Re: Tricolor Bankruptcy

I refer to your letter dated 9/10/2025 (Copy attached)

Please be informed since I received this letter, I have not made any payment on my car loan pending your advice.

A letter has been emailed to me by Vervent, now operating under Tricolor , name for a modification of my loan. I am attaching a copy of email.

Please advise if court is aware and clearance granted for Tricolor to exist but operating to operate under different name and if I am obliged to follow their instruction.

Notice of Chapter 7 Bankruptcy Case -- No Proof of Claim Deadline 10/20

For the debtor listed above, a case has been filed under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. An order for relief has been entered.

This notice has important information about the case for creditors, debtors, and trustees, including information about the meeting of creditors and deadlines.

The filing of the case imposed an automatic stay against most collection activities. This means that creditors generally may not take action to collect debts from the debtor or the debtor's property. For example, while the stay is in effect, creditors cannot sue, assert a deficiency, repossess property, or otherwise try to collect from the debtor. Creditors cannot demand repayment from debtors by mail, phone, or otherwise. Creditors who violate the stay can be required to pay actual and punitive damages and attorney's fees.

To protect your rights, consult an attorney. All documents filed in the case may be inspected at the bankruptcy clerk's office at the address listed below or through PACER (Public Access to Court Electronic Records at <https://pacer.uscourts.gov>).

The staff of the bankruptcy clerk's office cannot give legal advice.
