CREDITORS, EMPLOYEES AND PARTIES IN INTEREST

(Emergency Hearing Requested)

Basis for Requested Emergency Relief

The Debtors respectfully request that the Court conduct an emergency hearing on this Motion. It is essential that the Debtors comply with Local Rule 1007-2 and file a list of their top twenty unsecured creditors for noticing purposes. In this Motion, the Debtors seek to file a consolidated list of their top 30 creditors to prevent redundancy and save on costs, while ensuring that creditors receive proper notice. The Debtors also seek to maintain a consolidated list of their creditors in lieu of a separate creditor matrix for each Debtor. Additionally, the Debtors are seeking to protect personally identifiable information of their individual creditors, employees and interested parties.

The above-captioned debtors and debtors-in-possession (each a "Debtor" and, collectively, the "Debtors"), by and through their proposed undersigned counsel, file this Debtors' Emergency Motion for Entry of an Order (I) Authorizing the Debtors to File (A) a Consolidated Creditor Matrix and (B) a Consolidated List of the Top Thirty Unsecured Creditors; and (II) Authorizing the Debtors to Suppress Certain Personally Identifiable Information for Individual Creditors, Employees and Parties in Interest (the "Motion"), seeking the entry of an order substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A. In support of this Motion, the Debtors rely upon the Declaration of Mark C. Healy in Support of Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Relief (the "First Day Declaration")[2] filed on or about the date hereof, and respectfully represent as follows:

Jurisdiction and Venue

1. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b).

[2] Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the First Day Declaration.

2. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

3. The statutory predicates for the relief sought herein are sections 105, 342 and 521(a) of chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), Rule 1007(d) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), and Rule 1007-1(a)(2) of the Local Rules of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of Florida.

Background

4. On the date hereof (the "Petition Date"), each of the Debtors filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (collectively, the "Chapter 11 Cases").

5. The Debtors are operating their businesses and managing their affairs as debtors-in-possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

6. For a detailed description of the Debtors and their operations, the Debtors respectfully refer the Court and parties in interest to the First Day Declaration.

Relief Requested

7. By this Motion, the Debtors request entry of an Order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, authorizing, but not directing, the Debtors (i) to file and maintain a consolidated Creditor Matrix in lieu of a separate creditor list and mailing matrix for each Debtor, (ii) to file a Consolidated Top 30 List of the Debtors' top thirty (30) unsecured creditors, in lieu of filing a separate list of the top twenty (20) unsecured creditors for each Debtor, and (iii) to suppress personal identifiable information for the Debtors' individual creditors, employees and parties in interest.

Basis for Relief and Applicable Authority

A. Cause Exists to Authorize the Debtors to Prepare a List of Creditors in Lieu of Submitting a Formatted Mailing Matrix.

8. Section 521(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rule 1007(a)(1), and Local

Rule 1007-2(a) require a debtor in a voluntary chapter 11 case to file a list containing the name and complete address of each creditor at the time the petition is filed. In addition, Bankruptcy Rule 1007(d) requires a debtor to file a list containing the name, address, and claim of the creditors holding the twenty largest unsecured claims against the debtor.

9. In these cases, authorizing the Debtors to file a consolidated Creditor Matrix, in lieu of a separate creditor list and mailing matrix for each Debtor, is warranted. The Debtors operate as affiliated businesses and share cash management and operational systems. Because the Debtors have thousands of creditors and other parties-in-interest, converting the Debtors' computerized information to a format compatible with the matrix requirements would be an unnecessarily burdensome and time-consuming task and would greatly increase the risk of error with respect to information already on computer systems maintained by the Debtors and their agents. Moreover, with respect to the top unsecured creditor lists, the Debtors submit that filing a separate top 20 unsecured creditor list for each Debtor—instead of one consolidated list of the Debtors' top 30 unsecured creditors—would be of limited utility and potentially duplicative to an extent, especially in comparison to the time and expense it would cost to compile separate lists when the Debtors' management is trying to facilitate a smooth transition into chapter 11.

10. Instead, the Debtors, in consultation with Kurtzman Carson Consultants, LLC d/b/a Verita Global ("Verita"), their proposed claims, noticing and solicitation agent, have prepared a single, consolidated list of the Debtors' creditors in electronic format. The Debtors are prepared to make the Creditor Matrix available in electronic form to any party-in-interest who requests (or in non-electronic form at such requesting party's sole cost and expense) in lieu of submitting a mailing matrix to the clerk of the Bankruptcy Court.

B. Cause Exists to Authorize the Debtors to File a Single Consolidated List of the Debtors' 30 Largest Unsecured Creditors.

11. Bankruptcy Rule 1007(d) states that a debtor "shall file with the petition a list containing the name, address and claim of the creditors that hold the 20 largest unsecured claims, excluding insiders . . . ." Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(d). Because certain of the Debtors share many creditors and the Debtors are affiliates, the Debtors request authority to file a single, consolidated list of their 30 largest general unsecured creditors, in lieu of a separate list of the top 20 unsecured creditors of each Debtor.

12. Given the affiliated nature of the Debtors, permitting them to maintain and submit a single consolidated Top 30 List, in lieu of filing a separate list of the top 20 largest unsecured creditors for each of the twenty-two Debtors, is warranted. The Debtors are affiliated entities and share financial and operational systems and also share many of the same creditors. Accordingly, requiring the Debtors to maintain a separate Top 20 List for each of the twenty-two Debtors would likely result in redundant duplicative mailings, adding unnecessary administrative expense to the Debtors' estates.

13. Further, filing a single consolidated Top 30 List will facilitate the U.S. Trustee's review of creditors' claims and aid in its determination of whether to appoint a single creditors' committee in these cases.

14. For these reasons, permitting the Debtors to submit a consolidated Top 30 List will help alleviate administrative burdens, costs, and the possibility of duplicative service.

15. Courts in various jurisdictions have approved relief similar to the relief requested herein with respect to preparation of a consolidated, electronic list of a debtor's creditors. See, e.g., In re Red Lobster Management, LLC, et al., Case No. 6:24-bk-02486 (GER) (Bankr. 16. Further, courts in various jurisdictions have approved relief similar to the relief requested herein with respect to the filing of a consolidated Top 30 List. See, e.g., In re Red Lobster Management, LLC, et al., Case No. 6:24-bk-02486 (GER) (Bankr. C. Cause Exists to Authorize the Debtors to Suppress Certain Personal Identifiable Information for the Debtors' Individual Creditors, Employees and Parties in Interest.

17. Section 107(c) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that the Court "for cause, may protect an individual, with respect to the following types of information to the extent the court finds that disclosure of such information would create undue risk of identity theft or other unlawful injury to the individual [:] …. [a]ny means of identification…contained in a paper filed, or to be filed in a case under" the Bankruptcy Code. 11 U.S.C. § 107(c)(1)(A).

18. In addition, privacy protection regulations are being enacted in key jurisdictions. For instance, in 2018, the state of California enacted the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018, as amended by the California Privacy Rights Act of 2020 (the "CCPA"), which provides individuals domiciled in California the right to request their collected personal information be deleted by entities subject to the regulation. Violators risk injunctions and civil penalties of up to $2,500 for each violation and up to $7,500 for each intentional violation. Cal. Civ. Code § 1798.155. The CCPA applies to all for-profit entities doing business in California that collect and process consumers' personal data and satisfy one of the following criteria: (a) annual gross revenue in excess of $25 million; (b) buys, shares, receives, or sells the personal information of more than 100,000 consumers, households, or devices for commercial purposes; or (c) receives 50% or more of their annual revenues from selling consumers' personal information. Cal. Civ. Code § 1798.140(d)(1). The CCPA applies to the Debtors because they do business in California and their annual gross revenue exceeds $25 million.

19. The Debtors respectfully submit that it is appropriate to authorize the Debtors to suppress from any paper filed with the Court in these Chapter 11 Cases, the names, residential addresses and email addresses of the Debtors' individual creditors, employees and parties in interest because disclosure risks violating the CCPA and similar statutes, exposing the Debtors to potential civil liability and significant financial penalties. In addition, disclosing such information could be used by third parties, among other things, to perpetrate identify theft or locate survivors of domestic violence or stalking, who have otherwise taken steps to conceal their whereabouts. This risk is not merely speculative. In at least one chapter 11 case, the abusive former partner of a debtor's employee exploited the publicly accessible creditor and employee information filed in the chapter 11 case to track the employee to her new address, which had not been publicly available until then, forcing the employee to change addresses again for her safety.

20. The Debtors estimate that they have thousands of potential individual creditors and parties in interest, and over 1,000 current and former employees. Although the Debtors seek to suppress the names and addresses of individuals from filings on the public record, including on the consolidated creditor matrix and certificates of service of court papers that will be filed by Verita, Verita will maintain a list of the suppressed individuals so that the Debtors can track and confirm service of court paper details, which will also be made available to the Court and US Trustee upon request.

21. The separate maintenance by Verita of a list containing the service details for court papers served upon such individuals will not only protect their personal information but will also facilitate an efficient manner to document service. Namely, it would be burdensome, wasteful and expensive for Verita to file a certificate of service attaching hundreds of pages that simply state "name and address of individual on file" or list an ID number associated with each individual. Rather, subject to the Court's approval of the relief requested herein, the Debtors propose that Verita verify service to individuals by referencing the Court's Order on this Motion and, separately, maintaining a list with the relevant service detail should the Court, US Trustee or other interested party upon reasonable request require confirmation of service.

22. As an example, Verita may document service by including the following or substantially similar statement on a certificate of service:

> Pursuant to the Court's Order entered on _____, 2026, at Doc. No. ____, Verita served the [named] court papers upon [number] individuals and will separately maintain the service details in order to protect against the disclosure of said individuals' personal information on the public record.

23. Courts in various jurisdictions have approved relief similar to the relief requested herein with respect to the non-disclosure, redaction, restriction of access to, or suppression of personally identifiable information for individuals, whether they are creditors or other parties-in-interest. See, e.g., In re Red Lobster Management, LLC, et al., Case No. 6:24-bk-02486 (GER) (Bankr. M.D. Fla. May 25, 2024) (authorizing the debtors to suppress names, residential addresses and email addresses of the debtors current and format employees; and the addresses and email addresses (but not the names) of the debtors individual creditors and parties in interest); In re Genesis Global Holdco, LLC, 652 B.R. 618, 637 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2023) (stating that "[t]he publication of names alone has been found to heighten the risk of identity theft and other harm," and noting that home addresses can easily be found on the internet through the use of an individual's name); In re Bird Global, Inc., et al., Case No. 23-20514 (CLC) (Bankr. S.D. Fla. Dec. 22, 2023) (authorizing the debtors to redact email addresses and home addresses of individual creditors and equity holders); In re Air Methods Corp., et al., Case No. 23-90886 (MI) (Bankr. Oct. 25, 2023) (authorizing the debtors to redact the names and e-mail addresses of the debtors' individual employees, creditors, and other individual parties in interest); In re AeroTech Miami, Inc. d/b/a iAero Tech, et al., Case No. 23-17503 (RAM) (Bankr. S.D. Fla. Sept. 22, 2023) (authorizing the debtors to redact the residential and email addresses of the individual creditors); In re Forever 21, Inc., Case No. 19-12122 (KB) (Bankr. D. Del. Dec. 19, 2019) (authorizing the debtors to redact the home addresses of the debtors' employees); In re Anna Holdings, Inc., Case No. 19-12551 (CSS) (Bankr. D. Del. Dec. 3, 2019) (authorizing the debtors to redact personally identifiable information of all individual creditors and interest holders); In re Loot Crate, Inc., No. 19-11791 (BLS) (Bankr. D. Del. Jul. 12, 2019) (authorizing the debtors to redact personally identifiable information of their employees and former employees on the creditor matrix).

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request entry of an Order in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A granting this Motion and, thereby (i) authorizing, but not directing, the Debtors to file and maintain a consolidated Creditor Matrix, in lieu of a separate creditor list and mailing matrix for each Debtor; (ii) authorizing, but not directing, the Debtors to file a consolidated list of the Debtors' top thirty (30) unsecured creditors, in lieu of filing a separate list of the top twenty (20) unsecured creditors for each Debtor; (iii) authorizing, but not directing, the Debtors to suppress personally identifiable information for the Debtors' individual creditors, employees and parties in interest and reflect service upon them as indicated herein; and (v) granting such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.
