SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS

(1) Claimant's property as described in 2(A) through (D) below is being held in trust by Debtor(s) and/or various agents known to Debtor(s) in such amounts known only to the Debtor(s), and is not property of the estate pursuant to 11 U.S.C. Section 541; however, if the Court determines such property to be property of the estate, Claimant is a general unsecured creditor of the estate in such amounts known only to the Debtor(s). With respect to property as described in 2(E) through 2(I) below, Claimant is a general unsecured creditor of the estate in such amounts known only to the Debtor(s).

(2) Claimant, pursuant to its unclaimed property law, is acting as conservator or custodian on behalf of the classes of persons set forth below who have failed to claim the property owing to them for the statutory period of abandonment. Accordingly, by operation of law, the State has succeeded to the claims of all such owners, except those who are no longer presumed abandoned by virtue of their having filed a claim herein.

Claimant, by virtue of its unclaimed property law, makes claim to all property described below which was presumed abandoned: (1) prior to the Debtor's filing of a Chapter 11 petition and (2) subsequent to the Debtor's filing of a Chapter 11 petition but prior to the Court's entry of a final decree approving the reorganization.

On information and belief, Claimant-State claims the property owing as follows to the persons whose last known addresses according to the books and records of the Debtor are in the Claimant-State, or if there are no such addresses, or the property is not subject to claim by the state of last known address, Claimant-State is entitled to such property if the Debtor(s) is incorporated in the Claimant-State.

- A. Owners of undelivered and underlying shares.
- B. Payees of outstanding interest payments on bonds or notes.
- C. Holders of outstanding bonds or notes.
- D. Holders of obsolete securities or securities in predecessor companies, who have not yet tendered same for consideration.
- E. Holders of unused credit balances and credit memorandums.
- F. Payees of outstanding wages, payroll, salary, and commission checks.
- G. Payees of outstanding pension and profit sharing checks.
- H. Payees of outstanding healthcare benefit payments.
- I. Payees of outstanding vendor and expense checks, as well as any other miscellaneous outstanding checks or unclaimed obligations.

(3) The documents upon which this claim is based, including information as to the dates on which the debts arose, are in the possession and control of the Debtor(s).
