The Roman Catholic Bishop of Oakland ("RCBO" or "Debtor"), Plaintiff in the above-captioned adversary proceeding (the "Adversary Proceeding"), and the debtor and debtor in possession in the underlying Chapter 11 bankruptcy case (the "Bankruptcy Case"), hereby submits this opposition to Notice of Motion and Motion of Defendant California Insurance Guarantee Association to Dismiss Adversarial Complaint or Alternatively for a More Definite Statement [Docket No. 106], filed on September 26, 2023 (the "Motion") by Defendant California Insurance Guarantee Association ("CIGA").

I.

INTRODUCTION

CIGA, while not itself an insurer, has a statutory duty under California Insurance Code § 1063.2 to "pay and discharge covered claims" against insolvent insurers, such as RCBO's claims for the sexual abuse cases underlying the Bankruptcy Case that are covered by RCBO's policies with Commercial Union/Armour Insurance Company. CIGA admits in its Motion that its statutory obligations were triggered by Commercial Union/Armour Insurance Company's liquidation. Mot. Mem. P. & A. at 8. It is also well aware, contrary to the insinuations in its Motion, that RCBO timely submitted proof of claims during Commercial Union/Armour Insurance Company's insolvency proceedings. Indeed, CIGA sent RCBO a letter in January confirming that it had received those claims and had assigned a claim adjuster to assess CIGA's statutory obligations to pay and discharge them. Yet, nine months later, CIGA has neither paid nor discharged the covered claims and has taken the position that it has no obligations with respect to RCBO's claims. As there is thus clearly an "actual controversy" regarding CIGA's obligations to pay and discharge RCBO's claims, RCBO has stated a valid claim for declaratory relief. Further, it is critical to the efficient resolution of the Bankruptcy Case that this actual controversy be resolved in this adversary proceeding alongside the insurance coverage disputes with other defendants, as the disputes are related and hinder RCBO's ability to propose a confirmable reorganization plan. CIGA's motion to dismiss the declaratory judgment claim against it and motion for a more definite statement should accordingly be denied.

RCBO recognizes that CIGA was not a contracting entity with RCBO. As to CIGA only, RCBO will amend its Complaint to remove the breach of contract claim, and replace it with an appropriate breach of statutory duty claim as discussed below.

II.

BACKGROUND FACTS

On May 8, 2023 (the "Petition Date"), RCBO filed a voluntary petition for Chapter 11 bankruptcy relief under the Bankruptcy Code. RCBO continues to operate its ministry and manage its properties as a debtor in possession under sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No trustee or examiner has been appointed in this Chapter 11 Case.

RCBO is a corporation sole organized under the laws of the State of California. RCBO conducts its civil affairs under the laws of the State of California and the United States of America and in accordance with the Code of Canon Law, the ecclesiastical law of the Roman Catholic Church. Additional information regarding the Debtor, its mission, ministries, and operations, and the events and circumstances preceding the Petition Date, is set forth in the Declaration of Charles Moore, Managing Director of Alvarez & Marsal North America, LLC, Proposed Restructuring Advisor to the Roman Catholic Bishop of Oakland, in Support of Chapter 11 Petition and First Day Pleadings (the "First Day Declaration") [Docket No. 19 to the Bankruptcy Case], which is incorporated herein by reference.

As set forth in the First Day Declaration, RCBO filed the Bankruptcy Case to ensure that survivors of childhood sexual abuse by current and former priests or employees of RCBO would be fairly and justly compensated. The underlying sexual abuse cases (the "Suits") have been consolidated in In re Northern California Clergy Cases, JCCP 5108.

As alleged in RCBO's Amended Complaint, Commercial Union/Armour Insurance Company issued written insurance policies covering the underlying sexual abuse claims which occurred between October 25, 1970 and December 1, 1975. Am. Compl. ¶ 11. The Amended Complaint identifies those written insurance policies by policy number and their respective policy periods. Id. Commercial Union/Armour Insurance Company recognized that sexual abuse claims during that period were covered under its written policies, and accepted the defense of some of the underlying cases before it became insolvent. Id.

Commercial Union/Armour Insurance Company was ordered liquidated on March 21, 2021, as part of Bedivere Insurance Company ("Bedivere"), the then-existing corporate entity responsible for the relevant obligations of Commercial Union/Armour Insurance Company. RCBO submitted 24 proofs of claim[1] in the Bedivere liquidation proceedings on December 27, 2021, which were received by Bedivere in advance of the December 31, 2021 deadline for filing such claims. Exhibits 1–24 (proofs of claims dated December 27, 2021 and identifying December 31, 2021 as the submission deadline); Exhibit 25 (confirmation that the proofs of claims were received by Bedivere on December 29, 2021). [2] In a letter dated January 3, 2023, Bedivere acknowledged receipt of the proof-of-claim forms and informed RCBO that its claim to the Bedivere estate "has been assigned to an Evaluator." Exhibit 26. Two days later, on January 5, 2023, Defendant CIGA sent RCBO a letter advising that RCBO's claims had been presented to CIGA "for review and further handling in accordance with California Insurance Code Section 1063 et seq." and assigned to Claims Adjuster Daniel Sab. Exhibit 27.

As CIGA admits in its Motion and acknowledged in its January 5, 2023 letter, once Commercial Union/Armour Insurance Company became insolvent, CIGA assumed responsibilities to pay and discharge covered claims that RCBO had timely submitted during the Bedivere liquidation proceedings. See Am. Compl. ¶ 11; Mot. Mem. P. & A. at 8 (acknowledging that CIGA's statutory obligations and involvement were trigged by Bedivere's liquidation in March 2021); Exhibit 27 (acknowledging that RCBO's claims were submitted to CIGA for further handling and assigned a claims adjuster). CIGA has not provided payment for any of the claims covered under the applicable Commercial Union/Armour Insurance Company policies, Am. Compl. ¶¶ 12, 32, 39, 45, and contests in its Motion that it has an obligation to do so. As a result of CIGA's position and failure to make payments, Debtor has been and continues to be harmed because it "has not been provided with the benefits of the insurance it purchased" and has incurred significant fees and costs in defending the Suits without the benefit of its promised coverage. Am. Compl. ¶¶ 12, 35, 42, 46.

On September 26, 2023, CIGA filed this Motion to dismiss the Adversary Proceeding under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b)(6) or, in the alternative, for an order for a more definite statement

[1] These 24 proofs of claim constituted all the claims RCBO knew of under the Commercial Union/Armour Insurance Company time period at the time of filing.

[2] In its Motion, CIGA incorrectly states that the deadline for submitting claims in the Bedivere liquidation proceedings was October 21, 2021. Mot. Mem. P. & A. at 9. The proof of claim form that CIGA cited for that proposition and attached as Exhibit 3 to its Request for Judicial Notice (Docket No. 107-3) lists December 31, 2021 as the deadline for submitting claims. Docket No. 107-3.

under Rule 12(e).

LEGAL STANDARD

A. Rule 12(b)(6)

The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure are premised on a "liberal system of 'notice pleadings.'" Leatherman v. Tarrant Cnty. Narcotics Intel. & Coordination Unit, 507 U.S. 163, 168 (1993). To survive a motion to dismiss under Rule 12(b)(6), a complaint must allege "only enough facts to state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face." Bell Atl. Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 570 (2007). "Determining whether a complaint states a plausible claim for relief is a 'context-specific task that requires the reviewing court to draw on its judicial experience and common sense.'" Heidingsfelder v. Ameriprise Auto & Home Ins., 2020 WL 5702111, at *2 (N.D. Cal. Sept. 24, 2020) (quoting Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 679 (2009)). In conducting this inquiry, the court must accept the allegations in the complaint as true and construe them in the light most favorable to the plaintiff. Lazy Y Ranch Ltd. v. Behrens, 546 F.3d 580, 588 (9th Cir. 2008).

A motion to dismiss "is not the appropriate procedural vehicle to test the merits" of a complaint or the claims asserted therein. Pruco Life Ins. Co. v. Cal. Energy Dev., Inc., 2020 WL 7226184, at *1 (S.D. Cal. Dec. 8, 2020) (citation omitted). Instead, "on a motion to dismiss the Court's review is limited to determining whether the factual allegations in the complaint state a plausible claim for relief." Id.

B. Rule 12(e)

Motions for a more definite statement under Rule 12(e) are "viewed with disfavor and are rarely granted" given the liberal notice pleading standard. U.S. E.E.O.C. v. Alia Corp., 842 F.Supp.2d 1243, 1250 (E.D. Cal. 2012) (quoting Sagan v. Apple Comp., Inc., 874 F. Supp. 1072, 1077 (C.D. Cal. 1994)). "The purpose of Rule 12(e) is to provide relief from a pleading that is unintelligible, not one that is merely lacking in detail." Id. A motion for a more definite statement "should be denied" where the complaint "is specific enough to appraise the responding party of the substance of the claim being asserted or where the detail sought is otherwise obtainable through discovery." Id.; accord, e.g., In re Argo Commc'n Corp., 134 B.R. 776, 798 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1991); Vaden v. Lantz, 459 F. Supp. 2d 149, 151 (D. Conn. 2006); Alessi v. Monroe Cnty., 2008 WL 398509, at *1 (W.D.N.Y. Feb. 12, 2008). Motions for a more definite statement are proper only where the complaint is "so vague or ambiguous that the opposing party cannot respond, even with a simple denial, in good faith or without prejudice to himself." Neveu v. City of Fresno, 392 F. Supp. 2d 1159, 1169 (E.D. Cal. 2005) (citation omitted).

IV.

ARGUMENT

A. The Amended Complaint Satisfies the Notice Pleading Standard

In its Motion, CIGA seeks to dismiss the Amended Complaint under Rule 12(b)(6), or obtain a more definite statement under Rule 12(e), because, it claims, additional detail is "needed to clarify exactly how Plaintiff seeks to hold CIGA responsible to it as to each of the Underlying Actions." See generally Mot. Mem. P. & A. at 7–11. Under Twombly and Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662 (2009), RCBO is only required to make a factual showing sufficient to state a plausible claim. "[T]he factual allegations that are taken as true must plausibly suggest an entitlement to relief, such that it is not unfair to require the opposing party to be subjected to the expense of discovery and continued litigation." Starr v. Baca, 652 F.3d 1202, 1216 (9th Cir. 2011). The rules "[do] not impose a probability requirement at the pleading stage; [they] simply call[] for enough fact to raise a reasonable expectation that discovery will reveal evidence" to support the allegations. Id. at 1217 (quoting Twombly, 550 U.S. at 556). Nor do the rules require a plaintiff to provide additional detail where, as here, the complaint puts the defendant on sufficient notice of the claims against it so that it can respond and the additional detail the defendant seeks is obtainable through discovery. Alia Corp., 842 F.Supp.2d at 1250; In re Argo Commc'n Corp., 134 B.R. at 798; Vaden, 459 F. Supp. 2d at 151; Alessi, 2008 WL 398509, at *1; Neveu, 392 F. Supp. 2d at 1169.

CIGA cannot reasonably dispute that RCBO's Amended Complaint puts it on sufficient notice of the claims against it. The Amended Complaint explicitly states that CIGA "assumed the responsibilities of Commercial Union/Armour Insurance" regarding the policies listed in the Amended Complaint after Commercial Union/Armour Insurance became insolvent. Am. Compl. ¶ 11. It also makes clear that RCBO is "entitled to a judgment declaring" that "RCBO is entitled to both defense and indemnity regarding Suits" covered under Commercial Union/Armour Insurance Company's polices. Am. Compl.

CIGA demonstrated in its Motion that it understood RCBO is seeking a declaratory judgment of CIGA's obligations to pay claims for the Suits that would have been submitted by RCBO during the Bevidere liquidation proceedings, and admitted that CIGA's "statutory obligations and involvement" were "triggered [by] Bedivere's liquidation in March 2021." Mot. Mem. P. & A. at 2, 7–8. CIGA has copies of those claims in its possession, and indeed acknowledged by letter to RCBO in January 2023 that it had received those claims and assigned a claims adjustor. Exhibit 27. To the extent CIGA seeks further details regarding those claims and its obligations to pay them, those facts are better fleshed out through discovery. See, e.g., Alia Corp., 842 F.Supp.2d at 1258 (denying Rule 12(e) motion because the complaint was "specific enough to fairly apprise [the defendant] of the basis of [the plaintiff's] claims" and "the proper tool for obtaining [more detail] is discovery, not a motion for a more definite statement"); Martinez v. Navy League of the U.S., 2014 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 17976, at *8–9 (C.D. Cal. Feb. 12, 2014) (denying Rule 12(e) motion that "would only prolong this case further").

The court in In re Diocese of Buffalo, N.Y., recently denied a Rule 12(e) motion involving a complaint seeking a declaratory judgment that the debtor diocese's insurers owed the debtor insurance coverage for sexual abuse claims against it. 616 B.R. 10, 13–14 (Bankr. W.D.N.Y. 2020) (holding that "the debtor's complaint is adequately clear"). The complaint in that case pled the same general set of facts and claims in the same level of detail as RCBO's Amended Complaint. See In re Diocese of Buffalo, Case No. 1:20-ap-1009, Dkt. No. 1 (Bankr. W.D.N.Y.). Accordingly, the same result is warranted here.

B. The Amended Complaint States a Valid Claim for Declaratory Judgment

The Amended Complaint also sufficiently pleads a claim for a declaratory judgment. All Debtor needs to plead to state a claim for a declaratory judgment is an "actual controversy." 28 U.S.C. § 2201; Cal. Code. Civ. P. § 1060. It is well established that a declaratory judgment action is a proper and common method for resolving disputes as to CIGA's obligations to pay insurance claims. See, e.g., Cal. Code. Civ. P. § 1060 (providing that a party may seek "a declaration of rights or duties . . . before there has been any breach of the obligation"); CIGA v. Azar, 940 F.3d 1061 (9th Cir. 2019) (merit-based appeal in declaratory relief action brought by CIGA regarding its payment obligations); CIGA v. San Diego Cnty. Sch. Risk Mgmt. Joint Powers Auth., 41 Cal. App. 5th 640 (2019) (same); City of Laguna Beach v. CIGA, 182 Cal. App. 4th 711, 715 (2010) (summary judgment appeal in declaratory judgment suit brought against CIGA regarding CIGA's payment obligations); Baxter Healthcare Corp. v. CIGA, 85 Cal. App. 4th 306 (2000) (same).

In its Motion, CIGA does not dispute that a declaratory judgment action is a proper avenue for litigating disputes regarding its payment obligations or that an actual controversy exists regarding its obligations. Instead, CIGA argues that the complaint "fails to allege facts showing a basis for declaratory relief" because, it claims, the allegations in the complaint (1) are "insufficient to show Plaintiffs claims qualify as 'covered claims'" and (2) establish that "there is other insurance available for the Underlying Actions." Mot. Mem. P. & A. at 7–10. To the extent CIGA is arguing that the Amended Complaint merely lacks sufficient detail, its Motion should be denied for the reasons explained above. To the extent CIGA is arguing that it has no payment obligations because RCBO's claims allegedly do not qualify as "covered claims" and have other insurance available, its fact-specific arguments go to the merits of RCBO's claims, not whether RCBO satisfied the pleading standard for a declaratory judgment, and thus are inappropriate for resolution at the motion to dismiss stage. Pruco Life Ins., 2020 WL 7226184, at *1 (a motion to dismiss "is not the appropriate procedural vehicle to test the merits" of a complaint or the claims asserted therein); Ludgate Ins. Co. v. Lockheed Martin Corp., 82 Cal. App. 4th 592, 606 (2000) (rejecting argument that a complaint seeking a declaratory judgment of excess insurance coverage should be dismissed where primary insurance had not been exhausted because exhaustion "is merely an issue of proof and entitlement to recovery, not of pleading" and the coverage dispute qualified as an "actual controversy"); Fremont Reorganizing Corp. v. Fed. Ins. Co., 2010 WL 444718, at *2–3 (C.D. Cal. Feb. 1, 2010) (similar).

In any event, CIGA's arguments are based on inaccurate understandings of the facts and fail to show the absence of an actual controversy. As explained in the Amended Complaint, RCBO submitted claims to Commercial Union/Armour Insurance Company, and Commercial Union/Armour Insurance Company accepted the defense of those claims before it became insolvent. Am. Compl. ¶ 11. Although CIGA is not itself an insurer, it assumed obligations to pay for "covered claims" within the coverage of Commercial Union/Armour Insurance Company's insurance policies. See Am. Compl. ¶ 11; accord Mot. Mem. P. & A. at 2, 6, 8; see also Isaacson v. CIGA, 44 Cal.3d 775, 791 (1988) (holding that the "the scope of [CIGA's] obligation to pay and defend claims is defined in terms of the underlying insurance policy provisions"). As is demonstrated through Exhibits 1–27, RCBO timely submitted proof of non-paid claims for coverage under Commercial Union/Armour Insurance Company's insurance policies as part of the Bevidere liquidation proceedings, which CIGA received and assigned a claims adjuster to evaluate CIGA's obligations. To the extent CIGA argues that those claims nevertheless do not qualify as "covered claims" under California Insurance Code § 1063.1(c), that argument is both unsupported and merely confirms the existence of an actual controversy that should be resolved through a declaratory judgment action.

CIGA's argument that there can be no declaratory judgment claim against it because there is other insurance available for the Suits, Mot. Mem. P. & A. at 10, is similarly unavailing. As alleged in RCBO's Amended Complaint and further evidenced by the motions to dismiss filed by certain primary and excess insurers, no other insurance has been provided for the Suits – particularly during the time period of coverage occupied by Commercial Union/Armour Insurance Company – and there is an active controversy regarding the availability of insurance coverage from the insurer defendants. See generally Am. Compl.; Docket Nos. 115 & 117 (RCBO's oppositions to primary and excess insurers' motions to dismiss). As a result, there is also an active controversy as to whether CIGA has or will have an obligation to pay for the claims. Cf. Ludgate, 82 Cal. App. 4th at 606; Fremont, 2010 WL 444718, at *3; Denny's Inc. v. Chicago Ins. Co., 234 Cal. App. 3d 1786, 1789–90 (1991) (involving rulings on the merits of an insured's declaratory relief action to determine whether CIGA or excess insurers had an obligation to provide coverage in the place of an insolvent underlying insurer); see also Docket No. 117 at 13–18 (collecting cases supporting RCBO's argument that the Amended Complaint states a valid claim for a declaratory judgment regarding payment obligations of entities alleged to have obligations to provide payment when no other primary insurance is available).

The Debtor has therefore asserted a valid declaratory judgment claim against CIGA, and CIGA should remain a defendant in this Adversary Proceeding along with the insurance defendants to resolve the insurance-related disputes for the Suits efficiently in a single proceeding. See Cal. Ins. Code § 1063.2(b)(1) (providing that CIGA "shall be a party in interest in all proceedings involving a covered claim," such as this adversary proceeding); c.f, e.g., Denny's, 234 Cal. App. 3d at 1789–90 (involving rulings on the merits of a dispute as to whether CIGA or excess insurers had an obligation to pay insured's claims). As explained in RCBO's opposition to the motion to dismiss brought by certain excess insurers, "a comprehensive declaratory judgment" regarding payment obligations for the Suits underlying the Bankruptcy Case is "necessary to achieve a successful reorganization." Docket No. 117 at 17–18 (quoting In re Longview Power, LLC, 516 BR 282, 292–93 (Bankr. D. Del. 2014), and In re U.S. Lines, Inc., 197 F.3d 631, 638–39 (2d Cir. 1999), among other cases).

For all these reasons, the Court should accordingly deny the motion to dismiss RCBO's declaratory judgment claim against CIGA.

C. RCBO Will Seek Leave to Amend to Add a Statutory Claim Against CIGA

RCBO recognizes that, given CIGA's unique position as an entity created by statute, it is not subject to a breach of contract claim from RCBO and will therefore agree to dismiss that cause of action without prejudice. However, RCBO seeks leave to amend to add a claim for CIGA's breach of its statutory duty to pay covered claims under California Insurance Code Section 1063, et seq.

Under Section 1063, to be a covered claim, the claim must be an unpaid "obligation[] of the insolvent insurer" that is "imposed by law and within the coverage of an insurance policy of the insolvent insurer." Cal. Ins. Code §1063.1(c)(1)(A)–(B). Further, the insured must present the claim to the insolvent insurer's liquidator or CIGA "on or before the last date fixed for the filing of claims in the domiciliary liquidating proceedings." Id. §1063.1(c)(1)(C). As explained in RCBO's Complaint, RCBO was covered under certain insurance policies issued by now-insolvent Commercial Union/Armour Insurance Company. And as detailed above, RCBO timely tendered these claims to CIGA upon those insurance companies' liquidation. Accordingly, upon amending its Complaint, RCBO will drop its breach of contract claim as to CIGA only, and replace that claim with a claim for breach of statutory duty.

V.

CONCLUSION

For all the foregoing reasons, and the other filings and record of the Case before the Court, the Debtor respectfully requests that the Court deny CIGA's Motion to Dismiss.

Proof of Claim Acknowledgment

This letter is to acknowledge that Bedivere Insurance Company (in Liquidation) ("Bedivere") has received one or more Proof of Claim form(s) you filed in the Bedivere estate. Please be advised that Bedivere has engaged the services of A.G. Risk Management, Inc. to assist in the administration of the Bedivere estate. Your claim has been assigned to an Evaluator.

If your claim is being handled by a Guaranty Association, the Liquidator may defer review of your claim until the Guaranty Association has made its final determination and returned its closed claim file to Bedivere. If you are unsure whether your claim is being handled by a Guaranty Association, please call the below number for assistance.

If you have any information to support your Proof of Claim that was not previously provided, please send it to the address below. Once the Evaluator has received all information and evidence needed to evaluate your claim and has completed review of your claim, a Notice of Determination will be issued accordingly. You may be contacted if additional information is needed prior to issuing the Notice of Determination.

It is anticipated that there will be a distribution of assets from the estate to certain claimants in accordance with priorities set by law. However, it may be years before all assets can be collected and the amount available for distribution can be determined.

RE: Insolvent Insurer: Bedivere Insurance Company
Insolvent Insured: Master File Roman Catholic Bishop of Oakland .
Liquidation Date: 3/11/2021
Claimant Name: Various
Date of loss: 10/26/1970
Claim Number: 148-0AA98369501

Dear Mr. Paul Bongiovanni:

Please be advise I am the new adjuster to this case. Also be advised that Bedivere Insurance Company was found insolvent and a liquidator was appointed by the Commonwealth Court of Pennsylvania effective March 11, 2021.

As a consequence of the Bedivere Liquidation, claims are presented to us, the California Insurance Guarantee Association (CIGA), for review and further handling in accordance with California Insurance Code Section 1063 et seq.

If there is no other insurance, some, or all of these claims may qualify as a "covered claim" with CIGA; however, we must advise you to make all reasonable efforts to mitigate or minimize your clients' damages.

CIGA is not an insurance company.1 CIGA issues no policies, collects no premiums, makes no profits and assumes no contractual obligations to insureds.2 CIGA's sole duty is to pay what are defined in Insurance Code Subsections 1063.1 and 1063.2 as "covered claims." CIGA was created to provide only a limited form of protection in the event of insurer insolvency. Furthermore, "covered claims" are not co-extensive with what the insolvent insurer's obligations under the policy would have been.3 Therefore, CIGA does not "stand in the shoes" of the insolvent insurer for all purposes.4

For your convenience, certain provisions of the Guaranty Act are set forth below; however, you should not rely solely on the provisions referred to herein.

CIGA's website http://www.ciga.org contains helpful information, but the comprehensive body of statutory provisions relative to CIGA, covered claims, duties and priority of claims are contained in Article 14.2 et seq of the California Insurance Code.

Statutory Provisions:

1063.1(c)(1)"Covered claims" means the obligations of an insolvent insurer, including the obligations for unearned premiums, that satisfy all of the following requirements:

(A) Imposed by law and within the coverage of an insurance policy of the insolvent insurer.

(B) Which were unpaid by the insolvent insurer.

(C) Which are presented as a claim to the liquidator in the state of domicile of the insolvent insurer or to the association on or before the last date fixed for the filing of claims in the domiciliary liquidating proceedings

(D) Which were incurred prior to the date coverage under the polity terminated and prior to, on, or within 30 days after the liquidator was appointed.

(E) For which the assets of the insolvent insurer are insufficient to discharge in full.

1063.1(c)(4) "Covered claims" does not include any obligations of the insolvent insurer … nor any obligations incurred after the expiration date of the insurance policy or after the insurance policy has been replaced by the insured or canceled at the insured's request, or after the insurance policy has been canceled by the liquidator, or any obligations to a state or to the federal government.

1063.1(c)(5 "Covered claims" does not include any obligations to insurers, insurance pools, or underwriting associations, nor their claims for contribution, indemnity, or subrogation, equitable or otherwise, except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

1063.1(c)(6) "Covered claims", except in cases involving a claim for workers' compensation benefits, or for unearned premiums, does not include does not include a claim in an amount of one hundred dollars ($100) or less, nor that portion of a claim that is in excess of any applicable limits provided in the insurance policy issued by the insolvent insurer.

1063.1(c)(7) "Covered claims" does not include that portion of any claim … that is in excess of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000.00).

1063.1(c)(8) "Covered claims" does not include any amount awarded as punitive or exemplary damages.

1063.1(c)(9) Covered claims" does not include (A) any claim to the extent it is covered by any other insurance … available to the claimant or insured nor (B) any claim by any person other than the original claimant…in his or her own name … and does not include any claim asserted by an assignee or one claiming by right of subrogation…"

1063.2(a) The association shall pay and discharge covered claims and in connection therewith pay for or furnish loss adjustment services and defenses of claimants when required by policy provisions…

1063.2(b) The association shall be a party in interest in all proceedings involving a covered claim, and shall have the same rights as the insolvent insurer would have had if not in liquidation, including, but not limited to, the right to: (1) appear, defend and appeal a claim in a court of competent jurisdiction; (2) receive notice of, investigate, adjust, compromise, settle, and pay a covered claim; and (3) investigate, handle, and deny a noncovered claim…

1063.2 (c)(1) If damages against uninsured motorists are recoverable by the claimant from his or her own insurer, the applicable limits of the uninsured motorist coverage shall be a credit against a covered claim payable under this article.

A member insurer may recover in subrogation from the association only one-half of any amount paid by that insurer under uninsured motorist coverage for bodily injury or wrongful death (and nothing for payment for anything else), in those cases where the injured person insured by such an insurer has proceeded under his or her uninsured motorist coverage on the ground that the tortfeasor is uninsured as a result of the insolvency of his or her liability insurer (an insolvent insurer as defined in this article), provided that the member insurer shall waive all rights of subrogation against the tortfeasor. Any amount paid a claimant in excess of the amount authorized by this section may be recovered by action, or other proceeding, brought by the association.

1063.2(c)(2) Any claimant having collision coverage on a loss that is covered by the insolvent company's liability policy shall first proceed against his or her collision carrier. Neither that claimant nor the collision carrier, if it is a member of the association, shall have the right to sue or continue a suit against the insured of the insolvent insurance company for such collision damage.

1063.2(g) "Covered claims" shall not include any judgments against or obligations or liabilities of the insolvent insurer or the commissioner, as liquidator, or otherwise resulting from alleged or proven torts, nor shall any default judgment or stipulated judgment against the insolvent insurer, or against the insured of the insolvent insurer, be binding against the association.

1063.2(h)"Covered claims" shall not include any loss adjustment expenses, including adjustment fees and expenses, attorney's fees and expenses, court costs, interest, and bond premiums, incurred prior to the appointment of a liquidator.

1063 "All proceedings in which the insolvent insurer is a party or is obligated to defend a party in any court in the state shall … be stayed for 60 days from the date that an order of liquidation or an order of liquidation or an order of receivership with a finding of insolvency has been entered by a superior court in this state or by a court in the state of domicile of the insurer…"

1063.18(b) If the association provides a written denial of a non-workers' compensation claim, the person asserting the claim against the association shall have one year to bring an action challenging the denial, including an action for declaratory relief. If the written denial is based on a failure to exhaust other insurance available to pay the claim, a claim shall be reasserted against the association within six months after all other insurance has been exhausted.

CIGA's role is that of the last resort.5 To the extent there is any other insurance; CIGA is prohibited from participating in the defense or settlement.

To the extent a claim does not qualify as a "covered claim" with CIGA, it may qualify for an Allowance in the Liquidation proceedings.
