The Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall reduce a Claim, and such Claim shall be Disallowed without an objection having to be filed and without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court, to the extent that the holder of such Claim receives payment (before or after the Effective Date) on account of such Claim from a party that is not a Debtor or Reorganized Debtor; provided, however, if such holder is required to repay all or any portion of a Claim (either by contract or by order of a court of competent jurisdiction) to the party that is not a Debtor or Reorganized Debtor, and such holder in fact repays all or a portion of the Claim to such third party, the repaid amount of such Claim shall not be Disallowed on such basis and shall remain subject to the applicable treatment set forth in the Modified Second Amended Plan and the respective rights and defenses of the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, and the holder of such Claim. To the extent a holder of a Claim receives a distribution on account of such Claim under the Modified Second Amended Plan and receives payment from a party that is not a Debtor or the Reorganized Debtor on account of such Claim, such holder shall, within 10 days of receipt thereof, repay or return the distribution to the applicable Debtor or Reorganized Debtor, to the extent the holder's total recovery on account of such Claim from the third party and under the Modified Second Amended Plan exceeds the amount of such Claim as of the date of any such distribution under the Modified Second Amended Plan. The failure of such holder to timely repay or return such distribution shall result in the holder owing the applicable Reorganized Debtor annualized interest at the federal judgment rate, as in effect as of the Petition Date, on such amount owed for each Business Day after the 10-day grace period specified above until the amount is repaid.

b. Claims Payable by Third Parties

No distributions under the Modified Second Amended Plan shall be made on account of an Allowed Claim that is payable pursuant to any Debtor's Insurance Policies until the holder of such Allowed Claim has exhausted all remedies with respect to such Insurance Policy; provided that if such holder is required to repay all or any portion of a Claim (either by contract or by order of a court of competent jurisdiction) to an Insurer, and such holder in fact repays all or a portion of the Claim to such Insurer, the repaid amount of such Claim shall remain subject to the applicable treatment set forth in the Modified Second Amended Plan and the respective rights and defenses of the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, the holder of such Claim, and, if applicable, the Insurers. The Insurers reserve all rights to defend and contest applicable causes of action or demands to the extent that they are brought against the Insurers, or to the extent that such causes of action or demands seek recovery from the Insurers. To the extent that one or more of the Debtors' Insurers, in its role as an Insurer (but not in any role as the issuer of surety bonds or similar instruments or as a guarantor of payment), agree to pay a Claim in full or in part (if and to the extent adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction or otherwise settled), then immediately upon such Insurers' payment thereof, the applicable portion of such Claim may be expunged without an objection having to be filed and without any further notice to or action, order or approval of the Bankruptcy Court. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in Article VI.E.2 of the Modified Second Amended Plan is intended to alter the terms set forth in Article V of the Modified Second Amended Plan.

c. Applicability of Insurance Policies

Except as otherwise provided in the Modified Second Amended Plan, distributions to holders of Claims covered by Insurance Policies shall be in accordance with the provisions of any applicable Insurance Policy. Except as otherwise expressly set forth in the Modified Second Amended Plan, nothing in the Modified Second Amended Plan shall constitute or be deemed a waiver of any Cause of Action that the Debtors or any Entity, including any holders of Claims, may hold against any other Entity under any Insurance Policy, including against Insurers or any insured, nor shall anything contained in the Modified Second Amended Plan constitute or be deemed a waiver by such Insurers of any rights or defenses, including coverage defenses, held by such Insurers.

G. 11 U.S.C. § 1111(b) Election

The Ballots for the 1L Notes Claims and 2026 Notes Claims include an option for electing application of section 1111(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code for such Claims (an "1111(b) Election"), which elections must be submitted on or prior to the Voting Deadline. Except as otherwise provided in section 1111(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, an 1111(b) Election can be made to a Class if at least two-thirds in amount and more than half in number of Allowed Claims within such Class elect application of section 1111(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Plan does not provide for alternative treatment of the 1L Notes Claims or the 2026 Notes Claims if the requisite amount and number of 1L Notes Claims or 2026 Notes Claims, as applicable, makes an 1111(b) Election. The Debtors, the First Lien Noteholder Group, and the 2024/2026 Noteholder Group reserve all rights with respect to whether an 1111(b) Election is applicable under the Plan and whether the proposed treatment of 1L Notes Claims or 2026 Notes Claims complies with section 1111(b) and/or other applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code in the event the requisite amount and number of 1L Notes Claims and/or 2026 Notes Claims make an 1111(b) Election.

H. ~~G.~~ General Unsecured Claims Observer

With the consent of the Debtors and the Required Secured Noteholders (in each case, not to be unreasonably withheld), the Committee may appoint, as of the Effective Date, a General Unsecured Claims Observer with duties limited to monitoring the Reorganized Debtors with respect to the Allowance of General Unsecured Claims and General Unsecured Convenience Claims. The General Unsecured Claims Observer shall have standing to appear before the Bankruptcy Court with respect to matters arising out of or related to reconciliation, Allowance, and settlement of any General Unsecured Claims or General Unsecured Convenience Claims, as well as to assert an objection thereto on any grounds (including that any Claim should not be Allowed or should be Allowed in a reduced amount).

The Reorganized Debtors shall consult with the General Unsecured Claims Observer with respect to the Allowance of General Unsecured Claims and General Unsecured Convenience Claims.

The General Unsecured Claims Observer may employ, without further order of the Bankruptcy Court, professionals to assist in carrying out the duties as limited above, and the General Unsecured Claims Observer Costs, including reasonable and documented professional fees and expenses, shall be reimbursed by the Reorganized Debtors in the ordinary course of business in an aggregate amount not to exceed $125,000 as soon as reasonably practicable after invoiced.

Upon the resignation or removal of the General Unsecured Claims Observer, the outgoing General Unsecured Claims Observer may appoint a successor General Unsecured Claims Observer with the consent of the Reorganized Debtors (not to be unreasonably withheld) and approval of the Bankruptcy Court; provided, that in the event of the death of the General Unsecured Claims Observer, the successor General Unsecured Claims Observer shall be appointed by the Reorganized Debtors with approval of the Bankruptcy Court. Upon the resolution of all General Unsecured Claims and General Unsecured Convenience Claims, the General Unsecured Claims Observer shall be released and discharged of and from further authority, duties, responsibilities, and obligations relating to and arising from and in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases.

The Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors on the one hand, and the Committee and the General Unsecured Claims Observer on the other hand, shall engage in good faith discussions of reasonable limitations on the rights and duties of the General Unsecured Claims Observer, including the range of de minimis General Unsecured Convenience Claims that the Reorganized Debtors may agree to Allow without oversight of the General Unsecured Claims Observer, and may agree to such limitations without further notice or order of the Bankruptcy Court.

I. ~~H.~~ Claim Resolution Procedures Cumulative

All of the aforementioned objection, estimation, and resolution procedures are cumulative and not exclusive of one another. Disputed Claims may be estimated and subsequently compromised, settled, withdrawn, or resolved by any mechanism approved by the Bankruptcy Court.

J. ~~I.~~ Distributions

1. The Disbursing Agent and Servicers

a. Powers and Roles

All distributions under the Modified Second Amended Plan shall be made by the Disbursing Agent on the Effective Date (or, if a Claim is not an Allowed Claim on the Effective Date, on the next Interim Distribution Date) or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter. Where Allowed Claims that are governed by a separate agreement and administered by a Servicer, the Disbursing Agent and the Reorganized Debtors, together with the applicable Servicer, shall use commercially reasonable efforts to implement distributions in accordance with the Modified Second Amended Plan and with the applicable agreements.

Without further order of the Bankruptcy Court, the Disbursing Agent and, where applicable, the Servicers, shall be empowered to: (a) effect all actions and execute all agreements, instruments, and other documents necessary to perform its duties under the Modified Second Amended Plan; (b) make all distributions contemplated hereby; (c) employ professionals and incur reasonable fees and expenses to represent it with respect to such responsibilities; and (d) exercise such other powers as may be vested in them by order of the Bankruptcy Court, pursuant to the Modified Second Amended Plan, or as deemed by the Disbursing Agent to be necessary and proper to implement the Modified Second Amended Plan.

If the Disbursing Agent is one or more of the Reorganized Debtors, the Disbursing Agent shall not be required to give any bond or surety or other security for the performance of its duties unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court. The Servicers shall not be required to give any bond or surety or other security for the performance of its duties unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court.

b. Expenses

Except as otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court, the amount of any reasonable fees and documented expenses incurred by the Disbursing Agent or the Servicers on or after the Effective Date (including the reasonable and documented fees and expenses of counsel) in connection with making distributions shall be paid by the Reorganized Debtors, without duplication of payments of Restructuring Expenses or Retained Professional Fees. Additionally, in the event that the Disbursing Agent is ordered or required to give a bond or surety, all costs and expenses of procuring any such bond or surety shall be borne by the Reorganized Debtors.

2. Delivery Procedures

a. Record Date

Except as otherwise provided in the Modified Second Amended Plan or prior Bankruptcy Court order, the Disbursing Agent shall make distributions to holders of Allowed Claims as of the Distribution Record Date at the address for each such holder as indicated in the Debtors' records as of the date of any such distribution.

The manner of such distributions shall be determined at the discretion of the Reorganized Debtors. In addition, with respect to payment of any Cure Claim or disputes over any Cure Claim, neither the Debtors nor the Disbursing Agent shall have any obligation to recognize or deal with any party other than the non-Debtor party to the applicable Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease as of the Effective Date, even if such non-Debtor party has sold, assigned, or otherwise transferred its Cure Claim. For avoidance of doubt, the Distribution Record Date shall not apply to beneficial holders of securities customarily filed with DTC, who shall receive a distribution in accordance with the terms of ~~this~~ Article VII of the Modified Second Amended Plan and, as applicable, the customary procedures of DTC on or as soon as practicable after the Effective Date.

All distributions to holders on account of Allowed (a) 1L Notes Claims, (b) 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims, (c) 2026 Notes Claims, (d) 2027 Unsecured Notes Claims, and (e) ABL Facility Claims shall be deemed completed when made to or at the direction of the Prepetition Agent for the applicable Prepetition Debt Document under which the relevant Allowed Claims arose, which shall be deemed to be the holder of such Claims for purposes of distributions to be made under the Modified Second Amended Plan; provided that the distributions to holders of 1L Notes Claims in respect of the New Money Notes, 2026 Notes Claims, and 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims shall be subject to the Appellate Adjustment Mechanism. The Prepetition Agents shall hold or direct such distributions for the benefit of the holders of the foregoing Allowed Claims, in each case to the extent that the Prepetition Agent is the Prepetition Agent for the applicable Prepetition Debt Document under which the applicable Allowed Claims arose. As applicable, such Prepetition Agent may transfer or direct the transfer of such distributions directly through the facilities of DTC (whether by means of book-entry exchange, free delivery, or otherwise) and will be entitled to recognize and deal for all purposes under the Modified Second Amended Plan with applicable holders of the foregoing Allowed Claims, in a manner consistent with the customary practices of DTC. The Prepetition Agents shall not incur any liability whatsoever on account of any distributions under the Modified Second Amended Plan except for gross negligence or willful misconduct. If the Prepetition Agents are unable to make, or consent to the Reorganized Debtors making, such distributions, the Reorganized Debtors or an authorized Disbursing Agent, with the applicable Prepetition Agent's cooperation, shall make such distribution. The Prepetition Agents for the 1L Notes, the 2024 Unsecured Notes, the 2026 Notes and the 2027 Unsecured Notes shall have no duties, obligations, or responsibilities with respect to any form of distribution to holders of the foregoing Allowed Claims that is not DTC-eligible, and the Reorganized Debtors shall make such distributions. For the avoidance of doubt, all distributions referenced in this paragraph shall be subject to any charging liens exercised by the Prepetition Agents.

b. Interim Distribution Date

Except as otherwise provided in the Modified Second Amended Plan or prior Bankruptcy Court order, the Disbursing Agent shall make additional interim distributions to holders of Allowed Claims that were not considered Allowed as of Distribution Record Date.

The Reorganized Debtors shall have reasonable discretion to determine the timing of these Interim Distribution Dates based on among other things, resolutions of Disputed Claims and the administrative costs of such a distribution. The manner of such distributions shall be determined at the reasonable discretion of the Reorganized Debtors.

c. Publicly Held Securities

The Distribution Record Dates shall not apply to publicly held securities deposited with DTC and, in connection with any distribution under the Modified Second Amended Plan to be effected through the facilities of DTC (whether by means of book-entry exchange, free delivery, or otherwise), the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall be entitled to recognize and deal for all purposes under the Modified Second Amended Plan with holders of Claims in each Class to the extent consistent with the customary practices of DTC used in connection with such distributions.

d. Distributions of New Common Equity

Any distribution of New Common Equity shall be conditioned on the submission to the Debtors or their designated agent of an executed Equity Registration Form and signature page to the New LLC Agreement. If a holder of Allowed Claims entitled to a distribution of New Common Equity has not delivered a validly executed Equity Registration Form and signature page to the New LLC Agreement to the Debtors or their designated agent by the Effective Date, any distribution of New Common Equity to which such holder would be entitled under the Modified Second Amended Plan shall be held in escrow by the Reorganized Debtors, notwithstanding any state or other escheat or similar laws to the contrary. If such holder has not delivered a validly executed Equity Registration Form and signature page to the New LLC Agreement to the Debtors or their designated agent within 180 days after the Effective Date, the entitlement of such holder to such distribution on account of such holder's Claims shall be extinguished and forever barred. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Debtors (with the consent of the Required Secured Noteholders) or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, may determine to waive compliance with the foregoing with respect to any distributions of New Common Equity settled pursuant to the facilities of DTC in accordance with Article VII.F of the Modified Second Amended Plan; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, each DTC Holder shall be deemed to be a party to (and in privity of contract with the other parties to) the New LLC Agreement as a "beneficial owner" and bound thereby, in each case, regardless of execution thereof by such DTC Holder, in accordance with Article IV.C.4 of the Modified Second Amended Plan.

e. Undeliverable Distributions and Unclaimed Property

In the event that any distribution to any holder is undeliverable for any reason (including an undeliverable address or the recipient's failure to provide necessary information), no distribution to such holder shall be made unless and until the holder has cured the reason that its distribution was undeliverable, after which its distribution shall be made on the next Interim Distribution Date without interest; provided, however, that any undeliverable distribution shall be deemed unclaimed property under section 347(b) of the Bankruptcy Code at the expiration of 180 calendar days after the date on which such distribution was first attempted to be made, as determined in good faith by Reorganized Incora; provided, further, that the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall use reasonable efforts to locate a holder if any distribution is returned as undeliverable. After such date, all unclaimed property or interests in property shall revert to the Reorganized Debtors automatically and without need for a further order by the Bankruptcy Court (notwithstanding any applicable federal, provincial, state or other jurisdiction escheat, abandonment, or unclaimed property laws to the contrary), and, to the extent such undeliverable distribution is comprised of New Common Equity, such New Common Equity shall be canceled. The claim of any holder to such property or interest in property shall be discharged and forever barred.

Checks issued on account of Allowed Claims shall be null and void if not negotiated within 180 calendar days from and after the date of issuance thereof. Requests for reissuance of any check must be made directly and in writing to the Disbursing Agent by the holder of the relevant Allowed Claim within the 180-calendar-day period. After such date, the relevant Allowed Claim (and any Claim for reissuance of the original check) shall be automatically discharged and forever barred, and such funds shall revert to the Reorganized Debtors (notwithstanding any applicable federal, state, other U.S. or non-U.S. jurisdiction's escheat, abandoned, or unclaimed property laws to the contrary).

A distribution shall be deemed unclaimed if a holder has not: (x) accepted a particular distribution or, in the case of distributions made by check, negotiated such check; (y) responded to the Debtors' or Reorganized Debtors' requests for information necessary to facilitate a particular distribution; or (z) taken any other action necessary to facilitate such distribution.

The Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, and the Disbursing Agents, as applicable, shall not incur any liability whatsoever on account of any distributions under the Modified Second Amended Plan, except in the event of actual fraud, gross negligence, or willful misconduct, as determined by a Final Order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

f. Manner of Payment

At the option of the Disbursing Agent, any Cash payment to be made hereunder may be made by check, wire transfer, automated clearing house, or credit card, or as otherwise required or provided in applicable agreements.

3. Calculation

a. Full Amount Payable

Unless otherwise provided in the Modified Second Amended Plan or paid pursuant to a prior Bankruptcy Court order, on the Effective Date (or, if a Claim is not an Allowed Claim on the Effective Date, then on the date that such Claim becomes Allowed or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter), each holder of an Allowed Claim or Allowed Interest shall receive the full amount of the distributions that the Modified Second Amended Plan provides for Allowed Claims or Allowed Interests in the applicable Class. Distributions on account of any Disputed Claims (which will only be made if and when they become Allowed Claims) shall be made pursuant to the provisions set forth in Article VII. If any payment or act under the Modified Second Amended Plan is required to be made or performed on or by a date that is not a Business Day, then the making of such payment or the performance of such act may be completed on the next succeeding Business Day. Distributions on account of Claims in unimpaired Classes that are asserted in non-U.S. currency may, at the Debtors' discretion, be paid in the applicable non-U.S. currency. Distributions on account of Claims in all other Classes shall be converted to the equivalent U.S. dollar value using the exchange rate for the applicable currency as published in The Wall Street Journal, National Edition, on the Petition Date.

b. Distributions on Account of Obligations of Multiple Debtors

For all purposes associated with distributions under the Modified Second Amended Plan, each Claim that has been asserted against multiple Debtors will be treated as a single Claim and shall result in a single distribution under the Modified Second Amended Plan.

c. Minimum Distributions

No fractional New Common Equity shall be distributed to a holder of an Allowed Claim on account of its Allowed Claim. When any distribution pursuant to the Modified Second Amended Plan would otherwise result in the issuance of a number of shares (or LLC interests or other such units) of New Common Equity that is not a whole number, the actual distribution of such New Common Equity shall be rounded as follows: (a) fractions of greater than one-half (½) units of New Common Equity shall be rounded to the next higher whole number and (b) fractions of one-half (½) or less of New Common Equity shall be rounded to the next lower whole number with no further payment on their account. The total number of authorized units of New Common Equity to be distributed to holders of Allowed Claims may be adjusted as necessary to account for the foregoing rounding.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Modified Second Amended Plan, no Cash payment valued at less than $50.00, in the reasonable discretion of the Disbursing Agent and the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors (as applicable), shall be made to a holder of an Allowed Claim on account of such Allowed Claim. Such Allowed Claims to which this limitation applies shall be discharged and its holder forever barred from asserting that Claim against the Reorganized Debtors or their property.

d. Setoff and Recoupment

The Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors may, but shall not be required to, set off against any Claim or Interest (for purposes of determining the Allowed amount of such Claim or Interest on which distribution shall be made), any claims of any nature whatsoever that the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors may have against the holder of such Claim or Interest that have not been otherwise released, compromised or settled on or prior to the Effective Date (pursuant to the Modified Second Amended Plan or otherwise); provided that neither the failure to do so nor the Allowance of any Claim or Interest under the Modified Second Amended Plan shall constitute a waiver or release by the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors of any such claim the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors may have against the holder of such Claim or Interest..

e. No Postpetition Interest

Except as to the DIP Financing Claims and as required by the Bankruptcy Code, post-petition interest shall not accrue or be paid on any Claims or Interests, and no holder of a Claim or Interest shall be entitled to interest accruing on or after the Petition Date on any such Claim or Interest.

f. Allocation Between Principal and Accrued Interest

Except as otherwise provided in the Modified Second Amended Plan, the aggregate consideration paid to holders with respect to their Allowed Claims shall be treated pursuant to the Modified Second Amended Plan as allocated first to the principal amount of such Allowed Claims (to the extent thereof) and, thereafter, to the interest, if any, accrued through the Effective Date.

g. Single Satisfaction of Claims

Notwithstanding anything else contained in the Modified Second Amended Plan or Confirmation Order, in no case shall a distribution be made under the Modified Second Amended Plan on account of an Allowed Claim to the extent that the aggregate value of all property received or retained on account of such Allowed Claim (from whatever source) would exceed 100 percent of the underlying Allowed Claim.

4. Distributions to Holders of Disputed Claims

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Modified Second Amended Plan, (a) no distributions will be made under the Modified Second Amended Plan on account of a Disputed Claim until such Claim becomes an Allowed Claim pursuant to a Final Order, if ever, and (b) except as otherwise agreed by the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, no partial distributions with respect to a Disputed Claim will be made under the Modified Second Amended Plan until all disputes in connection with such Disputed Claim have been resolved by settlement or Final Order.

To the extent that a Disputed Claim ultimately becomes an Allowed Claim, any distributions under the Modified Second Amended Plan shall be made to the holder of such Allowed Claim in accordance with the provisions of the Modified Second Amended Plan on the next Interim Distribution Date, without any interest to be paid on account of such Claim.

5. Exemption from Securities Laws

a. Exemption for Distributions Under Modified Second Amended Plan

The offer, issuance, and distribution under the Modified Second Amended Plan (including in connection with the Appellate Adjustment Mechanism) of the New Common Equity shall be exempt, without further act or actions by any Entity, from registration under the Securities Act and any other applicable securities laws to the fullest extent permitted by section 1145 of the Bankruptcy Code, except with respect to an Entity that is an "underwriter" with respect to such securities, as that term is defined in section 1145(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Subject to the transfer provisions, if any, and other applicable provisions set forth in the New Organizational Documents, these securities may be resold without registration under the Securities Act or other federal securities laws pursuant to the exemption provided by section 4(a)(1) of the Securities Act, unless the holder is an "underwriter" with respect to such securities, as that term is defined in section 1145(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. In addition, if the holder is not an "underwriter" with respect to such securities, as that term is defined in section 1145(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, but such holder is an "affiliate" (as defined in Rule 144(a)(1) under the Securities Act) of the issuer, such holder may resell such securities without registration pursuant to and in accordance with the applicable provisions of Rule 144 under the Securities Act (other than the holding period requirement in Rule 144(d) applicable to "restricted securities") or another available exemption under the Securities Act. In addition, such persons will also be entitled to resell such securities in transactions registered under the Securities Act following the effectiveness of an applicable registration statement, if one is filed with the SEC and becomes effective. Further, subject to the transfer provisions, if any, and other applicable provisions set forth in the New Organizational Documents, such section 1145 exempt securities generally may be resold without registration under state securities laws pursuant to various exemptions provided by the respective laws of the several states.

The offer, issuance, and distribution under the Modified Second Amended Plan (including in connection with the Appellate Adjustment Mechanism) of the New Notes shall be exempt, without further act or actions by any Entity, from registration under the Securities Act and any other applicable securities laws as a private placement pursuant to section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act and/or the safe harbor of Regulation D promulgated thereunder. All New Notes issued pursuant to the exemption from registration set forth in section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act and/or the safe harbor of Regulation D promulgated thereunder shall be considered "restricted securities" and may not be transferred except pursuant to an effective registration statement or under an available exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act, such as, under certain conditions, the resale provisions of Rule 144 or Rule 144A under the Securities Act, subject to, in each case, the transfer provisions, if any, and other applicable provisions set forth in the New Exit Notes Documents or the New Takeback Notes Documents.

b. Exemption for Issuances to Underwriters

The offer, sale, issuance, and distribution under the Modified Second Amended Plan (including in connection with the Appellate Adjustment Mechanism) of any New Common Equity issued to an Entity that is an "underwriter" with respect to such securities, as that term is defined in section 1145(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, shall be exempt from registration under the Securities Act and any other applicable securities laws in reliance on the exemption from registration set forth in Section 4(a)(2) under the Securities Act (and on applicable state law registration exemptions) and/or Regulation D promulgated thereunder (and on the preemption of state law registration requirements afforded thereby) or, solely to the extent such exemptions are not available, other available exemptions from registration under the Securities Act. Such securities will be considered "restricted securities" and may not be transferred except pursuant to an effective registration statement or under an available exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act, such as, under certain conditions, the resale provisions of Rule 144 under the Securities Act, subject to, in each case, the transfer provisions, if any, and other applicable provisions set forth in the New Organizational Documents.

6. DTC

Should the Debtors (with the consent of the Required Secured Noteholders) or the Reorganized Debtors elect on or after the Effective Date to reflect any ownership of the New Common Equity and/or the New Notes (including in connection with the Appellate Adjustment Mechanism) through the facilities of DTC, the Reorganized Debtors need not provide any further evidence other than the Modified Second Amended Plan or the Confirmation Order with respect to the treatment of transfers, exercise, removal of restrictions, or conversion of New Common Equity and/or New Notes under applicable U.S. federal, state or local securities laws.

DTC shall be required to accept and conclusively rely upon the Modified Second Amended Plan and Confirmation Order in lieu of a legal opinion regarding whether the New Common Equity and/or the New Notes (including in connection with the Appellate Adjustment Mechanism) are exempt from registration and/or eligible for DTC book-entry delivery, settlement and depository services. Each Entity that becomes a holder of New Common Equity and/or New Notes indirectly through the facilities of DTC will be deemed bound by the terms and conditions of the applicable New Organizational Documents, New Exit Notes Documents or New Takeback Notes Documents and shall be deemed to be a beneficial owner of New Common Equity and/or New Notes subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable New Organizational Documents, New Exit Notes Documents or New Takeback Notes Documents.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Modified Second Amended Plan, no Entity (including, for the avoidance of doubt, DTC) may require a legal opinion regarding the validity of any transaction contemplated by the Modified Second Amended Plan, including, for the avoidance of doubt, whether the New Common Equity and/or the New Notes are exempt from registration and/or eligible for DTC book-entry delivery, settlement and depository services.

7. Compliance with Tax Requirements

In connection with the Modified Second Amended Plan, to the extent applicable, the Reorganized Debtors and the Disbursing Agent shall comply with all tax withholding and reporting requirements imposed on them by any Governmental Unit, and all distributions pursuant to the Modified Second Amended Plan shall be subject to such withholding and reporting requirements. Notwithstanding any provision in the Modified Second Amended Plan to the contrary, the Reorganized Debtors and the Disbursing Agent shall be authorized to take all actions necessary or appropriate to comply with such withholding and reporting requirements, including withholding distributions pending receipt of information necessary to facilitate such distributions or establishing any other mechanisms they believe are reasonable and appropriate. The Reorganized Debtors reserve the right to allocate all distributions made under the Modified Second Amended Plan in compliance with all applicable wage garnishments, alimony, child support and other spousal awards, liens, and encumbrances. Notwithstanding the above, each holder of an Allowed Claim or Allowed Interest that is to receive a distribution under the Modified Second Amended Plan shall have the sole and exclusive responsibility for the satisfaction and payment of any tax obligations imposed on such holder by any Governmental Unit, including income, withholding, and other tax obligations, on account of such distribution. The Debtors have the right, but not the obligation, to not make a distribution until such holder has made arrangements satisfactory to any issuing or disbursing party for payment of any such tax obligations. The Debtors may require, as a condition to receipt of a distribution, that the holder of an Allowed Claim complete and return a Form W-8 or W-9 or similar form, as applicable to each such holder.

K. ~~J.~~ Provisions Relating to Releases, Exculpations, and Injunctions

1. Compromise and Settlement

The Confirmation Order will constitute the Bankruptcy Court's approval of the settlements reflected in the Modified Second Amended Plan, including the Debtor Release and the Third-Party Release, and further, shall constitute the Bankruptcy Court's finding and determination that such settlements, including the Debtor Release and the Third-Party Release are (a) by conferring substantial benefits on the Debtors' Estates, an exercise of the Debtors' business judgment and in the best interests of the Debtors, their Estates, and all holders of Claims and Interests; (b) fair, equitable, and reasonable; (c) made in good faith; (d) in exchange for the good and valuable consideration and substantial contributions provided by the Released Parties; (e) an integral and non-severable element of the Modified Second Amended Plan and the transactions incorporated therein, and essential to the Confirmation and Consummation of the Modified Second Amended Plan; (f) given and made after due notice and opportunity for hearing; and (g) a bar to any Entity asserting any Released Claim. In addition, the allowance, classification, and treatment of any Allowed Claims of a Released Party take into account any Released Claim that may exist between the Debtors and any Released Party and, as of the Effective Date, any and all such Released Claims are settled, compromised, and released as set forth in the Modified Second Amended Plan. The Confirmation Order shall authorize and approve the releases of the Released Parties by all Entities and Persons of all the Released Claims that are satisfied, compromised, and settled pursuant to the Modified Second Amended Plan. Except as expressly set forth in the Modified Second Amended Plan (including the waiver and release of Released Preference Actions as set forth in Article IV.G of the Modified Second Amended Plan), nothing in the Modified Second Amended Plan shall compromise or settle, in any way whatsoever, (x) any Causes of Action against any Excluded Party or any other Entity that is not a Released Party; (y) any Causes of Action that are preserved pursuant to Article IV.G of the Modified Second Amended Plan; or (z) any Causes of Action included on the Schedule of Retained Cause of Action.

In accordance with the provisions of the Modified Second Amended Plan, and pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019, without any further notice to, or action, order, or approval of, the Bankruptcy Court, after the Effective Date, the applicable Reorganized Debtors may, subject to the rights of the General Unsecured Claims Observer (to the extent applicable), compromise and settle (1) Claims (including Causes of Action) against and Interests in the Debtors not previously Allowed (if any) and (2) claims (including Causes of Action) held by the Reorganized Debtors against other Entities.

2. Discharge of Claims and Termination of Interests

The discharge provisions set forth in Article VIII.B of the Plan are binding on all Persons and Entities, and enforceable through the injunction provisions set in Article VIII.G of the Modified Second Amended Plan.

The complete text of Article VIII.B of the Modified Second Amended Plan is as follows:

a. Released Claims

As set forth below, the "Released Claims" include a wide range of claims and other rights that relate to the Debtors, the Debtors' debt financing agreements, and other aspects of the Restructuring. a. Summary of Exculpation

As set forth more fully in the text of Article VIII.F of the Modified Second Amended Plan (copied below), the Modified Second Amended Plan exculpates the Debtors and certain other fiduciaries from liability in connection with the administration of the Chapter 11 Cases and certain other aspects of the Restructuring, unless such a Person is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to have committed an act or omission that constitutes gross negligence, willful misconduct, or actual fraud. ~~This article~~Article VIII.F of the Modified Second Amended Plan also permits any Exculpated Party to rely reasonably on the advice of counsel with respect to the Exculpated Party's duties and responsibilities and incorporates a finding that the Solicitation has been conducted in good faith.

> Without affecting or limiting the releases set forth in Article VIII.D and Article VIII.E, and notwithstanding anything in the Plan to the contrary, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, no Exculpated Party shall have or incur, and each Exculpated Party shall be released and exculpated from, any claim or Cause of Action arising on or after the Petition Date in connection with or arising out of the administration of the Chapter 11 Cases; the negotiation and pursuit of the DIP Financing; the Restructuring Support Agreement; the New Exit Notes, the New Takeback Notes; the New Revolver Facility; the Plan (including the Plan Supplement); the Disclosure Statement; the Financing Litigation; the Restructuring Transactions; the solicitation of votes for, or confirmation of the Plan; any settlement or other acts approved by the Bankruptcy Court; the funding of the Plan; Consummation of the Plan; the administration and implementation of the Plan or the property to be distributed under the Plan; the issuance or distribution of securities under or in connection with the Plan; the issuance, distribution, purchase, sale, or rescission of the purchase or sale of any security of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors under or in connection with the Plan; or the transactions in furtherance of any of the foregoing (collectively, the "Covered Exculpation Matters"); provided that the foregoing shall not be deemed to release, affect, or limit any post-Effective Date rights or obligations of the Exculpated Parties under the Plan (including the Plan Supplement), the New Financing, any Restructuring Transaction, or any Definitive Document, or other document, instrument, or agreement executed to implement the Plan.
> Each Exculpated Party shall be entitled in all respects to rely reasonably (and to have relied reasonably) on the advice of counsel with respect to the Exculpated Party's duties and responsibilities. The Exculpated Parties have, and upon implementation of the Plan, shall be deemed to have, participated in good faith and in compliance with the applicable laws with regard to the solicitation of, and distribution of, consideration pursuant to the Plan and, therefore, are not, and on account of such distributions shall not be, liable at any time for the violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing the solicitation of acceptances or rejections of the Plan or such distributions made pursuant to the Plan. This exculpation shall be in addition to, and not in limitation of, all other releases, indemnities, exculpations, and any other applicable laws, rules, or regulations protecting such Exculpated Parties from liability.

The exculpations set forth in this Article VIII.F do not apply to any Causes of Action arising out of or relating to any act or omission of an Exculpated Party that is determined by a Final Order of a court of competent jurisdiction to have constituted gross negligence, willful misconduct, or actual fraud on the part of the Exculpated Party.

6. Injunctions

The injunctions set forth in Article VIII.G of the Plan are binding on all Persons and Entities, and will enjoin certain conduct not otherwise enjoined under the Bankruptcy Code.

a. Summary

As set forth more fully in the text of Article VIII.G of the Modified Second Amended Plan (copied below), the Modified Second Amended Plan enjoins (i.e., forbids) all Persons and Entities from interfering with the implementation or consummation of the Modified Second Amended Plan. The Modified Second Amended Plan also enjoins (i.e., forbids) all Persons and Entities from taking a wide range of actions in defiance of the release and exculpation provisions set forth above. These injunctions extend to protect the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, the Released Parties, the Exculpated Parties, and all of their successors. Each of these injunctions will be incorporated into the Confirmation Order and will be effective upon entry of the Confirmation Order. Any Person or Entity that subsequently violates the injunctions as set forth in the Confirmation Order may be held in contempt by the Bankruptcy Court and may be subject to (among other things) monetary damages (including legal fees, legal costs, other compensatory damages and punitive damages) and disallowance of Claims.

b. Full Text

The complete text of Article VIII.G of the Modified Second Amended Plan is as follows:

> Upon entry of the Confirmation Order, all Persons and Entities shall be enjoined from taking any actions to interfere with the implementation or consummation of this Plan, or the vesting of the Estates' assets in, and the enjoyment of such assets by, the Reorganized Debtors pursuant to this Plan.
>
> Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Plan or in the Confirmation Order, all Persons and Entities are permanently enjoined, from and after the Effective Date, from commencing or continuing any action, the employment of process, or any other act, to pursue, collect, recover or offset any Claim, Interest, debt, obligation or Cause of Action that has been extinguished, discharged, released or made subject to exculpation under this Plan (the "Covered Matters"), whether against the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, (solely with respect to the Releasing Parties) the Released Parties, or the Exculpated Parties (the "Covered Entities"). The acts enjoined by the foregoing injunction include any act to:
>
> > 1. enforce, attach, collect, or recover by any manner or means any judgment, award, decree, or order against a Covered Entity or any of the property or interests in property of a Covered Entity on account of or in connection with or with respect to any Covered Matter;
> >
> > 2. create, renew, perfect, or enforce any lien or encumbrance of any kind against a Covered Entity or any of the property or interests in property of a Covered Entity on account of or in connection with or with respect to any Covered Matter; or
> > 3. assert any right of setoff, subrogation, or recoupment of any kind against any obligation due from a Covered Entity or from any of the property or interests in property of a Covered Entity on account of or in connection with or with respect to any Covered Matter, unless the Person or Entity holding such setoff, subrogation or recoupment right has asserted such a right and has expressly stated its intent to preserve its right in a document filed with the Bankruptcy Court and served on the Debtors and the applicable Covered Entity no later than the earlier of (x) 28 days after entry of the Confirmation Order and (y) the Effective Date.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, no Entity shall treat, or cause any other Entity to treat, any stock (within the meaning of Section 382(g)(4)(D) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended) of any Debtor held by any 50-Percent Shareholder as "becoming worthless" (within the meaning of Section 382(g)(4)(D) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended), with respect to any taxable year ending prior to the Effective Date.

With respect to any Covered Entity, no Entity or Person may commence or continue any action, employ any process, or take any other act to pursue, collect, recover or offset any Claim, Interest, debt, obligation, or Cause of Action relating or reasonably likely to relate to any act or omission in connection with, relating to, or arising out of a Covered Released Matter, Covered Matter, or Covered Exculpation Matter (including one that alleges the actual fraud, gross negligence, or willful misconduct of a Covered Entity), unless expressly authorized by the Bankruptcy Court after (1) it determines that, after notice and a hearing, such Claim, Interest, debt, obligation, or Cause of Action is colorable and (2) it specifically authorizes such Entity or Person to bring such Claim or Cause of Action. The Bankruptcy Court shall have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether any such Claim, Interest, debt, obligation, or Cause of Action is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI, shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate such underlying colorable Claim, Interest, debt, obligation, or Cause of Action. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this paragraph shall not apply to the Langur Maize Retained Causes of Action.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the injunction does not enjoin any Entity from bringing any Appellate Litigation or any action to enforce the terms of this Plan, the Confirmation Order, any other Definitive Document, or other document, instrument, or agreement executed to implement this Plan, the Confirmation Order or any other Definitive Document. The injunctions set forth in this Article VIII.G shall extend to any successors of the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, the Released Parties, the Exculpated Parties and all of their respective property and interests in property.

7. Subordination Rights

The classification and manner of satisfying all Claims and Interests under the Modified Second Amended Plan take into consideration all subordination rights, whether arising under general principles of equitable subordination, contract, section 510(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, or otherwise, that a holder of a Claim or Interest may have against other Claim or Interest holders with respect to any distribution made pursuant to the Modified Second Amended Plan. Except as provided in the Modified Second Amended Plan, all subordination rights that a holder of a Claim may have with respect to any distribution to be made pursuant to the Modified Second Amended Plan shall be discharged and terminated, and all actions related to the enforcement of such subordination rights shall be permanently enjoined.

M. ~~L.~~ Modification, Revocation or Withdrawal of Modified Second Amended Plan

1. Modification and Amendments

The Debtors reserve the right to (a) modify the Modified Second Amended Plan, whether such modification is material or immaterial, with the consent of the Required Secured Noteholders, not to be unreasonably withheld, and in a manner consistent with the Specified Creditor Consent Rights (solely to the extent applicable) and (b) seek Confirmation consistent with the Bankruptcy Code. Subject to those restrictions on modifications set forth in the Modified Second Amended Plan and the requirements of section 1127 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rule 3019, and, to the extent applicable, sections 1122, 1123, and 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code, each Debtor expressly reserves its respective rights to revoke or withdraw, or to alter, amend, or modify the Modified Second Amended Plan with respect to such Debtor, one or more times, after Confirmation, and, to the extent necessary may initiate proceedings in the Bankruptcy Court to so alter, amend, or modify the Modified Second Amended Plan, or remedy any defect or omission, or reconcile any inconsistencies in the Modified Second Amended Plan, the Disclosure Statement, or the Confirmation Order, in such matters as may be necessary to carry out the purposes and intent of the Modified Second Amended Plan, with the consent of the Required Secured Noteholders, not to be unreasonably withheld, and in a manner consistent with the Specified Creditor Consent Rights (solely to the extent applicable).

After the Confirmation Date, but before the Effective Date, the Debtors may make appropriate technical adjustments and modifications to the Modified Second Amended Plan (including the Plan Supplement) without further order or approval of the Bankruptcy Court, provided that such technical adjustments and modifications do not adversely affect the treatment of holders of Allowed Claims or Allowed Interests under the Modified Second Amended Plan.

2. Effect of Confirmation on Modifications

Entry of a Confirmation Order shall mean that all modifications or amendments to the Modified Second Amended Plan since its solicitation are approved pursuant to section 1127(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and do not require additional disclosure or re-solicitation under Bankruptcy Rule 3019.

3. Revocation or Withdrawal

The Debtors reserve the right to revoke or withdraw the Modified Second Amended Plan, in consultation with the Committee, with respect to any or all of the Debtors prior to the Confirmation Date and to file subsequent plans of reorganization. If the Debtors revoke or withdraw the Modified Second Amended Plan or Confirmation does not occur, then (a) the Modified Second Amended Plan shall be null and void in all respects; (b) any settlement or compromise embodied in the Modified Second Amended Plan (including the fixing or limiting to an amount certain of any Claim or Class of Claims), assumption of Executory Contracts and/or Unexpired Leases effected under the Modified Second Amended Plan, and any document or agreement executed pursuant to the Modified Second Amended Plan, shall be deemed null and void; and (c) nothing contained in the Modified Second Amended Plan shall (i) constitute a waiver or release of any Claims or Interests; (ii) prejudice in any manner the rights of such Debtor or any other Entity; (iii) constitute an admission, acknowledgement, offer, or undertaking of any sort by such Debtor or any other Entity; or (iv) be used by the Debtor or any other Entity as evidence (or in any other way) in any litigation, including with regard to the strengths or weaknesses of any of the parties' positions, arguments or claims.

No. 141]; provided that the rights of the Debtors, Reorganized Debtors, Langur Maize Excluded Parties and any other Person are likewise reserved to seek to conclude the 2022 Financing Adversary Proceeding before the Bankruptcy Court.

O. ~~N.~~ MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

1. Effect of Modified Second Amended Plan

a. Reservation of Rights

Except as expressly set forth in the Modified Second Amended Plan, the Modified Second Amended Plan shall have no force or effect unless the Bankruptcy Court enters the Confirmation Order, and the Confirmation Order shall have no force or effect as to a Debtor if the Effective Date does not occur as to such Debtor. None of the filing of the Modified Second Amended Plan, any statement or provision contained in the Modified Second Amended Plan, or the taking of any action by any Debtor with respect to the Modified Second Amended Plan, the Disclosure Statement, or the Plan Supplement shall be or shall be deemed to be an admission or waiver of any rights of any Debtor with respect to the holders of Claims or Interests before Consummation.

b. Immediate Binding Effect

Subject to Article IX.A of the Modified Second Amended Plan and notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rules 3020(e), 6004(h), or 7062 or otherwise, upon Consummation, the terms of the Modified Second Amended Plan shall be immediately effective and enforceable and binding upon the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, and any and all holders of Claims or Interests (irrespective of whether such Claims or Interests are deemed to have accepted the Modified Second Amended Plan), all Entities that are party, or subject to, the settlements, compromises, releases, discharges, and injunctions described in the Modified Second Amended Plan, each Entity acquiring property under the Modified Second Amended Plan, and any and all of the Debtors' counterparties to Executory Contracts and/or Unexpired Leases and any other prepetition agreements.

c. Entire Agreement

Except as otherwise indicated, the Modified Second Amended Plan (including the Plan Supplement) supersedes all previous and contemporaneous negotiations, promises, covenants, agreements, understandings, and representations on such subjects, all of which have become merged and integrated into the Modified Second Amended Plan.

d. Successors and Assigns

The rights, benefits, and obligations of any Entity named or referred to in the Modified Second Amended Plan shall be binding on, and shall inure to the benefit of any heir, executor, administrator, successor or assign, affiliate, officer, director, agent, representative, attorney, beneficiaries, or guardian, if any, of each Entity.

e. Termination of Injunctions and Stays

Unless otherwise provided in the Modified Second Amended Plan or in the Confirmation Order, all injunctions or stays in effect in the Chapter 11 Cases pursuant to sections 105 or 362 of the Bankruptcy Code or any order of the Bankruptcy Court, and existing on the Confirmation Date (excluding any injunctions or stays contained in the Modified Second Amended Plan or the Confirmation Order) shall remain in full force and effect until the Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, (a) upon the Effective Date, the automatic stay pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 362 of any litigation proceedings against or involving the applicable Debtors shall terminate and (b) all injunctions or stays contained in the Modified Second Amended Plan or the Confirmation Order shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with their terms.

f. Votes Solicited in Good Faith

Upon Confirmation, the Debtors shall be deemed to have solicited votes on the Modified Second Amended Plan in good faith and in compliance with the Bankruptcy Code and, pursuant to section 1125(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors and their respective affiliates, agents, representatives, members, principals, shareholders, officers, directors, employees, advisors, and attorneys shall be deemed to have participated in good faith and in compliance with the Bankruptcy Code in the offer, issuance, sale, and purchase of securities offered and sold under the Modified Second Amended Plan and any previous plan, and, therefore, none of any such parties or individuals or the Reorganized Debtors will have any liability for the violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing the solicitation of votes on the Modified Second Amended Plan or the offer, issuance, sale, or purchase of the securities offered and sold under the Modified Second Amended Plan and any previous plan.

g. Dissolution of the Committee

On the Effective Date, the Committee shall dissolve, and its members and the Retained Professionals of the Committee shall be released and discharged of and from all further authority, duties, responsibilities, and obligations related to and arising from and in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases, except with respect to any continuing confidentiality obligations; provided, however, that, the Committee shall continue to exist after the Effective Date and have standing and a right to be heard for the following limited purposes: (a) applications, and any relief related thereto, for payment of Retained Professional Fees of Retained Professionals of the Committee; and (b) any appeals of the Confirmation Order.

The Committee believes that it must continue to exist after the Effective Date in order to participate in any appeals and related proceedings. The Committee has stated that it intends to object to confirmation of the Second Amended Plan absent revisions that provide for Committee's continued existence, which the Committee believes is necessary to ensure that general unsecured creditors are not prejudiced after the Effective Date in connection with resolution of the Financing Litigation Proceedings. The Debtors disagree that the Committee's continued participation in the Financing Litigation Proceedings is advisable or necessary to avoid prejudice to general unsecured creditors.

h. Closing of Chapter 11 Cases

On and after the Effective Date, all of the Chapter 11 Cases of the Debtors shall be deemed closed except for one of the Chapter 11 Cases as determined by the Reorganized Debtors, and all contested matters and adversary proceedings relating to any of the Debtors (including Claim objections) shall be administered and heard in such Chapter 11 Case, irrespective of whether the contested matter or adversary proceeding was commenced against a Debtor whose Chapter 11 Case was closed. Upon the occurrence of the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors shall be permitted to change the name of the remaining Debtor and case caption of the remaining open Chapter 11 Case as desired, in the Reorganized Debtors' sole discretion.

The Reorganized Debtors may at any time seek to close any remaining Chapter 11 Case in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code and the Bankruptcy Rules.

2. Contents of Modified Second Amended Plan

a. Exhibits

All exhibits, schedules, supplements, and appendices to the Modified Second Amended Plan (including any other documents to be executed, delivered, assumed, or performed in connection with Consummation of the Modified Second Amended Plan) are incorporated into and are a part of the Modified Second Amended Plan as if set forth in full in the Modified Second Amended Plan.

b. Non-Severability

Before Confirmation, if any term or provision of the Modified Second Amended Plan is held by the Bankruptcy Court to be invalid, void, or unenforceable, the Bankruptcy Court, at the request of the Debtors (with the consent of the Required Secured Noteholders, not to be unreasonably withheld, and in a manner consistent with the Specified Creditor Consent Rights (solely to the extent applicable)), shall have the power to alter and interpret such term or provision to make it valid or enforceable to the maximum extent practicable, consistent with the original purpose of the term or provision held to be invalid, void, or unenforceable, and such term or provision shall then be applicable as altered or interpreted. Notwithstanding any such holding, alteration, or interpretation, the remainder of the terms and provisions of the Modified Second Amended Plan will remain in full force and effect and will in no way be affected, impaired, or invalidated by such holding, alteration, or interpretation. Confirmation shall constitute a judicial determination and shall provide that each term and provision of the Modified Second Amended Plan, as it may have been altered or interpreted in accordance with the foregoing, is: (a) valid and enforceable pursuant to its terms; (b) integral to the Modified Second Amended Plan and may not be deleted or modified without consent of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, consistent with the terms set forth herein; and (c) non-severable and mutually dependent.

c. Conflicts

In the event of a conflict between the Modified Second Amended Plan and the Disclosure Statement, the terms of the Modified Second Amended Plan shall control in all respects. In the event of a conflict between the Modified Second Amended Plan (excluding the Plan Supplement) and the Plan Supplement, the terms of the relevant document in the Plan Supplement shall control (unless stated otherwise in such Plan Supplement document or in the Confirmation Order). In the event of a conflict between the Confirmation Order and the Modified Second Amended Plan (including the Plan Supplement), the Confirmation Order shall control.

SECTION V.
VOTING PROCEDURES AND REQUIREMENTS

A. WHO MAY VOTE

1. Voting Classes

As explained above at Section IV.B.1.b (entitled "Standards for Acceptance of a Plan"), the Bankruptcy Code does not provide all holders of claims and interests the right to vote on a chapter 11 plan. Creditors or equity interest holders whose claims or interests are not Impaired by a plan are conclusively presumed to have accepted the plan pursuant to section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code and are not entitled to vote. Under section 1124 of the Bankruptcy Code, a class of claims or interests is deemed to be "Impaired" under a plan unless (a) the plan leaves unaltered the legal, equitable, and contractual rights to which such claim or interest entitles the holder thereof, or (b) notwithstanding any legal right to an accelerated payment of such claim or interest, the plan cures all existing defaults (other than defaults resulting from the occurrence of events of bankruptcy) and reinstates the maturity of such claim or interest as it existed before the default. Creditors and equity interest holders whose claims or interests are Impaired by a plan, but who will receive no distribution under the plan, are also not entitled to vote because they are deemed to have rejected the plan pursuant to section 1126(g) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Modified Second Amended Plan materially and adversely changes the treatment of 1L Notes Claims (Class 4) and materially changes the treatment of 2026 Notes Claims (Class 6). Accordingly, the Debtors will re-solicit the votes of Classes 4 and 6. All other Classes entitled to vote have already been solicited according to the Solicitation and Voting Procedures previously approved by the Court in the Order (I) Approving the Disclosure Statement, (II) Approving Solicitation and Voting Procedures, (III) Approving Forms of Ballots, (IV) Scheduling a Confirmation Hearing, and (V) Establishing Notice and Objection Procedures [Dkt. No. 1228]], which remain in full force and effect with respect to all Classes other than Classes 4 and 6.

2. Voting Record Date

Consistent with the provisions of Bankruptcy Rule 3018(b), the Debtors have fixed September 3, 2024 as the "Voting Record Date" for the determination of holders of Claims entitled to vote to accept or reject the Modified Second Amended Plan.

3. Fiduciaries and Other Representatives

If a Ballot is signed by a trustee, executor, administrator, guardian, attorney-in-fact, officer of a corporation, or other Entity acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity, that Entity must indicate such capacity when signing. If requested by the Debtors, the signing Entity will be required to submit evidence satisfactory to the Debtors of its authority to so act. Each authorized signatory must submit a separate Ballot for each holder on whose behalf the authorized signatory is voting.

B. Voting Deadline

Each Ballot must be submitted to and actually received by the Solicitation Agent at or before the Voting Deadline (5:00 p.m. (Central Time) on September 27, 2024), unless the Debtors extend the Voting Deadline. Except to the extent requested by the Debtors, in their sole discretion, or as ordered by the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3018, no Ballot received by the Solicitation Agent after the Voting Deadline will be counted or otherwise used in connection with the Debtors' request for confirmation of the Modified Second Amended Plan.

The Debtors expressly reserve the right to extend the Voting Deadline by oral or written notice to the Solicitation Agent. The Debtors may extend the Voting Deadline an unlimited number of times, may extend the Voting Deadline by any increment, and may extend the Voting Deadline retroactively. The Debtors will have no obligation to publish, advertise, or otherwise communicate any such extension, other than by notifying each of the Prepetition Indenture Trustees for conveyance to the noteholders in their respective facilities, posting a notice on the Solicitation Agent's website at https://www.veritaglobal.net/Incora, and filing a notice of the extension with the Bankruptcy Court.

The Debtors offer no assurance that they will exercise their right to extend the Voting Deadline, and votes may not be transmitted orally, by fax, by email (except for Master Ballots submitted via email), or by any other means not approved by the Court. Accordingly, each eligible holder of a Claim or Interest is urged to return its completed and signed Ballot promptly.

C. Establishing Claim Amounts for Voting Purposes

The Claim amount established by the Solicitation and Voting Procedures shall control for voting purposes only and shall not constitute the Allowed amount of any Claim. Moreover, any amounts filled in on any Ballot by the Debtors through the Solicitation Agent or the holder of the Claim, as applicable, are not binding for purposes of allowance and distribution. In tabulating votes, the following hierarchy will be used to determine the amount of the Claim associated with each claimant's vote:

a. the Claim amount: (i) specified in the Solicitation and Voting Procedures; (ii) settled and/or agreed by the Debtors, as reflected in a document filed with the Court; (iii) set forth in an order of the Court; or (iv) set forth in a document executed by the Debtors pursuant to authority granted by the Court;

b. the Claim amount Allowed pursuant to a Resolution Event under the procedures set forth in the Solicitation and Voting Procedures;

c. the Claim amount contained in a Proof of Claim that has been timely filed (or deemed timely filed by the Court under applicable law), except for any amounts asserted on account of any interest accrued after the Petition Date; provided that Ballots cast by holders of Claims who timely file a Proof of Claim in respect of a contingent Claim (for example, a claim based on pending litigation) or in a wholly-unliquidated or unknown amount based on a reasonable review of the Proof of Claim and supporting documentation by the Debtors or their advisors that is not the subject of an objection will count for satisfying the numerosity requirement of section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code and will count in the amount of $1.00 for the purposes of satisfying the amount requirement of section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, and, if a Proof of Claim is filed as partially liquidated and partially unliquidated, such Claim will be counted for voting purposes only in the liquidated amount; provided, further, that, to the extent the Claim amount contained in the Proof of Claim is different from the Claim amount set forth in a document filed with the Court as referenced in subparagraph (a) above, the Claim amount in the document filed with the Court shall supersede the Claim amount set forth on the Proof of Claim;

d. the Claim amount listed in the Schedules, so long as the Claim (i) is not scheduled as contingent, disputed, or unliquidated and/or has not been paid (in which case, such contingent, disputed, or unliquidated scheduled Claim shall be disallowed for voting purposes) and (ii) has not been superseded by a timely Proof of Claim; and

e. if none of the foregoing applies to a Claim, the Claim will be disallowed for voting purposes.

If a Proof of Claim is amended, the last timely Proof of Claim shall be subject to these rules and will supersede any earlier Claim, which will then be disallowed for voting purposes.

The aggregate Allowed amounts for the 1L Notes Claims, 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims, 2026 Notes Claims, and the 2027 Unsecured Notes Claims (collectively, the "Notes Claims") for voting purposes will be the Allowed amount of such Claims that is proposed under the Modified Second Amended Plan. Furthermore, the amount ascribed to each directly registered holder or Nominee will be proportionate to the principal amount of the respective Notes held by such directly registered holder or Nominee as of the Voting Record Date, as evidenced by the books and records of the respective Indenture Trustees and by securities position reports of the Depository Trust Company ("DTC").

D. VOTING PROCEDURES

1. Ballot Submission

Each Ballot enclosed with this Disclosure Statement is marked with the Class in which the corresponding Claim has been placed under the Modified Second Amended Plan. All votes to accept or reject the Modified Second Amended Plan must be cast by properly submitting the duly completed and executed Ballot in accordance with the instructions set forth on the applicable Ballot. If you wish to vote on the Modified Second Amended Plan, you must complete and sign your Ballot in accordance with the instructions printed on the Ballot, being sure to check one (and only one) of the boxes labeled "Accept (vote for) the Modified Second Amended Plan as to each Debtor" or "Reject (vote against) the Modified Second Amended Plan as to each Debtor." Any executed Ballot that does not indicate either acceptance or rejection of the Modified Second Amended Plan, or that indicates both acceptance and rejection of the Modified Second Amended Plan, will not be counted.

Each holder of multiple Claims within a single Class must vote each of its Claims within that Class either to accept or to reject the Modified Second Amended Plan and may not split its vote. If a holder of Claims holds multiple Claims within a particular Class, the Debtors may, in their discretion, instruct the Solicitation Agent to aggregate that holder's Claims within the applicable Class for the purpose of counting votes.

As set forth in greater detail on each Ballot's instructions, each Ballot may be submitted in paper form~~. Each Class 7a Ballot (excluding those in respect of 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims, 2026 Notes Claims, and 2027 Unsecured Notes Claims), Class 7b Ballot and Record Holder Ballot may alternatively be submitted electronically through the Solicitation Agent's e-ballot portal (an "E-Ballot"); provided that each voting holder of a Claim submitting such a Ballot may choose either method at its own risk and should allow sufficient time for timely delivery by the Voting Deadline~~ or by email. Ballots will not be accepted by fax~~, email,~~ or other means~~; provided that Master Ballots may be submitted by email in accordance with the Master Ballot's instructions~~.

If you are entitled to vote and you did not receive a correct Ballot, received a damaged Ballot, or lost your Ballot, please contact the Solicitation Agent through its website at www.veritaglobal.net/incora/inquiry or by phone at (888) 251-2937 (U.S./Canada) or +1 (310) 751-2613 (International).

2. Ballot Submission by Beneficial Noteholders and Their Nominees

a. Record Holders

A beneficial holder of a Notes Claim that holds a Claim as a record holder in its own name should vote on the Modified Second Amended Plan by completing and signing a Ballot (a "Record Holder Ballot") and returning it directly to the Solicitation Agent on or before the Voting Deadline. The voting amounts of any record holder of a Claim will be the amounts set forth on the books and records of the applicable indenture trustee as of the Voting Record Date.

b. Beneficial Holders Holding Through DTC Nominees

i. Beneficial Holders

In addition to the foregoing generally applicable voting and ballot tabulation procedures, the following procedures shall apply to Beneficial Holders of Notes Claims who hold their position through a broker, bank, or other nominee or an agent of a broker, bank, or other nominee (each of the foregoing, a "Nominee"). A beneficial holder that holds its claim in "street name" through a Nominee (a "Beneficial Holder") may vote on the Modified Second Amended Plan through one of the following two methods, as selected by the Beneficial Holder's Nominee:

- Each Beneficial Holder that holds its Claim through a particular Nominee will complete and sign a Ballot (a "Beneficial Holder Ballot") and return it to its Nominee, in the manner directed by the Nominee and according to any deadline prescribed by the Nominee to ensure that the Nominee can collect and review Beneficial Holder Ballots and return a completed "master" ballot (a "Master Ballot") to the Solicitation Agent by the Voting Deadline.

or

- Each Beneficial Holder that holds its Claim through a particular Nominee will receive a pre-validated Beneficial Holder Ballot from its Nominee, which the Beneficial Holder must return directly to the Solicitation Agent by the Voting Deadline.

If it is a Nominee's customary practice to forward solicitation information to Beneficial Holders and to collect votes from them by voter information form ("VIF"), email, telephone or other means of communication, the Nominee may employ that method instead of sending a paper Beneficial Holder Ballot and Solicitation Package.

No Beneficial Holder Ballot delivered to a Nominee will be counted unless the Nominee properly delivers to the Solicitation Agent, by the Voting Deadline, either (a) that Beneficial Holder Ballot with proper validation or (b) a Master Ballot that incorporates the Beneficial Holder's vote and (if applicable) other elections.

If a Beneficial Holder holds Claims through more than one Nominee or through multiple accounts, it may receive more than one Beneficial Holder Ballot. It should then execute a separate Beneficial Holder Ballot for each block of Claims that it holds through a Nominee and return each such Beneficial Holder Ballot to the appropriate Nominee.

Votes cast by Beneficial Holders through Nominees will be applied to the positions held by those Nominees, as of the Voting Record Date, as evidenced by securities position reports obtained from the Depository Trust Company. Votes submitted by a Nominee pursuant to a Master Ballot will not be counted in excess of the amount of recorded Claims held by the Nominee as of the Voting Record Date.

ii. Nominees

A Nominee that is the DTC account holder of Claims on behalf of one or more Beneficial Holders shall obtain votes and other elections from those Beneficial Holders consistent with customary practices for obtaining the votes of securities held in "street name," in one of the following two ways:

- Pre-Validated Ballots. The Nominee may "pre-validate" a Beneficial Holder Ballot by (a) signing the Beneficial Holder Ballot; (b) indicating on the Beneficial Holder Ballot the amount and the account number of the Claims held by the Nominee for the particular Beneficial Holder; and (c) forwarding the Beneficial Ballot, together with the Disclosure Statement, a postage-paid return envelope pre-addressed to the Solicitation Agent, and other materials requested to be forwarded, to the Beneficial Holder for voting. The Beneficial Holder must then complete the information requested in the Beneficial Ballot and return the Beneficial Ballot directly to the Solicitation Agent in the pre-addressed, postage-paid return envelope so that it is received by the Solicitation Agent on or before the Voting Deadline. A list of the Beneficial Holders to whom "pre-validated" Beneficial Ballots were delivered should be maintained by Nominees for inspection for at least one year from the Voting Deadline.

- Master Ballots. The Nominee may obtain the votes of Beneficial Holders by forwarding to each Beneficial Holder an unsigned Beneficial Holder Ballot through mail, VIF, email, or any other reliable and customary method of collecting votes from a Beneficial Holder, together with the Disclosure Statement, a postage-paid return envelope addressed to the Nominee (in the case of a physical mailing), and other materials requested to be forwarded. Each such Beneficial Holder must then indicate its vote and other elections on the Beneficial Holder Ballot, complete the information requested on the Beneficial Holder Ballot, review the certifications contained on the Beneficial Holder Ballot, execute the Beneficial Holder Ballot, and return the Beneficial Holder Ballot to the Nominee. If it is accepted practice for a Nominee to collect votes through a VIF, email, or other method, the Beneficial Holder shall follow the Nominee's instruction for completing and submitting its votes to the Nominee. After collecting the Beneficial Holders' votes, the Nominee should, in turn, complete a Master Ballot compiling the votes and other information from the Beneficial Holders, execute the Master Ballot, and deliver the Master Ballot to the Solicitation Agent so that it is received by the Solicitation Agent at or before the Voting Deadline. All Beneficial Ballots returned by Beneficial Holders should either be forwarded to the Solicitation Agent along with the Master Ballot or retained by the Nominee for inspection for at least one year from the Voting Deadline. Each Nominee should advise its Beneficial Holders to return their Beneficial Ballots to the Nominee by a date and time calculated by the Nominee to allow it to prepare and return the Master Ballot to the Solicitation Agent so that the Master Ballot is received by the Solicitation Agent on or before the Voting Deadline.

3. Notices of Non-Voting Status for Holders of 1.25L Notes and PIK Notes

~~The Debtors may apply similar procedures as the foregoing to distribute Notices of Non-Voting Status to holders of 1.25L Notes and PIK Notes and to allow such holders to opt out of the Third-Party Releases.~~

The Debtors previously distributed Notices of Non-Voting Status to holders of 1.25L Notes and PIK Notes and allowed such holders to opt out of the Third-Party Releases in connection with the Modified First Amended Plan. The Notices of Non-Voting Status will not be re-distributed, and any timely and valid opt-out election previously submitted will remain in effect.

4. Opt-Out from Releases

The Modified Second Amended Plan contains the Third-Party Release described above at Section IV.J.4.f. You may opt out of the Third-Party Release by checking the box labeled "Opt out of the Third-Party Release" that follows the Third-Party Release provisions on the applicable Ballot ~~or Non-Voting Status Notice~~. If you opt out of consenting to the Third-Party Release, then you will not be a Released Party, even if you would otherwise be entitled to be a Released Party.

Regardless of whether you vote on acceptance or rejection of the Modified Second Amended Plan, you must return your Ballot ~~or Non-Voting Status Notice~~ at or before the Voting Deadline in compliance with the instructions in order to opt out of the Third-Party Release.

5. Withdrawal or Change of Votes

If multiple Ballots are received from the same holder with respect to the same Claim prior to the Voting Deadline, the last properly executed, timely submitted electronic Ballot will be deemed to reflect that voter's intent and will supersede and revoke any prior Ballot. If no such electronic Ballot submission is made, the last properly executed, timely submitted paper Ballot will be deemed to reflect that voter's intent and will supersede and revoke any prior paper Ballot submission. Following the Voting Deadline, a holder may not change its vote in a previously cast Ballot from acceptance to rejection, without first obtaining authority from the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to the requirements of and in compliance with Bankruptcy Rule 3018(a).

6. Waivers of Defects and Irregularities

Unless otherwise directed by the Bankruptcy Court, all questions as to the validity, form, eligibility (including time of receipt), acceptance, and revocation or withdrawal of Ballots will be determined by the Debtors in their sole discretion, which determination will be final and binding. Effective withdrawals of Ballots must be delivered to the Solicitation Agent prior to the Voting Deadline. The Debtors reserve the absolute right to contest the validity of any purported withdrawal. The Debtors also reserve the right to reject any and all Ballots not in proper form or the acceptance of which would, in the opinion of the Debtors or their counsel, be unlawful. The Debtors further reserve the right to waive any defects or irregularities or conditions of delivery as to any particular Ballot or to waive the Voting Deadline as to any particular Ballot, in each case with notice to the Committee and notice to and consent of the Required Secured Noteholders, subject to contrary order of the Bankruptcy Court. The Debtors' interpretation of the Ballot and its instructions will be final and binding on all parties, unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court. Unless waived, any defects or irregularities in connection with deliveries of Ballots must be cured within such time as the Debtors (or the Bankruptcy Court) determine. Neither the Debtors nor any other person will be under any duty to provide notification of defects or irregularities with respect to deliveries of Ballots, nor will any of them incur any liabilities for failure to provide such notification. Unless otherwise directed by the Bankruptcy Court, delivery of such Ballots will not be deemed to have been made until such irregularities have been cured or waived. Ballots previously furnished (and as to which any irregularities have not theretofore been cured or waived) will be invalidated.

E. Agreements upon Furnishing Ballots

The delivery of a Ballot that votes to accept the Modified Second Amended Plan will constitute the agreement of the corresponding creditor with respect to such Ballot to accept: (a) all of the terms of, and conditions to, the Solicitation; and (b) the terms of the Modified Second Amended Plan including the injunction, releases, and exculpations set forth in the Modified Second Amended Plan. The Debtors will note in the Voting Report all defects or irregularities or conditions of delivery that were waived as to any particular Ballot, all Ballots as to which the Voting Deadline was waived, all Ballots that were rejected (along with the reason for rejection), and all opt outs to the Releases.

F. Further Information and Additional Copies

If you have any questions about the Solicitation, your Ballot or the procedures for voting, or to request additional copies of the Solicitation Materials, please call the Solicitation Agent's hotline at (888) 251-2937 (U.S./Canada) or +1 (310) 751-2613 (international), or submit an electronic inquiry to the Solicitation Agent at www.veritaglobal.net/incora/inquiry.

The Solicitation Agent cannot answer legal questions regarding the Modified Second Amended Plan. For legal assistance (including regarding the Modified Second Amended Plan or the Third-Party Release), please consult your own legal counsel.

SECTION VI.
CONFIRMATION OF MODIFIED SECOND AMENDED PLAN

A. CONFIRMATION HEARING

Section 1128(a) of the Bankruptcy Code requires the Bankruptcy Court, upon appropriate notice to all required parties, to hold a hearing on confirmation of the Modified Second Amended Plan. Notice of the confirmation hearing will be provided to all known creditors and equity holders or their counsel. The confirmation hearing may be adjourned from time to time by the Bankruptcy Court without further notice except for an announcement of the adjourned date made at the hearing itself or on the docket for the Chapter 11 Cases. ~~Additionally, the Confirmation Hearing shall be adjourned in the event any notice of a breach or a 1L Noteholder Termination Event (as defined in the Restructuring Support Agreement) as to the Debtors has been delivered by the Required Secured Noteholders under the Restructuring Support Agreement until (a) such alleged breach is cured (if capable of cure), (b) such notice has been rescinded by the Required Secured Noteholders or (c) the Court determines that there is no breach or 1L Noteholder Termination Event under the Restructuring Support Agreement.~~

B. OBJECTIONS TO CONFIRMATION

Section 1128(b) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that any party in interest may object to confirmation of a plan. Any objection to confirmation of the Modified Second Amended Plan must (a) be in writing, (b) conform to the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules, and any orders of the Bankruptcy Court, (c) set forth the name and address of the objecting party and the nature and amount of Claims or Interests held or asserted by the objecting party, (d) state, with particularity, the legal and factual basis for the objection and, if practicable, a proposed modification to the Modified Second Amended Plan (or related materials) that would resolve such objection, and (e) be filed with the Bankruptcy Court (contemporaneously with a proof of service) and served so as to be received no later than the date and time designated in the notice of the confirmation hearing. No objection shall, without leave of the Bankruptcy Court, exceed forty pages (excluding any tables, exhibits, addenda, or other supporting material).

C. Requirements for Confirmation

At the Confirmation Hearing, the Bankruptcy Court will confirm the Modified Second Amended Plan only if all of the requirements of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code are met. Among other requirements, the Modified Second Amended Plan must be (a) feasible and (b) in the "best interests" of holders of Impaired Claims and Interests.

1. Feasibility

Section 1129(a)(11) of the Bankruptcy Code permits a plan to be confirmed only if its confirmation "is not likely to be followed by liquidation or the need for further financial reorganization" of the debtor or any successor to the debtor. This requirement is often referred to as the "feasibility" test.

The Debtors believe that the Modified Second Amended Plan satisfies this requirement. For purposes of determining whether the Modified Second Amended Plan meets this requirement, the Debtors, in consultation with their financial advisors, have analyzed their ability to meet the obligations that they will incur or assume under the Modified Second Amended Plan. As part of that analysis, the Debtors have prepared consolidated projected financial results (the "Financial Projections") for each fiscal year following the Effective Date through 2027. These Financial Projections, and the assumptions on which they are based, are attached to this Disclosure Statement as Exhibit B. All holders of Claims who are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Modified Second Amended Plan are urged to examine carefully, in consultation with professional financial advisors, all of the assumptions on which the Financial Projections are based.

The Financial Projections have not been audited by a certified public accountant and have not necessarily been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. The Debtors' management and advisors have prepared the Financial Projections. While the Financial Projections have been presented with numerical specificity, the Financial Projections are necessarily based on a variety of estimates and assumptions which, though considered reasonable by management, may not be realized and are inherently subject to significant business, economic, competitive, industry, regulatory, and market and financial uncertainties and contingencies, many of which will be beyond the Reorganized Debtors' control. The Debtors caution that they cannot make any representations as to the accuracy of the Financial Projections or to the Reorganized Debtors' ability to achieve the projected results. Some assumptions will inevitably differ from actual conditions. Furthermore, events and circumstances occurring after the date on which the Financial Projections were prepared may differ from any assumed facts and circumstances and may affect financial results in a materially adverse or materially beneficial manner. The Financial Projections, therefore, should not be relied upon as a guarantee or other assurance of the actual results that will occur.

2. Best Interests

Section 1129(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code permits a plan to be confirmed only if each holder of an impaired claim or interest that did not vote to accept the plan, will "receive or retain under the plan on account of such claim or interest property of a value . . . that is not less than the amount that such holder would so receive or retain if the debtor were liquidated under chapter 7" of the Bankruptcy Code on the Effective Date of the plan. This requirement is often referred to as the "best interests" test.

Based on the Liquidation Analysis attached to this Disclosure Statement as Exhibit C, the Debtors believe that all holders of Impaired Claims and Interests will receive, under the Modified Second Amended Plan, property with a value greater than or equal to the value that they would have received in a chapter 7 liquidation.

To estimate the potential recoveries in a chapter 7 liquidation, the Debtors estimated the amount of liquidation proceeds that might be available for distribution (net of liquidation costs) and the allocation of those proceeds among the Classes of Claims and Interests based on their relative priorities under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code.

The net amount of value available in a liquidation to the holders of unsecured Claims and all Interests would be reduced by, first, the Claims of secured creditors to the extent of the value of their respective collateral and, second, the administrative expenses and priority claims allowed in chapter 7. Those administrative expenses would include the compensation of a trustee, as well as counsel and other professionals retained by the trustee, asset disposition expenses, applicable taxes, litigation costs, unpaid administrative expenses incurred by the Debtors and the Committee in the Chapter 11 Cases, DIP Financing Claims and Claims arising from the Debtors' operations during the Chapter 11 Cases. The liquidation itself may trigger certain priority Claims that would otherwise be due in the ordinary course of business. Those priority Claims would have to be paid in full from the liquidation proceeds before any balance would be made available to pay unsecured Claims. The liquidation would also prompt the rejection of executory contracts and unexpired leases, and thereby create a significantly greater aggregate amount of unsecured Claims.

In a chapter 7 liquidation, no junior Class of Claims or Interests may be paid unless all Classes of Claims or Interests senior to such junior Class are paid in full. Section 510(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that subordination agreements are enforceable in a bankruptcy case to the same extent that such subordination agreements are enforceable under applicable non-bankruptcy law. Therefore, no Class of Claims or Interests that is contractually subordinated to another Class (such as the 1.25L Notes Claims vis-à-vis the 1L Notes Claims) would receive any payment on account of its Claims or Interests, unless and until such senior Class was paid in full. If the probable distribution to a Class through a chapter 7 liquidation has a value greater than the value of distributions to be received by the same Class under the Modified Second Amended Plan, the Modified Second Amended Plan is not in the best interests of the members of that Class and cannot be confirmed by the Bankruptcy Court.

The Liquidation Analysis demonstrates that each holder of Impaired Claims and Interests will receive at least as much, if not more, under the Modified Second Amended Plan as it would receive if the Debtors were liquidated under chapter 7. In particular, holders of 1.25L ~~Notes Claims, 2026~~ Notes Claims, 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims, 2027 Unsecured Notes Claims, other General Unsecured Claims, General Unsecured Convenience Claims, 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims, PIK Notes Claims and Existing Equity Interests would receive no value whatsoever in a liquidation under chapter 7. Therefore, the Debtors believe that the Modified Second Amended Plan satisfies the requirements of the "best interests" test.

3. Acceptance by Class

The Bankruptcy Code defines "acceptance" of a plan by a Class of (a) Impaired Claims as acceptance by creditors in that Class that hold at least two-thirds (⅔) in dollar amount and more than one-half (½) in number of the Allowed Claims in such Class held by creditors that cast ballots for acceptance or rejection of the Modified Second Amended Plan and (b) Impaired Interests as acceptance by Interest holders that hold at least two-thirds (⅔) in amount of the Allowed Interests in such Class held by holders that cast ballots for acceptance or rejection of the Modified Second Amended Plan. However, any Class of Claims or Interests that is Unimpaired under the Modified Second Amended Plan is deemed to have accepted the Modified Second Amended Plan and is therefore not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Modified Second Amended Plan. Likewise, any Class of Claims or Interests that does not entitle the holders of Claims or Interests to receive or retain any property under the Modified Second Amended Plan on account of such Claims or Interests is deemed to have rejected the Modified Second Amended Plan and is therefore not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Modified Second Amended Plan.

A plan may be confirmed if it is accepted by each impaired class of claims or interests, or if additional requirements (described below at Section VI.D, entitled "Additional Requirements for Non-Consensual Confirmation") are satisfied as to all non-accepting impaired classes.

Under the Modified Second Amended Plan, Classes 1, 2, 3, and 11 are Unimpaired and deemed to accept the Modified Second Amended Plan. Depending on its treatment, Class 9 is Unimpaired or is due to receive or retain no property under the Modified Second Amended Plan; in either case, it is not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Modified Second Amended Plan. Class 5, Class 8, Class 9 (in the event that a Claim in Class 9 receives or retains no property under the Modified Second Amended Plan) and Class 10 are deemed to reject the Modified Second Amended Plan.

4. Deemed Acceptance of a Class in Which No Votes Are Cast

If no votes to accept or reject the Modified Second Amended Plan are received with respect to a particular Class of Claims for which holders of such Claims are entitled to vote on the Modified Second Amended Plan with respect to such Claims, such Class shall be deemed to have voted to accept the Modified Second Amended Plan.

D. Additional Requirements for Non-Consensual Confirmation

1. Cram-Down

If any impaired class of claims or interests votes to reject a plan or is deemed to reject a plan, the Bankruptcy Code nevertheless allows that plan to be confirmed over that class's rejection, so long as (a) at least one impaired class of claims accepts the plan, determined without including any acceptance of such plan by an insider (b) the plan satisfies each of the requirements of section 1129(a) other than the requirement for acceptance by each impaired class, and (c) the plan satisfies certain additional requirements set forth in section 1129(b) discussed below. This power to confirm a plan over dissenting classes—often referred to as "cram-down"—assures that no single group of claims or interests can block a restructuring that otherwise meets the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code and is in the interests of the other constituents in the case.

The additional requirements referred to above are that the plan may not "discriminate unfairly" against an impaired dissenting class and must be "fair and equitable" toward an impaired dissenting class.

The Debtors intend to pursue confirmation through cram-down, if necessary, as to Class 5 (1.25L Notes Claims), Class 6 (2026 Notes Claims), Class 7a (General Unsecured Claims), Class 7b (General Unsecured Convenience Claims), Class 7c (2024 Unsecured Notes Claims), Class 8 (PIK Notes Claims), and Class 10 (Existing Equity Interests), but not as to Class 4 (1L Notes Claims). (Additionally, the Debtors submit that the cram-down requirements should not be applied strictly to Class 9 (Intercompany Claims), which have no economic substance and will be impaired only to preserve, improve, or simplify the accounting or tax position of the Debtors' reorganized enterprise. In any event, each holder of an Intercompany Claim is a proponent of the Modified Second Amended Plan and has therefore waived any objection to its treatment under the Modified Second Amended Plan.)

2. No Unfair Discrimination

The "unfair discrimination" test applies to classes of claims or interests that are of equal priority and legal character but are receiving different treatment under the Modified Second Amended Plan. The test does not require that the treatment be the same but that such treatment be "fair." Bankruptcy courts consider several factors in determining whether a plan discriminates "unfairly," and accordingly, a plan could treat two classes differently without unfairly discriminating against the class receiving inferior treatment. This test applies only to classes that reject or are deemed to reject the plan.

The Debtors believe that the Modified Second Amended Plan satisfies the "unfair discrimination" test as to Classes 5, 6, 7a, 7b, 7c, 8, and 10.

3. Fair and Equitable

A chapter 11 plan is fair and equitable with respect to a dissenting class only if no class senior to such dissenting class receives more than it is entitled to on account of such senior claims or interests. The "fair and equitable" test imposes certain statutory requirements that depend on the type of claims or interests in the dissenting class.

To be fair and equitable with respect to a dissenting class of impaired secured claims, a plan must provide that each holder of such a claim either (a) retains liens on its collateral (or, if the collateral is sold, on the proceeds) to the extent of the allowed amount of the secured claim and also receives deferred cash payments having a value, as of the plan's consummation, of at least the allowed amount of the secured claim, or (b) otherwise receives the "indubitable equivalent" of its secured claim. The provisions of section 1129(b) addressing secured claims are satisfied as to the 2026 Notes Claims.

To be fair and equitable with respect to a dissenting class of impaired unsecured claims, a plan must provide that either (a) each holder of such a claim receives or retains property having a value, as of consummation of the plan, equal to the allowed amount of its claim, or (b) no holders of claims or interests that are junior to the claims in the dissenting class will receive or retain any property under the plan on account of its junior claim or interest.

The Debtors believe that the 1.25L Notes Claims are completely unsecured pursuant to section 506(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and that the 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims are completely unsecured as a result of the 2022 Financing Transactions and the Court's Ruling. Accordingly, the provisions of section 1129(b) addressing secured claims are not applicable.

The provisions of section 1129(b) addressing unsecured claims are satisfied as to the 1.25L Notes Claims, the General Unsecured Claims, the General Unsecured Convenience Claims, and the 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims because no holders of Claims or Interests that are junior to those Classes will receive or retain any property on account of those Claims or Interests. The only junior Claims or Interests that exist against the Debtors are those that will be Reinstated for the purpose of preserving the Debtors' organizational structure. Unless otherwise provided for in the Description of Restructuring Transactions, Wolverine Intermediate Holding will be permitted to retain its Interests in the Debtors solely for the purpose of preserving the business's organizational structure and in consideration of its distribution of new securities and assumption of new debt pursuant to the Modified Second Amended Plan and the cancellation of the equity interests of its own members—not on account of its existing Interests in the Debtors.

For the foregoing reasons, the Debtors believe that the "fair and equitable" test is satisfied as to Classes 5, 6, 7a, 7b, and 7c.

The provisions of section 1129(b) are likewise satisfied as to the PIK Notes Claims because the Existing Equity Interests in Wolverine Intermediate Holding will receive no distributions on account of the Modified Second Amended Plan.

To be fair and equitable with respect to a dissenting class of impaired equity interests, a plan must provide that either (a) each holder of such an interest receives or retains property having a value, as of consummation of the plan, equal to the greater of (i) the allowed amount of any fixed liquidation preference or fixed redemption price of its interest and (ii) the value of its interest, or (b) no holders of interests that are junior to the interests in the dissenting class will receive or retain any property under the plan on account of its junior claim or interest. No Claims or Interests are junior to the Existing Equity Interests, so no such Claims or Interests will receive or retain any property under the Modified Second Amended Plan. Accordingly, the Debtors believe that the "fair and equitable" test is satisfied as to Class 10.

SECTION VII.
FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

A. IMPORTANCE OF OBTAINING INDEPENDENT PROFESSIONAL TAX ADVICE

The tax consequences of the Modified Second Amended Plan are complex. The following summary does not discuss all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation or other taxation that may be relevant to the Debtors or to any particular holder of Claims in light of its particular circumstances and income tax situation. This summary is not a substitute for careful tax planning and advice based on individual circumstances that pertain to a particular holder of a Claim. Each holder of a Claim should consult with its tax advisors as to the consequences of the transactions contemplated by the Modified Second Amended Plan, including the application and effect of federal, state, local, or non-U.S. laws regarding income, estate and other taxation, and of any changes in those laws.

B. Tax Consequences of the Restructuring

The following discussion summarizes certain U.S. federal income tax consequences of the implementation of the Modified Second Amended Plan to the Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors, and holders of Allowed 1L Notes Claims, Allowed 2026 Notes Claims, Allowed 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims, Allowed General Unsecured Claims and Allowed General Unsecured Convenience Claims (collectively, the "Addressed Claims"). This summary is based on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Tax Code"), the U.S. Treasury Regulations promulgated under the Tax Code (the "Treasury Regulations"), judicial decisions and published administrative rules and pronouncements of the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS"), all as in effect on the date of this Disclosure Statement (collectively, "Applicable Tax Law"). This discussion is based on the Debtors' current understanding of the expected terms of the Definitive Documents, specifically with respect to the Takeback Debt, some of which have not yet been proposed nor approved by the Bankruptcy Court, and the U.S. federal income tax consequences to a holder of an Addressed Claim may differ materially from those discussed herein if the Definitive Documents ultimately approved were to differ from the Debtors' expectation. Changes in Applicable Tax Law may have retroactive effect and could significantly affect the U.S. federal income tax consequences described below. Due to the lack of definitive judicial and administrative authority in a number of areas, substantial uncertainty may exist with respect to some of the tax consequences described below. The Debtors have not requested, and do not intend to request, any ruling or determination from the IRS or any other taxing authority with respect to the tax consequences discussed in this Disclosure Statement, and the discussion below is not binding upon the IRS or the courts. No assurance can be given that the IRS would not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a different position than any position discussed in this Disclosure Statement.

This summary does not address foreign, state, local, gift, or estate tax consequences of the Modified Second Amended Plan, nor does it purport to address all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to a holder in light of its individual circumstances or to a holder that may be subject to special tax rules (such as persons who are related to the Debtors within the meaning of the Tax Code, broker-dealers, banks, mutual funds, insurance companies, financial institutions, small business investment companies, real estate investment trusts, regulated investment companies, passive foreign investment companies, controlled foreign corporations, tax-exempt organizations, pass-through entities, beneficial owners of pass-through entities, trusts, governmental authorities or agencies, dealers and traders in securities, subchapter S corporations, persons who hold Claims as part of a straddle, hedge, conversion transaction or other integrated investment, persons using a mark-to-market method of tax accounting, holders of Claims who are themselves in bankruptcy, persons subject to the alternative minimum tax or the "Medicare" tax on net investment income, U.S. Holders (as defined below) whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar, U.S. expatriates and accrual method taxpayers that report income on an "applicable financial statement"). Furthermore, this summary assumes that a holder of a Claim holds only Claims in a single Class and holds such Claims as "capital assets" (within the meaning of section 1221 of the Tax Code). This summary also assumes that, unless as specifically noted below, the various debt and other arrangements to which any of the Debtors are a party will be respected for U.S. federal income tax purposes in accordance with their form. This summary does not discuss differences in tax consequences to holders of Claims that act or receive consideration in a capacity other than any other holder of a Claim of the same Class or

Classes, and the tax consequences for such holders may differ materially from those described below. This summary does not address the U.S. federal income tax consequences to holders: (i) whose Claims are Unimpaired or otherwise entitled to payment in full in Cash under the Modified Second Amended Plan or (ii) that are deemed to reject the Modified Second Amended Plan. Furthermore, this summary does not address the U.S. federal income tax consequences associated with the DIP Notes or DIP Financing Claims or the receipt of the New Exit Notes in satisfaction of the DIP Notes.

For purposes of this discussion, a "U.S. Holder" is a beneficial owner of an Allowed Addressed Claim that is: (1) an individual citizen or resident of the United States for U.S. federal income tax purposes; (2) a corporation (or any other entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia; (3) an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of the source of such income; or (4) a trust (A) if a court within the United States is able to exercise primary jurisdiction over the trust's administration and one or more United States persons have authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (B) that has a valid election in effect under applicable Treasury Regulations to be treated as a United States person.

For purposes of this discussion, a "Non-U.S. Holder" is a beneficial owner of an Allowed Addressed Claim that is not a U.S. Holder or a partnership (or other entity treated as a partnership or other pass-through entity for U.S. federal income tax purposes).

If a partnership (or other entity or arrangement treated as a partnership or other pass-through entity for U.S. federal income tax purposes) is a holder of an Allowed Addressed Claim, the tax treatment of a partner (or other beneficial owner) generally will depend upon the status of the partner (or other beneficial owner) and the activities of the partner (or other beneficial owner) and the entity. Partners (or other beneficial owners) of partnerships (or other pass-through entities) that are holders of Allowed Addressed Claims should consult their respective tax advisors regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Modified Second Amended Plan.

C. Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences to the Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors

For U.S. federal income tax purposes, Wolverine Top Holding Corporation ("Parent"), a non-debtor, is the common parent of an affiliated group of corporations that files a single consolidated U.S. federal income tax return (the "Tax Group"), of which the Debtors are members or are either foreign corporations or flow-through entities, directly or indirectly, wholly-owned by a member of the Tax Group. The Debtors estimate that, as of the taxable year ending December 31, 2022, the Tax Group had federal net operating loss ("NOL") carryforwards of almost $22 million. In addition, the Debtors estimate that, as of the taxable year ending December 31, 2022, the Tax Group also had interest expense carryforwards of approximately $515 million. As discussed below, the Tax Group's NOLs and other tax attributes may be, in connection with the implementation of the Modified Second Amended Plan, significantly reduced, subject to limitation or entirely unavailable to the Reorganized Debtors, depending on the manner in which the Restructuring Transactions are consummated.

The tax consequences of the implementation of the Modified Second Amended Plan to the Debtors will differ depending on whether the Restructuring Transactions are structured as an actual or deemed taxable sale of the assets and/or stock of any Debtor or subsidiary of any Debtor (a "Taxable Transaction") or as a recapitalization or reorganization of the Debtors (a "Reorganization Transaction"). It has not yet been determined how the Restructuring Transactions will be structured. Such decision will depend on, among other things, whether assets being sold (or deemed to be sold) pursuant to any Taxable Transaction have an aggregate fair market value in excess of their aggregate tax basis (i.e., a "built-in gain") or an aggregate fair market value less than their aggregate tax basis (i.e., a "built-in loss"), the amount of any required reduction in the aggregate tax basis of such assets by excluded cancellation of indebtedness income ("COD Income"), whether sufficient tax attributes are available to offset any such built-in gain, future tax benefits associated with a step-up (if any) in the tax basis of the assets sold pursuant to a Taxable Transaction, and the amount and character of any losses with respect to the stock of any applicable Debtor or subsidiary thereof, in each case for U.S. federal, state and local income tax purposes.

If the transactions undertaken pursuant to the Modified Second Amended Plan are structured in whole or in part as a Taxable Transaction involving the transfer (or deemed transfer) of the Debtors' assets (or stock of subsidiaries, as discussed further below), the Debtors generally would realize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between the value of the consideration received by the Debtors plus certain liabilities treated as assumed (which aggregate amount generally should equal the fair market value of the assets transferred (or deemed to be transferred) by the Debtors, unless the amount of liabilities assumed exceeds the fair market value of the assets transferred or deemed to be transferred) and the Debtors' tax basis in such assets. Realized gains, if any, may be offset by current-year losses and deductions, which may include interest deductions that may be (or become) available under section 163(j) of the Tax Code, NOL carryforwards from prior years, if any, and any worthless stock deduction claimed with respect to the equity of a Debtor that is available to offset all or a portion of such gains; provided that any such gain that is ordinary in nature may not be offset by capital losses. Any taxable gain remaining after such offsets would result in a cash tax obligation that would need to be satisfied by the Reorganized Debtors. If the Reorganized Debtors purchase (or are deemed to purchase) assets or stock of any Debtor pursuant to a Taxable Transaction, the Reorganized Debtors will take a fair market value basis in the transferred assets or stock. However, if a Taxable Transaction involves a purchase of stock, the Debtor whose stock is transferred (i) will retain its basis in its assets, unless the Debtors and/or Reorganized Debtors are eligible to make, and timely make, certain elections provided for under the Tax Code to treat such stock purchase as the purchase of such Debtor's assets, and (ii) may succeed to certain tax attributes of the Tax Group, subject to reduction for COD Income as discussed below. If the Restructuring Transactions are consummated as a Taxable Transaction treated as an asset transfer, the Debtors' NOLs and other tax attributes will not carry over to the Reorganized Debtors. The tax consequences to the Debtors of the Restructuring Transactions, including the potential amount of cash tax liability (if any) resulting from a Taxable Transaction, remain subject to ongoing analysis.

1. Cancellation of Debt and Reduction of Tax Attributes

In general, absent an exception, a debtor will realize and recognize COD Income upon satisfaction of its outstanding indebtedness for total consideration less than the amount of such indebtedness. The amount of COD Income, in general, is the excess of (a) the adjusted issue price of the indebtedness satisfied, over (b) the sum of: (i) the amount of Cash paid; (ii) the issue price of any new indebtedness of the taxpayer issued; and (iii) the fair market value of any other consideration (including stock of the debtor) given in satisfaction of such satisfied indebtedness at the time of the exchange.

Under section 108 of the Tax Code, a debtor is not, however, required to include any amount of COD Income in gross income if the debtor is under the jurisdiction of a court in a case under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code and the discharge of debt occurs pursuant to that proceeding. Instead, as a consequence of such exclusion, a debtor must reduce its tax attributes (such as current year losses, NOL carryforwards, capital loss carryforwards, tax credits and tax basis in assets) by the amount of COD Income that it excluded from gross income pursuant to section 108 of the Tax Code. The reduction in tax attributes occurs only after the tax for the year of the debt discharge has been determined. Any excess COD Income over the amount of available tax attributes will generally not give rise to U.S. federal income tax and will generally have no other U.S. federal income tax impact. Where the debtor joins in the filing of a consolidated U.S. federal income tax return, applicable Treasury Regulations require, in certain circumstances, that certain tax attributes of other members of the group also be reduced.

In connection with the implementation of the Modified Second Amended Plan, the Debtors are expected to realize significant COD Income. The exact amount of any COD Income that will be realized by the Debtors will depend, in part, on the value of the New Common Equity, the New Takeback Notes and the 2024 Notes Distribution Rights and, therefore, will not be determinable until the consummation of the Modified Second Amended Plan. The Debtors expect that the amount of COD Income will be sufficient to eliminate all of the Debtors' NOL carryforwards allocable to periods prior to the Effective Date. In addition, depending on the structure of the transactions undertaken pursuant to the Modified Second Amended Plan, some of the Debtors' tax basis in their assets may be reduced by COD Income. As noted above, whether or not the Reorganized Debtors succeed to the tax attributes of the Debtors will depend on whether the Restructuring Transactions are structured as a Taxable Transaction (and if a Taxable Transaction, whether it is treated as an asset sale or stock sale) or as a Reorganization Transaction.

2. Limitation of NOL Carryforwards and Other Tax Attributes

Under sections 382 and 383 of the Tax Code, if a corporation undergoes an "ownership change," the amount of any NOLs, interest expense carryforwards, tax credit carryforwards, net unrealized built-in losses, and possibly certain other attributes of the corporation allocable to periods prior to the ownership change (collectively, "Pre-Change Losses") that may be utilized to offset future taxable income generally are subject to an annual limitation. If the Reorganized Debtors succeed to any Pre-Change Losses, the implementation of the Modified Second Amended Plan is expected to result in an "ownership change" of the Reorganized Debtors and, as a result, the Reorganized Debtors' use of those Pre-Change Losses will be subject to limitation unless an exception to the general rules of section 382 of the Tax Code applies. For this purpose, if a corporation (or consolidated group) has a net unrealized built-in loss at the time of an ownership change (taking into account most assets and items of "built-in" income and deductions), then generally built-in losses (including amortization or depreciation deductions attributable to such built-in losses) recognized during the following five years (up to the amount of the original net unrealized built-in loss) will be treated as Pre-Change Losses and similarly will be subject to the annual limitation. In general, a corporation's (or consolidated group's) net unrealized built-in loss will be deemed to be zero unless it is greater than the lesser of (a) $10,000,000 or (b) 15% of the fair market value of its assets (with certain adjustments) before the ownership change. On September 9, 2019, the IRS issued proposed Treasury Regulations that would significantly modify the calculation and treatment of net unrealized built-in gains and losses; however, the IRS amended the proposed effective date provision of those Treasury Regulations to exempt from the new Treasury Regulations ownership changes pursuant to chapter 11 cases filed prior to the Treasury Regulations becoming effective. Thus, if the proposed Treasury Regulations are finalized in their current form, the proposed Treasury Regulations are not expected to apply to the Reorganized Debtors and the remainder of this discussion assumes they will not apply.

a. General Section 382 Annual Limitation

In general, the amount of the annual limitation to which a corporation that undergoes an "ownership change" would be subject is equal to the product of (a) the fair market value of the stock of the corporation immediately before the "ownership change" (with certain adjustments) multiplied by (b) the "long-term tax-exempt rate" (3.62% for ownership changes occurring in August 2024). The section 382 limitation may be increased to the extent that the company recognizes certain built-in gains in its assets during the five-year period following the ownership change or is treated as recognizing built-in gains pursuant to the safe harbors provided in IRS Notice 2003-65 (in either case, up to the amount of the company's original net unrealized built-in gain). Section 383 of the Tax Code applies a similar limitation to capital loss carryforwards and tax credits. Any unused limitation may be carried forward, thereby increasing the annual limitation in the subsequent taxable year. As discussed below, however, special rules may apply in the case of a corporation that experiences an ownership change as the result of a bankruptcy proceeding.

b. Special Bankruptcy Exception

An exception to the forgoing annual limitation rules generally applies when so-called "qualified creditors" of a debtor corporation in a chapter 11 case receive, in respect of their Claims, at least 50 percent of the vote and value of the stock of the reorganized debtor (or a controlling corporation, if also in chapter 11) pursuant to a confirmed chapter 11 plan (the "382(l)(5) Exception"). Under the 382(l)(5) Exception, a debtor's Pre-Change Losses are not limited on an annual basis, but instead, NOL carryforwards and/or interest expense carryforwards will be reduced by the amount of any interest deductions claimed during the taxable year prior to and including the effective date of the plan of reorganization, in respect of all debt converted into stock in the reorganization. If the 382(l)(5) Exception applies and the Reorganized Debtors undergo another "ownership change" within two years after the Effective Date, then the Reorganized Debtors' Pre-Change Losses thereafter would be effectively eliminated in their entirety.

Where the 382(l)(5) Exception is not applicable to a corporation in bankruptcy (either because the debtor does not qualify for it or the debtor otherwise elects not to utilize the 382(l)(5) Exception), a second special rule will generally apply (the "382(l)(6) Exception"). Under the 382(l)(6) Exception, the annual limitation will be calculated by reference to the lesser of the value of the debtor corporation's new stock (with certain adjustments) immediately after the ownership change or the value of such debtor corporation's assets (determined without regard to liabilities) immediately before the ownership change. This differs from the ordinary rule that requires the fair market value of a debtor corporation that undergoes an "ownership change" to be determined before the events giving rise to the change. The 382(l)(6) Exception also differs from the 382(l)(5) Exception in that under it the debtor corporation is not required to reduce its NOL carryforwards by the amount of interest deductions claimed within the prior three-year period, and the debtor may undergo a subsequent change of ownership within two years without automatically triggering the elimination of its Pre-Change Losses. The resulting limitation from the subsequent change of ownership would be determined under the regular rules for ownership changes.

If the Restructuring Transactions are structured as a Taxable Transaction that is treated as an asset transfer, the Reorganized Debtors are not expected to succeed to the Debtors' NOLs and other tax attributes, with the result that section 382 should not be relevant to the Reorganized Debtors. If the Restructuring Transactions are structured as a Reorganization Transaction or a stock transfer where the Reorganized Debtors succeed to any of the Debtors' Pre-Change Losses, the application of section 382, including whether the 382(l)(5) Exception may apply, will need to be considered after taking into account any reduction of NOLs or other tax attributes for COD Income and the impact of any prior section 382 ownership changes to a portion of the Debtors' existing NOLs and other tax attributes.

D. Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences to U.S. Holders

1. Tax Treatment of Class A New Equity and Class B New Equity and New Takeback Notes

Based on the terms of the New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes, Reorganized Incora intends to treat the New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes as equity of Reorganized Incora for U.S. federal income tax purposes. In the case of the New Takeback Notes, Reorganized Incora intends to take the position that such instrument is not "preferred stock" for purposes of section 305 of the Tax Code. The remainder of this discussion assumes that the New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes will be treated as equity of Reorganized Incora and the New Takeback Notes will not be treated as "preferred stock" for purposes of section 305 of the Tax Code. In general, the characterization of an instrument for U.S. federal income tax purposes as debt or equity by its issuer as of the time of issuance is binding on a holder. This characterization, however, is not binding on the IRS or the courts. In particular, with respect to the New Takeback Notes, there can be no assurance that the IRS would not contend, and that a court would not ultimately hold, that the New Takeback Notes constitute debt of Reorganized Incora or as "preferred stock" for purposes of section 305 of the Tax Code (or, in each case, some other form of financial instrument). If the New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes were treated as something other than equity of Reorganized Incora for U.S. federal income tax purposes or, in the case of the New Takeback Notes, stock that is not "preferred stock" for purposes of section 305 of the Tax Code, the U.S. federal income tax consequences to holders of the New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes would be materially different from that described below. Each holder of New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes is urged to consult its own tax advisor regarding the U.S. federal income tax treatment of such instrument.

2. Treatment of Claims as Securities

As discussed further below, the U.S. federal income tax consequences to holders of Allowed Addressed Claims may depend on whether the Allowed Addressed Claims constitute "securities" for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Neither the Tax Code nor the Treasury Regulations defines the term "security". Whether a debt instrument constitutes a "security" is determined based on all relevant facts and circumstances, but most authorities have held that the length of the term of a debt instrument at initial issuance is an important factor in determining whether such instrument is a security for U.S. federal income tax purposes. These authorities have indicated that a term of less than five years is evidence that the instrument is not a security, whereas a term of ten years or more is evidence that it is a security. There are numerous other factors that could be taken into account in determining whether a debt instrument is a security, including the available collateral, the creditworthiness of the obligor, the subordination or lack thereof with respect to other creditors, the right to vote or otherwise participate in the management of the obligor, convertibility of the instrument into an interest of the obligor, whether payments of interest are fixed, variable, or contingent, and whether such payments are made on a current basis or accrued.

The 2024 Unsecured Notes, the 2026 Notes and the 2027 Unsecured Notes were each issued in 2019 with an initial term of five, seven and eight years, respectively. The 1L Notes and 1.25L Notes were issued in 2022 as part of a debt exchange transaction. While the 1L Notes and 1.25L Notes each had an initial term of just four and five years, respectively, they were each received in exchange for prior debt having an initial term of five and eight years, respectively. Based on certain IRS guidance, in certain circumstances, a loan issued in exchange for a debt instrument that would have been treated as a security may be considered a security notwithstanding that the new loan has a term of less than five years. Each holder of an Allowed Addressed Claim is urged to consult its own tax advisor regarding whether such Allowed Addressed Claim should be treated as a "security" for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

3. Consequences of Exchange for U.S. Holders of Allowed Addressed Claims

a. Gain or Loss on Allowed 1L Notes Claims

On the Effective Date, the holders of Allowed 1L Notes Claims will exchange their 1L Notes Claims for (x) New Common Equity and (y) New Takeback Notes. Pursuant to the Modified Second Amended Plan, the Debtors may also pay certain Restructuring Expenses attributable to the 1L Indenture Trustee and the First Lien Noteholder Group. It is possible that all or a portion of these payments may be treated as payment of cash to certain holders of Allowed 1L Notes Claims. The remaining discussion does not address the tax treatment to a U.S. Holder of Allowed 1L Notes Claims if any such amounts paid by the Debtors is treated as cash consideration with respect to the U.S. Holder's Allowed 1L Notes Claims. U.S. Holders are urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the tax consequences of any such payment.

As described above, the U.S. federal income tax consequences to a U.S. Holder of an Allowed 1L Notes Claim will depend, in part, on whether the transactions undertaken pursuant to the Modified Second Amended Plan constitute, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, (a) a Taxable Transaction, or (b) a Reorganization Transaction and, if a Reorganization Transaction, the steps for implementing the Modified Second Amended Plan. The U.S. federal income tax consequences to U.S. Holders of Allowed 1L Notes Claims may further depend on whether the Allowed 1L Notes Claims surrendered constitute "securities" for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Reorganization Transaction. If either (i) the Allowed 1L Notes Claims constitute "securities" for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the issuer of the New Common Equity and the New Takeback Notes (which are intended to be treated as equity for tax purposes, as described above) is the issuer of the Allowed 1L Notes Claims and the transaction is treated as a "reorganization" (within the meaning of section 368(a)(1) of the Tax Code) with respect to a U.S. Holder of Allowed 1L Notes Claims or (ii) the transaction is described in section 351 of the Tax Code (which may apply even if the Allowed 1L Notes Claims are not treated as securities) with respect to a U.S. Holder of Allowed 1L Notes Claims, subject to the discussion under "—Accrued Interest and OID" below, a U.S. Holder of Allowed 1L Notes Claims will not recognize any gain or loss. A U.S. Holder's tax basis in the New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes received by such holder (apart from amounts allocable to accrued but unpaid interest or accrued original issue discount ("OID")) will equal the holder's tax basis in its Allowed 1L Notes Claims exchanged therefor, with such basis allocable to the New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes based on their relative fair market values. Subject to the rules regarding accrued but unpaid interest and accrued OID, a U.S. Holder's holding period in the New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes received should include the holding period for the Allowed 1L Notes Claims exchanged therefor.

Taxable Transaction. If the Restructuring Transactions are not described in the preceding paragraph, a U.S. Holder of an Allowed 1L Notes Claim is generally expected to recognize gain or loss with respect to such Claim equal to the difference between (i) the sum of the fair market value of its pro rata share of the New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes (other than amounts, if any, allocable to accrued but unpaid interest (including OID), discussed below under "—Accrued Interest and OID") and (ii) such U.S. Holder's tax basis in their Allowed 1L Notes Claims. The character of such gain or loss as capital or ordinary will be determined by a number of factors, including the tax status of the U.S. Holder, whether the Allowed 1L Notes Claim constitutes a capital asset in such U.S. Holder's hands, whether the Allowed 1L Notes Claim was purchased at a discount, and whether and to what extent the U.S. Holder previously claimed a bad debt deduction with respect to its Allowed 1L Notes Claim. If the recognized gain is capital gain, it generally would be long-term capital gain if the U.S. Holder has held its Allowed 1L Notes Claim for more than one year at the time of the exchange.

The deductibility of capital losses is subject to certain limitations (as discussed below). To the extent that a portion of the consideration received in exchange for its Allowed 1L Notes Claim is allocable to accrued but unpaid interest or OID, the U.S. Holder may recognize ordinary income. See "—Accrued Interest and OID" and "—Market Discount", below. In the case of a transaction described in this paragraph, a U.S. Holder's tax basis in the New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes received in respect of its Allowed 1L Notes Claim should be equal to the fair market value of the New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes, respectively, and the U.S. Holder's holding period for New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes received on the Effective Date should begin on the day following the Effective Date. It is possible that a U.S. Holder of an Allowed 1L Notes Claim will be required to defer the recognition of loss resulting from the exchange of an Allowed 1L Notes Claim for New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes if it is determined that the value of such New Common Equity and/or New Takeback Notes is sufficiently uncertain due to the Appellate Adjustment Mechanism. U.S. Holders are urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the possibility that any loss may be deferred.

b. Gain or Loss on Allowed 2026 Notes Claims

On the Effective Date, the holders of Allowed 2026 Notes Claims will exchange their 2026 Notes Claims for (x) New Common Equity and (y) New Takeback Notes. A portion of the Allowed 2026 Notes Claims may be attributable to the 2026 Secured Fees and Expenses. The U.S. federal income tax treatment of the receipt of New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes for the portion of the Allowed 2026 Claims that is attributable to the 2026 Secured Fees and Expenses is unclear and it is possible that such New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes may be treated as additional consideration attributable to the 2026 Notes. Holders are urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the tax consequences of such receipt.

As described above, the U.S. federal income tax consequences to a U.S. Holder of an Allowed 2026 Notes Claim will depend, in part, on whether the transactions undertaken pursuant to the Modified Second Amended Plan constitute, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, (a) a Taxable Transaction, or (b) a Reorganization Transaction and, if a Reorganization Transaction, the steps for implementing the Modified Second Amended Plan. The U.S. federal income tax consequences to U.S. Holders of Allowed 2026 Notes Claims may further depend on whether the Allowed 2026 Notes Claims surrendered constitute "securities" for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Reorganization Transaction. If either (i) the Allowed 2026 Notes Claims constitute "securities" for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the issuer of the New Common Equity and the New Takeback Notes (which are intended to be treated as equity for tax purposes, as described above) is the issuer of the Allowed 2026 Notes Claims and the transaction is treated as a "reorganization" (within the meaning of section 368(a)(1) of the Tax Code) with respect to a U.S. Holder of Allowed 2026 Notes Claims or (ii) the transaction is described in section 351 of the Tax Code (which may apply even if the Allowed 2026 Notes Claims are not treated as securities) with respect to a U.S. Holder of Allowed 2026 Notes Claims, subject to the discussion under "—Accrued Interest and OID" below, a U.S. Holder of Allowed 2026 Notes Claims will not recognize any gain or loss. A U.S. Holder's tax basis in the New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes received by such holder (apart from amounts allocable to accrued but unpaid interest or accrued OID) will equal the holder's tax basis in its Allowed 2026

Notes Claims exchanged therefor, with such basis allocable to the New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes based on their relative fair market values. Subject to the rules regarding accrued but unpaid interest and accrued OID, a U.S. Holder's holding period in the New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes received should include the holding period for the Allowed 2026 Notes Claims exchanged therefor.

Taxable Transaction. If the Restructuring Transactions are not described in the preceding paragraph, a U.S. Holder of an Allowed 2026 Notes Claim is generally expected to recognize gain or loss with respect to such Claim equal to the difference between (i) the sum of the fair market value of its pro rata share of the New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes (other than amounts, if any, allocable to accrued but unpaid interest (including OID), discussed below under "—Accrued Interest and OID") and (ii) such U.S. Holder's tax basis in their Allowed 2026 Notes Claims. The character of such gain or loss as capital or ordinary will be determined by a number of factors, including the tax status of the U.S. Holder, whether the Allowed 2026 Notes Claim constitutes a capital asset in such U.S. Holder's hands, whether the Allowed 2026 Notes Claim was purchased at a discount, and whether and to what extent the U.S. Holder previously claimed a bad debt deduction with respect to its Allowed 2026 Notes Claim. If the recognized gain is capital gain, it generally would be long-term capital gain if the U.S. Holder has held its Allowed 2026 Notes Claim for more than one year at the time of the exchange. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to certain limitations (as discussed below). To the extent that a portion of the consideration received in exchange for its Allowed 2026 Notes Claim is allocable to accrued but unpaid interest or OID, the U.S. Holder may recognize ordinary income. See "—Accrued Interest and OID" and "—Market Discount", below. In the case of a transaction described in this paragraph, a U.S. Holder's tax basis in the New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes received in respect of its Allowed 2026 Notes Claim should be equal to the fair market value of the New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes, respectively, and the U.S. Holder's holding period for New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes received on the Effective Date should begin on the day following the Effective Date. It is possible that a U.S. Holder of an Allowed 2026 Notes Claim will be required to defer the recognition of loss resulting from the exchange of an Allowed 2026 Notes Claim for New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes if it is determined that the value of such New Common Equity and/or New Takeback Notes is sufficiently uncertain due to the Appellate Adjustment Mechanism. U.S. Holders are urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the possibility that any loss may be deferred.

c. Gain or Loss on Allowed 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims

On the Effective Date, the holders of Allowed 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims will exchange their 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims for (x) New Common Equity and (y) the 2024 Notes Distribution Rights. As described above, the U.S. federal income tax consequences to a U.S. Holder of an Allowed 2024 Unsecured Notes Claim will depend, in part, on whether the transactions undertaken pursuant to the Modified Second Amended Plan constitute, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, (a) a Taxable Transaction, or (b) a Reorganization Transaction and, if a Reorganization Transaction, the steps for implementing the Modified Second Amended Plan. The U.S. federal income tax consequences to U.S. Holders of Allowed 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims may further depend on whether the Allowed 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims surrendered constitute "securities" for U.S. federal income tax purposes and the appropriate U.S. federal income tax treatment of the 2024 Notes Distribution Rights, which treatment is uncertain.

Reorganization Transaction. If either (i) the Allowed 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims constitute "securities" for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the issuer of the New Common Equity is the issuer of the Allowed 2024 Unsecured Notes Claim, the 2024 Notes Distribution Rights are considered stock or securities of the issuer, and the transaction is treated as a "reorganization" (within the meaning of section 368(a)(1) of the Tax Code) with respect to a U.S. Holder of Allowed 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims or (ii) the transaction is described in section 351 of the Tax Code (which may apply even if the Allowed 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims are not treated as securities) with respect to a U.S. Holder of Allowed 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims and the 2024 Notes Distribution Rights are considered stock of the issuer, subject to the discussion under "—Accrued Interest and OID" below, a U.S. Holder of Allowed 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims will not recognize any gain or loss. If the all of the above requirements are satisfied but, in the case of clause (i), the 2024 Notes Distribution Rights are not stock or securities of the issuer, or, in the case of clause (ii), the 2024 Notes Distribution Rights are not stock of the issuer, the 2024 Notes Distribution Rights will be considered "boot" and the U.S. Holder will not recognize loss, but will recognize gain, if any, but not in excess of an amount equal to the fair market value of the 2024 Notes Distribution Rights received by such U.S. Holder. If the 2024 Notes Distribution Rights are not "boot," a U.S. Holder's tax basis in the New Common Equity and 2024 Notes Distribution Rights received by such holder (apart from amounts allocable to accrued but unpaid interest or accrued OID) will equal the holder's tax basis in its Allowed 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims exchanged therefor, with such basis allocable to the New Common Equity and 2024 Notes Distribution Rights based on their relative fair market values. If the 2024 Notes Distribution Rights are treated as "boot," a U.S. Holder's tax basis in the New Common Equity received by such holder (apart from amounts allocable to accrued but unpaid interest or accrued OID) will equal the holder's tax basis in its Allowed 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims exchanged therefor, increased by the amount of any gain recognized pursuant to such exchange and reduced by the fair market value of the 2024 Notes Distribution Rights. A U.S. Holder's tax basis in the 2024 Notes Distribution Rights received by such holder should equal the fair market value of the 2024 Notes Distribution Rights. Subject to the rules regarding accrued but unpaid interest and accrued OID, a U.S. Holder's holding period in New Common Equity and 2024 Notes Distribution Rights, if not considered "boot," should include the holding period for the Allowed 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims exchanged therefor. If the 2024 Notes Distribution Rights are considered "boot," a U.S. Holder's holding period for 2024 Notes Distribution Rights received on the Effective Date should begin on the day following the Effective Date.

Taxable Transaction. If the Restructuring Transactions are not described in the preceding paragraph, a U.S. Holder of an Allowed 2024 Unsecured Notes Claim is generally expected to recognize gain or loss with respect to such Claim equal to the difference between (i) the sum of the fair market value of its pro rata share of the New Common Equity and 2024 Notes Distribution Rights (other than amounts, if any, allocable to accrued but unpaid interest (including OID), discussed below under "—Accrued Interest and OID") and (ii) such U.S. Holder's tax basis in their Allowed 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims. The character of such gain or loss as capital or ordinary will be determined by a number of factors, including the tax status of the U.S. Holder, whether the Allowed 2024 Unsecured Notes Claim constitutes a capital asset in such U.S. Holder's hands, whether the Allowed 2024 Unsecured Notes Claim was purchased at a discount, and whether and to what extent the U.S. Holder previously claimed a bad debt deduction with respect to its Allowed 2024 Unsecured Notes Claim. If the recognized gain is capital gain, it generally would be long-term capital gain if the U.S. Holder has held its Allowed 2024 Unsecured Notes Claim for more than one year at the time of the exchange. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to certain limitations (as discussed below). To the extent that a portion of the consideration received in exchange for its Allowed 2024 Unsecured Notes Claim is allocable to accrued but unpaid interest or OID, the U.S. Holder may recognize ordinary income. See "—Accrued Interest and OID" and "—Market Discount", below. In the case of a transaction described in this paragraph, a U.S. Holder's tax basis in the New Common Equity and 2024 Notes Distribution Rights received in respect of its Allowed 2024 Unsecured Notes Claim should be equal to the fair market value of the New Common Equity and 2024 Notes Distribution Rights, respectively, and the U.S. Holder's holding period for New Common Equity and 2024 Notes Distribution Rights received on the Effective Date should begin on the day following the Effective Date. It is possible that a U.S. Holder of an Allowed 2024 Unsecured Notes Claim will be required to defer the recognition of loss resulting from the exchange of an Allowed 2024 Unsecured Notes Claim for New Common Equity and 2024 Notes Distribution Rights if it is determined that the value of such New Common Equity and/or 2024 Notes Distribution Rights is sufficiently uncertain due to the Appellate Adjustment Mechanism. U.S. Holders are urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the possibility that any loss may be deferred.

d. Gain or Loss on Allowed General Unsecured Claims

Pursuant to the Modified Second Amended Plan, in full and final satisfaction of Allowed General Unsecured Claims, each holder thereof will receive New Common Equity.

The U.S. federal income tax consequences to a U.S. Holder of Allowed General Unsecured Claims will depend, in part, on whether the transactions undertaken pursuant to the Modified Second Amended Plan constitute, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, (a) a Taxable Transaction, or (b) a Reorganization Transaction and, if a Reorganization Transaction, the steps for implementing the Modified Second Amended Plan. The U.S. federal income tax consequences to U.S. Holders of Allowed General Unsecured Claims may further depend on whether the applicable Allowed General Unsecured Claims surrendered constitute "securities" for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Reorganization Transaction. If either (i) the applicable Allowed General Unsecured Claims constitute "securities" for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the issuer of the New Common Equity is the issuer of the applicable Allowed General Unsecured Claims and the transaction is treated as a "reorganization" (within the meaning of section 368(a)(1) of the Tax Code) with respect to a U.S. Holder of applicable Allowed General Unsecured Claims or (ii) the transaction is described in section 351 of the Tax Code (which may apply even if the applicable Allowed General Unsecured Claims are not treated as securities) with respect to a U.S. Holder of applicable Allowed General Unsecured Claims, subject to the discussion under "—Accrued Interest and OID" below, a U.S. Holder of applicable Allowed General Unsecured Claims will not recognize any gain or loss. A U.S. Holder's tax basis in the New Common Equity received by such holder (apart from amounts allocable to accrued but unpaid interest or accrued OID) will equal the holder's tax basis in its applicable Allowed General Unsecured Claims exchanged therefor. Subject to the rules regarding accrued but unpaid interest and accrued OID, a U.S. Holder's holding period in the New Common Equity received should include the holding period for the applicable Allowed General Unsecured Claims exchanged therefor.

Taxable Transaction. If the Restructuring Transactions are not described in the preceding paragraph with respect to a U.S. Holder of Allowed General Unsecured Claims, such U.S. Holder of Allowed General Unsecured Claims is expected to recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between (i) the fair market value of its share of the New Common Equity (other than amounts, if any, allocable to accrued by unpaid interest (including OID)) and (ii) such U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in their Allowed General Unsecured Claims. The character of such gain or loss as capital or ordinary will be determined by a number of factors, including the tax status of the U.S. Holder, whether the Allowed General Unsecured Claims constitute a capital asset in such U.S. Holder's hands, whether the Allowed General Unsecured Claims were purchased at a discount, and whether and to what extent the U.S. Holder previously claimed a bad debt deduction with respect to its Allowed General Unsecured Claims. If the recognized gain is capital gain, it generally would be long-term capital gain if the U.S. Holder has held its Allowed General Unsecured Claims for more than one year at the time of the exchange. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to certain limitations (as discussed below). To the extent that a portion of the consideration received in exchange for its Allowed General Unsecured Claims is allocable to accrued but unpaid interest or OID, the U.S. Holder may recognize ordinary income. See "—Accrued Interest and OID" and "—Market Discount", below. In the case of a Taxable Transaction described in this paragraph, a U.S. Holder's tax basis in the New Common Equity received in respect of its Allowed General Unsecured Claims should be equal to the fair market value of the New Common Equity and the U.S. Holder's holding period for New Common Equity received on the Effective Date should begin on the day following the Effective Date.

e. Gain or Loss on Allowed Other Claims

Pursuant to the Modified Second Amended Plan, a U.S. Holder will receive Cash in full and final satisfaction of the U.S. Holder's Allowed Claims in Class 7b. A U.S. Holder of such Claims should recognize gain or loss on such Claim in an amount equal to the difference between the amount of Cash received and the U.S. Holder's tax basis in such Claims. To the extent that a portion of the consideration received in exchange for such Claims is allocable to accrued but unpaid interest or OID, the U.S. Holder may recognize ordinary income. See "—Accrued Interest and OID" and "—Market Discount", below. If the recognized gain is capital gain, it generally would be long-term capital gain if the U.S. Holder has held its Allowed Claims in the above-listed Classes for more than one year at the time of the exchange. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to certain limitations (as discussed below).

f. Accrued Interest and OID

In general, regardless of the manner in which the Restructuring Transactions are consummated, to the extent that any amount received by a U.S. Holder of an Allowed Claim is attributable to accrued but unpaid interest or OID on the debt instruments constituting the Allowed Claim, as applicable, the receipt of such amount should be taxable to the U.S. Holder as ordinary interest income (if not previously included in such Holder's gross income). Conversely, a U.S. Holder of an Allowed Claim may be able to recognize a deductible loss (or, possibly, a write off against a reserve for worthless debts) to the extent that any accrued interest or OID previously was included in the U.S. Holder's gross income but was not paid in full. Such loss may be ordinary, but the tax law is unclear on this point.

If the fair value of the consideration is not sufficient to fully satisfy all principal of and interest on an Allowed Claim, the extent to which such consideration will be attributable to accrued interest or OID is unclear. Under the Modified Second Amended Plan, the aggregate consideration received in respect of Allowed Claims will be allocated first to the principal amount of such Claims, with any excess allocated to unpaid interest that accrued on these Claims, if any. Certain legislative history indicates that an allocation of consideration as between principal and interest provided in a chapter 11 plan of reorganization is binding for U.S. federal income tax purposes, while certain Treasury Regulations treat payments made under a debt instrument as allocated first to any accrued but unpaid interest. The IRS could take the position that the consideration received by the U.S. Holder should be allocated in some way other than as provided in the Modified Second Amended Plan. U.S. Holders of Allowed Claims should consult their own tax advisors regarding the proper allocation of the consideration received by them under the Modified Second Amended Plan.

g. Market Discount

Under the "market discount" provisions of the Tax Code, some or all of any gain realized by a U.S. Holder of an Allowed Claim who receives consideration pursuant to the Modified Second Amended Plan in satisfaction of its Allowed Claim may be treated as ordinary income (instead of capital gain), to the extent of the amount of "market discount" on the debt instruments constituting the Allowed Claim, as applicable. In general, a debt instrument is considered to have been acquired with "market discount" if it is acquired other than at original issue and if the U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in the debt instrument is less than (a) the sum of all remaining payments to be made on the debt instrument, excluding "qualified stated interest" or (b) in the case of a debt instrument issued with OID, its adjusted issue price, in each case, by at least a de minimis amount (equal to 0.25% of the sum of all remaining payments to be made on the debt instrument, excluding qualified stated interest, multiplied by the number of remaining whole years to maturity).

Any gain recognized by a U.S. Holder on the taxable disposition of an Allowed Claim acquired with market discount should generally be treated as ordinary income to the extent of the market discount that accrued thereon while the Allowed Claim, as applicable, was considered to be held by the U.S. Holder (unless the U.S. Holder elected to include market discount in income as it accrued). To the extent that Allowed Claims that were acquired with market discount are exchanged in a Reorganization that qualifies for partially tax-free or fully tax-free treatment for the exchanging U.S. Holder, any market discount that accrued on the Allowed Claims up to the time of the exchange, but was not recognized by the U.S. Holder is carried over to the New Common Equity or New Takeback Notes received therefor and any gain recognized on the subsequent sale, exchange, redemption, or other disposition of the New Common Equity or New Takeback Notes is treated as ordinary income to the extent of the accrued, but not recognized, market discount with respect to the Allowed Claims.

U.S. Holders are urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the tax consequences of the exchange of Allowed Claims that were acquired with market discount pursuant to the Modified Second Amended Plan.

4. Consequences to U.S. Holders of Claims of Owning and Disposing of New Common Equity, New Takeback Notes and 2024 Notes Distribution Rights

Conversion of New Common Equity and Adjustment of New Takeback Notes. The New Common Equity and/or New Takeback Notes may be issued in multiple tranches to effectuate the Appellate Adjustment Mechanism. In that case, it is expected that the terms of those tranches will provide for an automatic conversion of such instruments, or other adjustment to such instruments, to reflect the resolution of the Appellate Litigation. While the U.S. federal income tax treatment of the conversions or adjustments describe above is unclear. The company currently intends to treat such conversions or adjustments as transactions that do not result in the recognition of gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Assuming each such conversion or adjustment is treated as such a transaction, a U.S. Holder would generally not be expected to recognize gain or loss as a result of the conversion or adjustment and a U.S. Holder's tax basis in the converted equity or adjusted debt (which, as described above, is intended to be treated as equity for U.S. federal income tax purposes), as applicable, will equal such U.S. Holder's tax basis in its "pre-conversion" equity or "unadjusted" debt, as applicable, respectively. A U.S. Holder's holding period in the converted equity or adjusted debt, as applicable, will include the holding period for the "pre-conversion" equity or "unadjusted" debt, as applicable. There can be no assurance that the IRS would not contend, and that a court would not ultimately hold, that all or any of the conversions or adjustments should be treated as taxable transactions. Each U.S. Holder should consult with their own tax advisor regarding the tax consequences to such U.S. Holder in connection with the conversions or adjustments.

Distribution on or Termination of the 2024 Notes Distribution Rights. Upon the resolution of the Appellate Litigation, a holder of 2024 Notes Distribution Rights will either receive New Takeback Notes (a "Distribution") or the 2024 Notes Distribution Rights will terminate without the holder receiving any consideration (a "Termination"). The U.S. federal income tax treatment of a Distribution or Termination is unclear. It is possible that a Distribution may be treated as part of a taxable exchange of the 2024 Notes Distribution Rights. Alternatively, a Distribution may be treated as a nontaxable conversion of the 2024 Notes Distribution Rights into New Takeback Notes pursuant to the terms of the 2024 Notes Distribution Rights. It is possible that a Termination may permit a U.S. Holder of 2024 Note Distribution Rights to recognize a loss equal to such U.S. ~~Holder's~~Holder's tax basis in the 2024 Note Distribution Rights. Each U.S. Holder should consult with their own tax advisor regarding the tax consequences to such U.S. Holder in connection with a Distribution or Termination.

Distributions on New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes. Any distributions (or deemed distributions) made on account of equity in Reorganized Incora (which includes the New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes) will generally constitute dividends for U.S. federal income tax purposes to the extent of the current or accumulated earnings and profits of Reorganized Incora, as determined under U.S. federal income tax principles. As discussed above, under "Treatment of New Takeback Notes as Equity," Reorganized Incora intends to treat the New Takeback Notes as equity of Reorganized Incora for U.S. federal income tax purposes that is not "preferred stock" for purposes of section 305 of the Tax Code. Nevertheless, there is a risk that, pursuant to section 305 of the Tax Code, if Reorganized Incora makes an actual distribution on account of the New Common Equity, the accretion on the New Takeback Notes would be treated as a deemed distribution on the New Takeback Notes. Dividends (or deemed dividends) received by a non-corporate U.S. Holder may be eligible for the lower rate applicable to long-term capital gain if certain holding period requirements are satisfied. To the extent that a U.S. Holder receives (or is deemed to receive) distributions that would otherwise constitute dividends for U.S. federal income tax purposes but that exceed such current and accumulated earnings and profits, such distributions (or deemed distributions) will be treated first as a non-taxable return of capital reducing the U.S. Holder's basis in its shares. Any such distributions (or deemed distributions) in excess of the U.S. Holder's basis in its shares (determined on a share-by-share basis) generally will be treated as capital gain, which will be treated as long-term capital gain if such U.S. Holder's holding period in its equity interests exceeds one year as of the date of the distribution (or deemed distribution). In the case of taxable distributions (or deemed distributions) of property, including equity interests, the U.S. Holder will generally be expected to take fair market value basis in the property received (or deemed received).

Amounts treated as dividends (or deemed dividends) paid to U.S. Holders that are corporations generally will be eligible for the dividends-received deduction. However, the dividends-received deduction is only available if certain holding period requirements are satisfied. The length of time that a shareholder has held its stock is reduced for any period during which the shareholder's risk of loss with respect to the stock is diminished by reason of the existence of certain options, contracts to sell, short sales or similar transactions. In addition, to the extent that a corporation incurs indebtedness that is directly attributable to an investment in the stock on which the dividend is paid, all or a portion of the dividends-received deduction may be disallowed.

Sale, Redemption or Repurchase of New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes. Subject to the discussion below regarding redemption of equity in Reorganized Incora (which includes the New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes), unless a non-recognition provision applies, U.S. Holders generally will recognize capital gain or loss upon the sale or other taxable disposition of the New Common Equity or New Takeback Notes. Such capital gain will be long-term capital gain if, at the time of the sale or other taxable disposition, the U.S. Holder's holding period in the New Common Equity or New Takeback Notes is more than one year. Long-term capital gains of a non-corporate taxpayer generally are taxed at preferential rates. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to certain limitations as described below. In certain circumstances, a U.S. Holder may be required to treat gain recognized on the taxable disposition of the New Common Equity or New Takeback Notes as ordinary income if such U.S. Holder took a bad debt deduction with respect to its Allowed Claims or recognized an ordinary loss on the exchange of its Allowed Claims pursuant to the Modified Second Amended Plan.

A full or partial redemption of equity in Reorganized Incora (which includes the New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes) will be treated as a distribution taxable as a dividend to holders of such equity interests to the extent of Reorganized Incora's current or accumulated earnings and profits, unless it can be satisfactorily established that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, (i) the redemption is "not essentially equivalent to a dividend," (ii) the redemption results in a "complete termination" of the holder's interest in the equity interests of Reorganized Incora (which includes the New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes) or (iii) the redemption is "substantially disproportionate" with respect to the holder, all within the meaning of section 302(b) of the Tax Code. In any such case where one of these requirements is met, the redemption will be subject to U.S. federal income tax in the manner described above with respect to sales and other taxable dispositions generally. A redemption of the New Common Equity or New Takeback Notes that is treated as a distribution taxable as a dividend will be subject to U.S. federal income tax in the manner described above under "—Distributions on New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes".

As discussed above under "—Market Discount", in the case of any debt instrument underlying an Allowed Claim that was acquired at a "market discount" and is subject to partially tax-free or fully tax-free treatment with respect to the exchange pursuant to the Modified Second Amended Plan as more fully discussed above, the Tax Code indicates that any accrued market discount in respect of such portion of the Allowed Claim, as applicable, that is not currently includible in income should carry over to any nonrecognition property received in exchange therefor (i.e., the New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes). Accordingly, in that situation, any gain recognized by a holder upon a subsequent disposition of New Common Equity or New Takeback Notes may be treated as ordinary income to the extent of the allocable portion of any accrued market discount not previously included in income. To date, specific Treasury Regulations implementing this rule have not been issued.

5. Limitation on Use of Capital Losses

U.S. Holders who recognize capital losses will be subject to limits on their use of capital losses. For U.S. Holders other than corporations, capital losses may be used to offset any capital gains (without regard to holding periods) plus ordinary income to the extent of the lesser of (i) $3,000 (or $1,500 for married individuals filing separate returns), or (ii) the excess of the capital losses over the capital gains. Non-corporate U.S. Holders may carry over unused capital losses and apply them to capital gains and a portion of their ordinary income. For corporate U.S. Holders, capital losses may only be used to offset capital gains. U.S. Holders who have more capital losses than can be used in a tax year may be allowed to carry over the excess capital losses for use in succeeding tax years. For corporate U.S. Holders, unused capital losses may be carried forward for the five years following the capital loss year or carried back to the three years preceding the capital loss year. Non-corporate U.S. Holders may carry over unused capital losses for an unlimited number of years.

E. Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences to Non-U.S. Holders

1. Gain Recognition

Whether the satisfaction of an Allowed Claim is a taxable event or not will be determined as noted above under the discussion relevant to U.S. Holders. To the extent that the Restructuring Transactions are treated as a taxable exchange for a Non-U.S. Holder, or otherwise result in recognition of gain for U.S. federal income tax purposes for such Non-U.S. Holder, any gain recognized by such Non-U.S. Holder on the exchange of its Allowed Claims generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income taxation unless (a) such Non-U.S. Holder is an individual who was present in the United States for 183 days or more during the taxable year in which the Effective Date occurs and certain other conditions are met or (b) such gain is effectively connected with the conduct by such Non-U.S. Holder of a trade or business within the United States (and if an income tax treaty applies, such gain is attributable to a permanent establishment maintained by such Non-U.S. Holder in the United States).

If the first exception applies, to the extent that any gain is taxable, the Non-U.S. Holder generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax at a rate of 30% (or at a reduced rate or exemption from tax under an applicable income tax treaty) on the amount by which such Non-U.S. Holder's capital gains allocable to U.S. sources exceed capital losses allocable to U.S. sources during the taxable year of the exchange. If the second exception applies, the Non-U.S. Holder generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax with respect to any gain recognized on the exchange in the same manner as a U.S. Holder. In addition, if such Non-U.S. Holder is a corporation, it may be subject to a branch profits tax equal to 30% (or such lower rate provided by an applicable income tax treaty) of its effectively connected earnings and profits for the taxable year, subject to certain adjustments.

2. Accrued Interest and OID

Subject to the discussions below under "—FATCA" and "—Information Reporting and Backup Withholding", payments to a Non-U.S. Holder that are attributable to accrued but unpaid interest (including accrued OID) on the debt instruments constituting the surrendered Allowed Claims generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax or withholding, provided that the withholding agent has received or receives, prior to payment, appropriate documentation (generally, an IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E (or applicable successor form)) establishing that the Non-U.S. Holder is not a U.S. person, unless:

- the Non-U.S. Holder actually or constructively owns 10% or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of Wesco Holdings Inc. stock entitled to vote;
- the Non-U.S. Holder is a "controlled foreign corporation" that is a "related person" with respect to Wesco Holdings Inc. (each, within the meaning of the Tax Code);
- the Non-U.S. Holder is a bank receiving interest described in section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Tax Code; or

- such interest (or OID) is effectively connected with the conduct by the Non-U.S. Holder of a trade or business within the United States (in which case, provided the Non-U.S. Holder provides a properly executed IRS Form W-8ECI (or successor form) to the withholding agent, the Non-U.S. Holder (x) generally will not be subject to withholding tax, but (y) will be subject to U.S. federal income tax in the same manner as a U.S. Holder (unless an applicable income tax treaty provides otherwise), and a Non-U.S. Holder that is a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes may also be subject to a branch profits tax with respect to such Non-U.S. Holder's effectively connected earnings and profits that are attributable to the accrued interest at a rate of 30% (or at a reduced rate or exemption from tax under an applicable income tax treaty)).

In the case of a Non-U.S. Holder that does not qualify for the exemption from withholding tax with respect to accrued but unpaid interest (including accrued OID) on the Allowed Claims described above, any payments attributable to accrued but unpaid interest (including OID) that is not effectively connected income (as described in the fourth bullet above) generally will be subject to withholding of U.S. federal income tax at a 30% rate (or at a reduced rate or exemption from tax under an applicable income tax treaty). For purposes of providing a properly executed IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E, special procedures are provided under applicable Treasury Regulations for payments through qualified foreign intermediaries or certain financial institutions that hold customers' securities in the ordinary course of their trade or business. As described above in more detail, the Modified Second Amended Plan provides that the aggregate consideration to be distributed to holders of Allowed Addressed Claims in each Class will be allocated first to the principal amount of such Claims, with any excess allocated to unpaid interest that accrued on these Allowed Claims, if any. The IRS could take the position that the consideration received by a Non-U.S. Holder should be allocated in some way other than as provided in the Modified Second Amended Plan. Non-U.S. Holders of Allowed Addressed Claims should consult their own tax advisors regarding the proper allocation of the consideration received by them under the Modified Second Amended Plan.

3. Consequences to Non-U.S. Holders of Claims of Owning and Disposing of New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes

Conversion of New Common Equity and Adjustment of New Takeback Notes. The U.S federal income tax consequences of the conversions or adjustments of the New Common Equity or New Takeback Notes to a Non-U.S. Holder are generally expected to be the same as the U.S federal income tax consequences of the conversions or adjustments to a U.S. Holder as described above under "Consequences to U.S. Holders of Claims of Owning and Disposing of New Common Equity, New Takeback Notes and 2024 Notes Distribution Rights – Conversion of New Common Equity and Adjustment of New Takeback Notes."

Distribution on or Termination of the 2024 Notes Distribution Rights. The U.S federal income tax consequences of a Distribution or Termination with respect to the 2024 Note Distribution Rights to a Non-U.S. Holder are generally expected to be the same as the U.S federal income tax consequences of the conversions or adjustments to a U.S. Holder as described above under "Consequences to U.S. Holders of Claims of Owning and Disposing of New

Common Equity, New Takeback Notes and 2024 Notes Distribution Rights – Distribution on or Termination of the 2024 Notes Distribution Rights."

Distributions on New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes. Any distributions (or deemed distributions, including as a result of the application of section 305 of the Tax Code to the New Takeback Notes, s*ee – "Consequences to U.S. Holders of Claims of Owning and Disposing of New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes – Distributions on New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes") made on account of the New Common Equity or New Takeback Notes will generally constitute dividends (or deemed dividends) for U.S. federal income tax purposes to the extent of the current or accumulated earnings and profits of Reorganized Incora, as determined under U.S. federal income tax principles. To the extent that a Non-U.S. Holder receives (or is deemed to receive) distributions that would otherwise constitute dividends for U.S. federal income tax purposes but that exceed such current and accumulated earnings and profits, such distributions (or deemed distributions) will be treated first as a non-taxable return of capital reducing the Non-U.S. Holder's basis in its shares. Any such distributions (or deemed distributions) in excess of the Non-U.S. Holder's basis in its shares (determined on a share-by-share basis) generally will be treated as capital gain from a sale or exchange (and the respective excess distributions as proceeds from a sale or exchange as described below; see "—Sale, Redemption or Repurchase of New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes*" below).

Subject to the discussions below under "—FATCA" and "—Information Reporting and Backup Withholding" and except as described below, dividends (or deemed dividends) paid with respect to the New Common Equity or New Takeback Notes held by a Non-U.S. Holder that are not effectively connected with a Non-U.S. Holder's conduct of a U.S. trade or business (or if an income tax treaty applies, are not attributable to a permanent establishment maintained by such non-U.S. Holder in the United States) will be subject to U.S. federal withholding tax at a rate of 30% (or lower treaty rate or exemption from tax, if applicable). A Non-U.S. Holder generally will be required to satisfy certain IRS certification requirements in order to claim a reduction of or exemption from withholding under a tax treaty by filing IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E (or a successor form) upon which the Non-U.S. Holder certifies, under penalties of perjury, its status as a Non-U.S. person and its entitlement to the lower treaty rate or exemption from tax with respect to such payments.

Dividends (or deemed dividends) paid with respect to New Common Equity or New Takeback Notes held by a Non-U.S. Holder that are effectively connected with the Non-U.S. Holder's conduct of a U.S. trade or business (and if an income tax treaty applies, are attributable to a permanent establishment maintained by such Non-U.S. Holder in the United States) generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax in the same manner as a U.S. Holder, and a Non-U.S. Holder that is a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes may also be subject to a branch profits tax with respect to such Non-U.S. Holder's effectively connected earnings and profits that are attributable to the dividends at a rate of 30% (or at a reduced rate or exemption from tax under an applicable income tax treaty).

Sale, Redemption or Repurchase of New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes. Subject to the discussion below regarding redemptions of the New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes and under "—Information Reporting and Backup Withholding", a Non-U.S. Holder generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax with respect to any gain recognized on the sale or other taxable disposition of New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes unless:

- such Non-U.S. Holder is an individual who is present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of disposition and certain other conditions are met or who is subject to special rules applicable to former citizens and residents of the United States;
- such gain is effectively connected with such Non-U.S. Holder's conduct of a U.S. trade or business (and if an applicable income tax treaty applies, such gain is attributable to a permanent establishment maintained by such Non-U.S. Holder in the United States); or
- Reorganized Incora is or has been during a specified testing period a "U.S. real property holding corporation" (a "USRPHC") for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

If the first exception applies, the Non-U.S. Holder generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax at a rate of 30% (or at a reduced rate or exemption from tax under an applicable income tax treaty) on the amount by which such Non-U.S. Holder's capital gains allocable to U.S. sources exceed capital losses allocable to U.S. sources during the taxable year of disposition of the New Common Equity or New Takeback Notes. If the second exception applies, the Non-U.S. Holder generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax with respect to such gain in the same manner as a U.S. Holder, and a Non-U.S. Holder that is a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes may also be subject to a branch profits tax with respect to earnings and profits effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business that are attributable to such gains at a rate of 30% (or at a reduced rate or exemption from tax under an applicable income tax treaty).

If the third exception applies, the Non-U.S. Holder generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on any gain recognized on the disposition of all or a portion of its New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes under the Foreign Investment in Real Property Tax Act ("FIRPTA"). Taxable gain from the disposition of an interest in a USRPHC (generally equal to the difference between the amount realized and such Non-U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in such interest) will constitute effectively connected income. Further, the buyer of the New Common Equity or New Takeback Notes will generally be required to withhold a tax equal to 15% of the amount realized on the sale. The amount of any such withholding would be allowed as a credit against the Non-U.S. Holder's federal income tax liability and may entitle the Non-U.S. Holder to a refund, provided that the Non-U.S. Holder properly and timely files a tax return with the IRS.

In general, a corporation is a USRPHC as to a Non-U.S. Holder if the fair market value of the corporation's U.S. real property interests (as defined in the Tax Code and applicable Treasury Regulations) equals or exceeds 50% of the aggregate fair market value of its worldwide real property interests and its other assets used or held for use in a trade or business (applying certain look-through rules to evaluate the assets of subsidiaries) at any time within the shorter of the 5-year period ending on the effective time of the applicable disposition or the period of time the Non-U.S. Holder held such interest. While a determination of whether Reorganized Incora will be a USRPHC at a particular time will depend on the relative values of Reorganized Incora's assets at that time, based on Incora's current assets and Reorganized Incora's business plan, it does not believe that it is currently treated or expect to be treated as a USRPHC.

As discussed above under "—Consequences to U.S. Holders of Addressed Claims," a full or partial redemption of the equity in Reorganized Incora (which includes the New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes) will generally be treated as a distribution taxable as a dividend to the extent of Reorganized Incora's current or accumulated earnings and profits unless it can be satisfactorily established that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, (i) the redemption is "not essentially equivalent to a dividend," (ii) the redemption results in a "complete termination" of the holder's interest in the equity interests of Reorganized Incora (which includes the New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes) or (iii) the redemption is "substantially disproportionate" with respect to the holder, all within the meaning of section 302(b) of the Tax Code. In such event, any amount constituting a dividend for U.S. federal income tax purposes generally would be subject to U.S. federal withholding tax at a rate of 30%, or such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty, unless such dividend is effectively connected with the Non-U.S. Holder's conduct of a trade or business within the United States (and, if required by an applicable income tax treaty, is attributable to a permanent establishment maintained by such Non-U.S. Holder in the United States). A withholding agent (which may include Reorganized Incora) might not make a determination as to whether the cash received upon redemption is subject to such withholding, including because the application of section 302 of the Tax Code will depend on a Non-U.S. Holder's particular circumstances. Accordingly, withholding agents may withhold tax at a rate of 30% (or such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty) on the entire amount of the redemption amount made to such Non-U.S. Holder, unless (1) the withholding agent has established special procedures allowing Non-U.S. Holders to certify that they are exempt from such withholding tax and (2) such Non-U.S. Holders are able to certify that they meet the requirements of such exemption (e.g., because such Non-U.S. Holders are not treated as receiving a dividend under the section 302 tests described above). However, there can be no assurance that a withholding agent will establish such special certification procedures. If a withholding agent withholds excess amounts from the cash consideration so payable to a Non-U.S. Holder, such Non-U.S. Holder may obtain a refund of any such excess amounts by timely filing an appropriate claim with the IRS. Non-U.S. Holders should consult their own tax advisors regarding the application of the foregoing rules in light of their particular facts and circumstances, the procedures for claiming treaty benefits or otherwise establishing an exemption from U.S. withholding tax with respect to payments received in redemption of their equity in Reorganized Incora (which includes the New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes).

4. FATCA

Under the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act ("FATCA"), foreign financial institutions and certain other foreign entities must report certain information with respect to their U.S. account holders and investors or be subject to withholding at a rate of 30% on the receipt of "withholdable payments". For this purpose, "withholdable payments" are generally U.S. source payments of fixed or determinable, annual or periodical income, including any dividends (including any deemed dividends) on the New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes.

FATCA withholding will apply even if the applicable payment would not otherwise be subject to U.S. federal nonresident withholding.

FATCA withholding rules that were previously scheduled to take effect on January 1, 2019 would have applied to payments of gross proceeds from the sale or other disposition of property of a type that can produce U.S. source interest or dividends. However, such withholding has effectively been suspended under proposed Treasury Regulations that may be relied on until final regulations become effective. Nonetheless, there can be no assurance that a similar rule will not go into effect in the future.

Each Non-U.S. Holder should consult its own tax advisor regarding the possible impact of the FATCA withholding rules on such Non-U.S. Holder's ownership of the New Common Equity and New Takeback Notes.

F. Information Reporting and Back-Up Withholding

The Debtors and Reorganized Debtors will withhold all amounts required by law to be withheld and will comply with all applicable reporting requirements of the Tax Code. In general, information reporting requirements may apply to distributions or payments made to a holder of a Claim under the Modified Second Amended Plan or with respect to their New Common Equity or New Takeback Notes. Under U.S. federal income tax law, interest, dividends, and other reportable payments may, under certain circumstances, be subject to "backup withholding" at the then applicable withholding rate (currently 24%). Backup withholding generally applies unless, in the case of a U.S. Holder, such U.S. Holder provides a properly executed IRS Form W-9 (or otherwise establishes such U.S. Holder's eligibility for an exemption) or, in the case of Non-U.S. Holder, such Non-U.S. Holder provides a properly executed applicable IRS Form W-8 (along with appropriate attachments) (or otherwise establishes such Non-U.S. Holder's eligibility for an exemption from withholding). Backup withholding is not an additional tax but is, instead, an advance payment that may entitle the holder to a refund from the IRS to the extent it results in an overpayment of tax, provided that the required information is timely provided to the IRS.

In addition, from an information reporting perspective, the Treasury Regulations generally require disclosure by a taxpayer on its U.S. federal income tax return of certain types of transactions in which the taxpayer participated, including, among other types of transactions, certain transactions that result in the taxpayer's claiming a loss in excess of specified thresholds. Holders are urged to consult their tax advisors regarding these regulations and whether the transactions contemplated by the Modified Second Amended Plan would be subject to these regulations and require disclosure on the holders' tax returns.

SECTION VIII.
SECURITIES LAW CONSIDERATIONS

A. IMPORTANCE OF OBTAINING INDEPENDENT PROFESSIONAL ADVICE

The Debtors do not make any representation concerning the ability of any Entity to dispose of the securities to be issued under or otherwise acquired pursuant to the Modified Second Amended Plan. The question of whether a particular Entity is an underwriter or an affiliate is complex, and the availability of exemptions from registration under the Securities Act (including those under section 1145 of the Bankruptcy Code and Rule 144 under the Securities Act) is highly fact-specific. Potential recipients of securities to be issued under or otherwise acquired pursuant to the Modified Second Amended Plan should consult their own counsel concerning their ability to trade or re-sell such securities freely.

B. ISSUANCE AND RESALE OF SECURITIES UNDER THE MODIFIED SECOND AMENDED PLAN

1. Exemptions from Registration Requirements of the Securities Act and Applicable State Securities Law

No registration statement will be filed under the Securities Act or pursuant to any state securities laws with respect to the offer and distribution of securities under the Modified Second Amended Plan.

2. Section 1145 Securities

The Modified Second Amended Plan provides for the offer, issuance, sale or distribution of shares of New Common Equity (the "Section 1145 Securities") as well as the New Notes. The offer, issuance, sale or distribution of the Section 1145 Securities is expected to be exempt from registration under section 5 of the Securities Act and under any state or local law requiring registration for offer or sale of a security pursuant to section 1145 of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 1145(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code exempts the offer and sale of securities under a plan of reorganization from registration under section 5 of the Securities Act and state or local securities laws if three principal requirements are satisfied: (i) the securities must be offered and sold under a plan of reorganization and must be securities issued by the debtor, an affiliate participating in a joint plan with the debtor, or a successor to the debtor under the plan; (ii) the recipients of the securities must hold prepetition or administrative expense claims against the debtor or interests in the debtor; and (iii) the securities must be issued entirely in exchange for the recipient's claim against or interest in the debtor, or "principally" in exchange for such claim or interest and "partly" for cash or property.

Subject to the limitations in the applicable governance documents, the Section 1145 Securities may be freely transferred by recipients following the initial issuance under the Modified Second Amended Plan, and all resales and subsequent transfers of the Section 1145 Securities are exempt from registration under the Securities Act and state securities laws, unless the holder is an "underwriter" with respect to such securities. Section 1145(b) of the Bankruptcy Code defines four types of "underwriters:"

(i) a person who purchases a claim against, an interest in, or a claim for an administrative expense against the debtor with a view to distributing any security received in exchange for such claim or interest;

(ii) a person who offers to sell securities offered or sold under a plan for the holders of such securities;

(iii) a person who offers to buy securities offered or sold under a plan from the holders of such securities, if the offer to buy is:

(A) with a view to distributing such securities; and

(B) under an agreement made in connection with the plan, the consummation of the plan, or with the offer or sale of securities under the plan; and

(iv) a person who is an "issuer" (as defined in section 2(a)(11) of the Securities Act) with respect to the securities.

Under section 2(a)(11) of the Securities Act, an "issuer" includes any person directly or indirectly controlling or controlled by the issuer, or any person under direct or indirect common control of the issuer. "Control," as defined in Rule 405 of the Securities Act, means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a Person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract, or otherwise. The legislative history of Section 1145 of the Bankruptcy Code suggests that a creditor who owns 10% or more of a class of voting securities of a reorganized debtor may be presumed to be a "controlling person" and, therefore, an underwriter.

To the extent that persons who receive Section 1145 Securities pursuant to the Modified Second Amended Plan are deemed to be underwriters, resales by such persons would not be exempted from registration under the Securities Act or other applicable law by section 1145 of the Bankruptcy Code. Persons deemed to be underwriters may, however, be permitted to resell such Section 1145 Securities without registration pursuant to and in accordance with the provisions of Rule 144 under the Securities Act or another available exemption under the Securities Act. In addition, such persons will also be entitled to resell their Section 1145 Securities in transactions registered under the Securities Act following the effectiveness of a registration statement, if one is filed with the SEC and becomes effective.

As noted above, holders of Section 1145 Securities who are deemed underwriters may resell Section 1145 Securities pursuant to the limited safe harbor resale provision under Rule 144 of the Securities Act, which are more fully described below in the Section entitled "Private Placement Securities," or another available exemption under the Securities Act.

Whether or not any particular person would be deemed to be an underwriter with respect to the Section 1145 Securities or other security to be issued pursuant to the Modified Second Amended Plan would depend upon various facts and circumstances applicable to that person. Accordingly, the Debtors express no view as to whether any particular person receiving Section 1145 Securities or other securities under the Modified Second Amended Plan would be an underwriter with respect to such Section 1145 Securities or other securities, whether such person may freely resell such securities, or the circumstances under which they may resell such securities.

3. Private Placement Securities

Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act provides that the issuance of securities by an issuer in transactions not involving a public offering are exempt from registration under the Securities Act. Regulation D is a non-exclusive safe harbor from registration promulgated by the SEC under the Securities Act.

The Debtors believe that the shares of New Common Equity and/or the New Notes to be issued in accordance with the Modified Second Amended Plan to underwriters (as defined for purposes of section 1145(b)) (collectively, the "4(a)(2) Securities"), are issuable without registration under the Securities Act in reliance upon the exemption from registration provided under section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act, including potentially pursuant to the safe harbor provided by Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act, and/or other applicable exemptions. Each of the holders of the Debtors' outstanding notes is required to represent that it is an "accredited investor" within the meaning of Rule 501(a) of Regulation D of the Securities Act, or a "qualified institutional buyer" (as defined under Rule 144A under the Securities Act).

The 4(a)(2) Securities will be subject to resale restrictions and may be resold, exchanged, assigned, or otherwise transferred only pursuant to registration, or an applicable exemption from registration, under the Securities Act and other applicable law, as described below.

In addition to the limitations in the applicable governance documents, the 4(a)(2) Securities will be deemed "restricted securities" (as defined by Rule 144 of the Securities Act); will bear customary legends and transfer restrictions; and may not be offered, sold, exchanged, assigned, or otherwise transferred unless they are registered under the Securities Act, or an exemption from registration under the Securities Act is available and in each case subject to the limitations in the applicable governance documents.

Rule 144 provides a limited safe harbor for the resale of restricted securities if certain conditions are met. These conditions vary depending on whether the issuer is a reporting issuer and whether the holder of the restricted securities is an "affiliate" of the issuer. Rule 144 defines an affiliate as "a person that directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with, such issuer."

A non-affiliate of an issuer that is not subject to the reporting requirements of Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act and who has not been an affiliate of the issuer during the 90 days preceding such sale may resell restricted securities after a one-year holding period whether or not there is current public information regarding the issuer. It is currently anticipated that none of the Debtors will be subject to the reporting requirements of the Exchange Act after the Effective Date.

An affiliate of an issuer that is not subject to the reporting requirements of Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act may resell restricted securities after the one-year holding period if at the time of the sale certain current public information regarding the issuer is available. An affiliate must also comply with the volume, manner of sale, and notice requirements of Rule 144. First, the rule limits the number of restricted securities (plus any unrestricted securities) sold for the account of an affiliate (and related persons) in any three-month period to the greater of 1% of the outstanding securities of the same class being sold, or, if the class is listed on a stock exchange, the average weekly reported volume of trading in such securities during the four weeks preceding the filing of a notice of proposed sale on Form 144, or if no notice is required, the date of receipt of the order to execute the transaction by the broker or the date of execution of the transaction directly with a market maker. Second, the manner of sale requirement provides that the restricted securities must be sold in a broker's transaction, directly with a market maker or in a riskless principal transaction (as defined in Rule 144). Third, if the amount of securities sold under Rule 144 in any three-month period exceeds 5,000 shares or has an aggregate sale price greater than $50,000, an affiliate must file or cause to be filed with the SEC three copies of a notice of proposed sale on Form 144, and provide a copy to any exchange on which the securities are traded.

The Debtors believe that the Rule 144 exemption will not be available with respect to any 4(a)(2) Securities (whether held by non-affiliates or affiliates) until at least one year after the effective date of the Modified Second Amended Plan. Accordingly, unless transferred pursuant to an effective registration statement or another available exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act, holders of 4(a)(2) Securities will be required to hold their 4(a)(2) Securities for at least one year and, thereafter, to sell them only in accordance with the applicable requirements of Rule 144, pursuant to an effective registration statement or pursuant to another available exemption from the registration requirements of applicable securities laws.

Each certificate representing, or issued in exchange for or upon the transfer, sale, or assignment of, any 4(a)(2) Security shall, upon issuance, be stamped or otherwise imprinted with a restrictive legend substantially consistent with the following form:

> THE SECURITIES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE WERE ORIGINALLY ISSUED ON [ISSUANCE DATE], AND SUCH SECURITIES HAVE NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE "ACT"), OR ANY OTHER APPLICABLE STATE SECURITIES LAWS, AND MAY NOT BE SOLD OR TRANSFERRED IN THE ABSENCE OF AN EFFECTIVE REGISTRATION STATEMENT UNDER THE ACT OR AN AVAILABLE EXEMPTION FROM REGISTRATION THEREUNDER.

The reorganized Debtors reserve the right to reasonably require certification, legal opinions, or other evidence of compliance with Rule 144 as a condition to the removal of such legend or to any resale of the 4(a)(2) Securities. The Reorganized Debtors also reserves the right to stop the transfer of any 4(a)(2) Securities if such transfer is not in compliance with Rule 144, pursuant to an effective registration statement or pursuant to another available exemption from the registration requirements of applicable securities laws. All persons who receive 4(a)(2) Securities will be required to acknowledge and agree that (a) they will not offer, sell, or otherwise transfer any 4(a)(2) Securities except in accordance with an exemption from registration, including under Rule 144 of the Securities Act, if and when available, or pursuant to an effective registration statement, and (b) the 4(a)(2) Securities will be subject to the other restrictions described above.

Any persons receiving restricted securities under the Modified Second Amended Plan should consult with their own counsel concerning the availability of an exemption from registration for resale of these securities under the Securities Act and other applicable law.

SECTION IX.
RISK FACTORS

Before voting to accept or reject the Modified Second Amended Plan, holders of Claims who are entitled to vote should read and carefully consider the Modified Second Amended Plan and this Disclosure Statement, including the risk factors set forth in this Section IX. The risks described in this Section IX are not the only ones associated with the Modified Second Amended Plan or its implementation, as new risks may emerge from time to time, and it is impossible to predict all such risks.

All holders of Claims should consult their own professional advisors regarding risks associated with the Modified Second Amended Plan, including those set forth in this Section IX.

A. BANKRUPTCY PROCESS RISKS

1. The Debtors Cannot Predict How Long Their Chapter 11 Cases Will Last.

Long chapter 11 cases could disrupt the Debtors' businesses, impair prospects for reorganization on terms contained in the Modified Second Amended Plan, and possibly lead to an opportunity for other plans to be proposed that may negatively impact the business and cause increased administrative costs.

The Debtors cannot be certain that the Chapter 11 Cases will not be materially disruptive to the Debtors' businesses. If the Debtors are unable to obtain confirmation of the Modified Second Amended Plan for any reason, the Debtors may be forced to operate in chapter 11 for an extended period while trying to develop a different chapter 11 plan that can be confirmed. The Debtors cannot assure parties in interest that the Modified Second Amended Plan will be confirmed; even after confirmation of the Modified Second Amended Plan, it is impossible to predict with certainty how long will be needed to implement the complex transactions that the Modified Second Amended Plan anticipates. Moreover, the Bankruptcy Code limits the time during which the Debtors will have the exclusive right to file a plan, before other parties in interest are permitted to propose and file alternative plans.

A long chapter 11 case may also involve additional expenses and divert the attention of management from operation of the business, as well as create concerns for personnel, vendors, suppliers, service providers, and customers. Even if the Modified Second Amended Plan is confirmed, the bankruptcy proceedings may adversely affect the Debtors' relationships with key vendors, customers, and employees.

2. Parties in Interest May Object to the Modified Second Amended Plan.

Parties having proper standing may oppose and object to either the entirety of the Modified Second Amended Plan or specific provisions of the Modified Second Amended Plan, including on grounds related to arguments that have been presented in the Financing Litigation. Although the Debtors believe that the Modified Second Amended Plan complies with all relevant Bankruptcy Code provisions, there can be no guarantee that a party in interest will not file an objection to the Modified Second Amended Plan presenting contrary views or that the Bankruptcy Court will not sustain such an objection.

3. The Bankruptcy Court May Not Confirm the Modified Second Amended Plan.

Although the Debtors believe that the Modified Second Amended Plan will satisfy all requirements for confirmation (including "cram-down" requirements as to Classes, if any, that vote against or are deemed to reject the Modified Second Amended Plan), there can be no assurance that the Bankruptcy Court will reach the same conclusion. Modifications to the Modified Second Amended Plan may be required to address objections or issues raised by the Bankruptcy Court to permit confirmation, and those modifications could be sufficiently material to require re-solicitation of votes on the Modified Second Amended Plan.

If the Modified Second Amended Plan is not confirmed, there can be no assurance that the Chapter 11 Cases will continue; while the Debtors have confidence in the viability of the underlying business, the Chapter 11 Cases in the event confirmation is denied could be adversely impacted and in such event may instead be converted into liquidation cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. Likewise, there can be no assurance that any alternative chapter 11 plan or plans will be on terms as favorable to the holders of Claims and Interests as the terms of the Modified Second Amended Plan. If a liquidation or a protracted reorganization occurs, there is a substantial risk that the Debtors' going concern value will be substantially eroded to the detriment of all stakeholders. See below at Section X.A (entitled "Liquidation Under the Bankruptcy Code"), as well as the Liquidation Analysis, for a discussion of the effects that a chapter 7 liquidation may have on recoveries of holders of Claims and Interests.

4. The Bankruptcy Court May Not Approve the Required Releases, Injunctions and Exculpations Contained in the Modified Second Amended Plan.

As discussed above at Section IV.H (entitled "Provisions Relating to Releases, Exculpations, and Injunctions"), the Modified Second Amended Plan provides for certain releases, injunctions, and exculpations, with respect to certain Causes of Action that may otherwise be asserted against the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, the Exculpated Parties, the Released Parties, or their respective assets. Parties in interest may object to these provisions, which may not be approved by the Bankruptcy Court. If these provisions are not approved, certain Released Parties or Exculpated Parties may withdraw their support for the Modified Second Amended Plan. This may affect the Debtors' ability to proceed to seek confirmation of the Modified Second Amended Plan. The releases provided to the Released Parties and the exculpation provided to the Exculpated Parties are necessary to the success of the Debtors' reorganization because the Released Parties and Exculpated Parties have made significant contributions to the Debtors' reorganization efforts and have agreed to make further contributions, including by agreeing to convert certain of their Claims against the Debtors' estates into equity in Reorganized Incora, but only if they receive the full benefit of the Modified Second Amended Plan's release and exculpation provisions. The Modified Second Amended Plan's release and exculpation provisions are an inextricable component of the Restructuring Support Agreement and the significant deleveraging and financial benefits embodied in the Modified Second Amended Plan.

5. The Effective Date May Not Occur.

The Restructuring Transactions in the Modified Second Amended Plan are subject to governmental and regulatory consents and approvals (including review under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended), which may not be obtained prior to the anticipated Effective Date. Although the Debtors believe that the Effective Date will occur soon after the Confirmation Date and that there is not a material risk that the Debtors will not be able to obtain the consents and approvals (including any antitrust approval) needed to implement the Restructuring Transactions and thus cause the Effective Date to occur, there can be no assurance that the Effective Date will occur on time or will occur at all. The Effective Date is also subject to certain conditions precedent, as described above at Section IV.I (entitled "Conditions to Effective Date"). Failure to meet any of these conditions (in the absence of a waiver in accordance with Article IX of the Modified Second Amended Plan) could prevent the Effective Date from occurring.

If the Effective Date does not occur, the Modified Second Amended Plan will be null and void, and the Confirmation Order may need to be vacated. In that case, no distributions will be made under the Modified Second Amended Plan, the Debtors and all holders of Claims and Interests will be restored to the status quo immediately prior to Confirmation, and the Debtors' obligations with respect to Claims and Interests will remain unchanged.

6. The DIP Financing May Be Terminated.

The DIP Financing, along with the consensual use of cash collateral, is intended to provide liquidity to the Debtors during the Chapter 11 Cases. The DIP Financing has a maturity date that was intended to provide for the prompt emergence from Chapter 11. In addition, the Plan does not constitute an "Acceptable Plan" and this Disclosure Statement does not constitute an "Acceptable Disclosure Statement" under the DIP Note Purchase Agreement. If the Chapter 11 Cases take longer than expected to conclude or the Debtors do not comply with their covenants and obligations under the Final DIP Order or the DIP Note Purchase Agreement, the Debtors may exhaust or lose access to this financing. Unless the Debtors receive further extensions, necessary waivers or are able to refinance the DIP Financing, the DIP Financing will mature on ~~March 1~~September 30, 2024. If the DIP Financing matures, the Debtors also would lose access to cash collateral to operate their business. There is no assurance that the Debtors will be able to obtain additional financing from the Debtors' existing lenders or otherwise, nor is there any assurance that the Debtors will receive consent from the DIP Note purchasers to continue to use their cash collateral if the DIP Financing matures. If the DIP Financing matures (or otherwise terminates), the Debtors may lose their ability to convert the principal amount of DIP Financing Claims into New Exit Notes and may therefore be required to pay ~~the~~ such amount in cash. In any such case, the Debtors may not have sufficient liquidity to maintain orderly functioning of their businesses.

7. The Restructuring Support Agreement May Be Terminated.

The Restructuring Support Agreement contains provisions that give the respective Consenting Parties the right to terminate the Restructuring Support Agreement if certain conditions are not satisfied or waived. ~~The Modified Second Amended Plan may not be confirmed if~~Termination of the Restructuring Support Agreement ~~is terminated as to all Consenting Parties, which~~ could result in protracted Chapter 11 Cases and detrimentally affect the Debtors' relationships with, among others, vendors, suppliers, customers and ~~employers~~employees. Termination of the Restructuring Support Agreement could also result in the conversion of the Chapter 11 Cases to cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code.

Upon the occurrence of a Termination Date (as defined in the Restructuring Support Agreement) (other than a Termination Date as a result of the occurrence of the Effective Date), any and all votes (including any and all votes contained on a Master Ballot) submitted prior to such Termination Date by the Consenting Parties subject to such termination will automatically be deemed, for all purposes, to be null and void from the first instance and will not be counted in determining the acceptance or rejection of the Modified Second Amended Plan or for any other purpose. Such votes may be changed or resubmitted regardless of whether the Voting Deadline has passed (without the need to seek a court order or consent from the Debtors allowing such change or resubmission).

8. The Debtors May Seek to Amend, Waive, Modify, or Withdraw the Modified Second Amended Plan.

The Debtors reserve the right, in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules and the Restructuring Support Agreement, to amend or modify the Modified Second Amended Plan before the entry of the Confirmation Order or waive any conditions thereto if and to the extent such amendments or waivers are necessary or desirable to consummate the Modified Second Amended Plan. The potential impact of any such amendment or waiver on the holders of Claims and Interests cannot presently be foreseen but may include a change in the economic impact of the Modified Second Amended Plan on some or all of the proposed Classes or a change in the relative rights of such Classes. All holders of Claims and Interests will receive notice of such amendments or waivers required by applicable law and the Bankruptcy Court. If the Debtors seek to modify the Modified Second Amended Plan after receiving sufficient acceptances but before the Bankruptcy Court's entry of an order confirming the Modified Second Amended Plan, the previously solicited acceptances will be valid only if (a) all Classes of adversely affected holders accept the modification in writing or (b) the Bankruptcy Court determines, after notice to designated parties, that such modification was de minimis or purely technical or otherwise did not adversely change the treatment of holders of accepting Claims or Interests, or is otherwise permitted by the Bankruptcy Code.

The Debtors may also revoke or withdraw the Modified Second Amended Plan prior to the Confirmation Date.

9. Recoveries for Holders of General Unsecured Convenience Claims May Depend on Elections of Holders of General Unsecured Claims.

Under the Modified Second Amended Plan, certain holders of Claims in Class 7a (General Unsecured Claims) have the right to waive any Allowed portion of their Claims in excess of $1,500,000 and instead accept treatment as a holder of a General Unsecured Convenience Claim in an amount up to $1,500,000. Because no more than $7,500,000 will be distributed to holders of General Unsecured Convenience Claims, the percentage recoveries of each holder of a General Unsecured Convenience Claims may be diminished if holders of General Unsecured Claims elect treatment as holders of General Unsecured Convenience Claims.

10. Ongoing Litigation and Other Contingencies Could Affect the Outcome of the Chapter 11 Cases.

The distributions available to holders of Allowed Claims under the Modified Second Amended Plan can be affected by a variety of contingencies. For example, the Debtors cannot predict with certainty the outcome of any appeals of the Court's Ruling or other decisions applicable to the Financing Litigation. Under the Appellate Adjustment Mechanism, an appellate outcome in the Financing Litigation that differs from the Court's Ruling could materially subsequently impact the distributions received by certain holders of Allowed Claims under the Plan.

B. Business Risks

1. Results May Vary from the Projections and Other Forward-Looking Statements.

The Debtors' management and advisors have prepared the projections attached to this Disclosure Statement. While those projections have been presented with numerical specificity, the projections are necessarily based on a variety of estimates and assumptions which, though considered reasonable by management, may not be realized and are inherently subject to significant business, economic, competitive, industry, regulatory, market and financial uncertainties and contingencies, many of which will be beyond the Reorganized Debtors' control. The Debtors caution that they cannot make any representations as to the accuracy of these projections (or other forward-looking statements set forth in this Disclosure Statement) or to the Reorganized Debtors' ability to achieve the projected results. Some assumptions will inevitably differ from actual conditions. Furthermore, events and circumstances occurring after the date on which these projections were prepared may differ from any assumed facts and circumstances and may affect financial results in a materially adverse or materially beneficial manner. The projections and other forward-looking statements, therefore, should not be relied upon as a guarantee or other assurance of the actual results that will occur.

2. The Aerospace Industry May Experience a Downturn or the Global Economy May Experience a Recession.

Demand for the products and services the Debtors offer are directly tied to the delivery of new aircraft, aircraft utilization and repair of existing aircraft, which are in turn affected by global economic conditions. The airline and business jet industries are sensitive to changes in economic conditions. A recession in the U.S. or global economies would likely result in a decrease in capital spending in the aerospace industry and have a materially adverse effect on the Debtors' operating results. For example, revenue passenger miles on commercial aircraft plummeted in 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic, leading to decreased revenues on a pro forma basis compared to the Debtors' predecessor businesses in 2019. Conversely, during periods of economic expansion, when capital spending normally increases, and Debtors generally benefit from greater demand for our products and services.

The commercial airline and business jet industries could experience a difficult operating environment due to several factors beyond the Debtors' control. As an example, the operating environment would be negatively affected by increasing fuel prices, industry consolidation, changes in regulation, terrorism, a resurgence of COVID-19, labor disruptions, or environmental concerns. Many of these factors could have a negative effect on air travel, which could materially and adversely affect the Debtors' business, financial condition and operating results.

Fluctuations in the global supply of crude oil, refined products including jet fuel, and the possibility of changes in government policies on the production, transportation and marketing of jet fuel make it impossible to predict the future availability and price of jet fuel. If there is an outbreak or escalation of hostilities or other conflicts or significant disruptions in oil production or delivery in oil-producing areas or elsewhere, there could be reductions in the production or importation of crude oil and significant increases in the cost of jet fuel. If there were major reductions in the availability of jet fuel or significant increases in its cost, commercial airlines would face increased operating costs. Due to the competitive nature of the airline industry, airlines are often unable to pass on increases in fuel prices to customers by increasing fares. As a result, an increase in jet fuel could result in a decrease in net income from either lower margins or, if airlines increase ticket fares, lower net sales from reduced airline travel. Decreases in airline profitability could decrease the demand for new commercial aircraft, resulting in delays of or reductions in deliveries of commercial aircraft that utilize the products we sell, and, as a result, the Debtors' business, financial condition and operating results could be materially adversely affected.

3. Global Military Spending May Decline.

During 2022, approximately 40% of our revenue was related to services and goods for military aircraft. The military market depends strongly on governmental budget trends, and especially on the budget of the U.S. Department of Defense. Future Department of Defense budgets could decline due to several factors, including changes to defense spending policy by current and future presidential administrations or Congresses, the U.S. government's budget deficits or government shutdowns, national spending priorities, the cost of sustaining the U.S. military presence in overseas operations, and political pressure to reduce military spending. A decline in U.S. military spending could result in a reduction in military aircraft production, which could materially and adversely affect the Debtors' business, financial condition and operating results.

In particular, military spending may be limited by the Fiscal Responsibility Act of 2023, which was passed in June 2023 (the "Fiscal Responsibility Act"). The Fiscal Responsibility Act established limits on federal defense spending during the government's fiscal years 2024 and 2025. The limits for fiscal years 2024 and 2025 may be enforced through sequestration—across-the-board spending cuts that arise if annual appropriations exceed the authorized amounts. The Debtors are unable to predict the effects that budget limits and sequestration provisions of the Fiscal Responsibility Act may have on funding for the military programs that the Debtors support. However, any cuts may result in reductions, delays or cancellations of those programs, which could have a material adverse effect on the Debtors' business, financial condition and operating results.

4. Changes in Trade Policies May Negatively Affect the Debtors' Business.

The U.S. has, from time to time, signaled support for, and in some instances has taken action with respect to, major changes to certain trade policies, such as the imposition of additional tariffs on imported products and the withdrawal from or renegotiation of certain trade agreements, including the North American Free Trade Agreement. Further changes could also result in retaliatory actions by the United States' trade partners. For example, the United States has increased tariffs on certain imports from China, as well as on steel and aluminum products imported from various countries. In response, China, the European Union, and several other countries have imposed or proposed additional tariffs on certain exports from the United States.

The Debtors procure certain of the products we sell directly or indirectly from outside of the United States, including from China. The imposition of tariffs and other potential changes in U.S. trade policy could increase the cost or limit the availability of such products, which could hurt our competitive position and adversely impact our business, financial condition and results of operations. In addition, the Debtors sell a significant proportion of our products to customers outside of the United States. Retaliatory actions by other countries could result in increases in the price of our products, which could limit demand for such products, hurt the Debtors' global competitive position and have a material adverse effect on their business, financial condition and operating results.

5. New Regulations May Be Adopted.

If new and more stringent government regulations are adopted or if industry oversight increases, the Debtors' suppliers and customers may incur significant expenses to comply with the new regulations or heightened industry oversight. In the case of suppliers, these expenses may be passed on to the Debtors in the form of price increases, which the Debtors may be unable to pass along to our customers. In the case of customers, these expenses may limit their ability to purchase products. In each case, the Debtors' business, financial condition and operating results may be adversely affected. Additionally, the Debtors' own operations may be directly affected by new regulations, including new cyber-security regulations, accounting rules, and defense procurement rules.

6. The Debtors May Be Adversely Affected by Global Climate Change or by Regulatory or Market Responses to Climate Change.

The Debtors' regulators and contractual counterparties may respond to global climate change by imposing new regulations, contractual requirements, and other policies, which may lead to additional operational restrictions. Our opportunities for growth may be limited by increased costs across the aerospace industry as a result of climate change, and our business may be unsuccessful in adapting to changes in product designs, carbon offset requirements, and limits on greenhouse gas emissions, among other things. Furthermore, increasing attention to environmental, social and governance (ESG) matters may lead to enhanced compliance and disclosure requirements and their attendant costs, especially if the Reorganized Debtors seek to offer securities on public markets.

7. The Debtors Are Subject to Special Business Risks as a Result of Supplying Equipment and Services to the U.S. Government.

Companies engaged in supplying defense-related equipment and services to U.S. government agencies are subject to risks specific to the defense industry. The Debtors contract directly with the U.S. government and also as a subcontractor to customers that contract with the U.S. government. Accordingly, the U.S. government may unilaterally suspend or prohibit the Debtors from receiving new contracts pending resolution of alleged violations of procurement laws or regulations, may revoke required security clearances, may reduce the value of existing contracts, and may audit the Debtors' contract-related costs and fees. In addition, most of the Debtors' U.S. government contracts and subcontracts can be terminated by the U.S. government or the contracting party, as applicable, at its convenience. Termination-for-convenience provisions typically provide only for the Debtors' recovery of costs incurred or committed, settlement expenses, and profit on the work completed prior to termination.

In addition, the Debtors are subject to U.S. government inquiries and investigations, including periodic audits of costs that we determine are reimbursable under government contracts. U.S. government agencies routinely audit their contracts to review performance, cost structure, and compliance with applicable laws, regulations and standards, as well as adequacy of a contractor's internal control systems and policies. Any costs found to be misclassified or inaccurately allocated to a specific contract are not reimbursable, and must be refunded to the extent already reimbursed. Also, any inadequacies in the Debtors' systems and policies could result in payment withholding, penalties, or loss of future business.

Government rules require contracting officers to impose contractual withholdings at no less than certain minimum levels if a contracting officer determines that at least one of a contractor's business systems has at least one significant deficiency. If a contracting officer were to impose a withholding on the Debtors or even on one of the Debtors' prime contractors, it would increase the risk that the Debtors would not be paid in full or paid timely. If future audit adjustments exceed the Debtors' estimates, the Debtors' profitability could be adverse affected.

If a government inquiry or investigation uncovers improper or illegal activities, the Debtors could be subject to civil or criminal penalties or administrative sanctions, including contract termination, fines, forfeiture of fees, suspension of payment, or suspension or debarment from doing business with U.S. government agencies, any of which could materially adversely affect the Debtors' reputation, business, financial condition and operating results.

The Debtors are also subject to the federal False Claims Act, which provides for substantial civil penalties and treble damages where a contractor presents a false or fraudulent claim to the government for payment. Actions under the False Claims Act may be brought by the government or by other persons on behalf of the government (who may then share in any recovery).

8. The Debtors May Lose Significant Customers or Significant Customers May Reduce Orders.

The Debtors' top ten customers during 2022 accounted for approximately 58% of revenue. A reduction in purchasing by or loss of one of the Debtors' larger customers for any reason, including changes in manufacturing or procurement practices, in-sourcing, merger, loss of a customer as a result of the acquisition of that customer by a purchaser that does not hire the Debtors, a transfer of business to a competitor, an economic downturn, failure to adequately service our clients or to manage the implementation of new customer sites, decreased production or a strike, could have a material adverse effect on the Debtors' business, financial condition and operating results.

9. Competitive Pricing Pressure and In-Sourcing May Decrease the Debtors' Revenue.

The Debtors operate in a highly competitive global industry and compete against a number of companies, including divisions of larger companies and certain of the Debtors' suppliers, some of which may have significantly greater financial resources than do the Debtors and therefore may be able to adapt more quickly to changes in customer requirements. These competitors consist of both U.S. and foreign companies and range in size from divisions of large public corporations to small privately held entities. Competition can be focused in the local service area and is generally based on product line breadth, product availability, service capabilities and price. The Debtors believe that their ability to compete depends on superior customer service and support, on-time delivery, sufficient inventory availability, competitive pricing and effective quality assurance programs. To remain competitive, the Debtors may have to adjust the prices of some of the products and services and continue investing in procurement, supply-chain management and sales and marketing functions, the costs of which could negatively impact the results of operations. Also, to the extent that the Debtors do not meet changing customer preferences or demands or to the extent that one or more competitors becomes more successful with private label products or otherwise, the Debtors' ability to attract and retain customers could be materially adversely affected.

In addition, the Debtors face competition for long-term contract customers both from competitors in the aerospace industry (including OEMs that are increasing the services portion of their businesses) and the in-sourcing of supply-chain management by the Debtors' customers themselves. If any long-term customer decides to in-source the services the Debtors provide or to switch to a competitor, the Debtors' business may be adversely affected.

Existing or future competitors also may seek to compete for acquisitions, which could have the effect of increasing the price and reducing the number of suitable acquisitions. In addition, consolidation among competitors or customers may make it more difficult for the Debtors to compete. Some competitors' financial, technological and other resources may be greater than the Debtors' or they may have less debt and, as a result, may be better able to withstand changes to industry conditions. The occurrence of any of these circumstances or events could materially adversely affect the Debtors' growth and profit margins.

10. The Debtors Do Not Have Guaranteed Future Sales.

Certain of the Debtors' contracts are long-term, fixed-price agreements with no guarantee of future sales volumes, and may be terminated for convenience on short notice by our customers, often without meaningful penalties. Some of these contracts provide that the Debtors are reimbursed upon termination only for the cost of any inventory that has been specifically procured for the terminating customer and that is not commonly sold to the Debtors' other customers. In addition, the Debtors purchase inventory based on their forecasts of anticipated future customer demand. As a result, the Debtors may take the risk of having excess inventory if customers do not place orders consistent with forecasts. This risk is especially pronounced with respect to inventory that has a more limited shelf-life. Also, even though the Debtors often enter into long-term pricing agreements with suppliers, they run the risk of not being able to pass along or otherwise recover unexpected increases in product costs, including as a result of commodity price increases and tariffs, which may increase above prices that are fixed under long-term customer contracts. When the Debtors are awarded new contracts, particularly just-in-time ("JIT") contracts, they may incur high costs, including salary and overtime costs, to hire and train on-site personnel, in the start-up phase of performance. In the event that the Debtors purchase more products than customers require, product costs increase unexpectedly, the Debtors experience high start-up costs on new contracts or the Debtors' contracts are terminated, the Debtors' business, financial condition, operating results and operating margins could be negatively affected.

11. Customers May Reduce Investment in New Manufacturing.

If the Debtors' customers decide to reduce their investment in manufacturing of new aircraft and aerospace equipment, it is likely that those customers will reduce the amount of goods that they purchase from or through the Debtors. While customers may reduce manufacturing volume for many reasons, an increase in interest rates or cost of capital would present a particular risk to the Debtors' business if such an increase causes many customers to simultaneously reduce their demand for hardware and chemicals. Likewise, the Debtors' clients in the aerospace industry may face declining demand if airlines conduct fewer flight operations, whether due to shortages of qualified pilots, labor disputes, declining demand for business travel, or other causes.

12. Customers May Become Financially Distressed or Insolvent.

If any of the Debtors' customers becomes insolvent or experiences substantial financial difficulties, the Debtors may be unable to timely collect amounts owed to them by those customers and may not be able to sell the inventory that they have purchased for those customers, which, if involving substantial sales, could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and operating results.

13. Customers or Suppliers May Lose Government Approvals.

The aerospace industry is highly regulated in the United States and in other countries. The Federal Aviation Administration ("FAA") prescribes standards and other requirements for aircraft components in the United States and comparable agencies, such as the European Aviation Safety Agency, the Civil Aviation Administration of China and the Japanese Civil Aviation Bureau, regulate these matters in other countries. The Debtors' suppliers and customers must generally be certified by the FAA, the U.S. Department of Defense and similar agencies in foreign countries. If any supplier's government certifications are revoked, the Debtors would be less likely to buy that supplier's products, and, as a result, would need to locate a suitable alternate supply of its products, which we be difficult to accomplish on commercially reasonable terms or at all. If any customer's government certifications are revoked, their demand for the Debtors' products would decline. In each case, the Debtors' business, financial condition and operating results may be adversely affected.

14. The Debtors May Be Unable to Effectively Manage Inventory.

Due to the lead times required by many of the Debtors' suppliers, they typically order products (particularly hardware products) in advance of expected sales, and the volume of those orders may be significant. Lead times generally range from several weeks up to two years, depending on industry conditions, which makes it difficult to manage inventory to match future demand. In addition, demand for the Debtors' products can fluctuate significantly, which can also negatively affect cash flows and inventory levels.

15. The Debtors May Not Be Able to Satisfy Customer Demands If Suppliers Cannot Supply Quality Products On Time, in Adequate Quantities, and at Reasonable Cost.

The Debtors' inventory is primarily sourced directly from producers and manufacturing firms. The Debtors depend on the availability of large supplies of their merchandise, which must also meet customers' quality standards. These suppliers may experience capacity constraints that result in their being unable to supply the Debtors with products in a timely manner, in adequate quantities and at a reasonable cost. Many such suppliers are experiencing inflationary pressures, as well as disruptions due to the lingering effects of COVID-19, global supply chain constraints and labor instability. Additionally, if one or more of the raw materials on which our suppliers depend becomes unavailable, or available only at very high prices, suppliers may be unable to deliver to the Debtors' and their customers at budgeted costs.

In particular, certain of the Debtors' products, such as wire and conduit, are commodity-price-based products and may be subject to significant price fluctuations that are beyond the Debtors' control. While increases in the cost of energy or products could have adverse effects, decreases in those costs, particularly if severe, could also adversely impact the Debtors by creating deflation in selling prices, which could cause our gross profit margin to deteriorate. Fluctuations in energy or raw materials costs can also adversely affect the Debtors' customers. Historically, declines in oil and gas prices have negatively impacted customers operating in those industries and, consequently, the Debtors' sales to those customers.

Beyond the foregoing considerations, procurement costs could rise due to changes in trade policies, such as additional tariffs on certain products imported into the United States or new sanctions against countries where such products are manufactured or where underlying raw materials are found. Any significant interruption in the supply of these products or termination of the Debtors' relationship with any suppliers could result in the Debtors being unable to meet the demands of customers, which would have a material adverse effect on the Debtors' business, financial condition and operating results.

The Debtors are also subject to the risk of supplier concentration. During 2022, PPG Industries, Precision Castparts, Howmet Aerospace, and Lisi Aerospace collectively supplied approximately 21.5% of the products the Debtors purchased. If any of these suppliers in particular were to experience the negative effects discussed above, this could have a material adverse effect on the Debtors' business, financial condition and operating results.

16. The Debtors May Face a Failure of Complex Information Systems.

The provision and application of information technology is an increasingly important aspect of the Debtors' business. Among other things, the Debtors' IT systems must interact with those of our customers, suppliers and logistics providers. The Debtors' operations depend on their ability to maintain existing systems and implement new technology, which includes allocating sufficient resources to periodically upgrade their information technology systems. Conversions to new information technology systems may result in cost overruns, delays or business interruptions. If the Debtors' information technology systems are disrupted (including due to a cyber-security attack), become obsolete or do not adequately support their strategic, operational or compliance needs, it could result in competitive disadvantage and adversely affect financial results and business operations, including the Debtors' ability to process orders, receive and ship products, maintain inventories, collect accounts receivable and pay expenses.

17. The Debtors Depend on Key Personnel, Whose Departure May Adversely Affect the Debtors' Financial Results.

The Debtors depend, and will continue to depend, on the services of key managerial, administrative, sales and field personnel, who possess the necessary experience and skills to operate the Debtors' businesses. The ability to attract and retain key employees is important to the Debtors' success and growth. Competition for these workers can be intense, and the Debtors may become unable to provide sufficient compensation to retain and motivate key employees, especially in an inflationary economic environment. For some positions, the Debtors may face additional challenges in integrating and retaining employees who primarily work from remote locations. The unexpected loss of key employees, whether to competitors, customer in-sourcing, retirement or other pursuits, could have a detrimental effect on the Debtors' financial condition or operational results.

18. Labor Disputes May Degrade the Debtors' Operations.

Labor disputes involving the Debtors or their customers or suppliers could degrade the Debtors' operations. If customers or suppliers are unable to negotiate new labor agreements and their plants experience slowdowns or closures, the Debtors net sales and profitability could be negatively affected.

Collective agreements may be in place on either a local or a national level at certain of the Debtors' (or their subsidiaries') international sites, and the employees of the Debtors' customers, suppliers and other service providers may be, or may in the future be, unionized. The Debtors cannot guarantee that there will not be any strike, lockout, work stoppage or material labor dispute with respect to their own business or those of their customers or suppliers, which may materially affect the Debtors business, financial condition and operating results.

19. Legal Proceedings May Adversely Affect the Debtors' Businesses.

From time to time, the Debtors may become involved in various legal proceedings incidental to their businesses, including patent, commercial, product liability, employment, or whistleblower litigation or claims, and regulatory investigations or proceedings. Even if each individual matter is not material to the Debtors' business, and even if the claims are without merit, such matters can divert employees' attention and cause the Debtors to incur significant expenses. Furthermore, because such matters are inherently unpredictable, there can be no assurance that the results of litigation will not have an adverse effect on the Debtors' businesses, financial results, or financial condition.

20. The Debtors Are Subject to Health, Safety and Environmental Laws and Regulations.

The Debtors are subject to extensive federal, state, local and foreign laws, regulations, rules and ordinances (collectively, "EHS laws") relating to pollution, protection of the environment and human health and safety, and the handling, transportation, storage, treatment, disposal and remediation of hazardous substances, including potentially with respect to historical chemical blending and other activities that pre-dated the purchase of the Haas business. Actual or alleged violations of EHS laws, or permit requirements could result in restrictions or prohibitions on operations and substantial civil or criminal sanctions, as well as, under some EHS laws, the assessment of strict liability and/or joint and several liability. Furthermore, the Debtors may be subject to future claims by employees who assisted in supplying chemicals or providing chemical management services at our customer's operations, or by other persons, including the Debtors' customers and their employees.

Governmental, regulatory and societal demands for increasing levels of product safety and environmental protection are resulting in increased pressure for more stringent regulatory control with respect to the chemical industry. The European Union's Registration, Evaluation, Authorization and Restriction of Chemicals ("REACH") regulations enacted in 2009 have been a continuing source of compliance obligations and restrictions on certain chemicals, and REACH-like regimes have now been adopted in several other countries. In the United States, the core provisions of the Toxic Substances Control Act (the "TSCA") were amended in June 2016 for the first time in nearly 40 years. Among the more significant changes are that these amendments mandate safety reviews of existing "high priority" chemicals and regulatory action to control any "unreasonable risks" identified as result of such reviews. The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (the "EPA") also now must make a "no unreasonable risk" finding before a new chemical can be fully commercialized. These new mandates create uncertainty about whether existing chemicals of importance to our business may be designated for restriction and whether the new chemical approval process may become more difficult and costly.

Finally, certain of the Debtors have in the past sold products containing per- and polyfluoroalkyl substances ("PFAS"), including perfluorooctanoic acid ("PFOA"). Certain PFAS, including PFOA, have been targeted for risk assessment, restriction, and high priority remediation and have been the subject of ongoing and substantial litigation in the United States, the United Kingdom and the European Union. The Debtors have not received any claims or enforcement actions from governments or third parties relating to PFOA or any other PFAS.

In addition, these concerns could influence public perceptions regarding the Debtors' operations and their ability to attract and retain customers and employees. Moreover, changes in EHS laws could inhibit or interrupt the Debtors' operations, or require them to modify facilities or operations. Accordingly, environmental or regulatory matters may cause the Debtors to incur significant unanticipated losses, costs, capital expenditures or liabilities, which could reduce their profitability. Such losses, costs, capital expenditures or liabilities will be subject to evolving regulatory requirements and will depend on the timing of the promulgation and enforcement of specific standards which impose requirements on our operations. As a result, these losses, costs, capital expenditures or liabilities may be more than currently anticipated.

21. The Debtors' Insurance Coverage May Prove Inadequate.

The Debtors carry liability, property, directors' and officers', and other insurance policies that are designed to cover insurable risks. The Debtors select the types of insurance, the limits, and the deductibles based on the Debtors' specific risk profile, general industry standards, and the cost of the coverage versus its perceived benefit. The Debtors' insurance policies commonly contain standard exclusions for events such as war. Although the Debtors attempt to select reputable insurance carriers, the Debtors may be unable to access an insurance policy whose carrier does not have sufficient capital to meet the coverage. Even if carriers remain able to pay their policies, the Debtors' policies may prove to be inadequate.

22. Failure of a Product Could Result in a Recall.

Most of the products that the Debtors supply go into critical aerospace manufacturing applications. A failure of such components could lead to a product recall. If a recall were to happen as a result of failure by a component supplied by the Debtors, the Debtors could bear a substantial part of the cost of correction. In addition to the cost of fixing the parts affected by the component, a recall could result in the loss of a portion of or all of the customer's business. The loss of a key customer or a successful legal claim by a customer arising from a product recall could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, operating results and cash flows from operations. While the failure of a component is usually attributable to the original manufacture of the component, there can be no assurance that a successful product recall claim would not impact the Debtors as supplier, and could negatively affect their financial condition and results of operations.

23. Failure of a Product Could Result in an Aircraft Crash.

The Debtors may be exposed to liabilities for personal injury, death or property damage due to the failure of a product that the Debtors have sold. The Debtors typically agree to indemnify their customers against certain liabilities resulting from such products, and any third-party indemnification from the Debtors' suppliers and liability insurance may not fully cover those indemnification obligations to customers. The Debtors also may not be able to maintain insurance coverage in the future at an acceptable cost. Any liability for which third-party indemnification is not available that is not covered by insurance could have a material adverse effect on the Debtors' business, financial condition and results of operations.

In addition, a crash caused by a product that a Debtor has sold could damage the Debtors' reputation for selling quality products. The Debtors believe that customers consider safety and reliability as key criteria in selecting a provider of aircraft products and believe that the Debtors' reputation for quality assurance is a significant competitive strength. If a crash were to be caused by a product that a Debtor has sold, or if the Debtors are to otherwise fail to maintain a satisfactory record of safety and reliability, their ability to retain and attract customers may be materially adversely affected.

24. The Debtors May Experience a Catastrophic Event at a Warehouse.

A significant portion of the Debtors' inventory is concentrated in several large warehouses, and the Debtors may be exposed to a significant loss of inventory if a catastrophic event occurs at any of those locations, including by fire, tornado, flood, explosion, or shelving collapse. Even though the Debtors maintain customary and appropriate insurance coverage, it is possible that insurance proceeds will not adequately compensate the Debtors for losses, including indirect losses from interruption of business if a short-term loss of inventory renders the Debtors incapable of satisfying their customers' immediate needs. A catastrophic event may also expose the Debtors to environmental liabilities, including from a release of hazardous chemicals.

25. The Debtors Face Risks Inherent in International Operations.

The Debtors and their subsidiaries have significant international operations, with facilities in Argentina, Australia, Brazil, Canada, China, France, Germany, India, Ireland, Israel, Italy, Japan, Mexico, Philippines, Poland, Singapore, Turkey, the United Kingdom and the United States, and customers throughout North America, Latin America, Europe, Asia and the Middle East. In 2022, approximately 40% of sales were derived from outside the United States.

These international operations are subject to the following risks, among others:

- the burden of complying with multiple and possibly conflicting laws and any unexpected changes in regulatory requirements;
- political risks, including risks of loss due to civil disturbances, acts of terrorism, acts of war, guerilla activities and insurrection;
- unstable economic, financial and market conditions and increased expenses due to inflation, or higher interest rates;
- difficulties in enforcement of third-party contractual obligations and collecting receivables through foreign legal systems;
- changes in global trade policies;
- increasingly complex laws and regulations concerning privacy, data protection and data security, including the EU's General Data Protection Regulation and the United Kingdom's equivalent;
- difficulties in staffing and managing international operations and the application of foreign labor regulations;
- differing local product preferences and product requirements; and

- adverse tax consequences from changes in tax laws, requirements relating to withholding taxes on remittances and other payments by subsidiaries and restrictions on the Debtors' ability to repatriate dividends from subsidiaries.

26. The Debtors Are Subject to Exchange Rate Fluctuations.

Given the international nature of their operations, the Debtors are exposed to currency exchange rate fluctuations as a portion of their revenues and expenses are denominated in currencies other than the U.S. dollar. The Debtors and their subsidiaries generate a significant proportion of profits in both British pounds sterling and euros, and hence their operating profits can be adversely affected when the U.S. dollar strengthens against these currencies. Operating results of certain of foreign subsidiaries are translated into U.S. dollars for purposes of statements of comprehensive income at average monthly exchange rates. Moreover, to the extent that net sales are not denominated in the same currency as expenses, net earnings could be materially adversely affected. For example, a portion of labor, material and overhead costs for the Debtors' facilities in the United Kingdom, Germany, France and Italy are incurred in British pounds sterling or euros, but in certain cases the related net sales are denominated in U.S. dollars. Changes in the value of the U.S. dollar or other currencies could result in material fluctuations in foreign currency translation amounts or the U.S. dollar value of transactions and net earnings could thereby be materially adversely affected. At times the Debtors have engaged in hedging transactions to manage or reduce foreign currency exchange risk, but these transactions may not be successful and, as a result, the Debtors' business, financial condition and operating results could be materially adversely affected. During 2022, fluctuations in foreign currency translation had a negative effect on cash of approximately $3.5 million.

27. International Operations Require Compliance with Numerous Anti-Corruption and Trade Control Laws and Regulations.

Doing business on a worldwide basis requires the Debtors to comply with the laws and regulations of many governments, including the United States and the United Kingdom. The Debtors' failure to comply with these rules and regulations may expose us to liability. These laws and regulations can apply to companies, individual directors, officers, employees and agents, and may restrict the Debtors' operations, trade practices, investment decisions and partnering activities. The risk of violating anti-corruption laws is increased because some of the international locations in which the Debtors operate lack a highly developed legal system and have elevated levels of corruption, and because the Debtors' industry is highly regulated.

In particular, the Debtors' international operations are subject to U.S. and foreign anti-corruption laws and regulations, such as the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act ("FCPA"), the UK Bribery Act (the "Bribery Act") and other applicable anti-corruption regimes. These laws generally prohibit us from providing anything of value, directly or indirectly, to foreign government officials for the purposes of improperly influencing official decisions, improperly obtaining or retaining business, or otherwise obtaining favorable treatment. As part of the Debtors' business, they may deal with governments and state-owned business enterprises, the employees and representatives of which may be considered government officials for purposes of the FCPA, the Bribery Act or other applicable anti-corruption laws. Some anti-corruption laws, such as the Bribery Act, also prohibit commercial bribery and the acceptance of bribes. Failure to comply with these laws could result in civil and criminal penalties and other sanctions, which could negatively impact the Debtors' financial condition and operating results. Even if the Debtors are not ultimately sanctioned by government authorities, the costs of investigation and review, distraction of personnel, legal defense costs, and harm to reputation could be substantial and could limit profitability.

As an exporter, The Debtors must comply with various laws and regulations relating to the export of products, services and technology from the United States and other countries having jurisdiction over our operations. In the United States, these laws include, among others, the Export Administration Regulations (the "EAR") administered by the Department of Commerce's Bureau of Industry and Security, the International Traffic in Arms Regulations ("ITAR") administered by the Department of State's Directorate of Defense Trade Controls, and trade sanctions, regulations and embargoes administered by the Department of the Treasury's Office of Foreign Assets Control ("OFAC"). OFAC enforces certain laws and regulations that impose restrictions upon U.S. nationals, U.S. permanent residents, persons located in the United States or entities organized under the laws of a U.S. jurisdiction (collectively, "U.S. Persons"), upon business conducted in whole or in part in the United States and, in some instances, upon foreign entities owned or controlled by U.S. Persons, with respect to activities or transactions with certain countries, governments, entities and individuals that are the subject of such U.S. economic sanctions. These laws and regulations may require the Debtors to obtain licenses from the relevant agency to export, re-export, or transfer commodities, software, technology, or services to certain jurisdictions, individuals, or entities. The Debtors cannot be certain that their applications for export licenses or other authorizations will be granted or approved. Furthermore, the export license and export authorization process is often time-consuming.

Violations of these legal requirements can be punishable by criminal fines and imprisonment, civil penalties, disgorgement of profits, injunctions, debarment from government contracts, seizure and forfeiture of unlawful attempted exports, and/or denial of export privileges, as well as other remedial measures. The Debtors have established policies and procedures designed to assist us, our personnel and our agents to comply with applicable U.S., UK and international laws and regulations. However, there can be no guarantee that these policies and procedures will effectively prevent the Debtors, their employees or their agents from violating these regulations in every transaction in which the Debtors may engage, and violations, allegations or investigations of such violations could materially adversely affect the Debtors' reputation, business, financial condition and results of operations.

28. The Debtors May Be Subject to Changes in Tax Laws or Challenges to Their Tax Positions.

The Debtors are subject to taxes in jurisdictions in which they do business, including taxes imposed on income, receipts, stockholders' equity, property, sales, purchases and payroll. As a result, the Debtors' tax expense can be adversely affected by changes in tax law. The Debtors often cannot anticipate these changes in tax law, which can cause unexpected volatility in results of operations. Additionally, the tax laws to which the Debtors are subject are inherently complex and often ambiguous. Therefore, the Debtors must interpret the applicable laws and make subjective judgments about the expected outcome upon challenge by the applicable taxing authorities. As a result, the impact on results of operations from the application of enacted tax laws to actual facts and circumstances is frequently uncertain. There can be no assurance that the Debtors can accurately predict the outcome of a tax authority's challenge to the Debtors' interpretation and application of tax laws, and the taxes ultimately owed upon effective settlement may differ from the tax expense recognized in consolidated statements of income and accrued on consolidated balance sheets. Additionally, if the Debtors cannot meet liquidity requirements in the United States, they may have to repatriate funds from overseas, which may result in a U.S. tax liability on the amount repatriated.

29. Financial Results May Fluctuate from Period to Period.

Many factors, such as the cyclical nature of the aerospace industry, fluctuations in the Debtors' ONdemand sales, delays in major aircraft programs, planned production shutdowns, downward pressure on sales prices and changes in the volume of customers' orders could cause financial results to fluctuate from period to period. For example, during 2022, approximately $218 million of revenue was derived from ONdemand sales. The prices charged for ONdemand sales are typically higher than the prices under long-term contracts. However, customers may not continue to purchase the same amount of products on an ONdemand basic as they have in the past, so it cannot be assured that the Debtors will be able to generate similar levels of ONdemand net sales as they did in 2022. The Debtors are also actively working to transition customers from ONdemand purchases to long-term contracts, which may also result in a reduction in our ONdemand net sales. A significant reduction in ONdemand sales in any given period could result in fluctuations in financial results and operating margins. As a result of these factors, quarter-to-quarter comparisons of the Debtors' financial results are not necessarily meaningful and these comparisons cannot be relied upon as indicators of future performance.

C. Risks Relating to the New Common Equity

1. A Liquid Market for the New Common Equity May Not Develop.

There is currently no market for the New Common Equity, and there can be no assurance that any such market will develop. Furthermore, the Appellate Adjustment Mechanism may impact the liquidity of the New Common Equity by subjecting certain of the New Common Equity to changes that could materially impact its economic value depending on the outcome of the Financing Litigation. The New Common Equity may, therefore, be illiquid securities without an active trading market. The Reorganized Debtors will be under no obligation to list the New Common Equity on any securities exchange. There can be no assurance as to the prices at which the New Common Equity might be traded, even if an active trading market develops. Accordingly, holders of the New Common Equity may bear certain risks associated with holding securities for an indefinite period of time.

2. The New Common Equity May Be Subject to Restrictions on Transfers.

Any New Common Equity issued to an entity that is an "underwriter," as defined in section 1145(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, will be "restricted securities" subject to resale restrictions and may be resold, exchanged, assigned, or otherwise transferred only pursuant to registration or an applicable exemption from registration under the Securities Act and other applicable law. In addition, the New Common Equity will not be freely tradable if, at the time of a transfer, the holder is an "affiliate" of the Reorganized Debtors as defined in Rule 144(a)(1) under the Securities Act or had been such an "affiliate" within 90 days of the transfer. "Affiliate" holders will be permitted to sell New Common Equity without registration only if they comply with an exemption from registration, such as Rule 144 under the Securities Act.

The New Common Equity will not be registered under the Securities Act or any other securities laws, and the Debtors make no representation regarding the right of any holder to freely resell securities.

The terms of the New Organizational Documents are expected to contain prohibitions on the transfer of the New Common Equity, to the extent such transfer would subject the Reorganized Debtors to the registration and reporting requirements of the Securities Act and the Securities Exchange Act. Furthermore, the terms of the New Organizational Documents may contain additional transfer restrictions. These terms will be binding on all recipients of New Common Equity under the Modified Second Amended Plan, including any recipients who do not vote to accept the Modified Second Amended Plan or affirmatively consent to the New Organizational Documents.

3. The New Common Equity May Become Diluted.

The ownership percentage represented by the New Common Equity distributed on the Effective Date will be subject to dilution by any equity issued pursuant to any Management Incentive Modified Second Amended Plan. The New Common Equity may also be diluted by any other equity interests that may be issued in connection with the Modified Second Amended Plan or after consummation of the Modified Second Amended Plan in accordance with the terms of the New Organization Documents, and the conversion of any options, warrants, convertible securities, exercisable securities, or other securities that may be issued after consummation of the Modified Second Amended Plan.

4. Ownership of the New Common Equity May Be Concentrated with a Limited Number of Holders.

Certain holders of Claims may acquire a significant ownership interest in the New Common Equity pursuant to the Modified Second Amended Plan. Such holders may be in a position to control the outcome of all actions requiring stockholder approval, including the election of directors, without the approval of other stockholders. This concentration of ownership could also facilitate or hinder a negotiated change of control of the Reorganized Debtors and may consequently affect the value of the New Common Equity. Further, the possibility that one or more holders of significant numbers of units of New Common Equity may sell all or a large portion of their New Common Equity in a short period of time may adversely affect the market price of the New Common Equity.

5. The New Common Equity Will Be Subordinated to the Reorganized Debtors' Indebtedness.

In any subsequent reorganization, liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of the Reorganized Debtors, the New Common Equity will rank below all debt claims against the Reorganized Debtors. As a result, holders of the New Common Equity will not be entitled to receive any payment or other distribution upon the reorganization, liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of the Reorganized Debtors until after all the Reorganized Debtors' obligations to their creditors have been satisfied.

6. Any Valuation That May Be Implied by the Modified Second Amended Plan Does Not Represent Trading Value or Fundamental Value of the New Common Equity.

The valuations implied by the terms of the Modified Second Amended Plan are not intended to represent the trading value of the New Common Equity in public or private markets or the fundamental value of the Reorganized Debtors, all of which are difficult to predict. Actual market prices of the Reorganized Debtors' securities will depend upon, among other things, (a) prevailing interest rates, (b) conditions in the financial markets, (c) the anticipated initial securities holdings of prepetition creditors and equity holders, some of whom may prefer to liquidate their investment rather than hold it on a long-term basis, and (d) other factors that generally influence the prices of securities. The actual market prices of the New Common Equity, if any such market exists, are likely to be volatile. Many factors, including factors unrelated to the Reorganized Debtors' actual operating performance, could cause the market prices of the New Common Equity to rise and fall. Accordingly, any values implied by the Modified Second Amended Plan do not necessarily reflect, and should not be construed as reflecting, values that will be attained for these securities in the public or private markets.

7. Reorganized Incora May Not Pay Dividends.

Reorganized Incora may not pay any dividends on the New Common Equity and may instead retain any future cash flows for debt reduction and to support the Reorganized Debtors' operations. As a result, the success of an investment in the New Common Equity may depend entirely on future appreciation in value. There is, however, no guarantee that the New Common Equity will appreciate in value or even maintain its initial value.

8. Reorganized Incora Is Expected to Be a Private Company.

The Debtors expect that Reorganized Incora will not be subject to the reporting requirements of Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act. As a result, holders of the New Common Equity may receive less information with respect to the Reorganized Debtors' business than they would have received if Reorganized Incora were subject to the reporting requirements of Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act.

9. Recoveries on the New Common Equity May Be Diminished If Reorganized Incora Is Sold.

If the Reorganized Incora Board determines to sell substantially all assets of the Reorganized Debtors, the proceeds of such a sale would be distributed in conformity with the New Organizational Documents. Accordingly, such a sale may crystallize New Common Equity holders' recoveries before the Reorganized Debtors have had an opportunity to capture their businesses' full potential for growth. Likewise, if holders of the New Common Equity exercise "drag" rights under the New Organizational Documents, other holders of New Common Equity may be forced to sell their New Common Equity at a price that may not fully reflect the Debtors' potential for growth.

10. The Debtors' Indemnification Obligations Could Affect the Value of New Common Equity.

Certain holders of Allowed Claims are expected to receive the New Common Equity under the Modified Second Amended Plan, the value of which may be affected by the indemnification obligations owed to the 1L Indenture Trustee ~~and Holders of 1L Notes Claims~~. The Debtors cannot predict with certainty the potential value, if any, of such indemnification obligations, but payments on account of such indemnification obligations could adversely impact the value of the New Common Equity.

~~The Modified Second Amended Plan provides indemnification for certain non-Debtor indemnitees, including such claims as may arise from the Financing Litigation. The 2024/2026 Noteholder Group objects to the indemnification, and is challenging the transaction giving rise to such claimed indemnity in the Financing Litigation. Additionally, the 2024/2026 Noteholder Group believes that if such indemnification is approved, and the indemnitees present Allowed Claims from the Financing Litigation, the amount of such claims will be significant and may threaten the liquidity and financial stability of the Reorganized Debtors, and make the Modified Second Amended Plan not feasible. The Debtors disagree.~~

D. Risks Relating to the Financing Facilities

1. The Exit Facilities May Not Become Available to the Debtors.

Pursuant to the Modified Second Amended Plan, the Debtors intend to obtain commitments under the New Revolver Facility in order to ensure sufficient liquidity to operate their businesses upon emergence from the Chapter 11 Cases. As of the date of this Disclosure Statement, there can be no assurance that the Debtors will successfully obtain these commitments.

In addition, the New Revolver Facility Documents include (or will include) various conditions to closing. The Debtors cannot give assurances that they will meet these conditions. If any of the New Revolver Facility Documents are not consummated, and the Debtors are unable to promptly obtain replacement facilities, the ability of the Debtors to complete the Restructuring Transactions will be materially and adversely affected.

Even if the New Revolver Facility is entered into, the Reorganized Debtors may be unable to remain in compliance with covenants under that facility, in which case the Reorganized Debtors may be unable to access the full committed amount.

2. The Exit Facilities May Inhibit the Reorganized Debtors from Obtaining Additional Financing.

Although the Modified Second Amended Plan will result in the elimination of debt, the Reorganized Debtors will continue to have a significant amount of indebtedness after the Effective Date, including the New Exit Notes, the New Takeback Notes, and the New Revolver Facility . That indebtedness may limit the ability of the Reorganized Debtors to obtain additional financing for working capital, capital expenditures, debt service requirements, and general corporate or other purposes. The Reorganized Debtors' indebtedness may also limit their ability to adjust to changing market conditions and to withstand competitive pressures, possibly leaving them vulnerable in a downturn in general economic conditions or in its business, or unable to carry out necessary maintenance or capital expenditures.

3. The Exit Facilities Are Subject to Ongoing Negotiation

The Exit Facilities are subject to ongoing marketing and negotiation. Accordingly, the material economic terms of each of the Exit Facilities—including tenor, interest rate, cash interest rate, call protection, collateral package, guarantee package and structural subordination—are not yet known. The Debtors believe that the exhibits to this Disclosure Statement are predicated on reasonable assumptions regarding the Exit Facilities, including that the Reorganized Debtors will have discretion to pay interest on the New Takeback Notes in kind, but cannot give assurance that the Exit Facilities' final terms will correspond to the assumptions that have been incorporated into those exhibits. If the Debtors cannot obtain sufficiently favorable terms for the Exit Facilities, the Debtors may be unable to obtain Confirmation of the Modified Second Amended Plan.

4. The New Takeback Notes Are Subject to the Appellate Adjustment Mechanism

Certain of the New Takeback Notes are subject to the Appellate Adjustment Mechanism, which could materially impact their economic value depending on the outcome of the Financing Litigation. Furthermore, as a result, the New Takeback Notes may be more likely to be illiquid.

E. Other Risks

1. The Debtors Have No Duty to Update This Disclosure Statement.

Except where specifically noted, the statements contained in this Disclosure Statement are made only as of the date of this Disclosure Statement. There can be no assurance that those statements will remain correct or accurate at any time after that date. Absent an order from the Bankruptcy Court, the Debtors have no duty to update the Disclosure Statement.

2. No Representations Outside This Disclosure Statement Are Authorized.

The Debtors have not authorized any Person or Entity to provide any information about, or concerning, the Modified Second Amended Plan, other than the information contained in this Disclosure Statement. In addition, the Debtors have not authorized any entity to make any representations concerning the Debtors or the value of their property, other than as set forth in this Disclosure Statement. Any other representations or inducements made to secure the vote of any holder of Claims for acceptance or rejection of the Modified Second Amended Plan should not be relied upon.

3. The Restructuring Is Expected to Give Rise to Cancellation of Debt Income and Other Tax Risks.

The Restructuring is expected to give rise to cancellation of debt income (COD Income) for U.S. federal income tax purposes. See the tax disclosures set forth in Section VII (entitled Federal Income Tax Considerations) for further information regarding COD Income and other tax considerations.

The tax consequences of the Restructuring Transactions to the Reorganized Debtors may materially differ depending on how the Restructuring Transactions are structured. For example, the Debtors' tax attributes may be, in connection with the implementation of the Modified Second Amended Plan, significantly reduced, subject to limitation or entirely unavailable to the Reorganized Debtors, depending, in part, on whether the transaction is structured such that the Reorganized Debtors would be treated as purchasing certain of the assets of the Debtors for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The Debtors have not yet determined how to structure the Restructuring Transactions in light of the tax and non-tax considerations. For a discussion of certain tax considerations to the Debtors and certain holders of Claims in connection with the implementation of the Modified Second Amended Plan as well as certain tax implications of owning and disposing of the consideration to be received pursuant to the Modified Second Amended Plan, see Section VII of this Disclosure Statement.

SECTION X.
ALTERNATIVES TO THE MODIFIED SECOND AMENDED PLAN

A. LIQUIDATION UNDER THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

If the Modified Second Amended Plan is not confirmed, the Chapter 11 Cases could be converted to liquidation cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. In chapter 7, a trustee would be appointed to promptly liquidate the Debtors' assets.

Although it is impossible to predict precisely how the proceeds of a liquidation would be distributed to the respective holders of Claims, the Debtors believe that the value of their Estates would be substantially diminished in a chapter 7 liquidation, due to a loss of going concern value. The assets available for distribution to creditors would be reduced by the additional administrative expenses of a chapter 7 trustee and the trustee's professional advisors, as well as by Claims (some entitled to priority) that would arise from the rejection of leases and executory contracts once the Debtors cease operations.

The Debtors could also be liquidated pursuant to the provisions of a chapter 11 plan. In a liquidation under chapter 11, the Debtors' assets could be sold in a more orderly fashion over a longer period of time than in a chapter 7 liquidation, resulting in greater recoveries than in a chapter 7 liquidation. However, the Estates would still lose their going concern value, and the delay in distributions could result in lower present values being received and higher administrative costs. Because a trustee is not required in a chapter 11 liquidation, expenses for professional fees could be lower than in a chapter 7 liquidation. However, the drafting and solicitation of a liquidation plan would result in additional administrative costs.

The Debtors believe that any liquidation is a much less attractive alternative for creditors than the Modified Second Amended Plan because of the greater recoveries that the Debtors anticipate will be provided under the Modified Second Amended Plan. The Debtors believe that the Modified Second Amended Plan affords substantially greater benefits to holders of Claims than would liquidation under any chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

The Liquidation Analysis, prepared by the Debtors with their financial advisors, premised upon a chapter 7 liquidation, is attached to this Disclosure Statement as Exhibit C. In the Liquidation Analysis, the Debtors have considered the nature, status, and underlying value of their assets, the ultimate realizable value of such assets, and the extent to which the assets are subject to liens and security interests. Based on this analysis, it is likely that a liquidation of the Debtors' assets would produce less value for distribution to creditors and equity interest holders than that recoverable in each instance under the Modified Second Amended Plan. The Debtors believe it is highly unlikely that holders of Claims or Interests in Class 5 (1.25L Notes Claims), Class 7a (General Unsecured Claims), Class 7b (General Unsecured Convenience Claims), Class 7c (2024 Unsecured Notes Claims), Class 8 (PIK Notes Claims), or Class 10 (Existing Equity Interests) would receive any distribution in a liquidation under either chapter 7 or chapter 11.

B. Alternative Modified Second Amended Plans of Reorganization

If the Modified Second Amended Plan is not confirmed, the Debtors (or if the Debtors' exclusive period in which to file a plan of reorganization expires or is terminated, any other party in interest) could attempt to formulate a different plan. Such a plan might involve (a) a reorganization and continuation of the Debtors' businesses or (b) an orderly liquidation of their assets. The Debtors, however, believe that the Modified Second Amended Plan, as described herein, enables their creditors to realize the most value under the circumstances.

The Debtors could continue to manage their businesses and maintain their properties as debtors-in-possession, subject to the restrictions imposed by the Bankruptcy Code. However, it is not clear that the Debtors could continue as a going concern in protracted Chapter 11 Cases if Confirmation of the Modified Second Amended Plan is denied. In such a circumstance, the Debtors may face higher costs of operating amid eroding confidence of customers and vendors. Furthermore, if the DIP Financing were terminated as a result of failure to achieve timely Confirmation of the Modified Second Amended Plan, it likely would be difficult for the Debtors to find alternative financing.

C. Sale Under Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code

If the Modified Second Amended Plan is not confirmed, the Debtors could evaluate whether to seek authorization from the Bankruptcy Court to sell their assets under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code or through an amended plan. In the event of any sales, the DIP Secured Parties and other secured creditors would be entitled to credit bid on any property to which their security interests are attached to the extent of the value of their security interests, and to offset their Claims against the purchase price of the property. In addition, the security interests in the Debtors' assets held by holders of Secured Claims would attach to the proceeds of any sale of the Debtors' assets to the extent of the security interests in those assets. The Debtors do not believe a sale of assets under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code would yield a higher recovery for the holders of Claims under the Modified Second Amended Plan.

D. Non-Bankruptcy Liquidation or Foreclosure

If the Modified Second Amended Plan is not confirmed, the Chapter 11 Cases could be dismissed, in which case separate liquidation or dissolution proceedings may be commenced in the various jurisdictions where the Debtors are organized, including (as to some) the United Kingdom. Such proceedings may be lengthy, are unlikely to be effectively coordinated across courts, and are unlikely to preserve the going concern value of the Debtors' enterprise. Accordingly, the Debtors believe that dismissal of the Chapter 11 Cases in favor of non-bankruptcy proceedings is a much less attractive alternative for creditors as compared to the Modified Second Amended Plan.

SECTION XI.
CONCLUSION AND RECOMMENDATION

The Debtors believe that acceptance and confirmation the Modified Second Amended Plan is in the best interests of their estates. The Debtors therefore urge all holders of Claims in the Voting Classes to submit timely votes to accept the Modified Second Amended Plan.

12. Beneficial Holders of the Notes Claims in Classes 4 and 6 are deemed to have consented and authorized their Nominees to disclose their name and contact information to the Debtors. Upon request by the Debtors, all Nominees responsible for Master Ballots shall provide unredacted copies of the corresponding Beneficial Holder Ballots (in respect of both the original solicitation and the re-solicitation) to the Debtors and/or the names and contact information of the Beneficial Holders.

13. Except to the extent the Debtors determine otherwise, the Debtors are not required to provide Re-Solicitation Packages to holders of Claims or Interests in Non-Voting Classes. The Debtors shall also post the Amended Confirmation Hearing Notice on the Debtors' case information website and file it on the Court's docket.

F. Approval of the Procedures for Filing Objections to the Modified Second Amended Plan.

17. Objections to the Modified Second Amended Plan will not be considered by the Court unless such objections comply with this Order. modification to the Modified Second Amended Plan (or related materials) that would resolve such objection; and (e) be filed with the Court by 5:00 p.m. (CT) on September 13, 2024.

G. Non-Substantive Modifications.

18. The Debtors are authorized to make non-substantive changes to the Amended Disclosure Statement, Modified Second Amended Plan, Amended Confirmation Hearing Notice, Re-Solicitation Packages, Modified Ballots, Solicitation and Voting Procedures, and related documents without further orders of the Court, including changes to correct typographical and grammatical errors, if any, where, in the Debtors' reasonable discretion, doing so would better facilitate the Modified Second Amended Plan solicitation process.

III. MISCELLANEOUS

19. Nothing in this Order shall be construed as a waiver of the right of the Debtors or any other party in interest to object to a proof of claim at any time, including after the Voting Record Date.

20. I. THE VOTING DEADLINE

The Court has approved September 27, 2024, at 5:00 p.m. (CST), as the deadline (the "Voting Deadline") to vote on the Plan. The Debtors, with the consent of the Required 1L Noteholders (not to be unreasonably withheld), may extend the Voting Deadline by oral or written notice to Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC d/b/a Verita Global, in its capacity as solicitation agent for the Debtors (the "Solicitation Agent"). The Debtors may extend the Voting Deadline an unlimited number of times, may extend the Voting Deadline by any increment, and may extend the Voting Deadline retroactively. The Debtors will have no obligation to publish, advertise, or otherwise communicate any such extension, other than by notifying each of the Prepetition Indenture Trustees for conveyance to the noteholders in their respective facilities, notifying the First Lien Noteholder Group and the Committee, posting a notice on the Solicitation Agent's website at https://www.veritaglobal.net/incora, and filing a notice of the extension with the Court.

To be counted as votes to accept or reject the Plan, all ballots casting votes on the Plan ("Ballots") must be properly executed, completed, and delivered to the Solicitation Agent via email to IncoraBallots@veritaglobal.com ~~or via first class mail, overnight courier, or hand delivery to the Solicitation Agent at: Incora Ballot Processing, c/o Verita Global, 222 N. Pacific Coast Hwy., Suite 300, El Segundo, CA 90245,~~ so that they are actually received, in any case, no later than the Voting Deadline by the Solicitation Agent. Delivery of a Ballot to the Solicitation Agent by fax or other means of electronic submission will not be valid.

[2] Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Plan.

II. Form, Content, and Manner of Notices

A. The Solicitation Package

The following materials, without duplication, will constitute the solicitation package (the "Solicitation Package"):

a. these Solicitation and Voting Procedures;

b. the Amended Confirmation Hearing Notice;

c. the approved Amended Disclosure Statement (and its exhibits, including the Plan);

d. the Amended Disclosure Statement Order (excluding exhibits);

e. a Ballot, instructions on how to complete the Ballot;[3] and

f. such other materials as the Court may direct to include in the Solicitation Package.

B. Distribution of the Solicitation Package

The Solicitation Package shall include the Amended Disclosure Statement (including the Plan and other exhibits), the Amended Disclosure Statement Order (without exhibits, except the Solicitation and Voting Procedures) in electronic format (such as a flash drive), and all other contents of the Solicitation Package. Any party that prefers to receive the materials on paper (at the Debtors' expense) may contact the Solicitation Agent by: (a) calling (888) 251-2937 (U.S./Canada) or +1 (310) 751-2613 (international); (b) visiting the Debtors' restructuring website at: https://www.veritaglobal.net/incora, and/or (c) writing to Incora Claims Processing Center, c/o Verita Global, 222 N. Pacific Coast Hwy., Ste. 300, El Segundo, CA 90245.

The Debtors shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, the Solicitation Package to all holders of Claims in the Re-Solicitation Classes on or before September 10, 2024, who are entitled to vote, as described in Section V.A of the Disclosure Statement. In addition, the Debtors will serve, or cause to be served, all of the materials in the Solicitation Package (excluding the Ballots) on the U.S. Trustee and all parties who have requested service of papers in this case pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002 as of the Voting Record Date.

To avoid duplication and reduce expenses, the Debtors will make reasonable efforts to ensure that any holder of a Claim who has filed duplicative Claims (whether against the same or multiple Debtors) that are classified under the Plan in the same Voting Class will receive no more than one Solicitation Package (and, therefore, one Ballot) on account of such Claim and with respect to that Class.

[3] Service of the Solicitation Package may be performed electronically, or otherwise in nominees' customary practice.

III. Occurrence of Termination Date

Upon the occurrence of a Termination Date (as defined in the Restructuring Support Agreement) (other than a Termination Date as a result of the occurrence of the Effective Date), any and all votes (including any and all votes contained on a Master Ballot) submitted prior to such Termination Date by the Consenting 1L Noteholders subject to such termination shall automatically be deemed, for all purposes, to be null and void from the first instance and shall not be counted in determining the acceptance or rejection of the Plan or for any other purpose. Such votes may be changed or resubmitted regardless of whether the Voting Deadline has passed (without the need to seek a court order or consent from the Debtors allowing such change or resubmission).

IV. Voting and Tabulation Procedures

A. Holders of Claims Entitled to Vote.

Only holders of Claims in the Re-Solicitation Classes will be entitled to vote on the Plan.

The Court has approved September 3, 2024 as the record date for purposes of determining which holders of claims in the Re-Solicitation Classes are entitled to vote on the Plan (the "Voting Record Date").

If a Ballot is signed by a trustee, executor, administrator, guardian, attorney-in-fact, officer of a corporation, or other Entity acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity, that Entity must indicate such capacity when signing. If requested by the Debtors, the signing Entity will be required to submit evidence satisfactory to the Debtors of its authority to so act. Each authorized signatory must submit a separate Ballot for each holder on whose behalf the authorized signatory is voting.

B. Establishing Claim Amounts for Voting Purposes.

The Claim amount established by these Solicitation and Voting Procedures shall control for voting purposes only and shall not constitute the Allowed amount of any Claim. Moreover, any amounts filled in on any Ballot by the Debtors through the Solicitation Agent or the holder of the Claim, as applicable, are not binding for purposes of allowance and distribution.

The aggregate Allowed amounts for the Re-Solicitation Classes for voting purposes will be the Allowed amount of such Claims that is proposed under the Plan. Furthermore, the amount ascribed to each directly registered holder or Nominee will be proportionate to the principal amount of the respective Notes held by such directly registered holder or Nominee as of the Voting Record Date, as evidenced by the books and records of the respective Indenture Trustees and by securities position reports of the Depository Trust Company ("DTC").

C. Tabulation of Ballots.

Each Ballot enclosed with this Disclosure Statement is marked with the Class in which the corresponding Claim has been placed under the Plan. All votes to accept or reject the Plan must be cast by properly submitting the duly completed and executed Ballot in accordance with the instructions set forth on the applicable Ballot. If a creditor wishes to vote on the Plan, it must complete and sign its Ballot in accordance with the instructions printed on the Ballot, being sure to check one (and only one) of the boxes labeled "Accept (vote for) the Plan as to each Debtor" or "Reject (vote against) the Plan as to each Debtor." Any executed Ballot that does not indicate either acceptance or rejection of the Plan, or that indicates both acceptance and rejection of the Plan, will not be counted.

Each holder of multiple Claims within a single Class must vote each of its Claims within that Class either to accept or to reject the Plan and may not split its vote. If a holder of Claims holds multiple Claims within a particular Class, the Debtors may, in their discretion, instruct the Solicitation Agent to aggregate that holder's Claims within the applicable Class for the purpose of counting votes.

As set forth in greater detail on each Ballot's instructions, each Ballot may be submitted by ~~first class mail or~~ email in accordance with the Ballot's instructions.

D. Tabulation of Master Ballots.

1. Record Holders

A beneficial holder of a Notes Claim that holds a Claim as a record holder in its own name should vote on the Plan by completing and signing a Ballot (a "Record Holder Ballot") and returning it directly to the Solicitation Agent on or before the Voting Deadline. The voting amounts of any record holder of a Claim will be the amounts set forth on the books and records of the applicable indenture trustee as of the Voting Record Date.

2. Beneficial Holders Holding Through DTC Nominees

a. Beneficial Holders

In addition to the foregoing generally applicable voting and ballot tabulation procedures, the following procedures shall apply to Beneficial Holders of Notes Claims who hold their position through a broker, bank, or other nominee or an agent of a broker, bank, or other nominee (each of the foregoing, a "Nominee"). A beneficial holder that holds its claim in "street name" through a Nominee (a "Beneficial Holder") may vote on the Plan through one of the following two methods, as selected by the Beneficial Holder's Nominee:

i. Each Beneficial Holder that holds its Claim through a particular Nominee will complete and sign a Ballot (a "Beneficial Holder Ballot") and return it to its Nominee, in the manner directed by the Nominee and according to any deadline prescribed by the Nominee to ensure that the Nominee can collect and review Beneficial Holder Ballots and return a completed "master" ballot (a "Master Ballot") to the Solicitation Agent by the Voting Deadline.

ii. Each Beneficial Holder that holds its Claim through a particular Nominee will receive a pre-validated Beneficial Holder Ballot from its Nominee, which the Beneficial Holder must return directly to the Solicitation Agent by the Voting Deadline.

If it is a Nominee's customary practice to forward solicitation information to Beneficial Holders and to collect votes from them by voter information form ("VIF"), email, telephone or other means of communication, the Nominee may employ that method instead of sending a paper Beneficial Holder Ballot and Solicitation Package.

No Beneficial Holder Ballot delivered to a Nominee will be counted unless the Nominee properly delivers to the Solicitation Agent, by the Voting Deadline, either (a) that Beneficial Holder Ballot with proper validation or (b) a Master Ballot that incorporates the Beneficial Holder's vote and (if applicable) other elections.

If a Beneficial Holder holds Claims through more than one Nominee or through multiple accounts, it may receive more than one Beneficial Holder Ballot. It should then execute a separate Beneficial Holder Ballot for each block of Claims that it holds through a Nominee and return each such Beneficial Holder Ballot to the appropriate Nominee.

Votes cast by Beneficial Holders through Nominees will be applied to the positions held by those Nominees, as of the Voting Record Date, as evidenced by securities position reports obtained from the Depository Trust Company. Votes submitted by a Nominee pursuant to a Master Ballot will not be counted in excess of the amount of recorded Claims held by the Nominee as of the Voting Record Date.

b. Nominees

A Nominee that is the DTC account holder of Claims on behalf of one or more Beneficial Holders shall obtain votes and other elections from those Beneficial Holders consistent with customary practices for obtaining the votes of securities held in "street name," in one of the following two ways:

i. Pre-Validated Ballots. The Nominee may "pre-validate" a Beneficial Holder Ballot by (a) signing the Beneficial Holder Ballot; (b) indicating on the Beneficial Holder Ballot the amount and the account number of the Claims held by the Nominee for the particular Beneficial Holder; and (c) forwarding the Beneficial Ballot, together with the Disclosure Statement, a postage-paid return envelope pre-addressed to the Solicitation Agent, and other materials requested to be forwarded, to the Beneficial Holder for voting. The Beneficial Holder must then complete the information requested in the Beneficial Ballot and return the Beneficial Ballot directly to the Solicitation Agent in the pre-addressed, postage-paid return envelope so that it is received by the Solicitation Agent on or before the Voting Deadline. A list of the Beneficial Holders to whom "pre-validated" Beneficial Ballots were delivered should be maintained by Nominees for inspection for at least one year from the Voting Deadline.

ii. Master Ballots. The Nominee may obtain the votes of Beneficial Holders by forwarding to each Beneficial Holder an unsigned Beneficial Holder Ballot through mail, VIF, email, or any other reliable and customary method of collecting votes from a Beneficial Holder, together with the Disclosure Statement, a postage-paid return envelope addressed to the Nominee (in the case of a physical mailing), and other materials requested to be forwarded. Each such Beneficial Holder must then indicate its vote and other elections on the Beneficial Holder Ballot, complete the information requested on the Beneficial Holder Ballot, review the certifications contained on the Beneficial Holder Ballot, execute the Beneficial Holder Ballot, and return the Beneficial Holder Ballot to the Nominee. If it is accepted practice for a Nominee to collect votes through a VIF, email, or other method, the Beneficial Holder shall follow the Nominee's instruction for completing and submitting its votes to the Nominee. After collecting the Beneficial Holders' votes, the Nominee should, in turn, complete a Master Ballot compiling the votes and other information from the Beneficial Holders, execute the Master Ballot, and deliver the Master Ballot to the Solicitation Agent so that it is received by the Solicitation Agent at or before the Voting Deadline. All Beneficial Ballots returned by Beneficial Holders should either be forwarded to the Solicitation Agent along with the Master Ballot or retained by the Nominee for inspection for at least one year from the Voting Deadline. Each Nominee should advise its Beneficial Holders to return their Beneficial Ballots to the Nominee by a date and time calculated by the Nominee to allow it to prepare and return the Master Ballot to the Solicitation Agent so that the Master Ballot is received by the Solicitation Agent on or before the Voting Deadline.

E. Opt-Out from Releases

The Plan contains the Third-Party Release provisions. ~~If a holder of Claims or Interests votes on the Plan, or does not vote on the Plan, that~~A holder may opt out of the Third-Party

Release by checking the box labeled "Opt out of the Third-Party Release" that follows the Third-Party Release provisions on the applicable Ballot. ~~Even if a creditor votes to accept the Plan, it may still opt out of the Third-Party Release by checking the opt-out box.~~ If a creditor opts out of consenting to the Third-Party Release, then it will not be a Released Party, even if it would otherwise be entitled to be a Released Party.

Regardless of whether a holder votes on acceptance or rejection of the Plan, it must return its Ballot at or before the Voting Deadline in compliance with the instructions in order to opt out of the Third-Party Release.

F. Section 1111(b) Election

If a holder of a 1L Notes Claim or 2026 Notes Claim prefers that the class of 1L Notes Claims or 2026 Notes Claims, as applicable, elect application of section 1111(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, that holder may indicate its preference by checking the box labeled "Elect application of section 1111(b)(2)" that follows Item 4: Section 1111(b) Election on the applicable Ballot. Except as otherwise provided in section 1111(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, an 1111(b) Election can be made as to a Class if at least two-thirds in amount and more than half in number of Allowed Claims within such Class elect application of section 1111(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code.

A holder must return its Ballot at or before the Voting Deadline in compliance with the instructions in order to elect application of section 1111(b)(2).

G. ~~F.~~ Withdrawal or Change of Votes

If multiple Ballots are received from the same holder with respect to the same Claim prior to the Voting Deadline, the last properly executed, timely submitted electronic Ballot will be deemed to reflect that voter's intent and will supersede and revoke any prior Ballot. If no such electronic Ballot submission is made, the last properly executed, timely submitted paper Ballot will be deemed to reflect that voter's intent and will supersede and revoke any prior paper Ballot submission. Following the Voting Deadline, a holder may not change its vote in a previously cast Ballot from acceptance to rejection, without first obtaining authority from the Court pursuant to the requirements of and in compliance with Bankruptcy Rule 3018(a).

H. ~~G.~~ Waivers of Defects and Irregularities

Unless otherwise directed by the Court, all questions as to the validity, form, eligibility (including time of receipt), acceptance, and revocation or withdrawal of Ballots will be determined by the Debtors in their sole discretion, which determination will be final and binding. Effective withdrawals of Ballots must be delivered to the Solicitation Agent prior to the Voting Deadline. The Debtors reserve the absolute right to contest the validity of any purported withdrawal. The Debtors also reserve the right to reject any and all Ballots not in proper form or the acceptance of which would, in the opinion of the Debtors or their counsel, be unlawful. The Debtors further reserve the right to waive any defects or irregularities or conditions of delivery as to any particular Ballot or to waive the Voting Deadline as to any particular Ballot, in each case with notice to the Committee and notice to and consent of the First Lien Noteholder Group (consent of the First Lien Noteholder Group not to be unreasonably withheld) and subject to contrary order of the Court. The Debtors' interpretation of the Ballot and its instructions will be final and binding on all parties, unless otherwise ordered by the Court. Unless waived, any defects or irregularities in connection with deliveries of Ballots must be cured within such time as the Debtors (or the Court) determine. Neither the Debtors nor any other person will be under any duty to provide notification of defects or irregularities with respect to deliveries of Ballots, nor will any of them incur any liabilities for failure to provide such notification. Unless otherwise directed by the Court, delivery of such Ballots will not be deemed to have been made until such irregularities have been cured or waived. Ballots previously furnished (and as to which any irregularities have not theretofore been cured or waived) will be invalidated.

The Debtors will note in the Voting Report all defects or irregularities or conditions of delivery that were waived as to any particular Ballot, all Ballots as to which the Voting Deadline was waived, all Ballots that were rejected (along with the reason for rejection), and all opt outs to the Releases.

I. ~~H.~~ Agreements Upon Furnishing Ballots

The delivery of a Ballot that votes to accept the Plan will constitute the agreement of the corresponding creditor with respect to such Ballot to accept: (a) all of the terms of, and conditions to, the Solicitation; and (b) the terms of the Plan including the injunction, releases, and exculpations set forth in the Plan.

V. Amendments to the Plan and Solicitation and Voting Procedures

The Debtors may make non-substantive or immaterial changes to the Amended Disclosure Statement, Disclosure Statement Hearing Notice, Plan, Amended Confirmation Hearing Notice, Solicitation Packages, Ballots, Solicitation and Voting Procedures, Tabulation Procedures, and related documents without further order of the Court, including changes to correct typographical and grammatical errors, if any, and to make conforming changes to the Amended Disclosure Statement, the Plan, and any other materials in the Solicitation Packages before distribution. The Debtors shall include information regarding remote attendance at the Confirmation Hearing.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING MASTER BALLOT

If the Solicitation Agent does not actually receive your Master Ballot on or before September 27, 2024, at 5:00 p.m. (CT), your Beneficial Holders' votes will be counted only at the discretion of the Debtors unless the Voting Deadline is extended.

WHAT IS HAPPENING? WHAT AM I BEING ASKED TO DO?

The Debtors are soliciting the votes of your Beneficial Holders on the plan of reorganization for Wesco Aircraft Holdings, Inc., and its affiliated debtors described in the Amended Disclosure Statement that you have received. The Modified Second Amended Plan is attached to the Amended Disclosure Statement as Exhibit A.

WHEN IS MY MASTER BALLOT DUE?

Your Master Ballot must be actually received by the Solicitation Agent on or before the Voting Deadline. The Voting Deadline is September 27, 2024, at 5:00 p.m. (CT), unless it is extended. You should distribute Beneficial Holder Ballots to your Beneficial Holders and require their return in sufficient time to assure your timely delivery of this Master Ballot to the Solicitation Agent.

HOW DO I SUBMIT MY MASTER BALLOT?

You may submit your Master Ballot in paper form or electronically by email to IncoraBallots@veritaglobal.com. You may choose either method at your own risk and should allow sufficient time to guarantee delivery by the Voting Deadline. Ballots will not be accepted by electronic means other than email.

To submit your Master Ballot in paper form, you must complete, sign, and date the Master Ballot and return it (with your original signature) via first-class mail, overnight courier, or hand delivery to the Solicitation Agent at: Incora Ballot Processing, c/o Verita, 222 N. Pacific Coast Hwy., Suite 300, El Segundo, CA 90245. To coordinate hand delivery, email the Solicitation Agent at IncoraBallots@veritaglobal.com to provide the anticipated date and time of delivery. Be sure to sign and date your Master Ballot if you submit it in paper form.

WHO SHOULD RECEIVE A BENEFICIAL HOLDER BALLOT?

You should distribute Beneficial Holder Ballots to each Beneficial Holder of notes identified on Schedule 1 to this Master Ballot as of the Voting Record Date for which you are a Nominee or a proxy holder for a Nominee.

How should I deliver Solicitation Packages to Beneficial Holders and collect votes from them?

You may distribute the Solicitation Packages to Beneficial Holders in accordance with your customary practices. You may also collect votes to accept or to reject the Modified Second Amended Plan from Beneficial Holders in accordance with your customary practices, including the use of a "voting instruction form" in lieu of (or in addition to) a Beneficial Holder Ballot, or through online voting, by phone, or by other electronic means. If you do not have a sufficient number of Solicitation Packages or Beneficial Holder Ballots, you should request additional copies from the Solicitation Agent.

If you are transmitting the votes of any Beneficial Holder other than yourself, you may select either of the following options:

- Within 5 Business Days after you receive the Solicitation Package, "Pre-validate" the individual Beneficial Holder Ballots contained in the Solicitation Package and then forward the Solicitation Packages to your Beneficial Holders with the instruction that the Beneficial Holders must return their Beneficial Holder Ballots directly to the Solicitation Agent in the return envelope to be provided in the Solicitation Package. You may "pre-validate" a Beneficial Holder Ballot by (i) signing the Beneficial Holder Ballot and including your DTC participant number; (ii) indicating the account number of the Beneficial Holder and the Class and principal amount of Claims held by you for such Beneficial Holder; and (iii) forwarding the pre-validated Beneficial Holder Ballot together with the rest of the Solicitation Package to the Beneficial Holder. The Beneficial Holder should then complete the remaining information requested on the Beneficial Holder Ballot and return the Beneficial Holder Ballot directly to the Solicitation Agent. You should maintain a list of the Beneficial Holders to whom you send "pre-validated" Beneficial Holder Ballots for inspection for at least one year from the Effective Date.

- Within 5 Business Days after you receive the Solicitation Package, forward the Solicitation Packages to your Beneficial Holders along with a return envelope provided by and addressed to you. Each Beneficial Holder will then return its Beneficial Holder Ballot to you, and you will tabulate the votes of your Beneficial Holders ~~and~~, their opt-out elections on a Master Ballot, their section 1111(b) elections (if applicable) and return the Master Ballot to the Solicitation Agent. You should advise the Beneficial Holders to return their Beneficial Holder Ballots (or otherwise transmit their votes) to you by a date calculated to allow you to prepare and return the Master Ballot to the Solicitation Agent so that the Master Ballot is actually received by the Solicitation Agent on or before the Voting Deadline.

How do I tabulate the votes and elections of Beneficial Holders?

You must (a) compile and validate the votes and other relevant information on each Beneficial Holder Ballot returned to you on a Master Ballot using the customer name or account number assigned by you to each applicable Beneficial Holder; (b) execute the Master Ballot; (c) transmit such Master Ballot to the Solicitation Agent by the Voting Deadline; and (d) retain all Beneficial Holder Ballots you received from your Beneficial Holders, whether in hard copy or by electronic means, in your files for a period of one year after the Effective Date. You may be ordered to produce these Beneficial Holder Ballots (or evidence of the vote otherwise transmitted to you) to the Debtors or the Court.

In completing the Master Ballot, you should indicate that you are signing the Master Ballot in your capacity as a Nominee and, if required or requested by the Solicitation Agent, the Debtors, or the Court, you must submit proper evidence of your authority to act on behalf of your Beneficial Holders.

If you are both the Nominee and the Beneficial Holder of any of the Claims voted through the Master Ballot and you wish to vote your Claims, you may return a Beneficial Holder Ballot or Master Ballot for your Claims. In that case, you must vote your entire Claim in a particular Class to either to accept or reject the Modified Second Amended Plan and may not split your vote.

How will the votes transmitted by my Master Ballot be counted?

The votes transmitted through your Master Ballot will be counted only if it is actually received by the Solicitation Agent on or before the Voting Deadline.

If you submit multiple Master Ballots with respect to the same Claims, only the votes transmitted through the last Master Ballot that is received on time and completed properly will be counted; it will supersede and revoke all earlier Master Ballots with respect to the same Claims. However, if you submit valid and timely Master Ballots for the same Claims both in paper form and electronically, only the submission through email will be counted, even if the paper Master Ballot is received later.

Additionally, the following Master Ballots will not be counted:

- any Master Ballot that is delivered to anyone other than the Solicitation Agent (including the Debtors, the Debtors' legal or financial advisors, the Court, or any agent of the Debtors other than the Solicitation Agent);
- any Master Ballot that is illegible;
- any Master Ballot that contains insufficient information to permit the Solicitation Agent to identify the principal amounts voted within each Class;
- any unsigned Master Ballot;

- any Master Ballot that does not contain an original signature (except that signed Master Ballots submitted by email will be deemed to contain an original signature); and
- any Master Ballot submit by a person that is not a Nominee or a proxy holder for a Nominee.

HOW WILL THE SOLICITATION AGENT TABULATE THE VOTES OF MY BENEFICIAL HOLDERS?

The following rules apply:

- Votes cast by Beneficial Holders through a Nominee will be applied against the positions held by the Nominee as of the Voting Record Date, as evidenced by the record and depository listings.
- Votes submitted by a Master Ballot or pre-validated Beneficial Holder Ballots will not be counted in excess of the record amount of the Claims held by the applicable Nominee.
- To the extent that conflicting votes or "over-votes" are submitted by a Nominee, whether pursuant to a Master Ballot or pre-validated Beneficial Holder Ballots, the Solicitation Agent will attempt to reconcile discrepancies with the Nominee.
- To the extent that over-votes on a Master Ballot or pre-validated Beneficial Holder Ballots are not reconcilable prior to the preparation of the vote certification, the Solicitation Agent will apply the votes to accept and reject the Modified Second Amended Plan in the same proportion as the votes to accept and reject the Modified Second Amended Plan submitted on the Master Ballot or pre-validated Beneficial Holder Ballots that contained the over-vote, but only to the extent of the Nominee's position in the applicable Claims.
- For purposes of tabulating votes, each holder holding through a particular account will be deemed to have voted the principal amount relating to its holding in that particular account, although the Solicitation Agent may be asked to adjust the principal amount to reflect the claim amount.

I HAVE FURTHER QUESTIONS ABOUT MY MASTER BALLOT.

If you have any questions about your Master Ballot or the procedures for voting, please call the Solicitation Agent's hotline at (877) 499-4509 (toll-free in the U.S. and Canada) or +1 (917) 281-4800 (international), visit the Debtors' restructuring website at https://veritaglobal.net/incora/, or email the Solicitation Agent at IncoraBallots@veritaglobal.com.

AM I REQUIRED TO ACCEPT THE THIRD-PARTY RELEASE? HOW CAN I OPT OUT?

You are not required to accept the Third-Party Release. You may opt out of the Third-Party Release by checking the opt-out box in Item 3 of your Ballot. The treatment of your Claim under the Modified Second Amended Plan will not be affected in any way if you opt out of the Third-Party Release. ~~If you vote to accept the Modified Second Amended Plan, you will be deemed to have consented to the Third-Party Releases.~~

WHAT IS THE SECTION 1111(B) ELECTION?

Except as otherwise provided in section 1111(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, an 1111(b) Election can be made as to a Class if at least two-thirds in amount and more than half in number of Allowed Claims within such Class elect application of section 1111(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code.

When is my Beneficial Holder Ballot due?

Your vote must be actually received by the Solicitation Agent at or before the Voting Deadline. The Voting Deadline is September 27, 2024, at 5:00 p.m. (CT), unless it is extended. You are not required to vote but you will be bound by the Modified Second Amended Plan if it is confirmed, regardless of whether or not you cast a Beneficial Holder Ballot.

How do I submit my Beneficial Holder Ballot?

Follow your Nominee's instructions carefully as your vote will be counted only if it is actually received by the Solicitation Agent at or before the Voting Deadline.

Your Nominee may have instructed you to return your Beneficial Holder Ballot to your Nominee. If so, you must follow your Nominee's instructions to ensure that your Nominee can transmit the information on your Beneficial Holder Ballot to the Solicitation Agent at or before the Voting Deadline.

At the request of the Debtors, your Nominee will be required to provide a copy of your Beneficial Holder Ballot.

Alternatively, your Nominee may have directed you to send a "pre-validated" Beneficial Holder Ballot directly to the Solicitation Agent. If so, you must deliver your pre-validated Beneficial Holder Ballot to the Solicitation Agent at or before the Voting Deadline.

If you have received a "pre-validated" Beneficial Holder Ballot from your Nominee, you must complete, sign, and date such Ballot and return it (with your original signature) either (i) via first-class mail, overnight courier, or hand delivery to the Solicitation Agent at Incora Ballot Processing, c/o Verita, 222 N. Pacific Coast Hwy., Suite 300, El Segundo, CA 90245 or (ii) via electronic mail to the Solicitation Agent at IncoraBallots@veritaglobal.com. To coordinate hand delivery, email the Solicitation Agent at IncoraBallots@veritaglobal.com to provide the anticipated date and time of delivery. Be sure to sign and date your Beneficial Holder Ballot.

Will my Beneficial Holder Ballot count?

The following Beneficial Holder Ballots will not be counted:

- any Beneficial Holder Ballot that purports to partially accept or partially reject the Modified Second Amended Plan;
- any Beneficial Holder Ballot that purports to both accept and reject the Modified Second Amended Plan, or that neither accepts nor rejects the Modified Second Amended Plan;
- any Beneficial Holder Ballot that is delivered to anyone other than your Nominee (other than a pre-validated Beneficial Holder Ballot that is delivered directly to the Solicitation Agent);
- any Beneficial Holder Ballot that is illegible;

- any Beneficial Holder Ballot that contains insufficient information to permit the Solicitation Agent or the applicable Nominee to identify the Holder of the voted Claim;
- any Beneficial Holder Ballot cast by a person or entity that does not hold a Claim in the Class indicated on the front of the Beneficial Holder Ballot;
- any Beneficial Holder Ballot cast by a person that is not entitled to vote pursuant to the Modified Second Amended Plan;
- any unsigned Beneficial Holder Ballot; and
- any non-original Beneficial Holder Ballot (excluding electronic ballots submitted in compliance with a Nominee's instructions).

MAY I SPLIT MY VOTE?

You must vote all of your Claims within a single Class either to accept or reject the Modified Second Amended Plan and may not split your vote. Further, if you have multiple Claims within a Class, the Debtors may, in their discretion, aggregate your Claims within that Class for the purpose of counting votes.

If you have Claims in different Classes, you will receive a separate Ballot for each such Class. In that case, each Ballot will apply only to your Claims in the Class indicated on that Ballot, so you must complete and return each Ballot that you receive and may cast different votes with respect to Claims in different Classes. If you are a beneficial holder of a Notes Claim that holds a claim as a record holder in its own name, you will receive a separate Record Holder Ballot with respect to such claims and should follow the instructions set forth therein.

WHAT ARE MY CLAIMS AGAINST THE DEBTORS?

You have received a Beneficial Holder Ballot because your Nominee has determined that you are a beneficial holder of a Claim against the Debtors of the type shown on the front of this Beneficial Holder Ballot. However, your Beneficial Holder Ballot does not constitute a proof of claim or an assertion or admission that you hold a Claim against any Debtor.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING BALLOT

If the Solicitation Agent does not actually receive your Ballot on or before September 27, 2024, at 5:00 p.m. (CT), your vote will be counted only at the discretion of the Debtors unless the Voting Deadline is extended.

WHAT IS HAPPENING? WHAT AM I BEING ASKED TO VOTE ON?

The Debtors are soliciting your vote on their proposed plan of reorganization, as described further in the Amended Disclosure Statement that you have received in your Re-Solicitation Package.

The Modified Second Amended Plan is attached to the Amended Disclosure Statement as Exhibit A. Before voting, please carefully read the Modified Second Amended Plan and the Amended Disclosure Statement. Please note that Article VIII of the Modified Second Amended Plan includes releases, exculpations, and injunctions. These provisions affect your rights, including your rights against persons other than the Debtors.

AM I REQUIRED TO ACCEPT THE THIRD-PARTY RELEASE? HOW CAN I OPT OUT?

You are not required to accept the Third-Party Release. You may opt out of the Third-Party Release by ~~(a) voting on the Modified Second Amended Plan or declining to vote on the Modified Second Amended Plan~~ and ~~(b)~~ checking the opt-out box in Item 2 of your Ballot. The treatment of your Claim under the Modified Second Amended Plan will not be affected in any way if you opt out of the Third-Party Release. If you vote to accept the Modified Second Amended Plan, you will be deemed to have consented to the Third-Party Releases.

WHAT IS THE SECTION 1111(B) ELECTION?

Except as otherwise provided in section 1111(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, an 1111(b) Election can be made as to a Class if at least two-thirds in amount and more than half in number of Allowed Claims within such Class elect application of section 1111(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code.

When is my Ballot due?

Your vote must be actually received by the Solicitation Agent at or before the Voting Deadline. The Voting Deadline is September 27, 2024, at 5:00 p.m. (CT), unless it is extended. You are not required to vote but you will be bound by the Modified Second Amended Plan if it is confirmed, regardless of whether or not you cast a Record Holder Ballot.

How do I submit my Ballot?

You may submit your Ballot in paper form or electronically to the Solicitation Agent via electronic mail at IncoraBallots@veritaglobal.com, as further described below. You may choose either method at your own risk and should allow sufficient time for timely delivery by the Voting Deadline. Ballots will not be accepted by fax or other means.

To submit your Ballot in paper form, you must complete, sign, and date the Ballot and return it (with the original signature) via first-class mail, overnight courier, or hand delivery to the Solicitation Agent at: Incora Ballot Processing, c/o Verita Global, 222 N. Pacific Coast Hwy., Suite 300, El Segundo, CA 90245. To coordinate hand delivery, email the Solicitation Agent at http://www.veritaglobal.net/incora/inquiry to provide the anticipated date and time of delivery. Be sure to sign and date your Ballot.

To submit your Ballot electronically, please email your ballot to IncoraBallots@veritaglobal.com.

Why am I entitled to cast a Ballot?

You have received your Ballot because the Solicitation Agent has information that you may be a holder of Notes Claims (as defined in the Amended Disclosure Statement) that holds Claims as a record holder in its own name.

Will my Ballot count?

Your Ballot will be counted only if it is actually received by the Solicitation Agent on or before the Voting Deadline. If you submit multiple Ballots with respect to the same Claim, only the last Ballot that is received on time and completed properly will be counted; it will supersede and revoke all earlier Ballots with respect to the same Claim. However, if you submit valid and timely Ballots for the same Claim both in paper form and electronically, only the Ballot submitted through the electronically will be counted, even if the paper Ballot is received later.

Additionally, the following Ballots will not be counted:

- any Ballot that purports to partially accept or partially reject the Plan;
- any Ballot that purports to both accept and reject the Plan, or that neither accepts nor rejects the Plan;
- any Ballot that is delivered to anyone other than the Solicitation Agent (including the Debtors, the Debtors' legal or financial advisors, the Court, or any agent of the Debtors other than the Solicitation Agent);

- any Ballot that is illegible;
- any Ballot that contains insufficient information to permit the Solicitation Agent to identify the holder of the voted Claim;
- any Ballot cast by a person or entity that does not hold a Claim in the Class indicated on the front of the Ballot;
- any Ballot cast by a ~~Holder~~holder that is not entitled to vote;
- any unsigned Ballot;
- any non-original Ballot (excluding electronic ballots submitted through the E-Ballot Portal).

MAY I SPLIT MY VOTE?

You must vote all of your Claims within a single Class either to accept or reject the Plan and may not split your vote. Further, if you have multiple Claims within a Class, the Debtors may, in their discretion, aggregate your Claims within that Class for the purpose of counting votes.

If you have Claims in different Classes, you will receive a separate Ballot for each such Class. In that case, each Ballot will apply only to your Claims in the Class indicated on that Ballot, so you must complete and return each Ballot that you receive and may cast different votes with respect to Claims in different Classes.

WHAT ARE MY CLAIMS AGAINST THE DEBTORS?

You have received a Ballot because the Solicitation Agent has information suggesting that you may hold a Claim against a Debtor of the type shown on the front of the Ballot. However, your Ballot does not constitute a proof of claim or an assertion or admission that you hold a Claim against any Debtor.

I HAVE FURTHER QUESTIONS ABOUT MY BALLOT.

If you have any questions about your Ballot or the procedures for voting, please call the Solicitation Agent's hotline at (877) 499-4509 (toll-free in the U.S. and Canada) or +1 (917) 281-4800 (international), or visit the Debtors' restructuring website at: https://www.veritaglobal.net/incora.

The Solicitation Agent cannot answer legal questions regarding the Plan. For legal assistance (including regarding the Plan or the Third-Party Release), please consult your own legal counsel.

17. Objections to the Modified Second Amended Plan will not be considered by the Court unless such objections comply with this Order. Specifically, all objections to confirmation of the Modified Second Amended Plan or requests for modifications to the Modified Second Amended Plan, if any, must: (a) be in writing; (b) conform to the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, and any orders of the Court; (c) set forth the name and address of the objecting party and the nature and amount of Claims or Interests held or asserted by the objecting party; (d) state, with particularity, the legal and factual basis for the objection and, if practicable, a proposed modification to the Modified Second Amended Plan (or related materials) that would resolve such objection; and (e) be filed with the Court by 5:00 p.m. (CT) on September 13, 2024.

G. Non-Substantive Modifications.

18. The Debtors are authorized to make non-substantive changes to the Amended Disclosure Statement, Modified Second Amended Plan, Amended Confirmation Hearing Notice, Re-Solicitation Packages, Modified Ballots, Solicitation and Voting Procedures, and related documents without further orders of the Court, including changes to correct typographical and grammatical errors, if any, where, in the Debtors' reasonable discretion, doing so would better facilitate the Modified Second Amended Plan solicitation process.

III. MISCELLANEOUS

19. Nothing in this Order shall be construed as a waiver of the right of the Debtors or any other party in interest to object to a proof of claim at any time, including after the Voting Record Date.

20. Nothing contained in the Motion or this Order or any payment made pursuant to the authority granted by this Order is intended to be or shall be deemed as (a) an admission as to the validity of any claim against the Debtors, (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any party in interest's rights to dispute the amount of, basis for, or validity of any claim, (c) a waiver of the Debtors' rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable nonbankruptcy law, (d) an agreement or obligation to pay any claims, (e) a waiver of any claims or causes of action which may exist against any creditor or interest holder, (f) an admission as to the validity of any liens satisfied pursuant to this Motion, or (g) an approval, assumption, adoption, or rejection of any agreement, contract, lease, program, or policy under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code.

No. [•]] (including all exhibits thereto, the "Plan"), (c) approving the forms of ballots and notices in connection therewith, (d) scheduling certain dates with respect thereto, and (e) authorizing the above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (the "Debtors") to solicit acceptances or rejections of the Plan from holders of impaired claims who are (or may be) entitled to receive distributions under the Plan.[2]

I. THE VOTING DEADLINE

The Court has approved September 27, 2024, at 5:00 p.m. (CST), as the deadline (the "Voting Deadline") to vote on the Plan. The Debtors, with the consent of the Required 1L Noteholders (not to be unreasonably withheld), may extend the Voting Deadline by oral or written notice to Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC d/b/a Verita Global, in its capacity as solicitation agent for the Debtors (the "Solicitation Agent"). The Debtors may extend the Voting Deadline an unlimited number of times, may extend the Voting Deadline by any increment, and may extend the Voting Deadline retroactively. The Debtors will have no obligation to publish, advertise, or otherwise communicate any such extension, other than by notifying each of the Prepetition Indenture Trustees for conveyance to the noteholders in their respective facilities, notifying the First Lien Noteholder Group and the Committee, posting a notice on the Solicitation Agent's website at https://www.veritaglobal.net/incora, and filing a notice of the extension with the Court.

To be counted as votes to accept or reject the Plan, all ballots casting votes on the Plan ("Ballots") must be properly executed, completed, and delivered to the Solicitation Agent via email to IncoraBallots@veritaglobal.com so that they are actually received, in any case, no later than the Voting Deadline by the Solicitation Agent. Delivery of a Ballot to the Solicitation Agent by fax or other means of electronic submission will not be valid.

[2] Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Plan.

II. Form, Content, and Manner of Notices

A. The Solicitation Package

The following materials, without duplication, will constitute the solicitation package (the "Solicitation Package"):

a. these Solicitation and Voting Procedures;

b. the Amended Confirmation Hearing Notice;

c. the approved Amended Disclosure Statement (and its exhibits, including the Plan);

d. the Amended Disclosure Statement Order (excluding exhibits);

e. a Ballot, instructions on how to complete the Ballot;[3] and

f. such other materials as the Court may direct to include in the Solicitation Package.

B. Distribution of the Solicitation Package

The Solicitation Package shall include the Amended Disclosure Statement (including the Plan and other exhibits), the Amended Disclosure Statement Order (without exhibits, except the Solicitation and Voting Procedures) in electronic format (such as a flash drive), and all other contents of the Solicitation Package. Any party that prefers to receive the materials on paper (at the Debtors' expense) may contact the Solicitation Agent by: (a) calling (888) 251-2937 (U.S./Canada) or +1 (310) 751-2613 (international); (b) visiting the Debtors' restructuring website at: https://www.veritaglobal.net/incora, and/or (c) writing to Incora Claims Processing Center, c/o Verita Global, 222 N. Pacific Coast Hwy., Ste. 300, El Segundo, CA 90245.

The Debtors shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, the Solicitation Package to all holders of Claims in the Re-Solicitation Classes on or before September 10, 2024, who are entitled to vote, as described in Section V.A of the Disclosure Statement. In addition, the Debtors will serve, or cause to be served, all of the materials in the Solicitation Package (excluding the Ballots) on the U.S. Trustee and all parties who have requested service of papers in this case pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002 as of the Voting Record Date.

To avoid duplication and reduce expenses, the Debtors will make reasonable efforts to ensure that any holder of a Claim who has filed duplicative Claims (whether against the same or multiple Debtors) that are classified under the Plan in the same Voting Class will receive no more than one Solicitation Package (and, therefore, one Ballot) on account of such Claim and with respect to that Class.

[3] Service of the Solicitation Package may be performed electronically, or otherwise in nominees' customary practice.

III. Occurrence of Termination Date

Upon the occurrence of a Termination Date (as defined in the Restructuring Support Agreement) (other than a Termination Date as a result of the occurrence of the Effective Date), any and all votes (including any and all votes contained on a Master Ballot) submitted prior to such Termination Date by the Consenting 1L Noteholders subject to such termination shall automatically be deemed, for all purposes, to be null and void from the first instance and shall not be counted in determining the acceptance or rejection of the Plan or for any other purpose. Such votes may be changed or resubmitted regardless of whether the Voting Deadline has passed (without the need to seek a court order or consent from the Debtors allowing such change or resubmission).

IV. Voting and Tabulation Procedures

A. Holders of Claims Entitled to Vote.

Only holders of Claims in the Re-Solicitation Classes will be entitled to vote on the Plan.

The Court has approved September 3, 2024 as the record date for purposes of determining which holders of claims in the Re-Solicitation Classes are entitled to vote on the Plan (the "Voting Record Date").

If a Ballot is signed by a trustee, executor, administrator, guardian, attorney-in-fact, officer of a corporation, or other Entity acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity, that Entity must indicate such capacity when signing. If requested by the Debtors, the signing Entity will be required to submit evidence satisfactory to the Debtors of its authority to so act. Each authorized signatory must submit a separate Ballot for each holder on whose behalf the authorized signatory is voting.

B. Establishing Claim Amounts for Voting Purposes.

The Claim amount established by these Solicitation and Voting Procedures shall control for voting purposes only and shall not constitute the Allowed amount of any Claim. Moreover, any amounts filled in on any Ballot by the Debtors through the Solicitation Agent or the holder of the Claim, as applicable, are not binding for purposes of allowance and distribution.

The aggregate Allowed amounts for the Re-Solicitation Classes for voting purposes will be the Allowed amount of such Claims that is proposed under the Plan. Furthermore, the amount ascribed to each directly registered holder or Nominee will be proportionate to the principal amount of the respective Notes held by such directly registered holder or Nominee as of the Voting Record Date, as evidenced by the books and records of the respective Indenture Trustees and by securities position reports of the Depository Trust Company ("DTC").

C. Tabulation of Ballots.

Each Ballot enclosed with this Disclosure Statement is marked with the Class in which the corresponding Claim has been placed under the Plan. All votes to accept or reject the Plan must be cast by properly submitting the duly completed and executed Ballot in accordance with the instructions set forth on the applicable Ballot. If a creditor wishes to vote on the Plan, it must complete and sign its Ballot in accordance with the instructions printed on the Ballot, being sure to check one (and only one) of the boxes labeled "Accept (vote for) the Plan as to each Debtor" or "Reject (vote against) the Plan as to each Debtor." Any executed Ballot that does not indicate either acceptance or rejection of the Plan, or that indicates both acceptance and rejection of the Plan, will not be counted.

Each holder of multiple Claims within a single Class must vote each of its Claims within that Class either to accept or to reject the Plan and may not split its vote. If a holder of Claims holds multiple Claims within a particular Class, the Debtors may, in their discretion, instruct the Solicitation Agent to aggregate that holder's Claims within the applicable Class for the purpose of counting votes.

As set forth in greater detail on each Ballot's instructions, each Ballot may be submitted by email in accordance with the Ballot's instructions.

D. Tabulation of Master Ballots.

1. Record Holders

A beneficial holder of a Notes Claim that holds a Claim as a record holder in its own name should vote on the Plan by completing and signing a Ballot (a "Record Holder Ballot") and returning it directly to the Solicitation Agent on or before the Voting Deadline. The voting amounts of any record holder of a Claim will be the amounts set forth on the books and records of the applicable indenture trustee as of the Voting Record Date.

2. Beneficial Holders Holding Through DTC Nominees

a. Beneficial Holders

In addition to the foregoing generally applicable voting and ballot tabulation procedures, the following procedures shall apply to Beneficial Holders of Notes Claims who hold their position through a broker, bank, or other nominee or an agent of a broker, bank, or other nominee (each of the foregoing, a "Nominee"). A beneficial holder that holds its claim in "street name" through a Nominee (a "Beneficial Holder") may vote on the Plan through one of the following two methods, as selected by the Beneficial Holder's Nominee:

i. Each Beneficial Holder that holds its Claim through a particular Nominee will complete and sign a Ballot (a "Beneficial Holder Ballot") and return it to its Nominee, in the manner directed by the Nominee and according to any deadline prescribed by the Nominee to ensure that the Nominee can collect and review Beneficial Holder

ii. Each Beneficial Holder that holds its Claim through a particular Nominee will receive a pre-validated Beneficial Holder Ballot from its Nominee, which the Beneficial Holder must return directly to the Solicitation Agent by the Voting Deadline.

If it is a Nominee's customary practice to forward solicitation information to Beneficial Holders and to collect votes from them by voter information form ("VIF"), email, telephone or other means of communication, the Nominee may employ that method instead of sending a paper Beneficial Holder Ballot and Solicitation Package.

No Beneficial Holder Ballot delivered to a Nominee will be counted unless the Nominee properly delivers to the Solicitation Agent, by the Voting Deadline, either (a) that Beneficial Holder Ballot with proper validation or (b) a Master Ballot that incorporates the Beneficial Holder's vote and (if applicable) other elections.

If a Beneficial Holder holds Claims through more than one Nominee or through multiple accounts, it may receive more than one Beneficial Holder Ballot. It should then execute a separate Beneficial Holder Ballot for each block of Claims that it holds through a Nominee and return each such Beneficial Holder Ballot to the appropriate Nominee.

Votes cast by Beneficial Holders through Nominees will be applied to the positions held by those Nominees, as of the Voting Record Date, as evidenced by securities position reports obtained from the Depository Trust Company. Votes submitted by a Nominee pursuant to a Master Ballot will not be counted in excess of the amount of recorded Claims held by the Nominee as of the Voting Record Date.

b. Nominees

A Nominee that is the DTC account holder of Claims on behalf of one or more Beneficial Holders shall obtain votes and other elections from those Beneficial Holders consistent with customary practices for obtaining the votes of securities held in "street name," in one of the following two ways:

i. Pre-Validated Ballots. The Nominee may "pre-validate" a Beneficial Holder Ballot by (a) signing the Beneficial Holder Ballot; (b) indicating on the Beneficial Holder Ballot the amount and the account number of the Claims held by the Nominee for the particular Beneficial Holder; and (c) forwarding the Beneficial Ballot, together with the Disclosure Statement, a postage-paid return envelope pre-addressed to the Solicitation Agent, and other materials requested to be forwarded, to the Beneficial Holder for voting. The Beneficial Holder must then complete the information requested in the Beneficial Ballot and return the Beneficial Ballot directly to the Solicitation Agent in the pre-addressed, postage-paid return envelope so that it is received by the Solicitation Agent on or before the Voting Deadline. A list of the Beneficial Holders to whom "pre-validated" Beneficial Ballots were delivered should be maintained by Nominees for inspection for at least one year from the Voting Deadline.

ii. Master Ballots. The Nominee may obtain the votes of Beneficial Holders by forwarding to each Beneficial Holder an unsigned Beneficial Holder Ballot through mail, VIF, email, or any other reliable and customary method of collecting votes from a Beneficial Holder, together with the Disclosure Statement, a postage-paid return envelope addressed to the Nominee (in the case of a physical mailing), and other materials requested to be forwarded. Each such Beneficial Holder must then indicate its vote and other elections on the Beneficial Holder Ballot, complete the information requested on the Beneficial Holder Ballot, review the certifications contained on the Beneficial Holder Ballot, execute the Beneficial Holder Ballot, and return the Beneficial Holder Ballot to the Nominee. If it is accepted practice for a Nominee to collect votes through a VIF, email, or other method, the Beneficial Holder shall follow the Nominee's instruction for completing and submitting its votes to the Nominee. After collecting the Beneficial Holders' votes, the Nominee should, in turn, complete a Master Ballot compiling the votes and other information from the Beneficial Holders, execute the Master Ballot, and deliver the Master Ballot to the Solicitation Agent so that it is received by the Solicitation Agent at or before the Voting Deadline. All Beneficial Ballots returned by Beneficial Holders should either be forwarded to the Solicitation Agent along with the Master Ballot or retained by the Nominee for inspection for at least one year from the Voting Deadline. Each Nominee should advise its Beneficial Holders to return their Beneficial Ballots to the Nominee by a date and time calculated by the Nominee to allow it to prepare and return the Master Ballot to the Solicitation Agent so that the Master Ballot is received by the Solicitation Agent on or before the Voting Deadline.

E. Opt-Out from Releases

The Plan contains the Third-Party Release provisions. A holder may opt out of the Third-Party Release by checking the box labeled "Opt out of the Third-Party Release" that follows the Third-Party Release provisions on the applicable Ballot. If a creditor opts out of consenting to the Third-Party Release, then it will not be a Released Party, even if it would otherwise be entitled to be a Released Party.

Regardless of whether a holder votes on acceptance or rejection of the Plan, it must return its Ballot at or before the Voting Deadline in compliance with the instructions in order to opt out of the Third-Party Release.

F. Section 1111(b) Election

If a holder of a 1L Notes Claim or 2026 Notes Claim prefers that the class of 1L Notes Claims or 2026 Notes Claims, as applicable, elect application of section 1111(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, that holder may indicate its preference by checking the box labeled "Elect application of section 1111(b)(2)" that follows Item 4: Section 1111(b) Election on the applicable Ballot. Except as otherwise provided in section 1111(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, an 1111(b) Election can be made as to a Class if at least two-thirds in amount and more than half in number of Allowed Claims within such Class elect application of section 1111(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code.

A holder must return its Ballot at or before the Voting Deadline in compliance with the instructions in order to elect application of section 1111(b)(2).

G. Withdrawal or Change of Votes

If multiple Ballots are received from the same holder with respect to the same Claim prior to the Voting Deadline, the last properly executed, timely submitted electronic Ballot will be deemed to reflect that voter's intent and will supersede and revoke any prior Ballot. If no such electronic Ballot submission is made, the last properly executed, timely submitted paper Ballot will be deemed to reflect that voter's intent and will supersede and revoke any prior paper Ballot submission. Following the Voting Deadline, a holder may not change its vote in a previously cast Ballot from acceptance to rejection, without first obtaining authority from the Court pursuant to the requirements of and in compliance with Bankruptcy Rule 3018(a).

H. Waivers of Defects and Irregularities

Unless otherwise directed by the Court, all questions as to the validity, form, eligibility (including time of receipt), acceptance, and revocation or withdrawal of Ballots will be determined by the Debtors in their sole discretion, which determination will be final and binding. Effective withdrawals of Ballots must be delivered to the Solicitation Agent prior to the Voting Deadline. The Debtors reserve the absolute right to contest the validity of any purported withdrawal. The Debtors also reserve the right to reject any and all Ballots not in proper form or the acceptance of which would, in the opinion of the Debtors or their counsel, be unlawful. The Debtors further reserve the right to waive any defects or irregularities or conditions of delivery as to any particular Ballot or to waive the Voting Deadline as to any particular Ballot, in each case with notice to the Committee and notice to and consent of the First Lien Noteholder Group (consent of the First Lien Noteholder Group not to be unreasonably withheld) and subject to contrary order of the Court. The Debtors' interpretation of the Ballot and its instructions will be final and binding on all parties, unless otherwise ordered by the Court. Unless waived, any defects or irregularities in connection with deliveries of Ballots must be cured within such time as the Debtors (or the Court) determine. Neither the Debtors nor any other person will be under any duty to provide notification of defects or irregularities with respect to deliveries of Ballots, nor will any of them incur any liabilities for failure to provide such notification. Unless otherwise directed by the Court, delivery of such Ballots will not be deemed to have been made until such irregularities have been cured or waived.

Ballots previously furnished (and as to which any irregularities have not theretofore been cured or waived) will be invalidated.

The Debtors will note in the Voting Report all defects or irregularities or conditions of delivery that were waived as to any particular Ballot, all Ballots as to which the Voting Deadline was waived, all Ballots that were rejected (along with the reason for rejection), and all opt outs to the Releases.

I. Agreements Upon Furnishing Ballots

The delivery of a Ballot that votes to accept the Plan will constitute the agreement of the corresponding creditor with respect to such Ballot to accept: (a) all of the terms of, and conditions to, the Solicitation; and (b) the terms of the Plan including the injunction, releases, and exculpations set forth in the Plan.

V. Amendments to the Plan and Solicitation and Voting Procedures

The Debtors may make non-substantive or immaterial changes to the Amended Disclosure Statement, Disclosure Statement Hearing Notice, Plan, Amended Confirmation Hearing Notice, Solicitation Packages, Ballots, Solicitation and Voting Procedures, Tabulation Procedures, and related documents without further order of the Court, including changes to correct typographical and grammatical errors, if any, and to make conforming changes to the Amended Disclosure Statement, the Plan, and any other materials in the Solicitation Packages before distribution. The Debtors shall include information regarding remote attendance at the Confirmation Hearing.

WHAT IS HAPPENING? WHAT AM I BEING ASKED TO DO?

The Debtors are soliciting the votes of your Beneficial Holders on the plan of reorganization for Wesco Aircraft Holdings, Inc., and its affiliated debtors described in the Amended Disclosure Statement that you have received. The Modified Second Amended Plan is attached to the Amended Disclosure Statement as Exhibit A.

WHO SHOULD RECEIVE A BENEFICIAL HOLDER BALLOT?

You should distribute Beneficial Holder Ballots to each Beneficial Holder of notes identified on Schedule 1 to this Master Ballot as of the Voting Record Date for which you are a Nominee or a proxy holder for a Nominee.

How should I deliver Solicitation Packages to Beneficial Holders and collect votes from them?

You may distribute the Solicitation Packages to Beneficial Holders in accordance with your customary practices. You may also collect votes to accept or to reject the Modified Second Amended Plan from Beneficial Holders in accordance with your customary practices, including the use of a "voting instruction form" in lieu of (or in addition to) a Beneficial Holder Ballot, or through online voting, by phone, or by other electronic means. If you do not have a sufficient number of Solicitation Packages or Beneficial Holder Ballots, you should request additional copies from the Solicitation Agent.

If you are transmitting the votes of any Beneficial Holder other than yourself, you may select either of the following options:

- Within 5 Business Days after you receive the Solicitation Package, "Pre-validate" the individual Beneficial Holder Ballots contained in the Solicitation Package and then forward the Solicitation Packages to your Beneficial Holders with the instruction that the Beneficial Holders must return their Beneficial Holder Ballots directly to the Solicitation Agent in the return envelope to be provided in the Solicitation Package. You may "pre-validate" a Beneficial Holder Ballot by (i) signing the Beneficial Holder Ballot and including your DTC participant number; (ii) indicating the account number of the Beneficial Holder and the Class and principal amount of Claims held by you for such Beneficial Holder; and (iii) forwarding the pre-validated Beneficial Holder Ballot together with the rest of the Solicitation Package to the Beneficial Holder. The Beneficial Holder should then complete the remaining information requested on the Beneficial Holder Ballot and return the Beneficial Holder Ballot directly to the Solicitation Agent. You should maintain a list of the Beneficial Holders to whom you send "pre-validated" Beneficial Holder Ballots for inspection for at least one year from the Effective Date.

- Within 5 Business Days after you receive the Solicitation Package, forward the Solicitation Packages to your Beneficial Holders along with a return envelope provided by and addressed to you. Each Beneficial Holder will then return its Beneficial Holder Ballot to you, and you will tabulate the votes of your Beneficial Holders, their opt-out elections on a Master Ballot, their section 1111(b) elections (if applicable) and return the Master Ballot to the Solicitation Agent. You should advise the Beneficial Holders to return their Beneficial Holder Ballots (or otherwise transmit their votes) to you by a date calculated to allow you to prepare and return the Master Ballot to the Solicitation Agent so that the Master Ballot is actually received by the Solicitation Agent on or before the Voting Deadline.

How do I tabulate the votes and elections of Beneficial Holders?

You must (a) compile and validate the votes and other relevant information on each Beneficial Holder Ballot returned to you on a Master Ballot using the customer name or account number assigned by you to each applicable Beneficial Holder; (b) execute the Master Ballot; (c) transmit such Master Ballot to the Solicitation Agent by the Voting Deadline; and (d) retain all Beneficial Holder Ballots you received from your Beneficial Holders, whether in hard copy or by electronic means, in your files for a period of one year after the Effective Date. You may be ordered to produce these Beneficial Holder Ballots (or evidence of the vote otherwise transmitted to you) to the Debtors or the Court.

In completing the Master Ballot, you should indicate that you are signing the Master Ballot in your capacity as a Nominee and, if required or requested by the Solicitation Agent, the Debtors, or the Court, you must submit proper evidence of your authority to act on behalf of your Beneficial Holders.

If you are both the Nominee and the Beneficial Holder of any of the Claims voted through the Master Ballot and you wish to vote your Claims, you may return a Beneficial Holder Ballot or Master Ballot for your Claims. In that case, you must vote your entire Claim in a particular Class to either to accept or reject the Modified Second Amended Plan and may not split your vote.

HOW WILL THE VOTES TRANSMITTED BY MY MASTER BALLOT BE COUNTED?

The votes transmitted through your Master Ballot will be counted only if it is actually received by the Solicitation Agent on or before the Voting Deadline.

If you submit multiple Master Ballots with respect to the same Claims, only the votes transmitted through the last Master Ballot that is received on time and completed properly will be counted; it will supersede and revoke all earlier Master Ballots with respect to the same Claims. However, if you submit valid and timely Master Ballots for the same Claims both in paper form and electronically, only the submission through email will be counted, even if the paper Master Ballot is received later.

Additionally, the following Master Ballots will not be counted:

- any Master Ballot that is delivered to anyone other than the Solicitation Agent (including the Debtors, the Debtors' legal or financial advisors, the Court, or any agent of the Debtors other than the Solicitation Agent);
- any Master Ballot that is illegible;
- any Master Ballot that contains insufficient information to permit the Solicitation Agent to identify the principal amounts voted within each Class;
- any unsigned Master Ballot;
- any Master Ballot that does not contain an original signature (except that signed Master Ballots submitted by email will be deemed to contain an original signature); and
- any Master Ballot submit by a person that is not a Nominee or a proxy holder for a Nominee.

How will the Solicitation Agent tabulate the votes of my Beneficial Holders?

The following rules apply:

- Votes cast by Beneficial Holders through a Nominee will be applied against the positions held by the Nominee as of the Voting Record Date, as evidenced by the record and depository listings.
- Votes submitted by a Master Ballot or pre-validated Beneficial Holder Ballots will not be counted in excess of the record amount of the Claims held by the applicable Nominee.
- To the extent that conflicting votes or "over-votes" are submitted by a Nominee, whether pursuant to a Master Ballot or pre-validated Beneficial Holder Ballots, the Solicitation Agent will attempt to reconcile discrepancies with the Nominee.
- To the extent that over-votes on a Master Ballot or pre-validated Beneficial Holder Ballots are not reconcilable prior to the preparation of the vote certification, the Solicitation Agent will apply the votes to accept and reject the Modified Second Amended Plan in the same proportion as the votes to accept and reject the Modified Second Amended Plan submitted on the Master Ballot or pre-validated Beneficial Holder Ballots that contained the over-vote, but only to the extent of the Nominee's position in the applicable Claims.
- For purposes of tabulating votes, each holder holding through a particular account will be deemed to have voted the principal amount relating to its holding in that particular account, although the Solicitation Agent may be asked to adjust the principal amount to reflect the claim amount.

I have further questions about my Master Ballot.

If you have any questions about your Master Ballot or the procedures for voting, please call the Solicitation Agent's hotline at (877) 499-4509 (toll-free in the U.S. and Canada) or +1 (917) 281-4800 (international), visit the Debtors' restructuring website at https://veritaglobal.net/incora/, or email the Solicitation Agent at IncoraBallots@veritaglobal.com.

WHAT IS HAPPENING? WHAT AM I BEING ASKED TO VOTE ON?

The Debtors are soliciting your vote on their proposed plan of reorganization, as described further in the Amended Disclosure Statement that you have received in your Re-Solicitation Package.

The Modified Second Amended Plan is attached to the Amended Disclosure Statement as Exhibit A. Before voting, please carefully read the Modified Second Amended Plan and the Amended Disclosure Statement. Please note that Article VIII of the Modified Second Amended Plan includes releases, exculpations, and injunctions. These provisions affect your rights, including your rights against persons other than the Debtors.

WHAT IS THE THIRD-PARTY RELEASE?

The provisions of the Modified Second Amended Plan setting forth the Third-Party Release are quoted in full on this Beneficial Holder Ballot. If you do not check the opt-out box in Item 3 of your Beneficial Holder Ballot, you will be deemed to have consented to the Third-Party Release and will be deemed to have unconditionally, irrevocably, and permanently released and discharged the Released Parties (as defined in the Modified Second Amended Plan) from, among other things, any and all claims that relate to the Debtors.

AM I REQUIRED TO ACCEPT THE THIRD-PARTY RELEASE? HOW CAN I OPT OUT?

You are not required to accept the Third-Party Release. You may opt out of the Third-Party Release by checking the opt-out box in Item 3 of your Ballot. The treatment of your Claim under the Modified Second Amended Plan will not be affected in any way if you opt out of the Third-Party Release.

WHAT IS THE SECTION 1111(B) ELECTION?

Except as otherwise provided in section 1111(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, an 1111(b) Election can be made as to a Class if at least two-thirds in amount and more than half in number of Allowed Claims within such Class elect application of section 1111(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code.

When is my Beneficial Holder Ballot due?

Your vote must be actually received by the Solicitation Agent at or before the Voting Deadline. The Voting Deadline is September 27, 2024, at 5:00 p.m. (CT), unless it is extended. You are not required to vote but you will be bound by the Modified Second Amended Plan if it is confirmed, regardless of whether or not you cast a Beneficial Holder Ballot.

How do I submit my Beneficial Holder Ballot?

Follow your Nominee's instructions carefully as your vote will be counted only if it is actually received by the Solicitation Agent at or before the Voting Deadline.

Your Nominee may have instructed you to return your Beneficial Holder Ballot to your Nominee. If so, you must follow your Nominee's instructions to ensure that your Nominee can transmit the information on your Beneficial Holder Ballot to the Solicitation Agent at or before the Voting Deadline.

At the request of the Debtors, your Nominee will be required to provide a copy of your Beneficial Holder Ballot.

Alternatively, your Nominee may have directed you to send a "pre-validated" Beneficial Holder Ballot directly to the Solicitation Agent. If so, you must deliver your pre-validated Beneficial Holder Ballot to the Solicitation Agent at or before the Voting Deadline.

If you have received a "pre-validated" Beneficial Holder Ballot from your Nominee, you must complete, sign, and date such Ballot and return it (with your original signature) either (i) via first-class mail, overnight courier, or hand delivery to the Solicitation Agent at Incora Ballot Processing, c/o Verita, 222 N. Pacific Coast Hwy., Suite 300, El Segundo, CA 90245 or (ii) via electronic mail to the Solicitation Agent at IncoraBallots@veritaglobal.com. To coordinate hand delivery, email the Solicitation Agent at IncoraBallots@veritaglobal.com to provide the anticipated date and time of delivery. Be sure to sign and date your Beneficial Holder Ballot.

Will my Beneficial Holder Ballot count?

The following Beneficial Holder Ballots will not be counted:

- any Beneficial Holder Ballot that purports to partially accept or partially reject the Modified Second Amended Plan;
- any Beneficial Holder Ballot that purports to both accept and reject the Modified Second Amended Plan, or that neither accepts nor rejects the Modified Second Amended Plan;
- any Beneficial Holder Ballot that is delivered to anyone other than your Nominee (other than a pre-validated Beneficial Holder Ballot that is delivered directly to the Solicitation Agent);
- any Beneficial Holder Ballot that is illegible;

- any Beneficial Holder Ballot that contains insufficient information to permit the Solicitation Agent or the applicable Nominee to identify the Holder of the voted Claim;
- any Beneficial Holder Ballot cast by a person or entity that does not hold a Claim in the Class indicated on the front of the Beneficial Holder Ballot;
- any Beneficial Holder Ballot cast by a person that is not entitled to vote pursuant to the Modified Second Amended Plan;
- any unsigned Beneficial Holder Ballot; and
- any non-original Beneficial Holder Ballot (excluding electronic ballots submitted in compliance with a Nominee's instructions).

MAY I SPLIT MY VOTE?

You must vote all of your Claims within a single Class either to accept or reject the Modified Second Amended Plan and may not split your vote. Further, if you have multiple Claims within a Class, the Debtors may, in their discretion, aggregate your Claims within that Class for the purpose of counting votes.

If you have Claims in different Classes, you will receive a separate Ballot for each such Class. In that case, each Ballot will apply only to your Claims in the Class indicated on that Ballot, so you must complete and return each Ballot that you receive and may cast different votes with respect to Claims in different Classes. If you are a beneficial holder of a Notes Claim that holds a claim as a record holder in its own name, you will receive a separate Record Holder Ballot with respect to such claims and should follow the instructions set forth therein.

WHAT ARE MY CLAIMS AGAINST THE DEBTORS?

You have received a Beneficial Holder Ballot because your Nominee has determined that you are a beneficial holder of a Claim against the Debtors of the type shown on the front of this Beneficial Holder Ballot. However, your Beneficial Holder Ballot does not constitute a proof of claim or an assertion or admission that you hold a Claim against any Debtor.

I HAVE FURTHER QUESTIONS ABOUT MY BENEFICIAL HOLDER BALLOT.

If you have any questions about your Beneficial Holder Ballot or the procedures for voting, please call the Solicitation Agent's hotline at (888) 251-2937 (toll-free in the U.S. and Canada) or +1 (310) 751-2613 (international), or visit the Debtors' restructuring website at: https://veritaglobal.net/incora/.

You must submit a Registered Holder Ballot reflecting your vote in time for the Solicitation Agent to receive it at or before the Voting Deadline. If your vote is not received by the Voting Deadline, and if the Voting Deadline is not extended, your vote will not count. All section 1111(b) elections must also be received by the Solicitation Agent at or before the Voting Deadline; otherwise, such elections will not count.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING BALLOT

If the Solicitation Agent does not actually receive your Ballot on or before September 27, 2024, at 5:00 p.m. (CT), your vote will be counted only at the discretion of the Debtors unless the Voting Deadline is extended.

WHAT IS HAPPENING? WHAT AM I BEING ASKED TO VOTE ON?

The Debtors are soliciting your vote on their proposed plan of reorganization, as described further in the Amended Disclosure Statement that you have received in your Re-Solicitation Package.

The Modified Second Amended Plan is attached to the Amended Disclosure Statement as Exhibit A. Before voting, please carefully read the Modified Second Amended Plan and the Amended Disclosure Statement. Please note that Article VIII of the Modified Second Amended Plan includes releases, exculpations, and injunctions. These provisions affect your rights, including your rights against persons other than the Debtors.

WHAT IS THE THIRD-PARTY RELEASE?

The provisions of the Modified Second Amended Plan setting forth the Third-Party Release are quoted in full on this Record Holder Ballot. If you do not check the opt-out box in Item 2 of your Record Holder Ballot, you will be deemed to have consented to the Third-Party Release and will be deemed to have unconditionally, irrevocably, and permanently released and discharged the Released Parties (as defined in the Modified Second Amended Plan) from, among other things, any and all claims that relate to the Debtors.

AM I REQUIRED TO ACCEPT THE THIRD-PARTY RELEASE? HOW CAN I OPT OUT?

You are not required to accept the Third-Party Release. You may opt out of the Third-Party Release by checking the opt-out box in Item 2 of your Ballot. The treatment of your Claim under the Modified Second Amended Plan will not be affected in any way if you opt out of the Third-Party Release. If you vote to accept the Modified Second Amended Plan, you will be deemed to have consented to the Third-Party Releases.

WHAT IS THE SECTION 1111(B) ELECTION?

Except as otherwise provided in section 1111(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, an 1111(b) Election can be made as to a Class if at least two-thirds in amount and more than half in number of Allowed Claims within such Class elect application of section 1111(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code.

WHEN IS MY BALLOT DUE?

Your vote must be actually received by the Solicitation Agent at or before the Voting Deadline. The Voting Deadline is September 27, 2024, at 5:00 p.m. (CT), unless it is extended.

You are not required to vote but you will be bound by the Modified Second Amended Plan if it is confirmed, regardless of whether or not you cast a Record Holder Ballot.

HOW DO I SUBMIT MY BALLOT?

You may submit your Ballot in paper form or electronically to the Solicitation Agent via electronic mail at IncoraBallots@veritaglobal.com, as further described below. You may choose either method at your own risk and should allow sufficient time for timely delivery by the Voting Deadline. Ballots will not be accepted by fax or other means.

To submit your Ballot in paper form, you must complete, sign, and date the Ballot and return it (with the original signature) via first-class mail, overnight courier, or hand delivery to the Solicitation Agent at: Incora Ballot Processing, c/o Verita Global, 222 N. Pacific Coast Hwy., Suite 300, El Segundo, CA 90245. To coordinate hand delivery, email the Solicitation Agent at http://www.veritaglobal.net/incora/inquiry to provide the anticipated date and time of delivery. Be sure to sign and date your Ballot.

To submit your Ballot electronically, please email your ballot to IncoraBallots@veritaglobal.com.

WHY AM I ENTITLED TO CAST A BALLOT?

You have received your Ballot because the Solicitation Agent has information that you may be a holder of Notes Claims (as defined in the Amended Disclosure Statement) that holds Claims as a record holder in its own name.

WILL MY BALLOT COUNT?

Your Ballot will be counted only if it is actually received by the Solicitation Agent on or before the Voting Deadline. If you submit multiple Ballots with respect to the same Claim, only the last Ballot that is received on time and completed properly will be counted; it will supersede and revoke all earlier Ballots with respect to the same Claim. However, if you submit valid and timely Ballots for the same Claim both in paper form and electronically, only the Ballot submitted through the electronically will be counted, even if the paper Ballot is received later.

Additionally, the following Ballots will not be counted:

- any Ballot that purports to partially accept or partially reject the Plan;
- any Ballot that purports to both accept and reject the Plan, or that neither accepts nor rejects the Plan;
- any Ballot that is delivered to anyone other than the Solicitation Agent (including the Debtors, the Debtors' legal or financial advisors, the Court, or any agent of the Debtors other than the Solicitation Agent);
- any Ballot that is illegible;

- any Ballot that contains insufficient information to permit the Solicitation Agent to identify the holder of the voted Claim;
- any Ballot cast by a person or entity that does not hold a Claim in the Class indicated on the front of the Ballot;
- any Ballot cast by a holder that is not entitled to vote;
- any unsigned Ballot;
- any non-original Ballot (excluding electronic ballots submitted through the E-Ballot Portal).

MAY I SPLIT MY VOTE?

You must vote all of your Claims within a single Class either to accept or reject the Plan and may not split your vote. Further, if you have multiple Claims within a Class, the Debtors may, in their discretion, aggregate your Claims within that Class for the purpose of counting votes.

If you have Claims in different Classes, you will receive a separate Ballot for each such Class. In that case, each Ballot will apply only to your Claims in the Class indicated on that Ballot, so you must complete and return each Ballot that you receive and may cast different votes with respect to Claims in different Classes.

WHAT ARE MY CLAIMS AGAINST THE DEBTORS?

You have received a Ballot because the Solicitation Agent has information suggesting that you may hold a Claim against a Debtor of the type shown on the front of the Ballot. However, your Ballot does not constitute a proof of claim or an assertion or admission that you hold a Claim against any Debtor.

I HAVE FURTHER QUESTIONS ABOUT MY BALLOT.

If you have any questions about your Ballot or the procedures for voting, please call the Solicitation Agent's hotline at (877) 499-4509 (toll-free in the U.S. and Canada) or +1 (917) 281-4800 (international), or visit the Debtors' restructuring website at: https://www.veritaglobal.net/incora.

The Solicitation Agent cannot answer legal questions regarding the Plan. For legal assistance (including regarding the Plan or the Third-Party Release), please consult your own legal counsel.

2. create, renew, perfect, or enforce any lien or encumbrance of any kind against a Covered Entity or any of the property or interests in property of a Covered Entity on account of or in connection with or with respect to any Covered Matter; or

3. assert any right of setoff, subrogation, or recoupment of any kind against any obligation due from a Covered Entity or from any of the property or interests in property of a Covered Entity on account of or in connection with or with respect to any Covered Matter, unless the Person or Entity holding such setoff, subrogation or recoupment right has asserted such a right and has expressly stated its intent to preserve its right in a document filed with the Bankruptcy Court and served on the Debtors and the applicable Covered Entity no later than the earlier of (x) 28 days after entry of the Confirmation Order and (y) the Effective Date.

With respect to any Covered Entity, no Entity or Person may commence or continue any action, employ any process, or take any other act to pursue, collect, recover or offset any Claim, Interest, debt, obligation, or Cause of Action relating or reasonably likely to relate to any act or omission in connection with, relating to, or arising out of a Covered Released Matter, Covered Matter, or Covered Exculpation Matter (including one that alleges the actual fraud, gross negligence, or willful misconduct of a Covered Entity), unless expressly authorized by the Bankruptcy Court after (1) it determines that, after notice and a hearing, such Claim, Interest, debt, obligation, or Cause of Action is colorable and (2) it specifically authorizes such Entity or Person to bring such Claim or Cause of Action. The Bankruptcy Court shall have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether any such Claim, Interest, debt, obligation, or

Cause of Action is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Error! Notwithstanding the foregoing, this paragraph shall not apply to the Langur Maize Retained Causes of Action.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the injunction does not enjoin any Entity from bringing any Appellate Litigation or any action to enforce the terms of this Plan, the Confirmation Order, any other Definitive Document, or other document, instrument, or agreement executed to implement this Plan, the Confirmation Order or any other Definitive Document. The injunctions set forth in this Error! Reference source not found. shall extend to any successors of the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, the Released Parties, the Exculpated Parties and all of their respective property and interests in property.

("Wesco Holdings") and its affiliated debtors (each a "Debtor" and, collectively, the "Debtors") jointly propose this chapter 11 plan of reorganization, pursuant to section 1121(a) of title 11 of the U.S. Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"). Each Debtor is the proponent of its Plan within the meaning of section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code. Holders of Claims or Interests may refer to the Disclosure Statement for a discussion of the Debtors' history, business, assets, results of operations, historical financial information, and projections of future operations, as well as a summary of the Plan.

Nothing contained in this Plan shall be deemed to modify, amend, alter or otherwise impact the Bankruptcy Court's Adversary Proceeding Decisions. The defined terms herein are solely for convenience and are in no way meant to alter or supersede the Adversary Proceeding Decisions. Further, the defined terms in this Plan are not, and shall not be used as, evidence of the Bankruptcy Court's ruling or intention of the Adversary Proceeding Decisions.

The First Lien Noteholder Group and the 2024/2026 Noteholder Group do not agree with certain definitions, descriptions and/or characterizations in this Plan with respect to the effect of the Adversary Proceeding Decisions and believe that such definitions, descriptions and/or characterizations are inconsistent with the Adversary Proceeding Decisions. The rights of all parties are reserved with respect to such definitions, descriptions and/or characterizations. The fact that a party has not objected to this Plan on the basis of such definitions, descriptions and/or characterizations shall not be deemed to be an admission or concession by such party that such definitions, descriptions and/or characterizations are accurate or true.

D. Governing Law

Unless federal law (including the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules) is applicable, and unless specifically stated otherwise, the laws of the State of New York, without giving effect to the principles of conflict of laws that would require application of the law of another jurisdiction, shall govern the rights, obligations, construction, and implementation of the Plan and any agreements, documents, instruments, or contracts executed or entered into in connection with the Plan (except as otherwise set forth in those agreements, in which case the governing law of such agreement shall control); provided, however, that corporate or entity governance matters relating to the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors shall be governed by the laws of the state or country of incorporation or organization of the relevant Debtor or Reorganized Debtor, as applicable.

For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in the foregoing shall limit or modify any consent rights of the Required 1L Noteholders and the Required 2026 Noteholders expressly set forth in this Plan.

ARTICLE II.
Administrative Expenses and Other Unclassified Claims

In accordance with section 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, DIP Financing Claims, other Administrative Expenses and Priority Tax Claims have not been classified and, thus, are excluded from the Classes of Claims and Interests set forth in Article III.

A. General Administrative Expenses

Each holder of an Allowed General Administrative Expense, to the extent its Allowed General Administrative Expense has not already been paid during the Chapter 11 Cases, shall receive, in full and final satisfaction of its General Administrative Expense, Cash equal to the Allowed amount of such General Administrative Expense in accordance with the following: (1) if such General Administrative Expense is Allowed as of the Effective Date, on or as soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Date (or, if not then due, when such Allowed General Administrative Expense is due or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter); (2) if such General Administrative Expense is not Allowed as of the Effective Date, no later than the first Business Day after the date that is thirty (30) calendar days after the date on which an order Allowing such General Administrative Expense becomes a Final Order, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter; (3) if such Allowed General Administrative Expense is based on liabilities incurred by the Debtors in the ordinary course of their business after the Petition Date, in accordance with the terms and conditions of the particular transaction giving rise to such Allowed General Administrative Expense without any further action by the holders of such Allowed General Administrative Expense; or (4) at such time and upon such terms as may be agreed upon by such holder and the Debtors (with the consent of the Required 1L Noteholders) or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable.

Except as otherwise provided in this Article II.A, requests for payment of Allowed General Administrative Expenses must be filed with the Bankruptcy Court and served on the Reorganized Debtors pursuant to the procedures specified in the Confirmation Order and the notice of entry of the Confirmation Order no later than the General Administrative Expenses Bar Date. Holders of General Administrative Expenses that are required to, but do not, file and serve a request for payment of such General Administrative Expenses by the General Administrative Expenses Bar Date shall be forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from asserting such General Administrative Expenses against the Debtors or their property and such General Administrative Expenses shall be deemed discharged as of the Effective Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no request for payment of a General Administrative Expense need be filed with respect to a General Administrative Expense previously Allowed by Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court.

The Reorganized Debtors may settle General Administrative Expenses in the ordinary course of business without further notice and without further approval or an order of the Bankruptcy Court. The Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, may also choose to object to any General Administrative Expense no later than the General Administrative Expenses Objection Deadline, subject to extensions by the Bankruptcy Court or agreement in writing of the applicable parties. Unless the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors (or other party with standing) objects to a timely filed and properly served General Administrative Expense, such General Administrative Expense will be deemed Allowed in the amount requested. In the event that the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors object to a General Administrative Expense, the Debtors (with the consent of the Required 1L Noteholders) or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, and the holder of such General Administrative Expense may confer to try to reach a settlement and, failing that, the Bankruptcy Court will determine whether such General Administrative Expense should be Allowed and, if so, in what amount.

B. Restructuring Expenses

The Debtors shall be obligated, jointly and severally, to pay all Restructuring Expenses in full in Cash, in accordance with the following procedures. No Restructuring Professional shall be required to comply with the U.S. Trustee fee guidelines or file an application seeking compensation for services or reimbursement of expenses with the Bankruptcy Court.

Any time that a Restructuring Professional seeks payment of Restructuring Expenses from the Debtors prior to Confirmation, such Restructuring Professional shall comply with the review procedures set forth in paragraph 17 of the Final DIP Order.

From and after the Confirmation Date, the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall, without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court or any other Entity, pay in Cash all Restructuring Expenses within ten (10) Business Days (or earlier, as provided below) after submission of an invoice to the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, which may be in the same summary form permitted under the Final DIP Order but without any requirement that any Restructuring Professional comply with such review procedures.

All Restructuring Expenses incurred, or estimated in good faith to be incurred, up to and including the Effective Date shall be paid in full in Cash on the Effective Date (to the extent not previously paid during the course of the Chapter 11 Cases). The Debtors shall inform each of the Restructuring Professionals of the anticipated Effective Date at least five (5) Business Days in advance. All Restructuring Expenses to be paid on the Effective Date shall be estimated prior to and as of the Effective Date and such estimates shall be delivered to the Debtors at least two (2) Business Days before the anticipated Effective Date; provided that such estimates shall not be considered to be admissions or limitations with respect to such Restructuring Expenses.

Subject in all respects to the limitations on fees, expenses and costs set forth in Article XII.A.9, after the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors shall continue to pay, when due, pre- and post-Effective Date Restructuring Expenses solely to the extent related to implementation of the Plan and closing the Chapter 11 Cases, whether incurred before, on or after the Effective Date when due and payable in the ordinary course of business; provided that the Reorganized Debtors shall not be obligated to, and shall not, pay or reimburse the 2024/2026 Appellate Litigation Parties or the First Lien Appellate Litigation Parties for any fees, expenses, costs or any other amounts incurred in connection with the Financing Litigation Proceedings (including any Appellate Litigation) and all related matters and proceedings.

Except as provided in the definition of "Restructuring Expenses", the payment or reimbursement of Restructuring Expenses to Restructuring Professionals described in clauses (h) and (i) of the definition of "Restructuring Expenses" shall be subject to the conditions and limitations set forth in the Restructuring Support Agreement.

For the avoidance of doubt, the 2024/2026 Noteholder Group and the First Lien Noteholder Group (and, in each case, the members and affiliated funds thereof, as well as their respective successors, transferees and assigns) agree that neither party will assert any Administrative Expenses beyond (x) the Restructuring Expenses contemplated to be paid to such party described in clause (a) or (b) of "Restructuring Expenses" and (y) the DIP Financing Claims, as applicable.

C. RETAINED PROFESSIONAL FEES

1. Final Fee Applications

All final requests for payment of Retained Professional Fees incurred prior to the Effective Date must be filed with the Bankruptcy Court and served on the Reorganized Debtors, the U.S. Trustee, counsel to the Committee, and all other parties that have requested notice in these Chapter 11 Cases by no later than 60 calendar days after the Effective Date, unless the Reorganized Debtors agree otherwise in writing. Objections to Retained Professional Fees must be filed with the Bankruptcy Court and served on the Reorganized Debtors and the applicable Retained Professional within 21 calendar days after the filing of the applicable final fee application. After notice and a hearing in accordance with the procedures established by the Bankruptcy Code and any prior orders of the Bankruptcy Court in the Chapter 11 Cases, the Allowed amounts of all Retained Professional Fees shall be determined by the Bankruptcy Court and, once approved by the Bankruptcy Court, shall be paid in full in Cash from the Professional Fee Escrow Account as promptly as practicable; provided, however, that if the funds in the Professional Fee Escrow Account are insufficient to pay the full Allowed amounts of the Retained Professional Fees, the Reorganized Debtors shall promptly pay any remaining Allowed amounts from their Cash on hand. For the avoidance of doubt, upon the Effective Date, paragraph 20 of the Final DIP Order shall not prohibit the Debtors from paying, in accordance with the Plan, any Allowed Retained Professional Fees.

For the avoidance of doubt, the immediately preceding paragraph shall not affect any professional that the Debtors are permitted to pay in the ordinary course of business without specific authority from the Bankruptcy Court (or in accordance with any prior order of the Bankruptcy Court). The Debtors and Reorganized Debtors may continue to make such payments after Confirmation and the Effective Date.

2. Professional Fee Escrow Account

Each Retained Professional shall estimate its unpaid Retained Professional Fees, as of the Effective Date and shall deliver its estimate to the Debtors' counsel no later than three (3) Business Days before the anticipated Effective Date. A Retained Professional's estimate shall not be deemed to limit the Allowed amount of its Retained Professional Fees. If a Retained Professional does not provide an estimate, the Debtors may themselves estimate the unpaid and unbilled fees and expenses of such Retained Professional for purposes of funding the Professional Fee Escrow Account.

On the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors shall fund the Professional Fee Escrow Account in an amount equal to all asserted Claims for Retained Professional Fees incurred but unpaid as of the Effective Date (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any reasonable estimates for unbilled amounts provided prior to the Effective Date). The Professional Fee Escrow Account may be an interest-bearing account. Amounts held in the Professional Fee Escrow Account shall not constitute property of the Reorganized Debtors and shall be held in trust for the benefit of the Retained Professionals until all Retained Professional Fees have been paid in full in Cash. However, if a balance remains in the Professional Fee Escrow Account after all Retained Professionals have been paid their Allowed Retained Professional Fees, any such balance shall be promptly returned to, and shall then constitute property of, the Reorganized Debtors. No liens, claims, interests, or encumbrances shall encumber the Professional Fee Escrow Account or the funds held in the Professional Fee Escrow Account.

3. Fees and Expenses After Confirmation

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, the Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall pay, within ten (10) Business Days after submission of a detailed invoice to the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, and the Consenting 1L

Noteholders, such reasonable claims for compensation or reimbursement incurred by Retained Professionals of the Debtors and the Committee from and after the Confirmation Date and prior to the Effective Date. If the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, or the First Lien Noteholder Group disputes the reasonableness of any such invoice, such disputing party or the affected professional may submit such dispute to the Bankruptcy Court for a determination of the reasonableness of any such invoice, and the disputed portion of such invoice shall not be paid until the dispute is resolved.

Subject to the foregoing, the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, may, in the ordinary course of business and without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court, promptly pay in Cash the reasonable legal, professional, or other fees and expenses related to implementation of the Plan and Consummation incurred by the Retained Professionals of the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, and/or the Committee on and after the Confirmation Date. Following the Confirmation Date, no professional employed or retained by the Debtors shall be required to comply with sections 327 through 331 of the Bankruptcy Code in seeking retention or compensation for services rendered after the Confirmation Date, and the Reorganized Debtors may employ and pay any professional without further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Debtors and all payments made by the Debtors (including in respect of any payments described in this Article II.C.3) prior to the Effective Date shall remain subject to the Final DIP Order in all respects; provided, however, paragraph 20 of the Final DIP Order shall not prohibit the Debtors from paying Allowed Retained Professional Fees incurred by the Committee.

D. STATUTORY FEES

All Statutory Fees due and payable prior to, and that remain unpaid as of, the Effective Date shall be paid by the applicable Debtors on the Effective Date. After the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all Statutory Fees when due and payable. The Debtors shall file all reports due prior to the Effective Date when they become due, in a form reasonably acceptable to the U.S. Trustee. After the Effective Date, the applicable Reorganized Debtors shall file with the Bankruptcy Court quarterly reports when they become due, in a form reasonably acceptable to the U.S. Trustee. Each one of the Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors shall remain obligated to pay its own Statutory Fees to the U.S. Trustee until the earliest of that particular Debtor's case being closed, dismissed or converted to a case under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. Nothing in the Plan shall prohibit the Reorganized Debtors (or the Disbursing Agent on behalf of the Reorganized Debtors) from paying any Statutory Fees that become due and payable.

E. DIP FINANCING CLAIMS

The DIP Financing Claims shall be Allowed in the full amount due and owing under the DIP Documents, including (a) the principal amounts outstanding on the Effective Date, (b) all interest accrued and unpaid thereon through and including the date of payment, and (c) all premiums, fees (including back-end fees and exit fees), expenses, and indemnification obligations under the DIP Documents. For the avoidance of doubt, the DIP Financing Claims shall not be subject to any avoidance, reduction, setoff, recoupment, recharacterization, subordination (equitable or contractual or otherwise), counterclaim, defense, disallowance, impairment, objection or any challenges under applicable law or regulation.

On the Effective Date, except to the extent that the Debtors (with the consent of the Required 1L Noteholders) and the holder of a DIP Financing Claim agree to different treatment of such holder's Claim, each holder of an Allowed DIP Financing Claim shall receive (a) a Pro Rata share of the New DIP Exit Notes and (b) payment in full in Cash of all amounts other than principal and Exit Premium (as defined in the DIP Note Purchase Agreement), including all accrued and unpaid interest on the DIP Notes.

From and after entry of the Confirmation Order, the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall, without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court or any other Entity, pay in Cash all DIP Fees and Expenses (as defined in the Final DIP Order) (to the extent not previously disputed or paid during the Chapter 11 Cases) in accordance with the procedures for payment of Restructuring Expenses described in Article II.B. For the avoidance of doubt, no DIP Fees and Expenses or any other amounts owed or payable under the DIP Documents incurred after the Effective Date in connection with the Financing Litigation Proceedings (including any Appellate Litigation) shall be payable as DIP Financing Claims or otherwise.

F. Priority Tax Claims

Except to the extent that an Allowed Priority Tax Claim has not been previously paid in full or its holder and the Debtor against which it is asserted (with the consent of the Required 1L Noteholders, not to be unreasonably withheld) agree to less favorable treatment for such holder, in full and final satisfaction of each Priority Tax Claim, each holder of an Allowed Priority Tax Claim shall be treated in accordance with the terms set forth in section 1129(a)(9)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code. In the event an Allowed Priority Tax Claim is Allowed as a Secured Claim, it shall be classified and treated as an Allowed Other Secured Claim.

ARTICLE III.
Claims and Interests

A. Classification of Claims and Interests

1. General Terms

All Claims and Interests, except for those described in Article II, are classified as set forth in this Article III. A Claim or Interest is classified in a particular Class only to the extent that the Claim or Interest qualifies within the description of that Class and is classified in other Classes to the extent that any portion of the Claim or Interest qualifies within the description of such other Classes. A Claim or Interest also is classified in a particular Class for the purpose of receiving distributions pursuant to the Plan only to the extent that such Claim is an Allowed Claim or Allowed Interest, as applicable, in that Class. To the extent a specified Class does not include any Allowed Claims or Allowed Interests, as applicable, then such Class shall be eliminated from the Plan for purposes of voting to accept or reject the Plan and shall not be considered in evaluating the Plan's compliance with section 1129(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code. If a controversy arises as to whether any Claims or Interests, or any Classes of Claims or Interests, are Impaired, the Bankruptcy Court shall, after notice and a hearing, determine that controversy on or before the Confirmation Date.

2. Standards for Acceptance of a Plan

The Bankruptcy Code defines "acceptance" of a plan by a Class of (a) Impaired Claims as acceptance by creditors that hold at least two-thirds (⅔) in dollar amount and more than one-half (½) in number of the Allowed Claims in such Class held by creditors that cast ballots for acceptance or rejection of the Plan and (b) Impaired Interests as acceptance by Interest holders that hold at least two-thirds (⅔) in amount of the Allowed Interests in such Class held by holders that cast ballots for acceptance or rejection of the Plan. However, any Class of Claims or Interests that is Unimpaired under the Plan is deemed to have accepted the Plan and is therefore not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan. Likewise, any Class of Claims or Interests that does not entitle the holders of such Claims or Interests to receive or retain any property under the Plan on account of such Claims or Interests is deemed to have rejected the Plan and is therefore not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

If a Class contains Claims or Interests eligible to vote, but no holder of Claims or Interests in that Class delivers a valid and timely vote, the Plan shall be presumed accepted by that Class.

Pursuant to sections 1129(b) and 1129(a)(10) of the Bankruptcy Code, a plan may be confirmed despite its rejection by a Class, so long as (among other things) at least one Impaired Class of Claims accepts the plan, determined without including any acceptance of such plan by an insider. This requirement will be satisfied by acceptance of the Plan by one or more of the Voting Classes of Claims. Certain of the Debtors may not have holders of Claims or Interests in particular Classes. The Debtors intend to seek Confirmation of the Plan pursuant to section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to each rejecting Class.

3. The Classes Under the Plan and Their Voting Rights

Under this Plan, holders of Claims or Interests in Classes 4a, 6a, 7a, 7b and 7c are the Voting Classes that are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

In light of the treatment set forth below in Article III.B, Classes 1, 2, 3, and 11 are Unimpaired and deemed to accept the Plan; they are therefore not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan. Holders of Claims in Classes 4b, 4c, 5, 6b and 8 and holders of Interests in Class 10 are due to receive or retain no property under the Plan on account of their Claims or Interests (as applicable); such holders are therefore not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan. Depending on their treatment, Class 9 either is Unimpaired or is due to receive or retain no property under the Plan; in either case, it is not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan. Holders of Claims or Interests in the remaining Classes (Classes 4a, 6a, 7a, 7b and 7c) are Impaired and are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

Pursuant to section 1122 of the Bankruptcy Code, the classification of Claims and Interests is summarized as follows:

Class	Claims or Interests	Impairment	Voting Rights
1	Priority Non-Tax Claims	Unimpaired	Presumed to accept
2	Other Secured Claims	Unimpaired	Presumed to accept
3	ABL Facility Claims	Unimpaired	Presumed to accept

4b	1L Notes Deficiency Claims	Impaired	Deemed to reject
4c	New Money Claims	Impaired	Deemed to reject

6b	2026 Notes Deficiency Claims	Impaired	Deemed to reject
7a	General Unsecured Claims	Impaired	Previously voted
7b	General Unsecured Convenience Claims	Impaired	Previously voted

9	Intercompany Claims	Impaired/ Unimpaired	Deemed to reject/ presumed to accept
10	Existing Equity Interests	Impaired	Deemed to reject
11	Intercompany Interests	Unimpaired	Presumed to accept

B. TREATMENT OF CLAIMS AND INTERESTS

1. Class 1 – Priority Non-Tax Claims

a. Classification: Class 1 consists of all Priority Non-Tax Claims.

b. Treatment: Except to the extent previously paid during the Chapter 11 Cases or the holder of an Allowed Priority Non-Tax Claim and the Debtors (with the consent of the Required 1L Noteholders, not to be unreasonably withheld) agree to less favorable treatment for such holder, each holder of an Allowed Priority Non-Tax Claim shall (a) receive from the applicable Reorganized Debtor, in full and final satisfaction of its Priority Non-Tax Claim, payment, in Cash, equal to the Allowed amount of such Claim, on the later of the Effective Date and the date when its Priority Non-Tax Claim becomes due and payable in the ordinary course or (b) be otherwise rendered Unimpaired.

c. Voting: Class 1 is Unimpaired under the Plan. Holders of Priority Non-Tax Claims are conclusively presumed to have accepted the Plan pursuant to section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code and, therefore, are not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

2. Class 2 – Other Secured Claims

a. Classification: Class 2 consists of all Other Secured Claims.

ARTICLE IV.
Means for Implementation of the Plan

A. Plan Settlement of Claims and Interests

1. Plan Settlement

Pursuant to section 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 9019, and in consideration for the classification, distributions, releases, and other benefits provided under the Plan, on the Effective Date, except as provided herein, the provisions of the Plan shall constitute an arms' length and good faith compromise and settlement of all Claims and Interests and controversies resolved pursuant to the Plan. Among other things, the Plan provides for a settlement, between the Debtors and various creditors, of (a) Causes of Action alleged in the Standing Motions,

(b) Claims arising from diminution of value from collateral, (c) valuation of collateral supporting Secured Claims, (d) rights to cash payments on account of DIP Financing Claims under section 1129(a)(9)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, (e) the Allowance of all Claims on account of make-whole premiums, call protection, and similar amounts and premiums, and (f) the applicability of turnover of proceeds arising under any intercreditor agreement (collectively the "Plan Settlement"), which provides substantial value to the Debtors' Estates. All distributions made to holders of Allowed Claims and Interests in any Class in accordance with the Plan are intended to be, and shall be, final, except as provided herein and subject to the Appellate Litigation and any Potential Remedies Order.

2. Effect on Subject Standing Motion Claims [6]

[Notwithstanding the foregoing, or anything else to the contrary in this Plan, the settlement and release of the Subject Standing Motion Claims will be expressly subject to the provisions below:

a. If, on appeal of the 2022 Financing Adversary Proceeding rulings in the Appellate Litigation, a reviewing court were to find that the 2024/2026 Noteholder Group did not possess standing to bring a claim in their direct capacity for the remedy and/or declaratory relief adjudicated by the Bankruptcy Court for breach of the 2026 Indenture (as announced on the record on July 10, 2024 and further clarified on August 13, 2024) as part of such 2022 Financing Adversary Proceeding rulings, then, to the extent it is also determined in such appeal that the 2022 Financing Transactions resulted in a breach of the 2024 Unsecured Indenture and/or the 2026 Indenture, the 2024/2026 Appellate Litigation Parties may on remand revive and pursue the 2024/2026 Holders' Standing Motion as to the effects of the 2022 Financing Transactions for the Subject Standing Motion Claims applicable to the Appellate Litigation Parties, and the applicable court shall consider de novo, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019, whether, taking into account the evidentiary record (as may be supplemented on remand) and the reviewing court's rulings, (i) the settlement and release of the Subject Standing Motion Claims should have been approved at confirmation, and (ii) the 2024/2026 Appellate Litigation Parties either have direct standing or should be granted standing to pursue such claims on behalf of the Debtors' estates.

b. In connection with the 2024/2026 Holders' Standing Motion:

   i. the Appellate Litigation Parties (i) will not re-open the evidentiary record, except to the extent ordered by an applicable court as a result of any appeals, in the 2022 Financing Adversary Proceeding, which will be binding on all parties, but (ii) will have the ability to supplement the evidentiary record to the same extent that they would be entitled to at a confirmation hearing absent this consensual Plan. The Appellate Litigation Parties also acknowledge and agree that the 2024/2026 Noteholder Group previously demanded (on or about June 28, 2023) [Dkt. No. 652-8] that the Debtors pursue the Subject Standing Motion Claims and the Debtors declined (on or about June 30, 2023) [Dkt. No. 652-9] such that, in the event this provision is later invoked, no party will make such demand again or claim that any further demand is required;

ii. the Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, will not modify their position with respect to standing (including as set forth in the Debtors' Motion for Summary Judgment [Adv. Pro. Dkt. No. 199]; Debtors' Memorandum of Law in Opposition to Formerly Secured Noteholders' Motion for Partial Judgment on the Pleadings [Adv. Pro. Dkt. No. 270]; Debtors' Reply in Support of Their Motion for Summary Judgment [Adv. Pro. Dkt. No. 318]; Debtors' Memorandum of Law in Opposition to the 2024/2026 Holders' Amended and Supplemental Standing Motion [Dkt. No.1126]; and Counterclaim Defendants' Amended Joint Post-Trial Brief [Adv. Pro. Dkt. No. 1398]); and

iii. all arguments are preserved with respect to the impact of the DIP Orders and the pending Motion and Reservation of Rights of the 2024/2026 Noteholder Group for Reconsideration of the Final DIP Order [Dkt. No. 1890], as existed immediately prior to confirmation of the Plan.

c. In connection with any litigation of the Subject Standing Motion Claims upon approval of the 2024/2026 Holders' Standing Motion in accordance with the above:

i. all parties shall have the right to argue whether the value provided under the Plan on account of the Plan Settlement and release of estate causes of action should be offset against any such Subject Standing Motion Claims;

ii. the plaintiffs and defendants in any proceedings related to such Subject Standing Motion Claims will have available to them all claims, defenses and arguments in response thereto as if asserted immediately prior to confirmation and without regard to the Plan or the consummation thereof, and no such claims, defenses or arguments will be discharged, released, waived or enjoined pursuant to the Plan in connection with such litigation;

iii. all parties will preserve all rights with respect to the appropriate allocation of any proceeds of the Subject Standing Motion Claims in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable law, without regard to the Plan or the consummation thereof, including all rights with respect to whether such proceeds should be allocated to any Claims (whether Secured or not Secured, and notwithstanding any waiver of Claims under this Plan, including pursuant to Article III.B.5.b or Article III.B.9.b); and

iv. to the extent the 2024/2026 Noteholder Group is granted derivative standing to pursue any of the Subject Standing Motion Claims, any remedy in respect of such derivative claims (after taking the above into account) will be limited to (i) the ownership of the New Common Equity and New Convertible Takeback Notes (or, to the extent the New Convertible Takeback Notes have been converted into New Common Equity, such New Common Equity) distributed under the Plan on account of 1L Notes Claims and 2026 Notes Claims and (ii) any proceeds of such New Common Equity and New Convertible Takeback Notes; provided, that, for the avoidance of doubt, "proceeds" as used herein shall be limited to any proceeds payable in respect of such securities in connection with a sale of the Reorganized Debtors; provided, further, that no limitation on remedies herein shall apply to the 2024/2026 Holders' Equitable Lien Claim, the 2024/2026 Holders' Equitable Subordination Claim [[or the 2024/2026 Holders' Intentional Fraudulent Conveyance Claim]] in the event the 2024/2026 Noteholder Group is found to have direct standing [[in the Appellate Litigation]].[7]

d. For the avoidance of doubt, the right to revive the 2024/2026 Holders' Standing Motion and pursue the Subject Standing Motion Claims as described above will be limited to the 2024/2026 Holders' Standing Motion.

e. If the 2024/2026 Holders' Standing Motion is approved in whole or in part, each Standing Motion Claim for which derivative standing is granted or direct standing is found shall be deemed to have been asserted as of the date of the 2024/2026 Holders' Standing Motion, and no party shall assert that any such Standing Motion Claim will have become barred by any time-based defense when asserted, including, without limitation, as a result of the lapsing of any applicable statute of limitations or statute of repose.

f. For the avoidance of doubt, the provisions of this Article IV.A.2 shall be binding on the Appellate Litigation Parties, including for the avoidance of doubt each such party's transferees, successors, and assigns.]

The New Debt Documents shall constitute legal, valid, binding, and authorized joint and several obligations of the applicable Reorganized Debtors, enforceable in accordance with their respective terms, and such obligations shall not be enjoined or subject to discharge, impairment, release, avoidance, recharacterization, or subordination (including equitable subordination) for any purposes whatsoever under applicable law, the Plan, or the Confirmation Order and shall not constitute preferential transfers, fraudulent conveyances, or other voidable transfers under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable non-bankruptcy law. To the extent that any holder of a Secured Claim that has been satisfied or discharged pursuant to the Plan, or any agent for such holder, has filed or recorded any Liens to secure such holder's Secured Claim, then on or as soon as practicable after the Effective Date, such holder (or the agent for such holder) shall, at the Debtors' or Reorganized Debtors' sole cost and expense, take any and all steps reasonably requested by the Debtors, Reorganized Debtors, the New Notes Indenture Trustees, or the New Revolver Facility Agent that are necessary to cancel and/or extinguish such Liens (it being understood that such Liens held by holders of Secured Claims that are satisfied on the Effective Date pursuant to the Plan shall be automatically canceled or extinguished on the Effective Date by virtue of the entry of the Confirmation Order). To the extent any direction under any of the Prepetition Debt Documents is required to effectuate the cancellation or extinguishment of Liens described above, the Confirmation Order shall be deemed to have provided such direction and shall include language effectuating the foregoing.

principal amount of $[75,000,000-100,000,000] (plus upfront fees) in the aggregate in accordance with the New Investment Documents.

Confirmation of the Plan shall be deemed approval of the New Investment and the New Investment Documents, and all transactions contemplated thereby, and all actions to be taken, undertakings to be made, and obligations to be incurred by the Reorganized Debtors in connection therewith, and authorization for the Reorganized Debtors to enter into and execute the New Investment Documents as may be required to effectuate the New Investment. All New Investment [Exit Notes] issued pursuant to the Plan shall be duly authorized, validly issued and non-assessable.

All of the New Investment [Exit Notes] issued and/or distributed pursuant to the Plan shall be exempt from the registration requirements of section 5 of the Securities Act and any "blue sky" laws of any U.S. jurisdiction pursuant to section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act and/or the safe harbor of Regulation D promulgated thereunder.]

C. Effects of the Plan

1. Organizational Existence

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, each Debtor and each of its direct and indirect subsidiaries shall continue to exist after the Effective Date as a separate corporation, limited liability company, limited partnership, or other form, as the case may be, with all the powers of a corporation, limited liability company, limited partnership, or other form, as the case may be, pursuant to the applicable law in the jurisdiction in which each applicable Debtor is incorporated or formed and pursuant to the respective bylaws, limited liability company agreement, operating agreement, limited partnership agreement (or other formation documents) in effect prior to the Effective Date, except to the extent such formation documents are amended, amended and restated, replaced or otherwise modified pursuant to the New Organizational Documents. To the extent such documents are amended, amended and restated, replaced or otherwise modified pursuant to the New Organizational Documents, such documents are deemed to be amended, amended and restated, replaced or otherwise modified pursuant to the Plan and require no further action or approval (other than any requisite filings required under applicable law).

2. Vesting of Assets in the Reorganized Debtors

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, on the Effective Date, pursuant to section 1141(b) and section 1141(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, all property in any Debtor's Estate, including any property acquired by any Debtor pursuant to the Plan, shall vest in the applicable Reorganized Debtor and, if applicable, any Entity or Entities formed pursuant to the Restructuring Transactions to hold the assets of the Debtors, free and clear of all Liens, Claims, charges, or other encumbrances. On and after the Effective Date, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Reorganized Debtors may operate their businesses and may use, acquire, or dispose of property and compromise or settle any Claims, Interests, or Causes of Action without notice and without supervision or approval by the Bankruptcy Court and free of any restrictions of the Bankruptcy Code or Bankruptcy Rules.

Notice of the Plan or of the Confirmation Order shall be conclusively deemed to be adequate notice that Liens, Claims, charges, or other encumbrances are being extinguished. Any Person having a Lien, Claim, charge, or other encumbrance against any of the property vested in accordance with the foregoing paragraph shall be conclusively deemed to have consented to the transfer, assignment, and vesting of such property to or in the Reorganized Debtors free and clear of all Liens, Claims, charges, or other encumbrances by failing to object to confirmation of the Plan, except as otherwise provided in the Plan.

3. Cancellation of Loans, Securities, and Agreements

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, on the Effective Date: (a) the Prepetition Debt Documents, the Existing Equity Documents, and any other credit agreement, collateral agreement, indenture, certificate, equity security, share, note, purchase right, option, warrant, or other instrument or document directly or indirectly evidencing or creating any indebtedness or obligation of, or ownership interest in, the Debtors or giving rise to any Claim or Interest (except such agreements, certificates, notes, or other instruments or documents evidencing any indebtedness or obligation of, or ownership interest in, the Debtors that are Reinstated, amended and restated, entered into or issued pursuant to the Plan) shall be deemed cancelled, released, surrendered, extinguished and discharged and of no force or effect, without any need for further action or approval of the Bankruptcy Court, the Debtors, any holder of any Claim or Interest or any other Person or Entity, and no party (including the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors and any non-Debtor affiliates) shall have any continuing obligations or duties thereunder or in any way related thereto, which shall be deemed satisfied in full, canceled, released, discharged, and of no further force or effect; and (b) the obligations of the Debtors pursuant, relating, or pertaining to any agreements, indentures, certificates of designation, bylaws or certificate or articles of incorporation, or similar documents governing the shares, certificates, notes, purchase rights, options, warrants, or other instruments or documents evidencing or creating any indebtedness or obligation of, or ownership interest in, the Debtors (except such agreements, certificates, notes, or other instruments or documents evidencing any indebtedness or obligation of, or ownership interest in, the Debtors that are specifically Reinstated, amended and restated, entered into or issued pursuant to the Plan) shall be deemed satisfied in full, released, and discharged, without any need for further action or approval of the Bankruptcy Court, the Debtors, any holder of any Claim or Interest or any other Person or Entity. To the extent any direction under the Prepetition Debt Documents is required to effectuate the foregoing, the Confirmation Order shall be deemed to have provided such direction and shall include language providing therefor.

Notwithstanding such cancellation and discharge, the Prepetition Debt Documents shall continue in effect solely to the extent necessary (a) to allow the holders of Claims to receive distributions under the Plan; (b) to allow the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, and the Prepetition Agents to make or receive distributions under and in accordance with the terms of the Plan and to take other actions pursuant to the terms of the Plan on account of Claims; (c) to allow the 2026 Indenture Trustee, the 2024 Unsecured Indenture Trustee, the 2027 Unsecured Indenture Trustee, the PIK Notes Indenture Trustee, the 1L Indenture Trustee, and the 1.25L Indenture Trustee to exercise their rights, claims, causes of action, and interests (including their rights, if any, to compensation and indemnification as against any money or property distributable) under the 2026 Indenture, the 2024 Unsecured Indenture, the 2027 Unsecured Indenture, the PIK Notes Indenture, the 1L Indenture, and the 1.25L Indenture, respectively, against any holder of 2024 Unsecured

Notes Claims, 2026 Notes Claims, 2027 Unsecured Notes Claims, PIK Notes Claims, 1L Notes Claims, and 1.25L Notes Claims, respectively, to the extent consistent with the Plan, including to exercise charging liens; (d) to allow the Prepetition Agents to enforce any obligations owed to them under the Plan and the Prepetition Debt Documents; (e) to preserve all rights, remedies, indemnities, powers, and protections, including rights of enforcement, of the Prepetition Agents, as applicable, against any person other than a Released Party; (f) to allow the Prepetition Agents to appear in the Chapter 11 Cases or in any proceeding in the Bankruptcy Court or any other court relating to such documents in furtherance of the foregoing; (g) with respect to the 2027 Unsecured Indenture and the 2027 Unsecured Notes, to allow for the prosecution and defense of the Langur Maize Retained Causes of Action against and recovery from the Langur Maize Excluded Parties; and (h) with respect to the 1L Notes Indenture, the 1L Notes, the 2026 Notes Indenture, the 2026 Notes, the 2024 Unsecured Indenture, and the 2024 Unsecured Notes, solely to allow for the prosecution and defense of the Appellate Litigation, including the Subject Standing Motion Claims in accordance with Article IV.A.2. and any remedy in connection therewith, provided that any provisions regarding turnover of proceeds arising under any intercreditor agreement that constitute Prepetition Debt Documents shall be cancelled and discharged and of no force or effect; and provided, further, that nothing in this Article IV.C.3 shall affect the discharge of Claims or Interests pursuant to the Plan or the effectiveness of the Debtor Release or the Third-Party Release.

Except for the foregoing, upon Consummation of the Plan, the Prepetition Agents and each of their respective directors, officers, employees, agents, affiliates, controlling persons, and legal and financial advisors shall, without any further action or approval of the Bankruptcy Court or any holders of Claims, each be automatically and fully discharged and shall have no further obligation or liability, and shall otherwise be relieved of all further duties and responsibilities related to the foregoing documents; provided that any provisions of such documents that by their terms survive their termination shall survive in accordance with their terms. As applicable, distributions made under the Plan or on account of the Allowed Claims of holders of 1L Notes Claims, 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims, 2026 Notes Claims, 2027 Unsecured Notes Claims, and ABL Facility Claims shall be made to or at the direction of the Prepetition Agent for the applicable Prepetition Debt Document under which the relevant Allowed Claims arose and pursuant to the terms of such Prepetition Debt Document, and the Debtors and/or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall use commercially reasonable efforts to coordinate with the applicable Prepetition Agent with respect to the surrender and cancellation of the 1L Notes, 1.25L Notes, 2024 Unsecured Notes, 2026 Notes, or 2027 Unsecured Notes.

Upon the full payment or other satisfaction of an Allowed Other Secured Claim, or promptly thereafter, the holder of such Allowed Other Secured Claim shall deliver to the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, any collateral or other property of a Debtor held by such holder, together with any termination statements, instruments of satisfaction, or releases of all security interests with respect to its Allowed Other Secured Claim that may be reasonably required to terminate any related financing statements, mortgages, mechanics' or other statutory Liens, lis pendens, or similar interests or documents and take all other steps reasonably requested by the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, the New Notes Indenture Trustees, or the New Revolver Facility Agent that are necessary to cancel or extinguish Liens securing such holder's Other Secured Claim.

For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in the foregoing shall impair or affect the Appellate Litigation in respect of the relative entitlements of holders of 1L Notes Claims, holders of 2026 Notes Claims and holders of 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims (or any such holder's successors, transferees and assigns) under this Plan or with respect to any Potential Remedies Order.

4. Binding Effect of New Organizational Documents[9]

Each holder of the New Common Equity (whether issued and distributed hereunder or otherwise, and in each case, whether such New Common Equity is held directly or indirectly through the facilities of DTC) shall be deemed to be a party to, and shall be bound to the terms of, the New LLC Agreement and the other applicable New Organizational Documents, in accordance with their terms, from and after the Effective Date, even if not a signatory thereto. Without limitation of the foregoing, except as provided in Article VII.B.4 and the New LLC Agreement, all recipients of New Common Equity under the Plan shall be required to execute and be bound by the New LLC Agreement. Any beneficial holder of New Common Equity that holds such New Common Equity through the facilities of DTC (each, a "DTC Holder") shall be deemed to be a party to (and in privity of contract with the other parties to) the New LLC Agreement as a "beneficial owner" and bound thereby, regardless of execution thereof by such DTC Holder. After the Effective Date, the successors, transferees and assigns of any holder of New Common Equity (and their successive successors, transferees and assigns) shall be required to execute a joinder to the New LLC Agreement and give notice to the Reorganized Debtors; provided that (x) any such successor, transferee or assign shall be deemed bound by the New LLC Agreement, regardless of the execution of a joinder thereto, and (y) the failure of a transferee to so execute a joinder to the New LLC Agreement will not invalidate any transfer occurring through DTC (nor shall the fact that such transfer is not invalidated relieve the transferor from liability for breach for failing to require the transferee to execute a joinder to the New LLC Agreement).

For the avoidance of doubt, with respect to any New Common Equity issued on account of 1L Notes Claims or 2026 Notes Claims, (i) such New Common Equity shall not be held through the facilities of DTC, (ii) execution of the New LLC Agreement shall be a condition to receipt of any such New Common Equity and (iii) such New Common Equity shall be transferable to any Entity that satisfies the requirements set forth in the New Organizational Documents and executes a joinder to the New LLC Agreement; provided that any transfer which fails to satisfy the conditions in the foregoing subclause (iii) is void ab initio.

D. AUTHORIZATION TO IMPLEMENT THE PLAN

1. Restructuring Transactions

In consummating the Plan, the Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors shall be authorized, to the extent consistent with the Plan, to enter into such transactions and take such other actions (in each case, with the consent of the Required 1L Noteholders and the Required 2026 Noteholders) as may be necessary or appropriate to effect a corporate and other organizational restructuring of their businesses, to otherwise simplify the overall corporate and other organizational structure of the Debtors, to reincorporate or reorganize certain of the Debtors under the laws of jurisdictions other than the laws under which such Debtors currently are incorporated or formed, and to alter the tax status of the Debtors (collectively, "Restructuring Transactions"). The Restructuring Transactions may include one or more mergers, consolidations, dispositions, transfers, assignments, contributions, liquidations or dissolutions, as may be determined by the Debtors (in each case, with the consent of the Required 1L Noteholders and the Required 2026 Noteholders) to be necessary or appropriate, including any such transaction necessary or appropriate to result in substantially all of the respective assets, properties, rights, liabilities, duties, and obligations of certain of the Debtors vesting in one or more surviving, resulting, or acquiring entities. Subject to the terms of the Plan, in each case in which the surviving, resulting, or acquiring Entity in any such transaction is a successor to a Debtor, that surviving, resulting, or acquiring Entity shall perform the obligations of the corresponding Debtor or Reorganized Debtor pursuant to the Plan to pay or otherwise satisfy the Allowed Claims against and Interests in that Debtor, except that any contract, instrument or other agreement or document effecting a disposition to the surviving, resulting or acquiring Entity, which may provide that another Entity (including another Reorganized Debtor) will perform such obligations. The Restructuring Transactions may occur prior to (in consultation with the Committee), on, or after the Effective Date.

In effecting the Restructuring Transactions, the Debtors (with the consent of the Required 1L Noteholders and the Required 2026 Noteholders) and the Reorganized Debtors shall be permitted to (a) execute and deliver appropriate agreements or other documents of merger, consolidation, restructuring, disposition, liquidation, or dissolution containing terms that are consistent with the terms of the Plan and that satisfy the requirements of applicable non-bankruptcy law and such other terms to which the applicable Entities may agree; (b) form new Entities, execute and deliver appropriate documents in connection therewith containing terms that are consistent with the terms of the Plan and that satisfy the requirements of applicable non-bankruptcy law, and issue equity in such newly formed Entities; (c) execute and deliver appropriate instruments of transfer, assignment, assumption, or delegation of any asset, property, right, liability, duty, or obligation on terms consistent with the terms of the Plan and having such other terms to which the applicable Entities may agree and effectuate such transfers, assignments, assumptions, or delegations in accordance with such instruments, including to any Entities formed in accordance with the Restructuring Transactions and the Plan; (d) file appropriate certificates or articles of merger, consolidation, or dissolution pursuant to applicable non-bankruptcy law; and (e) take all other actions that the applicable Entities determine to be necessary or appropriate, including making filings or recordings, or vacating previously filed filings or recordings, that may be required by applicable non-bankruptcy law in connection with such transactions. Each agent of the Debtors and other Persons authorized to make filings with respect to the Debtors is directed to cooperate with and to take direction from the Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors as to the foregoing.

To the extent known, any Restructuring Transactions will be summarized in the Description of Restructuring Transactions, and shall be subject to the terms and conditions of the Plan and the consent of the Required 1L Noteholders and the Required 2026 Noteholders.

2. Actions to Effectuate the Plan

All actions contemplated under the Plan (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Plan Supplement) shall be deemed authorized and approved in all respects, including, with respect to the applicable Reorganized Debtors: (a) appointment of the New Boards pursuant to Article IV.E and any other managers, directors, or officers for the Reorganized Debtors identified in the Plan Supplement; (b) the issuance and distribution of the New Common Equity by Reorganized Incora; (c) entry into the New Investment Documents and consummation of the New Investment; (d) entry into the New Organizational Documents; (e) entry into the New Debt Documents; and (f) implementation of the Restructuring Transactions.

All matters provided for in the Plan involving the corporate or other organizational structure of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, and any corporate or other entity action required by the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors in connection with the Plan, shall be deemed to have occurred and shall be in effect, without any requirement of further action by the security holders, managers, or officers of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors.

On and after the Effective Date, the Debtors (with the prior consent of the Required 1L Noteholders), the Reorganized Debtors and their respective officers, directors or managers shall each be authorized and (as applicable) directed to issue, execute, deliver, file, or record the contracts, securities, instruments, releases, and other agreements and documents contemplated under the Plan (or necessary or desirable to effectuate, implement, or further evidence the transactions contemplated under the Plan) in the name, and on behalf, of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, including any and all agreements, documents, securities, and instruments relating to the foregoing. The authorizations and approvals set forth in this Article IV.D.2 shall be effective notwithstanding any approvals, authorization or requirements under applicable non-bankruptcy law, except for those expressly required pursuant to the Plan or the New Organizational Documents.

3. Authorization and Issuance of the New Common Equity

All of the New Common Equity issued or distributed pursuant to the Plan shall be issued and distributed free and clear of all Liens, Claims, and other Interests, but, with the exception of the New Common Equity in the Class 7a Settlement Equity Pool, shall be subject to the Appellate Litigation and any Potential Remedies Order. All of the New Common Equity issued or distributed pursuant to the Plan shall be duly authorized, validly issued, and, as applicable, fully paid and non-assessable. Each distribution and issuance of the New Common Equity under the Plan shall be governed by the terms and conditions set forth in the Plan applicable to such distribution or issuance and by the terms and conditions of the instruments evidencing or relating to such distribution or issuance, which terms and conditions shall bind each Entity receiving such distribution or issuance.

For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in the foregoing shall impair or affect the Appellate Litigation in respect of the relative entitlements of holders of 1L Notes Claims, holders of 2026 Notes Claims and holders of 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims (or any such holder's successors, transferees and assigns) under this Plan or with respect to any Potential Remedies Order.

E. Directors and Officers

1. Resignation of Incumbent Directors

As of the Effective Date, the terms of the current directors and managers of each Debtor shall expire, and each such director and manager will be deemed to have resigned and shall have no continuing obligation in their capacity as such to the Reorganized Debtors after the Effective Date.

2. New Boards of Directors

The selection, qualifications, and independence of the members and/or observers on the Reorganized Incora Board shall be determined as set forth in the New Organizational Documents; provided that the Reorganized Debtors' chief executive officer shall be one of the Directors. The identities of the Directors as of the Effective Date will be disclosed, to the extent known, in the Plan Supplement. As of the Effective Date, the applicable New Subsidiary Boards shall be appointed in accordance with the applicable New Organizational Documents, and the identities of the members thereof will be disclosed, to the extent known, in the Plan Supplement. From the Effective Date, each of the directors or managers, as applicable, of the Reorganized Debtors shall serve pursuant to the terms of the applicable New Organizational Documents and may be replaced or removed in accordance with the New Organizational Documents.

3. Officers

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan Supplement, the officers of the Debtors immediately before the Effective Date shall serve as the initial officers of each of the respective Reorganized Debtors on and after the Effective Date, except that those officers who are employed by or partners of the Sponsor shall be deemed to have resigned and shall bear no further duties to any of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors. From and after the Effective Date, the selection of officers of the Reorganized Debtors shall be as provided by their respective organizational documents.

F. Tax and Regulatory Matters

1. Filing of New Organizational Documents

On or prior to the Effective Date or as soon thereafter as is practicable, the applicable Reorganized Debtors shall, if so required under applicable local law, file their New Organizational Documents with the applicable Secretaries of State or other applicable authorities in their respective jurisdictions of organization in accordance with the laws of the respective jurisdictions. Pursuant to section 1123(a)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code, the New Organizational Documents will prohibit the issuance of non-voting equity securities, but only to the extent required by section 1123(a)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code. After the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors may amend and restate their respective New Organizational Documents and other constituent documents as permitted by the laws of their respective jurisdictions of organization, and their respective New Organizational Documents, without further order of the Bankruptcy Court.

Pursuant to agreements reached with Langur Maize in the context of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Initial Consenting Parties agreed to certain governance terms and minority protections set forth therein. For the avoidance of doubt, negotiation with respect to governance terms remains ongoing as between the First Lien Noteholder Group and the 2024/2026 Noteholder Group, and will be memorialized in the New LLC Agreement and filed in the Plan Supplement once agreed. Both the First Lien Noteholder Group and the 2024/2026 Noteholder Group reserve all rights with respect to such governance terms, and neither the First Lien Noteholder Group nor the 2024/2026 Noteholder Group, nor individual members thereof or their affiliated funds, will be required to consent to or vote to accept the Plan unless and until the terms of the New LLC Agreement are mutually acceptable to the Required 1L Noteholders and the Required 2026 Noteholders.

2. Section 1146 Exemption

In accordance with section 1146 of the Bankruptcy Code, (a) the issuance, distribution, transfer, or exchange of any securities, instruments or documents, including the New Common Equity (including to the extent they are subject to any Potential Remedies Order), New Convertible Takeback Notes (including to the extent they are subject to any Potential Remedies Order), the New Revolver Facility or the New Exit Notes; (b) the creation of any lien, mortgage, deed of trust, or other security interest; (c) the making or assignment of any lease or sublease or the making or delivery of any deed or other instrument of transfer under, pursuant to, in furtherance of, or in connection with the Plan, including any deeds, bills of sale, or assignments executed in connection with any of the transactions contemplated under the Plan or the reinvesting, transfer or sale of any real or personal property of the Debtors pursuant to, in implementation of, or as contemplated in the Plan (whether to one or more of the Reorganized Debtors or otherwise); (d) the grant of collateral under the New Debt Documents; (e) the Restructuring Transactions; and (f) the issuance, renewal, modification, or securing of indebtedness by such means, and the making, delivery, or recording of any deed, bill of sale, assignment or other instrument of transfer under, in furtherance of, contemplated by, arising out of or in any way related to, the Plan, including the Confirmation Order, shall not be subject to any document recording tax, stamp tax, conveyance fee, intangibles or similar tax, mortgage tax, real estate transfer tax, personal property transfer tax, mortgage recording tax, Uniform Commercial Code filing or recording fee, regulatory filing or recording fee, or other similar tax or governmental assessment (except, in each case, to the extent required under applicable foreign law), and upon entry of the Confirmation Order, the appropriate state or local governmental officials or agents shall forego the collection of any such tax or governmental assessment and accept for filing and recordation any of the foregoing instruments or other documents without the payment of any such tax, recordation fee, or governmental assessment. All filing or recording officers (or any other Person with authority over any of the foregoing, other than in respect of any tax imposed under applicable foreign law), wherever located and by whomever appointed, shall comply with the requirements of section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, shall forego the collection of any such tax or governmental assessment, and shall accept for filing and recordation any of the foregoing instruments or other documents without the payment of any such tax or governmental assessment.

G. Preservation of Causes of Action

In accordance with section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, but subject in all respects to Article VIII.D, the Reorganized Debtors shall retain and may enforce all rights to commence and pursue, as appropriate, any and all Retained Causes of Action (and all Privilege Rights with respect thereto), whether arising before or after the Petition Date, in any court or other tribunal including, in an adversary proceeding filed in the Chapter 11 Cases, and including any actions specifically enumerated in the Schedule of Retained Causes of Action; provided, that, notwithstanding anything in the Plan to the contrary, the Reorganized Debtors waive their rights to assert, and release, any Released Preference Action; provided further, that, to the extent that any Subject Standing Motion Claim would otherwise constitute a Released Preference Action, then any such Subject Standing Motion Claim will not be released pursuant to this paragraph in the event the 2024/2026 Appellate Litigation Parties are granted derivative standing to pursue such Subject Standing Motion Claim in accordance with Article IV.A.2.

The Reorganized Debtors may pursue such Retained Causes of Action, as appropriate, in accordance with the best interests of the Reorganized Debtors in their discretion.

No Person or Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan, the Plan Supplement, or the Disclosure Statement to any Retained Cause of Action against them as any indication that the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors will not pursue any and all available Retained Causes of Action against them. Unless any Cause of Action that any Debtor may have or be entitled to assert on behalf of its Estate or itself is expressly waived, relinquished, exculpated, released, compromised, or settled in the Plan or a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, the Reorganized Debtors expressly reserve all such Causes of Action as Retained Causes of Action, for later adjudication, and, therefore no preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of Confirmation or Consummation of the Plan.

The Reorganized Debtors, through their authorized agents or representatives, shall retain and shall have the exclusive right, authority, and discretion to determine and to initiate, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, withdraw, or litigate to judgment any such Retained Causes of Action, and to decline to do any of the foregoing without the consent or approval of any third party or further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

H. Management Incentive Plan

The Reorganized Debtors will implement a post-emergence Management Incentive Plan for management employees of the Reorganized Debtors, which will contain terms and conditions (including with respect to participants, form, allocation, structure, duration and timing and extent of issuance and vesting) as determined by the Reorganized Incora Board after the Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, any New Common Equity issued under the Management Incentive Plan will dilute any then-issued and outstanding New Common Equity.

ARTICLE V.
TREATMENT OF EXECUTORY CONTRACTS AND/OR UNEXPIRED LEASES

A. ASSUMPTION AND REJECTION

Except as otherwise provided in this Plan, each Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease shall be deemed assumed, without the need for any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court, as of the Effective Date, pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, unless such Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease (a) was previously assumed or rejected; (b) previously expired or was terminated pursuant to its own terms; (c) is the subject of a motion to reject, assume, or assume and assign filed on or before the Effective Date; or (d) is designated specifically as an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease on the Schedule of Rejected Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases; provided the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, retain the right to alter, amend, modify or supplement the Schedule of Rejected Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases, including by way of adding or removing a particular Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease from the Schedule of Rejected Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases at any time through and including the Effective Date. Prior to filing the Schedule of Assumed Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases and the Schedule of Rejected Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases, the Debtors shall provide the Committee with reasonable advance notice thereof and the Committee may file an objection to the reasonableness of any proposed assumption or rejection of which the Committee did not have notice as of the date of the Committee Stipulation.

Unless previously approved by the Bankruptcy Court, the Confirmation Order will constitute an order of the Bankruptcy Court approving the above-described rejections, assumptions, and assignments, all pursuant to sections 365(a) and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code and effective upon Consummation of the Plan.

Except as otherwise provided in this Plan or agreed to by the Debtors and the applicable counterparty, each Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease assumed pursuant to this Article V.A or by any order of the Bankruptcy Court, which has not been assigned to a third party prior to the Confirmation Date, shall be assigned to or shall revest in, and shall be fully enforceable by, the applicable Reorganized Debtor in accordance with its terms (including any amendments to any Executory Contracts and/or Unexpired Leases that were entered into after the Petition Date), except as such terms are modified by the provisions of the Plan or any order of the Bankruptcy Court authorizing and providing for its assumption under applicable federal law. To the maximum extent permitted by law, to the extent that any provision in any Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease assumed or assumed and assigned pursuant to the Plan restricts or prevents, or purports to restrict or prevent, or is breached or deemed breached by, the assumption or assumption and assignment of such Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease (including any "change of control" provision), then such provision shall be deemed modified or stricken such that the transactions contemplated by the Plan shall not entitle the non-Debtor that is party thereto to terminate such Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease or to exercise any other default-related rights with respect thereto.

Nothing contained in the Plan shall constitute an admission by the Debtors that any Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease is, in fact, an Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease or that the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors have any liability thereunder.

B. Assumed Contracts and Leases

1. Cure of Defaults and Objections to Cure and Assumption

The Allowed Cure Claim for each Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease shall be $0.00, unless (a) the Debtors (with the consent of the Required 1L Noteholders) affirmatively propose to Allow a Cure Claim for an Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease in a different amount by listing it on the Schedule of Assumed Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases, (b) a Final Order is entered Allowing a Cure Claim in a different amount, or (c) the Debtors (with the consent of the Required 1L Noteholders) or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, otherwise agree with the applicable party or parties to an Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease to Allow a Cure Claim in a different amount. The Debtors (with the consent of the Required 1L Noteholders) and the Reorganized Debtors may settle any Cure Claim without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court. Unless otherwise agreed upon in writing by the parties to the applicable Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease (with the consent of the Required 1L Noteholders), all objections to the assumption of any Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease pursuant to the Plan, including to any Cure Claim set forth in the Schedule of Assumed Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases, must be filed with the Bankruptcy Court on or before the Contract Objection Deadline or such other deadline that may be set by the Bankruptcy Court; provided that (1) if the Debtors reduce any previously proposed Cure Claim or decide to assume any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that was previously proposed to be rejected pursuant to a new or amended Schedule of Assumed Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases and/or Schedule of Rejected Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases filed on or after the date that is 14 calendar days prior to the Contract Objection Deadline, the counterparty to such affected Executory Contracts shall have 14 calendar days after receipt of notice of such schedules to file an objection to any such reduced Cure Claim or the assumption of any such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that was previously proposed to be rejected (including the proposed Cure Claim with respect thereto) and (2) an objection seeking a Cure Claim for a default under an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that arises after the date of the otherwise applicable Cure Claim objection deadline (other than in respect of any asserted default arising as a result of Consummation of the Plan) may be filed at any time within 90 calendar days after the Effective Date. Any such request that is not timely filed shall be Disallowed and forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from assertion, and shall not be enforceable against any Debtor or Reorganized Debtor, without the need for any objection by the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors or any other party in interest or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

Except as set forth below, the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors shall satisfy all Allowed Cure Claims in respect of assumed Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases by payment in Cash, on the Effective Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, of the Allowed amount. Each Cure Claim shall be deemed fully satisfied, released, and discharged upon such payment; provided, however, that nothing herein shall prevent the Reorganized Debtors from paying any Cure Claim despite the failure of the relevant counterparty to file such request for payment of such Cure Claim. The consummation of the Plan on the Effective Date shall be conclusively deemed to provide "adequate assurance of future performance" as to all Executory Contracts and/or Unexpired Leases that are assumed.

Assumption of any Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease pursuant to the Plan shall result in the full release and satisfaction of any Claims or defaults, whether monetary or non-monetary, including defaults of provisions restricting the change in control or ownership interest composition or other bankruptcy-related defaults, arising under any such Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease at any time before the date that it is assumed (other than Claims for amounts under such assumed Executory Contracts and/or Unexpired Leases that are accrued but not yet due as of the date of assumption). Subject to the resolution of any timely objections in accordance with Article V.B.2, any Proofs of Claim filed with respect to an Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease that has been assumed or assumed and assigned shall be deemed Disallowed and expunged, without further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

2. Dispute Resolution

If a counterparty to an Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease files a timely objection regarding the amount of any Cure Claim or any other matter pertaining to assumption or the cure of defaults required by section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code (each, an "Assumption Dispute"), the Assumption Dispute shall be resolved by the Bankruptcy Court or otherwise as may be agreed upon by the Debtors (with the consent of the Required 1L Noteholders) or the Reorganized Debtors and the counterparty, subject to the rights of the General Unsecured Claims Observer with respect to the Allowance of any General Unsecured Claim or General Unsecured Convenience Claim in connection with such resolution.

The Debtors (with the consent of the Required 1L Noteholders) or the Reorganized Debtors may assume, assume and assign, or reject an Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease that is subject to an Assumption Dispute at any time prior to the resolution of the Assumption Dispute relating to the Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease. During the Assumption Dispute, the counterparty shall continue to perform under the applicable Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease. If the Assumption Dispute is resolved or determined unfavorably to the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, then the Debtors or Reorganized Debtor, as applicable, may either affirm the assumption or reject the applicable Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease after such determination, in which case the counterparty may file a Proof of Claim within 30 calendar days after notice of rejection. Prior to rejecting any Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease pursuant to the foregoing, the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall provide the Committee or the General Unsecured Claims Observer, as applicable, with reasonable advance notice of such proposed rejection and the Committee or the General Unsecured Claims Observer, as applicable, may file an objection to the reasonableness of any such rejection of which the Committee did not have notice as of the date of the Committee Stipulation.

Any Assumption Dispute, including one styled as an objection to Confirmation, may be scheduled to be heard by the Bankruptcy Court at or after the Confirmation Hearing and may be adjourned from time to time by the Debtors upon notice to the Bankruptcy Court.

3. Modifications, Amendments, Supplements, Restatements, and Other Agreements

Unless otherwise provided in the Plan, each Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease that is assumed and, if applicable, assigned to the Reorganized Debtors, shall include all modifications, amendments, supplements, restatements, or other agreements that in any manner affect such Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease, including all easements, licenses, permits, rights, privileges, immunities, options, rights of first refusal, and any other interests, unless any of the foregoing agreements has been previously terminated or is otherwise not in effect.

Modifications, amendments, supplements, and restatements to prepetition Executory Contracts and/or Unexpired Leases that have been executed by the Debtors during the Chapter 11 Cases shall not be deemed to alter the prepetition nature of the Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease, or the validity, priority, or amount of any Claims that may arise in connection therewith.

C. Rejected Contracts and Leases: Claims for Damages

If the rejection of an Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease by the Debtors results in damages to the other party or parties to such contract or lease, a Claim for such damages shall be classified and treated in Class 7a (General Unsecured Claims) or Class 7b (General Unsecured Convenience Claims), as applicable, and may be objected to in accordance with the provisions of Article VI and applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules. Such Claims shall be asserted within 30 calendar days following entry of the order (including the Confirmation Order) approving the Debtors' rejection of the applicable executory contract or unexpired lease. The Allowance of all such Claims shall be subject to all applicable limitations, including the caps set forth in section 502(b)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code. All such Claims not filed within such time will be Disallowed, forever barred from assertion, and shall not be enforceable against the Debtors, their Estates or the Reorganized Debtors, or the property thereof, without the need for any objection by the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors or further notice to, or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court or any other Entity, and any Claim arising out of the rejection of the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease shall be deemed fully satisfied, released, and discharged, notwithstanding anything in the Schedules, if any, or a Proof of Claim to the contrary.

D. Particular Contracts and Leases

1. Insurance Policies

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Definitive Documents or any other document related thereto (including, without limitation, any other provision that purports to be preemptory or supervening, grants an injunction, discharge or release, or confers Bankruptcy Court jurisdiction):

(a) unless listed on the Schedule of Rejected Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases, all of the Insurance Policies are deemed to be and shall be treated as Executory Contracts and/or Unexpired Leases under the Plan, and, on and after the Effective Date, shall be assumed in their entirety by the Reorganized Debtors pursuant to the Plan and

Bankruptcy Code sections 105 and 365 and shall revest in the Reorganized Debtors and continue in full force and effect (such Insurance Policies, the "Assumed Insurance Policies");

(b) on and after the Effective Date, each Reorganized Debtor shall become and remain liable in full in the ordinary course of business for all of the corresponding Debtor's obligations under the Assumed Insurance Policies, regardless of when they arise and in accordance with the terms thereof and the Plan and without the need or requirement for Insurers to file or serve any objection to a proposed Cure Claim or a request, application, Claim, Proof of Claim, Cure Claim, motion for payment or allowance of any Administrative Expense Claim;

(c) except as expressly set forth in this Article V.D.1 of the Plan, nothing shall alter or modify the terms and conditions of the Assumed Insurance Policies, and any rights and obligations thereunder shall be determined in accordance with the terms thereof and applicable non-bankruptcy law, and, for the avoidance of doubt, the assumption and assignment to the Reorganized Debtors of the Assumed Insurance Policies through the Restructuring Transactions shall not be considered a prohibited alteration, modification or assignment of the Assumed Insurance Policies; and

(d) the automatic stay of section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and the injunctions set forth in Article VIII.G of the Plan, if and to the extent applicable, shall be deemed lifted without further order of this Bankruptcy Court, solely with respect to Insurers and claimants with valid workers' compensation claims or direct action claims against Insurers under applicable non-bankruptcy law and solely to permit: (a) claimants with valid workers' compensation claims or direct action claims against Insurers under applicable non-bankruptcy law to proceed with their claims; and (b) Insurers to administer, handle, defend, settle, and/or pay, in the ordinary course of business and without further order of this Bankruptcy Court, (i) workers' compensation claims, (ii) claims where a claimant asserts a direct claim against the Insurers under applicable non-bankruptcy law, or an order has been entered by this Bankruptcy Court granting a claimant relief from the automatic stay or the injunctions set forth in Article VIII.G of the Plan to proceed with a claim under an Insurance Policy, and (iii) all costs in relation to each of the foregoing.

After the Effective Date, all current and former officers, directors, agents, or employees who served in such capacity at any time before the Effective Date shall be entitled to the full benefits, if any, of any D&O Policy in effect as of the Petition Date for the full term of such policy regardless of whether such officers, directors, agents, and/or employees remain in such positions after the Effective Date, in each case, solely to the extent set forth in such D&O Policies and subject to any terms and conditions thereof. In addition, after the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors shall not terminate or otherwise reduce the coverage under any D&O Policy in effect as of the Petition Date.

2. Indemnification Obligations

a. Indemnification of Directors, Officers, and Others

Except as set forth on the Schedule of Rejected Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases, any Indemnification Obligation to indemnify current and former officers, directors, members, managers, agents, or employees with respect to all present and future actions, suits, and proceedings against the Debtors or such officers, directors, members, managers, agents, or employees based upon any act or omission for or on behalf of the Debtors shall (a) remain in full force and effect; (b) not be discharged, impaired, or otherwise affected in any way, including by the Plan, the Plan Supplement, or the Confirmation Order; (c) not be limited, reduced, or terminated after the Effective Date; and (d) survive unimpaired and unaffected irrespective of whether such Indemnification Obligation is owed for an act or event occurring before, on or after the Petition Date; provided that the Reorganized Debtors shall not indemnify officers, directors, members, or managers, as applicable, of the Debtors for any claims or Causes of Action that (x) are not indemnified by such Indemnification Obligation; or (y) arise out of or relate to any act or omission that is a criminal act or constitutes intentional fraud, gross negligence, or willful misconduct; provided, further, that the obligations in this section shall not apply to any Excluded Party or any other Person that is employed by or a partner of (or indemnified by) the Sponsor, and any obligations to indemnify any such Person shall be terminated upon the occurrence of the Effective Date regardless of whether such obligations are captured on the Schedule of Assumed Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases or the Schedule of Rejected Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases. Except as provided in the foregoing sentence, all such obligations shall be deemed and treated as executory contracts to be assumed by the Debtors under the Plan and shall continue as obligations of the Reorganized Debtors, and, if necessary to effectuate such assumption under local law, one or more of the Reorganized Debtors shall contractually assume such obligations.

No Entity or Person may assert any Cause of Action against any independent director of a Debtor (including Patrick Bartels as independent director of Wolverine Intermediate Holding) arising out of or related to a Covered Exculpation Matter without first seeking authority from the Bankruptcy Court. Any request for such authority shall: (a) be made in writing with notice to all affected parties and shall include a proposed complaint setting forth any alleged Causes of Action and the detailed factual basis in support of such Causes of Action; (b) indemnify each independent director against whom any such Causes of Action are asserted against costs associated with the successful defense of any such Causes of Action that are allowed to proceed; and (c) propose a reasonable attorney fee reserve amount, which amount shall be subject to modification by the Bankruptcy Court and shall be deposited by the Entity or Person asserting such Causes of Action in the Bankruptcy Court's registry to secure the payment of such indemnity.

Any Claim filed on account of an indemnification obligation to a director, manager, officer, or employee of the Debtors as of the Effective Date shall be deemed satisfied and may be expunged from the Claims Register on the Effective Date to the extent such indemnification obligation is assumed by the Reorganized Debtors, or honored or reaffirmed, as the case may be pursuant to the Plan, without an objection having to be filed and without any further notice or action, order or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

b. Indemnification of 1L Indenture Trustee

Following the Effective Date, the 1L Indenture Trustee (solely in Wilmington Savings Fund Society, FSB's capacity as the trustee and collateral agent under the 1L Indenture and not in any capacity relating to the 1.25L Notes, the 2024 Unsecured Notes, the 2026 Notes or the 2027 Unsecured Notes or the 1.25L Indenture, the 2024 Unsecured Indenture, the 2026 Indenture or the 2027 Unsecured Indenture or any other document executed by it, or binding on it, in connection with its role as the indenture trustee for the 1.25L Notes, the 2024 Unsecured Notes, the 2026 Notes or the 2027 Unsecured Notes) and its Related Parties shall be indemnified by the Reorganized Debtors with respect to all present and future actions, suits, and proceedings against the 1L Indenture Trustee or its Related Parties in connection with or related to the 2022 Financing Transactions, the Financing Litigation, and/or any other Causes of Action in connection with or related to the 1L Indenture (including, with respect to the 1L Indenture Trustee, for its reasonable and documented fees and expenses and for the reasonable and documented fees and expenses of its counsel) or the other Note Documents (as defined in the 1L Indenture), on the same terms as afforded under the 1L Indenture or the other Note Documents (as defined in the 1L Indenture). For the avoidance of doubt, (i) the 1L Indenture Trustee will not be indemnified on account of any costs or expenses incurred by the First Lien Noteholder Group (or any of its members)[, or in its capacity as the former indenture trustee under the 2026 Indenture and 2024 Unsecured Indenture in connection with the Appellate Litigation] and (ii) the fact that the 1L Indenture Trustee is entitled to indemnification under the Plan will not be deemed as an admission of any underlying fact or circumstance related to the 2022 Financing Transactions or be used in the Appellate Litigation by any party.

3. Compensation and Benefit Plans

Unless otherwise provided in this Plan (including on the Schedule of Rejected Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases) and except as applicable to any Excluded Party or any other Person that is employed by or a partner of the Sponsor, all employment, restrictive covenant, confidentiality, and non-competition agreements, collective bargaining agreements, offer letters (including any severance set forth therein), bonus, gainshare and cash-based incentive programs, vacation, holiday pay, severance, retirement, supplemental retirement, employee or director or officer indemnity, medical, dental, vision, life and disability insurance, flexible spending account, and other health and welfare benefit plans, programs, agreements and arrangements, and all other wage, compensation, employee expense reimbursement, and other benefit obligations (collectively, the "Compensation and Benefit Plans") are deemed to be, and shall be treated as, Executory Contracts under the Plan and, on the Effective Date, subject to the following provisos, shall be deemed assumed pursuant to sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code (in each case, as amended prior to or on the Effective Date); provided that Consummation shall not constitute a change in control or term of similar meaning pursuant to any such plans; provided, further, that no employee equity or equity-based plans, or any provisions set forth in any Compensation and Benefits Plans that provide for rights to acquire equity interests in any of the Debtors, including Existing Equity Interests, shall be assumed, or deemed assumed, by the Reorganized Debtors, or assumed and assigned, or deemed to be assumed and assigned, to Reorganized Incora.

For the avoidance of doubt, the foregoing shall not (1) limit, diminish, or otherwise alter the Reorganized Debtors' defenses, claims, Causes of Action, or other rights with respect to the Compensation and Benefit Plans, or (2) impair the ability of the Reorganized Debtors, to implement the Management Incentive Plan and to determine the Compensation and Benefit Plans of the Reorganized Debtors on or after the Effective Date, in each case consistent with the Plan.

E. Postpetition Contracts and Leases

Subject to Article V.B.3, new contracts and leases entered into after the Petition Date by any Debtor, will be performed by the applicable Debtor or Reorganized Debtor, as the case may be, liable thereunder in the ordinary course of its business or as authorized by the Bankruptcy Court. Accordingly, such contracts and leases (including any assumed Executory Contracts and/or Unexpired Leases) will survive and remain unaffected by entry of the Confirmation Order, and, on the Effective Date, shall revest in and be fully enforceable by and against the applicable Reorganized Debtor in accordance with its terms, except as such terms may have been modified by order of the Bankruptcy Court.

ARTICLE VI.
Claims Resolution

A. Allowance of Claims and Interests, Generally

Except as otherwise expressly provided in the Plan and without regard to any requirements that may be imposed pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019, after the Confirmation Date, the Debtors (with the consent of the Required 1L Noteholders and (solely with respect to the Allowance of any General Unsecured Claim or General Unsecured Convenience Claim) with the reasonable consent of the Committee), and, following the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors, subject to the rights of the General Unsecured Claims Observer with respect to the Allowance of any General Unsecured Claim or General Unsecured Convenience Claim, shall have the authority, without any further notice to or action, order, or approval by the Bankruptcy Court, to (a) agree to Allow any Disputed Claim pursuant to clause (c)(iii) of the definition of "Allowed," which has not been made subject to an objection or request for estimation prior to the Confirmation Date, (b) file, withdraw, or litigate to judgment objections to Disputed Claims, (c) settle or compromise any Disputed Claim that has not been made subject to an objection or request for estimation prior to the Confirmation Date, and (d) direct the Claims Agent to adjust the Claims Register to reflect all resolutions of Disputed Claims.

The Reorganized Debtors shall file any objections to Claims (including any omnibus objections) no later than the Claim Objection Deadline (as it may be extended).

Notwithstanding section 502(j) of the Bankruptcy Code, in no event shall any holder of a Claim that has been Allowed, Disallowed or estimated by order of the Bankruptcy Court be entitled to seek reconsideration of such an order unless it filed a motion requesting reconsideration on or before 21 calendar days after the date of the order.

B. Contingent and Unliquidated Claims

Except with respect to a Claim that is Allowed pursuant to clause (a) or (c) of the definition of "Allowed," any Claim that is listed in the Schedules as contingent, unliquidated or disputed, and for which no Proof of Claim has been filed, shall be considered Disallowed and shall be expunged by the Debtors and the Claims Agent without further notice to any party or action, approval or order of the Bankruptcy Court.

At any time prior to the Claim Objection Deadline, the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors or the applicable claimant may request that the Bankruptcy Court estimate, pursuant to section 502(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, any Disputed Claim that is presented in a Proof of Claim as contingent or unliquidated, regardless of whether any party previously has objected to such Claim or whether the Bankruptcy Court has ruled on any such objection, and the Bankruptcy Court shall retain jurisdiction to estimate any such Claim, including during the litigation of any objection to any Claim or during the appeal relating to such objection.

C. AMENDMENTS

On or after the Confirmation Date, a Claim may not be amended without the prior authorization of (a) the Bankruptcy Court or (b) the Debtors (with the consent of the Required 1L Noteholders and the Committee, not to be unreasonably withheld) or Reorganized Debtors (subject to the rights of the General Unsecured Claims Observer with respect to the Allowance of any General Unsecured Claim or General Unsecured Convenience Claim), as applicable.

The Debtors (with the consent of the Required 1L Noteholders and the Committee, not to be unreasonably withheld), prior to the Effective Date, and the Reorganized Debtors (subject to the rights of the General Unsecured Claims Observer with respect to the Allowance of any General Unsecured Claim or General Unsecured Convenience Claim), after the Effective Date, may amend the Schedules with respect to any Claim (other than any Claim that otherwise is or becomes an Allowed Claim or is released hereunder or otherwise by a Final Order) and to make distributions pursuant to the Plan based on such amended Schedules (if no Proof of Claim is timely filed in response to such amendment) without approval of the Bankruptcy Court. If any such amendment to the Schedules reduces the amount of a Claim or adversely changes the nature or priority of a Claim that was previously scheduled as undisputed, liquidated and not contingent, the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall provide the holder of such Claim with notice of such amendment and the opportunity to file a Proof of Claim pursuant to the Claims Bar Date Order. For the avoidance of doubt, prior to the Claim Objection Deadline, the Reorganized Debtors shall have the authority to object to or otherwise dispute any Claim that has been listed on the Schedules (other than any Claim that is otherwise an Allowed Claim), even if not listed as disputed, unliquidated and/or contingent.

D. CLAIMS SUBJECT TO AVOIDANCE ACTIONS

Subject in all respects to the waiver and release of Released Preference Actions set forth in Article IV.G, except as otherwise provided in a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, any Claim held by an Entity against which a Debtor or a Reorganized Debtor pursues an Avoidance Action or an action to recover property under sections 542, 543, 550 or 553 of the Bankruptcy Code or that is a transferee of a transfer avoidable under section 522(f), 522(h), 544, 545, 547, 548, 549, or 724(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, in each case other than a Released Claim, shall be deemed disallowed pursuant to section 502(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, and the holder of such Claim shall not receive any distribution under the Plan on account of such Claim until such time as such action has been resolved and, to the extent applicable, all sums due from such holder have been turned over to the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable. For the avoidance of doubt, the Claims Objection Deadline shall not apply to the filing of an Avoidance Action, including an Avoidance Action that seeks disallowance of a Claim as relief. For the avoidance of doubt, any Claim held by an Entity that does business with the Debtors or has been identified as an eligible critical vendor, in each case, as of the date of the Committee Stipulation, shall not be disallowed on the basis of a Released Preference Action pursuant to this paragraph.

E. Claims Paid or Payable by Third Parties

1. Claims Paid by Third Parties

The Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall reduce a Claim, and such Claim shall be Disallowed without an objection having to be filed and without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court, to the extent that the holder of such Claim receives payment (before or after the Effective Date) on account of such Claim from a party that is not a Debtor or Reorganized Debtor; provided, however, if such holder is required to repay all or any portion of a Claim (either by contract or by order of a court of competent jurisdiction) to the party that is not a Debtor or Reorganized Debtor, and such holder in fact repays all or a portion of the Claim to such third party, the repaid amount of such Claim shall not be Disallowed on such basis and shall remain subject to the applicable treatment set forth in the Plan and the respective rights and defenses of the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, and the holder of such Claim. To the extent a holder of a Claim receives a distribution on account of such Claim under the Plan and receives payment from a party that is not a Debtor or Reorganized Debtor on account of such Claim, such holder shall, within 10 calendar days of receipt thereof, repay or return the distribution to the applicable Debtor or Reorganized Debtor, to the extent the holder's total recovery on account of such Claim from the third party and under the Plan exceeds the amount of such Claim as of the date of any such distribution under the Plan. The failure of such holder to timely repay or return such distribution shall result in the holder owing the applicable Reorganized Debtor annualized interest at the federal judgment rate, as in effect as of the Petition Date, on such amount owed for each Business Day after the 10-calendar day grace period specified above until the amount is repaid.

2. Claims Payable by Third Parties

No distributions under the Plan shall be made on account of an Allowed Claim that is payable pursuant to any Debtor's Insurance Policies until the holder of such Allowed Claim has exhausted all remedies with respect to such Insurance Policy; provided that if such holder is required to repay all or any portion of a Claim (either by contract or by order of a court of competent jurisdiction) to an Insurer, and such holder in fact repays all or a portion of the Claim to such Insurer, the repaid amount of such Claim shall remain subject to the applicable treatment set forth in the Plan and the respective rights and defenses of the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, the holder of such Claim, and, if applicable, the Insurers. The Insurers reserve all rights to defend and contest applicable causes of action or demands to the extent that they are brought against the Insurers, or to the extent that such causes of action or demands seek recovery from the Insurers. To the extent that one or more of the Debtors' Insurers, in its role as an Insurer (but not in any role as the issuer of surety bonds or similar instruments or as a guarantor of payment), agree to pay a Claim in full or in part (if and to the extent adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction or otherwise settled), then immediately upon such Insurers' payment thereof, the applicable portion of such Claim may be expunged without an objection having to be filed and without any further notice to or action, order or approval of the Bankruptcy Court. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Article VI.E.2 is intended to alter the terms set forth in Article V.

3. Applicability of Insurance Policies

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, distributions to holders of Claims covered by Insurance Policies shall be in accordance with the provisions of any applicable Insurance Policy. Except as otherwise expressly set forth in the Plan, nothing in this Plan shall constitute or be deemed a waiver of any Cause of Action that the Debtors or any Entity, including any holders of Claims, may hold against any other Entity under any Insurance Policy, including against Insurers or any insured, nor shall anything contained in this Plan constitute or be deemed a waiver by such Insurers of any rights or defenses, including coverage defenses, held by such Insurers.

F. General Unsecured Claims Observer

With the consent of the Debtors and the Required 1L Noteholders (in each case, not to be unreasonably withheld), the Committee may appoint, as of the Effective Date, a General Unsecured Claims Observer with duties limited to monitoring the Reorganized Debtors with respect to the Allowance of General Unsecured Claims and General Unsecured Convenience Claims. The General Unsecured Claims Observer shall have standing to appear before the Bankruptcy Court with respect to matters arising out of or related to reconciliation, Allowance, and settlement of any General Unsecured Claims or General Unsecured Convenience Claims, as well as to assert an objection thereto on any grounds (including that any Claim should not be Allowed or should be Allowed in a reduced amount).

The Reorganized Debtors shall consult with the General Unsecured Claims Observer with respect to the Allowance of General Unsecured Claims and General Unsecured Convenience Claims.

The General Unsecured Claims Observer may employ, without further order of the Bankruptcy Court, professionals to assist in carrying out the duties as limited above, and the General Unsecured Claims Observer Costs, including reasonable and documented professional fees and expenses, shall be reimbursed by the Reorganized Debtors in the ordinary course of business in an aggregate amount not to exceed $125,000 as soon as reasonably practicable after invoiced.

Upon the resignation or removal of the General Unsecured Claims Observer, the outgoing General Unsecured Claims Observer may appoint a successor General Unsecured Claims Observer with the consent of the Reorganized Debtors (not to be unreasonably withheld) and approval of the Bankruptcy Court; provided, that in the event of the death of the General Unsecured Claims Observer, the successor General Unsecured Claims Observer shall be appointed by the Reorganized Debtors with approval of the Bankruptcy Court. Upon the resolution of all General Unsecured Claims and General Unsecured Convenience Claims, the General Unsecured Claims Observer shall be released and discharged of and from further authority, duties, responsibilities, and obligations relating to and arising from and in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases.

The Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors on the one hand, and the Committee and the General Unsecured Claims Observer on the other hand, shall engage in good faith discussions of reasonable limitations on the rights and duties of the General Unsecured Claims Observer, including the range of de minimis General Unsecured Convenience Claims that the Reorganized Debtors may agree to Allow without oversight of the General Unsecured Claims Observer, and may agree to such limitations without further notice or order of the Bankruptcy Court.

G. Claim Resolution Procedures Cumulative

All of the aforementioned objection, estimation, and resolution procedures are cumulative and not exclusive of one another. Disputed Claims may be estimated and subsequently compromised, settled, withdrawn, or resolved by any mechanism approved by the Bankruptcy Court.

ARTICLE VII.
Distributions

A. The Disbursing Agent and Servicers

1. Powers and Roles

All distributions under the Plan shall be made by the Disbursing Agent on the Effective Date (or, if a Claim is not an Allowed Claim on the Effective Date, on the next Interim Distribution Date) or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter. Where Allowed Claims that are governed by a separate agreement and administered by a Servicer, the Disbursing Agent and the Reorganized Debtors, together with the applicable Servicer, shall use commercially reasonable efforts to implement distributions in accordance with the Plan and with the applicable agreements.

Without further order of the Bankruptcy Court, the Disbursing Agent and, where applicable, the Servicers, shall be empowered to: (a) effect all actions and execute all agreements, instruments, and other documents necessary to perform its duties under the Plan; (b) make all distributions contemplated hereby; (c) employ professionals and incur reasonable fees and expenses to represent it with respect to such responsibilities; and (d) exercise such other powers as may be vested in them by order of the Bankruptcy Court, pursuant to the Plan, or as deemed by the Disbursing Agent to be necessary and proper to implement the Plan.

If the Disbursing Agent is one or more of the Reorganized Debtors, the Disbursing Agent shall not be required to give any bond or surety or other security for the performance of its duties unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court. The Servicers shall not be required to give any bond or surety or other security for the performance of its duties unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court.

2. Expenses

Except as otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court, the amount of any reasonable fees and documented expenses incurred by the Disbursing Agent or the Servicers on or after the Effective Date (including the reasonable and documented fees and expenses of counsel) in connection with making distributions shall be paid by the Reorganized Debtors, without duplication of payments of Restructuring Expenses or Retained Professional Fees. Additionally, in the event that the Disbursing Agent is ordered or required to give a bond or surety, all costs and expenses of procuring any such bond or surety shall be borne by the Reorganized Debtors.

B. Delivery Procedures

1. Record Date

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan or prior Bankruptcy Court order, the Disbursing Agent shall make distributions to holders of Allowed Claims as of the Distribution Record Date at the address for each such holder as indicated in the Debtors' records as of the date of any such distribution.

The manner of such distributions shall be determined at the discretion of the Reorganized Debtors. In addition, with respect to payment of any Cure Claim or disputes over any Cure Claim, neither the Debtors nor the Disbursing Agent shall have any obligation to recognize or deal with any party other than the non-Debtor party to the applicable Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease as of the Effective Date, even if such non-Debtor party has sold, assigned, or otherwise transferred its Cure Claim. For avoidance of doubt, the Distribution Record Date shall not apply to beneficial holders of securities customarily filed with DTC, who shall receive a distribution in accordance with the terms of this Article VII and, as applicable, the customary procedures of DTC on or as soon as practicable after the Effective Date.

All distributions to holders on account of Allowed (a) 1L Notes Claims, (b) 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims, (c) 2026 Notes Claims, (d) 2027 Unsecured Notes Claims, and (e) ABL Facility Claims shall be deemed completed when made to or at the direction of the Prepetition Agent for the applicable Prepetition Debt Document under which the relevant Allowed Claims arose, which shall be deemed to be the holder of such Claims for purposes of distributions to be made under this Plan, subject to any Potential Remedies Order, as applicable. The Prepetition Agents shall hold or direct such distributions for the benefit of the holders of the foregoing Allowed Claims, in each case to the extent that the Prepetition Agent is the Prepetition Agent for the applicable Prepetition Debt Document under which the applicable Allowed Claims arose. As applicable, such Prepetition Agent may transfer or direct the transfer of such distributions directly through the facilities of DTC (whether by means of book-entry exchange, free delivery, or otherwise) and will be entitled to recognize and deal for all purposes under the Plan with applicable holders of the foregoing Allowed Claims, in a manner consistent with the customary practices of DTC. The Prepetition Agents shall not incur any liability whatsoever on account of any distributions under the Plan except for gross negligence or willful misconduct. If the Prepetition Agents are unable to make, or consent to the Reorganized Debtors making, such distributions, the Reorganized Debtors or an authorized Disbursing Agent, with the applicable Prepetition Agent's cooperation, shall make such distribution. The Prepetition Agents for the 1L Notes, the 2024

Unsecured Notes, the 2026 Notes and the 2027 Unsecured Notes shall have no duties, obligations, or responsibilities with respect to any form of distribution to holders of the foregoing Allowed Claims that is not DTC-eligible, and the Reorganized Debtors shall make such distributions. For the avoidance of doubt, all distributions referenced in this paragraph shall be subject to any charging liens exercised by the Prepetition Agents.

2. Interim Distribution Date

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan or prior Bankruptcy Court order, the Disbursing Agent shall make additional interim distributions to holders of Allowed Claims that were not considered Allowed as of Distribution Record Date.

The Reorganized Debtors shall have reasonable discretion to determine the timing of these Interim Distribution Dates based on among other things, resolutions of Disputed Claims and the administrative costs of such a distribution. The manner of such distributions shall be determined at the reasonable discretion of the Reorganized Debtors.

3. Publicly Held Securities

The Distribution Record Dates shall not apply to publicly held securities deposited with DTC and, in connection with any distribution under the Plan to be effected through the facilities of DTC (whether by means of book-entry exchange, free delivery, or otherwise), the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall be entitled to recognize and deal for all purposes under the Plan with holders of Claims in each Class to the extent consistent with the customary practices of DTC used in connection with such distributions.

4. Distributions of Securities

Any distribution of New Convertible Takeback Notes and/or New Common Equity shall be conditioned on the submission to the Debtors or their designated agent of an executed Securities Registration Form and signature page to the New LLC Agreement and/or applicable New Notes Documents. If a holder of Allowed Claims entitled to a distribution of New Convertible Takeback Notes and/or New Common Equity has not delivered a validly executed Securities Registration Form and signature page to the New LLC Agreement and/or applicable New Notes Documents to the Debtors or their designated agent by the Effective Date, any distribution of New Convertible Takeback Notes and/or New Common Equity to which such holder would be entitled under the Plan shall be held in escrow by the Reorganized Debtors, notwithstanding any state or other escheat or similar laws to the contrary. If such holder has not delivered a validly executed Securities Registration Form and signature page to the New LLC Agreement and/or the applicable New Notes Documents to the Debtors or their designated agent within 180 calendar days after the Effective Date, the entitlement of such holder to such distribution on account of such holder's Claims shall be extinguished and forever barred. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Debtors (with the consent of the Required 1L Noteholders and the Required 2026 Noteholders) or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, may determine to waive compliance with the foregoing with respect to any distributions of New Common Equity settled pursuant to the facilities of DTC in accordance with Article VII.G; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, each DTC Holder shall be deemed to be a party to (and in privity of contract with the other parties to) the New LLC Agreement as a

"beneficial owner" and bound thereby, in each case, regardless of execution thereof by such DTC Holder, in accordance with Article IV.C.4.

5. Undeliverable Distributions and Unclaimed Property

In the event that any distribution to any holder is undeliverable for any reason (including an undeliverable address or the recipient's failure to provide necessary information), no distribution to such holder shall be made unless and until the holder has cured the reason that its distribution was undeliverable, after which its distribution shall be made on the next Interim Distribution Date without interest; provided, however, that any undeliverable distribution shall be deemed unclaimed property under section 347(b) of the Bankruptcy Code at the expiration of 180 calendar days after the date on which such distribution was first attempted to be made, as determined in good faith by Reorganized Incora; provided, further, that the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall use reasonable efforts to locate a holder if any distribution is returned as undeliverable. After such date, all unclaimed property or interests in property shall revert to the Reorganized Debtors automatically and without need for a further order by the Bankruptcy Court (notwithstanding any applicable federal, provincial, state or other jurisdiction escheat, abandonment, or unclaimed property laws to the contrary), and, to the extent such undeliverable distribution is comprised of New Common Equity, such New Common Equity shall be canceled. The claim of any holder to such property or interest in property shall be discharged and forever barred.

Checks issued on account of Allowed Claims shall be null and void if not negotiated within 180 calendar days from and after the date of issuance thereof. Requests for reissuance of any check must be made directly and in writing to the Disbursing Agent by the holder of the relevant Allowed Claim within the 180-calendar-day period. After such date, the relevant Allowed Claim (and any Claim for reissuance of the original check) shall be automatically discharged and forever barred, and such funds shall revert to the Reorganized Debtors (notwithstanding any applicable federal, state, other U.S. or non-U.S. jurisdiction's escheat, abandoned, or unclaimed property laws to the contrary).

A distribution shall be deemed unclaimed if a holder has not: (x) accepted a particular distribution or, in the case of distributions made by check, negotiated such check; (y) responded to the Debtors' or Reorganized Debtors' requests for information necessary to facilitate a particular distribution; or (z) taken any other action necessary to facilitate such distribution.

The Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, and the Disbursing Agents, as applicable, shall not incur any liability whatsoever on account of any distributions under the Plan, except in the event of actual fraud, gross negligence, or willful misconduct, as determined by a Final Order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

6. Manner of Payment

At the option of the Disbursing Agent, any Cash payment to be made hereunder may be made by check, wire transfer, automated clearing house, or credit card, or as otherwise required or provided in applicable agreements.

C. CALCULATION

1. Full Amount Payable

Unless otherwise provided in the Plan or paid pursuant to a prior Bankruptcy Court order, on the Effective Date (or, if a Claim is not an Allowed Claim on the Effective Date, then on the date that such Claim becomes Allowed or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter), each holder of an Allowed Claim or Allowed Interest shall receive the full amount of the distributions that the Plan provides for Allowed Claims or Allowed Interests in the applicable Class. Distributions on account of any Disputed Claims (which will only be made if and when they become Allowed Claims) shall be made pursuant to the provisions set forth in Article VII. If any payment or act under the Plan is required to be made or performed on or by a date that is not a Business Day, then the making of such payment or the performance of such act may be completed on the next succeeding Business Day. Distributions on account of Claims in unimpaired Classes that are asserted in non-U.S. currency may, at the Debtors' discretion, be paid in the applicable non-U.S. currency. Distributions on account of Claims in all other Classes shall be converted to the equivalent U.S. dollar value using the exchange rate for the applicable currency as published in The Wall Street Journal, National Edition, on the Petition Date.

2. Distributions on Account of Obligations of Multiple Debtors

For all purposes associated with distributions under the Plan, each Claim that has been asserted against multiple Debtors will be treated as a single Claim and shall result in a single distribution under the Plan.

3. Minimum Distributions

No fractional New Common Equity shall be distributed to a holder of an Allowed Claim on account of its Allowed Claim. When any distribution pursuant to the Plan would otherwise result in the issuance of a number of shares (or LLC interests or other such units) of New Common Equity that is not a whole number, the actual distribution of such New Common Equity shall be rounded as follows: (a) fractions of greater than one-half (½) units of New Common Equity shall be rounded to the next higher whole number and (b) fractions of one-half (½) or less of New Common Equity shall be rounded to the next lower whole number with no further payment on their account. The total number of authorized units of New Common Equity to be distributed to holders of Allowed Claims may be adjusted as necessary to account for the foregoing rounding.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan, no Cash payment valued at less than $50.00, in the reasonable discretion of the Disbursing Agent and the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors (as applicable), shall be made to a holder of an Allowed Claim on account of such Allowed Claim. Such Allowed Claims to which this limitation applies shall be discharged and its holder forever barred from asserting that Claim against the Reorganized Debtors or their property.

4. Setoff and Recoupment

The Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors may, but shall not be required to, set off against any Claim or Interest (for purposes of determining the Allowed amount of such Claim or Interest on which distribution shall be made), any claims of any nature whatsoever that the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors may have against the holder of such Claim or Interest that have not been otherwise released, compromised or settled on or prior to the Effective Date (pursuant to the Plan or otherwise); provided that neither the failure to do so nor the Allowance of any Claim or Interest under this Plan shall constitute a waiver or release by the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors of any such claim the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors may have against the holder of such Claim or Interest.

5. No Postpetition Interest

Except as to the DIP Financing Claims and as required by the Bankruptcy Code, post-petition interest shall not accrue or be paid on any Claims or Interests, and no holder of a Claim or Interest shall be entitled to interest accruing on or after the Petition Date on any such Claim or Interest.

6. Allocation Between Principal and Accrued Interest

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the aggregate consideration paid to holders with respect to their Allowed Claims shall be treated pursuant to the Plan as allocated first to the principal amount of such Allowed Claims (to the extent thereof) and, thereafter, to the interest, if any, accrued through the Effective Date.

7. Single Satisfaction of Claims

Notwithstanding anything else contained in the Plan or Confirmation Order, in no case shall a distribution be made under the Plan on account of an Allowed Claim to the extent that the aggregate value of all property received or retained on account of such Allowed Claim (from whatever source) would exceed 100 percent of the underlying Allowed Claim.

D. DISTRIBUTIONS TO HOLDERS OF DISPUTED CLAIMS

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan (except as provided below), (a) no distributions will be made under the Plan on account of a Disputed Claim until such Claim becomes an Allowed Claim pursuant to a Final Order, if ever, and (b) except as otherwise agreed by the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, no partial distributions with respect to a Disputed Claim will be made under the Plan until all disputes in connection with such Disputed Claim have been resolved by settlement or Final Order.

To the extent that a Disputed Claim ultimately becomes an Allowed Claim, any distributions under the Plan shall be made to the holder of such Allowed Claim in accordance with the provisions of the Plan on the next Interim Distribution Date, without any interest to be paid on account of such Claim.

Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary herein, distributions on account of 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims, 2026 Notes Claims and 1L Notes Claims will be made on the Effective Date (or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable in accordance with the distribution provisions set forth herein) in accordance with the Bankruptcy Court's rulings in the 2022 Financing Adversary Proceeding as of the Confirmation Date, including the Adversary Proceeding Decisions, notwithstanding that such rulings are not Final Orders as of the Confirmation Date and remain subject to the Appellate Litigation and any Potential Remedies Order. Such distributions (and the holders thereof, and each such holders' successors, transferees and assigns) will remain subject to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court (and any appellate court therefrom) and any Potential Remedies Order. For the avoidance of doubt, in no event shall the Plan (the Plan Settlement), the Confirmation Order or any consent to or vote to accept the Plan be deemed (x) to be a determination by the Bankruptcy Court or an admission or waiver by the Debtors or any other Entity as to the status (including secured (or Secured) or unsecured status) of the 2024 Unsecured Notes, the 2026 Notes, the 1L Notes (including the New Money Claims) (or the 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims, the 2026 Notes Claims or the 1L Notes Claims on account thereof) or (y) to moot, waive, foreclose or otherwise impair any appeal (including any appeal by holders of 1L Notes Claims, 2026 Notes Claims and/or 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims) of the Bankruptcy Court's rulings in the 2022 Financing Adversary Proceeding (or alter, amend or otherwise limit any rights, claims or defenses that may or could be asserted by any Entity in connection with the Appellate Litigation, irrespective of whether such rights, claims or defenses are provided or arise under the applicable agreements, applicable law, or otherwise) or any party pursuing any Potential Remedies Order. However, notwithstanding any other provision, no holder of a 1L Notes Claim, 2026 Notes Claim or 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims (and none of their Related Parties, including any successors, assigns and transferees of any distributions under the Plan) shall (individually or as a group) argue that (x) any Appellate Litigation is barred under the doctrine of equitable mootness or (y) any argument made in any Appellate Litigation by any party is barred, waived, or otherwise estopped as a result of that party's agreement or consent to or vote to accept the Plan; provided, that, this clause (y) is subject in all respects to the parties' agreement regarding Turnover and the applicability of a Potential Remedies Order as set forth in Article VII.F.

E. EXEMPTION FROM SECURITIES LAWS

1. Exemption for Distributions Under Plan

The offer, issuance, and distribution under the Plan of the New Common Equity shall be exempt, without further act or actions by any Entity, from registration under the Securities Act and any other applicable securities laws to the fullest extent permitted by section 1145 of the Bankruptcy Code, except with respect to an Entity that is an "underwriter" with respect to such securities, as that term is defined in section 1145(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Subject to the transfer provisions, if any, and other applicable provisions set forth in the New Organizational Documents, these securities may be resold without registration under the Securities Act or other federal securities laws pursuant to the exemption provided by section 4(a)(1) of the Securities Act, unless the holder is an "underwriter" with respect to such securities, as that term is defined in section 1145(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. In addition, if the holder is not an "underwriter" with respect to such securities, as that term is defined in section 1145(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, but such holder is an "affiliate" (as defined in Rule 144(a)(1) under the Securities Act) of the issuer, such holder may resell such securities without registration pursuant to and in accordance with the applicable provisions of Rule 144 under the Securities Act (other than the holding period requirement in Rule 144(d) applicable to "restricted securities") or another available exemption under the Securities Act. In addition, such persons will also be entitled to resell such securities in transactions registered under the Securities Act following the effectiveness of an applicable registration statement, if one is filed with the SEC and becomes effective. Further, subject to the transfer provisions, if any, and other applicable provisions set forth in the New Organizational Documents, such section 1145 exempt securities generally may be resold without registration under state securities laws pursuant to various exemptions provided by the respective laws of the several states.

The offer, issuance, and distribution under the Plan of the New Notes shall be exempt, without further act or actions by any Entity, from registration under the Securities Act and any other applicable securities laws as a private placement pursuant to section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act and/or the safe harbor of Regulation D promulgated thereunder. All New Notes issued pursuant to the exemption from registration set forth in section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act and/or the safe harbor of Regulation D promulgated thereunder shall be considered "restricted securities" and may not be transferred except pursuant to an effective registration statement or under an available exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act, such as, under certain conditions, the resale provisions of Rule 144 or Rule 144A under the Securities Act, subject to, in each case, the transfer provisions, if any, and other applicable provisions set forth in the New Notes Documents and the New Investment Documents, as applicable.

2. Exemption for Issuances to Underwriters

The offer, sale, issuance, and distribution under the Plan of any New Common Equity issued to an Entity that is an "underwriter" with respect to such securities, as that term is defined in section 1145(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, shall be exempt from registration under the Securities Act and any other applicable securities laws in reliance on the exemption from registration set forth in section 4(a)(2) under the Securities Act (and on applicable state law registration exemptions) and/or Regulation D promulgated thereunder (and on the preemption of state law registration requirements afforded thereby) or, solely to the extent such exemptions are not available, other available exemptions from registration under the Securities Act. Such securities will be considered "restricted securities" and may not be transferred except pursuant to an effective registration statement or under an available exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act, such as, under certain conditions, the resale provisions of Rule 144 under the Securities Act, subject to, in each case, the transfer provisions, if any, and other applicable provisions set forth in the New Organizational Documents.

F. Appellate Litigation, Potential Remedies Order and Legends

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, in the event that any party obtains a Potential Remedies Order in connection with the Appellate Litigation, the New Common Equity and New Convertible Takeback Notes and the holders thereof (including their successors, assignees or transferees) shall be subject to, and required to comply with, such Potential Remedies Order. The New Common Equity and New Convertible Takeback Notes and each recipient of New Common Equity and/or New Convertible Takeback Notes issued on account of 1L Notes Claims or 2026 Notes Claims (including all successors, assigns and transferees of the initial recipients) shall remain subject to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court (and any appellate court therefrom).

Nothing in this Plan, nor the references to, or definition of, Potential Remedies Order herein, shall (i) be construed as limiting, prejudicing, evidencing, advocating, or prescribing any particular remedy, and any determination on remedy shall be made exclusively by a court of competent jurisdiction or (ii) limit any party from seeking any other remedy or contesting any remedy (including a remedy effectuated through a Potential Remedies Order); provided, that: (x) it is expressly contemplated by this Plan and agreed by and among the 2024/2026 Appellate Litigation Parties and the First Lien Appellate Litigation Parties that Turnover is an available remedy to any court of competent jurisdiction and no party shall argue in any proceeding related to the Appellate Litigation that Turnover is not an available remedy; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, such agreement shall not be construed as prescribing any particular remedy; (y) the 2024/2026 Appellate Litigation Parties and the First Lien Appellate Litigation Parties will not argue that any particular remedy is unavailable because it was not adequately disclosed or developed in the Plan, Definitive Documents, or the securities issued under the Plan; and (z) the 2024/2026 Appellate Litigation Parties and the First Lien Appellate Litigation Parties may urge any court to consider tax implications with respect to any remedy, including with respect to any Potential Remedies Order.

A Potential Remedies Order may be (i) requested by any Entity seeking to receive any portion of such Excess Distribution and (ii) effectuated (solely to the extent so ordered by the court), through a deemed transfer or turnover (without any action by the holders thereof) and reflected through an adjustment to any applicable register reflecting the ownership of New Common Equity and New Convertible Takeback Notes and/or the reissuance of any certificated securities, as applicable.

After entry of a Potential Remedies Order, the Reorganized Debtors or any agent for the Reorganized Debtors or the holders of New Common Equity or New Convertible Takeback Notes issued by the Reorganized Debtor may seek further orders related to the Potential Remedies Order in order to effectuate such Potential Remedies Order and may take all steps necessary to effectuate such Potential Remedies Order, including instructing the registrar to reflect the ownership of New Common Equity and New Convertible Takeback Notes consistent with such Potential Remedies Order.

The Appellate Litigation Parties will receive the same class of securities as each other. The New Convertible Takeback Notes Documents and the New Organizational Documents shall provide that the New Convertible Takeback Notes and the New Common Equity, in each case, issued on account of 1L Notes Claims or 2026 Notes Claims (including New Common Equity issued on account of the conversion of any New Convertible Takeback Notes issued on account of 1L Notes Claims or 2026 Notes Claims) shall (a) be in registered / book-entry form only and contain the applicable restrictive legends set forth below identifying the Claims on account of which such New Convertible Takeback Notes or New Common Equity, as applicable, were issued on the Effective Date, (b) be subject to record-keeping to facilitate tracing through certificated or book-entry shares, (c) remain subject to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court (and any appellate court therefrom) and (d) be transferable with notice to the Reorganized Debtors but without any consent required by the holders thereof to transferees that (i) execute a written joinder or other agreement making such transferees subject to the terms and conditions of the Definitive Documents governing the New Common Equity and New Convertible Takeback Notes (including consent to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court) and (ii) satisfy the requirements set forth in the New Organizational Documents.

The New Notes issued pursuant to section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act and/or the safe harbor of Regulation D promulgated thereunder, and certificates, as applicable, evidencing such New Notes will bear (or each book-entry position will be deemed to bear) a legend substantially in the form below:

THE SECURITIES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE HAVE NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED, OR APPLICABLE STATE SECURITIES LAWS, AND ACCORDINGLY THE SECURITIES REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE MAY NOT BE OFFERED, SOLD OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED IN THE ABSENCE OF SUCH REGISTRATION OR AN APPLICABLE EXEMPTION THEREFROM.

The applicable New Organizational Documents evidencing the New Common Equity and the New Common Equity issued thereunder, and certificates, as applicable, evidencing such New Common Equity, in each case, will bear a legend substantially in the form below:

THE SECURITIES [DESCRIBED HEREIN] // [REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE] HAVE BEEN ISSUED IN RELIANCE UPON AN EXEMPTION FROM THE REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS OF SECTION 5 OF THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE "SECURITIES ACT") PROVIDED BY SECTION 1145 OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE, 11 U.S.C. 1145 (THE "BANKRUPTCY CODE") OR IN THE CASE OF AN "UNDERWRITER," AS DEFINED IN SECTION 1145(B)(1) OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE, ANOTHER EXEMPTION FROM THE REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS OF SECTION 5 OF THE SECURITIES ACT. THESE SECURITIES MAY BE OFFERED, SOLD OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED WITHOUT REGISTRATION UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT; PROVIDED THAT THE HOLDER IS NOT DEEMED TO BE AN UNDERWRITER AS SUCH TERM IS DEFINED IN SECTION 1145(B)(1) OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE. THE SECURITIES [DESCRIBED HEREIN] // [REPRESENTED BY THIS CERTIFICATE] HAVE NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OR ANY LOCAL OR STATE SECURITIES LAWS, AND TO THE EXTENT THE HOLDER OF SUCH UNITS IS AN "UNDERWRITER," AS DEFINED IN SECTION 1145(B)(1) OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE, SUCH SECURITIES MAY NOT BE OFFERED, SOLD OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED IN THE ABSENCE OF SUCH REGISTRATION OR AN APPLICABLE EXEMPTION THEREFROM.

In addition, any New Convertible Takeback Notes and New Common Equity, and certificates, as applicable, evidencing such securities, issued on account of 2026 Notes Claims will bear a legend substantially in the form below:

POTENTIAL REMEDIES ORDER

THESE SECURITIES WERE DISTRIBUTED UNDER THE FURTHER MODIFIED SECOND AMENDED JOINT CHAPTER 11 PLAN OF WESCO AIRCRAFT HOLDINGS, INC., ET AL. ("THE CHAPTER 11 PLAN") IN THE CHAPTER 11 CASES FOR WESCO AIRCRAFT HOLDINGS, INC. AND ITS AFFILIATED DEBTORS IN THE U.S. BANKRUPTCY COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS (CASE NO. 23-90611 (MI)) ON ACCOUNT OF 2026 NOTES CLAIMS (AS DEFINED IN THE CHAPTER 11 PLAN). THESE SECURITIES

ARE SUBJECT TO THE TERMS OF THE CHAPTER 11 PLAN AND ANY APPELLATE LITIGATION, INCLUDING THE SUBJECT STANDING MOTION CLAIMS (AS DEFINED IN THE CHAPTER 11 PLAN), AND POTENTIAL REMEDIES ORDER (AS DEFINED IN THE CHAPTER 11 PLAN).

UPON THE ISSUANCE OF A POTENTIAL REMEDIES ORDER, THESE SECURITIES MAY, TO THE EXTENT REQUIRED BY SUCH ORDER, BE SUBJECT TO TURNOVER, RESCISSION, CANCELLATION OR ANY OTHER REMEDY, AND ANY SUCH REMEDY MAY ALTER THE ENTITLEMENT TO, OR THE VALUE OF THE INVESTMENT IN, THESE SECURITIES. A POTENTIAL REMEDIES ORDER, AND ANY REMEDY ORDERED IN CONNECTION THEREWITH, MAY BE EFFECTUATED WITHOUT ANY FURTHER ACTION BY THE HOLDER.

In addition, any New Convertible Takeback Notes and New Common Equity, and certificates, as applicable, evidencing such securities, issued on account of 1L Notes Claims will bear a legend substantially in the form below:

POTENTIAL REMEDIES ORDER

THESE SECURITIES WERE DISTRIBUTED UNDER THE FURTHER MODIFIED SECOND AMENDED JOINT CHAPTER 11 PLAN OF WESCO AIRCRAFT HOLDINGS, INC., ET AL. ("THE CHAPTER 11 PLAN") IN THE CHAPTER 11 CASES FOR WESCO AIRCRAFT HOLDINGS, INC. AND ITS AFFILIATED DEBTORS IN THE U.S. BANKRUPTCY COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS (CASE NO. 23-90611 (MI)) ON ACCOUNT OF 1L NOTES CLAIMS (AS DEFINED IN THE CHAPTER 11 PLAN). THESE SECURITIES ARE SUBJECT TO THE TERMS OF THE CHAPTER 11 PLAN AND ANY APPELLATE LITIGATION, INCLUDING THE SUBJECT STANDING MOTION CLAIMS (AS DEFINED IN THE CHAPTER 11 PLAN), AND POTENTIAL REMEDIES ORDER (AS DEFINED IN THE CHAPTER 11 PLAN).

UPON THE ISSUANCE OF A POTENTIAL REMEDIES ORDER, THESE SECURITIES MAY, TO THE EXTENT REQUIRED BY SUCH ORDER, BE SUBJECT TO TURNOVER, RESCISSION, CANCELLATION OR ANY OTHER REMEDY, AND ANY SUCH REMEDY MAY ALTER THE ENTITLEMENT TO, OR THE VALUE OF THE INVESTMENT IN, THESE SECURITIES. A POTENTIAL REMEDIES ORDER, AND ANY REMEDY ORDERED IN CONNECTION THEREWITH, MAY BE EFFECTUATED WITHOUT ANY FURTHER ACTION BY THE HOLDER.

G. DTC

Should the Debtors (with the consent of the Required 1L Noteholders) or the Reorganized Debtors elect on or after the Effective Date to reflect any ownership of the New Common Equity and/or the New Notes through the facilities of DTC, the Reorganized Debtors need not provide any further evidence other than the Plan or the Confirmation Order with respect to the treatment of transfers, exercise, removal of restrictions, or conversion of New Common Equity and/or New Notes under applicable U.S. federal, state or local securities laws.

DTC shall be required to accept and conclusively rely upon the Plan and Confirmation Order in lieu of a legal opinion regarding whether the New Common Equity and/or the New Notes are exempt from registration and/or eligible for DTC book-entry delivery, settlement and depository services. Each Entity that becomes a holder of New Common Equity and/or New Notes indirectly through the facilities of DTC will be deemed bound by the terms and conditions of the applicable New Organizational Documents or New Notes Documents and shall be deemed to be a beneficial owner of New Common Equity and/or New Notes subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable New Organizational Documents and New Notes Documents.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, no Entity (including, for the avoidance of doubt, DTC) may require a legal opinion regarding the validity of any transaction contemplated by the Plan, including, for the avoidance of doubt, whether the New Common Equity and/or the New Notes are exempt from registration and/or eligible for DTC book-entry delivery, settlement and depository services.

For the avoidance of doubt, the New Convertible Takeback Notes and the New Common Equity issued on account of 1L Notes Claims and 2026 Notes Claims will initially be held in registered / book-entry form only and not through the facilities of DTC for so long as such securities bear a legend with respect to a Potential Remedies Order (unless the Reorganized Debtors elect otherwise).

H. Compliance with Tax Requirements

In connection with the Plan, to the extent applicable, the Reorganized Debtors and the Disbursing Agent shall comply with all tax withholding and reporting requirements imposed on them by any Governmental Unit, and all distributions pursuant to the Plan shall be subject to such withholding and reporting requirements. Notwithstanding any provision in the Plan to the contrary, the Reorganized Debtors and the Disbursing Agent shall be authorized to take all actions necessary or appropriate to comply with such withholding and reporting requirements, including withholding distributions pending receipt of information necessary to facilitate such distributions or establishing any other mechanisms they believe are reasonable and appropriate. The Reorganized Debtors reserve the right to allocate all distributions made under the Plan in compliance with all applicable wage garnishments, alimony, child support and other spousal awards, liens, and encumbrances. Notwithstanding the above, each holder of an Allowed Claim or Allowed Interest that is to receive a distribution under the Plan shall have the sole and exclusive responsibility for the satisfaction and payment of any tax obligations imposed on such holder by any Governmental Unit, including income, withholding, and other tax obligations, on account of such distribution. The Debtors have the right, but not the obligation, to not make a distribution until such holder has made arrangements satisfactory to any issuing or disbursing party for payment of any such tax obligations. The Debtors may require, as a condition to receipt of a distribution, that the holder of an Allowed Claim complete and return a Form W-8 or W-9 or similar form, as applicable to each such holder.

ARTICLE VIII.
PROVISIONS RELATING TO RELEASES, EXCULPATIONS, AND INJUNCTIONS

A. COMPROMISE AND SETTLEMENT

The Confirmation Order will constitute the Bankruptcy Court's approval of the settlements reflected in the Plan, including the Debtor Release and the Third-Party Release, and further, shall constitute the Bankruptcy Court's finding and determination that such settlements, including the Debtor Release and the Third-Party Release are (a) by conferring substantial benefits on the Debtors' Estates, an exercise of the Debtors' business judgment and in the best interests of the Debtors, their Estates, and all holders of Claims and Interests; (b) fair, equitable, and reasonable; (c) made in good faith; (d) in exchange for the good and valuable consideration and substantial contributions provided by the Released Parties; (e) an integral and non-severable element of the Plan and the transactions incorporated therein, and essential to the Confirmation and Consummation of the Plan; (f) given and made after due notice and opportunity for hearing; and (g) a bar to any Entity asserting any Released Claim. In addition, the allowance, classification, and treatment of any Allowed Claims of a Released Party take into account any Released Claim that may exist between the Debtors and any Released Party and, as of the Effective Date, any and all such Released Claims are settled, compromised, and released as set forth in the Plan. The Confirmation Order shall authorize and approve the releases of the Released Parties by all Entities and Persons of all the Released Claims that are satisfied, compromised, and settled pursuant to this Plan. Except as expressly set forth in the Plan (including the waiver and release of Released Preference Actions as set forth in Article IV.G), nothing in the Plan shall compromise or settle, in any way whatsoever, (x) any Causes of Action against any Excluded Party or any other Entity that is not a Released Party; (y) any Causes of Action that are preserved pursuant to Article IV.G; or (z) any Causes of Action included on the Schedule of Retained Cause of Action.

In accordance with the provisions of the Plan, and pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019, without any further notice to, or action, order, or approval of, the Bankruptcy Court, after the Effective Date, the applicable Reorganized Debtors may, subject to the rights of the General Unsecured Claims Observer (to the extent applicable), compromise and settle (1) Claims (including Causes of Action) against and Interests in the Debtors not previously Allowed (if any) and (2) claims (including Causes of Action) held by the Reorganized Debtors against other Entities.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the settlement and release of the Subject Standing Motion Claims in the 2024/2026 Holders' Standing Motion shall remain subject to Article IV.A.

B. Discharge of Claims and Termination of Interests

The discharge provisions set forth in this Article VIII.B are binding on all Persons and Entities, and are enforceable through the injunction provisions set forth below at Article VIII.G.

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, effective as of the Effective Date of each applicable Debtor: (a) the rights afforded in the Plan and the treatment of all Claims and Interests shall be in exchange for and in complete satisfaction, discharge, and release of all claims and interests of any nature whatsoever, including any interest accrued on such claims from and after the Petition Date, against the applicable Debtors or any of their assets, property, or estates; (b) the Plan shall bind all holders of Claims against and Interests in the Debtors, notwithstanding whether any such holders failed to vote to accept or reject the Plan or voted to reject the Plan; (c) all Claims and Interests shall be satisfied, discharged, and released in full, and the Debtors' liability with respect thereto shall be extinguished completely, including any liability of the kind specified under section 502(g) of the Bankruptcy Code; and (d) all Entities shall be precluded from asserting against the Debtors, the Debtors' Estates, the applicable Reorganized Debtors, their successors and assigns and their assets and properties any other Claims or Interests based upon any documents, instruments, or any act or omission, transaction, or other activity of any kind or nature that occurred before the Effective Date.

C. Release of Liens

The lien release provisions set forth in this Article VIII.C are binding on all Persons and Entities, and are enforceable through the injunction provisions set forth below at Article VIII.G.

Except as otherwise expressly provided in the Plan, or in any contract, instrument, release, or other agreement or document that is created, amended, ratified, entered into, or Reinstated pursuant to the Plan (including the New Debt Documents), on the Effective Date, concurrently with the applicable distributions made pursuant to the Plan and the effectiveness of the New Debt Documents, and without any further approval or order of the Bankruptcy Court and without any action or filing being required to be made by the Debtors:

1. all mortgages, deeds of trust, Liens, pledges, or other security interests against any property of the Estates shall be fully released and discharged, and all of the right, title, and interest of any holder of such mortgages, deeds of trust, Liens, pledges, or other security interests shall revert to the Reorganized Debtors and each of their successors and assigns,

2. the DIP Agent and the Prepetition Agents shall be directed (as if directed by the applicable percentage of lenders and/or noteholders required under the DIP Documents and the Prepetition Debt Documents) to release any such mortgages, deeds of trust, Liens, pledges, or other security interests held by such holder and to take such actions as may be requested by the Reorganized Debtors, the New Revolver Facility Agent or the New Notes Indenture Trustees to evidence the release of such mortgages, deeds of trust, Liens, pledges, or other security interests, including the execution, delivery, and filing or recording of any related releases or discharges as may be requested by the Reorganized Debtors, the New Revolver Facility Agent or the New Notes Indenture Trustees, or as may be required in order to effectuate the foregoing, in each case, at the Reorganized Debtors' cost and expense, and

3. the Reorganized Debtors (and any of their respective agents, attorneys, or designees) shall be authorized to execute and file on behalf of creditors Form UCC-3 termination statements, intellectual property assignments, mortgage or deed of trust releases, or such other forms or release documents in any jurisdiction as may be necessary or appropriate to evidence such releases and implement the provisions of this Article VIII.C, including, for the avoidance of doubt, with respect to the DIP Notes.

The presentation or filing of the Confirmation Order to or with any federal, state, local or non-U.S. agency or department shall constitute good and sufficient evidence of, but shall not be required to effect, the termination of such mortgages, deeds of trust, Liens, pledges, or other security interests.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the releases set forth above shall not release (a) to the extent that any Causes of Action against any Releasing Party are not released or discharged pursuant to the Plan, any rights of such Releasing Party to assert any and all counterclaims, crossclaims, offsets, indemnities, claims for contribution, defenses, and similar claims in response to such Causes of Action (provided that, except as set forth in Article V.D.2, no such counterclaims, crossclaims, offsets, indemnities, claims for contribution, defenses, or similar claims may be asserted against the Debtors, or the Reorganized Debtors or any Released Party to the extent such claims have been released or discharged pursuant to the Plan (subject to Article IV.A.2)), (b) any Cause of Action (other than any Cause of Action against the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, or any Related Party of the Reorganized Debtors) unknown to such Releasing Party as of the Effective Date that arises out of actual fraud, or gross negligence of an Entity other than such Releasing Party, (c) any Cause of Action against any Excluded Party, (d) any post-Effective Date obligations of any Entity under the Plan, any Restructuring Transaction, any Definitive Document (including those set forth in the Plan Supplement), or other document, instrument or agreement executed to implement the Plan, (e) the right of any Releasing Party to receive any distribution under the Plan or payment of any Cure Claim, (f) any Cause of Action under or relating to any cooperation agreement entered by and between (i) the funds and/or accounts, or subsidiaries of such funds and/or accounts, managed, advised or controlled by (x) Pacific Investment Management Company LLC, or a subsidiary thereof and/or (y) Silver Point Capital, L.P., or a subsidiary thereof and (ii) any other parties who were holders or purported holders of 2024 Unsecured Notes and/or 2026 Notes at the time of such agreement, (g) any Cause of Action (other than any Subject Standing Motion Claim as set forth in clause (h) of this paragraph, or other Cause of Action released by the Debtors or their Estates) held by and against holders of 1L Notes Claims, 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims and/or 2026 Notes Claims asserted raised, litigated, or otherwise preserved in the Financing Litigation Proceedings, including as such asserted, raised, litigated, or otherwise preserved Causes of Action may be asserted in the Appellate Litigation, or (h) only in the event the 2024/2026 Appellate Litigation Parties are granted derivative standing or found to have direct standing as to any Subject Standing Motion Claims in accordance with Article IV.A.2 or, with respect to the 2024/2026 Holders' Equitable Lien Claim and 2024/2026 Holders' Equitable Subordination Claim, in connection with an appeal of the Adversary Proceeding Decisions in the Appellate Litigation, any such Subject Standing Motion Claim for which the 2024/2026 Appellate Litigation Parties are found to have standing to assert; provided further, that, for the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Plan shall (i) result in the Debtors being deemed to have abandoned any Causes of Action, or (ii) be deemed to impair, release, waive or limit in any way the Tortious Interference Claim (or any remedy associated with such Cause of Action) or any Cause of Action asserted or assertable in response thereto.]

Nothing in this Article VIII.E. is intended to waive, limit, or otherwise alter the res judicata, collateral estoppel or other issue or claim preclusion effect of the 2022 Financing Adversary Proceeding, nor does anything in this Article VIII.E waive, limit or otherwise alter in any way any potential remedy resulting from or related to the Appellate Litigation, including any Potential Remedies Order, and no release of any Cause of Action shall in any way prejudice, waive, limit, or impair any argument, position, or defense in the Appellate Litigation.

For the avoidance of doubt, Langur Maize shall be deemed to have opted out of the Third-Party Release and shall not be Releasing Parties or Released Parties.

F. EXCULPATION

The exculpation provisions set forth in this Article VIII.F are binding on all Persons and Entities, and are enforceable through the injunction provisions set forth below at Article VIII.G.

Without affecting or limiting the releases set forth in Article VIII.D and Article VIII.E, and notwithstanding anything in the Plan to the contrary, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, no Exculpated Party shall have or incur, and each Exculpated Party shall be released and exculpated from, any claim or Cause of Action arising during the period from the Petition Date to the Effective Date (and following the Effective Date solely with respect to any issuance or distribution of securities, the distribution of any property, or the implementation of the Restructuring, each pursuant to and in accordance with the Plan) in connection with or arising out of the administration of the Chapter 11 Cases; the negotiation and pursuit of the DIP Financing; the Restructuring Support Agreement; the New Notes; the New Revolver Facility; the Plan (including the Plan Supplement); the Disclosure Statement; the Financing Litigation; the Restructuring Transactions; the solicitation of votes for, or confirmation of the Plan; any settlement or other acts approved by the Bankruptcy Court; the funding of the Plan; Consummation of the Plan; the administration and implementation of the Plan or the property to be distributed under the Plan; the issuance or distribution of securities under or in connection with the Plan; the issuance, distribution, purchase, sale, or rescission of the purchase or sale of any security of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors under or in connection with the Plan; or the transactions in furtherance of any of the foregoing (collectively, the "Covered Exculpation Matters"); provided that the foregoing shall not be deemed to release, affect, or limit any post-Effective Date rights or obligations of the Exculpated Parties under the Plan (including the Plan Supplement), the New Financing, any Restructuring Transaction, or any Definitive Document, or other document, instrument, or agreement executed to implement the Plan.

Each Exculpated Party shall be entitled in all respects to rely reasonably (and to have relied reasonably) on the advice of counsel with respect to the Exculpated Party's duties and responsibilities. The Exculpated Parties have, and upon implementation of the Plan, shall be deemed to have, participated in good faith and in compliance with the applicable laws with regard to the solicitation of, and distribution of, consideration pursuant to the Plan and, therefore, are not, and on account of such distributions shall not be, liable at any time for the violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing the solicitation of acceptances or rejections of the Plan or such distributions made pursuant to the Plan. This exculpation shall be in addition to, and not in limitation of, all other releases, indemnities, exculpations, and any other applicable laws, rules, or regulations protecting such Exculpated Parties from liability.

The exculpations set forth in this Article VIII.F do not apply to any Causes of Action arising out of or relating to any act or omission of an Exculpated Party that is determined by a Final Order of a court of competent jurisdiction to have constituted gross negligence, willful misconduct, or actual fraud on the part of the Exculpated Party.

G. INJUNCTIONS

The injunctions set forth in this Article VIII.G are binding on all Persons and Entities, and enjoin certain conduct not otherwise enjoined under the Bankruptcy Code.

Upon entry of the Confirmation Order, all Persons and Entities shall be ENJOINED from taking any actions to interfere with the implementation or consummation of the Plan, or the vesting of the Estates' assets in, and the enjoyment of such assets by, the Reorganized Debtors pursuant to this Plan.

Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Plan or in the Confirmation Order, all Persons and Entities are permanently ENJOINED, from and after the Effective Date, from commencing or continuing any action, the employment of process, or any other act, to pursue, collect, recover or offset any Claim, Interest, debt, obligation or Cause of Action that has been extinguished, discharged, released or made subject to exculpation under this Plan (the "Covered Matters"), whether against the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, (solely with respect to the Releasing Parties) the Released Parties, or the Exculpated Parties (the "Covered Entities"). The acts enjoined by the foregoing injunction include any act to:

1. enforce, attach, collect, or recover by any manner or means any judgment, award, decree, or order against a Covered Entity or any of the property or interests in property of a Covered Entity on account of or in connection with or with respect to any Covered Matter;

2. create, renew, perfect, or enforce any lien or encumbrance of any kind against a Covered Entity or any of the property or interests in property of a Covered Entity on account of or in connection with or with respect to any Covered Matter; or

3. assert any right of setoff, subrogation, or recoupment of any kind against any obligation due from a Covered Entity or from any of the property or interests in property of a Covered Entity on account of or in connection with or with respect to any Covered Matter, unless the Person or Entity holding such setoff, subrogation or recoupment right has asserted such a right and has expressly stated its intent to preserve its right in a document filed with the Bankruptcy Court and served on the Debtors and the applicable Covered Entity no later than the earlier of (x) 28 calendar days after entry of the Confirmation Order and (y) the Effective Date.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, no Entity shall treat, or cause any other Entity to treat, any stock (within the meaning of Section 382(g)(4)(D) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended) of any Debtor held by any 50-Percent Shareholder as "becoming worthless" (within the meaning of Section 382(g)(4)(D) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended), with respect to any taxable year ending prior to the Effective Date.

With respect to any Covered Entity, no Entity or Person may commence or continue any action, employ any process, or take any other act to pursue, collect, recover or offset any Claim, Interest, debt, obligation, or Cause of Action relating or reasonably likely to relate to any act or omission in connection with, relating to, or arising out of a Covered Released Matter, Covered Matter, or Covered Exculpation Matter (including one that alleges the actual fraud, gross negligence, or willful misconduct of a Covered Entity), unless expressly authorized by the Bankruptcy Court after (1) it determines that, after notice and a hearing, such Claim, Interest, debt, obligation, or Cause of Action is colorable and (2) it specifically authorizes such Entity or Person to bring such Claim or Cause of Action; provided, however, that, for the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this paragraph requires, precludes, and/or prohibits an Insurer to or from administering, handling, defending, settling and/or paying claims covered by any Insurance Policies in accordance with and subject to the terms and conditions of such Insurance Policies and/or applicable non-bankruptcy law. The Bankruptcy Court shall have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether any such Claim, Interest, debt, obligation, or Cause of Action is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI, shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate such underlying colorable Claim, Interest, debt, obligation, or Cause of Action. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this paragraph shall not apply to the Langur Maize Retained Causes of Action.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the injunction does not enjoin (1) the parties to the Appellate Litigation from prosecuting or defending the Appellate Litigation (other than the 2024/2026 Holders' Standing Motion), (2) the 2024/2026 Appellate Litigation Parties from prosecuting the 2024/2026 Holders' Standing Motion solely in accordance with Article IV.A. or any party from opposing the 2024/2026 Holders' Standing Motion, or (3) any Entity from prosecuting any action to enforce the terms of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, any Potential Remedies Order, any other Definitive Document, or other document, instrument, or agreement executed to implement this Plan, the Confirmation Order or any other Definitive Document. The injunctions set forth in this Article VIII.G shall extend to any successors of the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, the Released Parties, the Exculpated Parties and all of their respective property and interests in property.

H. SUBORDINATION RIGHTS

The classification and manner of satisfying all Claims and Interests under the Plan take into consideration all subordination rights, whether arising under general principles of equitable subordination, contract, section 510(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, or otherwise, that a holder of a Claim or Interest may have against other Claim or Interest holders with respect to any distribution made pursuant to the Plan. Except as provided in the Plan (including, for the avoidance of doubt, Article IV.A.2), all subordination rights that a holder of a Claim may have with respect to any distribution to be made pursuant to the Plan shall be discharged and terminated, and all actions related to the enforcement of such subordination rights shall be permanently enjoined.

ARTICLE XII.
MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

A. EFFECT OF PLAN

1. Reservation of Rights

Except as expressly set forth in the Plan, the Plan shall have no force or effect unless the Bankruptcy Court enters the Confirmation Order, and the Confirmation Order shall have no force or effect as to a Debtor if the Effective Date does not occur as to such Debtor. None of the filing of the Plan, any statement or provision contained in the Plan, or the taking of any action by any Debtor with respect to the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, or the Plan Supplement shall be or shall be deemed to be an admission or waiver of any rights of any Debtor with respect to the holders of Claims or Interests before Consummation.

2. Immediate Binding Effect

Subject to Article IX.A and notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 3020(e), 6004(h), or 7062 or otherwise, upon Consummation, the terms of the Plan shall be immediately effective and enforceable and binding upon the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, and any and all holders of Claims or Interests (irrespective of whether such Claims or Interests are deemed to have accepted the Plan), all Entities that are party, or subject to, the settlements, compromises, releases, discharges, and injunctions described in the Plan, each Entity acquiring property under the Plan, and any and all of the Debtors' counterparties to Executory Contracts and/or Unexpired Leases and any other prepetition agreements.

3. Entire Agreement

Except as otherwise indicated, the Plan (including the Plan Supplement) supersedes all previous and contemporaneous negotiations, promises, covenants, agreements, understandings, and representations on such subjects, all of which have become merged and integrated into the Plan.

4. Successors and Assigns

The rights, benefits, and obligations of any Entity named or referred to in the Plan shall be binding on, and shall inure to the benefit of any heir, executor, administrator, successor or assign, affiliate, officer, director, agent, representative, attorney, beneficiaries, or guardian, if any, of each Entity.

5. Termination of Injunctions and Stays

Unless otherwise provided in the Plan or in the Confirmation Order, all injunctions or stays in effect in the Chapter 11 Cases pursuant to sections 105 or 362 of the Bankruptcy Code or any order of the Bankruptcy Court, and existing on the Confirmation Date (excluding any injunctions or stays contained in the Plan or the Confirmation Order) shall remain in full force and effect until the Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, (a) upon the Effective Date, the automatic stay pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 362 of any litigation proceedings against or involving the applicable Debtors shall terminate and (b) all injunctions or stays contained in the Plan or the Confirmation Order shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with their terms.

6. Votes Solicited in Good Faith

Upon Confirmation, the Debtors shall be deemed to have solicited votes on the Plan in good faith and in compliance with the Bankruptcy Code and, pursuant to section 1125(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors and their respective affiliates, agents, representatives, members, principals, shareholders, officers, directors, employees, advisors, and attorneys shall be deemed to have participated in good faith and in compliance with the Bankruptcy Code in the offer, issuance, sale, and purchase of securities offered and sold under the Plan and any previous plan, and, therefore, none of any such parties or individuals or the Reorganized Debtors will have any liability for the violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing the solicitation of votes on the Plan or the offer, issuance, sale, or purchase of the securities offered and sold under the Plan and any previous plan.

7. Dissolution of the Committee

On the Effective Date, the Committee shall dissolve, and its members and the Retained Professionals of the Committee shall be released and discharged of and from all further authority, duties, responsibilities, and obligations related to and arising from and in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases, except with respect to any continuing confidentiality obligations; provided, however, that, the Committee shall continue to exist after the Effective Date and have standing and a right to be heard for the limited purpose of applications, and any relief related thereto, for payment of Retained Professional Fees of Retained Professionals of the Committee.

8. Closing of Chapter 11 Cases

On and after the Effective Date, all of the Chapter 11 Cases of the Debtors shall be deemed closed except for one of the Chapter 11 Cases as determined by the Reorganized Debtors, and all contested matters and adversary proceedings relating to any of the Debtors (including Claim objections) shall be administered and heard in such Chapter 11 Case, irrespective of whether the contested matter or adversary proceeding was commenced against a Debtor whose Chapter 11 Case was closed. Upon the occurrence of the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors shall be permitted to change the name of the remaining Debtor and case caption of the remaining open Chapter 11 Case as desired, in the Reorganized Debtors' sole discretion.

The Reorganized Debtors may at any time seek to close any remaining Chapter 11 Case in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code and the Bankruptcy Rules.

9. Appellate Litigation

The treatment provided under this Plan on the Effective Date on account of 1L Notes Claims (including New Money Claims), 2026 Notes Claims, and 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims is based on the Bankruptcy Court's rulings in the 2022 Financing Adversary Proceeding. The 2024/2026 Appellate Litigation Parties and First Lien Appellate Litigation Parties agree that they are each aggrieved parties with respect to such rulings such that they each have the right to (a) appeal or otherwise challenge the 2022 Financing Adversary Proceeding rulings directly by way of the Appellate Litigation, irrespective of whether they were named in a particular count or Cause of Action that was adjudicated against the Debtors (or whether the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors themselves are appellants), and (b) defend against any such appeal or other challenge in the Appellate Litigation, as the case may be. For the avoidance of doubt, the 2024/2026 Appellate Litigation Parties and First Lien Appellate Litigation Parties preserve all of their respective rights in connection with such Appellate Litigation and in the event the 2022 Adversary Proceeding is remanded for further proceedings.[10] Additionally, the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, will file a notice of appeal and file a joinder to the arguments of the First Lien Appellate Litigation Parties solely to eliminate any doubt about those parties' ability to prosecute their appeal and will agree to waive any further participation in the appeal. The First Lien Appellate Litigation Parties will not argue in the Appellate Litigation that the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors have joined in their argument other than to argue that such joinder eliminates any doubt about their ability to prosecute the Appellate Litigation. The 2024/2026 Appellate Litigation Parties will not argue that the Debtors' or the Reorganized Debtors' failure to take any steps or the Debtors' or the Reorganized Debtors' limited involvement in connection with its participation in the Appellate Litigation has any substantive effect or import. The 2024/2026 Appellate Litigation Parties and First Lien Appellate Litigation Parties further agree that none of the parties' rights or arguments will be limited in any way by the Debtors' or the Reorganized Debtors' non-involvement or limited involvement in the Appellate Litigation, and that the parties are entitled to raise, any and all arguments and defenses that were raised in the 2022 Financing Adversary Proceeding in the Appellate Litigation and in the event the case is remanded for further proceedings. The Debtors' or the Reorganized Debtors' non-involvement or limited involvement shall also not be construed as a waiver of any rights or consent to any portion of the Bankruptcy Court's ruling in the 2022 Financing Adversary Proceeding, or agreement or objection to any claims or arguments asserted by the parties.

For the avoidance of doubt, the 2024/2026 Appellate Litigation Parties and First Lien Appellate Litigation Parties will bear their own fees, expenses and costs of the Appellate Litigation, and the Reorganized Debtors shall not pay or reimburse such parties for their appellate expenses or otherwise indemnify such parties in connection with the appeal.

The Appellate Litigation Parties will request that the Bankruptcy Court issue a final decision, order and report and recommendation for all matters decided in the 2022 Financing Adversary Proceeding as between the 2024/2026 Noteholder Group (or any individual member thereof or its affiliated funds), on the one hand, and the Debtors and/or First Lien Noteholder Group (or any individual member thereof or its affiliated funds), on the other hand (including the Tortious Interference Claims and the March 2022 $250 million new money). For the avoidance of doubt, the Appellate Litigation Parties retain the right to file any motions for clarification or reconsideration (and to oppose such motions), which will be subject to terms set forth above regarding appeal. The Appellate Litigation Parties agree to jointly request that the appeal of any plan confirmation order and any matters decided in the 2022 Financing Adversary Proceeding as between the 2024/2026 Noteholder Group (or any individual member thereof or its affiliated funds) and the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, and/or First Lien Noteholder Group (or any individual member thereof or its affiliated funds) will be consolidated and briefed on the same schedule. In order to facilitate this coordination, the Appellate Litigation Parties also agree to request the Bankruptcy Court issue a final decision, order, and report and recommendation at its earliest practical convenience so as to facilitate a coordinated appeal with the Confirmation Order, and to stay, hold in abeyance, adjourn, or otherwise extend any interim deadlines to the extent necessary for any such appeals pending entry of the final decision, order and report and recommendation requested hereby. The Appellate Litigation Parties agree that this agreement shall apply during any intermediate appeal until a final non-appealable order.

For the avoidance of doubt, and notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the New Exit Notes and the Class 7a Settlement Equity Pool shall not be subject to the Appellate Litigation or any Potential Remedies Order.

B. CONTENTS OF PLAN

1. Exhibits

All exhibits, schedules, supplements, and appendices to the Plan (including any other documents to be executed, delivered, assumed, or performed in connection with Consummation of the Plan) are incorporated into and are a part of the Plan as if set forth in full in the Plan.

2. Non-Severability

Before Confirmation, if any term or provision of the Plan is held by the Bankruptcy Court to be invalid, void, or unenforceable, the Bankruptcy Court, at the request of the Debtors (with the consent of the Required 1L Noteholders and the Required 2026 Noteholders and in a manner consistent with the Specified Creditor Consent Rights (solely to the extent applicable)), shall have the power to alter and interpret such term or provision to make it valid or enforceable to the maximum extent practicable, consistent with the original purpose of the term or provision held to be invalid, void, or unenforceable, and such term or provision shall then be applicable as altered or interpreted. Notwithstanding any such holding, alteration, or interpretation, the remainder of the terms and provisions of the Plan will remain in full force and effect and will in no way be affected, impaired, or invalidated by such holding, alteration, or interpretation. Confirmation shall constitute a judicial determination and shall provide that each term and provision of the Plan, as it may have been altered or interpreted in accordance with the foregoing, is: (a) valid and enforceable pursuant to its terms; (b) integral to the Plan and may not be deleted or modified without consent of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, consistent with the terms set forth herein; and (c) non-severable and mutually dependent.

3. Conflicts

In the event of a conflict between the Plan and the Disclosure Statement, the terms of the Plan shall control in all respects. In the event of a conflict between the Plan (excluding the Plan Supplement) and the Plan Supplement, the terms of the relevant document in the Plan Supplement shall control (unless stated otherwise in such Plan Supplement document or in the Confirmation Order). In the event of a conflict between the Confirmation Order and the Plan (including the Plan Supplement), the Confirmation Order shall control.

ARTICLE II.
Administrative Expenses and Other Unclassified Claims

In accordance with section 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, DIP Financing Claims, other Administrative Expenses and Priority Tax Claims have not been classified and, thus, are excluded from the Classes of Claims and Interests set forth in Article III.

A. General Administrative Expenses

Each holder of an Allowed General Administrative Expense, to the extent its Allowed General Administrative Expense has not already been paid during the Chapter 11 Cases, shall receive, in full and final satisfaction of its General Administrative Expense, Cash equal to the Allowed amount of such General Administrative Expense in accordance with the following: (1) if such General Administrative Expense is Allowed as of the Effective Date, on or as soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Date (or, if not then due, when such Allowed General Administrative Expense is due or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter); (2) if such General Administrative Expense is not Allowed as of the Effective Date, no later than the first Business Day after the date that is thirty (30) calendar days after the date on which an order Allowing such General Administrative Expense becomes a Final Order, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter; (3) if such Allowed General Administrative Expense is based on liabilities incurred by the Debtors in the ordinary course of their business after the Petition Date, in accordance with the terms and conditions of the particular transaction giving rise to such Allowed General Administrative Expense without any further action by the holders of such Allowed General Administrative Expense; or (4) at such time and upon such terms as may be agreed upon by such holder and the Debtors (with the consent of the Required ~~Secured~~1L Noteholders) or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable.

Except as otherwise provided in this Article II.A, requests for payment of Allowed General Administrative Expenses must be filed with the Bankruptcy Court and served on the Reorganized Debtors pursuant to the procedures specified in the Confirmation Order and the notice of entry of the Confirmation Order no later than the General Administrative Expenses Bar Date. Holders of General Administrative Expenses that are required to, but do not, file and serve a request for payment of such General Administrative Expenses by the General Administrative Expenses Bar Date shall be forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from asserting such General Administrative Expenses against the Debtors or their property and such General Administrative Expenses shall be deemed discharged as of the Effective Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no request for payment of a General Administrative Expense need be filed with respect to a General Administrative Expense previously Allowed by Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court.

The Reorganized Debtors may settle General Administrative Expenses in the ordinary course of business without further notice and without further approval or an order of the Bankruptcy Court. The Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, may also choose to object to any General Administrative Expense no later than the General Administrative Expenses Objection Deadline, subject to extensions by the Bankruptcy Court or agreement in writing of the applicable parties. Unless the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors (or other party with standing) objects to a timely filed and properly served General Administrative Expense, such General Administrative Expense will be deemed Allowed in the amount requested. In the event that the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors object to a General Administrative Expense, the Debtors (with the consent of the Required ~~Secured~~1L Noteholders~~, not to be unreasonably withheld~~) or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, and the holder of such General Administrative Expense may confer to try to reach a settlement and, failing that, the Bankruptcy Court will determine whether such General Administrative Expense should be Allowed and, if so, in what amount.

~~Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan or the DIP Orders, no General Administrative Expense shall be Allowed pursuant to section 503(b)(3)(D), 503(b)(4), 503(b)(5) or 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.~~

B. Restructuring Expenses

The Debtors shall be obligated, jointly and severally, to pay all Restructuring Expenses in full in Cash, in accordance with the following procedures. No Restructuring Professional shall be required to comply with the U.S. Trustee fee guidelines or file an application seeking compensation for services or reimbursement of expenses with the Bankruptcy Court.

Any time that a Restructuring Professional seeks payment of Restructuring Expenses from the Debtors prior to Confirmation, such Restructuring Professional shall comply with the review procedures set forth in paragraph 17 of the Final DIP Order.

From and after the Confirmation Date, the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall, without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court or any other Entity, pay in Cash all Restructuring Expenses within ten (10) Business Days (or earlier, as provided below) after submission of an invoice to the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, which may be in the same summary form permitted under the Final DIP Order but without any requirement that any Restructuring Professional comply with such review procedures.

All Restructuring Expenses incurred, or estimated in good faith to be incurred, up to and including the Effective Date shall be paid in full in Cash on the Effective Date (to the extent not previously paid during the course of the Chapter 11 Cases). The Debtors shall inform each of the Restructuring Professionals of the anticipated Effective Date at least five (5) Business Days in advance. All Restructuring Expenses to be paid on the Effective Date shall be estimated prior to and as of the Effective Date and such estimates shall be delivered to the Debtors at least two (2) Business Days before the anticipated Effective Date; provided that such estimates shall not be considered to be admissions or limitations with respect to such Restructuring Expenses.

~~After the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors shall continue to pay, when due, pre- and post-Effective Date Restructuring Expenses, whether incurred before, on or after the Effective Date when due and payable in the ordinary course of business; provided that no Restructuring Expenses incurred after the Effective Date in connection with the Financing Litigation Proceedings (including any Appellate Litigation) shall be payable by the Reorganized Debtors.~~

Subject in all respects to the limitations on fees, expenses and costs set forth in Article XII.A.9, after the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors shall continue to pay, when due, pre- and post-Effective Date Restructuring Expenses solely to the extent related to implementation of the Plan and closing the Chapter 11 Cases, whether incurred before, on or after the Effective Date when due and payable in the ordinary course of business; provided that the Reorganized Debtors shall not be obligated to, and shall not, pay or reimburse the 2024/2026 Appellate Litigation Parties or the First Lien Appellate Litigation Parties for any fees, expenses, costs or any other amounts incurred in connection with the Financing Litigation Proceedings (including any Appellate Litigation) and all related matters and proceedings.

Except as provided in the definition of "Restructuring Expenses", the payment or reimbursement of Restructuring Expenses to Restructuring Professionals described in clauses (h) and (i) of the definition of "Restructuring Expenses" shall be subject to the conditions and limitations set forth in the Restructuring Support Agreement.

For the avoidance of doubt, the 2024/2026 Noteholder Group and the First Lien Noteholder Group (and, in each case, the members and affiliated funds thereof, as well as their respective successors, transferees and assigns) agree that neither party will assert any Administrative Expenses beyond (x) the Restructuring Expenses contemplated to be paid to such party described in clause (a) or (b) of "Restructuring Expenses" and (y) the DIP Financing Claims, as applicable.

C. Retained Professional Fees

1. Final Fee Applications

All final requests for payment of Retained Professional Fees incurred prior to the Effective Date must be filed with the Bankruptcy Court and served on the Reorganized Debtors, the U.S. Trustee, counsel to the Committee, and all other parties that have requested notice in these Chapter 11 Cases by no later than 60 calendar days after the Effective Date, unless the Reorganized Debtors agree otherwise in writing. Objections to Retained Professional Fees must be filed with the Bankruptcy Court and served on the Reorganized Debtors and the applicable Retained Professional within 21 calendar days after the filing of the applicable final fee application. After notice and a hearing in accordance with the procedures established by the Bankruptcy Code and any prior orders of the Bankruptcy Court in the Chapter 11 Cases, the Allowed amounts of all Retained Professional Fees shall be determined by the Bankruptcy Court and, once approved by the Bankruptcy Court, shall be paid in full in Cash from the Professional Fee Escrow Account as promptly as practicable; provided, however, that if the funds in the Professional Fee Escrow Account are insufficient to pay the full Allowed amounts of the Retained Professional Fees, the Reorganized Debtors shall promptly pay any remaining Allowed amounts from their Cash on hand. For the avoidance of doubt, upon the Effective Date, paragraph 20 of the Final DIP Order shall not prohibit the Debtors from paying, in accordance with the Plan, any Allowed Retained Professional Fees.

For the avoidance of doubt, the immediately preceding paragraph shall not affect any professional that the Debtors are permitted to pay in the ordinary course of business without specific authority from the Bankruptcy Court (or in accordance with any prior order of the Bankruptcy Court). The Debtors and Reorganized Debtors may continue to make such payments after Confirmation and the Effective Date.

2. Professional Fee Escrow Account

Each Retained Professional shall estimate its unpaid Retained Professional Fees, as of the Effective Date and shall deliver its estimate to the Debtors' counsel no later than three (3) Business Days before the anticipated Effective Date. A Retained Professional's estimate shall not be deemed to limit the Allowed amount of its Retained Professional Fees. If a Retained Professional does not provide an estimate, the Debtors may themselves estimate the unpaid and unbilled fees and expenses of such Retained Professional for purposes of funding the Professional Fee Escrow Account.

On the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors shall fund the Professional Fee Escrow Account in an amount equal to all asserted Claims for Retained Professional Fees incurred but unpaid as of the Effective Date (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any reasonable estimates for unbilled amounts provided prior to the Effective Date). The Professional Fee Escrow Account may be an interest-bearing account. Amounts held in the Professional Fee Escrow Account shall not constitute property of the Reorganized Debtors and shall be held in trust for the benefit of the Retained Professionals until all Retained Professional Fees have been paid in full in Cash. However, if a balance remains in the Professional Fee Escrow Account after all Retained Professionals have been paid their Allowed Retained Professional Fees, any such balance shall be promptly returned to, and shall then constitute property of, the Reorganized Debtors. No liens, claims, interests, or encumbrances shall encumber the Professional Fee Escrow Account or the funds held in the Professional Fee Escrow Account.

3. Fees and Expenses After Confirmation

Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Plan, the Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall pay, within ten (10) Business Days after submission of a detailed invoice to the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, and the Consenting 1L Noteholders, such reasonable claims for compensation or reimbursement incurred by Retained Professionals of the Debtors and the Committee from and after the Confirmation Date and prior to the Effective Date. If the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, or the ~~Required 1L Noteholders dispute~~First Lien Noteholder Group disputes the reasonableness of any such invoice, such disputing party or the affected professional may submit such dispute to the Bankruptcy Court for a determination of the reasonableness of any such invoice, and the disputed portion of such invoice shall not be paid until the dispute is resolved.

~~The~~Subject to the foregoing, the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, may, in the ordinary course of business and without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court, promptly pay in Cash the reasonable legal, professional, or other fees and expenses related to implementation of the Plan and Consummation incurred by the Retained Professionals of the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, and/or the Committee on and after the Confirmation Date. Following the Confirmation Date, no professional employed or retained by the Debtors shall be required to comply with sections 327 through 331 of the Bankruptcy Code in seeking retention or compensation for services rendered after the Confirmation Date, and the Reorganized Debtors may employ and pay any professional without further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Debtors and all payments made by the Debtors (including in respect of any payments described in this Article II.C.3) prior to the Effective Date shall remain subject to the Final DIP Order in all respects; provided, however, paragraph 20 of the Final DIP Order shall not prohibit the Debtors from paying Allowed Retained Professional Fees incurred by the Committee.

D. Statutory Fees

All Statutory Fees due and payable prior to, and that remain unpaid as of, the Effective Date shall be paid by the applicable Debtors on the Effective Date. After the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all Statutory Fees when due and payable. The Debtors shall file all reports due prior to the Effective Date when they become due, in a form reasonably acceptable to the U.S. Trustee. After the Effective Date, the applicable Reorganized Debtors shall file with the Bankruptcy Court quarterly reports when they become due, in a form reasonably acceptable to the U.S. Trustee. Each one of the Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors shall remain obligated to pay its own Statutory Fees to the U.S. Trustee until the earliest of that particular Debtor's case being closed, dismissed or converted to a case under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. Nothing in the Plan shall prohibit the Reorganized Debtors (or the Disbursing Agent on behalf of the Reorganized Debtors) from paying any Statutory Fees that become due and payable.

E. DIP Financing Claims

The DIP Financing Claims shall be Allowed in the full amount due and owing under the DIP Documents, including (a) the principal amounts outstanding on the Effective Date, (b) all interest accrued and unpaid thereon through and including the date of payment, and (c) all premiums, fees (including back-end fees and exit fees), expenses, and indemnification obligations under the DIP Documents. For the avoidance of doubt, the DIP Financing Claims shall not be subject to any avoidance, reduction, setoff, recoupment, recharacterization, subordination (equitable or contractual or otherwise), counterclaim, defense, disallowance, impairment, objection or any challenges under applicable law or regulation.

On the Effective Date, except to the extent that the Debtors (with the consent of the Required ~~Secured~~1L Noteholders~~, not to be unreasonably withheld~~) and the holder of a DIP Financing Claim agree to different treatment of such holder's Claim, each holder of an Allowed DIP Financing Claim shall receive (a) ~~with respect to any portion thereof on account of outstanding~~ a Pro Rata share of the New DIP Exit Notes and (b) payment in full in Cash of all amounts other than principal and ~~the~~ Exit Premium (as defined in the DIP Note Purchase Agreement)~~ due on the DIP Notes, an equivalent principal amount of New Exit Notes and (b) with respect to all other amounts (~~, including all accrued and unpaid interest on the DIP Notes~~), payment in full in Cash~~.

From and after entry of the Confirmation Order, the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall, without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court or any other Entity, pay in Cash all DIP Fees and Expenses (as defined in the Final DIP Order) (to the extent not previously disputed or paid during the Chapter 11 Cases) in accordance with the procedures for payment of Restructuring Expenses described in Article II.B. For the avoidance of doubt, no DIP Fees and Expenses or any other amounts owed or payable under the DIP Documents incurred after the Effective Date in connection with the Financing Litigation Proceedings (including any Appellate Litigation) shall be payable as DIP Financing Claims or otherwise.

F. Priority Tax Claims

Except to the extent that an Allowed Priority Tax Claim has not been previously paid in full or its holder and the Debtor against which it is asserted (with the consent of the Required ~~Secured~~1L Noteholders, not to be unreasonably withheld) agree to less favorable treatment for such holder, in full and final satisfaction of each Priority Tax Claim, each holder of an Allowed Priority Tax Claim shall be treated in accordance with the terms set forth in section 1129(a)(9)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code. In the event an Allowed Priority Tax Claim is Allowed as a Secured Claim, it shall be classified and treated as an Allowed Other Secured Claim.

ARTICLE III.

A Claim or Interest is classified in a particular Class only to the extent that the Claim or Interest qualifies within the description of that Class and is classified in other Classes to the extent that any portion of the Claim or Interest qualifies within the description of such other Classes. A Claim or Interest also is classified in a particular Class for the purpose of receiving distributions pursuant to the Plan only to the extent that such Claim is an Allowed Claim or Allowed Interest, as applicable, in that Class. To the extent a specified Class does not include any Allowed Claims or Allowed Interests, as applicable, then such Class shall be eliminated from the Plan for purposes of voting to accept or reject the Plan and shall not be considered in evaluating the Plan's compliance with section 1129(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code. If a controversy arises as to whether any Claims or Interests, or any ~~Class~~Classes of Claims or Interests, are Impaired, the Bankruptcy Court shall, after notice and a hearing, determine that controversy on or before the Confirmation Date.

2. Standards for Acceptance of a Plan

The Bankruptcy Code defines "acceptance" of a plan by a Class of (a) Impaired Claims as acceptance by creditors that hold at least two-thirds (⅔) in dollar amount and more than one-half (½) in number of the Allowed Claims in such Class held by creditors that cast ballots for acceptance or rejection of the Plan and (b) Impaired Interests as acceptance by Interest holders that hold at least two-thirds (⅔) in amount of the Allowed Interests in such Class held by holders that cast ballots for acceptance or rejection of the Plan. However, any Class of Claims or Interests that is Unimpaired under the Plan is deemed to have accepted the Plan and is therefore not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan. Likewise, any Class of Claims or Interests that does not entitle the holders of such Claims or Interests to receive or retain any property under the Plan on account of such Claims or Interests is deemed to have rejected the Plan and is therefore not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

If a Class contains Claims or Interests eligible to vote, but no holder of Claims or Interests in that Class delivers a valid and timely vote, the Plan shall be presumed accepted by that Class.

Pursuant to sections 1129(b) and 1129(a)(10) of the Bankruptcy Code, a plan may be confirmed despite its rejection by a Class, so long as (among other things) at least one Impaired Class of Claims accepts the plan, determined without including any acceptance of such plan by an insider. This requirement will be satisfied by acceptance of the Plan by one or more of the Voting Classes of Claims. Certain of the Debtors may not have holders of Claims or Interests in particular Classes. The Debtors intend to seek Confirmation of the Plan pursuant to section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to each rejecting Class.

3. The Classes Under the Plan and Their Voting Rights

Under this Plan, holders of Claims or Interests in Classes ~~4~~4a, ~~6~~6a, 7a, 7b~~,~~ and 7c are the Voting Classes that are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

In light of the treatment set forth below in Article III.B, Classes 1, 2, 3, and 11 are Unimpaired and deemed to accept the Plan; they are therefore not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan. Holders of Claims in Classes 4b, 4c, 5, 6b and 8 and holders of Interests in Class 10 are due to receive or retain no property under the Plan on account of their Claims or Interests (as applicable); such holders are therefore not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan. Depending on their treatment, Class 9 either is Unimpaired or is due to receive or retain no property under the Plan; in either case, it is not entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan. Holders of Claims or Interests in the remaining Classes (Classes ~~4~~4a, ~~6~~6a, 7a, 7b~~,~~ and 7c) are Impaired and are entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan.

Pursuant to section 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 9019, and in consideration for the classification, distributions, releases, and other benefits provided under the Plan, on the Effective Date, except as provided herein, the provisions of the Plan shall constitute an arms' length and good faith compromise and settlement of all Claims and Interests and controversies resolved pursuant to the Plan~~, including (a) certain Claims and Released Claims that are related to the 2022 Financing Transactions and the Financing Litigation (subject to the Appellate Adjustment Mechanism)~~. should be granted standing to pursue such claims on behalf of the Debtors' estates.

b. In connection with the 2024/2026 Holders' Standing Motion:

i. the Appellate Litigation Parties (i) will not re-open the evidentiary record, except to the extent ordered by an applicable court as a result of any appeals, in the 2022 Financing Adversary Proceeding, which will be binding on all parties, but (ii) will have the ability to supplement the evidentiary record to the same extent that they would be entitled to at a confirmation hearing absent this consensual Plan. The Appellate Litigation Parties also acknowledge and agree that the 2024/2026 Noteholder Group previously demanded (on or about June 28, 2023) [Dkt. No. 652-8] that the Debtors pursue the Subject Standing Motion Claims and the Debtors declined (on or about June 30, 2023) [Dkt. No. 652-9] such that, in the event this provision is later invoked, no party will make such demand again or claim that any further demand is required;

ii. the Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, will not modify their position with respect to standing (including as set forth in the Debtors' Motion for Summary Judgment [Adv. Pro. Dkt. No. 199]; Debtors' Memorandum of Law in Opposition to Formerly Secured Noteholders' Motion for Partial Judgment on the Pleadings [Adv. Pro. Dkt. No. 270]; Debtors' Reply in Support of Their Motion for Summary Judgment [Adv. Pro. Dkt. No. 318]; Debtors' Memorandum of Law in Opposition to the 2024/2026 Holders' Amended and Supplemental Standing Motion [Dkt. No.1126]; and Counterclaim Defendants' Amended Joint Post-Trial Brief [Adv. Pro. Dkt. No. 1398]); and

iii. all arguments are preserved with respect to the impact of the DIP Orders and the pending Motion and Reservation of Rights of the 2024/2026 Noteholder Group for Reconsideration of the Final DIP Order [Dkt. No. 1890], as existed immediately prior to confirmation of the Plan.

c. In connection with any litigation of the Subject Standing Motion Claims upon approval of the 2024/2026 Holders' Standing Motion in accordance with the above:

i. all parties shall have the right to argue whether the value provided under the Plan on account of the Plan Settlement and release of estate causes of action should be offset against any such Subject Standing Motion Claims;

ii. the plaintiffs and defendants in any proceedings related to such Subject Standing Motion Claims will have available to them all claims, defenses and arguments in response thereto as if asserted immediately prior to confirmation and without regard to the Plan or the consummation thereof, and no such claims, defenses or arguments will be discharged, released, waived or enjoined pursuant to the Plan in connection with such litigation;

iii. all parties will preserve all rights with respect to the appropriate allocation of any proceeds of the Subject Standing Motion Claims in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable law, without regard to the Plan or the consummation thereof, including all rights with respect to whether such proceeds should be allocated to any Claims (whether Secured or not Secured, and notwithstanding any waiver of Claims under this Plan, including pursuant to Article III.B.5.b or Article III.B.9.b); and

iv. to the extent the 2024/2026 Noteholder Group is granted derivative standing to pursue any of the Subject Standing Motion Claims, any remedy in respect of such derivative claims (after taking the above into account) will be limited to (i) the ownership of the New Common Equity and New Convertible Takeback Notes (or, to the extent the New Convertible Takeback Notes have been converted into New Common Equity, such New Common Equity) distributed under the Plan on account of 1L Notes Claims and 2026 Notes Claims and (ii) any proceeds of such New Common Equity and New Convertible Takeback Notes; provided, that, for the avoidance of doubt, "proceeds" as used herein shall be limited to any proceeds payable in respect of such securities in connection with a sale of the Reorganized Debtors; provided, further, that no limitation on remedies herein shall apply to the 2024/2026 Holders' Equitable Lien Claim, the 2024/2026 Holders' Equitable Subordination Claim [[or the 2024/2026 Holders' Intentional Fraudulent Conveyance Claim]] in the event the 2024/2026 Noteholder Group is found to have direct standing [[in the Appellate Litigation]].[7]

d. For the avoidance of doubt, the right to revive the 2024/2026 Holders' Standing Motion and pursue the Subject Standing Motion Claims as described above will be limited to the 2024/2026 Holders' Standing Motion.

e. If the 2024/2026 Holders' Standing Motion is approved in whole or in part, each Standing Motion Claim for which derivative standing is granted or direct standing is found shall be deemed to have been asserted as of the date of the 2024/2026 Holders' Standing Motion, and no party shall assert that any such Standing Motion Claim will have become barred by any time-based defense when asserted, including, without limitation, as a result of the lapsing of any applicable statute of limitations or statute of repose.

2. New Financing

On the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors shall be authorized to execute, deliver, and enter into the New Debt Documents, subject to the requisite approvals, without further (a) notice to or order of the Bankruptcy Court; (b) vote, consent, authorization, or approval of any Person; or (c) action by the holders of Claims or Interests. Confirmation of the Plan shall be deemed approval of the New Financing and the New Debt Documents, all transactions contemplated thereby, and all actions to be taken, undertakings to be made, and obligations to be incurred by the Reorganized Debtors in connection therewith (including, for the avoidance of doubt, (y) the Reorganized Debtors' indemnification of BofA Securities, Inc. for its role as administrative and collateral agent and lead arranger for the New Revolver Facility and (z) the Reorganized Debtors' reimbursement of the payment of reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection therewith, in each case as set forth in that certain ABL Credit Facility Engagement and Fee Letter, dated as of November 12, 2024, which shall be approved as of the date of execution thereof), and authorization of the Reorganized Debtors to enter into, execute, and deliver the New Debt Documents and such other documents as may be required to effectuate the treatment afforded by the New Financing.

The New Debt Documents shall constitute legal, valid, binding, and authorized joint and several obligations of the applicable Reorganized Debtors, enforceable in accordance with their respective terms, and such obligations shall not be enjoined or subject to discharge, impairment, release, avoidance, recharacterization, or subordination (including equitable subordination) for any purposes whatsoever under applicable law, the Plan, or the Confirmation Order and shall not constitute preferential transfers, fraudulent conveyances, or other voidable transfers under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable non-bankruptcy law. The Reorganized Debtors and the secured parties (and their designees and agents) under such New Debt Documents shall be authorized to make all filings and recordings, and to obtain all governmental approvals and consents, and to take any other actions necessary to establish and perfect such Liens under the provisions of the applicable state, provincial, federal, or other law (whether domestic or foreign) that would be applicable in the absence of the Plan and the Confirmation Order (it being understood that perfection of the Liens granted under the New Debt Documents shall occur automatically on the Effective Date by virtue of the entry of the Confirmation Order, and any such filings, recordings, approvals, and consents shall not be necessary or required), and the Reorganized Debtors and the secured parties (and their designees and agents) under such New Debt Documents will thereafter cooperate to make all other filings and recordings that otherwise would be necessary under applicable law to give notice of such Liens to third parties.

To the extent that any holder of a Secured Claim that has been satisfied or discharged pursuant to the Plan, or any agent for such holder, has filed or recorded any Liens to secure such holder's Secured Claim, then on or as soon as practicable after the Effective Date, such holder (or the agent for such holder) shall, at the Debtors' or Reorganized Debtors' sole cost and expense, take any and all steps reasonably requested by the Debtors, Reorganized Debtors, the New Notes Indenture Trustees, or the New Revolver Facility Agent that are necessary to cancel and/or extinguish such Liens (it being understood that such Liens held by holders of Secured Claims that are satisfied on the Effective Date pursuant to the Plan shall be automatically canceled or extinguished on the Effective Date by virtue of the entry of the Confirmation Order). To the extent any direction under any of the Prepetition Debt Documents is required to effectuate the cancellation or extinguishment of Liens described above, the Confirmation Order shall be deemed to have provided such direction and shall include language effectuating the foregoing.

All of the New Notes issued and/or distributed pursuant to the Plan shall be exempt from the registration requirements of ~~Section~~section 5 of the Securities Act pursuant to section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act and/or the safe harbor of Regulation D promulgated thereunder.

Notice of the Plan or of the Confirmation Order shall be conclusively deemed to be adequate notice that Liens, Claims, charges, or other encumbrances are being extinguished. Any Person having a Lien, Claim, charge, or other encumbrance against any of the property vested in accordance with the foregoing paragraph shall be conclusively deemed to have consented to the transfer, assignment, and vesting of such property to or in the Reorganized Debtors free and clear of all Liens, Claims, charges, or other encumbrances by failing to object to confirmation of the Plan, except as otherwise provided in the Plan.

To the extent any direction under the Prepetition Debt Documents is required to effectuate the foregoing, the Confirmation Order shall be deemed to have provided such direction and shall include language providing therefor.

Notwithstanding such cancellation and discharge, the Prepetition Debt Documents shall continue in effect solely to the extent necessary (a) to allow the holders of Claims to receive distributions under the Plan; (b) to allow the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, and the Prepetition Agents to make or receive distributions under and in accordance with the terms of the Plan and to take other actions pursuant to the terms of the Plan on account of Claims; (c) to allow the 2026 Indenture Trustee, the 2024 Unsecured Indenture Trustee, the 2027 Unsecured Indenture Trustee, the PIK Notes Indenture Trustee, the 1L Indenture Trustee, and the 1.25L Indenture Trustee to exercise their rights, claims, causes of action, and interests (including their rights, if any, to compensation and indemnification as against any money or property distributable) under the 2026 Indenture, the 2024 Unsecured Indenture, the 2027 Unsecured Indenture, the PIK Notes Indenture, the 1L Indenture, and the 1.25L Indenture, respectively, against any holder of 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims, 2026 Notes Claims, 2027 Unsecured Notes Claims, PIK Notes Claims, 1L Notes Claims, and 1.25L Notes Claims, respectively, to the extent consistent with the Plan, including to exercise charging liens; (d) to allow the Prepetition Agents to enforce any obligations owed to them under the Plan and the Prepetition Debt Documents; (e) to preserve all rights, remedies, indemnities, powers, and protections, including rights of enforcement, of the Prepetition Agents, as applicable, against any person other than a Released Party; (f) to allow the Prepetition Agents to appear in the Chapter 11 Cases or in any proceeding in the Bankruptcy Court or any other court relating to such documents in furtherance of the foregoing; ~~and~~ (g) with respect to the 2027 Unsecured Indenture and the 2027 Unsecured Notes, to allow for the prosecution and defense of the Langur Maize Retained Causes of Action against and recovery from the Langur Maize Excluded Parties; and (h) with respect to the 1L Notes Indenture, the 1L Notes, the 2026 Notes Indenture, the 2026 Notes, the 2024 Unsecured Indenture, and the 2024 Unsecured Notes, solely to allow for the prosecution and defense of the Appellate Litigation, including the Subject Standing Motion Claims in accordance with Article IV.A.2. and any remedy in connection therewith, provided that any provisions regarding turnover of proceeds arising under any intercreditor agreement that constitute Prepetition Debt Documents shall be cancelled and discharged and of no force or effect; and provided, further, that nothing in this Article IV.C.3 shall affect the discharge of Claims or Interests pursuant to the Plan or the effectiveness of the Debtor Release or the Third-Party Release.

Except for the foregoing, upon Consummation of the Plan, the Prepetition Agents and each of their respective directors, officers, employees, agents, affiliates, controlling persons, and legal and financial advisors shall, without any further action or approval of the Bankruptcy Court or any holders of Claims, each be automatically and fully discharged and shall have no further obligation or liability, and shall otherwise be relieved of all further duties and responsibilities related to the foregoing documents; provided that any provisions of such documents that by their terms survive their termination shall survive in accordance with their terms. As applicable, distributions made under the Plan or on account of the Allowed Claims of holders of 1L Notes Claims, 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims, 2026 Notes Claims, 2027 Unsecured Notes Claims, and ABL Facility Claims shall be made to or at the direction of the Prepetition Agent for the applicable Prepetition Debt Document under which the relevant Allowed Claims arose and pursuant to the terms of such Prepetition Debt Document, and the Debtors and/or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall use commercially reasonable efforts to coordinate with the applicable Prepetition Agent with respect to the surrender and cancellation of the 1L Notes, 1.25L Notes, 2024 Unsecured Notes, 2026 Notes, or 2027 Unsecured Notes~~, as applicable, at DTC~~.

Upon the full payment or other satisfaction of an Allowed Other Secured Claim, or promptly thereafter, the holder of such Allowed Other Secured Claim shall deliver to the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, any collateral or other property of a Debtor held by such holder, together with any termination statements, instruments of satisfaction, or releases of all security interests with respect to its Allowed Other Secured Claim that may be reasonably required to terminate any related financing statements, mortgages, mechanics' or other statutory Liens, lis pendens, or similar interests or documents and take all other steps reasonably requested by the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, the New Notes Indenture Trustees, or the New Revolver Facility Agent that are necessary to cancel or extinguish Liens securing such holder's Other Secured Claim.

For the avoidance of doubt, with respect to any New Common Equity issued on account of 1L Notes Claims or 2026 Notes Claims, (i) such New Common Equity shall not be held through the facilities of DTC, (ii) execution of the New LLC Agreement shall be a condition to receipt of any such New Common Equity and (iii) such New Common Equity shall be transferable to any Entity that satisfies the requirements set forth in the New Organizational Documents and executes a joinder to the New LLC Agreement; provided that any transfer which fails to satisfy the conditions in the foregoing subclause (iii) is void ab initio.

Pursuant to section 1123(a)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code, the New Organizational Documents will prohibit the issuance of non-voting equity securities, but only to the extent required by section 1123(a)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code. After the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors may amend and restate their respective New Organizational Documents and other constituent documents as permitted by the laws of their respective jurisdictions of organization, and their respective New Organizational Documents, without further order of the Bankruptcy Court.

~~The New Organizational Documents for Reorganized Incora shall provide for the following protections for minority holders of the New Common Equity: (1) the provision by Reorganized Incora to holders of New Common Equity of annual audited and quarterly financial statements of Reorganized Incora and its consolidated subsidiaries; (2) customary tag-along and drag-along rights (in connection with a transfer of a majority of the then-outstanding New Common Equity); (3) no transfer restrictions other than customary joinder requirements, restrictions on transfers to competitors, customary drag-along and tag-along rights (in connection with a transfer of a majority of the then-outstanding New Common Equity), and other customary transfer restrictions (including restrictions on transfers that are not in compliance with applicable law or would require Reorganized Incora to register securities under the Securities Exchange Act of 1933 or to register as an "investment company" under the Investment Company Act of 1940), but in any event will not include any right of first refusal or right of first offer; (4) customary pro rata preemptive rights in connection with issuances of equity securities in Reorganized Incora for cash (subject to customary carve outs, including for M&A/JVs, restructurings, lender equity kickers and the Management Incentive Plan) for accredited investor holders of more than 2% of the then issued and outstanding units of New Common Equity; and (5) a prohibition against~~

~~amendments to any of the foregoing provisions without the consent of holders of a majority of the then-issued and outstanding units of New Common Equity similarly disproportionately affected by any such amendment.~~

Pursuant to agreements reached with Langur Maize in the context of the Restructuring Support Agreement, the Initial Consenting Parties agreed to certain governance terms and minority protections set forth therein. For the avoidance of doubt, negotiation with respect to governance terms remains ongoing as between the First Lien Noteholder Group and the 2024/2026 Noteholder Group, and will be memorialized in the New LLC Agreement and filed in the Plan Supplement once agreed. Both the First Lien Noteholder Group and the 2024/2026 Noteholder Group reserve all rights with respect to such governance terms, and neither the First Lien Noteholder Group nor the 2024/2026 Noteholder Group, nor individual members thereof or their affiliated funds, will be required to consent to or vote to accept the Plan unless and until the terms of the New LLC Agreement are mutually acceptable to the Required 1L Noteholders and the Required 2026 Noteholders.

2. Section 1146 Exemption

In accordance with section 1146 of the Bankruptcy Code, (a) the issuance, distribution, transfer, or exchange of any securities, instruments or documents, including the New Common Equity (including ~~in connection with the Appellate Adjustment Mechanism)~~to the extent they are subject to any Potential Remedies Order), New Convertible Takeback Notes (including to the extent they are subject to any Potential Remedies Order), the New Revolver Facility or the New Exit Notes; (b) the creation of any lien, mortgage, deed of trust, or other security interest; (c) the making or assignment of any lease or sublease or the making or delivery of any deed or other instrument of transfer under, pursuant to, in furtherance of, or in connection with the Plan, including any deeds, bills of sale, or assignments executed in connection with any of the transactions contemplated under the Plan or the reinvesting, transfer or sale of any real or personal property of the Debtors pursuant to, in implementation of, or as contemplated in the Plan (whether to one or more of the Reorganized Debtors or otherwise); (d) the grant of collateral under the New Debt Documents; (e) the Restructuring Transactions; and (f) the issuance, renewal, modification, or securing of indebtedness by such means, and the making, delivery, or recording of any deed, bill of sale, assignment or other instrument of transfer under, in furtherance of, contemplated by, arising out of or in any way related to, the Plan, including the Confirmation Order, shall not be subject to any document recording tax, stamp tax, conveyance fee, intangibles or similar tax, mortgage tax, real estate transfer tax, personal property transfer tax, mortgage recording tax, Uniform Commercial Code filing or recording fee, regulatory filing or recording fee, or other similar tax or governmental assessment (except, in each case, to the extent required under applicable foreign law), and upon entry of the Confirmation Order, the appropriate state or local governmental officials or agents shall forego the collection of any such tax or governmental assessment and accept for filing and recordation any of the foregoing instruments or other documents without the payment of any such tax, recordation fee, or governmental assessment. All filing or recording officers (or any other Person with authority over any of the foregoing, other than in respect of any tax imposed under applicable foreign law), wherever located and by whomever appointed, shall comply with the requirements of section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, shall forego the collection of any such tax or governmental assessment, and shall accept for filing and recordation any of the foregoing instruments or other documents without the payment of any such tax or governmental assessment.

G. Preservation of Causes of Action

In accordance with section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, but subject in all respects to Article VIII.D, the Reorganized Debtors shall retain and may enforce all rights to commence and pursue, as appropriate, any and all Retained Causes of Action (and all Privilege Rights with respect thereto), whether arising before or after the Petition Date, in any court or other tribunal including, in an adversary proceeding filed in the Chapter 11 Cases, and including any actions specifically enumerated in the Schedule of Retained Causes of Action; provided, that, notwithstanding anything in the Plan to the contrary, the Reorganized Debtors waive their rights to assert, and release, any Released Preference Action~~.~~; provided further, that, to the extent that any Subject Standing Motion Claim would otherwise constitute a Released Preference Action, then any such Subject Standing Motion Claim will not be released pursuant to this paragraph in the event the 2024/2026 Appellate Litigation Parties are granted derivative standing to pursue such Subject Standing Motion Claim in accordance with Article IV.A.2.

The Reorganized Debtors may pursue such Retained Causes of Action, as appropriate, in accordance with the best interests of the Reorganized Debtors in their discretion.

No Person or Entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan, the Plan Supplement, or the Disclosure Statement to any Retained Cause of Action against them as any indication that the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors will not pursue any and all available Retained Causes of Action against them. Unless any Cause of Action that any Debtor may have or be entitled to assert on behalf of its Estate or itself is expressly waived, relinquished, exculpated, released, compromised, or settled in the Plan or a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, the Reorganized Debtors expressly reserve all such Causes of Action as Retained Causes of Action, for later adjudication, and, therefore no preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Causes of Action upon, after, or as a consequence of Confirmation or Consummation of the Plan.

The Reorganized Debtors, through their authorized agents or representatives, shall retain and shall have the exclusive right, authority, and discretion to determine and to initiate, file, prosecute, enforce, abandon, settle, compromise, release, withdraw, or litigate to judgment any such Retained Causes of Action, and to decline to do any of the foregoing without the consent or approval of any third party or further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

H. Management Incentive Plan

The Reorganized Debtors will ~~reserve a pool of the New Common Equity (in an amount to be agreed by the Debtors and the Required Secured Noteholders prior to the Confirmation Hearing) for~~implement a post-emergence Management Incentive Plan for management employees of the Reorganized Debtors, which will contain terms and conditions (including with respect to participants, form, allocation, structure, duration and timing and extent of issuance and vesting) as determined by the Reorganized Incora Board after the Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, any New Common Equity issued under the Management Incentive Plan will dilute any then-issued and outstanding New Common Equity.

ARTICLE V.

A. ASSUMPTION AND REJECTION

Except as otherwise provided in this Plan, each Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease shall be deemed assumed, without the need for any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court, as of the Effective Date, pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, unless such Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease (a) was previously assumed or rejected; (b) previously expired or was terminated pursuant to its own terms; (c) is the subject of a motion to reject, assume, or assume and assign filed on or before the Effective Date; or (d) is designated specifically as an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease on the Schedule of Rejected Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases; provided the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, retain the right to alter, amend, modify or supplement the Schedule of Rejected Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases, including by way of adding or removing a particular Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease from the Schedule of Rejected Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases at any time through and including the Effective Date. Prior to filing the Schedule of Assumed Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases and the Schedule of Rejected Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases, the Debtors shall provide the Committee with reasonable advance notice thereof and the Committee may file an objection to the reasonableness of any proposed assumption or rejection of which the Committee did not have notice as of the date of the Committee Stipulation.

Unless previously approved by the Bankruptcy Court, the Confirmation Order will constitute an order of the Bankruptcy Court approving the above-described rejections, assumptions, and assignments, all pursuant to sections 365(a) and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code and effective upon Consummation of the Plan.

Except as otherwise provided in this Plan or agreed to by the Debtors and the applicable counterparty, each Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease assumed pursuant to this Article V.A or by any order of the Bankruptcy Court, which has not been assigned to a third party prior to the Confirmation Date, shall be assigned to or shall revest in, and shall be fully enforceable by, the applicable Reorganized Debtor in accordance with its terms (including any amendments to any Executory Contracts and/or Unexpired Leases that were entered into after the Petition Date), except as such terms are modified by the provisions of the Plan or any order of the Bankruptcy Court authorizing and providing for its assumption under applicable federal law. To the maximum extent permitted by law, to the extent that any provision in any Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease assumed or assumed and assigned pursuant to the Plan restricts or prevents, or purports to restrict or prevent, or is breached or deemed breached by, the assumption or assumption and assignment of such Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease (including any "change of control" provision), then such provision shall be deemed modified or stricken such that the transactions contemplated by the Plan shall not entitle the non-Debtor that is party thereto to terminate such Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease or to exercise any other default-related rights with respect thereto.

Nothing contained in the Plan shall constitute an admission by the Debtors that any Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease is, in fact, an Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease or that the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors have any liability thereunder.

B. Assumed Contracts and Leases

1. Cure of Defaults and Objections to Cure and Assumption

The Allowed Cure Claim for each Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease shall be $0.00, unless (a) the Debtors (with the consent of the Required ~~Secured~~1L Noteholders) affirmatively propose to Allow a Cure Claim for an Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease in a different amount by listing it on the Schedule of Assumed Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases, (b) a Final Order is entered Allowing a Cure Claim in a different amount, or (c) the Debtors (with the consent of the Required ~~Secured~~1L Noteholders) or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, otherwise agree with the applicable party or parties to an Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease to Allow a Cure Claim in a different amount. The Debtors (with the consent of the Required ~~Secured~~1L Noteholders) and the Reorganized Debtors may settle any Cure Claim without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court. Unless otherwise agreed upon in writing by the parties to the applicable Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease (with the consent of the Required ~~Secured~~1L Noteholders), all objections to the assumption of any Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease pursuant to the Plan, including to any Cure Claim set forth in the Schedule of Assumed Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases, must be filed with the Bankruptcy Court on or before the Contract Objection Deadline or such other deadline that may be set by the Bankruptcy Court; provided that (1) if the Debtors reduce any previously proposed Cure Claim or decide to assume any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that was previously proposed to be rejected pursuant to a new or amended Schedule of Assumed Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases and/or Schedule of Rejected Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases filed on or after the date that is 14 calendar days prior to the Contract Objection Deadline, the counterparty to such affected Executory Contracts shall have 14 calendar days after receipt of notice of such schedules to file an objection to any such reduced Cure Claim or the assumption of any such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that was previously proposed to be rejected (including the proposed Cure Claim with respect thereto) and (2) an objection seeking a Cure Claim for a default under an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that arises after the date of the otherwise applicable Cure Claim objection deadline (other than in respect of any asserted default arising as a result of Consummation of the Plan) may be filed at any time within 90 calendar days after the Effective Date. Any such request that is not timely filed shall be Disallowed and forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from assertion, and shall not be enforceable against any Debtor or Reorganized Debtor, without the need for any objection by the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors or any other party in interest or any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

Except as set forth below, the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors shall satisfy all Allowed Cure Claims in respect of assumed Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases by payment in Cash, on the Effective Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, of the Allowed amount. Each Cure Claim shall be deemed fully satisfied, released, and discharged upon such payment; provided, however, that nothing herein shall prevent the Reorganized Debtors from paying any Cure Claim despite the failure of the relevant counterparty to file such request for payment of such Cure Claim. The consummation of ~~this~~the Plan on the Effective Date shall be conclusively deemed to provide "adequate assurance of future performance" as to all Executory Contracts and/or Unexpired Leases that are assumed.

Assumption of any Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease pursuant to the Plan shall result in the full release and satisfaction of any Claims or defaults, whether monetary or non-monetary, including defaults of provisions restricting the change in control or ownership interest composition or other bankruptcy-related defaults, arising under any such Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease at any time before the date that it is assumed (other than Claims for amounts under such assumed Executory Contracts and/or Unexpired Leases that are accrued but not yet due as of the date of assumption). Subject to the resolution of any timely objections in accordance with Article V.B.2, any Proofs of Claim filed with respect to an Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease that has been assumed or assumed and assigned shall be deemed Disallowed and expunged, without further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

2. Dispute Resolution

If a counterparty to an Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease files a timely objection regarding the amount of any Cure Claim or any other matter pertaining to assumption or the cure of defaults required by section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code (each, an "Assumption Dispute"), the Assumption Dispute shall be resolved by the Bankruptcy Court or otherwise as may be agreed upon by the Debtors (with the consent of the Required ~~Secured~~1L Noteholders) or the Reorganized Debtors and the counterparty, subject to the rights of the General Unsecured Claims Observer with respect to the Allowance of any General Unsecured Claim or General Unsecured Convenience Claim in connection with such resolution.

The Debtors (with the consent of the Required ~~Secured~~1L Noteholders) or the Reorganized Debtors may assume, assume and assign, or reject an Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease that is subject to an Assumption Dispute at any time prior to the resolution of the Assumption Dispute relating to the Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease. During the Assumption Dispute, the counterparty shall continue to perform under the applicable Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease. If the Assumption Dispute is resolved or determined unfavorably to the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, then the Debtors or Reorganized Debtor, as applicable, may either affirm the assumption or reject the applicable Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease after such determination, in which case the counterparty may file a Proof of Claim within 30 calendar days after notice of rejection. Prior to rejecting any Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease pursuant to the foregoing, the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall provide the Committee or the General Unsecured Claims Observer, as applicable, with reasonable advance notice of such proposed rejection and the Committee or the General Unsecured Claims Observer, as applicable, may file an objection to the reasonableness of any such rejection of which the Committee did not have notice as of the date of the Committee Stipulation.

Any Assumption Dispute, including one styled as an objection to Confirmation, may be scheduled to be heard by the Bankruptcy Court at or after the Confirmation Hearing and may be adjourned from time to time by the Debtors upon notice to the Bankruptcy Court.

3. Modifications, Amendments, Supplements, Restatements, and Other Agreements

Unless otherwise provided in the Plan, each Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease that is assumed and, if applicable, assigned to the Reorganized Debtors, shall include all modifications, amendments, supplements, restatements, or other agreements that in any manner affect such Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease, including all easements, licenses, permits, rights, privileges, immunities, options, rights of first refusal, and any other interests, unless any of the foregoing agreements has been previously terminated or is otherwise not in effect.

Modifications, amendments, supplements, and restatements to prepetition Executory Contracts and/or Unexpired Leases that have been executed by the Debtors during the Chapter 11 Cases shall not be deemed to alter the prepetition nature of the Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease, or the validity, priority, or amount of any Claims that may arise in connection therewith.

C. Rejected Contracts and Leases: Claims for Damages

If the rejection of an Executory Contract and/or Unexpired Lease by the Debtors results in damages to the other party or parties to such contract or lease, a Claim for such damages shall be classified and treated in Class 7a (General Unsecured Claims) or Class 7b (General Unsecured Convenience Claims), as applicable, and may be objected to in accordance with the provisions of Article VI and applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules. Such Claims shall be asserted within 30 calendar days following entry of the order (including the Confirmation Order) approving the Debtors' rejection of the applicable executory contract or unexpired lease. The Allowance of all such Claims shall be subject to all applicable limitations, including the caps set forth in section 502(b)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code. All such Claims not filed within such time will be Disallowed, forever barred from assertion, and shall not be enforceable against the Debtors, their Estates or the Reorganized Debtors, or the property thereof, without the need for any objection by the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors or further notice to, or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court or any other Entity, and any Claim arising out of the rejection of the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease shall be deemed fully satisfied, released, and discharged, notwithstanding anything in the Schedules, if any, or a Proof of Claim to the contrary.

D. Particular Contracts and Leases

1. Insurance Policies

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Definitive Documents or any other document related thereto (including, without limitation, any other provision that purports to be preemptory or supervening, grants an injunction, discharge or release, or confers Bankruptcy Court jurisdiction):

(a) ~~Unless~~unless listed on the Schedule of Rejected Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases, all of the ~~Debtors'~~ Insurance Policies are deemed to be and shall be treated as Executory Contracts and/or Unexpired Leases under the Plan, and, on and after the Effective Date, shall be assumed in their entirety by the Reorganized Debtors pursuant to the Plan and Bankruptcy Code sections 105 and 365 and shall revest in the Reorganized Debtors and continue in full force and effect (such Insurance Policies, the "Assumed Insurance Policies")~~.~~;

(b) ~~On~~on and after the Effective Date, each Reorganized Debtor shall become and remain liable in full in the ordinary course of business for all ~~its~~of the corresponding Debtor's obligations under the Assumed Insurance Policies, regardless of when they arise and in accordance with the terms thereof and the Plan~~.~~ and without the need or requirement for Insurers to file or serve any objection to a proposed Cure Claim or a request, application, Claim, Proof of Claim, Cure Claim, motion for payment or allowance of any Administrative Expense Claim;

(c) except as expressly set forth in this Article V.D.1 of the Plan, nothing shall alter or modify the terms and conditions of the Assumed Insurance Policies, and any rights and obligations thereunder shall be determined in accordance with the terms thereof and applicable non-bankruptcy law, and, for the avoidance of doubt, the assumption and assignment to the Reorganized Debtors of the Assumed Insurance Policies through the Restructuring Transactions shall not be considered a prohibited alteration, modification or assignment of the Assumed Insurance Policies; and

(d) ~~The~~the automatic stay of section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and the injunctions set forth in Article VIII.G of the Plan, if and to the extent applicable, shall be deemed lifted without further order of this Bankruptcy Court, solely with respect to Insurers and claimants with valid workers' compensation claims or direct action claims against Insurers under applicable non-bankruptcy law and solely to permit: (a) claimants with valid workers' compensation claims or direct action claims against Insurers under applicable non-bankruptcy law to proceed with their claims; and (b) Insurers to administer, handle, defend, settle, and/or pay, in the ordinary course of business and without further order of this Bankruptcy Court, (i) workers' compensation claims, (ii) claims where a claimant asserts a direct claim against the Insurers under applicable non-bankruptcy law, or an order has been entered by this Bankruptcy Court granting a claimant relief from the automatic stay or the injunctions set forth in Article VIII.G of the Plan to proceed with a claim under an Insurance Policy, and (iii) all costs in relation to each of the foregoing.

After the Effective Date, all current and former officers, directors, agents, or employees who served in such capacity at any time before the Effective Date shall be entitled to the full benefits, if any, of any D&O Policy in effect as of the Petition Date for the full term of such policy regardless of whether such officers, directors, agents, and/or employees remain in such positions after the Effective Date, in each case, solely to the extent set forth in such D&O Policies and subject to any terms and conditions thereof. In addition, after the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors shall not terminate or otherwise reduce the coverage under any D&O Policy in effect as of the Petition Date.

2. Indemnification Obligations

a. Indemnification of Directors, Officers, and Others

Except as set forth on the Schedule of Rejected Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases, any Indemnification Obligation to indemnify current and former officers, directors, members, managers, agents, or employees with respect to all present and future actions, suits, and proceedings against the Debtors or such officers, directors, members, managers, agents, or employees based upon any act or omission for or on behalf of the Debtors shall (a) remain in full force and effect; (b) not be discharged, impaired, or otherwise affected in any way, including by the Plan, the Plan Supplement, or the Confirmation Order; (c) not be limited, reduced, or terminated after the Effective Date; and (d) survive unimpaired and unaffected irrespective of whether such Indemnification Obligation is owed for an act or event occurring before, on or after the Petition Date; provided that the Reorganized Debtors shall not indemnify officers, directors, members, or managers, as applicable, of the Debtors for any claims or Causes of Action that (x) are not indemnified by such Indemnification Obligation; or (y) arise out of or relate to any act or omission that is a criminal act or constitutes intentional fraud, gross negligence, or willful misconduct; provided, further, that the obligations in this section shall not apply to any Excluded Party or any other Person that is employed by or a partner of (or indemnified by) the Sponsor, and any obligations to indemnify any such Person shall be terminated upon the occurrence of the Effective Date regardless of whether such obligations are captured on the Schedule of Assumed Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases or the Schedule of Rejected Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases. Except as provided in the foregoing sentence, all such obligations shall be deemed and treated as executory contracts to be assumed by the Debtors under the Plan and shall continue as obligations of the Reorganized Debtors, and, if necessary to effectuate such assumption under local law, one or more of the Reorganized Debtors shall contractually assume such obligations.

No Entity or Person may assert any Cause of Action against any independent director of a Debtor (including Patrick Bartels as independent director of Wolverine Intermediate Holding) arising out of or related to a Covered Exculpation Matter without first seeking authority from the Bankruptcy Court. Any request for such authority shall: (a) be made in writing with notice to all affected parties and shall include a proposed complaint setting forth any alleged Causes of Action and the detailed factual basis in support of such Causes of Action; (b) indemnify each independent director against whom any such Causes of Action are asserted against costs associated with the successful defense of any such Causes of Action that are allowed to proceed; and (c) propose a reasonable attorney fee reserve amount, which amount shall be subject to modification by the Bankruptcy Court and shall be deposited by the Entity or Person asserting such Causes of Action in the Bankruptcy Court's registry to secure the payment of such indemnity.

Any Claim filed on account of an indemnification obligation to a director, manager, officer, or employee of the Debtors as of the Effective Date shall be deemed satisfied and may be expunged from the Claims Register ~~as of~~on the Effective Date to the extent such indemnification obligation is assumed by the Reorganized Debtors, or honored or reaffirmed, as the case may be pursuant to the Plan, without an objection having to be filed and without any further notice or action, order or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

b. Indemnification of 1L Indenture Trustee

Following the Effective Date, the 1L Indenture Trustee (solely in Wilmington Savings Fund Society, FSB's capacity as the trustee and collateral agent under the 1L Indenture and not in any capacity relating to the 1.25L Notes, the 2024 Unsecured Notes, the 2026 Notes or the 2027 Unsecured Notes or the 1.25L Indenture, the 2024 Unsecured Indenture, the 2026 Indenture or the 2027 Unsecured Indenture or any other document executed by it, or binding on it, in connection with its role as the indenture trustee for the 1.25L Notes, the 2024 Unsecured Notes, the 2026 Notes or the 2027 Unsecured Notes) and its Related Parties shall be indemnified by the Reorganized Debtors with respect to all present and future actions, suits, and proceedings against the 1L Indenture Trustee or its Related Parties in connection with or related to the 2022 Financing Transactions, the Financing Litigation, and/or any other Causes of Action in connection with or related to the 1L Indenture (including, with respect to the 1L Indenture Trustee, for its reasonable and documented fees and expenses and for the reasonable and documented fees and expenses of its counsel) or the other Note Documents (as defined in the 1L Indenture), on the same terms as afforded under the 1L Indenture or the other Note Documents (as defined in the 1L Indenture). For the avoidance of doubt, (i) the 1L Indenture Trustee will not be indemnified on account of any costs or expenses incurred by the First Lien Noteholder Group (or any of its members)[, or in its capacity as the former indenture trustee under the 2026 Indenture and 2024 Unsecured Indenture in connection with the Appellate Litigation] and (ii) the fact that the 1L Indenture Trustee is entitled to indemnification under the Plan will not be deemed as an admission of any underlying fact or circumstance related to the 2022 Financing Transactions or be used in the Appellate Litigation by any party.

3. Compensation and Benefit Plans

Unless otherwise provided in this Plan (including on the Schedule of Rejected Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases) and except as applicable to any Excluded Party or any other Person that is employed by or a partner of the Sponsor, all employment, restrictive covenant, confidentiality, and non-competition agreements, collective bargaining agreements, offer letters (including any severance set forth therein), bonus, gainshare and cash-based incentive programs, vacation, holiday pay, severance, retirement, supplemental retirement, employee or director or officer indemnity, medical, dental, vision, life and disability insurance, flexible spending account, and other health and welfare benefit plans, programs, agreements and arrangements, and all other wage, compensation, employee expense reimbursement, and other benefit obligations (collectively, the "Compensation and Benefit Plans") are deemed to be, and shall be treated as, Executory Contracts under the Plan and, on the Effective Date, subject to the following provisos, shall be deemed assumed pursuant to sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code (in each case, as amended prior to or on the Effective Date); provided that Consummation shall not constitute a change in control or term of similar meaning pursuant to any such plans; provided, further, that no employee equity or equity-based plans, or any provisions set forth in any Compensation and Benefits Plans that provide for rights to acquire equity interests in any of the Debtors, including Existing Equity Interests, shall be assumed, or deemed assumed, by the Reorganized Debtors, or assumed and assigned, or deemed to be assumed and assigned, to Reorganized Incora.

For the avoidance of doubt, the foregoing shall not (1) limit, diminish, or otherwise alter the Reorganized Debtors' defenses, claims, Causes of Action, or other rights with respect to the Compensation and Benefit Plans, or (2) impair the ability of the Reorganized Debtors, to implement the Management Incentive Plan and to determine the Compensation and Benefit Plans of the Reorganized Debtors on or after the Effective Date, in each case consistent with the Plan.

E. Postpetition Contracts and Leases

Subject to Article V.B.3, new contracts and leases entered into after the Petition Date by any Debtor, will be performed by the applicable Debtor or Reorganized Debtor, as the case may be, liable thereunder in the ordinary course of its business or as authorized by the Bankruptcy Court. Accordingly, such contracts and leases (including any assumed Executory Contracts and/or Unexpired Leases) will survive and remain unaffected by entry of the Confirmation Order, and, on the Effective Date, shall revest in and be fully enforceable by and against the applicable Reorganized Debtor in accordance with its terms, except as such terms may have been modified by order of the Bankruptcy Court.

ARTICLE VI.
Claims Resolution

A. Allowance of Claims and Interests, Generally

Except as otherwise expressly provided in the Plan and without regard to any requirements that may be imposed pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019, after the Confirmation Date, the Debtors (with the consent of the Required ~~Secured~~1L Noteholders and (solely with respect to the Allowance of any General Unsecured Claim or General Unsecured Convenience Claim) with the reasonable consent of the Committee), and, following the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors, subject to the rights of the General Unsecured Claims Observer with respect to the Allowance of any General Unsecured Claim or General Unsecured Convenience Claim, shall have the authority, without any further notice to or action, order, or approval by the Bankruptcy Court, to (a) agree to Allow any Disputed Claim pursuant to clause (c)(iii) of the definition of "Allowed," which has not been made subject to an objection or request for estimation prior to the Confirmation Date, (b) file, withdraw, or litigate to judgment objections to Disputed Claims, (c) settle or compromise any Disputed Claim that has not been made subject to an objection or request for estimation prior to the Confirmation Date, and (d) direct the Claims Agent to adjust the Claims Register to reflect all resolutions of Disputed Claims.

The Reorganized Debtors shall file any objections to Claims (including any omnibus objections) no later than the Claim Objection Deadline (as it may be extended).

Notwithstanding section 502(j) of the Bankruptcy Code, in no event shall any holder of a Claim that has been Allowed, Disallowed or estimated by order of the Bankruptcy Court be entitled to seek reconsideration of such an order unless it filed a motion requesting reconsideration on or before 21 calendar days after the date of the order.

B. Contingent and Unliquidated Claims

Except with respect to a Claim that is Allowed pursuant to clause (a) or (c) of the definition of "Allowed," any Claim that is listed in the Schedules as contingent, unliquidated or disputed, and for which no Proof of Claim has been filed, shall be considered Disallowed and shall be expunged by the Debtors and the Claims Agent without further notice to any party or action, approval or order of the Bankruptcy Court.

At any time prior to the Claim Objection Deadline, the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors or the applicable claimant may request that the Bankruptcy Court estimate, pursuant to section 502(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, any Disputed Claim that is presented in a Proof of Claim as contingent or unliquidated, regardless of whether any party previously has objected to such Claim or whether the Bankruptcy Court has ruled on any such objection, and the Bankruptcy Court shall retain jurisdiction to estimate any such Claim, including during the litigation of any objection to any Claim or during the appeal relating to such objection.

C. Amendments

On or after the Confirmation Date, a Claim may not be amended without the prior authorization of (a) the Bankruptcy Court or (b) the Debtors (with the consent of the Required ~~Secured~~1L Noteholders and the Committee, not to be unreasonably withheld) or Reorganized Debtors (subject to the rights of the General Unsecured Claims Observer with respect to the Allowance of any General Unsecured Claim or General Unsecured Convenience Claim), as applicable.

The Debtors (with the consent of the Required ~~Secured~~1L Noteholders and the Committee, not to be unreasonably withheld), prior to the Effective Date, and the Reorganized Debtors (subject to the rights of the General Unsecured Claims Observer with respect to the Allowance of any General Unsecured Claim or General Unsecured Convenience Claim), after the Effective Date, may amend the Schedules with respect to any Claim (other than any Claim that otherwise is or becomes an Allowed Claim or is released hereunder or otherwise by a Final Order) and to make distributions pursuant to the Plan based on such amended Schedules (if no Proof of Claim is timely filed in response to such amendment) without approval of the Bankruptcy Court. If any such amendment to the Schedules reduces the amount of a Claim or adversely changes the nature or priority of a Claim that was previously scheduled as undisputed, liquidated and not contingent, the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall provide the holder of such Claim with notice of such amendment and the opportunity to file a Proof of Claim pursuant to the Claims Bar Date Order. For the avoidance of doubt, prior to the Claim Objection Deadline, the Reorganized Debtors shall have the authority to object to or otherwise dispute any Claim that has been listed on the Schedules (other than any Claim that is otherwise an Allowed Claim), even if not listed as disputed, unliquidated and/or contingent.

D. Claims Subject to Avoidance Actions

Subject in all respects to the waiver and release of Released Preference Actions set forth in Article IV.G, except as otherwise provided in a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court, any Claim held by an Entity against which a Debtor or a Reorganized Debtor pursues an Avoidance Action or an action to recover property under sections 542, 543, 550 or 553 of the Bankruptcy Code or that is a transferee of a transfer avoidable under section 522(f), 522(h), 544, 545, 547, 548, 549, or 724(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, in each case other than a Released Claim, shall be deemed disallowed pursuant to section 502(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, and the holder of such Claim shall not receive any distribution under the Plan on account of such Claim until such time as such action has been resolved and, to the extent applicable, all sums due from such holder have been turned over to the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable. For the avoidance of doubt, the Claims Objection Deadline shall not apply to the filing of an Avoidance Action, including an Avoidance Action that seeks disallowance of a Claim as relief. For the avoidance of doubt, any Claim held by an Entity that does business with the Debtors or has been identified as an eligible critical vendor, in each case, as of the date of the Committee Stipulation, shall not be disallowed on the basis of a Released Preference Action pursuant to this paragraph.

E. Claims Paid or Payable by Third Parties

1. Claims Paid by Third Parties

The Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall reduce a Claim, and such Claim shall be Disallowed without an objection having to be filed and without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court, to the extent that the holder of such Claim receives payment (before or after the Effective Date) on account of such Claim from a party that is not a Debtor or Reorganized Debtor; provided, however, if such holder is required to repay all or any portion of a Claim (either by contract or by order of a court of competent jurisdiction) to the party that is not a Debtor or Reorganized Debtor, and such holder in fact repays all or a portion of the Claim to such third party, the repaid amount of such Claim shall not be Disallowed on such basis and shall remain subject to the applicable treatment set forth in the Plan and the respective rights and defenses of the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, and the holder of such Claim. To the extent a holder of a Claim receives a distribution on account of such Claim under the Plan and receives payment from a party that is not a Debtor or ~~the~~ Reorganized Debtor on account of such Claim, such holder shall, within 10 calendar days of receipt thereof, repay or return the distribution to the applicable Debtor or Reorganized Debtor, to the extent the holder's total recovery on account of such Claim from the third party and under the Plan exceeds the amount of such Claim as of the date of any such distribution under the Plan. The failure of such holder to timely repay or return such distribution shall result in the holder owing the applicable Reorganized Debtor annualized interest at the federal judgment rate, as in effect as of the Petition Date, on such amount owed for each Business Day after the 10-calendar day grace period specified above until the amount is repaid.

2. Claims Payable by Third Parties

No distributions under the Plan shall be made on account of an Allowed Claim that is payable pursuant to any Debtor's Insurance Policies until the holder of such Allowed Claim has exhausted all remedies with respect to such Insurance Policy; provided that if such holder is required to repay all or any portion of a Claim (either by contract or by order of a court of competent jurisdiction) to an Insurer, and such holder in fact repays all or a portion of the Claim to such Insurer, the repaid amount of such Claim shall remain subject to the applicable treatment set forth in the Plan and the respective rights and defenses of the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, the holder of such Claim, and, if applicable, the Insurers. The Insurers reserve all rights to defend and contest applicable causes of action or demands to the extent that they are brought against the Insurers, or to the extent that such causes of action or demands seek recovery from the Insurers. To the extent that one or more of the Debtors' Insurers, in its role as an Insurer (but not in any role as the issuer of surety bonds or similar instruments or as a guarantor of payment), agree to pay a Claim in full or in part (if and to the extent adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction or otherwise settled), then immediately upon such Insurers' payment thereof, the applicable portion of such Claim may be expunged without an objection having to be filed and without any further notice to or action, order or approval of the Bankruptcy Court. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Article VI.E.2 is intended to alter the terms set forth in Article V.

3. Applicability of Insurance Policies

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, distributions to holders of Claims covered by Insurance Policies shall be in accordance with the provisions of any applicable Insurance Policy. Except as otherwise expressly set forth in the Plan, nothing in this Plan shall constitute or be deemed a waiver of any Cause of Action that the Debtors or any Entity, including any holders of Claims, may hold against any other Entity under any Insurance Policy, including against Insurers or any insured, nor shall anything contained in this Plan constitute or be deemed a waiver by such Insurers of any rights or defenses, including coverage defenses, held by such Insurers.

F. General Unsecured Claims Observer

With the consent of the Debtors and the Required ~~Secured~~1L Noteholders (in each case, not to be unreasonably withheld), the Committee may appoint, as of the Effective Date, a General Unsecured Claims Observer with duties limited to monitoring the Reorganized Debtors with respect to the Allowance of General Unsecured Claims and General Unsecured Convenience Claims. The General Unsecured Claims Observer shall have standing to appear before the Bankruptcy Court with respect to matters arising out of or related to reconciliation, Allowance, and settlement of any General Unsecured Claims or General Unsecured Convenience Claims, as well as to assert an objection thereto on any grounds (including that any Claim should not be Allowed or should be Allowed in a reduced amount).

The Reorganized Debtors shall consult with the General Unsecured Claims Observer with respect to the Allowance of General Unsecured Claims and General Unsecured Convenience Claims.

The General Unsecured Claims Observer may employ, without further order of the Bankruptcy Court, professionals to assist in carrying out the duties as limited above, and the General Unsecured Claims Observer Costs, including reasonable and documented professional fees and expenses, shall be reimbursed by the Reorganized Debtors in the ordinary course of business in an aggregate amount not to exceed $125,000 as soon as reasonably practicable after invoiced.

Upon the resignation or removal of the General Unsecured Claims Observer, the outgoing General Unsecured Claims Observer may appoint a successor General Unsecured Claims Observer with the consent of the Reorganized Debtors (not to be unreasonably withheld) and approval of the Bankruptcy Court; provided, that in the event of the death of the General Unsecured Claims Observer, the successor General Unsecured Claims Observer shall be appointed by the Reorganized Debtors with approval of the Bankruptcy Court. Upon the resolution of all General Unsecured Claims and General Unsecured Convenience Claims, the General Unsecured Claims Observer shall be released and discharged of and from further authority, duties, responsibilities, and obligations relating to and arising from and in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases.

The Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors on the one hand, and the Committee and the General Unsecured Claims Observer on the other hand, shall engage in good faith discussions of reasonable limitations on the rights and duties of the General Unsecured Claims Observer, including the range of de minimis General Unsecured Convenience Claims that the Reorganized Debtors may agree to Allow without oversight of the General Unsecured Claims Observer, and may agree to such limitations without further notice or order of the Bankruptcy Court.

G. Claim Resolution Procedures Cumulative

All of the aforementioned objection, estimation, and resolution procedures are cumulative and not exclusive of one another. Disputed Claims may be estimated and subsequently compromised, settled, withdrawn, or resolved by any mechanism approved by the Bankruptcy Court.

ARTICLE VII.
Distributions

A. The Disbursing Agent and Servicers

1. Powers and Roles

All distributions under the Plan shall be made by the Disbursing Agent on the Effective Date (or, if a Claim is not an Allowed Claim on the Effective Date, on the next Interim Distribution Date) or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter. Where Allowed Claims that are governed by a separate agreement and administered by a Servicer, the Disbursing Agent and the Reorganized Debtors, together with the applicable Servicer, shall use commercially reasonable efforts to implement distributions in accordance with the Plan and with the applicable agreements.

Without further order of the Bankruptcy Court, the Disbursing Agent and, where applicable, the Servicers, shall be empowered to: (a) effect all actions and execute all agreements, instruments, and other documents necessary to perform its duties under the Plan; (b) make all distributions contemplated hereby; (c) employ professionals and incur reasonable fees and expenses to represent it with respect to such responsibilities; and (d) exercise such other powers as may be vested in them by order of the Bankruptcy Court, pursuant to the Plan, or as deemed by the Disbursing Agent to be necessary and proper to implement the Plan.

If the Disbursing Agent is one or more of the Reorganized Debtors, the Disbursing Agent shall not be required to give any bond or surety or other security for the performance of its duties unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court. The Servicers shall not be required to give any bond or surety or other security for the performance of its duties unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court.

2. Expenses

Except as otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court, the amount of any reasonable fees and documented expenses incurred by the Disbursing Agent or the Servicers on or after the Effective Date (including the reasonable and documented fees and expenses of counsel) in connection with making distributions shall be paid by the Reorganized Debtors, without duplication of payments of Restructuring Expenses or Retained Professional Fees. Additionally, in the event that the Disbursing Agent is ordered or required to give a bond or surety, all costs and expenses of procuring any such bond or surety shall be borne by the Reorganized Debtors.

B. Delivery Procedures

1. Record Date

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan or prior Bankruptcy Court order, the Disbursing Agent shall make distributions to holders of Allowed Claims as of the Distribution Record Date at the address for each such holder as indicated in the Debtors' records as of the date of any such distribution.

The manner of such distributions shall be determined at the discretion of the Reorganized Debtors. In addition, with respect to payment of any Cure Claim or disputes over any Cure Claim, neither the Debtors nor the Disbursing Agent shall have any obligation to recognize or deal with any party other than the non-Debtor party to the applicable Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease as of the Effective Date, even if such non-Debtor party has sold, assigned, or otherwise transferred its Cure Claim. For avoidance of doubt, the Distribution Record Date shall not apply to beneficial holders of securities customarily filed with DTC, who shall receive a distribution in accordance with the terms of this Article VII and, as applicable, the customary procedures of DTC on or as soon as practicable after the Effective Date.

All distributions to holders on account of Allowed (a) 1L Notes Claims, (b) 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims, (c) 2026 Notes Claims, (d) 2027 Unsecured Notes Claims, and (e) ABL Facility Claims shall be deemed completed when made to or at the direction of the Prepetition Agent for the applicable Prepetition Debt Document under which the relevant Allowed Claims arose, which shall be deemed to be the holder of such Claims for purposes of distributions to be made under this Plan~~; provided that the distributions to holders of 1L Notes Claims in respect of the New Money Notes, 2026 Notes Claims, and 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims shall be subject to the Appellate Adjustment Mechanism~~, subject to any Potential Remedies Order, as applicable. The Prepetition Agents shall hold or direct such distributions for the benefit of the holders of the foregoing Allowed Claims, in each case to the extent that the Prepetition Agent is the Prepetition Agent for the applicable Prepetition Debt Document under which the applicable Allowed Claims arose. As applicable, such Prepetition Agent may transfer or direct the transfer of such distributions directly through the facilities of DTC (whether by means of book-entry exchange, free delivery, or otherwise) and will be entitled to recognize and deal for all purposes under the Plan with applicable holders of the foregoing Allowed Claims, in a manner consistent with the customary practices of DTC. The Prepetition Agents shall not incur any liability whatsoever on account of any distributions under the Plan except for gross negligence or willful misconduct. If the Prepetition Agents are unable to make, or consent to the Reorganized Debtors making, such distributions, the Reorganized Debtors or an authorized Disbursing Agent, with the applicable Prepetition Agent's cooperation, shall make such distribution. The Prepetition Agents for the 1L Notes, the 2024 Unsecured Notes, the 2026 Notes and the 2027 Unsecured Notes shall have no duties, obligations, or responsibilities with respect to any form of distribution to holders of the foregoing Allowed Claims that is not DTC-eligible, and the Reorganized Debtors shall make such distributions. For the avoidance of doubt, all distributions referenced in this paragraph shall be subject to any charging liens exercised by the Prepetition Agents.

2. Interim Distribution Date

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan or prior Bankruptcy Court order, the Disbursing Agent shall make additional interim distributions to holders of Allowed Claims that were not considered Allowed as of Distribution Record Date.

The Reorganized Debtors shall have reasonable discretion to determine the timing of these Interim Distribution Dates based on among other things, resolutions of Disputed Claims and the administrative costs of such a distribution. The manner of such distributions shall be determined at the reasonable discretion of the Reorganized Debtors.

3. Publicly Held Securities

The Distribution Record Dates shall not apply to publicly held securities deposited with DTC and, in connection with any distribution under the Plan to be effected through the facilities of DTC (whether by means of book-entry exchange, free delivery, or otherwise), the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall be entitled to recognize and deal for all purposes

under the Plan with holders of Claims in each Class to the extent consistent with the customary practices of DTC used in connection with such distributions.

4. Distributions of ~~New Common Equity~~Securities

Any distribution of New Convertible Takeback Notes and/or New Common Equity shall be conditioned on the submission to the Debtors or their designated agent of an executed ~~Equity~~Securities Registration Form and signature page to the New LLC Agreement and/or applicable New Notes Documents. If a holder of Allowed Claims entitled to a distribution of New Convertible Takeback Notes and/or New Common Equity has not delivered a validly executed ~~Equity~~Securities Registration Form and signature page to the New LLC Agreement and/or applicable New Notes Documents to the Debtors or their designated agent by the Effective Date, any distribution of New Convertible Takeback Notes and/or New Common Equity to which such holder would be entitled under the Plan shall be held in escrow by the Reorganized Debtors, notwithstanding any state or other escheat or similar laws to the contrary. If such holder has not delivered a validly executed ~~Equity~~Securities Registration Form and signature page to the New LLC Agreement and/or the applicable New Notes Documents to the Debtors or their designated agent within 180 calendar days after the Effective Date, the entitlement of such holder to such distribution on account of such holder's Claims shall be extinguished and forever barred. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Debtors (with the consent of the Required ~~Secured~~1L Noteholders and the Required 2026 Noteholders) or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, may determine to waive compliance with the foregoing with respect to any distributions of New Common Equity settled pursuant to the facilities of DTC in accordance with ~~Article VII.F~~Article VII.G; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, each DTC Holder shall be deemed to be a party to (and in privity of contract with the other parties to) the New LLC Agreement as a "beneficial owner" and bound thereby, in each case, regardless of execution thereof by such DTC Holder, in accordance with Article IV.C.4.

5. Undeliverable Distributions and Unclaimed Property

In the event that any distribution to any holder is undeliverable for any reason (including an undeliverable address or the recipient's failure to provide necessary information), no distribution to such holder shall be made unless and until the holder has cured the reason that its distribution was undeliverable, after which its distribution shall be made on the next Interim Distribution Date without interest; provided, however, that any undeliverable distribution shall be deemed unclaimed property under section 347(b) of the Bankruptcy Code at the expiration of 180 calendar days after the date on which such distribution was first attempted to be made, as determined in good faith by Reorganized Incora; provided, further, that the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall use reasonable efforts to locate a holder if any distribution is returned as undeliverable. After such date, all unclaimed property or interests in property shall revert to the Reorganized Debtors automatically and without need for a further order by the Bankruptcy Court (notwithstanding any applicable federal, provincial, state or other jurisdiction escheat, abandonment, or unclaimed property laws to the contrary), and, to the extent such undeliverable distribution is comprised of New Common Equity, such New Common Equity shall be canceled. The claim of any holder to such property or interest in property shall be discharged and forever barred.

Checks issued on account of Allowed Claims shall be null and void if not negotiated within 180 calendar days from and after the date of issuance thereof. Requests for reissuance of any check must be made directly and in writing to the Disbursing Agent by the holder of the relevant Allowed Claim within the 180-calendar-day period. After such date, the relevant Allowed Claim (and any Claim for reissuance of the original check) shall be automatically discharged and forever barred, and such funds shall revert to the Reorganized Debtors (notwithstanding any applicable federal, state, other U.S. or non-U.S. jurisdiction's escheat, abandoned, or unclaimed property laws to the contrary).

A distribution shall be deemed unclaimed if a holder has not: (x) accepted a particular distribution or, in the case of distributions made by check, negotiated such check; (y) responded to the Debtors' or Reorganized Debtors' requests for information necessary to facilitate a particular distribution; or (z) taken any other action necessary to facilitate such distribution.

The Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, and the Disbursing Agents, as applicable, shall not incur any liability whatsoever on account of any distributions under the Plan, except in the event of actual fraud, gross negligence, or willful misconduct, as determined by a Final Order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

6. Manner of Payment

At the option of the Disbursing Agent, any Cash payment to be made hereunder may be made by check, wire transfer, automated clearing house, or credit card, or as otherwise required or provided in applicable agreements.

C. Calculation

1. Full Amount Payable

Unless otherwise provided in the Plan or paid pursuant to a prior Bankruptcy Court order, on the Effective Date (or, if a Claim is not an Allowed Claim on the Effective Date, then on the date that such Claim becomes Allowed or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter), each holder of an Allowed Claim or Allowed Interest shall receive the full amount of the distributions that the Plan provides for Allowed Claims or Allowed Interests in the applicable Class. Distributions on account of any Disputed Claims (which will only be made if and when they become Allowed Claims) shall be made pursuant to the provisions set forth in Article VII. If any payment or act under the Plan is required to be made or performed on or by a date that is not a Business Day, then the making of such payment or the performance of such act may be completed on the next succeeding Business Day. Distributions on account of Claims in unimpaired Classes that are asserted in non-U.S. currency may, at the Debtors' discretion, be paid in the applicable non-U.S. currency. Distributions on account of Claims in all other Classes shall be converted to the equivalent U.S. dollar value using the exchange rate for the applicable currency as published in The Wall Street Journal, National Edition, on the Petition Date.

2. Distributions on Account of Obligations of Multiple Debtors

For all purposes associated with distributions under the Plan, each Claim that has been asserted against multiple Debtors will be treated as a single Claim and shall result in a single distribution under the Plan.

3. Minimum Distributions

No fractional New Common Equity shall be distributed to a holder of an Allowed Claim on account of its Allowed Claim. When any distribution pursuant to the Plan would otherwise result in the issuance of a number of shares (or LLC interests or other such units) of New Common Equity that is not a whole number, the actual distribution of such New Common Equity shall be rounded as follows: (a) fractions of greater than one-half (½) units of New Common Equity shall be rounded to the next higher whole number and (b) fractions of one-half (½) or less of New Common Equity shall be rounded to the next lower whole number with no further payment on their account. The total number of authorized units of New Common Equity to be distributed to holders of Allowed Claims may be adjusted as necessary to account for the foregoing rounding.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan, no Cash payment valued at less than $50.00, in the reasonable discretion of the Disbursing Agent and the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors (as applicable), shall be made to a holder of an Allowed Claim on account of such Allowed Claim. Such Allowed Claims to which this limitation applies shall be discharged and its holder forever barred from asserting that Claim against the Reorganized Debtors or their property.

4. Setoff and Recoupment

The Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors may, but shall not be required to, set off against any Claim or Interest (for purposes of determining the Allowed amount of such Claim or Interest on which distribution shall be made), any claims of any nature whatsoever that the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors may have against the holder of such Claim or Interest that have not been otherwise released, compromised or settled on or prior to the Effective Date (pursuant to the Plan or otherwise); provided that neither the failure to do so nor the Allowance of any Claim or Interest under this Plan shall constitute a waiver or release by the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors of any such claim the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors may have against the holder of such Claim or Interest.

5. No Postpetition Interest

Except as to the DIP Financing Claims and as required by the Bankruptcy Code, postpetition interest shall not accrue or be paid on any Claims or Interests, and no holder of a Claim or Interest shall be entitled to interest accruing on or after the Petition Date on any such Claim or Interest.

6. Allocation Between Principal and Accrued Interest

Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the aggregate consideration paid to holders with respect to their Allowed Claims shall be treated pursuant to the Plan as allocated first to the principal amount of such Allowed Claims (to the extent thereof) and, thereafter, to the interest, if any, accrued through the Effective Date.

7. Single Satisfaction of Claims

Notwithstanding anything else contained in the Plan or Confirmation Order, in no case shall a distribution be made under the Plan on account of an Allowed Claim to the extent that the aggregate value of all property received or retained on account of such Allowed Claim (from whatever source) would exceed 100 percent of the underlying Allowed Claim.

D. Distributions to Holders of Disputed Claims

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan (except as provided below), (a) no distributions will be made under the Plan on account of a Disputed Claim until such Claim becomes an Allowed Claim pursuant to a Final Order, if ever, and (b) except as otherwise agreed by the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, no partial distributions with respect to a Disputed Claim will be made under the Plan until all disputes in connection with such Disputed Claim have been resolved by settlement or Final Order.

To the extent that a Disputed Claim ultimately becomes an Allowed Claim, any distributions under the Plan shall be made to the holder of such Allowed Claim in accordance with the provisions of the Plan on the next Interim Distribution Date, without any interest to be paid on account of such Claim.

Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary herein, distributions on account of 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims, 2026 Notes Claims and 1L Notes Claims will be made on the Effective Date (or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable in accordance with the distribution provisions set forth herein) in accordance with the Bankruptcy Court's rulings in the 2022 Financing Adversary Proceeding as of the Confirmation Date, including the Adversary Proceeding Decisions, notwithstanding that such rulings are not Final Orders as of the Confirmation Date and remain subject to the Appellate Litigation and any Potential Remedies Order. Such distributions (and the holders thereof, and each such holders' successors, transferees and assigns) will remain subject to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court (and any appellate court therefrom) and any Potential Remedies Order. For the avoidance of doubt, in no event shall the Plan (the Plan Settlement), the Confirmation Order or any consent to or vote to accept the Plan be deemed (x) to be a determination by the Bankruptcy Court or an admission or waiver by the Debtors or any other Entity as to the status (including secured (or Secured) or unsecured status) of the 2024 Unsecured Notes, the 2026 Notes, the 1L Notes (including the New Money Claims) (or the 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims, the 2026 Notes Claims or the 1L Notes Claims on account thereof) or (y) to moot, waive, foreclose or otherwise impair any appeal (including any appeal by holders of 1L Notes Claims, 2026 Notes Claims and/or 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims) of the Bankruptcy Court's rulings in the 2022 Financing Adversary Proceeding (or alter, amend or otherwise limit any rights, claims or defenses that may or could be asserted by any Entity in connection with the Appellate Litigation, irrespective of whether such rights, claims or defenses are provided or arise under the applicable agreements, applicable law, or otherwise) or any party pursuing any Potential Remedies Order. However, notwithstanding any other provision, no holder of a 1L Notes Claim, 2026 Notes Claim or 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims (and none of their Related Parties, including any successors, assigns and transferees of any distributions under the Plan) shall (individually or as a group) argue that (x) any Appellate Litigation is barred under the doctrine of equitable mootness or (y) any argument made in any Appellate Litigation by any party is barred, waived, or otherwise estopped as a result of that party's agreement or consent to or vote to accept the Plan; provided, that, this clause (y) is subject in all respects to the parties' agreement regarding Turnover and the applicability of a Potential Remedies Order as set forth in Article VII.F.

E. Exemption from Securities Laws

1. Exemption for Distributions Under Plan

The offer, issuance, and distribution under the Plan ~~(including in connection with the Appellate Adjustment Mechanism)~~ of the New Common Equity shall be exempt, without further act or actions by any Entity, from registration under the Securities Act and any other applicable securities laws to the fullest extent permitted by section 1145 of the Bankruptcy Code, except with respect to an Entity that is an "underwriter" with respect to such securities, as that term is defined in section 1145(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Subject to the transfer provisions, if any, and other applicable provisions set forth in the New Organizational Documents, these securities may be resold without registration under the Securities Act or other federal securities laws pursuant to the exemption provided by section 4(a)(1) of the Securities Act, unless the holder is an "underwriter" with respect to such securities, as that term is defined in section 1145(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. In addition, if the holder is not an "underwriter" with respect to such securities, as that term is defined in section 1145(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, but such holder is an "affiliate" (as defined in Rule 144(a)(1) under the Securities Act) of the issuer, such holder may resell such securities without registration pursuant to and in accordance with the applicable provisions of Rule 144 under the Securities Act (other than the holding period requirement in Rule 144(d) applicable to "restricted securities") or another available exemption under the Securities Act. In addition, such persons will also be entitled to resell such securities in transactions registered under the Securities Act following the effectiveness of an applicable registration statement, if one is filed with the SEC and becomes effective. Further, subject to the transfer provisions, if any, and other applicable provisions set forth in the New Organizational Documents, such section 1145 exempt securities generally may be resold without registration under state securities laws pursuant to various exemptions provided by the respective laws of the several states.

The offer, issuance, and distribution under the Plan ~~(including in connection with the Appellate Adjustment Mechanism)~~ of the New Notes shall be exempt, without further act or actions by any Entity, from registration under the Securities Act and any other applicable securities laws as a private placement pursuant to section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act and/or the safe harbor of Regulation D promulgated thereunder. All New Notes issued pursuant to the exemption from registration set forth in section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act and/or the safe harbor of Regulation D promulgated thereunder shall be considered "restricted securities" and may not be transferred except pursuant to an effective registration statement or under an available exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act, such as, under certain conditions, the resale provisions of Rule 144 or Rule 144A under the Securities Act, subject to, in each case, the transfer provisions, if any, and other applicable provisions set forth in the New ~~Exit~~ Notes Documents ~~or~~and the New ~~Takeback Notes~~Investment Documents, as applicable.

2. Exemption for Issuances to Underwriters

The offer, sale, issuance, and distribution under the Plan ~~(including in connection with the Appellate Adjustment Mechanism)~~ of any New Common Equity issued to an Entity that is an "underwriter" with respect to such securities, as that term is defined in section 1145(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, shall be exempt from registration under the Securities Act and any other applicable securities laws in reliance on the exemption from registration set forth in ~~Section~~section 4(a)(2) under the Securities Act (and on applicable state law registration exemptions) and/or Regulation D promulgated thereunder (and on the preemption of state law registration requirements afforded thereby) or, solely to the extent such exemptions are not available, other available exemptions from registration under the Securities Act. Such securities will be considered "restricted securities" and may not be transferred except pursuant to an effective registration statement or under an available exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act, such as, under certain conditions, the resale provisions of Rule 144 under the Securities Act, subject to, in each case, the transfer provisions, if any, and other applicable provisions set forth in the New Organizational Documents.

F. Appellate Litigation, Potential Remedies Order and Legends

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, in the event that any party obtains a Potential Remedies Order in connection with the Appellate Litigation, the New Common Equity and New Convertible Takeback Notes and the holders thereof (including their successors, assignees or transferees) shall be subject to, and required to comply with, such Potential Remedies Order. The New Common Equity and New Convertible Takeback Notes and each recipient of New Common Equity and/or New Convertible Takeback Notes issued on account of 1L Notes Claims or 2026 Notes Claims (including all successors, assigns and transferees of the initial recipients) shall remain subject to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court (and any appellate court therefrom).

Nothing in this Plan, nor the references to, or definition of, Potential Remedies Order herein, shall (i) be construed as limiting, prejudicing, evidencing, advocating, or prescribing any particular remedy, and any determination on remedy shall be made exclusively by a court of competent jurisdiction or (ii) limit any party from seeking any other remedy or contesting any remedy (including a remedy effectuated through a Potential Remedies Order); provided, that: (x) it is expressly contemplated by this Plan and agreed by and among the 2024/2026 Appellate Litigation Parties and the First Lien Appellate Litigation Parties that Turnover is an available remedy to any court of competent jurisdiction and no party shall argue in any proceeding related to the Appellate

Litigation that Turnover is not an available remedy; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, such agreement shall not be construed as prescribing any particular remedy; (y) the 2024/2026 Appellate Litigation Parties and the First Lien Appellate Litigation Parties will not argue that any particular remedy is unavailable because it was not adequately disclosed or developed in the Plan, Definitive Documents, or the securities issued under the Plan; and (z) the 2024/2026 Appellate Litigation Parties and the First Lien Appellate Litigation Parties may urge any court to consider tax implications with respect to any remedy, including with respect to any Potential Remedies Order.

A Potential Remedies Order may be (i) requested by any Entity seeking to receive any portion of such Excess Distribution and (ii) effectuated (solely to the extent so ordered by the court), through a deemed transfer or turnover (without any action by the holders thereof) and reflected through an adjustment to any applicable register reflecting the ownership of New Common Equity and New Convertible Takeback Notes and/or the reissuance of any certificated securities, as applicable.

After entry of a Potential Remedies Order, the Reorganized Debtors or any agent for the Reorganized Debtors or the holders of New Common Equity or New Convertible Takeback Notes issued by the Reorganized Debtor may seek further orders related to the Potential Remedies Order in order to effectuate such Potential Remedies Order and may take all steps necessary to effectuate such Potential Remedies Order, including instructing the registrar to reflect the ownership of New Common Equity and New Convertible Takeback Notes consistent with such Potential Remedies Order.

The Appellate Litigation Parties will receive the same class of securities as each other. G. ~~F.~~ DTC

Should the Debtors (with the consent of the Required ~~Secured~~1L Noteholders) or the Reorganized Debtors elect on or after the Effective Date to reflect any ownership of the New Common Equity and/or the New Notes ~~(including in connection with the Appellate Adjustment Mechanism)~~ through the facilities of DTC, the Reorganized Debtors need not provide any further evidence other than the Plan or the Confirmation Order with respect to the treatment of transfers, exercise, removal of restrictions, or conversion of New Common Equity and/or New Notes under applicable U.S. federal, state or local securities laws.

DTC shall be required to accept and conclusively rely upon the Plan and Confirmation Order in lieu of a legal opinion regarding whether the New Common Equity and/or the New Notes ~~(including in connection with the Appellate Adjustment Mechanism)~~ are exempt from registration and/or eligible for DTC book-entry delivery, settlement and depository services. Each Entity that becomes a holder of New Common Equity and/or New Notes indirectly through the facilities of DTC will be deemed bound by the terms and conditions of the applicable New Organizational Documents~~, New Exit Notes Documents~~ or New ~~Takeback~~ Notes Documents and shall be deemed to be a beneficial owner of New Common Equity and/or New Notes subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable New Organizational Documents~~,~~ and New ~~Exit Notes Documents or New Takeback~~ Notes Documents.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan, no Entity (including, for the avoidance of doubt, DTC) may require a legal opinion regarding the validity of any transaction contemplated by the Plan, including, for the avoidance of doubt, whether the New Common Equity and/or the New Notes are exempt from registration and/or eligible for DTC book-entry delivery, settlement and depository services.

For the avoidance of doubt, the New Convertible Takeback Notes and the New Common Equity issued on account of 1L Notes Claims and 2026 Notes Claims will initially be held in registered / book-entry form only and not through the facilities of DTC for so long as such securities bear a legend with respect to a Potential Remedies Order (unless the Reorganized Debtors elect otherwise).

In connection with the Plan, to the extent applicable, the Reorganized Debtors and the Disbursing Agent shall comply with all tax withholding and reporting requirements imposed on them by any Governmental Unit, and all distributions pursuant to the Plan shall be subject to such withholding and reporting requirements. Notwithstanding any provision in the Plan to the contrary, the Reorganized Debtors and the Disbursing Agent shall be authorized to take all actions necessary or appropriate to comply with such withholding and reporting requirements, including withholding distributions pending receipt of information necessary to facilitate such distributions or establishing any other mechanisms they believe are reasonable and appropriate. The Reorganized Debtors reserve the right to allocate all distributions made under the Plan in compliance with all applicable wage garnishments, alimony, child support and other spousal awards, liens, and encumbrances. Notwithstanding the above, each holder of an Allowed Claim or Allowed Interest that is to receive a distribution under the Plan shall have the sole and exclusive responsibility for the satisfaction and payment of any tax obligations imposed on such holder by any Governmental Unit, including income, withholding, and other tax obligations, on account of such distribution. The Debtors have the right, but not the obligation, to not make a distribution until such holder has made arrangements satisfactory to any issuing or disbursing party for payment of any such tax obligations. The Debtors may require, as a condition to receipt of a distribution, that the holder of an Allowed Claim complete and return a Form W-8 or W-9 or similar form, as applicable to each such holder.

Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Plan or in the Confirmation Order, all Persons and Entities are permanently ENJOINED, from and after the Effective Date, from commencing or continuing any action, the employment of process, or any other act, to pursue, collect, recover or offset any Claim, Interest, debt, obligation or Cause of Action that has been extinguished, discharged, released or made subject to exculpation under this Plan (the "Covered Matters"), whether against the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, (solely with respect to the Releasing Parties) the Released Parties, or the Exculpated Parties (the "Covered Entities"). The acts enjoined by the foregoing injunction include any act to:

1. enforce, attach, collect, or recover by any manner or means any judgment, award, decree, or order against a Covered Entity or any of the property or interests in property of a Covered Entity on account of or in connection with or with respect to any Covered Matter;

2. create, renew, perfect, or enforce any lien or encumbrance of any kind against a Covered Entity or any of the property or interests in property of a Covered Entity on account of or in connection with or with respect to any Covered Matter; or

3. assert any right of setoff, subrogation, or recoupment of any kind against any obligation due from a Covered Entity or from any of the property or interests in property of a Covered Entity on account of or in connection with or with respect to any Covered Matter, unless the Person or Entity holding such setoff, subrogation or recoupment right has asserted such a right and has expressly stated its intent to preserve its right in a document filed with the Bankruptcy Court and served on the Debtors and the applicable Covered Entity no later than the earlier of (x) 28 calendar days after entry of the Confirmation Order and (y) the Effective Date.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, no Entity shall treat, or cause any other Entity to treat, any stock (within the meaning of Section 382(g)(4)(D) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended) of any Debtor held by any 50-Percent Shareholder as "becoming worthless" (within the meaning of Section 382(g)(4)(D) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended), with respect to any taxable year ending prior to the Effective Date.

With respect to any Covered Entity, no Entity or Person may commence or continue any action, employ any process, or take any other act to pursue, collect, recover or offset any Claim, Interest, debt, obligation, or Cause of Action relating or reasonably likely to relate to any act or omission in connection with, relating to, or arising out of a Covered Released Matter, Covered Matter, or Covered Exculpation Matter (including one that alleges the actual fraud, gross negligence, or willful misconduct of a Covered Entity), unless expressly authorized by the Bankruptcy Court after (1) it determines that, after notice and a hearing, such Claim, Interest, debt, obligation, or Cause of Action is colorable and (2) it specifically authorizes such Entity or Person to bring such Claim or Cause of Action; provided, however, that, for the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this paragraph requires, precludes, and/or prohibits an Insurer to or from administering, handling, defending, settling and/or paying claims covered by any Insurance Policies in accordance with and subject to the terms and conditions of such Insurance Policies and/or applicable non-bankruptcy law. The Bankruptcy Court shall have sole and exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether any such Claim, Interest, debt, obligation, or Cause of Action is colorable and, only to the extent legally permissible and as provided for in Article XI, shall have jurisdiction to adjudicate such underlying colorable Claim, Interest, debt, obligation, or Cause of Action. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this paragraph shall not apply to the Langur Maize Retained Causes of Action.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the injunction does not enjoin ~~any Entity from bringing any Appellate Litigation or~~(1) the parties to the Appellate Litigation from prosecuting or defending the Appellate Litigation (other than the 2024/2026 Holders' Standing Motion), (2) the 2024/2026 Appellate Litigation Parties from prosecuting the 2024/2026 Holders' Standing Motion solely in accordance with Article

IV.A. or any party from opposing the 2024/2026 Holders' Standing Motion, or (3) any Entity from prosecuting any action to enforce the terms of ~~this~~the Plan, the Confirmation Order, any Potential Remedies Order, any other Definitive Document, or other document, instrument, or agreement executed to implement this Plan, the Confirmation Order or any other Definitive Document. The injunctions set forth in this ~~Article VIII.G~~Article VIII.G shall extend to any successors of the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, the Released Parties, the Exculpated Parties and all of their respective property and interests in property.

H. Subordination Rights

The classification and manner of satisfying all Claims and Interests under the Plan take into consideration all subordination rights, whether arising under general principles of equitable subordination, contract, section 510(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, or otherwise, that a holder of a Claim or Interest may have against other Claim or Interest holders with respect to any distribution made pursuant to the Plan. Except as provided in the Plan (including, for the avoidance of doubt, Article IV.A.2), all subordination rights that a holder of a Claim may have with respect to any distribution to be made pursuant to the Plan shall be discharged and terminated, and all actions related to the enforcement of such subordination rights shall be permanently enjoined.

ARTICLE XII.

A. EFFECT OF PLAN

1. Reservation of Rights

Except as expressly set forth in the Plan, the Plan shall have no force or effect unless the Bankruptcy Court enters the Confirmation Order, and the Confirmation Order shall have no force or effect as to a Debtor if the Effective Date does not occur as to such Debtor. None of the filing of the Plan, any statement or provision contained in the Plan, or the taking of any action by any Debtor with respect to the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, or the Plan Supplement shall be or shall be deemed to be an admission or waiver of any rights of any Debtor with respect to the holders of Claims or Interests before Consummation.

2. Immediate Binding Effect

Subject to Article IX.A and notwithstanding Bankruptcy ~~Rules~~Rule 3020(e), 6004(h), or 7062 or otherwise, upon Consummation, the terms of the Plan shall be immediately effective and enforceable and binding upon the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, and any and all holders of Claims or Interests (irrespective of whether such Claims or Interests are deemed to have accepted the Plan), all Entities that are party, or subject to, the settlements, compromises, releases, discharges, and injunctions described in the Plan, each Entity acquiring property under the Plan, and any and all of the Debtors' counterparties to Executory Contracts and/or Unexpired Leases and any other prepetition agreements.

3. Entire Agreement

Except as otherwise indicated, the Plan (including the Plan Supplement) supersedes all previous and contemporaneous negotiations, promises, covenants, agreements, understandings, and representations on such subjects, all of which have become merged and integrated into the Plan.

4. Successors and Assigns

The rights, benefits, and obligations of any Entity named or referred to in the Plan shall be binding on, and shall inure to the benefit of any heir, executor, administrator, successor or assign, affiliate, officer, director, agent, representative, attorney, beneficiaries, or guardian, if any, of each Entity.

5. Termination of Injunctions and Stays

Unless otherwise provided in the Plan or in the Confirmation Order, all injunctions or stays in effect in the Chapter 11 Cases pursuant to sections 105 or 362 of the Bankruptcy Code or any order of the Bankruptcy Court, and existing on the Confirmation Date (excluding any injunctions or stays contained in the Plan or the Confirmation Order) shall remain in full force and effect until the Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, (a) upon the Effective Date, the automatic stay pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 362 of any litigation proceedings against or involving the applicable Debtors shall terminate and (b) all injunctions or stays contained in the Plan or the Confirmation Order shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with their terms.

6. Votes Solicited in Good Faith

Upon Confirmation, the Debtors shall be deemed to have solicited votes on the Plan in good faith and in compliance with the Bankruptcy Code and, pursuant to section 1125(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors and their respective affiliates, agents, representatives, members, principals, shareholders, officers, directors, employees, advisors, and attorneys shall be deemed to have participated in good faith and in compliance with the Bankruptcy Code in the offer, issuance, sale, and purchase of securities offered and sold under the Plan and any previous plan, and, therefore, none of any such parties or individuals or the Reorganized Debtors will have any liability for the violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing the solicitation of votes on the Plan or the offer, issuance, sale, or purchase of the securities offered and sold under the Plan and any previous plan.

7. Dissolution of the Committee

On the Effective Date, the Committee shall dissolve, and its members and the Retained Professionals of the Committee shall be released and discharged of and from all further authority, duties, responsibilities, and obligations related to and arising from and in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases, except with respect to any continuing confidentiality obligations; provided, however, that, the Committee shall continue to exist after the Effective Date and have standing and a right to be heard for the ~~following~~ limited ~~purposes: (a)~~purpose of applications, and any relief related thereto, for payment of Retained Professional Fees of Retained Professionals of the Committee~~; and (b) any appeals of the Confirmation Order~~.

8. Closing of Chapter 11 Cases

On and after the Effective Date, all of the Chapter 11 Cases of the Debtors shall be deemed closed except for one of the Chapter 11 Cases as determined by the Reorganized Debtors, and all contested matters and adversary proceedings relating to any of the Debtors (including Claim objections) shall be administered and heard in such Chapter 11 Case, irrespective of whether the contested matter or adversary proceeding was commenced against a Debtor whose Chapter 11 Case was closed. Upon the occurrence of the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors shall be permitted to change the name of the remaining Debtor and case caption of the remaining open Chapter 11 Case as desired, in the Reorganized Debtors' sole discretion.

The Reorganized Debtors may at any time seek to close any remaining Chapter 11 Case in accordance with the Bankruptcy Code and the Bankruptcy Rules.

9. Appellate Litigation

The treatment provided under this Plan on the Effective Date on account of 1L Notes Claims (including New Money Claims), 2026 Notes Claims, and 2024 Unsecured Notes Claims is based on the Bankruptcy Court's rulings in the 2022 Financing Adversary Proceeding. The 2024/2026 Appellate Litigation Parties and First Lien Appellate Litigation Parties agree that they are each aggrieved parties with respect to such rulings such that they each have the right to (a) appeal or otherwise challenge the 2022 Financing Adversary Proceeding rulings directly by way of the Appellate Litigation, irrespective of whether they were named in a particular count or Cause of Action that was adjudicated against the Debtors (or whether the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors themselves are appellants), and (b) defend against any such appeal or other challenge in the Appellate Litigation, as the case may be. For the avoidance of doubt, the 2024/2026 Appellate Litigation Parties and First Lien Appellate Litigation Parties preserve all of their respective rights in connection with such Appellate Litigation and in the event the 2022 Adversary Proceeding is remanded for further proceedings.[10] Additionally, the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, will file a notice of appeal and file a joinder to the arguments of the First Lien Appellate Litigation Parties solely to eliminate any doubt about those parties' ability to prosecute their appeal and will agree to waive any further participation in the appeal. The First Lien Appellate Litigation Parties will not argue in the Appellate Litigation that the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors have joined in their argument other than to argue that such joinder eliminates any doubt about their ability to prosecute the Appellate Litigation. The 2024/2026 Appellate Litigation Parties will not argue that the Debtors' or the Reorganized Debtors' failure to take any steps or the Debtors' or the Reorganized Debtors' limited involvement in connection with its participation in the Appellate Litigation has any substantive effect or import. The 2024/2026 Appellate Litigation Parties and First Lien Appellate Litigation Parties further agree that none of the parties' rights or arguments will be limited in any way by the Debtors' or the Reorganized Debtors' non-involvement or limited involvement in the Appellate Litigation, and that the parties are entitled to raise, any and all arguments and defenses that were raised in the 2022 Financing Adversary Proceeding in the Appellate Litigation and in the event the case is remanded for further proceedings. The Debtors' or the Reorganized Debtors' non-involvement or limited involvement shall also not be construed as a waiver of any rights or consent to any portion of the Bankruptcy Court's ruling in the 2022 Financing Adversary Proceeding, or agreement or objection to any claims or arguments asserted by the parties.

For the avoidance of doubt, the 2024/2026 Appellate Litigation Parties and First Lien Appellate Litigation Parties will bear their own fees, expenses and costs of the Appellate Litigation, and the Reorganized Debtors shall not pay or reimburse such parties for their appellate expenses or otherwise indemnify such parties in connection with the appeal.

The Appellate Litigation Parties will request that the Bankruptcy Court issue a final decision, order and report and recommendation for all matters decided in the 2022 Financing Adversary Proceeding as between the 2024/2026 Noteholder Group (or any individual member thereof or its affiliated funds), on the one hand, and the Debtors and/or First Lien Noteholder Group (or any individual member thereof or its affiliated funds), on the other hand (including the Tortious Interference Claims and the March 2022 $250 million new money). For the avoidance of doubt, the Appellate Litigation Parties retain the right to file any motions for clarification or reconsideration (and to oppose such motions), which will be subject to terms set forth above regarding appeal. The Appellate Litigation Parties agree to jointly request that the appeal of any plan confirmation order and any matters decided in the 2022 Financing Adversary Proceeding as between the 2024/2026 Noteholder Group (or any individual member thereof or its affiliated funds) and the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, and/or First Lien Noteholder Group (or any individual member thereof or its affiliated funds) will be consolidated and briefed on the same schedule. In order to facilitate this coordination, the Appellate Litigation Parties also agree to request the Bankruptcy Court issue a final decision, order, and report and recommendation at its earliest practical convenience so as to facilitate a coordinated appeal with the Confirmation Order, and to stay, hold in abeyance, adjourn, or otherwise extend any interim deadlines to the extent necessary for any such appeals pending entry of the final decision, order and report and recommendation requested hereby. The Appellate Litigation Parties agree that this agreement shall apply during any intermediate appeal until a final non-appealable order.
