Assignment of the Potentially Assigned Contracts, and (c) Granting Related Relief (the "Bidding Procedures Motion") [Doc No. 30].[2] In support of their Joinder, Creditors respectfully represent as follows:

JOINDER

1. Mr. Liu and Ms. Chen are creditors holding claims in excess of $8.8 million against the Debtors.[3] Mr. Liu and Ms. Chen support a value-maximizing sale process that is designed to bring all potential bidders to the table. Obtaining the highest possible sale result is critical to generating potential monetary recoveries for unsecured creditors like Mr. Liu and Ms. Chen who were harmed by the Debtors' pre-petition conduct. The sale process should not be rushed, and Mr. Liu and Ms. Chen respectfully request that the Court adjourn the Bidding Procedures Motion to ensure that a creditors' committee has a sufficient opportunity to assess whether the relief requested in the Bidding Procedures Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates. Accordingly, Mr. Liu and Ms. Chen hereby join in and incorporate by reference the arguments set forth in the "Objection" section of the Liang Objection.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

2. Creditors expressly reserve all their rights, claims, defenses, and remedies, including, without limitation, the right to amend, modify, or supplement this Joinder prior to or during the hearing on the Bidding Procedures Motion. Creditors also reserve all of their rights, claims, counterclaims, and defenses against the Debtors, any non-Debtor affiliates and subsidiaries, the Debtors' insiders (including but not limited to Zhibiao Pan) and all other parties-in-interest to these cases under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable law.

[2] All capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Bidding Procedures Motion.

[3] Creditors object to the Debtors' calculation of their claim amounts, which are incorrect and understated. Creditors reserve all of their rights with respect to the correct calculation of their claim amounts.
