2. 3. Any services Verita will provide relating to the Debtors’ schedules of assets and liabilities and statements of financial affairs shall be limited to administrative and ministerial services. The Debtors shall remain responsible for the content and accuracy of their schedules of assets and liabilities and statements of financial affairs.

4. Verita is authorized to take all actions necessary to comply with its duties as Administrative Advisor as described in the Application and set forth in the Services Agreement.

5. Verita shall apply to the Court for allowance of compensation for professional services rendered and reimbursement of expenses incurred in its capacity as Administrative Advisor in connection with the Debtors' chapter 11 case in compliance with sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code and applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Rules, Local Rules, and any other applicable procedures and orders of the Court.

6. Verita is authorized to apply its retainer first to all prepetition invoices, and thereafter, to have the retainer replenished to the original retainer amount, and thereafter, to hold the retainer under the Services Agreement during the case as security for the payment of fees and expenses incurred under the Services Agreement.

7. The indemnification, contribution and reimbursement provisions in the Services Agreement are approved, subject to the following modifications, applicable during the pendency of these Chapter 11 Cases:

- a. Verita shall not be entitled to indemnification, contribution, or reimbursement pursuant to the Services Agreement, unless the indemnification, contribution, or reimbursement is approved by the Court.
- b. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Services Agreement, the Debtors shall have no obligation to indemnify Verita, or provide contribution or reimbursement to Verita, for any claim or expense that is either: (a) judicially determined (the determination having become final) to have arisen from Verita's breach of contract, gross negligence, bad faith, self-dealing, fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or willful misconduct; (b) for a contractual dispute in which the Debtors alleges the breach of Verita's contractual obligations under the Services Agreement, unless the Court determines that indemnification, contribution or reimbursement would be permissible pursuant to In re United Artists Theatre Co., 315 F.3d 217 (3d Cir. 2003); or (c) settled without the Debtors' consent prior to a judicial determination under (a) or (b) above, but determined by this Court, after notice and a hearing, to be a claim or expense for which Verita should not receive indemnity, contribution or reimbursement under the terms of the Services Agreement as modified by this Order.

- c. If, before the earlier of (i) the entry of an order confirming a chapter 11 plan in these chapter 11 cases (that order having become a final order no longer subject to appeal) and (ii) the entry of an order closing these chapter 11 cases, Verita believes that it is entitled to the payment of any amounts by the Debtors on account of the Debtors' indemnification, contribution, and/or reimbursement obligations under the Services Agreement, as modified by this Order, including, without limitation, the advancement of defense costs, Verita must file an application therefor in this Court, and the Debtors may not pay any such amounts to Verita before the entry of an order of this Court approving the payment. This subparagraph (c) is intended only to specify the period of time under which the Court shall have jurisdiction over any request for fees and expenses by Verita for indemnification contribution, and/or reimbursement and not a provision limiting the duration of the Debtors' obligation to indemnify or make contributions or reimbursements to Verita. All parties in interest shall retain the right to object to any demand by Verita for indemnification, contribution, or reimbursement.

8. Verita shall not be entitled to reimbursement by the Debtors for any fees, disbursements, or other charges of Verita's counsel other than those incurred in connection with a request of Verita for payment of indemnity subject to objection under the reasonableness standard of section 330.

9. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Application, Gershbein Declaration or the Services Agreement, Verita shall not seek reimbursement of any fees or costs arising from the defense of its fee applications in the above-captioned cases.
