2. The bases for relief requested herein are section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, including the standards applicable to compensation and reimbursement under section 330(a), section 503(b) to the extent applicable, Bankruptcy Rule 2016, BLR 2016-1, and the Procedures for Complex Cases in the Southern District of Texas (the "Procedures").

BACKGROUND

3. On December 16, 2025 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors filed voluntary petitions for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in this Court. See ECF No. 1. On December 18, 2025, the Court ordered joint administration of the Debtors' respective cases, thereby creating these chapter 11 cases (the "Chapter 11 Cases"). See ECF No. 23.

4. The Debtors operated their businesses and managed their properties as debtors-in-possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code until October 14, 2026, when the Chapter 11 Cases were converted to cases under chapter 7 (the "Conversion Date"). See ECF No. 349.

5. On December 30, 2025, pursuant to section 1102 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Office of the United States Trustee for Region 7 (the "U.S. Trustee") appointed the Committee, consisting of the following members: (i) Qindao Huari Hardware Product Co., Ltd; (ii) Avalon Technologies Limited; (iii) MingChing Industrial; and, (iv) Sabrina Ohanian. See ECF No. 53.

6. On January 6, 2026 (the "Retention Date"), the Committee, in connection with the exercise of its powers and the performance of the duties conferred upon it pursuant to section 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code, selected Porzio to serve as its counsel in connection with these Chapter 11 Cases, subject to Court approval.

7. On February 18, 2026, the Court entered the Order Establishing Procedures for Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses of Professionals [ECF No. 178] (the "Interim Compensation Order").

8. On February 2, 2026, the Committee filed an application to employ Porzio as Attorneys for the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors [ECF No. 150] (the "Application to Employ").

9. On February 24, 2026 the Court entered the Order Authorizing the Employment and Retention of Porzio, Bromberg & Newman, P.C. as Attorneys for the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors effective as of January 6, 2026 [ECF No. 192] (the "Retention Order").

10. The terms and conditions of Porzio's employment and compensation are set forth in the Application to Employ, as modified by the Retention Order. Porzio has no agreement of any kind, express or implied, to divide with any person or entity any portion of the compensation sought or to be received by it in these Chapter 11 Cases.

11. Porzio has filed with the Court, and submitted to the relevant parties, monthly fee statements (collectively, the "Fee Statements") consisting of a brief statement as to the fees and costs incurred in approximately one-month periods, including the associated detailed time entries, pursuant to the procedures set forth in the Interim Compensation Order.

12. On April 30, 2026, the Committee filed the First Interim Fee Application of Porzio, Bromberg & Newman P.C. as Attorneys for the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors [ECF

No. 259] (the "First Interim Application"), seeking $146,295.00 in fees for 216.5 hours of services rendered from January 6, 2026 through March 31, 2026. The First Interim Application was approved by order of the Court on May 26, 2026 [ECF No. 275].

13. On September 8, 2026, the Committee filed the Second Interim Fee Application of Porzio, Bromberg & Newman, P.C. as Attorneys for the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors [ECF No. 338] (the "Second Interim Application"), seeking $72,487.50 in fees and $12.50 in expenses for 96.4 hours of services rendered from April 1, 2026 through August 31, 2026. The Second Interim Application was approved by order entered October 21, 2026 [ECF No. 356.]

14. On April 21, 2026, the Court entered an order approving the sale of substantially all of the Debtors' intellectual property and related assets to Transform AMP, LLC and the DIP Lender, Twelve Bridge Capital, LLC, under an Asset Purchase Agreement dated as of April 15, 2026, including a $2,000,000 credit bid under section 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code [ECF No. 249] (the "Sale Order"). The Sale Order found that the Asset Purchase Agreement was negotiated by the Debtors, the Committee, and the Purchasers in good faith following a mediation.

15. No plan was confirmed in the Chapter 11 Cases. On October 14, 2026, the Court entered the Conversion Order. The Conversion Order deems the post-default Carve Out pursuant to the DIP Order triggered, and provides an aggregate amount not to exceed $250,000 for the remaining unpaid fees and expenses of estate professionals.

16. By this Final Application, Porzio seeks final allowance of fees and expenses for the Final Application Period. The request includes the First Interim Application (216.5 hours; $146,295.00 in fees; $0.00 in expenses), the Second Interim Application (96.4 hours; $72,487.50 in fees; $12.50 in expenses), and the Final Period (30.60 hours; $20,495.00 in fees; $1,255.00 in expenses). Through the Final Application Period, Porzio attorneys and paraprofessionals rendered 343.50 hours of services, resulting in fees of $239, 277.50 and expenses of $1,267.50.

19. Although every effort has been made to include all fees and expenses incurred during the Final Application Period, some fees and expenses might not be included due to delays caused by accounting and processing. Porzio reserves the right to seek allowance of fees and expenses incurred in preparing, filing, and prosecuting this Final Application, to the extent permitted. This is Porzio's final fee application in these cases.

REQUEST FOR FINAL ALLOWANCE OF FEES AND EXPENSES

21. Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes the Court to award a professional person employed under section 327 or 1103 reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered and reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses incurred. Section 330(a)(3) directs the Court to consider the time spent, the rates charged, whether the services were necessary to the administration of or beneficial at the time rendered, whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the issues addressed, and whether the compensation is reasonable based on customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in non-bankruptcy cases. Section 330(a)(4) limits compensation for services that were not reasonably likely to benefit the estate or were not necessary to administration, unnecessary duplication of services, and services performed by an entity not authorized under section 327 or 1103. Section 503(b) provides the applicable administrative-expense framework to the extent relevant. Porzio seeks only actual, necessary, reasonable, non-duplicative compensation and expense reimbursement for services performed by approved counsel. The request is governed by section 330, Bankruptcy Rule 2016, BLR 2016-1, and the Procedures.

22. In 1974, the Fifth Circuit established guidelines for use by courts when ruling on attorneys' fee requests. See Johnson v. Ga. Highway Express, Inc., 488 F.2d 714, 717-19 (5th Cir. 1974). The Johnson factors are:

a. the time and labor required;
b. the novelty and difficulty of the questions presented;
c. the skill requisite to perform the legal services properly;
d. the preclusion of other employment due to the acceptance of the case;
e. the customary fee;
f. whether the fee is fixed or contingent;
g. time limitations imposed by the client with the circumstances of the case;
h. the amount involved and the results obtained;
i. the experience, reputation and ability of the attorney;
j. the undesirability of the case;
k. the nature and length of the professional relationship with the client; and
l. awards in similar cases.

23. In In re First Colonial Corporation of America, 544 F.2d 1291, 1298-99 (5th Cir. 1977), cert. denied, 431 U.S. 904 (1977), the Fifth Circuit applied the Johnson factors to fee awards in bankruptcy cases. Porzio applies those factors, together with section 330(a)(3) and section 330(a)(4), to the entire Final Application Period and the results achieved throughout these Chapter 11 Cases.

24. The Fifth Circuit's en banc decision in Barron & Newburger, P.C. v. Texas Skill Training Corp. (In re Woerner), 783 F.3d 266 (5th Cir. 2015) (en banc), confirms that a service may be compensable when, at the time it was rendered, there was a reasonable likelihood that it would benefit the estate, even if the anticipated benefit was not ultimately realized. The requested fees are calculated under the lodestar methodology by multiplying reasonable hours by reasonable rates, subject to the statutory review described above. The following analysis applies these standards to the whole case. Interim awards remain subject to reconsideration when the Final Application is considered, and Porzio requests final approval of all compensation and expenses previously allowed on an interim basis.

A. Time and Labor Required

25. As more specifically described in this Final Application and supporting records, a total of 343.50 hours of services were rendered by Porzio on behalf of the Committee during the entire Final Application Period, consisting of 292.00 professional hours and 51.50 paraprofessional hours. Porzio rendered 216.5 hours during the First Interim period, 96.4 hours during the Second Interim period, and 30.6 hours during the Final Period. Porzio respectfully submits that the time spent was reasonable and necessary.

26. Porzio's representation of the Committee required balancing quality, speed, and efficiency throughout these Chapter 11 Cases. The hours spent were reasonable given the size and complexity of the cases and the significant and often urgent issues raised. The services were performed in good faith, without unnecessary duplication, and were necessary to assist the Committee in fulfilling its statutory duties.

B. Novelty and Difficulty of Questions Presented

27. These Chapter 11 Cases involved novel and difficult issues, including tariff and tax refunds, duty drawbacks, intellectual property, industry-specific matters, the sale process, potential avoidance and insider claims, plan structure, and conversion. Porzio provided assistance on these issues throughout the Final Application Period in order to advance recoveries for unsecured creditors and support an orderly case resolution.

C. Skill Requisite to Perform the Legal Services Properly

28. Due to the nature and complexity of the legal issues presented throughout these cases, a high degree of bankruptcy, financial, restructuring, and litigation skill was required. Porzio's attorneys and paraprofessionals were used effectively and efficiently throughout the Final Application Period and benefited the Debtors, their estates, and parties in interest. Their qualifications and professional experience support the requested compensation.

D. Preclusion of Other Employment

29. Although Porzio's representation often involved time-critical matters requiring substantial efforts, the engagement did not materially preclude Porzio from accepting other engagements. When working on these Chapter 11 Cases, however, the professionals and paraprofessionals necessarily could not work on other matters.

E. Customary Fee

30. The rates charged by Porzio throughout the Final Application Period were reasonable and similar to rates charged by Porzio in other chapter 11 cases pending before bankruptcy courts in this and other districts.

F. Whether the Fee is Fixed or Contingent

31. The fees requested in this Final Application represent fees incurred on a fixed hourly-rate basis. Compensation is contingent upon the Court's final allowance of the requested fees, including final approval of amounts previously allowed on an interim basis.

G. Time Limitations

32. Porzio provided capable legal representation in good faith and in the best interests of the Committee within the time limitations imposed by the unique circumstances of these

Chapter 11 Cases, the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Bankruptcy Rules, the Procedures, and counsel for parties in interest.

H. Amounts Involved and Results Obtained

33. Porzio seeks final allowance of $239,277.50 in fees and $1,267.50 in expenses for the Final Application Period, including final approval of amounts previously allowed on an interim basis. Porzio played an active and constructive role in advancing these cases, including facilitating meaningful progress on duty drawback efforts and other potential recoveries; investigating potential claims against insiders and other parties; analyzing relevant transactions and potential causes of action; helping maximize value through the sale process; and participating in a global mediated deal that allowed the sale approved by the Sale Order to proceed.

I. Experience, Reputation and Ability of Counsel

34. As demonstrated in the Application to Employ, each of Porzio's attorneys who performed services possesses a reputation for skill, quality, integrity, and ability. Porzio's attorneys have represented numerous debtors, banks, creditors, bidders for estate assets, trustees, and official committees in large and sophisticated bankruptcy cases, including the matters addressed during the Final Application Period.

J. Undesirability of the Cases

35. These Chapter 11 Cases were not undesirable. The nature of the Committee's responsibilities nevertheless required counsel to address complex, contested, and time-sensitive issues throughout the case.

K. Nature and Length of the Professional Relationship

36. Porzio represented the Committee from January 6, 2026 through the Conversion Date of October 14, 2026.

L. Awards in Similar Cases

37. The fees and expenses for which Porzio seeks final allowance and reimbursement are not excessive and are substantially similar to or below the rates and awards in similar cases in this district for comparable services and results.

SECTION 504(B) COMPLIANCE

38. No agreement or understanding exists between Porzio and any third person for the sharing of compensation, except as allowed by section 504(b) and Bankruptcy Rule 2016 with respect to the sharing of compensation between and among the shareholders of Porzio.

39. All services for which compensation is requested hereunder were rendered at the request of, and solely on behalf of, the Committee and not on behalf of any other entity.

NOTICE

40. Notice of this Final Application will be provided in accordance with the Interim Compensation Order to the Notice Parties, the interim chapter 7 trustee appointed under the Conversion Order, Twelve Bridge Capital, LLC, and all parties requesting notice through the Court's CM/ECF system.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, Porzio respectfully requests that the Court enter an order, in substantially the form attached hereto: (a) allowing, on a final basis, fees in the amount of $239,277.50 and reimbursement of expenses in the amount of $1,267.50 for the Final Application Period; (b) approving on the final basis all amounts previously approved on an interim basis; (c) authorizing and directing the chapter 7 trustee to pay all unpaid amounts allowed under the Final Application, subject to the Carve Out and the terms of the Conversion Order; and (d) granting such other and further relief, both at law and in equity, as this Court deems just and proper.

Porzio has no agreement of any kind, express or implied, to divide with any person or entity any portion of the compensation sought or to be received by it in these Chapter 11 Cases.

V. REQUEST FOR INTERIM ALLOWANCE OF FEES AND EXPENSES

18. Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes the Court to award professional persons employed pursuant to section 327 reasonable compensation for actual and necessary services rendered and reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred. See 11 U.S.C. §§ 327 and 330. As more fully stated below, Porzio submits that the elements governing awards of compensation pursuant to sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code justify the allowance of the fees and expenses incurred in its representation of the Committee during the Application Period.

19. In 1974, the Fifth Circuit established a set of guidelines for use by lower courts when ruling on attorneys' fee requests. See Johnson v. Ga. Highway Express, Inc., 488 F.2d 714, 717-19 (5th Cir. 1974). The Johnson court found the following factors necessary to consider:

a. the time and labor required;
b. the novelty and difficulty of the questions presented;
c. the skill requisite to perform the legal services properly;
d. the preclusion of other employment due to the acceptance of the case;
e. the customary fee;
f. whether the fee is fixed or contingent;
g. time limitations imposed by the client with the circumstances of the case;
h. the amount involved and the results obtained;
i. the experience, reputation and ability of the attorney;
j. the undesirability of the case;
k. the nature and length of the professional relationship with the client; and
l. awards in similar cases.

Id.

20. In In re First Colonial Corporation of America, 544 F.2d 1291, 1298-99 (5th Cir. 1977), cert. denied, 431 U.S. 904 (1977), the Fifth Circuit applied the Johnson factors to the analysis of fee awards in bankruptcy cases.

21. As analyzed below, Porzio believes that the elements governing awards of compensation justify the allowance prayed for herein.

A. Time and Labor Required

22. As more specifically described in the Application, at total of 216.5 hours of professional services were rendered by Porzio on behalf of the Committee during the Application Period. Porzio respectfully submits that its time spent performing services for the Committee was reasonable.

23. Porzio's representation of the Committee has required it to balance the need to provide quality services with the need to act quickly and to represent the Committee in an effective, efficient, and timely manner. Porzio submits that the hours spent were reasonable given the size and complexity of these Chapter 11 Cases, the significant (and often times urgent) issues raised, and the numerous pleadings filed in these cases. All of the services performed were performed in good faith and necessary to assist the Committee in fulfilling its duties through these Chapter 11 Cases in an expeditious and efficient manner.

B. Novelty and Difficulty of Questions Presented

24. These Chapter 11 Cases involve a significant number of novel issues, especially regarding tariff and tax refunds, duty drawback, intellectual property, and industry specific issues. During these Chapter 11 Cases, Porzio provided assistance to the Committee and worked closely with the Debtors and DIP Lender on each of these issues, among others, in order to assist the Debtors with working toward a recovery for unsecured creditors and a successful sale process.

C. Skill Requisite to Perform the Legal Services Properly

25. Due to the nature and complexity of the legal issues presented in these cases, a high degree of legal skill related to bankruptcy law and other issues was required by Porzio in representing the Committee. These skills exceeded those of the average practitioner because they included, among others, finance, restructuring, and litigation skills. Porzio believes that its attorneys have been used effectively and efficiently to meet the requirements of the tasks assigned, and have benefited the Debtors, their estates, and parties in interest during the Application Period, as discussed above.

D. Preclusion of Other Employment

26. Although Porzio's representation of the Committee often involved matters that were time-critical and required substantial efforts, Porzio's representation of the Committee did not materially preclude Porzio from accepting other engagements. However, when working on these Chapter 11 Cases at any given time, Porzio's professionals and paraprofessionals necessarily could not be working on other matters.

E. Customary Fee

27. The rates charged by Porzio in these Chapter 11 Cases are similar to the rates charged by Porzio in other Chapter 11 Cases previously and currently pending before bankruptcy courts in this and other districts.

F. Whether the Fee is Fixed or Contingent

28. The fees requested in this Application represent fees incurred based upon a fixed hourly rate basis. As is true for counsel in every bankruptcy case, Porzio's compensation is contingent upon the Court's final allowance of all requested fees.

G. Time Limitations

29. Porzio provided capable legal representation in good faith and in the best interests of the Committee within the time limitations imposed under the unique circumstances of these Chapter 11 Cases, the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Bankruptcy Rules, and counsel for various parties in interest. During these Chapter 11 Cases, there were numerous instances in which it was necessary for Porzio to deliver services on very short notice and under significant time constraints.

H. Amounts Involved and Results Obtained

30. Porzio has requested a total amount of $146,295.00 for this Application. Porzio has played an active and constructive role in advancing these cases. In particular, Committee counsel has helped facilitate meaningful progress on the Debtors' duty drawback efforts, working with the Debtors and their advisors to identify, evaluate, and pursue potential recoveries. In addition, Committee counsel has conducted investigations into potential claims against insiders and other parties, including analyzing relevant transactions and assessing potential causes of action for the benefit of the estate. Committee counsel has also been actively involved in the disposition of estate assets, engaging with the Debtors, their advisors, and key stakeholders to help maximize value through the sale process and ensure that asset recoveries are optimized for the benefit of creditors. Committee counsel was ultimately instrumental in a global deal that allowed for the sale process to proceed.

I. Experience, Reputation and Ability of Counsel

31. As demonstrated in the Application to Employ, each of Porzio's attorneys who performed services possesses a reputation for skill, quality, integrity, and ability. Porzio's attorneys have represented numerous debtors, banks, creditors, bidders for estate assets, trustees, and official committees in some of the largest and most sophisticated bankruptcy cases in the country.

J. Undesirability of the Cases

32. These chapter 11 cases are not undesirable

K. Nature and Length of the Professional Relationship

33. Porzio has represented the Committee since its formation, and that relationship continues to date.

L. Awards in Similar Cases

34. The fees and expenses for which Porzio seeks compensation and reimbursement are not excessive and are substantially similar to or below the rates awarded in similar cases in this district for similar services rendered and results obtained.

VI. SECTION 504(B) COMPLIANCE

35. No agreement or understanding exists between Porzio and any third person for the sharing of compensation, except as allowed by section 504(b) and Bankruptcy Rule 2016 with respect to sharing of compensation between and amongst shareholders at Porzio.

36. All services for which compensation is requested hereunder were rendered at the request of and solely on behalf of the Committee and not on behalf of any other entity.

VII. NOTICE

37. Notice of this Application will be provided to the following parties: (a) the Debtors; (b) counsel to the Debtors; (c) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Southern District of Texas; (d) counsel to the DIP Lender; (e) counsel to all Secured Creditors, if any; and (f) all parties receiving ECF notice.

VIII. CONCLUSION

38. Porzio respectfully requests that the Court enter an order, in substantially the same form attached hereto: (a) approving fees in the amount of $146,295.00 and reimbursement of expenses in the amount of $0.00 for the Application Period; (b) directing payment of the unpaid portion of the compensation for services rendered and the reimbursement of expenses incurred by Porzio during the Application Period; and (c) granting such other and further relief, both at law and in equity, as this Court deems just and proper.

Porzio has no agreement of any kind, express or implied, to divide with any person or entity any portion of the compensation sought or to be received by it in these Chapter 11 Cases.

11. 12. On April 30, 2026, the Committee filed the First Interim Fee Application of Porzio, Bromberg & Newman P.C. as Attorneys for the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors [ECF No. 259] (the "First Interim Application"). Porzio reserves the right to make further application to the Court for allowance of such fees and expenses not included herein. Subsequent fee applications will be filed in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, the Procedures and the Interim Compensation Order.

V. REQUEST FOR INTERIM ALLOWANCE OF FEES AND EXPENSES

18. Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes the Court to award professional persons employed pursuant to section 327 reasonable compensation for actual and necessary services rendered and reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred. See 11 U.S.C.

§§ 327 and 330. As more fully stated below, Porzio submits that the elements governing awards of compensation pursuant to sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code justify the allowance of the fees and expenses incurred in its representation of the Committee during the Application Period.

19. In 1974, the Fifth Circuit established a set of guidelines for use by lower courts when ruling on attorneys' fee requests. See Johnson v. Ga. Highway Express, Inc., 488 F.2d 714, 717-19 (5th Cir. 1974). The Johnson court found the following factors necessary to consider:

a. the time and labor required;
b. the novelty and difficulty of the questions presented;
c. the skill requisite to perform the legal services properly;
d. the preclusion of other employment due to the acceptance of the case;
e. the customary fee;
f. whether the fee is fixed or contingent;
g. time limitations imposed by the client with the circumstances of the case;
h. the amount involved and the results obtained;
i. the experience, reputation and ability of the attorney;
j. the undesirability of the case;
k. the nature and length of the professional relationship with the client; and
l. awards in similar cases.

Id.

20. In In re First Colonial Corporation of America, 544 F.2d 1291, 1298-99 (5th Cir. 1977), cert. denied, 431 U.S. 904 (1977), the Fifth Circuit applied the Johnson factors to the analysis of fee awards in bankruptcy cases.

21. As analyzed below, Porzio believes that the elements governing awards of compensation justify the allowance prayed for herein.

A. Time and Labor Required

22. As more specifically described in the Application, at total of 96.4 hours of professional services were rendered by Porzio on behalf of the Committee during the Application Period. Porzio respectfully submits that its time spent performing services for the Committee was reasonable.

23. Porzio's representation of the Committee has required it to balance the need to provide quality services with the need to act quickly and to represent the Committee in an effective, efficient, and timely manner. Porzio submits that the hours spent were reasonable given the size and complexity of these Chapter 11 Cases, the significant (and often times urgent) issues raised, and the numerous pleadings filed in these cases. All of the services performed were performed in good faith and were necessary to assist the Committee in fulfilling its duties through these Chapter 11 Cases in an expeditious and efficient manner.

B. Novelty and Difficulty of Questions Presented

24. These Chapter 11 Cases involve a significant number of novel issues, especially regarding tariff and tax refunds, duty drawbacks, intellectual property, and industry specific issues. During these Chapter 11 Cases, Porzio provided assistance to the Committee and worked closely with the Debtors and DIP Lender on each of these issues, among others, in order to assist the Debtors with working toward a recovery for unsecured creditors and a successful sale process.

C. Skill Requisite to Perform the Legal Services Properly

25. Due to the nature and complexity of the legal issues presented in these cases, a high degree of legal skill related to bankruptcy law and other issues was required by Porzio in representing the Committee. These skills exceeded those of the average practitioner because they included, among others, finance, restructuring, and litigation skills. Porzio believes that its attorneys have been used effectively and efficiently to meet the requirements of the tasks assigned, and have benefited the Debtors, their estates, and parties in interest during the Application Period, as discussed above.

D. Preclusion of Other Employment

26. Although Porzio's representation of the Committee often involved matters that were time-critical and required substantial efforts, Porzio's representation of the Committee did not materially preclude Porzio from accepting other engagements. However, when working on these Chapter 11 Cases at any given time, Porzio's professionals and paraprofessionals necessarily could not be working on other matters.

E. Customary Fee

27. The rates charged by Porzio in these Chapter 11 Cases are similar to the rates charged by Porzio in other Chapter 11 Cases previously and currently pending before bankruptcy courts in this and other districts.

F. Whether the Fee is Fixed or Contingent

28. The fees requested in this Application represent fees incurred based upon a fixed hourly rate basis. As is true for counsel in every bankruptcy case, Porzio's compensation is contingent upon the Court's final allowance of all requested fees.

G. Time Limitations

29. Porzio provided capable legal representation in good faith and in the best interests of the Committee within the time limitations imposed under the unique circumstances of these Chapter 11 Cases, the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Bankruptcy Rules, and counsel for various parties in interest. During these Chapter 11 Cases, there were numerous instances in which it was necessary for Porzio to deliver services on very short notice and under significant time constraints.

H. Amounts Involved and Results Obtained

30. Porzio has requested a total amount of $72,500.00 in this Application. Porzio has played an active and constructive role in advancing these cases. In particular, Committee counsel has helped facilitate meaningful progress on the Debtors' duty drawback efforts, working with the Debtors and their advisors to identify, evaluate, and pursue potential recoveries. In addition, Committee counsel has conducted investigations into potential claims against insiders and other parties, including analyzing relevant transactions and assessing potential causes of action for the benefit of the estate. Committee counsel has also been actively involved in the disposition of estate assets, engaging with the Debtors, their advisors, and key stakeholders to help maximize value through the sale process and ensure that asset recoveries are optimized for the benefit of creditors. Committee counsel was ultimately instrumental in a global deal that allowed for the sale process to proceed.

I. Experience, Reputation and Ability of Counsel

31. As demonstrated in the Application to Employ, each of Porzio's attorneys who performed services possesses a reputation for skill, quality, integrity, and ability. Porzio's attorneys have represented numerous debtors, banks, creditors, bidders for estate assets, trustees, and official committees in some of the largest and most sophisticated bankruptcy cases in the country.

J. Undesirability of the Cases

32. These chapter 11 cases are not undesirable.

K. Nature and Length of the Professional Relationship

33. Porzio has represented the Committee since its formation, and that relationship continues to date.

L. Awards in Similar Cases

34. The fees and expenses for which Porzio seeks compensation and reimbursement are not excessive and are substantially similar to or below the rates awarded in similar cases in this district for similar services rendered and results obtained.

VI. SECTION 504(B) COMPLIANCE

35. No agreement or understanding exists between Porzio and any third person for the sharing of compensation, except as allowed by section 504(b) and Bankruptcy Rule 2016 with respect to sharing of compensation between and amongst shareholders at Porzio.

36. All services for which compensation is requested hereunder were rendered at the request of, and solely on behalf of, the Committee and not on behalf of any other entity.

VII. NOTICE

37. Notice of this Application will be provided in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Interim Compensation Order

VIII. CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, Porzio respectfully requests that the Court enter an order, in substantially the same form attached hereto: (a) approving fees in the amount of $72,487.50 and reimbursement of expenses in the amount of $12.50 for the Application Period; (b) directing payment of the unpaid portion of the compensation for services rendered and the reimbursement of expenses incurred by Porzio during the Application Period; and (c) granting such other and further relief, both at law and in equity, as this Court deems just and proper.
