Upon consideration of the motion (the "Motion")[1] of the above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors") for entry of a final order (this "Final Order") (i) authorizing redaction of certain personally identifiable information of natural persons; and (ii) granting such other and further relief as more fully set forth in the Motion; and upon the Declaration of Michael DuFrayne in Support of Debtors' Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Motions [ECF No. 2] (the "First Day Declaration"); and this Court having jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Standing Order Of Reference From The United States District Court For The District Of New Jersey, entered July 23, 1984, and amended on June 6, 2025 (Bumb C.J); and that this Court may enter a final order consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution; and this Court having found that venue of this proceeding and the Motion in this district is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and this Court having found that the Debtors' notice of the Motion and opportunity for hearing on the Motion were appropriate and that no other notice need be provided under the circumstances; and this Court having determined that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion and at the hearing thereon establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and upon all of the proceedings before this Court; and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor, it is HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Motion is GRANTED on a final basis as set forth herein.

2. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, on a final basis, pursuant to section 107(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, to redact in their creditor matrices, schedules and statements, and other documents or pleadings that the Debtors file with the Court in these Chapter 11 Cases, the personal mailing address, email address, and other personally identifiable information (not including names) of natural persons; provided, however, that the U.S. Trustee reserves all rights with respect to such redactions at a hearing regarding confirmation of a chapter 11 plan, or thereafter, or in connection with a conversion of the Debtors' chapter 11 cases to cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code or a dismissal of the chapter 11 cases.

[1] Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein have the meaning ascribed to them in the Motion.

3. The Debtors shall provide an unredacted version of their creditor matrices, schedules and statements, and any other applicable redacted document pursuant to this Final Order to (a) the Court, (b) the U.S. Trustee, (c) any trustee or statutory committees subsequently appointed in these Chapter 11 Cases, (d)the Debtors' claims and noticing agent, and (e) any party in interest, upon request to the Debtors (email being sufficient) or to the Court that is reasonably related to these Chapter 11 Cases; provided that any receiving party shall not transfer or otherwise provide such unredacted document to any person or entity not party to the request. In each case, this would be subject to review of whether such disclosure, on a case-by-case basis, would violate the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules, Local Rules, or any obligation under any privacy or data protection law or regulation. The Debtors shall inform the U.S. Trustee promptly after denying any request for an unredacted document pursuant to this Final Order.

4. Nothing herein precludes a party in interest's right to file a motion requesting that the Court unseal the information redacted by this Final Order. All parties' rights in this regard are reserved.

5. Nothing in this Final Order prohibits any natural persons including employees, customers, creditors, or equity holders from voluntarily identifying themselves in connection with these chapter 11 cases or voluntarily disclosing any of its contact information. Nothing in this Final Order exempts any natural person including employees, customers, creditors, or equity holders from compliance with Bankruptcy Rule 2019.

6. The Debtors shall file redacted versions of the creditor matrices, Schedules and Statements, or other applicable documents filed with the Court as well as post it on Verita's website.

7. The Debtors shall cause the creditor matrices to be made available in readable and sortable electronic format (or in non-electronic format) upon reasonable request by parties-in-interest.

8. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors shall file unredacted creditor matrices under seal with the Court.

9. To the extent a party-in-interest publicly files a document in these Chapter 11 Cases that is required to be served on parties whose information is under seal or redacted pursuant to this Final Order, such party-in-interest should contact counsel for the Debtors who shall work in good faith, with the assistance of Verita (or other applicable claims and noticing agent), to effectuate the service on such party's behalf.

10. For the avoidance of doubt, if a creditor files a proof of claim, the Debtors and any other party in interest with standing to object to such claim shall have no obligation to keep such claimant's name or address information confidential.

11. The Debtors, through Verita, are authorized, on a final basis, to serve all pleadings and papers on all parties listed on the creditor matrices.

12. Nothing in this Final Order shall waive or otherwise limit the service of any document upon or the provision of any notice to any natural person whose personally identifiable information is sealed or redacted pursuant to this Final Order. Service of all documents and notices upon natural persons whose personally identifiable information is sealed or redacted pursuant to this Final Order shall be confirmed in the corresponding certificate of service.

13. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Final Order and any actions taken pursuant to such relief, nothing in this Final Order shall be deemed: (a) an admission as to the validity of any claim against the Debtors; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' rights to dispute any claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any claim; (d) an implication or admission that any particular claim is of a type specified or defined in this Final Order or the Motion; (e) a request or authorization to assume any agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; (f) a waiver or limitation of the Debtors' rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law; or (g) a concession by the Debtors that any liens (contractual, common law, statutory, or otherwise) satisfied pursuant to the Motion are valid, and the Debtors expressly reserve their rights with respect to all of the foregoing.

14. Nothing in this Final Order, the Motion, or any actions taken pursuant hereto is intended to or shall (a) confer upon any third party any rights or remedies whatsoever, (b) grant any party the status of a third-party beneficiary, (c) be enforceable by any third party, or (d) enhance the status of any claim held by any person or entity. Nothing herein shall be deemed to convert the priority of any claim from a prepetition claim into an administrative expense claim.

15. Nothing in this Final Order or any action taken by the Debtors in furtherance of the implementation hereof shall be deemed to constitute an assumption or rejection of any executory contract or unexpired lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, and all of the Debtors' rights with respect to such matters are expressly reserved.

16. Notice of the Motion, as provided therein, shall be deemed good and sufficient notice of the Motion, and the requirements of the Bankruptcy Rules and Local Rules are satisfied by such notice.

17. The requirement set forth in Bankruptcy Local Rule 9013-1(a)(3) that any motion be accompanied by a memorandum of law is hereby deemed satisfied by the contents of the Motion or otherwise waived.

18. Notwithstanding any Bankruptcy Rule to the contrary, the terms and conditions of this Final Order are immediately effective and enforceable upon entry.

19. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted in this Final Order in accordance with the Motion.

20. Any party may move for modification of this Final Order in accordance with Local Rule 9013-5(e) upon notice to the United States Trustee, counsel to the Debtors, and counsel to any statutory committee appointed in these Chapter 11 Cases.

21. This Court retains exclusive jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Final Order.
