or hereafter acquired, leased or licensed by it other than Permitted Liens; (ii) engage in any business or activity or own any material assets other than (a) directly holding 100% of the outstanding voting and economic equity interests of its first tier Subsidiaries existing on the Effective Date, (b) performing its obligations with respect to any Permitted Indebtedness (and activities related thereto) and its organizational documents or as required by any applicable law, (c) entering into, and performing its obligations under and in connection with, (A) contracts and agreements with officers, directors and employees of Company or its Subsidiaries relating to their employment or directorships, (B) insurance policies and related contracts and agreements and (C) equity subscription agreements, registration rights agreements, voting and other stockholder agreements and other agreements in respect of Permitted Equity Issuances or of equity issuances junior in priority to the Senior Preferred Units and that do not require any cash payment prior to the redemption in full in cash of the Senior Preferred Units, (d) participating in tax, accounting and other administrative matters as a member of the consolidated group of Company and its Subsidiaries, (e) incurring fees, costs and expenses relating to overhead and general operating or (f) activities incidental to the businesses and activities described in preceding clauses (ii)(a) through (ii)(e) above; (iii) (a) consolidate with or merge with or into any Person or (b) convey, transfer, lease or license all or substantially all its assets to, any Person; or (iv) fail to hold itself out to the public as a legal entity separate and distinct from all other Persons.

19. Creditors. The Company shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly, (i) in connection with a foreclosure or sale or transfer of all or substantially of the assets of the Company or its subsidiaries by any secured creditor as a result of the breach by Company or any of its subsidiaries of their duties in connection with any transaction or securities, no waiver of or amendment to any of the Company's (or its subsidiaries') rights against any such secured creditor; (ii) settle any litigation, arbitration, or other proceeding, in each case, that involves a guilty plea, or any acknowledgement of criminal wrongdoing if such settlement would have a material adverse effect on the Company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole; and (iii) consent to or implement any restructuring or sale transaction that would have the effect of impairing in any material respect the value of the Senior Preferred Units or any of the non-monetary rights of the Senior Preferred Members unless the Senior Preferred Units will be redeemed in full at the Preferred Redemption Price in connection with such restructuring or sale transaction.

20. Voluntary Bankruptcy. The Company shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly, institutes or consents to the institution of any proceeding under any debtor relief law, or makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors; or applies for or consents to the appointment of any receiver, trustee, custodian, conservator, liquidator, rehabilitator or similar officer for it or for all or substantially all of its property.

21. Senior Preferred Member Calls. Within 5 Business Days of the receipt of the quarterly and annual financial information required by Section 3(a) and 3(c), the Company will conduct a meeting (which such meeting may be a telephonic meeting, at the election of Company) of the Senior Preferred Members to discuss the most recently reported financial results and the financial condition of the Company and its Subsidiaries, at which there shall be present the chief financial officer and such other officers of the Company as may be reasonably requested to attend by the Senior Preferred Members, such request or requests to be made at a reasonable time prior to the scheduled date of such meeting. Such meetings shall be held at a time and place convenient to the Senior Preferred Members and to Company.

22. Defined Terms. Capitalized terms used on this Annex A shall have the respective meanings ascribed to such terms in this Agreement or below:

"ERISA" means the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, and the regulations thereunder.

"ERISA Affiliate" means each Person, trade or business (whether or not incorporated) that, together with the Company, is, or within the past six (6) years was, treated as a single employer under (i) Section 414(b) or (c) of the Code or Section 4001(14) of ERISA or (ii) solely for purposes of Section 302 of ERISA and Section 412 of the Code, Section 414 of the Code.

"ERISA Event" means any of the following: (i) the institution of any steps by the Company or any ERISA Affiliate or the PBGC to terminate any Pension Plan or appoint a trustee to administer any Pension Plan, or the occurrence of any event or condition that would reasonably be expected to constitute grounds under ERISA for the termination of, or the appointment of a trustee to administer, any Plan, (ii) the failure of the Company or any ERISA Affiliate to make a required contribution on a timely basis to any Pension Plan or multiemployer pension plan (within the meaning of Section 4001 of ERISA) ("Multiemployer Plan"), (iii) the taking of any action with respect to a Pension Plan which is reasonably likely to result in the requirement that the Company or any Subsidiary furnish a bond or other security to the PBGC or such Pension Plan, (iv) the occurrence of a reportable event under Section 4043 of ERISA (for which a reporting requirement is not waived) with respect to any Pension Plan, (v) the occurrence of any event with respect to any Pension Plan or Multiemployer Plan which is reasonably likely to result in the incurrence by the Company or any Subsidiary of any material liability, fine or penalty (including any claim or demand for withdrawal liability or partial withdrawal from any Multiemployer Plan), (vi) any material increase in the liability or contingent liability of the Company or any Subsidiary with respect to any post-retirement welfare plan benefit or (vii) the receipt by the Company or any Subsidiary of any notice that with respect to any Multiemployer Plan that increased contributions will be required to avoid a reduction in plan benefits or the imposition of an excise tax, that any such plan is or is expected to be in "at risk" status (as defined in Section 412 of the Code or Section 302 of ERISA), that any such plan is or will be terminated, or that any such plan is or will become insolvent, (viii) an event or circumstance or failure that results in or would reasonably be expected to result in liability to the Company or a Subsidiary under Title I of ERISA or a tax under any of Sections 4971 through 5000 of the Code; or (ix) disqualification of an ERISA Plan that is intended to be qualified under Section 401(a) of the Code, or incurrence of a material sanction in lieu of disqualification.

"ERISA Plan" means any "employee benefit plan", as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA, which the Company or an ERISA Affiliate maintains, sponsors or contributes to, or, in the case of an employee benefit plan which is subject to Section 412 of the Code or Title IV of ERISA, to which the Company or any ERISA Affiliate has any liability, including any liability by reason of having been a substantial employer within the meaning of Section 4063 of ERISA at any time during the preceding five (5) years, or by reason of being deemed to be a contributing sponsor under Section 4069 of ERISA.

"PBGC" means the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation and any Person succeeding to any or all of its functions under ERISA.

"Pension Plan" means any ERISA Plan that is subject to Section 412 of the Code or Title IV of ERISA.

"Permitted Equity Issuances" means, issuance of equity by the Company or a Subsidiary of the Company, (i) to a wholly-owned direct or indirect subsidiary of the Company or (ii) director's qualifying shares (or equivalents) or (iii) pursuant to employee stock option plans or similar employee benefits arrangements.

"Permitted Liens" means (i) liens on Company assets in connection with Indebtedness permitted by the terms hereof, including Permitted Indebtedness, (ii) liens to secure workers compensation, insurance and pension or other like obligations, (iii) Liens of carriers', landlords', repairmen's, mechanics, materialmen, warehousemen, carriers, or other similar statutory Liens securing obligations (x) that are not yet delinquent or remain payable without penalty or which are being contested in good faith and by appropriate proceedings diligently prosecuted, which proceedings have the effect of preventing the forfeiture or sale of the property, assets or revenues subject thereto and for which adequate reserves in accordance with GAAP are being maintained and (y) that are incurred in the ordinary course of business, (iv) easements, rights of way and zoning restrictions and (v) liens for taxes and other government charges which are not delinquent or are being contested in good faith and adequate reserves are maintained in accordance with GAAP.

"Permitted Refinancing" means, with respect to any Person, any modification, refinancing, refunding, renewal, replacement, repurchase, exchange or extension (collectively, a "Refinancing" and "Refinance" and "Refinanced" shall have correlative meanings) of any Indebtedness of such Person including Indebtedness that is refinancing Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness; provided, however, that (a) the principal amount (or if issued with original issue discount, an aggregate issue price) thereof does not exceed the principal amount of the Indebtedness so Refinanced except by an amount equal to accrued and unpaid interest and any premium thereon plus other amounts paid, and fees and expenses incurred, in connection with such Refinancing, including any customary and reasonable defeasance costs, underwriting fees and discounts and tender premiums and by an amount equal to any existing commitments unutilized and letters of credit undrawn thereunder; (b) such Refinancing has a final maturity date equal to or later than the final maturity date of, and has a weighted average life to maturity equal to or greater than the weighted average life to maturity of, the Indebtedness being Refinanced; (c) if the Indebtedness being Refinanced is unsecured, such Refinancing is unsecured; (d) such Refinancing is incurred by the Person who is the obligor or guarantor (or any successor thereto) on the Indebtedness being Refinanced and is not guaranteed by any Person who is not an obligor or guarantor under the Indebtedness being Refinanced; (e) such Refinancing shall not be secured by any asset that does not secure the Indebtedness being Refinanced, and (f) any terms of such Indebtedness shall be on terms as agreed by the Company or the applicable Subsidiary and the lenders providing such Indebtedness.

FORM OF FIRST TRANCHE WARRANT

(see attached)

FORM OF WARRANT

TRICOLOR HOLDINGS, LLC

THIS WARRANT AND THE SECURITIES ISSUABLE UPON EXERCISE OF THIS WARRANT HAVE NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE "ACT"), OR QUALIFIED UNDER ANY STATE OR FOREIGN SECURITIES LAWS AND MAY NOT BE OFFERED FOR SALE, SOLD, PLEDGED, HYPOTHECATED OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED OR ASSIGNED UNLESS (I) A REGISTRATION STATEMENT COVERING SUCH SECURITIES IS EFFECTIVE UNDER THE ACT AND IS QUALIFIED UNDER APPLICABLE STATE AND FOREIGN LAW, OR (II) THE TRANSACTION IS EXEMPT FROM THE REGISTRATION AND PROSPECTUS DELIVERY REQUIREMENTS UNDER THE ACT AND ANY QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS UNDER APPLICABLE STATE AND FOREIGN LAW.

Dated: September 2, 2021

First Tranche Warrant No.: [●]

THIS CERTIFIES THAT, for value received, [_____], a [_____], or its successors or assigns (such Person and such successors and assigns each being the "Warrant Holder" with respect to the Warrant held by it), at any time and from time to time on any Business Day on or after the Exercisable Date (as herein defined) and prior to 5:00 p.m. (ET) on the Expiration Date (as herein defined), is entitled: (a) to subscribe for the purchase from Tricolor Holdings, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "Company"), [_____] Warrant Units, in each case at a price per Common Unit equal to the Exercise Price (as herein defined); and (b) to the other rights set forth herein; provided, however, that the number of Common Units issuable upon any exercise of this Warrant and the Exercise Price shall be adjusted and readjusted from time to time in accordance with Section 5.

WHEREAS, this Warrant is being issued to the Warrant Holder pursuant to the Subscription Agreement (as herein defined).

IN FURTHERANCE THEREOF, in consideration of the foregoing, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which hereby are acknowledged, the parties hereto irrevocably undertake and agree as follows:

Section 1. Definitions and Construction.

(a) Certain Definitions. As used herein (the following definitions being applicable in both singular and plural forms):

"Affiliate" means any Person directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by, or under common control with another Person and any Persons with the same investment manager or whose investment manager is directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by, or under common control with another Person's investment manager. For purposes of this definition, "control" (including the terms "controlled by" and "under common control with") means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management policies or affairs of a Person, whether through ownership of voting securities, by contract or otherwise, as executor, trustee or otherwise.

"Appraiser" means a mutually acceptable, independent third party investment bank, selected by the Company and the Requisite Holders, who shall determine Fair Value, if the Company and the Warrant Holder are unable to agree. Any determination by the Appraiser shall be final, conclusive and binding upon the Company and the holders of the Warrants and the Warrant Units. The fees and expenses of the Appraiser shall be paid by the Company, on the one hand, and by the Requisite Holders, on the other hand, based upon the percentage that the amount actually contested but not awarded to the Company or the Requisite Holders, respectively, bears to the aggregate amount actually contested by the Company and the Requisite Holders.

"Board" means the board of directors or managers, managing member, or such other similar governing Person or body.

"Business Day" means any day except a Saturday, Sunday or other day on which commercial banks in New York City are authorized by law to close.

"Capital Reorganization" has the meaning set forth in Section 5(b).

"Commission" means the Securities and Exchange Commission or any other Federal agency administering the Securities Act at the time.

"Common Unit Reorganization" has the meaning set forth in Section 5(a).

"Common Units" means Common Units of the Company, and any other class or series of equity interests into which such Common Units may hereafter have been changed, converted, exchanged or reclassified .

"Common Units Deemed Outstanding" means, at any given time, the sum of (i) the number of Common Units actually outstanding at such time, plus (ii) the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise of Options actually outstanding at such time, plus (iii) without duplication, the number of Common Units issuable upon conversion, exercise or exchange of Convertible Securities actually outstanding at such time (treating as actually outstanding any Convertible Securities, issuable upon exercise of Options actually outstanding at such time), in each case, regardless of whether the Options or Convertible Securities are actually exercisable at such time; provided, however, that Common Units Deemed Outstanding at any given time shall not include (i) Common Units, Convertible Securities or Options owned or held by or for the account of the Company or any of its wholly owned subsidiaries, or (ii) any Warrants (or the Common Units issuable upon exercise of such Warrants) with respect to which the Exercisable Date has not occurred.

"Company" has the meaning set forth in the introductory paragraph to this Warrant.

"Convertible Securities" means any securities (directly or indirectly) convertible into or exchangeable for Common Units, but excluding Options. For the avoidance of doubt, Management Incentive Units are not Convertible Securities.

"Excluded Issuances" means any issuance or sale (or deemed issuance or sale in accordance with Section 5(f)) by the Company of any Common Units issued: (a) upon the exercise of any Warrant; (b) upon the conversion of any Preferred Unit; (c) securities issued by the Company in a Qualified Public Offering; or (d) Units of the Company issued in accordance with the LLC Agreement as consideration to a selling party in a merger, consolidation, acquisition or similar business combination approved by the Board.

"Exchange Act" means the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

"Exercisable Date" means September 2, 2021.

"Exercise Amount" means for any number of Warrant Units as to which this Warrant is being exercised, the product of (i) such number of Warrant Units, multiplied by (ii) the Exercise Price.

"Exercise Price" means $0.01 per Warrant Unit, as adjusted from time to time pursuant to Section 5.

"Expiration Date" means the earlier to occur of: (i) September 2, 2028 and (ii) the consummation of a Qualified Financing.

"Fair Value" means, as of any particular date, the fair value of a Unit, without giving effect to any discounts for a lack of control, illiquidity, lack of marketability or minority status, as determined jointly by the Company and the Warrant Holder in good faith.

"Fully Diluted Equity", as of any particular date, means all outstanding Common Units plus all Common Units issuable in respect of Convertible Securities, Management Incentive Units, Options and all appreciation rights and phantom equity based on or in respect of Common Units, as of such date, including, and for the avoidance of doubt, any right pursuant to any equity incentive plan; provided, however, that if any of the foregoing are subject to vesting or are otherwise not exercisable as of the relevant date, such Common Units shall be included only upon and to the extent then vested or exercisable.

"Lien" means any lien (statutory or otherwise), encumbrance, charge, claim, community property interest, option, pledge, mortgage, deed of trust, hypothecation, collateral assignment, deposit arrangement or security interest.

"LLC Agreement" means that certain Fourth Amended and Restated Operating Agreement, dated as of September 2, 2021, among Tricolor Holdings, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and certain holders of equity interests of the Company, as the same may be amended, restated, or otherwise modified from time to time.

"Notice of Exercise" has the meaning set forth in Section 2(a).

"Options" means any warrants, options or other rights to subscribe for or purchase Common Units or Convertible Securities.

"Original Price" has the meaning set forth in Section 5(d).

"Person" means an individual, a corporation, a limited liability company, a partnership, an association, a trust or any other entity or organization, including a government or political subdivision or an agency or instrumentality thereof.

"Preferred Units" has the meaning set forth in the LLC Agreement.

"Requisite Holders" means, at any time, holders of Warrant Units and Warrants representing more than 50% of the Warrant Units outstanding and/or issuable upon the exercise of all the outstanding Warrants.

"Securities Act" means the Securities Act of 1933 and the rules and regulations of the Commission thereunder, all as the same shall be in effect at the time.

"Special Distribution" has the meaning set forth in Section 5(c).

"Subscription Agreement" means that certain Subscription Agreement, dated as of September 2, 2021, among Tricolor Holdings, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and the other parties thereto, as the same may be amended, restated, or otherwise modified from time to time.

"Tax Distributions" means tax distributions from the Company to any Member pursuant to the terms of Section 8.2 of the LLC Agreement.

"Units" has the meaning set forth in the LLC Agreement.

"Warrant" means, as the context requires, (i) this Warrant, (ii) any of the other Common Unit purchase warrants originally issued pursuant to or in connection with the Subscription Agreement, (iii) in the case of clause (i) or clause (ii) above, any successor warrant, any replacement warrant, and any warrant issued upon division or combination of, or in substitution for, this Warrant or any such other Common Unit purchase warrant, and (iv) any warrant issued upon a whole or partial transfer or assignment of any warrant referred to in the foregoing clauses (i), (ii) and (iii).

"Warrant Holder" has the meaning set forth in the introductory paragraph to this Warrant.

"Warrant Units" means the number of Common Units issued or issuable upon exercise of this Warrant as set forth in the introduction hereto, as adjusted from time to time pursuant to Section 5, or in the case of other Warrants, issued or issuable upon exercise of those Warrants.

In addition to the foregoing definitions, capitalized terms used and not otherwise defined herein have the respective meanings set forth in the LLC Agreement, as in effect on the date hereof.

(b) Accounting Terms and Determinations. Unless otherwise specified herein, all accounting terms used herein shall be interpreted, all accounting determinations hereunder shall be made, and all financial statements required to be delivered hereunder shall be prepared, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States. When used herein, the term "financial statements" shall include the notes and schedules thereto. References to fiscal periods are to fiscal periods of the Company.

(c) Computation of Time Periods. With respect to the computation of periods of time from a specified date to a later specified date, the word "from" means "from and including" and the words "to" and "until" each mean "to but excluding." Periods of days shall be counted in calendar days unless otherwise stated.

(d) Construction. Unless the context requires otherwise, (i) references to the plural include the singular, (ii) references to the singular include the plural, (iii) references to any gender include any other gender, (iv) the part includes the whole, (v) the terms "including," "include" and "includes" are not limiting, and (vi) the term "or" has, except where otherwise expressly indicated, the inclusive meaning represented by the phrase "and/or."

The words "hereof," "herein," "hereby," "hereunder," and similar terms in this Warrant refer to this Warrant as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Warrant. Section, subsection, clause, exhibit and schedule references are to this Warrant, unless otherwise specified. Any reference to this Warrant includes any and all permitted alterations, amendments, changes, extensions, modifications, renewals, or supplements thereto.

Definitions from the LLC Agreement that are referenced herein are incorporated herein in full (together with any necessary constituent definitions) and remain operative, notwithstanding any amendment or termination of, or supplement to, the LLC Agreement.

(e) Exhibits and Schedules. All of the exhibits and schedules attached hereto shall be deemed incorporated herein by reference.

(f) No Presumption Against Any Party. Neither this Warrant nor any uncertainty or ambiguity herein or therein shall be construed or resolved using any presumption against any party hereto or thereto, whether under any rule of construction or otherwise. On the contrary, this Warrant has been reviewed by each of the parties hereto and their respective counsel and, in the case of any ambiguity or uncertainty, shall be construed and interpreted according to the ordinary meaning of the words used so as to fairly accomplish the purposes and intentions of all parties hereto.

Section 2. Exercise of Warrant.

(a) Exercise and Payment. The Warrant Holder may exercise this Warrant in whole or in part, at any time or from time to time on any Business Day on or after the Exercisable Date and prior to 5:00 p.m. (ET) on the Expiration Date, by delivering to the Company a duly executed notice (a "Notice of Exercise") in the form of Exhibit A and by payment to the Company of the Exercise Price per Warrant Unit, at the election of the Warrant Holder as follows: (i) by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the account of the Company in an amount equal to the Exercise Amount; (ii) by receiving from the Company the number of Warrant Units equal to (A) the number of Warrant Units as to which this Warrant is being exercised, minus (B) the number of Warrant Units having a value, based on the Fair Value immediately prior to the date of such exercise, equal to the Exercise Amount; or (iii) any combination of the foregoing.

The Company acknowledges that the provisions of clause (ii) of the prior sentence are intended, in part, to ensure that a full or partial exchange of this Warrant pursuant to such clause (ii) will qualify as an exchange, within the meaning of paragraph (d)(3)(iii) of Rule 144 under the Securities Act. For all purposes of this Warrant (other than this Section 2(a)), any reference herein to the exercise of this Warrant shall be deemed to include a reference to the exchange of this Warrant into Warrant Units in accordance with the terms of clause (ii).

(b) Effectiveness and Delivery. As soon as practicable, but not later than five (5) Business Days after the Company shall have received a Notice of Exercise and payment, the Company shall update the books and records of the Company to reflect the exercise of the Warrant and issuance of the number of Warrant Units specified in such Notice of Exercise and otherwise evidence of the Warrant Holder's (or such other Person's) ownership of the number of Warrant Units specified in such Exercise Notice. This Warrant shall be deemed to have been exercised and such Warrant Units shall be deemed to have been issued, and the Warrant Holder or other Person or Persons designated in such Notice of Exercise shall be deemed for all purposes to have become a holder of record of Common Units, all as of the date that such Notice of Exercise and payment shall have been received (or deemed received) by the Company.

(c) No Required Surrender of Warrant. The Warrant Holder shall not be required to surrender this Warrant to the Company when it delivers the Notice of Exercise, however, this Warrant shall represent the right to purchase Common Units in respect of the unexercised portion (if any) of the Warrant. The other rights and obligations applicable to the Warrant, the Warrant Units and the Warrant Holders shall continue in effect following any partial exercise in accordance with the terms set forth herein only with respect to the unexercised portion of the Warrant, and all rights and obligations hereunder shall terminate with respect to the portion of the Warrant or the Warrant Units that have been exercised.

(d) Warrant Surrender; Delivery of New Warrant. If this Warrant is surrendered upon exercise or partial exercise, then (i) this Warrant shall be cancelled, and (ii) unless the purchase rights represented by this Warrant shall have been fully exercised, the Company shall, at the time of delivery of the certificate or certificates representing the Warrant Units being issued in accordance with this Section 2, deliver to the Holder a new Warrant evidencing the rights of the Holder to purchase the unexpired and unexercised Warrant Units called for by this Warrant. Such new Warrant shall in all other respects be identical to this Warrant.

(e) Delivery of Certificates. If at the time of exercise of this Warrant the Warrant Units are issuable by the Company in certificated form, then the Company shall, as promptly as practicable, and in any event within five (5) Business Days after the Company shall have received a Notice of Exercise and payment, execute (or cause to be executed) and deliver (or cause to be delivered) to the Holder a certificate or certificates representing the Warrant Units issuable upon any exercise of this Warrant. The certificate or certificates so delivered shall be, to the extent possible, in such denomination or denominations as the exercising Holder shall reasonably request in the Notice of Exercise and shall be registered in the name of the Holder or, subject to compliance with Section 2(f), such other Person's name as shall be designated in the Notice of Exercise.

(f) Expenses and Taxes. The Company shall pay all expenses, transfer taxes and owner charges payable in connection with the preparation, issuance and delivery of the Warrant Units and any new Warrants, except that if the Warrant Units or the new Warrants are to be registered in a name or names other than the name of the Warrant Holder, funds sufficient to pay all transfer taxes payable as a result of such transfer shall be paid by the Warrant Holder at the time of its delivery of the Notice of Exercise or promptly upon receipt of a written request by the Company for payment.

(g) Fractional Units. The Company shall not be required to issue a fractional Warrant Unit upon exercise of any Warrant. As to any fraction of a Warrant Unit that the Holder would otherwise be entitled to purchase upon such exercise, the Company shall pay to such Holder an amount in cash (by delivery of a certified or official bank check or by wire transfer of immediately available funds) equal to the product of (i) such fraction multiplied by (ii) the Fair Value of one Warrant Unit on the Exercise Date.

(h) Automatic Cashless Exercise. To the extent that there has not been an exercise by the Warrant Holder pursuant to Section 2(a), any portion of the Warrant that remains unexercised shall be exercised automatically in whole (not in part), upon the Expiration Date. Payment by the Warrant Holder upon such automatic exercise shall be in the form of the Warrant Holder receiving from the Company the number of Warrant Units equal to (i) the number of Warrant Units as to which this Warrant is being automatically exercised, minus (ii) the number of Warrant Units having a value, based on the Fair Value immediately prior to the date of such automatic exercise, equal to the Exercise Amount with respect to such automatic exercise.

(i) Company Action. The Company will take any Company action which may be necessary in order that the Company may validly and legally issue Warrant Units in connection with any exercise of this Warrant.

(j) Conditional Exercise. Unless the Warrant Holder elects in writing otherwise by notice to the Company, if an exercise of any portion of this Warrant is to be made in connection with a public offering, a sale of the Company (pursuant to a merger, consolidation, sale of stock, or otherwise) or a SPAC Transaction, then such exercise, notwithstanding any other provision hereof, shall be conditioned upon the consummation of such transaction, in which case such exercise shall not be deemed to be effective until immediately prior to the consummation of such transaction.

(k) Acknowledgement. The Warrant Holder, by acceptance hereof, acknowledges that this Warrant and the Warrant Units to be issued upon exercise hereof are subject to the terms of the LLC Agreement that are expressly applicable to the Warrant Units, the Warrant Holder and holders of Warrant Units and/or this Warrant (including, without limitation, Sections 4.3(d), 4.3(f), 10.4, 10.5, 12.1, 12.2, 12.8, 12.10 and 12.12). The Warrant Holder agrees to execute the LLC Agreement (if not already a party thereto) upon its acceptance of this Warrant.

(l) Withholding and Reporting. The Warrant Holder shall be subject to Section 10.4 of the LLC Agreement as though the Warrant Holder had fully exercised this Warrant.

Section 3. Investment Representation.

(a) The Warrant Holder represents to the Company that the Warrant Holder is an "accredited investor" as defined in Rule 501 of Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act. By accepting the Warrant, the Warrant Holder represents that it is acquiring the Warrant for its own account for investment purposes and not with the view to any sale or distribution, that the Warrant Holder will not offer, sell or otherwise dispose of the Warrant or the Warrant Units except under circumstances as will not result in a violation of applicable securities laws.

(b) The Warrant Holder understands and acknowledges that this Warrant and the Warrant Units to be issued upon exercise hereof are "restricted securities" under the federal securities laws and that, under such laws and applicable regulations, such securities may be resold without registration under the Securities Act only in certain limited circumstances. In addition, the Warrant Holder represents that it is familiar with Rule 144 under the Securities Act, as presently in effect, and understands the resale limitations imposed thereby and by the Securities Act.

(c) The Warrant Holder acknowledges that it can bear the economic and financial risk of its investment for an indefinite period, and has such knowledge and experience in financial or business matters that it is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of the investment in the Warrant and the Warrant Units. The Warrant Holder has had an opportunity to ask questions and receive answers from the Company regarding the terms and conditions of the offering of the Warrant and the business, properties, prospects and financial condition of the Company and its Subsidiaries.

Section 4. Representations and Warranties of the Company.

The Company represents and warrants to the Warrant Holders as follows:

(a) This Warrant has been duly authorized, is validly issued, and constitutes the valid and binding obligation of the Company. Any Warrant issued in substitution for or replacement of this Warrant shall be duly authorized, validly issued, and constitute the valid and binding obligation of the Company.

(b) The Company has duly authorized and reserved, and will at all times until the Expiration Date have duly authorized and reserved, such number of Common Units as will be sufficient to permit the exercise in full of the Warrant, and that all such Common Units are and will be duly authorized and, when issued upon exercise of the Warrant, will be validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable, issued without violation of any preemptive or similar rights of any Member of the Company or any other Person, and free and clear of all Liens other than those arising under the LLC Agreement or applicable securities laws.

(c) As of the date of this Warrant, Schedule A to the LLC Agreement sets forth the entire issued and outstanding equity interests of the Company, including Options and Convertible Securities.

Section 5. Antidilution Provisions.

The number of Warrant Units that may be purchased upon any exercise of the Warrant, shall be subject to change or adjustment as set forth in this Section 5 (in each case, after taking into consideration any prior adjustments pursuant to this Section 5).

(a) Common Unit Reorganization. If the Company shall pay a dividend or make any other distribution upon any capital interests of the Company payable in Common Units, in rights to subscribe for or to purchase Common Units, or any Options for the purchase of Common Units, or any Convertible Securities or shall subdivide its outstanding Common Units into a greater number of Common Units, by way of a Common Unit split, Common Unit distribution or otherwise, or consolidate its outstanding Common Units into a smaller number of Common Units (any such event being herein called a "Common Unit Reorganization"), then the number of Common Units subject to purchase upon exercise of this Warrant shall be adjusted, effective at such time, to a number determined by multiplying the number of Common Units subject to purchase immediately before such Common Unit Reorganization by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the number of Common Units outstanding after giving effect to such Common Unit Reorganization and the denominator of which shall be the number of Common Units outstanding immediately before giving effect to such Common Unit Reorganization.

(b) Capital Reorganization. If there shall be (i) any consolidation or merger to which the Company is a party, other than a consolidation or a merger of which the Company is the continuing corporation and which does not result in any reclassification of, or change (other than a Common Unit Reorganization) in, outstanding Units, (ii) any sale or conveyance of the property of the Company as an entirety or substantially as an entirety, (iii) any recapitalization or similar capital reorganization of the Company, (iv) any reclassification of the Units of the Company, (v) any other transaction similar to the transactions described in clauses (i)-(iv) above (other than any such transaction that is a Common Unit Reorganization), (any of the foregoing events or transactions being called a "Capital Reorganization"), then, effective upon the effective date of such Capital Reorganization, the Warrant Holder shall no longer have the right to purchase Common Units, but shall have instead the right to purchase from the Company or the successor Person resulting from such Capital Reorganization, upon exercise of this Warrant, the kind and amount of securities and property (including cash) which the Warrant Holder would have owned or have been entitled to receive pursuant to such Capital Reorganization if the Warrant had been exercised in full immediately prior to the effective date of such Capital

Reorganization and acquired the applicable number of Warrant Units then issuable hereunder as a result of such exercise (without taking into account any limitations or restrictions on the exercisability of this Warrant); and, in such case, appropriate adjustment (in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Warrant Holder) shall be made with respect to the Warrant Holder's rights under this Warrant to insure that the provisions of this Section 5 shall thereafter be applicable, as nearly as possible, to this Warrant in relation to any securities and property (including cash) thereafter acquirable upon exercise of this Warrant.

As a condition to effecting any Capital Reorganization, the Company or the successor or surviving entity, as the case may be, shall execute and deliver to the Warrant Holder an agreement as to the Warrant Holder's rights in accordance with this Section 5(b), providing, to the extent of any right to purchase equity securities hereunder, for subsequent adjustments as nearly equivalent as may be practicable to the adjustments provided for in this Section 5 and otherwise having the same terms and conditions as set forth herein.

The Company shall not effect any Capital Reorganization unless, prior to the consummation thereof, the successor Person (if other than the Company) resulting from such Capital Reorganization, shall assume, by written instrument substantially similar in form and substance to this Warrant and reasonably satisfactory to the Warrant Holder, the obligation to deliver to the Warrant Holder such securities and property (including cash) which, in accordance with the foregoing provisions, such Holder shall be entitled to receive upon exercise of this Warrant. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, with respect to any Capital Reorganization contemplated by the provisions of this Section 5(b), the Warrant Holder shall have the right to elect prior to the consummation of such any Capital Reorganization, to give effect to the exercise rights contained in Section 2 (to the extent the Exercisable Date has then occurred) instead of giving effect to the provisions contained in this Section 5(b) with respect to this Warrant.

The provisions of this Section 5(b) shall similarly apply to successive Capital Reorganizations. The provisions of this Section 5(b) shall not apply to any transaction that is a Qualified Financing.

(c) Special Distributions. If, after the Exercisable Date, the Company shall issue or distribute to any holder or holders of Common Units evidences of indebtedness, any other securities of the Company or any cash, property or other assets (excluding a Common Unit Reorganization) whether or not accompanied by a purchase, redemption or other acquisition of Units (any such nonexcluded event being herein called a "Special Distribution"), then the Warrant Holder shall be entitled to a pro-rata share of such Special Distribution as though the Warrant Holder had fully exercised this Warrant immediately prior to the record date for such Special Distribution, and the Company shall pay or distribute such pro-rata share to Warrant Holder when paid or distributed to the holders of the Common Units. For the avoidance of doubt, no adjustment in the number of Warrant Units issuable upon exercise of this Warrant shall be made with respect to a Special Distribution. A reclassification of the Common Units into Units of any other class of units or securities shall be deemed to be a distribution by the Company to the holders of its Common Units of such class of units or securities and, if the outstanding Common Units shall be changed into a larger or smaller number of Units as part of such reclassification, a Common Unit Reorganization.

(d) Adjustment to Number of Warrant Units Upon Issuance of Common Units. Except as provided in Section 5(e) and except in the case of an event described in either Section 5(a) or Section 5(b), if the Company shall, at any time or from time to time after the Exercisable Date, issue or sell, or in accordance with Section 5(f) is deemed to have issued or sold, any Common Units without consideration or for consideration per Common Unit less than $11.00 (as such amount is proportionately adjusted for Common Unit splits, reverse Common Unit splits, Common Unit combinations, Common Unit dividends and other distributions and recapitalizations affecting the Common Units after September 2, 2021, the "Original Price"), then immediately upon such issuance or sale (or deemed issuance or sale), the number of Warrant Units issuable upon exercise of this Warrant immediately prior to any such issuance or sale (or deemed issuance or sale) shall be increased to a number of Warrant Units equal to the product obtained by multiplying the number of Warrant Units issuable upon exercise of this Warrant immediately prior to such issuance or sale (or deemed issuance or sale) by a fraction (which shall in no event be less than one):

(i) the numerator of which shall be the number of Common Units Deemed Outstanding immediately after such issuance or sale (or deemed issuance or sale); and

(ii) the denominator of which shall be the sum of: (A) the number of Common Units Deemed Outstanding immediately prior to such issuance or sale (or deemed issuance or sale); plus (B) the aggregate number of Common Units which the aggregate amount of consideration, if any, received by the Company upon such issuance or sale (or deemed issuance or sale) would purchase at the Original Price.

(e) Exceptions to Adjustment Upon Issuance of Common Units. Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, there shall be no adjustment to the number of Warrant Units issuable upon exercise of this Warrant with respect to (i) any Excluded Issuance, or (ii) a Qualified Financing (which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall be subject to the terms and conditions of the LLC Agreement).

(f) Effect of Certain Events on Adjustment to Number of Warrant Units. For purposes of determining the adjusted number of Warrant Units under Section 5(d), the following shall be applicable:

(i) Issuance of Options. If the Company shall, at any time or from time to time after the Exercisable Date, in any manner grant or sell (whether directly or by assumption in a merger or otherwise) any Options, whether or not such Options or the right to convert, exercise or exchange any Convertible Securities issuable upon the exercise of such Options are immediately exercisable, and the price per Common Unit (determined as provided in this paragraph and in Section 5(f)(v)) for which Common Units are issuable upon the exercise of such Options or upon the conversion or exchange of Convertible Securities issuable upon the exercise of such Options is less than the Original Price in effect immediately prior to the time of the granting or sale of such Options, then the total maximum number of Common Units issuable upon the exercise of such Options or upon conversion or exchange of the total maximum amount of Convertible Securities issuable upon the exercise of such Options shall be deemed to have been issued as of the date of granting or sale of such Options (and thereafter shall be deemed to be outstanding for purposes of adjusting the number of Warrant Units under Section 5(d)), at a price per Common Unit equal to the quotient obtained by dividing: (A) the sum (which sum shall constitute the applicable consideration received for purposes of Section 5(d)) of (x) the total amount, if any, received or receivable by the Company as consideration for the granting or sale of all such Options, plus (y) the minimum aggregate amount of additional consideration payable to the Company upon the exercise of all such Options, plus (z), in the case of such Options which relate to Convertible Securities, the minimum aggregate amount of additional consideration, if any, payable to the Company upon the issuance or sale of all such Convertible Securities and the conversion or exchange of all such Convertible Securities; by (B) the total maximum number of Common Units issuable upon the exercise of all such Options or upon the conversion or exchange of all Convertible Securities issuable upon the exercise of all such Options. Except as otherwise provided in Section 5(f)(iii), no further adjustment of the number of Warrant Units shall be made upon the actual issuance of Common Units or of Convertible Securities upon exercise of such Options or upon the actual issuance of Common Units upon conversion or exchange of Convertible Securities issuable upon exercise of such Options.

(ii) Issuance of Convertible Securities. If the Company shall, at any time or from time to time after the Exercisable Date, in any manner grant or sell (whether directly or by assumption in a merger or otherwise) any Convertible Securities, whether or not the right to convert or exchange any such Convertible Securities is immediately exercisable, and the price per Common Unit (determined as provided in this paragraph and in Section 5(f)(v)) for which Common Units are issuable upon the conversion or exchange of such Convertible Securities is less than the Original Price in effect immediately prior to the time of the granting or sale of such Convertible Securities, then the total maximum number of Common Units issuable upon conversion or exchange of the total maximum amount of such Convertible Securities shall be deemed to have been issued as of the date of granting or sale of such Convertible Securities (and thereafter shall be deemed to be outstanding for purposes of adjusting the number of Warrant Units pursuant to Section 5(d)), at a price per Common Unit equal to the quotient obtained by dividing: (A) the sum (which sum shall constitute the applicable consideration received for purposes of Section 5(d)) of (x) the total amount, if any, received or receivable by the Company as consideration for the granting or sale of such Convertible Securities, plus (y) the minimum aggregate amount of additional consideration, if any, payable to the Company upon the conversion or exchange of all such Convertible Securities; by (B) the total maximum number of Common Units issuable upon the conversion or exchange of all such Convertible Securities. Except as otherwise provided in Section 5(f)(iii), no further adjustment of the number of Warrant Units shall be made upon the actual issuance of Common Units upon conversion or exchange of such Convertible Securities or by reason of the issue or sale of Convertible Securities upon exercise of any Options to purchase any such Convertible Securities for which adjustments of the number of Warrant Units have been made pursuant to the other provisions of this Section 5(f).

(iii) Change in Terms of Options or Convertible Securities. Upon any change in any of (A) the total amount received or receivable by the Company as consideration for the granting or sale of any Options or Convertible Securities referred to in Section 5(f)(i) or Section 5(f)(ii), (B) the minimum aggregate amount of additional consideration, if any, payable to the Company upon the exercise of any Options or upon the issuance, conversion or exchange of any Convertible Securities referred to in Section 5(f)(i) or Section 5(f)(ii), (C) the rate at which Convertible Securities referred to in Section 5(f)(i) or Section 5(f)(ii) are convertible into or exchangeable for Common Units, or (D) the maximum number of Common Units issuable in connection with any Options referred to in Section 5(f)(i) or any Convertible Securities referred to in Section 5(f)(ii) (in each case, other than in connection with an Excluded Issuance), then (whether or not the original issuance or sale of such Options or Convertible Securities resulted in an adjustment to the number of Warrant Units pursuant to this Section 5) the number of Warrant Units issuable upon exercise of this Warrant at the time of such change shall be adjusted or readjusted, as applicable, to the number of Warrant Units which would have been in effect at such time pursuant to the provisions of this Section 5 had such Options or Convertible Securities still outstanding provided for such changed consideration, conversion rate, or maximum number of Common Units, as the case may be, at the time initially granted, issued, or sold, but only if as a result of such adjustment or readjustment, the number of Warrant Units issuable upon exercise of this Warrant is increased.

(iv) Treatment of Expired or Terminated Options or Convertible Securities. Upon the expiration or termination of any unexercised Option (or portion thereof) or any unconverted or unexchanged Convertible Security (or portion thereof) for which any adjustment (either upon its original issuance or upon a revision of its terms) was made pursuant to this Section 5 (including upon the redemption or purchase for consideration of all or any portion of such Option or Convertible Security by the Company), the number of Warrant Units then issuable upon exercise of this Warrant shall forthwith be changed pursuant to the provisions of this Section 5 to the number of Warrant Units which would have been in effect at the time of such expiration or termination had such unexercised Option (or portion thereof) or unconverted or unexchanged Convertible Security (or portion thereof), to the extent outstanding immediately prior to such expiration or termination, never been issued.

(v) Calculation of Consideration Received. If the Company shall, at any time or from time to time after the Exercisable Date, issue or sell, or is deemed to have issued or sold in accordance with Section 5(f), any Common Units, Options, or Convertible Securities: (A) for cash, the consideration received therefor shall be deemed to be the net amount received by the Company therefor; (B) for consideration other than cash, the amount of the consideration other than cash received by the Company shall be the Fair Value of such consideration, except where such consideration consists of marketable securities, in which case the amount of consideration received by the Company shall be the market price (as reflected on any securities exchange, quotation system or association, or similar pricing system covering such security) for such securities as of the end of business on the date of receipt of such securities; (C) for no specifically allocated consideration in connection with an issuance or sale of other securities of the Company, together comprising one integrated transaction, the amount of the consideration therefor shall be deemed to be the Fair Value of such portion of the aggregate consideration received by the Company in such transaction as is attributable to such Common Units,

Options or Convertible Securities, as the case may be, issued in such transaction; or (D) to the owners of the non-surviving entity in connection with any merger in which the Company is the surviving corporation, the amount of consideration therefor shall be deemed to be the Fair Value of such portion of the net assets and business of the non-surviving entity as is attributable to such Common Units, Options, or Convertible Securities, as the case may be, issued to such owners. The net amount of any cash consideration and the Fair Value of any consideration other than cash or marketable securities shall be determined in good faith jointly by the Board and the Requisite Holders; provided, however, that if the Board and the Requisite Holders are unable to agree on the net amount of any cash consideration or the Fair Value of any consideration other than cash or marketable securities within a reasonable period of time (not to exceed 15 days from the Warrant Holder's receipt of a certificate of adjustment pursuant to Section 5(i)(vii) relating to the applicable issuance), such net amount of cash or Fair Value, as applicable, shall be determined by the Appraiser.

(vi) Record Date. For purposes of any adjustment to the number of Warrant Units in accordance with this Section 5, in case the Company shall take a record of the holders of its Common Units for the purpose of entitling them (A) to receive a dividend or other distribution payable in Common Units, Options, or Convertible Securities, or (B) to subscribe for or purchase Common Units, Options, or Convertible Securities, then such record date shall be deemed to be the date of the issue or sale of the Common Units deemed to have been issued or sold upon the declaration of such dividend or the making of such other distribution or the date of the granting of such right of subscription or purchase, as the case may be; provided, however, that if before the distribution to its holders of Common Units the Company legally abandons its plan to pay or deliver such dividend, distribution, subscription, or purchase rights, then thereafter no adjustment shall be required by the taking of such record and any such adjustment previously made in respect thereof shall be rescinded and annulled.

(vii) Treasury Units. The number of Common Units outstanding at any given time shall not include any securities owned or held by or for the account of the Company or any of its wholly owned subsidiaries, and the disposition of any such securities (other than the cancellation or retirement thereof or the transfer of such securities among the Company and its wholly owned subsidiaries) shall be considered an issue or sale of Common Units for the purpose of this Section 5.

(g) Notices. In the event:

(i) that the Company shall take a record of the holders of its Common Units (or other Units or securities at the time issuable upon exercise of the Warrant) for the purpose of entitling or enabling them to receive any dividend or other distribution (including a Special Distribution), to vote at a meeting (or by written consent), to receive any right to subscribe for or purchase any Units of any class or any other securities, or to receive any other security; or

(ii) of any capital reorganization of the Company, any reclassification of the Common Units of the Company, any consolidation or merger of the Company with or into another Person, any sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets to another Person (including any Capital Reorganization), or any SPAC Transaction; or

(iii) of the voluntary or involuntary dissolution, liquidation, or winding-up of the Company;

then, and in each such case, the Company shall send or cause to be sent to the Warrant Holder at least fifteen (15) days prior to the applicable record date or the applicable expected effective date, as the case may be, for the event, a written notice specifying, as the case may be, (A) the record date for such dividend, distribution, meeting or consent, or other right or action, and a description of such dividend, distribution, or other right or action to be taken at such meeting or by written consent, or (B) the effective date on which such reorganization, reclassification, consolidation, merger, sale, dissolution, liquidation, or winding-up is proposed to take place, and the date, if any is to be fixed, as of which the books of the Company shall close or a record shall be taken with respect to which the holders of record of Common Units (or such other Units or securities at the time issuable upon exercise of the Warrant) shall be entitled to exchange their Common Units (or such other Units or securities) for securities or other property deliverable upon such reorganization, reclassification, consolidation, merger, sale, dissolution, liquidation, or winding-up, and the amount per Unit and character of such exchange applicable to the Warrant and the Warrant Units.

(h) Equitable Equivalent. In case any event shall occur (including any change or adjustment to the number of Common Units issuable upon conversion of any Preferred Unit pursuant to the LLC Agreement) as to which the provisions of this Section 5 set forth above hereof are not strictly applicable but the failure to make any adjustment would not, in the reasonable opinion of the Requisite Holders, fairly protect the purchase rights represented by this Warrant in accordance with the essential intent and principles of this Section 5, then, in each such case, at the request of the Requisite Holders, the Company shall appoint an Appraiser (which shall be completely independent of the Company and shall be satisfactory to the Warrant Holder or the holders constituting the Requisite Holders), which shall give its opinion upon the adjustments, if any, on a basis consistent with the essential intent and principles established in this Section 5, necessary to preserve, without dilution, the purchase rights represented by this Warrant. Upon receipt of such opinion, the Company promptly will send a copy thereof to the Warrant Holder and shall make the adjustments described therein.

(i) Adjustment Rules.

(i) Any adjustments pursuant to this Section 5 shall be made successively whenever any event referred to herein shall occur.

(ii) In computing adjustments under this Section 5, fractional interests in Common Units shall be taken into account to the nearest one-thousandth of a Common Unit.

(iii) The exercise of a Warrant shall not, in and of itself, cause an adjustment pursuant to this Section 5.

(iv) No adjustment under this Section 5 shall operate to increase the Exercise Price or reduce the number of Common Units subject to purchase upon exercise of this Warrant, other than in the case of a Common Unit Reorganization involving a Common Unit combination or similar transaction.

(v) As a condition precedent to the taking of any action which would require an adjustment pursuant to this Section 5, the Company shall take any action which may be necessary, including obtaining regulatory approvals or exemptions, in order that the Company may thereafter validly and legally issue all Common Units which the Warrant Holder is entitled to receive upon exercise of the Warrant.

(vi) Not less than fifteen (15) days prior to the record date or effective date, as the case may be, of any action which requires or might require an adjustment or readjustment pursuant to this Section 5, the Company shall give notice to the Warrant Holder of such event, describing such event in reasonable detail and specifying the record date or effective date, as the case may be, and, if determinable, the required adjustment and computation thereof. If the required adjustment is not determinable as of the time of such notice, the Company shall give notice to the Warrant Holder of such adjustment and computation as soon as reasonably practicable after such adjustment becomes determinable (and in any event no later than three (3) days prior to such record date or effective date, as applicable). Any dispute which arises between the Warrant Holder and the Company with respect to the calculation of the adjusted Warrant Units issuable upon exercise shall be determined by the Appraiser.

(vii) As promptly as reasonably practicable following any adjustment of the number of Warrant Units pursuant to the provisions of this Section 5, but in any event not later than five (5) Business Days thereafter, the Company shall furnish to the Warrant Holder a certificate of an executive officer setting forth in reasonable detail such adjustment and the facts upon which it is based and certifying the calculation thereof.

(viii) As promptly as reasonably practicable following the receipt by the Company of a written request by the Warrant Holder, but in any event not later than five (5) Business Days thereafter, the Company shall furnish to the Warrant Holder a certificate of an executive officer certifying the number of Warrant Units or the amount, if any, of other Units, securities, or assets then issuable upon exercise of the Warrant.

(ix) The form of this Warrant need not be changed because of any adjustment pursuant to this Section 5.

(x) Upon the occurrence of any adjustment pursuant to this Section 5, the Exercise Price also shall be correspondingly adjusted, so that after such adjustment the aggregate Exercise Price payable hereunder for the adjusted number of Warrant Units shall be the same as the aggregate Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to such adjustment.

Section 6. Transfer of Warrant.

Subject to any limitations on transfer applicable to holders of Warrants set forth in the LLC Agreement, the Warrant Holder may effectuate a transfer of the Warrant by (a) delivering to the Company a duly executed Warrant Assignment in the form of Exhibit B of this Warrant, together with funds sufficient to pay any transfer taxes described in Section 2(f) in connection with the making of such transfer, and (b) causing the transferee to sign and deliver to the Company a joinder to the LLC Agreement (if such transferee is not already a party thereto), in a form reasonably acceptable to the Company, pursuant to which such transferee agrees to be bound by the terms thereof. For the avoidance of doubt, if the Warrant Holder does not comply with clauses (a) and (b) of the foregoing sentence, the purported transfer shall be deemed void ab initio.

Section 7. Covenants. The Company hereby covenants and agrees as follows:

(a) No Avoidance. Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, nothing herein shall be construed to limit, amend or alter the rights or remedies available to the Warrant Holder. The Company shall not, by amendment of its certificate of formation, the LLC Agreement, any other constitutional document or any other agreement to which it is party or through any consolidation, merger, amalgamation, reorganization, reclassification of securities, recapitalization, transfer of assets, dissolution, issue or sale of securities, SPAC Transaction or any other action or transaction, directly or indirectly, avoid or seek to avoid the observance or performance of any of the terms of this Warrant, but will at all times in good faith assist in the carrying out of all such terms and in the taking of all such action as may be necessary or appropriate or reasonably requested by the Warrant Holder in order to protect the rights of the Warrant Holder against dilution or other impairment.

(b) Further Actions. The Company shall take all such actions as may be necessary to ensure that all such Warrant Units are issued without violation by the Company of any applicable law or governmental regulation or any requirements of any securities exchange upon which shares of Common Stock or other securities constituting Warrant Units may be listed at the time of such exercise (except for official notice of issuance which shall be immediately delivered by the Company upon each such issuance).

(c) Securities Listings. The Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Warrant Units, immediately upon such exercise, to be listed on any securities exchange upon which Common Units or other securities constituting Warrant Units are listed at the time of such exercise.

(d) Par Value. If the Warrant Units have a par value, then the Company shall ensure that the par value per Warrant Unit shall at all times be less than or equal to the applicable Exercise Price. The Company shall not increase the par value of any Warrant Units receivable upon the exercise of this Warrant above the Exercise Price then in effect, and shall take all such actions as may be necessary or appropriate in order that the Company may validly and legally issue fully paid and nonassessable Warrant Units upon the exercise of this Warrant.

Section 8. Lost, Mutilated or Missing Warrants.

The Company hereby agrees that, upon receipt by the Company of evidence reasonably satisfactory to it of the loss, theft, destruction or mutilation of any Warrant, and, in the case of loss, theft or destruction, upon receipt of indemnification satisfactory to the Company (which shall be in the form of an unsecured, unbonded agreement of indemnity or affidavit of loss) or, in the case of mutilation, upon surrender and cancellation of the mutilated Warrant, the Company shall execute and deliver a new Warrant of like tenor and representing the right to purchase the same aggregate number of Warrant Units.

Section 9. Waivers; Amendments; Rights and Remedies.

(a) Any provision of this Warrant may be amended or waived with (but only with) the written consent of the Company and the Requisite Holders; provided, however, that no such amendment or waiver shall, without the written consent of the Company and the Warrant Holder, (i) change the number of Warrant Units issuable upon exercise of the Warrant or the Exercise Price, (ii) shorten the Expiration Date, or (iii) amend, supplement or waive the provisions of this Section or the definition of "Requisite Holders." Any amendment or waiver effected in compliance with this Section shall be binding upon the Company and the Warrant Holder. The Company shall give prompt notice to the Warrant Holder of any amendment or waiver effected in compliance with this Section.

(b) No failure or delay of the Company or the Warrant Holder in exercising any power or right hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right or power, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such a right or power, preclude any other or further exercise thereon or the exercise of any other right or power. No notice or demand on the Company in any case shall entitle the Company to any other or future notice or demand in similar or other circumstances. The rights and remedies of the Company and the Warrant Holder hereunder are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies which it would otherwise have.

Section 10. Miscellaneous.

(a) Expenses. The Company shall pay all reasonable expenses of the Warrant Holder, including reasonable fees and disbursements of counsel, in connection with the preparation of the Warrant.

(b) Successors and Assigns. All the provisions of this Warrant by or for the benefit of the Company or the Warrant Holder shall bind and inure to the benefit of their respective successors and permitted assigns.

(c) Severability. In case any one or more of the provisions contained in this Warrant shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions contained herein shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby. The parties shall endeavor in good faith negotiations to replace the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions.

(d) Notices. Any notice or other communication required or permitted to be delivered to any party under this Warrant will be in writing and delivered by (a) email or (b) registered mail via a national courier service to the following email address or physical address, as applicable: (a) if to the Company, addressed to the Company at its address for notices as set forth below its signature hereon or any other address as the Company may hereafter notify to the Warrant Holder; and (b) if to the Warrant Holder, addressed to such address as the Warrant Holder may hereafter from time to time notify to the Company for the purposes of notice hereunder.

(e) Equitable Remedies. Without limiting the rights of the Company and the Warrant Holder to pursue all other legal and equitable rights available to such party for the other parties' failure to perform its obligations hereunder, the Company and the Warrant Holder each hereto acknowledge and agree that the remedy at law for any failure to perform any obligations hereunder would be inadequate and that each shall be entitled to specific performance, injunctive relief or other equitable remedies in the event of any such failure.

(f) Continued Effect. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the rights and benefits conferred on the holders of Warrant Units pursuant to the provisions hereof (including Section 6 and any covenants made by the Company) shall continue to inure to the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, such holders, notwithstanding the surrender of the Warrant to, and its cancellation by, the Company upon the full or partial exercise or repurchase hereof. The Warrant Holders shall be entitled to retain a copy of this Warrant as evidence of the continued effect of the provisions hereof.

(g) Governing Law. THIS WARRANT SHALL BE CONSTRUED AND ENFORCED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE INTERNAL LAWS OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE, WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO SUCH LAW(S) THAT WOULD REQUIRE APPLICATION OF THE LAWS OF ANOTHER JURISDICTION.

(h) Section Headings. The section headings used herein are for convenience of reference only and shall not be construed in any way to affect the interpretation of any provisions of the Warrant.

(i) Rights as a Lender Unaffected. For the avoidance of doubt and notwithstanding anything herein that may be to the contrary, nothing contained in this Warrant shall affect, limit or impair the rights and remedies of the Warrant Holder or an Affiliate thereof in its capacity as a lender to the Company or any of its Affiliates pursuant to any note, indenture, agreement or other instrument under which the Company or any of its Affiliates has borrowed or may in the future borrow money. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any such person, in exercising its rights as a lender or agent thereunder, including making its decision on whether to foreclose on any collateral security, will have no duty to consider (i) its status or the status of any of its Affiliates as a direct or indirect equityholder of the Company or any of its Affiliates, (ii) the interests of the Company or any of its Affiliates, or (iii) any duty it may have to any other direct or indirect equityholder of the Company or any of its Affiliates, except as may be required under commercial law applicable to creditors generally.

[Signatures on following page.]

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Company has caused this Warrant to be duly executed by its authorized signatory as of the day and year first above written.

FORM OF SECOND TRANCHE WARRANT

(see attached)

#94683724v30

TRICOLOR HOLDINGS, LLC

THIS WARRANT AND THE SECURITIES ISSUABLE UPON EXERCISE OF THIS WARRANT HAVE NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE "ACT"), OR QUALIFIED UNDER ANY STATE OR FOREIGN SECURITIES LAWS AND MAY NOT BE OFFERED FOR SALE, SOLD, PLEDGED, HYPOTHECATED OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED OR ASSIGNED UNLESS (I) A REGISTRATION STATEMENT COVERING SUCH SECURITIES IS EFFECTIVE UNDER THE ACT AND IS QUALIFIED UNDER APPLICABLE STATE AND FOREIGN LAW, OR (II) THE TRANSACTION IS EXEMPT FROM THE REGISTRATION AND PROSPECTUS DELIVERY REQUIREMENTS UNDER THE ACT AND ANY QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS UNDER APPLICABLE STATE AND FOREIGN LAW.

Dated: September 2, 2021

Second Tranche Warrant No.: [●]

THIS CERTIFIES THAT, for value received, [_____], a [_____], or its successors or assigns (such Person and such successors and assigns each being the "Warrant Holder" with respect to the Warrant held by it), at any time and from time to time on any Business Day on or after the Exercisable Date (as herein defined) and prior to 5:00 p.m. (ET) on the Expiration Date (as herein defined), is entitled: (a) to subscribe for the purchase from Tricolor Holdings, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "Company"), a number of Warrant Units equal to the Second Tranche Unit Number upon the exercise of this Warrant, in each case at a price per Common Unit equal to the Exercise Price (as herein defined); and (b) to the other rights set forth herein; provided, however, that the number of Common Units issuable upon any exercise of this Warrant and the Exercise Price shall be adjusted and readjusted from time to time in accordance with Section 5.

WHEREAS, this Warrant is being issued to the Warrant Holder pursuant to the Subscription Agreement (as herein defined).

IN FURTHERANCE THEREOF, in consideration of the foregoing, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which hereby are acknowledged, the parties hereto irrevocably undertake and agree as follows:

Section 1. Definitions and Construction.

(a) Certain Definitions. As used herein (the following definitions being applicable in both singular and plural forms):

"Affiliate" means any Person directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by, or under common control with another Person and any Persons with the same investment manager or whose investment manager is directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by, or under common control with another Person's investment manager. For purposes of this definition, "control" (including the terms "controlled by" and "under common control with") means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management policies or affairs of a Person, whether through ownership of voting securities, by contract or otherwise, as executor, trustee or otherwise.

"Appraiser" means a mutually acceptable, independent third party investment bank, selected by the Company and the Requisite Holders, who shall determine Fair Value, if the Company and the Warrant Holder are unable to agree. Any determination by the Appraiser shall be final, conclusive and binding upon the Company and the holders of the Warrants and the Warrant Units. The fees and expenses of the Appraiser shall be paid by the Company, on the one hand, and by the Requisite Holders, on the other hand, based upon the percentage that the amount actually contested but not awarded to the Company or the Requisite Holders, respectively, bears to the aggregate amount actually contested by the Company and the Requisite Holders.

"Board" means the board of directors or managers, managing member, or such other similar governing Person or body.

"Business Day" means any day except a Saturday, Sunday or other day on which commercial banks in New York City are authorized by law to close.

"Capital Reorganization" has the meaning set forth in Section 5(b).

"Commission" means the Securities and Exchange Commission or any other Federal agency administering the Securities Act at the time.

"Common Unit Reorganization" has the meaning set forth in Section 5(a).

"Common Units" means Common Units of the Company, and any other class or series of equity interests into which such Common Units may hereafter have been changed, converted, exchanged or reclassified .

"Common Units Deemed Outstanding" means, at any given time, the sum of (i) the number of Common Units actually outstanding at such time, plus (ii) the number of Common Units issuable upon exercise of Options actually outstanding at such time, plus (iii) without duplication, the number of Common Units issuable upon conversion, exercise or exchange of Convertible Securities actually outstanding at such time (treating as actually outstanding any Convertible Securities, issuable upon exercise of Options actually outstanding at such time), in each case, regardless of whether the Options or Convertible Securities are actually exercisable at such time; provided, however, that Common Units Deemed Outstanding at any given time shall not include (i) Common Units, Convertible Securities or Options owned or held by or for the account of the Company or any of its wholly owned subsidiaries, or (ii) any Warrants (or the Common Units issuable upon exercise of such Warrants) with respect to which the Exercisable Date has not occurred.

"Company" has the meaning set forth in the introductory paragraph to this Warrant.

"Convertible Securities" means any securities (directly or indirectly) convertible into or exchangeable for Common Units, but excluding Options. For the avoidance of doubt, Management Incentive Units are not Convertible Securities.

"Excluded Issuances" means any issuance or sale (or deemed issuance or sale in accordance with Section 5(f)) by the Company of any Common Units issued: (a) upon the exercise of any Warrant; (b) upon the conversion of any Preferred Unit; (c) securities issued by the Company in a Qualified Public Offering; or (d) Units of the Company issued in accordance with the LLC Agreement as consideration to a selling party in a merger, consolidation, acquisition or similar business combination approved by the Board.

"Exchange Act" means the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

"Exercisable Date" means September 2, 2026 or each Second Tranche Increase Date, as applicable.

"Exercise Amount" means for any number of Warrant Units as to which this Warrant is being exercised, the product of (i) such number of Warrant Units, multiplied by (ii) the Exercise Price.

"Exercise Price" means $0.01 per Warrant Unit, as adjusted from time to time pursuant to Section 5.

"Expiration Date" means the earlier to occur of: (i) the date of the fifth (5^{th}) anniversary of the applicable Exercisable Date, (ii) the consummation of a Qualified Financing; and (iii) such time as no Preferred Units are outstanding.

"Fair Value" means, as of any particular date, the fair value of a Unit, without giving effect to any discounts for a lack of control, illiquidity, lack of marketability or minority status, as determined jointly by the Company and the Warrant Holder in good faith.

"Fully Diluted Equity", as of any particular date, means all outstanding Common Units plus all Common Units issuable in respect of Convertible Securities, Management Incentive Units, Options and all appreciation rights and phantom equity based on or in respect of Common Units, as of such date, including, and for the avoidance of doubt, any right pursuant to any equity incentive plan; provided, however, that if any of the foregoing are subject to vesting or are otherwise not exercisable as of the relevant date, such Common Units shall be included only upon and to the extent then vested or exercisable.

"Lien" means any lien (statutory or otherwise), encumbrance, charge, claim, community property interest, option, pledge, mortgage, deed of trust, hypothecation, collateral assignment, deposit arrangement or security interest.

"LLC Agreement" means that certain Fourth Amended and Restated Operating Agreement, dated as of September 2, 2021, among Tricolor Holdings, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and certain holders of equity interests of the Company, as the same may be amended, restated, or otherwise modified from time to time.

"Notice of Exercise" has the meaning set forth in Section 2(a).

"Options" means any warrants, options or other rights to subscribe for or purchase Common Units or Convertible Securities.

"Original Price" has the meaning set forth in Section 5(d).

"Person" means an individual, a corporation, a limited liability company, a partnership, an association, a trust or any other entity or organization, including a government or political subdivision or an agency or instrumentality thereof.

"Preferred Units" has the meaning set forth in the LLC Agreement.

"Requisite Holders" means, at any time, holders of Warrant Units and Warrants representing more than 50% of the Warrant Units outstanding and/or issuable upon the exercise of all the outstanding Warrants.

"Second Tranche Increase Date" means each of March 31, June 30, September 30 and December 31 of each year beginning after September 2, 2026.

"Second Tranche Proportional Share" means, as of any date, a fraction equal to (i) the number of Preferred Units held by the Warrant Holder as of such date, divided by (ii) the total number of Preferred Units issued and outstanding on such date of determination, whether or not held by the Warrant Holder (after giving effect to any splits, combinations and similar events). For the avoidance of doubt, if no Preferred Units are outstanding as of the date such fraction is calculated, then the Second Tranche Proportional Share shall be zero (0).

"Second Tranche Unit Number" means the product of (i) a number of Common Units equal to five percent (5.00%) of the Fully Diluted Equity on September 2, 2026 and (ii) the Second Tranche Proportional Share, calculated as of such fifth anniversary; provided, however, that, on each Second Tranche Increase Date, if any Preferred Units are outstanding as of such date, the Second Tranche Unit Number shall be increased by the product of (A) a number of Common Units equal to one and one-fourth percent (1.25%) of the Fully Diluted Equity on such Second Tranche Increase Date and (B) the Second Tranche Proportional Share, calculated as of such Second Tranche Increase Date.

"Securities Act" means the Securities Act of 1933 and the rules and regulations of the Commission thereunder, all as the same shall be in effect at the time.

"Special Distribution" has the meaning set forth in Section 5(c).

"Subscription Agreement" means that certain Subscription Agreement, dated as of September 2, 2021, among Tricolor Holdings, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and the other parties thereto, as the same may be amended, restated, or otherwise modified from time to time.

"Tax Distributions" means tax distributions from the Company to any Member pursuant to the terms of Section 8.2 of the LLC Agreement.

"Units" has the meaning set forth in the LLC Agreement.

"Warrant" means, as the context requires, (i) this Warrant, (ii) any of the other Common Unit purchase warrants originally issued pursuant to or in connection with the Subscription Agreement, (iii) in the case of clause (i) or clause (ii) above, any successor warrant, any replacement warrant, and any warrant issued upon division or combination of, or in substitution for, this Warrant or any such other Common Unit purchase warrant, and (iv) any warrant issued upon a whole or partial transfer or assignment of any warrant referred to in the foregoing clauses (i), (ii) and (iii).

"Warrant Holder" has the meaning set forth in the introductory paragraph to this Warrant.

"Warrant Units" means the number of Common Units issued or issuable upon exercise of this Warrant as set forth in the introduction hereto, as adjusted from time to time pursuant to Section 5, or in the case of other Warrants, issued or issuable upon exercise of those Warrants.

In addition to the foregoing definitions, capitalized terms used and not otherwise defined herein have the respective meanings set forth in the LLC Agreement, as in effect on the date hereof.

(b) Accounting Terms and Determinations. Unless otherwise specified herein, all accounting terms used herein shall be interpreted, all accounting determinations hereunder shall be made, and all financial statements required to be delivered hereunder shall be prepared, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States. When used herein, the term "financial statements" shall include the notes and schedules thereto. References to fiscal periods are to fiscal periods of the Company.

(c) Computation of Time Periods. With respect to the computation of periods of time from a specified date to a later specified date, the word "from" means "from and including" and the words "to" and "until" each mean "to but excluding." Periods of days shall be counted in calendar days unless otherwise stated.

(d) Construction. Unless the context requires otherwise, (i) references to the plural include the singular, (ii) references to the singular include the plural, (iii) references to any gender include any other gender, (iv) the part includes the whole, (v) the terms "including,"

"include" and "includes" are not limiting, and (vi) the term "or" has, except where otherwise expressly indicated, the inclusive meaning represented by the phrase "and/or."

The words "hereof," "herein," "hereby," "hereunder," and similar terms in this Warrant refer to this Warrant as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Warrant. Section, subsection, clause, exhibit and schedule references are to this Warrant, unless otherwise specified. Any reference to this Warrant includes any and all permitted alterations, amendments, changes, extensions, modifications, renewals, or supplements thereto.

Definitions from the LLC Agreement that are referenced herein are incorporated herein in full (together with any necessary constituent definitions) and remain operative, notwithstanding any amendment or termination of, or supplement to, the LLC Agreement.

(e) Exhibits and Schedules. All of the exhibits and schedules attached hereto shall be deemed incorporated herein by reference.

(f) No Presumption Against Any Party. Neither this Warrant nor any uncertainty or ambiguity herein or therein shall be construed or resolved using any presumption against any party hereto or thereto, whether under any rule of construction or otherwise. On the contrary, this Warrant has been reviewed by each of the parties hereto and their respective counsel and, in the case of any ambiguity or uncertainty, shall be construed and interpreted according to the ordinary meaning of the words used so as to fairly accomplish the purposes and intentions of all parties hereto.

Section 2. Exercise of Warrant.

(a) Exercise and Payment. The Warrant Holder may exercise this Warrant in whole or in part, at any time or from time to time on any Business Day on or after the Exercisable Date and prior to 5:00 p.m. (ET) on the Expiration Date, by delivering to the Company a duly executed notice (a "Notice of Exercise") in the form of Exhibit A and by payment to the Company of the Exercise Price per Warrant Unit, at the election of the Warrant Holder as follows: (i) by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the account of the Company in an amount equal to the Exercise Amount; (ii) by receiving from the Company the number of Warrant Units equal to (A) the number of Warrant Units as to which this Warrant is being exercised, minus (B) the number of Warrant Units having a value, based on the Fair Value immediately prior to the date of such exercise, equal to the Exercise Amount; or (iii) any combination of the foregoing.

The Company acknowledges that the provisions of clause (ii) of the prior sentence are intended, in part, to ensure that a full or partial exchange of this Warrant pursuant to such clause (ii) will qualify as an exchange, within the meaning of paragraph (d)(3)(iii) of Rule 144 under the Securities Act. For all purposes of this Warrant (other than this Section 2(a)), any reference herein to the exercise of this Warrant shall be deemed to include a reference to the exchange of this Warrant into Warrant Units in accordance with the terms of clause (ii). If this Warrant is exercised only in part, the Warrant Holder shall be deemed (to the extent of such exercise) to have exercised this Warrant and acquired Common Units in respect of which the earliest Expiration Date applies under this Warrant.

(b) Effectiveness and Delivery. As soon as practicable, but not later than five (5) Business Days after the Company shall have received a Notice of Exercise and payment, the Company shall update the books and records of the Company to reflect the exercise of the Warrant and issuance of the number of Warrant Units specified in such Notice of Exercise and otherwise evidence of the Warrant Holder's (or such other Person's) ownership of the number of Warrant Units specified in such Exercise Notice. This Warrant shall be deemed to have been exercised and such Warrant Units shall be deemed to have been issued, and the Warrant Holder or other Person or Persons designated in such Notice of Exercise shall be deemed for all purposes to have become a holder of record of Common Units, all as of the date that such Notice of Exercise and payment shall have been received (or deemed received) by the Company.

(c) No Required Surrender of Warrant. The Warrant Holder shall not be required to surrender this Warrant to the Company when it delivers the Notice of Exercise, however, this Warrant shall represent the right to purchase Common Units in respect of the unexercised portion (if any) of the Warrant. The other rights and obligations applicable to the Warrant, the Warrant Units and the Warrant Holders shall continue in effect following any partial exercise in accordance with the terms set forth herein only with respect to the unexercised portion of the Warrant, and all rights and obligations hereunder shall terminate with respect to the portion of the Warrant or the Warrant Units that have been exercised.

(d) Warrant Surrender; Delivery of New Warrant. If this Warrant is surrendered upon exercise or partial exercise, then (i) this Warrant shall be cancelled, and (ii) unless the purchase rights represented by this Warrant shall have been fully exercised, the Company shall, at the time of delivery of the certificate or certificates representing the Warrant Units being issued in accordance with this Section 2, deliver to the Holder a new Warrant evidencing the rights of the Holder to purchase the unexpired and unexercised Warrant Units called for by this Warrant. Such new Warrant shall in all other respects be identical to this Warrant.

(e) Delivery of Certificates. If at the time of exercise of this Warrant the Warrant Units are issuable by the Company in certificated form, then the Company shall, as promptly as practicable, and in any event within five (5) Business Days after the Company shall have received a Notice of Exercise and payment, execute (or cause to be executed) and deliver (or cause to be delivered) to the Holder a certificate or certificates representing the Warrant Units issuable upon any exercise of this Warrant. The certificate or certificates so delivered shall be, to the extent possible, in such denomination or denominations as the exercising Holder shall reasonably request in the Notice of Exercise and shall be registered in the name of the Holder or, subject to compliance with Section 2(f), such other Person's name as shall be designated in the Notice of Exercise.

(f) Expenses and Taxes. The Company shall pay all expenses, transfer taxes and owner charges payable in connection with the preparation, issuance and delivery of the Warrant Units and any new Warrants, except that if the Warrant Units or the new Warrants are to be registered in a name or names other than the name of the Warrant Holder, funds sufficient to pay all transfer taxes payable as a result of such transfer shall be paid by the Warrant Holder at the time of its delivery of the Notice of Exercise or promptly upon receipt of a written request by the Company for payment.

(g) Fractional Units. The Company shall not be required to issue a fractional Warrant Unit upon exercise of any Warrant. As to any fraction of a Warrant Unit that the Holder would otherwise be entitled to purchase upon such exercise, the Company shall pay to such Holder an amount in cash (by delivery of a certified or official bank check or by wire transfer of immediately available funds) equal to the product of (i) such fraction multiplied by (ii) the Fair Value of one Warrant Unit on the Exercise Date.

(h) Automatic Cashless Exercise. To the extent that there has not been an exercise by the Warrant Holder pursuant to Section 2(a), any portion of the Warrant that remains unexercised shall be exercised automatically in whole (not in part), upon the Expiration Date. Payment by the Warrant Holder upon such automatic exercise shall be in the form of the Warrant Holder receiving from the Company the number of Warrant Units equal to (i) the number of Warrant Units as to which this Warrant is being automatically exercised, minus (ii) the number of Warrant Units having a value, based on the Fair Value immediately prior to the date of such automatic exercise, equal to the Exercise Amount with respect to such automatic exercise.

(i) Company Action. The Company will take any Company action which may be necessary in order that the Company may validly and legally issue Warrant Units in connection with any exercise of this Warrant.

(j) Conditional Exercise. Unless the Warrant Holder elects in writing otherwise by notice to the Company, if an exercise of any portion of this Warrant is to be made in connection with a public offering, a sale of the Company (pursuant to a merger, consolidation, sale of stock, or otherwise) or a SPAC Transaction, then such exercise, notwithstanding any other provision hereof, shall be conditioned upon the consummation of such transaction, in which case such exercise shall not be deemed to be effective until immediately prior to the consummation of such transaction.

(k) Acknowledgement. The Warrant Holder, by acceptance hereof, acknowledges that this Warrant and the Warrant Units to be issued upon exercise hereof are subject to the terms of the LLC Agreement that are expressly applicable to the Warrant Units, the Warrant Holder and holders of Warrant Units and/or this Warrant (including, without limitation, Sections 4.3(d), 4.3(f), 10.4, 10.5, 12.1, 12.2, 12.8, 12.10 and 12.12). The Warrant Holder agrees to execute the LLC Agreement (if not already a party thereto) upon its acceptance of this Warrant.

(l) Withholding and Reporting. The Warrant Holder shall be subject to Section 10.4 of the LLC Agreement as though the Warrant Holder had fully exercised this Warrant.

Section 3. Investment Representation.

(a) The Warrant Holder represents to the Company that the Warrant Holder is an "accredited investor" as defined in Rule 501 of Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act. By accepting the Warrant, the Warrant Holder represents that it is acquiring the Warrant for its own account for investment purposes and not with the view to any sale or distribution, that the Warrant Holder will not offer, sell or otherwise dispose of the Warrant or the Warrant Units except under circumstances as will not result in a violation of applicable securities laws.

(b) The Warrant Holder understands and acknowledges that this Warrant and the Warrant Units to be issued upon exercise hereof are "restricted securities" under the federal securities laws and that, under such laws and applicable regulations, such securities may be resold without registration under the Securities Act only in certain limited circumstances. In addition, the Warrant Holder represents that it is familiar with Rule 144 under the Securities Act, as presently in effect, and understands the resale limitations imposed thereby and by the Securities Act.

(c) The Warrant Holder acknowledges that it can bear the economic and financial risk of its investment for an indefinite period, and has such knowledge and experience in financial or business matters that it is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of the investment in the Warrant and the Warrant Units. The Warrant Holder has had an opportunity to ask questions and receive answers from the Company regarding the terms and conditions of the offering of the Warrant and the business, properties, prospects and financial condition of the Company and its Subsidiaries.

Section 4. Representations and Warranties of the Company.

The Company represents and warrants to the Warrant Holders as follows:

(a) This Warrant has been duly authorized, is validly issued, and constitutes the valid and binding obligation of the Company. Any Warrant issued in substitution for or replacement of this Warrant shall be duly authorized, validly issued, and constitute the valid and binding obligation of the Company.

(b) The Company has duly authorized and reserved, and will at all times until the Expiration Date have duly authorized and reserved, such number of Common Units as will be sufficient to permit the exercise in full of the Warrant, and that all such Common Units are and will be duly authorized and, when issued upon exercise of the Warrant, will be validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable, issued without violation of any preemptive or similar rights of any Member of the Company or any other Person, and free and clear of all Liens other than those arising under the LLC Agreement or applicable securities laws.

(c) As of the date of this Warrant, Schedule A to the LLC Agreement sets forth the entire issued and outstanding equity interests of the Company, including Options and Convertible Securities.

Section 5. Antidilution Provisions.

The number of Warrant Units that may be purchased upon any exercise of the Warrant, shall be subject to change or adjustment as set forth in this Section 5 (in each case, after taking into consideration any prior adjustments pursuant to this Section 5).

(a) Common Unit Reorganization. If the Company shall pay a dividend or make any other distribution upon any capital interests of the Company payable in Common Units, in rights to subscribe for or to purchase Common Units, or any Options for the purchase of Common Units, or any Convertible Securities or shall subdivide its outstanding Common Units into a greater number of Common Units, by way of a Common Unit split, Common Unit distribution or otherwise, or consolidate its outstanding Common Units into a smaller number of Common Units (any such event being herein called a "Common Unit Reorganization"), then the number of Common Units subject to purchase upon exercise of this Warrant shall be adjusted, effective at such time, to a number determined by multiplying the number of Common Units subject to purchase immediately before such Common Unit Reorganization by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the number of Common Units outstanding after giving effect to such Common Unit Reorganization and the denominator of which shall be the number of Common Units outstanding immediately before giving effect to such Common Unit Reorganization.

(b) Capital Reorganization. If there shall be (i) any consolidation or merger to which the Company is a party, other than a consolidation or a merger of which the Company is the continuing corporation and which does not result in any reclassification of, or change (other than a Common Unit Reorganization) in, outstanding Units, (ii) any sale or conveyance of the property of the Company as an entirety or substantially as an entirety, (iii) any recapitalization or similar capital reorganization of the Company, (iv) any reclassification of the Units of the Company, (v) any other transaction similar to the transactions described in clauses (i)-(iv) above (other than any such transaction that is a Common Unit Reorganization), (any of the foregoing events or transactions being called a "Capital Reorganization"), then, effective upon the effective date of such Capital Reorganization, the Warrant Holder shall no longer have the right to purchase Common Units, but shall have instead the right to purchase from the Company or the successor Person resulting from such Capital Reorganization, upon exercise of this Warrant, the kind and amount of securities and property (including cash) which the Warrant Holder would have owned or have been entitled to receive pursuant to such Capital Reorganization if the Warrant had been exercised in full immediately prior to the effective date of such Capital Reorganization and acquired the applicable number of Warrant Units then issuable hereunder as a result of such exercise (without taking into account any limitations or restrictions on the exercisability of this Warrant); and, in such case, appropriate adjustment (in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Warrant Holder) shall be made with respect to the Warrant Holder's rights under this Warrant to insure that the provisions of this Section 5 shall thereafter be applicable, as nearly as possible, to this Warrant in relation to any securities and property (including cash) thereafter acquirable upon exercise of this Warrant.

As a condition to effecting any Capital Reorganization, the Company or the successor or surviving entity, as the case may be, shall execute and deliver to the Warrant Holder an agreement as to the Warrant Holder's rights in accordance with this Section 5(b), providing, to the extent of any right to purchase equity securities hereunder, for subsequent adjustments as nearly equivalent as may be practicable to the adjustments provided for in this Section 5 and otherwise having the same terms and conditions as set forth herein.

The Company shall not effect any Capital Reorganization unless, prior to the consummation thereof, the successor Person (if other than the Company) resulting from such Capital Reorganization, shall assume, by written instrument substantially similar in form and substance to this Warrant and reasonably satisfactory to the Warrant Holder, the obligation to deliver to the Warrant Holder such securities and property (including cash) which, in accordance with the foregoing provisions, such Holder shall be entitled to receive upon exercise of this Warrant. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, with respect to any Capital Reorganization contemplated by the provisions of this Section 5(b), the Warrant Holder shall have the right to elect prior to the consummation of such any Capital Reorganization, to give effect to the exercise rights contained in Section 2 (to the extent the Exercisable Date has then occurred) instead of giving effect to the provisions contained in this Section 5(b) with respect to this Warrant.

The provisions of this Section 5(b) shall similarly apply to successive Capital Reorganizations. The provisions of this Section 5(b) shall not apply to any transaction that is a Qualified Financing.

(c) Special Distributions. If, after the Exercisable Date, the Company shall issue or distribute to any holder or holders of Common Units evidences of indebtedness, any other securities of the Company or any cash, property or other assets (excluding a Common Unit Reorganization) whether or not accompanied by a purchase, redemption or other acquisition of Units (any such nonexcluded event being herein called a "Special Distribution"), then the Warrant Holder shall be entitled to a pro-rata share of such Special Distribution as though the Warrant Holder had fully exercised this Warrant immediately prior to the record date for such Special Distribution, and the Company shall pay or distribute such pro-rata share to Warrant Holder when paid or distributed to the holders of the Common Units. For the avoidance of doubt, no adjustment in the number of Warrant Units issuable upon exercise of this Warrant shall be made with respect to a Special Distribution. A reclassification of the Common Units into Units of any other class of units or securities shall be deemed to be a distribution by the Company to the holders of its Common Units of such class of units or securities and, if the outstanding Common Units shall be changed into a larger or smaller number of Units as part of such reclassification, a Common Unit Reorganization.

(d) Adjustment to Number of Warrant Units Upon Issuance of Common Units. Except as provided in Section 5(e) and except in the case of an event described in either Section 5(a) or Section 5(b), if the Company shall, at any time or from time to time after the Exercisable Date, issue or sell, or in accordance with Section 5(f) is deemed to have issued or sold, any Common Units without consideration or for consideration per Common Unit less than $11.00 (as such amount is proportionately adjusted for Common Unit splits, reverse Common Unit splits, Common Unit combinations, Common Unit dividends and other distributions and recapitalizations affecting the Common Units after September 2, 2021, the "Original Price"), then immediately upon such issuance or sale (or deemed issuance or sale), the number of Warrant Units issuable upon exercise of this Warrant immediately prior to any such issuance or sale (or deemed issuance or sale) shall be increased to a number of Warrant Units equal to the product obtained by multiplying the number of Warrant Units issuable upon exercise of this Warrant immediately prior to such issuance or sale (or deemed issuance or sale) by a fraction (which shall in no event be less than one):

(i) the numerator of which shall be the number of Common Units Deemed Outstanding immediately after such issuance or sale (or deemed issuance or sale); and

(ii) the denominator of which shall be the sum of: (A) the number of Common Units Deemed Outstanding immediately prior to such issuance or sale (or deemed issuance or sale); plus (B) the aggregate number of Common Units which the aggregate amount of consideration, if any, received by the Company upon such issuance or sale (or deemed issuance or sale) would purchase at the Original Price.

(e) Exceptions to Adjustment Upon Issuance of Common Units. Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, there shall be no adjustment to the number of Warrant Units issuable upon exercise of this Warrant with respect to (i) any Excluded Issuance, or (ii) a Qualified Financing (which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall be subject to the terms and conditions of the LLC Agreement).

(f) Effect of Certain Events on Adjustment to Number of Warrant Units. For purposes of determining the adjusted number of Warrant Units under Section 5(d), the following shall be applicable:

(i) Issuance of Options. If the Company shall, at any time or from time to time after the Exercisable Date, in any manner grant or sell (whether directly or by assumption in a merger or otherwise) any Options, whether or not such Options or the right to convert, exercise or exchange any Convertible Securities issuable upon the exercise of such Options are immediately exercisable, and the price per Common Unit (determined as provided in this paragraph and in Section 5(f)(v)) for which Common Units are issuable upon the exercise of such Options or upon the conversion or exchange of Convertible Securities issuable upon the exercise of such Options is less than the Original Price in effect immediately prior to the time of the granting or sale of such Options, then the total maximum number of Common Units issuable upon the exercise of such Options or upon conversion or exchange of the total maximum amount of Convertible Securities issuable upon the exercise of such Options shall be deemed to have been issued as of the date of granting or sale of such Options (and thereafter shall be deemed to be outstanding for purposes of adjusting the number of Warrant Units under Section 5(d)), at a price per Common Unit equal to the quotient obtained by dividing: (A) the sum (which sum shall constitute the applicable consideration received for purposes of Section 5(d)) of (x) the total amount, if any, received or receivable by the Company as consideration for the granting or sale of all such Options, plus (y) the minimum aggregate amount of additional consideration payable to the Company upon the exercise of all such Options, plus (z), in the case of such Options which relate to Convertible Securities, the minimum aggregate amount of additional consideration, if any, payable to the Company upon the issuance or sale of all such Convertible Securities and the conversion or exchange of all such Convertible Securities; by (B) the total maximum number of Common Units issuable upon the exercise of all such Options or upon the conversion or exchange of all Convertible Securities issuable upon the exercise of all such Options. Except as otherwise provided in Section 5(f)(iii), no further adjustment of the number of Warrant Units shall be made upon the actual issuance of Common Units or of Convertible Securities upon exercise of such Options or upon the actual issuance of Common Units upon conversion or exchange of Convertible Securities issuable upon exercise of such Options.

(ii) Issuance of Convertible Securities. If the Company shall, at any time or from time to time after the Exercisable Date, in any manner grant or sell (whether directly or by assumption in a merger or otherwise) any Convertible Securities, whether or not the right to convert or exchange any such Convertible Securities is immediately exercisable, and the price per Common Unit (determined as provided in this paragraph and in Section 5(f)(v)) for which Common Units are issuable upon the conversion or exchange of such Convertible Securities is less than the Original Price in effect immediately prior to the time of the granting or sale of such Convertible Securities, then the total maximum number of Common Units issuable upon conversion or exchange of the total maximum amount of such Convertible Securities shall be deemed to have been issued as of the date of granting or sale of such Convertible Securities (and thereafter shall be deemed to be outstanding for purposes of adjusting the number of Warrant Units pursuant to Section 5(d)), at a price per Common Unit equal to the quotient obtained by dividing: (A) the sum (which sum shall constitute the applicable consideration received for purposes of Section 5(d)) of (x) the total amount, if any, received or receivable by the Company as consideration for the granting or sale of such Convertible Securities, plus (y) the minimum aggregate amount of additional consideration, if any, payable to the Company upon the conversion or exchange of all such Convertible Securities; by (B) the total maximum number of Common Units issuable upon the conversion or exchange of all such Convertible Securities. Except as otherwise provided in Section 5(f)(iii), no further adjustment of the number of Warrant Units shall be made upon the actual issuance of Common Units upon conversion or exchange of such Convertible Securities or by reason of the issue or sale of Convertible Securities upon exercise of any Options to purchase any such Convertible Securities for which adjustments of the number of Warrant Units have been made pursuant to the other provisions of this Section 5(f).

(iii) Change in Terms of Options or Convertible Securities. Upon any change in any of (A) the total amount received or receivable by the Company as consideration for the granting or sale of any Options or Convertible Securities referred to in Section 5(f)(i) or Section 5(f)(ii), (B) the minimum aggregate amount of additional consideration, if any, payable to the Company upon the exercise of any Options or upon the issuance, conversion or exchange of any Convertible Securities referred to in Section 5(f)(i) or Section 5(f)(ii), (C) the rate at which Convertible Securities referred to in Section 5(f)(i) or Section 5(f)(ii) are convertible into or exchangeable for Common Units, or (D) the maximum number of Common Units issuable in connection with any Options referred to in Section 5(f)(i) or any Convertible Securities referred to in Section 5(f)(ii) (in each case, other than in connection with an Excluded Issuance), then (whether or not the original issuance or sale of such Options or Convertible Securities resulted in an adjustment to the number of Warrant Units pursuant to this Section 5) the number of Warrant Units issuable upon exercise of this Warrant at the time of such change shall be adjusted or readjusted, as applicable, to the number of Warrant Units which would have been in effect at such time pursuant to the provisions of this Section 5 had such Options or Convertible Securities still outstanding provided for such changed consideration, conversion rate, or maximum number of Common Units, as the case may be, at the time initially granted, issued, or sold, but only if as a result of such adjustment or readjustment, the number of Warrant Units issuable upon exercise of this Warrant is increased.

(iv) Treatment of Expired or Terminated Options or Convertible Securities. Upon the expiration or termination of any unexercised Option (or portion thereof) or any unconverted or unexchanged Convertible Security (or portion thereof) for which any adjustment (either upon its original issuance or upon a revision of its terms) was made pursuant to this Section 5 (including upon the redemption or purchase for consideration of all or any portion of such Option or Convertible Security by the Company), the number of Warrant Units then issuable upon exercise of this Warrant shall forthwith be changed pursuant to the provisions of this Section 5 to the number of Warrant Units which would have been in effect at the time of such expiration or termination had such unexercised Option (or portion thereof) or unconverted or unexchanged Convertible Security (or portion thereof), to the extent outstanding immediately prior to such expiration or termination, never been issued.

(v) Calculation of Consideration Received. If the Company shall, at any time or from time to time after the Exercisable Date, issue or sell, or is deemed to have issued or sold in accordance with Section 5(f), any Common Units, Options, or Convertible Securities: (A) for cash, the consideration received therefor shall be deemed to be the net amount received by the Company therefor; (B) for consideration other than cash, the amount of the consideration other than cash received by the Company shall be the Fair Value of such consideration, except where such consideration consists of marketable securities, in which case the amount of consideration received by the Company shall be the market price (as reflected on any securities exchange, quotation system or association, or similar pricing system covering such security) for such securities as of the end of business on the date of receipt of such securities; (C) for no specifically allocated consideration in connection with an issuance or sale of other securities of the Company, together comprising one integrated transaction, the amount of the consideration therefor shall be deemed to be the Fair Value of such portion of the aggregate consideration received by the Company in such transaction as is attributable to such Common Units, Options or Convertible Securities, as the case may be, issued in such transaction; or (D) to the owners of the non-surviving entity in connection with any merger in which the Company is the surviving corporation, the amount of consideration therefor shall be deemed to be the Fair Value of such portion of the net assets and business of the non-surviving entity as is attributable to such Common Units, Options, or Convertible Securities, as the case may be, issued to such owners. The net amount of any cash consideration and the Fair Value of any consideration other than cash or marketable securities shall be determined in good faith jointly by the Board and the Requisite Holders; provided, however, that if the Board and the Requisite Holders are unable to agree on the net amount of any cash consideration or the Fair Value of any consideration other than cash or marketable securities within a reasonable period of time (not to exceed 15 days from the Warrant Holder's receipt of a certificate of adjustment pursuant to Section 5(i)(vii) relating to the applicable issuance), such net amount of cash or Fair Value, as applicable, shall be determined by the Appraiser.

(vi) Record Date. For purposes of any adjustment to the number of Warrant Units in accordance with this Section 5, in case the Company shall take a record of the holders of its Common Units for the purpose of entitling them (A) to receive a dividend or other distribution payable in Common Units, Options, or Convertible Securities, or (B) to subscribe for or purchase Common Units, Options, or Convertible Securities, then such record date shall be deemed to be the date of the issue or sale of the Common Units deemed to have been issued or sold upon the declaration of such dividend or the making of such other distribution or the date of the granting of such right of subscription or purchase, as the case may be; provided, however, that if before the distribution to its holders of Common Units the Company legally abandons its plan to pay or deliver such dividend, distribution, subscription, or purchase rights, then thereafter no adjustment shall be required by the taking of such record and any such adjustment previously made in respect thereof shall be rescinded and annulled.

(vii) Treasury Units. The number of Common Units outstanding at any given time shall not include any securities owned or held by or for the account of the Company or any of its wholly owned subsidiaries, and the disposition of any such securities (other than the cancellation or retirement thereof or the transfer of such securities among the Company and its wholly owned subsidiaries) shall be considered an issue or sale of Common Units for the purpose of this Section 5.

(g) Notices. In the event:

(i) that the Company shall take a record of the holders of its Common Units (or other Units or securities at the time issuable upon exercise of the Warrant) for the purpose of entitling or enabling them to receive any dividend or other distribution (including a Special Distribution), to vote at a meeting (or by written consent), to receive any right to subscribe for or purchase any Units of any class or any other securities, or to receive any other security; or

(ii) of any capital reorganization of the Company, any reclassification of the Common Units of the Company, any consolidation or merger of the Company with or into another Person, any sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets to another Person (including any Capital Reorganization), or any SPAC Transaction; or

(iii) of the voluntary or involuntary dissolution, liquidation, or winding-up of the Company;

then, and in each such case, the Company shall send or cause to be sent to the Warrant Holder at least fifteen (15) days prior to the applicable record date or the applicable expected effective date, as the case may be, for the event, a written notice specifying, as the case may be, (A) the record date for such dividend, distribution, meeting or consent, or other right or action, and a description of such dividend, distribution, or other right or action to be taken at such meeting or by written consent, or (B) the effective date on which such reorganization, reclassification, consolidation, merger, sale, dissolution, liquidation, or winding-up is proposed to take place, and the date, if any is to be fixed, as of which the books of the Company shall close or a record shall be taken with respect to which the holders of record of Common Units (or such other Units or securities at the time issuable upon exercise of the Warrant) shall be entitled to exchange their Common Units (or such other Units or securities) for securities or other property deliverable upon such reorganization, reclassification, consolidation, merger, sale, dissolution, liquidation, or winding-up, and the amount per Unit and character of such exchange applicable to the Warrant and the Warrant Units.

(h) Equitable Equivalent. In case any event shall occur (including any change or adjustment to the number of Common Units issuable upon conversion of any Preferred Unit pursuant to the LLC Agreement) as to which the provisions of this Section 5 set forth above hereof are not strictly applicable but the failure to make any adjustment would not, in the reasonable opinion of the Requisite Holders, fairly protect the purchase rights represented by this Warrant in accordance with the essential intent and principles of this Section 5, then, in each such case, at the request of the Requisite Holders, the Company shall appoint an Appraiser (which shall be completely independent of the Company and shall be satisfactory to the Warrant Holder or the holders constituting the Requisite Holders), which shall give its opinion upon the adjustments, if any, on a basis consistent with the essential intent and principles established in this Section 5, necessary to preserve, without dilution, the purchase rights represented by this Warrant. Upon receipt of such opinion, the Company promptly will send a copy thereof to the Warrant Holder and shall make the adjustments described therein.

(i) Adjustment Rules.

(i) Any adjustments pursuant to this Section 5 shall be made successively whenever any event referred to herein shall occur.

(ii) In computing adjustments under this Section 5, fractional interests in Common Units shall be taken into account to the nearest one-thousandth of a Common Unit.

(iii) The exercise of a Warrant shall not, in and of itself, cause an adjustment pursuant to this Section 5.

(iv) No adjustment under this Section 5 shall operate to increase the Exercise Price or reduce the number of Common Units subject to purchase upon exercise of this Warrant, other than in the case of a Common Unit Reorganization involving a Common Unit combination or similar transaction.

(v) As a condition precedent to the taking of any action which would require an adjustment pursuant to this Section 5, the Company shall take any action which may be necessary, including obtaining regulatory approvals or exemptions, in order that the Company may thereafter validly and legally issue all Common Units which the Warrant Holder is entitled to receive upon exercise of the Warrant.

(vi) Not less than fifteen (15) days prior to the record date or effective date, as the case may be, of any action which requires or might require an adjustment or readjustment pursuant to this Section 5, the Company shall give notice to the Warrant Holder of such event, describing such event in reasonable detail and specifying the record date or effective date, as the case may be, and, if determinable, the required adjustment and computation thereof. If the required adjustment is not determinable as of the time of such notice, the Company shall give notice to the Warrant Holder of such adjustment and computation as soon as reasonably practicable after such adjustment becomes determinable (and in any event no later than three (3) days prior to such record date or effective date, as applicable). Any dispute which arises between the Warrant Holder and the Company with respect to the calculation of the adjusted Warrant Units issuable upon exercise shall be determined by the Appraiser.

(vii) As promptly as reasonably practicable following any adjustment of the number of Warrant Units pursuant to the provisions of this Section 5, but in any event not later than five (5) Business Days thereafter, the Company shall furnish to the Warrant Holder a certificate of an executive officer setting forth in reasonable detail such adjustment and the facts upon which it is based and certifying the calculation thereof.

(viii) As promptly as reasonably practicable following the receipt by the Company of a written request by the Warrant Holder, but in any event not later than five (5) Business Days thereafter, the Company shall furnish to the Warrant Holder a certificate of an executive officer certifying the number of Warrant Units or the amount, if any, of other Units, securities, or assets then issuable upon exercise of the Warrant.

(ix) The form of this Warrant need not be changed because of any adjustment pursuant to this Section 5.

(x) Upon the occurrence of any adjustment pursuant to this Section 5, the Exercise Price also shall be correspondingly adjusted, so that after such adjustment the aggregate Exercise Price payable hereunder for the adjusted number of Warrant Units shall be the same as the aggregate Exercise Price in effect immediately prior to such adjustment.

Section 6. Transfer of Warrant.

Subject to any limitations on transfer applicable to holders of Warrants set forth in the LLC Agreement, the Warrant Holder may effectuate a transfer of the Warrant by (a) delivering to the Company a duly executed Warrant Assignment in the form of Exhibit B of this Warrant, together with funds sufficient to pay any transfer taxes described in Section 2(f) in connection with the making of such transfer, and (b) causing the transferee to sign and deliver to the Company a joinder to the LLC Agreement (if such transferee is not already a party thereto), in a form reasonably acceptable to the Company, pursuant to which such transferee agrees to be bound by the terms thereof. For the avoidance of doubt, if the Warrant Holder does not comply with clauses (a) and (b) of the foregoing sentence, the purported transfer shall be deemed void ab initio.

Section 7. Covenants. The Company hereby covenants and agrees as follows:

(a) No Avoidance. Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, nothing herein shall be construed to limit, amend or alter the rights or remedies available to the Warrant Holder. The Company shall not, by amendment of its certificate of formation, the LLC Agreement, any other constitutional document or any other agreement to which it is party or through any consolidation, merger, amalgamation, reorganization, reclassification of securities, recapitalization, transfer of assets, dissolution, issue or sale of securities, SPAC Transaction or any other action or transaction, directly or indirectly, avoid or seek to avoid the observance or performance of any of the terms of this Warrant, but will at all times in good faith assist in the carrying out of all such terms and in the taking of all such action as may be necessary or appropriate or reasonably requested by the Warrant Holder in order to protect the rights of the Warrant Holder against dilution or other impairment.

(b) Further Actions. The Company shall take all such actions as may be necessary to ensure that all such Warrant Units are issued without violation by the Company of any applicable law or governmental regulation or any requirements of any securities exchange upon which shares of Common Stock or other securities constituting Warrant Units may be listed at the time of such exercise (except for official notice of issuance which shall be immediately delivered by the Company upon each such issuance).

(c) Securities Listings. The Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Warrant Units, immediately upon such exercise, to be listed on any securities exchange upon which Common Units or other securities constituting Warrant Units are listed at the time of such exercise.

(d) Par Value. If the Warrant Units have a par value, then the Company shall ensure that the par value per Warrant Unit shall at all times be less than or equal to the applicable Exercise Price. The Company shall not increase the par value of any Warrant Units receivable upon the exercise of this Warrant above the Exercise Price then in effect, and shall take all such actions as may be necessary or appropriate in order that the Company may validly and legally issue fully paid and nonassessable Warrant Units upon the exercise of this Warrant.

Section 8. Lost, Mutilated or Missing Warrants.

The Company hereby agrees that, upon receipt by the Company of evidence reasonably satisfactory to it of the loss, theft, destruction or mutilation of any Warrant, and, in the case of loss, theft or destruction, upon receipt of indemnification satisfactory to the Company (which shall be in the form of an unsecured, unbonded agreement of indemnity or affidavit of loss) or, in the case of mutilation, upon surrender and cancellation of the mutilated Warrant, the Company shall execute and deliver a new Warrant of like tenor and representing the right to purchase the same aggregate number of Warrant Units.

Section 9. Waivers; Amendments; Rights and Remedies.

(a) Any provision of this Warrant may be amended or waived with (but only with) the written consent of the Company and the Requisite Holders; provided, however, that no such amendment or waiver shall, without the written consent of the Company and the Warrant Holder, (i) change the number of Warrant Units issuable upon exercise of the Warrant or the Exercise Price, (ii) shorten the Expiration Date, or (iii) amend, supplement or waive the provisions of this Section or the definition of "Requisite Holders." Any amendment or waiver effected in compliance with this Section shall be binding upon the Company and the Warrant Holder. The Company shall give prompt notice to the Warrant Holder of any amendment or waiver effected in compliance with this Section.

(b) No failure or delay of the Company or the Warrant Holder in exercising any power or right hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right or power, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such a right or power, preclude any other or further exercise thereon or the exercise of any other right or power. No notice or demand on the Company in any case shall entitle the Company to any other or future notice or demand in similar or other circumstances. The rights and remedies of the Company and the Warrant Holder hereunder are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies which it would otherwise have.

Section 10. Miscellaneous.

(a) Expenses. The Company shall pay all reasonable expenses of the Warrant Holder, including reasonable fees and disbursements of counsel, in connection with the preparation of the Warrant.

(b) Successors and Assigns. All the provisions of this Warrant by or for the benefit of the Company or the Warrant Holder shall bind and inure to the benefit of their respective successors and permitted assigns.

(c) Severability. In case any one or more of the provisions contained in this Warrant shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions contained herein shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby. The parties shall endeavor in good faith negotiations to replace the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions with valid provisions the economic effect of which comes as close as possible to that of the invalid, illegal or unenforceable provisions.

(d) Notices. Any notice or other communication required or permitted to be delivered to any party under this Warrant will be in writing and delivered by (a) email or (b) registered mail via a national courier service to the following email address or physical address, as applicable: (a) if to the Company, addressed to the Company at its address for notices as set forth below its signature hereon or any other address as the Company may hereafter notify to the Warrant Holder; and (b) if to the Warrant Holder, addressed to such address as the Warrant Holder may hereafter from time to time notify to the Company for the purposes of notice hereunder.

(e) Equitable Remedies. Without limiting the rights of the Company and the Warrant Holder to pursue all other legal and equitable rights available to such party for the other parties' failure to perform its obligations hereunder, the Company and the Warrant Holder each hereto acknowledge and agree that the remedy at law for any failure to perform any obligations hereunder would be inadequate and that each shall be entitled to specific performance, injunctive relief or other equitable remedies in the event of any such failure.

(f) Continued Effect. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the rights and benefits conferred on the holders of Warrant Units pursuant to the provisions hereof (including Section 6 and any covenants made by the Company) shall continue to inure to the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, such holders, notwithstanding the surrender of the Warrant to, and its cancellation by, the Company upon the full or partial exercise or repurchase hereof. The Warrant Holders shall be entitled to retain a copy of this Warrant as evidence of the continued effect of the provisions hereof.

(g) Governing Law. THIS WARRANT SHALL BE CONSTRUED AND ENFORCED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE INTERNAL LAWS OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE, WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO SUCH LAW(S) THAT WOULD REQUIRE APPLICATION OF THE LAWS OF ANOTHER JURISDICTION.

(h) Section Headings. The section headings used herein are for convenience of reference only and shall not be construed in any way to affect the interpretation of any provisions of the Warrant.

(i) Rights as a Lender Unaffected. For the avoidance of doubt and notwithstanding anything herein that may be to the contrary, nothing contained in this Warrant shall affect, limit or impair the rights and remedies of the Warrant Holder or an Affiliate thereof in its capacity as a lender to the Company or any of its Affiliates pursuant to any note, indenture, agreement or other instrument under which the Company or any of its Affiliates has borrowed or may in the future borrow money. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any such person, in exercising its rights as a lender or agent thereunder, including making its decision on whether to foreclose on any collateral security, will have no duty to consider (i) its status or the status of any of its Affiliates as a direct or indirect equityholder of the Company or any of its Affiliates, (ii) the interests of the Company or any of its Affiliates, or (iii) any duty it may have to any other direct or indirect equityholder of the Company or any of its Affiliates, except as may be required under commercial law applicable to creditors generally.

Form of Warrant Assignment

Reference is made to the Warrant dated September 2, 2021, issued by the Company. Terms defined therein are used herein as therein defined.

FOR VALUE RECEIVED _____ (the "Assignor") hereby sells, assigns and transfers all of the rights of the Assignor as set forth in such Warrant, with respect to the number of Warrant Units covered thereby as set forth below, to the assignees (the "Assignees") as set forth below:

Names of Assignees	Addresses	Number of Warrant Units

All notices to be given by the Company to the Assignor as Warrant Holder shall be sent to the Assignees at the above listed addresses, and, if the number of Common Units being hereby assigned is less than all of the Common Units covered by the Warrant held by the Assignor, then also to the Assignor.

In accordance with Section 6 of the Warrant, the Assignor requests that the Company execute and deliver a new Warrant or Warrants in the names of the Assignees, as is appropriate, or, if the number of Common Units being hereby assigned is less than all of the Common Units covered by the Warrant held by the Assignor, new Warrants in the names of the Assignees, as is appropriate, and in the name of the Assignor.

The undersigned represents that the Assignee has represented in writing to the Assignor that the Assignee is acquiring the Warrant for its own account or the account of an Affiliate for investment purposes and not with the view to any sale or distribution, and that the Assignee will not offer, sell or otherwise dispose of the Warrant or the Warrant Units except under circumstances as will not result in a violation of applicable securities laws.

THIS AMENDED & RESTATED REGISTRATION RIGHTS AGREEMENT (this "Agreement"), among Tricolor Holdings, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "Company"), and the investors identified on Schedule A hereto (collectively, the "Investors" and, each individually, an "Investor"), is entered into as of December 30, 2021. Capitalized terms used in this Agreement but not otherwise defined herein shall have the respective meanings set forth in the LLC Agreement.

WHEREAS, the Company and the Investors identified as "Senior Preferred Investors" on Schedule A hereto (the "Senior Preferred Investors") are parties to a Subscription Agreement, dated as of September 2 (the "Senior Preferred Subscription Agreement"), pursuant to which the Senior Preferred Investors purchased 90,000 Senior Preferred Units and 2,531,842 Warrants of the Company;

WHEREAS, in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Senior Preferred Subscription Agreement and pursuant to the terms thereof, the parties thereto entered into that certain Registration Rights Agreement (the "Existing Registration Rights Agreement"), dated as of September 2, 2021, in order to grant certain registration rights to the Senior Preferred Investors;

WHEREAS, the Company and the Investors identified as "Junior Preferred Investors" on Schedule A hereto (the "Junior Preferred Investors") are parties to a Subscription Agreement, dated as of the date hereof (the "Junior Preferred Subscription Agreement"), pursuant to which the Junior Preferred Investors are purchasing 943,324.06 Junior Preferred Units; and

WHEREAS, in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Junior Preferred Subscription Agreement and pursuant to the terms thereof, the parties hereto desire to amend and restate the Existing Registration Rights Agreement in its entirety in order to grant certain registration rights to the Investors as set forth below;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and the mutual and dependent covenants hereinafter set forth, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Defined Terms. As used in this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

"Affiliate" means any Person directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by, or under common control with another Person and any Persons with the same investment manager or whose investment manager is directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by, or under common control with another Person's investment manager. For purposes of this definition, "control" (including the terms "controlling", "controlled by" and "under common control with") means the possession, direct or indirect, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management, policies or affairs of a Person, whether through ownership of voting securities, by contract or otherwise, as executor, trustee or otherwise.

"Agreement" has the meaning set forth in the preamble.

"Board" means the board of managers or directors (or any similar or successor governing body) of the Company.

"Business Day" means any day except a Saturday, Sunday or other day on which commercial banks in New York City are authorized by law to close.

"Commission" means the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission or any other federal agency administering the Securities Act and the Exchange Act at the time.

"Common Unit" means the common units of the Company.

"Company" has the meaning set forth in the preamble and includes the Company's successors by merger, consolidation, amalgamation, acquisition, reorganization or otherwise.

"Company Securities" means Units, Interests or any other class of equity interests in the Company or any securities convertible or exercisable into, or any securities exchangeable for, or containing options or rights to acquire, Units, Interests or any class of equity interests in the Company.

"Controlling Person" has the meaning set forth in Section 5(q).

"Demand Registration" has the meaning set forth in Section 2(b).

"DTCDRS" has the meaning set forth in Section 5(r).

"Exchange Act" means the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

"Governmental Authority" means any federal, state, local or foreign government or political subdivision thereof, or any agency or instrumentality of such government or political subdivision, or any self-regulated organization or other non-governmental regulatory authority or quasi-governmental authority (to the extent that the rules, regulations or orders of such organization or authority have the force of law), or any arbitrator, court or tribunal of competent jurisdiction.

"Initiating Holders" has the meaning set forth in Section 2(a).

"Inspectors" has the meaning set forth in Section 5(h).

"Investor" and "Investors" each has the meaning set forth in the preamble.

"Investor Company Securities" means all Company Securities held by the Investors.

"Junior Preferred Investors" has the meaning set forth in the recitals.

"Junior Preferred Subscription Agreement" has the meaning set forth in the recitals.

"LLC Agreement" means the Fifth Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement of the Company, entered into on the date hereof, as amended from time to time.

"Long-Form Registration" has the meaning set forth in Section 2(a).

"Market Standoff Period" means the period commencing on the date of the final prospectus relating to any Qualified Public Offering and ending on the date specified by the Company with respect to such Qualified Public Offering or the managing underwriter (for the Qualified Public Offering) (such period not to exceed 180 days in the event of the first Qualified Public Offering and 90 days thereafter).

"Person" means an individual, corporation, partnership, joint venture, limited liability company, Governmental Authority, unincorporated organization, trust, association or other entity.

"Piggyback Registration" has the meaning set forth in Section 3(a).

"Piggyback Registration Statement" has the meaning set forth in Section 3(a).

"Piggyback Shelf Registration Statement" has the meaning set forth in Section 3(a).

"Piggyback Shelf Takedown" has the meaning set forth in Section 3(a).

"Preferred Units" means, collectively, the (i) Senior Preferred Units issued to the Senior Preferred Investors pursuant to the Senior Preferred Subscription Agreement and (ii) Junior Preferred Units issued to the Junior Preferred Investors pursuant to the Junior Preferred Subscription Agreement.

"Prospectus" means the prospectus or prospectuses included in any Registration Statement (including a prospectus that includes any information previously omitted from a prospectus filed as part of an effective Registration Statement in reliance on Rule 430A under the Securities Act or any successor rule thereto), as amended or supplemented by any prospectus supplement, including any Shelf Takedown, with respect to the terms of the offering of any portion of the Registrable Securities covered by such Registration Statement and by all other amendments and supplements to the prospectus, including post-effective amendments and all material incorporated by reference in such prospectus or prospectuses.

"Public Offering" means a public offering and sale of the equity of the Company (or any entity into which the Company hereafter may be converted pursuant to Section 12.12 of the LLCA or otherwise) registered under the Securities Act filed with the Commission on Form S-1 (or a successor form adopted by the Commission); provided, however that the following will not be considered a Public Offering: (i) any issuance of common equity interests as consideration for a merger or acquisition; or (ii) any issuance of common equity interests or rights to acquire common equity interests to existing equity holders or to employees of the Company or its subsidiaries on Form S-4 or Form S-8 (or a successor form adopted by the Securities and Exchange Commission).

"Qualified Public Offering" means: (i) any firm commitment underwritten Public Offering of common equity of the Company for which aggregate cash proceeds to be received by the Company or its successor from such offering (without deducting underwriting discounts, expenses and commissions) are at least $100,000,000.00 and pursuant to which equity securities of the Company or its successor are authorized and approved for listing on the New York Stock Exchange or the Nasdaq Global Market or any other national securities exchange; (ii) a direct listing of the Common Units (or securities exchanged therefor pursuant to Section 12.12 of the LLCA or otherwise); or (iii) a Qualified Acquisition Transaction (as defined in the LLCA) that is a SPAC Transaction (as defined in the LLCA).

"Records" has the meaning set forth in Section 5(h).

"Registrable Securities" means (i) any Investor Company Securities held by the Investors at any time (including those held as a result of, or issuable upon, the conversion of Preferred Units or the exercise of Warrants), whether now owned or acquired by the Investors at a later time, (ii) any Company Securities issued or issuable, directly or indirectly, in exchange for or with respect to any Investor Company Securities referenced in clause (i) above by way of securities dividend, securities split or combination of securities or in connection with a reclassification, recapitalization, merger, securities exchange, consolidation or other reorganization, and (iii) any securities issued in replacement of or exchange for any securities described in clause (i) or (ii) above. For purposes of this Agreement, a Person will be deemed to be a holder of Registrable Securities whenever such Person has the right to acquire, directly or indirectly, such Registrable Securities (including upon conversion, exercise or exchange of any equity interests but disregarding any restrictions or limitations upon the exercise of such right), whether or not such acquisition has actually been effected, and such Person shall not be required to convert, exercise or exchange such equity interests (or otherwise acquire such Registrable Securities) to participate in any registered offering hereunder until the closing of such offering. As to any particular Registrable Securities, such securities shall cease to be Registrable Securities when (A) a registration statement with respect to the sale of such securities shall have been declared effective under the Securities Act and such securities shall have been disposed of in accordance with such registration statement, (B) such securities shall be eligible to be disposed of in compliance with the requirements of Rule 144 without volume or manner of sale restrictions and without the requirement for the Company to be in compliance with the current public information requirement under Rule 144(c)(i), (C) such securities have been transferred to a Person other than a successor or a transferee pursuant to Section 15, or (D) such securities have ceased to be outstanding.

"Registration Date" means the date on which the Company becomes subject to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act.

"Registration Statement" means any registration statement of the Company, including the Prospectus, amendments and supplements (including Shelf Takedowns) to such registration statement, including post-effective amendments, all exhibits and all material incorporated by reference in such registration statement.

"Rule 144" means Rule 144 under the Securities Act or any successor rule thereto.

"Securities Act" means the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

"Selling Expenses" means all underwriting discounts, selling commissions and stock transfer taxes applicable to the sale of Registrable Securities, and fees and disbursements of counsel for any holder of Registrable Securities, except for the fees and disbursements of counsel for the holders of Registrable Securities required to be paid by the Company pursuant to Section 6.

"Senior Preferred Investors" has the meaning set forth in the recitals.

"Senior Preferred Subscription Agreement" has the meaning set forth in the recitals.

"Shelf Registration" has the meaning set forth in Section 2(c).

"Shelf Registration Statement" has the meaning set forth in Section 2(c).

"Shelf Takedown" has the meaning set forth in Section 2(e).

"Short-Form Registration" has the meaning set forth in Section 2(b).

"WKSI" means a "well-known seasoned issuer" (as defined in Rule 405 of the Securities Act).

2. Demand Registration.

(a) At any time after the Market Standoff Period following a Qualified Public Offering, holders of fifty percent (50%) or more of the Registrable Securities then outstanding held by the Senior Preferred Investors (such holders, the "Initiating Holders") may request that the Company file a registration statement under the Securities Act on Form S-1 or any successor form thereto (each, a "Long-Form Registration") covering the registration of Registrable Securities of such Initiating Holders with an anticipated aggregate offering price of at least $50,000,000. Each request for a Long-Form Registration shall specify the number of Registrable Securities requested to be included in the Long-Form Registration. Upon receipt of any such request, the Company shall, within twenty (20) days, give written notice of such request to all holders of Registrable Securities, and subject to the limitations of this Section 2, use all commercially reasonable efforts to effect, as expeditiously as possible, the registration under the Securities Act of all Registrable Securities that holders of Registrable Securities request to be registered in a written request received by the Company within twenty (20) days after the mailing of the Company's notice.

In connection therewith, the Company shall prepare and file with (or confidentially submit to) the Commission a Registration Statement on Form S-1 or any successor form thereto covering all of Registrable Securities that the holders thereof have requested to be included in such Long-Form Registration within thirty (30) days after the date on which the initial request is given and shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause such Registration Statement to be declared effective by the Commission as soon as practicable thereafter.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall not be required to effect a registration pursuant to this Section 2(a):

(i) in any particular jurisdiction in which the Company would be required to execute a general consent to service of process in effecting such registration, unless the Company is already subject to service in such jurisdiction and except as may be required under the Securities Act; or

(ii) after the Company has effected two (2) registrations pursuant to this Section 2(a) and such registrations have been declared or ordered effective.

(b) After a Qualified Public Offering, the Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to qualify and remain qualified to register the offer and sale of securities under the Securities Act pursuant to a Registration Statement on Form S-3 or any successor form thereto. At such time as the Company shall have qualified for the use of a Registration Statement on Form S-3 or any successor form thereto (irrespective of whether a Qualified Public Offering shall have occurred), the holders of Registrable Securities shall have the right to request an unlimited number of registrations under the Securities Act of all or any portion of their Registrable Securities pursuant to a Registration Statement on Form S-3 or any similar short-form Registration Statement (each, a "Short-Form Registration" and, with each Long-Form Registration and Shelf Registration (as defined below), a "Demand Registration").

Each request for a Short-Form Registration shall specify the number of Registrable Securities requested to be included in the Short-Form Registration. Upon receipt of any such request, the Company shall promptly (but in no event later than twenty (20) days following receipt thereof) deliver notice of such request to all other holders of Registrable Securities who shall then have twenty (20) days from the date such notice is given to notify the Company in writing of their desire to be included in such registration. The Company shall prepare and file with (or confidentially submit to) the Commission a Registration Statement on Form S-3 or any successor form thereto covering all of the Registrable Securities that the holders thereof have requested to be included in such Short-Form Registration within twenty (20) days after the date on which the initial request is given and shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause such Registration Statement to be declared effective by the Commission as soon as practicable thereafter.

(c) At such time as the Company shall have qualified for the use of a Registration Statement on Form S-3 or the then appropriate form for an offering to be made on a delayed or continuous basis pursuant to Rule 415 under the Securities Act or any successor rule thereto (a "Shelf Registration Statement"), the holders of Registrable Securities shall have the right to request registration under the Securities Act of all or any portion of their Registrable Securities for an offering on a delayed or continuous basis pursuant to Rule 415 under the Securities Act or any successor rule thereto (a "Shelf Registration"). Each request for a Shelf Registration shall specify the number of Registrable Securities requested to be included in the Shelf Registration. Upon receipt of any such request, the Company shall promptly (but in no event later than twenty (20) days following receipt thereof) deliver notice of such request to all other holders of Registrable Securities who shall then have twenty (20) days from the date such notice is given to notify the Company in writing of their desire to be included in such registration. The Company shall prepare and file with (or confidentially submit to) the Commission a Shelf Registration Statement covering all of the Registrable Securities that the holders thereof have requested to be included in such Shelf Registration within twenty (20) days after the date on which the initial request is given and shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause such Shelf Registration Statement to be declared effective by the Commission as soon as practicable thereafter.

(d) The Company shall not be obligated to effect any registration during the period starting with the date sixty (60) days prior to the Company's good faith estimate of the date of the filing of and ending on a date one hundred eighty (180) days following the effective date of a Company-initiated registration subject to Section 3.

(e) The Company may postpone for up to one hundred twenty (120) days the filing or effectiveness of a Registration Statement for a Demand Registration or the filing of a supplement for the purpose of effecting an offering pursuant to Rule 415 under the Securities Act or any successor rule thereto (a "Shelf Takedown") if the Board determines in its reasonable good faith judgment that such Demand Registration or Shelf Takedown would: (i) materially interfere with a significant acquisition, corporate reorganization, financing, securities offering or other similar transaction involving the Company; (ii) require premature disclosure of material information that the Company has a bona fide business purpose for preserving as confidential; (iii) render the Company unable to comply with requirements under the Securities Act or Exchange Act; or (iv) otherwise be materially detrimental to the Company and its stockholders; provided, however that such right shall be exercised by the Company not more than once in any twelve (12)-month period; provided further, however that the Company shall not register any securities for its own account or that of any other stockholder during such one hundred twenty (120)-day period.

(f) If the holders of the Registrable Securities initially requesting a Demand Registration or Shelf Takedown elect to distribute the Registrable Securities covered by their request in an underwritten offering, they shall so advise the Company as a part of their request made pursuant to Section 2(a), Section 2(b) or Section 2(c), and the Company shall include such information in its notice to the other holders of Registrable Securities. In any such event, the right of any applicable holder to include its Registrable Securities in such registration shall be conditioned upon such holder's participation in such underwriting and the inclusion of such holder's Registrable Securities in the underwriting (unless otherwise mutually agreed by a majority in interest of the Initiating Holders and such holder) to the extent provided herein. All holders proposing to distribute their Registrable Securities through such underwriting shall enter into an underwriting agreement in customary form with the underwriter or underwriters selected for such underwriting by the Company (which underwriter or underwriters shall be reasonably acceptable to a majority in interest of the Initiating Holders). The holders of at least a majority of the Registrable Securities initially requesting the Demand Registration or Shelf Takedown shall select the investment banking firm or firms to act as the managing underwriter or underwriters in connection with such offering.

(g) Other than securities to be sold for its own account, the Company shall not include in any Demand Registration or Shelf Takedown any securities which are not Registrable Securities without the prior written consent of the holders of at least a majority of the Registrable Securities initially requesting such Demand Registration or Shelf Takedown, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

(h) If a Demand Registration or Shelf Takedown involves an underwritten offering and the managing underwriter of the requested Demand Registration or Shelf Takedown advises the Company and the holders of Registrable Securities in writing that in its reasonable and good faith opinion marketing factors require a limitation on the number of securities

underwritten, the Company shall include in such Demand Registration or Shelf Takedown (i) first, the Company Securities that the Initiating Holders propose to sell, (ii) second, the Company Securities that any other holders of Registrable Securities propose to sell and (iii) third, the Company Securities proposed to be included therein by any other Persons (including Company Securities to be sold for the account of the Company and/or other holders of Company Securities) allocated among such Persons in such manner as they may agree. If the managing underwriter determines that less than all the Registrable Securities proposed to be sold can be included in such offering, then the Registrable Securities that are included in such offering shall be allocated pro rata among the respective holders thereof on the basis of the number of Registrable Securities owned by each such holder.

(i) To the extent the Company is a WKSI at the time any Demand Registration is submitted to the Company, the Company shall file an automatic shelf registration statement (as defined in Rule 405 under the Securities Act) (an "Automatic Shelf Registration Statement") on Form S-3 which covers those Registrable Securities which are requested to be registered. If the Company does not pay the filing fee covering the Registrable Securities at the time the Automatic Shelf Registration Statement is filed, the Company will pay such fee at such time or times as the Registrable Securities are to be sold in compliance with the SEC rules. If the Automatic Shelf Registration Statement has been outstanding for at least three (3) years, at or prior to the end of the third year the Company shall refile a new Automatic Shelf Registration Statement covering the Registrable Securities. If at any time when the Company is required to re-evaluate its WKSI status the Company determines that it is not a WKSI, the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to refile the shelf registration statement on Form S-3 and, if such form is not available, Form S-1 and keep such registration statement effective during the period which such registration statement is required to be kept effective.

(j) If the Company files any shelf registration statement for the benefit of the holders of any of its securities other than the holders of Registrable Securities, and the holders of Registrable Securities do not request that any of their Registrable Securities be included in such Shelf Registration Statement, the Company will include in such registration statement such disclosures as may be required by Rule 430B under the Securities Act (referring to the unnamed selling security holders in a generic manner by identifying the initial offering of the securities to the holders of Registrable Securities) in order to ensure that the holders of Registrable Securities may be added to such shelf registration statement at a later time through the filing of a prospectus supplement rather than a post-effective amendment.

3. Piggyback Registration.

(a) Whenever (i) the Company proposes to register the offer and sale of any Company Securities under the Securities Act (other than a registration (A) pursuant to a Registration Statement on Form S-8 (or other registration solely relating to an offering or sale to employees or directors of the Company pursuant to any employee stock plan or other employee benefit arrangement), (B) pursuant to a Registration Statement on Form S-4 (or similar form that relates to a transaction subject to Rule 145 under the Securities Act or any successor rule thereto), or (C) in connection with any dividend or distribution reinvestment or similar plan), whether for its own account or for the account of one or more stockholders of the Company, and (ii) the form of Registration Statement (a "Piggyback Registration Statement") to be used may be used for any registration of Registrable Securities (a "Piggyback Registration"), then the Company shall give prompt written notice (in any event no later than twenty (20) days prior to the filing of such Registration Statement) to the holders of Registrable Securities of its intention to effect such a registration and, subject to Section 3(b) and Section 3(c), shall include in such registration all Registrable Securities with respect to which the Company has received written requests for inclusion from the holders of Registrable Securities within twenty (20) days after the Company's notice has been given to each such holder. A Piggyback Registration shall not be considered a Demand Registration for purposes of Section 2.

If any Piggyback Registration Statement pursuant to which holders of Registrable Securities have registered the offer and sale of Registrable Securities is a Registration Statement on Form S-3 or the then appropriate form for an offering to be made on a delayed or continuous basis pursuant to Rule 415 under the Securities Act or any successor rule thereto (a "Piggyback Shelf Registration Statement"), such holder(s) shall have the right, but not the obligation, to be notified of and to participate in any offering under such Piggyback Shelf Registration Statement (a "Piggyback Shelf Takedown").

(b) If a Piggyback Registration or Piggyback Shelf Takedown is initiated as a primary underwritten offering on behalf of the Company and the managing underwriter advises the Company and the holders of Registrable Securities (if any holders of Registrable Securities have elected to include Registrable Securities in such Piggyback Registration or Piggyback Shelf Takedown) in writing that in its reasonable and good faith opinion marketing factors require a limitation on the number of securities underwritten, the Company shall include in such registration or takedown: (i) first, the Company Securities that the Company proposes to sell; (ii) second, the Company Securities requested to be included therein by holders of Registrable Securities, allocated pro rata among all such holders on the basis of the number of Registrable Securities owned by each such holder or in such manner as they may otherwise agree; and (iii) third, the Company Securities requested to be included therein by holders of Company Securities other than holders of Registrable Securities, allocated among such holders in such manner as they may agree; provided, however, that in any event the Senior Preferred Investors holding Registrable Securities shall be entitled to register the offer and sale or distribution of at least fifteen percent (15%) of the Registrable Securities to be included in any such registration or takedown.

(c) If a Piggyback Registration or Piggyback Shelf Takedown is initiated as an underwritten offering on behalf of a holder of Company Securities other than Registrable Securities, and the managing underwriter advises the Company in writing that in its reasonable and good faith opinion the number of Company Securities proposed to be included in such registration or takedown, including all Registrable Securities and all other Company Securities proposed to be included in such underwritten offering, exceeds the number of Company Securities which can be sold in such offering and/or that the number of Company Securities proposed to be included in any such registration or takedown would adversely affect the price per share of the Company Securities to be sold in such offering, the Company shall include in such registration or takedown: (i) first, the Company Securities requested to be included therein by the holder(s) requesting such registration or takedown and by the holders of Registrable Securities, allocated pro rata among all such holders on the basis of the number of Company Securities other than the Registrable Securities (on a fully diluted, as converted basis) and the number of Registrable Securities, as applicable, owned by all such holders or in such manner as they may otherwise agree; and (ii) second, the Company Securities requested to be included therein by other holders of Company Securities, allocated among such holders in such manner as they may agree.

(d) If any Piggyback Registration or Piggyback Shelf Takedown is initiated as a primary underwritten offering on behalf of the Company, the Company shall select the investment banking firm or firms to act as the managing underwriter or underwriters in connection with such offering.

(e) For the avoidance of doubt, the provisions of this Section 3 shall apply irrespective of whether a Qualified Public Offering shall have occurred.

4. Lock-Up Agreement. Each holder of Registrable Securities agrees that in connection with any Qualified Public Offering of the Company Securities and any registration effected pursuant to Section 2(a), Section 2(b) or Section 2(c), and upon the request of the managing underwriter in such offering, such holder shall not, without the prior written consent of such managing underwriter, during the Market Standoff Period (a) offer, pledge, sell, contract to sell, grant any option or contract to purchase, purchase any option or contract to sell, hedge the beneficial ownership of or otherwise dispose of, directly or indirectly, any Company Securities or any securities convertible into, exercisable for or exchangeable for Company Securities held immediately before the effectiveness of the Registration Statement for such offering, or (b) enter into any swap or other arrangement that transfers to another, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences of ownership of such securities, whether any such transaction described in clause (a) or (b) above is to be settled by delivery of Company Securities or such other securities, in cash or otherwise.

The foregoing provisions of this Section 4 shall not apply to sales of Registrable Securities to be included in such offering pursuant to Section 2, or Section 3, and shall be applicable to the holders of Registrable Securities only if all officers and directors of the Company and all holders owning more than one percent (1%) of the Company's outstanding Company Securities are subject to the same restrictions. Each holder of Registrable Securities shall execute and deliver such other customary agreements as may be reasonably requested by the Company or the managing underwriter that are consistent with the foregoing and that are on terms no less favorable to the holders of Registrable Securities than are provided to all other non-management holders of Company Securities.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 4, each holder of Registrable Securities shall be released, pro rata, from any lock-up agreement entered into pursuant to this Section 4 if and to the extent that the managing underwriter or the Company permit any discretionary waiver or termination of the restrictions of any lock-up agreement pertaining to any officer or director of the Company or any holder of greater than one percent (1%) of the outstanding Company Securities.

5. Registration Procedures. If and whenever the holders of Registrable Securities request that the offer and sale of any Registrable Securities be registered under the Securities Act or that any Registrable Securities be distributed in a Shelf Takedown pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement, the Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to effect the registration of the offer and sale of such Registrable Securities under the Securities Act in accordance with the intended method of disposition thereof, and pursuant thereto the Company shall as soon as practicable and as applicable:

(a) subject to Section 2(a), Section 2(b) and Section 2(c), prepare and file with the Commission a Registration Statement covering such Registrable Securities and use its best efforts to cause such Registration Statement to be declared effective;

(b) in the case of a Long-Form Registration or a Short-Form Registration, prepare and file with the Commission such amendments, post-effective amendments and supplements to such Registration Statement and the Prospectus used in connection therewith as may be necessary to keep such Registration Statement effective for a period of not less than one hundred and eighty (180) days, or if earlier, until all of such Registrable Securities have been disposed of and to comply with the provisions of the Securities Act with respect to the disposition of such Registrable Securities in accordance with the intended methods of disposition set forth in such Registration Statement;

(c) at least ten (10) Business Days before filing such Registration Statement, Prospectus or amendments or supplements thereto with the Commission, furnish to one counsel selected by holders of a majority of such Registrable Securities copies of such documents proposed to be filed, which documents shall be subject to the review, comment and approval of such counsel;

(d) notify each selling holder of Registrable Securities, promptly after the Company receives notice thereof, of the time when such Registration Statement has been declared effective or a supplement, including a Shelf Takedown, to any Prospectus forming a part of such Registration Statement has been filed with the Commission;

(e) furnish to each selling holder of Registrable Securities such number of copies of the Prospectus included in such Registration Statement (including each preliminary Prospectus) and any supplement thereto, including a Shelf Takedown (in each case including all exhibits and documents incorporated by reference therein), and such other documents as such seller may request in order to facilitate the disposition of the Registrable Securities owned by such seller;

(f) use its best efforts to register or qualify such Registrable Securities under such other securities or "blue sky" laws of such jurisdictions as any selling holder requests and do any and all other acts and things which may be necessary or advisable to enable such holders to consummate the disposition in such jurisdictions of the Registrable Securities owned by such holders; provided, that the Company shall not be required to qualify generally to do business, subject itself to general taxation or consent to general service of process in any jurisdiction where it would not otherwise be required to do so but for this Section 5(f);

(g) notify each selling holder of such Registrable Securities, at any time when a Prospectus relating thereto is required to be delivered under the Securities Act, of the happening of any event that would cause the Prospectus included in such Registration Statement to contain an untrue statement of a material fact or omit any fact necessary in order to make the statements made therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, and, at the request of any such holder, the Company shall prepare a supplement or amendment to such Prospectus so that, as thereafter delivered to the purchasers of such Registrable Securities, such Prospectus shall not contain an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading;

(h) make available for inspection by any selling holder of Registrable Securities, any underwriter participating in any disposition pursuant to such Registration Statement and any attorney, accountant or other agent retained by any such holder or underwriter (collectively, the "Inspectors"), all financial and other records, pertinent corporate documents and properties of the Company (collectively, the "Records"), and cause the Company's officers, directors and employees to supply all information requested by any such Inspector in connection with such Registration Statement;

(i) provide a transfer agent and registrar (which may be the same entity) for all such Registrable Securities not later than the effective date of such registration;

(j) use its best efforts to cause such Registrable Securities to be listed on each securities exchange on which the Company Securities is then listed or, if the Company Securities are not then listed, on a national securities exchange selected by the Company with the approval of the holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities included in such registration;

(k) in connection with an underwritten offering, enter into such customary agreements (including underwriting and lock-up agreements in customary form) and take all such other customary actions as the holders of such Registrable Securities or the managing underwriter of such offering request in order to expedite or facilitate the disposition of such Registrable Securities (including making appropriate officers of the Company available to participate in "road show" and other customary marketing activities (including one-on-one meetings with prospective purchasers of the Registrable Securities));

(l) otherwise use its best efforts to comply with all applicable rules and regulations of the Commission and make available to its stockholders an earnings statement (in a form that satisfies the provisions of Section 11(a) of the Securities Act and Rule 158 under the Securities Act or any successor rule thereto) no later than thirty (30) days after the end of the 12-month period beginning with the first day of the Company's first full fiscal quarter after the effective date of such Registration Statement, which earnings statement shall cover said 12-month period, and which requirement will be deemed to be satisfied if the Company timely files complete and accurate information on Forms 10-K, 10-Q and 8-K under the Exchange Act and otherwise complies with Rule 158 under the Securities Act or any successor rule thereto; and

(m) furnish to each selling holder of Registrable Securities and each underwriter, if any, with: (i) a written legal opinion of the Company's outside counsel, dated the closing date of the offering, in form and substance as is customarily given in opinions of the Company's counsel to underwriters in underwritten registered offerings; and (ii) on the date of the applicable Prospectus, on the effective date of any post-effective amendment to the applicable Registration Statement and at the closing of the offering, dated the respective dates of delivery thereof, a "comfort" letter signed by the Company's independent certified public accountants in form and substance as is customarily given in accountants' letters to underwriters in underwritten registered offerings;

(n) without limiting Section 5(f), use its best efforts to cause such Registrable Securities to be registered with or approved by such other governmental agencies or authorities as may be necessary by virtue of the business and operations of the Company to enable the holders of such Registrable Securities to consummate the disposition of such Registrable Securities in accordance with their intended method of distribution thereof;

(o) notify the holders of Registrable Securities promptly of any request by the Commission for the amending or supplementing of such Registration Statement or Prospectus or for additional information;

(p) advise the holders of Registrable Securities, promptly after it shall receive notice or obtain knowledge thereof, of the issuance of any stop order by the Commission suspending the effectiveness of such Registration Statement or the initiation or threatening of any proceeding for such purpose and promptly use its best efforts to prevent the issuance of any stop order or to obtain its withdrawal at the earliest possible moment if such stop order should be issued;

(q) permit any holder of Registrable Securities which holder, in its sole and exclusive judgment, might be deemed to be an underwriter or a "controlling person" (within the meaning of Section 15 of the Securities Act and Section 20 of the Exchange Act) (a "Controlling Person") of the Company, to participate in the preparation of such Registration Statement and to require the insertion therein of language, furnished to the Company in writing, which in the reasonable judgment of such holder and its counsel should be included;

(r) cooperate with the holders of the Registrable Securities to facilitate the timely preparation and delivery of certificates representing the Registrable Securities to be sold pursuant to such Registration Statement or Rule 144 free of any restrictive legends and representing such number of Company Securities and registered in such names as the holders of the Registrable Securities may reasonably request a reasonable period of time prior to sales of Registrable Securities pursuant to such Registration Statement or Rule 144; provided, however, that the Company may satisfy its obligations hereunder without issuing physical stock certificates through the use of The Depository Trust Company's Direct Registration System (the "DTCDRS");

(s) not later than the effective date of such Registration Statement, provide a CUSIP number for all Registrable Securities and provide the applicable transfer agent with printed certificates for the Registrable Securities which are in a form eligible for deposit with The Depository Trust Company; provided, however, that the Company may satisfy its obligations hereunder without issuing physical stock certificates through the use of the DTCDRS;

(t) take no direct or indirect action prohibited by Regulation M under the Exchange Act; provided, however, that, to the extent that any prohibition is applicable to the Company, the Company will take all reasonable action to make any such prohibition inapplicable; and

(u) in the case of a Shelf Registration, prepare and file with the Commission such amendments, post-effective amendments and supplements, including Shelf Takedowns, to such Registration Statement and the Prospectus used in connection therewith as may be necessary to keep such Registration Statement effective and to comply with the provisions of the Securities Act with respect to the disposition of all Registrable Securities subject thereto for a period (unless otherwise provided herein) ending on the earlier of (i) one hundred and eight (180) days after the effective date of such Registration Statement and (ii) the date on which all the Registrable Securities subject thereto have been sold pursuant to such Registration Statement;

(v) otherwise use its best efforts to take all other steps necessary to effect the registration of such Registrable Securities contemplated hereby.

6. Expenses. All expenses (other than Selling Expenses) incurred by the Company in complying with its obligations pursuant to this Agreement and in connection with the registration and disposition of Registrable Securities shall be paid by the Company, including all: (i) registration and filing fees (including, without limitation, any fees relating to filings required to be made with, or the listing of any Registrable Securities on, any securities exchange or over-the-counter trading market on which the Registrable Securities are listed or quoted); (ii) underwriting expenses (other than fees, commissions or discounts); (iii) expenses of any audits incident to or required by any such registration; (iv) fees and expenses of complying with securities and "blue sky" laws (including, without limitation, fees and disbursements of counsel for the Company in connection with "blue sky" qualifications or exemptions of the Registrable Securities); (v) printing expenses; (vi) messenger, telephone and delivery expenses; (vii) fees and expenses of the Company's counsel and accountants; (viii) Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. filing fees (if any); and (ix) fees and expenses of one counsel for the holders of Registrable Securities participating in such registration as a group (selected by, in the case of a registration under Section 2(a), the holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities initially requesting such registration, and, in the case of all other registrations hereunder, the holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities included in the registration). In addition, the Company shall be responsible for all of its internal expenses incurred in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including, without limitation, all salaries and expenses of its officers and employees performing legal or accounting duties) and the expense of any annual audits. All Selling Expenses relating to the offer and sale of Registrable Securities registered under the Securities Act pursuant to this Agreement shall be borne and paid by the holders of such Registrable Securities, in proportion to the number of Registrable Securities included in such registration for each such holder.

7. Indemnification.

(a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless, to the fullest extent permitted by law, each holder of Registrable Securities, such holder's officers, directors, managers, members, partners, stockholders and Affiliates, each underwriter, broker or any other Person acting on behalf of such holder of Registrable Securities and each other Controlling Person, if any, who controls any of the foregoing Persons, against all losses, claims, actions, damages, liabilities and expenses, joint or several, to which any of the foregoing Persons may become subject under the Securities Act or otherwise, insofar as such losses, claims, actions, damages, liabilities or expenses arise out of or are based upon any untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in any Registration Statement, Prospectus, preliminary Prospectus, free writing prospectus (as defined in Rule 405 under the Securities Act or any successor rule thereto) or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto or any omission or alleged omission of a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein (in the case of a Prospectus, preliminary Prospectus or free writing prospectus, in light of the circumstances under which they were made) not misleading, or any violation or alleged violation by the Company of the Securities Act or any other similar federal or state securities laws or any rule or regulation promulgated thereunder applicable to the Company and relating to action or inaction required of the Company in connection with any such registration, qualification or compliance; and shall reimburse such Persons for any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred by any of them in connection with investigating or defending any such loss, claim, action, damage or liability, except insofar as the same are caused by or contained in any information furnished in writing to the Company by such holder expressly for use therein or by such holder's failure to deliver a copy of the Registration Statement, Prospectus, preliminary Prospectus, free writing prospectus (as defined in Rule 405 under the Securities Act or any successor rule thereto) or any amendments or supplements thereto (if the same was required by applicable law to be so delivered) after the Company has furnished such holder with a sufficient number of copies of the same prior to any written confirmation of the sale of Registrable Securities. This indemnity shall be in addition to any liability the Company may otherwise have. The indemnification provided for under this Section 7(a) shall remain in full force and effect regardless of any investigation made by or on behalf of the indemnified party or any officer, director or Controlling Person of such indemnified party and shall survive the transfer of the Registrable Securities by the Investors pursuant to Section 15.

(b) In connection with any registration in which a holder of Registrable Securities is participating, each such holder shall furnish to the Company in writing such information as the Company reasonably requests for use in connection with any such Registration Statement or Prospectus and, to the extent permitted by law, shall indemnify and hold harmless, the Company, each director of the Company, each officer of the Company who shall sign such Registration Statement, each underwriter, broker or other Person acting on behalf of the holders of Registrable Securities and each Controlling Person who controls any of the foregoing Persons against any losses, claims, actions, damages, liabilities or expenses resulting from any untrue or alleged untrue statement of material fact contained in the Registration Statement, Prospectus, preliminary Prospectus, free writing prospectus (as defined in Rule 405 under the Securities Act or any successor rule thereto) or any amendment thereof or supplement thereto or any omission or alleged omission of a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein (in the case of a Prospectus, preliminary Prospectus or free writing prospectus, in light of the circumstances under which they were made) not misleading, but only to the extent that such untrue statement or omission is contained in any information so furnished in writing by such holder; provided, however, that the obligation to indemnify shall be several, not joint and several, for each holder and shall not exceed an amount equal to the net proceeds (after underwriting fees, commissions or discounts) actually received by such holder from the sale of Registrable Securities pursuant to such Registration Statement. This indemnity shall be in addition to any liability the selling holder may otherwise have.

(c) Promptly after receipt by an indemnified party of notice of the commencement of any action involving a claim referred to in this Section 7, such indemnified party shall, if a claim in respect thereof is made against an indemnifying party, give written notice to the latter of the commencement of such action. The failure of any indemnified party to notify an indemnifying party of any such action shall not (unless such failure shall have a material adverse effect on the indemnifying party) relieve the indemnifying party from any liability in respect of such action that it may have to such indemnified party hereunder. In case any such action is brought against an indemnified party, the indemnifying party shall be entitled to participate in and to assume the defense of the claims in any such action that are subject or potentially subject to indemnification hereunder, jointly with any other indemnifying party similarly notified to the extent that it may wish, with counsel reasonably satisfactory to such indemnified party, and after written notice from the indemnifying party to such indemnified party of its election so to assume the defense thereof, the indemnifying party shall not be responsible for any legal or other expenses subsequently incurred by the indemnified party in connection with the defense thereof; provided, however, that, if (i) any indemnified party shall have reasonably concluded that there may be one or more legal or equitable defenses available to such indemnified party which are additional to or conflict with those available to the indemnifying party, or that such claim or litigation involves or could have an effect upon matters beyond the scope of the indemnity provided hereunder, or (ii) such action seeks an injunction or equitable relief against any indemnified party or involves actual or alleged criminal activity, the indemnifying party shall not have the right to assume the defense of such action on behalf of such indemnified party without such indemnified party's prior written consent (but, without such consent, shall have the right to participate therein with counsel of its choice) and such indemnifying party shall reimburse such indemnified party and any Controlling Person of such indemnified party for that portion of the fees and expenses of any counsel retained by the indemnified party which is reasonably related to the matters covered by the indemnity provided hereunder. If the indemnifying party is not entitled to, or elects not to, assume the defense of a claim, it shall not be obligated to pay the fees and expenses of more than one counsel for all parties indemnified by such indemnifying party with respect to such claim, unless in the reasonable judgment of any indemnified party a conflict of interest may exist between such indemnified party and any other of such indemnified parties with respect to such claim. In such instance, the conflicting indemnified parties shall have a right to retain one separate counsel, chosen by the holders of at least a majority of the Registrable Securities included in the registration, at the expense of the indemnifying party.

(d) If the indemnification provided for hereunder is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unavailable to an indemnified party with respect to any loss, claim, damage, liability or action referred to herein, then the indemnifying party, in lieu of indemnifying such indemnified party hereunder, shall contribute to the amounts paid or payable by such indemnified party as a result of such loss, claim, damage, liability or action in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative fault of the indemnifying party on the one hand and of the indemnified party on the other in connection with the statements or omissions which resulted in such loss, claim, damage, liability or action as well as any other relevant equitable considerations; provided, however, that the maximum amount of liability in respect of such contribution shall be limited, in the case of each holder of Registrable Securities, to an amount equal to the net proceeds (after underwriting fees, commissions or discounts) actually received by such seller from the sale of Registrable Securities effected pursuant to such registration. The relative fault of the indemnifying party and of the indemnified party shall be determined by reference to, among other things, whether the untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact or the omission or alleged omission to state a material fact relates to information supplied by the indemnifying party or by the indemnified party, whether the violation of the Securities Act or any other similar federal or state securities laws or rule or regulation promulgated thereunder applicable to the Company and relating to action or inaction required of the Company in connection with any applicable registration, qualification or compliance was perpetrated by the indemnifying party or the indemnified party and the parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent such statement or omission. The parties agree that it would not be just and equitable if contribution pursuant hereto were determined by pro rata allocation or by any other method or allocation which does not take account of the equitable considerations referred to herein. No Person guilty or liable of fraudulent misrepresentation within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the Securities Act shall be entitled to contribution from any Person who was not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation.

8. Participation in Underwritten Registrations. No Person may participate in any registration hereunder which is underwritten unless such Person (a) agrees to sell such Person's securities on the basis provided in any underwriting arrangements approved by the Person or Persons entitled hereunder to approve such arrangements, and (b) completes and executes all questionnaires, powers of attorney, indemnities, underwriting agreements and other documents required under the terms of such underwriting arrangements; provided, however, that no holder of Registrable Securities included in any underwritten registration shall be required to make any representations or warranties to the Company or the underwriters (other than representations and warranties regarding such holder, such holder's ownership of its Company Securities to be sold in the offering and such holder's intended method of distribution) or to undertake any indemnification obligations to the Company or the underwriters with respect thereto, except as otherwise provided in Section 7.

9. Rule 144 Compliance. With a view to making available to the holders of Registrable Securities the benefits of Rule 144 and any other rule or regulation of the Commission that may at any time permit a holder to sell securities of the Company to the public without registration, the Company shall:

(a) make and keep public information available, as those terms are understood and defined in Rule 144, at all times after the Registration Date;

(b) use best efforts to file with the Commission in a timely manner all reports and other documents required of the Company under the Securities Act and the Exchange Act, at any time after the Registration Date; and

(c) furnish to any holder so long as the holder owns Registrable Securities, promptly upon request, a written statement by the Company as to its compliance with the reporting requirements of Rule 144 and of the Securities Act and the Exchange Act, a copy of the most recent annual or quarterly report of the Company, and such other reports and documents so filed or furnished by the Company as such holder may request in connection with the sale of Registrable Securities without registration.

10. Preservation of Rights. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Company has not prior to the date hereof, and shall not on or after the date hereof (a) grant any registration rights to any third party or to any Member of the Company other than an Investor that are more favorable than or inconsistent with the rights granted hereunder, (b) enter into any agreement, take any action, or permit any change to occur, with respect to its securities that violates or subordinates the rights expressly granted to the holders of Registrable Securities in this Agreement, or (c) enter into any agreement that is inconsistent with the rights of the Investors hereunder.

11. Termination. This Agreement shall terminate and be of no further force or effect when there shall no longer be any Registrable Securities outstanding; provided, however, that the provisions of Section 6 and Section 7 shall survive any such termination.

12. Alternative IPO Entities. If the Company elects to effect an underwritten registered offering of equity securities of any subsidiary or parent of the Company (collectively, "Alternative IPO Entities") rather than the equity securities of the Company, whether as a result of a reorganization of the Company or otherwise, the Investors and the Company shall cause the Alternative IPO Entity to enter into an agreement with the Investors that provides the Investors with registration rights with respect to the equity securities of the Alternative IPO Entity that are substantially the same as, and in any event no less favorable in the aggregate to, the registration rights provided to the Investors in this Agreement.

13. Notices. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, any notice or other communication required or permitted to be delivered to any party under this Agreement will be in writing and delivered by (a) email, or (b) registered mail via a national courier service to the following email address or physical address, as applicable.

14. Entire Agreement. This Agreement, together with (i) with respect to the Company and the Senior Preferred Investors, the Senior Preferred Subscription Agreement, and (ii) with respect to the Company and the Junior Preferred Investors, the Junior Preferred Subscription Agreement, and, in each case, any related exhibits and schedules thereto, constitutes the sole and entire agreement and understanding of the parties to this Agreement with respect to the subject matter contained herein, and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements and understandings, both written and oral, with respect to such subject matter. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of any conflict between the terms and provisions of this Agreement and those of the Senior Preferred Subscription Agreement or the Junior Preferred Subscription Agreement, the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall control.

15. Successor and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns. Neither the Company, on the one hand, nor any Investor, on the other hand, may assign any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of such other party, except that such Investor may, without the consent of the Company, assign its rights or obligations hereunder to any Person to whom such Investor transfers all or any portion of its Company Securities in compliance with the LLC Agreement.

16. No Third-Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement is for the sole benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns, and nothing herein, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other Person any legal or equitable right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever, under or by reason of this Agreement; provided, however that the persons set forth in Section 7 are express third-party beneficiaries of the obligations of the parties set forth in Section 7.

17. Interpretation. All references herein to "Sections" shall refer to corresponding provisions of this Agreement. Whenever the words "include," "includes" or "including" are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words "without limitation." The words "hereof," "herein" and "hereunder" and words of similar import when used in this Agreement shall refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Agreement. The definitions contained in this Agreement are applicable to the singular as well as the plural forms of such terms and to the masculine as well as to the feminine and neuter genders of such term.

18. Amendments, Supplements and Waivers. The provisions of this Agreement may only be amended, supplemented or waived with the prior written consent of the Company and the holders of a majority of the Registrable Securities. No waiver by any party or parties shall operate or be construed as a waiver in respect of any failure, breach or default not expressly identified by such written waiver, whether of a similar or different character, and whether occurring before or after that waiver. Except as otherwise set forth in this Agreement, no failure to exercise, or delay in exercising, any right, remedy, power or privilege arising from this Agreement shall operate or be construed as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, remedy, power or privilege hereunder preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, remedy, power or privilege.

19. Joinder of Junior Preferred Members Pursuant to Subsequent Closings. Any Person who purchases Junior Preferred Units pursuant to the Junior Preferred Subscription Agreement on a Subsequent Closing Date (as defined therein) may execute a counterpart to this Agreement and shall, upon and as of such execution, become and be deemed a party hereto as an Investor.

20. Severability. If any term or provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect any other term or provision of this Agreement or invalidate or render unenforceable such term or provision in any other jurisdiction. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the parties hereto shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in a mutually acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated hereby be consummated as originally contemplated to the greatest extent possible.

21. Remedies. Each holder of Registrable Securities, in addition to being entitled to exercise all rights granted by law, including recovery of damages, shall be entitled to specific performance of its rights under this Agreement. The Company acknowledges that monetary damages would not be adequate compensation for any loss incurred by reason of a breach by it of the provisions of this Agreement and the Company hereby agrees to waive the defense in any action for specific performance that a remedy at law would be adequate.

22. Governing Law; Submission to Jurisdiction. This Agreement and the rights of the parties hereunder shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, and all rights and remedies shall be governed by such laws without regard to principles of conflict of laws. Each party hereto waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any right it may have to a trial by jury in respect of any action, suit or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement

23. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed with counterpart signature pages or in one or more counterparts, all of which will constitute one and the same instrument. Any counterpart signature pages or counterparts with any signatures thereon delivered by facsimile transmission or other electronic method (including by email in portable document format (pdf)) will be deemed an original executed document for all purposes hereof.

24. Further Assurances. The parties will execute and deliver such documents and other papers and take such further actions as may be reasonably required or desirable to carry out the provisions hereof and the transactions contemplated hereby.

25. Severability. Every provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. If any term or provision hereof is illegal, invalid or unenforceable for any reason whatsoever, that term or provision will be enforced to the maximum extent permissible so as to effect the intent of the parties, and such illegality, invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect the validity or legality of the remainder of this Agreement. If necessary to effect the intent of the parties, the parties will negotiate in good faith to amend this Agreement to replace the unenforceable language with enforceable language which as closely as possible reflects such intent.

26. No Vicarious Liability. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the liabilities of the parties under this Agreement will be limited to such parties, and no Person that is not a party will have any liability hereunder or with respect to the matters contemplated hereby. Each party hereby agrees not to bring any action or claim arising under or relating to this Agreement against any Person that is not a party.

EXECUTIVE EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

THIS EXECUTIVE EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (the "Agreement"), is entered into as of April 16, 2025 (the "Effective Date") by and between Daniel Chu (the "Executive"), and Tricolor Holdings, LLC (the "Company," and together with Executive, the "Parties" and each a "Party").

WHEREAS, the Company is engaged in the commercial enterprise of operating a vertically integrated retail automotive and consumer lending business, focused on the Hispanic consumer market and/or other consumer automobile markets throughout the United States (the "Business");

WHEREAS, the Company desires to provide for the continued employment of Executive on the terms and conditions provided in this Agreement;

WHEREAS, Executive is willing to commit to serve the Company in the capacity and on the terms and conditions provided in this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, in order to effect the foregoing, the Company and Executive wish to enter into an employment agreement on the terms and conditions set forth below.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing, the mutual agreements contained herein and for other good and valuable consideration (including the additional consideration set forth on Schedule 1, which constitutes sufficient independent consideration for the restrictive covenants in Section 6), the Parties, intending to be legally bound, hereby agree as follows:

1. SCOPE OF EMPLOYMENT.

1.1 AT-WILL EMPLOYMENT. EXECUTIVE'S EMPLOYMENT WITH THE COMPANY PURSUANT TO THIS AGREEMENT IS ON AN "AT-WILL" BASIS, meaning that Executive may resign from employment or the Company may terminate Executive's employment, at any time, for any reason not prohibited by law, subject to the terms and conditions of Section 3. The period of time between the Effective Date and the termination of the Executive's employment relationship shall be the "Employment Period".

1.2 Job Title and Duties. During the Employment Period, Executive will have the job title of Chief Executive Officer and, in such capacity, will have duties commensurate with such position and assigned to Executive by the Board of Managers of the Company (the "Board") from time to time. Executive's duties may also include providing services or support to all other Persons controlled by, controlling, or under common control with, the Company, including but not limited to Tricolor Auto Group, LLC, Tricolor California Auto Group, LLC, and Tricolor Auto Acceptance, LLC, together with their respective successors in interest ("Affiliates") from time to time. During the Employment Period, Executive shall serve, if elected or appointed, as an officer of any Affiliates in addition to the Company. The Executive will follow all applicable Company policies and codes of conduct, and comply with all reasonable and lawful instructions and directions of the Board, and adhere to all applicable laws, regulations, bylaws, ordinances and any other applicable legal requirements. Executive agrees and understands that the requirement to fulfill other reasonable duties as determined by the Company does not constitute a fundamental alteration to this Agreement. In the event of an irreconcilable conflict between this Agreement and applicable policies of the Company, this Agreement will govern. Executive shall devote Executive's full business time and best efforts to the Company and will not engage in any other employment, occupation, consulting, or other activity that conflicts with Executive's obligations to the Company; provided, however, that Executive shall be permitted to (a) serve on corporate, civic or charitable boards or committees as approved by the Board (except for boards or committees of a business organization that compete with the Company) and (b) manage or engage in other activities in connection with Executive's personal investments, in the case of the foregoing clauses (a) and (b) so long as the foregoing permitted activities do not interfere with Executive's duties hereunder, as determined in the good faith opinion of the Board.

2. COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS. The Company will provide to Executive the compensation and benefits set forth on Schedule 1 attached hereto. The Company may withhold and deduct from any amounts payable under this Agreement such federal, state and local taxes and other amounts required to be withheld or deducted pursuant to any applicable law.

3. TERMINATION.

3.1 Termination Reasons and Payments. If Executive's employment under this Agreement is terminated for any reason, voluntarily or involuntarily, with or without Cause, whether by discharge by the Company, resignation by Executive, death, or Disability, then all further rights of Executive (or as applicable, of Executive's heirs or estate) to employment or compensation and benefits under this Agreement shall cease as of the last day of the Employment Period (the "Termination Date"), except as otherwise provided herein.

(a) By Company Without Cause. The Company may terminate Executive's employment hereunder at any time without Cause (as defined herein), within its sole discretion. If the Company terminates Executive's employment without Cause, and subject to Executive's effective execution of a General Release Agreement then the Company will pay Executive the Severance Pay (as defined herein); except that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, if Executive is terminated by the Company within six months of a Capital Event (as defined in the Side Letter, which is defined herein), Executive will only be entitled to Accrued Compensation and Benefits plus, and subject to Executive's effective execution of a General Release Agreement, an amount equal to six (6) months of Executive's Base Salary as of the Termination Date, payable in a lump sum within thirty days of the Release Date.

(b) By Company for Cause. The Company may terminate Executive's employment under this Agreement at any time for Cause, effective immediately upon notice to Executive. "Cause" means the following, based on the acts or omissions of Executive: (i) Executive's indictment for, or entry of a plea of no contest with respect to, any felony (or state or foreign law equivalent); (ii) breach of the duty of loyalty; (iii) willful misconduct, such as a violation of policies of the Company or any Affiliates regarding honesty, confidentiality, expense reimbursement, or other employee misconduct; or (iv) fraud, theft, dishonesty, embezzlement, conversion, misappropriation, or misdirection of funds, property, or business opportunities of the Company or any Affiliates. If the Company terminates Executive's employment for Cause, the Company will pay Executive Accrued Compensation and Benefits.

(c) By Executive. Executive may resign from Executive's employment hereunder at any time upon sixty (60) days' prior written notice to the Company; provided, however, that the Company may, its sole discretion, (i) accelerate some or all of such notice period without converting the resignation to a termination by the Company or (ii) transition Executive to "Garden Leave" for up to six months following receipt of Executive's notice, during which time (w) Executive shall continue to receive his Base Salary and benefits (excluding any Annual Bonus) as provided herein, (x) Executive shall continue to be bound by the express and implied duties of Executive's employment including, without limitation, by the duty of fidelity and good faith owed to the Company and Sections 4 through 7 of this Agreement, (y) Executive shall cooperate and use best efforts to assist the Company in an orderly transition of Executive's duties and responsibilities to the Company, including, but not limited to, training and consulting with replacement personnel, and (z) the Company shall be under no obligation to provide any work to Executive and Executive shall not be an officer of the Company, have the authority to bind the Company in any way or direct or manage other employees of the Company during Garden Leave. For the avoidance of doubt, in no event shall Executive receive both Garden Leave payments and Severance Pay. If Executive resigns from employment hereunder or in the event Executive is placed on Garden Leave, then upon the termination of the Garden Leave, the Company will pay Executive any Accrued Compensation and Benefits.

(d) Due to Death. The Executive's employment will automatically and immediately terminate upon the death of Executive. If Executive's employment is terminated due to Executive's death, Executive's estate will be entitled to receive Accrued Compensation and Benefits.

(e) Due to Disability. The Executive's employment may be terminated by either Party upon notice to the other of Executive's Disability. If Executive's employment is terminated due to a Disability, Executive will be entitled to Accrued Compensation and Benefits.

3.2 Definitions.

(a) "Accrued Compensation and Benefits" means the payment, or commencement of payment as applicable, of: (i) the amount of unpaid Base Salary and accrued PTO earned by Executive through the Termination Date (payable in accordance with applicable law); (ii) all unpaid reimbursable expenses due to Executive under this Agreement as of the Termination Date, subject to Executive's compliance with the Company's expense reimbursement policies, payable in accordance with the terms of the Company's applicable policies, practices, and procedures regarding reimbursable expenses; and (iii) all unpaid benefits that have been earned by or vested in Executive under, and subject to the terms of, the employee benefit plans, insurance policies, or arrangements of the Company in which Executive participated through the Termination Date, payable in accordance with the terms of the employee benefit plans, insurance policies, or arrangements under which such amounts are due to Executive.

(b) "Disability" means, subject to the requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act, as amended, Executive's inability to perform the essential duties required hereunder due to physical or mental illness, impairment, or other incapacity, where (i) such inability has been determined to exist by the disability insurance carrier for the Company, or (ii) the Company has determined, based on competent professional advice and review of any medical examinations that the Board deems relevant, or that are required by the Company's designated physician, that such inability has continued or will continue for at least ninety (90) consecutive calendar days, or 150 calendar days, whether consecutive or not, within a three-hundred and sixty-five (365) day period. In conjunction with determining Disability for purposes of this Agreement, Executive hereby consents to (A) any medical examinations that the Board in good faith deems relevant to such a determination, or that are required by the Company's designated physician, (B) furnish such medical information as may be reasonably requested, and (C) waive any applicable privilege that may arise because of such examination, for the limited purpose of Company review. In the absence of the Parties' agreement about the existence of Executive's Disability, the Board will make a reasonable determination of same.

(c) "General Release Agreement" means a severance, separation, and general release agreement in a form acceptable to the Company, including terms for Executive's general release of all claims against the Company and Affiliates, survival of the terms of this Agreement that apply post-employment, and other terms reasonably deemed satisfactory to the Company or required by law.

(d) "Release Date" means the date that the General Release is fully executed by Executive and no longer subject to revocation per its terms.

(e) "Severance Pay" means an amount equal to twelve (12) months of Executive's Base Salary as of the Termination Date, plus Executive's portion of monthly group health insurance premiums for Executive and Executive's dependents ("Premiums"), for a period of twelve (12) months (the "Severance Period"), paid in substantially equal installments over the Severance Period in accordance with the normal payroll policies of the Company, less applicable taxes, commencing on the first regular monthly payroll date of the Company following the Release Date; provided, however, that any such amounts that constitute nonqualified deferred compensation within the meaning of Section 409A of the Code shall not be paid until the sixtieth (60^{th}) day following Executive's Separation from Service (as defined herein), and, if such payments are required to be so deferred, the first payment shall be in an amount equal to the total amount to which Executive would otherwise have been entitled (without interest) during the period following the Termination Date if such deferral had not been required.

3.3 Position Resignations. Upon termination of Executive's employment hereunder, Executive will resign or will be deemed to have resigned from any and all positions as an officer or director, or both, of the Company and any Affiliates, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Parties. If for any reason this Section is deemed to be insufficient to effectuate such resignations, then Executive will, upon the Company's request, execute any documents or instruments that the Company may deem necessary or desirable to effectuate such resignations.

3.4 Key Man. The Parties agree that Executive is integral to the Company's day-to-day management, investments, financing, and operations (a "Key Man"). Executive's termination of employment with the Company could materially and adversely affect the Company. Upon Executive's termination from employment, whether voluntarily or involuntarily, and for any reason, Executive agrees to cooperate in good faith with the Company and the Board's efforts to approve a replacement Key Man.

4. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.

4.1 Provision. In consideration of Executive's covenants herein, and in the course of Executive's employment, the Company has and will continue to provide Executive with Confidential Information. All Confidential Information is the property of the Company or Affiliates. The Executive acknowledges and stipulates that Confidential Information, if retained, appropriated, used, or disclosed in violation of this Agreement, would place the Company or Affiliates at a competitive disadvantage.

4.2 Confidential Information Defined. "Confidential Information" means any and all information, material, or data of, relating to, belonging to, prepared by, prepared for, obtained by, or compiled by the Company or Affiliates (or their customers, prospective customers, suppliers, licensees, licensors, or other business relations), regardless of media or format, that is confidential, proprietary, or a trade secret: (i) by its nature; (ii) because it is not generally known to the public or in the Company's industry; (iii) based on how it is treated or designated by the Company or Affiliates (or their customers, prospective customers, suppliers, licensees, licensors, or other business relations); (iv) based on the significance of its existing or potential commercial value or business utility; (v) such that its unauthorized direct or indirect retention, withholding, appropriation, use, or disclosure would have a material adverse effect on the business or planned business of the Company or any Affiliates; or (vi) as a matter of law, regardless of whether such information was obtained by Executive before or after the Effective Date. All Confidential Information is the property of the Company or Affiliates.

(a) Examples. Examples of Confidential Information include, but are not limited to, the following: (a) Intellectual Property; (b) Work for Hire; (c) any and all information, material and/or data related to the Company's and/or any Affiliate's program(s) of research, development, training and/or production; (d) designs, sources, codes or software, for products or services of the Company and/or Customer/Vendors, or for the development of same; and (e) any and all other non-public information, material and/or data about the Company's and/or any Affiliate's accounting, accumulated data, advertising, budgets, business plans, compilations of data and analyses, customers, customer lists, customer records, data processing, designs, development, engineering, finances, financial statements, formulas, information-gathering techniques and methods, listings, machines, manuals, manufacturing, marketing, merchandising, price lists and prices charged to specific customers, processes, products, projections, prospective customers, prospective vendors and suppliers, purchasing, recipes, research, sales, sales volume, sales methods, sales proposals, selling, services, software owned, licensed, or developed (or being developed) for use in or relating to the conduct of the Company, strategic and long-range plans, vendors and/or suppliers. Executive acknowledges and agrees that this information, if retained, appropriated, used, or disclosed, would place the Company at a competitive disadvantage.

(b) Executive Information. Confidential Information specifically includes any and all information, material, or data that is referenced in the foregoing definition and examples of Confidential Information, that is created, contributed by, discovered, known to, disclosed to, accessed by, or developed by Executive during the Employment Period, or that otherwise comes within Executive's possession, custody or control as a result of Executive's services provided to or on behalf of the Company or any Affiliates. Confidential Information also includes any documentation, media, or tangible items that contain or embody Confidential Information, and all copies, summaries, extracts or derivative works thereof. The Executive's obligations with respect to Confidential Information hereunder are in addition to all other obligations, including all such obligations arising from statute and common law

(c) Exclusions. Confidential Information does not include material, data, or information that: (A) the Company or Affiliates have voluntarily and intentionally placed in the public domain for public disclosure; (B) has been lawfully and independently developed and publicly disclosed by third parties without breaching any duty of confidentiality to the Company or any Affiliates; (C) is independently developed by Executive outside the course and scope of Executive's employment or engagement with the Company or any Affiliates, without the utilization of any Confidential Information; (D) is generally known or becomes known in the trade or industry of the Company or any Affiliates, except as a result of a breach of this Agreement or other agreement or instrument or obligation to which Executive is bound; (E) otherwise enters the public domain through lawful means or (F) consists of Executive's general industry knowledge or experience; provided, however, that the unauthorized retention, withholding, appropriation, use or disclosure of Confidential Information by Executive, directly or indirectly, shall not affect the protection and relief afforded by this Agreement regarding such information. Any Confidential Information that includes a combination of features or aspects shall not be deemed to be within any of the foregoing exceptions merely because individual features or aspects fall within any one or more of such exceptions, but only if the combination itself falls within any of the exceptions.

4.3 Protection. During the Employment Period and following the Termination Date, Executive shall not, in any manner, directly or indirectly: (a) retain, appropriate, remove, use, or disclose any Confidential Information, in any media or format, to or for the benefit of any individual, corporation, partnership, trust, limited liability company, unincorporated organization, association, or other entity (each, a "Person"), except for the benefit of the Company or any Affiliates within the course and scope of Executive's employment; or (b) circumvent, interfere with, or otherwise diminish, directly or indirectly, the value or benefit of Confidential Information to the Company or any Affiliates, except as a consequence of lawful, post-employment business activities that are not in breach of this Agreement. Executive shall use utmost diligence to protect Confidential Information from unauthorized or inadvertent disclosure.

4.4 Notice. Executive shall immediately notify the Company of any unauthorized disclosure or use of Confidential Information by Executive or any other Person, which Executive becomes aware of or reasonably suspects. Executive shall cooperate fully with the Company in protection of the Company's and Affiliates' rights regarding Confidential Information.

4.5 Return and Review. All Confidential Information shall remain the property of the Company or Affiliates, as applicable. Executive shall deliver to the Company all documents, files (including electronically stored information) and other materials constituting or reflecting Confidential Information within Executive's possession, custody, or control immediately upon the Company's request or the Termination Date, as applicable. Both during the Employment Period and after the Termination Date, the Company will have the right of reasonable access to review, inspect, copy, or confiscate documents, files (including electronically stored information) and other materials constituting or reflecting Confidential Information in Executive's possession, custody, or control. In the event that Executive becomes aware that Executive still has possession, custody or control of Confidential Information at any time following Executive's return of same as provided in this Section, Executive will promptly deliver same to the Company.

4.6 Response to Third Party Requests. Upon receipt of any request, by legal process or otherwise, seeking Executive's direct or indirect disclosure of any Confidential Information, Executive shall, to the extent not prohibited by applicable law, promptly and timely notify the Company of such request, provide a description of same, and, if applicable, fax, or hand deliver a copy of same to the Company. To the extent not prohibited by applicable law, the Company shall have the right to act in place of Executive to perform any act to defend and protect against any disclosure of Confidential Information. The Executive shall comply with all lawful requests of the Company regarding such requested disclosure. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section, nothing in this Section shall require Executive to spend money, incur any liabilities, or forego any benefits.

4.7 Customer/Vendor & Third-Party Confidential Information. During the Employment Period, Executive shall not possess, retain, withhold, take, use, or disclose, or introduce to the Company or any Affiliates any confidential or proprietary information of any Customer/Vendor or other third party Person, unless lawfully authorized to do so, for the Company's benefit within the course and scope of Executive's employment, and consistent with the Company's agreement(s), if any, with such Customer/Vendor or other third party.

4.8 Acknowledgements. Executive acknowledges that: (a) Confidential Information is of great value and utility to the Company and Affiliates, and contributes substantially to their reputation, sales and profits; (b) the Company and Affiliates have invested, and continue to invest, considerable amounts of time and money in the development, acquisition, or use of Confidential Information; (c) the Company and Affiliates take reasonable measures to protect and maintain the confidentiality of Confidential Information; (d) the Confidential Information includes information about the Company and Affiliates that is not publicly known; and (e) the Company and Affiliates will be entitled to injunctive or other equitable relief as a remedy for any breach of Executive's confidentiality covenants under Section 4, which relief will be in addition to all other relief, at law and equity, available to the Company and Affiliates.

5. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY.

5.1 Assignment and Waiver. The Executive: (a) irrevocably grants, transfers and assigns to the Company, as its sole property, all right, title and interest to all Inventions and Work for Hire, including all Intellectual Property Rights thereto; and (b) forever waives any and all right, title and interest to all Inventions and Work for Hire, including all Intellectual Property Rights thereto. To the extent that any right, title and interest in and to Inventions or Work for Hire, including any Intellectual Property Rights thereto, cannot be assigned by Executive to the Company, Executive hereby grants to the Company an exclusive, perpetual, royalty-free, transferable, irrevocable, worldwide license (with rights to sublicense through multiple tiers of sublicensees) to make, have made, use, sell, offer for sale, import, export, reproduce, practice and otherwise commercialize such rights, title and interest. UNLESS OTHERWISE DESIGNATED BY THE EXECUTIVE IN A WRITING ATTACHED TO THIS AGREEMENT, NO

WORK PRODUCT OR WORK FOR HIRE EXISTS THAT THE EXECUTIVE CLAIMS TO BE EXCLUDED FROM ASSIGNMENT UNDER THIS SECTION.

5.2 Disclosure and Assistance. Both during the Employment Period and after the Termination Date, Executive shall promptly disclose all Inventions to the Company in writing and perform all actions reasonably requested by the Company or any Affiliates (including the execution of documents and the provision of information) to establish or protect the right, title and interest of the Company or any Affiliates to Inventions, and Work for Hire, including all Intellectual Property Rights thereto (both in the United States and in foreign countries). In the event that the Company or any Affiliates are unable for any reason to secure Executive's signature to any document required to file, prosecute, register, or memorialize the assignment of any Intellectual Property Rights or to enforce any Intellectual Property Rights in Inventions or Work for Hire, Executive hereby designates and appoints the Company and each of its nominees and duly authorized agents as Executive's agents and attorneys-in-fact to act for and on Executive's behalf and to act in place of Executive to perform any act (including without limitation, the execution of documents on Executive's behalf) to (a) execute, file, prosecute, register and memorialize the assignment of any such application; and (b) otherwise defend and protect the right, title, and interest of the Company and Affiliates to Intellectual Property Rights in Inventions and Work for Hire. After the Employment Period, from time to time at the request and expense of the Company, Executive shall assist the Company: (i) in the protection of the Company's and Affiliates' worldwide right, title and interest in and to Inventions and Work for Hire, including all Intellectual Property Rights thereto (subject to the payment for services at a rate mutually agreeable to Executive and the Company in accordance with the particular services provided, and provided that such assistance does not unreasonably disrupt Executive's obligation to Executive's then-current employer or other service recipient), and (ii) the execution of all assignment documents requested by the Company or its nominee and the execution of all lawful oaths and applications for patents and registration of copyrights in the United States and foreign countries. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section, nothing in this Section shall require Executive to spend money, incur any liabilities, or forego any benefits.

5.3 Definitions.

(a) "Intellectual Property Rights" means any: (i) patents, utility models or statutory invention registrations, industrial models and designs in the inventor's own name, including all reissuances, continuations, continuations-in-part, divisions, supplementary protection certificates, extensions and re-examinations thereof; (ii) trademarks, service marks, trade names, logos, domain names, corporate names and trade dress, and any rights similar thereto for any indicia of source, including the goodwill associated therewith; (iii) works of authorship in all forms and media, whether now known or hereafter invented, including copyrights and mask works; (iv) trade secrets and other proprietary information or know-how, and any and all other rights to prohibit disclosure; (v) rights to institute and prosecute all suits and proceedings and take all actions that the Company may deem necessary or proper, to collect, assert, or enforce any claim, right, or title of any kind, including the right to sue for past, present, and infringement and misappropriation; (vi) rights to claim authorship, attribution or ownership of any of the foregoing, to object or prevent the modification of any of the foregoing, to withdraw any of the foregoing from circulation, to control the publication or distribution of any of the foregoing, and any similar right, existing under judicial or statutory law of any country, or under any treaty, regardless of whether or not such right is denominated or generally referred to as a "moral right"; (vii) all other intellectual and industrial property rights (of every kind and nature throughout the universe and however designated), whether arising by operation of law, contract, license, or otherwise; and (viii) any and all registrations or applications hereof now or hereafter in force (including any and all rights in any of the foregoing).

(b) "Inventions" means all Work Product that is directly or indirectly authored, conceived, created, developed, discovered, made, reduced to practice, or written, by Executive, during the Employment Period whether in oral, written, tangible, or intangible form: (i) alone or with others in the course of Executive's employment or engagement for or with the Company or any Affiliates (including services to the Company or any Affiliates prior to the Effective Date); (ii) using any amount of the Company's or any Affiliates' time, or using any equipment, supplies, facilities, assets, information (including Confidential Information), or resources of the Company or any Affiliates; or (iii) relating to or resulting from the Company or any Affiliates' actual or planned business, products, services or research and development.

(c) "Work for Hire" means all Inventions created or developed by Executive during the Employment Period that are protectable under copyright law, including without limitation works of authorship, computer software, and related works.

(d) "Work Product" means all patents and patent applications, as well as all algorithms, applications, analyses and reports, branding and service marks, computer programs, code, concepts, copyrights and copyrightable works, creative works, deliverables, designs, developments, discoveries, drawings, enhancements, formulations, hardware, ideas, improvements, innovations, inventions (including without limitation all types of technical, artistic or commercial creative work), know-how, mask works, methods, modifications, notes, processes and data, records, software, source and object codes, techniques, trademarks, trade secrets and confidential information, test cases, test data sets, test plans, test scripts, works of authorship, all other forms of intellectual property, and all similar or related information (in each case whether patentable or not, and whether registerable or not under copyright or similar law).

6. RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS.

6.1 Consideration. The Company shall provide Executive access to Confidential Information for use only during the Employment Period, and Executive acknowledges and agrees that the Company and Affiliates will be entrusting Executive, in Executive's unique and special capacity, with developing the goodwill of the Company and Affiliates, and in consideration of the Company having provided and continuing to provide Executive with access to Confidential Information and as an express incentive for the Company to enter into this Agreement and employ Executive, Executive has agreed to the covenants set forth in Section 6. Executive further agrees and acknowledges that the limitations and restrictions set forth herein are reasonable in all respects and not oppressive, will not cause Executive undue hardship, and are material and substantial parts of this Agreement intended and necessary to prevent unfair competition and to protect the Company's and Affiliates' Confidential Information, goodwill and substantial and legitimate business interests.

6.2 Non-Competition. During the Restricted Period, Executive shall not, in any Capacity, directly or indirectly: (a) be affiliated with or perform services for any Competing Business; (b) own an interest in or control any Competing Business, provided, however, that nothing herein shall prohibit Executive from holding or being beneficially interested in less than 1% of the outstanding equity securities of any publicly reporting company; (c) plan or participate in planning a Competing Business; or (c) interfere with or disrupt, or attempt to interfere with or disrupt, any business relationship, contractual or otherwise, between the Company or any Affiliates, and any other Person, including Customer/Vendors, agents or employees.

6.3 Customer/Vendor Non-Solicitation. During the Restricted Period, Executive will not directly or indirectly, in any Capacity, solicit, encourage, induce, or attempt to induce, any Customer/Vendor (regardless of whether Executive initiates contact for such purposes) to: (a) do business with a Competing Business; or (b) reduce, cease, restrict, terminate, or otherwise adversely alter business or business relationships with the Company or any Affiliate.

6.4 Employee/Contractor Non-Solicitation and No-Hire. During the Restricted Period, Executive will not directly or indirectly, in any Capacity: (a) attempt to or actually solicit any employee or independent contractor of the Company or any Affiliates, to work or provide services to a Person other than the Company or any Affiliates, regardless of whether Executive initiates contact for such purposes; or (b) employ or establish an independent contractor relationship with any Person who is or was an employee or independent contractor of the Company or any Affiliates at any time during the Reference Period; provided, however, such restriction on establishing an independent contractor relationship with a Person who is or was an independent contractor at the Company or its Affiliates shall only apply to the extent Executive's engagement of such independent contractor diminishes that independent contractor's ability to provide services to the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the publication of advertisements in publications and websites of general availability or circulation shall not be a breach of this Section.

6.5 Return of Company Property. As of the Termination Date, Executive shall return all Company Property within Executive's possession, custody, or control, to the Company, at the Company address stated on the signature page below. The Executive shall not directly or indirectly retain or take any Company Property in any form or fashion upon employment termination. In the event that Executive becomes aware that Executive still has possession, custody or control of any Company Property at any time following Executive's return of same as provided in the preceding sentence, Executive will promptly deliver same to the Company.

6.6 Definitions.

(a) "Capacity" means, on Executive's own behalf or on behalf of any other Person, owning, investing or otherwise taking a financial interest in, managing, operating, controlling, being employed by, being associated or affiliated with, providing services as an employee, consultant, or independent contractor to, or participating in the ownership, management, operation or control of; provided, however, that this definition does not preclude ownership of less than 1% of the outstanding equity securities of any publicly reporting company.

(b) "Company Property" means all materials and documents, all documents, files (including electronically stored information) and other materials constituting or reflecting Confidential Information, all badges, computers, credit cards, entry cards, equipment, flash drives, thumb drives, external devices, identification cards, keys, mobile phones, time cards, vehicles, uniforms, or other tangible items or equipment, and all hardcopy or computer-based documents, audio recordings, books, data files, disks, records, videos, software, and all other documents, files, and records, whether originals or copies, belonging or pertaining to the Company or any Affiliates, or containing their information, in whatever format or media, whether obtained directly or indirectly from the Company or any Affiliates, and with or without their knowledge or consent, including Executive's computer device(s), with all Company and Affiliate information on such computer device(s) intact.

(c) "Competing Business" means persons and entities in the Business, including businesses that supply, manufacture, produce, design, sell and/or market, as applicable, products and/or services that are the same or substantially similar to the products and/or services that the Company or any Affiliate supplied, manufactured, produced, designed, sold and/or marketed during the Reference Period, including, but not limited to, "buy here-pay here" automotive dealerships and lenders. Subject to the foregoing definition, the term "Competing Business" includes, but is not limited to, (i) the following entities and their Affiliates: Adir International, LLC dba Curacao; Capital One Holdings; DriveTime Automotive Group, Inc; Oportun (formerly Progreso Financiero); Westlake Financial; Carvana Co.; Carmax Inc., CarGurus, Inc.; Vroom, Inc. and (ii) the Persons (or their subsidiaries or divisions, as applicable), if any, designated in a writing (as may be amended from time to time) by the Board, as Competing Businesses subject to this Agreement, with notice of same provided to Executive at the Company's discretion, including on or after the Termination Date. The term "Competing Business" does not include: (i) wholesale new and/or used car dealers not engaged in retail sales, or (ii) new car dealers. Subject to the foregoing definition, the term Competing Business also includes the Persons (or their subsidiaries or divisions, as applicable), if any, designated in a writing (as may be amended from time to time) by the Board, as Competing Businesses subject to this Agreement, with notice of same provided to Executive on or after the Termination Date.

(d) "Customer/Vendor" means any Person in a business, customer, vendor, licensee, and/or licensor relationship, or proposed (in writing) business, customer, vendor, licensee, and/or licensor relationship, with the Company or its Affiliates: (i) for which Executive, or any employees working under Executive's direct or indirect supervision, had responsibility during the Reference Period; or (ii) about which Executive learned Confidential Information as a result of employment with the Company or its Affiliates. Subject to the foregoing definition, the term Customer/Vendor includes the Persons (or their subsidiaries or divisions, as applicable), if any, designated in a writing (as may be amended from time to time) by the Board, as Customers/Vendors subject to this Agreement, with notice of same provided to Executive at the Company's discretion, including on or after the Termination Date.

(e) "Reference Period" means the lesser of (i) the Employment Period, or (ii) the eighteen (18) months prior to the Termination Date.

(f) "Restricted Period" means the period that Executive is employed or engaged by the Company and any Affiliates and continuing for the period that ends on the date that is twenty-four (24) months after the Termination Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Restricted Period will be extended by one day for each day that Executive is determined to be in violation of any restrictive covenant stated in Section 6, as determined by a court or arbitrator of competent jurisdiction.

6.7 Acknowledgements. The Executive acknowledges and stipulates that (a) Executive's experiences and capabilities are such that Executive can seek gainful employment after the Termination Date without violating this Agreement; (b) that the restrictive covenants set forth in this Agreement will continue in force even in the event of change in Executive's job title, position, duties, compensation, or benefits, unless the Parties sign a new agreement to replace this Agreement; (c) during the Employment Period, Executive shall become familiar with Confidential Information; (d) Confidential Information is of special, unique and extraordinary value to the Company and Affiliates; and (e) the scope of Section 6 (including without limitation, Sections 6.3 and 6.4), is reasonable in all respects and necessary to protect the goodwill and Confidential Information of the Company and its Affiliates, in light of (i) Executive's level of control over and contact with the Business conducted by the Company and Affiliates in all jurisdictions in which it is conducted, and (ii) the good and valuable consideration for this Agreement, including, Executive's access to the Company's business relationships, Confidential Information and good will. It is the desire and intent of the Parties that the provisions of Section 6 herein be enforced to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law, whether now or hereafter in effect. TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, THE PARTIES HEREBY WAIVE ANY PROVISION OF APPLICABLE LAW THAT WOULD RENDER ANY PROVISION OF SECTION 6 HEREIN INVALID OR UNENFORCEABLE.

7. DUTY OF LOYALTY.

Executive acknowledges and agrees that Executive owes a fiduciary duty of loyalty to the Company, including the common law duties of reasonable care, loyalty, and honesty which arise out of the Parties' relationship. In keeping with this duty, Executive shall (a) make full disclosure to the Company of all business opportunities pertaining to the Company's business; and (b) not appropriate for Executive's own benefit, business opportunities pertaining to the Company's business, unless the Parties otherwise agree in advance in writing.

8. EXECUTIVE WARRANTIES. EXECUTIVE HEREBY WARRANTS AND REPRESENTS TO THE COMPANY AS FOLLOWS:

8.1 No Conflict or Breach. Executive expressly represents that Executive's execution and performance of this Agreement does not and will not conflict with, violate, or cause a default under any lawful obligation by which Executive is bound.

8.2 Agreement Disclosure. Executive has provided the Company with a true and correct copy of all currently enforceable employment or contractor agreements to which Executive is a party, and that as of the Effective Date, Executive has not violated any provisions of any such agreements. The Executive further represents that Executive is not the subject of, or a party to, any non-competition covenant, nondisclosure agreement, or any other agreement, obligation, restriction, or understanding that would prohibit Executive from executing this Agreement or fully performing each of Executive's duties and responsibilities hereunder, or would in any manner, directly or indirectly, limit or affect any of the duties and responsibilities that may now or in the future be assigned to Executive by the Company or any Affiliates.

8.3 Prior Employer Information. Executive acknowledges the Company's policy and practice to respect the information and property rights of others. Executive does not have possession, custody, or control of any confidential, proprietary or trade secret information of any former employer or third party. The Executive shall not use or disclose Executive's knowledge of any confidential, proprietary or trade secret information of any former employer, if any, for the benefit of the Company or any Affiliates.

8.4 UNDERSTANDING. EXECUTIVE HAS READ THIS AGREEMENT BEFORE SIGNING IT, HAS CONSULTED AND BEEN ADVISED BY COUNSEL ABOUT IT OR HAS HAD AMPLE OPPORTUNITY TO DO SO; AND FULLY UNDERSTANDS ITS PURPOSES, TERMS, AND PROVISIONS, WHICH THE EXECUTIVE HEREBY EXPRESSLY ACKNOWLEDGES TO BE REASONABLE IN ALL RESPECTS.

9. DISPUTE RESOLUTION.

9.1 Remedies. Executive authorizes the Company to notify Executive's prospective or future employers of the terms of Sections 4 through 7 of this Agreement. The terms of this Agreement are without prejudice to the Company's and any Affiliates' rights, causes of action and remedies at law and equity. The Executive acknowledges that any breach by Executive of any restrictive covenants stated in Sections 4 through 7 will constitute immediate and irreparable harm to the Company for which damages alone are an inadequate remedy, and will entitle the Company to stop all payments under this Agreement, and to seek all appropriate legal and equitable relief, including injunctive relief and specific performance, without the necessity of posting bond or other security. Such remedies shall be in addition to all other remedies available, at law and equity, to the Company and Affiliates.

9.2 Waiver of Jury Trial. THE PARTIES EACH UNCONDITIONALLY AND IRREVOCABLY WAIVE THE RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY WITH REGARD TO ALL DISPUTES. The Parties acknowledge that: (a) they are waiving the right to trial by jury; (b) they have each knowingly entered into this waiver of trial by jury and the agreement to arbitrate below; and (c) this Agreement shall evidence the Parties' waiver of jury trial.

9.3 BINDING ARBITRATION. SUBJECT TO THE TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT, ALL DISPUTES SHALL BE RESOLVED EXCLUSIVELY THROUGH CONFIDENTIAL BINDING ARBITRATION. The Executive's agreement to be bound by the arbitration provisions of this Agreement is a material condition of this Agreement. The consideration for this Agreement includes the Parties' mutual agreement to arbitrate their Disputes. Section 9.3 shall be construed under the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq., as amended.

(a) Arbitration Procedures and Notice. The arbitration shall be administered by JAMS in accordance with its then-current applicable Comprehensive Arbitration Rules & Procedures and adjudicated by a single local arbitrator located in the Agreed Venue. If for any reason JAMS cannot serve as the arbitration administrator in the Agreed Venue, then the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") shall serve as arbitration administrator under all applicable terms of this Agreement. Either Party may initiate arbitration of any Dispute under this Agreement by giving written notice to the other of the commencement of arbitration proceedings, per applicable JAMS rules. Disputes must be asserted in the Parties' individual capacities only, and not as class members, class proceedings or otherwise on a class basis. The Executive may, but is not required to, have the representation of counsel in arbitration. The arbitrator may order the Parties to participate in non-binding, confidential mediation prior to any arbitration hearing.

(b) Discovery and Case Management. The arbitrator shall allow at least eighteen (18) hours of deposition testimony (excluding breaks) and reasonable, limited interrogatories and document requests, per side, in addition to reasonably necessary third-party discovery, well in advance of any dispositive motions or final arbitration hearing. The arbitrator shall provide for the exchange of witness lists and exhibit copies, conduct at least one arbitration management conference, and may consider dispositive motions. Dispositive motions shall be allowed and shall be resolved well in advance of any final arbitration hearing. The arbitrator shall manage all disputes on an individual basis and not on a class basis.

(c) Authority and Decision. The arbitrator shall have the authority to award the same damages and other relief that a court could award. The arbitrator shall issue a written, reasoned award explaining the decision and any damages awarded. The arbitrator's decision will be final and binding. The judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered and enforced in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(d) Injunctive Relief. Either of the Parties may seek injunctive relief in arbitration; provided, however, that as an exception to the arbitration agreement set forth herein, the Company shall have the right to initiate an action in any court of competent jurisdiction in order to request emergency relief for a breach or threatened breach by Executive of Sections 4, 5, 6, or 7. The exclusive venue of any such proceeding shall be the Agreed Venue. Evidence produced in any such proceeding may be used in arbitration as well. The remainder of any such Dispute (beyond the application for emergency relief) shall be subject to arbitration under Section 9.3.

(e) Fees and Costs. The fees charged by the arbitration administrator and the individual arbitrator shall be borne by the Parties according to JAMS Rules. Otherwise, the Parties shall each bear their own costs, expenses, and attorneys' fees incurred in arbitration. Within the arbitrator's discretion, the Party that prevails in arbitration may recover its arbitration expenses, its portion of the fees and costs charged by the arbitration administrator, the fees of the arbitrator, or its reasonable attorney's fees and expenses, as applicable, regardless of which Party made the initial complaint.

(f) Confidentiality. Both during and after the arbitration process provided for herein, all information and discovery disclosed in the arbitration process ("Arbitration Information") shall be maintained in confidence by the Parties and their counsel. Arbitration Information may be used, possessed, and disclosed only for the purposes of arbitration and related proceedings pursuant to this Agreement, and for no other purpose whatsoever. The arbitrator shall, upon request, issue prescriptive orders as may be required to enforce and maintain this covenant of confidentiality during the course of arbitration-related proceedings and after the conclusion of the arbitration.

9.4 Definition. "Disputes" means any controversies or claims (including all claims pursuant to common law, statute, regulation, or ordinance) between Executive on the one hand and the Company or any Affiliates on the other hand, including any controversies or claims arising from or relating to: (a) this Agreement or the subject matter of this Agreement; (b) any other agreement between the Parties, whether now extant or later agreed; (c) Executive's services hereunder, or termination of same by either Party for any reason and by any means; (d) the Parties' relationship; or (e) the scope of this arbitration agreement. The following claims are excluded from binding arbitration under this Agreement: claims for replevin; claims arising under the National Labor Relations Act, 29 U.S.C. §§ 151-169, including but not limited to, 29 U.S.C. § 157; and claims for which a binding arbitration agreement is invalid as a matter of law (including claims of sexual harassment).

9.5 Settlement of Existing Rights. All Confidential Information, Intellectual Property, or good will, known to Executive from any past employment with the Company or its Affiliates is the exclusive property of the Company or its Affiliates and is subject to the applicable provisions of this Agreement. All Company and Affiliate information or tangible property other than Confidential Information shall remain the property of the Company or its Affiliates as applicable.

9.6 Applicable Law; Consent to Venue. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed exclusively in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas without regard to the conflict of laws principles that would result in the application of the laws of another jurisdiction, except where preempted by federal law. THE PARTIES CONSENT, STIPULATE AND AGREE THAT THE EXCLUSIVE VENUE OF ANY DISPUTE SHALL BE DALLAS, TEXAS (the "Agreed Venue").

9.7 Attorneys' Fees and Costs. In the event of a lawsuit for relief relating to any breach of this Agreement, the prevailing Party shall be entitled to recover its reasonable attorneys' fees, costs of court, and other expenses of litigation, in addition to any other remedy.

9.8 Interpretation. Unless the context requires otherwise, all references herein to an agreement, instrument or other document shall be deemed to refer to such agreement, instrument or other document as amended, supplemented, modified and restated from time to time to the extent permitted by the provisions thereof. In the interpretation of this Agreement, except where the context otherwise requires, (a) "including" or "include" does not denote or imply any limitation; (b) "or" has the inclusive meaning "and/or;" (c) "dollars" or "$" refers to United States dollars; (d) the singular includes the plural, and vice versa, and each gender includes the other gender and the neuter, and the neuter includes each gender; (e) captions or headings are only for reference and are not to be considered in interpreting this Agreement; (f) use of "herein," "hereof," "hereby," "hereunder" and similar terms refer to this entire Agreement, including all Exhibits attached hereto, and not to any particular provision hereof, unless otherwise specifically indicated; (g) "indirect," in reference to Executive's actions, includes without limitation, any act by Executive's spouse, ancestor, lineal descendant, lineal descendant's spouse, sibling, or other member of Executive's family; and (h) "Section," in reference to any part of this Agreement, includes the subparts of the referenced Section, unless otherwise specifically indicated. Should a provision of this Agreement require judicial or arbitral interpretation, the judicial or arbitral authority interpreting or construing the Agreement will not apply the assumption that the terms hereof will be more strictly construed against one Party by reason of the rule of construction that an instrument is to be construed more strictly against the Party which itself or through its agents prepared this Agreement, it being agreed that both Parties or their attorneys and other agents have participated in the preparation of this Agreement equally.

9.9 Parties in Interest. This Agreement is made solely for the benefit of Executive and the Company; provided, however, that Affiliates that are not a signatory to this Agreement shall be third-party beneficiaries of the terms of this Agreement as applicable.

10. CODE SECTION 409A.

Although the Company does not guarantee the tax treatment of any payment hereunder, the intent of the Parties is that no payment or benefits provided under this Agreement become subject to (a) the gross income inclusion set forth within Section 409A(a)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") or (b) the interest and additional tax set forth within Section 409A(a)(1)(B) of the Code (collectively, "Section 409A Penalties"), and accordingly, to the maximum extent permitted, this Agreement shall be interpreted and construed in a manner consistent therewith, including, where appropriate, the construction of defined terms to have meanings that would not cause the imposition of Section 409A Penalties. In no event shall the Company be liable for any Section 409A Penalties that may be imposed on Executive under or by reason of Section 409A of the Code. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, the severance payments payable to Executive pursuant to this Agreement shall be made in reliance upon Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-1(b)(9)(iii) (relating to separation pay plans) or Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-1(b)(4) (relating to short-term deferrals). However, with respect to any amounts payable to Executive under this Agreement in connection with a termination of Executive's employment that would be considered "non-qualified deferred compensation" under Section 409A of the Code, in no event shall a termination of employment be considered for purposes of the time of payment of such amounts to have occurred under this Agreement unless such termination constitutes Executive's "Separation from Service" with the Company as such term is defined in Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-1(h), and any successor provision thereto. In addition, if Executive is deemed at the time of Executive's Separation from Service to be a "specified Employee" for purposes of Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code, then to the extent delayed commencement of any portion of the benefits to which Executive is entitled under this Agreement is required in order to avoid a prohibited payment under Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code, such portion of Executive's termination benefits shall not be provided to Executive prior to the earlier of (i) the expiration of the six-month period measured from the date of Executive's Separation from Service or (ii) the date of Executive's death. Upon the earlier of such dates, all payments deferred pursuant to this Section shall be paid in a lump sum to Executive (or Executive's estate). The determination of whether Executive is a "specified employee" for purposes of Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code as of the time of Executive's Separation from Service shall be made by the Company in accordance with the terms of Section 409A of the Code, and applicable guidance thereunder (including without limitation Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-1(i) and any successor provision thereto). For purposes of Section 409A of the Code (including, without limitation, for purposes of Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-2(b)(2)(iii)), each payment that Executive may be eligible to receive under this Agreement shall be treated as a separate and distinct payment and shall not collectively be treated as a single payment. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or in any Company policy with respect to such payments, in-kind benefits and reimbursements provided under this Agreement during any tax year of Executive shall not affect in-kind benefits or reimbursements to be provided in any other tax year of Executive and are not subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, reimbursement requests must be timely submitted by Executive and, if timely submitted, reimbursement payments shall be made to Executive as soon as administratively practicable following such submission in accordance with the Company's policies regarding reimbursements, but in no event later than the last day of Executive's taxable year following the taxable year in which the expense was incurred. The foregoing provisions relating to in-kind benefits and reimbursements shall only apply to in-kind benefits and reimbursements that would result in taxable compensation income to Executive.

11. GENERAL.

11.1 Notices. All notices and other communications under this Agreement must be in writing and may be effected by hand delivery, overnight delivery, mail (registered or certified, postage prepaid with return receipt requested), or by email with electronic request for delivery receipt. Notices delivered by hand and by overnight mail shall be deemed to be received as of actual receipt, per delivery records. Emails shall be deemed delivered upon confirmation by electronic delivery receipt. Mailed notices shall be deemed to be received as of five (5) days after mailing, with proof of mailing. Notices shall be sent to the Parties at their respective addresses on the signature page below (or to such other addresses as a Party may specify by notice to the other Parties per the terms of this Section).

11.2 Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall benefit, bind and be enforceable by the respective heirs, successors (including, without limitation, any successor as a result of a merger or similar reorganization) and assigns of the Parties, except that Executive's rights, benefits, and duties hereunder are personal in nature and shall not be assignable by Executive.

11.3 Amendment and Waiver. No term or condition of this Agreement may be deemed waived other than by a writing signed by the Party against whom the waiver is sought. The failure to assert rights under any provision of this Agreement is not a waiver of such rights. Any written waiver shall operate only as to the specific term or condition waived and only in that instance. No amendment or modification of this Agreement is effective unless stated in a writing signed by the Parties.

11.4 Severability and Reformation. Except as otherwise provided herein, the terms of Agreement are independent of and severable from one another. If any provision of this Agreement (or part thereof) is adjudicated to be invalid or unenforceable, then: (a) the adjudicating authority is hereby requested to modify or interpret such provision (or part thereof) to render it valid and enforceable and as like the original provision as possible; (b) if for any reason such provision (or part thereof) cannot be so modified or interpreted, then this Agreement will be construed and enforced as if such provision (or part thereof) has been severed herefrom; (c) such invalidity or unenforceability will not take effect in any other jurisdiction absent a separate adjudication to that effect; and (d) the remainder of this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect.

11.5 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, including its addenda if any, embodies the complete agreement and understanding between the Parties and as of the Effective Date, supersedes any prior agreements or understandings between the Parties, written or oral, regarding the subject matter herein, all of which are hereby void and otherwise released, except for employee insurance, benefit, and retirement plans, and the Parties' separate Management Incentive Unit Agreement, Note, and Side Letter.

11.6 NO RELIANCE. NO PARTY IS RELYING ON ANY REPRESENTATION OR STATEMENT OF THE OTHER PARTY OUTSIDE OF THE TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT; THE PARTIES HAVE ENTERED INTO THIS AGREEMENT BASED EACH ON THEIR OWN INDEPENDENT JUDGMENT.

11.7 Counterparts; Fax Signatures. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which will be deemed to be an original, but all of which together will constitute the same Agreement. Any signature page of any such counterpart, or any electronic facsimile thereof, may be attached or appended to any other counterpart to complete a fully executed counterpart of this Agreement, and any telecopy or other facsimile transmission of any signature will be deemed an original and will bind such Party.

11.8 Headings. The titles, captions, and headings contained in this Agreement are inserted for convenience of reference only and are not intended to be a part of or to affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

11.9 Survival. The terms of this Agreement, to the extent that they apply post-employment, shall survive the termination of this Agreement (regardless of the basis for termination), and remain in full force and effect based on the terms as stated.

11.10 Definitions. All definitions stated herein are for the purposes of this Agreement, and its addenda and exhibits, if any, and are not limited in purpose to the section or paragraph in which the definition is stated.

NOTICES – PLEASE READ CAREFULLY BEFORE SIGNING BELOW:

CERTAIN TERMS: THIS AGREEMENT INCLUDES RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS, BINDING ARBITRATION, AND A WAIVER OF TRIAL BY JURY.

UNFAIR COMPETITION: APPLICABLE LAW PROHIBITS EMPLOYEE'S POST-EMPLOYMENT COMPETITION BY UNLAWFUL MEANS, SUCH AS MISAPPROPRIATION OF TRADE SECRETS, TORTIOUS INTERFERENCE WITH BUSINESS RELATIONSHIPS, BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY, OR VIOLATION OF APPLICABLE COMPETITION LAW. THIS NOTICE APPLIES TO EMPLOYEE'S PROVIDING SERVICES FOR COMPETING BUSINESSES AS DEFINED HEREIN.

RIGHTS OF TRADE SECRET USE & DISCLOSURE: AN INDIVIDUAL SHALL NOT BE HELD CRIMINALLY OR CIVILLY LIABLE UNDER ANY FEDERAL OR STATE TRADE SECRET LAW FOR THE DISCLOSURE OF A TRADE SECRET THAT — (A) IS MADE (I) IN CONFIDENCE TO A FEDERAL, STATE, OR LOCAL GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL, EITHER DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY, OR TO AN ATTORNEY; AND (II) SOLELY FOR THE PURPOSE OF REPORTING OR INVESTIGATING A SUSPECTED VIOLATION OF LAW; OR (B) IS MADE IN A COMPLAINT OR OTHER DOCUMENT FILED IN A LAWSUIT OR OTHER PROCEEDING, IF SUCH FILING IS MADE UNDER SEAL. AN INDIVIDUAL WHO FILES A LAWSUIT FOR RETALIATION FOR REPORTING A SUSPECTED VIOLATION OF LAW MAY DISCLOSE TRADE SECRET INFORMATION TO THE ATTORNEY OF THE INDIVIDUAL AND USE THE TRADE SECRET INFORMATION IN THE COURT PROCEEDING, IF THE INDIVIDUAL — (X) FILES ANY DOCUMENT CONTAINING THE TRADE SECRET UNDER SEAL; AND (Y) DOES NOT DISCLOSE THE TRADE SECRET INFORMATION, EXCEPT PURSUANT TO COURT ORDER.

REPORTING LEGAL VIOLATIONS: NOTHING IN THIS AGREEMENT PROHIBITS EITHER PARTY FROM REPORTING POSSIBLE VIOLATIONS OF FEDERAL LAW OR REGULATIONS TO ANY GOVERNMENTAL AGENCY OR ENTITY, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, THE SEC, THE CONGRESS, AND ANY AGENCY INSPECTOR GENERAL, OR FROM MAKING OTHER DISCLOSURES THAT ARE PROTECTED UNDER THE WHISTLEBLOWER PROVISIONS OF APPLICABLE LAW.

BY EXECUTION OF THIS AGREEMENT, THE EXECUTIVE ACKNOWLEDGES RECEIPT AND REVIEW OF THE ABOVE-WRITTEN NOTICES.

Compensation and Benefits Summary

The compensation and benefits to be provided by the Company to Executive pursuant to the foregoing Employment Agreement are as follows:

1. Base Salary. During the Employment Period, the Company will pay Executive a base salary at the annualized rate of $2,000,000.00 (the "Base Salary"), payable in regular installments in accordance with the Company's general payroll practices in effect from time to time, subject to all applicable deductions and withholdings. The Base Salary may be changed from time to time, as the Board deems appropriate in its sole discretion. Executive acknowledges that Executive's hours of work will vary, may be irregular, and will be those hours required to meet the objectives of Executive's employment. Executive agrees that the compensation described herein compensates Executive for all hours worked.

2. Annual Bonus. During the Employment Period, Executive will be eligible for a discretionary annual bonus (the "Annual Bonus") on a calendar year basis of up to 100% of the Base Salary, with discretion as to the specific amount, if any, resting solely with the Board. The target payment date of the Annual Bonus, if any, is no later than March 31st following the year in which such Annual Bonus is earned, if any. Payment of the Annual Bonus is expressly conditioned on Executive being currently employed with the Company on the payment date.

3. Equity. Subject to the terms of this Agreement and the Management Incentive Unit Agreement, the Company is granting to Executive certain Management Incentive Units (as defined in the Management Incentive Unit Agreement).

4. Expense Reimbursement. Executive will be eligible for reimbursement of Executive's reasonable costs and expenses incurred in connection with the performance of Executive's duties under this Agreement, in accordance with Company policies as in effect from time to time and any additional policies and procedures established by the Board. For all the costs and expenses, Executive shall provide to the Company proper receipts validating such costs and expenses, and any other information or materials as the Company or the Board may reasonably require. Executive understands and agrees that the Board's Audit Committee may review Executive's compliance with the Company's policies and request information from Executive to demonstrate such compliance.

5. Tax Withholding; Offsets. All compensation payable to Executive under this Agreement is stated in gross amounts and will be subject to all applicable tax withholding and other payroll deductions as allowed or required by law. Executive shall be liable for any tax liability incurred by Executive in connection with the MIUs and Membership Interest. THE EXECUTIVE AUTHORIZES THE COMPANY TO MAKE DEDUCTIONS FROM THE EXECUTIVE'S COMPENSATION, INCLUDING THE EXECUTIVE'S FINAL PAYCHECK, THAT ARE DEEMED NECESSARY BY THE COMPANY TO RECOVER FOR OVERPAYMENTS, LOANS, ADVANCES, OR IMPROPER EXPENSE PAYMENTS, PAID TO THE EXECUTIVE.

6. Benefit Plans. During the Employment Period, Executive will be eligible to participate in all employee benefit plans and programs and to receive all benefits for which similarly situated employees of the Company are eligible, subject to the terms of such plans and programs. Subject to applicable law, the Company in its sole discretion may change or amend Executive's benefits from time to time, without otherwise affecting this Agreement.

7. PTO. While employed by the Company, Executive will be entitled to paid time off ("PTO") each calendar year, to be accrued and taken in accordance with the Company's PTO policy as in effect from time to time, and as applicable to senior executives. Accumulation and payment of PTO leave benefits, and loss of unused PTO time, if any, shall be determined and governed in accordance with Company policy and procedure. PTO leave is provided in addition to Company holidays, as provided by Company policy.

8. Promissory Note. The Parties agree that the rights and obligations set forth in the Second Amended and Restated Promissory Note, dated April 16, 2025 (the "Note"), by and between Executive and the Company shall be governed by the terms and conditions of the Note. Compensation and benefits contemplated by this Agreement shall be wholly separate from and have no impact upon the amounts payable under the Note. The then-outstanding principal amount of the Note, along with any accrued and unpaid interest, may be forgiven in lieu of the payment described in that certain side letter by and between Daniel Chu and the Company, dated as of April 16, 2025 (the "Side Letter"), upon the occurrence of a Capital Event (as such term is defined in the Side Letter), as more particularly described in the Side Letter.

Great- thanks.

Also, please remember to send me the Seller's existing title policy. I already opened a filed with Chicago Title but they need base title to get the commitment out faster.

Additionally, I will need the Association's contact information so that I can order an estoppel certificate and inquire as to the process for obtaining the ROFR Waiver. Any help from you and/or Beatriz on this end is appreciated.

this Contract, the Closing shall occur on January 4, 2023, see addendum #1 ("Closing Date") at the time established by the Closing Agent.

5. EXTENSION OF CLOSING DATE:
   (a) In the event Closing funds from Buyer's lender(s) are not available on Closing Date due to Consumer Financial Protection Bureau Closing Disclosure delivery requirements ("CFPB Requirements"), if Paragraph 5(b) is checked, Loan Approval has been obtained, and lender's underwriting is complete, then Closing Date shall be extended for such period necessary to satisfy CFPB Requirements, provided such period shall not exceed 7 days.
   (b) If an event constituting "Force Majeure" causes services essential for Closing to be unavailable, including the unavailability of utilities or issuance of hazard, wind, flood or homeowners' insurance, Closing Date shall be extended as provided in STANDARD G.

6. OCCUPANCY AND POSSESSION:
   (a) Unless Paragraph 6(b) is checked, Seller shall, at Closing, deliver occupancy and possession of the Property to Buyer free of tenants, occupants and future tenancies. Also, at Closing, Seller shall have removed all personal items and trash from the Property and shall deliver all keys, garage door openers, access devices and codes, as applicable, to Buyer. If occupancy is to be delivered before Closing, Buyer assumes all risks of loss to the Property from date of occupancy, shall be responsible and liable for maintenance from that date, and shall have accepted the Property in its existing condition as of time of taking occupancy, see Rider T PRE-CLOSING OCCUPANCY BY BUYER.
   (b) ☐ CHECK IF PROPERTY IS SUBJECT TO LEASE(S) OR OCCUPANCY AFTER CLOSING. If Property is subject to a lease(s) or any portion is agreed to be occupied by third parties (including assigns and sublessees) after Closing, or is intended to be rented or occupied by third parties beyond Closing, the facts and terms thereof shall be disclosed in writing by Seller to Buyer and copies of the written lease(s) shall be delivered to Buyer, all within 5 days after Effective Date. If Buyer determines, in Buyer's sole discretion, that the lease(s) or terms of occupancy are not acceptable to Buyer, Buyer may terminate this Contract by delivery of written notice of such election to Seller within 5 days after receipt of the above items from Seller, and Buyer shall be refunded the Deposit thereby releasing Buyer and Seller from all further obligations under this Contract. Estoppel Letter(s) and Seller's affidavit shall be provided pursuant to STANDARD D, except that tenant Estoppel Letters shall not be required on seasonal or short-term vacation rentals. If Property is intended to be occupied by Seller after Closing, see Rider U POST-CLOSING OCCUPANCY BY SELLER.

7. ASSIGNABILITY: (CHECK ONE): Buyer ☐ may assign and thereby be released from any further liability under this Contract; ☒ may assign but not be released from liability under this Contract; or ☐ may not assign this Contract. IF NO BOX IS CHECKED, THEN BUYER MAY NOT ASSIGN THIS CONTRACT.

FINANCING

8. FINANCING:
   ☒ (a) This is a cash transaction with no financing contingency.

   ☐ (b) This Contract is contingent upon, within _____ (if left blank, then 30) days after Effective Date ("Loan Approval Period"): (1) Buyer obtaining approval of a ☐ conventional ☐ FHA ☐ VA or ☐ other _____ (describe) mortgage loan for purchase of the Property for a (CHECK ONE): ☐ fixed, ☐ adjustable, ☐ fixed or adjustable rate in the Loan Amount (See Paragraph 2(c)), at an initial interest rate not to exceed _____ % (if left blank, then prevailing rate based upon Buyer's creditworthiness), and for a term of _____ (if left blank, then 30) years ("Financing"), and (2) Buyer's mortgage broker or lender having received an appraisal or alternative valuation of the Property satisfactory to lender, if either is required by lender, which is sufficient to meet the terms required for lender to provide Financing for Buyer and proceed to Closing ("Appraisal").

   (i) Buyer shall make application for Financing within _____ (if left blank, then 5) days after Effective Date and use good faith and diligent effort to obtain approval of a loan meeting the Financing and Appraisal terms of Paragraph 8(b)(1) and (2), above, ("Loan Approval") within the Loan Approval Period and, thereafter, to close this Contract. Loan Approval which requires Buyer to sell other real property shall not be considered Loan Approval unless Rider V is attached.

   Buyer's failure to use good faith and diligent effort to obtain Loan Approval during the Loan Approval Period shall be considered a default under the terms of this Contract. For purposes of this provision, "diligent effort" includes, but is not limited to, timely furnishing all documents and information required by Buyer's mortgage broker and lender and paying for Appraisal and other fees and charges in connection with Buyer's application for Financing.

   (ii) Buyer shall, upon written request, keep Seller and Broker fully informed about the status of Buyer's mortgage loan application, loan processing, appraisal, and Loan Approval, including any Property related conditions of Loan Approval. Buyer authorizes Buyer's mortgage broker, lender, and Closing Agent to disclose such status and progress and release preliminary and timely executed closing disclosures and settlement statements, as appropriate and allowed, to Seller and Broker.

(iii) If within the Loan Approval Period, Buyer obtains Loan Approval, Buyer shall notify Seller of same in writing prior to expiration of the Loan Approval Period; or, if Buyer is unable to obtain Loan Approval within Loan Approval Period but Buyer is satisfied with Buyer's ability to obtain Loan Approval and proceed to Closing, Buyer shall deliver written notice to Seller confirming same, prior to the expiration of the Loan Approval Period.

(iv) If Buyer is unable to obtain Loan Approval within the Loan Approval Period, or cannot timely meet the terms of Loan Approval, all after the exercise of good faith and diligent effort, Buyer may terminate this Contract by delivering written notice of termination to Seller prior to expiration of the Loan Approval Period; whereupon, provided Buyer is not in default under the terms of this Contract, Buyer shall be refunded the Deposit thereby releasing Buyer and Seller from all further obligations under this Contract.

(v) If Buyer fails to timely deliver any written notice provided for in Paragraph 8(b)(iii) or (iv), above, to Seller prior to expiration of the Loan Approval Period, then Buyer shall proceed forward with this Contract as though Paragraph 8(a), above, had been checked as of the Effective Date; provided, however, Seller may elect to terminate this Contract by delivering written notice of termination to Buyer within 3 days after expiration of the Loan Approval Period and, provided Buyer is not in default under the terms of this Contract, Buyer shall be refunded the Deposit thereby releasing Buyer and Seller from all further obligations under this Contract.

(vi) If Buyer has timely provided either written notice provided for in Paragraph 8b(iii), above, and Buyer thereafter fails to close this Contract, the Deposit shall be paid to Seller unless failure to close is due to: (1) Seller's default or inability to satisfy other contingencies of this Contract; or (2) Property related conditions of the Loan Approval (specifically excluding the Appraisal valuation) have not been met (unless such conditions are waived by other provisions of this Contract), in which event(s) the Buyer shall be refunded the Deposit, thereby releasing Buyer and Seller from all further obligations under this Contract.

☐ (c) Assumption of existing mortgage (see Rider D for terms).

☐ (d) Purchase money note and mortgage to Seller (see Rider C for terms).

CLOSING COSTS, FEES AND CHARGES

9. CLOSING COSTS; TITLE INSURANCE; SURVEY; HOME WARRANTY; SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS.

(a) COSTS TO BE PAID BY SELLER:

- Documentary stamp taxes and surtax on deed, if any
- Owner's Policy and Charges (if Paragraph 9(c)(i) is checked)
- Title search charges (if Paragraph 9(c)(iii) is checked)
- Municipal lien search (if Paragraph 9(c)(i) or (iii) is checked)
- Charges for FIRPTA withholding and reporting
- HOA/Condominium Association estoppel fees
- Recording and other fees needed to cure title
- Seller's attorneys' fees
- Other: Brokers Commission

If, prior to Closing, Seller is unable to meet the AS IS Maintenance Requirement as required by Paragraph 11 a sum equal to 125% of estimated costs to meet the AS IS Maintenance Requirement shall be escrowed at Closing. If actual costs to meet the AS IS Maintenance Requirement exceed escrowed amount, Seller shall pay such actual costs. Any unused portion of escrowed amount(s) shall be returned to Seller.

(b) COSTS TO BE PAID BY BUYER:

- Taxes and recording fees on notes and mortgages
- Recording fees for deed and financing statements
- Owner's Policy and Charges (if Paragraph 9(c)(ii) is checked)
- Survey (and elevation certification, if required)
- Lender's title policy and endorsements
- HOA/Condominium Association application/transfer fees
- Municipal lien search (if Paragraph 9(c)(ii) is checked)
- Other: _____
- Loan expenses
- Appraisal fees
- Buyer's inspections
- Buyer's [illegible] fees
- [illegible] Insurance
- Owner's Policy Premium (if Paragraph 9 (c)(iii) is checked)

(c) TITLE EVIDENCE AND INSURANCE: At least _____ (if left blank, then 15, or if Paragraph 8(a) is checked, then 5) days prior to Closing Date ("Title Evidence Deadline"), a title insurance commitment issued by a Florida licensed title insurer, with legible copies of instruments listed as exceptions attached thereto ("Title Commitment") and, after Closing, an owner's policy of title insurance (see STANDARD A for terms) shall be obtained and delivered to Buyer. If Seller has an owner's policy of title insurance covering the Real Property, Seller shall furnish a copy to Buyer and Closing Agent within 5 days after Effective Date. The owner's title policy premium, title search and closing services (collectively, "Owner's Policy and Charges") shall be paid, as set forth below. The title insurance premium charges for the owner's policy and any lender's policy will be calculated and allocated in accordance with Florida law, but may be reported differently on certain federally mandated closing disclosures and other closing documents. For purposes of this Contract "municipal lien search" means a search of records necessary for the owner's policy of title insurance to be issued without exception for unrecorded liens imposed pursuant to Chapters 153, 159 or 170, F.S., in favor of any governmental body, authority or agency.

(CHECK ONE):

☐ (i) Seller shall designate Closing Agent and pay for Owner's Policy and Charges, and Buyer shall pay the premium for Buyer's lender's policy and charges for closing services related to the lender's policy, endorsements and loan closing, which amounts shall be paid by Buyer to Closing Agent or such other provider(s) as Buyer may select; or

☐ (ii) Buyer shall designate Closing Agent and pay for Owner's Policy and Charges and charges for closing services related to Buyer's lender's policy, endorsements and loan closing; or

☒ (iii) (MIAMI-DADE/BROWARD REGIONAL PROVISION): Buyer shall designate Closing Agent. Seller shall furnish a copy of a prior owner's policy of title insurance or other evidence of title and pay fees for: (A) a continuation or update of such title evidence, which is acceptable to Buyer's title insurance underwriter for reissue of coverage; (B) tax search; and (C) municipal lien search. Buyer shall obtain and pay for post-Closing continuation and premium for Buyer's owners' policy, and if applicable, Buyer's lender's policy. Seller shall not be obligated to pay more than $ _____ (if left blank, then $200.00) for abstract continuation or title search ordered or performed by Closing Agent.

(d) SURVEY: At least 5 days prior to Closing Date, Buyer may, at Buyer's expense, have the Real Property surveyed and certified by a registered Florida surveyor ("Survey"). If Seller has a survey covering the Real Property, a copy shall be furnished to Buyer and Closing Agent within 5 days after Effective Date.

(e) HOME WARRANTY: At Closing, ☐ Buyer ☐ Seller ☒ N/A shall pay for a home warranty plan issued by _____ at a cost not to exceed $ _____. A home warranty plan provides for repair or replacement of many of a home's mechanical systems and major built-in appliances in the event of breakdown due to normal wear and tear during the agreement's warranty period.

(f) SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS: At Closing, Seller shall pay: (i) the full amount of liens imposed by a public body ("public body" does not include a Condominium or Homeowner's Association) that are certified, confirmed and ratified before Closing; and (ii) the amount of the public body's most recent estimate or assessment for an improvement which is substantially complete as of Effective Date, but that has not resulted in a lien being imposed on the Property before Closing. Buyer shall pay all other assessments. If special assessments may be paid in installments (CHECK ONE):

☐ (a) Seller shall pay installments due prior to Closing and Buyer shall pay installments due after Closing. Installments prepaid or due for the year of Closing shall be prorated.

☒ (b) Seller shall pay, in full, prior to or at the time of Closing, any assessment(s) allowed by the public body to be prepaid. For any assessment(s) which the public body does not allow prepayment, OPTION (a) shall be deemed selected for such assessment(s).

IF NEITHER BOX IS CHECKED, THEN OPTION (a) SHALL BE DEEMED SELECTED.

This Paragraph 9(f) shall not apply to a special assessment lien imposed by a community development district (CDD) pursuant to Chapter 190, F.S., or special assessment(s) imposed by a special district pursuant to Chapter 189, F.S., which lien(s) or assessment(s) shall be prorated pursuant to STANDARD K.

DISCLOSURES

10. DISCLOSURES:

(a) RADON GAS: Radon is a naturally occurring radioactive gas that, when it is accumulated in a building in sufficient quantities, may present health risks to persons who are exposed to it over time. Levels of radon that exceed federal and state guidelines have been found in buildings in Florida. Additional information regarding radon and radon testing may be obtained from your county health department.

(b) PERMITS DISCLOSURE: Except as may have been disclosed by Seller to Buyer in a written disclosure, Seller does not know of any improvements made to the Property which were made without required permits or made pursuant to permits which have not been properly closed or otherwise disposed of pursuant to Section 553.79, F.S. If Seller identifies permits which have not been closed or improvements which were not permitted, then Seller shall promptly deliver to Buyer all plans, written documentation or other information in Seller's possession, knowledge, or control relating to improvements to the Property which are the subject of such open permits or unpermitted improvements.

(c) MOLD: Mold is naturally occurring and may cause health risks or damage to property. If Buyer is con[redacted] desires additional information regarding mold, Buyer should contact an appropriate professional.

(d) FLOOD ZONE; ELEVATION CERTIFICATION: Buyer is advised to verify by elevation certificate w[redacted] zone the Property is in, whether flood insurance is required by Buyer's lender, and what restrictions [redacted] improving the Property and rebuilding in the event of casualty. If Property is in a "Coastal Close Ha[redacted] or "Coastal Barrier Resources Act" designated area or otherwise protected area identified by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service under the Coastal Barrier Resources Act and the lowest floor elevation for the building(s) and/or flood insurance rating purposes is below minimum flood elevation or is ineligible for flood insurance coverage through the National Flood Insurance Program or private flood insurance as defined in 42 U.S.C. §4012a, Buyer may terminate this Contract by delivering written notice to Seller within _____ (if left blank, then 20) days after Effective Date, and Buyer shall be refunded the Deposit thereby releasing Buyer and Seller from all further obligations under this Contract, failing which Buyer accepts existing elevation of buildings and flood zone designation of Property.

(e) ENERGY BROCHURE: Buyer acknowledges receipt of Florida Energy-Efficiency Rating Information Brochure required by Section 553.996, F.S.

(f) LEAD-BASED PAINT: If Property includes pre-1978 residential housing, a lead-based paint disclosure is mandatory.

(g) HOMEOWNERS' ASSOCIATION/COMMUNITY DISCLOSURE: BUYER SHOULD NOT EXECUTE THIS CONTRACT UNTIL BUYER HAS RECEIVED AND READ THE HOMEOWNERS' ASSOCIATION/COMMUNITY DISCLOSURE, IF APPLICABLE.

(h) PROPERTY TAX DISCLOSURE SUMMARY: BUYER SHOULD NOT RELY ON THE SELLER'S CURRENT PROPERTY TAXES AS THE AMOUNT OF PROPERTY TAXES THAT THE BUYER MAY BE OBLIGATED TO PAY IN THE YEAR SUBSEQUENT TO PURCHASE. A CHANGE OF OWNERSHIP OR PROPERTY IMPROVEMENTS TRIGGERS REASSESSMENTS OF THE PROPERTY THAT COULD RESULT IN HIGHER PROPERTY TAXES. IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS CONCERNING VALUATION, CONTACT THE COUNTY PROPERTY APPRAISER'S OFFICE FOR INFORMATION.

(i) FOREIGN INVESTMENT IN REAL PROPERTY TAX ACT ("FIRPTA"): Seller shall inform Buyer in writing if Seller is a "foreign person" as defined by the Foreign Investment in Real Property Tax Act ("FIRPTA"). Buyer and Seller shall comply with FIRPTA, which may require Seller to provide additional cash at Closing. If Seller is not a "foreign person", Seller can provide Buyer, at or prior to Closing, a certification of non-foreign status, under penalties of perjury, to inform Buyer and Closing Agent that no withholding is required. See STANDARD V for further information pertaining to FIRPTA. Buyer and Seller are advised to seek legal counsel and tax advice regarding their respective rights, obligations, reporting and withholding requirements pursuant to FIRPTA.

(j) SELLER DISCLOSURE: Seller knows of no facts materially affecting the value of the Real Property which are not readily observable and which have not been disclosed to Buyer. Except as provided for in the preceding sentence, Seller extends and intends no warranty and makes no representation of any type, either express or implied, as to the physical condition or history of the Property. Except as otherwise disclosed in writing Seller has received no written or verbal notice from any governmental entity or agency as to a currently uncorrected building, environmental or safety code violation.

PROPERTY MAINTENANCE, CONDITION, INSPECTIONS AND EXAMINATIONS

11. PROPERTY MAINTENANCE: Except for ordinary wear and tear and Casualty Loss, Seller shall maintain the Property, including, but not limited to, lawn, shrubbery, and pool, in the condition existing as of Effective Date ("AS IS Maintenance Requirement"). See Paragraph 9(a) for escrow procedures, if applicable.

12. PROPERTY INSPECTION; RIGHT TO CANCEL:

(a) PROPERTY INSPECTIONS AND RIGHT TO CANCEL: Buyer shall have 15 (if left blank, then 15) days after Effective Date ("Inspection Period") within which to have such inspections of the Property performed as Buyer shall desire during the Inspection Period. If Buyer determines, in Buyer's sole discretion, that the Property is not acceptable to Buyer, Buyer may terminate this Contract by delivering written notice of such election to Seller prior to expiration of Inspection Period. If Buyer timely terminates this Contract, the Deposit paid shall be returned to Buyer, thereupon, Buyer and Seller shall be released of all further obligations under this Contract; however, Buyer shall be responsible for prompt payment for such inspections, for repair of damage to, and restoration of, the Property resulting from such inspections, and shall provide Seller with paid receipts for all work done on the Property (the preceding provision shall survive termination of this Contract). Unless Buyer exercises the right to terminate granted herein, Buyer accepts the physical condition of the Property and any violation of governmental, building, environmental, and safety codes, restrictions, or requirements, but subject to Seller's continuing AS IS Maintenance Requirement, and Buyer shall be responsible for any and all repairs and improvements required by Buyer's lender.

(b) WALK-THROUGH INSPECTION/RE-INSPECTION: On the day prior to Closing Date, or on Closing Date prior to time of Closing, as specified by Buyer, Buyer or Buyer's representative may perform a walk-through (and follow-up walk-through, if necessary) inspection of the Property solely to confirm that all items of Personal Property are on the Property and to verify that Seller has maintained the Property as required by the AS IS Maintenance Requirement and has met all other contractual obligations.

(c) SELLER ASSISTANCE AND COOPERATION IN CLOSE-OUT OF BUILDING PERMITS: If Buyer's inspection of the Property identifies open or needed building permits, then Seller shall promptly deliver to Buyer all plans, written documentation or other information in Seller's possession, knowledge, or control relating to improvements to the Property which are the subject of such open or needed permits, and shall promptly cooperate in good faith with Buyer's efforts to obtain estimates of repairs or other work necessary to resolve such permit issues. Seller's obligation to cooperate shall include Seller's execution of necessary authorizations, consents, or other documents necessary for Buyer to conduct inspections and have estimates of such repairs or work prepared, but in fulfilling such obligation, Seller shall not be required to expend, or become obligated to expend, any money.

(d) ASSIGNMENT OF REPAIR AND TREATMENT CONTRACTS AND WARRANTIES: At Buyer's option and cost, Seller will, at Closing, assign all assignable repair, treatment and maintenance contracts and warranties to Buyer.

ESCROW AGENT AND BROKER

13. ESCROW AGENT: Any Closing Agent or Escrow Agent (collectively "Agent") receiving the Deposit, other funds and other items is authorized, and agrees by acceptance of them, to deposit them promptly, hold same in escrow within the State of Florida and, subject to Collection, disburse them in accordance with terms and conditions of this Contract. Failure of funds to become Collected shall not excuse Buyer's performance. When conflicting demands for the Deposit are received, or Agent has a good faith doubt as to entitlement to the Deposit, Agent may take such actions permitted by this Paragraph 13, as Agent deems advisable. If in doubt as to Agent's duties or liabilities under this Contract, Agent may, at Agent's option, continue to hold the subject matter of the escrow until the parties agree to its disbursement or until a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction shall determine the rights of the parties, or Agent may deposit same with the clerk of the circuit court having jurisdiction of the dispute. An attorney who represents a party and also acts as Agent may represent such party in such action. Upon notifying all parties concerned of such action, all liability on the part of Agent shall fully terminate, except to the extent of accounting for any items previously delivered out of escrow. If a licensed real estate broker, Agent will comply with provisions of Chapter 475, F.S., as amended and FREC rules to timely resolve escrow disputes through mediation, arbitration, interpleader or an escrow disbursement order.

In any proceeding between Buyer and Seller wherein Agent is made a party because of acting as Agent hereunder, or in any proceeding where Agent interpleads the subject matter of the escrow, Agent shall recover reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred, to be paid pursuant to court order out of the escrowed funds or equivalent. Agent shall not be liable to any party or person for mis-delivery of any escrowed items, unless such mis-delivery is due to Agent's willful breach of this Contract or Agent's gross negligence. This Paragraph 13 shall survive Closing or termination of this Contract.

14. PROFESSIONAL ADVICE; BROKER LIABILITY: Broker advises Buyer and Seller to verify Property condition, square footage, and all other facts and representations made pursuant to this Contract and to consult appropriate professionals for legal, tax, environmental, and other specialized advice concerning matters affecting the Property and the transaction contemplated by this Contract. Broker represents to Buyer that Broker does not reside on the Property and that all representations (oral, written or otherwise) by Broker are based on Seller representations or public records. BUYER AGREES TO RELY SOLELY ON SELLER, PROFESSIONAL INSPECTORS AND GOVERNMENTAL AGENCIES FOR VERIFICATION OF PROPERTY CONDITION, SQUARE FOOTAGE AND FACTS THAT MATERIALLY AFFECT PROPERTY VALUE AND NOT ON THE REPRESENTATIONS (ORAL, WRITTEN OR OTHERWISE) OF BROKER. Buyer and Seller (individually, the "Indemnifying Party") each individually indemnifies, holds harmless, and releases Broker and Broker's officers, directors, agents and employees from all liability for loss or damage, including all costs and expenses, and reasonable attorney's fees at all levels, suffered or incurred by Broker and Broker's officers, directors, agents and employees in connection with or arising from claims, demands or causes of action instituted by Buyer or Seller based on: (i) inaccuracy of information provided by the Indemnifying Party or from public records; (ii) Indemnifying Party's misstatement(s) or failure to perform contractual obligations; (iii) Broker's performance, at Indemnifying Party's request, of any task beyond the scope of services regulated by Chapter 475, F.S., as amended, including Broker's referral, recommendation or retention of any vendor for, or on behalf of, Indemnifying Party; (iv) products or services provided by any such vendor for, or on behalf of, Indemnifying Party; and (v) expenses incurred by any such vendor.

Buyer and Seller each assumes full responsibility for selecting and compensating their respective vendors and paying their other costs under this Contract whether or not this transaction closes. This Paragraph 14 will not relieve Broker of statutory obligations under Chapter 475, F.S., as amended. For purposes of this Paragraph 14, Broker will be treated as a party to this Contract. This Paragraph 14 shall survive Closing or termination of this Contract.

DEFAULT AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

15. DEFAULT:

(a) BUYER DEFAULT: If Buyer fails, neglects or refuses to perform Buyer's obligations under this Contract, including payment of the Deposit, within the time(s) specified, Seller may elect to recover and retain the Deposit for the account of Seller as agreed upon liquidated damages, consideration for execution of this Contract, and in full settlement of any claims, whereupon Buyer and Seller shall be relieved from all further obligations under this Contract, or Seller, at Seller's option, may, pursuant to Paragraph 16, proceed in equity to enforce Seller's rights under this Contract. ~~The parties at the Deposit, if any, paid to Listing Broker upon default by Buyer, shall be split equally between Listing Broker and Cooperating Broker; provided however, Cooperating Broker's share shall not be greater than the commission amount Listing Broker had agreed to pay to Cooperating Broker.~~

(b) SELLER DEFAULT: If for any reason other than failure of Seller to make Seller's title marketable after reasonable diligent effort, Seller fails, neglects or refuses to perform Seller's obligations under this Contract, Buyer may elect to receive return of Buyer's Deposit without thereby waiving any action for damages resulting from Seller's breach, and, pursuant to Paragraph 16, may seek to recover such damages or seek specific performance.

This Paragraph 15 shall survive Closing or termination of this Contract.

16. DISPUTE RESOLUTION: Unresolved controversies, claims and other matters in question between Buyer and Seller arising out of, or relating to, this Contract or its breach, enforcement or interpretation ("Dispute") will be settled as follows:

(a) Buyer and Seller will have 10 days after the date conflicting demands for the Deposit are made to attempt to resolve such Dispute, failing which, Buyer and Seller shall submit such Dispute to mediation under Paragraph 16(b).

(b) Buyer and Seller shall attempt to settle Disputes in an amicable manner through mediation pursuant to Florida Rules for Certified and Court-Appointed Mediators and Chapter 44, F.S., as amended (the "Mediation Rules"). The mediator must be certified or must have experience in the real estate industry. Injunctive relief may be sought without first complying with this Paragraph 16(b). Disputes not settled pursuant to this Paragraph 16 may be resolved by instituting action in the appropriate court having jurisdiction of the matter. This Paragraph 16 shall survive Closing or termination of this Contract.

17. ATTORNEY'S FEES; COSTS: The parties will split equally any mediation fee incurred in any mediation permitted by this Contract, and each party will pay their own costs, expenses and fees, including attorney's fees, incurred in conducting the mediation. In any litigation permitted by this Contract, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover from the non-prevailing party costs and fees, including reasonable attorney's fees, incurred in conducting the litigation. This Paragraph 17 shall survive Closing or termination of this Contract.

STANDARDS FOR REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS ("STANDARDS")

18. STANDARDS:

A. TITLE:

(i) TITLE EVIDENCE; RESTRICTIONS; EASEMENTS; LIMITATIONS: Within the time period provided in Paragraph 9(e), the Title Commitment, with legible copies of instruments listed as exceptions attached thereto, shall be issued and delivered to Buyer. The Title Commitment shall set forth those matters to be discharged by Seller at or before Closing and shall provide that, upon recording of the deed to Buyer, an owner's policy of title insurance in the amount of the Purchase Price, shall be issued to Buyer insuring Buyer's marketable title to the Real Property, subject only to the following matters: (a) comprehensive land use plans, zoning, and other land use restrictions, prohibitions and requirements imposed by governmental authority; (b) restrictions and matters appearing on the Plat or otherwise common to the subdivision; (c) outstanding oil, gas and mineral rights of record without right of entry; (d) unplatted public utility easements of record (located contiguous to real property lines and not more than 10 feet in width as to rear or front lines and 7 1/2 feet in width as to side lines); (e) taxes for year of Closing and subsequent years; and (f) assumed mortgages and purchase money mortgages, if any (if additional items, attach addendum); provided, that, none prevent use of Property for RESIDENTIAL PURPOSES. If there exists at Closing any violation of items identified in (b) – (f) above, then the same shall be deemed a title defect. Marketable title shall be determined according to applicable Title Standards adopted by authority of The Florida Bar and in accordance with law.

(B) TITLE EXAMINATION: Buyer shall have 5 days after receipt of Title Commitment to examine it and notify Seller in writing specifying defect(s), if any, that render title unmarketable. If Seller provides Title Commitment and it is delivered to Buyer less than 5 days prior to Closing Date, Buyer may extend Closing for up to 5 days after date of receipt to examine same in accordance with this STANDARD A. Seller shall have 30 days ("Cure Period") after receipt of Buyer's notice to take reasonable diligent efforts to remove defects. If Buyer fails to so notify Seller, Buyer shall be deemed to have accepted title as it then is. If Seller cures defects within Cure Period, Seller will deliver written notice to Buyer (with proof of cure acceptable to Buyer and Buyer's attorney) and the parties will close this Contract on Closing Date (or if Closing Date has passed, within 10 days after Buyer's receipt of Seller's notice). If Seller is unable to cure defects within Cure Period, then Buyer may, within 5 days after expiration of Cure Period, deliver written notice to Seller: (a) extending Cure Period for a specified period not to exceed 120 days within which Seller shall continue to use reasonable diligent effort to remove or cure the defects ("Extended Cure Period"); or (b) electing to accept title with existing defects and close this Contract on Closing Date (or if Closing Date has passed, within the earlier of 10 days after end of Extended Cure Period or Buyer's receipt of Seller's notice), or (c) electing to terminate this Contract and receive a refund of the Deposit, thereby releasing Buyer and Seller from all further obligations under this Contract. If after reasonable diligent effort, Seller is unable to timely cure defects, and Buyer does not waive the defects, this Contract shall terminate, and Buyer shall receive a refund of the Deposit, thereby releasing Buyer and Seller from all further obligations under this Contract.

B. SURVEY: If Survey discloses encroachments on the Real Property or that improvements located thereon encroach on setback lines, easements, or lands of others, or violate any restrictive covenants, or applicable governmental regulations described in STANDARD A(a), (b) or (d) above, Buyer shall deliver written notice of such matters, together with a copy of Survey, to Seller within 5 days after Buyer's receipt of Survey, but no later than Closing. If Buyer timely delivers such notice and Survey to Seller, such matters identified in the notice and Survey shall constitute a title defect, subject to cure obligations of STANDARD A above. If Seller has delivered a prior survey, Seller shall, at Buyer's request, execute an affidavit of "no change" to the Real Property since the preparation of such prior survey, to the extent the affirmations therein are true and correct.

C. INGRESS AND EGRESS: Seller represents that there is ingress and egress to the Real Property and title to the Real Property is insurable in accordance with STANDARD A without exception for lack of legal right of access.

D. LEASE INFORMATION: Seller shall, at least 10 days prior to Closing, furnish to Buyer estoppel letters from tenant(s)/occupant(s) specifying nature and duration of occupancy, rental rates, advanced rent and security deposits paid by tenant(s) or occupant(s)("Estoppel Letter(s)"). If Seller is unable to obtain such Estoppel Letter(s) the same information shall be furnished by Seller to Buyer within that time period in the form of a Seller's affidavit and Buyer may thereafter contact tenant(s) or occupant(s) to confirm such information. If Estoppel Letter(s) or Seller's affidavit, if any, differ materially from Seller's representations and lease(s) provided pursuant to Paragraph 6, or if tenant(s)/occupant(s) fail or refuse to confirm Seller's affidavit, Buyer may deliver written notice to Seller within 5 days after receipt of such information, but no later than 5 days prior to Closing Date, terminating this Contract and receive a refund of the Deposit, thereby releasing Buyer and Seller from all further obligations under this Contract. ~~Seller shall, at Closing, deliver and assign all leases to Buyer who shall assume Seller's obligations thereunder.~~ Property shall be free of all tenancies and rights of parties in possession as of Closing, except as disclosed prior to Effective Date.

E. LIENS: Seller shall furnish to Buyer at Closing an affidavit attesting to (i) the absence of any financing statement, claims of lien or potential lienors known to Seller and (ii) that there have been no improvements or repairs to the Real Property for 90 days immediately preceding Closing Date. If the Real Property has been improved or repaired within that time, Seller shall deliver releases or waivers of construction liens executed by all general contractors, subcontractors, suppliers and materialmen in addition to Seller's lien affidavit setting forth names of all such general contractors, subcontractors, suppliers and materialmen, further attesting that all charges for improvements or repairs which could serve as a basis for a construction lien or a claim for damages have been paid or will be paid at Closing.

F. TIME: Time is of the essence in this Contract. Calendar days, based on where the Property is located, shall be used in computing time periods. Other than time for acceptance and Effective Date as set forth in Paragraph 3, any time periods provided for or dates specified in this Contract, whether preprinted, handwritten, typewritten or inserted herein, which shall end or occur on a Saturday, Sunday, national legal public holiday (as defined in 5 U.S.C. Sec. 6103(a)), or a day on which a national legal public holiday is observed because it fell on a Saturday or Sunday, shall extend to the next calendar day which is not a Saturday, Sunday, national legal public holiday, or a day on which a national legal public holiday is observed.

G. FORCE MAJEURE: Buyer or Seller shall not be required to exercise or perform any right or obligation under this Contract or be liable to each other for damages so long as performance or non-performance of the right or obligation, or the availability of services, insurance, or required approvals essential to Closing, is disrupted, delayed, caused or prevented by a Force Majeure event. "Force Majeure" means: hurricanes, floods, extreme weather, earthquakes, fires, or other acts of God, unusual transportation delays, wars, insurrections, civil unrest, or acts of terrorism, governmental actions and mandates, government shut downs, epidemics, or pandemics, which, by exercise of reasonable diligent effort, the non-performing party is unable in whole or in part to prevent or overcome. The Force Majeure event will be deemed to have begun on the first day the effect of the Force Majeure prevents performance, non-performance, or the availability of services, insurance or required approvals essential to Closing. All time periods affected by the Force Majeure event, including Closing Date, will be extended a reasonable time up to 7 days after the Force Majeure event no longer prevents performance under this Contract; provided, however, if such Force Majeure event continues to prevent performance under this Contract more than 30 days beyond Closing Date, then either party may terminate this Contract by delivering written notice to the other and the Deposit shall be refunded to Buyer, thereby releasing Buyer and Seller from all further obligations under this Contract.

H. CONVEYANCE: Seller shall convey marketable title to the Real Property by statutory warranty, trustee's, personal representative's, or guardian's deed, as appropriate to the status of Seller, subject only to matters described in STANDARD A and those accepted by Buyer. Personal Property shall, at request of Buyer, be transferred by absolute bill of sale with warranty of title, subject only to such matters as may be provided for in this Contract.

I. CLOSING LOCATION; DOCUMENTS; AND PROCEDURE:

(i) LOCATION: Closing will be conducted by the attorney or other closing agent ("Closing Agent") designated by the party paying for the owner's policy of title insurance and will take place in the county where the Real Property is located at the office of the Closing Agent, or at such other location agreed to by the parties. If there is no title insurance, Seller will designate Closing Agent. Closing may be conducted by mail, overnight courier, or electronic means.

(ii) CLOSING DOCUMENTS: Seller shall at or prior to Closing, execute and deliver, as applicable, deed, bill of sale, certificate(s) of title or other documents necessary to transfer title to the Property, construction lien affidavit(s), owner's possession and no lien affidavit(s), and assignment(s) of leases. Seller shall provide Buyer with paid receipts for all work done on the Property pursuant to this Contract. Buyer shall furnish and pay for, as applicable, the survey, flood elevation certification, and documents required by Buyer's lender.

(iii) FinCEN GTO REPORTING OBLIGATION. If Closing Agent is required to comply with a U.S. Treasury Department's Financial Crimes Enforcement Network ("FinCEN") Geographic Targeting Order ("GTO"), then Buyer shall provide Closing Agent with essential information and documentation related to Buyer and its Beneficial Owners, including photo identification, and related to the transaction contemplated by this Contract which are required to complete mandatory reporting, including the Currency Transaction Report; and Buyer consents to Closing Agent's collection and report of said information to IRS.

(iv) PROCEDURE: The deed shall be recorded upon Collection of all closing funds. If the Title Commitment provides insurance against adverse matters pursuant to Section 627.7841, F.S., as amended, the escrow closing procedure required by STANDARD J shall be waived, and Closing Agent shall, subject to Collection of all closing funds, disburse at Closing the brokerage fees to Broker and the net sale proceeds to Seller.

J. ESCROW CLOSING PROCEDURE: If Title Commitment issued pursuant to Paragraph 9(c) does not provide for insurance against adverse matters as permitted under Section 627.7841, F.S., as amended, the following escrow and closing procedure shall apply: (1) all Closing proceeds shall be held in escrow by the Closing Agent for a period of not more than 10 days after Closing; (2) if Seller's title is rendered unmarketable, through no fault of Buyer, Buyer shall, within the 10 day period, notify Seller in writing of the defect and Seller shall have 30 days from date of receipt of such notification to cure the defect; (3) if Seller fails to timely cure the defect, the Deposit and all Closing funds paid by Buyer shall, within 5 days after written demand by Buyer, be refunded to Buyer and, simultaneously with such repayment, Buyer shall return the Personal Property, vacate the Real Property and re-convey the Property to Seller by special warranty deed and bill of sale, and (4) if Buyer fails to make timely demand for refund of the Deposit, Buyer shall take title as is, waiving all rights against Seller as to any intervening defect except as may be available to Buyer by virtue of warranties contained in the deed or bill of sale.

K. PRORATIONS; CREDITS: The following recurring items will be made current (if applicable) and prorated as of the day prior to Closing Date, or date of occupancy if occupancy occurs before Closing Date: real estate taxes (including special benefit tax assessments imposed by a CDD pursuant to Chapter 190, F.S., and assessments imposed by special district(s) pursuant to Chapter 189, F.S.), interest, bonds, association fees, insurance, rents and other expenses of Property. Buyer shall have option of taking over existing policies of insurance, if assumable, in which event premiums shall be prorated. Cash at Closing shall be increased or decreased as may be required by prorations to be made through day prior to Closing. Advance rent and security deposits, if any, will be credited to Buyer. Escrow deposits held by Seller's mortgagee will be paid to Seller. Taxes shall be prorated based on current year's tax. If Closing occurs on a date when current year's millage is not fixed but current year's assessment

orm Simplicity

If available, taxes will be prorated based upon such assessment and prior year's millage. If current year's assessment is not available, then taxes will be prorated on prior year's tax. If there are completed improvements on the Real Property by January 1st of year of Closing, which improvements were not in existence on January 1st of prior year, then taxes shall be prorated based upon prior year's millage and at an equitable assessment to be agreed upon between the parties, failing which, request shall be made to the County Property Appraiser for an informal assessment taking into account available exemptions. In all cases, due allowance shall be made for the maximum allowable discounts and applicable homestead and other exemptions. A tax proration based on an estimate shall, at either party's request, be readjusted upon receipt of current year's tax bill. This STANDARD K shall survive Closing.

L. ACCESS TO PROPERTY TO CONDUCT APPRAISALS, INSPECTIONS, AND WALK-THROUGH: Seller shall, upon reasonable notice, provide utilities service and access to Property for appraisals and inspections, including a walk-through (or follow-up walk-through if necessary) prior to Closing.

M. RISK OF LOSS: If, after Effective Date, but before Closing, Property is damaged by fire or other casualty ("Casualty Loss") and cost of restoration (which shall include cost of pruning or removing damaged trees) does not exceed 1.5% of Purchase Price, cost of restoration shall be an obligation of Seller and Closing shall proceed pursuant to terms of this Contract. If restoration is not completed as of Closing, a sum equal to 125% of estimated cost to complete restoration (not to exceed 1.5% of Purchase Price) will be escrowed at Closing. If actual cost of restoration exceeds escrowed amount, Seller shall pay such actual costs (but not in excess of 1.5% of Purchase Price). Any unused portion of escrowed amount shall be returned to Seller. If cost of restoration exceeds 1.5% of Purchase Price, Buyer shall elect to either take Property "as is" together with the 1.5%, or receive a refund of the Deposit thereby releasing Buyer and Seller from all further obligations under this Contract. Seller's sole obligation with respect to tree damage by casualty or other natural occurrence shall be cost of pruning or removal.

N. 1031 EXCHANGE: If either Seller or Buyer wish to enter into a like-kind exchange (either simultaneously with Closing or deferred) under Section 1031 of the Internal Revenue Code ("Exchange"), the other party shall cooperate in all reasonable respects to effectuate the Exchange, including execution of documents; provided, however, cooperating party shall incur no liability or expense related to the Exchange, and Closing shall not be contingent upon, nor extended or delayed by, such Exchange.

O. CONTRACT NOT RECORDABLE; PERSONS BOUND; NOTICE; DELIVERY; COPIES; CONTRACT EXECUTION: Neither this Contract nor any notice of it shall be recorded in any public or official records. This Contract shall be binding on, and inure to the benefit of, the parties and their respective heirs or successors in interest. Whenever the context permits, singular shall include plural and one gender shall include all. Notice and delivery given by or to the attorney or broker (including such broker's real estate licensee) representing any party shall be as effective as if given by or to that party. All notices must be in writing and may only be made by mail, facsimile transmission, personal delivery or email. A facsimile or electronic copy of this Contract and any signatures hereon shall be considered for all purposes as an original. This Contract may be executed by use of electronic signatures, as determined by Florida's Electronic Signature Act and other applicable laws.

P. INTEGRATION; MODIFICATION: This Contract contains the full and complete understanding and agreement of Buyer and Seller with respect to the transaction contemplated by this Contract and no prior agreements or representations shall be binding upon Buyer or Seller unless included in this Contract. No modification to or change in this Contract shall be valid or binding upon Buyer or Seller unless in writing and executed by the parties intended to be bound by it.

Q. WAIVER: Failure of Buyer or Seller to insist on compliance with, or strict performance of, any provision of this Contract, or to take advantage of any right under this Contract, shall not constitute a waiver of other provisions or rights.

R. RIDERS; ADDENDA; TYPEWRITTEN OR HANDWRITTEN PROVISIONS: Riders, addenda, and typewritten or handwritten provisions shall control all printed provisions of this Contract in conflict with them.

S. COLLECTION or COLLECTED: "Collection" or "Collected" means any checks tendered or received, including Deposits, have become actually and finally collected and deposited in the account of Escrow Agent or Closing Agent. Closing and disbursement of funds and delivery of closing documents may be delayed by Closing Agent until such amounts have been Collected in Closing Agent's accounts.

T. RESERVED.

U. APPLICABLE LAW AND VENUE: This Contract shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida and venue for resolution of all disputes, whether by mediation, arbitration or litigation, shall be in the county where the Real Property is located.

V. FIRPTA TAX WITHHOLDING: If a seller of U.S. real property is a "foreign person" as defined by FIRPTA, Section 1445 of the Internal Revenue Code ("Code") requires the buyer of the real property to withhold up to 15% of the amount realized by the seller on the transfer and remit the withheld amount to the Internal Revenue Service

(FIRPTA) unless an exemption to the required withholding applies or the seller has obtained a Withholding Certificate from the IRS authorizing a reduced amount of withholding.

(i) No withholding is required under Section 1445 of the Code if the Seller is not a "foreign person". Seller can provide proof of non-foreign status to Buyer by delivery of written certification signed under penalties of perjury, stating that Seller is not a foreign person and containing Seller's name, U.S. taxpayer identification number and home address (or office address, in the case of an entity), as provided for in 26 CFR 1.1445-2(b). Otherwise, Buyer shall withhold the applicable percentage of the amount realized by Seller on the transfer and timely remit said funds to the IRS.

(ii) If Seller is a foreign person and has received a Withholding Certificate from the IRS which provides for reduced or eliminated withholding in this transaction and provides same to Buyer by Closing, then Buyer shall withhold the reduced sum required, if any, and timely remit said funds to the IRS.

(iii) If prior to Closing Seller has submitted a completed application to the IRS for a Withholding Certificate and has provided to Buyer the notice required by 26 CFR 1.1445-1(c)(2)(i)(B) but no Withholding Certificate has been received as of Closing, Buyer shall, at Closing, withhold the applicable percentage of the amount realized by Seller on the transfer and, at Buyer's option, either (a) timely remit the withheld funds to the IRS or (b) place the funds in escrow, at Seller's expense, with an escrow agent selected by Buyer and pursuant to terms negotiated by the parties, to be subsequently disbursed in accordance with the Withholding Certificate issued by the IRS or remitted directly to the IRS if the Seller's application is rejected or upon terms set forth in the escrow agreement.

(iv) In the event the net proceeds due Seller are not sufficient to meet the withholding requirement(s) in this transaction, Seller shall deliver to Buyer, at Closing, the additional Collected funds necessary to satisfy the applicable requirement and thereafter Buyer shall timely remit said funds to the IRS or escrow the funds for disbursement in accordance with the final determination of the IRS, as applicable.

(v) Upon remitting funds to the IRS pursuant to this STANDARD, Buyer shall provide Seller copies of IRS Forms 8288 and 8288-A, as filed.

W. RESERVED

X. BUYER WAIVER OF CLAIMS: To the extent permitted by law, Buyer waives any claims against Seller and against any real estate licensee involved in the negotiation of this Contract for any damage or defects pertaining to the physical condition of the Property that may exist at Closing of this Contract and be subsequently discovered by the Buyer or anyone claiming by, through, under or against the Buyer. This provision does not relieve Seller's obligation to comply with Paragraph 10(j). This Standard X shall survive Closing.

1. CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION APPROVAL:
The Association's approval of Buyer (CHECK ONE): ☐ is ☒ is not required. If approval is required, this Contract is contingent upon Buyer being approved by the Association no later than _____ (if left blank, then 5) days prior to Closing. Within _____ (if left blank, then 5) days after Effective Date Seller shall initiate the approval process with the Association and Buyer shall apply for such approval. Buyer and Seller shall sign and deliver any documents required by the Association in order to complete the transfer of the Property and each shall use diligent effort to obtain such approval, including making personal appearances if required. If Buyer is not approved within the stated time period, this Contract shall terminate and Buyer shall be refunded the Deposit, thereby releasing Buyer and Seller from all further obligations under this Contract.

2. RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL:
(a) The Association (CHECK ONE): ☒ has ☐ does not have a right of first refusal ("Right"). If the Association has a Right, this Contract is contingent upon the Association, within the time permitted for the exercise of such Right, either providing written confirmation to Buyer that the Association is not exercising that Right, or failing to timely exercise such Right pursuant to the terms of the Declaration of Condominium ("Declaration", which reference includes all amendments thereto).
(b) The members of the Association (CHECK ONE): ☐ have ☒ do not have a Right. If the members do have a Right, this Contract is contingent upon the members, within the time permitted for the exercise of such Right, either providing written confirmation to Buyer that the members are not exercising that Right, or failing to timely exercise such Right pursuant to the terms of the Declaration.
(c) Buyer and Seller shall, within 10 (if left blank, then 5) days after Effective Date, sign and deliver any documents required as a condition precedent to the exercise of the Right, and shall use diligent effort to submit and process the matter with the Association and members, including personal appearances, if required.
(d) If, within the stated time period, the Association, the members of the Association, or both, fail to provide the written confirmation or the Right has not otherwise expired, then this Contract shall terminate and the Deposit shall be refunded to the Buyer, thereby releasing Buyer and Seller from all further obligations under this Contract.
(e) If the Association or a member timely exercises its or their Right, this Contract shall terminate and the Deposit shall be refunded to Buyer (unless this Contract provides otherwise), thereby releasing Buyer and Seller from all further obligations under this Contract, and Seller shall pay to Broker the full commission at Closing in recognition that Broker procured the sale.

A. CONDOMINIUM RIDER (CONTINUED)

All annual assessments levied by the Association and rent on recreational areas, if any, shall be made current by Seller at Closing, and Buyer shall reimburse Seller for prepayments.

(b) Fees: Seller shall, at Closing, pay all fines imposed against the Unit by the Condominium Association as of Closing Date and any fees the Association charges to provide information about the Property, assessment(s) and fees.

If Property is part of a Homeowners' Association, see Rider B. HOMEOWNERS' ASSOCIATION/COMMUNITY DISCLOSURE for further information including additional assessments and fees.

(c) Special Assessments and Prorations:

(i) Seller represents that Seller is not aware of any special or other assessment that has been levied by the Association or that has been an item on the agenda, or reported in the minutes, of the Association within twelve (12) months prior to Effective Date, ("pending") except as follows: _____

(ii) If special assessments levied or pending exist as of the Effective Date are disclosed above by Seller and may be paid in installments (CHECK ONE): ☐ Buyer ☐ Seller (if left blank, then Buyer) shall pay installments due after Closing Date. If Seller is checked, Seller shall pay the assessment in full prior to or at the time of Closing.

(iii) If special assessments levied or pending exist as of the Effective Date and have not been disclosed above by Seller, then Seller shall pay such assessments in full at the time of Closing.

(iv) If, after Effective Date, the Association imposes a special assessment for improvements, work or services, which was not pending as of the Effective Date, then Seller shall pay all amounts due before Closing Date and Buyer shall pay all amounts due after Closing Date.

(v) A special assessment shall be deemed levied for purposes of this paragraph on the date when the assessment has been approved as required for enforcement pursuant to Florida law and the condominium documents listed in Paragraph 5.

(vi) Association assets and liabilities, including Association reserve accounts, shall not be prorated.

(d) Litigation: Seller represents that Seller is not aware of pending or anticipated litigation affecting the Property or the common elements, if any, except as follows: _____

4. SPRINKLER SYSTEM RETROFIT:
If, pursuant to Sections 718.112(2)(i), F.S., the Association has voted to forego retrofitting its fire sprinkler system or handrails and guardrails for the condominium units, then prior to Closing Seller shall furnish to Buyer the written notice of Association's vote to forego such retrofitting.

6. NON-DEVELOPER DISCLOSURE:
(CHECK ONE):

☒ (a) THE BUYER HEREBY ACKNOWLEDGES THAT BUYER HAS BEEN PROVIDED A CURRENT COPY OF THE DECLARATION OF CONDOMINIUM, ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF THE ASSOCIATION, BYLAWS AND RULES OF THE ASSOCIATION, AND A COPY OF THE MOST RECENT YEAR-END FINANCIAL INFORMATION AND FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS DOCUMENT MORE THAN 3 DAYS, EXCLUDING SATURDAYS, SUNDAYS, AND LEGAL HOLIDAYS, PRIOR TO EXECUTION OF THIS CONTRACT.

☐ (b) THIS AGREEMENT IS VOIDABLE BY BUYER BY DELIVERING WRITTEN NOTICE OF THE BUYER'S INTENTION TO CANCEL WITHIN 3 DAYS, EXCLUDING SATURDAYS, SUNDAYS, AND LEGAL HOLIDAYS, AFTER THE DATE OF EXECUTION OF THIS AGREEMENT BY THE BUYER AND RECEIPT BY BUYER OF A CURRENT COPY OF THE DECLARATION OF CONDOMINIUM, ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION, BYLAWS AND RULES OF THE ASSOCIATION, AND A COPY OF THE MOST RECENT YEAR-END FINANCIAL INFORMATION AND FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS DOCUMENT IF SO REQUESTED IN WRITING. ANY PURPORTED WAIVER OF THESE VOIDABILITY RIGHTS SHALL BE OF NO EFFECT. BUYER MAY EXTEND THE TIME FOR CLOSING FOR A PERIOD OF NOT MORE THAN 3 DAYS, EXCLUDING SATURDAYS, SUNDAYS, AND

Addendum to Contract

Realtors

Addendum No 1 to the Contract with the Effective Date of January 2022 between

MORADAS LLC, a Florida limited liability company (Seller)

and DANIEL CHU AND/OR ASSIGNS (Buyer)

concerning the property described as 9001 COLLINS AVE, UNIT S201, SURFSIDE, FL 33154

(the "Contract"). Seller and Buyer make the following terms and conditions part of the Contract:

1. Seller will close out all open and expired permits and all open code violations prior to Closing.

2. Within 7 days of the Effective Date, Seller shall provide evidence of signing authority as to the individual who is signing the Contract on behalf of the Seller. Seller hereby represents to Buyer that such individual has authority to sign on behalf of Seller and bind Seller to the obligations contained in the Contract.

3. In addition to Buyer's right to perform a walk-through as described in Paragraph 12(b) of the Contract, Buyer shall also have the right to perform a re-inspection of the Property within 30 days of but prior to 10 days before the Closing Date to confirm that all items of Personal Property are on the Property and to verify that Seller has maintained the Property as required by the AS IS Maintenance Requirement. As a result of Buyer's above referenced re-inspection, if an inspection report shows damage to the Property exceeding $15,000 per damaged item that was not previously present as of the Effective Date which can be documented as such, Buyer shall have the right to request that Seller either repairs the damaged item or credits the Buyer with the estimated cost of repairing such damaged item at closing. Seller shall then have the option to: (a) credit Buyer the estimated repair cost of the damaged item as per Buyer's inspection report, (b) repair the damaged item prior to the Closing Date and extend the Closing Date up to 2 weeks if needed to finalize such repair, or (c) obtain their own repair estimate from a licensed professional and credit the Buyer with such estimated repair cost of the damaged item.

CLOSING AFFIDAVIT
(Seller)

Before me, the undersigned authority, personally appeared Oscar Cousillas, the Authorized Representative of Moradas, LLC, a Florida limited liability company ("Affiant"), who being by me first duly sworn, on oath, depose(s) and say(s) that:

1. Moradas, LLC, a Florida limited liability company ("Seller"), is the owner of and is selling the following described property to Daniel Chu and Constance Chu, husband and wife ("Buyer"), to wit:

   Condominium Parcel No. S-201, of SURF CLUB CONDOMINIUM, together with an undivided interest in the common elements appurtenant thereto, according to the Declaration of Condominium thereof as recorded February 21, 2014 in Book 29040, Page 3186, as amended and/or supplemented from time to time, of the Public Records of Miami-Dade County, Florida.

2. Except as previously disclosed to or discovered by Buyer, the above described property is free and clear of all liens, taxes, encumbrances, assessments and claims of every kind, nature and description of record whatsoever, except for real estate taxes for the year 2022, which are not yet due and payable.

3. There have been no improvements, alterations, or repairs since acquisition by the Seller to the above described property for which the costs thereof remain unpaid, that there are no claims for labor or material furnished for repairing or improving the same, which remain unpaid since the acquisition by Seller, and that there are no mechanic's, materialmen's, or laborer's liens since acquisition by Seller against the above described property.

4. There have been no documents recorded in the Public Records of Miami-Dade, Florida subsequent to May 3, 2022, which affect title to the Property and Seller has not entered into any contracts for the sale, disposition or leasing of the Property since said date, and Seller has no knowledge of any matter affecting title to the Property.

5. The personal property contained in the building on said property, or on the said premises, and which, if any, is being sold free and clear of all liens, encumbrances, claims and demands whatsoever. The Seller knows of no violations of Municipal or County Ordinances pertaining to the above described property. No judgment or decree has been entered in any court in this State or the United States against said Seller which remains unsatisfied. There are no persons other than Seller in possession of the above described property.

6. There are no matters pending against the Seller that could give rise to a lien that would attach to the property between May 3, 2022 and the recording of the interest to be insured. Seller has not and will not execute any instruments that would adversely affect the interest to be insured.

7. Seller's title to, and possession and enjoyment of, the property have been open, notorious, peaceable and undisturbed, and have never been disputed nor questioned.

8. There are no disputes concerning the boundary lines of the property, and the operation of any buildings on said property has been in compliance with the applicable building codes, ordinances and statutes.

9. Affiant has received no notice of any public hearing regarding assessment for improvements or changes in applicable zoning laws concerning said property within the past ninety (90) days.

10. There are no actions or proceedings now pending in any State or Federal Court to which the Seller is a party, including but not limited to, proceedings in bankruptcy, receivership or insolvency, nor are there any judgments, bankruptcies, liens or executions of any nature which constitute or could constitute a charge or lien upon said property.

11. There are no unrecorded easements, claims of easement or rights-of-way affecting all or any portion of the property.

12. Seller understands that Section 1445 of the Internal Revenue Code provides that a Buyer of a United States real property interest must withhold tax if the Seller is a foreign person. To inform the Buyer that withholding of tax is not required upon purchase of the above described property, Seller certifies the following:

    Seller is not a nonresident alien individual, foreign corporation, foreign partnership, foreign trust or foreign estate for purposes of United States federal income taxation.

    Seller's U.S. Taxpayer Identification Number is 84-4963993.

    Seller's address is: 1111 Brickell Avenue, Suite 2600, Miami, FL 33131.

    No other persons or entities have an ownership interest in the above described property.

13. Seller understands the Buyer of the described property intends to rely on the foregoing representations in connection with the United States Foreign Investment in Real Property Tax Act. (FIRPTA). Seller understands this certification may be disclosed to the Internal Revenue Service by the Buyer and that any false statements contained in this certification may be punished by fine, imprisonment or both. Seller has the authority to sign this affidavit as either individual Seller or on behalf of an entity Seller. Under penalties of perjury, Seller states that this declaration was carefully read and is true and correct.

14. This affidavit is given for the purpose of clearing possible questions or objections to the title to the above referenced property and, for the purpose of inducing Landy Saavedra, PLLC as agent for Fidelity National Title Insurance Company to issue title insurance on the subject property, with the knowledge that said title companies are relying upon the statements set forth herein. Seller hereby holds Landy Saavedra, PLLC and Fidelity National Title Insurance Company harmless and fully indemnifies same (including but not limited to attorneys' fees, whether suit be brought or not, and at trial and all appellate levels, and court costs and other litigation expenses) with respect to the matters set forth herein. "Affiant", "Seller" and "Buyer" include singular or plural as context so requires or admits. Seller further states that he/she is familiar with the nature of an oath and with the penalties as provided by the laws of the United States and the State of Florida for falsely swearing to statements made in an instrument of this nature. Seller further certifies that he/she has read, or heard read, the full facts of this Affidavit and understands its context.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing Affidavit and that the facts stated in it are true.

To: Beatriz Dangond <dangond.b@ewm.com>
Subject: Surf Club S-201

Hi Beatriz-
As promised, I have been working to see if I can accommodate an early closing in June.
Please understand that we are not getting any benefit from doing this: (1) We have plans to be in California and Europe; (2) it's too hot during the summer for us; and (3) we will not have any furniture anyway.
Furthermore, I am already paying a $500K premium in my purchase price (above asking price) to have the flexibility on closing date per the contract.
Nevertheless, I have pressed my bank to see if they can expedite the financing---I'm going to put $7.5M down so it should be straightforward.
Based on that, here's what my monthly carrying cost will be:

Interest (2.5% on $10M)	$20,833
HOA	$12,313
Prop Taxes	$15,588
Total	$48,734

Closing two months early corresponds to ~$97,500 total cost to me.
But in order to be fair, here's my proposal to move the closing date to June 15 (best efforts)

1. Credit from Seller for $55,802, which is the equivalent of two months' HOA and prop taxes.
2. Apartment is professionally painted (i.e. holes filled, molding masked/taped, etc) with a paint color to be specified by me.
3. Storage for up to two vehicles beginning May 15.
4. Apartment cannot have any major damage or major malfunctioning of appliances, plumbing fixtures, etc.
5. All other terms of the Purchase Contract apply.

Please let me know your thoughts and I'll apply the necessary pressure on my lender (I'm on the board of this bank so it should be achievable.)
Thanks.
Daniel

Thanks. Christy just confirmed receipt. Gaston is getting one missing signature from the Seller (his signatory had signed the Seller's CD but missed the signature page on the joint closing statement) and as soon as he sends it Christy will proceed to close and fund. I will keep you informed.

I copied you on an email to the Four Seasons South Tower Residences Concierge Team and I spoke to Migle. She advised the concierge handles everything with respect to keys and access.

Rizzy-

I've scanned over the list you provided.

It will obviously require considerable time to research each line item which is why I explained that I applied a "broad brush" to the first set of reclassed transactions.

I did, nevertheless, want to share some context which may be constructive in terms of understanding how I've thought about these expenses.

1. I wear many hats, not necessarily by my choice. So outside of the normal course of serving as CEO, I do all of the external interaction with our lenders and ABS investors. That includes, for example, attending conferences, rating agency meetings and doing roadshows for our bond issuances. (The vast majority of our peers have a dedicated person to do this). I also do 100% of our site selection and correspondingly, new market strategy. Additionally, I do virtually all of the initial reach out for anything strategic---from lobby efforts to tech to new exec hires. All of this require travel which at my age is candidly, not generally desirable. So when I do travel, I choose to travel with my immediate family (We have a 2 year old) so that we're together. So I consider larger hotel accommodations and multiple airline tickets to be part of that plan.
2. I deal with a wide variety of external constituencies---generally I believe I've been successful achieving alignment with them---and I've incurred various entertainment expenses accordingly. I do feel like I've exercised good judgment on these expenses---our peers host large golf outings for example---as well as other elaborate measures like charters to events, etc. I have hosted individuals in Miami from time to time and paid for their hotel.
3. Going back to 2014, I relocated to Los Angeles (sold my house in Dallas, purchased a house in LA) in order to launch our business there, de novo. Shortly after that, in order to capitalize on an opportunity to merge the TX and CA operations, I moved back to Dallas 15 months later. Unfortunately, I still own that house (I haven't been able to use it since pre-pandemic because of some damage and it's just gone on the market) and incurred an enormous amount of carrying costs (interest and taxes). Because the move back to Dallas was completely business-driven, I've expensed certain costs related to storage, moving, etc. over time between LA and Dallas and LA and Miami. I've felt that I only live in Dallas because I work here…
4. Because I need to be in Dallas, I decided to construct a house here. Due to pandemic-related delays, the completion was continually delayed nearly twelve months late (we had given up our rental thinking completion was more imminent) and so in 2022, there were a large number of hotel stays in Dallas.

That said, when I sort the top dollar items not classified as relocation, it looks like all are business expenses, and the higher cost hotel charges correspond to ABS road shows, bank meetings, etc, which I can corroborate. There is one large item for a company sponsorship to St. Jude's through a Hispanic fundraiser organized by a marketing firm we use.

I looked at transactions > $1,000, which totaled $680K. Of this amount,

- Travel=$422K, or 62%
- Relocation= $148K, or 22%
- Entertainment=$57K, or 8%

I believe the vast majority are generally properly coded based upon the context above (I did identify 8 larger charges which I could reclass as “Personal”)
Please provide me with your expectations; I unfortunately did not keep receipts.
There are over 4,500 transactions on the summary you provided; 4,000 of them, or 88%, are < $500 and would require a lot of research.
I’ll wait to hear back from you.

Daniel,

Thank you again for providing us your spreadsheet related to Amex expenses and the related reclassification of certain expenses included therein. Attached please find a spreadsheet for your review and comment and which we can discuss on a forthcoming call between us.

Based on the credit card data and related email review, we believe the transactions reflected in the attached still appear to be personal in nature and/or require further background from you. In advance of our forthcoming call (which is yet to be scheduled), I would ask that you review the attached list, identify any business-related justification, and produce a receipt (if available) for any of the transactions.

After your review and our discussion, we will discuss next steps with the Audit Committee.

Thanks in advance.

Best

*For each transaction in your Account Activity, the Total equals the amount sent or received, plus or minus any Fees.

In case of errors or questions about your electronic transfers,

- Telephone us at 402-938-3614;
- Write the PayPal Error Resolution Department at P.O. Box 45950, Omaha, NE 68145-0950; or
- Write to us through the Contact Us page.

Contact us as soon as you can if you think your statement or receipt is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer on the statement or receipt. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

1. Tell us your name and username or phone number.
2. Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
3. Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

We will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days to do this, we will credit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation.
