TRANSCONTINENTAL GAS PIPE LINE COMPANY, LLC'S DESIGNATION OF THE RECORD AND STATEMENT OF ISSUES ON APPEAL

Defendant-Appellant Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Company, LLC ("Transco"), hereby submits this statement of issues to be presented on appeal and designation of record on appeal pursuant to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 8009(a) in connection with the appeal of the Judgment Order dated May 8, 2025 [Adv. D.I. 457] in the above-captioned Adversary Proceeding.

I. STATEMENT OF THE ISSUES TO BE PRESENTED ON APPEAL

1. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in its allocation of the burden of proof for Welded Construction, LP's ("Welded") claims for disputed invoiced amounts under the governing contract.

2. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred by concluding that Welded "met its burden to prove its outstanding costs and expenses under the [governing contract]," including, without limitation, with respect to Welded's claims for its disputed invoiced amounts under the governing contract.

3. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred by finding Welded demonstrated entitlement to payment of its disputed invoiced amounts under the governing contract.

4. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in finding that "Welded has substantially complied with the [governing contract] in all material aspects."

5. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in finding that Welded did not have to prove compliance with the procedures for competitive bidding in the governing Contract.

6. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred by not requiring Welded to prove the actual costs it incurred to demonstrate entitlement to its invoiced amounts.

7. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in concluding that a cost reimbursable contractor such as Welded must show its invoiced costs were reasonable and proper only when the owner proves bad faith, negligence or fraud under the governing contract and governing law.

8. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in concluding that Transco did not demonstrate negligence, fraud or bad faith in Welded's invoiced amounts such that Welded was required to show its fees were reasonable and proper.

9. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in finding that the Pennsylvania Contractor and Subcontractor Payment Act (73 Pa. Cons. Stat §§ 501-516) (CASPA) applies to the Parties' contractual dispute where the governing contract provides that "[t]he laws of the State of Oklahoma, excluding its choice of law principles, shall govern this Contract."

10. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred by concluding that an actual conflict existed between Pennsylvania and Oklahoma law.

11. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred by concluding that a conflict-of-laws analysis was required to be undertaken by the Court.

12. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in finding that there was no reasonable basis for the choice of Oklahoma law under the governing contract.

13. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in finding that Pennsylvania has the most significant relationship to the Parties and the Parties' contractual transaction.

14. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in concluding that CASPA applies to Welded's claims against Transco.

15. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in its imposition of interest and penalties pursuant to CASPA (73 Pa. Cons. Stat §§ 505(c), 516).

16. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in determining that Transco "wrongfully" withheld any amounts allegedly due Welded, within the meaning of CASPA (73 Pa. Cons. Stat § 512).

17. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in awarding CASPA interest, penalties and attorney's fees where Welded invoiced amounts that were inaccurate and unallowable under the governing contract as admitted by Welded and determined by the Court.

18. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred by finding Welded is entitled to attorneys' fees and expenses under CASPA (73 Pa. Cons. Stat § 512(b)).

19. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred by finding that the Parties were prohibited from contractually agreeing to waive CASPA's coverage and provisions under the statute as it existed at the time of entry into the governing contract.

20. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in finding Welded was entitled to payment and that Transco was not entitled to recoupment of Welded's invoiced amounts for amounts that that were contrary to the Contract allowability provisions, including, without limitation, (i) Rig Rental charges totaling $10,535,530; (ii) Bechtel charges totaling $4,449,999; (iii) Standby Equipment charges totaling $6,095,894; (iv) General Liability charges totaling $1,266,984; (v) the Final Fee totaling $5,050,000 ; and (vi) charges for Welded's defective and non-conforming work pursuant to the billing and invoicing terms of the governing contract.

21. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in determining that Welded had demonstrated entitlement to invoiced amounts, including, without limitation, for (i) Rig Rental charges totaling $10,535,530; (ii) Bechtel charges totaling $4,449,999; (iii) Standby Equipment charges totaling $6,095,894; (iv) General Liability charges totaling $1,266,984; (v) the Final Fee totaling $5,050,000 ; and (vi) charges for Welded's defective and non-conforming work pursuant to the billing and invoicing terms of the governing contract.

22. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in concluding that Welded demonstrated entitlement to Rig Rental charges despite the Court's finding that the method of procuring equipment was not determinative of its allowability or definition of Included Equipment.

23. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in concluding that the governing contract allowed Welded to invoice a fifty percent Equipment Fee markup on rental costs for welding rigs.

24. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in determining that Welded demonstrated entitlement to Bechtel charges when Bechtel "wrote off" the invoices.

25. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in determining that Welded demonstrated entitlement to Bechtel charges when Bechtel never submitted a Proof of Claim to the Debtor's Estate for these invoices.

26. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in placing the burden of proof on Transco to disprove Welded's entitlement to Standby Equipment Charges of $6,095,894 because the amount was listed on the Construction Cost Estimate and the advance cash call including the charges was "paid" by Transco when all invoiced amounts were subject to audit and verification of supporting documentation.

27. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in concluding that Welded had demonstrated its entitlement to the Final Fee totaling $5,050,000, including, without limitation, whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in determining the Third Commitment Letter reduced the scope of work Welded was required to complete under the governing contract to be entitled to the Final Fee, and whether all conditions for the payment of the Final Fixed Fee had been performed and/or waived.

28. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in concluding that the labor rates and restrictions on increasing labor rates set forth in Section VIII, Exhibit 1 of the governing contract were inapplicable.

29. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred by allowing Welded to recover its invoiced amounts for personnel while they were working on other projects and personnel invoiced contrary to the governing contract.

30. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in finding Transco did not meet its burden of proof on its claims relating to Welded's defective and non-conforming work under the terms of the governing contract.

31. Whether the Bankruptcy Court's finding that revised labor rates were provided by Welded is without evidentiary support.

32. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred by disallowing, in full or in part, Transco's Proof of Claim No. 632 and Transco's Proof of Claim No. 636.

33. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in granting Welded's Motion in Limine with respect to the opinion of Transco's expert (Triche) on Welded's defective and non-conforming work under the terms of the governing contract.

34. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred in concluding that Welded did not incur a schedule penalty under the governing contract.

35. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred by failing to require Welded to demonstrate compliance with the procedural requirements of the governing contract, including competitive bidding among at least three subcontractors for certain supplies and commodities, in order to be entitled to recover on its claims.

36. Whether the Bankruptcy Court erred by concluding that Transco waived its rights to require compliance with the governing contract, including procedures for competitive bidding.

II. DESIGNATION OF THE RECORD ON APPEAL
