IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Motion is GRANTED on a final basis as set forth in this Final Order.

2. The Debtor is authorized to continue operating the Cash Management System, honor its prepetition obligations related thereto, including, but not limited to, all obligations related to the Bank Fees, and maintain its existing Business Forms.

3. Subject to the other provisions of this Final Order, the Debtor is authorized to: (a) continue to use, with the same account numbers, the Bank Accounts in existence as of the Petition Date without the need to comply with certain guidelines relating to bank accounts set forth in the U.S. Trustee Guidelines; (b) treat the Bank Accounts for all purposes as accounts of the Debtor as debtor in possession; (c) deposit funds in and withdraw funds from the Bank Accounts by all usual means, including checks, wire transfers, and other debits; and (d) otherwise perform its obligations under the documents governing the Bank Accounts. The Debtor is authorized, but not directed, to pay the Bank in the ordinary course of business for any prepetition or postpetition Bank Fees or other fees, costs, charges, and expenses.

4. The Debtor is authorized, but not directed, to continue using, in their present form, the Business Forms existing immediately before the Petition Date, without reference to the Debtor's status as a debtor in possession; provided, however, that if the Debtor exhausts its existing stock of checks before a plan is confirmed in the Chapter 11 Case or the Chapter 11 Case is dismissed or converted, any new checks shall be clearly labeled "Debtor in Possession" and reference the corresponding case number.

5. The requirements of LBR 2015-2 and the U.S. Trustee Guidelines are waived to the extent necessary for the Debtor to continue to use the Bank Accounts and the Cash Management System as they existed on the Petition Date and to continue using the Business Forms as set forth herein.

6. The requirements of § 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code are waived to the extent applicable to any of the Bank Accounts.

7. The Bank is authorized to continue to maintain, service, and administer the Bank Accounts as accounts of the Debtor as debtor in possession, without interruption and in the ordinary course, and to receive, process, honor, and pay, to the extent of available funds, any and all checks, drafts, wires, and ACH transfers issued and drawn on the Bank Accounts after the Petition Date by the holders or makers thereof, as the case may be.

8. Immediately upon entry of this Final Order, the Bank is authorized, but not obligated, without further order of this Court, to recommence any automatic transfers between the Bank Accounts that are part of the Cash Management System, without regard to whether the funds transferred include funds deposited before the Petition Date.

9. The Debtor and the Bank may, without further order of this Court, agree to and implement changes to the Cash Management System and procedures related thereto in the ordinary course of business, including, without limitation, the opening of any new bank accounts and the closing of any existing Bank Accounts. The Debtor is authorized, in the ordinary course of business, to enter into any ancillary agreements related to the foregoing as it may deem necessary and appropriate.

10. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Final Order, (a) the Debtor shall continue to direct the Bank to designate each of the Bank Accounts at the Bank as a "Debtor in Possession" account, subject to the terms and conditions of the Bank's authorized depository agreement with the U.S. Trustee; and (b) any new bank account opened by the Debtor after the date hereof shall be a debtor in possession account established at a bank that is an authorized depository for the Eastern District of California.

11. The relief granted in this Final Order is extended to any new bank account opened by the Debtor in the ordinary course of business after the date hereof, in accordance with paragraphs 9 and 10 above, which account shall be deemed a Bank Account, and to the authorized depository at which such account is opened, which depository shall be deemed the Bank for purposes of this Final Order.

12. The Bank shall not honor or pay any payment drawn on the Bank Accounts or otherwise issued before the Petition Date for which the Debtor specifically issues a stop payment order in accordance with the documents governing the Bank Accounts.

13. The Bank is authorized, but not directed, to debit the Debtor's accounts in the ordinary course of business without further order of this Court for all checks or other items deposited in a Bank Account before the Petition Date that have been dishonored or returned unpaid for any reason, together with any fees and costs in connection therewith, to the same extent the Debtor was responsible for such items before the Petition Date.

14. The Bank is authorized, but not directed, to receive, process, honor, and pay all checks and electronic payment requests drawn on the Bank Accounts in payment of prepetition obligations approved herein when presented for payment, and is authorized, but not obligated, to rely on the Debtor's representations as to whether any such check or payment request should be honored, without any duty of further inquiry and without liability for following the Debtor's instructions or relying on such representations. For the avoidance of doubt, any instrument issued by the Debtor before the Petition Date shall be deemed paid before the Petition Date even if not debited from a Bank Account until after the Petition Date.

15. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Final Order, the Bank may rely upon the representations of the Debtor as to whether any check, draft, wire, or other transfer drawn or issued by the Debtor before the Petition Date should be honored pursuant to any order of this Court, and the Bank shall not be liable to the Debtor, its estate, or any other party on account of any prepetition check or other item honored postpetition: (a) at the direction of the Debtor; (b) in a good-faith belief that this Court has authorized such item to be honored; or (c) as a result of a mistake made despite implementation of customary handling procedures, nor shall any such action be deemed a violation of this Final Order. The Bank may rely, without a duty of inquiry, on the Debtor's failure to issue a stop payment order with respect to any item, whether issued prepetition or postpetition, as direction from the Debtor that such item be paid.

16. The Bank is further authorized to honor the Debtor's directions with respect to the opening and closing of any Bank Account and to accept, hold, or invest the Debtor's funds in accordance with the Debtor's instructions, and the Bank shall not have any liability to any party for relying on such directions.

17. To the extent any other order is entered by the Court authorizing and/or directing the Bank to honor checks, drafts, ACH transfers, or other electronic funds transfers or any other withdrawals made, drawn, or issued in payment of prepetition claims, the obligations to honor such items shall be subject to this Final Order.

18. Nothing contained in the Motion or this Final Order shall be construed to (a) create or perfect, in favor of any person or entity, any interest in cash of the Debtor that did not exist as of the Petition Date, or (b) alter or impair the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any security interest or lien, in favor of any person or entity, that existed as of the Petition Date.

19. The Debtor is authorized, but not directed, to issue postpetition checks, or to effect postpetition fund transfer requests, in replacement of any checks or fund transfer requests that are dishonored as a consequence of the Chapter 11 Case with respect to prepetition amounts owed in connection with the relief granted herein.

20. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), the terms and conditions of this Final Order are immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

21. The Debtor is authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted in this Final Order.

22. This Court retains exclusive jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Final Order.
