If no objections or responses are filed and served, this Court may enter a final order without further notice or hearing.

3. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, in the ordinary course of business, to: (a) continue and maintain the Insurance Policies and pay any related prepetition or postpetition amounts or obligations, including any prepetition or postpetition obligations related to the Insurance Policies, Insurance Brokerage Fees, and any other related expenses, provided that such payments shall not exceed $100,000 in the aggregate pending entry of the Final Order; and (b) renew, amend, supplement, extend, or purchase insurance policies in the ordinary course of business and, in each case, to the extent that the Debtors determine that such action is in the best interests of their estates.

4. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to pay any prepetition or postpetition obligations on account of the Deductibles and/or SIRs in the ordinary course of business and consistent with prepetition practice.

5. The banks and financial institutions on which checks were drawn or electronic payment requests made in payment of the prepetition obligations approved herein are authorized to receive, process, honor, and pay all such checks and electronic payment requests when presented for payment, and all such banks and financial institutions are authorized to rely on the Debtors' designation of any particular check or electronic payment request as approved by this Interim Order.

6. Nothing contained in the Motion or this Interim Order, and no action taken pursuant to the relief requested or granted (including any payment made in accordance with this Interim Order), is intended as or shall be construed or deemed to be: (a) an admission as to the amount, validity, or priority of, or basis for, any claim against the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's right to dispute any claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication, admission or finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim, other priority claim, or otherwise of a type specified or defined in the Motion or this Interim Order; (e) a request or authorization to assume, adopt, or reject any agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; (f) an admission as to the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates; or (g) a waiver or limitation of any claims, causes of action, or other rights of the Debtors or any other party in interest against any person or entity under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law.

7. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to issue postpetition checks, or to effect postpetition fund transfer requests, in replacement of any checks or fund transfer requests that are dishonored as a consequence of the Chapter 11 Cases with respect to prepetition amounts owed in connection with the relief granted herein.

8. The Court finds and determines that the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003 are satisfied and that the relief requested is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm.

9. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), this Interim Order shall be effective and enforceable immediately upon entry hereof.

10. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to implement the relief granted in this Interim Order.

11. This Court shall retain jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Interim Order.
