- 10, 12, 18, 21, 24, 29, 33, 35, 56, 61, 64, 71, 73, 82, 83, 86, 92, 95, 96, 97, 99, 101, 102, 103, 104, 105, 106, 110, 115, 117, 121, 124, 125, 126, 127, 128, 130, 131, 132, 133, 140, 141, 149, 152, 154, 156, 157, 158, 163, 166, 168, 171, 174, 180, 181, 183, 189, 191, 192, 193, 194, 198, 203, 206, 208, 210, 212, 216, 224, 225, 226, 227, 228, 230, 243, 244, 247, 250, 251, 256, 258, 261, 266, 267, 272, 273, 274, 296, 297, 298, 310, 314, 316, 317, 318, 319, 321, 323, 331, 338, 339, 345, 349, 350, 352, 354, 359, 363, 367, 370, 373, 376, 379, 380, 384, 386, 402, 403, 407;

as shown on Exhibit A, and has either failed to respond to the tenders, issued reservation of rights letters or explicitly denied coverage as described in Exhibit A. See Exhibit A.

19. Defendant PACIFIC EMPLOYERS INSURANCE is, on information and belief, a Delaware corporation which conducted business in this District. On information and belief RCBO alleges that PACIFIC EMPLOYERS INSURANCE issued a written umbrella policy of insurance to RCBO under Policy No. XCC 01 2405 for the period March 13, 1985 to December 1, 1985 (herein "PACIFIC EMPLOYERS UMBRELLA"). Specifically, PACIFIC EMPLOYERS UMBRELLA is responsive to certain claims, including but not limited to the following claim:

- 12, 51, 73, 80, 118, 127, 130, 141, 171, 225, 228, 254, 314, 338, 339, 350, 363, 407;

as shown on Exhibit A, and has either failed to respond to the tenders, issued reservation of rights letters or explicitly denied coverage as described in Exhibit A. See Exhibit A.

20. WESTPORT UMBRELLA, TRAVELERS UMBRELLA, and PACIFIC EMPLOYERS UMBRELLA will collectively be referred to herein as the "UMBRELLA DEFENDANTS."

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

21. On June 22, 2023, the Debtor filed the First Amended Complaint for declaratory relief and breach of contract, seeking to liquidate the Debtor's claims against numerous of its historical insurance carriers. [Docket No. 2 with attached Exhibit and Attachment (collectively, the "First Amended Complaint")]. RCBO incorporates herein its First Amended Complaint.

22. After various motions to dismiss and responses filed, the Debtor files this Second

Case: 23-04028 Doc# 161 Filed: 12/18/23 Entered: 12/18/23 16:43:10 Page 9 of 17

Amended Complaint to address the issues raised in the motions to dismiss per the Court's order.

23. RCBO has been named in more than 400 complaints primarily filed in the Alameda Superior Court as well as proofs of claim filed in this Court seeking recovery for alleged negligent supervision and hiring of certain clerical and ministerial personnel over a period of decades. These suits and proofs of claim (collectively referred to as the "Suits") have been filed as a result of California's passing of AB 218, which extended the statute of limitations for the filing of similar civil suits.

24. Although section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code provides for an automatic stay of the Suits and of additional lawsuits against the Debtor, RCBO is informed, and believes, that additional suits may be filed and/or served after the filing of this proceeding and RCBO will update the list as reflected in Exhibit A to reflect all such cases as appropriate.

25. RCBO has maintained insurance coverage through a series of primary, excess, and umbrella insurers from the early 1960's through the present time as alleged above.

26. RCBO has tendered through its broker (i.e., "AJG" as designated in Exhibit A) both RCBO's defense and indemnity of the Suits under all applicable insurance policies to the associated Defendants that issued those policies and were not insolvent.

27. The PRIMARY DEFENDANTS received the tenders of the Suits on behalf of RCBO but have improperly denied or failed to confirm coverage and/or provide defense and/or indemnity to RCBO for the Suits as reflected in Exhibit A. Further those PRIMARY DEFENDANTS who did accept RCBO's tender did so while refusing to pay full defense rates or requiring an agreement to a reduction of rates for defense notwithstanding the complexity of the cases and/or issued onerous guidelines which were not part of the applicable policies. RCBO contends that it is entitled to the payment of defense and/or indemnity amounts from each of the PRIMARY DEFENDANTS on the grounds that RCBO timely tendered the Suits to the PRIMARY DEFENDANTS and has met all the conditions of the respective policies of insurance. RCBO further asserts that the Suits seek recovery for claims of "bodily injury" as that term is defined in the PRIMARY DEFENDANTS' respective policies of insurance and therefore the claims come within the coverage grant of the respective insurance policies. Further, RCBO contends that the claims made in the Suits are not excluded by the respective insurance policies. Further, without limitation, RCBO contends that it did not intend nor know of any of the alleged events in the Suits such that it would result in the negation of coverage under the applicable policies. Therefore, the PRIMARY DEFENDANTS owe RCBO both defense and indemnity for the Suits.

28. The EXCESS DEFENDANTS received the tenders of the Suits on behalf of RCBO but have improperly denied or failed to confirm coverage (including, without limitation, failure to provide both defense and/or indemnity) for the Suits as reflected in Exhibit A – including failure to recognize the exhaustion of underlying insurance through payment, liquidation or other means thereby requiring the excess insurance to drop down and provide defense and indemnity to RCBO for the Suits. RCBO contends that it is entitled to the payment of defense and/or indemnity amounts from each of the EXCESS DEFENDANTS on the grounds that RCBO timely tendered the Suits to the EXCESS DEFENDANTS and has met all the conditions of the respective policies of insurance. RCBO further asserts that the Suits seek recovery for claims of "bodily injury" as that term is defined in the EXCESS DEFENDANTS' respective policies of insurance and therefore the claims come within the coverage grant of the respective insurance policies. Further, RCBO contends that the claims made in the Suits are not excluded by the respective insurance policies. In addition, without limitation, RCBO contends that it did not intend nor know of any of the alleged events in the Suits such that it would result in the negation of coverage under the applicable policies. Finally, RCBO contends that it is presently facing in excess of 400 Suits seeking a total amount of damages which has the substantial likelihood of being in excess of the available limits of insurance available under the PRIMARY DEFENDANTS', EXCESS DEFEDENDANTS', and UMBRELLA DEFENDANTS' respective insurance policies. Therefore, the EXCESS DEFENDANTS owe RCBO both defense and indemnity for the Suits.

29. The UMBRELLA DEFENDANTS received the tenders of the Suits on behalf of RCBO but have improperly denied or failed to confirm coverage (including, without limitation, failure to provide both defense and/or indemnity) for the Suits as reflected in Exhibit A - including failure to recognize the exhaustion of underlying primary and excess insurance through payment, liquidation or other means thereby requiring the umbrella insurance to drop down and provide defense and indemnity to RCBO for the Suits. RCBO contends that it is entitled to the payment of defense and/or indemnity amounts from each of the UMBRELLA DEFENDANTS on the grounds that RCBO timely tendered the Suits to the UMBRELLA DEFENDANTS and has met all the conditions of the respective policies of insurance. RCBO further asserts that the Suits seek recovery for claims of "bodily injury" as that term is defined in the UMBRELLA DEFENDANTS' respective policies of insurance and therefore the claims come within the coverage grant of the respective insurance policies. Further, RCBO contends that the claims made in the Suits are not excluded by the respective insurance policies. In addition, without limitation, RCBO contends that it did not intend nor know of any of the alleged events in the Suits such that it would result in the negation of coverage under the applicable policies. Finally, RCBO contends that it is presently facing in excess of 400 Suits seeking a total amount of damages which has the substantial likelihood of being in excess of the available limits of insurance available under the PRIMARY DEFENDANTS', EXCESS DEFEDENDANTS', and UMBRELLA DEFENDANTS' respective insurance policies. Therefore, the UMBRELLA DEFENDANTS owe RCBO both defense and indemnity for the Suits.

30. As a result of the conduct of the PRIMARY DEFENDANTS, EXCESS DEFENDANTS, and UMBRELLA DEFENDANTS, RCBO has been harmed in that it has not been provided with the benefits of the insurance it purchased, having complied with all requirements thereunder. RCBO has been forced to defend itself against the Suits without being provided with the appropriate required defense (including full payment of defense amounts expended) and indemnity that was to be provided by the PRIMARY DEFENDANTS, EXCESS DEFENDANTS, and UMBRELLA DEFENDANTS through their respective policies of insurance. Consequently, an actual and justiciable controversy exists between the parties of sufficient immediacy and reality to warrant issuance of a declaratory judgment.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Declaratory Relief Against All Defendants)

31. RCBO realleges and incorporates herein paragraphs 1 through 30 of this complaint as if said paragraphs were set forth in full.

32. To state a claim for a declaratory judgment, a party needs to plead an actual controversy. 28 U.S.C. § 2201; Cal. Code. Civ. P. § 1060; see also, e.g., Marks v. UMG Recordings, Inc., 2023 WL 4532774, at *3 n.2 (9th Cir. July 13, 2023) (acknowledging that "California law unambiguously provides a claim for declaratory relief when there is an actual controversy about the parties' rights and duties under a contract").

Case: 23-04028 Doc# 161 Filed: 12/18/23 Entered: 12/18/23 16:43:10 Page 12 of 17

33. An actual and justiciable controversy has arisen and now exists between the parties with respect to whether the Defendants, and each of them, are obligated to provide RCBO with defense and indemnity under their respective insurance policies regarding the Suits.

34. Pursuant to the respective insurance policies (and, in the case of CIGA, its statutory obligations), each of the Defendants is obligated to pay in full the expenditures made by RCBO to defend itself against the Suits.

35. The insurance policies RCBO purchased from various insurance carriers provide coverage for many if not all of the Suits asserted against RCBO and constitute the most significant source of recovery for the alleged abuse victims in the Bankruptcy Case.

36. Pursuant to the terms of the respective insurance policies, each of the Defendants is obligated to defend and indemnify RCBO for, or pay on its behalf, all sums that RCBO becomes obligated to pay, through judgment, settlement, or otherwise, arising out of the Suits.

37. RCBO has fully performed under the Defendants' respective insurance policies.

38. The PRIMARY DEFENDANTS have received tenders on behalf of RCBO regarding the Suits but have improperly denied and/or have failed to confirm coverage for the Suits and have further failed to provide RCBO with either defense and/or indemnity regarding the Suits as required under the respective policies. See Exhibit A. To the extent that the PRIMARY DEFENDANTS have issued reservation of rights letters in response to RCBO's tenders (as reflected in Exhibit A), the PRIMARY DEFENDANTS have not actually provided the benefits of their respective policies to RCBO – i.e., actual defense and/or indemnity payments. Finally, in the case of CIGA, RCBO submitted a timely proof of claim to CIGA regarding the applicable Suits and CIGA has failed to meet its statutory obligations to provide available sums in response to the Suits.

39. The EXCESS DEFENDANTS have received tenders on behalf of RCBO regarding the Suits but have improperly denied and/or have failed to confirm coverage for the Suits and have further failed to confirm that any underlying insurance has been exhausted whether by payment, liquidation or otherwise and contrary to the coverages promised to RCBO and thus have failed to provide RCBO with either defense and/or indemnity regarding the Suits as required under the respective policies. See Exhibit A. To the extent that the EXCESS DEFENDANTS have issued reservation of rights letters in response to RCBO's tenders (as reflected in Exhibit A), the EXCESS DEFENDANTS have not actually provided the benefits of their respective policies to RCBO – i.e., actual defense and/or indemnity payments. Further the EXCESS DEFENDANTS have not acknowledged that their insured, RCBO, faces covered claims in excess of the limits of insurance available from the PRIMARY DEFENDANTS' respective policies which would, in turn, trigger EXCESS DEFENDANTS' obligations to provide the benefits of their respective policies to RCBO.

40. The UMBRELLA DEFENDANTS have received tenders on behalf of RCBO regarding the Suits but have improperly denied and/or have failed to confirm coverage for the Suits and have further failed to confirm that any underlying insurance has been exhausted whether by payment, liquidation or otherwise and contrary to the coverages promised to RCBO and thus have failed to provide RCBO with either defense and/or indemnity regarding the Suits as required under the respective policies. See Exhibit A. To the extent that the UMBRELLA DEFENDANTS have issued reservation of rights letters in response to RCBO's tenders (as reflected in Exhibit A), the UMBRELLA DEFENDANTS have not actually provided the benefits of their respective policies to RCBO – i.e., actual defense and/or indemnity payments. Further the UMBRELLA DEFENDANTS have not acknowledged that their insured, RCBO, faces covered claims in excess of the limits of insurance available from the PRIMARY and EXCESS DEFENDANTS' respective policies which would, in turn, trigger UMBRELLA DEFENDANTS' obligations to provide the benefits of their respective policies to RCBO.

41. Each of the Defendant's refusal to defend and/or indemnify RCBO constitutes a breach of the insurance policies or, in the case of CIGA, a breach of its statutory duties.

42. In the meantime, the Suits are pending, resulting in loss and damages to RCBO including, without limitation, defense fees and costs and indemnity funds (whether via judgment or settlement or other means).

43. An actual controversy of a justiciable nature presently exists between RCBO and the Defendants concerning the proper construction of the respective insurance policies, the scope of the statutory obligations assumed by CIGA, and the rights and obligations of the parties with respect to the Suits. The controversy is of sufficient immediacy and magnitude to justify the issuance of a declaratory judgment.

44. RCBO is entitled to a judgment declaring that the Defendants have issued insurance policies to RCBO and that RCBO is entitled to both defense and indemnity regarding the Suits under the respective policies of insurance issued by the Defendants including, without limitation, a declaration of exhaustion as to certain underlying policies and the requirement that the EXCESS DEFENDANTS and/or UMBRELLA DEFENDANTS drop down to provide defense and indemnity to RCBO regarding the Suits. In the case of CIGA, RCBO is entitled to a judgment declaring that CIGA is statutorily obligated to provide funds to RCBO in response to the claims made in the Suits to which it must respond (as reflected in Exhibit A).

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Breach of Contract Against All Defendants Except for CIGA)

45. RCBO realleges and incorporates herein paragraphs 1 through 44 of this complaint as if said paragraphs were set forth in full.

46. "An insured can pursue a breach of contract theory against its insurer by alleging [1] the insurance contract, [2] the insured's performance or excuse for nonperformance, [3] the insurer's breach, and [4] resulting damages." San Diego Housing Comm'n v. Indus. Indem. Co., 68 Cal. App. 4th 526, 536 (1998).

47. The respective Defendants' policies are valid and enforceable contracts providing insurance coverage for the damage incurred by RCBO.

48. The respective Defendants have received timely tenders of the Suits. See Exhibit A.

49. The Defendants' failure to provide defense and indemnity to RCBO for the Suits is contrary to the coverages and benefits promised RCBO under the respective policies and constitutes a breach of those policies. Said breach includes the failure to pay the full amount of defense fees and costs expended the institution of billing and defense "guidelines" not included with the terms of the applicable policies.

50. RCBO has fully performed under the Defendants' respective insurance policies and the Defendants, and each of them, are not excused from performance.

Case: 23-04028 Doc# 161 Filed: 12/18/23 Entered: 12/18/23 16:43:10 Page 15 of 17

51. As a direct and proximate result of the Defendants' breaches, RCBO has been damaged according to proof at trial.

52. As a result of the Defendants' breaches of their respective insurance policies, RCBO has incurred significant fees and costs in defending itself in the Suits and has not been provided with the required coverage for indemnity (including any settlement amounts), all to the injury and damage of RCBO.

53. Furthermore, the Defendants' refusal to provide the promised coverage hampers the Debtor's ability to propose and implement a confirmable plan of reorganization.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Breach of Statutory Duty Against CIGA)

54. RCBO realleges and incorporates herein paragraphs 1 through 53 of this complaint as if said paragraphs were set forth in full.

55. "CIGA's authority and liability are limited to paying 'covered claims.'" Cal. Ins. Guarantee Ass'n v. Workers' Comp. Appeals Bd., 128 Cal. App. 4th 307, 313, 26 Cal. Rptr. 3d 845, 848 (2005).

56. A covered claims means "(1) … the obligations of an insolvent insurer, including the obligation … (i) imposed by law and within the coverage of an insurance policy of the insolvent insurer; (ii) which were unpaid by the insolvent insurer; … (iv) which were incurred prior to the date coverage under the policy terminated …" Cal. Ins. Guarantee Ass'n v. Workers' Comp. Appeals Bd., 153 Cal. App. 4th 524, 532-33, 62 Cal. Rptr. 3d 855, 860 (2007) (citing (Ins. Code, § 1063.1, subd. (c)(1))).

57. Commercial Union/Armour Insurance Company has become insolvent but had acknowledged potential coverage for the Suits tendered to it by RCBO.

58. RCBO timely presented the claims to the liquidator prior to the date coverage under the policy terminated. Therefore, the claims qualify as covered claim under the statute.

59. CIGA assigned an adjuster to review the claims. CIGA confirmed that RCBO appropriately filed the claims, and CIGA understood that the claims were abuse-related claims.

60. As a result of CIGA's breaches, RCBO has been damaged according to proof at trial.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, RCBO prays for relief as follows:

a. For a declaration in RCBO's favor as to the obligation of the insurer Defendants, and each of them, that the Defendants issued effective policies of insurance to RCBO and a further declaration that the Defendants were obligated to provide defense and indemnity to RCBO regarding the claims made in the Suits;

b. For a declaration in RCBO's favor as to the obligation of CIGA, that CIGA was statutorily obligated to provide defense and/or indemnity funds to RCBO regarding the claims made in the Suits;

c. For an award in RCBO's favor as a result of the Defendants' breach of their respective policies;

d. For an award in RCBO's favor as a result of CIGA's breach of its statutory duty;

e. For an order awarding RCBO its costs, expenses, and reasonable attorneys' fees as provided by law; and

f. For such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.
