Sangamo Therapeutics, Inc.
ePOC Claim Filing FAQs

On June 23, 2026 (the "Petition Date"), Sangamo Therapeutics, Inc. (the "Debtor"), filed a voluntary case (the "Chapter 11 Case") under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the "Court"). On July 30, 2026, the Court entered an order [Docket No. 209] (the "Bar Date Order")[1] establishing certain procedures and deadlines for filing proofs of claim by all persons and entities holding claims against the Debtor that arose, or are deemed to have arisen, prior to the Petition Date, regardless of the character or nature of such claims, no matter how remote or contingent, whether secured or unsecured, priority or non-priority, liquidated or unliquidated, fixed or contingent, or disputed or undisputed, including, without limitation, claims under section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code.

In connection with entry of the Bar Date Order, you may have received a notice (the "Bar Date Notice") and a proof of claim form (the "Proof of Claim Form"). To the extent your claim is listed in the Debtor's schedules of assets and liabilities filed in the Chapter 11 Case [Docket No. 159] (the "Schedules"), such Proof of Claim Form will identify on its face the amount, nature, and classification of your claim in the Schedules.

To proactively address questions frequently asked by parties in interest ("FAQs") regarding the Bar Date Order and Proof of Claim Form, including how to file a Proof of Claim by the applicable deadline, the Debtor has prepared the below responses to such FAQs.

NOTWITHSTANDING THE INFORMATION CONTAINED IN THESE FAQS, YOU SHOULD CAREFULLY REVIEW THE BAR DATE ORDER, BAR DATE NOTICE, SCHEDULES AND PROOF OF CLAIM FORM. IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS, THEN YOU SHOULD CONSULT YOUR OWN ATTORNEY. THE DEBTOR AND ITS ADVISORS CANNOT PROVIDE YOU WITH ANY LEGAL ADVICE, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, WHETHER OR NOT YOU SHOULD FILE A PROOF OF CLAIM FORM BY THE APPLICABLE DEADLINE.

1. What is a Proof of Claim?

The Proof of Claim Form is an official document that must be completed and filed by any creditor that believes it holds a claim against the Debtor. The Proof of Claim Form requires creditors to provide details about the claim the creditor believes it holds against the Debtor. The term "claim" has the meaning given to it under section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code, and includes as to or against the Debtor: (a) any right to payment, whether or not such right is reduced to judgment, liquidated, unliquidated, fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed, legal, equitable, secured, or unsecured; or (b) any right to an equitable remedy for breach of performance if such breach gives rise to a right to payment, whether or not such right to an equitable remedy is reduced to judgment, fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed, secured, or unsecured.

2. What is the deadline to file a Proof of Claim?

Please note that the deadline (or "Bar Date") for filing most Proofs of Claim has been set for September 22, 2026 at 5:00 p.m. (ET). A different Bar Date applies to governmental units and in certain other limited circumstances. Proof of Claim Forms will be deemed timely filed only if actually received by Verita on or before 5:00 p.m. (Eastern Time) on the [1] All capitalized terms used, but not otherwise defined, herein shall have the same meanings ascribed to them in the Bar Date Order. applicable Bar Date. Proof of Claim Forms may not be delivered by facsimile, telecopy, or electronic mail transmission. Any facsimile, telecopy, or electronic mail submissions will not be accepted and will not be deemed filed until a Proof of Claim Form is submitted to Verita by overnight mail, courier service, hand delivery, regular mail, in person, or through Verita's website. Additional information on how to submit a Proof of Claim through Verita's website is outlined below.

If you are required to file a Proof of Claim but fail to do so by the applicable Bar Date, then you may not be treated as a creditor with respect to such claim for purposes of voting and distributions to be made to claimants on account of claims in the Chapter 11 Case.

3. Who is required to file a Proof of Claim?

The fact that you have received the Bar Date Notice does not mean that you have a claim or that the Debtor believes that you have a claim.

Information regarding who should file Proofs of Claim is set forth in the Bar Date Order.

As set forth in the Bar Date Order, whether or not you should file a Proof of Claim may depend on if and how your claim was identified on the Schedules. The Schedules can be viewed at the following link: Link to Schedules at Docket No. 159.

YOU SHOULD CAREFULLY REVIEW THE SCHEDULES, BAR DATE ORDER, AND BAR DATE NOTICE BEFORE FILING A PROOF OF CLAIM. If your claim was identified on the Schedules and you agree with the amount and classification of your claim, you are not required to file a Proof of Claim.

You MUST file a Proof of Claim by the applicable Bar Date if:

(a) your claim is not identified on the Schedules,

(b) you disagree with the amount or classification of your claim on the Schedules, or

(c) your claim was identified as contingent, unliquidated, and/or disputed on the Schedules.

YOU SHOULD CONSULT AN ATTORNEY IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS, INCLUDING WHETHER OR NOT YOU SHOULD FILE A PROOF OF CLAIM. ULTIMATELY, WHETHER OR NOT YOU SHOULD FILE A PROOF OF CLAIM IS A LEGAL QUESTION, AND THE DEBTOR AND ITS ADVISORS CANNOT PROVIDE YOU LEGAL ADVICE.

4. If I file a Proof of Claim, when will I be paid the amount I asserted?

Even if you file a timely claim or if your claim was listed on the Schedules, you may not be paid the amount set forth on the Schedules or your Proof of Claim. The claims set forth in the Schedules and all Proofs of Claim are subject to review and objection by the Debtor and parties in interest. Distributions to holders of allowed claims will be made in accordance with a chapter 11 plan and/or the Bankruptcy Code's priority scheme. Even allowed Proofs of Claim may not be paid in full. Actual recoveries, if any, depend on a number of factors and are unknown at this time. The timing of any payments is also unknown.

5. How do I file a Proof of Claim now?

Please visit www.veritaglobal.net and choose "Sangamo Therapeutics" from the list of companies. Click "Submit Electronic Proof of Claim (ePOC)" to begin the claim filing process.

At the sign in page, after accepting the terms and conditions, please click "Request a PIN to file a claim" to have a PIN number emailed. If you intend to file multiple claims, you must request multiple PIN numbers. You may use the same email address for multiple PIN numbers. Once the request is submitted, you will receive an email from "noreply@veritaglobal.com" with the subject "KCC ePOC PIN Request".

Once you receive your PIN, return to the ePOC site and login using the email address you provided and the PIN number you received by email. We recommend copying and pasting the PIN into the appropriate section of the ePOC site.

Prior to filing your claim, you may find it helpful to review a blank form at the following link, which contains claim filing instructions: Link to the Blank Claim Form and PDF of the instructions (the form and instructions are also linked in the ePOC platform after PIN entry). Please refer to pages 4 and 5 for the Court's Instructions for Proof of Claim. This blank proof of claim form mirrors the ePOC claim filing system so it is a good reference for what to expect when filing an ePOC.

Additionally, please review the bar date notice at the following link: Bar Date Notice

The online claim system will take you through a set of screens to complete the Proof of Claim. Please note, certain sections of the ePOC system have "Required" fields for which you will need to make a selection or provide some typed response to move onto the next section.
