Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45(c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)
(made applicable in bankruptcy cases by Rule 9016, Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure)

(c) Place of compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

(A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or

(B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person

(i) is a party or a party's officer; or

(ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

(A) production of documents, or electronically stored information, or things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and

(B) inspection of premises, at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction — which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees — on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

(i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.

(ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

(i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;

(ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

(i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

(i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and

(ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

(i) expressly make the claim; and

(ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt. The court for the district where compliance is required – and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court – may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

For access to subpoena materials, see Fed. R. Civ. P. 45(a) Committee Note (2013)

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Each of the requests for production (each one a "Request" and collectively, the "Requests") stated herein shall be deemed continuing so as to require further and supplemental production in the event that DLA Piper obtains or discovers additional information or documents covered by these Requests after the time of its initial response up to the final conclusion of this matter. If at any time any information is obtained or discovered in addition to what has previously been produced, DLA Piper shall promptly supplement its responses to these Requests and produce the newly discovered information.

2. In construing these Requests, the singular shall include the plural and the plural shall include the singular so as to make the response inclusive rather than exclusive.

3. Specify which documents are produced in response to each of the numbered paragraphs. If no documents exist in response to a numbered Request, state so in writing.

4. Each of the Requests seeks production of documents in their entirety, including all attachments and exhibits.

5. A Request for documents shall be deemed a request for any or all transmittal sheets, cover letters, exhibits, enclosures, or attachments to the documents, in addition to the document itself, without abbreviation or expurgation.

6. Please produce documents responsive to the Requests in single-page TIFF format with a corresponding load file. If a document has been converted from native format to TIFF format, please include all metadata and document text from the original native file, including but not limited to the following fields (to the extent available): Beginning Bates Number; Ending Bates Number; Beginning Attachment Bates Number; Ending Attachment Bates Number; Document Type, Custodian, Page Count, Attachment Count, Document Date (MM/DD/YYYY); Author, Recipient; CC; BCC; Subject; Body; Full Text; Date Sent; Date Created; Date Modified; Date Received; and Date Delivered. If a document original was in hard copy format, and has been converted to TIFF, please include in the load file any bibliographical coding and optical character recognition (OCR) data. Please produce any Excel spreadsheets in both TIFF and native format.

7. If DLA Piper cannot respond to any of the following Requests fully and completely after exercising reasonable efforts and due diligence to secure any information requested, DLA Piper shall respond to each such Request to the fullest extent possible, shall specify the portion of such Request that DLA Piper claims it is unable to answer fully and completely, shall state the facts on which DLA Piper relied to support the assertion that it is unable to answer that Request fully and completely, and shall state what knowledge, information, or belief DLA Piper has concerning the unanswered portion of each such Request.

8. If any document is withheld from production for any reason, furnish a list specifying, for each document: (i) the reason for which it is being withheld; (ii) its character (letter, memorandum, etc.); (iii) the name, position, and business affiliation of its author or authors; (iv) the name, position, and business affiliation of each recipient of the document or a copy thereof; (v) the date on which it was written; (vi) its general subject matter; (vii) the specific Request to which it is responsive; (viii) its present location and custodian; and (ix) if any Request calls for a document or non-written communication which DLA Piper claims to be privileged, identify the nature of the privilege.

9. If any document that relates to this matter has been destroyed, please provide the following information: (i) the place, date (or approximate date), and manner of recording or otherwise preparing of the document; (ii) the name and title of the sender, and the name and title of the recipient of the document; (iii) a summary of the contents of the document; (iv) the identity of each Person or Persons (other than stenographic or as clerical assistance) participating in the preparation of the document; (vi) the date on which it was destroyed; (vii) the reason it was destroyed; and (viii) whether the claimed destruction occurred as a result of any policy regarding the destruction of documents. If so, describe and provide a copy of the policy.

10. If any document that relates to this matter is no longer in DLA Piper's possession because it has been returned to an individual or entity, please provide the following information: (i) the place, date (or approximate date), and manner of recording or otherwise preparing of the document; (ii) the name and title of the sender, and the name and title of the recipient of the document; (iii) a summary of the contents of the document; (iv) the identity of each Person or Persons (other than stenographic or clerical assistance) participating in the preparation of the document; (v) the identities of all Persons having knowledge of the substance of the document; (vi) the date on which it was returned; (vii) the reason it was returned; and (viii) whether the claimed return occurred as a result of any policy relied upon by DLA Piper. If so, describe and provide a copy of the policy.

11. All documents should be produced, as closely as possible, in the manner and order in which they are kept. Specifically, each set of responsive documents held by a particular employee or representative thereof should be identified as being from that particular Person's or office's files. Further, all file folders, dividers, and other containers for such documents should be copied so that we may understand who keeps the documents produced, where they are kept, and how they are organized. Documents attached to each other or contained in a file, folder, or similar binder should not be separated.

12. Requests for all documents concerning a particular document or subject includes, without limitation, all Communications relating to that document or subject.

13. Except as otherwise stated, the relevant time period for the Requests is January 1, 2022 through the present.

14. For the avoidance of doubt, Requests without limitation include any and all Documents and Communications (a) with Parkview from and after October 21, 2025, and (b) with CSC from and after January 1, 2022.

REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION

1. Any and all Documents and Communications relating to or concerning whether the Ground Lease is a true lease or a disguised financing.

2. Any and all Documents and Communications relating to or concerning the impetus for or reason to seek to recharacterize the Ground Lease.

3. Any and all Documents and Communications relating to or concerning the Ground Lease or the Fourth Amendment. The relevant time period for this Request is September 1, 2023 to March 30, 2024.

4. Any and all Documents and Communications relating to or concerning whether Debtors received reasonably equivalent value under the Fourth Amendment.

5. All Documents and Communications relating to or concerning the solvency or capitalization of the Debtors at the time that the Fourth Amendment was executed or as a result of the Fourth Amendment.

6. All Documents and Communications with Parkview relating to or concerning the Property between October 21, 2025 and the present.

7. All Documents and Communications with Parkview relating to or concerning the Ground Lease between October 21, 2025 and the present.
