PROGRESS OF THE CHAPTER 11 CASE TO DATE

10. During this Interim Period, in its role as counsel R&C worked to ensure that the Committee was fully aware of all activities taking place in the Debtor's case.

11. In all instances, R&C, as counsel to the Committee, worked to coordinate among the Committee's professionals to ensure that the services provided were not duplicative of other services for which such professionals were tasked and to ensure that the work performed by others was complementary to the Committee's overall goals and the case strategy.

12. R&C's services to the Committee during the Interim Period were reasonable and necessary, and R&C respectfully requests that the Court approve the fees and expenses requested in this First Interim Fee Application.

13. R&C does not hold a retainer in respect of its services as counsel to the Committee.

14. With respect to the fees earned and expenses incurred by R&C during the Interim Period, R&C received no formal or informal objections.

COMPENSATION AND ITS SOURCE

15. The professional services performed by R&C were necessary and appropriate to the administration of this Chapter 11 Case. These services were in the best interests of the Debtor, their estates, and creditors. The compensation requested is commensurate with the complexity and nature of the issues and tasks involved.

16. R&C has received no payments from any other source for the services rendered and the expenses incurred in connection with the matters covered by this First Interim Fee Application. There is no agreement or understanding between R&C and any other person other than the partners of R&C for the sharing of compensation to be received for services rendered in this Chapter 11 Case.

17. R&C's individual fee statements for each month covered by the Interim Application Period are attached to the monthly fee applications filed at D.I. 329 and D.I. 352. Each fee statement contains daily time logs describing the time spent by each attorney and paraprofessional, broken down by task code, for each month, as well as any applicable expenses. The hourly rates set forth in the monthly fee statements are those customarily charged by R&C for similar legal services. R&C's fees for services rendered by lawyers, paralegals, and other professionals are customary and usual in the legal community in which R&C practices. To the best of R&C's knowledge, this First Interim Fee Application complies with sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Guidelines adopted by the U.S. Trustee, Rule 2016-2 of the Local Rules, and the Compensation Procedures Order.

EXPENSES INCURRED BY ROBINSON & COLE

19. Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes "reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses" incurred by the professionals employed in a chapter 11 case. Accordingly, R&C seeks reimbursement of actual expenses in the amount of $2,405.23 that it incurred in performing its services during the Interim Period. These reimbursable expenses include, but are not limited to: Court fees, postal and overnight courier charges, telephone calls to communicate with limited counsel and members of the Committee, external and internal duplicating charges, travel charges, and the use of on-line legal research tools. Pursuant to the Local Rules, any requests for reimbursement by R&C for duplication charges do not exceed $0.10 per page for black and white copies or $0.80 per page for color copies and any request for reimbursement for computer-assisted legal research are equal to the actual cost incurred by R&C. Air travel and rail travel is billed at the cost of the ticket at a coach fare. All expenses reflected herein comply with the Compensation Procedures. R&C submits that the actual expenses incurred in providing professional services during the Interim Period were necessary, reasonable, and justified under the circumstances to serve the needs of the Committee in this Chapter 11 Case.

LEGAL BASIS FOR REQUESTED RELIEF

20. Section 331 of the Bankruptcy Code provides for interim compensation of professionals and incorporates the substantive standards of section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code to govern the Court's award of such compensation. Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a court may award a professional employed under section 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code "reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered . . . and . . . reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses." 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(1)(A) and (B).

21. Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code also sets forth the criteria for the award of such compensation and reimbursement:

> In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded to . . . [a] professional person, the court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including --
> (A) the time spent on such services;
> (B) the rates charged for such services;
> (C) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;
> (D) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;
> (E) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and
> (F) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(3)(A)-(F).

22. The foregoing professional services performed by R&C were appropriate and necessary to the effective administration of this Chapter 11 Case. The services were in the best interests of the Committee. Compensation for the foregoing services as requested is commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problems, as well as issues or tasks involved. The professional services were performed in an appropriately expeditious and efficient manner. In addition, R&C has made every effort to minimize its disbursements in this case. The actual expenses incurred in providing professional services were absolutely necessary, reasonable, and justified under the circumstances to serve the needs of the Committee.

23. In accordance with section 504 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 2016(a), other than between R&C and the firm's partners and employees, no agreement or understanding exists between R&C and any other person for the sharing of compensation received or to be received for services rendered in or in connection with this case.

24. No agreement or understanding prohibited by 18 U.S.C. § 155 has been or will be made by R&C.

THE REQUESTED COMPENSATION AND REIMBURSEMENT SHOULD BE ALLOWED

25. The services for which R&C seeks compensation in this First Interim Fee Application were, at the time rendered, necessary for, beneficial to, and in the best interests of, the Committee and the Debtor's estates. The services rendered by R&C were consistently performed in a timely manner commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the issues involved. In accordance with the factors enumerated in section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, it is respectfully submitted that the amount requested by R&C is fair and reasonable given (a) the complexity of this case, (b) the time expended, (c) the nature and extent of the services rendered, (d) the value of such services, and (e) the costs of comparable services other than in a case under this title.

NOTICE

26. Pursuant to the Compensation Procedures Order, this First Interim Fee Application is being served upon the Notice Parties, and notice of the hearing on the First Interim Fee Application is being served on all parties that have requested notice in the Chapter 11 Case pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, R&C respectfully requests that the Court: (i) enter an order approving the First Interim Fee Application and authorizing interim allowance of compensation in the amount of $657,573.60 for professional services rendered on behalf of the Committee and reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses in the amount of $2,405.23; (ii) direct payment by the Debtor of the foregoing amounts less any amount already paid pursuant to the Compensation Procedures Order; and (iii) grant such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

CERTIFICATION OF JAMIE L. EDMONSON

Jamie L. Edmonson, under penalty of perjury, certifies as follows:

1. I am a partner in the firm of Robinson & Cole LLP ("R&C"), and I am duly authorized to make this certification on behalf of R&C. R&C was retained by the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") as counsel pursuant to an order of the Bankruptcy Court. This certification is made in support of the First Interim Application for Compensation for Services Rendered and Reimbursement of Expenses of Robinson & Cole LLP as counsel to the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors for the Period from January 9, 2026 through March 31, 2026 (the "Interim Fee Application") and in compliance with rule 2016-2 of the Local Rules of Bankruptcy Practice and procedures of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the "Local Rules") and with the Guidelines for Reviewing Applications for Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses Filed Under 11 U.S.C. § 330 by Attorneys in Larger Chapter 11 Cases (the "UST Guidelines").

2. To that end, the following is provided in response to the request for application information set forth in ¶ C.5 of the UST Guidelines:

[1] The Debtor in this chapter 11 case is Salt House, Inc. (f/k/a Food52, Inc.) and the last four digits of the Debtor's federal tax identification number are 2738. For the purpose of this chapter 11 case, the Debtor's service address is 1 Dock 72 Way, 13th Floor, Brooklyn, New York 11205.

Question: Did you agree to any variations from, or alternatives to, your standard or customary billing rates, fees or terms for services pertaining to this engagement that were provided during the application period?

Response: No, R&C did not vary its standard or customary billing rates, fees, or terms for services pertaining to this engagement.

Question: If the fees sought in this fee application as compared to the fees budgeted for the time period covered by this fee application are higher by 10% or more, did you discuss the reasons for the variation with the client?

Response: Not applicable.

Question: Have any of the professionals included in this fee application varied their hourly rate based on the geographic location of the bankruptcy case?

Response: No.

Question: Does the fee application include time or fees related to reviewing or revising time records or preparing, reviewing, or revising invoices? (This is limited to work involved in preparing and editing billed records that would not be compensable outside of bankruptcy and does not include reasonable fees for preparing a fee application.) If so, please quantify by hours and fees.

Response: No.

Question: Does this fee application include time or fees for reviewing time records to redact any privileged or other confidential information?

Response: Yes, in connection with the review of the monthly time records for submission of the Monthly Fee Applications, R&C devoted limited time to review of the time detail for privileged or confidential information.

Question: Does this fee application include rate increases since retention?

Response: No.

Question: Did the client agree when retaining R&C to accept all future rate increases? If not, did R&C inform the client that they need not agree to modified rates or terms in order to have you continue the representation, consistent with ABA Formal Ethics Opinion 11-458?

Response: The client was notified at the outset of the engagement that R&C's hourly rates are reviewed and revised generally on January 1st of each year in accordance with R&C's billing practices and procedures.

3. I have read the Application, and I certify that the Application substantially complies with the Local Rules and the UST Guidelines.
