PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Transco objects to Welded's Application seeking attorneys' fees and expenses totaling $12,140,496.08. First, Welded is not entitled to recover a portion of the fees and expenses they seek under CASPA's statutory provisions and case law, and the Court's Opinion. For example, CASPA does not allow for recovery of expert fees. CASPA also does not allow for recovery of attorneys' fees and expenses incurred in prosecuting claims and counterclaims unrelated to the collection of unpaid invoices under the Contract between Transco and Welded for Welded's work on the ASR Project (the "Contract").

Second, under the lodestar analysis, Welded fails to demonstrate the reasonableness of the $10,588,011.47 in attorneys' fees incurred by Young Conaway Stargatt & Taylor ("YCST") purportedly based on 18,601.1 hours of work. As described in further detail below, YCST's attorneys' fees are unreasonable due to, among other things, mathematical errors, excessiveness, vagueness, unrelatedness, and redundancy.

For example, in its supporting declaration YCST averred that it worked 18,601.1 hours equating to $10,588,011.47. [Adv. D.I. 480, Neiburg Decl. ¶ 15]. He also averred that YCST deducted a credit of $305,346.50 for its failure to implement a rate freeze of 13 timekeepers' rates at their 2021 rates. [Adv. D.I. 480, Neiburg Decl. ¶¶ 13-14]. YCST's calculations suffer from math errors. First, taking the total YCST time entries presented in the invoices attached to Welded's Application, and applying the YCST $305,346.60 credit, the total fees presented are actually $10,582,992.97. Second, applying the applicable rate freezes, the total amount overcharged due to Welded's failure to consistently implement the rate freeze is actually $359,654.97, not $305,346.50 – a $54,308.47 difference in Transco's favor. See Ewald Decl. ¶ 29.

Thus, based on simple mathematical errors, YCST's fees sought by Welded should be reduced from $10,588,011.47 to $10,528,684.50 – a $59,326.97 reduction.

Further, the $10,528,684.50 is attributable to 58 different timekeepers. Of those 58 timekeepers, 31 billed less than 100 hours over a 5-year period – equating to $293,815.00. Ewald Decl. ¶ 28. Reviewing YCST's invoices further, it is also clear that Welded made no (or very limited) attempts to: (i) segregate time for different claims asserted against different parties; (ii) ensure that only time related to this Adversary Proceeding, and not time related to the main Bankruptcy Case or other adversary proceedings, was attributed to this Adversary Proceeding; (iii) describe time with enough specificity to allow its reasonableness to be assessed; or (iv) limit senior attorney time on junior level work (notwithstanding the 58 different timekeepers). These are some of the examples of issues affecting the reasonableness of Welded's request for an award of its attorneys' fees.

In short, Transco submits that: (i) Welded's attorneys' fees should be reduced to no more than $5,455,681.72; and (ii) Welded's expenses should be reduced to no more than $1,342,703.84, resulting in a total award of no more than $6,798,385.56. See Exhibit D.

BACKGROUND

I. Project Background and the Parties' Dispute.

1. Welded addresses the background of the project and disputes at length in its Application. While Transco does not agree with Welded's characterization in this regard, this Objection addresses the Application and propriety of the fees and expenses sought under the reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses standard of the Pennsylvania statute, CASPA, rather than a re-litigation of the Project disputes. The evidence at trial demonstrated that Welded invoiced Transco over $800 million to construct 97 miles of a pipeline it proposed to build for $341 million in 2015, and Transco submitted evidence to demonstrate that this was largely due to erroneous billings, delays, safety violations, permit violations and a catastrophic hydrotest failure, together with the undisputed facts of Welded's late reconciliation invoices, cash calls significantly beyond its actual expenses and utilization of Transco cash advances to cover debts on other projects. Rather than recount the evidence at the trial, Transco sets forth below a procedural history that establishes context for its objections to Welded's Application.

II. Welded's Bankruptcy Proceeding.

2. On October 22, 2018 (the "Petition Date"), Welded filed its chapter 11 bankruptcy case while work on the Project was ongoing.

3. On October 29, 2018, the Debtors filed an application [Bankr. D.I. 116] (the "Pometti Retention Application"), requesting approval of, among other things, the Debtors' retention of Frank Pometti of AlixPartners as the Debtors' CRO. On November 15, 2018, the Court approved the Pometti Retention Application. [Bankr. D.I. 236].

4. Notwithstanding its disputes with Welded, pursuant to three Court-approved commitment letters (collectively, the "Commitment Letters"), Transco agreed to provide $8,050,000 in additional prepayments to Welded in order to fund Welded's pipeline restoration work on the Project. [Bankr. D.I. 45, 111, 172].

5. The deadlines to file general proofs of claim and administrative expense claims were February 28, 2019 [Bankr. D.I. 407] and April 30, 2019 [Bankr. D.I. 556], respectively. On February 28, 2019, Transco filed its Proofs of Claims No. 632 and 636. Claim number 632 asserted a general unsecured claim of $16,320,000 based on anticipated costs for pipeline defect investigation and repair caused by Welded on the Project. Claim number 636 asserted a general unsecured claim of $94,291,513.58 for overbilling and improper billing under the Contract, schedule penalty owed under the Contract's schedule dis/incentive provision, and failure to pay suppliers and subcontractors.

6. On April 26, 2019, Transco filed its Request for Payment of Administrative Expense as Proof of Claim No. 775 (together with Claim numbers 632 and 636, the "Proofs of Claim"). Claim number 775 asserted an administrative expense claim for $2,399,279.46 for overpayment under the Commitment Letters due to Welded's continued overbilling in its invoices. In total, Transco asserted claims totaling over $113 million against Welded.

7. In addition to Transco's three Proofs of Claim against Welded, approximately 935 other proofs of claim were filed against the Debtors, including three claims of the Debtors' surety on the Project, Federal Insurance Company ("Surety" or "Federal").

8. On May 3, 2019, Welded filed a Complaint and Objection to Claims [Adv. D.I. 1] (the "Complaint") against The Williams Companies, Inc. ("Williams Co."), Williams Partners Operating LLC ("Williams Partners") (collectively, the "Williams Parties"), and Transco (collectively "Defendants"), commencing Adversary Proceeding Case No. 19-50194 (the "Adversary Proceeding").

9. That same day, also on May 3, 2019, the Debtors filed a Motion to Approve [Bankr. D.I. 704] their Litigation Funding and Cooperation Agreement (the "Litigation Funding Agreement") whereby Welded, Federal, and the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") agreed to a litigation funding arrangement for the Welded/Transco Adversary Proceeding. Under the terms of the Litigation Funding Agreement, Federal agreed to provide up to $2,500,000 in funding to Welded for the Adversary Proceeding. Id. On May 22, 2019, the Court entered its Order [Bankr. D.I. 745] approving the Litigation Funding Agreement.

10. On May 4, 2020, the Debtors filed their second Amended Chapter 11 Plan of Welded Construction, L.P. and Welded Construction Michigan, LLC [Bankr. D.I. 1343] (the "Plan") and second Amended Disclosure Statement for the Amended Chapter 11 Plan of Welded

Construction, L.P. and Welded Construction Michigan, LLC [Bankr. D.I. 1344] (the "Disclosure Statement").

11. On May 6, 2020, the Court held a hearing on the Disclosure Statement, and on May 7, 2020, the Court entered its Order [Bankr. D.I. 1362] approving the Disclosure Statement.

12. On June 24, 2020, the Court held a hearing on confirmation of the Plan, and on June 25, 2020, the Court entered its Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Order Confirming the Amended Chapter 11 Plan of Welded Construction, L.P. and Welded Construction Michigan, LLC [Bankr. D.I. 1505] (the "Confirmation Order"). The Effective Date of the Plan occurred on July 31, 2020 [Bankr. D.I. 1555].

III. Non-Transco Adversary Proceedings.

13. In addition to this Adversary Proceeding, Welded was party to no less than 103 other adversary proceedings, removed actions, or other civil litigation filed after the Petition Date. See Exhibit "C".[2] These actions were commenced by and/or against Welded both before and during this Adversary Proceeding, with many of these actions pending throughout the duration of the Adversary Proceeding, including 38 separate adversary proceedings commenced by Welded on October 20, 2020. See id.

IV. The Welded/Transco Adversary Proceeding

14. In its Complaint, Welded asserted twelve counts for relief against Defendants as follows:

Transco

- Counts I, II, IV, VIII, IX, X, and XI:

[2] This figure pertains solely to matters filed in federal courts after the Petition Date and does not included matters filed in federal courts prior to the Petition Date, or matters filed in state courts either before or after the Petition Date and that were not subsequently removed to federal court after the Petition Date.

- Breach of contract
- Breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing
- Turnover of property of the estate
- Objection to Claims 632 and 636
- Declaratory judgment regarding post-petition reconciliation
- Violation of the Pennsylvania Contractor and Subcontractor Payment Act (CASPA)

Williams Partners Operating LLC and The Williams Companies, Inc.

- Count III:
  - Tortious interference with contractual relationships

Transco, Williams Partners Operating LLC, and The Williams Companies, Inc.

- Counts IV through VII and XII:
  - Turnover of estate property
  - Violation of the automatic stay
  - Impermissible setoff
  - Unjust enrichment
  - Attorneys' fees

15. In its Complaint, Welded sought $71 million from Transco based on the amount of its allegedly unpaid invoices under the Contract and recovery under CASPA for Transco's withholding, and declaratory judgment that Transco's Claims 632 and 636 be disallowed in full. Thereafter, Welded submitted another invoice to Transco for the Final Fixed Fee under the Contract, bringing its total amount sought for invoiced amounts to over $76.5 million.

16. On July 3, 2019, Defendants filed a Motion to (I) Abstain, or (II) in the Alternative, Transfer Venue, or (III) in the Alternative, Dismiss Certain Counts of the Complaint (the "Motion to Dismiss") [Adv. D.I. 24, 25]. Defendants requested the Court to abstain or transfer the case based upon the Contract's choice of law provision, the related suit pending in Oklahoma state court, and the lack of connectivity to the core bankruptcy issues; or otherwise dismiss Count II, and Counts IV-VII. Welded opposed the Motion to Dismiss on July 26, 2019 [Adv. D.I. 31].

17. The Court entered an order granting and denying in part the Motion to Dismiss and issuing an opinion reflecting its ruling on October 16, 2019 [Adv. D.I. 48 (opinion), 49]. The Court adopted Defendants' position on the majority of counts, dismissing Count II (Breach of Good Faith & Fair Dealing against Transco); Count IV (Turnover against Defendants); Count V (Violation of Automatic Stay against Defendants); Count VII (Unjust enrichment against Williams Partners and Williams Co.). As a result, the only claims left in the Adversary Proceeding against Williams Partners and Williams Co. were Count III (Tortious interference), Count VI (Impermissible setoff), and Count XII (Attorneys' fees).

18. Defendants filed three separate Answers to Welded's Complaint on November 13, 2019 [Adv. D.I. 63–65], and Transco asserted a Counterclaim against Welded [Adv. D.I. 63]. Transco's asserted in its Counterclaim a breach of contract claim (Count I) against Welded for Contract overbilling, violation of the Contract policies, procedures, and specifications, mechanical completion delay, and failure to pay subcontractors and suppliers. Transco also asserted a breach of the Commitment Letters claim (Count III) and a separate (Count II) breach of contract claim for pipeline defective work and failure to repair pipeline dents and coating anomalies against Welded.

19. On October 28, 2019, Welded filed a Motion for Partial Summary Judgment [Adv. D.I. 50-55] seeking a declaration from the Court that CASPA governs the contract, an award of interest, penalty interest, and attorneys' fees under CASPA, and a declaration from the Court that Welded is entitled to allegedly unpaid Labor Costs for July-October 2019 and the related unpaid Equipment Fee multiplier under the Contract. Welded also filed a reply in support of its Motion for Partial Summary Judgment on December 20, 2019 [Adv. D.I. 79]. Welded's Motion for Partial Summary Judgment was denied in full [See Adv. D.I. 120 (opinion), 121].

20. Welded served separate sets of written discovery on all Defendants on January 8, 2020 and January 17, 2020 [Adv. D.I. 88, 91]; and on Transco again on February 25, 2020 [Adv. D.I. 96]. Only Transco served written discovery on Welded. The amended scheduling order [Adv. D.I. 131] required the Parties to complete document productions by July 16, 2020; however, Welded made 16 additional document productions following that date, totaling approximately 17,000 new documents. Welded continued to make document productions in 2021. [Adv. D.I. 210].

21. In late 2020 through early 2021, the Parties continued discovery with subpoenas and depositions. Twenty-seven of the total twenty-nine fact depositions were completed between November, 2020 and March, 2021. When Transco sought to depose Mr. Scott Schoenherr, a former employee of Welded and general superintendent on the ASR Project, Welded did not object and provided information regarding his last known address. When Transco served a notice of deposition for Mr. Schoenherr on January 29, 2021, however, Welded immediately filed an Emergency Motion to Quash the Notice of Deposition and corresponding letters [Adv. D.I. 214, 216, 217, 219, 220, 221] and filed a response in opposition to Defendants' Emergency Motion for Authority to Proceed with Deposition of Scott Schoenherr on February 5, 2021 [Adv. D.I. 228]. The Court entered an order granting Defendants' Emergency Motion for Authority to Proceed with Mr. Schoenherr's deposition [Adv. D.I. 242] and the deposition eventually proceeded on May 23, 2021.

22. On January 27, 2021, Defendants were forced to file a Motion to Compel Production of Corporate Representative and Documents, as Welded refused to present a Corporate Representative for Deposition that could testify regarding some integral topics relating to Welded's asserted damages in its Complaint [See Adv. D.I. 209, 210]. Welded opposed [Adv. D.I. 227], and following a hearing on February 8, 2021, the Court granted Defendants' Motion to Compel the Deposition of Welded's Corporate Representative [Adv. D.I. 241].

23. On July 21, 2020, Welded filed a Motion to Compel Production of the OGCS Audit Documents [Adv. D.I. 134–136, 138], and a reply in support on August 27, 2020 [Adv. D.I. 148]. A hearing was held on September 9, 2020 and the Court granted Welded's Motion to Compel [See Adv. D.I. 155]. Transco promptly produced the OGCS documents as ordered by the Court, then sought reconsideration/clarification regarding the scope of the order and withheld documents classified as Opinion Work Product. [See Adv. D.I. 159]. Following Defendants' Motion for clarification/reconsideration and oral argument, the Court ordered Defendants to produce the remaining OGCS Audit Documents [Adv. D.I. 155, 226, 230, 236], which Transco did, with a handful of redactions for information unrelated to the Project audit. On August 27, 2021, Welded filed a Motion for an Order (I) Enforcing the Waiver Orders and (II) Imposing Sanctions [Adv. D.I. 267, 268] (the "Sanctions Motion"), followed by a reply in support on September 14, 2021 [Adv. D.I. 272].

24. On December 20, 2021, the Court issued a Memorandum Order determining that the documents with redactions must be produced to Welded without the redactions, but that "Defendants were substantially justified in withholding these documents." [Adv. D.I. 276 ¶ 19]. The Court also stated, "the Court notes that the parties have been engaged in contentious motion practice with respect to production of the Audit documents for almost two years. It is clear that the parties and counsel have had legitimate differing views and opinions on the discoverability of these documents for quite some time." [Adv. D.I. 276 ¶ 20] (emphasis added). The Court further stated, "[g]iven the level of protection generally afforded to work product, it is reasonable that Defendants believed they needed to produce all documents with unredacted information only as to the direct Audit and its findings, as opposed to all information (and the implications of that information) that they may have received as part of the auditing process, and which may be work product "related to" the Audit." [Adv. D.I. 276 ¶ 23]. The Court concluded that while the minor redactions needed to be removed, the Court refused to sanction Defendants, and denied the Sanctions Motion accordingly. [Adv. D.I. 276 ¶ 24].

25. Defendants filed a Motion for Withdrawal of Reference and Renewed Demand for Jury Trial by the Williams Parties on November 25, 2020 [Adv. D.I. 177, 178] (the "Motion for Withdrawal"). Welded opposed the Motion for Withdrawal on December 23, 2020, acknowledging that Welded's claims against the Williams Parties "…are only ripe for consideration by the Court if it is determined that Transco breached the Contract []" and "…Williams's purported right to a jury trial may ultimately be moot…". [See District Court D.I. 4, at ¶¶ 4, 31]. Following oral argument on June 30, 2021, Judge Connolly of the District Court determined that the Williams Parties were entitled to a jury trial with respect to Counts III and XII asserted against them by Welded and that they could renew their request to withdraw the reference with respect to those counts following resolution of the claims between Welded and Transco on this basis [docketed at Adv. D.I. 266]. Thus, trial in the Adversary Proceeding would be limited to Transco's and Welded's claims. [See Second Amended Scheduling Order at Adv. D.I. 283 ¶ 2 ("For the avoidance of doubt, consistent with the Delaware district court's July 21, 2021 Order denying Defendants' motion to withdraw the reference, the trial of the Adversary proceeding in this Court shall concern only the claims and counterclaims between Welded and Transco.")].

26. Transco and Welded produced expert reports on May 9 and June 30, 2022. Welded produced two opening expert reports for Scott Gray of Ankura Consulting Group, and Dennis Kakol of Contech. Scott Gray was retained by Welded to opine on the invoiced amounts owed to Welded under the Contract – asserting that Welded was entitled to an outstanding unpaid amount of $75.83 million (before applying CASPA). Only Scott Gray testified about the unpaid and outstanding Contract invoices. Welded retained two other experts to address Transco's Counterclaims and Welded's affirmative claim for a schedule bonus. Dennis Kakol was retained by Welded to opine on Welded's entitlement to a schedule incentive under the Contract – asserting that Welded was entitled to a schedule bonus of up to $12.57 million, despite achieving Mechanical Completion 3 months late on the Project. Welded produced responsive expert reports for experts Gray and Kakol in June, 2022, as well as a rebuttal expert report for Dr. Peter Singh of PolymaPro. Welded retained Dr. Singh to opine on the pipeline coating and dent issues caused by Welded on the Project, and the multi-million-dollar investigation and dent remediation work performed by Transco due to Welded's defective work. This was the subject of Transco's Proof of Claim 632. Mr. Kakol also filed a rebuttal report addressing Transco's counterclaims for weld repairs, defective work and unnecessary work. Expert depositions occurred in late 2022.

27. The Parties engaged in unsuccessful private mediation on September 26, 2022. [See Adv. D.I. 295]. The Parties executed a Court-approved Amended Stipulation Regarding Appointment of Mediator [See Adv. D.I. 288] wherein the Parties agreed to split the mediator's fees.

28. Once again, on February 27, 2023, Welded filed a Motion for Partial Summary Judgment Regarding the Application of CASPA [Adv. D.I. 305, 306, 307] and reply in support on April 12, 2023 [Adv. D.I. 321, 322], which the Court declined to rule upon until the Opinion.

29. Transco filed a Motion for Partial Summary Judgment on February 27, 2023, seeking summary judgment on certain categories of Welded's mischarging under the Contract/Commitment Letters totaling nearly $32 million, and CASPA, including 1) the costs associated with unsubstantiated Standby Equipment; 2) Post-Petition funding for impermissibly charged Included Equipment; 3) union dues ($2.8 million) paid previously by Transco; 4) Bechtel charges paid by Transco but not passed on by Welded to Bechtel; 5) recoupment of the $10 million Cost Penalty; 6) impermissibly charged general liability insurance costs; 7) payment for the Final Fixed Fee; and 8) dismissal of Welded's count for recovery under CASPA [Adv. D.I. 300–303]. Welded responded in opposition to Transco's Motion for Partial Summary Judgment on March 27, 2023 [Adv. D.I. 314–315]. Following a hearing, on July 28, 2023, the Court issued a Memorandum Opinion granting summary judgment in Transco's favor and against Welded for union dues and the $10 million Cost Penalty. Thus, Transco prevailed on two of the eight grounds for summary judgment, which totaled $12.2 million, or nearly 40% of the amount sought in the Motion for Partial Summary Judgment for categories of Welded's mischarging under the Contract/Commitment Letters [Adv. D.I. 394].

30. Transco and Welded submitted a Joint Pretrial Order which was entered on August 4, 2023, and separate pre-hearing briefs on August 8, 2023 [Adv. D.I. 405, 408, 409].

31. A ten-day trial occurred from August 22 through September 7, 2023 for Welded's and Transco's claims. At trial, Welded conceded that its true unpaid invoice "face" value was at most $56.12 million (Gray), a $15 million dollar difference from the amount asserted in its Complaint before the issuance of the Final Invoice and a nearly $20 million dollar difference from the amount Gray asserted in his opening expert report [See Adv. D.I. 435]. Further, Welded did not call Dr. Singh at trial and he ultimately provided no expert opinion testimony to the Court.

32. Following trial and submissions of post-trial briefing on October 23, 2023 [Adv. D.I. 433–435], closing arguments were held on August 20, 2024 [Adv. D.I. 438, 439, 441].

33. The Court issued its Opinion on all claims between Welded and Transco on February 4, 2025 [Adv. D.I. 442] (the "Opinion"). As relevant to this Objection, the Court found:

(a) Welded was not entitled to a schedule incentive bonus under the Contract due to its failure and its expert, Kakol's failure to demonstrate entitlement by a preponderance of the evidence. [Adv. D.I. 442, pp. 131–32].

(b) Welded was entitled to a net amount for withheld invoiced amounts of $44,632,308, or over $26 million less than Welded claimed it was entitled to in its Complaint and over $31 million less than Welded claimed it was entitled to in Gray's opening expert report, representing a 62% or 58% recovery for its claimed unpaid invoiced amounts under the Contract, respectively [Adv. D.I. 442, pp. 163, 168–69]. Combined with the schedule incentive bonus claimed, Welded sought an amount up to $88.4 million under the Contract through Gray and Kakol, and was awarded approximately 50% of that value by the Court.

(c) Welded was liable to Transco for the costs associated with the pipeline anomalies and dent remediation necessitated by Welded's defective work in the amount of $1,395,931.55 [Adv. D.I. 442, pp. 112–13]. Welded was liable to Transco for the costs associated with weld repairs and weld cutouts ($987,500); the majority of categories of Included Equipment Costs under the Contract that Welded impermissibly invoiced Transco for, including pickup trucks, dump trucks, trench boxes, marookas, rigs, excavators, graders, and other equipment (totaling over $7.3

million); certain portions of labor costs and agency fees Welded impermissibly charged to Transco (totaling over $1.03 million); and other unallowable cost categories Welded impermissibly charged to Transco both pre-Petition and post-Petition (totaling over $808,000).

(d) Transco was liable for attorneys' fees and expenses under CASPA because Transco wrongfully withheld payment for Welded's invoices [Adv. D.I. 442, pp. 160, 167–68]. The Court acknowledged in the Opinion that Welded's recovery under CASPA depends on the withholding of payment of invoices: "Because Welded's entitlement to [CASPA] damages depends . . . on whether Transco improperly withheld payment of invoices, I will address CASPA after I have ruled on Transco's affirmative claims." [Adv. D.I. 442, p. 35 n. 186]. The Court concluded that "as to the monthly invoices, Transco did not comply" and that "[w]hile Transco was successful on some of its arguments regarding improper charges, Welded ultimately prevailed on the primary claims at issue. An attorney fee will be awarded in an amount to be determined once a submission is made." [Adv. D.I. 442, pp. 167–68].

34. The Court entered a Final Judgment reflecting its Opinion on May 8, 2025 [Adv. D.I. 457], following additional briefing on post-judgment interest and penalties [See Adv. D.I. 448–49, 455]. Transco filed a Notice of Appeal and Statement of Issues with respect to certain matters of the Final Judgment, including the applicability of CASPA and the associated award of interest and attorneys' fees and expenses [Adv. D.I. 443, 461].[3]

V. Welded's Fee Application.

35. On June 23, 2025, Welded submitted its Application for Attorneys' Fees and Expenses [Adv. D.I. 479], seeking an award of attorneys' fees in the amount of $10,588,011.47

[3] Transco disputes that CASPA applies to the underlying dispute and nothing in this Objection to Welded's Application for Fees and Expenses under CASPA constitutes acceptance of or waiver of its arguments against the applicability of CASPA or the award of attorneys' fees and expenses to Welded thereunder. This issue and others are the subject of Transco's pending appeal and are not waived.

and expenses in the amount of $2,140,496.08, and attaching the Neiburg Declaration and over 1,900 pages of invoice support for its quantification. Pursuant to the Neiburg Declaration, the attorneys' fees sought are comprised of 18,601.1 hours of work by 58 Young Conaway professionals, with an average blended rate of $569.21. The majority of the claimed expenses ($2,133,189.76) are expenses allegedly incurred for expert witnesses, third party vendors, consultants, and mediation [Adv. D.I. 480, ¶¶ 9, 15].

36. In the Application, Welded contends that the "significant driver" of "extensive fact discovery" was "Transco's ongoing refusal to comply with Court orders" regarding the OGCS audit [Adv. D.I. 479, ¶¶ 13–26]. However, this is not true. First, Transco complied with all orders of the Court, promptly producing documents as ordered, and withholding sensitive information containing Opinion Work Product. On this basis, Transco sought clarification of the Court's order and exercised its appeal right as procedurally appropriate. And as the Court determined, "Defendants were substantially justified in withholding these documents." [Adv. D.I. 276 ¶ 19]. Welded filed its initial Motion to Compel at the end of July 2020, and within the year, all OGCS documents ordered to be produced had been produced. When Welded filed its Motion for Sanctions in August 2021, the dispute concerned only 28 documents with minor redactions. Importantly, at trial in this matter, Welded only introduced three OGCS documents that were admitted into evidence.

37. In fact, Welded's own actions prolonged the discovery process. Welded refused to produce a Corporate Representative, forcing Transco to file the Motion to Compel, Welded also spent considerable time preventing Transco from deposing a key fact witness, Mr. Scott Schoenherr, by invoking Court intervention and on an emergency basis. The Court found there was no basis to quash Mr. Schoenherr's deposition and ordered that it proceed. Additionally, Welded made 16 document productions, totaling approximately 17,000 new documents, following the scheduling order's cut-off date for document productions.

38. The Application acknowledges that YCST did not maintain an accurate time-keeping system for its attorneys' fees in several respects. Welded represents that some timekeepers utilized the wrong "task codes" for billing purposes, mislabeling certain attorney time entries as chargeable to the Adversary Proceeding, other adversary proceedings, or the bankruptcy proceeding generally. [Adv. D.I. 479, ¶ 42]. While Welded states that YCST performed a detailed review of its invoices and time entries to ensure the Application seeks only the fees associated with the Adversary Proceeding (id.), Transco's review of the invoices and time entries determined that several entries were wrongly coded, are not attributable to the Adversary Proceeding at all, and should not be Transco's responsibility to pay. Further, Welded did not segregate fees and expenses associated with parties and claims that are not subject to an award of fees under CASPA or otherwise.

39. A review of the invoices submitted by Welded as part of its Application also reveals that YCST employed 58 timekeepers to perform work on the Adversary Proceeding. It is neither necessary nor reasonable to use such a high number of attorneys and legal staff in this proceeding. And, although some senior attorneys agreed to a "rate freeze" for a portion of the litigation, YCST failed to implement the rate freeze consistently in its invoices, resulting in inappropriately high and incorrectly calculated fees.

ARGUMENT

40. Welded's Application seeks a fee and expense award in this Adversary Proceeding that is both unreasonable and contrary to CASPA. The facts and procedure of this case warrant reduction of the fees and expenses requested by Welded, and Transco requests the Court reduce the fees and expenses sought in the Application by a minimum of $5,930,121.96, as calculated in the Table of Reductions to Fees and Expenses attached as Exhibit D, and detailed in the Ewald Declaration attached as Exhibit B to this Objection and corresponding Appendices 1-30, as supported by the Expert Report of Mr. Jankowski attached as Exhibit A to this Objection.

I. Welded Cannot Recover A Significant Portion of Its Claimed Attorneys' Fees and Expenses Under CASPA.

41. Welded's attorneys' fees are over-inclusive given the statutory basis for the award and must be categorically reduced by the Court to account for the language and intent of CASPA. The Court awarded Welded attorneys' fees and expenses pursuant to Pennsylvania statute, CASPA, 73 P.S. § 512(b) (". . . the substantially prevailing party in any proceeding to recover any payment under this act shall be awarded a reasonable attorney fee . . . together with expenses."). The Court acknowledged in the Opinion that Welded's recovery under CASPA depends on the withholding of payment of invoices: "Because Welded's entitlement to [CASPA] damages depends . . . on whether Transco improperly withheld payment of invoices, I will address CASPA after I have ruled on Transco's affirmative claims." [Adv. D.I. 442, p. 35 n. 186]. The Court concluded that "as to the monthly invoices, Transco did not comply" and that "[w]hile Transco was successful on some of its arguments regarding improper charges, Welded ultimately prevailed on the primary claims at issue. An attorney fee will be awarded in an amount to be determined once a submission is made." [Adv. D.I. 442, pp. 167, 168]. Welded was therefore awarded attorneys fees' and expenses pursuant to CASPA due exclusively to Transco's withholding and Welded's pursuit of the unpaid invoices under the Contract.

42. The Superior Court of Pennsylvania has determined that a contractor who has obtained a judgment against an owner under CASPA may recover attorneys' fees and expenses incurred only to "recover any payment under this act", as the statute expressly states. See Zimmerman v. Harrisburg Fudd I, L.P., 984 A.2d 497, 505 (Pa. Super Ct. 2009). Where a Pennsylvania statute calls for an award of attorneys' fees and expenses to recover unpaid contract balances, "[t]hat means that a contractor can recover the attorneys' fees and expenses incurred to prove the [owner] had to pay the contract balance, but not those fees incurred for any other breach-of-contract claims." D.A. Nolt Inc. v. Philadelphia Mun. Auth., No. CV 18-4997, 2022 WL 2048668, at *5 (E.D. Pa. June 7, 2022) (citing James Corp. v. North Allegheny Sch. Dist., 938 A.2d 474, 490–91 (Pa. Commw. Ct. 2007) (considering an award of attorneys' fees under the language of the Pennsylvania Prompt Payment Act, which mirrors the language of CASPA); see also Apple Corps. Ltd. v. Int'l Collectors Soc., 25 F. Supp. 2d 480, 486 (D.N.J. 1998) (reducing a fee application to exclude fees and expenses associated with defending against certain motions that were ancillary to the proceeding to enforce rights under a consent order which was what entitled plaintiff to the award of attorneys' fees and expenses) (". . . neither the Consent Order nor this Court's Order . . . entitle Plaintiffs to attorneys' fees and expenses incurred in connection with defending against Defendants' motions.").

A. Fees and Expenses Related to Ancillary Claims and Parties are Not Recoverable under CASPA.

43. There were multiple Defendants and multiple claims and issues involved in the Adversary Proceeding that do not relate to the pursuit of the unpaid invoiced amounts under the Contract and the fees and expenses associated with these ancillary parties and claims should therefore be excluded from Welded's quantified award.

44. Welded initially asserted 12 counts for relief against Transco and two of Transco's separate parent entities that lacked a Contractual relationship with Welded. Of the 12 counts for relief, only 3 of those counts (25%) – Count I (Breach of contract), Count VIII (Objection to Claims 632 and 636)[4], and Count XI (CASPA) – were both related to Welded's pursuit of withheld invoice payments under the Contract, and alleged against Transco, the only Defendant responsible for any payment obligation under the Contract. The remainder of the counts for relief were 1) dismissed on Defendants' motion filed in July, 2019; 2) related to bankruptcy estate property, the automatic stay, Post-Petition reconciliation, and other unrelated theories of recovery; and/or 3) subject to jury trial separate and apart from the claims litigated between Transco and Welded.

45. In particular, as a result of Transco's Motion to Dismiss in July, 2019, the Court allowed only 3 claims to remain pending against Williams Partners and Williams Co., none of which pertained to the withholding or pursuit of invoiced amounts under the Contract. The District Court later found that the claims against Williams Partners and Williams Co. were subject to a jury trial following resolution of the claims between Welded and Transco on Defendants' Motion for Withdrawal in July, 2021.

46. Notwithstanding CASPA, the Third Circuit determined generally that where multiple defendants are involved, attorneys' fees expended on claims and defenses for non-liable defendants are only recoverable if "plaintiff can establish that such hours also were fairly devoted to the prosecution of the claim[s] against the defendant[] over whom plaintiff prevailed." Rode v. Dellarciprete, 892 F.2d 1177, 1185 (3d Cir. 1990) (affirming district court's conclusion that hours devoted to motion to dismiss two ancillary parties as defendants were "sufficiently separable from the rest of the litigation to warrant a deduction" to attorneys' fee award) (internal citations omitted); see also Watcher v. Pottsville Area Emergency Med. Serv., Inc., 559 F. Supp. 2d 516, 528–29 (M.D. Pa. 2008) (reducing application for attorneys fees for amounts associated with time spent on research, discovery, motions, correspondence, record review, and correspondence relating to separate non-chargeable defendant in same proceeding).

47. From the inception of the Adversary Proceeding until the Williams Parties were excluded from the Adversary Proceeding by Order of the District Court in July, 2021, Welded's attorneys billed time collectively to all three defendants. Welded drafted the Complaint, opposed the Motion to Dismiss, and pursued discovery for causes of action directed to the Williams Parties through July, 2021. The claims against the Williams Parties were not adjudicated in this Adversary Proceeding and the Williams Parties are not subject to CASPA liability. Welded did not account for this in its Application and therefore Welded did not "establish that such hours also were fairly devoted to the prosecution of the claim[s] against the defendant[] over whom plaintiff prevailed." Rode, 892 F.2d at 1185.

48. At a minimum, the YCST time entries that, based on timing and description, pertain directly to the Williams Parties, and not Transco, should be excluded from the fee award. For instance, the Motion for Withdrawal pertained to the Williams Parties and their right to a jury trial for the separate claims asserted against them by Welded. Transco identified YCST time entries totaling $112,308.00 that correspond to the Motion for Withdrawal, and this amount should be entirely excluded from the fee award. Ewald Decl. ¶ 12, Appendix 9.

49. Transco also identified several YCST time entries up through January, 2020 that correspond generally to "Williams litigation," do not include descriptions pertaining to Transco or the claims and defenses by and against Transco in the Adversary Proceeding, and are not otherwise distinguishable between Defendant(s) or claims, and based on the date and description can reasonably be attributable, in part, to the pursuit of claims against the Williams Parties. Transco identified YCST time entries totaling $332,237.00 that fall within this category, and this amount conservatively addresses YCST time entries up until the service of the discovery requests on the Williams Parties on January 8 and 17, 2020, as work thereafter was focused largely on Transco's discovery requests and the issues that were ultimately tried in the Adversary Proceeding. See Ewald Decl. ¶ 10, Appendix 7. This amount includes YCST time entries totaling $1,814.00 that correspond to written discovery pertaining to the Williams Parties, and not Transco, based upon the dates and descriptions associated with the time entries.

50. Additionally, Transco separately identified the YCST time entries that correspond to Welded's opposition to Defendants' Motion to Dismiss, which total $125,914.50. See Ewald Decl. ¶ 11, Appendix 8. Collectively, the YCST time entries that were expended generally on the claims and parties in the Adversary Proceeding up through January, 2020, including the Motion to Dismiss, total $458,151.50. Welded failed to meet its burden of demonstrating that it is entitled to these fees by failing to sufficiently identify the attorneys' time relating specifically to Transco and the pursuit or defense of claims associated with the payment of Welded's invoices under the Contract. Thus, these attorneys' fees should be excluded from the fee award entirely, or at a minimum reduced by 50% to account for the overlap between Transco and the Williams Parties and the claims against the Williams Parties up through the District Court's Order on the Motion for Withdrawal which excused the Williams Parties from the Adversary Proceeding in July, 2021. See Jankowski Report, p. 8.

B. Fees Associated with Ancillary Claims and Defense of Counterclaims are not Recoverable under CASPA.

51. Welded has the burden of segregating its attorneys' fees to account for the statutory mandate under CASPA that narrows recovery of attorneys' fees to only those incurred to collect on the awarded contract balance, and not the fees incurred for other breach of contract claims. The Court held that Transco was liable for attorneys' fees and expenses under CASPA because Transco wrongfully withheld payment for Welded's invoices [Adv. D.I. 442, p. 160, 167-68]. The Court acknowledged in the Opinion that Welded's recovery under CASPA depends on the withholding of payment of invoices: "Because Welded's entitlement to [CASPA] damages depends . . . on whether Transco improperly withheld payment of invoices, I will address CASPA after I have ruled on Transco's affirmative claims." [Adv. D.I. 442, p. 35 n. 186]. The Court concluded that "as to the monthly invoices, Transco did not comply." Id. Thus, the CASPA award of fees and expenses was, based on the language and intent of CASPA, was granted solely on the basis of the amounts "wrongfully withheld" from Welded's monthly Project invoices.

52. Welded did not segregate attorneys' fees incurred to pursue its unsuccessful schedule incentive/bonus claim or defend against Transco's claim for the schedule penalty due to Welded's failure to timely achieve Mechanical Completion. Welded also did not exclude attorneys' fees relating to Transco's separate breach of contract claim against Welded for pipeline defective work and failure to repair pipeline dents and coating anomalies (Count II of Transco's Counterclaim).

53. Welded retained Dennis Kakol of Contech to provide expert reports and testimony at the hearing in the Adversary Proceeding regarding the quantification of and entitlement to the schedule incentive bonus under the Contract. Kakol, similar to Transco's expert, Brian Triche, of Lighthouse Consulting, performed a schedule analysis relating to the Parties' competing claims for the schedule (dis)incentive under the Contract. Importantly, Welded never invoiced Transco for the schedule incentive, nor was this portion of the Contract subject to the standard monthly invoicing and payment procedures established by the Contract in Section VIII, or part of the base pay for Work performed under the Contract. [Adv. D.I. 428, p. 1291:6-12].[5]

[5] Aug. 29, 2023 Hearing Transcript (Sztroin, D. testifying) ("Q . . . . "Mr. Sztroin, with regard to the scheduled bonus that has been discussed in this proceeding, during the project, did Welded, and even up to the

54. Welded failed to meet its scheduled mechanical completion date, achieving the milestone 3 months late. The Court ultimately determined that Welded was not entitled to a schedule incentive under the Contract, as Welded failed to meet its burden of proof on the issue. [Adv. D.I. 442, p. 132]. The schedule incentive does not fall within the invoiced amounts wrongfully withheld according to CASPA or within the basis for the Court's ruling on entitlement to fees and expenses. Therefore, the fees and expenses associated with pursuit of or defense to the schedule penalty/bonus must be excluded from the fee award.

55. Welded retained Dr. Singh to opine on the pipeline coating and dent issues caused by Welded on the Project, and the multi-million-dollar investigation and dent remediation work performed by Transco due to Welded's defective work. Transco prevailed on its claim for the costs associated with remediating the pipeline dents resulting from Welded's deficient work on the Project [See Adv. D.I. 442, pp. 112-13]. The dent remediation and investigation work that Transco had to perform had no relationship to Welded's monthly Project invoices, was a separate breach of contract claim made by Transco against Welded and was the subject of Proof of Claim 632, which Welded objected to in the Adversary Proceeding as a separate claim for relief. The charges associated with Dr. Singh were not incurred by Welded for the purpose of pursuing its invoiced amounts under the Contract; they were incurred for an additional and separate breach of contract claim that the Court ultimately determined that Welded was not entitled to. Therefore, the fees and expenses associated with the defense of Transco's successful claim for pipeline dent remediation work must be excluded from the fee award.

submission of the final invoice in November of 2019, did Welded ever request a schedule[] bonus for the work on the project up to November of 2019 that you received? A. I don't recall that they requested that.").

56. Transco identified YCST time entries totaling $68,297.50 that, based upon the descriptions, correspond to Welded's defense against Transco's claim for compensatory damages associated with pipeline defects caused by Welded on the Project and the corresponding claim related to Transco's Proof of Claim 632. See Ewald Decl. ¶ 14, Appendix 11. Transco also identified YCST time entries totaling $80,417.50 that correspond to the retention, collaboration with, report preparation and review, deposition preparation and defense, and general work with Dr. Singh. Dr. Singh prepared an expert report and was deposed in the Adversary Proceeding but Welded did not call him to testify at trial. See Ewald Decl. ¶ 13, Appendix 10. Collectively, Transco identified $148,715.00 in attorneys' fees claimed in the Application that relate to Transco's successful claim regarding Welded's defective work/pipeline dents, and this amount should be excluded from the fee award because these fees are not recoverable under CASPA.

57. Transco identified YCST time entries totaling $63,949.50, based on the dates and descriptions for the time entries, that correspond to expert report review and analysis, deposition preparation and taking, motions for testimony exclusion, trial preparation and cross-examination, and other general defense against the expert testimony of Transco's retained expert, Brian Triche of Lighthouse Consulting. Ewald Decl. ¶ 17, Appendix 14. Transco identified YCST time entries totaling $92,784.50 that correspond to the retention, collaboration with, report preparation and review, deposition preparation and defense, trial preparation and presentation, and general work with Mr. Kakol. Ewald Decl. ¶ 15, Appendix 12. Collectively, Transco identified YCST time entries totaling $156,734.00 that relate to Welded's pursuit of or defense against the competing claims for the schedule bonus/penalty under the Contract, and other Transco counterclaims such as weld repairs and defective work, and this amount should be excluded from the fee award because these fees are not recoverable under CASPA.

58. Transco identified YCST time entries totaling $498,344.95 that relate to or involve work with Welded's retained experts, two of which, Kakol and Singh, as described, were retained for Welded's purpose of pursuing or defending against claims that are unrelated to the claims associated with Welded's collection on the Contract balance. See Ewald Decl. ¶ 16, Appendix 13. Based upon the descriptions and dates provided, these entries are too vague to clearly be attributable to any specific expert, but that pertain at least in part to the claims and defenses that are unrelated to the claims associated with Welded's collection on the Contract balance. It is indeterminable which claim these fees pertain to and thus Welded failed to meet its burden of demonstrating entitlement to these fees. Thus, these attorneys' fees should be excluded from the fee award entirely, or at a minimum reduced by 66.66% to account for the overlap between time billed relating to claims for which the CASPA fee award does not apply. See Jankowski Report, p. 10. In considering these fees, Mr. Jankowski concluded, "Given Welded's retention of 3 experts, 2 of which were retained to address claims unrelated to the withholding of invoiced amounts, and considering the total relative amounts invoiced directly by these three experts, it is my opinion that approximately 2/3 of the time entries in Appendix 13 have been improperly included in Welded's fee award request." Id.

C. Expert Fees are Not Expenses and are Not Recoverable under CASPA.

59. Welded's Application seeks fees and expenses associated with its three expert witnesses, Singh, Kakol, and Gray. However, CASPA does not authorize fee-shifting with respect to expert fees. Section 512(b) of CASPA provides that ". . . the substantially prevailing party in any proceeding to recover any payment under this act shall be awarded a reasonable attorney fee . . . together with expenses."

60. The Pennsylvania legislature did not include language for recovery of "expert fees" and while "expenses" is not expressly defined, courts have determined that expert witness fees do not fall within "expenses" in fee shifting statutes. See, e.g., Peter v. Nantkwest, Inc., 589 U.S. 23, 30, 140 S. Ct. 365, 372, 205 L. Ed. 2d 304 (2019); Hyatt v. Hirshfeld, 16 F.4th 855, 862 (Fed. Cir. 2021) (interpreting 35 U.S.C. § 145 which contains language shifting "all the expenses of the proceedings" and concluding that "the American Rule sets a high bar" for fee-shifting and therefore this language is insufficiently explicit "to override the presumption against fee shifting" for expert fees); Pavex, Inc. v. York Fed. Sav. & Loan Ass'n, 716 A.2d 640, 648 (Pa. Super. Ct. 1998) (affirming trial court's determination that expert witness fees are costs that are not recoverable without statutory authorization and denying to award them under 13 Pa.C.S.A. § 4207 because statutory language did not expressly provide for recovery of expert witness fees and they are not otherwise listed as examples of "expenses" under relevant UCC code section); Emmenegger v. Bull Moose Tube Co., 33 F. Supp. 2d 1123, 1136 (E.D. Mo. 1998) (finding that absent express mention of expert fees in statute, statute "d[id] not authorize a court to award such fees in excess of [the statute's] limits"); see also Orduno v. Pietrzak, 932 F.3d 710, 720 (8th Cir. 2019) (affirming district court's denial of reimbursement cost for forensic expert because statute "d[id] not explicitly authorize the taxation of the expert witness fees as costs").[6]

61. In 2019, in Nantkwest, the Supreme Court reiterated the longstanding rule that "the presumption against fee shifting applies to all statutes" and therefore to depart from the rule, legislative bodies must provide "a sufficiently specific and explicit indication of its intent to overcome the American Rule's presumption against fee shifting." Peter v. Nantkwest, Inc., 589 U.S. 23, 30, 140 S. Ct. 365, 372, 205 L. Ed. 2d 304 (2019). The Court in Nantkwest looked to the definition of "expenses" and concluded that the definition was too broad to specifically authorize fee shifting for attorneys' fees. Peter v. Nantkwest, Inc., 589 U.S. 23, 30–31, 140 S. Ct. 365, 372, 205 L. Ed. 2d 304 (2019). Relying on this precedent and the Supreme Court's reasoning, the Court in Hirshfeld similarly found that the definition of "expenses" does not specifically and explicitly authorize fee shifting for expert fees.

[6] For avoidance of doubt, courts have also determined conclusively that expert fees are not "attorneys' fees" under fee-shifting statutes. See, e.g., Abrams v. Lightolier Inc., 50 F.3d 1204, 1225 (3d Cir. 1995) (concluding expert fees are not attorneys' fees); Souza v. Charmed LLC, 745 F. Supp. 3d 758, 770 (N.D. Iowa 2024); Ripley v. Pappadopoulos, 23 Cal. App. 4th 1616, 1626, 28 Cal. Rptr. 2d 878, 884 (1994) ("In view of the clear distinction that has always been drawn between attorney fees and the expenses of litigation, we cannot disregard the Legislature's express prohibition against the inclusion of expert witness fees in a cost award by equating such expenses with attorney fees.").

62. Since the Pennsylvania legislature did not specifically and explicitly indicate any intent to overcome the American Rule's presumption against fee shifting of expert fees by use of the language "expenses" in CASPA, recent Supreme Court precedent dictates that Welded is not entitled to an award of expert fees pursuant to CASPA. As such, the expert fees claimed in Welded's Application, which total $919,153.86, should be rejected in full and deducted from the Court's fee award.

(6) Scott Gray, Ankura

63. The expert fees and costs that Welded seeks in the Application charged directly by expert Scott Gray total $393,845.18. [Adv. D.I. 480 p. 23, Exhibit 70]. Welded is not entitled to this amount under CASPA because the Pennsylvania legislature did not specifically authorize the recovery of expert fees. However, even if the Court were to determine that expert fees are authorized under CASPA, Welded would still only be entitled to the recovery of expert fees that were expended specifically for the purpose of pursuing or defending its invoiced amounts under the Contract, and not any other claims. See infra, Section I and I.B. Of Welded's three experts, only Scott Gray was retained for this purpose, as he provided expert reports and testimony concerning the quantification of Welded's invoiced amounts under the Contract in the Adversary Proceeding.

(7) Dennis Kakol, Contech

64. The expert fees and costs that Welded seeks in the Application charged directly by expert Dennis Kakol total $470,683.35. [Adv. D.I. 480 p. 24, Exhibit 71]. Welded is not entitled to this amount under CASPA because the Pennsylvania legislature did not specifically authorize the recovery of expert fees. However, even if the Court were to determine that expert fees are authorized under CASPA, Welded would still not be entitled to recover Kakol's expert fees and costs because these expenditures were not incurred for the purpose of pursuing or defending its invoiced amounts under the Contract, and were not within the purview of the Court's basis for award of fees and expenses.

65. As described above, Kakol's expert reports and testimony at the hearing in the Adversary Proceeding presented analysis and opinions on the quantification of and entitlement to the schedule incentive bonus under the Contract. The schedule incentive does not fall within the invoiced amounts wrongfully withheld according to CASPA or within the basis of the Court's ruling on entitlement to fees and expenses. The charges associated with Kakol were not incurred by Welded for the purpose of pursuing its invoiced amounts under the Contract, but rather, were incurred for an additional and separate breach of contract claim for a schedule incentive that the Court ultimately determined that Welded was not entitled to. Therefore, Welded is not entitled to an award of Kakol's expert fees, as these fees are not recognized by CASPA.

(8) Dr. Peter Singh, PolymaPro

66. The expert fees and costs that Welded seeks in the Application charged directly by expert Dr. Peter Singh total $54,625.33. [Adv. D.I. 480 p. 24, Exhibit 72]. Welded is not entitled to this amount under CASPA because the Pennsylvania legislature did not specifically authorize the recovery of expert fees. However, even if the Court were to determine that expert fees are authorized under CASPA, Welded would still not be entitled to recover Dr. Singh's expert fees and costs because these expenditures were not incurred for the purpose of pursuing or defending its invoiced amounts under the Contract, but rather for a separate breach of contract claim, and were not within the purview of the Court's basis for award of fees and expenses.

67. As described above, Welded retained Dr. Singh to opine on the pipeline coating and dent issues caused by Welded on the Project, and the multi-million-dollar investigation and dent remediation work performed by Transco due to Welded's defective work. Transco prevailed on its claim for the costs associated with remediating the pipeline dents resulting from Welded's deficient work on the Project. [See Adv. D.I. 442, pp. 112-13]. The dent remediation and investigation work that Transco had to perform had no relationship to Welded's monthly Project invoices, was a separate breach of contract claim made by Transco against Welded and was the subject of Proof of Claim 632, which Welded objected to in the Adversary Proceeding as a separate claim for relief. The charges associated with Dr. Singh were not incurred by Welded for the purpose of pursuing its invoiced amounts under the Contract; they were incurred for an additional and separate breach of contract claim that the Court ultimately determined that Welded was not entitled to. Therefore, Welded is not entitled to an award of Dr. Singh's expert fees, as these fees are not recognized by CASPA.

68. Additionally, Welded did not call Dr. Singh as a witness and offered no portion of his opinion testimony at trial. Fees for experts who do not testify at trial and who do not otherwise aid the court or play an important role in the resolution of the issues are not recoverable in a fee award. See Wehr v. Burroughs Corp., 477 F. Supp. 1012, 1022 (E.D. Pa. 1979), aff'd as modified, 619 F.2d 276 (3d Cir. 1980); Commonwealth of Pennsylvania v. O'Neill, 431 F.Supp. 700, 713 (E.D.Pa.1977), aff'd mem., 573 F.2d 1301 (3d Cir. 1978). As Dr. Singh offered no role in aiding the Court's resolution of the claim regarding pipeline dents on the ASR Project, and the Court held

Welded was liable for the costs associated with repair of the dents, Dr. Singh's expert fees are not "reasonable" and should be excluded from the fee award for that reason as well.

D. Consultant Fees are Not Recoverable under CASPA.

69. The consultant fees and costs that Welded seeks in the expenses portion of the Application charged directly by AlixPartners, LLP total $186,166.50. [Adv. D.I. 480 p. 26, Exhibit 80]. Welded is not entitled to this amount under CASPA because the Pennsylvania legislature did not specifically authorize the recovery of consultants' fees. Welded is not entitled to recover the fees and expenses associated with its consultant, AlixPartners, LLP, under CASPA, as Mr. Pometti was retained as Debtors' CRO before commencement of the Adversary Proceeding, and these fees and expenses were incurred due to the underlying bankruptcy proceeding for "various post-Plan Effective Date consulting and advisory services to Welded." [Adv. D.I. 480 ¶ 52], and not related to Welded's claims and defenses for recovery of its unpaid invoices under the Contract for which its fees and expenses were awarded.

70. This is apparent from the testimony at trial of AlixPartners' Mr. Frank Pometti, which pertained to the core bankruptcy proceeding and arrangement between Transco and Welded under the Commitment Letters, and the description of services as stated in AlixPartners' invoices attached to the Application at Exhibit 80. For instance, numerous service descriptions pertain to the "litigation budget" and correspondence with Chubb, "recovery waterfall" and "recovery model", and document export entries relating to Shearman & Sterling. Additionally, the invoices were addressed to the Plan Administrator. The consultant fees Welded incurred were clearly incurred in relation to the bankruptcy proceeding, were not incurred for the purpose of recovery of unpaid invoiced amounts under the Contract and are not a category of fees contemplated by CASPA. Thus, the consultant fees and the attorneys' fees relating to or resulting from AlixPartners are not recoverable.

71. Also, Mr. Pometti testified as a fact witness at trial and was not sought by Welded to be qualified as an expert witness. Fact witnesses are not compensated for their testimony and the fact of Welded's bankruptcy and need for a restructuring consultant is not an expense allowed pursuant to CASPA.

II. Welded's Attorneys' Fee Request Fails to Satisfy the Lodestar Analysis and Thus Must Be Reduced.

72. CASPA mandates, as a statutory prerequisite, that any attorneys' fees and expenses awarded must be reasonable. The Court in Zimmerman determined, "Because § 512(b) permits an award of only "a reasonable attorney fee in an amount to be determined by the court or arbitrator, together with expenses[,]" there remain safeguards against excessive attorney fee claims." Id.; see also Moravian Assocs., L.P. v. Henderson Corp., No. CIVA06CV2165, 2008 WL 3562468, at *14 (E.D. Pa. Aug. 12, 2008) (finding that under CASPA a "reasonableness" determination must be made based on relevant information provided by the parties concerning hourly rates, qualifications and experience, and reductions).

73. The party seeking attorneys' fees has the burden to prove that its request is reasonable, and must submit evidence to support the hours and billing rates it claims. Potence v. Hazleton Area School District, 357 F.3d 366, 374 (3d Cir. 2004) (citing Rode, 892 F.2d at 1183); see also Rayna P. v. Campus Cmty. Sch., 390 F. Supp. 3d 556, 564 (D. Del. 2019) (citing Blum v. Stenson, 465 U.S. 886, 895-96 n.11 (1984)) ("An attorney's showing of reasonableness must rest on evidence other than the attorney's own affidavits."). The Third Circuit has determined that "[a] prevailing party . . . is not automatically entitled to compensation for all the time its attorneys spent working the case. Interfaith Community Org. v. Honeywell, 426 F.3d 694, 711 (3d Cir. 2005); see also Moravian Assocs., L.P. v. Henderson Corp., No. 06-CV-2165, 2008 WL 4527854, at *1 (E.D.

Pa. Oct. 6, 2008) (employing this principle in determining reasonableness of attorneys' fees following award under CASPA).

74. "Federal courts [] have adopted the "lodestar" approach to calculate reasonable attorneys' fees granted pursuant to statutes."[7] McKnatt v. Delaware, 369 F. Supp. 2d 521, 524 (D. Del. 2004) (citing Brytus v. Spang & Co., 203 F.3d 238, 242 (3d Cir. 2000)). The prevailing methodology identifies the amount of time reasonably expended by counsel for the prevailing party on the litigation and multiplies that time by a reasonable hourly rate. McKnatt, 369 F. Supp. 2d at 524 (citing Brytus, 203 F.3d at 242).. This "lodestar" is presumed to be the reasonable fee to which the prevailing party is entitled; however, it may still require subsequent adjustment. Pennsylvania v. Del. Valley Citizens' Council for Clean Air, 478 U.S. 546, 564, 106 S.Ct. 3088, 92 L.Ed.2d 439 (1986); Hahnemann Univ. Hosp. v. All Shore, Inc., 514 F.3d 300, 310 (3d Cir. 2008).

75. Ultimately, it is within the court's discretion to deny a fee request (or portions thereof) when, under the circumstances of the case, the amount requested is excessive. See Clemens v. New York Central Mutual Fire Ins. Co., 903 F.3d 396, 398 (3d Cir. 2018); Connors v. Empire Off., Inc., No. CV 3:14-0913, 2016 WL 278756, at *6 (M.D. Pa. Jan. 22, 2016) (courts have discretion in determining the fees awarded). The court's role in evaluating reasonableness of attorneys' fees is "not merely a passive" one, it has a "positive and affirmative function in the fee fixing process." Loughner v. Univ. of Pittsburgh, 260 F.3d 173, 178 (3d Cir. 2001); see also In re Domus BWW Funding, LLC, 653 B.R. 745, 757 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 2023) ("In determining reasonableness, the court must closely scrutinize the request to ensure the fees do not exceed a reasonable amount."); Moravian Assocs., 2008 WL 4527854, at *1 (" . . . it is [] incumbent upon the court awarding fees to decide whether the hours set out were reasonably expended for each of the particular purposes described and then exclude those [that were not]."). A reduction of a fee request that is based on credible expert testimony is appropriate. Gross v. City of Pittsburgh, 741 A.2d 234, 240 (Pa. Cmwlth. 1999).

76. As explained below, in addition to the CASPA-required reductions of Welded's attorneys' fees and expenses, additional reductions are warranted due to: (i) attorneys' fees for unrelated matters; (ii) excessiveness; (iii) vagueness; (iv) senior attorneys performing junior attorney work; (v) administrative tasks performed by attorneys and billable staff; (vi) transient billing professionals; (vii) limited success; (viii) redundancy; and (ix) failure to apply and accurately calculate the rate freeze agreement upon which Welded relies to bolster the reasonableness of its fees and rate structure.

A. Welded's Reasonableness Argument is Flawed Due to Mathematical Errors.

77. In the Neiburg Declaration, Welded stipulates that its attorneys' hourly rates are reasonable, in part, because YCST submitted monthly and quarterly pre-Plan effective date fee requests and applications as Debtors' counsel and a final fee application for approval of fees and expenses through July 31, 2020 that were approved without objection in the main bankruptcy case. The Neiburg Declaration also supports the reasonableness of YCST rates by stipulating to a rate freeze and attesting that YCST provided a "credit" of $305,346.50 for mischarging rates after 2021 based on YCST's failure to account for the frozen rates in some instances, reducing its total claimed attorneys' fees to $10,588,011.47. [Adv. D.I. 480, Neiburg Decl. ¶¶ 13-14]. However, based upon review of the invoices and frozen rates, the "credit" was not properly calculated and instead totals $360,554.47. See Ewald Decl. ¶ 29, Appendix 28.

78. Additionally, in the Neiburg Declaration, Welded alleged that YCST worked 18,601.1 hours equating to $10,588,011.47. [Adv. D.I. 480, Neiburg Decl. ¶¶ 13-14]. The $10,588,011.47 figure was supposedly calculated after YCST deducted a credit of $305,346.50 for its failure to implement a rate freeze of 13 timekeepers' rates at their 2021 rates. [Adv. D.I. 480, Neiburg Decl. ¶¶ 13-14]. Thus, the total hours initially charged by YCST prior to the rate freeze credit was $10,893,357.97. When the time entries from YCST's invoices were placed in a spreadsheet and tallied-up, however, the hours equated to only $10,888,339.47. See Ewald Decl. ¶ 29, Appendix 28. Correcting for the mischarged rates credits and mathematical errors, the total attorneys' fees should be reduced to $10,532,803.50. Thus, as a starting point, Welded's Application overstated its attorneys' fee total by $55,207.97, and the attorneys' fee award should be adjusted to account for these miscalculations.

B. Attorneys' Fees Pertaining to Non-Adversary Proceeding Matters Should Be Excluded from Fee Award.

79. In calculating the "hours that are reasonably expended" under the lodestar equation, courts must exclude claimed hours that are not connected with the subject litigation. See, e.g., Tobin v. Gordon, 614 F. Supp. 2d 514, 526–27 (D. Del. 2009) ("Any activities that are not clearly connected with the current litigation are excludable. . . . Entries which seem to have no link to the current case are rejected."); see also In re Skyport Glob. Commc'ns, Inc., 450 B.R. 637, 651 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. 2011)[8] (excluding attorneys billing entries in fee application that were for services unrelated to prosecution of motion for which fees were awarded).

80. YCST did not maintain a separate billing task code for the Adversary Proceeding until May 2019 when it established task code B768. [Adv. D.I. 480, ¶ 19]. Prior to establishing the separate task code, YCST utilized the "Other Adversary Proceeding" task code – B011 – to code its time. [See, e.g., Adv. D.I. 480-2, pp. 12-15]. Even after establishing this separate task code, however, Mr. Neiburg admits in his Declaration that:

> Despite best attempts to limit time entries applicable to the Adversary Proceeding to task code B768, from time to time, some timekeepers utilized the general "Other Adversary Proceeding" task code of B011 (or other task code entries) to record time which should have been recorded under task code B768.

[Adv. D.I. 480, ¶ 20]. Consequently, by Welded's own admission, YCST timekeepers utilized the wrong "task codes" for billing purposes, mislabeling certain attorney time entries as chargeable to the Adversary Proceeding, other adversary proceedings, or the core Bankruptcy Case generally. [Adv. D.I. 479, ¶ 42].

81. Based on Transco's review of YCST's attorneys' fees, it identified five overall categories of time entries that were improperly billed to this Adversary Proceeding and which should be excluded from the fee award.

(1) Time Pertaining to Other Adversary Proceedings and Bankruptcy Case.

82. YCST billed time to the "Other Adversary Proceeding" task code "B011" and the "Williams Litigation" task code "B768" for which it seeks recovery in the Application, but the time descriptions that it asks the Court to approve clearly relate to other adversary proceedings or litigation that are not related to the instant case. An example of this type of billing error is[9]:

06/11/19	EEDWA	Teleconference with K. O'Reilly re: Prime NTD litigation issues (.4); email to J. Moan re: initial disclosures for Prime NTD litigation (.3) and emails with S. Hawkins and K. O'Reilly re: same (.2)	B768	0.90	589.50

[9] Application, Ex. 7.

83. Before and during the pendency of this Adversary Proceeding, Welded was a party to 103 other adversary proceedings, or other civil litigation filed after the Petition Date. Welded commenced 38 separate adversary proceedings on October 20, 2022. Transco identified several YCST time entries that are unrelated to the Adversary Proceeding, and based upon the descriptions and dates provided, are related to fees associated with other Debtor adversary proceedings or civil actions. Transco identified a total of 48.1 hours worth $18,550.00 in YCST time entries that, based on the descriptions and dates, pertain to other unrelated adversary proceedings or litigation that Welded included in its Application. Ewald Decl. ¶ 5, Appendix 2.

84. Importantly, a few of these time entries contain descriptions that state "Williams" and/or are otherwise coded to task code "B768", but based on the timing of events of the Adversary Proceeding, these time entries cannot accurately be attributed to the Adversary Proceeding. For instance, there are several time entries from June 17, 2019 through June 26, 2019 from attorney Feldman coded to B768 that reference a "reply brief" and "Williams adversary." See Ewald Decl., Appendix 2. As an example:

06/21/19	BFELD	Research re: reply brief in Williams adversary	B768	0.70	238.00

85. At this point in the Adversary Proceeding, Welded had just filed its Complaint, and Defendants did not file a responsive pleading, the Motion to Dismiss, until July 3, 2019. There was simply no reply brief to be researched or drafted in the Adversary Proceeding in June, 2019. There are other similar entries that fall within this category and are listed in Appendix 2 to the Ewald Declaration. For example, attorney Guerke was doing discovery-related tasks in June and July, 2019 all before Defendants had even filed a responsive pleading in the Adversary Proceeding:

06/21/19	KGUER	Reviewed privilege issue	B768	0.50	362.50

06/24/19	KGUER	Reviewed research re: privilege and work product issues	B768	1.50	1,087.50

06/25/19	KGUER	Multiple email communications with litigation team re: response to Complaint and Counter issues	B768	0.20	145.00

07/02/19	KGUER	Research expert issue	B768	0.40	290.00

07/02/19	KGUER	Email communications with T. Buchanan re: experts	B768	0.10	72.50
07/02/19	KGUER	Multiple email communications with client re: document requests	B768	0.20	145.00

86. This time should be deducted in its entirety from the fee award, as it appears that these entries were misbilled or incorrectly attributed to the Adversary Proceeding. In total, there were 48.1 hours worth $18,550.00 in attorney's fees that Welded seeks to recover in the Application that are unjustified because the time and descriptions do not match the status of the Adversary Proceeding that was ongoing at the time the entries were recorded, or clearly relate to other litigation or adversary proceedings.

87. Similarly, YCST billed time to the "Other Adversary Proceeding" task code "B011" and the "Williams Litigation" task code "B768" that it claims is attributable to this Adversary Proceeding, but the time descriptions clearly relate to the Bankruptcy Case itself and not this Adversary Proceeding. Some examples of these types of billing errors are[10]:

07/24/19	JMULV	Revise Plan and correspondence with B. Feldman re: same	B768	1.30	598.00

03/27/20	MNEIB	Call with A. Mielke and M. Collins re: surety claim issues	B768	0.30	202.50

06/08/20	KGUER	Emails with YCST re: plan administer	B768	0.10	77.50

[10] Application, Ex. 8, 16, 19.

88. In total, there were 36.4 hours equaling $21,265.50 claimed in the Application that were clearly attributable to other litigation or the main Bankruptcy Case and not this Adversary Proceeding. This time should be deducted in its entirety from the fee award.

(2) Non-Specific Entries Billed to "Other Adversary Proceeding" Task Code.

89. YCST billed time to the "Other Adversary Proceeding" task code "B011" that it asserts is attributable to this Adversary Proceeding, but the time entries are too vague and general to conclude that they pertain to this Adversary Proceeding. This is particularly apparent in the earlier billing periods (pre-May 2019) where YCST references issues involving drafting pleadings, responding to discovery, or dealing with issues that had not and could not have arisen in this Adversary Proceeding because it had not yet been filed.

90. In contrast, by the time Welded commenced this Adversary Proceeding it had already: (a) filed two other adversary proceedings: Welded Construction, L.P. and Sunoco Marketing Partners & Terminals L.P., Bankr. D. Del. Case No. 1:2018ap50928, filed on October 24, 2018 and Welded Construction, L.P. and Prime NDT Services, Inc., Bankr. D. Del. Case No. 1:2019ap50180, filed on March 27, 2019; and (b) been named a defendant in another federal matter, Brunner v. Welded Construction, LP, M.D. Pa. Case No. 1:2018cv02410, filed on December 20, 2018. See Exhibit C.

91. For example, on February 11, 2019, Michael Neiburg billed a 0.30 "Emails with T. Buchanan re: draft complaint" to "B011". [Adv. D.I. 480, Ex. 3 [Adv. D.I. 480-2, p. 40]. This Adversary Proceeding was not filed until May 3, 2019, but Welded's adversary proceeding against Prime NTD was filed on March 27, 2019. See Bankr. D. Del. Case No. 1:2019-ap-50180. Further, YCST's unredacted invoices submitted as part of its Fourth Interim Fee Application[11] in the Bankruptcy Case reveal that YCST was working on the Prime NDT complaint and other litigation matters beyond this Adversary Proceeding. [Bankr. D.I. 566-2, pp. 105-117].

92. Other examples of generic litigation time billed under task code "B011" are[12]:

09/07/21	REAST	Email correspondence with YCST Team re: weekly meeting and case updates	B011	0.20	90.00

01/20/23	REAST	Email correspondence with YCST Team re: legal research for motion to dismiss	B011	0.80	448.00

93. In total, there were 232.6 hours equaling $116,354.00 in YCST time that Welded seeks from Transco in its Application that were billed to the "Other Adversary Proceeding" task code B011, but which do not specifically address this Adversary Proceeding, and as described could just as likely be related to one of the dozen of other pending litigation involving Welded. And, because these entries were coded to B011, there is a presumption that these entries do not relate to this Adversary Proceeding, or at least could pertain to any other adversary proceeding or litigation Welded was involved in at the time. This time should be deducted in its entirety from the award as Welded failed to meet its burden of demonstrating entitlement to these fees.

(3) Time Expended on Litigation Funding.

94. In the Application, Transco identified YCST time entries totaling $24,446.50 that relate to Debtors' funding arrangements, budgeting, and payment for legal services, based on the dates and descriptions of the time entries. Ewald Decl. ¶ 7, Appendix 4.

[11] It is unclear why YCST submitted redacted invoices to Defendants as part of the Application that YCST previously filed as a matter of public record in full, unredacted form as part of their interim fee applications submitted to the Court.

[12] Application, Ex. 34, 50.

95. As an example, attorney Mielke billed time for correspondence regarding the litigation funding agreement and invoices in August, 2019[13]:

08/13/19	AMIEL	Emails with M. Collins re: litigation funding agreement	B768	0.10	41.50
08/13/19	AMIEL	Emails with A. Ralph re: invoices for professional fee reimbursement	B768	0.10	41.50

96. And in January, 2020, attorneys Mielke, Neiburg, and Beach billed time for budget review and requests for payment through the litigation funding agreement with Federal[14]:

Date	Initials	Description	Task	Hours	Amount
01/07/20	AMIEL	Emails with S. Cherian re: request for payment of professional expenses (0.1); confer with M. Neiburg and S. Beach re: same (0.1); review actuals budget and send to M. Neiburg and S. Beach for review (0.1)	B768	0.30	147.00
01/07/20	MNEIB	Emails and confer with A. Mielke re: litigation budget and summary	B768	0.20	135.00

97. Welded is not entitled to the fees associated with paying its bills or litigation budget, as these time entries are ancillary financial matters, related to its funding status as a product of the bankruptcy case, and unrelated to Welded's pursuit of claims and defenses corresponding to an award of fees under CASPA.

(4) Time Expended on Counseling for Active Project Work.

98. In the invoices attached to the Application, Transco identified YCST time entries totaling $6,586.00 that relate to legal consultation on ongoing active "Project" work based on the dates and descriptions of the time entries. Ewald Decl. ¶ 27, Appendix 26. These time entries pertain to invoicing under the Commitment Letters and related issues resulting from the ongoing work on the ASR Project by both Transco and Welded, occurring after Welded filed its Petition and up through commencement of the Adversary Proceeding in 2019.

[13] Application, Ex. 9.

[14] Application, Ex. 14.

99. For example, in April, 2019, before Welded filed its Complaint, attorney Neiburg recorded time reviewing the Commitment Letters and corresponding regarding Welded's demand letter for fees associated with its Post-Petition work[15]:

04/18/19	MNEIB	Emails with F. Pometti, A. Ralph, and T. Buchanan re: Transco demand letter	B011	0.30	180.00
04/18/19	MNEIB	Review Transco demand letter (.2); emails with S. Beach, T. Buchanan and B. Feldman re: same (.3)	B011	0.50	300.00

100. Welded is not entitled to the fees associated with legal consultation for ongoing "Project" Post-Petition work, as these time entries are unrelated to Welded's pursuit of claims and defenses corresponding to an award of fees under CASPA, and pertain to issues arising after Welded filed its Complaint.

(5) Time Expended on Extraneous Pennsylvania Litigation.

101. YCST billed over 30 hours totaling $19,315.00 related to investigating, traveling to, and attending hearings and proceedings related to Pennsylvania state court litigation involving Transco, but that was not part of the Adversary Proceeding. See Ewald Decl. ¶ 26, Appendix 25. For example, in June, 2019, attorney Neiburg billed time to the Adversary Proceeding for travel to/from Pennsylvania to attend arguments in state court relating to another litigation (G.A. West) in which Welded was not a party to[16]:

[15] Application, Ex. 5.

[16] Application, Ex. 7.

06/04/19	MNEIB	Travel to/from Wilkes-Barre PA to attend state court trial against Transco (2.5 working and 2.5 non-working travel); attend pre-trial arguments in state court action against Transco (2.0)	B768	7.00	4,200.00

102. This time should be deducted in its entirety from Welded's Fee Application because the time does not relate to the Adversary Proceeding nor were these fees incurred for pursuing payment for invoiced amounts under CASPA.

C. Excessive, Redundant, and Unnecessary Attorneys' Fee Entries Should Be Excluded.

103. As detailed in the Exhibits attached to this Objection, Welded's Application includes categories of fees that are excessive, redundant, and unnecessary and these categories of fees should be excluded from the fee award determined by the Court. In calculating the "hours that are reasonably expended" under the lodestar equation, the Third Circuit, relying on the Supreme Court, has determined that "[h]ours are not reasonably expended if they are excessive, redundant, or otherwise unnecessary." Rode,, 892 F.2d at 1183 (3d Cir. 1990) ("The district court should exclude hours that are not reasonably expended. Hours are not reasonably expended if they are excessive, redundant, or otherwise unnecessary.") (internal citation omitted); Interfaith Cmty. Org. v. Honeywell Int'l, Inc., 426 F.3d 694, 711 (3d Cir. 2005); Maldonado v. Houstoun, 256 F.3d 181, 184 (3d Cir. 2001) ("In calculating the hours reasonably expended, a court should 'review the time charged, decide whether the hours set out were reasonably expended for each of the particular purposes described and then exclude those that are excessive, redundant, or otherwise unnecessary.'").

104. To arrive at a reasonable number of hours, courts must deduct any excessive, redundant, or otherwise unnecessary hours billed, and may do so by undertaking an hour-by-hour analysis or by reducing the requested hours with an "across-the-board cut." Rath v. Vita Sanotec,

Inc., No. CV 17-953 (MN), 2020 WL 5877597, at *4 (D. Del. Oct. 2, 2020) (citing Am. Bd. Internal Med. v. Von Muller, 540 F. App'x 103, 107 (3d Cir. 2013)).

(1) Excessive Time Entries

105. In assessing the reasonableness of hours expended for a fee award, courts must disallow compensation for tasks on which the billing attorneys spent excessive time. See, e.g., In re Osborne, 375 B.R. 216, 229 (Bankr. M.D. La. 2007) (reducing the number of hours an attorney claimed he invested in the litigation due to the excessive time he spent on certain tasks, including preparing for status conferences, bankruptcy court appearances, and oral arguments in the Fifth Circuit). "[H]ours are excessive if they represent more time than is reasonably necessary to complete the task." See Rode, 892 F.2d at 1192.

106. Welded's Application and attached invoices demonstrate that Welded's attorneys spent more time than was reasonably necessary to complete various tasks relating to the Adversary Proceeding. Young Conaway employed 58 timekeepers to perform work on the Adversary Proceeding. While the dispute between Transco and Welded involved some factual and legal complexities, it is neither necessary nor reasonable to employ such a high number of attorneys and legal staff in this proceeding. See Jankowski Report, p. 10. Mr. Jankowski noted that the number of timekeepers was not due to any change in lead counsel or core legal team, and concluded "it is neither necessary nor reasonable to employ such a significant number of attorneys and billable staff to this construction case." Id.

107. For instance, Transco identified several YCST time entries that correspond to vague and general "litigation strategy" and "case strategy" and "open issues" and "litigation position" analysis without further description or support. These time entries total $317,471.50. Ewald Decl.¶ 9, Appendix 6. These billing entries are vague and nondescript, and constitute an excessive amount of time for generalized litigation work, making the associated fees unreasonable. This category of billing entries should be excluded from the fee award, or, at a minimum, reduced by 50% for a total of no more than $158,735.75. See Jankowski Report, p. 11.

108. As another example, 12 of YCST's timekeepers spent 290 hours for a total of $177,935.50 preparing and submitting the joint pre-trial order and Welded's pre-trial brief for the Adversary Proceeding. Ewald Decl. ¶ 22, Appendix 19. The number of hours and attorneys clocked for these tasks is excessive and unreasonable, and this category of billing entries should be reduced by at least 50% to represent a more reasonable and appropriate amount of time and expense for this task. See Jankowski Report, pp. 11-12. As yet another example, 11 of YCST's timekeepers spent 897.60 hours to prepare Welded's 60-page post-trial brief for the Adversary Proceeding, for a total of $509,630.00. Ewald Decl. ¶ 22, Appendix 20. The number of hours and attorneys billed for the post-trial brief ($8,494 per page) is excessive and unreasonable, and this category of billing entries should be reduced by at least 50% to represent a more reasonable and appropriate amount of time and expense for this task. See Jankowski Report, pp. 11-12. Mr. Jankowski noted, "If we assume the average hourly rate for Young staff and lawyers working on the brief was $500 then Young spent over 1,000 hours putting together the brief. This equates to over 25 work weeks (40 hours per week) to assemble and file the Post Trial Brief in this matter. In my experience, this is an excessive amount of time, especially considering a Pre Trial Brief was also submitted." Id. at p. 11.

109. YCST's time entries also reflect 328.70 hours and $216,626.50 corresponding to the mediation held between the Parties in 2022. Ewald Decl. ¶ 22, Appendix 21. The one-day mediation occurred on September 26, 2022, and the dispute was not resolved at that time. The number of hours billed for a one-day mediation is excessive and unreasonable, even with the submission of a mediation statement, and this category of entries should be reduced by at least 50%. See Jankowski Report, p. 12.

110. The YCST time entries pertaining to Welded's prehearing brief and the joint pretrial order, mediation, and post-hearing brief total $904,192.00. Given the excessive and unreasonable time spent on these tasks, this amount of fees should be reduced by $452,096.00 in the fee award.

(2) Redundant Time Entries

111. In assessing the reasonableness of hours expended for a fee award, courts must disallow compensation for redundant, or duplicative, services. See In re Manley Toys Ltd., Case No. 16-15374 (JNP), 2018 WL 3213710, at *5 (Bankr. D. N.J. June 21, 2018) (citation omitted); In re Peter J. Schmitt Co., Inc., 154 B.R. 632, 637 (Bankr. D. Del. 1993). A reduction for duplication is warranted when a single attorney bills twice for the same work, or where multiple attorneys are performing the same work. See, e.g., Damian J. v. Sch. Dist. of Phila., 2008 WL 1815302 at *4 (E.D. Pa. Apr. 22, 2008) (quoting Rode, 892 F.2d at 1187); Rayna P. v. Campus Cmty. Sch., 390 F. Supp. 3d 556, 563 (D. Del. 2019); In re Saunders, 124 B.R. 234, 236–37 (Bankr.W.D.Tex.1991) (decreasing a fee award for duplicative billing where two attorneys involved in case billed their clients for substantial number of conferences attended by both attorneys); In re Skyport Glob. Commc'ns, Inc., 450 B.R. 637, 649 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. 2011) (excluding entries for duplicate billings for interoffice or client conferences, overlapping tasks, and excessive time bringing attorneys up to speed on work begun by another from consideration of the "hours reasonably expended" because the entries were redundant); Perdue v. City Univ. of New York, 13 F. Supp. 2d 326, 346 (E.D.N.Y. 1998) (reducing the final lodestar by 20% to account for redundancy in billed hours).

112. In particular, courts have found that attendance by multiple attorneys who do not meaningfully contribute at hearings, depositions, and similar proceedings is "wasteful" and therefore unreasonable under the lodestar standard. See Apple Corps. Ltd. v. Int'l Collectors Soc., 25 F. Supp. 2d 480, 489 (D.N.J. 1998) ("…the attendance of additional counsel representing the same interests as the attorney actually participating in a hearing is wasteful and should not be included in a request for counsel fees from an adversary.'") (citing Halderman, 49 F.3d at 943); Schofield v. Trustees of the Univ. of Penn., 919 F.Supp. 821, 829 (E.D. Pa. 1996) (finding there is no need for even two attorneys to attend court proceedings such as a hearing if only one attorney is participating in the proceeding and reducing a fee award accordingly); Student Public Interest Research Group of New Jersey v. Monsanto Co., 721 F.Supp. 604, 611–12 (D.N.J.) (finding that plaintiff did not require two attorneys to conduct depositions and to conduct the trial), modified on other grounds, 727 F.Supp. 876 (D.N.J.), aff'd, 891 F.2d 283 (3d Cir. 1989).[17]

113. Courts have also determined that too many attorneys billing small increments of time produces inefficiency due to the "learning curve" and therefore entries billed by "transitory timekeepers" should be excluded from a fee award. See, e.g., Planned Parenthood of Cent. N.J. v. Att'y Gen., 297 F.3d 253, 271 (3rd Cir. 2002); In re Quigley Co., 500 B.R. 347, 362 (Bankr. S.D. N.Y. 2013 ("The primary concern with too many attorneys billing too little time is the learning curve"); In re Cahill, 428 F.3d 536, 542 (5th Cir. 2005) (affirming the bankruptcy court's factual finding of duplication of effort, and corresponding reduction of hours, where attorneys had worked on overlapping portions of case and billed hours for bringing each other up to speed on work begun by the other); Puccio v. Love, No. 16-CV-02890 W (BGS), 2020 WL 434481, at *3 (S.D. Cal. Jan. 28, 2020) (…"learning curve" time that prevailing party spends coming up to speed on an area of law it is unfamiliar with, is not recoverable as part of attorneys' fee award."); see also Appendix

[17] Overruled on other grounds by Public Interest Research Group of New Jersey, Inc. v. Windall, 51 F.3d 1179 (3d Cir. 1995).

B Guidelines for Reviewing Applications for Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses Filed Under United States Code by Attorneys in Larger Chapter 11 Cases, 78 Fed. Ref. 36248-02, 2013 WL 2902995 (June 17, 2013).[18]

114. In its Application, Welded seeks an award of fees that contain duplicative and redundant time entries arising from multiple attorneys attending depositions, conferences, meetings, and hearings in the Adversary Proceeding. Several YCST time entries demonstrate that multiple non-participatory attorneys attended depositions, arguments, conferences and meetings, and the trial of the Adversary Proceeding, totaling 192.80 hours and $106,156.50. Ewald Decl. ¶ 23, Appendix 22.

115. Attorneys Neiburg and Guerke were the only two YCST attorneys who addressed the Court and witnesses at the trial. Attorney Buchanan attended trial every day and read certain deposition designations into the record, but did not otherwise address the Court or witnesses. Attorney Lambe was the principal associate on the matter according to YCST invoices and also attended trial every day, but did not address the Court or witnesses. In addition, attorneys Beach, Fortunato, and Eastes attended the trial for all or a portion of the two week trial, but did not address the Court or witnesses. This is an excessive number of attorneys attending the trial in the Adversary Proceeding, especially considering Welded retained a third-party vendor, Prevail, to provide technical support to Welded during the trial including exhibit and other evidence presentation. See Application, Neiburg Decl. ¶ 49. Of the 192.80 hours Transco identified, 123.60

[18] The Guidelines state, "The Guidelines are intended to elicit information that will aid the United States Trustee, the parties, and the court in determining whether the fees and expenses sought in a fee application are reasonable and necessary as required by section 330 of the Code. . . . Transitory professionals: Whether any of the applicant's professionals billed only a few hours to the matter with insufficient evidence of benefit to the estate. The United States Trustee may object if the applicant fails to justify the necessity or benefit of these professionals' services."

hours and $64,801.50 correspond to trial attendance by Beach, Fortunato, and Eastes. See Ewald Decl. ¶ 23, Appendix 22.

116. In its Application, Welded seeks an award of fees that contain duplicative and redundant time entries arising from transitory attorneys who spent insufficient time on the Adversary Proceeding to be efficient. Transco identified 30 YCST timekeepers who billed less than 100 total hours to the Adversary Proceeding. See Ewald Decl. ¶ 28, Appendix 27. This represents less than 1% of the hours claimed in the Welded Fee Application for transient timekeepers who did not perform significant work on the file and includes partners, associates, law clerks, summer associates, and paralegals who undeniably experienced a "learning curve." The YCST time entries by YCST timekeepers who had minimal and transient involvement with the Adversary Proceeding (less than 100 hours) total $292,415.00 and Welded should not be entitled to this amount. See Jankowski Report, p. 13.

117. Welded's fee award should therefore be reduced by at least $106,156.50 due to excessive and unreasonable non-participatory attorney attendance at hearings, depositions, and meetings, and at least $292,415.00 for time spent by attorneys billing less than 100 hours to the Adversary Proceeding, for a total of $398,571.50 as these fees were incurred for duplicative, redundant, and inefficient time spent.

(3) Unnecessary Time Entries

118. In assessing the reasonableness of hours sought under a fee award, courts must disallow compensation for time spent on unsuccessful motions, discovery, evidentiary disputes, and other unnecessary tasks during the litigation. See, e.g., Benson v. City of Lincoln, 774 F. Supp. 3d. 1046, 1069 (D. Neb. 2024) (finding time spent on motions in limine with little chance of success was unnecessary and not reasonably expended).

119. Time expended on clerical or administrative tasks by attorneys or paralegals should also be excluded from a fee award as unreasonable. See, e.g., Halderman v. Pennhurst State School & Hosp., 49 F.3d 939, 942 (3d Cir. 1995) (quoting Ursic v. Bethlehem Mines, 719 F.2d 670, 677 (3d Cir. 1983)); Tenafly Eruv Ass'n, Inc. v. Borough of Tenafly, 195 Fed. Appx. 93, 101 (3d Cir. 2006) (reducing by two-thirds the time charged by attorney for administrative tasks and expressing concern about approving fees 'when a lawyer spends time on tasks that are easily delegable to non-professional assistance'); Berne Corp. v. Gov't of Virgin Islands, 2012 WL 369535, at * 12 (reducing time entries reflecting performance of administrative work "which should have been properly delegated and not billed at the attorneys' high hourly rates" that plaintiffs included in fee petition); Orson, Inc. v. Miramax Film, Corp., 14 F. Supp. 2d 721, 725 (E.D. Pa. 1998) (reducing lodestar/fee award to account for clerical tasks performed by attorneys).

120. Similarly, time expended by senior attorneys for work more appropriately performed by associates or paralegals should also be excluded from a fee award as unreasonable. See, e.g., Ursic, 719 F.2d at 677; Apple Corps. Ltd. v. Int'l Collectors Soc., 25 F. Supp. 2d 480, 490 (D.N.J. 1998) (reducing fee award for attorney research where the "attorneys [we]re all too senior and overpriced for the task of legal research.") Carpenter Tech. Corp. v. Armco, Inc., 808 F.Supp. 408, 412 (E.D.Pa.1992), aff'd, 993 F.2d 876 (3d Cir. 1993) (". . . routine work [such as legal research] can and should be directed to low level attorneys.")

121. Several YCST time entries totaling 44.9 hours and $21,035.00 that correspond to administrative work performed by attorneys, including file and document management, and other tasks typically performed by non-billable support staff. Ewald Decl. ¶ 8, Appendix 5. In particular, the Application includes several time entries by Welded's attorneys relating to emails with court reporters and reviewing related invoices, deposition technical training, and vendor logistics[19]:

Date	Initials	Description	Task	Hours	Amount
12/02/20	KGUER	Meeting with discovery vendor re: deposition prep	B768	0.50	387.50
12/19/20	KGUER	Emails with court reporter	B768	0.10	77.50
05/07/20	EEDWA	Second level review (5.2); analyze invoice ESI options (.4); telephone to M. Neiburg re: same (.4); emails with DLS re: additional statistics (.3)	B768	6.30	4,504.50
04/14/21	LFORT	Call with M. Neiburg and J. Krzysztofik re: DLS invoices (.3); emails with M. Neiburg re: DLS users (.1); emails with DLS re: users (.1)	B768	0.50	287.50

122. YCST also seeks to recover time entries totaling $299,284.50 and 412.9 hours from senior partners for performing tasks such as legal research, document review, and drafting of basic pleadings and memorandums. Ewald Decl. ¶ 25, Appendix 24. The number of hours billed by senior partners for performing basic legal research and writing is excessive and unreasonable.

123. In total, YCST time entries totaling $320,319.50 relate to clerical or administrative tasks by Welded's attorneys and billable time spent by senior attorneys on tasks suitable for associates, law clerks, and paralegals. These time entries are unreasonable and at least 75% of this amount, or $240,239.63 should be excluded from the fee award accordingly. See Jankowski Report, pp. 14-15.

124. During the Adversary Proceeding, Welded filed numerous unnecessary motions and initiated or caused unnecessary discovery disputes that yielded excessive and unreasonable attorneys' fees for which Welded should not be awarded. Transco identified the YCST time entries associated with the following items that fall within this category of disputed fees: 1) Welded's first Motion for Partial Summary Judgment on CASPA; 2) Welded's Motion to Quash the Deposition of Scott Schoenherr; 3) Welded's opposition to Transco's Motion to Compel Production of a Corporate Representative; and 4) the Sanctions Motion. Importantly, the YCST fees associated with these items should also be excluded from Welded's fee award because Welded was unsuccessful on all aspects of these matters. See, e.g., Stimson Lumber Co. v. United States, 154 Fed. Cl. 694, 708 (2021) (reducing fee award to account for unsuccessful summary judgment motion).

125. On October 28, 2019, Welded filed a Motion for Partial Summary Judgment before the filing of any responsive pleadings, initial disclosures, and any discovery requests [Adv. D.I. 50-55] seeking a declaration from the Court that CASPA governs the contract, an award of interest, penalty interest, and attorneys' fees under CASPA, and a declaration regarding other contractual issues. Welded's Motion for Partial Summary Judgment was denied in full [See Adv. D.I. 120, 121], and rightfully so, because this Motion was premature and frivolous given the presence of the Oklahoma choice-of-law provision in the Contract and the lack of discovery and evidence to make a choice of law determination at that time. Indeed, even after discovery was completed, Welded filed another Motion for Summary Judgment on the same grounds in 2023, shortly before trial, and the Motion was denied because there was still insufficient evidence for the Court to make a ruling on summary judgment.

126. On January 29, 2021, Welded filed an Emergency Motion to Quash the Notice of Deposition served by Transco in an effort to exercise its right to depose an essential fact witness, Scott Schoenherr. [See Adv. D.I. 214, 216, 217, 219, 220, 221]. Welded was aware of Transco's intent to depose Schoenherr, a former Welded employee and general superintendent on the ASR

Project, well before the notice was served, as Welded provided Schoenherr's last known address to Transco upon request without objection. Welded further tried to prevent the deposition from proceeding by filing a response in opposition to Defendants' Emergency Motion for Authority to Proceed with Deposition of Scott Schoenherr on February 5, 2021 [Adv. D.I. 228]. Ultimately, the Court entered an order granting Defendants' Emergency Motion for Authority to Proceed with Mr. Schoenherr's deposition [Adv. D.I. 242], as there was no reasonable basis of objection to the deposition. Welded's tactics were unnecessary, caused delay to the discovery process, and its motion and opposition ultimately unsuccessful.

127. During discovery, Welded refused to produce a corporate representative to testify regarding the topics of "allegations and defenses asserted by Welded in its Complaint and Answer in the Adversary Proceeding" and the basis for the calculation and invoicing of the Equipment Fee under the Contract, forcing Transco to file a Motion to Compel on January 27, 2021[20] [See Adv. D.I. 209, pp. 8-9]. These topics were instrumental to the dispute, and Welded had no reasonable basis to refuse to provide a corporate representative to give deposition testimony integral to the Parties' claims and defenses.

128. Welded and Transco disputed the production of certain documents from OGCS, which Transco maintained were privileged and redacted accordingly. Following the Court's order on September 9, 2020 [Adv. D.I. 155] wherein the Court ordered Transco to produce certain OGCS documents, Transco had concerns regarding the scope of the order and exercised its procedural rights to seek clarification [Adv. D.I. 159, 226], and seek interlocutory appeal of the Court's decision [Adv. D.I. 243, 244, 247]. Transco promptly complied with the Court's orders and produced the OGCS documents. Notwithstanding, on August 27, 2021, Welded filed the Sanctions Motion against Transco.

129. The Court issued a Memorandum Order determining that the OGCS documents with redactions must be produced to Welded without the redactions, but that "Defendants were substantially justified in withholding these documents." [Adv. D.I. 276 ¶ 19]. The Court also stated, "the Court notes that the parties have been engaged in contentious motion practice with respect to production of the Audit documents for almost two years. It is clear that the parties and counsel have had legitimate differing views and opinions on the discoverability of these documents for quite some time." [Adv. D.I. 276 ¶ 20] (emphasis added). The Court further stated, "[g]iven the level of protection generally afforded to work product, it is reasonable that Defendants believed they needed to produce all documents with unredacted information only as to the direct Audit and its findings, as opposed to all information (and the implications of that information) that they may have received as part of the auditing process, and which may be work product "related to" the Audit." [Adv. D.I. 276 ¶ 23]. The Court concluded that it would not sanction Defendants, and that Welded's Sanctions Motion was therefore denied. [Adv. D.I. 276 ¶ 24].

130. As recognized by the Court, Transco acted reasonably in its attempts to safeguard documents and portions thereof that it believed were privileged. Welded should not be permitted to recover the fees associated with the unsuccessful Sanctions Motion, as it was unnecessary given the Parties' legitimate differing views. And ultimately, only three of the OGCS documents produced in the Adversary Proceeding were introduced as evidence at trial.

131. Collectively, YCST time entries totaling $140,835.50 correspond to Welded's premature October 28, 2019 Motion for Partial Summary Judgment on CASPA; YCST time entries totaling $15,803.00 correspond to Welded's obstruction of the deposition of Scott Schoenherr;

YCST time entries totaling $60,172.50 correspond to the unnecessary Sanctions Motion; and YCST time entries totaling $52,847.00 correspond to Welded's refusal to produce a corporate representative to be deposed on basic and essential discovery topics. Ewald Decl. ¶¶ 18-21, Appendices 15-18. Welded's fee award should exclude the fees associated with these unnecessary and unsuccessful matters, which combined total $269,658.00. Or, at a minimum, the fee award should exclude the fees associated with the Motion for Partial Summary Judgment on CASPA and the obstruction of the deposition of Scott Schoenherr in full ($156,638.50), and at least 50% of the fees associated with the Sanctions Motion and the Motion to Compel Welded's Corporate Representative ($56,509.75) to account for the overlap with disputed document production, for a total of $213,148.25.

D. Attorneys' Fees that Lack Adequate Detail Should be Excluded.

132. Many time entries in the Application do not satisfy Welded's burden of proving the fees were reasonably incurred because they are vague and lack detail necessary to determine if the time was reasonably expended or related to the Adversary Proceeding, and therefore should be excluded from the lodestar calculation.

133. Courts deduct charges from a fee application that are vague and inadequately documented, as the presentation of billable hours should include sufficient detail to permit the court to determine how the timekeeper expended the hours that it charged and whether the hours claimed were reasonable. See, e.g., Tenafly Eruv Ass'n, Inc. v. Borough of Tenafly, 195 Fed. Appx. 93, 100-01 (3d Cir. 2006) (reducing hours for entries not sufficiently precise to determine work performed, such as general "conference call" and "e-mails"); Washington v. Phila. Cty. Ct. Com. Pleas, 89 F.3d 1031, 1037 (3d Cir. 1996); Thompson v. Florida Wood Treaters, Inc., 2012 WL 5374175 (D. V.I. Nov. 1, 2012) (holding that "[e]ntries that fail to provide information about the subject of the action taken by an attorney will be excluded" from fee petition); In re ALH Holdings

LLC, 2010 WL 520632, at *2; In re Domus BWW Funding, LLC, 653 B.R. 745, 757 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 2023); Watcher v. Pottsville Area Emergency Med. Serv., Inc., 559 F. Supp. 2d 516, 523 (M.D. Pa. 2008) ("To meet her initial burden of proving that requested fees are reasonable, Plaintiff must submit evidence of the hours worked that is specific enough to allow the district court to determine if the hours claimed are unreasonable for the work performed."); Apple Corps. Ltd. v. Int'l Collectors Soc., 25 F. Supp. 2d 480, 487 (D.N.J. 1998) (disallowing billing entries that lacked the specificity necessary for court to determine whether hours were expended in connection with ancillary motion for which fees were not awarded); In re Skyport., 450 B.R. 637 at 631 (stating that "vague, incomplete, or otherwise indecipherable time entries" should be excluded from the Court's consideration of the hours reasonably expended under lodestar).

134. A total of 200.5 hours of YCST time entries totaling $129,451.50 are vague and generalized, and lack support or description sufficient to identify what the time entries pertain to or whether they are connected to the Adversary Proceeding or Welded's claims and defenses against Transco that yielded the CASPA fee award. Ewald Decl. ¶ 24, Appendix 23. These time entries are distinct from the YCST time entries appearing in Appendices 2, 3, and 13, discussed infra Section I.

135. Welded failed to meet its burden of demonstrating that it is entitled to the YCST time entries in Appendix 23 given the vague and indecipherable descriptions provided, and therefore at least $129,451.50 should be excluded from the fee award. See Jankowski Report, p. 15.

E. Fees Associated with Welded's Unsuccessful Claims and Defenses Should Be Excluded.

136. Although Welded was declared the "prevailing party", Welded did not prevail on all its claims and defenses in full and its fee award should be reduced accordingly. Since only an award of reasonable fees is allowed, "reduction of the lodestar in cases of only partial or limited success is necessary to ensure that a party is not liable for 'excessive' attorney fees." Tobin v. Gordon, 623 F. Supp. 2d 538, 540 (D. Del. 2009) (". . . the lodestar fee should be based on the 'results obtained,' which is a particularly crucial factor] where a plaintiff is deemed 'prevailing'") (internal citations omitted); see also Loughner v. Univ. of Pittsburgh, 260 F.3d 173, 178 (3d Cir. 2001) (determining that court "should reduce the hours claimed by the number of hours spent litigating claims on which the party did not succeed"); Coalition to Save Our Children v. State Ed. of Educ., 901 F. Supp. 824, 829 (D. Del. 1995); Bates v. Board of Educ. a/Capital Sch. Dist., No. 97-394-SLR, 2000 WL 1292677, at *4 (D. Del. Aug. 29, 2000).

137. Where a plaintiff achieves only partial or limited success, a court may adjust the fee downward even where the plaintiff's claims were interrelated, nonfrivolous, and raised in good faith. Am. Inst. for Chartered Prop. Cas. Underwriters v. Posner, No. CV 19-5369, 2024 WL 3202552, at *2 (E.D. Pa. June 25, 2024). Courts "may attempt to identify specific hours that should be eliminated, or [they] may simply reduce the award to account for the limited success [, and] [t]he court necessarily has discretion in making this equitable judgment." Schwarz v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., 73 F.3d 895, 904 (9th Cir. 1995) (citing Hensley, 461 U.S. at 436–37, 103 S.Ct. at 1941.

138. Although Welded was deemed the prevailing party, Welded's success on its claims was limited considering the ultimate determination, and Transco's success on portions of its claims against Welded. Prior to trial, Transco filed a Motion for Partial Summary Judgment on February 27, 2023, seeking summary judgment on certain categories of Welded's mischarging under the Contract/Commitment Letters totaling nearly $32 million [Adv. D.I. 300-303]. The Court granted summary judgment in Transco's favor and against Welded in part, declaring Transco was entitled to over $12.2 million for Welded's mischarging, nearly 40% of the amount sought for categories of charging under the Contract/Commitment Letters through the Motion for Partial Summary Judgment [Adv. D.I. 394].

139. The Court also found that Welded was not entitled to the $12.5 million schedule incentive it claimed under the Contract due to its failure to demonstrate entitlement by a preponderance of the evidence. [Adv. D.I. 442, p. 132]. The Court also found that Welded is entitled to a net amount for withheld invoiced amounts of $44,632,308, or over $26 million less than Welded claimed it was entitled to in its Complaint, and over $31 million less than Welded claimed it was entitled to in Gray's opening expert report, representing a 62% or 58% recovery for its claimed unpaid invoiced amounts under the Contract, respectively. [Adv. D.I. 442, p. 163, 168-69]. Combined with the schedule incentive bonus claimed, Welded sought an amount up to $88.4 million under the Contract through Gray and Kakol, and was awarded approximately 50% of that value by the Court in the Opinion. Additionally, the Court found that Welded was liable to Transco for the costs associated with the pipeline anomalies and dent remediation necessitated by Welded's defective work in the amount of $1,395,931.55. [Adv. D.I. 442, pp. 112-13]. And the Court did not grant Welded the relief it sought with respect to its claims regarding Objection to Proofs of Claims 632 and 636, awarding Transco partial relief sought therein, including over $10.1 million for mischargings by Welded under the Contract.. See id.

140. In considering Welded's partial success in the Adversary Proceeding, Mr. Jankowski opined that an appropriate reduction of attorneys' fees to account for this is 33.3% See Jankowski Report, p. 16. This percentage is a reasonable deduction to the lodestar and based upon an estimate of the attributable time Welded's attorneys spent on investigation and discovery, motions, written submissions, evidence preparation, mediation, case administration, and presenting witnesses and argument at trial in pursuit or defense of the issues and claims for which Welded did not succeed.

III. Welded's Request for "Collection-of-Judgment" Fees and "Collection-of-Fees" Fees Should be Denied as Premature.

141. Welded goes so far as to demand that this Court prejudge the outcome of the appeals pending before the District Court by awarding it attorneys' fees and expenses incurred in connection with Welded's and Williams' pending appeals (the "Appeals"), as well as entering an entirely prospective judgment awarding fees that Welded has not even incurred. First, Welded asks the Court to award it "fees and expenses associated with services performed in connection with . . . Appeals," which it has already incurred and billed under the same task billing code it used for fees and expenses in the Adversary Proceeding. Application, ¶¶ 42, 53. Second, Welded asks the Court to enter judgement awarding what Welded calls "Collection-of-Judgment Fees" i.e., "attorneys' fees and expenses incurred collecting on the Final Judgment, including fees and expenses incurred during Transco's appeal, and "Collection-of-Fees Fees," which Welded describes as "fees and expenses incurred to collect on the Collection-of-Judgment Fees." Application, ¶ 67. Welded's requests for actual and prospective fees and expenses in connection with the parties' Appeals should be denied as premature, as CASPA does not authorize an award of fees in connection with Appeals that are not yet decided—much less for fees in those Appeals that are not yet incurred.

142. Section 512(b) of CASPA clearly states that the first prerequisite for an award of fees is that the party seeking a fee award be the "substantially prevailing" party in the proceeding in which those fees were incurred. 73 Pa. Cons. Stat. § 512(b). cf. US Bortek, LLC v. Oz Directional Drilling, Inc., 2024 WL 3403122, at *4 (E.D. Pa. July 12, 2024) ("Pennsylvania courts have described a substantially prevailing party as a party in whose favor a judgment is rendered[.]"

(cleaned up) (emphasis added)). Welded can seek an award of fees incurred in connection with the Appeals only if Welded is the "substantially prevailing" party in the Appeals. Obviously, that is not the case: the Appeals are at their inception, and no party is yet the "substantially prevailing" party in those proceedings. Welded thus cannot satisfy a basic statutory prerequisite for an award of "Collection-of-Judgment Fees" and "Collection-of-Fees Fees," including for the fees and expenses Welded has already incurred in connection with the Appeals, and its request for those fees should be denied as premature.[21]

IV. Welded is Not Entitled to Unnecessary and Unreasonable Expenses.

143. In addition to the experts' fees and consultants' fees Welded is not entitled to because they are not expenses under CASPA, see infra. Section I.C, I.D., Welded is not entitled to certain other expenses claimed in the Application, including its portion of the private mediator's fees, and unreasonable and unnecessary costs associated with cart rentals from DLS and monthly user fees for document retention.

144. In the Application, Welded seeks recovery of the mediator fees paid to Perry Dampf for the September 2022 mediation. See Application, ¶ 54, Exhibit 81. As Welded acknowledged, Transco and Welded agreed to share equally in the payment of the fees associated with the [21] In addition, while the Court need not reach these issues because Welded's request is premature, there is reason to doubt that Section 512(b) authorizes this Court to assess the fees to be awarded in an appeal, or for the appellate court to award fees in connection with appellate proceedings. Welded's primary authority for the award of such fees is a dissenting opinion from a per curiam Supreme Court of Pennsylvania order. Zimmerman v. Harrisburg Fudd, I, L.P., 984 A.2d 497, 504–05 (Pa. Super. Ct. 2009) (citing Eagle I. Elec., Inc. v. J.J. Hilferty & Son Builders, Inc., 578 Pa. 429 (2004) (Baer, J., dissenting)); (see Application, ¶ 68). In that dissent, Justice Baer explained that the Pennsylvania appellate courts had not addressed CASPA's "applicability to appellate counsel fees and expenses," but posited that the statute's language might be "broad enough" to encompass appellate fees and expenses. Eagle, 578 Pa. at 430-31 (Baer, J., dissenting). In so concluding, Justice Baer suggested that the appellate court could award the fees and expenses expended on the appellate proceedings. See id. (Baer, J., dissenting) ("This language appears broad enough to encompass proceedings in appellate courts, and an award by such a court." (emphasis added)). Justice Baer's dissenting opinion is, of course, not controlling Pennsylvania law. But, even if it were persuasive authority, it would show that only an appellate court could award fees to the "substantially prevailing" party in such appeal.

mediator, and both parties paid their respective half of the mediator's invoice. This was done pursuant to a Court-approved Stipulation [Adv. D.I. 288, Ex 1]. The mediation fees were not incurred for the purpose of pursuing claims and defenses in furtherance of collecting on the invoiced amounts under the Contract, but rather, were incurred by the Parties' election to privately resolve the entirety of the dispute outside the Adversary Proceeding. Thus, based on the Parties' Stipulation and the "expenses" contemplated by CASPA, Welded is not entitled to recover from Transco the portion of the mediator's fees it agreed to pay.

145. In the Application, Welded seeks recovery of Relativity (document database) user license fees as part of its DLS Discovery expenses. See Application, ¶ 50, Exhibit 78. Welded has failed to meet its burden of demonstrating entitlement to this component of the DLS Discovery expenses because it has failed to demonstrate that the user license fees were incurred wholly for the Adversary Proceeding. The monthly user license fees charged for Relativity are charged on a per-user basis and are not case-specific, i.e. the standard licensing fee applies regardless of the number of cases in which the user is actively using the Relativity database. Thus, these fees are not reasonably attributable to the Adversary Proceeding as they are not (or should not) be borne entirely by Welded. Transco identified a total of $12,843.94 for Relativity user licenses in the DLS invoices that should be excluded from the expense award. See Ewald Decl. ¶ 31, Appendix 30.

146. In its Application, Welded also seeks compensation for fees it purportedly incurred for rented rolling carts from DLS Discovery following the end of trial in the Adversary Proceeding. See Application, ¶ 50, Exhibit 78. Transco identified the fees associated with the rental of these rolling carts following the end of trial in the DLS Discovery invoices, which total $22,050.00. See Ewald Decl. ¶ 30, Appendix 29. These fees were not necessarily incurred, as the rolling carts were no longer a necessary expense after trial ended, and therefore these fees should be excluded from the expense award.

CONCLUSION

147. For these reasons, Transco respectfully requests the Court exercise its discretion and exclude at least $5,930,121.99 (see Exhibit D) from the quantified award of attorneys' fees and expenses claimed in Welded's Application, as Welded failed to meet its burden of proof in demonstrating entitlement and reasonableness to, at a minimum, this amount of the fees and expenses claimed.

INTRODUCTION

Thank you for the opportunity to provide this Expert Report in support of the above referenced case. Be advised the opinions, observations, and conclusions found in this report are my own and are based on my review and analysis of invoices, pleadings and other documents filed with the Court or produced in connection with the above action.

This report specifically focuses on invoices prepared and presented by Young Conaway Stargatt & Taylor ("Young") as a result of Young's representation of Welded Construction, Inc. ("Welded") in the referenced case.

Young has asked the Court in this matter to award Welded $12,728,507.55 to cover all incurred attorneys' fees, expert fees, consultant fees and expenses. This report reflects my opinions regarding the reasonableness of the fees and costs presented by Young. These opinions consider the work accomplished by Young leading up to trial, the results of the litigation and whether the fees presented are appropriate in light of the nature and complexity of the litigation.

In reaching my opinions I was aided by my extensive work within the construction industry and my positions as General Counsel/Claims Manager for several construction surety bond companies. In fact, in my evaluation of the aforementioned fees, I have applied a mindset and methodology that I have developed over my 40+ years working in the fields of surety claims and construction disputes. Over the course of my career, I have tried construction cases and worked in executive positions at several surety companies where I dealt with and managed construction litigation. I was also a part owner of a surety company. My in-house counsel roles provided me with the opportunity to supervise outside counsel representing my employers in complex construction litigation.
In addition to my opinions, this report also provides a detailed narrative of my background and experience, a brief recitation of the critical facts of the dispute, as well as some additional pertinent information.

BACKGROUND AND QUALIFICATIONS

A copy of my current curriculum vitae is attached to this report as Exhibit A. It provides a full statement of my experience and accomplishments.
Early in my career I worked for a small private law practice in Philadelphia handling a variety of criminal and civil matters. I also served as Law Clerk to a Judge in the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas.

From 1984 to 1987, in my capacity as an attorney for two different government agencies, I was actively involved in the investigation, litigation, and resolution of construction contract disputes involving owners, contractors and surety companies. I personally handled numerous trials before the Courts of Common Pleas, the Pennsylvania Board of Claims, and the Pennsylvania Commonwealth Court.

After I left the public sector, and over the course of the next 26 years, I either worked for or represented companies that underwrote and issued surety bonds. I handled or supervised the handling of thousands of claims against contract and commercial surety bonds in nearly all 50 states and supervised counsel representing my employer in countless construction disputes. During that time, I managed the claim departments of four separate surety companies. In my roles as Corporate Officer, General Counsel and/or Claims Manager I supervised several staffs of surety professionals engaged in the following activities:

1) The handling, investigation, and resolution of all manner of surety claims
2) Litigation management
3) Construction consulting
4) Construction funds control (escrow services)
5) Salvage/subrogation.

During the 1990's I helped start two new businesses focused on surety claims and underwriting. My company staffs included attorneys, engineers, accountants, claims examiners, and collection specialists, as well as systems and support personnel. During this period, I also helped negotiate reinsurance treaties, supervised outside counsel engaged in surety litigation, and served on several corporate executive committees.

In January of 2005 I became a partner in the Law Offices of Chiesa, Shahinian, and Giantomasi, PC ("CSG") (formally Wolff & Samson PC). The main office for CSG is in West Orange, New Jersey.

When I joined the firm, I was tasked with opening an office for the firm in Philadelphia. During my time with CSG I was a member of the firm's Surety and Fidelity practice group. Over the course of the next two and a half years I represented more than twenty different surety companies specifically in surety and fidelity bond disputes. I also represented construction companies in connection with contract and claim litigation.

In mid-2007 I left CSG to take a position with one of the firm's clients. At that time, I took on the role as Senior Vice President with Allegheny Casualty Company ("ACC"). In this position I was the lead executive in ACC's newly created Contract and Commercial Surety Division ("CCSD"). When I joined ACC, it was exclusively an underwriter of bail bonds. The CCSD of ACC was created to capitalize on ACC's financial strength and resources. Within two years ACC was on the road to becoming a leading national underwriter of contract surety bonds for small and mid-size construction companies.

At the end of 2009 I left ACC to join Bluestone Surety ("Bluestone") as both a partner and part owner. Bluestone was a start-up surety company. At that time several of my ACC staff members joined me at Bluestone. From the start I supervised contract bond underwriting, claims, legal affairs, and HR matters. Bluestone's revenues grew quickly, and it was acquired by American Safety Insurance ("ASI") in mid-2012. Thereafter, in mid-2013, ASI was acquired by Fairfax Holdings of Canada ("Fairfax"), and I went to work for Hudson Insurance, a subsidiary of Fairfax. At the end of 2013 I left the corporate world. In January of 2014 I opened Jankoe & Associates, LLP. Over the last 10+ years I have worked on a variety of matters all related to the surety and construction industries. Here are few of the opportunities that have come my way in my capacity as a consultant and arbitrator:

- Served as an arbitrator in a dispute between a surety and its agent. Acted as the surety company representative in several complex cases that were headed to mediation and trial.
- Handled several performance bond disputes.
- Consulted with two different start-up groups that were entering the surety marketplace.
- Retained as an expert in litigation involving a wide range of surety claims, underwriting and other business issues.
- Assisted the Surety and Fidelity Association of America with their review of proposed regulations, statutes and other issues affecting the surety industry.
- Handled and managed surety claims and construction litigation as a contract consultant for several different insurance companies.

Since 1991 I have been a frequent contributor, author, speaker, and moderator at local, regional, and national conferences focused on construction disputes and surety claim standards, issues, and procedures. Additionally, I have participated in 25+ conferences that dealt exclusively with surety bond matters. The attached CV sets forth and describes these events.

As a recognized leader in the field of surety and construction law and surety claims, I have had several significant work and business-related accomplishments. A representative sample of those accomplishments is set forth below, with the full list on my CV.
- Chaired the Fidelity and Surety Law Committee of the Tort, Trial, and Insurance Practice Section of the American Bar Association.
- Testified in Washington D.C. before the United States House of Representatives, Committee on Small Business, on industry issues and programs related to the Small Business Administration's Office of Surety Guarantee.
- Chaired the Claims Advisory Committee of the Surety and Fidelity Association of America ("SFAA").
- Worked with the Association of California Surety Companies and other statewide organizations to provide comment and input to the California
- Department of Insurance's effort to create claims practice regulations that were sensitive to the unique characteristics of surety bonds as well as other industry issues.
- Called upon to review and/or audit the claims operations of several surety companies.

BRIEF STATEMENT OF CRITICAL FACTS

In 2016 Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Company, LLC ("TGPL") and Welded entered into a contract for the construction of 97 miles of greenfield pipeline in Pennsylvania. Work started on the pipeline right-of-way in October of 2017. Over the next 13 months Welded's work on the pipeline did not proceed in accordance with the construction schedule.

Welded received advance funding for its work on the Project through a cash call and reconciliation invoice process as work was progressing, Welded invoiced TGPL for several hundred million dollars over the anticipated final construction cost. As a result, TGPL retained the services of an outside consultant to audit Welded's billings. Ultimately, TGPL withheld monies from Welded's cash call payment in October, 2018.

In October of 2028, Welded filed a Petition seeking the protection of the Bankruptcy Court in Delaware. In May of 2019, Welded filed the instant litigation against TGPL seeking over $71 Million in damages, which was thereafter increased by an additional final invoice and amounts quantified for a schedule bonus.

At the end of trial, Welded was awarded a net judgment in the amount of $44,632,30. As a result of the Judgment, Welded was deemed the prevailing party in the action and, as a result, Young, on behalf of Welded filed a Fee Award Petition seeking an award of $10,588,011.47 in attorney fees and an additional $2,140,496.08 for expenses.

DOCUMENTS REVIEWED

- Welded's Fee Award Application, including the Neiburg Declaration, and invoices prepared and submitted by Young and various experts, consultants, and vendors in connection with the referenced litigation.

- Pleadings, motions, reports, briefs, declarations, and other correspondence relating to the referenced litigation.

- The Court's February 25, 2025 opinion.

- Pennsylvania Contractor and Subcontractor Payment Act ("CASPA") 73 P.S. Section 501 et. seq.

OPINIONS

In my opinion, based on my experience and background in the fields of construction and surety bond litigation, the amounts sought by Young for attorneys' fees are unreasonable and, when the specific circumstances of the claim and its history are factored in, the fees are clearly excessive.

I will address seven different aspects of Welded's fee award demand made by Young. In my opinion, the Young invoices in this matter include numerous problematic entries. These entries are significant and have, in my opinion, unreasonably inflated the fees sought by Young. Many entries by Young need to be either removed and/or adjusted if the Young billings are to reflect a reasonable attorney fee representation of Welded in this matter.

Watt has provided me with multiple appendices of Young's time entries identifying and drawing my attention to possible examples of problematic billings. I reviewed these appendices, which provide a strong and detailed look at numerous time entries and tasks that have been flagged as unreasonable, excessive, vague and duplicative or simply demonstrate Young's failure to properly coordinate and assign tasks to the appropriate staff attorney or paralegal. My independent review of the Young invoices uncovered additional unreasonable charges.

A. In my opinion, Welded's fee award should be reduced to account for time entries by Young relating to the investigation, analysis, analysis, and pursuit of Welded's claims against The Williams Companies, Inc. and Williams Partners Operating LLC.

The initial complaint filed by Welded in this matter named TGPL as a defendant. However, the complaint also named The Williams Companies, Inc ("Williams") and Williams Partners Operating LLC ("Partners") as additional defendants. In the litigation, Welded did not actively pursue its claims against either Williams or Partners, and the court determined that the litigation would proceed to trial on only TGPL's and Welded's claims in July, 2021 following Williams' and Partners' Motion to Withdraw the Reference. As a result, the court made no award against either Williams or Partners.

However, starting in January or 2019 and continuing through April of 2020 there are several time entries in the Young invoices that appear to relate to work done on claims tied to either or both Williams or Partners and a multitude of entries stating that work was done generally on the "Williams litigation" without party specification. It is not discernible from these entries whether the time spent on claims and issues related to one, two or all three defendants. Many of the entries are vaguely worded and do not clearly point to work done on issues specifically related to the dispute with TGPL. However, based on the timing of the entries and their descriptions, it seems likely that much of the time spent on each of these disputed entries related in part to Williams and Partners issues and Welded's claims against them. See the following:

November 14, 2019 – "Emails with B. Oliver re: defendant's answer to complaint"

December 23, 2019 – "Draft requests for production of documents for Williams Partners and The Williams Companies"

February 10, 2020 – "Email with M. Neiburg re: Williams litigation process"

March 16, 2020 – "Emils with M. Neiburg re: Williams litigation"

April 8, 2020 – "Review documents sent by T. Buchanan; prepare index for special binder. . . to be assembled re Williams"

I have reviewed the invoices for entries that pertain or may pertain to Williams and Partners and the corresponding claims against these two defendants up through July, 2021. Based on my review of the invoices, it is my opinion that Appendix No. 7 to the Ewald Declaration is a reasonable, if not conservative, representation of the Young invoice entries that pertain or may pertain to Williams and Partners and the corresponding claims against these two defendants, and therefore up to $332,237.00 in billings related to work done on Williams and Partners issues, have been improperly included in Welded's fee award request. All the work accomplished by Young and set forth in Welded's fee award request relating to work on issues tied to their alleged disputes with Williams and Partners had no impact on the ultimate judgment entered by the Court. As such, in my opinion these specific fees should be subject to deletion from Welded's fee award request for Young's failure to adequately describe their time entries to the attributable claims and parties or at least be subject to a substantial reduction. In my opinion, it is not reasonable for Young to be paid for work done on issues related to parties they did not pursue in this litigation and parties that were clearly not addressed in the Court's judgment. In fact, Young's billing in this regard was clearly excessive and the entries are not supported by manner in which the adversary procedure was conducted and said entries had no impact on the final decision and judgment entered by the court in this matter. It is unreasonable for Young to expect a fee recovery for this work under these circumstances.

Therefore, it is my opinion, based on my experience and background, that at least 50% of the fee entries identified in Appendix No. 7 to the Ewald Declaration should be deleted from Welded's fee award request to account for the vague, excessive, and overlapping nature of these entries.

B. In my opinion, Welded's fee award should be reduced to account for time entries by Young relating to the investigation, analysis, and pursuit of Welded's claims against TGPL that were unrelated to the central claims for recovery of invoiced amounts under their Contract.

I have reviewed the invoices for entries that pertain or may pertain to claims that are unrelated to Welded's and TGPL's competing claims for invoiced amounts under their contract. Welded filed its complaint against TGPL seeking recovery for several separate claims including, among others, 1) payment of its unpaid invoiced Project amounts; 2) payment for the Final Fixed Fee (profit); and 3) payment for a schedule bonus. Additionally, in the complaint, Welded objected to TGPL's proof of claim 632, challenging TGPL's claim to compensation for Welded's defective work resulting in pipeline coating issues and dents that required investigation, remediation, and repair.

Welded retained three experts to opine on these various issues. I reviewed the expert reports, Application, and the Opinion in this matter, and understand that each expert was retained for a different portion of Welded's claims and defenses. Dennis Kakol, of Contech, was retained largely to provide opinion testimony relating to the schedule bonus, and ultimately Welded failed to meet its burden of proof with respect to this claim and was not awarded any money by the Court for the schedule bonus. Peter Singh, of PolymaPro, was retained to provide opinion testimony relating to the defense of TGPL's proof of claim 632, or the pipeline defects identified by TGPL. Singh did not testify at trial, and ultimately TGPL was awarded compensation for proof of claim 632, as the Court determined Welded was responsible for costs associated with repairing the pipeline dents. I have reviewed CASPA and the Court's Opinion in this matter and understand the Court's award of fees to Welded was based on the amounts withheld under the Project invoices Welded submitted to TGPL before filing for bankruptcy protection. Thus, it is my opinion that Welded's fee award should be reduced to account for fees expended on claims and defenses unrelated to the claim and defenses pertaining to the withheld invoiced amounts.

While it can be difficult to determine which fees relate to which claims and defenses, in these circumstances, this can reasonably done by determining which fees were expended on which expert that Welded retained. The fees incurred with respect to work associated with two of the three experts, Singh and Kakol, should be excluded from the fee award.

Based on my review of the invoices, it is my opinion that Appendices 10, 11, and 12 to the Ewald Declaration are a reasonable, if not conservative, representation of the Young invoice entries that pertain to the claims that are unrelated to the claim for withheld invoiced amounts. This is apparent based on the timing and description of the invoice entries, which specifically reference work and parties relating to Welded's pipe defect/repair defense, and/or experts Singh and Kakol. Therefore, in my opinion, the amounts in Appendices 10-12 of the Ewald Declaration have been improperly included in Welded's fee award request and should be excluded.

Additionally, I reviewed Appendix 13 to the Ewald Declaration, and given the vague descriptions, find that it is unclear which claims, defenses, or experts these entries pertain to, but conclude that these entries reasonably relate to Young's time entries associated with its three retained experts. Given Welded's retention of 3 experts, 2 of which were retained to address claims unrelated to the withholding of invoiced amounts, and considering the total relative amounts invoiced directly by these three experts, it is my opinion that approximately 2/3 of the time entries in Appendix 13 have been improperly included in Welded's fee award request.

Therefore, it is my opinion, based on my experience and background, that at least 66.66% of the fee entries identified in Appendix 13 to the Ewald Declaration should be deleted from Welded's fee award request to account for the unrelatedness to the basis for award.

C. In my opinion and based on my review of Young's invoices, Young spent excessive and unreasonable amounts of time performing basic and simple litigation related tasks and, as a result, there should be a significant reduction in Welded's overall fee award.

Young's invoices demonstrate that 58 timekeepers were employed to work on this matter. And this is not due to a change in lead counsel or the core legal team, a review of the invoices attached to the Application shows that the core attorneys, Guerke, Neiburg, Buchanan, Beach, and Lambe, worked on the case from 2018 through 2025. Based on my experience, it is neither necessary nor reasonable to employ such a significant number of attorneys and billable staff to this construction case. Undoubtedly, the introduction of so many new timekeepers throughout the course of the litigation resulted in significant inefficiency, which is reflected in the excessive time spent by Young on this case.

A review of the Young invoices reveals countless instances where Young spent an unreasonable and excessive amount of time performing tasks such as:

- Document review
- Drafting briefs
- Research
- Teleconferences and meetings
- Strategy discussions
- Developing litigation positions
- Discussing "open issues"
- Drafting briefs including pre and post-trial briefs
- Preparing for and attending mediation

While reviewing Young's invoices, I noted an excessive number of time entries that pertain vaguely to "litigation strategy," "case strategy," "litigation position," and "open issues." Based on my review of the invoices, it is my opinion that Appendix 6 to the Ewald Declaration is a reasonably accurate compilation of these ambiguous time entries from Young's invoices. Appendix 6 identifies over 400 entries between May 9, 2019, and May 14, 2025, that refer to work accomplished on "litigation strategy." Many of the remaining entries on the Appendix also indicate work related to "strategy" discussions. The dollar value for time spent by Young lawyers discussing and planning "strategy" for the adversary procedure is $317,471.50. It is my opinion, based on my experience and background, that at least 50% of the fee entries identified in Appendix 6 to the Ewald Declaration should be excluded from Welded's fee award request to account for the non-descript, excessive, and unreasonable nature of these time entries.

Based on my review of the invoices, it is my opinion that Appendices 19, 20, and 21 to the Ewald Declaration are a reasonable, if not conservative, representation of the Young invoice entries that pertain to some of the exemplary excessive time spent on tasks by Welded's attorneys. For instance, it appears that Young worked on the Post Trial Brief from September 8, 2023, until November 1, 2023. During this two-month period there are 408 billing entries by Young lawyers relating to work on the brief. Over 100 of these entries reference, in whole or in part, emails that were sent between the lawyers and the clients. There are hundreds of entries referencing:

- Review of correspondence
- Teleconferences
- Team meetings and calls

In addition, there are over 100 entries that speak about reviewing and revising the brief. In all, Young billed $509,630 for work on the brief. If we assume the average hourly rate for Young staff and lawyers working on the brief was $500 then Young spent over 1,000 hours putting together the brief. This equates to over 25 work weeks (40 hours per week) to assemble and file the Post Trial Brief in this matter. In my experience, this is an excessive amount of time, especially considering a Pre Trial Brief was also submitted. And it is my opinion, based on my experience and background, that at least 50% of the fee entries identified in Appendix 20 to the Ewald Declaration should be excluded from Welded's fee award request to account for the excessive and unreasonable nature of these time entries.

Young spent almost 300 hours and $178k on preparing the Pre Hearing Brief and Joint Pre Trial Order in this matter. In addition, Young spent even more than that (over 325 hours and $216k) on preparation and attendance for a one-day mediation in 2022. Based on my review of the entries in Appendices 19 and 21, which reasonably pertain to these tasks based on the time and descriptions of the time entries, this is an excessive and unreasonable amount of time to be spent on these limited case matters. Therefore, it is my opinion, based on my experience and background, that at least 50% of the fee entries identified in Appendices 19 and 21 to the Ewald Declaration should be excluded from Welded's fee award request to account for the excessive and unreasonable nature of these time entries.

Based on my review of the invoices, Young also spent an inordinate amount of time reviewing, revising, analyzing, updating, and commenting on a variety of issues. For example, between July 22, 2023, and July 26, 2023, attorney Buchanan spent 19.6 hours preparing for a summary judgment argument. This is work billed, presumably, after the brief for the motion had been researched, prepared, and filed. Nevertheless, Mr. Buchanan apparently needed an additional 20 just to prepare for the argument before the court. And, between May 12, 2023, and July 3, 2023, attorneys in the Young firm spent 74.5 hours working on Motions in Limine.

Another aspect of this issue involves Young's management of the trial. A review of the time entries clearly indicate that numerous Young attorneys attended trial and billed for their time at trial but did not actively participate in the proceedings. It appears that Mr. Guerke and Mr. Neiburg did most of the questioning at trial. Mr. Buchanan attended trial, but it appears his actual involvement was limited. Also, attorneys Lambe, Beach, Fortunato and Estes attended trial and billed their attendance but did not address the court or question any witnesses.

All of the above points to a level of inefficiency and unreasonableness that, in my opinion, clearly demonstrates a distinct pattern of excessive and unreasonable billing practices on the part of the Young firm.

D. In my opinion, based on my review of the Young invoices there are numerous instances of redundant and superfluous time entries which are a clear indication of inefficient, unreasonable, and excessive billing

There are countless examples in the Young invoices of inefficient and excessive billing resulting in redundant and unnecessary charges. I am referring specifically to the following types of billing entries:

- One attorney billing twice for the same work
- Multiple attorneys performing identical work
- Multiple attorneys attending and billing for hearings, depositions, and trial
- Many attorneys from the Young firm billed small amounts of time indicating that numerous lawyers from the firm were brought into the case for, perhaps, training purposes and, as a result, did provide any real value to the matter.

For instance, the Young invoices include charges of over $293,000 for 30 attorneys and staff that were either training or only tangentially involved in the matter. Appendix 27 to the Ewald Declaration is a reasonably accurate compilation of the time entries for training or non-participatory attorneys and timekeepers. Here are a few examples:

- 6/5/19 – 6/28/19 – CRYAN – multiple entries re: "research related to litigation strategy" – total time billed – 42.5
- 3/13/25 – RPAGA – "Research re; post-judgment issues" - .20
- 3/10-19/25 – PSCHO – several entries, total time billed – 9.9

Based on my experience, these timekeepers, who billed less than 100 hours sporadically during the litigation, could not have meaningfully contributed to the case. Additionally, these timekeepers would have had to spend a portion of time learning information necessary to get up to speed on the case issues to perform any tasks. This demonstrates a level of billing that clearly demonstrates unnecessary, inefficient and excessive billing practices on the part of the Young firm. Therefore, it is my opinion, based on my experience and background, that 100% of the fee entries identified Appendix 27 should be excluded from Young's fee award request as unreasonable.

E. In my opinion, based on my review of the Young invoices there are numerous instances of unnecessary time entries in which clerical or administrative work and tasks are performed by partners, associates and paralegals which leads to a clear indication of inefficient, unreasonable, and excessive billing

Within the Young invoices it is easy to spot instances where basic, clerical, or administrative tasks are being accomplished and billed by attorneys, sometimes very senior attorneys. Appendix No. 5 attached to the Declaration sets forth 129 time entries for work on simple tasks that are billed at rates unreasonable considering the nature of the task. Here are a few examples:

- 1/13-26/23 – KGUER – review expert invoices – billing rate $825/hour
- 2/17/23 – 9/28/23 – BWALT – multiple entries re: circulate docket – billing rate $320/hour
- 11/25/20 – LFORT – emails re: share file – billing rate $525/hour

The total amount billed by Young attorneys on these rudimentary tasks is $21,258.00.

While reviewing Young's invoices, I also noted an excessive number of time entries where senior level attorneys were performing basic entry-level tasks such as document review, research, and pleading drafting. Based on my review of the invoices, it is my opinion that Appendix 24 to the Ewald Declaration is a reasonable, if not conservative, compilation of these types of time entries from Young's invoices. Appendix 24 identifies over 400 hours wherein partners such as attorneys Guerke, Neiburg, and Edwards were performing tasks that should be performed by entry-level clerks, paralegals, and associates. It also highlights multiple examples of Young billing for "second level" reviews of documents produced, presumably, during discovery. The dollar value these tasks is $299,284.50. These entries point to a level of inefficiency and unreasonableness that, in my opinion, clearly demonstrates a distinct pattern of excessive billing practices on Young's part.

All of the above points to a level of excessive billing that, in my opinion, clearly demonstrates a distinct pattern of unnecessary, inefficient, and unreasonable billing practices on the part of the Young firm. Therefore, it is my opinion, based on my experience and background, that 75% of the fee entries identified in Appendices No. 5 and 24 should be excluded from Welded's fee award.

F. In my opinion, based on my review of the Young invoices there are numerous instances in which the time entries are vague and/or indiscernible which leads to a clear indication of inefficient, unreasonable, and excessive billing

Across all of the invoices submitted by Young there are instances where time entries do provide a clear statement or explanation of the actual work accomplished. Aside from the vague and nondescript entries already discussed (for example, the "open issues" and "litigation position" entries), I identified several general non-descript entries that lack the detail necessary to determine whether these fees are reasonable. Based on my experience, these time entries do not pass muster for industry-standard attorney invoices.

Here is an example of billing descriptions provided by Young attorneys that are vague and problematic:

- "prepare for professionals meeting"
- "reviewed task list"
- "reviewed background documents"
- "reviewed draft task list"
- "email communication with M. Neiburg re: task"
- "review OK transfer opinion"
- "reviewed response memo"
- "reviewed research"
- "emails with M. Neiburg re: motion"
- "review consultant information"
- "emails with consultant"
- "review and revise notice"
- 'review deposition notices"
- "review mediation issues"
- "review deposition analysis"
- "trial exhibit list"

Based on my review of the invoices, it is my opinion that Appendix 23 to the Ewald Declaration is a reasonable, if not conservative, compilation of these vague and nondescript time entries from Young's invoices.

In particular, many of these entries are entries from Attorney Guerke. Here are some of the problem issues with Attorney Guerke's billings:

- Numerous entries that reference "Williams" but not TGPL

- Several references to a "professionals meeting"
- Review of "caselaw," "task list," "project documents," "reconciliations and financial data,"

It is difficult to tell from the time entries on Appendix 23 whether they apply to this matter, or any other matter for any other client. This is particularly problematic given that Welded had numerous proceedings going on in the bankruptcy proceeding and Young admitted that it had difficulty keeping its task codes straight. All of the above points to a level of vague, inefficient, and unreasonable time keeping that, in my opinion, clearly demonstrates a distinct pattern of excessive billing practices on Young's part. Therefore, it is my opinion, based on my experience and background, that 100% of the fee entries identified on Appendix 23 should be excluded from Young's fee award request as unreasonable.

G. In my opinion, based on my review of the Young invoices, the pleadings, Application, Opinion, expert reports, and various motions, Welded's fee award should be reduced for the level of limited success it achieved.

While the Court found Welded was the "prevailing party," I considered the level of success that Welded achieved on its various claims and defenses in this matter. I reviewed Welded's Application, the Young invoices, Pleadings, the Court's Opinion and Final Judgment, expert reports, and various motions papers filed by the parties. Looking wholistically at the claims and defenses in this matter, and considering TGPL's success on recovering a portion of the amounts in the Welded Project invoices that the Court deemed Welded mischarged, and the significant difference between the amount claimed by Welded for its unpaid invoices in its complaint versus the amount claimed at trial (almost half) through its expert, Mr. Gray, it is my opinion that should the Court make an adjustment to the fee award based on Welded's limited success, that a 33.33% reduction from the final award would be appropriate and justified.

RATES AND FEES

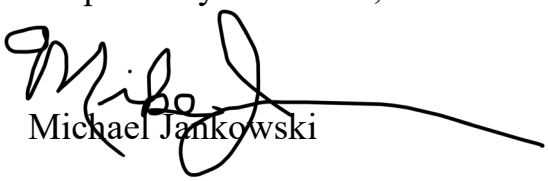

My billing rate for this matter is $350 per hour.

CLOSING

Thank you for the opportunity to work on this matter. At this point, I believe I have addressed all pertinent issues that fall within my field of expertise. However, if, in the future, it becomes necessary for me to amend or supplement my report for any reason, I reserve the right to do so.

In re: WELDED CONSTRUCTION, L.P., et al.,[1] Debtors.	Chapter 11 Case No. 18-12378 (LSS) (Jointly Administered)
WELDED CONSTRUCTION, L.P., Plaintiff, v. THE WILLIAMS COMPANIES, INC., WILLIAMS PARTNERS OPERATING LLC, and TRANSCONTINENTAL GAS PIPE LINE COMPANY, LLC, Defendants.	Adv. Pro. No. 19-50194 (LSS) Re: Adv. Docket No. 457, 479

DECLARATION OF SHELLY L. EWALD IN SUPPORT OF TRANSCONTINENTAL GAS PIPE LINE COMPANY, LLC s OBJECTION TO WELDED'S FEE APPLICATION

I, Shelly L. Ewald, hereby make the following Declaration in connection with the above-captioned case. I am over the age of eighteen and have knowledge of the matters stated herein. This Declaration is made in support of Defendant Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Company, LLC's ("Transco") Opposition to Welded's Fee Application filed in the above-captioned adversary proceeding on June 23, 2025.

1. Welded filed the above-captioned Adversary Proceeding on May 3, 2019 against The Williams Companies, Inc., Williams Partners Operating LLC, and Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Company, LLC.

2. From May 2019 through June 2020, the Williams Parties and Transco were represented in this proceeding by John F. Heil of Hall Estill of Tulsa, Oklahoma. When Attorney Heil was appointed to the United States District Court for the Northern District of Oklahoma, Watt Tieder was retained as counsel and I acted as the lead counsel throughout these proceedings from June 2020 to present. I am familiar with the pleadings and the procedural history of the proceedings before and after Watt Tieder was retained. I am familiar with, and participated in discovery, motions practice, and trial of this Adversary Proceeding.

3. Watt Tieder and Saul Ewing attorneys (collectively, "Transco's counsel") performed an extensive review of the invoices attached to Welded's Application for Attorneys' Fees and Expenses (the "Application"). Transco's counsel reviewed and compared Welded's attorneys' fees as presented in the Young Conaway invoices ("YCST time entries") by cross-referencing pleadings and other filed papers in the core bankruptcy proceeding, other adversary proceedings, and the Adversary Proceeding with the YCST time entry dates and descriptions, and sorting and reviewing by specific YCST time keepers, tasks, and time periods. In concert with and following that review, Transco's counsel quantified specific objectionable categories of Welded's attorneys' fees as presented in the Young Conaway invoices ("YCST time entries"). The disputed YCST time entries, including the hours, fees, dates, and descriptions are described herein and set forth in the appendices attached hereto.

4. Transco identified several YCST time entries that are clearly unrelated to the Adversary Proceeding, and based upon the descriptions and dates provided, are related to fees associated with the core bankruptcy proceeding and other unrelated litigation. Transco identified a total of 36.4 hours worth $21,265.50 in YCST time entries that pertain to the core bankruptcy case and other litigation that Welded included in its Application, based on the descriptions and dates of the time entries. These disputed YCST time entries are listed in Appendix 1 to this Declaration.

5. Before and during the pendency of this Adversary Proceeding, Welded was a party to 103 other adversary proceedings, or other civil litigation filed after the Petition Date. Welded commenced 38 separate adversary proceedings on October 20, 2022. Transco identified several YCST time entries that are unrelated to the Adversary Proceeding, and based upon the descriptions and dates provided, are related to fees associated with other Debtor adversary proceedings or civil actions. Transco identified a total of 48.1 hours worth $18,550.00 in YCST time entries that, based on the descriptions and dates, pertain to other unrelated adversary proceedings or litigation that Welded included in its Application. These disputed YCST time entries are listed in Appendix 2 to this Declaration.

6. Transco identified several YCST time entries that relate to Debtors' adversary proceedings, but based upon the descriptions and dates provided, it is indeterminable which adversary proceeding these fees pertain to. All of these YCST time entries were coded to "B011" which YCST utilized as its general bankruptcy task code, and not the B768 task code utilized for the Adversary Proceeding. Transco identified a total of 232.6 hours worth $116,354.00 in YCST time entries that correspond generally to adversary proceedings or other litigation that Welded included in its Application that are too vague to clearly be attributable to the Adversary Proceeding between Welded and Transco. These disputed YCST time entries are listed in Appendix 3 to this Declaration.

7. Transco identified several YCST time entries that relate to Debtors' funding arrangements, budgeting, and payment for legal services, which occurred in relation to the Litigation Funding Agreement with Federal. Transco's counsel identified a total of 43.3 hours worth $24,466.50 in YCST time entries that correspond to financial arrangements based upon the dates and descriptions of the time entries. These disputed YCST time entries are listed in Appendix 4 to this Declaration.

8. Transco identified several YCST time entries that correspond to administrative work being performed by attorneys or paralegals, including file and document management, and other tasks typically performed by non-billable support staff. Transco identified a total of 44.9 hours worth $21,035.00 in YCST time entries that correspond to administrative tasks performed and billed by attorneys or paralegals based upon the time entry descriptions. These disputed YCST time entries are listed in Appendix 5 to this Declaration.

9. Transco identified several YCST time entries that correspond to vague and general "litigation strategy" and "case strategy" analysis without further description or support. Transco's counsel identified a total of 569.4 hours in YCST time entries totaling $317,471.50 that correspond to "litigation strategy" based upon the time entry descriptions. These disputed YCST time entries are listed in Appendix 6 to this Declaration.

10. Transco identified several YCST time entries that correspond generally to "Williams litigation," do not include descriptions pertaining to Transco or the claims and defenses by and against Transco in the Adversary Proceeding, and are not otherwise distinguishable between Defendant(s) or claims, and based on the date and description can reasonably be attributable, in part, to the pursuit of claims against the Williams parties. Transco identified 644.4 hours in YCST time entries totaling $332,237.00 that fall within this category and these disputed YCST time entries are listed in Appendix 7 to this Declaration. This amount only addresses YCST time entries up until the service of the discovery requests on the Williams Co. and Williams Partners on January 8 and 17, 2020, as work thereafter was focused on Transco's discovery requests and the issues that were ultimately tried in the Adversary Proceeding. This amount includes YCST time entries totaling $1,814.00 that correspond to written discovery pertaining to the Williams Parties, and not Transco, based upon the dates and descriptions associated with the time entries.

11. Transco identified the YCST time entries that correspond to Welded's opposition to Defendants' Motion to (I) Abstain, or (II) in the Alternative, Transfer Venue, or (III) in the Alternative, Dismiss Certain Counts of the Complaint (the "Motion to Dismiss"). Transco identified a total of 257.6 hours worth $125,914.50 in YCST time entries that correspond to the Motion to Dismiss. These disputed YCST time entries are listed in Appendix 8 to this Declaration.

12. Transco identified the YCST time entries that correspond to Welded's opposition to Defendants' Motion to Withdraw the Reference (the "MTWR") pertaining to Welded's claims only against the Williams Parties filed by the Williams Parties in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware. Transco identified 217.7 hours in YCST time entries totaling $112,308.00 that correspond to the MTWR. These disputed YCST time entries are listed in Appendix 9 to this Declaration.

13. Transco identified the YCST time entries that correspond to the retention, collaboration with, report preparation and review, deposition preparation and defense, and general work with Dr. Peter Singh of PolymaPro who was retained to investigate and to provide expert testimony in defense of Transco's claim for compensatory damages associated with pipeline defects caused by Welded on the Project. Dr. Singh prepared an expert report and was deposed in the Adversary Proceeding, but Welded did not call him to testify at trial. Transco's counsel identified 133.1 hours of YCST time entries totaling $80,417.50 that correspond to their work with Dr. Singh. These disputed YCST time entries are listed in Appendix 10 to this Declaration.

14. Transco identified the YCST time entries that correspond to Welded's defense against Transco's claim for compensatory damages associated with pipeline defects caused by Welded on the Project and the corresponding claim related to Transco's Proof of Claim 632. Transco identified 128.2 hours of YCST time entries totaling $68,297.50 that correspond to this claim based upon the dates and descriptions of the time entries. These disputed YCST time entries are listed in Appendix 11 to this Declaration, and exclude all YCST time entries that may relate to these claims, but are encompassed in YCST time entries relating to Welded's experts referenced herein.

15. Transco identified the YCST time entries that correspond to the retention, collaboration with, report preparation and review, deposition preparation and defense, trial preparation and presentation, and general work with Dennis Kakol of Contech in support of Welded's claim for the schedule incentive/bonus under the Contract and in defense of Transco's claim for the schedule penalty under the Contract for Welded's failure to achieve Mechanical Completion on the Project by the Contractual milestone date, as well as addressing other Transco counterclaims such as weld repairs and defective work. Transco identified 153.6 hours of YCST time entries totaling $92,784.50 that correspond to YCST's work with Mr. Kakol, based on the dates and descriptions of the time entries. These disputed YCST time entries are listed in Appendix 12 to this Declaration.

16. Transco identified several YCST time entries that relate to or involve work with Welded's three retained experts, but based upon the descriptions and dates provided, it is indeterminable to which expert these fees pertain. Transco's counsel identified a total of 810.5 hours in YCST time entries totaling $498,344.95 that correspond generally to its three experts that Welded included in its Application that are too vague to clearly be attributable to any specific expert. These disputed YCST time entries are listed in Appendix 13 to this Declaration.

17. Transco identified the YCST time entries that correspond to expert report review and analysis, deposition preparation and taking, motions for testimony exclusion, trial preparation and cross-examination, and other general defense against the expert testimony of Transco's retained expert, Brian Triche of Lighthouse Consulting. Mr. Triche presented expert testimony regarding Transco's claim for the schedule penalty under the Contract for Welded's failure to achieve Mechanical Completion on the Project by the Contractual milestone date, as well as weld repair costs and Welded's other defective and unnecessary work on the Project. Transco identified 100.1 hours of YCST time entries totaling $63,949.50 that correspond to addressing the opinions of Mr. Triche, based on the dates and descriptions of the time entries. These disputed YCST time entries are listed in Appendix 14 to this Declaration.

18. Transco identified the YCST time entries that correspond to Welded's first Motion for Partial Summary Judgment on the Application of CASPA filed on October 28, 2019, prior to the filing of Initial Disclosures, exchange of discovery requests or any discovery in the Adversary Proceeding (the "CASPA MSJ"). The CASPA MSJ was denied by Judge Christopher Sontchi. Transco's counsel identified 251 hours within YCST's time entries totaling $140,835.50 that correspond to the CASPA MSJ. These disputed YCST time entries are listed in Appendix 15 to this Declaration.

19. Transco identified the YCST time entries that correspond to Welded's opposition to Defendants' Motion to Compel Production of Corporate Representative and Documents ("MTC") filed by Transco on January 27, 2021. The Court granted Transco's MTC and Welded was ordered to produce a corporate representative for deposition on certain noticed topics pertaining directly to Welded's damages calculation in the Complaint filed in the Adversary Proceeding. Transco's counsel identified 94.9 hours within YCST's time entries totaling $52,847.00 that correspond to the MTC. These disputed YCST time entries are listed in Appendix 16 to this Declaration.

20. Transco identified the YCST time entries that correspond to Welded's Motion to Quash and opposition to Defendants' Motion for Authority to Proceed relating to the deposition of Welded's former employee and General Superintendent, Scott Schoenherr. The Court granted Transco's Motion to Proceed with Mr. Schoenherr's deposition. Transco's counsel identified 25.6 hours within YCST's time entries totaling $15,803.00 that correspond to Welded's obstruction of Schoenherr's deposition. These disputed YCST time entries are listed in Appendix 17 to this Declaration.

21. Transco identified the YCST time entries that correspond to Welded's Motion for an Order (I) Enforcing the Waiver Orders and (II) Imposing Sanctions filed on August 27, 2021 (the "Sanctions Motion"). The Court concluded that it would not sanction Defendants and that Welded's Sanctions Motion was therefore denied. Transco's counsel identified 102.9 hours within YCST's time entries totaling $60,172.50 that correspond to the Sanctions Motion based on the dates and descriptions of the time entries. These disputed YCST time entries are listed in Appendix 18 to this Declaration.

22. Transco identified several YCST time entries that pertain to the same general task which was performed by multiple attorneys and which collectively yield an excessive amount of time spent. These tasks include work on 1) Welded's prehearing brief and the Parties' joint pretrial order; 2) Welded's post-hearing brief; 3) mediation preparation and attendance; and 4) other excess time spent on various tasks including deposition outlines, argument preparation, and written submissions to the Court. Transco's counsel identified YCST time entries totaling 290 hours and $177,935.50 that correspond to the prehearing brief and joint pretrial order by 12 timekeepers. These disputed YCST time entries are listed in Appendix 19 to this Declaration. Transco's counsel identified YCST time entries totaling 897.6 hours and $509,630.00 that correspond to preparation of the 60-page post-hearing brief by 11 timekeepers. These disputed YCST time entries are listed in Appendix 20 to this Declaration. Transco's counsel identified YCST time entries totaling 328.70 hours and $216,626.50 that correspond to the mediation held between the Parties in 2022. These disputed YCST time entries are listed in Appendix 21 to this Declaration.

23. Transco identified several YCST time entries that demonstrate that multiple non-participatory attorneys attended depositions, arguments, and the trial of the Adversary Proceeding. Attorneys Neiburg and Guerke were the two Young Conaway attorneys to address the Court and witnesses at the trial. Attorney Buchanan attended trial every day, read certain deposition designations into the record but did not otherwise address the Court or witnesses. Attorney Lambe was the principal associate on the matter according to YCST invoices and also attended trial every day, but did not address the Court or witnesses. In addition, Attorneys Beach, Fortunato, and Eastes attended the trial for all or a portion of the two weeks, but did not address the Court or witnesses. Transco identified YCST time entries totaling 192.80 hours and $106,156.50 that correspond to attorneys attending but not participating in hearings, conferences, meeetings, and depositions. Of those YCST time entries, 123.60 hours and $64,801.50 correspond to trial attendance by Beach, Fortunato, and Eastes. These disputed YCST time entries are listed in Appendix 22 to this Declaration.

24. Transco identified several YCST time entries that are vague and generalized, and lacking support or description sufficient to identify what the time entries pertain to or whether they are connected to the Adversary Proceeding or Welded's claims and defenses against Transco that yielded the CASPA fee award. Transco conservatively identified a total of 200.50 hours of vague and indiscernible YCST time entries that total $129,451.50. These disputed YCST time entries are listed in Appendix 23 to this Declaration.

25. Transco identified several YCST time entries from senior partners for work that is typically performed by paralegals, associates, and law clerks. Transco identified YCST time entries totaling 412.90 hours and $299,284.50 that correspond to partners performing lower-level tasks, including research, initial document review, document review for production and drafting basic pleadings and memorandums. These disputed YCST time entries are listed in Appendix 24 to this Declaration.

26. Transco identified several YCST time entries that pertain to investigating, discussing, and traveling and attending hearings for other matters in Pennsylvania court where Transco was actively involved. Transco's counsel identified YCST time entries totaling 30.7 hours and $19,315.00 that correspond to these unrelated proceedings. These disputed YCST time entries are listed in Appendix 25 to this Declaration.

27. Transco identified several YCST time entries that pertain to legal consultation on ongoing active Project work based on the dates and descriptions of the time entries. These time entries pertain to invoicing under the Commitment Letters and related issues, occurring after Welded filed its Petition and up through commencement of the Adversary Proceeding in 2019. Transco identified YCST time entries totaling 11.5 hours and $6,586.00 that correspond to legal counseling on active Project work. These disputed YCST time entries are listed in Appendix 26 to this Declaration.

28. Transco identified 30 YCST timekeepers who billed individually less than 100 total hours to the Adversary Proceeding. This represents less than 1% of the hours claimed in the Welded Fee Application for transient timekeepers who did not perform significant work on the file and includes partners, associates, law clerks, summer associates, and paralegals. Transco identified YCST time entries of 796.1 hours totaling $292,415.00 by YCST timekeepers who had minimal and transient involvement with the Adversary Proceeding. These disputed YCST time entries are listed in Appendix 27 to this Declaration.

29. Transco identified several YCST time entries where YCST timekeepers invoiced using their regular increased rates rather than the agreed-upon frozen rates. The Neiburg Declaration supports the reasonableness of Young Conaway rates by stipulating to a rate freeze, and providing that Young Conaway provided a "credit" of $305,346.50 for mischarging rates after 2021 in its Application based on its failure to account for the frozen rates in some instances, reducing its total claimed attorneys' fees to $10,588,011.47 [Adv. D.I. 480, Neiburg Decl. ¶¶ 13-14]. However, Transco identified YCST time entries totaling 3,897.70 hours and $2,683,171.47 that were charged by attorneys at the higher hourly rates, resulting in what should be a credit of $360,554.47, not $305,346.50, a $55,207.97 difference in Transco's favor. These disputed YCST time entries are listed in Appendix 28 to this Declaration.

30. Transco identified certain itemized fees in the DLS invoices attached to Welded's Application as Exhibit 78 for monthly rolling binder cart rentals from September, 2023 to April, 2024. These itemized fees total $22,050.00 and are listed in Appendix 29 to this Declaration.

31. Transco identified certain itemized fees in the DLS invoices attached to Welded's Application as Exhibit 78 for monthly Relativity (document database) user licenses for certain YCST timekeepers who were not working on this Adversary Proceeding in that time period. These itemized fees total $12,843.94 and are listed in Appendix 30 to this Declaration.

32. The quantified YCST time entries that form the bases for the total dollar amounts for each disputed category discussed herein reflect the proper adjustments to rates based upon the agreed-upon rate freeze, so that no YCST time entries are overstated.

33. The quantified YCST time entries that form the bases for the total dollar amounts for each disputed category discussed herein have been adjusted in both time and description to reflect only the portions of the original time entries as presented in the YCST invoices attached to the Application that actually correspond to the disputed category, where such adjustments could be made. For instance, where a single YCST time entry contained numerous billable tasks, Transco extracted only the billable tasks or portions thereof and corresponding partial time that was objectionable to include in the Appendices attached to this Declaration, as applicable. For the YCST time entries where this applies, the word "Partial" is denoted on the Appendices attached to this Declaration.

34. Transco identified numerous YCST time entries that could be categorized in multiple of the above disputes fees and corresponding appendices. However, the quantified YCST time entries discussed herein and represented in the attached appendices are only quantified once where Transco asserts Welded's fees are subject to a fixed-sum reduction. Transco does not seek multiple quantified reductions for any single YCST time entry YCST time entries, to ensure that unallowable hours/fees would only be offered for a quantifiable deduction once.
