12.02 Delegation of Duties. Each of the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent may perform any and all of its duties and exercise its rights and powers hereunder or under any other Credit Document by or through any one or more sub-agents appointed by the Administrative Agent and/or the Collateral Agent. The Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and any such sub-agent may perform any and all of its duties and exercise its rights and powers by or through their respective Related Parties. The exculpatory provisions of this Section 12 shall apply to any such sub-agent and to the Related Parties of the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent and any such sub-agent, and shall apply to their respective activities in connection with the syndication of the credit facilities provided for herein as well as activities as Administrative Agent and as Collateral Agent, as applicable. The Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent shall not be responsible for the negligence or misconduct of any sub-agents, except to the extent that a court of competent jurisdiction determines in a final non-appealable judgment that the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, as applicable, acted with gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct in the selection of such sub-agents.

12.03 Exculpatory Provisions. The Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent, as applicable, shall not have any duties or obligations except those expressly set forth herein and in the other Credit Documents and its duties hereunder shall be administrative in nature. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, as applicable:

(a) shall not be subject to any fiduciary or other implied duties, regardless of whether a Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing;

(b) shall not have any duty to take any discretionary action or exercise any discretionary powers, except discretionary rights and powers expressly contemplated hereby or by the other Credit Documents that the Administrative Agent and/or the Collateral Agent are required to exercise as directed in writing by the Required Lenders or the Majority Lenders, as applicable (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be expressly provided for herein or in the other Credit Documents); provided that each of the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent shall not be required to take any action that, in its opinion or the opinion of its counsel, may expose the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, as applicable, to liability or that is contrary to any Credit Document or applicable law;

(c) shall not have any duty or responsibility to disclose, and shall not be liable for the failure to disclose, any credit or other information concerning the business, prospects, operations, property, financial and other condition or creditworthiness of any of the Credit Parties or any of their Affiliates, that is communicated to, obtained or in the possession of, the Administrative Agent and/or the Collateral Agent or any of their respective Related Parties in any capacity, except for notices, reports and other documents expressly required to be furnished to the Lenders by the Administrative Agent herein;

(d) shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it (i) with the consent or at the request of the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be necessary, or as the Administrative Agent and/or the Collateral Agent shall believe in good faith shall be necessary, under the circumstances as provided in Sections 11 and 13.12) or (ii) in the absence of its own gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct, as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction and by a final and non-appealable judgment. Neither the Administrative Agent nor the Collateral Agent shall be deemed to have knowledge of any Default or Event of Default unless and until notice describing such Default or Event of Default and clearly labeled "notice of default" (or similar language) is given to the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent by the Borrower or a Lender; and

(e) shall not be responsible for or have any duty to ascertain or inquire into (i) any recital, statement, warranty or representation made in or in connection with this Agreement or any other Credit Document, (ii) the contents of any certificate, report, statement or other document delivered hereunder or thereunder or in connection herewith or therewith, (iii) the performance or observance of any of the covenants, agreements or other terms or conditions set forth herein or therein or the occurrence of any Default, (iv) the validity, enforceability, effectiveness or genuineness of this Agreement, any other Credit Document or any other agreement, instrument or document, or the creation, perfection or priority of any Lien purported to be created by the Security Documents, (v) the value or the sufficiency of any Collateral, (vi) any failure to monitor or maintain any part of the Collateral, the payment of taxes with respect to the Collateral, maintaining or preserving insurance on (including any flood insurance or for determining whether any flood insurance is or should be obtained with respect to the Collateral), or (vii) the satisfaction of any condition set forth in Section 6 or elsewhere herein, other than to confirm receipt of items expressly required to be delivered to the Administrative Agent and/or the Collateral Agent.

For purposes of clarity, and without limiting any rights, protections, immunities or indemnities afforded to the Agents herein and in any other Credit Documents (including without limitation this Section 12), phrases such as "satisfactory to the Administrative Agent," "approved by the Administrative Agent," "acceptable to the Administrative Agent," "as determined by the Administrative Agent," "in the Administrative Agent's discretion," "selected by the Administrative Agent," "elected by the Administrative Agent," "requested by the Administrative Agent," "satisfactory to the Collateral Agent," "approved by the Collateral Agent," "acceptable to the Collateral Agent," "as determined by the Collateral Agent," "in the Collateral Agent's discretion," "selected by the Collateral Agent," "elected by the Collateral Agent," "requested by the Collateral Agent," and phrases of similar import that authorize and permit the Agents to approve, disapprove, determine, act or decline to act in their discretion shall be subject to the Agents receiving Direction of the Majority Lenders or Direction of the Required Lenders, as applicable, to take such action or to exercise such rights.

12.04 Reliance by Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent. Each of the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to rely upon, and shall not incur any liability for relying upon, any notice, request, certificate, consent, statement, instrument, document or other writing (including any electronic message, Internet or intranet website posting or other distribution) believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed, sent or otherwise authenticated by the proper Person. Each of the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent also may rely upon any statement made to it orally or by telephone and believed by it to have been made by the proper Person, and shall not incur any liability for relying thereon. In determining compliance with any condition hereunder to the making of a Loan, that by its terms must be fulfilled to the satisfaction of a Lender, the Administrative Agent may presume that such condition is satisfactory to such Lender unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice to the contrary from such Lender prior to the making of such Loan. The Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent may consult with legal counsel (who may be counsel for the Borrower), independent accountants and other experts selected by it, and shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it in accordance with the advice of any such counsel, accountants or experts.

12.05 Reserved.

12.06 Non-reliance on the Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent and the Other Lenders.

(a) Each Lender expressly acknowledges that none of the Administrative Agent nor the Collateral Agent has made any representation or warranty to it, and that no act by the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent hereafter taken, including any consent to, and acceptance of any assignment or review of the affairs of any Credit Party of any Affiliate thereof, shall be deemed to constitute any representation or warranty by the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent to any Lender as to any matter, including whether the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent have disclosed material information in their (or their Related Parties') possession. Each Lender represents to the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent that it has, independently and without reliance upon the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any other Lender or any of their respective Related Parties and based on such documents and information as it has deemed appropriate, made its own credit analysis of, appraisal of, and investigation into, the business, prospects, operations, property, financial and other condition and creditworthiness of the Credit Parties and their Subsidiaries, and all applicable bank or other regulatory laws relating to the transactions contemplated hereby, and made its own decision to enter into this Agreement and to extend credit to the Borrower hereunder. Each Lender also acknowledges that it will, independently and without reliance upon the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any other Lender or any of their respective Related Parties and based on such documents and information as it shall from time to time deem appropriate, continue to make its own credit analysis, appraisals and decisions in taking or not taking action under or based upon this Agreement, any other Credit Document or any related agreement or any document furnished hereunder or thereunder, and to make such investigations as it deems necessary to inform itself as to the business, prospects, operations, property, financial and other condition and creditworthiness of the Credit Parties. Each Lender represents and warrants that (i) the Credit Documents set forth the terms of a commercial lending facility, (ii) it is engaged in making, acquiring or holding commercial loans and in providing other facilities set forth herein as may be applicable to such Lender, in each case in the ordinary course of business, and not for the purpose of purchasing, acquiring or holding any other type of financial instrument (and each Lender agrees not to assert a claim in contravention of the foregoing) and (iii) it is sophisticated with respect to decisions to make, acquire and/or hold commercial loans and to provide other facilities set forth herein, as may be applicable to such Lender, and either it, or the Person exercising discretion in making its decision to make, acquire and/or hold such commercial loans or to provide such other facilities, is experienced in making, acquiring or holding such commercial loans or providing such other facilities.

(b) The Administrative Agent hereby informs the Lenders that each such Person is not undertaking to provide investment advice or to give advice in a fiduciary capacity, in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby, and that such Person has a financial interest in the transactions contemplated hereby in that such Person or an Affiliate thereof (i) may receive interest or other payments with respect to the Loans, the Commitments, this Agreement and any other Credit Documents (ii) may recognize a gain if it extended the Loans, or the Commitments for an amount less than the amount being paid for an interest in the Loans or the Commitments by such Lender or (iii) may receive fees or other payments in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby, the Credit Documents or otherwise, including structuring fees, commitment fees, arrangement fees, facility fees, upfront fees, underwriting fees, ticking fees, agency fees, administrative agent or collateral agent fees, utilization fees, minimum usage fees, letter of credit fees, fronting fees, deal-away or alternate transaction fees, amendment fees, processing fees, term out premiums, banker's acceptance fees, breakage or other early termination fees or fees similar to the foregoing.

12.07 Indemnification by the Lenders. Whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated, the Lenders shall indemnify upon demand each Agent Party (to the extent not reimbursed by or on behalf of any Credit Party and without limiting the obligation of any Credit Party to do so), pro rata, and hold harmless each Agent Party from and against any and all liabilities to the extent incurred by it; provided that no Lender shall be liable for the payment to an Agent Party to the extent such liability resulted from such Agent Party's own gross negligence or willful misconduct, as determined by the final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction; provided that no action taken in accordance with the directions of the Required Lenders or the Majority Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be required by the Credit Documents) shall be deemed to constitute gross negligence or willful misconduct for purposes of this Section 12.07. In the case of any investigation, litigation or proceeding giving rise to any liabilities hereunder, this Section 12.07 applies whether any such investigation, litigation or proceeding is brought by any Lender or any other Person. Without limitation of the foregoing, each Lender shall reimburse each Agent Party upon demand for its ratable share of any costs or out of pocket expenses incurred by such Agent Party in connection with the preparation, execution, delivery, administration, modification, amendment or enforcement (whether through negotiations, legal proceedings or otherwise) of, or legal advice in respect of rights or responsibilities under, this Agreement, any other Credit Document, or any document contemplated by or referred to herein, to the extent that such Agent Party is not reimbursed for such expenses by or on behalf of the Borrower; provided that such reimbursement by the Lenders shall not affect the Borrower's continuing reimbursement obligations with respect thereto, if any. The undertakings in this Section 12.07 shall survive the termination of this Agreement and the resignation or removal of the Administrative Agent.

12.08 Rights as a Lender. The Person serving as the Administrative Agent hereunder, to the extent such Person is a Lender, shall have the same rights and powers in its capacity as a Lender as any other Lender and may exercise the same as though it were not the Administrative Agent and the term "Lender" or "Lenders" shall, unless otherwise expressly indicated or unless the context otherwise requires, include the Person serving as the Administrative Agent hereunder in its individual capacity. Such Person and its Affiliates may accept deposits from, lend money to, own securities of, act as the financial advisor or in any other advisory capacity for and generally engage in any kind of business with the Borrower or any Subsidiary or other Affiliate thereof as if such Person were not the Administrative Agent hereunder and without any duty to account therefor to the Lenders.

12.09 Administrative Agent May File Proofs of Claim; Credit Bidding. In case of the pendency of any case or proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law or any other judicial proceeding relative to any Credit Party, the Administrative Agent (irrespective of whether the principal of any Loan shall then be due and payable as herein expressed or by declaration or otherwise and irrespective of whether the Administrative Agent shall have made any demand on the Borrower) shall be entitled and empowered, by intervention in such proceeding or otherwise:

(a) to file and prove a claim for the whole amount of the principal and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Loans and all other Obligations that are owing and unpaid and to file such other documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Lenders and the Administrative Agent (including any claim for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Lenders and the Administrative Agent and their respective agents and counsel and all other amounts due the Lenders and the Administrative Agent under Sections 4.01 and 13.01) allowed in such judicial proceeding; and

(b) to collect and receive any monies or other property payable or deliverable on any such claims and to distribute the same;

and any custodian, receiver, assignee, trustee, liquidator, sequestrator, debtor, debtor-in-possession, or other similar official in any such judicial proceeding is hereby authorized by each Lender to make such payments to the Administrative Agent and, if the Administrative Agent shall consent to the making of such payments directly to the Lenders to pay to the Administrative Agent any amount due for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Administrative Agent and its agents and counsel, and any other amounts due the Administrative Agent under Sections 4.01 and 13.01.

Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to authorize the Administrative Agent to authorize or consent to or accept or adopt on behalf of any Lender any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition or similar dispositive restructuring plan affecting the Obligations or the rights of any Lender to authorize the Administrative Agent to vote in respect of the claim of any Lender in any such case or proceeding.

The Secured Creditors hereby irrevocably authorize the Administrative Agent, at the direction of the Required Lenders, to (subject to the USS ABL Intercreditor Agreement and the USS Revolver Intercreditor Agreement) credit bid all or any portion of the Obligations (including accepting some or all of the Collateral in satisfaction of some or all of the Obligations pursuant to a deed in lieu of foreclosure or otherwise) and in such manner purchase (either directly or through one or more acquisition vehicles) all or any portion of the Collateral (a) at any sale thereof conducted under the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, including under Sections 363, 1123 or 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, or any comparable provisions of any other applicable Debtor Relief Laws or any similar laws in any other jurisdictions to which a Credit Party is subject or (b) at any other sale or foreclosure or acceptance of collateral in lieu of debt conducted by (or with the consent or at the direction of) the Administrative Agent (whether by judicial action or otherwise) in accordance with any applicable law. In connection with any such credit bid and purchase, the Obligations owed to the Secured Creditors shall be entitled to be, and shall be, credit bid on a ratable basis (with Obligations with respect to contingent or unliquidated claims receiving contingent interests in the acquired assets on a ratable basis that would vest upon the liquidation of such claims in an amount proportional to the liquidated portion of the contingent claim amount used in allocating the contingent interests) in the asset or assets so purchased (or in the Equity Interests or debt instruments of the acquisition vehicle or vehicles that are used to consummate such purchase). In connection with any such bid (i) the Administrative Agent shall be authorized to form one or more acquisition vehicles to make a bid, (ii) the Administrative Agent shall be authorized to adopt documents providing for the governance of the acquisition vehicle or vehicles (provided that any actions by the Administrative Agent with respect to such acquisition vehicle or vehicles, including any disposition of the assets or Equity Interests thereof shall be governed, directly or indirectly, by the vote of the Required Lenders, irrespective of the termination of this Agreement and without giving effect to the limitations on actions by the Required Lenders contained in clauses (a)(i) through (a)(v) of Section 13.12 of this Agreement), and (iii) to the extent that Obligations that are assigned to an acquisition vehicle are not used to acquire Collateral for any reason (as a result of another bid being higher or better, because the amount of Obligations assigned to the acquisition vehicle exceeds the amount of debt credit bid by the acquisition vehicle or otherwise), such Obligations shall automatically be reassigned to the Lenders pro rata and the Equity Interests and/or debt instruments issued by any acquisition vehicle on account of the Obligations that had been assigned to the acquisition vehicle shall automatically be cancelled, without the need for any Secured Creditor or any acquisition vehicle to take any further action.

12.10 Resignation of the Agents. Each of the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent may resign as the Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent, as applicable, upon thirty (30) days' written notice to the Lenders and the Borrower; provided that, if at the time of such resignation, there is a successor Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent, as applicable, satisfactory to each of the resigning Agent, the incoming Agent and the Borrower, each, in its sole discretion, then the resigning Agent, the incoming Agent and the Borrower may agree to waive or shorten the thirty (30) day notice period. Upon receipt of any such notice of resignation, the Required Lenders shall have the right, with the Borrower's consent (other than during the existence of an Event of Default under Section 11.01 or 11.05), to appoint a successor, which shall be a bank or, with the prior written consent of the Borrower, other financial institution with an office in the United States, or an Affiliate of any such bank or financial institution with an office in the United States. If no such successor shall have been so appointed by the Required Lenders (and consented to by the Borrower, to the extent so required) and shall have accepted such appointment within thirty (30) days after the retiring Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent gives notice of its resignation, then the retiring Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent may, with the Borrower's consent (other than during the existence of an Event of Default under Section 11.01 or 11.05), on behalf of the Lenders, appoint a successor Administrative Agent or successor Collateral Agent, as applicable, but is under no obligation to, in each case meeting the qualifications set forth above; provided that if the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent shall notify the Borrower and the Lenders that no qualifying Person has accepted such appointment within such period, then such resignation shall nonetheless become effective in accordance with such notice and (a) the retiring Administrative Agent or retiring Collateral Agent, as applicable, shall be discharged from its duties and obligations hereunder and under the other Credit Documents (except that in the case of any collateral security held by the Collateral Agent on behalf of the Lenders under any of the Credit Documents, the retiring Collateral Agent shall continue to hold such collateral security solely for purposes of maintaining the Secured Creditors' security interest thereon until such time as a successor Collateral Agent is appointed) and (b) all payments, communications and determinations provided to be made by, to or through the Administrative Agent shall instead be made by or to each Lender directly, until such time as the Required Lenders (with the consent of the Borrower, to the extent so required) appoint a successor Administrative Agent as provided for above in this Section 12.10. Upon the acceptance of a successor's appointment as Administrative Agent or as Collateral Agent hereunder, such successor shall succeed to and become vested with all of the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring (or retired) Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent, as applicable, and the retiring Administrative Agent or retiring Collateral Agent, as applicable, shall be discharged from all of its duties and obligations hereunder or under the other

Credit Documents (if not already discharged therefrom as provided above in this Section). After the retiring Administrative Agent's or retiring Collateral Agent's resignation hereunder and under the other Credit Documents, the provisions of this Section 12 and Section 13.01 shall continue in effect for the benefit of such retiring Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent, as applicable, its sub-agents and their respective Related Parties in respect of any actions taken or omitted to be taken by any of them while the retiring Administrative Agent was acting as Administrative Agent (including for this purpose, holding any collateral security following the retirement or removal of the Administrative Agent).

12.11 Collateral Matters and Guaranty Matters. Each of the Lenders (including in its capacity as a potential Guaranteed Creditor under a Designated Interest Rate Protection Agreement or Designated Treasury Services Agreement) irrevocably authorizes the Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent, as applicable (and subject to the provisions of the USS ABL Intercreditor Agreement, the USS Revolver Intercreditor Agreement, the First Lien Intercompany Intercreditor Agreement and any Junior Lien Intercreditor Agreement):

(i) to release, and to evidence the automatic release of, any Lien on any property granted to or held by the Collateral Agent under any Credit Document (A) upon termination of the Commitments and payment in full of all Obligations (other than (x) contingent indemnification obligations and (y) obligations and liabilities under Designated Interest Rate Protection Agreements and Designated Treasury Services Agreements), (B) that is sold or disposed of or to be sold or disposed of as part of or in connection with any sale or other disposition permitted hereunder or under any other Credit Document to a Person that is not a Credit Party or Subsidiary thereof, (C) that constitutes Excluded Collateral, (D) if the property subject to such Lien is owned by a Group Guarantor, subject to Section 13.12, upon release of such Group Guarantor from its obligations under the Guaranty Agreement pursuant to clause (ii) below or (E) if approved, authorized or ratified in writing in accordance with Section 13.12;

(ii) to release any Group Guarantor from its obligations under the Guaranty Agreement if such Person ceases to be a Group Member or becomes an Excluded Subsidiary as a result of a transaction permitted hereunder (including, for the avoidance of doubt, to the extent that the Intercompany Cayman Borrower and/or the Intercompany Cayman Holdings shall constitute Excluded Subsidiaries after giving effect to a Permitted Tax Restructuring); provided that in the case of any such Group Guarantor that becomes an Excluded Subsidiary solely as a result of becoming a non-Wholly-Owned Subsidiary, such Group Guarantor shall only be released from its obligations under this Agreement or the Guaranty Agreement, as applicable, pursuant to this clause (ii) if such Group Member became a non-Wholly-Owned Subsidiary pursuant to a transaction where such Subsidiary becomes a bona fide joint venture where the other Person taking an equity interest in such Subsidiary is not an Affiliate of Holdings (other than as a result of such joint venture);

(iii) to release or subordinate any Lien on any property granted to or held by the Collateral Agent under any Credit Document to the holder of any Lien on such property that is permitted by Sections 10.01(iv)(B) (solely with respect to subordination (and not release) of Liens granted to or held by the Collateral Agent on any ABL

Collateral), (vi) or (xiv), and to execute and/or deliver documents to evidence the release or non-existence of, any Lien securing the Obligations upon any Excluded Collateral; and

(iv) to enter into the USS Revolver Intercreditor Agreement, any Junior Lien Intercreditor Agreement, the First Lien Intercompany Intercreditor Agreement and the USS ABL Intercreditor Agreement.

Upon request by the Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent at any time, the Majority Lenders will confirm in writing the Administrative Agent's and Collateral Agent's authority to release or subordinate its interest in particular types or items of property, to provide that its interests in particular types or items of property are equal to the interests of any other Person or to release any Guarantor from its obligations under the Guaranty pursuant to this Section 12.11. In each case as specified in this Section 12.11, the Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent will (and each Lender irrevocably authorizes the Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent to), at the Borrower's expense, execute and deliver to the applicable Credit Party such documents, including termination or partial release statements, as such Credit Party may reasonably request to evidence the release of such item of Collateral from the assignment and security interest granted under the Security Documents, to subordinate its interest in such item or to provide its interests are equal to the interests of any other Person, or to release such Guarantor from its obligations under the Guaranty, in each case in accordance with the terms of the Credit Documents and this Section 12.11.

The Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent shall not be responsible for or have a duty to ascertain or inquire into any representation or warranty regarding the existence, value or collectability of the Collateral, the existence, priority or perfection of the Administrative Agent's and Collateral Agent's Lien thereon, or any certificate prepared by any Credit Party in connection therewith, nor shall the Administrative Agent be responsible or liable to the Lenders for any failure to monitor or maintain any portion of the Collateral.

Without limitation of the operation of the releases described above or in any Security Document, a certificate of a Responsible Officer delivered either at the request of the Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent or at the option of the Borrower, in either case, to the Administrative Agent or Collateral with respect to any release described in this Section 12.11 stating that the Borrower has determined in good faith that such release satisfies the foregoing requirements shall be conclusive evidence that such release satisfies the foregoing requirement and such automatic release has occurred (and the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent will rely conclusively on such certificate without further inquiry), and the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent shall promptly execute and deliver all documentation evidencing such release and requested by the Borrower.

12.12 Designated Interest Rate Protection Agreements and Designated Treasury Services Agreements. No Guaranteed Creditor that is a counterparty to a Designated Interest Rate Protection Agreement or Designated Treasury Services Agreement, in its capacity as such, that obtains the benefits of any Guaranty or any Collateral by virtue of the provisions hereof or of any Guaranty or any Security Document shall have any right to notice of any action or to consent to, direct or object to any action hereunder or under any other Credit Document or otherwise in respect of the Collateral (including the release or impairment of any Collateral) other than in its capacity as an Agent or a Lender and, in such case, only to the extent expressly provided in the Credit Documents. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 12.12 to the contrary, the Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent shall not be required to verify the payment of, or that other satisfactory arrangements have been made with respect to, Obligations arising under Designated Interest Rate Protection Agreements and Designated Treasury Services Agreements unless the Administrative Agent has received written notice of such Obligations, together with such supporting documentation as the Administrative Agent may request, from the applicable Guaranteed Creditor. Each Guaranteed Creditor that is a counterparty to a Designated Interest Rate Protection Agreement or Designated Treasury Services Agreement, in its capacity as such, agrees to be bound by this Section 12 to the same extent as a Lender hereunder.

12.13 Withholding Taxes. To the extent required by any applicable Requirements of Law, the Administrative Agent may withhold from any payment to any Lender an amount equivalent to any applicable withholding Tax. If the Internal Revenue Service or any other relevant Governmental Authority of the United States or other jurisdiction asserts a claim that the Administrative Agent did not properly withhold Tax from amounts paid to or for the account of any Lender for any reason (including, because the appropriate documentation was not delivered or not properly executed, or because such Lender failed to notify the Administrative Agent of a change in circumstance that rendered the exemption from, or reduction of, withholding Tax ineffective), such Lender shall, within ten (10) days after written demand therefor, indemnify and hold harmless the Administrative Agent (to the extent that the Administrative Agent has not already been reimbursed by any Credit Party pursuant to Section 5.05 and without limiting or expanding the obligation of any Credit Party to do so) for such Tax, together with all reasonable expenses incurred in connection therewith, including legal expenses and any other out-of-pocket expenses, whether or not such Tax was correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to any Lender by the Administrative Agent shall be conclusive absent manifest error. Each Lender hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent to set off and apply all amounts at any time owing to such Lender under this Agreement, any other Credit Document or from any other sources against any amount due to the Administrative Agent under this Section 12.13. The agreements in this Section 12.13 shall survive the resignation and/or replacement of the Administrative Agent, any assignment of rights by, or the replacement of, a Lender and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all other Obligations.

12.14 Certain ERISA Matters.

(a) Each Lender (x) represents and warrants, as of the date such Person became a Lender party hereto, to, and (y) covenants, from the date such Person became a Lender party hereto to the date such Person ceases being a Lender party hereto, for the benefit of, the Administrative Agent and its respective Affiliates, and not, for the avoidance of doubt, to or for the benefit of the Borrower or any other Credit Party, that at least one of the following is and will be true:

(i) such Lender is not using "plan assets" (within the meaning of Section 3(42) of ERISA or otherwise) of one or more Benefit Plans with respect to such Lender's entrance into, participation in, administration of and performance of the Loans, the Commitments or this Agreement,

(ii) the transaction exemption set forth in one or more PTEs, such as PTE 84-14 (a class exemption for certain transactions determined by independent qualified professional asset managers), PTE 95-60 (a class exemption for certain transactions involving insurance company general accounts), PTE 90-1 (a class exemption for certain transactions involving insurance company pooled separate accounts), PTE 91-38 (a class exemption for certain transactions involving bank collective investment funds) or PTE 96-23 (a class exemption for certain transactions determined by in-house asset managers), is applicable with respect to such Lender's entrance into, participation in, administration of and performance of the Loans, the Commitments and this Agreement,

(iii) (A) such Lender is an investment fund managed by a "Qualified Professional Asset Manager" (within the meaning of Part VI of PTE 84-14), (B) such Qualified Professional Asset Manager made the investment decision on behalf of such Lender to enter into, participate in, administer and perform the Loans, the Commitments and this Agreement, (C) the entrance into, participation in, administration of and performance of the Loans, the Commitments and this Agreement satisfies the requirements of sub-sections (b) through (g) of Part I of PTE 84-14 and (D) to the best knowledge of such Lender, the requirements of subsection (a) of Part I of PTE 84-14 are satisfied with respect to such Lender's entrance into, participation in, administration of and performance of the Loans, the Commitments and this Agreement, or

(iv) such other representation, warranty and covenant as may be agreed in writing between the Administrative Agent, in its sole discretion, and such Lender.

(b) In addition, unless either (1) sub-clause (i) in the immediately preceding clause (a) is true with respect to a Lender or (2) a Lender has provided another representation, warranty and covenant in accordance with sub-clause (iv) in the immediately preceding clause (a), such Lender further (x) represents and warrants, as of the date such Person became a Lender party hereto, to, and (y) covenants, from the date such Person became a Lender party hereto to the date such Person ceases being a Lender party hereto, for the benefit of, the Administrative Agent and its respective Affiliates, and not, for the avoidance of doubt, to or for the benefit of the Borrower or any other Credit Party, that none of the Administrative Agent or any of its respective Affiliates is a fiduciary with respect to the assets of such Lender involved in such Lender's entrance into, participation in, administration of and performance of the Loans, the Commitments and this Agreement (including in connection with the reservation or exercise of any rights by the Administrative Agent under this Agreement, any Credit Document or any documents related hereto or thereto).

12.15 Recovery of Erroneous Payments.

(a) Without limitation of any other provision in this Agreement, if at any time the Administrative Agent makes a payment hereunder in error (any such funds, whether as a payment, prepayment or repayment of principal, interest, fees or otherwise, individually and collectively, an "Erroneous Payment") to any Lender (the "Recipient Party"), whether or not in respect of an Obligation due and owing by the Borrower at such time, then in any such event, each Recipient Party receiving an Erroneous Payment severally agrees to repay to the Administrative Agent forthwith on demand the Erroneous Payment (or the demanded portion thereof) received by such

Recipient Party in immediately available funds in the currency so received, with interest thereon, for each day from and including the date such Erroneous Payment is received by it to but excluding the date of payment to the Administrative Agent, at the greater of the Federal Funds Effective Rate and a rate determined by the Administrative Agent in accordance with banking industry rules on interbank compensation. Each Recipient Party irrevocably waives any and all defenses, including any "discharge for value" (under which a creditor might otherwise claim a right to retain funds mistakenly paid by a third party in respect of a debt owed by another) or similar defense to its obligation to return any Erroneous Payment. The Administrative Agent shall inform each Recipient Party promptly upon determining that any payment made to such Recipient Party comprised, in whole or in part, an Erroneous Payment.

(b) Without limiting the immediately preceding clause (a), each Lender hereby further agrees that if it (or an Recipient Party on its behalf) receives a payment from the Administrative Agent (x) in a different amount or on a different date than the amount or date specified in a notice of payment sent by the Administrative Agent with respect to such payment, (y) that was not preceded or accompanied by a notice of payment sent by the Administrative Agent, or (z) that Lender (or Recipient Party on its behalf) otherwise becomes aware was transmitted, or received, in error or by mistake (in whole or in part) then, in each case, such Lender shall presume that an error has been made (absent written confirmation from the Administrative Agent) and shall promptly (and, in all events, within one (1) Business Day of its knowledge of such error) notify the Administrative Agent of its receipt of such payment, the details thereof and that it is so notifying the Administrative Agent pursuant to this Section 12.15(b).

(c) Each Recipient Party hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent to set off, net and apply any amounts at any time owing to such Recipient Party under any Credit Document against any amount due to the Administrative Agent under the preceding clause (a).

(d) The Borrower and each other Credit Party hereby agrees that (i) in the event an Erroneous Payment (or portion thereof) is not recovered from any Recipient Party (and without limiting the Administrative Agent's rights and remedies under this Section 12.15), the Administrative Agent shall be subrogated to all the rights of such Recipient Party with respect to such amount (such rights, the "Erroneous Payment Subrogation Rights") and (ii) an Erroneous Payment shall not pay, prepay, repay, discharge or otherwise satisfy any Obligations owed by the Borrower or any other Credit Party. If the amount of any Erroneous Payment is subsequently recovered by the Administrative Agent or its Affiliates, the Administrative Agent or such Affiliate shall return to the applicable Recipient Party either (x) the Loans acquired pursuant to this clause (d) or (y) if applicable, the proceeds of such Loans. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, and for the avoidance of doubt, in no event shall the occurrence of an Erroneous Payment (or any Erroneous Payment Subrogation Rights or other rights of the Administrative Agent in respect of an Erroneous Payment) result in the Administrative Agent becoming or being deemed to be a Lender hereunder or the holder of any Loans hereunder.

(e) In addition to any rights and remedies of the Administrative Agent provided by law, the Administrative Agent shall have the right, without prior notice to any Lender, any such notice being expressly waived by such Lender to the extent permitted by applicable law, with respect to any Erroneous Payment for which a demand has been made in accordance with this Section 12.15 and which has not been returned to the Administrative Agent, to set off and appropriate and apply against such amount any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final but excluding trust accounts), in any currency, and any other credits, indebtedness or claims, in any currency, in each case whether direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, matured or unmatured, at any time held or owing by the Administrative Agent or any Affiliate, branch or agency thereof to or for the credit or the account of such Lender. The Administrative Agent agrees to promptly notify the Lender after any such setoff and application made by the Administrative Agent; provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of such setoff and application.

To the extent that the undertaking to indemnify, pay or hold harmless any Agent or any Lender or other Indemnified Person set forth in the preceding sentence may be unenforceable because it violates any law or public policy, the Credit Parties shall make the maximum contribution to the payment and satisfaction of each of the indemnified liabilities which is permissible under applicable law.

(b) No Agent or any Indemnified Person shall be responsible or liable to any Credit Party or any other Person for any determination made by it pursuant to this Agreement or any other Credit Document in the absence of gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct on the part of such Indemnified Person (in each case, as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final and non-appealable judgment).

(c) To the extent permitted by applicable law, (i) the Credit Parties shall not assert, and each Credit Party hereby waives any claim against each Agent, the Fronting Lender, each Lender and their respective Affiliates, and the partners, shareholders, officers, directors, employees, agents, trustees, representatives and investment advisors of each of the foregoing, in each case, together with their respective successors and assigns for any damages arising from the use by others of information or other materials obtained through electronic, telecommunications or other information transmission systems and (ii) no party hereto (and no Indemnified Person or any Subsidiary or Affiliate of Holdings or the Borrower) shall be responsible to any other party hereto (or any Indemnified Person or any Subsidiary or Affiliate of Holdings or the Borrower) for any indirect, special, exemplary, incidental, punitive or consequential damages (including, any loss of profits, business or anticipated savings) which may be alleged as a result of this Agreement or any other Credit Document or the financing contemplated hereby; provided that nothing in this Section 13.01(c) shall limit the Credit Parties' indemnity obligations to the extent such indirect, special, punitive or consequential damages are included in any claim by a third party unaffiliated with any Indemnified Person with respect to which the applicable Indemnified Person is entitled to indemnification under Section 13.01(a).

13.02 Right of Setoff. In addition to any rights now or hereafter granted under applicable law or otherwise, and not by way of limitation of any such rights, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, each Lender and each Guaranteed Creditor is hereby authorized at any time or from time to time, without presentment, demand, protest or other notice of any kind to any Credit Party or to any other Person, any such notice being hereby expressly waived, to set off and to appropriate and apply any and all deposits (general or special) (other than accounts used exclusively for payroll, payroll taxes, fiduciary and trust purposes, and employee benefits and other than any Excluded Collateral) and any other Indebtedness at any time held or owing by the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, such Lender or such Guaranteed Creditor (including, by branches and agencies of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, such Lender or such Guaranteed Creditor wherever located) to or for the credit or the account of the Borrower or any other Group Member against and on account of the Obligations and liabilities of the Credit Parties to the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, such Lender or such Guaranteed Creditor under this Agreement or under any of the other Credit Documents, including all interests in Obligations purchased by such Lender or such Guaranteed Creditor pursuant to Section 13.06(b), and all other claims of any nature or description arising out of or connected with this Agreement or any other Credit Document, irrespective of whether or not the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, such Lender or such Guaranteed Creditor shall have made any demand hereunder and although said Obligations, liabilities or claims, or any of them, shall be contingent or unmatured. (i) if to any Credit Party, the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, to the address, facsimile number, electronic mail address or telephone number specified for such Person on Schedule 13.03 or such other address as shall be designated by such party in a written notice to the other parties hereto; and

(ii) if to any Lender, at its address specified in its Administrative Questionnaire (including, as appropriate, notices delivered solely to the Person designated by a Lender on its Administrative Questionnaire then in effect for the delivery of notices that may contain material non-public information relating to the Borrower) or at such other address as shall be designated by such Lender in a written notice to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent.

All such notices and communications shall, when mailed or overnight courier, be effective when deposited in the mail, or overnight courier, as the case may be, or sent by facsimile or other electronic means of transmission, except that notices and communications to the Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent and the Borrower shall not be effective until received by the Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent or Borrower, as the case may be.

Each of the Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent, the Borrower or Holdings may, in its discretion, agree to accept notices and other communications to it hereunder by electronic communications pursuant to procedures approved by it; provided that approval of such procedures may be limited to particular notices or communications.

(c) (i) Notices and other communications sent to an e-mail address shall be deemed received upon the sender's receipt of an acknowledgement from the intended recipient (such as by the "return receipt requested" function, as available, return e-mail or other written acknowledgement), and (ii) notices or communications posted to an Internet or intranet website shall be deemed received upon the deemed receipt by the intended recipient, at its e-mail address as described in the foregoing clause (i) of notification that such notice or communication is available and identifying the website address therefor; provided that, for both clauses (i) and (ii), if such notice, email or other communication is not sent during the normal business hours of the recipient, such notice, email or communication shall be deemed to have been sent at the opening of business on the next business day for the recipient.

(d) THE PLATFORM IS PROVIDED "AS IS" AND "AS AVAILABLE." THE AGENT PARTIES (AS DEFINED BELOW) DO NOT WARRANT THE ACCURACY OR COMPLETENESS OF ANY BORROWER MATERIALS OR THE ADEQUACY OF THE PLATFORM, AND EXPRESSLY DISCLAIM LIABILITY FOR ERRORS IN OR OMISSIONS FROM ANY BORROWER MATERIALS. NO WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY, INCLUDING ANY WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, NON-INFRINGEMENT OF THIRD-PARTY RIGHTS OR FREEDOM FROM VIRUSES OR OTHER CODE DEFECTS, IS MADE BY ANY AGENT PARTY IN CONNECTION WITH ANY BORROWER MATERIALS OR THE PLATFORM. In no event shall each of the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent or any of its Related Parties (collectively, the "Agent Parties") have any liability to Holdings, the Borrower, the Group Guarantors, any Lender or any other Person for losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses of any kind (whether in tort, contract or otherwise) arising out of the Borrower's, any Credit Party's or the Administrative Agent's transmission of the Borrower Materials or notices through the Platform, any other electronic messaging service, or through the Internet, in the absence of gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct of any Agent Party, as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction and by a final and non-appealable judgment.

13.04 Benefit of Agreement; Assignments; Participations, etc.

(a) The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, except that (i) the Borrower may not assign or otherwise transfer any of their rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent (acting at the Direction of the Required Lenders) and each Lender (and any attempted assignment or transfer by the Borrower without such consent shall be null and void), except as contemplated by Section 10.02(vi) and (ii) no Lender may assign or otherwise transfer its rights or obligations hereunder except in accordance with this Section 13.04. Any assignment or transfer by a Lender of rights or obligations under this Agreement that does not comply with this Section 13.04 shall be treated for purposes of this Agreement as a sale by such Lender of a participation in such rights and obligations in accordance with clause (c) below. Nothing in this Agreement, expressed or implied, shall be construed to confer upon any Person (other than the parties hereto, their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, Participants (to the extent provided in paragraph (c) of this Section) and, to the extent expressly contemplated hereby, the Related Parties of each of the Administrative Agent and the Lenders) any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under or by reason of this Agreement.

(b) (i) Subject to the conditions set forth in paragraph (b)(ii) below, any Lender may assign to one or more Eligible Transferees all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitments and Loans at the time owing to it) with the prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) of:

(A) the Borrower; provided that, the Borrower shall be deemed to have consented to an assignment of Term Loans or Term Loan Commitments unless it shall have objected thereto by written notice to the Administrative Agent within ten (10) Business Days after having received notice thereof; provided that no consent of the Borrower shall be required (x) with respect to Term Loans or Term Loan Commitments, for an assignment to a Term Lender, an Affiliate of a Term Lender or an Approved Fund, (y) if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing under Section 11.01 or 11.05, any other Eligible Transferee or (z) for assignment by the Fronting Lender pursuant to the Fronting Arrangement; and

(B) the Administrative Agent; provided that no consent of the Administrative Agent shall be required (x) with respect to Term Loans or Term Loan Commitments, for an assignment to a Term Lender, an Affiliate of a Term Lender or an Approved Fund or (y) for assignment by the Fronting Lender pursuant to the Fronting Arrangement;

(ii) Assignments shall be subject to the following additional conditions:

(A) except in the case of assignments (I) by the Fronting Lender pursuant to the Fronting Arrangement, (II) to a Lender or an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund or (III) an assignment of the entire remaining amount of the assigning Lender's Commitment or Loans of any Tranche, the amount of the Commitment or Loans of the assigning Lender subject to each such assignment (determined as of the date the Assignment and Assumption Agreement with respect to such assignment is delivered to the Administrative Agent) shall not be less than $1,000,000 in the case of Term Loans, unless each of the Borrower and the Administrative Agent otherwise consent; provided that no such consent of the Borrower shall be required if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing under Section 11.01 or 11.05;

(B) except in the case of assignments by the Fronting Lender pursuant to the Fronting Arrangement, each partial assignment shall be made as an assignment of a proportionate part of all the assigning Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement; provided that this clause shall not be construed to prohibit the assignment of a proportionate part of all the assigning Lender's rights and obligations in respect of one Tranche of Commitments or Loans;

(C) the parties to each assignment shall execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent (x) an Assignment and Assumption Agreement or (y) to the extent applicable, an agreement incorporating an Assignment and Assumption Agreement by reference pursuant to a Platform as to which the Administrative Agent and the parties to the Assignment and Assumption Agreement are participants, together with the payment by the assignee of a processing and recordation fee of $3,500; provided, that, such fee shall be waived in connection with any assignment of Initial Term Loans by the Fronting Lender; and

(D) the assignee, if it shall not be a Lender, shall deliver to the Administrative Agent an Administrative Questionnaire in which the assignee designates one or more credit contacts to whom all syndicate-level information (which may contain material non-public information about the Credit Parties and their related parties or their respective securities) will be made available and who may receive such information in accordance with the assignee's compliance procedures and applicable laws, including Federal and state securities laws.

(iii) Subject to acceptance and recording thereof pursuant to clause (b)(iv) below, from and after the effective date specified in each Assignment and Assumption Agreement the assignee thereunder shall be a party hereto and, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Assumption Agreement, have the rights and obligations of a Lender under this Agreement, and the assigning Lender thereunder shall, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Assumption Agreement, be released from its obligations under this Agreement (and, in the case of an Assignment and Assumption Agreement covering all of the assigning Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement, such Lender shall cease to be a party hereto but shall continue to be entitled to the benefits of Sections 2.10, 5.05 and 13.01). Any assignment or transfer by a Lender of rights or obligations under this Agreement that does not comply with this Section 13.04 shall be treated for purposes of this Agreement as a sale by such Lender of a participation in such rights and obligations in accordance with clause (c) below.

(iv) The Administrative Agent, acting solely for this purpose as a non-fiduciary agent of the Borrower, shall maintain at one of its offices a copy of each Assignment and Assumption Agreement delivered to it and a register for the recordation of the names and addresses of the Lenders, and the Commitment of, and principal amount (and related interest amounts) of the Loans owing to, each Lender pursuant to the terms hereof from time to time (the "Register"). The entries in the Register shall be conclusive absent manifest error, and the Borrower, the Administrative Agent and the Lenders shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Register pursuant to the terms hereof as a Lender hereunder for all purposes of this Agreement, notwithstanding notice to the contrary. The Register shall be available for inspection by the Borrower and, as to its own positions only, any Lender at any reasonable time and from time to time upon reasonable prior notice.

(v) Upon its receipt of (x) a duly completed Assignment and Assumption Agreement executed by an assigning Lender and an assignee or (y) to the extent applicable, an agreement incorporating an Assignment and Assumption Agreement by reference pursuant to a Platform as to which the Administrative Agent and the parties to the Assignment and Assumption Agreement are participants, the assignee's completed Administrative Questionnaire (unless the assignee shall already be a Lender hereunder), the processing and recordation fee referred to in clause (b)(ii)(C) above and any written consent to such assignment required by clause (b)(ii) above, the Administrative Agent shall accept such Assignment and Assumption Agreement and record the information contained therein in the Register; provided that if either the assigning Lender or the assignee shall have failed to make any payment required to be made by it pursuant to this Agreement, the Administrative Agent shall have no obligation to accept such Assignment and Assumption Agreement and record the information therein in the Register unless and until such payment shall have been made in full, together with all accrued interest thereon. No assignment shall be effective for purposes of this Agreement unless it has been recorded in the Register as provided in this clause (v).

(c) Any Lender may, without the consent of the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, sell participations to one or more Eligible Transferees (a "Participant"), in all or a portion of such Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitment and the Loans owing to it); provided that (A) such Lender's obligations under this Agreement shall remain unchanged; (B) such Lender shall remain solely responsible to the other parties hereto for the performance of such obligations; and (C) the Borrower, the Administrative Agent and the other Lenders shall continue to deal solely and directly with such Lender in connection with such Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement. Any agreement or instrument pursuant to which a Lender sells such a participation shall provide that such Lender shall retain the sole right to enforce this Agreement and to approve any amendment, modification or waiver of any provision of this Agreement; provided that such agreement or instrument may provide that such Lender will not, without the consent of the Participant, agree to any amendment, modification or waiver that requires the consent of each Lender or each adversely affected Lender and that directly affects such Participant. The Borrower agrees that each Participant shall be entitled to the benefits of Sections 2.10 and 5.05 (subject to the requirements and limitations therein (it being understood that the documentation required under Sections 5.05(b) and (c) shall be delivered solely to the participating Lender; provided, for the avoidance of doubt, that if the participating Lender is not a U.S. Person, such Lender shall include a copy of such documentation as an exhibit to its IRS Form W-8IMY in accordance with Section 5.05(c)(x)(iv))) to the same extent as if it were a Lender and had acquired its interest by assignment pursuant to Section 13.04(b); provided that such Participant (A) shall be subject to the provisions of Section 2.12 as if it were an assignee under Section 13.04(b); and (B) shall not be entitled to receive any greater payment under Section 2.10 or 5.05, with respect to any participation, than its participating Lender would have been entitled to receive, except to the extent such entitlement to receive a greater payment results from a Change in Law that occurs after the Participant acquired the applicable participation. Each Lender that sells a participation agrees, at the Borrower's request and expense, to use reasonable efforts to cooperate with the Borrower to effectuate the provisions of Section 2.13 with respect to any Participant. To the extent permitted by law, each Participant also shall be entitled to the benefits of Section 13.01 as though it were a Lender; provided that such Participant shall be subject to Section 2.12 as though it were a Lender. Each Lender that sells a participation shall, acting solely for this purpose as a non-fiduciary agent of the Borrower, maintain a register on which it enters the name and address of each Participant and the principal amounts (and related interest amounts) of each Participant's interest in the Loans or other obligations under the Credit Documents (the "Participant Register"); provided that no Lender shall have any obligation to disclose all or any portion of the Participant Register (including the identity of any Participant or any information relating to a Participant's interest in any Commitments, Loans or its other obligations under any Credit Document) to any Person except to the extent such disclosure is necessary to establish that such Commitment, Loans or other obligations are in registered form under Section 5f.103-1(c) of the United States Treasury Regulations and, if applicable, Section 1.163-5(b) of the United States Proposed Treasury Regulations (or any amended or successor version). The entries in the Participant Register shall be conclusive absent manifest error, and such Lender shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Participant Register as the owner of such participation for all purposes of this Agreement notwithstanding any notice to the contrary. For the avoidance of doubt, the Administrative Agent (in its capacity as Administrative Agent) shall have no responsibility for maintaining a Participant Register.

(d) The Borrower shall also be entitled to purchase (from Lenders) outstanding principal of Term Loans in accordance with the provisions of Sections 2.20 and 2.21, which purchases shall be evidenced by assignments (in form reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent) from the applicable Lender to the Borrower. Each assignor and assignee party to the relevant repurchases under Sections 2.20 and 2.21 shall render customary "big boy" disclaimer letters or any such disclaimers shall be incorporated into the terms of the Assignment and Assumption Agreement. No such transfer or assignment shall be effective until recorded by the Administrative Agent (which the Administrative Agent agrees to promptly record) on the Register pursuant to clause (b) above. All Term Loans purchased pursuant to Sections 2.20 and 2.21 shall be immediately and automatically cancelled and retired, and the Borrower shall in no event become a Lender hereunder. To the extent of any assignment to the Borrower as described in this clause

(d), the assigning Lender shall be relieved of its obligations hereunder with respect to the assigned Term Loans.

(e) Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent or prohibit any Lender from pledging its Loans and Notes hereunder to any party, including to a Federal Reserve Bank or central banking authority in support of borrowings made by such Lender from such Federal Reserve Bank or central banking authority and, with prior notification to the Administrative Agent (but without the consent of the Administrative Agent or the Borrower), any Lender which is a fund may pledge all or any portion of its Loans and Notes to its trustee or to a collateral agent providing credit or credit support to such Lender in support of its obligations to such trustee, such collateral agent or a holder of such obligations, as the case may be. No pledge pursuant to this clause (e) shall release the transferor Lender from any of its obligations hereunder.

(f) Each Lender acknowledges and agrees to comply with the provisions of this Section 13.04 applicable to it as a Lender hereunder.

(g) [Reserved].

(h) [Reserved].

(i) The Administrative Agent shall have the right, and the Borrower hereby expressly authorizes the Administrative Agent to provide to any requesting Lender, the list of Disqualified Lenders provided to the Administrative Agent by the Borrower and any updates thereto. The Borrower hereby agrees that any such requesting Lender may share the list of Disqualified Lenders with any potential assignee, transferee or participant. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each Credit Party and the Lenders acknowledge and agree that the Administrative Agent shall not be responsible or have any liability for, or have any duty to ascertain, inquire into, monitor or enforce, compliance with the provisions of this Agreement relating to Disqualified Lenders or Net Short Lenders (other than with respect to assignments or participations by it (in its capacity as a Lender) of its Loans and Commitments, if any). Disqualified Lenders, prepay such Loan by paying the lesser of (x) the principal amount thereof and (y) the amount that such Disqualified Lender paid to acquire such Loans, in each case plus accrued interest, accrued fees and all other amounts (other than principal amounts) payable to it hereunder (it being understood that, notwithstanding anything in the Credit Documents to the contrary, any such prepayment shall not be subject to any provisions requiring prepayments of the Loans on a pro rata basis and no other Loans shall be required to be repaid as a result of such prepayment) and/or (B) require such Disqualified Lender to assign and delegate, without recourse (in accordance with and subject to the restrictions contained in this Section 13.04), all of its interest, rights and obligations under this Agreement and related Credit Documents to an Eligible Transferee that shall assume such obligations at the lesser of (x) the principal amount thereof and (y) the amount that such Disqualified Lender paid to acquire such interests, rights and obligations, in each case plus accrued interest, accrued fees and all other amounts (other than principal amounts) payable to it hereunder; provided that (i) the Borrower shall have paid to the Administrative Agent the assignment fee (if any) specified in Section 13.04(b) (unless waived by the Administrative Agent) and (ii) in the case of clause (A), the Borrower shall not use the proceeds from any Loans or loans under the USS ABL Credit Agreement or USS Revolver Credit Agreement to prepay any Loans held by Disqualified Lenders.

(ii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, Disqualified Lenders (A) will not (x) have the right to receive information, reports or other materials provided to the Lenders by the Borrower, the Administrative Agent or any other Lender, (y) attend or participate in meetings attended by the Lenders and the Administrative Agent, or (z) access any electronic site established for the Lenders or confidential communications from counsel to or financial advisors of the Administrative Agent or the Lenders and (B) (x) for purposes of any consent to any amendment, waiver or modification of, or any action under, and for the purpose of any direction to the Administrative Agent or any Lender to undertake any action (or refrain from taking any action) under this Agreement or any other Credit Document, each Disqualified Lender will be deemed to have consented in the same proportion as the Lenders that are not Disqualified Lenders consented to such matter, and (y) for purposes of voting on any proposed plan of reorganization, liquidation, arrangement, adjustment or composition, proposal or any other similar dispositive restructuring plan pursuant to any Debtor Relief Laws ("Plan of Reorganization"), each Disqualified Lender party hereto hereby agrees (1) not to vote on such Plan of Reorganization, (2) if such Disqualified Lender does vote on such Plan of Reorganization notwithstanding the restriction in the foregoing clause (1), such vote will be deemed not to be in good faith and shall be "designated" pursuant to Section 1126(e) of the Bankruptcy Code (or any similar provision in any other Debtor Relief Laws), and such vote shall not be counted in determining whether the applicable class has accepted or rejected such Plan of Reorganization in accordance with Section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code (or any similar provision in any other Debtor Relief Laws) and (3) not to contest any request by any party for a determination by the bankruptcy court (or other applicable court of competent jurisdiction) effectuating the foregoing clause (2).

13.05 No Waiver; Remedies Cumulative. No failure or delay on the part of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any Lender in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder or under any other Credit Document and no course of dealing between the Borrower or any other Credit Party and the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any Lender shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege hereunder or under any other Credit Document preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege hereunder or thereunder. The rights, powers and remedies herein or in any other Credit Document expressly provided are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights, powers or remedies which the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any Lender would otherwise have. No notice to or demand on any Credit Party in any case shall entitle any Credit Party to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances or constitute a waiver of the rights of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any Lender to any other or further action in any circumstances without notice or demand.

13.06 Payments Pro Rata.

(a) The Administrative Agent agrees that promptly after its receipt of each payment from or on behalf of any Credit Party in respect of any Obligations of such Credit Party, it shall distribute such payment to the Lenders (other than any Lender that has consented in writing to waive its pro rata share of such payment) pro rata based upon their respective shares, if any, of the Obligations with respect to which such payment was received. Whenever any payment received by the Administrative Agent under this Agreement or any of the other Credit Documents is insufficient to pay in full all amounts due and payable to the Administrative Agent and the Lenders under or in respect of this Agreement and the other Credit Documents on any date, such payment shall be distributed by the Administrative Agent and the Lenders in the order of priority set forth in Section 11.12.

(b) Each of the Lenders agrees that, if it should receive any amount hereunder (whether by voluntary payment, by realization upon security, by the exercise of the right of setoff or banker's lien, by counterclaim or cross action, by the enforcement of any right under the Credit Documents, or otherwise) which is applicable to the payment of the principal of, or interest or premium on, the Loans or Fees, of a sum which with respect to the related sum or sums received by other Lenders is in a greater proportion than the total of such Obligation then owed and due to such Lender bears to the total of such Obligation then owed and due to all of the Lenders immediately prior to such receipt, then such Lender receiving such excess payment shall purchase for cash without recourse or warranty from the other Lenders an interest in the Obligations of the respective Credit Party to such Lenders in such amount as shall result in a proportional participation by all of the Lenders in such amount; provided that if all or any portion of such excess amount is thereafter recovered from such Lender, such purchase shall be rescinded and the purchase price restored to the extent of such recovery, but without interest. For purposes of clause (c) of the definition of Excluded Taxes, a Lender that acquires a participation pursuant to this Section 13.06(b) shall be treated as having acquired such participation on the earlier date(s) on which such Lender acquired the applicable interest(s) in the Loan(s) or Commitment(s) to which such participation relates.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the provisions of the preceding Sections 13.06(a) and (b) shall be subject to (x) the express provisions of this Agreement which require, or permit, differing payments to be made to Non-Defaulting Lenders as opposed to Defaulting Lenders, (y) the express provisions of this Agreement which permit disproportionate payments with respect to various of the Tranches as, and to the extent, provided herein, and (z) any other provisions which permit disproportionate payments with respect to the Loans as, and to the extent, provided therein.

13.07 Calculations; Computations.

(a) The financial statements to be furnished to the Lenders pursuant hereto shall be made and prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP consistently applied throughout the periods involved (except as set forth in the notes thereto); provided that to the extent expressly provided herein, certain calculations shall be made on a Pro Forma Basis; provided, further, that if Borrower notifies the Administrative Agent that the Borrower wishes to amend any leverage calculation or any financial definition used therein to implement the effect of any change in U.S. GAAP or the application thereof occurring after the Closing Date on the operation thereof (or if the Administrative Agent notifies the Borrower that the Required Lenders wish to amend any leverage test or any financial definition used therein for such purpose), then the Borrower and the Administrative Agent shall negotiate in good faith to amend such leverage test or the definitions used therein (subject to the approval of the Required Lenders) to preserve the original intent thereof in light of such changes in U.S. GAAP; provided, further, that all determinations made pursuant to any applicable leverage test or any financial definition used therein shall be determined on the basis of U.S. GAAP as applied and in effect immediately before the relevant change in U.S. GAAP or the application thereof became effective, until such leverage test or such financial definition is amended. Notwithstanding any other provision contained herein, (i) all terms of an accounting or financial nature used herein shall be construed, and all computations of amounts and ratios referred to herein shall be made, without giving effect to Statement of Financial Accounting Standards 141R or ASC 805 (or any other financial accounting standard having a similar result or effect) and (ii) the accounting for any lease shall be based on U.S. GAAP as in effect on December 15, 2018 and without giving effect to any subsequent changes in U.S. GAAP (or the required implementation of any previously promulgated changes in U.S. GAAP) relating to the treatment of a lease as an operating lease or capitalized lease.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the Borrower (or Holdings or any Parent Company) may elect to switch from maintaining its accounting records from U.S. GAAP to IFRS by written notice to the Administrative Agent, and thereafter may provide all required financial information in accordance with IFRS, provided that such switch may only occur once after the Closing Date. In the event that the Borrower (or Holdings or any Parent Company) elects to prepare its financial statements in accordance with IFRS and such election results in a change in the method of calculation of financial covenants, standards or terms (collectively, the "Accounting Changes") in this Agreement, the Borrower and the Administrative Agent agree to enter into good faith negotiations in order to amend such provisions of this Agreement so as to reflect equitably the Accounting Changes (or if the Administrative Agent notifies the Borrower that the Required Lenders request an amendment to any provision hereof for such purpose), then the Borrower and the Administrative Agent (acting at the Direction of the Majority Lenders) shall negotiate in good faith to enter into an amendment of the relevant affected provisions (without the payment of any amendment or similar fee to the Lenders), with the desired result that the criteria for evaluating the Borrower's (or Holdings' or any Parent Company's) financial condition shall be substantially the same after such change as if such change had not been made. Until such time as such an amendment shall have been executed and delivered by the Borrower and the Administrative Agent, all financial covenants, standards and terms in this Agreement shall continue to be calculated or construed in accordance with U.S. GAAP (as determined in good faith by a Responsible Officer of the Borrower or Holdings or such Parent Company, as applicable) as if such change had not occurred.

(c) The calculation of any financial ratios under this Agreement shall be calculated by dividing the appropriate component by the other component, carrying the result to one place more than the number of places by which such ratio is expressed herein and rounding the result up or down to the nearest number (with a rounding-down if there is no nearest number).

13.12 Amendment or Waiver; etc.

(a) Except as expressly contemplated hereby, neither this Agreement nor any other Credit Document nor any terms hereof or thereof may be changed, waived, discharged or terminated unless such change, waiver, discharge or termination is in writing signed by the Credit Parties party hereto or thereto, the Administrative Agent and the Required Lenders (although additional Group Members may be added to (and annexes may be modified to reflect such additions) the Guaranty Agreement and the Security Documents in accordance with the provisions hereof and thereof without the consent of the other Credit Parties party thereto or the Required Lenders) or the Administrative Agent with the written consent of the Required Lenders; provided that no such change, waiver, discharge or termination shall:

(i) without the prior written consent of each Lender directly and adversely affected thereby, reduce the amount or extend the final scheduled maturity of any Loan, or reduce the rate or extend the time of payment of principal (including any scheduled repayment, if any), interest or fees thereon, except in connection with the waiver of the applicability of any post-default interest, without the prior written consent of each Lender directly and adversely affected thereby;

(xvii) [reserved];

(xviii) amend or modify this Agreement in a manner that would allow Holdings, the Borrower or any Group Member to purchase, exchange, replace and/or refinance Loans on a non-pro rata basis or via an auction without the prior written consent of each Lender (other than as expressly permitted under this Agreement as of the Closing Date); and

(xix) without the requisite consent contemplated under such clause or clauses, as applicable, amend, modify or waive any definition to the extent applicable to any of the foregoing clauses (i) through (xviii) to the extent such amendment, modification or waiver would have the effect of any of the amendments, modifications or waivers that are limited by the foregoing clause (i) through (xviii);

provided, further, that no such change, waiver, discharge or termination shall (1) increase or extend the Commitments of any Lender over the amount and term thereof then in effect without the consent of such Lender (it being understood that waivers or modifications of conditions precedent, covenants, Defaults or Events of Default or of a mandatory reduction in the Total Commitment shall not constitute an increase or extension of the Commitment of any Lender, and that an increase in the available portion of any Commitment of any Lender shall not constitute an increase of the Commitment of such Lender), (2) without the consent of each Agent adversely affected thereby, amend, modify or waive any provision of Section 12 or any other provision of any Credit Document as the same relates to the rights or obligations of such Agent and (3) without the consent of the Collateral Agent, amend, modify or waive any provision relating to the rights or obligations of the Collateral Agent.

(b) If, in connection with any proposed change, waiver, discharge or termination of any of the provisions of this Agreement as contemplated by clauses (i) through (v), inclusive, of the first proviso to Section 13.12(a), the consent of the Required Lenders is obtained but the consent of one or more of such other Lenders whose consent is required is not obtained, then the Borrower shall have the right, so long as all non-consenting Lenders whose individual consent is required are treated as described in either clause (A) or (B) below, to either (A) replace each such non-consenting Lender or Lenders with one or more Replacement Lenders pursuant to Section 2.13 so long as at the time of such replacement, each such Replacement Lender consents to the proposed change, waiver, discharge or termination or (B) terminate such non-consenting Lender's Commitments and/or repay the outstanding Loans of such Lender in accordance with Section 5.01(b)(i); provided that, unless the Commitments that are terminated, and Loans repaid, pursuant to the preceding clause (B) are immediately replaced in full at such time through the addition of new Lenders or the increase of outstanding Loans of existing Lenders (who in each case must specifically consent thereto), then in the case of any action pursuant to preceding clause (B) the Required Lenders (determined after giving effect to the proposed action) shall specifically consent thereto; provided, further, that in any event the Borrower shall not have the right to replace a Lender, terminate its Commitments or repay its Loans solely as a result of the exercise of such Lender's rights (and the withholding of any required consent by such Lender) pursuant to the second proviso to Section 13.12(a).

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in clause (a) of this Section 13.12, (i) the Borrower, the Administrative Agent and each applicable Incremental Lender may, without the consent of any other Lender, (i) in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.15, enter into an Incremental Amendment; provided that after the execution and delivery by the Borrower, the Administrative Agent and each such Incremental Lender of such Incremental Amendment, such Incremental Amendment, may thereafter only be modified in accordance with the requirements of clause (a) above of this Section 13.12, and (ii) the Incremental Amendment may, without the consent of any other Credit Party, Agent or Lender, effect such amendments to this Agreement and the other Credit Documents as may be necessary or appropriate, in the reasonable opinion of the Administrative Agent and the Borrower, to effect the provisions of Section 2.15 and the Lenders expressly authorize the Administrative Agent to enter into every such Incremental Amendment, including any amendments that are not materially adverse to the interests of any Lender that amend this Agreement to increase the interest rate margin, increase the interest rate floor, increase, extend or add any prepayment premium, increase, extend or add any call protection or increase the amortization schedule with respect to any existing Tranche of Loans in order to cause any Incremental Term Loans to be fungible with such existing Tranche of Loans.

(d) [reserved].

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, any fee letter may be amended, or rights and privileges thereunder waived, in a writing executed only by the parties thereto.

(f) Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, during such period as a Lender is a Defaulting Lender, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, such Lender will not be entitled to vote in respect of amendments, waivers and consents hereunder and the Commitment and the outstanding Loans or other extensions of credit of such Lender hereunder will not be taken into account in determining whether the Majority Lenders, the Required Lenders or all of the Lenders, as required, have approved any such amendment, waiver or consent (and the definition of "Majority Lenders" or "Required Lenders", as applicable, will automatically be deemed modified accordingly for the duration of such period); provided that any such amendment or waiver that would increase or extend the term of the Commitment of such Defaulting Lender, extend the date fixed for the payment of principal or interest owing to such Defaulting Lender hereunder, reduce the principal amount of any obligation owing to such Defaulting Lender, reduce the amount of or the rate or amount of interest on any amount owing to such Defaulting Lender or of any fee payable to such Defaulting Lender hereunder, or alter the terms of this proviso, will require the consent of such Defaulting Lender.

(g) Further, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 13.12, if following the Closing Date, the Administrative Agent and/or the Collateral Agent and any Credit Party shall have jointly identified an obvious error or any error or omission of a technical or immaterial nature, in each case, in any provision of the Credit Documents, then the Administrative Agent and/or the Collateral Agent and the Credit Parties shall be permitted to amend such provision and such amendment shall become effective without any further action or consent of any other party to any Credit Documents if the same is not objected to in writing by the Required Lenders within five (5) Business Days following receipt of notice thereof.

(h) Further, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 13.12, the Borrower and the Administrative Agent shall be permitted to amend any provision of a Credit Document in order to (i) comply with local law or the advice of local counsel or (ii) to cause any Credit Document (other than this Agreement) to be consistent with this Agreement and the other Credit Documents, and, in each case, such amendment shall become effective without any further action or consent of any other party to any Credit Document.

(i) Further, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 13.12, modifications to the Credit Documents may be made with the consent of the Borrower and the Administrative Agent (acting at the Direction of the Majority Lenders) (and no other Person) to the extent necessary to make any amendments permitted by Section 13.07(b) to give effect to any election to adopt IFRS.

(j) Further, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 13.12, in connection with any determination as to whether the requisite Lenders have (A) consented (or not consented) to any amendment, modification or waiver of any provision of this Agreement or any other Credit Document or any departure by Holdings or any other Group Member therefrom, (B) otherwise acted on any matter related to this Agreement or any Credit Document or (C) directed or required the Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent or any Lender to undertake any action (or refrain from taking any action) with respect to, or under, this Agreement or any Credit Document, in connection with any amendment or waiver, each Lender (or any Affiliate of such Person (provided further that for the purposes of this Section 13.12(j), Affiliates shall not include Persons that are subject to customary procedures to prevent the sharing of confidential information between such Lender and such Person and such Person is managed having independent fiduciary duties to the investors or other equityholders of such Person)) (other than (i) any Lender that is a Regulated Bank and (ii) any Revolving Lender (as defined in the USS Revolver Credit Agreement) or Revolving Lender (as defined in the USS ABL Credit Agreement) or any Affiliates of such Regulated Bank, Revolving Lender (as defined in the USS Revolver Credit Agreement) or Revolving Lender (as defined in the USS ABL Credit Agreement)) that, as a result of its (or its Affiliates') interest in any total return swap, total rate of return swap, credit default swap or other derivative contract (other than any such total return swap, total rate of return swap, credit default swap or other derivative contract entered into pursuant to bona fide market making activities), has a net short position with respect to any of the Loans or Commitments, or with respect to any other tranche, class or series of Indebtedness for borrowed money incurred or issued by Holdings or any other Group Member (including commitments with respect to any revolving credit facility) (each such item of Indebtedness, including the Loan and Commitments, "Specified Indebtedness"), on the later of (x) the date such amendment or waiver is posted for review by Lenders generally and (y) the date, if any, that such Lender consents to such amendment or waiver (each such Lender, a "Net Short Lender"), shall be deemed to have voted its interest as a Lender in the same proportion as the allocation of voting with respect to such matter by Lenders who are not Net Short Lenders (including in any plan of reorganization). For purposes of determining whether a Lender (alone or together with its Affiliates) has a "net short position" on any date of determination: (i) derivative contracts with respect to any Specified Indebtedness and such contracts that are the functional equivalent thereof shall be counted at the notional amount of such contract in Dollars, (ii) notional amounts in other currencies shall be converted to the Equivalent Amount thereof by such Lender in a commercially reasonable manner consistent with generally accepted financial practices and based on the prevailing conversion rate (determined on a mid-market basis) on the date of determination, (iii) derivative contracts in respect of an index that includes Holdings or any other Group Member or any instrument issued or guaranteed by Holdings or any other Group Member shall not be deemed to create a short position with respect to such Specified Indebtedness, so long as (x) such index is not created, designed, administered or requested by such Lender or its Affiliates and (y) Holdings and the other Group Members and any instrument issued or guaranteed by Holdings or the other Group Members, collectively, shall represent less than 5% of the components of such index, (iv) derivative transactions that are documented using either the 2014 ISDA Credit Derivatives Definitions or the 2003 ISDA Credit Derivatives Definitions (collectively, the "ISDA CDS Definitions") shall be deemed to create a short position with respect to the relevant Specified Indebtedness if such Lender or its Affiliates is a protection buyer or the equivalent thereof for such derivative transaction and (x) the relevant Specified Indebtedness is a "Reference Obligation" under the terms of such derivative transaction report, statement or testimony submitted to any municipal, state or Federal or supranational regulatory body having or claiming to have jurisdiction over such Agent or such Lender or to the Federal Reserve Board or other central banking authority or the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or similar organizations (whether in the United States or elsewhere) or their successors, (iii) as may be required or appropriate in respect to any summons or subpoena or in connection with any litigation, (iv) in order to comply with any law, order, regulation or ruling applicable to such Agent or such Lender, (v) in the case of any Lender, to the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, (vi) to any prospective or actual direct or indirect contractual counterparty (other than any Disqualified Lender except that the list of Disqualified Lenders may be furnished) in any swap, hedge or similar agreement (or to any such contractual counterparty's professional advisor), so long as such contractual counterparty (or such professional advisor) agrees to be bound by the provisions of this Section 13.15 (or language substantially similar to this Section 13.15(a)), (vii) to any prospective or actual transferee, pledgee or participant (other than any Disqualified Lender, to the extent that the list of Disqualified Lenders has been furnished, and any pledgee to whom disclosure is permitted pursuant to clause (ii) above) in connection with any contemplated transfer, pledge or participation of any of the Loans or Commitments or any interest therein, (viii) has become available to any Agent, any Lender or any of their respective Affiliates on a non-confidential basis from a source other than Holdings, the Borrower or any other Group Member, and which source is not known by such Person to be subject to a confidentiality restriction in respect thereof in favor of the Borrower or any Affiliate of the Borrower, (ix) for purposes of establishing a "due diligence" defense, (x) to credit risk protection providers (or insurers, re-insurers and insurance brokers), (xi) in communications with Governmental Authorities in connection with compliance by any Group Member or such Agent or such Lender with applicable Sanctions, Anti-Corruption Laws or Anti-Money Laundering Laws as it relates to this Agreement, with notice to the Borrower, to the extent lawful, promptly after any such communications, and (xii) that has been independently developed by such Agent or such Lender without the use of any other confidential information provided by the Borrower or on the Borrower's behalf; provided that such prospective transferee, pledge or participant agrees to be bound by the confidentiality provisions contained in this Section 13.15 (or language substantially similar to this Section 13.15(a)); provided, further, that, to the extent permitted pursuant to any applicable law, order, regulation or ruling, and other than in connection with credit and other bank examinations conducted in the ordinary course with respect to such Agent or such Lender, in the case of any disclosure pursuant to the foregoing clauses (ii), (iii) or (iv), such Agent or such Lender will use its commercially reasonable efforts to notify the Borrower in advance of such disclosure so as to afford the Borrower the opportunity to protect the confidentiality of the information proposed to be so disclosed.

(whether specified by name in the related documentation, included as a "Standard Reference Obligation" on the most recent list published by Markit, if "Standard Reference Obligation" is specified as applicable in the relevant documentation or in any other manner), (y) the relevant Specified Indebtedness would be a "Deliverable Obligation" under the terms of such derivative transaction or (z) Holdings or any other Group Member is designated as a "Reference Entity" under the terms of such derivative transaction and (v) credit derivative transactions or other derivatives transactions not documented using the ISDA CDS Definitions shall be deemed to create a short position with respect to any Specified Indebtedness if such transactions offer the Lender or its Affiliates protection against a decline in the value of such Specified Indebtedness, or in the credit quality of Holdings or any other Group Member, in each case, other than as part of an index so long as (x) such index is not created, designed, administered or requested by such Lender or its Affiliates and (y) Holdings and the other Group Members, and any instrument issued or guaranteed by Holdings or the other Group Members, collectively, shall represent less than 5% of the components of such index. In connection with any amendment, modification or waiver of this Agreement or the other Credit Documents, each Lender (other than any Lender that is a Regulated Bank) will be deemed to have represented to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent that it does not constitute a Net Short Lender, in each case, unless such Lender shall have notified Borrower and the Administrative Agent prior to the requested response date with respect to such amendment, modification or waiver that it constitutes a Net Short Lender (it being understood and agreed that the Borrower and the Administrative Agent shall be entitled to rely on each such representation and deemed representation). In no event shall the Administrative Agent be obligated to ascertain, monitor or inquire as to whether any Lender is a Net Short Lender.

(b) The Borrower hereby acknowledges and agrees that each Lender may share with any of its affiliates, and such affiliates may share with such Lender, any information related to Holdings, the Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries (including, any non-public customer information regarding the creditworthiness of Holdings, the Borrower and its Subsidiaries); provided such Persons shall be subject to the provisions of this Section 13.15 to the same extent as such Lender.

13.16 Patriot Act Notice. Each Lender hereby notifies Holdings and the Borrower that pursuant to the requirements of the USA PATRIOT Act (Title III of Pub. L. 107-56 (signed into law October 26, 2001)), as amended (the "Patriot Act") and the Beneficial Ownership Regulation, it is required to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies Holdings, the Borrower and each Group Guarantor, which information includes the name of each Credit Party and other information that will allow such Lender to identify the Credit Party in accordance with the Patriot Act and the Beneficial Ownership Regulation, and each Credit Party agrees to provide such information from time to time to any Lender.

13.17 Waiver of Sovereign Immunity. Each of the Credit Parties, in respect of itself, its Subsidiaries, its process agents, and its properties and revenues, hereby irrevocably agrees that, to the extent that Holdings, the Borrower, their respective Subsidiaries or any of their properties has or may hereafter acquire any right of immunity, whether characterized as sovereign immunity or otherwise, from any legal proceedings, whether in the United States or elsewhere, to enforce or collect upon the Loans or any Credit Document or any other liability or obligation of Holdings, the Borrower or any of their respective Subsidiaries related to or arising from the transactions contemplated by any of the Credit Documents, including, immunity from service of process, immunity from jurisdiction or judgment of any court or tribunal, immunity from execution of a judgment, and immunity of any of its property from attachment prior to any entry of judgment, or from attachment in aid of execution upon a judgment, Holdings and the Borrower, for themselves and on behalf of their respective Subsidiaries, hereby expressly waive, to the fullest extent permissible under applicable law, any such immunity, and agree not to assert any such right or claim in any such proceeding, whether in the United States or elsewhere. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Holdings and the Borrower further agree that the waivers set forth in this Section 13.17 shall have the fullest extent permitted under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act of 1976 of the United States and are intended to be irrevocable for purposes of such Act.

13.20 Absence of Fiduciary Relationship.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement or any provision of any other Credit Document, (i) none of the Lenders or any of their respective Affiliates shall, solely by reason of this Agreement or any other Credit Document, have any fiduciary, advisory or agency relationship or duty in respect of any Lender or any other Person and (ii) the Group Members hereby waive, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any claims they may have against any Lender or any of its respective Affiliates for breach of fiduciary duty or alleged breach of fiduciary duty by reason of this Agreement, any other Credit Document or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby. Each Agent, each Lender and their respective Affiliates may have economic interests that conflict with those of the Credit Parties, their stockholders and/or their affiliates.

13.21 Electronic Execution of Documents. This Agreement and any document, amendment, approval, consent, information, notice, certificate, request, statement, disclosure or authorization related to this Agreement (each a "Communication"), including Communications required to be in writing, may be in the form of an Electronic Record and may be executed using Electronic Signatures. The Borrower agrees that any Electronic Signature on or associated with any Communication shall be valid and binding on the Borrower to the same extent as a manual, original signature, and that any Communication entered into by Electronic Signature, will constitute the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Borrower enforceable against such in accordance with the terms thereof to the same extent as if a manually executed original signature was delivered. Any Communication may be executed in as many counterparts as necessary or convenient, including both paper and electronic counterparts, but all such counterparts are one and the same Communication. For the avoidance of doubt, the authorization under this paragraph may include, use or acceptance by the Administrative Agent and each of the Secured Creditors of a manually signed paper Communication which has been converted into electronic form (such as scanned into PDF format), or an electronically signed Communication converted into another format, for transmission, delivery and/or retention. The Administrative Agent and each of the Secured Creditors may, at its option, create one or more copies of any Communication in the form of an imaged Electronic Record ("Electronic Copy"), which shall be deemed created in the ordinary course of such Person's business, and destroy the original paper document. All Communications in the form of an Electronic Record, including an Electronic Copy, shall be considered an original for all purposes, and shall have the same legal effect, validity and enforceability as a paper record. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the Administrative Agent is under no obligation to accept an Electronic Signature in any form or in any format unless expressly agreed to by the Administrative Agent pursuant to procedures approved by it; provided, further, without limiting the foregoing, (a) to the extent the Administrative Agent has agreed to accept such Electronic Signature, the Administrative Agent and each of the Secured Creditors shall be entitled to rely on any such Electronic Signature purportedly given by or on behalf of the Borrower without further verification and (b) upon the request of the Administrative Agent or any Lender, any Electronic Signature shall be promptly followed by such manually executed counterpart. For purposes hereof, "Electronic Record" and "Electronic Signature" shall have the meanings assigned to them, respectively, by 15 USC §7006, as it may be amended from time to time.

13.22 Entire Agreement. This Agreement and the other Credit Documents represent the final agreement among the parties and may not be contradicted by evidence of prior, contemporaneous or subsequent oral agreements of the parties. There are no unwritten oral agreements among the parties.

13.23 Acknowledgement and Consent to Bail-In of Affected Financial Institutions. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any Credit Document or in any other agreement, arrangement or understanding among any such parties, each party hereto acknowledges that any liability of any Affected Financial Institution arising under any Credit Document may be subject to the Write-Down and Conversion Powers of the applicable Resolution Authority and agrees and consents to, and acknowledges and agrees to be bound by:

(a) the application of any Write-Down and Conversion Powers by the applicable Resolution Authority to any such liabilities arising hereunder which may be payable to it by any party hereto that is an Affected Financial Institution; and

(b) the effects of any Bail-In Action on any such liability, including, if applicable:

(i) a reduction in full or in part or cancellation of any such liability;

(ii) a conversion of all, or a portion of, such liability into shares or other instruments of ownership in such Affected Financial Institution, its parent entity, or a bridge institution that may be issued to it or otherwise conferred on it, and that such shares or other instruments of ownership will be accepted by it in lieu of any rights with respect to any such liability under this Agreement or any other Credit Document; or

(iii) the variation of the terms of such liability in connection with the exercise of the Write-Down and Conversion Powers of the applicable Resolution Authority.

13.24 Acknowledgement Regarding Any Supported QFCs.

(a) To the extent that the Credit Documents provide support, through a guarantee or otherwise, for Interest Rate Protection Agreements or Other Hedging Agreements or any other agreement or instrument that is a QFC (such support, "QFC Credit Support" and each such QFC a "Supported QFC"), the parties acknowledge and agree as follows with respect to the resolution power of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation under the Federal Deposit Insurance Act and Title II of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act (together with the regulations promulgated thereunder, the "U.S. Special Resolution Regimes") in respect of such Supported QFC and QFC Credit Support (with the provisions below applicable notwithstanding that the Credit Documents and any Supported QFC may in fact be stated to be governed by the laws of the State of New York and/or of the United States or any other state of the United States).

(b) In the event a Covered Entity that is party to a Supported QFC (each, a "Covered Party") becomes subject to a proceeding under a U.S. Special Resolution Regime, the transfer of such Supported QFC and the benefit of such QFC Credit Support (and any interest and obligation in or under such Supported QFC and such QFC Credit Support, and any rights in property securing such Supported QFC or such QFC Credit Support) from such Covered Party will be effective to the same extent as the transfer would be effective under the U.S. Special Resolution Regime if the Supported QFC and such QFC Credit Support (and any such interest, obligation and rights in property) were governed by the laws of the United States or a state of the United States. In the event a Covered Party or a BHC Act Affiliate of a Covered Party becomes subject to a proceeding under a U.S. Special Resolution Regime, Default Rights under the Credit Documents that might otherwise apply to such Supported QFC or any QFC Credit Support that may be exercised against such Covered Party are permitted to be exercised to no greater extent than such Default Rights could be exercised under the U.S. Special Resolution Regime if the Supported QFC and the Credit Documents were governed by the laws of the United States or a state of the United States. Without limitation of the foregoing, it is understood and agreed that rights and remedies of the parties with respect to a Defaulting Lender shall in no event affect the rights of any Covered Party with respect to a Supported QFC or any QFC Credit Support.

Once repaid, Incremental Term Loans may not be reborrowed.

(c) Each Lender may, at its option, make or maintain any Loan by causing any domestic or foreign branch or Affiliate of such Lender to make or maintain such Loan; provided that any exercise of such option shall not (i) affect in any manner the obligation of the Borrower to repay such Loan in accordance with the terms of this Agreement or (ii) excuse or relieve any Lender from its Commitment to make or maintain any such Loan to the extent not so made by such branch or Affiliate.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, in order to give effect to the Bankruptcy Plan, in partial satisfaction of certain of the prepetition claims held by the Lenders and/or certain outstanding Loans (as defined in the Existing DIP Credit Agreement), each Lender that holds such First-Out Claims (as defined in the Bankruptcy Plan) and Amended Term Loan Claims (as defined in the Bankruptcy Plan) and/or outstanding Loans (as defined in the Existing DIP Credit Agreement) shall be deemed to have made a portion of its Initial Term Loan to the Borrower in the amount set forth opposite such Lender's name on Schedule 2.01(d) directly below the column entitled "Deemed Initial Term Loan Amount" and, by receiving the benefit of its Initial Term Loan by virtue of the provisions hereof, agrees to be bound hereby as a Lender and to perform in accordance with their terms all of the obligations which by the terms of the Credit Documents are required to be performed by it as a Lender. The Initial Term Loans deemed made pursuant to this Section 2.01(d) shall be made without any actual funding.

(e) In addition, notwithstanding anything to the contrary, in order to give effect to the Bankruptcy Plan, certain of the Lenders shall be deemed to have made a portion of its Initial Term Loan to the Borrower in the amount set forth opposite such Lender's name on Schedule 2.01(e) directly below the column entitled "Exit Term Loan Takeback Debt" and, by receiving the benefit of its Initial Term Loan by virtue of the provisions hereof, agrees to be bound hereby as a Lender and to perform in accordance with their terms all of the obligations which by the terms of the Credit Documents are required to be performed by it as a Lender. The Initial Term Loans deemed made pursuant to this Section 2.01(e) shall be made without any actual funding.

(f) To effect the borrowings, payments and other transactions under this Agreement, the related transfers of funds shall be netted to the extent necessary to minimize the actual flows of funds between the relevant parties in accordance with the funds flow memorandum.

2.02 Minimum Amount of Each Borrowing. The aggregate principal amount of each Borrowing of Loans under any Tranche shall not be less than the Minimum Borrowing Amount. More than one Borrowing may occur on the same date, but at no time shall there be outstanding more than ten (10) Borrowings of Term SOFR Loans in the aggregate for all Tranches of Loans.

2.03 Notice of Borrowing. Whenever the Borrower desires to make a Borrowing of Loans hereunder, the Borrower shall give the Administrative Agent at its Notice Office prior written notice (x) on the day of such Borrowing ~~(or telephonic notice promptly confirmed in writing)~~ of each Borrowing of Base Rate Loans to be made hereunder, and (y) at least three Business Days' ~~(or such shorter period as the Administrative Agent shall consent in its sole and absolute discretion, which such consent may be evidenced by e-mail)~~ prior written notice ~~(or telephonic notice promptly confirmed in writing) of~~of each Term SOFR Loan to be made hereunder; provided that (a) in each case, any such notice shall be deemed to have been given on a certain day only if given before 11:00 a.m. (New York City time) on such day ~~(or such later time as the Administrative Agent shall consent in its sole and absolute discretion, which such consent may be evidenced by e-mail)~~, (b) in any event, any such notice with respect to Loans that are Term SOFR Loans to be incurred on the Closing Date may be given up to one (1) Business Day prior to the Closing Date and (c) that if Borrower wishes to request Term SOFR Loans having an Interest Period other than one, three or six months in duration, or less than one month in duration with the consent of the ~~Administrative Agent~~applicable Lenders with a Commitment of the relevant Tranche, in each case as provided in the definition of "Interest Period", the applicable notice must be received by the Administrative Agent not later than 11:00 a.m. (New York City time), four (4) Business Days prior to the requested date of such Borrowing, conversion or continuation, in each case, having an Interest Period other than one, three or six months in duration, or less than one month in duration, whereupon the Administrative Agent shall give prompt notice to each applicable Lender with a Commitment of the relevant Tranche of such request and determine whether the requested Interest Period is acceptable to all of them. Not later than 11:00 a.m. (New York City time), three Business Days before the requested date of such Borrowing, conversion or continuation, the Administrative Agent shall notify Borrower (which notice may be by telephone) whether or not the requested Interest Period that is other than one, three or six months in duration, or less than one month in duration, has been consented to by such Lenders ~~or the Administrative Agent, as applicable~~. Each such notice (each, a "Notice of Borrowing"), except as otherwise expressly provided in Section 2.11, shall be irrevocable and shall be in writing~~, or by telephone promptly confirmed in writing by or on behalf of the Borrower, in~~ in the form of Exhibit A-1 or such other form as may be approved by the Administrative Agent including any form on an electronic platform or electronic transmission as shall be approved by the Administrative Agent, appropriately completed by a Responsible Officer of the Borrower or of the Group Representative to specify: (i) the aggregate principal amount of the Loans to be made pursuant to such Borrowing, (ii) the date of such Borrowing (which shall be a Business Day), (iii) whether the respective Borrowing shall consist of Initial Term Loans or Incremental Term Loans, (iv) whether the Loans being made pursuant to such Borrowing are to be initially maintained as Base Rate Loans or Term SOFR Loans, (v) in the case of Terms SOFR Loans, the Interest Period to be initially applicable thereto, and (vi) the account of the Borrower into which the proceeds of such Loans shall be deposited or other wire instructions therefor. The Administrative Agent shall promptly give each Lender of the Tranche specified in the respective Notice of Borrowing, notice of such proposed Borrowing, of such Lender's proportionate share thereof (determined in accordance with Section

2.07) and of the other matters required by the immediately preceding sentence to be specified in the Notice of Borrowing. With respect to SOFR or Term SOFR, the Administrative Agent will have the right (subject to, if applicable, the Borrower's consultation rights set forth in the definition of "Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes") to make Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes from time to time and, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in any other Credit Document, any amendments implementing such Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes will become effective without any further action or consent of any other party to this Agreement or any other Credit Document; provided that, with respect to any such amendment effected, the Administrative Agent shall post each such amendment implementing such Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes to the Borrower and the Lenders reasonably promptly after such amendment becomes effective.

2.04 Disbursement of Funds. No later than 1:00 P.M. (New York City time) on the date specified in each Notice of Borrowing, each Term Lender with a Term Loan Commitment of the relevant Tranche will make available its pro rata portion (determined in accordance with Section 2.07) of each such Borrowing requested to be made on such date. All such amounts will be made (or deemed made) available in Dollars and in immediately available funds at the Notice Office, and the Administrative Agent will make all funds so received by it in like funds as received by the Administrative Agent by wire transfer of such funds to the account designated in writing by the Borrower (including in any Notice of Borrowing) from time to time; provided that at the discretion of the Required Lenders and the Fronting Lender, solely in connection with the Initial Term Loans, such funds may be wired directly by the Fronting Lender to the Borrower. Unless the Administrative Agent shall have been notified by any Term Lender prior to the date of any Borrowing that such Lender does not intend to make available to the Administrative Agent such Term Lender's portion of any Borrowing to be made on such date, the Administrative Agent may assume that such Term Lender has made (or deemed to make) such amount available to the Administrative Agent on such date of Borrowing and the Administrative Agent may (but shall not be obligated to), in reliance upon such assumption, make available to the Borrower a corresponding amount. If such corresponding amount is not in fact made available to the Administrative Agent by such Lender, the Administrative Agent shall be entitled to recover such corresponding amount on demand from such Term Lender. If such Term Lender does not pay such corresponding amount forthwith upon the Administrative Agent's demand therefor, the Administrative Agent shall promptly notify Borrower and the Borrower shall immediately pay such corresponding amount to the Administrative Agent. The Administrative Agent also shall be entitled to recover on demand from such Term Lender or Borrower interest on such corresponding amount in respect of each day from the date such corresponding amount was made (or deemed made) available by the Administrative Agent to the Borrower until the date such corresponding amount is recovered by the Administrative Agent, at a rate per annum equal to (i) if recovered from such Term Lender, the greater of the Federal Funds Effective Rate and a rate determined by the Administrative Agent in accordance with banking rules on interbank compensation and (ii) if recovered from Borrower, the rate of interest applicable to the relevant Borrowing, as determined pursuant to Section 2.08. Nothing in this Section 2.04 shall be deemed to relieve any Term Lender from its obligation to make Term Loans hereunder or to prejudice any rights which the Borrower may have against any Term Lender as a result of any failure by such Lender to make Term Loans hereunder.

2.05 Notes.(a) The Borrower's obligation to pay the principal of, and interest on, the Loans made by each Lender shall be evidenced in the Register maintained by the Administrative Agent pursuant to Section 13.04 and shall, if requested by such Lender, also be evidenced by a promissory note. In such event, the Borrower shall promptly prepare, execute and deliver to such Lender a promissory note payable to such Lender (or, if requested by such Lender, to such Lender and its registered assigns) substantially in the form of Exhibit B (each a "Note").

(b) Each Lender will note on its internal records the amount of each Loan made by it and each payment in respect thereof and prior to any transfer of any of its Notes will endorse on the reverse side thereof the outstanding principal amount of Loans evidenced thereby. Failure to make any such notation or any error in such notation shall not affect Borrower's obligations in respect of such Loans. For the avoidance of doubt, to the extent any conflict arises between the records maintained pursuant to this Section and the Register, the Register shall control.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained above in this Section 2.05 or elsewhere in this Agreement, Notes shall only be delivered to Lenders that at any time specifically request the delivery of such Notes. No failure of any Lender to request or obtain a Note evidencing its Loans to the Borrower shall affect or in any manner impair the obligations of the Borrower to pay the Loans (and all related Obligations) incurred by the Borrower which would otherwise be evidenced thereby in accordance with the requirements of this Agreement, and shall not in any way affect the security or guarantees therefor provided pursuant to the various Credit Documents. Any Lender that does not have a Note evidencing its outstanding Loans shall in no event be required to make the notations otherwise described in the preceding clause (b). At any time when any Lender requests the delivery of a Note to evidence any of its Loans, the Borrower shall promptly execute and deliver to the respective Lender the requested Note in the appropriate amount or amounts to evidence such Loans.

2.06 Interest Rate Conversions. The Borrower shall have the option to convert, on any Business Day, all or a portion equal to at least the Minimum Borrowing Amount of the outstanding principal amount of Loans of a given Tranche made pursuant to one or more Borrowings of one or more Types of Loans, into a Borrowing (of the same Tranche) of another Type of Loan; provided that (i) except as otherwise provided ~~in Section 2.11~~herein, Term SOFR Loans may be converted into Base Rate Loans only on the last day of an Interest Period applicable to the Loans being converted and no such partial conversion of Term SOFR Loans shall reduce the outstanding principal amount of such Term SOFR Loans made pursuant to a single Borrowing to less than the Minimum Borrowing Amount and (ii) to the extent the Required Lenders have, or the Administrative Agent (acting at the ~~request~~Direction of the Required Lenders) has, so notified Borrower in writing, Base Rate Loans may not be converted into Term SOFR Loans, if any Event of Default is in existence on the date of the conversion or continuation and (~~iv~~iii) no conversion pursuant to this Section 2.06 shall result in a greater number of Borrowings of Term SOFR Loans than is permitted under Section 2.02. Such conversion shall be effected by the Borrower by giving the Administrative Agent at the Notice Office prior to 12:00 Noon (New York City time) at least three Business Days' prior notice (in the case of any conversion to or continuation of Term SOFR Loans), or same day notice (in the case of any conversion to Base Rate Loans) (each, a "Notice of Conversion/Continuation") in the form of Exhibit A-3 or such other form as may be approved by the Administrative Agent including any form on an electronic platform or electronic transmission as shall be approved by the Administrative Agent, appropriately completed by a Responsible Officer of the Borrower to specify the Loans of a given Tranche to be so converted, the Borrowing or Borrowings pursuant to which such Loans were incurred and, if to be converted into Term SOFR Loans, the Interest Period to be initially applicable thereto. If Borrower fails to give a timely notice requesting a conversion or continuation, then the applicable Loans shall be continued as, or converted to, Base Rate Loans. The Administrative Agent shall give each Lender prompt notice of any such proposed conversion affecting any of its Loans.

2.07 Pro Rata Borrowings. All Borrowings of each Tranche of Loans under this Agreement, subject to Section 2.10(d), shall be incurred from the Lenders pro rata on the basis of such Lenders' Commitments with respect to such Tranche, as the case may be. No Lender shall be responsible for any default by any other Lender of its obligation to make Loans hereunder, and each Lender shall be obligated to make the Loans provided to be made by it hereunder, regardless of the failure of any other Lender to make its Loans hereunder.

2.08 Interest.

(a) The Borrower agrees to pay interest in respect of the unpaid principal amount of each Base Rate Loan (including with respect to any Term SOFR Loan converted into a Base Rate Loan pursuant to Section 2.06 or 2.09) made to the Borrower hereunder from the date of Borrowing thereof (or, in the circumstances described in the immediately preceding parenthetical, from the date of conversion of the respective Term SOFR Loan into a Base Rate Loan) until the earlier of (i) the maturity thereof (whether by acceleration or otherwise) and (ii) the conversion of such Base Rate Loan to a Term SOFR Loan pursuant to Section 2.06 or 2.09, as applicable, at a rate per annum which shall be equal to the sum of the Applicable Margin plus the Base Rate, as in effect from time to time.

(b) The Borrower agrees to pay interest in respect of the unpaid principal amount of each Term SOFR Loan made to the Borrower from the date of Borrowing thereof until the earlier of (i) the maturity thereof (whether by acceleration or otherwise) and (ii) the conversion of such Term SOFR Loan to a Base Rate Loan pursuant to Section 2.06 or 2.09, as applicable, at a rate per annum which shall, during each Interest Period applicable thereto, be equal to the sum of the Applicable Margin plus the applicable Term SOFR for such Interest Period.

(c) Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of any Event of Default, at the written election of the Required Lenders (which may apply retroactively to the date such Event of Default shall have first occurred) (or, automatically upon the occurrence and during the continuance of any Event of Default under Section 11.01 or 11.05) (x) principal and, to the extent permitted by law, interest in respect of each Loan shall bear interest at a rate per annum equal to (i) for Base Rate Loans and associated interest, 2.00% per annum in excess of the Applicable Margin for Base Rate Loans plus the Base Rate, (ii) for Term SOFR Loans and associated interest, 2.00% per annum in excess of the Applicable Margin for Term SOFR Loans plus Term SOFR, as applicable, and (y) amounts with respect to Fees and all other Obligations shall bear interest at a rate equal to 2.00% per annum in excess of the Applicable Margin for Base Rate Loans plus the Base Rate, each as in effect from time to time, in each case with such interest to be payable on demand. Interest accrued under this Section 2.08(c) shall be payable in cash.

(d) Accrued (and theretofore unpaid) interest shall be calculated daily and payable (i) on each Interest Payment Date and (ii) on (w) the date of any conversion of a Term SOFR Loan to a Base Rate Loan (on the amount so converted) prior to the last day of the Interest Period applicable thereto, (x) the date of any prepayment or repayment thereof (on the amount prepaid or repaid), (y) at maturity (whether by acceleration or otherwise) and (z) after such maturity, on demand.

(e) Upon each Interest Determination Date, the Administrative Agent shall determine Term SOFR for each Interest Period applicable to the respective Term SOFR Loans and shall promptly notify Borrower and the Lenders thereof. Each such determination shall, absent manifest error, be final and conclusive and binding on all parties hereto.

(f) All interest hereunder and any Fees hereunder shall be computed on the basis of a year of 360 days~~, except that interest computed by reference to the Base Rate shall be computed on the basis of a year of 365 days (or 366 days in a leap year)~~. The applicable Base Rate or Term SOFR shall be determined by the Administrative Agent in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement and such determination shall be conclusive absent manifest error. All accrued interest which for any reason has not theretofore been paid shall be paid in full on the date on which the final principal amount of the Loans is repaid.

(g) Notwithstanding the foregoing, for the period beginning with the Closing Date and continuing through the first anniversary of the Closing Date (the "Automatic PIK Period"), unless the Borrower (at the direction of its board of directors (or similar governing body)) has notified the Administrative Agent in writing, substantially in the form of Exhibit E-1, by 3:00 p.m. (New York City time) ~~one~~three (~~1~~3) Business ~~Day~~Days prior to the applicable Interest Payment Date that it intends to pay all or any portion of the interest due on such applicable Interest Payment Date in cash, the interest accrued on the Initial Term Loans shall be due and payable in-kind on such Interest Payment Date by automatically adding such accrued interest to the outstanding principal amount of the Initial Term Loans (the "PIK Loans"). Following the Automatic PIK Period, all interest accrued on the Initial Term Loans shall be payable in cash; provided that, ~~unless~~if the Borrower ~~(at the direction of its board of directors (or similar governing body))~~ has notified the Administrative Agent in writing, substantially in the form of Exhibit E-2, by 3:00 p.m. (New York City time) ~~one~~three (~~1~~3) Business ~~Day~~Days prior to the applicable Interest Payment Date that ~~it intends to pay an additional portion of the interest due on such applicable Interest Payment Date in cash, if~~ projected Liquidity on a pro forma basis (immediately after taking into account the payment of all of such interest in cash) would be less than $100,000,000, then 50% ~~of the~~ (or any lesser percentage as the Borrower (at the direction of its board of directors (or similar governing body)) may elect in such notice) of the interest accrued on the Initial Term Loans shall be due and payable in kind on such Interest Payment Date by automatically adding such accrued interest to the outstanding principal amount of the Initial Term Loans in the form of PIK Loans, with the balance payable in cash. The principal amount of each PIK Loan shall accrue interest in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement applicable to the Initial Term Loans and shall be payable in full in cash at maturity.

2.09 Interest Periods. With respect to Loans, as to each Term SOFR Loan, at the time Borrower gives any Notice of Borrowing or Notice of Conversion/Continuation in respect of the making of, or conversion into, any Term SOFR Loan or prior to 11:00 a.m. (New York City time) on the third Business Day prior to the expiration of an Interest Period applicable to such Term SOFR Loan, the Borrower shall have the right to elect the interest period (each, an "Interest Period") applicable to such Term SOFR Loan, which Interest Period shall, at the option of the Borrower be a one, three or six month period, or, if agreed to by all affected Lenders ~~and the Administrative Agent~~ with respect to a Term SOFR Loan, a period less than one month; provided that (in each case):

(i) all Term SOFR Loans comprising a Borrowing shall at all times have the same Interest Period;

(ii) the initial Interest Period for any Term SOFR Loan shall commence on the date of Borrowing of such Term SOFR Loan (including, in the case of Term SOFR Loans, the date of any conversion thereto from a Borrowing of Base Rate Loans) and each Interest Period occurring thereafter in respect of such Term SOFR Loan shall commence on the day on which the next preceding Interest Period applicable thereto expires;

(iii) if any Interest Period for a Term SOFR Loan begins on a day for which there is no numerically corresponding day in the calendar month at the end of such Interest Period, such Interest Period shall end on the last Business Day of such calendar month;

(iv) if any Interest Period for a Term SOFR Loan would otherwise expire on a day which is not a Business Day, such Interest Period shall expire on the next succeeding Business Day; provided, however, that if any Interest Period for a Term SOFR Loan would otherwise expire on a day which is not a Business Day but is a day of the month after which no further Business Day occurs in such month, such Interest Period shall expire on the next preceding Business Day;

(v) the Interest Period for any Term SOFR Loan shall be one month unless the Borrower otherwise elects a specific Interest Period pursuant to this Section 2.09;

(~~v~~vi) ~~unless~~at the election of the Required Lenders ~~otherwise agree~~, no Interest Period for ~~a~~any Term SOFR Loan may be selected at any time when an Event of Default is then in existence; and

~~(vi) [reserved]; and~~

(vii) no Interest Period in respect of any Borrowing of any Tranche of Loans shall be selected which extends beyond the Maturity Date therefor.

With respect to any Term SOFR Loans, at the end of any Interest Period applicable to a Borrowing thereof, the Borrower may elect to split the respective Borrowing of a single Type under a single Tranche into two or more Borrowings of different Types under such Tranche or combine two or more Borrowings under a single Tranche into a single Borrowing of the same Type under such Tranche, in each case, by the Borrower giving notice thereof together with its election of one or more Interest Periods applicable thereto, in each case so long as each resulting Borrowing (x) has an Interest Period which complies with the foregoing requirements of this Section 2.09, (y) has a principal amount which is not less than the Minimum Borrowing Amount applicable to Borrowings of the respective Type and Tranche, and (z) does not cause a violation of the requirements of Section 2.02. If by 11:00 a.m. (New York City time) on the third Business Day prior to the expiration of any Interest Period applicable to a Borrowing of Term SOFR Loans, the Borrower has failed to elect, or is not permitted to elect, a new Interest Period to be applicable to such Term SOFR, the Borrower shall be deemed to have elected to convert such Term SOFR Loans into Base Rate Loans with such conversion to be effective as of the expiration date of such current Interest Period.

2.10 Increased Costs, Illegality, etc.

(a) [Reserved].

(b) If any Change in Law shall:

(i) impose, modify or deem applicable any reserve, special deposit, liquidity or similar requirement (including any compulsory loan requirement, insurance charge or other assessment) against assets of, deposits with or for the account of, or credit extended by, any Lender (except any such reserve requirement reflected in Term SOFR);

(ii) impose on any Lender or the applicable interbank market any other condition, cost or expense (other than Taxes) affecting this Agreement, Loans made by such Lender; or

(iii) subject any Lender or the Administrative Agent to any Taxes (other than (A) Indemnified Taxes, (B) Excluded Taxes or (C) Other Taxes) with respect to its loans, commitments, or other obligations, or its deposits, reserves, other liabilities or capital attributable thereto;

and the result of any of the foregoing shall be to increase the cost to such Lender or the Administrative Agent of making, continuing, converting or maintaining any Loan (or of maintaining its obligation to make any such Loan) or to reduce the amount of any sum received or receivable by such Lender or the Administrative Agent hereunder (whether of principal, interest or otherwise), then Borrower will pay to such Lender or the Administrative Agent, as the case may be, such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender or the Administrative Agent, as the case may be, for such additional costs incurred or reduction suffered.

(c) If any Lender determines that any Change in Law regarding capital or liquidity requirements has or would have the effect of reducing the rate of return on such Lender's capital or on the capital of such Lender's holding company, if any, as a consequence of this Agreement or the Loans made by such Lender, to a level below that which such Lender or such Lender's holding company could have achieved but for such Change in Law (taking into consideration such Lender's policies and the policies of such Lender's holding company with respect to capital adequacy and liquidity), then from time to time Borrower will pay to such Lender such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender or such Lender's holding company for any such reduction suffered.

(d) If any Lender determines that any Change in Law has made it unlawful, or that any Governmental Authority has asserted that it is unlawful, for any Lender or its applicable lending office to make, maintain or fund Term SOFR Loans, or to determine or charge interest rates based upon Term SOFR, then, on notice thereof by such Lender to the Borrower through the Administrative Agent, any obligation of such Lender to make or continue Term SOFR Loans or to convert Base Rate Loans to Term SOFR Loans shall be suspended until such Lender notifies the Administrative Agent and the Borrower that the circumstances giving rise to such determination no longer exist. Upon receipt of such notice, the Borrower shall, upon demand from such Lender (with a copy to the Administrative Agent), prepay all affected Term SOFR Loans or, if applicable, convert all Term SOFR Loans of such Lender to Base Rate Loans, either on the last day of the Interest Period therefor, if such Lender may lawfully continue to maintain such Term SOFR Loans to such day, or if such Lender may not lawfully continue to maintain such Term SOFR Loans. Upon any such prepayment or conversion, the Borrower shall also pay accrued interest on the amount so prepaid or converted.

(e) A certificate of a Lender or the Administrative Agent setting forth the amount or amounts necessary to compensate such Lender or the Administrative Agent or its holding company, as the case may be, as specified in clause (b) or (c) of this Section, and certifying that it is the general practice and policy of such Lender to demand such compensation from similarly situated borrowers in similar circumstances at such time to the extent it is legally permitted to do so, shall be delivered to the Borrower and shall be conclusive absent manifest error. The Borrower shall pay such Lender or the Administrative Agent, as the case may be, the amount shown as due on any such certificate within 10 Business Days after receipt thereof.

(f) Failure or delay on the part of any Lender, or the Administrative Agent to demand compensation pursuant to this Section 2.10 shall not constitute a waiver of such Lender's or the Administrative Agent's right to demand such compensation; provided that the Borrower shall not be required to compensate a Lender or the Administrative Agent pursuant to this Section 2.10 for any increased costs or reductions incurred more than 180 days prior to the date that such Lender or the Administrative Agent, as the case may be, notifies Borrower of the Change in Law giving rise to such increased costs or reductions and of such Lender's or the Administrative Agent's intention to claim compensation therefor; provided, further, that, if the Change in Law giving rise to such increased costs or reductions is retroactive, then the 180-day period referred to above shall be extended to include the period of retroactive effect thereof.

2.11 Compensation. The Borrower agrees to compensate each Lender, upon its written request (which request shall set forth in reasonable detail the basis for requesting such compensation and the calculation of the amount of such compensation; it being understood that no Lender shall be required to disclose (i) any confidential or price sensitive information or (ii) any other information, to the extent prohibited by any Requirement of Law), for all losses, expenses and liabilities (including, any loss, expense or liability incurred by reason of the liquidation or reemployment of deposits or other funds required by such Lender to fund its Term SOFR Loans but excluding loss of anticipated profits (and without giving effect to the minimum "Term SOFR")) which such Lender may sustain: (i) if for any reason (other than a default by such Lender or the Administrative Agent) a Borrowing of, or conversion from or into, Term SOFR Loans does not occur on a date specified therefor in a Notice of Borrowing or Notice of Conversion/Continuation; (ii) if any prepayment or repayment (including any prepayment or repayment made pursuant to Section 5.01, Section 5.02 or as a result of an acceleration of the Loans pursuant to Section 11) or conversion of any of its Term SOFR Loans occurs on a date which is not the last day of an Interest Period with respect thereto; (iii) if any prepayment of any Term SOFR Loans is not made on any date specified in a Notice of Loan Prepayment given by the Borrower; or (iv) as a consequence of any other default by the Borrower to repay Term SOFR Loans when required by the terms of this Agreement or any Note held by such Lender.

2.12 Change of Lending Office. Each Lender agrees that on the occurrence of any event giving rise to the operation of Section 2.10(b), (c) or (d) or Section 5.05 with respect to such Lender, it will, if requested by the Borrower, use reasonable efforts (subject to overall policy considerations of such Lender) to designate another lending office for any Loans affected by such event; provided that such designation is made on such terms that such Lender and its lending office suffer no economic, legal or regulatory disadvantage, with the object of avoiding the consequence of the event giving rise to the operation of such Section. Nothing in this Section 2.12 shall affect or postpone any of the obligations of the Borrower or the right of any Lender provided in Sections 2.10 and 5.05.

2.13 Replacement of Lenders. (x) If any Lender becomes a Defaulting Lender, (y) upon the occurrence of an event giving rise to the operation of Section 2.10(b), (c) or (d) or Section 5.05 with respect to such Lender or (z) in the case of a refusal by a Lender to consent to proposed changes, waivers, discharges or terminations with respect to this Agreement which have been approved by the Required Lenders as (and to the extent) provided in Section 13.12(b) (such Lender, a "Non-Consenting Lender"), the Borrower shall have the right to replace such Lender (the "Replaced Lender") with one or more other Eligible Transferees, none of whom shall constitute a Defaulting Lender at the time of such replacement (collectively, the "Replacement Lender") and each of whom shall be required to be reasonably acceptable to the Administrative Agent (to the extent the Administrative Agent's consent would be required for an assignment to such Replacement Lender pursuant to Section 13.04); provided that (i) at the time of any replacement pursuant to this Section 2.13, the Replacement Lender shall enter into one or more Assignment and Assumption Agreements pursuant to Section 13.04(b) (and with all fees payable pursuant to said Section 13.04(b) to be paid by the Replacement Lender and/or the Replaced Lender (as may be agreed to at such time by and among Borrower, the Replacement Lender and the Replaced Lender)) pursuant to which the Replacement Lender shall acquire all of the Commitments and outstanding Loans of the Replaced Lender and, in connection therewith, shall pay to (x) the Replaced Lender in respect thereof an amount equal to the sum of (I) an amount equal to the principal of, and all accrued interest on, all outstanding Loans of the respective Replaced Lender under each Tranche with respect to which such Replaced Lender is being replaced and (II) an amount equal to all accrued, but theretofore unpaid, Fees owing to the Replaced Lender pursuant to Section 4.01, (ii) all obligations of the Borrower due and owing to the Replaced Lender at such time (other than those specifically described in clause (i) above in respect of which the assignment purchase price has been, or is concurrently being, paid) shall be paid in full in cash to such Replaced Lender concurrently with such replacement; upon receipt by the Replaced Lender of all amounts required to be paid to it pursuant to this Section 2.13, the Administrative Agent shall be entitled (but not obligated) and authorized to execute an Assignment and Assumption Agreement on behalf of such Replaced Lender, and any such Assignment and Assumption Agreement so executed by the Administrative Agent and the Replacement Lender shall be effective for purposes of this Section 2.13 and Section 13.04 and (iii) in the case of any assignment resulting from clause (y) above, such assignment will result in a reduction in such compensation or payments thereafter. Upon the execution of the respective Assignment and Assumption Agreement, the payment of amounts referred to in clauses (i) and (ii) above, recordation of the assignment on the Register pursuant to Section 13.04 and, if so requested by the Replacement Lender, delivery to the Replacement Lender of the appropriate Note or Notes executed by the Borrower, the Replacement Lender shall become a Lender hereunder and the Replaced Lender shall cease to constitute a Lender hereunder, except with respect to indemnification provisions under this Agreement (including, Sections 2.10, 2.11, 5.05, 12.07 and 13.01), which shall survive as to such Replaced Lender with respect to actions or occurrences prior to it ceasing to be a Lender hereunder.

2.14 Extended Term Loans.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, subject to the terms of this Section 2.14, the Borrower may at any time and from time to time request from all Lenders holding any Tranche of Term Loans (each, an "Existing Term Loan Tranche"), together with any related outstandings, be converted to extend the scheduled maturity date(s) of any payment of principal with respect to all or any portion of such Existing Term Loan Tranche (any such Term Loans which have been so converted, "Extended Term Loans")) and to provide for other terms consistent with this Section 2.14. In order to establish any Extended Term Loans, the Borrower shall provide a notice to the Administrative Agent (who shall provide a copy of such notice to each of the Term Lenders under the applicable Existing Term Loan Tranche) (each, an "Extension Request") setting forth the proposed terms of the Extended Term Loans to be established, which shall (x) be identical as offered to each Term Lender under the relevant Existing Term Loan Tranche (in each case, including as to the proposed interest rates and fees payable) and (y) have the same terms as the Existing Term Loan Tranche from which such Extended Term Loans are to be converted, except that: (i) all or any of the scheduled amortization payments of principal of the Extended Term Loans may be delayed to later dates than the scheduled amortization payments of principal of the Term Loans of such Existing Term Loan Tranche to the extent provided in the applicable Extension Amendment; (ii) [reserved]; (iii) the interest rate and fees on the Extended Term Loans (whether in the form of interest rate margin, upfront fees, original issue discount or otherwise) may be different than the interest rate and fees of such Existing Term Loan Tranche, to the extent provided in the applicable Extension Amendment; (iv) the Extension Amendment may provide for other covenants and terms that apply solely to any period after the Latest Maturity Date of the Term Loans that is in effect on the effective date of the applicable Extension Amendment (immediately prior to the establishment of such Extended Term Loans); (v) Extended Term Loans may have mandatory prepayment terms which provide for the application of proceeds from mandatory prepayment events to be made first to prepay the Term Loans under the Existing Term Loan Tranche from which such Extended Term Loans have been converted before applying any such proceeds to prepay such Extended Term Loans; (vi) Extended Term Loans may have optional prepayment terms (including call protection and terms which allow Term Loans under the relevant Existing Term Loan Tranche from which such Extended Term Loans have been converted to be optionally prepaid prior to the prepayment of such Extended Term Loans) as may be agreed by the Borrower and the Lenders thereof; and (vii) such Extended Term Loans may have other terms (other than those described in the preceding clauses (i) through (vi)) that differ from those of the Existing Term Loan Tranche, taken as a whole, that are not materially more favorable to the Lenders providing such Extended Term Loans than the provisions applicable to the Existing Term Loan Tranche. Any Extended Term Loans converted pursuant to any Extension Request shall be designated a series (each, an "Extension Series") of Extended Term Loans for all purposes of this Agreement; provided that, subject to the requirements set forth above, any Extended Term Loans converted from an Existing Term Loan Tranche may, to the extent provided in the applicable Extension Amendment, be designated as an increase in any previously established Extension Series with respect to such Existing Term Loan Tranche.

(b) [reserved].

(c) The Borrower shall provide the applicable Extension Request at least five (5) Business Days ~~(or such shorter period as to which the Administrative Agent may consent)~~ prior to the date on which Lenders under the Existing Term Loan Tranche are requested to respond, and shall agree to such procedures, if any, as may be established by, or acceptable to, the Administrative Agent, in each case acting reasonably to accomplish the purposes of this Section 2.14. No Lender shall have any obligation to agree to have any of its Term Loans of any Existing Term Loan Tranche converted into Extended Term Loans pursuant to any Extension Request. Any Lender (each, an "Extending Lender") wishing to have all or a portion of its Loans or Commitments subject to such Extension Request converted into Extended Term Loans shall notify the Administrative Agent (each, an "Extension Election") on or prior to the date specified in such Extension Request of the amount of its Term Loans under the Existing Term Loan Tranche which it has elected to request be converted into Extended Term Loans (subject to any minimum denomination requirements imposed by the Administrative Agent). Any Lender that does not respond to the Extension Request on or prior to the date specified therein shall be deemed to have rejected such Extension Request. In no event shall the aggregate principal amount of Term Loans under the applicable Existing Term Loan Tranche be greater than the amount of Extended Term Loans requested pursuant to such Extension Request.

(d) Extended Term Loans shall be established pursuant to an amendment (each, an "Extension Amendment") to this Agreement among Borrower, the Administrative Agent and each Extending Lender providing an Extended Term Loan thereunder, which shall be consistent with the provisions set forth in Section 2.14(a) above (but which shall not require the consent of any other Lender). The Administrative Agent shall promptly notify each relevant Lender as to the effectiveness of each Extension Amendment. After giving effect to the Extension, the Loans so extended shall cease to be a part of the Tranche they were a part of immediately prior to the Extension.

(e) Extensions consummated by the Borrower pursuant to this Section 2.14 shall not constitute voluntary or mandatory payments or prepayments for purposes of this Agreement. The Administrative Agent (acting at the Direction of the Required Lenders) and the Lenders hereby consent to each Extension and the other transactions contemplated by this Section 2.14 (including, for the avoidance of doubt, payment of any interest or fees in respect of any Extended Term Loans on such terms as may be set forth in the applicable Extension Request) and hereby waive the requirements of any provision of this Agreement (including, Sections 5.01, 5.02, 5.03, 13.02 or 13.06) or any other Credit Document that may otherwise prohibit any Extension or any other transaction contemplated by this Section 2.14; provided that such consent shall not be deemed to be an acceptance of any Extension Request.

(f) Each of the parties hereto hereby agrees that this Agreement and the other Credit Documents may be amended pursuant to an Extension Amendment, without the consent of any other Lenders, to the extent (but only to the extent) reasonably necessary to (i) reflect the existence and terms of any Extended Term Loans incurred established pursuant thereto, (ii) modify the scheduled repayments, if any, set forth herein with respect to any Existing Term Loan Tranche subject to an Extension Election to reflect a reduction in the principal amount of the Term Loans thereunder in an amount equal to the aggregate principal amount of the Extended Term Loans converted pursuant to the applicable Extension (with such amount to be applied ratably to reduce scheduled repayments of such Term Loans required pursuant to the terms herein, (iii) [reserved], (iv) establish new Tranches in respect of Term Loans so extended and such technical amendments as may be necessary in connection with the establishment of such new Tranches, in each case, on terms consistent with this Section 2.14 and (v) effect such other amendments to this Agreement and the other Credit Documents as may be necessary or appropriate, in the reasonable opinion of the Administrative Agent (acting at the Direction of the Majority Lenders) and the Borrower, to effect the provisions of this Section 2.14, and each Lender hereby expressly authorizes the Administrative Agent to enter into any such Extension Amendment. In connection with any Extension, the Credit Parties shall (at their expense) amend ~~(and the Administrative Agent is hereby directed to amend)~~ any Mortgage that has a maturity date prior to the Latest Maturity Date of the Term Loans so that such maturity date is extended to the Latest Maturity Date of the Term Loans (or such later date as may be ~~advised by local counsel to the Administrative Agent~~necessary), to the extent required pursuant to applicable local law (and the Administrative Agent is hereby directed to enter into such amendment).

~~2.15~~ 2.15 Incremental Commitments.

(a) The Borrower may at any time and from time to time request one or more Lenders (or one or more Eligible Transferees who will become Lenders) to provide one or more additional Tranches of Incremental Term Loan Commitments (such Term Loans incurred in connection therewith, each, an "Incremental Term Loan" and, collectively, the "Incremental Term Loans" and, each, an "Incremental Facility" and collectively, the "Incremental Facilities") in an aggregate principal for all such Incremental Term Loans and Incremental Facilities not to exceed $25,000,000 (the "Incremental Cap") to the Borrower and, subject to the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement and in the relevant Incremental Amendment, provide commitments and/or make Loans pursuant thereto; it being understood and agreed, however, that (i) no Lender shall be obligated to provide an Incremental Facility as a result of any such request by the Borrower, (ii) any Lender (including any Eligible Transferee who will become a Lender) may so provide an Incremental Facility without the consent of any other Lender, (iii) each Incremental Facility shall be denominated in Dollars, (iv) the amount of any Incremental Facility made available pursuant to a given Incremental Amendment shall be in a minimum aggregate amount for all Lenders which provide such Incremental Facility thereunder (including Eligible Transferees who will become Lenders) of at least $~~[5,000,000]~~1,000,000, (v) the aggregate principal amount of any Loan or Commitment, as applicable, pursuant to an Incremental Facility on the date of the incurrence thereof shall not exceed, when taken together with the incurrence of any Permitted Incremental Equivalent Debt pursuant to Section 10.04(xxvii), the amount that may be incurred under the Incremental Cap on such date, (vi) the proceeds of all Incremental Facilities incurred by the Borrower may be used only to finance Permitted Acquisitions and other permitted Investments, (vii) the Borrower shall specifically designate~~, in consultation with the Administrative Agent,~~ any Tranche of the Incremental Term Loan Commitments being provided thereunder (which Tranche shall be a new Tranche (i.e., not the same as any existing Tranche of Incremental Term Loans, Incremental Term Loan Commitments or other Term Loans), unless the requirements of Section 2.15(c) are satisfied), which designation shall be set forth in the applicable Incremental Amendment, (viii) if to be incurred as a new Tranche of Incremental Term Loans, such Incremental Term Loans shall have the same terms as each other Tranche of Term Loans as in effect immediately prior to the effectiveness of the relevant Incremental Amendment, except as to purpose (which is subject to the requirements of the preceding clause (vi)) and optional prepayment provisions and mandatory prepayment provisions (which are governed by Section 5.02; provided that each new Tranche of Incremental Term Loans shall be entitled to share in mandatory prepayments on a ratable basis with the other Tranches of Term Loans (unless the holders of the Incremental Term Loans of any Tranche agree to take a lesser share of any such prepayments)); provided, however, that (I) the maturity and amortization of such Tranche of Incremental Term Loans may differ, so long as, such Tranche of Incremental Term Loans shall have (a) a Maturity Date of no earlier than the ~~Term Loans~~ Latest Maturity Date as of the date such Indebtedness was incurred and (b) a Weighted Average Life to Maturity of no less than the Weighted Average Life to Maturity as then in effect for the Tranche of then outstanding Term Loans with the then longest Weighted Average Life to Maturity, (II) the Effective Yield applicable to such Tranche of Incremental Term Loans may differ from that applicable to the then outstanding Tranches of Term Loans, with the Effective Yield applicable thereto to be specified in the respective Incremental Amendment; provided, however, that, ~~[~~solely with respect to any Incremental Term Loan that is secured on a pari passu basis with the Initial Term Loans~~]~~, if the Effective Yield for any such Incremental Term Loans exceeds the Effective Yield then applicable to any then outstanding Initial Term Loans by more than 0.50% per annum, the Applicable Margins for such then outstanding Initial Term Loans shall be increased as of such date so that the difference between the Effective Yield with respect to such new Incremental Term Loans and the corresponding Effective Yield on such then outstanding Initial Term Loans is equal to 0.50%; and (III) such Tranche of Incremental Term Loans may have other terms (other than those described in preceding clauses (I) and (II)) that may differ from those of other Tranches of Term Loans, including, without limitation, as to the application of optional or voluntary prepayments among the Incremental Term Loans and the existing Term Loans, in each case, taken as a whole, that are not materially more favorable to the lenders providing such Incremental Term Loans than the provisions applicable to the existing Term Loans or as are otherwise reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent (acting at the Direction of the Required Lenders), (ix) all Incremental Term Loans (and all interest, fees and other amounts payable thereon) incurred by the Borrower shall be Obligations of the Borrower under this Agreement and the other applicable Credit Documents and shall be secured by the Security Agreement, and guaranteed under each relevant Guaranty,[4] on a pari passu basis with all other Loans secured by the Security Agreement and guaranteed under such Guaranty Agreement and shall not be secured by any assets that do not constitute Collateral for the outstanding Loans or be guaranteed by any guarantors that are not Credit Parties, (x) each Lender (including any Eligible Transferee who will become a Lender) agreeing to provide an Incremental Commitment pursuant to an Incremental Amendment shall, subject to the satisfaction of the relevant conditions set forth in this Agreement, make Incremental Term Loans under the Tranche specified in such Incremental Amendment as provided in Section 2.01(c) (with respect to Incremental Term Loans) and such Loans shall thereafter be deemed to be Incremental Term Loans under such Tranche, as applicable, for all purposes of this Agreement and the other applicable Credit Documents and (xi) all Incremental Commitment Requirements are satisfied.

(b) At the time of the provision of Incremental Commitments pursuant to this Section 2.15, the Borrower, the Administrative Agent and each such Lender (with the consent of the Administrative Agent (not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) to the extent such consent, if any, would be required under Section 13.04(b) for an assignment of Loans to such Person) or other Eligible Transferee which agrees to provide an Incremental Commitment (each, an "Incremental Lender") shall execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an Incremental Amendment (which shall not require the consent of any other Lender), with the effectiveness of the Incremental Commitment provided therein to occur on the date on which (w) a fully executed copy of such Incremental Amendment shall have been delivered to the Administrative Agent, (x) all fees required to be paid in connection therewith at the time of such effectiveness shall have been paid ~~(including, without limitation, any agreed upon upfront or arrangement fees owing to the Administrative Agent to the extent it served as the arranger for the Incremental Commitments)~~, (y) all Incremental Commitment Requirements are satisfied, and (z) all other conditions set forth in this Section 2.15 shall have been satisfied. The Administrative Agent shall promptly notify each Lender as to the effectiveness of each Incremental Amendment, and at such time, (i) Schedule 2.01 shall be deemed modified to reflect the revised Incremental Commitments of the affected Lenders and (ii) to the extent requested by any Incremental Lender or Term Notes, as applicable, will be issued at Borrower's expense to such Incremental Lender, to be in conformity with the requirements of Section 2.05 (with appropriate modification) to the extent needed to reflect the new Incremental Term Loans and Incremental Commitments made by such Incremental Lender.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained above in this Section 2.15, the Incremental Term Loan Commitments provided by an Incremental Lender or Incremental Lenders, as the case may be, pursuant to each Incremental Amendment shall constitute a new Tranche, which shall be separate and distinct from the existing Tranches pursuant to this Agreement; provided that, ~~with the consent of the Administrative Agent (at the Direction of the Required Lenders) (not to be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned),~~to the extent not adverse to any existing Lenders within the applicable existing Tranche (as reasonably determined by the Borrower in good faith) the parties to a given Incremental Amendment may specify therein that the Incremental Term Loans made pursuant thereto shall constitute part of, and be added to, an existing Tranche of Term Loans, in any case so long as the following requirements are satisfied:

(i) the Incremental Term Loans to be made pursuant to such Incremental Amendment shall have the same Borrower, the same Maturity Date and the same Applicable Margins as the Tranche of Term Loans to which the new Incremental Term Loans are being added;

(ii) the new Incremental Term Loans shall have the same scheduled repayment dates, if any, as then remain with respect to the Tranche to which such new Incremental Term Loans are being added (with the amount of each scheduled repayment applicable to such new Incremental Term Loans to be the same (on a proportionate basis) as is theretofore applicable to the Tranche to which such new Incremental Term Loans are being added, thereby increasing the amount of each then remaining scheduled repayment of the respective Tranche proportionately); and

(iii) on the date of the making of such new Incremental Term Loans, and notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in Section 2.09, such new Incremental Term Loans shall be added to (and form part of) each Borrowing of outstanding Term Loans of the applicable Tranche on a pro rata basis (based on the relative sizes of the various outstanding Borrowings), so that each Lender holding Term Loans under the respective Tranche of Term Loans participates in each outstanding Borrowing of Term Loans of the respective Tranche (after giving effect to the incurrence of such new Incremental Term Loans pursuant to Section 2.01(b)) on a pro rata basis.

To the extent the provisions of the preceding clause (iii) require that Incremental Lenders making new Incremental Term Loans add such Incremental Term Loans to the then outstanding Borrowings of Term SOFR Loans of such Tranche, it is acknowledged that the effect thereof may result in such new Incremental Term Loans having irregular Interest Periods (i.e., an Interest Period that began during an Interest Period then applicable to outstanding Term SOFR Loans of such Tranche and which will end on the last day of such Interest Period), which irregular interest periods shall be permitted notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement. All determinations by the Administrative Agent of the Term SOFR, in such circumstances pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence shall, absent manifest error, be final and conclusive and binding on all parties hereto.

2.16 Inability to Determine Rates for Loans. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in any other Credit Document:

(i) Upon the occurrence of a Benchmark Transition Event, the applicable Benchmark Replacement will replace the then-current Benchmark for all purposes hereunder and under any Credit Document in respect of any Benchmark setting at or after 5:00 p.m. on the fifth (5th) Business Day after the date notice of such Benchmark Replacement is provided to the Lenders without any amendment to, or further action or consent of any other party to, this Agreement or any other Credit Document so long as the Administrative Agent has not received, by such time, written notice of objection to such Benchmark Replacement from Lenders comprising the Required Lenders (and any such objection shall be conclusive and binding absent manifest error).

(ii) At any time that the administrator of the then-current Benchmark has permanently or indefinitely ceased to provide such Benchmark or such Benchmark has been announced by the regulatory supervisor for the administrator of such Benchmark pursuant to public statement or publication of information to be no longer representative of the underlying market and economic reality that such Benchmark is intended to measure and that representativeness will not be restored, the Borrower may revoke any request for a borrowing of, conversion to or continuation of Loans to be made, converted or continued that would bear interest by reference to such Benchmark until Borrower's receipt of notice from the Administrative Agent that a Benchmark Replacement has replaced such Benchmark, and, failing that, the Borrower will be deemed to have converted any such request into a request for a borrowing of or conversion to Base Rate Loans. During the period referenced in the foregoing sentence, the component of Base Rate based upon the Benchmark will not be used in any determination of Base Rate.

(iii) In connection with the implementation and administration of a Benchmark Replacement, the Administrative Agent (acting at the Direction of the Required Lenders) will have the right to make Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes from time to time and, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in any other Credit Document, any amendments implementing such Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes will become effective without any further action or consent of any other party to this Agreement.

(iv) The Administrative Agent will promptly notify Borrower and the Lenders of (A) the implementation of any Benchmark Replacement and (B) the effectiveness of any Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes. Any determination, decision or election that may be made by the Administrative Agent pursuant to this Section 2.16(~~e~~iv), including any determination with respect to a tenor, rate or adjustment or of the occurrence or non-occurrence of an event, circumstance or date and any decision to take or refrain from taking any action, will be conclusive and binding absent manifest error and may be made in its sole discretion and without consent from any other party hereto, except, in each case, as expressly required pursuant to this Section 2.16(~~e~~iv).

(v) At any time (including in connection with the implementation of a Benchmark Replacement), (A) if the then-current Benchmark is a term rate (including Term SOFR), then the Administrative Agent may remove any tenor of such Benchmark that is unavailable or non-representative for Benchmark (including Benchmark Replacement) settings and (B) the Administrative Agent may reinstate any such previously removed tenor for Benchmark (including Benchmark Replacement) settings.

~~Section~~ 2.20 Reverse Dutch Auction Repurchases.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement or any other Credit Document, the Borrower may, at any time and from time to time, conduct reverse Dutch auctions in order to purchase Term Loans of a particular Tranche (each, an "Auction") (each such Auction to be managed exclusively by the Administrative Agent or any other bank or investment bank of recognized standing selected by the Borrower (with the consent of the Administrative Agent or such other bank or investment bank) following consultation with the Administrative Agent (in such capacity, the "Auction Manager")), so long as the following conditions are satisfied:

(i) each Auction shall be conducted in accordance with the procedures, terms and conditions set forth in this Section 2.20(a) and Schedule 2.20(a);[5]

(ii) no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing on the date of the delivery of each auction notice and at the time of purchase of Term Loans in connection with any Auction;

(iii) the minimum principal amount (calculated on the face amount thereof) of all Term Loans that the Borrower offers to purchase in any such Auction shall be no less than $~~[2,500,000] (unless another amount is agreed to by the Administrative Agent)~~1,000,000;

(iv) the Borrower shall not use the proceeds of any Revolving Borrowings or ~~borrowing under the~~ ABL ~~Credit Agreement~~Revolving Loans to finance any such repurchase; and

(v) the aggregate principal amount (calculated on the face amount thereof) of all Term Loans so purchased by the Borrower shall automatically be cancelled and retired on the settlement date of the relevant purchase (and may not be resold).

(b) The Borrower must terminate an Auction if it fails to satisfy one or more of the conditions set forth above which are required to be met at the time which otherwise would have been the time of purchase of Term Loans pursuant to such Auction. The Borrower may withdraw any Auction if the reply amounts are insufficient to complete the purchase of a minimum principal amount of the Term Loans designated in writing to the applicable Auction Manager by the Borrower (the "Minimum Purchase Condition"). The Borrower shall not have any liability to any Lender for any termination of such Auction as a result of its failure to satisfy one or more of the conditions set forth above which are required to be met at the time which otherwise would have been the time of purchase of Term Loans pursuant to the such Auction, or for any termination of such Auction as a result of the failure to satisfy the Minimum Purchase Condition, and any such failure shall not result in any Default or Event of Default hereunder. With respect to all purchases of Term Loans made pursuant to this Section 2.20, (x) the Borrower shall pay on the settlement date of each such purchase all accrued and unpaid interest (except to the extent otherwise set forth in the relevant offering documents), if any, on the purchased Term Loans up to the settlement date of such purchase and (y) such purchases (and the payments made therefor and the cancellation of the purchased Term Loans, in each case in connection therewith) shall not constitute voluntary or mandatory payments or prepayments for purposes of Sections 5.01, 5.02 or 13.06. At the time of purchases of Term Loans pursuant to any Auction, the then remaining scheduled repayments, if any, shall be reduced by the aggregate principal amount (taking the face amount thereof) of Term Loans repurchased pursuant to such Auction, with such reduction to be applied to such scheduled repayments on a pro rata basis (based on the then remaining principal amount of each such scheduled repayment).

(c) The Administrative Agent and the Lenders hereby consent to the Auctions and the other transactions contemplated by this Section 2.20 (provided that no Lender shall have an obligation to participate in any such Auctions) and hereby waive the requirements of any provision of this Agreement (including, without limitation, Sections 5.01, 5.02 and 13.06 (it being understood and acknowledged that purchases of the Term Loans by the Borrower contemplated by this Section 2.20 shall not constitute Investments by such Person)) or any other Credit Document that may otherwise prohibit any Auction or any other transaction contemplated by this Section 2.20. The Auction Manager acting in its capacity as such hereunder shall be entitled to the benefits of the provisions of Section 12 and Section 13.01 mutatis mutandis as if each reference therein to the "Administrative Agent" were a reference to the Auction Manager, and the Administrative Agent and the Auction Manager shall cooperate in a reasonable manner in connection therewith.

2.21 Open Market Purchases.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement or any other Credit Document, the Borrower may, at any time and from time to time, make open market purchases (or purchases pursuant to privately negotiated transactions) (including on a non-pro rata basis) of Term Loans (each, an "Open Market Purchase"), so long as such open market purchases or purchases pursuant to privately negotiated transactions are offered to all Lenders of the relevant Tranche on a pro rata basis and the following conditions are satisfied:

(i) no Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing on the date of such Open Market Purchase;

(ii) the Borrower shall not use the proceeds of any Revolving Borrowings or ~~borrowing under the~~ ABL ~~Credit Agreement~~Revolving Loans to finance any such purchase; and

(iii) the aggregate principal amount (calculated on the face amount thereof) of all Term Loans so purchased by the Borrower shall automatically be cancelled and retired on the settlement date of the relevant purchase (and may not be resold).

(b) With respect to all purchases of Term Loans made pursuant to this Section 2.21, (x) the Borrower shall pay on the settlement date of each such purchase all accrued and unpaid interest, if any, on the purchased Term Loans up to the settlement date of such purchase (except to the extent otherwise set forth in the relevant purchase documents as agreed by the respective selling Lender) and (y) such purchases (and the payments made therefor and the cancellation of the purchased Term Loans, in each case in connection therewith) shall not constitute voluntary or mandatory payments or prepayments for purposes of Section 5.01, 5.02 or 13.06. At the time of purchases of Term Loans pursuant to any Open Market Purchase, the then remaining scheduled repayments, if any, shall be reduced by the aggregate principal amount (taking the face amount thereof) of Term Loans repurchased pursuant to such Open Market Purchase, with such reduction to be applied to such scheduled repayments on a pro rata basis (based on the then remaining principal amount of each such scheduled repayments).

(c) The Administrative Agent and the Lenders hereby consent to the Open Market Purchases contemplated by this Section 2.21 and hereby waive the requirements of any provision of this Agreement (including, without limitation, Sections 5.01, 5.02 and 13.06 (it being understood and acknowledged that purchases of the Term Loans by the Borrower contemplated by this Section 2.21 shall not constitute Investments by such Person)) or any other Credit Document that may otherwise prohibit any Open Market Purchase by this Section 2.21.

2.23 Defaulting Lenders.

(a) Adjustments. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, if any Lender becomes a Defaulting Lender, then, until such time as that Lender is no longer a Defaulting Lender, to the extent permitted by applicable law:

(i) Waivers and Amendments. Such Defaulting Lender's right to approve or disapprove any amendment, waiver or consent with respect to this Agreement shall be restricted as set forth in the ~~definition~~definitions of "Required Lenders", "Majority Lenders" and Section 13.12.

(ii) Defaulting Lender Waterfall. Any payment of principal, interest, fees or other amounts received by the Administrative Agent for the account of such Defaulting Lender (whether voluntary or mandatory, at maturity, pursuant to Section 11 or otherwise) or received by the Administrative Agent from a Defaulting Lender pursuant to Section 13.02 shall be applied at such time or times as may be determined by the Administrative Agent as follows: first, to the payment of any amounts owing by such Defaulting Lender to the Administrative Agent hereunder; second, as the Borrower may request (so long as no Default or Event of Default exists), to the funding of any Loan in respect of which such Defaulting Lender has failed to fund its portion thereof as required by this Agreement, as determined by the Administrative Agent; third, if so determined by the Administrative Agent and the Borrower, to be held in a deposit account and released pro rata in order to satisfy such Defaulting Lender's potential future funding obligations with respect to Loans under this Agreement; fourth, to the payment of any amounts owing to the Lenders as a result of any judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction obtained by any Lender against such Defaulting Lender as a result of such Defaulting Lender's breach of its obligations under this Agreement; fifth, to the payment of any amounts owing to the Borrower as a result of any judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction obtained by the Borrower against such Defaulting Lender as a result of such Defaulting Lender's breach of its obligations under this Agreement; and sixth, to such Defaulting Lender or as otherwise directed by a court of competent jurisdiction; provided that if (x) such payment is a payment of the principal amount of any Loans in respect of which such Defaulting Lender has not fully funded its appropriate share, and (y) such Loans were made at a time when the conditions set forth in Section 4.02 were satisfied or waived, such payment shall be applied solely to pay the Loans of all Non-Defaulting Lenders on a pro rata basis prior to being applied to the payment of any Loans of such Defaulting Lender until such time as all Loans are held by the Lenders pro rata in accordance with the Commitments hereunder. Any payments, prepayments or other amounts paid or payable to a Defaulting Lender that are applied (or held) to pay amounts owed by a Defaulting Lender pursuant to this Section 2.23(a)(ii) shall be deemed paid to and redirected by such Defaulting Lender, and each Lender irrevocably consents hereto.

(b) Defaulting Lender Cure. If Borrower and the Administrative Agent agree in writing that a Lender is no longer a Defaulting Lender, the Administrative Agent will so notify the parties hereto, whereupon as of the effective date specified in such notice and subject to any conditions set forth therein, that Lender will, to the extent applicable, purchase at par that portion of outstanding Loans of the other Lenders or take such other actions as the Administrative Agent may determine to be necessary to cause the Loans to be held pro rata by the Lenders in accordance with the Commitments, whereupon such Lender will cease to be a Defaulting Lender; provided that no adjustments will be made retroactively with respect to fees accrued or payments made by or on behalf of the Borrower while that Lender was a Defaulting Lender; provided, further, that except to the extent otherwise expressly agreed by the affected parties, no change hereunder from Defaulting Lender to Lender will constitute a waiver or release of any claim of any party hereunder arising from that Lender's having been a Defaulting Lender.

Section 4. Fees; Reductions of Commitment.

4.01 Fees.

(a) Administrative Agent Fees. The Borrower agrees to pay to the Administrative Agent, for its own account, the fees set forth in the Agency Fee Letter or such other fees payable in the amounts and at the times separately agreed upon between the Borrower and the Administrative Agent.

(b) Upfront Amount. The Borrower agrees to pay to the Term Lenders (including the Fronting Lender~~,~~ for the ~~pro rata~~ benefit of the applicable Term Lenders), an upfront amount equal to 3.00% of the Total Initial Term Loan Commitment (the "Upfront Amount"), which shall be paid in-kind on the Closing Date by capitalizing and adding the applicable portion of the Upfront Amount to the principal amount of the Initial Term Loans (and the Fronting Lender shall subsequently assign the Upfront Amount to the applicable Term Lenders pursuant to the Fronting Arrangement). For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 4.02(b) will also apply to any Initial Term Loans that are deemed to be funded pursuant to Section 2.01(d) and Section 2.01(e).

4.02 Reduction of Commitments.

(a) In addition to any other mandatory commitment reductions pursuant to this Section 4.02, the Total Initial Term Loan Commitment shall terminate in its entirety on the Closing Date after the funding (or deemed funding) of all Initial Term Loans on such date.

(b) In addition to any other mandatory commitment reductions pursuant to this Section 4.02, the Total Incremental Term Loan Commitment pursuant to an Incremental Amendment (and the Incremental Term Loan Commitment of each Lender with such a Commitment) shall terminate in its entirety on the Incremental Term Loan Borrowing Date for such Total Incremental Term Loan Commitment after the funding of all relevant Incremental Term Loans on such date.

(c) Each reduction to the Total Initial Term Loan Commitment and the Total Incremental Term Loan Commitment under a given Tranche pursuant to this Section 4.02 as provided above (or pursuant to Section 5.02) shall be applied proportionately to reduce the Initial Term Loan Commitment or the Incremental Term Loan Commitment under such Tranche, as the case may be, of each Lender with such a Commitment.

Section 5. Prepayments; Payments; Taxes.

5.01 Voluntary Prepayments.

(a) The Borrower shall have the right to prepay the Term Loans of any Tranche, without premium or penalty (other than as provided in Section 2.11 and Section 5.06), in whole or in part at any time and from time to time on the following terms and conditions: (i) the Borrower shall give the Administrative Agent at its Notice Office a Notice of Loan Prepayment ~~(or telephonic notice promptly confirmed in writing)~~ of its intent to prepay all of the Term Loans, or in the case of any partial prepayment, the Tranche of Term Loans to be prepaid, the amount of the Term Loans to be prepaid, the Types of Term Loans to be repaid, the manner in which such prepayment shall apply to reduce the scheduled repayments of the Term Loans, if any, on a pro rata basis and, in the case of Term SOFR Loans, the specific Borrowing or Borrowings pursuant to which made, which notice shall be given by the Borrower (x) prior to 11:00 a.m. (New York City time) at least one Business Day prior to the date of such prepayment in the case of Term Loans maintained as Base Rate Loans and (y) prior to 11:00 a.m. (New York City time) at least two Business Days prior to the date of such prepayment in the case of Term SOFR Loans ~~(or, in the case of clauses (x) and (y), such shorter period as the Administrative Agent shall agree in its sole and absolute discretion)~~, and be promptly transmitted by the Administrative Agent to each of the Lenders; (ii) each partial prepayment of Term Loans pursuant to this Section 5.01(a) shall be in an aggregate principal amount of at least $~~[~~1,000,000~~]~~ ~~or such lesser amount as is acceptable to the Administrative Agent~~; provided that if any partial prepayment of Term SOFR Loans made pursuant to any Borrowing shall reduce the outstanding principal amount of Term SOFR Loans made pursuant to such Borrowing to an amount less than the Minimum Borrowing Amount applicable thereto, then if such Borrowing is a Borrowing of Term SOFR Loans, such Borrowing shall automatically be converted into a Borrowing of Base Rate Loans and any election of an Interest Period with respect thereto given by the Borrower shall have no force or effect; (iii) each prepayment pursuant to this Section 5.01(a) in respect of any Term Loans made pursuant to a Borrowing shall be applied pro rata among such Term Loans; provided that it is understood and agreed that this clause (iii) may be modified as expressly provided in Section 2.14 in connection with an Extension Amendment; and (iv) each prepayment of principal of Term Loans of a given Tranche pursuant to this Section 5.01(a) shall be applied as directed by the Borrower in the applicable Notice of Loan Prepayment delivered pursuant to this Section 5.01(a) or, if no such direction is given, in direct order of maturity, if any. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, any such Notice of Loan Prepayment pursuant to this Section 5.01(a) may state that it is conditioned upon the occurrence or non-occurrence of any event specified therein (including, but not limited to, the effectiveness of other credit facilities, the occurrence of a Change of Control or any similar event), in which case such notice may be revoked by the Borrower (by written notice to the Administrative Agent on or prior to the specified effective date) if such condition is not satisfied.

(b) In the event (i) of a refusal by a Lender to consent to proposed changes, amendments, waivers, discharges or terminations with respect to this Agreement which have been approved by the Required Lenders as (and to the extent) provided in Section 13.12(b) or (ii) any Lender becomes a Defaulting Lender, the Borrower may, upon three Business Days' prior written notice to the Administrative Agent at the Notice Office ~~(or such shorter notice as may be agreed by the Administrative Agent)~~ repay all Term Loans of such Lender, together with accrued and unpaid interest, Fees and other amounts owing to such Lender in accordance with, and subject to the requirements of, Section 13.12(b), so long as, in the case of any repayment pursuant to clause (i) hereof, the consents, if any, required under Section 13.12(b) in connection with the repayment pursuant to such clause (i) have been obtained. Each prepayment of any Term Loan pursuant to this Section 5.01(b) shall reduce the then remaining scheduled repayments of the applicable Tranche of Term Loans, if any, on a pro rata basis (based on the then remaining unpaid principal amounts of scheduled repayments of the respective Tranche after giving effect to all prior reductions thereto).

5.02 Mandatory Repayments.[6]

(a) The Borrower shall be required to repay to the Administrative Agent for the ratable account of the Lenders on the Initial Maturity Date for Initial Term Loans, the aggregate principal amount of all Initial Term Loans that remain outstanding on such date.

(b) In addition to any other mandatory repayments pursuant to this Section 5.02, the Borrower shall be required to make, with respect to each new Tranche (i.e., other than Initial Term Loans, which are addressed in the preceding clause (a)) of Term Loans to the extent then outstanding, scheduled amortization payments of such Tranche of Term Loans to the extent, and on the dates and in the principal amounts, set forth in the Incremental Term Loan Amendment or Extension Amendment applicable thereto.

(c) In addition to any other mandatory repayments pursuant to this Section 5.02, within one (1) Business Day following each date on or after the Closing Date upon which the Borrower or any other Group Member receives any cash proceeds from any issuance or incurrence of Indebtedness (other than Indebtedness permitted to be incurred pursuant to Section

[6] ~~NTD: Interplay between this Section and the corresponding section in the RCF Credit Agreement to be confirmed.~~

10.04), an amount equal to 100% of the Net Debt Proceeds therefrom shall be applied as a mandatory repayment in accordance with the requirements of Sections 5.02(g) and (h).

(d) In addition to any other mandatory repayments pursuant to this Section 5.02, within 10 days following each date on or after the Closing Date upon which the Borrower or any other Group Member receives any Net Sale Proceeds from any Asset Sale (other than in respect of ABL Collateral), an amount equal to 100% of the Net Sale Proceeds therefrom, shall be applied as a mandatory repayment in accordance with the requirements of Sections 5.02(g) and (h); provided~~, however~~ that, with respect to an aggregate amount of no more than $~~[15,000,000]~~5,000,000 of such Net Sale Proceeds received by the Group Members in any fiscal year of the Borrower~~, such~~ (and no more than $10,000,000 in the aggregate for all the excluded amounts under this Section 5.02(d) and Section 5.02(f) below), such amount of Net Sale Proceeds shall not be required to be so applied or used to make mandatory repayments of Term Loans and any required prepayment shall be only the amount in excess thereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Borrower or such other Group Member may apply all or a portion of such Net Sale Proceeds that would otherwise be required to be applied as a mandatory repayment hereunder to reinvest in the purchase of assets that are Collateral (excluding assets that constitute, or would constitute, ABL Collateral) useful in the business of the Borrower and the other Group Members within 12 months following the date of receipt of such Net Sale Proceeds (or, if within such 12-month period, the Borrower or any other Group Member enters into a binding commitment to so reinvest such Net Sale Proceeds, within 180 days following such 12-month period during which the Borrower so committed to such plan of reinvestment); provided, further, that if within 12 months (or, to the extent applicable, 18 months) after the date of receipt by the Borrower or such other Group Members of such Net Sale Proceeds, the Borrower or such other Group Member has not so used all or a portion of such Net Sale Proceeds that would otherwise be required to be applied as a mandatory repayment hereunder, an amount equal to the remaining portion of such Net Sale Proceeds that would otherwise be required to be applied as a mandatory repayment hereunder shall be applied as a mandatory repayment in accordance with the requirements of Sections 5.02(g) and (h) on the last day of such 12-month (or, to the extent applicable, 18-month) period.

(e) In addition to any other mandatory repayments pursuant to this Section 5.02, on each Excess Cash Flow Payment Date, an amount (such amount the "Excess Cash Flow Payment Amount") equal to the remainder of (i) ~~the Applicable ECF Prepayment Percentage~~50% of the Excess Cash Flow for the related Excess Cash Flow Payment Period less (ii) the aggregate amount of all Voluntary Pari Passu Debt Prepayments, less (iii) the portion of transaction costs and expenses related to clause (ii) above (to the extent not deducted in determining Consolidated Net Income), less (iv) the aggregate amount of any premium, make-whole or penalty payments actually paid in cash that are required to be made in connection with any prepayment, buyback or redemption of Indebtedness pursuant to clause (ii) above, in each case of the foregoing clauses (ii) and (iii), made during the relevant Excess Cash Flow Payment Period, in each case, to the extent not financed with the proceeds of long-term Indebtedness (excluding ABL Revolving Loans, Revolving Loans and borrowings under any similar working capital facility permitted under Section 10.04), shall be applied as a mandatory repayment in accordance with the requirements of Sections 5.02(g) and (h); provided, that no prepayment shall be required with respect to any Excess Cash Flow Payment Period to the extent Excess Cash Flow for such period is equal to or less than $~~[~~5,000,000~~]~~, and, in such case, the required prepayment shall be only the amount in excess thereof.

(f) In addition to any other mandatory repayments pursuant to this Section 5.02, within 10 days following each date on or after the Closing Date upon which the Borrower or any other Group Member receives any Net Insurance Proceeds from any Recovery Event (other than in respect of ABL Collateral), an amount equal to 100% of the Net Insurance Proceeds from such Recovery Event shall be applied as a mandatory repayment in accordance with the requirements of Sections 5.02(g) and (h); provided~~, however~~ that, with respect to an aggregate amount of no more than $~~[10,000,000]~~5,000,000 of such Net Insurance Proceeds received by the ~~Borrower and the~~ Group Members in any fiscal year of the Borrower (and no more than $10,000,000 in the aggregate for all such excluded amounts under this Section 5.02(f) and 5.02(d) above), such Net Insurance Proceeds shall not give rise to a mandatory repayment and any required prepayment shall be only the amount in excess thereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Borrower or such other Group Member may apply all or a portion of such Net Insurance Proceeds that would otherwise be required to be applied as a mandatory repayment hereunder to reinvest in the purchase of assets that are Collateral (excluding assets that constitute, or would constitute, ABL Collateral) useful in the business of the Group Members within 12 months following the date of receipt of such Net Insurance Proceeds (or, if within such 12-month period, the Borrower or any other Group Member enters into a binding commitment to so reinvest such Net Insurance Proceeds, within 180 days following such 12-month period during which the Borrower so committed to such plan of reinvestment); provided, further, that if within 12 months (or, to the extent applicable, 18 months) after the date of receipt by the Borrower or such other Group Member of such Net Insurance Proceeds, the Borrower or such other Group Member has not so used all or a portion of such Net Insurance Proceeds that would otherwise be required to be applied as a mandatory repayment hereunder, an amount equal to the remaining portion of such Net Insurance Proceeds that would otherwise be required to be applied as a mandatory repayment hereunder shall be applied as a mandatory repayment in accordance with the requirements of Sections 5.02(g) and (h) on the last day of such 12-month (or, to the extent applicable, 18-month) period.

(g) ~~Each~~Subject to the USS ABL Intercreditor Agreement and the USS Revolver Intercreditor Agreement, each amount required to be applied pursuant to Sections 5.02(a), (c), (d), (e) and (f) in accordance with this Section 5.02(g) shall be applied to repay the outstanding principal amount of Term Loans, with each Tranche of then outstanding Term Loans to be allocated its Term Loan Percentage of each amount so required to be applied. Except as otherwise provided below, all repayments of outstanding Term Loans of a given Tranche pursuant to Sections 5.02(c), (d), (e) and (f) (and applied pursuant to this clause (g)) shall be applied to reduce the scheduled repayments, if any, of the applicable Tranche in direct order of maturity of such scheduled repayments. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the mandatory prepayment amounts that are required under this Section 5.02 shall be reduced by the aggregate amount of any prepayments required under the USS Revolver Credit Agreement or, with respect to ABL Collateral, the USS ABL Credit Agreement due to the occurrence of the same event that triggered such mandatory prepayment hereunder.

(h) With respect to each repayment of Term Loans required by this Section 5.02, the Borrower may designate the Types of Term Loans of the applicable Tranche which are to be repaid and, in the case of Term SOFR Loans, the specific Borrowing or Borrowings of the applicable Tranche pursuant to which such Term SOFR Loans were made; provided that: (i) repayments of Term SOFR Loans pursuant to this Section 5.02 may only be made on the last day of an Interest Period applicable thereto unless all such Term SOFR Loans of the applicable Tranche with Interest Periods ending on such date of required repayment and all Base Rate Loans of the applicable Tranche have been paid in full; and (ii) each repayment of any Term Loans made pursuant to a Borrowing shall be applied pro rata among such Term Loans. In the absence of a designation by the Borrower as described in the preceding sentence, the Administrative Agent shall, subject to the above, make such designation in its reasonable discretion.

(i) In addition to any other mandatory repayments pursuant to this Section 5.02, all then outstanding Term Loans of any Tranche of Term Loans shall be repaid in full in cash on the Maturity Date for such Tranche of Term Loans.

(j) [Reserved].

(k) The Borrower shall notify the Administrative Agent in writing of any mandatory repayment of Term Loans required to be made pursuant to Section 5.02 (c), (d), (e) or (f) at least three Business Days prior to the date of such repayment. Each such notice shall specify the date of such repayment and provide a reasonably detailed calculation of the amount of such repayment. The Administrative Agent will promptly notify the Lenders of the contents of the Borrower's Notice of Loan Prepayment and of such Lender's pro rata share of any repayment. Each Lender may reject all or a portion of its pro rata share of any mandatory repayment (such declined amounts, the "Initial Declined Proceeds") of Term Loans required to be made pursuant to Section 5.02(c), (d), (e) or (f) by providing written notice (each, a "Rejection Notice") to the Administrative Agent and the Borrower no later than 5:00 P.M. (New York City time) on the Business Day after the date of such Lender's receipt of notice from the Administrative Agent regarding such repayment (the "Rejection Notice Deadline"). Each Rejection Notice from a given Lender shall specify the principal amount of the mandatory repayment of Term Loans to be rejected by such Lender. If a Lender fails to deliver such Rejection Notice to the Administrative Agent within the time frame specified above or such Rejection Notice fails to specify the principal amount of the Term Loans to be rejected, any such failure will be deemed an acceptance of the total amount of such mandatory repayment of Term Loans to which such Lender is otherwise entitled. On the first Business Day after the Rejection Notice Deadline, the Administrative Agent shall inform each Lender that did not deliver a Rejection Notice (each, an "Accepting Lender") of the amount of Initial Declined Proceeds, at which point each such Accepting Lender may elect to accept or reject all or a portion of its pro rata share of the Initial Declined Proceeds as a mandatory repayment by providing written notice (an "Excess Declined Proceeds Notice") to the Administrative Agent and the Borrower no later than 5:00 P.M. (New York City time) on the Business Day after the date of such Lender's receipt of notice from the Administrative Agent regarding such repayment. Each such Excess Declined Proceeds Notice from an Accepting Lender shall specify the principal amount of the Initial Declined Proceeds to be accepted or rejected by such Accepting Lender. If an Accepting Lender fails to deliver such Excess Declined Proceeds Notice to the Administrative Agent within the time frame specified above or such Excess Declined Proceeds Notice fails to specify the principal amount of the Term Loans to be accepted, any such failure will be deemed a rejection of the total amount of such portion of the Initial Declined Proceeds to which such Accepting Lender is otherwise entitled. All Initial Declined Proceeds that are rejected or deemed rejected by Accepting Lenders may be retained by the Borrower following compliance with the provisions hereof.

5.03 Reserved.

5.04 Method and Place of Payment.

(a) All payments under this Agreement and under any Note with respect to any Loans denominated in Dollars shall be made (i) to the Administrative Agent at its Notice Office for the account of the Lender or Lenders entitled thereto, or, except as otherwise specifically provided herein, directly to such Lender or Lenders, in each case, not later than 2:00 p.m. (New York City time) on the date when due (or, in connection with any prepayment of all outstanding Term Loans, such later time on the specified prepayment date as the Administrative Agent (acting at the Direction of the Required Lenders) may agree), (ii) in Dollars in immediately available funds and (iii) free and clear of and without condition or deduction for any counterclaim, defense, recoupment or setoff. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Administrative Agent (acting at the Direction of the Required Lenders) may require that any payments due under this Agreement be made in the United States. Any payment received after such time on such date referred to in the first sentence of this Section 5.04 shall, at the option of the Administrative Agent (acting at the Direction of the Required Lenders), be deemed to have been received on the next Business Day. Whenever any payment to be made hereunder or under any Note shall be stated to be due on a day which is not a Business Day, the due date thereof shall be extended to the next succeeding Business Day and, with respect to payments of principal, interest shall be payable at the applicable rate during such extension. Unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice from the Borrower prior to the date on which any payment is due to the Administrative Agent for the account of the Lenders hereunder that the Borrower will not make such payment, the Administrative Agent may assume that the Borrower has made such payment on such date in accordance herewith and may, in reliance upon such assumption, distribute to the Lenders the amount due.

(b) Obligations of Lenders Several. The obligations of the Lenders hereunder to make Loans and to make payments pursuant to Section 12.07 are several and not joint. The failure of any Lender to make any Loan or to make any payment under Section 12.07 on any date required hereunder shall not relieve any other Lender of its corresponding obligation to do so on such date, and no Lender shall be responsible for the failure of any other Lender to so make its Loan or to make its payment under Section 12.07.

5.05 Net Payments.

(a) All payments made by or on account of any Credit Party under any Credit Document shall be made free and clear of, and without deduction or withholding for, any Taxes, except as required by applicable Requirements of Law. If any Taxes are required to be withheld or deducted in respect of any such payments, then the Credit Parties jointly and severally agree that (i) to the extent such deduction or withholding is on account of an Indemnified Tax or Other Tax, the sum payable by the applicable Credit Party shall be increased as necessary so that after all required deductions or withholdings (including deduction or withholdings applicable to additional sums payable under this Section 5.05) have been made by the applicable withholding agent, the applicable Lender (or, in the case of payments made to the Administrative Agent for its own account, the Administrative Agent) receives an amount equal to the sum it would have received had no such deductions or withholdings been made, (ii) the applicable withholding agent will make such deductions or withholdings, and (iii) the applicable withholding agent shall timely pay the full amount deducted or withheld to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable Requirements of Law. In addition, the Credit Parties shall timely pay any Other Taxes to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with applicable Requirements of Law. The Credit Parties will furnish to the Administrative Agent, as soon as reasonably practicable, and in any event within 45 days after the date the payment by any of them of any Taxes pursuant to this Section 5.05 is due pursuant to applicable Requirements of Law, certified copies of tax receipts evidencing such payment by the applicable Credit Party, or other evidence of such payment reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent. Without duplication of amounts compensated pursuant to the other provisions of this Section 5.05, the Credit Parties shall jointly and severally indemnify and hold harmless the Administrative Agent and each Lender, and reimburse the Administrative Agent and each Lender, within 10 Business Days of written request therefor, for the amount of any Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes (including any Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes imposed on amounts payable under this Section 5.05) payable or paid by the Administrative Agent or such Lender or required to be withheld or deducted from a payment to the Administrative Agent or such Lender, and any reasonable out-of-pocket expenses arising therefrom or with respect thereto, whether or not such Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes were correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered by a Lender or by the Administrative Agent on behalf of a Lender shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

(b) Any Lender that is entitled to an exemption from or reduction of withholding Tax with respect to any payments made under any Credit Document shall deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent, at the time or times reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, such properly completed and executed documentation reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, certifying as to any entitlement of such Lender to an exemption from, or a reduced rate of, withholding Tax. In addition, each Lender shall deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent, at the time or times reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, such other documentation prescribed by applicable Requirements of Law or reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent as will enable the Borrower or the Administrative Agent to determine whether such Lender is subject to backup withholding or information reporting requirements. Each Lender shall, whenever a lapse in time or change in circumstances renders any such documentation form or certification it previously delivered to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent expired, obsolete or inaccurate in any respect, deliver promptly to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent updated or other appropriate documentation (including any new documentation reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent) or promptly notify the Borrower and the Administrative Agent in writing of its legal ineligibility to do so. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 5.05(b), the completion, execution and submission of such documentation (other than such documentation set forth in clauses (x)(i)–(iv), (y) and (z) of Section 5.05(c)) shall not be required if in the Lender's reasonable judgment such completion, execution or submission would subject such Lender to any material unreimbursed cost or expense or would materially prejudice the legal or commercial position of such Lender.

(c) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing: (x) each Lender that is not a U.S. Person shall, to the extent it is legally eligible to do so, deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent on or prior to the Closing Date or, in the case of a Lender that is an assignee or transferee of an interest under this Agreement pursuant to Section 2.13 or 13.04(b) (unless the relevant Lender was already a Lender hereunder immediately prior to such assignment or transfer), on the date of such assignment or transfer to such Lender, and in each case from time to time thereafter upon the reasonable request of the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, whichever of the following is applicable: (i) a duly executed IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E claiming the benefits of an income tax treaty to which the United States is a party; (ii) a duly executed original of IRS Form W-8ECI; (iii) in the case of such a Lender claiming the benefits of the exemption for portfolio interest under Section 881(c) of the Code, (A) a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit C-1 to the effect that such Lender is not a "bank" within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Code, a "10-percent shareholder" of the Borrower within the meaning of Section 871(h)(3)(B) of the Code, or a "controlled foreign corporation" related to the Borrower, as described in Section 881(c)(3)(C) of the Code and that no payments under any Credit Documents are effectively connected with such Lender's conduct of a U.S. trade or business (a "U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate") and (B) a duly executed IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E; (iv) to the extent such Lender is not the beneficial owner (for example, where the Lender is a partnership or a participating Lender), a duly executed IRS Form W-8IMY, accompanied by IRS Form W-8ECI, IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E, a U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit C-2 or Exhibit C-3, IRS Form W-9, and/or other certification documents from each beneficial owner, as applicable; provided that if the applicable Lender is a partnership (and not a participating Lender) and one or more direct or indirect partners of such Lender are claiming the portfolio interest exemption, such Lender may provide a U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit C-4 on behalf of such direct or indirect partner(s); (v) any other documentation prescribed by applicable Requirements of Law as a basis for claiming exemption from or a reduction in U.S. federal withholding Tax, duly executed, together with such supplementary documentation as may be prescribed by applicable Requirements of Law to permit the Borrower or the Administrative Agent to determine the withholding or deduction required to be made; (y) each Lender that is a U.S. Person shall deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent, on or prior to the date on which such Lender becomes a Lender under this Agreement (and from time to time thereafter upon the reasonable request of the Borrower or the Administrative Agent), a duly executed IRS Form W-9 certifying that such Lender is exempt from U.S. federal backup withholding Tax; and (z) if any payment made to a Lender under any Credit Document would be subject to U.S. federal withholding Tax imposed by FATCA if such Lender were to fail to comply with the applicable reporting requirements of FATCA (including those contained in Sections 1471(b) or 1472(b) of the Code, as applicable), such Lender shall deliver to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent, at the time or times prescribed by applicable Requirements of Law and at such time or times reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, such documentation prescribed by applicable Requirements of Law (including as prescribed by Section 1471(b)(3)(C)(i) of the Code) and such additional documentation reasonably requested by the Borrower or the Administrative Agent as may be necessary for the Borrower or the Administrative Agent to comply with their obligations under FATCA, to determine whether such Lender has complied with such Lender's obligations under FATCA and to determine, if necessary, the amount to deduct and withhold from such payment. Solely for purposes of this Section 5.05(c)(z), "FATCA" shall include any amendment made to FATCA after the Closing Date.

Each Lender authorizes the Administrative Agent to deliver to the Borrower and to any successor Administrative Agent any documentation provided by the Lender to the Administrative Agent pursuant to Section 5.05(b) or this Section 5.05(c).

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 5.05, a Lender shall not be required to deliver any documentation that such Lender is not legally eligible to deliver.

(d) If the Administrative Agent or any Lender determines, in its sole discretion exercised in good faith, that it has received a refund of any Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes as to which it has been indemnified by the Credit Parties or with respect to which a Credit Party has paid additional amounts pursuant to Section 5.05(a), it shall pay to the relevant Credit Party an amount equal to such refund (but only to the extent of indemnity payments made, or additional amounts paid, by such Credit Party under Section 5.05(a) with respect to the Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes giving rise to such refund), net of all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, including any Taxes, of the Administrative Agent or such Lender, as the case may be, and without interest (other than any interest paid by the relevant Governmental Authority with respect to such refund); provided that the relevant Credit Party, upon the request of the Administrative Agent or such Lender, shall repay the amount paid over to such Credit Party (plus any penalties, interest or other charges imposed by the relevant Governmental Authority) to the Administrative Agent or such Lender in the event the Administrative Agent or such Lender is required to repay such refund to such Governmental Authority. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 5.05(d), in no event will the Administrative Agent or any Lender be required to pay any amount to any Credit Party pursuant to this Section 5.05(d) to the extent such payment would place the Administrative Agent or such Lender in a less favorable position (on a net after-Tax basis) than such party would have been in if the Tax subject to indemnification and giving rise to such refund had not been deducted, withheld or otherwise imposed and the indemnification payments or additional amounts with respect to such Tax had never been paid. Nothing in this Section 5.05(d) shall be construed to obligate the Administrative Agent or any Lender to disclose its Tax returns or any other information regarding its Tax affairs or computations to any Person or otherwise to arrange its Tax affairs in any manner other than as it determines in its sole discretion.

(e) [reserved].

(f) On or prior to the date it becomes a party to this Agreement, the Administrative Agent shall deliver to the Borrower either (i) two duly completed originals of IRS Form W-9, or (ii) if the Administrative Agent is not a U.S. Person (a) two duly completed originals of IRS Form W-8ECI with respect to payments to be received under the Credit Documents for its own account and (b) with respect to payments received on account of any Lender, two duly completed originals of IRS Form W-8IMY evidencing its agreement with the Borrower to be treated as a U.S. Person for U.S. federal withholding Tax purposes and assuming primary responsibility for U.S. federal income Tax withholding. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 5.05(f), the Administrative Agent shall not be required to deliver any documentation pursuant to this Section 5.05(f) that the Administrative Agent is not legally eligible to deliver as a result of a Change in Law after the Closing Date.

(g) The agreements in this Section 5.05 shall survive the resignation and/or replacement of the Administrative Agent, any assignment of rights by, or the replacement of, a Lender and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all other Obligations.

5.06 Prepayment Premium.

(a) Solely in the event of the occurrence of any Prepayment Premium Triggering Event described in clauses (A), (B), (C) or (D) of such definition, the Credit Parties shall pay to the Administrative Agent, for the ratable account of each Lender holding Initial Term Loans, a premium equal to (i) if the Prepayment Premium Triggering Event occurs after the Closing Date but on or prior to the date that is ninety (90) days after the Closing Date, 0% of the aggregate principal amount of Initial Term Loans subject to such Prepayment Premium Triggering Event, (ii) if the Prepayment Premium Triggering Event occurs after the date that is ninety (90) days after the Closing Date and ~~on or~~ prior to the date that is twelve (12) months after the Closing Date, the Make-Whole Amount with respect to the aggregate principal amount of Initial Term Loans subject to such Prepayment Premium Triggering Event, (~~ii~~iii) if the Prepayment Premium Triggering Event occurs on or after the date that is twelve (12) months after the Closing Date and prior to the date that is twenty-four (24) months after the Closing Date, 1.00% of the aggregate principal amount of Initial Term Loans subject to such Prepayment Premium Triggering Event, and (~~iii~~iv) if the Prepayment Premium Triggering Event occurs on or after the date that is twenty-four (24) months after the Closing Date, 0.00% of the aggregate principal amount of Initial Term Loans subject to such Prepayment Premium Triggering Event (such amounts referred to in this paragraph, the "Prepayment Premium").

(b) The Prepayment Premium shall be due and payable on the date of each such Prepayment Premium Triggering Event. It is understood and agreed that if the Obligations are accelerated (including pursuant to Section 11 as a result of any Event of Default, by operation of law or otherwise), the Prepayment Premium shall also be due and payable on such date and such Prepayment Premium shall constitute part of the Obligations. In view of the impracticability and extreme difficulty of ascertaining actual damages and by mutual agreement of the parties as to a reasonable calculation of each Lender's lost profits as a result thereof, the Prepayment Premium payable above shall be presumed to be the liquidated damages sustained by each Lender as the result of the early repayment of the Initial Term Loans hereunder and the Credit Parties agree that it is reasonable under the circumstances currently existing. The Prepayment Premium shall also be payable in the event the Obligations (and/or this Agreement) are satisfied or released by foreclosure (whether by power of judicial proceeding, deed in lieu of foreclosure or by any other means). EACH OF THE CREDIT PARTIES HEREBY EXPRESSLY WAIVES (TO THE FULLEST EXTENT IT MAY LAWFULLY DO SO) THE PROVISIONS OF ANY PRESENT OR FUTURE STATUTE OR LAW THAT PROHIBITS OR MAY PROHIBIT THE COLLECTION OF THE PREPAYMENT PREMIUM IN CONNECTION WITH ANY SUCH ACCELERATION OR OTHERWISE. Each of the Credit Parties expressly agrees (to the fullest extent that each may lawfully do so) that: (A) the Prepayment Premium is reasonable and is the product of an arm's length transaction between sophisticated business people, ably represented by counsel; (B) the Prepayment Premium shall be payable notwithstanding the then-prevailing market rates at the time payment is made; (C) there has been a course of conduct between the Lenders and the Credit Parties giving specific consideration in this transaction for such agreement to pay the Prepayment Premium; and (D) each of the Credit Parties shall be estopped hereafter from claiming differently than as agreed to in this Section 5.06. Section 12. The Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent.

12.01 Appointment and Authorization.

(a) Each of the Lenders hereby irrevocably appoints WSFS to act on its behalf as the Administrative Agent hereunder and under the other Credit Documents and authorizes the Administrative Agent to take such actions on its behalf and to exercise such powers as are delegated to the Administrative Agent by the terms hereof or thereof, together with such actions and powers as are reasonably incidental thereto. The provisions of this Section 12 (other than Sections 12.08, 12.10 and 12.11) are solely for the benefit of the Administrative Agent and the Lenders, and neither the Borrower nor any other Credit Party shall have rights as a third party beneficiary of any of such provisions. It is understood and agreed that the use of the term "agent" herein or in any other Credit Documents (or any other similar term) with reference to the Administrative Agent is not intended to connote any fiduciary or other implied (or express) obligations arising under agency doctrine of any applicable law. Instead, such term is used as a matter of market custom, and is intended to create or reflect only an administrative relationship between contracting parties.

(b) WSFS shall also act as the "Collateral Agent" and "security trustee" under the Credit Documents, and each of the Lenders (on behalf of itself and its Affiliates, including in its capacity as a potential Guaranteed Creditor under a Designated Interest Rate Protection Agreement or Designated Treasury Services Agreement) hereby irrevocably appoints and authorizes WSFS to act as the agent of such Lender for purposes of acquiring, holding and enforcing any and all Liens on Collateral granted by any Credit Party to secure any of the Obligations, together with such powers and discretion as are reasonably incidental thereto. In this connection, WSFS, as "Collateral Agent" or "security trustee" and any co-agents, sub-agents and attorneys-in-fact appointed by the Collateral Agent pursuant to Section 12.02 for purposes of holding or enforcing any Lien on the Collateral (or any portion thereof) granted under the Security Documents, or for exercising any rights and remedies thereunder at the direction of the Collateral Agent, shall be entitled to the benefits of all provisions of this Section 12 and Section 13 (including Section 13.01, as though such co-agents, sub-agents and attorneys-in-fact were the "collateral agent" or "security trustee" under the Credit Documents) as if set forth in full herein with respect thereto, and any reference to the Administrative Agent shall be interpreted accordingly to include references to the Collateral Agent. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Lenders hereby expressly authorize the Collateral Agent to execute any and all documents (including releases) with respect to the Collateral and the rights of the Guaranteed Creditors with respect thereto, as contemplated by and in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement and the Security Documents and acknowledge and agree that any such action by any Agent shall bind the Lenders.

(c) Each of the Lenders (including in its capacity as a potential Guaranteed Creditor under a Designated Interest Rate Protection Agreement or a Designated Treasury Services Agreement) hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent and/or the Collateral Agent to enter into the USS ABL Intercreditor Agreement, USS Revolver Intercreditor Agreement ~~and any~~, First Lien Intercompany Intercreditor Agreement and any Junior Lien Intercreditor Agreement and any supplement thereto permitted under this Agreement without any further consent by any Lender and any such intercreditor agreement shall be binding upon the Lenders.

12.02 Delegation of Duties. Each of the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent may perform any and all of its duties and exercise its rights and powers hereunder or under any other Credit Document by or through any one or more sub-agents appointed by the Administrative Agent and/or the Collateral Agent. The Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and any such sub-agent may perform any and all of its duties and exercise its rights and powers by or through their respective Related Parties. The exculpatory provisions of this Section 12 shall apply to any such sub-agent and to the Related Parties of the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent and any such sub-agent, and shall apply to their respective activities in connection with the syndication of the credit facilities provided for herein as well as activities as Administrative Agent and as Collateral Agent, as applicable. The Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent shall not be responsible for the negligence or misconduct of any sub-agents, except to the extent that a court of competent jurisdiction determines in a final non-appealable judgment that the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, as applicable, acted with gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct in the selection of such sub-agents.

12.03 Exculpatory Provisions. The Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent, as applicable, shall not have any duties or obligations except those expressly set forth herein and in the other Credit Documents and its duties hereunder shall be administrative in nature. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, as applicable:

(a) shall not be subject to any fiduciary or other implied duties, regardless of whether a Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing;

(b) shall not have any duty to take any discretionary action or exercise any discretionary powers, except discretionary rights and powers expressly contemplated hereby or by the other Credit Documents that the Administrative Agent and/or the Collateral Agent are required to exercise as directed in writing by the Required Lenders or the Majority Lenders, as applicable (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be expressly provided for herein or in the other Credit Documents); provided that each of the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent shall not be required to take any action that, in its opinion or the opinion of its counsel, may expose the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, as applicable, to liability or that is contrary to any Credit Document or applicable law;

Neither the Administrative Agent nor the Collateral Agent shall be deemed to have knowledge of any Default or Event of Default unless and until notice describing such Default or Event of Default and clearly labeled "notice of default" (or similar language) is given to the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent by the Borrower or a Lender; and

(e) shall not be responsible for or have any duty to ascertain or inquire into (i) any recital, statement, warranty or representation made in or in connection with this Agreement or any other Credit Document, (ii) the contents of any certificate, report, statement or other document delivered hereunder or thereunder or in connection herewith or therewith, (iii) the performance or observance of any of the covenants, agreements or other terms or conditions set forth herein or therein or the occurrence of any Default, (iv) the validity, enforceability, effectiveness or genuineness of this Agreement, any other Credit Document or any other agreement, instrument or document, or the creation, perfection or priority of any Lien purported to be created by the Security Documents, (v) the value or the sufficiency of any Collateral, (vi) any failure to monitor or maintain any part of the Collateral, the payment of taxes with respect to the Collateral, maintaining or preserving insurance on (including any flood insurance or for determining whether any flood insurance is or should be obtained with respect to the Collateral), or (vii) the satisfaction of any condition set forth in Section 6 or elsewhere herein, other than to confirm receipt of items expressly required to be delivered to the Administrative Agent and/or the Collateral Agent.

Each of the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to rely upon, and shall not incur any liability for relying upon, any notice, request, certificate, consent, statement, instrument, document or other writing (including any electronic message, Internet or intranet website posting or other distribution) believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed, sent or otherwise authenticated by the proper Person. Each of the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent also may rely upon any statement made to it orally or by telephone and believed by it to have been made by the proper Person, and shall not incur any liability for relying thereon. In determining compliance with any condition hereunder to the making of a Loan, that by its terms must be fulfilled to the satisfaction of a Lender, the Administrative Agent may presume that such condition is satisfactory to such Lender unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice to the contrary from such Lender prior to the making of such Loan. The Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent may consult with legal counsel (who may be counsel for the Borrower), independent accountants and other experts selected by it, and shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it in accordance with the advice of any such counsel, accountants or experts.

12.05 Reserved.

12.06 Non-reliance on the Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent and the Other Lenders.

(a) Each Lender expressly acknowledges that none of the Administrative Agent nor the Collateral Agent has made any representation or warranty to it, and that no act by the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent hereafter taken, including any consent to, and acceptance of any assignment or review of the affairs of any Credit Party of any Affiliate thereof, shall be deemed to constitute any representation or warranty by the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent to any Lender as to any matter, including whether the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent have disclosed material information in their (or their Related Parties') possession. Each Lender represents to the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent that it has, independently and without reliance upon the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any other Lender or any of their respective Related Parties and based on such documents and information as it has deemed appropriate, made its own credit analysis of, appraisal of, and investigation into, the business, prospects, operations, property, financial and other condition and creditworthiness of the Credit Parties and their Subsidiaries, and all applicable bank or other regulatory laws relating to the transactions contemplated hereby, and made its own decision to enter into this Agreement and to extend credit to the Borrower hereunder. Each Lender also acknowledges that it will, independently and without reliance upon the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any other Lender or any of their respective Related Parties and based on such documents and information as it shall from time to time deem appropriate, continue to make its own credit analysis, appraisals and decisions in taking or not taking action under or based upon this Agreement, any other Credit Document or any related agreement or any document furnished hereunder or thereunder, and to make such investigations as it deems necessary to inform itself as to the business, prospects, operations, property, financial and other condition and creditworthiness of the Credit Parties. Each Lender represents and warrants that (i) the Credit Documents set forth the terms of a commercial lending facility, (ii) it is engaged in making, acquiring or holding commercial loans and in providing other facilities set forth herein as may be applicable to such Lender, in each case in the ordinary course of business, and not for the purpose of purchasing, acquiring or holding any other type of financial instrument (and each Lender agrees not to assert a claim in contravention of the foregoing) and (iii) it is sophisticated with respect to decisions to make, acquire and/or hold commercial loans and to provide other facilities set forth herein, as may be applicable to such Lender, and either it, or the Person exercising discretion in making its decision to make, acquire and/or hold such commercial loans or to provide such other facilities, is experienced in making, acquiring or holding such commercial loans or providing such other facilities.

(b) The Administrative Agent hereby informs the Lenders that each such Person is not undertaking to provide investment advice or to give advice in a fiduciary capacity, in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby, and that such Person has a financial interest in the transactions contemplated hereby in that such Person or an Affiliate thereof (i) may receive interest or other payments with respect to the Loans, the Commitments, this Agreement and any other Credit Documents (ii) may recognize a gain if it extended the Loans, or the Commitments for an amount less than the amount being paid for an interest in the Loans or the Commitments by such Lender or (iii) may receive fees or other payments in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby, the Credit Documents or otherwise, including structuring fees, commitment fees, arrangement fees, facility fees, upfront fees, underwriting fees, ticking fees, agency fees, administrative agent or collateral agent fees, utilization fees, minimum usage fees, letter of credit fees, fronting fees, deal-away or alternate transaction fees, amendment fees, processing fees, term out premiums, banker's acceptance fees, breakage or other early termination fees or fees similar to the foregoing.

12.07 Indemnification by the Lenders. Whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated, the Lenders shall indemnify upon demand each Agent Party (to the extent not reimbursed by or on behalf of any Credit Party and without limiting the obligation of any Credit Party to do so), pro rata, and hold harmless each Agent Party from and against any and all liabilities to the extent incurred by it; provided that no Lender shall be liable for the payment to an Agent Party to the extent such liability resulted from such Agent Party's own gross negligence or willful misconduct, as determined by the final non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction; provided that no action taken in accordance with the directions of the Required Lenders or the Majority Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be required by the Credit Documents) shall be deemed to constitute gross negligence or willful misconduct for purposes of this Section 12.07. In the case of any investigation, litigation or proceeding giving rise to any liabilities hereunder, this Section 12.07 applies whether any such investigation, litigation or proceeding is brought by any Lender or any other Person. Without limitation of the foregoing, each Lender shall reimburse each Agent Party upon demand for its ratable share of any costs or out of pocket expenses incurred by such Agent Party in connection with the preparation, execution, delivery, administration, modification, amendment or enforcement (whether through negotiations, legal proceedings or otherwise) of, or legal advice in respect of rights or responsibilities under, this Agreement, any other Credit Document, or any document contemplated by or referred to herein, to the extent that such Agent Party is not reimbursed for such expenses by or on behalf of the Borrower; provided that such reimbursement by the Lenders shall not affect the Borrower's continuing reimbursement obligations with respect thereto, if any. The undertakings in this Section 12.07 shall survive the termination of this Agreement and the resignation or removal of the Administrative Agent.

12.08 Rights as a Lender. The Person serving as the Administrative Agent hereunder, to the extent such Person is a Lender, shall have the same rights and powers in its capacity as a Lender as any other Lender and may exercise the same as though it were not the Administrative Agent and the term "Lender" or "Lenders" shall, unless otherwise expressly indicated or unless the context otherwise requires, include the Person serving as the Administrative Agent hereunder in its individual capacity. Such Person and its Affiliates may accept deposits from, lend money to, own securities of, act as the financial advisor or in any other advisory capacity for and generally engage in any kind of business with the Borrower or any Subsidiary or other Affiliate thereof as if such Person were not the Administrative Agent hereunder and without any duty to account therefor to the Lenders.

12.09 Administrative Agent May File Proofs of Claim; Credit Bidding. In case of the pendency of any case or proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law or any other judicial proceeding relative to any Credit Party, the Administrative Agent (irrespective of whether the principal of any Loan shall then be due and payable as herein expressed or by declaration or otherwise and irrespective of whether the Administrative Agent shall have made any demand on the Borrower) shall be entitled and empowered, by intervention in such proceeding or otherwise:

(a) to file and prove a claim for the whole amount of the principal and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Loans and all other Obligations that are owing and unpaid and to file such other documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Lenders and the Administrative Agent (including any claim for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Lenders and the Administrative Agent and their respective agents and counsel and all other amounts due the Lenders and the Administrative Agent under Sections 4.01 and 13.01) allowed in such judicial proceeding; and

(b) to collect and receive any monies or other property payable or deliverable on any such claims and to distribute the same;

and any custodian, receiver, assignee, trustee, liquidator, sequestrator, debtor, debtor-in-possession, or other similar official in any such judicial proceeding is hereby authorized by each Lender to make such payments to the Administrative Agent and, if the Administrative Agent shall consent to the making of such payments directly to the Lenders to pay to the Administrative Agent any amount due for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Administrative Agent and its agents and counsel, and any other amounts due the Administrative Agent under Sections 4.01 and 13.01.

Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to authorize the Administrative Agent to authorize or consent to or accept or adopt on behalf of any Lender any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition or similar dispositive restructuring plan affecting the Obligations or the rights of any Lender to authorize the Administrative Agent to vote in respect of the claim of any Lender in any such case or proceeding.

The Secured Creditors hereby irrevocably authorize the Administrative Agent, at the direction of the Required Lenders, to (subject to the USS ABL Intercreditor Agreement and the USS Revolver Intercreditor Agreement) credit bid all or any portion of the Obligations (including accepting some or all of the Collateral in satisfaction of some or all of the Obligations pursuant to a deed in lieu of foreclosure or otherwise) and in such manner purchase (either directly or through one or more acquisition vehicles) all or any portion of the Collateral (a) at any sale thereof conducted under the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, including under Sections 363, 1123 or 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, or any comparable provisions of any other applicable Debtor Relief Laws or any similar laws in any other jurisdictions to which a Credit Party is subject or (b) at any other sale or foreclosure or acceptance of collateral in lieu of debt conducted by (or with the consent or at the direction of) the Administrative Agent (whether by judicial action or otherwise) in accordance with any applicable law. In connection with any such credit bid and purchase, the Obligations owed to the Secured Creditors shall be entitled to be, and shall be, credit bid on a ratable basis (with Obligations with respect to contingent or unliquidated claims receiving contingent interests in the acquired assets on a ratable basis that would vest upon the liquidation of such claims in an amount proportional to the liquidated portion of the contingent claim amount used in allocating the contingent interests) in the asset or assets so purchased (or in the Equity Interests or debt instruments of the acquisition vehicle or vehicles that are used to consummate such purchase). In connection with any such bid (i) the Administrative Agent shall be authorized to form one or more acquisition vehicles to make a bid, (ii) the Administrative Agent shall be authorized to adopt documents providing for the governance of the acquisition vehicle or vehicles (provided that any actions by the Administrative Agent with respect to such acquisition vehicle or vehicles, including any disposition of the assets or Equity Interests thereof shall be governed, directly or indirectly, by the vote of the Required Lenders, irrespective of the termination of this Agreement and without giving effect to the limitations on actions by the Required Lenders contained in clauses (a)(i) through (a)(v) of Section 13.12 of this Agreement), and (iii) to the extent that Obligations that are assigned to an acquisition vehicle are not used to acquire Collateral for any reason (as a result of another bid being higher or better, because the amount of Obligations assigned to the acquisition vehicle exceeds the amount of debt credit bid by the acquisition vehicle or otherwise), such Obligations shall automatically be reassigned to the Lenders pro rata and the Equity Interests and/or debt instruments issued by any acquisition vehicle on account of the Obligations that had been assigned to the acquisition vehicle shall automatically be cancelled, without the need for any Secured Creditor or any acquisition vehicle to take any further action.

12.10 Resignation of the Agents. Each of the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent may resign as the Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent, as applicable, upon thirty (30) days' written notice to the Lenders and the Borrower; provided that, if at the time of such resignation, there is a successor Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent, as applicable, satisfactory to each of the resigning Agent, the incoming Agent and the Borrower, each, in its sole discretion, then the resigning Agent, the incoming Agent and the Borrower may agree to waive or shorten the thirty (30) day notice period. Upon receipt of any such notice of resignation, the Required Lenders shall have the right, with the Borrower's consent (other than during the existence of an Event of Default under Section 11.01 or 11.05), to appoint a successor, which shall be a bank or, with the prior written consent of the Borrower, other financial institution with an office in the United States, or an Affiliate of any such bank or financial institution with an office in the United States. If no such successor shall have been so appointed by the Required Lenders (and consented to by the Borrower, to the extent so required) and shall have accepted such appointment within thirty (30) days after the retiring Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent gives notice of its resignation, then the retiring Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent may, with the Borrower's consent (other than during the existence of an Event of Default under Section 11.01 or 11.05), on behalf of the Lenders, appoint a successor Administrative Agent or successor Collateral Agent, as applicable, but is under no obligation to, in each case meeting the qualifications set forth above; provided that if the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent shall notify the Borrower and the Lenders that no qualifying Person has accepted such appointment within such period, then such resignation shall nonetheless become effective in accordance with such notice and (a) the retiring Administrative Agent or retiring Collateral Agent, as applicable, shall be discharged from its duties and obligations hereunder and under the other Credit Documents (except that in the case of any collateral security held by the Collateral Agent on behalf of the Lenders under any of the Credit Documents, the retiring Collateral Agent shall continue to hold such collateral security solely for purposes of maintaining the Secured Creditors' security interest thereon until such time as a successor Collateral Agent is appointed) and (b) all payments, communications and determinations provided to be made by, to or through the Administrative Agent shall instead be made by or to each Lender directly, until such time as the Required Lenders (with the consent of the Borrower, to the extent so required) appoint a successor Administrative Agent as provided for above in this Section 12.10. Upon the acceptance of a successor's appointment as Administrative Agent or as Collateral Agent hereunder, such successor shall succeed to and become vested with all of the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring (or retired) Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent, as applicable, and the retiring Administrative Agent or retiring Collateral Agent, as applicable, shall be discharged from all of its duties and obligations hereunder or under the other Credit Documents (if not already discharged therefrom as provided above in this Section). After the retiring Administrative Agent's or retiring Collateral Agent's resignation hereunder and under the other Credit Documents, the provisions of this Section 12 and Section 13.01 shall continue in effect for the benefit of such retiring Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent, as applicable, its sub-agents and their respective Related Parties in respect of any actions taken or omitted to be taken by any of them while the retiring Administrative Agent was acting as Administrative Agent (including for this purpose, holding any collateral security following the retirement or removal of the Administrative Agent).

12.11 Collateral Matters and Guaranty Matters. Each of the Lenders (including in its capacity as a potential Guaranteed Creditor under a Designated Interest Rate Protection Agreement or Designated Treasury Services Agreement) irrevocably authorizes the Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent, as applicable (and subject to the provisions of the USS ABL Intercreditor Agreement, the USS Revolver Intercreditor Agreement, the First Lien Intercompany Intercreditor Agreement and any Junior Lien Intercreditor Agreement):

(i) to release, and to evidence the automatic release of, any Lien on any property granted to or held by the Collateral Agent under any Credit Document (A) upon termination of the Commitments and payment in full of all Obligations (other than (x) contingent indemnification obligations and (y) obligations and liabilities under Designated Interest Rate Protection Agreements and Designated Treasury Services Agreements), (B) that is sold or disposed of or to be sold or disposed of as part of or in connection with any sale or other disposition permitted hereunder or under any other Credit Document to a Person that is not a Credit Party or Subsidiary thereof, (C) that constitutes Excluded Collateral, (D) if the property subject to such Lien is owned by a Group Guarantor, subject to Section 13.12, upon release of such Group Guarantor from its obligations under the Guaranty Agreement pursuant to clause (ii) below or (E) if approved, authorized or ratified in writing in accordance with Section 13.12;

(ii) to release any Group Guarantor from its obligations under the Guaranty Agreement if such Person ceases to be a Group Member or becomes an Excluded Subsidiary as a result of a transaction permitted hereunder (including, for the avoidance of doubt, to the extent that the Intercompany Cayman Borrower and/or the Intercompany Cayman Holdings shall constitute Excluded Subsidiaries after giving effect to a Permitted Tax Restructuring); provided that in the case of any such Group Guarantor that becomes an Excluded Subsidiary solely as a result of becoming a non-Wholly-Owned Subsidiary, such Group Guarantor shall only be released from its obligations under this Agreement or the Guaranty Agreement, as applicable, pursuant to this clause (ii) if such Group Member became a non-Wholly-Owned Subsidiary pursuant to a transaction where such Subsidiary becomes a bona fide joint venture where the other Person taking an equity interest in such Subsidiary is not an Affiliate of Holdings (other than as a result of such joint venture);

(iii) to release or subordinate any Lien on any property granted to or held by the Collateral Agent under any Credit Document to the holder of any Lien on such property that is permitted by ~~[~~Sections 10.01(iv)(B) (solely with respect to subordination (and not release) of Liens granted to or held by the Collateral Agent on any ABL Collateral), (vi) or (xiv)~~]~~, and to execute and/or deliver documents to evidence the release or non-existence of, any Lien securing the Obligations upon any Excluded Collateral; and

(iv) to enter into the USS Revolver Intercreditor Agreement, any Junior Lien Intercreditor Agreement, the First Lien Intercompany Intercreditor Agreement and the USS ABL Intercreditor Agreement.

Upon request by the Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent at any time, the ~~Required~~Majority Lenders will confirm in writing the Administrative Agent's and Collateral Agent's authority to release or subordinate its interest in particular types or items of property, to provide that its interests in particular types or items of property are equal to the interests of any other Person or to release any Guarantor from its obligations under the Guaranty pursuant to this Section 12.11. In each case as specified in this Section 12.11, the Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent will (and each Lender irrevocably authorizes the Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent to), at the Borrower's expense, execute and deliver to the applicable Credit Party such documents, including termination or partial release statements, as such Credit Party may reasonably request to evidence the release of such item of Collateral from the assignment and security interest granted under the Security Documents, to subordinate its interest in such item or to provide its interests are equal to the interests of any other Person, or to release such Guarantor from its obligations under the Guaranty, in each case in accordance with the terms of the Credit Documents and this Section 12.11.

The Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent shall not be responsible for or have a duty to ascertain or inquire into any representation or warranty regarding the existence, value or collectability of the Collateral, the existence, priority or perfection of the Administrative Agent's and Collateral Agent's Lien thereon, or any certificate prepared by any Credit Party in connection therewith, nor shall the Administrative Agent be responsible or liable to the Lenders for any failure to monitor or maintain any portion of the Collateral.

Without limitation of the operation of the releases described above or in any Security Document, a certificate of a Responsible Officer delivered either at the request of the Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent or at the option of the Borrower, in either case, to the Administrative Agent or Collateral with respect to any release described in this Section 12.11 stating that the Borrower has determined in good faith that such release satisfies the foregoing requirements shall be conclusive evidence that such release satisfies the foregoing requirement and such automatic release has occurred (and the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent will rely conclusively on such certificate without further inquiry), and the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent shall promptly execute and deliver all documentation evidencing such release and requested by the Borrower.

12.12 Designated Interest Rate Protection Agreements and Designated Treasury Services Agreements. No Guaranteed Creditor that is a counterparty to a Designated Interest Rate Protection Agreement or Designated Treasury Services Agreement, in its capacity as such, that obtains the benefits of any Guaranty or any Collateral by virtue of the provisions hereof or of any Guaranty or any Security Document shall have any right to notice of any action or to consent to, direct or object to any action hereunder or under any other Credit Document or otherwise in respect of the Collateral (including the release or impairment of any Collateral) other than in its capacity as an Agent or a Lender and, in such case, only to the extent expressly provided in the Credit Documents. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 12.12 to the contrary, the Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent shall not be required to verify the payment of, or that other satisfactory arrangements have been made with respect to, Obligations arising under Designated Interest Rate Protection Agreements and Designated Treasury Services Agreements unless the Administrative Agent has received written notice of such Obligations, together with such supporting documentation as the Administrative Agent may request, from the applicable Guaranteed Creditor. Each Guaranteed Creditor that is a counterparty to a Designated Interest Rate Protection Agreement or Designated Treasury Services Agreement, in its capacity as such, agrees to be bound by this Section 12 to the same extent as a Lender hereunder.

12.13 Withholding Taxes. To the extent required by any applicable Requirements of Law, the Administrative Agent may withhold from any payment to any Lender an amount equivalent to any applicable withholding Tax. If the Internal Revenue Service or any other relevant Governmental Authority of the United States or other jurisdiction asserts a claim that the Administrative Agent did not properly withhold Tax from amounts paid to or for the account of any Lender for any reason (including, because the appropriate documentation was not delivered or not properly executed, or because such Lender failed to notify the Administrative Agent of a change in circumstance that rendered the exemption from, or reduction of, withholding Tax ineffective), such Lender shall, within ten (10) days after written demand therefor, indemnify and hold harmless the Administrative Agent (to the extent that the Administrative Agent has not already been reimbursed by any Credit Party pursuant to Section 5.05 and without limiting or expanding the obligation of any Credit Party to do so) for such Tax, together with all reasonable expenses incurred in connection therewith, including legal expenses and any other out-of-pocket expenses, whether or not such Tax was correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to any Lender by the Administrative Agent shall be conclusive absent manifest error. Each Lender hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent to set off and apply all amounts at any time owing to such Lender under this Agreement, any other Credit Document or from any other sources against any amount due to the Administrative Agent under this Section 12.13. The agreements in this Section 12.13 shall survive the resignation and/or replacement of the Administrative Agent, any assignment of rights by, or the replacement of, a Lender and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all other Obligations.

12.14 Certain ERISA Matters.

(a) Each Lender (x) represents and warrants, as of the date such Person became a Lender party hereto, to, and (y) covenants, from the date such Person became a Lender party hereto to the date such Person ceases being a Lender party hereto, for the benefit of, the Administrative Agent and its respective Affiliates, and not, for the avoidance of doubt, to or for the benefit of the Borrower or any other Credit Party, that at least one of the following is and will be true:

(i) such Lender is not using "plan assets" (within the meaning of Section 3(42) of ERISA or otherwise) of one or more Benefit Plans with respect to such Lender's entrance into, participation in, administration of and performance of the Loans, the Commitments or this Agreement,

(ii) the transaction exemption set forth in one or more PTEs, such as PTE 84-14 (a class exemption for certain transactions determined by independent qualified professional asset managers), PTE 95-60 (a class exemption for certain transactions involving insurance company general accounts), PTE 90-1 (a class exemption for certain transactions involving insurance company pooled separate accounts), PTE 91-38 (a class exemption for certain transactions involving bank collective investment funds) or PTE 96-23 (a class exemption for certain transactions determined by in-house asset managers), is applicable with respect to such Lender's entrance into, participation in, administration of and performance of the Loans, the Commitments and this Agreement,

(iii) (A) such Lender is an investment fund managed by a "Qualified Professional Asset Manager" (within the meaning of Part VI of PTE 84-14), (B) such Qualified Professional Asset Manager made the investment decision on behalf of such

Lender to enter into, participate in, administer and perform the Loans, the Commitments and this Agreement, (C) the entrance into, participation in, administration of and performance of the Loans, the Commitments and this Agreement satisfies the requirements of sub-sections (b) through (g) of Part I of PTE 84-14 and (D) to the best knowledge of such Lender, the requirements of subsection (a) of Part I of PTE 84-14 are satisfied with respect to such Lender's entrance into, participation in, administration of and performance of the Loans, the Commitments and this Agreement, or

(iv) such other representation, warranty and covenant as may be agreed in writing between the Administrative Agent, in its sole discretion, and such Lender.

(b) In addition, unless either (1) sub-clause (i) in the immediately preceding clause (a) is true with respect to a Lender or (2) a Lender has provided another representation, warranty and covenant in accordance with sub-clause (iv) in the immediately preceding clause (a), such Lender further (x) represents and warrants, as of the date such Person became a Lender party hereto, to, and (y) covenants, from the date such Person became a Lender party hereto to the date such Person ceases being a Lender party hereto, for the benefit of, the Administrative Agent and its respective Affiliates, and not, for the avoidance of doubt, to or for the benefit of the Borrower or any other Credit Party, that none of the Administrative Agent or any of its respective Affiliates is a fiduciary with respect to the assets of such Lender involved in such Lender's entrance into, participation in, administration of and performance of the Loans, the Commitments and this Agreement (including in connection with the reservation or exercise of any rights by the Administrative Agent under this Agreement, any Credit Document or any documents related hereto or thereto).

12.15 Recovery of Erroneous Payments.

(a) Without limitation of any other provision in this Agreement, if at any time the Administrative Agent makes a payment hereunder in error (any such funds, whether as a payment, prepayment or repayment of principal, interest, fees or otherwise, individually and collectively, an "Erroneous Payment") to any Lender (the "Recipient Party"), whether or not in respect of an Obligation due and owing by the Borrower at such time, then in any such event, each Recipient Party receiving an Erroneous Payment severally agrees to repay to the Administrative Agent forthwith on demand the Erroneous Payment (or the demanded portion thereof) received by such Recipient Party in immediately available funds in the currency so received, with interest thereon, for each day from and including the date such Erroneous Payment is received by it to but excluding the date of payment to the Administrative Agent, at the greater of the Federal Funds Effective Rate and a rate determined by the Administrative Agent in accordance with banking industry rules on interbank compensation. Each Recipient Party irrevocably waives any and all defenses, including any "discharge for value" (under which a creditor might otherwise claim a right to retain funds mistakenly paid by a third party in respect of a debt owed by another) or similar defense to its obligation to return any Erroneous Payment. The Administrative Agent shall inform each Recipient Party promptly upon determining that any payment made to such Recipient Party comprised, in whole or in part, an Erroneous Payment.

(b) Without limiting the immediately preceding clause (a), each Lender hereby further agrees that if it (or an Recipient Party on its behalf) receives a payment from the Administrative Agent (x) in a different amount or on a different date than the amount or date specified in a notice of payment sent by the Administrative Agent with respect to such payment, (y) that was not preceded or accompanied by a notice of payment sent by the Administrative Agent, or (z) that Lender (or Recipient Party on its behalf) otherwise becomes aware was transmitted, or received, in error or by mistake (in whole or in part) then, in each case, such Lender shall presume that an error has been made (absent written confirmation from the Administrative Agent) and shall promptly (and, in all events, within one (1) Business Day of its knowledge of such error) notify the Administrative Agent of its receipt of such payment, the details thereof and that it is so notifying the Administrative Agent pursuant to this Section 12.15(b).

(c) Each Recipient Party hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent to set off, net and apply any amounts at any time owing to such Recipient Party under any Credit Document against any amount due to the Administrative Agent under the preceding clause (a).

(d) The Borrower and each other Credit Party hereby agrees that (i) in the event an Erroneous Payment (or portion thereof) is not recovered from any Recipient Party (and without limiting the Administrative Agent's rights and remedies under this Section 12.15), the Administrative Agent shall be subrogated to all the rights of such Recipient Party with respect to such amount (such rights, the "Erroneous Payment Subrogation Rights") and (ii) an Erroneous Payment shall not pay, prepay, repay, discharge or otherwise satisfy any Obligations owed by the Borrower or any other Credit Party. If the amount of any Erroneous Payment is subsequently recovered by the Administrative Agent or its Affiliates, the Administrative Agent or such Affiliate shall return to the applicable Recipient Party either (x) the Loans acquired pursuant to this clause (d) or (y) if applicable, the proceeds of such Loans. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, and for the avoidance of doubt, in no event shall the occurrence of an Erroneous Payment (or any Erroneous Payment Subrogation Rights or other rights of the Administrative Agent in respect of an Erroneous Payment) result in the Administrative Agent becoming or being deemed to be a Lender hereunder or the holder of any Loans hereunder.

(e) In addition to any rights and remedies of the Administrative Agent provided by law, the Administrative Agent shall have the right, without prior notice to any Lender, any such notice being expressly waived by such Lender to the extent permitted by applicable law, with respect to any Erroneous Payment for which a demand has been made in accordance with this Section 12.15 and which has not been returned to the Administrative Agent, to set off and appropriate and apply against such amount any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final but excluding trust accounts), in any currency, and any other credits, indebtedness or claims, in any currency, in each case whether direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, matured or unmatured, at any time held or owing by the Administrative Agent or any Affiliate, branch or agency thereof to or for the credit or the account of such Lender. The Administrative Agent agrees to promptly notify the Lender after any such setoff and application made by the Administrative Agent; provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of such setoff and application.

Section 13. Miscellaneous.

13.01 Payment of Expenses, etc.

(a) The Credit Parties hereby jointly and severally agree, (I) on the Closing Date, to pay all reasonable invoiced out-of-pocket fees, costs and expenses of the Agents and the Lenders relating to the Transaction incurred as of the Closing Date (limited, in the case of professional fees and expenses, to the reasonable fees and disbursements of the Designated Advisors) and (II) from and after the Closing Date, to: (i) pay all reasonable invoiced out-of-pocket costs and expenses of the Agents and the Lenders (limited, in the case of legal expenses, to the reasonable fees and disbursements of one outside counsel for the Agents, one outside counsel for the Lenders, taken as a whole, and, if reasonably necessary, one local counsel in any relevant jurisdiction (which may include a single firm of counsel acting in multiple jurisdictions)~~)~~ for the Agents and the Lenders (taken as a whole)) in connection with (x) the preparation, execution, enforcement and delivery of this Agreement and the other Credit Documents and the documents and instruments referred to herein and therein, (y) the administration hereof and thereof and any amendment, waiver or consent relating hereto or thereto (whether or not effective) and (z) their syndication efforts with respect to this Agreement; (ii) pay all reasonable invoiced out-of-pocket fees, costs and expenses of the Agents and each Lender in connection with the enforcement of this Agreement and the other Credit Documents and the documents and instruments referred to herein and therein or in connection with any refinancing or restructuring of the credit arrangements provided under this Agreement in the nature of a "work-out" or pursuant to any insolvency or bankruptcy cases or proceedings (limited, in the case of legal expenses, to the reasonable fees and disbursements of one outside counsel for the Agents, one outside counsel for the Lenders (taken as a whole) and, if reasonably necessary, one local counsel in any relevant jurisdiction (which may include a single firm of counsel acting in multiple jurisdictions) for the Agents and the Lenders (taken as a whole) and, in the case of an actual or perceived conflict of interest where any Indemnified Person affected by such conflict informs the Borrower of such conflict, of a single additional firm of counsel in each relevant jurisdiction for all similarly situated affected Indemnified Persons); and (iii) indemnify each Agent, each Lender (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Fronting Lender) and their respective Affiliates, and the partners, shareholders, officers, directors, employees, agents, trustees, representatives and investment advisors of each of the foregoing, in each case, together with their respective successors and assigns (each, an "Indemnified Person") from and hold each of them harmless against any and all liabilities, obligations (including removal or remedial actions), losses, damages, penalties, claims, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses and disbursements (including reasonable attorneys' and consultants' fees and disbursements) (but excluding any Taxes, other than Taxes that represent liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, costs, expenses, disbursements etc. arising from a non-Tax claim) incurred by, imposed on or assessed against any of them as a result of, or arising out of, or in any way related to, or by reason of, (a) any investigation, litigation or other proceeding (whether or not any Agent or any Lender is a party thereto and whether or not such investigation, litigation or other proceeding is brought by or on behalf of any Credit Party) related to the entering into and/or performance of this Agreement or any other Credit Document or the proceeds of any Loans hereunder or the consummation of the Transaction or any other transactions contemplated herein or in any other Credit Document or the exercise of any of their rights or remedies provided herein or in the other Credit Documents,

To the extent that the undertaking to indemnify, pay or hold harmless any Agent or any Lender or other Indemnified Person set forth in the preceding sentence may be unenforceable because it violates any law or public policy, the Credit Parties shall make the maximum contribution to the payment and satisfaction of each of the indemnified liabilities which is permissible under applicable law.

(b) No Agent or any Indemnified Person shall be responsible or liable to any Credit Party or any other Person for any determination made by it pursuant to this Agreement or any other Credit Document in the absence of gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct on the part of such Indemnified Person (in each case, as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final and non-appealable judgment).

(c) To the extent permitted by applicable law, (i) the Credit Parties shall not assert, and each Credit Party hereby waives any claim against each Agent, the Fronting Lender, each Lender and their respective Affiliates, and the partners, shareholders, officers, directors, employees, agents, trustees, representatives and investment advisors of each of the foregoing, in each case, together with their respective successors and assigns for any damages arising from the use by others of information or other materials obtained through electronic, telecommunications or other information transmission systems and (ii) no party hereto (and no Indemnified Person or any Subsidiary or Affiliate of Holdings or the Borrower) shall be responsible to any other party hereto (or any Indemnified Person or any Subsidiary or Affiliate of Holdings or the Borrower) for any indirect, special, exemplary, incidental, punitive or consequential damages (including, any loss of profits, business or anticipated savings) which may be alleged as a result of this Agreement or any other Credit Document or the financing contemplated hereby; provided that nothing in this Section 13.01(c) shall limit the Credit Parties' indemnity obligations to the extent such indirect, special, punitive or consequential damages are included in any claim by a third party unaffiliated with any Indemnified Person with respect to which the applicable Indemnified Person is entitled to indemnification under Section 13.01(a).

13.02 Right of Setoff. In addition to any rights now or hereafter granted under applicable law or otherwise, and not by way of limitation of any such rights, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, each Lender and each Guaranteed Creditor is hereby authorized at any time or from time to time, without presentment, demand, protest or other notice of any kind to any Credit Party or to any other Person, any such notice being hereby expressly waived, to set off and to appropriate and apply any and all deposits (general or special) (other than accounts used exclusively for payroll, payroll taxes, fiduciary and trust purposes, and employee benefits and other than any Excluded Collateral) and any other Indebtedness at any time held or owing by the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, such Lender or such Guaranteed Creditor (including, by branches and agencies of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, such Lender or such Guaranteed Creditor wherever located) to or for the credit or the account of the Borrower or any other Group Member against and on account of the Obligations and liabilities of the Credit Parties to the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, such Lender or such Guaranteed Creditor under this Agreement or under any of the other Credit Documents, including all interests in Obligations purchased by such Lender or such Guaranteed Creditor pursuant to Section 13.06(b), and all other claims of any nature or description arising out of or connected with this Agreement or any other Credit Document, irrespective of whether or not the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, such Lender or such Guaranteed Creditor shall have made any demand hereunder and although said Obligations, liabilities or claims, or any of them, shall be contingent or unmatured. The right of setoff described in this Section 13.02 shall not apply with respect to any Excluded Collateral.

13.03 Notices.

(a) Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, all notices and other communications provided for hereunder shall be in writing (including telegraphic, telex, telecopier, cable communication or electronic transmission) and mailed, telegraphed, telexed, telecopied, cabled, delivered or transmitted:

(i) if to any Credit Party, the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent, to the address, facsimile number, electronic mail address or telephone number specified for such Person on Schedule 13.03 or such other address as shall be designated by such party in a written notice to the other parties hereto; and

All such notices and communications shall, when mailed or overnight courier, be effective when deposited in the mail, or overnight courier, as the case may be, or sent by facsimile or other electronic means of transmission, except that notices and communications to the Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent and the Borrower shall not be effective until received by the Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent or Borrower, as the case may be.

(b) Notices and other communications to the Lenders hereunder may be delivered or furnished by electronic communications (including email, FpML messaging, and Internet or intranet websites) pursuant to procedures approved by the Administrative Agent; provided that the foregoing shall not apply to notices pursuant to Section 2 unless otherwise agreed by the Administrative Agent and the applicable Lender. Each of the Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent, the Borrower or Holdings may, in its discretion, agree to accept notices and other communications to it hereunder by electronic communications pursuant to procedures approved by it; provided that approval of such procedures may be limited to particular notices or communications.

(c) (i) Notices and other communications sent to an e-mail address shall be deemed received upon the sender's receipt of an acknowledgement from the intended recipient (such as by the "return receipt requested" function, as available, return e-mail or other written acknowledgement), and (ii) notices or communications posted to an Internet or intranet website shall be deemed received upon the deemed receipt by the intended recipient, at its e-mail address as described in the foregoing clause (i) of notification that such notice or communication is available and identifying the website address therefor; provided that, for both clauses (i) and (ii), if such notice, email or other communication is not sent during the normal business hours of the recipient, such notice, email or communication shall be deemed to have been sent at the opening of business on the next business day for the recipient.

(d) THE PLATFORM IS PROVIDED "AS IS" AND "AS AVAILABLE." THE AGENT PARTIES (AS DEFINED BELOW) DO NOT WARRANT THE ACCURACY OR COMPLETENESS OF ANY BORROWER MATERIALS OR THE ADEQUACY OF THE PLATFORM, AND EXPRESSLY DISCLAIM LIABILITY FOR ERRORS IN OR OMISSIONS FROM ANY BORROWER MATERIALS. NO WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY, INCLUDING ANY WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, NON-INFRINGEMENT OF THIRD-PARTY RIGHTS OR FREEDOM FROM VIRUSES OR OTHER CODE DEFECTS, IS MADE BY ANY AGENT PARTY IN CONNECTION WITH ANY BORROWER MATERIALS OR THE PLATFORM. In no event shall each of the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent or any of its Related Parties (collectively, the "Agent Parties") have any liability to Holdings, the Borrower, the Group Guarantors, any Lender or any other Person for losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses of any kind (whether in tort, contract or otherwise) arising out of the Borrower's, any Credit Party's or the Administrative Agent's transmission of the Borrower Materials or notices through the Platform, any other electronic messaging service, or through the

Internet, in the absence of gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct of any Agent Party, as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction and by a final and non-appealable judgment.

13.04 Benefit of Agreement; Assignments; Participations, etc.

(a) The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, except that (i) the Borrower may not assign or otherwise transfer any of their rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent (acting at the Direction of the Required Lenders) and each Lender (and any attempted assignment or transfer by the Borrower without such consent shall be null and void), except as contemplated by Section ~~[~~10.02(vi)~~]~~ and (ii) no Lender may assign or otherwise transfer its rights or obligations hereunder except in accordance with this Section 13.04. Any assignment or transfer by a Lender of rights or obligations under this Agreement that does not comply with this Section 13.04 shall be treated for purposes of this Agreement as a sale by such Lender of a participation in such rights and obligations in accordance with clause (c) below. Nothing in this Agreement, expressed or implied, shall be construed to confer upon any Person (other than the parties hereto, their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, Participants (to the extent provided in paragraph (c) of this Section) and, to the extent expressly contemplated hereby, the Related Parties of each of the Administrative Agent and the Lenders) any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under or by reason of this Agreement.

(b) (i) Subject to the conditions set forth in paragraph (b)(ii) below, any Lender may assign to one or more Eligible Transferees all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitments and Loans at the time owing to it) with the prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) of:

(A) the Borrower; provided that, the Borrower shall be deemed to have consented to an assignment of Term Loans or Term Loan Commitments unless it shall have objected thereto by written notice to the Administrative Agent within ten (10) Business Days after having received notice thereof; provided that no consent of the Borrower shall be required (x) with respect to Term Loans or Term Loan Commitments, for an assignment to a Term Lender, an Affiliate of a Term Lender or an Approved Fund, (y) if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing under Section 11.01 or 11.05, any other Eligible Transferee or (z) for assignment by the Fronting Lender pursuant to the Fronting Arrangement; and

(B) the Administrative Agent; provided that no consent of the Administrative Agent shall be required (x) with respect to Term Loans or Term Loan Commitments, for an assignment to a Term Lender, an Affiliate of a Term Lender or an Approved Fund or (y) for assignment by the Fronting Lender pursuant to the Fronting Arrangement;

(ii) Assignments shall be subject to the following additional conditions:

(A) except in the case of assignments (I) by the Fronting Lender pursuant to the Fronting Arrangement, (II) to a Lender or an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund or (III) an assignment of the entire remaining amount of the assigning Lender's Commitment or Loans of any Tranche, the amount of the Commitment or Loans of the assigning Lender subject to each such assignment (determined as of the date the Assignment and Assumption Agreement with respect to such assignment is delivered to the Administrative Agent) shall not be less than $1,000,000 in the case of Term Loans, unless each of the Borrower and the Administrative Agent otherwise consent; provided that no such consent of the Borrower shall be required if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing under Section 11.01 or 11.05;

(B) except in the case of assignments by the Fronting Lender pursuant to the Fronting Arrangement, each partial assignment shall be made as an assignment of a proportionate part of all the assigning Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement; provided that this clause shall not be construed to prohibit the assignment of a proportionate part of all the assigning Lender's rights and obligations in respect of one Tranche of Commitments or Loans;

(C) the parties to each assignment shall execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent (x) an Assignment and Assumption Agreement or (y) to the extent applicable, an agreement incorporating an Assignment and Assumption Agreement by reference pursuant to a Platform as to which the Administrative Agent and the parties to the Assignment and Assumption Agreement are participants, together with the payment by the assignee of a processing and recordation fee of $3,500; provided, that, such fee shall be waived in connection with any assignment of Initial Term Loans by the Fronting Lender; and

(D) the assignee, if it shall not be a Lender, shall deliver to the Administrative Agent an Administrative Questionnaire in which the assignee designates one or more credit contacts to whom all syndicate-level information (which may contain material non-public information about the Credit Parties and their related parties or their respective securities) will be made available and who may receive such information in accordance with the assignee's compliance procedures and applicable laws, including Federal and state securities laws.

(iii) Subject to acceptance and recording thereof pursuant to clause (b)(iv) below, from and after the effective date specified in each Assignment and Assumption Agreement the assignee thereunder shall be a party hereto and, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Assumption Agreement, have the rights and obligations of a Lender under this Agreement, and the assigning Lender thereunder shall, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Assumption Agreement, be released from its obligations under this Agreement (and, in the case of an Assignment and Assumption Agreement covering all of the assigning Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement, such Lender shall cease to be a party hereto but shall continue to be entitled to the benefits of Sections 2.10, 5.05 and 13.01). Any assignment or transfer by a Lender of rights or obligations under this Agreement that does not comply with this Section 13.04 shall be treated for purposes of this Agreement as a sale by such Lender of a participation in such rights and obligations in accordance with clause (c) below.

(iv) The Administrative Agent, acting solely for this purpose as a non-fiduciary agent of the Borrower, shall maintain at one of its offices a copy of each Assignment and Assumption Agreement delivered to it and a register for the recordation of the names and addresses of the Lenders, and the Commitment of, and principal amount (and related interest amounts) of the Loans owing to, each Lender pursuant to the terms hereof from time to time (the "Register"). The entries in the Register shall be conclusive absent manifest error, and the Borrower, the Administrative Agent and the Lenders shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Register pursuant to the terms hereof as a Lender hereunder for all purposes of this Agreement, notwithstanding notice to the contrary. The Register shall be available for inspection by the Borrower and, as to its own positions only, any Lender at any reasonable time and from time to time upon reasonable prior notice.

(v) Upon its receipt of (x) a duly completed Assignment and Assumption Agreement executed by an assigning Lender and an assignee or (y) to the extent applicable, an agreement incorporating an Assignment and Assumption Agreement by reference pursuant to a Platform as to which the Administrative Agent and the parties to the Assignment and Assumption Agreement are participants, the assignee's completed Administrative Questionnaire (unless the assignee shall already be a Lender hereunder), the processing and recordation fee referred to in clause (b)(ii)(C) above and any written consent to such assignment required by clause (b)(ii) above, the Administrative Agent shall accept such Assignment and Assumption Agreement and record the information contained therein in the Register; provided that if either the assigning Lender or the assignee shall have failed to make any payment required to be made by it pursuant to this Agreement, the Administrative Agent shall have no obligation to accept such Assignment and Assumption Agreement and record the information therein in the Register unless and until such payment shall have been made in full, together with all accrued interest thereon. No assignment shall be effective for purposes of this Agreement unless it has been recorded in the Register as provided in this clause (v).

(c) Any Lender may, without the consent of the Borrower or the Administrative Agent, sell participations to one or more Eligible Transferees (a "Participant"), in all or a portion of such Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its Commitment and the Loans owing to it); provided that (A) such Lender's obligations under this Agreement shall remain unchanged; (B) such Lender shall remain solely responsible to the other parties hereto for the performance of such obligations; and (C) the Borrower, the Administrative Agent and the other Lenders shall continue to deal solely and directly with such Lender in connection with such Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement. Any agreement or instrument pursuant to which a Lender sells such a participation shall provide that such Lender shall retain the sole right to enforce this Agreement and to approve any amendment, modification or waiver of any provision of this Agreement; provided that such agreement or instrument may provide that such Lender will not, without the consent of the Participant, agree to any amendment, modification or waiver that requires the consent of each Lender or each adversely affected Lender and that directly affects such Participant. The Borrower agrees that each Participant shall be entitled to the benefits of Sections 2.10 and 5.05 (subject to the requirements and limitations therein (it being understood that the documentation required under Sections 5.05(b) and (c) shall be delivered solely to the participating Lender; provided, for the avoidance of doubt, that if the participating Lender is not a U.S. Person, such Lender shall include a copy of such documentation as an exhibit to its IRS Form W-8IMY in accordance with Section 5.05(c)(x)(iv))) to the same extent as if it were a Lender and had acquired its interest by assignment pursuant to Section 13.04(b); provided that such Participant (A) shall be subject to the provisions of Section 2.12 as if it were an assignee under Section 13.04(b); and (B) shall not be entitled to receive any greater payment under Section 2.10 or 5.05, with respect to any participation, than its participating Lender would have been entitled to receive, except to the extent such entitlement to receive a greater payment results from a Change in Law that occurs after the Participant acquired the applicable participation. Each Lender that sells a participation agrees, at the Borrower's request and expense, to use reasonable efforts to cooperate with the Borrower to effectuate the provisions of Section 2.13 with respect to any Participant. To the extent permitted by law, each Participant also shall be entitled to the benefits of Section 13.01 as though it were a Lender; provided that such Participant shall be subject to Section 2.12 as though it were a Lender. Each Lender that sells a participation shall, acting solely for this purpose as a non-fiduciary agent of the Borrower, maintain a register on which it enters the name and address of each Participant and the principal amounts (and related interest amounts) of each Participant's interest in the Loans or other obligations under the Credit Documents (the "Participant Register"); provided that no Lender shall have any obligation to disclose all or any portion of the Participant Register (including the identity of any Participant or any information relating to a Participant's interest in any Commitments, Loans or its other obligations under any Credit Document) to any Person except to the extent such disclosure is necessary to establish that such Commitment, Loans or other obligations are in registered form under Section 5f.103-1(c) of the United States Treasury Regulations and, if applicable, Section 1.163-5(b) of the United States Proposed Treasury Regulations (or any amended or successor version). The entries in the Participant Register shall be conclusive absent manifest error, and such Lender shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Participant Register as the owner of such participation for all purposes of this Agreement notwithstanding any notice to the contrary. For the avoidance of doubt, the Administrative Agent (in its capacity as Administrative Agent) shall have no responsibility for maintaining a Participant Register.

(d) The Borrower shall also be entitled to purchase (from Lenders) outstanding principal of Term Loans in accordance with the provisions of Sections 2.20 and 2.21, which purchases shall be evidenced by assignments (in form reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent) from the applicable Lender to the Borrower. Each assignor and assignee party to the relevant repurchases under Sections 2.20 and 2.21 shall render customary "big boy" disclaimer letters or any such disclaimers shall be incorporated into the terms of the Assignment and Assumption Agreement. No such transfer or assignment shall be effective until recorded by the Administrative Agent (which the Administrative Agent agrees to promptly record) on the Register pursuant to clause (b) above. All Term Loans purchased pursuant to Sections 2.20 and 2.21 shall be immediately and automatically cancelled and retired, and the Borrower shall in no event become a Lender hereunder. To the extent of any assignment to the Borrower as described in this clause (d), the assigning Lender shall be relieved of its obligations hereunder with respect to the assigned Term Loans.

(e) Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent or prohibit any Lender from pledging its Loans and Notes hereunder to any party, including to a Federal Reserve Bank or central banking authority in support of borrowings made by such Lender from such Federal Reserve Bank or central banking authority and, with prior notification to the Administrative Agent (but without the consent of the Administrative Agent or the Borrower), any Lender which is a fund may pledge all or any portion of its Loans and Notes to its trustee or to a collateral agent providing credit or credit support to such Lender in support of its obligations to such trustee, such collateral agent or a holder of such obligations, as the case may be. No pledge pursuant to this clause (e) shall release the transferor Lender from any of its obligations hereunder.

(f) Each Lender acknowledges and agrees to comply with the provisions of this Section 13.04 applicable to it as a Lender hereunder.

(g) [Reserved].

(h) [Reserved].

(i) The Administrative Agent shall have the right, and the Borrower hereby expressly authorizes the Administrative Agent to provide to any requesting Lender, the list of Disqualified Lenders provided to the Administrative Agent by the Borrower and any updates thereto. The Borrower hereby agrees that any such requesting Lender may share the list of Disqualified Lenders with any potential assignee, transferee or participant. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each Credit Party and the Lenders acknowledge and agree that the Administrative Agent shall not be responsible or have any liability for, or have any duty to ascertain, inquire into, monitor or enforce, compliance with the provisions of this Agreement relating to Disqualified Lenders or Net Short Lenders (other than with respect to assignments or participations by it (in its capacity as a Lender) of its Loans and Commitments, if any). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Administrative Agent shall not (x) be obligated to ascertain, monitor or inquire as to whether any Lender or participant or prospective Lender or participant is a Disqualified Lender or Net Short Lender, (y) have any liability with respect to or arising out of any assignment or participation of Loans, or disclosure of confidential information, to any Disqualified Lender (other than with respect to assignments or participations by it (in its capacity as a Lender) of its Loans and Commitments, if any) or (z) have any liability with respect to or arising out of the voting in any amendment or waiver to any Credit Document by any Net Short Lender.

(j) Disqualified Lenders. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, any assignment to a Disqualified Lender shall not be void, but shall be subject to the following provisions:

(i) If any assignment is made to any Disqualified Lender without the Borrower's prior written consent or if any Person becomes a Disqualified Lender after the Closing Date, the Borrower may, at its sole expense and effort, upon notice to the applicable Disqualified Lender and the Administrative Agent, cancel any unfunded Commitment the subject thereof and (A) in the case of outstanding Term Loans held by Disqualified Lenders, prepay such Loan by paying the lesser of (x) the principal amount thereof and (y) the amount that such Disqualified Lender paid to acquire such Loans, in each case plus accrued interest, accrued fees and all other amounts (other than principal amounts) payable to it hereunder (it being understood that, notwithstanding anything in the Credit Documents to the contrary, any such prepayment shall not be subject to any provisions requiring prepayments of the Loans on a pro rata basis and no other Loans shall be required to be repaid as a result of such prepayment) and/or (B) require such Disqualified Lender to assign and delegate, without recourse (in accordance with and subject to the restrictions contained in this Section 13.04), all of its interest, rights and obligations under this Agreement and related Credit Documents to an Eligible Transferee that shall assume such obligations at the lesser of (x) the principal amount thereof and (y) the amount that such Disqualified Lender paid to acquire such interests, rights and obligations, in each case plus accrued interest, accrued fees and all other amounts (other than principal amounts) payable to it hereunder; provided that (i) the Borrower shall have paid to the Administrative Agent the assignment fee (if any) specified in Section 13.04(b) (unless waived by the Administrative Agent) and (ii) in the case of clause (A), the Borrower shall not use the proceeds from any Loans or loans under the USS ABL Credit Agreement or USS Revolver Credit Agreement to prepay any Loans held by Disqualified Lenders.

(ii) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, Disqualified Lenders (A) will not (x) have the right to receive information, reports or other materials provided to the Lenders by the Borrower, the Administrative Agent or any other Lender, (y) attend or participate in meetings attended by the Lenders and the Administrative Agent, or (z) access any electronic site established for the Lenders or confidential communications from counsel to or financial advisors of the Administrative Agent or the Lenders and (B) (x) for purposes of any consent to any amendment, waiver or modification of, or any action under, and for the purpose of any direction to the Administrative Agent or any Lender to undertake any action (or refrain from taking any action) under this Agreement or any other Credit Document, each Disqualified Lender will be deemed to have consented in the same proportion as the Lenders that are not Disqualified ~~Lender~~Lenders consented to such matter, and (y) for purposes of voting on any proposed plan of reorganization, ~~plan of~~ liquidation, arrangement, adjustment or composition, proposal or any other similar dispositive restructuring plan pursuant to any Debtor Relief Laws ("Plan of Reorganization"), each Disqualified Lender party hereto hereby agrees (1) not to vote on such Plan of Reorganization, (2) if such Disqualified Lender does vote on such Plan of Reorganization notwithstanding the restriction in the foregoing clause (1), such vote will be deemed not to be in good faith and shall be "designated" pursuant to Section 1126(e) of the Bankruptcy Code (or any similar provision in any other Debtor Relief Laws), and such vote shall not be counted in determining whether the applicable class has accepted or rejected such Plan of Reorganization in accordance with Section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code (or any similar provision in any other Debtor Relief Laws) and (3) not to contest any request by any party for a determination by the bankruptcy court (or other applicable court of competent jurisdiction) effectuating the foregoing clause (2).

13.05 No Waiver; Remedies Cumulative. No failure or delay on the part of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any Lender in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder or under any other Credit Document and no course of dealing between the Borrower or any other Credit Party and the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any Lender shall operate as a waiver thereof; nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege hereunder or under any other Credit Document preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege hereunder or thereunder. The rights, powers and remedies herein or in any other Credit Document expressly provided are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights, powers or remedies which the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any Lender would otherwise have. No notice to or demand on any Credit Party in any case shall entitle any Credit Party to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances or constitute a waiver of the rights of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any Lender to any other or further action in any circumstances without notice or demand.

13.06 Payments Pro Rata.

(a) The Administrative Agent agrees that promptly after its receipt of each payment from or on behalf of any Credit Party in respect of any Obligations of such Credit Party, it shall distribute such payment to the Lenders (other than any Lender that has consented in writing to waive its pro rata share of such payment) pro rata based upon their respective shares, if any, of the Obligations with respect to which such payment was received. ~~[~~Whenever any payment received by the Administrative Agent under this Agreement or any of the other Credit Documents is insufficient to pay in full all amounts due and payable to the Administrative Agent and the Lenders under or in respect of this Agreement and the other Credit Documents on any date, such payment shall be distributed by the Administrative Agent and the Lenders in the order of priority set forth in Section ~~[___]~~11.12.

(b) Each of the Lenders agrees that, if it should receive any amount hereunder (whether by voluntary payment, by realization upon security, by the exercise of the right of setoff or banker's lien, by counterclaim or cross action, by the enforcement of any right under the Credit Documents, or otherwise) which is applicable to the payment of the principal of, or interest or premium on, the Loans or Fees, of a sum which with respect to the related sum or sums received by other Lenders is in a greater proportion than the total of such Obligation then owed and due to such Lender bears to the total of such Obligation then owed and due to all of the Lenders immediately prior to such receipt, then such Lender receiving such excess payment shall purchase for cash without recourse or warranty from the other Lenders an interest in the Obligations of the respective Credit Party to such Lenders in such amount as shall result in a proportional participation by all of the Lenders in such amount; provided that if all or any portion of such excess amount is thereafter recovered from such Lender, such purchase shall be rescinded and the purchase price restored to the extent of such recovery, but without interest. For purposes of clause (c) of the definition of Excluded Taxes, a Lender that acquires a participation pursuant to this Section 13.06(b) shall be treated as having acquired such participation on the earlier date(s) on which such Lender acquired the applicable interest(s) in the Loan(s) or Commitment(s) to which such participation relates.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the provisions of the preceding Sections 13.06(a) and (b) shall be subject to (x) the express provisions of this Agreement which require, or permit, differing payments to be made to Non-Defaulting Lenders as opposed to Defaulting Lenders, (y) the express provisions of this Agreement which permit disproportionate payments with respect to various of the Tranches as, and to the extent, provided herein, and (z) any other provisions which permit disproportionate payments with respect to the Loans as, and to the extent, provided therein.

13.07 Calculations; Computations.

(a) The financial statements to be furnished to the Lenders pursuant hereto shall be made and prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP consistently applied throughout the periods involved (except as set forth in the notes thereto); provided that to the extent expressly provided herein, certain calculations shall be made on a Pro Forma Basis; provided, further, that if Borrower notifies the Administrative Agent that the Borrower wishes to amend any leverage calculation or any financial definition used therein to implement the effect of any change in U.S. GAAP or the application thereof occurring after the Closing Date on the operation thereof (or if the Administrative Agent notifies the Borrower that the Required Lenders wish to amend any leverage test or any financial definition used therein for such purpose), then the Borrower and the Administrative Agent shall negotiate in good faith to amend such leverage test or the definitions used therein (subject to the approval of the Required Lenders) to preserve the original intent thereof in light of such changes in U.S. GAAP; provided, further, that all determinations made pursuant to any applicable leverage test or any financial definition used therein shall be determined on the basis of U.S. GAAP as applied and in effect immediately before the relevant change in U.S. GAAP or the application thereof became effective, until such leverage test or such financial definition is amended. Notwithstanding any other provision contained herein, (i) all terms of an accounting or financial nature used herein shall be construed, and all computations of amounts and ratios referred to herein shall be made, without giving effect to Statement of Financial Accounting Standards 141R or ASC 805 (or any other financial accounting standard having a similar result or effect) and (ii) the accounting for any lease shall be based on U.S. GAAP as in effect on December 15, 2018 and without giving effect to any subsequent changes in U.S. GAAP (or the required implementation of any previously promulgated changes in U.S. GAAP) relating to the treatment of a lease as an operating lease or capitalized lease.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the Borrower (or Holdings or any Parent Company) may elect to switch from maintaining its accounting records from U.S. GAAP to IFRS by written notice to the Administrative Agent, and thereafter may provide all required financial information in accordance with IFRS, provided that such switch may only occur once after the Closing Date. In the event that the Borrower (or Holdings or any Parent Company) elects to prepare its financial statements in accordance with IFRS and such election results in a change in the method of calculation of financial covenants, standards or terms (collectively, the "Accounting Changes") in this Agreement, the Borrower and the Administrative Agent agree to enter into good faith negotiations in order to amend such provisions of this Agreement so as to reflect equitably the Accounting Changes (or if the Administrative Agent notifies the Borrower that the Required Lenders request an amendment to any provision hereof for such purpose), then the Borrower and the Administrative Agent (acting at the Direction of the ~~Required~~Majority Lenders) shall negotiate in good faith to enter into an amendment of the relevant affected provisions (without the payment of any amendment or similar fee to the Lenders), with the desired result that the criteria for evaluating the Borrower's (or Holdings' or any Parent Company's) financial condition shall be substantially the same after such change as if such change had not been made. Until such time as such an amendment shall have been executed and delivered by the Borrower and the Administrative Agent, all financial covenants, standards and terms in this Agreement shall continue to be calculated or construed in accordance with U.S. GAAP (as determined in good faith by a Responsible Officer of the Borrower or Holdings or such Parent Company, as applicable) as if such change had not occurred.

(c) The calculation of any financial ratios under this Agreement shall be calculated by dividing the appropriate component by the other component, carrying the result to one place more than the number of places by which such ratio is expressed herein and rounding the result up or down to the nearest number (with a rounding-down if there is no nearest number).

In connection with any amendment, modification or waiver of this Agreement or the other Credit Documents, each Lender (other than any Lender that is a Regulated Bank) will be deemed to have represented to the Borrower and the Administrative Agent that it does not constitute a Net Short Lender, in each case, unless such Lender shall have notified Borrower and the Administrative Agent prior to the requested response date with respect to such amendment, modification or waiver that it constitutes a Net Short Lender (it being understood and agreed that the Borrower and the Administrative Agent

(a) To the extent that the Credit Documents provide support, through a guarantee or otherwise, for Interest Rate Protection Agreements or Other Hedging Agreements or any other agreement or instrument that is a QFC (such support, "QFC Credit Support" and each such QFC a "Supported QFC"), the parties acknowledge and agree as follows with respect to the resolution power of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation under the Federal Deposit Insurance Act and Title II of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act (together with the regulations promulgated thereunder, the "U.S. Special Resolution Regimes") in respect of such Supported QFC and QFC Credit Support (with the provisions below applicable notwithstanding that the Credit Documents and any Supported QFC may in fact be stated to be governed by the laws of the State of New York and/or of the United States or any other state of the United States).

(b) In the event a Covered Entity that is party to a Supported QFC (each, a "Covered Party") becomes subject to a proceeding under a U.S. Special Resolution Regime, the transfer of such Supported QFC and the benefit of such QFC Credit Support (and any interest and obligation in or under such Supported QFC and such QFC Credit Support, and any rights in property securing such Supported QFC or such QFC Credit Support) from such Covered Party will be effective to the same extent as the transfer would be effective under the U.S. Special Resolution Regime if the Supported QFC and such QFC Credit Support (and any such interest, obligation and rights in property) were governed by the laws of the United States or a state of the United States. In the event a Covered Party or a BHC Act Affiliate of a Covered Party becomes subject to a proceeding under a U.S. Special Resolution Regime, Default Rights under the Credit Documents that might otherwise apply to such Supported QFC or any QFC Credit Support that may be exercised against such Covered Party are permitted to be exercised to no greater extent than such Default Rights could be exercised under the U.S. Special Resolution Regime if the Supported QFC and the Credit Documents were governed by the laws of the United States or a state of the United States. Without limitation of the foregoing, it is understood and agreed that rights and remedies of the parties with respect to a Defaulting Lender shall in no event affect the rights of any Covered Party with respect to a Supported QFC or any QFC Credit Support.

RESTRUCTURING TRANSACTIONS MEMORANDUM

RESTRUCTURING TRANSACTIONS MEMORANDUM

Background:

This Restructuring Transactions Memorandum ("Memorandum") sets forth a summary description of certain of the proposed Restructuring Transactions[1] to be effectuated prior to, on, or following the Effective Date in connection with the Joint Prepackaged Plan of Reorganization of United Site Services, Inc. and Its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code [Dkt. No. 16] (as amended, supplemented or modified from time to time in accordance with its terms, the "Plan"). The Restructuring Transactions remain under discussion among the Debtors and other parties, and, subject to the applicable consent rights contained in the Restructuring Support Agreement and the Plan, the Debtors reserve all rights to modify, amend, supplement, or restate any part of this Memorandum as necessary or appropriate.

The Debtors contemplate that the Confirmation Order will approve this Memorandum and the various actions and transactions set forth in this Memorandum (as well as any modifications or deviations from the description herein, subject to the applicable consent rights set forth in the Restructuring Support Agreement and the Plan), and authorize the Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, to take any and all actions as may be necessary or appropriate in their discretion, to implement any action or transaction described in, contemplated by, necessary or appropriate to effectuate the Plan, this Memorandum, and the Restructuring Transactions.

Specifically, pursuant to the Plan, and without limiting the terms thereof, the Debtors intend to implement the below Restructuring Transactions after the Confirmation Date but prior to, on, or following the Effective Date. The Restructuring Transactions shall occur in the order set forth below, unless otherwise specified. The definitive documentation necessary or appropriate to implement the Restructuring Transactions may include, among other things, merger, purchase, assignment, conversion, formation, and/or contribution agreements, certificates, or other documentation, as applicable.

Furthermore, on the Effective Date (or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter), the Reorganized Debtors will determine whether (a) each Intercompany Claim will be (i) Reinstated, (ii) adjusted, (iii) converted to equity, set off, settled, distributed or contributed, or (iv) discharged, cancelled, and released, and (b) certain subsidiaries may be reclassified or repositioned within the group via elections, equity contributions or sales and/or liquidated or merged into other group entities.

The Restructuring Transactions shall occur in the order set forth below, unless otherwise specified.

Prior to the Effective Date:

The Debtors may engage in one or more transactions to cause any Debtor (including, but not limited to, PECF USS Holding Corporation, PECF USS Intermediate Holding III Corporation and

Furthermore, immediately prior to, on, or as soon as reasonably practicable following, the Effective Date, the Intercompany Credit Agreement shall be amended by the parties thereto and with the other consents required thereby to reflect any changes required to reflect or conform to (as applicable) (i) the implementation of any one or more of the steps set forth below, (ii) any of the Debtors' prepetition funded debt being cancelled, extinguished, satisfied or otherwise treated under the Plan, and/or (iii) the incurrence of and the terms provided for in the Exit Facilities.

On the Effective Date:

Step 1: The ERO Backstop Parties, form a [Delaware] limited liability company ("Newco"), and contribute the Sponsor Payment (as defined in the ERO Backstop Agreement) to Newco in exchange for equity interests in Newco.[2]

Step 2*:* PECF USS Holding Corporation converts to a limited liability company ("PECF USS Holding LLC" or "Reorganized Parent") and elects to be treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes.[3]

Step 3: Newco merges with and into PECF USS Holding LLC with PECF USS Holding LLC surviving the merger. Pursuant to the merger, each direct holder of outstanding equity interest in PECF USS Holding LLC receives its pro-rata shares of the Sponsor Payment, which portion of the Sponsor Payment due to the Sponsor shall be paid to the applicable Sponsor entities or their designee and the ERO Backstop Parties will own 100% of PECF USS Holding LLC (the "Existing Equity") immediately after the merger.

Step 4: Reorganized Parent issues the Distributable Shares and Subscription Rights (the "Plan Equity Consideration") and contributes the Plan Equity Consideration to PECF USS Intermediate Holding Corporation[4], which contributes the Plan Equity Consideration to PECF USS Intermediate Holding II Corporation, which contributes the Plan Equity Consideration to PECF USS Intermediate Holding III Corporation.

Step 5: PECF USS Intermediate Holding III Corporation retains the portion of the Plan Equity Consideration to be distributed to Holders of Amended Term Loan Claims (the "Term Loan Equity Consideration") and contributes the remainder of the Plan Equity Consideration (the "Second-Out Equity Consideration") to Portable Holding Corporation, which contributes the Second-Out Equity Consideration to Portable Intermediate Holding Corporation, which contributes the Second-Out Equity Consideration to Portable Intermediate Holding II Corporation, which contributes the Second-Out Equity Consideration to USS Ultimate Holdings, Inc., which contributes the Second-

[2] Reorganized Parent is to be capitalized such that no ERO Backstop Party has the right to at least 50% of Reorganized Parent's profits or assets upon dissolution.

[3] Reorganized Parent may change its name as part of this step.

[4] For purposes of this Restructuring Transactions Memorandum, each entity referred to as a corporation is so referred to given its status as of the date of this memorandum. As noted above, one or more of such entities may become limited liability companies. In that case, references herein to an entity as a corporation shall refer to the successor limited liability company.

Step 6: Pursuant to the Plan, (i) PECF USS Intermediate Holding III Corporation distributes the Term Loan Equity Consideration to holders of Amended Term Loan Claims, and (ii) Vortex Opco, LLC distributes the Second-Out Equity Consideration to holders of Second-Out Claims, in each case, in satisfaction of such Claims, other than the portion of such Claims to be satisfied by a payment in Cash which will be paid pursuant to Step 8.

Step 7: The participants in the Equity Rights Offering (including, in such capacity, the ERO Backstop Parties) purchase the Rights Offering Shares from Reorganized Parent, the ERO Backstop Parties purchase (i) the Direct Investment Shares (reduced to take into account the Existing Equity acquired in Step 3), and (ii) the Unsubscribed Equity (if any) from Reorganized Parent, and Reorganized Parent issues the ERO Backstop Premium Shares to the recipients of the ERO Backstop Premium Shares.

Step 8: Pursuant to the Plan, for administrative purposes, Reorganized Parent (or one or more other entities) distributes (or causes to be distributed) Cash to holders of Claims entitled to receive Cash pursuant to the Plan, in each case, in full and final satisfaction of such Claims.

Step 9: The Existing Equity (acquired in Step 3 and diluted as a result of the issuance of the Plan Equity Consideration, the ERO Equity, the Direct Investment Shares, the Unsubscribed Equity (if any), the ERO Backstop Premium Shares and any equity issued (or reserved) pursuant to the Management Incentive Plan) is recapitalized such that it is identical in all respects to the other New Common Shares.

SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION PURSUANT TO § 1145(A)(4) OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE WITH RESPECT TO THE JOINT PREPACKAGED PLAN OF REORGANIZATION OF UNITED SITE SERVICES, INC. AND ITS DEBTOR AFFILIATES PURSUANT TO CHAPTER 11 OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

I. INTRODUCTION

United Site Services, Inc. ("USS") and certain of its subsidiaries and affiliates, as debtors and debtors in possession (each, a "Debtor," and, collectively, the "Debtors"), provide supplemental information (the "Supplement") concerning the Debtors and the Joint Prepackaged Plan of Reorganization of United Site Services, Inc. and its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, dated December 29, 2025, as the same may be amended [Docket No. 16] (the "Plan"), filed with the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Bankruptcy Court"). This Supplement should be read and considered in conjunction with the Disclosure Statement for the Joint Prepackaged Plan of Reorganization of United Site Services, Inc. and its Debtor Affiliates Pursuant to Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code Docket. No. 17. All capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the same meanings ascribed to them in the Plan.

II. SPECIAL NOTICE REGARDING FEDERAL AND STATE SECURITIES LAWS

Neither this Supplemental Information nor the related Disclosure Statement or Plan have been filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") or any comparable state authority. The Plan, and the securities issued pursuant to the Plan, have not been approved or disapproved by the SEC or any state securities commission or similar public, governmental, or regulatory authority, and neither the SEC nor any state securities commission or authority has passed upon the accuracy or adequacy of the information contained in this Supplemental Information, the Disclosure Statement nor the merits of the Plan. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

III. RISK FACTORS

The implementation of the Plan is subject to a number of material risks, including those summarized in Section IX (Risk Factors) of the Disclosure Statement and those summarized below.

A. Risks Associated with the Debtors' Business

The terms of the Exit Term Loan Facility Credit Agreement, the Exit RCF Credit Agreement and the Exit ABL Facility Credit Agreement impose restrictions that may limit the Debtors' current and future operating flexibility, particularly their ability to respond to changes in the economy or their industry or to take certain actions, which could harm their long-term interests and may limit their ability to make payments on the Exit Term Loan Facility, the Exit RCF and the Exit ABL Facility.

The Exit Term Loan Facility Credit Agreement, the Exit RCF Credit Agreement and the Exit ABL Facility Credit Agreement contain a number of restrictive covenants that impose significant operating and financial restrictions on the Debtors and may limit Debtors' ability to engage in acts that may be in their long-term best interest, including restrictions on their ability, and the ability of their subsidiaries, to:

- retain sufficient cash to meet the Debtors' operating needs due to (i) the obligation to repay the Exit Term Loan Facility with, among others, 50% of excess cash flows and (ii) the obligation to use all net cash proceeds with respect to certain events, including net cash proceeds from (a) non-ordinary course sales or other non-ordinary course dispositions of assets, (b) casualty events and (c) any sale or issuance of debt (other than permitted debt), to repay the Exit Term Loan Facility (subject to certain conditions);
- incur additional indebtedness and guarantee indebtedness;
- pay dividends or make other distributions in respect of, or repurchase or redeem, its capital stock;
- prepay, redeem or repurchase certain debt;
- issue certain preferred stock or similar equity securities;
- make loans and investments;

- sell assets;
- incur liens;
- enter into agreements containing prohibitions affecting its subsidiaries' ability to pay dividends;
- enter into transactions with affiliates; and
- consolidate, merge or sell all or substantially all of its assets.

These covenants could materially and adversely affect their ability to finance their future operations or capital needs. Furthermore, they may restrict their ability to expand, pursue their business strategies and otherwise conduct their business. Their ability to comply with these covenants may be affected by circumstances and events beyond their control, such as prevailing economic conditions and changes in regulations, and the Debtors cannot assure you that the Debtors will be able to comply with such covenants.

As a result of all of these restrictions, the Debtors may be:

- limited in how business is conducted;
- unable to raise additional debt or equity financing to operate during general economic or business downturns; or
- unable to compete effectively or to take advantage of new business opportunities.

These restrictions might hinder their ability to grow in accordance with their strategy.

These restrictions also limit their ability to obtain future financings to withstand a future downturn in their business or the economy in general. In addition, complying with the covenants may also cause the Debtors to take actions that are not favorable to lenders of the Exit Term Loan Facility, the Exit RCF and the Exit ABL Facility and may make it more difficult for the Debtors to successfully execute their business strategy and compete against companies that are not subject to such restrictions.

A breach of the covenants under the Exit Term Loan Facility Credit Agreement, the Exit RCF Credit Agreement and the Exit ABL Facility Credit Agreement could result in an event of default under the applicable facility. Such a default, if not cured or waived, may allow the creditors to accelerate the related debt and may result in the acceleration of any other debt that is subject to an applicable cross-acceleration or cross-default provision. In addition, if the Debtors were unable to repay the amounts due and payable under the Exit Term Loan Facility Credit Agreement, the Exit RCF Credit Agreement and the Exit ABL Facility Credit Agreement, those lenders could proceed against the collateral securing such indebtedness. In the event their lenders accelerate the repayment of their borrowings, the Debtors and their subsidiaries may not have sufficient assets to repay that indebtedness.

The Debtors' variable rate indebtedness subjects the Debtors to interest rate risk, which could cause their debt service obligations to increase significantly.

Interests under their Exit Term Loan Facility Credit Agreement, the Exit RCF Credit Agreement and the Exit ABL Facility Credit Agreement accrues at variable rates and expose the Debtors to interest rate risk. If interest rates increase, their debt service obligations on the variable rate indebtedness will increase even though the amount borrowed may remain the same, and their net income and cash flows, including cash available for servicing their indebtedness, will correspondingly decrease. Assuming the Exit Term Loan Facility, the Exit RCF and the Exit ABL Facility are each fully drawn, each one-eighth percent change in interest rates would result in a $0.7 million change in annual interest expense on the indebtedness under these facilities. In the future, the Debtors may enter into interest rate swaps that involve the exchange of floating for fixed rate interest payments in order to reduce interest rate volatility. However, the Debtors may not maintain interest rate swaps with respect to all of their variable rate indebtedness, and any swaps the Debtors enter into may not fully mitigate their interest rate risk.

The Debtors may not be able to generate sufficient cash flows from operating activities to service all of their indebtedness, including borrowings under the Exit Term Loan Facility, the Exit RCF and the Exit ABL Facility, and may be forced to take other actions to satisfy their obligations under their indebtedness, which may not be successful.

The Debtors' inability to generate sufficient cash flows to satisfy their debt obligations, or to refinance their indebtedness on commercially reasonable terms or at all, would materially and adversely affect their business, financial position, and results of operations and their ability to satisfy their obligations under the $314,000,000 Exit Term Loan Facility, the $100,000,000 Exit RCF and the $195,000,000 Exit ABL Facility.

Additionally, if the Debtors cannot make scheduled principal and interest payments on their debt the Debtors will be in default, the lenders under the Exit Term Loan Facility, the Exit RCF and the Exit ABL Facility could declare all outstanding principal and interest to be due and payable, the lenders could foreclose against the assets securing their borrowings and the Debtors could be forced into bankruptcy or liquidation. All of these events could result in the lenders losing all or a part of their investment in the Exit Term Loan Facility, the Exit RCF and the Exit ABL Facility.

The Debtors' ability to make scheduled principal and interest payments on or refinance their debt obligations, including the Exit Term Loan Facility, the Exit RCF and the Exit ABL Facility, depends on the Debtors' financial condition and operating performance, which are subject to prevailing economic and competitive conditions and to financial, business, legislative, regulatory and other factors beyond their control. The Debtors might not be able to maintain a level of cash flows from operating activities sufficient to permit them to pay the principal, premium, if any, and interest on their indebtedness, including the Exit Term Loan Facility, the Exit RCF and the Exit ABL Facility.

If their cash flows and capital resources are insufficient to fund their debt service obligations, the Debtors could face substantial liquidity problems and could be forced to reduce or delay investments and capital expenditures or to dispose of material assets or operations, seek additional debt or equity capital or restructure or refinance their indebtedness, including the Exit Term Loan Facility, the Exit RCF and the Exit ABL Facility. The Debtors may not be able to effect any such alternative measures on commercially reasonable terms or at all and, even if successful, those alternative actions may not allow the Debtors to meet their scheduled debt service obligations. The Exit Term Loan Facility, the Exit RCF and the Exit ABL Facility restrict their ability to dispose of assets and use the proceeds from such dispositions and may also restrict their ability to raise debt or equity capital to be used to repay other indebtedness when it becomes due. Because of these restrictions, the Debtors may not be able to consummate those dispositions or to obtain proceeds in an amount sufficient to meet any debt service obligations then due.

In addition, the Debtors conduct substantially all of their operations through their subsidiaries, all of which will be guarantors of the Exit Term Loan Facility, the Exit RCF and the Exit ABL Facility. Accordingly, repayment of their indebtedness, including the Exit Term Loan Facility, the Exit RCF and the Exit ABL Facility, is dependent on the generation of cash flows by their subsidiaries and their ability to make such cash available to the Debtors, by dividend, debt repayment or otherwise. Unless they are guarantors or restricted by the terms of the Exit Term Loan Facility, the Exit RCF and the Exit ABL Facility, their subsidiaries do not have any obligation to pay amounts due under the Exit Term Loan Facility, the Exit RCF and the Exit ABL Facility or to make funds available for that purpose. Their subsidiaries may not be able to, or may not be permitted to, make distributions to enable the Debtors to make payments in respect of their indebtedness, including the Exit Term Loan Facility, the Exit RCF and the Exit ABL Facility. Each subsidiary is a distinct legal entity, and, under certain circumstances, legal and contractual restrictions may limit Debtors' ability to obtain cash from our subsidiaries. While the Exit Term Loan Facility Credit Agreement, the Exit RCF Credit Agreement and the Exit ABL Credit Agreement will limit the ability of their subsidiaries to incur consensual restrictions on their ability to pay dividends or make other intercompany payments to Debtors, these limitations are subject to qualifications and exceptions. In the event that the Debtors do not receive distributions from their subsidiaries, the Debtors may be unable to make required principal and interest payments on their indebtedness, including the Exit Term Loan Facility, the Exit RCF and the Exit ABL Facility.

The Debtors' indebtedness could adversely affect their financial condition, limit their ability to raise additional capital to fund their operations and prevent them from fulfilling their obligations under the Exit Term Loan Facility, the Exit RCF and the Exit ABL Facility.

On the Effective Date, the Debtors will have indebtedness in the form of the Exit Term Loan Facility, the Exit RCF and the Exit ABL Facility. As a result, a portion of their cash flows will be required to pay interest and principal on their outstanding indebtedness, and the Debtors may not generate sufficient cash flows from operations, or have future borrowings available under the Exit RCF and the Exit ABL Facility, to enable the Debtors to repay such indebtedness or to fund their other liquidity needs.

Subject to the limits to be contained in the Exit Term Loan Facility, the Exit RCF and the Exit ABL Facility, the Debtors may incur substantial additional debt from time to time to finance working capital, capital expenditures, investments or acquisitions or for other purposes. If the Debtors do so, the risks related to their high level of debt would increase. Specifically including, but not limited to:

- making it more difficult for the Debtors to satisfy their obligations with respect to the Exit Term Loan Facility, the Exit RCF and the Exit ABL Facility, and if the Debtors fail to comply with these obligations, an event of default could result;
- making it more difficult for the Debtors (i) to meet certain pro forma leverage ratio tests to incur incremental debt under the Exit Term Loan Facility or (ii) to meet the pro forma 1.0x fixed charge coverage ratio under the Exit ABL Facility, which under certain circumstances, commencing on the date that is 18 months after the Effective Date, would allow the Debtors to reset the ABL borrowing base;
- limiting their ability to obtain additional financing to fund future working capital, capital expenditures, investments or acquisitions or other general corporate requirements;
- requiring a substantial portion of their cash flows to be dedicated to debt service payments instead of other purposes, thereby reducing the amount of cash flows available for working capital, capital expenditures, investments or acquisitions and other general corporate purposes;
- increasing their vulnerability to general adverse economic and industry conditions;
- exposing the Debtors to the risk of increased interest rates as certain of their borrowings, including borrowings under the Exit Term Loan Facility, the Exit RCF and the Exit ABL Facility, are at variable rates of interest;
- limiting their flexibility in planning for and reacting to changes in the industry in which the Debtors compete and to changing business and economic conditions;
- restricting the Debtors from making strategic acquisitions or causing the Debtors to make non-strategic divestitures;
- impairing their ability to obtain additional financing in the future;
- placing the Debtors at a disadvantage compared to other, less leveraged competitors and affecting their ability to compete; and
- increasing their cost of borrowing.

The occurrence of any one of these events could have a material adverse effect on the Debtors' business, financial condition, results of operations and ability to satisfy their obligations in respect of their outstanding debt.

An economic downturn may have an adverse impact on the Debtors' operating results and may expose them to credit risk from their customers.

The Debtors' business is subject to a number of general economic factors, many of which are out of their control, which may have a material adverse effect on their business, financial condition and results of operations. These include recessionary economic cycles and downturns in the business cycles of the industries in which the Debtor's customers conduct business, as well as downturns in the regional economies where their operations are located. A weak economy generally results in a decline in infrastructure and construction and demolition projects, as well as a reduction of large-scale special events, which may reduce the need for their services. Consequently, a reduction in the need for their services would negatively affect their operating results. Consumer uncertainty and the loss of consumer confidence may decrease overall economic activity and thereby reduce demand for the services the Debtors provide and may also reduce the number and variety of services requested by customers. Additionally, the decline may result in increased competitive pricing pressure and increased customer turnover, resulting in lower revenue. In 2024 and 2025, the Debtors were not able to achieve their business plan due to the loss of customers which negatively impacted the demand for their services and higher inflation, which increased operating expenses.

A challenging economic environment may cause some of our customers to suffer financial difficulties and ultimately to be unwilling or unable to pay amounts owed to the Debtors. A weak economy generally results in decreased consumer spending, which negatively impacts the ability to grow through new business or services upgrades and may result in customer turnover and reduction in customers' portable sanitation needs. Consumer uncertainty and the loss of consumer confidence may also reduce the number and variety of services requested by customers. This could have a negative impact on the Debtors' financial condition, results of operations and cash flows, including on their debt service capacity.

The Debtors' quarterly financial results may fluctuate.

The Debtors' future revenue and operating results may vary significantly from quarter to quarter due to a number of factors, many of which are difficult for them to predict and control. Factors that could cause their quarterly operating results to fluctuate include:

- demand for their products and services, including seasonal demand;
- general economic conditions, including economic growth in the United States and higher inflation and interest rates and any potential recession;
- their customers' ability to pay for our services in a timely manner;
- their ability to implement operational efficiency strategies;
- management of their accounts receivable and collection processes;
- their success in executing their pricing, market and general business strategy;
- the amount and timing of their operating and capital expenses;
- the costs to provide their services;
- their ability to achieve the expected benefits of strategic acquisitions and/or partnerships; and
- global and geopolitical events with indirect economic effects such as pandemic disease, hurricane and other natural disasters, war, threat of war or terrorist actions.

The Debtors' business plan is based on information available to the Debtors at the time the current business plan was made and it is subject to numerous assumption made by management, including with respect to their ability to implement their business strategy and general economic conditions. The Debtors' ability to implement the business plan and achieve any projected growth or financial results is subject to innumerous risks and other factors, including the risks discussed in this "Risk Factors" section and factors listed above. For example, in 2024 and 2025, the Debtors were not able to meet their business plan due to the loss of customers which negatively impacted the demand for their services and higher inflation, which increased operating expenses. There can be no assurance that the Debtors' future results will not be different than those in the current business plan or any of the Debtors' other plans, forecasts or budgets. Any such difference may be material and we may not achieve the growth and financial results we have assumed.

B. Other Risks

On the Effective Date, certain of the Debtors' initial shareholders control a substantial interest in the Debtors and thus may exert a substantial influence on actions requiring a shareholder vote, potentially in a manner that other investors in the Debtors do not support.

On the Effective Date, certain of the Debtors' initial shareholders will own substantial interest in the Debtors, for example, Clearlake will own approximately 36.7%, Searchlight will own approximately 17.8% and Apollo will own approximately 12.6% of our issued and outstanding ordinary shares. Accordingly, they may exert substantial influence on actions requiring a shareholder vote, potentially in a manner that other investors in the Debtors do not support, including amendments to the Debtors LLC agreement and the election of directors. This potential concentration of influence could be disadvantageous to other shareholders with interests different from those of our controlling shareholders.

IV. HISTORICAL INFORMATION

In addition to the information provided in Section II (Historical Information) of the Disclosure Statement on USS's history, business and corporate structure, USS's prepetition capital structure and the events leading to the Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors now make available (i) the Debtors' management's discussion and analysis of the important operational and financial developments during the fiscal years ended December 31, 2023 and 2024 and the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2025 (the "MD&A") in Exhibit A, (ii) PECF USS Intermediate Holding III Corporation's financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2023 and 2024 (the "2023 and 2024 Financial Statements") in Exhibit B, (iii) PECF USS Intermediate Holding III Corporation's financial statements for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2025 (the "September 2025 Financial Statements") in Exhibit C. Neither the 2023 and 2024 Financial Statements nor the September 2025 Financial Statements reflect any adjustments related to the Debtors' voluntary filing for relief under Chapter 11 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code on December 29, 2025.

V. FINANCIAL PROJECTIONS

A. Summary of the Reorganized Debtors Business Post-Emergence

The core business of the Reorganized Debtors will be the same as the core business of the Debtors. The Reorganized Debtors will continue to deliver access to and service portable restrooms and sinks in a variety of settings, including special events, construction sites, and agricultural and other industrial settings. The Debtors expect that the Reorganized Debtors' primary offerings will continue to consist of the same services and operations as prior to the Emergence Date, including Route-Based Sanitation activities ("RBS"), temporary fencing ("Fence"), roll-off dumpsters ("Roll-off"), non-hazardous liquid waste removal ("NHLW"), and special events ("Events").

During the pendency of the Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors have remained fully operational and continue to perform all of their offerings and services without interruption. Further, the Reorganized Debtors expect to maintain all of the same offerings and services with no impact to their customers and the services their customers rely upon to support their events, operations and projects. See Section II.A. (Historical Information – USS's History, Business, and Corporate Structure) of the Disclosure Statement for a description of the existing business operations of the Debtors, which will continue as the business operations of the Reorganized Debtors.

The restructuring of the Debtors is a "balance sheet restructuring" focused on de-leveraging their capital structure, reducing annual interest expense, and providing the Reorganized Debtors a stronger financial foundation to allow them to compete more effectively and invest in future growth. The Debtors' current debt has been a significant burden on the business for many years and has resulted in approximately $245 million of annual interest payments in each of the financial years ending December 31, 2023 and 2024. If the Plan is confirmed, the Reorganized Debtors' long-term debt obligations will be reduced by approximately $2.4 billion in principal amount, and the anticipated annual interest payments will be reduced to approximately $40 million.

The reduction in annual interest expense is expected to directly improve the Reorganized Debtors' free cash flow and their ability to invest in the business, including capex investment. With greater free cash flow and a solid financial foundation, the Reorganized Debtors expect to be able to make the necessary investments to grow the business with a particular focus on reinvesting in their fleet and equipment and enhancing their IT systems to operate more efficiently. These actions, among others, will further stabilize the business and build a foundation for sustainable growth.

Management intends to support these plans by continuing to implement the following strategy:

- rebuilding and top-grading organizational talent with particular focus on the sales team;
- expanding adjacent revenue streams, including Events, Fence, Emergency, Roll-off, and NHLW through new go-to-market ("GTM") approach;
- implementing customer repricing efforts where applicable;
- completing the current cost reduction program across Cost of Revenue and Selling, General & Administrative expenses;
- effectuating further operational efficiencies through improved route scheduling, asset utilization, and branch optimization; and
- streamlining existing disparate technology platforms into a single, comprehensive system that fully supports the business.

Outlined below are the additional assumptions and methodologies underpinning the Business Plan Projections.

B. Certain Defined Terms as used in this section V (Financial Projections)

a. "Backlog Revenue" means recurring RBS revenue generated from existing orders.

b. "First Month New Sales" means new RBS sales orders each month.

c. "Fixed-cost Absorption" means the operating leverage a business gains by increasing revenue without needing to increase certain "fixed" costs, such as rent, systems infrastructure, certain general and administrative headcount, and other overhead costs over the same period of time.

d. "Route Density" means the concentration of clients, stops within a certain timeframe, or services within a specific, compact geographic area.

e. "Run-Rate Cost Savings" means the projected annual, recurring reduction in expenses achieved by normalizing recent cost-cutting actions.

C. Summary of Business Plan Projections

1. Revenue

(A) Overview of Assumptions and Methodology

The Debtors forecast revenue based on discrete assumptions and methodologies for (1) RBS revenue and (2) All Other Revenue. RBS revenue, which makes up approximately 60% of total revenue in 2026, is projected based on (i) First Month New Sales, and (ii) Backlog Revenue. Over the forecast period, RBS revenue is expected to increase primarily due to market share gains, with incremental contribution from new customer acquisitions. The RBS revenue forecast does not assume material upside from incremental construction activity. Similarly, All Other Revenue, including Emergency, Events, Fence, Roll-off, and NHLW, comprise approximately 40% of total revenue in 2026, with projected growth largely based on general market inflation. Certain revenue lines, including Events and Fence, are forecast to grow faster due to synergies with RBS revenue as outlined below.

(B) RBS Revenue

Methodology: RBS revenue is forecasted based on (i) First Month New Sales, and (ii) Backlog Revenue. Because many customer projects extend beyond a single month—and in some cases span multiple years—new orders generally generate revenue over an extended period. Accordingly, projected RBS revenue includes contributions from both current-year new sales and prior-year backlog. Total RBS revenue is projected to increase from approximately $500 million in the financial year ending December 31, 2026 to approximately $665 million by the end of the financial year ending December 31, 2029. This increase over the three-year period is expected to be due to improved salesforce effectiveness, increased customer retention compared to previous periods, and increases in average order size.

First Month New Sales: First Month New Sales are projected based on (i) the number of sales representatives, (ii) sales productivity (e.g., number of orders per sales representative per day), and (iii) expected average order value. First Month New Sales are projected to increase from $62 million in the financial year ending December 31, 2026 to $77 million by the end of the financial year ending December 31, 2029 as the number of sales representatives increases and the Debtors' GTM strategy becomes increasingly effective. More specifically, the number of sales representatives is projected to increase approximately 6.0% from the beginning of the financial year ending December 31, 2026 to the end of the financial year ending December 31, 2026 and then remain constant throughout the remainder of the projection period. Sales productivity is projected to improve approximately 2.5% – 5.0% annually and the average order value is projected to grow approximately 2.0% annually. The annual improvement of sales productivity is due to the change in Go-To-Market ("GTM") strategy that was implemented in 2025 along with continuous top-grading of sales representatives during the projection period. The annual growth of the average order value is expected to be due to an increased focus on improving services to small customers and growing large customer sales.

Backlog Revenue: Recurring revenue from existing orders is projected based on historical averages of the monthly runoff of prior sales. Backlog Revenue is projected to increase from approximately $426 million in the financial year ending December 31, 2026 to approximately $574 million in the financial year ending December 31, 2029 through the compounding effect of First Month New Sales building upon itself and generating incremental recurring revenue in subsequent periods. Improved customer service from system enhancements and reinvestment in the fleet will also contribute to the increases in Backlog Revenue.

Other RBS Revenue: The Debtors generate Pick-up and Delivery ("P&D") fees related to the delivery of sanitation units at the commencement of a new project and the pickup of units at a project's conclusion. Pick-up and Delivery revenue is projected to increase from approximately $12 million in the financial year ending December 31, 2026 to approximately $14 million by the end of the financial year ending December 31, 2029 largely based on increased order volume from First Month New Sales.

(C) All Other Revenue

Methodology: All Other Revenue consists of Emergency, Events, Fence, Roll-off, and NHLW revenue streams. These segments are projected based on prior-year performance, adjusted for management's current assumptions. The Debtors evaluate All Other Revenue in two categories: (i) higher growth segments and (ii) lower growth segments. Fence and Events are considered higher growth segments, while Emergency, Roll-off, and NHLW are projected to be lower growth segments.

Higher Growth Segments: The Fence and Events segments are forecasted to grow approximately 3.0% - 5.0% annually, with approximately 2.0% related to pricing and inflation and approximately 1.0% - 3.0% related to volume growth. Fence growth is largely driven by increased cross-selling and attachment rates with the RBS segment. Events growth is largely driven by additional organizational focus on the segment, particularly for large events.

Lower Growth Segments: Emergency, Roll-off, and NHLW segments are forecasted to grow approximately 2.0% annually related primarily to pricing and inflation.

2. Margins

(A) Overview of Assumptions and Methodology

Margins consist of (1) Operating Margin defined as Revenue less Cost of Revenue and (2) EBITDA Margin defined as Operating Margin less Selling, General & Administrative ("SG&A") expenses. Cost of Revenue consists of Operating Labor & Benefits, Subcontracting, Direct Materials, Vehicle & Equipment, Insurance / Safety, Other Direct Costs and other expenses. Each line item of Cost of Revenue is forecasted by accounting for fixed and variable components and prior-year period performance. The fixed components are forecasted based on inflation rates of 2.0% - 4.0% based on a discrete analysis of each line item. The variable components are forecasted based on revenue growth, which includes both inflationary and volume growth. Insurance / Safety, and Other Direct Costs are predominantly fixed, while the remaining categories are modeled as primarily variable.

SG&A expenses are segmented into Selling Expenses, Bad Debt, Labor & Benefits, and Other G&A expenses. Each line item is forecast by incorporating fixed and variable components. Selling Expenses and Bad Debt are predominantly variable and forecasted to grow in-line with revenue, while the remaining categories are modeled as primarily fixed and forecasted based on inflation rates of 2.0% - 3.0% based on a discrete analysis of each line item.

(B) Operating Margins

Impact of Route Density: Operating margin is projected to expand over the forecast period as higher service volumes are expected to improve Route Density and reduce the cost per mile of completing services. This increased operating efficiency primarily benefits certain variable cost categories, such as Operating Labor and Vehicle & Equipment, driving greater profit per mile and, in turn, higher margins.

Impact of Fixed Costs: As revenue grows, Debtors are expected to benefit from fixed-cost Absorption, with predominantly fixed expense categories spread across a larger revenue base. This operating leverage reduces fixed costs per mile and supports higher operating margins as the business scales.

Impact of Cost Initiatives: Cost of Revenue cost initiatives include Labor & Benefits savings, driven by reductions in salaried headcount and supporting roles, and non-labor savings from improved safety performance driving lower insurance premium and claims expense, real estate rationalization, and lower indirect spend. Total Run-Rate Cost of Revenue Savings are projected to be $3.5 million in the financial year ending December 31, 2026, increasing to $14.2 million by the end of the financial year ending December 31, 2029.

(C) EBITDA Margins

Impact of Revenue Growth: Based on a heavy concentration of fixed costs, the forecast assumes the SG&A support structure grows at a fraction of revenue, generating operating leverage and expanding EBITDA margin. Labor & Benefits and Other G&A expenses are predominantly fixed costs that are projected to escalate at approximately 2.0%–3.0% annually, largely consistent with general inflation. As a result, these costs decline as a percentage of revenue over the projection period, supporting margin expansion as revenue grows at a faster rate.

Impact of Cost Initiatives: SG&A cost initiatives are concentrated in Labor & Benefits, driven by headcount reductions, and are supplemented by non-labor actions including IT spend optimization, real estate rationalization, and reduced indirect spend. Total Run-Rate SG&A Cost Savings are projected at approximately $19.2 million in the financial year ending December 31, 2026, increasing to approximately $24.8 million by the end of the financial year ending December 31, 2029.

VI. EXIT CREDIT AGREEMENTS

The terms of the Exit Term Loan Facility Credit Agreement are described in Section IV (Summary of Joint Prepackaged Chapter 11 Plan) of the Disclosure Statement. The Debtors provide a more detailed summary of the Exit Term Loan Facility Credit Agreement, including a description of the material covenants of the Exit Term Loan Facility Credit Agreement, (the "Summary Terms of the Exit Term Loan Facility Credit Agreement") in Exhibit D, a summary of the Exit RCF Credit Agreement in Exhibit E (the "Summary Terms of the Exit RCF Credit Agreement") and a summary of the Exit ABL Facility Agreement (the "Summary Terms of the Exit ABL Facility Agreement") in Exhibit F. Each of these summaries remained subject to further negotiation at the time the summaries were prepared. Final versions of each Credit Agreement will be or have been filed on the Bankruptcy Court's docket as supplements to the Plan.

VII. CERTAIN FEDERAL AND STATE SECURITIES LAW CONSIDERATIONS

A. Updated Definitions

The following definitions have been included in the Plan:

1. IX. PROVISIONS REGARDING THE SEC

Notwithstanding any language to the contrary in this Supplement, the Disclosure Statement, Plan and/or Plan Confirmation Order, no provision shall (i) preclude the United States Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") from enforcing its police or regulatory powers; or, (ii) enjoin, limit, impair or delay the SEC from commencing or continuing any claims, causes of action, proceeding or investigations against any non-debtor person or non-debtor entity in any forum; provided, however, that nothing in this paragraph shall modify any applicable protections provided for in 11 U.S.C. §1125(e).

Trends and Outlook

The Debtors' current and future revenue and operating results may vary significantly depending on a variety of factors, including, but not limited to, the demand for their products and services, including seasonal demand, general economic conditions, including economic growth in the United States and worldwide and higher inflation and interest rates and any potential recession.

As described under "—Principal Factors Affecting their Results of Operations," the Debtors expect their business to continue to be impacted mostly by general economic conditions. Their sanitation and related services are directly impacted by general economic conditions, local economies and the end-markets that the Debtors serve, in particular by the level of residential and commercial construction. Higher interest rates have a significant impact on construction costs and, in some cases, force developers to scrap, significantly delay or shelve a growing share of projects. As a result, the Debtors' cost burdens are intensified and often they are not able to adjust their routes to support the decrease in sales volume.

Additionally, the Debtors' Exit Term Loan Facility, the Exit RCF and the Exit ABL Facility are based off of SOFR which increases in line with the Federal Reserve's interest rate increases and may consequently causes their interest expense to increase correspondingly.

Their outlook is based on assumptions regarding the impact of these trends that the Debtors have developed by interpreting the information currently available to them. The Debtors' ability to implement their business plan and achieve any projected growth or financial results is subject to innumerous risks and other factors, including the risks discussed in Section IX (Risk Factors) of the Disclosure Statement, as supplemented. For example, in 2024 and 2025, the Debtors were not able to meet their business plan due to prevailing market conditions the loss of customers, higher inflation and an increase in interest rates, which negatively impacted the demand for their services and expenses.

If their assumptions or interpretation of available information prove to be incorrect, their future financial condition and results of operations may differ materially from their expectations.

Key Components of the Debtors' Historical Results of Operations

Net Revenue

The Debtors derive revenue from the sale of portable sanitation and complementary site services. These services may include on- going cleaning, sanitizing and restocking of portable restrooms and handwashing sinks. In addition, the Debtors provide temporary fencing to secure an event perimeter, manage crowds and help traffic flow inside an event. The Debtors provide multiple services for special events such as festivals, fairs, concerts, sporting events and more. The Debtors charge their customers a fixed fee per unit or month of service, and generally bills on a 28-day cycle based on service frequency. Their contract periods are daily, weekly or monthly, each of which commands a different rate. The Debtors maintain a diverse set of service offerings that meets the needs of their customers and targeted end-markets. Their service offerings can be grouped in the following categories:

- Route-based sanitation, which primarily includes services associated with portable restrooms, hand washing stations and shower trailers, creating a one-stop shop with superior convenience for their customers;

- Emergency services, which primarily include services associated with portable restrooms, hand washing stations and shower trailers;

- Special events, which primarily include services related to the overall market for sporting events, festivals, weddings and other gatherings on a more temporary and concentrated population. These typically require portable sanitation and related services as well as other services for two or three days; and

- Other services, which primarily include services associated with NHLW, temporary fencing, portable storage, roll-off containers and temporary power.

See "Critical Accounting Policies and Significant Estimates – Revenue Recognition" for further details on revenue recognition.

Cost of Revenue

Cost of revenue primarily consists of personnel costs such as wages and salaries, health and welfare benefits and defined contribution benefits for their personnel who provide services and deliver equipment to their customers. Cost of revenue also includes depreciation and amortization expense for their plant, service equipment and tangible assets associated with their revenue producing assets, write off losses recognized in association with their assets that are determined to provide no further economic value to their operations, cost associated with vehicle repairs and maintenance, facility costs directly related to the procurement of revenue, such as direct and allocated expenses for rent and maintenance of facilities and insurance cost directly associated with their personnel who provide services to their customers. In addition, cost of revenue includes supplies related to providing the services, risk management cost, which includes insurance premiums and claims, costs attributable to third parties that sell their services to their customers, fuel expense, which includes the direct cost of fuel used by their vehicles, and travel expenses.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

Selling, general and administrative expenses primarily consist of personnel costs, such as salaries, health and welfare benefits and defined contribution plans for their employees, including sales and marketing, technology infrastructure, accounting and finance, legal and human resources departments and marketing and advertising, facility costs, including operating lease costs for their corporate offices, provision for credit losses, write off losses recognized in association with their assets that are determined to provide no further economic value to their corporate operations, changes in fair value of contingent consideration, consulting and professional fees and insurance expense. Selling, general and administrative expenses also include depreciation and amortization for their plant, equipment and intangible assets.

Interest Expenses

Interest expense historically consisted of cash and non-cash interest on their ABL Facility, First-Out Notes, First-Out Revolving Loans, First-Out Term Loans, Second-Out Term Loans, Third-Out Notes, Amended Term Loans and Amended Unsecured Notes, and interest paid under their equipment financing agreements, which provide for advances to finance the acquisition of certain equipment ("Equipment Notes"). In addition, interest expense historically also included interest on their finance leases, their supplier finance agreement ("SFP") and their Substitute Insurance Collateral Facility Agreement ("2023 SICFA").

Income Tax Benefit

Income tax benefit primarily relates to the generation of income or loss before income taxes. The region that is applicable to their determination of their effective tax rate is the United States. Their effective tax rate differs significantly from the federal statutory rate due to the change in the valuation allowance, impact of cancellation of debt income from their refinancing transaction that took place in 2024, goodwill impairment, state taxes and other change in state rates and permanent items. The Debtors are required to regularly assess the likelihood of outcomes that could result from the examination of their tax returns by the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and other tax authorities to determine the adequacy of their income tax reserve and expense. Should actual events or results differ from their then-current expectations, charges or credits to their income tax benefit may become necessary. Any such adjustments could have a significant effect on their results of operations.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

The Debtors present certain non-GAAP measures as defined below which are not required by, or presented in accordance with, generally accepted accounting principles in the United States ("GAAP").

- EBITDA is used by investors to measure and evaluate their operating performance exclusive of depreciation, income tax effects, interest, and amortization. The Debtors believe that this measurement is useful to investors as a way to analyze the underlying trends in their core business consistently across the periods presented. A reconciliation of net loss, the most directly comparable GAAP financial measure, to EBITDA is included herein.

- Adjusted EBITDA is used by investors to measure and evaluate their operating performance exclusive of depreciation, income tax effects, interest, amortization and certain infrequently occurring items. The Debtors believe that this measurement is useful to investors as a way to analyze the underlying trends in their core business consistently across the periods presented. A reconciliation of net loss, the most directly comparable GAAP financial measure, to Adjusted EBITDA is included herein.

Results of Operations

Principal Factors Affecting the Debtors' Results of Operations

The Debtors are subject to a number of external factors that may adversely or favorably affect their business. These factors include the following:

- General economic conditions. The demand for their services is dependent upon the general economy, the local economies and the end markets that the Debtors serve (including the industrial energy, infrastructure, residential and non-residential construction, non-construction markets and special events), as well as other factors. Changes in the general economy, or in the regional economies or end markets that the Debtors serve, may cause demand for their services to materially increase or decrease. Furthermore, COVID-19, interest rates and inflation have had various impacts on their business and may continue to influence their results. Their operations are geographically concentrated and susceptible to local economies, regulations and seasonal fluctuations. An economic downturn may have an adverse impact on their operating results and may expose the Debtors to credit risk from their customers.

- Seasonality of the business. Their business is directly impacted by changes in the level of commercial, residential and industrial construction and maintenance activities. Accordingly, the demand for their services tends to be lower in the winter months when construction activity slows. In addition, adverse weather may have a variable impact on their results, as ordinary services may not be required, but there may be a significant demand to assist with recovery efforts, such as clean up or rebuilding. Revenue and cost of revenue are generally lower in the first quarter of the fiscal year and highest in the second and third quarters of the fiscal year.

a. For all periods presented, the adjustment includes the realized termination costs associated with voluntary and involuntary workforce reductions that occurred as a result of their acquisitions and organizational changes as well as restructuring bonuses associated with organizational changes. For the year ended December 31, 2024, amounts reflect adjustments for labor expense benefits and cost savings related to a restructuring action that occurred during the three months ended September 30, 2024. These adjustments were reflected as of January 1, 2024, with the cost savings ratably allocated. As a result, the 2024 historical period has been revised and the impact to the nine months ended September 30, 2024, was $13.8 million. In addition, the Debtors had restructuring actions during the three months ended March 31, 2025, and during the three months ended June 30, 2025, and has reflected the impact of the savings as of January 1, 2025. The impact of the June 30, 2025, restructuring action to the three months ended March 31, 2025, was $1.1 million.

b. Amounts reflect third-party consulting and advisory fees related to business transformation activities as well as consulting fees related to the implementation of their software systems that were not capitalizable costs.

c. Amounts reflect non-cash write-off costs related to internal use software as a result of abandoned projects and write-off costs related to service equipment and property and equipment that was determined to no longer have future economic benefits. During the year ended December 31, 2024, the Debtors also experienced higher write-offs costs on service equipment and property and equipment related to physical asset counts conducted. The Debtors have added back the write offs above normal levels as non-recurring matters.

d. Amounts reflect the non-cash change in fair value of contingent consideration liabilities in connection with various acquisitions.
e. Amounts reflect transaction costs such as legal and advisory fees incurred in connection with their acquisitions and costs for integration activities associated with their acquisitions.
f. Amounts reflect advisory fees and other expenses and reimbursements paid to Platinum Advisors in accordance with their Corporate Advisory Services Agreement ("CAS"). During the year ended December 31, 2024, previously accrued obligations under the CAS of $31.0 million were reversed.
g. Represents one-time settlement fees associated with lawsuits that the Debtors have settled or expect to settle.
h. Represents non-cash charges related to goodwill impairment.
i. Amounts reflect legal and advisory fees associated with their refinancing transaction that took place in 2024.
j. Amounts reflect legal and advisory fees associated with 2025 debt restructuring.
k. Amounts reflect outside labor cost savings as if restructuring had occurred prior to the actual date of the reduction as if such restructuring had been completed on January 1, 2024, with the cost savings ratably allocated to the appropriate fiscal year and giving effect that the action occurred at the beginning of the earliest period presented. The Other adjustments amounts have been revised for the 2024 historical period to reflect the three months ended September 30, 2024, outside labor reduction as if it had occurred in that historical period. In addition, the Debtors had outside labor reduction during the three months ended September 30, 2025, and has reflected the impact of the savings as of January 1, 2025. The impact to the prior historical periods related to these outside labor reductions was not material. The adjustment also includes discrete items as determined by management, including fees paid to debt rating agencies for their credit facilities and adjustments associated with business combinations that are outside of the measurement period, and an adjustment to remove the non-cash portion of rent expense, which has been recorded on a straight-line basis in accordance with GAAP.

	2024	2025	$ Change	% Change	2024	LTM
($ in thousands)
Route based sanitation	492,126	428,697	(63,429)	(12.9)%	647,158	583,729

Net revenue	718,829	636,381	(82,448)	(11.5)%	948,797	866,349

Net Revenue

Net revenue decreased by $82.4 million, or 11.5%, from $718.8 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2024, to $636.4 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2025. The decrease was primarily driven by a $63.4 million decrease in route-based sanitation services and a $19.0 million decrease in all other revenue. The decrease in the Debtors' revenue associated with their various services is primarily due to a decrease in demand for these services.

Cost of Revenue

Cost of revenue decreased by $43.0 million, or 9.0%, from $478.2 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2024, to $435.2 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2025. The decrease in cost of revenue was primarily driven by a $18.4 million decrease in compensation & benefits, a $10.8 million decrease in write-offs of service equipment and property and equipment, a $6.4 million decrease in cost of supplies, a $4.9 million decrease in vehicle and equipment repair and maintenance costs, and a $2.1 million decrease in depreciation and amortization.

Gross Profit and Gross Margin

Gross profit decreased by $39.4 million, or 16.4%, from $240.6 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2024, to $201.2 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2025. Their gross margin, which represents gross profit as a percentage of net revenue, decreased from 33.5% during the nine months ended September 30, 2024, to 31.6% during the nine months ended September 30, 2025. The decrease in gross profit was primarily driven by lower revenues, while the decrease in gross margin was primarily driven by higher operating costs related to their route-based services.

Selling, General and Administrative Expense

Their selling, general and administrative expenses decreased by $89.5 million, or 22.3%, from $402.1 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2024, to $312.6 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2025. As a percentage of net revenue, their selling, general and administrative expenses decreased from 55.9% during the nine months ended September 30, 2024, to 49.1% during the nine months ended September 30, 2025. The decrease in selling, general and administrative expenses was primarily due to a decrease in professional and consulting fees of $43.7 million mostly related to the 2024 Recapitalization, a decrease of $25.8 million in depreciation and amortization expense, driven by less amortization in connection with acquired customer lists intangible assets, a decrease in personnel costs of $12.4 million, a decrease in severance and related benefits of $6.4 million, a decrease in software implementation and computer related expenses of $5.5 million and a decrease in provision for credit losses of $4.5 million. These decreases were offset by the prior period reversal of previously accrued obligations under the CAS of $24.0 million.

Loss on Impairment of Goodwill

During the nine months ended September 30, 2024, the Debtors recorded a loss on impairment of goodwill of $284.3 million, or 39.5% of net revenue. No loss on impairment was recorded during the nine months ended September 30, 2025.

The decrease in interest expense was primarily due to a decrease in interest rates associated with their variable interest rate debt compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2024, as well as the accretion of the premium on troubled debt restructuring and modification.

Income Tax Benefit

Their income tax benefit and the effective tax rate were $35.2 million and 5.4%, respectively, during the nine months ended September 30, 2024, based on their $657.1 million net loss before income taxes during such period.

Their income tax benefit and effective tax rate were $15.3 million and 5.2%, respectively, during the nine months ended September 30, 2025, based on their $296.0 million net loss before income taxes during such period. The change in their income tax benefit was primarily related to an incremental valuation allowance associated with an interest expense deduction limitation and other deferred tax assets primarily driven by the impacts of their refinancing transaction that took place in 2024.

Adjusted EBITDA

Their Adjusted EBITDA decreased by $42.3 million, or 28.1%, from $150.6 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2024, to $108.3 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2025. The decrease was primarily attributable to the declines in revenue driven by volume and higher operating costs associated with their route-based services.

The decrease was primarily driven by an $83.8 million decrease in route-based sanitation services and a $23.0 million decrease in all other revenue. The decrease in their revenue associated with their various services is primarily due to a decrease in demand for these services, as well as the variability of emergency response services.

Cost of Revenue

Cost of revenue decreased by $34.6 million, or 5.2%, from $668.0 million during the year ended December 31, 2023, to $633.4 million during the year ended December 31, 2024. These improvements were offset by a $14.0 million increase in write-offs of service equipment and property and equipment.

The decrease in selling, general and administrative expenses was primarily due to a decrease in provision for credit losses of $62.5 million, a decrease of $31.0 million in depreciation and amortization expense, which was primarily driven by less amortization in connection with acquired customer lists intangible assets, and a decrease due to the reversal of previously accrued advisory fees owed to Platinum Equity of $31.0 million. These decreases were primarily offset by an increase in professional and consulting fees of $48.3 million primarily due to the 2024 Recapitalization.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Debtors and their subsidiaries have historically depended on existing cash, cash flows from operations and, if necessary or appropriate, available borrowings under their ABL Facility and First-Out Revolving Loans to meet their obligations.

As of the Effective Date, the Debtors expect to hold $29.7 million cash on hand. If the Debtors determine with the consent of the ERO Backstop Parties that the Plan Effective Date Projected Liquidity will be more than $150.0 million, the Initial ERO Amount of $480.0 million will be decreased on a dollar-for-dollar basis pursuant to the ERO Backstop Agreement as disclosed in further detail in the Disclosure Statement.

The Debtors manage their liquidity using internal cash management practices, which are subject to (i) the terms and other requirements of the credit agreements governing their Exit Term Loan Facility, the Exit RCF and the Exit ABL Facility and (ii) the policies and cooperation of the financial institutions the Debtors utilize to maintain and manage their cash balances. Their available cash is held in accounts managed by third-party financial institutions and consists of cash held in operating accounts. To date, the Debtors have not experienced any losses or lack of access to their cash; however, the Debtors cannot provide any assurance that adverse conditions in the financial markets will not impact access to their cash. The principal uses of their cash have been to fund:

- Working capital needs of the business, including payroll and accounts payable, primarily;
- the purchase of property and equipment and service equipment;
- acquisitions to complement their growth strategies; and
- debt service requirements.

Following the Effective Date, the Debtors liquidity requirements will include servicing the indebtedness under their Exit Term Loan Facility, the Exit RCF and the Exit ABL Facility.

The Debtors believe that their cash flows from operations, cash on hand as of the Effective Date, cash availability under their Exit RCF and Exit ABL Facility are sufficient to fund their liquidity requirements during the twelve months following the Effective Date. The Debtors manage their cash balances by utilizing available cash management strategies, which may include intercompany agreements, permitted dividends and hedging. Historically, their capital allocations for operations have focused on capital expenditures and acquisitions and, from time to time, the Debtors evaluate potential acquisitions, investments and other growth and strategic opportunities that might require use of existing cash, borrowings under their Exit RCF and Exit ABL Facility or additional long-term financing. If necessary, the Debtors may further manage liquidity requirements through reduction of current and future investments in capital expenditures and acquisitions. However, their ability to service their indebtedness and to fund their other liquidity requirements will depend on their ability to generate and access cash in the future. This is subject to general economic, financial, contractual, competitive, legislative, regulatory and other factors, some of which are beyond their control.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

On September 22, 2023, the Debtors entered into the 2023 SICFA with the 1970 Group. Under this agreement, the 1970 Group arranged for the issuance of letters of credit from financial institutions approved by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners to provide up to $44.2 million of letters of credit for workers' compensation, commercial automotive and/or general liability policies (the "Insurance Policies"). On February 15, 2024, and February 27, 2024, the Debtors amended the 2023 SICFA to increase the amount of provided letters of credit from the 1970 Group from $44.2 million to $49.5 million. On June 14, 2024, the Debtors amended the 2023 SICFA to increase the amount of provided letters of credit from the 1970 Group from $49.5 million to $54.4 million. On September 13, 2024, the Debtors amended the 2023 SICFA to extend the agreement for an additional year for certain letters of credit financed. On September 12, 2025, the Debtors amended the 2023 SICFA to extend the arrangement for an additional year for certain letters of credit financed. In connection with that amendment, the amount of provided letters of credit from the 1970 Group was reduced from $54.4 million to $54.3 million. Under the 2023 SICFA, the Debtors are required to maintain a deposit of $6.6 million in escrow and to reimburse the 1970 Group for any draws made under the letters of credit within five business days of notice of any such draw. The 2023 SICFA contains certain affirmative covenants, including for the Debtors to keep and maintain its Insurance Policies for the compliance in all material respects with applicable requirements. The 2023 SICFA also contains certain events of default, including, without limitation, the Debtors' failure to reimburse 1970 Group for any draw or other financial obligation or the Debtors' payment of 1970 Group's fees. Upon an event of default, 1970 Group has the option to declare all outstanding obligations immediately due within five business days after the Debtors' receipt of such notice from 1970 Group. The Debtors' obligations under the 2023 SICFA are guaranteed by the Debtors' subsidiaries, are unsecured, and are subordinated to its obligations under each of the Exit Term Loan Facility, the Exit RCF Facility and the Exit ABL Facility.

According to the provisions of ASC 470 – Debt, the arrangement is a substitute insurance reimbursement facility limited to the amounts drawn under the letters of credit. Therefore, until the Debtors use or draw on the SICF, the letters of credit are treated as an off-balance sheet credit arrangement.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

See Note 2 to the Debtors' consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2024, for a description of accounting pronouncements.

Critical Accounting Policies and Significant Estimates

The preparation of their consolidated financial statements and related disclosures requires the Debtors to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, costs and expenses and the disclosure of contingent liabilities in their consolidated financial statements. The Debtors base their estimates on historical experience, known trends and events and various other factors that the Debtors believe are reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The Debtors evaluate their estimates and assumptions on an ongoing basis. Their actual results may differ from these estimates under different assumptions or conditions.

While their significant accounting policies are described in greater detail in Note 2, "Summary of Significant Accounting Policies," to their consolidated financial statements, the Debtors believe that the following accounting policies are those most critical to the judgments and estimates used in the preparation of their consolidated financial statements.

Revenue Recognition

The Debtors recognize revenue from sales to customers under Accounting Standards Codification 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers ("ASC 606").

Under the guidance of ASC 606, revenue is recognized when a customer obtains control of promised goods or services, in an amount that reflects the consideration which the entity expects to receive in exchange for those goods or services. In order to achieve this core principle, the Debtors applied the following five steps:

(i) Identify the contract(s) with a customer;

(ii) Identify the performance obligations in the contract;

(iii) Determine the transaction price;

(iv) Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract; and

(v) Recognize revenue as the entity satisfies a performance obligation.

Their revenue contracts contain a promise to provide the customer with the right to use an asset, such as portable toilets and roll-off dumpsters, in addition to other various services as described below. As such, the Debtors operate as both a lessor and a service provider. The updated lease accounting guidance ("ASC 842") provides a practical expedient that permits lessors to aggregate non-lease components and the associated lease components if certain conditions are met and account for the combined unit of accounting under either ASC 606 or ASC 842, based on the predominant characteristic in the arrangement. In contracts where the Debtors provide a service that is identified as having non-lease components as well as underlying assets that are identified as lease components, the service provided to the customer is determined to represent the most critical element of the arrangement. The Debtors have elected this practical expedient to aggregate the non-lease component and the lease component and account for the entire arrangement under ASC 606 based on the consideration that the service offering is the predominant and critical element of the contract.

The Debtors consider that a contract with a customer exists when the contract is approved by both parties, each party's rights and obligations are identified, payment terms are known, customer has the ability and intent to pay and the contract has commercial substance. The Debtors apply judgment in determining the customer's ability and intention to pay, which is based on a variety of factors, including the customer's credit worthiness, historical payment experience or, in the case of a new customer, credit and financial information pertaining to the new customer.

Performance Obligations

Substantially all of their contracts with customers include a single performance obligation which consist of the following: on-going cleaning and sanitizing services, temporary fencing services, roll-off dumpster services, septic and non-hazardous services, temporary power services and other. The Debtors typically satisfy the single performance obligation over time as services are provided and invoiced. There are no separately sold or service-type warranties within their contracts. Shipping and handling activities occur prior to the transfer of control of their equipment and services are considered activities to fulfill their promise to deliver these portable sanitation solutions to their customers. Shipping and distribution activities are not a promised service, and therefore, are not a separate performance obligation.

Payment Terms

Their payment terms in a contract vary by type of customer and the services offered. Typically, the Debtors charge their customers on a fixed price per unit or month of service depending on the requested products and the frequency of service, which could range from weekly to multiple times per day. The Debtors generally invoice the customer 13 times a year and typical payment terms require payment within 30 days of invoicing. The Debtors do not assess whether a significant financing component exists if the period between performance of obligations under the contract and customer payment is one year or less. None of their contracts contain a significant financing component as of December 31, 2023, and 2024. Their contracts with customers generally do not result in significant obligations associated with returns, refunds or warranties. Sales taxes and any other taxes collected on behalf of third parties are excluded from revenue.

Recognition of Revenue

The Debtors recognize revenue over time as services are provided to the customer based on the extent of progress toward completion of their performance obligation. The selection of the method to measure progress toward completion is based on the nature of the services to be provided and does not require significant judgment. The Debtors measure progress toward completion using either the right-to-invoice practical expedient or the cost-to-cost output method. The Debtors use the right-to-invoice measure of progress when there is a right to invoice for an amount that corresponds directly with the value of their performance to date. Under the right-to-invoice method, revenue is recorded equal to the amount the Debtors invoice the customer.

The Debtors use the cost-to-cost measure of progress when it best depicts the transfer of value, which occurs as the Debtors incur costs on a contract. Under the cost-to-cost method, the extent of progress toward completion is measured based on the ratio of estimated costs incurred to date to the total estimated costs at completion of the performance obligation. Revenue is recorded proportionally as costs are incurred. Generally, the Debtors apply the right-to-invoice practical expedient to revenue generated from portable sanitation and complementary site services and the cost-to-cost method to temporary fencing services.

Other Revenue Recognition Policies

The Debtors engage third parties to provide various services to customers in geographical areas that the Debtors are not currently located in. The Debtors evaluate whether the Debtors are the principal (report revenue on a gross basis) or agent (report revenue on a net basis) in these transactions. Although the Debtors engage third parties to provide specified services in a contract, the Debtors bear the ultimate responsibility to fulfill the obligation in the contract. Third parties are acting on their behalf, contracts are negotiated between the Debtors and the customer and their have discretion on establishing the price, as such the Debtors act as the principal to these transactions and, accordingly, the Debtors recognize revenue on a gross basis.

Contract Costs

The Debtors do not recognize any assets associated with incremental costs of obtaining a contract with a customer (such as sales commissions). Most of their revenue is recognized over a period of one year or less; as such the Debtors have applied the practical expedient that allows the recognition of the incremental costs of obtaining a contract as an expense when incurred if the amortization period of the asset that otherwise would have been recognized is one year or less.

Allowance for Credit Losses and Customer Credits

Accounts receivable are recorded when billed and represent claims against third parties that will be settled in cash. The carrying value of the Debtors' receivables, net of the allowance for credit losses and customer credits, represents their estimated net realizable value.

The allowance for credit losses is based on management's assessment of the collectability of assets pooled together with similar risk characteristics. The Debtors monitor the collectability of its trade receivables as one overall pool as all trade receivables have similar risk characteristics. The Debtors estimate their allowance for credit losses based on historical trends, the age of outstanding receivables, existing economic conditions, and reasonable forecasts. If events or changes in circumstances indicate that specific receivable balances may be impaired, further consideration is given to the collectability of those balances and the allowance is adjusted accordingly. Past-due receivable balances are written off when the Debtors' collection efforts have been unsuccessful in collecting the amount due.

The allowance for customer credits is evaluated regularly based on risk to specific customers, nature of services provided and past history of customer credits. Adjustments to the allowance for credit losses and customer credits are recorded as selling, general and administrative expense and revenue, respectively, in the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss.

Goodwill

Goodwill represents the excess of cost over the fair value of the net tangible and identifiable intangible assets acquired in a business combination. Goodwill is not amortized but is tested for impairment annually on October 1st or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that the asset may be impaired. The Debtors' goodwill impairment test is performed at the enterprise level given the sole reporting unit.

The Debtors' goodwill impairment analysis first assesses qualitative factors to determine whether events or circumstances exist that would lead the Debtors to conclude it is more likely than not that the fair value of the reporting unit is below its carrying amount. Such qualitative factors include industry and market considerations, economic conditions, entity-specific financial performance and other events such as changes in management, strategy and primary customer base. If the Debtors determine that it is more likely than not that the fair value of the reporting unit is below the carrying amount, a quantitative goodwill assessment is required. In the quantitative evaluation, the fair value of the reporting unit is determined using various valuation techniques including the market approach and income approach which are weighted to determine an estimated fair value for the reporting unit at the measurement date. The reporting unit's estimated fair value is then compared to its carrying value. If the reporting unit's fair value is greater than its carrying value, then the goodwill is deemed not to be impaired and no further action is required. If the reporting unit's fair value is less than its carrying value, goodwill is considered impaired and a charge is reported in the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss equal to the excess of the reporting units carrying value over its fair value not to exceed the total amount of goodwill.

The fair value of the reporting unit is determined using the market and income approaches. The guideline public company method is utilized for the market approach and the discounted cash flow method is used for the income approach. The discounted cash flow methodology is based on the present value of cash flows which require significant judgment, including estimates of future revenue and projected profit margin, which are dependent on forecasts, estimation of terminal growth rates, capital spending and determination of discount rate. The unobservable inputs used to measure the fair value include comparability discounts, weighted average cost of capital and long-term growth rates.

Based on a quantitative goodwill impairment assessment as of October 1, 2023, and in conjunction with the Debtors' annual forecasting process for 2024, which impacts key assumptions used in their assessment, the Debtors determined that the carrying value of its reporting unit was greater than its fair value. As a result, a loss on goodwill impairment of $101.9 million was recorded to reduce the carrying value of goodwill as of December 31, 2023.

During the three months ended June 30, 2024, the Debtors revised forecasts due to lower revenue and profit margins than previously estimated. Accordingly, the Debtors' financial performance was identified as a triggering event that could indicate an impairment of goodwill. As a result, the Debtors completed a quantitative goodwill impairment assessment as of June 30, 2024. The Debtors determined that the carrying value of its reporting unit was greater than its fair value and a loss on goodwill impairment of $284.3 million was recorded to reduce the carrying value of goodwill as of June 30, 2024.

Based on a quantitative goodwill impairment assessment as of October 1, 2024, and in conjunction with the Debtors' annual forecasting process for 2025, which impacts key assumptions used in their assessment, the Debtors determined that the carrying value of its reporting unit was greater than its fair value. As a result, a loss on goodwill impairment of $764.4 million was recorded to reduce the carrying value of goodwill as of December 31, 2024.

Intangible Assets

The Debtors' intangible assets include customer relationships, trade names and associated trademarks and non-compete agreements obtained through business acquisitions. Intangible assets acquired in a business combination are recognized at fair value using generally accepted valuation methods deemed appropriate for the type of intangible asset acquired and reported net of accumulated amortization, separately from goodwill. Intangible assets are amortized over their estimated useful lives. Intangible assets are amortized on a straight-line basis or on an accelerated method using the discounted cash flow method as presented below:

Asset	Amortization Method	Estimated Useful Life
Customer relationships	Accelerated method	10-15 years
Trade names and associated trademarks	Straight-line	2-20 years
Non-compete agreements	Straight-line	Term of agreement, generally 3 years

Impairment of Long-lived Assets

The Debtors review the carrying value of their long-lived assets for impairment whenever events and circumstances indicate the carrying value of an asset may not be recoverable from the estimated future cash flows expected to result from its use and eventual disposition. In cases where undiscounted expected future cash flows are less than the carrying value, an impairment loss is recognized equal to an amount by which the carrying value exceeds the fair value of assets. The factors considered by the Debtors in performing this assessment include current operating results, trends and prospects and the effects of obsolescence, demand, competition and other economic factors. Determining the fair value of long-lived assets requires management's judgment and relies upon the use of several estimates and assumptions, including future revenue, margins and cash flows, current and future market conditions, discount rates applied, useful lives and other factors. The Debtors believe their assumptions are reasonable based on available information, their experience, knowledge and judgments. These estimates can be affected by factors that are difficult to predict including future revenue, operating results and economic conditions. Changes in assumptions and estimates used in the impairment analysis, or future results that vary from assumptions used in the analysis, could affect the estimated fair value of long-lived assets and could result in impairment charges in a future period. For the years ended December 31, 2023, and 2024, there were no impairments recorded outside of assets written off in the normal course of business.

Income Taxes

Income taxes are computed using the asset and liability approach that requires the recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of events that have been recognized in their consolidated financial statements. In estimating future tax consequences, the Debtors consider all expected future events other than enactment of changes in tax laws or rates. A valuation allowance is recorded, if necessary, to reduce net deferred tax assets to their realizable values if the Debtors do not believe it is more likely than not that the net deferred tax assets will be realized. On a quarterly basis, the Debtors consider positive and negative evidence, including historical taxable income earnings and the reversal of deferred tax liabilities attributable to book-tax differences relating to definite lived intangible assets and fixed assets, to determine whether it is more likely than not that certain deferred tax assets will be realized in the future. The Debtors have recorded a valuation allowance of $45.4 million and $356.1 million against certain federal and state deferred tax assets for the years ended December 31, 2023, and 2024, respectively.

The Debtors follow the provisions of the authoritative guidance from the FASB on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes. These provisions provide a comprehensive model for the recognition, measurement and disclosure in financial statements of uncertain income tax positions that the Debtors have taken or expect to take on a tax return.

Under these provisions, the Debtors can recognize the benefit of an income tax position only if it is more likely than not (greater than 50%) that the tax position will be sustained upon tax examination, based solely on the technical merits of the tax position. Otherwise, no benefit can be recognized. Assessing an uncertain tax position begins with the initial determination of the sustainability of the position and is measured at the largest amount of benefit that is greater than 50% likely of being realized upon ultimate settlement. As of each balance sheet date, unresolved uncertain tax positions must be reassessed. Additionally, the Debtors must accrue interest and related penalties, if applicable, on all tax exposures for which reserves have been established consistent with jurisdictional tax laws.

Their policy is to recognize interest and penalties related to uncertain tax positions in the provision for income taxes. As of December 31, 2023, and 2024, the Debtors had no accrued interest or penalties related to uncertain tax positions.

Contingent Consideration

In connection with their acquisitions, the Debtors may agree to pay additional consideration to former owners upon the achievement of certain specified revenue targets through defined periods following the respective acquisition dates. The additional consideration qualifies as contingent consideration and is recognized at fair value on the acquisition date in other current liabilities and other long-term liabilities on the Debtors' consolidated balance sheets.

The valuation technique used to measure fair value of contingent consideration is primarily an income approach using a Monte Carlo simulation or digital option pricing model. The significant unobservable inputs used in fair value measurement of the contingent consideration are estimates, including probability of success, discount rates and amount of time until the conditions of the revenue target are met.

The Debtors paid out $6.3 million during the year ended December 31, 2023, related to the contingent consideration in connection with acquisitions, while a total of $0.3 million was included in other current liabilities in the consolidated balance sheet on December 31, 2023. There were no payouts made during the year ended December 31, 2024, related to the contingent consideration in connection with acquisitions, and there is no amount included in the consolidated balance sheet on December 31, 2024.

Insurance Program

The Debtors have a high-deductible insurance program for most losses related to general liability, equipment liability, automobile liability, workers' compensation and is self-insured for certain legal claims and medical claims, while maintaining per employee stop-loss coverage. The expected ultimate cost for claims incurred as of the balance sheet date is not discounted and is recognized as a liability. Self-insurance losses for claims filed and claims incurred but not reported are accrued based upon estimates of the aggregate liability for uninsured claims using loss development factors and actuarial assumptions followed in the insurance industry and historical loss development experience by geographies in which the Debtors conduct business. These types of claims may take a substantial amount of time to resolve and, accordingly, the ultimate liability associated with a particular claim may not be known for an extended period of time. These estimates may change based on, among other things, changes in their claims history or receipt of additional information relevant to assessing the claims. Further, these estimates may prove to be inaccurate due to factors such as adverse judicial determinations or settlements at higher than estimated amounts. Accordingly, the Debtors may be required to increase or decrease their reserve levels. As of December 31, 2023, self-insurance expenses totaled approximately $24.3 million, of which $22.6 million was included in cost of revenue and $1.7 million was included in selling, general and administrative expenses in the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss. As of December 31, 2024, self-insurance expenses totaled approximately $24.6 million, of which $22.7 million was included in cost of revenue and $1.9 million was included in selling, general and administrative expenses in the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss.

Equity-Based Compensation

The Debtors measure and recognize compensation expense for all equity-based incentive awards using their estimated fair value on the date of grant. Compensation expense is recorded using the graded vesting model when a Liquidity Event, as defined in the 2022 stock incentive plan, occurs or is probable of occurring, based on the requisite service period performed to date. Forfeitures are accounted for as they occur. Since the occurrence of a future liquidity event is not probable, no equity-based compensation expense has been recorded as of December 31, 2023, or December 31, 2024.

On April 12, 2024, the Company formed the legal entities Vortex Opco, LLC, and Vortex Holdco, LLC, organized in The Cayman Islands (collectively, the "Cayman Entities"). On April 30, 2024, subsidiaries of USS transferred certain service equipment to the Cayman Entities in exchange for equity interests. On August 22, 2024, that certain service equipment was transferred back to those USS subsidiaries in return for those equity interests. The Cayman Entities are owned by subsidiaries of USS and do not conduct operations outside of the U.S.

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates the realization of assets and satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business. The Company is subject to certain risks common to companies in a growth stage, including macroeconomic factors and interest rates, and has made significant capital expenditures and acquired businesses primarily through incremental borrowings on the Company's debt facilities, with remaining borrowing availability limited as of December 31, 2024. These factors create uncertainty as to the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. However, management has taken actions to alleviate these matters and has considered its various sources of liquidity including cash on hand, forecasted cash flows from operations which include a new customer engagement plan, a planned reduction in operating expenses and optimization of the procurement process to control spend, and utilization of availability on the Company's ABL Revolving Credit Facility (the "2021 ABL") and Cayman Revolving Credit Facility. In addition, the Company received a support letter from the Company's indirect majority shareholders that such indirect majority shareholders will, and have the ability to, reserve up to $50.0 million to invest in the Company to the extent needed so that the Company can meet its financial obligations (the "Support Letter"). There are no contractual restrictions on the Company's indirect majority shareholders that would prevent them from funding the commitment. Management believes these actions will provide sufficient liquidity and therefore allow the Company to continue as a going concern through at least one year from the date these consolidated financial statements are available to be issued. See Note 20, "Subsequent Events", for further information regarding related party transactions.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, revenue, costs and expenses and the disclosure of contingent liabilities at the date of the financial statements during the reporting period. Significant estimates and assumptions reflected in these consolidated financial statements include, but are not limited to, revenue recognition, the calculation of allowance for credit losses and customer credits, accounting for business combinations, assessment of goodwill, intangibles and other long-lived assets, valuation and useful lives of acquired intangible assets, useful lives of long-lived assets, valuation of contingent consideration, insurance claims, incentive plan compensation and income taxes. The Company evaluates its estimates and assumptions on an ongoing basis. Actual results could differ from those estimates and such differences may be material to the consolidated financial statements.

Segment Information

The operating segment was determined after considering the Company's organizational structure and the information regularly reviewed by the chief operating decision maker ("CODM") to evaluate financial performance and allocate resources. The Company's chief executive officer, who is the CODM, reviews financial information on a consolidated basis. Accordingly, the business operates and manages its business as one operating segment that provides portable sanitation services and other complementary site solutions and, therefore, has one reportable segment for financial reporting purposes.

Concentrations of Credit Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash and accounts receivable. All of the Company's cash deposits are in financial institutions in the U. S. The Company maintains deposits with large financial institutions that the Company believes are of high credit quality. As of December 31, 2023, and December 31, 2024, cash consisted of cash on deposit with balances denominated in U.S. dollars. At times, the Company's cash balances with individual banking institutions are in excess of federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any credit losses related to its cash.

As of December 31, 2023, and December 31, 2024, the Company had no single customer that represented more than 10% of the Company's total accounts receivable. During the years ended December 31, 2023, and December 31, 2024, the Company had no single customer that represented more than 10% of the Company's total revenue. The Company's concentration of credit risk with respect to accounts receivable is limited due to its diverse and geographically dispersed customer base. The Company performs ongoing credit evaluations of its customers' financial condition through credit approvals, credit limits and other monitoring procedures. In limited circumstances, such as larger events, the Company requires a down payment from customers prior to the Company performing services. These circumstances result in deferred revenue recorded in the consolidated balance sheets.

Cash and Restricted Cash

The Company considers all highly liquid instruments with original maturities of three months or less at the time of acquisition to be cash equivalents. There were no cash equivalents as of December 31, 2023, or December 31, 2024.

Restricted cash amounts are required to be maintained to pay future claims under certain insurance obligations and for certain compensating balances that are due within one year from the balance sheet date.

Debt Issuance Costs

Debt issuance costs associated with the Company's term loans and unsecured notes are recorded against the Company's long-term debt and are amortized into interest expense using the effective interest method. Debt issuance costs associated with the Company's revolving lines of credit are capitalized as a deferred charge within other long-term assets and are amortized into interest expense on a straight-line basis over the applicable line of credit term.

Allowance for Credit Losses and Customer Credits

Accounts receivable are recorded when billed and represent claims against third parties that will be settled in cash. The carrying value of the Company's accounts receivable, net of the allowance for credit losses and customer credits, represent their estimated net realizable value. The Company's accounts receivable do not bear interest and generally does not require collateral or other security to support related receivables.

The allowance for credit losses is based on management's assessment of the collectability of assets pooled together with similar risk characteristics. The Company monitors the collectability of its trade receivables as one overall pool as all trade receivables have similar risk characteristics. The Company estimates its allowance for credit losses based on historical trends, the age of outstanding receivables, existing economic conditions and reasonable forecasts. If events or changes in circumstances indicate that specific receivable balances may be impaired, further consideration is given to the collectability of those balances and the allowance is adjusted accordingly. Past-due receivable balances are written off when the Company's collection efforts have been unsuccessful in collecting the amount due. Subsequent recoveries, if any, are credited to the allowance. Adjustments to the allowance for credit losses and customer credits, are recorded within selling, general and administrative expense and revenue, respectively, in the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss.

Service Equipment, net

Service equipment consists of portable restrooms, temporary fencing, temporary power equipment and various other site services equipment. Service equipment is stated at cost, net of accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives. Each estimated useful life is reflective of the total number of years that the service equipment is expected to generate economic benefits. The estimated useful lives used in computing depreciation for service equipment range from four to twenty years. Additions, improvements and expenditures that significantly improve the productive capacity or extend the life of an asset are capitalized. Expenditures for repairs and maintenance are expensed as incurred.

Property and Equipment, net

Property and equipment are stated at cost, net of accumulated depreciation and amortization. Depreciation and amortization are computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives. The general range of useful lives of property and equipment is as follows:

	Estimated Useful Life
Land	n/a
Buildings	39 years
Delivery and service vehicles, trailers, and tanks	1 - 12 years
Machinery and equipment	2 - 5 years
Leasehold improvements	Lesser of lease term or life of asset
Furniture and fixtures	7 years
Computer equipment and software	3 -7 years

When assets are sold or retired, the cost and related accumulated depreciation or amortization of assets disposed of are removed from the accounts, with any resulting gain or loss recorded in loss on disposal of property and equipment in the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss. Costs of repairs and maintenance are expensed as incurred.

Capitalized Implementation Costs

The Company capitalizes costs related to cloud computing arrangements ("CCA") during the application development stage including consulting costs and compensation expenses related to employees who devote time to the implementation of the projects. The Company also capitalizes costs related to specific upgrades and enhancements when it is probable the expenditures will result in additional functionality. Once the project is available for general use, capitalization ceases and the asset begins amortizing.

CCA implementation costs are recorded as prepaid expenses and other current assets and other long-term assets, net on the consolidated balance sheets. Capitalized costs associated with CCA are amortized on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful life, which is three to seven years, and are included within selling, general and administrative expense in the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss. Capitalized implementation costs from CCA total $29.2 million and $27.3 million, net of accumulated amortization, as of December 31, 2023, and December 31, 2024, respectively. Amortization expense related to CCA implementation costs is $3.5 million and $5.4 million, respectively, for the years ended December 31, 2023, and December 31, 2024.

Goodwill

Goodwill represents the excess of cost over the fair value of the net tangible and identifiable intangible assets acquired in a business combination. Goodwill is not amortized but is tested for impairment annually on October 1st or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that the asset may be impaired. The Company's goodwill impairment test is performed at the enterprise level given the sole reporting unit.

The Company's goodwill impairment analysis first assesses qualitative factors to determine whether events or circumstances existed that would lead the Company to conclude it is more likely than not that the fair value of the reporting unit is below its carrying amount. Such qualitative factors include industry and market considerations, economic conditions, entity-specific financial performance and other events such as changes in management, strategy and primary customer base. If the Company determines that it is more likely than not that the fair value of the reporting unit is below the carrying amount, a quantitative goodwill assessment is required. In the quantitative evaluation, the fair value of the reporting unit is determined using various valuation techniques including the market approach and income approach which are weighted to determine an estimated fair value for the reporting unit at the measurement date. The reporting unit's estimated fair value is then compared to its carrying value. If the reporting unit's fair value is greater than its carrying value, then the goodwill is deemed not to be impaired and no further action is required. If the reporting unit's fair value is less than its carrying value, goodwill is considered impaired and a charge is reported in the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss equal to the excess of the reporting units carrying value over its fair value not to exceed the total amount of goodwill.

The fair value of the reporting unit is determined using the market and income approaches. The guideline public company method is utilized for the market approach and the discounted cash flow method is used for the income approach. The discounted cash flow methodology is based on the present value of cash flows which require significant judgment, including estimates of future revenue and projected profit margin, which are dependent on forecasts, estimation of terminal growth rates, capital spending and determination of discount rate. The unobservable inputs used to measure the fair value include comparability discounts, weighted average cost of capital and long-term growth rates.

Based on a quantitative goodwill impairment assessment as of October 1, 2023, and in conjunction with the Company's annual forecasting process for 2024, which impacts key assumptions used in our assessment, the Company determined that the carrying value of its reporting unit was greater than its fair value. As a result, a loss on goodwill impairment of $101.9 million was recorded to reduce the carrying value of goodwill as of December 31, 2023.

During the three months ended June 30, 2024, the Company revised forecasts due to lower revenue and profit margins than previously estimated. Accordingly, the Company's financial performance was identified as a triggering event that could indicate an impairment of goodwill. As a result, the Company completed a quantitative goodwill impairment assessment as of June 30, 2024. The Company determined that the carrying value of the reporting unit was greater than the fair value and a loss on goodwill impairment of $284.3 million was recorded to reduce the carrying value of goodwill as of June 30, 2024.

Based on a quantitative goodwill impairment assessment as of October 1, 2024, and in conjunction with the Company's annual forecasting process for 2025, which impacts key assumptions used in our assessment, the Company determined that the carrying value of its reporting unit was greater than its fair value. As a result, a loss on goodwill impairment of $764.4 million was recorded to reduce the carrying value of goodwill as of December 31, 2024.

Intangible Assets

The Company's intangible assets include non-compete agreements, customer relationships, trade names and associated trademarks obtained through business acquisitions. Intangible assets acquired in a business combination are recognized at fair value using generally accepted valuation methods deemed appropriate for the type of intangible asset acquired, and reported net of accumulated amortization, separately from goodwill. Intangible assets are amortized over their estimated useful lives. Intangible assets are amortized on a straight-line basis or on an accelerated method using the discounted cash flow rate as presented below:

Asset	Amortization Method	Estimated Useful Life
Non-compete agreements	Straight-line	Term of agreement, generally 3 years
Customer relationships	Accelerated method	10-15 years
Trade names and associated trademarks	Straight-line	2-20 years

Impairment of long-lived assets

The Company reviews the carrying value of its long-lived assets for impairment whenever events and circumstances indicate the carrying value of an asset may not be recoverable from the estimated future cash flows expected to result from its use and eventual disposition. In cases where undiscounted expected future cash flows are less than the carrying value, an impairment loss is recognized equal to an amount by which the carrying value exceeds the fair value of assets. The factors considered by management in performing this assessment include current operating results, trends and prospects and the effects of obsolescence, demand, competition and other economic factors. For the years ended December 31, 2023, and December 31, 2024, there were no impairments recorded outside of assets written off in the normal course of business.

Leases

The Company enters into operating leases for real estate related to general office use, business operations and equipment storage. Additionally, the Company enters into finance leases for various vehicles used to operate the business. The Company determines whether an arrangement contains a lease at the inception of a contract by assessing whether there is an identified asset and whether a contract conveys the right to control the use of the identified asset, in exchange for consideration, and the right to obtain the economic benefits from the use of the identified asset. Leases with a term greater than one year are recognized on the consolidated balance sheets. The Company has elected not to recognize leases with terms of one year or less on the consolidated balance sheets.

Upon commencement of a lease, the Company records a right-of-use asset that represents the Company's right to use the underlying asset for the lease term and a lease liability that represents the Company's obligation to make lease payments arising from the lease. Lease liabilities and their corresponding right-of-use assets are recorded based on the present value of the future minimum lease payments over the estimated remaining lease term.

Lease right-of-use assets are adjusted for (i) payments made at or before the commencement date, (ii) initial direct costs incurred and (iii) tenant incentives under the lease. Lease payments are discounted at the lease commencement date using the rate implicit in the lease unless that rate is not readily determinable. The interest rate implicit in lease contracts is typically not readily determinable. As a result, the Company utilizes its incremental borrowing rate ("IBR"), which is the rate that would be incurred to borrow on a collateralized basis over a similar term and amount equal to the lease payments in a similar economic environment. The IBR is determined by using a portfolio approach, considering many factors, such as the Company's specific credit risk, the amount of the lease payments, collateralized nature of the lease, both borrowing term and the lease term and economic considerations.

Leases are classified as operating or finance leases based on the terms of the lease agreement and certain characteristics of the identified asset. The Company recognizes straight-line lease expense for operating leases and recognizes a front-loaded expense comprising interest expense on the lease liability and the amortization expense on the right-of-use asset for finance leases.

The Company often enters into contracts that contain both lease and non-lease components. Non-lease components include common area maintenance, utilities and other services. The Company has made an accounting policy election to not separate lease and non-lease components to all asset classes. Rather, each lease component and the related non-lease components are accounted for together as a single component. Variable costs are not included in the measurement of right of use assets and lease liabilities as the Company's leases do not include variable payments that depend on an index or rate; these costs are expensed when the event determining the amount of variable consideration to be paid occurs.

The Company's lease terms often include renewal options. The Company's right of use assets and lease liabilities generally do not include the option to extend or terminate unless it is reasonably certain that the Company will exercise these options.

Lessor considerations

The Company's revenue contracts contain promises to provide the customer with the right to use an asset, such as portable toilets or roll-off dumpsters for no stated consideration. As such the Company operates as both a lessor and a service provider.

The updated lease accounting guidance ("ASC 842") provides a practical expedient that permits lessors to aggregate non-lease components and the associated lease components if certain conditions are met and account for the combined unit of accounting under either the updated revenue recognition guidance ("ASC 606") or ASC 842, based on the predominant characteristic. In contracts where the Company provides a service that is identified as having non-lease components as well as underlying assets that are identified as lease components, the service provided to the customer is determined to represent the most critical element of the arrangement. The Company has elected this practical expedient to aggregate the non-lease component and the lease component and account for the combined unit under ASC 606 for all such service contracts that involve an embedded lease component.

Contingent consideration

In connection with the Company's past business acquisitions, the Company may agree to pay additional consideration to former owners upon the achievement of certain specified revenue targets through defined periods following the respective acquisition dates. The additional consideration qualifies as contingent consideration and is recognized at fair value on the acquisition date in other current liabilities and other long-term liabilities on the Company's consolidated balance sheets. The fair value is determined based on inputs not observable in the market, which represents a Level 3 measurement within the fair value hierarchy. Any changes in the fair value of contingent consideration are recorded in the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Certain assets and liabilities are carried at fair value in accordance with GAAP. Fair value is defined as the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date.

Valuation techniques used to measure fair value requires the Company to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). Financial assets and liabilities carried at fair value are to be classified and disclosed in one of the following three levels of the fair value hierarchy, of which the first two are considered observable and the third is considered unobservable:

- Level 1—Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2—Inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities, quoted prices in markets that are not active, or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data for substantially the full term of the assets or liabilities.

- Level 3—Unobservable inputs that are supported by little or no market activity that are significant to determining the fair value of the assets or liabilities, including pricing models, discounted cash flow methodologies and similar techniques.

Income taxes

Income taxes are computed using the asset and liability approach that requires the recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of events that have been recognized in the consolidated financial statements. In estimating future tax consequences, the Company considers all expected future events other than enactment of changes in tax laws or rates. A valuation allowance is recorded, if necessary, to reduce net deferred tax assets to their realizable values if it is not more likely than not that the net deferred tax assets will be realized. On a quarterly basis, the Company considers positive and negative evidence, including historical taxable income earnings and the reversal of deferred tax liabilities attributable to book-tax differences relating to definite lived intangible assets and fixed assets, to determine whether it is more likely than not that certain deferred tax assets will be realized in the future.

The Company follows the provisions of the authoritative guidance from the FASB, on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes. These provisions provide a comprehensive model for the recognition, measurement, and disclosure in financial statements of uncertain income tax positions that the Company has taken or expects to take on a tax return. Under these provisions, the Company can recognize the benefit of an income tax position only if it is more likely than not (greater than 50%) that the tax position will be sustained upon tax examination, based solely on the technical merits of the tax position. Otherwise, no benefit can be recognized. Assessing an uncertain tax position begins with the initial determination of the sustainability of the position and is measured at the largest amount of benefit that is greater than 50% likely of being realized upon ultimate settlement. As of each balance sheet date, unresolved uncertain tax positions must be reassessed. Additionally, the Company must accrue interest and related penalties, if applicable, on all tax exposures for which reserves have been established consistent with jurisdictional tax laws.

The Company’s policy is to recognize interest and penalties related to uncertain tax positions in the provision for income taxes.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognized when a customer obtains control of promised goods or services, in an amount that reflects the consideration which the entity expects to receive in exchange for those goods or services. In order to achieve this core principle, the Company applies the following five steps:

i. Identify the contract(s) with a customer.

ii. Identify the performance obligations in the contract.

iii. Determine the transaction price.

iv. Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract.

v. Recognize revenue as the entity satisfies a performance obligation.

The Company’s revenue contracts contain a promise to provide the customer with the right to use an asset, such as portable toilets and roll-off dumpsters, in addition to various services as described below. As such the Company operates as both a lessor and a service provider. ASC 842 provides a practical expedient that permits lessors to aggregate non-lease components and the associated lease components if certain conditions are met and account for the combined unit of accounting under either ASC 606 or ASC 842, based on the predominant characteristic in the arrangement. In contracts where the Company provides a service that is identified as having non-lease components as well as underlying assets that are identified as lease components, the service provided to the customer is determined to represent the most critical element of the arrangement. The Company has elected this practical expedient to aggregate the non-lease component and the lease component and account for the entire arrangement under ASC 606 based on the consideration that the service offering is the predominant and critical element of the contract. As a result of this determination, substantially all of the Company’s contracts with customers include a single performance obligation.

The Company considers that a contract with a customer exists when the contract is approved by both parties, each party’s rights and obligations are identified, payment terms are known, customer has the ability and intent to pay and the contract has commercial substance. The Company applies judgment in determining the customer’s ability and intention to pay, which is based on a variety of factors, including the customer’s credit worthiness, historical payment experience or, in the case of a new customer, credit and financial information pertaining to the new customer.

Performance obligations

The Company derives revenue from the sale of portable sanitation and complementary site services. These services may include on-going cleaning, sanitizing and restocking of portable restrooms and handwashing sinks. In addition, the Company provides temporary fencing to secure perimeters, manage crowds and help traffic flow inside an event. The Company also provides multiple services for live events such as festivals, fairs, concerts, sporting events and more. The Company's service offerings are grouped in the following categories:

- Route-based sanitation and emergency response services—primarily include services associated with portable restrooms, hand washing stations and shower trailers;
- Special event services—primarily include services related to the overall market for sporting events, festivals, weddings and other gatherings on a more temporary and concentrated population. These typically require portable sanitation and related services as well as other services for two or three days; and
- Other services—primarily made up of non-hazardous liquid waste, temporary fencing, portable storage, roll-off containers and temporary power.

Shipping and handling activities occur prior to the transfer of control of equipment and services and are considered activities to fulfill the Company's promise to deliver services to the customers. Shipping and distribution activities are not a promised service, and therefore, are not a separate performance obligation.

Payment terms

The Company's payment terms in a contract vary by type of customer and the services offered. Typically, the Company charges its customers on a fixed price per unit or month of service depending on the requested products and the frequency of service which could range from weekly to multiple times a day. The Company does not assess whether a significant financing component exists if the period between performance of obligations under the contract and customer payment is one year or less. None of the Company's contracts contain a significant financing component as of December 31, 2023, and December 31, 2024. The Company's contracts with customers generally do not result in significant obligations associated with returns, refunds or warranties. Sales taxes and any other taxes collected on behalf of third parties are excluded from revenue.

Recognition of revenue

The Company recognizes revenue over time as services are provided to the customer based on the extent of progress toward completion of their performance obligation. The selection of the method to measure progress toward completion is based on the nature of the services to be provided and does not require significant judgment. The Company measures progress toward completion using either the right-to-invoice practical expedient or the cost-to-cost output method. The Company uses the right-to-invoice measure of progress when there is a right to invoice for an amount that corresponds directly with the value of the Company's performance to date. Under the right-to-invoice method, revenue is recorded equal to the amount the Company invoices the customer.

The Company uses the cost-to-cost measure of progress when it best depicts the transfer of value, which occurs as the Company incurs costs on a contract. Under the cost-to-cost method, the extent of progress toward completion is measured based on the ratio of estimated costs incurred to date to the total estimated costs at completion of the performance obligation. Revenue is recorded proportionally as costs are incurred. Generally, the Company applies the right-to-invoice practical expedient to revenue generated from portable sanitation and complementary site services and the cost-to-cost method to temporary fencing services.

Other revenue recognition policies

The Company engages third parties to provide various services to the Company's customers in geographical areas it is not currently located in. The Company evaluates whether it is acting as the principal (report revenue on a gross basis) or agent (report revenue on a net basis) in these transactions. Although the Company engages third parties to provide specified services in a contract, the Company bears the ultimate responsibility to fulfill the obligations in the contract. Third parties are acting on the Company's behalf, contracts are negotiated between the Company and the customer and the Company has discretion on establishing the price and as such, the Company acts as the principal to these transactions and therefore recognizes revenue on a gross basis.

Contract costs

The Company does not recognize any assets associated with incremental costs of obtaining a contract with a customer (such as sales commissions). Most of the Company's revenue is recognized over a period of one year or less and as such, the Company has applied the practical expedient that allows recognition of the incremental costs of obtaining a contract as an expense when incurred if the amortization period of the asset that otherwise would have been recognized is one year or less.

Contract Balances from Contracts with Customers

The timing of revenue recognition, billing and cash collection results in billed receivables, contract assets and contract liabilities on the consolidated balance sheets. For certain types of service contracts, the Company recognizes revenue over time using the cost-to-cost measure of progress, which results in the recognition of revenue as work is performed based on the relationship between estimated costs incurred compared to the total estimated costs for the contract. Accordingly, revenue is sometimes recognized in advance of billing, resulting in a contract asset. Once the Company has an unconditional right to consideration, the customer is billed, and the contract asset is reclassified to accounts receivable. The balance of contract assets is included in prepaid expenses and other current assets in the consolidated balance sheets.

When consideration is received, or such consideration is due from a customer prior to transferring services to the customer under the terms of a contract, deferred revenue, which is a contract liability, is recorded. Contract liabilities are recognized as revenue after control of the service is transferred to the customer and all other revenue recognition criteria have been met.

Contract assets and contract liabilities are reported net at the contract level for each reporting period.

Equity-Based Compensation

The Company measures and recognizes compensation expense for all equity-based incentive awards using their estimated fair value on the date of grant. Compensation expense is recorded using the graded vesting model when a Liquidity Event, as defined, occurs or is probable of occurring, based on the requisite service period performed to date. Forfeitures are accounted for as they occur.

Advertising and promotion expenses

Advertising and promotion expenses consist primarily of costs incurred promoting and marketing the Company's services. The Company expenses all advertising and promotion costs as incurred. During the years ended December 31, 2023, and December 31, 2024, the Company incurred advertising and promotion expenses of approximately $8.1 million and $7.9 million, respectively, and are included in selling, general and administrative expenses in the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss.

Insurance Program

The Company has a high-deductible insurance program for most losses related to general liability, equipment liability, automobile liability and workers' compensation and is self-insured for certain legal claims and medical claims, while maintaining per employee stop-loss coverage. The expected ultimate cost for claims incurred as of the balance sheet date is not discounted and is recognized as a liability. Self-insurance losses for claims filed and claims incurred but not reported are accrued based upon estimates of the aggregate liability for uninsured claims using loss development factors and actuarial assumptions followed in the insurance industry and historical loss development experience.

Recently adopted accounting pronouncements

In June 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-13, Financial Instruments – Credit Losses ("Topic 326"), Measurement of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments, which requires financial assets measured at amortized cost to be presented at the net amount expected to be collected. The measurement of expected credit losses is based on relevant information about past events, including historical experience, current conditions and reasonable and supportable forecasts that affect the collectability of the reported amounts. An entity must use judgment in determining the relevant information and estimation methods that are appropriate in its circumstances. The Company adopted this standard as of January 1, 2023, using a modified retrospective approach. The adoption of this guidance did not have a material impact on the consolidated financial statements.

In September 2022, the FASB issued ASU No. 2022-04, Liabilities-Supplier Finance Programs, which provides guidance on the disclosure requirements for supplier finance programs. The amendment requires that a buyer in a supplier finance program disclose sufficient qualitative and quantitative information about the program to allow a user of financial statements to understand the program's nature, activity during the period, changes from period to period, and potential magnitude. The Company adopted the standard as of January 1, 2023, on a prospective basis. The adoption of this guidance did not have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

In March 2024, the FASB issued ASU No. 2024-02, Codification Improvements—Amendments to Remove References to the Concepts Statements, which contains amendments to the Codification that remove references to various FASB Concepts Statements. The amendments within this Update are effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2025, and can be applied on either a prospective or retrospective basis. The Company adopted the standard as of January 1, 2024, on a prospective basis. The adoption did not have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

Recently issued accounting pronouncements not yet adopted

In October 2023, the FASB issued ASU No. 2023-06, Disclosure Improvements: Codification Amendments in Response to the SEC's Disclosure Update and Simplification Initiative, which modifies the disclosure or presentation requirements of a variety of topics. The effective date of this updated guidance has not yet been announced. The amendments proposed in this Update are to be applied on a prospective basis. The Company is currently evaluating the impact that this guidance may have on its consolidated financial statements.

In December 2023, the FASB issued ASU No. 2023-09, Income Taxes (Topic 740): Improvements to Income Tax Disclosures, which establishes new income tax disclosure requirements in addition to modifying and eliminating certain existing requirements. Under the new guidance, entities must consistently categorize and provide greater disaggregation of information in the rate reconciliation, and they must also further disaggregate income taxes paid. The Company is required to adopt the guidance proposed for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2025, and it can be applied on a prospective basis. The Company is currently evaluating the impact that this guidance may have on its consolidated financial statements.

In March 2024, the FASB issued ASU No. 2024-01, Compensation—Stock Compensation (Topic 718): Scope Application of Profits Interest and Similar Awards, which contains clarity guidance on whether profits interest and similar awards should be accounted for in accordance with Topic 718. The amendments within this Update are effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2025, and can be applied on either a prospective or retrospective basis. The Company is currently evaluating the potential impact this ASU may have on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

3. Fair Value Measurements

Assets and Liabilities Accounted for at Fair Value

The Company's financial instruments consist of accounts receivable, accounts payable, prepaid expenses and other current assets, accrued expenses and contingent consideration. The carrying amount of accounts receivable, accounts payable, prepaid expenses and other current assets and accrued expenses is considered a reasonable estimate of fair value due to short term to maturity. The Company's contingent consideration arrangements are carried at fair value, determined using Level 3 inputs in the fair value hierarchy. This included consummating offers to exchange any and all of the Company's loans under the 2021 Term Loan Facility and Senior Notes for newly issued first-lien first-out term loans ("FOTL"), first-lien second-out term loans ("SOTL"), first-lien first-out floating rate senior secured notes ("FOSN") and first-lien third-out senior secured notes ("TOSN") (collectively, the "New Debt"). These exchange offers were negotiated at a discount and had the effect of reducing total outstanding borrowings by approximately $200 million. This reduction will be recorded as an offset to interest expense over the life of the New Debt. The Company raised $300.0 million in additional cash from the issuance of the FOTL, after deducting discounts of $15.8 million. Accrued interest due on the 2021 Term Loan Facility and Senior Notes prior to the exchanges was settled with the proceeds from the issuance of the FOTL. On September 3, 2024, the Company issued $31.9 million of SOTL which was accounted for as a new issuance of debt.

The Company performed an assessment on a lender-by-lender basis to identify certain creditors that met the criteria for a troubled debt restructuring ("TDR") under ASC 470-60, Troubled Debt Restructurings by Debtors. The Company determined that certain lenders that participated in the 2024 Debt Restructuring met the criteria to be considered a TDR. The carrying value will amortize to the new principal amount using an updated effective interest rate and third party costs incurred are expensed. The Company accounted for the exchange of $864.0 million of principal amount of loans under the 2021 Term Loan Facility and $387.4 million of principal amount of Senior Notes for $1,232.3 million of principal amount of New Debt as a TDR. For non-TDR lenders, the Company assessed the 2024 Debt Restructuring pursuant to ASC 470-50, Modifications and Extinguishments. As the difference between the present value of the old debt cash flows and new debt cash flows was less than 10% for such lenders, the Company will amortize the carrying value to the new principal amount using an updated effective interest rate and third party costs are expensed. The Company accounted for the exchange of $1,015.2 million of principal amount of loans under the 2021 Term Loan Facility and $29.6 million of principal amount of Senior Notes for $1,171.5 million of principal amount of New Debt as a modification of debt. During the year ended December 31, 2024, the Company recorded new fees paid or owed to third parties of $38.6 million in selling, general and administrative expense in the consolidated statement of operations and comprehensive loss.

Borrowings under the Cayman Term Loan Facility bear interest at either a base rate plus a margin or a term SOFR loan plus an applicable margin, as defined in the agreement. The interest rate on the SOTL increases 0.5% beginning in the period after the maturity extension fee is exercised, if the Company elects to extend. The effective interest rates on the FOTL and SOTL are 9.84% and 7.50%, respectively, as of December 31, 2024. The Company recognized interest expense of $72.7 million, including net accretion of discount and premium on TDR and modification of $5.5 million during the year ended December 31, 2024, related to the Cayman Term Loan Facility.

Borrowings under the FOTL are secured by a first lien on the Collateral and is subject to call protection through the third anniversary of the Closing Date. Borrowings under the SOTL are secured by a first lien on the Collateral, is junior in payment priority to the FOTL and the Cayman Revolving Credit Facility and senior in payment priority to the TOSN. There is no call protection in respect of the SOTL. The Company may be required to prepay the Cayman Term Loan Facility upon the occurrence of certain events such as incurrence of additional indebtedness, asset sales, excess cash flows, and receipt of insurance proceeds.

2021 CF Revolving Credit Facility

On December 17, 2021, the Company entered into a 2021 CFR with a syndicate of lenders for a revolving line of credit of up to $100.0 million or such higher amount as permitted. In connection with the issuance of the 2021 CFR, the Company capitalized $2.7 million of debt issuance costs, which were recorded to other long-term assets. The 2021 CFR is subject to an unused line fee and will mature on December 17, 2026. On June 23, 2023, the 2021 CFR was amended to transition from LIBOR to SOFR.

Borrowings under the 2021 CFR are secured by a first-priority lien on certain fixed assets of the Company (pari passu with the 2021 Term Loan Facility) and a second-priority lien on the Company's current assets. The 2021 CFR contained a commitment that, when the aggregate exposures exceed 40% of the total revolving commitments at the end of any test period (any quarter beginning on or after January 1, 2023), the Company must maintain a consolidated first lien net leverage ratio of 8.30 to 1.00 or less at such date.

The Company made $49.0 million and $61.0 million in drawings on the 2021 CFR during the years ended December 31, 2023, and December 31, 2024, respectively. The Company made $10.0 million in repayments on the 2021 CFR during the year ended December 31, 2023, and did not make any repayments during the year ended December 31, 2024.

The effective interest rate is 11.88% as of December 31, 2023. The Company recognized interest expense of $3.5 million and $5.6 million including amortization of debt issuance costs of $0.5 million and $0.3 million during the years ended December 31, 2023, and December 31, 2024, respectively, related to the 2021 CFR.

On August 22, 2024, the 2021 CFR rolled over on a cashless basis into the Cayman Revolving Credit Facility, as described below.

Cayman Revolving Credit Facility

On August 22, 2024, the Company entered into a revolving credit agreement (the "Cayman Revolving Credit Facility" and with the Cayman Term Loan Facility, "Cayman Credit Agreement") whereby the existing syndicate of lenders from the 2021 CFR rolled their commitments and extensions of credit into this facility. A revolving line of credit of up to $100.0 million or such higher amount as permitted. The Company performed the borrowing capacity test on the exchanged 2021 CFR for the Cayman Revolving Credit Facility and determined that the borrowing capacity increased and therefore capitalized $1.6 million of new debt issuance costs, which were recorded to other long-term assets. The Cayman Revolving Credit Facility is subject to an unused line fee and will mature on April 30, 2030.

Borrowings under the Cayman Revolving Credit Facility are secured by a first lien on the Collateral and is equal in payment priority to the FOTL and senior in payment priority to the SOTL and TOSN. The Cayman Revolving Credit Facility contains a commitment that, when the aggregate exposure exceeds 40% of the total revolving commitments at the end of any test period (any quarter beginning on or after December 31, 2024), the Company must maintain a consolidated first lien net leverage ratio of 8.30 to 1.00 or less at such date.

Because the Cayman Revolving Credit Facility was effectuated through a cashless roll-over of all principal amounts and commitments under the 2021 CFR, amounts borrowed under that facility were deemed to have been borrowed under the Cayman Revolving Credit Facility as of the closing date thereof. The Company did not make any drawings and made $100.0 million in repayments on the Cayman Revolving Credit Facility during the year ended December 31, 2024.

The Company recognized interest expense of $0.5 million, including amortization of debt issuance costs of $0.2 million during the year ended December 31, 2024, related to the Cayman Revolving Credit Facility.

2021 ABL Revolving Credit Facility

On December 17, 2021, the Company entered into a 2021 ABL with a syndicate of lenders for a revolving line of credit of up to $200.0 million or such higher amount as permitted. The 2021 ABL is collateralized by cash and cash equivalents, eligible accounts receivable, and equipment of the Company. On any date when the adjusted availability is less than the greater of 10% of the line cap and $10.0 million, tested as of the last day of the most recently ended fiscal quarter and until the date on which adjusted availability exceeds the greater of 10% of the line cap and $10.0 million for 30 consecutive days, the Company must maintain a consolidated fixed charge coverage ratio of 1.00 to 1.00 or greater. In connection with the issuance of the 2021 ABL, the Company capitalized $3.3 million of debt issuance costs, which were recorded to other long-term assets. The 2021 ABL is subject to an unused line fee and will mature on December 17, 2026.

On May 25, 2023, the Company amended the 2021 ABL to transition from LIBOR to SOFR. On July 12, 2023, the 2021 ABL was amended to increase the original $200.0 million revolving commitment amount by $20.0 million. The fees paid associated with this amendment were not material.

On August 22, 2024, the 2021 ABL was amended to extend the maturity date from December 17, 2026, to April 30, 2030, subject to a springing maturity date of August 22, 2029, if the Company's net leverage ratios exceed certain thresholds defined in the amended ABL agreement. The Company performed the borrowing capacity test on the amended 2021 ABL and determined that the borrowing capacity increased and therefore capitalized $4.1 million of new debt issuance costs related to the August 22, 2024, amendment, inclusive of the fees paid to creditors of $1.1 million related to the amendment.

As a result of the 2023 SICFA, as defined below, certain letters of credit were released which increased the availability under the 2021 ABL by $44.2 million, as of October 18, 2023. The available line amount under the 2021 ABL totals $33.5 million and $39.5 million as of December 31, 2023, and December 31, 2024, respectively. During the years ended December 31, 2023, and December 31, 2024, there were drawings on the 2021 ABL in the amount of $64.0 million and $66.0 million, respectively. The Company made no repayments on the 2021 ABL during the year ended December 31, 2023. The Company made repayments in the amount of $74.0 million on the 2021 ABL during the year ended December 31, 2024.

The Company recognized interest expense of $10.6 million and $13.4 million including amortization of debt issuance costs of $0.7 million and $0.8 million during the years ended December 31, 2023, and December 31, 2024, respectively, related to the 2021 ABL. The effective interest rate is 7.90% and 6.65% as of December 31, 2023, and December 31, 2024, respectively.

Equipment Notes

On March 20, 2020, PHC entered into a Master Loan and Security Agreement (the "MLSA") with a lender. The MLSA provides for advances of up to $20.0 million, comprised of multiple loan schedules that provide funding from various lending institutions, in order to finance the purchase of certain equipment. The obligations to repay the advances are evidenced by promissory notes, payable by the Company to the lender. As of December 31, 2023, and December 31, 2024, the aggregate principal amount outstanding in connection with the MLSA is $12.4 million and $4.0 million, respectively. The Company did not make any additional drawings on the MLSA during the years ended December 31, 2023, or December 31, 2024. The Company made principal repayments of $5.7 million and $8.4 million, during the years ended December 31, 2023, and December 31, 2024, respectively.

Borrowings under each promissory note are payable in forty-nine consecutive monthly payments of principal and interest commencing on the date each promissory note is entered into followed by a balloon payment of all unpaid principal and accrued and unpaid interest due on the fourth anniversary of the commencement date (the "Maturity Date"). In addition, borrowings accrue interest per annum at a fixed rate, ranging from 4.50% to 7.73%. The weighted average interest rate of all the existing borrowings on the MLSA as of December 31, 2023, and December 31, 2024, is 5.70% and 6.96%, respectively. The MLSA also provided that the Company could voluntarily prepay all (but not less than all) of the outstanding principal balance of any promissory note at any time. A prepayment penalty fee between 1.0% to 4.0% will be payable by the Company upon a prepayment of any promissory note.

Borrowings under the MLSA are secured by a continuing purchase money security interest granted to the lender or other first priority security interest in the following: (i) all items related to the equipment as described in the promissory note, (ii) all accounts and rights with respect to such equipment, (iii) any cash and cash-equivalent deposits made by the Company in connection with the MLSA and (iv) cash and non-cash proceeds of any the foregoing. The MLSA contains various covenants relating to provision of quarterly and annual financial statements, requirement on fixed charge coverage ratio and also contains other customary covenants, representations and events of default. As of December 31, 2023, and December 31, 2024, the Company is in compliance with all financial covenants under the MLSA.

On August 23, 2024, the Company entered into an Equipment Loan and Security Agreement (the "ELSA") with a lender. The ELSA allows for the Company to enter notes for the purpose of financing the acquisition of certain equipment via separate and distinct equipment notes payable that include scheduled payments of principal and interest through an established maturity date (together with the notes under the MLSA, "Equipment Notes"). During the year ended December 31, 2024, the Company entered into a note totaling $1.0 million related to the ELSA. The Company made an immaterial amount of principal repayments during the year ended December 31, 2024, related to the ELSA. Borrowings on the ELSA accrue interest at a fixed rate. The interest rate for existing borrowings is 8.25% as of December 31, 2024.

The Company did not incur any debt issuance costs during the year ended December 31, 2023, or December 31, 2024, in connection with the Equipment Notes. 2023 Substitute Insurance Collateral Facility Agreement

On September 22, 2023, the Company entered into a Substitute Insurance Collateral Facility Agreement with the 1970 Group (the “2023 SICFA”). Under this agreement, the 1970 Group arranged for the issuance of letters of credit (“LOC”) from financial institutions approved by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners to provide up to approximately $44.2 million of letters of credit for workers’ compensation, commercial automotive and/or general liability policies. During the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company paid fees in the amount of $4.8 million in connection with the 2023 SICFA, which are deferred and amortized over the one year term of the arrangement.

Under the 2023 SICFA, the Company is required to maintain a deposit of $1.6 million in escrow payable in three payments within 150 days after the effective date of the agreement and to reimburse the 1970 Group for any draws made under the letters of credit within five business days of notice of any such draw. The Company’s obligations under the 2023 SICFA are guaranteed by the Company’s subsidiaries, are unsecured, and are subordinated to its obligations to each of the lenders under each of Cayman Term Loan Facility, New Notes, 2021 ABL, Cayman Revolving Credit Facility, 2021 Term Loan Facility, and Senior Notes.

On February 15, 2024, and February 27, 2024, the Company amended the 2023 SICFA to increase the LOC amount from $44.2 million to $49.5 million. In connection with these amendments, the Company paid fees in the amount of $0.4 million. Fees are deferred and amortized over the remaining term of the arrangement and are included in prepaid expenses and other current assets.

As of December 31, 2023, and December 31, 2024, there are $44.2 million and $54.4 million of letters of credit outstanding, respectively, under the 2023 SICFA and no amounts have been drawn. The unamortized balance on the deferred financing fees is $3.6 million and $6.1 million as of December 31, 2023, and December 31, 2024, respectively, and is included in prepaid expenses and other current assets. Deferred income taxes arise from temporary differences between the tax basis of assets and liabilities and their reported amounts in the consolidated financial statements. The significant components of the Company's deferred income tax assets and liabilities are comprised of the following (in thousands):

	December 31, 2023	December 31, 2024

Net deferred tax liability	$ (158,186)	$ (174,924)

A valuation allowance is required to be established when it is more likely than not that all or a portion of a deferred tax asset will not be realized. The Company considered the scheduled reversal of deferred tax liabilities primarily attributable to significant book-tax differences relating to definite lived intangible assets and fixed assets. The reversal of the deferred tax liabilities will occur prior to the expiration of the net operating loss carryforwards. Based upon this information, the Company believes it is more likely than not that the benefits of these deductible differences will not be realized and a valuation allowance on interest expense, debt restructuring and certain state net operating losses has been established.

The activity in the Company's deferred tax asset valuation allowance is as follows (in thousands):

Valuation allowance at beginning of year	$ 22,112	$ 45,425
Increases recorded to income tax (benefit) provision	23,313	310,656
Valuation allowance at end of year	$ 45,425	$ 356,081

At December 31, 2024, the Company has approximately $1,127.2 million of state net operating loss ("NOL") carryforwards, respectively, which expire at various dates detailed as follows (in thousands):

	Federal NOLs	State NOLs
Expires 2025 - 2026	$ -	$ 6,769
Expires 2027 - 2031	-	39,162
Expires 2032 - 2036	-	111,387
Expires 2037 - 2044	-	517,243
No Expiration	-	452,590
	$ -	$ 1,127,151

In connection with the Company's debt restructuring, the Company had to write off all of its remaining federal net operating losses and certain state net operating losses in exchange for not having to recognize cancellation of debt income due to an insolvency exception within the U.S. tax law. The reduction of the Company's tax attributes was offset by recognizing a deferred tax asset for potential future tax original issue discount interest deductions. The net impact of the debt restructuring is reflected in the Company's effective tax rate reconciliation as a tax benefit and within the Company's table of deferred tax assets and liabilities and the NOL carryforward table above.

Section 382 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (“Section 382”), contains rules that limit the ability of a company that undergoes an ownership change to utilize its NOLs and tax credits existing as of the date of such ownership change. The Company has experienced multiple ownership changes since its inception, however, based on the annual limitations calculated at each ownership change date, substantially all NOL carryforwards will be available to offset future taxable income, with the exception of a portion of state NOL that will expire unused. Future ownership changes as defined by Section 382 may further limit the amount of NOL carryforwards that could be utilized annually to offset future taxable income.

The calculation of the Company’s tax liabilities involves dealing with uncertainties in the application of complex tax laws and regulations for both federal taxes and the many states in which it operates or does business in. A tax benefit from an uncertain tax position may be recognized when it is more likely than not that the position will be sustained upon examination, including resolutions of any related appeals or litigation processes, on the basis of the technical merits.

The Company records tax positions as liabilities and adjusts these liabilities when its judgement changes as a result of the evaluation of new information not previously available. Because of the complexity of some of these uncertainties, the ultimate resolution may result in a payment that is materially different from the Company’s current estimate of the recognized tax benefit liabilities. These differences will be reflected as increases or decreases to income tax expense in the period in which new information is available. As of December 31, 2023, and December 31, 2024, the Company has not recorded any uncertain tax positions in its consolidated financial statements.

The Company recognizes interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits on the income tax benefit (provision) line in the accompanying consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss. As of December 31, 2023, and December 31, 2024, the Company has not recorded any interest and penalties related to uncertain tax positions in its consolidated financial statements.

The Company and its subsidiaries file income tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction, and various state and local jurisdictions. The Company’s federal and state tax returns for tax years ending December 31, 2021, and December 31, 2020, respectively, and forward, generally, remain subject to examination from the Internal Revenue Service and state tax authorities. However, the federal and state tax authorities can generally reduce a net operating loss (but not create taxable income) for a period outside the statutes of limitations in order to determine the correct amount of net operating loss which may be allowed as a deduction against income for a period within the statutes of limitations. Therefore, the Company’s tax years remain open to examination for all federal and state income tax matters until its net operating loss carryforwards are utilized and the respective statutes of limitations have lapsed. The returns in U.S. and state jurisdictions have varying statutes of limitations.

15. Commitments and Contingencies

Legal Proceedings

The Company is involved in various legal and administrative proceedings and actions relating to labor and employment, personal injury, property damage and environmental matters arising in the normal course of business. Although the ultimate outcomes of any legal matter are not determinable at this time, based on present information, including management's assessment of the merits of each particular claim after taking into consideration the advice of legal counsel, as well as the Company's current insurance coverage, management does not expect that any known legal proceeding or action will in the foreseeable future have a material adverse impact on the consolidated financial statements, except for the following matter discussed below.

The Company has been subject to ongoing investigations by the Attorneys General for California and Massachusetts and the U.S. Department of Justice. The investigations primarily relate to the compliance with contractual requirements under the Company's portable sanitation contracts, including with respect to billing for missed services, and could implicate claims under the state and federal False Claims Acts. In November 2018, the California Attorney General sent a letter of inquiry and followed up with a document request in June 2019. In January and February 2020, the U.S. General Services Administration's Office of Inspector General sent a subpoena for documents and communications. In November 2020, the Company received a civil investigative demand from the Massachusetts Attorney General's Office. In July 2021, the California Attorney General sent a civil investigative demand requesting further information related to the same issues. In August 2024, the Company learned the California Attorney General, Massachusetts Attorney General and U.S. Department of Justice have declined to intervene in the case. Concurrently, the Company was served with a qui tam action for the same allegations originally filed under seal. The Company is currently unable to determine the probability of the outcome of this matter or the range of possible loss, if any.

Insurance Program

The Company has a high-deductible insurance program for most losses related to general liability, equipment liability, environmental liability, automobile liability and workers' compensation and is self-insured for certain legal claims and medical claims, while maintaining per employee stop-loss coverage. The Company is covered by insurance for all claims up to the policy limits (See Note 11, "Insurance Program").

Environmental Matters

The Company and its operations are subject to various laws and related regulations governing environmental matters. Under such laws, an owner or lessee of real estate may be liable for the costs of removal or remediation of certain hazardous or toxic substances located on or in, or emanating from, such property, as well as investigation of property damage. The Company incurs ongoing expenses associated with the performance of appropriate preventative measures during the ordinary course of business.

Indemnification

In the ordinary course of business, the Company may provide indemnification of varying scope and terms to vendors, lessors, business partners and other parties with respect to certain matters including, but not limited to, losses arising out of breach of such agreements or from intellectual property infringement claims made by third parties. In addition, the Company has entered into indemnification agreements with members of its board of directors that will require the Company, among other things, to indemnify them against certain liabilities that may arise by reason of their status or service as directors or officers. The maximum potential amount of future payments the Company could be required to make under these indemnification agreements is, in many cases, unlimited. To date, the Company has not incurred any material costs as a result of such indemnifications. The Company does not believe that the outcome of any claims under indemnification arrangements will have a material effect on its financial position, results of operations or cash flows, and it has not accrued any liabilities related to such obligations in its consolidated financial statements as of December 31, 2023, and December 31, 2024.

17. Related Party Transactions

Corporate Advisory Services Agreement

In December 2021, in connection with the Transaction, the Company entered into a corporate advisory services agreement (the "CAS") with Platinum Advisors, pursuant to which Platinum Advisors provides certain corporate advisory services to the Company. By its terms, the CAS will continue until terminated by Platinum Advisors. In consideration for the provision of these services, the Company pays an agreed monitoring fee of up to $16.0 million per year. The Company also reimburses Platinum Advisors for all third-party costs and expenses incurred by Platinum Advisors in connection with rendering of services thereunder. The CAS contains customary indemnification provisions in favor of Platinum Advisors.

As per provisions included in the Cayman Credit Agreement, limitations were put on the payment of monitoring fees required by the CAS. The Company is now permitted to pay monitoring fees to Platinum Advisors ranging between $3.0 million and $16.0 million annually. The exact amount due to Platinum Advisors is contingent on predetermined levered free cash flow and second-out net leverage tests. The ability to pay these fees will be tested quarterly. Catch-up payments for any monitoring fee not permitted due to non-compliance with leverage tests will not be allowed.

Expenses from the advisory services rendered by Platinum Advisors to the Company was $16.0 million for the year ended December 31, 2023. During the year ended December 31, 2024, previously accrued obligations under the CAS were reversed, resulting in a net gain of $15.0 million related to the CAS. The results are included in selling, general and administrative expense in the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss. As of December 31, 2023, and December 31, 2024, there is $16.0 million and $1.0 million, respectively, of outstanding amounts to be paid to Platinum Advisors included in accrued expenses in the consolidated balance sheets.

In April 2024, the Company entered into the 2024 Credit Agreement with New Parent (See Note 12, "Debt").

In February 2025, the Company received the Support Letter so that the Company can meet its financial obligations through March 4, 2026 (See Note 20, "Subsequent Events").

18. 401(K) Savings Plan

The Company established a defined contribution savings plan under Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code. This plan covers substantially all employees who meet minimum age and service requirements and allows participants to defer a portion of their annual compensation on a pre-tax basis. Company contributions to the plan may be made at the discretion of the Company's board of directors. During the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company's 401(k) contribution expense was $3.6 million of which $1.9 million was included in cost of revenue and $1.7 million was included in selling, general and administrative expense on the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss. During the year ended December 31, 2024, the Company's 401(k) contribution expense was $3.2 million of which $1.5 million was included in cost of revenue and $1.7 million was included in selling, general and administrative expense on the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss.

19. Equity-Based Compensation

New Parent adopted the 2022 stock incentive plan (the "SIP"), which is intended to promote long-term growth and profitability of the Company. The SIP is administered by a compensation committee, appointed by the board of directors of New Parent. The stock options are expected to be issued to the Company's officers, directors, and certain key employees and consultants.

The exercise prices, vesting, total number of shares of New Parent's Class B common stock that may granted and other restrictions are determined at the discretion of the board of directors, its committee or any such persons if so delegated. All options expire 10 years from the date of grant. The Company accounts for forfeitures and cancellations as they occur.

The majority of the grants are time-based options that vest 20% upon the first anniversary of the grant date and the remaining 80% of the awards vest in four equal annual installments thereafter. Certain grants are subject to additional market and performance conditions that affect the amount of options that will ultimately vest and be exercisable. Vesting is generally subject to the continuous employment of the employee with the Company until the applicable vesting date. The options can only be exercised by the employees upon the later of the date of the liquidity event and the date the option vests. A liquidity event is defined as a sale of securities for cash by Platinum for which Platinum receives a specified return. Given the options granted under the SIP include service, performance, and market conditions in order to vest and be exercisable, no compensation expense will be recognized until satisfaction of the performance condition, and the sale of securities, is deemed probable. Additionally, compensation expense for these awards will be equal to the grant date fair value of all awards for which the performance condition is met, and the requisite service period is satisfied, regardless of whether the market condition is ultimately satisfied. Since the occurrence of a future liquidity is not probable, no expense has been recorded during the year ended December 31, 2023, or December 31, 2024.

The Company measures all options granted based on the fair value on the date of the grant. The fair value of each option granted during the years ended December 31, 2023, and December 31, 2024, is estimated using a Black-Scholes option pricing model, which requires inputs based on certain subjective assumptions as noted in the table below:

Risk-free interest rate	4.42%	3.43%
Dividend yield	0%	0%
Expected volatility	70.0%	33.0%
Expected term	5 years	5 years

The Company has historically been a private company and, accordingly, lacks company-specific historical and implied volatility information. Therefore, the Company estimated its expected stock price volatility based on the historical volatility of a publicly traded set of peer companies. The expected term is reflected for conditions required for the exercisability of the awards. The risk-free interest rate is determined by reference to the U.S. Treasury yield curve in effect at the time of grant of the award for time periods approximately equal to the expected term of the award. The expected dividend yield is based on the fact that the Company does not expect to pay any cash dividends in the foreseeable future.

A summary of stock option activity under the SIP for the years ended December 31, 2023, and December 31, 2024, is as follows:

(In thousands, except share amounts)

	Number of Options	Weighted Average Exercise Price	Weighted Average Contractual Terms (in years)	Aggregate Intrinsic Value
Outstanding at January 1, 2023	943	150
Granted	544	100
Forfeited	(109)	150
Outstanding at December 31, 2023	1,378	121
Granted	71	100
Forfeited	(990)	(129)
Outstanding at December 31, 2024	459	100
Vested and expected to vest at December 31, 2023	1,378	121	10	$ -
Vested and expected to vest at December 31, 2024	459	100	10	$ -

There was $34.6 million and $8.5 million of unrecognized compensation cost related to the unvested stock options on December 31, 2023, and December 31, 2024, respectively. The Company expects to recognize such amount when the performance condition associated with the options becomes probable and the requisite service period has been achieved.

20. Subsequent Events

For its consolidated financial statements, the Company has performed an evaluation of subsequent events through March 3, 2025, which is the date the consolidated financial statements were available to be issued.

On January 22, 2025, the Company entered into a supplier financing agreement to finance the payment of its insurance premiums. The amount financed was $12.4 million and will be repaid in monthly payments with the last installment due in September 2025. The stated interest rate under the supplier financing agreement is 6.79%.

In February 2025, the Company received a support letter from the Company's indirect majority shareholders that such indirect majority shareholders will, and have the ability to, reserve up to $50.0 million to invest in the Company to the extent needed so that the Company can meet its financial obligations through March 4, 2026.

21. Events Subsequent to Original Issuance of Consolidated Financial Statements

In connection with the reissuance of the consolidated financial statements, the Company has evaluated subsequent events through February 6, 2026.

The Company and certain of its subsidiaries negotiated forbearance agreements in relation to certain of its debt instruments during the third quarter of 2025. On December 29, 2025, the Company and certain of its subsidiaries filed voluntary petitions under Title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. Section 101, et seq., as amended from time to time, in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey. The consolidated financial statements for the years-ended December 31, 2024 and 2023 have not been adjusted to reflect these events.

	otherwise consistent with the consent rights in the Restructuring Support Agreement; provided that (i) (A) as of the Exit Facility Effective Date, no security or collateral documentation governed by the laws of any jurisdiction other than the United States and the jurisdiction in which any Guarantor is incorporated or domiciled shall be required (other than with respect to the CaymanCos, which such security and collateral documentation with respect to the Cayman Islands shall be consistent with the security and collateral documentation in effect prior to the Chapter 11 Cases) and (B) after the Exit Facility Effective Date, the security or collateral documentation governed by the laws of any jurisdiction other than the United States and the jurisdiction in which any Guarantor is incorporated or domiciled shall be subject to customary exclusions and exceptions, including, without limitation, (x) for material adverse tax consequences and (y) if the costs of such security outweighs the benefits such security provides to the Exit Term Lenders, (ii) the definition of EBITDA shall include an unlimited addback for restructuring costs in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases, (iii) there shall be EBITDA-based grower baskets, (iv) the leverage ratios (if any) shall provide for uncapped cash netting, (v) limited condition transactions will be permitted on customary market terms and (vi) customary permitted reorganizations will be permitted (the terms of this paragraph, the "Documentation Principles").

The Agency Fee may be net-funded from the proceeds of the Exit Term Loans borrowed concurrently with the payment thereof.
INTEREST:	Except in the case of default interest (as described below), interest on the outstanding principal amount of all Exit Term Loans shall accrue at a rate per annum equal to the Term SOFR Rate plus 6.50% per annum, subject to a 2.00% SOFR floor; provided that if interest is paid in kind for any portion of the Exit Term Loans in any interest period (as described below), interest payable on all Exit Term Loans for such interest period shall increase to the Term SOFR Rate plus 7.50% per annum. Following the first year after the Exit Facility Effective Date, all non-default interest shall be payable in cash; provided that, unless the Borrower's board of directors otherwise elects to pay any additional portion in cash, if projected liquidity on a pro forma basis (immediately after taking into account the payment of all of such interest in cash) would be less than $100,000,000, then 50% of the non-default interest payable for the applicable interest period (including both margin and benchmark rate) shall be payable in kind (in lieu of in cash) with the balance payable in cash. Interest on the Exit Term Loans shall be payable at the end of each interest period and, for interest periods greater than three months,
