HUNTER MOUNTAIN INVESTMENT TRUST, Plaintiff, v. JAMES D. Adv. Pro. Plaintiff Hunter Mountain Investment Trust ("HMIT") files this Second Unopposed Motion for Extension of Time ("Motion"), and would show as follows:

1. During the status conference conducted by the Court on May 6, 2026 ("Status Conference"), the Court instructed HMIT to file an amended complaint within two weeks following a ruling on Dugaboy's Motion for Relief from Order and Motion to Vacate [Bk. Doc. 4513] ("Motion to Vacate"). See Transcript of Status Conference Proceedings Held on May 6, 2026 [Doc. 47] ("Transcript"), 54:3-15. The Court also requested that the parties confer and submit, within the same two-week timeframe, a new proposed scheduling order[1] and an agreed order withdrawing the reference of this case from the Bankruptcy Court. See Transcript, 55:9-56:17.

2. The Court then entered a stay pending a ruling on the Motion to Vacate [Order, Doc. 44], and granted an extension to file the documents discussed during the Status Conference until two weeks after the stay was lifted [Order, Doc. 50]. The Court ultimately lifted the stay on July 15, 2026 [Order, Doc. 53].

3. The parties have now filed a proposed Agreed Order Withdrawing Reference [Doc. 55] per the Court's instructions. However, due to the complexity of the issues and number of parties involved in this case, HMIT needs a brief extension of time to finalize its amended complaint.

4. Defendants James D. Dondero, Scott Ellington, Isaac Leventon, Grant James Scott III, Strand Advisors, Inc., NexPoint Advisors, L.P., Highland Capital Management Fund Advisors, L.P., Dugaboy Investment Trust, and the Get Good Trust (collectively, "Defendants") do not oppose a one-week extension of the deadline for HMIT to file an amended complaint, provided that the deadline for the parties to submit proposed scheduling orders is also extended until one day after the amended complaint is filed so Defendants may evaluate the amended complaint when preparing their proposed scheduling order.

5. As a result, HMIT respectfully requests that the Court extend HMIT's deadline to file an amended complaint by one-week, and that the Court extend the parties' deadline to file proposed scheduling orders by one-week and one day.

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff Hunter Mountain Investment Trust respectfully requests the Court grant this Motion, extend the deadline to file an amended complaint to August 5, 2026, extend the deadline to submit proposed scheduling orders to August 6, 2026, and grant HMIT all such other and further relief to which it may be entitled.

Respectfully submitted,
